7. Hate civility morals, labeling that Swamp/deep State
8. Tend to have white supremacy members, more than traditional conservatives
9. Have less college-educated members, most likely
10. Have no tolerance for "RINOs" (so why would we unite, except for defeating liberal Socialism; little else)?
11. Fear immigration ruins their careers
12. Believe blacks have 100 percent equal opportunities, and white privilege is a myth
13. Make heroes of people who say stupid or shocking things
14. Have ZERO interest in PRACTICED religion; just give it lip service to gain the religious vote
15. Haven't stepped foot in a ghetto or barrio, likely ever, and probably never will, to inform their opinions with boots on the ground fact-gathering

16. Not high on facts!
17. Lump all Democrats into a leftist liberal category
18. Deem all Dems evil enemies (at least in their hearts)
19. NEVER admit faults or failures, apologize, or look at the ideological logs in their own eyes first
20. WRONGLY believe all moderates are spineless, and pro-Democrats.

In ALL 20 of these issues, HOW could I ever unite with caustic conservatism, except to oppose liberal Socialism? I would be abandoning my sincere convictions, and accepting less than moral and intelligent values, contrary to God? There's MUCH more that unites us than divides us, but I will NEVER agree with those 20 values!

WHERE do we agree? STRONG economy and national defense, promoting democracy, for gun ownership and free speech, and right to religion. For law and order, controlled borders, as low taxes as possible, against all freebies and government waste, hating Socialism and liberalism, pro-America and her historic exceptionalism, patriotic, pro free market Capitalism, entrepreneurship, believe being rich is not a sin, pro-business, etc.

Caustic conservatives and traditional conservatives DO agree on these, but NOT on the other 20 values! Unite against libs.

Democrats: THANK YOU for calling out GOP sins of hypocrisy, lying, lack of convictions, sedition and any true racism! You are doing the Lord's work, if not guilty yourself! (Eph. 5:11) MAYBE the party will get holier, by repentance!?

PRO-CONSERVATISM

WAKE UP AMERICAN PATRIOTS! This sign was in a yard, as my wife and I walked the neighborhood. Here is the TRUTH about its claims:

1. BLM has been warped into a violent, mad mob rule movement, where court verdicts get ignored or influenced by fear of threats of crime in the streets.

It has led to an over-emphasis on black interests in America, where some whites are now uniting in backlash. It is also leading to defund the police movement, where some people want police to risk their lives, 24/7, so no suspect ever gets shot in the arrest process! INjustice!

2. IDIOTS misconstrue "illegal alien" to mean humans are against the law. Total academic misfits! People CAN illegally enter any nation's border, and they ARE to be stopped and slandered as law-breakers! This liberalism movement WANTS America overrun by people who choose NOT to assimilate.

It IS a silent invasion of people wanting anti-American Socialism. REAL patriots MUST fight back, as Biden's agenda is to steal from Republicans and anyone who makes more than they spend, though the accounting will be YEARS off, because NON-taxpayers will NOT pay down our escalating debt!

3. Love is love means stick your d-k in another Dick or Harry's rear, and that is holy! It is as sensible as arguing for bestiality, or man-child sex, or polygamy, as ALL those aberrant actions can be claimed to be 'luv!' Excrement is not lubricant, and lust is not love, fools

4. Women's rights we ALL agree with! But a woman's right is not 100 percent her right, when any other life is involved, as with killing a separate human being through abortion! It's also up to every human to negotiate their own salary, and unite for leverage if paid too little!

5. ACCURATE science is real. It can NEVER explain origins, as every purported source of evolution (soup, explosion, etc.) has an origination/birth/start/beginning before it originated! All truth is God's truth, but we've seen with this pandemic, science is not always science, when it's postulates haven't had time to be proved (Ex.: No mask required, then reversed; six feet distancing, now 3; surfaces shouldn't be touched, now low risk of Covid, ETC.).

6. Water may help life, but if taxes remain UNjust, clamoring for cleaner water is, again, only forcing successful people to pay for everyone else's water improvement. Patriots, America is under assault, from Socialism!

DO YOU BELIEVE Pocahontas doesn't really want student debt canceled, or AOC types don't want as many refugees as can get through our doors, and the radical left doesn't really expect free healthcare, college, home down payment, daycare, reparations, along with continued Welfare (subsidized housing/section 8, food stamps, Obama phone, Medicaid, EBT card free money, etc.)? YOUR money, and inheritances are at stake, patriots, as with your right to own an AK47 for self-defense!

WAKE UP! Since not much can be done on the fed level (since CHUMP made such backlash), EVERY red and purple state must pass laws on every issue that differ from Biden's radical left agenda!

Force the issues to SCOTUS, especially free handouts! DO IT NOW, or lose America! Defend our country!

China, Russia, North Korea, Iran, ISIS, Cuba, Venezuela and other pseudo or actual enemy nations are all too happy to see America's decline! Privately, they CHEER to see U.S. economic power decline through Socialism! Military superiority can't be as funded, with a weaker economy!

Those nations couldn't do anything better to defeat America, than sit back and watch (if not support and fund) this Socialist movement! Cancel culture, mob rule, domination, NO negotiation or checks and balances; THIS is what you're witnessing! Revenge is the natural but not right response. Save America!

P.S.: Add to all that a Supreme Court packing scheme, wanting born male trans competing with born female females in sports, Climate Change summit, Paris Accords rejoined and XL Pipeline blocked, and it is time for red and purple states to SECEDE! Texas—be the first! Overdue! Losing America!

CONSERVATIVE KRYPTONITE: CENTRISM

What far right conservatives WON'T like about centrism:

1. You don't just fight Dems full-time. You don't compromise to their Socialist agenda, but you DO cooperate for good policies.
2. The poor get helped, but NOT monetarily.
3. You get your guns, but NOT those with criminal or mental issues.

4. Taxes are low, but not so low that America has to borrow or print money.
5. Civic service is expected of all not engaged in any, presently. If you don't want to help your country, actively, but think it's here just for your enjoyment, you won't like that proposal!
6. Black and brown poor get help to become self-sufficient. You may think they are favored, and you aren't rich, but EVERYONE who's poor gets this non-financial help, you included. Jobs to America, and LESS labor competition in our immigration policies.
7. It's easier just to selfishly chase money!

CONSERVATIVE FAMILY VALUES

(6/20/21-2)

During the Reagan years, "FAMILY VALUES" was a commonly heard theme. It meant you weren't gay and were against abortion. Let me teach you God's definition: DID YOU KNOW that political conservatism wants ALL money kept in-house, and NOT to bless society, unless forced? OPPOSITE I Tim. 6:17-19!

They oppose ALL wealth redistribution and handouts, including Welfare, and want taxes so low that NO ONE ever benefits from their tax dollars—only "family." YES, the Bible speaks of leaving an inheritance, but it ALSO speaks of NOT spoiling your heirs. conservatives 'wanna spoil heir and screw society!

Whats my proof? Their theory! NO taxes ever help anyone outside my fam, as low taxes as humanly possible, ZERO emphasis on giving back to society (they even MOCK Giving Pledgers as self-loathing), and they oppose the estate tax, and want generational wealth ONLY for their family!

It's the ultimate selfishness and UN-biblical worldliness! Even one of their own, a radio DJ, said there may be many SOBs in political conservatism, but "what are you going to do about it?"
CHANGE THE FLAWED IDEOLOGY THAT DISHONORS THE GOD YOU CLAIM!

HERE is what God says about family values: Lk. 11:27-28 Someone was engaging Mariolatry (mother Mary worship), AS IF her physical nurturing of Jesus as a child was that which was to be exalted, to which Jesus corrected them to say NO, it is those who do God's word who are to have such exaltation.

In another passage, someone asked who is true family? Is it blood or water? Jesus, again, said it's those who do God's will—NOT flesh and blood! And in another passage, people were commanded to hate their own flesh and blood, by comparison, if they were to be true followers of Jesus. Lk. 14:26

Mk. 10:29 says those who LEAVE their family for Christ's (ministry and morality) sake, will be far more blessed than those who hold to the 'family values' I earlier described, of just blessing your own, and money seen as what blessed means!

Lk. 16:14 THINK about the one main roomed homes I saw last week, where there was hardly room for a kitchen, bathroom, living room and sleeping quarters for however many people were in those families. Political conservatism teaches that to 100 percent care zero about their plight is what Jesus would do, as theirs is the ideology for white Christians!

BALDERDASH! They don't care that they may never have anything to pass on to their kids, but love and a legacy! They want them to remain impoverished, so long as NO money of theirs ever has to be involved; just spoil my kids with it all, for generations, as Robinhood was evil.

Keep them on the other side of the tracks, so I NEVER have to see or associate with the riff raff, and I'll pray at my evening meal for God to bless the unfortunate. BALDERDASH, again! And I am NOT saying give them freebies, but saying EXACTLY what God says to the rich: GIVE BACK GENEROUSLY!

My point is that family values means doing God's will, and His main will involves spiritual communing and ministering (EDBS priorities). There are MANY families who never even discuss or engage such topics, but they have family reunions galore, and think—because of skewed politics—that they're serving God faithfully, ignoring the greater things, ignoring society needs and the poor, chasing the almighty dollar, all in Jesus' blasphemed Name, spoiling their heirs/"fam," and slandering any who say GIVE BACK GENEROUSLY. FALSE Christianity, folks!

Update

(6/20/21-2)

MOST rational people can see the BAD in the following depiction (1), but can they on the one that follows (2)?:

1. High taxes (BAD for all who pay in), hurt business with green policies, try to make owning guns hard, pro-criminal, garnering votes by illegal immigration/open borders, etc.
2. Least academically achieving states, poor states, Bible belt, avoiding vaccines, pro-military, rural/country and worshipping the term "conservative." I don't know all the connections, but IGNORANCE isn't a Christian virtue.

EVILS OF THE FAR RIGHT (PART II)

A conservative is content with all of life's current state, if they, individually, are well off, financially! A liberal is not content until Heaven on earth is established, paid for by taxpayers! ANALYSE THESE two EXTREMES, and if you're in one of the two. Repent!!!

NOW's the time! There are active attacks on U.S. traditions/history, demographics and cultural values. Everyone born here needs to fight tooth and nail, and to the death, to defend our sacred land! Socialism and anti-white seeking to uproot our nation!

Bring on the second civil war, and God's third, overdue judgment on America! Extremists deserve each other, dead or alive!

HERE I taken my stand, and draw my lines: I will ALWAYS fight and oppose political extremes on BOTH sides! THEY are what are tearing our country apart, weakening America, and leading to her downfall if not demise. I've already detailed the EVILS of liberalism (20 beliefs), to which I'll add one more:

Be your authentic self is also taken to mean be as publicly flaunting of sexual perversity and gender confusion as humanly possible. It's WELL beyond merely being yourself!

Even tRUMP behaved as his true colors, and proves that's NOT the ultimately good ideal! So what are the evils of conservatism, on those same 21 points, and where is there another position to hold, between the two extremes?

EASY question to answer: IF you will review my 21 points on liberalism, I'm now addressing the same issues, point by point, identifying conservatism's EVILS:

1. Everyone should be able to have guns, with zero restrictions.
2. Pollution is fine, if it costs money to fix.
3. Women risking physical safety, using self-help for abortion, is acceptable, so less abortions will occur.
4. I absolutely never think about the poor; it's their problem.
5. The Constitution demands zero wealth redistribution, for government (taxpayers) to ever help anyone, so our safety net is EVIL, even if no one ever gave to charity (SCOTUS has disagreed, I might add).
6. America's historic past has zero present repercussions for anyone—we're all equal.
7. Free speech is the RIGHT for media and politicians to publicly state lies, propaganda (in the name of news), conspiracy theories, and even to generate hatred of American against American.
8. We should hate LGBTQs, and discriminate against them (that's #21, as I had mistakenly omitted a number).
9. White people own America more than any others, as we were here first, as a 100 percent majority.
10. Government should never pay for anything but military, cops, MAYBE teachers, libraries and politicians. Every other societal problem businesses can't fix for a big enough profit, charities must.
11. War can be necessary, and can be a good thing, as in an economic boon.
12. Borders must be closed to all immigrants, at least for awhile.
13. Business can do no wrong, and the entire purpose of life and society is to make money, and as much as you can
14. The media is now only opinions and party propaganda mouthpieces, and that's as it should be, as they're a business serving an audience, vs. serving all Americans.
15. The death penalty is great, and should be used for many more murderers; why not lynchings and firing squads?
16. Criminals deserve no rehabilitation in jail.
17. Police and the military can do no wrong; never punish them for any wrong behaviors on the Job.
18. If national defense nearly bankrupted America, or ever overspends, that's OK
19. NO problems in life should be fixed, if funded by government, if business can't profit off them enough.
20. Any who disagree with this agenda are evil and enemies There you have it... the polar opposite belief systems of extremists. It's late, I'm sleepy, and many times I've articulated centrist doctrines, so maybe tomorrow I'll show you a BETTER way on EVERY issue.

CONSTITUTION & CONSERVATISM

(7/5/21-2)

I am now venturing into uncharted waters, for myself, and I will be posing questions, posturing positions, and perhaps be making my own conclusions on these matters for the first time, as they're quite academic questions, yet with some relevance:

We've had Defund NPR, AWOL and Quit trending, so let's address:

1. Can government force any U.S. citizen to do vs. not do anything?
2. Are our Constitutional freedoms absolute?, and,

3. Are Americans, presently, accepting cancel culture JUSTLY going BOTH ways?

The Conservative argues our Constitution disallows government to force anyone to do anything affirmative, and only allows it to forbid certain behaviors. The liberal, of course, wouldn't agree with a con, and they back government forcing positive behaviors; not just negatively forbidding certain acts society deems wrong, or that document forbids.

This issue broadens beyond mere interpretation and Founders' original intent, to do voters have any say in what actions society deems illegal, or does a Constitutional amendment have to be added for that, as well as is SCOTUS to be a political entity, or not, and is it unconstitutional for voters to vote for things not specifically enumerated in that document (like Welfare, abortion rights, etc.). Heady subjects!

Cons call it "Communist" for government to mandate mask-wearing, or forcing the U.S. military to take Covid vaccines. They don't debate taxes are due, as that's mentioned in the great document (government forcing positive behavior).

They're also commanded to do positive actions, regularly, by government officials in the armed services, so liberals argue when our fighting forces threaten to quit, if forced to get vaccinated, they'd be AWOL, and subject to possible court martial, for a U.S. Code of Military conduct violation, even though they aren't conscripted, but voluntary.

Then we have NPR telling MORE truth than conservatives desire, about America's founding, yet NOT the whole truth! We are the most blessed and special and great nation God has blessed this earth with, yet we are imperfect, and NPR points out some major historic immoralities, yet even it refuses to also say we offered the Indians ~$2 billion (they rejected), and made them reserved areas.

And as to slaves, they were freed, and any Constitutional errors of deeming them a percentage of humanhood (including women unable to vote) have also LONG SINCE been remedied. Cons want NPR defunded, to the extent our tax dollars empower it, for telling TRUTH, that doesn't put America in a FULLY positive light, but even NPR puts America in a more negative light than is the actual historic case.

This is where cancel culture and justice plays its role. Liberals tried hard to cancel any emphases in society that differed from their dogma, beginning about the time of George Floyd's death, by boycotts, protests, and even big tech rules of censoring free speech.

Especially with all of tRUMP's 22K+ lies, and other cons' conspiracy theories (including Chump's BIG lie), the absoluteness of our rights comes into question, regarding free speech, right to religion (churches banned from assembly during Covid), gun rights (Biden saying our rights aren't absolute), etc.

Texas banned a speech on the Alamo, which countered everything everyone has been told, in public schools, and elsewhere, to which liberals allege hypocrisy of also engaging cancel culture.

I guess, in hindsight, my main contribution, for now, will be to identify the issues and clarify the disagreements. It's all politics, and it sometimes also involves worship of an imperfect document over God or common sense, knowing Constitutional amendments are HARD to pass.

And SCOTUS has been sought to be made a third political branch, by ideology stacking, and even considering expanding its membership. The average Joe may not know these matters, but they feel the animosity! When you don't know, you usually tend to support those you're aligned with, uninformed.

P.S.: The Obamacare mandate has been reversed, but Welfare and Obamacare are still the law of the land, so if you think these issues are all clear cut, even SCOTUS's decisions disagree with your conclusion!

NO NUANCE CONSERVATIVES (I)

[Private account:] Mark Meadows, Sean Hannity, Madison Cawthorn, Chachi (Scott Baio), Lauren Boebert, Rush Limbaugh, Paula White, Chuck Woolery, Charlie Kirk, Glenn Beck, Candace Owens, Alex Jones, Mike Parson, Ted Nugent and Diamond and Silk combined have zero college degrees.

I cite the lack of higher education among top far right pundits, because critical thinking, analysis, and nuance are often also lacking from their ideology/belief system. For example, TO THEM, free speech means anyone should be able to say anything in America, and get away with it. NO accountability or consequences for lies, conspiracy theories or incendiary words. Their belief system values error and lies equal with truth and accuracy.

Hold people accountable for these evils, and you're censoring, or Big Brother. Even SCOTUS has ruled yelling fire in a crowded movie theater is unconstitutional, and has, at times, mentioned fighting words as a concept of possibly inciting violence. One exception proves the right or freedom is NOT 100 percent absolute. But, that conclusion takes education and thinking, and jurisprudential reasoning, which isn't their strong suit.

Let's try freedom of religion. The state can't establish or infringe on this inalienable right. DOES THAT MEAN if I start a dog as god religion, I deserve tax-exempt status? NO, there are parameters to what a true religion is, and tax exemptness is NOT Constitutionally promised.

There have also been cases addressing polygamy, refusing blood transfusions, people claiming to be religious, to draft dodge, and Jim Jones like cults using religion to do horrible things. But an absolutist would accept anything, if the claim of religion were made. That's NOT nuanced!

Let's try gun rights. If some rural militia member decided to buy a used, or black market F-16 or bomber, is that OK? How 'bout a tank? We know Hum-Vs are fine. Where does one draw the line? The absolutist is simplistic in his/her "thinking," so these questions are irrelevant to them. Should a known insane person, or habitual criminal get gun rights? The absolutist would say YES.

Is it unlawful for the government to ensure people can properly handle arms, have been trained, know how to store them, and keep them out of the hands of kids? The far righter would say YES, as the second Amendment is absolute to all U.S. citizens.

Registering your gun, so cops can chase down weapons stolen and used in murderous crimes, or red flag laws, to objectively vs. biasedly/politically identify people untrustworthy and/or unsafe with guns in hand?

The pure conservative would call that a 2A violation! Pollution: Oil has brought America the greatest economy and standard of living, but should we never address its downside, because it's been so good to us? The far righter would say YES; NEVER address any negatives, and pollute at will.

NOTHING humans do has ANY consequences for the environment or its climate. This is a belief, but their beliefs are NOT subject to critical analysis, value assessment, or scientific investigation. They are merely held in blind faith, because business profits are their number one "value."

Personal responsibility: It is a GREAT moral value, but so is helping another, if and when you can. But NOT for the conservative! Government should NEVER do one thing to assist anyone with any problems, or it is evil, and behaving unconstitutionally!

Welfare, and every element of our safety net are illegal, to these people. The Supreme Court has NOT agreed, including with Obamacare, but that's why they want an alt-right all-right judiciary!

Taxes: They OPPOSE the estate tax, because their belief is the U.S. Constitution was written for Americans to make as much money as humanly possible, and once one does, it's "their" personal property.

They even use the word "confiscatory" if taxes are ever higher than they want, and there's never a bar too low for those desires! Government is always too big, and God forbid they would ever obey God and help anyone outside their own flesh and blood, with any excess, as they demand privacy in charity donation IRS claims, and even Mark Levin calls all Giving Pledgers "self-loathing" (haters of themselves) for so signing!

That's because worldliness and money idolatry are their value, even as Levin is a Jew, Hannity a Catholic, and Limbaugh claimed Christ. THEIR version of the U.S. Constitution over God! Conservatism and their version of the U.S. Constitution is their religion, so anyone else is evil, to not conform to that law, to them, from their interpretation thereof!

And DON'T say the truth about American history, especially on July 4th, or they'll have a hissy fit, like slavery is how blacks primarily came to America, or war is how we gained native Indian and Mexican territories. DON'T SAY THAT, as you can't love America if you tell the truth!

You can never speak truth that isn't positive, including about any military crimes or atrocities in Vietnam (rapes, drugs, looting or arson), or you are anti-America! and don't ever address over-spending in the military (like $600K jet toilet seats) or you hate the armed forces.

THIS lack of critical analysis and objectivity skills is why they happily bow down to the most evil politician America has had in the past 50 years! Blind loyalty to a belief system, and cult leader who embraced it, from opportunism; NOT from lifelong adherence to it, or belief in it.

I could go on, but on every major topic you will see that the ability to think clearly, detailedly, make distinctions, and address the full panoply of positive and negative facts on matters eludes these pundits, PERHAPS because they lack learning those skills in college, which they besmirch as liberal hot beds and havens again, because you minimize and demean that for which you were incapable or unwilling to adopt for yourself, lest anyone accuse you of being a failure, drop out, or as lacking the critical thinking skills that would make you a true leader of people's attitudes, through words and ideas!

P.S.: Far righters DON'T like ""my"" brand of conservatism, because:

1. I do NOT believe taxes should be so low that government can't pay its legitimate (vs wasteful) bills.
2. Like the Bible, I do NOT believe money-making is man's highest purpose in life! Lk. 12:15
3. I DON'T believe a mere releasing of black slaves made them 100 percent equally capable of competing with people who never had centuries of oppressive behavior used against them and their finances.
4. They would believe compulsory civic service is Communism, as they believe government can only force taxes and conscription, but otherwise only mandates what citizens cannot do; not what they must do, even if a majority voted to approve such patriotic duty. In short, they want the right/"freedom" to NEVER have one dime of their help others, or one second of their lives to do that!

5. They believe ALL non-far righters are to be fought against! Their divisiveness is from ideology idolatry, EVEN AS their pundits claim a religion they do not follow, and they suck up to religious people to gain power in numbers, for power is their ultimate ethic. EVILS exposed! Eph. 5:11

6. They believe ALL Dems are liberal, and moderates don't exist (vs are just quieter, in 2021), so ANY politician but a far righter will compromise, and therefore spend more tax dollars, or agree to some liberal policies, to get along. Again, LACK OF CRITICAL "THINKING" SKILLS. Idiocy hurts!

Like door-to-door census takers are trespassers, or any salesman who knocks? You want healthcare freedom of choice, but only on cherry-picked healthcare issues! (and you worship a cult member, divide America, and call people spineless who stand against these evils); NOT morally-concerned

EXTREME is a summation of the political right. It also garners you media attention! Thinking is NOT their forte! ARREST a census taker for door knocking? ARREST a salesman for trespassing? That is EXACTLY what that politician is suggesting, IF he were consistent (they RARELY are).

And they use images of their holding AK47s, to try to instill fear or intimidation, like some muscle-bound people try to do to normal people. It does NOT work, when you're thinking, analysis and argumentation/debate skills LACK! Idiocy can be exposed, and guns and muscles can't hide it!

It's JUST LIKE the mafia, or one business man I encountered who said I'm a crazy Mexican-you don't 'wanna mess with me. Rather than paying to use the legal system, some people try to force their evil on others, without striving to get their way the legal and moral way! That doesn't work with lawyers.

Their loyalty to one man is beyond cultish! They only believe in us vs. them! Morals aren't any concern of theirs—ONLY power. And they believe power can't be gained morally. They 'wanna shove their views down America's throat, but they sure whine when the shoes on the other foot! Inconsistent.

The far right believes "freedom" is the right to do anything you damn well please, and government can't do anything about it. It also believes government is evil, except for cops and the military. God disagrees with far right conservatives, and they don't care! They worship another god!

The far right searches to find anything to criticize Biden over, as that's the goal. His July 4th ceremony wasn't full of enough fireworks; he whispers into a microphone; his wife wore a flower dress; Melania was more of a model (though less of a model citizen—F Christmas; I don't care, do you?)

Update

I'm trying to discern the connection between stupidity and far right political beliefs! No nuance seems to be the common thread. Inability to analyze. Just mottos and mantras. I'm still working on this project of interest to me. Blind faith loyalty, lacking critical thinking skills?

The U.S. Constitution is a GREAT document, but it is NOT perfect, it's NOT the Bible, and it was certainly much less perfect when originally drawn (women couldn't vote and slaves weren't free, ETC.). Far righters value it over the Bible, as God's less valued than their political ideology!

CONSERVATISM IS PATRIOTISM?

Far righters believe they're MORE America-loving and patriotic than anyone else, and more Constitutional. I AGREE on the latter, but Socialists don't all hate America, but haven't thought through how hateful their beliefs are to the U.S. economy! Not all of them are UNpatriotic. They just DISagree on freebies!

If the far right conservatives believe the Constitution bans taxpayer money used for anything but what's overtly stated therein, any who vote otherwise should be penalized as law breakers! SCOTUS hasn't so ruled.

Update

(7/15/21-2)

Far right political conservatism IS every man for himself, and believes the Constitution requires the poor to never get any help from government for anything, and if charity doesn't help them, they have to fend only for themselves, like we all have to.

Far right political conservatism would have NO PROBLEM with one man owning everything, if he or she did so legally! And if charity won't fix a problem in society, and businesses can't profit enough fixing it, THATS A GOOD THING. Let it continue forever! JUST make money!!!

CONSERVATISM & BIG OIL

I have a premise that the Civil War occurred mainly from the implementation of rightly ending slavery; that is, causing the minority of Southerners who were slave owners to lose their entire work force with NO plan for their replacement. Green energy for climate changes similar for BIG oil, but they get many more years to adjust.

The far right conservative LITERALLY/actually doesn't care if the sky turns permanently brown, if profits can be had off fossil fuels, because their MBA motto is business' ONLY purpose is profits.

I'm as BIG a BIG oil fan as any of them, as a native Houstonian, five or six generations deep (back to the original 153 families), and I don't believe America can make it without oil derivatives (unless science finds or manufactures substitutes), but blaming man is destroying the planet is an ASININE claim, as it is NOT being ruined, BUT it can be better preserved and managed, which is man's duty before God! Gen. 1:28; Isa. 24:4-6

Far righters say the market decides everything, meaning the major voice or will of consumers. Consumers will NEVER demand businesses fix all problems our society has, because they can't be consumers/buyers of fixing social problems! So they turn to government, which picks up the slack where profits aren't enough.

Green energy IS a great future for our environment, but we will ALWAYS need safe and clean oil drilling, and libs need to be THANKFUL for how it brought us our highest standard of living among mankind!

It NEEDs even more protections against oil spills, pipe leaks, and exhausts from vehicles and refineries CAN be cleaned up, with new technologies, but blaming BIG oil as if it's an evil business it like a cowboy begrudging his horse! IT GOT U.S. HERE.

I met a lady (who accidentally spat on me; Covid concern, if unvaccinated), who'd sold her home to buy a luxury RV, then lost it all to health problems, and had her buddy die in open heart surgery. There's MUCH pain in this world. I asked about her kids (as she was poor)...

America has LOST church and family, as aiding anyone. We ALL just look to "the government," which means pawn family burdens off on total stranger taxpayers, to spread the pain wider!

Even Obama was criticized for not helping some distant relative. We don't do this anymore; we ONLY seek government's "help!" That lady also made a BAD/risky decision, and had to bear the consequences, but America can be quite cold and uncaring/uncompassionate to others' sufferings, if OUR subjective lives are fine!

PURE Capitalism IS dog eat dog, every man for himself Darwinian survival of the fittest, even as a majority of us CLAIM to believe in Creationism!

The late Limbaugh (RIP) said humanity is a pot of crowdads, where some escape the herd. This from a "Christian!"

1. God doesn't view His human creation and creatures as crowdads!
2. Crowdads fight for food and survival.
3. Escapees crawled over others!

Update

For every dollar needed to make America better, there are 7-8 ways to fund such dollars, without raising any more taxes! I've written of those ways, before! The far right isn't interested in that aim, but ONLY less taxes and spending, more suffering and problems, then leave me alone, government!

The far righter LITERALLY wants extreme poverty areas to continue, NEVER visits those areas of town, and only mouths rhetoric of an economy for all, or a philosophy that it will be better for them if public policy favors the rich! If you can't see this is evilly self-serving, you're BLIND!

When you have it good, in life, you DON'T want that to change one iota! Whether it's being rich, or white majority privileges, or a low tax rate. The Bible shuns extreme change (Pv. 24:21), but also addresses people disinterested in change toward more justice! (Pv. 21:15)

Far-right Republicans LITERALLY want NOTHING done, fixed, improved or helped, in society, UNLESS enough profit is in the act for business to flourish fixing it, or charities make enough to address it! MANY of them do NOT believe in give back as a life value God commands! I Tim. 6:17-19

CONSERVATISM VS. CHRISTIANITY (PART I)

There's a MYTH that Christians in America are holier than all others, because they oppose abortion. People, c'mon! CAN YOU THINK? Morality is every word and deed you choose! and their abortion position often endangers women's health. Is that what Jesus is for? THINK, people. America need you to.

There are MYTHs Christians believe, to feel they're "good" people: Attend church (a good thing to do), 10 percent tithing (NOT biblically required) and vote against abortion. God teaches holiness is much more than three things, and a majority of Christians aren't even fully committed to following Him!

Did the U.S. Church learn NOTHING, in the messenger having to have moral credibility to have godly messages for U.S. politics? The lost world certainly understand that! God's people are to be wise as serpents and innocent as doves; NOT naive, stupid or extreme/unreasonable!

It is MORE than offensive to me for anyone to claim the GOP has a lock on moral policy positions! Dems want things God wants done, as well, and BOTH parties have several things God does NOT want done. Abortion and helping the poor are usually used to lure religious votes!

UNLESS you vote for principles inculcated into policies, NO political party has a lock on God. An Independent common sense party would MUCH more match biblical values, than current state GOP or Dems! As it is, you have to stand for the good and reject the bad in BOTH parties! DO SO.

Black church Christians: Your pastor wants you to vote Democrat, so you can get freebies from taxpayers, immorally stolen from them by government White Christians: Your pastor wants you to vote republican, so Roe is overturned, so babies aren't killed and taxes don't support Socialism. TRUTH

Trying to get predominantly white Christians to vote GOP, wrongly using II Chron. 7:14 to support embracing far right political ideology, JUST AS tRUMP did. Immoral messengers warping Christianity for power idolatry. That's all.

They seek to overturn Roe. That's the main act they try to do for white believers. There's nothing government can do to "help" anyone, without taking from taxpayers. That's not government's job, isn't just, and isn't helping self-sufficiency skills be encouraged.

The Jews had public means to temporarily help the down and out. Using "God" to say no public help, is anti-God. The ONLY help needed is NOT subsidies, or handouts, but empowerment to self-sufficiency! That is a government like Christ, ONLY for one policy matter of MANY!

They SINCERELY want Roe overturned. They also want no Socialism. Roe overturn, without national standards, is a disaster to the unborn and women! Socialism (freebies) is anti-biblical as public vs. privately. Thanks for the compliment! We NEED common sense solutions in D.C.!

Conservative public policy on poverty is get a job! At high school graduation skill levels, especially if having a family, that is NO help, when businesses always offer the least they can negotiate! Those types need skills at working and buying, to make it off what they make! NOT con's concern! PROBLEM.

CYNICISM IN CONSERVATISM

ANYONE who does not behave morally is NOT living for Jesus, especially among claiming Christians in politics! EVIL people POSE as "religious," because there are many votes coming out of churches! DON'T be fooled, or you are a fool! 22K lies in office are satanic!

SIN does not matter, but gaining temporary, secular power. THAT is number one priority in life! SO SAY apostates!

One said the U.S. majority want Bidens many free offers, and that's why they voted for him. THAT IS EVIL! Evil of Biden promising things most recipients wouldn't pay for and evil to crave free things others have to pay for! The majority is NOT always right! Immigration is why it's becoming majority

Talk radio is trying to lure REAL Christians to their often evil ideology by advertising an anti-abortion charity, and speaking against abortion often. IT IS INSINCERE, but they know Christians can be quite naïve and gullible (sins). They don't want them not voting far right GOP personnel!

Trumpkin cult believes anything but their views is a concession to Democrats, so they hate and want to purge "RINOs". I challenge any far right turd to a public debate! I despise you as much as you despise God! I pray He destroys you, soon; I'll [intellectually] fight you, any day, too. You're Hellbound.

HERE is Trumpian far right CULTISM beliefs, compared to centrist beliefs:

1. Lowest taxes—NOT lowest taxes possible. That means they will underfund the feds, so America defaults on its debts, to "teach D.C. a lesson."
2. Tax break for the rich. Freebies "taxed" them already, so revenge. Dems propose handouts taxpayers fund, so far right do the opposite—return taxes to taxpayers (cuts). The debt ONLY rises, with this back-and-forth! Unfunded expenses borrow on credit from China. Tax cuts coats the Treasury less revenue, so MORE national borrowing debt! STUPIDITY!
3. Absolute right to guns, vs. reasonable restrictions, like passing background checks (so criminals can't legally access them), etc. ACTUALLY, I'm through with these topics, for now. 'Gonna work harder, so I can DESTROY both extremes in 2024, sooner than if I wasted time writing!

CPAC MESS OR MESSAGE?

