

Christians for Trump

Is God a Democrat or a Republican?

An Expose on Trump's Evangelical Council (AKA, 'the Christian Cabal')

James Meroney, JD/MBA/MDiv ('America's Honest Politician')

Preface

This book is the result of many experiences from 2015-2018, having been tweeted live, and documenting many sinful antics claiming Christians engaged, to support evil in the name of good. It is our personal testimony, and not one word of it is untrue. Its title begs the question, whose answer is ‘none of the above,’ or ‘neither/nor,’ for God is independent, and supports only the good policies of our often bad politics.

Note: * Indicates speeches/messages like you’ll find in our other political books—not related to this book’s theme.

Special Note: Hidden secretly within these pages are 118 sample new product ideas (offered FREE), which are but a fraction of our nearly 4,700, offered FREE within four of our other books.

Happy hunting!

Disclaimers: The BEST use of this book is to read our ‘Tweeted Messages.’ Much of the other stuff is mere documentation of historic events, which can’t change the future. And, relatedly, it pains me GREATLY to include materials relevant to my home church, and some others in the Christian Cabal who I still like and admire (at the times they don’t schizophrenically flip flop on morality), but given the nature of what they supported, if not pulled off, this author felt it important to retain that historic context. Because it’s free, you can’t complain that we inserted so much personal information! For even better material, see our other ten books. Plus, the rest of this website should make up for that harm.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

(Topical Index at end of document)

Similar to how God used the Gutenberg press to elevate Martin Luther's biblical message, our God 'miraculously' used our Twitter account (@JamesMeroney), with our website as background (WillYouLiveForever.org, which we have often called the Ninety-Five Theses of American Christianity), to change American religion, and then politics, from late 2013 to early 2017, primarily from a set of odd circumstances with a well-connected, well known American pastor. Despite having few followers, the VIP's who dropped by during those three years were beyond my wildest expectations, though no one would ever know it by seeing our number of followers, and having never heard of myself, as that's the way I wanted it—until recently. Our 'Personal Testimony,' below, gives an overview, and the exact details are spelled out by following the footnote numbers, which would serve as hyperlink clicks, were this a more technically advanced website (again, my choice). I will submit to any polygraph test by any accredited polygrapher, to verify the veracity of all claims. Enjoy and be blessed.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

In this book, a few persons are mentioned in very unfavorable light, in light of their being Christians supporting Trump. A couple in particular have proven to myself to be, overall, very godly and biblically-prioritized ministers, despite that 'temporary insanity' decision, and their mentions, here, are only for historical context, for their deeds of late reassure me that they are to be held in the same high regard I had held them in before that 'fateful' decision—namely, Revs. Jack Graham and Franklin Graham.

BOOK P.S.

The most exacting recounting of experiences and details that form the background to this book may be found at 'I Testify,' page 365.

I. GENERALITIES

THE SOLUTION!

THIS is current state U.S. politics: Red vs. blue extremes. EVERY issue is contested with opposites! 'Bold color' contrasts; BIG vs. small government and taxes, abort or don't, green energy or oil and gas, closed or open borders. You cannot move forward insisting on two opposite "worldviews!"

Congress passes few impactful laws, and you get either secession, gridlock or domination, then un-doing what a predecessor party passed. In short, this is IDIOCY! Party worship is demanded—rubber stamps who love party and hate opponents. Two parties alone. IDIOCY!

People run for office promising things, but their promises are B.S.! As unique or valuable a politician may be, in their election, ALL they are is a vote for their party! Control ('power') is the goal, so you can shove your party's values down America's throat, and especially rub it in the other side's nose. IDIOCY!

Parliamentary procedure rules get used to the ruling party's advantage. NOTHING matters! Whatever achievements you "win" will be un-done, for they are TEMPORARY! In the process, talk radio and sinful Christians get mindless dupes angry, as do leftist extremist activists.

SOMEHOW some IDIOT believes this will cause something good to occur, in the end, if you merely rile up enough people to vote for your side, so its achievements can be un-done by the other party! You are on a rat race treadmill of STUPIDITY, America. Perhaps the politicians get cushy jobs, with perks/benefits, but few others gain anything, for all the money, time, energy and angst.

Your politics is a FUTILE waste of time! Obamacare, Trumpcare; Rich have their taxes lowered, then raised, as with business regulations. You have no middle ground, for you are set in you sinful, extreme ways!

You enjoy the drama, because you care less that anything gets done. FOOLS we are! Idiots accept this current state system; everyone who loves it IS the enemy of our great nation! Why vote? NOTHING changes! Gridlock or domination is ALL your vote gets you! You OUGHT to just tend your business/job, and ignore politics, right? WRONG, due only to one exception:

Common ground based on logic/common sense IS possible! Extremists will clamor against it, and call it all sorts of bad names, because they DON'T love America if they like status quo and they get payoff making NON-thinking people agree to join their dead-end extremist movements that, even if successful, ONLY lead to gridlock, or temporary opponent domination!

You can continue down your STUPID path that the world mocks, and rightfully laughs at, or you can choose a better path. I've been a GOP since voting age (and before), and Dem since CHUMP won. The question, 'Are you a Dem or a GOP' is asked like 'Are you a human or an animal?' Two clear-cut answers. This is ASININE "thinking!"

I am, and you should be ONLY for good policies, wherever they come from. If any politician opposes good policies, kick them out, and oppose them like they're the devil, because they are, because the devil wants evil policy!

Good policy is USUALLY found between the two errant extremes, NOT because you compromise, but because you vote for good policy, no matter which party advocated it first! Extremists have Highly-paid pundits who WILL say good policy is debatable, and this can't work, and one side must be in charge/control, no matter if a majority of politicians just want good policy passed.

Those are LIES they're paid to concoct, to defend status quo of each side clinging to their extremes, because their wealth and fame are tied to riling up idiots!

They do NOT care about America, number one. They are traitors, in politics for self-advancing financial and fame gain! 100 percent ignore them, in action! The Limbaugh's, Levin's, Hannity's, and left-wing activists, all of whom may represent some good emphases, at times, but whose real name is stirring up trouble and division, and insisting on my-way-or-the-highway!

Pastors and religious talk radio has those of this same evil ilk, as does the left, with any media types ONLY for extreme left policies.

'COMPROMISE' is a weak word, as is 'moderate!' I don't compromise things I believe in, and I'm intense in what I believe in. You just have to intensely believe in GOOD things that work! Polar extreme opposites DON'T WORK, and usually aren't good!

It's NOT good to clean our environment at the expense of killing businesses that employ Americans! It's good to clean the environment, but bad to harm business, if business is run well. Businesses run only for rich elites are bad!

EVERY issue America faces has good and bad solutions. And our three political books detail for you EXACTLY what's good and bad. They do NOT favor any party! Where Dems have good ideas, implement them, and where GOPs do, do the same! Give and take.

If we're 'going to be immature babies, and tit-for-tat idiots, decide which issues are big, medium and small, which side has the best solutions, and give GOPs a win, then Dems, alternatively, as you pass laws, big to small, to fix problems within budget, and get things done in D.C.!

I HOPE to insult you so deeply that you hate me, and take action, with this statement: If you disagree with this plan, you are evil, stupid and the enemy of America! If America adopts this plan, EVERY current politician in D.C. could keep their cushy jobs, indefinitely!

They LOVE that, and we the people/public will love it, too, because good things get done, and progress happens, instead of temporary domination, un-done later, or gridlock, and divisive (even violent) animosity. Remember, extremist pundits WILL oppose this, because their livelihoods are dead set in our targets, to be shown for the evil they are.

This is NOT Kumara unity, and hand-holding. There will be debates and arguments on what best solutions are. And this does NOT negate all extremists! They bring attention to good things needed, they just can't be objective in seeing any good in their opponents.

Social media is exacerbating this problem! Humans are reduced to mere ideas and data you can ridicule and target, because we aren't conversing face-to-face. If we did, you'd learn that Nancy Pelosi is not Satan, nor Rush Limbaugh—neither are they gods to be idolized.

You'd see we all share so many things in common (work, entertainment, exercise, clothes, health concerns, possessions, families, beliefs, thoughts and desires, etc.)!

Some people BENEFIT from division! Idiot extremist pastors, who DON'T represent God, get media coverage that increases their 'tithes,' for example. ALWAYS follow the money trail!

Extremists sincerely, or for financial incentives, hold firm to their dogmatic dogmas and doctrines. EVERY American NEEDS to see extremists as rightly bringing attention to an under-served issue, but rarely, if ever, deserving to have their way, because there's always an opposite extremist group, and they can't both win, forever.

To repeat, current state U.S. politics ONLY leads to gridlock, or temporary domination, which gets undone later. If you believe this is good for America, you are bad for America! America doesn't face just a few issues to solve, and the people don't always clamor for what's best for America, but themselves!

Wisdom has to rule America, but that requires wise, informed voters demanding good solutions and NOT being party robots, and NOT being single-issue voters, or straight party, necessarily, but accepting a way that works, and rejecting status quo, handily, in 2020! #JustDoIt!

Update #1: Specific Action Steps

HOW do you get that message out to the general public, so they clamor for it being implemented? HOW do you get our main book, Wit and Wisdom published, so it can be promoted as the solution? I am open to answers, because once they are found, they WILL be implemented in 2020. I am all ears.

Thinking out loud, if an amazing treasure was hidden in a barn, somewhere, and one discovered it, they would alert others to such find. Media book tour, starting in January. That takes it being published, even if just on Amazon. Funding comes when you convince people of the ideas, and ask for their donations.

We are currently filing with the FEC, after we secure an employer ID with the IRS. They were closed, yesterday, but will be called, today, to answer a question or two. Once those two hurdles are overcome, we'll specifically seek enough funding to start a campaign, with a manager, after posting our second website, YouTube videos, and having the funds donated to do a book tour and public speaking Jan-June. Then we announce, and the campaign is ON.

Amazon may have to be how Wit and Wisdom gets published, as we have ZERO intention of dealing with agents too stupid to see what it has already achieved! Maybe just submit to publishers, directly? I haven't the interest or energy to be a marketer! I've got to work, and it's a skill I apparently can't learn. I'm a teacher. Teachers are NOT marketers.

And exactly how that June campaign will be run is already in the hands of several VIP's! I don't even care that they will surely pass them on to political opponents in the party I'll be running for, because you can't keep up with these ideas, or do what I do, by God's grace alone; that's NOT arrogance—I know God alone can pull this off, and as He led me to do this ~Mar. 23, 2015, no one can stop His call's fulfillment, even myself. #Faith

I can't even get out of it, at the times I want to, because it's NOTHING I ever aspired to! I've grown to LOVE debating, now that I have beliefs worth arguing for! I don't even practice law, because it's so argumentative. I like peace, but many experiences of being bullied, even recently, have made me READY to kick tail against idiotic ideas on both sides!

I'd rather write, but that's pointless, if it remains a treasure hidden in a barn, somewhere. It will NOT, as I just detailed every step I need to take. I'm open to any and all advice, and donations, once that IRS forms get approved. Thanks.

P.S.

I DESPISE modern politics! If I didn't have 11 books complete, three of which have solutions that blow away all competing ideas, I would just sell books, and retire, and never have any involvement in politics, ever again, except to organize a viable third party in ten years. I HATE politics, because it's SO idiotic.

Good people get corrupted to party- and power worship, under threat of losing cushy, showy jobs, and who wants to go to all that trouble, and public scrutiny, for a 2 or 4 year job? We have the solutions to all of this! Sometimes I wish I didn't, because politics is so boringly stupid!

That message alone could land you on the map. Finalize it with clean-up, then push it with the media. Make it a 30-second spiel, a magazine article, etc.

Independents MUST rise up! RINO GOPs and non-leftist Dems! We are the vast U.S. majority! Extremists yell loudest, but they haven't thought through where their ideas lead, as I did this morning. NON-GOPs and NON-Dems; third parties... everyone who is NOT extreme can cause a LANDSLIDE victory in 2020, for the good!

Mainstream majority middle! It's NOT "moderates," who are tepid in their zeal, and wishy-washy in their beliefs! It's principled realists/centrists, who understand good solutions, and that common ground exists, extremes are usually wrong, and who want things to get done, and who have a working brain and conscience!

Let the extremists yell. Analyze what GOOD is in their rants. See the GOOD in both extremes. Understand why they're so angry, but never let them rule, or America will have Civil War number two, and secession, or at least gridlock, or temporary domination that gets un-done, later on. There are no other options! Duh 101

A voter who can get riled up over 1 or 2 issues is a FOOL! That's all that needs to be said. It's GREAT that you feel so passionate about abortions being evil, or the poor escaping poverty! GO DO SOMETHING TO FIX THOSE THINGS, but quit thinking voting for politicians will be the end-all solution! There are ALWAYS about half of America that will oppose your single-issue cause! Be the solution!

Politicians are NOT gods, or saviors, and they DON'T have magic wands! They are mere COGS in a system of gridlock, domination, un-doing achievements, division, hate, riling up idiots, secession and violent civil war. If you don't believe this, re-read today's message, and debate me, publicly. It's ALL true!

I-A4. I TESTIFY

The following ‘message’ was typed live, consecutively, very quickly, but lasted 14 hours, with only one 40-minute nap. I offer it as a tribute to my mom, for her own #MeToo story (RIP).

When did things take their worse turn in relating to that man? Just after the VIP sermon, which was amazing; then I find he doublespeaks and is duplicitous, doing Roy Moore/Bannon collusion-like antics, while trying to appear objective/even-handed. I reject his ‘moral’ standard(s)! NOT biblical. (12/11/17)

Jack Grahams Instagram is Christmas in the White House. The man is glorying in his shame! Such arrogance! He was Rumpelstiltskin until God used me to wake him up. I’m NOT jealous—I can’t believe people pay him to jet set, and support such a NON-Christian, foolish man. Our book will detail EVERYTHING! That’s nothing like Paul! (12/9/17)

Paul NEVER accepted other pastors calling him a “celebrity,” or lived a high life off donations! Ounce/Gram thinks his band of merry ne’er do wells really pulled one off ‘for God.’ They got most EVERY good idea from here, by monitoring us to ensure their contract wasn’t breached—NO original thoughts. I have the tweets with date stamps.

If you thought our account on WillYouLiveForever.org was detailed, before I generalized it, because he DID make changes, because I pushed so hard, so long, that he had to, this next free book will make the original account look like an executive summary overview!

And I am, NOW, offering to take ANY lie detector on everything in that Christians For Trump book, and that spiritual website, and I WILL take this message to every media outlet who has interest, once our books are on the market. You’re getting exposed Jack Graham, whose contract I broke—AGAIN! Usher me out of church; I’ll film it (anytime God leads me to).

You thought TripAdvisor was rough on your public image? You ain’t seen nothing,’ yet, and SAME goes for every one of your famous pastors who were involved (5 or 6). #NamingNames Hold nothing back! YouTube, billboards, Facebook. #HoldNothingBack ‘Religious’ website updated with its original ‘church conflicts’ details.

This so-called “Christian” Cabal is going to be outed in the detail and accuracy of a lawyer, and the honesty of Abe, and the ‘I cannot tell a lie’ of George Washington. Any lie detector, anywhere—I am ALWAYS willing! I invite and welcome it!

And you can EXPECT my ‘Go Evangelize’ signs at your doorstep for the media to film, and passersby to see, if the Lord wills.

This is going to be fun! Writing has been a hassle. I don’t smile, Jackie, because I’m working too hard on too serious of subject matter. Now that it’s done, by Xmas (another abbreviation he complained about, in a sermon), I can finally go public with all I know. #NoMoreMisterNiceGuy I’ve been too busy to worry about it.

Truth is, that book has enough of that detail already. I don’t have to change a thing—just final edit by Xmas. He actually took offense at my shortening CHRISTmas that way, claimed I never smile, and that I wouldn’t get out of the boat. I not only got out, Baylor’s hero quarterback back preached about what God did, and will do.

I'm SO thankful I don't have to apply this frustration with all the sins I observe, by writing more details. The book is a reasonable 326 pages, and need not get larger. I reviewed ALL relevant sermons and tweets. They're all in there, already. I've just got to do a little more editing, and enjoy Christmas!

Our contract says I can NOT attend that church if I ever mention that man or his church online. A buddy, Shane Williams, knows about it, and said he would film it if they kicked me out. He is LONG gone from that church, but he worked on the Jimmy Neutron movie, and you can contact him to see that I'm NOT lying.

[Note: Because my original details of experiences I have had with evangelism-resistant churches has been made more ambiguous (due to some positive changes)

How about the Indian pastor just across McDermott (street) from my neighborhood? He warned me NOT to "name names" on my spiritual website. I did. How about the deacon's 2010 email, that praises my commitment to evangelism, and another who says you had better move on, because they'll never change? They changed!

What about "Lumpy," on our website (probably deleted now, but when I renew it)? When the GOOD second-in-command received a 15th anniversary on staff party, that other staffer, after warring against me for awhile, after he left the church said 'maybe they did listen to you, then walked off, still angry I called his hand on his theology.

Ask Phil Thames of DFW. He's 'Ross Perot wanna-be' on our 'CHURCH CONF,' original version. ASK HIM (or possibly my old Youth Pastoring days disciple, Red Boswell). Make them take lie detectors to see I'm NOT lying. Matt ('Red') won't know nearly as much as Phil, Mr. fraternity guy! I'm glad he found a new bride! Ask the two staffers who ambushed me with him (to ban me from ALL Sunday School classes)!

One is now in charge of their only other, and North campus. He's the one who mocked my prophecy chart, and said to the teacher (who was looking it over), 'so, you got it all figured out? All I know is Jesus is coming back.' I DO believe that's all he knew! He also believes, and stated that belief in that same hearing, that 'image is everything.'

Ask the two nice guys who made me sign the contract, after I wrote it, as a lawyer! ASK them. ASK MY WIFE why I no longer attend Sunday school with her, and haven't for SIX years (what a blessing that is). They kicked me out because I asked too many questions, or offered too many insights that it bothered a gal whose muscular hubby is now divorced from her. They needed to water down the material for her type, I guess!

Ask! DO NOT accept anything less than lie detectors, recorded and filmed. I volunteer to do that anytime, except when I'm sleeping! WHO was it who woke up Franklin Graham to see that his dad was DONE as the WASP leader, or got the SBC to have revival meetings through J. Graham's contacts with Ronnie Floyd?

WHO wrote the SBC Home Mission board (renamed NAMB) eight year ago to have national evangelism, and was promised they would, and they STILL haven't? What pastor from a Ft. Worth mega church KNEW God had used me at Prestonwood when HE spoke at the Southwestern Seminary revival prayer meeting?

II Cor. 10-13 is the spirit in which I write these things, 'cause I'm done writing, for the most part, and I'm NOT going to let DUMB sheep think political change was EITHER Graham's idea! I have the tweets, and Jack's staff watched here religiously from late 2013 on, to see if I'd break that contract. [In lawyer speak, I am the human 'but for' cause of what resulted, God as my 'but for' Cause].

When I was banned from all Sunday Schools, God started my political books. Then in 2013, after being banned from mentioning their church online, the Lord took it to Twitter via TripAdvisor getting Jack to fear the TRUTH would get out, so they called me in for a meeting.

When I was banned from Sunday School, Phil Thames called me from Arizona, and LIED about what he needed to meet with me about. He was my Sunday School teacher, and we USED to be friends, until he ambushed me with two staffers. I reproved him when he carried his Bible one Sunday, saying, 'you ought to do what it says vs. just teach what it says.' ASK PHIL! He lives in town (Dallas), with his new wife!

Ask my GOOD friend who now teaches my wife's class (red haired Baylor grad) what he knows about why I suddenly no longer attended with her, after five years of faithful attendance.

I've blocked Phil in the past, here. I'm going to UN-block him tomorrow so he knows I am naming names now. Phil Thames, I.T. guy, ex-Ross Perot employee.

Last time we contacted via here, and he learned of my 'church conflicts' section on my website, he changed his bio picture, where he was seen in the same presence as the great Ross Perot. It was too easy to identify him based on my description therein. Now I've named him—Phil Thames. Lie detector; I always will!

ASK Shane Williams! He used to live toward McKinney, TX, when we helped him move apartments from just down the street from us. No contact since then, but you can find him and ASK! Ask Jack Graham to take a lie detector!

Ask James Dobson what he will testify about gay marriage opposition led from Texas, when he came to our church, and knew for sure that the Cabal had their eyes on myself to run for office. Require a lie detector!

I've dealt with these folks enough to know they'll LIE to save reputation! Lie detector! Chump, himself, requested my past two pastors to spiritually advise him, as he knows what God did here. I have the EXACT Fox News article where he ONLY mentions two mega pastors, and they were in our original 'church conflicts' section, that WILL return to that site, when I can afford to bless my HERO webmaster. Ask James Robison what he knows about some of this stuff! Ask, media, ask. Investigative journalism.

ASK Ronnie Floyd! I dropped my Color Chart (one page on Philippians) at his church, while on a vacation in Arkansas, and Dr. Graham has a copy of my Acts chart of that same series.

MANY Prestonwood sermons from 2010-2013 were DIRECTLY from our website. I have detailed much more in this coming, free book, to be on <http://AmericanAnswers.org> in 2018!

One more thing, as I've got to sleep... The pretty little lawyer trick Jack seems to have used (as he calls for a 'Johnson Amendment' repeal), is NEVER agreeing to meet with me to reconcile over theological and EDBS priorities differences we've had. That book will now list every method and date used to seek that reconciling.

So WHERE does a man attend church when his family loves the church who wants him gone, legally, to remain faithful to Heb. 10:25, and family unity? That mystery remains un-understood! Good night, and if any of this is untrue, may God strike me dead before I wake to write, tomorrow! In Christ, JEM. Zzz.

Immediately Continued

Ask Joel Rosenberg, in Israel, about his first two of three sermons at that church, in the past four years. Ask the great Californian Greg Laurie! Ask Robert Jeffress, and T.D. Jakes, and the great Tony Evans! ASK! But REQUIRE honesty, or they'll make this sound ridiculous, to save face! Lie detectors! Many others could be named.

Ask Frank Bruce, near the Biltmore (in Asheville, NC), the First Baptist Jacksonville, FL pastor I spoke with at Charles Ryrie's funeral, who gave the eulogy, and he argues FOR tithing. Be warned... just because they're pastors, they have incentive to lie, and it's a professional fraternity with intense peer loyalty. The good ones won't lie.

ALL of them should take lie detectors, as I ALWAYS will. EVERY allegation Graham has lodged at myself is rebutted in the book. By last count, there were 20. HE is the go-to guy of the Christian Cabal, as I awakened him to do 'EDBS' priorities, and he flipped to alt-right political positions when I rejected all offers and one sermon invitation. I have dates for all three if not four tries of him as the Cabal head, originally.

Ask Franklin Graham's staff if his great dad was exhorted by me to get U.S. pastors evangelistic! Billy Graham's female secretary declined, then their MyHope campaign came, after our church's pastor (J Graham) flew out to meet with Billy. You're welcome!

Ask Russell Moore what he knows, or the top staff of Lifeway (Ed Stetzer, and the great CEO in Nashville, who I received an email from). Linked-in said a stadium full dropped by back then, and it was approaching legendary status, and I don't use that platform—just have a profile. THOUSANDS of pastors KNOW!

I was so baffled, that I started copying their Twitter bios. I saved them in M.S. Word. I can name many names, as need be. Seminary executives and famous Christian ministers. I am NOT bragging about me, but what God did that now Mr. Graham acts like was his origination! Being or Trump is 100 percent his unique idea!

He preached a Saturday evening sermon that you can probably find on Vimeo, where he called Trump's clown act "non-sense" (a term my Facebook speech posted two weeks before), then 1.7 weeks later he tells ABC News that he can "champion" Trump, after a private meeting. FLIP-FLOP hypocrisy!

He hosted the North Texas Presidential Forum, where Chump was ABSENT, and said 'we have the ones here we really wanted.' He even threatened to withhold $1 million from the Southern Baptists (which I am one of), for Dr. Russell Moore and the ERLC saying negative, but TRUTHFUL, and morally and biblically-based criticism of his political man crush, CHUMP! I don't lie; LIE DETECTORS will be NEEDED!

An added aside, LISTEN to James Dobson on that Prestonwood interview at Vimeo. He states he is committed to Jeb Bush, having known the family for years (in other words, he's unable to back myself), then he went with Ted Cruz, then eventually Chump. If that first commitment to Jeb wasn't a lie, or the flip-flop, hypocrisy, I DON'T know what those words mean anymore!

NO sincere, born again Christian can say they should support THIS: <http://bit.ly/2z9sVup>, yet 81 percent DID. That is HYPOCRISY, and apostasy! It DOESN'T mean they should have gone with Hillary, but they OWN all Chump's harm and failings! Repent, brethren! SCOTUS stacking was their reason, for Roe's overturn. Sin-to-win!

And for @rushlimbaugh to DARE say his talent is on loan from "God," then question why @nytdavidbrooks would write "The GOP is Rotting," and not support all that is in my last post (i.e., Facebook speech), you have to be an absolute FOOL to have that question in your mind, and you drank DJT's HORRIFIC Jim Jones Kool-Aid. Good night now. Zzz.

Continued

Forty-four minute nap, in the Lord, and I'm refreshed: Let's go on to address prophecy more. Signs of the times. For even the MOST skeptical person on Bible prophecy, consider the case of its claimed precursors. If it's true, and going to happen, analyze what 2,000+ years ago men claiming God led them to write said would occur before the apocalypse:

Israel would be in her historic land (i.e., the fig tree parable in M., and late in Rev.). After 70 A.D., with the Diaspora, and the Jewish nation scattered world-wide. Nearly 2,000 years NOT gathered as a people in their homeland. 1948, after World War II, they reunite, as a fulfillment of a prophecy.

II Th. says a falling away from the true biblical Christianity must occur before the Antichrist arises. You know God's word well, we are a far cry from practicing church the way He orders, and it should only get worse, if revival doesn't come. II Tim. 3's first ~8 verses are an excellent summary. Look at each trait, and compare society to the 1940's/1950's.

Then there are birth pangs of prophecy (the first few years of the 7-year Tribulation). If those WILL occur, might there be trends in that direction, beforehand? If so, are they happening more frequently than in the past? Natural signs—mother nature's wrath.

Now here is where it gets very interesting to me: Events in life have momentum. Trends tend to follow past patterns. If Bible prophecy is true, there will be a one-world ruler 3.5 years after he signs a peace deal with Israel, and he will force all people to do business only under his economic system, and enforce that edict by a mark on one's forehead, or wrist.

HOW could that occur, without technology? An imbedded chip could easily work, but was not around since John wrote Revelation, until our generation! He also has an "image" that appears to be almost everywhere, as it disciplines law-breakers with death (Rev. 13) if they don't worship him. And if they refuse that 666 mark, they can't conduct business.

He also wars with the saints, meaning believers in Jesus who become believers after the Rapture (i.e., "Tribulation saints").

The second half of that Tribulation, he ferociously attacks the Jewish nation, hating them with a passion. Then there are three chapters in Daniel and Ezekiel which describe the agenda of the one-world leader.

MOST scholars expect him to rise in the E.U., though it can be connected to the U.S.A., historically, as human Bible authors had nothing to describe America by, as we didn't exist.

So the technology has to be there, and a Jerusalem temple must be built, for mid-way through, that Hell on earth seven years (i.e., the Tribulation) that person arrogantly claims to be God in that temple (Mt. 24 and ~2 Th. 2).

You also have Russia's rise, and Eastern kings, but I also expect increased acceptance of one-world religion, which he also will head up.

Sin will be increased. ASK yourself... If everything GOOD in America, today (i.e., technology, entertainment, products, creature comforts) existed in current state of the art in 1950 vs. today, would you feel that society was safer and more holy than today? A RESOUNDING yes. Prophecy fulfilled—sin is increased.

And one of those II Tim. 3 traits was lovers of self, and lovers of money. Since the yuppie days of the 1980's, can anyone say our culture was not more into the me generation and money idolatry, than in the peace nick, hippies 60's, then 70's? History does not lie. How about lovers of pleasure vs. of God. See any of that more today?

And also in Rev. 13, it seems to imply that everyone on earth can watch that evil coming person. HOW could that occur, absent the technology we have today? We take for granted we can watch wars live on the internet! I did in graduate school, with Operation Desert Storm (if memory serves me well on the right Conflict). I listened to Ferguson occur, and tweeted about it, via laptop and police radio reports.

That's AMAZING progress for mankind! But this technology will be turned for evil. I've written two books on prophecy; I CAN'T summarize all the details here, but if memory serves me well, more than half the world's population gets destroyed.

In time, every water source becomes undrinkable. Huge percentages of animals die. Mountains get moved (earthquakes, etc.). JUST READ Rev. 6-20, and try to ignore the picturesque depictions you won't initially understand. Just read the numbers killed! IT IS STAGGERING! Horrific. It lasts for seven years on earth.

Is there any reasonable reason to believe that these events will actually occur, or is it scare tactics or fantasy land? I just gave you several related prophecies, and how trends say they're fast approaching. Our website gives you a lawyer's briefcase full of evidence for why to believe the Bible.

If it says these things are coming, look for corroboration, if you are a doubter. I JUST gave you five or six major ones! The KEY is violence against the Jews, necessitating a 7-year peace deal brokered by a stealth politician who usurps three E.U. heads of state, and brokers it to last seven years, but lies or gets irate, and breaks it mid-stream.

Let's be logical. I have four college degrees, and I LOVE logic—not a great romantic or nostalgic, here. If the Jews WILL accept the deal, they MUST not know it's bad for them, or they wouldn't agree unless at the point of a gun!

The Bible says a spirit of delusion will come, so people will believe lies. Likely, the Jews will believe the Antichrist's lie that peace is for seven years, between Israel and her enemy nations, among whom started that unrest to days ago (rightly so, if non-violent, for a ridiculous peace process monkey wrench!).

Even if I direct messaged @netanyahu, it's prophesied that the agreement will be struck. Doesn't it make mere sense (i.e., NO real faith required) that violence would have to be increased? No one in the West has had YUGE urgency to solve it, because it doesn't affect our lives much, as it's so far away!

If the violence threatens our interests, or gets so bad that the people of the world say to government leaders, someone has to solve this—the U.N., U.S., NATO, whoever; the pressure for both sides to agree to that deal will make sense to do the deal! At current state, not so much for that pressure! I expect it to heat up in the coming timeframe—unless revival hits.

I don't want to sound dramatic or foolish, so telling you that millions of people will suddenly no longer be here is not necessary for you to know, because the proof of that event (and its after effects) will be evident! Planes lose their pilot, etc. Loved ones missing, etc.

When TRUE Christians are gone, Katy bar the door—all Hell will be cut loose. It's BAD in the seven seal judgments, worse with the trumpets, and most extreme in the bowls, followed by "Armageddon." Movies depict World War III as that event, but that's Hollywood fantasy. Nearly seven years transpire before that YUGE war, and you will have known of those seven years before it is here.

You'll have the mark on you, or will be a survivalist resisting one-world government, likely under threat of martyrdom. You will see the rivers bloodied, and the hailstones, and fire from Heaven, and signs in the galaxy/sky. You will know you are in the Tribulation, and who the Antichrist is, just at that peace deal!

Again, if you skim read Rev. 6-20, the events are UNdeniably obvious—IF you live through them. Only the 'lucky' MINORITY will.

I'd LOVE to tell you this is a real bedtime story, to bore you to sleep, but I have to warn you it's coming, and you will believe it, too late, when you do go through it. I'm telling you before. Thank. Bye.

Before I doze off, let's describe how MOST people will face their future—OBLIVIOUS! Think about that tomorrow. Plan my funeral later. Point? You THINK politics is just politicians in D.C. doing nothing, and you can just go about your business, and nothing will be different from how it is. Prophecy hits suddenly, like a thief in the night.

Night crooks are unexpected, swift, dangerous, and work under cloak of darkness. Prophecy hits fast, and is basically over in seven years—then Hell (for lost people). This sounds too negative to listen to? Too depressing? Try living it! There's one way out, but I won't tell you it, lest I sound preachy, or seeking something from you.

I will refer you to WillYouLiveForever.org, under the chapter 'The Gospel.' Other than that, I BEG you to always watch Israel for violence, and any attempted peace settlements, and their participants! HOW would any U.S. pastor get this warning message to non-church-goers? THERE's the DISconnect!

Jesus dined with people NOT destined for Heaven. Christians basically congregate among their own kind, and ne'er the twain shall meet. I won't rant on how evil that system is, but you can see it is 100 percent illogical IF they have the way to avoid Hell, and you never hear one word of their sermons, because that's natural not to do!

This is NOT a problem with you, but with them! They've been commanded different from what they're doing, and they demonize and oppose people who tell them do it God's way! You—you alone are my concern—that you don't end up in Hell, because of their incompetence. Read that one page of our website, and good night. Zzz.

Immediately Continuing

CONTINUING... You've got this coming to you, JNG! I ALREADY thanked you for giving me access to famous politicians, and the media, and many of your pastor friends. READ THIS, Jack: Lk. 17:17. You 100 percent try to play me off, and act like I never existed, but HERE is EVERY detail I can remember, to write this chapter FAST...

I move to DFW in 2005, having felt like a career change back to the one industry I got talked out of as a kid—architecture. For three years it keeps not working out. I had to drive to University of Houston from the West side of town, and work full-time (i.e., not enough hours in the day), so I apply to A & M, but the daily commute wears me down after three months (three hours on the road, eight in class, and a night job each evening, plus sleep). When a Hurricane hits Houston, and there's no gas, it finally is handwriting on the wall time that I can't do this for two or three years, to earn a master's degree.

So we have a family friend at the University of Illinois from when we lived there when I was young, who probably helped my entre into a top ten graduate architecture program. I leave my very nice house in Memorial (i.e., an area of Houston), move to a three-story home in Savoy, IL, and start studies.

For some ODD reason, my most qualified nurse wife, who all employers dote over, can't get hired. We leave late November, 2005 (or 2006?), the day of an ice storm, in two full-length trucks, pulling two cars and three kids and three animals.

I REFUSED to return to Houston, because my mom—Ms. Texas Senior 2005 (<http://bit.ly/2BpSV6D>)—had legally killed herself at the guidance of a document her worthless second husband had hired personnel research on 'voluntary death by dehydration,' from the University of MN (or MI), online.

She had essentially gone cuckoo at her late 70-ish years, after FIFTY years of being married to a good man—MY dad—when a hurricane came through Houston, and she volunteered at a charity, to help the displaced, and a schmuck was there without his wife—R___ND—and hit on her.

They started an affair. She had been a 'Baylor Beauty,' and a singer, and the life of the party all her life as my mom, so her personality was contagious. This LOSER—R___D—gets attracted, likely by her endowment, and face, and personality, and my dad catches wind, somehow, that it's happening, and either asks or I volunteer to get proof (I'm a lawyer).

I drive out to Highway 290 at Gessner, and find BOTH their cars parked next to each other, and I film the license plates, and return the tape to my dad. He hires a Private Eye/PI (I attended the interview with him), and the proof gets more solid.

We have a Christmas meal at their large home in Memorial (as was custom), and my dad, a salesman, does this rather curiously dramatic, long-winded story where we three kids are wondering where this is going (my mistake—this happened before the videos). He finally pulls out a receipt, and when we ask what it is, he finally says, 'your mother has, apparently, been seeing Mr. C___.'

We either ask or he says adultery/affair. My mom IMMEDIATELY jumps up, puts on the most positive tone and facial gestures, and says 'so what do y'all want for dinner?,' AS IF nothing had just happened.

Then came my video proof! She was later diagnosed with depression, so she must have blocked it all out to change so suddenly to that fake that cheery self.

So, somewhere along this sequence, I drive over to that man's wife, further into Memorial, near and east of Beltway 8 and Briar Forest, and during work hours, tell his wife they are having an affair.

She 100 percent doesn't believe me, and states that R___D is on his way home for a romantic meal she had laid out for him in their formal dining area.

I tell her let me take my video camera to his office on the 200 or 300 (numbered) building complex near Bunker Hill and Briar Forest, give or take three miles (near the church my good judge friend from the Inerrancy movement used to attend, before Second Baptist), and she gets on the phone and says, 'Jims going crazy, R___D, as he's coming over to film you.' So he exits before I get there, and Mrs. C later APOLOGIZES to me the night of my mom's wake, for NOT believing me (I called her from Kroger, saying her husband just killed my mom, thanks a lot).

How did that come about? One month before their 50th anniversary, my mom seeks a divorce. Sunday School teacher, Tallowood Baptist staple choir member, M.D. Anderson cancer volunteer crazily wants a divorce. We ALL try to talk her out of it!

I have my dad live with me so they can get along, but my younger sister does a MUCH larger sacrifice of such for a much longer stay. That lady's lawyer uses it against my dad to say he abandoned her, when we three kids thought it best, to let her cool off, without them in the same venue.

Here's where the part gets 100 percent Satanic, to me!... the affair participants marry. I had already gone over to his daughter's home (my wife knew her), and I tell her, as Christians, we are to shun this couple. She not only agrees, that family did it for YEARS beyond the several years I did it with my mom's three grandkids (i.e., my kids). She gets her long-sought settlement, and buys a condo in the Grand Cayman Islands.

GOD blows it to smithereens with a hurricane (see any hurricane theme, here?). We learn that because my dad is wrongly sent the insurance paperwork for a home he never bought. My mom wins the Ms. TX Senior contest in 2005, but then starts getting depressed. They were married I think ~8 years, until she died in 2012 (if memory serves—I HATE math, and details!).

We eventually start letting her see my kids, as she's getting older. She had a social front of positivity and smiles. We NEVER knew she had a horrible marriage to R___D, until the last months of her life.

He uses MY DAD'S money to pretend to be some rich, Texas oil man. His REAL wife told me he lost it after being fired from a towel sales job, and 'hadn't been the same since.' He has affairs on my mom, who had hardly worked a day in her life, and has a family all mad at her, so one day, when he's off gallivanting about in Belize (where he also tried to court a widow, whose husband committed suicide, and owned an island near there, and had been in government), my mom falls and breaks her arm. No one knows about it for 18 hours. Poops on her person when the first person arrives.

THAT DAY, I believe, she decided she would NOT tolerate this any longer, and she would move on to Heaven. I don't recall how much longer it was, but soon after R___D C hired two gals with little or NO medical training (i.e., for cheap) to be her nursing aids (great gals, by the way!).

He has the one I actually recall getting to know research voluntary death by dehydration, to do this thing legally (i.e., get away with proverbial murder, by it not being legal murder, but assisted suicide). HE 100 percent CAUSED her to want to die, by burning through all my dad's money, and having affairs with at least three other women!

But it's NOT murder if she's willing, and he caused that willingness. For about 22 days she lay on the couch, drank a little, and willed herself to death! I drove down from DFW once, maybe twice, to talk her out of it, and brought my sons with me to say goodbyes. We regularly told her this was wrong, unneeded, and there was help for her marriage and mental state (though we learned after her death that R___D didn't have enough money for mental care, through legitimate insurance, for her).

I even called Judge Paul Pressler (my amigo formerly referenced regarding the Inerrancy movement) to see what could legally be done to stop this. It was a weekend, in her final days, so he had nothing to offer.

I called 9-11 from DFW for a 'welfare check,' and she gets on the phone and says, 'Jim—why are you trying to kill me?' FOUR hours north, and I'm the murderer? I'm the saving person, crazed one. Five emergency vehicles swoop in on the home, but her scoundrel second hubby sweet talks the authorities, with his salesman skills, that all is fine and legal.

The lady on 911 who then sent me to a public hospital line for mental treatment cases told me they were going to commit her, and she was on the phone with the authorities. So 'Ro Ro' gets his wish—a wife (who he told me and my wife had not put out in several years) GONE, and he gets ALL the money, including the house settlement; my older sister badgered him to offer my handicapped younger sister a figure that would buy apartment rent for maybe a year. That's my inheritance from about a million he got by stealing her away from a GOOD man!

He's still alive, last time I checked. Briar Forest near Eldridge, living with one of the non-American women he had slept around with while my mom was alive. Mr. C: YOU KILLED MY MOM, and may you rot in Hell forever!

I joked with our childhood next door neighbor Marine that if he ever needed to do some target practice, aim over the fence! You are a murderer before God, R___D, and my mom's obituary is STILL online, for all to learn your sex abuser last name, "sir!" #MeToo

May you rot in Hell; I can't say that enough! You abandoned your three kids, and RUINED my family, all for SELF and greed, as a claiming "Christian."

Your book, which is on Amazon, depicts the most ridiculous story of how "God" brought you two "INTERLOPERS" (a term he used) on my dad and my siblings. Have I said, may you rot in Hell, Mr. Carry-me-over-the-threshold? (His name is cryptically encoded there for the astute to discover, without my outing a private citizen; OBITUARY!).

Religio-Political

I started this, planning on further outing the pastor who sucks up to Donnie Trump, from a delusional warping of what God had me start. Let's now go into that, now that Mr. C is off my chest (by the way, I refused to attend my mom's wake, until my two sisters insisted, the last 30 minutes).

I want ALL the people at Tallowood, and all my mom's MANY friends to know what really happened, which I was sternly warned not to disclose. I tell the TRUTH!

One great friend of the family told me after her funeral that he knew the details, and I was a hero. I'm near tears now recalling those words! No one knows!

The life of the party suddenly dead at a not that old age, when she had ZERO medical problems. You many who attended her funeral—NOW you know the truth. Her 'husband' legally had her die! She was a burden to him, financially and sexually, and a barrier to his multiple affairs, R___D C.

I have said if he EVER wants to drive up to DFW, and he'll sign a contract to release all liability, I will fight him with one arm behind my back; OFFER STILL STANDS, R___D! I RARELY return to Houston—perhaps one time per year (though it's my hometown).

Why do I live in Dallas? I just taught you! I would NOT let my three great kids be around THAT situation. Have I mentioned, BURN IN HELL, to Mr. R___d C, whose last name is on my mom's obituary, if you search Ms. Texas Senior 2005, and you don't confuse her with the lady who replaced her when she fell ill with depression? That's how you can get the last name, but, wink-wink, I never told you.

I'm not sure I can stay awake enough to tell the Prestonwood story that followed, but I will, as I have 16 days to get my books finalized, so I have some writing time on my hands. Perhaps tomorrow. It's coming, Jack. EVERY DETAIL, here, live, then into the book. You will be exposed, sir. Trump's bosom buddy!

Immediately Continuing

I'll try to start it out, but may resort to sleeping. We move back to Texas from the University of Illinois, when the architecture gig fails. In a building of that campus, my wife and I Google search DFW to see where we want to move, as our mutual hometown is NOT an option for us. I had heard of Plano and Frisco, and said, 'it's so far north.' I fly down, get a realtor to offer me rent house options, and get the ideal one for our needs, overlooking a lake. We trek down here, start our lives, and shop churches. I had also heard of the church I have described these past 24 hours (name withheld from a bad habit, based on that contract not to mention it).

A little background, which had been on my FREE website, but may have been deleted by me, intentionally, when good changes FINALLY came to Prestonwood, that I will reinstate when my sales start paying off.

In the middle 1990's I sold advertising via my dad's job, when he retired. I worked tirelessly for a total of ten years, full-time, writing a New Testament commentary (5,000 pages long). During that time, as has been the case since 1978, I did a decent amount of evangelism. I was licensed to the ministry First Baptist Church, Houston, but met my second wife via Second Baptist Church.

My reputation was big enough after I left Second Baptist, that a staffer from there called me, out of the blue, and asked if I would interview for Evangelism Minister at Second Baptist Church, Houston. I also got a college Evangelism course teaching job at the Center For Biblical Studies, Houston, based on my reputation for Bible understanding, from a friend who worked there, Chris Kim.

I also taught two of his class lectures detailing the content of all New Testament books, using my color chart graphic depictions.

So I interview at SBC, Houston, and if these events are not still on our website, many shocking things occurred. One coach asked if I was going to make him evangelize, and I said that staff need to be leaders, as the ducklings follow the mother ducks! He didn't like my answer.

Then my friend, Doug Page, asks me why I left SBC. I said it got too commercialized, and I didn't care for their Summit (Now Lakewood Church) gathering, where rich people would call out how much they pledged, to challenge other pledgers, or the Joash Box method where they paraded parishioners in the front, to guilt people into the 'tithe,' by peer shaming (subliminally). He says, "it works, and black churches do it").

He later tells me that Dr. Young's charisma will take over once I get people to the campus. That was their idea of evangelism. I'm now to be an entertainment director, JUST AS Jesus NEVER commanded. No way Jose!

I'm in a large, nice office with the second in command music minister, and he tells me they envision having ten campuses, connected by 3-D holograph technology, which they have exclusive first rights to from Silicon Valley.

They had once proposed Ed jet setting to campuses by helicopter, and we the people shut it down, just like we did when he wanted to change the church's name to rid the 'Baptist' term, as it was too confining for growth.

He eventually got his copter, I am told, as he got the idea from Tilman Fertitta (the new gadgets investor millionaire with a TV show). I digress. I see the music man's all into their light show parade and Christmas pageants (NOT biblical evangelism), so I ask, jokingly, would you consider having a Six Flags over Second Baptist?

He puts his hand on his chin, ponders off in space (with his eyes), and comes back, 'you know, that's NOT a bad idea.' I knew that moment I would never work for that religious retail business (the 'church as a business' term could have originated from Ed, who a deacon later told me reads management and leadership books, and fires one to two people a year, just to keep other staff on their toes—SO like Jesus; sarcasm!).

Another deacon told me he has undercover bodyguards, to keep access away after the sermon (show). They tell me of a Hawaii condo he owns where he schmoozed John O'Quinn? (last name eludes me—famous, rich), to be a member (that NOT-mandated 'tithe, don't you know).

My deacon friend lived on Doliver, three doors down from Joel Osteen when he was a staffer living in a mansion which no one his age and inexperience would own—FALSE PROPHET (not for that reason alone... I just had to get that out there)!

That friend told me more inter-workings at SBC, Houston, and I sent all allegations (against Osteen and SBC) to the Bible Answer Man, Hank Hanegraaff. I got NO reply, but he was soon offered to speak at SBC.

I hired for sales at KKHT radio, and we hosted the event. My Mercedes of Houston client had cars parked around the event. I dropped three notes of these allegations, including the event where Ed shut off the microphone of my dad's millionaire friend, John Baugh, CEO of Cisco Foods, when that aging man wanted to complain that his $20 million wasn't offered to open the Katy, TX campus.

Ed had a signal that if John arose, the microphone would be shut off, and he would abruptly end the business meeting. THIS IS HOW THESE PEOPLE OPERATE! Christ-like? YOU read your own Bible and decide!

I move out my church membership to First Baptist (FBC) Katy. A Calvinist staffer leads our Sunday School class, and asked, 'did you choose Jesus, or did Jesus choose you?' (a loaded question).

I debate with him, and he eventually gets fired, and my wife sees his spouse at a charity business, shopping (where my wife is volunteering, if I recall right). Apparently, his firing hit him pretty hard, when his financial mismanagement of church funds brought him down; I only reported him his false doctrine. He had been on staff at Second Baptist, Houston, previously.

Then, a multi-millionaire offers $4 million to build a gym, 'for evangelism.' I leave the meeting, tell the only person in the church foyer (a young male), 'isn't that preposterous—saying evangelism requires $4 million, and a gym?' Just say what it is—you want amenities to "attract" non-Christians.

By the grace and sovereignty of God, that dude was funded by Mr. Feel-good-son (his name is in there, if you encrypt it correctly) for ministry. He runs back to daddy war bucks, and I get a call at home, by fax (as I recall), telling me this big wig wants to meet with me.

FBC Katy staff are in the meeting. ALL I recite is biblical arguments and Scripture. The gist is he leaves that church, and schmoozes other Katy/West Houston churches, for a place to get his tax write off. HOW WOULD I KNOW THAT about a trucking company owner who owned four businesses, and bragged how rich he was to me?

HE CAME TO MY HOME, in the sovereignty of God, as the partner to a pastor whose church we had visited (i.e., church 'follow-up'). He sees my face at the door, the pastor introduces us, and says, 'Id' like you to meet Mr. F,' and I said, 'Yes, we've met.' He was sheepishly silent the remainder of that meeting! I had previously gone to his business, and given him documentation that $15,000 a year buys one full-time evangelist in the least-evangelized area of the world, called the 10/40 window, and circled relevant statistics, and said, 'if you really want to do something for evangelism, you can buy many workers to win many souls to Christ!'

When the church where we were married in 1990 wanted a multi-million building program expansion, I am the one who left that voice mail to the main pastor, who educated him how that much money could ACTUALLY lead to souls going to Heaven, and when Prestonwood added their now defunct Dallas campus, I called them to have my name taken off their church rolls.

Apparently, the elderly female answering didn't comply, because when I was called in and required to sign a contract to never mention the aforementioned mega church online, or I could not return, the two staffers said, 'you're still a member.'

I told them that had better change, as I authorized my name's removal months before. This brings me to the DFW experience(s) I've had in the Lord, including that church. I'm pretty sure I'm too tired to do it now (5:45 am), but all the scoop will be given, and all those beans spilled when I awake. Any lie detector I'm available for!

Immediately Continuing

I'll trudge on, as my kids' awakening will end my ability to work as well. 2005, November, we move to DFW, settle on Prestonwood as our church. For two years I attend Sunday School with my wife. A pretty good Bible teacher (Phil/Ross Perot-wanna-be, on our old 'church conflicts' section at our free website) leads it. I'm sure I added questions, comments and further explanation back then, but even more later. Teaching—it's my spiritual gift.

God leads me, after two years, to address the lack of evangelism and discipling. I met with seven or eight staffers to discuss the problem, and volunteer to teach my website's Bible-based materials. 'NO,' every time. Every time I pointed out the window (this story leads to Trump's election victory, so endure the verbosity!), and asked the staff if they'd go evangelize those homeowners with me, then and now. 'NO,' every time. Rejection. I had faced it in sales before, but I don't tolerate it concerning God's priorities for church.

I'm perfectly willing to end it at that. God wasn't. I took my 'Go Evangelize' sign to the National Day of Prayer meeting in Dallas, where I saw Dave Shivers (a staffer) walk by and ask, 'Jim, what are you doing?' I said, 'exhorting Christians and pastors to evangelize. You're the evangelism guru on staff—you ought to like what I'm doing.'

God led me to email their headmaster (as I often call the lead pastor), leave voice mails, leave a hand-written note in his cubby, in the old-fashioned post office box bin-looking cubicle openings in the lost and found room on floor one, near the men's bathroom.

I got an email from the second in command (after I spoke with him by cell phone on a vacation to my wife's parents in Kerrville), offering to meet with me on three listed dates, and it NEVER happened. I left a one-page argument for leadership to adopt a neighborhood and tell the Gospel to all nearby lost people, and gave it to two Sunday School department heads, and stuffed one copy in their records bins.

For a period of about three years, Dr. (D.Min., NOT Ph.D. or M.D.) Graham gets nagged tirelessly! One summer, when he was ill (cancer), is apparently when he actually reads my website materials, because sermons start coming from there for the next three years, as with many program changes I document in our Christians For Trump book.

I already addressed being banned from all Sunday School classes, and being contractually banned from speaking with any staffers, or mentioning that church online, or adding anything to my website. I won't rehash those TRUE stories. In late November, 2013, I'm called in to that church, to sign a contract I offer to write, to expedite.

Here is the exact (i.e., unedited) tweet to myself about that meeting, where I was contractually banned from Prestonwood Baptist Church if I ever mention that church's name online. Oops, I did it again!

NOT preparing 4 noon meeting on Great Commission COMPLETION as believe N Lk. 12:12. These tweets (& climb) prove this claim!

'Climb' refers to my exercise regimen, at the time, of climbing office building parking lots' stairs, to lose weight, and prepare for snow skiing. The fact that I tweeted at that late hour, and did a climb was proof I spent NO time preparing for that meeting—there's your explanation of that past post.

God led me to the term, 'TripAdvisor.' I am a technological dinosaur, and had never used it. Until computers obey what I say or am thinking, I despise technology, because I am NOT a typist, as you can EASILY see.

I now don't even own a cell phone—I left it at work, and will get it someday. I never use it, and it wasn't a smart phone. My point? I apologize my typing stinks, thinking faster than I can hunt and peck. But, continuing, since I can't speak and have this account keep up with what I could say live, on YouTube or otherwise, I nag that man endlessly in the Lord for three or more years. He even preaches a sermon later about persistent laymen—maybe he had Jarrett Stephens preach it—Vimeo could tell you, if I gave the date.

The man knows me oh so well! He or his staff monitored this Twitter account like a hawk, for years after that contract was signed, to see if I'd break the contract. Immediately, God woke me up at 3 am (like Trump imitated, AFTER myself!), to write theologically-based church exhortations about 'EDBS' priorities.

Basically, I took what He had done at Prestonwood, and make it national. Apparently, Jack was happy that the heat was less on him, and onto his pastor brethren, because his friends and peers came here in droves. It occurred for three weeks, straight, usually at 3 am, after four hours of sleep—live, spontaneous, and Fast.

Just like now. Jack saw it; his famous pastor friends came by, because at the time, Twitter had a glitch I discovered and milked, until I reported it to them. You could learn who dropped by if you followed no one, and rarely if ever used hashtags or the '@' sign (which I rarely do, to this day). Algorithms have little to work with.

As I said, it's now solved, so it's much harder, but there are a few tricks I WON'T disclose. I copied and pasted most of those pastor names' account bios! Perhaps 80,000 came by in 2014. Linked-In sent me an email telling me 'a stadium full' had inquired of my profile there, and I've never sent a request to anyone, that I can recall—just one or two "hi's" to my friends. They said 'it's approaching legendary status.' Changes happened! First Baptist Church, Euless (whose GOOD pastor was here) implemented Evangelism Explosion, and another guy in Texas (a pastor) contacted me, and said he learned of me through that ministry's work. My own seminary is aware of my pushing Christians and their leaders to FULLY evangelize (and they, Southwestern Seminary, have 100 percent reached zip code 76115 @SWBTS, and I witnessed it by participating). Ironically, its president is BFF with Judge Pressler, whom I mentioned earlier this evening (Cf.: the Inerrancy movement).

An aside, after having evangelized well beyond my share as a layman, since 1978, God had me reach more people with the professional quality signs I've had more than 100,000 people read, at over 43 major public events.

So, taking matters to Twitter was a natural expansion, and NOT a lack of doing evangelism in real life. In fact, Joe Wall, of Cypress Bible Church (now at East-West Ministries) knows all too well how God uses me in evangelism! We went person-to-person, Gospel sharing, because I told him he needed to, if he was the church's "leader." PERFECT results, but I left his church after getting out of his car, when he said, 'Jim, God has obviously gifted you, and burdened you for evangelism, but I don't want that taught in my church.' Hi Joe... Glad to see the hypocrisy that now you do that SAME thing in foreign nations!

A few other asides, The GREAT John Bisagno, my real pastor (I'm still a member of his church, after withdrawing from Prestonwood—First Baptist Church, Houston; 'FBC') agreed to ask the FBC Katy audience to give testimony the week after he asked them to engage evangelism, per my letter to him when he was interim pastor. That man IS evangelistic, and a leader. If I could, I'd have him mentor me as my counselor today—NOT my family’s pastor! No way Jose. At that church, a Sunday School teacher friend asked me to fill in for teaching. I did my 'On Hell' sermon, at our website, and we got 100 percent compliance of everyone leaving the class and evangelizing in the nearby Wal-Mart parking lot, in Katy, TX. It CAN be done—pastors DON'T want to do it.

Twitter search “evangelize nearby ASAP” to see how many times I’ve stood for this concept! I’ve taken those signs to 42 or so events of over 5,000 people: A Mormon temple grand opening in northwest Houston, a Houston bike race to Austin from Houston, Promise Keepers, the Houston Livestock and Rodeo, Osteen’s church, the Houston marathon, where the CBS or ABC older male anchor looked over his head, and saw my sign, and whined, ‘oh no, not that!’ Pagan! The day after 9-11, I took it to four major Houston venues, until a cop stopped me on I-10, and said it was slowing down traffic, according to cameras mounted on those very high street lights near the Bunker Hill exist, going west.

My dad and I took the signs to I-10 near highway 6, when traffic was slowed to a crawl, one holiday season, and Chad Uretsky can testify that we held them at IAH airport the busiest intersection of the busiest travel day, together.

I met Dave Strawn (RIP) at Metropolitan Baptist church, North of Houston, holding my ‘Go Evangelize’ signs, and a Hispanic male came up to me, and said, ‘you’ll love my Sunday School teacher.’ I did, I’m in tears—he died.

He was kicked out of his Sunday School teaching position for being too deep to attract newcomers. Watered-down hog wash ear tickling, heavier-set male staffer who did that to him, in my presence. He’s in Heaven now. ARE YOU GOING, man who sucks up for crowd approval by always saying, ‘you look lovely’ to the crowd, every time he gave announcements.

He knew my credentials, and humbly deferred that he hopes I would understand, then ousted Dave Strawn, and replaced him on the spot. It was mainly senior citizens, and I hear from his widow that most of them left the church. CHURCH GROWTH METHODS!

Seeker sensitive, attraction methodology, Christianity lite (like Osteen’s the master of). Speaking of Joel, he was alleged to own two over $200,000 cars, when a staffer (and his dad was alive), that he hid/parked on the other side of Houston. You can fact check if the allegations were true, or just Google search his current River Oaks mansion, which will cause his greedy butt to be absolutely dead broke in Heaven—if he’s going!

When I was a member of SBC, Houston, a tall friend left our Sunday School class to go be Joel’s marketing man (a church marketing job—SO New Testament—NOT), Duncan Dodds. There’s a way I can name my mom’s crook second hubby. I’ll name his last name in a second tweet, so I don’t fully identify him, unless you find the two tweets, by reading them live, before Twitter erases their feed.

I’ve protested pastors in America NOT fully evangelizing all nearby lost people the past four+ years, and when God led me in late 2013 to live tweet for three weeks straight, MOST major ministries and seminaries, and even many smaller pastors SAW the exhortation! MOST have YET to fix that number one problem in our world. They’re sinning by not doing so, and I’m repeating that call. This will be the issue God uses my political run to bring to them via my free website, even if I never mention 'religion' one time.

I digress. Let's get toward Trump, in all this background lead up. Jack Graham (his spiritual advisor) was my pastor after I left Houston from Ed Young's church. Trump knows all about the things I wrote in 'church conflicts,' on our website, and he knows God called me to run for high office, and it scared him that he'd face God's power (which is NOT me), as competition, so he invited those two men to be his confidants.

Ed was wise enough to decline, from all I can discover. He may have attended a few meetings, but his name isn't listed wherever I find the evangelical council names; he may be—I just can't confirm. From the thousands of pastors, it got political. MOST politicians in D.C. know about this account. Many GOP's used a little of what we type. Even a few Democrats, as I advised BOTH sides, but I was a GOP, at the time, until I changed parties, when CHUMP won, as I'll have NOTHING to do with that man, who I HOPE ends up being the Antichrist, but may never. I'll watch and see, just like the rest.

I digress. Well-connected Jack Graham gets all these ministers to see what God's doing here on Twitter. They know politicians. I have a list of the heavy hitters whose accounts came and stayed here, many on several occasions, and I document over 80 news events that came from our tweets, and which politicians used what tweets, in our Wit and Wisdom book.

They bugged out when Chump won the GOP nomination, as no real need for advice thereafter. ASK THEM to take lie detectors. I don't trust many people in this account to ever tell the truth—many liars exist, to save face and reputations! I'll submit to one, anytime, anywhere, on most any topic.

You will never learn information you need not know, like boxer or briefs, and such nonsense. Speaking of nonsense, I wrote a scathing rebuke of CHUMP's candidacy on Facebook, and used the word 'nonsense.' Mr. Gram had MAY times signaled me when the Christian Cabal sought to get me to run for president (three times, minimum), and on a Saturday evening, last summer, he used that word concerning Trump. A little less than two weeks later, he tells ABC News that he's ready to 'champion' [a term that now Liberty University TV ads mimics] DJT. Flip-flop!

James Dobson came to our church in that first recruitment effort, after Jack witnessed the power of God in his church the weekend God called me into politics. Jack actually asks the crowd if they notice a uniquely powerful presence that evening? I attend Saturday evenings, and this would be the end of March, 2015. God had me group tweet all the heroes of the faith still living, and say 'why are you scoundrels voicing NO opposition to the Supreme Court likely nationalizing a state's rights issue—gay Marriage? Are you dead, asleep, or retired?'

They DID heed the warning, and Mike Pence and North Carolina's governor passed legislation, then Pence backtracked. I was ALWAYS for full, 100 percent equal rights, just done through private contractual means, as marriage is a sacred covenant the Bible restricts to polar opposite genders. Those events came from my bugging a few famous pastors on Twitter!

Jack already knew the past seven+ years that I never back down ('persistent layman'), so he has James Dobson come and use five one-liners, to signal me that they were on my side with the political views I typed here live for 1.5 years, using details of my life exposed here, like I'm 6'5" (as with Secret Service men in Dobson's testimony of the White House), my favorite group is the Beatles and I loved playing basketball.

You can find the Dobson interview—it's also in our book. He says Texas is leading in the gay marriage issue. You're welcome, Mr. Dobson (Lk. 17:17) He also testified to flipping a coin in front of his girlfriend, whom he married, and predicting it right every time, a reference to my many accurate predictions here, documented in Christians For Trump.

He also speaks of the wealth one can achieve if they get a talk radio gig, which I tweeted I'd be open to, until I run for office, but he also says 'you don't strike me as being as concerned with the money as getting things done,' which is true.

The Christian Cabal. They ALL started by God having me take 'Go Evangelize' signs to seven prominent churches in Dallas. You can see the pictures in the media section of this account, though it's early on, so scroll down a lot! T.D. Jakes, Tony Evans, Prestonwood, Gateway, the GREAT Chuck Swindoll's church (where a deacon asked me to do it his way with another ministry he suggested—I did not comply!).

I've taken those 'Go Evangelize' signs to Cottonwood Creek Baptist with my two sons, and a cop came, realized I'm a lawyer who knows his legal rights, and he actually stopped traffic with his red lights, allowing MORE people to read them.

Put my two sons on a witness stand. Depose them. Make them take a lie detector. NOTHING I'm saying has any element of any lie in them! (Rev. 14:5)

I took the 'Go Evangelize' signs to Fellowship Church, Grapevine, TX (Ed Young Junior), when ABC reported of his $4 million Learjet. God gets angry inside me. He can do it for you, if you know Him well. Most never get angry about anything, especially most U.S. pastors NEVER evangelizing ALL nearby lost people; willful sinning I pray God judges us for! I digress.

ABC tells me they WON'T film it at Ed's church, unless I have five or more participants. You can't get one, now days! I've taken the Gospel sign to the Cowboy's tailgating parking lot, and held it over my head as I circled the Cowboy fans.

The Democrat opponent to Joe Barton, my friend Lou Otto, drove a friend of mine and I to take my Gospel signs to the people entering ATT Stadium during the Super bowl, when Dallas hosted it, four or five years back.

I've taken it to major artery overpasses during drive time, when traffic was slowed to a crawl, so they'd be able to read it. Every major pastor in America likely knows all these things, but they keep it hush-hush because I do rock their boats!

I reprove their tithing doctrine, Lordship salvation, lack of EDBS priorities, church-as-a-business theory, and using our tax code to operate charities run like businesses. They know this account QUITE well. So does Chump! He copied most of his handful good ideas by summarizing my 1.5+ years of messages into closed borders, grow the economy, kill ISIS, USA #1, and over-outsourcing killing the working man and middle class, and the 'common sense' term.

I originated ALL of that, through Jesus, here! Several GOP's used one line or two, but Chump simply took my ideas and ran with them, because God always told me '2020!' Do you see the @Pledgers2020 account? SEE how long it's been up and running. My email has said 2020 probably five+ years! The Christian Cabal sought me to run for them, after seeing me destroy the incompetent answers of their man at the time, Ben Carson, and after seeing my political ideas here from Oct. 2014 to present.

Remember, Jack Graham (Trump's spiritual advisor who is presently in D.C., at the White House) is my family's pastor, and he desperately wanted me to run, instead of Chump.

2020 was always how I obeyed God, and not man. That angered him. He preached how Peter wouldn't get out of the boat, and even says 'get an agent' in one of his sermons. He feared the Johnson Amendment. Google search it. He's the one pushing Chump to change it, and we got an edict with NO power, as David French rightly opined.

I will tell more about Prestonwood, but let's address @RobertJeffress. Four+ years ago his church was targeted to do full evangelism. I phoned, emailed, tweeted, maybe sent a snail mail letter, then, in the sovereignty of God, my BFF at the time, evangelism partner Venga (who was with me at that Super bowl event) with Lou Otto (the Democrat opposer to Joe Barton, the disgraced over sexual harassment allegations three or so weeks ago, in Texas)... Venga rents First Baptist Dallas' chapel for his wedding. I leave three notes exhorting Jeffress to fully evangelize all nearby lost people.

He has always sought the political lime light, but he has yet to commit to that, though he can also spend multi-millions on a sanctuary I've been to twice, to prove to him I am not just Bosley of Charlie's Angels here on Twitter (you boomers will get that innuendo).

Those men God had me wake up for evangelism in 2013, then about gay marriage, in early 2015 (JUST after the Alabama Supreme Court went for it, without Roy Moore's approval)... those very same men conference called to reorganize the work of the Moral Majority of old. My tweets referenced why is that organization dead, just because the REAL Jerry Falwell is dead (RIP).

Somehow, Jack Graham (or his cohorts) thought Jerry's son was great name recognition to older Christians, when he flip-flopped for Trump, June 23, 1016. I never knew he existed—only his brother, Jonathan (red-headed pastor in Lynchburg, VA).

A side note, Frank Bruce (Asheville, NC) had his wife's blog attack my website, and I scolded them both here; the entire conversation is in that book.

He's a friend of Jack's, and an African-American great minister who taught my kids transferred to his church, which is another connection. I could go on and on (Heb. 11:32). Three times the Christian Cabal sought my candidacy. God led me to say NO, as the timing was wrong, and He had plans that shocked me with Chump's win!

I would have stayed a lifelong GOP (since age 18, and before), had Chump not won, but my political solutions take the best of both sides using common sense to get common ground, so either party was fine with me; all I cared about was solving problems, and making D.C. work like a business for the greater good of USA #1

You can Twitter search how many times I said U.S.A. must return to number one status in all categories, including morals, and how we treat other nations, WELL before Chump had many cogent thoughts (which were FEW, his entire campaign).

DO YOU SUFFER FROM AMNESIA?: <http://bit.ly/2z9sVup> His ONLY policies were a 50 foot beautiful wall, with a big, welcoming door, a complete Muslim ban, and one other item I'm too sleepy to recall. He morphed into alt right, because my ideas captured the middle and left and reasonable right. He knows I've challenged him here five+ times to a public debate on policy. He ignores, because he thinks it gets me famous. God's got all that in control for me.

I know he would lose, and I re-challenge the Chump today @POTUS @realdonaldtrump You are going down, Goliath who steals ideas, because you have no cogent ones yourself, or any Christian understanding, until Jack and company invent the 'baby Christian' term, to cover your sorry %&$!

Have I said enough? I could go on! Jack Graham thought he'd appease my nagging, by hosting the largest evangelism crusade event of its kind in ATT Stadium, using the great man, Greg Laurie, a couple years ago—the weekend I dropped my Philippians graphic chart at the, then, Southern Baptist Convention president, Ronnie Floyd's church, on vacation in Arkansas.

Are you starting to see how these events and men are all inter-connected? Jeffress was Graham's entre to Chump. Jeffress knows of me, and I seriously doubt cops wouldn't escort me away, now, if I attended this Sunday. That's how these control freaks operate their businesses, tax free!

A local DFW TV reporter interviewed @RobertJeffress, and the guy testifies that the GREAT W.A. Criswell once told him, 'one day this will all be yours.' That is NOT the Bible's description of church, or a pastor's possessions. Repent, Bob! "May I call you Bob?" [Reference to Franklin Graham article, in News Articles section, for humor] Need I come to you again?

So what God had myself begin for full evangelism, discipling, body life and social ministry, and revival, they used to gin up DUMB sheep's votes for the GOP, who they keep dumbed-down by topical sermons, no relational discipling to speak of, and the abortion mantra. Do I tell the truth, or what? Yes I do!

What else can I say? They have warped your understanding of Christianity! I pray you never hold their sins against Jesus. Please read John 3:16, today, and I'm going to take me a nap. YES—a grammatically spell checked version of this 'rant' WILL be at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>—the Christians For Trump book.

I'll go on to other true stories. Because I plan to run for office, and skeletons torpedo candidates, here's the worst thing I ever did... it's a single UN-true phrase I said to three people: My sister, my ex-wife, and Mr. Eckman, and I sent it to the FBI. Let's give the background, first...

I had a legally fraudulent first marriage, in that that fine woman lied to me on one issue I told her would be a deal-breaker for me. ONLY after the wedding did I discover the truth, looking in her diary, in the Bahamas, as she swam. Ever since then, I didn't want to be married, but I was a pastor, and divorce was not an option.

After three years, most of which I lived in a separate room, she brought divorce papers for me to sign, and to spare myself committing suicide, I relented. I was clinically depressed over losing the career (i.e., ministry), and was suicidally depressed three times in my early 20's over a divorce (i.e., ministry-ending), my getting these messages ending (after having literally been teleported from Hillsboro, TX, to Austin, in one second, Fall 1981), and my guilt for not being willing to be a full-time evangelist for zero pay, indefinitely, to test my faith.

Those three depression periods I tried suicide, weakly, with pills in abundance, and some wrist cutting. I did not have the nerve. Weak one! During one of those depression spells, excited over Bible prophecy, but knowing very little about it (a problem I've now fixed, writing two books on the subject, to ensure I'm not so dumb again), with the background of that teleporting, I knew God wanted me to do something BIG for Him, but, at the time, I wanted to die.

I had heard through the late great Don Anderson's teaching that some prophecy character dies in prophecy. I felt myself to be the worst person on earth for NOT going full-time evangelizing, for free, indefinitely, so my depression-warped thinking, suicidal desires and uneducated prophecy knowledge, plus a strange compulsion to do this, to keep family away, so I could write (which I've done 18.75 years, full-time) led me to say something completely untrue, but it was a cry for help!

I claimed to be the man of sin of Rev. 13, and I later learned the teleport was indicative of God leading me NOT to a seminary career, but politics. It happened on the way from seminary (in Ft. Worth) to Houston. I probably learned that two or three years ago. Austin is Texas' capital—duh.

So those three people (Republicans, all) could raise this issue when I run. I just preempted that possibility. I was hospitalized in all three incidents of suicidalness. The first time, I was getting these type messages, which now make up my 1,050 paged Wit and Wisdom book, then it stopped, in Colorado, so it was a heart-breaker!

I broke out of the control of three men who my parents had corral me to seek treatment, when back in Houston, as I just wanted to keep writing, and I begrudged my dad making me get treated. I ended all medicines once I was out, and have never taken a thing since.

However, after the ministry ended, I welcomed the help to recover from its depression (1981-1985, somewhere in that timeframe I got helped three times, to stay alive).

That one statement also taught me that God would lead me to possibly actually see that person rise. I hope I do, but I also know I'll be gone/Raptured before it's official, as with all Christians. It's biblically impossible for that claim to have been true, as I was saved at age eight, and fully committed to God at age 18, but I felt like the worst person ever birthed (Rom. 7:18; I Tim. 1:15), and that's what the Antichrist will be.

I wanted to die, so if I claimed such a foolish thing, maybe I could die, as I remembered Don saying happens. Depression is a very dangerous thing! My mom killed herself over it... starved herself to death over a 21-23 day period. You'll say or do anything to end the pain, even a stupid statement I mailed to the FBI, and told to those three people.

There is NOTHING left any political opponent can dig up, because I already tweeted that I pushed my romantic aspirations too far with two or three dates/girlfriends, but I've ONLY had sex with two women, and both were my wives (at separate times, of course—no polygamy here!).

That first wife may well say when I run that I was mean and cruel about her weight. ABSOLUTELY TRUE. She lied about having a problem with weight, even though I told her if she did have a problem, that was something I could not handle, and I would not marry into. Now I'm the overweight one, with a wife thin as a rail! #Ironies

I once pushed her off of me, after she broke a wine glass on my foot, and, being overweight, she had to catch herself (in a closet), from losing her balance. I never punched or pushed her, I just got her hands off me, and she was hefty. I'm certain there were two or three gals I moved to quickly with, on dates. I only recall one (Miss Hollywood, in the 1980's), but perhaps two may have thought me too fast-moving. They NEVER said so. My skeletons are laid bare. NO ONE can find any more.

If you ever think of trying to scoop my wife or kids, you will get the full weight of the law, and my wrath as an angry, protective bear. Yes, I am running for high office in the next 1.5 years, based on my three political books.

They are my only calling card. I wouldn't dare start any campaign until the world knows their contents, as I am an un-rich, un-famous nobody (II Cor. 12:11). But, most VIP's know of me, through Twitter. Most laymen do not. Book marketing, and doing all that's needed to promote those great ideas from God I will do when the timing is right, and I've got my family funded.

That starts SOON. The books WILL be finalized by Christmas eve, or Christmas day. There are too many EASY fixes for most of D.C.'s and the world's problems, and our books makes them so easy to understand.

One more thing: I wouldn't wish depression on my worst enemy, like CHUMP! I haven't had it since 1986, or taken one pill since, and I passed the law bar in Texas after a mental health review examination. It was my earlier 20's, our current Texas Lieutenant Governor had the same depression issues (my ex-radio talk show hero in the past, Dan Patrick), and if you can come up with the ideas of our books, you're welcome to criticize depression as weakness!

READ the liked tweets on our political Twitter accounts [listed below]. You will NOT find such information in that quantity, or often that quality, elsewhere, because God leads me to think, then type what I hear, when I'm writing. That ends Dec. 25. It started late Nov., 2013, and has NOT stopped. There are witnesses! And there are 12+ books, one 5,000 pages New Testament commentary, probably 40 or more accurate predictions, 6,400+ new product ideas, two websites, 18.75 years full-time writing, and these Twitter accounts and associated liked posts: @Pledgers2020 @PledgersARCHIVE @ImMadTooEdwin @ProphecyForYou @BuildBetterBiz READ!

READ WillYouLiveForever.org, and Facebook (Jim Meroney), and scroll through the media section of THIS Twitter site. You can see all the evidence of my having started the Christian Cabal for good, vs. evil, only by God's initiating. I'll debate any politician anytime on any policy! I'm ready to run! Democrat, now (as of and because of Chump's surprising, unexpected by me win—explained in Wit and Wisdom)!

ASK Jack Graham about his sensing an unusually powerful presence late March, 2015. ASK HIM, media. If he lies, don't trust any words out his mouth in any sermon, ever again! Ask Phil Thames if God didn't, VERY sadly, judge his turning on me. God prepared its outcome for years—He has foreknowledge.

The Cabal LOVE the media limelight. Jack's on Fox, often, as with Jeffress. Ask these men! Beware that people lie, to save million dollar careers, reputations and religious business enterprises. If you don't know that, you shouldn't be in journalism. Put me on a lie detector... I'll take 40.

Ask me if my car teleported with me in it. Very specifically, I left Ft. Worth on I-35 South, for Houston, to attend a Houston Rockets game with my dad, and Eric Habernal (security guard at Memorial City Mall, last time we spoke—many moons ago).

I was in my brand new Baylor graduation reward car—a tan, 1981 Oldsmobile Cutlass Calais, reading my red pocket New Testament in I Corinthians 15, with the phrase 'baptized for the dead.' I questioned for possible meanings, in context. I looked down to re-read that verse (just after seeing the green Hillsboro sign, about one mile from that town's outskirts); I looked down, looked up again and saw the U.T. football stadium (and, if I remember right, the notorious shooter's tower, to my right). [My BFF in college and seminary attended U.T., for a time, so I knew what Texas' stadium looked like].

I slowed down, rolled down the window, patted the car with my left hand, and said to it, 'Bessie, are we still in 1981?' Then I saw an exit (MLK?) which I took to U-turn, and saw that, mathematically, I had NO chance to be on time in Houston for that basketball game.

I knew I'd be in serious trouble with my dad—NBA tickets are expensive, and who wants to go to a game with your son's friend, as a dad?

I decided I had to invent evidence that I had car trouble. On the way back to Waco, I found a Conoco (or Texaco, probably the former), and begged the owner to fake a receipt indicating a car repair.

I have NO memory of how I was received when I arrived, but I would be furious, if I were him. By the way, he was incensed when I dropped out of seminary in late 1981, getting these type messages, but better—Bible doctrine based, and has likely hated my writing career ever since. I don't discuss anything deep.

That one MIS-speak, UN-true phrase, in the sovereignty of God, has 100 percent allowed me to now be at the end of all that writing, with NO flak from extended family, because if you say something 'crazy,' or act like weird Uncle Bob, they don't ask questions, and leave you alone.

John had his Patmos exile. Paul had ~18 years of anonymity. You can't write with pesterers who oppose you so doing.

My immediate nuclear family of five have ONLY sacrificed, struggled, and supported. They know all I say here is 100 percent true, and they know God leads me. You don't endure these trials without getting stronger, so I won't begrudge the one statement. It's the ONLY way these books could have been done! And done they are, at Christmas. You may recall I said if anything I write is untrue, may God strike me dead overnight. I'm still writing! No casket ordering needed by my family today. Any lie detector I'll take, anywhere, anytime. I am not ashamed. Thanks for listening.

And beyond the 12+ books, and 4,500+ products, I can learn marketing. I have seven library books checked out to read over Christmas ski trip. The world will learn common sense solutions to its many problems. MOST VIP's, and even the Pope and some of India's religious leaders have dropped by. Please buy our book(s). God bless.

That was NOT cathartic, but difficult. It's embarrassing to say you said such a stupid thing! I pray God gives me encouragement so I can keep writing today. It's such a difficult thing to have gone through those three suicidal bouts! WHY did they have to happen, Lord? #Sadness #Tears

VERY sad to have revealed my worst moment in life! Maybe exercise will help. Why did it have to occur? I only speak truth when I'm bound in the Spirit—that was dumb exception. Why, Lord? Am I to be thankful? (Phil. 4:4) #Sadness It's been a rough 1978-2017! SO little money earned to get here. #Sadness

By the way, my kids suffered through losing three grandparents within nine months when my mom killed herself. They have NOT had it easy. #Heroes Why can life be so tough and cruel sometimes, Lord?

They were little children! They barely got to now one of the greatest women to encourage people! RIP, mom #Sadness

When I was 50, we had a birthday party, and my mom announces to everyone, 'Jim's not rich, but he has a great heart.' VERY hard not to begrudge her that embarrassing insult, as a deceased person I'll meet one day! HOW DARE YOU! I'm poorer because I serve God. You ought to try it sometime, vs. adultery!

Let's address my Christian testimony. Age eight, There Is a Fountain (song), second verse. Undeniable call from God to go forward. I did. Water baptized a week or so later. Southview Baptist Church, Lincoln, NE. #sadness at that song, as its author also had severe depression! <https://t.co/Jlajn2neMh> #Sadness

I saw Ken Medema (my mom's friend), about a month ago. Blind, amazing song writer who even my eldest son adored. #Sadness about how rough life is for those people, among whom was that Indian dude yesterday at the library. The cane makes them not run into things, and break their face. We need better products!

Why not GPS with voice recognition speaking Siri to tell them the coming obstacles? He had to walk so slow to avoid crashes. #Sadness #Tears The Fall of man hurt us SO badly—brought death and disease into the world. Why not a beeping noise if a blind person gets too close to any obstacles, like cars have? Make it easier for them!

Such #Sadness Mutes: Why not technology to convert thoughts to a speaking computer? Limbaugh has ear implant technology to hear better. Why not for mutes' thoughts, converted to the speech of SIRI? Deaf? Why not technology that absorbs all conversing people, and immediately transfers it into speech on a smart phone for them? Forget sign language.

What about people in wheelchairs? My post-op breath was so bad, I raced out of church last Sunday. But that sweet gal next to me probably can't afford an automated wheelchair. Her brother played for the Cleveland Browns. Why didn't I push her to her car? Embarrassed about my GERD breath. Too self-absorbed. #sadness

People suffer! Alleviate it! Isn't that what it means to be human? My relative saved a gal from suicide three days ago—THAT's what matters in life, not money, folks! What about amputees, and paralyzed people, or Alzheimer's sufferers, or Michael J. Fox's Parkinson's? SOLVE these things, people, by business, government, charity, or all three!

THINK about homeless people, the poor in the hoods and barrios. If you choose NOT to, as you enjoy wealth, you are shallow and hollow inside—sub-human. <http://bit.ly/2z9aYfg> HEAR those lyrics! Why have I not seen them before? Wake UP, America—please. Political fighting is vain futility!

My daughter adores special needs people. My eldest son loves babies. My other son loves animals. God has the NOT high-and-mighty here to teach us compassion, people! Instead, we've learned to block them out! Why? Selfishness sin! Money pursuits. Not my department attitudes. Great #Sadness this morning.

I would NEVER have learned to care about these matters without going through depression, and being broke writing for 18+ years! I do thank You now, Lord. Still, #Sadness. That's NOT the way God intended His world to turn out. He will fix it! New Heaven, new earth. #Sadness Thy will, on earth as in Heaven!

Money ends. People never end. Why can't we see this? You end in one venue or the other. There is no middle ground (like politics, today). John 3:16 #sadness Prostitutes aren't proud of their lifestyle, and disease-risking behavior! Money's NEVER worth selling your body and self-esteem!

Human trafficking? JAIL the culprits! Illegals having BAD lives outside America. Fix your economies, nations from where they come! Terrorists? You will burn in Hell. DON'T be so dumb as to believe that 17 beautiful virgins exist for you. They DONT! Hell awaits. Repent!

Greedy Wall Street executives, and people. Think about others, for once in your pitiful life—NOT just your own family!

Politicians: Do the right thing, or get the Hell out of Dodge. We the people have spoken. Widows: God have mercy on them! I watch the First Forty-Eight TV show a lot—all those lonely wives (as it's usually males who die) have to fend for their family. Why would any human oppose the government helping them a little? HEARTLESS, cold, selfish Hell bound alt-right ideas.

Eighty-one percent of WASP's who went with CHUMP. Live out your religion, I warn you! If you don't, read what WILL occur (I Pet. 4:17).

Homeless: DO YOU WANT TO STAY THAT WAY, or do you need mental healthcare? There are solutions! It's dangerous, and 'insane' to live in the wild, at night, under a bridge. You are a human! Government and charities and churches should help you get on your feet—NOT be a permanent social outcast! Vets should NEVER be homeless! You serve America, and she abandons you? Where's the justice in that?

You in prison: IT is your punishment, NOT shanks and rapes and fights. These things OUGHT NOT BE! (Jas. 3:10, the Bible).

Orphans: How desperate it must be to feel no one must love you in life! They're dead, or gave you up. #Abandonment Psychologically devastating, at least potentially. God loves you. He knows your suffering heart. I've never thought one thought about this, from a busy life. God is never too busy for your prayers! (Jas. 1:27, the Bible)

Elderly: Society less and less respects your wisdom; just considers you a burden. MY apologies for that. You earned our respect! You have physical ailments we all will have. You are no worse than we able-bodied people... you're just ahead of the curve of life! Disabled: Technology is needed for every ailment. #JustDoIt

Are you suicidal? Get pills! Be VERY careful who you tell, because laws kill your chances at avoiding hospitalization! Go to a psychiatrist, immediately! There's hope, even if your circumstances are miserable!

Bullies? Go to Hell, figuratively, not literally! Repent! May jail time be your future. Abused women: NEVER take any crap off any man!

Sexually assaulted women: REPORT THEM TO THE COPS IN EVERY CASE! I know women who have been raped. DON'T let them get away with it! It's YOUR body, and God's temple! Let the law hang 'em by the ___s! Abused kids: NEVER believe you have to live like that! Tell someone!

Jesus mainly cared for the NON-high and mighty, and His rebukes usually, if not always, were against the proud high and mighty. Let that fact affect you, emotionally, today!

Burglars: Get a JOB. They earned their stuff, and it's NOT yours! Quit ruining their lives because you are selfish, or lazy, and evil! Rapists. No words.

Bank robbers and tax cheats: FULL extent of the law prosecutions! Gang bangers who harm people or property: Zero tolerance! Be offered better choices, but it's NOT God's design that you find security among bad peers! (I Cor. 15:33)

Aborters: Reconsider that decision from the vantage point of your child inside! Adulterers: You are hurting your spouse!

Racists: It's ONLY by circumstances you never controlled that you were not born anywhere of any color other than what you are. You can take NO pride in that, or any sexy/beautiful people. (I Cor. 4:7) Rich executives: You are NOT the cat's meow before God. (Jas. 1:10) You WILL face God in accountability for your choices! (Rom. 14:12)

Fat people: You need to thin up, for health, but you are NOT a loser. God loves you equally, as if you were fit and buff! Ignore the haters, and get on a weight loss program. Add water, eggs and oatmeal, etc. Fruits, veggies, and exercise.

Moonshiners: Pay taxes! You're ripping us off, floating you (TV show on in the background).

Teachers: THANK YOU! Vets: THANK YOU. Students: NEVER hassle your teacher, act up, disrespect or ignore them. They are making your future for you, even if you care less how good or bad it will be. You're too young to know this. LEARN!

Employees: Do your work as if God sees your efforts, for He does! Employers: Treat your employees like family, or like you'd want to be treated. (Lk. 6:31) Alcoholics: Get sober. Drug addicts: Get clean. Sex addicts: Get freed! Perverts, get jacked (i.e., strong justice against you).

Scientists and engineers: Design products you speak into that immediately changes what you say in your language to a selected language of those you speak to. Is this that hard?

Animal abusers: Quit demonstrating your INferiority by trying to show you have any power against innocents who can't fight back!

Serious polluters: We ALL have to drink and breathe the air and water you spoil for us all—STOP DOING IT, for an extra buck!

Gambling addicts: You are frittering away your life in futility, if beyond doing it a little, mainly for fun (unless it's your business, and you actually profit). I'm going to randomly stop, here, as I'm a bit tired. #MoreToCome

In summary, care about more than JUST money. People matter! Any Christian who doesn't evangelize is saying to people they see, to Hell with you, literally! Stop buying into Churchianity! It's NOT biblical.

Serve God, or expect to be broke in Heaven. Pastors, DO EDBS priorities in 2018—NOT later! You dilly dally too much! Bye.

Update: Anti- "Christian" Cabal

TOO late @JoelCRosenberg, and YOUR man caused it! YOU know me very well through, Jack Graham! Take a lie detector if you deny it. See our message today and soon-coming book.
<http://fxn.ws/2kn7Eot>

LISTEN TO THIS EFFEMINATE-sounding MAN! <http://fxn.ws/2kn7Eot> He's the power behind The Apostasy, and has ZERO skills at politics, balance or justice. He's an arrogant hack.

@RobertJeffress HAVE YOU EVER CHOSEN TO EVANGELIZE ALL NEARBY LOST AS I'VE TOLD YOU GOD TOLD YOU TO DO the past three years+?

(Phil. 1:23) ANY Christian who desires prophecy to occur more than they want evangelism to be done fully is selfish, @RobertJeffress. Selfishness sin! Live it up now, for you will be SO poor IF you are going to Heaven. Your STUPID president just set off prophecy events, over time. You are a FAILURE!

I am 100 percent committed to shutting down the "Christian" Cabal in the 2020 election! They are HERETICS, selfish money idolaters who use abortion to push 1940 on America, and implement prophecy withOUT warning all people how to be safe. The most evil false prophets I've even known in person! Ichabod! Laodicean.

Lord, please judge Your people, especially the Christian Cabal handful of foolish pastors who live HIGH on the hog off the hard work of stupid sheep they require an UN-biblical "tithe" from so they can be in mansions here, and outhouses there! And their phony President. Amen. Debate me guys!

Any Washington D.C. political office is ONLY a necessary evil to get GOD things done! Those FOOLish pastors dream of walking in the White House! WHO GIVES a &%$ about that temporary outhouse housing, compared to Heaven? Men living for this life, and secular vs. spiritual power! Christian Cabal men! (Isa. 55:8)

I hope God destroys their flesh kingdoms! May EVERY small and medium sized church, and every GOOD mega church pastor who did NOT follow those egoists be blessed, and their UN-commanded man-made money idolatry sanctuaries crumble like rubble! Edifices of arrogance, as the world goes to Hell!

TO A MAN, God had me specifically contact every major player in the Christian Cabal, to get them to get their members to lead a movement to get all people to know how to go to Heaven. Those Judases backed political Antichrist to get fame and media attention (say money through increased church members learning of them). They hinted to me I'd get more of a career with them [vs. the democrats]!

They gave a talk radio gig to a seminary president who opposed them, and dislikes Chump, so he'd be quieter! They tried to fire the GOOD man, Dr. Russell Moore. They now have @JoelCRosenberg interviewing pansy Jeffress on Fox all the time. Joel: You sold out! I really thought you were better than that, when you were at church.

They backed the Benton Brothers, who were all about fame and media (for money), when the media shut them down. The Godly Caleb pastor did NOT have such a harsh position that got the twins in the hot water, so this Christian Cabal offers JOBS, media exposure, fame. NOT Jesus' priorities! Anathema!

They dug up from the dead Tony Perkins and Ralph Reed's public involvement, silent all during Obama's term! One of those two men had to ask pastors what Christian policies would be of concern! Pat Robertson: You are with this band of misfits, too! His nice female ex-co-anchor came to our church—suffered depression.

When you have to ask Christians what their issues are, they haven't been active in solving them, now, have they? Common sense! The North Texas Presidential Forum and National Day of Prayer was payoff to Jack Graham via Dobson's wife. It's all to humiliate and show disdain for gays as INFERIOR human beings.

Jeffress says TRANS are mentally ill. Conversion therapy is a JOKE. You either save people's souls (via God), or deal with their emotional problems—if they have any. These two issues are NOT related! Spiritual vs. secular—the SAME distinction this Cabal can't make in politics, either!

NO person goes to Hell because they have an emotional problem. Even if Jeffress stopped an aborter or turned a gay man straight, that doesn't save anyone, Bob. You haven't lived up to the 'Doctor' title by your actions this year in politics! My family may have no church home now! Maybe that's how we reunite for church, and they leave.

The Christmas week Saturday evening 6 pm service after Dec. 23rd, if anyone besides my family has a cell phone to record any exit by cops, at Prestonwood, I'd LOVE many witnessing videos! We'll have our own, but many shots/angles convinces more people it actually occurred, if it does. The contract gives them that right!

FULL EXPOSURE is coming their way whether they kick me out or let me stay, and act like none of this is true! The headmaster TRIED to play it both ways, being Chump's buddy, but urging us at the same time. I have NO problem with his own, self-brought-upon predicament, but he's shown morals DON'T matter so I will have NOTHING to do with that type 'man of God.'

In my heart, John Bisagno is my pastor for life! Maybe Tony Evans, though he deserves to be left out of this. He's smart enough to have bugged out 2.5 years ago. That godly man just wants to do God's work—NOT politics! Same with Greg Laurie. Smart cookies!

I feel for Jarrett Stephens, caught in the middle between doing right and keeping a job! He's got to be the errand boy of his control freak human boss, or risk his family missing out on a YUGE payday. He's sincere. I'll pray for his deliverance from such stress! Money's not everything. #MoralsMatter

Let's detail exactly the thoughts behind the Cabal; NOT the dates. The late Adrian Rodgers wrote a piece to several famous pastors, perhaps in Reagan's day, that Ronnie Floyd added to a post, maybe two years ago, saying as goes the Southern Baptists, so goes the nation, through other denominations.

James Robison contacted me on Twitter saying I had NO idea what they were up to on opposing nationalizing gay marriage, then I reminded him I was the one who called them to have the ~50 person conference call he was so insistent was handling it, as if they were on their game, then.

He touted Ben Carson for two years with 'Run Ben Run' ads, and home schooling conference speeches. It was Huckabee who visited Second Baptist Houston in earlier campaigns, and to avoid law-breaking, he spoke to us on marriage. It's all code words for hate gays! Even the Roy Moore life was better for families is likely code talk for gays ruin traditional families.

Unity is how Roy Less described the changes since slavery days. As far as I see, except for dysfunctional families, most people living under one roof are pretty united, Roy Boy! Dobson made a career on 'family.' Any who aren't male-female aren't family, to them.

I can't say I disagree with them on Gods definition of marriage, but it's society and individuals that are stressed, more individualistically selfish and money hungry, thanks to the political belief system this Christian Cabal has adopted, after they wanted to go with the centrism I offered.

It's about gays and aborters. The ONLY two Bible verses in their Bibles! WHAT are they going to do to gays who the law calls married? Crickets! Water under the bridge, except they push Pence to reward his stand against gays; SAME with Roy Moore and Kim Davis. You vehemently oppose gays, we are all for you, says this Cabal.

NO OTHER MORAL ISSUE MATTERS FOR AMERICA! If there were no gays or abortions, America would be great again, like it was when white men owned blacks. This is EXACTLY the logical conclusion to the 'Christian' Cabal's beliefs! CHUMP stumbled into this belief just to gain votes! He played them for self as god.

DO YOU READ THESE TYPES OF COMMENTS ANYWHERE ELSE? There is a Reason for that, and I hope that Reason becomes more obvious as we continue. It is NOT that I have a high IQ. It's probably average! What more shall I say about these men?

The GOOD NEWS is that evangelical support for CHUMP dropped 17 percent in the last month, or so. I PRAY pastors and my Christian brethren are starting to see through the rhetoric of these politically inexperienced men serving Chump, and serving well out of their league, and not disciplining him as they ought, as evidenced by his continued ignorance and immorality.

They sold their souls. I can't imagine why or how you'd do that. They got the idea of America needing another Reagan from me! We do, if he's moral. Trump is NOT Reagan. His son will tell you that until he's blue in the face, Christian Cabal. [Cf.: <http://bit.ly/2HFTqtD>]

Let's talk Jerusalem... Trump HAD to have been facing a FAILure through Kushner, so he threw a monkey wrench in the works to save face! Joel Rosenberg letting Robert Jeffress and Jack Graham say it was a GOOD thing, and telling UN-biblically knowledgeable WASP laymen believe those men know anything about the topic is a scam.

Forget prophecy 100 percent! If you are trying to broker a deal, and you are the arbiter, you NEVER show bias or partiality! Law school dispute resolution 101. Get a law degree if you want to speak on politics, and GO THOROUGHLY EVANGELIZE THE HELL-BOUND NEAREST YOUR CHURCHES, Christian Cabal! God is interested in the Jews and the Arabs, and peace vs. killing. Unrest and disorder are NOT His handiwork. That's ALL Chump did. And in doing so, he has tarnished America's reputation with our G-20 allies! We are NOT leading, we are not following, we are bumblingly making the world more dangerous, and schizophrenically causing chaos—for no reason! That is NOT America. Trump is NOT America. He's reality TV politics! Jerry Springer Show at administering our government.

Life's too serious for that! Human life is too valuable for such nonsense! The health, welfare and safety of Arab and Jew is too valuable to God to CAUSE problems, and double-tonguedly say you pursue peace, and have made a calculation in the best interests of America, when its ONLY to gain WASP votes in 2020!

If only I knew marketing. When these words get in our books, and I earn a set amount by sales, my full-time energy will be in getting these thoughts to as many people as will listen. The books are basically done. Today's message that has lasted half a day will take quite some time to refine. #Miles2goB4Isleep

Let me ask an honest question: Can anyone in the Christian Cabal do this, live, for hours on end (14, total), un-pre-planned? I rest my case if it matches up with Scripture. Case CLOSED! Ps. 43:1)

You CAN'T make up this headline! <http://fxn.ws/2kn7Eot> I cause a fire, then swoop in as the fire-fighter/savior? EXACTLY what the STUPID Christian Cabal has done—as they're preachers, NOT Bible scholars, especially on prophecy! Men of the fool's gold glitter and sparkle-bedazzled cloth, CAUSING problems!

That's EXACTLY like an Arab building a mosque at the temple mound, then saying we want to engage peace talks. WHO IS SO STUPID THEY CAN'T SEE THIS? Any claiming Christian who believes these Cabal spokespersons! Hand grenades to the peace process don't make peace. E.U. leaders get this! DO any U.S. WASP's?

Trump CERTAINLY doesn't and didn't know it. There's a REASON (and the press/media NEEDS to find it) why CHUMP agreed to such a FOOL's policy. It's beyond WASP votes. Kushner was inept at his job! There was NO chance at peace, so, like 'Nancy and Chuck,' Chump ruins any chances because he saw no deal!

LISTEN (if your ears can handle the shrill) to Jeffress explain why ruining the peace process was God's will! He's VERY emotional about it (~five posts ago). Jerusalem being the Jew's capital is a SPIRITUAL truth, NOT a political reality at this era in history (i.e., pre-prophecy. I'll BET Jeffress owns a D.Min. vs. Ph.D.!

CORRECT: <http://bit.ly/2nZ5Dnt> When Jesus returns, seven years AFTER that 7-year peace deal, is when a capital for Jews matters. If it can be negotiated before, agreeably, fine. God's NO MORE bent out of shape when Jews were in the Diaspora, then if their capital's down the street! It's MUCH better with them in the land, than dispersed abroad.

Two thousand years of history have transpired. Jews want to act like it's 70 A.D., and Arabs want to act like 1948 never happened. DEAL WITH REALITY, especially WASP Christian Cabal in America. Get your nose out of their family dispute if all you're going to do is screw things up!

I would NOT want to be Robert Geoffrey the Giraffe on Judgment Day! You are personally liable for starting prophecy events, "sir"/doctor, through your man-crush, CHUMP. GREAT accomplishment—NOT! There will be NO peace that's lasting until the second coming. Why care about where the capital is? Care that peace prevails, and that righteousness reigns. Be thankful and glad that the Jews are in their land. This is NOT the Millennium; go to seminary again and earn a real doctorate, "sir!" I don't personally care what he (i.e., Jeffress) does, and God can overcome any stupidity of man, but he is MIS-representing Christianity! That concerns me.

The dumbest statement I've heard since I first learned of the Christian Cabal's existence is that all past U.S. presidents were FAILures at Israeli peace dealing. They did the best they could, under hard circumstances. Dropping a bomb in any chances for it ISN'T an improvement, do-do men! Christian Cabal.

HOW do you let a wife and a husband who divorce access their prior home? Our book gives four answers. I'm NOT going to educate you men any more than I have the past three years, and your sermons at Prestonwood prove it the four years prior! Get your own brain, and pray, and study more! Bumbling buffoons, politically.

The TYPICAL conservative knee jerk reactions to argue that America is NOT any other nation, so any nations who oppose us aren't our role models, or you're a "globalist." That way, they can leave their brains and consciences in the dumpster, and think Chump just did something great in Israel, despite world opinion.

One-world government is supposed to occur in the Tribulation. Why don't you great "thinkers" work for that evil end, too, if you think you yourselves can orchestrate prophecy. ONLY God does it, and in it you will be judged! You've even claimed Trump's election shows God's handiwork, and one of you said it shows "revival."

First, WHO called for revival four+ years ago, and you followed his lead? God through me, here. UN-important, but I will remind you, because you act like I didn't get you started in all this, for GOOD stuff, and you warped it for evil. DUMB.

My point is, revival is SOVEREIGN! Read a dictionary to learn what it really means! It means NO man can P.R. stunt their way into its IMITATION! And it DOESN'T mean Trump votes are evidence. Voting for ignorance and immorality is the OPPOSITE of revival, better known as apostasy! I'm expecting ZERO Christians to back me on this message, because they fear "disunity."

The Bible does NOT share those fears, when people are biblically WRONG in the name of Jesus! TO A MAN, excepting Jack Graham, these Cabal members REJECTED EDDBS priorities I wrote them, and their peers about for 1.5 years as they came by here. They begrudged missing the Reagan days, politically, MAINLY! Idolatry.

They held a conference call of maybe 30-50 pastors sometime after April, 2015, and decided Adrian Rodger's message of old needed a revived Moral Majority effort. I mocked them before that for that organization DYING when 'AIDS is God's judgment on gays' Falwell died. I even asked Dobson if he's retired.

I blamed their seeking fame and fortune since 1985, and earlier complacency allowing Roe to be passed, when I was a mere lad. They took this blame personally! My point was, wake up and stop being wusses, and let righteousness reign. Does anyone in their right mind thinks that's what has happened via CHUMP? JUST the opposite!

Extremism, hate, KKK resurrected, alt right policies, division, violence ('I can shoot someone on NYC streets and still keep these dummies' votes). YOU SUPPORTED THIS ENVIRONMENT, for Jesus? For Jesus? For the Devil, Cabal! WOW! For Jesus, they say.

Ban every abortion in red states, if not nationally. Force women to use coat hangers; that's Jesus' way. Force gays to NOT have long-term relationship through conversion therapy (i.e., forced salvation, when it's free-willed). This is the Jesus of the Bible?

This DOESN'T mean abortions are virtuous, or homosexuality is not a sin in the Bible—it's one of about 22 abominations listed in Leviticus. These men ONLY see the ONE in that list! HOW convenient! (SNL church lady reference). It's ALL for GOP extreme right policies. Screw the poor. ALL government help of anyone is evil. Government bad—Annie, get your gun!

And as a 100 percent rabbit trail, isn't it ironic that the people who believe God protects them most buy guns to protect themselves the most? In guns we trust? This DOESNT mean I'm opposed to gun ownership, but that irony CAN'T be lost on lost people. I think I'm done here, for now. #FoodForThought. One 40 minute nap since 2 am!

Forget prophecy 100 percent in politics! ALWAYS do the right thing. Favoring the Jews over the Palestinians was NOT being an impartial arbiter. I laugh out loud with that headline that evangelicals seek peace. That's the school yard bully stealing your lunch, and punching your nose, and touting peace-seeking! WOW!

Trump CAN be goaded. I challenged him to settle Israel's issue, because he very well may end up being the Antichrist. I did that a year ago regarding bombing, after Syria gassed their people, and he responded, then said Ivanka wanted him to. He stays on Twitter as fear of my not getting off it.

And I haven't since Nov., 2013. The exact dates are in our book. Ask any famous politician in D.C. if they know of <http://AmericanAnswers.org> on Twitter. You can leave my name out of it. I care less either way! Christmas in the White House, Jack Graham? Glorifying in shame! You TRY to separate pastor role from activist. I'm exposing it here, and elsewhere, for all to see. I shine lights in darkness. God had me behind the scenes of the Wizard of Oz act, and it's just like the movie. Isn't that EXACTLY the analogy I used on TripAdvisor that angered you enough to call me in for the contract? You should remember the illustration WELL! 2013!

The church members know NOTHING of these matters, for the most part. For a couple months several of them did, because he thought I would get on the Cabal train. When I didn't, their accounts faded. I blocked many of them, anyway. Speaking of, I'm going to un-block Phil Thames now, as I promised... I already had. I'm not a vindictive person, and I like people to learn things. I don't even remember, but it's in character for me to get over his betrayal. He was just a tool for much bigger things God was up to. Sorry for your wife! She did great things to prevent abortions. RIP. Hope your daughters are fine.

Headmaster even challenged me on that assertion in a sermon, because what took her started four to five years prior. God foreknows. You think He didn't know He'd call me into politics 30+ years ago, when He had me start writing (1978), or get a law degree? I NEVER had one thought of politics until Mar., 2015, excepting to write on common sense policy. I wanted D.C. cleaned up. I thought God would use me, but had ZERO idea how. Selfishly, I just wanted the writing obligation/burden to stop, as I do this moment, so the only way is to write. Take breaks, and you are freed up later. I ain't waiting any longer!

I'll write all weekend if it will end this effort on Twitter and for books! It's hard! It's been 18.75 full-time years since 1982 (not consecutively). It's work! It's tiring! It causes trouble. It causes stress and poverty. I enjoy it, but I'm tired of it.

I've told God no more several times—ask my wife. I shocked her today when I asked her to pray this ends, or I'm going to rebel! I simply know what happened to Jonah when he wasted time in the whale's belly. All he did was delay having a good time! If you've got to do something God's called you to, do it sooner than later. I HOPE I'm done.

Christmas WILL be the deadline, but I wouldn't complain finishing early and taking a day or two off. I haven't in years. I'm NOT complaining, but complaining. Ha! The Bible calls this compelled (I Corinthians), and bound in the Spirit (Acts). John, in Revelation, calls it 'in the Spirit.' NOT just Spirit filled; John was that ~100 percent of the time.

MORE true stories: Cambodia, Nov. 1996, Global Mission Fellowship mission trip... God led the largest number of pastors I disciplined to respond as anyone. The group toured sites. God had me evangelize people by myself, finding a college student studying ESL who was sitting with an English dictionary. He led me to write down 13 words in their language, to show them a Gospel presentation, of sorts. Being 6'5", kids flocked to you, as an American. Parents, apparently let them run free a lot of the day(?).

Pol Pot was still alive, and the Khmer Rouge were in the outer lands. I preached a 'sermon' saying what they did was wrong, but they could be saved just as easily as the crowd in that room. The group's headmaster and I went door-to-door, until we heard a gunshot, and he said, 'the better part of wisdom is we go the other way.' I agreed. I used a pig as illustrative of our sin being dirty, then was told they value them like pets in their home. Sort of like when Paul had to split up an audience when he misspoke in Acts.

They offered us food—they were so kind. I always refused, because they had flies all over them. Graciously I thanked them, and said my body can't absorb food with flies, safely.

God led me to use the kids to tell others about Jesus, I think it was through comic books our group provided. All locals always wanted money, because a quarter was at least a month's salary, if I recall the math details right. I usually don't. I will be called arrogant for these stories. I'm teaching readers that I am NO stranger to biblical Christianity, so let the Bible decide between what I say, and the Christian Cabal, if they differ! Never trust any man. Be Berean! (Ac. 17:11)

I'd LOVE God to call me home, but I'm NOT suicidal. Just tired. I can't see how I can write anymore. Beam me up, Scotty! &Miles2GoB4I Zzz.

Let's address the division in America. I NEVER hold back. I'm as black and white as you'll ever NOT want to see. It's blacks vs. whites, rich vs. poor, government is good vs. is bad. Business is good vs. is bad. This is NOT America! One nation under God, INDIVISIBLE! The UNITED states. A more perfect UNION.

Accept differences! Let lefty states be out there. Let righty states be stingy jerks, as much as possible. Common ground allows variance vs. cookie cutter standardization! Justice requires that ALL Americans benefit from policies, and NO favoritism. Read our three books. I'm tired. Bye.

Fortunately, I think I'm done for awhile. One P.S. is that J. Graham THOUGHT by having Greg Laurie evangelize through the ATT Stadium, I'd get off his back. I DID. But with this Christian Cabal for weird, warped Christian views, often, I'm right back on His case, through our Lord. I only learned of their political antics on 6/23/16!

Why will there be no peace in the Middle East until Jesus returns? Two reasons. God said, and, relevant to politics, BOTH sides claim the same assets as historically theirs. That NEVER works out well. Obama did a better job in the Middle East than what Chump did! That ought to rile up some dumber Christians!

No progress is better than reversal. I'm TRYING to make this simple for Trumpsters. If you have cancer, and do nothing, that is better than a botched surgery that kills you.

How else can I make this cartoon simple for Trump loyalists? An ex-Dolphins player as an NFL referee wouldn't be seen as neutral officiating a Dolphin's game. HOW do I illustrate what Chump did, and why? He is the duplicitous, double-tongued SNAKE. He gives lip service words of peace seeking, then botches the chances to achieve the aim he just stated was his. That's too academic. "Peace, peace." That's Trump. (I Th. 5:3) That's too much Bible for a Christian Trumpster devotee (even though II Th. 2:11 perfectly describes their faith in him). Try this: Four million Frenchman CAN be wrong, but consensus is often how God speaks. The WORLD speaks to Donnie, but he's deaf. Let's try one more, then get into nitty-gritty's: A judge in a divorce court is trying to settle a couple's estate, when the FIRST thing he does before hearing either side's case is award custody of the one and only child to the wife. That's what CHUMP did last week. Then the judge says, proceed with presenting your cases. Yeah, right!

Let's describe what best case scenarios are: 1. ZERO violence. Every party ignores the other, puts up with and only tolerates the other. Have you not heard Iran's leaders say they want to wipe Israel off the map? Some extremists will stop at nothing to get the whole enchilada. That will NOT happen before a HORRIBLE, seven year stint on earth, and American doesn't control it starting, or and can't let nations destroy Israel.

I even advised @netanyahu to bomb the Iran nuclear facilities around 2009 when they were near trying to do so. I left word on their state website. I wasn't even on Twitter then. So let us—ALL humans NOT Jew or Arab—encourage them NOT to pursue all-or-nothing answers.

It's exactly like two brothers inheriting a mansion, and the dad left no will for the division. They'll fight each other if government laws don't intervene. Forget the fact of what God will do in the future about it—we can't make public policy on religious beliefs of prophecy.

So, the best we can do is the right thing, under the circumstances. That would NEVER be to favor one side over the other, even though the Jews are called, in the Bible, God's people. SO WAS Ishmael. In today's politics, and era in history, America and even Christians are NOT to say Jews are superior to Arabs! They are equals.

If they are evil, or terrorists, they are NOT equals. It's NOT like every Jew is Mother Teresa, and every Arab is Hitler (and vice versa). An arbiter shows NO partiality, just like God. (Rom. 2:11) Christians in America want America to protect Israel based on Gen. 12:3. To be FAIR/JUST to BOTH sides does NOT violate that! (Mic. 6:8)

(Ps. 33:12) The Christian Cabal is TRYING in the flesh (vs. trusting in the Spirit) to force (vs. free-willedly) make America a nation FOR God, when He tells us to pray (Ps. 122:6), and evangelize people. I would no more put any alt-right gun to any Arab-American's head and say you will vote for Christian values as I'd want them to force me to do for Islam values.

FREE-WILLED CHOICE. That's the American, and the Christian way, and America is NOT a dictatorship or a theocracy. The people decide, so you have to CONVINCe, not force, through chumming up to CHUMP as religious lobbyists!

The Johnson Amendment: Does the United States majority want preachers dictating public policy? You see how well they did last week! Texan Lyndon Johnson didn't want politics and religion mixed to the point that there is no church-state separation, as it's freedom of religion—NOT from religion or state sponsored/established religion.

Finally, 'religious liberty:' Can a Jehovah's Witness refuse a life-required blood transfusion for their dying child? Can Mitt Romney NOT serve in the military (like Muhammad Ali), and not be slandered as an unpatriotic traitor?

At the same time, America banned polygamy—a religious value of the past among some people. What gives? When does religion affect U.S. policy? When the people decide its values should affect our laws, but America is a land of laws. Legal precedent controls what can be done, and there's a PROCESS for changing laws. And due process is required.

Trying to shove your religious values down America's throat because you got a WEAK and ineffectual lout elected so you can ban abortions is the WRONG PROCEDURE! But what else would you expect from NON-lawyer religious zealots? Zealot, by definition, involves NON-thinking; zeal alone. (Rom. 10:2).

If Buddhists controlled the population of a Michigan town, and decided to change American laws, our Constitution governs. Same with Jews, Hindus, Islam, and Christians! No one religion dominates. Religion is SEPARATE! We are not in an earlier era of Europe under Constantine! No official document says America is a Christian nation.

Christians are called to influence society for good. Salt and light. Thy will be done on earth. God no more forces His will, as Calvinistic predestination. Now I KNOW I lost all Trumpster Christians! Too heavy.

Let me try to lighten it up, water it down, and bring in a cowboy illustration: You own a farm, or a ranch. Someone steals your horse. Why is that wrong? God says, and our laws agree with Him. Our theft laws were not taken from the Bible, directly, as in the Founding Fathers did not search chapter and verse before ratifying the Constitution, to see if it matched the ten commandments of Roy Moore, or any other parts of Scripture.

Natural law is also a bridge. Unreligious people intuitively know it's wrong to take your horse, like the one Roy Less is going to ride into town to vote on, like the new sheriff in town... IN BLAZING SADDLES. Sorry Roy; I used a black man to illustrate! NOT the good ol' days analogy, for you.

The serious point is if you want to have laws passed, get the people on your side. If a majority of Americans want Israel to be set ablaze by DUMB decisions, let them lobby Congress to pass laws declaring Jerusalem Israel's capital!

And if the majority clamors for bad policies, RESPONSIBLE politicians say NO. That's NOT a dictatorship controlling people's lives, as Limbaugh and Levin allege, but order, reason, rule of law, and representative government. You represent, but you are expected to have some smarts, more than those who have little time for more academic politics, because they WORK for a living, UN-like current-day Congress, who mainly fuss and fight, but I digress.

Elections matter. Votes matter. Political parties can't ignore results or voters, but they DAMN (that word is in the Bible, Christians) well better be smarter than the average bear, or NEVER ELECT THEM. Do

U.S.A. a favor and THINK before you vote. Quit all being Kool-Aid drinkers, blind party sheep, and rubber stamp party yes men and women. America needs you the people/voters to step up.

OBVIOUSLY the politicians can't do much right, currently, and for several years, or longer. Mainly gridlock. You pay for that? DUMB decision!

Politicians love those jobs! They fight tooth and nail to keep or secure them. Why? They're paid too damn much for the results we don't get for our money! And it's NOT so much their salaries, but perks and ego-stroking power and prestige. Set some standards, and don't let them in if they don't meet those standards! Kick out any and all bums!

Common ground is the only reasonable way forward. Ping pong politics is the only other alternative: Dominate your opponent, then he'll dominate you later. Dumb as a donkey (the name of our first political book). We could secede, but it's NOT necessary. My way or the highway be damned! I'm kind of liking using that biblical term today, because it's about church time for my family, and you need a fresh cup of hot coffee thrown in your face to see reality AS IT IS.

LISTEN to these lyrics: <http://bit.ly/2ymNEae> You believe in evolution? I believe in devolution. Our politics hasn't matured since this song was top 40 on the radio! Maybe it has gotten worse. Social media hasn't helped, nor lessening the standards of journalistic reporting, FCC! You can vent and hate in ways you'd rarely have the b_ills to do in person, because you feel powerful when you can't be punched in the nose behind a smart phone!

And when you do protest/take to the streets, violence happens, often. IS THAT THE WAY AMERICA SOLVES ITS OWN PROBLEMS, because if it is, I want NOTHING to do with their foreign policy in my part of the world is a REASONABLE response of EVERY other nation! America used to lead. That's NOT leading by moral example!

You CAN'T lead without integrity. No one admires Mother Teresa and Gandhi because they were scoundrels or criminals, because they were NOT. You can only follow a morally black sheep off a cliff. Congress needs to take the reins, be the adult in the room, and make America proud of herself again! NO clowns.

Leave it to talk radio to entertain people with hog wash reality TV ideals that biasedly favor one side. They're paid MILLIONS to stir up the stupid. I said it. I listened for 20 years to Limbaugh. He's filthy rich making white males angry. That's NOT a skill on loan from God, but from Satan, WASP Christian alt-righters and the Christian Cabal.

An aside: One other positive of my prior-referenced misspeak of the early 1980's—it is a thorn in the flesh to keep you humble when God gives you revelation knowledge not available elsewhere!

Let's address world problems solutions—AGAIN (we do so in our book, so I hope its new ideas): The homeless need jobs, skills, clothes for work, transportation, motivation, a bath, haircut and dress for success, job search and job interviewing skills—and a place to live. In short, they need money.

Wars. Neutral arbiters broker resolutions of disputes in the best interests of both sides, with compromise and common ground. PAUSE...

I'm SO sleepy I just tried to delete a retweet, and deleted the original, sadly. Here was when James Dobson came to recruit by innuendo (3/29/15) I NEED sleep!: HEAR @DrJamesCDobson today @9:15 and 11 at a MAJOR North Dallas church. He MAY even have some words on the Church and gay marriage!?' Family values.'

Christians may be hated the world over, but NONE of them should ever suffer persecution because of their sin or ignorance (i.e., valid opposition). (I Pet 4:15; 12/2/18)

Update: Personal Stories

Time for more true stories: My eldest son came into this world, after wife's water broke three hours after I landed from Taiwan on that prior-mentioned mission trip to Cambodia. My wife told me on a Friday I needed to come back, and the earliest possibility was a two-day trip. God's sovereign timing!

One church, when I walked in to see the pastor, and met him, then asked if he would go evangelize the house outside his front glass foyer wall said, 'we share the same goals, and when God in His sovereignty leads their and my paths to cross, I will share Christ with them. In other words, you do/walk the talk—I talk it (Water's Edge, Frisco; I'm recounting events I may have deleted from our website, to be nice—NO MORE Mr. nice guy; people's eternal souls are at stake and are too important!).

I walked into another one (sales teaches you that you never set appointments, or you're booking failure), and the pastor preached an Easter sermon on how life is so good here in one of the richest counties in Texas, so what do we have to offer lost people that's better? STUIPDEST misunderstanding of man's problem! Life in Christ is NOT about having it good on earth; people face HELL, you damn foolish one. The church was renamed after we posted, for whatever reason. LifePoint is its somewhat new name.

The method to our madness is to PROVE to the reader that the WASP church is NOT serious about your eternal soul, for they have the answer, and hide it under a bushel—YES!

Next, I had a phone interview with a mega church Bible church in Racine, WI, but since I didn't have connections to get Coach Dungee (a Christian) to speak, I didn't meet their need for an Evangelism Minister. Entertainment and the celebrity attraction method is NOT commanded, dummies!

In the grace of God one of my sales clients in Houston told me at the time, that Second Baptist rakes in $1 million a week, when that interview process ended with a phone call about an alleged hiring freeze. SURE!

Four Corners church, Frisco (now under new management, with a changed name) had a staffer accuse me of possibly having an 'emotional problem,' because I cared so much about evangelism. He has a sin problem, because he is peacefully ignoring evangelizing all nearby lost people. I'll take my allegation over his any day!

I had a job at KKHT Christian radio, Houston, in sales. I brought them the best, and perhaps ONLY sophisticated four clients. They TAUGHT us (in training) to lie about our listenership size, and say we didn't subscribe to any ratings agencies, but our fans were VERY loyal to our advertising clients. They had one nice conference room to impress droppers-by.

The operations manager used a bent index finger to illustrate how you make potential clients think we weren't a hole in the wall with some hokey antenna—you make a joke about its perceived smallness with that bent finger.

Wall Street pressured metrics so much, that was ALL that mattered, at a 'Christian' radio station, owned by SALEM Communications.

In the past two months, Dr. Graham brought an executive from their Dallas affiliate to testify in church that they REALLY, really, really loved the Bible—all 66 books, all __ number of chapters, all __ number of verses. It was their knowing my website will get known, and it tells of this story—100 percent ACCURATELY. Save face, reputation, market "image." Common theme among these folks/types.

Next, in Houston, I interviewed for the Jesus Video Project Director job (i.e., Campus Crusade). When I learned the videos were being sold to church's pastors for between $18-25 apiece, and costs were ~$3, I complained. Quickly the conversation went another direction, and I got no offer. Ministry for money. Balaam attitude and priorities—ANOTHER common theme.

Church is BIG business, like this article detected years ago: <http://cnn.it/2ubxEH2> WONDER why they're in the GOP's butt pocket? Wonder NO MORE!

Next, College of Biblical Studies, Houston (now renamed). I taught evangelism. When I said pastors are to blame for poor numbers of laymen who ever evangelize (5 percent ever win ONE soul to Jesus in their lifetime), the next semester was to be taught to pastors, and one student asked me, 'will you say that next semester?' I replied, 'I tell the truth, consistently.' Suddenly they had a staff professor who was going to teach the next semester's class. They also learned I do NOT adhere to the Lordship Salvation heresy, and it was the school's dogma.

Next, when Ed Young Jr. preached on Christians having a week of sex, and Christian married couples ought to be the most excited about and engaged in sex (to sell his book, where he and his wife slept on the roof of the church to garner publicity), I opposed that carnal approach to draw a crowd, and sided with Robert Jeffress, who was, at that time, staunchly advocating straight marriage sex as the biblical way. My Sunday School classmates, at a restaurant, were praising Ed for his sex emphasis. I debated, but Bible ignorants remain stubborn.

Finally, I wrote the number one Christian radio station's management, and asked why they never speak of evangelism. He said the staff debated that, but the audience wants to be encouraged. They NEED to be exhorted! God doesn't have us here to party, and just feel good. Later, they started airing Greg Laurie one minute blurbs, so that's a start!

My point? I've been pushing the WASP church for FULL evangelism since about 1985 onward, and doing it before then myself, until recently. I will NEVER let up in that message, but they RESIST! 81 percent of them will support a carnal 'baby Christian' (more likely: lost, political opportunist), because it's a jury of their peers. People without Jesus go to Hell. I did NOT say if you are not a Christian, or church-goer, I said people without Jesus go to Hell. Those who CLAIM to know Him are supposed to stop people from going there.

They offer every excuse under the sun... I'm a sinner, not a goer. I evangelize by my lifestyle. That's not my personality. I invite neighbors to church. Please read our website for a list of more. The Christian Cabal wanted political power, but appeased me for two years with MyHope and the ATT Stadium evangelism crusade, and a smattering of SBC revival prayer meetings.

Want to know EXCELLENT Christian ministries to counter this negative trend? Evangelism Explosion, Campus Crusade, and The Navigators. If ALL you do is go to church, you're missing much of the MAIN point of why you got saved in the first place. Bye, for now.

Oh yeah, I said I'd name my mom's suicide empowerer, by bifurcating first and last name in two tweets.

I've already stated his first name, several times, in BOLD. His real wife's last name was still Carey last time we spoke. Is that cryptic enough for you? Ro Ro Ro your boat gently down the stream to Hell.

I contacted two churches where he was seeking to be a deacon, and warned them what he did to my mom, in affairs, and her suicide. I DOUBT he'll land that gig there. I called the president of HBU, and said you need to take your endorsement off the book he wrote glamorizing how "God" led him to my mom. I HOPE he did.

I called channel 5 Belize TV to warn the widow of a suicided husband in government service that a fake Texas oil man was schmoozing her to inherit that island. I wrote BOTH my Texas Congressmen to pass a law to outlaw people schmoozing the elderly, for money, by marrying them. I called it the con artist law. It was a nothing burger in Austin!

HOW do I know these details? When you cease paying people, they talk. 'Nuff said. Honesty is sacrificed when you're in the employ of another, as people don't bite the hand that feeds them, even if their conscience witnesses what is wrong being done before their eyes. That's how I know of three women, when mom was still married.

Guess where my mom's buried? The furthest corner near a roundabout, in another family's plot! Cheapskate who sold my dad's home for ~$600K couldn't even let her lie by her lonesome; had to hitch a ride with strangers, six feet under. #Tears RIP hero!

Memorial Oaks still has her obituary online: Joanie Meroney is how we knew her, and Grady Nutt (Christian comedian, RIP) used that rhyming name in an album, just as (blind) Ken Medema loved her way back when, as we brought him home for meals (before he was famous), and she danced with Wayne Newton, and won Name That Tune, missing the grand prize by one song. RIP, hero! #Sadness

You can ask anyone over age 60 at Tallowood Baptist Church, Houston concerning Joanie Meroney, when she was married to 'Elmo' (not the tickle me doll). ALL you will EVER hear are hilarious, joyful and encouraging testimonies! ASK THE PASTOR! Ask the older staff. God brought love on two legs with that Baylor beauty! #MissHer Childhood sweetheart of my dad. He probably never dated anyone else. Married just one month shy of 50 years. Ms. Texas Senior, 2005. Ms. Nebraska runner-up when I was a kid. #Gone2soon. Suicide is a horrible way to go. Her song to me was always: <http://bit.ly/2ym45Um> Writing for personal catharsis!

One day I will see her again. The older I get, the more excited I am that that event will take place. Life of the party. Glue that held our family together. Singer, dancing, Baylor lover. Native Houstonian. Charity volunteer. Long-time Sunday School teacher. Advocate for the disabled. #Mom

HERE's the cryptic "fiction" (wink-wink) story I wrote the night of mom's funeral, since the family would NOT let me spill the beans (AKA, tell the truth). Brush facts under the rug, like Jesus would—NOT! <http://bit.ly/2AijeYw>

Update #1: Childhood Memories

Favorite childhood events: Indy 500 three times, Hawaii, Europe, Devils Head snow skiing, Lake of the Woods architectural home. I've confessed this here, before, but I streaked once in Illinois, at night; no one saw anything, but did it with a male friend, on a lark. I had a lust wall of Playboys my Frosh year at Baylor, and cussed quite a bit that year, too (still do, when really angry).

I played strip poker around age 12, with one of my BFF's and his girlfriend, and lost. Funny childhood memories. The man behind our home in Houston cemented fence posts on our property line, so mom and I pulled them out and threw them over, at midnight. RIP, hero!

SAD day recalling times with my amazing mom. My dad defended my case of squealing my '72 T-bird tires, filming rocks that could have caused lack of traction. He quit a sales job because the owner misrepresented the quality of the tiles to consumers. #HonorableMan, getting older every day.

My dad's advertising clients, to a 'T', would, to this day, say he's the most honorable, humble and honest salesman they have ever met. ALL over West Houston, they will STILL remember him! His car license plate used to read, 'Tikl-me.' There is no more committed volunteer at his home church—period!

My grandmother was a HOOT. Rich, and caustic. She would ask maître D's, "who do you have to sleep with to get a table in this joint," with complete sarcastic sincerity! My mom's mom wrote the ASCAP musical, 'Music Did It.' Her husband was the greatest human I've ever known in real life. A Jehovah's Witness—Popo. #Sad

Perhaps I was a 'momma's boy?', with two siblings, BOTH female, but you would be too if you ever met my mom! No one could deny her. She NEVER knew a stranger. She missed the final question on Name That Tune (TV game show), by saying, 'I'm the happiest girl in the world' (vs. 'whole U.S.A.'), then quipped, 'well I am.' #Sadness RIP, KJM.

If any Christian boomer still has an LP collection, with Grady Nutt's album (Christian comedian, RIP), he says, "Joanie Meroney"—now that's a funny name. No—that's a funny gal. My FONDEST memories in life were before she left my dad! Smart, beautiful, witty, personable—IRREPLACEABLE mom. RIP, five years later.

True confession, if I've visited my mom's grave, it's been once—maybe ZERO. Her husband-empowered suicide is still too painful, and what's the point? She's not there. Memories are all we have. I'd rather think of her than stare at a plot of grass. HORRIBLE end to an awesome life. #Tears

In tribute to my great mom, on the way to Waco, today, I will sing until God restores my voice to the quality it was before throat surgery (if that occurs). She was always a lead singer in her Joyful Noise Christian band. I will take her funeral CD of favorite songs, and cry my way to my eldest son at B.U.

THANK YOU mom, for teaching me what love is, honesty, caring for others, and the disabled, to serve the Lord, be funny, sing, bake cakes (which I have not learned, and don't plan to), and sic 'em bears! You were RIPPED OFF in this life by a morally criminal husband. May God judge his worthless soul! #Suicide in 2012.

My mom always mocked with the phrase, 'conform and be dull.' She also taught me, 'Great minds discuss ideas; average minds discuss events; small minds discuss people.' Ask ANY Houstonian who knew Joanie Meroney if they liked or admired her. If you get one NO, they're liars. RIP, family glue! #Gone2soon

When we were in Hawaii, the condo had a two-way mirror shower facing the outside balcony. I knew she was showering, so I went on that deck, pointed to the mirror, and laughed (AS IF you could see anything), and she told me later that she was so shocked to see me outside. I loved cutting up with her. RIP.

Also in Hawaii, I stepped on a sea urchin, and my mom volunteered to supply the vial of pee needed to ease the sting. ALWAYS giving! Always putting others first. Always smiling and joyous. Always singing, and encouraged people, helping people. She assisted cancer patients in Houston, and went to Baylor. #Hero

At her funeral, my eulogy said she simply ran out of gas in her emotional tank (i.e., depression). A pastor, at the meet-and-greet, afterwards, asked if he could lift that analogy for a sermon. She gave too much, and cared not enough for herself (Jn. 15:13). Sacrificial saint. I can't wait to reunite in Heaven!

Off to Waco. I devote this trip to the memory of my great mom. I will listen to all 18 of her favorite songs—if I can endure the pain. My kids were RIPPED OFF not knowing her long enough, especially my twins! God, bring justice to her suicide empowerer! I pray for justice, not vengeance. May it be.

Update #2: Tribute to My Mom

I'm starting to see that, somehow, my mom was a part of that 14-hour vision, for my sorrow over her suicide started the decades of memories, and thoughts of her remain afterwards. So, in tribute, her favorite tunes CD is being played as I edit that vision for our book. Love you, mom! See you in 20 years, or so. Can't wait!

Sad, and missing my closest friend in life. "Voluntary" death by dehydration #Suicide. BEST mom anyone could EVER have! RIP, and can't wait to see you Heaven—but not anytime soon!

Joanie Meroney ("mom")

Update #3: More Stories (12/10/17)

I chased a DUI driver until the cops caught him, and chased a bank robber in seminary, until he turned around and pointed the security guard's confiscated REAL gun (in Ft. Worth), and I full-Nelsoned a hit-and-run driver after two smaller guys couldn't tackle him, as we drove by the scene on I-10, Houston. FUN TIMES!

I forgot one other cool event: In Cambodia, for mission work, my second cousin was connected to the ambassador; he gave me a letter to give him. I rented a motorcycle ride, and entered the palace compound through three armed guard stations. No one in the group believed I went in there. THEIR LOSS—SUCKERS!

P.S.: NO Christian Cabal member will EVER accuse me of "NOT being pro-Israel." I lost a Headhunter job after I landed an accountant, because the owner saw my Bible and said, "Are you pro-Israel." He was short man, near Hwy 6 at Barkers Landing (Houston). He told me to pack my things and leave. I intimidated him as I left. (12/10/17)

Update #4: Even More Stories

Further true stories: I said one of my BFF's I met holding my Gospel Signs. The younger man who introduced us (in that teachers Sunday School class) and I later went door-to-door witnessing in a nearby apartment complex, together. Since Dave Strawn has passed, I'm SO glad Mr. Garza is connected on Facebook. (12/12/17)

I met my friend, Venga (who has held those signs with me on multiple occasions) when his van gate was open, so all at the library could see he had a Gospel sign propped up there, as he did his work inside. I left a note of CONGRATATIONS on his windshield.

When my eldest was severely bullied, I threatened possible lawsuit against his school district if he didn't get transferred (24, mainly foo'-ball players, named and turned in to the discipline administrator!), and a secretary said policy allows NO TRANSFERS.

Once I said I'm an upset dad who's a lawyer, five minutes later he got his transfer, but I had to drive him for one and a half years to the FURTHEST away FISD high school—TWICE A DAY; I jokingly say it was located in south Oklahoma.

My point? While there, every day (I'm gathering tears!) this GODLY senior citizen greeted every drop-off vehicle with a pleasant, enthusiastic 'good morning,' and 'welcome!' Same for every day. He, too, dies, and the school (Lone Star, whose football are stars this and that year!) holds a prayer gathering in his memory (at the school flag pole).

I later learn that he was a deacon or elder—one of the most humble and godly Christians I ever had the privilege of getting to know, a bit. One day, he just wasn't there greeting us. If you scroll down our media section (on Twitter), you can see their tribute to him; a retiree and saintly saint!

School Tribute to Mr. Dungan

My point? At that venue also is where I chatted with an avid anti-abortionist Christian, whose huge sign was graphic. At first, he doubted my salvation, because I told him abortion is NOT the only sin men engage in, and that the grotesque picture on his signs (at a school in the early morning, for HIGH SCHOOLERS) wasn't exactly the best way to do evangelism. Advocacy against abortion, yes, but NOT evangelism.

When I told him of my ministry experiences, and showed him I was certain of my conversion (stating that if that 18-wheeler veers off and hits us, I see Jesus today), he finally agreed that some people who are NOT radical like him (on their approach) could also be saved.

I invited him to do actual, non-political activist evangelism, and he declined. I'm recounting venue-oriented experiences, and saying to be an advocate against bullying, and for your kids!

When Greg Laurie held his ATT Stadium Harvest America crusade, my eldest son and I took Gospel Signs (I have about six). We passed out tracts before the event, but saw NO use for having brought them, until, after it was over, a gal held signs saying Rev. Laurie was going to Hell.

We ran to the parking garage, grabbed two signs, and held them behind and above her head, to oppose her FALSE message! GOOD TIMES.

Update #5: Ever More Stories

MORE stories: When (editorial) we (AKA, I) protested Ed Young Junior's church, security, and then a cop showed up. They said Grapevine city ordinance requires a registered permit. I said NO problem, then walked to my car RIGHT in front of all his church members driving to church, as slowly as a tortoise, holding my Go Evangelize! sign. I've never moved that slow in my life!

When Venga and I took my Gospel signs to Frisco, Texas' Toyota Stadium (outside a concert), a cop directing traffic flow gave us a thumbs up. It's NOT always negative! If you want to see pictures of some events, see the media section of our Twitter site, historically EARLY ON in the feed!

First Baptist, Katy: A Sunday School layman mom has a prayer request for daughter concerning drugs in Baylor's dorms. I said, my parents know B.U.'s president (ex-pastor at their Tallowood Baptist), and I can tell him. She says O.K. The next week she glares at me, because her daughter got druggie hall mates mad. Dr. Robert Sloan got things DONE!

I have taken many seminarians, pastors, and laymen direct evangelizing. A close friend accused my boldness as being 6'5." NOT so; it's faith in God, I said. One seminarian knew I knew Judge Paul Pressler, then sought a job via him through myself. I don't use people, so I said how to contact him, but didn't give out his cell number.

2014 Pressler Christmas Letter

Pressler had an entire wall of filing cabinets with data on most all Southern Baptist pastors, in the 'Inerrancy days.' We (my BFF and I) gathered with him at the St. Louis convention, in seminary/late college days. He has an elevator in his three-story home he built after moving from his Bryn Mawr address; his wife is an angel of a lady.

The WORST thing I ACCIDENTALLY did, as a camp counselor for HERO Don Anderson Ministries, was walk to counsel a kid, and got too close to the edge of a cliff. I saw a rock fall off the side from under my feet, and realized it could have been us. He was the BEST Bible teacher I've ever met! RIP, man of God!

The GREATEST Christian singer in 20-21st century was Keith Green! I went to his funeral celebration event in Dallas, in my late college or early seminary days. LISTEN TO THIS WHOLE VIDEO, and your life could be changed for the BETTER!: <http://bit.ly/2o6GxDa> #NoCompromise (John 3:16)

I took my Gospel signs to the Houston Rodeo, when they had only one entrance for all vehicles, mainly buses. BOTH sides of every bus could read the Gospel, as I took some seminarians to hold them with me. I took a Go Evangelize! sign to a Christian jogging even in Plano, about two years ago. The hosts didn't like it. Who cares?

When Venga and I showed support for my alma mater seminary 100 percent evangelizing zip code 76115, we went door-to-door, and not one soul was home, but a retired preacher, who told us stories Venga was awed by. I met two sets of street corner evangelists, two weeks ago, and took names for possible future collaborations.

I was literally told at Second Baptist, Houston, that door-to-door evangelism doesn't work in their richest zip code in America (77077). My disciple of WAY past, Chad Uretsky, can testify that is a LIE! Here is how you can reach him: <http://bit.ly/2AHz6rU> I am NOT 100 percent commending all he wrote there! Good brother, though.

If you want a witness, our Linked-In account may also list a connection to the aforementioned Mr. Garza. He was the layman who introduced me to Dave Strawn, who taught apologetics for me when teaching evangelism at the College of Biblical Studies (Houston), when my twins were born, as a fill-in. RIP! He and I disagreed intensely over Welfare. He was staunch far right, politically.

Update #6: Christian Priorities

Christian laymen/non-professional: WHAT are you doing with and for God? You were NOT saved just to be saved! You go to work, work hard, are generally nice, go to church, do your chores, spend time with family, exercise, eat, sleep, then repeat that SAME rat race! IS THAT ALL THERE IS TO LIFE, then you die? NO!

God saved you for MORE than just going to Heaven! He wants to know you, and for you to know Him, to lead your life/decisions, empower and do things through you, too! You can no more say you're close to your wife if you see her an hour a week as you can be close to God going to church as your only connection with Christ during that week!

God says relating to Him is a daily affair. It's 24/7 communion/fellowship, empowered by God's Spirit, and activated by meeting with Him DAILY, to speak to Him, and let Him speak to you (i.e., Bible study and prayer).

CHURCHianity says bring lost people to UN-commanded church buildings for the PASTOR to evangelize. But GOD says EVERY Christian is to evangelize lost people WHERE THEY are/are found, and pastors are to train them so to do.

THIS IS NOT HAPPENING, folks! FIVE percent of U.S. Christians EVER successfully evangelize IN THEIR LIFETIME (meaning people go to Heaven vs. Hell, as a result of laymen speaking the Gospel to them)!

And 90 percent of U.S. Christians are NOT fully committed to Jesus/are 'nominal.' Let me please explain exactly what that means, because I was that from age 8-18. You're nice, you don't do a lot bad—willfully or consciously or intentionally. You're nice to people, law-abiding, and church-going. CONGRATULATIONS! You are 100 percent DIS-pleasing God!

He calls believers to FULL, daily commitment! But it is NOT commitment to rules, and trying to apply rules, and working with effort to add rules to your life, and delete evils therefrom—ON YOUR OWN! That is 'dead works,' legalism, and KILLS you and your spiritual success (Rom. 6-7).

You CAN'T do it in your own strength, and God never asked you to. It is a faith journey of knowing and walking with Him, daily, 24/7! (Gal. 2:20)

And 87 percent of us PROVE we are NOT living this way, because the MAIN way you live this way is by feeding off/ingesting the Bible—DAILY! You can be a great person of prayer, but if they are ill-informed, they're mainly good-intentioned vanity!

It is the word of God that does most of the change, and only 13 percent of U.S. Christians read it daily! Hence, MOST U.S. Christians live carnal/sinful/fleshy lives before God! You can't know God decently if He never changes your thoughts or intentions from what they were before you were saved! That's IMPOSSIBLE.

And each of you has one or more spiritual gifts! I'll bet you have NO idea what it is! HOW can you have any effective ministry/service if you don't know what God has made you to be good at? We are members of a family. The family has reunions every weekend. HOW are we acting/behaving like a family, just sitting there being spectators of the professionals on stage?

And God saved you to change the world by making it better than before you were saved. What service do you provide to the community, because God DIDN'T save you just to work hard and have fun on earth!

Let me let you in on a little secret: The Devil has warped pastor's minds, usually subconsciously, through tradition, or in some cases, intentionally, from money lust, to view Christianity as a business model, so all they do is to get people to do their religion at their UN-commanded building structures!

That is NOT Christianity, but CHURCHianity. Church plays a role, but a lot less of a role than happens in America, and it's for a reason. They want many 'touches' with their 'customers,' so there's more chance they get residual income. There—I said it.

If, for any reason, valid or not, a member attends less than most of the times services are offered, this belief can be reinforced by labeling them part-time Christians—even if they follow and serve God every day of the week!

Then, they want you to believe you owe them ten percent of your income just because you are saved! NO WONDER people don't want to go to church. Instead of meeting with God, and fellow believers, their budget is being attacked by GUILT!

Again, you have a spiritual gift God wants you to bless other Christians with, while gathered as a family in 'worship!' Strangers as bench-warmers is NOT you edifying your fellow Christian!

Again, you were called to change our world, in some capacity, when you leave the building! You are NOT taught these things, because pastor tradition is EASY, by comparison—MAINLY prepare one sermon a week, and get ten percent of members' income.

They do other things that make their jobs hard, but often it's managerial/administrative, and functions God did NOT call them to do, but are required when you run a business. They do NOT run a business, they serve a church, as shepherds.

And Jesus preached to the masses, but He mentored 11, who exclusively changed the world. This is NOT happening in churches today! That is NOT what church looks like in America, today. Pastors are COMFORTABLE preparing one sermon, and that's their main job to earn your ten percent, though the ten percent tithe is NOT commanded of believers!

When I tell pastors the ten percent tithe is NOT biblically required of Christians, the informed and/or honest ones ALWAYS say, yeah, but don't you want to give them a guide? That's because they know laymen can't hear God lead, or won't obey Him, because pastors' discipling (vs. sermonizing) skills are DEFICIENT! #Incompetence

This is a BUSINESS MODEL system that Jesus would turn the tables on, and may He do so sooner than later! ANATHEMA!

And pastors CRAVE keeping their tax exemptions while treating church as a business vs. charity. That is a rip off to taxpayers! Skirting tax obligation in the name of Jesus, doing church JUST LIKE a business! If you read your Bible today, you will see I'm 100 percent telling you the TRUTH about all these problems!

DO YOU WANT TO KNOW THE TRUTH, or stick your head back in the sand, and continue check box Churchianity? You will be BROKE in Heaven—eternally impoverished and destitute, as to rewards! Good luck with that! Let me remind you that from age 8-18 I lived like that, too! I HOPE you have a crisis to break that pattern!

I had a girlfriend who I bought a promise ring for, because we were too young to get engaged. I saw her in a car on a date with a Baylor basketball player (now a sports announcer), and it CRUSHED ME! I ran to the nearest building's stairwell, cried my heart out to God, and said, "I will do whatever, wherever You want."

I was so serious about Him from that in November, 1978, that this has NEVER changed! In fact, her sweet mother, when I graduated, asked why I never came by when she had been deathly ill. I said I knew nothing about it, as she had broken up much earlier! There was NO looking or turning back when I sold out.

My business fraternity had me as the chaplain, and they heard a sermon from me on the 'logic' of trusting Christ (calendar based on His life, dollar saying in God we trust, etc.). Things 100 percent changed in my lifestyle, though I had been saved since age eight.

YOU NEED this commitment experience, Christians! How did mine all start? A naggy nice guy in the freshman dorm kept asking me, "Can I read the Bible with you?" Persistent, nice, happy NAG! He probably knew I needed it by the Playboy centerfolds plastered all near my bed, in a room with a pre-pastor roommate!

He NEVER quit being nice, or asking. After one month, JUST to get him off my back, I relented. He used The Navigator's Bible study method (six steps, put into a journal), and for one solid month he daily met with me.

He cared about me. He liked me, or at least he loved me. He cared about my life's value and success more than anyone else on campus! That's discipleship!

After one month of that habit being formed, he said he thought I could do it on my own, but he'd still be around for a weekly Bible study on the floor, if I had questions or problems.

LITERALLY, from late 1978-1981, I spent, on average, three hours a day in God's word! My ~3.25 GPA could have been higher, if not, I guess(?)

I soon after attended seminary, and that experience of God giving me commitment has NEVER changed since! It was NOT worked up in the flesh, by strong willpower or daily discipline. I wanted to live as I have described! I was changed from the inside.

God says life as a believer is a daily walk, and always victorious, because you rest in faith (Heb. 3-4), and have ceased from your own works, like God did on day seven of creation. God's life lived through you—not you trying to do good works for Him. It is Gal. 2:20 lived out, by submission/surrender—DAILY! (Lk. 9:23)

If THIS is NOT your experience, you have a problem, and if you go to any church that doesn't teach EVERYTHING I spoke this morning, RUN! That is myths, and the traditions of man's religious retail business. God's Church is to be KNOWN by outsiders for its prayer's effects, and our love for one another. THIS is BIBLICAL CHRISTIANITY!

MOST church practices do NOT teach this, so God's church gets rightly ignored, is powerless in society, uninfluential, and people don't want to be like Christians, because Christians aren't like Jesus!

I guarantee you I have NEVER been to a church where I felt I had to sacrifice ten percent of my income to be pleasing to God, because I KNOW the Bible. I HAVE been told this MANY times, but I know the truth!

You give what God tells you to—period! And if your pastor does NOT promote ten minutes daily with God as more valuable than one sermon a week, or teach you how to be Spirit-filled 24/7, as Christianity in a nutshell—RUN! Leave! Quit! You are NOT being taught biblical Christianity, and it shows!

So why is Christianity in America at such a low ebb as to quality? TRADITION, and the church-as-a-business mentality!

EDBS priorities completely solve that problem, but MANY U.S. pastors learned of it in 2013-2014, but REJECTED it, because it requires a new paradigm of their job description—a BIBLICAL one!

It IS easier to preach and be paid, and spend the rest of your week working the business—administering programs God never ordered, and recruiting visitors by various means, including advertising.

This is OPPOSITE of Mt. 6! Seek God, His Heavenly kingdom (Col. 3:1-4), and His behavioral morality, and ALL THESE THINGS will be added to you. What things? READ the chapter! Food, sustenance, your needs, JUST LIKE the little birds He feeds.

We think ourselves the captains of our own fates, and strive to grow our businesses, and expand our influence and incomes. BACKWARDS, pastors! FAILURE, even if you have a mega church! Laodicean (Rev. 3) FAKE success! (Josh. 1:8) Pleasing to man, but disgusting to God (Lk. 16:15)

Please consider my words, today, if you are a Christian. If you are NOT, I am NOT asking you to be one, because you may have a picture in your mind that's NOT what one is.

All you need is to be sure you're going to Heaven, and not Hell! That is as simple as sincerely praying to God to ask Him to forgive all your sins, through Jesus, today! (John 3:16)

And for all the Christians who go to church: DO NOT ACCEPT Churchianity! It is a FALSE practice! It may be tradition, and every other church may follow it, but it is wrong, weak, unimpressive, and were I lost, I would want to have NOTHING to do with it. It is neither attractive, appealing, or fulfilling! REJECT it, Christians! Thanks.

This essay today fully explains why 81 percent of American WASP 'Christians' voted for Trump, and supported all of THIS in 2016: <http://bit.ly/2fIESxj> Carnality and sinfully lost people are birds of a feather in their behavior and commitments!

And regarding that EDDBS priorities message, DESPITE all the Bible verses behind it, I've heard pastors say that I'm trying to make church in my image, and one pastor said, 'you try doing that,' all of which features I HAVE been a part of, and I actually started to implement EDDBS when I was a youth pastor, before being fired for teaching Lordship salvation. #NoHypocrisy

I-B2. INTRODUCTION

In a time of universal deceit, telling the truth is a revolutionary act. –George Orwell

I've never tried to be controversial. The truth is controversial enough. –Keith Green

If you are not a 'VIP,' or among the limited few others who know about our Twitter account (which I have never promoted/advertised), you will not believe the following story, because, as others have said was truly a "miracle." That being the case, I will try to explain it, then offer evidence afterwards to show how it happened, but let's start with my honest testimony I would swear to in court and take any lie detector to 'prove:'

1. My Ministry. The background to this experience is my 38 years of following Christ in ministry service, and ten full-time years writing an over 5,000 paged New Testament Commentary. The details can be found on our website ('Personal Testimony,' Temporary Evangelism Minister' Resume, and 'Church Conflicts,' etc.).

2. Church Conflicts. Since the 1990's God has led me to seek to improve American pastors' biblical practice, often by conversing with top mega church pastors or their staff, in the cities where I lived (a biblical practice, emulating Paul going to the Jerusalem church after decades of anonymity, and the popular belief, 'bloom where you're planted.' The details can be found at that same site under 'Church Conflicts.'

3. Pastor Year. Starting where 'Church Conflicts' leaves off (Sept., 2013), the emphases added to improve that top ten mega church began to impact pastors nationally. Specifically, after being banned from all Bible Fellowship classes, the Lord laid on my mind the term 'TripAdvisor.' I had never used it, but in late Spring, 2012 (if I recall the time-frame, properly), as 'TruthTeller2020,' I wrote my only post there ever—a paragraph about that church, saying if you really want to know what goes on behind the scenes, read our updated 'Church Conflicts' section when our website gets updated. This prompted a staff phone call to meet with myself, at which meeting I was contractually obligated to never discuss that church by name, or communicate with any of its staff, or I could never return to their campus(es).

This is where everything got very interesting! To ensure I honored my commitment, people from that church regularly monitored our Twitter account. Based on sentences interjected in many sermons thereafter, I presume it was often the head pastor. For three weeks (late Oct-early Nov, 2013), God miraculously had me tweeting 'messages'/sermonettes online at all hours of the day, exhorting pastors on top biblical priorities under-practiced and desperately needed. After awhile, besides seeing many famous ministers drop by (from a Twitter glitch/work-around, now resolved) Linked-In (which I only had a profile on, and had never used) emailed me that that account was approaching 'legend status,' and a stadium-full of people were viewing my profile (7/14/14). At the time, Twitter either didn't have a dashboard to show viewership numbers, or I was unaware of it. This is to say that thousands of people, mainly pastors, watched off and on throughout that time-frame.

IB2. MY STORY

The further a society drifts from the truth, the more it will hate those who speak it.

—George Orwell

The following is my testimony of what occurred the past three years, which had a direct but not full impact on the 2016 presidential election. It was preceded by my having written a total of 13 books and two websites in 18 years of full-time writing (in the past 38), and part-time ‘working.’ My sincerest apologies for it being self-centric, but as God used myself in this adventure, far too often it will mention one as lowly as myself. Again, my sincerest apologies for that necessity! God is great.

Picking up with our ministry history from our free ‘religious’ website, WillYouLiveForever.org (especially it’s ‘Church Conflicts’ section), my home church from 2005-2016 first banned myself from all Sunday School classes, then followed that up with a contract which prohibited myself from mentioning them or that church online (11/5/13), or never be allowed to return again. This contract was prompted by, in-between these two bans, my writing a post on TripAdvisor saying three good things about that church, and adding that if you want to know what really goes on behind the scenes, please read our updated website’s ‘Church Conflicts’ section (in a month or two).

This led to that church closely monitoring our Twitter account to ensure we followed the contract. [Positive side note: After having worked diligently and intensely to get that church’s biblical priorities into practice, the significant positive changes has led me to not even address its personnel in the past three+ years].

An important set of events that set-up the eventual political impact, was when the Lord had me strongly exhort seven major DFW pastors to His top priorities, and namely the number one under-addressed activity—evangelism (11/10/13). Through emails, phone calls, voice mails, direct tweets, and even taking my ‘Go Evangelize!’ signs to their churches (and in conjunction with a Spirit Fest event at the Texas Ranger’s stadium), several of these men later coordinated not only in Franklin Graham’s Decision America and Greg Laurie’s Harvest America events, behind the scenes some of them, apparently, used ideas derived from our tweets to create a sort of Moral Majority part two (later on, and totally without my knowledge).

So, no longer needing to address that (now) excellent church online anymore, we were led to address national pastors on the exact same issues and reasonings (and Bible verses), online (November, 2013+), as God had led us to do at that (now) improved mega church. The lead pastor there has many pastor (and some political) connections, as an ex-Southern Baptist Convention president, and soon we noticed/observed many national Christian Twitter accounts (most of which we copied and pasted into a MS Word file, from our surprise!). This exhortation to biblical priorities started with a rather ‘miraculous’ two ½ weeks of online ‘messages’ I felt were received from the Lord, usually posted live, and often at 3am. In much less condensed form, its contents were re-addressed on Twitter for about one 1/5th years thereafter, until the Lord informed me that the account would soon turn political.

When it did (~October 2014), I recited several ideas from our book, Dumb as a Donkey, Fat as an Elephant (which was written after I was banned from all Sunday School classes). Then, after Alabama voided pro nationalizing gay marriage, the Lord led myself to wake up many well-known Christian pastors to let the Supreme Court know that that anticipated decision was not without opposers (legally favoring state’s rights, and full contractual rights for civil unions).

Then, on March 23, 2014, in the midst of a 20-day weight loss fast (#40in20), I felt God specifically call me into political life. I tweeted that ‘message’ live, then deleted all of it, as too personal and subjectively meaningful. That event was fairly clearly observed by the home church, and on March 28, 2015, in our regular Saturday evening worship service, the lead pastor said words to the effect that ‘there’s an extra portion of the [Holy] Spirit’s presence [i.e., power] in the room tonight—do you sense/feel it?’

Soon, we noticed many national politician’s Twitter accounts dropping by (again, most of whom we copied and pasted into another MS Word file, from our surprise)! Topics and exact phrases we used concerning common sense political solutions started appearing in TV and other news articles, including out some politicians’ (including some 2016 presidential candidates’) mouths [We document over 75 such examples in our book, Wit and Wisdom: Don’t Speak About Politics or Religion]

Then, on April 7, 2015, one of the many well-known ministers God through me had prompted to speak out against nationalizing gay marriage came to our church, to promote the National Day of Prayer in Washington D.C.—Dr. James Dobson. This interview (available online) was my first (that I can remember) experience of the lead pastor using specific one-liners from our Twitter account, to get our attention and suggest our running for office—we detail exactly what phrases in our Innuendo’s section, and elsewhere in this book).

Over the course of that year (2015), many phrases were constantly interjected into sermons, apparently from fear that the ‘Johnson Amendment’ might otherwise be violated—something I refuted, as I am still not a politician! Then, as June 2016 approached, when it became clear to this group’s organizer (which I refer to as the ‘Christian Cabal’), after preaching a sermon lifting a phrase from my Facebook account that I posted a few days prior, that pastor spoke of Donald Trump’s campaign as ‘nonsense.’ To my shock and horror, after witnessing so many Christian values violations over the course of that campaign, a week and a half later that same pastor (after a short meeting with Donald) told ABC News that he could ‘champion’ Trump.

The moment I read about that in the media, I stopped attending my (then) home church (I had quit it, officially, years back, as detailed in ‘Church Conflicts’ at our website), only returning, on occasion, usually when my kids were involved in church choir performances. In fact, I re-associated with the home church (where I had been licensed to the ministry in 1980), about a week and a half later (detailed elsewhere in this book, and later to become Ted Cruz’s home church).

One weekend sermon, about a week and a half before the 2016 election, the pastor preached a sermon related to politics, and gave a specific invitation to any who felt called into political leadership to come forward. Slightly surprising to me (but not fully, as we had had years of theological banterings between my tweets and his sermons—through speaking staffers and his own speaking), the Lord ‘told’ me not to go forward. I think it shocked two or three staffers (observing their reactions), but I walked their direction after the service, and went home

We all know what happened on November 8th of that year—Hillary lost. I had tweeted on several occasions that I felt God saying Hillary would win (and many had observed at least 95 percent of my more than 25 predictions posted on Twitter having come true—a fact Dr. Dobson had related to in that prior-referenced church interview). On that day, completely devastated by such a glaring predictive error, the Lord moved me to change political parties. In fact, I believe that would have been the only way I would have abandoned my life-long party (i.e., wanting nothing to do with Mr. Trump's repeated, unrepented of and perhaps hundreds of stupid or immoral words and deeds).

After I recovered from that huge personal disappointment (and learning why and how God led me to change political parties), a bit strangely that church hosted a Men's Conference, where again they sought to elicit myself running in the future (I had always said that 2020 was the year the Lord laid on my heart—only one exception, when their pressure caused me a little doubt as to timing) as a Republican, especially if my prior gay marriage stance hurt me in Democrat ranks. In truth, I posted a string and thorough legal defense to not overturning legal precedent on Obergefell after it was passed, which could very well have spurred much ammunition for 'super precedent' in the Gorsuch Supreme Court confirmation hearings. Needless to say, I have no active concerns that loving people the way Jesus commands believers will ever harm His plans for me.

Now, for practical application (as any good, ex-pastor will do), let me now detail the exact changes which were wrought, both in that one local church, both religiously and politically, then how that Cabal served to get 81 percent of Christians (mainly white ones) to vote for Trump. We will leave for Heaven to educate myself what national impact our religious exhortations procured from the one 1/5th years referenced previously.

Where does this all lead us? I simply want you—the reader—to be informed of what happened, what happens in some churches, and to give backdrop for when I fulfill God's much earlier call on my life to enter the political arena. For, unbeknownst to most people in America, all this book writing (13 total, to-date), and political education the Lord gave to me began eight and a half years ago (3/17/09) in Tyler, Texas, in a hotel room, when (on TV) I heard a sweet older African-American female ask Barack Obama if he could help her get a car (and maybe a job—I don't recall). That day the Lord 'spoke' to me (in my spirit), and said, 'this is crazy!' There are more sensible solutions to American politics. And, 85,000+ tweets and three political books later, I believe that 'word' has been detailed sufficiently enough that you will agree, if you read them!

Thank you for your patience in this rather lengthy introduction.

I-B3. THE PAST THREE YEARS

I have a fantastical story to tell, which is fully true and accurate, which, absent the leadership of God would never have occurred. The problem is, since only a few thousand people (though many VIP's) witnessed it on Twitter, as I have never sought fame or fortune (yet), since you have never heard of me, the story will sound preposterous; maybe even crazy. However, that feeling does not make the assumption true, and meticulously and methodically I am going to walk you through that history, and give as much evidence, details and dates as humanly possible, so you can see that it is only because you weren't here that you can't relate to a truly miraculous series of events. [As further evidence of the credibility of our thoughts, read the liked tweets @ImMadTooEdwin, @Pledgers2020, @PledgersARCHIVE and @2020Victory).

First, please let me introduce myself. My name is Jim Meroney, and I am a lawyer and author, who has funded a long-term writing career by serving as a lawyer, college professor, Big Four Management Consultant, youth pastor and sales professional, having earned four college degrees (JD, MBA, MDiv and BBA), and studied about 30 graduate school hours in the areas of theology and architecture.

Next, a bit of background, so you have a better idea why God would use me in that capacity. I have been writing on the Bible since 1978, and wrote a 5,000-paged New Testament Commentary for ten years, full-time (working part-time). During and after that undertaking, God led me to try to change several churches in their lack of biblical priorities, especially evangelism. If you care for more details on either myself, or the actions taken to effect spiritual change, See: Church Conflicts at our religious website, WillYouLiveForever.org.

So because of a horrific and tragic family event in my hometown of Houston, Texas, in 2005 my family moved to Dallas to protect my kids and 'flee that (bad) scene.' We soon joined the largest church in North Dallas, and God led me to see that, like most churches in America, they did not emphasize or do a lot of evangelism or discipleship. I had done (and taught on) those priorities significantly before (at college and to ministers and laymen), so He had me try to change that at this new home church, privately, meeting one-on-one with staffers, seeking to teach two courses on those subjects. I will not rehash the details we list below, but three major milestones came of those efforts, that pertain to the 2016 presidential election:

1. I was banned from all church Sunday School/Bible fellowship classes (for asking too many questions in class, or offering too many comments, given my Commentary and professional ministry background).
2. Then, a few years later, after a post I made at TripAdvisor about the church's behind-the-scenes activities (the first and only time I had used that service—God led me to it off a TV ad), I was ambushed into being required to sign a contract that I would never use the name of that church or add anything more to our religious website, which named it, on any social media platforms, or I was no longer allowed on its campus (and I was not allowed to have any contact with any staff personnel).

In an email, a deacon friend, at the time (who since left the church), said that that church would not make the changes I was seeking, and I had better move onto another church (this proved false, and I never left). A staff friend (at the time) told me in person, that "everything comes down from the top."

And yet another friend, who is a pastor and was a member there (at least at that time) warned me even before this ambush event to not name names on my website. I did as God led me to, and gave out specifics, which prompted the ‘ambush’ meeting, where that contract was created (though a ruse—AKA lie—was used to get me to come in).

None of those facts significantly matter, except that following the December 5, 2013 contract’s signing, that church monitored our one (at the time) Twitter account (@JamesMeroney) like a hawk; relentlessly and daily, for quite some time (years)! That is how things all started in God using myself to change both the American Protestant (‘evangelical’) church, and D.C. politics! This quite famous (and religiously and politically well-connected, I later found out) minister was ensuring I would not mention his church or staff ever again, especially on Twitter!

Being a man of my word (at least until obeying that contract became unbearable, two and a half year later), and having effected many changes at that church, through many methods over four-to-five years (behind the scenes—See: details below, and at Church Conflicts, at our religious website), I felt God was through using me there, but that what had occurred there needed to spread world-wide, beginning in America. For about a year and a half we tweeted on ‘EDBS’ priorities under-emphasized by most U.S. pastors. With that minister’s connections (among other things), many Christians (especially famous pastors, pastors and seminary professors and presidents, as well as denominational executives) dropped by, so much so that at one time (i.e., near 7/14/14) Linked-In sent us an email saying a ‘stadium full’ of people were visiting there (a site I had never used—merely filled out a profile). Shocked at the response, I copied and pasted most of these heroes’ Twitter bios, and I had taken advantage of a glitch (now fixed), which gave me a much greater idea of who had dropped by (vs. merely algorithms sending random accounts to follow; details below).

Then the Lord indicated to me (late in 2014) that the content of our Twitter account would ‘turn political,’ and turn it did. Our tweets significantly impacted the 2016 presidential election on events and issues and statements made, which we now detail in our book, Wit and Wisdom. How could that be? That same mega pastor had long since gotten over his opposition to our spiritual message, and even preached off our religious website for about three-to-four years, and he, unbeknownst to me, also had political connections. At our highest viewership 250,000 at our site in one month, and 20,000 viewed the day I detailed all these events (re-aired below).

When that pastor changed from supporting our political agenda to flip-flop from his prior statements (a 180 degree turn toward Trump), then and only then did I learn that my efforts to get select famous pastors to do God’s spiritual priorities (and impact politics for morality) had become essentially a right-wing political interest group, seeking to elect the most immoral of all 17 of the 2016 GOP presidential candidates. This secretive decision (and its associated actions, which we now detail to you, below) led myself to not only change political parties (at least until Trump no longer leads it), and my having not changed one political position—all detailed in our above-referenced book), but eventually to leave that church indefinitely (having protested it for six months by not attending, from the day this pastor announced to ABC news that he could ‘champion’ Trump), when we learned that that man had gathered about 99 other mega churches in my Christians denomination, to threaten to withhold funds from the Southern Baptists ($1 million alone, from that one church), to keep its (autonomous) members from criticizing Trump. That man is now one of Trump’s spiritual ‘advisors.’

So if this ‘story’ is of interest to you, especially in how that “Christian Cabal” (mainly a handful of organized, famous U.S. Christian ministers) operated for Trump, please read on. I watched them and their antics, first-hand, being integrally involved with that group before June of 2016. If it does not pique your curiosity, I have saved you much time, summarizing it all in this executive summary. The political content that so impacted D.C. is in our book, Wit and Wisdom, and the content which shook the Church for the good is at our free website, WillYouLiveForever.org. Thanks for bearing with the following lengthy evidence and details of all these events. Sincerely,

James Meroney, JD, MBA, MDiv

I-C1. RECENT CHURCH HISTORY

Around 1985, especially with the Church growth Movement, many pastors started focusing on increasing membership to increase budget and salary. Most pastors had, traditionally, struggled and gotten by, and accepted that challenge as part of serving Christ, but now with methods and techniques, they were shown how (in many cases) that need not be the case. Not coincidentally, EDB priorities began to wane, as with exegetical teaching balanced with their preaching, calls for revival, and speaking on apologetics, prophecy and racial reconciliation. Sermons began to add in more entertaining and attention-/interest-getting features, such as poems, jokes, illustrations, videos, song lyrics, statistics, news headlines, history stories, object lessons, and a host of other things we would not call preaching the word. Soon there were (more innocent and spiritually-aspiring) flavors of the month emphases (which made some of their founders decently wealthy), like male bonding, seeker sensitive, Promise Keepers, purpose-driven, experiencing God, Left Behind, WWJD, prayer of Jabez, gospel of health and wealth, etc.

Then, in the mid 1990's, the church-as-a-business philosophy emerged, with pastors studying secular management and leadership books nearly as much as Scripture, and mega church and multi-site mania soon followed. Eventually, ever more entertainment entered God's house, as a result of 'attraction' methodology of ministry (which is opposite that of the Bible), such as festivals, concerts, movies, bowling alleys, mandatory church gyms ('family life centers'), food trucks, face painting, jump houses, Christianized Halloween celebrations, and nearly anything imaginable, to draw a crowd. Attendance did increase, but spirituality and commitment did not, and the increased numbers became more concentrated in mega churches, hurting the smaller church pastors livelihoods, and it was just as much a result of the late 1980's merger and acquisition trend in big business as some miraculous movement of God to bless pastors already blessed more than most.

I like mega churches, and have attended one nearly all my adult life. In fact, the first two churches were mega churches. But the things it took to create this momentum for the few often if not usually came at a price those first two churches would never have been willing to pay.

This is about ideas, and in a very real sense isn't about me. At the same time, if you don't know about myself, or have any reasons given you to vote for me, those ideas may never come into fruition. As Nancy Pelosi recently said, "Self-promotion is a terrible thing, but somebody has to do it." And after 30+ years of anonymity, I believe the Lord wants you to know about the ideas He gave me, so they can be implemented for the betterment of America. For that reason, after 15 books and 18 years of full-time writing, I am only now getting around to the following story...

In a real sense, the Christian Cabal had good intentions, and felt their hands tied when (as I always stated) I didn't run in 2016, though I believe the moral choice to not have voted for Mr. Trump (as I didn't), while others in the GOP were not of his ilk. This is not about anger, revenge or rubbing it in when people are down for their bad decisions—it is purely and simply exposing behind-the-scenes facts you only saw the public ice berg results of, and I, quite uniquely, had a bird's eye view. So with truth as our aim, truth is what I will tell.

I-C2. CHURCH CONFLICTS

The following experiences constitute much of the prior Christian ministry God had us engage in from 1985 to 2014. Apart from the last two churches (where I dropped in simply seeking advice on how to fulfill my calling to affect the universal Church in the matters of thorough evangelism and discipleship), every other event came to me—I never sought out any of the negative “conflicts,” but I do expose them to warn believers not to always trust what you see displayed in public for but 2-3 hours a week. Pastors have to live out in private what they portray at the worship service, or they are often biblically unqualified.

Disclaimer.

If I didn’t provide the following true stories, many people would hardly know the spiritual condition of many American churches, primarily through their ‘leaders.’ Shows are dazzling, but TRUTH is divine. (10/29/13)

I have, (humbly), NEVER sought credit for changes at a huge mega church, behind the scenes, but there are witnesses, and I will, when needed. See our website for details. (11/1/13)

First Baptist Church (Deer Park, TX, 1986)—My first and only paid staff position as Youth Pastor. A deacon raised questions with myself about my beliefs about the Gospel’s requirements on two private occasions (his being a Lordshipper and myself a Saviorhooder). Then, from my office, I saw him in several private meetings with the head Pastor. Soon after, that gentleman preached a sermon directly attacking Saviorhood, and completely different from the topic printed in the church bulletin. God gave me the boldness to stand up, tell the congregation the change in sermon topic was a result of Bob Sebesta’s private meetings with Ernest Weedon, and challenged him to a public debate on what it takes to get to Heaven. He had used the “BULLY pulpit” to undermine my effective ministering to the youth, and I was not going to let him get away with it. He continued preaching as if nothing had happened, so I walked out and ended any further association.

Second Baptist Church (Houston, TX, ~1998—more than a decade later, for any accusing me of being a purposeful “trouble-maker”)—A staff member, Doug Page, contacted me to go through the interview process, because he knew me to be one of the most evangelistic people he knew (his own words). During that process, the following things were said (by four staffers):

Teacher-Coach: If you become the Evangelism Minister here, will you make all church leaders evangelize, because I’m a coach and a teacher? Reply: If the mother duck won’t lead by example, how do we expect the ducklings to ever evangelize?

Doug Page (friend, at that time): We minister in the richest zip code in America (77057), and direct evangelism (i.e., person to person, where they live) doesn’t work here—a claim my own friend and “discipleship trainee” at the time can tell you is false, as we effectively witnessed to several people several times prior to this meeting.

Doug Page (friend, at that time): Why did you leave Second Baptist for FBC Katy? Reply: Because the church has become too commercialized, with rich professionals bragging in the (then) Summit that they have pledged $50,000, and others can do the same (contrary to Mt. 6:1-4), and using the “Joash Box” to put peer pressure on “tithers,” publically parading them before all to deposit their sealed envelopes at the front of the church (contrary to that same passage). Doug Page: Well, it ‘works,’ and black churches do it.

Doug Page (friend, at that time): Your job as Evangelism Minister is “just to get people to the church campus... Dr. Young’s charisma will take over from there.” What ego, audacity, mis-understanding of evangelism and theological error!

Second in Command & Music Minister (in his office): After recounting their human Christmas tree and parade of lights, JM asked: Would you consider having a Six Flags Over Second Baptist? Reply: You know, that's not a bad idea.

Second in Command & Music Minister (in his office): Dr. Young and I envision ten Second Baptist campuses across Houston, and we're presently pursuing (in Silicon Valley, CA) the rights to be the first church to have the rights to use three dimensional holographing technology to project his image to every other satellite. JM: Are you raising up ministers to take over those churches? Reply: Dr. Young and I will retire in about ten years, and that will be their problem.

I suggest any interested readers also inquire of honest staffers or deacons about the “John Baugh” incident, business meeting microphone shut downs, and how Second Baptist of Katy really got funded—against the donor's intentions. These and many other allegations were sent to the “Bible Answer Man” of Christian Research Institute (CA), at the time, but since he was offered a speaking engagement at the church, his show only exposed allegations I had sent about Joel Osteen (at the time), but not Second Baptist—anything wrong with double standards (or not biting the hand that feeds you?). So, when the church hosted Hank Hannegraff, per the Christian radio station I worked for, I anonymously left four fliers with allegations and Bible verses, hoping someone responsible in the church would learn the inside truth—and do something about it (David vs. Goliath all over again).

Un-shockingly, they rejected my candidacy, using the ruse of a “hiring freeze” as a lie and excuse—the church raked in $1 million a week at the time (according to a retailer operating just behind their South entrance—a client of mine at the time).

Second Baptist Church Inquiry (~2000)

- Dr. Young allegedly shut off the microphone at a business meeting when Mr. John Baugh (founder of Sysco Foods, and acquaintance of my dad) began to approach the podium to state his objection to the idea of spending his $20 million contribution (and some) to build a second campus in Katy.
- Dr. Young apparently targeted John O'Quinn (famous, rich Houston attorney) to become a church member, by taking him to his alleged condo in Maui (which I am sure few church members know their donations to God have paid for).
- Dr. Young's salary is apparently veiled in ambiguous figures in the budget, so that the exact amount is unclear. He also, allegedly, receives 100% of the profits from his Winning Walk TV show, and his office is worth an alleged $1,000,000 (though it was donated by church members).
- The pastor has allegedly stated that if he could have it his way, he would prefer to have an underground walkway between his office and the pulpit, to avoid so much crowd interaction
- That same staff member expressed a little disappointment that the Katy campus was attracting people from the other side of I-10 (that is, the poorer side of the freeway). Didn't Jesus come to preach the gospel to the poor?
- Deacons have told me that the larger contributing deacons have more influence, decision- and information-getting involvement in business affairs. Deacons allegedly receive updates on the percentage of their “pledges” which they have contributed to date, with reminders if they are not on track to complete the pledge by budget year's end.
- An executive staff member told me, “laity give up the right to rule, and clergy give up the right to minister,” and Dr. Young signed on with the stipulation that he make all the final decisions.
- A staffer told me Dr. Young regularly reads management books, and had a policy of firing one or two staff members, to keep the rest of the crew on their toes.

- An ex-deacon (who left the church) recently corroborated many of these items, adding that the "Baugh incident" occurred when one close to him confirms the tallied votes on opening a Katy location of Second Baptist was not going to pass as a resolution, and allegedly the pastor told Mr. Baugh that "no one controls this church, no matter what kind of money they donate," to which Mr. Baugh responded, "yes, and that lack of control of the church also applied to all men (implicitly, the pastor), as it was God's church" (or words to this effect).

Lakewood Church Inquiry (~2000)

Prior to his even being any more than the church's 'television guy'...

- Do you know if most of the members of Lakewood Church know where their "new" (Osteen's son) preacher lives, as they may be surprised to learn that he is in one of the most exclusive neighborhoods, with two Mercedes and another car in the garage (personally witnessed, as two doors down from a close Second Baptist friend at the time, on Doliver—near Second Baptist—I believe the address is 5563—a new, red brick two-story you won't mistake for the older houses surrounding it; the next door house to the East being a newly-remodeled 1-story, if you care to investigate).
- He also is reported to own one or two highly expensive (over $600,000 each) cars which are housed on the other side of the city in garages, which the congregation knows nothing of.
- Anyone who regularly watches his TV show (I do NOT) knows that he waters down and selectively 'cherry picks' what Bible verses he speaks on, and he himself (in interviews) says he likes to keep topics upbeat, positive, and avoid making public statements that are controversial (like expressing an opinion as to the morality of homosexuality, etc.). Many critics have called him Christianity lite (and a Christian pop psychology or motivational speaker), for good reason. Is that what the Bible gives as a pastor's job description?

Cypress Bible Church (Cypress, TX)—The then head Pastor was reputed as being the equivalent of the denominational head—if Bible Church were a denomination. I asked him in his office if he'd be willing to go evangelize with me. I pointed to a neighbor three houses away from the church who was mowing his lawn. He proceeded to drive me to a new neighborhood more removed from the premises, where he witnessed perfect responses... two people we met were preparing for their rehearsal dinner that night, so we moved on. One person we met was already a believer, and the other two we met got saved. On the drive back he said, "Jim, God's obviously gifted you and laid a burden on your heart, but I don't want that taught in my church," to which I replied, "then I guess this is no longer my family's church." Hypocritically, he resigned within 1.5 years to accept a VP of missionary training position where missionaries do just what I did—direct evangelism! (East-West Ministries—Dr. Joe Wall is his name).

Metropolitan Baptist Church (Spring, TX)—a hefty staffer literally ambushed a good friend of mine's Sunday School class, and as he was teaching, installed a new teacher in front of the class, for unexplained reasons (to shut down the heavy Bible study to make the class more fellowship-oriented and the lessons more watered down for visitors). The respected David Strawn was the first (vs. installed) teacher's name. The name of the less respected staffer—whom we debated openly—has long sense been forgotten (probably by more than just myself).

Dave Strawn (RIP)

College of Biblical Studies (Houston, TX)—The school withdrew a prior offer to teach a second Evangelism class, by stating that a full-time staffer would handle it, but in the context of their official policy being “relational evangelism” (which I exposed as much less biblical than direct evangelism—See: Appendix, which I taught from) after students asked me if I would say the same things I did to them in the next session which was made up of pastors (regarding moral culpability for the 5% statistic of Christians who ever evangelize resting squarely on the shoulders of pastors more than three years in ministry). You can’t speak the truth if it hurts your donors, can you? Never bite the hand that feeds you—the ‘ol Hitler S.S. salary reasoning.

First Baptist Church (Katy, TX)—I was grilled for two hours in a private meeting between a staffer and millionaire member who didn’t appreciate my criticizing his proposing to donate $4 million for a gym “for evangelism,” because evangelism is free (except for paid professionals and Missionaries). He could have just been honest and admitted that the gym would be a nice amenity for members, and may ‘attract’ some non-members. This man I’ll call Mr. “feel good son,” bragged that he owned four successful businesses—one a trucking/transportation company in West Houston (2 miles west of Highway 6’s Sam’s Club), where I dropped off a pamphlet from Fuller Seminary’s Missions Department that really tells how his filthy lucre truly could have been used for evangelism (highlighted in yellow, named Be A Part of It). In the sovereignty of God, he and another pastor arrived on my doorstep three months later (after my family had visited that pastor’s church), doing church visitation. When the pastor introduced us, I said “Oh, yes, I know him—we’ve met at First Baptist’s staff office.” The man was speechless the entire visit (but I assume that church now has a pretty nice gym, “for evangelism,” of course).

Memorial Drive Presbyterian Church (Houston, TX; where I was married). I assume my voice mail instructing the Pastor that much of his millions about to be spent on a building expansion could be much more greatly used hiring full-time Evangelists in the 10/40 Window went unheeded. I didn’t receive a call back, but if you’re ever there visiting, the Northern most (and likely newest) wing came at the expense of many lost souls who have yet to hear the Gospel there.

Jesus Video Project (Houston, TX). I was being considered for the head position of this ministry getting the Campus Crusade “Jesus video” to churches, “for evangelism.” If any Houston pastor bought several and thought you were being a wise steward of God’s money, YOU GOT RIPPED OFF for “Jesus”! They charged between $18 and $24 per DVD, and their cost was well under $3 a tape. I made this clear to the board members, and pushed for a much lower price, as well as not solely relying on just one tool to get the Great Commission done, but when I mentioned at a meeting in a Fleetwood neighborhood home that ‘no one should hear the Gospel more than once so long as some have never heard,’ the board members took over the meeting (I had arranged of several evangelism ministries), and I was treated as if I had stated a heresy thereafter. The lead board member was later discovered to be a prominent member of Cypress Bible Church, which I also write about.

Prestonwood Baptist Church (Plano, TX)—Where do I begin with this one? The events are so numerous. I joined four years ago, and sought to volunteer to teach evangelism and discipleship (and when I say “teach” it is rarely just informing, but actions). On eight separate occasions I met with staff underlings (never allowed access to those with the power, moral OPPOSITE of Gal. 1:15-19), which ALWAYS led to a dead end. I had started positive that first year, but the answer always ended with a “no.” At each meeting, I asked every staffer to look outside their glass wall windows and consider going to evangelize those homes—none ever did. I was content to let it drop, but God was not.

The next 2-3 years I was led to use more forceful methods—as I will not let this message be squelched (including taking my “Go Evangelize” sign to the Sunday parking lot exit, wearing my web site shirt to church often, and handing out a Sunday School leader letter exhorting them to reach all near the church with the Gospel, since the leadership seems not inclined to do so, and private emails to the top two preachers). These techniques brought about many external changes (sermons on evangelism, from my web site materials specifically tailored to the subject), but likely little impact of actual evangelism. They preached sermons galore, quoted my materials (un-cited, which I gave them permission to do in my emails), had annual campaigns two out of four years (Live to Tell, and Fav 5) even my own Bible Fellowship teacher thought should satisfy “me.” They had an evangelist hold a crusade (even though Dave Shivers told me they don’t do them often, because they rarely pay for themselves), invited Probe ministries to have a booth in the foyer (often quoted in my apologetics section), hosted four door to door Wednesday night “evangelism” events (where three of the four times they went to church visitors, and four out of four times they handed out sacks with church marketing materials). My son and I did go door-to-door across the street, and took the name of the one lady who got saved to the staffer who initiated my being “silenced” by the church (details below—“Lumpy”), telling him we took no materials—just a memorized knowledge of the Gospel and the Spirit’s power, email showing the head Pastor with Billy Graham (which I emailed him about, saying associating with greatness is no substitute for evangelizing, and discovering whether your own church suffers from the 5% who ever evangelize problem). We’ll never know if the 5% ever changed as a result, because, as a deacon Sunday School teacher emailed me earlier this year, “they will never agree to the things you are proposing,” and “things are just going to get worse for you here so you ought to consider another church,” referencing my proposed 3-mile plan, objectively identifying whether we suffer from the 5% and 13% problem, and instituting a church-wide relational discipleship push to help resolve the problems (including Multiplication Discipleship and Evangelism).

Stumpy and Lumpy: Lumpy, as I will call him (I don’t memorize names of people I don’t respect much) filled in a Sunday School lesson, and told a class of believers that we needed a completely new root—we needed our trees to be uprooted. He was using some Old Testament passage, out of context to a Christian setting. I asked him if he was evangelizing the class, because everyone I knew in there was saved, and we were new creatures in Christ. His ego could not stand showing his false doctrine (as a staff member), so two weeks later the minister he replaced (or vice versa—what their position is means nothing to myself), Stumpy arranged the following event:

Ross Perot Wannabe: My Sunday School teacher had reportedly a reputation for being more objective about things going on in the church (which is often labeled not being a “team player”). I was even more outspoken than he, so he had to make a decision. For three years I had asked him and other leaders to simply have a class where we actually did a Quiet Time (to get people started on the habit) and went out evangelizing as a class. They excused inability to do so on following curriculum (which they violated on several other occasions—a session on prophecy, before my push for prophecy, which the church then taught—and a lesson on how to become a Management Consultant, etc.) and being “submissive” to authority (the old Hitler’s S.S. excuse, which never assesses the morality of what is being submitted to). After three years, and after being wined and dined by the top church echelon in Arizona (a Ranger’s pre-season event, meeting a famous ‘Christian’ player who when later falling off the wagon said he owes nothing to the Rangers) he phoned me long distance to say he wanted to speak to me about the direction of the class. I asked if this meant using my materials (i.e., to do a Quiet Time and evangelism project), and he said “yes.” When I arrived at big box church, he was there, but suddenly two other unannounced persons walked up, and for 30 minutes I was grilled about the untenability of my correcting the teacher’s false doctrine, asking questions of it or making comments in class about it. Stumpy (who now will head the Dallas franchise) literally told me I was no longer allowed “to speak, make comments or ask any questions.” I asked if that pertained to the changes God had used me for in the top dog’s sermons, and he referenced only Sunday School. I answered, ‘no problem. I have already been scouting out more biblical and evangelistic classes,’ to which stumpy said “I mean in ANY Sunday School class.” This is the same person who told me in that ambush meeting, “perception is reality,” which is the exact opposite of the Bible—we walk by faith, and whatever is contrary to what it says is not spiritual reality (his authority is obviously idioms, not Scripture).

25 minutes later, stumpy, lumpy and another staffer were joking and chit chatting—being paid to stand around—so after finishing some work on my book, I went up to them and asked if they wanted to go evangelize the homes across the street. To a man they said they were short on time, but I informed them we all had 40-45 minutes before the service started, but exposing their hypocrisy was about all I could do with them there—they were typically obstinate. And before the service I ran into the Perot wanna-be (his LinkedIn.com profile is where that nick name comes from—where his face is hardly visible, and Perot is prominent, because he worked for EDS and must think the shot shows him knowing Ross), and asked him why he ambushed me, hadn't he ever read of that as a sinful act in Proverbs, and told him he ought to read and live out more of that book he was so clingingly holding under his arm. He raced to the elevator with cowardice silence. To his credit, he allowed me to speak in class several times afterwards, but the day a lady who sat in front of me GLARED at me when I had extolled the class to not be in the 5% who never evangelize, and she said "I am nice to my neighbors all the time," to which I replied, "that's not evangelism," I decided not to return, and haven't for over nine months. Sometimes, the fight is just not worth it—dust off your shoes and move on to more fertile pastures! Update: 'Wanna-be' has now changed his profile photo so he cannot be identified by Ross Perot in the background. Note the un-Christ-like pattern—no apology, just hide the evidence.

Much less qualified than many other staffers, the YOUNG Stumpy is now rewarded with heading up their third (Dallas) campus, likely to attract youth (future dollars, as the elderly die off, as church growth texts teach, because some other mega church nearby is successfully reaching them—competitors!). Even Ross Perot wanna-be had suggested the main campus instituting rock concerts, to attract the youth (when I had suggested discipling people). They had instituted the Saturday night service to try to attract youth, but it really hasn't done that well at achieving that purpose. Stumpy, on one occasion, saw my prophecy chart and mocked to Perot wanna-be, "have y'all got it all figured and mapped out?," when Stumpy attended Southwestern Seminary (not famous for eschatology—when I was there, the Professor said, "here's our lesson on prophecy—Jesus is coming back soon"), and hardly knows much about the subject. He also said the church has a neutral position on prophecy, yet Dr. Graham now sends out money-solicitation envelopes for his TV show with a ten sermon series on prophecy. There's no hypocrisy going on anywhere, is there?

And before that class merged, to stay afloat, a staffer told that Sunday School class that they might need to disband, as attendance was not very large. The same people who lured my teacher into ambushing me would turn on him for church growth! Isn't it great to be schmoozed into being a team player, seeing how loyal they aren't to you once you join the team, Phil. I know these things because my wife and son still attend—I withdrew being a class member the week after I was supposedly silenced by Stumpy (but we must obey God, and not man, and we cannot stop speaking the things we have experienced!—Acts references).

By the way and for the record, "Lumpy" has been nothing but polite in saying Hello to my wife—by name—and myself, apparently unwilling to address hypocrisy, just "moving on," or maybe seeking to heap coals on my head, but I feel none, as I did not do the morally wrong thing in that incident, by the grace of God.

A deacon/Sunday School leader told me they got the message, now can you let up?, to which I adamantly replied, 'No' (having no indication—till years later—whether major changes would be made, or not). Thank God, they were!

Dave Shivers: The reputed “most evangelistic staff member,” Dave Shivers, on THREE OCCASIONS agreed to do witnessing with myself, and thrice stood me up with no contact, apology or even explanation. The teaching Pastor on Saturday nights, Jarrett Stephens, did the exact same thing regarding simply meeting for a lunch some time. His email literally said to give him three dates, and he would “make it happen.” Every date passed, with no contact, apology or even explanation. Sort of like Peter—emphasizing their moral failure (toward God—not me). Then he proceeded to preach a sermon on forgiveness, saying not to just “move on,” but initiate forgiveness—whether the offender or offeree, and saying some in our church needed to implement this sermon. So I emailed him and asked if he wanted to remedy his standing me up three times, even though I had moved on from it with no input from him. Zero response. Hypocrisy is an ugly thing, especially among God’s so-called leaders, but THEY GET AWAY WITH IT so long as people like myself remain politely quiet—which I am no longer doing (if ever I did). Note the un-Christ-like pattern—no apology, just keep these acts private, so you can ignore them (or deny them or claim ‘no proof’ if others later finds out?).

Dr. Graham: The ONLY official correspondence acknowledgement I ever received (despite many sermons from reading my web site materials) was his secretary saying he was very encouraged, after I informed them I used four quotes of his on my web site, and referring to him as my “former pastor,” as I ceased being a member the day after he announced spending $18 million to open a new Dallas campus (where the under-qualified youth-attractor who ‘silenced’ me would be the preacher—I learned days later). His sermon the week before used between four and six quotes based on my web site, and was exhorting national and international evangelism, then he said he had a very exciting announcement to make the next week. You would expect perhaps a HUGE contribution to fund full-time 10/40 evangelists (at only $15,000 a year each), or adopt a portion of some country for evangelism. Needless to say, trying to butter up people who might complain about building, then completely abandoning any great news for the Great Commission for a new building (with no revealing or capping of his total compensation) is not the way to silence me—and he knows my history at FBC Deer Park that I will speak out against wrongdoing, as one of my closest youth disciples at that church is now a deacon at Prestonwood.

Even a Dallas seminary friend who got to know me decently warned me not to “name names” when I was speaking with a layman about the evangelism emphasis, and thrice being stood up by Mr. ‘shiver-me-timbers,’ and a young staffer I spoke with two weeks before the Dallas campus announcement said “Pastor Graham has very few nay sayers in his inner circle, so it’s going to happen.” Same authoritarian iron fist as some of my Second Baptist allegations (disclosed to CRI) detailed (perhaps the material for another YouTube video in the future).

RELATED NOTE TO MEGA CHURCH PASTORS: Fully reveal and cap your total compensation, and your aspirations will not seem as culpable—but only if you also do thorough evangelism and discipling! The Bible teaches that God wants no lack among churches, but your autonomous retail business unit only serves your business, and often sheep steals, hurting godly smaller church pastors!

July 2011 Update: Sadly, unless I retract this section on Prestonwood, I am no longer allowed to go to any Bible Fellowship class. If I had lied, said something untrue, I would have considered at least a revision to what has been written. And to those who say I’m blowing things out of proportion, OF COURSE my experience with the leadership is only one—HOW would you expect there to be many others, since, I say regretfully, no one I know or have ever heard of tries politely (or otherwise—within biblical bounds) to change the 5/10/13% abomination in leading churches or elsewhere—we either are ignorant of its existence, or accept it as having to exist. The apostles dealt with top priorities and 'leading' churches, when they sought to implement ministry initiatives, and it is no wonder their same God would lead even a peon like myself to do the same in our generation.

Probably the most effective method to bring about CHANGE was a posting on TripAdvisor.com which I have since retracted (yes, they monitor what's being said about their business' "image") in which I legitimately praised their music, architecture and biblical sermons, but also sent readers to this section of this web site. They could ignore one not seeking publicity and doing things privately, but get the public involved—especially potential new members—and they took notice. I do believe their changes were sincere, but the pressure needed to get them to pay attention to our materials (better, what God's word teaches) had to hit them where it counts—where their priorities lay.

(December 2011): The church has made incredible strides toward sermons and activities supporting the top Bible priorities (especially evangelism). Let's pray it continues indefinitely! I'd now venture to say if a visitor went there, they'd have no idea there ever was a problem with this church now being quite a LEAD CHURCH in these areas in emphases and sermons. For those reasons, I continue with it as my church home). Still work to be done (confirming, then solving the 5/10/13 problem*), but the head pastor's heart for top priorities seems truly to be in the right place, for which many lost souls, our Lord (and myself) should be eternally grateful. Also commendable is the teaching pastor personally meeting his 'family' after a service, and often implementing the congregation shaking hands with those around them—a start toward 'Body Life—prayer altar calls, an expository and apologetic sermon series (Jan. 2012—See their own excellent variation of an exhaustive Apologetics website like ours, prestonwood.org/ WhyBelieve), and a sermon on the key importance of identity in Christ at the last service of the year! For even more positive changes, please see our YouTube video, American Answers and book, Wit and Wisdom.

Laymen: PLEASE get these materials to your church leadership any way you can. God can use them mightily to make significant changes, only due to their representing what God has long since written in His unchanging and eternal word.

