

ARCHITECTURE, ADVERTISING & AUTOMOBILES

We shape our buildings; thereafter they shape us.
-Winston Churchill

The ultimate goal of the architect... is to create a paradise. Every house, every product of architecture... should be a fruit of our endeavour to build an earthly paradise for people.
-Alvar Aalto

INTRODUCTION

We can do so much better in our politics—architecture as ‘exhibit A’ of our abilities to be EXCELLENT.

What's the future of architecture? A great place to learn is to study history and trends, and going to see state of the art hospitals, hotels, schools, churches, homes and especially skyscrapers.

ARCHITECTURE ARCHIVES

Any American architecture student is welcome to borrow our extensive display of idea-generating research and pictures, but only by means where none can be 'misplaced.'

Description

1. Notebooks full of Xeroxed images in these categories: Homes, buildings, famous architects, history, design styles, materials, symbolism & dictionary

2. Pictorial calendars of the world's finest buildings and skylines

- 3-4. Classic texts to learn shapes and styles (can software now create all possible unique shapes?)

Architecture: From Prehistory to Post-Modernism, by Trachtenburg and Hyman

Architectural Graphics, by Francis Ching

Architecture: A Visual History, by James Neal

Pictorial Encyclopedia of Historic Architectural Plans, Details and Elements, by John Theodore Haneman

Illustrated Dictionary of Architecture, by Ernest Burden

Architecture For Dummies, by Deborah Dietsch

A Concise Glossary of Architectural Terms, by John Henry Parker

Architecture: Form Shape & Order, by Francis Ching

4. Samples of my shapes research and practicing

5-6. Photos of good residential architecture (mainly Houston and Dallas)

7-8. Samples of residential architecture magazines (and floor plans)

9. Samples of home builder brochures

10. My 7 cassettes full of music snippets

JOB OFFERS?

UNTIL SUCH TIME AS I AM ALLOWED TO PURSUE MY TRUE PASSION—POLITICS—I WOULD BE HAPPY TO CONSIDER PROFESSIONAL FREELANCE OPPORTUNITIES IN THE AREAS OF:

ARCHITECTURE STIMULATOR

An insightful graduate architecture professor of design at Texas A & M University once used a brilliant method for elucidating the core concept of given structures. His computer-generated slide show showed many buildings (and houses), visible in rapid succession (1-3 seconds each), and asked the students to write down one word depictions/summaries of what we saw in each slide. Following is my list, to give the gist of possible design concepts (alphabetized for ease of read):

Adaptive	Eclectic	Inverse	Pure	Spiked/Pointed
Aerial	Education	Island	Pyramid	Spiny
Aging	Eggs	Jagged	Queen	Split
Angle	Elevated	Jump	Rain	Stable
Arched	Empty	Jut	Raised	Stain
Arranged/Orchestrate	Entrance	L shape	Ramp	Stakes
Art	Epcot Center	Landscape	Random	Stationary
Ascend	Eternity	Layered	Reflect	Steel
Balcony	Ethereal	Lean/Prop	Religion/Sacred	Steeple
Balloon	Extrude	Legacy	Reputation	Stellar
Base	Eye	Letters	Rhythmic	Sterile
Beam	Façade	Levels	Ridge	Stilts
Blur	Fireplace	Lobby	Right angled	Structure
Bow/Curve	Flags	Loft	Rings/Spiral	Studious
Box	Float	Logs	Risk	Sunshine
Bright	Flow	Lookout	Rocks	Suspended
Bubble	Flowers	Looped	Rod	Tall
Bugs/Organic	Fly	Machine	Rough	Tension
Bullet	Fog	Metal	Round	Tent
Burn	Form	Mist	Rudders	Theater
Cables/Tension	Foundation	Modern	Rugged	Thin
Clean	Function	Monument	Rust	Tight
Cliff	Funky/Strange	Mosaic	Saber/Laser	Tilt
Closed	Futuristic	Mountain	Scenery	Together/Separate
Color	Gaping hole	Movement	Sculpture	Top heavy
Column	Gehry/Broken	Narrow	Secretive	Tower
Comfort	Geometry	Nature	Secure	Tradition
Combination	Glass	New	See through	Train station
Complex	Glass ceiling	Night	Sex	Trees/Linear
Concave	Glow	Nowhere	Shadowed	Triangle
Concrete	Gradated	Oblong/Askew	Sharp	Turn
Construction	Growing	Opaque	Shear	Twin
Contrast	Halls	Open	Shell	Underground
Corner	Hanging	Open air	Shine	Uniform
Corral	Happy	Opening	Shopping	Unique
Courtyard	Hatch	Organized	Short	Unit
Cove	Heavy on light	Outline	Silent	Up
Covered	High	Overhang	Simple	Uplighting
Cow	Hope/Uplift	Painting/Neon	Skeleton	Vented
Crater	Horizontal	Pattern	Skin (off)	Vertical
Crossing/X	Horseshoe	Pensive	Skylight	View
Danger	Huge	Plain	Slant	Walking
Daylight	Hypnotic	Pleasing	Slide	Walkway
Detail	Image/Cube	Pod	Smooth	Walls