As I slept, and recalled how I avoid the medical establishment (10 month foot wart severely in danger of killing feeling, self-burning it to the core), as I slept, the thought hit me WHY must certain needed things in life be off limits for those less fortunate than I?

WHY would a poor person have to suck it up if they get cancer, or die of preventable diseases, in the richest nation on earth? The reason is that political conservatism is satanic to the core, people! We have to admit and face this fact, at least if you are a Christian!

Yesterday, CPAC gleeful that Adam Kinzinger is not coming back, said eight more needing purging. I personally challenge the bum in charge of that organization to a fist fight!
I'm fat, slightly out of shape, and have no idea who he is, or his age or physical condition, but on God's behalf that man needs to be punished!

Yes, Father forgive me for agreeing to violence, but the political theory called "conservatism" is the OPPOSITE of Jesus in MANY ways I will detail later!

The Jews, in the Old Testament, were God's people, and set up to be His role model nation! They never lived up to that calling, but the design is still relevant. They had a safety net! HERE is the shocker of my changed position on conservatism: I am no longer seeking a possible secession in America.

I want CPAC type conservatives met on a battle field for a second Civil War, and I will join in on the other side! They are 100 percent satanic and evil to the core. My explanation of their good and bad positions comes later!

HERE is EXACTLY how they feel: They do NOT think! All or nothing, win-lose, dominate and never concede. All Dems are satanic, have to be owned, and do so any time you can, at all times, and seek their utter demise! IT IS ALL ABOUT TAXES, folks!

They (being mainly white) have ZERO interest in emulating the Jewish nation of old! To Hell with you if you aren't among them! You can die, move, suffer, or be ignored! You are rubbish! NOT someone made in God's image! ALL because every dollar they earn MUST remain with them and their posterity! NOTHING can EVER help anyone else!

And they ever chase greater lifestyles for themselves. Reader: You may NOT know the Bible, but a disciple denies himself, daily. WHO can say pampering yourself like King Solomon did, until he got wise, is self-denial? Ecc. 1-3

It is the opposite, and living for THIS world, the flesh and the devil! Biblically, it is temporal-mindedness and worldliness, which makes these people ENEMIES of God! The moral people who retain a conscience are anathema to pure conservatives! The remaining eight GOP's are persona non grata. And p-s-y sheep who don't agree with that ideology will silently go along, for power worship sin against God!

They have justified that if they don't, evil will prevail. They use abortion as the trojan horse. Evil prevails when conservatism reigns! Again, it is the white, rich, and middle class hard working blue collar folks who refuse to allow one dime to ever benefit anyone else outside their family, of whom I am speaking. I earned it, it's my personal property, and I have a gun to protect it.

NO consideration of others, CONTRARY to Philippians 2. NO care for any poor people, CONTRARY to many Bible passages. NO concern for I Tim. 6:17-19. NO interest in having any safety net like God's chosen people had! IT IS 100 percent selfishness, hoarding, greed and idolatry, folks!

Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed over homosexuality! America will be destroyed over extremism! Zero entitlements or dimes spent to aid anyone, vs. tons of entitlements to make the poor move into the middle class by handouts. Totally satanic on BOTH sides! God, destroy us, soon, please!

I AM SAYING that anyone who calls themselves a "conservative" does not have or does not follow God-period! Yes, they try, in some respects (Ex.: Abortion), but the movement purges people who haven't yet seared their consciences! IT IS ALL to secure power so no taxes ever help anyone!

Forget compromise, unity, tolerating the other side, working together, letting one side win, then undoing those wins, or even secession, at this point! Go to war, extremists! I will join you in this battle, and I will side with the non-conservatives! I would have sat it out, previously.

DESPITE how many things I disagree with liberals on, like mainstreaming anal sex among men, killing innocents, Socialism and climate change phobias, at its core pure conservatism has to be wiped out! Before I detail why, let me teach you all the good things it stands for, that we should keep:

Controlled borders, best economy, low taxes, strong national defense, freedom of religion and speech, gun ownership, pro-business, and spreading democracy, and lowering our debt. KEEP ALL THESE TENETS, but utterly destroy all of the following (including in a Civil War):

1. Zero entitlements.
2. Zero encroachments in a right to bear arms.
3. Zero mask or vaccine mandates, anywhere.
4. Wanting churches open in unsafe ways, during Covid.
5. Banning all abortions, and even contraception
6. Divisive arrogance, hatred and general "Trumpism" unrepentant sin.

7. My way or the highway mentality of domination, warring, and never acknowledging any good in anyone else.
 8. The cops and military can NEVER do wrong attitude (i.e. Turn a blind eye to any sins they ever commit).
 9. Racism.
 10. Disrespectful hatred of gays.
 11. Despising the poor (among whom are often 'blacks and browns').
 12. Denying any white privilege exists.
 13. Whining of reverse discrimination if any black historic injustices are ever sought to be reconciled or remedied!
 14. Desiring to purge good people from their evil ranks THIS is why I'm calling for a war!
- It starts for 2022. EVERY American who is NOT a pure conservative (as I just described) HAS to unite against this Trump-inspired bunch-period! That means I have to hold my nose and want unity of power with the ilk of AOC leftist r-tards! I have to tolerate people seeking to destroy my bank account, through taxation!

I can fight and beat them back, internally, but the enemy must remain identified: Pure conservatives! I can accept that libs want poor people not to suffer as much, and feel that money has to come from the very rich. I don't have to agree with that, to unite with them against pure conservatism. And we never need to get rid of the good things in conservatism. We just have to destroy pure conservatives, starting at the ballot box.

YES, blue states will have policies I 100 percent disagree with. I don't live there, so I don't have to care, as much! But pure conservative people and the states they seek to establish MUST be destroyed! God's plan for all mankind did not involve pure conservatism!

Theological conservatism is another matter entirely! You CAN'T be a theological conservative and a political one! CONTRADICTION!

Jesus' entire life revolved around helping others! political conservatism is anti-Christ! It is unsaved sinners wanting the freedom to have no morals, no brains, and no accountability for the same! ANY Christian that is in bed with pure conservatism, for any reason, is an apostate.

The Joe Manchin Democrat and the establishment GOP HAVE to unite forces to stave off the AOC squad types and pure conservatism! You HAVE to unite! You can't keep feeding the extreme wing of your respective parties! DO NOT AGREE with each other! DO NOT join the other side, necessarily!

Socialism (theft by government) and conservatism (worldliness and anti-disciple anti-God living) are BOTH heinous enemies of all true, red-blooded Americans! It's HARD to fight a 2-sided front! We have to! But we start by NOT allowing pure conservatism any foothold!

I HOPE Donald Trump runs in 2024! I PRAY he does! Because his sound defeat (dare I say a landslide) will be just the beginning of this movement to purge BOTH extremes, one at a time. If you don't start with conservatism, it retains the power to defeat all government help of anyone!

That's NOT the model God designed, even as loudly as they speak "God," and now advertise an anti-abortion charity, to try to lure unsuspecting Christians to their evil other causes! Let me tell you a fact: A majority of even saved Christians in America are NOT disciples of Jesus. The Bible calls them 'carnal.'

They are RIFE targets for this scourge and satanic force called conservatism, because these totally Hell bound and God-hating (in values and practice) people ONLY want more votes for their evil ideology! Satan comes dressed as an angel of light! This ilk of sub-human puts on sheep's clothing unwise as pigeons and guilty as sin, OPPOSITE Mt. 10:16. But what would you expect?

They are NOT Christians! They wrap themselves in the flag and wear crosses and carry Bibles, but satan always imitates the real deal, folks! PLEASE read the life of Christ! Matthew-John! He NEVER espouses selfishness, unconcern for others, hating and seeking to further complicate life for the poor, or white supremacy!

The DREGS of the GOP have come out of the closet, and glory in their shame! WHAT "Christian" can cozy up with people happy to say F Joe Biden at sports games?

WHAT "Christian" can support a riot based on lies, Jan 6? WHAT "Christian" can support hoarding, greed, selfishness and materialism/worldliness, sold as the American Dream? ONLY lost posers and apostate real ones! The Church CAN NO LONGER avoid moral accountability for siding with this ideology!

You MUST choose a side, and the side better not be either conservatism or liberalism! Take the good in both, but reject the bad! You guys NEVER speak against any evils in your own political party, to a man/pastor, black or white! That's being LIAR! It's UNtruthful!

It's BIAS. It's division. It's agreeing with sin, to go along to get along! It's secular power idolatry sin! YOU can call it practical. God calls it sin! Justifying sin has never been a problem for the flesh! A centrist third party has to rise in America by 2032!

'Till then, as individuals, SCIENCE! It's the best and only thing you have, when faced with the lesser of two evils! DO NOT worship any political party, Christians! God will judge even believers!

It is the rampant carnality, dressed up with smiles, Sunday clothes and hypocritical niceness at church, that is RUINING America, because REAL Christians are NOT committed to EDDBS priorities, in contradiction to the one solution for America: II Chron. 7:14.

Churchianity will end America. That is what I'm trying to say, in too many words! NOT church-going, but unprioritized Christianity! FAKE religion. People who may or may not be Heaven-bound voting, paying taxes, working hard, trying to be nice to those they encounter, but supporting and complicitly silent on the evils of political conservatism and liberalism! MAYBE you're just not taught those evils. Talk radio antofines.

Breitbart, OneAmerica and the others will NEVER admit their sins, just as mainstream networks will never admit the evils of political liberalism! ALL media, it seems, have a dog in this fight of left vs. right, and this fight needs to get physical, to show how serious these problems are.

The first Civil War was mainly about slavery. The needed Second Civil War will be about entitlements. Liberals seek to make up for slavery by handouts. Conservatives seek to ignore slavery and just offer well wishes to slave descendants! BOTH extremes need to be ended in America!

P.S.: Because I'm a Christian, I take very seriously any call for physical violence! If I thought a just war was escapable, I would advocate for anything but! BUT, the right is getting entrenched, and the left is growing in demands for Socialism. A war seems inevitable, not secession.

P.S.S.: IT IS ALL how you choose to ignore or learn! If you choose to NEVER observe the poor black and brown (and also other races), you choose ignorance! I have been in the hood and barrio so many times, this year, I naively go there alone, sometimes! I KNOW how the other half lives! It is discouraging and depressing!

To not care one iota, or lift one index finger to help lift them up, and to vote that not one dime of tax money ever reaches them is the exact OPPOSITE of God's people, the nation of Israel in the Old testament, and anti-Christ! Ignore the poor to America's demise!

Update

Every man for himself is NOT in the Bible. No man is an island, and bran raisings attitudes and values ARE! Gal. 6:2, 5. A society that collectively cares zero for the least among them is NOT a Christ-honoring nation! BUT, it has to be fair (i.e., tokenly repaid with civic service).

EVEN the New Testament model shows God's people, the Church, caring for one another, even church-to-church (II Cor. 8-9, etc.). It's BETTER to be done by family, church and charities. But the Jews show isn't not anti-God for taxes to sometimes be used to help the needy!

We have Social Security disability for the physically and mentally disabled! That's wealth redistribution! As inflation escalates, and the rich seek ever higher prices, for more profits, the poor get more squeezed. A pure conservative would care NOTHING, as they (and duped Christians) do not know Jesus!

The ONE trait that distinguishes a pure conservative from all others is they refuse to observe any other people's lifestyles than their own and those who surround them! Willful blindness. They wouldn't care IF they opened their eyes, as the Constitution supposedly teaches this evil!

And if you observed their tax returns, compared their charity percents to net worth, watched their LACK of actions toward the poor, and heard their words clamoring vs. wealth redistribution, they WON'T obey I Tim. 6:17-19 without force of taxation, IMO! ALL evidence leads to selfish hoarding!

There can be Christians in all four groups (far right, far left, moderate right, moderate left)! But NOT Christians who follow Christ in sincerity! It is IMPOSSIBLE to be a theological conservative and a 100 percent pure political conservative! That's ichabod apostasy and carnality! Don't care!

CONSERVATISM & COUNTRY

Pure conservatism TEACHES focus on the individual—not the collective! Do what YOU can do for your own economic future. By innate nature of the THEORY, it intentionally ignores any struggles of any other individuals, or low wage job challenges to others! Deliberately blind to people!

I have to get up every morn at 5, milk the cows, feed the pigs, grab hen eggs and harvest the field. NO ONE HELPS ME! I barely eek by, as NOT Big Ag. So why should MY taxes EVER help anyone? No one has it worse than me! This is radical red state mindset, OPPOSING God's word/religion!

It is SO obvious why country livin' folks are often conservative, as individualism is emphasized, the collective is rarely even experienced, unless they go to town, and hard work is how they get through, with NO help from outsiders! MT. and WY have MANY open wheat fields, and not much more!

I have said before, the rugged individualist attitude of farmers and ranchers makes them oppose government helping anyone with any taxes, and they worship political ideology more than the God of the Bible, Whose chosen people had a safety net. That is EVIL, to lean on your OWN ways!

ITS HILARIOUS and HYPOCRITICAL that far red states are famous for barn raising, yet when it comes to the government ever helping anyone, they're all OUT! ONLY voluntarily, and only once in a while, and only for FEW who still do such things. YES, even poorer and less educated people can be selfish!

Pure conservatism TEACHES focus on the individual—not the collective! Do what YOU can do for your own economic future. By innate nature of the THEORY, it intentionally ignores any struggles of any other individuals, or low wage job challenges to others! Deliberately blind to other or outsider people! (11/15/21-2)

CORE OF CONSERVATISM (PART I)

(12/13/21-2)

HERE IS CONSERVATISM DOGMA, and you better swallow it hook line and sinker (never think critically), or you are an avowed enemy!

1. THE goal of life is wealth
2. Taxes should be lower than our government budget
3. Contraception is EVIL
4. Give anyone a gun, with no constraints!
5. Five federal agencies must be shut down
6. Sweat shops and child labor are GOOD
7. You hate yourself if you are philanthropic, especially as a rich person
8. Pollute to the rafters IF it makes money! People can endure the consequences!
9. Let no one into America unless they're white, rich or college educated, or have advanced work skills
10. NOTHING the military or cops ever do is wrong
11. It doesn't matter if people can't get healthcare, so long as I never have to help pay for it!
12. Welfare must be disbanded. Recipients are just lazy couch sitters, wanting handouts

I DON'T know why I'd waste my time (on a day off) to see what the Bible teaches about riches, since no one (even Christians) cares, if it doesn't conform to their pre-set beliefs, but here we go: Gen. 13:2 Abe was rich in livestock Ex. 30:4 Rich and poor pay EQUAL in sin atonement.

Ru. 3:10 Some people date for money—not love. I Sam. 2:7 God makes people poor or rich. The devil can also do that! If God's behind your financial condition, WHY would you mock or be envious of another's condition? Satan is why! Job 34:19 God doesn't value rich people greater than others.

IF religious and Christian American voters can't see there's a PROBLEM in the Republican party, that is OPPOSITE to all of God's values, in the sin-fully arrogant snobby attitude of the likes of Herschel Walker's spoiled brat son, revival won't even help our carnality! Watch the video.

IT IS HILARIOUS that Herschel Walker conservatives base EVERYTHING on economics! If gas prices rise, or inflation hits, it's NOT from a pandemic and supply chain blockage, but Biden spending 1/4th what CHUMP spent. The hypocrisy sin is obvious to even those who can't see!

CONSERVATISM'S NEGATIVES

(12/20/21-2)

Rest assured, liberalism has many evils (we may address, later), but FOCUS on the truth we are laying out, and be open-minded to abandoning your sacred idols!:

1. Conservatives believe if you work hard at your job, you're a good American/person. That means even if you NEVER do or care one iota about anyone else!

2. Conservatives have zero conscience about anyone getting hyper rich, and never giving away one dime! That's Capitalism, free enterprise and the American Dream—to selfishly hoard!

They blame the U.S. Constitution, yet they claim Christ, as well, even though He disagrees with that value. It's called "carnality," IF they're saved. Just pure flesh/sinfulness, if not.

3. ANY discussion of ANY repercussions of slavery, and white status and jobs are threatened! We are to pretend none exist, they all have equal opportunities, and all's fair!

4. The FACT that some Americans have more privileges and access to great opportunities and colleges is answered by "life's not fair" JOY at that INjustice, by cons.

5. Subjectivism REIGNS in conservatism! Base ALL of life only on your experience thereof, or that of your close peers!

6. One talk radio host said YES there may be many greedy SOB's in my (GOP) party, but "what are you going to do about it?" In other words, celebrate it, because we have zero intentions of ever fixing it! It's just the way things are! BALDERDASH! The same guy CLAIMS to be a Christian

7. Conservatives worship as heroes those who are rich! and those who finagle ways to pay less taxes than they're set up to pay are especially admired, because taxes are evil. NOT, like Jesus said, render to Caesar what is due him!

8. If one person alone owned everything, legally, conservatives would see NO problem! Just the way things are supposed to work when one person utilizes Capitalism to its maximum "God-given potential," say they.

9. The goal of life is to get as much as is humanly possible! IT DOESN'T MATTER that God doesn't agree! Carnality, again, IF they claim to be "Christian."

10. You even mock and belittle Giving Pledgers as self-hating fools, for letting money slip your greedy, grimy hands, and EVER help anyone else but your fat and happy self and annoyingly spoiled brat spawn!

11. ALWAYS oppose the estate tax, because government has zero right to ANY of MY property I worked hard to acquire.

12. Government is evil. Be skeptical of it always!

13. Vote for taxes to be lower than makes sense to pay our collective bills!

14. Borrow from China, and print worthless dollar bills/QE3, and skyrocket our debt, but make sure government blesses those LEAST needy of more blessings, and more blessed than anyone else—tax cuts to the rich!

15. ALWAYS focus only on the individual. How all individuals work and achieve together is a "liberal" concept (and that word is evil and anathema, just as "conservative" means ""God").

16. ANYONE not a pure conservative (as I am describing their version) is a liberal and a Democrat! Your either 100 percent for all I'm describing, or you are the devil and an enemy!

17. Government can NEVER help anyone struggling! ONLY charity! Welfare is illegal, as with Obamacare! EVIL!

18. The military and cops NEVER do anything wrong! They are such heroes, risking their lives daily, any sins of theirs only the "mainstream media" would talk about!

19. Any human in America should be able to have any gun they want, with zero rational constraints! The government has no right to require registered serial numbers (to trace gun ownership in crime investigations).

You could know NOTHING about how to handle it, or keep it safely locked up. That's perfectly fine, and what conservatives call "freedom." Mental patients and criminals shouldn't be red flagged, as they have a Constitutional right to own weapons!

Background checks are "over-reach," into our cherished privacy rights! and gun show and online gun sale loopholes are GOOD, even if criminals or insane people might access weapons thereby! Most don't, so make an exception for ALL!

There are SO many other items I could list, but have written about elsewhere! YET, fake and fallen "Christians" buy into this free-willed belief system hook, line and sinker, mainly over taxes and abortion! Now let's do a survey of just some of the many evils of liberalism:

1. Liberals have NO problem killing human babies, until they are born and bottle fed!
2. Liberals celebrate, or at least never have any problem with the abominable sin of homosexuality, because God's view of it isn't considered (just as His views weren't often considered in conservatism's many evils).
3. Stealing from people is GOOD, if government does it for you! Taxes should be as high as you can get away with (especially since most libs pay in little if any).
4. Handouts are moral. It shows a "compassionate society." Don't concern yourself with the injustice of forcing people to fund them, and giving them to one's political opponent constituency!
5. White people need to be punished for slavery, and were going to be the BLM punisher generation! IT DOESN'T MATTER that no one living participated, and FEW whites owned slaves! Hide your eyes from facts!
6. National debts is NOT a problem, because I will never be called upon to pay it down, because I earn so little! Offer "free" healthcare, daycare, home down payment, college, student loan forgiveness, etc.! Somehow, that's called justice!
7. Force auto manufacturers to a green standard by 2025 where it's too soon to be done.
8. Get government as BIG as humanly possible, so it can do so many things. DON'T worry it is very wasteful, inefficient, and the people needing things fixed by government are USUALLY not conservatives! Taxpayers can handle fixing their own probs, usually!
9. Harm business, because it makes too much money.
10. Oppose a strong national defense, because that excessive amount could feed the hungry.

I could go on about liberalism's many evils, but I've written on them many times before! The solution is NOT moderatism, but common sense centrist, I've also written much on!

YOUTH ACHIEVING SUCCESS

(12/26/22-2)

HOW do lower IQ'd Americans keep up, in our economy, when NO ONE cares if they do, except Dems and your parent, or parents, and some public school employees?

1. Read, a lot (or listen to intelligent TV or radio or recordings)
2. Socialize with smart people
3. Do away with all distractions!
4. Pursue a career with financial potential, that doesn't require a college degree
5. Never vote GOP (unless you have a great business idea)
6. Train you brain; use it or lose it. Do exercises that strengthen the muscle!
7. Self-motivate to work intensely and with quality! You can WIN!!!

I CAN TELL YOU the elites and executives are NOT going to change their attitude about employees! MBA and undergrad business school teaches business is only there for profits, and Fortune 500 management learns from consultants that workers are line items (dehumanizing them for profits). That MUST change!

LITERALLY, EVERY problem America faces conservatives have ZERO interest in fixing, unless a charity attempts to! They may not donate to it; they may never think one thought about the problem(s). And they have righteous indignation if anyone tells them their attitude is evil, as they claim and believe that's what the Founders intended, and our Constitution not only allows, but encourages!

That document, interpreted their way, is their Bible! They ONLY snag any religious people to their corrupt cause using a FEW issues they have in common, or adopt to win votes, like abortion.

Political conservatives may have ZERO interest in abortions lessening, personally! Their interest is in the religious vote (strange bedfellows/power in numbers). So what does it hurt them to adopt an anti-death position? They're usually old enough not to get pregnant!

CONSERVATIVE CHAMPIONS: THE RICH

(12/28/21-2)

DO YOU SEE pure conservatism ONLY favors the rich?

1. End estate tax
2. NO minimum wage (pay peanuts)
3. No regs to protect the public
4. Taxes lower than government needs
5. Vouchers to avoid public schools
6. NO entitlements for the poor
7. Tax breaks for the rich CONTRARY to Levit. 19:15

CONSERVATIVE MANTRAS

(1/2/22-2)

Where far right DISobeys God: Money is life's purpose, safety net banned, as wealth redistribution; taxes so low government can't pay its bills Poor people always have equal opportunity, already Slavery's effects have been 100 percent overcome by society Rich don't have to give back F Joe Biden, etc.

House Republicans say they're conservatives. I can use that term, and NOT mean what they mean!

I use the term far right or you're conservative, vs. compassionate conservative, or centrists. I've already detailed where the former are NOT made in God's image, politically. Now, let's see that proof in the Bible book my name matches... James. Note that conservatives' acts toward the poor are 2:16. Kind, meaningless words, especially when one has it in their power to actually help.

IMAGINE going to poor neighborhoods, and saying freedom and prosperity for all! Those words ring hollow! Conservatives' golden cow (and as big as 1) is Jas. 2:6 (sue-happy CHUMP) and LOOK at Jas. 4:13-5:7 That is conservatives! ONLY business minded, and at least half of them completely leave God out of the equation, and violate Lk. 12:15.

NOTE whose side God is on, through author James: The poor and worker class! Yes, that's right, God is against the arrogant, sue-happy rich, who aren't tied to Him! Finally, note 1:10: Those conservatives/types are in a LOW position–period! LOOK why the poorer ones are in God's HIGH position, 2:5 Talk about faith and works! Conservatism has the words, but NOT the deeds, toward the poor!

Politics and governing are to be for ALL Americans! Conservatism is NOT! Once again, go beyond your imagination; go to a hood or barrio and say "freedom and prosperity." They'll stare askew, laugh at or shoot you, for such useless benefit to their actual condition. This is pure conservatism, folks! UNgodly sin!

CONS VS. COMMIES

Pure conservatism sees no exceptions, and deals in black and white absolutes. All-or-nothing gun rights, even if life could be safer with refined laws. Free speech, even though society would be better without misinformation. Low taxes, even though they can be too low, etc. It's primitive!

Today, SCOTUS shot a HUGE hole through pure conservatism, allowing mandates. Conservatives teach those are absolutely unconstitutional. Obviously not, but your ideology is flawed! You even stacked SCOTUS, and they didn't go along with your theories! Landmark day 10th Amendment ruling, IMO!

Communists control people by more than fines or jail time, and by excessive punishments, and for menial behaviors that often aren't even wrong. U.S. healthcare worker mandates are NOTHING like that! Apples to oranges. Don't pee on my leg and tell me it's raining! –Judge Judy Make distinctions!

Communists use FEAR to control people, along with excessive punishments, depriving of rights, and cruel incarcerations, or major threats of life, employment or possessions. U.S. healthcare worker mandate has NOTHING in common but government acting! NOTHING!

Communists mandate things randomly, without passing laws (dictator edicts), and on personal whims, vs. rule of law. Their mandates are to preserve the regime's grip on power. U.S. healthcare worker vaccine mandates have NOTHING in common. NOTHING! They're for health and safety, ONLY!

Pure cons say libs want to control people, illustrated by laws banning old style light bulbs. That's not a gun to your head to do something, but disallowing your buying alleged environment-damaging products. Laws do control sins, to some extent, and that's a GOOD thing God invented!

Freedom is NOT the right to have zero government boundaries, be it gun laws or abortions! Freedom is the ability to do right, and freedom from oppression is NOT freedom from government passing any laws that might curb some of your sins society won't let you do, without consequences! I Pet. 2:16

CONSERVATISM VS. CHRISTIANITY (PART II)

(1/16/22-2)

There's a campaign manager I met who goes to my church, and is far right conservative. Because carnality reigns in America Christendom, I feel the need to explain why Christians CANT embrace that ideology, and serve God rightly:

1. It is for zero safety net. The Jews had one, the first two churches spontaneously created one (Ac. 2, 4), and Paul exhorted one (II Cor. 8). Gal. 6:2 and 5 also teach this.
2. It hates government, and calls taxes stealing personal property. GOD instituted government, and says pay the fiddler what he's owed! Rom. 13; Mk. 12:17
3. The very definition of worldliness, and NOT being a disciple of Jesus is living for yourself and for riches. The "American Dream" is exactly that, if giving back isn't added. Conservatives do NOT mention giving back in their ideology.

In fact, Mark Levin calls Giving Pledgers "self-loathing." So from a Jew, no less, God says to love yourself be selfish? Phil. 2 teaches otherwise and opposite! In fact, the giving pledge, among wealthy folk, is EXACTLY harmonious with Lk. 19:8.

4. Progressive taxation is justice, and God is for justice! Mic. 6:8 The more you make the more you owe, percentage-wise. Lk. 12:48
5. God is FOR reasonableness. Jas. 3:17 Absolutely no consideration of when and who should access guns is UNreasonable, as with banning serial number registration, which aids cops apprehending criminals, or proof one knows how to safely use them. Phobias of gun-grabbing are the sin of fear. II Tim. 1:7
6. Favoring the rich is a sin, but that is what conservatism WANTS, in public policy. Levit. 19:15 WHY should those with the most of life's blessing have government ensure they get even more than all others, to boot? It's because they're you or your peers. Selfishness, again.

I left out I Tim. 6:17-19 on the rich giving back. CHRISTIANS, there, are COMMANDED to tell the rich (NOT just rich Christians) to generously give! Does conservatism tell the rich that, or ever publicly? NO; they glory in who has the most, as heroes, and keep your charity amounts private with your tax returns. GOD says living for wealth is NOT what life is about. Lk. 12:15 You are advocating anti-God ideas, which can never be good, and is always satanic.

7. There's a cultic loyalty to the theory, which is idolatry sin, because God is NOT number one. It tries to elevate the U.S. Constitution as the Bible of life, but even then, it's only through the lens of conservative pundits, who have decided government can NEVER address anything not blatantly written of in that great document, even though they do and have to ALL THE TIME, as it didn't list every life issue, written centuries before many modern issues even erupted.

THESE REASONS ALONE are enough for ANY actually saved "Christian" to NOT cultishly follow this religion! Yet they do, as carnality reigns in U.S. Christendom. Repent! I'm NOT saying be for freebies, either! II Th. 3:10

And to abandon EVERYTHING our religion teaches about the importance of truth and morality, to make DJT a savior-like figure, goes well beyond mere carnality, to apostasy, and likely The Apostasy of prophecy, which I'm sure you know nothing about, due to carnality. II Th. 2:3; DO THIS: Mk. 12:30 and II Chron 7:14.

That is the prescriptive remedy to your malignant malady of caustic conservatism. We agree on MANY things, but your ilk wanting my bunch expunged from the GOP, because we retain morality and mental abilities is anathema to God (another word you may not know).

CORE OF CONSERVATISM (PART II)

YOU need to understand far right "thinking:"

1. Our ideology is perfect.
2. Everyone not 100 percent for our ideology is against it, and evil.
3. Don't question our ideology. Experts have researched it; you don't need to think; just accept it. Cult-like mentality and loyalty! Evil, as well.

CONSERVATIVES & SCOTUS PICKS

(1/26/22-2)

Now let's explore conservatives' unifying belief, that often cultishly has them pitted against everyone else in America: Our ideology is being a patriot, as it is the ONLY one that's Constitutional. READ the document, I presently hold in my hands! I will cite relevant snippets they MISS!

We the people (non-politicians, united, in the UNITED States), seeking to form "a more perfect union." Conservatives want status quo; no talk of improvement, or perfecting anything more! "Establish justice." That is NOT typically a con's concern! "Promote the general welfare."

Conservatives care less about general welfare of we the people, so long as their individual welfare is fares well! The Declaration of Independence—NOT the U.S. Constitution—is where conservatives' life mission is found! "Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." READ the document! It does not expressly or explicitly teach selfishness, greed or hoarding!

Even cons' cherished 10th Amendment states the powers not delegated to the feds, "nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states, or to the people." The states OR the people decide what's NOT expressly stated in the Constitution!

It does not read "or to the states and the people," but "or the people." The people have input—not just state legislators! A1: Feds can't establish or prohibit free expression of religion, speech, press or assembling.

A2: Feds can't infringe on rights to keep and bear arms. Infringe means limiting or undermining. Conservatives would have criminals legally allowed to run free (open or concealed carry), as with crazies, as their right—not a privilege! Insane interpretation, as to the foundation of democracy: A moral people! "Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people.

It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other." —John Adams This is the gist of the portions of that wise document cons cling to for their political ideology! Like libs sum the Bible with Mt. 7:1 and Jn. 8:7. Unbridled Capitalism is extolled by cons, NEVER addressing anything bad or negative that ensues therefrom!

And speaking of liberals, their ideology of Robinhood-ism, is also UNbiblical! II Th. 3:10; Ac. 5:4, Col. 3:23, Mt. 25:14-30. I'm NOT seeking to replace the U.S. Constitution with the Bible, but evaluating political ideologies in light thereof.

Any God-fearing person, and any Christian who is not rebelling against God/carnal, SHOULD find agreement with my conclusions, or would have a very hard time defending their vows before God, or debating my mere nobody self! Ps. 22:6/II Cor. 12:11

Literally, the ONLY core reason conservatives would reject common sense centrist is SIN. They don't want to obey God! They will claim it's because they're patriots, obeying the Constitution, but that is a choice, to disobey God, and justify sin. Choose you this day/make a separation!

I DESPISE U.S. politics! Even now articles exist on how conservatives can block Biden's SCOTUS nominee. There is never ANY interest in justice, which is why God turns His back on D.C., and maybe even America. SCOTUS is to be balanced/neutral/apolitical. Not EVIL people's interest!

Let's address the excuse, you're trying to establish religion in government. Absolutely not. Centrism isn't a religion, and is not requiring any religion to be adhered to. It's principles ARE Judeo-Christian based, as is America. Common sense and decency AGREE with centrism, religion aside!

It is 100 percent FINE that cons reject religion affecting politics. It's up to God-honoring Americans to know the differences, decide if they want to associate with bad company (I Cor. 15:33), or if they will lead societal change by obeying God, and role modeling his morals—or just sin!

You NEED four cons and four libs with one centrist on SCOTUS. Anything less is pure partisan politics and you can't be naive Justices don't have leanings!

Update

(1/26/22-2)

HERE is far right media: Instead of praising Biden doing a GOOD thing (defending Ukraine), they find a negative (his BAD U.S. border policy) and say he can defend Ukraine's border better than he can our own. NEVER give ANY credit to your opponent, as Jesus would teach-NOT!

Speaking of Jesus, of the three major political ideologies (conservatism, liberalism and a hybrid), there is only one which opposes ALL these Bible teachings:

1. Life's purpose is not to achieve wealth. Lk. 12:15
2. Taxes are God's idea, and NOT theft. Rom. 13:1-6; Mk. 12:17
3. Not allowing guns in the hands of criminals or the mentally ill, and requiring proof one can handle them, store them properly, and that cops can trace every one back to its owner, in criminal investigations (logic/reason). Jas. 3:17; Lk. 11:21
4. Government has the authority under God to require certain things, and Jesus' fam did NOT protest that as illegal, evil or unlawful. Lk. 2:1+
5. Living for pleasure and self are the OPPOSITE of being a disciple of Jesus! Lk. 9:27
6. One CAN own enough! Lk. 16:19-31
7. The rich must be generous to others. I Tim. 6:17-19 8.

The Giving Pledge is NOT self-loathing, but consistent with a repentant sinner's attitude! Jesus said that act showed salvation evident in Zacchaeus! Lk. 19:1-9

9. The giving away of one's assets, like millionaire HEROES of yesteryear's industrial revolution, is EXACTLY what new Christians voluntarily did, without human prompting, or government edicts. Ac. 2, 4, II Cor. 8.