(early September 2012) The church continues to have GREAT evangelistic emphases, including a marvelous California video teleconferenced evangelism crusade by the next Billy Graham (in my opinion), Greg Laurie! I could go on about intense defenses of the new campuses, but I don't think they will ever understand the PRIMARY REASON I opposed such expansions (but, one LAST time I will make it FULLY CLEAR (since I never expect any personal communication):

THEY HAVE YET TO COMMIT TO REACH EVERY LOST PERSON WITHIN THREE MILES OF EACH CAMPUS
OR SPECIFICALLY DISCOVER WHETHER ONLY FIVE PERCENT OF THEIR MEMBERS EVER EVANGELIZE ONE SOUL.

That omitted priority is between them and God on judgment day! Attempting to justify this HUGE omission, they stated, '5000 other churches have multi-site venues.' When a church compares their behavior by what other churches are doing—NOT by what the Bible teaches—II Cor. 10:12 rightly applies.

NOTE TO EVERY PASTOR IN THE WORLD: Have the courage to break from the (rebellious) pack and do God's will! Don't do what's "normal" but what's RIGHT.

(mid-September 2012) After summer sabbatical, the first two Saturday night worship services saw Dr. Graham having a cameo appearance to tout the two new campuses as clearly 'God's will' and the exciting future for our church. They explained that these moves were 'selfless,' justifying as being among 5,000 other churches with multi-venued churches, and Dr. Graham somewhat chided the ORIGINAL congregation for the MAJORITY not having visited their newest campus (proven by show of hands), saying “that’s your church.” IMAGINE having to be told you have FAMILY and you need to go meet them.

Then I sent this email, addressed to both the Saturday night teaching pastor (Jarrett) and Dr. Graham, and sent from my alternative email, to PROVE they received it and couldn’t have blocked it (as I had never sent to them from this address before):

Dr. Graham: GREAT evangelistic crusade last weekend. What great commitment on your part!

Would you and Jarrett ever desire to meet in person, to end the differences we have had through sermons and website (the way Christians should reconcile)? You have no reason to fear physical confrontation (nor have you ever had—only spiritual!), but you can have as many "FBI security" personnel as makes you comfortable!

[Editorial Explanation: He literally said in a sermon, “If you want a piece of me, you’ll have to go through” this FBI agent (who protects him), speaking of an ‘ill church member’ and stated during one of the two cameo Saturday night appearances. MOST LIKELY he was referencing a ‘mentally ill stalker’ his head of security told me about (likely the former and now banned church member; according to a news article), as that would be a SERIOUS stretch and SLANDER to allege such of myself for the LOGICAL and BIBLICAL matters this web site raises—Ac. 26:24-25!

The ONLY issue I have ever consistently chided y’all on that remains important is failure to commit to reach EVERY lost soul within three miles of your three campuses and specifically discovering whether only 5% of the membership every evangelizes one soul in their lifetime—the problem almost every other American church also suffers from (and for which there are answers).

I have long since moved on, but y’all’s last two sermons indicate to me you still feel a need to defend expansion over first addressing these two issues. That problem is between y’all and God, alone. As I said, I have moved on, and wish to more amicably relate in the future, if you two are also so (biblically) inclined. I hope you do, but that proverbial ball is in your court.

Sincerely in Christ,
Jim Meroney

ZERO reply from Dr. Graham, to date (and I DO check voice mail and even my email’s trash can), but TO HIS CREDIT Jarrett—for the first time ever (and at the earliest chance) shook my hand the next Sunday eve, as he made his way through the crowd. I’m assuming from his prior standing me up with zero communication, he is disallowed (by his HUMAN boss) from making any ‘connection’ (a word they love to use for new members to get involved) with me, but this gesture showed me tons about his character. Enough space spent on this church... (Rom. 9:11)

(June 2013 Update) In the words of the 2013 Southern Baptist Convention Pastor’s Conference, ‘arrogant lawyers’ and ‘critics’ may have a kernel of truth, so ‘LISTEN to them (as his actions show he has). In the case of this web site, it’s either a popcorn bag full or the most important ‘kernel’ in that bag, for U.S. pastors. Implementing EDBS is pastoral ‘leadership’ and leading with ‘integrity!’ And DO NOT confuse confidence for arrogance, lest one use I Cor. 8:1 to teach—contrary to Scripture (Mk. 12:30)—that one must remain ignorant of God's word in order to be humble, or that being "loving" (something we are commanded to be) means doing something inconsistent with God's word (I Jn. 2:3, 5:2), using a confusion over two Greek words for "love" to justify replacing loving God with an emotional "luv" that lacks biblical content, or substance.

Don't shoot the messenger: It is not 'arrogance' to tell a grocery store owner his in-house coffee shop is doing wonderfully, but his grocery business is run-down, though I guess that humble message could be delivered in an arrogant manner. It's more likely that an owner who defines success as bodies and bucks takes that message as arrogance (no matter the tone), because his version of 'success' has arrogantly blinded him to what he is in business to accomplish (or called to do, in the case of the church). Churches that draw crowds with great music and sermons an hour a week per Christian without their relationally discipling them into being evangelistic and fully committed to Christ are like that poor grocer (and churches can be like that—Rev. 3:14-19).

Finally, a long-established church worker told me, even if there is never any acknowledgement of even 1-way contact between the pastor and yourself, "rest assured, it all comes down from the top." However, since these "EDBS" problems are almost 100% systemic in America, I choose not to single out individual churches (or pastors) anymore, as the effort to change it is not just a battle (i.e., a small problem) but really more of a war (i.e., battles almost everywhere you turn).

(September 2013) Reported their need for continued discipleship of teens two months ago, as my son was bullied on a choir trip. The church is making great strides in their commitment to God's priorities—re-hosting Harvest America this month, Dr. Graham is now hosting Evangelism Explosion training in the worship center, and they recently hired a Youth Minister (from First Baptist, Houston) in charge of discipleship of high schoolers. Hard now to find a church with so many changes for the good, so I keep these posts mainly as a tribute to godly leadership that is willing to change (vs. hardened-hearted).

Fellowship Church (Grapevine, TX). The Sunday nearest the ABC report of Ed Young Junior's (Second Baptist Houston transported to Dallas, with props) undisclosed $4 million French-made leer jet (and 10,000 square foot home on Lake Grapevine), I felt led to take my "Go Evangelize!" signs (See: Appendix) to that building. After two security guards addressed myself, and a cop finally arrived, and I asked to speak with his supervisor (as I was on public property, and, being a lawyer, I know my Constitutional rights), he confirmed that town has a local ordinance requiring a permit. So I left (after many members saw the sign), but I walked SO SLOWLY, all the stragglers saw it too (including the ignorant BMW owner who gave me a thumb's down sign)—thumbs down on exhorting evangelism? Get your facts straight before you make assumptions, naive "brother."

Ed Junior LOVES publicity, like laying in bed atop his building to promote his week of sex book (the Bible does not teach how often to engage in marital intimacy, or to idolize it) and puts props (including live lions) in church 'presentations' to get attention, fame and money. Just exalt Jesus—not yourself!

A Large Community Church (Racine, WI) Evangelism Minister phone interview ended when they learned I expect all leaders and laymen to evangelize, and that I could not secure a speaking gig for Coach Tony Dungy, because they relied on what they called "event evangelism" (i.e., famous "celebrities" "ATTRACTING" an audience and doing all the evangelism work for the laymen (contrary to Eph. 4). God help our country with little spiritual leadership!

‘One Church’ (formerly Four Corners Church; Allen, TX) One minister—a great guy who recommended me to a church I already knew was great (Pantego Bible)—told me such evangelistic zeal as I showed can be a sign of mental/emotional illness. Imagine that same pastor telling Paul that, and what if I had asked of his own evangelistic commitment—was he completely and certifiably ‘sane’ based on his definition (proved by his LACK of such commitment)?

Water’s Edge Church (Frisco, TX)—When asked, ‘how would you evangelize that home across the field?’, the response was “I am not targeting people for the Gospel—God is; and in His sovereignty, if He leads our paths to cross, I’ll pray for an open door of opportunity to share the Gospel with them... But we share the same Great Commission goal.” Of course you do. Our actions execute it and yours only has wishful thinking, spiritualized as something better. Needless to say I chalked that church off as a possible next home, after leaving Prestonwood!

Life Point Church (Plano, TX)—Sermon (paraphrased): “Your life is good (living in the richest county in the country—mentioned three times); Easter (i.e., the Gospel) is about making your life better.” Really? What if they are content with their luxurious lifestyle? And are men really ‘good,’ when God says to commit one sin makes us guilty of all and facing Hell at any unknown moment? Does the Bible say a good life consists of having possessions, or does it say just the opposite? (Lk. 12:15) Amazing what people will do (and say) to draw a crowd of lost people to grow their church. An interesting seminary study would be to watch films of this church four years ago, see how things have changed, and to identify what facets were likely copied from Joel Osteen, Prestonwood and Fellowship Grapevine. I have already done so for my own curiosity. (Hint: Props, backdrops, purple haze, and Gospel positivity). I had the privilege of a private meeting with Pastor George, who seems like a truly good man, but once I emailed him details on my proposed billboard campaign, the dialogue has seemingly ended.

First Baptist Church (Grand Prairie, TX—a College friend)—Response: Because you aren’t a pastor, I question (and will likely never implement) your teachings (even though they’re biblical, I have been a pastor and have seen and been a part of all these things occurring—thorough evangelism, relational discipling and body life). In other words, you haven’t (yet) experienced why I choose to not obey God on these priority matters. Since when did experience trump the word of God—whether a good or (more often) bad experience?

First Baptist Church (Prosper, TX). My conversation with this man tells me a lie detector alone will prove who’s telling the truth about Prestonwood (better: Both sides face a reckoning for their deeds before the eternal Judge, so the ‘proof will be in the pudding’ then). He accused me of slander (truth is always a defense to slander, under our U.S. civil law) “vinegar” causticness, being very close to sinful rebellion against God (for simply telling the truth), and not trusting the Spirit to discipline His bride, unsubmitiveness, and warned me of the 2-3 witnesses verse in allegations against Pastors (of which I have two to three—though they would never risk their cherished deaconship to testify to the truth, without a subpoena’d lie detector; plus, these experiences WERE kept private by myself, so there are few witnesses available!). The lie detector would not lie! Simply exposing the 5/10/13 problem REALLY RILES these men, as their deeds are exposed (and I don’t mean the common imperfections we all have—glaring top priority omissions). I am glad for this pastor seeking to raise a BIBLICAL objection, though his objection, sadly, loses credibility by thinking there are not 2-3 witnesses. As to unsubmitiveness and not trusting the Spirit, I trust the Spirit alone to guide me in this difficult reproving endeavor, and I don’t have to submit to stubbornness in unbiblical attitudes by God’s so-called “leaders,” as no one should! That’s the old Hitler S.S. excuse, abusing submitiveness and hiding behind the 2-3 witnesses verse so Pastors are never held accountable!

Norm Miller (President of Interstate Batteries at the time). Through his office, he declined to financially support our John 3:16 billboard campaign, citing his contributions to the 'I am Second' campaign (which uses so-called 'famous' people to give testimonies, as if God needs famous spokespersons and especially as if our experience or ourselves are the Gospel message vs. just preaching Christ).

'Number One' Christian Radio Station in America (KLTY).

JM: Like your station, listened seven years, but RARELY hear you exhort Christians to evangelize. As a 'Christian' station, that may be a 'negative' vibe to positivity, but you have a platform and it's biblical. Think and pray about it. Thanks, J. Meroney, WillYouLiveForever.org

Mike Prendergast (Program Director): Hi James, Thanks for reaching out. You raise an excellent point, one we have prayed about and thought about for years. The vast majority of our listeners come to us to hear uplifting and positive music with a message of hope through Christ. They don't come to us to evangelize on air or for us to encourage others to do so. We do that on our sister station, 100.7 KWRD, I encourage you to listen to that station some if you're not familiar with it. The way we're able to reach such a vast audience with His message of redeeming hope is through the music. Thanks again and I hope this answers your question. Have a blessed week!

JM: Sir: May I respectfully suggest that our Lord is less concerned with what His people want than what they need—especially what the lost need—Jesus. US Christians want only positivity with no responsibility, and that may well pay ministry bills but it does not honor or please our same Lord. Please pray some more, as the mass of listeners are likely not at the other station, and the Great Commission needs massively more workers. Great encouragement with no evangelism helps no lost people and gains believers no rewards in the next life. God bless, Jim M.

Comments: These emails are PROOF you have to document conversations with public officials, to let the public know the truth they will otherwise hide from them! Honesty from the heart is sometimes hard to get people to admit to.

Dear Pastors:

As influential Christian leaders in DFW I cordially invite you to take a public stand for evangelism by meeting together as a group at SpiritFest 2013 outside Arlington Stadium, using your notoriety to simply greet and give an encouraging word to attendees (Heb. 10:24), as I do the more humbling work of holding one or two professional signs biblically exhorting Christians to evangelize (pictures attached). This show of unity (II Cor. 6:1; Eph. 4:13) and commitment to the Gospel/Great Commission will speak volumes (just as the first century Christians reached lost people in public places like open markets, homes and Jewish synagogues with no expense or further action toward 'attracting' crowds; except for their miracles).

I will be there between 5:30 and 7:30 Nov. 10 (a Sunday evening, so there should be no conflict with your preaching schedules), standing on public property for there to be no local ordinance violations. Third Day will start at 7pm, so a good crowd is expected, as well as great music in the background. Please let me know by email reply if you are coming so we can arrange a central meeting place

If we REALLY care about COMPLETING the Great Commission to a person, Christian pastors must lead in exhorting believers to speak the Gospel, not just their own church members (II Cor. 11:28).

Thanks for your prayerful consideration. Sincerely in Christ,
James Meroney (MDiv, JD, MBA; WillYouLiveForever.org)

P.S.: Bring any staffers with you (or security personnel if you feel you need them at a public setting). I will NOT promote my website there if you come—ONLY Jesus!

CC: Revs. Ed Young Jr. (Fellowship Church), Robert Morris (Gateway Church), Jack Graham (Freely, legally/contractually-agreed to unnamed mega church, Tony Evans (Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship), T.D. Email Sent to Over 40 Denominations' Executives. (July 5, 2014)

Sirs:

As leaders of respected Christian institutions, I appeal to you to prayerfully consider doing the following as soon as possible:

Organize enough members of your "denomination" to FULLY evangelize (i.e., take the Gospel to) an identified small town or zip code, so those results could be broadcast afterwards to inspire other believers to do the same where they live.

Lay persons like being part of something big and important, and feeling they have accomplished something rather than just engaging in random or partial activities. Reaching EVERY lost soul is not only biblical, we should be hardly able to live with ourselves if they only heard the Gospel one time!

Many lay persons would happily publicize this achievement (Ex.: By email, Facebook, Twitter, billboards and YouTube), but not as many would be willing to help achieve it. Can you IMAGINE a billboard in another state or country stating "Everyone in [named town or zip code] has been offered the Gospel of Jesus this year! (John 3:16, The Bible)"? It could get lost people inquisitive and local Christians wondering why their own zip code has not been thoroughly "threshed."

This effort should NOT promote any group or person (other than Jesus), though it could result in increased membership, and Bible-based materials could be handed out for initial discipleship. I am willing to participate in any way possible if you select a venue near my home, but by all means do not let the Devil convince you to ignore this appeal! I have CC'd this notice to others to help ensure that does not happen.

God bless you as you pursue His will in obeying the Great Commission (part one), and please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or suggestions.

Sincerely in Christ,

James Meroney

Thanks you, I prayerfully considered and am not interested

Church of the Brethren

OTHER—2000 Emails sent. exhorting the highest priorities were thoroughly ignored by 500 of the largest Mega churches—except for two laymen replies, one positive and one inviting me to a mission trip—and similar emails to 40 Southern Baptist State Conventions—one positive reply from the North American Mission Board. I may use Facebook and/or Twitter next round.

I also sent Billy Graham a letter seeking endorsement of ‘my’ 3-mile plan, but his secretary replied he was too frail to engage (though his organization 3-4 years later did have at least one more national campaign, called My Hope America, so hopefully my Tweets that it is likely his last hurrah won’t prove prophetic!). Update: I learned just today (10/12/13) that my pastor one year ago went to Billy seeking to have him conduct one last crusade event for his 95th birthday. I pray Dr. Graham’s reading parts of this website was used of God to get through to Billy Graham in ways I was not able to without a platform of a 30,000 member church! God knows!

Note: If you EVER want to discover whether your town has churches suffering these same biblically moral challenges, DO NOT set up a pastoral interview first. Any good B2B salesman knows their gatekeeper (secretary, et al) is paid to keep access to them to a minimum, and when that person asks if he knows you, if you’re a church member, or what the nature of the meeting is, your discussing the 5% problem or three mile plan will SURELY be met with rejection. Go in person—as I have always done.

If you ever wonder why Billy Graham is reported as saying he would not return to host a Houston crusade any longer, because of the condition of the pastors (i.e., likely their fighting for his converts, to win their membership loyalty—and coveted “tithe”), you should wonder no longer! If you think that churches growing large is always a good thing, or that I have been too critical of abuses in the American Church, perhaps now you know the backdrop from whence I speak. These may be anecdotal, but I venture to say most American churches have drunk the same Kool-Aid.

A few notable exceptions to the rule are the following great ministries:

- First Baptist Church, Houston, TX
- Highland Baptist Church, Waco, TX
- Don Anderson Ministries, Tyler, TX
- MinistryCatalyst.com, Ft. Worth, TX.

Evangelism Explosion, Campus Crusade for Christ and the Navigators. The few good men are around, but, sadly, are few and far between.

I have a 26 year history of fighting moral corruption in church leaders, and less than the highest Bible priorities in church practice, so I am no Johnny-come-lately on the issue, though, just like Paul for his over 18 years, I have done this ministering in obscurity (Gal. 1). I pray that the reader of this web site will use all means necessary to allow my story—and, more importantly—these Bible-based teachings—to rid the Church of her un-prioritized and 90% (in America) carnal condition! If you want to see my teaching about these experiences in video form, be looking for our possible YouTube video entitled “Church Conflicts,” or search YouTube for my name. Thanks.

Update: Much change (for evangelism, discipleship, prophecy teaching, Church racial unity and political involvement and calls for 'revival' stemmed from MANY prominent U.S. ministers watching/witnessing a three week "Twitter-Fest" of visions and messages I wrote as led for many sleepless nights between Oct. and Nov. 2013 (highlights now documented at our Blog).

I-C3. CHURCH CHANGES

(See also: Testimony—My Story)

After four years of behind-the-scenes prodding (2007 to mid-2011), when the head pastor eventually started heeding our promptings (See: Church Conflicts), amazing things changed for top priorities at that church, regarding sermon content, new programs, and outside events.

Sermons. For several years many sermons came directly from our religious website. At one point, there was so much emphasis on evangelism, I even tweeted it needed to be balanced out, and mainly, less words and more checking that sermons were being implemented. One service the pastor did just that, and did as I suggested (have the audience bow their heads, close their eyes and raise their hands if they had evangelized recently). I had warned he would be shocked by the response, and he was a little more than shocked; it seemed to righteously anger him, and he extended the invitation with a rebuke that ‘we’re not playing church here, guys.’ That brought forth a few more responses to the invitation, but God only knows if it brought forth more people doing the work after that. After about three years of these improvements, I ceased all private prompting, as the emphases were seemingly on auto-pilot (and continue so, to a large degree, even to today)!

Per tweets I could recite here, on implementing EDBS priorities, I can recall his doing all of the following: Brought an apologetics ministry (PROBE) to our campus, and created an excellent apologetics website; preached a sermon series on Acts (using some details from our Color Chart I had given him in good faith) and on Bible prophecy; hosted a how to live an extraordinary life Bible study series; brought in two evangelists (Tim Lee and Canon J John), and hosted Harvest America (three times); personally visited Billy Graham (after I complained Billy’s secretary rejected my call for him to endorse a plan for every church to fully evangelize their own area), after which Franklin Graham’s My Hope crusades started; three years in a row he taught Evangelism Explosion on Wednesday nights; videotaped layman testimonies, had a small group prayer during the worship service, and preached a sermon on reconciliation (actually implemented in the worship service; i.e., Body Life); preached sermons on revival, the need for and why do evangelism, how to have a quiet time and walk by faith, Christian identity in Christ, the three tenses of salvation, and many more; and started evangelism emphases named Fav 5 and Live2Tell. There were more changed, but these were the big ones I recall.

Later, he came by my home, by mistake, on the arm of another pastor he was courting. (6/15/18): You can NEVER prove your calling to some (proud or hard hearts) so don't waste your time. Shake the dust vs. pearls before pigs. First Baptist, Katy, TX (grilled for two hours). (11/3/13)

The HONORABLE John Bisagno opened the church microphone for two evangelism testimonies at First Baptist, Katy, TX, per my note. He's a mega church pastor who sincerely follows Christ! (11/2/13)

I SAW Paul Pressler's home wall full of files on nearly every SBC pastor, and met in his hotel room with he and Tom Eckman at the St. Louis SBC convention. Great man for inerrancy. (11/2/13)

The Houston Jesus Video Project RIPPED pastors off, and I told them about it in a city-wide evangelism meeting I called; that ended the meeting. $18-24 for a $3 DVD. (11/3/13)

The Met, Cypress, TX, should REPENT for how they MIS-treated Dave Strawn, to secure church growth. Money over people gets judged in eternity! (11/3/13)

Sorry that First Baptist, Katy, TX, lost a $4 million donation, and canned a Calvinist per my (and others') revelations, but they were TRUE, and house-cleaning gets hands dirty. (11/3/13)

AT LEAST Dallas Seminary tries to prepare ministers w/Bible knowledge—NOT just give tools to use the rest of a pastor's life! Hopefully Paige Patterson changed that! (11/3/13)

Since WHEN has it been UN-ethical for a Southern Baptist minister to tell the TRUTH? Prove slander or error, and I'll retract any and ALL miswritten words, ASAP. (11/3/13)

The Southern Baptist Ethics Committee ought to investigate how moral it is that VERY FEW of their pastors have shared the Gospel with ALL lost people near their buildings! (11/3/13)

So the very next Tuesday (11/5), at noon, is when Prestonwood required me never to mention them online again; a magical day for me! [Magical because when Jack started monitoring our tweets, one day he figured out he wasn't targeted over all pastors, so he shared the year of messages with his powerful pastor and politician friends, and this account went viral, all to God's glory: The ONLY issue Tuesday is how the Great Commission (stage one) can be 100 percent fulfilled by stirring up pastors to lead (Eph. 4). Anything else, and I leave. (Pv. 12:6) (11/3/13)

@OSHHawkins Sir—you're a reasonable man; would you ever meet for lunch to discuss how to get pastors focused on COMPLETING Mt. 28:18+? No problem if you can't. (11/4/13)

REST ASSURED, I HAVE come to at least seven mega churches in the DFW area, to-date. No appointment necessary—God has APPOINTED pastors to hear that inquiry! (11/4/13)

Evangelism majors are the dummies of seminary? Read our website, and being-edited 5,000 paged Commentary, and you may think otherwise. Pride comes before destruction. (11/4/13)

I am labeled dangerous, or evil, for NOT setting appointments with pastors, to discuss Great Commission completion, knowing 'NO' is the likely result, if so. (11/4/13)

You work thirty+ YEARS for NO pay or notoriety. Could you? These are my messages' MORAL credentials; NOT bragging (for dolts who discount the messages). (11/4/13)

I wrote Billy Graham to endorse a plan for every pastor to evangelize all nearby lost people, but when our famed pastor flew out to see him, MyHope was birthed. (5/22/17): I'm ELATED for EVERY #MyHope Christian layman who TELLS THE GOSPEL—not only testimonies, or just playing the video! That's PROGRESS! (11/5/13)

I hope this is prophetic!: 'Probably more people will look [at our religious website] than you will ever know. —Charles Caldwell Ryrie (mailed letter, 10/26/13) Thanks, CCR! (11/5/13)

RIP, hero! Thankful your daughter let me come to your funeral! (6/15/18): Hope this is prophetic!: Probably more people will look [@ website] than you will ever know. —Charles Caldwell Ryrie, 10/26/13 Thanks CCR! (11/5/13)

Second Baptist, Houston: Did you ever get first dibs on 3-D holographed software from California that your second in command told me of? CAP YOUR SALARY, and give the rest to the POOR! $20 million for your Katy extension? (11/5/13)

God through us started the push for revival, when more than 50,000 were here, in 2013; mainly pastors, God used Twitter to get these messages to MANY VIP's, and a decent amount of change ensued. (9/4/16): GOD knows how to get these messages out, and if He wants them to, I will be led to learn how to do that. My anonymity was imposed to get writing DONE. (11/6/13)

I took the Gospel Signs to four venues around Houston the day after 9-11. The cops told me I was slowing down I-10 traffic for the interest. (11/6/13)

One staffer at Four Corners church (new name now) said my evangelism zeal could be an emotional problem. If it is (ha) I don't want the one HE has! (11/6/13)

My best friend in law school was the Dallas Seminary president's son, at time. Hi John Campbell! Hope you started that I Cor. 6:5 ministry. (11/6/13)

Pressler/Patterson's inerrancy movement was needed and good, but locking Dr. Dilday out of his home was IMMORAL. Practice what we preach! (11/6/13)

Charles Ryrie signed my Bible in the early 80's, with Jn. 17:17. That gentleman knows God, and that scholar knows God's word! Wish you great health. (11/6/13)

Thanks, Dave [Strawn], for how your death brought to my remembrance many good and bad emotional experiences that have shaped my life. You are loved, and SO missed! BFF Dave Strawn (Undated):
Dave: I know you broke fellowship over my support of some Welfare, but your legacy WILL live on on my website. I'm awaiting a picture from your wife. RIP. (11/6/13)

Man of GOD! 'When we don't hear God, the problem is not that He isn't talking, but that we're not attuned to the sound of His voice.' -TonyEvans (11/7/13)

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to my number one HERO of this century, Billy Graham! You truly lived out Phil. 2:30, and the U.S. church OWES you a debt for making up for our LACK! (11/7/13)

Coral Ridge? [dropped by] THERE's a church! EE founder (RIP), and Dave Strawn got MANY great articles from you folks. THANKS for your godliness! EE—WOW—hero stuff! (11/7/13; Billy Graham's grandson, and Evangelism Explosion founder's church followed us—for awhile)

Will Graham (@TellaGraham): Time is of the Essence; WISE MAN, Billy Graham! (I Pet. 4:7) Thanks for a LIFETIME as our role model! (11/12/13)

Jesus was NOT always 'nice,' but Political Correctness extols niceness as the ultimate ethic. See the difference, or are you blind? (12/8/13): JESUS says evangelize the lost; Ed Young says attract them by talking about sex. SEE the disparity, or are you blind, Fellowship Church members? (12/8/13)

.@EdYoung SELL your sinful luxury jet, and give the money to the poor, and teach privacy and modesty in marital sex, sensationalist for publicity Ed; Do it. (12/8/13)

PLEASE put on my tombstone: YES to EDBS, and NO to 5/10/13, defined at WillYouLiveForever.org
Go FULLY evangelize the earth, Church! Jn. 3:16 (12/22/13)

Please retweet globally: Time is SHORT! EVERY person must receive Jesus for eternal salvation because HELL and the Tribulation are forthcoming, SOON. (12/25/13)

SO glad to see my hero, Don Anderson, relationally discipling five couples. Any time EDBS occurs, let us rejoice! He's a Bible teacher par excellence. (1/1/14)

.@JoelCrosenberg Grateful for The Invested Life (book), MIRRORING Christ/God's word (and our eight year website, WillYouLiveForever.org). God bless you in 2014. (1/1/14)

.@DrMattQueen (Retweeted): Happy New Year! May we all be more bold for Jesus, tell more people about Jesus and win more people to Jesus than we ever. (1/2/14)

Join in praying for First Baptist Euless's 45 personal evangelism teams evangelizing tonight. Alas, a pastor who SEES—great job! John Meador (2/12/14)

The new Billy Graham (NOT T.D. Jakes) will be at American Airlines Center at 6pm, Oct. 5, FREE (as is the Gospel he preaches)! #HarvestDallas @reglaurie (2/15/14)

I'm so grateful one of the teens I discipled at First Baptist, Deer Park, is now a deacon at my home church, who THANKED me for what he had learned. The sovereignty of God. (2/15/14)

SO grateful one of the teens I discipled at First Baptist, Deer Park, is now a deacon at my home church, who THANKED me for what he had learned. Sovereignty. (2/15/14) @RedBoswell; Franchise King (last time we spoke).

My website shows a letter contacting Southern Baptist national leaders AT LEAST three years ago, to have a national evangelism push, and they promised to. Three years! (2/16/14): THAT'S SEVEN YEARS DELAY. The Christians involved in Evangelism Explosion (EE) in the 1970's were MUCH nobler than today's Christians. They FULLY evangelized. I witnessed it as an EE member. (2/16/14)

Highland Baptist Church, Waco, TX (1978): I SAW entire neighborhoods evangelized, and documented. There's MY proof it can be done. Prove otherwise. (2/18/14)

Reinhard Bonnke APPARENTLY sees or has no need for a minister to motivate laymen to FULLY evangelize an area. I solicited such, to NO avail. (2/18/14)

Were it not for a divorce, I'd have been a full-time Southern Baptist missionary. They have ZERO leniency on WHY a person divorced. ZERO! (2/18/14)

I wrote a 5,000-paged New Testament commentary, comparing verses saying the same, similar, different and seemingly opposite things. NOT ignorant of what God says! (2/18/14)

A guy in college asked me to have a Quiet Time with him ~20 times, so I did (for 30 days), JUST to get him off my back, and I've never looked back; do it. (2/20/14)

I experienced Body Life at Highland Baptist from 1978-1981, where laymen gave Quiet Time testimonies, prayer requests and answers, and met others' needs in church. (2/21/14)

My second BFF in law school became a missionary in France, ministering to Muslims. Glad he's getting evangelistic, having received updates for 21 years. Great job Jim and Ali (2/23/14): For six years I exhorted him to evangelize, but he was "building relationships." There's no URGENCY anymore! (7/6/14)

MAYBE John Hagee will exhort fellow pastors to FULLY evangelize their area of town. He's never shy about speaking God's message! (3/1/14)

If beloved Tony Evans ever gets the voicemail message I left his secretary last week, that last tweet is what I wanted to speak with him about. (3/1/14)

No less than the Bible scholar, Charles Ryrie holds that ten percent tithing is NOT the rule for believers, and HE'S not "immature," @CalvaryDenton! (5/27/14)

I PRAY @BillyGraham will make one last public statement exhorting more evangelism by U.S. Christians. Reproof is needed, though not in his nature. (6/17/14)

200-page blog of the best tweets, today. I'm reminded that the SBC promised a nation-wide evangelism thrust three+ years ago. Where's the biblical URGENCY? (6/22/14)

.@BillyGraham I Jn. 4:1 Please publicly announce request of U.S. pastors to discover percent of members who evangelize, saying you're not going to be here forever. (6/23/14)

Phil: Trojan Twitter accounts are how you can still watch here. Just hide behind a fake-fronted Twitter account. You probably already knew that—you're smart. (6/25/14)

Nice try, Phil. Barraging my account with college Kap Sig frat mates to watch does NOTHING. Grow up... College was YEARS ago, bro! Be like Ross. I see you watch, often! (6/25/14)

I was carnal ages eight to eighteen. When God got hold of my life, I've NEVER been the same, and NEVER looked back. Has He gotten hold of you, REALLY? Be honest! (6/25/14)

I went to church two to three times per week age zero to eighteen. ONLY when para-church organizations and caring individuals pushed my spiritual growth did I experience miracles. (6/25/14)

In my heart I left ALL for Jesus, Nov. 1978, and I've "suffered" MAJOR financial loss in the process. No problem. Rewards in Heaven, and our books WILL sell, soon. (6/25/14)

ONLY after I well exceeded my quota in evangelism did God lead my teaching gift to exhort evangelism. You can't Be a hypocrite if you're a "mobilizer," as no credibility! (7/6/14)

I recall one HUGE false misstatement I mistakenly made balanced with one HUGE physics-violating miracle I never talk of, whose site I passed this week. (7/3/14)

Such a miracle gives one confidence that God is with you to do the work He's called you to, while the BIG verbal blunder humbles you, like a thorn in the flesh! (7/3/14)

I just emailed heads of more than sixteen denominations exhorting FULL evangelism of a town or zip code, ASAP, for broadcast results. Pray they DO vs. debate! (7/5/14) Now over 40 denominations. I will add the letter to our website, next revision. I'll work with any credible Christian organizations! (7/5/14)

Church of Brethren just responded that they prayed, and "weren't interested" in evangelizing a whole area. Who are they praying to, and Who's book are they reading? (7/5/14)

Irony of automated favoriting: 'Pope Francis and Benedict XXXVI favorited your Retweet, July 6: [News] POPE Francis Warns ANY "personal relationship with JESUS is dangerous" <http://youtu.be/tSQfr8ikPk4> (7/8/14)

@michaelwsmith Please call the Church to evangelism, at #CelebrateFreedom, for revival, SOON. Be ~like Keith Green. I have several of your CD's; Blessings! (6/27/14)

We've protested several mega churches with Go Evangelize! signs (viewable at the end of our website), and several large Christian events. WHO will join this fight? (7/10/14)

I JUST sent my son on a mission trip. I told him to evangelize, some, and ASK colleagues and leaders to. Politely, patiently and persistently ASK! Leverage relations. (7/11/14)

We sent offers to multiple seminaries and denomination headquarters here. I will NOT retweet each one, and you can guess the response... "NO way, Jose!" (5/23/17): For faithful viewers, not one of nearly 40 denominations has said 'YES' to my call to fully evangelize ALL lost people in one zip code. May The Tribulation start soon. (7/16/14)

@baptistgenerals Choose an area to fully evangelize ALL lost people there, then we can broadcast completion to inspire it globally (Mt. 28:18-20). Interested? (7/19/14)

@JESUSfilm Keep up the good work, and do monitor your staff selling films for $20-25 each to pastors, with costs between $1-3 (Ex.: in Houston in '96-98)! (7/22/14)

I'm SO glad if the EDBS message gets out by anyone whom pastors WILL listen to! I could care less if they ignore me. Chan/Strobel/Floyd/Rosenberg—whoever! (7/23/14)

Most churches are good at buildings, budgets, and baptisms, but what about making disciples?: <http://bit.ly/1qyIqmH> (Ed Stetzer, 7/23/14)

I took names of EVERY "famous" pastor or denominational head who watched last October's TwitterFest, so I know who reacts to what they saw! God leads. (7/25/14)

Evangelized hundreds in person, and thousands, publicly. THIS is NOT boasting, but putting my critics in their rightful place (of being refuted)! (8/9/14)

I'm glad one critic explained a recent "back turning" of minister our family has, to-date, respected. Obeying one's boss not as valuable as obeying God! (8/9/14)

My family met the Body Life king, on our trip. I LOVE seeing any church involving the laity, and their gifts being used in a worship service! He taught me to love that, through the Bible. (8/10/14)

I'm SORRY to be out of town when the new SBC president, Ronnie Floyd, was in town, recently! Church is to be known by OUTSIDERS for its praying, I think he taught! (8/10/14)

I'll STILL publicly debate pastor Ernest Weedon, formerly of FBC Deer Park, TX, about is Lordship Salvation biblical? (if he's still alive?) (Undated): I've fought this Lordship Salvation false doctrine since 1985/1986, when I lost a career pastoring job over it (details at 'Church Conflicts,' at our website). LEARN! (8/10/14)

I FINALLY got Prestonwood's second-in-command to agree with this biblical conclusion (i.e., said in a sermon). (Undated): It was on the wall at his Bible college!: "Preach the Gospel, and, if necessary, use words" is FALSE doctrine! Evangelism is speaking the Gospel; it comes from the Greek word for 'messenger.' (8/11/14)

God has gifted me with the teaching gift, and writing skill. I use it NOW, AFTER evangelizing WELL beyond my part. If you have that excuse, I still evangelize. (8/11/14)

I guess 28 years after God told me to publicly challenge First Baptist, Deer Park's minister to debate this when he pushed me out, I've offered my defense (i.e., our book, The Gospel According to God): First Baptist pastor Ernest Weedon. Want an eye witness? Contact @RedBoswell GREAT high school 'disciplee' when I was his youth pastor! (8/12/14)

I had a couple good chats with this man, who refined my [misstated] five percent statistic from 95 percent never evangelize to 95 percent who never win one soul in their lifetime. Glad for corrections! (5/23/17): THANKS for a CONSTRUCTIVE "critic" who mentioned, by allusion, that people were WRONGLY claiming statistics when they send manuscripts to book publishers! THANK YOU, sir! @EdStetzer (8/13/14)

This ONLY changes about three sentences on our website, but 100 percent accuracy is ALWAYS the goal, and we've asked for corrections ever since it started! (8/13/14)

@edstetzer THANK YOU, sir, for your helpful research! Preparing for publisher editing have UPDATED Open Letter based in part on your work. Thank you! (8/13/14)

SAD 2C #EmergingEvangelists stop following. I WON'T change any truths I ever tweet if such turned some of them off!—(?). God bless your mission! (8/13/14)

This man is now the pastor of my home church, who spoke at Prestonwood two times in past four years, MINIMUM. (Undated): Why worry about revival, when we know Jesus will return? Why exercise when you know you're going to die? -Gregg Matte (8/14/14)

@ReinhardBonnke I contacted you before, twice. I would LOVE to work with your organization. Let's start a dialogue at AAorg2020@gmail, and I'll give you my phone number; you're a HERO. #CRICKETS! (8/22/14)

Will @BillyGraham make one last VERY significant 'word' for EVERY pastor to lead their members to evangelize ALL lost near their church, ASAP? (8/31/14)

GREAT seeing Dr. Daniel Sanchez last night, after 29 years. If memory serves me right, I had a class or two with him in my missions-evangelism major at SWBTS. (9/3/14)

PRAY that Dallas Seminary professors will again resurrect prophecy seminars, to teach both Christians and those who will be most horribly affected by it. (9/4/14)

In a Houston Mosque, as a Dallas Seminary student, I asked the hosts about how holy they had to be to be sure they were going to Heaven. They said, 'we live somewhere between hope and fear.' (9/4/14)

Memorial Drive Presbyterian Church, Houston, TX (6/15/18): Would any church forfeit their new venued building, and put that money in the 10/40 window, for evangelism? The church where I was married chose not to, when I asked them. (9/7/14)

PS.: My own denomination heads assured me ~five years ago, in a letter, they were having a nation-wide evangelism push. BLOOD IS ON YOUR HANDS for all who died! (9/12/14)

RE: Kerry Shook, North Houston ~Cypress area (BIG church, with the good Lee Strobel on staff). (6/17/18): Kerry: I APPRECIATE your concern, and I don't expect that you've read every tweet, so I will repeat: I am ONLY saying what I am led to; your objections are with God. (9/13/14)

One Sunday School class evangelized after our On Hell lesson, and about 15 people went door-to-door evangelizing, when they were personally asked. Sermons rarely work. (9/15/14)

Will @BishopJakes, @DrTonyEvans, @ChuckSwindoll, @EdYoung or @PsRobertMorris show THIS time ONE YEAR LATER to publicly stand for evangelism? (9/21/14)

I used email, phone and Twitter to get ZERO positive participating pastors. (5/23/17): #TDJakes #TonyEvans #EdYoung #RobertMorris #CharlesSwindoll Please see the message for you regarding Oct. 5th. Go FULLY evangelize near your church, ASAP!!! (9/21/14)

@JoelOsteen Have you committed to START evangelizing ALL lost near the Summit since I exhorted you to a YEAR ago? Delay is Devilish! LEADER? (9/21/14)

@firstdallas Dr. Jeffress: Have you committed to evangelize ALL nearby lost in the months since I first left notes to do so? FILL Harvest Dallas with them. (9/22/14)

We already went person-to-person evangelizing with this pastor. READ the results on our website ("church conflicts" section). (5/23/17): @eastwest Dr. JoeWall: Will you go door-to-door evangelizing again with me here in Dallas, Oct. 5, near AmericanAirlinesCenter at 1 pm? You KNOW God's gift! (9/22/14)

Twitter search "Have U committed 2 evangelizing ALL lost" to see how many denominations we addressed, basically in vain, from hard-hearted heads! (5/23/17): American Evangelical Christian Churches: Have you committed to evangelizing ALL lost people near your churches, since my email to do so, MONTHS ago? (9/22/14)

Pastors: Have you decided to lead your church to evangelize ALL lost people near your church ASAP? I'll help. @craiggroeschel @perrynoble @Chris_Hodges @DaveStone920 @JudWilhite @tommybarnett @davevandonge @jtoddmullins @CalvaryFTL @bob_merritt @KerryShook @robertemmitt @ctkburlington @skipheitzig @crdschurch @mcleanbible @Dr_creflodollar @jimcobrae @pastorbernal @jamesmacdonald @LCBCchurch @Jentezen @KentonBeshore @jonathanfalwell (9/25/14)

Trying to send positive emails to the 50 largest non-USA mega churches, to skim our website for the best of the Bible, but there are language and no email barriers, often! (9/26/14)

Am I 'arrogant' for not following anyone? On Twitter, it's the BEST way to see who's watching, vs. algorithms sending the like-minded your way (vs. real viewers)! (9/27/14)

I've successfully done door-to-door in the richest zip code and county in Texas. DON'T believe the Devil's lie that culture changes make it un-doable-Flesh wants 2 believe that. (10/1/14)

.@PastorEAAdeboye Sir: Please read yesterday's two emails also sent ~two months ago. I dropped by Greenville, TX headquarters yesterday to deliver also. (10/1/14) Note: NOTHING happened!

@BennyHinn_ @KCMEurope @PastorParsley Will you three men of God commit to evangelize ALL lost people near your churches ASAP using your members? (10/1/14)

HOPE to see Robert Jeffress, Robert Morris, Ed Young, T.D. Jakes and Tony Evans two hours before Harvest Dallas to evangelize. Stood me up in 2013 (along with Charles Swindoll). (10/3/14)

Will six famous Dallas pastors join us tomorrow to evangelize near AA Center? If any are NOT I assure you are Go Evangelize signs WILL be at your church soon. (10/4/14)

If any of the six famous pastors WERE to come, don't worry... you needn't speak with me unless you want to; we're just fellow-workers evangelizing together! (10/4/14)

Your presence, however, would speak VOLUMES to any who may know you, that you support and DO evangelism outside your church, and are a spiritual LEADER! 3pm+. (10/4/14)

Teaching Evangelism at the Center For Biblical Studies, I asked students to write ten powerful one-liners to ten apologetic issues. Have you any suggestions? (10/4/14)

@Pontifex SOLELY due to your position and media coverage, would you PLEASE make a statement that 'Christians need to be telling the whole world the Gospel? (10/4/14)

@ZonderAcademic Come to Dallas and evangelize with me, and maybe you'll STOP straw man stereotypes. Will you come? Email me if so! Totally loving. (10/4/14; response to a snarky post):

T.D. Jakes, Ed Young, Robert Morris, Robert Jeffress, Chuck Swindoll and Tony Evans: FINAL third call to come evangelize at the American Airline Center today, 3-5pm, or signs are coming to your churches! (10/5/14)

I asked them ALL to come, last year, to a Christian rock concert, by email, and this year, by Twitter. I WILL LEGALLY take our Go Evangelize! signs to their churches. (10/5/14)

At age 50, I promised myself I would not allow the five percent who ever win one soul to Christ in a lifetime to continue. Now that the books are done, time to make waves! (10/6/14)

I said last year, Greg Laurie is the next Billy Graham! Have Arthur Blessitt and Luis Palau retired? William and Franklin Graham need more U.S. exposure, for crusades! (10/6/14)

James Fadele, of RCCG Greenville, TX.: Have the Christian decency to open my letter, and call me, PLEASE! Time for your people to reach Prosper, TX, for Jesus! (10/6/14)

@PastorEAAdeboye CAN'T you see that the global church NEEDS to see one zip code 100 percent reached for Christ, to stir THEM to do the same? Email me. Let's DO this! (10/6/14)

It's looking like RCCG is rejecting call for enough workers to fully evangelize Prosper, TX, JUST like all denominations! One zip code, and publicize those results everywhere! (10/6/14)

RESPECTED @RonnieFloyd Please pass a resolution that SBC pastors are committed to evangelize ALL nearby lost people, ASAP (and seek petition signatures); God bless. (10/7/14)

@WinningWalk Ed: Have you YET decided to evangelize every lost soul within three miles of your campus? WHY NOT? Personal evangelism WORKS in the rich 77057 zip code! (10/7/14)

My BFF, at the time, only had a door shut on him once in 77057. Door-to-door WORKED in richest zip code in the U.S., despite Second Baptist Houston's delusion otherwise! (10/7/14)

@dwhardage PLEASE ask them to publicly commit to FULLY evangelize every lost person near their churches ASAP. Thanks! #TimeIsShort (10/7/14)

mikegoff1960 Please ask them to publicly commit to evangelize ALL lost people near every member church ASAP. Thanks. (10/7/14)

@GreggMatte I APPLAUD your using #EvangelismExplosion! GREAT job. Have you decided to fully evangelize the Memorial area since it was brought to your attention last year? I'll help. (10/7/14)

@SWBTS Evangelism and missions professors should LEAD a DFW campaign to fully evangelize all DFW lost people. I'll help, as one of your progeny. Email me! (10/7/14)

@DallasSeminary professors should PROVE they're NOT just academic, and take to the streets to personally evangelize. I'll go with you; email me, mentors. (10/7/14)

@CriswellCollege Your name's sake said, "Its missionary commitment that binds our Southern Baptist churches together." Go door-to-door, or hold Gospel signs with me! (10/7/14)

@DBUPatriots' administration and teaching staff: Please go evangelize with me, 1:1, or in a public place. You must LEAD, as Baptists USED to be for evangelism! (10/7/14)

@BaptistPress SBC leadership: Please pass a resolution that member pastors are committed to evangelize ALL lost near their church ASAP (and get SIGNATURES) (10/7/14)

@TexasBaptists PLEASE publicly vow every petition signatory member pastor WILL lead members to evangelize ALL lost people near their church building. (10/7/14)

@PlatinumD15 Please tell them to publicly commit to FULLY evangelize ALL lost people near every one of their churches ASAP. THANKS! (10/7/14)

.@NikWallenda Please negotiate with the owners of the two skyscraper you walk between to ONLY leave lights on that spell out 'Receive Jesus.' You have LEVERAGE! (10/7/14)

I didn't leave my Southern Baptist pastor brethren; they left our denomination's foundation for LESS than FULL nearby evangelism, CONTRARY to the values of W.A. Criswell! (10/9/14)

I was disallowed to join a missions agency, when I honestly told them I was too busy writing (etc.) to promise I'd pray daily for all the Cambodia converts won through me. (10/10/14)

I was NOT offered the Jesus Video Director job, when I complained that $18-22 a DVD sold to churches was WRONG (costs between $1-3). Church politics are EVIL! (10/10/14)

Hoping but doubtful that #RCCG will come through with a crew to fully evangelize Prosper, TX. I emailed the CEO last year, then tweeted him, and their second in command. (10/10/14)

We took our Gospel Signs four places in Houston, on the day after 9-11 (and had to move on, as cops said I-10 traffic was slowing down). Go evangelize signs have been to Promise Keepers... several mega churches in Houston and DFW (Osteen, Second Baptist, etc.). Details at the end of our website. #DoSomething! The world's going to Hell—#Evangelize! GO. Do. (10/10/14)

PS: To inspire ACTION outside DFW, Wednesday before Thanksgiving is busiest airport day. Take your own Gospel Sign to your airport. We did, at Houston International airport. Those Gospel Signs have been to a Mormon temple opening, Highway I-10 when (at a crawl during the holidays), at the only entrance to the Houston Rodeo, the Houston Marathon, and a bike race to Austin. (10/10/14)

God saved 10 of 10 last time I evangelized in Ft. Worth, on the street just west of SWBTS, in seminary. I used to drive with a 'receive Jesus, sins forgiven' cardboard sign on my car. (10/10/14)

Ask Rev. Joe Wall. We had a 100 percent salvation success when we went evangelizing together for Cypress Bible Church. Ask Chris Kim, at the College of Biblical Studies. (10/10/14)

How many people in America died, and went to Hell during your foot-dragging, @NAMB_SBC? #BloodyHands: ...Or if they START the nation-wide full evangelism "program" I was told about FIVE years ago. Five years of blood on our hands, for any who died, sirs! (10/10/14)

@tommykiker @swbts If you can encourage and secure one to three ministers to do the same, as we multiply, MAYBE things could change over time-revival! (10/10/14)

@tommykiker @swbts SIR: Your message is EXACTLY what I NEVER hear about. THANKS for replying; God bless you, and I'll join anytime I'm in Ft. Worth, if allowed. (10/10/14)

@DBAtweets Will you put up a billboard reading, "Pastors: Lead your church to evangelize ALL nearby lost people ASAP! -Jesus" It's much NEEDED! (10/12/14)

@RonnieFloyd You're an amazing man of God! I JUST learned by Dr. Kiker about #Engage24, and will be @SWBTS today to fully support and PARTICIPATE! God bless you. (10/14/14)

@tommykiker It was truly awe inspiring to see about 25 young people committed to sharing their faith! THANKS for the opportunity! We hit a dry hole (10/15/14)

@tommykiker It was truly awe-inspiring to see about 25 young people committed to sharing their faith! THANKS for the opportunity! We hit a dry hole [i.e., no lost people found] (10/15/14)

Billy Graham: Franklin and William could rise to FIT in your shoes, IF they took up this call on your behalf, and with your blessings! @Franklin_Graham @TellaGraham (10/17/14)

It seems @BillyGraham three+ years later AGAIN will NOT make a public call for ALL pastors to evangelize ALL lost people near their church, ASAP. Sad! His secretary declined before, saying he was too feeble, then hosted MyHope. (10/17/14)

RT @DrMattQueen: Here's the 11:30AM @swbts #goingthe2ndmile #evangelism teams led by @BrandonKiesling. #Pray @engage24 @ronniefloyd (10/17/14)

.@TarrantBaptist Will y'all consider having a billboard reading: Pastors: LEAD your members to evangelize ALL lost near your church ASAP! (?). (10/19/14)

In total, ~5,000 had the Gospel seed sown in 1.5 hours, and again, my 13 year old has evangelized more than MOST Christian adults, and many pastors. Keep up. (10/19/14)

This sign is to be used as led/needed. The more the U.S. church REJECTS FULL evangelism, the more that backside will be needed. GO evangelize! (10/21/14)

@NAMB_SBC Why has it been more than three years since you promised a nation-wide evangelism thrust? You DON'T need slogans and materials—just warm, informed people. (10/22/14)

@barrycreamer Please consider requiring 15 real-life hours of personal evangelism for any #Criswell degree if we're raising "leaders." Thanks. (10/28/14)

Dr. #MarkBailey: Please consider requiring 15 real-life hours of personal evangelism for any DTS degree if raising leaders. Thanks, @DallasSeminary (10/28/14)

@_PPatterson Would you please consider requiring 15 real-life hours of personal evangelism before awarding any SWBTS degrees? Thanks for your consideration! (10/28/14)

@tommykiker You're too kind. How many attend second mile out of what number total students? SO glad to be accurate, and to see a greater percent at my beloved alma mater! (10/28/14)

#HEROES! @SWBTS Dr. McQueen and Dr. Kiker (6/15/18): Were it NOT for SWBTS's Going The Second Mile, I may have quit the call for FULL evangelism, and I'm SO glad it came from my alma mater; SO proud of those professors. (10/28/14)

This SAME message was tweeted directly to over 25 prominent U.S. seminaries. Twitter search the first seven words to get a list of all of them; NO replies! (5/23/17): PLEASE degree-require 15 real-life hours of evangelism of ALL students if you're training LEADERS vs. just sermonizers. Thanks, @TalbotNews (10/29/14)

PLEASE degree-require 15 real-life hours of evangelism of ALL students if you're training LEADERS vs. just sermonizers. I put our Gospel Sign in the window atop our front door, for foreign and home missions, as I hold one at Highway 121 and Ohio Drive's overpass during drive-time, then trick or treat. @IMB_SBC (10/31/14)

Will you publicly hold THIS sign with me, to show that you're leading members in evangelism? I'll never tell if you DO! @drtonyevans @robertjeffress @BishopJakes @EdYoung @PsRobertMorris @churchawakening Dr. Joe Wall (of East-West Ministries, formerly of #CypressBibleChurch) went door-to-door with me, and can tell you I DON'T BITE! (10/31/14)

@johnmacarthur Welcome aboard! I LOVE your The Charismatics book, and Grace Giving cassette tape series from years ago. God bless you. (10/31/14)

Awesome event at the I Am Second (IAS) run, today, with my son, where nearly EVERY participant saw this. I PRAY they DO it, as IAS supports! (11/1/14)

Tonight's public event with my youngest son. Come join us if in DFW; VERY edifying, standing for God's values! Just email, and I'll phone. (11/1/14)

The cops brought MORE attention, but NO problems. Sorry to the interested guy in a black Ram truck... please email me. I couldn't get to you in time, as I avoid private property. (11/1/14)

An I Am Second guy called me 'covert,' because when no joggers were there, I put my Go evangelize Sign back in my car's rear seat. WISDOM. I want the message out, vs. him blocking that! (11/2/14)

Same I Am Second-related dude, at Chuck Swindoll's church, wanted me to join them (vs. hold my sign in front of their church). NOTHING will ever stop this ministry, but God's leading, otherwise. (11/2/14)

One church HEADED that warning. The other six STILL haven't committed to the FULL nearby evangelism call ONE YEAR later! Blood is on your hands! (11/3/14)

I ACCIDENTALLY deleted this, thinking I was deleting my retweet comment about it (6/16/18): To show you how SAD things are in the U.S., Interstate Battery's Mr. Norm Miller wouldn't even fund a billboard typing out II Chron. 7:14! Political Correctness, vs. ever reprove or accountability! I HAVE the emails. (11/4/14)

Protest signs in person, note on church door, church sign with my sign pictures on social media, Blog and YouTube—billboards and airplane streamer in the future. (11/5/14)

One man CAN'T protest ALL churches not FULLY evangelizing nearby, so use technology. Here's your challenge, @HopeFriscoEast (11/5/14)

U.S. Pastors: IF you find this note taped on your church door, consider it the 95 Thesis of American Churchianity. (11/5/14)

@PsRobertMorris HOW do you promote your church, but you WON'T 100 percent promote Jesus near your campuses, as I asked you, last weekend? (11/5/14)

WHERE is anyone calling U.S. pastors to "repent" of their REJECTING God's call to evangelize ALL nearby lost people, ASAP? Silently "polite!" ANATHEMA! (11/8/14)

You seven Dallas mega church pastors have so MANY NON-used evangelism workers! THAT's why I protest you, publicly. LEAD! Get them to do that work, SOON! (11/9/14)

The MOST fun was T.D.'s cops. The LEAST were Tony Evans' cops. DONT TRY to LIE to me, as I can sue ~for free, and my government tis of WE the people! #OakCliffPolice (11/9/14)

I held our U.S. Pastor sign on BOTH entries to that church. The cop SHOULD'VE said we can't let you obstruct traffic, vs. lying and violating TWO Constitutional rights! (11/9/14)

#OakCliffPolice NEED to train their police better. One LIED about private property that was public, and sent me to Minyards. I did not go, except to park my car. (11/9/14)

Then to two Fellowship Church campuses. I had already physically protested the main campus, before, so I just shot pictures, as the crowds were inside. Can come back, too. (11/9/14)

I am EXHAUSTED; Up at 4 am, to tweet. Exhortation notes left at Fellowship Church, Plano, and Chase Oaks Church on Legacy. Then on to Tony Evans' church. (11/9/14)

Time Magazine's "next Billy Graham" WON'T refuse to DO what my signs at his church today say he should, if he's like the great Billy! #Jakes My technical skills are SO primitive—no time or interest or need, so far. (11/9/14)

I LOVED the geography/locale of T.D.'s, but parking was half a mile up the hill. I got MORE exercise, and I've fasted for days. TIRED. What will any else do for the cause? (11/9/14)

Pictures below. GO evangelize "lead" US pastors! IF a layman has to tell you this, publicly, he WILL! Proved in pictures, here! (11/9/14)

Then over to #TDJakes main campus. Parking was a BEAR. After a great hike, I held our Go Evangelize! sign near four cops. GREAT guys, and great time! (11/9/14)

DID I leave three notes at First Baptist Dallas, putting Jeffress on notice that he's responsible to lead church to reach ALL nearby lost people? Yes, at [my 'friend'] Venga's wedding. (11/11/14)

Did The Met staffer literally come into Sunday School, and SHUT DOWN my best friend at the time, for too deep teaching, to attract new guests (tithers)? YES. (11/11/14)

26-28 audited hours @DallasSeminary late 1990's (6/15/18): I have FOUGHT Church corruption since 1985, at First Baptist, Deer Park, after M.Div., and having attended Dallas Seminary. You can't tell me there's no apostasy! (11/11/14)

Licensed under great John Bisagno. HOPE his is NOT a dying breed, but I fear that it IS! Paul Pressler wouldn't read website as 'didn't read much...'

Yet I was with him at the SBC convention, St Louis, saw all his files on pastors, and sent me a promo postcard for HIS book. I have his cell number in my log book. (11/11/14)

I've been banned from any Sunday School class at my beloved home church—where I am no longer an official member for speaking in class! (11/11/14)

2015

#BillyGraham is NO longer the WASP spokesman. The Church NEEDS new leadership to speak for God's morals vs. just grow their OWN business ($)! (1/7/15)

We took public signs to churches, left the following at their offices, and tweets about that message went VIRAL Sept.-Nov., 2014. (1/12/15)

Most every major political player came by here, some quite regularly. Several policies were affected. Read them in Wit and Wisdom (book), when it's released. (6/27/16)

I can GUARANTEE you God NEVER asked Creflo Dollar to raise money from people (MOST of whom are poorer than him) for a G6 jet—the Devil did. He's for Trump; money idol in common. (8/27/16)

God used THIS Twitter account to wake up the WASP church to evangelism and revival calls, then those I specifically targeted WARPED it into pro-Chump. (5/9/17)

God used myself to wake up and lead DFW pastors for EDBS priorities. A few of them used that wake up call to rally for Trump, two+ years later. They WARPED that idea. (5/11/17)

I once took GO EVANGELIZE signs to my alternative church, and a cop blocked an entire lane with his lights on to ensure safety; that brought MUCH more viewership. (5/21/17)

To show how corrupt church practice can be, one time I visited a church, let it be known where I would visit, and the introductory illustration by the pastor was about a monastery, with the lesson being they weren't open to people trying to improve their church! EDBS priorities are HATED, as it makes pastors jobs harder, from being more prioritized. (Unpublished)

Have you had a Southern Baptist Christian contact you about Heaven or Hell, anytime lately? I'm not sure I ever have. That's NOT thorough! <http://bit.ly/2CXxfR> @NAMB (5/22/17)

Nov 1, 2014 was the weekend Go Evangelize signs went to those rejecting pastor's churches. See our media section here, for all the pictures. (5/23/17)

On 10/24/13 I emailed a letter to seven prominent DFW pastors to take a public stand for evangelism at a Ranger's Stadium Christian musical event. NONE showed. So I increased the pressure. (5/23/17)

On 7/5/14 I emailed over 40 major denomination heads or headquarters, asking them to adopt a thorough evangelism plan for their churches. NO positive reply. (5/23/17)

@justinbieber Greatest tool for you, short of the Bible itself, because it's based on it: willyouliveforever.org (7/27/17)

SIX YEARS AGO, @NAMB. How many lost people, now in Hell, do you have blood on your hands for ignoring, as you dragged your feet? #WorldTurtleDay (5/23/17): I finish editing my the first seven words, to get a list of all of them. NO replies! (5/23/17): PLEASE degree-require 15 real-life hours of evangelism of ALL students, if you're training LEADERS (vs. just sermonizers). Thanks. @TalbotNews (8/27/17)

If you want a witness, our Linked-IN (or Facebook?) lists a connection to Mr. Joe Garza. He was the layman who introduced me to Dave Strawn, who taught apologetics for me when teaching the CBS evangelism course, and my twins were born, as a fill-in. RIP! He and I disagreed MUCH concerning Welfare. He was staunchly far right, politically. (12/13/17)

There will be several people in Heaven because God used me to tell the Gospel to hundreds of thousands of people, over the years. I've never asked for one dime from any of them, asked them to join anything—even my denomination—and I've received not one dime from any of them. That's called FREE, and relates to grace! John 3:16 (2/28/18)

WE sent over 20 allegations of wrongdoing about Second Baptist Houston, and Lakewood Church, to Hank Hanegraaff, in the 1980's, but he did nothing on Second Baptist, where he got invited to speak. (5/13/18)

P.S.: I sent OVER 4,000 emails to every major mega church in America that had an email you could find by Google, about 4-5 years ago, to exhort them to evangelize every lost person near their church ASAP. It's HERE (page 76 forward); two responses—one positive (not doing it, but inviting me to an evangelism seminar I could pay to attend), one negative: <https://bit.ly/2KiXmFO> (6/15/18)

THIS man is VERY accurate; I have had interactions w/him, and he even pointed out a typo on my website (I will fix by November, 2018)—THANKS! LISTEN to accurate and godly people; NO less! I had written five percent ever evangelize, when I meant to say only five percent ever win one soul to Jesus in their lifetime. (6/15/18) Note: He deleted all of his tweets from June 2018, backwards.

(9/22/14) FOUR YEARS AGO! How many are in Hell, now? (6/17/18)

NINE YEARS, NOW, from when they LIED to men in a personal letter, @NAMB_SBC May your #s tank, accordingly! #SouthernBaptist (6/17/18)

When called to write for God, that career path doesn't sit well with your family (i.e., little money). The Bible said commitment to Christ would be costly, and cause division. (6/17/18)

WHY would I have asked permission when pastors HATE hearing this truth? That would have been absolutely STUPID—check motives for his concern! (6/17/18)

Testimony

I once worked at a Christian radio station (owned by Salem Communications), whose head manager taught sales persons to lie about the size of our audience by deflecting questions about it through joking that we didn't have some little small antenna (using a bent index finger to illustrate), and we were told to tell potential clients that we did not know the exact number (though I was told by a peer that we did subscribe to a ratings service). We were to show them the 'fancy' circular table in the conference room (to give the appearance of luxury or success), and we were told to brag about the extreme loyalty of our listeners to sponsors. The pressures from Wall Street to hit the numbers cared about zero about how people achieved those targets—just that they did.

Then, Christianity Today REJECTED our EDBS article, because, like Philip Johnson said (and a book editor told me), biblical exposition does not sell as well as other themes. #TheApostasy and ear tickler false prophets!

Finally, a ‘Christian’ book agent had little interest in our website, stating over the phone to me (paraphrased), people aren’t interested in books about receiving revival. This is EXACTLY why our society (and politics) are heading down the tubes, and EXACTLY the need—just not the want/desire!

Pastors’ Eternal Achilles’ Heel

Let’s spell this out for your American pastors, so the Devil can’t trick/deceive them in their thinking: Take any square of land mass near your church (i.e., one mile by one mile, to start); place your building smack dab in the middle of a map and find a government records list of every residential street in that square mile.

EVERY house or domicile (i.e., apartment, condo, townhome, trailer park—what have you) has a finite number of permanent residents, omitting visitors. Let’s say 70 percent of them have heard the Gospel. DO YOU KNOW WHICH 70 PERCENT? WHY NOT?

Which local pastor is closest to them, to be able to reach them easier than you? NONE! They are your responsibility.

And even if you knew the 70 percent, that’s a made up percent. It could vary, and every human in that unknown actual percent must hear, so you can’t know anything until you reach them all, MINUS all the ones you’re sure are saved (in that mile square)!

Plus, maybe someone evangelized them in a rude or inaccurate or weak way! It takes seven hearings for the average bear to positively come through. IF YOU CARED, you’d ensure all within your ‘sphere’ heard seven times (II Cor. 10:15; I Cor. 3:9), accurately, lovingly and empowered!

WE DON’T CARE! So long as budget is met, we’re content! And here’s EXACTLY what U.S. pastors say to each other concerning the person holding them accountable JUST TO REACH THIER OWN farmer’s field—not even internationally, state- or nation-wide:

He’s mean, rude, arrogant, a hypocrite, entitled, judgmental, unsaved, entitled, has a critical spirit, attacks pastors, bibliolater, has a secret agenda, holier than thou, ETC.!

Please, dear readers who are NON-Christians: LEARN how evil, and full of sin these people are, because it affects your ETERNITY! They don’t give one da_n if you go to Hell! They SAY they do, and they FEEL your Hellish pain, but their actions PROVE their biblically un-commanded salaries and buildings are what they care about more.

In the late 1970’s (‘78-‘78), neighborhoods in west Waco, TX, mapped out every street and resident. We had records of results. College students and adults reached every house near Highland Baptist Church—I KNOW, because I was part of it.

The FRAUD of it (a SIN) was that we claimed we were taking a survey, though our results were NEVER organized with statistics or percentages. It was a RUSE, from timid, weak Christians (another two sins) to get into a conversation with people about Jesus. I complained about that deception, at the time, but my point is that we reached everyone nearby!

Now, my seminary alma mater (Southwestern, in Ft. Worth) has FULLY reached every soul living in zip code 76115—PERIOD, end of story, no more people needing to hear, for awhile (I also got the privilege of being part of that success story)!

So NO pastor who slanders me among their peers (OFTEN) has any excuse before God, and He will judge those sins in this life, and they will be accountable to lose eternal rewards in the next, for the WILLFUL sin of poo-pooing the idea of adopting-a-neighborhood.

Billy Graham (RIP) was told about this plan five years (or more) ago. His older female secretary ever so politely DECLINED to have him endorse the plan to be announced by him to every pastor, in a public statement, saying he was too frail at the time (to authorize a statement?).

I am CERTAIN he would NOW endorse it, as even his own organization felt guilty enough to host #MyHope about two years later, when my own home pastor (at the time) flew out to see him, along with O.S. Hawkins.

Apparently, if you don't have a big church, you are nothing, even though those two men flew out there because this one "lone wolf Christian" made them, acting behind the scenes six years prior, using many means described at page 76+: <https://bit.ly/2KiXmFO>

Do I REALLY have to detail the negative consequences if all pastors continue their excuses, like 'I'm not an evangelist,' or 'our church isn't an evangelism association?' I've heard all the one-liners the Devil whispers in their spiritually deaf ears!...

We don't want that taught around our church (Cypress Bible Church, Northwest Houston, early 2000's, by Joe Wall, head pastor at the time, now of DFWs East-West Ministries).

How about you're teaching Fuller Brush salesman tactics of the 1950's door-to-door salesmen... We use more modern and sophisticated/dignified 'attraction' or 'relational methods.'

How about 'that doesn't work in 77077—the richest zip code in this area of Texas (Second Baptist Church, Houston, late 1990's), even though the author of THIS website can tell you it worked very well in that self-described snooty/arrogant area (where that church raked in $1 million, week): <http://thebiblepage.org/>

Contact and ask him! His name is Chad Uretsky! Only once did an elderly lady let her screen door shut in his presence, because he didn't have the skill down as professionally as was required, meaning he may have been a bit abrupt/curt, or even too to the point—not as loving as he learned to be.

Pastors have ZERO excuse, but WILL YOU FIND ANY HUMAN TELLING OF THIS GREAT OMISSION IN THE GREAT COMMISSION? No! In fact, they'll brag that they're doing the Great Commission! They're doing it in drabs and dribbles, celebrating and patting ourselves on the back for ANY achievements, even as they're total failures to a huge majority right outside their church doors!

Here is EXACTLY why this pattern continues for decades on end (i.e., since the late 1970's): Like DUMB sheep, they do what their peers do, or what seminary or life experience taught them their job description is; or especially, they have bought into the more dignified method of the 1980's 'relationship evangelism' book from Multnomah Press, which taught them you can evangelize people after awhile of getting to know them as friends, using hobbies you share in common (among other teachings), rather than urgently speaking even to strangers (the ONLY way the amount of evangelism got completed in the book of Acts).

One church, Watters Edge, Frisco, TX (north of 121, on Coit Road), has their head pastor in a room with me; I pointed to the nearby homes, and asked if he'd go tell the Gospel to whoever lived there—pointed to a specific home with a tall chimney—and he said, 'you and I share the exact same goal, and in the sovereignty of God, when our paths cross, we'll pray that opportunity arises.'

You can see why I have ZERO interest in attending many churches close by, so I probably won't! One staff member said Pantego Bible Church is very biblical (which was true, when I knew of it), but it's 25 miles away. He also said, 'you might have an emotional problem being so concerned for the lost!' If so, I DON'T want his sin problem of less concern... let them eat cake, in Hell, forever (i.e., NO urgency)!

How about the pastor of Life Point Church, Plano, TX, who met me in his office, and preached an Easter sermon: 'We live in one of the richest neighborhoods in America—how are you going to convince a lost person they need their life changed?' How about their life changing is NOT the point, but the fact that they're headed to Hell, forever, any moment, do-do?

Then I went to the next mega church south, now called The Village Church (per Google), and they gave me a book by the 'pastor,' and said he'd be in touch when back in town; not a peer in eight years—LIARS!

How about Christ Church, across the street? I left them my email address, and taped a note on their glass front entry door to go evangelize all nearby lost people, ASAP.

How about Robert Jeffress' church, who got many notices (email, phone, drop by visits with three notes, signs taken there, etc.)?

How about Tony Evans, Gateway Church, T.D. Jakes, Chuck Swindoll, my family's church, Venga's church, three churches in North Frisco which I have pictures of; the church on Preston that used to be a car dealership; the Centennial Church north of 121 on Coit?

First Baptist Church of Frisco, TX, on the south side of Main Street?; The second largest Baptist church in Prosper, TX, whose pastor I met with?

Cottonwood Creek Baptist, where I took the Go Evangelize! signs with my two sons (and a cop stopped the left-most traffic, to keep us safe, and drew even more attention), who preached an illustration about a monastery (when he knew I was coming to visit) with the point that they don't want anyone coming to improve their church?

What about Joel Osteen in Houston; First Baptist Church, Katy, TX; Second Baptist Church, Houston (read details at our cited website); Memorial Drive Presbyterian, Houston; Cypress Bible Church; The Met (Houston-Cypress), and many others?

These are SPECIFIC churches and pastors who have refused this call. And it happened nationally, in 2014! You can go to Hell is their deeds' message to the lost.

They FEAR (an emotion the Devil gives them—II Tim. 1:7) if they tell neighbors the Gospel, they may not like hearing it, so there's less chance they'd drop by their 'attraction' secular entertainment events, and eventually give that un-commanded ten percent tithe to get the budget bigger!

Trinity Presbyterian, Plano; Preston Ridge Baptist, Frisco, TX; Lebanon Baptist, Frisco (where I left a note to the pastor); Faith Bridge Presbyterian, Frisco; Four Corner's Church, at the 121 feeder near Independence (now called One Community).

It is NOT that I am a runaway Christian from church—churches run away from this FULL evangelism message!

Let me continue: Providence Church in Frisco, TX; there's hardly any church within MUCH greater than a square mile of my home (i.e., my 'Jerusalem') that I have not gotten this message to their pastor! So when I don't attend, you'll see my protest has a basis!

Fellowship Church, Grapevine, TX, downtown Dallas, and even a third location near a movie theater; how about Chase Oaks, on Legacy, near I-75, or Fellowship Church's OLD location now a bit out east of I-75 near Hedgecoxe? As I Google search, there aren't many churches I'd consider that I haven't been to with this!

There's a church off I-75 near Parker, 1.5 blocks west, behind many businesses, which I spoke with—I can't immediately find it on Google. ALL... guilty as sin!

There are probably 22 more, over the years, I have specifically and personally contacted in my person, besides online thousands! ALL 100 percent guilty!

No one is even speaking of their Acts 1:8 responsibility... ONLY their own neck of the woods in their own Jerusalem. Find the nearest churches to yours, and circle all homes on a map that are between them and you. WHEN those residents burn in Hell, forever, their blood is on your hands, local U.S. pastor(s)!

At BEST, advertising and unbiblically required "attraction" events only reach parts of your neighbors, and TV and radio sermons even less. We KID ourselves that we take the Great Commission seriously, and the joke is on lost people's eternity—a very horrific joke, not funny at all, U.S. pastors!

But, I GUARANTEE you, this will NOT change much, if any! Resume Churchianity, preach-and-be-paid status quo, as the majority of human sheep fall off an eternal cliff! It pays the bills, and looks successful, with BIG buildings and little hearts for the lost, here in Laodicea! May God judge his people—SOON. h

I-C5. SPIRITUAL RESULTS

(Actual & Atmospheric)

We would never be so presumptuous as to attribute all these online thoughts as directly resulting from our 'Pastor Year' tweets, but most of these dropped by our main Twitter account, and were not sought out by ourselves (too busy writing). Some of them, we actually have indirect contact with through Headmaster. (II Cor. 10:14)

November 2013, Billy Graham institutes a nation-wide evangelism effort. FINALLY—ONE other person sees the need. Most pastors act like the job's done! (5/13/13)

RT @swbts: The Great Commission demands evangelism be a normal part of the Christian life, so here are some tools to help you: <http://bit.ly/2yHyAZo> (6/9/13)

I-C6. POLITICAL RESULTS

Indications of Impact

(Oct. 2014 to Mar. 2016, and beyond)

Our political results were perhaps as impactful as the spiritual which preceded! Tweeting on politics from late 2014 to early 2018, three books sprang forth: Wit and Wisdom (which generated the following national responses, and based on our book, Dumb as a Donkey, Fat as an Elephant) and The Gospel According to God, and Christians for Trump. Many of the articles in this book's 'Tweeted Messages,' 'Christian Cabal/TrumPastors,' 'Trump Voters' and 'Trump' sections (III-F2-5) came from those tweets, the best of which now make up Wit and Wisdom.

Note: Initially seeking a publisher for our many books, I was quickly asked what my 'platform' was; in other words, was I famous and how could I prove any influence on any people (or events)? At the time I considered speaking about myself and what I had achieved as arrogant, and 'proving' (or documenting) it even more self-absorbent and indulgent. But in order to move forward with that needed publication process, I compiled the following evidence, NOT of 'fame,' but of God's working through myself which a small percent of many people who are aware of our tweets. I am in no way saying that all these events were directly originated by our tweets, but many if not most were, by God's grace alone.

It's NOT how many times we addressed a subject, but who was watching when we DID! Absent un-coached, public lie detectors, denial (i.e., lying) that certain people (especially many VIP's and media outlets, some of which write editorials as a response, not as promoted tweets) were watching is easy, but we have the records of specific individuals who dropped by, MOST of which were unrelated to algorithms (because, for awhile, I took advantage of a now-corrected glitch in Twitter wherein if you followed nobody, you had a great idea of who was actually there; confirmed by Linked-In, which also informed me at a time when a 'stadium full' of people had dropped by there, a website I may use at most once a year).

Having more than one Twitter account also allowed us to track crossover traffic, as when accounts would return, with our having posted nothing on a subject they are tied to (and rarely using the # or @ symbols). If you observe the date-stamps of our tweets, sometimes it's merely proof we were way ahead of the curve on some issues. Which topics had a direct impact, without you the reader knowing who specifically was watching at the time, you'll have to decide (my family saw it happen MANY times), and consider whether it's mere coincidence, direct response, or indirect response.

We've all seen and experienced algorithm visitors. Heck, tweet to Paul Ryan, and the same 'ol crew shows up every time (Ex.: Trey Gowdy, Eric Cantor, Chris Christie, Marco Rubio, Scott Walker, Ted Cruz, John Boehner, Rand Paul, Paul Ryan, Darrell Issa, Michele Bachman, Allen West, Rick Perry, Bobby Jindal, Tim Pawlenty, et al)! I'm NOT speaking of that connection to who's dropping by. The timing of promoted accounts can be related to topics discussed, but on several occasions just the right party would show up. It's also in who might follow you at a particular time. I have three people in mind, but still want them following, so will not identify them.

There are the obviously coincidental occurrences just at the right time. And on a few of our tweets not accurately predicting Trump behavior, they could have angered or influenced him into changing his mind, to spite us, and on one occasion we used reverse psychology to create that exact effect.

The tweets dated after people's acts or words/quotes show our continued support for any and all persons who advocated for such topics, as well as any inspiration which was, on occasion, mutual. There are about twenty other examples that I have learned to personally appreciate, but not document, as we're not trying to brag, but give evidence. It is satisfying enough to know people were watching and in agreement. If I had the ego and enough time to search my Twitter archives, I could probably recall them also.

P.S.: For fun, on rare occasions, I'd watch my 'Who To Follow' section when I was NOT tweeting, to see who may have dropped by when I appeared inactive (their accounts remain only briefly). If they remain longer in the 'View All' section, there's either an algorithm working or they watched for awhile. On three occasions I actually learned when certain people are early-risers. Bottom line, for some people, unless they were here watching my dashboard and account as I do almost daily, they'll never fully understand all the surprising VIP accounts that dropped by, even when I had zero related content or contact, at various times. I can't help you with that faith obstacle!

Disclaimer

On a select few of these issues, there is a possibility of my being completely wrong. However, if you had been on THIS side of Twitter before I started following anyone, given the timing of events, you too would know many if not most claimed viewers were live (and I copied and pasted most of their account bios when they dropped by). This is further clarified by connections between influential spiritual leaders and the political establishment. The nature of our tweet's content, our books and our Twitter archive of every tweet I've ever posted (if ever fully released) gives indication we are not prone to exaggeration or untruthfulness.

1. Agreement with Bill Clinton on Comey

Referent: <http://politi.co/2hMpsdr> (12/19/16)

I LOVE the FBI, but Comey has brought her great shame! He should have said NOTHING until he had a final resolution based on the evidence—as judges do. Inept!

Why do I now come down on Comey? You can't assess 250K emails in one week! He has prejudged the evidence. He should have said NOTHING all last week. Follow the evidence.

Comey has lost ALL credibilty, and needs to resign! He flip-flops more than a D.C. career politician, and speaks out both sides of his mouth, like Trump. (9/29/16)

You don't believe the GOP's Comey ruined Hillary? EVIL political tricks. Ethics reform with HUGE fines or jail time is needed! There are NO morals in politics. (11/14/16)

Why doesn't @DNC investigate what pressure Comey got from GOP's to release the email report just when he did! Inquiring minds want to know! Law violation? (11/14/16)

In summary, HRC's failure was to set a positive agenda, Comey's ILLEGAL re-opening, then LIE closing of email case, and shameful Trumpsters NOT identifying themselves in polls! (12/9/16)

TRUE! <http://on.msnbc.com/2hVDNRO> Only camping on Chump's negatives vs. setting a vision, and Comey's (illegal) GOP October surprise DID lose it for HRC. (12/9/16)

2. Anti Establishment Errors

I don't care which politicians lose their careers if they are partisan and won't support common sense! I'm a true, principled independent at this point. (12/25/14)

Conservatives/Tea Partiers CANNOT form their own party, as there's not enough numbers or mass appeal, so Chump is voicing their displeasure with 'RINO's,' and could win the GOP nomination. (8/20/15)

[Establishment errors:] GOP siding with Democrats and gridlock, waste, taxes paying for Obamacare, outsourced jobs and a stagnant economy, emboldened ISIS and Russia with U.S. WEAKNESS. (9/13/15)

Tea Partiers say fight and obstruct at every turn. RINO's say NO. Common sense says my-way-or-the-highway DOESN'T work in our political system! (10/15/15)

Absent questionably legal executive orders (i.e., edicts), or gridlock, NOTHING hardly gets DONE in D.C., as BOTH sides are handsomely paid much more than average Joes! (1/6/16)

Gridlock solutions: Dominate, give-and-take wins and losses, mutual compromise, @Pledgers2020 and third parties. Can you think of others? (1/15/16)

.@MarkDavis spoke of establishment GOP'ers making deals vs. fighting and gridlock. WHY can't D.C. learn win-win and common sense, so ALL win? @Pledgers2020 (1/21/16)

I'm NOT go-along-to-get-along, but SHAKE UP THE ESTABLISHMENT for good policies vs. gridlock, demonizing, fighting and waste. Fix D.C.! @Pledgers2020 (1/6/16)

Half true, @POTUS <http://abcn.ws/1oU741t> RINO compromisers and your ineptness with ISIS, debt, border control and Obamacare ALL brought about Donald Trump! (3/10/16)

Trump supporters HATE politics-as-USUAL, open borders, over-outsourcing and U.S.'s respect being internationally degraded under Obama, RINO-allowed. (3/31/16)

3. Anti Greedy Rich

I TRULY believe God is NOT pleased with the crass greed that started in the Yuppie years (1980's) I witnessed first-hand. Standard-fare MBA Wall Street ideology. (7/24/15)

Any effort, private or public, to bring costs of goods and services down to serve the greater public good are GOOD efforts, despite what the greedy will argue. (8/24/15)

About the Giving Pledge: Doesn't your heart START to feel you have enough after ~$12 million, when you can live nicely off conservative interest vs. greedily? (8/28/15)

Yesterday, a talk radio host gleefully repeated the movie phrase, "greed is good." NO person with morals or religion would EVER say that; it's a 100 percent lie. (8/29/15)

...because conservative economic theory ultimately is dog-eat-dog survival-of-the-fittest mad dash for money and praising greed. That's why minorities and others USUALLY reject it. (9/1/15)

Conservatives argue FOR insatiable desires and never having enough as "moral," because it's legal, and 'the American way.' Greed IS good, for them, in a warped moral way. (9/1/15)

Conservatives are for greed with government having NO power to stop it. If it were up to them, its functions would mainly only be cops and the military to protect person and possessions (i.e., white man rule). (9/22/15)

Why wouldn't true conservatives argue greed is good if it's legal? Some people's morals are ONLY dictated by laws, or what they can get away with/'what the market will bear.' (9/22/15)

Rush Limbaugh is RIGHT that the Bible is pro charity (vs. taxes to help the poor), but in our selfish, greedy, stingy generation it would NOT be enough or stable enough to stop severe suffering! (9/23/15)

Glad that three conservative talk show radio hosts are united by getting the same talking points about the Pope on "income inequality" (SARCASM) vs. addressing greed. (9/24/15)

One admitted Capitalism has excess, but his solution was to offer NO solutions. Months back one said there are many greedy in my party, but I'm not. That's IGNORING the problem! (9/24/15)

He also said the poor can be greedy. They'll say anything but "we support greed and selfishness," and will justify it any way they can, as that's a core value of theirs! (9/24/15)

We ALWAYS welcome the TRUTH here, and always enjoy when greedy people get their comeuppance, as here: <http://cbsn.ws/IJksfWE> #PatentPimp (9/24/15)

Everyone wants 'mo money, and would like lower taxes; that's NOT unique to conservatives. What gives them a reputation for being greedy is the following: Ending the estate tax/keep it all (society gains zero), flat tax (where strugglers are taxed at a bigger pain threshold more than ones on easy street), ending minimum wage (so business can pay peanuts). (10/5/15)

Distinction between the religious and political (Ac. 18:15); POSITIVES of Democrats: Giving pledge vs. practicing greed (Lk. 12:33-34, 19:5-9; I Tim. 6:17-19). (10/6/15)

4. Anti Over-Outsourcing & Immigration (Cf.: Trump)

I made an impassioned plea early in 2015 when MANY famous faces dropped by that the elites getting richer through over-layoffs/outsourcing was WRONG! (10/16/15)

We USED to NOT have outsourcing, layoffs, mergers and acquisitions, automation, dual part-time jobs! The ONLY two BENEFITTED are executives and shareholders. VOTE ACCORDINGLY. Wake UP, America! (10/30/15)

Conservatives tout jobs vs. Welfare. With business outsourcing and laying off, their theory's effects over YEARS to implement doesn't pay any poor's bills in the mean time! There are NOT ENOUGH JOBS. (1/1/16)

HOW can the average Joe care about the GOP when they supported full-out outsourcing of THEIR blue collar factory/manufacturing jobs to China? TELL them, GOP! (1/3/16)

You, the voting American public, can do three or four things. 1. Demand politicians lower business taxes and curb outsourcing and immigration until Americans are taken care of first. (2/24/16)

So, as outsourcing loses good U.S. jobs and importing (of LABOR; AKA immigration) increases, there's more pressure on U.S. jobs at lower wages. Businesses and the rich alone are the primary beneficiaries through profits, and workers are scr_wed (especially with more robotics as labor competition). Workers have to become entrepreneurs (if they have such skills and temperaments, in which case less than 50 percent succeed, and people are USUALLY paid little—to-nothing the first two years)—or try the Karate Kid solution of moving overseas (to China, India, etc.) where you are the low man on the cultural and economic totem pole, and often can't speak the language. (3/1/16)

The U.S. MUST secure our borders, FIX over-outsourcing and immigration that hurts U.S. workers' wages and job prospects, destroy ISIS and reduce our debt, etc. (3/11/16)

5. Anti Over-Paid Executives (Pro Giving Pledge)

Harry Potter author (J.K. Rowling's) charity gifts bump her from Forbes' billionaire list, making her one of the few true successes on that list (Lk. 12:33-34; Josh. 1:8). (3/16/12)

J.K. Rowling dropped off Forbes billionaire list from her charity contributions, making her richer than many still on it! I Tim. 6:17-19/Lk. 19:8 (1/15/15)

Rockefeller/Carnegie and Vanderbilt were GREAT philanthropists! Today's rich are often greedy hoarders—NOT Gates or Buffett. Sign the #GivingPledge! (1/23/15)

Has @BillClinton signed the Giving Pledge? Anyone with more than $12 million SHOULD. It's not how low you started but how high you rise, morally. #DNC #GOP (5/4/15)

Anyone who hasn't made the Giving Pledge legally binding on themselves, owning more than a $12 million nest egg is a TRAITOR to mankind, their country and all that's moral. I Tim. 6:17-19 (7/24/15)

The slave master rich get richer as they sell their countrymen down the river, and it HAS to stop. Tax to the max, if you must, the rich who DON'T sign the Giving Pledge! (7/24/15)

Though ALL people should do SOME give back (money or sweat equity), ALL with more than $12 million should bind themselves to the Giving Pledge. Taxpayers are already doing SOME give back. (8/8/15)

Have you signed the Giving Pledge yet? EXPLAIN what you would do if Bible prophecy hit in your pipe-dreamed presidency! CRICKETS. @RealDonaldTrump (8/15/15)

The MAJORITY in America DON'T support the rich NOT signing the Giving Pledge, like you, Mr. Donald Trump! Have you done so YET? I DIDN'T think so! #DumpTrump (8/20/15)

Let the rich get richer with NO Giving Pledge, and KEEP income disparity HUGE, end minimum wage and the estate tax? Tea Partiers are NOT morally perfect! #TeaParty (12/15/15)

I'm a HUGE supporter of EVERY Giving Pledge signer, especially those who distribute it before they die! #Gates #Buffett (1/5/16)

Idiot! UN-true! (“Gays are less than animals”). If you’re such a (ATTEMPTED) moral crusader, SIGN THE GIVING PLEDGE! @MannyPacquiao <http://bit.ly/23spcin> (2/16/16)

Many rich WON’T sign the Giving Pledge, WILL lobby politicians to NOT raise their taxes, WILL move away for a better deal, and automate as many jobs as possible. (2/24/16)

6. Anti Over-Political Correctness (Cf.: Trump)

Do you love TRUTH or positivity more? Positive mental attitude and political correctness are the spirit of delusion, in my view. II Th. 2:11; II Tim. 4:3 (2/18/14)

America’s demise will be selfishness, and ONLY hearing what it wants to hear (PMA and PC)—not what it NEEDS to hear (the Bible). Judg. 21:25; I Th. 5:4 (7/7/14)

READ the prophets. They WEREN’T always positive or encouraging, but their messages were ALWAYS needed. P.C. and PMA WILL usher in the spirit of delusion. Confused? Read more Bible. (7/7/14)

I believe PMA and P.C. are the spirit of delusion precursors, as TRUTH is despised if it violates these two cultural mandates! II Th. 2:11 Prophecy ignorance is bliss! (3/17/15)

Telling it like it is! Son of the GREATEST American. <http://bit.ly/1Rlazmi> @FranklinGraham #KeepingAmericaSafe is greater than multi-culturalism P.C. agendas! (12/15/15)

NO to Muslim ban; YES to radical Muslim ban. IF you can’t tell the difference, keep them out until you can. #CommonSense #KeepAmericaSafe USA #1 #Muslims (12/15/15)

White-ish history month? BALANCE it with white history month? Will NEVER happen in P.C. America. FAVOR NO RACE! #CommonSense <http://on.msnbc.com/1RlaDIZ> (1/21/16)

Opposing P.C. history re-writes by liberals, though QUICKLY recanted any willingness to vote for Chump. I’m TIRED of confederate flag and the Southern deceased being DIS-honored! (1/27/16)

Learn, know from experience, gain understanding. Pv. 3:13, 21, 8:10, 14, 10:14, 21, 22:17 PMA and P.C. WILL become II Th. 2:11 in soon-coming prophecy. (1/29/16)

HOW might a REAL Old Testament prophet be received in some circles today? As an unhappy, negative bully? Righteous indignation is SO misunderstood in P.C. America! (3/1/16)

PMA and PC—THE spirit of delusion of Thessalonians (literally) by which even the church rejects truth for unity, positivity and apostasy. (3/2/16)

I’M SORRY—it’s that nagging bully spirit of my flesh again (sarcasm). I’ll try to be more P.C. nice next time; it’s just the truth flows when you read it so much! (3/2/16)

If you value positivity over truthfulness, that idol is part of the prophetic spirit of delusion (PMA and PC). Love truth, even when it’s negative, pastors. (3/12/16)

I understand encouraging people, but not if UN-true. Even NBC had a list of top three “white lies.” A P.C. culture based on lies is a house of cards. (3/18/16)

IF you don’t speak up or you accept status quo, that’s what you get and deserve, and you are the problem! NOT rudely, but stop P.C. quietness. Bring change! (2/11/15)

7. Anti “Status Quo” (Cf.: Fiorina; vs. Business person productivity)

Do evangelism, you’re an extremist; change the politics we ‘all’ hate, you’re an activist; do nothing and accept status quo, you’re ‘normal’ (and people and society go to Hell)! (4/28/13)

Take on status quo and you WILL get backlash! God is greater both in importance and power, no matter their numbers. Don't gore my ox! Jn. 2:15 (11/10/13)

DO NOT ACCEPT STATUS QUO where status quo is bad or evil! Evil prevails when good people do NOTHING. Change the system. @Pledgers2020. (11/7/14)

If YOU accept status quo U.S. politics and UNproductivity, you DESERVE status quo results. Power belongs to YOU, the voter vs. politicians. #WeThePeople (12/8/14)

Reform Obamacare, FIX the economy, lower the debt, CLOSE our borders, NO amnesty, crush ISIS, beat China SHOULD the @GOP 2015 marching orders! NOT status quo. (12/10/14)

This IS a shot across the bow, as the majority in the U.S. are tired of politics-as-usual. You stay rich and in power with status quo, but WE will fix that in 2020! (12/13/14)

FIX the system in 2020, to NOT allow status quo to remain unchanged, U.S. voter. You deserve BETTER! You pay for it. Elect unbiased people in 2020! (12/13/14)

Black, white, poor, rich, Christian, non-Christians: We can ALL unite to common sense principles, detailed in our political books in 2020, and fight status quo! (12/19/14)

READ our book for an EASY and EFFECTIVE way to CURE D.C., and its climate of problems in 20/20. 2016 will be transitional. REJECT status quo D.C.! (12/19/14)

If the American people are given BETTER political choices, they WILL choose them (save those with Battered Voter Syndrome). If not, status quo reigns. (12/23/14)

The ONLY ones who LOVE status quo are those most benefitted by it. Is your life great? Is the economy humming for you? Do you LOVE politicians' RESULTS? NOT most of us! (12/19/14)

DEMAND Better! You get what you tolerate, so you get what you deserve when you tolerate status quo in D.C. #RiseUpAmericanVoters! #WakeUpUSA (12/23/14)

If any of you can refute the ideas by offering BETTER ones, let's do them, but God knows we can't keep going down the path of status quo Washington. (1/28/15)

It WILL come in 2020, by God's grace, IF We the people unite against status quo, and vote only for "Pledged Politicians." Please remember that phrase. (1/28/15)

YOU FOUND US! If you like status quo Washington D.C., you won't much enjoy it here. If you can see the good in both parties, and REJECT the BAD, you'll LOVE it here. [our pinned tweet for years]

Status quo, status NO!: @Pledgers2020 et al. (10/18/15)

Policies are three times more important than who TRIES to implement them, or especially just mouths the words and maintains status quo! #DNC #GOP (1/30/15)

I have NO patience for excuses or bull. Delay, non-priorities, waste, gridlock, grandstanding, catering biasedly to special interests, status quo. (2/12/15)

It CAN'T get much worse. YOU decide if bad status quo continues. I ONLY address the people. Politicians are secondary bystanders to me. YOU (voters) alone are my focus. (2/12/15)

Six years writing 12 books to shake up status quo. Tweets are a trickle of the overflow. I'll pit my positions against any existing politician for YOU to choose which has better ideas! (2/12/15)

If you're not careful, weekly shootings can become ho hum yesterday's news. Desensitizing comes when we the people TOLERATE status quo! FIX the system. (7/24/15)

Status quo is UN-acceptable. A dynamic President is NOT enough. A GOP victory is NOT enough. We NEED ‘Pledger’ power brokers. A LANDSLIDE VICTORY would help! (7/27/15)

I’ve said before, an ego trip is NO reason to run for office, nor just keeping the system as is. We NEED 33+ Congress persons to change status quo for GOOD policies! (7/27/15)

Is there anyone else who is SICK of status quo and, like Elizabeth Warren, is mad enough to NOT take it anymore? You have what you tolerate, passive sheep! (8/5/15)

You have what you tolerate. LET those words sink DEEPLY in your soul. It means status quo is YOUR fault if you do NOTHING to change it! (8/5/15)

I’d go independent against Chump if I knew how to do it and had contacts and money. I’ve got to wait until the Lord raises His army to defeat status quo D.C. @Pledgers2020 (1/1/16)

DON’T hurt our business model (like the doctor business model I presented earlier). Those who have it good LIKE status quo; DON’T rock the boat—conserve it. (1/5/16)

MANY derogatorily label laymen who DO something to change something “activists.” ACCEPTING status quo is you being an IN-activist, or pacifist! (1/13/16)

I’m speaking to the wind so I’m going to shut up now, as there’s usually nothing new under the sun! Resume status quo politics until @Pledgers2020! (1/24/16)

Looking through stained glass window glasses, where life is so rosy—for us. The world outside, often, not as much. Support your party to maintain status quo? (3/2/16)

STILL true: You’d be a FOOL not to watch our predictions here, but they (i.e., political suckers) are born every day. Hence, status quo D.C. continues! DUMB. (3/2/16)

Cruz and Rubio MUST exceed Romney saying he understands the voters’ anger. You MUST propose wholesale disruption to status quo if elected! (3/3/16)

8. Anti Trump

Twitter Search: #DumpChump #DumpTrump

Trump is a guaranteed GOP loss. Fiorina, Rubio, Carson EVEN if they top any polls will NOT beat Hillary. Why am I nearly the only one who sees this? (10/8/15)

I WON’T read the MSNBC article, but the headline cracks me up were it NOT so sad: Chump (Arrogant One) says he’s “handsome.” #DumpTrump; #RomneyRubio2016! (10/10/15)

Hilarious sales job. I’ve never asked God to forgive anything” yet I have a sincere faith? Who’s he kidding? <http://fxn.ws/1WkgDEt> #DumpTrump (10/11/15)

GREAT news (from my perspective)—<http://cbsn.ws/20qocte> Search: #RomneyRubio2016 I think I’m the most prolific Twitter supporter (and one of the first for #DumpTrump, also). (10/12/15)

NASA wants to put people on Mars by 2030. May I volunteer Donald Trump to be their first Guinea pig? #DumpTrump #NASA #RomneyRubio2016! (10/13/15)

If Trump is the GOP nominee, I won’t vote and may help people get out to vote against him. #DumpTrump #RomneyRubio2016! #DemDebate Hillary looks loose and young tonight. (10/13/15)

I signed a petition to dump Chump from SNL (now barraged with liberal emails). #DumpTrump #RomneyRubio2016 <http://cbsn.ws/2e2qD8H> U.S.A.#1! #GOP (12/5/15)

I advised the GOP MANY times when it's heads were watching here. They DID some of it, but HURT themselves not opposing Chump earlier! #DumpTrump (12/9/15)

#RubioRising <http://bit.ly/23kUiMf> <http://bit.ly/1VHYM9C> Is consensus FINALLY achieved, GOP!?
#RubioRomney2016 #GOP #RNC #DumpTrump (2/6/16)

Twitter search "Chump won't prez!" Chump (I'm amazed how civil it was last night). He NEVER sees he started it all all year long! #NeverTrump the Chump! (3/11/16)

Argument

If policy is the only thing, you'd vote for Hitler if he mouthed the right words, because he was smart enough to hide his evil. If only policy matters, hire a robot, hologram or trained monkey. Trumps policies are others' ideas pumped into his head the past three months! No one believes he's held good views sincerely for very long! He's just a political opportunist, whose been a Democrat all his life. Trumps main credentials for winning the GOP nomination was how he conducted his primary campaign. Relatedly, we don't teach our children win at all costs, sin to win, or the end justifies the means; you have what you tolerate, and don't reward bad behavior; role model for kids should be respectable; with him, the GOP mantra of being the party of thinking more than feelings, and of values voters and the religious right is out the window, and Christians somewhat earn the stereotype of being dumb or hypocrites; 7/8ths of his entire campaign he had little to no policy—just that's a problem, we'll look into it; it'll be great, believe me.

HILLARY NEGATIVES:

Pay for access, untrustworthy (lies) and unlikeable, deleted Benghazi emails, Arab Winter, QE3 stagnant economy and Obamacare.

TRUMP NEGATIVES:

Ben Carson was scuttled over three verbal missteps (armed drones on the border, Joseph built the pyramids and Islam started with Ishmael and Isaac), Rick Perry over one 'oops' moment (not remembering all five federal agencies he wanted to cut), Hermann Cain from one consensual affair, and Newt Gingrich for serial divorce (three), yet Teflon Don the Con is allowed ALL these hoof-in-mouth instances?:

PEERS. Romney and McCain are losers, look at Fiorina's and Rand's face, he's dumb as a box of rocks, he couldn't be elected dog catcher, I'm going to spill the beans on Cruz's wife, Ted's dad killed JFK, birther on Obama, Rubio and Cruz. LOYALTY. I may go third party if I don't get my way, the GOP's not fair to me (when I've been UN-fair to almost all my peers the entire GOP primary), I may rip up the GOP loyalty pledge, has been a Democrat all his adult life. POLICY. 7/8ths of his campaign his knowledge was 'that's a problem—we'll look into it, it's going to be great—believe me,' default on debt, sell federal lands to foreigners, Russia didn't invade Ukraine, Putin was my green room buddy, put 45 percent tariffs on China, build a 50 foot wall that Mexico will pay for. BUSINESS & CHARITY. Paid off a golf shot winner debt from charity funds, sue-happy (NBC, Ms. America, Telemundo, and threatens to against sex abuse accusers), six foot portrait of himself paid for with charity donations, a million dollar loan from daddy, unpaid illegal alien laborers, outsourced many of his products. RELIGION. Pro-choice all his life, said punish the aborting mother, his own pastor hardly knows him, never asked God's forgiveness for anything, favorite verse is eye for an eye (though Jesus refuted its application for believers), "Two" Corinthians (in his favorite book), he's a baby Christian one year after he was already a Christian (said when polls were down and pastors advised him how to win the church vote). PERVERT. Serial adulterer and divorcer (even though that scuttled Cain and Gingrich), public use of the P, Sh and F words, celebrities can grab a woman's crotch, brags about his genitals size, I'd like to nail Princess Di, I can't say I respect women, I'd date my daughter if it was legal. VIOLENCE. I could shoot someone on a New York City street, I'd like to punch that guy in the face, I'll pay the legal bills if you do, there may be riots in Cleveland if I don't get my way. ARROGANCE. I'm so handsome, the great thing about me is I'm rich, I have the best words and a great mind, I have only one adviser—me. LIES. Hides his taxes and lies about Wharton class rank. WHINER. Everything is rigged (elections, the media, GOP primaries) or unfair. MILITARY. POW's (and John McCain) are losers, the media forced him to pay up on charity funds he raised skipping his GOP debate obligation, dodged military service for an ankle pain (bone spurs) though he can't now recall which foot they were on, George Bush didn't keep us safe, I know more about ISIS than the generals. WOMEN. Women referred to as pigs and dogs, blood was coming out of Megyn's 'wherever.' MUSLIMS. Ban all Muslims, Mr. Khan sacrificed nothing, I saw Muslims dancing on 9-11. HISPANICS. Most illegals are criminals and rapists (some, I suppose, are good), lied that he never spoke with President Pena about paying for the wall, a Mexican judge can't be fair to me.

Supreme Court picks, Democrat platform, and administrative personnel as reasons to vote for Chump? THE GOP SHOULD HAVE THOUGHT ABOUT THAT WHEN PICKING THE GOP NOMINEE! #NotMyProblem! (10/24/16)

More than one Trumpster has told me they're religious, but care nothing about Chump's bad character (like Ben Carson's 'Sometimes you put your Christian values on pause to get the work done'). Have nothing to do with that type of 'religion!' That exactly plays into the you'd vote for Hitler scenario, because Adolph HID his evils! You CAN'T argue with that, or these: You get what you tolerate, so a vote for Chump would only bring more imitators, with crazy, rude antics to get elected! Also, winning at all costs is NOT a responsible lesson any parent ever taught their kids, nor the end justifies the means. Those four solid reasons alone keep people who USE their consciences #NeverTrump! (10/25/16)

Let's address the SUPPOSED Christian arguments: You're bitter and unforgiving. Not at all. I evaluate the character pattern displayed for 1.4 years, and find Trump is so lacking, compared to any standard nominees the GOP has ever had in my lifetime! That brings me to the second so-called Christian argument: You're holier-than-thou perfectionistic? WRONG AGAIN. I simply require the common decency that EVERY other GOP of the 17 total candidates easily exhibited, with no struggle to do so! (10/25/16)

It seems absurd to some I may agree with Chump on 80+ percent of his positions, but would NEVER reward his horrendous morals with my vote. I reward bad behavior is also a Parenting 101 lesson some hypocrites seem to believe their children will let go unnoticed in 2016. (10/25/16)

You want HRC to win. No, I don't, and will take a lie detector to prove it. You want her more than Trump. ONLY because of his behavior; any other GOP's I would have voted 4! (10/25/16)

HRC as president can unite the GOP, especially if she has as liberal or Obama 3-type policies! And if she's good, all that angered conservatives with her is still in play to fight in 2020! In fact, #NeverTrump is the only bulwark to her administration going completely ballistic liberal, to spite conservatives who have onslaughtered her with attacks for several decades! (10/25/16)

7/8ths of his campaign he knew little-to-nothing on policy: It'll be great, that's a problem—we'll look into it; fantastic, yuge. That's being prepared? (10/25/16)

Chump FREELY chose his campaign strategy, especially the primary. No one forced him to do it that way, and the negative results can NEVER be pinned on #NeverTrump. (10/25/16)

There were #NeverRomney GOP's, but social media wasn't as prevalent then, so they didn't take as much flack (or hatred) as #NeverTrump GOP's do now. They simply, quietly DIDN'T VOTE! Same effect for results, or lack thereof.

You can raise HRC's MANY faults, and I'll likely agree with them all, but for the GOP's reputation we CAN'T be scraping the bottom of the barrel, lie 'we're as bad as them, so vote for us.' (10/25/16)

9. Anti Wall Street Elites Having All the Fun (Cf.: Sanders)

NON-patriots! I said it and I'M a Capitalist, but this is UNPRINCIPLED Capitalism, as Brad Pitt referenced; STOP elitists, Occupy Wall Streeters! (7/24/15)

RIGHTLY says people should NOT be paid the same, as skills differ, but I say employees NEED to see they have power in numbers vs. just greedy elites and executives. (8/3/15)

Run-amok Capitalism is a selfish and boundless thirst for power and material prosperity. For global elites this system is a garden of plenty (Pope and MSNBC). (9/25/15)

Winner in the poll bump? Bernie! Corrupt campaign finance system. Wall Street controls Congress. The top one percent getting a majority of money vs. the middle class. #Democrats (10/13/15)

If you don't exploit the report of $150 million to the Clintons from big business and Wall Street, you're NOT serious about WINNING! @BernieSanders (2/6/16)

KEEP hammering $150 million from dead broke due to Big Business/Wall Street donations, @BernieSanders <http://fxn.ws/1UQMqNE> (2/7/16)

10. Athletes Deny Locker Room Talk

Referent: <http://cbsn.ws/2dIfcCI>

[Local DFW TV station says Dallas Maverick's coach denies such locker room talk, also; 10/10/11]

I've been in locker rooms many times, and I've NEVER heard a fake "Christian" say that because he's a celebrity he can grab any female in her the crotch! #NeverTrump (10/10/16)

11. Ben Carson's Revive Slogan

NEVER over-help anyone, or help them for too long. NEVER suck up to daddy war bucks for idolatry of his wealth. #Morality (SO ABSENT in U.S.A.) #ReviveUS (1/20/15)

We PRAY for "revival." I've said it before—it will NOT come if the church WON'T do EDBS, and most WON'T, so those prayers are hollow and hypocritical lip service. (2/8/15)

Churchianity, EDBS, 100 percent evangelism, church as a business, revival, prophecy and tithing. I'd NEVER abandon those subjects to gain anyone's support! (2/8/15)

II Chron. 7:14 Lord, bring us revival lest we die under the weight of Your deserved judgment (and/or Tribulation)! Heal our land! USA #1! (2/13/15)

Spare us a little longer Lord, lest any Christian open her mouth, and speak, and any lost soul receive Jesus before it's too late! Prayer for the ages. #Revival (2/18/15)

Favoring the rich, though God says favor neither poor nor rich. (Levit. 19:15) You want His blessings—do things HIS ways, America! Revival NEEDED. (2/19/15)

And I'm sure he will continue so to do. You cannot stick up for God if your doctrine is wrong. READ more, opine LESS! Wise UP, America! Revival NEEDED. (2/22/15)

RAISE YOUR VOICE so USSC I think national gay marriage is a slam dunk in May+ @JohnCMaxwell @craiggroeschel @JoyceMeyer Revive US O Lord! (2/23/15)

Encouraged vehemently to evangelize, seek revival, teach on prophecy, relationally disciple (vs. just sermonize), and use laymen's spiritual gifts and help the poor. (2/24/15)

EARLY voice calling for revival efforts among Gods people!: Americans want a human President to change their economy, but don't want spiritual-moral revival. The church's role is found in II Chron. 7:14 (10/9/15)

Sought church revival:

If anyone wants American cultural decline changed, or prays for 'revival,' CONSIDER there to be the NEED for a moral house-cleaning! (Mt. 21:12; Jn. 2:15) (10/18/15)

And we wonder why revival tarries. Dumb we are. DON'T ATTEND OR PAY ONE DIME TO ANY CHURCH WHOSE PASTOR WON'T SO COMMIT! I mean this 100 percent literally, folks. (9/10/16)

12. Bush Kept Us Safe (Cf.: JebBush)

Referent: <http://bit.ly/23Hw8bC> (10/19/15)

Obama created ISIS with the vacuum HE left in the Middle East—NOT our brave men and women. That's your legacy, sir, when history's written! (8/1/15)

In summary, @POTUS brought about ISIS by a premature departure, I trusting the under-trained Iraqi's to handle it, and wanting hands off AS IF that's 'peace, peace.' (8/1/15)

13. Can't Blame #NeverTrump for Worst Nominee

I'm CERTAIN #NeverTrump will be blamed for President Hillary! WE DID NOT FORCE TRUMP TO TURN US OFF SO BADLY WE I BACK HIM IN GOOD CONSCIENCE! (7/10/16)

Some are SO angry many GOP won't fall in line to what I JUST DESCRIBED! They try to blame it on anything but the content I just described? DELUSIONAL! #NeverTrump (8/27/16)

Trumpsters are NOT to blame for not having anyone as entertaining as Donald run with forceful talk about illegal immigration and GOP RINO IN-action with Obama! Bad options! (7/26/16)

Don't EVER try to blame #NeverTrump for Hillary's victory! TRUMP ALONE caused #NeverTrump by his "smart" strategy of honestly being his true self. (8/22/16)

Trump's hoof-in-mouth policy knowledge was SO bad for 14 months, he DRANK Dr. Scholl's powder as his mouth wash! #NeverTrump WORST fake GOP ever! (8/27/16)

No one who is NOT 100 percent biased for a party win above everything else in life can honestly say Trump's a good nominee! Possibly the WORST in the GOP's history! (8/21/16)

#ElectionDayIn5Words Vote ALL GOP's but Trump! #NeverTrump WORST GOP in our time. I can TOLERATE Hillary for four years until we beat her next time! (8/3/16)

He [Chump] doesn't seem to have any plans or policies or proposals or specific solutions. AMEN @POTUS / Worst GOP nominee in 40+ years! #NeverTrump (8/3/16)

Trump didn't NEED an attack dog. He's a rabid canine on his own! #NeverTrump WORST GOP nominee in 40+ years! NOTHING like Reagan! Three NON-votes here. (7/14/16)

WORST GOP nominee in 40+ years, and Republicans with a conscience are supposed to "fall in line?" We won't fall off a cliff or fall for that line! #NeverTrump His primary was HIS problem! (9/18/16)

The morally WORST GOP nominee in forty years, and a handful of PASTORS are for him from power lust. Preach Jesus, vote Satan. Got it. Apostasy—who cares? (9/15/16)

Any other GOP could have easily beat Hillary this year (a couple, perhaps, with some trouble). The GOP nominee's the WORST in 40+ years! Bad year for politics! (10/13/16)

Credit where credit's due: Trump DID change from sorry if any were offended to 'it was wrong.' You've got to give the Devil his due! #NeverTrump WORST Presidential nominee. (10/8/16)

14. Carrier 'Crisis'

Referent: Trump threatens tax for companies that move jobs out of U.S. In a series of Tweets, the president-elect indicated that companies should think twice before outsourcing operations to other countries, or face a 35-percent tariff that is yet to be legislated. (Twitter Moments, 12/4/16)

When Trump says outsource jobs and there will be consequences, based on Carrier that's NOT a threat but a positive business proposition! Watch politicians' words closely. (12/4/16)

Chump has NO legal authority to do much Congress hasn't authorized to deal with over-outsourcing! The bully pulpit's EMPTY when you DON'T know that! (12/4/16)

Here's my Bible verse (properly applied against Trump's Mt. 5:38 reproof), for Trump about evangelicals who OPPOSE him when he calls them evil: Isa. 5:20 (9/11/16)

Dr. Moore's a HERO! Here's how LOST or re-saved (an oxy moron) moron Chump views Christian heroes: <http://bit.ly/2dWM5Mq> Anyone who opposes him is a loser, or bad. (9/11/16)

Southern Baptist Ethics executive Dr. Moore told the TRUTH about Christians NOT supporting Chump for moral reasons. Now pastors are uniting for immorality!? Yes! (9/11/16)

They DID act YEARS too late, then banded together to unite pastors in evangelism events and for political influence; now for Trump? (9/11/16)

Here's the hero's first article: <http://nyti.ms/2e7R8Fz> Neither candidate is a good Christian choice! Duh 101. Quit settling for the lesser of two evils! (9/11/16)

Christians support an arrogant egomaniac who publicly cusses, insults, womanizes, lies, flip flops and idolizes? NOT committed ones. ~90 percent are NOT such, sadly. (9/11/16)

Christians support a man who said could get away with shooting someone in New York City, threatened Cleveland violence, and wanted to punch a protester, and would pay others' legal bills? (9/11/16)

Christians supporting Trump are saying Jesus is good with violence, public cussing, arrogance, insults, womanizing, adultery and other sins? #NotTheBiblesJesus! (9/11/16)

But Jim, what about the Supreme Court picks? Confirm Garland NOW, and fight BAD nominees by President Hillary, as I the GOP's job when Trump LOSES! Next? (9/11/16)

Christians for Trump: Roe's NOT going to be revoked anytime soon, nor gay marriage. Enough with your WEAK Supreme Court reasons to vote for Chump! Get over yourself! (9/11/16)

#JesusIsNotFor lying, buying access and covering up sins. He's also NOT for insulting illegals, Jeb's IQ, Fiorina's face, using public cuss words... (9/11/16)

#JesusIsNotFor mocking the disabled, discriminating against all Muslims, serial adultery and divorce, favorite Bible verse Ex. 21:24, arrogance about your brain or looks... (9/11/16)

#JesusIsNotFor lying about having an architecture degree, speech plagiarism, saying you'd date your daughter if the law allowed such (i.e., incest and lust), lying Ted's dad killed JFK... (9/11/16)

#JesusIsNotFor sue-happy rich people (Jas. 2:6), rich who don't pay some of their employees (Jas. 5:4), ones who are violence-prone (Ex.: Cleveland convention riots threat)... (9/11/16)

#JesusIsNotFor the violent, like saying I'd like to punch that guy in the face, I'll pay the legal bills if you do, I could shoot someone on a NYC street... (9/11/16)

Hillary will NOT have as good policies for America, or Christians. That’s the price America pays for voters being duped to nominate a proverbial fool! #Consequences (9/26/16)

You are a know-nothing buffoon; untalented in politics, ignorant, evil, foolish—a fake, a fraud, a coward, a proverbial fool; YOU are unfit to serve as a dog catcher! (9/24/16)

18. Common Sense (Cf.: Several GOP candidates)

When did we (i.e., the U.S.) lose our footing in common sense? Are public schools as dumbing-down bad as conservatives claim? Too much entertainment? Solutions? (9/7/14)

When the U.S. HAD common sense, when someone said “everyone’s doing it,” our moms used to say, “would you jump off a cliff if everyone was doing it?” #CommonSense (9/7/14)

The ONLY party who should win any given policy issue is the one with common sense SOLUTIONS! The good of the country is more important than anyone’s political careers or party! (9/15/14)

IF a common sense policy got proposed, what harm if BOTH sides voted for it, U.S. voter? Re-elect ALL who so voted! #CommonSense #USA#1! (12/25/14)

BOTH parties FEAR a viable third party, and I’ve NEVER suggested one, but ‘We the people’ MUST unite to common sense policies. See our political book(s), soon. (12/26/14)

We the people CAN vote in enough politicians committed to the GOOD/common sense policies of BOTH sides to throw all others out in 2020; do it and WIN! (12/26/14)

READ our political books. IF you like its common sense positions, TALK them up in 2016, and REQUIRE politicians to commit to or reject them for your vote in 20/20! (12/27/14)

NEITHER party has anyone proposing common sense common ground positions, perhaps because they haven’t read my books, as they’re not out yet. #JustDoIt! (1/6/15)

NO ONE can do it alone—we NEED 33 minimum Congress candidates and NOT a third party. Just sign our pledge (on the new website) and vote common sense in 2020. (2/16/15)

Our political views are based in common sense. They just so happen to often comport with the Bible, too. We DON'T live in a theocracy! We the people! USA #1 (2/16/15)

Common sense is SO uncommon. One committed to kill you MUST be killed! How can anyone NOT agree? If you do, YOU volunteer to be their target, foolish ones! (2/17/15)

In 2020, Pledgers will run to take back D.C. for common sense. I never ask anyone to believe it. God will bring it to pass—as He did our 12 books in six years. (2/19/15)

Use common sense. READ our books, as your past 50+ years PROVE you have little, D.C. politicians. Pre-orders are available by email IF you're sincere vs. for status quo! (2/19/15)

No one should have to violate their religion to service gay couple's 'wedding,' UNLESS they are the only business option in the area! Common sense. (2/23/15)

33 Congress persons committed to principles more than party or personality, implementing common sense solutions for FIXes! @Pledgers2020 @ImMadTooEdwin (8/5/15)

19. Consider a Limited Nuclear Option Against ISIS (Cf.: Trump)

Referent: <http://for.tn/1Sj0R9q> (3/23/16)

Bomb one mainly ISIS city where a huge crater is the only residual and you WILL strike fear in their hearts, though they WON'T let up, as Satanically inspired! (8/2/15)

A mini nuke would be the "knock-out blow" Congressman King speaks of against ISIS on CNN. Takes three years to destroy them? LONGER, at the current rate. A holding action. (8/7/15)

Did Hiroshima kill any innocents or cause any collateral damage? Did it end the war? There are lessons here for ending ISIS! Greater good/lesser of two evils. (11/18/15)

A young tweeter said 'you can't bomb terrorist ideology.' What happened to Japan's ideology after Hiroshima? Inexperienced and uneducated in U.S.A.. (12/3/15)

Hiroshima ENDED violent aggression SOUNDLY! Obama is acting like ISIS is UN-solvable and THEY control world events vs. peaceful nations! DUMB! (12/17/15)

Going through the past two years of tweets, here's a somewhat early call for killing all terrorists. Obama called that impossible. Anyone recall Hiroshima? (12/18/15)

20. Cruz Starts Campaign (With No Exploratory Committee)

Referent: <http://bit.ly/23xuL2u> (3/21/15)

Anyone is authorized to put up a billboard reading: Take back Washington for 'WE the people.' AmericanAnswers.org God will take care of the rest for me. (3/23/15) [deleted, temporary tweet]

I WISH Warren Buffett would read my book and back a candidacy or read our tweets and do the same! TAKE BACK the U.S. for 'WE the people!' Sounds like a slogan. [deleted, temporary tweet]

21. #CruzToLose

(See also: Lindsey Graham)

OLD (I believe wrong) news now. <http://bit.ly/1sTjic0> There WON'T be a president Palin or Cruz. Mark my words. #GOP #DNC Happy #MLK Day tomorrow! (1/18/15)

I KNOW most BIG names I want Cruz either. I'm guessing they agree with me that BOTH would LOSE to Hillary, so wait for 2020 and stay quiet! (3/11/16)

I've said Trumpsters are ignorant, or dumb, in that support of that man, not necessarily in their overall IQ. WHAT do I mean? I've even said it's for their support of the man, not necessarily of his policies; certainly not all of them. What do I mean? What I mean is it IS stupid to support [Trump, the man]... (3/18/16)

#NeverTrump GOP people: DO NOT FORGET, vote for any and all GOP'ers, but #NeverTrump! He is a BAD and harmful GOP representative and chameleon! #NeverForget! (3/18/16)

One who HURTS the party and GOP's reputation into the future, who WILL lose to Hillary and who gives GOP opponents ammunition and evidence for stereotype of the GOP. (3/18/16)

The Today show reported a 'lose with Cruz' movement as a BETTER way to re-establish the GOP brand next time. Glad we got a rhyming slogan now (ha). (3/28/16)

RNC GOP heads are WISE to "lose with Cruz" rather than with Trump! I just I believe Ted can gain enough momentum or charisma to catch #NeverTrump (4/7/16)

23. Down-Ballot GOP's Distance from Chump

Referent: <http://fxn.ws/2dAiWnk>

Me fears many down-ballot GOP's are going to be hurt by Chump as the nominee. That's SO unfair to them, but you've got to severely distance yourself from his train wreck! (7/27/16)

For the sake of the GOP, and down-ballots' reputation, @GOP @RNC STILL needs a revised Contract with America to distinguish us from Chump—for FUTURE elections! Why haven't they? (8/1/16)

IF GOP I have revised contract with America and SEPARATE FROM Trump, I anticipate LARGE losses down-ballot. WHY attach to a sinking ship? Careers are on the line! (8/9/16)

SAD that the GOP failed to approve Garland, have a new Contract with America, or distance themselves from Chump, and focus on down ballots only. That WILL bite them in the end! (8/22/16)

Unity to ten core principles, SEPARATE from Chump, is the ONLY hope many GOP incumbents have! WHY aren't we seeing that? Bad strategists. (8/22/16)

Didn't and still I have to be this way! Follow my advice! Democrats' chances of retaking the Senate keep getting better. (9/4/16)

Repeat: Confirm Garland, set an agenda for a revised Contract with America, and POLITELY separate from Trump without insulting/disrespecting him. @GOP @RNC (9/4/16)

I warned RNC/GOP perhaps 15 times in the past 1.3 years that Trump would HURT the GOP and its reputation, and down-ballots need to unite to save the party. I wash my hands! (9/4/16)

24. Evan McMullin Campaign (and 'do the right thing' mantra)

Referent: <http://bit.ly/2cRCIIk>

.@GOP @RNC NEEDS a concerted, targeted effort today to recruit #NeverTrump's to vote down ticket! Identify them all, and ask them to "save the ship" for the future! (8/5/16)

Evan Mullins team NEED to present himself as a Trump protest vote, and to keep Republicans going to the polls to elect ALL other Republicans vs. staying at home! @RNC @GOP (8/8/16)

25. Feminists Can Be Pro-Life

Referent: <http://bit.ly/1TCKWtP> (4/6/16)

If Democrats were at all open to considering the morality of homosexual sex and abortions, and irresponsible over-taxing and spending, MANY of their positions cater to TRUE and serious Christians! Ex.: War as a last resort, kill no innocents when using the death penalty, don't over-pollute, women are human equals with men (and pay accordingly), help vs. ignore the poor (Welfare), sick (revised Obamacare) and elderly (Social Security), minimum wage (vs. slave wages), estate tax (vs. catering to the rich more so than society at large), humane animal treatment, being kind to our environment (vs. over-development), pro the working class too (vs. just rich elites and executives), care about our youth's college costs and loan burdens (and FEWER good job opportunities). I support EVERY one of these concerns, and believe the Bible backs me in so doing! (8/24/15)

Bad company corrupts good morals. (I Cor. 15:33). Now Reince threatens three GOOD men who signed a document Chump threatened to rip up! (9/18/16)

If @Reince says @JebBush @TedCruz @JohnKasich can't run again, I'm voting for @HillaryClinton, and joining their party; make room for conservative Christians! (9/18/16)

The ONLY reason anyone ever had such a pledge is your now 'buddy' caused such a problem to need considering it. No hypocrisy there! (sarcasm) @Reince (9/18/16)

Perhaps Reince is setting up Rubio, who didn't agree to slam Chump? It's the dirtiest business on earth! People say Democrats ensured a Hillary win? Lost credibility. (9/18/16)

EVERYTHING should be done above-board, with no backroom deals, like you be for Chump and we'll help you win the Florida Senate reelection. ETHICS are lacking, folks! (9/18/16)

And I voted for Rubio, and am NOT addressing his part. I oppose any and all sin in any and all parties, as ONLY morals will save our nation; NOT power idols! (9/18/16)

This leaves me one sentence in the media away from being a Democrat. How VERY odd, when I've been a GOP all my life. Morals trump power—at least to me! (9/18/16)

The head of RINO's is now punishing conservatives for not backing a hodge-podge mixed up fruit basket of hardly noticeable GOP values? Hypocrisy! (9/18/16)

So I how the RINO vs. Tea Party battle is going to get solved? @Reince is going to bully support for one side at a time every election? Malfeasance! (9/18/16)

TRUMP ALONE caused #NeverTrump. No one forced him to insult Hispanics, vets and POW's, the disabled, women or Christian's IQ. No one, @Reince! Deal with it HONESTLY! (9/18/16)

There were GOP's who DIDN'T vote for @MittRomney but Twitter wasn't as popular, and they had NO reason to despise him, as he was 100 percent moral compared to Chump. (9/18/16)

Party over principles. Vote for a robot if it mouths the right policies? Vote for Hitler if so, also. Values and thinking are NOT welcome. This is your new GOP! (9/18/16)

It USED to be if you wanted to win your party's voters, you did it by your skills and policies. Now it's by edict—the thing GOP's grill Obama over! No hypocrisy? (9/18/16)

NOT ONE of the 16 other GOP's would have insulted enough GOP's to lose their support! Pin #NeverTrump 100 percent on Donnie alone. No one else, #Reince! (9/18/16)

Bullying has replaced free speech and values voters in the GOP? Conscience has been replaced by control and power idolatry? It's NOT my GOP, if so! BAD change! (9/18/16)

The MINUTE one GOP tells me the GOP stands for values, and Democrats are evil, I'm going to suggest them taking an IQ test or visiting a shrink! Duped by hypocrisy. (9/18/16)

Please have the decency to decide your ban of Cruz, Bush and Kasich BEFORE Nov. 8, so I can know which party to vote for! Otherwise, I'll assume you're playing us @Reince. (9/18/16)

AKA he might declare it AFTER the election, to ensure it doesn't tick off those threes' supporters voting for all other GOP's. I'd just go Hillary, Evan or Gary. (9/18/16)

BEWARE of @Reince punishing you AFTER Nov. 8 for not supporting Chump, to keep your supporters voting for other GOP's! @TedCruz @JebBush @JohnKasich (9/18/16)

It might be time for lawyers and contracts! This dirty party spat may end in a dirty split, or divorce! Reince NEVER united us, and I advised that SEVERAL times. (9/18/16)

Ignoring a problem and brushing it under the rug hoping it gets better is NOT leadership, or fixing the problem! ANY kindergartner knows that, @GOP @RNC. (9/18/16)

SINFUL! He needs to be replaced! He's in bed with and has been babysitting Chump too long, that Chump's threat method has rubbed off! Pandering vs. leading. (9/18/16)

Reince is upset some GOP politicians won't vote for Chump, and, by implication, he's upset with #NeverTrump The pledge they signed was caused by Chump! (9/19/16)

You wouldn't have doubts that the GOP would support the GOP nominee were that GOP nominee not Chump! @Reince EVEN TRUMP was willing to abandon his signed pledge if not treated "fair!" (9/19/16)

.@Reince is FAR over-reaching in punishment NOT matching the 'crime,' for not supporting a contract Chump openly bragged he'd consider ripping up. HE DIDN'T VALUE IT either! (9/19/16)

And tell us on a lie detector exactly what pressure was brought to bear to get those politicians to sign it! 100 percent voluntary, and 100 percent OK if they didn't? @Reince (9/19/16)

The audacity of blaming #NeverTrump, and especially three honorable men for NOT supporting a man like that? GROW a conscience and a brain, Reince! Get REAL, sir! (9/19/16)

Reince: You are countering SO many GOP VIP's! Romney, McCain, Bush 1 and 2, and MANY former presidential administrators and generals, et al. You are a little bully! (9/19/16)

I'm praying for you to stand firm, keep courage, and keep a clear conscience, @JebBush @TedCruz @JohnKasich KEEP the GOP's reputation and tradition intact, PLEASE! (9/19/16)

SOLELY due to Reince's threat yesterday, I am UNDECIDED on voting for the top slot. Will be for all other GOP's, but Hillary, Gary, and Evan are in play for me now! (9/19/16)

And IF Reince follows through on his threat against Jeb, Cruz and John, I will ACTIVELY work for Hillary's campaign! I'm still willing to help ANY GOP's but Chump. (9/19/16)

If one day I have to change political parties—so be it. My positions and principles NEVER change. A political party is just an avenue for implementation of good ideas. (9/24/16)

Did anyone notice ONLY Ted Cruz caved and cowered to Reince's threat about endorsing CHUMP—or else? NOT Jeb Bush or John Kasich. True leadership, guys! (10/1/16)

27. Garland's Better Than Post-Trump Hillary Picks

Referent: <http://nbcnews.to/2dSYFd8> (9/8/16)

The GOP refused to allow Garland on the Supreme Court (SCOTUS)! They GAMBLED Chump would win. Yet he lost. Now Hillary's more liberal pick is THEIR responsibility! There's STILL time! (8/21/16)

Pigs get fat, hogs get slaughtered. The GOP over-bluffed their weak hand to deny Garland SCOTUS, and now they will get WORSE, then "TRY" to blame #NeverTrump! (8/21/16)

If the GOP refused the olive branch of a moderate Garland for SCOTUS, hoping FAILED Chump would get them a conservative Justice, THEY alone bear responsibility for FAILURE! (8/21/16)

The GOP can even now pass through Garland. Why risk Hillary tapping an even more liberal SCOTUS Justice? DUMB strategy! @GOP @RNC @SenateMajLdr (8/21/16)

WHEN Hillary is President, and taps a more liberal SCOTUS Justice, @GOP @RNC MUST blame Trumpsters refusing to let Garland on the court! #NeverTrump is FOR him! (8/21/16)

It's SAD that the GOP failed to approve Garland, have a new Contract with America, or distance themselves from Chump and focus on down-ballots only. It WILL bite them in the end! (8/22/16)

And don't EVER try to pin President Hillary's first SCOTUS pick on #NeverTrump. Garland is better than who she'll likely pick, and you WON'T let him be voted on! (8/22/16)

10. The GOP could have let in Garland on SCOTUS—EVEN today. #NeverTrump is NOT responsible to y'all gambling on Titanic Trump getting you a conservative Justice! (8/23/16)

Own Hillary's SCOTUS pick(s)? @SeanHannity The GOP could vote on Garland TODAY! You TRY to pin things on #NeverTrump, but they #NeverStick. Try again! (8/25/16)

I've advocated for this, but NOTHING, so far: <http://nbcnews.to/2eiFxTG> Better Garland than who President Hillary will pick, GOP! Where are the cooler heads? (9/11/16)

28. Gay Marriage Backlash (Church Wake Up)

I believe ISIS and other terrorists may unite for global power-seeking nukes, and he'll head up that union for power to negotiate a seven year peace treaty with his backers [Cf.: Obama meeting to stop nukes getting to terrorists, Mar., 2016] (2/18/15)

@DrJamesCDobson, @JonathanFalwell, @PatRobertsonTV, @RevJamesRobison: Where are your voices AGAINST national gay marriage? Have you thrown in the towel? (2/23/15)

You see how the “mainstream” media advocates for NATIONAL gay marriage; where’s the church’s PUBLIC voice? @RevJamesRobison (3/18/15)

PLEASE get your group of ministers to get laymen nationwide to pray for/encourage vs. sheepishly ABANDON Georgia @GovPence @AsaHutchinson, @RevJamesRobison (3/29/15)

RIGHTLY did @DrJamesCDobson ask what’s next, as in pastors being forced to conduct gay marriages. “Civil disobedience, if so.” –Dietrich Bonhoeffer! (3/30/15)

Powerful! Christian leaders taking a stand against gay marriage. <http://fxn.ws/1JBKMtl> James Dobson said that more than a one month ago at church. (4/29/15)

IF the Supreme Court heard reports of EVERY Christian church walking around the justices’ building with signs ‘love gays, reject gay marriage,’ things may change. (5/22/15)

Jerry Falwell, Adrian Rogers (RIP), Pat Robertson and James Robison would have NO problem admitting the church and the Moral Majority failed on gay marriage. (6/3/15)

A NewsMax ad said Chump is not being treated fair by the mainstream media (UN-true). That same organization is GREAT at fighting back against the Supreme Court’s (SCOTUS) gay marriage if you call 800.308.6797 (8/19/15)

WHERE WAS SHE when Christian leaders fought to stop SCOTUS from passing national gay marriage? <http://cbsn.ws/1Wkfp2q> A TOO late-comer, and NOT a hero! (9/26/15)

Reminiscing on the reaction of MANY church leaders to our (likely first) original, direct tweeted messages to clamor against SCOTUS making national gay marriage law. (12/18/15)

AMAZING: Conservatives are arguing for the GOP nominee to appoint Justices to overturn Roe or gay marriage, though they ALWAYS argue against judicial activism. Skitzo! (1/1/16)

Roe WON’T be overturned, and gay marriage is the law of the land. NON-legal means are our best hope for any rebuttals to those societal FACTS. You’ve got to be realistic. (1/23/16)

SCOTUS does NOT overturn CLEAR precedent just because liberal or conservative Justices get appointed there, like gay marriage or Roe. It’s a PIPE DREAM to overturn them. (1/24/16)

You LOST Roe way back when. You just lost gay marriage. You can bemoan that, but you were asleep at the wheel! Don’t blame culture for following Mt. 24:12, church. (1/24/16)

I’m perhaps the first if not loudest state’s rights advocate for gay marriage (RIGHT after the Alabama Supreme Courts ERROR)! Trump is ONE YEAR late! (2/4/16)

Is there any Trump supporter who CAN’T see he CAN’T win over Christians, so ONE YEAR LATER he opines on SCOTUS’ gay marriage? You’re BLIND as a bat, if NOT! (1/31/16)

29. George H.W. Bush to Vote for Hillary!?

Referent: <http://cnn.it/2cs4OvJ> (9/21/16)

This meme speaks LOUDER than anything any Trump surrogate could EVER craft! Non-ending GOPs are an unendorsement, by GOP tradition! DUH 101. (9/19/16)

Me too if she's strong on the economy and national defense in the debates, and @Reince doesn't promise before Nov. 8—in writing—to NOT ban three GOP's from re-running for president! (9/20/16)

30. George Takei on Jill Stein Recount

Referent: This recount may not result in much. But Mr. Trump, know this: We will fight, challenge, and oppose you, everywhere, all the time. George Takei @GeorgeTakei Nov 25

FIGHT! <http://on.msnbc.com/2fx59G0> @GeorgeTakei FIGHT! <http://on.msnbc.com/2gzy4Qk> @SenatorReid Only thing necessary for evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing. (11/18/16)

AWESOME use of your notoriety! @DrJillStein Keep that moron honest! He has Putin doing his hacker bidding. #NeverTrump EVER! #NotMyPresident (11/23/16)

UNlikely, but always open to have hope! <http://nbcnews.to/2gOIJuq> GREAT use of your platform @DrJillStein BEST thing you did all year! #NeverTrump (11/25/16)

If NOTHING comes of it, you're a HERO for getting under Chump's arrogant thin skin! I'm available to help. You're doing U.S.A. a GREAT service! @DrJillStein (11/28/16)

31. Glenn Beck on Trump Evangelicals

Referent: <http://bit.ly/1MmGZDF> (7/7/15)

RT of @ColMorrisDavis [Melania Trump securing the evangelical vote] (1/28/16)

WHEN Trump is the GOP nominee, I will NEVER let any Christian tell me the GOP is the party of family values or the religious right, as I'm NOT deceived like they will be! (3/8/16)

Trump DESPERATELY thinks failed Ben Carson's endorsement means Christians give his candidacy "credibility." Spin, lies and WRONG! #NeverTrump (3/11/16)

Any Christian who supports Donald Trump has CHOSEN power idolatry over morality, JUSTIFYING it as GOP morals better than Hillary's. Sinning either way! (3/11/16)

I'm NOT saying NO Christian should support Trump when he's the GOP nominee, to support GOP MORAL values, but to support the person you are sinning! The office is different. (3/11/16)

Anyone voting for Chump is an absolute fool, to me, personally (and CLEARLY does NOT value MORALS as much as political power). That is IDOLATRY a (sin), "Christians!" JustDoIt? (3/15/16)

Leave your religion at church and don't bring it to the voting booth. Vote for CHUMP, Christians; no need to pray about it; that MIGHT get in your way of doing so. (3/15/16)

Talks about his private part size and SO-CALLED Christians vote for him. Carnal or lost Christians, at best! Get right with God, liar/fakes! #NeverTrump (3/15/16)

Sheep off a cliff/led to slaughter. God's people manipulated so, and glorying in their shame of ignorance? #ChristiansForTrump? Anathema! (3/16/16)

I love beating the he_l out of my enemies. ONLY surrounds himself with yes men. All about ego, attention, self, yet SOME Christians support him? Hypocrites! (3/20/16)

I WARNED Christians about this watered-down half-fake minister for YEARS (Osteen)! Like Trump, some people DON'T care about truth and morality, all "in JESUS' name." Bunk. (3/20/16)

STILL, a bad decision! <http://wapo.st/1WkqpNu> (3/26/16)

Robert Jeffress is SAYING God wants Christians to vote to be ruled by an insulting, arrogant, adulterating idolater who has never asked God for any forgiveness. (3/26/16)

ONCE AGAIN, @RobertJeffress slams the Mormonism of Romney while embracing a man who says he has never asked God for forgiveness of anything. See any hypocrisy? (3/26/16)

Funny, Jeffress and a local talk show guy blame #NeverTrump as having anger or hatred problems. NO moral problem with Chump causing such responses. HYPOCRISY! (4/1/16)

32. Glenn Beck Reaches Out to Samantha Bee

Referents: <http://thebea.st/2hNYjUP> (12/20/16)

<http://bit.ly/2ib82Dw> (12/20/16)

THIS was awesome. Warning: Some cussing and left bias, but MUCH truth. <http://bit.ly/2hmKzzB> #FullFrontal #NeverTrump #Humor with #Analysis (9/29/16)

Samantha Bee had a clip where it was orchestrated political strategy to make abortion a way the GOP secures the church vote way back in the 1970's or early 1980s. (11/3/16)

Glenn: I heard your broadcast today, and was wondering if you have any time to advise myself on a campaign run exactly geared toward what you were addressing (both sides finding common ground).

I have many books and Twitter accounts addressing solutions that avoid both extremes, and feel you might have good insight on how to implement them in the form of a campaign!

Thanks for any reply. Sincerely,

James Meroney, JD/MBA/MDiv (@Pledgers2020; AmericanAnswers.org—online soon) (Email, 11/10/16)

33. God: Judge Donald Trump

#BringHimDown at the voting booth, or God, miraculously. #NeverTrump God does NOT overlook sins, and Trump has gotten His attention SO many times! (9/24/16)

Wishing harm/ill vs. wanting justice/judgment/disciplining/pruning. If one can't see any difference between the two, you need to read the Bible with more astuteness. (10/6/16)

I even said Trump's imminent loss may be the only way that occurs. I could care less, but one who flaunts sin in Jesus' name is subject to discipline. (10/6/16)

I tweeted that I wasn't sure what form it would be in, and it may just be his loss Nov. 8, but I didn't sense that was all it would be. Wait and see in the next 30 days! (10/9/16)

This tweet does NOT detail what God might do, but the following one predicts it, and the groping video MAY be its fulfillment; the next 30 days will tell: (10/9/16) Judge him, Lord. Bring this charade to an end soon. It is TIME for you to intervene miraculously and shut the YUGE mouth of a crazed moron! Please DO. (9/24/16)

Show them your power, Lord, and make it evident to all. Please provide justice against a man who has single-handedly destroyed the party of your people! (10/24/16)

I Cor. 11:30, 10:5, Heb. 3:17 IF Trump's a Christian (I'd say he's NOT), premature death by God is very expected! Ac. 12:18-25 if he's NOT saved; BOTH are bad. (10/24/16)

Trump on women <https://bit.ly/2A15GQA> FAKE hair transplant, and thinks he's handsome, and going to judge women's beauty? May the Lord judge the Chump! (10/30/16)

34. GOP & Dem Strategy (See also: Wit and Wisdom book)

Republicans

IMPLEMENTED Obamacare (bloated government's poster child) could usher in the first Tea Party Presidential candidate near victory! Cut it back! (6/2/13)

GOP strategic advantage: Closed borders, no amnesty, EASIER immigration and effective Welfare to IMPROVE lives, skills, and improve the economy. (6/8/14)

Agree to disagree, but agree to WIN! You cannot afford to lose another top national election, as a pattern can be perceived as a longer-term trend. (3/29/15)

Be it Biden or Hillary, BOTH are tied at the hip with Obama's MANY failures. This is a GREAT opportunity for @BernieSanders, the ONLY Democrat "outsider!" (10/8/15)

See who the true leader of the GOP is, be it for Ryan or the 2016 GOP field at his gathering this summer. <http://n.pr/1Q13Fkz> #RomneyRubio2016 (10/9/15)

GOP good policies: Control borders, ending ISIS, lower debt, improve the economy, U.S. business number one, beat China. Lower taxes, where you can, and streamline government. (10/14/15)

Be it Obamacare, illegals, gay marriage, confederate flag, Welfare, debt, ISIS, the GOP MUST listen to conservative anger, or LOSE! (1/15/16)

It's EITHER start a third party within the GOP (where BOTH sides KEEP losing to Democrats), or unity with diversity that does NOT cripple SUCCESS! @GOP @RNC (3/11/16)

GOP leadership would be FOOLS not to try to convince BOTH sides where they're in error, the value of unity, and to educate both sides that losses HURT. (3/11/16)

I HOPE the GOP runs a TrumpCruz ticket, to PROVE to conservatives their brand is SOUNDLY defeated, to set up a centrist for next time (as I said might occur). (3/11/16)

You can tie her to Obama's failures (INDirectly): ISIS's rise, doubled debt, open borders, executive amnesty, lost international respect, and a numb economy. (5/13/16)

Democrats

Benghazi, Hillarycare, Monica, White Water, home baking cookies—don't expect any forgiven past, ever, to be forgotten by some. (9/16/14)

I MUST say, @HillaryClinton engaged the LEAST mud-slinging I could ever expect, given the onslaught of dung from Chump! Honorable, and self-defense! (11/7/16)

You have NOTHING to gain addressing Chump. He'll attack you, or you'll advise his success. Give him MORE torope 2 hang himself! @BarackObama #Wisdom (8/25/17)

AMEN! True that. Perez: Democrats need more than 'anti-Trump' message
(12/14/17)

You better NEVER offer less than the radical zeal and commitment of Gingrich and Bannon, in 2018! Match fire with fire! @DNC @SenateDems @HouseDemocrats The media speaks of 2018 Democrat wins? I said after Roy Less lost, you better act like you lost in a landslide, even though you won! Diligence and intensity. (12/28/17)

35. GOP: Focus on Down-Ballots

Referents:

NBC reports the GOP is focusing on down-ballots and localizing campaigns now, and the strategy seems to be working WELL. WHO so advised MANY times early on? Yo. (10/24/16)

<http://cbsn.ws/2eyXDkq> (10/24/16)

<http://bit.ly/2eu9QJL> (10/21/16)

<http://bit.ly/2eak4ed> (11/1/16)

I am still as #NeverTrump as ever, because he is NO better today than before her speech, but ALL down-ballot GOP's better wake up, and the fight's starting NOW! (7/29/16)

I hear NOTHING about down-ballot GOP's helping each other to win. ALL the focus is on a losing cause—Trump—vs. a landslide victory of all but Chump GOP's this year! (8/4/16)

Represent the BRAND, @GOP @RNC WHY go down with the Trump ship? You CAN'T rely on one person for failure or success. Revised contract with America—SOON—for down ballots (8/9/16)

I ALWAYS like people spending wisely <http://nbcnews.to/2dD0SFD> EVERY GOP needs to vote for every GOP but Trump! (8/12/16)

.@GOP @RNC NEEDs to stir up GOP voters for all down-ballot GOP's, based on needing to stop President Hillary's BAD policies! Quit gambling that Trump can win! (8/25/16)

Down-ballot GOP's should be your ONLY concern! Don't oppose Trump; be polite, and ignore. The party is larger than one egomaniac! @GOP @RNC Ignore this to your OWN hurt! (8/27/16)

I warned RNC/GOP perhaps 15 times in the past 1.3 years that Trump would HURT the GOP and its reputation, and down-ballots need to unite to save the party. My hands are washed. (9/4/16)

Save the Republican Party: Vote only and ALL down-ballot GOP's! It's NOT that complicated. <http://nyti.ms/2cjxTbG> Not third party or skip voting! (9/6/16)

ALL the negatives of a Hillary administration that conservatives fear can be stopped if you vote ALL down-ballot GOP's, but #NeverTrump #ChecksAndBalances (9/26/16)

Inspiring ten-point vision of what Republicanism is, with powerful GOP's stumping for down-ballots! @SpeakerRyan <http://on.msnbc.com/2e6oYLQ> Three weeks!!! (10/16/16)

Democrats are eyeing down-ballot upsets due to Chump's drag on the GOP's reputation. Please see the next retweets about how often I warned you, and said how to fix it, @GOP @RNC (10/16/16)

.@RNC @GOP If you want to win, absent the White House, why have Democrats had operations in Dallas more than a month, and I've not received one contact, though I volunteered at my local GOP? (10/18/16)

WARNING to @GOP @RNC <http://on.msnbc.com/2e3QiZj> Down-ballots are the KEY! The GOP in my county is not even manning phones, though Democrats have For more than one month to swing states. (10/22/16)

Political correctness IDIOCY! <http://fxn.ws/2enTg0f> 'Full steam ahead' for down-ballots, @RNC @GOP! <http://abcn.ws/2dD3Tpf> Bang for buck money spends (10/22/16)

Trumpsters inspire her [HRC] to go radical left. Mainstreamers keep her centrist-ish, and voting ALL down-ballot GOP's keeps her in check. DO it this week! (10/23/16)

TODAYS THE DAY Go vote all down-ballot GOP's, but #NeverTrump. Do as you please about the top slot. (11/8/16)

36. Hillary: Don't Let up, Let Down or Let Trump Back In

Referent:

We can't take anything for granted in these races. I won't—I can assure you of that.
—Hillary Clinton (10/26/16)

AWESOME! <http://nbcnews.to/2dKuUw4> #NeverTrump Never let up or let down your guard. Vigilance to the end vs. rest on your laurels, @HillaryClinton (10/6/16)

NEVER quit and NEVER let-up, until you cross the finish line victorious! @HillaryClinton #NeverTrump Please do us ALL well—NOT just the left! Thanks. (10/13/16)

DON'T get over-confident, let down your guard, or rest on your laurels! Pride goes B4 destruction. Slow and steady wins the race, @HillaryClinton Pv. 16:18; Ecc. 9:11 (10/24/16)

DON'T let polls lull you into a false sense of security, @HillaryClinton Junk yard dogs fight to the end, as if the Under Dog; it's never over until the orange man sings. (10/25/16)

Monday, I'd LOUDLY tout the potential attempted surprise result from silent Trumpsters who are RIGHTLY ashamed to speak, @HillaryClinton PHONE BANKS vs. any complacency! (11/6/16)

37. Hillary: Debate People Skills

Referent: <http://bit.ly/2eZVUXP> (11/3/16)

Emulate Bill's people skills! Be personable, friendly, smile, be relaxed, shake hands or acknowledge with your eyes. Show sincerity and common man touch. (10/4/16)

38. Hillary: List CGI Achievements vs. Peddling Access Charges

Referent:

I'm thrilled to talk about the Clinton Foundation because it is a world renowned charity, and I'm so proud of the work that it does. I could talk for the rest of the debate.

I know I don't have the time to do that, but just briefly the Clinton Foundation made it possible for 11 million people around the world with HIV AIDS to afford treatment and that's about half of all the people in the world that are getting treatment in partnership with the American health association. —Hillary Clinton (Debate #3, 10/19/16)

And on the day when I was in the situation room monitoring the raid that brought Osama bin laden to justice, he was hosting The Celebrity Apprentice. —Hillary Clinton (Debate #3, 10/19/16)

Prepare for emails, Benghazi, Bill's affairs and CGI pay-for-access charges, and beat him down like the Whack-a-Gopher Chuck-E-Cheese game, @HillaryClinton (9/29/16)

Not one email ordered terrorists to very sadly kill my good friend and his ambassador colleagues, or any U.S. military to not protect them! (9/29/16)

My husband paid a price for his admitted indiscretions, which don't even compare to Mr. Trump's history of womanizing, with ZERO divorces! (9/29/16)

List five+ CGI achievements, and compare them to paying off a golf hole-in-one debt and six foot 'charity' paid self-portrait NOT of you or Bill. Knock him out this time! (9/29/16)

You've GOT TO remind any voters who might have been asleep the past 1.5 years of Trump's HUNDREDS of verbal and moral miscues, or he could look fresh to them, @HillaryClinton (9/29/16)

39. Hillary: Offer Garland for SCOTUS

Referent:

I would hope that the Senate would do its job and confirm the nominee that President Obama has sent to them. -Hillary Clinton (Debate #3, 10/19/16)

If the GOP refused the olive branch of a moderate Garland for the Supreme Court (SCOTUS), hoping FAILED Chump would get them a conservative Justice, THEY alone bear responsibility for FAILURE! (8/21/16)

The GOP can even now pass through Garland. Why risk Hillary tapping an even more liberal SCOTUS Justice? DUMB strategy! @GOP @RNC @SenateMajLdr (8/21/16)

WHEN Hillary is President, and taps a more liberal SCOTUS Justice, @GOP @RNC MUST blame Trumpsters refusing to let Garland on the court! #NeverTrump is FOR him! (8/21/16)

Want to GUARANTEE a win? Reveal centrist SCOTUS picks, like Chump did conservative ones. Christians FEAR you'll go all liberal on them! @HillaryClinton Start with Garland—a good man. (10/15/16)

40. Hillary: Sell Your Positives

Referent: <http://bit.ly/2dBFqC0> (9/21/16)

It's SAD how @HillaryClinton is LETTING Chump catch up by NOT presenting herself as a positive sale, with reasons; just anti-Chump TV ads. VERY risky, and dumb. (9/13/16)

42. Hillary: Smile In Debates

.@HillaryClinton can be more trustworthy if she's 100 percent HONEST and transparent vs. exaggerates and lies! Judgment can be shown by good policy and decisions! (9/7/16)

How could someone be more likable? Smile, laugh, dress casual, relate by speaking about pop culture, relax, address average Joe issues; Ex.: Hillary (9/17/16)

I get the serious stuff: I'm that way usually and when writing. Lighten up occasionally in the debates, @HillaryClinton Be friendly to the audience! (9/16/16)

Be 100 percent honest. The power that brings you will always surpass the critics it engenders. @HillaryClinton Transparency, humility, fun and a smile! (9/16/16)

#ThingsHillaryGoogles How to quit lying and be trustworthy; how to be likable and smile; how to not yell or speak in a low voice; how to delete Ems, etc. (9/21/16)

43. Hillary: Trump is Different

"You know, with prior Republican nominees for president, I disagreed with them on politics, policies, principles, but I never questioned their fitness to serve. Donald Trump is different." -Hillary Clinton (in debate #2)

We're NOT calling for a holy leader; only one at least and at a MINIMUM one who isn't worse than our other GOP nominees in the past 40 years. Is that being 'stringent?' (9/13/16)

The morally WORST GOP nominee in 40 years, and a handful of PASTORS are for him from power lust. Preach Jesus, vote Satan? Got it. Apostasy—who cares? (9/15/16)

No one wants a pope for President, but Chump is SO far below the moral standard of EVERY GOP nominee in the past 40 years, there's NO danger of that happening! (9/15/16)

READ the Bible, Christians! God tells and shows you what type people qualify to lead nations! Trump is NOWHERE near that minimum standard! Hypocrisy. (9/26/16)

Trump is NOWHERE like the minimum character level of any other GOP nominees in the past 40 years! He's SO far below, as with his UN-preparedness. #NeverTrump (10/5/16)

44. Hillary TV Ad Suggestions

TV ad ideas: SLAM the illogic of policies like a 45 percent tariff starting an economic war; selling federal lands makes America the servant of foreigners, @HillaryClinton (9/6/16)

TV ad: I could shoot someone in New York City...; I'd like to punch that guy in the face; I'll pay the legal bill if you do; there could be riots in Cleveland if I don't get to 1,270 and lose the nomination. @HillaryClinton (9/6/16)

.@HillaryClinton can be more trustworthy if she's 100 percent HONEST and transparent vs. exaggerates and lies! Judgment can be shown by good policy and decisions! (9/7/16)

.@HillaryClinton can be more trustworthy if she's 100 percent HONEST and transparent vs. exaggerates and lies! Judgment can be shown by good policy and decisions! (9/7/16)

Defaulting on the debt kills the economy, and value of a dollar. Ban all Muslims ends many U.S. business transactions. Detail their implications, @HillaryClinton (9/7/16)

Send the wall bill to Mexico, it gets mailed back or thrown in the trash; try to enforce it in court and you get laughed out, @HillaryClinton... (9/7/16)

TV ad: An actor dressed as a used car salesman with nerdy clothes—would you buy a car from this man? (and list Trump's flip flops, bait and switch), @HillaryClinton (9/7/16) [Note: Hillary used 'bait and switch' phrase in first debate with Trump]

TV ad: Role model? Appeal to values voters with "Two Corinthians," favorite verse (eye for an eye), I never asked forgiveness from God. Imply Christians shouldn't be for Chump, @HillaryClinton (9/7/16)

TV ad: List every Democrat policy Trump was for (with time-frame), his Democrat donation recipients, and ask 'if you want a Democrat, just vote for Hillary,' @HillaryClinton (9/7/16)

TV ad: Trump shakes up D.C.? Quote his claims for such, then show compromises, schmoozing, and how many GOP incumbents got re-elected DESPITE his campaign. (9/7/16)

TV ad: You NEED to play Trump quotes against women and Hispanics (dogs, pigs, Megyn's wherever; biased Mexican judge, most illegals are rapists and criminals), @HillaryClinton (9/7/16)

You have to hound Trump's past campaign gaffes! Taxes are just one of those. Make TV ads with MANY video clips!, @HillaryClinton Cumulate the attack, vs. solo clips! (9/7/16)

IF I were @HillaryClinton, I'd flood the market in close states with TV ads depicting mocking the disabled, insulting illegals and vets, and Christians' Bible IQ... (11/2/16)

And demeaning women and insulting Muslims. People have SHORT memories and busy lives, @HillaryClinton #NeverForget what won him the GOP nomination! #NeverTrump (11/2/16)

45. Hillary Use Bernie to Counter Cruzs' Endorsement

I STRONGLY suggest you match Cruz's endorsement of Chump with Bernie supporter outreach soon!
@HillaryClinton Give Chump NO mercy to gain any ground on you! (9/23/16)

.@BernieSanders You NEED to play a BIG role in getting Hillary across the line. You alone can sway your followers to dislike Chump more than Hillary! (9/23/16)

46. Hillary Use Bill

My only strategy question is who will Hillary pick, and how will she soften her caustic past personality? She's shoe-in for the Democrat nomination; use Bill often. (1/9/15)

#BillClinton can HELP Hillary if he showed sincere contriteness (even decades later), for marital infidelities and abuses of women. Charm with CHARACTER! (1/11/15)

So SAD! I just saw Bill Clinton on CNN. NO one running is as bright as a Reagan, Clinton or Kennedy, and America deserves BETTER. #RunMittRun! #Romney (9/29/15)

47. Hillary Use Bill While You're Sick (& Preparing)

Referent: Trump catching up in polls for two weeks as Hillary became debate focused.

.@BillClinton needs to step up and fill in while his wife recovers. He's SO much better, and better liked. MILK that as a show of support while she's weak! (9/12/16)

.@BillClinton Please prove your well-known political skills are NOT in decline, and get a handle on your wife's campaign! Read today's tweets, and do your thing (9/16/16)

48. Hillary: Walk Into Town Hall Crowd

Emulate Bills people skills! Be personable, friendly, smile, be relaxed, shake hands or acknowledge with your eyes. Show sincerity, and the common man's touch.

I'd walk out near the crowd; friendly, but not threateningly. Look anxious to be with the people. You might even turn your body away from Chump—subliminal message conveyed. (See also: Update #5: Debate #2, Part II)

49. Hillary's Not Coming For Your Guns

Referent: <http://cnn.it/2dyTg7m> (7/29/16)

Tell your Christian testimony in brief and general terms—show that you're NOT an atheist (vs. Methodist). Promise you're NOT seeking to take people's guns away... (7/28/16)

I KNOW many Southerners LOVE their guns, and fear you want to steal them. If you do, that's OPPOSITE the second amendment, and they'll fight you to the bitter end. You'll lose! (7/28/16)

If you're for Israel, but not against Arabs, say so to Christians and at churches, JUST LIKE I told you to say you're not coming for people's guns (and you did), @HillaryClinton (9/16/16)

50. Horse Race Loss (American Pharaoh)

Referent: <http://lat.ms/1NiO5ni> (8/29/15)

I'm going to go out on a limb and say American Pharaoh FINALLY lays an egg and balks at winning today. I know nothing about others in the field, so NO other predictions. (8/29/15)

Romo no 'mo in Dallas. This is my un-risky prediction. That doesn't mean Dak needs NO good back-up, though. #Dallas #Cowboys #TonyRomo #DakPrescott (1/29/17)

CALLED IT! ESPN says he's going into broadcasting. Good for him. #Romo (4/4/17)

51. Income Inequality/Disparity (Cf.: Sanders, etc.)

You have to look at the RESULTS of your theory to assess whether it's a GOOD theory, like business' ONLY purpose is profits. That's JUST an economic belief! It's GENERALLY served the U.S. well, but in recent decades, when abused to extreme selfishness, it has caused an income gap not matched since the 1920's. (8/30/15)

VERY IMPRESSIVE @Liberty U! Income inequality is a HORRIBLE misnomer! Over-paid executives and under-paid working class ARE BIBLICAL concerns! @BernieSanders (9/14/15)

USUALLY they say lower taxes and regulations. That often means LESS consumer protection and the rich get richer (i.e., income inequality). Also, make it hard on businesses. (9/28/15)

Bernie is good on some (middle class, income inequality, Wall Street problems), and HORRIBLE on free college, green energy as America's number one challenge, and $15 an hour min wage. (10/13/15)

GOOD Democrat policies: Be for workers, increase minimum wage, DON'T end IRS or estate tax, some income inequality repair, tax the one percenters more, down some pollution, etc.! (10/14/15)

If it were easy to start new businesses, or steal them back from India and especially China, Obama would have already done that! We can't compete with $2 a day labor! (10/16/15)

That's one reason income disparity is SUCH a BIG political issue I was one of the first to point out. Occupy Wall Street originated it, but let it die, by becoming UN-focused. (10/16/15)

If trying to cure income disparity/gap is 'Socialism,' so I MUST conclude they prefer ANTI-SOCIALism! Wealth redistribution is anathema to conservatives! (10/21/15)

GLAD to see The Great One address income inequality (i.e., too low wages), post-outsourcing! <http://bit.ly/1S9svJw> #Reagan II #Romney (1/13/16)

[Romney campaign negatives:] Zeal waned, insulted 49 percent as non-contributors, wanted income inequality spoken of at home, wanted all rich with NO plan for it and fired tons of people. <http://huff.to/1VHVinJ> (1/26/16)

Now THERE's consistency, obedience, righteousness and truthfulness! <http://on.msnbc.com/1qEnxZs> Falwell's USURPING his great dad's reputation! SHAME! (1/26/16)

I DIDN'T read Warren Buffett's article yet, but income inequality and over-paid one percent's IS a problem, as with over-outsourcing and over-immigration. A problem for AMERICANS! (2/28/16)

Specifically, income inequality and caring for the poor on one hand and closed borders, defeating ISIS and America number one again on the other, ALL provable. (3/2/16)

And now, alas, it's time for Twitter to end or change, as my influence on and framing 2016 election is OVER. We HAVE the match-up and agenda God led you to! (3/2/16)

52. Is This The BEST We Can Do?

Referents: <http://on.wsj.com/1S16rRi> (4/6/16)

<http://nyti.ms/2fXfPI9> (1/8/16)

Who cares? ONLY Fiorina is an interesting addition to me. <http://on.msnbc.com/1GKFwxy> WHERE are the Reagans, JFKs, Washington's and Lincoln's? SAD for USA #1! (5/4/15)

Where are the Reagans, JFKs, Lincolns, Washington's of our era? Can't America breed better, more knowledgeable and charismatic leaders? Bankrupt nation? (7/30/15)

Reagan, Kennedy, ~Clinton, Lincoln, Washington—America has had great leaders. WHY DO YOU SETTLE? You wouldn't accept a Yugo if you could afford a Cadillac, would you? (1/30/16)

Great sadness for my country today (literally), knowing it's becoming HillBiliary vs. Chump. IS THAT THE BEST WE HAVE, U.S. voters? Longing for the good 'ol days. (2/1/16)

CAN'T sleep for concern for my nation! Four more years of Obama's agenda or four years of an unpredictable KOOK in the White House. Is THIS the BEST America can do? (3/5/16)

Don in NO WAY is in the line of legacy of GOP nominees! Character OPPOSITE Reagan, Lincoln, Dole, Romney, Bush, McCain and probably them ALL. #NeverTrump (3/11/16)

#ElectionFinalThoughts #NeverAgain! (11/7/16)

53. ISIS is Going to Hell
(Biden's son's account was there when I tweeted; RIP Beau)

Referent: <http://nym.ag/1VdKXBB> (9/3/14)

COWARDS hide in masks! READ where cowards end up-Revelation 21:8, the Bible #ISIS #Extremists #BombBabyBomb #Terrorism #HELL! (9/3/14)

You are DECEIVED and Hell-bound if you think it's HOLY to kill another human being, made in God's image. You MUST be stopped and killed if you won't change! (2/20/15)

There are ZERO virgins waiting for you, and you are neither a martyr nor hero of any so-called "god"; JUST doing Satan's work to live with him forever in a fiery Hell. (2/20/15)

Greatest temptation today is to be ho hum about continued ISIS evil vs. bombing the Hell out of them, U.S.A. (via #Obama)! <http://t.co/yrY8aTxVoo> (2/26/15)

Wow! I guess that first day in an eternally, fiery Hell DIDN'T have 17 beautiful virgins after all, and WASN'T in Heaven. Jn. 3:16. <http://on.msnbc.com/1VdKWh3> (7/29/15)

There are NOT 17 (or 73) young virgins awaiting your FOOLish suicides! You mock your own religion to believe so. Be rational, peaceful and productive... (8/8/15)

TRUTH! <http://fxn.ws/1S2VATB> Hell4U (3/16/16)

MUST see TV tonight-<http://on.msnbc.com/1VdL5kF> The DOD, FBI and CIA need to master and counter EVERY method terrorists use to recruit fools to Hell! Jn. 3:16 (4/1/16)

54. Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Addressing

U.S. would be foolish to adopt Obama's apathy regarding Israel! God defends her, even in the Tribulation. Be just to GOOD Arabs, too. <http://t.co/RCN2INTqFP> (1/2/15)

There are likely solutions to the Israeli-Palestinian issue. our book lists at least four. Millennia-long Hatfields and McCoys SHOULD come to an end! (1/14/15)

...and greener energy. even as we drill more, safely, with no severe pollution, but not abandoning Middle East oil, so we can influence an unstable region. (1/14/15)

NON-violent Arabs are on equal footing with Israel, but if you ever oppose the Jews, when they are NOT doing bad, you have to deal with God protecting, her too. (1/15/15)

In light of a nation whose leaders have vowed to wipe Israel off the map, EXPECT lying concerning motives for just commercial nukes. #Obama #TrustButVerify (1/15/15)

Palestinians have been outcasts in camps FAR too long, and deserve a "state" (i.e., a permanent place) that is NOT a threat to Israel. #CommonSense (1/22/15)

Palestinians have been outcasts in camps, FAR too long, and deserve a "state" (i.e., a permanent settlement place) that is NOT a threat to Israel. #CommonSense (1/22/15)

#Obama: Gather ALL Arab group leaders, find their top gripes, see how we in the West can help with any of them, then find any win-win with the Israeli conflict. (1/23/15)

VERY seriously, Arab people (vs. ~governments) must return to clamoring for Democracy, or the Middle East could get real ugly! (1/25/15)

Sir: With ALL respect and at ALL costs, PLEASE learn to NOT intend to destroy Israel! For your own good, find ways to peacefully coexist. I'll help. @Rouhani_ir (1/26/15)

SOME terrorists MAY be persuadable, as not too far enmeshed. Find their concerns, and seek to address them. 1948 birth of Israel was a BIG one! (1/26/15)

Has Israel done wrong things? YES. Have any of their Arab enemies? YES. You CAN'T do tit-for-tat forever, keeping score, and doing Mt. 7:3 vs. Mt. 7:12! (1/27/15)

Hatfields and McCoys, Israel and Arabs. Referees are USUALLY needed to mediate peace. Self-correcting usually doesn't happen, due to being subjective and bitter. (1/30/15)

It will take MANY events, and MUCH time, as animosity has build up for centuries, but progress CAN be made in the Israel-Arab conflict, if someone steps UP; any NON-wimps? (2/8/15)

Abraham had a son out of wedlock, so b_stard sons heirs always feel second class. NO need to! God loves all equally... Arab-Israeli conflict in history. (2/8/15)

Pass laws banning teaching kids that Jews are devils! Pass laws banning lying to kids (i.e., indoctrination and propaganda). Let no clerics do so, either! #Israel (2/8/15)

Pope or Obama: Host a Summit to address the Palestinian-Israeli conflict's possible temporary/partial solutions, IF you're "leaders!" Hint—NOT so much, if not. (2/8/15)

You TRULY believe Iran would ever (in their hearts and internal leadership) abandon plans to harm Israel? THAT's naive. They've stated their roadmap! (2/12/15)

Successful governance is NOT about personalities, but principles. I don't care who rules #Israel, so long as they have the RIGHT POLICIES! (2/17/15)

Obama tries (verbally, at least) to balance those interests, but his fulcrum is always away from Israel, pro-Arab. That's NOT justice "sir." See Bibi Netanyahu! (2/2/15)

Likely the number one reason we have terrorism... U.S.'s presence there to protect oil interests and Israel. We MUST continue to do so, but consider BOTH parties/sides! (2/12/15)

Our past tweets and book detail SEVERAL solutions to the Israeli-Palestinian problem. I'm ready for ACTION, not just ideas. Email me, sirs! (2/18/15)

I guarantee you the Middle East can get better! My book says how (none 100 percent, until Jesus returns). I'd be happy to implement ideas the Lord gave me to help. (2/18/15)

IF #Obama REALLY cares about people of the Middle East, he will STOP the chaos, and establish ORDER. Negotiate others pay much for our American lead, or we WON'T help. (2/19/15)

Obama has ~ZERO plans to reconstitute Middle East peace talks; He even LESSENS pressure on Iran seeking nukes against the Jews. Better is possible—email me! (2/19/15)

Ten years from now Iran is free to pursue nuclear weapons? Israel gets a decade's lease on life, and you really think they'll honor it for ten years? That's NAIVE! (2/27/15)

~300,000 displaced Palestinians, border skirmishes, difficult Arab access through Israel's gates, uniting voting block, strained access to the holy sites... (2/27/15)

55. Jeb Bush Endorses Cruz

Referent: <http://politi.co/1RxKFhy> (3/23/16)

WHO's @JebBush endorsing this year, and when? 3/15 will BE TOO LATE, unless he's lost his mind and supports Trump (NOT!). Inquiring minds want to know. (3/11/16)

.@JebBush would be wise to endorse Rubio in Florida and Cruz ~everywhere else. Not sure you can do that, but we NEED a brokered convention, and he has clout! (3/11/16)

It's about TIME for you to COUNTER Ben Carson's support with rational and moral support of the ANTI-Trump GOP majority, whoever you choose, @JebBush Do it Monday before 3/15? (3/11/16)

[Private accounts] I GUARANTEE YOU @JebBush WON'T sell out like the brain-dead surgeon. He HAS a conscience, and DESPISES the Chump! (3/11/16)

Nine million lost their jobs, five million lost their homes, and $13 trillion in family wealth was wiped out. 'That's business,' says Chump. That's immoral, says God. NO WONDER they're on opposite ends! (9/27/16)

Chump calls paying NO taxes 'smart.' We the people call it selfish and unpatriotic. Trump owns money the people deserve—steal it back, legally! (9/27/16)

#TrumpAFact Devastating poor people's lives is just "business;" Scrooging the American public paying NO taxes is "smart." Smartly evil, and evil business! (9/27/16)

With Trump paying ZERO taxes, and the Wells Fargo CEO getting rich by ruining 5,000+ employees' lives, there's going to be a rebellion to tax the rich GREATLY! I'll join it. (9/29/16)

Pretty good analysis! <http://bit.ly/1oUH1XY> 1. Trump's VERY beatable! 2. Get more energy! 3. Defeat him with BETTER ideas and any of his that are good. (7/23/15)

If he who wins the most media attention wins or is best-qualified to lead our nation, the Kardashians should be running! #DumpTrump (8/21/15)

The ideas expressed here since Jan. 2015 DESTROY Chump, by God's grace alone. He is SO beatable! I'm getting revved up for ~Jan. 2016, as TIRED of him. (8/26/15)

I'd EVEN consider running AGAINST Trump (I WOULD beat him), though I STILL don't believe he'll be the nominee, so I don't think it's needed. Debates are coming. (8/26/15) [wrong that he wouldn't win the nomination]

I GUARANTEE you Chump and Hillary are 100 percent and fairly easily BEATABLE! I'm just amazed how few of you see the paths that get that job done. Are you blind? (10/13/15)

Laptop fail—AGAIN! I LOVE Mark Cubans confidence he could BEAT Chump and Hillary. I've said the SAME here MANY times regarding @Pledgers2020, @ImMadTooEdwin (10/15/15)

Retweet: If name recognition makes one qualified to be President, why wouldn't one of the Kardashians run for President? [Deleted tweet, when I got ~serious]. (1/5/16)

Ginsburg

#NeverTrump here and now disavows ANY responsibility for Garland NOT being on the Supreme Court (SCOTUS) instead of the Justices President Hillary WILL nominate! (8/9/16)

It's SAD that the GOP failed to approve Garland, have a new Contract with America, or to distance themselves from Chump, focus on down-ballots only. It WILL bite them in the end! (8/22/16)

And don't EVER try to pin President Hillary's first SCOTUS pick on #NeverTrump. Garland is better than who she'll likely pick, and you WON'T let him be voted on! (8/22/16)

The GOP refused to allow Garland on SCOTUS! They GAMBLED that Chump would win, yet he lost. Now Hillary's liberal pick is THEIR responsibility! There's STILL time! (8/21/16)

Pigs get fat, hogs get slaughtered. The GOP over-bluffed their weak hand to deny Garland SCOTUS, and now will get WORSE, and "TRY" to blame #NeverTrump! (8/21/16)

If the GOP refused the olive branch of moderate Garland for SCOTUS, hoping FAILED Chump would get them a conservative Justice, THEY alone bear responsibility for FAILURE. (8/21/16)

The GOP can even now pass through Garland. Why risk Hillary tapping an even more liberal SCOTUS Justice? DUMB strategy! @GOP @RNC @SenateMajLdr (8/21/16)

It's one thing for Kaepernick to get attention. MUCH better is to get police training and rules of engagements more precise! Demand it as a voting group. (9/20/16)

Just end, then ban future stupid Kaepernick antics and you could save your business! @NFL <http://fxn.ws/2dFdjEF> Good message, bad method. ALL lives matter ! (10/9/16)

Brees

Correct message, incorrect manner! U.S.A. is NOT the problem! White racists are [and any bad cops], and many don't even notice they are (habit). (8/27/16)

EXACTLY what I said this weekend. Drew Brees @drewbrees On this issue: I agree with his protest, I DON'T agree with his METHOD. Read the article. I said it three <http://es.pn/2e1JoZf> (8/29/16)

59. Lindsey Graham

I'd rather a GOP loss and maintain our integrity than a Trump loss as the nominee! He can't be, and will NOT be President in 2016! #DumpTrump! #RomneyRubio2016! (10/14/15)

It's NOT hypocrisy to do so to oppose one you REALLY opposed—Chump (vs. Cruz)! GREAT JOB @LindseyGrahamSC <http://on.msnbc.com/20qnkVq> #AnyoneButTrump (3/17/16)

Lindsey Graham is KILLING it on the Today Show! Knock this crap off and give plans to fix what people really care about. Try to be President vs. getting a reality TV show! (3/24/16)

#Trump would be a disaster to my party for YEARS. We can afford to lose an election, but not our soul as a party. @LindseyGrahamSC AMEN, sir! HERO. (3/24/16)

60. Live Tweeting a GOP Debate (with Commentary, debate BEFORE Trump) (Possibly the first Twitter site to do so)

#CopyCat! You're NOT original, Mr. Chump! #DumpTrump! I live tweeted the first debate then summarized comments for the second, and I'm on three of your lists. (10/13/15)

Christie has the BEST opening statement! $2.5 trillion outside the U.S., rates to 15 percent (Chump). 1,000 mile wall needed. Come in legally. Mexico will pay for it (ha!). (10/28/15)

Bush cuts in-ENERGY! Carson's flat tax? 15 vs. 28 percent? All deductions and loopholes with strategic cutting. Growing the economy is a short-term myth by mainly lowering regulations. FEW details. (10/28/15)

Kasich is getting his LONG missed attention! He's NOT even number three. Know how CEO's work vs. just politicians (Kasich). Bush, Carson and Rubio, imitate Kasich's energy! (10/28/15)

Carson staring into the sky struggling with numbers. Cruz proposes a flat tax. No hedge fund manager should pay a lower percent than his/her secretary (we said that first here, AFTER Warren Buffett). (10/28/15)

Cruz: Growth is the answer (~short-term pie in the sky in our new normal). 73,000-page tax code, says Fiorina. Talk is cheap; get 'er dun for a three-paged code? CAN'T! (10/28/15)

61. Mark Cuban

CONSISTENT, professionally-administered and multiple lie detectors would be the ONLY way I'd accept any denial thereof. I'll ALWAYS submit to such. (6/3/16)

Exhibit D (Exhibit "B" mis-written twice—sorry) of Mark Cuban describing THIS twitter account: <http://bit.ly/2dkNARB> Only OK for now! (6/3/16)

Exhibit C (RE: Trump) of Cuban sharing same concept as here (his account has been here before): <http://cnb.cx/1M6GNEg> (6/3/16): [RE: For the 5th (or 7th?) time I challenge #Trump to a public debate of the issues anytime, recorded/filmed, and on the merits, "smartest" candidate! (5/29/16)]

Exhibit B on Cuban giving voice to our thoughts (until I go public with professional assistance, sometime after Nov 8): <https://bit.ly/2K6hYvM> (6/3/16)

I said MANY times I'd debate Donald Trump publicly, anytime anywhere. Same challenge goes to @KanyeWest today and every day until 2020! Are you up for it? (4/3/16)

THIS is LEADERSHIP, character, maturity and judgment? HARDLY! #NeverTrump <http://abcn.ws/1TsXaMk> He was too scared to ever debate me after four offers. (5/6/16)

Donald Trump does NOT own or control WE THE PEOPLE formerly belonging to the GOP! You are a WIMP and COWARD, and I challenge you to a public debate. (5/9/16)

Never means never. Words MEAN something! #NeverTrump I'd rather Hillary for ONLY four years, BAD as that will be! BAD choices this year! (5/11/16)

.@realDonaldTrump [Private account] Funny, he's avoided four calls to publicly debate me anytime, anywhere! DON'T BELIEVE LIES! (5/20/16)

I challenge any Trump pundit to a public debate on the merits of his Presidential qualifications! I guarantee you none have the guts to agree to it! WIMPS! (5/28/16)

I challenge Trump to a public interview on issues, recorded/filmed anytime, and with a lie detector to be used, as needed. I guarantee he will chicken out. (5/29/16)

'I've challenged CHUMP three times to a debate, and I do so here AGAIN! His folk saw it and ignored it, because HE CAN'T HANDLE THE HEAT WHEN TRUTH IS ADDRESSED (Undated—lost tweet)

Exhibit B of Cuban putting voice to our thoughts expressed here: (6/3/16): Could be he's NOT a billionaire, or Trump is broke—anything's possible until facts exist, but Mr. Lyin' Ted accuser is LYIN about taxes—Trumpsters say NO problem. (5/11/16)

NOT the first time Cuban's put voice to our thoughts expressed here!: (6/3/16): <http://cnn.it/2ddyvU1> If ALL GOP wants is a puppet for their policies, why not create human-like robot to be the nominee? You can program in the right views, and morals will be irrelevant! (5/29/16)

James Dobson (mirroring our earlier tweets, mentions basketball (inaccurately for Dr. Dobson), Ronald Reagan, predictions accuracy and national ministry influence, love of the Beatles (#1), 6'4" secret service members and lucrative radio career potentiality (though doubts that's our intention—but to improve U.S.A./solve problems).

Joel Rosenberg (speaks of the role of a watchman, and God raising a prophet and king; one year later, says that maybe God is not to deliver us/America)

Levi Lusko (had close proximity 59-second radio PSA on Abraham tended sheep into his 80's, later to lead a nation (59 Seconds of Hope on Air One Radio).

Max Lucado (spoke on his latest book on prayer)

Basketball

I started my Gospel Sign embankment climb today more for the evangelism than exercise, having played basketball two of the past three nights. MUST lose more weight! (10/8/14)

Must lose 25 MORE pounds (back thrown out), and reinstating treadmill for such purpose. Still climb and basketball, but more needed so the plateau ENDS. (10/17/14)

After 47 years of playing, I played my last organized basketball game tonight; feels good though. The three-point shot is shot, and climbing embankments is killing the knees. (2/16/15)

Reagan

To keep this week's tweets easy to find, I'm UN-tweeting my three major heroes—Ronald Reagan, Billy Graham and Bill Clinton. Maybe I'll create a second account to follow them later! (11/5/13) [Before I learned about muting]

I LIKE Obama as a man, but he's been about as bad if not worse than Carter. A Reagan-Clinton-like presidency would be ideal, not extremists. (5/15/14)

We've had Washington, Lincoln, JFK, Reagan, FDR and Clinton. WE DESERVE BETTER CANDIDATES WITH BETTER IDEAS! Require it in 2020! #Pledgers! (2/19/15)

Mr. Putin: Tear down this wall of aggression, violence and invasion (in the spirit of the great Ronald Reagan). @Putin @PutinRF_Eng #Ukraine! (2/21/15) [Didn't Trump have something to misspeak about this subject?]