Disjunctive	Incline	Pole	Solid/Mass	Waterfall
Divergent	Increasing	Polygon	Solution	Window
Dock	Indent	Pool blue	Sparse	Window-less
Domestic	Industrial	Power	Specific	Y frame
Ducks	Inhale	Pre-formed/Round	Sphere	Yellow light
Dynamic	Intricate	Protrude/Bulge	Spider web	Zig Zag

COMPOSITION CHECKLIST

Architects can be involved in the design function of any of the following:

Schools, churches, hotels, airports, restaurants, sky scrapers, high rises, apartments, condominiums, office buildings, government buildings, sports stadiums, hospitals, museums, universities, factories, warehouses, parking garages, retail strip centers, malls, corporate headquarters, homes, furniture, etc. Part of the success of their end product is how skillfully they apply some of the following design techniques:

1. Axis
2. Background/Foreground
3. Balanced
4. Brightness
5. Circulation (movement thru space, approach, entrance, path configuration, path-space relationships)
6. Color
7. Communicative: Clear vs. Vague
8. Completeness
9. Continuity
10. Contrast
11. Curves
12. Datum (line, plane, volume or reference to which other elements relate)
13. Dynamic (cf.: Interesting)
14. Form (articulation of; additive, subtractive, centralized, linear, radial, clustered, grid)
15. Framing
16. Gaps/Spacing
17. Grouping
18. Hierarchy
19. Horizontal/Vertical
20. Interlocking
21. Intensity
22. Line (Direction)
23. Movement
24. Openings (in space-defining elements, within planes, at corners and between planes)
25. Order/Sequence/Organization
26. Pattern
27. Perspective
28. Planes (L and U-shaped, parallel and closed; base, elevated, depressed, overhead, openings between planes, degree of enclosure)
29. Point (Position)
30. Position in Space/on Plane (3-D)
31. Precision

32. Proportion
33. Random/Reason
34. Relations of Elements
35. Repetition
36. Rhythm
37. Rotation
38. Scale (visual and human)
39. Shadows
40. Shape/Form (primary and irregular shapes, edges and corners, collision of geometry, surfaces articulation)
41. Simplicity
42. Size
43. Space (spatial relationships, interlocking, adjacent, space within a space, common linked, etc.)
44. Subtlety
45. Symmetry
46. Tension and Interplay
47. Texture
48. Transformation (dimensional)
49. Transparency
50. Variety
51. Weight (Plane)

FAMOUS ARCHITECTS

Architecture schools vary somewhat on which architects to study (i.e., to receive inspiration and ideas), but most agree that the following are staples of the profession:

Santiago Calatrava

Le Corbusier

Norman Foster

Buckminster Fuller

Antoni Gaudi

Frank Gehry

Michael Graves

Walter Gropius

Philip Johnson

Louis Khan

Rem Koolhaas

Richard Meier

Ludwig Mies van der Rohe

Renzo Piano

Richard Rogers

Louis Henry Sullivan

Robert Venturi

Frank Lloyd Wright

Other.

Tadao Ando. Alvar Aalto. Mario Botta. Herzog & DeMeuron.
Zaha Hadid. Bernard Maybeck. Jean Nouvel. Cesar Pelli.

CAR SHAPES

Note: Using our innovation method of “looks-like,” compare “natural-shaped” lines to those of the most beautiful women (art on four wheels), and see the “shark” silhouette in earlier Camaro (come-arrow) models (among other images on different cars), as examples of what I will refer to as subliminal advertising in design (and possibly one reason why we love them so much), possibly also how John the Apostle viewed our day/era (Ex.: the book of Revelation; Cf.: stealth bomber’s ‘bat’-like shape/look). Also see historic trend from boxy to slanted to curvy to egg/bubble shapes (primarily from science’s wind-resilient aerodynamic studies).