10. A safety net for extreme conditions and poverty was God's plan for Gods people, the Jews, and was even practiced by Christians (See #9, above). Gal. 6:2, 5

11. Greed, selfishness and hoarding are sins, in the Bible!

12. The people MOST criticized for their behaviors were the elite Pharisees and the ungodly rich. Conservatism knows no such distinction between the rich and powerful, but lumps them all as heroes, even though God says DON'T favor the rich. Levit. 19:15

NO WONDER atheist Ron Reagan HATES that religion is starting to again influence his father's political party! It was not OK that the most sinful man running got the GOP nomination in 2016 (which Ron opposed, till paid off), but you don't want outright morality advocated. Just be neutral on morals vs. sins?

13. Finally, two ideologies fail to see there are two human beings involved in the abortion crisis-not just one! Like wise King Solomon facing splitting a baby, both extremes completely ignore any dangers or needs of one party in the decision! Endanger women or babies. One ideology doesn't!

And there would be ZERO conscious reasons for lost/non-Christian GOP's to care about these matters, like the avowed atheist, satanically inspired to be riled up against God and His teachings (RR), EXCEPT God teaches that ALL humans are to obey His morals! Ecc. 12:13-14; I Cor. . 7:19

ACCUSATIONS AGAINST CONSERVATIVES

I'M ASHAMED this message can't be ignored-as I desire-needing to edit: Political conservatism teaches these values, without often saying so:

1. Greed
2. Selfishness
3. Idolatry
4. Hoarding
5. Every man is an island unto himself. NOW, let me PROVE my claim cons will ignorantly deny:

Conservatism always advances individual effort, and shuns collective considerations. By their interpretation of the Constitution, the pursuit of happiness and freedom (and the unborn's life) is what life is about. NOTHING more! Whatever makes you happy and feel free!

IF you care ANY about non-family members, or society's problems, you are a liberal, and that word is their synonym of satanic!

IF an American ONLY obeys the laws (law-abiding citizen), they are GOOD! The laws do not require us to ever consider or help anyone else not in our fam, except by taxes, which cons ABHOR, as "wealth redistribution," to have a humane safety net.

Humaneness is NOT their greatest asset, folks! Money-making is, and let government have nothing to do with ever hindering that idol, even if for morally good reasons, as biz is ONLY in business for profits, don't you know?

The Democrat charges/accusations that conservatism is every man for himself are ABSOLUTEL TRUE! It being Darwinian is also COMPLETELY TRUE, even though it's often adopted by Creationists.

Unbridled Capitalism has zero probs, to a pure conservative, as money alone motivates humans, to them Greed is good, to them, NOT to God, though they will tip the hat and name Him in their agenda platforms!

Selfishness is virtuously renamed self-sufficiency, just as libs renamed garbage collectors sanitation engineers. You can call a pig a dog, but the label doesn't fit!

Conservatism has NO PROBLEM with hoarding, because one is only enjoying the fruits of their labors! Conservatism has NO PROBLEM with idolatry, of money or power. God does. That's why I again say you can't be a Christian and embrace conservatism 100 percent, or you're living in rebellious sin! Repent!

Conservatism's utter animosity to ever helping anyone else, unless forced, will one day bite them in the butt, by instituted Socialism, and I will be laughing at that reality all the way to my grave, IMO!

CONSERVATIVE EXTREMES

Movie cinema fires and harm threats of violence are PROOF that free speech is NOT absolute. SAME with all other rights! Start a religion focused on womanizing as your religion, and see if government affords you 501C3 status. Unfortunately, many bureaucrats are dumb enough, you might win that claim!

Gun ownership also isn't intended for children crazies or criminals. Do not infringe... bear arms does NOT contradict my claim! Take it to SCOTUS and see if the right is absolute. And, BTW, if you read anymore (many don't), people are already discussing Breyers resignation, and the political bent of every Justice.

They are oath-sworn NOT to let personal biases affect their rulings! Even if they ever have, the safest position is three libs, three centrists and three cons, or better four cons, four libs and one centrist (though that centrist would have too much control/power). They're usually professional and fair!

I'm surprised Biden hasn't YET expanded the Court! tRUMP added three conservatives, and it was already right-leaning! Articles exist on how GOP's can block his nominee. There is ZERO interest in justice; only your side winning (100 percent selfishness sin). May God judge America, soon! Low IQ's and low morals!

And from what I have encountered with MANY lying ministers, I believe we could be facing our final days! Just keep up the division of extremes! SURELY China, Russia, or BOTH will kick our a-ses, rightly and justly so, if not subversive terrorists! Deservedly unaware of that credible threat.

WHERE THE RIGHT IS WRONG

1. Government so small, there's zero safety net. Extremists have suggested ending five federal agencies, including the IRS. That's ASININE!
2. Taxes so low that government can't cover our bills, without borrowing, or printing fake dollars. That's ASININE! Some even call all taxes "theft," as if government shouldn't exist, by having no funds. Some say end all property taxes (recently in Texas).
3. I'm FOR no freebies, but for payback for any received. That's JUST! We're NOT 'gonna end Welfare, Medicaid, section 8, food stamps, etc. The far right wants them gone. I want them revamped. The far right can't be reconciled with! I won't unite with their extremes.

The Jews, God's people, has a safety net for the poor. The first century church did, too. I would NEVER embrace the far right, or I'd abandon God. Many "Christians" are willing to abandon God, as they serve a higher idol (political power, and/or the almighty dollar).

4. I am more pro-business than many far righters, who are ONLY workers/employees/laborers-never management. I am NOT for any evils businesses do, and I am against an unlevel/unfair playing field between labor and management/ownership. God is against injustice, and Christians for the far right abandon Him for a higher idol, again!

5. I am for a strong economy! I am NOT for one that mainly or only blesses investors! A good economy helps everyone rise. Even today, CBS Sunday Morning ran an ad where America must allow "everyone to be successful-no exceptions." Depending on how you define that, I AGREE!

NO severe suffering poverty! Empowerment, education and motivation; NOT freebies! FAIR taxes for ALL, which means NOT the same percent, but the same pain. Poor people required to do compulsory civic service, if they haven't the funds for April 15th!

6. Strong military? All I've ever written supports that. The far right loves to backtrack on this commitment, if they ever are needed for anything but defending our homeland. Ukraine is an ally, and a potential NATO member. Russia and China are taking aggressive steps to defeat and rival our interests, so we need MORE alliances, not less!

I was way ahead of Biden in calling for U.S. troops to be sent there, three months ago! You volunteer to fight, and you volunteered! U.S. interests are NOT letting Communist enemies gain strongholds to be used against us/U.S.! Even globalization ended up biting us in the butt! Don't support dumb policies that can backfire. Our enemies aren't just organized or religious terrorists!

7. My support of controlled border far precedes tRUMP's! He stole most of his good ideas from us, and David is ready to take out Goliath, in public debates! But I digress... NO human should be allowed in America, illegally breaking in/trespassing. Zero tolerance! I have detailed how, many times and many places!

8. I can oppose gay sex, and show total respect and even love toward the LGBTQ community. I do NOT support trying to undo Obergefell. That only causes more chaos and disruption of "relationships" based on a law change.

Christians missed their opening, back when I warned them to fight its passing! I did not! Abortion's solution is multi-faceted, and NOT complicated. SCOTUS will soon teach us the parameters. I won't rehash my solutions, which do NOT stack SCOTUS, or 100 percent disregard anyone but the innocent child!

9. My support of spreading democracy is unchallengeable. I have many chapters on how to defeat dictators. Again, I was MONTHS ahead of Joe on Ukraine.

10. On guns, the far right often cannot think! All they do is fear! They only, gutterally, support guns. They NEVER consider who shouldn't have one, like criminals and crazies. They never think of cops' needs to trace down stolen guns, by registered serial numbers, to catch criminals (law and order).

They want the law thwarted by loopholes, rather than be put out ANY, to prove they own a gun legally, know who to keep and use it safely. That's too much work for them, even though it helps us all! In short, I will NEVER unite with the far right, over these positions.

11. An eleventh would be being pro law and order. For the far right, cops can do no wrong. For me, most cops don't do wrong, but when any do, they have to have consequences, for justice to prevail, and for them to be trusted by all!

I am NOT for wishy-washy moderates, whose positions are based in expedience, or personal opportunity, but have no core principles! I am also against liberal Socialism. I oppose freebies. I also oppose gay sex and killing fetuses at will!

BUT, where Dems are right is here:

1. Fixing problems in society is NOT evil, but good! ONLY having taxpayers pay for that is evil. Hoping private citizens will pay for all that's needed is delusional. Either problems don't get fully fixed, taxpayers get over-taxed, or a much larger charity push would have to be successful.

The far right always fights a cleaner ecology! If you can't make good profit on anything, only charities and individuals should fund them, the far right believes. If public money is used, that's always evil or illegal. I say if ALL pay their fair share of taxes, and the majority then votes for some problems to be fixed, or many, partly fixed, that's what the voice of the people says.

Taxpayers who want no part of that can secede, and likely will, as some hoard and idolize money in ways where they'd never help anyone, even if forced to! I can no longer try to unite with that far right mindset!

I am saying that everyone who is not far right must unite political forces to defeat them! The far left needs to open themselves to private solutions, iterative advanced, only blue state "progress," and more reasonable aims, but join this centrist revolution! Secession or Civil War are real options, if the extremists remain hard core!

AOC is not Jesus-like, as she funds her "kind" ambitions in satan's way-by unjust theft! I have AGREED with her that unbridled Capitalism is evil. I've agreed with Omar that no knock warrants are wrong. I can open myself to some things the far left do, and especially what they aim for in society, just NOT by over-taxes, or only ~50 percent of us paying taxes!

You, far left, are smart enough to stay quiet, if it threatens a Dem win! I'm NOT saying go dormant, but open up to better solutions, and more just ones! "No justice, no peace!" KEEP your hippie Kumbaya ideals! But learn to be reasonable, in application!

I am 100 percent sincerely throwing out an olive branch to Bernie and AOC/the Squad, to say we have to unite to defeat the far right! They have NO interest in fixing any problems, injustices, or in anything but the rich getting richer, BIG box businesses dominating ma and pa, labor scrapping for peanuts wages, and all the other 11 items I just detailed. I will NEVER agree with their 11 issues, so join the massive middle!

Your causes can be funded by:

1. More Giving Pledgers
2. Streamlined government
3. Streamlined charities
4. Revamped Welfare, which empowers self-sufficiency among America's poor
5. Churches doing more for the poor, as Christ would have them do
6. Government profiting any time they can
7. Fair to all taxes, after which voters decide, per state what cause they choose to fix, involving private-public enterprises (or even state funded, in blue states).

I'm committing myself to unite all non-far righters, to defeat the far right, as they'll never accept my reasonable solutions! @AOC @BernieSanders @SpeakerPelosi @SenSchumer

Unity to evil is evil. Unity at all costs, for power idolatry is evil/sin. I am becoming convinced that's what many WASPs will be willing to do in 2024. That's why I am now committed to uniting everyone who is not far right, though taking all good from far righters, in that process!

WHERE I OPPOSE FAR RIGHT CONSERVATISM

(2/22/21-2; deleted message)

Misleading title, only because I have to first say the opposite: I oppose Socialism, and always will, and here's why: Jesus opposes them BOTH, as does the Bible! Let me explain: Socialism is forced theft sanctioned by government!

And it is 100 percent UN-fair, as it punishes the rich, while letting the poor 100 percent off the hook, for paying for things the U.S. government does. That's will always be opposed and unjust, and I live by the motto, no justice, no peace. Fair share taxes is God's way and the only way—period!

Equal pain; NOT the poor paying money they don't have, but forced civic service sweat equity equivalent! Dems NEVER require that; they just hand out evil freebies, though NOT evil in intent (to help people who struggle). It is undeniable and undebatable that Socialism's freebies are sinful, though well-intended.

So now to the answers for why I hate political conservatism, and will spend the remainder of my life working to defeat and destroy it entirely!: Because of its evils; NOT its good points! Its good points are several!

Great economy by low taxes and regs, strong military, law and order, controlled borders, free speech, religious liberty, right to bear arms, pro-democracy, America number one/patriotism, Capitalism, pro-business, American Dream (you can be whatever you want to be), freedom, opposing tyranny, and lower debt and against government waste in all forms.

I am purposely tricking you with that title, getting my disclaimers out of the way before addressing it. But not forever... WHERE I OPPOSE POLITICAL CONSERVATISM:

The theory has regularly circled the wagons against my philosophy of compassionate conservatism, and doubled down when they learned of it. Limbaugh, the top talk radio hosts and most of the right winged media considered it (late 2020), as seen by how many accounts dropped by here, and then decided Trumpism was the way to go. Trumpism couldn't be more far removed from Jesus than satan worship! HERE is where...

Every man for himself is their definition of freedom! They vehemently oppose any organized plan to tackle severe poverty, government or private. They have zero problem with token charity gifts that NEVER systemically address the prob! They support white supremacy by silence and inaction!

That means they are closet racists. They DENY any white privilege exists, because those among them who aren't rich WRONGLY believe it means being born with a silver spoon in one's mouth, when that's NOT what it means! It means being in the majority is a privilege with privileges.

Whites have it good, here, and blacks, not nearly as much. They call this belief and fact identity politics, and playing the race card, when it's only stating facts! They COULD (they will NOT) observe the many poor pockets of town, predominantly black and brown, and wonder why (if they were ever curious), but they have adopted pundits' rhetoric that those two groups are more lazy, dumb or criminal!

THAT is why they're poorer, excepting the few lazy and dumb whites on Welfare, living in trailer parks (white trash, they're called). They REFUSE to learn history or red lining for bank loans, or how blacks were relegated to the other side of the tracks, when they were set free from slavery, and a few got what government promised them (40 acres and a mule), though rarely if ever actually receiving that promise.

They REFUSE to acknowledge many BAD/broken public schools are in the poor areas (we whites sometimes call ghetto, hood, ward, or barrio). They NEVER wonder why, or if it's right that their schools are usually better funded, and call it Robinhood theft if those schools get enough to NOT be dilapidated or deficient, if tax dollars from their area is confiscated to fix the problem!

They even opt out, and use private schools, then never see any problem that if you can afford a better education, that's UN-fair opportunity not given to these who struggle. Political conservatism (as opposed to compassionate conservatism) doesn't want ANY wealth redistribution!

That means Welfare must end, post haste! That means the entire safety net, except that portion where you pay in, is to end. In other words they 100 percent oppose any helping of other people, using their taxes. But then they give so little in charity! The rich give LESS than the middle class and poor, to charity!

They already have life grand! They alone have any excess, and are certain they'll make it to retirement. They, of all people, should be willing to UNselfishly see how their excess could go to help others, but they 'wanna hoard it all.

They will NOW do some TOKEN P.R. stunts, to allay these criticisms! Since I've written on this problem for seven years, one talk radio show now has more of a PSA advertising giving to the poor/charity, as our (Christians) calling.

The CHUMP administration initiated a development zone program headed up by a black member of our former church. GOOD first steps, but NOT systemic, and very reactionary! It's NOT part of conservatism, but a way to address an intrinsic fault in their ideology of selfish greed!

That same DJ said there may be many greedy SOBs in conservatism, "but what are you going to do about it?" That's means status quo! That is hand wringing inaction to fix a prob! That's tolerating and accepting it, because it comports with conservative beliefs!

Conservatism IS a religion, and members ARE cultists! They REJECT Jesus and the Bible, on many issues! Government and greed over God. Idolatry. Government meaning less to none.

They advocate and imply (having not the b-lls to say it outright; timidity sin) that government is evil. Even my hero Reagan propagated that feeling, somewhat (mocking government "help"—grab your wallet!

Political conservatism touts freedom in ways God opposes! They think it means let me do whatever I want. That's NOT biblical liberty! They believe business can do whatever it wants, but history and logic defy that belief!

They are NOT for the majority of Americans who are workers, because profits can be greater if owners pay peanuts! They are ONLY for blue collar workers, now, because I goaded them to end globalistic ambitions that hurt average Joes career prospects! You NEVER heard that, or control the borders so foreigners can't steal jobs, till they latched onto my writings.

For the umpteenth time, let me PROVE they are for greed is good, and unChristian selfishness:

They are FOR ending the IRS and five federal agencies (unemployment galore, and no one to process taxes). They are FOR child labor (Gingrich), demean Giving Pledgers (Levin), want the estate tax ended (so society never benefits from any of their excess), should be for sweat shops, as China (a competitor) has them, and it puts us at an economic disadvantage to not have them.

EVERYTHING is about money-making; NOT morality! The economy, as defined by investors, is their number one and almost only concern! Money over God and morality (where liberals are more morality over money, in addressing inequality, injustice, discrimination, sin-caused problems, and things business can't profit off being fixed).

Conservatives were NOT those who brought us minimum wage, required work breaks and overtime (that cut into profits), safe workplaces, truth in advertising, product and food safety laws, the safety net or fraud laws!

ALL those, as with all regulations, cut into business profits. conservatives only accepted them when forced to! Liberals pushed those causes.

That proves profits are conservatives' number one interest, and NEVER ask me to use the money I make to help anyone, unless I feel like it! Lowest taxes humanly possible, and the least regulations!

Government is NOT to fix any problems in society, and if any problems can't be sufficiently profited off business solving, retain status quo brokenness! But where I oppose conservatism the most is their attitude toward the poor, especially minorities!

That also proves some element of racism, or white supremacy! They OPPOSE any government help or programs to fix severe poverty! I proposed tax-free solutions that were fair, helpful, and never unjust to taxpayers, and they doubled down on conservatism at CPAC!

YES, CPAC and its leaders came by here, maybe 8-9 months ago, but a conscious decision was made that I was not conservative enough to get an invite! HAPPILY SO!

Conservatism wanted UNjust court stacking to overturn Roe! Fortunately, career justices, committed to principle and apolitical objectivity, have ruled against conservative positions several times, despite the latest three chosen for their conservatism!

My-way-or-the-highway arrogance, and shoving YOUR views, to circumvent the people, is NOT God's way, or compassionate/traditional conservatism's way, either! Supporting sin, and saying 'F your feelings' is NOT traditional GOP values, but I see it all the time in tRumpism! Hats and T-shirts PROUDLY advocating sin and ignorance!

I was a lifelong Republican, until CHUMP! I may, one day, return, if the party returns to its core. Till then, I will fight with all my being to defeat political conservatism's ungodly positions! People who obey their conscience are slandered and sought to lose their political positions!

People smart enough to see some Dem policies are good, are labeled traitors. People who stand for Republican values aren't wanted in their cult! DeSatanist said the establishment isn't welcome there anymore. The establishment can change, and wanted to change to my common sense solutions!

Instead, they NEED to remain GOP, but join our new venture allying with non-Socialist Dems, to defeat Trumpist conservatism! NEVER being FOR freebies; never being for abort like a sport. But even more so, being against all the things (and more) I just described. It's well beyond DJT.

Its MOST of what you heard at QPAC! Conspiracy theories are free speech. Lying to the American public 22K+ times is opposing censorship. Cry cancel culture anytime a private business does what it wants (a conservative principle) in enforcing rules of decency! Riot and endanger lives at the Capital.

Believe lies the election was stolen. Support the DUMBest of 17 GOP candidates of 2016, and the most evil politician in our generation! THIS IS modern conservatism, folks! The GOP left me! I never changed, and never will! HAPPY to NOT be a caustic conservative! PEACE!

11. EDUCATION

THE AMERICAN EDUCATION SYSTEM (I)

I just watched Million Dollar Listing, and a $45 million casa in Malibu was featured, with the best-paid Realtors and potential buyers. I don't know what political party they are individually in, but the rich and billionaires have the best this life affords; the world's poor have the least. Everyone would want that lifestyle, as Mitt Romney said, 'I want everyone to be rich.' But everyone will NEVER be... only some!

JFK said, "If by a liberal they mean someone who looks ahead and not behind, someone who welcomes new ideas without rigid reactions, someone who cares about the welfare of the people (their health, their housing, their schools, their jobs, their civil rights and their civil liberties), someone who believes we can break through the stalemate and suspicions that grip us in our policies abroad, if that is what they mean by a "liberal," then I'm proud to say I'm a "liberal."

I am NOT a liberal, but I share those same ends/aims/goals. The poor in America need to learn how to make 'mo money with what they've got! Invent something, write a popular book, start a business, invest, work overtime, 2 or 3 jobs, get better marketable skills, do a bang-up job at work (so you advance), shop your skills around (vs. stay at one employer, never knowing if others would have paid more, even in another city), spend less, and work long hours.

Study what others do to make money, and imitate success/what works. I believe any poor person can reach the middle class, unless 100 percent disabled, mentally or physically! Compared to third world standards, even America's poor have it good, though we don't think so, because we compare them to American standards!

That doesn't mean we don't need to help them do better, or they don't need to improve their situation, but you can always compare to the best vs. the worst, and lose perspective. It all starts with education.

There will always be the lower half of graduates. If their GPA were similar to the upper half, but slightly lower, they'd be unfairly labeled the loser half. If their grades put them far below that medium, the label would more aptly apply.

How can teachers get the MAXIMUM out of EVERY U.S. student? I CAN'T speak for special ed teachers, as those challenges are bridged by special methods, and their achievements will not always rise to the standards of the rest, but they still need to be at their maximum! The TV show, Born This Way, gives me great hope that that can occur!

My daughter has worked with the disabled for YEARS, and that's a gift, and she probably knows more what they can and can't achieve, but you help a person most when you encourage, even push them to be their best!

For the others, the goal IS as I described... most graduates doing academically well, where the lower half is barely different from many in the upper half! It's the weakest link we must care about, as they'll be the biggest drain to tax payers, if they aren't prepared to be self-sufficient, by having a job that can pay their bills, absent any entitlements! That's the goal for everyone but the disabled!

There are probably tricks elite teachers know, that could be shared with us all. The straight A students, like my daughter, don't need them, but the B and C students need to become A students.

I believe you can leave your comfort zone and stretch and learn new tricks! C to A is priority one! NO U.S. students should make C's, in a global economy! B's are even harmful to your career, as grades are about all you have to show for your life's achievements, to employers, starting out green.

Schools should focus on the C and B students. B students need a little help; C's need more help. We can't mass manufacture assembly line teaching! Just saying 'I taught the lesson plan' is UN-acceptable! How well did they comprehend it, to pass tests with flying colors? THAT is the test of a good teacher! Again, we are in a GLOBAL economy. Americans are competing with foreigners for American jobs! We must win!

And some students aren't cut out for college. Identify them early, and train them in career and life skills that will make them successful in blue collar jobs! Plumbers can make 6-figure incomes, as with welders. Schools should get them to that point; not just generically teach academic lesson plans!

So while Dems often say tax payers OWE the lower 44 percent wage earners freebies, though I 100 percent share JFK's same aspirations, I 100 percent disagree with that solution, but advocate for government doing a much better job equipping ALL students to be successful in our global economy! More work to be done!

12. EVANGELISM & DISCIPLESHIP

- 1. Minimum Standard for the Church
- 2. Prayer & Answer

MINIMUM STANDARD FOR THE CHURCH

(3/25/21-2)

Will America even be fully evangelized? We "think" tech/media reaches the masses. ONLY if they happen to tune in! We OWE it to God to objectify our results as complete or incomplete—to a man! Coke, commissioned to get a sip to everyone, would offer PROOF to their CEO! Duh 101

What is the MINIMUM God is calling His Church to? Evangelize EVERY living soul, of age, ASAP, one time! We won't even do that, yet we can do so many lesser things, for evangelism, or just for the tithe!

If God were on the Church's scope of evangelism, Calvinists are right, and Christ only died for a handful. The Great Commission says let no one fall through the eternal cracks, unwarned! We let MILLIONS, as we don't know what thorough is!

If God were on the Church's pace of evangelism, most humans would have to live to Methuselah's age of death, and it would take a millennia to evangelize all people already alive (much less, new births/generations)!

Do we see how selfish it is to value one human so much, that we spend months if not years trying to woo them to Christ, when NO ONE in the entire Bible did that for any one person? Hating the 99 for the love of the one. OPPOSITE Christ!

(5/7/21-2)

We, especially in America, do NOT have a plan for reaching everyone with the gospel—period! No war room, no documentation, no assigning of tasks, much overlap/duplication, and even more omissions, and WE DO NOT CARE! There's zero leadership, or generals orchestrating conducting this war!

We DO NOT CARE, if OUR lifestyle is at a high level, that billions are quickly heading to an eternal fire! We, deep down, believe God is a Universalist, or Hell is a lie! We hardly even or ever think about life as it is in fact! Just what we see with our eyes—assets and smiles!

WHEN was the last time you evangelized ANYONE? How many times have you done so in your adult life? I dare say most would be ashamed to answer honestly! WHY? When will this sin scourge end? You do NOT really believe the Good Book you hold in your hand, or the world occupies your mind more than God's word—period! This is carnality, folks!

Judgment Day will bring deserved punishment, but it's TOO LATE for billions of people the Church consciously, willfully, negligently MISSED with the gospel! Does some U.S. believer think there's water in Hell, or God's a liar?

IF you allow the devil to rule your life, all you have to do is turn off and turn away from THIS message, and suddenly, miraculously, the problem doesn't exist to you! Just talk to someone, turn on a game, or go jog! Your mind can forget this topic near instantly! Mt. 4:15 Skill of Satan.

II Cor. 5:16 Christians are to see humans as ONLY saved or unsaved; NOT rich, handsome, educated, white, etc.! Last eve, the news spoke of a black astronaut's accomplishments. When we focus on skin color, were not focusing on skills, and are DIVIDING our nation! IF blacks are equal, QUIT treating them like you're amazed they can do equal things as whites! BUT, I digress.

A sincere interest in God's interests would require every believer to inquire what their part of the global mandate was! Territories would be assigned, to avoid duplication, with limited manpower

The generals would KNOW who doesn't need to be reached, and who does! We don't have a clue, because we don't care! You can't force a person to care, by guilting them! It has to come by prayer and discipling, but MOST churches don't disciple like Jesus did! WHO CARES? No one? VERY few!

Money over ministry, and power over morality are the top two reasons the U.S. church is so impotent in society!

I should NOT write, now, as I'm angry, and it will look self-righteous what angers me! But, maybe you can learn something. ALL I SEE is people tangled up in the affairs of everyday life, everywhere I look! II Tim. 2:4 ALL I see of people trying to get others to Heaven was to Mormons in slacks, white shirt, tie, clean-cut, NOT teaching Christ's grace gospel. I see people working exorbitant hours, only to come home to eat and relax, then be entertained; maybe exercise. Watch some TV, do family chores, maybe attend church one hour, and repeat.

WHERE ARE THE SOLDIERS? People watching DUMB YouTube and Tik Tok and Snapchat videos about NOTHING. NO societal problems being fixed. That's someone else's job. Evangelism is the preachers job. They are to put in 40 hours sermon prep, said my homiletics prof in seminary. Then preach it 2-3 times, and take off Mondays.

WHERE ARE THE EVANGELIZERS? WHERE ARE THE DISCIPLERS? WHERE ARE THE SOCIAL CHANGE AGENTS? Politicians talk a good game, but get LITTLE done! We watch home remodeling shows, reality TV, sports games, news, out fav sit coms, then shower and go to bed.

WE are entangled in the affairs of everyday life! Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we die! Live it up, because you only have One life to live! I'm at wits end how LITTLE good gets done, problems get fixed, or people get evangelized, then disciplined!

Your pastor RARELY evangelizes outside the pulpit, where he speaks mainly to SAVED people who do NOT need to hear the gospel! Sermons have replaced the relational discipling that Jesus did to the 12. NO ONE even knows their spiritual gift(s). Only the elite few do ministry! We just go and sit for an hour, vote, seven feel all is well! IT IS NOT!

MOST living humans are going to be burnt in Hells flames, every day, without let-up, with no end to their pain or tenure there! DO WE CARE? WHERE is the master plan of who does what, to ensure no one falls through the eternal cracks? I predict such a plan will NEVER materialize! We DON'T care!

ASK the average Christian what any New Testament book is about, in its large themes, or to recite for you 10 Bible verses. WE don't LOVE GOD'S WORD, people! It may never be initially joyous for you to read it, but you must, and you will live in great regret your early days in Heaven, if you don't, and if you don't evangelize!

You may even see the faces of people you know well, just before they're thrown into fiery Hell! They may yell at you, for you will stand GUILTY! I'd rather you feel that now, than then! Exasperating what I see today! God help us.

Sight living for the temporary world! THAT is the norm, even among the claimers of Christ! NO talk of spiritual things, outside church. Mums the word, as you can't speak of politics or religion, from fear an argument may ensue, and minds might be changed for the good! ICHABOD!

I was going to write a piece on motivation. Maybe it's tied to my frustration! DO CHRISTIANS REALLY BELIEVE IN HELL? HEAVEN? ETERNAL REWARDS? Do we believe this life is a drop in the bucket? Our lack of Heavenly-mindedness tells me many do not! Lip service faith in the Good Book!?

WHEN THE HELL is any real Christian going to come to my door to see if I'm one step away from Hell (which I'm not, but most people are)? I haven't had a Christian stranger ask me a diagnostic question in 40 years! I'm NOT alone! You probably haven't, either! ONLY JW's and LD's! God have mercy!

Someone else is taking care of it, right?? Mainly WRONG! You people do NOT project forward, or extrapolate patterns! You allow the years to pass by, and still no major evangelism on your part, or plan for us all! Decades pass; centuries; eternity! To Hell with them all is your view?

Maybe I'll just crank up some hits, loudly, and drown out these concerns! They don't seem to be commonly shared, anyway. Why rock the boat? The Titanic is already filling up with water! (I told you I was not in a great mood, this afternoon!). Be positive, and enjoy life! BALDERDASH!

Paul suffered! READ these two accounts of his amazing life of service to Christ (evangelism and discipling): II Cor. 11:22-30; II Tim. 4:7-18. OUR life accounts sound NOTHING like that! They're just fairy tales of heroes we have zero intent on emulating! Just admire, then back to sleep.

READ the ENTIRE book of Acts. YOUR life is NOTHING like it, but it should be! Those people did ministry! We do secular jobs! We farm ministry out to professionals! Outsourcing! They mainly do it Sunday mornings. APOSTASY! I'm through ranting, for now. Useless banter!

John 1:23 You do not have to do anything, to make sure you will forever burn in Hell! Just keep doing whatever you do, and live your life like normal! It will all turn out OK, somehow. Just have positive thoughts and hopeful wishes! Bullhonkey! You face a flaming fire, EVERY DAY WITHOUT END!
John 3:16

Christians TALK about eternity. They RARELY think about it. That's like driving a road trip with no thought of the ultimate destination. The math itself should sober you up! 80 years compared to forever? Get your focus Heavenward! Col. 3:2 NOT on the things below! Phil. 3:19

MAYBE I need an outlet, to teach a Bible study, lead an evangelism ministry, or teach the New Testament at some local Bible college or seminary? Writing is NOT doing the trick! My friend Venga and I need to take the signs out again, maybe?!

IF I could think of a mechanism to make thousands of drive time cars see a billboard-sized banner that read, "you are heading to Hell," THAT would be fulfilling! Of course, the solution would have to also be attached! "That need not be!" John 3:16

Maybe an airplane streamer that read "Don't go to Hell! John 3:16" A blimp with digital messaging. A hot air balloon with a message on the balloon portion. Thinking out loud!... A skywriting plane?

NO ONE can say God WASN'T in charge of Jesus', Paul's and Peter's finances! If "tithing is the key to escaping poverty," what gives with these three gentlemen? Lk. 9:58; Phil. 4:12-13; Ac. 3:6 The problem is NOT their trusting God's provision, but with that foolish statement!

FEW will like hearing this, but I believe the extreme sinfulness problem in America can be accurately laid at the feet of American pastors who don't lead out in evangelize, and in relationally discipling all their members, using multiplication! To Hell with society, in a handbasket! (4/7/21-2)

(11/20/21-2)

You Americans say come and hear. My word teaches go and tell! The ONLY three examples of come and hear were:

1. When I was on earth, and Andrew was able to bring his brother straight to Me.
2. Lost people gathered, as the host didn't know the gospel. Ac. 10, and,
3. When Paul couldn't go and tell anymore (too old and feeble); Ac. 28:30-31.

You Americans have manufactured evangelism into the sermon process, where a sermon is Ragu—everything's in there. BUT the people needing the gospel aren't in there, in the building! So you ask members to bring them there.

WHY not reach them where they are, and not rely on them having an interest in what's offered at a church, in whatever form the lures come in? The book of Acts shows ZERO examples of 'attraction evangelism.'

There are ZERO examples of 'friendship evangelism,' where anyone started to befriend people BEFORE speaking the gospel. Acts shows ZERO examples of ANY events or entertainment or secular activities to get lost people to a church building.

That does NOT mean any evangelism that occurs, as a result, is evil. But WHY do you people not see that the lost live in apartments and houses, and can be found there 5-8pm M-F, and 8-8, Sat-Sun?

I NOWHERE commanded ANY lost person to do or go anywhere to hear My gospel! YOU make them jump through hoops I never created. WHY is it so hard for your people to understand MY analogies of the farm field and sphere?

ANY farmer knows their own cattle and livestock are their own responsibility. Your people do NOT comprehend that all lost people near their church building are the responsibility of THAT church to reach, more so than any other Christians!