Ronald Reagan would be rolling over in his grave to see the complicit SILENCE of his @RNC party covering and caving to national gay marriage! SHAME! (2/23/15)

Timing WON'T hurt 2016 if we STILL oppose it NOW, even if we lose to the USSC! State's rights IS the Constitutional issue. What Would Reagan Do? #WWRD (2/23/15)

Trust but verify. #RonaldReagan You CAN'T trust North Korea, Russia (post-Gorby), Iran or terrorists as far as you can throw them. Axis of evil! (2/24/15)

Beatles

GREAT #Beatles AXS TV tonight. Greatest band ever; Elvis and Stones and Zeppelin in the top 10, of course. Lennon used his music platform to affect politics. (8/9/14)

Radio

I could probably perform a talk radio host's job, but I could NOT hold their views 100 percent, as EVERY event is spun as us vs. them. Its ALL of us! (12/4/14)

'The reason poor people stay poor is they eat fast food. —#WBAP host; listen to talk radio for entertainment and education, if no centrist shows exist. (2/3/15)

God has skilled me in consulting business strategy and efficiency, Rand D, advertising and architecture; I'm willing to do a CENTRIST-independent talk radio show. (2/18/15)

I am open to ANY radio (or TV) talk show offers on ANY subjects we discussed when I did so to help the world for FREE. AAorg2020@gmail.com. Bye now. (3/2/15)

63. Michael Reagan: Trump is NOT my Father

Referent: <http://bit.ly/1SzUPCC> (1/29/16)

ASK the two Georges (Bushes), Dole, McCain and Romney if Trump fits the GOP standard, GOP voters. He's SO FAR from Reagan you can't measure that distance! (1/1/15)

#WeirdThingsICantUnderstand How anyone can vote for Donald Trump. #NeverTrump (and I've been a Republican since I voted for Ronald Reagan)! (3/8/16)

Don in NO WAY is in the line of legacy of GOP nominees! Character OPPOSITE Reagan, Lincoln, Dole, Romney, Bush, McCain and probably them ALL. #NeverTrump (3/11/16)

Can you IMAGINE Chump equating himself with your GREAT dad for making many policy evolutions? I apologize to you for his horrible comparison! (6/7/16): This most likely would be the 1st time if my father was alive that he would not support the nominee of the GOP. @Reince @newsmax – Michael Reagan (6/6/16)

64. Middle Class (Cf.: Sanders & Clinton, & some GOP'ers)

DO you want to know why CHUMP is touting the middle class? Because we addressed that group's needs WELL before him! Watch the dates on every retweet, following!: (12/17/17)

Romney better keep the standard deduction for renters and low medical bill people, or the middle class will pay higher taxes the rich can afford. (10/29/12)

GREAT support of traditional marriage and promise NOT to increase taxes on the middle class (and anticipated 12 million more jobs), Mr. Romney! (8/31/12)

BOTH parties have their bases locked up (poor vs. rich, excepting philanthropic rich Democrats, like Warren Buffett types). The fight is for the middle class! (12/9/14)

The middle class and swing voters are keys to elections, as are getting turn-outs from non-voters. In any election, both sides usually have a chance to win. (12/16/14)

The middle class DOESN'T want MORE taxes, and may empathize with the poor, but aspires and relates to the rich, more, and want responsible Welfare with their taxes. (12/16/14)

NO misleading TV ads in campaigns. No more ruining workers and the middle class for big business money to keep your campaigns afloat, politicians! #USUnited (12/19/14)

The middle class is where future political campaigns will be won. You don't have to want taxes to help the poor, but QUIT supporting GREED too, swing voters. (12/25/14)

No divisiveness, no spin, no dodging questions, no flip-flopping, no wasted billions campaigning, no ignoring the middle class, for the rich and poor. (1/8/15)

CEO salaries have risen more than 300 percent, as workers stayed the same, yet the middle class doesn't need a tax refund? TYPICAL @GOP logic—favor the rich (Levit. 19:15) (1/20/15)

@BarackObama Poor get health insurance, Welfare, free college; the rich have tax loopholes and havens and NO Buffett rule—WHAT ABOUT THE MIDDLE CLASS? (1/20/15)

WE the middle class will NOT tolerate favoritism of the rich or poor, or being ignored, ourselves! We vote too! (Levit. 19:15) Dust it off and READ it, too! (1/20/15)

YEA! Though I DON'T believe he'll be the GOP nominee, I'm GLAD Jeb (and Hillary, and Mitt) is speaking about the MIDDLE CLASS. <http://bit.ly/1L5o24b> Tax cuts! (1/23/15)

The rich have lawyers and accountants, loopholes, havens and loss offsets. The poor get Welfare and healthcare, maybe subsidized college. WHAT ABOUT THE MIDDLE CLASS? (1/26/15)

THEY are the swing voters! Democrats have the poor, and the GOP have the rich. The race is for the MIDDLE CLASS, and Obama, Hillary and Mitt are planning on it NOW! FINALLY. (1/26/15)

I will repeat: WHAT ABOUT THE MIDDLE CLASS? The rich need no one. The poor need the Dems. The people need you to quit scr_wing the middle class, politicians. (1/26/15)

You can read our past tweets on business and the middle class. With outsourcing, layoffs, pushing the workforce, part-timers, and automation, good luck Charlie. (1/26/15)

Middle class tax cuts are deserved, needed (average wage DECREASED $3,000 under Obama), and politicians MUST start LOWERING their spending our tax dollars, NOW! (1/26/15)

The GOP DESPERATELY needs the religious right, with demographics favoring Hispanics and the middle class. USE that for ALL God's morals vs. just two, church [i.e., anti-gays and abortion]! (1/27/15)

I SUPPORT you for closed borders, NO amnesty, help the middle class, revise Obamacare, and DESTROY terrorists! [GOP] @RepMickMulvaney @RepDesantis @RepMarkMeadows @repjustinamash @RepGarrett @Jim_Jordan (1/29/15)

TRULY support decent pay for the middle class, especially Hispanics and blacks. Roe WON'T be overturned, nor states that passed gay marriage, and the IRS WON'T end. (1/30/15)

The MIDDLE CLASS are the swing voters who decide elections, and "what have you done for me lately?" Wages are down $3,000, 92,000 are unemployed or quit looking. (1/31/15)

At least Democrats offer a tax rebate to the middle class. Your strategists STINK! I can do better job, with NO training or experience. I'm doing it RIGHT HERE (2/5/15)

GOP favors the rich, Dems, the poor. We NEED a party that ALSO represents the swing voter middle class and independents, SOON! Rebel against the system. (2/5/15)

Especially Mitt Romney is encouraged to run, but NOT without addressing the poor and middle class. Just READ our past tweets, and when they were tweeted, if still viewable. (2/20/15)

The poor, workers, the middle class... THOSE are the strugglers, so THOSE are the ones I must care about, because THOSE are the ones Jesus cared about most; not those who have it made. (10/29/15)

65. Morals Much Talked About this Election Cycle (#MoralsMatter)

"A people that values its privileges above its principles soon loses both." #DwightEisenhower #MoralsMatter #DoTheRightThing Mic. 6:8; Jn. 3:16 (1/13/15)

Putin's a perfect example of DELUDED morals. Bribery and corruption are OK, but stopping them is being a troublesome "meddler." I Pet. 4:14 #MoralsMatter (5/28/15)

GOOD lesson from a BAD man, for any DUMB among our youth! <http://fxn.ws/2edNUnL> #DumbedDownAmerica #MoralsMatter Revive us, Lord! USA #1 #Secede (6/29/15)

[RE: Jared Fogle] Another lesson from our past tweet: #MoralsMatter. You must believe there are such things, define them, know that no one is perfect, and KNOW your pitch persons WELL! (8/19/15)

NBC 5 is reporting that two DFW establishments are selling cheap alcohol as upscale liquor (i.e., FRAUD). AGAIN, #MoralsMatter. Sin is always in the news. Jn. 3:16 (8/19/15)

#CharacterCounts #MoralsMatter #IntegritysImportant #DumpTrump Boycott his businesses. WORST characterized GOP in DECADES. You are NO Reagan, "sir!" (9/12/15)

Radio talk show host Mark Davis thinks some will board Trumps LOCO-motive if he gets himself in check, and says his vulgarities "don't matter" in affecting polls. #MoralsMatter (10/14/15)

I'm an antidisestablishmentarianist (I had to add a long word) as any Chump supporters. Maybe the original one with my writings, but #MoralsMatter! Wake UP. (1/2/16)

#MoralsMatter (but NOT to Trump) (1/5/16)

Christians considering voting for #dumpCHUMP need to read and heed Lk. 10:27! Your pastor may not teach you that. I will! #MoralsMatter Zeal AND knowledge! Rom. 10:2 (1/20/16)

NO! #MoralsMatter Though Hillary will TRUMP him, WHO we have represent our nation MATTERS! Character (which is why Bernie's better on the Democrat side, too)! MORALS (1/28/16)

Speaking of #MoralsMatter, analyze moral violations in the tiff between Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez, in their money-making if not feigned song battle: <http://bit.ly/2dftwkI> <http://bit.ly/2dsqY1h> <http://bit.ly/2e7L6ah> I apologize/I'm over you/you were arrogant about your looks, etc. #MoralsMatter (2/4/16)

Chump complains politicians are brutal and dishonest? POW's are losers, insult women's looks, mock the disabled? One NON-politician is JUST THE SAME! #MoralsMatter (2/4/16)

BRILLIANT political move, @POTUS! I saw a headline that Obama is considering a GOP governor for the Supreme Court. Expose their bias about refusing you any nominee! #MoralsMatter, voters! (2/25/16)

Lying and hypocrisy are number one sins we are WATCHING in the 2016 election! Democrats are appearing to have BETTER morals than GOP idolaters for power—SAD! #MoralsMatter (3/10/16)

#MoralsMatter, not JUST do I like this candidate's personality or positions. When anything goes, so goes the country... DOWN THE TUBES. #Trump (3/12/16)

READ MY LIPS, #NeverTrump @FiGovScott <http://on.msnbc.com/2etfMUw> He does NOT represent OUR values! #MoralsMatter; power idolatry is a greater moral value to you? (3/16/16)

EXCELLENT under-heard message! <http://on.msnbc.com/2ebgOQK> @PRyan @SpeakerRyan #MoralsMatter We NEED GOP ethics laws for future GOP presidential campaigns! (3/23/16)

It was TOO apropos to my message about 90 percent of evangelicals living of and in the world. #MoralsMatter Time to disciple, pastors! #NoTimeToWaste! #Church (3/26/16)

for newbies: Several times I've said it's NOT hypocrisy to be imperfect, but it is to set a standard for yourself you do not often live up to. #MoralsMatter when you vote. (4/3/16)

Why do morals matter? Character. Is he a good role model for my kids, if I'm going to elevate him or her to the highest office in the land? #MoralsMatter (4/3/16)

I've said before, a politician's MORALS—NOT her/his religion—is what matters! I voted for Romney (a Mormon), and loved Kennedy (a Catholic). #MoralsMatter (4/4/16)

The women's bathroom line was ten times longer than the men's at a concert. Some states would say just join the shortest line. NOT for Christians and moral people! #MoralsMatter (4/22/16)

He is the WORST GOP NOMINEE EVER! WHAT's the difference between voting for Hitler if he lied and said what you wanted to hear? Please tell me! ~NOTHING! #MoralsMatter (5/4/16)

Finally, if you support Chump, you're able to separate the man from policies the establishment NEEDS to force on him. I can't, as the messenger and #MoralsMatter. (5/5/16)

I spoke to two other GOP's who will vote straight GOP except NOT Chump. #RepublicansNotTrump #NeverTrump Not in a million years! #MoralsMatter! (5/27/16)

Moral turn-coats list (pastors for Trump). I expect GOP pressure to produce MANY more in the next few months! <http://abcn.ws/2dXiyIw> #MoralsMatter, to God at least! (6/26/16)

Trump divides Christians and pastors, yet those firmly pro-ethics among leaders are evil? GOOD article! <http://bit.ly/2ejOH2j> #MoralsMatter He has FEW! (6/27/16)

I'm Guessing Chump goes with the Indiana governor to TRY to sway the religious right vote that he's already courting with the advisor board who DON'T represent the Church much. #MoralsMatter! (7/2/16)

.@MarkDavis said beating Hillary is the goal, but values voters do NOT believe in win at all costs, or with whoever can parrot positions. #MoralsMatter! (7/5/16)

If POLICY is ALL that matters, Trump's been so all over the map, and everything's negotiable; what policies is he for? #MoralsMatter #NeverTrump (7/5/16)

GREAT Christian man, now a sell-out and cheerleader for Trump (Mr. Carson). Even LESS THAN absolute power corrupts some people! #MoralsMatter vs. only parroting policies. (7/20/16)

#DealWithTheReal #MoralsMatter #FactsNotFantasy #BudgetNotBluster #TruthNotLies New campaign slogan suggestions for the REST of the GOP. (7/22/16)

.@MarkDavis simplifies his argument vs. anti-Trumpers as we don't like him. There are a million reasons, and he caused every one! #MoralsMatter, Mark! (8/8/16)

A puppet, robot, monkey or Hitler could parrot the right policies of experts. That would even be better than having Trump, except for Hitler. #MoralsMatter (8/16/16)

#FactsMatter #MoralsMatter Donald Trump does NOT matter. He will SOON be a FAILED has-been, whose BIG mouth won't go away, but his campaign WILL! (9/1/16)

Trump's policies are better? On which day? He's SO general, has a horrible track record for lying and flip-flopping, and has LITTLE character. #MoralsMatter! (9/8/16)

Eric Trump's host said he thinks @TedCruz will cave and endorse Chump. Another moral sell-out for power? I personally DON'T believe so. #MoralsMatter (9/22/16) [I was obviously WRONG]

66. NON-Philanthropic One Percenters (Cf.: Sanders) (Well-After Occupy Wall Streeters Died Down)

There are good and bad executives and CEO's. Getting bonuses for ruining others' financial lives is an immoral pay system that should be illegal, one percenters. (5/1/14)

80 families own ~$2 trillion and by next year the top one percent will own ~1/2 the world's wealth. Hoarding SIN, conservative mantras notwithstanding! @NBCNightlyNews (1/19/15)

@JoeBiden makes an EXCELLENT analogy explaining how the top one percent is NOT taxed much on investment increases, while lesser earnings of others are. —Today Show (1/21/15)

EXCELLENT Bernie Sanders strategy to get on the ballot, and concern for the top one percent earning 99 percent of the wealth. I may have to examine him further if anything like Bill Clinton(?). (4/30/15)

VOTE! Make your voices loud and sustained. DO NOT QUIT or be intimidated by those with money trying to buy off corrupt politicians! Occupy Wall Street, WAKE UP! (5/5/15)

You can mis-name it income equality/gap, or whatever you like, but it's both a FACT and problem. [Non-philanthropic/Non-Giving Pledge] One percenters are rats on the Titanic grabbing it all before the U.S. sinks! (7/24/15)

#AskTheWorldAQuestion Why the combined wealth of the richest one percent will overtake that of the other 99 percent of people? (RT @HashtagsDept, 8/5/15)

Fifty-eight percent of the new income generated in this country from 2009-2014 went to the top one percent. <http://bit.ly/23kTR1b> (RT @BernieSanders, 8/26/15)

Today, the top one percent owns 4one percent of wealth in this country. Meanwhile, the bottom 60 percent owns less than two percent of the nation's wealth. (RT @BernieSanders, 8/26/15)

NO, I have NOT lost my mind and gone for Bernie, but his account has been here so long I decided to see what policies I agreed with. It's called objectivity. (8/27/15)

Executive over-pay also makes consumers spend more for products they want and need. The ONLY people for it are the one percent/over-paid executives! FIX it, voters! We CAN! (9/13/15)

GOOD Democrat policies: Be for workers, increase the minimum wage, DON'T end the IRS or estate tax, some income inequality remedied, tax the one percenters more, down some pollution! (10/14/15)

.@MarkDavis bemoans that 2/3 of taxes are paid by the top ten percenters, and is "immoral," though Sanders says 99 percent of 'new' income is going to the top one percent. Tax one percenters MORE! Lk. 12:48 (10/14/15)

...on big business abuses, pro worker (and business), pro a minimum wage increase, one percenters not under-paying taxes with loopholes. Other than that, I have VERY little in common with [Bernie]. (2/10/16)

...Asked why I believe one percenters should pay more if loopholes have them paying less than their tax bracket. Even Mike Gallagher addressed that today. READ OUR BOOKS. (2/9/16)

67. North Carolina LGBT Public Bathroom Law
(See also: Gay Marriage Backlash)

EXCELLENT, Lance Berkman! Urinals are in rooms for MALES ONLY! <http://fxn.ws/1RL9ivy>
#PrivacyLawsMatter Hometown #Astros HERO #GenderConfusion (10/13/15)

MOST viewers did NOT see our push or full legal argument against gay marriage last year, but it's NOT in our books as the issue's national, settled law now. Politicians saw it! (3/26/16)

Exhibit D (and but one tweet of that exact same tweet to a total of 30 pastors addressed) that STARTED the anti-gay marriage push last Mar-May! (3/26/16)

JUST AS I tweeted to 30 major pastors last March: If the Supreme Court (SCOTUS) doesn't hear any opposition, gay marriage WILL pass. We spoke, but too late and too few! (3/26/16)

Remember, LGBT are 03 percent of the U.S. population, NOT 30 percent. DON'T get dyslexic with your numbers, #Georgia and #NorthCarolina #FreedomOfReligion freedom vs. FROM it! (3/26/16)

Bottom line, gays CRAVE being considered "normal" by everyone, and will force their lifestyles on society using activist judges, if there's NO pushback! (3/26/16)

America needs God more than God needs America. If we ever forget that we are One Nation Under God, then we'll be a nation gone under. —Ronald Reagan (RT @Jstines3, 3/26/16)

Crazy nation! Morality has lost its roots as the foundation of our nation, so our house built on sand is eroding into the sea with every new wave! (3/26/16)

The GOP wants NO SCOTUS appointment of any sort, though NOT in power; Democrats prefer a liberal justice. NO middle ground anymore, just all-out war? Trump riots? (3/26/16)

Everyone trying to make everyone else into THEIR own image. It IS a sign of Bible prophecy, mirroring a judgment-facing nation. Judg. 21:25 Be warned! (3/26/16)

Freedom to choose is NOT as valued a virtue as in the past in the U.S. Girls trying to force a NON-Trump vote by withholding sex, and the NFL and Disney vs. Georgia's religious rights. (3/26/16)

Slowly, like the proverbial frog in boiling water, our nation sinks into the abyss. A CLEAR prophecy sign but who cares if my wallets fat as ZZ Top said? (3/26/16)

The church's head-in-the-sand for mega church growth and church-as-a-business CAUSED (in large part) gay marriage to occur. NO continued failures, church! (3/26/16)

It's the old Ben and Jerry's vs. Chic-Fil-A! Liberal and conservative businesses expressing political values in the neutral economic arena. Red vs. blue state fights! (3/26/16)

ASSUME businesses WON'T change unless bottom line changes for the negative, and enough people are hurt by it. If FEW care, business can dominate Georgia lawmakers. #WeThePeople! (3/26/16)

THAT's why I tell U.S. pastors discipling is REQUIRED IMMEDIATELY. The sinful condition of church contributes to cultural decline! It starts with pastors! (3/26/16)

IF Georgia fixes the law and those two businesses still boycott, all values voters SHOULD boycott the NFL and Disney. I BET they WON'T, as morals aren't important enough. (3/26/16)

Are we NOW all going to use whatever leverage we have to insist on our-way-or-the-highway, like the NFL and Disney in Georgia? If their law was better, I'd defend Georgia. (3/26/16)

Buyer beware if you use a public bathroom in California and you don't want to risk a male pervert dressed up like a female in a gal's rest room. Same for California visitors to North Carolina! (3/26/16)

Nothing EXPLICIT in the Constitution about the right to go to the bathroom in either sex's venues. Can't California stay liberal as a culture, and the South not so? If you visit CA, you know their ways. (3/26/16)

A coming social conflict is when is a state's rights issue a national concern? Cali allows trans in any public restroom; North Carolina does NOT. Leave it like that!? (3/26/16)

STAND FIRM @NCGOP @PatMcCroryNC on public rest rooms! The San Fran mayor has ZERO enforcement capability over his city's people. Protect women! Pro-women (and men)! (3/26/16)

68. Obama Ties Trump to Republicans

Referent: <http://on.msnbc.com/2ddj39s>

Betrayal is what Trump has done to the GOP's reputation and honor, but that's another issue some don't want to face. Democrats will tie his antics to honorable politicians. (10/12/16)

69. Obama Calls Out Politicizing the FBI

Referent: <http://bit.ly/2fnC09D> (later, on the day of 11/4/16)

This is BIG! FBI 100 percent DIS-credited as politicized now. Rudy the Runt knew of Comey report two days before! <https://on.msnbc.com/2fCEdzp> Corrupt Trump! (11/4/16)

yourself! Ignore it, or have surrogates speak for you. It's not that impactful a problem—I just HATE corruption from either party! I wish the media would cover it more! (11/4/16)

Democrats have good and bad policies, as with Republicans. When will we the people learn this, and insist/demand better results and offerings from politicians? SOON, I hope! (8/8/14)

If "We the people" do NOT rise up and demand more and better results from our politicians, we get EXACTLY what we deserve—FAILED status quo! (8/10/14)

"We the people" is NOT "They the politicians." Government of, by and for the people! To be dumbed-down is to go down in defeat! I want U.S. #1 again. (8/30/14)

For @RealDonaldTrump ("Chump") to apologize for his horrendous 14-month campaign would be to deny and renounce what won him the GOP nomination! (10/7/16)

Sin is NOT determined by if people are offended, and HOW can one be a Christian if they've sinned so often, publicly for 14 months, and only apologized ONCE? (10/7/16)

The EPITOME if a person getting saved is, by God's grace alone, they feel sorry they've sinned, and know they need forgiveness. Faith is NOT arrogance compatible (10/7/16)

The standards for Presidential candidates are NOT Mother Teresa or Hitler, but in-between, and likely past candidates. Trump is FAR below any respect levels! (10/7/16)

[Private account] Lewd conversation recorded of Donald Trump given to the Washington Post. Trump talking about a woman. (10/7/16)

72. Paul Ryan for Speaker

Referent: <http://bit.ly/1Q9rv0l> (10/29/15)

Your nation is calling you. Will you HEED their call? @RepPaulRyan <http://on.msnbc.com/1jrbN88>
You CAN bridge the GOP divides! Mark 3:25, the Bible (10/9/15)

Your Packers won! Is THAT omen enough for you to be our Speaker of the House, as you insinuated (positive results)? @RepPaulRyan #JUSTdoIt! (10/11/15)

Paul Ryan updates-<http://politi.co/1SWYs4A> <http://nbcnews.to/1SH0EKS> <http://cnb.cx/1SWYsS5>
#AnyoneButTrump (and ~Cruz) #NeverTrump! #GOP #RNC (3/16/16)

.@PaulRyan would be an EXCELLENT third party Presidential candidate IF it wouldn't sacrifice his Speaker's job to do so! @ChuckTodd To see my support of him, see our next retweets: (3/16/16)

GREAT news!-<http://fxn.ws/1YIGIBA> One of my GREAT heroes, you're ROCKING it today!
<http://on.msnbc.com/1UQNL79> @PRyan @SpeakerRyan #GOP #RNC (3/17/16)

73. Paul Ryan Offers GOP Agenda ("Conspiracy" Against Trump?)

Referent: <http://nbcnews.to/2dQDZCd> (10/14/16)

GOP leaders SHOULD prepare to fight for Obamacare revision, middle class tax cuts, Supreme Court picks, climate change moderation, and ignore Trumps campaign! (9/3/16)

SMART! @SenateGOP <http://on.msnbc.com/2erqtU0> Identify issues worth opposing (vs. not), make arguments, unite and fight BAD policies! Contract with America! (9/3/16)

The GOP has failed to convince a majority that their nominee's worth voting for. They SHOULD HAVE separated from him with their OWN agenda/Contract with America vs. sink with the ship! (9/3/16)

Repeat: Confirm Garland, set the agenda for a revised Contract with America, and POLITELY separate from Trump without insulting/disrespecting him. @GOP @RNC (9/4/16)

There IS no GOP unity @SpeakerRyan and your and other's silence is DEPLORABLE! It's NOT anything for power. <http://abcn.ws/2e28Ttm> Hang with a pig, you get DIRTY! (10/7/16)

WHO advised @GOP @RNC to disassociate from but not criticize Chump MANY times, and make a NEW Contract with America? Yours truly! (10/8/16)

EXCELLENT! @SpeakerRyan "Republicans unite in condemnation of Trump audio denigrating women." (10/8/16)

EXCELLENT decision NOT to associate, but to push GOP's for VICTORY! <http://n.pr/2eCfCz>
@SpeakerRyan You're my favorite D.C. politician, and I SO respect your morals (10/10/16)

Foolish/unnecessary in-fighting brought about by the Divider-N-Chief. Reince NEVER united the factions, as we advised MANY times. (10/11/16)

Trump supporters: GOP 'RINO' "leaders" NEVER took my advice to unite our party with a revised Contract with America. Hence, the GOP division continues. (10/12/16)

You can blame that SOLELY on Reince and the like! Brokers, facilitators, mediators, peace-makers LEAD. Errand boys just say 'fall in line—or else.' (10/12/16) [See: Post-Trump GOP message...]

The GOP has ALWAYS been for these principles (something Reince SHOULD have had town hall meetings about all across the country for six months, but DIDN'T!) (10/12/16)

.@ChrisSalcedoTX doesn't get @SpeakerRyan move. Easy! If you're a Republican and want to vote for Trump—do, but by all means vote for all other GOP's! It's NOT complicated. (10/12/16)

AKA Every GOP politician has to do what will win them reelection. "Vote Republican" needs to be their mantra, defined by my past tweet. Don't oppose Trump; be yourself. (10/12/16)

GOP politicians SHOULD mouth "vote Republican," and NOT be against Trump, but not reveal if they're voting for him; endorse if you want to. @SpeakerRyan #Salcedo (10/12/16)

Losing the White House for four years is NOT the end of the world. Losing it and both houses IS, politically-speaking. @SpeakerRyan @ChrisSalcedoTX (10/12/16)

If one's too stupid to vote for who they want, and not blame any other politician for another's issues, they're too stupid to vote. Vote for ALL GOP's, unless there are any you can't support! (10/12/16)

[Salcedo responds:] @JamesMeroney @SpeakerRyan But what about Trump voters who may take out Ryan's betrayal on other members? It's about addition, no? (10/12/16)

Betrayal is what Trump's done to GOP's reputation and honor, but that's another issue some don't want to face. Democrats will tie his antics to honorable politicians. (10/12/16)

2016 has been the WORST political season since Nixon's resignation and JFK's demise. You can pin that 100 percent and exclusively on Donald Trump—PERIOD! (10/14/16)

I've suggested this before, but the @GOP @RNC MUST adopt RULES describing who is a true Republican for future races! No more Democrat mole possibilities! (10/14/16)

The GOP platform has played NO role in this election. A stack of paper gathering dust! Wasted bureaucrat scribble. It OUGHT not be this way! @RNC (10/14/16)

Why the @GOP never thought to adopt a revised Contract with America I'll NEVER know. It certainly is leadership incompetence! Trump is no standard bearer for any party! (10/14/16)

SO darn excellent! That's leadership, and protecting the party brand, @SpeakerRyan!
<http://nbcnews.to/2eCfhHK> SO proud of you! GOP bosom buddies. (10/14/16)

Have an inspiring 10-point vision of what Republicanism is, with powerful Republicans stumping for down-ballot candidates! @SpeakerRyan <http://on.msnbc.com/2e6oYLQ> Only three weeks left! (10/16/16)

EVERY GOP candidate should stand on your own merits, and express pride in GOP values. There is NO NEED to diss or praise Trump! @GOP @RNC Be your own woman, or man! (10/16/16)

74. Paul Ryan's National Ad

Referent: <http://bit.ly/1SNUKrw> (4/8/16)

Instead of voting novelty (i.e., the first African-American, or woman), why not try those with the BEST IDEAS, as Jason Mattera said? Too practical and too helpful? (9/16/14)

NO political personality means much to me—ONLY their positions on issues. People come and go in D.C., but GOOD/common sense principles are lasting! (12/25/14)

“What really bothers me the most about politics these days is this notion of identity politics: That we’re going to win an election by dividing people, rather than inspiring people on our common humanity and our common ideals and our common culture on the things that should unify us. We all want to be prosperous. We all want to be healthy. We want everybody to succeed. We want people to reach their potential in their lives. Now, liberals and conservatives are going to disagree with one another on that. No problem. That’s what this is all about. So let’s have a battle of ideas. Let’s have a contest of whose ideas are better and why our ideas are better.” (4/7/16) [Note themes we addressed several times, in italics]

75. Pay Equally-Qualified Women Equally (Cf.: Sanders)

Democrats are GOOD on protecting the environment and animals, helping the poor, opposing race and job discrimination, helping the elderly, decrying greed and equal pay. (5/15/14)

Equal pay for women is a no-brainer! Paid sick leave hurts business, a GOP stronghold you’d love to attack. GREAT—you live on $15,000 (low) minimum wage if you’re for that! (1/21/15)

I’m PRO equal pay for equally-qualified women. So is the pope. <http://on.msnbc.com/1MubySR> (4/29/15)

GLAD to see the push for equal pay for equally-qualified women! It’s ONLY fair. <http://on.msnbc.com/1L9T6le> (5/21/15)

...poor and elderly, equal pay for women, no animal cruelty, starvation or genocide; worker safety, livable wage, etc. Neither side has moral monopoly. (9/29/15)

Watching the #DemDebate. I’m pro equal pay for women, IF equally qualified. I know LITTLE of this actress’ skills compared to male cohorts. <http://on.msnbc.com/1XnOgUa> (10/13/15)

...and it is NOT conservatives who advocated for Social Security (for the elderly), and anti-abortion is SEEN (wrongly) as anti-women, as with conservatives opposing equal pay by the ERA, Hannity! (3/17/16)

76. Politicians: Be More Entertaining! (i.e., the media is a business, and needs ratings)

It’s about P.R., getting attention; for business, it’s for ratings and customers; for politicians, it’s for supporters and voters. DON’T BE A sheep! Think INDEPENDENTLY! (12/13/14)

EDUCATION of ‘We the American people’ is ESSENTIAL. Our book is simple, yet detailed and entertaining. Educate yourself, or you are the problem vs. the solution! (1/6/15)

IF you haven’t noticed, we are an equal opportunity offender for entertainment, enlightenment and to teach people to THINK! NOT P.C., but not evil, by grace. (1/17/15)

On the other side, ignore the poor, and greed is good. NEITHER political party has a monopoly on morals. See our use of figures of speech? Entertainment (2/23/15)

I made it rhyme, so maybe it’s more palatable to our society! Always entertain, and don’t bore me with the facts P.C. generation. S-a-a-a-d! (2/23/15)

77. Politicians: Speak At a Third Grade Level (to be understood; not childishy raucous, like Trump)

Every significant topic (115 total) is covered in our book, with common sense answers every third grader can understand and be entertained by. READ it! (11/14/14)

ALL these #CommonSense SOLUTIONS are detailed in our book, in language a third grader can understand, and hopefully find entertaining. READ it! (12/23/14)

78. Politicians: Speak the Truth! (Rump tries, by 'speaking his mind,' but reveals his heart and lies)

A huge percent don't trust their own government, BECAUSE THEY LIE so often. Lying was the original sin we bought in the Garden of Eden, and is opposite the Bible! (9/10/14)

NO MORE lobbyist interests TRUMPING those of mainstream America (the voice of the people)! NO MORE sin-full lies from politician (for money, or votes). (12/16/14)

NO MORE apathetic or uninformed voters, who LET politicians get away with murder, because we're busy, or disillusioned with THEIR games, lies and tricks! (12/16/14)

No slandering your opponent, and no government lying. Fines, or lose your position with too many instances of such! No more NON-moral "leaders!" #Politics (12/19/14)

IF any 2016 D.C. politician lies, flip-flops, demonizes, hides truth, misleads, tap dances or side-steps, we'll be sure to tell you about it, here. #Accountability. (12/22/14)

EVEN NOW 'We the people' can the INFLUENCE 2016 election by demanding common sense policies, NO lying and minimal fighting! You are politicians' BOSSES! (12/23/14)

READ our book, and DEMAND it be implemented. I mean no lies, no lip service... DOing it, vs. party line red meat positions with little REAL action! #JustDoIt (12/23/14)

NO MORE platitudes and one-liners from D.C. politicians! ONLY results. Your career is in our hands, and we are watching your deeds and votes, NOT your lies and promises! (1/8/15)

No games, no lobbyist money over-influence, no lying, no demonizing, no self-promoting, no 100 percent party loyalty, no pretending to cooperate with the other side, no bad laws. (1/8/15)

NO MORE liars, thieves, self-serving, abusive, manipulative, ego maniac dumb politicians in Washington! We the people rule America—NOT them! (1/8/15)

WE THE PEOPLE are the power, and I am TIRED of tricks and inaction and lies. I will NOT tolerate it anymore, and am willing to put my b_t on the line! (1/14/15)

I officially call for lie detectors to be made available anytime politicians in Washington speak! LIARS by spin, omission and misleading distraction. LIES. (1/30/15)

Lying politicians are NOT leaders. I could care LESS what office they hold, or how much money they have—they are sinners, unworthy of your vote! TRUTH. (2/12/15)

If EVERY American doesn't stand up to ALL lying politicians and NOT vote for them, those Americans are 100 percent to blame for Americans' problems. Grow a brain, folks. (2/13/15)

The song HONESTY, by Billy Joel should be Pledger's theme song in 2020, vs. Liar, by Three Dog Night, which should be most politicians' theme song, today! (2/15/15)

79. Pro American Worker (Cf.: Sanders; ~Trump)

If we want our economy to grow, we need to treat our workers with dignity and respect. #NewLeadership <http://bit.ly/1S7zQ9a> (RT @MartinOMalley 8/19/15)

GREAT JOB @ScottWalker! A red line made of crayons! Big business' OUTSOURCED JOBS hurt U.S. workers MUCH MORE than illegals (if they don't take jobs Americans want), @RickSantorum. Way to get media coverage! (8/20/15)

The MAJORITY in America DON'T support small government, but are OK with a medium-size, and don't fear all government does is evil, or see workers as inferior slaves! (8/20/15)

Chump's ZERO corporate tax plan means business pays not one dime for government costs, but you the hard-working American worker DO! All this (Elton John's) Levon does is for HIM and his money! (8/21/15)

Here's the massive pay gap between CEO's and workers <http://huff.to/1oU82dV> (RT @jsyche 8/27/15)

And conservative theory calls for a "flat (or fair) tax." First, WHEN has big business actions I JUST described cared about "fairness" to employees and workers? They layoff, outsource, part-time jobs, ending health benefits, mergers, robotize, streamline, automate, work retained talent harder. FAIRNESS? Only for them. (8/29/15)

P.S.: Conservative theory ALSO is for ENDING the estate tax. That's EVEN MORE government expenses NOT paid for with less money available for Uncle Sam's operating costs! Duh. (8/29/15)

Good-paying jobs for you? Business ALWAYS wants to pay peanuts if it can get away with it, for that benefits them; it's called "what the market will bear." (8/29/15)

They work the existing work force HARDER, manipulate stock prices so over-paid executives get richer with bonuses and with wanting NO higher taxes to play these games with. (8/29/15)

They downsize, streamline, layoff, create multiple part-time jobs, merge, automate, robotize and reward the rich with BONUSES for so doing! And how do YOU benefit? (8/29/15)

And HOW do we know businesses flush with cash from Trump's ZERO taxes will create jobs for YOU? Big business has PROVEN they hoard war chests and outsource jobs! (8/29/15)

SOME regulations need eliminating, but we also sometimes need more regulations; whatever keeps business honest, ethical profitable, and protects consumers. (8/29/15)

Do you REALLY think one person (i.e., a President) can create MANY jobs? By lowering taxes and regulations? There's Congress to deal with, and helping ONLY business will aid mainly executives and the rich. (8/29/15)

TRUE conservatives would ship all jobs away if it saved them a buck, and even would move away if taxes weren't at their selfishly desirable level. WHO'S THE BOSS HERE? We the people! (9/1/15)

The U.S. MUST secure our borders, FIX over-outsourcing and over-immigration that hurts American workers' wages and job prospects, destroy ISIS and reduce our debt, etc. (3/11/16)

80. Pro Closing the Border

I take GOOD ideas from anywhere. Donnie is GOOD on closed borders, MacArthur-like general against ISIS, and arming military recruiters. I said similar things before he did. (7/20/15)

I've stated where I LOVE conservative theory! STRONG military/defense, STRONG economy, lowest taxes and regulations NEEDED, controlled borders and defeating ISIS. Beyond those big four I'm more a centrist. NOT a moderate, as there's nothing moderate about me—I'm ZEALOUS for these beliefs to be IMPLEMENTED! (8/24/15)

Funny, to me: When I advocate the Big Four conservative ideas, "RINO's" (NOT my term) are OK with them—lower debt, end ISIS, better economy and control our borders. But if I advocate altered conservative economic theory (i.e., DON'T end minimum wage, welfare, estate tax; raise minimum wage a bit, Giving Pledge, etc.) conservatives DESPISE it! (10/1/15)

Securing the border is OBVIOUSLY job one, or you're addressing cleaning the boat when you still have a hole that's flooding it! Duh 101. (10/3/15)

You've GOT TO appease the conservative base, but do so sincerely. They have legitimate gripes!: Close our borders, defeat ISIS, improve the economy our lower debt as their BIG Four! (10/7/15)

Conservatives are GREAT on closed borders, defeating ISIS, fixing the economy and lowering our debt. EVERY group has positives and negatives; ONLY support the positives! (1/20/16)

Specifically, income inequality and caring for the poor on one hand, and closed borders, defeating ISIS and making America number one again on the other hand. ALL provable. (3/2/16)

RINO compromisers and Obama's ineptness with ISIS, debt, border control and Obamacare ALL brought about Trump! (3/10/16)

The GOP would be FOOLS to HURT U.S.'s already damaged international standing from where we were greater (in earlier days)! <http://cbsn.ws/1qApQw2> (3/10/16)

81. Pro Defeating ISIS Soundly

Twitter search: #KillAllTerrorists

Je Suis al-Kasasbeh! Figure that one out on your own. You've GOT TO LEARN TO THINK, America! #Jordan #PilotHERO #Abdullah #ISISdogs #KillALLterrorists! (2/6/15)

It's 100 percent IRRATIONAL to have one ounce of concern about any U.S. helping ISIS by anything we do or say. Help them with bombing the Hell out of them! Duh 101! #TodayShow (2/20/15)

EXCELLENT! Keep up the good work against ISIS, @BarackObama @POTUS #KillAllTerrorists (7/5/15)

Je Suis al-Kasasbeh! Figure that one out on your own. You've GOT TO LEARN TO THINK, America! #Jordan #PilotHERO #Abdullah #ISISdogs #KillALLterrorists! (7/5/15)

Humanitarian and charity agencies (religious and secular) do what they can with displaced people, but the SOLUTION is: #KillALLterrorists, Obama. (8/1/15)

The powers that be HEARD our opposition to gay marriage. Now unite and be loud for the U.S. to defeat ISIS and #KillALLterrorists, U.S. church (PLEASE @RonnieFloyd) (8/2/15)

GREAT job @POTUS! I'm ALWAYS happy to see another terrorist dead. #KillAllTerrorists Hackers held accountable is ALSO grand! <http://fxn.ws/1oM93Vk> (8/27/15)

STUPID decision, E.U.! NO nation must bear the PRIMARY burden for refugees!
<http://fxn.ws/1Od3Zeg> Destroy ISIS and the problem goes away. Mini nuke(s)! (10/2/15)

Iraq's Saddam knew [that], so he used "human shields" to protect his elites, preying on human sympathy to keep his evil soul alive. #KillAllTerrorists! (10/3/15)

Twitter search #KillAllTerrorists! I've been saying this all year, and Obama will NOT choose that strategy! WEAK. Weakness empowers bullies. Duh. (11/13/15)

Embarrassing: Obama tepid against terror, and Democrats CAN'T SAY "radicalized Islam terrorists." You vote for them, the U.S. get bombed from WEAKNESS! #KillAllTerrorists! (11/17/15)

At LEAST he heard you, America! Time will tell if words match action. #KillAllTerrorists!

The ONLY legitimate rules of engagement are: #KillAllTerrorists! <http://fxn.ws/1OPafCM> Innocents need to evacuate any ISIS areas, but are NOT our problem! (10/7/16)

82. Pro Minimum Wage Increase

Herman Cain hurts the poor (ending minimum wage), then flip flops to help them by paying zero (9-0-9) on slave labor wages. Is he schizophrenic? (10/25/11)

Congratulations! <http://on.msnbc.com/1iROBj8> @BernieSanders @SenSanders Doing GOOD addressing higher minimum wage and executive over-pay! #RichPrivilege (9/6/15)

VERY impressive @BenCarson debate idea of an entry-level minimum wage and a sustainable one for permanent low-ebb workers! Congratulations! (10/3/15)

End minimum wage? Does anyone in their right mind think business (always wanting the lowest expenses and highest profits) paying MORE (vs. peanuts) would ensue? (10/21/15)

Not everyone deserves a minimum wage! Some deserve to earn LESS. As in Taos, NM a few times, sometimes it's hard to get workers with a good work ethic! #EntitlementMindset (1/1/16)

Poo poo a minimum wage increase, GOP, and you HURT your own cause, as the rich and executives get richer and donate to your causes. Shooting yourselves in the foot with an A-K-47! (1/3/16)

Unless and until Welfare is NOT competitive with a minimum wage job, freebie recipients of ALL stripes will vote Democrat. Has America outsourced our future? (1/15/16)

I've been PRO helping the poor, increasing minimum wage and calling out any politicians' negatives for two election cycles (unbeknownst to many): (1/22/16)

83. Pro $3,000 Middle Class Tax Rebate (Cf.: Clinton; ~Trump)

Referents: <http://trib.in/1Webiy7> (9/28/15)

<http://wapo.st/1NloWhb> (9/28/15)

Hillary AGREED with our position of a $3,000 middle class tax CUT. I'm NOT against a hike on the rich, but ONLY after government is FULLY streamlined. <http://fxn.ws/1VHV28e> (5/13/14)

The FIRST political party to propose a $3,000 tax rebate to the middle class would WIN in 2016, paid for by one percenters or the ultra-rich with less than a secretary's tax percent. (5/28/15)

The middle and lower classes MUST unite political power and ONLY support politicians who agree with this view! The middle class DESERVE $3,000 tax refund; the poor have over-Welfare. (7/24/15)

84. Republicans FAIL Talking Romney Out of Running!

Referent: <http://nbcnews.to/2e16M9G> (10/17/16)

I have NOT been as ashamed and embarrassed in 10+ years of my prior GOP as letting #Romney leave for Jeb. I'm as sad as when a friend died last month! (1/31/15)

#MittRomney could STILL win with Powell or Rice as VP. Wait until Jeb and Chris falter, then enter! I KNOW this will never happen. BAD decision to QUIT! (2/25/15)

@RNC @GOP I HOPE you're following poll results STILL showing CHUMP leading most places. Please take #RomneyRubio2016 MUCH more urgently and seriously! (12/3/15)

Skitzo idiot was friends with Carson until he got behind. Bi-polar, two-faced! <http://fxn.ws/2ehfNeQ> #DumpTrump #RomneyRubio2016 for GOP's BEST chance! (12/3/15)

HOW MANY times MUST I say this: #RomneyRubio2016! <http://fxn.ws/2ezeY0m> Fox News Poll @GOP @RNC LISTEN vs. ignore! NO Chump or Carson for a WIN! (12/22/15)

I want to CRY with this result! <http://on.msnbc.com/2ehf6lw> @GOP @RNC @MittRomney #RomneyRubio2016 if you want any chance to beat HillBillary! #JustDoIt! (12/23/15)

Twitter search #RomneyRubio2016 and see WHO's been the most prolific and one of the EARLIEST supporters! I would LOVE a job in a @MittRomney administration! (11/23/15)

Brokered convention for #RomneyRubio2016 @MittRomney "If a Cruz-type is leading the polls, I might consider entering the race" (paraphrased) (12/14/15)

With Chump-Cruz, the GOP seals its fate at expanding the tent for minorities! DUMBEST move EVER. I'm SO disappointed! #RomneyRubio2016 (10/16/15)

I'm LITERALLY not for any GOP'er, at present. They ALL bore me quite a bit. I'm just NOT for Hillary. #RomneyRubio2016 would have been the closest race in 2016! (1/9/16)

STILL true!: I DON'T want Hillary or Chump! BAD YEAR FOR AMERICAN POLITICAL RESULTS! Entertaining, though. #RomneyRubio2016 was MUCH better, @GOP (2/21/16)

Twitter search #RomneyRubio and #RomneyRubio2016 Who's the MOST prolific advocate from WAY back? Yours truly @MittRomney, Reagan #2, and GOP HERO! (6/30/16)

I wouldn't care either way, as I was never a Cruz guy. ONLY when Rubio quit, and only to defeat Chump. I always wanted #RomneyRubio2016; GOP LOSS! (10/22/16)

85. Republicans: Prepare for Hillary [See explanation at: Why I Became a Democrat]

Referent: <http://on.msnbc.com/2aBYst7> (8/4/16)

EVERY Republican needs to unite and advocate ten GOP principles for America to ensure their election and reelection. DISTANCE YOURSELVES FROM CHUMP! You've got to WIN!

1-Smaller government; 2-lower debt; 3-closed borders; 4-grow the economy; 5-national defense; 6-better education; 7-reform Welfare; 8-better healthcare system; 9-all energy with less pollution; 10-law and order. I don't hear anyone advocating anything—just tap dancing around Trump! @GOP @RNC

Those were NOT in priority order, but randomly listed, but they are top 10. IF the GOP is a brand, you have a RIGHT to promote it, despite Chump's acts!

The GOP has been here before Chump, and will be here after he leaves. WHO is defending its honor, as Chump so badly represents it? Does anyone care anymore, @GOP?

No one reads the platform! I won't, and I'm into politics. ADVOCATE PUBLICLY and LOUDLY SOON for long-lasting GOP principles that will out-live Chump, @RNC!

Boehner, McConnell, Ryan would be a GREAT trilogy to advocate those ten principles, and unite and meet the press as a united team. Don't trash Chump.

Don't praise him either. Just say you've been elected to raise high the GOP banner and brand, and that's what you're doing, as campaigns are more than just Presidents!

PLEASE start advocating the ten GOP principles I just detailed to promote the brand, apart from just one Republican running for President! @SpeakerBoehner @SenateMajLdr @SpeakerRyan

If you tie the GOP's success and reputation on the ups or downs of one Presidential candidate, you'll start getting the reputation as LOSERS. Brand is greater than a man! The GOP is greater and bigger than Trump.

The @RNC @GOP NEED to start detailing Hillary's LACK of accomplishments, and her failures. Get off just emails, Benghazi, and not just 'she lies/is evil!'

Tout GOP divisions as diversity of viewpoints, allowing independent views the best interest of solutions for America's problems vs. group think sheep, #GOP.

I hear NOTHING of down-ballot GOP's helping each other to win. ALL focus is on a losing cause (Trump) vs. a landslide victory of all but Chump this year!

Leaders lead and set vision. You can't just REACT to Chump's many errors. DO YOUR JOB independent of him doing great or horrible; you lead a TEAM, sirs.

The GOP brand is going to be tied to Chump's MANY failings in 2020, and you know Democrats will try to make that connection. SHOW A BETTER SIDE OF OUR PARTY, sirs!

I'll help in any way I can. The answers are SO easy, and a win is quite easy (even against Hillary), but I WON'T advise Chump, as I want him to lose! He's a bad, fake GOP.

The GOP used to pride itself as the party of thinking more than feelings, and of morals and religion. That's why Trump is NOT its representative, though he won the nomination! #GOP

Please read my message from today so THIS doesn't happen! <http://nbcnews.to/2dEBZfx> @RNC @GOP I've told you MANY times Trump HURTS the GOP's reputation!

Continued to Hound the Topic:

What issues are the GOP going to strategize to agree with Hillary on, and how can they get equal credit for it is also what #GOP #RNC should be focused on. (8/9/16)

What issues are the GOP going to strategize to kill by gridlock of Hillary's announced program? THAT's what #GOP #RNC ought to be focusing on! (8/9/16)

I HOPE you're already planning a strategy to defeat any bad Hillary policies! @GOP @RNC To not do so is I and incompetent. Be ready to battle 1/21/17! (8/27/16)

Republican leaders SHOULD prepare to fight for Obamacare revision, a middle class tax cut, fight her Supreme Court pick(s), fight for climate change moderation, and ignore Trump's campaign! (9/3/16)

Referent: <http://on.msnbc.com/1jsN5F6> (10/16/15)

You NEED this reminder: McCain, Romney, _____. The third time losing is NOT the charm. Hillary's no 2008 Obama, and a sincerely revised Mitt could beat her! (5/2/15)

EXCELLENT, needed pressure to be their BEST! @Reince <http://on.msnbc.com/1Gjh1xe> Third time White House LOSS is NOT the charm! #RomneyRubio2016 is your BEST shot! (10/16/15)

It's I told you so time, so "I told you so!" Some do-do kicked Romney to the curb, ensuring a Hillary victory. The third time is not the charm, but a STRIKE OUT! (2/16/16)

The third time is NOT the charm, GOP, but a strike out! I warned you SO long ago NOT to abandon Romney, and you had a WEAK field this year. Loss, loss, loss! (3/8/16)

Version 1

(1/29/16)

You're LUCKY George Bush kept us ALL safe after 9-11, and couldn't distinguish between who deserved that protection, or not, CHUMP! YOU are a "loser!"

Pre-teens make fun of faces (Fiorina, Paul). My 13 year olds have GROWN up enough to not do such things anymore, if they ever did, #DumpTrump!

The SAME MINDLESS spirit that propelled Obama to hysterical masses eight years ago is alive again in support of Chump, and they can't even see it! DUMB!

I could shoot a person and lose no support. That's how STUPID your followers are for you, and how ARROGANT you are. NOT virtues, says your "favorite" book, Donnie Chump.

I'm going to take care of the Christians? WE I NEED THE DEVIL'S MAN PROMISING US ANYTHING! Get saved today, Donnie; Jn. 3:16 God will protect YOU then.

I love the Bible; my favorite book (though I can't even rightly name one of the largest books of the New Testament)—LIAR! @RealDonaldTrump Pants on fire!

I'm very, very smart. You may be smart (very, very is an exaggeration). You're very, very arrogant and God sees all; he whom you've never asked forgiveness from.

I'm very, very rich. WHO GIVES A DA_N, @RealDonaldTrump. You will be destitute in Hell or completely broke if you for any reason are Heaven-bound. BROKE.

"I've had many women" does NOT mean as secretaries or partners, but sexual exploitation. DO YOU HAVE ANY MORALS, CHUMP SUPPORTERS? The answer is obvious.

He was close with Hillary (she went to his wedding). Do you REALLY believe he's a conservative at heart? THEN YOU ARE STUPID, LOW IQ, FOOLED and DECEIVED. You are a SHAME!

He claimed graduating number one from Wharton, but such claim can be proved or disproved. Bottom line, chameleon lies all the time! You supporters don't care! DUMB.

He took legal, personal advantage of our bankruptcy laws, and we consider him a biz wiz? Taxpayers bailed him out when he's richer than most! DUMB!

I would NEVER insult a disabled person? LOOK AT THE VIDEO! NO ONE accidentally shrivels their arms to emote. NO ONE ASKS Trump to undergo a LIE DETECTOR. WHY? Are you scared?

The right question to ask was NOT is that your real hair, but has any person outside yourself ever performed a transplant, weave, or otherwise medical procedure with your hair?

Trump likely had hair work done, but because a reporter asked the wrong question about the specific procedure, he said it's my hair and you asked no follow-up. DUMB!

Trump attacks Bill Clinton from a position of being guilty of the same promiscuity! The pot calls the kettle black and no one calls him on it. Are you scared of Trump?

Fox fight, kisses up with Ailes, then fights again. YOU BUY HIS FALSE REPENTANCE? He plays you like a FOOL, America. II Th. 2:11 you are part of, sheep.

The ONLY group Chump hasn't YET insulted is African-Americans; GIVE HIM TIME. He's got too many feet in his mouth for any room for one more, folks.

Our politicians are stupid... backlash... I got along with everyone, and can make deals with Schumer and Pelosi. BACKLASH DETERMINES ALL CHUMPS CLAIMED BELIEFS!

Megyn has blood coming out her ears, or wherever... backlash... Women love me, I protect and take care of them. DO YOU SEE WHY YOU ARE TO BLAME FOR ADORING THE IGNORANT ONE?

POW's aren't heroes... backlash... I love our military. Mexican illegals are mainly crooks... backlash... Mexicans love me and I give them jobs. This is the spin you buy, Trump supporters!

I have ZERO concern that Hillary WON'T beat Chump, but I'll do anything in my power to stop him from being the GOP nominee, as he tarnishes a decent brand!

Version 2
(3/15/16)

Leave your religion at church and don't bring it to the voting booth. Vote for CHUMP, Christians. NO need to pray about it; that MIGHT get in your way of so doing.

Use the 'P word,' and bomb the SH__ out of ISIS. Tell followers to beat people up. Hesitate to renounce the KKK. Favorite book is the Bible—TWO Corinthians!

NEVER asked God's forgiveness for anything, but don't question my "sincere" faith! 55 percent tariffs on China and Mexico will pay for our debt and the beautiful wall! DELUSIONAL!

Look at Fiorina's face; MUCH to work with in insulting Ron Paul's, as well. We're going to fix that/we're going to look into that, America great, "believe me." HUGE! Ha!

My hands are NOT small or anything else. GO VOTE FOR THAT today, Illinois, Florida, Ohio, North Carolina and Missouri. DUMMIES we are! #NeverTrump

EVERY Trump voter: Sit down with your kids today and explain to them why you support arrogance, insults, public cussing, body part jokes and other Trump-isms!

Trump supporters: Tell your kids today that winning at all costs is RIGHT, since your cause of supporting an arrogant rude pervert is SO right! #DumpChump

Trump supporters: LOOK in the mirror, and mouth with me THESE words, please: "I am the problem!" Read our tweets from today if you get confused about that!

If NOT ChumpCruz, how about TrumpPalin, PLEASE, @RNC, @GOP! That ticket would for SURE fail, and show conservatives the HOLLOWNESS of their beliefs! Please do so.

Bob the builder ALL OVER AGAIN! Not Obama's 'yes we can' but 'build that wall.' Trump insults the intelligence of any with any intelligence! Are there any?

PLEASE don't scare Donnie at his rallies; he was born with a silver spoon in his mouth, and suffers from affluenza! He doesn't know he's as big a jerk as he is.

Vote for Donald Trump today. Make ignorance and immorality great again! #Trump #GOP #MegaTuesday #Republicans #Politics #NeverTrump #RNC #Vote

(3/16/16)

.@RealDonaldTrump Have you signed the Giving Pledge as REAL "great guys" do? @WarrenBuffett GOP's BEST? I can shoot someone in New York City and lose no support; Megyn's blood wherever, mimic a disabled reporter, P word, bomb the sh__ outa ISIS...

Favorite book is the Bible—TWO Corinthians, never asked God's forgiveness for anything, but don't question my "Christian" faith, I'm really smart and rich arrogant (idols).

Womanizer-in-chief (adultery), CAUSES broken D.C. payoff system and thinks we'll believe he can fix it too? Democrat positions ALL his adult life.

MOST illegals are criminals and rapists; a few, I guess, are OK; POW's are losers (though I spent not one day risking my life in the military), daddy gave me $1 million.

AS IF he achieved the American Dream by his own bootstraps, many failed businesses, used bankruptcy laws, which means you and I bailed out a “billionaire.”

Talks about his private part’s size, and SO-CALLED Christians vote for him. Claimed pastor says he’s NOT a member or comes rarely, look at that (Fiorina’s) face, and mocks Rand Paul’s face (when his dog is partly fake), women referred to as dogs, etc.

~Slow to disavow KKK, and wishes he could punch protesters in the face. NOT A PRESIDENTIAL TEMPERAMENT, and RARELY offers details; mainly were going to be great, believe me, huge, we’ll fix/look into that, that’s a real problem, we’ll make a better deal. Mexico will pay for the wall, and 45 percent China tariffs?

The GOP is HYPOCRITICAL if it supports CHUMP, then CLAIMS they are the party of thought vs. feeling, values voters and the ‘religious’ right. HOGWASH, and everyone will see it!

88. Silent Majority (Cf.: Phrase Trump used; See: ‘Cabal Origins’ for dates)

So James Robison touts a Christian conservative African-American doctor [Ben Carson] to try to win back the Moral Majority of old (~like Huckabee of years past). Now rallying the troops? (1/9/15)

Reviewed our past tweets and had more than seven references to the “silent majority” phrase Trump used. I also pushed the middle class as the key more than two months ago; GLAD Hillary’s addressing it! (7/13/15)

Reviewed past tweets: Making America great again and silent majority were in MY articles WELL he’s BEFORE Chump—documented and dated in our archives; he’s NOT unique. (8/25/15)

2015 lessons: Enough GOP voters LIKE reality TV SO much the SILENT MAJORITY of GOP voters WON’T unify in vocal opposition if there’s no GOOD alternative. (1/3/16)

89. Tax Rich More & $3,000 Rebate to Middle Class (Clinton; ~Trump)

Though they can afford to buy the top tax experts, no millionaire should EVER pay a lower tax percent than the middle class! #WarrenBuffett gets it! (6/21/13)

The middle and lower classes are NOT on earth as slaves to serve the rich. Philanthropic people like Gates and Buffett GET this. Many DONT, #GOP! (11/27/14)

No MORE middle class tax increases, no handouts without token repayment by civic service, no renouncing citizenship to avoid taxes, or tax havens. (1/8/15)

The middle class is the key for our economy and victory. Poor are Democrat-leaning; the rich are Republican-leaning. Duh 101. Commonsense! Those between $30-70,000 are OBVIOUSLY middle class. See reality! (3/24/15)

Democrats just DON’T get it. The middle class is NOT undertaxed. Career politicians SPEND too MUCH, playing Santa Claus to BUY votes. CORRUPT CRIMINALS! #Hillary (8/10/15)

So WHY shouldn’t their taxes index higher, as well, conservatives, vs. tax breaks?
<http://on.msnbc.com/1qEqedu> #IncomeGap Poor stay the same or get poorer? (10/21/15)

Poor/workers/middle class. THOSE are the strugglers, so THOSE are the ones I must care about, because THOSE are the ones Jesus cared about—not those who have it made. (10/29/15)

Demographics DIS-favor conservatives. THIS election will show them that in fairly large numbers. End the estate tax? That’s the rich getting richer at society’s expense! (1/5/16)

GOP negatives: Cater to rich elitists at the expense of the 90+ percent NON-business owners, personal responsibility meaning every man for himself by CUTTING government down to a SMALL size. (1/6/16)

Poor and middle class: Any of the following are attempts by the rich to keep all their excess—end minimum wage, end the estate tax, pro-school vouchers and the flat tax. (1/11/16)

Your excess is NOT success when you use it ONLY for yourself, rich people! II Cor. 8:14. Do NOT idolize one for what they own, but HOW THEY USE IT! Be a HERO! (1/12/16)

It makes NO sense to harm the middle class, saving for retirement, when those already able to, financially, get a tax break! The rich are the ONLY ones who can afford more taxes with NO lifestyle loss, who hire professionals for loopholes, but even then, Uncle Sam is BROKE! He has NO extra money to give away! Duh 101. (10/29/17)

90. Throw All Bums Out—NOT All Are Bums! (Ex.: ‘Drain the swamp)

Four elections workers loved our ideas on ridding the bad and keeping the good of both parties, and solving problems, or throwing bums out. Thanks! (5/17/12)

Throw ALL bums out! NOT all politicians are bums, but they seem to all become such once elected, and going to D.C. Corruption is a dishonor to the U.S. of A! (5/13/14)

Throw ALL the bums out does NOT apply to all politicians, but a grand majority. Time to clean house and shovel the crud which is D.C. politics! (6/6/14)

Congress never SOLVES anything. Every political season they dust off old arguments to stir up more STUPID people within their base. WISE UP, voters! FIRE any bums! (9/13/14)

STOP all the heat without much light, for drama, ratings and to delude the ignorant about your NON-productivity you’re paid handsomely for; Don’t be a bum we kick out. (12/9/14)

Fire EVERY bum in D.C. in 20/20! NOT all are bums, but MANY are, and if you FEEL yours is NOT (ever), we likely will KEEP status quo forever. Be objective! (12/19/14)

Bad politicians are sent to Washington because of BAD decisions by the electorate. We don’t throw bums out, because too many of us are patriotic bum steers. (1/25/15)

A revolt, a peaceful riot, a moral revolution IS brewing OUTSIDE D.C., and; WILL manifest itself at the voting booth in 2020. #ThrowALLBumsOut! (1/28/15)

We need the expertise of SOME career politicians, and the ideas and energy of newbies, but if any get entrenched in BAD habits, #ThrowTheBumsOut, voters! (1/28/15)

Clean slate. ONLY people committed to common sense need remain in power in D.C. in 2020. If all are bums, then, throw them ALL out then. #CleanHouse! (1/30/15)

You, the American citizen, deserve BETTER. You have the numbers. Less than 1,000 Americans lead government. Cast out all bums in 2020! It takes your one vote! (2/13/15)

91. Toll Road Expansion & Right Turn Mini Lanes

Congestion Considerations: Requiring wrecked cars to immediately leave the streets (or be towed) can help, as with requiring shoulder-abandoned vehicles to be removed (as they provide no safe shoulder for emergencies and wreck avoidance, and can distract drivers). High-speed rail from the suburbs to downtown might be helpful—anything to lessen commutes and rush hour traffic. Long red lights seem to encourage speeding or running stop signs. Red lights should be synced, and longer for downtown-flowing traffic at rush hour (opposite in PM drive time). Clustered, pack mentality driving makes driving more dangerous (and congested), and can cause pile-ons. Only bus, taxi and rail above or below ground level? Three-tiered downtown streets, with business views starting on level three? Wide, two-tiered streets, parking garages surround downtown area, car-free downtowns? Certified cars and drivers authorized to drive on no-access to HOV lanes at 80 mph (one lane for emergencies). Consider exclusive and marked, non-tolled express lanes with higher speed limits for faster traffic (and not barrier-separated like HOV's are—more like the German Autobahn system).

EXCELLENT work @GovAbbott e—xpand—ing Dallas North Toll Road between George Bush and Highway 121! I rarely use it, but drive timers NEED it! THANKS! (8/31/15) [occurred months after direct tweet to change it and end drive time congestion between George Bush and Hwy 121 on DNT]

NO intersection should ever omit a short lane for right turns, unless physically impossible! Why should anyone turning right have to wait on anyone going straight? Pure DUMBness, and economic thwarting! Rural roads should allow Autobahn speeds, when technology keeps emissions the same or less as today. (1/17/18)

92. Trump: Delete Your Twitter Account (–Hillary)

Referent: <http://bit.ly/2dTCJyu> (6/6/16)

[Summary of a since-deleted tweet attack by one of our three major critics, which questioned our viewership numbers, not fully reconstructed here only because posting deleted tweets of others is illegal—though his account was deleted]

[private idiot] @JamesMeroney what's the harm in posting it to prove you aren't a liar? I will go away forever if you have 200K+ views (6/6/16)

I asked you to tell me how. I'm NOT techie. Tell me how, I'll post it, then get the heck out of here forever, UN-transparent one! (6/6/16)

Just because my knowledge is better than yours on some issues, I mean I do techie junk. I asked for help; NO arrogance here. (6/6/16)

[I will give you a screen shot if you tell me exactly what to do. I WON'T address your WEAK arguments. Tell me, then LEAVE! (6/6/16)

I never said I practice law. Books will be available at AmericanAnswers.org when I put it online. You're so ignorant with most of your accusations. (6/6/16)

I'm voluntarily inactive, as I do sales. For $1,300 I can be an active attorney anytime! <http://bit.ly/2dWGnKt> @StanNathan3 You are found EMPTY of facts! (6/6/16)]

249.2K in 28 days (6/6/16)

I did as you asked, now be a “good Christian” and go away forever, as you promised. You are debunked, and proved WRONG! (6/6/16)

Now shut the heck up “Nathan.” You have NO information worthwhile to anyone that you’ve proved to me. I have 14 books and five Twitter accounts. (6/6/16)

Is ANYONE surprised our critic’s Twitter account, @StanNathan3 is no longer operative? SUCH weak wimpiness. He should be ashamed, but probably isn’t. (6/6/16)

ONLY residual information is on the three main critic’s Twitter sites (presumed to be pastors, but possibly a politician): @TVLeftside and @MiamiSnowflake; @StanNathan3 is canceled! (6/6/16)

For our nagging critics who think I tweet to myself @StanNathan3 @MiamiSnowflake @Tvleftside we’ve have greater than 10,000 views in one day [now 20,000]—you’re WRONG! <http://bit.ly/2dTEtaJ> (6/6/16)

To our critics: If you don’t state your real, full name, have no picture and don’t include a city of origin, your credibility to me is QUITE low; just sayin’. (6/6/16)

I will NOW screen shot the 250,000, just as I did my Linked-In stadium full of inquisitors, but by my own records, and for those I trust. Not fake accounts! (6/6/16)

MY APOLOGIES to everyone else! That person will be blocked as soon as I’m sure he ate crow and saw proof his allegations are 100 percent BUNK! Sorry! (6/6/16)

[sent to private moron] Proved it to you. Did you see it, because you are blocked thereafter; no time to suffer fools gladly. Please verify you can read the screenshot. (6/6/16)

.@miamisnowflake Here’s your proof—DOUBTER! (6/6/16)

.@tvleftside Here’s your proof, from the “irrelevant” one who no one knows about—HA! (6/6/16)

If I can find the Linked-In email note of a stadium full of profile viewers from two years ago, I’ll screenshot it too! We do NOT lie here, foolish critics (6/7/16)

2014 was year of pastors here; 2015-16 was year of politicians were here. 2014 must have been the correct year. I hope to find it, or hear from Linked-In. (6/7/16)

Its words were something to the effect that you are reaching “near legend status,” and profile views are nearly enough to fill a stadium full. Linked-In. (6/7/16)

I didn’t even use Linked-In then, but had a profile/account. I still don’t. Those visitors came from our Twitter account’s popularity. (6/7/16)

And to the critic from yesterday: I NEVER said 250,000 people watch every tweet, watch regularly, or that anyone who “follows” watches; they could just mute us! (6/7/16)

Linked-In removes all such proof from its servers after 30 days, so ONLY if I stumble onto that email proof of ~50,000 viewers there will I post it someday. (6/7/16)

93. Trump: Go Third Party (Could have led to his GOP vow)

Still needed, though I haven’t seen the attack ad barrage yet from the GOP:

IF Chump MAY go third party when #his numbers drop, or the GOP is ‘not nice’ to the NOT NICE NERD, he’s controlling you, GOP. Who’s in charge here? The asylum’s INMATE! (8/10/15)

Chump as GOP nom would be blasphemy against the party, but him going third party would cause the GOP to lose too. Fox report: Republicans planning all-out attack on Trump in coming months. Well-deserved, and well over-due! Kick him to third party and get momentum. (8/20/15)

Banning Trump from debates forces him to a third party. (8/20/15)

The GOP has NO right to protect its brand, @RealBenCarson? Trump can go third party and let “the people” vote for him. He’s a Democrat mole, in effect! (12/12/15)

GO third party, Chump. The GOP loses either way, but retains its dignity and reputation, and you can fade into oblivion! #DumpChump (2/16/16)

94. Trump Hurts the GOP

Chump says getting to the top comes through him, and charges $5 million to attend the GOP’s debate. TIME TO #DumpTrump. He WON’T be President, and HURTS #the GOP! Arrogant IDIOT! (12/1/15)

Any who argue we’re HURTING the GOP by NOT voting if Chump’s the nominee DOESN’T understand his being the GOP nominee HURTS the GOP; we’re just responding accordingly. (12/16/15)

I TOLD you DJT HURTS the GOP; he reinforces evil stereotypes! <http://on.msnbc.com/2dZzIz8> @GOP <http://on.msnbc.com/2efpnhY> #NeverTrump REAL GOPs love minorities. (1/2/16)

Why would you recommend the GOP NOT back their nominee? 1. He HURTS other GOP’s; 2. He hurts the GOP’s reputation for awhile; 3. He’s an evil person; 4. Get ‘em next time; 5. Be for OTHER GOP’s. (3/15/16)

One who HURTS the party and GOP’s reputation into the future, who WILL lose to Hillary, and who gives GOP opponents ammunition and evidence for bad stereotypes of the GOP... (3/18/16)

Please read my message from today so THIS I happen! <http://nbcnews.to/2dEBZfx> @RNC @GOP I told you MANY times Trump HURTS the GOP’s reputation! (4/4/16)

And it’s WAY too early to worry if the GOP will all unite behind the nominee. NOW is the time to get your voice heard vs. ignored! At the same time, Trump HURTS you! (7/25/15)

Me fears many down-ballot GOP’s are going to be hurt by Chump as the nominee. That’s SO unfair to them, but you’ve got to severely distance yourself from his train wreck! (7/27/16)

I’ll just say it point blank: Damn fools allow the Trump nomination to continue! @RNC @GOP Do you remember my MANY warnings that he HURTS the GOP? MANY! (7/27/16)

Insiders to Trump: Drop out <http://politi.co/2eaWorY> AMEN! He won’t though—selfish and prideful loon. He HURTS the GOP; I’ve said that before here MANY times. #NeverTrump (8/5/16)

DUMB question! <http://nbcnews.to/2dtCLtJ> The KING of flip flops! I warned the GOP he HURTS the GOP! <http://nbcnews.to/2dYLrZP> I've been #NeverTrump since MOST illegals/POW's words. (8/25/16)

Trump schizophrenically courted the Hispanic vote last week, then reiterates deportation and Mexico will pay for the wall. HE HURTS YOU, @GOP #ReputationMatters (9/1/16)

SO understandable! <http://on.msnbc.com/2dZAFkz> @jameskglassman #NeverTrump He hurts the GOP's reputation, and America. WORST-prepared, least-qualified flip-flopper nominee! (9/2/16)

10. He HURTS the GOP's reputation for awhile, and even down-ballot GOP's re-election chances. If that's NOT enough for you, read last night's message! It's damning. (9/4/16)

Trump obliterates Reagan's heritage. He hurts other GOP's. He only supports SELF. He wrongly represents America to the rest of the world. And as to his being a Republican, he's never been one until recently (opportunism). And if Hillary wins, four more years of Obama policies may wake the U.S. up to its horrors—we're not awake enough yet! (9/16/16)

We don't suggest any Republicans vote for Hillary (unless its close), but none for Trump either. Just vote straight down-ballot GOP. Trump HURTS the GOP's reputation for awhile! (9/17/16)

#UnacceptableGOPbehavior that HURTS the GOP's reputation, hurts its growth potential outside the base, and is WELL BELOW any other nominees' behavior in 40+ years. (9/21/16)

Trump obliterates Reagans heritage. He hurts other GOP's. He only supports Self. He wrongly represents U.S.A. to the rest of the world... (9/16/16)

I was just asked why a Republican would help Hillary. I want Trump to lose. You don't reward all he did! He hurts the GOP's reputation, and chances at minorities in the future! (9/16/16)

95. Trump Is Lost

Referent: <http://bit.ly/1U8JRnM> (6/6/16)

WEAKNESS, @BenCarson! If a man says he's never asked God for forgiveness of anything, HE IS LOST, no matter where he attends church! Stand firm! (9/12/15)

A message that money-idolater Chump could learn; he who has NEVER asked God forgiveness for anything (a prerequisite for salvation!), by faith. #DumpChump (1/4/16)

Trump's FAV book is the Bible, as he says "Two Corinthians?" He's NEVER asked God for any forgiveness, church. He's Hell-bound, and you love him? FOOLISH ONES! (1/26/16)

Pope's REAL late questioning Trump's conversion, as one who has never asked forgiveness for anything questioned by one who says a personal relation with Jesus is "dangerous." (2/18/16)

Rest assured you CANNOT rest assured if you have NEVER asked God for forgiveness of anything through Christ. Hell's GUARANTEED if you don't—Jn. 3:16, Bible (3/11/16)

@JamesMeroney Applies to ALL mankind: NEVER asked God forgiveness for anything, but don't question my "sincere" faith! 45 percent tariffs on China and Mexico will pay for the beautiful wall! DELUSIONAL! (3/15/16)

[Private account] Also, I have ZERO assurance he is my "brother," though you seem to be, anyone who has NEVER asked forgiveness of God for anything is STILL lost. (4/7/16)

THAT's a headline? <http://cbsn.ws/2cJyXGy> He can TEMPORARILY change, but his true colors stink to high Heaven! #NeverTrump Hell-bound arrogant one. (4/23/16)

Trumpster pundits ONLY focus on policy. A MONKEY can parrot right policy. #CharacterMatters, but NOT if you're Hell-bound. JUST sayin' the TRUTH! (5/12/16)

#HasDonaldTrumpChanged from MISrepresenting Presbyterians as Unsaved people who live like the Devil and claim God ONLY when it wins them votes? (5/24/16)

Spiritually LOST CHUMP's "Christianity" says be nice to GOP's who cower to you, and NOT to sane ones, CONTRARY to Lk. 6:27, 32-33 READ your bedside table Bible! (5/31/16)

My son asked me didn't I tweet about this before? Yes, I said the SAME THING about Chump several times here (spiritually lost, and in need of Jesus—Jn. 3:16). (6/6/16)

@JamesMeroney Exhibit 6, son (Please don't doubt me when I make claims about my tweets, beloved brother in Christ): (6/6/16)

It's NOT from Chumps MANY obvious sins that I deduce he's lost! One sin endangers EVERYONE of Hell. Saying 'I've never asked forgiveness' guarantees it. (6/6/16)

96. Trump Lies About Mexico Trip (Busted!)

Referent: <http://cnn.it/2bZ6Unb> (8/30/16)

WHAT a man of courage. SILENT in Mexico about wall payment, then LOUD when safely at home? COWARD! <http://cbsn.ws/2eazJO6> Weak, dumb and wimpy! (8/31/16)

Vicente Fox Quesada @VicenteFoxQue: @realDonaldTrump hoy ensuciaste las bellas tierras y ofendiste a la gente de mi bello México ;México no te quiere! <http://buff.ly/2caaBUv> (8/31/16)

Bad interpretation (<http://babelfish.com>): Today messed the beautiful lands, and offended the people of my beautiful Mexico; you won't want to! (8/31/16)

“Ugly American” Gringo tried to play nice today so he could get votes in America. You WEREN’T fooled, and know his past words! @VicenteFoxQue (8/31/16)

Enrique Peña Nieto @EPN: Al inicio de la conversación con Donald Trump dejé claro que México no pagará por el muro. (8/31/16)

Hey dumb A_ Trump: I’m pretty sure this translates that Mexico’s NOT going to pay for your wall! Next tweet will translate it fully! (8/31/16)

Babelfish says: To the [home] of [her] conversation with Donald Trump [left] <made it> clear that Mexico does not pay [by] <for> the wall. (8/31/16)

Senor Trump: Tu necesito aprender poquito Espanol para comprehende que Mexicano president dice quando Tu no estan en Mejico! Tu es un idioto. (8/31/16)

Trump insists Mexico will pay for his wall; Mexico’s president tweets today that they will NOT. Trump’s too stupid to even see or interpret that tweet! (8/31/16)

Trump schizophrenically courted the Hispanic vote last week, then reiterates deportation and Mexico will pay for the wall. HE HURTS YOU, @GOP #ReputationMatters (9/1/16)

Repeating that which I personally said, Mr. Trump: Mexico will never pay for a wall. My ~translation with four years of Spanish. (9/1/16): Repito lo que le dije personalmente, Sr. Trump: México jamás pagaría por un muro. (9/1/16)

Babelfish says: I repeat what I said personally, Mr. Trump: Mexico would never pay for a wall.

Mexico: There’s NO hatred or enmity between our countries; there’s only a hateful enemy to us both, posing as a GOP nominee. @EPN @VicenteFoxQue (9/2/16)

...Plus, even then he’s so easily resorting to his TRUE self, as we saw in Mexico, when he says they didn’t discuss wall payment. (9/13/16)

Mexico’s president says they DID. So he sends a son to say that’s how you negotiate—hide the negatives until a relationship is developed. (9/13/16)

HEY DUMMY, people watch TV. All of Mexico knew Chump had MANY times said he’d make them pay before any photo op visit for a “relationship” ever happened! (9/13/16)

You CAN’T pull the wool over any Americans with any registering any IQ! So when he kisses up for the religious right’s vote, he calls the book he RARELY obeys his favorite... (9/13/16)

#RiggedSystem is how Chump self-deceives to keep his YUGE ego appeased, blaming any and everything but himself for his own LOSS! You are the problem! (10/17/16)

Poor, pitiful Don the Con. HE ALONE started ALL ill-will within the party, and now “Karma’s” a big dog to him. Boo hoo. (10/16/16)

Whiner and blamer vs. mature adult who would take responsibility for shooting off BOTH his own feet by his own stupid decisions alone! Grow up Donnie! (10/11/16, accidentally deleted)

Referent: <http://bit.ly/2eaZS0u> (5/25/16)

99. Trump 3:00 am Twitter Rants?

Referent: Most of this entire book was written at 3:100am, as our VIP viewers and many others attested. Most of it was also written live and online WELL before Trump even started his campaign. Its popularity (like out live-tweeting debate comments) could have impacted that Chump habit (though he rants at such time).

I DON'T awaken at 3am for no reason or on my own initiative. Heed these words and warnings. Prophecy's close, and you're NOT being faithful to evangelize. (3/7/14)

Going back to bed. I am USUALLY awakened near 3am when God has something to tell me, so I won't think I thought of it. Or was that Satan, staff—HA [joke to critics]! (6/15/14)

I sleep with a clear conscience on the subject—except on nights God wakes me up to reprove your stubborn sinfulness and refute unbiblical thinking (3am). (6/22/14)

3:40 am NEVER let criticism—even of your character—STOP God's message! Everyone has an opinion, but you have NEVER lived by them, so don't start now! (7/25/14)

GLAD that's over for me, but WILL keep watch for collusive surrogate attackers in cahoots. Back to my REAL work now that God woke me at 3am again for this. (8/24/14)

I'm sure in the next six days or so God will wake me up at 3am with a vision for my next step. Until then, I'm un-used to not knowing my next step! Exercise and diet and sell. (2/18/15)

I DO NOT wake up at 3am for no purpose, though likely in vain! WAKE UP, AMERICA. Your country is slipping away from you, and NOT over just Gay Marriage! (2/23/15)

It's SO hard to write with a family. I've got to work and give kids their deserved attention! Impossible pressures to do all, so God wakes me up at two to three am sometimes. Zzz. (3/22/15)

AWESOME lessons from a HERO yesterday on parenting. Love and logic (book). Full-time job upon full-time job! That's why I'm up at 3am again. Good night. (3/26/15)

I guess waking up at 3am is one way one can do all they're expected to without compromise(?). I ate NO food yesterday and still lost little. Argh! #40in20 (3/26/15)

My little animals MUST be tired of my waking at 3am nearly every night this week, but they can sleep in—what else do they have to do tomorrow? Eat and poop? (9/24/15)

Working at 3am to FINISH favoriting best tweets 2011-2015 for @Pledgers2020 and @ImMadTooEdwin and @PledgerARCHIVES Please read, enjoy, and especially LEARN! (10/31/15)

You MIGHT notice I didn't do an all-nighter, but God woke me up at 3am again, as He is want to do, and you might want to consider that message's Source!? Zzz. (12/4/15)

Do YOU get awakened at 3am to tweet messages? I guess because I wouldn't forsake my God and run prematurely I'm a false prophet now. ANATHEMA, sir! (1/24/16)

Awakened AGAIN at 3am—NO alarm clock used! If you're a leader of Christians and can be mainly happy that five percent EVER win one soul to Jesus, something's WRONG! (3/13/16)

What's all this mean at 3am? I OFTEN was awakened in past two years at that 'magical' hour to show all people that I didn't choose to write anything—I was asleep! (4/27/16)

IF you see any "wisdom" here at 3am, do you get awakened to write such stuff? There's a REASON for it, and it's NOT insomnia. Psalm 16:7 Good night, all! (4/30/16)

How arrogant? NO—all glory to God. I'm just telling you at 3am because they never have, and I will NOT be silenced by anyone, or kept in a closet forever! (7/3/16)

Awakened at 3am with this message (regular viewers know what that means), but couldn't post until now due to an ATT area outage. "Re-Think Impossible?:" (7/21/16)

Up at 3 am writing my YouTube video script of EXACTLY what happened in my life the past 2.5+ years, that FEW know of, but which affected the 2016 presidential election. (5/14/17)

Has God ever awakened you to write a book at a time you could never take credit for, because you were dead asleep in la-la land? Maybe you ought to read it! (5/22/17): Twitter followers beware: God awakened me with another "vision" coming your way NOW... Christianity and Poverty, politically addressed. God bless! (5/1/14)

...toward the start of my many 3 am wake up calls to write messages, WELL before Chump started imitating such, via my pastor (his evangelical advisor). (5/22/17): Awakened again EARLY! Go evangelize! Quickly, urgently, thoroughly. I'd take this seriously, as I was having a GOOD sleep! Word to the wise. (11/6/13)

100. 2016 Conservative GOP Outcry Expressed

I'm for John Boehner IF he gets strong, or for a better leader if one arises. Mutiny by conservatives MAY educate him to quit being a pansy with Obama, though he keeps power. (1/6/15)

The GOP is the party of free speech and religious values? WHAT a joke! Crushing the opposition in the GOP is Darwinian! #UnseatBoehnerNOW <http://t.co/KzS0wS8v2g> (1/7/15)

Boehner pulled a boner. I urge ALL Tea Partiers (of which I'm NOT) and religious right NOT to vote in 2016. Hillary will win, but the GOP WON'T ignore you in 2020! (1/8/15)

GOP: WHERE ARE YOU? You're having Boehner FIGHT and engage in REVENGE on conservatives; you're fighting the WRONG ENEMY, Curly, Moe and Larry! Do you want to lose AGAIN? (1/9/15)

Be it Obamacare, illegals, gay marriage, the confederate flag, Welfare, debt, ISIS, the GOP MUST listen to conservative anger or LOSE (they'll lose anyway)!!! (1/15/16)

UNFORTUNATELY, Boehner's (and even McConnell's) exit WON'T quell radical conservatives' desire to control the GOP via Trump! You NEED Romney to start the process SOON! (10/25/15)

I ¾ths agree. Boehner gave in too much, but Planned Parenthood needs to obey the law, that's ALL! Trump has emboldened extremists! <http://on.msnbc.com/1WCblTI> Be in charge, GOP! (10/26/15)

102. Wall Street Abuses (Cf.: Sanders)

NBC: Wall Street RIGGED and GM ignition switch problem undisclosed. The world NEEDS powerful governments to counter sin and crime trends (and revival!). (4/1/14)

Lobbyists and Wall Street rule D.C. This should not be this way—James 3:10b-c FIX the system in 2020, voters of the UNITED States of America. (1/6/15)

No bad economy, no terrorist gains, no racial tension, no unread bills passed, no favoring Wall Street over Main Street, no LEGAL bribes for you. (1/8/15)

I just signed two petitions to disallow Wall Street tax privilege and NFL tax exempt status. FAIR SHARE, especially when you HAVE money! <http://t.co/xOTHS19die> (1/15/15)

Wall Street gets huge bonuses though they funded the sub-prime mortgage crisis, derivatives, and helped tank our economy in 2008, but Scrooge Main Street? @DNC @GOP (1/20/15)

Let's get our little violins out for the rich, because #OccupyWallStreet FINALLY got the message out that the U.S. makes life great for the one percent rich and the rest put their foot down [sarcasm]. (1/20/15)

The biggest future political divide in the U.S. will not be GOP vs. Dems, but the big corporate Wall Street complex vs. the middle class and poor. @RBReich (paraphrased) (2/1/15)

Big business/Wall Street and corrupt politicians CAUSED the sub-prime economic crisis of 2008, as you NEVER lend to any who can't repay. Occupy Wall Street MUST arise! (4/28/15)

But the days where big business/Wall Street gets rich at Main Street's expense (i.e., American jobs) are OVER! The majority has put their foot down on outsourcing! It's now (mainly) UN-patriotic. (4/28/15)

IF the GOP could convince Wall Street and big business to hire more, layoff less, and cut executive salaries a little (i.e., be more compassionate), they'd be a SUCCESS! (4/29/15)

The top one percent earns 99 percent of U.S. profits, and the CEO-to-worker ratio~ is 300+ times larger. WHEN WILL NON-ELITES PUT THEIR POLITICAL FEET DOWN? Do it NOW! And I'm no Democrat. (5/5/15)

When an economic recovery mainly helps Wall Street and NOT (also) Main Street, our nation's economy is on the WRONG street—a one-way dead end street. (5/5/15)

Or CEO's WAY over-paid, and those with WELL enough making the most (one percent earning 99 percent of U.S. profits) as the American Dream—something we celebrate? (5/6/15)

Whether cancer charity fraud or Wall Street bank currency manipulators, the American people must rise up against ALL evil/greedy (vs. good) rich! (5/20/15)

What if Board of Directors HAD to have equal representation of NON-executive level members? What if the one percenters' taxes were RAISED? (5/23/15)

Occupy Wall Street NEEDS to resurrect to call for executive salary DECREASES, signing the Giving Pledge and/or taxing the one percenters MORE, when government is streamlined. (7/10/15)

We earned it legally is the claim (not always true). WHO CARES? We're humans, all part of that family, and your wealth comes at others' survival expense. (7/24/15)

Occupy Wall Street MAY have been mainly youth ginned up by liberal activists, but Bernie and Trump's numbers are REAL, Wall Street. Be more HUMANE in your business! (3/29/16)

The day of hit your numbers at all costs, and DON'T even ask me how or tell me about your struggles in so doing are OVER, Wall Street. Life's NOT all about you! (3/29/16)

103. Where Trump is Like Hitler

Referent: <http://wapo.st/2eWB5Ny> (7/25/16)

Conservatives who are on the Trump train wreck bandwagon are CERTIFIABLE! They'd vote for Hitler if he parroted their beliefs, even insincerely! (8/15/15)

Be it executive amnesty, siding with business for cheap labor and outsourcing, our debt's rise, or Obamacare, conservatives would now vote for Hitler if he promised CHANGING THAT! (3/10/16)

He is the WORST GOP NOMINEE EVER! WHAT's the difference between voting for Hitler if he lied and said what you wanted to hear? Please tell me! ~NOTHING! #MoralsMatter (5/4/16)

A puppet, robot, monkey or Hitler could parrot the right policies of experts. That would even be better than having Trump, except for Hitler. #MoralsMatter (8/16/16)

Hitler HID his evils before he took power. Trump is not smart enough to do that, and exposed much of that evil. Voting for him ONLY for policies is analogous! (9/6/16)

Adolph Hitler I as open and honest about his evil when ascending power, as Chump was. Any change of tone is fraud, fake and lying/pandering for votes. (9/7/16)

By that argument you'd vote for Hitler if he were for godly policies, especially since he HID his evil before taking power. NEITHER nominee is God's ideal candidate! (9/9/16)

Hitler could mouth good policy. Mother Teresa could mouth bad policy, though I DON'T think she would, because of her CHARACTER. It ALL starts in the HEART! (9/11/16)

We ALL saw Trump's TRUE SELF for 14 months. I don't know how any Christian can DENY what he saw and ignore it; my conscience works, so I won't be doing so for power idolatry. (9/11/16)

Any Christian who says "yes but" about Trump's 14-month behavior, then focuses on policy alone WOULD HAVE VOTED FOR HITLER under that same logic! (9/11/16)

...especially because Hitler's evils were wisely HIDDEN. Trump freely chose to put them out on open display as his nominee qualifications more so than 16 other GOPs! (9/11/16)

I also likened Trump to Hitler. He hasn't killed anyone, but even Hitler was wiser to hide his evils. Trump lies he's SO smart, then loses GOP votes! (9/11/16)

The LENGTHS claiming Christians will go to to defend the most evil politician since Hitler AMAZES me! God says keep your morals at the church house? (9/16/16)

It's the Hitler S.S. motto—party men! I won't think for myself. I've got to do what the party bosses say, in this case from power lust sin. Anathema, "sirs!" (9/16/16)

You can't compare Trump to Hitler exactly, because Hitler was smarter to not publicize his idiocy, insanity and evil, like the "smartest brain" did! (9/19/16)

Trump is EXACTLY how Hitler rose, but even he was wise enough to hide his evil. The GOP sees it on open display and say, 'he's our man!' IDIOCY—period. (9/24/16)

Standards for presidential candidates are NOT Mother Teresa or Hitler, but in-between, and likely past candidates. Trump is FAR below any modern former nominees in respect levels! (10/7/16)

This is EMBARRASSING, and brings SHAME to Jesus! <http://abcn.ws/2fwk3Gs> It's a sin-to-win strategy OPPOSITE of God. If only policies matter, they would have voted for Hitler. (10/8/16)

I'm sure Hitler had some redeeming qualities to his mom. Trump is NOT as bad, but the analogies and comparisons stick in many ways. 'My way or the highway' ego! (10/25/16)

EVEN Hitler was SMART enough in an EVIL way to HIDE his evils before gaining power. Trump exhibits them center stage, and Christians go for it? BAD faith checks its brains at the door stereotype! (10/27/16)

104. Why I Became A Reagan Democrat (& ~early on thought Trump the GOP nominee)

Referent: <http://on.msnbc.com/2fu8jB8> (11/12/16)

Disclaimer: If, at any time, the ideas in our three political books are severely rejected by any political party, in favor of status quo extremism, right or left, my party affiliation will change to wherever these ideas can be implemented.

From 2014 to 2016 I made approximately 80 public predictions on Twitter. To my recollection, I got only three wrong—one was delayed, one I changed soon after, but one was a DOOZIE! I am no prophet, but my accuracy rate was quite good, as many attested. As I have been a life-long Republican, even despising Trump, I could not vote for Hillary in 2016. However, in order to implement the Pledgers concept, it took my being 100 percent wrong on predicting Hillary's win for me to be willing to change parties—at least until he is ousted. The GOP changed significantly in 2016 (actually, before then), but the election results proved it to me in in unmistakable ways, both that the Reagan coalition was functionally dead, and that many evangelical Christians truly would vote for anyone if they mouthed their pet peeve issues. The morning I awakened from Nov. 8's election coverage, I admitted my prediction was totally wrong, prayed about why I felt the Lord leading me to say it so consistently (when it was not true), and the answer became clear—I needed to change political parties so long as the hostile takeover was in effect (and indefinite, if it was lasting). I've truly never worried which party I was affiliated with once I came into the ideas of this book—just a solid commitment to make them happen. So, following, is my humbling record of my worst (and last) prediction, that prompted me to leave my Good Old Party, for the near future. I have nothing but love for most Republicans. I will never have anything but disdain for Mr. Chump, because of the harm he has caused America's reputation, and that of my former party.

Partial Disclaimers to Prediction

Despite my WRONG prediction on Hillary, the Lord reminded me that we did send the following two warnings! (11/10/16)

Monday, I would LOUDLY tout potential attempted surprise result from silent Trumpsters who were RIGHTLY ashamed to speak, @HillaryClinton PHONE BANKS vs. being complacent! (11/6/16)

PRETTY sure my prediction days are ending, though the accuracy rates were HUGE. They make you walk by faith severely, but can be stressful too. Peace preferred. (11/8/16)

Hillary, or not. Put U.S.A. first! Save the GOP's reputation future growth.

Exhibit 2: (11/8/16)

We DID do well on this result (just not with Chump at the helm):

Predictive Tweets

Unless some charismatic figure with some personality and ideas/solutions can TRULY feel and express this anger more intelligently, you WON'T beat Chump. (9/13/15)

P.S.: #RomneyRubio would need some EXCELLENT advising on policies to adopt. You ignore conservatives, you're GUARANTEED to lose. I'm still predicting Hillary. (10/8/15)

Hillary WILL be President in 2016. The ONLY shot to break her momentum is #RomneyRubio2016. NONE others stand a chance, SADLY. #GOP #RNC BAD GOP strategists! (10/30/15)

Chump says getting to the top comes through him, and charges $5 million to attend the GOP's debate. TIME TO #DumpTrump. He WON'T be President, and HURTS #the GOP! Arrogant IDIOT! (12/1/15)

THREE years later! Is that ALL (or the BEST) the GOP has against Hillary? That's NOT a winning strategy. I'm STILL predicting her victory! #RomneyRubio2016! (12/3/15)

I've already said the GOP loses this year; you might as well retain your reputation and dignity by NOT letting Trump be your nominee by third party Rubio-Romney, or Cruz. (3/1/16)

Me fears the Bernie wave has washed ashore (Hillary IS Prez!), and the Chump wave is here to stay (Trump IS the GOP nominee). #MarkMyWords! (3/1/16)

I stick with this prediction all the way to election day. Hillary IS President, Chump IS the GOP nominee, and (rightly) loses, (though I'm NOT for Hillary). The season's OVER. (3/10/16)

One who HURTS the party and GOP's reputation into the future, who WILL lose to Hillary, and who gives GOP opponents ammunition and evidence for bad stereotypes of the GOP... (3/18/16)

A strong GOP Congress is NEEDED against Hillary, and even if Chump's IMAGINED presidency ever occurred. The GOP's focus MUST be on THAT—NOT Chump! @RNC @GOP (5/4/16)

I will say again, THERE WILL BE NO SECOND TERM TO ANY IMAGINED FIRST TERM DONALD TRUMP PRESIDENCY! Read it again; vote MANY Republicans to Congress! (5/4/16)

Poll international heads of state about their interest in relating to an IMAGINED President CHUMP. Gentleman's bet it will be mainly QUITE NEGATIVE! #NeverTrump (5/6/16)

NOW Chump tells any GOP's who ran against him have NO place in his IMAGINED administration if they spoke bad of him. That's ALL HE DID AGAINST THEM FOR ONE YEAR! HYPOCRITE! (5/7/16)

Politically SMART people! The list needs to grow vs. being suck-ups for an IMAGINED administration. <http://abcn.ws/2faLW2P> #NeverTrump #NeverHillary (5/11/16)

Trumpsters CAN'T see that in an Potential Trump presidency, Democrats would thwart him at every turn, and some GOP's, who took rightful offense at his words and deeds. (5/11/16)

Even if they give lip service, without TRUE reconciliation, they'll always in their heart be willing to subvert an Potential Trump presidency! (5/12/16)

The BEST arguments of Trumpsters: He MAY be a GREAT president, in an IMAGINARY presidency; TRUE, but ONLY via handlers and thousands of fake changes! (5/13/16)

Humbling, which is always a good thing—but it wasn't arrogance. I heard it distinctly so many times, with no let-up or wavering! I'm not understanding. (11/8/16)

I already said earlier, that my prediction days are over, but to miss such a big one, I'll be HAPPY to never predict anything again! I apologize, and don't get it. (11/8/16)

I'm NOT blaming Him [God]. I still don't doubt what I heard, but I think I'll quit having anything to do with any risk-taking without hard evidence and facts. (11/8/16)

Egg is on my face. The ideas I gained from the same Source are as valid as when I first received them, but maybe God's people's prayers prevailed for an evil deliverer. (11/8/16)

Perhaps I was to call it for Hillary all these months so I would be forced to switch parties? I wouldn't ever do such on my own. I don't know why I was so led! (11/9/16)

If Chump wins, I'm changing party affiliations until he's GONE! I don't know if there's a form you must fill out, but I'll learn about that tomorrow. (11/9/16)

Meaning I'll switch parties until the hostile takeover ends. I'm ASHAMED of every Christian and pastor who voted for Chump! You besmirched The Name of Jesus, Christians! (11/9/16)

I consider myself an independent looking for a party, now. It has to be Republican or Democrat, but it won't be the GOP, so long as Chump's in power! #NeverTrump EVER (11/9/16)

If Chump wins, I owe you the BIGgest apology for not voting for you, @HillaryClinton and for getting that prediction wrong. I sincerely apologize. Bad me. (11/9/16)

Our desire is always to be as accurate as humanly possible! There was NO way in heck I would ever have changed political parties unless Trump was president. I'm changing 2day! (11/9/16)

Today I will officially change party affiliation to Democrat. I do NOT accept any of their evil policies (as with the GOP), but I would NEVER be in a party with Chump as the "leader." (11/9/16)

I never want anything to do with him. I will NOT watch TV when he's on, I'll disobey any command of his. I am civil disobedience 101! He is NOT my president. (11/9/16)

#ReaganDemocrat. That's what I now am. Trump will feign Reagan policies, like he feigned being smart, and having the best words. You bought it—foolish! (11/9/16)

.@POTUS Please tell us how to be more a part of your party. I'm a life-long GOP, and know LITTLE about the party I'm officially joining today. You've got to help America! (11/9/16)

Ronald Reagan is rolling over in his grave, and Richard Nixon is asking why he ever resigned! The standard is bottom of the barrel now! FOOLS, U.S.A.. (11/9/16)

And in case you missed it, the ONLY way I would EVER leave the GOP were if Chump were president. My WRONG prediction broke through my stubbornness to do just that today! (11/9/16)

I'm NOT thankful for the trial of three of 80 wrong predictions, but if that's what it took for me to be willing to change parties, nothing else would have worked. (11/9/16)

NOTHING changes. Only the party. I always thought it would be the other way around, but that's not how God wanted it. I accept that. I happily glory in my weakness of this ERROR of prediction. YUGE boo boo. Thanks, Lord, for making me see the light about the moral departure of Your prior GOP! I didn't see it as clearly! (11/9/16)

#IWillNotUnite #IWillNotCoalesce behind Chump. I will never forget. I do NOT accept Chump's legitimacy to hold office. I'll help the Democrats any way I can. (11/9/16)

I did NOT leave the GOP. The GOP left me. I am still GOP in my heart, but NEVER a Trump GOP'er. I am officially a Democrat now! Turn Texas Blue! (11/9/16)

RINO at heart, but RINO's became extinct. A Reagan Democrat now. You've got to be one party or the other, and I'll NEVER be in Chump's GOP. I oppose him 110 percent, forever! (11/9/16)

#ChristianDemocrat Has your party any place/room for us? #ChristianEvangelicals I will NOT shove God on you, but my website NEVER changes! Please see it. (11/9/16)

To my ex-GOP friends: Not one political policy I believed in the past has changed! I simply left the GOP until Chump leaves office four years from now! (11/9/16)

I don't see any way Chump as president could ever be accepted by the masses! He does NOT represent America, and he can't undo all the damage he did. Impossible! A true moron. (11/11/16)

HERO [Mitt Romney]! Reagan number two. You KNOW I said you were the man for 2016, and @Reince BLEW it—he should be fired; now he's hired. That's why I left, until Chump is White House-removed (11/11/16)

As perhaps the original #NeverTrump, and life-long Republican, I would NEVER leave, were it not for Hillary's loss, and my belief that I had no place in a Trump-led group. (11/13/16)

...My error in predicting Hillary's win was error, but for the purpose of forcing myself to change political parties. (11/13/16)

DON'T get over-confident/let down your guard/rest on your laurels! Pride goes before destruction. Slow and steady wins the race, @HillaryClinton Pv. 16:18; Ecc. 9:11. (10/24/16)

Unlike Romney's last three months in 2012, effort was NOT lacking. Strategy missed presenting herself apart from only attacks on DT's lack of character. (12/9/16)

You CAN'T say she didn't fight to the end, but her agenda got lost in attack ads on Chumps legitimately HORRIBLE character and ignorance, we also warned about (12/9/16): DON'T let polls lull you into a false sense of security, @HillaryClinton Junk yard dogs fight to the end, as if the Under Dog; it's never over until the orange man sings' (10/25/16)

We also WARNED Hillary's camp to counter evangelical efforts to elect the LEAST moral or intelligent of all 17 GOP candidates! Saw it first-hand (12/9/16): .@HillaryClinton I ASSURE you many WASP pastors are securing DT votes through sermons this week. You better do so with minorities, and catch all law violations! (11/3/16)

Update: I Won't Be Returning
(Any Time Soon, If Ever)
(3/2/17)

We have proven we are able to work with both sides of the political aisle, even extremists, as such is required for @Pledgers2020

What we WON'T do is ever support Chump. And with SO many GOP's having been for him, there is NO WAY returning to the GOP would ever make sense with him in charge, if ever.

Our beliefs fit both sides, because that's how things move forward. There are also extreme elements of both sides who would dislike our approach, for the 'my way or the highway' tradition of full-time fighting is in their blood, even though it leads to gridlock and ping pong politics.

Again, with SO many people being willing to abandon morals, logic, traditional GOP values and the dignity of past leaders, it would be futile and senseless to return to such an environment!

I did NOT leave the GOP—she left me. If you can support THIS, I can't support you:
<http://bit.ly/2i6fnFa> #ReaganDemocrat

The TRUTH is I'm more independent than anything, but that is NOT a winning option. I love and dislike things in both parties, and Trump MUST be defeated!

'Us vs. them' is NOT a winning formula for America, medium- or long-term. When you start valuing principles over parties, you start winning for America!

Let me describe the beliefs that would NOT let me return to the GOP if long-held into the future: White male rule, minorities be da_ ned, money is god, racism is OK if it wins you the White House, it's OK to abandon Christian morals to win power, less-qualified Americans deserve government keeping their jobs away from more-qualified immigrants, all Muslims should be suspect in our minds absent any evidence of terrorist ties, Putin's U.S.A.'s friend, RINO's are evil compromisers, the Feds are evil, taxes are evil, the rich and big business can do no wrong, I won't help a poor person out one iota, and that's called "freedom," and is legal, and I'm personally proud of it, though I'll never state so explicitly in public. THESE beliefs of Trumpsters will keep this ex-GOP from returning!

In the days of Reagan, MOST of those beliefs would have been ANATHEMA. Evil has crept in in the past 30 years, as religion and morals are disdained by the majority.

The church got in bed with that spirit, this election, for power idolatry, even if for a moral cause, like voicing opposition to most—if not all—abortions.

Even if Trump died, there are enough alt-right GOP voters that I could not return; revival of old GOP ways would have to occur.

I don't share those values I just described—never have, never will. That doesn't mean I agree with everything Dems believe in. I only keep the good of both, but you have to be in one and not the other, at least under the current system. Reasonable, moral GOP's are now the minority. This could be just temporary anger over the Obama/RINO years. Time will tell.

I KNOW Chump is very defeatable, so maybe such humiliation will wake up the elders of the party to return to traditional GOP beliefs?

But the dumb hick stereotype has only been reinforced: Angry, white, uneducated people who are racist, and can't keep up in a global world.

The solution is NOT running to daddy Chump, but bettering yourself skill-wise and academically. If you won't, expect a career at Blockbuster or fixing typewriters and beepers and sewing machines!

The economy has passed you by. You have NO alternative but to re-train and re-educate. If your IQ is too low, you better start a business, work double shifts, or invent something successful.

The toothpaste of globalism will NOT go back in the tube, but your financial opportunities WILL go down the tubes if you don't adjust to the new reality! You can blame both parties, and greedy executives, but that doesn't pay bills!

You can bemoan that so many immigrants are now here, but they are NOT going away. You must look in the mirror and change something about yourself today!

Deal with the real, and realize the good 'ol boy system is giving way to the new global reality that you either keep up or get trampled in the job market!

The VERY ironic thing is that this is that your political philosophy at work: Hyper individualism and dog-eat-dog conservatism eating your lunch and lunch money!

Hate, jealousy, envy, anger and violence are NOT moral responses to this new normal, which began in the late 1980's. Anyone at any age can re-train.

I did at age 33, and started to in my 50's (i.e., architecture). I empathize with any with lower IQ's. Find a trade skill that still pays well in U.S.A.! Learn to budget better.

Downsize your expectations. NO U.S. law says your kids' lifestyles must be greater than yours was. You may even be able to improve your IQ by stretching that muscle more.

Work harder, work faster, be more creative. Self-preservation demands it of you; or go survivalist, or move to China. Economics argues against U.S. businesses medium- to long-term bringing jobs here they can pay less for elsewhere. They may, for awhile, to support Chump, politically.

You have to invest in you. WHO else cares for you more than yourself? It's smart to voice your concerns at the polling booths, but you are in a competition—are you winning?

If you are not, you have to adjust your strategy! The best jobs are earned by the brightest and best hustlers. If you aren't as bright, find another way. Live outside the box.

Work longer hours, smarter, two jobs—whatever it takes, for America needs the best minds here, vs. living in competing nations! Make a decision!

Unions may try to help you, but it's an employer's market now, with over-outsourcing and over-immigration. You can't wait for them to resurrect!

Find a skill you are uniquely gifted at, and pursue it with all your might! Take an evaluation test to determine what that skill might be. Live frugal and work harder!

I see Americans every day driving slowly, walking slowly, casually going about life. Immigrants I know are NOT taking this competition lightly!

They will win this battle, the way things are going, and they should, as that's the American way. They're just using our laws and values to win, and you are often resting on our history laurels and past achievements to ride the coat tails of our business founders, vs. competing at a pace and intensity of your foreign competitor. That LOSES!

NOTHING will change globalism. You adjust or get rolled over. Decide today to be a better employee for your family and self. Government won't rescue you.

Indications of Influence

Introduction

With over ninety thousand tweets in over seven years, there are MANY more posts we could include as evidence (as well as what you will find throughout this book), but we try to keep boredom to a minimum. How these ideas got seen by most VIP's and referenced politicians is fully explained in our free book, Christians For Trump. The dates of our tweets are often more important to show influence, than the quantity we chose to put here. Also, I can retweet many more posts on these and other subjects, as need be.

Issues Impacted: The forgotten 'little guy,' America first, destroy ISIS, better trade deals, control the borders, lower business taxes (to ~25 percent), middle class tax cut, etc.

He's [i.e., Trump] a copycat on several issues, but NOT in his morals, or ignorance. Read those books or all our past tweets, time-stamped! The proof is out there. (5/19/16)

Related Tweets

I will debate EVERY 2016 candidate HERE, and am open to any TV or radio show for opinions or interviews to refute any of their failed ideas, humbly. (4/28/15)

I was a Twitter warrior WELL BEFORE Chump! I'm even on three of his lists, for criticizing him SO severely all year long; Twitter search "#DumpChump," "#DumpTrump." (1/4/16)

There are FEW things Trump's doing that we did not suggest here first, except for all the bad things he says, and any bad positions; no wonder he's doing well. (2/24/16)

[Trump's] NOT ORIGINAL in pointing these things out. He LIKELY got them from here! I can date-stamp my tweets, and they're all in three books now. (5/19/16)

THIS Twitter site called for curbing over-outsourcing WELL BEFORE many in D.C. watched us write our latest book here, or anyone entered the 2016 presidential race! (2/25/17)

General Topics

@GOP: FIX the economy, lower debt, close borders, drill safely, help the poor be independent, defend against ISIS, and better education. Common sense politics! (11/5/14)

On debt reduction, closed borders, strong national defense, law and order and U.S.A. #1 and a great economy, I'm conservative. #TeaParty #GOP (12/11/14)

Wow! Almost word-for-word what I tweeted last week! <http://fxn.ws/1AhV8YM> Obama's account is here many days—Follow good advice! I do, by faith. (2/17/15)

#MakeAmericaMoreAmerican Bring back jobs, U.S. workers > immigrants, STRONG military, Pro-business, ~energy independent, lower debt, NO severe poor! (10/5/15)

#DearNextPresident Grow more and better-paying jobs, destroy ISIS, close our borders, pay down the debt, fix education and get something DONE in D.C.! (1/12/16)

Closed borders, defeat ISIS, better education, as small a government as possible, as with taxes. On THESE issues I'm as conservative as Sean Hannity. (3/30/16)

Let's say what TRUE Republicans DO believe in: Closed borders to illegals, strong economy and military, smaller debt and government, law and order. (8/22/16)

Specific Topics

Bipartisanship (Cf.: Centrism)

Congrats Romney! I predicted he'd be the GOP nominee over a year ago, and have the email to prove it (from an editor for my political book). (2/28/12)

Congrats President Obama. Now implement sound, EFFECTIVE economic policies! That's my one-week out prediction. (12/1/12)

Congrats George W. Bush, and THANKS for some freedom in the Middle East. Just enhanced the war effort too late. Great Texan I voted for twice. (4/25/13)

CONGRATS @MarcoRubio and @SenJohnMcCain! I voted for both of you for president and presidential nominee! <http://nbcnews.to/2bU3nFI> Victory is SWEET, and maintaining GOP's reputation! (8/30/16)

CONGRATULATIONS!, and well-earned, @BarackObama #ProfilesInCourage #Camelot #JFK (5/7/17)

Civic Service

See: "Compulsory civic service" references, throughout our books.

Revive the concept of citizenship, where everybody's actions make difference in changing world. —John Kasich (10/16/15)

Common Sense

See: All of our political books and twitter sites, and related Facebook speeches.

I was writing and touting common sense as the basis for good public policy well before it became fashionable, in 2016! (9/5/16): Our political positions are consistent with common sense, and the Bible. Can any party say that? Book: Dumb as a Donkey, Fat as an Elephant. (3/16/12)

Debt

See: Our many references to exploding debt problem, in our three political books.

For God's sake, don't send Washington another dime until they stop wasting the money they're already sending there. #ChrisChristie; GOP debate. (10/28/15)

Let me tell you, everybody, when they say they want to give it to you for free, keep your hands on your wallets, because they're coming to you to pay for it. —Chris Christie (12/30/15)

Government Streamlining (Cf.: Rex Tillerson's efforts)

The poor don't have enough, the middle class barely eaks by; OF COURSE the rich should be taxed more, IF government is streamlined, and the budget is still not met. (4/23/13)

I have NO objection to taxing the wealthy more, but ONLY after government has been fully streamlined and all waste eliminated. Warren Buffett is a ROLE MODEL! (5/13/14)

Families and businesses streamline all the time, and government NEEDS to. Why do churches INCREASE their budgets, and strain vs. bless hard-working parishioners? (6/7/14)

If government got fully streamlined, for the best bang for the buck, yet still our budget wasn't balanced, the rich can afford more tax contribution, as a LAST RESORT! (10/16/14)

Humble, Servant Leadership

Ronald Reagan knew how to go big, and go bold. –Gov. Walker Leadership is not about me, it's about our country. –Chris Christie He [George Bush] kept us safe. –Jeb Bush (12/30/15) [an argument we made].

New leadership; Get things done. –Martin O'Malley This is a great country, but we have many serious problems; I want colleges to get their costs down. –Bernie Sanders (12/30/15)

Immigration

We addressed the immigration problem well before Chump even thought about it!: (6/6/17): NO ONE has a God-given legal RIGHT to immigrate to the U.S.A. It's a privilege we citizens afford you, or not. Humility vs. arrogance. (5/16/13)

I saw immigration for the political problem it was for GOP's, way before the 2016 election! (9/4/16): HOW is making 11 million illegals citizens fair to the GOP (or the millions who have been in line, and seeking citizenship legally)? It's not. (1/29/13)

I pointed out problems with immigration WELL BEFORE Chump thought of an ignorant 50' wall! I've been #NeverTrump since he insulted Hispanics and POW's! Consistent! (1/6/17): It's HIGH time non-natives who move to Texas learn the Texas driving rules—SLOWER TRAFFIC KEEP RIGHT, and green means GO. There are too many people to move SLOW! (4/5/13)

China, Japan, Mexico—every sovereign nation secures its borders. –Marco Rubio (11/11/15)

Infrastructure

See: Traffic & Transportation (MESSAGE)

Congress HAS to learn that traffic jams cost the American economy billions a year! But if people are going to drive slow anyway, why bother? Hustlers need their own roads! (6/8/17)

ISIS Defeated (& MOAB bomb; Cf.: Strong national defense)

ISIS buried kids alive, and used the mentally challenged as suicide bombers, according to @TheWellsReport last night. How LONG will we TOLERATE this? (2/6/15)

You can't bomb your way out of the ISIS threat? The heck you can't! HIROSHIMA taught 'US' what you are too young to have yet learned, Obama aide. Peace through strength! (2/17/15)

We're not going to authorize use of force if you're not in a position to win. –Marco Rubio (9/17/15)

ISIS is on the move, and growing; Iran can't wait to nuke Israel off the map, to be the new leader in that region, with Russia's blessing. Where's America? (12/8/16)

Israeli Peace Brokering (Cf.: Kushner's failed efforts)

There are likely solutions to the Israeli-Palestinian issue. Our book lists at least four. The multi-millennia-long Hatfield's and McCoy's SHOULD come to an end! (1/14/15)

Send @DennisRodman or @RevJJackson if you don't have the backbone to negotiate an Israeli conflict settlement! NO need for P.R., or preconditions—just TALK. (1/22/15)

#Obama: Gather ALL Arab group leaders, find their top gripes, see how we and the West can help with any of them, then find any win-win with the Israeli conflict. (1/23/15)

[Problems:] ~300,000 displaced Palestinians, border skirmishes, difficult Arab access through Israeli gates, uniting voting bloc, strained access to holy sites. (1/26/15)

Has Israel done wrong things? YES. Have any of their Arab enemies? YES. You CAN'T do tit-for-tat, forever, keeping score, and doing Mt. 7:3 vs. Mt. 7:12! (1/27/15)

Christians should NOT be for any provocative actions by Arabs or Israelis! Being pro-Israel is NOT the same as being for every act she engages in. That's blind STUPIDITY! (12/23/16)

As a Christian, I'm 100 percent pro-Israel, but ONLY when she acts morally! Arabs who act moral are to be EQUALLY treated by U.S. policy—NO favoritism! (Rom. 2:11) (12/23/16)

Show your GREAT negotiating skills, and travel to Israel to broker a 7-year peace deal before Jan 20 [2016], @RealDonaldTrump Reagan freed hostages, and got a BUMP. (12/23/16)

PLEASE go broker a 7-year peace deal between Israel and her enemies, IF you're such a 'GREAT negotiator,' @realdonaldtrump You won't, because you can't! (12/24/16)

Evangelicals for CHUMP, because they're 'pro-Israel?' I'm at least as pro-Israel as them, and I'm #NeverTrump, EVER! I'm NOT for any of their sins, nor Arabs! Balance. (1/5/17)

Middle Class

'Dead broke' was a LIE, but one can sincerely care about the middle class's pay raise, and NOT be a hypocrite. She's NOT the best spokesperson for the cause, though! (Pv. 13:7) (4/23/15)

A stronger middle class is actually a source of economic growth. —Martin O'Malley (12/14/15)

Women are not a special interest group. Women are the majority of this nation-Fiorina; the middle class has declining income with participation before 1977. —Ted Cruz (12/30/15)

Our middle class is shrinking. Our poor families are becoming poorer, and 70 percent of us are earning the same, or less than we were twelve years ago. —Martin O'Malley (12/30/15)

Minimum Wage Increase

Minimum wage is NEEDED, as with a tax break for the middle class. On this issue, I'm 100 percent a Democrat, because it's the RIGHT thing to do (my standard). (7/10/15)

I was pro a minimum wage increase, well before the 2016 candidates. (9/4/16): GLAD to see workers fighting for their rights to decent pay (vs. executives with all the perks of life), but $15 an hour is far too much! (12/7/13)

Moral Politicians

See: All references to "Pledgers," or "Pledged Politicians."

I know the Democrats have ultimate Super Pac. It's called the mainstream media (Marco Rubio); Presidents need moral authority to bring the entire country together. —John Harwood (12/30/15)

Please do the right thing. —Bernie Sanders (Unspecified date; See: Minimum Wage post, above)

Over-Outsourcing

Saw over-outsourcing as a problem well before the 2016 election season! (9/4/16): Who has most benefitted from outsourcing or laying off American jobs? Big corporate executives, who are paid to hurt fellow citizens—often money for evil. (5/16/13)

One of the first in politics to identify big business over-outsourcing and over-immigrating, to U.S. workers' decline! (9/4/16): With layoffs, outsourcing/automation/over-working staff, and seeking more immigrants, big business is unpatriotic to U.S. citizens needing employment. (12/24/13)

We warned against business abuses WELL before Chump ever thought about it!: (1/6/17): Who has most benefitted from outsourcing or laying off American jobs? Big corporate executives, who are paid to hurt fellow citizens—often money for evil. (5/16/13)

Who first identified automation and robotics unemployment dangers, as with over-outsourcing and over-immigration? It WASN'T Trump! (who's been by here before). (5/22/17): Expect large unemployment increase in the next 5-10 years, if Sam's Club stops using cashiers for all self-checkout, as retailers emulate the Big Dog! (4/17/14)

THIS Twitter site called 4 curbing over-outsourcing WELL before many in D.C. watched us write our latest book here, or anyone entered the 2016 presidential race! (2/25/17)

Over-Paid Executives (Ex.: Hedge funds)

I'm all for the sky's the limit income attitude, but billion dollar salaries for top hedge fund managers is ridiculous. A HUGE give back is OWED to society! (6/10/13)

Pharaoh (Cf.: DACA Dreamers)

You are in the position of the Pharaoh of the Old Testament, that you rarely read, who kept saying he'd let God's people go, then relented! 100 percent manipulated by Satan. (9/24/16)

'Picnic' Diplomacy

See: Our reliance on 'truth' as their background to all our tweets, and books, as with our tweets on 'Picnic Diplomacy' (more often found in our book, The Way Things Ought To Be).

A lot of our problems in the world, today, is that we don't have the relationships with our allies. —John Kasich; treat them like adults, and tell the truth. —Chris Christie (12/30/15)

Political Correctness Abuses

See: Many references to the negatives of Political Correctness, detailed in our three political books (and many tweets).

We decried Political Correctness WELL BEFORE Chump even saw us write our third political book, live on Twitter, Nov., 2014 to June, 2016! Copy cat! (1/6/17): Anger is NOT a sin, or Jesus sinned. We're commanded to be angry, and yet not sin, be slow to it, and not let the sun go down on it, P.C. idolizers. (4/24/13)

Race

We warned of racial tensions early on: (9/5/16): White America is accustomed to a high lifestyle, but may someday be in for a rude awakening (Ex.: minority babies exceeded theirs on July 1, 2015) (6/21/12)

Principles

See: Our hundreds of tweets saying 'principles over party,' and 'country over party,' (throughout our books and Twitter sites).

Personalities come and go, but principles—principles endure. Ideas endure; ready to inspire generations yet to be born. —Paul Ryan @PRyan (3/23/16)

Social Security

No one will espouse changing Social Security, but it SHOULD be means-tested, at least for a time, and the qualifying age raised! Politicians FEAR all elderly citizens vote like sheep. (12/22/14)

WE proposed this WELL BEFORE Chris Christie said it as a presidential candidate!: (1/6/17): QUIT giving Social Security funds to people who don't need it—rich people—even though they earned it... (4/23/13)

Means-test Social Security, and increase the qualifying age. Cut out all entitlement abuse, and DON'T reduce our debt ONLY off the military's backs, via Obama, @RNC! (12/19/14)

Solve Problems

Where have you heard this before?—Jeb Bush: I reject that we can't solve problems, gridlock is too enormous to forge consensus. It requires some CREATIVITY to get to a win for everyone. (2/26/15)

90 percent of U.S. workers don't own a bar; don't own a business—they work for a living. —Rick Santorum; It's about challenging the status quo, solving problems, and producing results. (12/30/15)

Strong NATO but Pay Your Fair Share

SO proud of #NATO! It's TIME for reasonable people EVERYWHERE to NOT put up with irrational and unnecessary dangers to our peace and safety! (9/5/14)

BRIC?... WakeUpAmerica! There are alliances seeking to destroy the U.S./E.U./NATO economically and; otherwise (NOT Brazil). (12/25/14)

But NOT paying disproportional share, either in time, talent, treasure, or especially talent (deaths). The U.N. could improve, and we have #NATO. (1/26/15)

Enlist NATO, allies and the U.N.; DON'T fund it all ourselves; LEAD from the front! Trust but verify. STRONG U.S. military. More technology, less U.S. lives lost. (1/30/15)

NATO, U.N., U.S., charities, all nations, business, the wealthy, average Joe volunteers... you ALL can play a part for a BETTER world. Bill Gates is the standard bearer! (2/15/15)

Putin is STILL up to ally expansion. WHEN are you 'gonna counter it, @NATO? DON'T expect him to let up! <http://bit.ly/1FsRf4q> #Russia #NATO #Ukraine (2/25/15)

Swamp (Anti-Status Quo)

See: All references to “Pledgers,” or “Pledged Politicians.”

Slamming status quo politics and career politicians, well before others: (9/4/16): LABELS do not establish legitimacy, spin does not negate substance, and dismissiveness do not cause facts to disappear. (11/11/13)

Anyone hear any copycat steal a few of our thousands of ideas? (1/27/18): Politics is ANATHEMA to me; has been for YEARS, but I thought it could be fixed. Unless the swamp is COMPLETELY drained, I may have been WRONG! @Pledgers2020! (10/13/15)

Anti D.C. status quo WELL BEFORE Chump ever got our idea! LOOK at the start dates of @ImMadTooEdwin, @Pledgers2020 and @PledgersARCHIVE Tweets posted and liked there have been around for YEARS. You just don't know that! (10/29/17): NO back room deals on anything but top secret military strategy! Sunshine laws for EVERY detail, so NOTHING slips by us; 'We the people' are united! (12/19/14)

An A and M graduate Congressman says it's time to say enough's enough, with the rhetorical extremism and division. Welcome to the party! @Pledgers2020 @ImMadTooEdwin (6/14/17)

Trade Deals (more, and less job outsourcing; See: Economic messages)

BRIC?... WakeUpAmerica! There are alliances seeking to destroy the U.S./E.U./NATO economically and; otherwise (NOT Brazil). (12/25/14)

BRIC is trying to compete with the U.S. and her trade partners. KICK THEIR B-TT! For the less informed, that's Brazil, Russia, Iran and China. STOP being so ignorant... U.S.—LEAD! (2/10/15)

[Retweeted private account:] Americans agree on trade: Good for the country, but not great for jobs. <http://t.co/ZC3WZKU3ZQ> #trade #employment #jobs (1/20/15)

I'd like to think our messages about the economy and wages impacted GP2 [unrecalled reference], given the CHRONOLOGY, and how many politicians watched the past two months! <http://t.co/BVf9WFWTnf> (2/21/15)

U.N. and World Court Renewal

50K+ child refugee illegals cross the U.S border. Time for OTHER countries to pay their fair share to solve the world's problems, through the U.N.. vs. mainly through the U.S.A. (7/4/14)

EVERYONW who is alive needs money, food, water, clothes, shelter and a job. THAT's a U.N. agenda we should ALL support. NOT one-world government—that's mid-Tribulation. (1/7/15)

We have a world court. It MAY be time for a world prison for captured terrorists; NOT releasing them from Gitmo to kill again, #Obama! #CommonSense! (1/16/15)

WOW! Could the world FINALLY be waking up to unite to morality, and NOT evil? This is unusual for the U.N! <http://bit.ly/15D4X9z> @UN #PeacefullyCoexist (1/22/15)

Want MORE terrorists, more voting against the U.S. in the U.N.? Stay bogged down in political infighting and gridlock! FOOLISH practice and strategy of D.C. politicians! (1/26/15)

Today's politicians MUST engage this and the Kashmir issue, and any conflicts which can lead to war! Where's the @UN in its ORIGINAL vs. corrupted intentions? (1/26/15)

ALL nations SHOULD do and pay their part to keep the world secure, but we know they don't all, and some can't. The U.N. SHOULD be revamped or replaced—opinion. (2/12/15)

I am NOT referring to one-world government forced on the world, mid-Tribulation, but voluntary goal-setting the U.N. should consider! Any resisters would be a prob for the world. (2/14/15)

I had a conversation with a guy, yesterday, wondering if I'm for the U.S. always getting involved? When in our national interest was my answer, and I said the U.N. was a good use against Boko Haram. (2/16/15)

But SOMEBODY needs to STOP identity theft, human trafficking, etc. WHO would that hero somebody be? We have a world court; why not a world prison and military? (2/20/15)

The @UN could play a HUGE part, so ALL nations do their "fair share," and especially regarding teaching them to fish, vs. keep paying to give them fish—and to end genocide. (2/20/15)

200,000 in concentration camps, 16 million mal-nourished, $800 million spent on nukes, received $200 million in U.N. foreign aid. #TheInterview #NorthKorea evils—if these are accurate statistics. (2/22/15)

Wall (i.e., Borders)

Close borders, NO amnesty, lower debt, revise Obamacare, destroy ISIS and grow a real economy. You have two years. EARN YOUR KEEP, "sir!" [Obama] (2/6/15)

UNLESS a 50 foot solid wall is built, and all illegals are deported, Pence and Christie are LYING, to spin Trump's changes as not changes, but "consistent!" (8/28/16)

A 50' wall would make NO sense at Big Bend, Texas, or Santa Elena Canyon, despite Chump's ridiculous lack of knowledge on the subject! That WON'T occur! (3/10/17)

...in a car, before and after the Border Patrol check point, at night, but I'm sure they have infrared, helicopters, lasers, AWAX, satellite, and are aware of that potentiality. (3/10/17)

Instead of a wall, use drones, sensors, lasers, infrared, choppers, AWACS, alarms, sonar. A wall WOULDN'T be cheaper, as you still must monitor violations! (3/18/17)

A wise owl, yesterday, said MOST of the U.S. southern border is the Rio Grande River, and the U.S. WON'T build wall, often, as that would cut off our nearby water source, and cede it to Mexico! (4/13/17)

#BuildTheWall...

- ◆ Mexico WON'T pay for it any more than I can put an addition on my home, and send the bill to a neighbor, and any court would support me in that.
- ◆ So the precious water resource of the Rio Grande River ALL becomes Mexico's, and all we get is screwed up scenery, otherwise beautiful?
- ◆ Even though we possess sonar, radar, lasers, sensors, AWACS, choppers, infrared, and all the technology to keep illegals out, ALREADY? Dumb.
- ◆ Because our national debt is not high enough already, that we go to the brink of default in ever-raising the debt ceiling every year?
- ◆ Even though illegals can burrow under, fly over, or go around, through east and west coasts, or Canada? GREAT idea from the 'greatest mind'—NOT! Duh. (4/19/17)

We're going to build a 50 foot, 'beautiful' wall, and Mexico is going to pay for it. LIAR, @POTUS You want U.S. to pay for it, because it's a STUPID idea from a stupid man. #WORSTprez (4/24/17)

The local NBC affiliate verified EXACTLY what we've said all along, last night: The wall is NOT needed, if you use technology! They filmed out of New Mexico. (4/27/17)

Build a 50' wall, and ban all Muslims. Those were about his only set/firm [campaign] ideas. You NEVER believe a serial liar! He's LYING that the GOP has 'unity!' He NEEDS GOP'ers to win in 2018, so he has an ounce of hope to ruin U.S.A. four more years! He doesn't want any but alt-right GOP's, and [Steve] Bannon is his implementor! (10/17/17)

Yesterday, one GOP politician admitted that Chump didn't know a wall all across the southern border wasn't needed everywhere. Chump LIED that he never envisioned that. Serial liars with ego sin problems can never admit mistakes, like sex with a porn star, or MANY other examples. "Fake' baby Christian! (2/1/18)

Welcome to common sense! Juan Williams: Who will help Trump climb down from his Wall?

NO misleading TV ads in campaigns. No more ruining workers and the middle class for big business’ money, to keep your campaigns afloat, #politicians! #USUnited (12/19/14)

Common sense says ending the minimum wage would HURT workers more than help a few workers in North Dakota oil fields, Hannity and Gingrich! Duh 101 (12/19/14)

CEO salary rises compared to the average worker, over decades, were NOT 100 percent ‘market-based,’ but schmoozy, self-serving with complicit boards [of directors] members! (12/23/14)

Letting the "top dogs" enjoy all the spoils does NOT go unnoticed by workers and the unemployed, who can ALL vote! I HOPE they ALL will do so! (12/23/14)

If you have read through this book, on several occasions we recommended these two priorities well before tRump pawned that hard work onto Mistery Kushner and Tillerson. We will spare you the multiple tweets as proof.

SINCE Chump is targeting blue collar and rural workers, the answers to their globalization plight are NOT unfunded tax rebates and tariffs, but better job skills for the modern era, skills at buying cheaply

I-C8. PRESIDENTIAL PLANS

COMING CAMPAIGN

Tasks remaining: AmericanAnswers.org online, Youtube speech online, publish 10 books, file with SEC, PAC started, manager/agent, backers, implement marketing plan, and after books get known, announce. Then, campaign trail daily, 'everywhere.' & Miles2GoB4iSleep @Pledgers2020 @ImMadTooEdwin @2020Victory (4/5/18)

As of tomorrow I will have handed out two politician business cards, both of which had my slogan scratched out, until I trademark it, when I make some sales (as with our new website going online). My son said his amigo put it up to the light and turned it over to try to discern the phrase. I had prepared for that! (4/12/18)

If you had cancer, and someone said they found the cure, you'd try it, no matter the name of that cure, or if you had ever heard of the doctor who found it! Our three political books ARE the cure for all that ails Washington D.C. Try them, please, at AmericanAnswers.org (online soon). (4/16/18)

Our new website, AmericanAnswers.org has over 1,000 pages on topics like political pundit quotes and assessment, business and consulting tips, religion in politics, investing. It's already 100 percent complete, and will be online near Thanksgiving. ALL of our books will also be available there. (4/20/18)

We are running for office. I don't know when it will be announced, as I'm just following God, who called me to such purpose on 3/21/15, which Jack Graham (and the church members) witnessed. (6/26/17) By law you are to make public announcements about running for office at certain times, as fund raising and registration rules start then. Timing is essential. (6/26/17)

And, to me, there is NO reason to announce when books aren't on the market; just a publicity stunt, if premature, it seems to me. I'm open to do what I'm led to do. (6/26/17)

AmericanAnswers.org is already 100 percent complete, but I want NO confusion with the midterms, so whoever wins wins on their own merits, and not by stealing our ideas. After that date, anyone can access our ideas, and I can't stop them riding our books' coattails. I WON'T let that occur until I'm ready to benefit, too! (7/4/18)

I'm assuming Nov. or Dec. is when all our family's needs will be met. Then six months of book marketing, then make it official (June); especially after my eldest son graduates, so he can assist me (BFF). These dates can change some, depending on how God leads, but seem pretty reasonable. #Planning #Politics (7/4/18)

So I got three books out of a four year online Twitter experience!: Wit and Wisdom, Christians For Trump, and whatever you want to call this weekend's rough-draft 2014 summary(?) #writing (6/18/18) But some of these men didn't. In late March, 2015, I got my first inkling that this band of ~four pastors were trying to recruit me to run for office. I had fasted for two weeks, and late at night the Lord called me for/to a specific job. It was so personal, I later deleted it online, but it's in the book [Christians For Trump]. (6/22/18)

Nov.: New website online. Until then, political logistics arranged, as number one priority gets achieved—family supported, through sales. Once a certain figure is earned comes a full-time political run. Not before, and not official until late May, or early June, 2019. It's 'gonna be bare knuckles, intense, and time away from family. (7/4/18)

The ONLY tax returns I'll ever publicly release, for the past 10 years, are this: I've spent WELL over 9.5 hours a day, on average, EVERY day of those past 10 years, writing books (and you don't get paid for them until they are completed), plus three energy sales. You'll NEVER know my wife's salary! (8/25/18)

The ONLY other public notification you'll EVER learn about my tax returns is this: If you can live at our standard of living, in the area of town that we live in, with the money we live off of, I may kiss your shoes! You all but can't spend as frugally as we do, and I could do even better at it. (8/25/18)

POLITICAL PLANS

The Christian walks by faith. Here's what I've CONSISTENTLY gotten as to the plan and dates for our future moves (which can change, but hasn't in more than one year): New website and YouTube videos online Nov. 2018. Books promoted Jan.-June, 2019. June 19, 2019 forward, implement three-pronged campaign, nationally.

Now until Jan., get family finances and weight under control, secure a manager, and funding (PAC, SEC filing), finalize business plan, etc. One canNOT do what I'm called to, being an unfunded unknown, by just going out on the trail, without the books being available, and some information about the beliefs known for FREE, by people/voters!

Therefore, book promotion of ideas is more important than promoting oneself as a candidate, until such ideas get more known to the general public (Jan.-June). The minute the family's money needs are met, I'll do that full-time. They have to have income while I'm out promoting and running, and energy sales do just that.

NO agent is going to pick you up if you can't hire them, or funders back you if they don't know of you, and your win potential, so that spade work begins before the book promotion does. I KNOW many people would say just start campaigning, as you've got to get known, and you have the most work to do in that regard.

My ~thirteen books are what got us on the map--NOT my public speaking or personality before crowds or cameras (though those will be fine)! I also know all other competitors will get a six month jump in the early states, but they have to rely on slogans, stump speeches, a few chosen issues, and personal meeting with people.

I can do the same with MUCH more intensity and a better three-pronged campaign plan than just promoting self and slogans and name recognition, starting June 19th! I've had that three-pronged plan in business plan format for more than a year, and its skills they can't emulate, by God's grace.

I am a 100 percent inexperienced, and know there are things I DON'T know, so I'm open to refining suggestions, but you've got to follow the faith God gives you, trusting He's able to bring victory, and always willing to adjust course as (or better, if) He uses others to advise and counsel, as needed. If I didn't believe in His plan just described, I'd follow the traditional route 100 percent.

Ex: When all our books are available to any and everyone (Amazon, or otherwise), likely and partially promoted by fifty strategically-placed billboards (and media interviews), ANY state can learn what beliefs trump others running, without my having to cater mainly to the early states (though they will be visited), and for much cheaper!

Finally, I WILL do EXACTLY what the competitors do, their starting in January, but with the books' ideas being our focus, and with voters able to see what our ideas compare to in their choices! I do NOT, nor will I ever like traditional politics, where politicians pretend their one vote is so important, and they're so unique.

They USUALLY aren't!... just one more vote to the stereotypical positions of their party. We are NOT pushing that system, here, at all! We are pushing the best ideas from any source winning the day, and the legislative implementation, and I welcome great ideas from any coming competitors, which I expect to be many.

One more note: You notice I have been FULLY in support of Texas' governor and Beto. I push for the best candidate, no matter the party. I've also given MUCH strategic guidance to the party I'll be running for, and IF they follow that advice, no one can complain I'm NOT loyal to any party I seek support from.

This coming campaign is the ultimate expression of support, as it helps that party! If you like all the fighting, gridlock, demonizing and division, feel free to reject my coming candidacy! I am polar opposite of most all DJT stands for [except ideas he stole from us!], or anyone who advocates for much from either extremes!

I have NOT been led for 9.4 years to write in vain, nor was I called on Mar 21, 2015 to a very specific ministry/position), in vain! God does NOT fail, nor does He abandon His own, or end His plans for His own. No one running can appeal to both sides, and run as a Democrat, yet still appeal to WASP's like this ministry!

Let's spell that out for you in more detail: 81 percent of WASP's supported DJT. My pull with that voting bloc is FAR more credible than his, for 2020, hands down! Yet, my positions work fine in the Democrat party his win forced me to switch to, happily, as our FREE book details (Christians For Trump: Is God a Democrat or a Republican?).

NO Democrat can tap into Chump's Christian voter base, to destroy his ability to hurt U.S.A. any longer, through a second term, and our positions do NOT counter centered Democrat policies... only HARMFUL extremes, like pure Socialism, and a few other BAD and unbalanced ideas. Our books detail all these things.

And for any far left extremists, we take the GOOD they offer, but if any reject our campaign/candidacy, for not being extreme enough, that loss can easily be gained back in Christian votes, for any believers who actually follow God in deed—not lip service—in supporting a person who has walked closely with Him since 1978 (vs. DJT NEVER doing so)!

So why would I explicitly reveal my exact plans, in a way he surely will discover? I have ZERO fears he can keep up with the God I serve, and the plans He provides! I never have, in the three+ years, or the six preceding, or I would have quit! He's just a Goliath which David's stones have been honed to hit with force!

Update: He's Not Conservative Enough
(11/16/18)

I had a dream this morning, that a room full of politically-active Christians were gossiping that I am not conservative enough for them, to which the Lord reminded me of the following credentials:

- ◆ Seminary graduate
- ◆ Post-graduate studies at another seminary
- ◆ Have been a pastor (to youth)
- ◆ Taught Bible courses at a Bible college
- ◆ Have preached sermons at churches, and conducted a wedding.
- ◆ Have done more evangelism than most critics (as a layman)
- ◆ Wrote a 5,000 page New Testament Commentary
- ◆ Wrote WillYouLiveForever.org
- ◆ Wrote four other Christian books

Is that conservative enough for you?

I-D1. CHRISTIANS & POLITICS

72 percent [of white evangelicals] said they were now willing to overlook the moral failings of their leaders. —Public Religion Research Institute (Aug., 2017)

81 percent of WASP 'Christians' voted for Trump

Throughout the years, debates in Christians circles have arisen as to whether Christians should bug out of the political arena, embrace it with nose held, or fully jump in. Let's explore what god says about the 'dirty business' of politics.

A. The Men & Women God Uses

Every ruling power is ordained by God (Rom. 13:1), in the sense that He allows them to be in positions of power. That does not mean they are all morally equal, or that God wants them there, but allows it.

Certainly, Hitler served a purpose in the history of mankind, but that purpose had nothing to do with God's moral values, but the Devil's. This is to say that just because a politician wins an election, or forces his or her way into power (as in some countries), does not mean God is with or for that person. In fact, at times, God gets rid of perverse leaders (Dan. 2:21; Ac. 12:23)

B. What God Wants in Political Leaders

In 2016, this question was obviously rarely if ever answered by pastors from pulpits. How can we know what type people God wants/prefers to lead nations? He made it quite clear to the Israelites in Exodus 18:21 (and there's no textual reason that this verse should not apply in our generation). The traits for whom a Christian should vote are... people who:

- 1] Are Capable. Able, qualified, have plans and ideas, and a track-record for achieving their aims.
- 2] Fear God. A healthy, humble respect for our Maker. Not a mocking, dismissive attitude toward the Lord or His values.
- 3] Are Trustworthy. Have proven themselves to be honest, and worthy of the public trust.
- 4] Hate Dishonest Gain. Disapprove of people earning money dishonestly, and who are not in office to personally profit themselves.

Noah Webster said, "When a citizen gives his vote to a man of known immorality, he abuses his civic responsibility, and betrays the interest of his country."

Even the largest denomination in America, in 1998, passed the following resolution:

"Be it finally RESOLVED, That we urge all Americans to embrace and act on the conviction that character does count in public office, and to elect those officials and candidates who, although imperfect, demonstrate consistent honesty, moral purity and the highest character." —Southern Baptist Resolution (Adopted at the 1998 convention in Salt Lake City, UT)

C. What the Right Wanted in Their Political Leader

In 2016, Republicans were desperately seeking a second Ronald Reagan. Unfortunately, they never found much consensus that any of the 17 alternatives fit that bill. And no matter how many handlers tried to remake Trump into Reagan's image, but Reagan's sons agreed that Trump was nothing like their father. And beyond just the embodiment, the right was looking for certain policies, and reacting negatively to certain other ones, covered below.

Monorail at theme parks (Ex.: Six Flags), mainly for scenery/touring vs. transportation. Non-yellowing (over time) white T-shirts. Not-so-tiny portable man cave (like a mini tiny house on wheels with all the luxuries & fixin's). Organize.org (key word search and cause to organize and communicate with start-up activists). Pie & pizza slice shaped plate with sides/borders/walls. Polar Plunge at theme parks (bungee of plastic pod) into freezing cold water. Pray to receive Jesus for the forgiveness of ALL your sins (John 3:16). Portably air-conditioned uniforms w/armor-piercing bullet deflecting flak jackets NEED inventing 4cops on hot summer days. Products to keep snow build-up on roads gone for good (vs. snow plows continually working). Rain-proof motorcyclist clothes. Roomba robot that dusts, mops and polishes kitchen floors. Safe cannon shoot at theme parks. 6 Flags needs a gondola to transport patrons across the campus. 6 Flags needs a roller coaster that goes under water (at least through a glass tunnel). 6 Flags needs a speedy monorail around the campus, or a slow one to take in the scenery. Six Flags needs to live stream video of how full their parking lot is (to keep people from wasting long drives on over-crowded days). Six Flags' website needs to post average line length (to keep people from wasting long drives on over-crowded days). Smart kitchen cabinet shelf (speak-to & get item you want, wherever it's located within). Smart sewing machine. Smart street light adjusts length of green, according to which direction has the longer line (radar-determined). Smell and sound machine.

1. The 2016 Election: The Right Wanted a Reagan!

a) What it Meant to Be For Trump.

After choosing from among 17 other worthy Republican candidates, and with all the flip-flops, ambiguity and alternative facts, this is a very worthy question. In short, we have reduced what Trump voters were seeking for in a political 'savior' as the following (you will note, in reading our book, Wit and Wisdom, we first advocated most if not all these things well before he had any articulate policy positions):

1] Anti-Establishment.

Drain the swamp became his follower's mantra, but he soon learned that it takes more than a slogan to get progress achieved in Washington. Plus, we had advocated giving Congress one last chance before such a radical 'throw all the bums out' decision, as people's livelihoods are at stake, and, more importantly, I truly believe they can get along well enough to get good things done for our country, if they are taught how to and given a positive vision of cooperation. Our tweets did that (and our books will, as well).

2] Closed Borders.

This call quickly turned to a bogus promise to build a 50 foot, 'beautiful' wall that Mexico would pay for. Our intention was to curb illegal immigration, but NOT with a physical wall, but more sophisticated means like severe employers fines, e-verify systems, beefed up border patrols and technology (like sensors, lasers, infra-red, satellites, drones—not armed, as ben Carson suggested—and cameras). The intent, also, was never to return families who had been in America past three years (i.e., been established), but to put them in the back of the line for citizenship, after paying fines and back taxes (as George Bush had suggested). Rounding up criminals, and deporting freshly law-breaking illegals was not a problem, but slandering most illegals as criminals or rapists was so far beyond any pale of decency.

3] Anti-Abortion; Pro Religious Liberty.

If anyone in America can be documented to have advocated for religious liberty, and specifically, Christians being more politically involved, it was myself. Beginning with calls to oppose national gay marriage in favor of state's rights on the issue, I, humbly, helped start this political movement/resurrection within the church. However, I never advocated for denying gays relationships (i.e., I was for legal civil unions, as was George Bush), or especially any hatred of or discrimination against them, as we are all equals. See more details at our book, Wit and Wisdom.

4] Small Government/Constitution.

On this issue, I have always advocated for ending all fraud, waste and abuse in government spending. Then and only then can you know what revenues the government needs, but certainly I have always agreed that government is too large, at-present and currently constituted, given that we are beholden to China and we go to the bankruptcy brink every year on our credit limits.

5] Strong Military.

One needs only read Wit and Wisdom to conclude both that we have always been for this, but our ideas were in the open marketplace of ideas well before Trump formulated his more alt-right positions. We even taunted him to bomb Syria just after that government gassed its own people.

6] Pro-Business.

As an MBA, ex-Management Consultant and business man (and one who has written a book on how to improve businesses), my commitment to U.S. business cannot be questioned. The fact that, politically, I argue against extremes that hurt workers, in the pursuit of the almighty dollar, that balanced approach does differ from a pure dog eat dog philosophy.

7] America Number One.

Wit and Wisdom documents how USA #1 was one of our most prominent hashtags the past three years on Twitter.

b) What it Meant to be Against Obama.

1] Anti-Globalism.

Piggybacking on the USA #1 theme, we have always advocated putting America first, but also having her be first in her morality, too, which would also include concern for the well-being of other nations, not only for national security, allied partnerships (economically and militarily), but also on a humanitarian basis.

2] Anti-Political Correctness.

Again, a quick read of Wit and Wisdom will document that we were one of the first to associate an abuse of Political Correctness with slowly decaying American values and influence.

3] Anti-Big Government.

See: Small government, above.

4] Anti-Socialized Medicine & Obamacare.

We have always and forever called for Obamacare to be revised—never merely repealed. That decision puts millions on the streets with their health needs, and is basically blessing the rich off the health of the less fortunate.

5] Anti-Tepid Economy.

The sub-prime mortgage crisis started our most recent downturn, and that crisis cannot be pinned on Obama. However, our economy did not rebound as much or as quickly as most conservatives would have liked, and Obama's economic policies certainly were not always favorable toward business and investment. And when you include the under-employed, and those who have stopped looking for a job, the situation became even more terrible. I was likely the first person to openly and publicly clamor against the abuses of over-immigration and over-outsourcing (documented in our book), which Trump, through my (at the time) tweet-monitoring church's pastor, easily would have broadcast to Trump and others (See: Christian Cabal chapter).

6] Anti International Weakness.

I have always fought against a ‘lead from behind’ approach, saying doing so is the definition of following. I understand that America had to get our global partners to do more of their fair share, but sitting idly by, hands folded, while crises erupted, only empowered Russia, China and Iran, as U.S. influence abroad waned.

7] Anti-Wealth Redistribution.

On this issue, although I agree with conservatives that free-willed giving is morally preferable to forced, many issues in life we do not rely on the honor system for getting man to comply with, and I have always argued that to do so would not only be insufficient (in total quantity), but also unstable for the recipients, as there are many rich people in America who have zero intention of ever helping another soul with any money they earned—much unlike Bill Gates and Warren Buffett, who I consider moral heroes of the business world.

D. Is God a Democrat or a Republican?

1. What Political Party is the Party of God?

The GOP, traditionally, at least, has claimed to be the party of the religious right and values voters. However, the truth is and the facts are that neither political party is perfect, and only in policies that conform to godliness would God side with either. In other words, God would be neither of the above.

2. What Are Christian Political Issues?

Contrary to narrow, biased groups who only care about abortion and homosexuality, anything with a moral element in political policy-making is of concern to God, and should be to His people.

E. Issues, Queries & Questions

1. America is Not a ‘Christian Nation,’ or a Theocracy?

Unlike nations like Iran, the religious establishment does not hold sway over American law-making. The American majority may claim Christianity as their religious affiliation, but, although America was founded on Judeo-Christian principles, we are not like Europe under Constantine, where any one religion was declared the official religion of the state.

2. How Laws Get Passed in America.

America is not a pure democracy but a representative one. What does that mean in practical terms? It means, first, that voters do not vote on each and every law, but they freely elect representatives, whose intelligence and integrity the public trusts enough to establish public policy and laws of the land. Second, it means that majority rule may be true in general, but not legally binding so much that any issue the public is keen on becomes law. Our Founding Fathers had the wisdom and foresight to see that people can develop group think (a sheepish herd mentality), can be quite temperamental (or wishy-washy), and especially that no matter what the majority wants, there are always minority views which must be equally considered and protected. So, should we elect such politicians of high character, we can rightly place our trust in their considering both the voice of the people and what is in the best interest of our nation as a whole.

3. We are Not Electing a Pope.

No one is morally perfect, so demanding a politician to be ‘blameless’ is putting upon public servants a pastor’s standard. At the same time, there is a base level of decency all politicians should live up to, as, being in the public light, they should, to some extent, be role models to the younger generations (if we refer to them as ‘leaders’).

4. Martin Luther King or Billy Graham?

These men, to different voting constituencies, represent American Christian heroes. And to many of us, we revere them both. One man focused more on the eternal living conditions of mankind, while the other on certain people's liking conditions here and now. Although God calls the believer to set their mind and affections on the world beyond, he never intended that focus to neglect the needs down here. So though one is a higher-priority calling, from God's perspective, both are noble and needed (and MLK did not fail to evangelize, or ever oppose evangelism—just not so much his spiritual calling or gift, it seems).

5. Your Christian Duty.

Yours is NOT just to obey laws, pay your taxes and vote. God wants believers actively engaged in making our country a better place to live, for all its inhabitants (i.e., salt and light; Thy kingdom come on earth, as it is in Heaven, etc.)

F. Is God's Body (the Church) Divided?

The book of Colossians speaks of the Jews and Gentiles as one in Christ, and that fact is no different in modern times, whether a believer have white, black, brown, red or yellow pigmented skin. The Bible speaks of the unity of the faith (Eph. 4:13), and let no man—even politics of man—put that unity asunder!

1. White Matters: Abortion, Gay Marriage, Pro-Israel, Pro-Military and Religious Freedom. These are the issues of concern to the conservative WASP church in America.

2. Black Matters: Social Gospel, Police Brutality, Social Injustice/Income Inequality. These are the issues of concern to the predominantly black church in America. Latinos and Hispanics often range in sympathy with the civil and human rights struggle to the concern that fetuses not be killed, and hence, believers in America choose to create a division between political issues which both have moral bearings, and thus, should be of concern to us all. You can argue we prioritize them differently, but when it comes to voting, at least historically, we seem to choose to bury our heads in the sand on one issue in favor of the other (and vice versa). Rest assured, any division based on two moral political issues is not of God, but is the work of Satan. Iran deal, strong military, Gal. 6:2, 5 personal responsibility, pro-Israel, gay marriage, abortion, euthanasia, Johnson amendment (see list).

3. God's Matters: All of the above. There may be different emphases between parties, and prioritization can occur, but, generally speaking, God is interested in every societal issue which involves morals, justice and values depicted in the Bible. In short, our divisions do not come from God.

G. On Conservatism

1. Spiritual vs. Political Conservatism (they are not twins; kissing cousins, at best). When one clings to the word, 'conservative,' it is important to understand what they mean (as there are various types)! Spiritual conservatism adheres closely to the teachings of the Bible—which is a good thing. But political conservatism adheres closely to conservative political philosophy, which, in some cases, is a bad thing. Yes, your religion can come in conflict with your politics, and we all know which one should (but often doesn't) rule out.

2. The Constitution or the Bible?

Relatedly, legally, American Christians are to obey the U.S. Constitution, but spiritually we are to render to God the things which are God's. In that case, there will be times—perhaps many—when obeying Christ will cause us to separate from our culture and do things unpopular, to live a higher standard that the mere yet great document of men. What might that look like?

3. American Dream, or Worldliness?

The difference between these two concepts is a matter of priority, God's specific will, and one's give back intensity. What do I mean? God has said that life does not consist of one's possessions (Lk. 12:15). However, many in America live as though that is untrue (Ecc. 10:19). Which verse is right? The former; the latter is not extolling that concept as gospel, but an observation of the world system and a popular sentiment among men. I've said before, when the American Dream is defined as get all you can, can all you get, and sell the rest, with no notions of any give back, it has been perverted into condoned worldliness and materialism!

4. Political Darwinism Among Creationists? (an unholy alliance)

Evolutionists expect mankind to improve, with experience/learning and over time, but we see much evidence of our selfishness and evils continuing, if not getting worse. Creationists, on the other hand, expect sinful man to behave sinfully, but their political Achilles' heel is clinging to conservative political philosophy, which, taken to its logical conclusion, with zero government intervention, would support economic dog eat dog survival only of the fittest (i.e., economic Darwinism). The contradictions in both these positions should lead a reasonable person to conclude that there is much more to learn both about man, and proper politics, than to adhere to any system which has such flaws.

5. Does God Hate Wealth Redistribution? (AKA does God approve selfishness?)

Conservatives argue that the government's coercive nature in 'stealing' tax dollars to rob the rich to help the poor is immoral. But what is perhaps more immoral are the statistics which show that non-rich people in America give to charity three times more than the wealthy. This means that the honor system of trusting the elites to do their share gets corrupted by the sins of greed, hoarding and selfishness. You cannot sincerely believe their more whimsical giving to charity could sustain the truly needy adequately, or stably enough to forsake our safety net system.

And have you ever stopped to consider who it was who proposed such a merciful system? It was, ironically, not the 'moral' Christians of those days, but Democrats—the party James Robison has labeled as degenerates, perverts and immoral (partially paraphrased). And, if you read Acts 2, 4 and II Cor. 8, although it was voluntary, caring for one's fellow brother's well-being (with the church as the role model for society) is not considered evil (See Jesus's opinions in Mt. 25), and was implemented (as was the welfare system of the Jews, in the Old Testament, using theocratic, required tithes, as tax equivalents, among other uses—like paying the preachers and maintaining their buildings).

I-D2. THE OBAMA CHALLENGE

(The Six Most Pertinent Verses for Politics)

1. All Men are Our Neighbors (The Good Samaritan—Lk. 10:30-37). While it is natural to seek the advancement of your own nation, that should never be pursued to the exclusion of efficient, cost-effective efforts to help others who are suffering. To the oft-asked question, “Am I my brother’s keeper?,” the answer is a resounding “yes.” (Gen. 4:9). The parable of the Good Samaritan defines who our brothers and neighbors are—people—extending even so far as strangers in foreign countries (as in that case).
2. Favor Neither Rich Nor Poor (Objectivity: No Partiality or Bias—Levit. 19:15). This principle would argue for both parties abandoning favoring their rich or poor constituencies, pledging primary allegiance to the good of the whole nation (something not likely to happen).
3. Not Wasting Money or Resources (Mt. 14:20; Lk. 15:11-13). It is just as wrong for Democrats to waste taxpayers’ hard-earned money as it is for rich Republicans to squander precious and sometimes limited resources with luxurious excess.
4. Servant Leadership (Praising & Punishing—I Pet. 2:13-14). Politicians of all stripes should prioritize the best interest of our country over self-serving interests such as fame, money, re-election or pacifying only one’s state. (Cf.: Rom. 13:1-7, Mt. 22:15-21).
5. Eliminating Severe Suffering (Not a Needy One Among Us—II Cor. 8:13-15). Though the poor will always be among us, our ambition should be that no one severely suffer among us, offering a hand up—not a hand out. This includes renouncing the idols of materialism and love of money, as well as commitment to not encouraging dependence by financially supporting any lazy (vs. legitimately) poor. Cf.: Ac. 2:44-45, 4:33-35 (where it was done voluntarily and spontaneously, as a church vs. as a government, by analogy only).
6. A National Commitment to Morality (Ex.: The ‘Golden Rule’—Mt. 7:12). Perhaps more important than anything else, American needs a general commitment to moral living. It may not be sexy, may sound old-fashioned, may or may not include religion (I hope it does), but nearly every issue we face today boils down to selfish ambition and lack of concern for our fellow human beings (dare I say ‘love?’). See also: II Chr. 7:14 (four vs. only the one element of prayer—and written to the Jewish nation but applicable to the Church, by analogy only).

Adjustable shoe heels (for people with one leg longer than the other). Art-textured walls (for ambiance in restaurants, etc.; more like sculpted). Automatic ergonomic chairs, that adjust to one’s back shape and stretching needs. Back-and-forth/zigzag low incline home stairs that circle around several times (for a less-steep climb). Bread butterer slide/wipe-on tool (hand-held). Built-in toilet scrubbers with snap-on replaceable brushes (cleaning fluids ooze from the unit’s side’s top). Pray to receive Jesus for the forgiveness of ALL your sins (John 3:16). Central incinerator for all dangerous/harmful product packaging, so it can’t pollute food or groundwater (Jordanian friend’s idea). Emergency levies drop down from ground level whenever floods occur, to steer major flows away from structures. Erasable pens. Fans attach to feet (or wet suits), for underwater propulsion. Government whistleblower hotline to report serious polluters, or disabled parking violators or (i.e., another 311 function?). Graffiti park (with many mural walls), available for ‘artists’ to get their work out, without destroying businesses (for temporary public showcasing). Grocery store app to identify exactly where a specific product is to be found. Gun locker openable only by pre-programmed owner’s fingerprint (or eye scan). Home salad-making machine (inserts various ingredients: nuts, carrots, egg, onion, strawberries, etc.). Homes in known flood zones automatically built with 3 foot water barrier materials in their ground-level walls

(vs. mold production). Industrial strength Roomba cleans up oil spills and tar from car repair shop floors. Massaging cubicle chairs (Ex.: back, butt, shoulders, arm rests). Online universities share rented facilities to organize intra-mural sports teams (vs. every man for him/herself isolation). Plastic melter that doesn't burn it, but re-forms it into another use (or marketable bulk/base plastic). Police car roofs that with motion sensors (or radar), for night stake-outs, where they are more vulnerable. Pool surface scanner, which alarms (when on) to inform owners of unexpected human entry (to reduce child drownings). Public monument where cremated people's name can be added, in lieu of a grave and tombstone. Refrigerator alerts when stored food is approaching its expiration date(s). Re-usable painter's tape (i.e., not as sticky, or doesn't stick to itself when rolled up). Snap-in roller skates/blades for everyday shoes, so warehouse and grocery workers can easily switch, as needed. Sound-proof cubicle partitions. Spare/reserve gas tank for empty tank emergencies in cars (like on jet skis; vs. needing a gas can and thumbing a ride). Speak-to big box store shelves (Ex.: You ask for a specific bread product, and a noise or light responds to its exact location). Tandem skateboards (long, and able to fit two--obviously). Three hardening levels of shoe soles, to adjust to varying terrain's softness/hardness. Tiered-floor retail stores (slants, curves, twists vs. only boring grid-shaped on one level). Tub wall back washer (rag, soap, etc.) vs. hand-held back scrubber. Water flavorings that taste like steak, hamburgers, pizza and cake (for dieters who still have the taste cravings). Water-proof everyday-looking shoes (dress or sports). Work cubicle' walls change colors (button-controlled)

RELATED PRINCIPLES

- ◆ The Giving Pledge, which includes Warren Buffett and Bill Gates (38 total billionaires, to-date), is fully biblical. It won't get anyone into Heaven, but the attitude evidences what we call 'a good heart' (just as that attitude accompanied Levi upon his conversion:
- (Lk. 19:1-2, 9-10) "He entered Jericho and was passing through. And there was a man by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and he was rich. ...Zacchaeus stopped and said to the Lord, 'Behold, Lord, half of my possessions I will give to the poor, and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will give back four times as much. And Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because he, too, is a son of Abraham.'
- ◆ The Bible teaches selfless humility (Phil. 2:3-11), and the first churches' attitude was ensuring none of their brethren suffered want (Ac. 2:41, 44-45, 4:33-37, II Cor. 8:13-15).
 - ◆ What you have earned is your money (i.e., within your power to control), before you give it away, except what is due the government in taxes (Ac. 5:3-5; Mt. 22:21).
 - ◆ While free enterprise and full human potential principles exist in God's word, so also do injunctions for mankind to do good toward one another (which would include reducing society's ills).

(Rom. 13:1-7) Every person is to be in subjection to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those who exist are established by God. Therefore whoever resists authority has opposed the ordinance of God; and they who have opposed will receive condemnation upon themselves. For rulers are not a cause of fear for good behavior, but for evil. Do you want to have no fear of authority? Do what is good and you will have praise from the same; for it is a minister of God to you for good. But if you do what is evil, be afraid; for it does not bear the sword for nothing; for it is a minister of God, an avenger who brings wrath on the one who practices evil. Therefore it is necessary to be in subjection, not only because of wrath, but also for conscience's sake. For because of this you also pay taxes, for rulers are servants of God, *devoting themselves to this very thing. Render to all what is due them: Taxes to whom tax is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor.

(I Pet. 2:13-14) Submit yourselves for the Lord's sake to every human institution, whether to a king as the one in authority, or to governors as sent by Him for the punishment of evildoers and the praise of those who do right.

I-D3. DO YOUR RELIGIOUS VALUES MATCH YOUR POLITICAL VALUES?
ARE YOU SURE?

Which passages of Scripture should guide our public policy? Should we go with Leviticus, Which suggests that slavery is all right and eating shellfish is an abomination? How about Deuteronomy, which suggests stoning your child if he strays from the faith? Or should we stick to the Sermon on the Mount—passage so radical that it's doubtful that our defense department would survive its application? Surely, secularists are wrong when they ask believers to leave their religion at the door before entering the public square. ...indeed the majority of great reformers in American history— not only were motivated by faith but repeatedly used religious language to argue their causes.⁶¹

The danger for these conservatives who insist on throwing the Bible at everyone is that people might actually pick it up and read the New Testament.⁶²

The Bible is not a political treatise, and America is NOT a theocracy, but for those who claim their political party is more moral than the other, the following biblical principles should serve as a guide to evaluating those claims, as we seek to make a more perfect union.

POLITICIANS

Righteous Leaders (yeah right?).

Furthermore, you shall select out of all the people able men who fear God, men of truth, those who hate dishonest gain, and you shall place these over them as leaders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens. (Exodus 18:21)

Less Lying Politicians (i.e., ethics reform).

But for the cowardly and unbelieving and abominable and murderers and immoral persons and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars, their part will be in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death. (Revelation 21:8)

Deeds Trump Speeches.

Talk is cheap, like daydreams and other useless activities. Fear God instead. (Ecclesiastes 5:7)

But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, who delude themselves. (James 1:22)

Negotiation & Compromise (yeah right?).

Do two men walk together unless they have made an appointment? (Amos 3:3)

POLICIES

Man's Dominion Over the Planet.

And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth. (Genesis 1:22)

Anti Animal Abuse.

A righteous man has regard for the life of his animal, but even the compassion of the wicked is cruel. (Proverbs 12:10)

Reasonable Ecological Measures.

So you shall not pollute the land in which you are; for blood pollutes the land and no expiation can be made for the land for the blood that is shed on it, except by the blood of him who shed it. You shall not defile the land in which you live, in the midst of which I dwell; for I the Lord am dwelling in the midst of the sons of Israel. (Num. 35:33)

Private Property Rights.

While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not under your control? Why is it that you have conceived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God. (Acts 5:4)

Privacy Laws (here, of giving to the poor).

Beware of practicing your righteousness before men to be noticed by them; otherwise you have no reward with your Father who is in Heaven. When therefore you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may be honored by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing that your alms may be in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will repay you. (Matthew 6:1-4)

Estate Tax Cannot Punish Inheritances.

A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, And the wealth of the sinner is stored up for the righteous. (Proverbs 13:22)

Fiscal Restraint.

But this I say, brethren, the time has been shortened, so that from now on those who have wives should be as though they had none; and those who weep, as though they did not weep; and those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; and those who buy, as though they did not possess; and those who use the world, as though they did not make full use of it; for the form of this world is passing away. (I Corinthians 7:29-31)

Balanced Budget.

A false balance is an abomination to the Lord, but a just weight is his delight. (Proverbs 11:1)

Not Wasting Taxpayer's Money.

And not many days later, the younger son gathered everything together and went on a journey into a distant country, and there he squandered his estate with loose living. (Luke 15:13)

And they ate and were satisfied; and they picked up seven large baskets full of what was left over of the broken pieces. (Mark 8:8)

Paying Your Fair Share of Taxes.

They said to Him, Caesar's. Then He said to them, Then render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's; and to God the things that are God's. (Matthew 22:21)

Adjustable height and firmness couch cushions. Any and all food items made into a water flavoring additive (for dieting). Apartment gates/booms, that disallow cheaters tailgating. An app is needed showing the BEST deals for EVERY product/service per zip code (i.e., consumers banded together to leverage our buying power). Pray to receive Jesus for the forgiveness of ALL your sins (John 3:16). Back-up starter system when 18-wheelers stall in remote (or dangerous) locations. Bed adjusts up and down, as an entire unit. Bifocals and reading glasses that look normal (vs. bug-eyed). Big box store app or speak-to tool customers specify what product they're looking for, and they get its exact location. California needs infrastructure to suck ocean water through pipes or hoses to forest fires in the future. Car dashboard informing you exactly what tire pressure is in each individual tire, as you drive (DONE?). Car radio feature you speak to and it finds all live airings for any vocalized category (pop, sermon, rap, etc.). Car sensor informs driver if hub caps fall off. Car sensor warns you if your car's profile can't pass through a coming flood, safely (i.e., radar). Carnival UFO ride (where floor drops as it spins) to major theme parks. Cheap, healthy, no cooking required foods. Church pew plate passer (offering plate track on rear of seats in front of you). Clothes so dogs can answer the call of nature when rain doesn't let-up. Coffee flavoring for water. Computer aided pressure points mattress, adjusts as you change positions throughout the night.

Anti-Abortion (at least as a contraceptive, morally if not legally).

And now says the LORD, who formed Me from the womb to be His Servant, To bring Jacob back to Him, in order that Israel might be gathered to Him (For I am honored in the sight of the LORD, And My God is My strength), (Isaiah 49:5)

Anti-Sodomy–NOT Anti-Homosexuals.

You shall not lie with a male as one lies with a female; it is an abomination. (Leviticus 18:22)

The second is this, 'YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF.' There is no other commandment greater than these. (Mark 12:31)

Civil Disobedience.

But Peter and John answered and said to them, Whether it is right in the sight of God to give heed to you rather than to God, you be the judge; (Acts 4:19)

Self Defense (Ex.: Second Amendment),

Or how can anyone enter the strong man's house and carry off his property, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house. (Matthew 12:29)

Conscientious Objectors.

You have heard that it was said, 'AN EYE FOR AN EYE, AND A TOOTH FOR A TOOTH.' But I say to you, do not resist an evil person; but whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also. (Matthew 5:38-39)

Necessary Wars (i.e., vs. opposing every one).

There is an appointed time for everything. And there is a time for every event under Heaven–A time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace. (Ecclesiastes 3:1, 8)

FOREIGN & DOMESTIC POLICY

Caring for One Another (vs. only every man for himself; Ex.: Unemployment insurance).

Then the LORD said to Cain, Where is Abel your brother? And he said, I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper? (Galatians 4:9)

Remind them to be subject to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good deed, to malign no one, to be peaceable, gentle, showing every consideration for all men. (Titus 3:1-2)

Caring for Other Countries (Ex.: Foreign aid).

But a certain Samaritan, who was on a journey, came upon him; and when he saw him, he felt compassion, and came to him, and bandaged up his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them; and he put him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper and said, 'Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, when I return, I will repay you.' Which of these three do you think proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell into the robbers' hands? And he said, 'The one who showed mercy toward him.' And Jesus said to him, 'Go and do the same.' (Luke 10:33-37)

Not Dictatorships, & Not Paying Off Politicians (i.e., with tougher campaign finance laws).

For oppression makes a wise man mad, And a bribe corrupts the heart. (Ecclesiastes 7:7)

Anti-Oppression.

And Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said to him, Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, 'How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, that they may serve Me. (Exodus 10:3)

You shall not rule over him ruthlessly but shall fear your God. (Leviticus 25:43)

Anti-Slavery (Old Testament & historical examples notwithstanding).

It was for freedom that Christ set us free; therefore keep standing firm and do not be subject again to a yoke of slavery. (Galatians 5:1)

If your brother becomes poor beside you and sells himself to you, you shall not make him serve as a slave. (Leviticus 25:39)

Anti-Genocide

Thou shalt not commit murder. (Deuteronomy 5:17)

PRINCIPLES

Good of the Whole vs. the Few/Elites.

Apart from such external things, there is the daily pressure upon me of concern for all the churches. (II Corinthians 11:28)

But from those who were of high reputation (what they were makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality)—well, those who were of reputation contributed nothing to me. (Galatians 2:6)

Belief in 'The People'. (See: Acts 5-35-40, 18:9-10)

Majority Rule.

Sufficient for such a one is this punishment which was inflicted by the majority, (II Corinthians 2:6)

Contributing According to Their Ability.

And in the proportion that any of the disciples had means, each of them determined to send a contribution for the relief of the brethren living in Judea. (Acts 11:29)

Paying In Based on What One Has (vs. doesn't have).

For if the readiness is present, it is acceptable according to what a man has, not according to what he does not have. (II Corinthians 8:12)

PARTIES

Not Favoring the Rich or Poor.

You shall do no injustice in judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor nor defer to the great, but you are to judge your neighbor fairly. (Leviticus 19:15)

Who shows no partiality to princes nor regards the rich above the poor, for they are all the work of His hands? (Job 34:19)

Personal Responsibility & Caring for Others (i.e., balance).

Bear one another's burdens, and thus fulfill the law of Christ. For each one shall bear his own load. (Galatians 6:2, 5)

Protestant Work Ethic.

But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. (I Timothy 5:8)

Not Empowering Any Lazy Poor.

For even when we were with you, we used to give you this order: if anyone will not work, neither let him eat. (II Thessalonians 3:10)

The soul of the sluggard craves and gets nothing, But the soul of the diligent is made fat. (Proverbs 13:4)

Compassion for the Lowly.

Then the King will say to those on His right, 'Come, you who are blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry, and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger, and you invited Me in; naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me; I was in prison, and you came to Me.' Then the righteous will answer Him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry, and feed You, or thirsty, and give You drink? And when did we see You a stranger, and invite You in, or naked, and clothe You? And when did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?' And the King will answer and say to them, 'Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these brothers of Mine, even the least of them, you did it to Me.' (Matthew 25:34-40)

Helping the Poor.

They only asked us to remember the poor—the very thing I also was eager to do. (Galatians 2:10)
In everything I showed you that by working hard in this manner you must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He Himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive. (Acts 20:35)

However, there will be no poor among you, since the LORD will surely bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, (Deuteronomy 15:4)

And you shall not strip your vineyard bare, neither shall you gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard. You shall leave them for the poor and for the sojourner: I am the Lord your God. (Leviticus 19:10)

Deeds vs. Just Words to Help the Poor.

My brethren, do not hold your faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ with an attitude of personal favoritism. For if a man comes into your assembly with a gold ring and dressed in fine clothes, and there also comes in a poor man in dirty clothes, and you pay special attention to the one who is wearing the fine clothes, and say, 'You sit here in a good place, and you say to the poor man, 'You stand over there, or sit down by my footstool, have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil motives? Listen, my beloved brethren: did not God choose the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him? But you have dishonored the poor man. Is it not the rich who oppress you and personally drag you into court? Do they not blaspheme the fair name by which you have been called? If, however, you are fulfilling the royal law, according to the Scripture, YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF, you are doing well. But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. (James 2:1-9)

Note: Church context.

If a brother or sister is without clothing and in need of daily food, and one of you says to them, 'Go in peace, be warmed and be filled, and yet you do not give them what is necessary for their body, what use is that? (James 2:15-16)

Fairness (or Compassion) Enough that None Suffer Severely.

For this is not for the ease of others and for your affliction, but by way of equality—at this present time your abundance being a supply for their want, that their abundance also may become a supply for your want, that there may be equality; as it is written, HE WHO gathered MUCH DID NOT HAVE TOO MUCH, AND HE WHO gathered LITTLE HAD NO LACK. (II Corinthians 8:13-15)

Encouraging Give Back.

Instruct those who are rich in this present world not to be conceited or to fix their hope on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly supplies us with all things to enjoy. Instruct them to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is life indeed. (I Timothy 6:17-19)

Note: If free willed giving is unstable or insufficient to meet desired ends, especially ending severe suffering, the majority of the people can insist that gap be made up through tax dollars.

Giving Pledge.

And Zacchaeus stopped and said to the Lord, Behold, Lord, half of my possessions I will give to the poor, and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will give back four times as much. (Leviticus 19:8)

Supporting Free-Willed Giving. (i.e., charities).

but without your consent I did not want to do anything, that your goodness should not be as it were by compulsion, but of your own free will. (Philemon 1:14)

Let each one do just as he has purposed in his heart; not grudgingly or under compulsion; for God loves a cheerful giver. (II Corinthians 9:7)

Note: II Cor. 9:7 pertains to church gifts—not government-coerced taxes.

BUSINESS & EMPLOYMENT

Pro-Business

By the sweat of your face you will eat bread, till you return to the ground, because from it you were taken; for you are dust, and to dust you shall return. (Genesis 3:19)

Wealth obtained by fraud dwindles, but the one who gathers by labor increases it. (Proverbs 13:11)

It is the blessing of the LORD that makes rich, and He adds no sorrow to it. (Proverbs 10:22)

Masters, grant to your slaves justice and fairness, knowing that you too have a Master in Heaven. (Colossians 4:1)

Come now, you who say, ‘Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a city, and spend a year there and engage in business and make a profit.’ Yet you do not know what your life will be like tomorrow. You are just a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes away. Instead, you ought to say, ‘If the Lord wills, we will live and also do this or that.’ (James 4:13-15)

Alright for Businesses (Ex.: Banks) to Earn Interest.

Then you ought to have put my money in the bank, and on my arrival I would have received my money back with interest. (Matthew 25:27)

It is well with the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice. (Psalms 112:5)

Pro Freedom.

Jesus therefore was saying to those Jews who had believed Him, ‘If you abide in My word, then you are truly disciples of Mine; and you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.’ (John 8:31-32)

Employees Earn According to Their Efforts.

Now he who plants and he who waters are one; but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. (I Corinthians 3:8)

Enjoying the Fruit of One's Labors (Ex.: 'life, liberty & the pursuit of happiness').

Instruct those who are rich in this present world not to be conceited or to fix their hope on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly supplies us with all things to enjoy. (I Timothy 6:17)

Opportunity to Achieve One's God-Given Potential.

For it is just like a man about to go on a journey, who called his own slaves, and entrusted his possessions to them. And to one he gave five talents, to another, two, and to another, one, each according to his own ability; and he went on his journey. Immediately the one who had received the five talents went and traded with them, and gained five more talents. In the same manner the one who had received the two talents gained two more. But he who received the one talent went away and dug in the ground, and hid his master's money. Now after a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. And the one who had received the five talents came up and brought five more talents, saying, 'Master, you entrusted five talents to me; see, I have gained five more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave; you were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things, enter into the joy of your master.' The one also who had received the two talents came up and said, 'Master, you entrusted to me two talents; see, I have gained two more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave; you were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' And the one also who had received the one talent came up and said, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed. 'And I was afraid, and went away and hid your talent in the ground; see, you have what is yours.' But his master answered and said to him, 'You wicked, lazy slave, you knew that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I scattered no seed. 'Then you ought to have put my money in the bank, and on my arrival I would have received my money back with interest. 'Therefore take away the talent from him, and give it to the one who has the ten talents.' For to everyone who has shall more be given, and he shall have an abundance; but from the one who does not have, even what he does have shall be taken away. And cast out the worthless slave into the outer darkness; in that place there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (Matthew 25:14-30)

Note: One's God-given moral potential is at least as important as one's economic potential.

Anti-Idols (Ex.: Fortune, fame & fun, including sex)

Little children, guard yourselves from idols. (I John 5:21)

Anti-Greed.

For the love of money is a root of all sorts of evil, and some by longing for it have wandered away from the faith, and pierced themselves with many a pang. (I Timothy 6:10)

VOTERS & GOVERNING

Seeking 'Blind Justice'.

He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you But to do justice, to love kindness, And to walk humbly with your God? (Micah 6:8)

Rule of Law/Morality-Based Citizenry (and laws),

Righteousness exalts a nation, But sin is a disgrace to any people. (Proverbs 14:34)

Submission to Government (i.e., law-abiding citizens) & Death Penalty.

Submit yourselves for the Lord's sake to every human institution, whether to a king as the one in authority, or to governors as sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and the praise of those who do right. (I Peter 2:13-14)

Let every person be in subjection to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those which exist are established by God. Therefore he who resists authority has opposed the ordinance of God; and they who have opposed will receive condemnation upon themselves. For rulers are not a cause of fear for good behavior, but for evil. Do you want to have no fear of authority? Do what is good, and you will have praise from the same; for it is a minister of God to you for good. But if you do what is evil, be afraid; for it does not bear the sword for nothing; for it is a minister of God, an avenger who brings wrath upon the one who practices evil. Wherefore it is necessary to be in subjection, not only because of wrath, but also for conscience' sake. For because of this you also pay taxes, for rulers are servants of God, devoting themselves to this very thing. Render to all what is due them: tax to whom tax is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor. (Romans 13:1-7)

holding to a form of godliness, although they have denied its power; and avoid such men as these. (II Timothy 3:5)

CONCLUSION & SOLUTIONS

Selfishness May Ultimately Destroy Our Nation.

But realize this, that in the last days difficult times will come. For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, revilers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, unloving, irreconcilable, malicious gossips, without self-control, brutal, haters of good, treacherous, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, holding to a form of godliness, although they have denied its power; avoid such men as these. (II Timothy 3:1-5)

Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility of mind let each of you regard one another as more important than himself; do not merely look out for your own personal interests, but also for the interests of others. Have this attitude in yourselves which was also in Christ Jesus, (Philippians 2:3-5)

In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes. (Judges 21:25)

Revival Among the Citizenry?

If I shut up the Heavens so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among My people, and My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray, and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from Heaven, will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. (II Chronicles 7:13-14)

I-D4. CHRISTIAN ISSUES

Although for decades, Republican (usually white) Christians have sought to imply to voters that abortion and homosexuality are the main, if not only issues God cares about in American public life, if one studies the full counsel of God (vs. biasedly cherry-picking), morality impacts many, if not most political decisions, including: Defending Israel (and be for all peaceful Arabs and against any violent Jews; Ex.: No nuclear weapons for Iran), defeat terrorism, lower our national debt, gay marriage (basically moot issue, now), anti-abortion (three possible exceptions), SCOTUS picks (favorable to Christian positions), acceptance of refugees, curbing poverty, international aid, integrity of politicians, religious liberty (Ex.: No pastor being forced to conduct any gay marriage ceremonies), strong defense and economy, jobs (and good ones), controlled borders, educational excellence, law and order, lessening pollution, human rights, income inequality/justice, etc.

Examples.

Abortion. Conservatives decry politicizing the judiciary, but many seems anxious to stack SCOTUS through a Trump vote, for this one issue. Unsafe, back alley coat hanger abortions should never occur, and if Roe were ever overturned, it could not be re-overturned again. Red states would have to allow their women to access abortions elsewhere, and likely incur all related costs (equal protection). If one is inclined to despise every abortion (even under the three exceptions), there are many non-legislative activities they can engage in.

Gay Marriage. Gay marriage is now the law of the land, and Obergefell will not be overturned. Christians should demonstrate proclaimed love of homosexuals, more than their declaration so if being a heinous sin. Government is not going to un-do gay marriages, split up families or require civil unions instead.

I-D5. POLITICAL PARTIES' GOOD & BAD

At election time, you rarely hear pundits say anything but 'my party good, other party bad' all day long, and in as excruciating detail as will fill up a 24-hour news cycle. However, as Mark Cuban recently noted, better ideas are out there, as opposed to status quo—where two tribes basically remain on their own island, demonizing their neighbors.

If you accept that no political party is 100% perfect, and they all could use some (if not much) improvement, lets briefly assess where two or three of sample positions stand, both positively and negatively:

Liberals

Positives: Against animal abuse and over-pollution; for worker's rights and decent pay, and for helping the poor and society's strugglers (elderly, etc.).

Negatives: Over-taxation and regulation, big government, high taxes, waste, abuse and bureaucracy.

Conservatives

Positives: For business success, a strong economy and national defense, law and order and smaller government.

Negatives: Can be every man for himself, (mainly) the rich get richer (with no obligation to help others with any of their excess, keeping it all for their family), only helping the poor and strugglers if you feel like it, and too small government.

Moderates

Positives: Bridging the gap between extremes, and seeking to get legislation passed (i.e., get things done).

Negatives: Can be wishy-washy, have no core, be compromisers or career opportunists (Ex.: by siding with 'the enemy').

Computer technology transfers mutes' thoughts into SIRI-vocalized speech (i.e., no need for sign language). Cops NEED all-in-one (dual) Tasers and guns in one, so they can QUICKLY trigger above or below-whichever's needed in the circumstance, to save lives! Egg Nog flavoring for water. Electric rolling shoes. Fake snow, or snow base (for ski resorts when mother nature doesn't cooperate). Fame Seekers TV show (where everyone gets their 3 minutes of fame, after screening for quality). Fastest sports shorts ties for easy public restroom access (push buttoned draw string). Fire fighter fire-proof goggles to detect humans (by infra-red or otherwise). Fire fighter X-ray technology to see into a fire to find bodies (before determining life-saving access route). Fireplace fire that actually transmits heat, without a fan, beyond just near the flame. Free Uber, among citizens, with account credit when you give others a ride. 4-glass walled stand-alone business in middle of mall corridors (vs. gadget and nick nac carts with accosting salespersons). GPS-based beeper & SIRI voice tool tells the blind where obstacles are, and warns when too close. Half-sleeved shirts and half-sleeved pants for weather not too hot, not too cold. Heated jackets (Conner's idea). Heated portable mattresses. Heated snow ski gloves. Pray to receive Jesus for the forgiveness of ALL your sins (John 3:16). Homes made of fire-retardant materials (for California, especially). Homes that can rise, in case of a flood. Jogger's rain clothes (to stay dry and warm). Laser beeper shotgun (when on target). Lawn mowing shoes and socks that don't get grass stains. Milk flavoring for water.

I-D6. 'CHRISTIAN' POLITICAL ARGUMENTS

(Reinforcing the God-disrespecting and disobeying 'dumb Christian' stereotype)

- 1. God Ordains Authorities. God ALLOWS—he does NOT want all who are in power (Ex.: Hitler). He allows tragedies—even the holocaust. Everything evil that occurs happens within his general supervisory boundaries. Does that mean we are to contribute to allowed evils?
- 2. Godly Men Speak into Chump's Life. They aren't as godly as you are led to believe, knowing zero about their private antics! And they are manipulated, used, duped and ignored on most policies (and on the ones he listens to them on, usually stupid policy!). If you call 'speaking into' his life kissing up, pandering and coddling an evil tyrant, we simply disagree on the clear distinction between good and evil.
- 3. Trump Was the Only Option. That's a lie—from a 'Christian.' You could have voted all GOP's but him, or chosen any of the other 16 GOP candidates. NO prominent pastors (to speak of) took any moral stands against Trump's evils—just flip flopped from candidate to candidate, until the majority made the decision, and they played along as complete FOLLOWERS! Clinton was wiser and more mature, and the GOP majority could have kept her extreme policies in check.
- 4. All Presidential Nominees Have Been Dumb and Immoral, Since Reagan. George Bush I, was neither, his son was NOT immoral, Clinton was not dumb, nor was Obama, and Obama wasn't immoral either. Dole, McCain and Romney were also not immoral or stupid. Basically, this is a 100 percent ignorant statement, that has zero factual basis (yet I've heard it be claimed, sadly).
- 5. Trump's Policies were Better than Hillary's. He had two ideas—#MAGA and a fifty foot beautiful border wall that Mexico will pay for. What policies he's embraced more than two years from those two concepts he gets little credit for, because the ideas (some good, many bad) came from OTHERS! If you want good policies, vote for people with good ideas!
- 6. Two Israel Decisions Made USA Closer to Israel. God is against favoritism, and it ruined USA's leadership, like an NBA referee wearing a Cavs jersey against the Warriors. The Devil has you confused between prophecy-era realities, and church age realities (but why should we be surprised, when people are so ignorant of God's word?). Obama DID separate USA from Israel, somewhat, but the solution is NOT over-kill in the other direction. That's emotional reactionism.
- 7. 'Conservative' Judges are Good for Christians. You have been taught that political (vs. religious) 'conservative' term means holy, mainly over abortion and homosexuality. That is NOT 100% true. The Devil has you confused between political and religious conservatism! Right/correct biblical interpretation is conservative. But with that right interpretation comes many issues that political conservatism opposes!
- 8. Muslims are Taking Over 'Christian' America. You do not preach sermons that 'America is a Christian nation' to end that trend. You get control of over-immigration, and you evangelize. You can't continue to live the past, hoping you can stem the tide of change you allowed to occur by your inaction. Our beliefs are NOT a competition against other religions—they are Satan's victims. Also, our laws have precedent, and it's NOT based on any holy book. It's totally valid to say Americans should oppose any legislative influences to our laws on such things as treating women as second-class citizens, needing four male witnesses for rape claims, cutting off fingers for stealing, or stoning homosexuals, etc.
- 9. We're Anti-Homosexual and Anti-Abortions. Gay marriage is a dead issue, and banning all abortions leads to back alley coat hanger abortions, and is saying you must endure the pain and costs of nine months of pregnancy for any sex acts that weren't for having kids. Before and even after Obergefell, Christian's duty was to love gays, show respect for all humans, and consider them equals. That decision affected that moral obligation not one iota. What are you going to do (in moral vs. immoral ways) to change a gay person's sexual orientation.

10. Voting Democrat Means You're for Abortion and Gays. Untrue. Not every Democrat is liberal. Because you can't, at present, win as an independent, you have to choose one party or the other, and I would never choose to be in a party that supports Chump! Democrats are for these Christian values: Helping the poor, elderly, imprisoned, youth, immigrants, and abused environment and animals, and not favoring the rich.

I-D7. CHRISTIANS FOR TRUMP

When wealth is lost, nothing is lost; when health, something is lost; when character is lost, all is lost. –Billy Graham

People have wondered when decency would hit rock bottom with this administration. –Joe Biden
(Hint: That is NO standard any real Christian could be proud of, or support!)

A. Arguments For Having Voted for Trump

So how could any Christian have voted for Trump?

1. Anti-Obama Legacy. Voting for Hillary would have been a vote for bigger government, weaker than republican national defense, an economic plan that is less incentivizing to business growth, and would be supporting support for abortion and gay marriage.

2. Anti-Obama Legacy (by Default). Voting for no one (as I did) would surely have brought about Hillary, but I argue that her wisdom (compared to Trump) and the integrity in the way she ran her campaign (compared to Trump) were superior, and that voting for all other GOP's (as I did) could ameliorate those policy tendencies and any bad extremes.

3. Supreme Court Picks. This was touted as the main reason, and mainly to keep those policy tendencies from becoming more prevalent. It was also no secret that some older Christians and pastors dreamed of SCOTUS eventually overturning Roe vs. Wade. Though I argued that it was precedent, and SCOTUS rarely counters that (lest they lose credibility, as if to say past positions on what is Constitutional were wrong), they could only reverse it one time (lest they be flippantly following public whims), and that pastors supporting this dream were hypocritically guilty of trying to stack SCOTUS (the same 'judicial activism' conservatives always rail against).

B. Is Trump a Christian, a Christian Conservative, or a Political Opportunist?

As perhaps the least Christian Republican nominee in generations,
Trump has deeply divided the evangelical community. –Politico (10/27/16)

It is a tenuous thing to opine as to another person's salvation, for we are not in their head and heart. However, such considerations are often in others' minds, usually based on external behavior. Though God alone knows for sure, I have evangelized people enough to know that God's sovereign call to salvation through the Gospel is not something the evangelist can call upon on command. You pray and hope for it, but you also are gratefully surprised when the person comes through with a positive response.

For me, at least, the timing and intentions of the Christian Cabal meeting with Chump for about two hours was just too ironic and politically opportunistic (with very low ratings, as the time) for their reports of his 'conversion' to be believable. Those men desperately wanted something from Trump (Roe overturned), and knew they could promise him many Christian votes in return, but they needed to put lipstick on the pig to make him palatable to the percentage of Christians for which morals mattered (apparently, not a huge percentage, as our website had warned for over ten years).

1. Can One Be Saved Having Never Asked God's Forgiveness for Anything?

The short answer is 'no.' Forgiveness is the essence of salvation, and never asking means never receiving.

2. 'Baby Christian,' or Political Opportunist?

Lordship Salvation pastors surrounding D.J. Trump require lost people to be totally committed to morality, and not to sinfulness, in order to get saved, yet never seem to see the hypocrisy of his serial behavior, even months after his having adopted their 'baby Christian' sales spiel.

It is spiritually impossible to be born again, then born again later. You are only born once, just like one can only be born again once. It is MUCH more likely that that Cabal had to find a way to make Trump palatable to Christians with some sort of working conscience! One of their originators even testified, he presented the Gospel; how a person responds is between them and God.

I-D9. PRE-TRUMP POLICY TWEETS

(See also: Pre-Cabal Policy Tweets, and Messages To Politicians)

Well before Trump even started his campaign (many more than nine months prior), one of his now ‘spiritual’ advisors was watching our Twitter account like a hawk (to ensure we didn’t violate a contract to not mention him or his church online again). That well-connected person had not only got many famous pastors to watch our ‘messages’ for the year prior, as word spread among VIP’s, even politicians became aware of this site. It is NO surprise that Trump very likely lifted (AKA stole) many of the very few good ideas he had (during his campaign) from us. Even then, surprisingly, he seemingly only managed to embrace solid/consistent (vs. ambiguous or flip-flopped) campaign policy ideas on building a wall, banning all Muslims, and ending China’s currency manipulation (and the general answer, ‘it will be great—trust me’). Here are a few such policy originating posts:

Fix Obamacare

DON’T repeal Obamacare—reform its bad points, @GOP! REQUIRE civic service whenever you give freebies. NO free lunches. The poor need health insurance! (11/7/14)

Reform Obamacare, FIX the economy, lower our debt, CLOSE our borders, NO amnesty, crush ISIS, and beat China SHOULD @GOP 2015 marching orders! NOT status quo. (12/10/14)

Obamacare (~positive), a weak economy, ISIS’s rise (negative), Bin Laden killed (positive). Can you think of many significant accomplishments by D.C. in the past few years? They are unproductive. (12/19/14)

Obamacare already increased MY taxes, as a self-employed person, by FORCE, but I’m paying the penalty vs. buying insurance, HOPING the @GOP will revamp it! Doubtful! (12/27/14)

@TeaPartyOrg @TPPatriots If the Tea Party does NOT rise NOW for lower debt, NO amnesty/Closed borders, and revising Obamacare, your influence is OVER! (1/8/15)

UNITE TO DEMAND the GOP revise Obamacare, lower debt, allow NO amnesty, close our borders, or you LOSE power, @SeanHannity @RushLimbaugh @MarkLevinShow @GlennBeck (1/8/15)

Stand firm for Closed borders, NO amnesty, reform Obamacare, lower our debt! #NoRubberStamps @RepRatcliffe @RepLoudermilk @RepTedYoho @SteveKingIA (1/8/15)

Conservatives are RIGHT on closed border, no amnesty, refining Obamacare, and lower debt. I 100 percent support them, at least on these issues—usually NOT. I am issues-based! (1/10/15)

Close our borders, a strong defense and better economy, reform Obamacare, lower our debt. You can agree to those, can’t you, @MittRomney whom I voted for! DON’T waffle. (1/14/15)

Note: I strongly argued for him as the GOP nominee in 2016.

Etc. (i.e., many more examples exist)

Immigration

(Pre-‘build the wall’)

It’s TIME for true Americans to rise up and take control of THEIR government, and close the borders—except for LEGAL immigrants already here! Vote out any politicians who oppose. (5/15/14)

GOP strategic advantage: Close the borders, no amnesty, easier immigration and effective Welfare to improve lives/skills, and improve our economy—UNLIKE Obama. (6/8/14)

A good economy that doesn't leave anyone behind, and has borders, but lets in those our economy NEEDS, or can handle (if persecuted)—BALANCE!. #GOP (9/23/14)

Jobs, ISIS, debt, close borders—four of five top U.S. priorities (I could remember) from #NBCNightlyNews Jobs are NOT the same as corporate profits! Consider our workers. (1/20/15)

ECONOMY, jobs, CRUSH ISIS, LEGAL immigration, close borders, BETTER education, SAFE oil drilling, LOWER debt. DON'T be distracted to LESSER issues! (1/25/15)

If GOP conservatives could accept these, I'd work SO hard for the right conservative candidate, to shake up the establishment. Our debt is too high, and close those borders! (1/31/15)

You can debate Obamacare and closed borders and reducing debt, but we have an enemy vowed to destroy us, and good people everywhere (i.e., ISIS). DESTROY it NOW! (2/6/15)

Close borders/NO amnesty, lower debt, revise Obamacare, destroy ISIS, and grow a real economy. You have two years. EARN YOUR KEEP, sir! (2/6/15; to Obama)

Read our prior tweets, or book, to see how to handle immigration with common sense, and reasonable balance. No amnesty, close borders and a path to citizenship+. (2/8/15)

There are TONS government needn't tell us, but they BETTER be doing all these things to prevent biological, chemical or nuclear, or diseases used as weapons], and CLOSE OUR BORDERS! (2/9/15)

Throw All Bums Out
(Pre-drain the swamp)

Four elections workers loved our ideas on ridding the bad, and keeping the good of both parties, and solving problems, or throwing the bums out. Thanks! (5/17/12)

Congress is getting a pass with the Presidential drama, because of the public's short memory and/or attention span. Kick all bums out—not all out. (8/12/12)

The inmates are in charge of the asylum. #60Minutes exposes leadership PAC's. Campaign finance reform is desperately needed, and kick all bums OUT! (5/11/14)

Throw ALL bums out! NOT all politicians are bums, but they seem to all become such once elected, and going to D.C. Corruption is a dishonor to the U.S. of A.! (5/13/14)

You put SO much faith in who's president, or in Congress. Rely on God, yourself and skills, fellow citizen, as employee and consumer, and forget the bums! (5/15/14)

'Throw ALL the bums out' does NOT apply to all politicians, but a grand majority. It's time to clean house, and shovel the crud which is D.C. politics! (6/6/14)

I HOPE the GOP learns from Cantor's loss that WE DON'T accept letting Obama go unchallenged, or amnesty. No history to say they will. #ThrowTheBumsOut. (6/11/14)

My middle name is "Edwin," so the "I'm mad too Eddie" spirit changes to I'm mad too, Edwin (slogan). GET MAD, or change D.C. with any attitude you choose! (12/19/14)

ALL that matters to #WeThePeople is ALL sides vote for common sense, common ground polices in the best interests of U.S.A.! USA #1 #GOP #Dems #Politics (12/9/14)

Politicians are SO biased to their party, that they can't even THINK of common sense solutions, UNLESS they fit their pre-ordained party platforms! (12/15/14)

#DoTheRightThing. Find common ground through common sense! Let it NOT be said of us our generation that they dropped the baton, and let down future generations. (12/16/14)

Vote for 4 common sense principles, and ONLY for politicians committed to them more than any party, career, fame or money in 20/20; 'WE the people' can turn this ship around! (12/16/14)

FIX D.C., and DON'T stuff your head in the sand anymore, U.S. citizens. Common sense says we CAN'T let the world into our country! We'd go BROKE! (12/19/14)

Common sense yields common ground. Ex.: You can't spend/credit card your way out of debt with a low-paying job! Common sense WORKS! #JustDoIt, D.C. politicians! (12/19/14)

Black, white, poor, rich, Christian, non-: We can ALL unite to common sense principles detailed in our political book, in 2020, and fight status quo! (12/19/14)

We the people DEMAND GOOD policies NOW, and common sense in Washington. NO MORE fighting, or uniting against US for money! #DemandChange vs. hope and change! (12/19/14)

The American people will AGREE with the positions in Dumb as a Donkey, Fat as an Elephant [book]—for the most part—as common ground comes by common sense. (12/22/14)

If Congress passed COMMON SENSE policies detailed in our book, they'd ~ALL be re-elected—that CHERISHED prize of the more self- vs. U.S.-serving! (12/22/14)

In all prior analysis, it all boils down to WHAT politicians WILL choose to vote for, and getting enough of them to vote for the RIGHT/common sense things! (12/23/14)

UNLESS 'We the people' get our heads out of the sand, and vote in common sense, down-to-earth politicians in 2020, expect more of the same! #PressureDCChange (12/23/14)

There are ~20 solutions, but one to three which are VERY simple and quick. The main one is to REPLACE any politician committed to career or party more than common sense votes in 2020. Will you? (12/23/14)

If you're in the 82 percent who are TIRED of politics-as-usual PLEASE read our book, then require a politician to commit to vote common sense, or DON'T vote for her/him! (12/23/14)

If a common sense policy got proposed, what would be the harm if BOTH sides voted for it, U.S. voter? Re-elect ALL who so voted! #CommonSense #USA #1! (12/25/14)

I don't care which politicians lose their career if they are partisan, and won't support common sense! I am a true, principled independent at this point. (12/25/14)

NO political personality means much to me—ONLY their positions on issues. People come and go in D.C., but GOOD/common sense principles are lasting! (12/25/14)

BOTH parties FEAR a viable third party, and I've NEVER suggested one, but 'We the people' MUST unite to common sense policies. See our political book, soon. (12/26/14)

If ALL NON-rich people in the U.S. ONLY heeded Aristotle in REQUIRING common sense policies, they would win the White House and Congress, as they HAVE the numbers! (12/26/14)

'We the people' CAN vote in enough politicians committed to the GOOD/common sense policies of BOTH sides to throw all others out in 2020. Do it, and WIN! (12/26/14)

It's my sincere intention to get the people motivated and educated enough to fire all bums in 2020. God will lead that effort, so I believe it won't fail. (1/17/15)

Bad politicians are sent to Washington because of BAD decisions by the electorate. We don't throw bums out, because too many of us are patriotic bum steers. (1/25/15)

A revolt, a peaceful riot, a moral revolution IS brewing OUTSIDE D.C., and WILL manifest itself at the voting booth in 2020. #ThrowALLBumsOut! (1/28/15)

It is treason for those sworn to represent the good of the country, to run it into the ground. Benedict Arnolds, in it for fame and money. #ThrowALLBumsOut! (1/28/15)

ONLY those who HATE their grandkids saddle them with debt. Sting's 'I hope the Russians love their children too' changes to D.C. politicians! #ThrowALLBumsOut! (1/28/15)

Find me ONE exception (to wasteful politicians) whose been in D.C. more than three years. If you do, we have something to work with. Otherwise, they're ALL bums! FIX it! (1/28/15)

We need the expertise of SOME career politicians, and the fresh ideas and energy of newbies, but if any get entrenched in BAD habits, #ThrowTheBumsOut, voters! (1/28/15)

Clean slate; ONLY people committed to common sense need remain in power in D.C. in 2020. If all are bums then, throw them ALL out then. #CleanHouse! (1/30/15)

You, the American citizen, deserve BETTER. You have the numbers. Less than 1,000 Americans lead government. Cast out all bums in 2020! It takes your one vote! (2/13/15)

Politicians get committee assignments, and their state's voters FEEL they should stay in office for clout for their state. Throw the bums OUT! (2/13/15)

NOT all politicians, but over time (Ex.: Three years), nearly all. Party vs. party for money and media attention, fixing LITTLE-TO-NOTHING. FIRE ALL BUMS in 2020, folks! (2/19/15)

Etc. (i.e., many more examples exist)

USA #1

(Pre-'MAGA', which was Ronald Reagan's idea/phrase!)

ALL that matters to #WeThePeople is that ALL sides vote for common sense, common ground polices in the best interests of America! U.S.A. #1 #GOP #Dems #Politics (12/9/14)

Never give up; never forget; STAY vigilant; trust but verify; if you see something, SAY something; CLOSE OUR BORDERS! Terrorism will NOT win! #USA #1 (1/7/15)

We pay these people four times the average Joe's salary for PRODUCTIVITY! Being a parrot/puppet for special interests is NOT representing the American people! U.S.A. #1 again! (7/27/15)

A P.R. person, backers and campaign manager. We the people WILL take back D.C. from partisans and self-serving people destroying OUR nation! U.S.A. #1! (7/27/15)

DO NOT ACCEPT POLITICIAN PROMISES, VOTERS! Deeds alone show whether they have a track-record of DO-ing what they say (i.e., honesty). DON'T be deceived! U.S.A. #1! (8/5/15)

America was primarily built by immigrants [i.e., settlers], but once it was built, everyone else wants in on it who DIDN'T do the work. NOT 'gonna happen in my U.S.A.. U.S.A. #1 (9/24/15)

On vacation travels I often ask my kids to ask ten questions about what they see. We cannot continue to exist as a nation with any dumb citizens! U.S.A. #1! LEARN! (1/30/16)

Trump blasts out brash, rude and arrogant. MOST peers go wimpily silent for MONTHS. THAT's leadership? That's LOSER-ship! #Weakness U.S.A. #1! I have NO idea why SO many Americans are turned off by politics or why politicians rank with used car salesmen. NO idea at all [sarcasm]. @Pledgers2020 @ImMadTooEdwin (2/26/16)

We are proud our ideas were seen and several IMPLEMENTED in 2016 campaigns on BOTH sides of the aisle. That's comforting for America's future! U.S.A. #1! (3/10/16)

I-E1. WE THE PEOPLE

(12/13/14)

Congress: We the people see through your heat vs. light; your drama vs. productivity; your good cop/bad cop so incumbent advantage keeps you in power, appeasing bases!

We the people see gridlock for what it is. A tacit admission you think things are as good as they can get. They are NOT, U.S. Congress.

We the people are NOT stupid, just TIRED of your games. Let the voice of the people rule LOUDER, and have a back-up career Plan B if you DON'T!

We the people will NOT allow politics-as-usual in 2020, just as that date symbolizes clear vision. D.C. must and will CHANGE for the BETTER!

This IS a shot across the bow, as the majority in America are tired of politics-as-usual. YOU stay rich and in power with status quo, but WE will fix that in 2020.

LOWER the debt, FIX the economy (NOT just for the rich), empower the poor to get OFF Welfare, destroy ISIS, only let in who economy NEEDS, etc.

Increase green technology as we wean to less oil use in the longer term, truly help the third world achieve self-sustained economies; let no one starve to death.