PERSONAL HISTORY

Evidence (below) of my multi-decades long involvement in new car design, and tribute to Roger Peterson (best freehand doodler I ever personally knew) and Glynn Witte (RIP), Edison Junior High, Champaign, IL, (1972-1974). If any automobile manufacturing company's design team could use the freelance services of one with proven innovative design ideas, I am available!

OTHER BOOKS BY THE AUTHOR

We welcome you to inform yourself on some of the most important subjects of life—Religion, Politics, Business & Innovation. With that aim in mind, feel free to check out any of these helpful reads:

- Wit & Wisdom: Don't Speak About Politics or Religion (A Voter's Manifesto)

Our blockbuster live-tweeted book, that significantly changed American politics and Christianity from 2014 to 2018 (and which many of the world's VIP's have already seen written, and warmly received).

- Dumb as a Donkey, Fat as an Elephant: Common Ground Through Common Sense for the Common Good

Over 2,000 unique, new products ideas inside—FREE!

Our landmark book on how “We the people” can change Washington for the good (and to do good, both in policies and practice), using common sense to secure unifying solutions, efficiently and within budget.

- The Way Things Ought To Be: A Global Vision for a Better World

Over 500 unique, new products ideas inside—FREE!

Common sense solutions to most of the world's problems, both globally and domestically.

- Building a Billionaire Business: Proven Principles to Propel Profits

Over 500 unique, new products ideas inside—FREE!

Business and economy improvement primer, as well as aiding consumers and employees in maximizing their dollars earned and spent.

- Design Your Future: Innovation Strategies for the 21st Century

The ‘magic’ behind our over 4,700+ new product ideas (strewn throughout four books) is explained, including the best speech EVER to inspire and teach anyone (and any business) to become profitably innovative.

- Practical Prophecy for an Unsuspecting World

Over 500 unique, new products ideas inside—FREE!

Anyone interested in knowing the basics of coming/future world events will get simple explanations, as well as relevant predictions and trend analyses concerning prophecy timing.

- Advanced Prophecy Handbook

A more scholarly summary of most prophecy questions, including an encyclopedic covering of issues from A to Z, timetable and event detail explanations, etc.

- Idioms for Innovators & Immigrants

Anyone desiring to understand (or appeal to) America's pop culture, advertising and values, thousands of common expressions we use in everyday expression are defined in common usage.

- The Gospel According to God

The most thorough, Bible-based treatise on what it takes for a person to go to Heaven. Documenting and critiquing the two major views of the historic Lordship Salvation vs. Saviorhood Salvation controversy.

- New Testament Color Charts

These charts graphically explain the meaning and layout of God's latest Testament, using pictures, colors and text. It allows an easy understanding of context and perspective when studying the Bible.

ADVERTISING

With over 10 years advertising experience, and proven creative ability in all our published works, if any New York (or elsewhere) advertising firm could use a freelance ideas man, I am available. As a clear example of how our society has moved to pics over text, please consider the following and honestly answer the question, “which ad more interests you?” Beautiful women, both, and they both depict over- and under-verbalizing in messages (I’m not even sure what the darker ad is selling, nor is everything in the ad necessarily in good, moral taste, but I am sure interested). However, white space and getting attention are major keys (prioritized balance). As my buddy at OfficeMax (who scanned them for me) said, that’s like reading the Yellow Pages, and a magazine ad for the back or that I’d skim past. Fully accurate prose, I’m sure, but examples of too much and too little vs. just right.

Single?.. *Successful, Attractive,
Selective... Simply too busy?*

5 TOP REASONS why single professional men and women choose & Associates to find their perfect mate:

- 1. OUR FIRM: Established almost twenty years ago, & Associates is not a franchise. We are a family owned and operated company well known for our personable approach. We have representatives in over 14 metropolitan cities and work with you like an executive search firm in finding you a suitable partner.
- 2. OUR EXPERIENCE: & Associates is the preeminent name in Matchmaking. With fully staffed offices across the country, and the experience of working with thousands of single men and women, our dedicated associates have what it takes to find you the right one!
- 3. OUR EXCEPTIONAL CLIENTELE: & Associates is not a dating service and we are not for everyone. Our exclusive clientele are picky and so are we. They are sophisticated, educated, selective professionals. Passionate about who they are and what they have accomplished, they are excited to share their life with someone special.
- 4. OUR PROCESS: & Associates works closely with you in our search. We are not interested in setting you up for a Saturday night date. We are dedicated to helping you find the love of your life.
- 5. OUR SUCCESS RATE: With hundreds of marriages to our credit, and an 85% success rate for relationships, & Associates is unparalleled in this field.