WHY is this so hard for hard hearted people to grasp?

Prayer: I don't know, Sir! Dumb-founded with that brain lapse!

WHY do more of your people not care more that people will burn forever, than whatever keeps them from evangelizing?

Prayer: Again, no idea, Sir!

WHY does no one seem to see value in mapping out who needs to hear, and who doesn't?

WHY do so few care about the lost outside America?

Prayer: You must be rhetorical, as the answer remains the same!

GET THEM INTO MY WORD! I am NOT speaking of hearing sermons! That's NOT 1:1 with Me! Have them read Acts, then Phil. 1-2, I Cor. 9 and 15:10! Grow Paul's heart in U.S. Christians! NO ONE has EVER preached the On Heaven or On Hell sermons I gave you in the late 1990s!

Prayer: NO ONE!

You did, one time, and the entire class left the building and evangelized! ANY spiritual Christians in America need to united with the like-minded, to take mission trips to inspire evangelism via pastors in foreign countries! Don't just plant churches! Plant pastors on for for reaching their nation with the gospel! It is UNacceptable to say we tried, we did our best, we wanted to do more, when you can complete My Great Commission! GO TO One Community Church's Fair, with rides, and SEE if ANYONE tries to evangelize you! You Americans have a BUSINESS mindset about parishioners; NOT a body mindset! ALWAYS wanting more members, for more money. Your own pastor has learned church membership will grow if you evangelize! But MOST humans won't join his church! HE SEES they WILL go to Hell!

Prayer: HOW do you get ALL pastors so to see?

Call them out to becoming disciples, and to choose you this day Whom you will serve! If Mt. 6 is a LIE, concern yourself first with making budget! IF it is true, concern yourself MORE with My will, ways and priorities! I am saying if ANY pastor is more concerned with growing their church membership, than doing their part of the Great Commission, globally, they are NOT disciples of Mine! And not wanting to rub people the wrong way, especially donors, they NEVER seem to identify exactly who and how many actually evangelize, from within their membership.

Prayer: YES the workers are few.

PRAY harder, and recruit and mentor!

"Evangelism is more caught than taught." –Dr Roy Fish The WORLD could be reached one time, before I arrive/return. Will it be?

Prayer: HERE's the problem, Sir: I looked into starting an evangelism association, or joining CC for C full-time. You have to get friends and family to donate! NO pastor has to do that! NO business requires you to hit up personal associations for funding! U.S. Christians are NOT thrilled to fund evangelists, because they get some benefit out of funding church activities! NOTHING from evangelism afar, IF you are temporal minded. THAT is the issue, Sir! Earthly-minded Christians, only funding things they have personal benefit from, IMO! NO thought of how Paul did things, or Your interests, or Hell for people they will never encounter. EVERYONE lives like they'll live to age 80 or above. They NEVER realize thousands of people die every day! Their focus is their job, then relaxing, home chores, entertainment and exercise! They actually believe you can outsource evangelism to professionals! I guess they've never read Eph. 4, or Acts? If it's not in a sermon, they may never know it exists! I'm saying things are BAD, down here, but FEW even see there's much of a prob! What can be done about this?

II Chron. 7:14! FOUR elements! IT DOES NOT SAY if My Christian. It says My people. ALL of them! 1. Humble themselves 2. Pray 3. Seek My face 4. Turn from their wicked ways ALL Christians doing all four things, continually. That's the solution, folks! Good luck with that, Sir! You could be right. Sadly, I fear I am.

ONE gospel presentation and your minimal duty is fulfilled! If you really cared that they go to Hell, you'd ensure they heard seven or more times! CERTAINLY you don't evangelize someone, then do so again a week later. They'd RIGHTLY deem you crazy.

OTHERS cross their paths, too! Seven times is the average. Some more/some less. You guys can't even reach all once, and if you ever did, you'd never know it, because no one tracks the need or results! IF I ever donate any large amount to any cause, it will be to establish a central command for global evangelism. This is embarrassing!

Continuing

I was just 25 minutes away from the one spot where I experienced a science-defying miracle (Hillsboro, TX). I find it IMPOSSIBLE, if God can do THAT, that He can't lead Christians to plan strategies to reach every living human with the gospel at least one time! HE is NOT the problem, folks.

WHEN you know an individual has heard an accurate, loving and empowered gospel, there's relief that that burden is not on your shoulders, for blood being on your hands if they end up in Hell! They take ownership, thereafter! Many Christians are very red-handed!

I ONLY wish people could see what I see: Billions of people from this generation burning in Hell. The Bible says MOST will go there, as FEW there are who find Him as the path. ALL their years wasted, looking backwards! WE CAN'T WAIT until we all see that vision, from Heaven! Too late.

Pastors will be GUILTY on judgment day if they haven't led in reaching ALL in their church's field/sphere of earth and urgency is biblical pace. (5/19/13)

NOT legalism to expect every pastor to have church evangelize ALL lost near church. It's your field/sphere/'Jerusalem!' WHO ELSE is as responsible? (6/30/14)

It's YOU, pastor, as you are the church laymen's' functioning leader before God. Get your laymen to at LEAST reach them ALL. It's your field and sphere! (7/6/14)

MUCH U.S. evangelism like salesman on your lawn in uniform, with a badge, ASSUMING you see him and know what he wants (Ex.: "I evangelize by my deeds"). (2/12/22-2)

Evangelism in U.S. is Swiss cheese block with HUGE holes and no one seems to care. There's a hole in the bucket, dear Liza, dear Liza. (11/14/16)

If Coke wanted everyone on earth to try their product, they'd assign territories and managers and keep tabs of who got a sample and who didn't. We NEVER do such things because were SO selfishly sinful, revival probably will NEVER come.

If Coke hired you to get a sample new product to all in your territory you'd have RECORDS of who got one and who didn't. U.S. churches HAVE no such evidence! (11/30/16)

U.S. pastors will likely NEVER evangelize all nearby lost people, as (I have heard them say) "that's the evangelists job." It's YOUR field/sphere/Jerusalem, and people to do the work of an evangelist! II Tim. 4:5 PASTORal epistle. NO evangelist fully does person to person evangelism in your 'hood! (10/29/19)

IS IT POSSIBLE You failed or made one mistake, in relying on Christians to complete Your Great Commission? I know the answer, but a reconsideration could be in order! If a person couldn't join and donate, many Christian laymen and pastors will NEVER speak to them concerning You!

CON VS. LIB

Conservatives reject and oppose "moderates" because they believe they're sympathetic to giving away tax money to non-tax payers, with no repayment plan! Constitutionally, they have a valid argument! We're a country of laws, and ALL judges should interpret that document as it was originally intended. You amend it if you want wealth redistribution!

Voting for freebies is voting for Constitutional violations, if they're not explicitly spelled out in that great document. Conservatives will always argue this, and always be right! With section 8, food stamps, SNAP, Medicaid, and the rich paying higher tax percents than others, much greater amounts, and ~47 percent paying nothing, despite their wealth, conservatives have every reason to throw a tea party (vs. pity party), as Dems continue offering freebies with no payback required. Maybe government should start opening for profit businesses, because liberals act like it makes money they can spend.

With $22 trillion in debt, conservatives know tax payers will ultimately be made to pay it down, as non-tax payers don't pay in, so cons put their feet down and say NO MORE! That's 100 percent justified!

One problem is every business would want profit margins as high as humanly possible. That prices some out of the market. Another problem is liberals want a society with fewer problems, but problems cost money to fix, which means liberals want tax payers to be on the hook for even more of their hard earned cash flowing to solve usually other people's problems!

Cons can usually pay for their own fixes, if they have any problems, so they either wonder why others can't, or why they have to pay for solving other's problems! Libs want little pollution, no animal, child or spouse abuse, the homeless helped, drug rehab for addicts, and a host of other new government programs. If a conservative has a kid with a drug problem, they simply place them in rehab, and good insurance pays most of it.

My point is that libs look to other than non-tax payers to make this Utopian society of fewer problems, but they don't make the recipients pay in! That's teaching irresponsibility and stealing, which is NOT good public policy!

If poorer folk can't afford to have healthcare, daycare or college, maybe they should opt for no kids; NOT because I don't want them to experience that joy, but you can't make a decision that obligates someone else to pay for it!

And as to healthcare, or any other expense whose prices keep rising, as your wages don't, we need more competition in every field where prices are too high. Business wants to get high-dollar profits off those who can pay them, and might lower costs for those who can't afford them, but that can be a tricky deal, and business isn't 'gonna risk people not needing a discount sneaking that lower cost, as they're to subsidize the poorer ones.

America is NOT a cold-hearted nation—PERIOD! But we also believe you pay your own bills. Sweden, and other "democratic socialistic" nations are free to have huge guaranteed entitlements paid for by their richer citizens, who didn't have the numbers to fight that philosophy (or the rich agreed to it, out of generosity).

It is NOT being less moral or more selfish to believe in self-reliance, and in not subsidizing a neighbor! Seeing your neighbor suffer, and turning a blind eye IS cold-hearted! (Jas. 2:15-16) But that's NOT a manual on government/public policy, but Christian behavior toward a poorer believer!

And EVERY Dem running in 2020 is offering things with zero repayment obligation. Any person will naturally accept free things, and needy people are inclined to vote for them, if given the chance. That doesn't make it moral, but selfishness doesn't care about morals! It's legal! It shouldn't be.

Charity, churches, individuals (including crowd-funding), generous businesses and more competition is how the poor can afford things that increase in price—NOT freebies. But politicians want election, so they promise these things, not doing so morally, but sinfully selfishly!

And let's be REAL... not every poor person can EVER qualify for a good-paying job! Some just haven't the talent equal to that people can provide from other nations with much lower standards of living. Business is NOT a charity! They hire according to their needed labor.

The poor will always exist, they just needn't severely suffer. When any business offers free sample handouts, consumers NEVER ask, should I take it? They take it because it's free. Same with tax payer funded services! They don't care they're robbing the richer half! They often think they deserve it, because the rich got rich by Scrooging the poor. If you agree to a wage, you're NOT being abused.

If your vote allows an inordinate number of immigrants, including illegal ones, and unrestrained job outsourcing, you are choosing to be poorer for your 'kindness!' Less jobs, more competition for the remaining ones, and ONLY business benefits. I'm for fairness to both sides!

Here's how a poor person can climb up the ladder, some: a second job, overtime, kids work, start a business or invent something, invest, learn better skills, hire on where a company pays better (including moving to a state with higher wages), and dual income parents. Belt-tighten if that's not enough. Have enough pride not to beg, or steal from tax payers!

Are you couponing to the max? Using all charity and government services? Ever over-paying for any product or service? Using luxuries? Having too many kids? That's YOUR problem—NOT tax payers'—when it causes ends not to meet!

You vote for reparations, and all the other bull honkey handouts Dems are proposing, and ALL these things can occur to your detriment: U.S. businesses move elsewhere, U.S. rich people do also.

Businesses fire as many as possible ('layoff'), and replace them with technology. Businesses outsource even more jobs, illegals keep coming, as with legal immigrants, and you LOSE more than those freebies you gained! DUMB policy!

Add in Obamacare, Welfare, Medicare for all, free college, daycare, family leave, reparations and a green energy bill, and you're asking tax payers to fund all that!

Most people just want to be able to pay their own bills; they don't want to help others with theirs! That's human nature, and not innately sinful!

Conservatives get accused of loving money, and some of them do, but after funding all the giveaway programs our government has for people, with zero responsibility for pay back, it's only logical that you put your foot down and say enough's enough, which can make you look stingy to politicians and voters who want to steal more from you!

If you want ANY cause championed by the feds, find Constitutional grounds, convince the majority, and find a way that pays for it without shoving the bill down others' throats, just as you didn't appreciate people trying to shove a Roe overturn down yours, through SCOTUS stacking! Get a taste your own medicine.

The trick with moderates is they know in our polarized environment, the Constitution won't be amended, so conservatives can always argue against funding anything, and that's unreasonable. It's really WHAT you want funded that gets debated, and the two extremes have their pet peeve issues!

For example, I'm a huge fan of NASA, but ALL its missions should be cost justified for more than break even, as it IS very insensitive to think we can come up with enough money to land on Mars, when we can't fix problems that negatively affect human beings! It's like we don't care about them, UNLESS missions at least break even.

Aristotle said, "The greater the number of owners, the less the respect for the property. People are much more careful of their own possessions than of those communally owned; they exercise care over public property only in so far as they are personally affected."

He also said democracy will die the day the common man learns he can tap into the public dole, through voting (paraphrased). VERY wise man!

NO ONE works hard to earn money for people outside their family. Why would any liberal think the rich, uniquely, do? If you want a cause funded, rally individuals to collectively contribute to private charities of your liking! Don't try to force tax payers to fund your ambitions, by force! It's your issue... go fund it!

MOST social ills/problems in America are NOT faced by the rich, or tax payers, or they'd fix them themselves, and pay for them themselves! Wanting an ideal society comes at a cost, and there are FEW incentives for funding liberal Utopianism, to any tax payer, because they have skin in the game, vs. a rent car mentality.

Liberals want to make America into the image of democratic Socialist states, such as Sweden, and say they're doing better than U.S.A., economically. THEN MOVE THERE, just as the majority of the world's population does coming to America, because they KNOW this is the place to be—not those venues nearly as much!

SOME of this Socialism bent among Democrats has been spurred on by failure to assimilate some immigrants to American culture. They bring it as baggage, and the Dem party latches on to it like it's a virtue. You're welcome in America, but NOT to make us into your home country's image! Stay home if that's your intent.

And OF COURSE youth want Socialism, as they have little earning power, because they have few life or job skills. Everyone wants 'mo money, but you have to earn it! You can't vote your way into being overpaid. No smart business person overpays labor, but liberals want government to make them do so, nullifying their employment contract's negotiations.

Update

(1/21/21-2)

BOTH right and left EXTREMISTS believe they have a God-given right to force their views onto everyone else, and if that doesn't occur, the right to riot and engage violence. Extremists are public enemy number one!

Everyone who is NOT a far right extremist NEEDS to regularly monitor Hannity, Limbaugh and Mark Levin, if you care about resolving the divisiveness, lies, conspiracy theories and violent extremism root sources. These are the TAMER ones. Crazier cultists have smaller audience (Ex.: Alex Jones).

HATE (& FIGHT) YOUR ENEMIES?

For Dems to be "fought" as viciously as far righters want, they'd have to be pro wife abuse, beating children, slaying pets, murdering teachers, torching oil derricks, wanting Communism, making the rich poor, razing churches, bankrupting businesses and having everyone be unemployed!

EXTREMES: In a divided, polarized nation, these STUPID beliefs are what fuels all the animosity: Hate or idolize minorities, worship the poor as heroes, or ignore them entirely, hurt business for a cleaner environment, or hurt the environment for more profitable business, promote LGBTQ lifestyles in public, or treat them as red-headed step children and sideshow freak shows; gun grab, or threaten violence to get your agenda's way; demonize or kiss up to/cater to/coddle the wealthy; waste money on military excesses, or underfund them; pro criminal or hate them; speech so free lies and conspiracy theories are espoused, vs. cancel anything you disagree with; pro Socialism or Communism, or for unbridled (vs bridled) Capitalism; YUGE safety net or none at all; open borders or let no new blood in; worship or warp the Constitution. EXTREMES!

EXTREMISTS & COMPROMISE

Compromise is a four letter word, only to extremists. Bad compromise is forfeiting core principles, losing and conceding. GOOD compromising is accepting less than your ideal, to find a greater result for all.

Liberal extremists need to lose their desire for freebies taxpayers fund, because there are better and other ways, and handouts (vs hand-ups) empower laziness, dependence, and are Unjust. No justice, no peace!

Conservative extremists need to compromise taxes being as low as humanly possible, though they must be fair to ALL citizens!

NEITHER extreme gets their desires permanently! Invariably, your party loses, and your achievements get undone! Permanent policies that are fair are the only way to go!

EXTREMES' ERRORS

(3/6/21-2)

I will ALWAYS hate these elements of liberalism: STEALING from taxpayers to fund freebies, with zero requirements or repayment, and wanting more abortions and ways and times to abort. I will ALWAYS hate these elements of caustic conservatism.

I will ALWAYS hate these elements of caustic conservatism:

1. Greed is good, lived vs. stated
2. Too low taxes (so we borrow or print worthless currency)
3. Wanting zero wealth redistribution for our safety net, even if it's repaid to taxpayers, at interest.

HATED EXTREMIST POLICIES

(3/6/21-2)

I will ALWAYS hate these elements of liberalism: STEALING from taxpayers to fund freebies, with zero requirements or repayment, and wanting more abortions and ways and times to abort.

I will ALWAYS hate these elements of caustic conservatism:

1. Greed is good, lived vs. stated.
2. Too low taxes (so we borrow or print worthless currency)
3. Wanting zero wealth redistribution for our safety net, even if it's repaid to taxpayers, at interest (by money or compulsory civic service).
4. Wanting no minimum wage, or it lowered
5. Being for ending child labor laws (Gingrich)
6. Wanting sweat shops
7. Opposing GOOD regulations
8. Denying mainly the rich getting richer is a societal problem
9. Denying any historic white privilege, as the majority, even if many whites aren't financially privileged
10. Supporting white or supremacy, by silence (even as I oppose black supremacy)
11. Being for business profits at all costs, including workers and our environment
12. Deeming Giving Pledgers self-loathing (Levin)
13. Wanting no estate tax
14. Wanting no IRS, or four other federal agencies
15. Believing all Democrats and their policies are evil, and all GOP's and their positions are perfect (party worship idolatry)
16. Wanting 100 percent abortion bans, nation-wide
17. Opposing reasonable laws to make gun ownership safer (like registering serial numbers, so cops can chase stolen ones used in crimes; use and storage training proved, no gun show or internet loopholes, and properly used red flag laws, for criminals and mental people to NOT get their hands on weapons, legally).
18. Endorsing politicians lying in office, spouting conspiracy theories, or inciting riots
19. Approving of the rich donating two percent to charity, when average Joes donate three percent!
20. Supporting over-paid executives, or opposing profit-sharing
21. Being for discrimination against LGBTs, except in religious entities, if they're flaming vs. closeted

21. Accepting/tolerating military waste, or crimes (rape, etc.), because boys will be boys
22. Opposing equal pay for equal work
23. Denying the police ever use brutality, or excessive force
24. Caring little about solving poverty, except by a j-o-b that pays minimum wage, or token charity efforts that don't systemically address the problem
25. Being for big oil so much, they can pollute terribly, if profits can be had
26. Opposing all immigrants who seek to come to America
27. Cow towing to any dictator (like Putin or Kim Jung Un)
28. American exceptionalism used to justify Ugly American arrogance
29. The American Dream warped into worldliness
30. Using the Name of "Jesus" to justify any of these evils/sins, as God's standard is justice!
31. Teaching that government is bad
32. Teaching that people have a right to infect and endanger others, because freedom means no mask wearing during Covid. Freedom is NOT just privileges, but responsibilities, as well, and it doesn't mean the right to do whatever you want!
33. Believing major fraud occurred in 2020, which lost Trump the election, by fraud
34. Believing local government is always better than federal, when that value judgment is only determined on a case-by-case basis!
35. Ignoring the whole, to mainly focus on the individual
Those who support these are my enemies. Those who repent, or never supported these are my friends and allies.

CORE OF EXTREMES

(3/25, 28/21-2)

Dem policies are mainly about making changes they deem moral. GOP policies are mainly about having a good economy, which doesn't spend tax money on things that hurt our economy.

Dems are mainly for non-taxpayers (save quite philanthropic rich), those wanting or needing hand-ups/the poor, other nations' people (porous borders), nontraditional sex and LGBTQ, criminal rights, gun control, environment, bigger government/taxes and minorities. Who's for middle class?

GOP's mainly for the economy, and protecting Americans and our assets (borders, low taxes, strong military, oil runs it). It's for traditional values (religion, straight sex and marriage), and the right to protect yourself, your stuff, and to speak your mind (free speech and pro second Amendment)

LIBERAL THINKING

Let's go to a DARK place, and explore the mind of a liberal's "thinking":

1. Money grows on trees.

Government has an endless supply, to fix all life's problems that businesses don't. Fact: Taxpayers alone fund what government spends.

2. Police need defunding, because a handful kill some blacks.
and they don't need self-defense protection with guns, because their job is like everyone else's.

Fact: No other job, but the military, risks death, every day. Even nurses know or can protect against Covid patients. Cops NEVER know what they'll encounter on the scene or car pullovers.

3. The rich are evil. Proof? They're rich. Fact: You're jealous, or wish you could steal from them, but haven't the gonads.

4. Oil is bad. Fact: Oil is the only reason you still live! Before green tech, it's what made America what she is! America hasn't the technology to go 100 percent green, yet!

5. If we confiscated all guns, shootings would lessen. Fact: Probably true, but hunters would be forbidden, self-defense would be by knife or bat, the Constitution allows arms, especially to prevent a rogue government usurping that document, and most gun owners don't kill people! Overkill!

6. The least skilled deserve career pay. Fact: The least skilled deserve the least pay in the market.

7. Business and the rich should fund freebies. Fact: Business gives you a j-o-b, so YOU can fund your spending. The rich aren't your parents! They owe you NOTHING! You're jealous.

8. All wars are wrong. Fact: Self-defense wars, and wars to stop evils in America's national interest are right.

9. Governments job is to increase my lifestyle. Fact: UNconstitutional! YOU are in charge of advancing your own career, through skills, hard, smart, quality work, and connections!

10. National debt doesn't matter, because I'm not asked to pay it down. Fact: It's BAD, hurts the U.S. economy, someone will pay it someday, and seeing taxes as can I get more than I pay in is an EVIL, selfish, U.S.-destroying attitude people hold, because they are EVIL; do you care?

OPPOSITE "thinking" (from liberals) of the far right, per issue just discussed:

1. Government should NEVER use money to help anyone.
2. Police have zero problem with brutality, and should have their funds increased.
3. The rich are heroes.
4. Oil is 100 percent good-little-to-no need for green energy
5. Citizens need bazookas, tanks, and F-16s, as our 2A right to bear arms.
6. The least-skilled need to be paid peanuts, and near slave labor wages.
7. Business and the rich have zero social obligation.
8. Wars are great for business.
9. Government should have zero concern about any citizen's income or standard of living.
10. National debt is a problem, but for the right causes (Ex.: The military, border control), we will increase it.

A MORE BIBLICAL SOCIETY

(11/9/21-2)

A MORE BIBLICAL SOCIETY: THY KINGDOM COME. Biblically, a basic minimum standard for all is required. I Tim. 6:8 The rich also give back generously. I Tim. 6:17-19 Everyone works hard (Protestant work ethic). Col. 3:23 People are self-sufficient, but also selfless some. Gal. 6:2, 5

Dems' view of biblical compassion is well beyond God's! They believe everyone should have college, daycare, healthcare, a home, etc., funded by others (as to the down payment for homes).

The ONLY expenses the poor must work for are the NON-subsidized housing portion, NON-school free lunch and breakfast for their kids. Basically transportation, electricity, phone, TV, gas, water and food served at home.

Socialism is UNbiblical, though a safety net IS biblical (the Jewish nation and New Testament church as Exhibit A). It's easy to be compassionate with OPM, not your own money!

EVILS OF EXTREMISTS

I call for a massive open field meeting of America's far right and far left extremists, with MUCH police protection, to talk. Express/vent your negative emotions. Tell people how you really feel about their political policies. Progress starts with transparency! God's to hate from afar.

Conservatism opposes all wealth redistribution. Liberalism seeks MUCH wealth redistribution. The two extremes cannot be reconciled! Too little can allow people to die, unnecessarily, and too much is punishing responsible people. Goldilocks! ANY help must be repaid, for JUSTICE! DUH 101

Con: Make your own way; Lib: Everyone should have a decent standard of living in America THE one and only issue is paying for the latter! Liberals don't care it's unfair for taxes to fund freebies, because GOP's foot most of the bill. That's EVIL! NOT their intentions! Also evil to ignore all others!

(11/16/21-2)

THIS point CANNOT be over-stated: Political liberalism and conservatism are BOTH satanic, and anti-God; period! You CAN'T be a Christian and fully agree with either, apart from SIN! And the Bible, for ALL people, is God's standard, even though obeying it gets no one to Heaven! Want proof?

Ecc. 12:13; I Cor. 7:19. Liberalism is satanic/sin-full/evil because it steals from the rich to give freebies to the poor. It is FOR killing the unborn, and celebrates the abomination called homosexuality.

It worships the earth and the poor, and wastes tax dollars. But what's wrong with conservatism, some may asked, surprised? It is extreme. It favors the rich, contrary to Levit. 19:15.

It opposes ANY safety net, though the Jews had one, as God's role model to the nations. It promotes selfishness with money, opposite Jesus' many teachings on that subject! It is FOR worldliness, which makes worldly people God's ENEMY! Jas. 4:4.

It would rip I Tim. 6:17-19 commands to all rich people out of the Good Book, even as Mark Levin calls giving back, especially the Giving Pledge, 'self-loathing.' That idea is the OPPOSITE of being a disciple, which all humans are to become! Lk. 9:27

Instead, it teaches to live for yourself and money! Jesus Himself said money is NOT what life is about, but knowing God. Lk. 12:15; Jn. 17:3. And on the issues, here is EXACTLY where it veers satanic!:

1. Guns. ANYONE should be able to have as many as possible; an army fleet would be OK in private hands! Criminal record, mental illness, a child, an untrained green horn? NO PROB! The 2A is absolute! It doesn't matter registered serial numbers help cops catch crooks! It doesn't matter red flag laws alert authorities of people dangerous to society!

It doesn't matter if any owner doesn't know squat about how to handle a fire arm! And it sure doesn't matter if a private citizen owns a machine gun, bazooka, or missile launcher! NO reasonable limits exist, as limits don't exist, nor reason! Militia are to exist to take over the Capital building if conservatism doesn't win every election (J6). THIS IS CONSERVATISM, FOLKS!

2. EVERY American woman should be forced to take every sexual encounter to adoption and/or birth, by force of law and fear of fine or jail time, because we idolize vs. honor life! Rape?

Incest? Mothers' life? Kill the mother and always save the innocent! Sex? It ALWAYS has to be for starting or expanding a family! It is not to be for fun, even within marriage, because they also oppose contraception, because it is modern and not natural, but man-made. THIS IS CONSERVATISM, folks!

3. Taxes MUST be as low as humanly possible, even if they don't yield enough revenue to pay our obligations! Just borrow from China, and print more currency! That contradicts a belief against debt, but hypocritical contradiction is NOT foreign to the religion of conservatism!

4. END the IRS, EPA, NEA, and two other federal agencies. Don't just cut them back/streamline! I guess no one will process or enforce our taxes if we make them low enough?

5. Be FOR sweat shops, as were in a global economy, and China has child labor! Be FOR that, too! – Newt

6. Call anyone willing to ever donate one dime for the betterment of society or aid of people not in their family "self-loathing" if they're rich, and give back! Mark Levin. Because CONTRARY to Christ, if you hoard, you love yourself as you love your neighbor, OPPOSITE Mk. 12:30-31.

7. SAY you love God, family and country. DON'T WORRY that those who do RARELY ever evangelize, disciple, get disciplined, know their spiritual gift and use it in a ministry, have a daily quiet time with God, or improve society one iota! Loving God is a cultural and emotional based feeling!

What the Good Book says and prioritizes means NOTHING! Especially if you attend church, you're being a "good" conservative person, so God is pleased (even as I said being worldly makes one His ENEMY).

8. Oppose ALL government help of anyone, even though the first century church and the people of God, the Jews, were NOT set up that way! END Welfare! END all government programs but the cops and military, and road making. Even education should be private, and politicians should be self-funded, and never make that their career. Term limits! Make them suffer for public service! Drain the swamp!

9. you can NEVER waste money on the military, because America has to be defended! $600K jet toilet seats are NOT a waste of taxpayer dollars, because it's for the military! They NEVER do wrong, even when some raped women in Vietnam, burned houses and looted/raided, perhaps in a drunken or high state. Rapes in the military are acceptable, because heroes can do no wrong!

10. Never compromise core values, then make every topic a core value. Hate every Democrat, and even GOP's who don't cow tow to these beliefs! Divide the nation, be willing to fight and hate!

THIS is the gospel of Jesus, and if you ever question any of it touted on talk radio, you are a "liberal," which is worse than calling a person an infidel! Oh, and don't let ANYONE into America if they're not white, rich or educated! THIS IS POLITICAL CONSERVATISM, folks! WILL you vote for it?

The ONLY fair, reasonable, true and accurate conclusion any thinking person with a working conscience can come up with is that pure political liberalism and pure conservatism are satanic, and Christians can't 100 percent embrace either, which means NO MAN can do so, and be obeying God! Deal with it

YOU NEED TO KNOW, as a P.S.: Many (most) U.S. Christians do not have any clue what God teaches on many subjects! That's why they happily claim conservatism, and rarely if ever DO God's EDBS priorities! It's a grand delusion from satan they have zero clue of! Complicit apostasy in ignorance.

And the far right is all too happy to welcome the carnal/rebellious self-professed "Christian" into their ranks, with anti-abortion RHETORIC, and satanic confusion that theological conservatism equals political conservatism, which is NEVER true. Ignorance and immorality touted, anti-God!

Is there ANYTHING God-honoring in liberalism? Mainly the intentions; not the executions! Wanting to help the poor mirrors Jesus! Doing so by theft defies Him! Wanting no animal abuse, and responsible stewardship of the earth honors God, but doing so at the expense of business doesn't Respecting all people follows God's teachings! Doing so at the expense of touting sexual identity confusion from satan, and never calling sin sin (like homosexuality, no judgment on adultery, fornication or other sexual deviancies), does NOT! NEITHER extreme honors God, but they BOTH like to name Him, when it's convenient!

One likes to name Him often, and even has a litmus test if His name doesn't appear in party platforms! God is NOT mocked! I just detailed for you exactly where He disagrees with our interpretations of His will in politics. Repent, America! II Chron. 7:14

MORALITY IN PARTY. Every extremist thinks their political party is morally superior to their opponents. Liberals think they're 'good' because they seek to help the poor, clean the environment, support bullied people (like LGBTQ) and give women ways out of unplanned sex.

BUT, there is a moral issue in how they seek to fund their ambitions (besides some immorality in glorying in perverted sex, and perverted ways to undo sex): Theft and injustice in taxation, especially ANYONE getting freebies, or never paying their fair share.

Conservatives, on the other hand, have moral claims of freedom of religion, free speech, free markets, and feel themselves 'good' for supporting the Constitution. BUT, they have ZERO interest in helping the poor, obeying God (if they're rich; I Tim. 6:17-19), caring about any black people's challenges, caring if workers can eat and survive off what they're pad, and other things.

And on funding their ambitions, they have a moral issue in NOT caring if the IRS raises enough revenue to pay its bills! Just keep taxes low. NP, neither party is perfect, has a moral edge superior to the other, or really wants to be moral/good, if that interferes with their ambitions!

Conservatives will even fight against compulsory civic service as being unConstitutional mandates from a Communist government, and deem it Patriotic to never lift a hand or give a dime (or damn) about improving anything in society!

Leave me alone/don't tread on me, because status quo is FINE! I am fine, so life has to be fine for everyone else! #Subjectivism YES, there is a LACK of saved people in BOTH extremes, which NEEDS God, and because they lack Him, they lack any desire for moral improvement! Church: Do your job.

CAPITALISM OR SOCIALISM?

GOP's BAD at getting negative or sinful terms or events trending on Twitter! EVERY DAY the libs have dirt on Republicans. ARE YOU TELLING ME all libs act as saints, and only GOP's (mainly far right) do all the drastically stupid stuff? I don't believe it! 'Gotta equal out the coverage!

I will pile on! Democrats do NOT clamor for nontaxpayers to do more! They hit up taxpayers to do more. Nontaxpayers already don't do one thing to fund our government. Why not get them to do their fair share, vs. attack those doing more than theirs? It's because you crave their votes!

Dems believe people can own enough, after which time their excess should belong to government. Conservatives don't believe anyone can have enough, or that at any point some of their excess should be given away/go to charity. BOTH are wrong!

The stereotypical dem voter says to themselves, "I want more things in life; I deserve a better lifestyle; I have it bad; someone needs to help me achieve a better experience of life." That someone is YOU, through whatever employer agrees your skills deserve that level of earnings!

"I want freebies" MEANS "I want to steal, but I'm not man enough!" I'll hire politicians to do that dirty work for me, and never have to face the victims. Dems dig up centuries old history, to "justify" stealing handouts from taxpayers, who participated in NONE of those events!

I don't know what percent of Dems are rich, but they CAN'T want to part with much more in taxes! Probably they just want to force all the other rich to share their pain, when they remain Dems pushing for Socialism. Can't just contribute, themselves, but want it nationalized.

People don't understand sustainability. For helping U.S.'s poor, "help" has to be sustainable/regenerating, or all you do is drain some to help others. Self-sufficiency MUST be the end and aim; NOT outside "help" of any poor by anyone! Adult expectations! NO Socialism theft from taxpayers.

THIS is Capitalism vs. Socialism-Give a man a fish, you feed him for a day-Teach a man to fish, you feed him for a lifetime. That idiom is so famous, because it's so sensical. EVERYONE likes it, till it's applied to U.S. freebies. Then libs 'wanna hand out scaly fish on a massive scale!