Encourage all with $12 million or more to sign and DO the Giving Pledge, and be more philanthropic during their lifetime, and stop the ego of Forbes' List billionaire status.

Allow NO abuse of our system of entitlements, and NO waste, no bureaucracy and no buying votes by giving out freebies without even token civic service repayment requirements!

Make American education number one in the world again, BEAT China's economy vs. throwing up our hands in defeat, make American business number one in profits and morals. Be America/number one again!

We the people MUST unite to assert our power AGAINST every partisan politician and every BAD policy, issue-by-issue/one issue at a time! Voters must get their heads out of the sand!

Politicians are OUR servants; WE are their bosses. It is NOT like that today, but it is in the Constitution, and must be in 2020. They FAKE acting like our servants.

The system is BROKEN. ONLY politicians (and those benefitted by it) reply, "long live the system." FIX the system in 2020, U.S. voters, or you get what you DESERVE!

MOST Americans turn off and tune out of politics BECAUSE it's SO negative and seemingly unfixable. It is NOT, but will stay the same if you do NOTHING, American voter!

Update: Divided States of America?

(12/19/15)

We the people are NOT 100 percent divided! We are united against BAD politicians, BAD policies, gridlock, BAD unity and manipulating D.C. drama with little-to-NO productivity!

We the people are NOT inferior to politicians in knowledge or solutions! We do NOT believe their words about public 'service,' where that power is OURS!

We the people will NOT let politicians LIE to us anymore, waste OUR money, stay in power forever and have NO accountability. Too often the wolves are in charge of our hen house (White House and state house)!

NO back room deals on anything but top secret military strategy! Sunshine laws for EVERY detail, so NOTHING slips by us. We the people are united!

No slandering your opponent and no government lies. Hefty fines or lose your position with too many of such instances! No more NON-moral "leaders!"

NO MORE non-transparent lobbyist meetings. FULL disclosure! NO MORE party loyalty at all costs rewarded by positions, parties and money! In short, morality.

NO misleading TV ads during campaigns. No more ruining workers and the middle class for big business money to keep your campaigns afloat, politicians!

Our other political book SOLVES vs. salves ALL these issues and ~110 more with common ground, common sense NOT beholden to Democrats or Republicans 100 percent! READ it soon.

In some respects, WHO CARES who's the President? Without Congress with the will to override vetoes or pass good legislation, we're SUNK as a nation.

You start with 'We the people!' If THAT majority is FOR positions, anyone can serve in D.C. if they uphold GOOD policies the people are educated to in 20/20*.

[READ our book for an EASY and EFFECTIVE way to CURE D.C.,
and its climate of problems in 20/20. 2016 will be transitional. REJECT status quo D.C.!]

The ONLY ones who LOVE status quo are those most benefitted by it. Is your life great? Is the economy humming for you? Do you LOVE politicians' RESULTS? NOT most of us!

DON'T tune out of politics, or politicians WIN. The system CAN be fixed! America is the MOST innovative country in our world's history! We the people can FIX this!

Businesses improve products and services ALL THE TIME. It's TIME to improve how politics gets done in America. It's a laughingstock, internationally!

DO our book. Other GREAT ideas exist with We the people, and we invite EVERY one of them to be contributed at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>. #WeThePeople.

Common sense yields common ground. For example, you can't spend or credit card your way out of debt or a low-wage job and into riches! Common sense WORKS! #JustDoIt, Washington politicians!

WE do NOT need another novelty President; WE did black, we're considering woman and reality TV. Try BETTER ideas! THAT's what WORKS. Are we do-do's?

Common sense says you never pay ransoms, appease dictators, ignore problems (like Social Security and our debt), become a debtor to China as our master!

Common sense says government CAN'T do a lot to fix an economy, as an economy is the collective of all private (and public) business decisions! Obama proved that!

Common sense says you DON'T reward BAD behavior or you encourage more of it. You DON'T empower laziness or ignore strugglers! #CommonSense. See our book.

Common sense says give freebies and people flock to receive them, but SOMEONE has to pay for them! And if our education system isn't world-class, America will LOSE!

GROW some common sense, U.S. politicians. We the people use it ALL THE TIME, and we live in the real world vs. fantasy land. WE have bills to pay!

Common sense says if the rich have NO payback obligations and some people are jobless or severely poor, money they need must come from somewhere vs. out of thin air or off a money tree.

Common sense says there are no free lunches, and hand-ups, not handouts. Teach a man to fish and he can eat for a lifetime. #CommonSense! #JustDoIt, politicians!

Common sense says if business' only purpose is profits, they'll do anything to get profits, absent boundaries the people and their government impose, conservatives.

Common sense says if market rate is MUCH lower than union-demanded salaries, the rust belt will LOSE to outsourcing!

Common sense says if you loan money for homes one could never repay, you don't lend them sub-prime mortgages, nor do legitimate politicians support such lunacy! They DID!

Common sense says you DON'T reward bankers who, in part, CAUSED that mortgage crisis to get BONUSES or to be bailed out of their own BAD decisions by the middle class! Duh 101.

Common sense says you DON'T so withdraw from Iraq and Afghanistan that you allow ISIS to fill that void, no matter how much war fatigue America feels!

Common sense says you don't drill baby drill with NO concern for the environment, or push 100 percent green energy before the technology has matured! DUMB policies!

Common sense says a flat tax primarily benefits the rich—those least needy of another monetary benefit from government and who can afford taxes the easiest.

Common sense says ending the minimum wage would HURT workers more than help a few workers on North Dakota oil fields, Sean Hannity and Newt Gingrich! Duh 101.

Common sense says ending the estate tax ONLY benefits the rich, and HURTS society from LOST revenues when our budget can hardly be met as it is!

Common sense says most people CAN'T make tweets this fast on so varied of subjects with clarity unless God be with them. Such is my claim. Can most politicians claim the same?

I-E2. FIX THE SYSTEM

(8/12/14)

Washington politics NEED to be cleaned up, and our book shows exactly how to—easily! Here's just a taste of its common sense reasoning(s)...

DON'T put faith in parties 100%, but principles, and ONLY support politicians so committed to them that neither party can dissuade them from what's right for our country.

It has been said that you have what you tolerate. Democrat or Republican? Either/or? No! BETTER RESULTS, or throw all the bums out! Reform is NEEDED!

IF you DON'T have knee jerk thinking, you'll notice that our positions balance BOTH parties except if their position has NO good in it. It's called objectivity. Take the good, reject the bad.

Our books, Dumb as a Donkey Fat as an Elephant and Wit and Wisdom detail the good and bad of both parties, and offer solutions to choosing the lesser of two evils with NO third party.

No other country is as widely or historically admired. MAKE HER admirable in the future. Our new generations CAN'T abandon this American value!

We are the light on a thousand hills, and though NOT arrogantly, WE must rise to lead this world into a BETTER future. We, Americans, have VISION!

The GREATEST weakness in the American Dream is idolizing the love of money, with LITTLE social pressure to generously give back (i.e., only promoting selfishness).

Democrats are GOOD on protecting the environment and animals, helping the poor, opposing racial and job discrimination, helping the elderly, decrying greed and being for equal pay.

The GOP is good on ~economics, national defense, law and order, opposing at-will aborting, lower debt and advancing democracy. Praise the GOOD!

Democrat strategic advantage (vs. conservatives): Ask them publicly if they regularly evangelize vs. just vote against abortion and gay marriage.

GOP strategic advantage: Close the borders, no amnesty, EASIER immigration and effective welfare to IMPROVE lives, skills and improve the economy.

I'm NOT against Democrats or Republicans—just against their bad policies. No one should support those. Define good and bad by principles—not your feelings or money interests.

82 percent of us are sick of what D.C. spews, with embarrassingly POOR results. WHEN will WE do something about it? How long will we be doormats or ostriches?

We ALL know how BAD Washington politicians can be! The majority wants them to change, but what will WE do about it? They ONLY follow OUR clamorings.

Bankruptcy, second-world standards, weakness, strife—if not civil war. These are NOT ambitions any noble nation aspires to, or path we should go down.

WE spend too much, empower laziness, offer no opportunity to millions, then complain if our taxes are used to keep them from dying. Foolishness!

The economy is ~stalled, the Middle East is ablaze, Russia's rising, our debt is crippling, China's beating our tails; QUIT ignoring FACTS, citizens!

ACTION is needed, and ONLY action will help America! Our government is FAR too wastefully large; china's kicking our tails. WHY do we take it so peacefully?

You can and should respect honorable public servants, but with ideological intransigence, fighting and gridlock, there are less of them around today!

DON'T let HIGHLY paid politicians (often rich lawyers) tell us that current state is the BEST we can do. We're the greatest nation in the history of THIS planet.

Clever politicians do JUST enough to make you FEEL they're working, then agitate you enough to make you think you need them. Great snake oil trick—if you're DUMB!

No matter WHAT Presidential candidates say to you, soon 99% of them REVERT to party line once in office! WE have to change party lines where they are NOT good.

Politicians who only address issues at the "right time" (i.e., just before elections) should be paid accordingly—PART-TIME!

When we the people vote in politicians who are more concerned with our country than their personal gain, America will personally gain. Until then, God help us!

We are obsessed with personalities in politics, though ALL of them just spew the same policies of their idol—their party. How dumb can we citizens be?

We're trying to be clever with a first African-American and woman President. Try common ground principles based on morality and common sense. That WORKS!

So long as your attitude is that politics is the professionals' department, life will cost you more, and your freedom to make decisions will be less, and America will NOT be number one again.

ONLY a do-do fully supports every policy their political party espouses, usually because they protect their money, or help them get more money from others.

'We the people' need representatives to speak TRUTH and morality to D.C. politicians, no matter the cost or backlash—to say 'bring it on, party loyalists!

It's time to view American politics as a good thing that we can respect and be proud of, and judge it by its ACCOMPLISHMENTS. Lead the world that area too, USA.

It's time to kick tail and clean house in D.C. IF you're qualified and a MORAL American, join the "Pledge class" in 20/20 to broker power between parties' extremes!

Political common ground begins when we admit the TRUTH—that NEITHER party is perfect, and that neither will get all that they want forever. Duh 101.

Solutions are with common sense principles you and I live by every day. They are NOT with people with famous names, or who are rich or telegenic, but with good policies!

Un-naive reconciliation, communication, honesty and rightful intentions can solve MOST of our problems with a little effort exerted by us ALL; just do it.

Go to dinner with someone from the opposite party tonight. See that they're human, and MOST of them want the best for our country.

Get rid of the bad, and keep the good in both parties, or third parties will be inevitable. America should LEAD the world economically, politically and militarily—but ~doesn't.

The majority is in the middle, but we're not given centrist options, as every issue is addressed by polar extremists for publicity and lobbyist money.

Ninety+ percent of Americans constitute citizens and consumers. We HAVE numbers to change a system favoring and pampering SPOILED elitists! Just do it!

DOING the right thing is ALWAYS more important than SAYING the right things. DO NOT accept ONLY good words, "WE the people" political consumers!

Choose to refuse to be manipulated by either party's red meat issues that cause you to STOP thinking of better alternatives to their pabulum—offered daily.

QUIT re-hiring failed politicians. Hire new blood with BETTER ideas, who aren't worshipping parties or political career. That's common sense!

Speeches WON'T cut the mustard. Talk is cheap. ONLY actions achieve.

FORGET your party and vote ONLY for good policies. INSIST that your candidates defy party bosses when their policies are bad. Do something, America.

IF you're content that our debt could crater our country, China OWNS us, and the dollar WILL keep losing value as we print funny money—KEEP the system.

IF you're content that even the E.U. is moving away from us toward independence, due to our WEAK foreign policy—KEEP the system/status quo.

IF you're content that our economy has STUNK since 2008, unemployment is still HIGH, and MANY have stopped looking for work—KEEP the system.

IF you're content that executives fare VERY WELL, as workers they get rich off barely get by, and are told to accept third world wages—KEEP the system.

IF you're content with REGULAR gridlock, demonizing, extremism, and well-paid politicians who do VERY little, and primarily tow party line—KEEP the system.

IF you're content with politicians and government LYING to you, spinning, wasting your money, buying votes with your tax dollars, and getting rich off evil—KEEP the system.

IF you're content with just pursuing your own career and family happiness, as America drops to NOT #1 or its historic leadership status—KEEP the system.

IF you're content with our country having struggling poor in the richest nation on earth, and some people abusing the system and NOT working—KEEP the system.

IF you're content that Social Security WILL run out, and our YOUTH will be stuck footing the bill, and the rich getting richer or complaining taxes are too high—KEEP the system.

But IF you're DIS-content with our political system, vote for 'Pledged Politicians' in 20/20, and DO something to improve our nation, ASAP.

I believe almost every issue can EASILY be resolved if there is the will, money, and sincere determination to use common sense to find common ground.

Just as God led me to attack top problems in His Church, I may be led to do same concerning America's top problems. Parties are NOT the answer!

Americans want quick, easy answers, as we are busy, and disinterested in disrespected politics. Our book provides just that—easy, fast SOLVING of problems

You name me traits the citizenry wants from D.C., and it's already in our book. My other 12 books verify that I tell truth and don't lie!

"We the people" can create a better future and society with LITTLE extra effort on our part, if we wise up, unite, and, most importantly—ACT!

The MAJORITY in the U.S. are NOT extremists, right or left. That IS a winning formula for 20/20—a year with symbolic significance. Do we see clearly?

For MORE common sense, common ground SOLUTIONS, see our books, Dumb as a Donkey, Fat as an Elephant, Wit and Wisdom and <http://AmericanAnswers.org>!

II. SPECIFICS

II-A1. REPEATED (SUMMARY) TESTIMONY

The following story is true, and it ties directly to the 2016 presidential election, but might upon initial reading sound more unbelievable. For that reason, we offer evidence for all claims in the appendix of this book. So let's get started, but first, a little needed history to provide the backdrop: Beginning as a Baptist youth minister following God's will for his life, I have encountered several issues with pastors in attempts to conduct biblical church practice. Over a theological difference (now made into a book), I lost a career in the ministry in 1986 (including a divorce I did not initiate in 1988). So I retrained (JD/MBA) and conducted private ministry as I worked as a Fortune 500 Management Consultant, lawyer, Bible college professor, and salesman. In the late 1990's a friend on staff at Second Baptist, Houston, called me for an interview as an evangelism minister, saying I was the most evangelistic person he knew. When push came to shove, the administration lied that they had a 'hiring freeze' (they raked in $1 million a week, at the time, a client of mine told me) because during the interviews I had told staffers they would have to lead laymen in doing evangelism.

Then, in 2005, our family moved to Dallas, and soon joined Prestonwood Baptist, Plano. For four years, using many different methods (detailed in our "Church Conflicts" section), I worked tirelessly to get their head pastor to improve his church practice for biblical priorities, based on the materials detailed at our free 'religious' website. Over years of learning I do not back down, and apparently reading that website, for the past five years or so sermons, priorities and programs have significantly changed for the good! This brings us to the 2016 presidential election...

Around February, 2012, due to my often asking questions, making comments and expanding on the Sunday School teacher's lesson, I got ambushed into a meeting where I was banned from all church Bible Fellowship classes. So I took to Twitter (even more than before) to air my gripes on top Bible priorities, and when I said on TripAdvisor.com that I was detailing all these actions at our website, I was called in for another meeting, where I was made to write a contract never to mention that church or its staff, or never return again.

Soon after (and for two years following), I noticed that church intensely monitoring our tweets, to see if we would violate the contract. God then led me to address pastors the nation over with the same topics Prestonwood had been nagged about (i.e.. top Bible priorities), and for three weeks (from late October to mid-November, 2013), He started giving me 'messages' to address those viewing ministries, often throughout the night (Ex.: 3 am). Many famous pastors and ministries dropped by (perhaps, in part, from Graham's connections), and at one time Linked-In (a site I had never used—simply had a profile with) emailed me that a 'stadium full' of people were checking my profile, and it was approaching legend status. We engaged several topics with several people, as well as some arguments with mega church critics, who did not like those topics (See: Pastors' Message, below). Those spiritual posts continued until October 2014, and caused several positive changes in Christian ministries.

Toward the end of 2014, on three occasions I posted that I thought our Twitter account would turn political, and soon it did. Several famous politicians soon were noticing our tweets, some even using their contents in public statements or in their marketing. When Alabama's Supreme Court vied for approving gay marriage, I was led to group tweet many famous pastors, taunting them as being silent, having thrown in the towel, and otherwise allowing state's rights to be ignored by the U.S. Supreme Court hearing no opposition. A week later, or so, a conference call was had by many of these men, and soon North Carolina and Indiana's governors passed legislation protecting religious liberty (especially ensuring pastors could not be compelled to officiate gay weddings). I had an online conversation with Rev. James Robison, who ridiculed whether I had known what was being done, to which I retorted, of course I do, I'm the one who sent the direct message to you (and those other pastors) a week prior. No reply was forthcoming (i.e., silenced).

Then, for a two week period God led me to fast, seeking to lose 40 pounds in 20 days. In the middle of it, on March 23, 2015, God specifically called me to run for office (exact details recited below). At church that weekend, Dr. Graham mentioned to the crowd there was an unusually powerful presence in the room that night, "do you sense it?" He had witnessed that calling live on Twitter, I believe, though I soon deleted it all (though saving it in MS Word), as too personal to go public.

That weekend, Dr. James Dobson was being interviewed on the Prestonwood stage, and, as became Dr. Graham's practice for the next year and a half, several innuendos were stated in that conversation encouraging us to run for high office (details below). Political tweets on common sense political policy continued until June 2017, and more than 75 news events were ultimately affected thereby. Throughout this time, Dr. Graham continued encouraging innuendos in his sermons seeking to get us to run (apparently fearing either violating the Johnson Amendment, showing favoritism/bias toward any one candidates, or employing lawyers' advice of plausible deniability, so that if we did nothing or mentioned these initiatives of his, he could deny any such encouragements).

The one-liners strongly encouraging us to run for office continued (so much so that they became annoying, so I tweeted for them to stop, and twice visited first Baptist, Dallas, to show my disapproval), so it came as quite a shock when, over a period of two weeks, Dr. Graham went from calling Trump's campaign antics "nonsense" (in a Saturday evening church service in early June, 2016), to his being the lead pastor of the evangelical advisory group, speaking to ABC News after a brief meeting with Trump, saying he could "champion" him, just a week and a half later! That was the first time I learned of what I call the "Christian Cabal," of which I write extensively in this book. That deceptive flip-flop so incensed me, I boycotted that church for six months, excepting when my kids' choir sang in the service.

Then, when I returned, after a month or two of attending (Feb, 2017), the church hosted a conference where, again, there were several innuendos seeking my running as a Republican (which I rejected). Hoping the head minister had come to his senses, I learned around April, 2017 (being busy writing, and oblivious to Southern Baptist politics at the time), that just after that event, he had threatened to withhold $1 million from Southern Baptists for the ERLC's Dr. Moore's (a man I had had some interaction with, and Graham had been positive about earlier, detailed below) public criticism of Trump. I tried my darnedest to continue to attend our family's church, mainly because my kids have deep-seated friendships there and the church offers many amenities they enjoy, but when my son showed me a SnapChat picture of Graham grinning in a picture with Trump in June, I decided I would no longer attend with my family (and I am currently looking for another church home for myself).

INTRODUCTION

From late 2013 to early 2015 (essentially, 2014), many pastors across America learned of our tweeted messages extolling them to God's top priorities (by word-of-mouth). The following is a brief overview of the thousands of posts, mainly stating these things in various other ways.

The piano is just a tool to share the gospel. If tomorrow I find a better tool,
I would quit playing the piano. -Keith Green

You learn to write the same way you learn to play golf, you do it, and keep doing it until you get it right... it's hard work! -Max Lucado

I'll speak at any church, at cost, to show video of flames, or a guy on fire, and rip up OLD Bibles, to get your members committed and evangelistic, in love and grace. May those rebels see flames surrounding their contacts they meet in that neighborhood, as God gives them eyes to see into the spiritual realm.
(6/25/14)

If anyone in Hollywood has technology to SAFELY have a stunt man move around in flames, with minimal covered face, I'd love a video to show pastors REALITY! (10/8/14)

I believe STRONGLY that God wants His servant in politics, one day, and He has already shown me ALL about His plan, which, number one, is TOTAL HONESTY. I'll be obedient to that calling. (9/5/14)

I've never tried to be controversial. The truth is controversial enough. -Keith Green

PERSPECTIVE

In Heaven, Christians will all look back at our lives, and know all things. I live knowing this, so there is (virtually) NOTHING TO HIDE; only ETERNAL rewards to gain! (10/29/13)

If we lived like Heaven could be today, Jesus sees all, and nothing hidden will stay that way, how would our lives change TODAY? Those concepts are all true. (11/5/13)

This life is incredibly short, and eternity is extraordinarily long.
I want our lives to count for eternity. –Unknown Criswell Chapel speaker (3/4/14)

PRIORITIES

The church in Acts changed/impacted/affected their culture. Our impact is mainly within a building for one hour a week, with messages forgotten 72 hours later! (10/11/14)

E. Evangelize ALL lost near the building, ASAP. D. Relationally disciple ALL saved church members, ASAP (use multiplication, to make it easier). B. Body life, utilizing laymen's spiritual gifts in the worship service to edify each other implementing the one another's. And, S. Social ministry, especially the poor, in significant ways. That's EDBS. (4/6/15)

Preach-and-be-paid; song, silver and sermon for bodies, bucks and buildings for bodies, buildings and bucks, with SECULAR attraction programs to keep guilt-based paying customers coming back is NOT Christianity! Can you see the difference? (Ps. 119:18, 105) (10/11/14)

Churchianity is go to church one to two hours a week, sing, give and hear a sermon.
Christianity is 24/7—a MAJOR difference! (10/25/13) And marry, bury and carry burdens are NOT pastor's duties. (Ac 6:4) (7/25/14 adaptation)

Evangelism and discipling as the top two functions of the Church are NOT a new concept (I Tim. 2:4; Mt. 28:18-20) One para-church organization's slogan mirrors this: To know Him and make Him known. (9/5/14)

EVANGELISM

(AKA, God & the Gospel say GO!)

Friends don't let friends die without Jesus! –@Calvary__Tweets (12/19/13)

NEED

This generations of preachers is responsible for this generation of sinners.
–Leonard Ravenhill

The sign of Christianity is not a cross, but a tongue on fire. –Samuel Chadwick

HOW would God warn the world one LAST time before starting the 7-year Tribulation? MIGHT He use His Bride/Body-the Church—if they would cooperate? (9/13/14)

How would God warn the lost world one last time, to receive Jesus? Its' all over, if His church won't perform that function. (9/28/14)

Can anyone see the VALUE of completing one zip code with the Gospel, then broadcasting that feat, world-wide, to inspire global completion? Are we THAT blind, if we can't see that? (11/5/13)

PROBLEM

Jesus commands us to go, but we go other way, so He carries the burden, alone while His children are busy at play, feeling so called to stay. -Keith Green

Partial Evangelism

As a church, saying, 'we do evangelism,' when it's NOT 100 percent thorough evangelism, is like being half pregnant. If you don't reach those nearest to you, they may go to Hell, unnecessarily! (5/19/13)

"We do evangelism," when it's a drop in the bucket, is like saying we are a grocery store, with only as few loaves of bread (or many other groceries) on your shelves. (6/7/14)

A church doing some evangelism of their neighbors is like filling out some of your IRS 1040 tax form. Try arguing that with the tax man, on April 15th! (10/7/14)

A church that does NOT reach all lost people near their un-required edifice(s) is like a grocer who has little food, but having many other auxiliary services. Think about it. (2/17/14)

Pockets are NOT FULL saturation, and more than holes in cheese blocks. Access to the Gospel is NOT taking it to all, 'to a man.' (Mk. 16:15) Don't be deceived. (2/27/15)

Every day you delay evangelizing is a day that every lost person near your church misses out walking with Jesus, they don't experience abundant life, they risk death then and eternal Hell (i.e., the BIGgest gamble), and they miss eternal rewards. (2/17/14)

Jesus said, 'follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men.' A super majority of U.S. Christians And you aren't following very closely if you believe He wants one sheep left behind. (Lk. 15:4) (9/26/14)

The Bible's symbol for evangelism is a foot. (Rom. 10:15) The U.S. church's symbol is that of an ostrich, or a rear end, comfortably ensconced on a comfortable couch. (2/11/14)

America

American church: DON'T evangelize much, never relationally disciple, or have body life. -The Devil (whom we Christians too often serve, QUITE effectively). (6/4/14)

A recent poll indicated that 7 out of 10 American adults have no clue as to the meaning of John 3:16. @harvest_org (6/25/14)

WHEN'S the last time ANY Christian asked you if you knew you were going to Heaven? Don't tell me our evangelism is adequate in the Laodicean/Rev. 3:14-22 era! (2/18/14)

Missionaries come to America! We're a pagan country, with carnal, compromised Christendom. THEY see it, and we DON'T. Blind, deluded, deceived. (7/7/14)

The country that received the most missionaries in 2010? The U.S., with 32,400 sent from other nations. RT @JohnPiper (1/25/14) [Mission sender became mission field]

We pat ourselves on the back for drops-in-the-bucket evangelism achievements, while Heaven weeps at the MANY we overlook while we celebrate! (2/20/14)

Christians SAY they love people, but they withhold Heaven, from fear or apathy, and I'm supposed to agree that we're loving? That's the ultimate HATRED! (7/8/14)

To be evangelical, and not evangelistic, is a contradiction and an oxy-moron. (I Tim. 5:18)

If you're REALLY pro-life, and believe in the sanctity of life, EVANGELIZE, so those already living can live forever! (2/18/14)

Pastor Warning

Leaders LEAD! Eph. 4 tells pastors to get laymen evangelizing and discipling, and II Tim. 1:6-12, 2:24-26 and 4:5 are in a "PASTORAL epistle," pastors! (7/5/14)

WHO ELSE but you, pastor, is MORE responsible for the spiritual condition of your field/Jerusalem/church's IMMEDIATE neighbors? NO other human! (10/23/13)

Every U.S. pastor in ministry more than three years, who HASN'T decided to fully evangelize ALL nearby lost, is CORRUPT. Harsh words? Harsh DECISION against the lost! (9/26/14)

Until you KNOW every soul near your church building has heard the Gospel lovingly, accurately and powerfully, you're a biblically-incompetent minister! That's ministerial malpractice. (2/18/14)

If the pastor nearest to your home hasn't ensured someone tells you about Jesus, he doesn't love you, or mind that you're going to Hell. (2/14/14)

It is PRACTICING atheism, and calling God a liar, to say your church CAN'T evangelize all nearby lost people. EVERY such pastor has BLOOD on their hands, for those who go to Hell as a result. (2/24/14)

Blood is on American pastor's hands. That means peoples' souls will be charged against you for NOT warning and telling them about Jesus, when you could! (9/23/14)

Murder only kills the body. Ignoring full evangelism kills body and soul in Hell, so-called "leaders" (i.e., pastors). Randomness will NOT finish task! (9/23/14)

Patience is one thing; procrastination, quite another. Don't confuse these two P's.

U.S. pastors are the Good Shepherd, in REVERSE. They stay with the 99 saved sheep, and hope the one lost finds his way back home, but the percentages are also REVERSED! (2/17/14)

Pastor's often FEAR that personally evangelizing turns off neighbors as potential church members. THEY'RE GOING TO HELL, selfish money-grubbers! Hell, forever! (7/20/14 adaptation)

How many pastors does it take to ensure one neighborhood has been fully evangelized? Apparently, an innumerable company. (Unpublished)

MARK your calendar, today, for three years hence, pastor, to PROVE to your seared conscience that you are hardened hearted about evangelizing the lost. God sees all! (2/22/14)

On Judgment Day, and into eternity, for awhile, MANY pastors are going to regret and kick themselves for NOT evangelizing their own neck of the woods! May that thought HAUNT you, because you won't think it, until after death (for many of you), from a HARD, blind HEART. I'm TRYING to spare you that pain, now! (6/25/18)

Laymen

U.S. Christians will do ANYTHING but evangelize—be nice, give money, attend church, feed the poor—but let them go to Hell, because we're too SCARED—of what? (II Tim. 1:7) (2/13/14)

Laymen don't want to evangelize, pastors do little evangelism, and don't want to upset tithers, and the lost would never ask for evangelism, so what hope do they have? (10/25/13)

The lost will NEVER complain that Christians don't evangelize them (i.e., it's NOT their only spiritual nature), and the Devil will never complain, either. Good luck, lost people! (7/20/14)

The Remnant

The minority of believers who evangelize are few, unorganized, and are unsure where their work is still needed, but are also doing a GREAT job! They R NOT the problem! (10/31/13)

The HARDEST work in life is getting Christians to evangelism (even and ONLY N the Spirit). NO method works GREAT, discipling helps, but a miracle is NEEDED! (10/9/14)

There will likely ALWAYS be professional collusion NOT to address this sin, as it works for paying their salaries. If Jesus were here, He'd say, 'REPENT!' (2/20/14)

MOTIVATION

I plead with you to be that generation that preaches the Gospel, wins souls, changes hearts, changes the world, and saves this country, while there's still time. -Rev. John Bisagno

Perspective

Think about Heaven, and you will live holy; think about Hell, and you will evangelize. (Unpublished)

Ninety-five percent of the U.S. church will NEVER know the high of winning someone to Christ. Joe Wall SAW the gift, yet wanted no part of it. Details at our website. (11/3/13)

We don't have anti-conversion laws in the States, so do you evangelize?
Or would it not matter if God took away that [freedom]? -Jonathan D. Leeman (11/3/13)

Authority

You NEVER have to "earn a right to be heard" by lost people (a modern myth). You've been authorized as a town crier for the King of Kings! What do you think COULD happen when He learns that message is getting to so FEW citizens? (Mt. 21:41) (8/11/14 adaptation)

Precedent

It CAN be done! Evangelism Explosion THOROUGHLY evangelized in the 1970's. Why am I considered radical for calling for such threshing, world-wide. It's sinful not to! (12/24/13)

And even one zip code (76115) HAS BEEN FULLY EVANGELIZED—documented—done by my alma mater, @SWBTS, via RARE leaders, Drs. Queen and Kiker (both of whom I've contacted). (10/14/14)

Positivity?

Positivity about getting laymen to evangelize DOES NOT WORK! The pastor looks crazy, being excited about it, and laymen know it's their obligation; they are just more HARDENED! (12/21/13)

Rewards

The GREATEST way to lay up treasure in Heaven is to invest in those who get people to Heaven (i.e., evangelists). -Canon J. John (paraphrased)

Logic

Use PURE logic: Hell is real, for ALL who reject Jesus, and the Gospel is the only message that can change that, and believers are the ONLY one's to tell it. Tell it! Or, said another way... (7/1/14)

1. Hell is real.

2. All people go there, unsaved.
 3. The gospel is their only escape.
 4. Christians alone have it to speak.
- Any questions? (6/20/18)

Shame

My eleven-year old son has evangelized more people than MOST U.S. Christians! Shame, shame, shame, vs. happy, happy, happy! Get your priorities right! The end is near. (11/4/13)

Don't let the Great Commission become the great omission of your life, Christian, or you will not have great position (or possession) in the next life. (11/3/13)

Give me one hundred preachers who fear nothing but sin, and desire nothing but God... such alone will shake the gates of Hell. –John Wesley

ILLUSTRATIONS

Problem Severity

How SAD it would be to have a deaf, dumb and blind child, like Christians who CAN'T hear God's call to evangelize, WON'T speak it, and are BLIND to the lost's DESPERATE need. (2/27/14)

Would the founder of cancer's cure be blamed for cancer deaths, if he/she hid that cure? U.S. Christians hide Hell's cure ALL THE TIME! (2/8/14)

In dangerous chemical spills, authorities will always FULLY use door-to-door. Considering other methods, it is the ONLY one that can ensure that all lost people get warned. (1/11/15)

In tornadoes, authorities DON'T go to statistical sample of homes, to see if all are O.K., but door-to-door. Hell is worse than a tornado or chemical spill. (10/7/14)

Insufficient Effort

The global church's Great Commission COMPLETION plan is the least organized, least productive and least prioritized organization in the world! (Judg. 21:25) (10/25/13)

NO farmer says his field has been harvested with only a PORTION of his crop being threshed! You either have FULL evangelism, or you have LESS than biblical evangelism. (10/7/14)

We DO evangelism? GREAT! Incomplete evangelism is like a math tutor saying we do math tutoring, but he doesn't know algebra or trigonometry! (4/28/16)

Selfish Hoarding

We are not cisterns made for hoarding—we are channels made for sharing. –Billy Graham
As another person once said, how tragic for any Christian to be spiritually BARREN! (9/7/14)

Beloved Creatures

If a RABBIT is worth saving from California flames, how MUCH more humans, from Hell's (flames)?
<https://bit.ly/2MPtVZy> (6/16/81)

If sinners be damned, at least let them leap to Hell over our dead bodies.
And if they perish, let them perish with our arms wrapped about their knees, imploing them to stay. If Hell must be filled, let it be filled in the teeth of our exertions.

–Charles Spurgeon

EXCUSES

1. Everyone Has Heard; There are evangelists on TV all the time. PROVE IT, to a person. Do those shows get watched by a 100 percent of people, as that's God's DOABLE standard. (9/23/14)
2. There's a Church on Every Street Corner. God NOWHERE requires a lost person to attend your building to hear HIS message, or says an available Gospel is a delivered Gospel! (3/7/14)
Having a church presence in a community is NOT evangelism! FEW lost people ever attend, so they go to Hell in the shadows of your holy huddles. (2/17/14)
3. I Evangelize with My Sermon. Then you're MAINLY preaching to the converted/choir! (10/17/14)
4. I'm a Pastor, Not an Evangelist. What a crock! WHO ELSE in U.S. church culture is the so-called 'leader' of laymen, to evangelize? (Eph. 4) And read II Tim. 4:5, in the PASTORAL epistles. (7/25/14)
Update: Here's an EXCUSE I can see coming... Many pastors participated in Harvest America—Get off their backs! That's NOT doing evangelism, yourself, and doesn't relieve you of the burden of evangelizing ALL nearby lost people. It was a GREAT THING that you supported OTHERS doing evangelism, and nice try trying to weasel out with such a statement! (6/25/18)
5. I'm a Layman—Not an Evangelist. Perhaps not, but ALL Christians are called to evangelize. (8/17/14)
6. I Don't Button-hole People. Do any of these verses teach believers to have a fear being too "in your face," or "turning people off" in evangelism?: I Cor. 1:17; II Cor. 2:17; Gal. 2:14; Eph. 6:20; Col. 4:4. (6/29/14)
7. I Don't Want to Offend Anyone. Hell will offend them forever, when you had the solution/answer, and acted like a spiritual MUTE! Excuses are of the Devil. (10/18/14)
8. I'm Afraid, or Don't Want to be Rejected. They're rejecting Jesus, and your emotional comfort is less important than their eternity! The DEVIL gives you that fear! (II Tim. 1:7) (6/18/14)
9. I'm a Sender, Not a Goer. That SOUNDS theological, but is an evangelistic FALSEHOOD, biblically. Your money is NEEDED, but your mouth is needed even MORE. (3/31/14)
If you don't have a definite call to stay here, you are called to go. –Keith Green
10. I Evangelize by my Lifestyle. What a CROCK. Your deeds do NOT speak of a cross, sacrifice, sin, Hell, resurrection, Heaven, and Jesus, etc., and cultist's deeds often surpass ours. (10/4/14)
11. I Don't Like Your Methods. If you don't evangelize much, I really don't like yours. (10/7/14 adaptation)

THEORY

Strategy

The process of evangelism is never complete until the evangelized themselves become evangelists.

–John Bisagno

The MOST IMPORTANT strategy consideration is how the evangelistic minority can FULLY evangelize ALL lost people, without the majority ineffectively inactive Christians, ASAP! (7/25/14)

My HEART is for church outside America, for MAYBE THEY will FULLY do the Great Commission. I will use ways to contact them. They send missionaries to America! (2/23/14)

Jehovah's Witnesses and Mormons are NOT as stupid in their strategies of "evangelism" as most U.S. pastors! Read that again until you feel its effect. (9/27/14)

Evangelism ISN'T the ONLY thing, but until it's completely completed, we do other things at the eternal expense of our neighbors! It's why Christ came. (11/3/13)

Even carnal evangelism is better than NO evangelism. (Phil. 1:15-18) You are NOT the message, and your deeds are NOT perfect! (II Cor. 4:5) (12/24/13)

Priorities

I'd take everyone as spiritual babies in Heaven, over Hell being filled to capacity, and only evangelism makes that happen (or NOT). (2/18/14)

Evangelize ALL before you worry about discipling, IF (and only if) discipling takes anything away from evangelizing ALL people, ASAP. (2/15/14)

Evangelism and discipling as the top two functions of the Church are NOT a new concept (I Tim. 2:4; Mt. 28:18-20) One para-church organization's slogan mirrors this: To know Him and make Him known. (9/5/14)

MAYBE if your un-commanded buildings did not pressure the budget, and bi-vocational weren't anathema to you, pressure to get crowds would lessen!? (7/25/14)

Thorough

In the book of Acts, cities were reached, then evangelizers moved on to the next cities, so they could SAY they fully DID the Great Commission (stage one)! We DABBLE in evangelism! (7/7/14)

BIBLICAL evidence for LITERAL full evangelism: Mt. 18:12-14, 28:18-20; Mk. 16:15; Rom. 14:10; I Cor. 15:22a; II Cor. 5:14-15; Heb. 9:27, etc. (7/3/14)

Presentations

It takes seven presentations, on average, for you to see a positive response to the Gospel. (9/12/14)

Do Gospel-rejecters take liability before God? Yes, but you have until their death bed to be off the hook for your Christian obligation (unless, perhaps, they vehemently resist). (9/23/14)

Never Too Late

The thief on the cross teaches us that salvation is instantaneous, can occur up to one's deathbed, and that assurance follows IMMEDIATELY, as with Heaven, upon death. (Lk. 23:39-43) (3/10/14)

Church Growth

The term, 'unchurched,' is NOT in the Bible. It's a pastor concept of controlling customers vs. seeing All as lost or saved, no matter where they attend or give money! (II Cor. 5:16) (10/6/14)

BIBLICAL church growth came sovereignly, and from evangelism. NO advertising or attraction events were EVER engaged in the first century, to turn the world upside down! (Ac. 17:6) (Unpublished)

Churches started because evangelism was so successful crowds resulted needing discipling by an appointed elder. Paul ONLY started churches as a RESULT of gathering evangelism converts— NEVER by using believers to create a church! The goal was converts. (10/5/14)

Bad Theology

No matter how Calvinistic you are about God's sovereign grace and election and predestination, in presenting the gospel you'll be Arminian. –W.A. Criswell

Things that DON'T substitute for prayer-backed power in evangelism: Apologetics, human emotional bonding, morally serving, clever phraseology. (8/7/14)

LOGIC never saved anyone from Hell. you can use it in apologetics, but God's POWER and conviction in evangelism are ultimately what brings results! (8/15/14)

Politics

Abortion is man deciding who lives or dies. Under-evangelism, or evangelismlessness is Christians deciding who lives or dies—FOREVER! (6/29/14)

Any Christian who clamors against abortion, but does not more so evangelize, is a HYPOCRITE, as, at least poor embryos go to Heaven! (9/23/14)

METHODS

MOST evangelism "methods" were invented in the past thirty years. If God put a gun to your head, and said, 'go evangelize,' what act would you immediately do? The answer is OBVIOUS! (7/25/14)

Go and Tell

The biblical model for evangelism is that we go out to the people and not to wait for them to find us! –Jonathan Hulton

The New Testament evangelism model is publicly, and from house to house. (Ac. 5:42) Paul went where crowds were—synagogues and the market places. 153,000 people die daily; most go to Hell. (10/11/14)

God tells us to GO over 1,500 times in scripture!

He's given us His words of life! Go! Tell the world! –Tami Brown

Relational Evangelism

Someone may say, 'I befriend before I tell them the Gospel.' I hope they don't die before you speak! You don't have enough time to befriend the number of people God calls you to evangelize! And lost people know there's an agenda, especially if they reject the message, and your "friendship" dies! (9/12/14)

Schmoozing, and the coming in the back door sophistication of relational evangelism is cleverness, and NOT straightforwardness, or bold, and, therefore, NOT biblical. (9/14/14)

Invitational Evangelism

NOWHERE in the Bible does evangelism NOT ask for a response to the Gospel presented, and THAT DAY! Subtle can be Satanic (Eph. 6:20; Gal. 2:14; I Cor. 1:17; II Cor. 6:2). (10/4/14)

I'm ALL FOR evangelistic crusades, but ALL AGAINST laymen who invite people to them, and NEVER EVANGELIZE, themselves. That's NOT evangelism. (11/4/13)

INVITATIONAL evangelism ONLY happened when the believer, 1. DIDN'T know the message, 2. COULDN'T go (i.e., physically), or, 3. Didn't NEED to, as Jesus was there. (3/31/14)

INVITATIONAL evangelism is NOT the New Testament way (vs. go and tell). Cornelius didn't know the Gospel, Andrew could take Peter to Christ, and famous Paul got too aged to physically go. (3/31/14)

Servant Evangelism

If you only meet people's physical needs, without sharing Christ, all you're doing is making earth a better place to go to Hell. –Justin Graham

The ONLY way you can know who are "elect" is to evangelize everyone, and so many times that you only learn it at their last, deathbed rejection! (2/15/14)

Attraction Evangelism

NOWHERE does God command the lost to go to a church building, in order to be saved. IT'S NOT THEIR SPIRITUAL NATURE, and THEY ONLY HAVE ONE (which is not the same as the 'image of God'/conscience remaining within)! Even U.S. pastors would not frequent a bar or strip club, because it's NOT your new spiritual nature. (10/30/14)

Evangelizing at church is like looking for a bride at a couple's retreat! Jesus preached to the crowds, but He disciplined twelve men. LEARN His ways! That's a very ineffective use of limited resources. (5/30/14)

The Bible does not say that the whole world should go to church, but rather the church should go to the whole world. –Greg Laurie (2/22/14)

How DID the first century world get evangelized without church buildings and attraction evangelism methods? CHRISTIANS DID EVANGELISM, fully! They were NOT major set-setters. (8/28/14)

Cowardly evangelism says ONLY evangelize people you know! Can you IMAGINE if Paul had done that heretical methodology, vs. turning the world around? (10/7/14)

I evangelize at the end of my sermons? MOST lost people in your area are NOT there listening to your sermon! We waste much evangelism energy "preaching to the (converted) choir." (9/18, 28/14 adaptations)

Churches ONLY attract a handful of their neighbors, and Jesus DIDN'T die for handfuls, or call Christians to only reach drops in the bucket of lost people. (9/13/14)

"Attraction" evangelism has ZERO way to prove every person has heard, or was offered the Gospel, yet pastors use it to control results in THEIR building(s). (9/27/14)

You can advertise your retail religion building, but it's NOT their nature to drop by, like picking up a Pharmacy prescription, or a hamburger—they're LOST! The Bible says 'if' a lost person enters your church, NOT when. (I Cor. 14; Jas. 2) (9/25/14)

It's a GOOD thing to invite the lost to church, but it is NOT evangelism, but letting the SPEAKER do evangelism. (9/28/14)

Tips

If your evangelism method does not include much Scripture quoting, you've robbed the Holy Spirit of a major tool for His conviction. (5/28/13)

Using the Bible in your evangelism presentation is NOT showing off YOUR thoughts or knowledge—it's presenting GOD'S message (which doesn't return void). (5/28/13)

What's the secret of evangelism? Open your mouth! –Will Graham (Retweeted 10/3/14)

You want POWER? Be absorbed in prayer, and the Bible. Relationship evangelism bonding/schmoozing is NO substitute! (I Cor. 2:4, 4:20) (8/30/14)

Urgency

A seed in a basket will not produce a harvest. –Johnny Hunt (7/21/14)

The gospel is only good news if it gets there in time. –Greg Laurie (7/21/14)

Why is there NO urgency? LEARN the LARGE numbers of lost people, the small numbers of evangelizing Christians, signs of prophecy's imminence, and the uncertainty of when anyone dies, and MAYBE you'll CHANGE! Plus, it takes, on average, seven gospel presentations for a person to positively respond. Read more BIBLE! (10/2/14)

Besides those reasons, there is also BIBLICAL evidence for having urgency in evangelism: Mt. 25:10; Lk. 2:49; Jn. 4:34, 9:4; Rom. 13:11; I Cor. 7:29-31, 9:19-24; Eph. 5:16; Jas. 4:14; I Pet. 4:7. (7/3/14)

PROVE to me that Jesus won't return tonight, whereby it would be too late for your lost neighbor, friend, or family member, and PROVE prove he/she won't die tonight! That being the case, WHY do Christians fail to evangelize them? (7/1/14)

SOLUTIONS

Focus

ONE zip code. Is that TOO MUCH to ask churches to FULLY reach with the Gospel, as a START, to inspire others? ONE zip code? One neighborhood, then? (2/17/14)

Different denominations MUST work together for evangelism! ALL our differences are SECONDARY. I can work with anyone committed to the Great Commission. (12/22/13)

Feeling

Stick your toe in a scalding hot tub full of water, and tell me you don't need to go tell a neighbor about Jesus! If you don't understand this, please don't call yourself a Christian. (10/23/13)

Pastors

Who's SUPPOSED to evangelize everyone? Evangelists? They don't even have the financial security of claiming the laymen's "tithe!" ALL believers are to do the task! (2/8/14)

Arthur Blessitt, Luis Palau and Billy Graham. The hero triumvirate of the 20th century. Don't know them all? God does! (7/22/31)

The more mature a believer becomes, the more evangelistic a believer becomes. Hence, pastors should be actively engaged in discipling believers. (Unpublished)

Pastor: You lead, and the 'ducklings' follow. Words are NOT deeds, in asking laymen to evangelize. Seeing you do it has a BIG impact! (7/1/14)

Pastor: If you asked your members to evangelize, ask them as a group if they did so the next week! Let them tell testimonies! John Bisagno did! (12/3/13)

You have church rolls. Deduct every name who claims salvation at your building, on a local map, and GO EVANGELIZE the rest. This ISN'T rocket science! (6/27/14)

Laymen

SPEAK, Christian. The Gospel is NOT to be implied by your kind deeds, any more than it can be understood by watching cultist's deeds morally out-perform you (I Th. 2:4) (3/7/14)

Competition?

Para church organizations are SUPERIOR to most churches on evangelism and discipling. Until The church catches up, God is displeased. (Tweeted to: @jasonkeithallen, 2/25/14)

Evidence

Pastor, I could under cover video myself posing as a lost person, to ask Christian church members how I can go to Heaven, so you would see how incapable and inexperienced they are. (2/18/14)

Honesty

Give yourself ONE more year of procrastinating, to prove to yourself that you willfully REJECT God's LEADERSHIP call to you, U.S. pastors. (10/30/14)

When church leaders admit to their people that they too are afraid to evangelize, it communicates integrity and encouragement! -Larry Moyer

Intensity

U.S. pastors: SHUT DOWN church this Sunday, and take your members evangelizing. I KNOW (most of) you won't, but there's accountability in Heaven, and you're on the record. (10/16/14)

Why won't most pastors ask for a show of hands regarding who will go evangelize? If you won't, you're NOT serious or urgent about the Great Commission! (9/22/14)

Christian laymen can do BIG thing for the Great Commission, in designating their donations to foreign missions. Pastors will wise up, as 'money talks.' (6/5/13)

Every Christian layman: WITHHOLD your gifts ("tithes") until your head pastor agrees to lead your church to reach all nearby lost people with the Gospel! (9/23/14)

FIRE YOUR PASTOR if he will NOT publicly commit to lead his members to evangelize ALL nearby lost people, ASAP! Don't worry, pastors...NO U.S. pastor will ever lose his job, because MOST laymen don't want to, either! (11/11/14)

Experience

Go with me, door-to-door evangelizing, or taking our Gospel signs to events with more than 5,000 people, or taking our Go Evangelize! signs to mega churches. Experience it! (2/18/14)

I'd rather have people hate me with the knowledge that I tried to save them.
-Keith Green

Preacher, if you had had Holy Ghost fire, I shall not now be going to Hell-fire.
-Leonard Ravenhill

PRACTICE

Tips

In one-on-one evangelism, and in our fast-paced world, you usually only get five minutes for the whole conversation, so answers must be truthful and succinct. (9/5/14)

I NEVER evangelize at bars, casinos, whore houses, or gay pride parades, as it is NOT sins (or perceived ones) that are man's problem, but sin (and you can gamble for fun, and drink in moderation). The Gospel is NOT about condemnation, and we have all sinned! (10/31/14)

Door-to-door tips: Don't stand too close to the door; three (vs. two) people can intimidate the resident; look for lights, cars parked out front, drapes pulled back, or movement, to find people home/to talk to. (11/1/14)

If you are on public property, safe, and not obstructing traffic, cops will usually treat you very well. (10/5/14)

Missions

Pastors: You MUST do YOUR PART of Acts 1:8 in the various spheres: At home, in state and country, and globally. Again I say, You MUST, ASAP! (12/25/13)

Every friend of Jesus is a friend of missions. Where there is a healthy spiritual life there is a love for the missionaries. -Dr. David Allen (11/10/13)

The lack of missionary zeal in any church or church leader is the most direct evidence possible that no revival exists. -David Sitton (11/6/13)

Reaching the nations with the gospel is the heartbeat of our God. It must become the heartbeat of His people. -Danny Akin (11/7/13)

As long as there are 3.5 billion without the Bible, and gospel of King Jesus, how can we spend so much time, energy and money on [lesser things]. -Danny Akin (12/25/13)

Ideas

For evangelism, or evangelism exhortation, consider all of the following:

Megaphones. A sign on a building's side. Airplane streamers flying over churches, on Sunday. Airplane streamers. An 18-wheeler or bus side. An as at a dollar movie theater. An advertising-wrapped vehicle. Billboard truck to park near church on Sunday. Billboards. Blimp with billboard-sized sign! Blogs. Bumper stickers. Business cards saying Go Evangelize!, placed on church cars. Car cover. Car sun visor. Carry a flag with cross on it. Chain emails and tweets. Christian Farm-Aid-like concert for FULL evangelism. Christian rock concerts. Christian, Evangelize! sign for car window, when at church. Church "tithes" earmarked only for direct evangelism. Evangelistic believers setting a Guinness Book of World Record for holding hands in a chain protesting less than full evangelism by U.S. Christians. Faxes. Gospel banner placed on homes' roofs, video'd by helicopter, and put on social media. Gospel sign for the car rear window. Ham radio. Helicopter Go Evangelize! tract drops, at churches. Hot air balloon message. HOW could I invent a light-weight sign that floats like helium ten times bigger than my Gospel signs to exhort church to evangelize. Lapel pins. March publicly, with protest and apology signs to the lost (Ex.: at state capitals). Maybe a HUGE helium balloon with writing on it I walk around holding (re-fillable and re-useable). Megaphone as laymen enter church. Phone pastors to meet. Pray-ins of MANY laymen in public places, en masse. Protest sign outside churches, reading: Go inside and ask them to tell you how to go to Heaven. Protestors circling church campuses during services with Go Evangelize! T-shirts. Protests, or hunger strikes (and prayer), at denominational meetings, seminary or Bible college gatherings. Public access TV. Public cross display with a live, costumed person perched on it. RV's side, parked prominently.

Sackcloth and ashes. Sandwich boards. Scrolling message light-weight digital sign you carry around. Sky write: GO evangelize! Skywriting Go Evangelize, Church. TV, radio and internet ads. Under-evangelism protest signs at churches, walking around them as the worship. Video Gospel Sign events, and post them on social media (Ex.: GoPro). Visit many churches, and drop a note in the collection plate. Voicemails. Walk around your town one day, with a Gospel Sign attached to you. YouTube video messages. YouTube videos. Etc. Will you do anything to stem the tide of under-evangelism? (10/6-10/14)

Please duplicate my signs in other cities (10/22/14):

AUTHORIZED airplane streamer: Pastor-Evangelize EVERY lost soul near your church in the next three years! -Christ (See: WillYouLiveForever.org) (10/31/13)

AUTHORIZED Billboard for any city: Pastors, evangelize EVERY lost soul near your church in the next three years! -Christ (See: WillYouLiveForever.org) (10/31/13)

The Old Testament prophets wore sackcloth and ashes, some secularists use hunger strikes or literal protests. OF COURSE, prayer. We MUST get church evangelizing. (10/3/14)

Bad Examples

"Real men love Jesus" bumper stickers are NOT the Gospel. It's NOT about machismo will power, but faith, received; a GIFT! (10/10/14)

Your testimony DOES NOT speak of a cross, sacrifice, sin and its consequences, a risen Lord, or Heaven and Hell—just your story of how THE message impacted you. (11/6/13)

Saying 'Jesus loves you' is NOT evangelism. It's PART of the Gospel, but until you tell them their problem, and how to solve it, through Christ, you HAVEN'T evangelized! (2/13/14 adaptation)

Disclaimer

No one who knows me well thinks I'm less passionate about evangelism and full commitment discipling off-line. Read the "Church Conflicts" section at our website! (2/15/14)

LORDSHIP SALVATION

Eternal life is free, it comes from faith alone.

Discipleship is hard, it comes from faith AND working hard. -Zane Hodges

The new birth is not the old nature altered, reformed, or reinvigorated, but a being born from above. -R.G. Lee

God doesn't confuse people—the Devil does. Salvation is a free gift on a given day; discipleship costs your life, daily, for life. Who's doctrine do you follow? (9/28/14)

Carnality in church WON'T be stopped by a false Gospel that misrepresents salvation requirements, but by relational discipling and Quiet Times! (8/11/14)

Babies don't grow without milk and tutors, but Lordship Salvation tries to front-load all that, requiring one huge commitment to receive a FREE gift. (10/10/13)

Discipleship commitment is DAILY taking up your cross, and denying yourself, for a lifetime. The new birth is in a DAY. Can't Lordshippers understand? (3/29/14 adaptation)

Any lack of full commitment in your lifetime DIS-qualifies you as a 'disciple,' at that moment, so Lordshippers HAVE TO say you lost or never had salvation! (8/11/14)

Many if not most calls to discipleship happened AFTER salvation, often about two and a half to three years after men walked with Christ as saved individuals! (Jn. 2:11) (Unpublished)

This is NO "academic" exercise to me. I was saved at age eight, but WOULD not have been if Lincoln Nebraska's Southview Baptist's pastor had been a Lordship Salvationist. (2/15/15)

COMMITMENT

A spiritual Christian is one who allows the Holy Spirit to operate within his spirit.
-Watchman Nee

What we see in Acts is normal Christianity. Sadly, what we too often have today is watered down Christianity. -Greg Laurie (7/30/14)

God's goal for us is not our comfort, but our character transformation so we can join Him in being light to the world! -Derwin L. Gray (11/10/13)

Making God's priorities your priority makes you God's priority. -John Bisagno

Discipleship/sanctification takes efforts of faith—though the Spirit is always at work—without which you cannot please God. (Heb. 11:1, 6) (12/22/13)

We would no more consider a marriage healthy if spouses saw each other once a week as you can consider a Christian healthy by attending church, alone! (12/25/13)

Most U.S. Christians will be PAUPERS in Heaven, with gold outhouses, for not being fully committed to and daily meeting with God. (10/10/13)

PERSISTENTLY PUSHING Christians to have a Quiet Time with you for a month is the BEST way to get them in the habit, with busy lives and even with good intentions. (2/20/14)

Ninety percent of U.S. Christians are nominal. This is a researched statistic I did not dream up. Don't be deceived by one's Sunday Best dress and behavior! Pastors throw sermons at them, but better to try relational discipleship, and a 30 day Quiet Time habit! (5/19/13)

ETERNAL rewards await those who walk in the Spirit, have daily Quiet Times, disciple and evangelize. (2/16/14)

Cultists live more holy than many believers, from fear of Hell. From certainty of Heaven, we can WRONGLY get lax in morality (i.e., grace abuse). (7/7/14)

Think about it! ~eighty years compared with eternity (i.e., a never-ending number of years). Why NOT serve Christ, vs. yourself and this world? Do the math! Bible logic. (2/16/14)

If you have little fire, FIND a believer on fire for God, and go get in his or her glow. It will warm your heart, and God's, and start a raging forest fire. (9/3/14)

Fire begets fire. If other combustible material is about, fire will only spread its kind.

-Leonard Ravenhill

Associate with men of good quality if you esteem your own reputation; for it is better to be alone than in bad company. -George Washington

The greatest legacy one can pass onto ones children and grandchildren is not money, or material things, but rather a legacy of character and faith. -Billy Graham (9/7/14)

Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about things that matter.

Only one life we have, at last. Only what's done for Christ will last. -Anonymous

DISCIPLESHIP

Few would turn down a daily mentoring call from Bill Gates. Ironically, the ONE who made Bill calls every day and most of us just let it ring. Kevin Adams

Jesus preached to the crowds, and disciplined the eleven. Pastors CAN'T yield Christ's results with mere sermons, no matter how biblical, or Jesus was mistaken. (10/17/14)

Jesus didn't mass manufacture assembly line discipling of the eleven (who changed the world), but we know better than Him? There is no substitution for relational discipling. (9/7/14)

(Eph. 4; I Pet. 5:1-5 et al) PASTORS are to lead laymen to evangelize, and grow up in Christ. Leverage relationships to ensure they have a daily Quiet Time. (10/4/14)

DO your members have a daily Quiet Time? Do they regularly evangelize? Why won't you relationally disciple vs. just preach sermons? Too much work? (11/7/14)

Mentoring, or as Bible calls it, a tutor in Christ. You DON'T babysit a teenager. It is for a LIMITED time, though the friendships can last longer. 11/7/14)

It IS the PERSONAL touch that makes ALL the difference and allows for grace accountability. (11/7/14)

Those who have gone through The Navigators, or Campus Crusade discipling are USUALLY noticeably different, and DO ministry for life. It works, pastors! (11/7/14)

I'll disciple with my sermon. Did that work for Jesus, foolish ones? READ! (10/17/14)

ONLY preaching sermons can NEVER know them personally, answer their questions, ensure there having daily Quiet Time, pray with, or help them individually. (11/7/14)

Bill Hybels reportedly said over the years hadn't changed lives a lot. An HONEST, sincere reflection. Seminaries rarely teach relational discipling or Quiet Time, and most churches don't either, so Bill Hybels is on the cutting edge for a better church! Mine said they give tools, and pastors have all their life to learn the Bible. That's NOT Jesus' pace! (8/17/14)

Church staffers could take three people per week, one-on-one witnessing, and relationally disciple three per week, or have a Quiet Time with them, but likely FEW will! (11/13/13)

Pastors are responsible to disciple church members (Eph. 4:11-13; I Pet. 5:1-3). We blame parents if their infant dies from not getting fed! (II Tim. 2:2; I Cor. 4:15) (12/10/13)

BIBLE

The Bible is the greatest of all books; to study it is the noblest of all pursuits; to understand it, the highest of all goals. -Charles Ryrie

The more you read the Bible; and the more you meditate on it, the more you will be astonished with it. -Charles Spurgeon

We are not chemists analyzing the bread of life; we are fainting men and women who feed on it with eagerness. -Charles Spurgeon

Believers must never adjust Bible to the age, but the age to the Bible. -Charles Spurgeon

My job as a preacher is not to make the Bible relevant. It IS relevant.

-Greg Laurie (8/8/14)

Eighty-seven percent of U.S. believers don't regularly read God's word, so they have a fictionalized feeling of what it teaches, and condemn all that misses that myth! (7/7/14)

If you rarely read God's word, rip it up. I'll burn OLD versions, if ever offered a chance to speak at any church. It's the same effect as your neglect! (12/25/13)

One is too Heavenly minded for any earthly good? Having God's view makes one care about the needy on earth-spiritually and materially! (12/25/13)

We must return back to that ancient practice of ... reading our Bibles.

-@Calvary__Tweets (12/18/13)

Even a dog barks when his master is attacked. I would be a coward if I saw that God's truth is attacked and yet would remain silent. -John Calvin

Someday someone is going to pick up this book (the Bible) and believe it, and put us all to shame. -Leonard Ravenhill

PRAYER

Prayer is as natural an expression of faith as breathing is of life. -Jonathan Edwards

Prayer is not monologue, but dialogue.

Getting our prayers answered not only involves "abiding in Christ," but "His word abiding in us." (Jn. 15:7) -O.S. Hawkins

God's house is to be (known as) a house of prayer. That MEANS prayer's effects are known by outsiders! (2/21/14)

Prayer may start out as part of a Quiet Time, but, over time and experience, it occurs throughout the day, like breathing (i.e., constant communication). (7/2/14)

A Quiet Time is NOT so you can gain knowledge alone. You're meeting with God, to get to know Him, and meditation by the Spirit (by faith) changes your behavior, more subconsciously. (7/7/14)

Prayer is not overcoming God's reluctance, but laying hold of His willingness.

-Martin Luther

God's voice in response to mine is its most essential part. -Andrew Murray

BODY LIFE

The Church is a body, family and a building—NOT just the singer and speaker parts. (7/24/14)

Body Life occurs WITHIN a BIBLICAL worship service, where the family is gathered, and the audience ministers, and is involved. It is not for professionals alone! (5/19/13)

I Cor. 14 and Jas. 2 SHOW Body Life occurred in the main worship service. Laymen USING spiritual gifts to minister to each other. And I'm NOT advocating tongues. (6/3/14)

The body of Christ is ONLY for sure jointly gathered on Sunday mornings. Other events are LESS than the full family gathered to minister to one another. (6/4/14)

Where do laymen use spiritual gifts in modern church? Even in Sunday School, there's a teacher and an announcer. QUIT keeping them immature and unfruitful. (3/24/14)

Christians have at least one spiritual gift, but modern church has NO use for them, when we are gathered together as a family, in worship. (12/27/14)

READ four passages listing spiritual gifts. Everyone has one to use in the worship service. It's NOT for spiritual elitists who attend church beyond that service! (6/4/14)

Pastor: LIST the spiritual gifts you believe to still be operative, teach how laymen can identify theirs, and imagine how to use them in church. (3/18/14)

SHOW me in Scripture where God calls laymen to be spectators and bench warmers in worship services. I'll be waiting, but NOT holding my breath! (6/9/14)

HOW will a lost visitor be amazed that God is surely with us without Body Life? The Bible says IF they come, vs. when. (9/1/14)

HOW could a lost visitor be convicted of his/her lostness with our NON-miraculous love for one another within the only service he'll attend, if any? (Jn. 13:35) (2/21/14)

1960's hippies sought family, fellowship, community. People are crying for relationships. Sitting near strangers at church is NOT what they seek for! (6/23/14)

Body Life need not take more than ten minutes of a worship service, but it need take at least five, and just shaking hands with a stranger is NOT it! (5/19/13)

God's house is to be known by OUTSIDERS (i.e. reputation) as a house of prayer—not of great entertainment and fun sports, food and concerts, Laodicea! (2/21/14)

Typical Christian fellowships have laymen speaking little to none of the Bible; just food socials of believers. That's why they're so IN-effective. (Phm. 1:6) (6/18/14)

Body life is NOT shaking hands with strangers every week. That is NOT family or spiritual gifts. Abandon tradition & phobias for God's way! (6/4/14)

Body Life is NOT just relationships between Sunday School members. A family is ALL the local church—not age-based cliques! (5/19/13)

SOCIAL MINISTRY

IF the religious right were right about their religion, they would NOT always be right-leaning in their politics, making them morally right! (3/27/14)

PASTORS

A true shepherd leads the way. He does not merely point the way. –Leonard Ravenhill
The light from the cross is not the spotlight for any preacher.

Jesus didn't die to make us famous, but to save. –Reinhard Bonnke

Priorities

Churchianity's Bible: Mal. 3:10; Heb. 10:25; Liberals' Bible: Jn. 13:34; Mt. 7:1; Jn. 8:7; God's Bible: Gen. 1:1 to Rev. 22:21. (3/24/14)

You ARE busy—even over-worked (maybe even under-appreciated, in some cases)—but you take on the WRONG priorities, which wear you out. Prioritize! (10/11/14)

Bury, marry and carry burdens can be done by staff, deacons and laymen! The word of God and prayer (i.e., evangelism and discipleship) are the pastor's primary calling. (Ac. 6:4; Eph. 4) (7/25/18)

Evangelism

Pastor: You can preach and teach laymen about their need to evangelize until you're blue in the face. PERSONALLY ASK them to go with you with no obligation but to go, initially. (11/5/13)

Preach our website's lesson "On Hell" message. It worked 100 percent, and maturity of the class was NOT an issue—mature or immature! Even fleshly motives are better than NOT evangelizing (Phil.1:15+). (11/5/13)

Tell the church, outright, your purpose is to honor God with getting a substantial percent into the evangelism habit, AND WHY that's important. (11/5/13)

Give them a big vision to be a part of; namely reach ALL LOST within three miles of the church, to secure our part of the Great Commission. (11/5/13)

Preach one to three motivational sermons on evangelism. Get MUCH Bible in their hearts on why God wants them to evangelize, and walk out in the audience; personalize it. (11/5/13)

Disciple laymen, or they will almost CERTAINLY never evangelize. Ask for a heads bowed, raising of hands to determine if you suffer from the five percent problem, or more, or less. (11/5/13)

Must retired John Bisagno do a Houston evangelism crusade again, to inspire Houston pastors to FULL evangelism? He DID so MANY times in football stadiums. (10/7/14)

Discipleship

Mass manufactured, assembly line American Capitalism convinces pastors that nearly ALL their ministering can be poured into one sermon, along with the kitchen sink! (10/17/14)

Pastors: Disciple twelve people, then another twelve, as the original twelve use the same materials to train even twelve more. MULTIPLICATION can reach mega churches in less than three years! (10/7/14)

Have your staff take three people a week, one-on-one, and require only their smile and praying, to watch you evangelize. MANY people of all stripes agreed to this, especially if they KNEW the requestor. (11/5/13)

Pastor: It does not matter at all if none of your professional peers in the area do relational discipling or Body Life. Please GOD, not MAN! (5/19/13)

Body Life

Pastors: Conduct spiritual gifts inventories of ALL your members, then pray and think how to use them in the worship service, with controls/boundaries and spontaneity! (10/7/14)

Seminaries usually don't teach Body Life and relational discipling, and in this manner they FAIL their students, MISERABLY! (5/19/13)

Sermons

Eloquence, entertainment, alliterations, video, a thirty minute cut-off, props, teleprompter or handheld... NONE of these things substitute for pulpit power! (8/30/14)

If God wanted ONLY topical sermons, He would have written His word in topical lists! How did the first century churches read entire letters—in church—and we hardly ever do? (8/25/14)

Throwing sermons at laymen can never compete with pouring your life into them, and NEVER identifies if change was wrought. We deceive ourselves that we only have to preach, and all is well for those going to Hell. (8/31/14)

With the average U.S. sermon, a layman attending church ALL her life would HARDLY hear 1/50th of God's word; that is NOT what God intended for His children! (8/30/14)

Pastors LOSE MUCH effectiveness ONLY preaching TOPICALLY. The New Testament has CONTEXT, and verses are often related to what's before and after. God honors expository teaching, too! (8/30/14)

Money

God NEVER commanded Christian church buildings, full-time salaries, or tithes. Tithes were national taxes, in a Jewish theocracy. That's NOT our case, as Christians! (11/11/14)

Read EVERY New Testament reference to a 'tithe.' NONE of them refer to Christians; ONLY Jews and Old Testament times. Yet the myth lines pastor's pockets! II Cor. 8-9 is New Testament giving, by the Spirit. (1/4/15)

Any church which is run like a business ought to be taxed like a business. Mega pastor salaries MUST be fully exposed, and NEED to be capped at a GOOD level. (10/5/14)

If you are SO dependent on 'growing' your church's size, so your salary improves, GET A SECOND JOB! I've been bi-vocational 30+ years. You HAVE no excuse! (10/4/14)

Pastor: If you're working for your members, you're working for the WRONG boss! (Col. 3:23) Give them what they NEED; not necessarily what they want—LEAD! (10/25/13)

Bi-vocational ministry was O.K. for Paul, and if it's needed, it should be O.K. for mega church pastor salaries! Tithe is NOT in II Cor. 8-9, but Spirit-led giving. (3/10/14)

My lack of income for over twelve years out of twenty-five has MORE than made up for any pastor not receiving an unbiblically required tithe, too; NO hypocrite, here. (2/8/15)

Practice

Rick Warren role models the biblical pastor on social ministry. Like Billy Graham in evangelism. DON'T passively idolize them, but actively emulate them! (7/25/14)

U.S. pastors: Greg Laurie is a pastor who DOES evangelism—not a full-time evangelist. STOP just admiring, and start EMULATING him! He gives you NO EXCUSE! (9/22/14)

John Bisagno is one of the MOST noble mega church pastors in America, as with Rick Warren. There ARE differences—NOT all pastors are created the same! Distinguish. (12/26/14)

MONEY

Wealth is no mark of God's favor. Poverty is no mark of God's displeasure. -J.C. Ryle

The use of our possessions shows us up for what we actually are. -Charles Ryrie

Perhaps, like the book, Radical, every U.S. WASP ought to go to a third world country, for perspective on our BLINDNESS to worldliness! I've SEEN Cambodia (and watch PBS). (5/1/14)

Paul Crouch moved from thirteen mansions on earth to likely ZERO in Heaven, as he spent SO MUCH of his EXCESS on SELF, with the dumb and deluded's money. (12/3/13)

The Lord does not think much of riches, and, therefore, he usually gives them to the ungodly as men give bones to dogs. -Charles Spurgeon

UNITY

Christ said He came to bring a SWORD. Following Him makes divisions between the carnal and spiritual, and 'peace, peace' is a prophecy sign! (10/26/13)

Biblical unity is to the majors—NOT the minors, and has NOTHING to do with political affiliations. NO real Christian can be 100 percent Republican or Democrat, and rightly serve God rightly! (6/14/18)

CHURCH

Our slick advertising, artistry and strutting; our radio, music, build up, and what have you see to that. -Leonard Ravenhill

Church is the cherry on top of a week's worth of walking with Christ, 24/7 Spirit-led and empowered, in faith-based biblical Christianity vs. churchianty. See the difference? (7/4/14)

Churchianity breeds carnality by focusing Christianity on two hours a week, at a building with others, vs. a 24/7 walk with Jesus. (Lk. 9:23) (3/28/14)

READ the description of the Laodicean church... GREAT financial success before men, but Jesus was outside the church, and they were COMPLETE failures! (2/21/14)

The church growth movement came about because spoiled US pastors WILL NOT work bi-vocationally. We're better than PAUL? (11/4/13)

Can't you see that church-as-a-business is OPPOSITE to Jesus, who scourged the temple being run for money-making (vs. a house of prayer and power), BLIND ones? (6/3/14)

EVERY U.S. NON-mega church pastor who STRUGGLES facing sheep stealing and bivocational work, and NEVER experiences II Cor. 8:14-15... God WILL reward you! (8/25/14)

The world gives you what you want. The church is supposed to give you what you need, unless it's modeled after the world. (8/25/14)

Your church model must match God's model, or it a mere business model, not a biblical model. Grace takes time, but not forever. (11/3/13)

When pastors make church NOT their business enterprise, but what the New Testament describes church as, the gates of Hell cannot keep prevailing against her! (10/4/14)

MEGA CHURCHES

What matters [in Christianity] is having a mega character, not having a mega church. -Rick Warren

The first two churches were mega churches, so God doesn't oppose them. The universal church, in Acts, grew and grew and spread—a sign of vibrancy. Pastor Cho has more than 800,000 members. (9/7/14)

The Bible does not oppose mega churches (Ac. 2, 4), but THEY did things RIGHT—EDBS priorities, and ensuring through gifts that no CO-LABORER suffered! (8/25/14)

As I SAID at Dallas Seminary, expect a Quiet Time, evangelism, full commitment and discipleship of your members, and see if you can sustain a mega church! (11/6/13)

Mega pastors SHOULD FULLY reveal to their congregants their TOTAL compensation, and cap it at a healthy/good amount, as they seek multi-site churches. (2/24/15)

In the 1980's, budgets were bare, so churches added amenities and entertainment, increasing expenses but bringing more bodies and bucks—church-as-a-business. (6/5/14)

If we evangelize away from our building, we want to start a multi-site church, vs. send converts to Bible-believing churches, for pastors WANT THE MONEY! (9/12/14)

In a word, the U.S. church IS Laodicean; SO certain they're successful, and pleasing God, with sermons and songs with little evangelism, discipleship or Body Life. (6/8/14)

Mega church pastor salaries compared to same-sized businesses is NOT apples-to-apples. Employees are managed 40 hours a week vs. an audience ATTENDS for one hour. (6/2/13)

What happens to the small church pastor when Big Box sucks away many of his members—legally (vs. coersedly sheep stealing)? He's got to get a secular job? (9/7/14)

Jesus and Paul were ALSO tent-makers, as a full-time salary is NOT guaranteed to a pastor, and buildings and NOT mandated in Scripture. (5/19/14)

REVIVAL

The only reason we don't have revival is because we are willing to live without it!
-Leonard Ravenhill

If we really want to change our country for good, we should just get Christians to be Christians. -Tony Evans (Retweeted 2/27/14)

If we who name the name of Jesus Christ are going to do something for America, judgment must begin with the household of God. -Tony Evans (Retweeted 2/27/14)

II Chron. 7:14 has FOUR elements—NOT just prayer, U.S. church. Revival tips are herein, IF you read (and do) that verse, by Jewish nation analogy. (7/3/14)

You CAN'T organize a revival, but if the Church doesn't DO the four elements of II Chron. 7:14, it is NOT promised to (ever) come. God's waiting on you! (7/7/14)

Revival starts ~like Michael Jackson sang, with a change in me. It's merely individuals getting fired up for God, at about the same time, miraculously. (9/3/14)

We talk about revival, but the lost world will only see its effects when Christians evangelize them all zealously, with very holy lives corroborating. (9/5/14)

The 120 DIDN'T just sit around praying and waiting for revival! They had been disciplined by and evangelized with Jesus for two to three years prior! (Ac. 2) (9/8/14)

NO wonder our country suffers an increasing number of problems! It's II Chron. 7:14 in reverse, for U.S. pastors WON'T evangelize 100 percent of their lost neighbors! (9/12/14)

If my home church were FLOODED with visitors, non-evangelist churches lost money, and members were protested by lost people, PERHAPS it could lead to revival? (9/23/14)

The further we get from revival, the closer we get to apathy and apostasy.
-Michael Catt (Retweeted 11/9/13)

Revivals, if they are genuine, do not always come the moment we whistle for them.
Church right now has more fashion than passion, is more pathetic than prophetic, is more superficial than supernatural. -Leonard Ravenhill

Revival is the impact of the personality of Jesus Christ upon a church or a community.
The whole area becomes God-conscious. -John Calvin

Try and whistle for the wind, and see if it will come. -Charles Spurgeon

I believe that America desperately needs a spiritual revival. -Bobby Jindal (1/14/15)

GOSPEL (& GENERAL APOLOGETICS)

Jesus is the most influential man who has ever lived.

We still mark our calendars and history by His entrance into the world. -Robert Jeffress

Perspective

This movie called life invariably ends in Heaven or Hell, and if you get distracted by what's between the credits, you'll surely end up in the latter. (6/5/14)

If you are NOT a Christian, THINK about your future... your body dies, you are instantly in flames, forever; NO relief, let-up or release. Pray to receive Jesus, TODAY! (II Cor. 6:2) (8/21/14)

IF there were NO God/Heaven/prophesy, all life would B is have a great time & enjoy self & $. Many believers' acts defy their belief claims. (6/20/14)

In many ways, this life is a dress rehearsal for the next life; in all those years, did you receive Jesus, or not? The after-party can be Heavenly, or Hellacious. (6/27/14)

Gospel

Do you know for certain that you're going to Heaven? It takes miracle of new birth to own such you certainty, so if you don't have it, you're missing God's Spirit within. (7/8/14)

If you're nor absolutely certain that you will go to Heaven, be absolutely certain that you will go to Hell. Trust Jesus for eternal salvation, NOW! (7/6/14)

Being certain of your salvation seems arrogant only to those who wrongly believe that Heaven is a reward for good works—not a gift, despite our sin. (12/12/13)

When's the last time any Christian came to your door, or elsewhere, in person, and asked you about your eternity? The U.S. church is doing LITTLE evangelism! (10/28/14)

The Devil wants you in Hell, with him. Your sins MUST be paid for. You can pay, forever—a FOOLISH decision—or let Jesus be your payment. TODAY is the day of salvation. (9/14/14)

We are ALL sinners, by merely being born. Just one sin proves and confirms that fact, and God does NOT balance good vs. bad deeds, for Heaven! (12/25/13)

You can be as moral as humanly possible, but one sin disqualifies you from Heaven, as it's a perfect place. You have NO hope on your own, but Jesus solved that. (6/24/14)

Jesus lived a perfect life, proved He was God in a human body for ~33 years, taught and lived perfectly, and did miracles proving His being God. (7/8/14)

ONLY what He says about Heaven and Hell matters, as He was before creation, and has defeated death and Hell by His resurrection from the dead; that means, He's alive. (7/8/14)

Jesus acted perfectly, spoke perfectly, did miracles no one else ever has, and made claims that He was God. With THOSE credentials, would you call Him crazy? (9/5/14)

It's a FREE GIFT! Christ did ALL the work! Why would any ignore or reject it? You're really tough enough to endure flames every day, for infinity? You are NOT! (2/8/15)

READ history writers who are NOT Christians, who say Jesus lived on this earth. This is no fantasy tale, or mythical delusion! Many calendars are based on this historic fact. (9/5/14)

The Gospel does not threaten sinners. It is glad news, not mad news.

Yet Jesus talked more about Hell than Heaven. —Reinhard Bonnke

Hell is a myth? He who NEVER stated or did ONE sin (i.e., Jesus) says it's as real as the flame in your fireplace. Again, was He a liar or deceived? (9/5/14)

Hell is REAL. Dark solitude with fiery flames engulfing your eternal body forever, with NO let-up; that's how serious one sin is, making you guilty of ALL sins! (2/8/15)

Hell is REAL.. This is NOT a scare tactic. A scare tactic would tell you it's TODAY, for sure. I'll only tell you it could be ANY day, without Christ! (12/25/13)

Your skin does NOT melt in Hell. There's no hiding, or running away from the flames. No time out, or turning down the flames. THINK about it, people! (2/11/15)

You'll wake up on the other side of death, burning in flames, forever, and likely NEVER understand what happened. Here's what... the Devil tricked you to reject Jesus. (2/16/15)

Conclusion

DON'T judge Jesus' merit/worthiness and character by watching His people! He was perfect; we are NOT. Pray to receive Him, to go to Heaven (and be forgiven) when you die. (5/19/14)

These debates are Christian in-fighting? Fighting for your right to know how to go to Heaven vs. Hell, and any SO-CALLED believer who'd oppose THAT ought to be fought against! (11/6/13)

Ultimate self-hatred would knowingly and willingly choose Hell over Heaven, through Christ. The DEVIL alone wins when you so poorly choose. DON'T do it! (7/8/14)

What are chances that a bomb would yield a fine Swiss watch, or a soup mold into a complex human body, or solar system, atheists? -David Strawn (paraphrased)

NOT knowing WHEN you'll die—only that you WILL—and NOT knowing when Bible prophecy will begin (where salvation becomes too late), today is the day for you! Delay is risky. (9/14/14)

Are you such a Vegas gambler that you will risk eternity in Hell on the hope that you were right, that salvation is by works, or Heaven is a myth? You're too risky! (6/24/14)

Good deeds can serve people, but only the Good News can save them. -John Mark Caton

Going to church doesn't make you a Christian, any more than going to McDonalds makes you a hamburger. -Keith Green

SUMMARY

So there you have it. A BRIEF fingernail summary of several ministry efforts engaged to spark revival and EDDBS priorities, if anyone ever tries to claim this came from the dude I pushed so hard for six years, behind the scenes. He had the assets to do the task. I just had power and ideas, in obscurity! (Rev. 14:5) No lies were found in their mouths! (life goal)

DISCLAIMERS

There are MANY good pastors in America. I just don't know of many who have YET chosen to fully evangelize their area, which FAILS the lost (and Christ), MISERABLY. (6/27/14)

I SINCERELY THANK ALL pastors who understood our message, and did something to change evangelismlessness, and lack of discipling! God bless you. (7/23/14)

Every one of our tweets is offered on an 'if the shoe fits, wear it' basis. If you're a Christian, the Holy Spirit will reveal who it applies to. (2/23/14)

Paul ministered in obscurity nearly eighteen years, then was welcomed at the Jerusalem church. Today, NO such attitudes hardly exist for the obscure—only ignore, slander, and be skeptical of them! (11/9/14)

If God leads me to run for anything, I WELCOME a camera and lie detector to SHOW you an "honest politician" in ACTION. Lincoln and Washington WERE! (2/16/15)

Do NOT get the wrong idea... I DO NOT evangelize all the time anymore, as I have exceeded my part (plus some), and now do more "mobilizing," though I still do evangelize! (12/25/13)

Getting humans out of Hell and into Heaven is the ONLY topic I push this hard at, or EVER will, as it's ultimately the only issue that matters in life! (7/8/14)

SINCE we are now finished with all add-ons to all books, may I say a sincere apology to anyone ever offended by anything we tweeted the past four years. I wrote what I felt I must, it was NOT always complementary, but my conscience is clear. I'm just sad book writing days are now over. (10/31/18)

II-A3. DATES

Church Conflicts: 1986, 1998, 2007, 2013+ (key dates)

Local church: 2007-2015 (8 years)

National church: Nov 2013 to Dec 2014 (~1 year)

National Politics: Oct. 2014 to July 2017 (2 3/4ths years)

II-B1. POLITICAL YEARS

Then, toward the end of 2014, God led me to post that the account would turn political. After three months, turn it did! I was given so many ‘messages’ (usually at 3am), they now constitute an approximately 1,100 paged book (Wit and Wisdom), and in the process, many famous VIP’s (especially D.C. politicians) dropped by on several occasions. That book documents over 75 political news events which originated or were inspired by those political doctrine sermonettes. I know my head pastor has D.C. and Austin, TX politician connections, but little did I know how far-reaching those messages would be seen!

In the beginning of that political turn (Feb., 2015), the Lord led me to contact many famous pastors (via Twitter) to exhort them to make their voices heard so that the Supreme Court would not think nationalizing gay marriage was a slam dunk, with no state’s rights advocates opposing. You watched as North Carolina and Indiana’s governors, responded (then back-tracked), and the anticipated ruling came down (which I accepted).

On March 23, 2015, late in the evening, after having written the book, Dumb as a Donkey, the Lord specifically called me to run for political office. The word was quite specific (and I have included it in the details section), and that pastor, apparently, was watching, as the night afterwards he mentioned how extraordinary and unusual a power/presence was in the room—didn’t others sense it? And two weeks before the 2016 presidential election, he offered a specific sermon invitation to any who felt called of the Lord into political leadership. Many other ‘hints’ toward encouraging our running were strewn throughout sermons the next 1.5 years (documented, in part, in that details section)

II-B2. MESSAGES TO POLITICIANS

(See also: Pre-Trump Policy Tweets, and Pre-Cabal Policy Tweets)

On October 29, 2017, the following message was posted (prompted by Trump's U.N. circumventing for persecuted Christians, a related sermon by Johnnie Moore at our church, and my seeking to find an old post where I recommended a United Nations fighting force), demonstrating how often we had ideas well before Trump. On any of the good ideas, below he is not original, but a 'copycat:'

Referent: <http://bit.ly/2zuNYrU> (I heard his sermon the night before)

ACTUALLY evangelizing LOST people (vs. Christians) is NOT going to result in any harassment charges in America! LAZINESS makes up such imagined excuses! U.S. Christians do NOT suffer persecution like elsewhere, like jail, torture or death! FULLY evangelize EVERY nearby lost soul, U.S. pastors! Do it NOW!

Preaching the Gospel to the choir is the GREATEST waste of church members as evangelism resources, and the LEAST effective way to complete the Great Commission! Holy huddles do NOTHING for the eternity of men! As Brother Andrew said, BLAME YOURSELF that you didn't reach lost people first, before terrorists!

Body Life is NOT shaking hands, high fives, or fist bumps. Those deeds are NOT spiritual gifts! READ I Cor. 14, Eph. 4, Rom. 12, and I Pet. 4. LOST visitors SAW Christians' love by their use—it convicted them that God was surely with believers. And the New Testament teaches such are to be used when the body is gathered as a family. #BodyLife

Does everyone have to attend Dallas Seminary to learn WHO and WHEN a Bible verse is addressed MATTERS? Mal. 3:10 was in a Jewish theocracy context! Ten percent tithes are NOT commanded in OUR covenant. Read the entire New Testament! They are only historic references if the word "tithe" is used! Pastors WANT you to believe otherwise.

Favoring persecuted Christians over people of any other type—religious or not—is unconstitutional! The U.S., and free nations need to adopt actions to ensure the safety of ALL people. Even citizens can forego a Starbucks or a meal out—if we cared. #Sacrifice It probably takes a trip overseas to see it for yourself, to care!

As you can see, Trump is AGAIN sucking up to the WASP vote for re-election (bypassing the U.N. to help persecuted Christians, via the Christian Cabal), even as the rest of America (excepting the KKK) despises him (lowest numbers YET). Do a deal with the Devil, and he will ALWAYS bless you, to get your vote; DON'T do deals with the Devil, Christians!

The PROPER way for Christians to help persecuted brethren is prayer, but mainly petitioning governments to keep them safe. Redress grievances legally, vs. vote for the most stupid and evil GOP running, in exchange for WASP votes, to unbiblically/sinfully favor one religion over others. —The Constitution and Levit. 19:15

NATO, the U.N., Western nations/G-20, the U.S. military—all these are resources to protect the violently persecuted anywhere. The public's will has to be there to intervene! That's why I called for a U.N. military force, funded and manned from every nation, likely three+ years ago. The solution for the persecuted is ensured safety.

If a group is going to be killed, let them be refugees, or choose martyrdom. Military-backed escape routes to accepting countries, while the military takes out all such killers/terrorists! Forgiving ISIS does NOT mean you don't kill them all! You CAN do both, and SHOULD! Kill or be killed—whoever acts first!

I also tweeted about a U.N. revamped mission being needed, or defund or disband it—probably four years ago. I'm GLAD to see someone is ACTing on some of our good ideas! We have proof positive of all our claims here, though it will take me maybe an hour to retweet those past two claimed tweets...

NOT the two proofs, but related: 50,000+ child refugee illegals cross the U.S. border. It's time for OTHER countries to pay their fair share to solve the world's problems, through the U.N. instead of mainly the U.S. (7/4/14)

NOT the intended tweets, but related... (10/29/17): Now Obama's got Syria emboldened, moving assets, and Russia saying that U.N. approval is needed, so they'll veto. Committees don't strike fast or agree on much. (9/4/13)

Retweeting our United Nations-related posts, until I find the two I referenced... (10/29/17): 200,000 in concentration camps, 16 million are mal-nourished, $800 million spent on nukes, received $200 million in U.N. foreign aid. #TheInterview #NorthKorea evils—if these statistics are right. (2/22/15)

Here's one (about defunding the U.N.)... (10/29/17): The U.N. has PROVED that anti-American small nations can unite to get power that they could never wield on their own, and U.N. respect wanes in the process; defund them? (2/17/15)

We were ALL for governments cooperating to return the Chibok girls! (10/29/17): I had conversation with a guy yesterday wondering if I'm for the U.S. always getting involved? When in our national interest was my answer; I said the U.N. was a good use against Boko Haram. (2/16/15)

Our book, The Way Things Ought To Be, has an entire chapter on how the U.N. should be revamped. This is but one tweet of that idea... (10/29/17): I am NOT referring to one-world government, forced on the world, mid-Tribulation, but voluntary goal-setting that the U.N. should consider! Any resistance would be a problem for the world. (2/14/15)

PAY DIRT on our claims! (we're always able to prove our claims from this site, by God's grace alone, and a huge backlog of saved tweets)... (10/29/17): ALL nations SHOULD do and pay their part to keep world secure, but we know they don't all, and some can't. The U.N. SHOULD be revamped or replaced, in my opinion. (2/12/15)

Exhibit B (10/29/17):

Same goes concerning any religion. It should be illegal to warp young minds—a human right. Should the U.N. get involved? It needs to get clean first! It's been corrupted, often, in our recent past—defund it? (2/8/15)

Exhibit C (10/29/17): But NOT paying a disproportional share, either in time, treasure, or especially talent (deaths). The U.N. could improve, and we have NATO. (1/26/15)

Please implement a mission to secure the Chibok girls! @presgoodluck; Jews are fleeing France for Israel. The world is heating up, with evil and anti-Semitism. (2/18/15)

'Government's job is to keep people safe. Our job [i.e., the Church] is to make their job easier [by changing the hearts of the citizenry].' –Paraphrase of the great Johnnie Moore @JohnnieM Doing GREAT work for the persecuted Christians around the world! Evangelism and discipleship! Duh 101. (10/29/17)

COULD all world governments have democracy, but also a set percent of time and treasure devoted to ensuring that ALL people in their nation have the essentials for survival, using taxes, charities, churches and compulsory civic service, where none were left out due to some being selfish, and ignoring the whole? (10/29/17)

Could Communist dictators retain their jobs and salaries, and be forced to treat their citizens right, and care about ALL of their welfare? What body could force such a change? NATO? The U.N.? The U.S.A.? The CIA stirring up the people of North Korea, Russia, China, etc.? #Needed work. It starts with people caring about others! (10/29/17)

Morgan Freeman asks could love really change things? That's a naive concept, with unrestrained evil in the world! You've got to be on guard against that. If you could contain that, the answer is "why coitanly" (i.e., Three Stooges' "certainly"). Terrorists and criminals MUST be America's (and other nation's) Most Wanted! (10/29/17)

WHO can contain mainly Muslim nations persecuting others living among them? If not their government, religious leaders or even their citizenry, it HAS to come from NATO, the U.N., the U.S.A., and G-20/Western World/free nations, and the World Court. No government is free to kill any citizens for no reason! Does this require war? (10/29/17)

The U.N., or its replacement, SHOULD negotiate with nations who abuse their people, backed by military threat if it continues. SINCE its rules allow evil nations to block such progress, either change the rules or change your membership! If the G-20 pulled out of the U.N., for a new entity, it would be fixed! (10/29/17)

We called for a U.N. fighting force, funded and supplied from ALL nations, to quell violence, and end wars, probably FOUR years ago. I will go hunt down the tweet, as few were watching then... (10/29/17)

Exhibit A: NEVER think we can't prove any claims we make here!... (10/29/17): On a case-by-case determination, and the U.S. can't do it all alone, but SOME military force must stop genocides, as was NOT done in Rwanda. Unite for the right. (2/16/15)

The U.S. starts air strikes in Iraq against ISIS. Lord, be with our brave men and women, and THANK YOU Barack Obama! God bless the U. S. of A.! #MilitaryMight #ISIS (2/13/15)

There IS such thing as a BAD peace! Push him back with military might and unity, and MAYBE reward his going back to the way it was before his sin. DUH 101! (2/12/15)

Retweeting things STILL needed in life (concerning the military): Light-weight military uniforms that prevent soldiers from being killed by bullets or bombs; think of the next generation of technology, and get the Pentagon on it. (2/12/15)

The U.N. HAS to step up in nations where big powers have less vested interest, like Yemen. HOW can the world sit by when chaos occurs? It needs an effective military. (2/11/15)

Hint: Russia, Syria, North Korea, as major ones. The solution is for THE PEOPLE to throw the bums out, including using the military, if necessary. Pay them to leave? (2/11/15)

We [i.e., America] DO stick our noses in chaos elsewhere, as our world needs peace, and mediators, and our military can help achieve it better than others. We never take land! (2/8/15)

America does NOT owe any country a handout, or restraining our military power to be "fair!" If we do any, it's from MERCY vs. obligation, President Obama. (2/6/15)

It's TIME for Blackwater and the Patriot movement to volunteer to take on ISIS, if Obama won't send an overwhelming military presence. I'll help, however I can. (2/3/15)

Enlist NATO, allies and the U.N. DON'T fund it all ourselves; LEAD from the front; trust but verify; STRONG U.S. military; more technology, and less U.S. lives lost. (1/30/15)

ALL free nations must unite to help the people everywhere who WANT to be free to be freed. Use our military as a last resort, but not decades longer; democracy. (1/23/15)

America will NOT take anyone's territory, or be the military initiator. THAT'S why we have to be the world's superpower (plus we pay for it more than any others). (1/19/15)

America's HEROES, 'just doing their jobs' against terrorists! #Military See #AmericanSniper <http://bit.ly/1IywKnk> USA #1 at protecting the world's innocents. (1/9/15)

North Korea has been a problem longer than three years! (10/29/17): ALL corrupt government officials STEALING people's money for their salary (bribes, kickbacks, graft) should be JAILED. People, rise up and convince your military! (1/7/15)

The U.S.A. SHOULD again LEAD the world through a STRONG military, as well as economically (vs. China), and ETHICALLY, helping the global poor! LEAD! (12/4/14)

PAY DIRT! I found the tweet I was looking for... (10/29/17): The world needs an objective, multi-national global military force, perhaps U.N.-related, so the U.S. doesn't foot or fund all the actions, or blame. (8/31/13)

II-B3. THE CHRISTIAN CABAL

The very obvious moral hypocrisy of supporting a man like Trump won't be lost on the larger culture. –Unnamed Liberty University professor

The yawning ideological gap between Trump's faith advisors and the rest of the American religious community has been widening for some time. –ThinkProgress (10/21/17)

I call a handful of relatively famous U.S. pastors, 'The Christian Cabal,' because of their ungrounded, and rather secretive political antics for alt-right policies, which became fairly wide-spread. I do NOT list the following main and/or originating members, in order to 'name drop,' but to detail our several interactions with many of them, so they are unable to deny (i.e., lie) that they have any idea about our Twitter account!

Jack Graham.

If you read our 'church conflicts' section, you will learn all you need to know about how this group got started. It all ties back to mainly one person—a behind-the-scenes pushed/prodded Jack Graham.

He is the one who contacted Greg Laurie (one of his best friends) to get Harvest America to our church, and eventually into ATT Stadium, and likely was behind him being one of the mouthpieces on Air 1's 59 seconds of hope (along with Levi Lusko and my teenager church hero, Louie Giglio, as well as my oft-praised for his charity work pastor, Rick Warren). Many years back I used to ride my bike, and stumbled onto an upstart, little known DFW Christian radio station, and tweeted about its spiritual maturity and good music. Later on, that was one way Jack communicated with myself (especially one episode where Levi spoke of God calling Abraham to lead a nation, though for a few years until that promise was fulfilled he tended sheep at the ripe old age of ~80).

Testimony

I, personally, have enjoyed being under the pastoring of Dr. Graham. We share most beliefs and priorities in common. Under different circumstances (and had his timing matched with God's timing for myself), we could have really been close, I believe. So though I reveal what I am about to, there is zero resentment anymore, but the felt need to educate the readers of what can easily be denied, or made to make myself out to look delusional if not worse. Therefore, knowing that every person is morally imperfect (myself as exhibit one), with the only standard be telling you the truth, I reveal the following:

Rebuke After Christian Cabal Revealed (6/26/16)

There's only one "kingmaker," and He's NOT a paid, professional speaker! I'd FEAR going against Him, and be 100 percent at peace with Him being for you! HE raises any needed rams!

It is arrogant for any man to think he's a "kingmaker!" You see how well James Robison did with Carson! What's the church want with political power? Overturn Roe and gay marriage?

At the North Texas Presidential Forum, he said 'I'm glad we have the ones we'd like to have here—Chump was NOT in attendance. He also called his political antics 'nonsense' just weeks ago!

He delusionally thinks he speaks for most pastors, if not Christians. HE DOES NOT! I started his political interest for 2016, but he has WARPED it evilly!

JUST like when I criticized Dobson, Trump, over-paid doctors or the Cabal's prophecy understanding, an opposite reaction was often expected in Christian media, sermons, or in this case, on Twitter (though this one could have been mere coincidence, though the dates indicate it could possibly have been a reaction to our post's use of the word 'failure'):

In my opinion, Chump purposely caused a breakdown in peace negotiations for two reasons: JUST LIKE with his 'Chuck and Nancy' reference, he saw no deal, so he had to 'CYA' for that failure, while, at the same time, appeases your Cabal, so you gents (Jeffress, yourself, et al) will Cheshire cat videos saying how great it was that U.S.A. was leading in biblical fulfillment. If you have to convince 'pastors' to evangelize by promises of increased church membership, they shouldn't be in ministry! (I Cor. 9:19-23; Phil. 4:17, et al). I credit my family's home pastor with recruiting Greg Laurie to the Southern Baptist Convention, and suspect they're behind Southwestern Seminary's lead in Harvest North America. (12/28/17)

Greg Laurie, last night, pledged to keep doing evangelism (like/how he does) for the next 20-30 years. That is pastoral LEADERSHIP! WOULD that other pastors would be exhorted to imitate, vs. just admire! Their complicit silence of deeds speaks much louder than his words vowing such! (I Th. 3:10) TWO pastors are NOT the only Americans being called to take the Great Commission seriously! It's that MOST pastors are tone deaf to God's leading! HOW can I state this more bluntly, as SHOCK is what's needed to wake you from your slumber! J. Graham, G. Laurie... there's NO wax in their ears! And why is it that TWO particular/specific men in America are the ONLY ones feeling this concern for crusade evangelism? (J.G. and G.L.) It is ABSOLUTELY RIDICULOUS that other pastors don't share those two men's efforts, and I will personally make that heretical omission known to as many people as humanly possible! TWO men! (1/21/18)

[Private account, who works for Franklin Graham:] In 2016 many people voted for @realDonaldTrump for the reason of the SCOTUS. Today, will affect generations in this country. This resistance, hate and smear against Kavanaugh is against us the American People who voted for our President. #bepraying

If you want to know which human to specifically blame for the rancor in America, even before CHUMP, it is Pastor Jack Graham, who organized WASP TV preachers to go for 46-1, to overturn Roe by judicial activism, stacking SCOTUS, OPPOSITE Jesus, Who says to show NO bias or partiality, as a "Christian!" (9/28/18)

One is NOT a "leader" when they follow others to find their leadership causes! One is NOT a leader when their deeds are sinful. One is NOT a leader when justice is not their aim. One is NOT a leader when they engage P.R. stunts, to get their face on TV, for fame or fortune, Christian Cabal heretics! (9/28/18)

One is NOT a leader by riding the coattails of their GODLY fathers’ famous last names, Franklin Graham and Jerry Falwell JUNIOR! One is NOT a leader to have been against sin in our presidents, in the 1980’s, then embracing it via Chump, James Dobson! You POSE as leaders, using P.R. stunts to appear as such! (9/28/18)

Still closely tied to Ralph Reed & Paula White (pro-tRump political activists), as of tweets (12/8-9/18)

Ronnie Floyd (Southern Baptist Convention president, at the time).

Then when I wrote frequently on the need to seek national revival, Jacks fellow SBC president friend (president at that time) was Ronnie Floyd, whom he had to have contacted to start up the handful of SBC revival prayer meetings. One was hosted at our church, but we were out of town (in Arkansas), so I attended the one hosted at my alma mater, Southwestern Seminary. There, the three speakers mentioned lets have no one take credit for this first of its kind event, though Floyd got much praise for so doing. Sometimes I wondered if they simply thought I’d stay silent about my role forever. While there, I’m quite sure insiders knew of my role in this process, as one of the three speakers I met afterwards asked (for clarification purposes) where I attended church, then stating that’s quite a big church (i.e., you started with a big target). I had already had a staffer at our church later confirm, ‘maybe God did use you to change this church, then hastily walk away, as we had had our disagreement a few years back, and he was no longer on staff (entertainingly referred to as ‘Lumpy’ in our church conflicts section). Also, at that SWBTS revival meeting, an older Missions professor I had studied under on more than one occasion saw me, and mentioned how great it was that the SBC was having this meeting, and how it was a first for a SBC president to host. I’m pretty sure he knew my role, as well, as he was quite optimistic, and gleefully remembered myself after more than 33 years of zero contact.

Relatedly, when I told a Prestonwood staffer evangelism is way under-done on America, these days, and he told me it was because crusades rarely pay for themselves (which was not what I was referencing, but personal evangelism), when that conversation went public through my website and TripAdvisor, suddenly the church hosted a military vet double amputee evangelist, a humorous British evangelist (J John), and eventually Harvest America. No one can ever take away from these stories that all these ideas were prompted from this ideas man, behind the scenes, after six or seven years of serious pushing that pastor to change his church practice, in various ways that often angered him severely!

Also, I had brief contact with him on Twitter, and made him aware I was going to attend his church while on vacation in his Arkansas town. It ended up, I dropped by a Color Chart version of the Bible book he was preaching a series on (Philippians), and his never saying a word in response is when I first started wondering of these spiritual overtures were being used for a hidden political agenda (which became the Christian Cabal, I later discovered).

Franklin Graham.

I think my uncle [Franklin]... has an incredible humanitarian ministry that's been on the front lines... often before a lot of ministries have been there. I think he probably needs to stick to doing that.

I think he believes he's speaking to a larger audience than he is...

My Jesus that I follow was really somebody who fought for the outliers, and I think that Trump has actually done the opposite in kind of ostracizing them.

—Jerushah Armfield (Pastor's wife, and Billy Graham's granddaughter; RawStory, 12/26/17)

I once wrote Billy Graham, asking him to endorse a national plan to have every local church adopt their own area of town for full evangelism. Sounded like a sensible, simple and non-controversial idea, but his secretary wrote me a kind rejection letter blaming his aging and poorer health for such decline. His organization could easily have made that decision, but instead, three years later they started their My Hope crusade emphasis. It's ALWAYS a mono-focus on the particular religious business—not the church at large. Perhaps they believe that's the best way to motivate others to follow in their tracks/path/wake, but that organization had the power to instruct the western church to do full evangelism—and didn't. I also posted that my not having 24,000 church members following me is why they likely rejected me, but listened when Jack flew out and spent time with Billy, personally, in North Carolina.

When I posted about my own political ambitions, and authorized billboards in all 50 states promoting our Pledger concept, Franklin Graham, about a year later started his Decision America tour. He also dropped by my sister's church (which I had mentioned online), as Jack gathered several pastors to host the ATT Stadium event (that mega pastor being one of the participants). And he is quite familiar with two of our political Twitter accounts.

James Dobson.

(See also: Recruiting)

James Dobson's connections to this Cabal is fully detailed at that Recruitment section, where he came to our church, and dropped six or seven innuendos to myself, per Jack's guidance, stemming from our past Twitter posts. That was the main communication method chosen, apparently from fear of violating the Johnson Amendment, and perhaps a lawyer's advice on plausible deniability, and desire to remain neutral, depending on the outcomes of the GOP primary season(?). Dr. Dobson goes from being for Jeb Bush, to Ted Cruz, to Trump. Can everyone else see how the moral quality of those choices significantly changes to the worse? People are not equal, morally-speaking, or in their intelligence or dignity or qualifications to be president! Either way, it was going to be a GOP they advocated for. Robert Jeffress & James Robison.

(See also: <http://bit.ly/2ysSZ0P>, Is Robert Jeffress Going to Heaven?)

Jeffress' actions are even more confounding when one considers that Sean Hannity is a committed Roman Catholic. In a 2011 sermon, Jeffress stated that Catholicism is the result of a "false religion" that originates in ancient Babylon...

Why then would the preacher offer the pundit 15 minutes in the middle of a worship service to speak to his congregants? Perhaps it is because the bonds binding Hannity and Jeffress are primarily political, not theological. -Jonathan Merritt (10/27/15)

He and James Robison were already politically active, but they had tapped Ben Carson to be their representative, and when I regularly pointed out the errors/mistakes of his speaking on the campaign trail, I think at least Jack (if not others who were watching at the time) eventually realized that the Christian representative needed more than a rags to riches story of a minority, but firmness and ideas! They soon started the recruitment process for myself—even as early as a 2016 political run (which I declined on more than one occasion); See: Recruitment.

In fact, James Robison and I had a brief Twitter conversation, when he was mentioned in that group post on gay marriage, then he mockingly responded that I, apparently, did not know all that was going on about that matter (after about 40 men had a related conference call). When I replied that I knew enough to have prompted that call by my group tweet, he shut up and the conversation ended abruptly. Sad to say, people even in the ministry business do like taking and getting credit, and I have just recently realized if you never stand up for yourself, they will steal what's rightly yours, in Christ! I don't watch that man's TV show, but he did come to our church twice, on political matters—that Presidential Forum and the Men's Conference. See: Recruiting. He truly was the Christian point man to recruit and push Carson in 2016 (hosting him at home school promotional events and a radio ad entitled, 'Run Ben, run').

Jeffress' church I attended twice during the election, to show him I really do exist beyond a Twitter presence, and to protest my own church giving too much attention to myself through sermon innuendos (I considered changing churches—but FBC Dallas proved way too far a drive!). Actually, Jeffress was one of seven prominent DFW pastors I requested take a public stand for full evangelism in November, 2013, using three separate methods, then exhorted to fully evangelize near his church building on many occasions after that. The exact posts, in part, are in the Media section of our main Twitter site, still, with pictures of when we took our Go Evangelize! signs to his church (and others).

To James Robison's credit, expecting that he had something to do with behind-the-scenes encouragement, his TV producer was at least considered to make a run against Ted Cruz in 2018 for the Texas Senate, touted as promoting Reagan values.

History

Not only was Dr. Jeffress the recipient of our invite to the SpiritFest—to take a public stand for evangelism, on four other occasions we dropped by his church to reinforce that message (in various ways), and when we were protesting my family's home church's over-innuendos in sermons (during the political season).

Jeffress' Jaded 'Jesus' (2/1/18)

Government's key task remained justice and order not charity and love.

And that task did not vary between democracy, republic, kingdom or empire... The point of government is to restrain these chaotic tendencies. Punishment is its chief tool.

...The key is that we must carefully distinguish between what are God's commands for persons and what are God's commands for the state. So, a Christian can say the United States was founded as a Christian nation [False, and unproved in/by the article]. It was both founded by a majority of Christian people and a group of people holding to a Christian-influenced worldview. capstonereport.com (1/27/18) [Points: The U.S. safety net is rejected, as mercy vs. justice; and don't get your theology from a sports magazine!]

Robert Jeffress brags on this piece, as it supports selfish conservatism: <http://bit.ly/2nXiK5s> The author asserts that God made government only for justice and punishment, NOT mercy. Welfare is compassion, HATED by conservatives! Let's explore their claims...

It is IN-justice that status quo and political conservatism enshrines! WHO says 'life's NOT fair' more than the conservative, and the hardly-giving (vs. philanthropic, or left-leaning) rich? I read a post of a conservative BRAGGING that Capitalism is for the survival of the fittest, competition, winners and losers.

Conservative view the poor as LOSERS. I was awakened at 3 am, recalling how people close to me IDOLIZED a teen friend who made it rich. That's America! God says being rich PIERCES yourself with many pangs, and the poor God made to be rich in faith. That means Christian political conservatives have OPPOSITE aspirations and values from God!

Any injustice government SHOULD remediate! Executive salaries more than 300:1 of the average worker is an IN-justice conservatives celebrate [like Franklin Graham earns his salary, because it's more than twice that of a president, so his job is twice as important?], and occurs because they can—NOT because it's right!

Jerry Falwell Jr.

And finally, Jerry Falwell, Junior. On Twitter, I had taunted the Moral Majority generation of boomer Christians for having let society slip, morally, by chasing mega church mania, and specifically asked if the 'Moral Majority' concerns were retired, or dead, now that the real Jerry Falwell had died. That post, apparently prompted Jack to see the power in last name recognition, as I had never heard of, much less even known a Jerry Junior existed. His brother I was aware of, for his good ministry work (plus our church has a very close tie to Jerry's university, though I had never heard of his as its president). I'm much more aware of pastors and evangelists vs. college administrators.

It's the old 'repeat a lie enough times, and people believe it?'

I WASN'T going to spoil the good news of Pastor Brunson's release, but it would NOT surprise me if Chump arranged to have that happen just before the midterms! WHO could ever prove this in private negotiations? @ABC @CBS @NBC @CNN That's JUST LIKE HIM to do! Me, me, me, baby "Christian."

Christians have a stereotypical image, in society, of blind faith, check your brains at the door, and, therefore, being stupid dupes who would believe in the Easter bunny. ANY Christian who believes Jerry Falwell JUNIOR (meaning NOTHING like his good dad) saying Chump is a good and moral man for one act of freeing a pastor, EARNS that reputation!

Even my NON-politically detailed wife, when she heard that headline concerning Fall-NOT-well (i.e., that Chump is a "good and moral" person), said aloud, "what about everything else he's done?" She's a layman (i.e., not clergy), and she saw the lie IMMEDIATELY. I trust MOST U.S. Christians aren't stupid or undiscerning so as to believe lies!

Ralph Reed (whose Bill Clinton debate I have listed here in the Media section).

To a somewhat lesser extent, this man's Cabal involvement began when his organization co-hosted the North Texas Presidential Forum at our church. Most if not all of these Cabal members' names were specifically targeted in our original group post calling for national evangelical leaders to make their voices heard to the Supreme Court so they didn't think violating state's rights on gay marriage was a slam dunk. The point in that statement is that Jack got so many sermons, programs and political event ideas from monitoring our tweets on a regular basis!

II-B4. CABAL ORIGINS

After moving these men to ministry priorities their customized into Harvest America expansion, SBC revival prayer meetings, a few racial reconciliation events, missions and evangelism emphases at the Southern Baptist Convention (in 2015), My Hope, and the like, somewhere along the way it was (probably) Dr. Graham's idea to influence the 2016 election. I had tweeted profusely about pastors need to prepare their members for revival, and proposed ideas for two years that would solve D.C.'s many problems, but this Cabal impatiently wanted to get such started in 2016, and through my pastor practically begged me to up the date of my own God-led political aspirations (See: Recruitment). I did not learn of their Cabal until the day Dr. Graham announced he could be Trump's 'champion,' after a week or so before calling Trump's campaign 'non-sense' (using that term from our Facebook message, posted about a week earlier and promoted on our Twitter account). At the North Texas Presidential Forum, he had already said, 'we have the ones here we really wanted' (and Trump was not in the room), and in a sermon later explaining his meeting with Trump, he publicly admits Donald had not been his first, second, or maybe even third choice. Then why do you compromise so low a standard for political power idolatry, I asked on many occasions (and still do)! (See: Christians For Trump).

Graham had up until the last minute kept imploring us to run, but I never imagined a man whose ethics standards in sermons would never support a man of that ilk flip-flopping to advocating for him, even if hey privately exchanged promises of Christian voter turn-out for abortion banning SCOTUS picks (as I surmise). [Speaking of flip-flops, Dr. Dobson changed from supporting Jeb Bush at his visit tour church, to being for Ted Cruz, then finally stooping to supporting Trump; quite different standards of moral conviction, it seems to me!].

This so incensed me conscience that I ceased attending my family's home church for six months, though I KNEW he would use Heb. 10:25 against me if I did so long-term. So I visited other churches, and eventually returned, only to leave two other times, in protest, when I learned (through my kids) of his threatening to withhold $1 million of church member's donated to God moneys for the ERLC's criticism of Trump (See: Moore & Southern Baptists), and again when my kids informed me of Graham being involved in prayerfully laying hands on Donald (at which time I direct messaged CNN about this relevant Bible verse: I Tim. 5:22). I eventually returned for good (late July, 2017), cautiously attending with my political guard up full-time, only because I didn't like being separated from my family, and didn't want to reinvest another ten years in another church (and my family was absolutely unwilling to change churches).

Testimony

I am not privy to private conversations between these men, but from seeing Ronnie Floyd's blog on how Adrian Rodgers organized especially Southern Baptist pastors in Reagan's day, and seeing my own pastor's recruiting efforts (beginning with our national gay marriage promptings; See: Recruiting), I surmise emails or conference calls occurred sometime around the time when Trump looked like the presumptive GOP nominee, likely with Robert Jeffress and my own pastor's coordination of their connections. My experience with a select few of these people (See: Innuendos, and Recruiting) led myself to learn of these dealings only in June 2016, so presumably they coordinated somewhere between January and May, 2016.

(6/13/17) Jack Graham’s life-long friend, Greg Laurie, joins the Southern Baptist Convention. <http://bit.ly/2BSL6n2>

(12/13/17) Harvest North America is publicly announced. My alma mater, Southwestern Seminary, volunteers to pay travel expenses of evangelists for any church sponsoring revival crusades. Given the name of the event, very likely Greg Laurie and Jack Graham contacted Paige Patterson, all of whom are highly commended for so doing! Same with the revival prayer meeting Southwestern hosted, after Jack (likely) phoned his friend (as ex-SBC presidents), who led it on that campus. The danger, for me, was being duped that what was happening round my meager little life (EX.: Harvest America in ATT Stadium, et al) was happening world-wide. Whether these events were instituted to protect reputations against the following type allegations, or sincerity, means nothing to me, so long as lost people get saved! (Phil. 1:15-18) And if they ever allege they DO things and I just type, I do all I can (with my spiritual gift, as God-led), despite being ignored by Billy Graham and the North American Mission Board, because I don’t have a 30,000 member mega church (as I have tweeted before). Knowing I’m going as public as possible, and knowing that because my actions coincide with my tweets, can be used by God to get people to do the right thing, I guess.

(Week of 2/18/18) And the week of Billy Graham’s death, Greg Laurie’s Twitter feed shows he, Jack Graham, Robert Jeffress, and a guy who looks like James Dobson (middle picture, right-most) all in Israel together (days before the Jerusalem embassy funding announcement). Who knows what they were plotting/planning, but around the same time-frame, they were found honest enough to reference their

‘baby Christian’ claims as bogus, as, in this article, they state more accurately, that they are not sure Trump is saved/a Christian: <http://bit.ly/2CB2XP3>

Note: Greg Laurie’s connections to Gram/OUNCE and Jeffress (James Dobson, in the middler picture?), in Israel, is thoroughly apparent.

(March to July, 2018) From March to July, 2018, the following things happened at Prestonwood, with innuendos to myself briefly explained:

- ◆ Hosting Christian radio host, Eric Metaxas, preaching on Martin Luther (and mentioning word spreading as far as NYC, who gives a wonderful Gospel explanation, that bridges Gram/OUNCE’s false belief with my Saviorhood Salvation belief, very logically).
- ◆ Hosting Tim Scot and Trey Gowdy, respectively saying they would make a great president and SCOTUS justice.
- ◆ May 20-June 5, franklin Graham hosts evangelism crusades around California, seeking also to promote anti-blue wave sentiment, according to several news reports.
- ◆ Sermons on Hezekiah (‘one man leads us to revival’), David (often my moniker), the lame man lowered through the roof to be healed by Jesus (‘trust God,’ when there seems no way), mentioning God’s hand on the rise of a man’s life, fighting for your family (after I posted about our responses to school bullies), and making it to the mountain top (after we posted about climbing Pinnacle Mountain, AR).

Build a family: <https://vimeo.com/273338762>

Fight for your family: <https://vimeo.com/272118243>

Godly woman: <https://vimeo.com/269726734>

- ◆ The Saturday evening before the #SBC18 pastor’s conference, having the following North American Mission Board president speak on living life on mission (a man we had been in contact, especially years back, regarding the SBC having a national evangelism thrust—who then helped sponsor Harvest America)

Rev. Keith Ezell (live on mission) <https://vimeo.com/274568911> (6/9/18)

- ◆ The Sunday before that pastor’s conference, the next SBC president spoke to the congregation (6/10/18). Then, at that pastor’s conference (following Harvest America, ATT Stadium, Dallas), things turned for the worse... the program sought to portray Southern Baptists as racially united, by a sermon on unity, having two black pastors open it up, accompanied by a black church choir. But then, resolutions were entertained, and several people were unhappy with the politicization of the meeting, with VP Pence having been invited to speak there (by Gram/OUNCE, confirmed days later), who bragged on tRump and political bull-honky much more than spiritual things, and alluded to the revival efforts we started.

- ◆ The Friday following, Gram/OUNCE has an Instagram photo next to tRump, then Ivanka gives $50,000 to him for helping separated immigrant families, when he has no set plan, yet (admitted in that Sunday morning's sermon).
- ◆ Immediately after #SBC18, the new president admitted allowing Pence to speak was a mistake. But, when a greatly moral man posted this, it was soon scrubbed 9as with all other posts before that day, years back): #SBC18 should be the last time there's a campaign speech at a Southern Baptist Convention meeting, because while the SBC's members primarily may be Republican, the annual meeting is not an appropriate place for a campaign speech. It's supposed to be about the Great Commission. <http://bit.ly/2JRmJ0j> –@edstetzer (~6/13/18)
- ◆ When I abandon that church for its politics, suddenly Revs. Chuck Swindoll and Ed Young follow my Twitter account, and DM me the exact same message, "You are blessed," then Young drops out, soon thereafter (after I mention it, cryptically, there), and Swindoll later. (6/14/18)
- ◆ Robert Jeffress hosts a freedom Sunday church event, with a titled sermon, 'America is a Christian nation,' where he reads Pence's letter (and the Dallas mayor forces his advertised billboard broadcasting that sermon title to be taken down) (6/24/18)
- ◆ Gram/Ounce has a guest preach a sermon on Israel and America's close ties (last weekend in June).
- ◆ Jeffress tweets about Roe's effects being nominalized with Justice Kennedy's replacement (late June).
- ◆ A good staff friend from Prestonwood is suggested as a friend on Facebook (which I must decline, protesting his boss's actions; late June), which reached their zenith when he threaten Dr. Russell Moore's ERLC job, and threatened to withhold $1 million from the SBC for that godly man saying truthful things about tRump.
- ◆ On 7/31/18, for my first time ever noticing Todd Starnes' Twitter posts, I learned he had blocked me (a man whom I've never had any interactions, and Bob Jeffress jokingly refers to as being his show's chaplain; perhaps he saw our chapter named after him?)
- ◆ Trump's Evangelical White House Dinner (on 8/27/18) served as a get out the WASP Christian laymen vote event, behind closed doors and shut off from the media (details at White House Dinner Dupes).
- ◆ I wouldn't put it past "pastor" Jack Graham using his connections used to secure Arlington Texas' ATT Stadium for GOOD things (Harvest America), to help tRump secure it for his Amway with pom poms event for Ted Cruz, ripe with white supremacists, religious autocrats, and other idiots. (9/1/18)
- ◆ In late September, 2018, Ted Cruz's TV ad featured a bilateral amputee vet bemoaning NFL kneelers for not standing for him at the national anthem. It was an evangelist friend of Jack Graham's, who was the first evangelist he had speak at our church, when I first nagged him to get more evangelistic. I'm pretty sure Cruz didn't know him from Adam, before then! And NO Christian extolls citizens to give them honor—they thank people when they are honored (not to mention I've spoken to vets who say they sacrificed for people's rights to their freedoms, including protests). <https://bit.ly/2DtkFte>
- ◆ Having pastor Levi Lusko refer to a nation happy "Cyrus" is leading it, on Air1's 59 seconds of hope (12/11/18), following Jerry Falwell Junior's 'The Trump ["Cyrus"] Prophecy' movie release.

REVIVAL 2018

Background (two of perhaps sixty revival exhorting tweets in the past four years):

Increasing frequency of calls for full evangelism and revival-seeking, post-Trump support...

One of the earliest callers for revival, which STILL hasn't come, because the WASP church has exchanged Trump for biblical (i.e., spiritual vs. political) revival! (5/22/17): Message delivered, if not well-received, Lord. Revival through human agents is less effective than persecution and Pentecost power, it seems—II Tim. 4:7 (11/5/13)

RATHER than revival, judgment is coming to the U.S.A. WASP church, for pastors ignoring EDDBS priorities! (5/22/17): God, forgive the U.S. church for NOT evangelizing, but that's SELFISH! We want the blessings, not the responsibilities. Judging us is MORE needed! (4/30/14)

Message (12/27/17):

GOOD news. Why does it always come from my alma mater (@SWBTS)? #Heroes harvestnorthamerica.org/ However, church growth is NOT the goal, but conversions!

If you have to convince 'pastors' to evangelize, by promises of increased church membership, they shouldn't be in ministry (but misery)! I Cor. 9:19-23, Phil. 4:17, et al. For you newbies, I credit my family's home pastor with recruiting Greg Laurie to the Southern Baptist Convention, and I suspect they're behind Southwestern's lead in "Harvest" (Greg's ministry name) North America.

AMAZING thing I'm SO happy about regarding Harvest North America is, IF pastors join it, it has evangelists engage evangelism with pastors and church members before the at-church sermon series, because God NOWHERE commands lost people to go to church buildings to hear His message of eternal life! An amazing aspect!

[Private account:] Agree and disagree. Church Growth is about finding prospects that you can lead to conversion. Why host a revival if you don't have any to invite?

Bible practice was to go and tell! NO command ever says a lost person has to come to Christian gatherings to hear the Gospel! It's NOT their spiritual nature to want to go to a religious event! A come-and-hear method was ONLY used when one guy didn't know the Gospel (Ac. 10), Jesus could be physically gone to (Jn. 1:41), and Paul was famous, yet too aged to go (Ac. 28:30).

"Revival meetings" are NOT what God commands, to see revival (II Chr. 7:14), though I'm all for them. Finally, come-and-hear is a way for laymen not to have to evangelize, but invite people to let the professional do that. That's also UN-biblical. The key is how many churches engage this event!

Finally, if I may, if a pastor's number one concern is lost people being saved, IF he believes Mt. 6 and Col. 3 (et al), where the converts attend church and give money is NOT his number one concern (i.e., "church growth"), but their eternal souls being in Heaven. THIS is how Paul evangelized!

Church growth occurred in the book of Acts! It was NOT men's secular methods to increase church numbers, or pastor salaries! The main reason successful evangelism increased church sizes was there was one church per city, at the start, vs. religious business competition! (1 Cor. 3:9)

The church growth movement began when I was in seminary (from Cali?). Pastors were TIRED of being poor. INSTEAD of full evangelism, they promoted things churches could do to market themselves, and be more well-received by their neighbors (architecture, music, modernity, amenities, etc.). That's NOT Gods way!

II Chr. 7:14 has FOUR elements. If a majority of U.S. Christians earnestly, intently and consistently did those four things, revival IS promised! The effort is VERY spotty, NOT sustained, used for political ends, and mainly prayer (i.e., one element). Hence, revival is NOT coming to America. READ THE TEXT.

It's SAD to see that, so far, NO conversation was engaged with my good Christian brother. You refute claims with Scripture, and some people call that a "divisive argumentative spirit." I call that position the spirit of delusion, and hating the truth we are to love. I'll give him time, and HOPE he returns with biblical insights(?).

Revival meetings and evangelistic crusades are EXCELLENT, but nowhere commanded in the Bible. If you check, their majority attenders are existing Christians! Go-and-tell is the ONLY biblical model, but pastors don't want to "turn off" neighbors who could become attenders by evangelizing them where they are.

If America was SERIOUS about the Great Commission, every church would adopt its own neighborhood, to ensure every lost soul had heard an accurate, impassioned and empowered Gospel presentation in the past three years. I predict this will NEVER happen, as we are more interested in shows of concern.

WATCH the RESULTS of participation in Harvest North America! Look at the statistics of how many churches participate vs. how many don't, what percent at the events are saved, and what denominations participate. THIS IS THE PROBLEM, folks. Christ died for ALL people, and ALL people are to be reached. Remember Hell!

Looking for my email exchange with the @NAMB_SBC executive who promised a nation-wide evangelism program more than SEVEN years ago, I found Paul Pressler's email saying I could use his name as a reference for three evangelism minister applications (6/26/07). He was "off to Europe in the morning. More power to you." Inerrancy #hero

II Chr. 7:14: Written to the Jewish nation, applied by Christians: 1. Humble yourself, 2. Pray, 3. Seek God's face, and 4. Turn from your wicked ways. Any lawyer can identify four elements to this promise! It DOESN'T say if a handful of My people. It DOESN'T say pray, then quit. THIS is the road to revival in America!

IF a majority of church members fell on their faces in repentance, regularly; earnestly prayed, consistently; daily met with and sought God, and did EDDBS priorities rather than self, GOP and money worship, revival would come! Substituting Churchianity for being a disciple will NEVER work!

U.S. Churchianity believes if you go to church nearly every Sunday, and give (maybe even "tithe"), you are good with God. That is NOT the whole of Christianity, even in the slightest! DAILY following Jesus, or one is NOT a disciple. We salve guilty consciences with partial or false traditions of MEN!

Mt. 6 says seek first God's kingdom, and His righteousness, and all these things (i.e., money, food, shelter—assets) will follow. That is NOT what church growth experts teach! You do biblical church (EDDBS), and, in faith, leave the results to God, for Heaven is your ultimate reward venue, vs. pastors' bank account!

Anytime any pastor relies on inviting to attraction events, 'for evangelism,' they're empowering laymen sinning, with the fear of doing it, but WORSE—they ONLY reach a percent of lost people, vs. ALL lost people at least knowingly rejecting the message (vs. not being reached, or rejecting a non-Gospel invite).

Hey, my high school Sunday School teacher: Why not stop hand-wringing over EXPECTED (if not prophesied) results of Christians ignoring EDBS priorities, and Southern Baptists go disciple Brit pastors and laymen, and teach them to evangelize, and do II Chr. 7:14 for their nation? @CalThomas

Update: Evangelism Errors
(12/30/17)

In the book of Acts, you NEVER see any pastor host any public event, in order to be able to reach any lost persons with the Gospel! You ALWAYS see Christians (NOT just pastors) going to the lost, where lost people were. ONE exception is where the host didn't know the Gospel (Ac. 10). #GUILTY!

Any "evangelistic event," by nature, can ONLY reach those who see the advertising, and/or hear about it, and care to attend. The Gospel is for ALL—not just those two limited categories of people! The U.S. WASP church simply REFUSES to directly evangelize. One can't refuse the Gospel if never offered it!

Any pastor who for any reason lets any layman off the hook of needing and having to evangelize, has morally corrupt reasoning in why he allows that situation to continue. I'll say no more. You need to re-read it enough times to get what I just said!

NOWHERE in Scripture is "building a relationship" commanded of Christians, before being able to tell a lost person the Gospel! And NOWHERE is it commanded that any Christian farm that task off to pastors or experts. And, apologetics is NOT evangelism, but ONLY supplements it, when necessary!

Giving your testimony of your conversion, or things God's done in your life is NOT evangelism, but it can supplement it. Evangelism is, very clearly, lovingly and empowered, speaking the Gospel message to lost people, and asking them to respond in faith. Nothing more, nothing less.

If you read Mt. 6, Col. 3:1-4, I Jn. 2:15-17, and Phil. 3:18-20, NO Christian can be chasing money as number one to working for God, and the betterment of society! And if you read Lk. 12:15, I Tim. 6:9-10, Pv. 23:5, 30:8, Jas. 1:10, and Mt. 6:24, 19:23, most U.S. Christians are! Our DEEDS (and politics), not our WORDS, demonstrate our priorities!

You know Solomon (Ecc. 1-3, and the rich guy with Lazarus (Lk. 16:19-31) just took it a little too far. Taper it back a little, and enjoy THIS life, says the Devil, to American Christians! Entangled in THIS world (2 Tim 2:4) by clinging to a MISinterpretation of this verse as their ONLY basis! 1 Tim 6:17

The WASP church in America is under the judgment of God for her materialism, and NON-disciple-like (i.e., selfishness sin) core political positions!

II-B6. ON BIBLICAL DIVISION

The Bible teaches to preserve the unity of the faith. There are Christian basics, without which we share no such unity. There are also lesser things upon which we can disagree agreeably. American Christians have long disagreed on political party, the black church tending Democrat and the white church Republican. This split has basically been over the 'social Gospel' (economic justice) vs. abortion and gay marriage (earlier, homosexuality opposition, via the 'Moral Majority') emphases. But in 2016, for the first time in a very long time, the issue of character and competence took center stage, yet those matters seemed to lose importance among many WASP's, so desperate for a political win.

So is it immoral to separate ('divide') when one brother supports those values (immorality and ignorance) while another stands firm for principles and traditional Christian values, like integrity and intelligence? I say a clear reading of Scripture indicates that is exactly the kind of 'division' Jesus came to earth to create—a separation between the wheat and the chaff, and the ones serious about morality and those willing to put Christian values on hold, temporarily, to get political things done (to allude to the Christian Cabal's touted 2016 presidential candidate). This separation need not split churches or be forever, but a stance must be made for values, and may seem hardest when the stakes are highest, but that's the exact time they are needed the most. Division on principle, when needed, is a much different animal than separation over sin and selfishness (Pv. 18:1, 11:29; Mk. 3:25).

II-B7. SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION

It is the missionary commitment that binds our Southern Baptist churches together.
Without it we are as a bundle held by a rope of sand. –@WACriswell

I have been a Southern Baptist since about the time I was born. I was saved and baptized in a SBC church (at age 8), and was licensed to the ministry by one, after graduating from a SBC seminary. Although I have always biblically disagreed with their Lordship Salvation and tithing doctrines, the following three events were how that denomination interacted in national politics, for good or bad...

Gay Marriage.

The Southern Baptist Convention got involved in the 2016 political campaign way back in early 2015, when I direct messaged many famous SBC (on Twitter) to make their voices heard so that the Supreme Court did not think nationalizing gay marriage was a slam dunk. Soon, I learned of (and trice conversed there with) the ERLC's Dr. Russell Moore, as he was the SBC's liaison to the secular media. He voiced that position, likely from Dr. Graham's connections, if not directly tapping him to do so (as an ex-SBC president, twice over). My tweets to him were as follows.

Confederate Flag.

Later on, I read that the SBC was getting involved in removing the Confederate flag in South Carolina (as well as denouncing the alt-right movement). Having a direct relative as a Confederate enrolling officer (Nathaniel Reagan Meroney, 1820-1902), I had expressed, here, my disagreement of seeking to re-write an evil history (#HistoryNotHate), but the majority voted otherwise. In fact, the only four hours when I considered voting for Trump were when my wife's high school, Robert E. Lee, Houston, Texas, announced their considering changing its name. I quickly gained my senses, but this political correctness move remained offensive to me.

Donald Trump.

I am not a real avid denominational man (almost as open to Bible church and charismatic), and had protested my family's home pastor supporting Trump by withdrawing attending for a total of three series of absences (one almost six months long), so it came as a large surprise when my sons informed me of Dr. Graham threatening to withhold $1 million from the SBC over the ERLC's criticisms of Trump (three or more months after the fact)! Needless to say, I had been so consistently critical of Trump, I found it laughable that my family's home pastor was offended by perhaps a couple comments of Dr. Moore! The way I assess these events, morally-speaking, is if Dr. Moore speaks on topics the Christian Cabal is for, he's their hero; if the opposite, he is the opposite. I despise that self-centered and inconsistent stance!

Dr. Russell Moore.

And America is NOT a "Christian nation." It is founded upon Judeo-Christian principles, but it is NOT a theocracy. You dishonor our Lord talking stupidly with sentimental emotionalism! (10/23/14)

KEEP THE FAITH, @DrMoore God says morality "trumps" temporal political power! Your rewards await you in Heaven for your normalcy of courage!!! Hero! (5/13/17)

For your information, JUST AS @drmoore RIGHTLY noted, any person who says they've never asked God's forgiveness for anything, is NOT saved/a Christian/going to Heaven. So even CHUMP's claim that he WAS a "Christian," before he became a "baby" one, is a LIE, to make him palatable to Bible-IGNORANT WASP Christians! #TRUTH (Jn. 8:32, 17:17) (12/11/17)

II-B8. CABAL COMPLIMENTS

Let's, for ONCE, commend the Christian Cabal. They want less abortions in America! Sometime in late 2015 or early 2016 they electronically or otherwise huddled up and said this is a now-or-never window; we MUST use our influence and famous last names to overturn Roe, by stacking SCOTUS, by doing a deal with the Devil, to get him out of a YUGE poll bind! We MUST pact together that absolutely nothing will waver our commitment if I can get Chump to agree to do so. That decision was announced June 23, 2016, to ABC News, and it has been hilarious to see the contortions to justify the all-or-nothing approach!

So our ONLY commendation is TRYING to lessen abortions (i.e., good intentions). Everything else I repudiate in Jesus' name, excepting the good in the bad of biasedly protecting persecuted Middle East Christians. Protecting them is good. Targeting one religious group for American protection is evil. I've said my peace!

CONGRATS to the Christian Cabal for freeing the NC pastor from Turkish jail, trying to organize WASPs for political power (just used for much evil, instead of much good), and their Organizer's work in pushing the bipartisan First Step Criminal Justice legislation! That is a WIN!

II-B9. CABAL REBUKES

Christians need to remember that the kingdom of God is not going to come riding in on Air Force One. The danger in all of this discussion is that Christians sometimes are willing to sacrifice the temporal for the eternal, that in order to get their candidate elected, to enact those laws that they feel are crucial, somehow we fool ourselves into thinking we are going to bring about the kingdom of God here on earth. We are not going to do that. I'm not willing to trade people's eternal destiny for some temporary change in the law. —Robert Jeffress (2008)

Besides this entire book, itself, here are some more recent, direct rebukes of the Christian Cabal:

Political power over God is like mammon over God! It's STILL an IDOL! Where are the pastors of the Moral Majority era, if still alive? Have they been bought off? (2/23/15)

Trumpster pundits ONLY focus on policy. A MONKEY can parrot right policy. #CharacterMatters, but NOT if you're Hell-bound. JUST sayin' the TRUTH! (5/12/16)

We LOVE putting on events, shows, performances, presentations, HOPING to "inspire" commitment. Get individual church members into the Bible for themselves; that's IT. (6/10/16)

[Private account:] I just can't see W.A. Criswell or John Bisagno even introducing Trump let alone making that comment (6/18/16)

By the way, I'll repeat, for power IDOLATRY, the WASP church is in bed with the philosophy of 'greed is good,' and many things God is NOT in support of! (6/26/16)

Forcing a stacked SCOTUS, even for noble causes, doesn't convince the majority's hearts! I've already enumerated the pitfalls of that strategy... (7/15/16)

So, again, WHY do we consider a guy who's rich and famous QUALIFIED to be the leader of the free world? Crickets! #NeverTrump Those traits prove NOTHING. (9/12/16)

Don't you care about your reputations, as Christian leaders? Untrained, lost and even low IQ'd Americans see what you're doing, and you give Jesus a BAD name by such hypocrisy. (9/13/16)

We want POWER more than we want morality! So say Christians and pastors supporting Trump. And you WONDER why revival WON'T come? Wonder NO more! Idolatry and sin. (9/15/16)

We want POWER more than we want morality! So say Christians and pastors supporting Trump; and you WONDER WHY revival WON'T come? Wonder NO more! Idolatry and sin. (9/15/16)

In fact, your small clique of pastor peers often HOPPED from Bush to Cruz, and finally to Chump. It's all about beating Democrats from hatred—NOT about morals OR policy! (11/2/16)

It's all about policy ONLY because you're RIGHTLY too embarrassed and ashamed for it to be anything else, @RobertJeffress (11/2/16)

May God bring judgment on all His children who embraced immorality, for power idolatry, in 2016! God sees the DIFFERENCE in His children's two types! (5/9/17)

When Gods people host national days of prayer, but support the most evil president in 50 years, and WON'T evangelize all nearby lost people, prayers don't get answered! (5/10/17)

You will see mega pastors praise Chump for "religious liberty," when they've ALWAYS been free to tell all nearby lost people how to go to Heaven, and NONE have. WOW! (5/10/17)

DO you see any of God's prophets NEGOTIATING any policy matters with evil kings, in exchange for delivering Jewish votes? No! They spoke the TRUTH to power, vs. sucked up. (5/10/17)

Christians would vote for Satan if he promised them certain political positions. Trump is proof of this claim. Naiveté DIS-honors God! Apostasy. (5/10/17)

Lordship Salvation preachers make up the Christian Cabal, and somehow are the only ones who believe Trump has "repented" in the way they define that term! (5/21/17)

WORSE than anything is the Christian Cabal HARMED Jesus' reputation in society, by backing Chump. FAKE Christians don't care, but just worship power! II Peter and Jude Balaam wolves [in such behavior!] (5/21/17)

Trump calls WASP Cabal pastors 'powerful.' We call them sinful. I'll take my depiction any day over that fake 'baby Christian' term they taught him! Is the Christian Cabal proud they did a deal with the Devil, DIVIDING the GOP (Georges Bush 1 and 2, et al OPPOSE you!), and saying they were 'united,' blaming #NeverTrump, when Chump started ALL the evil bad blood, all for power idolatry? Was it worth it, sell-outs Jeffress/Falwell, et al? Deluded Dupes! (11/6/17)

Two new nicknames for the two most loyal sell-out Christian, so-called "leaders:" Judas Jeffress and Jerry Fall-Not-So-Well. Others in that wolf pack seem to have wised up a smidgen, or are at least doing their unscrupulous deeds more behind the scenes! Probably the latter. All are too proud to admit they erred. (11/6/17)

Lk. 5:27-32 and Mt. 11:16-19 (Jesus, friend of sinners) is NOT a role the Christian Cabal needed to play, since its inception, but Mt. 14:4. To SPIN currying favor for ego and idolatry to a blind agenda is NOT Jesus socializing with commoner lost people, J.G.! Saw your heretical tweet this morning. #Spinning vs. winning (11/10/17): The self-righteous condemned Jesus for loving sinners and hanging out with them. We should never fail to love the people He loves. @JackNGraham (8/18/17)

Trump abused women and bragged about grabbing them inappropriately, speaking of them as though they're meat. That was an extremely disturbing moment for everyone BUT evangelicals like Sarah

Huckabee, Jerry Falwell Jr., and Franklin Graham—the new sexual abusers' best friends. —Frank Schaeffer (11/22/17)

A California man plans to fly 1,800 feet high in a scrap-metal rocket to prove his belief that Earth is flat. I expect he'll run for president next and win with evangelical support. —Frank Schaeffer (11/24/17)

Dear Trumped Evangelicals, Jesus ate dinner with thieves and whores and told us to forgive everyone but to my knowledge he never said to vote for child molesters or to make an abuser of women president. To forgive is fine—to empower evil is another matter altogether. Best, Frank —Frank Schaeffer (11/25/17)

In this Cabal/Bannon alignment, old white Christians make the difference! The Christian Cabal is MIS-representing Christianity for personal fame and fortune! Robert Jeffress is in the media ALOT, now, and Jerry Falwell, Junior, advertises away parents' tuition at his more joke of a college—on national TV! FOOLS pay for such worthless expenditures! (12/4/17)

CONGRATULATIONS, Christian Cabal! You showed your TRUE spiritual colors today, as on Nov. 8, 2016! The world watched. ONLY your duped followers still believe in your "intelligence!" I 100 percent commend ALL U.S. pastors who did NOT buy into that morally-corrupt political effort. There is STILL time to evangelize! (12/6/17)

QUIT singing How Great Thou Art at Trump-connected rallies! The blasphemy has reached the highest Heavens! Talk about an UN-holy mix of politics and religion! (12/13/17)

If there's ANYTHING more telling about who the Christian Cabal is targeting for votes (old, white Christians), it's hearing Franklin Graham at the Arizona Chump rally with 'How Great Thou Art' sung, as it was at Roy Moore's defeat event last night! Most Christians haven't sung that hymn in DECADES! (12/13/17)

NEVER FORGET: Steve Bannon is doing EXACTLY what Chump wants done. They will fake being at odds, so Chump can TRY to drain the swamp while cozying up to it every day, and look like he is for it, as his yes man (Bannon) does the hard, dirty work. @GOP: Never forget this reality. It NEVER changes! (12/13/17)

"Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves" Matthew 7:15-20. Also, not in the Bible, but beware of politicians who lack the guts to call out racism and racists, when the moment calls for them to stand up. —Soledad O'Brien (1/13/18)

[Private account:] James Dobson, 1998: "Character does matter. You can't run a family, let alone country, without it. How foolish to believe that a person who lacks honesty and moral integrity is qualified to lead a nation and the world!" Dobson 2017: "Recently I have been dismayed and troubled about the way he [Roy Moore] and his wife Kayla have been personally attacked by the Washington establishment." (1/19/18)

I heard a white and black church sermon this weekend. One addressed abortion; the other, not a peep. One addressed poverty; the other, not a peep. Can you figure out which was which? The 'Christian' Church is divided over either/or vs. both/and. 100 percent STUPID, biased, and sinful! #7in10forRoe (1/22/18)

Because the Christian Cabal sold their souls to Satan, they can NEVER rebuke Chump, because he's so temperamental, any defection would risk his implementing their agenda! Frankie Graham said DJT values loyalty, but it's the loyalty that dictators require! (1/24/18)

Reputation be danged. They want power access. Their own ministry's reputations have been in the toilet for 1.5 years, @Frank_Schaeffer. Hang with a pig, you get dirty (and stinky). (1/24/18): Franklin Graham, Jerry Falwell, Jr., and the white Trump evangelicals are associating evangelicalism with bigotry, selfishness and sexual depredation, infidelity to God country and lies. They are playing a grubby political game for the highest of stakes: The reputation of their faith. –Frank Schaeffer (1/23/18)

Trump has changed his underwear; that's about all. He may let handlers portray him different that the two year real self he admitted wasn't an act, but that's not change—that's propaganda and P.R.! (1/24/18): [Private account:] Franklin Graham just now on CNN, when asked why evangelicals were harsher on Bill Clinton's affairs than on Donald Trump: Clinton's affairs happened while he was in office, and Trump has changed... (1/23/18)

@kurteichenwald: They are Christofascists, not Christians. You can tell difference tween real evangelicals, and frauds who are in it for political power, by how they react to Trump. Real ones—of which they are many—are repulsed. Those who seek power for personal enrichment, like Frankie, are frauds. (1/24/18)

The FAKE-Christian Cabal couldn't tell Chump what he NEEDs to hear, if their lives depended on it! He has them by the g_nads! He says jump, and they ask, how high? That's how the DEVIL works! You sell your soul, and you get PLAYED! Anytime Trump's foot is in his mouth (which is OFTEN), he has his lap dogs praise him! (1/24/18)

Here's what it's all about, people... overturning Roe! #ChristianCabal (1/24/18): @RobertJeffress: Watch my interview with @TeamCavuto on @FoxBusiness as I discuss President Trump addressing the #MarchforLife rally. (1/19/18)

tRUMP is facing the consequences of having promised pro-life SCOTUS Justices to the Christian Cabal, and now realizing (what a dummy!) that there is an entire world watching his choices—NOT just men who sold their souls to Satan to ban all abortions, and deliver 81 percent of the Southern Baptist vote by supporting the MOST sinful (and stupid) president in DECADES! (7/3/18)

If God were 100 percent for ALL political conservative positions, the Christian Cabal would be being obedient. Since there are MANY moral positions in centrism, and some in liberalism, and there are some sinful ones in conservatism, they are sin-fully DIS-obedient, for the power idolatry sin and ego/pride sin. #SinToWin!? (7/3/18)

Joel C. Rosenberg @JoelCRosenberg: Dallas, please re-read the Book of Daniel this week. You'll find God sovereignty directed Daniel and his friends not just to meet with but work for one of the most evil, vile kings in Scripture. In time, in part through their witness and prayer, Nebuchadnezzar was saved. @jdgrear (8/30/18)

[My direct message rebuttal to him:] But he's a Christian (never having ever asked God's forgiveness for anything), then a year later, a "baby Christian", according to the Christian Cabal's POLITICAL narrative, Joel! NO NEED for a 'Daniel ministry' by this bunch... the bunch who claimed him to be a "baby Christian!" (8/31/18)

[Result:] No response... silenced!

Christian Cabal Rebuke

(9/28/18)

'Image is everything' is EXACTLY what the head pastor of Prestonwood North said in my presence! He learned that lie somewhere! The Bible says the exact opposite. But, with that belief, they strategize to get famous last names on TV and Christian media, supposedly as if they've been "leading" Christians for decades.

Their DADS led! Franklin led in more private ways through Samaritan's Purse. NO ONE, to speak of, had heard of Falwell—he's a university president! His red-headed brother, YES, because he did MINISTRY!

Dobson had a wonderful and godly ministry, until 2016! A GREAT moral fall! He flip-flopped from Jeb to Cruz to Chump. NO STANDARDS for behavior or morals or intelligent policies! That's a moral FAILure!

Bob Jeffress has chased politicians, to resurrect his church to W.A. Criswell fame/glory days, for 1.5 decades! He laps up media spotlight. At least he's CONSISTENT! Consistently ego-centered.

And ALL these people—Dobson, Falwell and Frank Graham, were recruited to resurrect the Moral Majority by Jack Graham, inspired by my tweets he watched like a hawk, lest I break a contract with his church, though the exhortations were to return MORALITY to U.S.A. and politics—the exact OPPOSITE of what they achieved!

MANY Americans engaged in politics are SICK creatures! Immorally ill! ALL people care about is winning elections, and morals don't matter. ANY Christian who engages this belief is apostate! God is NOT segmented to certain areas of your life, unless you're a tare, or are hypocritically carnal. (10/7/18)

A summary of all of the Christian Cabal's many antics and shenanigans is as follows:

1. Should good people EVER embrace evil, that good might come?
2. Should good people reward evil, and,
3. Do the ends justify the means?

On these three questions, we will ALWAYS disagree, and I'm VERY comfortable that the Bible is on my side! (10/8/18)

Update: Criminal Justice or Black Votes for Trump?

Has anyone noticed Chump's criminal justice initiative came out the month @FHunscripted had his get-out-the-vote ['Red Letter Christians'] meetings in Lynchburg, VA and Dallas, TX, to counter the Christian Cabal? Chump is trying to secure the black vote, for any people dumb enough to fall for that ploy/trick to get votes; feigned and token concern for 'justice!' (12/10/18)

Any bipartisan bills in the Chump era would virtually be impossible, as he has SO poisoned the well! No one wants to give him any victories, because he has failed America so YUGELY. When the GOP returns to its conscienced core, bipartisanship will again be in vogue. (12/13/18)

There's a YUGE difference trying to pass bipartisan bills to get black votes for Chump, rather than actually wanting justice and rightness implemented in society—on any and all issues—like caring about the plight of all minorities and poor people—not just over-done drug sentences!

People who care about votes for Chump and their party, more than they care about righteousness reigning in our nation, are NOT acting like Jesus! NFL kneelings brought this to the public's attention; now WASP pastors are trying to capitalize on it for Chump and GOP gains? Not 'gonna happen, though the cause is good. @FHunscripted <https://bit.ly/2EleiY1>

II-B10. PRE-CABAL POLICY TWEETS

(See also: Pre-Trump Policy Tweets, and Messages To Politicians)

There is at least one Christian Cabal member ("Fall-Not-So-Well") who recently used ideas we came up with three years ago (See cited articles in 'Frauds & Foolishness' message), when another Cabal leader (and its likely original organizer) was monitoring our account like a hawk, to ensure we didn't violate a contract to not mention he or his church online again, after we had stated truthful things about his church's ministry practice (See: Church Conflicts). Here are but a few posts on subjects THREE YEARS LATER Falwell had tried to lift (AKA steal) to his own advantage, in supporting the least prepared, least intelligent, and certainly least Christ-like (or moral) GOP of all 17 2016 GOP presidential candidates:

(Note: From the 'Wake Up, Church' topic, onward, these topics were not so much used by the Christian Cabal, but what they knew about, and chose to ignore, for a secular vs. spiritual power grab, anyway!).

Common Sense

(12/19/14)

We the people are NOT 100 percent divided! We are united against BAD politicians, BAD policies, gridlock, BAD unity and manipulating D.C. drama with little-to-NO productivity!

We the people are NOT inferior to politicians in knowledge or solutions! We do NOT believe their words about public 'service,' where that power is OURS!

We the people will NOT let politicians LIE to us anymore, waste OUR money, stay in power forever and have NO accountability. Too often the wolves are in charge of our hen house (White House and state house)!

NO back room deals on anything but top secret military strategy! Sunshine laws for EVERY detail, so NOTHING slips by us. We the people are united!

No slandering your opponent and no government lies. Hefty fines or lose your position with too many of such instances! No more NON-moral "leaders!"

NO MORE non-transparent lobbyist meetings. FULL disclosure! NO MORE party loyalty at all costs rewarded by positions, parties and money! In short, morality.

NO misleading TV ads during campaigns. No more ruining workers and the middle class for big business money to keep your campaigns afloat, politicians!

Our other political book SOLVES vs. salves ALL these issues and ~110 more with common ground, common sense NOT beholden to Democrats or Republicans 100 percent! READ it soon.

In some respects, WHO CARES who's the President? Without Congress with the will to override vetoes or pass good legislation, we're SUNK as a nation.

You start with 'We the people!' If THAT majority is FOR positions, anyone can serve in D.C. if they uphold GOOD policies the people are educated to in 20/20+.

[READ our book for an EASY and EFFECTIVE way to CURE D.C.,
and its climate of problems in 20/20. 2016 will be transitional. REJECT status quo D.C.!]

The ONLY ones who LOVE status quo are those most benefitted by it. Is your life great? Is the economy humming for you? Do you LOVE politicians' RESULTS? NOT most of us!

DON'T tune out of politics, or politicians WIN. The system CAN be fixed! America is the MOST innovative country in our world's history! We the people can FIX this!

Businesses improve products and services ALL THE TIME. It's TIME to improve how politics gets done in America. It's a laughingstock, internationally!

DO our book. Other GREAT ideas exist with We the people, and we invite EVERY one of them to be contributed at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>. #WeThePeople.

Common sense yields common ground. For example, you can't spend or credit card your way out of debt or a low-wage job and into riches! Common sense WORKS! #JustDoIt, Washington politicians!

WE do NOT need another novelty President; WE did black, we're considering woman and reality TV. Try BETTER ideas! THAT's what WORKS. Are we do-do's?

Common sense says you never pay ransoms, appease dictators, ignore problems (like Social Security and our debt), become a debtor to China as our master!

Common sense says government CAN'T do a lot to fix an economy, as an economy is the collective of all private (and public) business decisions! Obama proved that!

Common sense says you DON'T reward BAD behavior or you encourage more of it. You DON'T empower laziness or ignore strugglers! #CommonSense. See our book.

Common sense says give freebies and people flock to receive them, but SOMEONE has to pay for them! And if our education system isn't world-class, America will LOSE!

GROW some common sense, U.S. politicians. We the people use it ALL THE TIME, and we live in the real world vs. fantasy land. WE have bills to pay!

Common sense says if the rich have NO payback obligations and some people are jobless or severely poor, money they need must come from somewhere vs. out of thin air or off a money tree.

Common sense says there are no free lunches, and hand-ups, not handouts. Teach a man to fish and he can eat for a lifetime. #CommonSense! #JustDoIt, politicians!

Common sense says if business' only purpose is profits, they'll do anything to get profits, absent boundaries the people and their government impose, conservatives.

Common sense says if market rate is MUCH lower than union-demanded salaries, the rust belt will LOSE to outsourcing!

Common sense says if you loan money for homes one could never repay, you don't lend them sub-prime mortgages, nor do legitimate politicians support such lunacy! They DID!

Common sense says you DON'T reward bankers who, in part, CAUSED that mortgage crisis to get BONUSES or to be bailed out of their own BAD decisions by the middle class! Duh 101.

Common sense says you DON'T so withdraw from Iraq and Afghanistan that you allow ISIS to fill that void, no matter how much war fatigue America feels!

Common sense says you don't drill baby drill with NO concern for the environment, or push 100 percent green energy before the technology has matured! DUMB policies!

Common sense says a flat tax primarily benefits the rich—those least needy of another monetary benefit from government and who can afford taxes the easiest.

Common sense says ending the minimum wage would HURT workers more than help a few workers on North Dakota oil fields, Sean Hannity and Newt Gingrich! Duh 101.

Common sense says ending the estate tax ONLY benefits the rich, and HURTS society from LOST revenues when our budget can hardly be met as it is!

Common sense says most people CAN'T make tweets this fast on so varied of subjects with clarity unless God be with them. Such is my claim. Can most politicians claim the same?

Outsourcing's Outcasts
(Pre-Falwell's 'forgotten ones')

Who has most benefitted from outsourcing, or laying off American jobs? Big corporate executives, who are paid to hurt fellow citizens—often money, for doing evil. (5/16/13)

The pope is right on the errors of unbridled Capitalism, with excluded/disposable people by business abuses—layoffs, outsourcing, and over-working the rest. (12/12/13)

With layoffs, outsourcing, automation, over-working staff, and seeking more immigrants, big business is unpatriotic to U.S. citizens needing employment. (12/25/13)

Big business is for profits at ALL costs, even outsourcing the last U.S. job, UNLESS 'We the people' fight that. NO WONDER they're pro illegal's amnesty—CHEAP labor! (12/14/14)

Big business supported OVER-outsourcing to hurt Democrats (i.e., unions), but Democrats got more voters from those workers hurt in the rust belt, too. They now want illegals. (12/15/14)

...and with big business caring little-to-nothing about UN-patriotically outsourcing the last job (unless government steps in), for more profit and higher executive salaries, you'll LOSE. (12/23/14)

There USED to be employer's and worker's markets. With outsourcing and a bad economy (i.e., layoffs), it may always stay an employer's market, so unions may rise. (1/2/15)

In a buyer's market, wages LOWER, and with outsourcing, we generally have a permanent buyer's (i.e., employer's) market. Hence, income "disparity." (1/23/15)

I EXPECT unions to rise in America, and, eventually, a ban on outsourcing, so companies may just move away. Solve that. ("I" meaning God in me can). (1/23/15)

You can read our past tweets on business and the middle class. With outsourcing, layoffs, pushing the remaining workforce, part-timers, and automation, good luck Charlie. (1/26/15)

Etc. (i.e., many more examples exist)

Global Persecuted Christians

The U.S. Church is MILDLY “persecuted” for anti-abortion and gay marriage positions, but NOTHING like what was prophesied IF she'd obey God, and DO the Great Commission. (Jas. 4:4) (6/6/14)

Iran is pursuing nuclear weapons; ISIS is taking over Syria and Iraq; where's the Western church helping the persecuted church? #JoelRosenberg (1/18/15)

The BEST thing the Church can do right now is #SSS: SPEAK, support persecuted brethren, and show LOVE to gay people as sincerely as you know how! (4/2/15)

WHO do oppressed people go to when they are persecuted, or need deliverance from war? Who settles wars, and pays for peace more than them all? #USExceptionalism. (4/30/15)

The Silent Majority

The media will pick up stories of groups aligned with their agenda. If the SILENT MAJORITY remains only working their jobs, they'll WIN a majority of the time. (6/9/15)

We stood at Stacy and Custer for four hours, in the sun, with ~500 thumbs up/horn honks, and ~five cusses/middle fingers/thumbs down. Silent majority, SPEAK UP! (6/9/15)

I and an AMERICAN friend will ENJOY our steak dinner with my family, to celebrate the silent majority still existing in America, though covered by terror tactics. (6/10/15)

I reviewed our past tweets, and had more than seven references to the "silent majority," which Trump used. We pushed the middle class as the key, more than two months ago—I'm GLAD Hillary's addressing it! (7/13/15)

Wake Up, Church

The U.S. WON'T overturn Roe, and states with gay marriage WON'T have the Supreme Court overturn them. Wake up to these facts, and ADJUST, or lose even more—church! (12/27/14)

If the freedom of speech is taken away, then dumb and silent we may be led, like sheep to the slaughter. George Washington (1/10/15)

Even a dog barks when his master is attacked. I would be a coward if I saw that God's truth is attacked, and yet would remain silent. #JohnCalvin (1/4/15)

Gay activists have worked the past 20 years. What have the more sexually moral [on that issue] and religious done? Chase mega churches and salaries. Eyes OFF the ball! (2/22/15)

It's NOT the only political issue, but you have LESS THAN four months, and national gay marriage could be the law of the land. WHY SO SILENT, people of God leaders? (Rev. 3:8) (2/23/15)

How would YOU vote, if you were a Supreme Court justice, with a silent Church, and the GOP abandoning the religious right conservatives—huh? You have four months. Remember @BillyGraham! Wake UP! (2/23/15)

Does America condone gay marriage with a silent Church, and declining GOP demographic, and RISK Billy Graham's 'owe Sodom an apology' sentiment? Yes? Cowardly! (2/23/15)

You do NOT concede, even if the tide shifts. You ALWAYS stand on principle, even if you do so for a losing cause! The GOP wants you to be silent. What's GOD want? (2/23/15)

Jerry Falwell would be rolling over in his grave (in truth, SADDENED in Heaven) at how things have changed, and many of us know who he was! Wake UP! (2/23/15)

Has the Church thrown in the towel for GOP political power? They ALREADY ignore conservatives. STATE'S RIGHTS for remaining gay marriage ban-ers! (2/23/15)

Pv. 26:4; Mt. 5:11+; Eph. 6:12. Church—WAKE UP. The battle is real. “All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing.” (2/23/15)

The religious right has been SILENT, and cowered to political correctness peer pressure, but when she gets a backbone in the next four months, your finger-in-the-wind method falters! (2/24/15)

Yet, I fear you (i.e., SCOTUS) will go with the loud voices in society trying to represent a majority shift of the landscape, when anti-gay marriage voices have been silent; DON'T politicize the issue! (2/24/15)

It's probably too late for further litigation, but if gay marriage opponents and the Church stay silent the next four months, that national law may happen! Agree? @ACLJ (2/27/15) Note: Jay Sekulow's organization.

WASP Church Rebuke

The Church should NOT be promoting one political party, or the other; black (Dem), white (GOP, except theological liberals). Teach morals, and the Bible! (1/14/15)

Because there are no better solutions, the Church is half aligned with the world for political power. All Americans must DEMAND BETTER ALTERNATIVES! (11/14/14)

A committed Christian MUST be a fiscal conservative, and a social moderate, at the least. How to do both? READ our new political book, based on common sense. (12/16/14)

BECAUSE YOU WOULDN'T DO EDBS priorities (i.e., FULL evangelism and discipling), and II Chr. 7:14, you LOST the cultural majority on the two issues you seek political power for! (1/9/15)

Revival

More than anything, America needs spiritual revival—salvation for the lost, and sanctification for the saints. Move, Holy Spirit, before it's too late. (4/24/13)

Praying for revival is NO substitute for relational discipling and meditating on God's word. Likely there will be none, without that, as there are no shortcuts to growth! (10/9/13)

If you want revival in America, ask a Christian to have a quiet time with you five days a week for a month. If you don't want revival, you NEED revival. (6/18/14)

Pray for revival all you want. It WON'T come if U.S. pastors one year later STILL WON'T commit to evangelize ALL lost people near their unrequired buildings! (10/30/14)

Church MUST change, and if she WON'T, her praying for revival will be in VAIN. It becomes passing the buck to God for things to change, because we WON'T! (10/30/14)

Revival will NOT come if we stay on our path, which the majority have for last year, since they were warned NOT to. How long do you NEED, hardened U.S. pastors? (11/4/14)

I had a book agent, today, say most people are not motivated to buy a book on revival and renewal. EXACTLY why it's NEEDED; continual carnality will be judged! (11/7/14)

I haven't made one dime off it [i.e., my website], and may never, but God WILL provide, for His Church is desperately in need of revival. DON'T pray for the U.S. before praying for the U.S. Church! (11/7/14)

II Chronicles 7:14. Lord, bring us revival, lest we die under the weight of Your deserved judgment (and/or Tribulation)! Heal our land! USA #1! (2/13/15)

One of earliest clamorers for revival craving, after nearly 25 years of NO calls, and mega church expansionist Big Business idolatry in U.S. pastorates. (1/5/16)

We treat "revival" as some mystical prayer answer that will HIT America like an undetected summer storm. That usually doesn't happen, and it is irresponsible to sit on your hands waiting for such. (6/10/16)

Revival is NOT coming, U.S. pastors! You CHOSE fake symbolism to true repentance, for power idolatry with the Devil's man; I Pet. 4:17 I WARNED YOU, OFTEN! (9/24/16)

Sought church revival: (10/4/16): If anyone wants American cultural decline changed, or prays for 'revival,' CONSIDER there to be the NEED for a moral house-cleaning! (Mt. 21:12; Jn. 2:15) (11/12/13)

EARLY voice calling for revival efforts among God's people! (10/5/16): Americans want a human President to change their economy, but don't want spiritual-moral revival. The church's role is found in II Chron. 7:14 (7/7/12)

WHO first called for revival four+ years ago, and you all followed his lead? God through me, here. UN-important, but I will remind you, because you act like I didn't get you started in all this, for GOOD stuff, and you warped it for evil. DUMB. My point is, revival is SOVEREIGN—NOT man-made! (12/9/17)

Revival is NOT coming to America. Political interest among Christians rose in 2016, but was squandered on the most evil president in 50 years. (Hosea 4:6) (5/11/17)

The WASP church is facing impending judgment, NOT revival, for pastors REFUSE to do EDBS priorities in any serious ways. See our website for proof/details. (5/21/17)

One of the earliest callers for revival, which STILL hasn't come, because the WASP church has exchanged Trump for biblical (spiritual vs. political) revival! (5/22/17): Message delivered, if not well-received, Lord. Revival through human agents is less effective than persecution and Pentecost power, it seems. (II Tim. 4:7) (11/5/13)

We will have a revival when our passion for the Gospel is greater than our passion for our political convictions. —Erwin Lutzer (who spoke at our church, 10/1/17)

Pledgers 2020 Solution

Black, white, poor, rich, Christian, non-: We can ALL unite to common sense principles detailed in our political book in 2020, and fight status quo! (12/19/14)

See if in of today's politicians can make a case like this for their positions and priorities. WE NEED better political ideas (and candidates). #WeThePeople! (1/14/15)

Do right, get along, let none severely suffer, be at peace, steal no one's land, and fix problems is a summary of our political messages. Just Do It! #NIKE (2/14/15)

DON'T think the GOP has a moral monopoly on political policies. Jesus wouldn't 100 percent be Dem or GOP, nor should U.S. believers! #Stand4TRUTH (12/7/14)

DON'T say you're 100 percent Dem or GOP UNLESS you've drunk their Kool-Aid. ONLY support GOOD vs. bad policies in BOTH political parties in 2020! #BeTheChange (12/13/14)

Do you HEAR these ideas from today's politicians, or just their desires to rule you? #DEMANDbetter!
Personal political careers are NOTHING to 'We the people!' (1/7/15)

II-C1. COMPARISONS

Where I disagreed with Obama (and stated so on Twitter): Open borders, lead-from-behind weak national defense, seeming equal concern for helping other nations as much as Americans, slow economic recovery (keeping business taxes and regulations higher than needed), Obamacare (unrepaired and unreplaced), fear of stating ‘radical Islamic terrorism,’ apparent non-concern from growing government larger as a problem, seeming belief that ISIS was inevitably to grow and remain viable, etc. I believe him to be a very decent an, usually well-intentioned, articulate, and to have professionally represented America with respectability and honor. I also believe history will look more kindly upon his presidency than most conservatives. Today, will ever let on.

Where I disagreed with Hillary: Few articulated policies other than to oppose trump and imply mainly agreement with Obama. Compared to Trump, I believe her to have been the mature, more rational and wise choice of 2016, and with a predominantly GOP Congress, any more radical left tendencies could have been counter-balanced (as I voted for). The far right (to me, at least), for the most part was unreasonably obsessed in holding the following against her: Unsecured emails, Benghazi tragedies, Clinton Global Initiative influence peddling, undue Wall Street ties, and Bill Clinton’s quite far past affairs, etc.

Where I disagreed with Bernie: Free college, and universal healthcare (i.e., Socialistic tendencies); any implication that business is all bad, or all businesses do bad things, and the belief that all (though a lot of) lobbying is evil, per se. I respect his ability (especially at his age) to attract and appeal to younger voters (but often from freebies, and ideas too radical to be reasonable).

Where I agree with Trump: Everywhere his policies eventually lined up with those of mine which had been clearly stated here well before he adopted such (and often even before he announced his candidacy). I don’t care to detail them, as there are so many flip-flops and ambiguities, it’s easier to state what my positions were (and still are), and see how many he eventually adopts.

Where I disagreed with Trump: Please see our Facebook message (<http://bit.ly/2fIESxj>)

Where I agree with political conservatism: Strong national defense, controlled borders, America first, strong, growing economy, law and order, pro-Israel, oppose most if not all abortions, pro smaller government, against taxpayer money waste or taxes any higher than they need to be, against medium-term and longer handouts with no requirements, etc.

Where I agree with liberalism: American education needs to lead in world-class quality for all Americans, business needs to pollute as little as feasible, animals should not be cruelly treated or abused by businesses or individuals, criminals have legal rights that must be protected, minorities are often unjustly not offered equal economic opportunities, America needs to allow in any and all our economy needs, or who are persecuted or mistreated (if our economy has room for them), etc.

Problems with Parties

POSITIVES of conservatives: For the smallest government needed, no wasted tax dollars and a strong defense, pro-business success, personal responsibility and the smallest number of needed regulations.

PROBLEMS with conservatism: Hate government and all entitlements, favor business and the rich at worker’s expense, hurt animals or environment (or even people) if profit can be had.

POSITIVES of moderates: End gridlock (i.e., they get things done), can find common ground, reasonable vs. extreme and idealistically intransigent, practical and can negotiate.

PROBLEMS with moderates: BAD compromises, giving victories to opponents, often wishy-washy and sometimes no firm core (Ex.: Higher debt, open borders, Obamacare).

POSITIVES of liberals: Want cleaner air and no animal abuse, know that government is NOT all bad, pro education and helping the poor, against any selfish, greedy or hoarding rich, as life’s not all about money.

PROBLEMS with liberals: Too high taxes, too big government, HURT business for ecology and animals, waste tax dollars, pansies with violent enemies, support gay is O.K. and abort like a sport.

II-C2. CONSERVATISM'S NEGATIVES

In many ways I am a political conservative (for business, a strong economy and national defense, for law and order, controlled borders, pro Constitution, and for as small a federal government as is reasonable). Having been a Republican all my life (until 11/9/16), having listened to talk radio since the 1990's (mainly Rush Limbaugh and Texas Lieutenant Governor Dan Patrick), it is not until the past ten years (when my full-time author circumstances caused economic stress) did I begin to start to apply Scripture to my politics, and thereby start decrying the following aspects of political conservatism:

- ◆ Rarely touting give back (vs. make as much as you can, selfish emphasis).
- ◆ Never advocating for the Giving Pledge.
- ◆ Supporting ending the estate tax, minimum wage, the safety net and five federal agencies.
- ◆ Always being for cutting back business regulations (though workplace safety, overtime, consumer protection and truth in advertising are good laws) and taxes (Ex.: Trickle-down economics, which aids mainly the rich getting richer, and constituting the rich peeing on the others, mainly the poor).
- ◆ Unbalanced touting 'personal responsibility' (especially for people for whom that attitude has worked well, like many white males) while their religious authority (the Bible) balances self-reliance with a helping hand! (Gal. 6:2, 5; Levit. 19:15, etc.).
- ◆ Defining freedom as: Government—leave me alone and let me do whatever I want.
- ◆ Dead-set belief that any and all political philosophies were originated in Hell, and their adherents are the Devil (i.e., demonizing opponents).
- ◆ Belief that the U.S. Constitution fully supports all these sub-beliefs. (See our Facebook message called 'Constitutional considerations' for our reply/rebuttal).

For these reasons, hard-core alt-right'ers often label good people in the GOP as "RINO's" (Republican In Name Only, and call them Democrat Lite). Our main two political books fully refute these claims, and we don't have enough time to do so now, but suffice it to say, I may be conservative on many important policies, but on that philosophies' treatment of the poor and many minorities, I am rabidly anti-political conservatism! See also: Political vs. Religious Conservatism.

Philosophical Assessment.

From this magazine article, detailing common beliefs of political conservatism, our rational responses are added...

Referent: <http://theatlntc/2z4y6wT>

1. Against Rapid Change, Favoring Tradition. Pace is not as important as content of that pace. Hating haste can cause paralysis.
2. Constitution. The people have a say in the laws passed, as this is a government of, by and for we the people.
3. Bible Cultural Norms. Culture decides what morays it adopts, and they can change, over time (especially when the less religious population percentages rise).
4. Free-Market Capitalism. Free and fair/win-win. Not domination of other nations.

5. American Exceptionalism. True, but it is not American perfectionism.
6. Global Democratization. Only where it is welcomed. Can engage projects to till hard ground.
7. Localism. If differences are tolerable, this is fine, but the content trumps where the ideas originate.
8. Pro Guns. Fine, with reasonable regulations to make it safe for all.
9. More Suburban or Rural. No particular moral superiority to venue, but what's in men's hearts.
10. Anti-Liberal (Ex.: Affirmative action and welfare). This is because they desire to keep as much money as they can get away with, and don't see any need for government to do what private individuals can't do well enough unorganizedly.
11. Government Leave Me Alone. You may not need any laws passed, but laws aren't passed for the law-abiders.
12. Lower Taxes, Less Government. The voice of the people has a say in what size budget the feds enact.
13. Lower National Debt and Balance Budgets. These are great ideals/aspirations I fully favor (but not at the expense of making struggling citizens suffer more).
14. Limited Foreign Policy Intervention. Always prudent to be cautious in the use of our manpower and money. National interest must be there.

Update: Consistent Conservatism
(11/15/18)

Conservatives ALWAYS seek to justify EVERYTHING favoring business! Larry Elder is bemoaning the minimum wage. If one's skills don't merit it, they won't get a job; that's incentive to deserve it, Larry! Workers deserve a decent salary, vs. being paid peanuts, and business is only half the equation. (Levit, 19:15) Those are UNbiased priorities.

A true conservative would seek to justify child labor (Gingrich does), not only because some competitors do it (i.e., a race to the bottom, vs. America as a moral leader), perhaps like it will grow up Millennials, or education is over-rated, or some other sort of foolishness. Why not dumping? Imitate all evils!

Why not un-do safety laws, mandatory overtime pay, work breaks, and truth in advertising laws, and food safety laws, if business can profit more, conservatives? Why not discriminate in who you hire? Why have any laws if businesses can make more money without them? Defraud customers! No implied warranties! Just money!

WHY NOT reinstate slavery, political conservatives, since that's FREE labor for business, so business can profit the most with NO labor expense? Conservatives ALWAYS want business favored by government! Layoffs, contract labor, higher insurance copays, automate, more than 40 hours for salaried folk, pensions ended, two-income families, outsourcing, over-immigrating, etc.

If political conservatives got their way, robots would take most all our jobs, then they would vote for the smallest government possible, so only those who owned robots could survive! They already clamor for taxes so low our debt will NEVER be repaid, much less simply our federal budget being met. #Evil!

II-C3. CONSERVATISM'S POSITIVES

(12/18/18)

I've listened to Rush Limbaugh since the early 1990's. I've been GOP since birth. So it's HARD to battle with political conservatives, when I am one, in many ways. Tax money spent for good things, and to minimally help others is our MAIN sticking point. To prove my sincerity with this angst, here are the GOOD things about political conservatism:

Desire 4 smallest govt possible (taxes & regs), desire 4 US bizs 2 succeed mightily,

4 strong national defense,

law & order,

belief that aborting 4 contraception is immoral,

& gay marriage could have been contractually arranged thru civil unions (H2O under the bridge), hatred of govt waste,

OK w/ppl owing guns 4 hunting & self-protection (if theyre not criminals or mentally ill, or violent gang members, or terrorists), belief N states rights whenever feasible (ie-not laws that R bad, even tho tradition N certain quarters), pro personal responsibility as a virtue, belief USA is #1,

pro religious freedoms,

free speech,

reverence 4 R Constitution, patriotism,

pro military

good cops,

pro Capitalism (when not abused),

not opposed to people getting wealthy, belief N US control of its own borders & entry standards, etc.

NEVER forget I am for all these things, properly defined and applied (as I just sought to do).

II-D1. WHAT I BELIEVE

(7/21/17)

No matter what you think of her person or policies, Hillary ran a much more mature campaign of wisdom and integrity—traits we're missing in the White House!

I've been GOP all my life, until Trump's win. HERE is why I will NOT be one, at least until he's GONE (and the alt-right denounces his moral 'standard')!:

I could be a large percent conservative, but will vehemently fight conservatism on THESE issues: Wanting to end the safety net, despising any wealth redistribution, and having NO plan for the poor and many minorities but get a j-o-b, as well as never advocating for the Giving Pledge, but selfish greed.

I'm ALL for a strong defense, and using military might, though use diplomacy first, and use war as a last resort. I'm all for a strong economy, but NOT just blessing business off the backs of workers. I'm for BALANCE!

I'm against over-immigration and over-outsourcing. I'm for controlling who we let in, based on if our economy needs them.

I'm against large government, but also too small of government, and for just right government. I'm for as low of taxes as humanly possible without slighting the needy.

I'm against anyone abusing our Welfare system to be lazy, but NOT against helping to ensure no one in USA suffers severely.

I'm against handouts more than short-term, and for hand-ups, and for government aiding ensuring all citizens become financially self-sufficient, and, long-term, only helping those physically and/or mentally incapable of working.

I believe in making as much money as your abilities allow, but also in your moral character being maximized, which means when you have enough money to surely make it to the end of conservative interest from your nest egg, YOU OUGHT TO SIGN THE GIVING PLEDGE!

Also, when anyone receives entitlements, compulsory civic service should be required, based on how much help they receive (i.e., between 30-50 hours a year). NO free lunches, but no severe suffering, either.

Every U.S. citizen needs access to healthcare, but the poorest can't afford it, so require compulsory civic service in exchange for the lowest quality care, and catastrophic insurance.

I oppose the selfish rich, but praise the philanthropic ones, and I'm against any rich who skirt our laws on paying their fair share in taxes, even when done legally, but unscrupulously, manipulating loopholes (which need to be ended) with lawyers and accountants.

I oppose over-paid executives and income inequality, especially multi-million dollar salaries for executives undeserved or unearned, just because a skewed market allows it for their peers.

I'm for a reasonable minimum wage. $15 an hour is not reasonable in most U.S. cities, if anywhere. I'm 100 percent for U.S. businesses succeeding, but NOT just executives and shareholders.

I'm for any unneeded regulations being eliminated, but for all regulations that protect the public and consumer and worker from harm or fraud.

I do NOT believe at-will abortions are moral, and am for religious liberty for ALL real (vs. tax-avoidingly fraudulent) religions, and NOT just for Christianity and WASPs.

I'm against corruption in D.C., and politicians on the take, and biased party loyalists who can't find common ground, as they never want to!

I'm for kicking all bums out when you properly define a bum, after having been warned to change or be fired—NOT just a blind and blanket 'draining the swamp' mentality!

I'm for America returning to number one status in all categories: Economics, military, education, morality, etc. ALL these positions I've held for eight+ years! You should too.

I'm against many blacks and other minorities remaining in poverty in ghettos and barrios and trailer parks IF they don't want to remain in those places!

I'm opposed to white privilege, as all races are equal. I'm against police brutality and against law-breaking and criminal behavior, and for law and order, and support of cops and our great military.

In short, I'm against status quo D.C., for all good policies, and against all bad ones. I am NOT for one party at the demise of the other, and am only loyal to good policies, wherever solutions and answers to problems can be found.

I will run for one party, because you have to, but believe in cooperation with reasonable people committed to finding common ground through common sense for the common good of America as a whole.

If you believe in these values, I hope you will vote for every "pledged politician" who commits to support such policies in 20/20! Bias and gridlock are NOT the way forward!

Here's what I HATE about the two political extremes: Wasteful spending, buying votes, breeding laziness or dependence and hurting business (on the left).

On the right, a business is god mentality that rewards already rich elites, hurts the working and middle class to profit the rich even more, caring nothing about our environment or animal abuses, or solving any problems if profit can't be had from that process, the greed is good mentality of selfishness, and trying to link these evil attitudes with either the U.S. Constitution, or especially Jesus Christ, in the form of WASP over-influence in supporting Trump!

Here's what I despise in any claiming moderates: NO convictions, just going along to get along (to keep a political career), and bad compromises.

With Trump, the GOP can NOT claim to be the party of thinking over emotion, morals, or party of religious right (vs. religious wrong). THAT's why I left them!

II-D2. ON ABORTION & GAY MARRIAGE

(See also: The Bible, Abortion & Homosexuality)

Any who have already read our book, Wit and Wisdom, or who saw it written live on Twitter know that I vigorously defended state's rights on nationalizing gay marriage, accepted the U.S. Supreme Court's (hereafter, "SCOTUS") decision when handed down, then just as vigorously defended the legal precedent argument when Justice Gorsuch was nominated. This is not just another lawyer able to argue both sides, as I did not switch my position, but stuck with what I believed to be right under polar opposite conditions (that being national gay marriage not being the national law, then being the national law).

Just like with Roe vs. Wade, the U.S. Supreme Court cannot go back-and-forth changing precedents upon every whim of society's majority, or rightly they lose credibility, and the Constitution means nothing, or whatever you want it to mean at any given whim or time. So, following is a brief summary of the main arguments I have made on both these issues which are so often used by the religious right to garner votes, as if no other policy matters need addressing in America:

Gay Marriage. Every human is created equal, and deserves to be treated with respect, and treated equally under our laws. Job, housing and other discriminations (especially violence) against the LGBTQ community should never be allowed or condoned by anyone. Christians are to show love for gay people, and our disagreement with anyone's behavior should never overshadow that love expression. God's view of homosexuality does not change, nor should a believer's, though we are called upon by God to obey governing authorities, and gay marriage is the law of the land.

I have also suggested that the following three religious liberty issues may be litigated in the future, based on gay marriage going national:

1. I do not believe any minister should ever be forced by law to conduct a gay wedding against his sincere conscience.
2. If a religious business owner's conscience does not allow him or her to participate in catering a gay wedding, if and only if there is a similar business within ten miles, I believe the U.S. Constitution may allow for his or her refusal to do so (i.e., the conscientious objector exception). If no such competitors exist within ten miles, they would not be allowed to refuse to provide a service to gay couples, based on an Equal Protection rationality.
3. And finally, I can see SCOTUS possibly finding a religious/conscientious objector exception to a sincere taxpayer refusing to allow his taxes to pay partner benefits (though this claim would be nearly impossible to enforce, as taxes do not get earmarked for given purposes or uses).

Abortion. I believe the government has a responsibility under our Constitution to keep women safe and protect their health. Therefore, Uncle Sam could even be partially liable for any harm or especially death which could come from dangerous, back alley coat hanger abortions. For this reason alone I do not favor Roe being overturned. However, I do favor as few abortions occurring as humanly possible, mainly through smart sex planning, education and fool-proof birth control. To take the life of an embryo is a heinous calamity, and the earlier that decision is made by the mother, the less suffering is felt through that procedure. I cannot say that all abortions are equally sinful, namely if done in cases of rape, incest or saving the life of the mother, but I do believe taking the morning after pill ASAP, for unplanned sex and/or pregnancies is a better choice, if one had no intention of becoming a parent in the first place.

Finally, abortion opponents (especially those against at-will abortions used for contraception, and among whom I am somewhat, on a personal vs. legal level), have several avenues open to them to help lessen the number of such occurring.

I have suggested on Twitter: Conversations with pregnant women (not just preaching to the choir, who already agree with you; that is, building relationships), peaceful, factual and respectful protests, showing abortion procedures on national TV to educate people as to the details of that decision), promoting adoption is an option, and I even commended a Catholic priest's use of an aborted fetus in his sermon (though stating a model of such would have been much more appropriate than the real thing).

As a side note, I had no problem with Texas using its state's rights to restrict the number of weeks a woman was given to decide to abort, or not, though I said such laws would likely face Constitutional challenges. I also argued against Texas restricting abortion providers to only those with hospital access, as I knew such antics were mainly being used to forbid a Constitutional right to abortion (as with targeting Planned Parenthood funding, as if everything they do for women is morally questionable, like screenings and other services). I've lived in Texas most of my life, and I also know how lawyer-politicians think!

I have also argued that banning all abortions would raise the following legal issues for red states (if SCOTUS ever overturned Roe, and sent it back to the states, in which case they could never overturn that decision again, for precedent reasons, which is why I believe they won't do so):

1. Red states banning all abortions would not be considering the possibly three exceptions, and doctors could never be put in a position to have to become prosecutors or investigators to determine the cause of any pregnancy.
2. Red states would have to allow their female citizens access to states where abortions could be had.
3. Red states would likely have to pay many if not all associated costs for their pregnant females seeking abortions elsewhere (including the procedure, doctor visits, and other pregnancy costs)
4. And finally, red states might incur legal liability and costs for harm and especially any deaths associated with attempted self-help abortions conducted within their jurisdiction.

It has been said, to have no critics, do and say nothing. With that adage, my tweets indicate I generate many critics, and here are some of their accusations I will again rebut, so the air gets let out of their sails before they try to resurrect them:

You were harsh on gays. In my vehement defense of state's rights for gay marriage, the only tweets any critic could ever find to make such a claim are the following three, which have a dash of entertainment thrown in to keep viewers interested in sometimes dry material. Do note, as always, our standard is, is it true—not is that how others might say it?:

1. I said in a Baylor speech class in 1978, if God had wanted all people to be gay, He would have made Adam and Steve (and the human race would end, with no procreation, as it is not biologically 'natural'). [Related confession: Since those days as a late teenager, I have grown up, and clearly see that things like football players I heard of shooting buck shot at gays in Montrose were quite evil, and had that happened today, I would have turned them into the police].

2. Excrement is not lubricant [a factual if not somewhat inappropriate statement].
3. Some liberals are in favor of abort like a sport, and gay is O.K. [another factual statement].

Finally, I also used the colorful, if not 'inappropriate' hashtag, #humptherump, using rhymes to entertain and garner interest (which is hard to do with bland posts, especially of a political nature).

Related Tweets

I also said that homosexuality is only one of about 20 abominations listed in Levit. 18, and NOT the only one, and that gays, today, are not usually in your face, as in the Sodom & Gomorrah days! (2/23/15)

I also said that you can't often change gay people into being straight, even with Christian counseling. I also said not all gays are unsaved (i.e., non-Christians). I knew a fellow brother (my wife's friend). (2/23/15)

Laws SHOULD be based on morals, and it's NOT moral to refuse service to gays. At the same time, no one should have to participate their business in a gay event if it violates their religious conscience, UNLESS there' no similar business within ten miles. Good laws encourage compliance; others, civil disobedience! Duh 101. (11/10/16)

Why don't politically-active WASP pastors just tell gays they hate them? Stop all the innuendos, and dancing around the topic! They don't have the b__s to engage them in conversations, and tell the TRUTH that they rile up NON-thinking Christians to vote GOP based on Obergefell and Roe. Christ-like? I don't think so!

White, politically conservative Christian... PLEASE tell me how gays negatively affect your daily life! You do NOT have to agree with their lifestyle, or think it virtuous, but if you want to discriminate, or forbid them enjoying life equal to yours, tell me the BIBLICAL basis for those evil desires of yours! (10/9/18)

NO white U.S. Christian has the courage of their convictions to be clamoring for gay marriages to be undone, legally (forced 'divorces'). Instead, they surreptitiously do so by stacking SCOTUS, contrary to what judges are to be. THAT is the sins of deception and timidity, from fear of the majority. (10/9/18)

GAY MARRIAGE

Obergefell is the law of the land, and legal precedent. No one should discriminate against any LGBTQ person, as we are all created equal. The only outstanding legal issues to be decided are:

- Whether a business owner with a sincere religious objection can legally decline catering a gay wedding if a competitor business exists within ten miles or less.
- Whether a business owner can legally refuse to hire a gay person due to close physical proximity work conditions at the job site.
- Whether any citizen can raise a conscientious objection to a portion of their taxes going to pay for gay partner benefits, and,
- Whether pastors could ever be forced to conduct gay weddings against their sincere religious conscience.

Note: There were three specific, more entertaining word picture (or rhyming) phrases we used in our arguing, which, if our critics bring them up, will prove to others how closely they watched our Twitter account.

For more insights on this issue, please read Wit and Wisdom: Don't Speak About Politics or Religion.

ABORTION

Roe is the law of the land, and legal precedent, and has been for nearly 40 years.

If Roe were to ever be overturned, it would be for a serious legal change of circumstances, and even if it were (which I am not for), red states would have to:

- Provide out-of-state access for their female citizens to the procedure,
- Likely have to pay for all medical and travel costs, and
- Have to pay all legal costs for injuries or deaths caused by back alley, coat hanger abortions.
- If a person wants to lessen the number of abortions, teach reproductive planning, and push for fool proof contraception. You can also speak with pregnant women about adoption as an adoption, and educate people about the details of abortion procedures.

For more insights on this issue, please read Wit and Wisdom: Don't Speak About Politics or Religion.

[Have evangelicals... always voted for the candidate that says they are pro-life and appoint conservative Supreme Court justices:] No, no, that is not what we have always done. What we have always done is vote in a fallen world for fallen candidates in a fallen political construct and done the best we could.... I could not possibly be consistent and somehow vote for someone whose character I believe eclipses Bill Clinton on so many of those very same concerns. Someone who has bragged about his adulterous affairs, someone who has given himself to the pornographic industry, basically to a form of the sex trade, and let's just go on. ...When you have someone who is standing up race baiting, racist speech, using immigrants and others in our communities in the most horrific ways and we say 'that doesn't matter' and we are part of the global body of Christ simply for the sake of American politics, and we expect that we are going to be able to reach the nations for Christ? –Dr. Albert Mohler (President of Southern Baptist theological Seminary; <http://bit.ly/2aHyC5G>)

II-F1. ON MORALS

You will give the people an ideal to strive towards...
In time you will help them accomplish wonders. –Man of Steel (movie)
There are rules in this world. We may not know, like or agree with them (and some may have exceptions), but they do exist.

A life lived for others is a well-lived life. –Nelson Mandela’s grandson “Morals” could be defined as rules of right and wrong behavior, attitudes, intentions, motives and priorities. We may try to convince ourselves they don’t exist, or are all subjective, but the following short list demonstrates how morals affect most of the areas of our lives (even if we keep them religiously neutral).

MORALS &...

Business: Ex.: Undercover Boss TV show; truth in advertising laws, usury, price gauging, implied warranties, fraud and deceptive trade practices, collusion, monopolies, etc.

Charity: Ex.: Secret Millionaire.

Relationships & Family: Ex.: Steve Harvey’s new show, The Nanny, Trading Spouses, etc.

Manners vs. Rude Behavior: Ex.: Ladies first, age before beauty, elbows off the table.

Personal Finance: Ex.: Being cheap, frugal or a ‘skin flint’ vs. buying smart, etc.

Traffic: Ex.: Road rage, slower traffic keep right, speeding, texting while driving, etc.

Sales: Ex.: Making people think their asset is less valuable than it is (lying), feigning interest in the customer, getting people to say yes, yes, yes—then comes the ‘hook,’ etc.

Advertising: Ex.: “Common courtesy” (Frost Bank), Responsibility—What’s your policy? (Liberty Mutual), etc.

Political Correctness: Ex.: Never offend and always be nice and positive.

Different Cultures (i.e., travel and international relations): Ex.: Crossed legs showing shoe’s sole offends some (Cambodia), the ugly (brash) American, mistresses in France, etc.

Idioms: Ex.: Two heads are better, never give a sucker an even break, if you have nothing nice to say, don’t say anything at all. See also: <http://AmericanAnswers.org>

Sports: Ex.: Show good sportsmanship, dictatorial/bossy high school coaches, no taunting or excessive celebrating (i.e., ‘rubbing it in’ or piling on), no spearing (helmets used as some New Orleans Saints players did).

Vacations: Ex.: Helping a drowning person; often drunkenness, sex and over-eating.

Boating: Ex.: No wake zones, no drinking and boating, etc.

Lawyers: Ex.: Badgering the witness, asked and answered, leading the witness, etc.

Legislation & Public Policy: Ex.: What constitutes torture?, morality of green technology (vs. pollution or wasted resources), are preemptive strikes justified?, globalization as treason against one’s fellow citizens?, wasting money/bloated budgets, gay marriage, legalized abortion, Welfare as compassion for the poor?, war, peace or appeasement, etc.

Political Tricks: See: <http://AmericanAnswers.org>

Crimes All of them obviously involve crossed moral laws.

News Events: Ex.: Teachers having sex with students, school shootings, etc.

TV shows: Ex.: FCC cuss words on prime time TV, morals espoused on the ex-Oprah Show, Dr. Phil, Jerry Springer, etc.

Movies: Ex.: R- and XXX-rated movies.

In summary—if you think about it—sin and moral decisions are everywhere in our everyday lives.

SAMPLE MORALS:

(APPLICABLE TO POLITICS)

Faith. Versus gullibility, ignorance, naiveté and only logic. (Pv. 14:15; 8:5; 10:21; I Cor. 1:25)

Love. Versus only emotional “luv,” nicey-niceness, or hate). (I Cor. 13:4-8a; I Jn. 5:3; Ecc. 7:16)

Forgiveness. Issues: Mere forgetfulness or ‘moving on?’ [No]. Turn the other cheek as proper military behavior toward an enemy? (Mt. 18:21-22; 6:14-15)

Patience. Distinguished from the other virtue of making the most of your time. (Phil. 4:6-7; Lk. 19:5; Eph. 5:16)

Lying (& White Lies). Versus the truth. (Eph. 4:25, etc.) Issues: Military propaganda strategy toward an enemy?