For more tips on effective advertising, and how it can make your business grow, see our book, Building a Billionaire Business. For information on MOTIVATING responses to your advertising and product or service, see our advertising section in Dumb as a Donkey, Fat as an Elephant, as well as our free information on motivation at willYouLiveForever.org (Search: “Biblical Motivation”).

MOTIVATION: Why We Buy
(or Why Ads Sell & Are Effective)

As a gift to another. As an escape. As part of a collection. Babies. Bandwagon (everyone's doing it). Because it looks good. Because we can (to prove so). Because we got tricked, suckered or scammed/lie to. Because we have unused credit. Because we've had a bad day. Celebrities or heroes use it. Compulsion/have to. Desire/want to. Education. Empathy. Envy. Fear. For an upgrade from the past. For fun. For relaxation. For self realization. Guilt. It's on sale. It smells good. It sounds good. It was convenient to buy. It's green ('saves' the earth). Legally required to (rare). Limited time offer (urgency). Low price, or bargain. Necessity. Nostalgia. Peer pressure. Pride. Puppies and small animals. Rare, unique item. Revenge. Self expression. Sex. Spontaneous purchase (impulse buying). Taking up a challenge (or dare). To be among the first. To be unique. To comfort ourselves (Ex.: 'comfort foods'). To express independence. To feel good about ourselves (self esteem). To fix a problem. To get in shape. To help others. To impress others. To keep up with the Jones' (status/prestige). To look smart. To make a political statement. To make a religious statement. To make money off it (i.e., re-sell or use in business). To save energy exertion/effort. To save money. To save time. To seem modern, hip, to be cool. To show off to strangers (or friends and family). To use it or lose it. Upward mobility. We 'deserve' it. We like the sales person (or his show). We liked the company's ad. Etc.

ADVERTISING METHODOLOGY

With advertising becoming more entertaining and ubiquitous, the following abbreviated list of subjects for future ads is given for the benefit of both business and the consuming public.

Types of ads (list):	Q & A	Sarcasm	Humor	Extreme/exaggeration	Opposite/lie vs. facts
Imitation of famous person	Style: country, rap, etc. (genre)	Testimonial	Facts spewing	Trivia contest	Historical event (incl. TV, movies)
Make a wish/dream	Famous rock song intro or background	Family problems	Re-word famous songs	Purposely misunderstand	Play on words
Top 10 reasons to/not to (down objections)	Craziness (“saves you money”)	Song jingle	Mission statement	Other country or cultural scene/setting	Props
Your life experiences (Seinfeld ex.)	Stunt man (Guinness Book ex.)	Alternatives (old hat)—bandwagon effect	Two people dialoguing (butter)	Rhymes (bigger the burger the better the burger)	Driving
Sports	News	Ventriloquist	Mime	juggler	auctioneer (legal boilerplate)
Famous endorsements	Cowboy Youth events as a kid (ex.: retro songs and games and products)	Inspirational music	Famous 1-liners or quotes (and re-do them)	Personal self-talk thoughts	Others’ viewpoint on your actions (ex.: car sales yeller)
Pep rally MLM	Salesmen	Heal!—Evangelists (mockery)	Perfect state impossible products	How our products and lifestyle will look looking back 50 years	Stand-up comics
Opposites: first/second; up vs. down	Stuffy, rich, uppity British guy	Mock TV shows (Nanny+)	Ballerina	State a fact and apply to a company	Cosby Show kids’ thoughts on life
Cynics, doubters and negative people	Corny, homespun song	Imitate others’ commercials	The way we spoke, dressed in an era (ex.: 70’s)	Disney	President
Parody	Christmas (holidays)	Repeat company name or phone number	CEO decision (perspectives) scenario	Babies	Baby pets
Diaper duty	Religion	Breaking news	Tragedies	USA nationalism	Politics image
Natural scenes—mountain, caverns, caves, volcano	Sex sells	Decision-making thought process spoken aloud	What if (what could be—imagination)	Change a word (ex.: fabric-gate)	Bum

And for great idea-generating methods for advertising, comedy (and even music and architecture), don’t miss our FIGURES OF SPEECH subject in our IDIOMS section.

ADVERTISING APPLICATION:
Idioms & Figures of Speech Quiz

The sole purpose of business is service. The sole purpose of advertising is explaining the service which business renders. -Leo Burnett

Advertising is the ability to sense, interpret... to put the very heart throbs of a business into type, paper and ink. -Leo Burnett

As you read this small list I grabbed off 2 hours of TV watching, note what techniques, idioms and figures of speech they are using to get your attention and interest (and note how wide-spread are the applications of an advertising methodology).