(1/15/22-2)

Checks and balances are NOT oppose everything the opponent proposes, and everything the opponent passes is a loss for your party. This value system and attitude is anti-American, and NOT what the Founders designed! It's thwarting extremes and evils of anyone!

Sins and idiocies of Conservatism:

1. END five federal agencies. Unemploy millions. amen! And lose any and all good they do (IF you can recall which 5).
2. END the IRS, so tax returns never get processed, so the feds are not funded. The Treasury can go broke.
3. Child labor laws ended, because China (our competitor) used sweatshops and child labor.
4. Make taxes so low, the U.S. government has to go into more debt to stay afloat and pay required bills.

5. Guns for everyone, even the criminally insane, suicidal, those incapable of using them, or keeping them safely stored away.
6. Force women to self-abort, or poor women to spend money to do so in blue states.
7. Rape and incest victims MUST be forced to take to term, upon threat of fines or jail time, and the mom must choose suicide, in deference to her child.
8. Any police brutality remains behind the code of silence, like it used to. Military and cops can't ever do wrong, like in Vietnam, where towns were burned, women raped, and stuff got pilloried by drug-high criminals, on occasion.
9. NO immigrants allowed in, unless they're educated, rich and preferably white (or Asian and Indian).
10. Do NOTHING to lessen pollution! Enjoy the sight, smell and diseases that result.
11. Favor the rich, public policy-wise! NEVER ask them to obey God (I Tim. 6:17-19). Hoarding, selfishness and greed are good, and only let them enjoy all life's fruits!
12. END every safety net program, as wealth redistributing. NO Welfare, Medicaid or Obamacare! Let the poor die of starvation, if they're not rough and tough enough to handle it in a Darwinian dog eat dog environment supported by Creationists.
13. NO minimum wage, because we all know businesses will do right by employees, because they aren't just looking to profit and watching their bottom lines, right?
14. END the estate tax, because America supports people getting rich, and NEVER helping out society, or anyone else. That's the American Dream and American way! Screw everyone else; chase your fortune, as that's what God says life's all about, right? (wrong)
15. Favor Israel, over ALL Arabs and Muslims, even when she sins, and when they aren't violent or supporting terrorism. THIS list is EXACTLY why a centrist third party MUST rise in the U.S. of A, soon, people! Extremes, errors, sins and stupidities, adhered to like a cult! Brainwashed mind-numb robots, D and R!

IF EXTREMISM CONTINUES

(1/27/22-2)

HERE is exactly where politics in America WILL go, if extremists continue dominating both parties, just short of secession or Civil War:

Dems:

1. Allow in as many poor and dumb immigrants, legal or illegal
2. Make D.C. and Puerto Rico states, so they gain two, for voting
3. Voting rights laws that allow for fraud, all in the name of racial equality/easy access to voting
4. Public education reinforcing Socialism
5. Dem politician promising the moon in freebies only taxpayers pay for
6. Debt escalating to near bankruptcy
7. Riling up racial strife against whites, from centuries of resentment, including involving the cops
8. Gerrymandering to their favor, everywhere they can
9. Blue state citizens taxed out to red states, to turn them purple
10. Stacking SCOTUS and federal judgeships left. ETC.

GOP:

1. Gerrymandering in their favor in every red and purple state.

2. Complete control of our borders, including never letting any immigrant in (maybe if educated and rich?)
3. Voter suppression laws in red states, to make it difficult and time-consuming to vote.
4. Buying off any politician they can lure, to vote their way, including Democrat moderates.
5. Businesses firing and not hiring Democrats, or moving jobs and their headquarters overseas.

YOU WILL NOTICE, the GOP has MANY less options, as offering freebies is easier than offering opportunity! Win!

Let's address liberals' favorite tactic: giving out freebies. Liberals say 'no justice, no peace,' but cherry pick when they care about justice, as burdening taxpayers with paying for handouts for non-taxpayers is UNjust! THEY DON'T CARE! It weakens their opponent party's coffers!

Justice and truth aren't a concern for EITHER of the two extremes! JUST getting their way! And doing that only gets your way for a season, then it gets taken back/way, when you lose. That means NOTHING gets permanently done. Two steps forward, two steps backward. It's ASININE, yet we keep doing it; insane!

Blue states and liberals can FREELY fund others' lifestyles! It's NOT against the law. They want others forced to join that, and they believe the rich are evil, because they're rich. They had to have done something evil against the working poor, to be rich! That's a false premises of liberalism.

It's a GOOD instinct, to wish and want well for the poor! You can even imagine a society where they don't exist. But when push comes to shove, and the rubber hits the road, put your OWN money behind that ambition! Those who don't want to join in have no Constitutional obligation to do so!

Where the far right is selfishly greedy and harbors hate:

1. They don't choose to obey God. I Tim. 6:17-19 Giving back to society is anathema to them, and is called 'self-loathing.'
2. EVERYTHING must be significantly profitable, or it should never be done by government-only charities. Then they hide their charity giving!
3. ANYTHING business can do to screw the little guy they will do, if it makes executives more profit! I have detailed all their tricks, many times and many places.
4. Self-sufficiency/personal responsibility is so much their mantra, don't EVER ask them for one dime to help anyone NOT raised set up for success!

They are mainly white, from America's history of whites having most of the good jobs. And because 'ducks hire ducks,' blacks and browns usually have to go the extra mile of effort to get an equal shot, even if equally qualified.

That truth is called favoring minorities to punish whites, by the far right, as ANY talk of slavery's impacts on this generation is anathema to them. YOU undergo a hundreds of years behind anti-head start, with the psychological and fiscal crippling of whites being far ahead, and see if you think equal opportunity exists.

I have NOT said give any reparations, special treatment/affirmative action, freebies, or help anyone who doesn't need any help! I've simply said go view the poorest neighborhoods, ask yourself why they're often black (and brown), and remember history! THEN, favor just solutions! That's all! That's NOT racism.

WHY are "browns" often poor? Language barriers, possibly some cultural barriers (maybe not), but especially coming here as immigrants, originally. They're hard-working, sometimes birth too many kids, but they also suffer the economic head start deficiency, historically.

When they immigrate, they start from scratch, and are often allowed in to do jobs Americans won't/don't 'wanna do. That's work at the low end of the totem pole, financially. OBVIOUSLY there are exceptions for BOTH black and brown, but I'm explaining why large bunches of 'em are often poor! Fix it!

LESSONS FOR LIBERALS

By self-description, Dems are the champions for what CHUMP calls "losers;" life's down-and-outers. They use Jesus as the model for caring for the sick, poor, widow, orphan, imprisoned, NEEDY. 100 percent true! BUT, He didn't use tax dollars to help them. The book of Proverbs describes lazy vs productive poor. God makes a very clear and obvious distinction, morally!

Liberals want society to "care" about and "help" the poor. Let's drill down on that ambition: The "help" they seek is ALWAYS money from taxpayers, in the form of handouts and freebies! THAT MEANS hard-workers OWE. (10/29/21-2)

Let's go over this again: Liberals make heroes of those who fund some living expenses of people not in their family or employ, for WHAT reason? Because we're to be "compassionate." Conservatives response is get a job and work harder. Self-sufficiency. What's the answer?

The Jews/Gods people modeled the answer with a very limited safety net. JUSTICE (Gods concern) vs. productive poor. Centrists would argue there is no free lunch, and you pay back anything you're given to get by!

Also, if YOU wouldn't overpay a lawn boy, WHY should any business overpay for labor? That's UNfair! The ONLY issue libs legitimately have is fair labor negotiating playing field (which I described, yesterday, as NOT at all fair).

THE solution to Americas poor is allowing unions, minimum wage that adjusts with the economy, profit-sharing, public education that prepares all students for jobs and handling life's expenses, Welfare reformed to empower self-sufficiency skills, and any and all handouts being paid back, as only temporary, till one gets back on their own two financial feet, as adults.

Beyond that, private charities and churches/synagogues/mosques and individuals and blue states take over any gaps. Hard, smart work, wise buying decisions, and compulsory civic service of 10 hours a year for every American not in public service already, to be used any way they please, to save tax dollars going to government functions, including helping the poor.

I agree with Mr. Romney, ideally I'd love everyone to be rich, but it will never occur! Realistically, we LITERALLY, that is all you can demand from taxpayers, EXCEPT everyone must pay fair share taxes-period, first, and after government is streamlined, so no one pays for waste. Jesus said you'll always have the poor! He did NOT say that was good, and He did not say you will always have severe poverty.

He cares about the poor! Just look at His three-year ministry! It's the far right who has zero concern for them, and even Ronald Reagan's son. Who doesn't want any religion spoken of in politics. How convenient! We simply need no severe suffering of poverty in America. No child left hungry.

FORGET religion, Ronnie! It is human nature and humane to have some empathy for the severely hurting! EVEN YOU would stop your vehicle if you saw a person run over by another vehicle, with no one else around, IF the culprit wasn't armed, and the victim was bleeding! That's NOT religion.

The number one problem, and number one reason the far right has zero public concern for the poor (meaning no government involvement) is:

1. They choose to NEVER see blight, first-hand, and,
2. They are OK, and ASSume everyone else should be too, as it was not too hard for them (AS IF circumstances are the same).

It's not easy walking in another person's moccasin, as Shaq's recent commercial humorously illustrated. But IF the show were ever on the other foot, you would appreciate someone doing so. The far right believes that will never happen to them! WHO needs help more than any in America?

NOT the rich! YET, the rich are exactly who the far right cater to-policy wise-as heroes of society. They need the LEAST government assistance, through policies! God's NOT very likely to miraculously intervene and make things right, by force! He has U.S., and we must see the poor need the MOST help.

Finally, remember the lawn boy analogy! Taxpayers work hard, and don't work to have funds to help strangers! JUSTICE has to back all our actions toward the poor. I also forgot equal job opportunities must exist for ALL! Not legalized discrimination (the UNfair "ducks hire ducks")!

From hearing only 10 minutes of two talk radio shows:

1. They have no nuance! America first means allow Communism to spread; ONLY care about U.S. workers.
2. Bongino is major source of hate and division! "Dumb a-s Dem party".
3. They don't want morals! No intent to improve. ONLY loyal to ideology as religion. You CAN'T unify with that/them!

The far right wants NO change to their beliefs. They don't want better ideas. There must be too much money tied up in their beliefs! They absolutely consider everyone not in their cult enemies. That's why everyone else MUST unite to defeat them vociferously! They are closed-minded!

Hyper liberals, at least CARE about morals (except for babies and sex). They stick to their ideals, but are smart enough to be quiet when they hurt party win possibilities. They didn't insist moderates leave their party! They're smarter than the far right! They want moral things, like problems solved.

It would be a WRONG interpretation of Jas. 4:11, to say Christians can't call out fellow believers for their sins which draw shame to the Name! It's NOT slander, if true, and we are commanded to rebuke brothers continually sinning. Jas. 5:20 Speak no evil isn't speak no truth! Duh 101

SYRIA-SLY?

The lengths to which Chump and his handlers will go to defend whatever he does as good and smart is unprecedented! Talk radio, collectively, said the following about his Syria debacle:

Obama killed many more, not enforcing the Assad red line, the Kurds have evils we aren't talking about, Turkey wasn't 'gonna give the Kurds their own homeland, anyway, the media's darling (Obama) could do no wrong, this was a "unique negotiating style," and the Kurds and Turkey will now be doing great.

Let's assess this obsession with positivity. YOU, the average human, are manipulable by hype and marketing, IF you CHOOSE to believe anything positive is morally good, and all negativity is satanic. Chump CANNOT accept reality, facts or any criticism! That's ego and insecurity—not machismo!

The TRUTH is that tRUMP made an impulsive decision to distract from impeachment, didn't care one iota about the implications, because he thought it would benefit SELF (his god), and when it backfired (as anyone would expect it would), and even his own party turned on him (as they should, and should have many other times), he sends a Monty Hall Let's make a deal letter, and threatens to destroy an ALLYs economy if they do what he gave them the green light to do!

It would be tragic and horrifying, but so many people can't analyze what's right in front of their own nose!

The man CAN'T admit mistakes, or apologize! THAT IS ARROGANCE! And he's a SALESMAN! He's always hoping another showman, P. T. Barnum was RIGHT, that There's a sucker born every day, so if he can find enough of them, he can convince a large enough constituency to naively, stupidly and wrongly believe his antics were right, moral and even calculated.

He had no more plan on how to keep ISIS fighters jailed and Kurds safe as a firefighter arsonist who sets the flame, then swoops in as the SUPPOSED hero, but the fire rages out of control, like a Cali wildfire.

Erdogan MUST think the dude is bat crazy, and he's right! What DEMOCRACY tells another nation you're free to do what you've wanted, then when they do, threatens to destroy their economy? Talk about abuse of super power powers used for good vs. ugly colonialization-like Americanism.

This WASN'T American Exceptionalism, or spreading freedom and democracy, but a POORLY planned, executed and NOT thought out MISTAKE; a rash and hasty/impulsive reaction to impeachment, and poll numbers rising for its support! LIARS spin it any way other than as I just described!

Mitt Romney was RIGHT when he said, "What we have done to the Kurds will stand as a blood stain in the annals of American history." 45's handlers will say he did something brilliant! LIARS!

Update

Now let's apply these lessons to Syria. His positivity police criticized the Kurds as imperfect allies. THAT LIKELY FACT WAS NOT A REASON TO ABANDON ALLIES. Chump's positivity police said Obama killed more people. WE ARE IN 2019. Obama has been out of office 3 years. And Obama NEVER gave an order guaranteed to kill our allies.

Positivity police said the Kurds weren't 'gonna have their own land. PERHAPS TRUE, but that was NOT why America was helping them be defended. We weren't holding off Turkey to give the Kurds land, but protecting them from annihilation and genocide, plus a likely toe hold in an important volatile region.

Chump himself claimed he made a unique deal. That is a LIE. Sane Americans from both sides of the aisle made him eat crow, and back-track from a BAD decision. You're a spinner, who says you made a deal. HOW was the deal made? Morally and rationally? NO. AFTER THE FACT of blowback/pushback, and zero plans for the consequences of his BAD, impulsive decision, he made a deal by THREATENING TO RUIN TURKEYS ECONOMY—a NATO ALLY! Threat of economic if not military force for Erdogan doing exactly what CHUMP invited him to do, in their Sunday evening phone call.

IF I learned anything to become a lawyer, it's what DISTINCTIONS are, and how to make them, by critical analysis. MOST Americans don't go to law school, and unless they take a debate class in high school or college, they AREN'T taught how to decipher truth from lies, or MAKE DISTINCTIONS.

I'm sorry the U.S. education system has so failed us all that DUPES can hear positive words spun to justify a sinful and stupid decision to be a great, well thought out, unique deal making skill of a fool!

You deserve low wages if you can't think, but your education is NOT teaching you how to "think like a lawyer!" I just did, I hope! Black is not white, nor are all shades of grade the same!

THE NEW COLD WAR

IF you were evil, and hated a decent nation, for whatever reason(s), and wanted them destroyed, what might you do, if you couldn't take them militarily?

Send spies, send citizens to infiltrate their colleges and businesses, hack their computers, try to destroy their economy (using various means, like dumping, slave child labor, currency manipulation, buying up their real estate by shadow companies), getting them to use your citizens as laborers, then stealing their trade secrets and making their businesses want to flee back home, spy satellites in space and in Argentina, uniting allies for U.N. votes against their interests, trying to break up that nation's alliances (Brexit, NATO and economic trade deals), drilling in the Antarctic in disputed international waters, military jet fly-bys that irritate but provoke no violent response, piracy of commercial ships and ramming or blowing holes in them, appearing to be nice and diplomatic, as political leaders, strengthening your own alliances (BRIC, North Korea, Cuba, Iran and Venezuela), seeking oil reserve domination, and AI monopoly, researching ways to shut down their energy grid (electromagnetic pulse, etc.), building man-made islands, and expanding your territory by deals to access resources in third world nations, always denying evil intentions.

Now wait. Does any of this remind anyone of China and Russia? We are in a cold war, folks! Wake up and smell the coffee. America is at risk as you sleep.

But just let the politicians handle that, as they handle America's affairs so well, already, right? I just want to know what new song dropped, who won the game, where black Friday sales are the best, so I can be a better gamer, and eat my delicious foods. DON'T STAY IGNORANT, AMERICA!

I want to sleep, so I leave you with one last thought... Russia, China, Iran, Venezuela, Cuba, North Korea... what do they all share in common, that's uniting them against us? Communistic-like governing that hates our freedoms and democracy. The cold war is ON! DON'T DENY REALITY, folks, blind and sleepy! Zzz. (4:40 am)

GLOBAL FOREIGN POLICY

THIS IS LIFE: There are times life costs more than one can afford, like with serious illnesses, for the poor. It's great when a society or individuals help out, like when natural disasters occur and neighbors help neighbors. Insurance is a must, but our government chips in, when people don't have it. You can't avoid the reality of some people helping others, by taxes or otherwise, when they don't get a fair exchange for those dollars!

Even tonight, we had a water emergency, and if every man for himself was an ethical law of life, my amazing neighbor would have ignored our cries for help, and been fully, morally justified! Yet, some people's political view teaches exactly that. They push rugged individualism, but never the he ain't heavy he's my brother which Scripture teaches.

God made mankind interdependent! It's awesome to be financially independent of all others, but many will never achieve it. If we simply take a look outside our own experience in America, every birthed soul has to make it/survive. Legally, they're NOT our problem if they're NOT Americans!

Yet America, historically and always has helped out in crises and with foreign aid. WHY? Because it's the RIGHT thing to do! Not because we have to. Am I my brother's keeper? To some degree, but never to the degree you empower them to not be self-sufficient.

I'm no expert on poverty pockets across the globe, but I've watched public television before, and I know there are places where people live in caves, cardboard huts, thatch roofed shacks, with no clean water or sanitation, or electricity, air or heat, roads or cars.

HOW can Americans live life chasing money, and NEVER even think about those fellow humans? I am NOT one who believes America owes the world a living or good lifestyle, because we're the richest. I do think there's a lot of truth in Gandhi's "The world has enough for everyone's need, but not enough for everyone's greed."

Do I believe all rich people should be made middle class? Absolutely NOT! Do rich people OWE the world's poor something? NOT legally! Morally, if you can live off conservative interest from your nest egg sure to make it to your grave, you SHOULD start thinking about others outside just your family. Many won't, but I encourage you to.

IF we were to solve all the world's problems and poverty, there would hardly even be a middle class, or any resources remaining. As Bill Clinton said, the obvious targets for BIG funding are successful business war chests, governments and the rich, because they all have excess money.

But let's analyze that claim a little deeper. Why must they give more than others? Because it's their duty before God, yes, but if we're 'gonna make or encourage them to do so, shouldn't we ALL be a part of the solution, so there's shared sacrifice? Why single out those three entities?

And you never let the poor off the hook! Every poor person in third world nations has to be taught survivalist skills. They need clothes, food, clean water, sanitation, protection from the elements, and maybe some death-preventing vaccines.

It is NOT sinfully cold-hearted to say that's ALL anyone can expect, anywhere. There is no law of nature saying because you were born, you deserve a high lifestyle!

And it's NOT evil that some people enjoy that! What's evil is when we, as world citizens, allow any to severely suffer. We are our brother's keeper, collectively, and God RARELY pours manna down to feed the indigent! Observation alone seems to tell us He leaves figuring these things out to ourselves.

For any and all who don't have a job, you have to learn to live off the land! And governments/politicians are ultimately father figures for their citizens, in that they are most responsible before God for the welfare of all their citizens! Nations have borders. One nation's leader has charge of those under her/his care.

The adage is true, we're only as good as our weakest link, and Gandhi's, "A civilization is measured by how it treats its weakest members."

What can governments do, in poor nations? Find ALL natural resources for sale, like every valuable under your land. Use your land for efficient farming.

Educate your people for free, off the internet, even if there's only one mega screen tied to a computer, per township. Seek to train your people to be laborers richer nations will hire. Allow richer nations' military access to your lands, in exchange for money or needed essentials. Teach survivalist skills.

Encourage people NOT to birth babies, unless they can afford them! Incentivize Western companies to open shop in your nation. It will be a hard sell, as you have so few luxuries and amenities. Cater to making them want to come there to bring jobs! Trade labor for natural resources.

And what of dictatorial nations, and Communists? It is NOT evil to want to fairly distribute limited natural resources, and centralized control can be efficient, but it IS evil for any man to have so much power, that they're deferred to as a god-like figure, like Kim Jung Un. That is 100 percent ridiculous!

His weight alone proves he's NOT a god, and his hairstyle (joke). Communist nations DESPISE democratic values and freedoms, like the crackdown in Hong Kong. Elites in power have a sinful arrogance problem, wanting to be treated the best in their country for ZERO rational reason; only because they are in power.

And it's so good for them, that none of them want to give it up. Forget God's view... we all know He opposes them. Let's speak purely as humans. Why would any human ever believe another of his kind deserves to have all the fun and perks? It's ridiculous and irrational.

Yet, the commoners can't seize power easily, to bring about more fairness, as the establishment surrounds itself with loyal dupes and military personnel. They also, often, have laws against an armed citizenry, for exactly that purpose—to ensure no one can take away all their toys and joys of this life. That is the ultimate selfishness and arrogance!

You are NO better than anyone else! You're just another human, and an equal at that. I pray the people living under the dark hand of Communism rise up and end that evil system, ASAP!

How? You've got to know who you can trust. Get that circle, and broaden it out to all who hate the tyranny, but be 100 percent certain that NO government loyalists secretly infiltrate your connections! Your sheer numbers, like the Arab Spring and D-day, can overpower them, with many casualties.

There are also products you can find to use as weapons, if peaceful protests yield no results. Other nations sometimes covertly help. You are here on earth for maybe 80 years. It is NOT God's will for you to live like a slave to any man! North Koreans, especially, are NOT being allowed to live as God intended! Something has to change, post-haste. ALL nations should agree to that!

Incentivize the man child to do better for his people, and cease human rights abuses, or take him out by drone strike! Russians, Cubans, Venezuelans, Iranians, Chinese—you are human beings! You are NOT animals, or chattel/property of your government! Your so-called leaders are just like you. NO rule of life says they can keep those jobs forever, or deserve them! Fix it.

Don't necessarily jail them in dungeons, but envision a time in the future when you are allowed to have freedom of speech, assembly, religion, right to bear arms and a fair trial, and to meet your accuser in court, and to not incriminate yourself, and where you can own property, and be free to live your life as you want to. That's the life God intends for us all!

And this is NOT Americanized propaganda, but the God of the Bible through Jesus showed us that all men have worth, so much that He died to ensure none of us burn in Hell for our sins. Demand that same dignity Jesus showed, from your government!

The ONLY reason you are not experiencing that quality of life, is because a handful of humans have decided they deserve to control you, and let only their close associates enjoy the best of life. WHO DIED AND MADE THEM KING? Certainly it was NOT Jesus! He died to make all men free.

Any politician who doesn't have that aim for you is of the devil. Don't be ruled by human devils! You are a human being, created in God's image, and God Himself does NOT decree that certain men or families should have all the fun and power! Fix it!

It's your duty to bring Thy kingdom come on earth, as much as is in your power, and you have power with knowledge, organized numbers, and determination to fix your nation.

TRUST ME... most people in your country want what I'm describing! You live in FEAR that you can't talk about these things, and you probably can't, legally, for risk of jail or torture, but this is NOT God's way, but the devil's, through the evil people in charge.

Therefore, they should NOT be in charge! Who's 'gonna make that happen? God rarely strikes evil politicians dead, like He did in the Bible. Other nations are reticent to get involved in another nation's political crises. Ultimately it is you, 'we the people,' who must take your own lives and futures in your own hands, organize, strategize, find a few willing to die for this dream, and execute/implement it!

Some in the military may side with you, if they FEEL their human side. If they're loyal to selfish luxuries, they won't do the right thing. You have to! Free yourself! God wants you free!

He rarely destroys governments, to end their tyranny in this life. He has mainly left that to human kind. That would mainly mean you. Are you up to the task? Do you enjoy being brow-beaten? Is it RIGHT that you spend your ~80 years in that condition, when so many others never do, like in the West? No! Fix it.

One other thing you MUST do... in your mind's eye, or by watching banned television, you have to have a picture of how things could be better, to aim at! When fools in North Korea believe their existence is normal, because it's all they know, you've got to learn something, any way you can! You are in last place in life!

Your lifestyle is the WORST of almost all other nations! You're government leaderships' lack of advancement is a laughing stock! We cry for the people, but JOKE about the lack of government skill, where, at night, South Korea shows up from space as a lighted nation, but you are mainly in the dark. Your so-called leaders are FAILures—not heroes! God gave you a brain enough that you have to know this! Fix it!

[And YES, I know most people in North Korea will NEVER see this posted message, but I do what I can to provide content, and others can devise ways to get the information to the right sources. And do pray that they do!]

God owns all nations (Ps. 82:8)

God rules over all nations (Ps. 22:28, 47:8, 113:4)

God sees all, nations (Ps. 66:7; Pv. 15:3)

God appoints (vs. anoints) all politicians (Ps. 2:2; Rom. 13:1)

Nations are to be for God (Ps. 46:10)

Nations are to fear God (Ps. 102:15)

Nations are to serve God (Ps. 72:11)

Nations are to praise God (Ps. 117:1)

Nations can forget God (Ps. 9:17)

Nations can rebel against God (Ps. 2:1, 9:15, varying standards of sinfulness)

GLOBAL NEEDS (VISION)

(1/21/21-2)

Mankind's Needs:

1. 100 percent thorough evangelism (with, hopefully, 100 percent discipling following)
2. No deaths from preventable diseases.
3. No severe poverty.
4. Constructive politics that gets RESULTS!
5. The best economy (every nation needs one).

Everything else is secondary! (1/21/21-2)

The MAIN global players to regularly keep an eye on are China, Russia, Iran, and then the economic vitality of our NATO allies, Israel and the Saudis. Most other nations don't make headlines nearly as much. (3/12/21-2)

Farming HAS to be the number one way poor nations dig out of that hole! If you can produce food, especially efficiently, you are providing the foundations of a future growing economy!

Covid (if not modern) college substitutes quality of knowledge for quantity of knowledge! (3/24/21-2)

Update

(3/23/21-2)

HERE is a NEEDED global plan: EVERY poor nation NEEDS a thorough plan for getting their economy up and running! Other nations can advise, and even offer temporary assistance, either as charity or for payoffs. It's IRRATIONAL our world has so many dump economies! FIRE your "leaders!"

Liberals ALWAYS speak about the poor, and now Hillary reveals liberals' dream: America letting in as many as humanly possible, or sending tax dollars to raise up other countries' poor (starting with vaccines). U.S. taxpayers do NOT work hard to fund people outside their family! DISincentive.

Poverty is NOT the end of the world, though a problem, and Democrats USE it for votes for people to retain lucrative jobs! It NEEDS to be FIXED, but taxpayers and unjustly over-paying workers is NOT the answer! It IS the answer to liberals: Spend other people's money (taxpayers').

I've done this before, but if you live in a crappy (poor) nation, you must do all of the following, NOW!:

1. Require your leaders to change, or change leaders, any way that can be achieved.
2. Use ALL natural and national resources to enter the global economy, especially CHEPA, trained labor!
3. Find a mentor nation which can exchange assets for your nation's benefit, like land use for money, for military, etc.
4. Require population control, as you can't afford more citizens.
5. Teach living off the grid/survivalist skills to all.
6. Have public education after work hours

For example, many land masses in Africa could be used for farming to feed the world! Refugee areas, as well. If nationals/"natives" have FEW skills, your economy will NEVER rise much! Tribal fighting and hunter-gatherer types may want to remain old school. FINE! Don't seek money from America!

INTERNATIONAL LAW & ORDER

EVEN THOUGH sin will be increased, pre-prophecy, and even without salvations we HOPE for, I believe mankind can create a more just and moral world, leveraging the image of God within! Will we? (likely NOT, but you at least have to make the attempt). There's evidence BOTH directions! Global crimes: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/International_crime

Global issues:

10 global challenges the world will face in the next 25 years – according to engineers - Create Securing cyberspace, economical clean energy, sustaining land and oceans, and sustainable and resilient infrastructure were listed as the top four challenges facing the world in the next 25 years,...
createdigital.org.au

Rules, enforced, incentives/motivation, free-willed decisions to do right, religious influences, social shaming, whistle blowers, etc., can ALL contribute to making a much greater world! This is NOT one-world governance! That happens half way through the seven-year Tribulation, and it's EVIL!

The problem in our world is evil regimes using national sovereignty to retain their sins! America rightly doesn't want any outside organization trying to force us to do anything, but evil regimes do the same! Independent international police and military would help, save for national sovereignty.

Another problem is limited natural resources, globally, with everyone wanting a piece of the pie. If you can't bid highest, you miss out. That favors rich countries. Everyone knows Chinas spying trade secrets on America, through hacking; probably Russia. HAS to be punished and stopped 100 percent!

The Paris Climate Accords put unfair burden on America and others, while other huge nations spew indiscriminately. Such agreements MUST be fair to all! FEW global agreements will ever be entered into by all nations! This need gets forced half way through the seven-year Tribulation of Bible prophecy.

Evil people do things that mainly benefit them, thinking breaking the rules is best for them! It's ALL based on selfishness. But nations have to be incentivized, or punished (carrot and stick). America can't go to war with every rule violator! Nor a U.N. military force! Economic and diplomatic solutions are also needed.

There'll be NO ideal in our era! Utopia is fantasy land. The BEST we can hope for is a little improvement, over time. Sin will INcrease! Nations all do whats in their own interest, or their "leaders" are FOOLS! That causes clashes and conflicts with other nations, absent win-win solutions.

In every country, a BIG "stop it" force is needed, but NOT overkill! D.C. needs it post haste! A force that stops them in their tracks. The fear of God is so absent human hearts, today! In the Tribulation, that will be a robot laser zapping individuals by bar code identification!

The ISIS remnant should be able to be seen from above (eye in the sky AWAX), and lasers target them, when amasses, even using infra-red or see through wall technology to take out all gatherings, or bug their communications to ID where individuals are! NO PAYOUT, but ending evils!

IMO, we free world people haven't cared enough to devise devices to end these evils, using our governments, in ways where none of our people are in harm's way! Satellites and lasers could surely use facial recognition to ID movements of Rocket Man, and take out all who protect him, via drones!

I'm speaking life before the Tribulation begins, and 3.5 years into it (for all who are still here; I'll be gone). WHY can Putin poison a critic? WHY can China terrorize a people group on their land mass? WHY can Kim Jung Un devastate entire civilian masses?

An international police and military force would have more authority! Ex.: Tribal violence and genocide, or Chibok girls, or people persecuted for their religion.

WHY do we humans all with tolerate those evils continuing? Individually were helpless to help! Collectively, there are solutions, that DON'T involve Big Brother or 1-world government.

We're NOT evil, but busy, and realists... what can we do about it? America violated national sovereignty of Pakistan to kill Osama Bin Laden. That was a GREAT outcome! Nations shoot down illegal border crossers!

God is likely NOT 'gonna stop those abuses. He can, He has before, He doesn't, often, in our era, as judgment will be obvious to all when it comes, as deserved, plus He has humans with brains He created to be His hands and feet! Americans usually don't care about problems in other nations! I don't, unless it's front page news!

However, collateral damage is evil, overkill is too, and wars could break out if the regimes don't take being corrected by outside forces, even though they need that disciplining! So evils continue in our world, like ALL of us IGNORING the plight of citizens in North Korea!

Retaliation occurs, when U.S. serves as sole superpower (as she should) to end conflicts, and we only do so when in our interest, as we rightly don't want our men and women dying from causes unrelated to America! Drones, lasers and bombs could be used by an international military, to end identified problems (as I listed before)!

Compared to tyrant dictators, oppressed citizens often have much less money, don't own the nation's oil, control labor forces, or own the nation's natural resources! THAT is the problem! The Arab oppressed, who started Arab Spring, haven't abandoned their desire for freedom/democracy! They're not allowed to own weapons, a friend tells me, so government has the force over them! EVIL!

China sweat shops of child labor are EVIL, yet U.S. consumers (ostrich heads in sand) buy their products! Drug lords and cartels are EVIL, but U.S. addicts buy heroine, and ICE and border patrol and homeland security do NOT win that war on drugs; just curb it some! These problems don't go away!

Because people (politicians) think it's better for them, individually, financially, or for their country, they break agreed upon global rules (like Iran)! Did ANYONE believe their lies they'd agree to terms and cut back nuclear weapons, even signing a deal and getting money to do so? NOT I!

There are at least six things Chinas doing, presently, that the world can't tolerate; probably three+ with Russian government. WHO will stop them? U.S. politics stops many minor evils America does, but dictators dictate what country gets! they should ALL be overthrown! ALL free nations should help!

Nigeria has tribes who STEAL girls for ransom, then usually kill them, because they learn too much, as witnesses. One devil got $100K, then released my friends relative. WHY do humans allow these atrocities to continue?

People die in great numbers, daily, from preventable diseases. WHY? Vaccines cost money, and poor nations have little money! There are ways to get backwards nations into modern economies! Outside nations need a payoff for bringing about those results! Fix these problems, people! Lk. 12:15

(5/16/21-2)

There are too many wars and animosities for any one country to solve! SIN is the root! If you start with the assumption that NO ONE wants to fund fixing YOUR problems, you have started off on a rational first foot! Self-sufficiency, with non-financial help, is the BEST you can seek!