Anger. Versus passive tolerance and distinguished from righteous anger/indignation. (Jas. 1:19-20; Eph. 4:26, etc.)

Homosexuality. Love the sinner, hate the sin, versus hating the homosexual, or arrogantly judging them, as if you are without sin. (Levit. 18:22; Rom. 1: 24-32; Mk. 12:28-31, etc.)

Helping the Poor. Versus supporting laziness or abusing or ignoring the poor. (Ps. 72:13, etc.)

NOTE: For a full list and explanations, See: The New Millennium Commentary: New Testament (our Bible exposition book, rough-draft complete but expected out in 2030).

FAB FOUR AMERICAN VALUES

1. Money & Possessions. See: The Bible on Money; See also: “Giving & Use of Money,” at WillYouLiveForever.org.

2. Sex. (The book of Song of Solomon; I Cor. 7:1-7; Heb. 13:4, etc.)

3. Work/Employment. (Col. 3:23-24, etc.)

4. Entertainment. (Properly Used–I Cor. 10:31; I Tim. 6:17; improperly Abused–I Cor. 15:32-33; I Pet. 4:3-5, etc.)

(5) [Often omitted] Service of Mankind. (& Ministry, if a believer; See also: WillYouLiveForever.org). (Phil. 2:3-11, etc.)

Summary: Unfortunately, in practice, these values often serve as the idol of serving ‘self’ as number one.

II-F2. COMMON SENSE MORALS (idioms often express morals)

It is curious that physical courage should be so common in the world and moral courage so rare.
—Mark Twain

As much as some people in America believe morals are only subjective, or relative, even our own culture has behavior standards it often reinforces through commonly used idioms. For example...

Accountability.

Hold their feet to the fire.

Balance.

Do not judge until you have heard both sides of the argument. —Greek proverb Boundaries/Rules.

Beyond the pale.

Crossed the line.

Enough is enough.

Play by the rules.

Civility.

There is nothing lost by civility.

Compassion.

Walk a mile in another man's moccasins.

Compromise.

II-G1. CHRISTIAN CABAL CALAMITIES (PART I)

(11/6/16)

I'm 100 percent tired of law guilt-trips by TrumPastors who say vote GOP if you're saved, due to abortion! Black Christians are sinful? WHAT a farce and a LIE!

I've heard more about abortion from Christian 'leaders' in the past two weeks than in the entire past TEN years, COMBINED. WASP TrumPastors want you to vote for Chump!

Why are TrumPastors HYPOCRITICALLY NOT saying they want gay marriages overturned (i.e., government-forced divorce)? HYPOCRISY CHECK, and AGENDA EXPOSED!

Coming out of the closet, some TrumPastors mouth 'abortion' like illegal immigrant haters in Houston did with the word "migrano." One-word, knee-jerk reactions.

The ONLY GOP candidate who said "punish the aborter," PROVING he knew NOTHING of topic is now TrumPastor's hero? That's PROOF they'd vote for a trained parrot saying "pro-life!"

(Jas. 4:6) God does NOT reward sin, or an arrogant sin flaunter—the Devil does—TrumPastors. You'd THINK you'd know that from the start! Read more Bible, and sermon prep less.

And why is it TrumPastors seem to ONLY believe the Bible addresses sex sins, and only two of them? FoxNews, their media, adulterers and fornicates, no problem?

The divorce rate is greater than 50 percent. I hear NOTHING from TrumPastors on that. I guess with Jimmy Swaggart, prostitution and Johns was off limits for them to decry, too?

TrumPastors apparently don't fear they will be judged by God for their abandoning morality 'in Jesus' name' in 2016? Why would people believe their sermons, now?

If TrumPastors can't see their ministry credibility is at stake/on the line, being avidly for the most evil president in 50 years, you're dumber than I ever thought!

Are all aborters guilty of a sin before God? Same sin guilty if for rape, incest or to save the life of the mother? Why weren't these questions asked by TrumPastors?

LISTEN NOW! Do you hear TrumPastors speak on homosexuality or abortion often? Babies killed in the womb are only bad every four years? Hypocrisy.

CHRISTIAN CABAL CALAMITIES (PART II)

(11/6/16)

It's GREAT that the Christian Cabal held a forum to draw attention to persecuted Christians! They could have done that under ANY past president, and care about others too vs. Christians only!

Christians are brain-washed that liberals are 100 percent evil. Let's assume you can find an evil liberal... HOW would Jesus treat them? Isolate, and treat them as their enemy? (Mt. 11:19)

Media: Poll NON-Christians to see what percent increased their respect for the 'morality' of Cabal pastors from their advocating for Trump. It would be eye-opening!

He needs all the prayer he can get, because you know God has closed His ears to one such as himself!
<http://bit.ly/2zzAvM8> It won't help much for the God-spurner.

Do U.S. citizens who are NOT Christians want their president advised or prayed for mainly by Christians? Any political side's media should poll this question!

Pastors are praying PUBLICLY for Trump to get the media to film it, so Christians believe they are to vote for him. That's OPPOSITE of Matthew 6:5! A partial P.R. stunt, and vain for Donny!

Would the Christian Cabal have treated Hitler as they do Trump? There are MANY moral similarities. Hypocrisy is a sin in your Bible, pastors!

God sovereignly allows people who are in office. That does NOT mean He condones them all! He NEVER told Christians to support evil in order to gain secular power!

Zech. 4:6 is how God operates. Manipulating red meat issues, and P.R. stunts are how the Christian Cabal achieved their baby boomer win! That's NOT morality!

God does NOT reward bad behavior. Franklin Graham said God caused Trump's win. I say the Devil did it under God's sovereignty. Who's right, to you, as you open your Bible?

Every God-fearing person knows Trump exhibited the opposite of Christ-like behavior consistently as his qualifications. Only fools support that!

Christians for Ronald Reagan made sense, for the most part. Christians For Trump were the largest hypocrisy the world has seen in 40+ years! Repent, Cabal pastors!!!

[Interjection: I'm calling you out for your biased lies in the next five tweets or so, if you can handle the TRUTH <http://bit.ly/2h6iBKd> @MarkSteynOnline Secular elites vs. Christians?

#FoxNews does NOT represent Jesus any more than any other media source! They want to DUPE dumber Christians into believing they do! They are to REPORT the news!

Under the U.S. Constitution, ALL media is secular @MarkSteynOnline USA is NOT a theocracy, and 'elites' often just means one smarter than your targeted viewer].

Here's how the Christian Cabal gets news coverage NOT on Christian TV and radio stations: Through Todd Starnes via Prestonwood Baptist Church!

If any mainstream media had shown a Muslim praying for Trump, the Christian Cabal would have cried 'foul,' and government establishing Islam by the persecuting media!

A committed Christian would be disobeying God and stupid to ONLY listen to Hannity or FoxNews! God is NOT biased, nor does He hate knowledge! Repent!

Franklin Graham said U.S. Christians are being persecuted, to which the Huffington Post ROASTED such a notion when we can nearly do any God-obeying we choose.

Ignorance, stupidity, lack of facts, naiveté, gullibility, bias, etc. are ALL sins, in the Bible! Fox leans right, the mainstream leans left. Everyone needs balance!

I chuckle at the Christian Cabal praying for Trump, as it's like Dr. Frankenstein seeking lightening to breathe life into his monster, in the movie, Young Frankenstein.

The media and intellectual elites are Fox's advice for Trump to label? Stupidity and their alt-right bias has him as their savior? Certainly it is NOT the real Jesus, U.S. church!

The media is of the Devil. Every news report is fake/a lie. They're out to eat Christians. If you believe this, DONT call yourself a Christian, please!

The media's job is to be objective, and report FACTS. They all spin right or left, but they RARELY lie. CNN on the Ukraine is about the first time in any major way!

Christians in America have a public stereotype of being judgmental hypocrites who hate science and any evidence that counters any of their beliefs. That DIS-honors God!

There is a DIRECT link in the Christian Cabal, and I'll teach you all the details and history from first-hand experience through latest book's completion.

Jack Graham and Robert Jeffress were competitors, of sorts, for a time, but have now united to fawn over the most wicked president in our generation (i.e., The Cabal)!

I found this interesting OLD article with @Franklin_Graham WATCH how he lies with a wink-wink that he doesn't endorse a party: <http://bit.ly/2yINpbm> LIES!

His DAD (a true hero) actually was independent, as God is, and even Tony Evans said Christians ought to be, because NEITHER party has a lock on God's values.

The Christian Cabal, which Frank is a part of, SAYS they don't endorse, and do everything in their power to publicly show any and everyone they are GOP Kool-Aid drinkers!

From Ronald Reagan's day, Samantha Bee showed an old video that documented that it was political STRATEGY to find issues that would HOOK Christians to the GOP, and life became issue number one.

What Christian can be for death? This Cabal of old-timers is horrifiedly fearful that Obergefell took one of their only two red meat issues off the table (which it DID!).

So abortion is their renewed and only shtick. Watch the "logic" of Franklin claiming that God brought America Trump: <http://wapo.st/2inzp0r> That's being AMAZINGLY deceived!

He's gleeful God did a miracle of letting a man spurn Him repeatedly and still win. Hey Frank—God does NOT bless sin, the Devil does! That's do-do thinking!

God ALLOWS everyone who gets into power, but that does NOT mean He endorses them all. WHAT SEMINARY DID YOU GO TO? Ask your DAD for advice next time!

Then I discover he has had it in for Obama for YEARS, as to his faith. NOTE to Franklin Graham: God does NOT require a Christian to head every nation!

NO WONDER @MittRomney LOST! People like you, @Franklin_Graham, use innuendo to teach dummies that Christians can ONLY vote for evangelical Christians. LIAR! We need the best available character!

And Christian Cabal member @RobertJeffress ADDED to that LIE in opposing @MittRomney until that 'pastor's' political opportunism forced him to flip-flop. That's core values? NO!

These old-time Christians TRULY want a theocracy, but they'll never verbally admit it, lest the law steal their tax-free retail religious businesses!

Let's use a consistency vs. hypocrisy test: Is that handful of pastors in the Christian Cabal seeking to return to at-fault divorce, blue laws, gambling bans, prayer or evolution in public school, opposing inter-racial marriage, ending prostitution and human trafficking, discrimination against gays worldwide (or just persecuted Christians)?

NO! They can ONLY cling to stacking SCOTUS to overturn Roe, as the remaining red meat issue for political gain! That's judicial activism that conservatives claim to hate! HYPOCRISY!

Then I found an article where Ralph Reed ties Christians to the GOP, as do all these hacks claiming Jesus' blessing: <http://wapo.st/2ivFN8h> That's party idolatry!

I read another article where a few such types met to identify Christian political values in 2016. If you have to decide what to politically care about, you NEVER cared about it before.

Only when VOTES were needed! That FACT is obvious, even to the stupidest Trump voter! It's Samantha Bees referenced meeting before Reagan deja vu!

In short, NEITHER party has a monopoly on godly values! The GOP favors the rich and big business, CONTRARY to Levit. 19:15, and helps the poor ONLY with words of best of luck (JUST LIKE Jas. 2:16), as public policy, even though Gal. 6:2 and 5 both exist in BALANCE, as with Lk. 19:8 for the Giving Pledge, and Lk. 12:48.

And Democrats are for solving problems you can't make a profit off, for the little guy, the poor, the elderly, the sick... sort of like the Savior the Christian Cabal claims!

And for diplomacy before military might, for workers and human rights, dealing with pollution vs. ignoring it for profits, and for curbing animal abuse (Pv. 12:10).

And if you read Mt. 22:37, you could NEVER encourage a TRUE Christian to be stupid in what they believe, yet this Cabal encourages considering all but alt-right news media to be "fake." That is propagating MYTHS... something God OPPOSES (Jn. 8:32; I Tim. 4:7).

ONLY a lie detector could tell us exactly what GOP beliefs this Christian Cabal REALLY holds as a deal breaker for party loyalty, but I suppose the church being in the hip pocket of selfishness and greed with taxes would NOT be far down the list, if truth be known!

WHERE has this Cabal been in deed or word on ALL political issues that involve moral values? ASLEEP!

That's EXACTLY why national gay marriage passed! They were chasing being millionaires, even as "EDBS" priorities historically waned in their church practice!

Roe being on the books had NOTHING to do with that! And Mitt Romney would NOT have been as pro-abortion as Obama, yet they opposed him too for awhile.

Their CLAIM is hatred of baby killing in the womb, and I'm sure there's SOME truth to that, but it's BIGger than that!

If you can let me be rich and keep it all (as much as humanly possible), I'll rile up the troops and claim Jesus is on my side! Word to the Cabal: HE IS NOT IN YOUR TACTICS! The Devil IS.

When Christian Cabal pastors had the chance to influence voters concerning who would be the GOP nominee, they were SILENT on moral matters! Even when Trump paraded sin! Crickets!

You think God caused Trump? God allowed him, to expose the idolatry and moral linguistic spine of men claiming to lead for Him! Hard word for you men, today.

And DON'T BE DECEIVED: Even now those seven or eight men are doing everything in their power to lure Christians to re-vote for Chump in 2020 (even though one of the main ones agreed with our political ideas, and believed God led me into politics, and twice sought my running for office)! WATCH THEIR LIVES!

Here are the Christian Cabal members: Franklin and Jack Graham, Robert Jeffress, Ralph Reed, James Robison and Dobson, Jay Sekulow, Ronnie Floyd and Liberty University's president.

That last one was picked SOLELY for name recognition to old Christians (Jerry Falwell JUNIOR). I had never even heard of him, and I'm we;-versed in Christian leaders!

This Cabal TRIED to paint Trump as the reincarnation of Ronald Reagan, but even Trump voters weren't stupid enough to bite, so they have a ~two-hour meeting, and advise him to say he's a "baby Christian," so Christians will vote for him!

Again, Obama a Muslim, Mitt NOT a good man because he's Mormon, to these types of Christian so-called "leaders." THESE ARE THE LESSONS THE CHRISTIAN CABAL DESIRE CHRISTIAN VOTERS TO BELIEVE! Lies!

Or that Jesus requires a Christian in every U.S. political slot! LIES! God only cares about a Christian NOT marrying outside their faith, NOT avoiding voting for the best qualified based on religious bias!

And as to the 'Trump is a Christian' bull crud: 1. No one but God knows for sure; 2. That Cabal would never say anything but, as it suits their political purposes;

3. No one is a Christian who has never asked God's forgiveness for all their sins, much less never having asked His forgiveness for anything (i.e., arrogance)! Let us all hear his conversion testimony, with zero coaching beforehand from that Cabal!

4. I have been in evangelism likely as much as any other U.S. Christian layman, and you KNOW from experience that God's sovereign conviction cannot be called into play by your choosing, or in your timing.

You hope and pray it comes, but RARELY does it come at such a politically opportune time as when Trump's numbers were in the tank.

It's the same CHARLETAN chameleon opportunism that ONE YEAR after Obergefell said the Sunday NIGHT BEFORE a conservative state's primary that he opposed that decision.

ONE YEAR late, sort of like his opposing abortion after over 65 years of being for it. It's called political opportunism, my Christian brothers!

And HOW does any U.S. Christian retain a good reputation to be so duped and deceived as to support evil that good may come, CONTRARY to Rom 6:1? ONLY fools could!

The argument got raised that Hillary was worse. Worse character? NOT in her campaign! Worse policies? Can God handle politicians with policies He doesn't approve?

Is the Christian Cabal's faith not exactly as they accuse liberals: In man and government vs. God? Their "faith" is TOTALLY wrapped up in The Don!

And the star struck glare of media lights has gone to some of their heads! JUST as conservatives accuse Muslims of being silent as radicals hijack their religion, I'm HOPING the majority of U.S. pastors see this Christian Cabal for what they are, but choose NOT to "divide," but speak against them for moral motives!

They LOVE media attention! They're EXPERTS on producing productions that can garner media attention, and when it extends beyond FoxNews, they're ELATED!

DID JESUS COME HERE TO HAVE A SECULAR KINGDOM the first time? Will He reign in the Millennium through the Christian Cabal's efforts? NO on BOTH counts!

America is NOT a theocracy. If Christians want Christian values to reign in politics, CONVINCE YOUR NEIGHBORS to your point of view in majority numbers!

That's how the sacred U.S. Constitution the religious right conservatives claim to love works, and for them, the Bible is supposed to weigh even heavier! In many ways, it does NOT!

Again I repeat: WATCH THOSE seven to eight MEN'S LIVES! ASK them where the clamoring is to protect the persecuted of ALL faiths, or to reinstate at-fault divorce, etc.!

ASK them if they want Obergefell overturned 20 years from now, just as they waited 40 years wanting Roe undone.

Ask them if Uncle Sam should force a dad to choose his unborn baby over his wife; if rape or incest victims are required to carry the memory of such abuse all nine months, by law.

ASK them if they're O.K. if back alley coat hanger abortions kill anyone, if that's a Christian virtue, when they claim life is the top value. MAKE THEM TALK!

DON'T let them do any deeds in the shadows of church buildings and Christian gatherings. The media ought to follow them like white on rice! (Eph. 5:11; Ac. 26:26)

Time to go to bed. If you know that 81 percent of U.S. Christians were duped into Trump support, tarnishing Jesus' reputation, and you are good with that, DON'T call yourself a Christian!

P.S.: When your favorite book is the Bible, and you call Second Corinthians 'Two Corinthians,' maybe it's just your favorite bedside table memento!

When your favorite Bible verse is eye for an eye, but Jesus said Mt. 5:38, maybe your Christian faith isn't as claimed. When you call the Lord's Supper my little wafer and wine, maybe you don't fear I Cor. 11:30.

When you say you're a Christian, then one year later say you're a baby Christian (i.e., you just became one), IT DOESNT WORK IN REVERSE! One of those is a lie, if not both, DONNIE!

And when your own pastor hardly knows you, that's NOT a great record of valuing church attendance! And when you LEAD in public displays of vulgarity, cussing, insults, arrogance, violent threats, ignorance, adultery and divorce, DONT SO LIE AGAINST THE TRUTH, and claim Jesus put you on the throne, Christian Cabal!

You have to understand one small thing: Jeffress and Graham are in over their heads, with no turning back! Those two alone have sunk everything and their reputation into Donnie working out!

They THOUGHT they had such convincing power that they could mold him into their desired image. It hasn't worked out too well, due to Jer. 13:23.

You can't put lipstick on a pig, and get the majority of Americans to call it a beauty! Those two men have staked their lives on a Trump's re-election; that's DUMB.

It's ALL for stacking SCOTUS for conservative causes! Judicial activism. NEVER believe liars, or men with agendas they're too scared to state publicly, for any reason, even if they claim it's based on laws (i.e., the Johnson Amendment), endorsing by innuendo, lying about their candidates' greatness, etc. And ALWAYS FOLLOW THE MONEY TRAIL.

One update: TBN, CBN and Acts Network (i.e., Christian media) have ALWAYS craved legitimacy outside of Christian circles! EXPECT the Christian Cabal to show up there REGULARLY!

And EXPECT the Christian Cabal to make the rounds on Christian radio and TV; maybe even magazines. They want you to believe they are the churches "leaders," but they have NO monopoly!

And has anyone addressed how the LARGE black and Hispanic Church views the self-appointed Christian Cabal members claiming to speak exclusively for Jesus?

Speaking of flip-flops, @Franklin_Graham said Christians in the U.S. are under persecution. LIE! <http://bit.ly/2i1ZE1a> You can do EDBS priorities legally (and should), if you'd choose to!

The Bible NOWHERE teaches Christians to adopt a victim mentality! (II Tim. 1:7, et al) That's EXACTLY what conservatives accuse liberals of having! HYPOCRISY watch!!!

Rom. 8:37; Phil. 4:13; Eph. 3:20, @Franklin_Graham And READ the book of Acts! THAT is persecution. Look the word up in the dictionary! QUIT the FAKE whining!

JUST LIKE @ToddStarnes MIS-spoke at the Christian Cabal headquarters that Hillary called GOP's "unredeemable," hocking his book.

'Unredeemable' means condemned to Hell, with no hope for conversion. 'Deplorable' means detestable. Words MEAN things, except to Chump and his fawners!

Is any public servant going to DO THEIR JOB and take away tax-exempt status when Christian Cabal pastors advocate for the GOP in their churches? @TheJusticeDept

The Christian Cabal is FULL-TIME singing each other's praises, and patting themselves on the back. If you only knew about THIS guy!: <http://fxn.ws/2tQckYf>

Even Pat Robertson's ex co-anchor came to Prestonwood Baptist to speak. The Christian Cabal is the most incestuously tight group of a small number of ministries!

There are MANY skeptics and doubters, so we document and prove our claims here. Regarding the past post on the Christian Cabal's connections: <http://bit.ly/2z4oLJN>

The Christian Cabal's public political productions/shows now seem to have keyed in on ONLY one Reagan-era male Christian musician (and a hero of mine). Hint: MWS.

Their method was to re-create Reagan's win! They dragged Jerry Falwell's memory from the grave, by tapping an obscure son few had heard of, too!

The least of the three preaching pastors at Cabal headquarters told me, "image is everything." The Cabal wants Christians to think they speak for all Christians! You call that mirage, "image!"

That's the SAME THING they did to try to lessen my private exhorting their headmaster to make all the changes of past seven years. ATT Stadium will shut him up, they must have thought. NOT!

Drops in the bucket are NOT praise-worthy for all other pastors who do so little, even in their own fields! God doesn't command shows, but Great Commission completion!

The Cabal even hosted a FEW revival prayer meetings I was sure to see (at the Cabal headquarters and my alma mater, et al) AS IF revival was being addressed, and not also a private political organizing agenda!

This SMALL group of men LOVE to think appearances are reality! If we do a little, but publicize/advertise it much, people will think things are happening. That's called deception!

Even at the Cabal headquarters (one of two), NOT every nearby lost person has heard Gospel in past three years! They DID have three years of effort nearby, though!

One day I joined that work. They gave us a bag full of church marketing materials. I tossed it in the trash and went evangelizing.

God won one woman through me, so I took her name to the staffer who had helped prompt my having to sign a contract to never name that church online, and told him I used NONE of the materials, and they needed to go follow up on her. My oldest son can attest, as he was with me. She worked as a nanny at that home. #Proof/evidence Franklin Graham has used his great father's fame to push for Trump. Billy can't speak much now, but he was NEVER so partisan. GREAT FAILure of reputation!

Franklin has been here at my Twitter account(s) MANY times! I'm calling for LIE DETECTORS when I say things like that, as ministers lie when their reputations are at stake. Jesus is secondary, in such evil decisions!

Do you know ANY other religion where religious heads SO desire fame, fortune and acceptance by the mainstream media (vs. second-hand stepchild status)? NO!

I hear FEW clerics, rabbis+ seeking TV networks, millionaire status, etc. THIS GUY dominates the Christian Cabal's morals! <http://abcn.ws/2v7gX2h>

READ this, and always follow the money trail! Why have several mega pastors attacked me over saying tithing is not required of Christians? <http://cnn.it/UbukZU>

You learn for yourself! Get a Concordance, and look up 'tithe/tithing' in the New Testament. It peaks of Pharisees and Abraham—NOT Christians. (II Cor. 8-9 is our instruction). Even Rev. John MacArthur agrees.

The tithe was often more than ten percent, and paid for MORE than just the Levite's pay and for synagogues; it was a theocratic tax (as we use for Welfare), and helped the poor. LEARN, Christians!

But with the church-as-a-business model, post-1990s, tithing is the fastest way to get rich if you open a mega church in a rich neighborhood!

You gore their ox and idol to teach such truth. THAT's why they get upset! Truth is sometimes less valued than profits. Keep up the good work, gentlemen!: <http://bit.ly/2yNotS6> <http://bit.ly/2yLFNGT>

What political party would you expect die-hard tithing teachers to choose, even if its top figurehead demonstrated the OPPOSITE morality of Jesus?

Hint: NOT the party that has actually passed legislation that helps the poor and working class laborers. Jesus, friend of the top one percent? (Lk. 6:24)

And have you noticed that evangelicals (of which I am one) believe they represent ALL American Christians, especially Southern Baptists (of which I am one). ARROGANCE sin!

CHRISTIAN CABAL CALAMITIES (PART III)

(7/18/17)

INSTEAD of improving society by training up holier people, starting with evangelism, the Christian Cabal decided to gamble on stacking SCOTUS! UN-biblical!

The failure of the U.S. church to impact society, as pastors chased mega bucks through mega churches since 1985, is why our society goes to Hell in a hand basket.

The Christian Cabal hosted a small group meeting to decide what political issues Christians should be concerned with. This was LATE in the election season.

That PROVES they were ASLEEP AT THE WHEEL, and dis-engaged beforehand, for they didn't even know what issues to be for or against, so they obviously hadn't been working on them before identifying them!

Mega mania, church-as-a-business and attraction theories are why pastors have so many public arena losses on their watch since Reagan's day! Snoozin'!

Many Christians wouldn't vote for Mitt Romney due to his Mormon faith. God NOWHERE says an evangelical must be who Christians vote for! Myths and lies from God's people?

Romney IS a moral man. Trump is a moral failure. Christians went for the latter? THAT IS THE DEFINITION OF APOSTASY! Prophecy moved one step forward!

Any pastor who HATES what I write, show me in the Bible where anyone but you in the USA is more responsible for the spiritual condition of Christian laymen. CRICKETS.

Revival will NOT come to America. It COULD, but God's leaders are NOT prioritizing EDBS church practice for Churchianity, and mega mania's preach-and-be-paid philosophy.

What two verses could BEST describe the average pastor's business model? Mal. 3:10 and Heb. 10:25, "AS IF" those are the main verses in the Bible. What a (bad) joke!

Christianity is a 24/7 empowered walk with Jesus. Churchianity is two hours a weekend, hearing your human chaperone mediator between God and you. One is an ERROR!

The Apostle Paul worked bi-vocationally, and out-ministered every U.S. pastor but maybe Billy Graham. THAT's why priorities get neglected: 'Gotta make budget.

When making the church budget is your number one concern, OPPOSITE of Mt. 6, you do what keeps customers coming and paying, vs. discipleship and evangelism!

Church growth methods, and flavor-of-the-month spiritual trends in the 1990's were MAINLY to get more churchgoers, so salaries and church budgets would rise.

CHRISTIAN CABAL CALAMITIES (PART IV)

(10/29/17)

Serious b_stardizing of Christianity on the 'best of Hannity' radio replay (Heb. 12:8), saying spiritual warfare is the same as political warfare. Sean is CLUELESS! One battles demons, sometimes. His LIE is that all Democrats have (or are) demons, and all GOP's are Christians, which he himself is UNSure the theology of, as our next tweet shows...

Speaking with Phil Robertson (who knew his theology WELL), Hannity says he'll still go to Hell if Phil doesn't get around to baptizing Sean (but NOT in an alligator-filled river). That's baptismal regeneration, and works, Sean; something you should understand! EVIL confusion (I Cor. 14:33), and mixing politics with false theology!

The DUMBED-down Christian is how talk radio gets away with such bull-honky. Confused on salvation requirements, the purpose of baptism, what spiritual warfare is, and a belief God chose/ordained Trump (though Hitler was elected, too—God only ALLOWS such things!). Discipleship is SO lacking—just political brain-washing! And wasn't he a Catholic, anyway? Why would he now seek water baptism? ~Odd.

Update #1: Christian Cabal Craziess

(10/30/17; 2:30 am)

From a RIGHTFULLY guilty conscience, the Christian Cabal feels the need to justify Trump support by touting ANY victory for the (evangelical WASP) Church. NOWHERE in Scripture did Jews or Christians curry favor with evil rulers, to selfishly benefit God's people. REAL prophets (like John the REAL Baptist) reprovved such men—NOT these "profits!"

Chump's laid-on hands public prayer somehow brought God back into the public life? What a JOKE! That changed NOTHING, but pomp and circumstance for TV to DUPE dumber Christians. God's ALWAYS in life, no matter what P.R. charades these cons pull (and I DON'T mean 'conservatives,' abbreviated!).

Now America can say merry Christmas? NOTHING changed! We always could, and where employees couldn't, that HASNT changed one iota (a term that Cabal might know, IF they ever read the whole counsel of God).

Maybe now persecuted Christians in Arab lands will get food faster than with the U.N.? THAT is good! Private or public—whichever is BEST!

Chump's Iran deal balking is SYMBOLISM pawned off on Congress to decide. If the U.S. pulls out, Iran WILL pursue nukes, so the ONLY answer was to delay the inevitable, which I suggested YEARS ago... a preemptive strike on their capabilities IF they won't re-negotiate a deal to avoid their pursuit.

I was against Obama's deal, but once it was negotiated, you have to see if they comply, while never taking preemptive striking off the table.

How about WASP pastors able, by "edict" of the great false king, to endorse the GOP (i.e., the Johnson Amendment)? That's unity of the WHOLE church, and progress? It's not even real! It is NO legal authority, so these pastors AREN'T doing it, as lawsuits would surely ensue, as David French rightly noted.

How about life begins at conception language by the HHS? Is language actionable 'progress?' Does it change one thing? But with this bunch, symbolism is success, because substance takes REAL work, and law-making!

How about Gorsuch? I didn't much care if it was he or Garland, so long as the Court remains objective, the ideal being four conservatives, four liberals, and one tie-breaking centrist, so no problem, either way.

These insecure men will TRY to sell their mantra of 'best president for the Church—ever,' using THIS evidence, and since their crowds are dumbed-down by hanging on their every word (vs. thinking for themselves), they have ripe fruit for such delusion—a virtue only to the Devil—NOT God.

Have Trumpie give his personal salvation testimony—UNCOACHED! This bunch has ZERO sense that DT's LOW approval ratings are on a downward trend, because, JUST like Jesus NEVER said, they fancy themselves God's negotiators for His people, and think they can trade WASP votes for paper-thin, essentially worthless edicts that favor one religion over others, OPPOSITE both our Constitution, and Levit. 19:15. NO surprise!

This is ego, sin justification and a LOVE of the party who will keep them rich. Oh yes, also FEMA money reimbursement for doing what God commands, in helping hurricane victims. Another feigned feather in their dirty caps! Let taxpayers subsidize their business, as they do with any church run like a business.

For almost a decade we have been at war over tithing, and Lordship Salvation—actually since 1985 on the latter, for me, and THAT is the spiritual root of this conflict of morality, spirituality and FAKE P.R. stunts!

When you advocate false doctrine, it has to affect your politics, falsely, too... image is everything, vs. substance!

'God' is mentioned in the GOP platform, and Chumpie has 'How Great Thou Art' sung at a rally. I'm TRYing my darnedest to find "achievements" for LYING he was a baby Christian a year after he was already a Christian, who had never asked God's forgiveness for anything. Forgive me—it's a HARD process to succeed at!

So as Hannity goes to First Baptist Dallas, Phil Robertson is utilized, Sean produces a movie, Kirk Cameron proclaims that revival has hit, forgive me if I see right through their false, deceptive and deceived lie, to see that probably NO pastor in America has fully done EDBS priorities, or likely ever will, because that takes WORK!

And this happy-go-lucky bunch, who believes serial liar for hire, Sarah Huckabee-Sanders, is making their pig credible to the public, with MUCH lipstick, FAILS to read polls and statistics, because FoxNews keeps them blind to majority public sentiment! This is NOT Christianity, folks. Sorry to have to tell that group! (Jas. 1:16)

If I had sold my reputation to the Devil, for power idolatry, I guess I'd be working full-time to justify buying a lemon car (i.e., Trump) to my wife, by constantly making repairs, and proclaiming that Bessie was healed, too. I didn't, so I don't have to. There is GREAT peace in just letting things unfold, and laughing at their calamitous antics.

One final thought before I return to bed—it is neither bitterness or unforgiveness why I will constantly berate this clown in the White House. It is from all the harm to America, and the evils he displayed, faking as a 'Christian,' thus hurting Jesus, and being disqualified thereby, morally and intellectually. Time can't change that!

I am STILL hearing nothing from black church pastors about politics, in the media! The Christian Cabal is at the P.R. game on Fox, full-time. Don't get over-confident, because DT's poll numbers are so low. You ought to be advocating for Gods political priorities, even now, gents and ladies, and unity in the body, vs. that Cabal's selfish divisiveness!

Update #2: Churchianity

Awakened, AGAIN... I heard a minister say that doing evangelism can be seen as harassment, in America. It's these sinful fears and imagined goblins (i.e., unbiblical, victim mentality) that keep the WASP church from fully completing the Great Commission! I've done evangelism since 1978, and NEVER personally had ANY problems with doing so, and it's FULLY legal. Theirs is the EXCUSE of cowards! (vs. II Tim. 1:7)

For the umpteenth time, I will repeat our top seven problems the WASP church repeatedly defends: NO full EDBS, tithing, Lordship Salvation, and Churchianity/church-as-a-business. Let's work backwards to number one saved as the best for last: Churchianity is an imitation of Christianity (i.e., go to church once a week, and you did your duty for God. WRONG! Sanctification (i.e., life after salvation) is a 24/7 empowered, intimate walk with Christ, where He leads you, you fellowship, experience miracles, and people notice that difference! Church is ONLY a good cherry on top, at the end of a week of so doing!

Churchianity is bodies, bucks and buildings via song, silver and sermon. 'EDBS' is a pastor's biblical job description—not Churchianity's preach-and-be-paid, come-and-hear theories! Lordship Salvation teaches that if a lost person does not commit to living for God all their life, and not sinning, they'll go to Hell.

I'll let you read the BIBLE's teaching on that heresy at our free website, WillYouLiveForever.org, and in our book, The Gospel According to God.

Tithing was a Jewish tax to their theocratic government, for more than Levite's pay and sanctuary maintenance expenses, including their Welfare programs!

JUST WORD SEARCH all forms of "tithe" in a Concordance! EVERY new covenant reference is a historic recounting in the days of the Pharisees/Sadducees, or Abraham's day. New Testament giving is as the Spirit leads, weekly, and further described in II Cor. 8-9! PERIOD!

The 'S' of EDBS priorities is social ministry—the type stuff Jesus did on a DAILY basis... blessing people and society by good works, and fixing problems. He did so miraculously. We hardly even do so, having outsourced such functions to government, who conservatives then slander for so doing, and vote for them not doing (as 'evil' wealth redistribution)! Big, bad government!

The 'B' is body life. The first century church used spiritual gifts (not of the sign type, for us) to edify the local church when they were gathered once a week! Every Christian has one (or more), and they are to be part of the worship service, as one main way we implement the one another's of Scripture. FEW churches ever do!

'D' is discipleship. That's NOT the same as sermonizing! It's more intimate, and intense. Jesus took 12 men, poured His life into them, and apart from one prophesied to apostatize, the remaining 11 turned the world upside down. He also preached to the crowds/masses, but explained it all only to His 11 (Mk. 4:34, et al.).

Finally, job one: Evangelism. First, DO YOU SEE OR HEAR THE CHRISTIAN CABAL TEACH ANY OF THESE THINGS, or just perform P.R. stunts, using their right-wing media to stir up support for Trump? Case closed, motives on FULL display.

Back to job one... EVERY human goes to an eternal, fiery punishment, forever, when they die, if God has not caused them to be 'born again' before they die. In other words, an instant inner change through forgiving all their sins—past, present, and future—when we humbly, by faith, ask Him to, based On Jesus' sacrificial death on the cross, burial and resurrection (Jn. 3:16; I Cor. 15:1-4a)

That simple message is to get to every living soul before they die, and Christians are the only ones commissioned to do that task! Pastors are to lead those sheep like shepherds (Eph. 4; I Pet. 5), yet likely NO church has proof they have fully done so, just (initially) to lost people near their un-commanded buildings, where pastors earn un-commanded full-time salaries, and get un-commanded tax breaks for often running a retail religious business (i.e., the church-as-a-business philosophy that started in ~1985).

So, every day, their neighbors risk a fiery, eternal Hell, if they die of a car wreck, heart attack, terrorist attack, old age—there are 1,000+ ways to die (as the Spike TV show depicted). And Jesus could return any hour, to start prophecy.

Plus, research says it takes seven presentations of that message to a person, for one positive response, on average, yet pastors haven't the proof that their members have done it ONCE!

In the late 1970's we DID do it thoroughly! It was called Evangelism Explosion. Also, my alma mater seminary has FULLY done it in zip code 76115, in Fort Worth, in the past four years.

As D.L. Moody believed, and Charles Spurgeon said, 'it can be done, it must be done, it will be done,' yet it isn't being done, and likely won't be.

Instead, via the church growth movement of that same 1985 era, mega mania, and multi-site, and seeker-sensitive millionaire ministers have arisen from a preach-and-be-paid, come-and-hear theory that is NOT biblically applicable for us (i.e., cultural Christianity and a commercialization of Christ).

The point is, if you read these two verses—one from the Old-, and one from the New Testament, the eternal blood (i.e., life) of unsaved/natural/lost/non-Christian people is on CHRISTIANS' hands for NOT getting that message to everyone!: (Eze. 3:18; Ac. 20:26)

Brother Andrew (~ aged 90) recently said that WE—Christians—are guilty, and to blame for ISIS killing people we didn't reach for Christ, and persecuted Christians!

Death itself, the Grim Reaper, is always a threat, and an indictment on pastors NOT leading their people to do this number one work! NOTHING else in life matters if a person ends up in Hell! NOTHING! Not P.R. stunts to get sheeple to think Chump is their secular savior—NOTHING! Yet, I have spent my entire adult life prodding pastors (in anonymity) to do EDBS priorities, mainly full evangelism, and have done well over my share, at which point God called me to a new ministry. Yet, do you hear the Christian Cabal teach these biblical facts/truths? There's a REASON, and it's the Devils logic!

So, as I bid you farewell this evening, unless God awakens me and my dog again, consider only one thing:- Hell is real, it is imminent, it is for all, it is painful, forever, and it is a place no one ever has to go to. You CHOOSE to go there if you choose NOT to trust Jesus for the forgiveness of all your sins. Please do so today, for your own (eternal) good—Jn. 3:16, the Bible.

P.S.: God had me educate thousands of U.S. pastors about these EDBS priorities for 1.25 years, three+ years ago, so any excuses for NOT having time, so they stir up WASP voters for Trump, are just excuses for willful disobedience. They had time! Several Christian Cabal members were directly contacted (by myself, in various formats, described in detail at our 'religious' website) to do full evangelism! They just WON'T!

Update #3: Abominable Antics
(10/30/17)

Here's MORE Christian Cabal antics: I JUST saw one minute of The 700 Club (I haven't seen it in more than 25 years!), and a Duck Dynasty actor is being touted by the aging host/CEO wearing an American flag tie. THIS is the brain-washing for political ends, if you read our Sean Hannity comments from yesterday (with Phil Robertson). It's intentional, for Trump (as Jesus's public reputation goes down the tubes, through these sinful ploys and schemes)!

Alt-right talk radio is touting to willing dupe listeners, that the evil left-wing media has it in for Trump, AS IF Donnie didn't do ALL these things to start ALL the bad blood: <http://bit.ly/2fIESxj> That's convenient amnesia! (i.e., LIE to yourself, to make your conscience "FEEL" better!). #Idiocy!

Trump has been a conservative in his positions for about six months. Before that, he was NOTHING consistent! He stayed ambiguous (or intentionally confusing) long enough for everyone to abandon him but WASP's, KKK members and alt-right extremists! That is neither principles nor convictions, but political opportunism for SELF as number one!

II-G2. FORGIVE & FORGET?

(7/22/17)

A talk radio caller WONDERED why so many hate on Trump. The public was slow, even delinquent fighting against his campaign antics, but didn't wait forever!

The DUMBest question is why so many people hate Trump. If your date insulted, demeaned and berated you with no letup for 17+ months, reasonable people would break up and RUN.

No business partnership would survive one side acting as Trump did his ENTIRE campaign, and he denied it was an act when a surrogate used that lie, in an attempt to cover for him!

No home owner would take being consistently accosted or attacked by his neighbor. Trump's ONLY getting what's rightly OVER-due for his campaign!

Hateful words and deeds engender hateful responses, idiotic Trump! Even scientists know the law of equal and opposite reactions, "smartest brain." To NOT know that is to be a total moron!

The American public LOVES an underdog; they HATE an arrogant gloater. Trump is surprised by how much backlash there is to his being in office? WHY?

America is the land of second and even third chances. The American public gave Trump HUNDREDS of chances to be a 'good person.' NOT anymore; too many wasted opportunities!

The American public does NOT have amnesia. We ALL saw Trump's horrific campaign, and we do NOT forget it! <http://bit.ly/2fIESxj> #NeverTrump

Even if MOST American voters don't recall all the details, it's said that you always remember how a person makes you feel. America can't forget Trump's campaign!

Trump's campaign WAS and always will be his calling card and his offer to America, and his credentials laid out. It's NOT unforgiveness to always remember that!

America was mesmerized, seeing a complete bumbling fool campaign as Trump did, and win. With time, their senses returned, and they HATED what happened!

I've said before, Trump could walk on water, and NOT gain the majority's respect in America! You cross a line too many times, you've doomed your fate, like a complete moron!

Americans are NOT stupid when it comes to common sense and relationships! VERY LITTLE things can turn people off, and break friendships, MUCH LESS Trump's campaign!

People do NOT change their core character overnight, or even over many months. Trump showed his true colors, and America is waking up... they HATED them!

'Why would you wish ill on Trump's results?' Because of how he behaved for 17+ months. He's in a totally other (and BAD) category from any other modern "president!"

Isn't Trump's success America's success?' NO. We have competent and moral people in Congress and SCOTUS, who are able to pick up the slack for his YUGE lack!

'You are a hater.' No, I'm a realist. READ my tweets this morning. I give as many illustrations to explain why the majority will never accept Trump, delusional dupes.

Think what GOOD could come from Trump in the White House.’ 1. He NEVER belonged there in the first place; 2. You don’t get good from a bad heart; 3. ANYone could do some good if in the White House! Even a chimpanzee; 4. You NEVER reward bad behavior, and 5. Better to let him fail, so good comes when he’s GONE! (Rom. 6:1)

‘As a Christian, you are to forgive Trump.’ 1. Forget is NOT the same; 2. He has NEVER asked the public’s forgiveness, and any ‘repenting’ he’s done before pastors was opportunism.

‘How do you know?’ His words and deeds since lying that he got saved—A SECOND TIME—have shown ZERO change from how he behaved all 17+ campaign months.

You must analyze the Christian Cabal’s antics! They were dead-set on a GOP candidate—NEVER considered Hillary. So any GOP nominee they would have supported! ANY!

Even Hitler, because they would have been deceived about his being evil, because he HID his many sins; Trump exposed and flaunted them, and they STILL went for him!

They KNEW that to deliver Christian votes, they’d have to make Trump into a tolerable candidate, and they could NOT stick with his already being a Christian, as claimed!

In the privacy of a two-hour meeting they HAD to come up with a ploy, and say he’s a ‘baby Christian,’ which would explain his HORRIBLE behavior! That was THEIR ruse!

MOST Christians have never successfully evangelized. Humbly, I have HUNDREDS of times. God’s sovereign conviction does NOT come on command!

That would have HAD to have happened in the two hour conversation with Trump. He was DOWN in the polls, and after 12 months campaigning he FINALLY understood that Christians are a YUGE GOP constituency, and he decided that famous pastors could save his morally-FAILED campaign, but he had to win them over, so he promises SCOTUS picks against Roe, and strokes their FLESHLY egos saying they’re the powerful ones in USA (when, in fact, they’re GUILTY, for NOT doing EDBS priorities, and are under judgment)!

In other words, he lies to them, manipulates their LACK of discernment and power idolatry sins for personal gain, by claiming to accept their Gospel invitation.

Jail house or fox hole conversions this is called! That Cabal will SWEAR he got saved. God knows for sure, but the opportunism need was GREAT!

They fashioned themselves negotiators "for Christ," bargaining with the Devil, and sold their souls for personal status gain, and media attention, and MAYBE some Christian-like policies.

God NOWHERE instructs Christians to support the most evil GOP in the mix, dummies! They felt they could mold this WEAK man into the image Christians wanted.

THEIR words to Christians were much more important than any word or deed Trump might offer, like ‘Two Corinthians,’ or his favorite verse, which Jesus Himself decried.

Just tell him to shut up, and we’ll handle the P.R. scam. And in the process, EVERY ONE of those "pastors" harmed their ministry reputations!

Just ask yourself, of Jeffress, Graham and Falwell, are you inclined to go to their religious businesses to learn about God, now? MUCH less likely, right? That’s normal!

Now, when a lower IQ'd person phones in to talk radio, DON'T show your ignorance, and wonder why so many people hate Trump, please. Obey Proverbs 17:28

If by liberal they mean someone who looks ahead and not behind, someone who welcomes new ideas without rigid reactions, someone who cares about the welfare of the people—their health, their housing, their schools, their jobs, their civil rights, their civil liberties... if that is what they mean by a 'liberal,' then I am proud to be a liberal. —John F. Kennedy

II-G3. BUSTED: CABAL POLITICAL SHENANIGANS EXPOSED (EPH. 5:11)

(6/15/18)

It's time to officially BREAK my contract! Jack Graham has been following my lead, as I followed God's, for the past eight+ years. Our book and website detail it ALL! #Follower Pence gives campaign-style speech to Southern Baptists—ABC News

Explanation: Maybe 3.75 years ago, he had his henchmen call my home to have a meeting at church, where they required me to sign a contract to NEVER mention #Prestonwood Baptist Church online, ever again, or I couldn't return (my family members are members there)—I switched memberships YEARS before. Here's the FULL story...

[By the way, I was HAPPY to sign the contract, because I wrote it, as the lawyer of the group. I have a copy, somewhere in the pile of rubbish it was, and they Xeroxed three copies].

That came immediately after God led me with the word, "TripAdvisor," which site I had NEVER used—just seen their TV ads.

When there, as handle "TruthTeller2020," I said the music, architecture and many sermons are quite good (and many amenities for the youth), "but if you want to know what really happens behind the scenes, read our updated 'Church Conflicts' section," at page 76+: <https://bit.ly/2KiXmFO>

That came about a year after I was banned from ALL Bible Fellowship/Sunday School classes (at Prestonwood—just 'gotta use that word to break the contract further)!

Here's EXACTLY what happened. I NEVER lie, and will take any and ALL lie detectors, or testify in court, anywhere...

I had first attended there in ~2005, when my family moved to Dallas. On eight or ~nine occasions, I volunteered to teach my 100 percent biblical evangelism and discipleship materials at Prestonwood, and EVERY time a new underling staffer politely declined. Every single time I pointed to all eight to none of them, to where homes could be seen out the window, and said, 'let's go evangelize whoever lives there—now!'

EVERY time, to a man (no women were there—ever) they ALL declined, with excuses (Ex.: Lk. 14).

Then, I met David Shivers, when I was publicly holding my Go Evangelize! signs at the National Day of Prayer's Dallas event, he said, 'Jim—what are you doing?' I said, exhorting pastors to evangelize. WHY aren't you? You are in charge of that function at our church.

In private, later on, he told me, "we don't do evangelism crusades, because they don't pay off." I posted that statement on that website, referenced it on TripAdvisor, and all of a sudden you see Graham tapping the great Greg Laurie to do Harvest crusade at the American Airlines center, then the ATT stadium.

I had hand-written Billy Graham to endorse a plan, on our website, to encourage every pastor to evangelize every lost person within walking distance of their church. His older female secretary politely declined, citing fragility (I have that letter in my same bucket of trashed documents, somewhere in my master bedroom closet), but Jack flies out to see Billy, and suddenly, the My Hope crusades began.

If you get all the sermons of the past nine years at Prestonwood Baptist Church, Plano, TX, Jack used MY website for MANY of them (especially two years on back). He even imitated our Apologetics section, with a great video library.

He even took our challenge to LEAD Evangelism Explosion, and did for three years (probably only as the speaker—I'm not sure he left the church, and went door-to-door?). GREAT progress! Many changes.

He'd LOVE Southern Baptist (hereafter, 'SBC') pastors to think HE devised all these priority changes. He ONLY did so because God had me NAG the heck out of 'him' (literally, his flesh) for FIVE entire years (~2008-2012).

I challenge him to a public lie detector to say I'm lying in any detail, here! I'll take one anytime, anywhere.

Even his political involvement started with myself. God had me write 'messages' (usually at 3 am) for 1.5 years, right after that contract, and they were exhorting national pastors to do 'EDBS priorities' (evangelism, discipleship, body life and social ministry).

He had already made many changes, so it needed to go national. And national, it did, likely because of him (thanks, Jack!). At that time, I followed no one on Twitter, so a glitch allowed me to see who dropped by.

I have an entire M.S. Word file of all the famous ministries! It shocked me, and Linked-In emailed me that my bio, there, was approaching 'legend status,' and a 'stadium-full' of people were viewing that profile. I have never once sent one message using that platform! So late 2014, I tweeted that I sensed this account was going political, and it did! That's when Jack Graham (contract violation—AGAIN!) started his political antics that led to the Christian Cabal's support of tRump. NOT exactly that time-frame, but the impetus began then.

He started it after I rejected he and his famous minister's calls to run, myself (three to five times, to-date, documented). I had NO idea he was organizing pastors for tRump. I had always said MORALITY in America ('Revival') is what's needed, and anyone who believes CHUMP represents that (like apostate Bob Jeffress) is a FOOL!

Speaking of Bobby Jeffress, way back, the Lord led me to exhort seven major DFW pastors to take a stand for evangelism, by attending a Christian music concert at the Ranger's field, and they ALL declined. Their names are on our website.

I even took Go Evangelize! Signs, and a pastor exhortation to lead sign to ALL their churches: T.D. Jakes, Jeffress, Swindoll, Tony Evans, Gateway Church, et al. I have pictures of those visits.

Regarding Jeffress, I also dropped off notes to fully evangelize all nearby lost people, and he STILL hasn't publicly committed to even starting that process—nearly four years later. Ever since Jack Graham came out of the 'Evangelical Council' meeting in support of CHUMP, to speak to ABC news (saying he'll be his 'champion', and later they concocted the 'baby Christian' B.S.), I have LEFT my family's church, on probably four or five times, for ~one to two months, each time, in protest!

One and a half weeks before Chump was referenced as a 'baby Christian,' Graham called tRumps campaign "non-sense." Most of that church's sermons are on Vimeo, if you want documentation. June 23, 2016 would be close to the date, on a Wednesday evening, if I recall.

Now that his ilk had Pence politicize the Southern Baptist Convention, I am indefinitely gone from Prestonwood Baptist Church (third contract violation, so sue me). My family will never leave, so I HOPE they get kicked out, so we can wash our hands of Jack Graham's evils, as a negative part of my kids' childhood experience! Please!

EVERY detail is chronologically laid out, usually dated, and quoted, or linked to news reports, in our coming FREE book at <http://AmericanAnswers.org> (in November, 2018, I'm anticipating), called Christians for Trump: is God a Democrat or a Republican?

If you watch his Twitter account, he has NO shame letting Pence rally votes at a religious convention! The man is a deluded fool, all for power idolatry, and a desire to force every American woman who ever accidentally gets pregnant to take the results to full-term, by force of law, by stacking SCOTUS. I'll debate the boy any day, publicly!

Thank you for bearing with my need to officially break my contract, BEG him to ban my family from "his" (i.e., God's and the membership's) church, and to challenge him to a debate on any topic in the Bible.

He has been monitoring this account since that contract—LIKE A HAWK—so Hi, Jack, who hijacked #SBC18 for biased politics! Email me, chicken!

Email me for a debate, Jack Graham. Tithing, Lordship Salvation, testimony of how God used me to change you—whatever topic you want.

I will HAPPILY endure the moaning from my kids if you'd do me the FAVOR of kicking them out of your mega church. I can't get them to leave fast enough! Please help (as if).

And just to ensure I've clearly broken your IMMORAL contract... Jack Graham, Prestonwood Baptist Church, Plano Texas.

ALL overview details have been available to anyone since 2012! I'm NOT a good marketer (page 76 forward): <https://bit.ly/2KiXmFO> LIE DETECTORS only! Anytime, anywhere, for my part!!!

PLEASE read my 100 percent accurate story of Jack Graham at Prestonwood, posted just before this tweet. Thank you! @NAMB_SBC @ERLC @SBTS @_SBTC @BaptistPress @LifeWay @swbts

P.S.: Does anyone remember that he threatened to withhold $1 million if @drmoore told TRUTHFUL things about Trump? Godliness? Heretic-like fleshly behavior!

SINCE you may still monitor us, I told you this was war, and personal, since you tried to deceive me in three sermons this year! You had better delete your Vimeo account, as I link to it, OFTEN, in our Christians For Trump book. LIE DETECTOR, please! I have an entire chapter on how many times I've said those will be needed.

.@JackNGraham blocked my account, here, YEARS ago, so he could claim he doesn't know of us, or our account. We have NEVER spoken, but once, when, naively, in ~2006 I went forward and said he reminds me of my REAL home pastor—the great John Bisagno. I've seen his posted tweets three times, max.

Jack Graham, Franklin Graham and Robert Jeffress. THESE are the "Christian Cabal" core group! Each one of them I had to wake up from their spiritual slumber/stupor, ONLY by God's grace alone, in the past decade.

Even a hefty staffer told me it worked, at an anniversary/reunion for the second in command, ~four years ago.

And the Ft. Worth pastor at Southwestern Seminary's revival prayer meeting with Ronnie Floyd (Jack's buddy) admitted it was quite a feat to get that church changed. Not for God! You just have to be persistent in doing what He leads you to do, Christian laymen. Our website details every method the Lord led me to use. Imitate that!

I've taken my Go Evangelize! signs to Prestonwood Baptist on a Sunday morning, sent emails, left notes in the Sunday School leader's bin, and in Jack's mail slot, phoned his second in command from Fredericksburg, TX, spoken to deacons, tweeted, called Jack's secretary, and several other methods that WORK!

ALL glory to God, but if I don't tell you, no one will know, because I never sought any attention, in twelve+ years!

That church is probably the most biblical one in America, NOW, and the work NEEDS to happen at every church. I can't replicate thirteen years anywhere else. Laymen must rise and hold pastors to account to God's revealed priorities!

I hear from the pulpit great things will continue to come from Prestonwood, and Jack plans to not retire for awhile. That's GREAT for spiritual things, but HORRIBLE for his guilt before God for being the "champion" of THIS: <https://bit.ly/2tBHWBZ> Heresy!!! It's SO freeing to care NOTHING about a Graham contract!

I'll publicly debate you anytime anywhere on Lordship salvation, tithing, prophecy, YOUR lack of full EDDBS commitment, or your support of Trump! Your call! @RobertJeffress @JackNGraham @Franklin_Graham @DrJamesCDobson @JerryFalwellJr and/or @revjamesrobison ALL glory to God! (2/17/18)

Analyzing one's potential strategy: Why would a (real) Christian feign support, to get you to run, then deny it ever existed? Only because they're NOT Christ-like. Why would they be obscure if they really were for you? Concerns about law violations, or ticking off one with temporary power to nominate an abortion banner... Await more evidence. (6/8/18)

#ItsOver If I ever return for my family, ear plugs and work during sermons. EVERY detail revealed in Christians For tRump (book), to be updated with every coming event. (Eph. 5:11)

My original website may go online MUCH sooner! I KNEW not to trust you; NOT a Bisagno, but a Young! EVERYONE will now know the TRUTH about you!

.@JackNGraham I BEG you to kick my family out of Prestonwood Baptist Church! You're already a "champion" at splitting up families from Sunday School (which is 'non-sense'). Your many secular amenities hook my kids, so I can't get them to leave. If you have any kindness toward me (as if), please ban them too, PLEASE!

We do NOT lie, so here's some documentation of just some of what I just wrote: <https://bit.ly/2tOeOqC> <https://bit.ly/2KdeBYR> Godliness? You decide. #prestonwood #JackGraham Oops I broke the contract, again.

And, YES, every word that I just posted is being added to Christians for tRump (book), as we "speak"... would you have expected any less? (Eph. 5:11)

Facebook, YouTube, Instagram (possibly), books, two websites—Any and every method humanly possible WILL expose what happened here the past three years, because the powers that be want it hush-hush. He_I NO! I won't be your lap dog. I'll speak to the media any day, when God's timing leads me to such! #TruthTeller2020

If my wife and kids AREN'T kicked out of Prestonwood Baptist Church, BECAUSE I'm a strong family man, I will be forced to return, eventually. I will buy ear plugs no one can notice, and ONLY do business during sermons. If I could use my laptop, that would be ideal. Too blatant to try!

And my family has already promised they'd videotape me being forcibly removed, if Prestonwood wants to implement the contract we mutually agreed to. I will NOT resist one iota (Ac. 8:32), but I will have it videotaped, then released to the press, because the TRUTH sets you FREE—NOT hush hush (Jn. 8:32).

Let's be POINT BLANK honest (as I usually am; always am, excepting private stuff you have zero right to know, like money, sex, etc.): The Southern Baptist OLD GUARD wants Trump re-elected, and used #SBC18 to seek mirage-claimed "unity" to that end.

LISTEN to ALL Pence spoke, that Jack Graham praises on Twitter! [And "AT&T" wanting me to give them access to me laptop, to cure a network security breach. %&$# off, idiot from India—FRAUD. I'd beat your butt, if you ever come to my front door. Please drop by, next time you're illegally in the U.S.A.—fool]!

@Franklin_Graham, 100 percent OPPOSITE his great dad's character, used the SACRED event of evangelism to try to sway Californians politically conservative, in the past three months. If God doesn't judge the two Grahams, and Geoffrey the Giraffe Jeffress, soon, I'd be 100 percent shocked! #Judgment

Twenty hours ago, on Instagram, @JackNGraham posted himself right behind the Antichrist—his bosom buddy, tRump. LOOK AT IT for yourself, to see I never lie. That man is devious, duplicitous, sinful and evil. He TRIED to play things both ways with myself, in the past four months.

You are a wicked man POSING as holy. I guess now I'll have to find the three sermons on Vimeo where Jack Graham was trying to escape CHUMP's thumb, and encourage 'David' to do what Jack KNOWS is God's will.

You sold your soul to Satan, 'OUNCE' (remember that nick-name from a few years back)? #Prestonwood Baptist Church's head heretic.

45, the damn fool KNOWS what God has done through myself, the past eight years, in Christian circles, so he hand-selected Ed Young and Jackie OUNCE Graham to be on his Evangelical council. I link to the FoxNews article where ONLY those two are mentioned. They're my past two home pastors since 1998—LOSERS!

Jack Graham is a POSER! Prestonwood Baptist Church is headed up by an insecure, prideful, self-admitted overly-competitive BOY, who can't escape the clutches of tRump if his life depended on it, because Satan entered his heart in mid-June, 2016 to be his "champion." SIN-full #Apostate

The other day, Jack Graham said, in a Saturday evening sermon, "I am not the Devil." Can you imagine any real Christian minister having to explain that to their audience? It's one of the past three Saturday evening services, you can find on Vimeo, under 'Prestonwood Baptist Church.' Is HE the little horn, Lord?

(Rev. 13:11) #AnotherBeast, Jack N. Graham??? STRANGER things have happened! I mean this question to our Lord, 100 percent literally, except he does NOT have the miraculous powers as the real person will. He certainly sticks his nose in ego/media/power plays, JUST LIKE him, via The Beast, DJT!!! #Pray

Is Trump the Antichrist? At the least, he's a close precursor. He does NOT have any miracle powers, except supernatural stupidity, but of the politicians I know on the world stage, he's the closest thing, and if I knew The Beast was alive, he's my number one suggested candidate, so far! #Prophecy

One further update to my prior testimony: I QUIT my Prestonwood Baptist membership when they announced a ~$23 million spend to buy a Dallas church for multi-site, "for evangelism."

I warned them that was a WRONG decision, and God shut it down ~two years later! They made members promise/pledge/vow to attend there, for a time, to build it up.

After it FAILED, they told we members (and ex-member attenders) they were opening a Ft. Worth satellite campus, but starting slowly by Bible studies. We NEVER HEARD A WORD about it, thereafter, nearly two years ago.

I was recently told that their North campus is doing so well, they jettisoned Ft. Worth. I guess evangelizing Ft. Worthians doesn't matter, if the money's good in Prosper (same with abandoned lost people near the former Dallas campus)!

The man in charge of their Prosper/North campus is the little BOY who told me I could no longer attend any Sunday School classes at Prestonwood Baptist. I recommended the GODLY Neal Jeffrey to speak more (like Moses), and soon he took that guy's job at the Dallas campus.

When my three kids were water baptized by the great Neal Jeffrey, I warned him (in the men's baptismal waiting room) that God doesn't look kindly at sin in the ministry, regarding sex.

About four months later, Rev. Bell was forced to resign as choir director. Jack Graham is a FOOL to counter what God tells me, but when you hang with tRump, foolishness happens!

In a very weird way, I have mercy and pity on Jack Graham, because, like every other Republican, the Antichrist threatens them if they ever stand up to him! Fires staff, threatens campaigns (like two days ago, in Virginia).

My book will blow the top off the way Jack organized the SBC to back sin and evil! Do-do. Even last weekend, Jack Graham brought Rev. Ezell of the @SBC_NAMB to speak, to show they supported Harvest America.

Then he has the now SBC president speak on Sunday. He FANCIES himself a puppet master for powerful positions. He has been played by Satan, since June 2016. FOOLish man, poser of a "leader!"

[Unfortunately, my son left something on a Florida trip at that church. I'm going by there to get it in the next two hours. HAVE ME ARRESTED, @JackNGraham You have ZERO legal basis, and I'll sue your rear off if you do! Our contract should go before a judge, as you have every right to ban me from Prestonwood, now!

I'll let my son get the item. I am HAPPY to go in Prestonwood Baptist Church, but I don't do anything in a corner (Ac. 26:26), where there are few witnesses! Save that for a Saturday evening with cell phones and cameras]!

Jack and Franklin Graham, and Robert Jeffress. Spiritual sell-outs for worldly power! Truth be known, when that hacker just called, I was HOPING it would be that church, just like when they called me in to sign the contract. I have ZERO fear of Jackie OUNCE Graham!

Church members—KNOW EXACTLY WHAT HE GETS PAID; FULL REVEAL! You'll likely never be allowed to know. You are the power!

Just like Ed Young was reported to me, by a deacon, to have schmoozed a late famous Houston lawyer, to his condo in Hawaii, to secure his church membership (AKA, 'tithing'). Why do you think MOST mega churches are in rich neighborhoods? The love of money sin! 96 percent of North American Christians in ministry stay in North America; money lust sin for creature comforts!

Have I told you about Mr. Fiegelson, in Katy TX, who owns four businesses, one an 18-wheeler transportation business? READ about him on page 76+ (part seven), here: WillYouLiveForever.org. I call him 'Feel-good-son,' but he's Fiegelson. An arrogantly boaster of his riches, 'for Jesus,' of course. #Carnal fool!

And 'stumpy and lumpy,' on that 'Church Conflicts chapter are the pastor of the North campus of Prestonwood Baptist. Lumpy left the church. I don't remember his name, but he admitted to me that Jack Graham had changed, due to my pressure, then he walked away, angry. He had been pushed out, I believe. I had reported his false doctrine.

How about 'Ross Perot wanna-be' on WillYouLiveForever.org? His name is @PhilThames. ASK him under oath if I'm lying with any of these facts! We were close, before the Sunday School ban he orchestrated from Arizona. I said you were a traitor, who needed to obey vs. just teach the Bible, didn't I?—in the church's kid's area.

Collin County Chinese Fellowship church is where you should find the Indian minister who told me "don't name names," when he was associated with Prestonwood. I did, and it's the title of that chapter on page 76: <https://bit.ly/2KiXmFO> he could have changed pastorates, this many years later.

Who else can I bust with the TRUTH? No one in mind, for now. Time to go take my son on a fun hike, and get his product he left at Prestonwood Baptist. I APOLOGIZE—I just LOVE the freedom of posting "Jack Graham" and "Prestonwood," now that our contract is null and void, forever! My weird fun; SORRY!

It has been OVER four years that that contract was effected, and I haven't been in a Sunday School class in about eight to nine years, with my wife, due to Jack Graham. YES, Mr. control freak, I and God hold you personally accountable, and guilty for what you pawn off on underlings, from sinful timidity to actually lead!

EVERYthing that POSER did was under the lawyer's trick of "plausible deniability." Use innuendos in sermons, and have staffers do your dirty work. I will settle for NOTHING less than lie detectors, when I go public, @JackNGraham. I'm USED to dealing with liars. I'm a lawyer. @ABC @CBS @NBC @CNN, et al.

Jack Graham is a slave to tRump! He can't speak any truth about that BOY, if his life depended on it. That's what happens when you and @RobertJeffress sell y'all's souls for power, and to Satan. You even USED @drmoore to push MY ideas, until he stayed MORAL, so you tried to can him. You are evil, Jack Graham.

I have a chapter in Christians for Trump (book) that details how God has led me to warn Jack Graham for YEARS that he was NOT a John Bisagno, but an Ed Young. Prestonwood Baptist 's "headmaster" knows EXACTLY what that means! You have GREAT window dressing, but a rotten heart, sir. You are NOT like John!

I'll have TONS more to write on all this—hours from now—after the hike with my son. There's not one detail I won't reveal. I'll tag every Baptist institution to inform them all about Jack Graham. 'Gotta have some physical fun, first. See you later! #TruthTeller2020 That TripAdvisor handle that started it all.

THANKS TO ALL who made this one of our top 10 viewed days ever. More to come this evening. I'll take any and all lie detectors, and speak to any and all media about every (literally, morally-) stinkin' detail, if you email me. I NEVER give out my phone number. I'm not that stupid. Debate me, Trump! You can't handle it; WEAKNESS!

P.S.: tRump is desperate to have the Southern Baptists remain loyal to him, so he has Jack Graham in for a photo op, after #SBC18, and he and @RobertJeffress gushingly say 'happy birthday' on twitter. There was MUCH division over politics, at the 2018 convention, and "unity" was the first pastor's conference speaker's sermon to them!

COMMENDABLE comments! At least you're truthful and objective with CHUMP, this one time. We praise you, when deserved, and criticize you, when NOT. (I Cor. 11:2, 17) @Franklin_Graham rips separating kids and parents at border: 'It's disgraceful.'

P.S.: OBVIOUSLY, 45 figured out your coded messages in sermons, and the principal called the student into his office! It's NOT like he couldn't watch live, Saturday evenings, even though you rarely put those speeches on Vimeo! DO YOU SEE WHAT TYPE OF IMMORAL TYRANT YOU ARE SERVING, Prestonwood's Jack Graham?

(II Cor. 12:11) Let's go on with other TRUE stories, with no particular chronological order... I'm just spilling my guts before I'm no longer writing, full-time, starting Monday. And I'm writing from memory, in a hurry, so typos are GUARANTEED. I am no typist:

WHEN I was a Sunday School member, our group ate at a burger joint across the street from the church. ALL the couples PRAISED Ed Young Jr. preaching a week of marital sex, sleeping above his temple with his wife—FOR PUBLICITY!

I told them Bob Jeffress was much more biblical, with his sermons on homosexuality. They looked at me funny, and audaciously asked if I was against marital sex?

These pastor's puppies are SO biblically illiterate, or ignorant! I Cor. 7 says it's a marital obligation, and says you can even refrain, for prayer. God's people living holy should NOT be in bed with the world system advocating maximum sex—that's catering to the sin nature/flesh, but my words are foolishness to fools!

Later on, Eddie the Monster had a YUGE chalk drawing of Jesus' head in the parking lot, to get media exposure, for free. It worked, and I even commended him that at least he was keeping it holier (not that marriage sex is unholy, DUMB ex-Sunday School classmates)!

God led me to take my Pastors—LEAD! and Go Evangelize! signs to Fellowship church, Grapevine (Eddie Junior's church), and two of their security personnel met me at its entrance.

Then a cop showed up, and said I didn't have a city permit, so when he said I had to leave, God gave me the wisdom to walk slower than a man with no legs, so ALL Ed's sheep (including a man in a BMW, who thumbs downed me, OPPOSING evangelism) would see, and read.

I was protesting his having hidden a French Lear Jet ($4 million?), and his YUGE home on Lake Grapevine (where my son and I just hiked, which was a BUST! NO thrilling scenes at all).

So, some big-named pastors in 2014 let me know my online exhorting had influenced Eddie the Eagle to sell his mansion. Supposedly I was getting through. But he only climbed UP the Dallas social scene even higher! Pics... before: <https://bit.ly/2N6sJRp> After: <https://bit.ly/2N6sJRp>

It was NOT God's convicting him that he was worshipping the high life, like his dad, but a desire to be more mainstream high life, CONTRARY to what those pastors were saying to me.

I had called the local ABC affiliate to film our signs protest, there, but it takes a group of about eight, to interest the media; you can't find eight people to stand publicly for Christ, in that way!

It's ALL about publicity, to lure/"attract" members, for money! Very recently, Eddie had the new NRA president speak at his church on Memorial Day, then, when I said it's for GOP votes, he denied it to the local media.

Johnson Amendment. That law scares these money-grubbers concerning losing tax-exempt status! That's why this band of merry no-gooders sought to get tRump to end that law: <https://wapo.st/2lx7rc4>

A very far right local talk radio host attends Eddie's church, and to deny that Oliver North had anything to do with politics, in church, is the EXACT evil everyone but this bunch HATES!

Do any of you recall the Christian songs from the CD called Songs of the People? Politics, subtly. They dance around the Johnson Amendment as close to the flames of Hell as they can get! That's another method the Christian Cabal did to try to rile up WASPS to vote for THIS: <https://bit.ly/2fIESxj>
@FHunscripted

VP Pence spoke at #SBC18 about revival starting. That concept began with myself, humbly, and Jack Graham not only knows it, he has attributed it to me several times in 2018, in sermons, including using a NYC talk radio host to liken this work to the 95 Theses' impact! ALL glory to God. Pence had NOTHING to do with it; MUCH LESS his EVIL "boss!"

Pence was tapped for his Christian appeal, and opposing gay marriage. Even he and the N.C. governor followed MY lead, through these pastors I goaded to speak against nationalizing a state's rights issue, so they rewarded Pence, who BACK-PEDDLED on the issue, when businesses raised a stink!

These self-appointed "king makers" reward people like Ms. Davis for breaking the law, and Pence, even though he chickened out, and had NO backbone/conviction to stand for what the Christian Cabal wanted!

I mentioned TripAdvisor, previously... I got an email from them two months ago, saying I would lose that handle if I didn't act, so I pushed the button to save it, as evidence (even though, one time, I found someone else has posted in that name—probably a person related to the Christian Cabal, to deflect people from my original post concerning Prestonwood, which is, mysteriously, gone, as far as I could find);

[I found a tweet, later, that said I voluntarily removed the post, to be merciful to Mr. Graham when he had made some positive changes; that post is in this book, somewhere].

If you ever see a Texas car license, 'Tex Rev,' you've found the man behind these antics, used for evil, when I intended them for morality!

Does anyone remember his North Texas Presidential Forum? There, he tells the crowd, "we have the ones we really wanted!" Chump and Hillary were NOT there. #FlipFlop, for power idolatry! <https://bit.ly/2IyFBfM> I could go on for DAYS! No purpose, so I'm stopping, unless led to continue. There is MUCH corruption in mega churches!

The SBC president back then was Ronnie Floyd. I had tweeted about the need for revival, so Jack gets his buddy to host prayer meetings for such, and probably MANY Southern Baptists thought it was Ronnie's idea. FAR FROM IT! Documentation: <https://bit.ly/2KphaTz>

I tell you, so you'll know—NOT to brag. You don't know, because I've NEVER sought credit, but I WON'T let people like my respected @SWBTS missions professor brag how great it is that Ronnie Floyd did that, when I started the idea, Dr. Daniel Sanchez!

I WON'T let these glory-seekers steal MY ideas from God! They'd LOVE me to keep quiet; NEVER 'gonna happen!

Then, as my tweets were monitored, daily, for contract violations, GODLY @drmoore said things about gay marriage, likely per Jack Graham, and OUNCE liked Russell. But when he told the TRUTH about the man the Christian Cabal sold their souls to, he got serious backlash! [threatened job firing, and $1 million withheld from the SBC].

Here's how I analyze #SBC18: The Christian Cabal got a SBC president, or executive, to set up MANY black SBC pastors to "appear" (Heb. 10:1) like there was racial reconciliation among 81 percent of the SBC's who voted for tRump. In the 'pastor's conference,' the first two speakers were black, then OUNCE spoke.

YEARS ago, when I was first being told to hassle OUNCE (i.e., Jack Graham) for EDBS priorities, at the Houston pastor's conference, he said, "you know lawyers!," and in his book, Unseen, a paragraph speaks of trouble-makers in church can even wear shorts and short sleeves. I do every Saturday evening, unless it's snowy cold.

THIS year, where he always pushes himself to a stage presence (like his boy crush, here: <https://bit.ly/2N3PCVH>), he admits, you've got to listen to your critics, because sometimes they're right, and no one is above criticism.

Change of heart in ~six years, from MY efforts behind the scenes, by Gods power alone (and the wise counsel of one of his BFF's, O.S. Hawkins; See 'kernel of truth post somewhere in this book)!

He's connected to SO many ministry big names! Levi Lusko, Greg Laurie and Rick Warren's (ALL three very godly men) radio spots (fifty-nine seconds of hope) likely were a Christian Cabal way to get people before the Christian public; ALL used to get out the WASP vote at 81 percent, for tRump.

Floyd knows of me, and I left him a document at his Arkansas church. LET HIM DENY IT. I love when pastors get under God's judgment, foolishly. Maybe he'd admit it—I don't know of him much.

I'm sure when I started busting #SBC18 for being political, Jack's last Sunday speaker wrote it was a mistake, due to mixed messages, after the backlash of MANY against that at the event. I have 100 other stories I could tell. Maybe I'm just bored.

May I recommend you read every word in our "Church Conflicts" chapter (page 76, linked previously). No need to rehash it.

There is MUCH corruption in too many mega churches, all for fame and fortune, by the guy on top fleecing those having less!

Update #1: Politicizing the 2018 Southern Baptist Convention
(6/15/18)

Let me, please, explain what's going on, here. DUMP is DESPERATE for the Southern Baptist vote. My FREE book destroys his connection to any real Christian, and exposes all the Christian Cabal did to get the Antichrist elected!

I've been SBC since birth, and have a website to prove my Bible credentials; he's SCARED to death that REAL Christians will abandon him, as they should. The two sources of his demise among godly Christians are <https://bit.ly/2B03dKG>, and Christians for Trump, (at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>, this November), both FREE.

Add to that, Wit and Wisdom, and he CAN'T beat Gods wisdom in politics (he knows it), and I'm certain CHUMP had Pence go to #SBC18 from that fear!

He KNOWS Jack's innuendos in sermons, encouraging my political run six+ times since April, 2015, even in 2018, and he demands fidelity of an autocrat emperor! So he has Jack come to the White House, yesterday, to look like the SBC is for him in 2020! Optics/'image.'

NEVER ALLOW ANY MEDIA TO SUMMARIZE OR SPIN what really happens in life, on the left or right. READ what Pence said to Southern Baptists, this week. He was doing The Beast's bidding for the 2016 midterms, and 2020! You just hear Pence spoke. READ: <https://bit.ly/2yPQikJ> Get your HEAD OUT OF THE SAND, ostriches!

The sinfully devious goal of the Christian Cabal was to have #SBC18 "appear" that we are good with blacks, and reconciled (even though Jeffress refused an open letter from @FHunscripted to speak together), by showcasing many black preachers and a black gospel choir. The first sermon to pastors was on so-called (faux) biblical 'UNITY!'

JUST LIKE tRump, the Christian Cabal speaks and acts the way they WISH things were, then get the media to expose it, so DUMB Christians believe it's reality!

If there's a video of that convention, unity was NOT what happened, nor should it have happened, to the Christian Cabal's whims for tRump! #MoralsMatter

They limited resolutions to about eighteen, and three of them opposed any politician speaking to the SBC (which I agree with), and one tried to oppose social justice, and one guy had an ambiguous, ‘let’s do anything we can to lessen abortions.’ Is that a proposal—NO specifics? #WOW

I was VERY proud of the first two black pastors, who, IF I recall, exhorted people seeking platforms, and other innuendos against the Christian Cabal (IF I recall right—I didn’t listen 100 percent of the time). You can check the record.

I also looked at tweets. Some OLD, white males were mad that some people didn’t obey Trump with the national anthem at #SBC18, and spoke of the youth needing to respect their elders (AKA bow down to the evils of the Christian Cabal). I’ll retweet them, next.

I read there were cheers for tRump, and one tweeter who officially opposed social justice said ‘make the SBC great again.

The political was SO sinfully interspersed. LOOK here:

Amen! David Platt would always be on the side of right! GREAT brother in Christ! #Radical (book) (6/15/18): [Private account:] Today IMB President David Platt talks about radical Muslims coming to faith in Christ. VP Mike Pence talks about radical Muslims “on the run.” Which is it? “Come to Christ” or “Run from us.” Two different messages. SBC must determine which one takes priority. #SBCAM18 #SBC18 (6/13/18)

[Private account:] Very disappointing news. Sends the wrong message and reinforces the perception that SBC is Republican. The gospel of King Jesus is not tied to any American political party... (6/11/18)

[Private account:] ...Jesus is at the border, folks. He’s in the concentration camps. He’s present among the least of these. You want to “make much of Jesus”? Then look for Him there, because He sure as he_1 isn’t on that stage declaring “America first,” while defending as a sexual predator. #SBC18 (6/13/18)

[Private account:] Tried to give #SBC18 some space, because it’s not my tradition, but when the largest Protestant denomination in the country defames the gospel by tying it to a religious nationalism rooted in fear, greed, and white supremacy, it damages the witness for all of us. (6/13/18)

Southern Baptists have always worked to bring about the renewal of America, and new beginnings—and as I stand before you today, I believe that we are in the midst of great renewal, and a new beginning in America... No podium that @POTUS or I stand behind will be of greater consequence than the pulpits you stand behind every Sunday. No policy will ever be more meaningful than the ministries you lead. – Brown-nosing, panderer & KISS-UP, @VP! (6/13/18)

[Private account:] Pence addressing #SBC18 is absurd and wrong on so many levels—I don’t even know where to begin. Extremely distressing. (6/11/18)

[Private account:] The conservative resurgence did not lead the SBC to Heaven, but it did save a Convention (and many entities like @SBTS) from rank liberal theology. The CR leaders should not be worshiped, but they must not be disrespected. The social justice train is headed for a disaster. #SBC18 (6/8/18)

[Private account:] 20 minutes ago this room was united around the gospel, worshipping with hands in the air. Now, half the room is clapping/standing while the rest sits on their hands. Unnecessary fracturing regarding non-gospel issues only hurts our mission. This is sad. #SBCAM18 #sbc18 (6/13/18)

“A woman can be the president of the Southern Baptist Convention. I don’t see anything in the Bible that prohibits that,” says @drjamesmerritt and receives a round of applause at #SBC18 @JonathanMerritt (6/11/18)

[Private account:] Our church sent a young and diverse group of messengers to #sbc18—almost all attending the annual meeting for the first time. I am concerned that our platform choices are creating mixed signals on where the SBC stands when it comes to women, people of color, and politics. (6/12/18)

[Private account:] Here is my full statement on why the #SBC18 should withdraw its invitation for Vice President. Mike Pence to address the convention. (6/12/18)

[Private account:] Dear #SBC18 Mr. Pence may well be a believer, but mixing politics and Gospel ministry works against unity, love, and Gospel progress. This is a tone deaf move. Yes, we should pray for him and other leaders as God calls us to, but he shouldn’t be speaking at the convention. (6/1/18)

I’ve heard a few disparaging comments about older pastors recently. Young pastors, we need the wisdom and advice of the older and more seasoned leaders. We need to learn from them. We need to work together. #SBC18 #SBCAM18 -@MattCapps (6/8/18) [Kool-Aid drinker]

You are a truth-teller. Unfortunately, I believe the two African-American speakers at the pastor’s conference were tapped to LOOK like racial reconciliation has occurred, with ZERO actions to create such reconciliation! #WindowDressing Lip service, appearances; shadow vs. substance. (6/15/18):

[Private account:] I would be delighted if the SBC (and all evangelical denominations) put a permanent moratorium on politicians speaking. You’re being used. #sbc18 <https://bit.ly/2IxKCVV> (6/11/18)

[Private account:] Massive vote of confidence for the @ERLC just now at #sbc18 #sbcam18. Thankful for @drmoore and the whole team as well as @vancepitman and his strong defense of this vital ministry. Almost unanimous rejection of defunding the ERLC. (6/1/18)

[Private account:] This is a political rally. There is nothing about this that benefits or pertains to the mission of Southern Baptists. #SBC18 (6/13/18)

[Private account:] I know the SBC has welcomed politicians on occasion going back 45 years, but has there ever been a full-blown campaign speech like this one? #SBC18 #SBCAM18 (6/13/18)

[Private account:] #SBC18 and #SBCAM18 hear me; yes the SBC will “move on” after the @VP blunder, but it may come at the expense of POC, Women, and Younger Pastors not moving on with us. (6/13/18)

[Private account:] Seriously?! Southern Baptist leaders have not been paying attention to the concerns of people of color, women, immigrants, and Muslims. Despite their words of contrition and reconciliation, this action is contradictory to those sentiments. We remember the 81 percent! #SBC18 (6/11/18)

[Private account:] We run out of time for messengers to get their questions asked and motions considered, but we have extra time for Dave Ramsey’s infomercial and now his panel. We are 25 minutes behind. C’mon. #SBC18 (6/12/18) [money, money, money]

[Private account:] It's sad that some of our younger messengers refuse to stand or even applaud for our service men and women. It is totally disrespectful (Rom 13:7). #sbcam18 #sbc18 (6/12/18) [Kool-Aid-drinker]

[Private account:] There's not a thing in the world wrong with voting Republican or having their political convictions. But let's be honest. We're sellouts. It's time to change. #SBC18 (6/13/18)

[Private account:] No politician (Republican, Democrat, or in between) should be given the podium at the Southern Baptist Convention. Our Kingdom is not of this world. It was wrong when we did it in the past and it is wrong now. #sbc18 #sbcam18 (6/11/18)

Those "adults" are Jack Graham and his connected buddies. I've written an entire FREE book on the ugly underbelly of their operations, out in November. You are a truth-teller! (6/15/18):

[Private account:] Let me be clear. The higher ups at #sbc18 knew this would be controversial to minorities and felt their white/Republican majority mattered more plain and simple. That means our perspective is at the kiddie table. The adults who "know better" make the real decisions. (6/9/18)

[Private account:] We now have as many motions saying the same thing about inviting politicians to speak as we have held hands while praying. #SBCAM18 (6/12/18)

[Private account:] I long for the day when the @SBCMeeting hears more from prophets and less from politicians. Enough of the moral majority. Let's embrace our true identity as a missionary minority. #sbc18 #SBCAM18 (6/12/18)

[Private account:] It is not the purpose of #sbc18 to put people in office, make statements, adopt resolutions, etc. It exists so churches can work together for the sake of the Great Commission. If your motion or statement isn't motivated by that, consider refraining from making it. (6/9/18)

[Private account:] SBC brothers and sisters, you've been played by the White House and the committee on the order of business, who yesterday stated that Pence was coming to bring greetings and thanks. This is nothing more than a free campaign rally with a large hijacked audience. #SBC18AM #sbc18 (6/13/18)

[Private account:] Here is why many Southern Baptists were upset Mike Pence was given a platform to speak, and why we should work to never see it happen again: His speech had: 76 references to the president (16 by name), 65 references to America or the United States, 1 mention of Jesus. #SBC18 (6/14/18)

I'm sitting here at the Southern Baptist Convention. Earlier today Vice President Mike Pence addressed the convention. We were told he initiated the offer to speak. I wish we had not accepted." #SBC18 #SBCAM18 <https://thegspl.co/2Jli9y9> -@TGC (6/13/18)

#SBC18 should be the last time there's a campaign speech at a Southern Baptist Convention meeting, because while the SBC's members primarily may be Republican, the annual meeting is not an appropriate place for a campaign speech. It's supposed to be about the Great Commission. <http://bit.ly/2JRmJ0j> -@edstetzer (~6/13/18) (Now his Twitter account only starts a week AFTER the convention—all prior posts deleted, including our conversations, years ago. Probably got one of his jobs threatened). (6/13/18)

I know that sent a terribly mixed signal. We are grateful for civic leaders who want to speak to our Convention—but make no mistake about it, our identity is in the gospel and our unity is in the Great Commission. Commissioned missionaries, not political platforms, are what we do.

Update #2: Church Conflicts (Restated)

(6/22/18)

This story is 100 percent true, and picks up immediately after our “Church Conflicts” report (on our website) left off (found at WillYouLiveForever.org). The Lord led me to post positive and negative things on TripAdvisor—my first time ever using it, or ever since—to get people to read that chapter of our website.

Despite several complements about Prestonwood Baptist, the staff called me to their campus. When there, I was made to sign a contract never to mention them online, or post names, or contact any staffers, or I could NOT return to that church (my family are all members—I quit my membership in protest of an $18 million building purchase "for evangelism," and moved it much later to where I was licensed to the ministry by a GREAT pastor in 1981—First Baptist, Houston.

Having already been banned from ALL Bible Fellowship classes a couple years prior, I was all too happy not only to sign the document, but write it, being the lawyer at the table of three.

Plus, all the efforts God had made me make Jack Graham (their head pastor) make at that church, behind the scenes for about five years was enough, and I had no reason to say TRUTHful but negative things about them online, as the changes were so positive and so many. Plus, I was so willing to leave the church, but my family never would.

I had had MANY run-ins with Jack, over the years, mainly over 10 percent tithing being not required for Christians, and the other heresy, Lordship Salvation (which he embraces). I was happy with the results, but tired of the fight. SOON after the contract was signed, MOST famous pastors and ministries in America started dropping by THIS account.

I kept every name (copied and pasted them into a M.S. Word file)—shocked at the notice. I quickly deduced that Jack was word-of-mouthing to all his connections, because what I was writing to ALL pastors is what he had had to address the past six to eight years, from God through me.

I think he liked not being the only one hassled for top biblical priorities! I took advantage of a glitch (now fixed), at the time, where if you followed on one, the algorithms of Twitter had LITTLE chance of hiding who came by, especially when I rarely used the @ or # signs.

These were all the top names and executives of seminaries, Bible colleges, and national ministries, and head pastors (including known mega churches).

For 1.3 years (Nov. 2013 forward), I wrote mainly extolling all pastors to DO EDBS priorities (defined at that website). I must have given a thousand different angles on those four topics, and even Linked-In emailed me that my file there was approaching "legend status" and a stadium-full of people checked my bio. I had NEVER sent one in-mail; probably still haven't (technological dinosaur).

MANY famous pastors started talking about revival and evangelism. I cite MOST of them in the book. This was before I knew about or had Twitter dashboard, which later confirmed this account had gone viral.

About nine months later, obviously because some pastors watched a lot, there became some backlash, because I wasn't writing to any particular pastor, and was repeating the same exhortations a 'million' times (and though people FREELY watched, that's how it felt, to them). I got into several online debates with two, maybe three fairly well-known Christian ministers. The EXACT debate content is in that book. I save every tweet, excepting about 200 I deleted, to-date.

This is where it gets more interesting. About Oct., 2014, the Lord let me know, and approximately three times I said here, that this file is going political—NOT "religious." In early 2015 I group-tweeted all the famous pastors I knew, and asked them why they were so silent about gay marriage likely going national?

I taunted some of them as throwing in the towel in old age, or retirement. SOON, they held a conference call to organize, and soon after Obergefell was decided, they touted Pence and Ms. Davis (who wouldn't sign marriage certificates).

I made a HUGE legal argument NOT against gays having any less rights than were they to be 'married,' but doing so by private contract. In June, that view LOST, and you accept the law.

But some of these men didn't. In late March, 2015, I got my first inkling that this band of about four pastors were trying to recruit me to run for political office. I had fasted for two weeks, and late at night the Lord called me to a specific job. It was so personal, I later deleted it online, but it's in the book, now.

That weekend, Jack noted to the crowd, 'do y'all sense a powerful presence in the room this evening?' I must admit, it was quite intense, after days of writing and fasting!

So this bunch seeks to get me to run for the exact office I had posted about. MANY famous pastors started coming to speak at our church (not only to encourage a run, but maybe to see that I'm not just keystrokes). Dr. James Dobson was the most obvious in his sermon innuendos, and in our book we detail exactly where, with a link.

These recruitment efforts happened five to six times, between March, 2015 and May 2018, but one in particular had the sermon end with calling anyone who felt led into politics to come forward. The Lord told me NOT to move. It shocked them! I later find out it's because that group would go on to back tRump.

MANY sermons suggested I run in 2016, but I had ALWAYS said 2020, with only ONE tweet exception, that said if the backing and knowledge of how to do so were made available, I'd consider 2016. I was a life-long GOP, at the time.

During the 2016 debates, MANY politicians on both sides of the aisle used our ideas expressed here (documented in the book, Wit and Wisdom). Jack monitored this file like a hawk, and would put little tidbits in sermons, to instruct me, encourage me, or let me know he still watched the account.

One Wednesday evening, in June, 2015, JUST after I added a speech on Facebook slamming CHUMP, using the word "nonsense," Jack accurately called 45's campaign that exact same word—non-sense.

In fact, when he hosted the North Texas Presidential Forum, he told the audience, 'we have the ones we really wanted.' Hillary and Chump never attended. But then, 1.5 weeks later, JACK becomes the 'evangelical council's' only spokesperson to ABC News saying, "I can champion this man" (tRump). Hypocritical flip-flopper, for power idolatry!

Besides the latest two entres/recruitment efforts the book details (in 2018), you need to know the Lord had me summarize all the policy speeches I had posted, that got both sides of the aisle so interested in them. That takes MUCH work—two years, full-time!

Plus, every time Jack got political, in church, I would protest and leave for three weeks to two months, so I didn't have time to pay attention to this same bunch of pastors I label the 'Christian Cabal.'

However, when 45 unexpectedly won, the Lord started leading me to learn all the many tricks they had used from June 23, 2015 until Nov. 9, 2016. I had NO idea! Quite honestly, it angered me!

I had gotten those men organized, but two to three years prior, God had me scold them in many various ways, to organize them to ACT on His EDBS priorities. Only Jack, and a handful of them did it very sustainedly, and they decided to turn it political, and evil!

Overturing Roe seemed to be their dead-set goal, after I had mocked them for letting it pass when I was too young to speak out, but they were behind pulpits.

I'm pretty sure they took that as a challenge, and somewhere vowed they'd be for a GOP presidential candidate, no matter if it was Hitler, if they could influence he or she to stack SCOTUS with far-right justices.

The story drags on for three years, to this day, even last week, at the Southern Baptist Convention. When I saw it turned political, by Jack, I decided it was time to break that contract. I retweeted all the best posts those famous ministers had read for 1.3 years (mainly in 2014), and added it to Christians for Trump (book), where I detail every act Jack has done, be it recruiting Greg Laurie to join the Southern Baptists, getting Pence to speak at their convention, and a host of other things.

EVERY GOOD IDEA he got from HERE! Now that he advises CHUMP, I'm very careful NOT to let Chump benefit from MY brain, through Christ, because Jack STILL watches intensely!

Just yesterday, I conversed, here, with a gal angry that he praises such an evil man, 'in Jesus' name,' and who addressed a payment to Jack from Ivanka. Jack blocked her! Late last evening she wondered aloud, on Twitter, why Jack would block her. I explained how he blocks ANY negative news, plus good reasons why that $50,000 payment would want to be kept hush-hush.

I mean this 100 percent literally (because many media outlets watch here, and because God is sovereign), conservatively speaking there have been WELL over 100 news events and/or articles that came from what God had me type here, and well over 50 accurate predictions (documented in our book).

Twitter date-stamps your tweets, so you can verify that claim on your own time, when the books are out. I'm NOT bragging, but thankful.

So if you want to know the secret behind the 2016 election, READ Wit and Wisdom! EACH speech is dated, and you can find it on Twitter, as proof (excepting older ones, I learned recently can drop off forever).

tRump is WELL aware of all God used me to do among pastors, as a FoxNews article I link to mentions ONLY two mega pastors he sought for his 'evangelical council'—the ONLY two my family has sat under since 1996!

He tried to steal many of my ideas, but with his lack of intelligence and character, obviously pulled it off HORRIBLY, though he did use five good ideas of ours I'll praise him for, because there MY ideas (detailed in the book).

I was #NeverTrump one week into his campaign, and changed parties the moment he officially won, and in doing so, I have never compromised one conviction of mine, and never backed down from opposing his presidency due to THIS crap (and never will): <https://bit.ly/2fIESxj>

The thing MANY people in America, and some Southern Baptist pastors don't know is all the shenanigans Jack Graham has been doing since he learned I wasn't going to run in 2016! I'm one of the few who know them, and his merry band of peers won't expose them (a reputation hit!), or think they're great, because they sold their souls to power idolatry—I never did, or would.

So, since that contract is now null and void, as of last weekend, it's only now that I can tell ALL the gory details. Rest assured, if I weren't a Christian, knowing what I've witnessed and experienced the past three years, I wouldn't listen to ANYONE try to get me to be one; very sinfully appalling.

But now all that information will be available to all, through those two books. I noticed, once Jack knew the contract was breached, suddenly his boy pal crush called him in for a photo op, to post to duped 'followers,' he got a $50K donation from Ivanka (summer months are the worst for church budgets), and his praise for the mans "character" (an oxy-moronic term, in that case) has only taught me he is doubling down, and becoming Robert Jeffress, who, this weekend, will preach a FALSE sermon that America is a "Christian nation." NOT just based on Judeo-Christian principles.

They have drank tRump's Kool-Aid so often, I truly can't expect anything less than God's judgment to fall on both of those men, in some form or fashion, especially Bobby, who has been goo-goo eyed since tRump day one, after he also chased Rick Perry and insulted Mitt Romney, only to kiss-up, later. NO CORE CHARACTER, pip squeak (or squeal?).

There is a VERY serious "spirit" behind these two to four men's actions, and it is NOT the spirit of Jesus, behind the scenes (vs. on stage, where actors play) . On stage, no problem. That contradiction God sees, and will not turn a blind eye to. I wouldn't want to be any of them. Read our books for more details.

Direct messages to Jack Graham, who watched here like a HAWK, after forcing me to sign a contract to never mention his staff or church, online, or never return to his church. Since I was READY to leave, I was all too happy to write the contract, then sign it; they Xeroxed three+ copies. (6/17/18)

My pastor DID make HUGE changes in his OWN productivity, if not much in the congregation. FOLLOW HIS LEAD! No names, for legal purposes. (11/9/14)

DIRECTLY involved in Harvest Dallas, and My Hope, and used my website materials in sermons for more than three years. I'll never take that away from him. Time for you other pastors change. (11/9/14)

Update #3: Status Quo Or Status NO?

(6/27/18)

In reviewing past pastor criticisms, it's AMAZING how many people "project" how they'd feel were they in your shoes! Pastors justifying status quo Churchianity—to defend money turf—often say 'self-righteous' when one with convictions says it's wrong what you're doing, and it must change. Obstinate in sin!

Preach-and-be-paid is man's tradition, and only one of MANY biblical pastor obligations! Easy street for money idol, IF they ignore II Tim. 2:22 and 4:5, among other things. For my lifetime I will avidly oppose status quo in both politics and religion, as God is NOT for any evils of status quo! I WON'T be quiet.

WHO likes status quo? Those benefitted from status quo, both in politics and religion! Justify keeping things the same, because the money's good! Church as a business is OPPOSITE Jesus, yet many subscribe to it, where the goal is get as many church members as possible, any way you can!

It doesn't matter that God wants holy and evangelistic church members. If that happens, or not, 'our' concern is the numbers/metrics, for that's how we can live high on the hog in this life (yet broke in Heaven, if they're going!).

And forget the Bible's blueprint for what a pastor is supposed to do, or be (especially II Cor. 8:14, as we're in America, where every church is independent. Culture trumps Bible, and because ALL my peers are doing it, it has to be right, or I better do it anyway, for fear of peer reprisals and/or social ostracization, because God said you need people's approval of you, right? WRONG! Gal. 1:10!

Laymen don't know any better, because most of them are too lazy to be Berean, and study for themselves (Ac. 17:11), OPPOSITE this verse: I Jn. 2:27, basically being as carnal as the Corinthian church was, also idolizing wayward (arrogant) pastors (I Cor. 1-4).

So how does all this tie into Bible prophecy? Perfectly! Ministers in ministry mainly for the money (Jude; II Pet.)—false ones, at that.

The Laodicean church era is typified by rich churches that are spiritual failures (Rev. 3). And all fitting into 'The Apostasy (II Th. 2:3), which precedes the grand delusion of lost people, destining them to Hell (II Th. 2:10).

Does anyone notice any truth-hating in America in the past two years? Fake news claims, picked up by the Christian Cabal's sermons, etc. Blind faith worship of political party, even though neither party is morally perfect.

ALL these trends line up to expected coming prophecy events, and 'Christians' are playing right into the Devil's hands, but also God's plans for the Tribulation!

(Mt. 24:12) Carnality rampant; (II Tim. 3:5) External 'righteousness,' JUST LIKE these characters (Mt. 23:28).

And for ME to cite this many Bible verses, spontaneously, and with ZERO Bible near me causes PASTORS to call that 'self-righteous,' or 'bibliolatry,' or showing off my knowledge. UN-true, but I challenge you to SHOW OFF YOURS!

You haven't much, so you can't; and it's NOT showing off, but defending/justifying my words and deeds by God's revealed will—something you take LIGHTLY, so you can adhere to getting rich off insufficient job descriptions, mainly preach-and-be-paid, and Churchianity as one hour a week vs. 24/7, mainly OUTSIDE your religious retail establishments!

You can't control people when their walk with Jesus doesn't involve you very much, but that's Christian maturity—NOT being under gurus, but having tutors mentor you onto walking on your own two spiritual feet—relational discipling... something y'all NEVER do!

If pastors were REQUIRED to know the whole counsel of God decently, before receiving their seminary diploma, churches would be much more biblical! As it is, there trained to preach (not teach, disciple, evangelize, etc.) and given "tools" so they can learn the Bible the rest of their life.

MUCH pastor knowledge is just staying one step ahead of their crowds, doing sermon prep on a topic one week before sermonizing! I challenge any U.S. pastor to publicly debate me on the biblical truthfulness of every statement I've posted, today, but you have to justify your responses with Bible verses!

EDBS. That acronym sums up biblical church. I would venture to say that not one church has fully evangelized every lost soul within walking distance of their un-commanded building in the past ten years, paid for by un-commanded ten percent tithes, to support un-commanded full-time salaries!

I'd also guess not one U.S. church is implementing a plan to disciple up all church members, using multiplication. Most do NOT use laymen's spiritual gifts to edify the body when gathered on Sundays, to DO the 'one anothers' of Scripture, and only recently have many WASP churches started much social ministry (save for more liberal High-Church denominations), and that, mainly to assuage political complaints that they only care about favoring the rich, CONTRARY to God, again (Levit. 19:15).

So what's the state of the U.S. church, today? Great in music, interesting sermons, and decent large edifices. Beyond that, terrible, and possibly WORSE than when the great Christian hero, Keith Green, accurately penned THIS song, which eerily echoes the Laodicean church culture we Christians accept as the way things ought to be, because we know little different: <https://bit.ly/2eRm64U>

This bores me to say, but the universal church has ZERO organized plans to identify who is lost, who's saved (the ONLY two options, II Cor. 5:16), who's never heard the Gospel, and who hasn't heard it in past five years. ZERO PLANS!

We're so independent, on Judgment Day we're going to be raked over the coals for how that sin hurt the lost's chances at going to Heaven! The Southern Baptist Convention, and a few smaller denominations with missions societies, are the closest thing to trying to do the global evangelism work! Quite honestly, most others are doing a terrible job. Charismatics sometimes do some good work, as with Bible church sponsorships of missionaries. THE reason is there's no money in it!

I've even had a church staffer tell me evangelism crusades were abandoned because they don't pay for themselves! READ Mt. 6:33. IF YOU DO what Gods told you to, whatever finances come as a result are to be your lot in life—abundance or lack, or anything in-between! (Pv. 30:8) You do NOT go into "ministry" for the money, but the God-obeying and honoring SERVICE to others!

In fact, when I was called into ministry, the NORMAL expectation was that preachers are poor! Parents would be disappointed, inside—never saying it outwardly—that their usually sons (few females, back then) was going to struggle through life, financially.

This was NORMATIVE! It's ONLY when greedy businesses decided they could get rich, by using secular—NOT spiritual—means to grow churches, that more mega churches arose.

As an example, in Houston, I was interviewed for the Jesus Video Project manager (Campus Crusade off branch), until I raised a stink in front of about ten local Christian 'leaders' that we ought not be ripping off churches and pastors, selling those CD's for about $23, when cost was between $1 and $3!

I DIDNT get the job! Just like at Second Baptist, when a teacher and coach (the same person) asked if I would expect all staffers to evangelize, if I was hired as their Evangelism Minister, a week later they had a "hiring freeze", even though they raked in $1M a week at the time!

It also had to do with my opposing their Summit (now Lakewood Church) event where two men bragged they donated $50K or more, and others could, or they used John Baugh's $20M in ways he hadn't desired (starting the Katy multi-site), and cut off the business meeting microphone when one tried to oppose that decision, or them telling me my job was to get people to the campus, and Dr. Young's charisma would take over from there, or my opposing their use of a 'Joash Box,' where parishioners paraded their pledge envelopes before their peers, to pressure people's giving.

That, plus insistence in many churches on pastors God-give RIGHT to ten percent of your income, to use as they please—even jet-setting to coddle tRump at his beckoning call, is why I oppose Churchianity, and church-as-a-business status quo American Christianity—and ALWAYS will.

VERY recently (2018) that's because allegations of my being unsaved, feeling entitled to Christians support of my political views, being self-righteous, among other things. And rest assured, the Christian Cabal wields man-made, Devil-inspired 'power' in sinful ways, behind the scenes!

I retweeted a morally GOOD man, 2.5 weeks ago, and now that tweet, and every one before it for years back are absolutely GONE! It said Southern Baptists ought never again have a politician speak to them at their convention!

I know the man (had a few conversations with him), and he's godly, but the Christian Cabal pressures him and Dr. Moore (and others) to bend to their will! That's tRumpian bullying, strong arm, sinful tactics the Devil, in his world system uses through THEIR man, Chump. I guarantee you that man's tweets are in our book!

I expose ALL their evil deeds (Eph. 5:11). That's why I get blocked on Twitter, have been banned from ALL Sunday School classes at my family's church, and have a contract to never mention them online, again, or I can't return.

It's a POWER EGO TRIP which is NOT seemly among a man of the cloth! Now you see why critics abound against this online ministry! I shake up their apple cart. I say what I've said today, and have since 2014. Every gory detail of sin-laced carnality is exposed in the book I now need to complete: Christians for Trump: Is God a Democrat or a Republican?

There were over 25 allegations raised by status quo justifying pastors—every one of them rebutted with Scripture. Here is EXACTLY what those type pastors want to maintain...

High incomes by luring people to their church, any way but sinfully (if you call advertising a week of sex atop your church as not sinful).

EDBS priorities get ignored, except by the man God had me hound for nearly a decade, and now he sometimes does things just so he can rebut my claims that he doesn't do them, even if evil by motives, to make me look inaccurate (three instances, or more, to-date, also in the book).

And that's both the best in their bunch, as with being one of the worst—all in the same Jeckyl/Hyde body! He has HUMANLY "powerful" SBC friends in high places, and they orchestrate public events to LOOK like racial reconciliation and evangelism and revival problems are being fixed!

He's the LEAST of the problem; his peers reinforce him, and attack people "attacking" (their word) status quo church practice. It doesn't matter that all I do is use Scripture. That's NOT how they want their careers to go, older in life now!

Just let me do the one skill I've perfected, and keep raking in a big salary—Easy Street, and don't EVER ask me to care if other churches are hurting, or my church growth tactics steal sheep from smaller churches! That's Capitalism—NOT Christ! MOST church growth is NOT from evangelism but transferred memberships!

So does anyone understand why I'm hated among some famous pastors? Maybe respected by others, but you don't want to stick out from your peers! Collegial collusion, as my books have called it. Slander the messenger, so long as the message never has to be implemented! These are Bible prophecy signs!

(II Tim. 4:2-5 and Ac. 20:27). You abandon the whole counsel of God to preach sinful health and wealth false doctrine, so you can buy Lear jets and live in mansions, when Lk. 16:25 says you will be broke in Heaven—if you're even going! God gets justice—one day!

I have yet to have one famous pastor refute this message with Scripture, in four years!; only attack my character, with lies, because they know nothing about me, from first-hand interactions—and won't call or meet with me (excepting one, who even won't meet—just make changes, or attack if not mainly make changes). WEAKNESS! Cowardice sin.

They want to preach and be paid, and do LITTLE evangelism, relational discipling or Body life. That's not their 'business plan', said one of them. Then your business is corrupt, as you're not following God's plan!

'Self-appointed' is another term they throw out like free water. Ounce KNOWS God called me to do these things. Interview him with a camera and a lie detector! March 23, 2015, at his church; Saturday evening church service (give or take the date being exact?).

WATCH the video on Vimeo! Read 'Church Conflicts,' here: <https://bit.ly/2KiXmFO>, from page 76, forward.

This is systemic in American Christian practice! Rev. Bill Hybels said in all his years as a pastor, he felt he hadn't changed many Christian's lives, with all his sermons!

Churchianity wants bodies, bucks and buildings, when God wants holy and evangelistic children. Two separate 'business models.' Ps. 119:11 and Josh. 1:8 DON'T say sanctification success comes from hearing topical sermons you forget before 72 hours expire!

MOST sermons have three points and a poem (or other anecdotes), with 70 percent+ man's thoughts in-between; FEW Bible verses.

And the Bible was written in a sequence most parishioners will NEVER know (i.e., context), because topical sermons rule the day, as with even asking/polling the crowd what they want to hear. The Bible calls that ear tickling.

It's the eloquence, the humor, the entertainment value—some pastors use props, dramas, skits, videos, anything to make the Bible interesting, because they must believe it NOT on its own! And for you NON-Christians, instead of going to you, and lovingly telling you you can go to Heaven as a free gift Christ secured by His death on the cross, so you don't have to pay the eternal penalty for all your sins, in Hell (Jn. 3:16), pastors WON'T come by where you work or live—especially if there "famous," by MAN'S vs. God's definition of fame (Ac. 19:15).

Instead, they will LET you risk Hell, if you don't come to church from their political rallies, music concerts, food trucks, dodge ball contests, famous celebrity speakers, marriage counseling, gym and weight rooms, or a host of other events designed to get people with NO alive spirit for God to come to a place that's supposed to be spiritually supernatural... church!

If their TV and radio shows never get found by you, or you for some NORMAL reason turn off to their billboard advertising a sermon, 'America is a Christian nation' (from phobia about too many Muslims taking over our nation, like there's a religious competition for the 'tithe'), you'll NEVER hear John 3:16 from them!

You can go to Hell is what that unbiblical model of church is RIGHTLY interpreted as saying to you, lost neighbors! You are NOT risking Hell; you could NOT die today; you are not missing out on an abundant life; and you will NOT lack eternal rewards. THAT is what modern church practice says (to nearby lost people) by its under-evangelism!

I've written enough; email me for a public debate. Otherwise, shut the heck up in defending your corrupt system before Jesus' sheep!

Excellent! I have NO problem with unions, but forcing anyone to your political slant is wrong, just as it is with the Christian Cabal members trying to corrupt my denomination, the Southern Baptist Convention! EQUALLY WRONG, like threatening @drmoore 's job, or a threatened withholding $1 million if they speak TRUTH about Chump! SIN!: In the ruling of Janus vs. AFSCME, the Supreme Court says that government workers can't be required to pay labor union fees.

Update #4: Peer Pressure Or God's Conviction?

I've said this MANY times before, but pastor's just imitate their peers, to decide what needs to be done. If one takes off time in summer, that's the norm for all. One new act becomes 'precedent,' where others can say others are doing it. What Bible says they are to be doing ONLY matters if everyone else does it.

I've heard, 'It's been done before' to justify anything. Murder and rape have been done before, and others are doing it, so why shouldn't you? BECAUSE IT'S WRONG! 'We've never done that before' is ZERO reason for any pastor NOT to do what God says is their job description! And every peer being disobedient is NO reason to follow the crowd off the cliff.

You can't make money discipling Christians, and evangelizing lost people, and doing Body Life in the church service, or helping solve social problems. THAT is why pastors don't do God's top priorities! It is SERVICE to God and others pastors believe aren't profitable, and when you're in ministry for the money, you're a false prophet in it for the profit.

I take back my ~70 percent estimate on how much of sermons are MAN'S words, after our road trip, today. I heard six sermons, and the number is about 97 percent! NO WONDER laymen think the Bible is too complicated to study, and cling to pastors like life gurus! ATROCIOUS, and there is NO power in man's words, compared to God's! (6/29/18)

U.S. pastors should heed the three-point sermon of John Bisagno, decades ago, from Rev. 2:5... Remember, Repent and Return to the days when your walk and ministry call were innocent (probably in your 20's). It wasn't a business, but a passionate calling! <https://bit.ly/2MCwSvk>
Do the first things! (6/28/18)

Phil. 4:9 and I Th. 1:5-6 are also AMAZING relational discipleship verses! The New Testament does NOT simply teach pastors to preach sermons, but to demonstrate, role model, mentor and engage/relate to and with their members, and you CAN'T do that by being a mystery figure who mainly shows up on Sundays after the music has been sung! (7/1/18)

Most likely because he watches my account like a hawk, and I retweeted you, earlier today! Great window dressing, but the inner seeps through, sadly. You will be SO exposed, even on YouTube. A sleepy giant has been awakened. (6/14/18)

Update #5: Church Changes (6/28/18)

How hilariously ironic. Prestonwood has decided NOT to post their last Saturday sermon, where Jack Graham says, "I sin as much as I want to," then catches himself. It's in the context of inviting sinners to salvation, who say they don't want to give up anything! I would have added it to this book.

JUST LIKE another RECENT faux pas... "I'm not the Devil," said by Jack Graham within the last three weeks, probably on a Saturday evening, always available for a listen on Vimeo. Prestonwood Baptist Church. You can't make these things up, folks!

I am SHOCKED I could sit under such biblically great sermons, often from my website, so many years, and NOT recognize the HEART of Jack Graham had NEVER changed from that which God had me force change upon starting in 2006 until 2015! External deeds don't always reflect inner change!

The temptation is to write off all organized religion (especially mega churches), but I KNOW not all are corrupt! I'll probably take a VERY long time before I ever return to any local church on any regular basis...

Regarding Jack Graham... A man convinced against his will is of the same opinion still; you can lead a horse to water, but you can't make him drink; and Mt. 15:8. He deduced that if he did biblical changes, publicly, he could use that in evil ways, for politics. Mt. 15:19; Gen. 50:20 in REVERSE!

He once said, 'you're never satisfied,' then rallied several of his SBC big wigs to attack me online, and probably spread rumors to people NOT in the know. First Baptist, Jacksonville, FL, and Biltmore Baptist, Asheville, NC were two of them, where one of our high school staffers transferred. AMAZING evil resistance to EDBS priorities!

And let's be 100: Though he's done MORE than his evangelism share, now, with three Harvest Americas, he refused and simply WILL NOT make sure everyone near Prestonwood has heard the Gospel in the past five years, who isn't already a Christian. He has NO plan to disciple ALL church members by multiplication, from the very small group his staff DOES disciple.

He HAS stepped up some social ministry, to the poor, and had a few racial reconciliation overtures, and has ZERO understanding what Body Life is—STILL! He thinks it's handshakes with strangers, or an occasional prayer huddle with those seated next to you. Spiritual gifts! One anothers!

Many pastors over age 50 have ZERO compunction to change preach-and-be-paid! SET in their ways, with AGE!? It doesn't matter one iota what the Bible teaches concerning what a pastor is SUPPOSED to do! Our salaries are BIG, at that age, and our flesh likes it. WHO CARES what the Bible says? Attack the messenger!

Update #6: Doubling Down for Donald
(6/30/18)

[Post WH photo op and $50K Ivanka donation] OUNCE (Jack) Gram has NO CHOICE but to double down in support of his slave master immoral BFF—45! He now knows his reputation is set to have the lid blown off it by TRUTH, so he will sour as many stupid minds among Christians as possible, to save his own sullied "image," and to try to cover his many sins!

Note to @JackNGraham: Kiss-up, brown-noser, suck-up, flatterer, man-pleaser, appeaser and power idolater are NOT moral achievements, or complementary terms, which ACCURATELY describe you, now. You have sold your soul for Roe's overturn, and DJT has serious Satanic power over you, "Christian!"

It AMAZES me how far old men will go to keep their earthly kingdoms, "for God." May they ALL fall in rubble to the judgment of God—soon! Raze them to the ground, as these Christian Cabal men do NOT serve You, but themselves, using Your glorious name for fame and money idolatry. Judge them swiftly, I pray.

Pansies won't tackle a woman entering Planned Parenthood, to save the child (which I DON'T recommend), but, instead, kiss up to the STUPIDEST and LEAST moral president in 50 years, so he will stack SCOTUS to do their dirty work they're too COWARDLY and dastardly to do themselves, from fear and wussy wimpiness sins! No g-nads.

Hypocrites, liars, schemers, dividers, trouble-makers, inciters, self-centered egoists through self-advancement; devious, two-faced, idolatrous, HAS BEENS. These terms accurately describe the Christian Cabal. "Sinners" would sum it up, in short fashion. The ends justify the means? #Sin2Win!

NO backbone, NO convictions; blinders-on laser beam over-attention on Roe; throw morals and reputations to the wind. Chameleons, who shift like the wind, by GOP polls. Weak pansies, that lose their rose pedals in the torrents of life; anchored in flesh, self; "image" is everything, they teach staff to believe.

As I was editing our latest book, I saw a tweet of OUNCE where he praises 45's character and handling of the immigrant family split up policy HE initiated. Gram has lost his soul, and is now Bob Jeffress Kool-Aid drinker #2! It's quite scary how evil 45 must be in person. The closest thing to the Antichrist in U.S. history

Trump escalates North Korea tensions, then swoops in to fix HIS problem. Trump splits up immigrant families, then swoops in to fix HIS problem. Were it not for Chump's many screw ups, he'd have nothing to claim he fixed, it seems; then his daughter (or DJT through her?) offers $50K to a so-called pastor to praise such problem-solving 'character.' A delusional duo!

'Built More?'

Even a mega church critic's wife addressed our "open letter, calling them" "rants and raves" in her blog (as with two other critics). My critics know of this [Twitter] site, as it convicts [or angers] them... (11/14/14)

I consider contacting "famous" ministers ZERO special occasion (Gal. 2:6). It's ONLY following the Bible's example of going to "leaders" to address top omissions! (7/23/14)

Apparently Biltmore's pastor didn't like us agreeing with Wikipedia that Osteen's sermons are often 'Christianity lite.'

P.S.: Frank... "watered-down" is a depiction secular Wikipedia uses about Osteen. Don't be mad at me for identifying what many know; that's NOT being divisive—it's TRUE!

@BruceFrank1 I would LOVE to meet with you in person to show I'm no "heresy hunter," and share TRUE fellowship when in your town soon. Email me if you will. JM

What demeans Church, Frank, is our LACK of EDDBS. I actually build her up, exhorting her leaders to DO EDDBS, and have offered to participate. NO hypocrisy accusations stick.

I've NEVER identified any pastor as a heretic. That's a red herring distraction method to avoid the message, in opinioned "#HeresyHunters" article. Sad!

You ought to READ "Open Letter," #FrankBruce, and better, DO IT. I'll help your church FULLY evangelize one zip code. WILL YOU? Easier to attack than to obey.

I have NEVER "attacked" any famous or rich pastor to get fame or money, and I've never gotten either of those [human] idols. Just humbly exposing the TRUTH!

Heresy Hunter? I NEVER wrote one untruth on our website, confronted EVERY person on Church Conflicts, and even DIS-couraged following tweets and made NO money, Frank!

Please show me where I have "mocked" Southern Baptist beliefs, critic, except where I use the Bible to refute Lordship Salvation's Ten Commandments. Waiting...

Paul went to the Jerusalem church when God raised him up. Was that 'celebrity coat-tailing,' or should he have gone elsewhere? SILLY accusations!

I'll publicly debate ANY U.S. pastor on the issues I just mentioned—EDDBS, FULL evangelism, revival and prophecy. Any takers? Then GO EVANGELIZE! (8/22/14)

You have the platform your wife slanders me as seeking to create. USE IT TO GOD'S GLORY! Bring public attention to IMPORTANT stuff, vs. lesser things!

Words his wife used in her now defunct blog article:

'Heresy hunter,' sir? WHERE did I accuse that, except possibly Lordship Salvation. "Mercenary?" They get PAID! No one enlisted me but our God. Dumb accusation! (8/22/14)

If ticking off pro ministers is how you would grow a platform, you have no business sense. It's NOT about selling books, but changing status quo church.

If Ms. Frank doubts my sincerity (i.e., "pseudo angst"), meet me at a lie detector expert you and I trust. I'll be there. You pay, because you doubt! Email me.

This "angst" only seems "crazy" to some, for they have YET to get angry that pastors grow businesses at the expense of the lost's eternity for 30+ years.

I'm NOT jealous. I pity you on judgment day. I just resent articles so full of lies and ignorance from a "pastor's wife." Have your husband TEACH you!

If I got "fame" for those tweets, how come no one associates with me, no offers to speak, etc. Your claims are BASELESS. Doing these things takes courage—not self-interest.

READ, mam. Church conflicts [website section] tells EVERY detail of how I followed FULLY biblical protocol, but you can't break through iron walls of isolation!

I've never made one DIME doing any of this. What's your husband's COMPLETE salary, since it is derived from hard-working donors to God? Hypocrisy?!

I've NEVER identified any pastor as a heretic. That's a red herring distraction method, to avoid the message, in the opinioned "#HeresyHunters" article. Sad! (7/23/14)

I was looking for fame with my tweets? Are you kidding, Ms. #BruceFrank? I was sitting on my couch finishing two books on BUSINESS and POLITICS, back then! (7/23/14)

No one was showing off their knowledge on our website. You show your ignorance to criticize it! Could you make a website like it? ONLY by God's grace did I!

Ms. Frank has ZERO evidence I sit in a basement and do no ministry. Straw men arguments win ZERO credible followers. Who's the head of that union?

Rant and rail? By God's grace I wrote more wisdom in that month than your article espoused, though you had eight months to craft it! (II Cor. 10-13, refute enemies).

If Built-more FULLY evangelizes EVERY lost person near their building, I COMMEND YOU. If not, quit projecting your guilt against that message!

Our Open Letter was followed by "ranting?" It's been on the web since ~2006, uninformed one. Why did my tweets bother you so to write such pabulum? Conviction?

'Tithey Tim?'

Referent: <http://bit.ly/2vPZXPC> (8/20/09)

Background:

The "TITHE" is NOT New Testament demanded, plain as day. Give what the Holy Spirit leads you to. I'd EARMARK ALL, so your meager wages don't make millionaires! (11/9/14)

A ten percent tithe, church buildings and required full-time salary are ALL not biblically commanded. You HATE that message, though it's TRUE, so you oppose me. (11/9/14)

You don't like my saying that the New Testament doesn't teach a ten percent tithe? You must not love the TRUTH! I've sacrificed all, financially. No one accuses me of cheating Christ out of money! (11/9/14)

STOP "tithing" to mega pastors who DON'T 100 percent reveal their total compensation, and WON'T cap their salaries at a good rate, or you're UN-wise, laymen! (11/11/14)

God NEVER commanded church buildings, tithes are NOT commanded for Christians, nor are full-time pastor salaries biblically promised. Hated TRUTH by Churchianity. (11/11/14)

Church buildings were NEVER commanded, full-time pastor salaries are not promised, and tithing was a theocratic Judaism's national tax. #TRUTH! (11/13/14)

Mega pastors OFTEN getting rich off a NON-New Testament required "tithe." Churches run like a business SHOULD be taxed as UN-fair to other taxpayers. (11/27/14)

A ten percent tithe is NOT Bible-required, and whatever percent or amount you are LED to give, withhold it if your church isn't FULLY evangelizing all nearby lost people! (11/28/14)

It's EVIL for "tithes" to primarily pay for biblically UN-guaranteed large full-time pastor salaries and UN-commanded luxury buildings. (II Chr. 7:14) (11/30/14)

INSTEAD of a significant portion of it helping the poor, widow, orphan, etc., as the TRUE "tithe" did in Old Testament times as a Jewish national tax! (11/30/14)

STUDY what percent of the Jewish tithe went to help the marginalized, and compare that to mega church budgets, salaries and building expenses of today. Honesty. (12/23/14)

And the ten percent tithing is NOT what New Testament Christians are required to do, but Jewish nationals in their day in a theocracy. Give as God leads in amount and percent! (12/25/14)

It might hurt business if laymen were told that the tithing is for Jewish citizens in a theocracy under the law, and FEW "leaders" LEAD them to 100 percent evangelism, and I'm evil? (12/26/14)

II Cor. 8-9 describes Xian [Christian] giving, led by God. Ten percent tithing was the Jew's national theocracy tax, MUCH going to the poor vs. buildings and salaries, primarily. (12/27/14)

@macbrunson: That's fine brother. There is no tithing debate. God's word is clear—nothing to debate.

Joel Osteen

Since the late 1980's I have addressed and sought to bring light public to bear on Joel's watered-down, PMA/motivational speaker-type theologies (including a detailed expose mailed to the Bible Answer Man and notes left at Second Baptist, Houston, when he spoke there). I even took our Go Evangelize! sign to his father's church, before Joel bought The Summit. When the Twitterfest occurred, Joel was used as an example of how the WASP church had drifted to mega mania millionaire minister priorities, instead of EDBS priorities. As many pastors watched at that time, eventually a magazine article addressed Joel directly (written by a pastor friend of his), and I read that, at least for awhile, Lifeway Bookstores chose not to carry Joel's books. The correlation between these two results, as will always be the case on Twitter, is not 100 percent known by myself, but we have many less famous pastor names we copied and pasted from that time, who could be added to our VIP's section, all of who's accounts dropped by during that period. Our direct tweets to Joel, spun positive as God allowing the Devil to send critics (never addressing their content, or better, repented of and acted upon), are included in the posts below.

God does NOT give REAL pastors the right to cherry pick the positive verses to preach on! #WholeCounsel of God! <http://bit.ly/2hxrq2f> Money idolater!

NOWHERE in the Bible does God say that Osteen's mansion (ONLY on earth, vs. in Heaven) is how God's ministers are to use their excess! Selfish worldliness, in Jesus' name.

God does NOT condemn, but He does rebuke. Osteen NEEDS to repent of his Gospel lite, and use of riches for self-pampering; that's NOT cross-carrying!

Disciples DENY self. Self loves money, sex and the pride that usually accompanies those (I Jn. 2:15-17). Phil. 3: The gains of our past (especially moral, before saved) are considered as LOSS to REAL pastors. Not for Osteen's health and wealth heresy.

Does anyone believe Osteen is doing this?: Col. 3:1-4; he's an ear-tickling false prophet! (Rev. 22:19. Preach Ac. 20:27 to yourself-Joel! You're smarter than God?

Jesus was offered the entire world, by Satan, but rejected it. Me fears many a mega mania pastor would accept that offer! (Mt. 4:8-10)

There's a REASON this man is more biblical about money than Osteen! <http://abcn.ws/2v7gX2h> Priorities, conscience, Bible knowledge! Not self-delusion.

Positive mental attitude, self-help, motivational speaking, name-it-and-claim-it, the Gospel of health and wealth, faith in faith... ALL false heresies of apostate Christendom!

(II Th. 2:11) In Bible prophecy, inability to know the truth is coming! It seems some already are experiencing its first-fruits! Deception, fake news, etc.

And to any who secretly think I'm jealous of Osteen, NOTHING could be further from the truth! I would NOT want to be him on Judgment Day, at all! Never.

People WANT to hear nice lies! People HATE the truth if it's ever negative! People consider negativity a sin, and positivity holiness in a deluded society!

Make me feel good. Be a drug for me. Tell me all is O.K., even if facts say otherwise. It's why we have so many escapes! Raising a WEAK generation! SIN.

Cherry pick the Bible, and be my master/guru/mediator/chaperone between God and I. I don't want to know God and His word—you just do it for me, Joel! (vs. Ac. 17:11)

(II Tim. 2:14, 3:16-17) MEDITATE on these three verses today! Tell me anything more important for your life than doing them today, U.S. Christian, besides evangelism.

Study, no need to be ashamed, ALL Scripture—not just parts! Profitable, training in righteousness. READ I Jn. 2:27! One-on-one with God!

Joel Osteen is a fortune cookie. Open up his sermons, enjoy the sweet taste, then read the general, positive platitudes. Like tarot cards!

God wants you rich! NOT proven, Joel! (Pv. 30:8), et al. READ I Tim. 6:17-19. SIGN THE GIVING PLEDGE if you are of God, @JoelOsteen Preach on Acts 20:27.

WHEN does one have enough money, at which point they OUGHT to start caring about others with their finances? When one's nest egg off conservative interest can sustain you comfortably to the end.

At what stash size should EVERYONE sign the Giving Pledge? When you are able to live comfortably until the end of life off conservative interest from your nest egg!

For most people, $5-7 million. For high-life big spenders, it could be more. You're free to do so with less, but it is also biblical to give your family an inheritance! II Cor. 8:14, #OSTEEN!

I've heard talk radio 20 minutes MAXIMUM since 11/9/16. They ALWAYS paint liberals as evil. Implied message: We are the good guys. Deceptive LIE, often! Beware.

NO Christian can 100 percent be for EITHER political party. Many who are are duped and deceived! ONLY be for their good policies, OR you SIN. That's what Jesus would do.

I've concluded that 99+ percent of U.S. pastors are NEVER going to change preach-and-be-paid for EDBS priorities. 'The Apostasy' is here; just wait for the evil one to be revealed!

And the Laodicean church era will NOT repent, as God commands (Rev. 3); and the false prophets of II Pet. and Jude are here, too, in those Laodicean buildings!

READ II Cor. 8 (espec. vv. 8-15) and 11:28. You DON'T often find this collegial attitude of concern for other brethren's church finances and EDBS priorities in U.S.A.

Did you HEAR that Osteen interview? Would you ever tell your audience NOT to send in that money? Oh, I don't think I'd want to do that. OF COURSE NOT!

It's NOT ever a problem how much one earns, but what they do with their excess. That concept is ABSENT from political conservatism, yet WASP Christians flock to it!

Mark Levin called Warren Buffett 'self-loathing' for signing the Giving Pledge. So to love yourself, worldly materialism is the means? That IS II Tim. 3:2a!

ANOTHER proof Bible prophecy is fast approaching! READ this verse: Lk. 19:8. A rich person with a Giving Pledge attitude showed/evidenced salvation to Christ.

Read THIS verse: Mk. 12:34. Knowing loving God, then man is number one life evidenced a man about to get saved, to Jesus. Now read THIS: Mt. 6:24.

Osteen used the logical fallacy of poo-pooing a potential attack by arguing an extreme opposite straw man position. No one says pastors MUST all be poor. It deflected his answer!

If you are not trained to hear these detailed distinctions, pastors and politicians will dupe you every time. You've got to wise up, America! Be more aware!

There are NO limits to how extravagant someone can live under political conservatism, and be sinning and ignoring their fellow man's sufferings! Me, me, me.

And me first is the OPPOSITE of a disciple of Jesus (Phil. 2:1-6; Mk. 8:4) . Mt. 6 teaches to do God's priorities, and your assets God will supply—NOT the reverse.

(Mt. 6:19-21; Col. 3:1-4) Would anyone accuse Osteen or Creflo Dollar of obeying these tenets of our faith? No. And there are others JUST like them—SIN!

READ I Jn. 2:15-17. The OPPOSITE way of life to Christianity is living/lusting for sex, assets/money, and the pride that often comes with these worldly idols.

If you heard Osteen, he begrudges his dad's poverty. THAT is the key to his approach on money! NOT Bible verses. The host only gave him soft ball questions!

Life gives people enough challenges, so I won't preach on anything negative? That is a FALSE GOSPEL. God knew of trials before He wrote His book, heretic Joel.

THIS article is about all that came from our frequent exhortations here to THOUSANDS of U.S. pastors in 2014 concerning Osteen: <http://bit.ly/1CSYtiK>

No repentance; only denial that there is any issue. Pride and delusion does that to people. That's why I say I would NOT want to be him! Judgment Day is coming.

I DON'T know anyone wanting to hurt that couple, so that article assumed in error our intentions and motives! Read today's message. Reproof is HATED in America.

And Osteen has NEVER in three+ years addressed what we advised him to do WAY BACK WHEN—evangelize all nearby lost people 100 percent @JoelOsteen

Proof:

#TDJakes is NOT the next Billy Graham! PMA Osteen as the key "fun" MegaFest speaker? EVANGELIZE! It was a CROSS we are to carry—not a clown suit! (8/3/13)

[A friend] agreed on Osteen, though he thought him to be unsaved; I find him carnally worldly for money and fame, and a watered-down false prophet. It's HARD to agree 100 percent with anyone! (10/3/14)

Will you commit to LEAD your members to evangelize EVERY nearby lost person in the next three years? @JohnHagee @JoelOsteen @TBN @SBTC @CBNgordon (10/7/16)

@JoelOsteen Joel: Did you own two approximately $200,000 cars on the other side of Houston when a mere TV staffer in your dad's church? Prove your answer, to allay rumors! (10/29/13)

@JoelOsteen Your Doliver home was WELL over the budget for a mere staffer then. STOP just preaching PMA, and evangelize ALL lost near the Summit ASAP. See our website. (10/29/13)

Osteen: Ignore every Biblical exhortation to reach EVERY lost person near your building. God sees and judges His people; I wash my hands—you were TOLD. (11/1/13)

Duncan: Get Osteen to EVANGELIZE ALL LOST NEAR HIS CHURCH ASAP, if you serve God more than a pay check. I knew you at SBC before you hitched to his bandwagon for marketing! (11/3/13)

Osteen needed to upgrade his church from the poor area of town, though not living there himself, so he bought the Summit. American dream or Bible? (11/6/13)

[Mr. Dodds was our friend at Second Baptist, Houston, who hired on to do PR/marketing for Osteen. He's about 6'5"; was in our Sunday School class]

Osteen gets "filthy" rich NOT preaching ALL of God's truths. Don't tell me it doesn't pay to be an ear-tickler! D. Dodds, please get him to FULL evangelism. (11/6/13)

HUGE numbers following you proves NOTHING. Osteen as Exhibit A. Exhort your members to leave church on Sunday, and regularly go evangelize, and see if you keep them. (11/6/13)

Referent: <http://bit.ly/1paL8li> (Resulting reproof of Osteen by a friend of his)...

@JoelOsteen You're NOT reprov'd for leading, but leading MANY astray! FULLY evangelize ALL near the Summit, and preach the FULL counsel of God vs. PMA (Pv. 15:32) (3/12/14)

Ordination, licensing and seminary are NOT biblically required, but #Osteen's LACK of thorough Bible use makes the case for attending seminary, more than almost anything. (9/14/14)

And, NO, I'm NOT jealous of his $10 million home. HE WILL BE A PAUPER IN HEAVEN with his ministry-disqualifying money idolatry—in a golden outhouse! (9/14/14)

...of course, MAYBE #Osteen, but his fame comes at the cost of the full revelation of God, so it's NOT from God, though the Devil pays handsomely! (10/4/14)

#JoelOsteen is so reputed for his PMA and SOFT preaching, that even Wikipedia speaks of it. Use the "FULL counsel of God," or you're SINNING, Joel! (10/26/13)

#JoelOsteen COULD have 43,000 evangelizers, but would NEVER exhort and ensure that that happens. Political Correctness and Positive Mental Attitude rule his watered-down motivational speaking. (10/26/13)

@JoelOsteen POSITIVITY isn't God's standard, but BIBLICITY. Bible Evidence is at our website. Evangelize ALL lost person near your building, ASAP! (10/30/13)

By the way I took Go Evangelize! Signs to Lakewood church when it was in the poor area of town (fleecing the poor back then if the two exotic cars allegation is true). (10/29/13)

@JoelOsteen Now that you have an audience, USE IT for God's glory. Exhort 100 percent evangelism and discipleship, and preach and teach God's FULL counsel (Ac. 5:20, 20:20, 27) (10/30/13)

@JoelOsteen DON'T Ignore taking the Gospel to EVERY lost soul near your church (or the FULL counsel of God)! Celebrate God and the Bible more than feelings. (10/31/13)

@JoelOsteen How's that commitment to reach ALL nearby lost people ASAP going, one YEAR later? Who else is supposed to [near your church]? If you're with @NikWallenda, use TV to evangelize! (11/2/14)

Look at his River Oaks estate, and tell me it does NOT pay to water down the full counsel of God. The Devil can make you rich, too! (Mt. 4:9) (11/11/14)

FOLLOW your mega pastor home this Sunday, and see where he lives! #Osteen was in a mini mansion WAY before anyone ever heard of him, on Doliver, in Houston. (11/11/14)

DID I send an email to the Bible Answer Man, to inform them of Osteen and Second Baptist, and did I leave four notes around that church when that ministry spoke there? YES! (11/11/14)

Did I take my pastor rebuke signs to Osteen's church and Second Baptist, and would I again? YES! You don't KNOW this, because I didn't market myself for money! (11/11/14)

ALL these Second Baptist allegations were emailed to Hank Hanegraaff when I worked at KKHT, even concerning Osteen's supposed two multi six-figured cars parked far away. (11/11/14)

Make ME rich, and God will bless you. It's your duty to give to God (me), and pay for my earthly mansion, though I'll NEVER own one in Heaven for so LYING! #Osteen (11/13/14)

If you're doing EDBS priorities (MOST if not all pastors aren't), get paid richly, for if you're holy, you'd never fleece your flock, any way!, #Osteen and like-minded ones. (11/28/14)

Collegial collusion. Peer empowering. That's why so few speak against these evils. They either want to be like him, or they consider silence to be professional "courtesy" (or what Charles Spurgeon would call, 'the etiquette of Hell').

Mega pastor salaries are why many won't speak out on this. Circle the wagons in bed with the greedy, and loving the lifestyle; say Osteen, and other FRAUDS. (12/25/14)

Half+ FRAUD #Osteen on his hope tour didn't take many leaders' advice to correct his theology (as I predicted), as the money is GOOD—but NOT if he goes to Heaven. (1/4/15)

#Osteen claims his riches are from books, not salary. HOW DID YOU GET A BOOK-READING AUDIENCE WITHOUT YOUR CHURCH SERVICES ON TV, Joey? Half+ fraud. (1/7/15)

EVERY U.S. mega church pastor should FULLY reveal their total compensation, as we give to God, and you are NOT Him, nor I. Ex.: #Osteen, et al. (1/7/15)

Is there any validity to the commercialization of Christ concept, or is that a liberal MYTH? #JoelOsteen as poster boy... sign the #GivingPledge! (I Tim. 6:17-19; Lk. 19:8-9). (1/11/15)

[Son's account, with someone else's meme:] Hmm... wonder what's wrong with this picture? @JoelOsteen (2/11/17)

Osteen is proof that if you serve the Devil, in Jesus' name, it pays off—UNTIL you die! Beware, @joelosteen You're getting older! (2/11/17)

THREE YEARS LATER! How many people near The Summit are now in Hell, that your people NEVER reached? Read the Houston Chronicle obituaries, Joel! WOW. (5/23/17): @JoelOsteen Have you committed to START evangelizing ALL lost people near the Summit (the former name of his building) since I exhorted you to a YEAR ago? Delay is Devilish! LEADER? (10/21/14)

Commonly referred to as the Gospel of health and wealth, by LEGITIMATE Christian DETRACTORS. Osteen, Hinn, Parsley, Copeland, Duplantis, Dollar, etc. (2/24/15)

You get the idea. We were on this topic (and EDBS priorities) well back 3-4 years. Today's message is NOTHING NEW! Just lots of lost souls under the bridge.

DID Osteen, as I was told by a church member of his, REQUIRE tithing to be church members decades ago? Easy to say no church salary NOW, if so!

And on Osteen mocking being poor as undesirable, READ Jas. 1:10, 2:5-6; Lk. 6:20; I Tim. 6:9; NOW listen to that interview from God's perspective!

Health & Wealth Advocates

(8/5/17)

THIS is why WASP churches are in the hip pocket of the GOP! <http://cnn.it/2ubxEH2> Abortion is used, but greed is never decried, or the Giving Pledge touted!

Paul Crouch (TBN Founder) is ALSO one who has NO mansions in Heaven. He had a handful of them here on earth! He got his in full (Lk. 16:25). #CapitalizingChrist

Speaking of extravagantly rich pastors POOR in Heaven, and having NO mansions there, watch this show tonight @ReelzChannel Jim Bakker (I Jn. 2:15-17).

Money and ministry. Laodicea. Jude and II Peter. These idols go hand-in-hand in apostate Churchianity! <http://bit.ly/2hxBDfc> U.S. culture ACCEPTS it!

Rather than extravagantly rich pastors repenting of their money idol, MOST will do THIS: Proverbs 13:7, the Bible (~center of it); easier to dupe the dumbed-down.

VISIT the poor areas of Africa, rich mega pastors, then pray if God doesn't have a better use for half your excess. 'Am I my brother's keeper?,' asked the sinner.

Did anyone hear Osteen's dad's question to him: How many people and gifts (bodies and bucks, fame and fortune)—NOT what percent of your members have you disciple, and led to be evangelistic. CHURCHianity!

SIGN THE GIVING PLEDGE @Creflo_Dollar, @JoelOsteen, @Benny_Hinn, @BishopJakes Bless OTHERS more than yourself with your TEMPORAL, FADING riches! (Phil. 2) (6/5/15)

MORE than 50 percent of what @JoelOsteen does is analyze and interpret experiences and emotions his listeners often go through. Nothing more needs to be said; you've just got to go watch, and prove me right...

God wants you to conquer, be a champion, see success coming to you—that promotion, getting THE girl, having that white-picket fence. Just believe. It's right around the corner. Praise God that He thinks you're awesome. You are destined for greatness. I see healing for you, and money. @JoelOsteen summary (i.e., PMA)!

Expositorily preach and teach the WHOLE counsel of God, @JoelOsteen. NOT just topical psychological matters tangentially related to select verses. (II Tim. 4:2; I Tim. 5:17; Ac. 20:27). POLL your members on what Bible verses they know from sitting under your teaching. It will be FEW and mainly on selfish positives.

I suggest you interview Creflo Dollar, next, if we're going to promote Balaam (i.e., in ministry for money) false prophets, to sell books on your show, @TheTODAYShow Moneybags will ALSO prove to you he has NOT committed to LEAD his members to FULLY evangelize all Hell-bound people near his church. EDBS priorities!

SIGN THE GIVING PLEDGE, @Joel Osteen! God teaches the rich to be generous—NOT to do token give backs! He even says YOU are DIS-qualified if you love money (I Tim. 3:3). Your lifestyle PROVES to any objective person that you are into THIS life! Who cares? I enjoy the Devil's "blessings!" DEBATE ME ON ANY DOCTRINE!

.@Joel Osteen Tell your members to regularly evangelize, have a daily quiet time, be disciple, then disciple others, use your spiritual gift to edify believers, and engage in social ministry, and be fully committed to Jesus 24/7. THAT message does NOT build false empires like yours! (10/23/17)

Trojan Accounts

On occasion, there were critics who engaged conversation, who hid behind fake identities I call Trojan Horse accounts. They very well may all be the same person, or his/her colleague(s), but each attempt seemed to be targeting something different, and God led me in wisdom to bust them and catch them red-handed every time. Some accounts have since been deleted:

1. TV Leftside (AKA, Terry Vargas). (10/10/15)

[Account still up, as of 8/6/17]

I heard you were a good follow, but do you skew more religious or political?

Who do you like in 2016?

Romney!? Do you work for him? Is he even running? Is there something I don't know?

[I pushed Romney from day one, all the way until he explicitly stated to the press that he had considered it for three weeks, but was not going to run. He even stated that he thought the GOP nomination would be won by "one of our next generation of Republican leaders, one who may not be as well-known as I am today, one who has not yet taken their message across the country, one who is just getting started, may well emerge as being better able to defeat the Democrat nominee." —DailyNews (1/30/15)]

I thought you had more credibility until now. Trump will get us back in the green. 'Mo money.

[Note praise/support for Trump; note also GOP's primary policy concern—money-making!]

Speaking of egoist... what makes you think you know everything?

I don't care if you don't agree with Trump, but at least back someone that's in the race.

[Note my never having been for Trump]

Good points... so are you in the political arena professionally or in the private sector?

I'm a political research consultant, and work on raising funds for campaigns full time. What's your full time job?

[Attempt to identify my employer, possibly to blackmail or black ball]

That's a perfect attitude... I wish we had more like you! What campaigns have you run?

I'm in the District, and heard about you from a power player in D.C. Interested.

We're relieved you're anti-Trump. Very tactful on your response. Are you just making random posts, or serious about joining up?

[Contradiction about his/their support for or opposition to Trump]

On Monday you will. I cover Twitter for dedicated Republicans. I've tracked you for weeks. Would you sacrifice your full-time job?

What about your full-time job is no good? We need good attitudes to accomplish the mission to get our country in line with God and state.

[I have consistently stated that I despise sales]

PERFECT! We need guys with a sales mentality to fix our country. What have you sold? Tangibles or ideas? We need you.

[Again, seeking resume information]

So-o-o-o? We need a 24 hour man, but I understand if you're happy where you are. No worries.

[Google search indicated a 24 Hour Man raises funds for political campaigns]

Email sent. I need an answer soon, since you're not the only one we've tracked. Top three... are you one of them?

[I did receive an email from a brand new Gmail account in his name; that's where everything stops, as you would expect]

2. Roger Podactor (AKA, Miami Snowflake). (2/28/16)

[Account still up, as of 8/6/17]

Who's Chump? Trying to catch up. Trump?

[Obviously, I have never respected the man, since the first week of his campaign]

Catching up on all your posts, very refreshing. Thank you, thank you. Effecting me personally.

[Attempted insult, as if we don't address facts—just personal feelings]

You be you, and don't worry about me. I will assess for my project. I might chime in if I don't understand something.

[Tried to be bossy, which I never take well]

No, is he another I should follow? The radio said nothing about what I'm working on.

Do you have analytics to support many views. I want to make sure you're relevant... no offense.

[True motive revealed—wondering how I get such good information, not used to the miraculous]

It's about how social media could effect this upcoming election. I was hoping you'd have more followers that could effect change.

[People don't follow us a lot, because politics is boring, we are controversial and we never advertise]

I understand hence my hesitation with Twitter. I just want to follow a point of view for a project I'm working on.

I'm confused. ??

610 am mentioned a list of people to follow if you want a conservative view. I'm not a Twitter guy, so I signed up to follow.

Miami native that heard about you on a radio station here. Cool if I follow?

[As if this bio is believable; deceivers seeking out personal information I never gave them]

Miami Snowflake (2/28/16)

For our nagging critics who think I tweet to myself: @StanNathan3 @MiamiSnowflake @TVleftside: More than 10,000 views in one day; you're WRONG!

Few follow here but MANY view. Too controversial to associate by following, as I speak my mind. You can't get followers with my VERBOSITY.

ABSOLUTELY, but would you do me the favor of giving details about what you speak of regarding a Florida radio station, at AAorg2020@gmail.com, please.

I have the most important connection anyone needs to figure these things out; great track record! If you don't like what you see, close your eyes!

[Same 'ol fake account, LYING (acting), like being a Twitter newbie who DIDN'T follow, but knows all about Twitter conversations! Elizabeth or Terry this time?]

Summary #1. (3/1/16)

These critics DON'T have the strength to call me, or meet me, or tweet me their concerns. They create FAKE Twitter accounts to attack. WEAK! Pastors?

If I ever prove who is behind those two mock Twitter accounts, their ministry careers' credibility could be SERIOUSLY damaged. I won't try, but I could.

They wanted personal information from me, like a resume. You say TRUTHFUL things that tick off some pastors, and they'll do anything to seek revenge! Y'all lost.

I'd BET the deleted 'Delilah' account was the same colluding group! It claimed I never DO anything, criticized the number who follow (vs. view here), etc. LIARS.

Good cop/bad cop—EXACTLY like I called it! Feign being for me, then attack anonymously. THIS is my presumption about those our critics. They ALL got out-smarted, by the grace of God alone.

God knows the person or persons behind the Terry Vargas Twitter account, AKA Elizabeth Malkam, Roger Podactor and Delilah (three of four of these are closed down now). LIARS! (3/13/16)

3. Stan Nathan. (6/6/16)

(See also: Hillary Clinton tells Trump to delete his Twitter account)

References: <http://nyti.ms/2wjtaPQ>; <http://bit.ly/2fzixiG>

YOU are the fraud, so why would I reveal anything of value to you? You never email, reveal your face or venue—you're just a nosey stalker!

I owe you NOTHING. To me you are nothing until you prove yourself. A stranger who hides behind anonymity trying to boss me? That WON'T occur!

Strange... a claiming Christian who DOESN'T know his Bible, never does anything requested, but asks me to do everything. GO AWAY FOR GOOD—FAKE ONE!

[WEAK people LOSE arguments, then delete accounts so no one can ever trace back their failure to them! He even claimed to be a Christian.]

Is ANYONE surprised our critic's Twitter account, @StanNathan3 is no longer operative? SUCH weak wimpiness. He should be ashamed; probably isn't. (6/7/16)

Summary #2. (6/9/16)

I'm PRETTY SURE I know ID of the critic who sought proof of viewership, wanted my resume only, and asked if there were any metrics behind our tweets, or just opinions!

By the timing of [Dr. Russell] Moore and [Mark] Cuban's comments, knowing who watches here regularly, their connections, and two tweets about hiring a mouthpiece, and no problems if they get blocked.

SAME M.O.: Create Twitter account SOLELY to accuse, identify NO details about yourself—Podactor and Snowflake.

SAME person who said I never do anything. If you can do what's occurred here the past two years, you run for office. Otherwise, stick with your forte—public speaking!

I've said before: LIE DETECTORS are the only way to prove this, even among "Christians," and I would insist on such, and FREELY submit to them anytime!

The ONLY residual information on the three main critics (presumed to be pastors, but possibly a politician) are @TVLeftside and @MiamiSnowflake; @StanNathan3 canceled! (6/26/16)

Son's Deleted Twitter post.

(See: Our next page's Twitter viewership graphic, below)

@tvleftside Here's your proof, from the "irrelevant" one who NO one knows about—HA!
.@miamisnowflake Here's your proof—DOUBTER!

4. Encourager or Taunter? (10/22/17)

[Liked by Private account on 7/16/17:] If God ever gets VIP's and some media to watch your tweets, and act on them, you'll be amazed watching news AFTER your tweets! I was shocked at first. (Ps. 147:5)

[Private account:] Where can I get one of your books?

Unfortunately for you—nowhere until 2018 or early 2019. I'm still finalizing three until Christmas, and can't put them on the market too early, lest competitors steal and claim the ideas, and run on them. They'll be on <http://AmericanAnswers.org> when it's online. Our six Twitter sites and WillYouLiveForever.org is all that's available now. Thanks.

[Private account:] What are your six Twitters?

@Pledgers2020 @PledgersARCHIVE @ImMadTooEdwin @ProphecyForYou @BuildBetterBiz (and especially read our liked sections, as they replicate the BEST of @JamesMeroney). As you can tell, I'm a HORRIBLE marketer! No time, yet! Read our Facebook speeches at "Jim Meroney," also. Thanks for the interest.

[Private account:] Huh. Interesting. How are you getting all of those products to market? 4,600?

NOT the products. They are listed in our four major books, for now, unless our publisher objects. I've kept the best (or easiest for me to design mock ups for/prototypes of) 100 for myself to patent. I have NO intention of bringing any more than 100 maximum to market—if ever; higher aspirations!

[Private account:] What's the point of inventing products that you don't want to create? Or books that aren't out? What are you waiting on?

Products are for stimulating the economy. I don't need more than 100; I'm NOT greedy like many in America. The books aren't done, and I won't go off half-cocked until they are, at Christmas. I wouldn't launch them before God tells me to, as many people would like to use them and run, with myself as only an author. I WON'T let that happen!

P.S.: To any who saw that exchange/conversation, who my family thinks they know—one political book is 1,150 pages long, another has 520, and the third is 307 pages long. It takes work to read and edit them, while working. ONLY authors would understand. That's why so few people are willing to write. Sean Hannity said he has sworn off doing so.

The 4600+ products we offer FREE in our four books are to demonstrate to America's rich what give back and unselfishness is. It's 100 percent consistent with our political philosophy. You can have enough, after which time you should care about others NOT just in your family. You've got to live the life if you talk the talk! Duh 101.

[Private account:] Likes (9/2/17)

If God ever gets VIP's, and some media, to watch your tweets, and act on them, you'll be amazed watching news AFTER your posts! I was shocked, at first. (Ps. 147:5) (7/16/17)

Note: ALWAYS wanting credit for things he does.

Replying to @JamesMeroney

[Private account:] Walk in the park huh? (10/3/17)

Ken Starr (of the past) meets Jerry Falwell (of the bad present). TEAR 'EM UP, Bears! #Baylor Sic 'em. Walk in the park, piece of cake—eat it too. (10/2/17)

Note: Mocking/taunting defender of Liberty University (who beat B.U.). I later replied I'd stick to my areas of expertise, as I never informed myself of the details of how badly Baylor's talent suffered after the rape cases.

[Private account:] Where can I get one of your books?

Note: As with his prior FAKE accounts (Ex.: "Roger Podactor"), he starts off trying to sound interested, uninformed, and nice.

Unfortunately, for you, nowhere, until 2018 or early 2019. Still finalizing three until Christmas, and I can't put them on the market too early, lest competitors steal and claim the ideas, and run on them.

They'll be on <http://AmericanAnswers.org> when it's online. Our six Twitter sites, and WillYouLiveForever.org is all that's available now. Thanks.

[Private account:] What are your six Twitters? (10/22/17)

@Pledgers2020 @PledgersARCHIVE @ImMadTooEdwin @ProphecyForYou @BuildBetterBiz (and especially read our favorites/liked sections, as they replicate the BEST of @JamesMeroney). As you can tell, I'm a HORRIBLE marketer! No time, yet! Read Facebook speeches under "Jim Meroney," also. Thanks for the interest.

[Private account:] Huh. Interesting. How are you getting all of those products to market? 4600?

NOT the products. They are listed in our four major books, for now, unless our publisher objects. I've kept the best (or easiest for me to design mock ups for) 100 for myself to patent. I have NO intention of bringing any more than 100 maximum to market—if ever. Higher aspirations!

[Private account:] What's the point of inventing products that you don't want to create? Or books that aren't out? What are you waiting on?

Products are for stimulating the economy. I don't need more than 100; I'm NOT greedy, like many in U.S.A. Books aren't done, and I won't go off half-cocked until they are, at Christmas. I wouldn't launch them before God tells me to, as many would like to use them and run, with myself as only an author. I WON'T let that happen!

The 4,600+ products we offer FREE in our four books are to demonstrate to America's rich what give back and unselfishness are. That's 100 percent consistent with our political philosophy. [Private account:] Prove to me that we go somewhere without using the Bible. (10/30/17)

Note: This stalking fool knows we know about apologetics because he preached from our website for four+ years! He knew even my family knew his identity, so he tries to fake being a curious lost person.

Why do most, if not all people have an instinctive fear of death? Why do we ignore it, and choose rarely to deal with it until we're OLD? Because it's both unnatural, and not pleasant, has a 100 percent success rate, and we instinctively fear it won't be pleasant on the other side, if something doesn't happen in this life.

Why do most people believe Hitler is being punished, and Mother Teresa is NOT? We have natural, instinctive feelings and beliefs about the afterlife, even absent any Bible awareness. There are reasons for these senses, and it's NOT something random from evolutionary change in a big bang, monkey-man, or primordial soup ancestors!

Why does EVERY funeral service eulogy imply decedents are in a better place? Why, with mass shootings, do even non-religious authorities call for moments of silence, and prayers? If there's nothing to an afterlife, these are beyond foolish gestures—they are intentionally deceptive abuse, and manipulating of stupid people.

Why does (likely) EVERY culture share some concept of God and the afterlife? Are humans SO stupid that they believe myths on every continent? That would DISprove evolution—we are regressing. For that reason, why do you not run around NUDE in public? The Bible has answers to all these big questions, because it's TRUE.

Your question is like asking what laws do Americans believe in, but don't use the Constitution. There are GREAT and logical reasons to consider the Bible. See our FREE website's apologetics section, as with Why Believe the Bible, WillYouLiveForever.org Also see, Evidence That Demands a Verdict (book)

If we were sure what follows death is better for everyone, doctors would do us a favor to let people die, vs. try to save their lives. Same with disasters and fire rescues. Suicide bombers do that, in the belief that the next life is superior. It better be, for a person, or they're hugely deceived. (Jn. 3:16)

[Private account:] Exactly. So you're for assisted suicide for Christians then. Ok.

Funny... No one doubts Martin Luther existed, 500 years ago today, but quadruple that amount of time, and some believe Jesus is only a mythical legend Who never existed; convenient cop-out, to cover our sin guilt, which WILL be punished, if left unforgiven.

[Private account:] Your logic is laughable. Huge jump from 'did someone exist' to 'did they rise from the dead and create a magical land where we go when we die'

No one in their right mind is willing to find out for the rest of us, and come back and tell us the answer, because we all intuitively know from experience and history that you don't return to tell that answer. That risk is too big for reasonable people to take, unsure whether it will be good or bad!

Why does no one volunteer to be a guinea pig for science, and learn, first-hand, today? Death is UN-natural (even for Christians)—NOT the expected result of evolving! It's NEGATIVE! Our fallen world is why—NOT an ever-improving environment. These questions are all answered in the Bible. How could that be if it's full of myths? (I Cor. 15:55+)

[Private account:] You're bad at this. No one volunteers because we get one life to live. If anyone should volunteer it's someone destined for Heaven.

[Private account:] That makes no sense. I'm saying there's no better one to move to. Yes, that's plenty reason. Good luck with those best sellers ha ha.

Note: Changes tone from fake/feigned interest in our work to anger, and trying to cause doubts, when he learns his ploy will NEVER stop me and we ALWAYS bust these 'fools!'

WRONG on EVERY count. Christians are taught that suicide is wrong, even though they go to Heaven afterwards; I NEVER said Christ's existence proved His claims—I mocked those who say He never existed. And one life to live is NO reason not to move to a better one—unless one is scared it might not be better for you. You are the one bad at this.

I don't respect chickens who hide behind accounts unidentified. Wusses are weaklings. I fully expose my name, credentials, city. Fake accounts are created by pansies. Good luck with that, and with your hoped-for only one life, then cessation! (Jn. 3:16, even to our enemies). Note: We'll even evangelize potential pastors, because some are really fake Christians and false prophets!

We suspect that Trojan horse/fake account was from a Christian trying to disguise himself as lost and smart, but we play along, so he'll think he's out-smarted us. You've got to let critics, whose evil deeds get exposed, have some way to vent their anger—so you let them have some satisfaction, even if it's fake.

Maybe if our critics DID EDDBS priorities at their religious businesses, instead of stalking us here full-time, revival would TRULY arrive, instead of fake P.R. stunts to fake out the ignorant among their customers! (11/1/17)

7. Happy 'Critics'

(6/25/14)

Responding to two gentlemen I respect a lot, the following replies of mine should give you an idea about what we were being criticized for (with no further need to document those allegations)...

@ThomRainer If a church hid the total compensation amount, or a pastor made a million a year, isn't it laymen's right to know, and direct their gifts? They work HARD, often for much less!

@LeeStrobel @ThomRainer With church security levels, only positive inner circles, people who won't meet to discuss offenses and TRUTH, you tell me how does one reconcile? I have two examples.

@LeeStrobel @ThomRainer If they walk away from you, HOW's that reconciliation, when THEY began the conflict, and you offered to reconcile? Inquiring minds want to know.

@LeeStrobel @ThomRainer If pastors over time WONT evangelize all nearby lost people, is that naysaying? Are pastors not possibly being overpaid if their compensation is never revealed?

RT @edstetzer: Both unfriendly and friendly critics often do have a point; we can learn from both: <http://t.co/zZE613Q4ZG> (7/2/14)

8. Less-Friendly Critic (AKA, Shoot The Messenger!)

[Same private account:] Where did you learn this? I hope you'll answer WHEN pastors will evangelize all lost near their church, and disciple all members! (6/21/14)

[Same private account:] I know you clashed before, but would you go publicly evangelizing with me sometime, and we can fellowship as we hold our Gospel Signs? Thanks. (10/31/14)

Note: What do you expect the response was? Crickets!

I've lost friends and been banned from church functions for my belief that our positions are biblical. You don't endure such things if you're an online hypocrite. (7/24/14)

I've never made one DIME doing any of this. What's your husband's COMPLETE salary, since it's derived from hard-working donors to God? Hypocrisy! (8/22/14)

MESSAGE TO CRITICS

(7/29/17)

We address critics, real or potential. You're mean telling pastors they need to do EDBS? That's an excuse whose offerors will likely never do so!

I've NEVER met any Christian who evangelizes or has a quiet time to check it off a list to feel good with God! ONLY from a sincere relation with Him! Have you? Straw man, usually!

You're like Mt. 23:4. I teach as I am led, and never teach what I haven't done myself. If pastors quit doing LESS important things, they'd have time for EDBS.

Was John the Baptist mean? Is holding people accountable after 30+ years of America not being fully threshed mean? That definition mean means you're hitting too close to home, and I don't want to change.

You have an answer for everything. THAT is Lk. 7:32 You never can please that type critic, as they have excuses long enough till you depart their presence! Anathema.

And finally, you lay burdens on pastors that you won't lift a finger for (Mt. 23:4). I've lifted for more than 40 years (as a layman), and write as I'm led, using my spiritual teaching gift. Next excuse?

Update #1: Rational Rebuttals

All day the phrase some critics allege, 'you are mean,' has been in my memory and craw: Unkind, spiteful, unfair, vicious (Dictionary definition).

Certainly, the Bible teaches kindness as a virtue (fruit of the Spirit, etc.).

Certainly, the Bible teaches justice vs. unfairness (Mic. 6:8).

And revenge is a sin (i.e., spite).

The problem is that saying anything negative and factual, constructive criticism, correction, reproof or rebuke are labeled "mean" by weak recipients!

Politics and theological debate over moral values (topics we address here regularly) are seeking to convince others to your point of view.

It's NOT child's play! We SAW Ben Carson be nicey-nice, and nothing happened (Ecc. 7:16). We saw Chump play evil, and the Devil rewarded. In-between is the answer!

When opponents use sinful methods to win power, you can't be naïve, and just be nice (i.e., the opposite of 'mean,' in Political Correctness terms); nor should you! That wouldn't be wise!

Firm, determined, disciplined, not taking no for an answer, accountability, stable conviction... these may FEEL negative to recipients, but they're virtues.

READ all the Bible verses listed in "Negative-tending verses in the Bible," at our website.

LOOK THEM UP! Don't take my word for it! Be educated on it.

The excuse of critics then arises, you aren't Jesus or John the Baptist. Any Christian can be led to any act listed in the Bible as holy, no matter who did it!

Update #2: Pastor Job Descriptions

II Tim. 2:2 has pastors entrusting/delegating discipleship to others, after the leaders have been disciplined—NOT an ongoing obligation, necessarily!

And Eph. 4 says pastors are to train up laymen to do the work of ministry (Ex.: Evangelism and discipleship). Not the pastor adding a permanent evangelism duty.

But if a church's laymen are not doing multiplication relational discipling, or full local evangelism, pastors are not doing jobs rightly! 'You're so harsh!'

Even social ministry is the work of the layman. If a church has no idea if most or all members are doing EDBS, pastors are not leading properly. 'You're mean!'

III-A2. ALLEGATIONS & REBUTTALS

After TWO DECADES striving to get pastors to FULLY evangelize (i.e., NOT let one human near their business go to Hell uninformed and/or unwarned), when it went national (in 2014), after nine months, many criticized this effort, because MOST pastors haven't fully evangelized their nearby neighbors (and probably never will). Here are many (if not most) of the complaints we received, for simply wanting no one to go to Hell:

All bark and no bite, all you do is tweet, always angry, arrogant, assaulter/attacker, bad grammar, bad news grapevine spreader, brow beater, bully, caustic, celebrity coat-tailer, complainer/griper/venter, con artist, condemner, critical spirit, divisive, doesn't know you can catch more flies with honey than vinegar, don't smile enough (supposed joy 'proof'), extreme, fanatic, harsh, hater of pastors, hypocrite, imbalanced, impatient, insisting on your own way, jealous, judge, live by the sword, die by the sword, lone wolf Christian, low follower numbers, mean, mocked Southern Baptist beliefs (with our 10 commandments of Lordship Salvation), never satisfied, one-trick pony, ox gorer, poser, publicly exposing family business, rude, seeking fame or book sales, self-appointed, should have been an evangelist (and left us alone), shuntable (to silence the message), slanderer, to be ignored, too negative, trouble-making meddler, trying to be the leader, unloving, unsubmitive to elders, use Bible as a sledgehammer... to which I respond: (Matthew 5:12)

CRITIC REBUTTALS

The huge characters who change world events often demonstrate grave moral faults, even as they achieve great moral change. -Albert Mohler
(Retweeted by Ravi Zacharias, 12/16/13)

Hard words, if they be true, are better than soft words, if they be false.

-Charles Spurgeon (Retweeted by Burk Parsons, 11/10/13)

Insatiable learners make the very best leaders. -Harvard Business (9/14/09)

A genuine leader is not a searcher for consensus, but a molder of consensus.
-Martin Luther King, Jr.

MANY good men, whom I WON'T name, are now making changes, reiterating these messages, and calling for church structural change. Critics, you've got to wonder about. (7/25/14)

It's NOT that all of them are in it for big bucks! Some are. Often pastors don't know any different than Churchianity. Seminaries rarely if ever teach EDBS, and ministers watch their peers. (6/25/14)

Oh, my brethren, bold-hearted men are always called mean-spirited by cowards.

-Charles Spurgeon

There is only one way to avoid criticism: Do nothing, say nothing, be nothing.

-Chad Cannon (of Michael Hyatt & Co.; Retweeted by @Evangelists, 6/28/14)

Don't want HATERS? Stop being EFFECTIVE!

-Kirk Graham (Retweeted by @Evangelists, 7/4/14)

Every criticism just may well contain even a small kernel of truth from which we can grow in grace.

-O.S. Hawkins (4/6/13)

GENERAL REBUTTALS

Introduction

I've never tried to be controversial. The truth is controversial enough. -Keith Green

I'll say it again, if God wanted one last and final evangelism harvesting, world-wide, HOW WOULD HE TELL US, critics? I believe I've done that MANY ways and times. (9/5/14)

I'm using my spiritual gift of teaching, and writing skills, having evangelized well more than my share. HAVE YOU? Quit accusing me of knowing, and not DOING! (3/7/14)

It's GOOD that brothers discuss/dialog about their interpretations of Scripture, vs. holy huddles of ignorance! DON'T criticize the PROCESS of Pv. 27:17! (9/4/14)

Any critics who complain about our Go Evangelize! signs, and/or Twitter... I tried 30 years in person, by phone and email, to more gently/gracefully nudge pastors in evangelism, but private efforts get ignored! (11/1/14)

Plus, secretary gatekeepers will always end your effort. DONT take 'NO' for an answer in this matter! Also, I haven't found Facebook's value in this ministry effort, yet. (11/2/14)

Rather than focus on your critics, focus on the people who are impacted by your work.

-Tyler Perry (GLS14, 8/18/14)

It always seems impossible until it's done. -Nelson Mandela
Nay-sayers have it easy.

History

If you were led to pressure one good man [Jack Graham] to significantly change his church's evangelism output, how would it be fair to him that others are exempt? It wouldn't be NOT. (10/8/14)

Some pastors THOUGHT by waiting nine months from our TweetFest was a good time to attack harsher messages of ours. That ONLY insinuates they DIDN'T DO EDDBS, or evangelize all nearby lost people in that interim period (or why would they still be complaining)! (7/2/14)

Contact

I've offered countless times to assist, to serve (vs. demand), but you must do your pastoring job, so my methods get more intense. God doesn't accept 'NO.' (6/25/14)

I'm ALWAYS open to in-person communication, reconciliation, or public debate of these EDDBS issues, with anyone. Are my opponents just as willing? I hope so! (7/24/14)

I publicly challenge any and all critics to contact me at AAorg2020@gmail.com to START a truly "Christian" conversation, vs. HIDING here [on Twitter]! Will you? (8/9/14)

Lie Detectors

Will our critics submit to a lie detector, as I ALWAYS will? Will they phone, email or meet in person? No. I ALWAYS will, and make it easy to do so. (8/9/14)

Pastors can say they never saw our tweets (to avoid doing FULL evangelism), but for many, that's a LIE that God sees, and the Bible is clear, anyway! JUST DO IT! (9/14/14)

I publicly challenge every pastor who dropped by take lie detector that you never knew. God knows, though you can sinfully fool men, through free-willed lying! (10/18/14)

Hypocrisy Exposed

It's amazing how critics have the courage to attack, but never spoke out about the 5/10/13 problem ALL their many ministry years before they heard of me! Leadership? (8/10/14)

FUNNY how many critics have "courage" to criticize our website on evangelism, rather than having led in evangelism all these years (vs. being) FOLLOWERS! (7/25/14)

GOD increases pressure on rebel children to exhort, reprove, rebuke, warn, then He judges. Do PASTORS, after 30 years of no Great Commission completion?

Not one of you 'brave' men EVER refuted my doctrine, or full evangelism calls; just hundreds of accusations against the mere messenger! Cowardice! (9/28/14)

Precedent

READ the prophets. They WEREN'T always positive, or encouraging, but ALWAYS needed. Political Correctness and Positive Mental Attitude WILL usher in the prophesied spirit of delusion. Confused? Read more Bible.

The Old Testament prophets were NOT well-received by religious leaders. I am NOT a prophet, but I do say what God tells me to, and you treat me like they were. (6/25/14)

BIBLICAL evidence for silencing opponents with WISDOM: Mt. 22:12, 34, 46; Lk. 14:6, 20:26, 21:15; Ac. 6:10; Tit. 1:11, 2:8; I Pet. 2:15, etc.

LOOK at our website, searching "Negative-Tending..." for MUCH Bible evidence that truth is not expected to always be positive. We have a ~page full of Bible references.

If Spurgeon, Moody and Dr. D. James Kennedy resurrected, they'd tell U.S. pastors EXACTLY what I do, and am attacked for saying, so such foolish comments don't bother me! (6/23/14)

I'm reminded that the Catholic Church didn't well receive Martin Luther's message, either. Entrenched traditions, and business-as-usual HATE change. Go evangelize, U.S. church! (9/29/14)

General Rebuttal

Bench-warmer critics are many, because their task is easier than change-inducing leadership. Riding the fence is comfortable, but also yields splinters. (7/17/12)

YOU tweet spontaneously, in rapid succession, 100 percent Bible-supported, and even with verses, on occasion. Can you? Then quit trying to attack the messenger! (11/9/14)

Pressuring pastors to evangelize—after 30 YEARS of resistance—is "evil?" Evil is NOT doing so. THINK what those "morals" do to the lost—forever! Skewed 'thinking!' (6/29/14)

It is NOT the "critic" telling you you MUST go fully evangelize—or you're a corrupt pastor—who is evil, but the pastor choosing to ignore that message, and say "NO!"

Anything short of sin, to get Christians evangelizing! They'll criticize almost all you do, but Christ and the lost are what's important—not excuse-makers!

I'll NEVER cuss, lie, wrongly accuse, hit, extort or do any sin to get U.S. pastors to fully evangelize, but the Bible allows methods some of you don't!

The BIGGEST thing our critics seem to have in common is the problem of projecting how they'd feel if they lived another's life (and lack of Bible knowledge) (7/24/14)

The ONLY "method" I've ever seen work decently to change pastors for evangelism is credible threats to their church's community reputation—so I protest. (10/21/14)

Conclusion

YES, there are times it pangs me to inflict pain, to bring the cure, but NO REGRETS in eternity. (II Cor. 7:7-9) (11/3/13)

Warning

WE do NOT have time for your 30 year pace of NO full harvesting, so you complain that I used negative methods. Compare God's results, using myself, with your positive procrastinations! (7/24/14)

A 30 year track-record PROVES you have NO intention to fully evangelize, no matter who or how they ask! It's easier to criticize the messenger, than to heed Gods message. (7/24/14)

Collusively, many pastors try to hush up this message, by ignoring it, or demeaning the messenger, but God will personally hold you accountable, sirs! (8/26/14)

ANY pastor "warning" other pastors about me will be held RESPONSIBLE on Judgment day for SLOWING DOWN the Great Commission's COMPLETION! (11/4/13)

The most religious people in Jesus' time heard Jesus' harshest words.

–Jerry Jeter (2/16/14)

A man who is intimate with God is not intimidated by man. –Leonard Ravenhill

The TRUTH sometimes hurts, but it's the needle prick inoculating you from further harm!

SPECIFIC REBUTTALS

Arrogant

You're no prophet, or apostle. True; I'm just a man who follows God's directions, and anything moral in the Bible I could be led to do—as with you! #RangeOfEthics (See: website). (11/4/13)

I even called myself, 'toilet.' Words of arrogance? FACTS rule, not opinions of the less-informed! If you don't like what's here—LEAVE! I love your channel, anyway. (9/5/14)

Say the truth—be accused of bragging; humbly be quiet, and the world learns nothing. Paul was the most eminent apostle, and a nobody (II Cor. 12:11)—at the same time, and wasn't schizophrenic! (Mt. 11:17; 11/3/13)

Attacker

An accusation of "assaulting" pastors is NOT my reproving the U.S. church, UNTIL she fully evangelizes. It's your assault on lost people's chance at Heaven, by keeping MUM about the Gospel! (7/8/14)

Celebrity?

I want to be a celebrity? Paul went to the Jerusalem church, when God raised him up. Was that celebrity coat-tailing, or should he have somewhere else? SILLY accusations. (7/24/14)

If I were seeking personal fame or money, riding famous minister coattails, wouldn't I use the @ or # symbols, or use DM's in Twitter? You'll note that I RARELY do! (8/10/14)

Entitled

Due to confidence that God called me to do a job? Entitled to be slandered, I guess.

Holier Than Thou?

Because I reprove pastors, using the Bible, as led of God, after thirty years of resistance to God's top priority?

Hypocrite

My lack of income for over twelve years (out of twenty-five) has MORE than made up for any pastor not receiving an unbiblically required 'tithes,' too; NO hypocrite, here. (2/8/15)

To the critic accusing myself of charity hypocrisy, I've spent 15 years, FULL-time writing 12+ books, and evangelizing, for FREE (so far). Sweat equity is charity, too. (12/25/14)

Idolater

It's FUNNY how people who are insecure in their Bible knowledge complain that those who aren't are arrogant, legalistic, "Bibliotaters"—to delude their consciences. (12/22/13)

Imbalanced

I'm "imbalanced" in the area of evangelism? Wasn't Paul WAY more evangelistic than me? Would you call that "imbalanced?" Any imbalance you perceive favors saving people from Hell, whereas any imbalance I perceive in you favors them going to Hell, forever!

Inexperienced

I don't know what it is to be a pastor? I have been on a church staff, as a licensed minister. I'm not randomly opining. Read God's word, and demand biblical church, vs. Churchianity! (3/24/14)

Judge

Why "pick" on godly men? I don't. Godly men heed these messages, to the extent they jive with Scripture. God reproves the others, and I just write, as led. (7/25/14)

Why do 'I' blame men committed to serve Christ as a living? Because they AREN'T! He came here for men's salvation. They do LITTLE for men's salvations! (11/4/14)

Overkill

If 'over-exhortation' makes SOME pastors reject EDBS, that's THEIR evil choice; they didn't have to keep watching our messages to our newer viewers. (9/1/14)

Perfectionist

It is NOT "perfectionism" to insist on 100 percent evangelism near your church—just doing your job. Your IM-perfectionism sentences people to Hell, forever! (8/7/14)

EDBS is a perfectionistic impossibility? FULL neighborhood evangelism WAS done by Evangelism Explosion, at Highland Baptist church, as WAS Body Life ('1977--1981). (7/2/14)

Possibly "Unsaved"

Because I “attack” pastors, in some of their definitions, used to yes men and all is well beliefs, as Rome eternally burns.

Promoter

I’m guilty of evil promoting? Churches advertise, pastor tweets constantly push products. These messages weren’t to be kept in a closet! (Ac. 26:26, 9/4/14)

Self-Appointed

Self-appointed? I was writing secular books for four years when God had me re-address needed changes in His church. (10/11/14) P.S.: How would anyone prove to critics God called them to a given ministry?

I’m not trying to be the "leader" of any Christians!; Just a mouthpiece doing what God makes me do and say. And I never ask viewers for one dime. (10/3/14)

Snitch

To the critic complaining that I didn’t address SOME people in private, have you EVER tried to meet with ‘famous’ pastors? Our ‘Church Conflicts’ section (on our website) tells ALL. (7/24/14)

And I Tim. 5:1 and 22 are IMPOSSIBLE to obey, when proud pastors ignore you, and won’t give you any hearing. (2/8/14)

Whiner (Phil. 2:14)

Complainers nit-pick on small potatoes. God-led prophet-like types intensely reprove Church’s top priority omissions. See the difference? (5/9/13)

I stumbled onto this tweet by a pastor, and I have no idea who it’s referencing, but it inculcates a common attitude toward people pointing out things needing changes within the church

When someone comes out against a Christian, and the attacker professes to be a Christian, Galatians 4:29 prompts me to wonder, "Does this critic, this self-appointed warrior for holiness and truth, realize they might be proving they don't know Jesus at all?" (6/7/18)

Note: 1. The passage is speaking to a Christian’s sin nature luring them to go back under the law, and abandon grace. Would YOU want to be sitting under this misconstruing of Scripture?

2. This collegial collusion to always assume holiness from denominational stars ignores any and all truthful allegations of wrongdoing, to protect their own, and circle the wagons of ignorance.

Examples

1. Want to know how angry some ministers got to my tweets? I just tried to retweet an article directly from Criswell College, and they had blocked me. This picture will likely tell you all you need to know concerning why!:

2. This HERETICAL article says people evangelize to impress others; ABSOLUTELY untrue! And without God’s sovereign conviction, NOTHING happens. It’s NOT up to us. (10/4/14)

Straw man, @ZonderAcademic! Come to Dallas and evangelize with me, and maybe you'll STOP straw man stereotypes. Will you come? Email me if so! I’m totally loving to the lost. (10/4/14)

3. @LeeStrobel @ThomRainer If pastors, over time, WON'T evangelize all nearby lost people, is that ‘naysaying?’ Are they overpaid, if their compensation is never revealed? (6/25/14)

Lee: Methods God used which caused major changes at the ‘Jerusalem church’ of our day, and others were impacted, even if overcoming abstinence was unwelcomed. (6/25/14)

Disclaimer

My tweets are my calling card, business card, and credentials. If accurate to the Bible, they speak for themselves. I need no further notoriety, and am not seeking anything. (2/21/15)

I VOLUNTEERED to serve first, I WAS humble, and I did approach leadership nicely. Just face it—they don’t want to alter the comfort zone and monetizing of Christ which Churchianity offers them. (6/25/14)

YES, this messenger is beset by many weaknesses. He is FAR from morally perfect, as are you. Now go FULLY evangelize! I’ll help, even lead, if you want! (9/26/14)

TEST EVERYTHING said at this site by the Bible. If any tweet does NOT conform to it, DISREGARD it, and my apologies for that unintended mistake! (2/24/15)

Can you (or I) spontaneously and quickly tweet such truths, without God leading them? That ought to MEAN something to you, as is HEEDING the messages. (2/20/1r)

I gave Your U.S. pastors Your message, Lord, and MOST would not hear it. May You judge between us, and bless Your lowly servants’ faithfulness, soon. (Ps. 73:25) (3/28/14)

Famous Twitter Drop-Outs

Evangelism Explosion stopped following. What a disappointment for such a great organization! Email me what I said, though I take NOTHING back. (9/28/14) [Followed again, October 2018]

E.E.-related Pastor Tullian HAD been watching here the past three weeks. Though Gods’ pressure brought at least three mega churches to use E.E. in the past three weeks, E.E. drops out. (9/28/14)

MANY famous pastors dropped by; some followed; almost ALL dropped out, eventually (6/17/18): @johnmacarthur Welcome aboard! I LOVE your The Charismatics book, and Grace Giving cassette tape series from years ago. God bless you. (10/31/14)

Ed Young followed on 6/14/18, only to bug out about a week later. Frank Bruce did the same thing, perhaps trying to make amends, until they see that’s not reconciliation in my (or anyone I know’s) book?

Personal Slander

Beyond the allegations of critics, these two Bible verses were attempted to be used against myself, with my honest reply before God:

Unwilling to Work/Don’t Let Him Eat (II Th. 3:10)

I worked harder than most people (and critics), the past nine years, writing! Just because payoff comes later than normal does not refute this fact. Never one day was I unwilling to work (very few days off).

Won’t Provide for His Family/Worse Than an Infidel (I Tim. 5:8)

In mutual conjunction with my amazing wife, we both decided that obeying God was worth the sacrifice of our living on one salary for quite awhile.

III-A3. MEDIA MOMENTS

Introduction.

To show the power of Twitter to effect news articles, instantly, and world-wide, I posted this immediately after PBS said the following (we also know it to be true, and have noted several pundits whose articles derived from our online thoughts):

NPR yesterday said Twitter is the most powerful way to get a message global, and that political pundits use it to write many of their stories. Amen! (8/21/17)

1. Ralph Reed vs. Jonathan Merritt (et al, incl. yours truly) (6/27/16, except where noted)

How many evangelical leaders on Trump's advisory board called for Bill Clinton's impeachment for questionable character? I'll wait... (6/25/16)

Ralph Reed Verified account @ralphreed; replying to @JonathanMerritt [Religious News Service] Clinton wasn't impeached for questionable character. It was perjury, a felony for which he was disbarred.

That was a legal RUSE to catch him from testimony where he perjured! Exonerated by Congress later, Trump sell-out.

Ralph Reed Verified account @ralphreed; replying to @JamesMeroney [@JonathanMerritt] O.K. so you don't care if a POTUS commits felonies. Got it.

Don't TRY to put words in my mouth. That's NOT good arguing! The GOP couldn't get him on sex with [Kenneth] Starr, and you know it. Think better!

Even LOST people and the secular left media sees the HYPOCRISY of Christian pastors for Trump. Why would they risk their reputations for Hitler #3's "character?" AMAZING, and sad!

EVEN Ken Starr knows he went too far with that political hack job against @BillClinton @RalphReed!
<http://nyti.ms/2vEbY16> Or do you say [Starr's] lying now?

If you think evangelicals' issue with Bill Clinton was all about legality, and not sexual immorality, you weren't paying attention. —Jonathan Merritt

Ralph Reed @ralphreed [@JonathanMerritt] Funny being told I wasn't paying attention by one who clearly knows nothing about my position on the issue.

Lie detector, please! You KNOW [GOP's] just wanted to punish him for very reprehensible behavior! You support a SERIAL liar! WOW!

Replying to @keithwadeallen @JamesMeroney @JonathanMerritt We are debating Clinton corruption while #Hillary is under FBI investigation for corruption.

Jonathan Merritt @JonathanMerritt "These religious leaders care about their principles, yes. But they care about something else even more: power." <http://bit.ly/2ug9bUW>

Please cite the name of your book, so I can "read me a copy." Thanks for your HONESTY! Some pastors NEVER forgive [RE: Bill Clinton] if there's a political angle to it! @JonathanMerritt

Note: The perjury charge was in an inquiry about Clinton's sex life. The legal opportunity only arose with the context of that moral witch hunt! This is NOT to say Clinton didn't sin—even badly—but that was not a high crime or misdemeanor (just nationally embarrassing, and a red meat gotcha moment for the GOP).

P.S.: Remember the North Texas Presidential Forum? I offended Dr. Graham when I reproved Ralph Reed being positive about Chump one month ago. Pastor code of silence! (6/26/16)

P.S.S.: "I've listened to the lewd Trump, my view is that people of faith are voting on issues like who will protect unborn life, defend religious freedom, grow the economy, appoint conservative judges and oppose the Iran nuclear deal."

Note: When (biased) agenda trumps morality, it is literally true that people would vote for Hitler if he said what they wanted to hear, because Hitler hid his evils—Trump repeatedly put them on open display! And if even a basic minimum of decorum (say integrity/morals) which every other living president has exhibited is not a consideration for "Christians"—God help us all!

2a. Message to Mark Davis (DFW+ talk radio show host) (7/5/16)

People like @MarkDavis give others GREAT evidence that political rhetoric is ONLY offered as red meat to rile up the stupid; it changes on a dime!

.@MarkDavis says "get over it." WAKE UP, Mark! Your "faith" is SUPPOSED to IMPACT your decisions. Power idolatry is a sin.

I'm AMAZED "Christians" overlook ALL Trump's sins—more than any other GOP campaign in 40 years, and they say they obey God. HYPOCRISY for power idolatry! [Please recall, Newt Gingrich's three divorces hurt him severely in attempting to lead the GOP; my, how standards lessened for the GOP in 2016!]

Continued (7/5/16)

I have sworn off talk radio until Nov. 9, but in my wife's car today, Mark Davis was on. He spoke of #NeverTrump as "perverse" and having left the GOP cause.

Rebuttal:

Donald Trump ALONE caused #NeverTrump. When you rudely insult at-will, and tick off any 'moral' people, DON'T expect them to support you, @MarkDavis

It's #NeverTrump who "NEVER MOVED." GOP'ers who agree with and endorse Trump's MANY evils last year are who moved from founding principles, @MarkDavis

.@MarkDavis says Trumpsters have been mocked and derided, and to his credit says he'd be forgiving and a healer IF chump won, starting Nov 9. That IS a Christian value.

.@MarkDavis said beating Hillary is the goal, but values voters do NOT believe in win-at-all-costs, or with whoever can parrot positions. #MoralsMatter!

.@RobertJeffress said "pride" is why some GOP's are anti-Trump, not principle. YOUR principles support Trump's MANY sins? We're NOT reading the same Bible!

Again, enmesh yourself in ONE news source, and you mainly reinforce your OWN biases. Such people are PAID to spin reasons why Trump's a good man and choice! Money!

For me, #NeverTrump is NOT about any candidate (Cruz or Rubio)—ONLY stopping a HORRIBLE nominee from representing my life-long [to-date] political party! #SaveTheGOP

The GOP loses ALL credibility as the party of thinking more than feeling, values, and the religious right with Chump as the nominee! No one can dispute me on it, but please try!

If ALL you need is a mouth [i.e., talking head pundit] that will publicly speak your political agenda, you WOULD vote for Hitler, as he HID his evils PUBLICLY, prior to gaining power; Chump DIDN'T.

.@MarkDavis called some #NeverTrump people "preachy." That's a word that means you're hitting too close to home for their comfort zone! <http://bit.ly/2ucDKH6> Logic and Bible!

If #NeverTrump is a dying, disorganized and a small group, QUIT TRYING TO GUILT US INTO VOTING FOR YOUR HITLER! We HAVE no power, right?!

If #NeverTrump is "irrelevant" (as Mark Davis' cohort claimed), WHY ARE YOU ENGAGING CONVOS WITH OR ABOUT US? You don't need our vote—"he has expanded the GOP!"

If POLICY is ALL that matters, Trump's been so all over the map, and everything is negotiable, what policies is he for? #MoralsMatter #NeverTrump

And SHAME on you too, @MarkDavis, saying Trump-opposing Republicans are into self/self-absorbed. 'Self' ignores morals, and has ZERO policy 7/8ths of a campaign for power idolatry! (11/1/16)

History

LAST WEEK, @MarkDavis said if Democrats offer a strong candidate, just remember that it's like more of the same of Obama. He was LYING, as a 'Christian.' SIN!

He is well aware of what we wrote here [on Twitter], and no one in their right mind could say it's Obama round two. In that comment, Mark is a lying 'Christian,' so why would anyone believe him?

His radio peer (John Wells) got slammed even worse in an online debate we posted (below). On the air, John stated he believed Hillary would lose due to our posted material (and expected campaign), but we weren't running in 2016! (8/21/17)

2b. Message to Mark Davis (12/7/16)

Note: On two occasions that I heard, I would tweet something, and the next day this talk radio host would refute them, on air. I suspect Jack Graham had a lot to do with it, as his staff was the ones watching our account like a hawk, and who would care more about my negative comment about Dr. James Dobson's flipping from Bush, to Cruz to Chump, and this rebuttal on prophecy. For more, see the extended version at our book, Wit and Wisdom.

In my brief travel to the doctor, and knowing some media outlets watch here, one local talk radio host mocked some among Democrats alleging that Chump could be the Antichrist... EXACTY what I wrote yesterday [SAME host who said people shouldn't criticize James Dobson, the day after I did that]. Without giving away the farm, here are MY credentials on knowing the subject that he can't compete with:

BESIDES a SWBTS M.Div., and 36 hours from Dallas Seminary, I've written two books on the topic, and an exhaustive chart that addressed every major and most minor events and passages, with biblical rationale for every event's chronological placement. Let me educate my layman 'friend' what Ed Junior likely has NOT (but surely will now):

Rapture and 7-year peace compact, seals, trumpets, bowls (with mid-Tribulation one-world ruler). Then comes Armageddon, the second coming, the Millennial state, then the eternal state. These are in order as the biggies, Mark. The smaller issues are the Beast's traits (which I will NOT specify, as I have books to sell), pre-Rapture signs of the times (same withholding), and exact details, like the Gospel angel, 24 elders, Gog, Kings of the East, the two prophets, the 144,000, the 24 elders, etc.

Mark, if you have NEVER addressed this on your show, or will have experts address it now, you are NOT one to opine! My views line up with DTS's; you probably have no views—just whatever pastor Ed might say!

Let's get more specific... Trump fits nearly all traits; he's certainly not a moral man, and he flirts with the God of our fathers (a verse phrase reference you surely DON'T know), yet he does lack the wisdom element; that can be gained from handlers.

Here's the rub you NEED to care about... Peace for Israel is THE key to prophecy, and Chump is in a position to set that process off, if left to his own devices (vs. handlers and teleprompters)!

VERY technically, three kings must be stealthily subverted, which makes a European Union politician more likely, but with historic U.S. ties to Britain, he can't be ruled out.

I went over some MAJOR signs of the times this week, and explained yesterday how his STUPID decision yesterday could trigger enough violence to necessitate a peace deal for seven years. Am I losing you, Mr. Davis? I'll type slower [Sarcasm].

In short, you can probably, from memory, say 1/10th of what I just did from memory (a doctor phone call interrupting), so before you opine on my Bible-backed assessments, stop sheepishly depending on Ed, and study for yourself. Start with Things To Come, by Pentecost. Throw in Ryrice and Walvoord. Thanks!

One more technicality... The Apostasy went public June 23, 2016, but its momentum had been building since 1985, with the church growth movement, where EDBS priorities waned, for fame and fortune among [many] U.S. pastors. Mega church mania, the tithe lie, and the Lordship Salvation error. It was not a one-day event, past critic.

I'll even be kind to explain that... A shift, a drift, a major departure from the faith MUST occur before the Beast arises (that's a synonym, Mark). The WASP church, especially, has shown itself to worship secular power—at ALL costs to a moral reputation, in 2016. Even lost people see the shift, folks (and Mark).

They're STILL at it, with Roy Moore! Jesus did NOT value secular power the way those WASP church, self-appointed 'representatives' do, And He certainly would NEVER tell one of His (and that group's original candidate) to publicly say, 'sometimes you put your Christian values on pause, to get things done.' Sin to win is NOT of Jesus, my little critic.

And advocating BIASED public policies. That's NOT God's way, Mark. So if you want to debate me on politics or prophecy, as I offered before (See: Christians For Trump), I'm NOT coming on your show, but let's host a public debate, so the control element is equalized. Are you in, Mark Davis? I DON'T really want to, so NOT I'm NOT direct messaging you/him!

And if anyone ever believes yesterday's announcement was JUST, fair, even-handed for Arabs and Islam vs. Jews, you really do NOT deserve a right to vote, for you are TOO dumb! Israel gets peace, and Jerusalem becomes the Jew's capital in the "Millennium," Mark. Look up the term—it's NOT young people. Thanks for viewing!

HOW do I assert that? In the second half of the Tribulation, Jews are persecuted. They DID have to be in their historic land (1948), but the capital is NOT addressed in Scripture, pre-Millennium. Jesus reigns on the seat of David, on earth, ONLY after the 7-year Tribulation. And, politically, it was NO positive event yesterday.