Note: A list of 105 figures of speech is in our "Idioms" section.

Business:

Advil: Advil nips it in the bud. Take action take Advil.

Braum's Ice cream: Once in a blue moon. (blue cheese bacon burger)

Butterfinger: Don't lay a finger on my Butterfinger.

Chuck E Cheese: Where a kid can be a kid

Claritin: Be Claritin clear.

Coppertone: Stand up to blood, sweat and tears.

Fruttare: Look on the bright side.

Home Depot: More saving more doing.

Old Navy: Come fun come all.

Petco: Petco—Where the pets go.

Quilted Northern: Comfortable confident clean.

Red Lobster: We seafood differently.

Yoplait: Swappportunity.

Charities: Doing more good; Not charity but a chance. (Goodwill)

Churches: The oasis of love.

Cities: What happens in Vegas stays in Vegas.

Small business:

At ABC Pest Control these [kids] are the only pests we allow in our homes.

Stanley Steamer gets your home cleaner.

Sports teams: Step up to the plate. (Houston Astros)

State governments: Don't mess with Texas; No pass no play.

TV shows: Deal or No Deal; Minute to win it.

COMEDY METHODOLOGY

(Study the Masters)

Vary from serious to funny to serious (i.e., drama). Self-deprecating humor. Exaggerate. Use extremes. Politely embarrass others. Use a different and unexpected application (Ex.: Johnny Carson's applause sign taken to master bedroom). Insult employer's faults (cheapness) with understatement (Ex.: NBC made me employee of the month). Describe someone (or something) obvious, then make a switch. Use sexual innuendo. Be real. Use double entendres. Imitate another's most-prominent (or unique) features. Play out stereotypes. Read into people's actions. Think others' thought for them. Act crazy (Ex.: Pepperidge Farm's Jingo's commercial). Say what people are thinking but unwilling to say (i.e., transparency). Change words to songs. Be real. Appeal to all generations (vs. just your own). Re-define or mis-name something. Gutter humor. Make wacky, un-useable products. Name something for the first time (Ex.: Snigglets). Mock something. Attribute funny motives. Balance contrasts (Ex.: old vs. young). Be straight-faced and never laugh at your own jokes. Use different definition for the same word. Insult people who wear their heart on their sleeves (or, as SNL did, people who act immediately after thinking of an idea; Cf.: the loud family)—address things that are different, unique or never found in real life. Use rhyme to tell a funny story. Make facial gestures like the animals you are hosting. Make fun of politician miscues or mis-speech. Use looks like and sounds like. Put captions to pictures. Use news events for humor. Engage the crowd for their talents (or pet tricks, Letterman). Speak near cussing (Ex.: Fuddruckers). Use funny names for caricatures. Use alliterations (Ex.: I don't give a hoot or holler). Imitate accents and how people pronounce words. Ventriloquist humor. Mis-define (Ex.: Garfield's 'I resemble that remark'). Use funny-sounding words. Combine names into funny ways (Ex.: Leno wedding announcements). Talk fast, like an auctioneer. Act like a kid (Ex.: saying moo to a cow). Tell stories. Prank someone (i.e., practical jokes). People watch. Do skits. Make fun of dorky TV ads. Mock what is normal. Show kids' funny answers (Ex.: Bill Cosby). Think out loud. Use analogies. Slap stick (Ex.: Chevy Chase). Crazy speed humor (Ex.: Robin Williams). Show the public's ignorance and wrong assumptions. Do the unexpected. Use plays on words. Interview funny people. Attribute a wrong cause, wrong conclusion from facts. Go from deep to shallow (ease tension). Build to a climax. Use cliff hangers? Pretend to do the impossible. Use logical conclusions (Ex.: Howie Mandell had seemingly blind guy pee on lazy river riders). Funny what if's (Ex.: remade history, if 2 people had met, generations separated). Use historical figures. Mock celebrity mistakes. See also: Johnny Carson, Steve Martin, George Carlin and Eddie Murphy techniques. Apologies to the many other experts left out.

COMEDY & FIGURES OF SPEECH:

As in acting school (I imagine), when they tell you to act like a dolphin, you start jumping and making a noise—their most prominent features. Likewise, observe a person's most prominent feature(s) and see if you can find humor there. Ex.: if their hair is a mess, name then Phyllis Diller. Tie to movies, TV or songs, as these are common and therefore relatable experiences in our culture. Here are other, well-known examples of comedy methods applied:

Your barn door's open (i.e., zipper).