U.N., World Court, and other global entities NEED to be more involved in solving global crises, including international peace-keeping forces, and soliciting funding mainly from the world's richest. National sovereignty is a thorn in this plan, but get unity to objectives! NOT one-world government!

Palestinians need to build their own Utopia, outside Israel proper, as a 2-state implementation strategy! ALL Arab nations could help fund them, as their cultural brethren, with oil profits. IF it never threatened Israel, the world would welcome this answer. NOT justice, but OK!

WHAT has America done for displaced native Americans, black slave ancestors and Mexicans who LOST a war? Reservations, freedom from slavery, and immigrating many to America, respectively.

THIS generation didn't do those things, and DOESNT owe any finances! That's UNjust! No justice, no peace!

America didn't because Mexico to have such a poor standard of living, or an economy that often just favors the rich, by the Mexican-American War! Governments have to fix injustices and economies, for their own people! IF native Americans 'wanna live off the reservation, economic opportunities exist!

WHAT has America done to make up for slavery? FREED slaves, made them legal equals (vs 2/5ths citizens), civil rights laws, EEOC, laws against discrimination, etc. They didn't get 40 acres and a mule, but THIS GENERATION didn't promise that, and doesn't owe that to your deceased ancestors!

HISTORY AS HIS STORY

HERE's what politicians do not know: ALL life events are heading to Bible prophecy, slowly, steadily or even quickly! Gog and Magog/Russia, China and the kings of the East will ALL unite against Christ at Armageddon. This is nearly seven years after one world ruler arises.

Though nations can oppose God now, they can also suddenly change to doing so, but all things being equal, you'd expect them to be doing so now, as precursors. Communist nations oppose God's ways, people, and existence, and even free countries are embracing Socialism and selfish greed—ALL anti-God values!

Israel vs. Hamas was JUST a birth pang precursor. MOST people only think of their centuries-long Hatfield's and McCoy's feud, but DO NOT KNOW history is already written, and it involves those groups SO enmeshed, that world leader has to arise to broker peace, gaining notoriety by uprooting three E.U. heads of state, stealthily.

IF he's stealthy, rich and wise, you have to assume he brokers a private agreement with the Arabs to FAKE a 7-year peace deal with Israel, because mid-term he turns on the Jews, I believe, from prior planning with them, to go along to get along ONLY for 3.5 years.

HOW do I surmise that secret pact? Rev. 14 onward shows he turns only on the Jews. Evil vs. good Arabs would surely go along with a plan of a man whose intentions are to deceive the Jews by Arab agreement for 'peace, peace,' only to betray their trust, fatally, in many cases (~1/3 flee to safety in Petra area, the other 2/thirds you can read about in my two books on point).

You would EXPECT Russia and China and Israel's enemies to be rising in prominence, even though these dominoes can also fall/topple over suddenly! The point is politicians have NO IDEA how to reverse extrapolate from written history to modern news events!

Religious materials have zero authority over law and legal matters, but knowledge of life's perspective gives them a broader understanding of what's ALSO going on, and why, beyond the immediately obvious.

Because religion isn't the Constitution, nor the Bible (America is NOT a theocracy), we must deal with the NON-spiritual elements, all the while aware of the absolute truths of human nature religion can inform us of. I do NOT believe Communist governments ever plan to change, unless forced, either through war, or populous uprisings.

Getting Russia, China and Iran leadership to be good faith world players is likely impossible, as there are some people whose selfish ambition and tolerance for personal evil to attain it have no bounds! You contain those ambitions!

Yes, you can seek efforts to persuade, like Trump with Kim Jong Un, but you pretty well know, through experts, their historic positions, and that that telemetry/projectory isn't likely to fly off course very significantly! China wants to be the dominant world power. Russia has always been jealous of America as the world's sole superpower.

Iran has long ago sought to disrupt the Middle East stability, especially currying favor with her Arab neighbors by confronting Israel. Rocket man HAS to stay in power, even through his sister, or even his own people will turn on him to destroy him, even physically, like Mu'ammār Qadhafī (and sort of like the people toppled statues of Saddam Hussein, when he was toppled).

Oppressed masses don't enjoy the experience! Russians living in fear of secret police and poisoned political rivals, work camps, etc., don't USUALLY rise up in unison, UNLESS they're certain they have the arms, numbers, will and significant military agreement! So, status quo continues.

Status quo of lack of freedom, human rights abuses, dictatorships and oppression through fear, intimidation and abuse of power. NATO and the West can NEVER trust without verifying ANY words heard by these regimes! We know, through experts, their historic track-records, as indicators of their future ambitions!

Communists HATE Capitalists! Many individuals HATE Israel being in her land. Those hatreds will NOT (likely) change, no matter America's job, along with the West, to a lesser extent, is to keep our common rogue nations in check! And Americans job is to ensure we retain number one status, economically and militarily! NOTHING could be as detrimental to us as losing our position, or the dollar as reserve currency!

Quite literally, with left and right extremes being louder, and flaunting ignorance, the public education system in America needs a major overhaul for teaching world-class information, the ability to think, analyze and create, and produce the BEST labor force on earth, to keep America number one!

Literally, just as U.S. imported many of Hitler's scientists (eventually contributing to us landing on the Moon), America needs to become the Mecca for the smartest, most innovative, entrepreneurial and richest people willing to come here! We need no people coming to get handouts!

REINING IN ROGUE NATIONS (I)

How COULD our rivals be persuaded to behave morally? (China, Russia, Iran, North Korea, etc.):

1. NOT 'gonna happen, but try.
2. Mutually beneficial cooperative endeavors.
3. Diplomacy that demonstrates our commitment to ALSO their benefit; distrusting any words not matching actions.
4. Economic and military pressures, as second and last resort measures.
5. Influencing their people, using all available mediums. The people don't want oppression!
6. Innovation that either discovers new natural resources, or ways to stretch the utility of what we have, including recycling.
7. Promoting democracy, globally, while acknowledging our own failures and any human rights challenges.
8. Promoting justice, more than just us, internationally (no nationalistic protectionism).
9. NOT being taken advantage of in any international agreements! EVERY nation's government puts their own people and/or national interests above any other nations', and America can never be any different! America number one.
10. Foreign aid as a bang for the buck investment America benefits from, likely from alliance with nations our rivals would otherwise court/woo.
11. Securing peace, worldwide, through agreements that solve conflicts, and utilize a re-envisioned morality and efficiency of justly contributed to global entities, ONLY when in America's best interest.
12. Establishing a workable 2-state solution for Israel and Palestine, so extremists even see enough benefits that their desire for their foes to not exist see the light of rational thought.

This is NOT 1-world government! I already said that comes on the scene in the sovereign if not supernatural working and timing of God, through a coming world dictator, 3.5 year after his stealthy rise!

IF you want to know cultural trends expected to precipitate his arrival on the scene, we have two books on prophecy you can purchase. Israel conflicts must rise to a higher level than last week, IMO, for intervention to be necessitated.

The 2-state solution has many obstacles, as GWB pointed out, but unless and until the 1948 general world decision is addressed, in how it unjustly treated one side, Middle East peace and cease fires are ONLY temporary! And BEWARE if ANY person ever brokers a 7-year deal! Daniel 9:27

In my opinion, any claiming American who opposes putting U.S. economic and military superiority as priority 1, is not worthy of the name 'American," nor any who would selfishly seek to bring failure to such ambitions, ALL predicated upon our behaving morally as a nation and individuals

2 Chron 7:14. Christians MUST ALL pray, seek God's face, humble themselves and turn from our wicked ways! THAT ACT ALONE could precipitate the greatest economic and cultural unity and spiritual revival the world has ever known, pre-Christ's return, seven years after the 7-year peace deal!

FOREIGN POLICY

IMO, NOTHING any U.S. President will ever say to Putin or Xi will ever change their mind on their global ambitions and support of evil practices! You can be nice, tough, or in-between, but pressure alone will do anything: Economic, military, and ~diplomatic (WEAK).

Quite honestly, most people questioning Covid vaccine's safeness are phobic from talk radio pundits, or want excuses to look like smart skeptics, often for political ideology. Mine seems to have made me tired, today, though we also worked HARD yesterday, too.

There are people who view America as too rich, or rich through evil, and historically mainly white. So they seek to settle the score by illegal immigration, to get poor and uneducated people who are NOT white, to vote for freebies Socialism.

President Biden's proposed defense budget for fiscal year 2022 does not address the major shifts occurring in China's nuclear forces, missiles, and long range strike capabilities; China and Russia's growing military ties; and more, argues CSIS' Anthony Cordesman.

Alleged climate change is not only not America's number one national security threat, it doesn't even register on the radar of major problems America faces! IF it even did, there's nothing major we can do to fix it, until new technology, and alleged fixes are far too costly for their benefit!

The WHO, on Covid, and the U.N. on many issues have a sketchy track record for accuracy, claimed as fact or science, and BIAS toward liberal ideology and non-Western and U.S. interest. Their lecturing us on "climate change" rings HOLLOW! We don't choose to lead the fix, meaning money sought!

Anything significant anyone does to curb CO2 emissions or pollution costs money, and loses businesses and governments profit and revenue, respectively. LIVE WITH IT, or make new technology to fix the problem, and let billionaires fund it as their give back to society! I can live with it!

The book of Revelation shows that climate change will NOT end our world. Since most people do NOT believe God's word, we have to deal with these skeptics phobias about climate change! You have only two choices, foolish people:

1. Ignore it, or
2. Fix it, in ways we don't yet have technology for.

Small behavior changes won't fix it, and Americans mainly won't be inconvenienced over fixing climate change. THAT'S NOT EVIL! We didn't create our economy of luxuries and products that contribute to any alleged problem! The things we buy we only control by purchases. Offer greener products!

Drastic changes that leftist pundits demand must be paid for by leftists, or just live with it! My side, who do NOT agree to paying for major fixes, says let the private sector fix it. Elon or Bezos should offer millions for an invention to fix the problem. One of them has, if I recall correctly.

I have zero concern if we do little! I prefer for technology to fix the serious problems with emissions. The feds should organize a task force of best brains and scientists to collaborate on technology to make a major solution that is NOT punishing businesses!

There MIGHT exist a handful of bad teachers, who must improve within six months, or be fired, but there are certainly bad administrators, and bureaucrats (wasting tax salaries) who must go, if they don't ship up. American education must be or again become number one in the world.

The U.S. military also has to keep up with China's enlargements, as with Russia's, as, together, those two Communist power houses could EASILY have evil collusive intents! America has to rebuild its NATO alliances, as I said over a year ago, as these evil regimes aren't as explicit as they used to be, but more covert, subtle, sly, stealthy, deceptive and sophisticated (Ex.: Hacking, etc.).

America and the rest of the West NEEDS to understand that we are smack dab in the middle of a second Cold War, and with oil and monetary interests involved, this one could get physical! There is LITTLE to no change coming from those dictators; only window dressing to deceive fools.

You watch their DEEDS, and always follow the money trail! BOTH administrations seek to become world super powers and the number one economic and military leader, as Communists NEVER like democracy or Capitalism, but always seek to defeat those ideologies, and America represents them best.

China has America entangled, economically, but the U.S. has China set for a BAD investment, with our escalating debt. We BOTH have reason to distrust the other, as the deal is getting worse for us both! They're losing a sound investment, certain to pay back, and we're losing our manufacturing, and now, trade secrets, through hackers and spies educated in American colleges (IMO).

Putin and his ILK, literally never got over LOSING the Cold War, and the USSR being broken up! That's why he invaded Ukraine, and threatens the region! He resents Gorbachev and Perestroika, as a loss through compromise, just like hard liners on the right, in America, see any working with the Democrats (NOT liberal ones) as a loss. Many people don't accept losses as good sports. They seek revenge, and regaining what was lost!

Speaking of GOP working with Dems:

1. BOTH extremes probably never would
2. It would NEVER be to capitulate on core values
3. It would not be for any freebies, or higher taxes It would be for common sense solutions that are just/fair to ALL.

Back to my point: China and Russia are VERY likely in a secret, behind-the-scenes alliance to advance their cause and agenda!

They aren't stupid men, heading this evil cabal, so they will go along with public and PR campaigns to appear civil, even 'Western,' or agree to such foolishness as extreme Climate Accords, because the devil dresses up in Prada, or the wolf in sheep's clothes.

Unless you're stupid, you hide your evil intent, until such a time that you can act on it in an expected victorious way. Russia is already seeking to divide America, with social media bots, and hack us to steal money. China steals our trade secrets. WHY do/conduct costly R & D, when you can get it for free?

WHY does anyone think Xi has space equipment on Mars, a huge satellite in Venezuela, hinders international shipping lanes (along with Iran and Russia), builds man-made islands, works deals for African territory, and elsewhere, hacks trade secrets, etc.?

Communists are united in their plan to make that belief system expand! Add in crazy Kim Jong Un, and there is an alliance! Many people have known of BRIC, for YEARS! Apart from maybe Brazil, they're a Communist competitor to U.S. trade interests!

With America racially divided, economically vulnerable from infiltrated and home-grown Socialists, we are NOT in a strong position to fight against this number one threat! We are OFTEN forgiving, naive, willing to give the benefit of doubt and give second chances, but this alliance of Communists is NOT going away, and will NEVER have any good intentions for the West's future or survival-period.

Re-read that till you either enlist, fund only pro-democracy and pro-military politicians, or go join the Communists, and leave free America, as day you could be a war enemy combatant!

Update: Global Poor

Dems and liberals ALWAYS use these verses, AS IF there is no floor: Pv. 19:17, 22:9; Lk. 12:48. You can always "help" more. Personal responsibility is to kick in, for grown adults, and Dems NEVER demand that of their poor constituents! Just more taxes for freebies! IRRESPONSIBLE and EVIL.

I'm TIRED of America being called upon to do most of the work of helping our poor and the worlds, because were rich. Such libs NEVER address what we've already done for BOTH! It's time the world shares responsibilities, fairly, like solving problems we all share in paying for!

UKRAINE WAR PRECURSOR MESSAGE

(Note: Paragraph on evil dictator tactics)

June 7

Repression. The man NEEDS to be offed! Does ANYONE believe God wants his poor citizens suffering indefinitely? <https://www.bbc.com/news/world-asia-57225936>

You need to watch the Valkyrie movie of HEROES, who tried to get Hitler 'outa office, even including a bomb (if I'm not mistaken). The united world OWES it to the people of North Korea to oust all dictator 'wanna-bes in that nation! God usually doesn't directly intervene. WHY do WE allow such evil? Fear of nukes?

I am NOT suggesting who, how or when, but Kim Jung Un and his nasty sister need to be taken out!

EVERY TIME you speak of global cooperation, extremists cry one-world government, or national sovereignty. I'm ALL for the latter, but NOT when you're doing explicit evil! Nations use sanctions, economic, diplomatic, and sometimes military. Kim Jong Un should be dead, if justice matters! DUH.

Does God allow killing?

1. By government (Rom. 13)
2. For moral reasons, as a last resort. Ecc. 3:3 3

He has historically had His people destroy BAD nations. I'm saying our world needs to unite against blatant evils! NO MORE DICTATORS, and more evils I've listed! Unite money, manpower and machinery/weaponry!

IF a nations government sanctions genocide/persecution, what can other nations do? Petition world court/vote sanctions at UN/covert ops for toppling/ regime change/ally nations for boycotts against 'em/military action. Do we have to accept some nations evils? NO! Sovereignty has moral bounds. (10/29/17)

The U.N. or its replacement SHOULD negotiate with nations who abuse their people, backed by military threat if it continues. SINCE its rules allow evil nations to block such progress, either change the rules or change your membership! If G-20 pulled out of the U.N., for a new entity, it'd be fixed! (10/29/17)

A global military of people from all nations would help all nations have skin in the game in enforcing reasonable global laws, and fairly shared costs! <https://britannica.com/topic/International-Court-of-Justice...> (10/11/18)

it CAN'T just single out rogue nations, but give 'em something, too, or they won't cooperate! 'Gotta convince 'em to good.

There are several crazy, rogue and Communist nations out there. Citizens-control your politicians and military! <http://bit.ly/1FhUAFA> (3/14/15)

One-world government doesn't begin until 3.5 years after a FAKE 7-year peace deal between Israel and her enemies (Rev. 13). STUPID people with vague ideas of things they wrongly FEEL the Bible teaches are detrimental to society! Nations voluntarily uniting for good, and against evil, is good!

HERE is a repeated list of evils all nations should agree to eliminate. OF COURSE, the evil governments will oppose/balk (following retweets):

Interjection

World goals will NEVER be achieved till the Millennium! Till then, seven years of Hell on earth are coming! You ASPIRE to these ends, but sin will increase before the Israeli peace deal is consummated. Dan. 9:27 Thy kingdom come on earth is our aim, but ONLY happens after Christs return. (3/8/21-2)

World goals: NO wars, rapes, genocide, land grabs, hostages, refugees, suffering poverty, excessive pollution, preventable disease, lack of sanitation, homelessness, sexual mutilation, killing gays, terrorists, over-punishments in cruel prisons, illegal drugs, oppressing workers!

World goals: NO usurping every nation's sovereignty! Free willed dedication to all people's inalienable God-given rights! <https://un.org/en/universal-declaration-human-rights/...>

World goals: No religious feuds (reconciliation and respect), human rights or civil rights violations, international crime fugitives, child molesters, spouse abusers, obesity, date rape, racial hatred, violent protests, arson, insurrection, riots, murder, robbery, discrimination.

World goals: NO dictators (Putin, Kim Jong Un, China, Iran), Communism replaced with fair vs manipulative/unbridled democratic Capitalism, no slavery, human trafficking, unreplenished resource devastation, business hackers, identity theft, IEDs, dirty bombs, illegal immigration.

CAN YOU IMAGINE if EVERY nation had honorable, UNcorrupt politicians, whose number one concern was that all citizens did OK in life? Politicians representing the needs of the citizenry, and justice prevailing in every nation. SUCH is God's will for our world, IMO!

Continuing

The masses are more important than the elites! THINK about the Arab Spring, tank man in China (and sweat shop child labor), Iran's present nuclear development (for Israel), and the HUMANS in North Korea, TODAY! WHY do all others ALLOW them to suffer so, heads in the sand chasing money?

Selfish us!

HOW could democracy become MORE attractive to Communists? Lessen our extremes! Voluntarily, be less sexually perverted/promiscuous, idolizing money, lying, and holding political ideologies that have ZERO concern for the poor. THEN we'd have more moral authority to correct rogue nations!

Capitalism ISN'T perfect, and our divided nation (mainly over race and Socialism) doesn't bode well for convincing Communists we have answers! Dictators EVILLY hoard luxuries for inner circle, siphon off national assets, control people, threaten and EVILLY use force. This is NOT how it should be!

ALL corrupt government officials STEALING people's money, over their salary (i.e., bribes, kickbacks, graft) should be JAILED. People rise up and convince your military! (1/7/15)

Solutions exist to most of world's problems, but the will of leaders to solve 'em only come when the people rise up and demand it. Demand it NOW! (2/8/15)

I'm 'gonna sound rad, but one day the poor of the world will have to rise up and demand their rights! Not violently, but forcefully. Only a small percent... (11/12/16)

It'd be GREAT time for citizens of North Korea to rise up, unite and engage a coup, but I've seen NO evidence they EVER gain such fortitude. Downtrodden... (4/15/17)

[No man] can continue these ways with no cares, but a fiery, eternal Hell awaits you, and your lifestyle and abuses won't last forever! Even your people know you need to be dethroned, and may they organize and rise up, securing your military's pay to keep them safe, but securing weapons to ensure your ouster, ASAP, for the... (11/9/18)

China, Russia, Iran, Venezuela, North Korea, Cuba, and any Arabs who hate their form of government, and wanted the Arab Spring, RISE UP! you have the numbers! D-day proved sheer force of will, with lesser firepower but greater determination wins. Many casualties, but one great victory for mankind! (6/21/19)

That is NOT how God designed countries to run! It is your God-given duty to rise up and shake off the fetters of oppression! It is your human right, your inalienable right, your legal and moral right (all laws your dictators pen, to the contrary), and your obligation alone to implement! (4/30/20)

We the people MUST rise up and demand moral leadership in are governments. NOTHING LESS! God sees all. Do the right thing.

KIM JONG U.N. MERITS EXECUTION. Kim Jong Un: K-pop is a 'vicious cancer' that merits work camp, execution <https://foxnews.com/world/kim-jong-un-k-pop-vicious-cancer-merits-work-camp-execution...> #Fox News (6/11/22-2)

June 13

Unbridled Capitalism has zero aid for poor, unemployed or abused on the work site! 100 percent every man for himself, which works for some; NOT all. Socialism allows unjust freebies. Communism seeks more justice, by evil dictatorships and fear and threats. A BETTER way exists, folks!

It would be an INTERESTING thing to learn Xi and Putin's real intentions, and poll their citizenry to see what they really want of their lifestyle, if Communist dictators were out of the picture! I want someone to commission such a study! Lie detectors for those two men (NEEDED)! Liars.

DID YOU KNOW Biden calling Putin a killer is TRUTH, but Communists don't concern themselves with religion or morals, if it doesn't advance their evil and selfish agenda, so he laughs it off, AS IF so untrue it's a joke. denial of reality from quashed conscience! A God-absent political system!

The good of Communism THEORY is aspiring to fair wages, none suffering severely, and more control over some heinous evils innate in men's behaviors.

The PROBLEM is it, historically, has SO MANY evils that far out-weigh that never-achieved end, such as dictators, who hoard national riches, only reward their inner circle, use the military to keep them forever in power (where the people have no say in who rules over them), no private property (or personal buy-in to a business' success), anti-wealth (except for the ruling class tied to the thug atop), secret police, who cause fear for citizens uniting against government evils, or uniting their numbers to overthrow tyrants, labor camps, executions, attempted subtle killings or stiflings of political opponents and free speech, human rights abuses, worse economy than otherwise, child labor, sweat shops, ETC!

Does European-style Socialism violate moral principles? Isn't it "good" to make sure none suffer severely? YES, but its theft from taxpayers! IF the rich WON'T give back any excess to society, what solutions remain?

1. Higher taxes, or,
2. Aid that's justly repaid to tax payers!

June 15

[America needs to] leverage that power bloc against the offenders! America should lead the way, IMO! (America number one); then secure NATO and E.U. members, then all other West-friendly countries. There will be some dissenters!

The strategy should be:

1. Diplomatic
2. Economic
3. Last resort: Military.

The U.N. should either get involved for morally good aims, or be defunded and replaced by an organization that will advance those causes! Membership would have to set litmus tests, and disallow being coopted or corrupted, by chartered rules.

It is BEST that this alliance first gauges what China and Russia think are the West's top five offenses, and evaluate if there's any merit in their complaints.

Fixing those would NOT be next, but brokered agreements for both sides to address their claimed, valid ills. It is NOT 100 percent two-sided! The sins of the West are far lesser than the big five of those two main rogue culprits!

China wields great economic and monetary power, especially within BRIC. Nations will be reluctant to cut ties to cheap manufacturing. That's NOT needed, presently. We all know Putin and Xi are NOT inclined to change their ambitions or practices, freely!

Pressure MUST be exerted! Nations who will not ally may choose to ally with BRIC, or be Swiss neutral-like. The neutral ones this coalition can still retain economic ties with. The others need to state which side they're on, and lose our support if they side with BRIC.

This is NOT an agreement or alliance to choose sides on who a nation will do business transactions with! It is ONLY an alliance to end the top five offenses of mainly China and Russia, and to a lesser extent in Korea's oppression of their peoples, and nuclear development, as with Iran's nuclear pursuit

Global economic ties have seen some pretty strange bedfellows, and free trade is the best strategy, economically; NOT tariffs, boycotts, etc. BUT, to achieve the curbing, cut back or maybe even end to the five offenses, economic retaliation and sanctions have to be one tool considered!

Before I suggest those top five, per country, you have to project what those two nations will do if pressured to change, against their will. War could occur! Cut off cheap manufacturing labor could occur. Russia could invade more neighboring countries.

This is the vision for a new U.N. (or revamped old one), vs. biasedly swayed to evil nations' desires. There must be political will/resolve among member states that taking these defensive actions are worth the fight, as opposed to remaining with status quo.

And again, this initiative NEED not be confrontational, or combative, especially if participant nations sincerely address the complaints China and Russia lodge against individual nation participants.

Settling the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, through the -state solution, will/would get many Arab countries onboard with this alliance! I suspect Venezuela and Cuba governments would oppose it (Communist-Socialist leaning).

There's already a Cold War! We in the West merely need to acknowledge that fact, because you surely lose a war you refuse to see you're already dragged into! The race to space comes from historic understanding that he who controls the skies controls the "war" (figurative as it is, presently).

Control of money (fighting the dollar as world reserve currency), nations (China's alliances in Africa, for example, to help them in exchange for land bases), developed islands now starting to affect international sea lines and potentially shipping traffic, hacking of trade secrets, intellectual property and outright theft by extortion, slave labor camps and secret police enforcing totalitarian rule (no freedom or even democracy and human rights for many of their citizens), child labor, sweat shops, lack of private property ownership, and even rivalries in Russia, and enslave an entire nation in North Korea!

Other peoples are tremendous military build-up including nuclear, all bode poorly for a safe and prosperous future for our world, as with ambitions for world domination, if not Communist expansion, especially by force.

That may not be five issues, and many of them they will never abandon, but along with unfair trade practices President Biden alluded to (dumping, manipulated exchange rates, etc.), this bunch of problems negatively affect the lives of Chinese citizens, restrict and keep in fear political openness and even rivalries in Russia, and enslave an entire nation in North Korea!

Other peoples are oppressed in our world, as the Arab Spring made so obvious to us all, a few years back. Regimes that cut off hands for stealing, kill gays for being themselves, make women subjugated second class citizens, or prevent their education.

These are problems we in this world all observe, if not face any ownership for fixing. We don't strive to fix them, but only wish them to go away, not because we believe God wants us stagnant, but because the regimes (connected politicians wielding power and blessing cronies, economically, etc.) have zero intentions on changing!

THIS is where the peoples MUST rise! United citizens have vested interests, and greater interests in these problems being fixed, than any outside nations alliance! We can help, provide intel and logistics, but a clear signal of the will to act must exist, or, this Western alliance has no purpose for being or commencing! Just pray, and continue status quo.

But IF there were a God (there is; I just pose it hypothetically, for sake of argument), does anyone believe he would want those listed problems to continue? Add in people persecuted for their beliefs or religion. The answer, to any thinking person with any working conscience is a clear and resounding "NO."

This coalitions changing bad things we receive complaints about will NOT force the hands of any tyrant to change themselves! They're NOT inclined to give up or share power or money or control, or their beliefs in a Communist system! It has to be forced out of their hands of control, and physicality would be needed, in most if not all cases.

An acceptable lifestyle for them in retirement would likely have to be worked out, if the threat of their ouster became credible/viable. I am NOT advocating for changing Communist nations to democratic!

I am 100 percent FOR such a change, but ONLY if the people want it! The government leaders NEVER will, because they know when the people get more power, their reigns are OVER, and likely like Gaddafi's life being ended.

No one wants to die prematurely. Their life and safety would have to be guaranteed and protected, in exile or in state, but out of power! If they were to remain in power, changes would be needed to the way they conduct business!

It starts with resolve among the people, but they fear ANY organizing or conversations about so doing, for valid reasons of criminal repression if not murder, for plotting to overthrow evil dictatorships. That's where this alliance of NON-dictator nations would exert diplomatic, economic, strategic/intel aid, including money and ultimately military might.

The everyday Joe in China, Russia and North Korea CANNOT be allowed by we outsiders to continue to live under repressive regimes! I am NOT naive or uninformed: I know the Russian people have it better than the North Koreans, and many Chinese!

Yet, their voices are NOT allowed to counter or offer any alternatives or resistance to the state-sponsored dogma! Some of them are pro-KGB era USSR sentiments. Many in their culture are attracted to the strong man personas.

Those types may even like Putin, as a supposed resurrector of their nations pride. Those people may not want, or be onboard with any change. But I believe, if the fear and threat elements were absent, the majority would want more freedoms and civil rights, without the terror of government reprisals, as with many Arab nations' citizens.

Again, I am NOT advocating for democracy, per se. I'm FOR that, if the majority in those alluded to and named nations want it, but it's more so a lessening of the problems I listed, so those people live freer lives, have more joy and happiness, more safety, health and wealth, personally!

I have NOT listed every nation to whom this initiative would have application, but lists exist. I may not have identified every unjust trade practice of every named culprit nation. I certainly have not volunteered a sins list of Western nations, because I cannot presume what Xi and Putin would list against them! I have my hunches, but you never seek peacemaking by giving away the store.

Any valid concerns of theirs against any alliance members should be taken seriously, but never believing changes will cause those types to change; the power and money and control are too euphoric!

Global, united pressure, alongside courageous nationals willing to suffer some casualties, if necessary, is likely the only way my list of complaints might ever budge toward the good, vs. worse! DO YOU SHARE THIS VISION and CONCERN? If not, keep your stupid status quo! Cold Wars can be endured for years!

IF the people of China and Russia agreed to keep their thug ruler in power, in lieu of violent overthrows or coups, those dictators could, conceivably, keep what's most precious to them—power and money.

It should NOT be so that anyone gets rewarded for evils, however! But an in-between state that guaranteed dictators power, safety and money, would at least allow leverage for their agreeing to open their nations to more freedoms and civil rights for the people under their care before the God they don't believe in, but will be directly judged by when their mortal frames expire.

Because it's ~3am, and I've addressed this issue before, I'm inclined to go back to sleep. I believe ONLY force would work, and without their citizens willing to fight for freedom, no Western alliance would be worth the costs to us! GET MY CHAPTER TO THOSE PEOPLES, any way you can.

P.S.: I suggest nations who have many fleeing refugees need this same type of transformation of their governing authorities, where corruption (bribed, payoffs, kickbacks, hoarding national resources for the elites), drug cartels, and BAD economic policies are killing their countries!

Continuing

America could go a LONG way in being moral leaders by example if we:

1. Had our rich generously give back to society; ALL of them!
2. Had fair taxes for ALL citizens (not money, for the poor, but an equivalent in compulsory civic service).

3. Streamlined government—NO waste, abuse, corruption.
4. "Blacks and browns" had more equal opportunities, including educational access
5. We ended severe poverty, in ways I have detailed before
6. We polluted our planet less, in ways I've detailed before, and,
7. We consumed less of the world's resources. Bad politicians resent U.S. sticking our noses in their business, because they don't want to repent and be held accountable to anyone or any entity (national sovereignty abused/warped).

They HATE our being the world's sole super power! They think we and the G7 have too much power and influence in the world's laws, moral values and affairs of trade/economics. They are our rivals, folks! We are in direct competition with BRIC, and it will expand, likely by feigned charity acts in exchange for access to areas, or land grabs for military and satellite bases.

The competition will continue in space and on Mars. China will use its war chest of excess funds and cheap labor to supply manufacturing to more countries, and the West MUST diversify and wean off Chinese labor and borrowing!

Instead of war (which WILL come ~7 years after Israel gets a peace treaty), we have to start seeing the entire globe as us vs. them nations, not in a combative stance, but the West has to identify who is with us and who is against us, and who is neutral!

We can't keep ignoring that BRIC wants to expand, opposes nearly everything we do and are for, and they aren't backing down! Russia and China may merge more than merely socially and economically, folks!

There's power in numbers, and Russia wants the USSR resurrected, and China needs North Korea a viable Communist threat, with nuclear capability, as they side with them more than the West does! Just an annoying cousin of China, politically.

I don't understand why Brazil is in BRIC, except purely pragmatic economic reasons! They see China's growth, globally, and better to join than fight! It seems to me, allying with the West WASN'T as profitable for them, though they play both sides, economically.

IF no agreement can be made between CHI-RUS and the West, we in the West need to start moving toward a two-state solution of world segregation, meaning the West has its own economic ties, between members of this coalition, and if Russia and China continue their evil ways, we wean off ties to them, economically!

There are PLENTY of other nations with under-developed cheap labor! Diversify! Use AI and robotics! Build up defenses against hacking our trade secrets and extorting our wealth! Make China and Russia invent their own technologies and brilliance!

Advance STEM experts, and beef up all military defenses, and targeted offensive capabilities, underground, under water, on land, sea, air and space! You cannot see the growing expansion of those two nations as a peaceful gesture, unless your IQ is challenged! There are ways to allay military conflict, and make peace, but NEVER through weakness!

I would have NO PROBLEM having Xi and Putin join a G7 forum to discuss our differences, and see if any common ground were possible! Lie detectors would be mandatory. Trust but verify. I myself WOULDN'T believe ANY window dressing changes, but would watch behaviors, long-term!

I have dealt with bullies all my life (7-9 in junior high), then 24 vs. one son, and lesser number against my other son (resulting in one changing schools to the furthest district high school I had to drive to twice a day for 1.5 years), and the other finishing his senior year homeschooled at a university

Bullies respond to strength, and back down if they can't win. I have also believed that humans generally can be impacted if they share human experiences unrelated to politics, like shared interests in sports, or entertainment, where genuine relationships can be formed based on common ground, but Putin and Xi do NOT strike me as men given to change, no matter how many golf games Biden might play with them, or basketball games Dennis Rodman could play with Kim Jong Un!

It's MUCH deeper than that, for them! Their ideology is their very lives being at stake—literally!