In fact, it ONLY stirs up strife; that is NOT making peace. It very likely will lead to rising tensions, that one day WILL necessitate that Dan. 9:27 deal. That's why I still maintain that Chump started the prophecy countdown. It was a DUMB and culpable decision!

Christian's understanding of spiritual truths do NOT make political policy! God never commanded evangelicals to push Chump to stir up peace process chaos! If you know a verse, Mark, please add it. There are none. And though the Jews are 'God's people,' He does NOT favor them to Arabs, if both sides act holy. There are evil ones on both sides. He opposes that! LEARN!

[Interjection: Gal. 4:21-31 does NOT disprove my claim that we are to treat BOTH sides equally fairly! In prophecy, and in history, they have THIS separation, but in political dealings, they get fairness, and any Christian who views Islamists as inferior humans DOESN'T follow the God I know. Love them, Cabal!

It is NEVER a competition! When you view church as a business, it IS a competition, or when you view U.S.A. as a theocracy. THERE is where your thinking is FAR off, and far out, in a BAD way! Everyone needs Christ. You erect NO barriers to all men coming to Him, like retweeting anti-Islam videos, etc.!

THIS is an issue your better than the last candidate struggled with in the debates, when he equated Islam with the Arab's founding, thousands of years earlier. The SAME guy who said, 'put your Christian morals on hold to get things done!' You've got to pick better people, if you aspire to be "king-makers," gents!]

NO MATTER what peace deals ever get brokered, permanent peace ONLY occurs after the 7-year Tribulation, Mark! And any 7-year deal gets broken half way through, when the man of sin (another synonym, Mark) is exposed in the rebuilt Jerusalem temple (or its equivalent, to John). Understand better, now, Mark?

P.S.: Walvoord has an exhaustive book of ALL prophecy references (I own it), if you ever get serious about making uninformed statements of criticism, when you speak from an intellectual void on this subject, Mark. I'll even lend it to you. I've perused it enough for one lifetime (AAorg2020@gmail.com)

Also read this week's blurb about North Korea, Russia, Iran, and 666 technology precursors. You really might learn something, Mark. And, sincerely, if you have anything to add to the topic that I haven't addressed here or in my two books, I will cite YOU as the source, and I would LOVE to learn it. I AM interested in the topic!

Show prep available in this morning's message, @MarkDavis

3. Chris Salcedo (DFW talk radio host) (7/21/17)

The funniest thing is Salcedo saying he has no party, when the dunce-in-charge has ONLY followed conservative positions—when he finally came to ANY ideas! (7/21/17)

He says he has no party. I guarantee you he will advocate ONLY for the GOP anytime there's another election! Conservatism is NOT a party, Mr. Salcedo!

[Chris Salcedo:] Another misunderstanding on your part. The @GOP isn't "my party." I'm a conservative. I have no party for now.

Funny, talk show boy says "another" misunderstanding, when I didn't even have one. They are experts at manipulating language, and spinning themselves positive!

NICE academic technicality! You would NEVER vote for anyone but a GOP (or not vote, or a conservative independent, if they could ever win)! You are GOP!

[Chris Salcedo:] Did you miss @thedemocrats support for "black lies matter," as they chanted for the death of cops? King Noble declaring open season on "crackers?"

I won't associate you with the KKK just because some in your party are of that ilk. Broad brush generalizations are one reason there is such division in our nation!

AGAIN, inaccurate! I'm no apologist for anyone, or party loyalist to any party. You argue straw men arguments, and lose credibility thereby—THINK better!

[Chris Salcedo:] What's funny is seeing you apologists for hate sell out for a political victory. Or in @BarackObama's case, hundreds of losses.

You LOVE to lump ALL Democrats with bad policies, and tout ALL conservatives with their good policies. That's a VERY biased bent. I'm ONLY for the good!

At least DT-loving Rick Roberts has the decency to call out Trumpsters who are attacking John McCain when he's down! Trumpsters aren't famous for morals.

By Salcedo's 'logic,' it's anti-Christian to be for justice, to help the poor and our environment, and God's for greed and selfishness. WHAT BIBLE DO YOU NOT READ, C.S.?

@ChrisSalcedoTX NOT to beat a dead horse, but so I fully understand your version of conservatism, please tell me which of following you agree with:

Lowest taxes and regulations on business possible, NO wealth redistribution (i.e., end Welfare and the safety net), end the IRS, EPA, NEA and two others Rick Perry couldn't remember).

Free speech (no hate speech laws?), freedom of religion (O.K. to discriminate against gays?), end the estate tax and minimum wage, no restrictions on guns.

[Chris Salcedo:] You forgot anti-1st amendment, and anti-white. Defending progressives is a losing proposition James. There's really no defense for their advocacy.

[Chris Salcedo:] Instead of going through this, why don't you come on the show and we'll talk it out? I don't censor voice that disagree with me. :-)

4. John David Wells (DFW talk radio host) (5/11/16)

[Question probably on valid political issues to be for or against, or Trump should be]

.@TheWellsReport WHATEVER they [the voters] want. He [Trump] just needs to be the leader, and have some dignity and accuracy. If they said jump off a cliff, would he?

[Asks who I suggest he vote for]

Whoever you want. But DEMAND better from CHUMP. You are a part of 'WE THE PEOPLE,' and this is our nation, NOT politicians! Thanks for your civility.

[Asks who I suggest GOP's vote for]

I don't suggest for you. I'm voting for EVERY GOP but Chump. My conscience remains clean in so doing. Let the people have who they want.

[Blames #NeverTrump if Trump loses]

If I, or any GOP's NON-vote causes that, Chump should have thought of that when implementing his strategy to win! We never forced him.

[Claims #NeverTrump is 'irrelevant']

If irrelevant, why are my words bothering you to ask us for a shut up that you WON'T GET? You even said our non-votes may win it for "Hillary;" Irrelevant?

[Complains/acts like I'm wasting his time, when he contacted us]

You replied to MY tweets. I have PLENTY to say about BOTH contenders, but I DON'T do it in your threads unless you engage! I expose TRUTH.

[Complains about our Twitter abbreviations]

As to grammar I have a lot to say in 140 characters, and if that reflects on education, I have more degrees than you can likely pronounce.

[Doubts our claimed 250,000 viewers in one month]

You think like a 10th grader. Some professional you are! Somehow you got me confused with my son. Go get yourself an edu-ma-cation, and some manners.

One talk radio show I'll pass on; I only heard it three times. I met the guy once, and three times [BEFORE this online conversation] I left my phone to consider joining the Texas Air National Guard, and he NEVER called back.

He has the Huckabee mentality... You must back Trump, even if he's Satan, because he won the nomination. Party over principles—the old Hitler S.S. excuse!

Need

[His] “primary prayer for Donald Trump is that he would first of all repent of sin and come to faith in Jesus Christ.” ...an embrace of the very kind of moral and cultural decadence that conservatives have been saying for a long time is the problem...” character matters.¹ –Dr. Russell Moore

Problem

We humans in so many ways ruined and hurt [2017], with works of death, with lies and injustices; gratitude prevails [thanks to those who] cooperate silently for the common good. [He singled out parents and educators who try to raise young people w/a sense of responsible ethics].

–Pope Francis (12/31/17)

Trump couldn’t be more different than the Christian pastors, authors, and activists in attendance. The reality-television star and real-estate mogul is the living, breathing embodiment of what many evangelicals have spent their careers warring against.² –Jonathan Merritt

...a “handful of Christian political operatives excusing immorality and confusing the definition of the gospel.” ...it’s certainly a mistake for any religious movement to hitch its wagon to a political leader so closely that it throws advocates for religious principles themselves under the bus.³ –Ben Shapiro

The life issue cannot flourish when you have people who have given up on the idea that character matters. If you lose an election you can live to fight another day and move on, but if you lose an election while giving up your very soul then you have really lost it all, and so I think the stakes are really high... When you have someone who is standing up race baiting, racist speech, using immigrants and others in our communities in the most horrific ways and we say ‘that doesn’t matter’ and we are part of the global body of Christ simply for the sake of American politics, and we expect that we are going to be able to reach the nations for Christ? I don’t think so...⁴ –Dr. Russell Moore

“One of the things that America was stood for in the past was moral leadership and character. Over the past few decades, it has slowly dissipated,” said Hwa Yung, longtime bishop of the Methodist Church in Malaysia. “In this election you have produced two candidates, both of whom are deeply flawed in character. The question people around the world are asking is, ‘Is this what America is today?’ The election has done great damage to your moral standing in the eyes of the world.”⁵

“There is massive disappointment within Christian communities in most of central and eastern Europe, [and] concern about the loss of credibility of Christian witness—especially the credibility of the evangelicals,” said Peter Kuzmic, an evangelical scholar in Croatia. “If the president-elect represents Christian values, then those values really mean nothing, and truth and character are out.”⁶

Grace Mathews, a Delhi-based leader with the Lausanne Movement, said this year’s election conflicts with the image of virtue associated with American politics in previous decades... “The credibility of the Christian witness was damaged, I must say, because truth was not what was pronounced,” she said.⁷

Greg Thompson, a scholar at the University of Virginia’s Institute for Advanced Studies in Culture, said Trump’s election represented a “profound crisis of democratic virtue.”⁸

“Evangelicals in the past have been very enamored with the possibility of social change via acquisition of power, and yet we are now having to ask ourselves, ‘Is this the way of Jesus?’” said Walter Kim, lead minister at Park Street Church in Boston.⁹

Boston pastor John M. Borders III criticized a pattern of Christians—both black and white—putting too much significance on political leaders: There is hardly any public person in America today who has more exemplified the “earthly nature” ...many Christian leaders who could have spoken such prophetic confrontation to him personally have failed to do so. ...Strategy becomes idolatry when we betray our deepest values in pursuit of earthly influence.¹⁰

Hypocrisy

For eight years, Trump-loving ‘Christians’ cheered as evangelicals like Franklin Graham, Pastor John Hagee, R.D. Land, Rev. James Robison and Robert Jeffress excoriated Barack Obama, and called him all but a child of God. Lose me with self-righteous calls to now ‘respect and pray’ for the POTUS. –Bishop Talbert Swan (12/29/17)

[Jerry] Falwell [Jr.] called Trump someone who “lives a life of loving and helping others, as Jesus taught in the New Testament” and “one of the greatest visionaries of our time.”

“You have someone who has reaffirmed that he doesn’t think he’s done anything wrong, for which he needs to seek forgiveness.” ...you have a train wreck of activity over many years, culminating in this presidential campaign. –Dr. Russell Moore ...it’s Trump’s insistence that he is one of them—and the lack of any rebuke from Christians leaders who embrace Trump—that has completely rattled people like [Russell] Moore. That’s sending a signal that, I think, hurts our witness.”¹¹

James Dobson said he was “very wary of Donald Trump.” ...Trump’s tendency to shoot from the hip and attack those with whom he disagrees would be an embarrassment to the nation if he should become our chief executive...” Richard Land, the former president of the Ethics and Religious Liberties Commission, ...called Trump “a scam” and encouraged Christians to steer clear. Tony Suarez, the executive vice president of the National Hispanic Christian Leadership Conference, was also named a Trump advisor. He previously called preachers who supported Trump “embarrassing.” He has now deleted tweets and Facebook posts critical of the candidate. Leaders such as Franklin Graham and Ralph Reed offered praise and prayers.¹² –Jonathan Merritt

I don’t vote for candidates or political parties [LIE]. I support those who will lead the country righteously, honorably, and wisely. In many ways, this is a single-issue election because it will affect every dimension of American life: the makeup of the Supreme Court... I liked that he promised us emphatically that he will work to protect our religious liberties.¹³ –James Dobson

[There] has been no gradual evolution. It must have been a pretty immediate conversion for which we have had no time of testing as to the authenticity of that conversion... I have serious trouble taking preachers seriously who are actively supporting Donald Trump... Pastors who trot out 2 Chronicles 7:14, identifying that passage with the United States, are engaging in a level of scriptural perversion beyond that which I can fathom when they cast about for the candidate who prides himself in his lack of humility and proclaims he has no wicked ways from which he must turn.¹⁴ –Erick Erickson

Most illogical is his support from evangelicals and other social conservatives. To back Mr. Trump, these voters must repudiate everything they believe... In the 1990s, some of these social conservatives argued that “If Bill Clinton’s wife can’t trust him, neither can we.” If character matters, character matters. Today’s evangelicals should ask, “Whatever happened to our commitment to ‘traditional family values?’”¹⁵ –Dr. Russell Moore

Comment: Jack Graham raised NO stir about this article when it was published (likely playing a huge hand in getting Moore to speak out against nationalizing gay marriage in early 2015), but once Graham flip-flopped to supporting Chump, Graham sought this man's firing, and threatened to withhold $1 million of our church's donations to the SBC for the ERLC's 'strident' criticisms of Trump. See any hypocrisy or opportunism and self-benefit in such a turning away from this godly man?

Egos (sin)

Why would evangelicals support a candidate who stands for much of what they claim to loathe? Because Trump is promising them the thing they want most. ...And I say to you folks because you have such power, such influence. Unfortunately the government has weeded it away from you pretty strongly. But you're going to get it back. Remember this: If you ever add up, the men and women here are the most important, powerful lobbyists. You're more powerful. Because you have men and women, you probably have something like 75, 80 percent of the country believing. But you don't use your power. You don't use your power. ...These religious leaders care about their principles, yes. But they care about something else even more: Power. Their fawning, fumbling efforts to push Trump into the White House prove that many of them will risk everything to reclaim cultural and political control—even if that means defying their own beliefs.¹⁶ —Jonathan Merritt

Christian Cabal Failures

Jerry Falwell Jr., the president of Liberty University, has praised Mr. Trump's life as in many ways exemplary and said that he believes that "Donald Trump is God's man to lead our nation." Eric Metaxas... argued that Christians "must" vote for him because he is "the last best hope of keeping America from sliding into oblivion." Robert Jeffress, [said that] "any Christian who would sit at home and not vote for the Republican nominee" is "motivated by pride rather than principle."¹⁷ —Peter Wehner (NYT)

Paula White to me at #RNA2017 [Religious News Association], asked about her comments on Trump being anointed by God: "I said some things... I wish I would not have said." —Jack Jenkins (Senior Religion Reporter; tweet on 9/9/17)

Evangelicals all agree repentance is necessary according to Romans 10:9-10 for anyone to become a Christian... EXCEPT @realDonaldTrump Although he admits he has never repented, @Franklin_Graham @sstrang @JerryFalwellJr @RobertJeffress have declared him Christian anyhow! —Bishop Talbert Swar (tweet on 1/27/18)

Christian Cabal & Southern Baptists

In the 2002 Pastors' Conference in St. Louis, Dr. Rogers stated, "The future of this nation is in this room and in houses of worship all around America. As the West goes, so goes the world. As America goes, so goes the West. As Christianity goes, so goes America. As evangelicals go, so goes Christianity. As Southern Baptists go, so go evangelicals." ...Will Southern Baptists be leaders in the future of evangelicalism? If so, where are we leading other evangelicals? In the maze of the American culture today, is there any word from the Lord?¹⁸ —Ronnie Floyd (3/4/16)

Conscienced Christians

I could not possibly be consistent and somehow vote for someone whose character I believe eclipses Bill Clinton on so many of those very same concerns.¹⁹ —Dr. Albert Mohler, president of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Religious Right's Roots?

Eisenhower encouraged the perception that his candidacy was a religious cause... [In 1951], Eisenhower noted with delight that the minister had praised the Republican 'crusade for honesty in government' before his radio audience of millions... While [Billy] Graham insisted he could not reveal his political leanings, spent much of the [Seattle] campaign dropping what seemed to be considerable hints.²⁰

Riling Up The Troops

As Reagan planned his re-election campaign, he knew that emphasizing social issues might keep the religious right on board... Notably [Reagan] announced his plan to run for a second term late on a Sunday night in January 1984, just minutes before giving a televised address to the National Association for Religious Broadcasters (NARB). The president invoked God two dozen times in the speech and proclaimed to cheers that he wore the ACLU's criticism of his proclamation making 1983 the 'Year of the Bible' as 'a badge of honor.' The purpose of it all, a GOP strategist explained at the time, was to 'energize our base with the religious right.' By all accounts, it worked.²¹

Melania's Misspeak

The hardest part of being first lady is... "the opportunists who are using my name or my family name to advance themselves, from comedians to journalists to performers, book writers... who don't tell history accurately" --Melania Trump (12/12/18) [probably one of our FIRST mention of her name in any book!]

Melania's comments that all her hubby's critics' words are untrue only goes to show his true influence is spreading his delusions to those who pay him attention! Lie, deny and self-delude. "Baby Christian" values? NOWhere found in the book they are to be reading, written by Bible 'book writers!'

There is NOTHING inaccurate or untruthful in this speech/chapter by this book writer, @Flotus ALL self-inflicted wounds, by him being himself, vs. what even a fake baby Christian would know he shouldn't have said and done! #TRUTH <https://www.facebook.com/jim.meroney.3>

Melania's book writers 'self promotion' comment is LAUGHABLE, in my case! Nine of my eleven books were complete before her hubby self-promoted, using idiocy and immorality, and he even used between 5-8 of our ideas from the two books written AS he ran! It's HARD to debate people who have facts. Stick to gold-digging!

And nine of our eleven books were written and complete before God called me into politics. That's not self-promoting; that's writing in faith, having no real idea how He would use them, until later revelation. If the Chump family would read their Bibles more, their mouths would make much smarter statements! DO it!

Note to Melania Trump: When your husband 100 percent of the time self-promotes, for anyone on his team to use that activity as a slam against others, you are proving your husband deserves to be slammed, as he does it FULL TIME! I have never, but will soon after 11+ years! --Book writer

Looks like 2020 is shaping up to be a battle of what truth is, and Chump is NOT like Cyrus, but more like Festus, centuries later, who asked the great Paul, "what is truth?" (Ac. 26:25) BEWARE of people who call lies truth, and good evil! (Isa. 5:20)... the same book the REAL Cyrus referenced is in, DJT!

Lets talk about the Bible, self-promotion and ideas promotion. If you're trying to sell a product, your company or ideas, people have to learn of them. If you stay cloistered in a box, no one will ever know of your offering. It's the arrogance of self number one that ever makes promoting evil! God determines if or when to do so (Jn. 2:4, 7:6)

When the time came, it was Jesus' duty to go public, to be obedient (Jn. 12:23). He delayed it ~three years, until God commanded, just as the Apostle Paul spent ~18 years in obscurity (Gal. 1). People who promote themselves all the time are arrogant, and do NOT follow Christ's example, even if being marketed as "baby Christians!"

III-A5. NEWS ARTICLES

(all emphases mine)

1. Donald Trump is a 'Lost Person' Who Needs Christ

Donald Trump must "repent of sin" and turn to faith in Christ, the head of the Southern Baptist Convention's (SBC) Ethics and Religious Liberty In an interview with CBN, Russell Moore said his "primary prayer for Donald Trump is that he would first of all repent of sin and come to faith in Jesus Christ." "What we have in the Donald Trump phenomenon as well as in the Hillary Clinton phenomenon is an embrace of the very kind of moral and cultural decadence that conservatives have been saying for a long time is the problem," Moore said. He criticized "conservatives who were saying in the previous Clinton era that character matters, and rightly so, who now are not willing to say anything when we have this sort of reality television moral sewage coming through all over our culture." Trump subsequently hit back at Moore, branding him "a nasty guy with no heart" and "a terrible representative of Evangelicals." In his latest comments, Moore said he hoped a conversion to Christianity by Trump would mean a change in his policies. "And then [my prayer would be] that he would be somebody who would act in terms of principles of justice, which would mean a change, not only in terms of the way in which he's changing the moral character of people, including the people that are supporting him and getting on the bandwagon, having had to excuse things that they've never had to excuse before and then of course in terms of being a ruler in a limited sense within an American constitutional framework who understands principles of justice. That would be a remarkable change," Moore said. —Christianity Today (6/6/16)

Comments: This op-ed was one which severely exposed the political rift in the Southern Baptist Convention, because articles like this (and my many tweets against 'Chump,' as I called him) REALLY angered my home pastor who had used his SBC ties/connections to get this very same hero to write articles opposing nationalizing gay marriage, just a year earlier. It incensed him and his ilk so severely, that, likely from his organizing if not initiating, a group of about 100 (likely mainly mega churches) in March of 2017 threatened to withhold money from that convention if the agency this man serves on didn't quit RIGHTLY criticizing a man (Chum0 who had brought such shame and embarrassment to Christians, using that term to win their support.

2. Donald Trump Tests Culture And Character Priorities For Evangelicals

Donald Trump has not only caused deep divisions in the GOP establishment, but he's also exposed a stark divide within the evangelical community. On one side, the bombastic billionaire has Jerry Falwell Jr., the son of the famed televangelist and Moral Majority founder, in his corner. An official endorsement came after the Liberty University president heaped praise on Trump during his appearance at the Christian college in Virginia. At that event, Falwell called Trump someone who "lives a life of loving and helping others, as Jesus taught in the New Testament" and "one of the greatest visionaries of our time." Campaigning with Trump in Iowa on Saturday, just ahead of Monday's vote, the scion of one of the most-well known families of the Religious Right admitted his blessing may seem strange to some, given Trump's past. Trump was once a supporter of abortion rights, has been divorced twice, admitted to multiple affairs and has a history of vulgar language, including on the campaign trail. "It's just like when you have a sick child," Falwell argued. "You look for the best doctor you can find. It may not be a doctor who goes to your church, but it's the one who has best experience with that particular illness. We need a businessman." But for other religious leaders, such as Russell Moore, head of the Southern Baptist Convention's Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission and a frequent critic of Trump, such rationale is almost heretical. "You have someone who has reaffirmed that he doesn't think he's done anything wrong, for which he needs to seek forgiveness," Moore told NPR just after Trump's talk at Liberty. "Despite the fact that you have a train wreck of activity over many years, culminating in this presidential campaign. And there's nothing but bragging and boasting about it." "...you'll get bored of winning"—that has an appeal to religious voters who feel they've been abandoned by the Republican Party. His blunt talk went even further last month when he called for a ban on Muslims coming into the U.S. amid concerns of terrorism. Many Christian leaders were aghast at what they saw as an affront to religious liberty with his singling out an entire faith group. But other big names such as Franklin Graham, son of the famed evangelist and presidential counselor Billy Graham, supported Trump on it. While Graham has not endorsed Trump, he has spoken favorably toward him. Still, the fact that Trump's rhetoric has won over religious voters and leaders shouldn't be that shocking, according to John C. Green, a political science professor at the University of Akron who studies religious trends and American evangelicals. For more conservative voters, social issues such as abortion and gay marriage may be deal breakers. But for more moderate, often younger, evangelicals, "they care about a mix of issues," Green said. "It's not just a concern for a social issues—they're also interested in economic questions and are concerned about the environment." So while these fault lines within the evangelical community are nothing new and are something widening between generations, they just haven't been this exposed before in recent history. And probably only such a radical candidate like Trump could do so. Even though previous GOP nominees who weren't completely satiable to the most conservative evangelicals—for example, Mitt Romney was Mormon and viewed skeptically by many in the church—his personal life and the core of his political beliefs didn't completely alienate influential leaders. Trump, on the other hand, has done just that. What's more, it's Trump's insistence that he is one of them—and the lack of any rebuke from Christians leaders who embrace Trump—that has completely rattled people like Moore. "I think presenting Donald Trump as though he were a Christian is dangerous to the mission of the church and then glossing over real character issues," he said, "when evangelicals have been very clear about character issues when it comes to politicians with whom we disagree on multiple issues. That's sending a signal that, I think, hurts our witness." —National Public Radio (1/31/16)

Comments: Does ANYONE in their right mind, in America, sincerely believe that one of our voting criteria for president needs to be to ensure we tout one who is like a very sick child?

3. A Confession: What I Think of Pastors For Trump

What I do not understand, however, are preachers and theologians gravitating to Donald Trump. It should be harder for those engaged in daily theology to bifurcate their Christian world view from their citizenry. (2 Timothy 3:16-17) It should provide caution to pastors who champion a man better known for fighting, being politically incorrect, and bombastic than being humble. That any pastor could look on a candidate for President of the United States who is known for and popular because he has an "unhealthy craving for controversy and for quarrels about words" should give those who sit in his church cause for concern. What we know of Donald Trump is that six years ago he funded Democrats against conservatives, two years ago he funded Republican establishment leaders against conservatives, and now he wants to run as a conservative. Just a few years ago he was pro-abortion and pro-gay rights and suddenly we are supposed to believe he had a road to Damascus moment. And it must be a road to Damascus moment, because in the last year he was still promoting Democrat policies like universal, government funded healthcare. There has been no gradual evolution. It must have been a pretty immediate conversion for which we have had no time of testing as to the authenticity of that conversion. When St. Paul wrote that new converts should not be leaders, he had at least been suffering as a Christian for more than a decade. That men who spend their time wrapped in scripture and preaching in pulpits are quick to embrace a man who is on his third wife having cheated on his first wife with his second, says he has never asked God for forgiveness, cannot name a favorite book of the Bible, and has no favorite passage of scripture suggests to me many Christian preachers in this country have unsure moorings and let their homesickness for this country as they think they once knew it supercede their homesickness for the land to which they have not yet been, but for which they supposedly long. I have no trouble taking supporters of Donald Trump seriously as a group of people who are worried about the direction of this country and want to make it great again. I have serious trouble taking preachers seriously who are actively supporting Donald Trump and, frankly, put me on the side of the Donatists in not wanting to take communion from any pastor who stands in the pulpit in support of Donald Trump. Pastors, of all people, should know they cannot bifurcate their faith and their country. They must be Christians first and let that influence their application of citizenship. Pastors who trot out 2 Chronicles 7:14, identifying that passage with the United States, are engaging in a level of scriptural perversion beyond that which I can fathom when they cast about for the candidate who prides himself in his lack of humility and proclaims he has no wicked ways from which he must turn. I find it shameful. These pastors need serious prayer and a real “come to Jesus” moment. And yes, we are supposed to judge Donald Trump. –The Resurgence (1/25/16)

Comments: This extremely moral and well-respected author ponders a surprisingly quick ‘conversion,’ and that’s because those of us who DO evangelism (not just philosophize) know that God’s sovereign call to salvation doesn’t often come at the first conversation, nor at a strategically opportune time in a failing political campaign. That is to say I, myself, never believed the ‘baby Christian’ façade/narrative/construct, and I am certain someone in the Cabal decided it was their only chance to get TRUE Christians to warm up to Chump to any degree!

4. Based On First Hand Knowledge, I Fundamentally Disagree With This Wall Street Journal Story

[Erick Erikson]

Despite past relations, the political arm of the White House is not foolish. They would love to get Russell Moore and those like him on board for 2020 and they aim to do it. ...when you deal with religious leaders in politics you’ll often find a lot of liars and Pharisees. –Erick Erikson (Tweeted 10/6/17)

Referent: <http://buff.ly/2seU5Ne>

Comments: I have direct messaged Dr. Moore on more than one occasion, and, at the time (i.e., prior to his caving, and apologizing for doing the right thing) had praised him as being like a soul brother to me, as his words (the ones that I read) always matched up with what I was feeling, and the Bible I read. If he caves again, as this article worries, it will be the greatest moral sell-out, second only to the existence of the Christian Cabal!

5. Questions for Falwell, Perkins, Franklin Graham, Et Al

O.K., Boys, here’s the guy you’re supporting for President of the United States [women’s crotch-grabbing video]. Recorded a decade ago. Listen and watch. What’s your reaction? What do you say? Can you live with yourself as an apologist for this man? How much decency do you possess? How much do you value your own moral standing in the world? Have you no shame? And by the way, what would Jesus do? –Religious News Service (10/7/16)

6. Drs. Albert Mohler & Russell Moore

Last month Dr. Albert Mohler, president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, KY, was part of a panel discussion during a Baptist21 event and he was asked about the election, what were first, second and third tier issues, and if evangelicals have always voted for the candidate that says they are pro-life and appoint conservative Supreme Court justices. No, no, that is not what we have always done. What we have always done is vote in a fallen world for fallen candidates in a fallen political construct and done the best we could... Yes I think the life issue is paramount, not stand alone, but is paramount. It is single issue dispositive to use the language of political science. I could not vote for someone that I believe would do any action that would expand the murder of the unborn or the assault upon the human dignity and sanctity of a single human life-period. So I go into the voting booth saying I cannot vote for a candidate. That's not enough. There is a difference between being single-issue dispositive and single-issue sufficient. Those are two separate things. Character is an indispensable issue. The first time I met Bill Clinton was hours after I had been on the O'Reilly Factor calling on him to resign, and that was a quintessential awkward moment, but I was right in terms of the issues. But I could not possibly be consistent and somehow vote for someone whose character I believe eclipses Bill Clinton on so many of those very same concerns. Someone who has bragged about his adulterous affairs, someone who has given himself to the pornographic industry, basically to a form of the sex trade, and let's just go on. In other words, I can't being single-issue dispositive does not give an adequate political grid for when you go out. Because character is pretty much and also how prolife someone supposedly is after being so pro-abortion that they actually supported partial birth abortion. So I find myself in a situation I never envisioned in my life as a Christian or as an American, but I am going to have to be Christian in order to be a faithful American. So I am going to find myself unable to vote for either of those two choices of our two major political parties. Dr. Russell Moore, president of the Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, concurred. Yes, I will be writing in a candidate this year and the reason for that is simple. The life issue cannot flourish in a culture of misogyny and sexual degradation. The life issue cannot flourish when you have people calling for the torture and murder of innocent non-combatants. The life issue cannot flourish when you have people who have given up on the idea that character matters. If you lose an election you can live to fight another day and move on, but if you lose an election while giving up your very soul then you have really lost it all, and so I think the stakes are really high. And I think the issue, particularly, when you have people who have said, and we have said, and I have said for twenty years the life issue matters, and the life issue is important... When you have someone who is standing up race baiting, racist speech, using immigrants and others in our communities in the most horrific ways and we say 'that doesn't matter' and we are part of the global body of Christ simply for the sake of American politics, and we expect that we are going to be able to reach the nations for Christ? I don't think so, and so I think we need to let our yes be yes and our no be no and our never be never. – CaffeinatedThoughts.com (7/24/16)

7. Ralph Reed & Jay Sekulow

The evangelicals have moved from being concerned with saving babies to carrying out the Koch brother's agenda on energy policy, because that's part of the big business that has taken over the Republican party... [Jack Kemp, the Bushes and Reagan] were idealists, they were true political statesmen, but these were not con artists who were starting nepotistic family businesses, whether it's called Trump, or Jay Sekulow's rip off of evangelicals, or Pat Robertson, who himself has become a billionaire... these folks are grifters. Donald Trump is a grafter, and he is in bed with other grifters... forget politics. Ronald Reagan would hate this whole crew; Richard Nixon would hate this whole crew; they are taking the Republican brand and destroying it... these guys would be unrecognizable to those people. –Frank Schaeffer (Son of the author of Whatever Happened To The Human Race, which essentially started the evangelical movement, anti-abortion movement)... [Bankrolled by secular Christian charities serving evangelism and the ACLJ, they doled out more than $60 million to Sekulo and his businesses—paraphrased].

Charlie Pierce: From selling indulgences, and saint's heads to Jim Bakker and the 700 Club, to Ralph Reed's weird connection to Jack Abramhoff, Christianity has always been a fine environment for eager entrepreneurs. But this bunch, I mean, that's a lot of dough they're talking about, and they seem to be pitching themselves at the elderly and the terrified, or the terrified elderly, and that I find not exactly consonant with the Gospels.

Joy Reid: Not exactly what Jesus preached.

Charlie Pierce: No

Jay Sekulow [early on]... saw an opportunity to join this band of grifters, these folks who are essentially con artists... It just amazes all me some thirty years later... to see how these people find each other... Go figure, Pat Robertson's sidekick [Sekulow] who started a bunch of legal foundations to essentially con evangelicals into sending money so he could save America from liberals, now is the defense council for this con artist President who either is selling you bad steaks or a non-university university, it's just stunning how these guys belong together. It would all be sort of a sick joke on evangelical Christians and the 81% of white evangelicals who voted for Trump except for one thing—it shows such bad judgment on the part of this idiot president of ours... was it someone you saw on Fox for two minutes and liked because he was kissing up to you, or do you know that he is just another Ralph Reed con man Donald Trump type himself? He's like you, Donald, he's as much a con man as you. Get yourself a real lawyer! –Frank Schaeffer (Francis' son). – MSNBC (7/1/17)

Referents: <http://bit.ly/2xD1hqo>

Comments: I wouldn't call them con artists, and abortion is still a big motivator, but the money idol is quite apparent, access to which is handed down from generation to generation, and the political philosophy they espouse certainly supports that. Reagan, Bush, McCain and Romney certainly are in a whole other class, as was the first generation of Moral Majority leaders, this second generation being quite a far fall (Ex.: Falwell and Graham)! Christians who freely give their hard-earned money to these types sadly fulfill the stereotype of believers being gullible, if not less-quality thinkers, when Jesus instructed us to love Him with all our hearts and minds!

8. Franklin Graham: 'Donald Trump Is A Changed Man'

Trump had told him personally that he will repeal the controversial Johnson Amendment of 1954, which prevents church leaders from endorsing or opposing political candidates from the pulpit. Graham said Trump is a "changed man" from when he made his notorious lewd comments about women. He made courting the evangelical vote a hallmark of his election campaign... "What you see is what you get. People need to understand that he's a very powerful person, very strong... Graham said there was "no question that God a hand in the election as the next President of the United States. The vast majority of the evangelical community supported Donald Trump because he has said he is going to support Christians, not only at home but around the world. "So when we see Christianity being attacked worldwide, not just by militant Muslims but by secularism, it's refreshing to have a leader who is willing to defend the Christian faith." He cited research that showed up to 35 million evangelical Christians did not vote in the last election four years ago. It was this that inspired him to visit all 50 states on his Decision America tour to encourage Christians to go to the ballot box. I did not tell them who to vote for. I said you pray before you vote. God will tell you who to vote for. But vote. Don't stay home. Because if you stay home we are going to lose this country. Prominent Christians such as Shane Claiborne and Tony Campolo, sometimes referred to as "post evangelicals", have spoken out against evangelicals who they have accused of exalting Trump over Jesus. Claiborne said that as a result, many Christians in post-election America are now spiritually "homeless." He has called for these Christians to abandon the term "evangelical" and reclaim their identity as "followers of Jesus." One aspect of the election result that was truly a surprise to so many was that Trump's moral character was apparently not a problem for many leading Christians. Some students at Liberty even set up a petition to distance themselves from Trump and the support he received from Falwell. The petition stated: "Associating any politician with Christianity is damaging to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. But Donald Trump is not just any politician. He has made his name by maligning others and bragging about his sins. Not only is Donald Trump a bad candidate for president, he is actively promoting the very things that we as Christians ought to oppose." He did not want the prayer rallies to be political. But, he said, the President-elect had changed "quite a bit" in the last few years. Graham said: "I know there are a number of pastors that have had a great influence on his life. People change over a period of time... if he gets mad he may use 'Hell', or 'damn'... but I trust him. –Christianity Today (11/12/16)

Referent: <http://bit.ly/2xD1kgX>

Comments: Excellent article. Trump has changed, over time, though his entire campaign showed exactly the opposite? And, Frank, Trump saying 'Hell' or 'damn' would be a welcome tame moment of lucidity! It's not just a few blatant, public cuss words that were morally out of bounds, but a two year campaign. Just read our Facebook message, if you have amnesia.

Observations:

- ◆ The Johnson Amendment was not legally, effectively overturned by Congress, as David French rightly noted.
- ◆ Has anyone noticed a marked moral improvement from Trump's campaign, its low point being the crotch-grabbing comment. And if you saw any, thank General Kelley. When Trump reads others' thoughts (teleprompter), he can sound morally improved (Ex.: U.N. speech), but left to his own devices, he calls NFL players SOBs, etc.
- ◆ Trump is powerful and strong? Are these virtues, and what do those terms mean? When a surrogate has to sell you as possessing those traits, that usually means their existence is not observed by others (or do you take rude, caustic and bullying to be synonyms?).
- ◆ God had a hand in the election, and it wasn't to bless America with a great leader, but, as one Twitter post said, sometimes God judges us/America in mysterious ways (paraphrased).
- ◆ Trump is going to support Christians? I didn't know there was a competition between religions, or that one should be exalted above another by our government. And where does Jesus teach us to seek protection from Caesar, anyway?
- ◆ Good comment on Christianity being persecuted (outside America), and if you despise secularism taking over our nation, do what I asked your dad to do and call U.S. pastors to repentance to do EDBS priorities!
- ◆ I did not tell them who to vote for is lawyer like virtual lying! Everyone with any IQ known Franklin was not suggesting his audience vote Democrat!

9. Was Billy Graham the Father of the Religious Right?

Baylor recently hosted the eminent historian of religion Grant Wacker, of Duke Divinity School, who spoke on his biography of Billy Graham, America's Pastor: Billy Graham and the Shaping of a Nation. In particular, he spoke on "Billy Graham and American Political Culture." Since many younger people today may not fully appreciate Graham's enormous influence, Wacker emphasized that Graham was the most important evangelist in the Christian history of the English-speaking world since George Whitefield. He probably preached to 215 million people face-to-face all over the world during his ministry. He made the Gallup "most admired man" list 59 times. Even Bob Dylan attributed his evangelical "phase" to hearing Graham preach. Graham "brought the storm down" with his sermons, Dylan said. Graham had relationships with presidents from Truman to Obama, and was close to four of them: Johnson, Nixon, Reagan, and Bush '41. (George W. Bush also attributes his Christian conversion to conversations with Graham.) Even though Lyndon Johnson was a more worldly and profane man, he counted Graham as one of his closest confidants. Reagan and Graham were not necessarily as close, but they did converse about theology on multiple occasions. Wacker believes that Graham's close relationship with Richard Nixon was the "nadir" of Graham's career. Graham defended the embroiled Nixon to the bitter end, and in one of the most unfortunate episodes of Graham's life, he and Nixon were recorded in a 1973 conversation making anti-Semitic statements. Wacker sees "upsides" and "downsides" to Graham's access to these presidents, and I would suggest that these "upsides" and "downsides" set important patterns for white evangelicals' relationship to political power in America, especially to the Republican Party since the 1980 presidential election and the advent of the Moral Majority. Among the downsides, for Wacker, were the way that Graham presented himself, dubiously, as non-partisan, but often made it clear where his political preferences lay. It was tempting to become a kingmaker. Also on the downside was the way that access to power "dulled" Graham's judgment, especially in the case of Richard Nixon. On the upside, Graham offered substantial pastoral care to a number of presidents, including Nixon and Johnson. Presidents, of course, need pastoral care as much or more than anybody else. Graham did not use his access to presidents to aggrandize himself, or to cut corners in any personal sense, such as financial improprieties. (In spite of his failings with Nixon, Wacker generally regards Graham as an excellent moral example, especially in his personal life.) Wacker suggests that although Graham helped to inaugurate the modern evangelical overlap between religion and politics, especially Republican politics, he was not a direct progenitor of the Religious Right. Graham did not overtly endorse the work of Jerry Falwell, Pat Robertson, or other leaders of that political movement in the 1980s. Wacker thinks that if Graham still maintained a public presence, he would not approve fully of the political activism of his son Franklin (who has recently been one of Donald Trump's most dogged evangelical supporters). And Graham took positions on issues such as desegregation and nuclear disarmament that frustrated some other white evangelicals across the course of his career. He was never fully in lockstep with what would become the Christian Right. Still, Graham illustrates the temptations of evangelicals and American politics. Who wouldn't want to have the ear of the president? But access not only can blur ethical judgment, it can blunt one's prophetic edge. Most concerning of all, politics can confuse the gospel message, even for someone who spoke as clearly about the new birth of salvation as Billy Graham did. –The Gospel Coalition (10/12/16)

Comments: A public minister should factually speak out against immoral public policies, and encourage moral ones, but you can see from these select headlines that Franklin had it in for Obama over Islamophobia (i.e., slandering an entire religion, as if Christians compete with them, or they are all terrorists), belief that his economic policies ruined America's wealth, blaming Obama for causing the culture change tolerating gay marriage, and rarely if ever praising anything Obama did. You would, therefore, expect him to support anyone else from the GOP—which is exactly what he did—support anyone, like the likes of Trump.

14. A Pastor Speaks: Dr. Jack Graham on 'Donald Trump and Spiritual Counsel'

For the past five months I, along with 24 others, have been a part of Donald Trump's Religious Advisory Council. Our responsibility is to offer prayer, spiritual support, and pastoral counsel to Mr. Trump and his team. There has never been an expectation of endorsement nor were we asked to campaign for the candidate. No one sought the role, but were invited and encouraged to speak frankly and freely. We are not making group statements or sending press releases. We are not judges; we are counselors. Our group is made up of bright, bold, Christian leaders who care deeply about the glory of God and our nation. This has been a private conversation with Mr. Trump, members of the Trump team, and of course, one another. I can tell you from my perspective, we have been given generous access to Mr. Trump and vice presidential nominee Mike Pence. In fact, I have been amazed as to how much freedom the council has been offered and the willingness of Mr. Trump to listen. Every one of us has shared our faith in Christ and has sought to be His witnesses (Acts 1:8). From the beginning, there have been questions relative to Mr. Trump's character and his qualifications for the United States presidency. These questions escalated with the release of the now very public video of Mr. Trump's language and lifestyle 11 years ago. I, along with every member of the council, have expressed outrage at such vile language and disgraceful views toward women. There is no defense for this very sinful and immoral behavior. This has been clearly communicated to Mr. Trump himself, who has apologized to his family, friends and to the American people. Is he a better man today? I am hopeful and prayerful. The question has been raised, is Donald Trump repentant? We are often asked, "Is Donald Trump a Christian?" And of course, "Should he be president?" Every week on multiple occasions I preach God's Word and offer advice to people seeking help or guidance. It is a daunting task. People's lives and souls are in the balance. But I offer my best because this is a calling I have from the Lord. Do people always do what I say? You of course know the answer to that! Does everyone accept Christ? Sadly, no. But I keep preaching and sharing my faith because I've never been responsible for the results. It is with that same intent I gratefully serve on Donald Trump's advisory group. We offer counsel and a faithful witness and leave the results to Mr. Trump. I know for a fact that the Gospel has been shared with Mr. Trump. He has been confronted with his sin. He has heard God's truth and has been offered grace and forgiveness. Our mission as spiritual advisors is to deliver the message. Without question, that message has been faithfully delivered. Several members of our group speak into Mr. Trump's life weekly, if not daily. As far as qualifications to serve our country as president, that is a decision voters will make November 8. I have written previously as to why I can vote for Donald Trump without endorsing his behavior. The addition of Evangelical Christian Mike Pence to the ticket, the pledge to nominate pro-life judges to the Supreme Court of the United States, the promise to defund Planned Parenthood, defend the sanctity of life, support Israel, defend the United States against terrorism, protect our religious freedoms, include all Americans in the prosperity of our country, and much more, are the reasons I will vote for Donald Trump. I also believe it is a bad decision to sit out the election or write in a meaningless candidate. Elections are divisive by nature but necessary if we are to keep our freedoms. Voting is a right and a responsibility. Elections matter. Certainly, this one does. The choice our country makes between Donald Trump and Hillary Clinton will set the course of our nation for a generation and beyond. For me, it has always been about the issues—not Donald Trump's past, but America's future. Every person should vote his or her convictions and vote for what is best for our country. In my view, the choice for Evangelical Bible-believing Christians could not be clearer. With Donald Trump and Mike Pence, Christians have an opportunity to influence our government and practice our religious freedoms. I will continue to pray that we will reverse from our current spiritual decline as a nation by seeking God and repenting of our own sins and finding the hope and healing we need that only comes from the Lord Jesus Christ. –Stream.org (10/12/16)

15. An Open Letter to Rev. Franklin Graham from a "Small Church" Pastor

Dear Frank

Can I call you Frank? This is just pastor to pastor. Feel free to call me Peter. Anyway, I have to say I was flattered when I learned that your Decision America Tour took a detour off the beaten path to call upon us "small community churches." We are nothing if not small. We seat 30-40 on a good Sunday. And we are a century old fixture of our small community. Most often we are overlooked and overshadowed by mega-churches and politically influential religious voices like your own. We don't hold a candle to an auditorium filled with the music of a one hundred voice choir led by professional musicians. We probably will never be recognized in any nationally syndicated media. After all, we don't do anything really "newsworthy." We just preach the good news of Jesus Christ; love one another the best we can (which sometimes isn't very well); feed the hungry that come to our doors; care for the sick; comfort the dying; and bury the dead. So thanks for thinking of us. Rest assured, we are ready to respond to your calls to prayer and action.

I have to say, though, that I was a little confused by your summons. Of all the things that worry me, loss of religious freedom for Christians in America isn't one of them. I can't say I have ever experienced anything in this country that could reasonably be called a restriction on my religious liberty, much less persecution. When you started talking about attacks on Christianity, I thought you might have been referring to the racially motivated slaying of pastors and lay people at Mother Emmanuel church in Charleston some time back. Or I figured you were referring to the slaughter of Coptic Christians in Egypt this past Palm Sunday. That's what I call persecution. But having to pay a judgment for refusing to bake a cake for a same sex couple in violation of the law against discrimination? This you call persecution?

There's a letter in the Bible, written by the Apostle Peter (ever heard of him?). He's an expert on persecution, having been on the receiving end of it more than once. He says you don't get divine kudos from suffering the consequences of breaking the law—even if you are a Christian. Moreover, there is a Christian fellow named Paul (aka Saul) who wrote a letter to a church in Rome nearly two thousand years ago. He said that if your enemy is hungry you should feed him (that's in the Bible too). So wouldn't it have been the Christian way to have baked a cake for the same sex couple in your example, even if you deem them enemies (another assertion I don't quite understand)? I'm confused.

But in any event, Frank, let's get over this persecution complex. Stop with the drama already! You are not under attack just because you have to follow the rules like everyone else. Look, I understand the owners of this establishment you mention in your speech don't approve of gay and lesbian people getting married. They don't have to approve of them. But if they are going to do business in this country, they have to follow the law against discrimination-just like the rest of us. If you don't like the rules, don't join the game. It's that simple. Furthermore, I don't understand why baking a cake for people whose conduct you find personally offensive is such a big deal. Heck, Frank, if all of us small church pastors refused to bury everyone whose conduct we didn't approve of, the country would be ten feet deep in corpses!

I am struggling, too, with your claim that Donald Trump is a champion (albeit an unlikely one) for religious freedom. What freedoms are we talking about here, Frank? The freedom to lie with impunity? The freedom to grab young girls by the genitals? The freedom to discriminate against people of color in the sale and rental of real estate? The freedom to refer to women as "dogs," "fat pigs," and "ugly"? The freedom to call your opponents "idiots," "losers," "liars" and "frauds"? The freedom to slander people with accusations of criminal conduct based on absolutely no evidence? By my count, the above violate at least four of the Ten Commandments (you will find those in the books of Exodus and Deuteronomy-both in the Bible). If Donald Trump is the champion of American Christianity, God save it from its enemies!

All kidding aside, you might be right about God putting Donald Trump in the White House-though your reasons for so believing are probably different from what I might conjecture. Still, how do you know that? Where did you get this info? I have to hand it to you, Frank, you sure do have the connections. As I am sure you know, God does not consult with us small church pastors on weighty issues of that kind. So it was kind of you to leak this classified intelligence to all of us who are evidently a good deal further away from the divine pipeline. So let me see if I have this figured out correctly: God doesn't give a flying fruitcake if we deprive twenty-million people, most of them poor, of access to health care. Nor is God particularly concerned about how men treat women in the workplace, how people of color are treated in the real estate market, how the hungry and homeless are cared for (or not), but God flips out if we bake a cake for a same sex couple to celebrate their wedding? I have to be honest with you, Frank. I'm just not seeing it. Not in the Bible, not in the realm of rational common sense.

Here's the thing, Frank. At the last judgment, Jesus doesn't ask anyone about who they voted for, how many times they have been divorced, what their sexual history or orientation is or for whom they did or did not bake wedding cakes. His sole concern is for how we treated the hungry, the thirsty, the naked, the imprisoned, those deemed "least" among us. No, I didn't get that from any private chat with God. We small church pastors have to rely on the Bible for our intel. I got this stuff from the Gospel of Matthew, 25th Chapter to be precise. As I said, that, too, is in the Bible. (It's a great book, Frank. You should read it sometime.)

You know, Frank, I would like to think that we are brothers. I would like to believe that we are on the same side. I would like to believe that, beneath our differences, we worship the same God and follow the same Savior. But quite honestly, I don't recognize the Jesus I learned from my parents, my Sunday School teachers, my pastors or my years of study and reflection on the Bible in your angry, fearful rhetoric. Yes, I will answer your call for prayer. But I will be praying for the real victims of persecution-the victims of racial discrimination, sexual violence and bullying. I will answer your call to action. But I will be acting to establish health care as a right for all people; making the college campus and the workplace spaces where women and girls need not fear being called "pigs," "dogs" or "ugly" nor will they need to fear rich, white celebrity males who feel entitled to grab them by the genitals. I will respond to your call for action by working for a society in which no one needs to worry about where she will sleep at night or where the next meal is coming from. You want prayer? You want action? You've got it.

Well, thanks again, Frank, for thinking about us small church folk. I appreciate your concern about our being persecuted and under attack. But don't worry about us. We don't have your money, your access to the halls of power or your seeming direct connection to the Almighty. But we have the scriptures, we have prayer, and we are learning every day what it means to love God with all our hearts, souls, minds and strength and to love our neighbors as ourselves. That's all we need. You can keep your champion in the White House, thanks just the same.

Christ's servant and yours,

Peter

16. Trump's Evangelical Fans Preach the Gospel of Greed, Not Grace

God's orders: "Go to the royal palace and deliver this Message. Say, 'Listen to what God says, O King of Judah, you who sit on David's throne—you and your officials and all the people who go in and out of these palace gates. This is God's Message: Attend to matters of justice. Set things right between people. Rescue victims from their exploiters. Don't take advantage of the homeless, the orphans, the widows. Stop the murdering!'" —Jeremiah 22:1-3 On Friday, President Donald Trump went before the annual Values Voter Summit and declared America "a country that never forgets that we are all, everyone one of us, by the very same God in Heaven." In the name of Jesus, Trump vowed to "stop cold the attacks on Judeo-Christian values." Throughout the Scriptures, virtually every story told by Jesus admonishes us to see to the needs of the poor and vulnerable among us. Instead, Trump told the crowd of cheering evangelicals that he would always defend those who use religion to discriminate. The Christian nationalists Trump has emboldened do not follow the Jesus I know and preach. Their values stem not from Christ, but from cash; theirs is the gospel of greed, not grace. ...We have to stop pretending that these men and women are leaders in the Christian church. Why should we listen when they p-r-a-y in public and p-r-e-y on the people in private? ...But at the Values Voters Summit, lead organizer Tony Perkins put on duck-hunting waders and pretended to "wade into the swamp" as a man of the people. ...In 1968, Dr. King said we need a "revolution of values." And yet Trump, with more than three years left in his presidential term, has already initiated a national devolution of values, not a revolution. ...thousands of people who know we need a values revolution in America... Corporate sponsorship has bloated the public image of extremism. But there are far more people of faith and conscience who want to revive the heart and soul of our democracy than there are those wishing to pollute it. ...Last week, the men and women who crowded into that D.C. ballroom claimed to be attending a values conference. But instead, they proved yet again how morally bankrupt a vocal segment of Christianity has become... Let's show America what a true moral majority looks like. —Rev. William J. Barber

17. The Unbearable Hypocrisy of Roy Moore's Christian Rhetoric

This is not Christianity. Rather, it is an extreme Republican religionism that stands by party and regressive policy no matter what. It's not the gospel of Christ, but a gospel of greed. It is the religion of racism and lies, not the religion of redemption and love. ...Moore's political agenda presents a credible threat to millions of vulnerable people in America. Yet Moore claims to be the moral and Christian candidate, using religion as U.S. slave masters did before him to justify actions which fly in the face of Christ's teachings... There is nothing Christian about the policies Moore has supported. They are as immoral as the terrible abuse he so vehemently denies. While he wants to compare his plight to the suffering of Jesus, there is no biblical basis for policies that hurt poor people and children. As well as he knows his Bible, Roy

Moore never quotes from the more than 2,000 verses that exhort us to care for the poor, the sick, and the stranger in our midst. He has apparently overlooked the prophet Isaiah, who said to men like Moore in his own day... (Is.10:1-4). [GOP] ...moral outrage rings hollow because it renounces Moore based on his personal patterns but says nothing about the disturbing pattern of his policy agenda. Anyone who has any influence must help blacks, progressive whites, and Latinos; gay and straight; Christians, Muslims, Jews, and all who want to move our country forward... This is no time to retreat or remain idle. We must stand up for truth in the public square and reclaim our political and faith traditions which have been hijacked. –Rev. William J. Highlights

While we are pilgrims here, we are also ambassadors.

We need a growing revolt in evangelical circles on ethical indifferentism.

A Christianity without a passion to turn the world upside down is not reflective of apostolic Christianity.

The major and minor prophets lashed out “with uncompromised vigor against social evils of the day.”

John the Baptist stood with Moses, Isaiah, and Amos in his social alertness. ...The social spirit of John’s preaching was not contrary to Jesus’ own message.

Christianity ought not oppose any needed social reform. Further, it ought to be in the forefront of reformatory attack.

The great contemporary problems are moral and spiritual.

When I was in seminary (1982-1985), one required textbook was Christ and Culture, by H. Richard Niebuhr’s Christ and Culture. Here’s a recent article from James Dobson’s former ministry:

<http://bit.ly/2AYz9eu> The truth is that Christ is above every culture, calls believers to seek to improve it, but not as priority one. Christ opposes what is evil in culture and praises and supports what is good in any culture.

[Carl Henry wrote that] The liberals... had replaced the gospel with a political program. ...At the other extreme, though, Henry warned, conservatives over-reacted to the social gospel. They spoke of the kingdom of God, but acted as though it were wholly future. ...Neither side, Henry argued, understood the “already” and “not yet” tension of the kingdom of God, a tension that was about more than how we view the last things. 19. The Religious Right’s Scary, Judgmental Old Men

It is sometimes assumed... that the presidency sets a moral tone for the nation, influencing what society considers normal and acceptable in a kind of trickle-down ethics... Politics reaches only the light zone of a deep ocean. It is a sign of hope that moral and ethical standards can assert themselves largely unaided by political, entertainment and media leaders... An ethical light switch was flipped. Moral outrage—the appropriate response—now seems obvious... Such rapid shifts in social norms should be encouraging to social reformers of various stripes. On sexual harassment, our country is now in a much better ethical place. ... people, at some deep level, know that rules and norms are needed. They understand that character—rooted in empathy and respect for the rights and dignity of others—is essential in every realm of life... And where did this urgent assertion of moral principle come from? Not from the advocates of “family values.” On the contrary, James Dobson, the founder of Focus on the Family (now under much better management), chose to side with GOP Senate candidate Roy Moore of Alabama against his highly credible accusers. Instead of standing against injustice and exploitation—as the Christian gospel demands—Dobson sided with patriarchal oppression in the cause of political power. This is beyond hypocrisy. It is the solidarity of scary, judgmental old men. It is the ideology of white male dominance dressed up as religion... The strong, moral commitment to the dignity of women and children recently asserting itself in our common life has mainly come from feminism, not the “family values” movement. In this case, religious conservatives have largely been bystanders or obstacles. This indicates a group of people for whom the dignity of girls and women has become secondary to other political goals. We are a nation with vast resources of moral renewal. It is a shame and a scandal that so many religious conservatives have made themselves irrelevant to that task.

20. The GOP is Rotting

A lot of good, honorable Republicans used to believe there was a safe middle ground. You didn't have to tie yourself hip to hip with Donald Trump, but you didn't have to go all the way to the other extreme and commit political suicide like the dissident Jeff Flake, either... There is no end to what Trump will ask of his party... That's the way these corrupt bargains always work. You think you're only giving your tormentor a little piece of yourself, but he keeps asking and asking, and before long he owns your entire soul. The Republican Party is doing harm to every cause it purports to serve. If Republicans accept Roy Moore as a United States senator, they may, for a couple years, have one more vote for a justice or a tax cut, but they will have made their party loathsome for an entire generation. The pro-life cause will be forever associated with moral hypocrisy on an epic scale. The word "evangelical" is already being discredited for an entire generation. Young people and people of color look at the Trump-Moore G.O.P. and they are repulsed, maybe forever. You don't help your cause by wrapping your arms around an alleged sexual predator and a patriarchic bigot. You don't help your cause by putting the pursuit of power above character, by worshiping at the feet of some loutish man or another, by claiming the ends justify any means. You don't successfully rationalize your own tawdriness by claiming your opponents are Satanic. You don't save Christianity by betraying its message. "What shall it profit a man," Jesus asked, "if he gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his own soul?" The current Republican Party seems to not understand that question. Donald Trump seems to have made gaining the world at the cost of his soul his entire life's motto. It's amazing that there haven't been more Republicans like Mitt Romney who have said: "Enough is enough! I can go no further!" ...the rot that has brought us to the brink of Senator Roy Moore began long ago. Starting with Sarah Palin and the spread of Fox News, the G.O.P. traded an ethos of excellence for an ethos of hucksterism. The Republican Party I grew up with admired excellence... The rot afflicting the G.O.P. is comprehensive—moral, intellectual, political and reputational. 21. How the GOP Became a 'Pro-Israel' Party

...perhaps most importantly, since the 1990s, evangelical Christians have come to represent one of the strongest and most hawkish pro-Israel demographics within the Republican party. Until the 1970s, evangelicals tended to avoid direct involvement in political activism. When Jerry Falwell's Moral Majority emerged at the end of that decade, fusing religion and politics, Israel wasn't the top issue. But Falwell did emphasize that evangelicals—a group that at times had had mixed attitudes toward Jews and Israel—should understand their theology as strongly backing Israel. (Many pro-Israel evangelicals believe that Israel is essential to the second coming of Jesus or that they are following a literal interpretation of a Biblical injunction that God will bless those who bless Israel and curse those who curse Israel.) In the early '80s, support for Israel dovetailed with strong anti-communism, as evangelicals slammed the Soviet Union for maintaining harsh policies restricting Jewish and Zionist activities. Today, Israel is a voting priority for many evangelicals. A 2015 poll noted that 64 percent of evangelical Christian Republicans say that a candidate's stance on Israel matters "a lot," compared with 33 percent of non-evangelical Republicans and 26 percent of all Americans. And evangelical Christian voters, unlike Jews, represent a significant percentage of Republican voters. Some 26 percent of the electorate identified in the 2016 elections as born-again or evangelical Christian, and 81 percent of them voted for Trump over Hillary Clinton. Capturing evangelical support is essential for Republican candidates; as of 2014, evangelical and born-again voters represented the plurality (45 percent) of voters who are Republican or who lean Republican. —Rebecca Shimoni Stoil (FiveThirtyEight.com, 12/8/17)

22. Why I Can No Longer Call Myself an Evangelical Republican

There are times in life when the institutional ground underneath you begins to crumble—and with it, longstanding attachments. Such is the case for me when it comes to the Republican Party and evangelicalism. I've been a part of both for my entire adult life. These days, though, in many important ways they are having harmful effects on our society. ...As a young man I embraced conservatism as a political philosophy and the Republican Party as its political home. The first vote I cast was in 1980 for Ronald Reagan. ...I was proud to make the case for Reagan and consider myself fortunate to have worked in his administration in its second term. At roughly the same time, I was in the midst of a pilgrimage of faith that started as vague deism but eventually led me to evangelicalism. Both the Republican Party, which was created to end slavery and preserve the Union, and evangelicalism, a transdenominational effort to faithfully represent Christ in word and deed, shaped my life and outlook, helping me to interpret the world. Politics and faith are hardly synonymous. They occupy different realms, and my faith has a far more important and cherished place in my life than politics. Yet both are significant to me, and the two spheres are not entirely distinct. Some of the most impressive moral movements in American politics—the efforts to abolish slavery and to end segregation and the struggle to protect unborn life—have been informed by Christianity... I don't mean to imply that politics and religion are a perfect fit. Often they're not, and over the years Christians, myself included, have not gotten the balance right. But overall I felt that the Republican Party and the evangelical movement were imperfect forces for good, and I spent a large part of my life defending them. Yet the support being given by many Republicans and white evangelicals to President Trump and now to Mr. Moore have caused me to rethink my identification with both groups. Not because my attachment to conservatism and Christianity has weakened, but rather the opposite. I consider Mr. Trump's Republican Party to be a threat to conservatism, and I have concluded that the term evangelical—despite its rich history of proclaiming the "good news" of Christ to a broken world—has been so distorted that it is now undermining the Christian witness. Just the other day I received a note from a friend of mine, a pastor, who told me he no longer uses the label "evangelical" to describe himself, even though he meets every element of its historical definition, "because the term is now so stained as to ruin my ability to be what evangelicalism was supposed to be." Another pastor who is a lifelong friend told me, "Evangelical is no longer a word we can use." The reason, he explained, is that it's become not a religious identification so much as a political one. A third person, who heads a Christian organization, told me the term evangelical "is now a tribal rather than a creedal description." In October, the Princeton Evangelical Fellowship, a campus ministry for more than 80 years, changed its name to the Princeton Christian Fellowship. "We're interested in being people who are defined by our faith and by our faith commitments and not by any sort of political agenda," according to Bill Boyce, who has led the campus group for decades. There are of course a great many honorable individuals in the Republican Party and the evangelical movement. Those who hold different views than I do lead exemplary lives. Yet I cannot help believing that the events of the past few years—and the past few weeks—have shown us that the Republican Party and the evangelical movement (or large parts of them, at least), have become what I once would have thought of as liberal caricatures. Assume you were a person of the left and an atheist, and you decided to create a couple of people in a laboratory to discredit the Republican Party and white evangelical Christianity. You could hardly choose two more perfect men than Donald Trump and Roy Moore... I hoped the Trump era would be seen as an aberration and made less ugly by those who might have influence over the president. That hasn't happened. Rather than Republicans and people of faith checking his most unappealing sides, the president is dragging down virtually everyone within his orbit. ...Prominent evangelical leaders, rather than challenging the president to become a man of integrity, have become courtiers. What's happening with Mr. Moore in Alabama—with the president, the Republican National Committee, the state party and many white evangelicals rallying around him—is a bridge too far for many of us. Where exactly is the bottom? And at what point do you pull back from associating yourself with a political party and a religious term you once took pride in but that are now doing harm to the things you treasure? Institutional renewal and regeneration are possible, and I'm going to continue to push for them. But for now a solid majority of Republicans and self-described evangelicals are firmly aboard the Trump train, which is doing its utmost to give a seat of privilege to Mr. Moore. So for those of us who still think of ourselves as conservative and Christian, it's enough already. —Peter Wehner (New York Times, 12/9/17)

@JackNGraham It is time to evaluate the meaning of evangelical and clarify what it means. I personally believe the word no longer represents conservative Bible believing Christians (12/15/17)

23. He's No Longer an 'Evangelical Republican,' But Why Didn't He Say So Sooner?

Conservative Christianity wasn't any better under, say, George W. Bush. The Republican Party has always endorsed bigots, pursued racist policies, and advocated for evidence-free policies based on evangelical Christian dogma. Perhaps it's hit a fever pitch now, but it sure as Hell isn't new. (Are we supposed to ignore the election of Ted Cruz? The nomination of Sarah Palin for Vice President?). —Hemant Metha (Patheos, 12/10/17)

24. Will Trump's Lows Ever Hit Rock Bottom?

This isn't about the policy differences we have with all presidents or our disappointment in some of their decisions. Obama and Bush both failed in many ways. They broke promises and told untruths, but the basic decency of each man was never in doubt. Donald Trump, the man, on the other hand, is uniquely awful. His sickening behavior is corrosive to the enterprise of a shared governance based on common values and the consent of the governed... Trump takes advantage of any occasion... to stir racial, religious or ethnic strife... Trump has shown contempt for ethical strictures that have bound every president in recent memory... The nation doesn't seek nor expect perfect presidents, and some have certainly been deeply flawed. But a president who shows such disrespect for the truth, for ethics, for the basic duties of the job and for decency toward others fails at the very essence of what has always made America great. —USA Today (12/13/17)

25. Jerusalem: Trump Declaration Sparks Baptist's Reactions

As violence continued in the Middle East after President Trump's recognition of Jerusalem as Israel's capital, Southern Baptists expressed a range of views on the topic. Former Southern Baptist Convention Presidents Ronnie Floyd and Jack Graham were among those to celebrate Trump's Dec. 6 proclamation on Jerusalem, which included a promise to move the U.S. embassy there. Jamal Bishara, an Arab Israeli who served on the Multiethnic Advisory Council appointed in 2014 by SBC Executive Committee President Frank S. Page, called the Trump administration's move "another slap in the face to Palestinians." The Washington Post reported today (Dec. 8) at least one Palestinian had been killed in the West Bank and dozens were injured as Palestinian protestors clashed with Israeli troops. At least 245 people have been injured during clashes in the West Bank and in Jerusalem. The United Nations Security Council held a special session Dec. 8 to discuss the Trump administration's actions regarding Israel. Floyd, pastor of Cross Church in northwest Arkansas, said in a press release he is "thoroughly pleased President Trump has taken this action when it comes to our ally Israel," adding the Jewish people's "return to the Promised Land has been mixed with sorrow, as they've had to wait on the world to once again recognize what's rightfully theirs: Jerusalem." "By recognizing that Jerusalem is Israel's unquestionable capital and promising the subsequent move of the U.S. embassy, President Trump has incurred blessing on America," said Floyd, who also serves as president of the National Day of Prayer Task Force, "for Scripture says God blesses those who bless Israel." Israel long has claimed Jerusalem as its capital, with modern Israeli governments varying in their willingness to let Palestinians control portions of the city. Palestinians claim East Jerusalem as their capital. Some observers have said moving the U.S. embassy to Jerusalem may undermine prospects for peace in the region and be understood as a declaration of Israel's sovereignty over the entire city—though Trump said Dec. 6 he was not taking a position on "the specific boundaries of the Israeli sovereignty in Jerusalem." The U.S. embassy has been in Tel Aviv for more than 50 years. In 1995, the U.S. Congress adopted legislation requiring the embassy to relocate to Jerusalem by 1999. However, Presidents Clinton, Bush and Obama all exercised a provision in the law allowing them to suspend the relocation. Trump exercised the same provision in June before announcing the embassy's relocation. Graham, pastor of the Dallas-area Prestonwood Baptist Church, called Trump's decision to recognize Jerusalem as Israel's capital and move the U.S. embassy "the best news to come out of the Middle East in decades." "As a Christian, I'm grateful America is playing a decisive role in the story of God's chosen people, and I'm very glad President Trump is displaying the courage to fulfill a promise to support Israel and its biblical role among the nations," Graham said in a statement. Among other Southern Baptists to release statements supporting Trump's announcement were Robert Jeffress, pastor of First Baptist Church in Dallas; David Jeremiah, pastor of Shadow Mountain Community Church in El Cajon, Calif.; Greg Laurie, pastor of Harvest Christian Fellowship in Riverside, Calif.; and Tony Perkins, president of the Family Research Council. [AKA, The Christian Cabal] Bishara, pastor of First Arabic Baptist Church in Phoenix and a dual Israeli-American citizen, told BP Jerusalem "maybe" should be the capital of both Israel and a Palestinian state. But he lamented what he perceives as "the tunnel vision and the prejudice of the Western world against Palestinians." Such prejudice may be "church-influenced based on wrong biblical interpretation of Scriptures," Bishara said, "causing mistreatment of people as was done to blacks in the U.S." Travis Wussow, vice president for public policy and general counsel at the Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission, wrote in an article posted at ERLC.com that "many Arab Christians are concerned about this move." "Arab Christians, wherever they live around the world, are religious minorities," Wussow wrote. "Sectarian tensions are already high. The Arab Christians are especially vulnerable to and sensitive about attacks on churches and their communities by extremist elements. Several Middle Eastern Christian leaders in Jerusalem, Jordan, and elsewhere sent letters to President Trump asking for a delay or for caution in making this move." Retired hospital executive Rich Hastings, a pro-Israel advocate in Kansas City, Mo., told BP he hopes "this Jerusalem controversy itself may cause our churches to emphasize the biblical importance of Israel in prophecy and to our faith." "The President's decision may not be liked and certainly will not bring peace," Hastings, who has led numerous tours and trade missions to Israel, said in written comments. "But dialogue about Israel and the Prince of Peace is a good thing. I look forward to the fulfillment of Zechariah's prophecy that when the Messiah returns, we will celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles (Sukkot) in Jerusalem." A 2016 SBC resolution "on prayer and support for Israel" did not take a position on Jerusalem's geopolitical status but expressed messengers' promise "to pray for God's peace to rule in Jerusalem and for the salvation of Israel, for the Gospel is 'God's power for salvation to everyone who believes, first to the Jew' (Romans 1:16)." –Baptist Press (12/8/17)

26. Trump's Sh__hole Comments Have Enraged Many. But Some Evangelical Leaders Still Back Him.

The unofficial spokesman for President Trump's evangelical advisory council... Johnnie Moore... A few members of President Trump's evangelical advisory council—including its spokesman—on Friday defended the president after he made comments about immigrants from places including Africa and Central America... "Why are we having all these people from sh__hole countries come here?" Trump said, according to people in the room, including Sen. Richard J. Durbin (D-Ill.). Trump then reportedly suggested that the United States instead should bring in more immigrants from countries such as Norway. In a statement Thursday, the White House did not deny that the president made the comments. But on Twitter on Friday morning, Trump appeared to deny that he said the word "sh__hole," although he did say his language was “tough.” Some of Trump’s evangelical advisers declined to comment on the president’s remarks, including Liberty University President Jerry Falwell Jr., and Bishop Harry Jackson, an African American pastor from Beltsville, Md... Many of these advisers who were part of his campaign have stuck by the president during some of his most controversial moments, including when the Access Hollywood tapes that were published before the election. Others in the advisory group—the only known regular pipeline of religious feedback to the White House—spoke in support of the president, saying that his language may not have been acceptable but that his views are. Robert Jeffress, pastor of First Baptist Dallas, a prominent Southern Baptist church, said that while he would not have used the same language Trump did, he agrees with the president’s perspective. “What a lot of people miss is, America is not a church where everyone should be welcomed regardless of race and background,” Jeffress said. “I’m glad Trump understands the difference between a church and country. I support his views 100 percent, even though as a pastor I can’t use that language.” The United States, Jeffress said, has every right to restrict immigration according to whatever criteria it establishes, including race or other qualifications. “The country has the right to establish what would benefit our nation the most,” he said. “I don’t think there’s anything racist about it at all.” America is not obligated to accept people based on need, such as the case with refugees, he said. “I wouldn’t let the language obscure the point he’s making: Why would we allow people who will not benefit our country?” Jeffress said. “We have the right to screen [refugees] based on the economic benefit they might bring, and we can establish the criteria we want to use.” ...Ronnie Floyd, an evangelical adviser during the Trump campaign, criticized Trump’s remarks. Floyd, former president of the Southern Baptist Convention, said: “I would not agree with those comments at all. We need to see that every person is made in the image of God.” Floyd said there’s a difficult balance between the primary responsibility of the government of securing the nation and the value of human life. “Anytime we devalue a person it’s not good,” Floyd said. “Regardless of their skin or ethnicity, we need to honor one another.” While members say they’re there because they’re influencing the White House on topics from Israel to religious freedom, Bernard said he doesn’t believe the council has any real influence. “I think they’re politically convenient to the president,” he said... Several of Trump’s advisers, including Floyd, megachurch pastor Jack Graham and Southern Evangelical Seminary President Richard Land, signed a statement in October stating, “We believe it is unjust to punish children for offenses they did not commit.” In a piece he wrote for The Post on Friday, Ed Stetzer, a Southern Baptist who teaches at Wheaton College, called on evangelical leaders to address Trump’s comments. “Trump has courted evangelicals, some of whom have had access to him and his administration,” Stetzer said. “I hope those evangelical leaders will speak clearly, reminding Trump that all people are worthy of dignity and respect because they are made in the image of God.” Russell Moore, president of the Southern Baptist Convention’s lobbying arm, who has criticized Trump in the past, did not directly criticize the president but tweeted comments blasting the sentiment: “The church of Jesus Christ is led by, among others, our brothers and sisters from Africa, Latin America, and the Caribbean. They are us.” ...“He lacked any sense of self-control or a sense of propriety that is needed for the office of the President of the United States. He is not entitled to speak only for himself in such situations. He speaks for our country on the international stage,” Farris wrote on Facebook. “We want and deserve to have him ... act with dignity. Just once I would like to hear him say that he was wrong and ask for forgiveness.” ...evangelist Franklin Graham and author Eric Metaxas, who initially did not provide comments as requested, later made comments on social media. –Washington Post (1/12/18)

28. They Were Bad. He May Be Worse

(my comments in brackets)

Historians have long looked to a few key criteria in evaluating the beginning of a president's administration. First and foremost, any new president should execute public duties with a commanding civility and poise befitting the nation's chief executive, but without appearing aloof or haughty. As George Washington observed at the outset of his presidency in 1789, the president cannot in any way "demean himself in his public character" and must act "in such a manner as to maintain the dignity of office." New presidents also try to avoid partisan and factional rancor, and endeavor to unite the country in a great common purpose. In line with their oath of office, they dedicate themselves to safeguarding and even advancing democratic rights and to protecting the nation against foreign enemies. They avoid even the slightest imputation of corruption, of course political but above all financial. Over the decades, historians' ratings of presidents have consistently consigned a dozen or so presidents to the bottom of the heap, including James Buchanan, Andrew Johnson, Franklin Pierce... Some of these presidents failed because they made disastrous miscalculations. Others were victims of circumstances not of their own making but whose decisions made things worse. Still others were accidental presidents of limited skill and credibility who succeeded men who died in office. And then there were a few presidents who abused their position or permitted rampant corruption. What do these bad presidents' first years tell us about Mr. Trump? Some performed reasonably well at first, only to slide into disaster later. Might Mr. Trump grow in the job...? [it is NOT a job for on-the-job training!] Mr. Trump's first year has been an unremitting parade of disgraces that have demeaned him as well as the dignity of his office, and he has shown that this is exactly how he believes he should govern. Most important, he is the first president to fail to defend the nation from an attack on our democracy by a hostile foreign power—and to resist the investigation of that attack. He is the first to enrich his private interests, and those of his family, directly and openly. He is the first president to denounce the press not simply as unfair but as "the enemy of the American people." He is the first to threaten his defeated political opponent with imprisonment. He is the first to have denigrated friendly countries and allies as well as a whole continent with racist vulgarities. George Washington warned that the actions of a president "may have great and durable consequences from their having been established at the commencement of a new general government." —New York Times (1/20/18)

Black is beautiful. Hate is ugly. Women are as precious as they are stronger than any man I have ever met. And unto them I say: Stand tall and crush all predators under the weight of your heart that is full of the love they will never take away from you. Be not scared to use your voice, especially in instances like these when you have the opportunity. Stand and fight for those who are not weak but have yet to discover the strength that the evil of this world has done its best to conceal. To all the beautiful countries filled with culture, diversity, and thousands of years of history, you are not sh*thole countries. And lastly, on the behalf of those who fight for equality in a world that is not equal, not just, and not ready for the change we are here to bring, I say unto you: Bring us your tired, your poor, and any immigrant that seeks refuge. For together we can build not just a better country, but a world that is destined to be united. —Logic (1/28/18)

29. Tony Perkins: Trump Gets 'A Mulligan' on Life, Stormy Daniels

(my comments in brackets)

I GUARANTEE you a deal was made behind closed doors, that if Chump did all in his power to force less abortions, and overturn Roe, the Christian Cabal would back and praise and gen up votes for him, NO MATTER WHAT he did or said! You can tell this is true by his and their ACTIONS! You didn't have to be a witness to that meeting! (1/22/18)

The Family Research Council head says that evangelical conservatives are willing to overlook Trump's past behavior so long as he delivers for them on policy. Donald Trump is still the answer to many conservative evangelical leaders' prayers. Or at least to their continuing grievances. [Like national gay marriage, that passed, because culture shifted, while these chumps pursued riches?] They embrace Trump the policymaker, says Family Research Council President Tony Perkins, despite being uneasy about Trump as a man. Perkins knows about Stormy Daniels, the porn actress who claimed, in a 2011 interview, that in 2006 she had sex with Trump four months after his wife, Melania, gave birth to their son, Barron. He knows of the reports that Daniels (real name: Stephanie Clifford) was paid off to keep the affair quiet in the waning weeks of the 2016 election. He knows about the cursing, the lewdness and the litany of questionable behavior over the past year of Trump's life or the 70 that came before it. "We kind of gave him—'All right, you get a mulligan. You get a do-over here,'" Perkins told me in an interview for the latest episode of POLITICO's Off Message podcast. Weigh a paid-off porn star against being the first president to address the March for Life, and a lot of evangelical leaders insist they can still walk away happy. Evangelical Christians, says Perkins, "were tired of being kicked around by Barack Obama and his leftists. [He does NOT speak for evangelicals! Just himself, and the few who elected him to represent them—which would be ZERO] And I think they are finally glad that there's somebody on the playground that is willing to punch the bully." What happened to turning the other cheek? I ask. "You know, you only have two cheeks," Perkins says. "Look, Christianity is not all about being a welcome mat which people can just stomp their feet on." [Anti-immigrant tone in veiled language?] In all the clashes between principles and power over the past two years, conservative evangelicals can seem to have made one of the biggest and more confusing trade-offs—at least to outside observers. After all, they say the roots of their beliefs go far deeper than partisan concerns. [UN-true; AKA, lie/sin; they ONLY care about the GOP!] During the primaries, evangelicals turned out in numbers that surprised everyone, and more than 80 percent stayed with Trump in the general election against Hillary Clinton, even after the "Access Hollywood" tape and everything else during the campaign. But their support is starting to waver: According to a Pew poll out in December, Trump's support has dropped sharply among white evangelical Protestants, from 78 percent in February to 61 percent in December, as his approval rating among the overall electorate has settled in the mid-30s. Perkins—who started out the 2016 race as a strong supporter of Sen. Ted Cruz—has been a frequent visitor to the Oval Office. He's prayed with Trump. He says he's seen the president grow, [fatter, and his golf game?] including in his sense of faith. [what is a sense of faith?] What might look like hypocrisy, Perkins says, is actually attention to detail. [forked-tongue doublespeak!] Perkins cheers the White House's restrictive posture toward abortion rights and its "religious freedom" executive orders (which critics allege are part of a thinly veiled attempt to legalize discrimination against LGBTQ Americans). He says his only gripe with the administration is that Secretary of State Rex Tillerson is not doing enough to stop abortions and liberal activism around the world. "We're seeing Soros dollars being connected with USAID funds, and they're creating these pro-abortion, pro-communist groups in some cases, working to take down conservative governments," Perkins says. According to Perkins, evangelical leaders have no illusions about the nature of their relationship with Trump. "I don't think this president is using evangelicals. [the old sit back and enjoy it idea of Clayton Williams] ... I think he genuinely enjoys the relationship that had developed. He has found, I think—and he's a very transactional president. Trust is important to him [<http://bit.ly/20OqGAd>]. Loyalty is important to him [understatement; dictator worship, or get targeted for character assassination], and I think in this transaction, he realizes, 'Hey, these are people I can count on, because they don't blow with the political winds,'" he says. [JUST like our above 'referenced tweet!'] "It's a developing relationship, but I'll have to say this: From a policy standpoint, he has delivered more than any other president in my lifetime.” Later, Perkins adds, “I think the president is providing the leadership we need at this time, in our country and in our culture.” As a moral leader? I ask. “As a leader,” Perkins replies. [Of course he has to omit the all-important word, ‘moral!’] Perkins isn’t the only one pushing this rationalization. “Our country’s got a sin problem,” the Rev. Franklin Graham told MSNBC host Alex Witt in an interview this past Saturday. [Yes, and YOU are empowering him; I mean it, literally] Graham, son of the Rev. Billy Graham and current president of his Evangelistic Association, said he saw no reason to believe the allegations about Trump and Stormy Daniels, nor the reports that the president called certain countries “shholes,” despite the fact Trump reportedly bragged about saying it in private phone calls. Graham deflected questions about whether he was holding Trump to a different personal standard than he might for a politician he disagreed with more. [Deflection, just like Perkins did, above, regarding the word ‘moral,’ in describing Chump’s ‘leadership’] “We certainly don’t hold him up as the pastor of this country, and he’s not,” Graham told the network. “But I appreciate the fact that the president does have a concern for Christian values, he does have a concern to protect Christians—whether it’s here at home or around the world—and I appreciate the fact that he protects religious liberty and freedom.” [I appreciate any politician wanting all religion’s persecuted protected] Plus, there’s Vice President Mike Pence, an evangelical himself and the constant reassurance many evangelical leaders cite, who while traveling in Israel on Monday said he wouldn’t talk about the “latest baseless allegations” in the Stormy Daniels confessional. [NO ONE buys a poor-quality product because its replacement product, if it breaks down, is good] Many evangelical leaders have struggled with Trump’s position on immigration, including several on his own advisory council. Last week, after a meeting with House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi (D-Calif.), several religious leaders joined her and other Democrats for a news conference pressing Trump to protect the Dreamers. “To those members of Congress committed to life: It doesn’t finish when the baby is born,” said National Hispanic Christian Leadership Conference President Samuel Rodriguez, who was one of the speakers at Trump’s inauguration. “Womb to tomb.” [BAD choice of phrase! That’s a term GUARANTEED to trigger/set off political conservatives as saying all liberals want to control your entire life, all your life; the term ALWAYS evokes that allegation!] Though Trump kicked off his campaign by railing against Mexican immigrants as criminals and rapists, Perkins says, “It’s not—a lot of people think, ‘Well, they don’t want Mexicans down here; they don’t want people from south.’ That’s not what it is. It’s the ‘OTMs’—the ‘other than Mexicans’—that are crossing the borders, who are coming from Islamic countries that are coming into this country to do harm to this nation.” [Chump said it was MOST of the Mexicans, so you’re LYING—a sin!] And the Islamists [Implied very UN-stealthily—ALL Muslims are terrorists, or support them in private]. A father of five, including a 10-year-old son, Perkins says the president has posed a challenge in what to tell his children. None of them like all the tweeting, and Perkins says he’d change that if he could, though he understands it. “These things that are said about him bother him, and he is one of those people, like most people, looking for acceptance, not rejection. [So feelings “trump” morals, and it’s NOT his behavior that bothers Chump, but people noticing it, and calling it what it is?] That’s why his reference to the polls and stuff like that, and so when someone on TV, a talking head is saying things about him, his natural reaction is to respond, and I think that’s what he’s done with Twitter,” Perkins says. “And so, in terms of my family, my kids growing up in a Christian home, and as we talk about these things, there’s an understanding that he has a need, and he wants to be accepted, and these things that are said are hurtful.” [that’s the sin “need” of narcissistic egotism, UN-licensed in psychology Tony the tiger for evil Hitler #3, who has diagnosed a rejection phobia and acceptance craving, as he abandons moral and academic logic, for emotional logic] Is that forgiving attitude in keeping with conservative Christian teachings? “We see right and wrong. We see good and evil, but also among evangelicals, there’s an understanding that we are all fallen, and the idea of forgiveness is very prominent," Perkins says. "And so, we understand that, yes, there is justice, but there is mercy." [There's also correction, reproof, and shunning, in that very same Bible you selectively use!] Mercy in politics can be harder to find. Perkins recalls the day in July 2015, at a religious forum in Iowa, when Trump snapped back at John McCain's criticism by saying he didn't consider the Arizona senator and former POW a war hero. Perkins, who was waiting to go on stage following Trump, figured that those remarks alone would end Trump's candidacy. What he underestimated, Perkins says, was the anger at McCain, whom he considers a friend, but who's "been extremely disappointing politically" to evangelicals for years. The evangelical reaction, according to Perkins, was "'Look, I agree with [Trump]. I can't stand John McCain.' I think that's what people were connecting with." He acknowledged that doesn't seem very Christian, "but again, I think this president, in his authenticity, is what has connected with people." [Being 'yourself' is NOT the same as being a jerk for two whole years, and counting, or if they're the same, you AREN'T qualified for the highest office in the land!] As long as Trump doesn't disappoint evangelicals politically, Perkins predicts, they'll stick with him. "Whenever the policy stops, and his administration reverts to just personality," he adds, "that's where I believe the president will be in trouble." [Morals be damned, if we get our way in forcing our theocracy on America!, said the "Christian"] –Politico (1/23/18)

30. The Trump Evangelicals Have Lost Their Gag Reflex

The Rev. Billy Graham has been one of the most visible, respected and influential Christians in the world since the 1950s. But he often had a blind spot when it came to politics..." Graham was in denial about Watergate until the last. When he finally read through the Watergate tape transcripts—including profanity, political corruption, lying, racism and sexism—Graham remembers becoming physically ill. He said later of Nixon: "I wonder whether I might have exaggerated his spirituality in my own mind." Graham's biographer William Martin quoted a close Graham associate who was more blunt: "For the life of me, I honestly believe that after all these years, Billy still has no idea of how badly Nixon snookered him." We can now look back on such gullibility with nostalgia.

Graham had the alibi of self-deception. But his son Franklin Graham, Jerry Falwell Jr., Robert Jeffress and President Trump's other evangelical Christian advocates have no such excuse. They have made their political bargain with open eyes. Trump has made profanity an unavoidable part of our political culture... He tells repeated and obvious lies. He incites ethnic and racial resentment as a political strategy and was caught on tape bragging about sexual assault. Add to this something that could never be said of Nixon: the credible accusation that Trump paid hush money to a porn star to cover up an affair. And what is Franklin Graham's reaction? "We certainly don't hold him up as the pastor of this nation and he is not. But I appreciate the fact that the president does have a concern for Christian values, he does have a concern to protect Christians whether it's here at home or around the world, and I appreciate the fact that he protects religious liberty and freedom..." Because Trump has delivered the goods on protecting Christians, evangelicals should give him the benefit of every doubt on moral matters, even when such doubts are absurdly transparent ploys. The level of cynicism here is startling. Some Christian leaders are surrendering the idea that character matters in public life in direct exchange for political benefits to Christians themselves. It is a political maneuver indistinguishable from those performed by business or union lobbyists every day. Only seedier. You scratch my back, I'll wink at dehumanization and Stormy Daniels. The gag reflex is entirely gone. From a purely political perspective, the Trump evangelicals are out of their depth. When presented with the binary choice of Hillary Clinton or Donald Trump, I can understand a certain amount of anguish. But that is not a reason to become sycophants, cheerleaders and enablers. Politics sometimes presents difficult choices. But that is no excuse to be the most easily manipulated group in American politics. The problem, however, runs deeper. Trump's court evangelicals have become active participants in the moral deregulation of our political life. Never mind whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is of good repute. Some evangelicals are busy erasing bright lines and destroying moral landmarks. In the process, they are associating evangelicalism with bigotry, selfishness and deception. They are playing a grubby political game for the highest of stakes: the reputation of their faith. Not long after Watergate broke, a chastened Billy Graham addressed a conference in Switzerland, warning that an evangelist should be careful not "to identify the Gospel with any one particular political program or culture," and adding, "this has been my own danger." The danger endures. –Washington Post (1/23/18)

31. Billy Graham's Granddaughter: Trump Needs To Ask For Forgiveness

Jerushah Armfield, the granddaughter of popular Christian evangelist Billy Graham, said Friday night that President Trump needs to repent and ask for forgiveness following allegations of an affair with an adult-film star. "Obviously our faith believes in forgiveness," Armfield told CNN's Jim Sciutto. "I think in order to forgive somebody, that individual needs to repent and apologize, and I don't think America has seen that from our president in any scenario, really..." Tony Perkins, the president of the conservative Family Research Council, recently said that Trump gets a "mulligan" after the alleged affair. "I said last time I was on your program, Jim, that my president doesn't have to be a Christian, I just don't want him to be held up as the poster boy for Christian evangelicals because he doesn't represent most of us," Armfield said when asked if she agrees with her uncle's excuses for the president's behavior. She said that while she understands why Christians may support Trump for his policies, she'd "love to see a Christian leader come out and say that they support Trump for his policies, but his behavior disgusts them and he needs to clean up his act." –The Hill (1/27/18)

32. Millions of Americans Believe God Made Trump President

...Other religious conservatives, Strang argues, supported Trump in 2016 for reasons familiar to any Fox News viewer: a fear of globalism, the deep state, George Soros the former Nazi collaborator, wide-scale election fraud. They liked Trump because he said he liked them, told them they were persecuted, and vowed to stand up for them. He said he would bring back "Merry Christmas." He told them they were important... The unspoken assumption for each of the religious figures Strang references—from Franklin Graham to Robert Jeffress to Kenneth Copeland—is that God would only want a Republican president and so if Trump captured the GOP nomination, then ipso facto he must be God's choice. And the more unlikely the selection, the better proof it is of divine intent.... At a certain point in "God and Donald Trump," the recent theological gymnastics on display from Tony Perkins and Jerry Falwell, Jr., among others, to explain ongoing conservative Christian support for a president who (allegedly) paid off a porn star weeks before Election Day so she would keep quiet about their (alleged) affair become clear. There will be no point at which Trump's most loyal evangelical and charismatic supporters declare they have had enough. Because to do so would be to admit that they were wrong, that God wasn't behind Trump's election, and that their Holy Spirit radar might be on the fritz. That it was, after all, about something as temporal and banal as hating his Democratic rival. —Politico (1/27/17)

33. Evangelical Christians Support Trump Over Alleged Stormy Daniels Affair, Despite Slamming Bill Clinton Over Monica Lewinsky

Even an alleged affair with a porn star hasn't proved enough for President Donald Trump to lose support from white evangelical Protestants... The powerful and influential voting bloc has instead defended Trump or given him a pass, unlike how it fiercely criticized former President Bill Clinton over his affair with Monica Lewinsky in the late 1990s. The reason for such support might stem from Trump's backing of major evangelical issues... The strong support for Trump has echoed with evangelicals across the country even after Trump's alleged affair with adult film star Stormy Daniels came to light... "The seamy facts under public discussion are shameful enough. But fascination with this story should not be allowed to obscure the deeper lesson these incidents impart," former head of the Family Research Council Gary Bauer said of Clinton in 1998. 34. Evangelical Leaders Expose Their Hypocrisy by Playing Palace Guards to Trump

...The rhetoric about Clinton's "immorality" reached a fever pitch among many evangelicals when the sexual relationship between Clinton and White House intern Monica Lewinsky surfaced in 1998. James Dobson of Focus on The Family wrote in a lengthy letter to his list of subscribers: "What has alarmed me throughout this episode has been the willingness of my fellow citizens to rationalize the president's behavior even after they suspected, and later knew, that he was lying." It's fascinating and maddening how times have changed. Donald Trump, the thrice-married president who bragged of his conquests and may have paid $130,000 in hush money to a porn star to stay quiet about their affair, managed to gain the support of many conservative evangelical leaders. These evangelicals would surely bring down verbal fire and brimstone on Trump if he were a Democrat. Jerry Falwell Jr. and Franklin Graham, son of the well-respected evangelical leader Billy Graham, not only play footsie with Trump but take up for him in a way that defies common sense. On Twitter, Falwell said of Trump that he "has single-handedly changed the definition of what behavior is 'presidential' from phony, failed and rehearsed to authentic, successful and down to earth..." Graham warns that Trump faces a sinister conspiracy. "I believe we are in a coup d'etat. There are people in this country who are wanting to destroy the president and take over the government by force." No evangelical leader, however, manages to embarrass himself more than Pastor Robert Jeffress of First Baptist Church of Dallas... Jeffress reached a whole new level of absurdity when he defended Trump's vulgar phrase about certain countries during a White House discussion on immigration. Jeffress told the Christian Broadcasting Network, "Apart from the vocabulary attributed to him, President Trump is right on target in his sentiment." Jeffress would have people believe the only thing offensive about Trump's comments was that he used a curse word for emphasis. Contrary to what Jeffress thinks, most people do not possess such delicate sensibilities and have heard worse in their lifetimes. They won't admit their hypocrisy, but it's evident the longstanding criticism of Clinton had nothing at all to do with morality. It was always about politics and policy. As for Trump, all of the lying, multiple marriages, multiple sexual assault and harassment allegations, ugly comments about immigrants, petty and vindictive insults thrown at people who dare to criticize him—none of it matters. People used to say, character

35. Billy Graham Started a Movement. Now His Son is Dismantling it.

While Billy Graham was leading a revival in Los Angeles in 1949, William Randolph Hearst looked at the handsome thirtysomething evangelist with flowing blond hair and famously directed editors in his publishing empire to "puff Graham." When Graham died this week, he was hailed by President George W. Bush as "America's pastor," and even more lavishly by Vice-President Mike Pence as "one of the greatest Americans of the past century." President Bill Clinton praised him for integrating his revivals. Russell Moore, the president of the Southern Baptist Convention's Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission, called him "the most important evangelist since the Apostle Paul." Graham's accomplishments are, without doubt, [MANY]. The widely cited estimate that he preached to some 215 million people is likely in the ballpark. And while the nineteenth-century lawyer-turned-evangelist Charles Finney must be credited with inventing modern revivalism, Graham perfected and scaled it, turning evangelicalism into worldwide impulse that has transformed Christianity in recent decades in Latin America, Africa, and Asia. But almost two decades ago, Graham handed over the keys of the empire to his son, Franklin. And if you want to chart the troubled recent course of American evangelicalism—its powerful rise after World War II and its surprisingly quick demise in recent years—you need look no further than this father-and-son duo of Billy and Franklin Graham... Throughout his career, Graham was criticized by fundamentalists for working with Catholics and liberal Protestants at his crusades. He prayed with Democratic and Republican presidents. And instead of castigating Christianity's religious rivals, he focused on preaching Christ. When asked to join in common cause with Jerry Falwell after the foundation of the Moral Majority in 1979, Graham refused to yoke his organization to the cultural wars of the Religious Right and the Republican Party. And almost immediately after saying during a 1993 crusade in Columbus, Ohio, that AIDS might be "a judgment of God," he retracted those words, telling the Cleveland Plain Dealer a few days later, "I don't believe that and I don't know why I said it. . . . To say God has judged people with AIDS would be very wrong and very cruel. I would like to say that I am very sorry for what I said." Franklin Graham is a very different sort of man, better known today for his right-wing political pronouncements than for his evangelism. Shortly after 9/11, Franklin Graham provided the sound bite of today's culture wars when he denounced Islam as "a very wicked and evil religion." He later became the standard bearer for the view that Islam is, in his words "a religion of hatred . . . a religion of war." In addition to purveying the birther nonsense that helped to propel Donald Trump to political prominence, Franklin Graham suggested that President Barack Obama was not a Christian and might in fact be a secret Muslim. Along with Jerry Falwell's son, Jerry Falwell Jr., he helped to elect Trump president by swinging 80 percent of white evangelical voters to his side. And then when Trump was elected he attributed his victory not to a surge of White Christian support or to swing states in the Midwest but to divine providence. Franklin Graham seems blissfully unaware of the possibility that there might be even the slimmest of gaps between the words that come out of his mouth and the words written down in scripture. More damningly, he demonstrates no awareness of the ways in which his political pronouncements are breaking down the evangelical witness his father devoted so much energy to building up... Religion is now declining in the United States, and evangelicalism with it. In fact, over the last decade, the portion of white evangelical Protestants in the United States declined from 23 percent to 17 percent. The most significant development in American religion in recent years is the shocking rise of the religiously unaffiliated (otherwise known as "nones"), who now account for roughly one quarter of all Americans. This increasing distance from religious institutions is accompanied by increasing distance from religious beliefs and practices. Today 27 percent of Americans describe themselves as "spiritual but not religious" and another 18 percent as "neither religious nor spiritual." There are many reasons for this decline in religious believing and belonging. But the most important in my view is the increasing identification of the Christian churches with right-wing politics. If you are among the 26 percent of eligible voters who voted for Trump, you likely applaud this development. But what about the other 74 percent? One of Billy Graham's few Christian rivals during his heyday in the 1950s and 1960s was the Union Theological Seminary professor Reinhold Niebuhr, who criticized Graham for his "pietistic individualism" and his neglect of social sin. Graham read and reflected on Niebuhr, but stuck for the most part to his simpler message that the world would be saved only through individual regeneration. To his credit, however, Graham internalized some of the teachings of Niebuhr, including the tendency of mere mortals to mistake God's voice for their own, and to mistake the gospel of Christ for the gospel of American civilization. In short, Graham had a humility almost entirely lost among the public preachers of our day, his eldest son included. The qualities of temper and judgment that made Billy Graham so singularly successful are almost entirely lacking in his son, who now imperils his father's legacy. Thanks to Franklin Graham and his cronies on the Religious Right, American evangelicalism has now become first and foremost a political rather than a spiritual enterprise. The life of Billy Graham helped build it up. And his death may well have ensured its demise. – Politico (2/24/18)

36. John Fea on the Blatant Hypocrisy of Robert Jeffress

One of the hallmarks of the Christian right's overwhelming support of Donald Trump (with obvious and laudable exceptions) is the shamelessness with which they have abandoned the notion that moral character matters politically. Christian historian John Fea hammers Robert Jeffress over his hypocrisy in this regard: In arguing this, Jeffress has suggested that character, past and present, is not important for a presidential candidate. This is a relatively new view for Robert Jeffress. It is a view that he seems to have adopted when Donald Trump announced his run for the presidency in 2015. For example, in his 2011 book Twilight's Last Gleaming: How America's Last Days Can Be Your Best Days, Jeffress tells his readers to vote for men of character because a person's "core beliefs serve as a restraint against immorality, corruption, and dereliction of duty." He rejects the "popular" notion that "a politician's personal life has no impact on his public service."... Donald Trump's sins may be between him and God, but I wonder what Jeffress thinks about the manner in which these sins have coarsened our culture? Because of the actions of this president we now have porn stars and Playboy models all over the news. I hope Jeffress is disgusted by this. I am sure he is upset that his grandchildren have to see this. Any serious Christian would be. If he is indeed troubled by the fact that the porn industry is getting free publicity every night on the nightly news (including Fox News), he must realize that this is happening because Trump's past sins (forgiven or not) have found him out. Character matters—past and present. Jeffress should be ashamed of himself for not speaking out about this. He is a Christian pastor. Fea rightly points out that it isn't just that Jeffress chose to support Trump over Hillary Clinton, but that he chose very early on to support Trump over other Republicans and Christians who had not shown the kind of sexual behavior that he had—Ted Cruz, Rick Santorum, Ben Carson, Mike Huckabee, Bobby Jindal, Scott Walker. Yet he consciously chose to support the one candidate who had flaunted and repeatedly bragged about cheating on his wife, affair with women married to other men, to peeping on young girls in dressing rooms, even to sexually assaulting women. —Patheos.com (3/23/18)

37. The Guardian View on U.S. Religion: The Christian Right is Breaking Up. The Alliance Between Fundamentalist Protestants and Roman Catholics Cannot Survive the Humiliations of Evangelical Support for President Trump.

One of the most interesting and important developments in the American culture wars, which is to say in American politics and self-understanding, is playing out inside the major Christian groupings there: evangelical Christianity and Roman Catholicism. The Southern Baptist Convention, the largest fundamentalist grouping, has been roiled by the discovery of a sermon in which Paige Patterson, one of its leaders, boasts that he counselled an abused woman to stay with her husband even when she came to him with two black eyes. Almost 3,000 Southern Baptist women signed a letter demanding that the 75-year-old Mr Patterson lose his job as head of a seminary. For the last 30 years, the alliance between Catholics and white evangelicals has been an enormously powerful force on the right of American politics. It was based around a common opposition to abortion—a cause to which evangelicals came relatively late—and a wider suspicion of feminism. Apart from that, the two groups have little in common demographically, culturally and even economically. The economic model of American evangelical Christianity has been fantastically successful, based around marketing, merchandising and vigorous competition between preachers for congregations. But when you adopt the methods of the entertainment industry, you will also imbibe some of its values. One result has been the growth of megachurches where the American flag is far more conspicuous than the cross; another is the growth of the "prosperity gospel", which teaches that the rewards God wants for his followers are to be obtained in this world. The big names of that world, such as Paula White, the thrice-married woman who counsels President Trump, were reality stars before the Kardashians, showing off their wealth as evidence that God blessed them. At the same time, the organised Catholic church has been ageing and shrinking. It has maintained a degree of intellectual prestige and self-confidence, but congregations have melted away, so that former Catholics could now form the third-largest religious grouping in the US. The scandal-battered clergy is split into liberal and conservative parties, both believing that they are more Catholic than the pope. Only an influx of Hispanic immigrants maintains the church on the ground. But this threatens any alliance with the white evangelical movement. That has become increasingly racist in the last 30 years. It has set its face against immigration as it has against homosexuality and climate change. President Trump is forgiven all his lies and adulteries because he so clearly stands for white supremacy. But when he loses power, the fundamentalists will, too. Their literally patriarchal attitudes to women have already lost the younger generation. Conservatives used to warn that liberals who married the spirit of the age would be left as widows. It is a historic irony that this will be the fate of American conservative Christianity. –The Guardian (5/13/18)

38. ‘Utterly Mystifying’: Pastor Breaks Down Why He Believes Evangelicals Are ‘in Love With Donald Trump—and Some Won’t Be Happy About It

A Kentucky pastor said that evangelicals’ embrace of Republican presidential candidate Donald Trump appears to show that the faithful “have repudiated everything they believe,” but he offered up a theory about what he really believes is driving support for the brash businessman. “What if evangelicals (or any tribe, for that matter) aren’t primarily compelled by what they believe but instead by what they love?” the Rev. Robert Cunningham wrote in a recent blog post published on the Tates Creek Presbyterian Church website. “In fact, what if every one of us will gladly repudiate what we believe before we would ever repudiate what we love?” He went on to ask whether Trump, who he said is “contradictory to evangelical beliefs,” is actually the “embodiment of current evangelical loves,” saying that he believes that this is, in fact, the case. Cunningham then proclaimed that “we are what we love.” “Or to put it another way, we follow our desires more than our doctrine,” he said, explaining how he believes that cultural loves can have a big impact on how individuals form and act out their own personal loves. He then applied this very idea to the notion of Trump’s political rise and popularity among some evangelical Christians. “In one sense [Trump] makes no sense. From a character and even policy standpoint, evangelical support of Donald Trump is utterly mystifying, and countless articles are being written trying to explain this phenomenon,” Cunningham wrote. “But all of them seem to come to the same conclusion: evangelical support for Donald Trump is a referendum on the current state of evangelical doctrine and convictions.” Cunningham believes that evangelicals are aware that what Trump is saying is wrong, but that they still continue to support him, proceeding to offer up his theory: “We are never compelled by our ideals like we are by our loves.” He continued: What happens when the liturgies of our greedy culture train evangelicals to love money and power? What happens when the liturgies of talk radio train evangelicals to love anger and paranoia? What happens when the liturgies of social media train evangelicals to love sensational sound bites more than thoughtful discourse? What happens when the liturgies of modern worship services train evangelicals to love novel, flashy, and glib emotional experiences that feel more like a rally than corporate worship? What happens when the conference culture of the church trains evangelicals to love the big celebrity leader? What happens when preaching that prioritizes relevant, shocking, and brash sermons trains evangelicals to love “tell it like it is” ranting? What happens when the liturgies from the days of the Moral Majority train evangelicals to love America as much as Jesus, which then leads to an incessant longing within churches to “make America great again!” What happens? Evangelicals in love with Donald Trump happens. The pastor said that Trump rallies are essentially worship services, with the Republican businessman feeding “hungry hearts with his nonsense.” He concluded by calling evangelical support for Trump a “humbling rebuke that we cannot ignore.” As TheBlaze has reported, Cunningham is hardly the first pastor to comment on Trump’s popularity among evangelicals. But, as we’ve noted, the situation is quite complicated. Despite Christian support overall, a recent LifeWay Research poll found that, if the election were back in January, only five percent of Republican-affiliated pastors would have voted for Trump. Others, like famed pastor and author Max Lucado—who typically avoids weighing in on political candidates—have also spoken out against Trump’s support among Christians. “He ridiculed a war hero. He made mockery of a reporter’s menstrual cycle. He made fun of a disabled reporter. He referred to the former first lady, Barbara Bush as ‘mommy,’ and belittled Jeb Bush for bringing her on the campaign trail,” Lucado said of Trump. “He routinely calls people ‘stupid,’ ‘loser,’ and ‘dummy.’” And megachurch pastor Perry Noble of NewSpring Church in South Carolina also made it more than clear in a series of tweets that he has no intention of supporting Trump’s presidential campaign. Others, though, like Pastor Robert Jeffress of First Baptist Church in Dallas, Texas — who isn’t endorsing a candidate in the 2016 election cycle [WHAT A JOKE!], but who told the Christian Post that he doesn’t believe that a Christian “has to sell his soul to the Devil to vote for Donald Trump”—is far less critical of Trump. In a recent interview with TheBlaze, Jeffress spoke about the current political climate, explaining his contention that evangelical support for Trump shows that many Christians “are willing to think outside of the [MORAL AND THEOLOGICAL] box for the kind of candidate they want.” “People are looking for leadership,” he said, offering those surprised by evangelical support for Trump a stark reminder of Ronald Reagan’s 1980 presidential victory [A BLASPHEMOUSLY MOCKING COMPARISON!]. —The Blaze (3/24/16)

39. Pastor Robert Jeffress, Christians and ‘Trump Derangement Syndrome—Reality vs. Rhetoric

Dallas megachurch pastor Robert Jeffress made headlines earlier this month by invoking the memory of Ronald Reagan in response to an anti-Trump pastor’s contention that Trump supporting Christians had somehow (shudder) “sold their souls” to support the president. “This is not an unusual thing,” Jeffress told Fox News’ Ed Henry. “We’ve been here before. Back in 1980, evangelicals chose to support a twice-married Hollywood actor who was a known womanizer in Hollywood. His name was Ronald Reagan. They chose to support him over Jimmy Carter, a born-again Baptist Sunday school teacher who had been faithfully married to one woman. The reason we supported President Reagan was not because we supported womanizing or divorce. We supported his policies. And that’s true here, Ed. We are choosing to support his policies. We’re not under any illusion that we were voting for an altar boy when we voted for President Trump... Liberal Christian Frank Schaeffer wrote that, if Jeffress is correct, “it means that evangelicals’ god is Satan.” We could go on and on with the liberal hyperventilating, but the most interesting criticism came from the “right.” “All I can say is go F yourself,” tweeted Michael Reagan, the former president’s son, who took particular issue with the Trump comparison with his father vis-à-vis the ladies. “He equated my father—who was divorced from my mother Jane Wyman when he was dating in Hollywood and not yet married to Nancy—to Donald Trump, who was dating Playboy playmates and who knows who else when he was married,” Reagan wrote in a Newsmax piece. I see Reagan’s point, although any moral issues either Trump or Reagan had prior to the Oval Office would pale in comparison to what, for example, former President Bill Clinton did with at least one woman IN the Oval Office. Nevertheless, I’m pretty sure he missed Jeffress’ point entirely, which was that if we waited for a president with a squeaky clean past we’d looking at sky-high interest rates, record unemployment, and a whole host of other, not-so-squeaky-clean issues right here in the present day. You know, like the late 70’s. As Jeffress states, the fact that Jimmy Carter was a moral person is incontrovertible [So moral people choose liberalism and evil people choose conservatism?]. Would these so-called “conservative” Trump haters rather have a Carter in office, along with his liberal policies and horrific economy, over a morally flawed Trump and the millions whose lives have been made better by his policies? [Money defines ‘better’ lives, and mainly the rich!] Of course they would, but doesn’t that make their take the very definition of short-sightedness? Nevertheless, the hits kept coming from the right. Conservative radio host Steve Deace tweeted to Reagan: “‘Pastor’ Robert Jeffress calling your dad a womanizer was sleazy and inexcusable.” Weekly Standard contributing editor John Podhoretz called Jeffress a “known idiot.” In a post entitled, “Robert Jeffress Accuses Jesus Of Having ‘Trump Derangement Syndrome’ For Condemning Adultery,” the conservative-leaning yet seemingly anti-Trump Christian satire site Babylon Bee writes: “Trump Derangement Syndrome is common,” Jeffress said on a televised broadcast Friday, “and it’s sad to see our Savior caught up in the undue criticism of Trump [YOU caused Him to be! Be sad about your own political shenanigans]. Just because the guy isn’t morally qualified to be a pastor and you wouldn’t leave him alone with your wife, doesn’t mean that he can’t be a great upstanding leader of our country.” Jeffress also pointed to biblical examples of leaders exactly like Trump [absolutely NOT like him, except in one adultery incident—David became a man fully after God’s own heart—not a server of self], such as King David, King Solomon, and Beelzebub [a name for Satan, and not a political leader at all, Bible deficient opiner]. “God can use anyone [DOESN’T mean he tells His children to vote for anyone, like Hitler, who fits in that ‘anyone’ term], and it’s sad that the Savior is so blinded by his TDS that he can’t see that...” Here’s the reality: God has clearly used a flawed President Trump to accomplish great things [define terms and give specifics], and He has also used the church Jeffress shepherds in an entirely different yet important way, ministering to and serving their community and beyond. First Baptist Dallas, celebrated its 150th anniversary of ministry on Sunday. The weekend included a visit from Texas Governor Greg Abbott and a nice write-up from Dallas News columnist Sharon Grigsby, presumably a liberal herself, who wrote glowingly of a church that, despite the “long shadow” cast by Jeffress’ very public embrace of President Trump, has a “history of service to the city” and a positive “day-to-day influence on Dallas.” “This was a tough one to write, but I believe First Baptist Dallas is more than Robert Jeffress,” Grigsby tweeted. “It may be asking too much for you to read this with the kind of open mindedness that Jeffress often doesn’t display, but I hope you will give it a shot.” Grigsby praised the church’s strong support of Dallas police, the many ways its members care for those in need, and its post-disaster outreach to other cities, such as Houston after Hurricane Harvey, but seems to insinuate that these things all occur despite Jeffress’ leadership and not right along with it. You know, because anyone who supports President Trump must secretly kick puppies and steal grocery carts from the homeless. The church, Grigsby writes, includes a “diverse group of people, with a wide range of age, race and economic status,” because it’s presumably a shocker that a church pastored by a Trump supporter would be “diverse,” or something. In reality, it’s Pastor Jeffress who manages to keep his ministry and his politics separate, as Grigsby grudgingly acknowledges. “People think that because of my involvement with President Trump or my appearances on Fox News that we are a highly political church and people are shocked when they come here and don’t hear anything political,” Jeffress told Dallas News. Jeffress laughed as he told Grigsby that he has “Democrat deacons,” adding that his church doesn’t “check people’s voting IDs at the door...” It’s a fitting tribute from the Dallas media, and far better than the treatment Pastor Jeffress has received from liberals and the “Trump Derangement Syndrome” afflicted right. —Townhall (7/30/18)

40. Why Mike Pence is Such a Sycophant

It’s the vice president’s job to bide his time. He waits for the chance to fulfill one of two duties prescribed by the Constitution: to break tie votes in the Senate or to succeed presidents who cannot finish a term in office. Vice President Mike Pence has already fulfilled the former. After Paul Manafort’s guilty verdict and Michael Cohen’s guilty plea this week, it seems he may fulfill the latter, too. And if that comes to pass, no one will be less surprised than Pence. Pence has said that he is “a Christian, a conservative, and a Republican, in that order.” This may seem exactly backward to those who’ve watched him assume the role of sycophant in chief to an unusually sinful and not particularly conservative Republican president. But for Pence, his faith and his political ambition are closely tied, perhaps even indistinguishable. Pence’s former schoolmates at Hanover College recall hearing him say that God planned to make him president. At the time—the late 1970s—Pence was getting to know John Gable, a senior preparing for a lifelong career as an evangelical minister. Gable helped move Pence away from the quiet Catholicism of his family and into a conservative Protestant belief system. The key to understanding Pence’s version of religion lies in his favorite bit of scripture, from Jeremiah, which reads, “For I know the plans I have for you, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.” This verse is now on display in the vice president’s residence. It is especially popular among Calvinists who believe that God directly orchestrates everything that happens on Earth. Pence believes that God has a plan for him, and if that plan requires him to temporarily abandon his principles as well as his dignity, so be it. Everything—including Trump’s presidency. The reality star, that is to say, was chosen by God. Granted, he’s not a godly character. But conservative Christians troubled by Trump’s profanity and infidelities can take comfort in the Bible’s story of Cyrus, a pagan king who served God by protecting the Jews. Despite their vast numbers and power, many modern conservative Christians consider themselves to be oppressed like the ancient Jews. If Cyrus helped Jews, then why can’t Trump champion conservative evangelicals? During the 2016 campaign, an evangelist’s book about Cyrus and Trump—“God’s Chaos Candidate”—became a runaway bestseller in the conservative Christian world. The story of Cyrus was taught in many churches. Similarly, Pence is regarded by some as a modern version of another Old Testament figure, Daniel, who safeguarded his fellow Jews while functioning as counselor to another pagan ruler, Nebuchadnezzar. Daniel aided the Israelites by appearing to abandon his Jewishness in Nebuchadnezzar’s court. Pence, the argument goes, sets aside his moral standards to retain access to Trump. From his insider perch, he can do more good for religious conservatives than from the outside. And if he were to take that final step to the Oval Office, then the ends would justify the means. Certainly no one should doubt the vice president’s ambition. He has reinforced his position by seeding the administration with personal allies and building a national campaign organization. Pence, who was a champion fundraiser when he served in Congress, established his Great American political action committee five months after taking office. He was the first vice president ever to establish an independent PAC. Does Pence really see himself as Daniel and Trump as Nebuchadnezzar? That would go a ways to explain why he has shrugged off scandal after scandal and embraced the cheerleader’s role as Trump’s number two. With his fixed smile and continual encouragement, the only thing missing from his performance has been the pom poms. Indeed, the intensity of Pence’s fawning has led George Will to describe him as “America’s most repulsive figure.” The vice president reached the nadir of his toady ways at the end of last year when he spent three minutes extolling Trump at a Cabinet meeting and managed to work in one note of praise every 12 seconds. But even in the midst of this sycophancy, he winked to the faithful watching at home. Pence’s insistence that it was a “blessing” and he felt “humbled” to work for Trump made the address sound more like a prayer than a political commentary, which perhaps it was. Pence believes that God has a plan for him, and if that plan requires him to temporarily abandon his principles as well as his dignity, so be it. —L.A. Times (8/24/18)

41. How Far America Has Fallen

The thing with every shocking revelation about Trump is that it's already baked into his image.

I've never met a Trump supporter who did not know exactly who he is.

It’s different in the West. It’s easier to feel in touch with some essence of what America is. The space, so much of it still, so empty, so awe-inspiring, speaks of American possibility. The boundlessness invites reinvention and prickly individualism. Here in Colorado, purple state, split between gun lovers and legal marijuana lovers, the libertarian streak runs strong. That’s the bit of the United States the rest of the world finds hardest to fathom. Why the scorn for handouts, the equating of universal health care with socialism, the obsession with self-reliance, the refusal to see that a profusion of guns leads to a profusion of mass shootings? Of course a crowded Europe with its wounds seeks solidarity in the name of stability, while America with its wide-open spaces embraces the right to be left alone (at least until you need Medicaid) and the right, whatever its risks, to the next frontier. I said it's different in the West. It's not so different in the West, it's just that you see more clearly what the country stood for in its own mythologized self-image, what it was to be an American, what it was to aspire to some new and exemplary measure of freedom, and how far things have fallen to produce President Donald Trump. No part of the country today is immune to American fracture or the squalid Trump wars, to cultural confrontations over identity and gender and race, to the effects of stagnant incomes over decades, or to the narcissism of modernity. In a purple state, unlike in Brooklyn, N.Y., or Palo Alto, Calif., these differences press in on each other. Conversations occur that break through ideological lines. Grand Junction, in western Colorado, voted for Trump at the last election. There, I spoke to Robert Babcox, a pastor, who praised the president for sticking to his campaign promises and, "for all the bravado," getting the economy revved up. Babcox called the ban on high-capacity gun magazines that hold more than 15 rounds, signed into law by John Hickenlooper, the Democratic governor who has presidential aspirations, "a silly law." The pastor said he could drive across the nearby border into Utah and buy a high-capacity magazine. He said the Second Amendment was designed to create a militia "equal to the government to ensure self-reliance," and that therefore the ban on the magazines should be overturned. He said, "If I can limit somebody on what weapons they can buy, why would I not be able to limit what you can say about me under the First Amendment? When we endanger one right, we endanger them all." Words don't kill, I said. Some things are worse than death, he said [FOOLish statement! Like what?]. So, I asked, Trump's great? No, the pastor said. He only trusted Trump "to a degree." Someone should take away his cellphone [NEVER blame his chronic lack of character, if you've drunk the Kool-Aid!], he said. Americans can come together, he said, praising John F. Kennedy. "I served in the Navy," he said. "I saw so many taken before their time—white, black, Hispanic. It all hurt me just the same, and they all bled red, and that lesson stayed with me." The thing about all the shocking Trump revelations—Michael Cohen's about violating campaign finance laws by paying hush money to two women in coordination with a "candidate for federal office" being the latest—is that they are already baked into Trump's image. His supporters, and there are tens of millions of them, never had illusions. I've not met one, Babcox included, who did not have a pretty clear picture of Trump. They've known all along that he's a needy narcissist, a womanizer, a lowlife, a liar, a braggart and a generally miserable human being [Biblically, that's called conscious, WILFUL sinning, to support wilful sin!]. That's why the "Access Hollywood" tape or the I-could-shoot-somebody-on-Fifth-Avenue boast did not kill his candidacy. It's also why the itch to believe that the moment has come when everything starts to unravel must be viewed warily. Sure, Trump sounds more desperate. But who's the enforcer if Trump has broken the law? It's Congress—and until things change there (which could happen in November) or Republicans at last abandon a policy of hold-my-nose opportunism, Trump will ride out the storm. There's a deeper question, which comes back to the extraordinary Western landscape and the high American idea enshrined in it. Americans elected Trump. Nobody else did. They came down to his level. White Christian males losing their place in the social order decided they'd do anything to save themselves, and to heck with morality. They made a bargain with the Devil in full knowledge. So the real question is: What does it mean to be an American today? Who are we...? What have we become? Trump was a symptom, not a cause. The problem is way deeper than him. For William Steding, a diplomatic historian living in Colorado, American individualism has morphed into narcissism, perfectibility into entitlement, and exceptionalism into hubris. Out of that, and more, came the insidious malignancy of Trump. It will not be extirpated overnight. – New York Times (8/25/18)

42. Why Evangelicals Are Calling Trump a ‘Modern-Day Cyrus’

It's a typical morning segment on Pat Robertson's Christian Broadcasting Network, late in 2016. The controversial Access Hollywood tapes, on which then-candidate Donald Trump can be heard boasting about grabbing women by the genitals, have just been released. Standing on a sunny street, reporter Chris Mitchell says, "Christians are divided about what to do on Donald Trump." Some want to abandon him, he says. Others want to stand with him. But others, he says, are wondering: Does Trump have a "biblical mandate" to become president? Mitchell runs swiftly through the first two options, citing both a condemnation of Trump and an endorsement by Focus on the Family's James Dobson. But it's the third option — that God himself has chosen Trump to be president — that Mitchell focuses on. Evangelical thinker Lance Wallnau then gives Mitchell his take: Trump is a "modern-day Cyrus," an ancient Persian king chosen by God to "navigate in chaos." Mitchell notes that some evangelicals disagree but does not name or cite them. Instead, he cites the growing threat of China, Russia, and Iran, before Wallnau concludes, "America's going to have a challenge either way. With Trump, I believe we have a Cyrus to navigate through the storm." The comparison comes up frequently in the evangelical world. Many evangelical speakers and media outlets compare Trump to Cyrus, a historical Persian king who, in the sixth century BCE, conquered Babylon and ended the Babylonian captivity, a period during which Israelites had been forcibly resettled in exile. This allowed Jews to return to the area now known as Israel and build a temple in Jerusalem. Cyrus is referenced most prominently in the Old Testament book of Isaiah, in which he appears as a figure of deliverance. That comparison has become more and more explicit in the wake of Trump's presidency. Last week, an Israeli organization, the Mikdash Educational Center, minted a commemorative "Temple Coin" depicting Trump and Cyrus side by side, in honor of Trump's decision to move the American embassy in Israel to Jerusalem. It was among the most brazen, public links between Trump and Cyrus; one that takes the years of subtext running through outlets like Christian Broadcasting Network and, quite literally, sealed the comparison. Monday, however, an even higher-profile figure linked Trump and Cyrus. During his visit to Washington, DC, Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu heavily implied Trump was Cyrus's spiritual heir. Thanking Trump for moving the American embassy to Jerusalem, Netanyahu said, "We remember the proclamation of the great King Cyrus the Great — Persian King. Twenty-five hundred years ago, he proclaimed that the Jewish exiles in Babylon can come back and rebuild our temple in Jerusalem...And we remember how a few weeks ago, President Donald J. Trump recognized Jerusalem as Israel's capital. Mr. President, this will be remembered by our people throughout the ages." While Cyrus is not Jewish and does not worship the God of Israel, he is nevertheless portrayed in Isaiah as an instrument of God — an unwitting conduit through which God effects his divine plan for history. Cyrus is, therefore, the archetype of the unlikely "vessel": someone God has chosen for an important historical purpose, despite not looking like — or having the religious character of — an obvious man of God. For believers who subscribe to this account, Cyrus is a perfect historical antecedent to explain Trump's presidency: a nonbeliever who nevertheless served as a vessel for divine interest. For these leaders, the biblical account of Cyrus allows them to develop a "vessel theology" around Donald Trump, one that allows them to reconcile his personal history of womanizing and alleged sexual assault with what they see as his divinely ordained purpose to restore a Christian America. "I think in some ways this is a kind of baptism of Donald Trump," says John Fea, a professor of evangelical history at Messiah College in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. "It's the theopolitical version of money laundering, taking Scripture to ... clean [up] your candidate." This framing allows for the creation of Trump as a viable evangelical candidate regardless of his personal beliefs or actions. It allows evangelical leaders, and to a lesser extent ordinary evangelicals, to provide a compelling narrative for their support for him that transcends the mere pragmatic fact that he is a Republican. Instead of having to justify their views of Trump's controversial past, including reports of sexual misconduct and adultery, the evangelical establishment can say Trump's presidency was arranged by God, and thus legitimize their support for him — a support that has begun to divide ordinary evangelicals and create a kind of “schism.” Trump has capitalized on this idea of “vessel theology.” Numerous evangelical leaders have used the Trump-as-Cyrus comparison to explain how a leader who, while not (originally) religious, might nevertheless figure into a divine historical plan. In December, Christian evangelical leader Mike Evans made the comparison while praising Trump’s decision to move the American embassy in Israel to Jerusalem, another act with deep theological connotations. Before seeing Trump right after the announcement, Evans said, “the first word I’m going to say to him, ‘Cyrus, you’re Cyrus.’” He explained that Cyrus “was used as an instrument of God for deliverance in the Bible, and God has used this imperfect vessel, this flawed human being like you or I, this imperfect vessel, and he’s using him in an incredible, amazing way to fulfill his plans and purposes.” Likewise, last year, Creation Museum founder Ken Ham used the same rhetoric to explain how God had, in his view, brought Trump to power: “God is in total control,” Ham told the Deseret Daily News early last year. “He makes that very clear in the Bible where he tells us that he raises up kings and destroys kingdoms. He even calls a pagan king, Cyrus, his anointed, or his servant to do the things that he wants him to do.” Trump himself seemed to bolster this particular comparison. He referenced a (fake) quote from Cyrus in March 2017 as part of a speech commemorating Nowruz, the Persian New Year. Adhering the Cyrus motif to an American president — and particularly using it to justify evangelical support of the Trump presidency — is unique. Anbara Khalidi, a former research associate at University of Oxford’s Wadham College and an expert on American evangelical apocalyptic narratives, says she has not come across the Cyrus narrative in her previous study of evangelicals and politics. “I actually have personally never heard any of the Christian evangelicals I’ve researched refer to any politician as Cyrus,” she said in an email. Often, she said, the end-times-conscious evangelical communities she researched in the pre-Trump era were far more reticent to make specific associations between biblical figures and present-day ones. Khalidi said most evangelicals tend to be “pretty cautious” about associating individuals in history with biblical figures or prophecies. Rather, she says, many evangelicals traditionally speak more generally about “signs of the times” or indicators that the end, more broadly, may be at hand, without speaking specifically about linking modern politicians to given biblical prophecies or parallels. However, Khalidi said, the Trump-Cyrus association has gained traction in recent years, especially among those “who have recognized its political expediency.” Furthermore, Trump seems to have been encouraged to publicly embrace these associations. Trump’s decision to move the American embassy in Israel to Jerusalem late last year, for example, might have been seen as one such curated response, evoking the historical association between Cyrus and the liberation of the Jewish people as a kind of dog whistle to evangelical voters that he’s on their side. Fea pointed out that among a certain subset of evangelicals, even innocuous details seem to be evidence of prophecy. The most famous biblical verse about Cyrus as God’s “anointed” is found in Isaiah 45 — and Trump is the 45th president. Wallnau made this connection explicit, telling the Christian Broadcasting Network that God spoke to him directly to tell him, “Isaiah 45 will be the 45th president ... Isaiah 45 is Cyrus.” Andrew Whitehead, an assistant professor of sociology at Clemson University who focuses on the rise of Christian nationalism, agreed with Fea. “Christian nationalist rhetoric, defending America’s Christian heritage” — all these, he said, were common tropes throughout American history. “But what makes Trump interesting, a test as to the power of this Christian nationalist rhetoric, is that regardless of personal piety ... his use of that rhetoric still resonated, and people still voted for him.” Trump managed to capture the evangelical imagination without being particularly evangelical — or, indeed, personally religious — himself. The Cyrus narrative allows evangelicals to thread a difficult rhetorical needle. It allows them to see Trump as “their” candidate — a candidate who will effect God’s will that America become a truly Christian nation — without requiring Trump himself to manifest any Christian virtues. He is, like Cyrus, anointed by God and thus has divine legitimacy (Trump’s spiritual advisers, including evangelical figures Robert Jeffress and Paula White, have repeatedly hammered this point), but he has no obligation to live out Christian principles in his personal life. According to Fea, this narrative works because it allows evangelicals to capitalize on Trump’s “strongman” persona — in practical terms, his ability to get votes — while allowing them to justify their support theologically and preserve their sense of Trump as a God-backed candidate. Someone like Ted Cruz, Fea says, may initially have been a “purer candidate” as far as evangelicals were concerned. But when it became clear that Trump was performing better in the Republican primary, they shifted tactics. “They have to have some kind of biblical or theological or Christian reason ... for their support,” he says. But they also have to back a winner. Fea describes evangelicals’ pivot as somewhat pragmatic. Major evangelical figures like the Family Research Council’s Tony Perkins and Focus on the Family’s James Dobson endorsed Cruz before finally endorsing Trump once his nomination became an inevitability. Trump’s rhetoric ties into and significantly expands on a robust historical tradition of language and thought about God, and a kind of “vessel theology,” in American political history. Whitehead says the idea that God plays a divine role in politics is nothing new. When it comes to the presidency, narratives of divine intervention have been woven into American cultural discourse from the beginning of what Whitehead calls America’s “civil religion,” which he describes as a fusion of political and religious imagery. For example, after George Washington died, Whitehead said, “stories cropped up about his religiosity, about what a great man he was.” “Great leaders [have been historically] identified with how God was using them, or that God placed them there for a purpose,” he said. For America, a relatively new nation, this Christian mythos became a foundational element of creating a national identity. “Colonials had closer ties to Britain than they had to each other. Christianity became a part of that.” Fea concurs. Throughout the early history of America, he notes, American exceptionalism and a particular blend of Christian nationalism — seeing America as a kind of new chosen land for God’s intervention on a parallel with the Israel of the Old Testament — went hand in hand. He references the ideal of the “city on a hill,” an image from Jesus’s Sermon on the Mount, used by Puritan settler John Winthrop to describe how the new American colonies would serve as a model for Christian living. Fea references, too, the work of early American revivalist preachers like Jonathan Edwards, who believed the second coming of Christ was imminent in Boston during the 18th century. Fea says the idealistic nature of America’s founding — as a country that believes in “liberty and freedom” — has lent itself to appropriation by Christian narratives. “It’s sort of taking these Enlightenment ideas [of freedom and liberty],” he added. “Since day one, they have been kind of ‘baptized’ by evangelicals who say in a very unthoughtful way, ‘America is for freedom. God is for freedom. Therefore, God must privilege the US.’” This sense that God has “chosen” America as a special people, or that he acts directly in American affairs, has, Fea argues, given us quintessentially American historical phenomena such as Manifest Destiny, the imperialist expansion of the United States across North America. Therefore, at the very least, the idea that God intervenes directly in American political affairs, and uses American political figures as vessels to effect divine will, is deeply rooted in centuries of Christian nationalism. The continued prevalence of the Cyrus narrative throughout the campaign and the first year of Trump’s presidency speaks to its longevity and power. But it speaks, too, to the degree to which those around Trump — from his unofficial evangelical advisory council to Christian supporters on CBN — are able to signal to supporters that the evangelical agenda is receiving attention in the White House regardless of Trump’s actions, or even regardless of whether Trump is aware of what’s going on. After all, Trump himself has mentioned Cyrus just once (and made up a quote in the process). But every time those around Trump mention Cyrus, they’re signaling to their listeners that because Trump is nothing but a vessel for God’s will, he’s also somewhat irrelevant in the scheme of things. Pay no attention to the man in front of the curtain, they imply. The real work is being done by his evangelical influencers behind the scenes. But Trump, too, is doing his share of influencing, dog-whistling to evangelical rhetoric of an unexpected or incongruous “divine plan.” Within that paradigm, his somewhat incongruous anecdote during the State of the Union address about the New Mexico couple that adopted a homeless, heroin-addicted woman’s baby makes far more sense. Trump says of Ryan Holets, the New Mexico police officer who adopted the baby, that “Ryan said he felt God speak to him: ‘You will do it — because you can.’” Within the context of a presidential address, the anecdote felt jarring, out of place. But as a theological nod, the anecdote made perfect sense. The image of an unlikely individual chosen unexpectedly by God to shoulder a difficult and divinely ordained burden is a popular narrative within Christian, and more specifically evangelical, discourse. And it's a narrative that Trump will continue to capitalize on to keep his evangelical voters close.

43. 'The Trump Prophecy' Includes Troubling Parallels for American Democracy

This week witnessed the release of the Liberty University-produced film "The Trump Prophecy," in which it is claimed that Donald Trump's election in 2016 can be attributed to divine intervention. It is striking enough that the evangelical Christian leaders who supported the film believe they are in a position to discern and proclaim God's will. This is some serious chutzpah — a word, and concept, apparently unknown to those who made the film. At the heart of the movie, however, is a particular claim that Trump is the King Cyrus of our times. Cyrus the Great was the king of Persia in the second half of the sixth century BCE, given his impressive title by virtue of having conquered the mighty Babylon, along with most of the rest of the ancient Near East. He ruled over the greatest empire the region had ever seen. The Bible gives him an even more significant title: messiah. For when Cyrus conquered Babylon, he allowed the Israelites who had been exiled there some 50 years earlier to return to their native land, to govern themselves according to their native laws and to rebuild the Temple in Jerusalem, the center of their religious life. For this, the book of Isaiah declares that Cyrus was anointed — the original meaning of the word "messiah" — by God to deliver the Israelites. For the creators of "The Trump Prophecy," the comparison with Cyrus has obvious appeal. It emphasizes the global power of the U.S. presidency. It implicitly condemns the previous administration: the exile from God that Trump is now reversing. And it makes Trump out to be the savior of God's people, permitting them to live and worship as they please. (Cyrus may have claim to be the inaugurator of the concept of "religious freedom.") But there are some rather strange aspects to the comparison as well. The most apparent is the fact that Cyrus was an external conqueror, a foreigner. There is an admission here that though he may be beloved of the Christian right, Trump is not in fact one of them. Trump, like Cyrus, is a pagan: not a worshipper, but a tool of God. This is often admitted by Trump's "court evangelicals," as historian John Fea has termed them. But it does undercut the equally common claims that Trump is a real man of God. It is easy enough to see why the biblical prophet saw Cyrus as divinely sent: The return of the Israelites and the rebuilding of their temple could hardly be other than providential. But why would Cyrus do it in the first place? Here is where the equation with Trump becomes most interesting, and potentially revealing. The restoration of peoples to their lands, and the permission for them to self-govern (with Persian imperial oversight), was a broad policy under Cyrus. It was not just the Israelites he treated this way. The policy had administrative payoffs — it is easier to supervise a relatively self-governing group than it is to enforce Persian laws in a foreign and resistant land — but also, and perhaps predominantly, was a remarkable coup of propaganda. When Cyrus conquered Babylon, he did not declare that he and his gods had defeated Babylon and its gods, as would have been typical at the time. Instead, he announced — not without his own brand of chutzpah — that it was the gods of Babylon who had brought him there. By appropriating local religious beliefs, Cyrus was able to authorize his imperial domination and curry favor with the conquered peoples. This is what happened in Israel as well. The declaration in Isaiah that Cyrus is God's anointed ruler is not Israelite prophecy; it is Persian propaganda. The biblical writers bought what Cyrus was selling, and elevated him to the level of a David or Solomon. The parallel with Trump and his evangelical prophets is so close that one might be tempted to believe it was foretold long ago. Trump too has effectively spoken the language of the religious right, promising them a return to their cherished customs and beliefs. (They'll be able to say "Merry Christmas" again!) Like Cyrus, Trump seems for all the world not to care about the actual religious beliefs he is supporting. What he wants is free rein to do as he likes — with the support of those whose local authority he is propping up. He has offered them access to the halls of power — though not to the real power itself. And they have bought what he is selling, and declared him, quite literally, to be a messiah figure. It may all seem a bit ridiculous, of course. But there is an important historical lesson here. For though Cyrus restored Israel to self-governance, there would never be another Israelite king. The ceding of power to Cyrus marked the end of Israel’s native form of government. Proclaiming Trump to be a modern-day Cyrus is, implicitly and perhaps even unconsciously, to suggest that our own native form of government may have come to its untimely end. —Religious News Service (10/4/18)

44. Is Trump Our Cyrus? The Old Testament Case for Yes and No

...Moses’ “Charter for Kingship” in Deuteronomy 17:14–20 presents an alternative to the prevailing exercise of kingship, a model in which rulers are to function as servants of their people. To guard against the predominant megalomaniacal paradigm, Moses focused on the personal character of the king. They were not to use their position of authority in self-interest (multiplying horses, women, and silver and gold for himself). Rather, Israel’s kings were to read the Torah for themselves and then embody the righteousness the Torah called for in all of YHWH’s people: fearing YHWH, walking in the ways of YHWH, and walking humbly among their fellow Israelites (vv. 18–20). In short, the Israelite king’s primary function was to be a model citizen, so that people could look up to him and declare, “I want to be like that person!” This image of leadership as the embodiment of righteous covenantal ideals and seeking the well-being of those one leads ahead of one’s own status is consistent with the Hebrew portrayal of YHWH as the shepherd of his people (Psalm 23; Ezekiel 34) and of the New Testament’s portrayal of true shepherds of God’s people (John 10; 1 Pet. 5:1–8). When it comes to national governing, as we know from the stories of many of Israel’s kings, God has never demanded moral perfection of those he thrusts into leadership roles. Most of the judges in the Book of Judges were deeply flawed vessels, whom YHWH conscripted for his service and empowered by his Spirit, and who, through heroic acts of momentary reliance on God, were able to defeat their enemies (cf. Heb. 11). But most were not models of political leadership upon which to lavish praise as much as an honest look at deeply flawed men whom God used in spite of themselves. To me, then, this biblical history suggests that no matter how and why we cast our vote for a particular candidate, Democrat or Republican, we must never allow ourselves to become blind to their personal and moral flaws. According to the Bible, leadership is more than effectiveness; it’s also (and, in fact, primarily) a matter of character. Jesus modeled perfectly the righteous standard of which he spoke: “I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep” (John 10:11; cf. Eph 5:25b). —Christianity Today (10/29/18)

III-A6. MERITORIOUS MERRITT MUSINGS

(7/20/17)

RE: Jonathan Merritt Verified account @JonathanMerritt:

"These religious leaders care about their principles, yes. But they care about something else even more: Power." <http://bit.ly/2h4AcLK>

Documenting the HYPOCRITICAL moral flip-flopping of the Christian Cabal, forsaking God and morality for power idolatry. I couldn't say it better!

If you read that past post's article, they mention a split between evangelicals and their leaders. That's because pastors DON'T disciple well!

MOST pastors have NO IDEA which church members are totally committed, evangelize or have a daily quiet time. THIS IS A FAILURE TO LEAD!

And with 90 percent of U.S. Christians NOT being fully committed to Jesus (i.e., disciples), NO WONDER a carnal church was pro-Trump, as he EMBODIED carnality! That's pastoral FAILURE!

But if bills are paid, however that gets done, that becomes priority one, CONTRARY to Mt. 6. Why did Jesus NOT use only sermonizing to change world with the 11?

[Interjection: I saw an old debate of mine with Ralph Reed, where he argues that Bill Clinton's perjury was the issue, and I say it was Christians' anger over his sex sins, and perjury was legal opportunism!

Since adultery was not a 'high crime or misdemeanor,' lawyers jumped on anything to impeach Clinton, wishing infidelity could have been impeachable.

Proof? Bill's lie (i.e., 'I did not have sex with that woman'), under oath, came WAY after the legal inquiries into his affairs occurred, and the perjury charge arose only after that investigation had begun!]

The article by Jonathan Merritt didn't even mention James Dobson flipped from Jeb to Cruz, first!

Proof?: <http://bit.ly/2uLZfSc> HE SAYS SO!

Reeds in the wind! (Mt. 11:7, pun intended!) Shifting sand. The Christian Cabal did NOT stand for morals or against sins, but compromised for power idolatry! That's a sin!

They flip-flopped more than frogs! The ultimate betrayal was pastor who USED Dr. Russell Moore for gay marriage opposition, then wanted him fired for his legitimate Trump criticism!

I personally witnessed that man in 1.5 weeks go from calling Trump's campaign "nonsense," to telling ABC News he could "champion" Trump. That shows NO core!

READ Merritt's article (above)! Chump praises pastors as 'powerful.' I say they are guilty as sin being for Trump, and ignoring EDBS priorities! That's being UN-powerful!

Chump the opportunistic flip-flopper manipulated those men's egos to get their support. Ego is of the flesh! They'll tell you it's all about abortion.

So if your cause is important enough, you can support evil people and abandon moral convictions about HOW you seek to win. I can't recall any Bible verse supporting that!

TrumPastors (i.e., The Christian Cabal) OWNS insulting POW's, Hispanics, Muslims, women, and Christians, as they NEVER stood against this: <http://bit.ly/2jLYEOf>

III-B1. CHURCH CONTRACT

If anything detracts from money-making in church, it's banned. My TripAdvisor post about my websites' church conflicts TRUTHS got a staff call—PRONTO! (10/26/13)

I guess you found our tweets, like you found our website years ago, JUST AS I found your tweets, YESTERDAY. I STUDY (and work, full-time) more than socialize on the web. (10/29/13)

THIS is what I thought our contract signing meeting was 'gonna be about: @JackNGraham: Let's meet to strategize how to make the Great Commission COMPLETION a GLOBAL REALITY! Will you? I'm doing what I can for it, co-laborer. (10/29/13)

The ONLY issue Tuesday is how the Great Commission stage one can be 100 percent fulfilled, by stirring up pastors to lead (Eph. 4); anything else, and I leave (Pv. 12:6) (11/3/13)

Because I'm legally unable to discuss anything about an un-named church, I can't PRAISE any great sermons I may have recently heard, but I would like to! (8/10/14)

I'm legally sworn not to identify, but GREAT evangelism work, and ZERO complaints in that regard. WHY NOT RECONCILE? Before God, I forgave, but verbalize that to each other! (9/21/14)

THERE—I JUST broke our contract. I posted the church name online, so the contract is now null and void!... (6/26/16)

Note: Just after Graham said he would 'champion' D.J. Trump.

HERE IT IS! The tweet that dates my first Cabal meeting, where I was banished from church if I ever mention it here by name! Do you see any fear in me? (5/22/17): I'm NOT preparing for our noon meeting on the Great Commission's COMPLETION, as I believe in Lk. 12:12. These tweets (and my stair climb) prove this claim! (11/5/13)

That noon event started the national viral message, after Jack Graham monitored this site to see if I'd break their forced contract to never mention them here! (6/17/18)

I did ZERO preparation for that meeting, yet quoted MANY Bible verses to them, after a climb of "city mountains"—steps at a parking garage near Dr. Pepper Park, Frisco, TX (6/15/18): (Ac. 20:22) Sword of the Spirit is the Bible you know, brought to your remembrance by that same Spirit. (Eph. 6.) (11/5/13)

Getting closer to dating when I was banned from Sunday School. This tweet was after it was obvious that the church watched us here regularly. (5/23/17): Do you PAY Perot-Wanna-Be to monitor these tweets (or just hire his wife, as more subtle?). WHY can't you reconcile, and be honest about all this? "Waiting." [For any reply, which never, ever comes] (6/23/14)

POST-ambush meeting note to self, concerning results. The church's staff monitored this account like a hawk thereafter, to see if I'd violate the contract! (5/22/17): Ac. 20:22 The sword of the Spirit is the Bible you know, brought to your remembrance by that same Spirit. (Eph. 6.) (11/5/13)

Early reference to the website that started this all. (5/23/17): #TripAdvisor is SO sweet! It did things this old techno dinosaur could never have thought of, never having known of it until God led me to it. He DOES lead! (10/29/13)

MANY positive changes at the church I signed a contract NOT to identify, here, though I would, if I felt it important. The MOST biblical church in America, from such changes! (5/23/17): I am legally sworn not to identify it, but GREAT evangelism work, and ZERO complaints in that regard. WHY NOT RECONCILE? Before God I forgave you; verbalize it to each other! (9/21/14)

III-B2. TWITTERFEST

For three glorious weeks (late October to mid-November, 2013), just after being forced to sign a contract to never mention my family's home church online (or never be allowed to return), God blessed that trial with 'messages' throughout each day, and often at 3 am, and it went viral. They mainly constituted exhortations to American pastors to do God's EDBS priorities, and by the end of this miraculous time, hundreds if not thousands (many if not most of the famous ones included) had read our thoughts. This 'process' continued throughout 2014 (on spiritual matters), but never quite as impactfully in such a condensed time-frame! Our 'Pastor Messages' section summarizes the highlights.

Related Tweets

Apparently, my receiving words to type here started late September, 2013. They only ended last week. CAN YOU DO THAT? Me either! God's grace alone. (5/22/17): I NEVER even saw the past two week's Tweetfest coming, but I'm always available, as God sees fit, in the interim! You, nor I, can stop HIM, and I don't want to! (11/5/13)

Possibly the MOST IMPORTANT Tweetfest, to-date, at <http://AmericanAnswers.org> [@JamesMeroney], the PAST two weeks! Watch and learn, and be blessed! In Jesus. #Twitter #IPO (11/7/13)

I'm constantly amazed how many pastors saw our Oct '13 Tweetfest, but have YET to commit to evangelize ALL lost people near their church. Apostasy! (8/7/14)

KNOWING the many pastors who witnessed it October 2013, and knowing little has still changed, do you think God will let me move on when few clamor for it? (6/25/14)

If you know of us, it's likely you witnessed God's miraculous move on Twitter for three weeks, last October. Man CANT orchestrate that! Linked-In says it was massive! (7/23/14)

Many pastors may not watch now often, or may use Trojan Horse accounts, possibly, but the October Tweetfest has made its impact if never does again. (7/25/14)

Linked-In says enough people watched Twitter one year ago, concerning our book's book contents, that they could fill a sports stadium. I don't brag, but that must be in my book proposals. (11/6/14)

Until I had a dashboard (about a month ago), I had ZERO idea if anyone ever viewed, as so few have the courage to respond. Now I see it's 65,000-70,000 a month [250,000 at the peak]. (2/13/15)

Linked-In said, LAST YEAR, that you could fill a stadium with the number who went there [to our profile], and I never use it, so God was using Twitter for that; the zenith was the day Twitter went public. (2/13/15)

I will NOW screen shot the 250,000, just as I did the Linked-In stadium full of inquisitors, but for my own records, and for those I trust. Not fake accounts! (6/6/16)

Of the THOUSANDS who were here Dec-Feb LAST year, even Bernie's major themes were so inspired, now to be found in Wit and Wisdom (political book). (2/24/16)

Linked-In said a stadium full of people dropped by here when I was tweeting to many prominent pastors for three weeks. (9/4/16)

SOON after there was a stadium full of pastors were watching here, said Linked-In, and they got the EDDBS message they STILL refuse to implement!!! (5/22/17): Pastors: Do COMPLEETE evangelism near your church, and prove to yourself that you have. DOCUMENT the results, as Christ died for ALL! (12/5/13)

Stadium full and near legend status is how Linked-In referenced it. I'll have to find the Oct 2013 three-week Tweetfest, when a famous pastor told his colleague amigos. (5/23/17): Twitter is NOT that hard to figure out, though you can NEVER prove who's watching at any particular time! Even Linked-In verified my Oct '13 suspicions. (7/25/14)

I've got to inform newbies: For one year, here, three years ago, a stadium full of mainly famous (and otherwise) pastors were watching us live tweet many sermons! (2/24/17)

October 2013 was when a "stadium full" of mainly pastors watched here. Now I have my date for the Christian Cabal YouTube video... still finding MORE content. (5/23/17): How do you explain my Twitter account blowing up October 2013, after more than 7,000 earlier tweets with few viewers? God. I did NOTHING different, but email six [or seven] pastors! (8/9/14)

Assuming the ~80,000, or so (mainly pastors) who watched in October 2013 no longer watch, be looking for how your lack of EDDBS gets exposed in the near future. (8/22/14)

On 10/24/13 I emailed a letter to seven prominent pastors to take a public stand for evangelism at the Ranger's Stadium musical event. NONE showed. So we increased the pressure. (5/23/17)

Now I can pinpoint within two weeks when seven prominent DFW pastors rejected our email invitation to LEAD in evangelism, publicly, at a Christian music concert (detailed on our website). (5/23/17): [A guy I met who was holding an anti-abortion sign at my son's high school] agreed on #Osteen, though he thought him unsaved; I find him carnal and worldly for money and fame, and a watered-down false prophet. It's HARD to agree 100 percent with anyone! (10/3/14)

Stadium full, and near legend status is how Linked-In referenced it. I'll have to find the October 2013 three-week Tweetfest, when a famed pastor told his amigos. (5/23/17): Twitter is NOT that hard to figure out, though you can NEVER prove who's watching at any particular time! Even Linked-In verified my October 2013 suspicions. (7/25/14)

III-B3. PASTOR YEAR(S)

Disclaimers.

Sometimes I WISH God would stop using myself to change churches, so life would be more peaceful, but there's contentment knowing I'm in His will. (10/25/13)

YES, there are times it pangs me to inflict pain to bring the cure, but NO REGRETS in eternity.
(II Cor. 7:7-9) (11/3/13)

Starting soon after our TripAdvisor post prompted the contract signing (Nov. 5, 2013), God led me to do on a more national scale what had been done at that church (from 2008 to 2012), utilizing Twitter. After all, the message was never for one Jerusalem-like church! Soon, thousands of pastors were watching—so many that Linked-In emailed us that our account was approaching 'legend' status, and a 'stadium-full' of people had dropped by there (though I had only posted my profile and didn't use the service). Many good things came from this 1.4 years, but several critics also voiced opposition. When you gore oxen and idols, sometimes people justify their sins.

Then, in late 2014, on three occasions the Lord informed my our Twitter account was going to turn political. And turn it did. From October, 2014 to summer, 2017, many VIPs and regular folks dropped by, so much so that up to 75 or more political news events or stories stemmed from what we typed (documented in Wit and Wisdom: Don't Speak About Politics or Religion).

III-B4. TURNED POLITICAL

I MAY soon stop any tweets on evangelism, as I have said it as many ways as I can think of; it gets old, and just needs an expanded audience. On to politics. (2/18/14)

This site SHOULD now take a dramatically non-"religious" turn, as it was instrumental in sketching out ideas now finalized in book format. (8/7/14) Note: And it DID, and changed American politics, hopefully forever, and for the good, when people READ what was posted, now in our three political books! (6/17/18)

So this file will go primarily secular, with rarer religious matters thrown in to show LOST people what they're missing, since pastors WONT evangelize them ALL. (9/27/14)

There's NO point in God leading me to make the case again for full evangelism in your area. Time to move on to the secular arena, as Ichabod and judgment are coming. (10/28/14) Note: Twitter account turned political SOON thereafter!... (6/17/18)

Switch to a NON-religious tweet site is my intention... here on out. (11/9/14)

I've said for months that this site WILL go "secular." Jan. 1 at the latest, I believe. I've had my say on the church's needed change. Other matters exist! (11/11/14)

Turning to secular pursuits to fund and promote religious books. ~Giving up on getting "Christian" agents. It's time Christ turned the tables a third time! (11/11/14)

Changing U.S. politics seems easier than getting U.S. pastors to get their members evangelizing, which is why come Jan. 1, religious tweets may end here. (11/14/14)

Yes, politics came five months afterwards, in a huge way—an entire 1,005-paged book! (5/23/17): I STILL believe this ministry is closing, though I got one more day of good message for you to read backwards on Twitter. Politics and business—coming SOON!?! (7/24/14)

Here's the one post I was looking for when I predicted this account would change; it did, to political, then changed D.C. in major ways! #GladIFoundIt (5/23/17): That's why new media will be used (blog, YouTube, etc.), and Twitter WILL change to non-religious, "soon." Lightning rarely strikes twice. (Zech. 4:6) (7/25/14)

Giving you a sampling of what THOUSANDS of pastors saw for over a year, here, before things turned political. (5/22/17): JUDGE Your U.S. church, Lord, ASAP. She WON'T (i.e., open rebellion) evangelize ALL lost people in her steeples' shadows. To Hell with the lost, says their (non-) BEHAVIOR. (4/30/14)

FURTHER evidence I expected this account to turn less religious and more political, among other things. (5/23/17): The best of our religious tweets will be on our blog. This venue will go political, business, innovation, morals and prophecy. See you at our blog, soon, believers. (7/21/14)

III-B5. CALL TO POLITICS
(Deleted Twitter message, 3/23/15)

I hope I shall possess firmness and virtue enough to maintain what I consider the most enviable of all titles, the character of an honest man. —George Washington

Following are excerpted tweets from the night I believe God specifically called me to run for political office (in the midst of an attempted 20-day fast, beginning in the middle of March, 2015). It is followed by more detail, but the highlights are as follows:

I believe STRONGLY that God wants his servant in politics one day, and He has already shown me ALL about His plan, which, number one, is TOTAL HONESTY. I'll be obedient to that.

...I myself have NOT said I'm doing any political campaign—just writing what I hear. I will figure that out later. I want to finish this soon!

This is NOT a hunger strike; it's not like gurus who say they live months on no food. What started as weight loss has turned more spiritual to finish my books.

ONLY VOTE ON POLICY, fix problems, and improve our nation (and world). Anything else is RUBBISH. ONLY vote for politicians who agree with this tweet!

D.C. can ONLY see right or left—NO middle ground. My way or highway. You're either a D or an R. That system BENEFITS them, foolish ones!

SO close to death (multi-day, semi-fast). DO NOT TRY THIS AT HOME! I didn't consult my doctor, as I have none. God the Great Physician will see me through!

I REALLY need to stop this, and work a paying job soon. My family will endure me only a little longer. PLEASE let this end in three days or less, I BEG YOU, Lord J.C. Please!

Was THAT what you meant about 15 more until viewers will know this is of You? Fifteen more messages? This is number one? My heart PHYSICALLY/literally can't take a lot more, but keep it coming!

[Personal: There ARE solutions to our world's problems. READ @ImMadTooEdwin (it's SHORT!). Billboards and airplane streamers in 50 cities? What message(s)?]

By God's grace alone I challenge ANY politician to publicly debate any policies we espouse in our book. IF you have better ideas, I'll change! I promise.

Does this mean "God" is calling you into politics? I have NO idea, but I HAVE been writing on it for six years. A principled centrist authority.

Our book details exactly what's GOOD in both parties, and what's NOT so much. I myself would ONLY vote for the good, and hope voters would support THAT!

It would be IDEAL if 'we the people' ONLY voted for "Pledged Politicians," and kicked out ALL others, but I don't dream, I deal with reality. You've got to WIN!

Our book proposes 33 Congress persons in 20/20 committed to common sense and SOLVING problems to broker D.C. power. @Pledgers2020

By God's grace alone I challenge ANY politician to publicly debate any policies we espouse in our book. IF you have better ideas, I'll change! I promise.

Was THAT what you meant about 15 more? 15 more messages? This is number one? My heart PHYSICALLY/literally can't take a lot more, but keep it comin'!

There ARE solutions to our world's problems. READ @ImMadTooEdwin (it's SHORT!). Billboards and airplane streamers in 50 cities? What message(s)?

Are You using the presidential campaign as an analogy or literal? The only political job I know with partners are that, or one's Congressional peers!?

Remember the McCain-Lieberman consideration? They just lacked The Pledge and our book, Dumb as a Donkey, Fat as an Elephant. Are you saying run for office?

If as Democrat, consider a GOP partner (if they will sign The Pledge—a summary of centrist behavior commitments). If as GOP, consider a Democrat partner.

HOW can you actually run being PRO some Dem and GOP views? Keep the good and reject the bad. Run for whichever party will WIN, and implement that slogan.

Anyone is authorized to put up a billboard reading: Take back Washington for 'WE the people.'
<http://AmericanAnswers.org> God will take care of the rest for me.

Why can't there be a centrist radio show? I'll host it. Anyone? What's a GOOD left-winged one? Anyone? #TalkRadio #Liberals #Conservatives

I WISH Warren Buffett would read my book and back a candidacy, or read our tweets and do the same! TAKE BACK the U.S. for 'WE the people!' Sounds like a slogan.

Anyone is authorized to put up a billboard reading: Take back Washington for 'WE the people.'
<http://AmericanAnswers.org> God will take care of the rest for me.

I tweet by faith. I have ZERO knowledge if anyone sees them, or will until I learn how to do marketing. Any billboard donors, like in Atlanta, wishing that Christian musician well?

Only ONE but scary heart pain yesterday and today. I went with a banana and some water. CLOSE to what physical death (vs. Rev. 20:14) must feel like.

MAYBE if I complete #40in20, that proof won't be as obvious. 40 pounds down in 20 days (goal). Philippians 4:13! (Mar. 23, 2015).

Why can't there be a centrist radio show? I'll host it. Anyone? What's a GOOD left-winged one? Anyone? #TalkRadio #liberals #conservatives

It's GREAT that Obama helped the poor with insurance, but SOME civic service should be REQUIRED as a trade-off/token payback. I'll get my insurance when I stop writing.

And I'm NOT poor; just hadn't had extra cash for insurance, and WON'T do Obamacare (government help), so my tax refund will have to pay the penalty. Thanks Obama!

Fell on my mouth at the cinema playing chase with my kids at American Sniper, and now I have two hard bumps inside my lip. I will stab them with a STERILE needle. That's how people with no insurance live, GOP.

One milk sip since dinner last night. #40in20 (3/24/15)

God's got a sense of humor! 106.1 KISS FM played Texas Democrat Wendy Davis' theme song when I was in the car to get it fixed! <http://yhoo.it/1GMkgZV>

It's NOT "bi-polar" to like the GOOD in BOTH parties! My Iranian amigo at church said, "I ride a donkey, but I also like riding elephants." He might know(?)

"Fifteen more ought to convince them." [that you speak "for" God]. Fifteen more, I have NO idea of what!

[Note: Many 'messages' had already been posted, at this time, but after 15 others were posted, several pastors and viewers became convinced they were witnessing a miracle.]

...THAT's why I think God will NOT let me publish books and retire, or why He often wakens me at 3 am. Hell for the lost, and a better future for the U.S.A. are NO joke, to Him! (3/11/16)

The GREAT news, for me, is that God won't give up on His own plans for me, even when I hate politics, and could retire by just selling books. EVIL profession, too often! (4/23/17)

God had specifically called me to political office in February or March 2015, near midnight, and I tweeted my conversation, then deleted it as too personal. (5/15/17)

That church service following, headmaster mentioned in church how obvious a very powerful force/presence was that evening; didn't the crowd sense it? (5/15/17)

I had been fasting before such call, perhaps 12 days. You can see what tweets remain under #40in20. I planned to lose 40 pounds in 20 days; God had BIGger plans. (5/15/17)

So I'm being urged to run for office in 2016, even though my materials ALWAYS said 2020. That church, one week before the election invited people to come forward if they felt God leading them into political leadership service. I did NOT go forward, even though led into politics, because God said wait. (5/15/17)

My preparation for a political career has been eight years in the making. Would that we had a commander-in-chief who had ANY such preparation! #TRUTH (5/23/17): GLAD that nearly every important issue that can be debated has been addressed, as, IF I ever run for office, people DON'T like argumentation, so I can refer them to my writings. (8/10/14)

God's message to me, after three church people (two staffers) shut me out of Sunday School attending with my wife, though those two appeared from behind a pillar, HIDDEN. (5/23/17): Even if your heroes reject you, I should be your only, highest Hero! They sinfully collude, to feel good and assuage their guilt in rejecting the messages. (8/10/14)

ANOTHER encouraging word to me from our Lord, to endure critics' ignorant sins, and erring attacks on this ministry. If God be for you, WHO can be against you? (5/23/17): Christians can consider you angelic or demonic, for this ministry. They don't give your eternal rewards! If I told you to write, doing so IS obedience. (8/10/14)

ANOTHER reason I expect opposition from many WASP mega pastors when I run for office. Goring their sacred idols, and calling them to stop sinning! (5/23/17): Why is it HATED that I call for capping multi-venue mega church pastor's' salaries at a GOOD salary level, if they are NOT in ministry for the money? (I Tim. 3:3) (7/24/14)

III-B6. CHANGED PARTIES

The day Trump won, I was devastated, both because I had predicted a Clinton win (and my accuracy rate was in the high 90 percents), but also because I had tweeted that I would help her campaign if it were close, even though I was going to vote for none of the above for the top slot. If I had any inkling she would lose, I would have gotten out some voters (just as I did attend two Hillary campaign meetings, and twice volunteer—though the office had no land line phones for use).

The day Trump won, I changed political parties, and contacted my local government office to see if any formal paperwork had to occur for that process to be official (I wasted a drive to the McKinney courthouse to learn Texas requires nothing—the same courthouse where I participated in a Democrat march around its parking lot earlier on in the political season. I also had tweeted the following, which was quite prophetic itself:

With my devastation, and my son's feeling the humiliation, within hours the Lord informed me that was the only way I would ever have considered changing political parties, due to stubborn tradition and habit! He then gave me a handful of messages that lasted a few days, and I knew He was confirming this was the right decision for me to make. I never wavered or looked back, though I still remain sad for the party I so long was a part of, and could never be part of again if it remained alt-right or hyper conservative leaning!

III-B7. NON-SENSE TO CHAMPION

He [Jack Graham] even used words from our Facebook posts [5/22/16], just days after posting, in a Saturday evening sermon. He NEVER would meet to reconcile, though MANY tries by myself! (6/27/16)

At the North Texas Presidential Forum he said, 'I'm glad we have the ones we'd like to have here;' Chump was NOT in attendance. He also called Chump's political antics non-sense [6/18/22] just a few weeks ago! (6/27/16)

Early June, 2016 that Christian Cabal member said Chump's antics were "nonsense" [6/11 or 18/16] One and a half weeks later he said he could "champion" D. T-rump [6/22/16]. GET the Saturday evening worship service video! (6/26/17)

...ever since! That's GREAT! But flip-flopping from nonsense to champion was a 180 degree moral failure. And he did it before all the world (for them to all see)! Wisdom? (6/26/17)

And THIS guy called Trumps antics "nonsense" 1.5 weeks before he told ABC News that he could "champion" Trump. No hypocrisy there—HA! (6/26/17)

III-B8. CHURCH PROTESTS

For that exact reason, on several occasions I protested my family's home church lead pastors support for Trump (even being on his advisory council) by not attending for a time (six months, originally). When I returned the first time, I learned that over two months prior he had threatened to withhold $1 million of our/laymen's donations from the Southern Baptist Convention, so I left again.

Then when I briefly returned, I saw him in the group of somewhat duped ministers laying hands on Trump (contrary to I Tim. 5:22, on a man who never apologizes, and certainly did not adequately address all the many groups he free-willedly offended during his entire campaign), so I left a third time. Only after starting another church, and twice being shut down (once, the only service I could attend was being disbanded and switched to a time and da), and once when I attended and the head pastor was out of town, and it hit me that I was unwilling to reinvest another ten years in a place where my family was unwilling to join, given their friendships at the other church, and its many amenities.

My final, most severe protest, to-date, came after Trump's "Evangelical" council agreed to have a sit-down White House dinner, and publicly state why they voted for him, and "speak love to power. That protest remains until at least the 2018 midterms (See select and related tweets, below)!

I've made my final decision. Unless my kids are involved, or my wife needs me to show, so she doesn't feel abandoned, I'm through with Prestonwood Baptist Church, at least until the midterms end. That WAS my original [pre-July, 2018] decision. HAPPY to reinstate it tonight! #ContractViolation!!! (8/28/18)

HERE is what a REAL "Baptist" did and said when encountering an evil politician: (Mark 6:18) John did NOT praise him, and ask any nearby crowd to tell reasons they voted for the guy! #EvangelicalWhiteHouseDinner #HYPOCRISY sin! (8/30/18)

HERE is what a REAL "prophet of God" did and said when encountering severe evil in a politician: (2 Samuel 12:7) Nathan did NOT praise him, and ask any nearby crowd to tell reasons they voted for the guy! #EvangelicalWhiteHouseDinner #HYPOCRISY sin! (8/30/18)

[Cryptic post to Headmaster, who two months prior, inserted numerous positive innuendos through sermons by these two Southern Baptist leaders' sermons at my family's church, the weekend before Jack Graham himself had VP Pence speak at the 2018 Southern Baptist Convention—a religious gathering of pastors—who praised tRump on eighteen or so occasions:] Ezell, Living on Mission, and Greear, just before having V.P. praise CHUMP to SBC 18 times; now $150M, and wait for it, like many other O.T. examples (got applause), just before Evangelical WH dinner? I'm NOT stupid, or 'gonna be played, or especially used so you can broker deals with Satan's boy. You brought this on yourself! You, alone! (8/30/18)

Update: Upon his following our secondary Twitter account, we, reluctantly, decided to cautiously return (pending future actions—more protests may ensue!). The wisdom of his following is he could tell Trump it was to enforce his contract (as I had 'liked' tweets slamming the Cabal), but also reassure my wife things were really happening (which I had tweeted could be helpful), and reassure me he wasn't my enemy (along with the two immediately following sermons being on evangelism—my main theme). As one politician's wife asked me, "can't they just deny all your claims," to which I answered, "that's the moral character of these type people for Jesus, and exactly why I've called for a lie detector for about fifteen times, including an entire chapter in my book."

Then, on September 1, 2018, Jack opened this Twitter account (below), which he deleted 8 days later. It had 19 posts, and about 320 followers. I read every tweet. He defended the Southern Baptist President (Greear, who he had preach at his church the weekend before his election, likely interacted with when Pence attended the Southern Baptist convention, in 2018—because Greear later posted it was a mistake they shouldn't have done—and shared the White house dinner with—the man still fancies himself the president of the SBC!; Prediction: WATCH Greear "decouple politics from religion" ONLY after the 2018 midterms, when tRump will face a REAL Christian arguing better policies, as is being done here, currently) from 'many attacks' for his attending the White house dinner, retweeted Joel Rosenberg (his buddy, who tried to equate, by analogy, ever religious figure in the Bible having any contact with a politician—even Paul in his own legal defense—to the Christian Cabal's support of tRump), a Christian magazine article arguing that group was doing substantial/significant work (has ANYONE noticed moral improvement in 45, since their work), along with two posts criticizing a gentleman I found (seminary professor) had documented 50 of the dinner guests' names, apparently considering his post that Prestonwood demographics appear to be an anomaly of Trump support, as they are in a more affluent and educated area of Dallas, deemed 'elitist,' by Graham, a commendation of Greg Laurie's assessment of the meeting, and a few sports-related posts bragging of his connections to Tony Dorsett and Daryl Strawberry. After the Saturday evening sermon of 9/8/18, it was clear, the man who orchestrated two extremely encouraging sermons just 2 and 3 weeks prior, was now on the war path against my position on abortion (a church service ad for January's March for Life in D.C., a blatantly Lordship Salvation invitation, changing sermon topics from evangelism, which was announced last Saturday, to prayer, as I had directly tagged his second in command to have actionable opportunities available for the crowd after such a sermon), and a couple other innuendos too minor to address here. That night, after returning home, I re-emailed a nearby pastor I have tweeted has been blameless since my college days, to see if I could join his church. Oh yeah, two other posts in that now defunct account I recall: Perhaps a quote from Kavanaugh on living on the bright side of the day, not the dark side of the mountain (paraphrased), and a seriously fear-based note that the consequences of the coming mid-term election were extremely high (said in another way, mirroring tRump's 'we're going to lose everything we've gained, or our country'). The account address was @Jack_Graham__, and he followed me starting 9/1/18—the weekend I skipped church, in protest, but listened in, and bragged on his second in command teaching on evangelism.

III-B9. CABAL METHODS

(See also: Recent Cabal Acts)

So what methods did I observe this Cabal using to influence the 2016 Presidential election (leading to Trump's 'Evangelical council,' or 'Advisory board,' possibly with Ben Carson's help, among others), seeking to turn out WASP Christian votes (by the way, a reported 81 percent of claiming Christians voted for Trump)? Try the following:

- ◆ Sermons against abortion (and some legislative attempts, especially in Texas).
- ◆ Cries for revival and religious liberty (often implying the Obergefell decision infringed on such rights), including religious liberty and (trans 'bathroom bill') legislation in Indiana (hence, Vice President Pence), and North Carolina.
- ◆ The Southern Baptist Convention voting to denounce the Confederate flag (seeking the African-American vote, like Trump said, 'what do you have to lose?' voting for me).
- ◆ Mike Pence Christian conversion testimonies in churches.
- ◆ Mike Huckabee speaking in some churches, including my sister's mega church, which also participated in the ATT stadium Harvest Dallas/America crusade.
- ◆ North Texas Presidential Forum, housed at my very own home church.
- ◆ The National Day of Prayer, hosted by Dr. Graham (in 2015) and put on by James Dobson's wife.
- ◆ The Decision America tour of Franklin Graham.
- ◆ Statements in sermons, such as 'I don't endorse,' but 'if you want to ask me who I voted for, you can ask me after the sermon' (and posting Christmas gift Trump #MAGA sox on a pastor's SnapChat account (which my kids informed me of), as well as calling Trump's campaign, 'non-sense,' only to say I can 'champion Trump' a week and a half later, speaking to ABC News, after a brief meeting with the man, etc.
- ◆ GOP voter-targeted sermons (like Mike Huckabee's, When Detour Becomes the Destination, just before the election, when it looked like Hillary would win, 10/2/16, or Ed Young's, How To Pick a President, promoted by the church exterior's banner, if not other means, 11/6/16).
- ◆ Keeping the brand before the public in-between political seasons, through national and local TV advertising (Ex.: Liberty University and First Baptist, Dallas).
- ◆ And various other unnamed methods, using churches (mainly white ones), talk radio (Christian and secular), Christian media (Ex.: Christianity Today, the Baptist Press, CBN, Daystar, Acts Network, et al), and Fox News (often utilizing Todd Barnes, who, later, even came and spoke at our church, along with several Texas politicians (Reps. Roger Williams and Louie Gohmert make the Christian talk radio rounds, 1/25/18), including our governor himself, and private conference calls, emails and phone calls (among select mega pastors).

Note: Noticeably absent is much input from other religions (like Jews, Buddhists and Muslims, etc.), Catholics, or Hispanic and African-American Christian pastors! It is made up mainly of rich WASP mega churches!

Just for the record, look at Rev. Jeffress' tweeted sermon topics since Jan. 27, 2018 (i.e., evangelism and discipleship). As I note elsewhere in this book, it's NOT a CIA but a CYA operation. We've been pushing pastors on those two of four issues for four^r years, and NOW he's addressing them, because I'll fully expose that omission when I go public! (2/1/18)

Local talk radio host visits Haiti after his hero, Chump, insults it as S-hole country, and starts a charitable push (to make up for conservatism's and Chump's bad stigma)—just as I predicted conservatives would do. (2/12/18)

I heard TWO talk radio shows STARTing charity initiatives, to allay our claims that conservative political theory is selfish. P.R. stunts, even if long-term, don't lessen the effect of our just criticisms, and are Phil. 1:18. SAME goes for some Christian Cabal members NOW addressing EDBS priorities—FOUR years LATER! (2/14/18) [A potentially political counter-measure is that NBC's Joe Scarborough spoke of his Southern Baptist background on 2/13/18, and its Megyn Kelly spoke of her own faith on 2/14/18]

When TWO books HAVE to be written about your "faith," it's pretty obvious that readers are grasping at straws for needle in the haystack evidence [to reassure themselves]! NO author would write such works on Billy Graham, as the fact is OBVIOUS. It's ONLY a damage control P.R. stunt for church votes! Fire and Fury would be a better title, based on where @POTUS is going. (2/14/18)

(Phil. 1:18, 2/1/18)

...Just for the record, look at Robert Jeffress' Twitter post's topics since near Jan. 27, 2018: Evangelism and discipleship. As I note in this book, it's NOT a CIA but a CYA operation. We've been pushing pastors on those two of four issues for four years, and NOW he's addressing them, because I'll fully expose that omission when I go more public!

I retweeted this the 28th of Jan., 2018, and am doing so again, now, to show you that unless you hit their reputation or pocket books, top Bible priorities NEVER get implemented. Still, sermons are NOT the answer—just their natural instinctual response to mostly everything! (2/1/18): Used THIS side [of our go

Evangelize! sign] all day, otherwise; next to #FirstBaptistDallas. Parking was a BEAR! No crowds, and it's HARD to evangelize buildings [sarcasm]. (11/9/14)

And THIS tweet was posted on the 27th. You can read our feed to prove me right. Pressure is the only thing that works. Conviction through Scripture, and the Spirit, are how Christians are to change. (2/1/18): LOOK at how LONG @RobertJeffress has REFUSED to lead in the most important task in life! And this FOLLOWED contact in less-public ways, so his delay is even LONGER!!! #ChristianCabal (Note the date of the original tweet: 11/9/14) (1/27/18)

For the umpteenth time, we're going to go over this, AGAIN. Preach and be paid is NOT how you grow disciples. Jesus preached to the crowds, but poured His life into the 11, who changed the world! Even twitter posts are like P.R. stunts.

Multiplication relational discipling is the best way, and NOTHING compares. It requires staffers, deacons and Sunday School teachers to individually ensure specific Christians are having daily quiet times. Once they are, for awhile, engage ~one-on-twelve discipling, where those who finish the course can then train others (II Tim. 2:2). Within three years, even a mega church can be disciplined!

And it is NOT participation in an evangelism crusade that makes any pastor, but Greg Laurie, evangelistic! That's being a follower, and not being evangelistic. What about all the lost people nearest to every local church? In DFW, 80,000, mainly Christians, will go, out of 7+ MILLION. Drops in the bucket are better than NO drips, but the Great Commission is about full buckets of flowing, living water, to reach EVERY soul.

Pastors OTHER than Rev. Laurie MUST do their God-ordained job duty/description! (II Tim. 4:5) One public event, even with national satellites, via technology, is NOT getting pastors off the hook, who didn't reach their own Jerusalem (i.e., neighborhood)—thoroughly!

So preaching sermons about discipleship [Ex.: Jeffress, Jan. 2018], and participating in one crusade per year [Ex.: ATT Stadium, June, 2018] are window dressing Band-Aids on the gaping severed head of Gods body, the church!

Let's cover our other two regular topics... body life and social ministry. As Jeffress is in bed with more political conservatism, if he wants government to end Welfare, churches must pick up the slack. They're NOT as stable, or as generous (or fair to all—Christians alone suffer the burden), with the unrequired tithe, as the Jews were in their actual theocracy, for their safety net! I'm SURE Jeffress would MUCH more prefer spreading the pain to others beyond his church, for a private sector substitute to Welfare!

Is that hypocrisy? And temporary church emphases (like sporadic homeless feeding) are NOT addressing social issues—just talking about them, and doing something vs. nothing (i.e., NOT systemic solutions)! Jeffress' critic, Dr. Frederick Haynes, has PERMANENT social ministries to help his community year round! That's what Jesus calls church to do.

Finally, body life: Does FBC Dallas know every member's spiritual gift(s), and utilize them in the church worship services? NO! I've been there twice, and heard them online, twice. Body life implements the 'one anothers,' when the body is gathered as a family—not split up, like a hand and foot department (Sunday School).

Sorry, Robert... a sermon series or two, a few Twitter posts, and joining Laurie's GREAT individual evangelism effort is NOT what you are called to do, as a pastor who thinks his church is the lead U.S. church, historically! Nice try, but try again.

READ the Book you claim to so admire. I can tell you've been to our website, and that's great. If you EVER choose to publicly commit your members to evangelize every lost soul residing near your church, I'll come down there and join you in that effort. It's been FOUR years since you were first warned, and over 30 years since the U.S.A. was thoroughly threshed/harvested.

Why is Rev. Laurie the ONLY one who seems to care, and everyone else is his cheerleader? Crusades are NOT needed, though great (and I never said they were dead—Mr. Shivers did, Jack!). To tackle the entire world, you need an adopt-a-neighborhood strategy, per pastor!

And why do I continually go off and on with church attendance? Instability or unfaithfulness? I am QUICK to note changes, positive and negative, like CYA moves attempting to lessen the impact of my four-year long criticisms on evangelism, as if Laurie's pledge of 20-30 more years debunks anything I've said. He's the ONLY innocent one!...

Therefore, my pinned tweet, AS PROMISED, returns [i.e., challenging the Cabal to a public debate]. You can't reconcile, because your human savior, Chump, won't let you (though you never have in six+ years, anyway!). That's NOT 'freedom,' to be controlled by another man, especially a man of his moral ilk! That's what happens when you sell your soul and conscience for power!

P.S.: You hear Luis Palau and Rick Warren and Albert Mohler on the radio, as with Louie Gohmert and Roger Williams? ALL the work of one pastor, via being pushed behind the scenes for five+ years by this author. He will NEVER tell you about it being him, or his changes coming from us. Great changes, sir!

...It means NO man can P.R. stunt their way into its [revival's] IMITATION! And it DOESN'T mean Trump votes are evidence. Please email or phone me, and tell me what I can do to assist.

Your band of pastors has GOT to unite forces to counter this politicizing of the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC), and other antics. The Southern Baptist Convention, in 2018 (#SBC18), showcased black pastors, only to invite Pence and Abbott, and try to de-fund the SBC's ERLC (i.e., ethics wing).

There was even a proposal to officially oppose social justice, but also one to say NO MORE POLITICIANS speaking to the SBC. Franklin Graham used an EVANGELISM crusade all over California, and spoke of stopping the blue wave. I'll detail it all but for you, but I want to help oppose this.

I'm SURE you saw Bobbie Jeffress' billboard around town, that 'America is a Christian nation,' and praying at the Jerusalem embassy event, and the newest NRA president at Fellowship Church on Memorial Day, and Republicans Trey Gowdy and Tim Scott appearing you know where. I have MANY ideas for you, if we can meet, again—whenever you choose... AAorg2020@gmail

EVERY black, Jewish, Latino, Catholic, and evangelical church (including, also, the NAACP, DNC, et al) that opposes politicizing Jesus needs to UNITE to oppose this Christian Cabal, who APPROVED this: <https://bit.ly/2jIYEOF>), and obey this Bible verse: Eph. 5:11. Please email me. I have many other ideas!

I am willing to tell you every single event and tactic the Christian Cabal has used in the past three years, to get white claimers of Christ to back tRump. I can give dates, news links and private conversations' content. I have them ALL in my book, but your group need to know what your political enemy is doing!

The Southern Baptist convention in 2017 approved opposing Confederate monuments; this year they let MANY black pastors start the pastor's conference, along with a black choir. They also have events on women, and #MeToo. They're TRYING to DUPE people that they're reformed; image/P.R. stunts simulating racial reconciliation. You KNOW Bob Jeffress ignored your Open Letter invitation to meet with him to do just that!

They're TRYING to make the GOP look black-welcoming, and united! Trey Gowdy and Tim Scott's book tour also seeks to make the GOP look racially welcoming (though they are sincere men, I believe). They have SO much work to do to overcome tRump's bumps and warts, but they're trying. You must match fire with fire! #SBC18 is a GOP endorsement, though skirting the law!

There are MANY Protestant denominations that OPPOSE tRumpism, and politicizing church; probably MANY Lutherans, Episcopalians, Methodists and Presbyterians. Please let me help you organize and strategize to ONLY promote a neutral political public stance by Christians—ONLY for morals!

The Christian Cabal are ONLY good at public shows. They get FoxNews, and related media to cover it, then milk it through Christian TV and talk radio, and Baptist magazines, and aligned mega churches! MANY NON-mega church pastors OPPOSE this hijacking of Christ! I KNOW you do. Please tell me what I can do to help you fight this.

The white wanna-be "leader," Geoffrey the Giraffe Jeffress, who ignored your call to talk and reconcile, worships his face being on FoxNews, and poses himself as Jesus' spokesman for God's people. You have GOT to increase intensity and breadth of efforts. Imitate what they're doing, please! Here are more of their tactics:

They invite local (and otherwise) politicians to speak at mega churches, host presidential forums and political issues events. They email church members voting notices, with conservative charts of politicians' leanings. They use code words to skew laymen to the GOP (pro-life, freedom, family values).

They even use GOOD spiritual events God used ME to get them to do, so people can't criticize their political B.S., like the two ATT Stadium evangelistic events. How exactly that came about is on my website, <https://WillYouLiveForever.org>. The Texas governor came to our church, as with James Dobson, etc.

When the GOOD, honest and accurate man, Dr. Russell Moore (ERLC, of the SBC) spoke TRUTH concerning tRump's sins, and questioned his being a 'Christian,' they tried to get him fired, and my family's church then threatened to withhold $1 million from the Southern Baptist denomination. They invented the 'baby Christian' phrase for 46-1!

They had a video of Pence's Christian testimony aired at several mega churches about 1.5 months before the 2016 election. Many years ago, their ilk had candidate Mike Huckabee speak on marriage at Second Baptist Church, Houston. They give radio gigs to some people who oppose them, and MAY reward people with good-paying jobs.

I'm certain within myself that Jerry Fall-not-so-well JUNIOR was tapped for name recognition, to tie OLD Christian male WASP's to his dad, from Reagans era! No one but academics and a few pastors knew of him until his university hosted The Beast at Liberty University. He was NO Christian leader—I can name fifty others who WERE! #Politics!

Franklin Graham got corrupted by this plan, as well! I'm not telling you things you don't know, but trying to paint the picture for you of what your opponents are doing, that you must match, blow for blow, but NOT for Democrats, but for political neutrality and morality. (Mt. 6:33) I'll continue with more:

They get famous WASP pastors to speak at mega churches, to sell books, and develop unity for GOP votes, swaying their parishioners, and getting their nationally-televised shows to influence even more votes for the GOP, posing as 'leaders' of Christ, vs. for the GOP far right (which they really are). They also do radio spots to keep their clique ever before less discerning Christian laymen.

They do this all to stack the Supreme Court (SCOTUS) politically conservative, but NOT just SCOTUS—as many judgeships across America as humanly possible, behind the scenes—unpublicized. They used these SAME power moves in Reagan's day to oust liberals from the SBC, via Paul Pressler and now defrocked Paige Patterson.

They invite WASP politicians to church men's retreats, as speakers—Republican, of course. I fear you, Farrakhan, Jesse Jackson, John Lewis and Reverend Sharpton have not nearly enough idea of the scope of their evil, biased operations! It's national, it's heads of mega churches, and heads among SBC 'departments,' and past SBC presidents. They get media exposure in Christian magazine articles.

They frequent Christian TV and radio shows, and even use Salem Communication's national network, and other talk radio channels (like the one Glenn Beck is on). They host events—shows. That's their skill, then they advertising those shows. Sean Hannity and talk radio are their strong allies.

IF I watched CBN, or any Christian TV networks, I'm positive they'd be on there, frequently. They believe that if you get their face before Christians, often enough, that makes them "leaders," who then use that 'platform' (their favorite word) to sway GOP votes. ALL others MUST unite against them! (Mk. 3:25) Email me.

IMITATE success—even if it has been used for evil; do what works for GOOD—not evil. We can learn from their evil tactics, and use them for the glory of God; NOT to advance any particular political party, though it WILL be seen as NOT being for the GOP, as they own that evil aim. Please email me, for it's ACTION time!

If you position this movement as being for Democrats, may God bring it to a fail, just as He's already doing with their support of CHUMP. If, instead, you use it for promoting morally good public policy, God will bless it, more than the Devil has blessed the "Christian" Cabal. Please let me help y'all!

Irony of ironic timing... First Baptist Dallas' 'Freedom Sunday' was just aired on the local NBC affiliate (a channel they know I always watch). That's another method: National TV ads for that Dallas church, and Liberty University: <https://bit.ly/2JCOg6t> <https://bit.ly/2y5nQ7Z> It's ALL for tRump 2020!

Apparently, the dream/ideal is for mega pastors to go on mainstream TV, like Franklin Graham did at his dad's death. They KNOW FoxNews is their only stronghold. The limelight, fame and fortune (publicly call for them to reveal their tax returns!) are their idols! <https://bit.ly/2HL24WJ> Imitate their methods, SOON!

About a year after Obergefell, they passed the #NashvilleStatement. They pass out fliers at Christian events warning of diseases from homosexuality. They got Pence as V.P., and made Ms. Davis famous for breaking the law, not signing gay marriage certificates. They do LITTLE to show love to gays, or aborters, or minorities (I guess, because these aren't usually Republican voters?).

They do EVENTS as P.R. stunts, to appear changed and concerned, be it helping poor, etc. There was even an #SBC18 proposal, yesterday, to fire Southwestern Seminary (your and my alma mater) trustees for firing its president, who hid sexual abuse allegations from the authorities. Will we tolerate this anymore?

I'm SURE the opening #SBC18 sermon on "unity" was to make SBC pastors and laymen THINK God could only lead a Christian to vote one way—GOP, subtly taught by mocking 'division-sowers' as any who would oppose what self-appointed 'leaders' guide them to do. Lies and sin; NOT like Jesus!

YES, this message WILL be added to Christians for Trump (book), and Wit and Wisdom (free book). I'm doing ALL I can to expose all their evil deeds, in detail. It's NOT enough. You can guide me for how to help much more, or suggest someone with such wisdom. Their evils MUST be defeated!

Their one goal? Overturning Roe—any way humanly possible. That one agenda item guides everything they do. I have no problem letting abortion again become a state's rights matter, IF women in red states have equal access, and subsidies for the associated extra expenses. They just want it banned. #Politics

Let the majority decide if Roe gets overturned, and if it doesn't, do everything we can to lessen the number of abortions. Our book lists three things everyone can do. I have also said, if SCOTUS ever overturns Roe, that will be the forever final flip-flop, or they lose credibility on what's 'Constitutional,' because public sentiment can change—often.

One P.S.: The M.O. (modus operandi) of the Christian Cabal is how can we make it look like we are leaders, and have as many Christians know of our agenda, for the least amount of effort and money? Usually, FoxNews, talk radio, and mega churches. One of their staffers said, "image is everything." That sums it ALL up for them!

I'll publicly debate you anytime, anywhere, on Lordship salvation, tithing, prophecy, YOUR lack of full EDBS commitment, or your support of Trump! Your call! Email me. @RobertJeffress @JackNGraham @Franklin_Graham @DrJamesCDobson @JerryFalwellJr and @RevJamesRobison ALL glory to God!

I forgot to add this subtle ploy to slam #TakeAKnee (retweeted, below). It's ALL political, skirting the law through subtlety, but the agenda's message still shines through, loud and clear, as intended. Anything but saying, "I endorse," or "vote Republican." PASTORS even say in pulpits, 'I can't endorse, but...'

[Private account:] So far at #SBC18 Pledge of Allegiance, National Anthem, military service, and God Bless America. Maybe we can also say the Apostle's Creed next time?

Lest I forget, there's also this antic: <https://ti.me/2y4Impb> You are up against a foe of older white men, often rich, forcing their agenda on America, by supporting a #SinToWin strategy that endorsed THIS: <https://bit.ly/2fIESxj> FIGHT! Please email me to join your efforts! AAorg2020@gmail

Gays and abortion. Those have ALWAYS been the red meat topics to get GOP votes among WASP Christians, and, despite Obergefell, they're STILL trying, and ONLY focused on those two narrow issues. Recent moral screw-up, Samantha Bee, detailed this history! <https://bit.ly/2HKqMX9> Know the TRUTH!

And that's the TRUTH! Edith Ann—"And that's the truth" <https://bit.ly/2y5oD8X> (Jn. 8:32, 17:17)

And if you NEVER hear talk radio, tune in for just 30 minutes. They're paid handsomely to spin everything positive concerning tRump, and find needles in the haystack of good news, then make mountains out of mole hills with them! They dupe their audiences to believe he's 'winning,' and doing great, and that Democrats are the Devil. Listen to their shows!

One other trick... They tap pastors with famous names to help in their cause. NEVER are medium-sized or small church pastors showcased at events they televise, then publicize. But now that I said this, watch them do it, so I LOOK like a liar, or inaccurate. God bless you as you work to counter them—SOON!

Maybe I'll drop by your church, soon. WATCH this video, to see the pressure black pastors have, to conform to WHITE preferences. This man is a moral guy, and here, but he admits that that's TRUE!

<https://bit.ly/2MqY5SC> He says you have to compromise some (He may have phrased it, 'go along to get along'—paraphrased), to get where THEY let him (Ex.: TV, etc.).

We tell the TRUTH, here. If your ox gets gored, blame the actions of your ox, and his/her master! Can you handle the truth, because we do NOT back off of it, or back down from it. Sorry, we obey God, and NOT man. (Ac. 4:20, 5:29). Please read John 3:16, in the Bible, today. Thanks (II Cor. 6:2)

One more, I promise: TALK to a far right-winger. They are LITERAL parrots of Hannity and Limbaugh! NO brains for themselves. Conversations with them LITERALLY regurgitate what those two men said in the past week. They're FUNNELS, with no grey mass between the ears. It's SAD! Mouthpiece alt-right slaves!

.@VP Pence will kiss up for votes—SUBTLY—by complementing WE Southern Baptists as "contributing to the moral fabric of America," today, at #SBC18 81 percent of y'all endorsed DEGRADATION of America's morals, being 4 THIS: <https://bit.ly/2fIESxj> REPENT, brethren! READ it—DON'T just stare at the link!

SOON after the Southern Baptist Convention, Jack Graham tweeted that it was much more unified than 'the media' let on. If you watched the tweets, or listened in live, this man tries to spin/gloss everything positive and political.

I speak from personal experience... @RobertJeffress ignores your op-ed, and your call for standing for social justice regarding Botham [black man killed in his own apartment by a cop, who entered his residence, for no good reason]. You have to up the ante! I had to, several levels, elsewhere, because if their reputation or business/money aren't threatened, arrogance treats you as a NOBODY! Protest his church [I have, before]; I'll join you! @FHunscripted (9/17/18)

NO true "Christian" minister can avoid ANY and ALL moral matters that impact politics! The over-focus on Roe, and complete ignoring of two unarmed black men's killings by the hands of cops is a YUGE omission among DFW WASP preachers, because we cherry pick our concerns! @FHunscripted (9/21/18)

People who DON'T want justice deny injustice and say life's NOT fair. People who follow Jesus seek justice! (Hos. 12:6; Pv. 21:15, 37:27-29; Amos 5:24; Isa. 30:18; Mic. 6:8; Isa. 61:8) @FHunscripted Justice is NOT in the eye of the beholder, but IS blind! Morally blind people can't see justice! Preach THAT! (9/28/18)

PASTORS of ALL RACES, active in politics, MUST preach sermons on impartiality, and apply the lesson BEFORE they HYPOCRITICALLY preach on these verses: Lev. 19:15; Deut. 10:17, 16:19; II Chr. 19:7; Job 13:10; Pv. 24:23, 28:21; Rom. 2:10; Col. 3:25; Jas. 2:1; I Tim. 5:21; I Pet. 1:17 @FHunscripted (9/28/18)

Update #1: Red Letter Christians
(11/11-12/18)

I've been to BOTH of your churches SEVERAL times! If we CLAIM to be Christian brothers, MEET IN PRIVATE to get to know each other and air out/discuss your political differences! It's OFTEN like the old beer ad—tastes great, less filling! #CommonGround! @RobertJeffress @FHunscripted (11/11/18)

One of the most powerful sermons I have ever heard, which needs to be broadcast in every like-minded church! WHEN it posts, online, if I remember, I will post it here for any to see. First sermon I've heard by a female pastor: @drgmstewart #FindYourVoice (Mark 16)

There's an event in DFW, Thurs-Sun, to present Christianity in a way that's NOT like Robert Jeffress' version (i.e., political conservatism). It's actually a challenge to him, and CNN is involved. I don't recall the name [Red Letter Christians], but it's a timely and needed rebuke of what's evil in that view, as ALL views are imperfect.