[Yawning] Have you caught any flies today?

He [buck-toothed Reggie] looks like Mr. Ed. –The Nutty Professor

John Belushi: 'What am I now? A zit.' –Animal House. Looks like method.

Denial is a river in Egypt. Sounds like method.

When the garbage truck is coming, tell your kids, 'here comes the 'stink pot.'" Funny terms method.

You're going the wrong way. How do they know where we're going? He's drunk. –Planes, trains & Automobiles.

Nice [door] knockers. Thanks. –Young Frankenstein.

Nurse: I need to draw your blood. Patient: Great, here's a red pencil. Mis-define method.

Self deprecating (not defecating/poo pooing on yourself) humor. Mis-speak method.

Abnormal rain—Abbie Normal. –Young Frankenstein. Mis-understand method.

Afraid not. Frayed knot (humor). Mis-hear method.

I resemble [vs. resent] that remark. –Garfield the Cat. Opposite intention method.

Steve Martin vs. Kevin Bacon NCY taxi chase and St. Louis rent-a-car parking lot scene. –Planes, Trains & Automobiles. Comedy of Errors/Murphy's law method.

Grumpy old men [funny, because so many do act this way when they get older. It wouldn't have resonance if there were no reality behind it]. Stereotype method.

Shower curtain rod salesman saying they are ivory, were worn by Diane Sawyer, etc. –Planes, Trains & Automobiles. Making fun of or Exaggeration method. [i.e., a lying sales person stereotype].

Take a picture—it lasts longer. –Planes, Trains & Automobiles [adapted from youth speak].

Eddie Murphy on Reggie's tooth gap [field goal]. "It's good—it's all good." –The Nutty Professor. Exaggeration method.

Phone scams (Ex.: Dean and Rodge birthday scams in Houston). Play on fears &/or Circumstances method.

Cop: Do you feel your car is drivable? John Candy: Yes, yes officer. It may not be pretty but it gets you where you want to go. –Planes, Trains & Automobiles. Self-delusion or Justification method.

What would you get if you combined Wipeout with Survivor? Hosts who could watch paint dry and still have a comment to fill every second of air time. What if & annoyance methods.

Do the unexpected or unusual or what could never happen (for drama). Go to the extreme method.

Find your own examples of the Taboo &/or unexpected method. Ex.: Archie Bunker 1-liners.

Find your own examples of Overtly or purposely stupid method.

That's 2/3rds of a pun—P.U. Play on words method.

You're a real commode-ian. Pun method.

Those puppies are barking [speaking of public foot odor]. –Planes, trains & Automobiles. Analogy method.

Old as the hills and twice as dusty. Idioms method.

What if the tightrope walker had a Viagra over Niagara? Rhyme method.

ABC [Already Been Chewed] gum. Gross out method.

John Belushi falls off sorority dorm ladder. –Animal House. Gutter humor method (popular, yet likely lowest rung of humor; hence, listed next to last).

Joke: May I Pet Your Dog? Unexpected and Wrongful Assumptions methods

For What It's Worth...

As many of our emotional underpinnings are derived from our childhood ('formative'/impressionable) years, I show my age (as well as some bad taste, morally-speaking) with the following highlights of humor popular at the time (parents beware as some are PG, at best!). Analyze and learn from them their humor methods used (likely available on YouTube—or any remaining Blockbuster video stores):

Movies

1. Mel Brooks' "Young Frankenstein" (awesome use of double entendres, among other devices)
2. Steve Martin's "Planes, Planes and Automobiles" (my all-time favorite)
3. Eddie Murphy's "The Nutty Professor"
4. Mel Brooks' "Blazing Saddles" (dated racial stereotypes more inappropriate today)

Television

5. Steve Martin's "Two Wild and Crazy Guys"
6. Johnny Carson (skits and monologues)
7. Saturday Night Live (skits and political take-offs)
8. Rowan and Martin Laugh-In
9. Dean Martin Roasts
10. Archie Bunker (often mis-concepts and mis-speech)
11. Bill Cosby (Ex.: Kids Say the Darndest Things)
12. Alan Funt's "Candid camera"

Other (including record albums)

13. Cheech and Chong (sometimes risqué)
14. Richard Pryor (often crude)
15. George Carlin (often crude)

You can devise tomorrow's humor by analyzing today and yesterday's humor methodologies (and why they work).