Those three men want the control they have, for it makes their lives lucrative, they believe their people must be suppressed (for various rationales), and they get some high off their positions of power. NO ONE will ever convince them otherwise, nor all those they share that benefit with Cronies, the military, and cabinet members and their families. WHY WOULD THEY change?

Selfish, greedy rich people in America don't change those sins! They ENJOY their lifestyles, even as their excess could partly be used to relieve others' sufferings! Others are NOT their concern, but self!

You have to force that change with people who resist it with their lives. That's why increased taxes or a wealth tax may someday come to America! Revival would be helpful, but the will of man is involved, somewhat. You have to offer dictators a better option, or they want no change!

Or the people have to rise up and demand what they're God-given rights allow them to enjoy in this life, before they die and meet Him face to face! Dictators already have life wonderful. You can't really offer them a better lifestyle in exchange for change! Force is needed. Will we see it?

Now, can I go back to sleep? NO. You have to decide if helping poorer nations, to keep them from the orb of CHI-RUS, has payoff to the West! What can CHI-RUS get from helping South and Central America and Africa, that could be used against the West? China has the funds to act like El Chapo, and be the champion of their poor!

Get them united behind CHI-RUS, and Cuba is NOT the only nearby threat to America-Canada, then E.U. with Russian states sought to be unified. It's all about the spread of Communism, folks. And I'm NOT for America ever wasting money, or not getting ROI or best bang for our foreign aid bucks!

I'm speaking of ties that are charitable, strategic, economic, cultural-social, military, and NOT direct dollars! If we help those nations' economies function better, and rid them of corrupt politicians and drug lords, their self-sufficiency helps everyone!

I am NOT speaking of economic aid, but advisory information, and moral support of their people and any good politicians. Trade deals with them have to be mutually beneficial! NOT us dominating their resources, or us being freebies dispensers!

The more America and NATO expand, the better will be our chances of backing the bullies down, from seeking to spread Communism, any ways they can! And it will help if Capitalism curbs its abuses! The ONLY people who are attracted to it, in non-Capitalist countries, are the rich, entrepreneurs, and people confident in their ability to make money. That's NOT their majorities!

The majority in most nation are poor or middle class, both of which could benefit from having more money, or less expenses. A system that maintains mainly elite rich few isn't going to advance the spread of non-Communism (I didn't say democracy), as that's up to the will of their people—NOT their politicians, if those people grow backbones, and stand for their rights.

The point is CHI-RUS will seek more alliances. The race is who will gain them quicker, and how. Now, good night. I'm going to bed—period! If the Lord has more, awaken me later.

Update

I'm NOT going to detail every abuse in the BIG three abusers of our world: North Korea, Russia and China, but everyone who can read or hears the news knows they are the top three culprits! Iran's mullahs, as vile as they can be, are mainly wanting Israel destroyed; not so much their citizens.

I've said this before (and I HATE repetition): The people have three main obstacles:

1. Fear if their organizing gets detected by the wrong people
2. Any takeover attempts need some military, and must win, or else
3. Sometimes they have no arms, or maybe they aren't willing to die for this.

Airplane drops of leaflets and single use/burner cell phones could be in order by a united outside world. I'm sure the CIA has methods we don't know of, to help people rise up! They need to coordinate with all other anti-dictatorship nations' intel communities, to strategize for those oppressed!

You have to assume that normal human beings long to live out from under fear and threats from their government officials! They may not be free to say so, but that desire has to exist somewhere

DISallowed freedom of expression in more countries than just the ones I've mentioned:

Everything you need to know about freedom of expression and human rights. Communicating with each other and expressing ourselves freely is central to living in an open and fair society. amnesty.org

Let's deal with the none of our business, or not in our national interest arguments. As humans, it's in our interest, but as a nation, often not, You certainly WOULDN'T volunteer your child to risk death to free oppressed peoples!

That's why an international entity with a military could help! Only volunteers, from every allied nation, funded privately and with public funds, if a nation so chose. The current state in our world exists because too many people have the attitude no one is in charge, so anything goes. God's laws are in charge, if not any one nations' laws!

With political opposition quashed, internally, there's little to no public solution within these countries. It has to be covert! Insiders, who exit those nations, could exile to places to organize. You're seeking a government to relinquish powers. Highly unlikely, voluntarily!

That's why change within the systems is likely the best hope. Rulers retain even unjust enrichments, in exchange for more freedoms for their citizens. I would never assert God can't intervene, as He certainly will in prophecy, and judgment of those tyrants, but until then, people are more how He operates, especially governments! Rom. 13

NO Western nation has ANY desire to take over China or Russia, and we respect their right to sovereignty, used rightly. We also desire no war with the same! However, those regimes MUST change their top horrendous practices, just as they would want us to do, if we were serious human rights abusers!

People don't naturally want to change when they have things good! They have to be convinced, or incentivized, or forced! The conscience argument hardly works with Communist leaders! Theirs hardly works, already! Power is their god, and money for elites!

The analogy is PERFECT for the American rich! Some sign and implement the Giving Pledge (50 percent being a maximum. Not a required percent), and many hoard it all. HOW do you change that, to get them ALL to obey I Tim. 6:17-19? God says Christians are to instruct them to give back! Instruct dictators to behave right

Post-modernists (and tRUMP) LOVE to argue what is truth and morals (Ex.: "fake news" bogus). We can list atrocities the vast majority of earthlings agree no nation should engage! Murdering political opponents, and jailing dissent.

Slave labor, sweat shops, child labor, women kept from education, seizing another's nation (Ex.: Kuwait, and Operation Freedom), abusive secret police, who use violence and threats thereof. Disallowing all citizens to defend themselves against oppressive regimes, by no weaponry or free speech. Not letting people have a say in who rules them.

Political prisoners taken as innocents, so you can swap out crooks jailed for crimes elsewhere.
Drug lords; politicians on the take for bribes; politicians who only care about their finances and family's luxuries, and that of their cronies; Liars; people with unvoiced intentions to take over the world.

Thieves, including hackers of other governments' public functionalities (or even private company extortions). The mafia, criminal gangs, sex traffickers and human slave traders and mules. ALL these evils any reasonable person would say SHOULDN'T be able to do these things! END IT!

Let's get 100 percent speculative into matters that will NEVER happen: If rogue regimes will never change any behaviors, would ANY nations be willing to go to war with them to change that status quo? Very unlikely! Not enough in their national interest! No one wants to lose a child for another nation's people, even though that would show the greatest love! Jn. 15:13

Liberals speak of peace, love and hand holding with flower children and peace-nicks, but true love would sacrifice for others, so mankind's lack of true love will keep people oppressed! It's NOT PMA and smiles

However, there MIGHT be enough individuals, if not countries, in free nations, who WOULD serve as mercenaries, properly backed and trained, to help pull off uprisings that could be successful, cooperating with citizens on the inside, who want to be free. I don't know; I HOPE so!

Let's be reasonable: Communist nations will have some valid concerns against America! Putin dodged, mentioning Trumps goons prosecuted for their riot or insurrection attempt, and I gal rightly having been shot, seeking to break into our Capital. He has no answers for his own behaviors!

Dodge, distract, delay, deny and switch the subject. These are tactics of dishonest and even evil politicians! America has to prepare for a second Cold War, a war in which the enemies are actively engaging attacks that aren't military (like F-16 air space and U.S. ships' space violated, hacking).

It, actually, might be impossible, or even BAD, if Communist regimes were toppled, with nothing cogent to replace them. Organizing would be essential to make such a transition successful. The military would need enough defectors who see human rights as more valuable than elitists.

WHAT do the people/masses of North Korea, China and Russia want? Not everything a majority wants is right for a country, but what reasonable demands do they have? I can list my suggestions, but their say is number one. I will research what seem to be the answers...

We're ALL in global competition for money from sales of products we produce! War may have no rules, but global rules exist!

America does NOT act as the world's policeman from arrogance, but necessity! We'd happily not have to do the job, if rogue behaviors didn't occur. We certainly DONT like UNJUSTLY paying for most of it!

You have to have a shared vision, mutually agreed upon, as to how the world will work, or it's every nation for themselves. The BEST we have come up with is coalitions who have such agreement. Evil people will never agree to subject themselves to moral laws! It's NOT their nature, or interest!

I don't want Russia or China to emulate America! Be yourself, but be moral! therein lies the problem I've been addressing for two days straight! Morals are NOT debatable; even kids understand what's right. EVIL people DO debate them to cover for evil(s)! That's NOT how we all just get along and peacefully coexist!

America needs to use CHI-RUS's own practices (laws aren't adhered to, if they conflict with ambitions and agendas) against them, like they use our dumb laws against us (like letting in subversives). Always have the BIGger stick, and peace maintains!

Psychologists say you can't change others-just control yourself. You can lead a horse to water But you can't make the drink.

Repressive and censoring governments reinforce a culture, where the people see freedom as negative, or don't know the concept, and hence, might not want it, never having experienced it.

I want to know why CHI-RUS and North Korea hate the West, especially America. We haven't been perfect, and they probably resent our military and economic might, and world policeman and super power role, because that often interferes with evil ambitions they pursue, especially Russia. Let's find out...

IF Non-expert me says Putin and his ilk didn't like losing the Cold War (Reagan arms race budget, and tear down this wall). China doesn't like U.S. economic dominance, so they subverted it with funding us, and taking our labor jobs for cheaper wages. Now their investment is shaky, with our debt.

North Korea's "rocket man" has an arrogance/God complex, not liking to be treated like the little country he has, so he pursues nukes, to try to become equals through threats of using them on us. IF I'm right, that's where you'd start to resolve matters if BOTH sides wanted improvement.

Let's put shoe on the other foot: 50 years from now, China has the best army and economy, and they're policing the world, and the sole super power. REAL Americans won't tolerate that forever!

We'd fight back and find ways to defeat that advancement! China and Russia have pride and histories, too. They WANT quasi-equal say in the affairs of this world, but so long as their internal value systems include many evils, they don't deserve, and the West can never let them have such status!

I have the weirdest belief many Americans don't share, and that is when you win a victory, you start being benevolent to those you won against, meaning I WANT U.S. military and economy number one, but NOT to be used selfishly, but morally. Are any with me? That's how you MAY win over enemies!

We in the West HAVE to unite with all nations who aren't in love with those three nations, SOON!

Background

(6/17/21-2)

Getting Xi, Putin and Un out of power would NOT solve all problems! Their regime and way of governing would continue, and substitutes would fill that vacuum! Their people's majority must want freedoms more than concern for their very existence! Some will die. Commence status quo, otherwise.

If someone wants you out of existence, like some Arabs and Iranians vs. Israel, you engender enemies! America (and the West) do NOT want China, Russia and North Korea extinct/dead/demolished!!! We want their governments behaving better toward their people, even as we are NOT perfect, either!

LOOK how often and long I've said America (including the West) need to DIVERSIFY economic ties with Chinese money and cheap labor (retweets)...

CHINA

U.S. NEEDS to diversify our global supply chain BEYOND Chinese manufacturing labor! Too many eggs in one basket presently WILL bite us in are butt. (7/18/15)

TIME for the U.S. to view China as NOT just friends and DIVERSIFY their outsourced labor and END borrowing from 'em by LOWER DEBT! (6/5/15)

less valuable to you with QE3. We need to lessen are debt and borrowing and to diversify are manufacturing supply chain, and you need to consider lending us less... (8/8/15)

China's yuan fall MORE evidence U.S. economy MUST diversify internationally, especially with its product supply chain! NOT all eggs in one basket. (8/13/15)

America needs to wean itself off needy dependence on cheap labor from China and India and DIVERSIFY! Investors know it's RISKY not to, vs. at their mercy! (3/11/17)

America needs to diversify cheap labor from nations other than India and China, as they have us over a barrel if they strike, or seek higher wages, or China dumps product, or engages other immoral economic activities. Help second and third world citizens become manufacturing workers! Investment. (6/2/19)

WHO tells you consistently, Chinas a frenemy, at best? Yours truly! Trust but verify, and DIVERSIFY eco relations with China post haste! NOT 100 percent partners! (12/28/17)

They are our enemy! We need to diversify manufacturing nations, seeking an exit from red China, ASAP, IMO. China cashes in off coronavirus, selling Spain $467 million in supplies, some of them substandard. (3/26/20-2)

To the 'never let a crisis go to waste' crowd, CHINA, RUSSIA and IRAN are out to destroy America, in subtle ways, not all-out war! Wake up! China has us by the gonads, financially. We have to diversify our global supply chain! Ally with every nation win-win is possible with! Power in numbers. (12/16/20-2)

GLOBAL DICTATORS

Economic isolation seems one of the few options for pressuring Putin to do better by his non-KGB worshipping citizens. An economic bloc to oppose BRIC! I've called for this for YEARS, allying with every nation not pro Russia/China/North Korea! Two groups, competing! LESSEN eco ties with 'em!

Putin isn't going to be bankrupted into surrendering his ambitions for his country by any escalated arms or space race's costs! He was stung by USSR's dissolving! A hit to national pride, even as FOOLS in America thought in win-lose terms, and celebrated. That ONLY infuriated his ilk to rise

VERY few have spoken as much about the threat from China and Russia as I have, the past six years! The U.S.S. Minnow's Captain's little buddy, North Korea, is also in on this alliance. You can read every tweet we've written, using Twitter's advanced search feature. LEARN!

Use money to bribe the military to come to your side, promising 'em continued jobs in a democratic regime. Appeal to their humanity. They see the suffering... (6/21/19)

[be] certain NO government loyalists secretly infiltrate your connections! Your sheer numbers, like Arab Spring and D-day, can overpower them, with many casualties. There are also products you can find to use as weapons, if peaceful protests yield no results. Other nations sometimes covertly help. You are here on [earth, to live freely unto God] (11/15/19)

...Communism. North Korea and China are two of the largest, as Japan and So Korea are peaceful! REASONABLE people would peacefully coexist. You start with honesty! I wouldn't speak with a Russian or Chinese politician without a lie detector. NO basis for trust, despite polite lies! We can get along peacefully! (1/4/20)

The choice is yours, including Iran, North Korea, et al. If you want war, we can kick your a-s! We the people don't want war. Your people don't, either! No one who's rational enjoys killing fellow humans. It's your damn BAD politicians, folks! The people with the fingers on the bombs, by executive order. (1/4/20)

FOOLS of the world (you know who you are): HERE is how you fix are worlds war rivalries, and if you don't 'wanna—you are the problem. First, you have to identify the issues in specific venues. You must admit facts, like Iran is in conflict with America, North Korea is a menace to the world, Russia and China only play like friends. (1/4/20)

India vs. Pakistan, So vs. North Korea, ~Cuba vs. America, Narco cartels vs. decent people, Venezuela vs. the will of the people, many African tribal infightings and genocides, Russia and China vs. NATO, Tibet vs. India, Hong Kong vs. China, Yemen vs. civilized people, Dems vs. GOP's, Saudi Arabia vs. Iran, etc. (1/4/20)

We've already seen, many times, evil regimes kiss up to everyone, diplomatically, while simultaneously stabbing ‘em in the back, like Iran and North Korea lying about treaty enforcement on nukes and missiles, Russia on arming Arabs v Geneva Conventions, and China hacking U.S. businesses for trade secrets, etc. (1/5/20)

I guarantee you there is Russian and maybe Chinese meddling in trying to polarize and divide America, as we see all these extreme hashtags since SOTU (Dems hate America, etc.). Why do you think Russia did anything for CHUMP in 2016? They want America weak. Their leadership is evil and our enemy!... (2/5/20)

EVERY human HAS to survive till their death! Duh 101. Every government is responsible BEFORE God to bring about circumstances where that’s possible for all their citizenry! North Korea is doing EVIL toward its masses/majority, and I pray their leadership changes or fails, QUICKLY! Dictators are evil. (5/11/20)

I heard a story of China buying up public works in other nations too poor to repay, so they retain ownership, and use ‘em as platforms to import Commies into other nations, for global strategic advantage, to get a leg up against America and India, wherever they can. #EvilRegime! MUST be stopped! America number one! (6/11/20)

Other ways China (Cf Russia and Iran) can infiltrate America: Listening devices in products were sold, immigrant spies, bots and monitoring social media, higher education students, workers in U.S. firms (stealing trade secrets), drone and satellite surveillance, man-made islands for military use... (6/12/20)

There are people who believe America is evil, in being too rich and powerful. Russia, China, Iran, North Korea. They WANT our demise! They strategize many methods to divide and destroy us, and usually not by military force, but more subtly. The far left is 100 percent united in ending are wealth and power! Socialism and... (7/8/20)

...who are NOT ‘gonna attack are military, as they’d LOSE, so they try to divide America and the West, and even divide and disrupt NATO. The West IS at war with China, Russia, Iran, North Korea and Venezuela governments, and if we don’t start acknowledging it, we will lose! Their strategies include stealing or... (7/16/20)

Russian wanted Communism installed in China. Mao studied Marxism, which taught the end justifies the means, fixers enforced right thinking, violence works, and the property owners are the oppressors. Sounds familiar with liberal extremes? Evolution Of Evil: Mao–China's Chairman of Death (7/29/20)

And bankrupting America would be a great strategy for our enemies, which is why Socialists side with them so often. QE3 devalues dollars' value, causes inflation, chains us to China, but if you just vote for freebies, what do you care about other people's money, if you are EVIL? (9/29/20)

STRONG MAN SUMMITS?

I’ll NEVER understand why some people think Summits go far. It’s GREAT and needed, that leaders meet face-to-face, but it’s so short, it’s mainly talk, and not sharing experiences/doing things together, over time, like ALL relationships require! Russia takes the long view! Presidents are 4-8 years.

We also always HOPE Russia or China will yield to our will. WHY WOULD THEY, even with pressure from a show of NATO united? They have their aims they believe are best for their nations. WHY would someone else talk them out of those?

You'd also have to meet with Putin's wife, family and LESSER staffers, because he is stubborn, but others MAY could influence him if they had humanity flowing in their veins. These events are necessary (as with Kim Jong Un), but think how effective speed dating is in securing marriages.

EMBARRASSING expectations, IMO! Long-term!

I would think it MUCH wiser to meet with Russian political opponents, outside Russia, after meeting with Putin! I know the main one is WRONGLY, evilly and satanically in jail, but others exist. Inspire the people from afar! Rile them up for resistance that can work, vs. futile acts.

Putin was SO typically EVIL:

1. Denied reality and the truth
 2. Deflected from answering to accountable questions.
 3. Deceived and stupidly equated nonviolent opposition in Russia to violent and deceived fools on Jan 6.
- THE MAN IS EVIL. Face it, people! COMMITTED to it! Satan-filled!

Summits take MONTHS of background/behind the scenes diplomacy, for any "results" to be publicly announced after a 1-day meeting! Duh 101. I would say zero goals should be set; just feel them out, pray and hope over TIME, something could change. Do activities with 'em; get to know them!

Photo op and sound bite. That is about ALL anyone can expect from a 1-day "Summit." MUCH more productive would be what I advised is needed: NATO leaders sit down with China and Russia's leaders, with lie detectors, and air out differences over a week, even virtually, as other things to do!

Have NATO meet BEFOREhand, to talk their issues; then, later, meet with Russia and China, knowing there some stuff from the first meeting that would never be stated before those two adversaries. You have to find common ground. That's usually not by mere chatting! Mutual experiences/activities.

I'm going to stick this in your face, AS IF you were a Kindergartner: HOW do deep or even sincere but shallower relationships happen? In person, doing things together, along with many conversations; and finding common ground. NO Summit can ever short-circuit that natural process!

Strangers (even if famous) date, well before they get engaged and marry. That analogy, NON-sexually, represents good relationships between America and Russia leaders! They have long-term goals; we have short-term. That is NOT called common ground! Leaders need fun things done together, that are out of BOTH people's comfort zone, to stretch and open them to new things, including perspectives. Their staffers need to be around, as these people don't rule in a vacuum. Lie detectors available would hold them accountable, as no talks based on lies are worth anything.

It's NOT all give and take! Win-win. It's not win-lose. HONEST people (like 46 said, yesterday) would tell the public, through media, he was putting a positive face to the event, meaning that's NOT the full reality!

Have BOTH sides list their top five complaints against the other. Have a neutral party (Switzerland head of state?) facilitate, if any misunderstandings or strife occur, and one or both parties can't handle the conflict, like grown adults. They also can throw out new perspectives.

Not all complaints will be fully valid. It's NOT about 50/50, but only addressing the percent of every complaint that is real, no matter how one-sided that may become. People get resentful and defensive when they alone are seen as the bad guy, so praising their GOOD policies and acts is required.

Identify with and agree to valid aims of Russia! Speak to the people, if ever in that land! Encourage opponents to stand firm and be safe but brave. Explain to Putin that the opposition is NOT wanting evil things, but he just wants power forever, and that's evil.

DON'T expect him to grasp morals, or God! Ask him why he demands to be the top politician forever? Ask him if he treats his people well? Would he like to live in fear or be threatened?

Does he think any military engagement with America would be successful? Would he like us to hack his infrastructure? Use logic.

Find emotional triggers from his childhood and family upbringing. He wasn't always non-human in his demeanor, conscience and emotional development. Ask about his childhood. Find out how he felt about the Cold War and USSR breaking up. Ask of his understanding of Russian pride and history!

Ask him to describe what his vision for the world is, and what Russian ascendance would look like. Ask him his aims for his nation? Ask him what he hates about democracy and Capitalism, and loves about Communism. Ask him why he opposes so many human rights. Isn't he human, as well? Unjust.

Do things together, be it putt putt golf, climbing a steep hill or small mountain, walking a long walk, playing chess, backgammon, ping pong, kayaking, swimming across a pond, attending a movie, laser tag, horseback riding, or a host of activities where conversations occur.

THIS is relationship-building. It can't be one summit, but a series, with phone calls in-between. America has to show gestures of being willing to change any bad things he validly raises. It's called good faith. Naivete would believe Hell change. Hope hopes so, but plans against it happening.

WHO are the up-and -coming future Russian leaders? They must be met! I'd suggest opposition leaders meet with Putin and U.S. leaders, to openly discuss their differences, and what the opposition is honestly seeking. MAKE PUTIN HEAR his own people tell him evils he must change, even if he stays in power!

Make him face them, in the same small room, to see they're humans, TOO, and not devils with unreasonable demands. Make NATO be united for those same, reasonable expected changes. Don't think that unity pressures him! Just validates the complaints! He's NOT persuaded by threats!

Literally, he has to face overwhelming military superiority that is never used (unless he attacks first). Global alliances will help leverage his being outnumbered and opposed by so many that he feels more like rocket man (isolated). Trade alliances with all non-CRNK nations(China-Russia-North Korea).

Offer Putin a way to make changes without losing what he fears most: Power, or money, or both. DO THE SAME process with China and North Korea, and do not believe change will come, unless something unusual occurs, over time. They're committed to their causes! Do it.

Doing business in, visiting or living in government-risky nations is a dangerous RISK! China's NOT friendly to the West, as shown by their opposing Taiwan's desire for more independence. Duh 101. These types do not change often! Committed to Communism! Buyer beware! NOT naivete!

America and the West NEED to develop technology that penetrates all closed nations' TV's, radios, computers, in ways that can't be blocked, or drop leaflets from airplanes flying in restricted space, letting them know the West and most nations are FOR their human rights seven freedoms—we love them!

Air America USED to be used to penetrate the peoples in closed nations. There needs to be an Air-France (NOT airline), Air-Germany, Air-Italy, and every FREE country, that penetrates walls and barriers in China, Russia and North Korea, to tell the people WE outsiders are FOR their freedoms!

Closed nations CENSOR and ban free speech! Exhibits A and B: Apple in Hong Kong, and Twitter in Nigeria. Skywriter technology is needed to SAFELY write "Be free, citizens!" in CRNK, or by clusters of drones that can't show up on their radar. Lasers could write that, if their reach were enhanced!

People who enter those three countries could carry encrypted messages of the same. Stealth bombers could barrage their main cities with a leaflet drop. I'm talking REAL change, where Communist oppressed peoples learn how everyone else feels about their plight, and feel our support!

HERE is MY vision for the non-politicians of Russia, China and North Korea:

1. Free to express their true feelings with zero threat of retaliation, jail, death or economic ruin
2. Free to associate with anyone they want, except for criminal activities
3. Having a say in who rules 'em
4. Their "leaders" don't own a huge stash of money and perks/luxuries, nor their cronies, and they only rule for a maximum of 10 years
5. Allowed to own things (private property), work where they want, and earn what their skills deserve
6. Able to contact people world-wide (NOT criminals)
7. Laws are fair, and enforced, and government actions are only based on compliance to those laws. Not pols' whims!
8. Police only follow those just laws, and aren't agents to enforce terror among the people, even resisters to leader policies
9. Slavery, sweat shops and child labor BANNED
10. NO over-punishment, and legal rights are allowed them (day in court, speedy and just trial, right to sound defense, no railroading or kangaroo courts, right against self-incrimination, etc.)
11. Freedom of movement and entertainment and information
12. Healthcare and education access
13. The military is never used against its own people! ONLY for national defense
14. Religious practice is allowed, and none are persecuted
15. Worship of the emperor meets reality, that they're mere mortals, NOT to be worshipped!
16. ETC. (Human rights and God-given freedoms to ALL!)

Military intervention is not needed/mandatory, but should never be off the long-term table! These three nations NEED to come into the 21st century, in viewing people as humans made in God's image, and NOT robots, tools, or agents of their government! Pressure these monsters to humanize!

The three devils NEED to FEEL what it is to be the mere mortal humans that they are! They're NOT gods. They're NOT indispensable! They're NOT special! They put their pant legs on like everyone else! They get treated like they're special, in cloistered luxury. That should change! REAL life!

Make them observe everyday laborers, at work and at home! Make them tour unscripted businesses, unannounced. Make them hear the honest testimonies of their suffering constituents (North Korea). Get them OUTside and out of their choreographed existence! MAKE them observe and feel reality!

Drone and satellite imagery and long months of observing movements and any habits (Hint: They'll move to more unpredictability). Create facial recognition technology from space, and that sees.

Identify which staffers might be open to regime change. If certain facilities were targeted, it would strike a destructive blow to their dictatorships! It would have to be a united front Quite literally, if military action had to occur, target gatherings of their leaders and cabinet members!

Knock out media, intel headquarters, key leadership personnel, major military assets and key infrastructure assets, including food supply chains, electricity and communications. The opposition would have to be ready to take over! Futuristic vision through walls. We have the ability to target specific individuals, and have no collateral damage!

You can't expect anything less from these types (China, Russia and North Korea), than scorched earth responses to their being ousted! Hack those systems into nullification! Future vision for any attacks; sudden and severe in impact!

Nuclear warhead defense technology would have to be developed, long before! Iron Dome on steroids.

NO ONE wants to die, and few volunteer to. Even among the opposition in CRNK, few want to die, if their martyrdom wouldn't cause significant and needed change! People don't often choose to die for a futile cause, unless they're deceived! These heroes need help and pragmatic a plan/strategy!

The Arab Spring should SURELY rise again, and be sustained indefinitely! NOT quashed into a has-been historical event! SAME with tank man, and the military person who escaped North Korea, and Alexey Navalny. ALL oppressed people DESERVE freedom, folks! Make it happen!!! NO evil dictators!

D-Day taught the world one historic lesson: If enough heroes value their allied countrymen's freedom over their very own lives, and therefore enough of them are willing to die for that outcome, that outcome CAN occur! CRNK politicians will NEVER allow democracy, without violent resistance!

I have written chapters on how to achieve freedom for the oppressed! They're at Facebook, and in one book of mine. I will try to find a few retweets to add to this topic of today. The answers exist. The will likely does not.

MEETING THE GLOBE'S NEEDS

AMERICAN VALUES: Honesty, hard work, unity, freedom, be your best, value our Founders and their Constitution, humble imperfection (historic mistakes acknowledged), America number one, innovation, trust but verify, evil exists, pro-democracy, making money is good, be color blind, be kind, etc.

I don't know all the answers, but I do know there are many! HOW could our world have all it needs, for everyone?

1. Limited population growth
2. Efficient use of resources
3. Finding all resources avail on earth
4. New technologies to expand existing resources usefulness...

Lights, by Journey <https://youtube.com/watch?v=tNG62fULYgI>

NO ONE likes or wants to help non-family members, much, financially. Even family members, if truth be told, as we work for what is our own stuff. Self-sufficiency is NOT an evil, or even selfish trait, but a good, moral and responsible trait! EVERYONE on earth needs to have that trait.

IF we, cooperatively, could move toward making EVERYONE self-sufficient, collective funds (AKA, taxes and charity donations) could fix the many things that need fixing. Cheaper labor from third world nations could even fix them, privately! Communist nations would need to adopt this vision.

There may be limited resources, and money decides who gets what, but the worlds rich people NEED to decide (if not be incentivized) to generously give back, so people can learn self-sufficiency, and problems get solved. Same with successful businesses. Limiting population growth puts LESS stress on the demand for limited resources!

IF YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO FUND CHILDREN, DO NOT HAVE CHILDREN—period! If everyone, the world over, would simply adopt this common sense adage, our strains on resources (which leads to wars, often) could be eased. Find your fun in other ways, like volunteering as a Big bro/sis, help adopting families and foster parents, and orphans.

Buddy up with kids you can mentor. Find the joy of childbearing in another person's fruitfulness! don't HAVE YOUR OWN! Get a dog, or bunny, IF you can't afford kids! Be responsible!

Life, the world and society DO NOT OWE YOU ANYTHING! Live within your means! Improve your means, by improving your job skills. I, perhaps naively, believe EVERYONE could have what they needed, in life, if they would simply apply this lesson/message, today.

THEN we could work on ending problems and diseases and weather threats, and develop totally unthought of products that would dazzle, robots that do home chores, and make jobs more enduring. People could still be rich, but also generous; NOT selfish. Extreme poverty need not exist, in my perhaps naive worldview.

God has a minimum standard for every human, and it is much lower than the American Dream! I Tim. 6:8 That is ALL that society must ensure anyone, including the homeless! Food and clothes. Jesus didn't even own a place to lay His head. Lk. 9:58 NO exposure to the elements, starvation or thirst.

I would add that one level better would be a place to sleep, and enough medical care to never die of preventable diseases. SURELY our world can achieve that minimum, in a fair way to everyone, without over-burdening anyone who is NOT in your family! DO YOUR PART, and pay your way!

I would LOVE "Heaven on earth," or "Thy kingdom come, on earth," but Paradise lost will never become Eden. The BEST we can do is everyone gets what they need. CAN YOU IMAGINE what we, united and collectively, could achieve if that minimum were achieved?

I can, perhaps naively, see products that healthily control dangerous weather conditions, diseases destroyed, crime ended (hopefully 100 percent), people happy, and mankind pleasing God, with such a world! CAN YOU SEE THAT POSSIBILITY? <https://youtube.com/watch?v=YkgkThdzX-8...>

America, with all her faults, is the closest we've come, so far! She can be a lot greater, morally! The will must be there! The means are obvious! Extremists can't control life's events! The vast in-between land has to be where we park our wagons, perennially! I want America to be the world-class global standard for how every other nation can aspire to be and become, but we are not that, today!

Change has got to come! You start with a vision, then work back to reality, and analyze the needed steps to bridge the gap. I can imagine those steps. Done it for eight years. Can you? IMAGINE! NO MORE accepting/tolerating second best!

THIS LIST is a Pollyanna FANTASY pipe dream!: https://opseu.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/12/30_basic_human_rights_list_english.pdf...

We must be practical and reasonable! These are awesome aspirational goals and ideals, but NOT realistic! Achieve what's possible!

TO ME there's ZERO need to seek to mine other planets (open to be convinced otherwise). At best, America simply needs to ensure China and Russia don't use space as a weapon, where they can gain military advantage over us there! We all have to make due with whats HERE!

America NEEDS to HEED these lyrics, as we are so often chasing shiny objects, and losing perspective! <https://youtube.com/watch?v=aluCdQtNBgg...>

IF we can make America the model for other nations, we can lead the world to a brighter future, as the city on a hill and 1000 points of light! STARTS with us!

MEDITATE on these possibilities!: No diseases No wars No crime No weather disasters No severe poverty No missing justice It starts by everyone having their minimums met, self-sufficiently!

P.S.: ANY governing official in ANY nation who opposes this (aspirational) vision is NOT worthy of ANY nation allowing them to continue to be in power! Many just want wealth and arrogant control of subordinates, but God sees all, and God does judge!

GLOBAL ECONOMIC COOPERATION?

WE are already in a global economy. You can have nationalism, NATO allies, Capitalists and democracies vs. BRIC and Communists, or there could be more global cooperation, IF there were severe and serious enforcements and punishments for violators. I could likely NEVER trust any communist!

This JUSTIFIED distrust is likely one reason global economic cooperation WILL come, and by force, in the 7-year Tribulation (Rev. 13+). Prophecy is NOT our focus, here, but we have two books on that. For now, bettering our world must be all's focus. they should be taxed a ton, as that is punishing success.

It ALL goes back to fairness, and GE and Jeff Bezos paying ZERO taxes is UNfair to all other rich folk, regular fellas and gals, and businesses. And where that federal revenue goes is also an issue, as no one "deserves" handouts stolen for them by the force of government.

That is NOT justice, but injustice! America has a safety net, from MERCY; NOT justice! No justice, no peace! Use that safety net to force poor people to stand on their own two financial feet within two years, then somewhat repay it in civic service!

The ONLY people deserving full government funding for their existence are people 100 percent mentally or physically disabled, through no fault of their own! Even partially disabled people can still work some! No free lunches, except for the first two types! THIS is justice, folks!