By the way, words Jesus spoke are no greater or lesser than all words in the Bible, and both white and black Christians should be singing the same tune, in opposing all evils, and standing for righteousness (though they don't, from animosity over biased emphases, vs. the WHOLE word of God and unity)! [Private account:] What if the world knew we were Christians by our LOVE and not by our entanglement with empire? We need a revival. Join us in Dallas, Nov. 16-17!...

Subtle politics/quid pro quo... Want to know how CHUMP is trying to secure the military vote? A prime Armed Forces Radio slot to Jeffress, so he LOOKS like a Christian leader, who does his politics on the side, to avoid the Johnson Amendment. I learned of it using my radio SCAN button, today.
@RevDrBarber @FHunscripted

DOES the Armed Services Radio have a variety of religious viewpoints, or would Jeffress' slot be a violation of the Constitution's Establishment Clause? I'm for BALANCE! Perhaps have Frederick follow Bob Geoffrey the Giraffe Jeffress!? @RevDrBarber @FHunscripted Justice requires BALANCE. Atheists?

I WANT the Gospel to go to all, including the .U.S military, but when a warrior can freely choose to listen to Christian radio, that's a whole different ballgame from a government entity controlling what they have access to, like the Armed Forces Radio! @RevDrBarber @FHunscripted There is to be NO favoring of ANY religion, including OURS!

Robert Jeffress said, "We want the Gospel to go to the world, but even if you don't want that, that's O.K., because our motivation is God being glorified." So it's O.K. to be sinful, and NOT share God's [number one, Lk. 19:10] desires, because somehow He gets glory from that? @RevDrBarber @FHunscripted FALSE doctrine!

The MOUTH speaks the motivation! The GREAT W.A. Criswell got First Baptist Dallas on the map from integrity and great preaching! YEARS ago a DFW TV station interviewed Jeffress, who was told by a predecessor, 'one day this will all be yours.' (Mt. 4:9) @RevDrBarber @FHunscripted

FBC DFW's Bob Jeff bragged that MANY churches are dying, as they have no youth; we have the opposite problem—we are overflowing (so he needs ~$80 million, of course). (II Cor. 10:12)
@RevDrBarber @FHunscripted Being Pro-CHUMP is profitable for business; NOT spirituality or moral reputation (I Tim. 3:3)

The Apostle Paul was concerned that the world got fully evangelized, and he NEVER built church business edifices! Jeffress suggested congregants pledge $35,000, on average, for the next two years, for a BUILDING PROGRAM and Armed Forces radio slot! What dupes make him rich with half the average U.S. salary?

.@RevDrBarber @FHunscripted NEITHER Jeffress nor Fall-not-so-well will debate me on THIS, because they can't, and they would LOSE: <https://bit.ly/2jlYEOf> @robertjeffress @JerryFalwellJr Anytime, anywhere! CRICKETS?

.@RobertJeffress and @FHunscripted could EASILY find common ground if they used the WHOLE counsel of God—Ac. 20:27 God OBVIOUSLY hates abortion, poverty, race discrimination and all sins! Jer. 1:5/Ex. 20:13, Pv. 31:8-9/Rom. 2:11 It's NOT either/or, but both/and! Less filling and tastes great—DUH.

.@RobertJeffress ought to suggest ways to end severe poverty, VS. just say lower taxes! @FHunscripted ought to suggest ways to lessen at-will abortions for poorly planned sex/contraception! MEET TOGETHER IN PRIVATE! Frederick has offered MANY times to arrogant Robert! Pride sin!

Will you both agree to spend half a day touring Dallas' MLK Blvd area, and a nearby Planned Parenthood, on a FACTS exploratory and observation mission? @FHunscripted @RobertJeffress I'll drive. I also WON'T hold my breath, or wait by the phone, or monitor my emails! Christian #CommonGround!

AMAZING irony, @FHunscripted [one hour later]! That log must be SO large in his eye, he can barely speak through it, concerning people dividing the body!: Dr. Robert Jeffress Verified account @robertjeffress There are people who try to pull apart Christians rather than unify Christians. Be on watch against those who cause division. Read today's PTV #DailyDevo. <http://bit.ly/2zMgpjs>

Unity to lies, false doctrine and political bias and errant extremes is NOT biblical unity, @RobertJeffress I challenge you to a public debate on ANY Bible priority matter, or any political issue from God's perspective! AAorg2020@gmail.com, or I can bring my Go Evangelize! signs again to you, if you'd like!?

(Mt. 10:34) Jesus came to divide between the truth and falsehood; morality and immorality! His word does the exact same thing (Heb. 4:12) WILL YOU publicly debate me on ANY Bible priority matter, or ANY political position? GO TO THE DFW Red Letter Christians event!, @RobertJeffress

I JUST left a message with your receptionist, as your voicemail's FULL, @FHunscripted. PLEASE gather a few Red Letter Christians conference attendees, and let's LEGALLY take THESE signs to Jeffress' church this Sunday (and contact the media), as he ignores us both! CC: @RevDrBarber Email me.

Arrogant people IGNORE critics, or even good suggestions, or they steal those good ideas, AS IF they were their own!

My kids sing in church next Sunday. Do you think I'm making ANY plans to miss that for a protest of Jeffress' church? NO. If anyone contacts me, I will. I want solutions and reconciliation. Some people love riling up voters to hate, to gain power and look like leaders, through division. Those two NEED to meet!

Update #2: Extremes' Errors

Having just sought to unite Robert Jeffress and Freddie Haynes to common ground, I rail a lot against political extremes! That's too general. Lou Otto said you listen to extremes, but you don't rule by them! I say you take what's good in them, and reject the bad.

In NO particular order, here's what's BAD in political extremes, and why: Open borders—any criminal or terrorist could enter, and our economy would be flooded with too much labor, hurting all of our wages. Ending ICE—that would essentially allow open borders (see answer above).

Amnesty to illegals—That's rewarding law-breaking. Close the border to ALL—We need workers who take jobs Americans don't want, or who are refugees who are employable, or skilled laborers U.S. businesses need! Anchor babies—allowing the entire family to be Americans because a baby was born here is rewarding the bad behavior of trespassing. Ban all Muslims—That's discriminatory against all non-terrorist Muslims!

Reparations—NO white person alive owned slaves, nor even their grandparents; that's passing the sins of far-removed generations on to people today. Affirmative action—IF an equally-qualified person applies for a job, race should be NO consideration for deciding between the two!

All cops are evil or good—Those extreme beliefs are untrue. A handful are bad; root them out. The justice system is perfect, or ignore any imperfections, and throw away the key—Criminals are still humans, some were wrongly convicted, and the punishment should match the crime.

Welfare abuse vs. ended—It's a valid program where it temporarily aids people through severe poverty, to be self-sustaining; it's bad when it over-helps, doesn't help, or helps too long. High or low taxes—Too high hurts the economy; too low doesn't pay governments bills.

Gun grabbing—That's punishing law-abiders' ability to self-defense, hunt, and prevent tyrannical dictatorships. Universal healthcare—That's making people who can afford healthcare they enjoy accept a lesser quality, and have to accept less care. That's NOT fair to them.

Ban all abortions—That makes NO exceptions, and women are going to get pregnant, irresponsibly, and coat hanger/back alley self-help is dangerous, if not deadly. Pro-Israel whatever they do—That's NOT fair to non-terrorist Arabs, and allows Jews to bully and abuse neighbors, in mutually-shared lands.

Hating and discriminating against gays—They are not, by definition, straight, but there's NO good reason to hate or harm their employment and living options because you dislike them being different from their majority.

As you can see, there are MANY extremes, and FEW-to-no reasons to be for them. Our three political books address ~all of them, with rationale, for a smarter way to do things. AmericanAnswers.org

.@RushLimbaugh JUST accused illegal aliens for America's division being greater than in the Civil War days, and blamed the Democrats for wanting them—and that division. AMAZING ignorance, AS IF America had no polar extremes, right and left, before ~30M people came to America. Irresponsible LIES!

I PITY the average talk radio listener, as the U.S. public schools do NOT mandatorily teach debate and rhetoric/logic skills, so they can detect SPIN (i.e., lies). Two examples: Laura Ingraham is claiming many in the E.U. want borderless states and "globalism" (i.e., one central government laws for the world). FEW do!

Lame-baugh is saying Obama was on apology tour, for simply admitting that America isn't perfect. He says the U.S. is a force for good in the world (it has been, and can be again), when he's for the divider-in-chief, and fails to see that every nation can be a force for good; America isn't the only one, and isn't perfect. He thinks weird!

These pundits can't even distinguish between selfish and self-interest! Selfish is caring ZERO about your trade partner's interests—win at all costs. Self-interest is the U.S. putting U.S. interests first, but NOT to an unacceptable detriment to our trade partners! Lame-baugh DOESN'T get win-win! What a DUMMY.

And the average talk radio listener buys what these con artists say, hook, line and sinker, because they CAN'T think for themselves! They AREN'T taught how to analyze, assess, think critically. 'Dupes' and 'SHEEP' are the ONLY proper terms for that type. You could add dumb, as there's NO thinking going on.

I actually find it very difficult to understand how Limbaugh cannot think objectively! EVERYTHING is GOP perfect, Dems 100 percent imperfect. He HAS to know that's a lie, so how does he sleep well at night? Bank account is the answer, and NO fear of God before his eyes, who lent him his talent, says he.

One could debate and rebut talk radio DJ's all day, and get exhausted in the process, but their listeners don't care. They literally are what Lame-baugh calls Dems... 'mind-numb robots.' In conversations at water coolers, they feel so smart parroting what he spews! That's NOT independence or thinking! It's LAZINESS!

BOTH these two alt-right pundits expected France to equate America and Americans with Chump, and were dismayed that Marcon can make distinctions, and knows we are not he! I could never get a job on talk radio, for any amount of money, as you are paid to lie, and truth doesn't matter; say anything to rile people up! SIN!

"Everyone" likes John Lennon's song, Imagine. The tune is catchy, and it depicts people getting along. As to literal specifics, it FAILS in these regards: There is a Heaven and a Hell, possessions are NOT evil, nor countries or religions, per se (i.e., they can have evil aspects). No greed or hunger WOULD be good!

Lame-baugh even LIES that 'you can't get along with Democrats," and rails on RINO's, especially in Arizona. Talk radio is literally the source of most hate in America, but, in response, now it has spurned radicals in the other direction, when BOTH extremes are wrong, and need to repent, now/today! You are sinning!

When you lie/spin, and incite and engender hatred all day long, because that's your free speech right, Lame-baugh, do NOT mention God's name in your program, or address God's people, because whatever talent you may have is thereby on loan from the Devil! @RushLimbaugh

Christians CLAIM they want black-white unity, but near election day, they slander their brother as Social Gospel vs. Health and Wealth Gospel! (11/10/16)

Out of nearly 60 predictions in eight years, we know of three that we have blown (but one was a doozy, and was for a reason, and one was merely delayed one year. See: Changed Parties). That success record did not go unnoticed (See: Recruiting), and we never claimed to be prophets (who are required to be perfect). Governor Christie IS running for president in 2016. Proof? Lap band surgery. That doesn't show discipline, but does show interest in weight loss. (5/7/13)

The GOP has a HUGE challenge reigning in Tea Partiers, salivating for their ideals, when Obamacare harms business even more in a bad economy. What a split. (6/2/13)

It seems OBVIOUS that Rick Perry is running for president, with the new Texas abortion law, to get the religious right conservatives' vote! (7/18/13)

READ my past tweets. You can't manufacture this. I said the Texas abortion law was unconstitutionally restrictive in its effect, and that part needed changing! (10/28/13); I have NO PROBLEM with a STATE ban on abortion after 20 weeks, but back alley coat hangers for women without access is not SAFE for Texas women. The Supreme Court lies ahead! (10/31/13); the Texas law is too restrictive, if Constitutional vs. states' rights as limited access is an undue burden/hardship compared to other states. <http://fxn.ws/2y9VIQ7> I LIKE the intent. (6/27/16)

With her pro-gay marriage stance, I predict #WendyDavis LOSES Texas. State's rights issue, but Texas doesn't go that way (i.e., in a majority way)! GOP wins. (2/13/14)

It's early voting season in Texas. EXPECT white churches to preach against abortion and gay marriage, and black churches against greed, and for helping the poor and seeking justice. (2/23/14)

Who first identified automation and robotics unemployment dangers, as with over-outsourcing, and over-immigration? It WASN'T Trump! (whose been by here before; 5/22/17): [Example:] Expect large unemployment increase in the next 5-10 years if Sam's Club stops using cashiers for all self-checkout, as retailers emulate the Big Dog! (4/17/14)

@HillaryClinton was visited by William and Kate. OF COURSE she will be the Democrat candidate in 2016. They visited no other presidential candidates! #Elections2016 (12/8/14)

My last year's favorite song was When I was your man, by Bruno Mars. This year it's "1,000 years" by Christina Perry. BOTH are quite moral songs! (6/26/14)

You can CHECK my prediction record on Twitter! I said, WELL BEFORE, that Gregg Abbott would be Texas Governor, and that the Missouri Governor should USE vs. just call up his national guard! (11/30/14)

Common sense says Ted Cruz will NOT be president, and ending the IRS only means you pay your taxes to WHO, Ted Cruz? (12/19/14)

@JamesMeroney I LOVE being given insight! I expected this outcome on my 1/29 tweet. It was a GREAT contest, but I was counting on a GREAT Pats quarterback. (2/1/15) [Super Bowl]

THIS would change minds—but I digress (I've got to keep self-motivated to research such old files; 6/28/16): A REASONABLE guest suggested #PlannedButcherhood no longer take money for fetal parts, just donate them for science. SHOW ABORTION LIVE ON PRIMETIME TV! (7/26/15)

[Hours before race] I'm going to go out on a limb and say American Pharaoh FINALLY lays an egg, and balks at winning today. I know nothing about others in the field, so NO predictions. (8/29/15)

[After race] Photo finish American Pharaoh horse race reminds me of my 2015 Super bowl prediction that only came true on LAST play. I Love my "intuition," as some call it. (8/29/15): With 1.5 minutes to go, BOTH sons were in my face, taunting me as the loser team of the Super Bowl. Just keep the faith, and be patient! Believe "your" insight! (2/1/15)

I even got the Cowboys losing out prediction right by a ref's bad call, when I mocked Chris Christie showing up there so often, and dressed in red. This is my excitement vs. pride. (2/1/15)

I DID pick the wrong Ms. Universe, but got both finalists right. I only watched 15 minutes of it, and the most beautiful one lost (i.e., got second place). Trust your 'gut.' (2/1/15): I'm for Ms. U.S.A. number one, then Ms. Columbia, then Ms. Netherlands, in that order. #MissUniverse, based on beauty (as I haven't watched the whole thing). (1/25/15)

The hard part of walking by faith is doubters (Mt. 10:36). I told my family we'd get in the Baylor football stadium! Sic 'em against TCU men's basketball. (2/5/15)

Called it... Frisco ISD is officially closed tomorrow per robo-call two minutes ago. My kids are elated. We'll snowboard and sled, again. Thankful for time with the family. (2/24/15): I expect another snow day tomorrow. More time for my kids to sled and snowboard! I'm waiting on the FISD decision. (2/23/15)

GUILTY, JUST AS I predicted, weeks ago! Texas and U.S.A. justice! DON'T mess with our heroes! #AmericanSniper trial in the great state of Texas! (2/24/15): Kyle Killer MAY have been crazy, under the law, but no doubt in favor of you don't kill U.S. heroes, or you're as bad as a terrorist! Texas court #AmericanSniper (2/20/15)

NEITHER will Santorum be president. I HOPE all those [GOP candidates] push the nominee to be his/her best, and push good policies, but that's all they'll accomplish. #GOP (2/25/15)

IMPLEMENTED Obamacare (i.e., bloated government's poster child) could usher in the first Tea Party Presidential candidate near victory! Cut it back! (8/29/15)

The @GOP WILL listen at least once more to the religious right; our vote and support is NOT guaranteed, or to be discounted, @SpeakerBoehner, et al. (2/23/15)

#Carson, #Paul, Palin, Rubio, Christie, #Cruz and #Jindal will NOT win the presidency. Mark my words, THIS date, to see my skill at prediction! @GOP (2/25/15)

NO CHANCE of Webb, Chafee, or O'Malley, as president. This is NOT even a prediction—it's common sense! Few said how to get more jobs, but infrastructure and education. (10/13/15)

WHO was it who said ISIS did it, when the media said Al Qaeda, and the French president only said ISIS, today? Insight with God? Justice Kennedy is NOT going to retire at the end of this SCOTUS term, is my prediction. I can be wrong; I'm not often, with my predictions. 'SCOTUS' means Supreme Court. (6/26/17)

SAD to say I predicted this right, as well! (11/2/17): Does anyone remember the adult-kid duo (D.C. snipers) who shot people on highways, hidden behind obstacles, and terrorized the east coast? Fear vs. peace is their goal in society. (I Th. 5:3) Wal-Marts would be prime target, or crashing into many gas pumps at Buc-ee's, or large convenience stores, which starts a fire. (10/6/17)

Locally, a little Indian gal, missing, is said to have been left outside by a tree at 3 am, as punishment for not drinking her milk. B.S.! No kid that age is up then. Parents are suspects number one, to me, especially a male in the family. My guess is she's dead, via a male in the family. Extreme anger, NOT about milk. (10/11/17) Unfortunately, called it RIGHT on BOTH accounts—dead, and by a family male. Sherin Mathews Watch NBC DFW, tonight. (10/23/17) RE: <http://wapo.st/2myy090>

Sadly, I called this quite accurately. Prayers for Manhattan. (10/31/17): AFTER the Vegas shooter, I warned, give it some time, and we will forget our vigilance and be more subject to more attacks. I feel we are at that point, today. Poor, busy memories, and no real desire to spend time, effort and money to prevent such from occurring; just a little. I expect repeat events, sadly! (10/30/17)

Franken will resign, in my opinion. (12/6/17)

Guess I was RIGHT! I was told, at church, about the game, and said (to a staffer) that I didn't expect we [Baylor men's basketball] could beat Kansas. (1/20/18): I wore my Baylor shirt to church tonight. I didn't even know they were playing, and doubted they'd win. SO happy with this status check!!![when they were leading an upset] Sic 'em bears! <http://bit.ly/2GKFGgA> (1/20/18)

I watch football so sparingly, I had to Google who's in the playoffs. I'm for the Pats, all the way! <http://bit.ly/2Bisls1> But also, well wishes for our neighbor on the Eagles, Ajayi! (1/21/18)

Insight? I said this TWO years ago! I like Jeb, but could've said this entire first year of his presidency! "Jeb Bush warns Trump could hurt GOP in 2018 midterms." <http://on.msnbc.com/2Em68yO> (1/27/18)

For clarification, I did NOT predict, but I do WANT the gal whose dad (gospel singer from the projects) died, to win. Zaviah had been consistently been the best (and has the most unique sound), until last go-round. I DO predict one of those two gals will win—NOT one of the guys. #TheFour (2/3/18)

There are SEVERAL intricacies regarding Korea... 1. His large nuclear test may have crushed his underground facility. No one knows, for sure, outside his regime. 2. He and his dad have been a desperate for YEARS, and he may have tired of being the crazed bully whose people hate him, as with the world. 3. His finances could have been wearing thin, with all those missiles. 4. He might have latched onto an opportunity to get revenge on his rocket man accuser by partnering with South Korea. 5. He might have sincerely wanted Korean unification. And, 6. It could be a ruse, where he secretly retains capabilities, say Iran. Time will tell! (4/30/18, posted before Netanyahu revealed his findings)

I FULLY expect Chump to abandon the Iran deal, which is NOT a good thing! What you do is monitor compliance, renegotiate a good deal when it expires, and bomb their facilities if they ever pursue nukes to the point they succeed, or start threatening with them (if already achieved). #CommonSense (5/8/18, posted at 9:21am, well before Chump's announced decision)

Who called it an hour ago #TheFour [Technically, two hours prior]?: I think the 'rock and roll is alive and well' guy is going down. #TheFour Too much the same every week. Good, but the same. (7/12/18)

I'd say Colton or the ice hockey guy are gone. WHY would you ask the host of the show about fantasy suite "rules?" Too immature for her. #TheBachelorette (7/16/18)

Predicted the final four on the Final Four, as well as the winner (again!):

SO FAR, she's the best [Ali], then James. HOPING someone as good, or better, gets into the mix next week. I'm 4 the mom kicked off last show coming back [Whitney], whose hubby was in the crowd. (7/13/18)

I've got to go with, 1. The cancer-fighting rapper, or, 2. The young African-American girl who sung her way onto the show two weeks ago. My number two choice is a better singer, for recordings, but the theatrics/performance and intensity of the rapper should give her the nudge, in live shows. #TheFour (7/29/18, before James' final performances]

Go with JAMES! #TheFour  (8/2/18)

Jamal Khashoggi (10/11/18)

Note: Compare dates: Many of these posts were online well before any major media outlet reported what we stated!

These are unconfirmed claims, but my Jordanian amigo says the U.S. can't do much against the Saudis, for the death of the WAPO journalist, as they can start taking other currencies for oil, and Russia, Iran and China are already accepting such, as with gold. He says that's why Gaddafi was killed, as he offered Africa oil without dollars.

He says Turkey's president was good friends with the dismembered journalist, and he came from a very rich family, and many Saudi citizens respected him, and the gang of 15 will likely all be killed for a botched job, because the guy's fiancé is witness he went in and never came out;

The Saudis are claiming their embassy cameras didn't record, just pictures, and he could have left out the back, but Turkey cameras dispute that, and they're saying pictures the Saudis are offering of his exit are VERY old.

Were it not for the gal/fiancé, they would have claimed he left, so not our problem. one of the 15 is a known butcher of humans, says my amigo. He said in Egypt, North Korea and Saudi Arabia, you don't speak ill of the leaders, or they have you killed. #EvilRegimes They can't take free speech, or truth, if it portrays them in [an accurate] bad light.

U.S.'s debt has us over a barrel for keeping the dollar the world's reserve currency, or economy will be in the crapper, he says. And he claims Chump flew to the Saudis, soon after his inauguration, and got over $100 trillion to keep our economy afloat.

Oil rich crescent Arab nations are invested in the U.S. economy, but it's the dollar as currency which is why we are hamstrung. He says both D's and R's liked/respected the journalist. What a conundrum! Does anyone see how events like this can trigger prophetic events?

The nations opposed to Israel are uniting, and if the U.S. dollar is jettisoned for the Euro, gold or Yuan, America goes virtually bankrupt, setting the world economy in a tail spin, which is the PERFECT opportunity for the coming world ruler! DUH!

My buddy says Turkey is protecting the journalist's fiancé, as I asked, isn't she in severe danger? The Saudis will just kill the 15 thugs, he says, and find others for such functions. Washington Post publishes possible last photo of missing Saudi journalist

I asked my buddy how NO BLOOD could be found in the Saudi embassy [consulate] in Turkey, and he said they have surgical, sterile plastic-based coverings for "the butcher" to do his evil craft, which he has done for many years, which causes the least amount of blood. I told him the remains are already buried or cremated.

My buddy says the Saudi thugs rented hotel rooms for four days, and left Turkey within four hours. Turkish media: Video shows team of alleged Saudi assassins.

On Jamal Khashoggi, ONLY getting the ORIGINAL video and pictures from Saudi consulate would help the investigation (probably already destroyed). DO YOU NOT THINK that trained assassins PLAN their murders to do so clinically, so as to leave no traces of evidence, like blood or fingerprints? (10/14/18)

There are IDENTIFIABLE faces, and HOW could they have done so in the Saudi consulate? Turkey knows who the 15 were, if I recall correctly (see next Retweet)... Trump Says 'Rogue Killers' May Be Involved in Saudi Journalist Case. (10/15/18)

Rogue killers? Royal B.S.! <https://wapo.st/2O0G3pV> Trump is INCOMPETENT for office! (10/15/18)

Update #1: Khashoggi Killer
(10/16/18)

And since we were out of commission, all day (due to a power outage), I heard the Saudis are taking blame for Khashoggi, but NOT from the top, but blaming consulate personnel. 1. The prince ordered it, or knew it would occur! 2. NO subordinate does such on their own. 3. They're LYING like DJTs 'rogue killer' LIE! (10/16/18)

While on an errand, yesterday, Bible in hand, I LITERALLY opened to these INTERESTING verses, and took THESE notes: Prophets tell politicians what God wants them to know (Jer. 34:3-4, 6, 13, etc.); Their messages can be positive or negative, or both (Jer. 34:15-17, 42:4), and come to them (Jer. 34:8, 12 et al).

My wife surprised me with an early Christmas gift, but I surprised her that I already own Billy Graham's book, A Prophet With Honor—since seminary days—so I said I'll return it, and you use the refund for your own gift from me. Right now I'm 'gonna get the book out to show her—I saw it yesterday.

I'm NOT 'gonna say what an appropriate punishment ought to be for the Saudis, but to say that the World Court should get justice for a murder. #Khashoggi (10/16/18)

@.KingSalman For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him will not perish, but have eternal life. John 3:16, the Bible لذا أحب الله العالم أنه أعطى ابنه الوحيد، وأن كل من يؤمن به سوف لا يموت، ولكن لها الحياة الأبدية. جون 3:16, الكتاب المقدس

Now the two liars (DJT and MBS) have agreed on a ruse of rogue killers? HOW did a secure consulate allow intruders? WHY didn't consulate personnel call the Turkey police? .@KingSalman Turkey has exterior videos! @tcbestepe WHAT a web we weave, when we try to deceive! #LiarsInChief (10/16/18)

So let me get this straight, did #Khashoggi DIE by rogue killers before or after he DIED from a botched interrogation by Saudi consulate personnel? The BIG headline should've been Jamal was RESURRECTED, only to be killed again! It must have been heart-attack inducing questions! @KingSalman

Very strong denials convince this man every time!: Putin, Saudi prince. Where did the 'rogue killers' explanation originate? <https://on.msnbc.com/2CAIO0b>

IF the #Khashoggi body is in the possession of anyone other than rogue killers, HOW did that happen? Why would Saudi consulate employees hide it, if they knew rogue killers killed him? WHY would the body be in Saudi Arabia? Inquiring minds want to know, @KingSalman #TotalTransparency

Update #2: MSB Not Slapped on the Wrist (with Handcuffs)
(10/17/18)

#BRIBERY to lessen the justified heat! SIN, and blood money! The cost of Khashoggi's life! Saudi Arabia's $100M pledge arrives in American accounts as Pompeo lands in Riyadh: report <https://fxn.ws/2J5G4rS> #FoxNews (10/17/18)

I was 100 percent impressed with @GlennBeck guest, today (I DIDN'T catch the name), who said the Saudi's MUST be punished, but you do NOT ruin the kingdom! Beck also hinted of a possible video of the dismembering in front of the executive in charge of the whole operation, WHILE #Khashoggi was alive! INTOLERABLE!

Let's BRIEFLY discuss evil people's actions to cover sin: You sever body parts of a journalist; blood is everywhere. What do U do? 1. SINCE it WAS planned, you already had a sterile environment where blood was caught by thick plastic, in my opinion (i.e., CONTAIN the evidence).

2. You already ensured all pictures and video didn't work, or was destroyed. 3. You clean up and sanitize/sterilize the crime scene (i.e., mop, paint, smell remediation, etc.). 4. You had the body sent back to Saudi Arabia, and burned or buried, and if buried, in a locale NO ONE can access.

5. You ensure NO ONE working at the consulate that day would be a nark—they'd have to be onboard. I've been told 82 or so people in there took the day off (UN-confirmed). 6. Finally, you deny, deny, deny until the cows come home. THIS is how evil crooks and criminals plan! NO evidence remaining, or you are a complete idiot at planning your sinful job!

Then you disallow any outsiders access to the consulate premises until all minor touch-ups are fixed, and everyone is onboard with your LIE of a story. I'm NOT saying this is exactly how the #Khashoggi MURDER occurred, but any cop or lawyer knows the tricks of the criminally insane. Deny and hide evidence. And one more:

Have a plausible explanation for what happened. On that count, their evil 15 thugs and their boss accomplices didn't seem to be very smart in their very evil deed! They HAD to have known Turkey had prying eyes (i.e., technology/cameras), and listening devices, so these bumbling idiots got caught. HURRAY!

I've chased a bank robber before. He had to have known money was there that day, approximately where it was, and that the security officer could be disarmed (which the criminal achieved)! Wisely, he covered his face. I only had a rock to throw at him, but stopped in my tracks when he pointed that gun!

THINK of 9-11. PLANNING goes into sinfully successful crimes. There's NO WAY khashoggi's murder wasn't planned weeks before! WHO picked the 15 A-holes? Where's the bone saw right now (it has DNA all over it). GIVE THE WORLD the remains, and ALL will see he was brutally murdered. GIVE THE BODY!

Perhaps U.S. intelligence has satellite video of the 15 A-holes returning to Saudi Arabia, and where they took their suitcase(s) of body parts. DIG THEM UP, or look for ashes from a burning, likely inside a building, so NO satellites could detect the smoke. HANG all 15 of the SOB's! Forgive my cussing.

Would those 15 A-holes like to be interrogated by an independent body that uses the same methods they used on #Khashoggi? That might sound like justice to some people! I hope they're all killed, PERIOD. And I don't really care what method. The Middle East has some pretty inhumane methods compared to the U.S.A.!

There's little-to-no chance this operation didn't go to the highest rung! Khashoggi was NOT insulting or criticizing anyone else but the BOY whose FEELINGS got hurt, because he's a WEAK, so-called 'leader' who NEEDS to be deposed, if not worse. Sissy of a man. Rot you know where.

I've also been told #Khashoggi was lured to the consulate under the ruse that Saudi citizens in turkey need some sort of paperwork from them to go through with his proposed wedding to his Turkish fiancé. NO media I read is covering that angle. That shows planning, and deviously evil intent!

And if you look at the stern face of the doorman, I believe even he knew what was 'gonna occur! He may have even been a back-up, in case Jamal turned and ran. He may or may not have smiled, but he's VERY stiff, and looks quite guiltily suspicious, like he was in on the plot. Review the video!

CHUMP said NOTHING about Dr. Ford, then said he found her credible, HOURS later (when polls were in), then poked holes in her story after LAWYERS educated him! NOT ONLY is that flip-flopping like a fish out of water, I'm poking CONSISTENT holes in his claims regarding #Khashoggi! NO flips or flops!

And that "idiot" brought up the connection between Kavanaugh and Khashoggi. In lawyer terms, HE opened that door. He can ask his band of merry ambulance chasers what that term means, just like he had ZERO insight on Dr. Ford's testimony, on the spot. He gets advised REGULARLY! I don't! Totally solo.

If you don't hold politicians ACCOUNTABLE for lies and flip flops, you DESERVE to be Scrooged! tRump said severe penalties to the Saudi's, then rogue killers, now rush to judgment. HOW STUPID ARE PEOPLE WHO HEAR THIS Chump, and let him flip flop 24/7? NONE of those three claims are consistent with each other. (Pv. 14:15)

And add in, the lying boy prince denied any knowledge, 'emphatically,' so CHUMP believes him, as did Putin concerning poisoning. NO cop or lawyer accepts such B.S. from suspects. Just watch the First 48 TV show, if you aren't one. You EXPECT them to lie, and if they planned it, their story is emphatically lied about!

I'm NOT the lying type, but I have learned how liars behave: As sincerely as humanly possible, with emotion in your voice, look people straight in the eye, and vehemently deny allegations that hurt your cause, and ensure all evidence can't be proven before you do. Act angry that you'd be accused of such. #TRICKS!!!

Here's how I envision MBS arranging the hit. You guys (butcher and goon squad on staff) know what to do (meaning they've done it before, possibly). We know Khashoggi is coming in for his marriage license (perhaps on a date certain). But whatever you do, this NEVER came from me! Don't screw up!

Whether 82 employees took the day off, or not (unconfirmed), all the demon men in that consulate had to do was usher Khashoggi to the next door residence, professionally and politely, and all consulate workers needn't be in on the next door hit! Treat him like a VIP, until out of their presence.

I DON'T know how Jamal didn't scream loud enough for people not on the take in the consulate to hear, but perhaps he was muzzled, before injected? I DOUBT there's a sound proof room in that residence. Maybe the music was NOT just in ear phones, but pumped into cover his screams? Cloth in mouth and cuffed?

A slit throat muzzles the vocal chords, before he was beheaded, but why hasn't anyone mentioned his screaming at his fingers being sliced off? Threat of gun to his head/temple if he peeped? Reports are the executive of that residence watched the incident. You've got to be a sick puppy, deserving prison!

I wonder what information they sought from #Khashoggi before his death? Their "investigation" was NOT an interrogation, but torture and murder. FULL extent of the law should apply to everyone involved, and every accomplice. And if applicable law goes light, use international tribunals. #Justice!

To allow outsiders in the complex? HIDING INCRIMINATING EVIDENCE! That's the ONLY explanation. If he left, you could allow in anyone, and there would be nothing to hide, LIARS!!! Sinful demons.

The Almighty said: { And who kills a believer intentionally, his punishment is Hell Immortal in it and God's wrath on him and a curse and promise him great torment } Surat Al-Nisa/39 The Great truth of God. #مَلِكُهَا دِي هَش translation of #Khashoggi's fiancée's tweet (see below)

IF, as first reported by the Saudi's, Khashoggi may have slipped out the back, WHY has it taken 1.5 to 2 weeks to allow outsiders in the complex? HIDING INCRIMINATING EVIDENCE! That's the ONLY explanation. If he left, you could allow in anyone, and there would be nothing to hide, LIARS!!! Sinful demons.

Jerry Maguire: SHOW ME THE BODY! A botched "interrogation" does NOT end up like that. WHERE ARE YOU HIDING IT, buried or burned? NO report you concoct can compete with the world SEEING his body, to know what happened! @tmj_SAU_GOVERN @Kingdom__Saudi @KingSalman #Evidence > words!

One refinement of a past post... I hope all 15 thugs responsible for Khashoggi get justice. Whether laws in their jurisdiction require death vs. life in prison is NOT my purview. Certainly, only after a trial, based on evidence. I was merely suggesting they are worthy of murder consequences.

#Khashoggi interrogation went wrong/botched? A knife or saw that was supposed to scare him accidentally cut his fingers off and beheaded him. We have no idea how that happened, and such weapons are always part of an interrogation, right? (SARCASM) @tmj_SAU_GOVERN @Kingdom__Saudi @KingSalman

Conversation somewhere in the Saudi's inner circle: One or more of you 15 gents—and/or our subordinates—has to take the fall for this—whatever the cost—because dad and I aren't, and if any of you squeal/turn/rat us out, we'll kill ALL of your family members. Now, what story shall we tell the press?

Unless the world SEES #Khashoggi's body, NOTHING anyone says from the White House or Saudi Arabia will mean ANYTHING, as we all know what happened, and I'll bet their coming words will sugar-coat the actual facts. I NEVER let ANY politician lie to me, because WE are their bosses! (10/18/18)

WHERE'S THE DAMN BODY? IT TELLS EVERYTHING!!! Rights group calls for Saudi Arabia to "immediately produce" Jamal Khashoggi's body. (10/20/18)

Chump accepts Saudi denial, but now furthering questions? This man-boy doesn't stick with ANY decision; just conducts polls and changes like a reed in the wind! #Unstable #Unrooted! Trump questions Saudi story on Khashoggi as lawmakers reject new explanation. (10/21/18)

Disclaimer/Clarification

One final thing about our "predictions," here: If our posts cause someone [like Christian Cabal members] to make a decision, to try to prove our prediction "wrong," they served their purpose, and were true, nonetheless! I'll bow out of the way, and let you soak that in, until you understand it. (1/21/18)

III-C2. INNUENDOS

(See also: Recruiting: Sermon Innuendos)

In order to communicate with me and not violate the Johnson Amendment (a concern of his), or show partiality to just one potential candidate), the following statements were interjected into sermons (or other identified medium) by a handful of famous Christian leaders, to encourage myself and instruct myself to run for office (Cf.: <http://bit.ly/2qaIPQt>). Over time (i.e., two years), their clarity and frequency became more obvious, to the point I threatened to leave church if they didn't stop, as I was there to worship. One time he actually mentioned the Johnson Amendment in a sermon—I had never heard of it before. I tweeted back I am not a politician, so it doesn't apply.

He signaled me MANY times in sermons. I noted nearly every one. However, now he's ticked off that I don't do any man's bidding, so our contract's OFF, for me. (6/26/16)

Beginning with my eldest son unexpectedly winning a church award nomination for leadership, on a mission trip, the following were stated (not in chronological order). Few are dated, as I did not record them as I heard them, being more humored by them a lot of the time. Only by God's Spirit (Jn. 14:26) did I actually recall all these as I wrote this book (and there were several others I forgot or never caught)...

SO proud of my oldest son being nominated for the Dan Novack D.C. mission trip leadership award! We were PLEASANTLY shocked at the news! (7/24/14)

Disclaimer: We are not, I repeat not claiming that every innuendo was intentional vs. coincidental, but many if not most. Only a lie detector could determine the exact number.

PERSONAL

Manager. 'Get an agent' (or manager)! Said in a sermon.

Truth. 'God speaks to you—are you listening?' Said in a sermon.

P.S.: Another recent one-liner was that 'God speaks through you.' Also, do you [now] see why changing the Johnson Amendment was SO important to Headmaster, with all our political tweets? (5/15/17)

Obedience. 'God's will is do what the Spirit says.' Said after I refused to go forward for church invitation for any who felt God leading them into political leadership, given that the Lord warned me there was a reason not to. When Hillary lost, and the Christian Cabal's tactics and chumming up to Chump was exposed, I then knew why.

Fear? In an earlier sermon, he mentioned that 'Peter wouldn't get out of the boat.' Apparently, though most all I have ever written mentioned the year 2020, that person (if not others with him) strongly urged my running in 2016. The illustration comes from Peter being called by Christ to walk on water, or do the impossible (in human terms only!). Later, a respected family friend staffer repeated the theme in his own sermon, there (<http://bit.ly/2zAysdQ>).

Layman. 'God can really use you as a layman.' Said in a sermon, and true for every layman, but perhaps a reference to how God also used us to help change that church for the better.

Victory. 'Christian victory comes from complete focus' (not distracted, or ever quitting). Said in a sermon, months after I never let up on the call for U.S. pastors to change.

Missions. Church mission trip venues for 2017, among a very few others, were my oft-mentioned favorite American vacation sites—Colorado, and Destin Florida. [Hence, our shelter dog's name, Destin Vail]

MEDIA

No Compromise. My oft-mentioned favorite Christian musical artist, Keith Green (RIP) was mentioned in a Saturday Night service, referencing his book title, No Compromise, within a week and a half of my addressing it on Twitter, as I had on many prior occasions, there. (~Aug, 2014)

Clark Kent. In a sermon, a reference to headmaster feeling like ‘superman’ was mentioned in a Sunday morning service, just after I had tweeted the following:

Clark Kent by day, Superman ONLY when God requires it. One networker called this author that when he saw my resume. He must see God in that, as I'm a nobody. (10/29/13)

My guess is, if you got a recording of one of the two following Sunday services, you would hear that reference.

Revival. After repeated Twitter calls for Christian ministers to seek national revival, I learned of a book I had never heard of, in a Saturday evening service, by a man who I had, which book addresses revival, in a prophetic way (Leonard Ravenhill's, Why Revival Tarries)

Lawyers. Live streaming the Southern Baptist Convention's Pastor's Conference in Houston, at a time when Dr. Graham was not fully on board, he mentioned to a large audience of pastors, pejoratively, “You know lawyers,” a phrase I repeated her often thereafter. (June, 2013)

In response, I found a BFF of his in the ministry advise him (on Twitter) that sometimes your critics have a kernel of truth—listen to them. So I adopted a stage name for a week of the Colonel of truth (in the following tweet):

Listen to your critics—sometimes they have a kernel of truth? Our website is a popcorn bag full (Pastor's Conference 2013). (10/24/13)

Church "leaders" HATE my tone. Read the Bible—that tone is wherever God's people are resistant to His priorities. You know lawyers (SBC pastor's conference, 6/11-12/13)

SBC pastors conference (‘you know lawyers’): <http://bit.ly/2yNmixUI>; <http://bit.ly/2y1Nk5I> (4/26/13)

Shorts. I had previously found a paragraph in his ‘most personal book’ which mentioned critics at church even coming in shorts. That's about all I wear, unless it's too cold, or too formal a service.

A few years back, his speech at the SBC pastor's conference in Houston mentioned, "you know lawyers." He considered me a pest, then ~loved me for awhile. His book, Unseen, mentions people who can be trouble-makers in church, even in [casual] shorts. I ONLY wear shorts when it's hot outdoors. Reconcile! (6/26/16)

SBC pastors conference interview (“you know lawyers”) and book (his most personal, and “shorts-wearing” critics). (8/24/17)

Influence #1. It could have been mere irony, and it certainly sounds presumptuously arrogant, but one Saturday night the second in command preached from a book on the seven most influential people, which detailed traits they shared in common. I even took the name of the book's agent, and sought to get him to get my book published, but he did not believe the experiences I am telling you about here, being a quite young-sounding guy.

Influence #2. The church also had two Friday morning men's Bible studies entitled how to live an extraordinary life, and one on a believer's identity in Christ. Again, it sounds presumptuously arrogant, but I believe headmaster started to see the extraordinary, even miraculous ways God worked through leading one such as lowly me.

FAMILY

Sacrifice. On Mother's Day, 2017, Jack said, let's pray 'for you moms saddened that you can't provide as you would like for your kids,' knowing I wrote full-time for so long, and my having detailed the sacrifices our family had endured as a result.

Salvation. When I once I tweeted about the song I was saved on (There is a Fountain), Jack had the choir present that song in their repertoire, possibly to see if I might tear up (to see my sincerity). It worked. They also did an illustration detailing the life of its author!

OTHER

Outsiders

The pastor occasionally used connections at Christian radio stations I often listen to (though he didn't do so not real often). Examples:

1. 660AM Radio (I often tweet rebuttals to Mr. Davis, so Graham knows I listen to this one): Mark Davis says Christians are not to criticize elders like evangelical leader Dobson (the day after I did, for his flip-flopping to Trump).
2. Local Air 1 station (Graham knew I listened to it, as I first found it on a walk, and posted about that): The male D.J. jokes that his superpower is teleporting (an issue I posted about the day before).

Sermons (Positive or Neutral)

1. Show of Hands

VERY commendably, in response to a tweet exhorting pastors to have their members bow their heads, close their eyes, and sincerely reveal if they did much evangelizing, by a (secret) show of hands, Dr. Graham did just that, in a sermon. I peaked, and the response was abysmal (if I recall, there were zero hands raised). His surprising and expressed indignation at that result impressed myself, and I tweeted about it afterwards:

You, yourself, asked a Saturday evening crowd to raise their hands if they would be involved in evangelism! You KNOW so few responded! That's a PROBLEM. Five percent win one soul—ever! (6/26/16)

You had to 'browbeat' the congregation, one time, when no one responded to your Saturday evening invitation! "We're not playing church, here." I think you said. That's a PROBLEM! (6/26/16)

2. Michael Jordan

When the pastor's 2016 recruiting date agenda was rebuffed by myself (never having aspired to 2016), sometime before it was humanly impossible to still enter the race, he preached a sermon about Michael Jordan's comeback, after a stint in major league baseball (posted below). The Christian Cabal was desperate for a 2016 win!

He even preached a sermon about having a comeback, using Michael Jordan as the illustration, ~1.5 months ago. You CAN'T reconcile with just one party! I'm always open! (6/26/16)

3. Book Title

He also referenced in a sermon, the irrationality of the idiom of never speaking about politics or religion, a not-so-veiled reference, as well, to his being fully aware of both the title and contents of our latest political book.

He also referenced the old phrase, you can't speak of politics or religion; that's the sub-title to our latest political book. Thanks for the insider's plug, JG! (11/3/16)

4. Bed Falls

I had tweeted that I suffer both shoulders aching, constantly, a year after falling out of bed in my sleep. In one sermon in 2017, Dr. Stephens (the Saturday night preacher) quoted the statistic that 500,000 end up in the Emergency Room every year from falling out of bed. Many times these little anecdotes got thrown into sermons, as a friendly way to relate/bond, and show that they still watched our account. I could recount many mini innuendos, including references to our love of dogs, an 'imperfect church' tweet of mine, defending doctors being rich (when I complained about healthcare costs), etc.

5. VIP's

Very recently, Dr. Graham's 'best friend,' and a minister I highly respect, and quote on Twitter a lot (for the re-quota, 'you have what you tolerate'), O.S. Hawkins, preached a sermon from his book (written a year earlier, which I never knew anything about) about being a 'VIP' (<http://bit.ly/2hKIFMo>). You'll have to ask him, but the acronym sufficiently describes God's work in our life the past three years, which is why I believe he preached on it, then.

6. Heavenly Band of Witnesses

When I tweeted about my deceased mom seeming to be with me, at sad moments (reflecting on her suicide), in a sermon Jack biblically alluded to Heb. 12:1. Not every encounter was confrontational; in fact, MOST weren't!

Sermons (More Negative)

1. X-Mas

Because Twitter had been limited to 140 characters, I often referred to Christmas by "X-Mas," to save space. In one sermon he took offense to that, and said using the 'X' was disrespectful, to which I replied:

IF "X-mas" offends you on TWITTER, when well-intentioned, pick BIGGER social issues to attack! THINK of the 'X' as the cross of Christ, sir! (Tit. 1:15) (12/25/14)

2. Trouble-Maker

On one of the extremely rare occasions I attended on Sundays, Dr. Graham (without naming me) says how the audience would not believe how much trouble I have caused him, then goes on to list all his ministerial accomplishments, as if there were some kind of competition for spiritual leadership of his church, or perhaps even in the wider body of Christ(?). I posted about it, at the time:

He visibly rolls his eyes, shakes and bows his head, and says words like, "you have no idea" how difficult it's been dealing with this guy; you DID the work [in other words, it paid off!!] (6/26/16)

He literally shuffles his neck, rolls his eyes, and says something like, "you don't know the half of it." He knows in his heart that God used me to change him [namely, his church practice]! (6/27/16)

I HOPE it's online, the Sunday sermon where he brags of his SBC feathers in his cap, and physically writhes thinking what a pain I've been to him, he says. (6/27/16)

3. Move-On

In one sermon, well after our many clashes (which we never biblically resolved, man to man, apparently from Johnson Amendment fears of his; See: Reconciliation), he says (and I post):

Do "you want to rehash it over and over, or do you want to move on, and discuss the good times?"
Reconciliation is one to one, and not in code language—READ the Bible, I'm right. (6/26/16)

4. Salem Communications

In our 'Church Conflicts' section, I tell the (somewhat negative) TRUTH about my experience working for KKHT radio in Houston. Just recently he had a Dallas executive from its ownership company testify that their company really, really loves God's word (then proceed to state statistics about how many books, chapters, verses and commands it has, apparently to show that love?)

He has Johnnie Moore speak—twice [possibly to show the Christian Cabal is producing some results for the persecuted Church; 8/4/15 and 10/29/17], and Salem Communication's DFW director defend how much their business loves the Bible (proven by his citing how many chapters, books, words and commands are in it—academic trivia knowledge of the Good Book, ~Oct., 2017).

5. Over-Paid Executives

I heard in a sermon, 'we're NOT against the rich.' GOD is, if they are ungenerous! WASP conservatives NEVER call for the Giving Pledge! (I Tim. 6:17-19; Lk. 19:8) (5/24/17)

Personal

P.S.: HOW DOES he find one tweet, and two phrases from both our book and [SBC] pastor's conference [in Houston] aimed at him? Is he clairvoyant, or MIGHT God ACTUALLY lead and speak to him?
(Apparently deleted post)

Proud of you... God's using you. We don't know who the [Heb. 12] cloud of witnesses is, but soon Jesus will break through the clouds. People don't mince words when they're dying. (3/30/15)

I've enjoyed the banter through your sermons, and my rebuttals here! I'm AMAZED any Christian "leader" could NEVER reconcile. Isn't that the basis of our faith? (5/18/17)

I'm GRATEFUL to God for ALL you did, and for all the changes, and I STILL believe your church is the number one most biblical church in America. Deny you know me, on lie detector! (6/26/16)

Note: As proof pastors are very connected, as colleagues, in early Fall, 2018, I expressed serious distress over this trying process, and all of a sudden the exact same message in my DM (Twitter direct messages) read, "You are blessed," from my family's pastor's geographically nearest mega church pastors, Ed Young Jr., and Chuck Swindoll.

Conclusion

A certain American church [in North Dallas] has COMPLETELY turned around their FULL commitment to world evangelism! EVERY pastor should follow their example!!! (12/24/13)

I have kept quiet, and humbly anonymous long enough. I NEVER begrudged anyone using my political or religious materials, but you will acknowledge the source! (6/27/16)

III-C3. RECRUITING

Of the up to seven time-frames (one major, two slightly less blatant, and three smaller attempts, and counting—and the dozens of consistent innuendos), over a period of two years (Mar., 2015-Sept., 2017) I was encouraged to run for high office. The most obvious was the original effort, which included several famous pastors dropping by our church (apparently, among other things, for them to see I'm a real person and church-goer—not a phantom, like Bosley on Charlie's Angels), their appearance often reinforcing to myself their attempt to get my attention (usually using sermon innuendos, so as not to possibly violate the Johnson Amendment). Besides our 'Innuendos' section, and 'famous drop-bys' section, the first and most awakening 'recruiting' event for myself was when Dr. James Dobson dropped by our church. The month or more prior, I had used Twitter to strongly seek to wake up many well-known American pastors to let their voices be publicly heard, as, since the Alabama Supreme Court ruling, it looked to me like gay marriage was going national, and I heard NO significant voices of opposition which our Supreme Court might ever hear. The slam dunk seemed certain, if no one in the Christian community raised any opposition to state's rights being trampled by the feds, or the institution of marriage being historically redefined. I had always argued that gay people should be free to contractually benefit in every way, the same as married couples, but opposed nationalizing gay marriage. However, once the decision came down, unlike so many in the Christian Cabal, I accepted it as the people having spoken, and especially legal precedent, and I even argued a strong case on Twitter for not seeking to overturn precedent, lest SCOTUS look fickle, inconsistent, politicized, and legal 'marriages' be disrupted thereby. I also argued that if Obergefell were ever overturned, it could never be overturned again, or SCOTUS would lose all credibility, as not only hearing changed circumstances in society, but what is Constitutional being fully and rightly seen, thereafter, as a mere subjective and political flavor of the day concept—a problem which could plague the Court well beyond the gay marriage issue for years to come. You may have heard some politicians pick up on some of this precedent argument in the Gorsuch hearings.

So what, specifically, was being communicated to myself in that church visit from Dr. Dobson (followed by my family's pastor's National Day of Prayer hosting, where a Texas politician and friend of his stated that power is not in the court house or the state (or white) house, but the church house?), and the church hosting the North Texas Presidential Forum?

Specifically, if you recall our Twitter account was being regularly monitored for contract breaches, I had posted content on several matters which were directly honed in upon, to interject these specific innuendos, to direct that appeal directly to myself:

Dobson's experience in the oval office, meeting up with 6'5" Secret Service men (I am large, and 6'4.5"), his love of basketball (which the pastor sought twice to emphasize, accurate for James, or not), his favorite rock group being the Beatles, and his having flipped a coin on multiple occasions with his future wife, and accurately predicting the outcome (the hamburger reference). See our 'Predictions' section for just a few predictions these people would have seen before that interview (along with several thereafter—only one major one being 100 percent inaccurate, which God used to get me to change political parties). I never claimed to be a prophet, and said so on several occasions, so one prediction was delayed a year (the Warrior's national championship), and perhaps a couple others (one of which was more of a hope, and anticipated result, based on past experience) in which I opined on a football outcome (Baylor vs. Liberty University), when I spend little time engaged in that topic, and I explained afterwards that I was wrong, and should stick with my areas of expertise).

Another major prompt/hint came when James is asked about his radio career, and its lucrative income potential (he even lists a name of a Jewish manager in the secular broadcasting media, though, he notes, some might not be as money-incentivized as others, being more family- and purpose/priorities-oriented), as well as his saying Texas is leading the fight against nationalizing gay marriage. Every one of these staged one-liner statements came directly from tweets I can recirculate here (or online), with no problem, and date-stamped (See most, below, at ‘Related Tweets’). You will also hear him say he was backing Jeb bush, because of family ties (as in, he can’t support someone else), though he later flip-flopped to Ted Cruz, and eventually Trump.

The four recruiting events happened in these periods of time, and the associated sermons are referenced, following:

1. Dobson Interview (Apr. 7, 2015; See: Description, above).

This event was preceded but my pastor having, apparently, witnessed God miraculously calling me into politics (See: Call to politics, for exact wording), as that Saturday evening (Mar. 28, 2015) he specifically mentioned an unusually powerful presence in the sanctuary, and asks the audience if they sensed it, as well. I had been fasting for several days, and received that call within 24 hours of that sermon. The conversation I felt the Lord led me to type was so personal, I saved the content in MS Word, but deleted it from Twitter soon thereafter. You read the original words, only because I copied and pasted them before their deletion. Referent: <http://bit.ly/2yOiuMX>

2. Men’s Conference. At this church conference, both the traditional WASP view on homosexuals was espoused, as well as Caleb Kaltenbach’s more compassionate view, mirroring my own. In this series of sermons, not only did James Robison, a Texas politician (the one who, if memory serves me correctly, cited that America needed moral leadership in D.C. at the national prayer breakfast, or came up with the church house quote—or both), and Dr. David Jeremiah spoke, the Benton Brothers were touted as examples that (as you hear in the video) a much greater platform can be had (implied, if I returned to the GOP, as evidenced by that speech also detailing the concern that my prior expressed views on national gay marriage could cause a huge rejection within Democrat circles, even though I had always called for Christian love overshadowing all other messages, and that no gay person would have rejected people acting like Jesus did, were they to have been here when He walked the earth—so we should act the same toward them). References: <http://bit.ly/2zAbvIN> and <http://bit.ly/2izXqQA>

3. Politician’s Invitation. A sermon invitation for those called to political leadership (about a week and a half before the 2016 election day, in church, to which God ‘told’ me NOT to go forward, which probably shocked several staffers, but on election day, made full sense, as I was not going to submit myself to what eventually became the Christian Cabal, or carry the biased water of any group, especially seeing how Trump cowers to this group for votes, and how they compromised all Christian morals to gain idolized political power—an organized effort begun, apparently, somewhere between January and June 22, 2016, behind the scenes, and totally without my knowledge, until (See: Cabal Origins)

4. VIP Sermon. This sermon, by O.S. Hawkins (whom I have praised on Twitter on several occasions, especially from his sermon at our church, where I first learned of his Dallas politician friend's quote, 'you have what you tolerate,' later included in one of his books, and quoted by myself often) almost to a 'T' describes how God worked in my life the past three years! Referent: <http://bit.ly/2hKIFMo>

Testimony

To his great credit, Dr. Graham did about all he could to get me to run in 2016, and only flipped to Trump late—June 22, 2016. He was still dropping sermon innuendos late in the season (though if he had ever been willing to speak face to face, he would have understood I never intended such). He said the Johnson Amendment was why he could not meet, and I believe he didn't want to commit to any candidate, publicly, until things sorted out, but I was never a politician (still am not), so I rejected that excuse.

Finally, I know he knew it was not going to happen, because the third year Joel Rosenberg came to the church, he mentioned nothing on the subject (vs. God's going to raise up a leader the first time, and expressing a similar sentiment—with some doubts—the second time). If I recall correctly, as well, the third visit Joel didn't even preach to the audience in the Saturday evening worship service (and a Google search revealed no such video). Listen as the first time he mentions a prophet also serving as a king role, in the Old Testament:

Joel Rosenberg.

Related to the Dobson Interview, but more in line with to the Famous Drop-Bys section, Joel Rosenberg spoke at our church on three occasions, the last one making no innuendo mentions, as my non-intentions to run in 2016 were quite obvious at that time. His first visit specifically mentions our need for a prophetic type, and God raising him up. The next year he addressed issues our nation and world are facing, and he poses the question of will God raise up such a person to lead in these pursuits (as, apparently, they believed I would somehow launch out early). Here are four specific tweets I posted immediately following those first two speeches, documenting what was conveyed, the exact messages cited in the above references. If memory serves me well, he didn't even speak to the worship audience the third time, but to a Bible study gathering (which I did not hear). References: <http://bit.ly/2y1NOZA> (the day after) and <http://bit.ly/2zo9nCU>

Recruiting Innuendos.

The following are words or concepts used in sermon innuendos, within various attempts (described below) to get us to run for office:

Comeback. Apparently believing I was about to miss a serious political opportunity in 2016, in a sermon, Michael Jordan's comeback was used as an illustration, which I detailed in the following tweet:

[He] even preached a sermon about a comeback, using Michael Jordan as the illustration ~1.5 months ago. You CAN'T reconcile as just one party! I'm always open! (1/26/16)

Politics. Mentioning in a sermon that, quite uniquely, 'our church has five politicians,' and our influence reaches even to a national level. A week and a half before the 2016 election, headmaster even had a specific altar call for any who felt led into political service.

Also, after our repeated calling for at least 33 politicians in Washington to broker power to break the stale mates, in one sermon the Headmaster mentioned that he had just returned from a prayer meeting there with 50 godly D.C. politicians.

Republicans. You could have a greater platform as (i.e., returning to the GOP) if the LGBT community rejects you (as illustrated by the Benton Brother's testimony).

Sermon Innuendos (2018)

Sermon alluding to the people clamoring for leadership, tired of Moses remaining on the mountain top [getting the 10 commandments], citing their attempt to, instead, chase golden calves/images [Exodus 20, citing chapter 32]: <https://bit.ly/2MDnI6z> [interrupted by our two services missed for summer vacation]

Please note, in specific:

Music leader: 1. I'm a type A, who may snap at my kids (I posted doing so regarding my youngest son).

2. Try to figure it out on your own (as I posted I was tempted to do for a week, after all books were complete)

3. Preacher: Some people suffer for their faith, even losing their family (which I had posted about an internal conflict near by 59th birthday)

Sermon encouraging one year's (political campaign) work, for $150 million vs. $15,000 in payoff [and the logic of following a leader who has already been leading the nation in the past]:

<https://bit.ly/2NDOicc>

Sermon encouraging interested parties to be patient, that the campaign would come [citing multiple Bible examples of waiting on God, prompting applause, and the pastor's excitement at sermon's end]:

<https://bit.ly/2Pm8gs7>

NIT PICKY

Negatives? Said in a sermon: You can dwell on the negatives, or move on and see the positives. As I had never seen any mutual reconciliation attempts (detailed here, elsewhere), I guess those complaints were taken as 'negative' (vs. biblical).

Xian. After originally using the abbreviation 'Xian' for 'Christian,' on Twitter, after a sermon taking the 'X' to be negative, and suggesting instead, 'Chn,' that is what we did.

Gym. Church's fitness facilities touted in a sermon, after I tweeted that I had joined a cheap, local health club to lose weight.

Secular. In a sermon, after tweeting on Christian's relation to the secular aspects of life, in a sermon it was alleged that everything for a Christian is spiritual, to which I tweeted the following:

Secular is NOT a synonym for sinful, and all acts for committed believers are by Spirit, but a secular-spiritual distinction is in the nature of the acts themselves. (10/10/14)

III-C4. CALENDAR CONFLICT

(Deleted Twitter message, 3/30/15)

There was only one time where I even considered any plans for 2016, after sermons and other pressure methods to get me to go prematurely, especially citing SCOTUS picks and this being the most important election in our lifetime (as conservatives liked to tout/hype it):

JG and JD—PLEASE contact me with PLAIN SPEECH as to what your plans, process and timing may be, as I am but an extreme amateur! Thank you. (I Cor. 14:33)

Best of both worlds, keeping the good and rejecting the bad. Win-win. Common ground through common sense. Like it? @Pledgers2020 @ImMadTooEdwin Principled centrism is about policies vs. parties or personalities. Solutions, fixing problems and bettering our nation for the good of the whole.

ZERO revenge or inability to forgive in saying I'm open to the Dems. SAME policy positions apply for either side! Whichever can WIN, or you can't change many things!

That COULD happen (I'm OPEN to it), but more direct information would help a BUNCH! Until then, I'm sticking with the plan for 2020. I NEED more information if I'm off on timing—thanks.

Five years out, it's COMPLETELY undeterminable which party has the advantage, UNLESS an earlier time-frame were considered that I have had ZERO knowledge of!

By 2020 social issues remaining will fit centrism for EITHER side, as the gay marriage issue will be over, and any Roe overturn possibilities would be far in the distance. The poor's plight is the last bastion, as I see it.

ZERO rebuff or disrespect at all. I'm 100 percent FOR the idea, but you MUST win, so you MUST not anger either side by biased side-taking PER ISSUE vs. CENTRISM!

Either way, the policy results are 100 percent the SAME, as Pledgers would come from BOTH sides, and must sign a pledge to not lie concerning their intentions. Centrism vs. Dem vs. GOP.

EVEN if I went one way, soon, I'm ONLY for common sense views, taking the best of both sides, and NOT continuing gridlock and arguing with so little results, by pushing parties!

Gay marriage will pass, and love can be shown to them, by then. The goal is to win, and operate centristically to benefit BOTH where they are right (i.e., brokered power).

The KEY is getting at least 33 pledged politicians from any party to leverage power for the RIGHT causes. I HOPE it's my historic party, but 2020 is too far away to know!

This is NOT rejection, at all! If views expressed here are liked, I have ZERO problem committing NOW for only one side. We CAN'T do business as usual any longer, or LOSE.

Demographics teach a big tent is required to win, and losing benefits a party little-to-ZERO. There is too much at stake to lose, as I'm NOT just trying to sell books!

Please help me better understand this, as if THAT thinking is right, I'm ready NOW or next time for my party of life-long affiliation. Please help!

All I've known is D.C. is not ready for centrism, yet, so 2020 has always been the date. If that has changed, I can change too. I'm open to what works, and, number one, what WINS!

I'm just a simple man who wants us all to get along, and hopes one day to see centrism tried, bad apples defeated, and possibly a two-party ticket to end gridlock.

Indirect messages [innuendos] are killing me. You are the experts. Please inform me what's on your minds. I'm open to anything, and anytime—if it doesn't break my conscience. Please take no offense!

If the ideas herein expressed are significantly liked, I'll do anything for any party at any time. Blanket promise. I'm just confused right now from indirect communication(s)!

Must make plans based on 2020, so I'm open to talk radio. ZERO disrespect of my HEROES; I've just got to make a living in the meantime, and I can't sell products for years!

End of blabbering. Please offer more specificity and clarity of timing or intentions, or you're just pipe dreaming, and I CAN'T make plans off that for the family I love.

I'm biting at the bit, and can prepare 110 percent, but if it's for 2020, the urgency is lessened. I DON'T understand the timing issue, as I'm NOT an expert! Please help.

Please do NOT consider this any rejection, whatsoever, at all, ad infinitum! I just can't keep these ethereal messages going undefined; I'm too dumb for it.

If I understood the process better, your actions are likely best, and 100 percent rational. I'm beyond an amateur, and need expert advice, please! Please!

Continuing the Dem vs. GOP thing just doesn't work for me! It has failed too many times. It riles up laymen for LITTLE-TO-NOTHING. It's not worth the money—we need CHANGE!

Please call me, email me, come by—whichever way you like, but I'm far too stupid to understand the process and timing without an expert; 100 percent willing, but confused.

I'm ONLY confused on why the messages [innuendos] are about NOW, if for 2020. That's probably NORMAL, but you're dealing with a dunce. Please explain, so I can be informed. Thanks; bye.

P.S.: I am COMPLETELY humbled, amazed, honored and especially embarrassed such possibility could even be considered. I'm a TRUE amateur at this—SORRY!

God ISN'T the Author of confusion, so I go to bed prayerfully trusting Him, and assuming I missed something somewhere, so do work and taxes only for now.

P.S.: I AUTHORIZED my webmaster to update it with ZERO church names in the 'church conflicts' section, IF that's all this is regarding. Call him to change it, please.

FINAL: I'll delete this last section in ten hours or less, as I DESPISE confusion of any audience of which I am primary confused one as to timing!

III-C6. RECONCILIATION

If you didn't know that head pastor (I label 'headmaster') regularly watched our tweets (as most people in the world would not), or didn't believe it (i.e., the 'fake news' crowd), you would think the following reconciliation attempts (which followed at least ten others—NOT on Twitter—you'd think I had foolishly posted them to the wind). When I finally concluded that, somehow, he believed he would be breaking the Johnson Amendment (a topic quickly covered between Trump and the Christian Cabal) to speak directly to me (vs. through an agent—which he called for in one sermon), I began to understand the resistance to the following select invitations (there were probably about 50 total)

1. Arguments.

But he and I have fought over priorities, morals, tactics and politics for about six+ years. I have NEVER resisted reconciliation; he has 100 percent! SAD! (6/27/16)

Headmaster and I have clashed over Lordship salvation, tithing, EDBS priorities, and now Trump. You get tired of the fight, and move on! Bigger fish to fry. (11/7/16)

Note: We've battled it out over the first two issues for over none years, constantly, and I have fully presented a fully biblical argument for my positions, including writing a book against Lordship Salvation. And if you want an example of such back-and-forths, one tweet I wrote indicates the 11/9/13 sermon (on Vimeo) had much of that!

I've enjoyed the [several] bantering through your sermons, and my rebuttals, here! I'm AMAZED any Christian "leader" could NEVER reconcile. Isn't that the basis of our faith? (5/18/17)

2. Doctrine & Logic.

Reconciliation is a two-way street; no one can do it alone. You also can lead a horse to water, but you can't make him drink. God wants RECONCILIATION! (8/17/14)

P.S.: It's NOT biblical reconciliation to merely ignore, never talk and only call for your opponent to forgive. That's moving on by brushing things under the rug! (8/24/14)

I've tried more than eight times to reconcile with their head pastor. I truly believe the Bible requires it. Tell him—JNG—my door's ALWAYS open, unlike his. (6/26/16)

I've ONLY been 100 percent transparent, willing to reconcile, and been the initiator for such. Christian behavior to ignore and avoid it four+ years? Let the Bible decide! (6/26/16)

3. Complements.

I'm legally sworn not to identify [him], but GREAT evangelism work, and ZERO complaints in that regard. WHY NOT RECONCILE? Before God I forgave you—verbalize it to each other! (9/21/14)

POSITIVE changes made, but NEVER willing to reconcile. It's AMAZING how Mt. 18 doesn't burn his conscience. I've tried 11 times, using five methods. I'm DONE trying! (5/23/17)

4. Denial.

Or DENYING you even know such people, or EVER used their materials [for sermons], or ever were asked to meet or to reconcile. I am not "hurt" by such, as strong in the Lord. (8/17/14)

How could I be blocked by one who acts like he never heard of me? I'm WILLING to reconcile, but it takes two! I forgave, but communication is needed. I shook your hand! (9/21/14)

Comment: If anyone ever claims the Johnson Amendment and impartiality to any particular politicians was what prevented reconciliation, I am not a politician and these efforts to reconcile happened years before our Twitter account ever wrote on politics. More likely, there were just too many spats over the years for him to feel like doing so, or someone led him to think if you ignore something, you can act like it never happened, especially if you have any notoriety(?).

5. Effort/Initiation.

Why do you NOT allow BIBLICAL reconciliation between us all, as I have called for several times? I'll call your secretary tomorrow to make such an arrangement. (10/29/13)

READ my past tweets. I've offered five times to reconcile with particular people. ALWAYS an open door policy. I've initiated the process many times, too! (8/17/14)

Note: Five times, at that time. Nearly 11 by 2017.

Truce? Bury the hatchet? Maybe forgive and reconcile? You know my email, and I won't name you so you can save face, and for some legal reasons, because I obey my commitments. (8/24/14)

I'm tiring of reconciliation rebuffing with headmaster. (8/24/14) (these dates reflect related, actual tweets' posting: 6/25, 7/10, 13, 24-25, 8/9, 10, 14, 17)

Now my favorite church, though imperfect. Just reconcile! MANY national pastors know ALL about this, from the October 2013 Twitterfest for three weeks here—it's NOT a secret. (2/21/15)

I am an OPEN BOOK. ALL my reconciliation efforts have been rebuffed. That's NOT a good feather in the resume cap of one in such position, via I and II Timothy! (3/1/16)

Meet me in person so we can pray and talk and evangelize together. I'm no threat—a teddy bear with firm and right convictions, by God's grace. AAorg2020@gmail (6/25/16)

On 3-5 occasions I asked for in-person reconciliation to end this moral mess between believers. They even preached a sermon to do such! NO reply. (6/26/16)

You can have cops frisk me, scan me, strip search me, tape record and film me. I just want reconciliation. You have a public persona—LIVE UP TO IT and RECONCILE! (6/26/16)

RECONCILIATION would solve this ALL! Probably too much water under the bridge for the other party. I can't sit further back [in church], as my family won't approve. Quandry. (6/30/16)

Is there not a Christian broker who can settle this long-standing disagreement between two fellow brothers? (I Cor. 6:5) I WANT reconciliation! (6/30/16)

P.S.: I've sought reconciliation with headmaster nearly ten times. Rejected every time! MY CONSCIENCE is CLEAR, just as it is not voting for Trump! Peace. (11/7/16)

SEVERAL methods and attempts at reconciliation have been made over the past six years, to NO avail, ALWAYS initiated by myself, at my family's home church. Crickets! (5/23/17)

I like him as a person—NOT his control freak acts! We document EVERY time we sought reconciliation in our book. NEVER HAPPENED. Ten tries or so. (6/16/17)

Comment: To spare readers, we didn't list them all, but we have them available, as needed.

6. Conscience.

With CONTINUED ignored olive branches, it's time to dust off my feet and move on to more open, full-hearted pastors to FULFILL the Great Commission! (10/29/13)

Olive branches, to-date, have been rebuffed. Reject me—NOT the message; I can live with that. A clear conscience and peace sustain me, but not intransigence. (11/3/13)

When olive branches REPEATEDLY get snapped, move onto bigger and better things. (Lk. 9:5; Rom. 12:18) (11/4/13)

P.S.: I've sought reconciliation with the headmaster nearly ten times. Rejected every time! MY CONSCIENCE is CLEAR, just as it is not voting for T-rump! Peace. (11/7/16)

I dropped the following letter off to the pastor, in person:

I desire to have good relations and open communications with my family's church staff. I also understand there are unique circumstances that cause difficulty achieving that end. May I request the following: Jack Graham, a trusted third party and I meet to discuss mutual interests, and Jack and I will only speak to that third party (perhaps Neal Jeffrey) so we both can truthfully testify that we never spoke with each other? I am willing to sign a contract with severe legal penalties if I ever state that Jack and I spoke (which would be a lie), as I do not desire to have no church to attend with my family, and I really believe, in his heart, Jack and I share the same goals on most matters... (1/26/18)

...And as to the hand-delivered note to a Cabal member, yesterday (when I had no working computer), that offer stands for two weeks. After that, straight into our book. (1/27/18)

EXPECT zero response to your olive branch, and, after two weeks, re-pin your tweeted challenge to the Christian Cabal, and resume church-going. And put your final reconciling attempt in the book, for historic documentation. NEVER try reconciling again, after as many tries! You did your part, and more so. (1/27/18)

III-C7. ACCUSATIONS

(Of Our Critics; See also: Critics & Criticism)

Introduction

Bench-warmer critics are many, because their task is easier than change-inducing leadership. Riding the fence is comfy, but yields splinters. (7/17/12)

To never offend anyone only say what they want you to even if you're speaking to people holding polar viewpoints. Impossible and unnecessary. (6/4/13)

If you DARE speak negatively about the U.S. church's FAILURE at God's top priorities, you're divisive, mean-spirited, and a false prophet, to be shunned! (10/26/13)

I was a little surprised at the intensity of opposition, but with 30+ years exhorting evangelism, I should have known I'd receive blowback for discussing the invisible elephant in the sanctuary room. (6/22/14)

...And the 'unhappy bully' hasn't addressed you pastors in 1.5 years. No one put a gun to your head, but GODLY men re-set their agendas, convicted it was RIGHT! THINK. (3/13/16)

'To avoid criticism say nothing, do nothing, be nothing.' –Elbert Hubbard there's a DIFFERENCE between moral vs. emotional offense, and likes vs. needs! (3/10/17)

We took some heat from some mega pastors for our TRUTHful posts! (5/22/17): The American WASP church is BIG BUSINESS, and if you bring Bible TRUTH to bear on its practice, expect all Hell to blow back at you. I know from experience. (4/30/14)

1. General Response Example (the specifics forgotten, on purpose):

Tweets: Surround yourself with YES men, and insulate from critics. Mega pastors get deluded by such tricks, but God is NOT mocked. Not all that glitters is gold. (7/31/13)

Finally, your men, IN THEIR HEART know my sincerity and character, and DON'T believe slanderous terms used against me. They follow Christ!: DS, JS, JY and NJ. (10/29/13)

Regarding last night, don't even dignify those several words with ANY comment. Sand box, play time quality comments! Maturity, son of God; please Me. (11/10/13)

P.S.: Note to self—God's pulpit is NEVER a bully pulpit, as I showed at First Baptist Deer Park. Never subject yourself to such abuse again! (11/10/13)

JESUS often SILENCED critics (and we are to). He DIDN'T just say, 'life's too short,' as truth needs reputational (vs. substantive) defense. (Tit. 1:11-16) (1/2/14)

It's ONLY hypocritical leadership that forces an otherwise godly minister to stand me up three times, and preach sermons on reconciliation, and never do so. (6/14/14)

2. You Are a Bully (literal accusation by one of our critics). I am certainly not as nice and honey (vs. vinegar) speaking to pastors who for over 30 years have not fully threshed America, and ignored doing much of the other top four Christian priorities, even though there has been concrete examples of such ministries being done by some people in our world!

Tweets: I'll wear the label 'unhappy bully' as long as God has me build my own Noah-type boat. I just hope some see it before the flood SURELY comes! [alluded to church] (3/12/16)

Any begrudging pastors who reference myself as an unhappy bully OBVIOUSLY had NO intention of doing the RIGHT things, without prodding from one! (3/13/16)

I COULDN'T get home FAST enough [from church] to say what's on my heart! 'Unhappy bully?' Noah built an ark for YEARS, and every plank was a witness against the people! (5/12/16)

Noah KNEW what was to come, and he fulfilled his part, all along his construction being that witness of WARNING the world—a SOBER duty so few get.

I will NEVER plaster a smile OR frown on MY face! You DON'T take these things serious/literal/somber enough if money, sports and fun make you mainly "smile."

You're really quite demanding! No, I expect a MINIMUM level of decency he's [Trump] NEVER shown, and it's too late to be sincere NOW! (5/14/16)

3. You Are a Self-Promoter. One must advocate for their interests, or you can convince no one else to them. That does not have to be the same as tooting your own horn. After 40 years of preparation, I finally am beginning to learn this new 'skill,' which I have always despised; or as Nancy Pelosi recently said, 'self-promotion is a terrible thing, but somebody has to do it.' That is especially true when you need many people to know about you so they might consider voting for you!

Tweets: Marketing and self-promotion as a sin is a matter of motive, intention and arrogance vs. humility! Being ignored for Christ means NO influence! (8/29/13)

I LOVE how another [online pastor critic] thinks we have a huge microphone. I have ZERO budget, and have NEVER sought publicity—I don't even know how, though I need to learn! (8/9/14)

4. You Are All Words (i.e., you never participate in our ministry). I do what God leads me to, and after nearly 40 years of serving in anonymity, God led me to use my spiritual gift of teaching and my skill in writing through Twitter.

Tweets: If God leads you to write, and you're taught in the Bible how church is supposed to be, WHO's got an excuse to say that layman author hasn't done it FULL-time? Who? (10/29/13)

I NEVER claimed to be anyone's "leader." If pastors HARDEN their hearts, they face more judgment from God—that's NOT me; duh 101. Fear and obey HIM. (8/29/14)

I'm no Christian leader! I aspire to be one, someday. I simply know the Bible enough to know what's wrong and how to fix it, ASAP; pastors should too (i.e., scienter). (8/30/14)

Critics never create anything? BE FACTUAL. CONSTRUCTIVE (vs. destructive) critics/reprovers have caused changes apparently you know little about. (9/11/14)

5. You Are Seeking Attention.

Tweets:

Several famous U.S. pastors used that line, so we merely point out the hypocrisy of our critics! (5/23/17): It's ALWAYS easy to tell another not to pursue a platform, when you have one yourself, like saying life's not all about money, when you're rich. There's no nobility there! (7/25/14)

If ticking off professional ministers is how you would grow a 'platform,' you have no business sense. It's NOT about selling books, but changing status quo church. (8/22/14)

6. You Are A Hypocrite.

Tweets: I've lost friends, and been banned from church functions for my belief that our positions are biblical. You don't endure such things if you're an online hypocrite! (7/24/14)

7. You are Angry. Don't confuse the VERY under-experienced in America righteous indignation with carnal anger! (Eph. 4:26)

Tweets: You don't like my attitude, seen as "angry outbursts?" It's righteous indignation. You know my materials verify my credibility; you even use them. Don't be hypocrites. (11/9/14)

Sinful anger or biblical righteous indignation? I know, but for you to decide. It's rare now days so you may get that guess wrong. That changes NOTHING. (3/21/15)

8. You Are a Complainer.

Tweets: You're a complainer. Your LACK of constructive criticism is EXACTLY why there are so many problems, especially in D.C.! I Pet. 4:9 is NOT about constructive criticism! (5/17/16)

9. You Are a Fault-Finder.

Tweets: You're a fault-finder (Jude 1:16). I point out things the general public watches, and doesn't like, but can't always put a finger on, or identify. I DON'T ACCEPT status quo. (5/17/16)

10. You are Delusional. My book documents much evidence to indicate many famous people did drop by our Twitter account, and their words and actions show the same. Just because you did not experience this—nor will you—doesn't mean it did not happen.

Look at the 'Liked' sections of our four political Twitter accounts to see if there is ANY pattern of delusional thought. We offer so much evidence, expecting this easy cop out accusation!

11. You are Divisive. No, unity to block what God wants done through me is evil unity, and I expose those who are and aren't.

Tweets: Wizard of O.S. We're fighting the SAME battle for souls!—NOT winning wars and losing battles AGAINST EACH OTHER! A house divided, don't you know. (8/29/14)

It must have been the FBC Dallas comment, or Hillary joke, or Dump so-and-so tweets that ticked one's flesh off so much!?! NOT mine to be concerned with—just obey Jesus.

You'd THINK the past two week's events would bring humility, but that's just me? I do as I'm led. If led to teach, education is NOT exceeding application. (10/18/15)

I'm divisive of Christians and pastors? Have the WASP Christian Cabal pastors spoken with prominent black church pastors who OPPOSE your antics regarding Chump? YOU divided! (6/9/17)

12. You Are Mean (or 'Unloving'). Accountability, stability, discipline, reproof, and even rebuke are historic Christian virtues. Don't confuse Political Correctness with God's word.

Tweets: If you DARE speak negatively about the U.S. church's FAILURE at God's top priorities, you're divisive, mean-spirited and a false prophet to be shunned! (10/26/13)

You can be offended at my tone, or bluntness, but if you understand eternity, and Hell for the lost, you'll begrudgingly AGREE with "me" (i.e., God through me). (8/26/14)

A prophet would NOT have the same tone as an encourager, you who will NOT reconcile—DIFFERENT spiritual gifts! (3/12/16)

I'm the mean one. I'm insensitive. I'm a bully. Unhappy. Rude, harsh. You're worse than that, LETTING lost people go literally to a fiery Hell. That's VERY mean! (3/2/16)

I'm mean? I TELL THE TRUTH. If "nice" MEANs you lie, ignore immorality and accept status quo, with NO push-back; you're mean to our society by WEAKness! (5/17/16)

You're mean, judgmental, harsh, and you criticize, but take no criticism. I've heard it all before! Those are EXCUSES of claiming Christians! I speak what I'm told. If you don't like it, take that up with God, if these words conform to His word. Judgment is on the U.S. church, and revival is NOT coming. Repent, brethren! (11/3/17)

13. You Didn't Address Pastors in Private, First.

Tweets: To the critic complaining I didn't address SOME (i.e., pastors) in private, have you EVER tried to meet with famous pastors? Church Conflicts tells ALL (on our website). It's easier to pass an act of Congress! (7/24/14)

14. You YELL, Online.

Tweets: That's the second critic who claimed my tone was bad, or I was yelling, by stating TRUTH here. These are words. You're interpreting tone or volume! Dumb. (6/3/16)

This week's critic said we YELL here. That's impossible! There is NO sound, and we RARELY use capitals. The quantity of tweets are for a message to be given out; you watch FREELY. (6/10/16)

15. You Are Never Satisfied. I do not take no for an answer (or excuses) on God's top priorities, nor do I accept wonderful church changes dead-ending only at one church, when that progress/success must be promoted to impact all other ones!

Tweets: I'm never satisfied? With such critic accusation, HE proves HE IS content with the five percent statistic NEVER changing, or local churches NEVER reaching ALL near their building. (6/22/14)

You're a perfectionist. NO, I set a STANDARD WE THE PEOPLE must INSIST politicians aspire to. Today, they HARDLY even try, and seem to have forgotten ideals! (5/17/16)

16. You Are SO Negative.

Tweets: Let's address any critics of what we do here, to set the record straight: 'You're negative.' We're POSITIVE when positive things occur. I don't control problems existing! #Realist. (5/17/16)

17. You Are Not a Consistent Church-Goer (Heb. 10:25). I have been all my life, but when my home-attended church got severely political and pro-Trump, out of protest I left for awhile on several occasions.

18. You Are Unforgiving of Trump. For myself, I forgive, but I do not have amnesia. He proffered his candidacy as his credentials and offer to America, plus, he never apologized to all groups he offended.

Tweets: You won't forgive Chumps past? It's NOT far in past, he NEVER changed, he approves of it still, and never apologized for any of it; it's his true colors, so there's no reason to forget. (5/13/16)

So you're bitter your guy lost! I didn't have a guy. You favored others rather than Chump! Yes, but NONE with great enthusiasm—it's NOT the personalities. (5/14/16)

19. You Asked God to Judge Trump. I prayed that if it was in His will, He would, as it often seemed necessary, and such judgments are not unheard of in the Bible.

20. You Are Proudful. Please do not confuse my confidence for arrogance. It is hardly arrogant to have served in anonymity since 1978, seeking zero notoriety (until now)!

Tweets: Our tweeted ministry highlights are given as proof we're not hypocrites, but practice what we preach others are also to do, Jack; NOT "bragging!" Get it right! (10/29/13)

I referenced this messenger as a toilet, a nobody, a zero, and STILL some say you're arrogant. ANY excuse (i.e., sin) of Satan NOT to do the God-given EDBS message. (3/27/14)

You have an "answer" for everything. You've convinced yourself yours is a righteous cause, and you're arrogant. NO, you just WON'T choose FULL evangelism. PERIOD! (10/30/14)

So I'm arrogant stating the TRUTH about my predictions, critics? You're just insecure, because you can't do it as well. The truth hurts. (6/28/16)

21. You Write in a Cave, or in a Well.

Because our Twitter site has always been a diary and live book writing forum/platform, we have always written as if others were watching—not trying to get them to. As a result, due to unforeseen circumstances, many did, and we never changed that perspective.

22. You Can't Monetize Your Ideas. I have not yet tried. That does not mean I can't. Keep watching.

Tweets: I will NEVER compromise truth to get people to support anything I do. Criticizing Lordship Salvation is NOT slander, or gossip, as TRUTH is always a defense!

Attack a false doctrine, and demons get aroused. NOT A PROBLEM! Doing the Lord's work is NOT promised to be easy, or always peaceable. Press on, and stand firm!

SOME things are more importance than business interests or political aspirations, like TRUTH, evangelism, and a correct Gospel; if NOT to you, grow UP! #CommonSense, to me. (12/8/15)

(Mt. 6:33) If your wealth was NOT gained from seeking God's priorities and personal morals, as job one, the DEVIL made you rich! He CAN! (Mt. 4:9), as the god of THIS world (II Cor. 4:4; I Jn. 2:15-17, et al)

23. You Have an Agenda. I do have objectives I'm seeking to achieve, and they have not been hidden.

In fact, I am openly, transparently letting anyone who cares to learn of them watch that transpire, for free, as I write on Twitter.

Tweets: Don't speak on religion and politics? Uh oh... There goes my Twitter account—for SHALLOW people. Life's serious. You can't run from that. Fun comes part-time. (10/29/13)

'My' agenda? List ways pastors can be influenced to prayerfully have their church fully evangelize ALL lost people near their church in ~three years. (10/31/13)

24. You Have an Opinion on Everything. Probably not everything, but God's Spirit does give wisdom, and it must be frustrating sometimes always bucking up against that fact.

Tweet: When you ruffle any feathers, or upset any apple carts, expect blowback. You don't have to have an opinion on everything? Hit a nerve concerning FBC Dallas and Liberty Univ.? (2/28/16)

25. You Know the New Testament/Bible Well—Do You Know Jesus Well? You can hardly do the latter except through the vehicle of the former. You seek God through the Bible—not just academic data memorization!

26. You Don't Smile Enough (11/10/13). You may not see it, but I do, but, in general, with so many problems in the world, so much work to do, and a sobering calling to get God's Church in better spiritual shape, the emotion behind a sincere (vs. plastered) smile is not as prevalent as a serious focus. (Pv. 15:13; Ecc. 7:3, 8:1)

Tweets: Why do I not SMILE very often? Look at what I see, and try to be 'happy, happy, happy.' Billions going off the eternal cliff, UNWARNED! Sobering and somber! (12/10/13)

I have great/deep, and abiding joy, but constant somberness at the Church's lack of full evangelism, all at the same time. How do you never feel sad for the lost? (8/9/14)

Be cheerful and joyous! The world's literally going to Hell 'in a hand basket,' and the Church is doing LITTLE to stop it! Just enjoy life more, worldly ones—NOT! (9/29/14)

...I know an inner joy FEW will ever know, but the SERIOUSNESS of Hell for most [people], the Tribulation possibly JUST around the corner and the number NOT evangelizing. (3/12/16)

SMILE more. Can't you backslap, shoulder squeeze, eye bulge when you intensely shake hands, be positive, encourage only, and remember names, and be shallower? (3/15/16)

And KNOWING the MAJORITY of Americans HAVEN'T heard the Gospel in the past three years—maybe 90+ percent—will NEVER give me smileable "joy." With the things God has taught.

Jesus and Hebrews calls God a consuming fire which it is fearful to deal with, unsaved. HOW can any Christian SMILE with unreached people in the neighborhood? Fake holiness.

Prophets were SORROWFUL at what was to come for others! READ their stories. You're welcome to your spiritual gift; I'll stick with mine!...

Full-time smiling DOESN'T overcome that [lack of EDBS] problem! SHEEP buy into such tactics, but not all Christians are so dumb; 100 percent positivity is old Crystal Cathedral [PMA] stuff. (3/18/16)

SOME people believe if you smile and speak positive, you can cover all your blatant and public sins, as if American voters have amnesia. It DOESN'T work that way. (6/12/17)

27. You Never Work (I Tim. 5:8; 8/10/14). Books don't write themselves. Writing books was a calling, and they do pay off, but people don't often pay you to write them

Tweets: If writing books with BETTER TRUTH and thoughts is 'not having done anything,' then I guess I'm guilty of having been a ne'er do well—NOT! (10/31/13)

Growing a local congregation, or coming up with accurate wisdom from the Bible that few people know or teach are BOTH accomplishments. Writing IS work too! (8/10/14)

If you refer to the pastor's infidel comment, writing is work, and can become a paid job. DON'T INSULT what God has used, as if I sit on a couch eating bon-bons! (8/14/14)

And YES, if God LEADS you to provide in ways that have later payoff (like book writing), to Hell with any nay-sayers who accuse you of I Tim. 5:8! (Mt. 16:23) (2/20/17)

28. You Are Against the Rich.

Tweets: I heard a sermon say 'were NOT against the rich." GOD is, if they are selfishly ungenerous! WASP conservatives NEVER call for the Giving Pledge! (I Tim. 6:17-19; Lk. 19:8) (5/24/17)

29. You Are Bitter About the Christian Cabal. I am morally indignant that they used what I started for the good, as something supporting evil, and biased, self-serving ends, politically! They continue to advocate for D.J. Trump, but I', 'evil' for fighting that? (Lk. 7:32)

30. You Practice Bibliolatry (i.e., Bible worship) or Quiet Time as a Check Box. That is a charge many people make when they are insecure in addressing people confident in their Scripture studying (II Tim. 2:15).

31. You Think You're Spiritual, or 'Holy.' I do what the Lord makes/leads me to, and I am confident in his leading. I'm very imperfect, but my focus is doing what God 'tells' me to do.

Tweet: These tweets are a private diary open for all to see, as I have nothing to hide. VERY imperfect, but able to follow the Lord in VICTORY, by faith. (11/3/13)

32. You Wouldn't Ever Get 'Out of the Boat' (and run for office on your political ideas). God gave me the year 20/20 as our goal. Others pushed for earlier, but no man is my Master, compared to Jesus. <http://abcn.ws/2zzSsKo>

Tweet: That church had two sermons about Peter in the boat, implying I "never do anything," or was afraid to get out of the boat, politically. I NEVER said I'd run in 2016! (6/26/16)

33. Your 'Success' is Not in the 'Real World.'

Tweet: "EVERYTHING starts with an idea!" You can say my books are not "real world" success. I say there is no real world success without first having good ideas. You can keep your status quo, based on BAD ideas. I'll continue to write good ideas, then implement them. (11/3/17)

Note: Tell that to America's founding fathers (who wrote the Constitution), the Bible's human authors, and Shakespeare! This claim was made by, of all people, a university (real world?) president! Read Joshua 1:8 (for God's definition of 'success'), and you write for 18 years, full-time, while also working as an attorney, Fortune 500 Management Consultant, pastor college professor, and sales professional, and then, maybe, I'll examine your opinions!

34. You Are Politically Neutral—We Need People with Conviction! This is an asinine allegation! No one is more passionate about smart and practical policies I advocate in my three political books. That's what America needs, and is not being neutral, or non-committal.

Future critics: On politics and religion, you will usually not defeat my ideas.

You're welcome to try, but usually you only end up looking dumb, due to God inside. (6/6/16)

My credibility is being questioned by a people whom support a man who has less credibility than perhaps anyone who has ever walked on earth, at this point?

III-C8. JUDGE TRUMP

As an example of how this Cabal interacts with myself, so as not to violate laws, I recently tweeted this:
Arrogant, pompous SOB fake president. I hope and pray God judges him soon in His most severe way.
Lord, do you see what is occupying the White House? Justice, please! (5/25/17)

And since I have indefinitely ceased attending that church [from time to time], that pastor used media he knows I sometimes listen to to rebut this tweet, whereby two DJ's specifically referenced superpowers one of which topic I had tweeted about several times (jokingly saying "I have that one"), then saying no Christian should seek judgment of another (as I had tweeted I prayed God alone would do so for Trump's arrogance at the G-7 event (pushing away Montenegro president), and other damages to the U.S.A.). I rebutted that salvo with the following, here:

Tweeted Rebuttal (5/26/17)

Since one or two took offense at our praying God would judge DT in justice, and some Christian DJ's think they have seminary knowledge, lets address the Bible:

They were CORRECT that there are two types of judging: Mt. 7:1-3 vs. Jn. 7:24, I Cor. 6:3-4. They were WRONG implying that you must be perfect to do the latter type!

Here's the wrong type in action (Lk. 9:54); here's GOD doing the judging, vs. His servants, based on pride+ (Ac. 12:23) So is it EVIL to pray God judges DT based on the totality of his flaunting godliness constantly? God decides! No one is dictating God do anything.

David prayed for his enemies' defeat, and being dealt with by God, according to how God would do it (READ Psalms 143:12, and 109, etc.).

NOT one soul believes Chump politely requested the Montenegro president, humbly, to take AMERICA'S rightful front slot, but physically moves him, puffs his chest out, brings his suit sides together, and sternly looks with his chin and nose in the air—UNLIKE all the other smiling or shocked others.

You are free to believe no one knows what's in his heart at that moment, but ONLY people with NO knowledge of body language conclude it was 100 percent innocent.

It's the totality of his political charade that I pray about, and God can choose to ignore my prayers, just like the pastor behind that radio station's comment likely thinks God has already blessed U.S.A. with DT. Deceived!

The crucial Bible lesson is Lk. 9:54 vs. Ps. 109 and 143:12. Why, as a lifelong ministry professional, is a LAYMAN constantly having to correct your teachings?

Christians SHOULD have prayed that God would take out Hitler in his day! If they weren't, they were stupid. DT has SO disgraced U.S.A., how much must we take?

WATCH the video. Watch the physical nudge, the chin up, the coat tuck and chest puff, stern face, and ignoring others around in pomposity! Observe.

Of course the newest G-7 member will humbly say it was innocent, and O.K. He's the new guy on the block, and didn't notice it, as he was sincerely engaged in conversation at the time, and it's diplomatic

NOT to ruffle feathers or criticize the most powerful member nation's representative when you just got in the club!

And there is a TRACK RECORD of pride: 'I know more than the generals, I'm so rich, I'm so handsome, I have the greatest brain.' Pride is NOT out of character!

I retract not one word I wrote. You and your DJ buddy simply need to watch the video—NOT still shots—and learn body language and track record patterns! Discern.

I Sam. 24:12 When we say may God judge DT in justice for how he's harmed U.S.A. and the GOP, we do NOT retract one word, your BAD interpreting notwithstanding. (5/27/17)

No one has to be perfect to judge Trump's acts and words to be heinously sinful, and often stupid. If that's your definition of Mt. 7:1-3, QUIT the ministry! (5/27/17)

III-C9. HEADMASTER

To obey our contract with the church, this is the term we most often used to reference the head pastor...

In the [Saturday] night service, two weeks before June 23, the headmaster spoke a sermon calling Trump's antics 'non-sense'—a word he picked out of our Facebook speech [posted earlier that month]. (11/3/16)

If you want to know the details of how headmaster encouraged me to run for office, I guess we'd have to get CDs or DVDs of every sermon in the past two years. (11/3/16)

Headmaster even giddily told his church crowd that he'd be happy to tell anyone who he voted for, if they asked. SUCH pandering for Chump votes within a church. Legal? (11/3/16)

That church service following, headmaster mentioned in church how obvious a very powerful force/presence was that evening, and didn't the crowd sense it? (5/15/17)

Comment: The weekend God called me into politics, here on Twitter. (Mar, 2015)

My headmaster contacted his D.C. contacts, and soon BOTH sides were watching here, starting early 2015, when it turned political. (5/15/17)

Staffers are my friends—at least to me. Headmaster would be, but feels a need to stay aloof so there's plausible deniability he knows me? (5/18/17)

Related Tweets

Be a Bisagno—not a Young. You're more than half way there... EXCEL still more. Rewards are closer than we both think, over 50 now! God bless. Let's meet for lunch. (10/29/13)

It takes great character to keep up with Rev. John Bisagno's reputation—not just more sermons and programs. God sees what your crowd doesn't—fear HIM! (7/31/13)

III-C10. LIE DETECTORS

Truth-tellers don't fear lie detectors!...

Lie detectors are often needed to prove critics were or weren't referencing your comments. I'll submit to any detector on any subject—Will they? (no). (7/19/14)

I'll always submit to a public lie detector on the truthfulness of anything I say on Twitter, in the right timing. Will my critics and accusers do the same? (7/24/14)

I've known lie detectors would be needed, for long time, because even pastors LIE, if it will prevent the public knowing their dirty deeds behind the scenes. (5/23/17): Will our critics submit to a lie detector, as I ALWAYS will? Will they phone, email or meet in person? No. I ALWAYS will, and make it easy to do so. (8/9/14)

Will our critics submit to a lie detector, as I ALWAYS will? Will they phone, email, or meet in person? No. I ALWAYS will, and make it EASY to do so. (8/9/14)

If God leads me to run for anything, I WELCOME a camera and lie detector to SHOW you an "honest politician" in ACTION. Lincoln and Washington WERE! (2/16/15)

You're also welcome for church membership and status rising, as you followed my instructions I was given by our Lord! A lie detector will prove ALL. Bye. (1/24/16)

CONSISTENT, professionally-administered, and multiple lie detectors would be the ONLY way I'd accept any denial thereof. I'll ALWAYS submit to such. (6/3/16)

I've said before, LIE DETECTORS are the only way to prove this, even among "Christians," and I'd insist on such, and FREELY submit to them anytime! (6/9/16)

P.S.: If any person, group, or even media outlet EVER wants to strap me on any lie detector under any valid circumstances and polygraphist, just email me! (11/3/16)

I'll speak to any media outlet with any lie detector available about every detail behind our latest book (Christians For Trump), and how God used it to change politics. It's coming. (5/9/17)

As lawyers, we know the top three tricks of liars are to deny, demand proof, and hide evidence. I'm 100 percent for any lie detector for ALL parties involved—DO it! (5/15/17)

Staffers will lie, too, as NO ONE wants to lose salary. Lie detectors are the main way to show TRUTH, and I'll submit to one anytime, or any other tests you give me! (5/23/17)

I've known that lie detectors would be needed for a long time, because even pastors LIE if it will prevent the public knowing their dirty deeds behind the scenes. (5/23/17)

III-D1. TWEETED THEOLOGY

ATHEISTS & APOLOGETICS

(10/12/16)

To all my atheist friends, or any who have ever asked me to 'prove' God exists, the Bible's true, and Heaven is only found in Jesus, the following is intended for any with any ounce of an open mind (not those who make unsubstantiated claims or act like proving God doesn't exist is possible, either):

"Proving" Christianity? There's NO such thing for any religion, depending on your definition of and standard 'proof.' There's no lab testing available, or concrete one can examine in a microscope. There are books addressing the next best thing, all listed at our website (especially, Evidence That Demands A Verdict, and Scientific Creationism).

But here is my lawyer's case, or argument, which is my shot at addressing your requested 'proof,' which I offer, solely because I fear for you and your future (See also: Our related speech on Facebook)...

Jesus lived, historically. Read authorities who were NOT Christians of that era. They attest that statement to be historic FACT, and true.

They also have positive statements that summarize His life, apart from what the Bible (i.e., the New Testament portions) says (if you deem it biased, being written by his followers).

Their insights 100 percent correlate with what those followers stated, so Christ's followers' opinions become relevant.

Jesus made claims to be God. To do so, one is either crazy, deluded, dumb, lying or correct! When you read eye-witness (not hear-say) accounts of the words He said and deeds He did, you see these various evidences/proofs:

1. God claims; 2. Moral perfection; 3. Science-defying miracles; 4. Old Testament prophecies fulfilled (which math statistics say couldn't happen unless bona fide); and you see, 5. Words no man can match. You find NO evidence He was the first four categories (i.e., crazy, deceived, dumb or lying), but a truth-teller.

He tells us of God (as, to a lesser extent, does all creation and nature).

He tells us about Heaven and Hell, too.

He's the ONLY man to have experienced death and lived to tell about it, never to return to it again. And with those credentials, He says there's a Hell for all who die unforgiven of their sins. He would know, above all others.

There are hundreds of indicators of God's existence (read authors in our apologetics section's bibliography at our website, WillYouLiveForever.org).

Your own conscience KNOWS right from wrong, and when you see creation, its wonder tells you deep within that there's something greater out there.

Even our own criminal justice system tells you that wrongs get punished. If you ever read a list of wrongful deeds, you intrinsically know they can't go on unpunished forever.

If you truly believed there was no God, you would do anything you want, and believe that any (and for that matter all) government laws restricted freedoms!

Why even care if your rights ever negatively affected others, apart from laws, which would be 100 percent arbitrary?

Bottom line, you have no bones of Jesus, and you never will.

You have eye-witness persons who personally KNEW Jesus while on earth who gave their lives believing what they personally saw with His resurrection from the dead.

And even more bottom line, you can never believe Jesus is alive and can save you, absent God's sovereign call to Heaven.

Apart from your knowing the Gospel (I Cor. 15:4-8), the problem likely is your heart is SO hardened by sin and Satan that you can't be saved.

Personally, your rejecting Jesus doesn't change my plans today. Internally, however, it saddens me beyond belief—but I can't take more time if you won't read of the evidence!

If your own value to your own self is not high enough that you would at least explore the possibility you may be heading to an eternal, fiery end—I can't help you! I can only pray for and warn you.

I'd gentleman's bet you [private account] NEVER read my Facebook apologetics speech or even looked for Josh McDowell's book at a library or store!

If you don't love yourself enough to at least investigate claims honest people tell you (that you will burn in Hell, forever), you truly are more courageous (and stupid) than is good for your own well-being.

There is a point where God gives up on individuals, and gives them over/up, never to return to saveability. I HOPE that is NOT your case.

[private account] You sound quite young. It's probably an arrogance thing to sound cool and 'enlightened.' Love yourself more, in private, away from your peers!

If you are right, and there is no Hell, I've wasted my entire life since age eight. If you are wrong, however, there are no water bottles in Hell, or any days off. Please THINK about it. Love, JM.

CHURCH INTRODUCTION

The vast majority of Christians have never won one soul to Christ, and only ten percent are totally committed to Jesus.

No wonder so many are in bed with the Gordon Gecko political philosophy that 'Greed Is Good.' If II Chronicles 7:14 has any applicability to the Church, though written to the Jews, the people of God have serious responsibility for the moral condition of our nation, as we have not been doing God's top priorities, but have favored church as a business as a higher priority.

BODY LIFE

OUR church services often make laymen spectators of professionals, ONLY involved in singing (vs. USING their spiritual gifts)!

IF church laymen are NOT participants in your once-a-week worship service and using their spiritual gifts in ministry, you don't have biblical church!

Body Life need take no more than ten minutes of a worship service, but it needs to take at least five, and just shaking hands with a stranger is NOT it!

CALVINISM

Paul's zeal and work in evangelism PROVES he was no Calvinist. You NEVER know who will believe until their last, death bed rejection, so reach them ALL!

Paul (actively) trusted Christ, yet took zero credit for it. (I Cor. 15:10; II Cor. 3:5), as there is ZERO contradiction in so doing!

Man neither initiates nor chooses salvation solely on his own.
Neither is it forced upon him, or decided for him absent his consent.

NO person naturally responds to the Gospel. Salvation is miracle, though it requires a faith response inspired by God's conviction and heart preparation.

And saving faith is not innately in man. God offers salvation to everyone, but it comes from Him through the Gospel (Rom. 10:17) to everyone. Spiritual vs. natural 'faith.'

The sovereign call of God to salvation feels "irresistible,"
NOT because it is, but because you don't want to when He has prepared your heart.

Man's will IS free for EVERY decision but a spiritual one (i.e., salvation) and EVERY externally "good" deed is nonetheless sin without Christ. (Jn. 3:21)

Lost peoples' wills are BOUND in sin, requiring sovereign conviction to enable a faith response through the Gospel, by their will. (II Tim. 2:26)

God's conviction enables and empowers a faith response, but does not save in itself.
A decision, under that conviction is required, or a person ends up in Hell.

Absent God's conviction, no one would respond in faith, but you would be UNWISE to tell people this while evangelizing, lest the Devil take an opportunity to keep them saved by that excuse.

A response, a decision, ONLY under the Spirit's wooing, IS required, or NO MAN goes to Heaven, Calvinists. NOT spiritual rape or osmosis.

Do absolutely ZERO with God in this life and, like every other "natural man," you will suffer the same natural fate and consequence—Hell! Trust Christ! Jn. 3:16

God owes salvation to no one, and He initiates it. He chooses to save because He's gracious, and only for those who believe (under conviction).

CHURCH

Priorities, Churchianity, Problems, Quiet Times, Para-Church Organizations, Mega Churches, Demon-inations

Priorities

How would you summarize the church's objectives in the book of Acts?

I see FULL evangelism, much discipleship, body life and social ministry, primarily—"EDBS."

Until ALL lost people have heard the Gospel, EVERYTHING else our churches do is RUBBISH.
You'll learn this on judgment day, but HOPEFULLY sooner!

Going to church and tithing is NOT the heart of Christianity, but a daily walk with Jesus, with 'body life' as the cherry on top. Is this your experience?

If your church is business-as-usual next Sunday with ZERO plan for reaching ALL within 3 miles of the building, you're a member of a CORRUPT organization!

Churchianity

Church is to hours a week. Christianity is 24/7. Do you see the difference?

Mt. 4:4 is DAILY. We aren't spiritual camels who can live off one sermon a week!

Church was NEVER designed by God (vs. man) to be only song, silver and sermon, and Body Life is not just a book, but God's way for His bride. (Ac. 2, 4)

Attending church one hour a week—and maybe giving—makes you a "good" Christian no more than being with your children one hour a week makes you a great dad.

Churchianity defines life with Jesus as going to church and giving.
THROW OUT the rest of the Bible beyond Mal. 3:10 and Heb. 10:25, if true!

God NEVER commanded church buildings, full-time pastors or a Christian (vs. Jewish) tithe.
Do we truly follow Christ or the American dream?

Problems

Carnality in church is PRIMARILY prevalent due to little relational discipling, quiet time and biblical motivation. Infants don't hold their own milk bottles!

The American church is PRIMARILY responsible for America's moral decline, based on analogous II Chr. 7:14. THINK about it. GIVE money to evangelists!

Christian layman: DEMAND that your pastor's total compensation being revealed, and designate your gifts for other, specific uses if he's over-paid! You are the power of the purse.

Quiet Times

The Bible is NOT a church accessory or a paper weight to look sanctimonious on your desk.
It IS life, but NOT to walking dead men. REVIVE, church!

ANY Bible verse relevant to our age (Ex.: NOT blood sacrifices, etc.) can be applied by the Holy Spirit! We need the WHOLE counsel of God vs. cherry picking!

It's the person who proffers no chapter and verse, but says God led me to this position who we are to be wary of. Ignorance is bliss.

Para-Church Organizations

The church is NOT superior to para-church organizations by its origination but by the actions they do or don't take. God can bypass inactive churches!

Para church organizations do evangelism and discipleship BETTER than MOST American churches, yet pastors demand all the (ten percent) "tithe" as being "the church."

Mega Churches

In the New Testament, miracles drew crowds, and believers went to where crowds were gathered.
They NEVER schemed ways to draw a crowd.

Mt. 24:1-4 SHOWS Christ's (vs. our) value placed on beautiful mega churches.
EDBS priorities, church!

Why are mega churches usually in wealthy neighborhoods when Jesus said the rich's salvation chances are that of a camel in a needle's eye? Love of money.

American church is now big business, to which Christ may again come and scourge her for her modern money-changing church-as-a-business model!

Demon-inations

You're EITHER born again, or NOT; a saint or you ain't. Tares are professors, not possessors.
(I Jn. 4:13) God doesn't promise and believe for you.

Abba-Father (balance); not too high and not too low church! Formal/informal.
Dignity and spontaneity. Personal God, but not too personal. Duh 101!

CHURCH-AS-A-BUSINESS

ANY church that acts like a business should be taxed as a business
(and political speech disguised as something else fined)!

EVERY mega church pastor: FULLY reveal your TOTAL compensation and CAP your salary, so the world (TOO) does not doubt your love of money motives. (I Tim. 3:3)

CHURCH GROWTH MOVEMENT

The 80's church growth movement was MAN'S method to make pastors not always poor, and its consulting 'experts' are complicit for money!

DEATH

The ONLY way MOST people are going to learn that Hell is real is from first-hand experience. (Mt. 7:14; Pv. 14:12; Jn. 10:9) Too late to learn then!

DISCIPLESHIP

Definitions, Theology, Problems, Solutions, Message

Definitions

Jesus preached to the crowds, but poured His life into (i.e., intimate relationship with, and invested time, attention, care and insights with) the 12 and they changed the world.

Preaching sermons is NOT NEARLY as effective as pouring your life into a few who do the same afterwards—multiplication discipling. Do it, pastors!

Discipleship allows the leader to confirm students are having daily Quiet Times, and can share insights (from life and the Bible), and ask questions.

Get too large a group for discipleship and you LOSE the ability to minister personally to each student. Jesus chose 12, and He's hard to improve on.

Theology

PASTORS are responsible to disciple church members (Eph. 4:11-13; I Pet. 5:1-3).

We blame parents if an infant dies not getting fed! (II Tim. 2:2; I Cor. 4:15)

Discipleship and evangelism: I LOVE and fully believe in discipleship. Just make sure all have heard so discipling work does not prevent any from being offered Heaven (i.e., the Gospel).

Problems

Does YOUR pastor relationally disciple ANY, or personally evangelize during the week outside his building? FIRE HIM if not (over time)!

HOW can a Christian grow without God's word daily fed upon? (Mt. 7:24-26; Jas. 1:25; Josh. 1:8; Ps. 119:9-11; I Pet. 2:2; Eph. 4:13-15; Heb. 5:12-14, etc.).

Most U.S. Christians will be PAUPERS in Heaven with golden outhouses for not being fully committed and daily meeting with God. This need not be, brethren!

Spend 30 days with someone to have a daily Quiet Time with them.
It'll change their life—it sure did mine!

We are NOT spiritual camels who can live off one sermon a week.

PUSH quiet time and relational discipling, pastors—though there's no money in it. Mt. 4:4, etc.

IF a Christian doesn't have a DAILY Quiet Time (prayer and Bible study), they're hardly disciples, as it is the tool for growth, and discipleship is DAILY! (Lk. 9:23)

Absent a daily time with Jesus in Quiet Time, and absent Bible ingestion and prayer, you're left with emotion and experience which some (wrongly) credit as the Holy Spirit.

The MORE you treat the Bible as logical, common sense and 'normal,' the MORE your life will conform to righteousness. Renew your mind—it's not automatic.

We would no more consider a marriage healthy if spouses saw each other once a week as you can consider a Christian healthy by going to church alone!

Solutions

Want someone zealous for Christ? Nag them into a Quiet Time habit. Want them evangelistic? Do the same. There's NOTHING as important, and it works! Did for me in '78!

Message

IF you're a Christian, consider your great salvation, for how can you escape (temporary) judgment if you neglect it? (Heb. 2:3). Your salvation happened on a day certain and lasts for a time certain—forever. It is variously described as redemption (being bought back) and forgiveness of all sins—past, present and future (Eph. 1:17); being justified (made in right standing with God, or JUST-as-IF-I'd never sinned; Gal. 2:6); adoption as sons (Gal. 4:5), Sanctification (being set apart for God; I Cor. 1:2); being washed (I Cor. 6:11); being born again (I Pet. 2:23); being reconciled (brought back together, like a nearly-divorced couple who get back together, Rom. 11:15); being grafted in (like a tree chute merged into the core root; Rom. 11:23, among other word pics. CONSIDER them, as in EACH case, it makes NO sense that you would return to your old life, for He bought you from the Devil's grasp, forgave you everything, made you right with Him, let you into His family, plucked you out of the world, made up for what you did to be separated from Him and let you receive the benefits as an unnatural branch. Consider how great a salvation, and you will NOT want to return to the old life, for it makes NO sense (Cf.: Rom. 6-7). A freed slave does not go back to the ball and chain, a freed prisoner doesn't break back into prison, a mansion owner's adopted son doesn't return to homelessness, ETC. So, contend earnestly for it (Jude 1:3). Meditate on these things today! How does the Bible picture what comes AFTER you're saved, or "sanctification" (i.e., life on earth until a believer dies)? Being built into a spiritual house (I Pet. 2:5), walking in truth (II Jn. 1:4), laboring in His power (Col. 1:29), knowing God's will, walking worthy, pleasing Christ, bearing good fruit and increasingly knowing Christ (Col. 1:9), considering yourself dead to sin (Col. 3:5), being perfected (Gal. 3:3), fellowship/communion with Christ (I Cor. 1:9), imitating Jesus (I Cor. 11:1), disciplining yourself for godliness (I Tim. 4:7-8), fighting the good fight of faith and taking hold of eternal life (I Tim. 6:12), abstaining from wickedness (II Tim. 2:19), following Jesus (Jn. 1:37), living as a disciple (Mt. 10:24), obedience (Rom. 16:19), being slaves to God (Rom. 6:22), walking by the Spirit (Rom. 8:13), engaging in good deeds (Tit. 3:8), ETC. These pictures SHOW you what you should be doing, as a Christian. If they are not, you are not pleasing God, and are subject to His pruning discipline in this life!

EVANGELISM

Theory, Perspective, Needs, Problems, Pastors, Motivation, Challenges, Methods, Presentations, Application, Solutions, Social Ministry

Theory

EVERY American church is responsible before God to evangelize EVERY soul living near their building, but few-to-NONE have. "Repent" church! Your rewards are FADING.

The logic of literalism: HOW can one pastor say he's completed Great Commission in his neighborhood without documenting every home's spiritual condition? We're foolin' ourselves.

At Highland Baptist Church, Waco, Texas (in 1978) I SAW entire neighborhoods evangelized and documented. There's MY proof it can be done. Prove otherwise.

Perspective

Firemen are on call 24/7 for the POTENTIAL fires of a FEW;
Christians are RARELY on call for the CERTAIN fire of the MANY. Contradiction!

THINK how many millions went to Hell the past 30 years who might NOT have had God's people NOT been so UN-evangelistic! You face them in the afterlife!

IF the churches nearest to your house haven't dropped by to speak about Jesus,
I would NOT visit them, as there's CORRUPTION in their leadership!

You speak most of what you love the most. How closely are 95 percent U.S. Christians following Christ with ZERO evangelism (Mt. 4:19), and are they really living? (Mt. 4:4)

It ALWAYS amazes me that authorities go door-to-door to ensure NO ONE misses a coming flood's warning, as people can CHOOSE to reject the law's command. Acts 2:40

Evangelizing at church is almost like nursing the healthy in a M.A.S.H. unit SURROUNDED by casualties. REAL fishermen know that you fish where the fish ARE!

I'm Always amazed how concerned people get about people DYING from natural disasters, when ETERNAL death in Hell faces everyone every day without Christ!

Needs

There is NO EXCUSE for God's church to NOT FULLY evangelize EVERY living soul, unless they are so physically remote that a helicopter and interpreter/linguist can't get there!

The Church's FAILURE to COMPLETE the first third of the Great Commission (FULL global evangelism) is a MAJOR reason Christ has not yet returned.

Will ANYONE EVER organize global evangelism efforts to reduce duplication, document 100 percent thorough reaching of ALL people, and ORGANIZE the remaining needs?

IF a pastor doesn't have a map or list of all addresses within three miles of his church, He is NOT serious about the Great Commission, because it's literal.

It takes seven times of hearing Gospel, on average, for a positive response. We have LOTS of work to do! Pray, yes, but work as well, by grace in the Holy Spirit's power. Faith!

With hazardous chemical spills, authorities go DOOR-to-DOOR to warn EVERY citizen possible. Hell's a worse than a chemical leak!

$15,000 is ALL it costs for one full-time evangelist in the 10/40 window, or $300 per American church. DO IT FULLY this year, Laodicean church! ACT!

It is LIKELY persecution alone that will get the American church evangelistic. If so, BRING IT ON! (Ac. 8:4)

Problems

The Church's BIGGEST problem!: There IS one TRUE conspiracy in the world—Christians NOT evangelizing, and the Devil arranged it. No phobia or paranoia here, just TRUTH.

Jesus said follow Me and I'll make you fishers of men. 95 percent of U.S. Christians prove they aren't following very closely.

It's the ULTIMATE crime against humanity, yet MOST-to-all American pastors can't tell you they know for sure every lost soul near their building has heard.

Most laymen don't want to evangelize, many pastors do little and don't want to upset tithers, and the lost would never (naturally) ask for evangelism, so what hope have they?

Do the math! The number who evangelize, the number of lost, the number of days till Christ returns (unknown) and THE NUMBERS DON'T ADD UP. We need more laborers!

The church's Great Commission completion efforts are like Swiss cheese, but we don't know where the holes are and many feel there are no holes.

IF American Christians REALLY believed in Hell, they'd evangelize and if they REALLY believed in Heaven its eternal rewards, they would be totally committed to Christ and the Bible.

As I have said before, if you are not intentional about evangelism you are either accidental or not at all. CHOOSE to obey or your choice is to DELAY.

Saying "We're doing evangelism," if it's NOT 100 percent saturation near your church, is like saying we're half-pregnant.

My 11 year old has evangelized more than MOST American Christians. Shame!—
Especially for faith-claiming ADULTS.

Lost people are NOT Christians' enemies, but Satan's victims needing mercy unto salvation, not our confronting; they're just born sinners, like all of us. (II Cor. 4:4)

If God doesn't judge the American church for her evangelismlessness
He will owe lost people an apology (and established pastors are primarily to blame).

Pastors: Read Eze. 3:18, Ac. 20:26, 1:8; I Cor. 3:9; II Cor. 10:16.
You're responsible before God for evangelizing ALL lost people nearest your building!

Pastors

EVERY American pastor is personally responsible for the blood of EVERY lost soul near their church that died unreached with the Gospel in the past three years!

American pastor: SHUT DOWN your services this Sunday and go evangelize the nearest neighborhood. You'll see ONLY ~5 percent won't sneak home.
NO WONDER we see no revival.

'I evangelize by my sermon.' 'I disciple by my sermon.' Sermonizing is sermon idolatry, and biblically IN-sufficient for ministry fulfillment!

FIRE your pastor if he will NOT lead you to evangelize EVERY lost soul near your church buildings ASAP, American "Christian!" (Mt. 28:18-10)

Pastors: Preach our 'On Heaven' sermon if you're SERIOUS about evangelism.
It may bring 100 percent compliance, too (found at WillYouLiveForever.org).

Motivation

Why evangelize?: Would the founder of cancer's cure be blamed for cancer deaths if he/she hid that cure? American Christians hide Hell's cure ALL THE TIME!

How to get the Church evangelizing: It is LIKELY that persecution alone that will get the American church evangelistic. If so, BRING IT ON! (Ac. 8:4)

Don't be disappointed that you don't have a gripping, over-the-top testimony.
Be grateful that you're not carrying years of baggage around with you. —John Piper

Challenges

Challenge STILL needed (though slightly less, with progress)—
I challenge EVERY U.S. pastor to evangelize ALL around your building in three years, or less.
I doubt even one will. The Great Commission is SPURNED!

Please RT: Head Pastor—YOU are responsible before God for evangelizing EVERY lost soul near your church building ASAP, as the Christian culture calls you the 'leader.'

Please RT: EVERY pastor is on notice to evangelize
EVERY lost person near their church building ASAP

AUTHORIZED airplane streamer: Pastor—evangelize EVERY lost soul near your church in the next three years! —Christ (See WillYouLiveForever.org)

STILL authorized!: EVERYONE is authorized to put a billboard or airplane streamer in ANY city saying—"Christian—EVANGELIZE! WillYouLiveForever.org."

If EVERY Christian would CHAIN RT this to ALL Christian friends, I could RELAX:
Pastor—evangelize EVERY lost soul near church in the next three years.

PLEASE Retweet: EVERY day you DON'T evangelize someone, they don't experience abundant life, risk death then Hell, and miss eternal rewards. Think about it!

Would ANY U.S. pastor like to publicly debate myself on the LITERALNESS of the Great Commission—to a person? I'm FREE and available. Just do it!

Methods

God NOWHERE requires ANY lost person to go to a church to be able to learn how to go to Heaven and not Hell. Apply what this means, U.S. church!

In the U.S.A., the Great Commission is PRIMARILY done in a cave, with pastors tacking it on at the end of sermon inside a building MOST lost people will never frequent! (Ac. 26:26; Jas. 2:2)

There are only three examples of "attraction evangelism" in the New Testament, and ONLY for to guys who DIDN'T know Gospel and one too OLD to go anymore. Anything more need to be said?

NOWHERE in Scripture is the "come and hear" evangelism method commanded! ONLY "go and tell," and THOROUGHLY! LAZINESS ignores this fact.

IF you evangelize by your deeds, God help the lost person's eternity who sees when you sin, as we ALL do. You are NOT the message, JESUS is!

The world wasn't turned upside down by people evangelizing ONLY as they went through life, unless they were HUGE jet setters! (Ac. 17:6)

Presentations

Using the Bible in your evangelism presentation is NOT showing off YOUR thoughts or knowledge—it's presenting GOD'S message, which doesn't return void.

If your evangelism method does not include much Scripture quoting, you've robbed the Holy Spirit of a major tool for His conviction.

Application

Church challenge: FINISH the Great Commission by 2020, by EVERY church at least reaching ALL lost people near their building. Nike gets it—just DO IT.

Evangelize like the Great Commission all depends on you; pray and believe like it all depends on God, because it DOES. (I Cor. 3:5-9, 9:19)

Non-Christian: Ask ANY "Christian" you know why they have NEVER told you the "Gospel," like your life FOREVER depends on it. It does!

Solutions

Pastors: 1-on-1 ASK church members to GO EVANGELIZE with you.

They catch the fire, need say nothing and they WON'T often turn you down! Will you do it?

Until laymen are discipled/matured up in the faith, don't expect the 5 percent statistic to change a lot. It hasn't in 30 years! Disciple them vs. just preach sermons.

PRAY for more laborers, but that is NOT all you are to do. Ephesians 4 shows pastors are to train laymen up to do ministry. That's NOT just praying for workers!

Don't abandon your doctrinal differences (as our website shows), BUT PUT THEM ASIDE TO GO EVANGELIZE together in unity (and DON'T fight over converts' money).

Social Ministry

Rick Warren understands how integral helping the poor—not just ourselves—is with the Gospel (Ex.: Farming tracts of land in Africa). Great job!

Message

I JUST reviewed many past tweets to the church. To NOT over-fill @PledgersARCHIVE with retweets, here's a general summary of our argument for 100 percent FULL evangelism: NEED. The Bible teaches 'go and tell' evangelism. The ONLY three exceptions were when a guy could take his friend directly to Jesus (i.e., physically, on earth), a guy didn't know the Gospel message (and invited friends and family) and a guy who was SO famous for his ministry (and SO aged), people came to him. Research shows it takes seven presentations of the Gospel for a positive response, on average (so even a 1-time through global Gospelization would only be a MINIMUM!). MOTIVATION. The #number one thing/act in life to engage in is evangelism, as nothing else changes human's eternity! Evangelism is the greatest way to show love to people. Even if we fed all the poor people, that would only be paving the highway to Hell for them, absent evangelism. Ducklings follow the mother duck (i.e., pastors—lead by example). Will you look back in Heaven and regret (i.e., have sadness or sorrow for) the priorities you lived out here on earth? You will have at best a golden outhouse in Heaven if you DON'T evangelize. PROBLEM. The VAST MAJORITY of American Christians NEVER lead ONE soul to Christ in their LIFETIME! Christians will do ANYTHING—even give money or do 'good deeds'—but evangelize. We treat it like we're being asked to dumpster-dive. The problem is that desire and power are lacking, which we TRY to substitute for with entertainment, food and drink or serving the lost (i.e., to 'warm them up'). It is ministerial malpractice for ANY church to NOT know the spiritual condition of ALL people within three miles of their building(s)! THEOLOGY. Speak like your life depended on it, and trust and pray like their life depended on it (as it DOES, eternally). Urgency comes from numbers (i.e., numbers lost, numbers NOT evangelizing, and few numbers evangelizing), prophecy signs and obituary entries every day. God NEVER said having a presence or a steeple on every street corner fulfills the Great Commission. Evangelizing pockets in a neighborhood is NOT what God called us to do (i.e., a Swiss cheese strategy), and Jesus did NOT die for 'people groups,' but ALL people! Evangelism invitations as a pastor's PRIMARY evangelism method will NEVER get the Great Commission COMPLETED! Preaching to the choir is NOT evangelism. Even evangelistic crusades (as GREAT as they are) only reach a drop in the bucket (though their big splash makes us FEEL we've done a thorough job). SOLUTIONS. One zip code HAS been fully reached (76115, by SWBTS students and faculty). That's RECENT PROOF it CAN be done! Shut down church this Sunday and GO EVANGELIZE! Laymen— earmark your gifts for 'evangelism.' Pastors QUICKLY listen when laymen talk with their wallets! As a last resort, FIRE your pastor if he will NOT lead you to evangelize ALL lost people within three miles of your church. NON-CHRISTIANS: If you are NOT a Christian, go up to anyone claiming to be and ask them why they hate you for never having told you "the Gospel." If the lost were wise they would protest any nearby church that hadn't come to their door to personally tell them "the Gospel." EXCUSES. I evangelize by my lifestyle (i.e., "Preach the Gospel, and if necessary, use words" —Francis of Assisi). God never said your deeds speak the message of the Gospel, or to attract people to you as a prerequisite to evangelism, or that inviting someone to church is evangelism; it's not my gift (or temperament)? It's your calling; I will someday. Mark your calendar TODAY and see how many months or YEARS pass before you STOP LYING to yourself (and especially God); no one else is doing it. So 'everyone is NOT?' Would you jump off a cliff because everyone else is sinfully NOT evangelizing?; they've all heard. Can you PROVE it? Until you CAN, GO EVANGELIZE!; never talk to strangers? That's an adage FOR KIDS! (I Cor. 13:11, 14:20); we're scared. God does NOT give that spirit to you, but the Devil DOES! (II Tim. 1:7); I don't want to. Then you have carnal desires. You say you follow Christ. He promises to make His followers fishers of men. Just how closely are you following?; I'm not good at it. Practice makes perfect; I don't know enough. If you can READ John 3:16, you know enough!; I don't want to offend anyone. Jesus emotionally vs. morally offended some, and better to do what HE did than to inoffensively LET people go to Hell—unwarned; "People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care." Evangelizing IS caring! You are NOT showing off how much you know, but sharing the message of LIFE!; that's the pastor's job. NOT according to Eph. 4 and I Pet. 5! Where have you been reading?; what about those who have never heard? What about those who COULD have heard but you never told them?; Paul could NOT have used the 'as you're going' evangelism method and reached as MANY as he did unless he was a REAL jet-setter! Be INTENTIONAL! In summary, evangelism at church is like looking for a wife at a nun convention. It's possible, but the REAL candidates are just outside your STAINED glass windows; preachers evangelizing church crowds is like military recruiting on the battlefield or colleges doing so at a college dance. LEAVE the building!; and, evangelism at church is like searching for a glass of water on a boat while floating in the OCEAN! LOOK OUTSIDE YOUR BUILDING! Duh 101. For MORE on this subject, please See: WillYouLiveForever.org

FAITH-WALKING

Christians are responsible for Bible verses God convicts you of obeying, and are to do so by His power alone, having no ability of our own! (Rom. 7:18, Jn. 15:5, II Cor. 3:5)

The visible world distracts and deludes Christians from seeing life through God's eyes.
ONLY Bible reading helps lower our spiritual cataracts and put on God glasses.

To be precise, Christians can live up to the standard of faith God has led them to, or given them. Moral perfection is the (unachievable and unrequired) life goal, but we AREN'T under law...

MEANING you DON'T live rule book- or sin-conscious, but Christ-conscious!
Heb. 10:2; I Jn. 2:1-("if"), 3:21; I Cor. 4:4, 10:13; Jude 24; Phil. 3:16; Rom. 14:23.

There is NO victory if the Christian life is always compared to perfection! "God wants a relationship—NOT a performance." —Don Anderson (II Cor. 2:14; Rom. 7:25, 8:37; I Jn. 4:4)

Meal-time prayers, "forgive us our many trespasses" is NOT necessarily faith-walking.
God can specifically convict you of sins, and NOT wait to do so at meals.

Law-based sanctification is expecting you to obey NOW EVERY command you can read or you're sinning. That IS legalism and DEATH by rule-book religion. (Rom. 7)

Your sins are ALL forgive already. Fellowship and rewards are affected by willful, accountable sinning, but your standard is FAITH; understand this in experience.

If you DON'T know how to walk by faith, you WILL live under law and be continually defeated vs. victorious! God didn't save you to THAT end. Learn!

And that's NOT lessening God's standard! Perfection is the OBJECTIVE standard, but faith is the subjective standard (i.e., goal vs. actual achievement standard).

If you find yourself continually engaged in conscious sinning, STOP IT!
It's NOT who you are in Christ. Enter faith rest! Heb. 4:10; I Pet. 4:1; I Cor. 15:34

Everyone's faith standard is DIFFERENT, but the goals are the same. READ Rom. 7.
The law life kills, whereas the Spirit gives life and liberty! Rom. 14:4; Jn. 6:63; II Cor. 3:17

If you think the Christian life is finding commands in the Bible and trying to apply them, you're trying vs. trusting! God GIVES you what to do THROUGH time spent with Him there!
You rely on God living His life through you. (Gal. 2:20; II Cor. 3:5; Jn. 15:5)

IF a Christian tries to obey command out of God's initiative, timing and power,
They'll ONLY get morally WORSE! (Rom. 7) You can do nothing on your own. (Jn. 15)

I can put you under the law immediately by citing ten New Testament commandments, and ask if you're doing them now, or you're a 'sinner.' That's NOT the Christian life, folks!

FAITH-WALKING (DESCRIBED)

HOW can a Christian be 100 percent right with God, though not morally perfect?
Walking perfectly in relationship vs. performance! See our website for more details, please!

God has over 4,500 commands in the Bible. To NOT be obeying them all right now is NOT subjective sin. ONLY what He's given you faith for, to-date is the standard.

You can quote a verse and show someone they're NOT obeying it, but you are not the Holy Spirit, and unless he's bringing it through you, you're behaving legalistically.

If you're not led to give a verse to another for their attention in their personal application, you're sinning. The Spirit gives life to the word, or its dead to you.

Jn. 5:39, 6:63; Heb. 6:1 The Bible without the Spirit activating/alivening it for you is law-living vs. grace. That's NOT emotionalism, but spirituality.

The Bible is NOT the problem, there, but you. (Rom. 7:9) A Christian is INCAPABLE of holiness on their own, even though saved; it requires God's life through you! (Jn. 15:5; Gal. 2:20)

Even externally 'moral' good deeds, if not wrought in God, are dead works before God! Good for society, yet sin. And I said they were moral deeds, to men.

FAITH-WALKING (DESCRIBED—PART II)

(3/10/17)

Perhaps I haven't made this clear enough, or addressed it often enough, but the following is a HUGE problem amidst Christianity—I saw a billboard that read, "Real Men Obey Jesus' Teachings."

The issue is biblical sanctification—how to's and how not to's. The Christian life is NOT gutting out good works by force of willpower. That's dead works, well-intentioned but nevertheless of the flesh!

'Real men' slogans appeal to machismo, pride and competition, which makes you wonder how women receive such STUPID phrases, and it is grace, not pride in one's willpower and determination that sanctifies the believer!

Legalism and law are the INEVITABLE outgrowths of Lordship Salvation, usually the latter. Legalism has a set of man-made rules that is the outward litmus test, for if the legalist believes one to be walking with Jesus, or even saved.

They are mainly based on Scripture (but NOT prohibiting all dancing and drinking), but are a thumb nail in number compared to all the commands in the Bible; hence, arbitrary and capriciously egocentric.

Most often we find law living advocated by such types. If a Christian (one who has the Holy Spirit residing within) does not show enough deeds to the Lordshipper, or enough effort at changing his pre-Christian behavior, the Lordshipper (often pastors) deems him unsaved, and question his salvation.

In other words, unless one works hard enough they didn't receive the free gift, so Lordshippers will guilt them into working their way to Heaven (or holiness, whichever the Lordshipper deems needed), as they pay lip service to salvation by grace alone.

Salvation happens in an instance, and is ONLY real if it is a RESPONSE to God's sovereign call to it through the Spirit! Any person NOT possessing that Spirit before adding works is only working their way to Heaven!

But faith is an imperfect outward measure. Men can't know for sure, but you can. God's Spirit bears witness with your spirit that you are a child of God. (Rom. 8:16)

That is unacceptable to a Lordship Salvationist, for they crave works as the proof. Works can deceive. Lost people can live holy-ish, while Christians can live evil-ly.

The test is, are you a new creature in Christ, or not? Did you believe, or not? Did you receive Christ? Does He live on the inside? Did He change/remake your spiritual nature on the inside and forgive all your sins? That happens the moment you ask Him to, in faith!

So exactly what's the difference between law living and faith walking?

1. NO Christian will ever be morally perfect in this life.
2. That means, to others (i.e., on the outside), imperfections will sometimes be seen. Christians can live blamelessly (i.e., no major overt, willful sins), but even then, that is not perfection. The Bible says be holy as God is holy, and be perfect and complete; that means mature, and is a life goal, never a life achievement!

3. Your standard in Christ is uniquely yours at any given point in time!

Society has standards, others may have them for you, but your walk is 1:1, and whatever God has laid on your heart through Scripture and the Spirit's conviction is what you are responsible to do—nothing more, nothing less, at that exact moment!

As you spend time with Christ, he will bring new things to be changed. Rest assured, you are completely changed on the inside (i.e., in your spirit/nature), but your soul (i.e., mind, will and emotions) and heart are just beginning to be changed at salvation.

It's like you gave Jesus the keys to your moral home, and ever increasingly He begins to clean it up, one room at a time. It does NOT happen overnight!

At a minimum, every Christian has peace with God the moment they get saved. And salvation is NOT a process, nor a life-long one. It is a momentary experience with eternal consequences. It is not a mere feeling.

It is you meeting God personally in a moment/instance in time. Sanctification is everything that happens thereafter, once you are sealed by and with the Spirit. It is 'the Christian life.'

Contrary to the false Lordship Salvation theory, not every Christian immediately begins to live significantly changed behavior. Some do, some don't. Some lapse, some start growth later on.

It is NOT set in stone that all who don't immediately show behavior changed are saved or unsaved.

They may have lied to the evangelist to get him out of their lives, or they may have sincerely gotten saved and never done anything with it, or been disciplined.

No one knows for sure, but God, but a skilled evangelist can ask a new convert if they're sure Jesus came in and discern sincerity and reality that instance.

Those unable to discern will heap guilt on all if good deeds are not immediately evident, or teach that it takes a lifetime to know if one is saved. That is the blasphemous heresy of WORKS, and of the Devil!

So how does one live as an imperfect soul, yet they can live perfectly within the will of God? (I Cor. 10:13; Jude 24) They obey the faith standard God gives them, to-date! After all, it IS a relationship—not a performance.

You can try to apply the Bible on your own, and it will bring about in you a much more serious sin life, for the law is more powerful than your will to overcome the sin nature you still have, and will have until you die! (Rom. 7).

Others will try to say you are sinning (even show you verses to prove their claims), but if you are walking by faith, you are pleasing the Lord and in His will, for it is to Him alone that you are beholden!

There are no gurus in the Christian faith, nor slaves of men. Now, you can also have blind spots others point out, but it is CONVICTION that determines every decision to change that you make in His power and leading, or you simply can't do it. (II Cor. 3:5; Jn. 15:1-5+).

THIS is why the Christian can be so transparent! He is NOT being hypocritical, for he only made claim to following Jesus where He takes them, and where that is there is always freedom, not bondage.

We cover this subject in more depth on our website under 'law, license and legalism,' but I still believe many Christians, even pastors, do not understand that the Christian life is not obeying commands as you read them (i.e., "application"), but doing what God lays on your heart by faith (which is NOT the same as following emotions).

Through Scripture, specific verses will be given you to obey (and with that conviction comes the power so to do). Were He to give them all to you, you would fail, and quit from frustrated exhaustion.

It is a friendship/relationship—NOT a performance, and you are to be the slave of NO man—even misguided if well-intentioned other believers! (I Cor. 7:23; Rom. 14:4).

I could say more, but experience alone will train you to understand, as with fully understanding both faith and grace. I would merely be rehashing these same words in more diverse ways, so perhaps a re-read until they sink in is in order.

Update #1: Who Applies the Bible to Your Heart?

Some preachers act like the Bible doesn't need the Holy Spirit to empower you to do it—just read and apply, AS IF you're something on your own. You have an attitude of submission as you read, but your willpower to do commands is NOT what God teaches about how a Christian gets sanctified.

Here IS how: (Rom 7:14-25) The law (including all God's word, absent the Spirit—Jn. 6:63) is holy, BUT it kills. Why? Because you, on your own, are flesh, sold and born into slave bondage, and only free thanks to Christ. (Rom. 8:2-8) The law of the Spirit sets you free; not the law of sin and death, residing in your members, and evoked by the letter of the law.

Christ's power is greater than the power of the law (v. 3), as you keep your mind set on the Spirit, vs. sin nature/flesh (v. 5). You will CAN'T subject itself to God, and you can't please Him—even as a Christian—with your mind set on the flesh, vs. Holy Spirit. (Gal. 5:16-26)

That Galatians text TELLS you as much—NOT just obeying rules; it's a relationship!

(Eph. 4:17-24) Living by your mind, itself, it futile (v. 17), but NOT when you're renewed in the spirit of your mind (v. 23), after laying aside your old self, experientially (v. 22). The mind set on and led by the Spirit is NOT under the law, Romans 8 teaches. Spiritual success is by faith—not strong willpower (Phil. 3:3-14; Jn. 15:1-8)

FEAR TACTICS

Hell is NOT a fear tactic—which is something untrue or exaggeratedly urgent—because we NEVER know the day the Grim Reaper will be at our door—only that he WILL be.

GOD'S WILL

Is God's will a circle, or a dot? Yes, meaning it depends.

If He gives specific leading by faith, it's a dot. Otherwise, a circle.

And the circle expands as you learn more of His word, but is always based in relationship—not the amount of rules you know! In both cases, it's by faith or it isn't God's will.

For instance, if one says they prayed and sense the Lord leading them to date outside marriage, you can be sure they missed the directive!

At the same time, people UN-led by God, merely having found a verse and telling you you are to do it because it's in the Bible are known as legalists. It's ALL about leading—Gods'!

So if He didn't exist, that would be impossible, and mere chasing of random emotional impulses, and since He is, it's the Christian's duty to learn how to be led.

That comes through prayer and Bible meditation, but those are means to the end of knowing Him, and not the quantity but the quality of verses learned.

That is to say, it's not an academic competition of Bible trivia, but at the same time one can hardly if at all know Him absent Bible study and prayer!

And prayer is NO substitute for Bible ingestion. They are founded and focused when based upon it, and absent that, it's USUALLY you just expressing desires!

No one would rightly call a kid sitting on Santa's lap listing gifts they want for Christmas a relationship! Quite a selfish and immature one, at that.

Knowing the Bible and knowing God are NOT the same, but one rarely if ever happens absent the other, but it's how you study that makes all the difference!

You're meeting with God! Make it that when you're reading. Invite Him into the process.

Ask Him to speak to you through what you read. There will be no quiz on what you learned!

IF for any reason our sections on God's will and walking by faith at our website didn't make that clear, I now have, for it is vitally important.

Update: God's Personal Will
(9/9/16)

If you have a 'thorn in the flesh,' you're NOT going to overcome it, at least until it's no longer needed, to keep you humble; if you have a stronghold, it's much more work to fix!

On general sin problems that you're needing eradicating in practice, you MUST understand the difference between law and grace, or experience FAILure.

Capital 'L' Law in the Bible usually refers to Gen.-Deut., or can reference Jewish ceremonial law. In the New Testament, 'law' can reference the same thing(s), or also often references any Bible verse or command sought to be applied without the Spirit's power or initiating! That's where the FAILure comes in.

It's a GOOD thing to want to fix a moral problem in your life, but if you're seeking to do so (as a Christian) outside a fellowship (i.e., relational) leading by Him, you're doing it by willpower, and on your own.

There are times God miraculously intervenes, and you simply wake up energized to change; other times, not so much. But if you're on your own trying to fix a problem, and it's not His initiation or timing (for whatever reason), you will not only fail, but fail miserably. Romans seven describes this phenomenon.

It's sort of like when mom made fresh-baked chocolate cookies, but told you they weren't for you. You wanted to steal one even more so that if they had been offered to you.

When something is NOT in God's will, for now, when you try (vs. try by faith), your sin nature is erupted by the law saying 'NO,' and you end up acting worse, even though you are saved.

It can be a hard lesson to learn to distinguish between the two, but it makes all the difference in the world, and, under grace, there will be no boasting that 'I did that!'

I once was led for two weeks to fast, and the Lord revealed His plans in powerful and specific ways. Normally, I can't miss a meal without wanting to chew on a wall!

It's initiative, timing, trusting vs. trying, and identifying whether you have a stronghold, or thorn in the flesh. My memory thorn is probably not going to go away, which is why I write everything down, and it keeps me from arrogance over the many things God has taught me, now in 13 books.

I can't even recall all of their content, and many times I've omitted a book or two when listing them for others. Thorns WILL keep you humble, as they're designed to do. #GodsWill

GOSPEL

ALL of life boils down to this—are you going to Heaven or Hell? All else is trivia.
ONLY the Devil tells you otherwise, as he wants eternal pals. (Jn. 3:16)

The standard for Heaven is moral perfection, which is why no one has any hope apart from receiving the gift of God's standard-bearer—Jesus Christ.

EVERY act, thought, intention and desire will be judged (for rewards for the believer), and one sin for lost will send them to Hell without salvation. No way around it! Be prepared.

No one is born a Christian, no one can decide for you and no one chooses Christ on their own initiative. (Jn. 1:13)

If Jesus was a liar, all religions may lead to Heaven. If He wasn't, no religion gets you there—only faith in Him. Hell is the bad consequence for your making a bad conclusion.

LAYMEN

EVERY Sunday your church members drive past neighborhoods to get to church. KNOW you are consciously IGNORING the eternal death of all those people if you never evangelize them!

With lack of evangelism, MANY in church are practicing universalists or predestinarians, like God will save ALL or those He wants no matter what we do.

LORDSHIP SALVATION

Definitions, Problems, Disclaimers, Message

Definitions

Heaven is free GIFT—NOT something you can earn by living holy all your life, or even LESS—just promising to do so, as Lordship Salvationists claim! (Mt. 21:28-32)

It's the new birth (Christ inside) that changes you—NOT a promise to be good the rest of your life, Lordship Salvationists. Gift vs. works. Free vs. COSTLY! Read the Bible!

Mental assent WILL NOT SAVE anyone. Only sincere faith in Christ; ONLY ACTUALLY receiving Him, all under His sovereign conviction.

Peace itself may be the only INITIAL evidence of a person's salvation. What was the evidence for the thief on the cross' conversion? Only Jesus' word (which is all you need).

My dog follows me wherever I go, even when I have no food in my hand.
Perfect illustration of Lordship commitment!

I did NOT require her to do so before I chose to rescue her from the pound.

Problems

Since mid-80's Lordship Salvation has been predominant theory espoused in the American church which STILL suffers 5/10/13 problem. Saviorhood Salvationists have been closeted.

Lordship salvation's focus is man and his will, works and pride.
God's Gospel focuses on Christ and His grace, faith, and man's sinful inability to do any moral good.

If you totally commit to living holy and renouncing sin for the rest of your life,
God will give you the free gift of salvation? That's free? Balderdash!

Good deeds are the RESULT of Christ living inside you—NOT a qualification for salvation, especially just promising to produce them, Lordship heresy/error advocates.

My dog stays by my side wherever I go (because of the benefit of our fellowship), though I NEVER required it before rescuing her from a shelter. Great Saviorhood illustration!

Disclaimers

Saviorhooders are NOT against fully-committed believers—we ONLY support such. But you DON'T force it by holding Heaven over their head, but instead, by gratitude for salvation!

Saviorhood Salvation is NOT half commitment to, Christ but FULLY receiving an AMAZING gift, JUST AS the Bible says, Lordship Salvationists!

Eternal fire insurance is better than assurance of eternal fire.
We're not saved by the morality of our motives, but faith in God's moral mercy!

People can be fully committed to Christ at salvation (as Paul was), but even he credited faith as its only requirement. (II Tim. 1:12)

Message

It's a sad thing if any pastor ever feels pressured to abandon the true Gospel by denominational peers, as majority rule does not rule in Bible interpretation!

Salvation is either a gift you receive, or you must fully commit to live for Jesus all your life in order to qualify for receiving the assurance that you're saved. They are NOT the same!
One is a false doctrine (Gal. 1:9), just like you can't mix water and oil.

Some argue Jesus is a believer's positional 'Lord,' even if they fail to recognize it, or didn't submit to such.

That's ABSOLUTELY true, but not what Lordship Salvationists accept for a true conversion!

Salvation is NOT, initially, addressing what you'll do with or after it, but addressing what the lost need to do to miss Hell and be related to Jesus!

To be perfectly clear, if you sincerely ask Jesus to forgive ALL your sins based on His promise so to do, you will INSTANTLY be Heaven-bound and 'saved'—PERIOD.

Thereafter, and ONLY when you KNOW you're saved, you need to learn what that means, and how it changes your life from here on out. The New Testament is CLEAR about this. READ it!

Lordship Salvationists: Does a lost person have to promise to live for God the rest of their life to qualify to be saved—yes, or no? The Bible says no; you say yes!

Does that mean they can't happen at the same time? No. Does it mean you're free to live any way you please or want thereafter? No. See our website's appendix. It's very CLEAR.

You can't confusedly mix both doctrines in your proper Gospel presentation, and you NEVER need to appease BOTH contradictory sides to "make peace!" Be kind to all, but disagree agreeably, and DON'T compromise doctrine—EVER (especially on something this important)!

READ the New Testament! MOST epistles teach about salvation to Christians, then have an application section calling for full commitment (or greater commitment)!

There's NO rational reason to find any call to be committed (addressed to Christians) if that was REQUIRED, or you couldn't be saved!

There's NO rational reason for any exhortations to increased commitment if FULL commitment was REQUIRED for salvation. You didn't meet the requirement(s)!

And there's NO rational reason to say a Christian who lives in sin isn't UN-saved, under Lordship Salvation, as that theory requires lifelong vs. TEMPORARY commitment to God!

You get Christians committed by discipling—NOT by front-loading the Gospel with FALSE, human requirements, or by confusing sanctification with salvation!

Lordship Salvation confuses the requirements for Heaven with the requirements to being a disciple of Jesus—child-like faith vs. full commitment!

Why do I care (among so few who do)? It's FALSE doctrine (i.e., demonic), it kills sanctification success, and it scares off some people to Hell, in faulty evangelism!

Majority rule DOESN'T apply to Bible interpretation, and when 90 percent of U.S. Christians are NOT fully committed, and 87 percent don't regularly read the Bible, false doctrines is certain.

What's missing in this discussion is the main factor—God's conviction! Unless He sovereignly calls through the Gospel, NOTHING happens, or changes.

If you don't fully commit to renounce and abandon a sinful lifestyle all your life and fully commit to live for Jesus all your life, you can't have a FREE gift?

What if one renounces sin (like Gandhi), or commits fully to live holy (like many cults), but never trusts Jesus? HELL. Faith alone saves alone, Lordshippers.

But since MANY pastors DON'T know their Bible well, to be sure (or "CYA," as some say), they merge both divergent doctrines, just to 'be safe.' Faith chooses.

Faith goes out a solid limb, fully trusting God's word—NOT double-speaking in our Gospel invitations by presenting BOTH doctrines as if BOTH are true! BOTH CAN'T BE!

I may give my kid a Mercedes for Christmas. Do I give it only if he agrees to fully maintain it, drive safely, polish and protect it FIRST? NO, it's a gift!

Lordship salvationists have NO room in their false theory for carnal Christians, even though 90 percent in America are. They consider them lost, but preach to them as if saved!

There CAN be tares in church, but anyone who sincerely from their heart at any time in their life asked Jesus in their heart IS forever saved, Lordshippers.

So a true Christian can live severely sinfully for however long? YES. Read I and II Corinthians. They also may be prematurely killed, over time, as it so displeases God.

And no one has EVER been re-saved! You can call for recommitment, but since full commitment is NOT a salvation requirement, you're NOT asking for a third birth!

So you're encouraging the lost to get saved, then live like Devil? NO; exactly the opposite, but get saved first. That's ALL you address first, lest the Devil steal the seed before it's planted.

AFTER that decision is secured, you teach and encourage them to live for God because of what happened. The epistles detail that usually in the first two chapters; READ them!

Lordship Salvationists CAN'T promise assurance of salvation ever, because one could revert from full commitment even on their death bed!

By requiring works to prove one's conversion, Lordship Salvationists implicitly teach works! There is no way around that conclusion.

Lordship Salvation teaches FULL commitment for life. Anything less than that does NOT meet their requirement for salvation (NOT God's). #FullForLife!

Anything less doesn't qualify for meeting their Gospel's requirements, and full renouncing of sin, so carnal Christians aren't Christians, under their theory!

Live too sinfully (undefined in the Bible) and you prove you were never saved.
 Or they preach doubt to keep their works theology in practice (i.e., life-long unsure)!

EVEN THOUGH these posts 100 percent destroy their false doctrine, MOST U.S. pastors will just keep preaching Lordship Salvation. There's no power without grace!

And because I'm point blank honest about it, their Politically Correct-trained minds reject TRUTH because the "tone" is not as their flesh desires; you're not nice enough, so I'll believe lies.

Straw men that they use? Intellectual assent. I've NEVER said faith can be insincere or not from the heart! Encouraging sinful Christians. I said EXACTLY the opposite!

I've dealt with this heresy here for ~four years. I WON'T retweet the debates.
 People got saved under false doctrine, so they're emotionally committed to Lordship Salvation.

And the unrenewed mind CAN'T see how a person can end up serious about God unless you require it, and it believes you have to require it at first, or they never will.

God teaches to get Him on their inside and see what happens! And get His word inside thereafter (i.e., discipling) and see that grace beats law every time. Go READ your Bible!

In summary, Lordship Salvation is a doctrine of demons, heresy, false doctrine, and NOT God's Gospel. I can biblically show that; See our book, The Gospel According To God, and our website.

EVERY Lordship Salvation pastor is personally responsible for every soul who rejects Jesus from a false invitation; AKA, you're guilty of their going to Hell!

Would I rather Lordship pastors NOT evangelize? Few FULLY do anyway.
 No, because God can use any fumbled words about His son! Jn. 3:16, the Bible.

I lost a career in ministry over this doctrine (1986), and started Ph.D. studies to refute it.
 It's no small or laughing matter with me, and it shouldn't be to you!

Lordship Salvation is the SAME as starting the process of salvation by works, absent the only thing Saviorhooders require—faith in Christ!

For more on this subject, please see our book, The Gospel According To God, when it's released as part of a series of 13 books total. Thanks.

MEGA MINISTERS

(11/13/16)

Let's define millionaire minister that's right vs. wrong. No one expects a pastor to never have $1 million over time as a nest egg, or well more!

1. Paid a salary of $1 million? Depends on size of the audience? O.K., but depends on give back percent? None of your business, though a charitable organization? You've got to deal with motives and priorities;
2. Love of money is a sin. Fleecing the flock is also. Struggling is NOT required. Getting income from a business on the side is different;
3. Osteen's lifestyle is anathema. Why? Jesus never taught flaunting blessing, or living like the Jones', especially when you water down the Bible to earn it. What's his give back percent?

He doesn't fully evangelize all nearby lost—as we warned him he must/should two+ years ago.
 Paid for NOT doing his number one job. He will be poor in Heaven. Luke teaches so.

A G-6 jet for Creflo Dollar? Unheard of, even by David and Abraham's standards of their day. Gives Christ a bad name imitating the world!

You can call these opinions only. They're either right or wrong before God. Judgment Day will answer that! Servants do NOT live for money, but money is a lesser priority to God's priorities, like EDBS!

PASTOR EXCUSES

(11/15/16)

Finally, some pastors slander us as telling them their business but not doing my own (i.e., hypocrisy). I was called to write and evangelize, and DID—fully (for a layman).

'Fully' means I did the portion I was led to do, which is MUCH more than laymen usually do, but NOT your entire neighborhood, as your collective laymen are to do SOON, pastors!

How do I know my number? Faith. How can you know yours, laymen (which will likely be less than mine)? We did the math at: WillYouLiveForever.org

"If sinners be damned, let them leap over us; if they perish, let them perish with our arms around their feet, imploring them not to go. —Charles Spurgeon (paraphrased)

IF, as I assert, prophecy is RIGHT around the corner, isn't it Gods PATTERN TO WARN the entire earth one more time before executing judgment, pastors? HUH?

FBC Euless and the Church of North Dallas are the ONLY ones I've ever heard of who took this word very seriously! I KNOW there were more; NOT enough though!

We have time, Jim. Prove it with Scripture! We'll get to it. Sign your name on today's calendar date, and see when you ever return to prove yourself a LIAR.

They've already heard. Prove it to a man or woman.

The Gospel's available to them all through media. DO all hear it? Where in the Bible does it say make the Gospel available? Their ONLY nature is NOT to come investigate, but to run and hide (Ex.: Adam and Eve in the Garden), JUST as you're doing from this hard message, pastors!

We did that (i.e., FULL evangelism) in the late 1970's! I agree—I was part of that. An entire generation since then for America to be thoroughly threshed? Incompetent farmers!

How many died and went to Hell as you chased money and fame chasing mega mania trends and multi-site, seeker sensitive, relationship evangelism, and a host of other FULL evangelism BARRIERS? Numbers, please?

We preach the Gospel every weekend at our church. To the proverbial choir, mainly. GREAT for the handful of neighbors who drift by. WHAT ABOUT THE OTHERS? Crickets.

That's the laymen's job. TRUE; are they doing it? What manager doesn't (and can't) know if his employees are doing their jobs? One worthy of FIRING!

I'm ready for any more excuses you wish to throw out! Please do so. You will be retweeted for all to know your names, because on Judgment Day those lost people will POINT to you and say, 'WHY did you LET us come to this horrendous agony?'

WHAT will you say, pastors? Prepare that sermon today, for today could be that day. You never know!

Update: Pastor Excuses (Part II)

(11/15/16)

I'll end this book where it began 2.5 years ago (and pray that EVERY human on earth one day reads this last message):

Christians ALONE are responsible before God to TELL (i.e., speak to) you how NOT to go to Hell (that eternal, fiery place), by praying to receive Jesus for the forgiveness of ALL your sins (John 3:16, the Bible).

In any nation where there is a local church, those Christians are more responsible for the message getting to the lost, unsaved (i.e., 'natural') people than anyone else in the world (i.e., their OWN 'Jerusalem'), due to their geographic proximity.

And based on I Pet. 5:1-5 and Eph. 4:12, God considers pastors to be Christians' leaders, who have been CHARGED with getting laymen to do the ministry work.

I've met perhaps two in Dallas who take that charge seriously, and have reached BEYOND their share of lost people (one at my family's home church, and one at my alma mater seminary).

We have called for this over 100 times, when 50,000+ watched here live in a three-week period, and for one year after.

MANY famous ministers KNOW of this exhortation and our free website. They simply WILL NOT DO IT! I can list every excuse I've heard, but won't waste the time. See our website.

Again, EVERY PASTOR IS RESPONSIBLE TO GET EVERY LOST SOUL NEAR YOUR BUILDINGS EVANGELIZED ASAP via your laymen!

What are the consequences? For America: NO revival, and a culture RACING to Hell in a hand basket.

For YOU: A fiery, unending, dark, sad, lonely punishment in Hell forever! Yes, those Great Commission 'rebel' pastors have YOUR blood on THEIR hands.

THIS message does NOT make us liked, but does make God pleased with us that it WAS delivered. Such is the price one pays to obey vs. compromise.

After all that, I WILL list their excuses, and you can pick up your Bibles and see who's right... The excuse-makers or the mere messenger who (like you and them) is accountable to God.

1. That's not our business model. Church is NOT a business before God, and if your model can't reach every nearby lost soul ASAP, it's NOT God's model;
2. My peers don't do it. That's the sheep off the cliff group think ERROR! The Bible IS your career blueprint—nothing more or less—and certainly not tradition, or industry standard;
3. It might scare off "tithers." Do you value money or obedience to God MORE? If the former, you may be a false prophet addressed in Jude and II Peter—in ministry for money!

I've been criticized for making standards for pastors DIFFERENT from my own. I am NOT a pastor. When I was, we started implementing this model, before false doctrine ended that pursuit; NOT mine, but opposition to true doctrine (details on our website).

I WILL (and never will NOT do so) continue to speak about pastors' biblical job description, not because I'm anyone's boss, but My Boss makes me tell the truth, especially when pastors ignore it, and eternity's on the line for YOU (the reader).

There is NOT one valid reason why any church can't reach every lost soul nearby their un-commanded buildings in three years or less, and now it's been two+ years (and counting), and MOST U.S. pastors haven't yet started, or even begun the process by publicly committing to do so.

Repent, American pastors—or judgment is SURELY coming soon, and the revival you NOW often pray for will never be experienced!

Hell in eternity is the ONLY matter of "value" in life, and if you LOVE people, you'll go and tell vs. attract by the UN-biblical come-and-hear methodology that can NEVER ensure that everyone hears.

It is professional incompetence for every church NOT to have a log, documentation, a tally of who lives where, and if they're saved or lost—PERIOD! Ministerial malpractice!

You are NOT logging your victories, or identifying efforts STILL needed!

Zip code 76115 has been FULLY reached! SHOUT it to the mountains, and proclaim the GOOD news everywhere! <http://bit.ly/1SMCBgC> <http://bit.ly/2FBtTQB> @SWBTS @DrMattQueen

THAT IS A PITTANCE for the universal church! What percent of your neighborhood has been reached, local churches? You have NO idea! Sin and embarrassment (unless you have a hard heart).

PASTORS

Introduction, Needs, Priorities, Evangelism, Problems, Application

Introduction

If the pastor nearest your home hasn't ensured someone tells you about Jesus, he doesn't love you, or mind that you're going to Hell.

It is ministry MALPRACTICE for ANY claiming pastor to NOT know the spiritual condition of EVERY lost person within two to three miles of their church (with laymen's help).

Evangelizing at church is like looking for a bride at a couple's retreat!
Jesus preached to crowds, but He disciplined 12 men. LEARN His ways!

US pastor: I BEG you for one week to study the New Testament on what church is to be in God's eyes, and re-evaluate your traditions to change them to God's model!

Needs

Pastors are to preach and teach, but ALSO DISCIPLE. Jesus preached to crowds, but disciplined the 12! Hospital visitation is more the laymen's job. (Eph. 4)

Pastors need to concern themselves more with being relevant to God than their culture, for in so doing they often inadvertently embrace the world.

Priorities

ANY pastor who has not evangelized ONE person outside their building in the past month is clearly FAILING to lead, thereby failing God!

The ONLY reason an American pastor would say he can't implement EDBS priorities is his being over-burdened with NON-God commanded ACTIVITIES!

IF a pastor wanted to relationally disciple 12 members, take three people out evangelizing every week and reach ALL people within three miles of the building, he'd still have time for his sermon prep.

Evangelism

American pastor: DISCOVER what percent of your members evangelize, regularly have a Quiet Time and are fully committed to Christ. That's your DUTY!

American pastor: THIS Sunday shut down the worship service and go evangelize the nearest neighborhood. You'll see your passion is not fully reciprocated.

NO WONDER America is NOW a mission field. Many churches are piercing themselves with many pangs (i.e., love of money) vs. evangelizing and discipling!

If the church reaches 1/5th of the lost world using "quality-intensive" methods, they FAIL if lesser "quality" methods would have reached them ALL (and sooner)!

Problems

Pastors will be GUILTY on judgment day if they haven't led in reaching ALL in their church's field/sphere of earth, and urgency is biblical pace. (Jn. 9:4)

Preach a sermon and you've done great job (if many come) is NOT God's church model, but only man's tradition. Read the Bible, and learn something! (Mk. 7:8)

Preaching a sermon, being nice to all and saying God demands ten percent of your money will NO LONGER be accepted as a pastor's job description or "Christianity!"

I fear to see pastors' faces at the Bema judgment when God asks them why they never evangelized those nearest to their buildings! A national SHAME!

PASTORS are responsible to disciple their church members. (Eph. 4:11-13, I Pet. 5:1-3)
Disciple 12 people and train them to be able to do the same. (II Tim. 2:2)

IF a pastor does not relationally disciple his members, how does he really expect many to ever evangelize? There is little courage if little mature conviction.

Pastor: If YOUR spiritual life has never been replicated in another person, You may have preached MANY sermons, but you have never fully disciplined!

Application

Biblically motivate laymen, then train, then ask them to go out evangelizing with you, pastor, all prayer-backed. Persistence. Keep asking, if rejected!

Pastor: Invite a layman to go personally evangelize with you, and to have a quiet time with you daily till in that habit for 30 days. Do it, and have them pass it on.

Pastors: You MUST do YOUR PART of Acts 1:8 in the various spheres— at home, in state and country, and globally. Again I say, You MUST—ASAP!

Evangelistic pastors: It IS your business on God's behalf to exhort fellow pastors to be that same way! We're a family vs. autonomous business units! (Rom. 15:1)

PERSPECTIVE

The GREATEST life lived for God begins with one's casket and works itself backwards! Life begins only when it's lost (Lk. 9:24). We have eternity to have fun!

Christians are to ONLY view people as lost or saved (i.e., evangelistically)— NOT rich, famous, black, tall, poor, beautiful, etc. (II Cor. 5:16)

POLITICS

My hero Reagan galvanized the religious right into politics with abortion and gay marriage omitting helping the poor and decrying greed and selfishness

It is sinful hypocrisy and professional negligence for any church to oppose gay marriage and abortion when they have zero plans for reaching every lost person within three miles of their building with the Gospel in the next three years (or less).

Even if our socio-political efforts resulted in zero abortions or gay marriages in the future, their former practitioners still go to Hell, absent faith in Christ.
Band-Aids are no substitutes for cures.

The Bible teaches Christians to decry greed, love of money and selfishness, and help the poor—not just bemoan homosexuality and abortions!

The religious right IGNORES these verses like the can have NO application to politics, or are evil—
Ac. 2:44-45, 4:33-35, II Cor. 11:8-14

The WELL over 50 percent divorce rate (even among Christians) and drunkenness are sins you hear little about today, but the religious right wants legislation vs. abortions and gays.

PRIORITIES

Global SPIRITUAL priorities: Priority 1, Evangelize all lost people; 2. Disciple all saved people.
3. Feed all poor people. Is this REALLY that complicated, Christians?

Churchianity: A Christian can go to church and "tithe" and be completely CARNAL.

I was from age 8-18. It DISPLEASES God, and loses you many Heavenly rewards, (etc.).

Body Life testimony: I experienced Body Life at Highland Baptist Church 1978-1981, where laymen gave quiet time testimonies, prayer requests and answers, met others' needs in the church service.

PERSISTENTLY PUSHING Christians to have a quiet time with you for a month is the BEST way to get them in the habit, with busy lives and even with good intentions.

RELIGION RATIONALITY

(11/12/17)

DON'T speak of politics or religion—it ONLY leads to arguments, and splits up friends—right? So says cultural norms. But let's examine the claim: NOTHING of importance would ever be discussed between people. Is that intelligent? So let's burst right past that myth, and address "religion:"

[Private account:] What happens to those born prior to the year zero... and indigenous tribesmen and women in the jungle of the Amazon who have never been ten miles from their village or seen a non-indigenous person or a book?

GOOD question, and the Good Book of a Great God has a GOOD reply: Rom. 2:13-15. ONLY those who Christians FAIL to evangelize have the standard that had they been, how they would have responded evidences faith to God, credited to them as if they had responded to a Gospel Christians failed to obediently tell.

So WHO goes to Heaven, and who goes to Hell, and who's to say? EVERY human but Jesus goes to Hell if their sins are not forgiven by God—all of them—in one singular event the Bible calls being 'born again.' It's instantaneous, NOT an emotion, and God's work to initiate and fulfill, with a proper response of faith.

I HATE the term "religion," for all the ritualistic, legalistic, boring and dead acts and rules that word can conjure! ONLY due to Jas. 1:27 would I ever use the word. Better is a personal relationship with Jesus!
Through asking God to forgive anyone of all their sins, can they have THAT—one-on-one, daily fellowship; a Friend; one to lead your decisions; and the assurance of forever with Him, in Heaven—NOT Hell.

It's due to His paying the penalty/punishment for your sins vs. you paying them yourself, in Hell, forever.

I NEVER ask any human to become a 'Christian,' or join any church. Everyone DOES need to meet
God, personally, and I've asked hundreds of THOUSANDS to do so.

So do only 'Christians' go to Heaven? Let's address that odd term, too (i.e., Christ-ins). Many people use the word, and it's NOT what they are. And many who are live lives no different from any others, maybe even worse.

So let's better ask, who goes to Heaven, and why. ONLY people with Jesus living in their heart go! Christians come in any and all forms, cultures, race, countries, and there can be born again people in other religions—IF they received Jesus.

The point is, that most "religions" people believe theirs is the only way to Heaven. Jesus said there's only one way—through Him (Jn. 14:6; Ac. 4:12).

So are all others damned to Hell, because they're NOT Christians? ALL men are damned if God hasn't forgiven them ALL their sins, through the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross. This was His idea—I merely state what He taught. God has opened a door wide enough for EVERYone to go to Heaven, and for me to believe He lied, and there are multiple ways to go to Heaven would be me being unfaithful to my beliefs about what He taught.

I would not respect any other person of faith/having a 'religion' countering their core beliefs in whatever they teach about Heaven and Hell, so why become a hypocrite (a sin), or apostate, in saying what you know to be false?

Let's go in more detail: Who goes to Hell, and why? Everyone unforgiven. Does that mean kids not old enough to know right from wrong? No. Aren't they sinners deserving Hell, like us all? Yes, but God requires the ability to respond, positive or negative, and He forces none to choose Christ, or to go to Hell—without their consent.

What about the tribesman who has never heard how to be forgiven? We addressed that earlier, with an inquirer.

Why do people go to Hell? Isn't being born a sinner, guilty and destined to Hell too unjust? If we only knew all mankind lost in Adam's fall, we would see why one sin qualifies us to be proven to be sinners, by nature (Jas. 2:10; Gal. 3:11, etc.).

So you are born a "sinner," then prove that by just one sin; most of us, many sins. So are Christians "sinners"—like the false apologists for Chump said, 'we all sin?' We humans are all imperfect, but Christians, technically, are called saints (NOT in the definition you may think—holy in deeds).

This is how God calls and views born again people/believers; ALL sins forgiven; people refreshed, renewed, clean, holy in Christ, new creatures, etc. (See: Identity in Christ, at our website). We still sin, and can't be perfect in this life, but we have a relationship directly with God that lasts to Eternity (Eph. 2:18).

So one sin sentences unforgiven people to Hell? Yes, as one sin is all it took for Adam and Eve to lose all the glories of their pre-Fall life—a direct relationship with God, with all the perks and benefits which that entails.

And, finally, are you saying all religions lead to Hell but yours? I'm saying what God said: ALL people unforgiven through Jesus go to Hell—even "Christians" (i.e., claimers/professors vs. salvation possessors). We all, equally deserve it, and will experience it, without that.

Why? Because His death, as a sinless sacrifice, was for ALL men; therefore, NO other way was left open! Works do NOT work.

So back to the "religion" question: I NEVER ask anyone to join my religion, for I have none—I have a relationship, and I ask any and all to join me in that!

Yesterday, I spoke with two street corner sign-holding groups seeking to get car drivers into Heaven. They both had a church they'd like people to go to, but NOWhere was it promoted!

I have given the Gospel to multiple hundreds of thousands of people, and NEVER mention any church, denomination, or pastor's name—EVER! If people ask where I attend, I may say, but it is IRRELEVANT! Heaven and Hell are on the line. THAT has to be solved! God bless. John 3:16!

[Private account:] If your god knows everything before it happens, why did he let people reside in locations in which they could not be evangelized? Also, he supposedly already knows who will reject him/her/it before they are born.

AFTER the Fall of man, mankind had free will. God allowed it. He never created robots, and doesn't force people to be saved from Hell. And His knowing everything doesn't mean He forces every deed in life! He DOES know who rejects, but that doesn't mean He forces them to. It's called foreknowledge! Thanks!

And one more tip I've addressed before: Why believe what Jesus says about Heaven and Hell?

1. He's the ONLY person to ever resurrect from death—never to die again;
2. He lived a morally perfect life (say authority to speak);
3. He claimed to be God;
4. His miracles attested that fact;
5. His perfect words; and
6. His fulfilling all Old Testament prophecies!

So why believe the Book that tells those things? For that, even Twitter's 180 characters aren't enough. You'll have to go to our free website's 'Apologetics' section. There's evidence, reasons, facts and truth for why it should be trusted: WillYouLiveForever.org See also, Josh McDowell's Evidence That Demands a Verdict book, too! Adios!

...and our Facebook (Jim Meroney) account has one speech devoted to the logic of apologetics for believing both in Jesus, and His book, the Bible.

But I have promises to keep, and miles to go before I sleep, so I must bid you adieu. Adios, farewell, and good day. DON'T go to Hell, unwarned! READ John 3:16, today, please.

RELIGIONS

Working your way to Heaven? One sin makes one guilty of all sins (Jas. 2:10). Salvation is gift—NOT earned. (Gal. 2:16) Perfection is God's standard, and why we need Jesus.

You can be of ANY religion and love and serve God and still go to Hell if you never ask Christ to forgive ALL your sins and save you from Hell! (Jn. 14:6; Ac. 4:12)

Being certain of your salvation seems arrogant only to those who wrongly believe that Heaven is a reward for good works, not a gift despite our sins.

Forcing ANYONE to your religion does NOT yield sincere adherence to it, no matter which religion tries it!

REPROOF

RANGE of ethics (vs. positivity idolatry)—encourage, exhort, correct, reprove, rebuke and eventually church discipline and even Rev. 11:5. LEARN, church!

God USUALLY warns before judging, and our rebukes of the American church are MERCIFUL if she were to meet God unwarned of her 5/1/0/13 problem's consequences!

TRUTH sometimes hurts, but it's the needle prick inoculating you from further harm!
Love truth, and discern its difference from lies and inaccuracy.

REVIVAL

Revival HASN'T come and WON'T come until the American church gets their priorities in order.
I've seen some do this. A handful sample is NOT what He calls for!

The LARGEST barrier to revival is the lack of Quiet Times. Sermons teach the Bible, but lack the 1:1 intimacy of relationship with Christ development!

Is anyone aware of several hints of spiritual awareness in America that have occurred the past three to four years, or are our heads still stuck in the world's sand? AS OPPOSED to years gone by there was the Harvest Festivals, Billy Graham organization hosted My Hope, SCOTUS gay marriage opposition and Planned Parenthood, the Southern Baptist Convention revival prayer meetings, Southwestern Seminary evangelism days, North Texas Presidential Forum, the Woodlawn movie and Billy Graham's son's 50 city tour of American capitals next year for putting God back into politics (Franklin Graham). And, the National Bring Your Bible to School Day.

SALVATION

If you go to Hell you have only yourself to blame. If you go to Heaven you have only Jesus to thank.

(Jn. 1:12, 3:16-17) Pray to receive Jesus TODAY. (II Cor. 6:2)

NO ONE is unaware of the day they were born.

If you don't recall when you were born again, perhaps you never were. (Jn. 3)

SANCTIFICATION

Definitions, Motivation, Identity, Problems, Disclaimer

Definitions

Growth in Christ is progressive. The sin nature is NEVER eradicated in this life.

God gives faith (and power) on verses to apply. (Rom. 14:4-5, Phil. 3:16)

Sanctification isn't automatic. It takes active participation (and resisting the Devil).

(Rom. 13:14; Gal. 5:25; I Pet. 2:1-2; Phil. 3:7-14)

You can produce no goodness without Christ producing it through you (as you rely on Him).

(Jn. 15:4-7; II Cor. 3:4-6; II Th. 3:16)

Motivation

Christian motivation by eternal rewards is NOT selfish—it was God's design.

Arrogance says I'm good just cause I'm holy at heart. Humility.

As a Christian, EVERY promise God gave to the church is YOURS.

Claim them, to become more like Him. (II Cor. 1:20, 7:1; II Pet. 1:2-4)

Identity

You are never condemned in Christ (i.e., identity), but your deeds may certainly be called out by Him and His messengers (i.e., behavior). Read Rev. 2-3!

Your identity in Christ FUELS sanctification, but when it doesn't (i.e., carnal Christians), we must be honest about things that bring down God's reputation in society.

Problems

If you slap your wife, you have an obstacle in your relationship but you still have a relationship. Such is the impact of a Christians' sin. (I Jn.1:9)

Exert NO effort, know NO Bible and pray little-to-none, as a believer, and living only as others do, and you are 'carnal' with that cultural morality alone.

Christians are NOT judged as to Hell, but they WILL be judged (for rewards, or not). (Heb. 10:30, Rom. 14:12). Fear God, and turn from evil! (Mt. 10:28)

Disclaimers

NO ONE is perfect, but a Christian can be perfectly in the Lord's will! (Jude 1:24, I Cor. 10:13, II Cor. 2:14). Understand this from experience!

SOCIAL MINISTRY

GOP WASP Church: Jesus said "I was hungry and you gave Me food, thirsty and you gave Me drink"—NOT you ONLY taught Me to fish!

Black church says Dem, WASPs say GOP. Are brothers divided for God's principles or our own?

WELFARE is NO substitute for church's obligation to help the poor, Christian conservatives. Love of money as number one U.S. church barrier to spirituality.

SUFFERING

In Acts, evangelism bred persecution, then persecution prompted increased evangelism (Ac. 5:41-42) WHATEVER it takes! (Mt. 28:18-20)!

THEOLOGY

Spiritual MYTHS: Too Heavenly minded for any earthly good? Having God's view makes one care about the needy on earth—spiritually and materially! Don't value the Devil's idioms!

Morals prove salvation? Not always! Lost people can behave VERY moral and Christians can behave very evilly. Ultimately, it's Christ within, or not (i.e., you can't judge a book by its cover).

'I WANTED TO STAY RICH' will NOT be an acceptable excuse on Judgment Day for much of your EXCESS not solving social problems, rich people!

Camel in eye of the needle and pierce selves with many pangs are NOT endorsements of seeking riches, conservatives! (Mt 19:24, Jas. 2:5, I Tim. 6:10)

TITHING

The biblically un-required '10 percent Christian tithe' is primarily used to support biblically un-required full-time pastors and biblically un-required church buildings.

UNLESS the Church IS Israel, Christians are NOT Pharisees (Mt. 23:23) or physical descendants of Jacob (Mal. 3:6). II Cor. 8-9 is the Church's giving chapters.

Are you giving to GOD? Find out SPECIFICALLY where your donations go, to whom and in what amounts. You might be shocked! ALWAYS follow the money trail.

Tithing helps society none, except if any of it goes beyond salaries and buildings to help charities. Also, non-evangelistic and morally immature members help none.

ONE speech a week for 40 minutes and one deserves 1/10th of everyone in the audience's salary, says God? NO! Says a WARPED view of the Old Testament Jews' national theocratic tax!

Update: Gracious/Generous Giving

(1/15/17)

Biblical Christian giving is, 1. Generously; 2. Cheerfully; 3. As one has determined in their heart; 4. As one has prospered. NO percent is given! (I Cor. 16; II Cor. 8-9)

According to how one has prospered COULD imply if a church member LOST money, as from calamity, body life members would help. (I Cor. 16:2)

If you have prospered greatly, give greatly; if not a lot, give not a lot. Either way, give generously and without compulsion!

That formula is NOT as the Holy Spirit leads, but gives members an idea of what to pray for and consider in their giving. Needs trump wants.

Let's get PRACTICAL about Christian giving: 1. Establish a FULLY transparent, NEEDED budget; 2. Divide that by the number of members; 3. Adjust that amount by high or low income categories!

The ten percent+ tithe was a Jewish theocratic tax, like Washington D.C. and your church staff both taxing you at the same time, as there was no separation of church and state.

Tithing (i.e., ten percent of your income) is NOT required of ANY Christian, sermons notwithstanding. READ more, opine LESS-laymen!

The Old Testament doctrine of tithing does NOT carry over into the New Testament! The ONLY references to a tithe in the New Testament were concerning Abraham and Pharisees (i.e., Jews), as historical references! READ it!

CHURCHianity's two favorite verses are Mal. 3:10 and Heb. 10:25. You're a BAD Christian unless you show up regularly and give ten percent—NO MATTER WHAT. Law vs. grace sanctification!

IF I were a pastor (again), I'd tell members to give as the Spirit leads, but know we have 'X' budget size that we all voted on, and our bills need to be paid.

It AMAZES me how many Christian laymen DON'T know what Bible teaches on giving. It's sort of like when priests taught in Latin to keep the masses dumbed-down!

New Testament Christianity had believers going to church gatherings BECAUSE THEY WANTED TO, and freely giving to meet every believer's needs. (II Cor. 8)

You will read NOWHERE in the Bible where church attendance or tithing is emphasized as what makes a Christian good or bad with God (vs. with pastors).

GUILT is the HEART of law-based sanctification, and EXACTLY what Churchianity uses to get loyal, paying customers; NOT grace or New Testament!

It AMAZES me that churches DON'T tell lost people in their Gospel presentation that salvation is a free gift, but immediately afterwards we want your loyal membership and ten percent of your income. That's GOOD news?

IF laymen had actual ministries that God led them to do, church budgets with professionals as ministers would NOT be as large! Ministry work is usually free! (Eph. 4)

The ONLY entity that can force money away from you is government. Tithe preachers use the Jewish theocratic commands to guilt uninformed people with a similar power.

YOUTH MINISTRY

(6/2/16)

I really fear for our youth! We have a generation who rejects Christ (predominantly). The 10/40 window and they should be the Church's evangelism focus!

They've been brain-washed in public schools that God's dead, just be nice and P.C., religion's NOT cool, don't go to church—just have fun and play video games or with your smart phone.

Statistics from George Barna are CLEARLY factual that say that Gen X, Y, and Z have abandoned opposition to homosexuality and abortion. Failure, though those are NOT the only moral topics impacted by politics!

The LGBT lobby and activists, in collusion with Politically Correct advocates and our public education system have labeled everything racist, hateful etc. Don't drink the Kool-Aid when it's UN-true!

You can 100 percent LOVE LGBT's and still say their behavior is sinful, even abominably so. They DON'T accept that, and say that's a contradiction in concept—it's NOT!

My concern and prayers are now shifting from EDBS priorities for pastors to our younger generation. We CAN'T assume all of them get Bible ingestion like mine sort of do!

Youth Ministers are the key to discipling Christian youth to go evangelize their own! I've been one and we did. They're often seen as second stringers, but they're KEY personnel.

They're seen as preachers waiting their turn and to grow up. That's NOT fully TRUE. They're reaching youth who may turn off to older ones' sermons or church practice.

Anyone who views a generation collectively will MISS that salvations are an individual matter. One at a time, and soon many will be saved.

DON'T stereotype gen X as all non-churchgoers, God-haters, etc. IGNORE statistics and go evangelize them one at a time. You can still know that statistics indicate a larger percentage turned off to church than my generation!

Attracting youth to church is NOT the Bible's answer. Get them saved first, but DO have something worthwhile to come to once they're saved vs. robes and two hundred year old hymns.

WORKS

Problems, Misunderstandings

Problems

We are ALL sinners by merely being born. Just one sin proves and confirms that fact, and God does NOT balance good deeds against bad, for Heaven!

ONE sin qualifies EVERYONE for Hell. So serious a matter this is that a broken relation with God through Adam damns us all! Receive Jesus! (Jn. 14:6)

Misunderstandings

Saying someone went to Hell offends those who believe in works, taking it to mean that person lived evilly. Salvation is by faith, not by 'good' works.

Most people are generally 'good'—by MAN'S definition, but ALL are sinners, by God's. Pray to receive Jesus or there will LITERALLY be 'Hell to pay.' (Jn. 3:16)

Non-Christians: Christians do NOT teach against good deeds, but good works don't earn anyone Heaven. Salvation is a gift of grace through Christ.

HISTORY

We got a good debate started on this statistic being a LITTLE off in past ten years, but it was constant for 30 years, and when our website was first posted, nearly eight years ago—five percent of American Christians EVER win one soul to Christ, and few-to-NO pastors have taken the Gospel to every lost person near their building. Judgment is assured.

We got 71,000 viewers at the height of our messages to Christians, and even Linked-In contacted me about the HUGE response, and I rarely use them.

U.S. pastors: If you choose NOT to evangelize EVERY lost soul near your building(s), you're accountable to GOD. DON'T try to explain it to me! (Eph. 5:16)

PERSONAL

Am 'i' pleased a few churches changed on evangelism and discipling? Yes. Is God content that that's enough of them needing changing? NO WAY in Heaven!

On Judgment day you can't tell God you never got my messages on Twitter, pastors. Why do you live NOW as if THEN will never be here? Right around the corner.

By the grace of God alone, I'm NOT an evangelism hypocrite (and proud papa when our teaching takes hold!)... Hunter initiated us taking evangelism exhortation signs to local mega church today. See signs at WillYouLiveForever.org (parts 8-11)

Hats' off to Evangelism Explosion, Campus Crusade and The Navigators—quietly doing their GREAT work faithfully for DECADES!

I'm NOT a fan of using God to get rich! A MUCH bigger mansion in River Oaks now, with his watered-down motivational speeches! Ugh! (I Tim. 3:3)—Osteen had a huge mansion on Dover Dr., Houston, way back when he was but a lowly media staffer at the church that milked the poor at the time.

III-D2. PASTOR PRIORITIES

(2/26/16)

SINCE I'll likely NEVER get an offer to speak at churches on evangelism and discipleship, HERE's what pastors should do that I would have:

Sit on a casual stool, as intimately close to the crowd as is approachable ("non-confrontational"); pray for about three-to-five minutes, then look them in the eyes and say, "I want to have a heart to heart."

Tell them to prayerfully close their eyes and ONLY hear your words and see/visualize Jesus as He is, and thereby ACT as if I were ONLY conversing with YOU, individually...

As your pastor the past ___ years, you KNOW that I love EACH of you immensely. I HOPE I've demonstrated that to EACH of you in unmistakable ways. If NOT, please tell me.

I have ONLY your best interests at heart and only God's will in mind as my ambition when I tell you that I know for a fact that we as a church are NOT reaching our FULL Christian potential as INDIVIDUALS.

Now, I may not know all of you the same or as intimately, but well-respected researchers tell us that ONLY five percent of us have EVER had the privilege of leading one soul to Jesus, and that ONLY ten percent of us are fully committed to Jesus, as He asks us to be.

This saddens my heart, and I confess to you today that I take FULL responsibility for these problems, as I have failed you as your chosen leader under Christ. I want to apologize to you today.

I am NOT inspiring you enough through my hard-studied sermons or evangelistic lifestyle, and I pledge to you that I am GOING to do better.

Please pray for my strength and endurance, as I DO lead you better into our Father's will. As a first step in that process I want to share a couple of things from my heart.

[Then give them EVERY Bible verse you can find, and EVERY logical reason to study the Bible personally, and to evangelize].

Make the sermon EXCEED any time limits if that's what it takes to get that information into their heads. That is NOT a consideration! People can and will leave if they have obligations.

I will do EXACTLY that (absent the pastor testimony) for any church, anywhere, at cost, if you want to blame the messenger if any get offended.

You cannot telegraph that this MAY become a sermon series, as you risk people NOT coming until it's over, as with 'tithing' sermons. Use the element of surprise. DO it.

Real-Life Interjection

[My son is playing this. PASTORS: Listen to the lyrics, and SPIRITUALIZE it! So timely he's playing it! [Break Through the Silence, by Martin Garrix] Then I cleaned our two rabbit cages and two guinea pig cages. That's the ONLY experience anyone needs to run for office, especially in D.C.! Then the third car's battery was dead, as we rarely use it. It needs a jump start. That is a PERFECT analogy for the American church. It takes a car with energy connecting to it. (II Chr. 7:14)]

Continued

Walk out AMONG your members as you speak this. Let them KNOW and feel that you care PERSONALLY, pastor. INDIVIDUALIZE your call for evangelism and Bible reading!

In DUE time, ask for testimonies of evangelism, and for publicly mouthed memory verses on those two subjects. HAVE BODY LIFE! You're NOT the ONLY minister.

Interjection on Personalizing

[POWER of the PERSONAL: Our shelter dog's past has 180 degree changed by eye-to-eye contact, patting her head, rubbing her tummy, saying 'good girl,' and her sleeping at my feet. 1000 percent change!

My choosing to go to Charles Ryrie's funeral is a model for pastors to get laymen to evangelize and be disciplined. My wife and his daughter's input changed my decision, with decent reasons not to].

Continued

Have an altar call to sign up to go evangelize with the pastor and staff, with ZERO obligation on them but to pray and smile and OBSERVE.

If you need REASONS to 1. Be fully committed to Jesus, 2. Read the Bible, 3. Pray, or 4. Evangelize, READ our website. There are MANY Bible verses (and MUCH logic) there, so there's LITTLE work on your part! For example:

1. EVERYONE goes to a literal HELL without Christ, and the Gospel is the ONLY message to fix that, and the Church is the ONLY organization commanded to TELL it ASAP!
2. BILLIONS are lost, FEW evangelize, and people die (unexpectedly, or not) ALL the time, and Jesus could return at any time. ISN'T that ENOUGH for you to go work, Church?

UNLESS you know the spiritual condition of EVERY soul within three miles of your church, you are ONLY playing church. I can't say it any more plainly than that!

Pastors: Publicly READ aloud our On Hell and On Heaven sermons on that website. There is NO need to credit me for it. #JustDOit, please! Faith PLUS faith-based WORKs (Jas. 2).

Pastors: Read aloud to your congregation your choice of the BEST Bible verses from our website's Memory Verses section. Have laymen read them aloud, also! HAVE Body Life, SOON!

PASTOR PRIORITIES (PART 2)

(4/25/16)

It's SAD that I have to address this AGAIN, but there are always newbies at our account. To SOME I'm a church "bully, trouble maker, thorn in the side, mean-spirited, arrogant judger."

They think I go around LOOKING for problems to criticize, and expect perfection. Here's the TRUTH: For more than 30 years God has led me to do and be for His top four priorities.

Every church SHOULD at a MINIMUM know the spiritual condition of every lost soul within three miles of their building. In a nutshell, that's it. WHY?

Why should every church know that within three years and within three miles? It DOESN'T take more than three years if the membership is utilized. The Bible commands urgency. WHY?

Everyone GOES TO HELL unless they receive Jesus, and the CHURCH is the ONLY entity charged with getting that message out—to EVERYONE; urgently, as it's HELL without Jesus.

Why three miles? WHO ELSE is MORE responsible for the lost nearest to their church? A church FARTHER away? That makes NO sense! And pastors are to LEAD!

You're demanding perfection, some say. WHY do you claim that when it's VERY doable? Sin! WHAT's the alternative? People go to Hell who MAY not have!

That's BIG! Bottom line, there's ZERO excuse or legitimate reason for delay, and this IMPARTIALLY applies to EVERY church in the world. I'm NOT picking on anyone.

YET there are criticisms of being rude, haughty, mean, a bully, etc. WHY do some SLANDER us that way? SIN! They don't want to, and likely NEVER will DO it.

For 30 years America HAS NOT been 100 percent threshed, and that condition CAN'T continue. I've NEVER gone around looking for problems; GOD leads me as He HATES this statistic!

PLEASE Twitter search "evangelize asap" to see how MANY times and how LONG I've called for this after YEARS of ministry. It's time for OTHERS to take that mantle!

For three weeks about 1.7 years ago HERE a STADIUM FULL of people (so said Linked-In) watched God lead me to write on those four main topics; the viewers were MAINLY pastors and laymen.

HOW do I know? At the time I exploited a Twitter 'glitch' where if I followed and messaged NO ONE, I could basically see who dropped by (confirmed in other ways, also).

Twitter has CHANGED that glitch (so now I DO follow people), and it's NOT as easy with algorithms usually the reason you see accounts in your 'View all' section, but it's still LITTLE bit possible.

The point being, MANY U.S. pastors SAW that three week Tweetfest, and a few were brave enough to commend, criticize or especially—CHANGE. HERE's what was presented:

Church is MAINLY boiled down to 'EDBS' priorities—evangelism, discipleship, body life and social ministry; NOT just song, silver and sermon for bodies, bucks and buildings, or preach and be paid.

And Christianity is NOT the same as Churchianity, where the MAIN two Bible verses your walk is evaluated on are go and give, or Mal. 3:10 and Heb. 10:25 (depicted as being a 'good Christian').

God says life in Him is a daily walk, 24/7—NOT an hour on Sunday! If you don't have a daily ten minute quiet time, you CAN'T hardly be effective in that walk.

That's where discipling the way Jesus did with His apostles comes in, and ministries like Campus Crusade and the Navigators do it BEST!

Then, when the church is gathered (usually on Sunday), we are a family and a body, and God gave us (spiritual) gifts to edify and minister to each other with—NOT just in age group ('Sunday School') settings! That's body life—DOing the 'one another's' of Scripture.