Of course, execution is everything—tone, rhythm and timing, emphasis, facial and eye expressions, etc.

HOME-MADE HUMOR

You know you're a country bumpkin when...

1. Your lawnmower is a cow named Bessie.
2. Dinner is in the back yard.
3. Road kill is a mid-day snack.
4. Your mouthwash is called Skoal (or Copenhagen)
5. Your garage is a red barn.
6. Your family couch is on the front porch.
7. All your vehicles are stockpiled in the yard.
8. Your next door neighbor lives 5 miles away.
9. You have to go to school to learn what pavement is.
10. Your family car is a tractor.
11. Air conditioning is opening the windows in the front and back of your house.
12. Your family pet is a horse.
13. A traffic jam is two horses meeting at the same time at your town's only four way stop.
14. Your driveway is a mile long.
15. Your alarm clock says cock-a-doodle doo.

You know you're old when...

1. Your best friends' named Gertrude, Myrtle, Mildred, Hortence and Henrietta.
2. You have more pills to take than you have teeth.
3. They have to call the fire marshall because your birthday cake has the right number of candles on it.
4. You know what a goiter is.
5. Your idea of an enthralling conversation is discussing your physical ailments.
6. You start every sentence with "when I was your age," or "I remember when."
7. You repeat stories and they get longer every time.
8. Yours is the largest (and slowest) car on the road.
9. Your car blinker wears out from being left on too often.
10. You need several yellow pages books to see over the steering wheel.
11. Your driver's education course was taken atop a horse.
12. You get a ticket for not exceeding the minimum speed.
13. A Sharpe dog mistakes you for a potential mate.
14. Staying up late means 6 p.m.
15. The highlight of your month is Bingo (or reading the Obituary column).

Remember, old rock bands never die, they just play casino venues.

ART, ARCHITECTURE, INVENTIONS & MUSIC

(See also: Inventions & Architecture, at this website's Campaign Updates tab, pp. 120, 140, and our Architecture Afficionado book)

Art (From nature)

Art

There's a REASON most guys are seriously excited or attracted when a beautiful woman enters the room! Art is intuitive, instinctive, and its existence is acknowledged by our subconscious! That's one reason vacays to nature are so refreshing! Beauty buoys the soul! Examples galore! (7/15/23)

THIS is NOT politically correct, but there are standards and principles for art/beauty in female faces and anatomy! There are studies that prove this, as with chiseled bods and cheek bone structures in men. Art may be subjective, but some is clearly great and terrible, too! #PrettyPeople

IMO, the instinctive reason we love beauty, art, great architecture, music and products is we all aspire to heaven and its life of perfection! Babel was that, absent God. With God, we all desire a better world, toward a more perfect union we will only experience in the afterlife! (7/16/23)

Art

(7/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

JUST AS a snakeskin along a hike shows a snake had existed, and had been there, God's art in creation shows he exists! Rom. 1 God's artwork/handiwork as evidence for His existence.

Art & music mesh

Architecture(7/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

My interest in architecture, art, music and products is two-fold:

1. It's man's aspiration for perfection, and a much greater world than we usually experience (inner longing for heaven), and,
 2. It's how I get my frustrations out that evangelizing all people isn't getting done (i.e., perfection)
- Futurists ALWAYS envision space aged homes, like the Jetsons, but we are living on earth, and I know of VERY FEW people who would 'wanna live in a kitchen that looks like you live on Mars, when you look outside and see its only earth! LOW sales potential, IMO! Same w/circular rooms?! (7/31/23)

(7/7-26/23; @JamesMeroney)

@RyanSeacrest PLEASE implement this change! People at home get LESS time to solve the SAME puzzles as contestants, because they see the puzzle board full-time, and we only see it when the camera is on it. Small inset camera shot on the board, constantly! @wheeloffortune (7/7/23)

I once almost applied for a job to re-name Compass Bank, but knew it would be very short-term, and couldn't think of anything that kept the continuity, yet was more relevant and catchy! NEEDED total overhaul, to USA Bank, or America's Bank-IMO. Too much deviation for reputation consistency. (7/21/23)

As I edit a chapter with THOUSANDS of new innovations, I see why the panic buttons of old were available for older people! No one is at home, and I ate hummus and milk, laying down. I might not have been able to get to phone for 911, had I not immediately sat up. #Dangerous Not 'gonna repeat this! (7/21/23)

THIS is AMAZING! In our research of innovation, a north Dallas (flat) neighborhood has their residents FEEL like they're in Florida, or greater, at their local pool! ANYTHING is possible, through thinking differently! (7/26/23)