Finally, when a local church is evangelizing (especially those lost who live nearest to it); an Ac. 1:8 principle, growing up to maturity the Christians with Jesus-style discipling (i.e., pouring your life into a few until they can do it to others—II Tim. 2:2), and they're HEALTHILY operating as a body (vs. just professional musicians and speakers—two of the MANY spiritual gifts, Eph. 4, et al), that body is KNOWN by outsiders for its care and its prayer's EFFECTS! That's social ministry (Jn. 13:35; Mt. 21:13).

THAT is what church IS! READ the whole Bible, especially the New Testament. This sums up its MAIN functions, NOT in 'my' image, but God's!

So you get OPPOSITION from SOME pastors who DON'T want much if any change to status quo. Church as a business works to pay bills well, to which Jesus would say (and do) Jn. 2:15!

Update: Evils of Evangelismlessness
(2/28/16)

I NEED to explain something I DON'T think I've ever been able to properly communicate... Mt. 28:18-20 and Mk. 16:15 ARE TO A MAN/WOMAN, period and literally!

What's that mean? Churches having MANY activities where evangelism MAY occur NEVER ensures it does to ALL that church is responsible to reach!

Why? Because we NEVER objectify/document/prove/verify that all who hear by those means are totaled up, so we know all who DIDN'T hear, so we can know where work is still needed!

So what's a local church responsible for? At least those lost souls living nearby! Ac 1:8 implies reaching one's home turf first, and logic says to mow your own lawn, or harvest your own field!

That means even if 500 churches joined for one last Billy Graham crusade, and 50,000 attended, minus the saved attendees, you deduct that number from the city's total population.

This does NOT mean those church events and that combined church event are not GREAT, and maybe MORE than any other church does for evangelism!

It DOES mean that we do NOT take Great Commission SERIOUSLY in our own nearby neighborhoods. If every church DID that, there would be LITTLE work left to be done (Ex.: The 1040 window, etc.).

What's my point, and why's this message SO hard to understand? Pastors see this as criticizing evangelism being done even when done more than other pastors. I'm NOT.

The point is that some (VERY FEW) pastors have DONE THEIR SHARE, a handful have done MORE than their share, yet we never know what work remains!

That's NOT the duty before God of those FEW ministers who've done their share or more. Most pastors mainly preach to the choir and feel holy about that.

Jesus died for everyone, NOT just some. In the book of Acts, the apostles itinerantly moved from town to town, reaching entire cities. READ THE ACCOUNTS!

They did not ONLY reach their home church's nearby lost people, so the PROOF is there that more primitive Christians COULD and DID exceed their own field.

That's STILL not my point. Many pastors don't even achieve the minimum that IS achievable, and within three years maximum—evangelizing ALL nearby lost. That's VERY tragic.

And just MAYBE we accidentally reach them all using our various events, and even other ministries' efforts (Ex.: TV, etc.). WHY DO WE NEVER KNOW, YEA OR NAY if we do?

Either because we never thought about it, or we DON'T CARE. WHICH is it? Evangelism Explosion in the late 1970's DOCUMENTED homes reached PER FAMILY MEMBER!

With a false Gospel, Mormons and Jehovah's Witnesses do the same even today. I've heard "JW's" mark completed mailboxes with chalk. They care more than we do with our (eternal) life-changing Gospel!

Documentation. War room. ANY good business person tallies their sales, and targets non-subscribers! It's NOT about bean counting but LIVES lost and missed.

The crack SOME people will fall through by our ineptness is the abyss. Three mile radius. That's ALL I'm asking every pastor in the world to evangelize—documented (i.e., provable).

You'd be SHOCKED how easy it is, how quickly it CAN be done, and how LITTLE needs to be done thereafter, GLOBALLY, but you'll never know under status quo! It's even FREE!

We REALLY have NO excuse! They did it in Acts, Jesus died for them all, and the Great Commission DOESN'T say pat yourselves on the back for reaching only POCKETS of people!

We utilize a SWISS CHEESE evangelism methodology that leaves HUGE holes of humanity! Maybe we DON'T believe the Great Commission literally?

What's your excuse, local pastor? You don't want your church's reputation "tarnished" by being THAT identified with Christ's Gospel? It may "turn them off?"

As a BRILLIANT minister once said, WHERE ARE YOU GOING TO SCARE THEM OFF TO? HELL NUMBER TWO? You DON'T even have to say you're with a church; I NEVER do!

It TRULY boils down to the Nike slogan ONLY. You're either going to CHOOSE THIS DAY to obey the Great Commission, or throw darts at the dart board of ALL those Christ died for.

Three mile radius. NO OTHER CHURCH is AS responsible before God for the lost living CLOSEST to them hearing the Gospel! CAN YOU (biblically) DEBATE OR DENY THIS?

Let's address some EXCUSES I've heard, even from pastors. We're not an evangelism association. Do you REALLY think THOSE organizations will 100 percent harvest your nearest field?

You don't HAVE to be one to do your God-given calling. READ the three PASTORAL epistles (II Tim. 4:5, et al)! That excuse is HOGWASH, and you NOW know it!

We DO evangelism. GREAT! Incomplete evangelism is like a math tutor saying we do math tutoring, but he/she doesn't know algebra or trigonometry!

Doing evangelism as one of the many things a church does is NOT the exact same as doing COMPLETE evangelism, which is what you're CALLED to do in your own area!

Better is to say we DABBLE in and dawdle at evangelism. That's not what you mean, but often what you do when a church says we 'DO evangelism.' Be honest!

We can't do that three mile radius thing. Why NOT? You WON'T do it is a LOT more accurate statement. You freely and consciously and willfully refuse to for whatever reasons.

I'm NOT asking the world of you, and it's really not me asking anything. God by His Great Commission asked you, and you alone to DO YOUR PART. WHY won't you?

P.S.: I also heard, that's NOT how we do evangelism. Do it however you want, but you can NEVER document that the entire job gets done using your methods, and that's BAD!

Use one-on-one/door-to-door ONLY after you tally the results of all you DO, but do it ALL in three years or less. I've said this for two+ years, so 'we're' already behind!

And, research says it takes an average of seven Gospel presentations to elicit a positive response, so even if 'all have heard,' they haven't heard enough times!

Or maybe the person(s) who DID evangelize before you were caustic, didn't know the TRUE Gospel, didn't use Bible verses, or were untrained by yourselves!?! These are ALL possibilities.

God can save a DONKEY with ZERO human instrumentality, but the Bible's evidence is that He usually doesn't, but uses Christians as His mouthpieces—if they're WILLING!

'God's not looking for your ability, but your availability,' so said The Navigators (or Campus Crusade? Forget the source, remember the CONTENT)!

What's the rush? You can NEVER prove when people will die, Jesus will return, or who hasn't heard until you DO what I've detailed here. WILL YOU DO IT?

Use II Cor. 10:16, I Cor. 3:9 and II Tim. 2:1-7 (especially verse six) as evidence for this farmer's field fully threshing concept. You'll find you run out of excuses!

Finally, ASTUTE pastors will see that the three mile plan encourages inter-church cooperation, as there are usually MANY churches within that range, and duplication is dumb and wasteful redundancy during your venture.

If any pastor views this message as one being a "bully," YOU explain to lost people why you won't evangelize them. I write as I'm told, and will help at cost, but ONLY if the aspiration is for 100 percent nearby saturation.

PASTOR PRIORITIES (PART 3)
(9/7/16 & 9/8/16)

The American church's CARNALITY problem is MAINLY from worldliness, and walking by sight! 90 percent of Christians are NOT fully committed, and that's NOT my statistic or research!

What you care and talk about, what you spend your time, money and energy on, what centers your desires and aspirations shows who's god of your life—Jesus, or you! Judgment is coming!

Materialism is the American church's number one barrier to spirituality. SO clinging to this world, our Bible ingestion is USUALLY through a third party at church once a week.

Unbiblical tithes cleanse the consciences ONLY of UN-informed Christians. God can't be bought off by our token commitment disguised by Churchianity, sinful ones.

90 percent of American Christians are NOT fully committed to Christ. That makes them NOT disciples, and under the false Lordship Salvation theology makes them unsaved, or lost.

If any U.S. pastor is content with laymen regularly attending and giving, he cares about serving himself more than God's 'EDBS' priorities interest. Perhaps they are false prophets?

The condition of the American Church is primarily responsible for the materialist and secular condition of the American culture! Repent for revival.

Relational discipling and a daily Quiet Time are the main solutions to Christian carnality. If you aren't into those, PLEASE don't tell others you're a Christian!

I'm absolutely convinced judgment will start with God's people—soon. I'm also convinced Bible prophecy is right around the corner thereafter.

On EDDBS priorities, nothing is as importantly urgent as the "E."

I'd rather have billion spiritual babies in Heaven than a hundred mature ones, if those were my only options. Until all are reached, all else is VAIN.

Pastors: Please read this statement as many times as it takes to understand it—until all lost hear the Gospel, all else you may do is trivial by comparison!

On judgment day God's NOT going to be impressed with how many sermons you delivered, how eloquent, how big were your buildings! You'll see the lost sentenced.

May EVERY pastor driving by any house this weekend be HAUNTED by a picture of those people in Hell because he WON'T go evangelize them using, laymen. (Eph. 4:12)

You're driving to glory land through a cemetery! EVERY pastor PLEASE read that first phrase as it relates to your going to work this Sunday!

Every pastor, PLEASE meditate on this one phrase—Hell is real. You do NOT understand that three-word sentence until you go evangelize! Lip service otherwise.

Perhaps the greatest pastor of them all, excepting Billy Graham, far out-performed you if THIS is not your motto!, "If sinners be damned... let them perish with our arms about their knees. Let no one go there unwarned." —Charles Spurgeon

EVERY pastor, PLEASE meditate on these lyrics as the basis for one sermon in your next three: [Asleep in the light, by Keith Green] THIRTY YEARS and it's STILL true! Horrific.

If in your mind's eye you cannot see the majority, like sheep, going off an eternal cliff into Hell, you're BLIND! READ MORE BIBLE and evangelize MORE.

Jesus could return any day—even today. Your neighbors could die and enter Hell today; why the delay? I've called for this for more than three years with LITTLE change. Why? Sin.

It AMAZES me that after HREE years of calling for FULL evangelism near our church buildings, few if any have even started systematic efforts to do so!

No one's more responsible for all nearby neighbors being told how to go to Heaven (vs. Hell) than the local pastor; yet they willfully REFUSE to do so.

You evangelize your OWN 'Jerusalem first,' just as a farmer fully threshes before he branches out to new fields. Most pastors WON'T do FULL evangelism!

In the 1970's pastors DID full evangelism. That's an entire generation who HASN'T been thoroughly threshed. You LET them go to Hell!

CULTS thoroughly spread false doctrine. It's important enough to them to ensure every house gets reached. NOT so with God's church. It's the ultimate crime against humanity!

'Come and hear me preach' is NOT taught in Scripture! The only three times people did, the preacher was physically unable, it was bringing the lost directly to Jesus, or one believer told all that he knew beforehand!

I have NO patience for any pastor who won't publicly commit to lead his members to evangelize ALL nearby lost people, ASAP!

We're SO deceived by what we see! Life looks positive and never-ending with medical break trough's, and new products that distract you from Col 3:1-4.

If one pastor could see life from God's perspective, he'd see all of life is only preparation for judgment day. See your neighbors that way today—they're Hell-bound!

Few sense how CLOSE prophecy is. If you could see how lost America is by lost people wearing all black, DARK would be the "in" fashion trend! READ Mt. 7:13!

You just don't care! IF you did, you'd change your behavior. Intending and wanting full evangelism saves no one. You get NO credit (or rewards) for such emotions.

You are BLIND to reality! The majority will forever burn in pain and agony with NO let-up, and you are letting it happen, so you're sentencing them there by your silence!

You have the cure—the ONLY cure—yet you require people with NO spiritual nature to come to a spiritual building. God set NO such obligation on lost people.

Instead of telling lost people 'go to Hell,' or 'may God da_n you forever,' you say the EXACT same thing by POLITE silence, pastors. JUDGMENT is coming!

Revival is NOT coming. You pray in vain for it as you refuse to do the number one thing God still has you on this earth for. Why expect any blessing? That's irrational.

If your nest egg's $1 million or more, you won't change a thing, as things are 'working.' Working to appease your flesh. You'll be BROKE in Heaven, IF you're going there!

The Laodicean era is our era. Proudly, we see crowds and buildings and BIG salaries, and believe all is well, though we're sick, poor, dead and deceived, and never know it!

DON'T DONATE ONE DIME TO ANY CHURCH WHOSE PASTOR WON'T PUBLICLY COMMIT TO EVANGELIZE ALL NEARBY LOST ASAP THROUGH THIS LAYMEN!

DON'T ATTEND ANY CHURCH WHOSE PASTOR WON'T PUBLICLY COMMIT TO LEAD HIS MEMBERS TO EVANGELIZE ALL NEARBY LOST PEOPLE ASAP. Ichabod!

FIRE YOUR PASTOR IF HE WON'T COMMIT TO LEADING YOU TO EVANGELIZE ALL NEARBY LOST SOULS ASAP! I'm not speaking figuratively here, laymen!

If God were sending Jesus to return in the Rapture (meaning the Tribulation would be here soon), wouldn't He thoroughly harvest the world first, as is His nature?

God's children's' "leaders" REFUSE to obey God on FULL evangelism. I'll say this until I die or until it's no longer true!

There's nothing as evil, mean or selfish as a Christian who will NOT tell you the Gospel! You don't want to turn members off, or you'll lose their donations! That's idolatry of money over obedience to God. Deal with the REAL!

PROVE to me everyone near your church has heard a correct, loving and empowered Gospel presentation in the past three years. I doubt one pastor can. Apostasy.

Lord, may judgment begin with the people of God, for if You skip that and go straight to the Tribulation, NONE OF US have any hope.

Revival is a fantasy in the land of dead men walking. God does NOT bless half-hearted devotion, or one foot in the world!

May the U.S. church be completely ignored as 100 percent irrelevant (even in politics), if she doesn't SOON repent and implement 'EDBS' priorities.

I pray that while they sleep, U.S. pastors have NIGHTMARES of faces of neighbors burning in the non-skin-melting flames of Hell, then wake up in a cold sweat!

Stick your big toe in scalding hot water today, pastor. Get a smidgen of an idea of what you are sending your neighbors to FOREVER, staying inside cloistered walls!

Race your hand across a candle flame today, pastors. May you feel a smidgeon of the pain YOU are inflicting on your neighbors FOREVER, by mainly preaching to the choir.

You may not get rich heeding this message, but only by your WORLDLY, temporal, UN-biblical definition. You'll be BROKE in Heaven, and deservedly so! POOR.

GO EVANGELIZE, pastors! Leave your pulpit (where hardly no lost people hear you) and go to where they are and where they live. They did it all the time in the book of Acts.

Hate me. I do NOT care. Call me extreme. I don't care. Call me judgmental or a hypocrite. Still don't care, and that's un-true. I'll help you—email me!

I pray any church whose pastor WON'T commit to fully evangelize all nearby lost ASAP receives a judgment SO clear that even lost people see God's hand in it.

I don't care one ounce how great Heaven will be. That's a sinfully SELFISH consideration if you haven't FULLY evangelized all nearby lost!

I BEG someone to put a billboard in every major city that says: 'May God judge every pastor who won't commit to evangelize all nearby lost people ASAP!'

I BEG someone to put an airplane streamer in every major city on Sunday morning reading: GO EVANGELIZE, pastors!' I pray someone will!

I wish lost people would confront churches on Sunday—even protest them—with signs that read: 'These people want us to go to Hell.' Shock them out of complacency.

If non-Christians ONLY knew the horrors awaiting them because Christians WON'T tell the Gospel to them. That's worse than murder, as it's 'death' forever!

SHUT DOWN YOUR CHURCH THIS SUNDAY AND LEAD YOUR MEMBERS TO GO EVANGELIZE NEARBY, IF YOU'RE REALLY A LEADER, PASTORS!

So that there's NO room to hide, let's address the top excuses pastors might use to AVOID leading laymen to evangelize all nearby lost people ASAP:

I didn't know. If you've read the Great Commission, or I Tim. 2:4, you know!

It isn't my spiritual gift. It IS your spiritual calling, so who cares? It's not mine either.

This (church) isn't an evangelism association. Do you REALLY think Billy Graham type ministries are geared for reaching every house near your un-commanded building(s)?

I evangelize from the pulpit. The Bible teaches 'GO and TELL.' A SMALL percent of your neighbors will ever drop by (I Cor. 14:23/Jas. 2:3; "IF," not "when").

They've already heard the Gospel in America. PROVE IT, TO THE INDIVIDUAL LEVEL!

They have access to the Gospel through radio and TV. God didn't say make the Gospel available to them.

Surely someone will speak the Gospel to them. That's a HUGE, Hell-sending assumption! Five percent of Christians have ever won one soul to Christ in their LIFETIME!

And finally...

I just don't "feel led" to do that. It's too radical, and God isn't an extremist (or it can't be done). You're living off fleshly feelings. It's NOT extreme to reach all nearby lost—it's your DUTY as a leader (Eph. 4:12/I Pet. 5:1-5), and it's VERY possible within the next three years if you have the ability to LEAD laymen. Do you?

It boils down to you do NOT want to do it. It's easy to be for evangelism—it even looks commendable. It's HARDER for many to actually do it, and that makes ALL the difference in the world (and the coming one).

No, we have excused ourselves into IN-action, like saying 'that's not how other pastors do their ministry.' Then they're ALL wrong!

I give no wiggle room on this, because God doesn't, and I know the urgency, simply because the Bible teaches it! WHY DON'T YOU?

Jesus could return in the air any time, HUGE numbers are lost, and SMALL numbers evangelize, and your neighbors could die forever at any time. You are without excuse, pastors! (~Rom. 1:20)

As long as American pastors CHOOSE not to evangelize all nearby lost people, revival will NOT come, judgment WILL come, and your influence on society will continue to wane.

P.S.: We didn't get the message? ~50,000 of you did here two years ago, and God will make this message to pastors get world-wide in His way and time!

P.S.S.: Zip code 76115 has been FULLY threshed by my alma mater seminary. Pastors have NO EXCUSE in their own neighborhoods! (See: Southwestern Seminary's 'Everyday Evangelism' program).

If you don't know your spiritual gift, HOW can you effectively serve as a member of the body? Body Life is IMPLEMENTING the one another's of Scripture during the meeting of gathered believers—NOT just in smaller groups! (I Cor. 14) (1/8/17)

Of those four priorities (i.e., EDBS), the E and S bless the world, whereas the D and B bless the church; and God is blessed by us doing all four. (1/8/17)

PASTOR PRIORITIES (PART 4)

(7/28/17)

Bi-vocational ministry was FINE for the apostle Paul, and he FAR out-ministered the modern preacher. HUGE lesson there—DON'T miss it. Hint: Money idolatry.

Preach and be paid CHURCHianity is NOT biblical Christianity! The pastoral epistles detail a pastor's job description; preaching is ONLY one element.

Do you want to know why revival will NOT come to America? Every pastor is quick to compare themselves by themselves and their peers (II Cor. 10:12), and since others are NOT doing EDBS priorities very much, we feel by sheepish group think that we are O.K. before God. We are NOT! Judgment is coming to the U.S. WASP church! (I Pet. 4:17)

II Tim. 2:2; Gal. 4:19; I Cor. 4:15 ALL speak to discipling, as with Christ's example with the 12, as opposed to His only preaching to the crowds! FAILURE, pastors!

And there's not one U.S. pastor I have ever heard of who is certain his members have spoken the Gospel to every nearby Hell-bound neighbor. That's hatred and sin!

NO church I ever hear of teaches their members their spiritual gift, and utilizes them in ministry and in the worship service to edify the body, and DO the one another's of Scripture, whereby outsiders can know us by our love, and prayer results (i.e., Body life)—Jn. 13:35; Mt. 21:13 THIS is why I say, no revival!

And which group of U.S. voters opposes the poor and down-trodden being helped the most? Conservatives, among whom are, in lock step, evangelical Christians, when Jesus went around doing good all His ministry life!

These Christians have outsourced social ministry to government and charities, then vote to de-fund government!

Tithes were Jewish taxes that covered Welfare, yet political conservatives say it's evil to use any of my idolized money to help anyone, because the Constitution is greater than the Bible, by THEIR warped interpretation of BOTH (better: Their ignoring the latter).

Christians should be LEADING in solving the world's problems which businesses can't profit off!

You do that, and a conservative calls you a "do-gooder." I guess that makes them what George Bush called an "evil-doer," and would they accuse Jesus of being a do-gooder? Or they call you an "activist," which by default, makes them rightly called inactive pacifists.

I've said before, many times, that the deplorable (better/more biblically: 'carnal') spiritual condition of the U.S. church is primarily responsible for the moral decay and condition of America.

And buddying up to the most evil president in 50+ years (by the Christian Cabal gang) is NOT going to change that one iota!

Temporal, secular power is NOT the answer. Renewal, revival, spiritual power, discipleship, commitment of Christians to their claimed Jesus—THAT would change the world, but most WON'T!

Because we love our money more than our God! Do you EVER hear any sermon on the plight of the people in other, poorer nations? THEY don't EXIST in our minds and life experiences.

Don't bother me with information on them... it's NOT my problem! Really? WHO said you are your brother's keeper, and who is my neighbor—everyone, as the Good Samaritan parable teaches.

Evil doers? The Devil? Mean liberals? God Himself taught those concepts, but since sermonizing/throwing sermons at you doesn't do the trick, just as it didn't for Jesus to the crowds, you NEVER learn these things from WASP pastors. In fact, taxes are a direct assault on their chance at a tithe!

More financial stress on you, so they vote against taxes, when they're DISobeying Mt. 6. READ that chapter; put God's priorities first, and He takes care of your other needs.

I've heard MANY a Christian get rich, THEN serve God. You are living off the fruits of your labors, but you have filthy lucre for how you acquired it!

It is the result of sinful idolatry, so you can't quickly sanctify it after the fact, and make up for the years the locusts stole from your eternal rewards.

If you hear vague reference to Bible verses you heard somewhere (in this message), there's a REASON for that. And if you barely know where those verses can be found, there is a REASON for that, too.

Ask any U.S. Christian layman how many people they have won to Jesus, and ask them to recite ten Bible verses.

The proof is in the pudding on our claimed interest in serving God over mammon! Yes, the U.S. church is spiritually BACKWARDS from God's priorities—carnal and apostate.

Please list for me churches that preach this! You will NOT get a long list. It's negative, discouraging, makes us feel bad. It's the TRUTH! Be the people of truth! (I Tim. 3:15)

And, unfortunately, this ALL stems from poor pastoring! In American church culture, pastors lead laymen. By God's standards, they're NOT leading very well!

IF YOU HEAR THESE CONCEPTS IN ANY U.S.A. WASP CHURCH SERMONS, please tell me the church's name! There's a REASON! I'm NOT craving your money!

III-D3. How To Go To HEAVEN

Why isn't Heaven gained by being good?

1. No one is good by God's entry standards, so no one would enter Heaven (Rom. 3:10).
2. It's a gift vs. earned (Rom. 6:23);
3. God DOESN'T balance good vs. bad deeds, or grade on the curve;
4. You would NOT need Jesus, which minimizes the cross.
5. You'd be proud (so you'd have sin about your accomplishments; Rom. 3:27).

In short, you can NEVER be good enough to go to Heaven, which is why we all need Jesus; Jn. 3:16, the Bible.

Are you saying don't be good? NO! Just saying do so, but it will never end you in Heaven, absent Jesus received in your heart.

Are you saying all religions adherents are all going to Hell except Christians?

1. Not all claiming Christians are saved. 2. Christians go to Heaven ONLY due to Jesus.
3. ANYone can go to Heaven if they're saved!

Do you love people in all religions? IMMENSELY, which is why I'll ONLY tell you the TRUTH, as I want NO ONE to go to Hell misunderstanding its requirement!

Aren't there many ways to God? NOT according to God (Jn. 14:6, Ac. 4:12).

You rely on the Bible for your answers, but there are other holy books. NOT with its credentials. READ IT, and READ Josh McDowell's statistics about it at our website.

DON'T GO TO A FIERY ETERNAL HELL. Someone who loves you would tell you the TRUTH on how to go to Heaven. Someone who HATES you would NOT warn you if you were going to miss it. We warn you about that here!

III-D4. How To Avoid Hell

(2/25/16)

Ninety percent of American Christians are NOT fully committed to Jesus. There are GEORGE BARNA'S STATISTICS SAID THAT, not mine. NO WONDER multitudes of them love Donald Trump. Sin reigns in U.S.A. (i.e., power idolatry).

WWJD? NOT vote for Donald. You go to church, sing, maybe give, BUT YOUR HEART IS FAR FROM ME, SAYS THE LORD to the American CHURCH MAJORITY! (Sorry, it's true).

The American Church is RIPE for judgment, and if Christ's body is THAT immersed in the world, what judgment is due the lost? The 7-year Tribulation! Huh? I've never heard of that.

The U.S. Church SPURNS evangelism and Bible reading! That book is a DUSTY bookshelf prop. To Hell with the lost—I WON'T speak to them attitude! Sinful ones! Evil!

90 percent of American Christians are ready to experience judgment, and have peanuts in Heaven as their 'rewards.' WHO CARES? My job pays well and I drive a BMW and have a big home!

ASK ANY CHRISTIAN TO QUOTE JUST TEN BIBLE VERSES TO YOU. ASK THEM TO TELL YOU HOW YOU CAN AVOID HELL, SPECIFICALLY. Crickets!

Evangelical has the word "evil" within it, because 90 percent of claimers do NOTHING (to speak of) for God, and are powerless worldlings! PLEASE judge us, Sir!

YOUR PASTOR WON'T TELL YOU: GET YOUR LAZY BUTT OUT OF THE WORLD AND START SERVING GOD AND READING HIS WORD, LAZY, CLAIMING U.S. CHRISTIANS!!!

You dress up on Sunday but your lifestyle is ragged beggar clothing and filthy rags, 90'ers! Nice buildings; NOT nice hearts! Judgment.

You idolize money, fun and comfort. May you lie in a bed of despair and misery if you won't repent, 90'ers! Sackcloth and ashes are NEEDED today!

The SYMBOL of Bible knowledge gets buried today, and the SYMBOL for evangelism likely "soon" (i.e., Billy Graham). NOBODY, TO SPEAK OF, KNOWS OR CARES! Tears galore.

May God judge his U.S. Church SOONER rather than later, that we would be spared a worse, DESERVED fate. God means LITTLE to us, sinners! Anathema.

We are NOT going to win back our nation to common sense, morality and smart policies if the Church (as a WHOLE) does not first get right with God. Only four years left till @Pledgers2020.

Pastors: Multiplication is how Jesus disciple, and you are NOT smarter than Him. Start with a handful committed to do the same once they're trained.

One-on-one asking a select few to have a daily quiet time with you for one month, and to go evangelize with you one-to-two times (only praying and watching).

You have too many parishioners? Jesus preached to the crowds but disciplined the 12. Are you going to out-do our Savior? In your heart pride says 'YES,' sadly.

Your one-to-the-masses method produces shallow, empty, disobedient, carnal people who so fit into cultural morays that you can't see their condition, sirs.

You need your salary, buildings, and people bragging on you for your sermonizing? LIE. You NEED to DO God's will, and the rest will take care of itself, U.S.A. pastors! (Mt. 6:33)

Heaven or Hell. That's ALL your 80 years on earth end up with, so the only lasting purpose is to solve that dilemma for all for whom Christ died! DUH.

Fire, pain, darkness, fear, worry, agony, screams, no relief, and, worst of all, NO LET UP forever. YOU face this future, maybe today, reader!

THINK about forever. Think about America's debt, tripled, and you haven't even started thinking about the first stage of forever for YOU in Hell without Jesus. #FoolsWeAre John 3:16

I DON'T even care to tell you how great Heaven is, because you are NOT going there, so I'd only be teasing you like an elderly man with a cute young chick!

Fire. Go stick your toe in scalding water. How tough are you—really? You can't even do it for five minutes. Pass your palm over a candle. How long can you endure?

Fire. You do NOT get the PRIVILEGE of a deformed face from burn scars, as the damage KEEPS OCCURRING, yet you cannot stop breathing in Hell!

No drop of water, no place to run, no place to hide, no pocket away from the heat, the pain, the fire. Don't be scared, be awakened to TRUTH today!

PROVE to me you will NOT die today. Hundreds if not thousands will. Prove to me Jesus won't start the Great Tribulation today. You're WEAK and feckless, man.

In pride and in vain you "know" you have many more years. You lie to yourself. Don't you even have enough self-respect or love to care where you go after death?

I'll TELL you where you're going—to Hell. ONE sin qualifies you, and we have ALL done at least one. WHO CARES? I'm going to go make money today. Hell is coming for you.

Distractions, deception, and denial. The Devil's three D's that KEEP you Hell-bound! The world distracts, the Devil deceives and you deny Hell is your destiny, man.

I HOPE you see flames in your sleep tonight, daydream about fire falling from the sky and Dachau-like bodies (i.e., skeletons), yet it will be YOU, without Jesus!

I care LITTLE that Easter is approaching. Your need for salvation is today, every day you are alive and can call your existence "today." You are not invincible!

Do you NOT know your condition? You may be the nicest person ever to live, but ONE SIN SENTENCES YOU TO HELL. Can you handle THAT? Pray Jn. 3:16 today!

I now have large scar on my face. I HATE it, but it's better than dying of cancer. There are no scars in Hell, for that would mean burning HEALS there!

You're dying every day of the sin cancer as you believe yourself ready for Heaven because you aren't evil like ISIS, deceived, foolish ones! ONE sin gets ALL into Hell.

QUIT concern for stock prices, sports results, political gain. GET YOUR EYES OPEN THAT JUDGMENT IS COMING AND YOU ARE NOT READY! Jn. 3:16, the Bible Hell is a four-letter word, because Hell is an evil place you are heading toward, MAYBE today. Heart attack. Car wreck. Old age. ISIS cells. Jn. 3:16, the Bible you spurn.

Meditate on Hell today. You can think about God's love, but you MUST make decisions with FULL knowledge, and you NEED to know about Hell as your sure future, man.

The Devil has LIED to you there is reincarnation, cessation, Purgatory or annihilation. There is ONLY Hell. Read that again until it rocks your soul, man.

"Hell no" means emphatically, as fire all over your body every day with no end of days is intense. Saying "go to Hell" is derogatory, as Hell is to God's creation's intended purposes.

"He's going through Hell" is hyperbole for one enduring struggles, because you will struggle every day forever if you go to Hell.

There is no Hell? The Devil told you so, because he wants you there as his companion. It's a figment of people's imagination? It's the reality of your body—SOON! Jn. 3:16, the Bible

Heaven's where goody-two-shoes people go who have no fun, AS IF Hell is a party? There are NO parties in Hell. ONLY flames forever. #FlamesForever

I can concern myself about that another day? Get your calendar out and prove to yourself YOU ARE A LIAR. Mark the date, and hope you survive until then!

Jesus will NEVER physically return to earth—that's a myth? WHEN you see Him in judgment in the Tribulation, know that I warned you you were playing the FOOL!

God's dead? The Devil's alive, because he told you that lie. You hate politicians lying to you all the time; quit letting the Devil ruin your ETERNITY in Hell, man!

You're using scare tactics? If you'd come to my house I'll hide behind a door in the dark and yell, for fun. THIS is no scare tactic, it's TRUTH you so hate.

Deny, deny, deny. That's a river in Egypt (the Nile) and I have a bridge in the Florida swamps to sell you. Deny Jesus ever lived on earth. Hell loves you!

Heaven's a crutch, and a way to avoid life—like the movies? Do my political tweets show one denying life's realities? You're being played for a fool. (II Cor. 4:4)

If you can't handle the truth, the truth will handle you ways you can only imagine, and I've tried to describe here. Receive Jesus TODAY! (Jn. 3:16)

III-E1. SPIRITUAL BACKGROUND

For the past 35 years, I have served God in an evangelism, discipleship and especially writing ministry, as I worked in various secular employment (lawyer, Management Consultant, college professor and sales). For 18 years I wrote full time (and sold part-time). In the late 1990's the Lord nudged me to expand that personal ministry work to start affecting pastors, local churches, and eventually the national church (from 2014-2015). The details are at our 'religious' website ("church conflicts" section). The culmination was a 5,000 paged analytical Commentary on the New Testament, and that 667+ paged website, which went online in about 2007 by the continually gracious work of a pastor friend. Although it summarized the most important materials for Christians, it sat there a few years, virtually ignored (I knew nothing about marketing, and still know little).

Then one day, a famous pastor must have taken the time to read much of it, because after years of privately nagging him to make priority changes in his mega church, for a period of about 4-5 years the sermons and programs reflected that change, and the fact that he understood the vision. The changes were so dramatic, that for the past three years or so I have don't nothing behind the scenes, as the changes are nearly on auto-pilot, to-date.

Personal Testimony

[At age eight, in Southview Baptist Church, Lincoln, NE] I wanted to be forgiven all my sins, and go to Heaven (and NOT Hell), and God called me to salvation through the song, There Is A Fountain, and I went forward and prayed a "sinners prayer."

ONLY when a persistent and kind gentleman at Baylor nagged me to study the Bible with him for 30 days, did anything change. He nagged for about two months! I'm SO glad he did! (3/10/14)

My freshman year at Baylor, I even had lust wall of Playboy centerfolds in my Penland dorm room, until that guy got me in a Quiet Time habit, and God changed everything for a 10-year Christian. (8/29/14)

It took a crisis in my life to sell out ALL for Jesus. I caught a serious girlfriend two-timing me. Whatever it takes be sold out to Jesus. (11/6/13)

Within 1.5 years of that daily Quiet Time habit—10 years after salvation—I started evangelizing, and have hardly stopped, until God said for me to be an evangelism "mobilizer." (9/28/14)

III-E2. CREDENTIALS

And just for the record, your political statements are dead on target.

–@elburrodetejas (1/19/14); @TheAJmRecords (retweeted 2/1/14)

I am running for high office. But why have you never heard of myself, and what have I ever done? You have not yet heard of me (though most VIP's in America, and some beyond) have, because I have spent 18 full-time years researching and writing 15 books that are only now hitting the market. In a word, I have never sought fame or notoriety, but peacefully enjoyed following my God in the things he led me to do. DETAILS REFER OUT

And what have I done? Besides the more mundane things you can read in our bio, along with those books, I can state, humbly yet accurately, that God using myself has achieved no less than a significant changing of American politics and Christianity (in the past three years).

That's a bold claim, you may say. But I want you first to know two things: I do not lie, and I plan to present my evidence for such claims in the exact way, as a lawyer, I would lay out a court case, assuming there could be some who are absolute skeptics, and would not believe my claims unless they had actually lived alongside me the past three years. For those less doubting, I apologize in advance for the tedium of such proofs! Many who are aware of our tweets on a regular basis could testify that even the following statement is predominantly true: God used our tweets to in a large way, affect and guide many events in the 2016 presidential political season! Our book, Wit and Wisdom, uses its appendix to, in part, show how that occurred, and on what events.

So why would you have never known about it? You never stumbled on to our Twitter account! I have never advertised it, I rarely use hashtags, and quite literally, it serves as my personal diary, so I have never cared who dropped by, or never even knew it existed! The Bible teaches humility, not tooting one's own horn, and not being a self-promoter. Not only is that my personality, it has been my commitment since college. However, if and when God chooses to raise one up (like Paul, after approximately 18 years in anonymity), He can do it, and how He leads you to behave in ways that can cause such results is not sinful, but obedience. I can say with sincere conscience that my running for office, and publishing all these materials is solely to that end. In fact, one cannot win a political end without enough people knowing of you to consider voting for you!

III-E3. MY SINS
(AKA, political skeletons)
(11/7/16)

When I visited T.D. Jakes' church, in his sermon he called revealing these type things were irrational, or sick (which makes me wonder what he has to hide?). So, to proactively diffuse some critics who would look up dirt on myself when I run for office...

Let's give you a head start... Divorced in 1985, after three years enduring a marriage legally based in fraud, but for conscience's sake I endured it, as a minister, as divorce was not an option to me.

I got so clinically depressed I required treatment, as suicide was a more acceptable out. You're free to ask my family (as I'm sure you will) about depression, even before then.

When God first started telling/teaching me these things in 1981, I drove to Colorado to live and write and serve Him in that way; I quit seminary; I got SO depressed when these thoughts ceased, as that mission ended, I had to be medically treated.

You'll NEVER know the high, or low of it ending! On the negative side, I made one untrue statement to three parties, and on the positive side, experienced a miracle that defies physics and laws of scientific (which I will let others tell you about), both of which God may use if I ever need exposure to fulfill His mission for myself, being a nobody (II Cor. 12:11).

I was as testosterone a male as most others, with perhaps six women. I'm NOT proud of it, but did it. And I NEVER had sex with any of them—save my first and second wives.

I cussed quite a bit in those years—NEVER when in ministry—and my intensity gets me in trouble with that, even now.

I'm overweight, and not great at fixing it—JUST LIKE my favorite and home pastor Houston hero, who finally resigned himself that he couldn't beat it (said it from the pulpit). I feel your pain!

One time, after my ex-wife threw a wine glass that broke on my right foot (a scar I still possess), I pushed her off me, and she fell back a bit with closet clothes to hold her up.

And, yes, since our marriage was based on a lie (she promised she weighed 'X' amount, and on our honeymoon her diary told me the truth—I always told her that for me that would be a deal-breaker), I did call her a pig, buy her a dress way too small, and hide ice cream, to help her lose.

I did sleep in a room separate from her with my dog, before we divorced.

One time in high school my buddy and I streaked in Illinois, as such was the craze—we did it in a forest in the dark of night.

I've probably skinny dipped, I played strip poker with a BFF and a girl at ~age 12, in Champaign.

I stole one shirt, working at Oshman's, at age 14, and I didn't tell my boss that I knew exactly who slit all four of his tires (my BFF, at the time); I only said he may have (though he did).

Relatedly, I could tell you EXACTLY why we split our friendship, and why he's now in Georgia, if need be, but I'm not vengeful.

There are rare times my kids frustrate me, and I've probably said I'm 49/51 percent glad to be dad when there are severe challenges.

I've even said, perhaps once, that 'I hate people,' when enough of them frustrate me.

I missed out on a college fraternity, supposedly because of my cussing on the basketball court (I'm intense, and I like to win!).

Feel free to find any and every women I ever dated (most are cute, and great gals) if dirt's what you seek. I was too pushy with two of them.

I once called my ex-father-in-law 'ignorant,' because he didn't know where his daughter was, and he said a venue which was incorrect. Uninformed would have been a better word choice.

I had a lust wall of Playboy centerfolds the first half of my freshman year in a Baylor dorm.

I've given you a head start. I'll think of others as people do thousands of sins in their lifetime! Lied? Rarely. Feel free to dig up skeletons. You think God didn't know you would when He called me? DUMB thought!

I was drunk three times (maybe five, total) in high school; one time unable to remember how I got home from the [former] Summit's ZZ Top concert.

Rude, arrogant, caustic—I expect those allegations from pastors who didn't like my SUCCESSFUL methods God led me to change American Churchianity. See our media section in this book!

One time I went too far in reprovng two famous pastor, and I apologized by deleting those tweets. I've been to jail three times—TO DO EVANGELISM. Gotcha! You thought you had something then!

I speed quite a bit—never dangerously. I've got a lot to do, prophecy time is short, and Texas is a BIG state. I don't plan to change that anytime soon, with so much to do. Sorry.

I was a FAILURE at Ernst and Young, because I should have known "systems" meant that I would be coding (i.e., computer programming). I had NO talent at (or interest in) that, but always wanted to do business consulting.

I shouldn't have accepted that offer, as I knew my only goal was to switch departments. Sorry, Mr. Drago!

We toilet papered and ding dong door ditched one guy in Illinois, with my friends, as a teen (age 14, or less).

I've seen perhaps two XXX movies, seen porn before, in my life (perhaps up to 21 times in 58 years, sometimes to study what our society was coming to); I walked backward into a movie to save the money, at age 14, with the same Texas BFF I mentioned earlier.

III-E4. MY 'SACRIFICES'

(4/24/16)

[Responding to a critic who constantly pushes the ten percent Christian tithing myth, after 18.75 years of full-time writing]

If your right hand is NOT to know what your left hand is doing, with church giving, how do pastors? Shouldn't only the church accountant, who sends out tax forms?

Tithe pastors CAN'T get this: "for if the readiness is there, it is acceptable, according to what a person has—not according to what he doesn't have. (II Cor. 8:12)

My family has sacrificed a LOT for me to do what God called me to do. Seventeen years, full-time writing, ten of which working only part-time, to produce 13+ books. That's tithe PLUS!

I heard one dude once insinuate I Tim. 5:8. 1. Writing IS a job; 2. Writing, for me, is working HARDER than most; 3. I was CALLED to do it; 4. It pays off, later.

If the effects of my call to write aren't PATENTLY OBVIOUS (in religion and politics), as of the Lord (vs. me being evil by so doing), you need glasses.

When God compels/compulses/binds you in the Spirit to follow His vision, even though ALL in your family complain OFTEN, #JustDoIt.

Family is NOT biblically number one, but God, and serving God is NOT equal to following Him, but if He gives you a BIG task, 'we must obey God, and not man.' (Lk. 14:26; Ac. 5:29)

I challenge any critics to spend 17 years full-time writing! Even Sean Hannity swore off writing, as it's "too much work." Having a GHOST WRITER is NOT the same!

I met a great ghost writer at Charles Ryrie's funeral, who wrote for MANY a famous pastor. I sat right next to him, and he's behind MANY pastors I know well! Sovereignty of God!

Of course, if one wants to argue I was being a workaholic, or an evil non-provider, when one does God's will, writing intensely, they're the SAME as Lk. 7:32, wanting things BOTH ways.

Always remember, we must obey God and not man, and critics are a dime a dozen. When you succeed, they want to praise you; just ignore them, as fair-weathered!

DO THE MATH: 100 percent lost income for ten years (with a JD/MBA's potential), and 2/3rds lost for seven years. Do you want to try again? I think THAT should SILENCE you for awhile!

ALL that living in the wealthiest county in Texas for the past eight+ years. You've got to learn to live frugal (vs. a luxury lifestyle). We've mastered it, by grace alone.

My son attended community college his first two years of college, and I won't say where we go to the dentist. We RENT our house, and EVERY vehicle is older than 2004. THAT'S sacrifice, my friend.

NONE in my family have a smart phone, all shoes are from outlet malls, I haven't bought name-brand food in decades, and I haven't had a dentist X-ray in three to four years. SACRIFICE!

I cut all their hair for more than a decade, and I've been to one one time in ten+ years. We have a hand-me-down pool table and treadmill. I've been to garage sales MANY times. SACRIFICE!

My youngest son hasn't been on an airplane, YET. I had been to Hawaii and Europe by his age. SACRIFICE! My family are HEROES. Critics are NOTHING to me.

Our dog we got FREE from a shelter. Have you ever been to Aldi? We are there every two days. You have a lawn mowing service? I haven't in ten years. SACRIFICE!

Do you have a maid? I have kids with chores. Do you have a vacuum that works? We've had three—all hand-me-downs, and I'm not sure any work well. SACRIFICE! (II Cor. 11:30)

Do you vacation in fancy digs? We use Priceline's Name Your Own Price, and NEVER outside the U.S., YET (excepting mission trips, and an inherited one from decedents). SACRIFICE.

You watch pro sports games. We watch TV sports games. I haven't had a new car since 2000, and a disciple added $1,000, unsolicited by myself. SACRIFICE!

Do you go to concerts? God led me to visit a church, considering "hopping" there, and they GAVE guests Amy Grant tickets—FREE! I'm going there now. SACRIFICE!

You cash in retirement IRA's and have debt, and get free AARP tax counsel on how to account for that just to make it through the end of writing! SACRIFICE!

Private schooled kids? Who can afford that? My kids are public schooled, and I'm GLAD about it! They are NOT cliquish, spoiled or snooty, as we have often found in religious ones. SACRIFICE.

Have you got a second home? We're lucky if we get to visit a family member's one. Do you have a wardrobe? I buy T-shirts when on sale. I have not one suit that fits right. SACRIFICE!

You have your car washed? I haven't had it done by others in DECADES. You eat out often? We USED to once a month. Now once every six months. SACRIFICE!

You pay an accountant to do your taxes? I do my own, until this year got complicated, but still it was done for FREE. SACRIFICE, tithe-demanding critics!

You have Netflix? We go to the dollar cinema or early bird specials, or Redox. Our books teach poor people how to survive, as getting rich is usually NOT in their future!

You fly to vacation? We do road trips—it's cheaper! You board your pets? We take them with us long enough to find cheap kennels in rural areas. SACRIFICE! #Tithing

Finally (as I've got to go to church), have you ever been to Dollar Tree? We are frequent fliers! You go to car dealers for repairs? My two mechanics are the cheapest in town, for the quality—far away (in the poorer areas of town).

Again, DO THE MATH! MBA's call it "opportunity cost" LOST for 17 years, full-time writing. It's the HARDEST JOB YOU'LL EVER (not) DO (vs. outsourcing, to ghost writers)! SACRIFICE!

Paul was bound in the spirit (Ac. 20:22), and unknown for 13+ years (Gal. 1). He was a work horse for the Lord, and he had critics.

God has blessed me with working from home, or my time with my family would have been near zero, writing intensely as He led. CAN YOU DO THAT? SACRIFICE! #Tithing

I had NO health insurance from 1995 until 2016. Did you? My kids didn't either, save my eldest. Did yours? SACRIFICE! Tithing is NOT in the New Testament, for Christians!

Your "tithe" can be of the sweat equity type. I'd venture to say our website has contributed more than most laymen in changing churches for the good, for FREE. SACRIFICE!

Though my webmaster added the "giving" section, rest assured not one thin dime has ever crossed my desk as a result. What's your salary? SACRIFICE! #Tithing

My wife, the other day, was near tears for how our kids have had to do without. Has yours ever been near tears? SACRIFICE!

Am I complaining about God's provision? NO! I'm addressing anyone who complains that I don't "tithe," as it's NOT in the New Testament (for Christians), and I've done MORE than that, in effect [i.e., 18.75 years, as of 2017!].

Paul silenced and refuted his critics, in the SAME book that BEST teaches on Christian giving—Second Corinthians (the final four chapters, and Christian giving addressed in chapters 8 and 9). I'm doing the same here.

Why do I vehemently defend against FALSE accusations of whatever character I may have? Because they're UN-true, and to preserve any reputation (if any is ever had).

For example, since 1978 (when I started researching for my writing), I've NEVER thought of the word "sacrifice," nor claimed to have sacrificed. ONLY today did the Lord remind me of the cost of writing 14 books.

And regarding Jas. 1:26, I've NEVER said I'm a spiritual giant—ONLY that I'm 100 percent transparent, and you can decide what you think; I'm just a LAYMAN following Christ.

III-E5. MY SUFFERINGS

(8/23/18)

God's prophets OFTEN suffered depressive times!: <https://bit.ly/2MqyX1X> NO God-fearing Christian would accuse them of having 'mental illness' (vs. negative emotional bouts)! Here are my own insights, from today's two future plans revealings, on the subject...

1. God OFTEN awakens me with ideas and insights. He also does so during the days, as today—BOTH. Seriously sad, or depressed moments either before or after ensure the human instrument NEVER gets arrogant, in thinking they came up with these plans or ideas.
2. It also lets them know they'll 100 percent have to rely on God, even when He has given them enough assets/information that one could be tempted to take it on themselves.
3. Those incidents re-remind God's instruments that He's not only in charge, but He will bring them through to victory, even when they feel the opposite (or feel like quitting).
4. Lows also come from missing and longing for those times of inspiration!
5. Finally, the Devil WANTS God's men/women killed! He is used by God, in some cases, but also sets his attacks to seek to get God's messengers to end their ministry, through severe actions depression can inspire. The next two days will be a time of MUCH career plans revealing, and sleeping off related downs/lows.

A few more thoughts: I got two pages worth of details when I awoke, today, and wrote them down; followed by severe lows, which continue. As I sleep it off, there's ZERO chance I can awaken from any naps with great ideas and take any credit for them! (I Cor. 4:7)

Here's a list of but a FEW of the heroes of life who have encountered times of inspiration, 'brilliance,' and depression. It seems the latter is the price you pay for the former!: Honest Abe, Churchill, Isaac Newton, Beethoven, Edgar Allen Poe, Van Gogh, etc. <https://bit.ly/2w4JTiy>

I've NEVER felt any serious (or even unserious) depression from 1988-2018 (thank God), except ~three short incidents, recently (and today to tomorrow), when my books were ending, or close human contacts hurt me severely; the price of 13 awesome book gifts! <https://bit.ly/2BBk5so>

And, as MUST be said, mental is NOT emotional illness! I 100 percent admit when I have been suicidally depressed (three times between 1981-1988; 1. Over miraculous insights from God temporarily ending, 2. Guilt over not being willing to pass God's test of indefinitely and full-time evangelize for free, and 3. Losing a ministry career from a needed divorce), my mental capacities were as crisp as ever, though I have misspoken before (one time, referencing a prophecy figure to four sources; See: My Skeletons & Muscles, below), 1. From ignorance of the topic—now resolved by writing two related books, 2. Knowing he got to die—when I felt like doing so, 3. When I felt like the most wicked person for failing the Lord, and 4. It being used to initially instruct me regarding God's political plans for my life, and 5. As an avenue to get especially relatives to leave me alone long enough to have written for 18 full-time years, off and on), when speaking from the pain. Mental is NOT same as emotional, and MOST people get this WRONG!

The humiliation of that one, large verbal misspeak have well been balanced by my one physics law-violating actual miracle, in Fall, 1981, EXACTLY like Philip experienced (See: My Skeletons & Muscles! (Ac 8:40)

The End (to my decade of book writing)

(11/15/18)

Amazing spiritual battle, through the night, of condemnation and guilt. I awoke five times, and hardly slept. The enemy can use people, but doesn't have to! 'Gotta remember NOT to be surprised that his plan is to defeat God's plans in you (Jn. 10:10; I Pet. 4:12). Only be surprised if there's smooth sailing (Ps. 73:26)!

Refreshing my memory to our promised victory, after the most fierce night attack ever (one of two in the past three years): II Cor. 2:14, 3:5; Phil. 4:13; I Jn. 5:4; Rom. 8:37; I Pet. 5:8-9. That evening will take a few hours to recover from! Nightmare of guilt over books' affects on family and finances—all night!

(Rom. 8:1) Fact, faith, feeling—in that order! You may NOT feel victorious, but renew your mind to the fact that through Christ you are, NEVER worry if you feel it... place faith in the fact that it's a fact! Claim it by faith, in prayer! Anyone who lives off feelings is this fool: Mt. 7:24-27 No condemnation.

Very HARD not writing anymore, after a decade! Reviewing stories Venga told of Old Testament heroes and prophets who weren't always 'on.' Ps. 38:4; I Ki. 19:4; Jon. 4:3, 9; Job 3:26, 30:15-17; Ex. 32:32; Jer. 20:14; Ps. 34:18! <https://bit.ly/2MqyX1X> <https://bit.ly/2TfQ9Hd> NOT depressed, just lethargic.

More sad that it's time to get down off the mountain! My years of writing—especially the past three—have been the highlight of my entire life! Most people will NEVER know the joys of writing things you believe God's telling you to write; detailed things I never planned or researched; I never wanted it to end!

I wouldn't trade it for the world, though it cost us a TON! 'As I told her when we wed, I'd surely rather be found dead, than to love her more than the One Who saved my soul;' kids: 'Though kicked and beaten, ridiculed and scorned, I will teach them to rejoice and lift a thankful praising voice.'
<https://bit.ly/1E7IBZ7>

GLAD to know at least three other people God used had the exact same prayers as I prayed, many times in my sleep, last night!: I Ki. 19:4; Jon. 4:3; Job 3:11 Literally, it's NOT depression, or I'd take St. John's Wort. Just melancholy despair at books' end, and how it has left my family! #Sadness Oh well...

Thank You, Lord, for the most amazing three years probably anyone has experienced in the past 100! Ever since our tweets went political (late 2014), I've been amazed at the things You've taught me, that everyday enter my mind, as I see evidence they were true. Tears inside that it's all over. #Prayer

Time to get to work, forget the past, and anticipate the future! You can't live on the mountain top forever, until forever! Phil. 3:13 <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fKLzQpLZLwU> #AmyGrant

III-E6. MY SKELETONS & MUSCLES

(Unpublished)

In the sovereignty of God, this testimony will be a balance of both difficult/negative, and extremely easy/positive (more to the latter), both occurring in the earliest 1980's. I'll start with the negative: When I was suicidally depressed, having been given many amazing insights from God, and even having been teleported (See below), when all those '4th dimensional' experiences came to an end, I got extremely depressed (even trying to take my life by too many Aspirin, and cutting my wrists some). I had not studied bible prophecy at all, excepting one Bible study course at Baylor, by my hero, Rev. Don Anderson, but I knew that someone in that story was allowed, by God, to die, and that's what I wanted to do, but was failing to achieve, so I made the claim to being that person, as a desperate 'cry for help.' I felt some force making me say those words; I did not want to, as they were both untrue, and not me, but something made me feel if I did, I could move on from that pain. Three people (and a letter to the FBI) heard me make such a claim—my sister, my then wife, and my former BFF, Rev. Tom Eckman. Having failed to pass a test to see if I would do open-air preaching, full-time, indefinitely, for no pay), I felt so horrible and disobediently sinful that I claimed to be the man of sin of Bible prophecy. Fortunately, the Lord soon used that false statement to cause those people to move away from being quite involved in my life's details, which later allowed me to write 10 or more books in 10 years, without anyone ever discovering I did it full-time! The Lord, sometimes, uses bad experiences to bring about the good. Plus, He may use it to generate publicity for a no-name candidate (if parties involved reveal it to the media, seeking me harm; Gen. 50:20).

On the positive side, even earlier than that 'skeleton' event, was my 'muscle-flexing' of god experience in late 1981. It literally happened, but the only scientific proof I can offer is to take any credible lie detector, and pass as many times as it's offered. I was driving home from Southwestern seminary (ft. Worth, TX), to Houston, via Waco, to attend a Houston rockets game with my dad and a friend at the time, named Eric Hiberna. I was in the brown and beige Olds Cutlass Calais my dad gave me as a Baylor graduation present. I was reading in I Corinthians 15, where it says 'those who are baptized for the dead,' and I was mulling over four possible interpretations I had learned sitting in on some Dallas Seminary classes. I had a red, pocket New Testament, and saw an overhead green highway sign indicating the town of Hillsboro was coming soon. I looked down again to re-read that verse, and when I looked up, to my right was the University of Texas football stadium! I recognized it, because my former BFF (mentioned above) had briefly attended there. I also remember an MKL Boulevard sign. I had just 'traveled' 134 miles in a split second! I rolled down my driver's window, patted the car, and said 'Bessie (the car nickname, at that moment), are we still in 1981?' I looked at my clock, and there was no way I could make the basketball game on time. I was in trouble, and NBA tickets aren't cheap, and no dad wants to sit with their son's friend for two hours—awkward. I did a U-turn, found a Conoco or Texaco on the left hand side, and begged the owner to fake a receipt of engine trouble, explaining I'd be late to an NBA game, as 'I got lost,' and my dad was 'gonna kill me. Kind man that he was, he did, and I don't even remember how things all panned out when I got home. I mainly remember being instantly teleported. It was amazing.

Only in 2016 did the Lord explain the meaning of that experience: I had been led into ministry (seminary), but would later be led into politics (Austin capital). The details of that later political 'calling' are found in our 'Call To Politics' section. And only when all my books got completed (in 2018) did I see the extreme value of having no one bothering me about writing too much, like close friends and family (though another former BFF did say on more than one occasion that I write too much, and need to ‘buckle down’ with work—Chad Uretsky, of Houston).

P.S.: If you don’t believe the Bible, that statement is meaningless, and if you do believe the Bible, and the statement were true (which it is not), we all but real Christians would be in trouble!

III-E7. PASTOR MESSAGES

CHURCH

Disclaimers

I LOVE the TRUE church, but have disdain for the false Churchianity IMITATION, in ministry for bodies, bucks and buildings; song, silver and sermons. .

If I HATED the church, I'd do what so MANY U.S. pastors have done... let the 5/10/13 problem continue another 30 years, for MONEY! (See our website for definitions, descriptions and details)

Body Life

Worship services are biblically supposed to involve laymen in more than singing, giving and shaking hands. They possess spiritual gifts, and are family.

Church is for CHRISTIANS to be edified/built up to maturity! God knew some lost people might straggle in, but how you practice church is supposed to miraculously convict them.

Where do laymen use spiritual gifts in our modern church? EVEN in Sunday School, there's a teacher and announcer—maybe a musician. QUIT keeping them immature and unfruitful.

Carnality

Gandhi saw Christ's people were OFTEN not like Him. He sought true a Christian expression, as do all God-fearers.

Church-As-A-Business

Here's the secular media pointing out the FACT of big business church.

I don't even need to expose it: <http://cnn.it/2DSIXOu> #AlmightyDollar idol.

Church Unity

Connected tele-conferences could unite HUNDREDS of churches on Sunday morning to host a national prayer service during worship time, using technology for the good.

Churchianity

Churchianity is ~like weddings, and Christianity like a marriage. One hour event per week vs. a 24/7, life-long relationship. Influence laymens' week, pastors.

Churchianity's Bible is Mal. 3:10 and Heb. 10:25. Liberals' Bible is Jn. 13:34, Mt. 7:1 and Jn. 8:7; God's Bible is Genesis to Revelation—no more no less (Rev. 22:18)

Denominations

Southern Baptists likely do evangelism more than most. PLEASE keep up, like-minded denominations like Bible church, and Charismatics, etc.!

Discipleship

You'd no more have a good relationship with your wife if you spoke to her 20 minutes a week as you'd be a good parent seeing your kids 20 minutes a week, church!

Preaching is your discipleship? There's NO personal relationship, no Q and A, no individual life application, no ensuring Quiet Time or individualized prayer.

The average U.S. Christian forgets what preachers preached before 72 hours have elapsed, and will hear less than 1/50th+ of the Bible if they attended every Sunday for all of life. Exposit!

Why are small groups BEST for discipling? Experience-based, Q and A are possible, relationships are built, and the leader can ENSURE quiet time habits get established.

LEVERAGE relationships and the pastor staff authority to ask laymen to join your discipleship small group for a few months. They WILL say yes!

If a pastor DOESN'T believe in multiplication, he'll rely on sermonizing for discipling. Jesus preached to the crowds, but only ~11 disciplined men changed the world!

Even the great pastor Bill Hybels candidly and humbly admitted that in all his years, he didn't feel he had changed the congregation much, as sermonizing is NOT enough!

Spiritual hat's off to Campus Crusade and The Navigators, running rings around most churches (at evangelism and discipleship), and it shouldn't be this way.

Mega Pastors

There was not ONE millionaire equivalent apostle or prophet or even pastor in Jesus' time, yet carnal men aspire to such in American Churchianity!

I GUARANTEE you the head pastors of these first two mega churches never became multi-millionaires as a result! They HAD their priorities right! (Acts 2 and 4)

Unprioritized pastors living high on the hog is a phenomenon unknown to the Bible, and experienced every day in America, yet laymen never complain.

Some even brag in how well they treat their unprioritized 'leaders.'

Funny, mega church salaries got mega BIG, and the Moral Majority waned.

Any correlation or short-lived motive for political power back in the early 1980's?

I'm not against pastors getting wealthy. I'm against that happening using secular methods, while omitting EDBS TOP priorities. This happens all the time in America.

It's NOT wrong for mega churches to have beautiful buildings IF their commitment to morality and evangelism is even greater. It often isn't!

Pastors

Why do we camp out on pastors? Eph. 4 and I Pet. 5. They're "leaders," and the 5/10/13 problem that results speaks for itself for more than 30+ YEARS!

I appeal to ALL WASP pastors in America who are NOT mega pastors: You are God's concern. You are the ones faithful to God's priorities if you're NOT seeking fame and fortune.

Why am I righteously angry that most Christians never know the Bible well? Because I've spent over 30 years doing such, yet pastors get rich ignoring it, as the Devil blesses them.

Politics

'If by 2020 a majority of American churches have NOT started to implement EDBS priorities, expect 'My' judgment to fall on the U.S.A.' I'm just the messenger.

Don't you know the Bible only has TWO Bible verses—thou shalt not abort or sodomize? Where are you getting these cherry-picked concepts?

EVERY U.S. pastor be warned: If by 20/20 you have ZERO plan to reach ALL lost people in your area of town with the Gospel, I fear His judgment on your 'business!'

Prayer

God's house is to be known by OUTSIDERS (i.e., by reputation) as a house of prayer— not of great entertainment and fun sports, food and concerts (i.e., Laodicea)!

Quiet Time

Do you want someone zealous for Christ? Nag them into a Quiet Time habit. Want them evangelistic? Do the same. NOTHING is as important, and it works! It did for me in 1978!

'Tithing'

The biblically unrequired ten percent tithe is primarily used to support biblically unrequired full-time pastors and church buildings.

Research the percent of the Jews' tithe (i.e., theocratic tax) which went to help the poor, and compare the percent of U.S. mega church budgets which go to the same.

The Jews FAR out-gave us with their required "tithe" (vs. un-commanded tithes vs. grace gifts) MOST Christians DON'T tithe. Are they sinning? NOT necessarily. The Christian standard is giving what the Spirit leads you to, according to one's ability (II Cor. 8-9).

If your right hand is NOT to know what your left hand is doing, with church giving, how do pastors know what parishioners gave? Shouldn't only the church accountant, who sends tax forms?

Wealth

Why will Protestants NEVER preach sermons on the poor being blessed, and warning the rich that their joy is only temporary? Money idolatry (Lk. 6:20, 24, 16:19-31)

EVANGELISM

Challenge

For costs, NO profit, I'll speak at any church, anywhere, but it will be our 'On Hell' message at our website. Any takers? I DARE you to be so boldly biblical as to reply!

Twitter search these phrases to see the extent of our online efforts: "church 3 miles asap," and "fire your pastor." Money over God is a sinful idol. GO EVANGELIZE!

Twitter search: "fire pastor lead evangelize" to see our history of calling for the same, consistent message. We DON'T flip flop, or walk back here!

Crusade Events

I will repeat, DROP IN THE BUCKET is NOT God's standard for the Great Commission! Every pastor's DUTY is to reach all nearby lost people, ASAP, via their laymen!

Excuses

Churches saying, "we do evangelism," when it's NOT 100 percent, is like being half pregnant. If you don't reach those nearest to you, they may go to Hell, unnecessarily!

Churches saying, "we do evangelism," when it's a drop in the bucket, is like saying we are a grocery store, with only a few loaves of bread on the shelves.

Illustrations

American pastors are the Good Shepherd in REVERSE. They stay with the 99 saved, and hope the one lost finds his way back home, but the percentages are also REVERSED!

Evangelizing Christians is like doing CPR on one breathing just fine, yet we do it all the time. LEAVE the building, and DO the work of evangelism!

It is morally worse than murder to not evangelize people, because, as evil as it is, murder only kills their body (vs. their soul eternally).

The GREATEST crime against humanity is pastors REFUSING to fully evangelize ALL nearby lost people, ASAP. They will be judged for that DECISION ('soon').

The silent holocaust is not so much aborted babies, but lost people the U.S. Church refuses to evangelize, because they die, ETERNALLY! (John 3:16)

It is the ULTIMATE 'playing God' to choose who will and won't hear the Gospel! That's a sinful bias/partiality decision that God would NEVER lead His church to make.

Laymen

If you are a Christian, you should have evangelized between 42 and 111 people, to have done your part. HAVE YOU? See: WillYouLiveForever.org

Christian laymen can do BIG thing for the Great Commission, in designating their donations to foreign missions. Pastors will wise up, as money talks.

Need

WHO is MORE responsible before God to identify nearby lost people, and tell them the Gospel, than the nearest pastor? YET, 99.9+ percent never will. May God judge them!

HOW would God give one final warning to the world to be saved, when NO pastor I know of will even fully thresh his own field? Write it in the sky? GO FULLY evangelize, church!

God wants ALL people to go to Heaven (I Tim. 2:4), yet MOST will go to Hell (Mt. 7:14); that's due to resisting His Heavenly call (Mk. 3:28-28), NOT hearing how to go (Jn. 3:16; Rom. 10:14), delaying too long (Heb. 9:27; Am. 4:12), or belief in FALSE ways to get there (Jn. 14:6; Ac. 4:120). Either way, it's an eternal TRAGEDY!

Pastors

U.S. pastors: EVEN you will face God on judgment day for your flocks' lack of evangelism. Fear God, and turn from evil (vs. turning to money).

My HEART is for the church outside the U.S.A., for MAYBE THEY will FULLY do Great Commission. They now send missionaries to the U.S.A!

Pastors: Take a laymen to speak with a lost person, and promise they'll not have to say ANYTHING. They WILL do it. I've done that SEVERAL times, and with pastors!

Pastors will get MORE evangelistic taking them one-on-one, over time (i.e., multiplication), than preaching that we need to evangelize. Motivate, and role model!

Politics

Politically, in America, white Christian's number one concern is for the survival of the unborn, while black Christian's number one concern is for the already born's survival.

More in the religious right care about the unborn (who should NOT be killed), than those among the BORN, who are going to HELL. (John 3:16)

Problem

Laymen won't complain, as they don't want to evangelize. Lost people won't complain, as they only have a sin nature. Pastors get paid. Who stands for Christ and the lost?

As W. A. Criswell said, in the book of Acts, one man spoke and 5,000 came to Christ.
Today, we have 5,000 and one comes to Christ.
WE LACK POWER, in Laodicea (Rev 3:8 vs. Rev. 3:17).

I have NEVER met one U.S. church who can say that every nearby lost person has heard an accurate Gospel presentation in the past 3-5 years.
We will NEVER do the great commission, at that snail's pace!

Theology

Philosophers and academicians speak of creative evangelism methods; Have you ever DONE it?
Go up to a stranger, and lovingly speak. I've done it MANY times!

DFW's FM 101.7 2's D.J. JUST said they liked the phrase, 'at all times preach the Gospel, and if necessary, use words.' That's TOTALLY dumb, and biblically WRONG!

Thoroughness

(Heb. 10:30; I Pet. 4:18; Eze. 3:18) The Great Commission is LITERAL, to a person.
URGENCY comes from prophecy signs, and the fact that Heb. 9:27 can occur at any time (II Cor. 6:2).

Do you know any church with a log book/record of saved and unsaved neighbors? That's pastoral professional INCOMPETENCE, if we're SERIOUS about the Great Commission. Sadly, we're NOT!

III-F2. TWEETED MESSAGES

A DAY IN THE LIFE

Here's how I spend a few hours New Year's weekend, writing one long message, which indicates several of the massive number of topics covered in our many books. It may appear rambling, but it is more a summation of about nine years of writing, so the topics are diverse. Some more important than others!

Riches on Earth, or In Heaven?

If you read Mt. 6, Col. 3:1-4, I Jn. 2:15-17, and Phil. 3:18-20, NO Christian can be chasing money, as number one to working for God, and the betterment of society! And if you read Lk. 12:15, I Tim. 6:9-10, Pv. 23:5, 30:8, Jas. 1:10, Mt. 6:24, and 19:23, most U.S. Christians are doing just that! Our DEEDS (and politics), not our WORDS, demonstrate our priorities!

You know Solomon (Ecc. 1-3) and the rich guy with Lazarus (Lk. 16:19-31) just took it a little too far. Taper it back a little, and enjoy THIS life, says the Devil to American Christians! Entangled in THIS world (II Tim. 2:4) by clinging to a MISinterpretation of this verse as their ONLY basis!: I Tim. 6:17.

BIBLICAL church is "EDBS" (FULL Evangelism, relational Discipling, Body life, and Social ministry). 'FAKE' church (i.e., Churchianity) is song, silver and a sermon. Meditate on THAT for a little while. The WASP church in America is under the judgment of God for her materialism, and NON-disciple-like (i.e., selfishness sin) core political positions!

Our job in life is not to be successful, but to be faithful. —Billy Graham

'Go' is the first part of the word Gospel. It should be the watchword of every true follower of Christ. It should be emblazoned on the banners of the church. —Billy Graham

MANY Americans credit rich people if they don't lose their roots (i.e., retain a humble attitude). Instead, credit is deserved if they DO lose some of their wealth to help others, NOT just their family! If a Christian's wealth was NOT gained by Josh. 1:8, one could argue the Devil made them rich!

Let's break down Lk. 12:15 for U.S. WASP Christians. Obviously, when you have little, life doesn't consist of possessions. EVEN WHEN you have an abundance—SAME THING. So statements like 'that guy's living the life' are LIES! So what is life? John 17:3. The WASP church is in bed with the world, much of the time! Sin.

And read I Jn. 2:15-17. Worldliness is the more than normal liking of sex, money/assets, and the pride that so often comes with that lifestyle. Proud of my wealth and my woman (i.e., trophy wife). Worldly Christians CAN'T be, and AREN'T Gods friend! (Jas. 4:1-6) They'll have an awakening, for the bad, on judgment day! 'I hardly knew you!' Poverty.

If God's church saw life from God's perspective, and knew about eternity, they'd change 180 degrees. EVERY soul you see will burn forever in Hell, without Christ, and most of you will be PAUPERS (i.e., broke/bankrupt/desitute) in Heaven, because you do so little for God. Pastors will NOT say those words to their church members, so it continues.

Update #1: Christianity VS. Conservatism

This is the MOST important chapter in Christians For Trump: The BIG elephant in the room "secret" about most white evangelicals... politically, they live off MYTHS, even though their Bible teaches them never to follow myths (I Tim. 1:4). If they are over age 35, they TRULY believe God only cares about abortions and gays!

They are VERY angry that gay marriage was passed, nationally, and since they know it can't be un-done, they are bound and determined to get revenge on evil/Devilish "liberals," and some even see it as a sign of prophecy, or that society is going down the tubes. I am being as literal as I can be, here!

They have memorized the number of babies that have been aborted. They TRULY believe a Christian's duty is to ban all abortions, and some even consider abortion murder, AS IF our laws should sentence women who choose 'choice' to be behind bars for 20 years to life. The ONLY issue, post Obergefell, is Roe's overturn.

Caustic Ted Cruz is their HERO. Even though he wanted the IRS ended, one recently told me she fears the IRS more than anything else, and another said we're being taxed to death. If you pay Ur taxes, you have NOTHING to fear! (Rom. 13:3) Taxed to death? QUIT ASKING GOVERNMENT TO DO SO MANY THINGS, expecting NOT to pay for them!

And tax avoidance is the KEY to their belief system. Our tax system should have ZERO exceptions... Here's your percent—pay it, and it is fair. We DO have a $19 trillion debt, you know.

Also, they consider the mainstream media EVIL. The word "conservative" means apple of God's eye, and "liberal" means Satan's spawn!

WHERE did they get these thoughts, and why are God's people so often STUPID? These ideas were taught to Christians in non-church settings, back in Reagan's days, to garner GOP votes. People of the age-group I've referenced (i.e., boomers) remember that brainwashing, and teach their kids, by example and family traditions!

Here's another KEY ingredient to their belief system... Keep all your wealth inside your family for generations to come! And enjoy the heck out of life down here, and if anyone ever says that's NOT what God wants for you, accuse them of being kill-joys (i.e., the logical argument fallacy of painting your opponent as extreme, to retain your error, with a conscience salved thereby)!

MOST of them do SO little ministry work for God, they can afford the time and effort to chase and worship money. They are rarely taught they are to be living for the next life, and if you analyze their behavior-based priorities, they are NO different from atheists who believe this life is all there is, so live it up!

Keep up with the Joneses, hob knob with the well-to-do, aspire to be one, have big boy toys and luxuries. Analyzed, they are their own god, deserving of all of life's creature comforts; they are entitled to life's finest/best, because they worked hard for it. ZERO to five percent concern for others outside their heirs.

And here is EXACTLY how this SICK system gets maintained: Politically, they TRULY believe if one is smart, works hard, and is law-abiding, that's all their civic duty before God. That means, anyone who doesn't have lots of money (even if inherited with no work efforts of their own), is evil/irresponsible, so to help them is evil, save for token gestures.

Spiritually, it's maintained by the LIE that to be a "good Christian" you go to church often; that's IT. When there, sing if you want, but, for sure, give money. That is it! Pastors reinforce this system as it butters their bread. God would turn the tables were He here in the flesh.

And finally, remain ignorant at all costs. Thinking is for elites, and Christian leaders, who will spoon feed you all you need to know. Let me 100 percent clearly also state, as I likely sit by and know MANY such people, since church NEVER has you get to know the person near you very well (but pawns that duty off on smaller group events after "worship:), MOST of these previously-described types are fully well-meaning, sincere, and would say they love God and the Bible.

It is an education problem NOT getting fixed, as the system works for pastors, and for political ends, and it is CORRUPT!

One such person told me she used to hate Chump, but now loves him due to Israel. Let's explain the irrational, religionized delusion behind such a belief... Jerusalem IS sacred to Jews, and therefore to Christians, in history, and in Bible knowledge. It WILL even play a role in Bible prophecy, but it is NOT Christians' job to try to set up the pieces. If it were, these wayward-thinkers would have the fed fund a rebuilt Jerusalem temple! DONT put it past such folk as John Hagee.

The wrongful mix of religion and politics comes because FEW know their Bibles well, and even fewer have EVER thought how the two relate—except on abortion and gay marriage.

One other word I recently was reminded of—they believe Obama and Hillary were morally horrible people, and TRULY think Obama intended to destroy America! One even questioned his fatherly role, when his daughters were younger (asking me if I've ever seen him with them in any pictures).

WHERE does this IGNORANCE come from? It is NOT becoming of a Christian, and is God dishonoring! I've decided NEVER to even engage them about any particular politician on either side, but ONLY issues, as they are so emotionally tied to their heroes, and against their villains, like 'crooked Hillary' and 'Muslim Obama.'

This is shameful for the body of Christ, but do you hear any white WASP pastors correcting their myths? I do NOT—anywhere. I have to sit with them in churches, and act like they never think this way, when, as you get to know them, many do. I won't play that two-faced game. I'm exposing them for what they are! I disavow such "crap!," and I 100 percent guarantee you they can't see white privilege or money idolatry.

Blinded to it by Satan, as they literally believe all liberals (NOT all Democrats) are Satan himself, except that he's only one being. 'Demons' might be a better term. This is status quo evangelicalism. It's NOT from God, yet claims Him. ANATHEMA!

What more can I say? Probably a lot, but I've said the most important stuff. I wasn't for nationalizing gay marriage, for a state's rights solution via contracts, but gay people EXIST! And most of them are not in your face trying to molest you into sex, like the ones in the Sodom and Gomorrah days!

Are we to pretend they have leprosy, are sub-human, or must be single for life, and are transgenders "mentally ill," as 100 percent untrained @RobertJeffress claims? Different is demonized from fear and from lack of any understanding—just stereotypes, and considering a couple sins to be the only ones God cares about!

And IF Roe were overturned, and red states banned them in all cases, let's be real, people... some red state women would end up pregnant, and not choose to go full term! Do these naive voters REALLY believe sticking a coat hanger where it does not belong is good for the woman, or her baby?

I 100 percent understand detesting what abortions do to the unborn (i.e., kill!). Horrific. I want less of them. Zero would be amazing. But you have to use some brain waves in your fettered radicalism for blinders-on IGNORANCE, which never analyzes the implications of what they seek!

And please know, my dear brethren, that America is NOT a theocracy. You are 100 percent free to advocate for political positions you believe Christ would have you support, or oppose, but you are just another voter, and both God and our Constitution do NOT want one religion favored in America over any other ones, or even non-religious people's beliefs. It's called democracy!

So, in conclusion, your pastor will NEVER teach you this speech, but you darn well better start using the brain God commanded you to use, because you are bringing a great black mark to the reputation of our great God by your myths, extremes, errors, and ignorance, and I can no longer let you sin in that manner!

Update #2: Living in Laodicea

God, Your people believe being lost is like having a common cold. Hell is a fantasy to them in their (NON-) practice of evangelism! They truly feel that a sermon is discipling, and that sanctification and Ps. 119:9-11's laying Your word on their heart is the same as hearing a speech they forget even the topic of in 72 hours, or less.

They believe revival can be had through waking up church members to vote for the stupidest and most evil man in U.S. politics. They think spiritual gifts are an unreal joke, and body life is shaking hands with a stranger at church and that the world has NO problems.

All Democrat policies are Satanic, and all GOP ones are Heaven-sent. They believe a false Gospel (Lordship), a false giving scheme (tithing), and have such puny ministries, that if there's any sacrifice to their lives, they're considered religious extremists. God, Your people need JUDGMENT, quickly, Sir! They believe there is ZERO tension between serving God and mammon, because most of them do little-to-NO ministry work for You.

A quiet time, to them, is peace while the kids are away—perhaps a yoga run, and a daily (spiritual) quiet time would be unheard of! They pray to You at dinner, AS IF all You care about is they don't get botulism, or they do so in public so, like the Pharisees of old, people will see their religiosity, and somehow admire it, or perhaps discern a Gospel message by it!

They do ZERO evangelism, individually, in large part, believe prophecy is a cool if not weird academic exercise, and that we have all the time in the world to reach a world for all time, or FOOLishly believe that all have already heard, or that's just the professional's job.

There is NO urgency, NO sense of the enormity of the Great Commission task, no love for the poor—just disdain if their money's ever used!

They do NOT believe 90+ percent of every soul they see will burn in Hell forever. Some even dream of how great life will be for them, in Heaven, if the Rapture were to occur, AS IF prophecy is selfishly designed for carnal Christians to live even more selfish, hereafter.

God, Your church is in HORRIBLE shape down here, and most of them will interpret that as needing to eat less and exercise more, for they have the spiritual capacity of a fruit fly. Lord, I pray You bring the needed justice of severe persecution to Your people here on earth, soon, for the book of Acts shows that that's about the only way for You to break through to their stubborn, hardened and rebellions, self- and money-idolizing hearts!

If You can twice turn the tables on the Jewish temple money-changers, SURELY You can, once again, destroy our work of golden calves we call ministry success, and Churchianity/church-as-a-business. Whip us from our tax-avoiding lusts, and give us new eyes to see the world as You see it.

Surely, if perhaps they're actually saved, You can, once again, awaken us to see with eyes You made us born again to have, which have become calloused with cataracts and blindness, single-focused like a race horse on worldliness. I so pray!

Update #3: Christian Corruption

LISTEN and hear! Five percent of U.S. Christians ever lead ONE person to Heaven—IN THEIR LIFETIME! Ten percent are fully committed to Jesus (meaning 90 percent are NOT disciples), and 13 percent regularly read the word of life. THAT is why Donald Trump is president, and why sin and division and selfishness and materialism are rampant in U.S.A.!

God-claiming people. You can lay the sins of the nation's fathers on the doorstep of God's people, and you can take the bill for said consequences, and lay it on the altar of U.S. pastors NOT doing their God-ordained jobs! And finally, we consider service to God sitting in a pew an hour a week. GOD help us! America is da_ned. It is failing. It is teetering and faltering on the edge of a cliff, and the abyss—SPIRITUALLY.

It is NOT the fault of a lost sinner that he is a lost sinner, except to properly respond to the cure. But that cure is hardly getting to them, because God's people believe in drops in the bucket evangelism efforts! A few here, a few there.

Surely God will pick up our slack. Surely He will give lost people a second chance on the other side. Practicing universalists. Mind you, not all denominations are politically conservative in their majority, but spiritually, this description transcends all races and regions, to nearly every U.S. church—especially the ones aspiring for numeric growth, for in that process of seeking to be yuppies of old, they have lost their first Love, and His values. But, they will invoke Him every political season, if that will protect their wallets. Amen? Anathema!

DO you see messages like this elsewhere? DO such messages jive with reality, and match up doctrinally with God's word? You would have NO idea, because you have no idea what it says. To you, it's a decoration for Sunday, like the fancy suit that makes you look respectful of God, as you live disrespectful lives.

Lest I bore any by rambling on, instead I'm going to now add this to our latest book, and try to catch some shut eye before the family awakens, like the church likely never will. You were warned. I call for no more revival seeking, but judgment in the form of physical persecution! Let it start with me! Ichabod.

And for the massive number of idiots who may NOT get that last tweet, if you have any inclination to attack true Christians, let that inclination start by targeting myself. It did NOT mean let me start that persecution of the church! That's the Antichrist's job. You've got to explain the obvious, today.

[Interjected Mitt Romney retweet:] Profoundly moving to watch those seeking freedom in Iran. Patriots afar remind us of the patriots who won our own freedom and also those who preserve it. Heroes all.

Wow, man, that dude must have had a pretty bad trip last night, or eaten some food that didn't agree with him. He was on a tear. How can a guy get so messed up that he's so negative, and down on the state of affairs in our holy gatherings. He's really not Christ-like, say the guiltyies.

A timely tribute to the handful percent for whom that message was NOT designed, in the church, who get its need, among whom is this singer: <http://bit.ly/2CEuUa6>

If I were a pastor. AGAIN (will NOT happen anytime soon), given my despising of the heretical tithe doctrine, I'd tell them: We have a budget of $X. If you believe in what we're doing, and don't want to change it, we need to pay our bills. Do your part, and pray what that part is. Thanks. It's your church, humanly-speaking.

If I were president, I'd say this is your nation. We have a debt of $19 trillion, and a budget of $X. If you believe in what we're doing, or if you have specific budget cuts we need, voice yourself, but once that's determined, we have to pay our bills, so set tax categories accordingly, so we can get to a balance.

If you want to get rid of gun violence outside of gangs and drugs, end anger and mental illness, and stress, and allow NONE with such maladies to access, much less own guns.

If black-on-black violence ever bothers the white majority, make drug deals public, and monitored. If you ever watch First 48 TV, people kill over relationships, theft, anger, money and drugs. Cure the causes, and you omit the effects!

A brief summary of methods used to turn a dead corpse into its perp's jailing: Fingerprints, blood spatter analysis, canvassing for witnesses, nearby video, interviewing friends and families, neighbors and coworkers, media tip hotlines, phone records, autopsies, DNA swabs, interviews of persons of interest, etc.

THESE [police] are the heroes I so admire! NOT people who can be rich. They work to catch the bad guys, for our society is NOT safe with bad guys on the run/loose. We need less of them created by circumstances.

Since I retweeted my hero, Mitt Romney, you quickly get the algorithm-generated GOP accounts, among which is a GOP wreath-circled elephant. Those people NEVER thanked me for the VERY helpful strategic advice I gave them for their 2016 wins. Politics is a VERY immoral business! To Hell with it, as an industry.

Let's be point blank (as I always am): If the black community wants whites to care about any plight of any of them, politically, you first have to be doing your best to fund your own lives! I've seen three TV interviews recently bemoaning that lack of concern (in Katrina, and two other shows). That's your ONLY shot!

EVERY white person I know believes they're taxed enough, already. Everyone I know, of any race, has financial strains. Why would anyone want to help out anyone else, much, as that means less to help out their own struggles. The GOP is mainly there to let whites keep it all for themselves.

And CHUMP's tax cut is only exacerbating our debt! The foolish one said experts told him it would give average Americans $4,000 in their paychecks, separate from the actual rebate checks from government. WATCH THIS NEVER HAPPEN, and vote accordingly! NEVER, NEVER, NEVER. Hollywood delusional fantasy, folks!

That's another thing: Americans deal in fantasy. We crave escapes from reality, facts, and truth! We work mundane jobs (for the most part), then feel entitled to shop, watch movies, drink, dance/party, go to concerts, play online...anything to escape reality of the unfulfilling lives we lead. SAD!

Fulfillment is NEVER found in things. Your life must be lived for something greater than yourself, America. Life is tough, and then you die. If U have nothing better than that reality to live for, you are wasting space down here. Odd time to state it, but please read John 3:16, today. Your life can have meaning.

If push comes to shove, and fixing problems costs money that rich conservatives could use to pamper themselves more, they will choose the latter. Re-read that until it makes you mad, please.. Maybe I did eat something that didn't agree with me(?). Happy new year, anyway! I'm just glad there was no major terror attack on America last night! Welcome to 2018.

I'm tempted to unretweet Mitt Romney's post (the doctor of decency), because I HATE having the GOP accounts in my 'Who To Follow' file, knowing they agreed to a tax cut that our economy didn't need, to enrich the enriched, and add to our monstrous debt our grandkids will be strapped with. This is NOT a fun morning, for me. [I just chose to block some of them, instead].

I had a gal last night worship Cruz for representing "Christian" values in Austin the past two decades. I told her he goes to my church, is caustic, and wants the IRS ended. How could those be Christian values? I don't think she enjoyed our chat, thereafter. Who the he_l cares? Gotta' speak the truth!

Alt-right and fake Christians TRULY believe Obama and Hillary are wicked people. That lady described why she thought so. Obama wanted U.S.'s demise, she claimed. I told her she listens to too much talk radio, and she denied listening. I guess it was Fox TV. My bad.

The alt-right NEVER let Hillary outlive Bill's infidelity days, believe she personally shot Benghazi heroes, her emails authorized U.S. enemies, and that lady even brought up Vince Foster. But we are to forget THIS, from 1.5 years ago? HYPOCRISY, claiming Christian! <http://bit.ly/2fIESxj>

I'd have ZERO interest in sharing a pew with the P.U. of that stinking thinking! Because you never know the churchmen sitting nearby, you'd never know how they think, politically, absent out-of-church meetings. She was a very nice gal, but her 'Christian' understanding is abysmal! Anathema.

She actually told me she was #nevertrump, but would take a bullet for him, now that he said the U.S. views Jerusalem as Israel's capital. Again, pastors are to blame for the complete idiocy of their people. WOW!

When I told her that STUPID decision RUINED U.S.'s leadership on the matter, and caused peace to stand NO chance (though NOT when Jesus returns, and not the fake 7-year peace deal of the Antichrist), she shut up. She also thought we were living in Rev. four days. Impossible! SUCH ignorance in the church!

The sad thing was, she was the most interesting person I spoke with last night. She wasn't into socializing small talk, said she. I told her I voted all GOP's but DJT, yet she still thought I listened to "liberal" media sources, and she ranted against Obama and Hillary. THIS IS CHRISTIANITY? He_1 NO, folks!

[Interjection:] Headline is SO true! Will read article later. Pope Francis laments "many ways" humans "ruined" 2017.

I blocked Cruz and Palin. I'll block any and ALL alt-right'ers. Trump and all his staff have been blocked for MONTHS. Who needs the aggravation of their accounts ever dropping by? Not I, said the frog.

Continuing

Another day, another dollar. 2018 is 2017 with a day added. Political parties are entrenched in polar opposite rhetoric, getting little done, and fleecing the flock with a giveaway tax cut to stimulate an economy already stimulated. I should have drank last night!

One more downer to cheer you up for 2018. LOOK at Robert Jeffress' Twitter account on his merry Christmas post. Some people truly believe if you smile big enough with white teeth (i.e., all your family), sheeple will believe you to be their political Santa Claus. WOW! Better, Satan with claws.

I'm in a very odd and despondent but NOT depressed mood this morning! Our country is on the "Trump train" highway to Hell, and the train wreck has NEVER even been noticed by its GOP conductors or engineers. I'll sign off, and give you a break. God bless America—SOME day!

Repeating: Seven Gospel presentations per person for one positive response, on average. Five percent of Christians in America ever win ONE soul. The WASP church is causing Hell to be over-populated, as we sit comfortably mum. My mood, today, has NOT altered.

I'll bet the average U.S. Christian spends 15 minutes MAXIMUM, per week, in God's word, and 30 minutes maximum doing any work of ministry for the Savior. This 2018 is NOT starting off on a bright foot, for me, today. I may try fasting.

We humans in so many ways ruined and hurt it [i.e., year 2017] with works of death, with lies and injustices... gratitude prevails [thanks to those who] cooperate silently for the common good. [He singled out parents and educators who try to raise young people with a sense of responsible ethics]. —Pope Francis (CBSnews, 1/1/17)

Update #4: Abortion Authority or Political Hypocrisy?

Let's address the abortion banning advocates' secret dream: Prostitutes would go out of business, because any lapses in their safe sex planning couldn't be un-done, even with a morning after pill. ALL sex, even in marriage, would have to be for childbearing intent, and many even want contraception banned! NO sex otherwise.

I even read a quote where some religious leader said gays' answer is justification and sanctification, NOT m_st_r_a_i_n! In other words, the religious alt-right is consumed with sex in their politics! They can divorce at about the same percent as lost people, adultery to some percent, but gays and lost people can't have sex!

If condoms fail—adopt out. If birth control is NOT percent effective—adopt out. If sexual desire overtakes you, and you do NO planning—adopt out. If you're a family, and financially strapped, and find yourself pregnant—adopt out. Let the feds force these results, perhaps with a home invasion legion of sex police? This is church?

READ this, then tell me we have any moral authority to police the sexual behavior of people NOT in our faith, by force of law, Christians! <http://bit.ly/2qdH0V9>

Remember Jim Bakker and Jimmy Swaggart? TIP OF THE ICE BERG! Hypocrites get no opinion on the sin they're in! #NoBetterThanTheWorld? #Sex

23 percent of Christians adulter, and 45 percent engage inappropriate sexual behavior. And we are the judges of the private lives behind closed doors of everyone else? NO WONDER THE church has lost all moral authority in our society! <http://nydn.us/2IGXZdF> Our divorce rate is about the SAME as lost people!

The top two political issues that alt-right Christians hate are abortion and gay marriage. Don't the statistics I just cited show we have very little moral authority room to judge on those two matters, when we are as we are, though NOT justifying anyone's sins?

Can THIS be true?: <http://bit.ly/2EBbljD> Christians make up 70 percent of aborters? Read <http://bit.ly/2A6jf11> VS. <http://bit.ly/2CsbAjE>

Abortion for contraception IS a sin—a heinous one! It kills a would-be born and birthed baby. The ONLY issue is how to stop or lessen their numbers—by force, or otherwise? I'm for the latter way, and NOT for abortions.

And nothing our government ever does can make homosexuality into a virtue, before God. When God calls it sin, and an abomination, that can't change. But who are Christians to say people claiming so to be can't experience love, can't fulfill natural sex needs, even by themselves, must be force converted (conversion therapy), or that people who are trans have a mental illness?

They certainly are different from the norm, you can't say it's not a struggle that's 100 percent positive for the person, but stigmatizing it that way (as Dr. Jeffress has, with ZERO psychological expertise) is a stereotype and opinion.

I DON'T understand their condition, can't relate, see them as different from the norm, and can't say it's wonderful that they suffer such ambiguity in their sexual identity, but to, therefore, because they're different, want them singled out for ridicule, and legal infringements on their lives by Christians? That's NOT what I see as right.

I've heard the term "everyone's a sinner" used to justify keeping on sinning. That factual phrase is never supposed to be used in such a manner! I also saw a video of a Christian saying 'I'm a sinner who tries to be less of one, every day.' That SORT OF sums up sanctification, depending on how he does that, and what he means! Maybe not, also.

The day your Christian practice is judged by whether you vote to ban all abortions, and un-do gay marriages, legally, is the day I know such Christians have NO analytical skills. And the day those are the only political issues in America is the day you know people are being duped by someone, for personal gains!

If you want to be fair, every male who impregnates any woman, and it leads to an abortion, ought to suffer the same legal consequences as the female, if Roe were ever overturned. [Off point, if women want full equality (in practice), it's NOT chivalrous for any man to hold any door open for you, now, even in Texas].

I've said before, if you are NOT having sex to birth a family, take the Plan B pill within two days of any accidental inseminations—PERIOD! There need be no unwanted pregnancies in America. Do that, and the religious alt-right loses ALL political sway over their voters, and go back to mainly spiritual activities!

It takes 48-72 hours, post-sex, for conception to possibly occur. No one can complain about Plan B within two days of unwanted insemination! THIS is the answer, until perfect contraception is invented!

And if you oppose contraception, you are for (morally and financially) irresponsibly populating of our earth. It is ONLY wise, and God loves wisdom. You have NO biblical argument, this one verse notwithstanding... WARNING: ADULT CONTENT: <http://bit.ly/2CG4PYr>

If God says call no man "father" (Mt. 23:9), and pastors CAN be married (I Cor. 9:5), couldn't it be possible that believing that contraception is sinful be wrong, as well, given our immediately preceding tweet's explanation of the only one Bible verse that some use to allege that? Get your beliefs right, before being dogmatic about them.

And if you then argue that tradition says it's wrong, God didn't inspire tradition, but His Bible, which says THIS about traditions that don't conform to His word, the Bible: Mk. 7:8, Col. 2:8. Traditions that contradict the Bible are NOT from God. I'm NOT trying to offend, but say the TRUTH. (II Cor. 6:3)

I have NO idea how all religions teach on sterilization, but I do know that the Bible does NOT say that sex in marriage is ONLY for birthing children! If that were the case, I Cor. 7:3 would have believers having massively large families, going bankrupt (in the process) for Jesus. SURELY, no one can be for that!?

Continuing

I spoke with a tow truck driver one day, who said, in Mexico, people have sex for entertainment, because the electricity for TV's, or cost of TV's is sometimes out of reach. If this is true, that is a RIDICULOUS idea, folks!

EVERY nation has got to wise up, and NOT populate with kids you can't feed or afford! DUH! Intelligence. It CAN be acquired! STUPID decisions cost money, waste time and energy, and cause problems.

Our world HAS to start educating everyone on commonly-known facts. We ALL benefit when all people do smart and moral things—not stupid or evil things, like terrorism, and the like. Get a brain, and a heart!

And every culture's morals need to be analyzed for whether they're smart and moral. Forget any tradition or customs that fail the test, like treating women as second-class citizens, in any nation. That is irrational. Males are not superior, and females are never property, or here to serve men, as their masters! Wake UP.

Homosexuals should NEVER be killed for that status, in any nation. No wrists or fingers should ever be cut off for theft. NO woman should ever have to have four male witnesses, in order for her claims of rape to be taken seriously, in any society! This is NOT anti- any religion, but anti- bad ideas!

Polygamy is a BAD idea, no matter what religion may say to you. It's hard enough keeping one wife happy, and organizing a family with two parents! Swinging is just a fun way of justifying sin. Go get a swing set—don't be part of the swinger set! It's wrong/immoral.

Temporary fun and excitement that's DIS-loyal to your spouse (even if both participate)! You will regret it one day, in my opinion, as jealousy is natural, normal, and even right by both spouses, like God is jealously monogamous with believers (Jas. 4:5).

Robbery is irrational, unless you are destitute (Pv. 6:30), as the stuff is NOT yours! You didn't work for/earn it. Go do so.

Rape is evil. Rapists are cowards who can't get a spouse or girlfriend by their own merits! They are arrogantly seeking control in ways God will judge.

Murderers are the worse! You are playing God, and God will "play" with you, soon. You can never undo that heinous act. Government has a right to take your life! (Rom. 13:4)

Adultery hurts your spouse and kids. Trust me on the latter! You are unfaithful and untrustworthy if you are an adulterer. If the one who cares about you the most can't trust you, why should people who know you less? This is mere common sense, not moral peachiness, or "Bible thumping!"

Divorce hurts your kids. Again, trust me on this. Their core security blanket is torn asunder/in half. Anyone who says we divorced for the good of the family is a pure LIAR, and lying is bad, too. Your kids have ZERO desire to be having two homes in two separate venues, or new mommies and daddies! They have one of each, already!

I'm off on a tangent today, because my book proposal has two weeks and one day left, and I'm enjoying a day off, the way I enjoy holidays—writing.

Exposing your body to strangers for money is evil, strippers. God never wanted such a sacred gift revealed to the masses for filthy lucre in your G-strings!

Update #5: Personal Experiences

Have I ever been to a strip club? One time, with Ernst and Young colleagues, and I was so out of place, they mocked me most of the time. I was saying beam me up Scotty, in prayer, and have NO idea what else was going on, but some fatter chick trying to get my money, or attention, via my buddies. Cleveland, Ohio.

I told my wife our team was going there, and she knew, and said don't look or do anything you shouldn't, which, I didn't, absent the gal who intentionally singled me out from the taunting of my peers. If I had owned a laptop, I probably would have pulled it out and written a book! Nerd.

At Baylor, my freshman year, my dorm bed's wall was covered with Playboy centerfolds, and one of my roommates was pre-ministry. I'm tearful right now thinking what I put him through with that, as a carnal Christian! You didn't deserve that temptation and stupidity, KB. SORRY, bro! #Sadness Youthful stupidity age 18.

Ever been drunk? Three times. Once, I have NO idea how I got home from a ZZ Top concert! I only remember one highway sign between the Summit and the Memorial area, Houston, TX. Whiskey sours in high school with my two best buds, the other two times, most likely. We used to hang out at Blue Light Cemetery, Friday evenings, MH and DN .

Ever smoked anything? No. I once kicked my BFF out of my Thunderbird for showing me a lid (Mary Jane). He had to walk home from Memorial and Beltway 8, to three blocks west of ZZ Top's house.

SORRY I was so harsh, TE! Tears for my evil judgmentalism extreme! He's a pastor, now. Teenage foolishness.

Ever steal something? One time—$10 value. I don't know statute of limitations, so no details, but I was 16. Ding dong door ditched one family with eggs, string, burning dog poo, fire crackers at midnight, via my amigos.

Ever cheat on any test/quiz? No, and sometimes my grades might have reflected that. Ever help anyone cheat? Not to my recollection. Ever commit a crime? No. Perhaps 20 speeding tickets in my life, though.

Full confession time, for some reason. Ever lust in my heart. Probably (none that I recall)—many cuties in the world.

Ever beat anyone up? No. Ever been beat up? NO, but with one qualifier. One red-headed turd had a wrestling match I dominated him on, so we quit, and shook hands. Walking home, he called my name, I turned back, and he sucker punched me and broke my nose. Try me today, sucker! Champaign, Illinois. You'll be crushed.

See, we all do sin. Your details and story are different. No one's track-record can be the same. You may have more, or less. I haven't recalled them all. None of those comparisons matter. One sin makes every person qualified, and headed to Hell! DON'T go there. (Jn. 3:16; Jas. 2:10) ALL sins forgiven at one time!

Did I ever break up with anyone? Not to my knowledge. Ever broken up on? A few times. Was I a good worker at E & Y? NO. They wanted me to code/program computers, which is 100 percent opposite anything this dinosaur could find interest in. I should never have accepted the job! My mistake. Wrong department!

Ever cut anyone off? Probably, by accident. It would be hard to do, given that I fly faster than most. Any wrecks? Two, both under $1,000 damage. One, I was so mad at myself for not paying attention, my face scared the victim lady, and she simply drove off. Probably no damage anyway—except to my car's hood.

Are you as willing to reveal your past? Total transparency. NOT perfection. NOT revealing too personal of information. Transparency. You'll NEVER learn about my sex life, good, bad or indifferent.

It is transparency that breeds trust, as with consistent factuality. Lies break trust, as with unfaithfulness to standards you claim.

Two more, and I'm done. I recall my amigo spinning out his car on I-10 in the rain in high school, and I once was at our rival school, where someone tried to spray paint my orange T-bird with their color—orange. I scared the pee out of them with an exit speed from a parallel parking spot, to not let them do it! The gal in the passenger seat knows it for a fact, initials BS. I lied—one more. I regret that I didn't stop high school people (footballers) I heard of who shot buckshot at gays in Montrose, from shotguns, in 1976. I didn't know the names, but should have found out! That was/is the gay area of Houston. Have a nice holiday.

Update #6: Miserable Memory

One update from last night... a gal tried to argue that Barack Obama was a bad man, because, 'had I ever seen any pictures of him ever holding his girls before he ran for office?' I thought that the strangest analysis from a "Christian" I had heard in many a moon! WE DESERVE our stupid stereotype, as OFTEN earned! WOW.

One ~hilarious event from last night... my family knows my memory for names is atrocious (absent-minded professor). One gal asked if I recalled her from a year ago, and I said, 'I'll say yes, but the answer is no.' She stared at me as she left, so I'd recall her in the future. I probably won't. Weird brain toot I've never been able to fix.

In sales for nine years, EVERY time I entered a business (excepting my three biggest clients), I had a cheat sheet of owner names, even if I'd spoken to them 100 times. I DO recall faces. I saw a student from my speech class in the mall yesterday, and said, I know you. I had NO idea from where! Bad memory.

I write down everything, and have an over-full hard drive 'upstairs.' When I go to the grocery store, if the wife hasn't written it down, I did no wrong not buying it! I can recall important stuff, but things I'll never need to know long-term will NEVER be remembered. I even mix up my two sons' names, sometimes.

#IWokeUpThisMorningAnd so did you. If you could POSSIBLY, unexpectedly NOT do so tomorrow, please make sure that today that you read and pray the contents of John 3:16 (the Bible). By the way, you have NO idea if you will tomorrow! (II Cor. 6:2; Heb. 9:27)

JUST make money, and as much of it as humanly possible, and ONLY vote for politicians who protect what you earn with cops and military. You can pay for private school. THIS IS POLITICAL CONSERVATISM. Analyze for yourself if that sounds selfish or moral. I trust your IQ is high enough to rightly do so.

Update #7: Christianity's Crises

Heavenly bliss or Hellacious horrors? When your body expires, IMMEDIATELY it will be one or the other. Fire, darkness, pain, no relief, forever. A literal venue for all who reject free salvation. Why would you? Every human faces this, and every human has ZERO idea what day they'll die! (Jn. 3:16, the Bible)

You aspire to be rich, and a top dog in this 80-year life! Why not be such forever? Isn't that a much smarter aspiration, Christians? It IS if you believe the Bible. If you say you do, but really don't, you won't make that gamble with your life commitments! DO YOU BELIEVE? Your decisions answer that question for you! #Disciples

Just think of Heaven. MOST Christians will look back on this life and kick themselves for how LITTLE they did for God! How did they get distracted? Money, fun, a pampered lifestyle, pleasing peers, ego, making life easier for their kids—Self as god. Sin. I'm NOT saying it's a sin to be rich, but it CAN be! It OFTEN is. Do you believe this?

If you are a Christian, you will meet Paul, Peter, Moses, David, Abraham, Jonah, Job, Elijah, Elisha. I'll bet they're going to ask most of us why did you idolize me as a hero, but privately held ZERO desire to emulate my life achievements for God? HOW could you be spectators so many decades? Shameful!

You do NOT get a do-over. You can NOT avoid shame in Heaven (I Jn. 2:28). Your entire life will be seen by ALL, like a video replay. Your friends and family will see all your secret sins! Your deceased relative Christians already do, U.S. Christians. God judges your sins in how He rewards you in Heaven. Do you live, knowingly exposed?

Martin Luther, Calvin, Keith Green, Billy Graham. For you to admire these Christians, and that be merely a "feeling," is idiotic. Any American Christian who just goes to church should be excommunicated! I wouldn't make a very rich pastor, as I truly believe this! What's your ministry? Give me details, liars!

EVERY WEEK you hear pastors exhort you to evangelize. They NEVER ask for any accounting, like Jesus' parables show is moral. The next week, they OUGHT to ask for a show of hands of who applied that exhortation. They don't want to, as it would depress them to know the TRUTH! LAZY, degenerate Christians!

How many humans have you spoken the entire, brief Gospel to, and in how many years since you got saved, U.S. laymen. THIS question WILL be in our latest book, as I will ask every Christian in this manner, and God deserves to know your answer before people. He already knows it before Himself. Weak and pathetic evangelizers!

You are scared. Why not be more scared that you're letting people go to Hell, and be scared for them going there, Christian? Your pastor NEVER makes you do it, by personally/individually asking you to go, or quitting worship services and walking the crowd out into the neighborhood. WEAKNESS! That's NOT leadership. Do any want me to speak at your church? I will!

Murder sends a soul straight to Hell, if your victim was not saved. NON-evangelism does the exact same thing, yet you spiritually murder every day, vs. just one day with a gun, or weapon. EVERY day you let people risk Hell, that day. You don't know if that's their day to die! Debate me, Christians! You won't. Wusses!

Christianity must not be worth much if you're willing to keep it to yourself, or your behavior shows the lost are not missing out on much by your refusing to speak the Gospel to them, U.S. Christian. MAKE YOUR PASTOR SAY THIS TWEET NEXT SUNDAY, IF YOU HAVE ANY BACKBONE; you do NOT! Wusses! Losers!

You hate humans, U.S. Christians! I could care less if you deny this, say you love them, or even do good deeds to the lost. If you do NOT evangelize them, you hate people. You are haters. You are murderers. You are detestably selfish, all 'in Jesus' name.' That is blasphemy and hypocrisy! You are guilty. Debate me, please.

Today put your entire foot in a scalding hot tub full of water, Christian layman. That is a tickle, a joke, a giggling pittance of the physical pain YOU are choosing to inflict and impose on the lost people you have NOT spoken the Gospel to, who are your share of the global amount (~41-66, in number).

Place your palm above a lit candle flame today, U.S. Christian layman. DON'T be so stupid that you let yourself be burned, but just enough that you feel the pinch or sting. I mean this literally. You WANT and WISH that feeling, multiplied, forever, for all the lost people you haven't evangelized that you should have. Guilty!

Get in a pitch-dark closet, today, Christian. Use a towel to block light through the cracks. Maybe do it at night. Apart from fiery flames, in certain places, that is the future, forever, of all people you choose to not speak the Gospel to—plus the pain of said flames. MANY/most will be there, due, significantly, to you.

You think abortions are horrific, and they are. Think how much longer that agonizing pain is endured for people you are too proud or selfish to evangelize, today, U.S. Christian. The excruciating pain of crushed bones or sucked out life is NOTHING compared to Hell, forever. You are guilty, and you know it! You don't care!

I DARE ANY U.S. pastor to shut down church this weekend, and lead your members to go evangelize one soul per person, after they're all in the sanctuary, expecting a normal service. I KNOW none will. This is sinful. I'll taunt you as many times as I can, but know it will never move you to do so. Sin!

Why wouldn't a pastor encourage evangelism, then, the next week, ask for a show of hands of all who applied the sermon the week thereafter? JOHN BISAGNO did exactly that at First Baptist, Katy, TX, in ~2003. I witnessed it. He is a leader. You are not if you will not. #TRUTH Deal with it, and with your sin.

Does anyone recall the bones image of Planes, Trains and Automobiles crammed between two 18-wheelers? May that image HAUNT every Christian today, as what they will sentence the lost to, physically, as no one's soul stays in any grave. They get new bodies in Hell, immediately upon death. "You made that." Congratulations?

Teens wear skulls on T-shirts. May you see one today, and it remind you you are a weak, selfish wuss, because you won't evangelize. In funerals, everyone goes to Heaven/a better place. In reality, FEW do. Go read an obituary today. "You made that." Congrats? You didn't evangelize any on that list! There are lists like that every day!

I'd put SPIKES on the pews if I were a pastor again. I really wouldn't be rich with a mega church! They'd make you so uncomfortable you'd prefer to leave and speak the Gospel. #Spikes are what you NEED, because fiery pain is what you welcome for your neighbor. I have NOT made this graphic enough for you, yet! I'll try again...

Go to a morgue, today. Visit a cemetery. Attend a funeral. Read a list of all the celebrities who died in 2017. Get an idea that people die, and, as a Christian, it's your duty alone to prevent them going to Hell immediately when the breath leaves their lungs. You are INCOMPETENT at your number one duty, folks. Inept.

NO pastor will EVER speak to you like this. That's why churches are so financially "successful" today! EAR TICKLING. I tell you what you need to hear. Anything less is telling you what you want to hear; BIG difference. You will be poor forever (or at least for a time), in Heaven, because they won't preach this sermon—EVER! I will, any time.

If your pastoral staff has to literally meet with you every day, to get you reading God's word, that's what they need to do. If they literally, to a person, need to invite you to evangelize with them, and ask you until you go, that's what they need to do. I doubt ANY ever will! This is the corruption of the U.S. church.

Take a picture of all your work colleagues. Get a neighborhood pictorial director (or Facebook pics of your neighbors, or connections), and hang it above the tub, your toilet, and at your dinner table. Let their faces HAUNT YOU until you speak the Gospel to them. NONE of you will. You are weak wusses! Chicken loser apostates.

Just for the record, every layman has people God leads them to cross paths with. Our website estimates every layman should evangelize between 44-61 (or so) people in their lifetime, to do their share. HOW IS YOUR COMPLETION OF THAT TASK GOING? I know the answer, for most. Preach this, pastors! You won't!

Eternity. Consider its length. Add 1 + 1 + 1 as long today as your patience can endure. You haven't begin a drop in the bucket even considering our ~80 year lives. Go look up forever's definition in a dictionary. Get a perspective on life, U.S. Christians. Or go make money, and have fun, as you WILL do!

I'm ready to wring some necks. Time to go eat. I've said enough. Twitter search "evangelize ASAP," and "shut down church asap," and "fire your pastor asap." Just because you have been IGNORANT (i.e., not knowing) how many years I've called for these things doesn't mean I never did! That's pure logic! Go do it!

SAYING "go to Hell" is rude. Saying it by NOT evangelizing is fatal, and more rude. People say I'm going through Hell. They have NO idea how true that WILL be, because U.S. Christians WON'T tell you how not to! (Jn. 3:16, the Bible). May God judge His church severely in 2018. This is my prayer. Happy new year?

If a new product's CEO purposed to offer it to everyone on earth, they'd have managers over every nation, region, major city, and ground troop salespeople, all coordinated to know who reaches who, so there's no overlap. God's church does none of that regarding global evangelism. Embarrassing executive FAILURES!

With a meager workforce, why would any Christian ever waste the time to evangelize a Christian? Uncoordinated lack of plans and documentation, though even that doesn't occur, much, because pastors have adopted 'business models' vs. God's model for evangelism (of go and tell vs. come and hear)! Topsy-turvy ERRORS!

MOST evangelism by pastors is pretend... we pretend we're speaking the Gospel to lost people, when a very small percent of people in church need to hear that message. It's a dress rehearsal never performed in real life, where real lost people live. Embarrassing professional negligence! Guilty as charged.

Business people speak of how are sales/how's business. You talk about what you care about, or are excited about. Do you hear many Christians speak of evangelism, or the Bible? You're commanded to lay up a fortune for the next life. Instead, we seek fortunes on earth. II Cor. 4:13: It's NATURAL to speak the Gospel if you have faith. Do you, if you don't?

People who experience good things talk about them. New mothers, a great promotion, a windfall inheritance. Apparently, the Gospel is bad news, because so few U.S. Christians ever speak it to lost people, like the inventor of the Polio vaccine would have among his colleagues, then to the public. Mute children!

How would we view a lifeguard alerted to a drowning gal, who sat on his perch with a life raft hanging behind his head? Such is the church in U.S.A. with the Gospel. We call people heroes, who rescue animals fallen in icy lakes. You should call most Christians zero's, or hams, for their lack of evangelism! And worse!

Lost people bite and chew faces off evangelizers. Such must be the phobia from Satan of a majority of U.S. Christians. They've all heard? Prove it, by reaching them, and letting them tell you that. Otherwise, assumptions make an A__ out of you and me; well, mainly you. Sorry, I don't hold that assumption!

Christians live like everyone's going to make it to age 80—ON THE SAME DAY. In other words, they put evangelism off all their life, AS IF everyone they see will be there at their 80th birthday to hear a message from them. That will NEVER happen. Delusional lack of obedience all your life. Destitute broke in Heaven!

Is it mere information lost people lack? NO? Information about Christ, empowered by Christ, which can sovereignly cause a miraculous conviction call unto salvation, if God so acts, as believers trust Him to, and hope He does through them; obedient ones, at least. We're 'outa here. You know what to do. Mum's the word.

BAD BOSSES: LIVING WAGE OR LIVING HELL?

(11/28/18)

Let's talk about a 'living wage' and the minimum wage. SINCE businesses have been profiting, with the irresponsibly low tax cut of Chump, WHY shouldn't everyone benefit? Trickle-down says let elites enjoy life, and to He_1 with everyone else, if that bump never reaches them!

Though I've said this before, we want U.S. businesses to be the best in the world, but that's NOT just financially. Literally, in the short-run, businesses do best, financially, when they scr_w the little guy, making the maximum profits off their labor/backs!

They treat employees as 'FTEs' (full time equivalents), and assets. They lay off 14,000 at GM, and shareholders LOVE it, because business gets more profitable! The concern is NEVER cutting an equal percent of executives, who ALLOWED their company to get off track in tracking consumer demand and taste changes! They'll probably get more rewarded for that stock price rise! That's EVIL!

Why not retrain as many employees as possible to make the vehicles DUMB management should have had them building since those tastes changed? Business executives get away with MURDER, because they have a false belief that business can do whatever it wants, and government is evil to say otherwise. Unions USED to balance out this imbalance, but not so much, anymore.

Workers are at the mercy of selfish, greedy crooks, to be able to survive! I've said it before, and conservatives despise the thought, but a person CAN be over-paid! It doesn't matter that someone was willing to over-pay them, it's too much, and it's evil and wrong, because that pay comes at the expense of the little guy/average Joe's livelihood!

Conservatives argue that it's legal, but it's immoral, and shouldn't be allowed, even though it's legal (a concept that can be changed!), by public clamorings! What the market will bear OFTEN means what executives can get away with for themselves and their cronies.

Any person who would advocate for profit-sharing, by law, is labeled a 'Socialist!' Any person who cares one iota about ALL (vs. a few) Americans, and NOT just business executives is a 'collectivist,' to conservatives.

How EVIL it is to consider a person who works 40 hours (or more) should be able to survive off that wage (SARCASM)! It's ONLY evil to evil people, who want slaves, but our laws won't allow them those desires!

Relatedly is the minimum wage. It SHOULD increase, as our economy has improved (and it can decrease, if the economy wanes). What system ALLOWS only the rich to have any ease and comfort? An EVIL one!

I'm all for Capitalism, but NOT its skewed abuse, of unfree trade and unfair trade practices, where laws and practices are jury-rigged to mainly benefit the elites. There are too many people in the world, which lowers all of our wages, but people who do exist do have to live!

WHO cares if they can, if I'm making bookoo's of money, says the EVIL rich person. The GOOD ones share this concern for the whole. And please note, if your skills and productivity DON'T merit a living or legitimate minimum wage, NO employer owes you a job (and people with families would need a different minimum than single people, as they have other mouths to feed)!

Businesses can robotize, now, or do what they've done to ruin your livelihood, in the Rust Belt, and elsewhere... outsource good jobs, and import cheaper labor. It's ALL designed to benefit business and executives, and their YUGE excess war chests fund politicians, to keep it that way.

This set-up is evil, evil, evil, and laws and regulations need to change, especially concerning paid-off politicians, and ONLY 'the (voting) people' can solve this!

Unless and until U.S. business executives believe business is in business for more than just profits, this system will continue! I'm ALL for U.S. businesses doing great, but doing great toward their people and customers, as well as to their bottom line.

So you make a little less than you could, by doing right. What will it hurt you in the end? You gain motivated, loyal workers, and repeat business from loyal customers, and you can sleep at night, knowing you WILL face God in judgment, and HOW you treated people, and cared about society (vs. just your business), WILL be accounted for before Him! MANY of you are facing a very POOR future, for how you chose to do business!

#IWishICouldTellMyBoss I may be self-employed, but I remember having bosses. EVERY boss NEEDS to read these verses, and do right by all your employees!: (Eph. 6:9; Col. 4:1; Jas. 4:13-5:7) EVERY evil deed you do unto workers, because you can get away with it, WILL be judged by God! (Ecc. 12:14)

BANNON BACKSTABBED? (NO—JUST A SHOW)

(10/26/17)

There are good and bad things in liberalism, conservatism, and centrism. The intelligent thing to do is to take the good, and reject the bad. @Pledgers2020 DESPITE their having arranged in secret that Chump will distance himself from Bannon, they're tied at the hip! HERE is what Trump, through Bannon, wants:

Drain the swamp... RID D.C. of all GOP's but alt-righters. THIS means, the GOOD in conservatism and centrists goes away, for the alt-right reigning through Chump. Here's the GOOD of conservatism: Controlled borders, strong economy and national defense, law and order, religious liberty, and smaller government.

Here are the NEGATIVES of Trump's desired GOP-state, alt-right rule: End five federal agencies (Rick Perry's suggestion; unemployment skyrockets, and many needed functions go unattended). Those agencies could be streamlined, and more efficient, but the alt-right wants them gone—MORE pollution (with the EPA gone), NO ONE to process taxes or enforce tax laws (IRS gone—per Ted Cruz, who Bannon wants still on the public doll), WORSE and inconsistent education (with the DOE gone), LESS consumer protections (with the DOC gone), the Interior Department and HUD ended (i.e., no one to manage entitlements, or our national parks, etc., per Ron Paul).

Gingrich (a Chump ally) wanted child labor laws abolished, to make America more competitive; let little Johnny work vs. attend public school. Be pro-school vouchers, so the rich get something for their taxes, while the poor have to cough up cash (they don't have) to abandon public schools, and try to force them out of business.

Pure conservatism (i.e., the alt-right) gave you THESE "moral" values: Http://bit.ly/2fIESxj REST assured those are NOT religious values of any religion! But as to "religious liberty," that WASPS who are in bed with Chump (i.e., 'the Christian Cabal') desire to BAN every abortion in every state—NO exceptions. It also wants to END all gay marriages, if not to criminalize sodomy, like in their version of "the good old days."

Hyper conservatism claims the Constitution is their mandate. What they REALLY want is rich, mainly Protestant, white man's reign!: NO equal pay for equally-qualified women, NO minimum wage, so business can pay people LESS, business owners and the rich get even richer, blacks are targeted (though being descendants of the slavery that built our country, while its beneficiaries thereof further expand the wage gap), the KKK rises, immigrants are targeted for despising, or removal (if illegal; i.e., deportation), government gets small enough that entitlements are cut off, taxes are slashed on business and the rich (i.e., trickledown economics) so our debt skyrockets, but rich people retire earlier—are YOU going to be able to retire? That's NOT their concern!

THIS is pure conservatism! Specifically-named politicians have advocated for just these exact policies! And the WASP church is for it, via Chump, from an insecure identity crisis and socially low self-esteem, feeling like red-headed step children in America (when God says they are new creations, a holy priesthood, and more than conquerors), because they listen to culture more than Christ, especially in politics!

So DO NOT let Chump deceive you with Steve Bannon's plan (DT was NEVER smart enough to think of it). He will criticize, even demonize Bannon in next few months, but it's a (not so-) secret PACT for Stevie to do Chump's bidding, while he schmoozes RINO's, just before trying to cut off their (political) heads! ONLY idiots can't see this!

BANNON IN BED WITH PROPHETS OR PROFITS?

(10/22/17)

AS IF in strategic political collusion, both local talk hosts say they respected George W. Bush, then slam yesterday's speech, because he never publicly attacked any of Obamas policies. 2018 will be political conservatism against the world. WE CALLED OUT LIARS [on Twitter], who claimed the GOP is united, YEARS ago.

If this guy, and George W. Bush don't stop saying excellent things, Dumb as a Donkey (book) will NEVER be done adding quotes! <http://cbsn.ws/2yLF1K0>

Interview this week on evangelical Christian TV station with Lara Trump: <http://bit.ly/2y3U4Ls>

The Christian Cabal is trying to keep dumbed-down sheep dumb and blind, brain-washed and brain-dead, all for 'Jesus,' who said to love Him with all your heart and mind, brothers and sisters!

[RE: <http://on.msnbc.com/2gxVvis>] The right would attack Bill and Hill (and more elderly Jimmy's record), Romney's daughter is an RNC executive, and he may run for Congress next year, G.H.W. Bush, like Jimmy, is getting older, so I don't expect any more presidents or ex-presidential candidates to speak! GWB and BHO were a PERFECT bipartisan duo!

The right's pundits will say Barack Obama and George W. Bush were protecting the ruling class from a Bannon swamp drain. They'll deny there's any reality to what those two great men said. When you have sold your soul to Satan, for worldly power, there's no turning back, Jeffress, talk radio, et al. Prodigal sons.

FEW are reminding the public that it was ex-GOP presidential nominee @SenJohnMcCain who STARTED the initiative to counter Bannon's evil attack on the GOP party, to cause division and strife. Bush and Obama chimed in AFTER the war hero did his courageous deed. Report that, media!

GENTLEMAN'S BET, just like plagiarizing Melania, you won't hear much from Lara Trump in the public, anytime soon. Back in the closet—leave the heavy lifting to the guy who handles lying and the media SO well now (SARCASM on that last statement).

Bannon's political conservatives attempt to split or ruin the GOP WILL center on getting WASP Christians to vote based on abortion! I JUST left Waco, where a highway overpass banner near Baylor said, 'honk if you believe abortion is never OK,' and two lakeside mansions had signs, '40 days of prayer to end abortion.' @DNC @GOP

This has little to do with abortion! You haven't seen such frantic anti-abortion events in the past twenty years! This is 81 percent, mainly WHITES who voted for Chump, and CLAIM Jesus, organizing to support he and Bannon, FOOLishly abandoning God for ONE issue, as if America mainly has one challenge; it's political vs. religious!

It's not even Chump. He NOW symbolizes conservatism, even though he's NEVER been one until recently, and wasn't one until he finally came up with positions, after index finger to the wind, and everyone but WASP's abandoned him! Christian Cabal pastors want that lusted-for secular power. That's mainly what this is!

Gay marriage was a turning point for political conservatives luring WASPS! So now they will tout Roe's overturn, but really just that abortion is evils, even if Roe couldn't be changed. RILING UP THE SHEEP. That is ALL it's about. They've done LITTLE to lessen the number of abortions since Reagan—they just want political power!

DID YOU KNOW, our economy needs NO help, terrorism is NO problem, our debt is fine, education is top notch, immigration is settled, we have no pollution, no poor, crime doesn't exist—but that one single issue is America's crisis—abortion. This message riles up the stupid—sorry to be so blunt! The truth hurts.

Abortion is NOT going to end by 40 days of prayer! If WASPs can't convince a majority to have the Supreme Court (SCOTUS) reconsider Roe, you are NOT going to get raped women to take to term, women to give up the chance to undo a bad, heat of passion decision of unprotected sex, or if birth control or condoms fail!

The conservative just says BLEED OUT! If you were raped, the victim of incest, or a dying mother (to save her unborn baby), BLEED OUT! You can further be victimized, for all I care—BLEED OUT, or take to term. That is what the 'no abortions are OK' sign means! The issue is NOT is it OK, but is it LEGAL! Such ignorance!

EVEN in the case of NOT the three 'exceptions,' you have to overcome precedent with legal arguments! Again I say, the timing is MORE than FISHY, two weeks after Bannon declared war on the GOP. And any Christian buying into his political stunt IS stupid! Here's what they'll NEVER learn from the baby Christian Bible:

EVERY political issue with a moral core is God's concern! Let's try the issue of riches. First, more than six years after the Rapture, religious, political and commercial Babylon will be destroyed, being united 3.5 years after the Tribulation starts. Political conservatism is that EXACT mixture of the three!

HERE is what the WASP church will NEVER teach their members, because it blows the doors off the red meat of abortion-hating for GOP loyalty: Life is NOT all about money-making (Lk. 12:15); a rich person has a LOWLY position before God (vs. before) Americans. Culture trumping Christ! (Jas. 1:10)

Jesus WARNS the rich—NOT the poor! (Lk. 6:24) The poor are rich in faith, and the rich are rich in faith in their riches! (Lk. 18:18-30) MOST rich people go to hell (Mt. 19:24) Yet, where are most mega churches started? In rich zip codes! It's a business decision! The church-as-a-business model.

As an aside, I laughed when Baylor football coach was praised for his ethics, by Christians who voted for DT. So people who PLAY for a living need integrity, but NOT America's top role model? I digress. WASPs teach the amount of money is NOT the problem. READ Lk. 12:48. TOKEN donations are NOT doing this! I Tim. 6:17-19 singles out the rich to be generous—for a reason!

HOW would a person live mainly for THIS life? Chase riches! Col. 3:1-4 and Mt. 6 teach Christians NOT to do so! I Jn. 2:15-17 describes worldliness, yet MANY WASPS care less about this verse (I Tim. 6:10) They never even know it exists! READ Mt. 6:24. Prosperity preachers, and some mega ministers act as it's a LIE!

HOW did Jesus teach that one can have treasures in heaven, if going there? NOT building treasures here (Mt. 19:21). The rich, young ruler idolized money, though Zacchaeus promised to give back up to 50 percent. The former went to hell; the latter's testimony evidenced salvation, to Jesus! (Lk. 19:9) God teaches Heb. 13:5!

THAT VERSE implies that your relation to Jesus should sustain you more than your wallet! Pastors are BIBLICALLY DISQUALIFIED if they suffer a love of money (I Tim. 3:3). Do you know any who do? THESE verses aren't taught by WASP pastors, because GOP conservatives are for keeping all you can, and NEVER let government help the poor any, with tax dollars!

God cares HOW one earned their money (Jas. 4-5, et al), and HOW they used it, and HOW they use what they don't need! Conservatives don't care about that. Abortion will be Bannon's mantra, but money/taxes retained by WASPs is the core motive, for many, but they will NEVER tell you this. I will, and just did.

And support womanizer Trump, who trades in wives for younger models every decade, wanted to nail Princess Di, says he can grab women's privates, and I moved on her like a b_t_h, but I couldn't get there. Adulterer-in-Chief!

JUST AS I SAID, MONEY is more important than morals, for political conservatives' number one media outlet! This fits in perfectly with the message we JUST wrote! <http://bit.ly/2yLzaUT>

Jesus' concern was NOT for the high and mighty, but the down and lowly. Is THAT what you would say about political conservatives? The MORE you walk with Jesus, the MORE you adopt HIS values. The WASP church is in bed with sin, to gain secular power which Jesus REJECTED! (Mt. 4) Heretics follow Bannon! Carnals and apostates.

I'll also testify that the one business that I have had the MOST problems with, and the MOST consistent conflicts over money was a "Christian" one! There are no "Christian" businesses, except Christian bookstores. Christian-owned businesses, but do they handle money issues the way Jesus teaches, or idolize it in Jesus' name?

Did you know that disposable income can end up in tax payments, charitable donations or church gifts? There is a COMPETITION for money, which is another reason so many WASP pastors are for the GOP! Lower taxes, so more money for their religious business! TELL ME IF YOU HEAR THESE THINGS ANYWHERE ELSE! In church?

Tax exempt business, accepting FEMA money for helping hurricane victims. It's ALL the Laodicean church! And when the Christian Cabal says they are Christian "leaders," ASK liberal, independent, black, brown, and NON-Southern Baptists if they represent them! It's often a MYTH, mirage, lie, or NON-spiritual power. Wake UP!

If Bannon's insult of George W. Bush doesn't backfire among Trump voters, THEY ARE NOT REPUBLICANS, they have ZERO morals, and do not ever listen to them if they claim to be "Christians." NO Christian would follow a pied piper FOOL like Bannon, except apostates and heretics! This is TRUE!

The LIE of a FOOL—Christians with him are Devil-led! Bannon: George W. Bush presidency most 'destructive' in U.S... <http://on.msnbc.com/2h4932i> via @msnbc Bannon's TRICK is to state negative things in extreme language, to get media attention, like G.W.B. was the most destructive president in U.S. history. That riles up FOOLS, even though it's a complete lie. Conservatives do NOT care about sin, or facts, as their liar-in-chief baby Christian role modeled Satan for two years.

People who approve lies are evil. People who accept unfactual statements are stupid. Evil and stupid are NOT virtues, Trump voters. I thought you might need this lesson in common sense, because the Christian Cabal members will NOT teach you this; they want your vote more than your being moral and intelligent! It's called idolatry.

The PROPER process would be to have Sekulow's ACLJ bring a similar circumstanced case to Roe before SCOTUS for reversal/vacating, and remanding to the states, based on changed circumstances, perhaps if 70 percent oppose it, as one GOP presidential candidate claimed. That's NOT what conservatives will do—but just rile up votes with anger; Roe (overturn) is NOT the point.

I had a tweeter say Democrats are anti-God. HERE's how REAL Christians react to such a claim: Prayer-backed, Spirit-empowered EVANGELISM. Here's how IDIOTS respond: Hate for Democrats, and a desire to decimate them, because that's how their god (the Devil) acts. Pastors WON'T correct them, as they want SECULAR power! #Repent

These are virtues: Integrity and intelligence. Stupidity, ignorance and immorality are vices. As well, one can be smart in their evil, which is a vice, and one can be dumb and virtuous—the good 'ol boy type. THESE DAYS, you have to spell EVERYTHING out for people, like paint by numbers morality lessons. #SoFarFromGod!

Believing that revival is here is SUCH a farce. 1. The church has NOT, and likely WILL not do her FOUR parts (II Chr. 7:14). 2. SIN in society would WANE. Church attendance from newborn Christians would increase. News articles would involve moral lessons. Kindness and virtue would be celebrated. It's a MIRAGE to believe it's here.

That takes too long, and too much work, so the Christian Cabal produces imitation/fake ceremonies, to look like things are happening on TV! HERE are four crucial factors you will notice if revival comes before the Tribulation starts (it likely won't): Most Christians evangelize regularly, get discipled, use their spiritual gift(s) in ministry, and engage in changing social problems for the good. If you ever see that sea change shift, you can expect revival to be waiting in the wings. But that takes pastoral LEADERSHIP—NOT sermon topic changes, and slogans advertised for new programs, or renamed existing ministries!

HERE are four TESTS to see if the church is serious about seeking revival. After humbling themselves to pray and seek God, most U.S. Christians turn from their evil ways, and start behaving as the church is to do. NOT worldliness, churchianity, church-as-a-business, seeking political more than spiritual power+. #NotThereYet!

Specifically, EVERY U.S. pastor would identify every inhabited house NOT near another participating church, train their laymen to effectively evangelize (or identify their friends and family, and reach them first), pray, then go harvest that Jerusalem field (Ac. 1:8). The success stories (i.e., 'converts') would be discipled, but ONLY after existing church members were, using relational discipling like Jesus did, and multiplication, like Paul did in the books of Timothy. Spiritual gifts would be identified and used, and local churches would LEAD and exceed possibly even government programs, and charities, in FIXING America's many problems. THAT is revival—all else is FAKE!

SHOWS (as opposed to reality) PRETEND to care about abortion, in constructive vs. anger-inducing ways! I just detailed how Bannon's wing nuts could take action on Roe. I GUARANTEE YOU they will NOT! That's NOT their point, but complete idiots, in Jesus' name, will think they're doing something.

There are several ways to lessen the number of abortions, and ways to change public opinion on their being evil. Even these ways I've discussed before will NOT be acted upon by the Christian Cabal, because the objective is Trump votes for ANOTHER agenda, abortion as only one of its facets! SIN-to-win, fake "Christian deeds!"

Jesus' reputation, through CLAIMING Christians (mainly white, or a small percent of GOP's of other races), is taking a SEVERE beating under the fake Christian Chump, and his surrogates and supporters! THEY DONT CARE! Jesus' values have NEVER been their interest this political season! 'Put them on pause!'

And I've said before, I'm NOT for a Roe overturn, but if the majority wanted it, for the state's rights option, that wouldn't be a problem, but would raise many more problems I've discussed previously. I offer solutions. Bannon types offer ways to anger DUMB Christians to vote for the stupidest and least moral GOP in 50+ years!

Poll: Do you respect evangelical's morals more or less, given their support of Mr. Trump in the 2016 election?

Poll: Would you be more or less inclined to listen to or believe an evangelical's "gospel" after 81 percent of them supported Trump?

Do you believe Donald Trump is a Christian, or claimed to be one, then claimed to be a baby one a year later?

The difference between profession and possession is the difference between heaven and hell, Mr. Trump, baby Christian.

Evangelical, so-called "leaders" HAD to find a way to cover Chump's many RECENT, public and unrepented of sins. For those with amnesia: Http://bit.ly/2i6fnFa #NeverForget So they concocted a plan when his poll numbers were down... they would offer him white church votes in exchange for a wish list of policies he'd then support. They would claim he has repented of all sins, in private, to them (NO public testimony, or water baptism), then excuse his continuing those sins as his having just gotten saved! Naive Christians would believe it!

I have ZERO idea why black and Latino pastors aren't as avidly in the media denouncing Trump from a Christian, biblical viewpoint, as Jeffress/Falwell praise him on Fox! They're acting like those two represent the entire U.S. church, and y'all are losing the P.R. battle! @FHunscripted If I knew more minority pastors, I would direct tweet them!

Famous U.S. Jewish, Muslim, Catholic, Episcopal, Methodist, Lutheran (etc.; i.e., NON-Southern Baptist) pastors should be in the media, countering Falwell/Jeffress, ethically and biblically!
<http://bit.ly/2yNmpQu>

REAL Christians falsely believe any voice of opposition to self-promoted Christian "leaders" is an evil division, AS IF free speech or dissent based on TRUTH is sinful. But with MOST U.S. Christians relying on their pastors to teach them what the Bible says, WHAT ELSE WOULD YOU EXPECT? Sheep off the cliff of ignorance.

If you meet a stupid Christian in America, they may be very nice people, but know that they are living in active rebellion, intellectually, to their claimed Messiah/King/Savior. I hope you will tell them so, and tell them to study their Bibles for themselves, and "be Berean!" (Ac. 17:11)

If YOU want to make America "great again," tell ANY Christian you meet that they need to do EDBS priorities (described in their Bible, and defined at our FREE website), and tell them that revival has FOUR preparatory steps which they are NOT doing (II Chr. 7:14) Tell them that going to church is NOT the core of Christianity!

I can only imagine how the Devil gets Christian pastors to devise schemes that VIOLATE Heb. 10:1 and Col. 2:17, in private strategy sessions where they ask, 'how can we make it LOOK like we have revival?' Sell our souls to the Devil for secular power, using P.R. stunts, and celebrity Christians to get the flocks to vote for DT!

And since U.S. pastors have brain-washed them since the Reagan days that Democrats are Devils, and God is a GOP, and most pastors have NOT disciplined many people (so most Christians know LITTLE about God's word), the ground is RIPE for them to be fooled by such TRICKS! Sin-to-win! That is OPPOSITE of what Jesus would do, but the Devil rewards it. Who cares?

NEVER believe that DJT is NOT 100 percent behind Bannon's antics! He will TRY to distance himself, to be more appealing to you GOP's, but he's having another do his dirty work, as he schmoozes you! @GOP @SpeakerRyan @SenateMajLdr @SenateGOP @HouseGOP; @DNC DT wants the swamp drained, as he coddles you politicians!

Be it business, politics, or churches engaged in a political agenda, people LIE to push for their agendas! You present how you want things to be as the way they are. The customer is number one when you and your wallet are really number one! I know a "Christian" business who's the most ruthless for getting your money, even violating its own rules!

Image and timing are everything, in the world system of lies, deceit and fake news! Image is image. Reality is reality. Rarely the twain shall meet! This type culture WILL end up in this, in prophecy (Rev. 13:15; II Th. 2:11). We are greasing the skids for these coming events, by our current-day activities!

Facts, values, priorities—a thing of the past. Ignorance and immorality reign! JUST as before another day of judgment (Judg. 21:25) NO LEADERSHIP caused the problem then, and now! (Pv. 29:18) You better be ready for prophecy to hit our world, as it could at any time! The signs are all there, people. (Jn. 3:16)

Politicians LIE, to win your vote. Pastors under-educate, and cherry pick values, to sway political votes. Businesses lie, to win customers. Honesty is a dying art. A nation built on lies is a house of cards, ripe for judgment, when the Tribulation transpires! Good luck with that, and with hell which follows! (Eze. 3:18)

It's SAD how often we believe MYTHS! Read the hashtag, #MessagesFromCelebrityGhosts, and most people believe most people die, and go to heaven, when most go to a burning hell. These lies keep us optimistic, as we face the most pessimistic future, by trying to pay for our own sins, in hell, forever. A deceived generation. (I Tim. 4:7)

BANNON, THE ALT-RIGHT & THE CHRISTIAN CABAL

(10/16/17)

It took four minutes of talk radio shows to see Steve Bannon's strategy: Enlist SIN-full Christian Cabal media mouthpieces, and secular talk radio hosts hosting rallies targeting anyone in politics who are NOT alt-right. Throw in promises on Roe, and you lure weak/sinful pastors for your cause. 20/20 will be political conservatives vs. all others!

For 2018, you need to gear up with real evidence and logic against the alt-right political philosophy of the Tea Party, @DNC @TheDemocrats Talk radio, three "famous" WASP pastor sell-outs (for Roe being overturned) and Steve Bannon are trying to ruin the GOP, so you'll need to expose conservatives evils! @GOP @SenateGOP @HouseGOP

I'll take Stevie Bannon's bet/dare any day! He will lose 2020. Our book(s) already slam political conservatism for Christians, as with others, while detailing its positives. The man is on a Titanic suicide mission, and may decent GOPs and RINO's end him! He (with Trump) is NOT good for America, but mainly rich white males!

Fox news, Christian radio and TV, WASP mega churches, and Tea Party gatherings are colluding to make 2018 an 'us vs. them' extremist match. Extremes do NOT have the numbers! Any Christian who votes for 100 percent political conservatism is a practicing 'sinner.' Jesus would NOT vote 100 percent conservative! #WWJD Sin-to-win. THAT's the Christians Cabal's strategy, because "sometimes you put your Christian values on pause to get things done." So said the token Uncle Tom candidate of the alt-right, OPPOSITE of Jesus (as you would expect from power idolizing sinners naming God as their foundation)! Sinners.

Even Gingrich got in on the game, saying that to drain the swamp, the alligators get agitated. That loser adulterated and abandoned wives nearly as much as Chump, yet our local talk show host slams evil Democrats as having a monopoly on sexual predators. LIAR, Chris Salcedo! There is sin on BOTH sides, foolish one.

You would be WISE to team up with all NON alt-right D.C. Congress persons to defeat Bannon, the Christian Cabal, and talk radio, so all can show America in 2020 that we can work together to get REAL priorities fixed, @DNC @TheDemocrats @GOP Pure alt-right/extremism is a losing cause, nationally!

Drain the swamp? Drain the swamp drainer! Trump is the absolute WORST and stupidest president anyone living has lived through in America. Drain the White House in 2020. THAT would make America great again! #TheResistance #NeverTrump

.@JeffFlake I'll do anything you need to help you get re-elected, as I despise the Devilish use of claiming or fake "Christians" to defeat you in tonight's Arizona rally with Bannon and your opponent, for alt-right extremism. Praying for you, and calling out my sinful/idolatrous Christian brethren.

GOP "RINOs" better quickly learn that you've got to be for something, not just against Chump, and donors are the mother's milk that Bannon is attacking for far right extremism. Democrats NEED GOP's who can compromise and work together, once Chump is ousted! It's in your interest to help RINO's, @DNC @TheDemocrats #StopExtremism

EVERY Republican D.C. Congress person NEEDS to NOT suffer willful amnesia, and REMEMBER what Chump did to your party and career! Here's a reminder, and evidence that an elephant's memory is a virtue, @GOP: <http://bit.ly/2i6fnFa> (II Pet. 1:12, 3:1, et al).

How do Trump-despising GOP's win re-election? Common sense principles that are NOT extreme. The alt-right is extreme. Don't just detail how it hurts America, propose better ideas! DJT has divided my former party, where Reagan and Lincoln wouldn't be part of it. He's a loser-in-chief, defeated in 2020.

I'm SURE The Chump is arguing in private that GOP Congress persons' careers are at stake if he loses in 2020, so they better back him. That's a LIE! He's OUT in 2020, and if they can hang on, all good politicians have wonderfully bright futures, fixing REAL problems vs. symbolic trivial, base-luring edicts!

HOW would Trump-hating GOPs run in 2018 to win, yet having done nothing? That's not my problem to solve—I changed parties, following my conscience. I'm sure there are ways, but I'm also sure hypocrisy, flip-flops and lying will be part of the mix. That's NOT the way God does business, values-on-pause Ben Carson!

I'd paint Bannon for EXACTLY what he is to your constituents! Cite opinion polls about his lack of popularity. He is a disruptive, evil egoist advocating U.S.A.-hating (and dividing) policies that only benefit elitists. That's NOT the GOP I used to know, and Reagan would be on the side of NON alt-right, @GOPs !

I NEVER vowed I'd cease policy posts, just cut back. Given the Christian Cabal selling their soul to Steve Bannon and talk radio, I must remind people of the evils of alt-right political theory (though they have good points, too): END minimum wage and the estate tax (that HURTS workers, and mainly helps the rich get richer), END the IRS and four other federal agencies (unemployment skyrockets, and still people process tax forms and enforce tax laws).

If you think Ted Cruz is not caustic, you'll LOVE what Steve Bannon is advocating! Obergefell and Roe overturn will be sought, as with more outsourcing, lost jobs, elites made richer, entitlements will be cut (as a goal), white males will rule, the Supreme Court (SCOTUS) will be stacked alt-right conservatively.

THESE are the logical implications of what Bannon is trying to push on the GOP, and then the U.S.A. If anyone believes Trump is a smart, good man, I can't help you. All others, #Resist tooth and nail!

The STUPIDEST thing about Steve Bannon (among millions of others) is that he believes political conservatism is god, has no flaws, and all other positions are 100 percent in error. That man represents Satan more than God, yet a WASP pastor clique is following him vs. Jesus. AMAZING apostasy and hypocrisy! I told you why this morning!

Church-as-a-business churchianity is why MOST claiming Christians are NOT fully committed to Jesus. Their leaders preach a false Gospel, then sin in politics, despite that "gospel" saying they were to be committed to righteousness, or they would go to Hell. It's a scam, politically and religiously.

KEEP CHRISTIAN LAYMEN BLIND and DUMB. This is the core strategy of the Christian Cabal. So long as church-goers believe everything pastors say, they can brain-wash them to anything they want them to do. God says TRUE Christians do NOT need a religious guru—you have Jesus! (1 Jn. 2:27) Be dumb?

Jesus was (and would be) a political conservative? THIS is the LIE Christian Cabal pastors are snake oil selling to mega church-going dupes! He would be independent, and ONLY support morally good policies from any source. Why would anyone trust or follow a liar for Jesus? Wolves and tares and Balaam types!

In Bible prophecy, God says FALSE (mega) ministers WILL arise to lead astray even true Christians, if that is possible, and they will do it by cunning words that DON'T conform to the Bible, and all for money idolatry. It's becoming clearer every day who these people are—and they're Trump backers!

FALSE Gospel (Lordship salvation), FALSE tithe doctrine, FALSE political philosophy (100 percent conservatism), FALSE belief they are entitled to full-time wages, FALSE belief that church buildings are commanded, and FALSE teaching that Christianity is mainly attending church an hour a week, at their business.

FALSE evangelism methods (i.e., come and hear me preach and get paid) vs. go and tell, FALSE denial of EDBS priorities in full (i.e., thoroughly), FALSE denial of Ac. 2:44 and II Cor. 8:14-15 as role models for society.

ALWAYS follow the money trail! FALSE trust in a FALSE "savior," Trump. I expect him to solve Israeli problem, soon! If you are such a "great negotiator," go do YOURSELF what you promised you'd try to (NOT your son-in-law!): Solve the Israeli-Palestinian problem, #RealDonaldTrump @POTUS You are all words, bad ones at that, and that's because you are a 'moron'-ically bad thinker! Fake baby Christian #45 (or #666)?

Christians who voted for Trump would have voted for Hitler in his day, because Hitler was "wise" enough to hide his evil heart. Trump fully exposed it, and 70-90 percent carnal WASP Christians cheered him into the White House from biblical apostasy, prophetically. The spirit of delusion has arrived!

If WASP Christians had voted their conscience, they would NOT have voted for Trump. Hillary would have won, and GOP majorities (who they voted for) would have kept any evils or extremes in check. That's EXACTLY how I voted, before changing parties, to have ZERO association with the 'Evil One.' Most U.S. WASP's worship money, and power more than God!

Gorsuch or Garland? About the same! The Christian Cabal LIED and fear mongered about SCOTUS picks, and the 2016 election meaning an end to our country if WASP's didn't vote for Chump (though they wouldn't state his name—just say pray, 100 percent implied: Vote for Trump, to skirt the law). The sin-to-win strategy of sinful pastors!

Older white ministers dream of nationally banning all abortions and un-doing all gay marriages. They haven't the gonads to ever say this in public, because they are NOT honest men. I just said it for them, so you can watch their political shenanigans working toward those ends, in secret and in public silence!

Do you EVER hear a Christian Cabal "pastor" (I use the term very lightly) clamor for anything but Roe and Obergefell as the ONLY sins mentioned in their Bible? Oh, and keep my tax exemption, because I love my money; that's why I always vote for the party that lets me keep it all. Balaam types (See: II Peter and Jude)

Did anyone think fake Christian 'leaders' would come straight out and say they we are wolves in sheep's clothing? The Devil's smarter than that (II Cor. 11:14), and he is who led them like sheep to the slaughter to their savior, Trump. Put those Christian values on pause. That's what Jesus would do—NOT! LIARS!!!

Promise the Christian Cabal that in exchange for overturning Roe they will be taxed much higher, and lose their tax exemption for their 'ministries.' Use this as a trial balloon to discover TRUE motives! It's easy to mix evil with good, but when push comes to shove, always follow the money trail. Media: Challenge them on this!

The ~30 percent tax (from false doctrine tithes) the feds could get by taxing churches could help pay travel and doctor expenses of women in red states, seeking abortions, once Roe were overturned. Tax every church run like a business. It's ONLY fair to taxpayers. Otherwise, they're using charity laws for businesses, and that's illegal!

"Christian" DEACONS should make EVERY mega pastor fully reveal their full compensation, if our donations are to God, not man! And as they expand to mega, multi-site campuses, cap your salaries, to prove you're NOT in ministry mainly for the money! MOST pastors suffer, and serve God biblically!
#GodlyMajority

BE GOOD

(10/28/18)

In life, there are government laws, and there are social morays of behavior, which no laws cover. Beneath BOTH of these are natural laws, written nowhere other than in the human spirit, and visible to all who choose NOT to squelch their God-shaped consciences. All of life is telling us... do right/Be good!

Do you like being friends with people who backstab? Would you go in business with a thief? Would you let your husband be alone with an aggressively loose woman? Do you trust liars? ALL these problems are caused by sin—specifically unfaithfulness, stealing, sexual immorality and lying. The list goes on. Be good, today, for yourself and others!

Mr. Rogers was somewhat corny, and too do-gooder "clean" for my tastes, as a kid, but oh how our world could use some more of his type of simplicity and morality influencing our societies! He seemed a little naive as to the harsh realities of life, but sure stood for great aspirations/ideals!

In the past, America had Ann Landers and Dear Abby, who regularly educated newspaper readers on manners and etiquette. Those may have been simpler times, but the content they shared is still SO desperately needed, because not everyone remembers kindergarten lessons, or go to church! Be good, today!

Mr. Rogers (on TV), and Dear Abby (in the newspaper) brought practical morality to the public, in days gone by. Now, people use social media more, newspapers a lot less, and there is great need for someone to step up and fill that void, using modern technology, because we sure aren't getting any better, left to our own devices!

Church attendance, overall (excepting mega churches), is down, from the Dear Abby/Mr. Rogers era, and civics courses in school probably teach more about government, than morality. I hope kindergartens still teach 'keep your hands to yourself, and 'clean up after yourself,' and other life lessons! Be good!

Are TV PSA's on virtue, or ads on Snapchat, Instagram et al some of the answers to society's slipping morals? Pass It On "Sharing" PSA (2010) <https://bit.ly/2CME0J2>

NEED you be taught why not to commit certain sins? If you believe there's never any punishment for them (in this life, at least), perhaps you do! Why not steal? It's NOT yours. Someone labored to pay for those things.

Why not murder? You end a human life (in this life, at least), and sadden and often financially burden their family. Why not flirtatiously touch a woman you're not married to, or dating? She's NOT property, and you have ZERO right ("personal space," as we learned in kindergarten).

Why not lie? Because you are abusing the person who believes you. They rely on the accuracy of your words. You are doing harm to others.

Why not pig out with food? You harm your own health and appearance, and are covering for deeper emotional lacks. Why not be violent, to get your way? Because you have NO RIGHT to injure anyone else!

Why not rape? You are violating a woman in the worst possible way! Your power or sex needs are NOT her problem—LEAVE HER ALONE, or may God and government NOT leave you alone until you pay up/pay for it!

Why not personal insults for people you disagree with? Because they can't always change what you're attacking, you are not God, and you have things that are also attackable. Why not hate people, on the inside? Because it often leads to worse things, on the outside, like discrimination or physical harm.

Why not adulter? Because you are breaking a promise to your spouse, before God, abusing the other spouse and your own, and may guilt and memories haunt you for YEARS, for so doing! Enjoy your own spouse, or learn to spruce up the sex life! LEAVE OTHERS' SPOUSES OUT of your perverse fantasies!

Why not get drunk? In your own home, I suppose you do little harm, but God wants your thoughts clear and sober (vs. warped and misguided), and in public, and especially in a motor vehicle, you have NO RIGHT to endanger others' lives from your STUPID behavioral decision! Every sin has reasons why they shouldn't be engaged. Be good, today!

Pay it forward. Pass it on. Karma. What goes around comes around. You reap what you sow. Random acts of kindness. Political correctness. Just say no. Don't mess with Texas. See something, say something. #MoralsInPublic <https://bit.ly/2rqP6H9>

BET ON BETO OR CRASH WITH CRUZ?

(AKA, On Taxes & Government)

(10/20-21/18)

Political conservatism is mainly about keeping as much money for yourself, and giving government the least amount possible—ideally ZERO. In this political season, READ these verses, and tell me how ANY Christian can be an avid political conservative, unless they AREN'T following Jesus:

Pv. 23:5, 30:8; II Tim. 2:4, I Tim. 3:3, 6:9-10; Col. 3:1-4; Mt. 6:33; Heb. 13:5; Jas. 1:10-12, 2:6, 4:13-5:7; Lk. 1:15, 6:24, 12:48; I Jn. 2:15-17; Ecc. 5:13; Phil. 2:3-5. Opposing all wealth redistribution and estate taxes, wanting taxes always lowered, and slandering everyone but them as liberal (i.e., with money) isn't Gods view!

A local TV show's preview shows Ted Cruz saying, 'I unapologetically am for low taxes and regulations.' Let's explore that from a Bible view: Ted is for America's bills NOT being paid, borrowing more from China, increasing our debt, and devaluing the dollar through QE3! He's just a KISS-UP to the business vote; a 'Christian' sell-out!

Then you have Beto (who I've been for), calling cops Jim Crow, for open borders, sanctuary cities, universal healthcare and against Texas' oil and gas industry. When two EXTREMISTS are the only choice, what do you do? I WANT Beto to do well, as Texas is too conservative, but I'll be voting for NEITHER!

I'll vote for Governor Abbott, and every other Democrat, excepting the one I met with, who doubted my story of the past four year's effects on politics. I don't reward doubters who seek zero corroboration (he's a Dem). So one GOP, two no votes for Dems, and the rest either Dem (or not at all), to balance out my home state. Beto got too extreme for me when policy details emerged, beyond his mainly positive general platitudes ads, last week!

Let's have a serious/adult conversation on taxes and government. Political conservatives are absolutely convinced that anything but low taxes are illegal under our Constitution, and even a medium-sized government is NOT allowed. That is TOTAL B.S.!

The people have a say, and our federal government has grown into a $22 trillion overeating underfunded catastrophe, but it was NOT due to D.C. politicians breaking the law, Teddy Bear Cruz! It was from irresponsible, even sinful wasteful decisions, usually to get votes, by blessing some pet project constituency, often lobbyists.

Ted Cruz's 'thoughts' are if you owe credit card companies a TON, just refuse to pay the minimum monthly payment, and all is well! Low taxes are two main things: Selfish and irresponsible, and ANY "Christian" who advocates for them is disobeying God, by being for selfishness and fiscal irresponsibility!

Speaking of, if I hear one more snarky, caustic comment from "Lyn Ted," before I vote tomorrow, Beto WILL receive my vote! Extremists KILL our nation! The emperor has NO CLOTHES! You can't be proposing things that cost money, at this time, as the BIG elephant in the room is $22 TRILLION DEBT!

Ted's low taxes and regulations APPEALS TO CHRISTIANS' SIN NATURE! Everyone wants 'mo money, and Teddy Bear is simply appeasing and coddling the innate sinfulness of all humans! That is NOT a Christian belief, though we're told to "vote our values." He is NOT in line with God!

Taxes MUST be at a rate that pays down the debt, some day! PERIOD. And an article about Ted's good wife says they live in an expensive home off a rather large combined salary. It is the rich person who NEVER can see that they're rich, or ever care about anyone else that God disdains—vehemently!

Dumb-A Hannity once asked, 'who is rich?' Let's try this simple, objective test: If you are in the top 10 percent in America, you are rich. The average wage is $57,000 per year, so if you're nowhere near that low, you are above-average in wealth.

And here's what grinds my gears more than anything else... the non-Giving Pledge rich lobby D.C. politicians for perks and privileges. That means the MOST blessed care not one iota about the strugglers, but want government FAVORING them, when their lives are already favored by circumstances! This is NOT lost on God! (Levit. 19:15)

'Fair share' is a BIBLICAL concept, and the more you have, the more HE says you are responsible for! (Lk. 12:48) INSTEAD, they seek the lowest taxes possible, by bribing politicians legally (it SHOULD be outlawed), hiring tax lawyers and accountants, to skirt the law, offshore bank accounts, purposefully losing money, in sham businesses, to counter their gains in REAL ones, etc.

In a private debate, the other evening, a 'Christian' lady walked away from my REASONED arguments AGAINST Chump by mouthing under her breath, 'at least my 401K is doing well.' Out of the heart the mouth speaks! (Mt. 12:34) NONE of these SINS mattered to her amiga (<https://bit.ly/2fIESxj>), and she works at a Christian school.

Low taxes and regulations are code words for have big business fund my campaign! I am 100 percent for U.S. business, but NOT at the expense of U.S. workers. It's a balance, but NOT to money-grubbing conservatives!

Teddy Bear makes GOOD dough, lives pampered, and doesn't care about fair shares for the rich, hiding behind a WARPED view of the Constitution, claiming Jesus in that process! The Founding Fathers wrote that excellent document with the belief and assumption of a MORAL citizenry.

Political conservatism CAN'T be called moral on fiscal matters, so they cling to hating gays and abortions! And to a person they believe they hold "Christian values," and have God and the Constitution on their side. They are WRONG on BOTH counts, which is the very pattern you see in their least intelligent and most sinful of all presidents here, Chump: Self-delusion (a sin). The truth shall set you free; they're in total spiritual bondage. (Jn. 8:32)

I've said enough. I could re-state how evil too low taxes and regulations are, but it wouldn't matter to a conservative, because they're the MAJORITY in white Christianity—carnal Christians living for THIS world, while mouthing allegiance to the next. More tweets from me won't change that; they need discipling!

One more thought: Conservatives ONLY want to pay for cops and the military, because they protect their stuff. They LOVE private schools, and only want conservative politicians, if they have to pay for any politician. Just think of how few things they want government to do. Just let me enjoy my rich lifestyle, with zero responsibilities!

God is NOT a political conservative! Many of their positions He approves of, but He is NOT of either party or any left, middle or right group 100 percent! As today is Sunday, WHY WON'T ANY CHRISTIAN PASTOR PREACH THAT MESSAGE? I will, anytime I'm allowed to speak at any church. God is NOT a conservative!

P.S.: That phrase, "at least my 401K's doing well" has me on a roll, today, said by a 'Christian.' IF you define a good economy as the stock market is rising, you DON'T give one damn about anyone NOT invested in stocks! If cons REALLY want a growing economy, confiscate slaves—they cost NOTHING! Hire child labor, like Newt Gingrich WANTS! And end the estate tax, so our debt skyrockets even more!

Fire most federal workers, unemployment be damned, and defraud the public. ONLY let the rich get richer, and to Hell with everyone else. Our economy could be maxxed out if we abandoned any and all laws that impact it, because, after all, cons say 'economics is amoral,' which is immoral to say!

BIBLE VIEWED FROM A POLITICAL ANGLE

(AKA, God's Political Bible)

(10/5, 12-13/18)

BIBLICAL CHURCH?

(12/5-6/18)

“Why is it that some Christians, although they hear many sermons, make but slow advances in the divine life? Because they neglect their closets, and do not thoughtfully meditate on God's Word. They love the wheat, but they do not grind it; they would have the corn, but they will not go forth into the fields to gather it; the fruit hangs upon the tree, but they will not pluck it; the water flows at their feet, but they will not stoop to drink it. From such folly deliver us, O Lord.” –Charles Spurgeon

Yesterday, I quoted the prince of preachers (Charles Spurgeon), bemoaning how laymen are lazy in Bible study and evangelism. The KEY no one seems to know, or use, is ASKING people, one-on-one, to meet with you to evangelize and read God's word, leveraging relationships. It has RARELY failed for me! Why don't Christians and pastors?

(Col. 4:16) There are SO MANY differences between modern church and the first century/biblical church, but since NO ONE hardly knows their Bibles, today, those disparities are accepted as the way things are to be! For one, there were NO church buildings! They used homes and Jewish synagogues to meet in.

God NOWHERE and NEVER commanded a 'church presence' in any area, but FULL evangelism of ALL areas! On Judgment Day, NO lost persons will be asked why they didn't avail themselves of a nearby church, but the nearby pastor will be asked why, like a doctor, he didn't get his church to them in time to heal them, eternally! (12/8/18)

NO Bible verse commands churches (buildings vs. people) be built. NO Bible verse says plant a church before you evangelize an area; instead, they evangelized nearly all people in a city, and since results were great, those converts organized for fellowship and mutual encouragement, thus forming/establishing a church—as a result; not a prerequisite!

NO Bible verse requires evangelism to cost you one penny! You simply go out and speak, in the power of God' Spirit! I've done it multiple hundreds of times, and reached probably multiple hundreds of thousands, in 30+ years, and the only cost—ever—was gas, and when I created metal Gospel Signs, so my efforts could be multiplied (most of which were donated by great people)!

The common phrase, 'can I pray for you?' is a weak, and thus un-commanded and biblically timid (a sin) way to try to start evangelizing, as is befriending people until you 'warm them up' to the subject!

You do NOT go up to complete strangers, and say 'Are you washed by the blood of the lamb, brother?,' but today's Christians are so NOT bold and so NOT empowered, we ask permission of lost people to pray, thus broadcasting that we are pray-ers (opposite Mt. 6:50), and evangelism is NOT (opposite a book by an ex-Dallas Seminary president) praying for someone, whether you ask them if you can, or do it anyway, in private. Evangelism is speaking the Gospel to lost people!

NO Bible verse commands inviting people to church, to hear the Gospel. No New Testament verse commands 10 percent tithing. IF you only read your Bible, you'd be amazed how LITTLE the New Testament speaks about giving, compared to how much theology and ethics are discussed; OFTEN it's humbly tacked on at the END of a letter (II Cor. 8-9 and Phil. 4 as exceptions to that rule).

New Testament churches had Christians hear ENTIRE LETTERS! Most of the New Testament is letters. How often do you receive an email, and simply read the topic, or initial few lines? Context and meaning are missed, thereby, and the author wrote it ALL for you to read!

And biblical church did NOT make businesses of ministries, where laymen had to legally organize, hire employees, have a storefront, or a name—they simply went and did evangelism and discipleship.

Also, if you read your Bibles, those heroes successfully reached entire cities and countries and continents (at least enough that they considered them primarily reached), and in so little time, compared to the tortoise pace you utilize when you either don't care that people are going to Hell, or you're a business, so as long as funds are paying your bills/budget, your goals are achieved.

Also, biblical evangelism did NOT adhere to the silly notion that you MUST buy stuff to help lost people, before you earn some nonexistent right to evangelize them! You are commissioned, and under orders/authority by the King of Kings to do your ambassador's job.

New Testament Christians did NOT engage much social ministry, because time is of the essence, as Hell is around the corner, and if the message didn't get there in time, It's STILL good news, just of no value to the ones who missed hearing it, because Christians were too late.

Jesus did 90+ percent of His preaching outside of the synagogues—NOT speaking to 90+ percent Christians every Sunday! Jesus DIDN'T rely on sermons as discipleship! Jesus DIDN'T teach tithing, or Lordship Salvation. Jesus was NOT a political conservative.

Jesus did NOT have a dress code for church (written or unwritten; Jas. 2:2). Jesus did NOT command a formal/traditional vs. informal/casual service, as to music! (Eph. 5:19) Biblical church had one church per city, usually (though cities were much smaller), and pastors were willing to work bivocationally (Jesus a carpenter; Paul a tentmaker).

Salaries were NOT guaranteed in biblical church, though people made a living by the Gospel. And churches were NOT business competitors! (I Cor. 3:9, 16:1) Biblical church, often spontaneously, met with other Christians daily, had love feasts, and the Bible NEVER records paid professionals putting on any events, for the lost or saved! It isn't Hollywood, nor was Madison Avenue needed, to broadcast their message, for they have engaged laymen!

You are NOT 'gonna get more than bench warming pew-sitters just sermonizing! Jesus preached to the crowds, but He disciplined the 12, who, absent one, with a little help from their friends, turned the world upside-down!

NO, IF you read your Bible, MUCH of what passes as U.S. Christianity is indeed NOT matching the biblical model! But then again, as Spurgeon bemoaned, MOST Christians don't ever find out what's in that Sunday accessory—their Bible! It itself teaches that Christians do NOT need a mediator between them and God, but they have direct, 24/7 access to that King of Kings.

Daily quiet times are MORE effective than a sermon which most forget even the subject of before 72 hours expire, in growing up Christians to maturity. Is there any wonder why people rarely drop by, uninvited (I Cor. 14:24; Jas 2), and if they did, would they see God's miraculous power from LAYMEN using their spiritual gifts? NO, they'd see them sit, sing, pass the plate, and perhaps shake a hand or two.

That is NOT biblical Body Life, and whatever more intimately occurs in Sunday School was, again, UN-commanded! When the family is gathered, and NOT segregated by age group, or gender, THAT is when church happens, and people DO the 'one anothers' of Scripture!

And is it any wonder the church's only real impact on society, of late, has been negative... simply advocating for ignorance and immorality, in the form of their Cyrus (Isa. 45; better, Pharaoh; Ex. 9) president?

BIBLICAL church was to be known by outsiders by their love for one another, and prayer effects, as salt and light to the world! (Jn. 13:35; Mt. 5:13-16, 21:13). SO MUCH time, energy and money is wasted spending it on preparation to pastor/minister, rather than actually ministering the Gospel (Rom. 15:16).

An entire neighborhood could be 100 percent evangelized in three months to one year, if you had biblical church, and it WOULD get done if you had biblical Christians—PERIOD! And every church could reach their own Jerusalem first, leaving only, mainly, the 10/40 window still to fully reach (and pockets outside the Bible Belt).

Ninety-six percent of North American trained ministers STAY in America, and there's a church on every street corner nearly as much as convenience stores—for a REASON: Money!

Saying "it works" is NO biblical justification for doing things NOT in ways God commanded! Let me say that again, just because something works doesn't mean you're doing ministry God's way! SHOW ME church planting in Scripture! I'll show you thorough evangelism that led to a church being formed!

Church planting "works" IF you define success as a pastor has a job, and there's a church presence in an area. If you base it on biblical standards, everyone there gets evangelized, then the converts all get disciplined, not so much! God could have used the method in Acts, but He didn't. WHY?

I heard the "it works" excuse for using a 'Joash box:' publicly parading in front of the crowd, in churches, used by a white church mimicking a black church. It works for getting money, by pressure, contrary to giving in private, so the left hand doesn't know what right hand is doing (Mt. 6:3-4); It works for what end(s), priorities, goals?

SHOW ME Christians gathering to form a church to be used as a home for the lost to come to as an evangelism method (i.e., 'come and hear'). SHOW ME 'can I pray for you?' evangelism, in Scripture. SHOW ME I have to meet your physical needs (costing money) before I can evangelize you, in the Scriptures! SHOW ME evangelism mainly being of Christians at church.

SHOW ME invitational evangelism, excepting three instances WE don't qualify for: Cornelius didn't know the Gospel message (Ac. 10), Paul was too old and frail (and famous) to continue his life's work of actually evangelizing itinerantly (Ac. 28), and Andrew could bring Peter literally to the physical Jesus (Jn. 1:41).

Our "methods" are NOT biblical, in many cases, and they "work" for us, because they're better than nothing! We blame this assessment as 'critical spirited nit-picking' to excuse our NOT doing things God's way!

SHOW ME befriending anyone for any period of time, before evangelizing them (i.e., in Scripture). Pastors get away with these ideas, because laymen have NO idea what's in their own Bibles they tuck under their arms at church!

SHOW me discipling by sermonizing. I'll show you I Th. 1-2; II Tim. 2:2; Mk. 4:34; Ac. 4:13; I Cor. 4:15; Gal. 4:19. SHOW ME YOUR EVIDENCE for most of what passes as modern Christianity! You cannot. Men's traditions and schemes, because we can out-smart God!? (Pv. 3:5)

SHOW ME your percentages of church members who regularly read their Good Books, evangelize, engage ministry, disciple and get disciplined. It will come NOWHERE close to what we find in that Good Book! There are reasons for this disparity, and it ALL goes back to the pastors doing their jobs according to God's job description—NOT seminaries teaching men how to preach to draw crowds!

Jesus drew crowds, but He was miraculous in all He did, and He NEVER advertised, or used church growth strategies. CAN you handle me continuing with this?

READ the book of Acts. They were united and organized enough (i.e., "strategic") that if their evangelism was rebuffed, they dusted their shoes and moved on! They had urgency and burden for ALL men—NOT wasting finite resources re-evangelizing, until all cities could be said to have been reached!

Their gathered meetings did not have titles of 'house of prayer, but were known by nearby lost people as such! There were ZERO denominations in that generation, either! Shall I go on? (Heb. 11:32) As W. A. Criswell said, in Acts, one man spoke and 5,000 got saved; today, 5,000 speak and one gets saved. No power.

The percentages of U.S. Christians from 1980-2010 who were fully committed (i.e., disciples), won one soul to Jesus (in their lifetime), and regularly met with God through prayer and Bible study are strewn throughout our FREE website, WillYouLiveForever.org ("5/10/13 problem"), and if things have improved since then, it's NOT by much!

Anytime you add to or subtract from what the Bible says, you do harm, and a disservice. The Bible DOESN'T say Christians can't drink (in moderation, as wine was fermented, or Eph. 5:18 makes NO sense), dance (not seductively), gamble for fun (on occasion), or ever go to an 'R' rated movie. You can't out-smart God! (Pv. 3:5)

AMAZINGLY, when you write messages like this, you get accused of bibliolatry, legalism, citing chapter-and-verse (as if that's evil) and having a critical spirit. That is as opposed to doing things UN-biblically, having little to no Bible justification, thus rejecting the biblical service of correcting Christians' thinking.

Update #1: Motivation to Maturity

Let me make my attempt at biblical motivation to Christian commitment: First, you've got to get into the word! READ the Best memory Verses section of our free website. When you do, use the New American Standard version for the New Testament, and the New International Version for the Old, as they're the closest to the original languages!

WHEN you read, ask questions of what you read, pray as you read, make notes in a notebook about what you learn, emphasize different words, look up definitions (if need be), and recall other like-minded verses. In short, mull it over in your heart and mind. That's biblical meditation!

Cows eat grass, burp it up and re-eat it! That's EXACTLY the word picture in the original languages. I gave you the BEST verses to initially read! I did ALL the spade work of weeding out chapters you may get bogged down in! You have NO excuse. AS you read them, write out the ones you find most compelling, on index cards, and start to memorize them. Every single day, for 1.5 months, spend 15 minutes max, in the morning, doing that.

You can also read our recommended reading section for the BEST chapters and books of the Bible, as you branch out. We teach you exactly how to rightly interpret, in two places at that website. Without that background, I expect anything I'd say to be water off a duck's back, as your seed ground is hard, so water penetration isn't real likely.

Yet, I'll try... DID YOU KNOW, if you're a Christian, you will forever live in Heaven? So why would you live for the here-and-now, as number one, when it's a blip on the radar screen/map of eternity, using pure mathematics?

As to that, think of all Jesus did for you and gave you, in salvation. It's your duty of gratitude to live unto Him. Plus, in Heaven, there will be rewards. God doesn't just say do good because you're supposed to! He, also, has carrots and sticks. The sticks are you will have a much more troublesome life if you neglect so great a salvation.

One other thing... my words DON'T have power. When you read God's word, it does. READ our chapter on Why Be Fully Committed to Christ?, not so much the human headings, but the related Bible verses. Meditate on them. You aren't committed because you don't know all God said in His love letter to you!

Update #2: Fake 'Good News?'
(12/7/18)

Report: DNC's Perez complains about voters influenced by 'pulpit on Sunday.' <https://fxn.ws/2EjXK34>

Let's talk about the INSANITY of believing going to church is the core of Christianity. So God saved you only to be in your life for two hours a week? And while there, you have a mediator between you and God, though He says you don't need that (like a chaperone on a date; I Jn. 2:27), because you have direct access to God in Christ (Eph. 2:18).

Church (corporate gathering/worship) is ONLY the cherry on top! A delicious, great fruit, but NOT the banana split! That's the privilege you have to walk with Christ, 24/7. MOST Christians don't, even though MOST pastors preach Lordship Salvation, where you promised to, in order to get saved. Contradiction!

In the Middle Ages (and before), the Roman Catholic Church was criticized for keeping masses in Latin, and only the priests having Bibles—until the Gutenberg press and Luther—so the people ONLY got their concepts of God and His word by stained-glass artwork and hominys.

Today's Protestants are about that shallow/devoid of God's Bible in their minds! EVERYTHING they think about Christianity comes funneled by what the preacher preaches! DID YOU KNOW that every seminary (i.e., preacher school) but Dallas Seminary, and perhaps a handful of others, DOESN'T ensure pastors have read the entire Bible, much less understand just each book's basic flow and teachings?

They LITERALLY told us, in grad school (seminary—what some Charismatic preachers call cemetery'), we give you the tools... you apply them the rest of your life. OFTEN, preachers know their subject matter for that week 1.5 weeks before they preach it!

In seminary, we were encouraged to spend 40 hours a week in sermon prep. With all the modern UN-commanded amenities at mega churches, and church as a business type churches, these self-defined CEO's have many more tasks to do than 40 hours of crafting sermons!

And since 1985 (i.e., the Church Growth Movement) sermons have been LESS exegetical (i.e., verse by verse teaching) and MORE bells and whistles to keep people from sleeping in the pews ('back row Baptists'): props, video, three alliterated points (the great John Bisagno used to have up to seven—he NEVER limited himself to the traditional three!), jokes, news stories, illustrations, song lyrics, history lessons, statistics, etc.

The preacher becomes your brain/guru on matters of religion and politics (even telling you UN-biblical things, like politics is ONLY a matter of un-doing Roe). They keep you frequenting their business by guilt, with two verses—Heb. 10:25 and Mal. 3:10. TWO verses out of 31,173 total.

The Bible itself WARNS us NOT to add to or subtract from it! Deut. 4:2, 12:32; Rev. 22:18-19. Church going is a great thing, WHEN a church is engaging biblical practice!: Thorough evangelism and relational discipling, body life (laymen using spiritual gifts to implement the one another's unto the gathered family, and social ministry), along with biblical sermons (preaching and teaching, I Tim. 5:17).

Sermonizing as putting all those functions into one 30 minute speech, is NOT biblical, even though God always blesses any use of His word (Isa. 55:11). The CORE of Christianity is meeting with God, daily, for 10-15 minutes (prayer and Bible meditation), then carrying on that conversation/communion throughout the day, in the power and leading of His Spirit!

I cannot communicate with you well enough concerning the difference, as it takes a miraculous revelation for you to have your eyes opened, but you are NOT a disciple, or pleasing God, if your life after salvation is mainly going to church so you feel you're good with God!

We wear our fancy duds (AS IF God cares about the exterior more than the interior, I Sam. 16:7; Jas. 2:2), act so politely in driving etiquette in church parking lots (hypocritical, for me, at least, if I ever change my habits there!), smile, greet folk, say PTL (praise the Lord) and bless the Lord, then become bench-warming pew sitters for one+ hours.

God did NOT save or call you to sit on a pew! He saved and called you to live for Him, and walk with Him DAILY! Most do NOT, even though Lordship Salvation required you to promise you would, or you couldn't be a Christian/go to Heaven. So your behavior shows you aren't saved, to them—NOT God.

God's remedy is you started a new life you knew nothing about, beforehand, and you need to be informed how God wants you to live, and all He did for you in that split-second experience with eternal consequences!

That's called discipleship, where a maturer believer mentors you up to maturity in Christ. It is NOT simply hearing sermons! You will grow little-to-none without ingesting the Bible regularly! It is milk to a Christian infant—essential nourishment (I Pet. 2:1-2).

READ Josh. 1:8. You can be very rich and a spiritual failure, because your bank account does NOT show you are a success, before God! READ Ps. 119:9-11. You can't grow without the word!

One small exception: Phil. 1:6. God's always doing something toward His children, even if they're living in outright opposition.

This is NOT about academic or trivial understanding of the Bible! The ONLY way you get to know God is to converse with Him, often, just like human relationships! You can pray with NO knowledge of the Bible, but that's like trying to fix your own car, ignoring the owner's manual!

If Jesus were here in the flesh, and you wanted to get to know Him, EVERYTHING you need to know, for that to go excellently, is already written down in that book, and has been for 2,000 years+, and has been in a Bible you've owned for decades, in many cases. Have you opened it up?

If I lived in NYC and my wife in ATL, and we only spoke once a week (Ex.: church), and only saw each other over the holidays (like many people's church attendance), how close would we be? Very distant and removed/detached.

GREAT chances for unfaithfulness, like Christians bombarded with worldly messages 24/7 in our U.S. culture. How else will you protect your mind from the Devil's lures, if you aren't guarding it with God's thoughts? You're fighting a losing battle! Rom. 12:1-2; Eph. 4:23.

Victory, for a Christian, is in the thought life. You are what you think! (Pv. 23:7; Mk. 7:21)
EVERY Christian is called to be a proud worker for God, accurately able to handle their knowledge of His book (II Tim. 2:15), for that book is without error, and God-breathed! (II Tim. 3:16-17; Heb. 4:12; II Pet 1:21).

You are without excuse, Christian! Your dusty Bible is NOT a Sunday morning clothing accessory! It is the word of life! (Jn. 8:32, 17:17) You are living dead men... dead man walking to church! Dry bones needing life breathed into them again (Eze. 37:1-14).

I cannot put into words how EXACTLY I know what you are living like, because I know EXACTLY how I lived until God had me get totally committed to Him! I attended church almost every time the doors were open; won a pictorial Bible for filling the pews with visitors at age 8, or so; sang in choir, went to Sunday School.

And when I got out from the family nest, I put porn pictures on my dorm room walls, because I was finally free to be me. And the me I was was not as godly a soul as going to church all the time APPEARS to others, and that's because I was reading ZERO Bible, though I still attended church regularly!

It's by getting into the word, and a serious breakup with a girl I gave a promise ring to, that changed EVERYTHING! I was already saved at age 8, but ONLY at age 18 did that mean anything to me, except certainty I'd go to Heaven. That's ONLY the beginning!

I pray today some wise soul nags you graciously to the point you finally relent, and start having Bible studies with them, as that loving nagging is ALL that worked for a hardened, saved heart!

You can sinfully nag, like hackers do nearly every day, phoning us, posing as ATT, or like Pv. 21:9, but if love and concern are the motives, those you nag will know you aren't there for their bad/harm.

EVERY committed Christian and pastor NEEDS to pick three people to nag into a one-on-one quiet time for a month! This is the initial step in getting Christians disciplined. When you Americanize it into mass-manufactured assembly line lessons for a crowd or group, you LOSE the intimacy that causes growth!

You can't ask them questions, give them customized answers for their life (or to their questions), you have no friendship—just authority figure and listeners! And God never saved anyone just to wait for glory/Heaven! He has a wonderful life waiting for us all.

And for any people in ministry, who believe church is a business, and their job is to keep you as a paying customer, as their main task, the Bible calls these types Balaam false prophets! Elder qualifications disqualify men in ministry for money! ONLY since 1985 has that even been a possibility, with only a small handful of exceptions before then, like Swindoll, MacArthur, Bisagno and Billy Graham.

Mega ministries hardly existed before the merger and acquisition trend in U.S. big business in the globalization/outsourcing era! Churches followed suit, and ma and pa churches suffered, competing with big box, which started by adding 'Christian life centers' (GYMS), then venturing out to all the amenities we see as standard fare, today.

'EDBS' priorities (described earlier) WANED. Thorough evangelism/harvesting/threshing of America hasn't been occurred since 1978-1979! Jesus-style discipleship became relegated to par church ministries, like Campus Crusade and The Navigators!

Advertising started, for the first time, to speak of. Like lawyers, that used to be frowned upon. Now you see T-shirts promoting churches.

Church as a business theory/philosophy began in ~1985, where the building is the retail storefront, the sermon is the product, the pastor is the CEO, the church members are the customers, and the unbiblically required 10 percent tithe is the price of admission. Here's EXACTLY what Jesus TWICE thought about treating ministry as a business—Mt. 21:12-13; Jn. 2:13-17.

Bodies, bucks and buildings by song, silver and sermon. Churches as competitors, when Paul cared about the vitality of ALL the churches! (II Cor. 11:28) I watched George H. W. Bush's funeral, and wondered why any lost person would feel they need to add formality and ritual to their lifestyle?

If you read the life of Jesus, His life attracts! Church practice is NEVER God's way to get people in relation with Him! It's by going and telling the good news—NOT by attracting anyone to any church, high-, medium- or low-church!

It's NOT by free rock concerts, free food, entertainment, food trucks, petting zoos, or any means of advertising, like having parishioners broadcast your church to friends, family and neighbors! The Lord once worked through myself to get a mega church to finally commit to and do Evangelism Explosion (thank the Lord).

When I went out with them, they gave us "gift sacks" full of promotional materials. We church members are NOT free salesmen for church! I threw mine away, and got a gal saved less than 200 yards away (with my younger son as witnessing). (I Cor. 2:2-5; II Cor. 4:1-6)

Just because you own a building, and label it a 'church' does NOT mean what goes on inside is God's definition of His church! "EDBS" is the distinguishing difference!

E: Evangelism; 100 percent full, complete, thorough Gospel sharing with everyone, everywhere (Mt. 28:19-20; Ac. 1:8, et al). Jesus came to seek and to save the lost (Lk. 19:10)! That's why He came! Absent all hearing that message, all go to Hell! What else could matter, if all other activities lead people to Hell?

ONLY that one message gets anyone to Heaven (Jn. 14:6; Ac. 4:12), and people don't learn it by osmosis, and most people DON'T randomly tune into Christian radio or TV, any more than they would drop by a church! It's NOT their human nature! There spiritually dead! Their nature is to sin—not want to hear hymns and thee's and thou's from the days King James actually reigned (not just on the basketball court; Lebron)!

For the explanation of the 'DBS' of that acronym of Christian priorities, see our FREE website, WillYouLiveForever.org. MUCH of what passes for Christianity, today, is NOT! But when the sheeple are kept BLIND to what God has said, WHAT WOULD YOU EXPECT?

And the lost world NOTICES, like when 81 percent of WASPs supported these idiocies and immoralities, in "Jesus" name!: <https://bit.ly/2j1YEOf> ANATHEMA! God forbid. Throw out the entire Bible, or rip out all its pages, except for Jer. 1:5 for Roe's overturn, CONTRARY to Ac. 20:27.

This is EXACTLY like the Middle Ages pre-enlightenment Europe! The answers have all been sitting there for two millennia, yet most of what Christians think gets funneled by people who hardly master the word of God themselves! God is NOT pleased with apostatizing Christendom. Read more Bible!

Update #3: Biblical Church (12/8/18)

Claims are easy to make... harder to prove; we prove our claims. (Jn. 14:26 and Mt. 16:18) Jesus had told His disciples He would send the Holy Spirit after His departure (i.e., ascension into Heaven), and told them to wait for Him; He also told Peter that upon that rock Christ would build His church, which started in Acts 2.

The Spirit fell/came to them (120 total), and Peter was the first preacher of the previously unformed church. From then to Ac. 6:32, and on through Ac. 12:29, Peter was the lead spokesman of this gathering of Christians. Paul took over after that point. Christ fulfilled His three promises, and the church began.

Prayer was the backbone (Ac. 1), but evangelism was how the church both started, grew and expanded, world-wide—NOT by "planting churches" (defined as renting space, or meeting in homes as Christians, hoping to grow it into a self-sustaining church). There were NO Christians to start a church with!

Churches grew FROM successful evangelism, afterwhich time established churches sent their messengers and leaders to appoint preachers, and afterwhich time church got organized by deacon functions, et al (Ac. 2; 4; 6:1-15).

And LOOK at what "church" consisted of (besides gathering in homes and synagogues... NO church buildings any Christians owned or paid for, Ac 2; 4). Evangelism of lost people was their MAIN activity (Ac. 2:14-40), those who received his word (i.e., successful evangelism/responses) were water baptized (v. 41), which made people members of the church—NOT filling out forms or joining any local body by raising a hand or going forward.

The four-fold church functions are found in verse 42: 1. Continual devoting to teaching; 2. and fellowship (spiritual talk and conversations—NOT socials, where you eat and speak about the Cowboys); 3. Breaking bread (more likely the Lord's Supper, though they did engage love feasts. food sharing, Jude 1:12); and 4. Prayer.

WHAT ELSE do we find in BIBLICAL church? Effects of things done RIGHT are found in v. 43: EVERYONE kept feeling awed, and miracles kept happening! And possessions were mutually shared (voluntarily—YES—but in actuality, vs. begrudgingly, as political conservatives bemoan doing any of, vv. 44-45).

They cared for one another, and met needs, so their focus couldn't have been assets accumulation, but asset sharing! The passage says that straight out/forwardly (just like II Cor. 8-9 shows churches cared for other churches, and weren't self-centered business units)! In contrast with this model community, the hyper-individualism of American culture often breeds selfishness and worldliness, Verses 46-48 concludes this church's description with continual oneness of mind (in the temple—NOT a church building (i.e., a borrowed or rented paid for structure, showing close ties to the Jews), doing the Lord's Supper, and eating together, from house to house (NOT church building), with three notable effects (v. 47):

1. Praising God (that is NOT always song singing in church!), 2. Having favor in the community (NOT disdain; that means their works blessed and benefitted others, like social ministry), and 3. God continued to bless their continued evangelism efforts, by the church growing in size/numbers, DAILY vs. weekly. That means members were daily evangelizing, continually.

A MEGA church resulted from EVANGELISM! (Ac. 2:41) God doesn't do things small! Even His second church was a mega church, but NOT multi-site, and NO church building resulted (Ac. 4:23-37).

LOOK at that passage concerning there being NO needy among them! (vv. 32-34). Miracles inspired bold, continual evangelism (v. 31), unity continued (v. 35), and it was a mega church (4:4). Let's review what we've learned as to what constitutes biblical church, so far: Daily evangelism, teaching devoted to, fellowship, Lord's Supper, shared meals, praise, miracles, awe, favor in the community, baptism, prayer, shared resources and no commanded buildings to build (i.e., use of existing homes and structures);

And with that came persecution (Ac. 4:1-22) DO YOU SEE THESE ELEMENTS OR EFFECTS IN THE AMERICAN CHURCH? There's a reason, and it's NOT a good one! We also see sin in the church (Ac. 4:35-5:11; lying), with God's swift judgment (i.e., sovereign church discipline). READ Ac. 5:12-42: Miracles (vv. 12-13), continual evangelism (v. 14), healings (vv. 15-16), persecution/suffering (vv. 17-41), gratitude for the same, and continual evangelism (v. 42), in homes and the temple—WHERE LOST PEOPLE GATHERED/WERE! Even in public places, and business centers! (Ac. 16:13, et al).

Then church added leadership structure, and the function of serving members food—especially the widows (Ch. 6). DOES THIS DESCRIBE AMERICAN CHRISTIANITY, TO YOU? Deacons started, and one deacon did miracles (Ac. 6:8). His character and evangelism were such that he was killed for the faith (Ac. 6:8-15). Does that describe any deacons you know?

Elders/pastors were so consumed with the Bible and prayer, it wasn't beneath them, but they didn't have time to do daily church chores (Ac. 6:2-4). THIS IS their job description!; NOT managing secular activities that draw crowds!

As you read along with me, you've NEVER seen 'servant evangelism,' 'friendship/relational evangelism,' 'attraction evangelism' or 'church growth' methods used, even ONCE; yet two mega churches have been started—NOT planted—as a result of empowered and successful evangelism! We MAKE you see what's clearly there, because opining about what's in the Bible isn't as accurate as SEEING what's there!

I won't continue through the whole book of Acts, as I have an entire chapter listing every instance of evangelism, discipleship and persecution, in our book, Wit and Wisdom, and our book,

New Testament Color Charts clearly and quickly educates you about the contents of every one of the 26 books (like how I could specifically tell you which verses proved Peter was the church's first leader Christ built His church upon, until Paul took over that function in Ac. 12:19, and onward). Get a copy of them!

Important highlights: Persecution spread evangelism, in fulfillment of Ac. 1:8 (Ac. 8:1, 4). Talk radio, last week, trying to muster WASP support of Chump, said Christians are hated the world over. Biblical suffering is from doing things in Christ's way—NOT being hated for doing the Devil's bidding! (Mk. 13:13)

Ac. 13:1 begins the final stage of Ac. 1:8 ('uttermost parts of the earth'). Biblical church, and therefore biblical evangelism was urgent, accurate, bold, empowered, loving and thorough! From a group of 120 the 11 disciples (with helpers), turned their world upside down! (Ac. 17:6)

Even Jesus Himself, as a child, grew in favor with both God and man (Lk. 2:52). HOW is being self-centric business entities growing the U.S. church in favor with society, or warping politics to the far right—for one issue? That engenders deserved disfavor!

Jesus was opposed by religious elites, who saw their political power wane by His miracles and teachings, and love—NOT by Him colluding with elders to stack SCOTUS, or elect Barabbas as president!

His kingdom wasn't even of this world, though so many Christians' kingdoms are (Jn. 18:36), so they build it YUGELY, so they can live as paupers in Heaven, in golden outhouses (Mt. 6; Col. 3:1-4; I Jn. 2:15-17, et al).

Later, letters/epistles (call them modern emails) were the mass communication method, where we are introduced to elder qualifications, and spiritual gifts (used in service of the body—not body parts/segregated groups; Tit. 1:5-9; I Tim. 3:2-7; Gifts: Rom. 12:3-8; I Cor. 12:7-11—and Chs. 12-14; Eph. 4:7-13; I Pet. 4:10-11).

Pastor's job: I Pet. 5:1-4; what to do with bad pastors: I Tim. 5:19-21; what to do with bad church members: Mt. 18:15-19 (i.e., church discipline; Cf.: II Cor. 2:1-11; Jas. 5:19-20); Grace giving (NOT required 10 percent "tithing," II Cor. 8-9; Gal. 2:10, et al).

As you can see, these BASICS of what church is are OFTEN in conflict with modern practice. Biblical church is a positive and exciting experience for any who happen to arrive, unsaved! (I Cor. 14; Jas. 2) It is not a drudgery you have to do, but a joyful privilege you get to do—when it's done right!

What are ALL people looking for? Love, acceptance/security, friendships, purpose/meaning, things that better their lives, community/camaraderie/family they may not have, excitement, maybe even holy entertainment; THAT is how you'd summarize the first century church! Not as much, these days, sadly.

From low church to high church, what do they (i.e., lost visitors) find? Informal to formal, ritual to spontaneity, set orders of worship to whatever people feel led to do. MUCH of what has encrusted God's church began in the 300's (and I'm NOT speaking of needed doctrinal confessions). Compare ALL to the word of God!

Some churches forbid music, if instruments are used, even though David used them. Some churches have separate modern and traditional music services, when God taught balance (Eph. 5:19) "Worship" services were NOT to be separated into the old and the young! Family reunions are unions of entire families, and a body is NOT body parts, but a connected whole.

Pastors who work hard at preaching and teaching are deserving of more pay mere preachers (I Tim. 5:17; double honor—NOT necessarily double pay).

IS THIS YOUR CHURCH PRACTICE? If not, blame your pastors... they SHOULD know better! "Let the church be the church" can be a more a nonsense phrase, of don't tell pastors how to run their business. I say (because God says), make your church what God said it is to be, or it isn't biblical church at all, but a cheap imitation!

II Pet. and Jude teach that MANY false prophets for profits will arise, as prophecy approaches! DON'T follow them! Sex and money seem to be their most prominent drivers, but false theology is how you spot them the quickest. (Mt. 7:16-20)

NOT biblically commanded: Prayer books, prayer walks, robes, hymn books, telescreens, baptisms, incense, codified funeral liturgy, choirs, musicals, sports suits and dresses, pews, gyms, buildings, recited creeds, Latin, holy water, confessional booths, indulgences, stages, cameras, salaried ministers, etc.

It is NOT that all of these things are evil, but when you haven't mastered the basics, full well, you have no right or luxury engaging in lesser things! The first century church did NONE of them, because they were focused on world evangelism, then discipling all converts—NOT starting businesses.