Analyzing many products, I'm convinced designers, and especially manufacturers, do NOT understand ergonomics, or the natural contours of the human body! We aren't slanted or boxy, but curved, and not even French curves. Get it together, folks! Products conform to YOU! WE made them! DUH. (8/23/23)

Spotify (first time to use it) music from your era erases many cobwebs! I LOVE Classic Rock Greatest Hits. It takes me back to events of younger years! THESE songs really brought back memories!:

- Alive and Kicking (Simple Minds)
- In the Mood (Robert Plant)
- What is Life? (George Harrison)

From researching popular songs from my birth year until today, for me it was 1970 (age 11), when music really got GOOD. The difference between top 100's in 1969 and 1970 is STARK! Rock and roll changed that year and that decade, for the MUCH better! (7/9/23)

Highlands (Song Of Ascent) <https://youtu.be/WXHm2ULTg1U> AMAZING! I finally found a Hillsong song with great music, but the lyrics are not catchy or simple.

Newer Music (1980's forward)

Burn for You (John Farnham) <https://youtu.be/mDJMgANjLwk> Not a bad song, I've never heard, before!

Chasing Cars (Snow Patrol) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GemKqzILV4w>

Ordinary World (Duran Duran) https://youtu.be/vm5iK_tNWAg

Shallow (Lady Gaga, Bradley Cooper) https://youtu.be/bo_efYhYU2A AWESOME lyrics!!!!

Something Just Like This (The Chainsmokers and Coldplay) <https://youtu.be/FM7MFYoylVs>

Visiting Hours (Ed Sheeran) <https://youtu.be/FY8ujdLyRkA> AWESOME song I'd never heard, now on my life's playlist!

Country

I DON'T KNOW COUNTRY MUSIC, ONE BIT! But, for the first time ever, the following retweets will show songs I find good, tolerable, or lyrically amazing. The sound quality of country, today, is way greater than 1980s. I'm relying on Spotify to teach me what songs have been "popular!" (7/22/23)

Amazed (Lonestar) <https://youtu.be/x-skFgrV59A> Definitely a country song I like the music of, along with the lyrics.

Anymore (Travis Tritt) <https://youtu.be/rzE5nbWdKTs> Awesome acoustic guitar, and love song lyrics. Very professionally done song.

Breathe (Faith Hill) https://youtu.be/yCmsZUN4r_s Excellent music quality and voice; didn't even listen to the lyrics, as it was so un-twangy!

Buy Dirt (Jordan Davis) <https://youtu.be/6UpiotASY6o>

Free (Zac Brown Band) <https://youtu.be/yAuwqm0IjIA> Great harmony; again, didnt hear the lyrics, as the quality was so stellar.

I Believe In You (Don Williams) https://youtu.be/-xbqe_GajtQ Several good lyrics on morals

In Case You Didn't Know (Brett Young) <https://youtu.be/5A-nREuD6bE>

Last Night (Morgan Wallen) <https://youtu.be/bUjPPBxbQrQ>

Little Rock (Collin Raye) <https://youtu.be/2kynobz0vq0> Really good harmony, vocals, guitar and piano. Distracted by those, away from the lyrics; mentions church of Christ (religion)

Love Will Turn You Around (Kenny Rogers) <https://youtu.be/OS7QnC98VVI>

More Hearts Than Mine (Ingrid Andress) https://youtu.be/j_A8Zjwr9m0

People Are Crazy (Billy Currington) https://youtu.be/PKpQRjj_WbU MUCH philosophy on life in country songs, including religion. Not just sins (adultery and drunkenness)

Religiously (Bailey Zimmerman) <https://youtu.be/UYCWaK6Sbik> Lyrics are good!

Wildfire (Michael Martin Murphey) <https://youtu.be/Pc3OnSQc48s>

I put that life playlist up against ANY!!!

With my birthday week of musical memories, I'm sure my mom had something to do with it. She was SO into music, here's the CD playlist her granddaughters made when she died, distributed after her funeral. Her favorite songs... (RIP, hero!) See 'ya someday "soon." (7/14/23)

Smile
My favorite things
His eye is on the sparrow
Written in red
God and God alone
Climb every mountain
Close to you
Downtown
Candyman
Acquarius
I honestly love you
A you're adorable (the alphabet song)
That good 'ol Baylor line
There is a Savior
Majesty
Where is love?
In my own little corner
I'm 'gonna wash that man right out of my hair
Love and marriage
Somewhere over the rainbow
Rise again
I can only imagine