Finally, man's problems are HARDLY needing to colonize space! Humans can't live there safely without much mechanization! Nor have they food supplies or great mineable natural resources that can efficiently or economically be brought to earth! We have got to make it here, as the Eagle's song said.

GLOBILIZATION'S IMPACT

America USED to have employer and employee markets. Globalization virtually ended those swings. U.S. businesses could now hire anywhere (outsource) and hire from anywhere (immigration). When YOU hire a lawn boy, you don't care if what they charge will allow them to survive. You want best deal!

The problem is, labor doesn't set a price on what they charge/business pays! It's labeled 'market rate', which means whatever they can legally get away with. GONE are the days owners were like heads of households, in family environments, with mutual loyalty. Job hopping increased, as result.

Labor NEEDS a global no safe haven for under-paid wages, just like we just got global no safe haven for the rich. The balance of power NEEDS to be equalized, for fairness/justice! Other global solutions including strikes, work slowdowns, unionizing, zero unfunded kids birthed, global education (it can be free and inexpensively funded), global education on best spending practices, etc.

Global job search skills training, and job skills training, so EVERY human becomes their God given best, and business doesn't hold all the cards of power! JUSTICE! A minimum global safety net, as well, FAIRLY funded by each country's fair share, and only temporarily, to get every human adult on their own two financial feet.

NOT one-world government, but global aspirations achieved by every nation, in cooperation which benefits ALL, is just, and minimizes taxpayer pain.

In economics and business, theorists discuss collaboration, competition and monopolies. Competition has its value, but collaborations can also be good, as in coordinated research for a Covid vaccine, or other world problems getting fixed. IF this system were fair to all, only those who like or benefit from injustice would balk.

Competition can be over-done, and lose some of its benefits to society! Ecc. 4:4 People can also LOSE, unfairly, by being manipulated and taken advantage of under cooperative arrangements. The ideal is "liberty and justice for all."

I have NOT broken my ~pledge not to post U.S. political solutions, as this is a global solution (Andi may retract that pledge before Nov. 2022, if it harms my positivity, as envisioning a better future that's practical is quite encouraging to me). THIS world can be SO much better IF we want it to be.

Update: Globalism & U.S. Workers

There is NO putting toothpaste of globalism back into the tube. Business can source and hire from anywhere. The American education system needs such an overhaul, to ensure our children are world-class graduates, it's not even funny. I have solutions to fix our educational decline!

From ~1950-1980, U.S. blue collar workers enjoyed HIGH paychecks, because the U.S. economy was mainly national. When CEOs told union bosses, take it or leave it, cutting manufacturing salaries by nearly 30+ percent or more, unions declined, and outsourcing escalated. Sucking sound to the South.

When the world population is the labor pool, AI and robots are competing employees, population explosion escalates, and businesses are streamlined to the bare bones, many people fight for few jobs, and wages fall. Economic common sense 101. What are the solutions?

1. LESS population (don't birth too many children)
2. Better qualified job applicants
3. Start your own business
4. Are you smarter than a fifth grade robot? Eventually, government will have to take over businesses/the rich, to have jobs for the masses, to some degree!

Update #1: Workers

HOW IS IT NOT FAIR that any employee whose productivity contributed to company profits doesn't deserve some portion of those profits shared? Answer: Business isn't concerned with justice, but just profits! That's where the government comes into play, as a neutral arbiter.

Justice is NOT everyone paid the same. It's NOT anyone being over-paid. It's also not employees taking what they can get, with business holding all the leverage. It's a fair wage, based on market forces that aren't solely dictated by business, but negotiated on a level playing field.

Update #2: Working Stiffs

Let's help out the poor the best way I know how: Teach them how to fish. Your job can fit in one of four categories, and for the poor, it will be one of the first two.

1. Hourly employee
2. Manager
3. Business owner
4. Investor

Poor people must move into management, or do exceptional work, to earn raises, promotions and/or bonuses, or work long hours (overtime pay). Dual income parents also help. Also, businesses pay differently, and these rates are NOT publicized. YOU have to research and inquire to find the best paying offer for your skills; skills you need to improve!

As a poor person, your incomes limited, so your outgo must be strictly/tightly controlled! You need discipline, and education on how to find the best values and deals. Lack of knowledge will KILL your making ends meet. Gaining that knowledge is YOUR responsibility! NOT taxpayers problem.

IF anyone is willing to lower their standards, and work for lesser pay for the same quality of work, everyone's wages go downward! Competition from too few jobs makes people abandon self-confidence and do such, and ONLY business benefits, as a result. Poor people NEED to comprehend this.

Global competition is racing for AI and robotize, one day the world's governments will have to regulate their use, as the least skilled citizens will be permanently out of a job! The race can continue, but it's toward government regulation, globally! 666 beast image MAY be that! Rev. 13

Government can be changed or overthrown, if it infringes life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. In an ideal world, every human would have:

1. Enough money to survive
2. Healthcare to prevent premature or preventable death Unbridled Capitalism has NO concern if these don't occur.

I don't believe ANY products should EVER be able to significantly harm consumers! That means oil and gas, chemicals, food additives, public water, agriculture, factory runoff, pollution, etc. Making money MUST be curbed by these parameters! Government's job is to protect these rights.

You will NEVER get rich business persons to care about the financial well-being of all of their employees, if they can replace them for the same or cheaper! The workforce size MUST be fair to both management and labor! WHO holds executives accountable for unfairly being over-paid? God?

Trickle-down economics worships investors, shareholders and business management. God opposes government favoring the rich! ALL nations (and individuals) are to obey God, even if they aren't religious, and don't believe he exists. one of government's role is enforce righteousness and prevent evil.

Global workers NEED to UNITE! You are fighting against each other, which only benefits the elites! Business automates everything, if that will prevent them hiring humans, though they need some people with money, to make more money off their machines! They NEVER have enough, to them.

COULD you have a global economy with no currency? Just allocate all the world's resources and products where everyone did OK, and those who worked harder, or had more valuable functions, got more? Communism TRIES to do this, but FAILS! PURE Capitalism doesn't aspire to these aims.

The THEORY of PURE Capitalism is humans are money motivated. ONLY care about motivating by money! Make as much as you can, and every man for himself. Dog eat dog; behave animalistically, even as Creationists and intelligent design devotees hypocritically agree with this immorality.

Wall Street, business management and shareholders are NOT God. EVERY rich person, and entity, needs to learn to give back! You CAN have enough! Let me SHOW you how businesses can squeeze even more money out of average Joe, if allowed:

1. Automate all jobs that you can
2. Make government fund the rest
3. Fight taxes, so you don't fund government
4. Outsource every job you can
5. Import all the cheap labor humanly possible
6. Ban unions
7. Fight minimum wage
8. Pay less than fair share taxes
9. Retire, and let others worry about the nation's debt, that funded much of this, ETC.

Trickle-down economics says tax the rich less and we all do better (defund government) Socialism says tax them more, and we all do better (fund BIG government) Centrism says tax everyone fairly, and only for what is needed (only fund streamlined, moderate-sized to small government).

GLOBAL VISION (I)

It's 3:30am, and America NEEDS to wake up (figuratively). DO YOU SEE what's going on in the world with our two main rival frenemies? China and Russia are closely allied together, to oppose us/US, and our allies. They BOTH seek relationships with our allies, using oil, etc. (Ex.: Russia with Germany).

Supplying nations' needs endears them, and gives them control. Germany is dependent on Russian oil. China is developing infrastructure in third-world nations, to engender loyalty like allies, and make them dependent. China out-smarted America, by making us dependent on their loans and labor!

IF these two are successful, the dollar will cease being the global reserve currency! The U.S. car market is already hurting from a chip manufacturing shortage from China. We were NOT diversified in our supply chain! Chinese students come here, get all our higher education, and return, sometimes to use it against us.

Hackers breach our firewalls and steal our companies' trade secrets. Who needs to take the time, effort and costs of R & D when you can steal it? They have nukes, and even a sonic wave capability of shutting down our electric grid, for a time.

It USED to be you don't provoke the bear. They're not concerned about this bear anymore, as we look like a lap dog, with the division especially Russia caused with false information campaigns of bots and bought-off politicians, like tRUMP.

China is expanding into space, building man-made islands, making third-world alliances, and BOTH of them trudge forward virtually unabated, as NATO is seen as weak, especially as CHUMP made the alliance weaker, not maintaining our friendship, but angering so many with his bravado arrogance, and only talking of paying their fair share!

America still has the economy and military, but even 'American Exceptionalism' can turn off our allies as arrogant superiority complex, and open them more to RUS-CHI economic ties. We DO possess the belief/attitude that we can do anything, BUT other nations have caught up significantly, and our competitive edge gap dwindles every passing year.

I do not believe all of our D.C. strategists (i.e., professional politicians) see the BIG picture of exactly what's going on here! The Cold War was NOT ended, as so many believed! It went dormant till Russia could regroup! Now, with China's backing, it's on like Donkey Kong.

The Soviet Union reconstituted and reunited is Putin's end-game, and China tires of an independent Taiwan. North Korea maintains close ties to the Chi-Coms, and Communism is using P.R. moves to engender themselves to third-world nations, using OUR former money, because they played us!

Globalism mainly benefitted China! Even as several U.S. companies return U.S. high technology and technology support jobs from India, manufacturing still remains mainly housed in China.

Russia has oil, and dictates many commercial routes to the Middle East. Then there are the world's shipping lanes, and even some support/backing of Israel's fiercest enemies.

I will allege, "YOU DON'T GET IT," unless our leaders start not just saying words, but showing deeds that show me they get this BIG picture! Even as America retracts and retreats to more nationalism (under 46-1, for four years), RUS-CHI were reaching out to build alliances!

Any arrogance in our positive belief in ourselves could blind us to our need for many more alliances, not because we need things from them, but this is a global chess game, and CHI-RUS play the long game! PLEASE TELL ME SOMEONE UNDERSTANDS! Crickets?

Finally, America can NEVER let her guard down, be naive, or presume upon our past alliances! We need more and stronger ties with our friends, and we must observe how even they aren't immune from having needs CHI-RUS can fill. Never get in bed with a snake, which is exactly what America did with China, with globalization!

The lure of cheap labor got us in debt to them, dependent on them, funding their rise, and owning much of our properties, through sHell companies. I must admit, I don't fully trust that our strategists are winning the battle of who can out-smart whom! Change that!

It seems Communists and terrorists are converging in general alliances to oppose America and the West. DO OUR "leaders" understand the implications, and especially do they make superior counter-moves?

A POST-GLOBILIZATION WORLD

I NEVER thought globalism was a 100 percent good or sustainable policy. it was great for business; horrible for labor, and injustice always has blowback. Our greed for BIG biz made China rich.

NOW, India doesn't explicitly condemn Russia's invasion of Ukraine; China is slamming economic sanctions; Saudi Arabia is supplying China with oil, and the sole superpower and American Exceptionalism attitude is being rebuffed by BRIC (as I've spoken on many times). I said NATO has to expand! South and central America and African continent! Chi-Rus is racing for allies.

Add Iran, and many nations tolerating or hating our number one ally, Israel, and America must defend and expand NATO, while becoming economically self-sustaining and interdependent more with free nations, as Communist dictators have proven they won't give up the perks or power!

WE (NATO and America) have to HELP Arab Spring arise, and people be freed, who want to be (North Korea, Russia, China, et al). That makes their leaders cling more tightly, and even consider war! Those elites will NEVER change, or quit their selfish, evil, maniacal control of their people, except by force! People first!

WE (NATO and America) can tolerate the BRIC bunch! OF COURSE we wouldn't start any attacks, but we do need to guard against those who have no compunction doing evil. We (NATO) HAVE to/MUST help the oppressed people get free. It's NOT right! Any who enjoy being slaves can remain as such!

You are NOT going to change Communist comrades/elites to democracy, and you aren't 'gonna take them on, militarily, or all will lose, as they'll shoot nukes, to protect their exclusive elites club of government officials! The military is also key, promising them the same or better perks, for siding with the masses/people, through coups or general uprisings the iron fisted police can't control.

I've written how the people can rise up. There will be martyrs. There has to be power in numbers. Help is needed, as with courage! NATO must offer assistance to all citizens to be free.

IF we merely IGNORE BRIC, they'll expand, increase ties, change the dollar as international default currency, make in-roads to E.U. nations, economically, and do anything and everything to weaken America. We CAN'T keep weakening ourselves, by division between brother as enemy, vs real frenemies!

Economically, whatever America does, enemies and frenemies will hack and steal (trade secrets). We have to always be out front, and first to market. America first, economically; NATO expanded, internationally, as ignoring what BRIC is doing would make "America first" America LAST!

THE reason far righters MUST care about global relations, is you can't make money if your country (or those of your trade partners) is unsettled, under attack, or unstable, risking a coup. America first means globally; not slaves to another nation, or alliance against our interests!

Zelensky asks the Israelis for Iron Dome technology: "Everybody knows that your missile defense systems are the best and that you can definitely help our people, save the lives of Ukrainians, of Ukrainian Jews."

I DEFINITELY see prophecy implications, the way Russia and Israel's enemy nations are all uniting, via China. Iran has always wanted Israel off the map, and even India tied to Russia. NATO (the ~10 member revived Roman Empire) now playing prominent role in Middle East-oriented turmoil settlement.

The U.S. and the (unofficial) "E.U." HAVE to unite (and expand) MUCH more, and our great allies forgive us for the blundering Trump years, and any past American arrogance! WE NEED EACH OTHER! It's becoming a physical need, economic and militarily! Biden better expand NATO ties. LOOK at this...

peaceful and prosperous ends in trade and military support of each other. In other words, HUGEly expand NATO and E.U./U.S.A. economic ties to all other [freedom-oriented nations] (4/29/17)

Include NATO. It should expand membership and military capability and the U.N. should engage major diplomatic/peace-making efforts soon, IF capable. Is it? (4/18/17)

Post-cold war Russia economy fell behind but in 2001 with the U.S. focused on 911 opportunity to expand in Georgia (war) with NATO weak (E.U. nations' military). (5/1/15)

who are NOT 'gonna attack our military, as they'd LOSE, so they try to divide AMERICA and the West, and even divide and disrupt NATO. The West IS at war with China, Russia, Iran, North Korea and Venezuela governments, and if we don't start acknowledging it, we will lose! Their strategies include stealing trade secrets, or hacking. (7/16/20)

Centrists are for fair trade deals, good for America, or NOT entered into, and the more the merrier! Economic alliances bond nations, and with enemies uniting (Russia, China, Iran, et al), we NEED even more NATO members, and G-20 members-NOT less! NO nation is stupid enough to enter a BAD trade deal... (4/30/19)

...economically, but they are Communist dictators to the core! They hate democracy! Look how they reacted to the uprising In Hong Kong! Communist nations and Jew-hating Arabs will unite, because CHUMP says America's military can take on anyone, and he's angered even NATO! The U.S. has LESS friends thanks to the... (2/5/20-2)

...envisioned all these scenarios? They think there's anger at them within the U.S.A. How about Chump ticking off every nation but Israel? Even Britain, the E.U. and NATO allies are turned off by the fool! Much less China, Russia, Iran and Arab nations (favoring Israel). I can think of FEW who love us! (10/6/18)

Ukraine has OBVIOUSLY changed and all but ruined U.S.'s relationships with Russia. China backing that, by not condemning or punishing is making a separation in our relationship. This means America must do what I've told us we need to do for YEARS. LOOK at this...

America needs to diversify cheap labor from nations other than India and China, as they have us over a barrel if they strike, or seek higher wages, or China dumps product, or engages other immoral economic activities. Help second and third world citizens become manufacturing workers! Investment. (6/2/19)

America needs to wean yourself off needy dependence on cheap labor from China and India and DIVERSIFY! Investors know it's RISKY not to, vs. being at their mercy! :

The amount of oil under the US land mass IS finite/limited. Oil is NOT renewable, except millennia later! America has to move more to renewables, and BIG oil needs to diversify more into green resources, to remain viable! Wind energy is endless, and vehicles need to be able to run off it! (9/13/20)

America complicitly aided and abetted China's rise, as I've denounced for YEARS, with unthinking/unrestricted globalization and outsourcing. I've told America to diversify our manufacturing nations for YEARS! Break your dependence on Chinese labor! QUIT sending U.S. dollars to Xi's/China's regime! (7/4/21-2)

China would be wise to diversify who she funds! America as an investment is becoming more a house of cards, as NO politician seems to have any fiscal discipline, because its Other People's Money, and they can bribe votes, to keep their lucrative jobs with many perks! Corrupt system! FIX IT!!! (5/27/21-2)

LOOK how often and long I've said America (including the West) need to DIVERSIFY economic ties with Chinese money and cheap labor (retweets)... (6/17/21-2)

To the 'never let a crisis go to waste' crowd, CHINA, RUSSIA and IRAN are out to destroy America, in subtle ways, not all-out war! Wake up! China has us by the gonads, financially. We have to diversify our global supply chain! Ally with every nation win-win is possible with! Power in numbers.

In life (the real world), you have to do business with people you don't like, or trust, or share common ground with, like oil from a man who very likely had Khashoggi killed. I would suggest America NEVER be dependent [use/utilize, but don't depend] upon any frenemy nation, for anything—period. An absolute statement!

People speak of the "new world order." I NEVER investigated their meaning or concerns. But Ukraine is certainly setting up a shift in global relations! EVIL people are exposing their true colors. America has sincere haters and enemies. WE HAVE TO DEFENSIVELY ADJUST! It will be our loss if we don't.

Many real life illustrations and analogies pastors could use to teach Bible prophecy! One of the four horsemen of the apocalypse (or one of the six seals) is inflation (price of bread analogy; Rev. 6+)! Then there's "wars and rumors of wars." Gog is rising. The apostasy and grand delusion/BIG lie.

I find it amazing that for democracy and human rights, BILLIONS of people clamor, but for central iron fist control, mainly only a handful of dictators clamor, at the point of a gun. HOW CAN HUMANITY NOT GET RID OF THESE 3-5 BUMS FOR GOOD, and make life grand for EVERYONE? Us vs. them.

If I were Biden, I'd be meeting with every ally nation, but especially every nation that values freedom, and re-establishing BETTER, longer-term economic and military ties! That is priority one!

If I were 46, I'd be meeting with every ally nation, but especially every nation that values freedom, and re-establishing BETTER, longer-term economic and military ties! Priority one! America has to exp-a-n-d the family of nations unity! Broaden the tent! You either support Ukrainian War tactics of Russia, or you're with US!

It TRULY is Communism tyrannical government rulership, OR its human rights and citizen freedoms. This is the great divide. The West and free world will NEVER adopt Communism, and dictators seem unlikely to ever relinquish gripping power freely. Their people MUST wake UP—you 'wanna live like that?

There are MANY morons in the world! If you can't see a person who'd target innocent civilians, and send supersonic missiles to damage everything in its path is NOT WORTHY of ANY relations, you fit the mold. You are a bona fide bone head! You need to fear God. You don't value morality!

Other nations (China and Russia) see America as having lost her glory. I AM ABOUT TO CUSS: If the extremists in America don't stop dividing our great nation, THEY will be responsible for her demise! I'm just amazed this all started with pastor decisions to back 45, over Roe, sad to say!

If extremists, on BOTH sides of the aisle, can't see their radical antics are causing world division, by enemy and frenemy nations rising against America's global leadership, as they sense weakness and blood in the water, you're as STUPID as I've always alleged!

IF you don't have an economy, you don't have a defense. Military costs money. America needs to reconnoiter, in light of Ukraine, and learn to utilize win-win for all nations we don't risk having a war with! That's it; my job here is done!

MAKE GREEN OFF GOING GREEN

#CommonSense! Limited resources, too many people; what other decision could nations make, that's reasonable? Yet many won't! Selfish hoarding sinners! More than 70 nations pledge to reduce food waste - ABC News - <https://abcn.ws/2Nxahnm> via @ABC

Let's address the 'we paid for it' excuse for wasting precious, limited natural resources: YES YOU DID, but your money spent to do so helps people who need that wasted resource NONE! You can feel holy that you waste water you paid for, but that helps water-depleted people ZERO!

Americans waste electricity, water, food, etc., but since we bought them, we feel we have done nothing wrong to the world. All you have done is make those business owners richer.

We also use more than our population's PERCENT of oil. Is that wrong? We paid for it. Yes and no. Yes, if oil were renewable. We need technology to extend its efficiency. No, because you paid for it. Related pollution doesn't just hover over the U.S.A., and impacts everyone.

EVERY American should WANT greener energy, with prices on par with oil, simply due to pollution and a limited supply of oil on the earth! Not greedy selfish folk. One day we're 'gonna run out of oil, or destroy our ecology in the pursuit of the last drop of black gold. That's NOT sustainable, or smart!

Oil companies SHOULD be emulating Exxon-Mobil, in pursuing algae and many other renewable or green energy sources. Typewriters died out, too, from market forces. Wars are fought over oil! That means humans die over oil. Isn't it time we see there has to be a better way, even if climate change were a complete hoax?

We'll always need oil derivatives, and if we run out of oil, even those will come to an end! EVERYTHING cries green energy but our public policy! Pursue BOTH!

Pocahontas says good-paying union jobs for green energy from former oil workers. BALDERDASH.

1. That's pandering to her Dem bias for unions.
2. Oil workers don't want to undergo career retraining!
3. Oil will always be needed.
4. 'Good paying' means less profits for business, so they'll oppose it, or automate more.

Liberals are NEVER 'gonna convince the claiming Christian majority in America that climate change is about to destroy our planet, because we can read the final chapter, and even during a future 7-year period, there's nothing wrong with the earth ending for that cause! (Rev. 13-17)

NPR said nuclear fusion is the hope for a greener planet. I'll bet most of you reading have never heard of that solution, either! It's all about learning! I'm ALL for any and all energy sources that are clean, cheap and sustainable. Oil is but one source we need for the future. Public policy must be smart.

JUST TODAY, Texas State Network News said U.T. scientists have found West Texas has had a significant increase in small earthquakes, in the past few years, due to fracking. It hasn't caused any damage to people or structures, but this is the future of reliance on oil? That's NOT a sustainable or sole source!

SUSTAINABLE SELF-SUFFICIENCY

Let's address the elephant in the room: ALL Dems are kissing up to blacks, Hispanics and the poor, offering freebies, or government assistance (daycare, healthcare, etc.). That's STEREOTYPING two races as economic failures, when not all are (nor are all whites, Indians and Asians successes)!

And government is tax payer funded–NOT non tax payer funded! WE DON'T OWE YOU ONE DA_N THING! You seek "help." You vote like an S.O.S. was on your rooftop. Help yourself! Tax payers can help you, skill and knowledge-wise, and should, and even temporary government aid to get you self-sustaining, repaid by civic service, but YOU must help yourself, if you are an adult!

Adults pay their own bills, and live within their means. If you are over age 18, WHY are you soliciting tax payer income forced as taxes to buoy your failed choices? Because you can is NO valid reason!

YOU need to unionize, formally or informally, if you are incapable of negotiating a living wage. You need to learn how to budget, and live within it. You need to learn better skills for the future! You need to offer business skills worth paying you more than those they can hire elsewhere!

Your poor wage negotiation skills shouldn't be remediable by voting for politicians to give you a raise, by freebies! If every expense of yours escalates, you have to start uniting your power (leverage) to force lower prices or more competition, by boycotts/buycotts, and patronizing new business competitors to those pricey ones!

It's a privilege to live in America, and with globalization, businesses hire from anywhere! You are competing with third world labor! You can live elsewhere, if you can't hack it here, but you can hack it here if you hustle more, work harder, smarter, and spend wisely! I don't want any American to leave because of economics, but you NEED to if you think tax payers owe you funds to keep you here!

And there's much pushback against billionaires. Our laws must be changed to prevent certain tactics that screw the working man to make people that rich, often by adding zero value to any product or service, just sitting back and reaping income off their money, doing nothing else we would label 'work.'

The rich people do and do not have "your money." They often got it off the backs of your hard work, but they paid you, and you agreed to that pay! They also didn't break the law in doing so. And it's not illegal to invest wisely.

They DO have your money in the sense that if you start a business, or invent something, or have great job skills, they're the most likely ones to pay you more for those skills, or to try costly new inventions.

Money for your advancement must come from somewhere, but it's NOT by force of government that you are entitled to more, but by force of your jobs skills commanding better wages, when you stand out, refuse to vote in more labor competition, unionize or learn negotiation skills, and vote for certain business tactics to be outlawed, that hurt you at the benefit of the rich getting richer off your back and livelihood opportunities!

God says don't hate the rich (Ecc. 10:20). You can hate those business tactics, and how they use their excess selfishly, or dodge taxes (ALL OF WHICH YOU SHOULD), but don't be envious. Require justice from your governing officials, because justice is NOT the concern of profit-minded people... profits are!

In short, if you want to continue to live in America, JUST LIKE the cost of living is higher in desirable cities more than less desirable places, you have to pay the fiddler, and be able to afford to live here, making a wage that can support your family.

If you can't, don't envy the rich's money, seek handouts through politicians, but deserve to be here by your work efforts! For example, WHAT IS EVIL about Jeff Bezos profiting from making products cheaper for you to buy? Why should HE owe any American handouts, because he had a great idea, and it made him a billionaire? How did that decision steal from you? It may have taken away your retail job, but it was legal!

AI will SOON take your career away. Is Mark Cuban NOT to pursue it, let the Chi-Coms have an advantage over U.S.A., because we don't want any U.S. jobs displaced over robotics?

It is NOT Capitalism that's the problem, but life requires man to work, and there are limited resources and jobs! HAVE LESS PEOPLE! If people would stop birthing babies, the global labor pool would increase all of our wages, as there would be a labor shortage even robots can't replace! Any business person would ONLY be wise to replace all humans with machines, if the ROI payback period meets their criteria! You would too!

You're competing with the world, and robots! DEAL with it! This isn't Kansas anymore! Grow up and grow a pair, and learn how to live as an adult, or go live in a third world nation, or off the grid! I DON'T mean this harshly! I CARE that you survive and thrive.

But EVERY expense in life that can't be sustained by sales is a loss. That means, any business, charity or government function that doesn't profit or break even is an economic DRAIN! Businesses go out of business with such a plan, as do charities. Government needs to too, if it's requiring costs that aren't sustained by what it takes in, fairly, like with unrepaid STOLEN freebies!

Get your beggar hands out of the voting booths, and put your hand to the plow! Tax payers didn't hold you up at gunpoint, and steal your loot. Don't try to do the same, by force of selfish, pandering politicians, who promise other people's money, unjustly, because they can, because, as is often said, 'no justice, no peace!' Be for justice.

The poor in America have a VALID complaint against any selfish rich people who don't pay their legal tax percent, and who don't give back significantly, as God commands (I Tim. 6:17-19). But that money ALL Americans should RIGHTLY be clamoring to be given out shouldn't be used for handouts, but empowering self-sustained lives.

Specifically, that means getting maximum skills and productivity out of every American, so businesses will pay them the most. Aldi pays higher than normal, but requires a faster than normal work ethic. That's FAIR! If you aren't maxed out in your skills, education and effort, you don't deserve the best pay, just because you have a family, and want a wage you can live off (i.e., living wage).

The market sets the going rate, people! If business can hire cheaper for the same quality, they will, just as you would if you were them! That's NOT unfair, or evil! America needs the best trained work force in the world!

And this is NOT to scare you, but it's a FACT... IF Socialist Dems attack the rich, bleed them for freebies, and win the power to do so, RICH PEOPLE and U.S. BUSINESSES WILL DO BUSINESS and HIRE ELSEWHERE, or automate as many jobs as humanly and technologically possible, and work workers harder!

And IF you are black or Hispanic, there has to be a time and a way you CEASE blaming slavery history for your poverty, IF you are poor. White slave owners have been dead for CENTURIES!

I know white privilege of the majority, with years of economic head start disadvantaged many in your race, and Latinos often come here from places with lower standards of living, expecting lower wages as a move upward, but if you are not hired or not fired because of your skin color, YOU are to blame for your poverty! NOT racism or white supremacy or privilege!

If you are equally qualified for a job, and don't get hired, file an EEOC complaint, because H.R. people can and will ALWAYS say/give another reason! They're NOT stupid, nor do many (if any) of them actually reject people because of their color. But if you suspect they have, SUE (cheaper is to file an EEOC complaint).

Whites are NOT looking around in the employment holding room, lusting after hiring the whites in the room! Some may, and they need to be busted, but a good business person wants the best skills for the cheapest price! You can't keep complaining that black and brown minorities are poorer. FIX THAT!

Indians and Asians come to America and dominate scholastics! Their pigment is NOT a factor, one iota! You could bleach all your skin white (NOT albino), and you'd still have your same results, economically, because your skin color is NOT what's holding you back—period!

It's the work effort, smarts and drive/initiative that you need to focus on; not poor pitiful me Eeyore-ism complaining about white people! Whatever you believe is holding you down, or back, list it on a sheet of paper, and there's a way around it!

Bad parents? Get a mentor, or hang with extended family members. Bad neighborhood? Stay late at school, and then go to a church or rec center for safety. Bad school? You can be the valedictorian easier! Hungry? Contact a charity or church or government agency.

No role model for academic success? Find someone successful to emulate—even a teacher! Bad at academics? Get free tutoring, from the internet, Khan Academy, YouTube, school resources. Lack motivation? Go drive through a nice neighborhood, and dream! Not knowledgeable or skilled in business? Go to the library and rent books to teach you.

No connections? Use Linked-In, and find people who may hire you, and find creative ways to meet or serve them for free, to prove your worth. Your problem is NOT the white man, but you and your thinking about life's circumstances!

People RIGHTLY attack political conservatism, because it does NOT push the rich's responsibility (I Tim. 6:17-19), but their privilege (i.e., earn as much as humanly possible). Even Chump touts the economy as the main issue of politics, as if money is the main purpose of life! (contrary to Lk. 12:15) OTHER issues exist!

WARNING: Suggestions by a very left-biased organization! Take them with a grain of salt; maybe a pillar of salt, like Lot's wife! <https://t.co/Co4bwQPIO0>

IF climate change were anywhere near the percent claimed as caused by humans, what realistic, convenient and uncostly changes could reverse any or all of its negative effects? I'd bet there are NONE large enough to please liberal extremists! I'd LOVE to hear any reasonable suggestions!

(12/25/21-2)

IF mankind were truly ruining our weather and natural resources, by carbon emissions, I would be the first to call for major changed behaviors! BUT, they would have to be technological and practical! It ALL costs money, and people aren't eager to dole out more from what they earn.

<https://t.co/Co4bwQP100>

I would be ALL for planting billions of trees, chemicals to cause massively speedy tree growth (Miracle Grow on steroids), genetic engineering for the same, new farming techniques to save the soil while maximizing output, more vegan products (if they tasted good), less pain to killed cattle, less over-fishing and hunting, more electric generation plants so we can have more electric cars, solar-powered cars, and geothermal energy sources stored up, and wind powered cars!

I am 100 percent for carbon capture, and anything else that reduces emissions, like we have with catalytic converters, and smoking car reporting hotline in TX. I'm FOR lessening man's carbon footprint. I'm FOR more products not being energy drainers, or plastic based. But NOT if these changes change U.S. lifestyles! It's NOT being spoiled, but enjoying the fruits of our centuries of labor.

STUPID solutions are four plies of TP for number two, crying over climate change as you jet set off to conferences on fixing it, calling for people to become vegans, walk or bike to work, or use germ-filled public transport or carpooling, or buying tiny cars, or costly all electric ones.

Taking four hours to charge your vehicle, in the middle of a vacation trip is EMBARRASINGLY stupid! Telling Americans they must behave poorer, by buying less, is asinine! Trying to bring us down to let others catch up. HOGWASH! Feeding cows to toot less is fine, but hilarious!

Reuse, recycle, renew is a fine slogan, but everything has to be fast and convenient, cheap and voluntary. You MUST, first, identify the worst polluters: Businesses! Consumers only use products others create for us. We can't modify our cars to pollute less, and there aren't instant fill-up stations on every street corner, like there are gas pumps.

That's NOT our problem, and we aren't 'gonna be involved in unreasonable calls for electric power that doesn't exist, or isn't avail everywhere! I am, again, 100 percent FOR preventing negative and harmful things, like possible rising sea levels and weather extremes.

I am NOT for fixing any of that, to any extent, by stupid solutions! You adjust! Make inlets for many more inland lakes, from excess ocean level waters, and make technology that reverses acts of God, to some extent! Smokestacks from manufacturers NEED filters

Carbon emissions from oil refineries NEED to be pumped into space, or well into the center of our earth, to be burnt up by molten lava. Or, captured and converted into energy, especially the runoff that flames into our air from such refineries. Costs must be able to be passed on to consumers, or businesses need to be able to profit off these fixes!

WHY haven't we captured stored up energy from wind, water, solar and geothermal into batteries? Electric is NOT the only solution, and nuclear power plants will be needed to meet demand for electric power! Duh 101

Oil and gas MUST be done cleanly/safely to the environment! The XL pipeline offered many concessions for no blow-out technology, and SHOULD have been allowed! Ocean oil spills should NEVER be possible, with better technology, and polluting our oceans with plastic! FIX IT ALL! Make it profitable.

Use chemicals and science to stretch our use of limited resources! Don't let ANY trash go unused, if it could be converted. Make many more plant-based substitute foods. Melt plastic for re-use. But DON'T expect the people will accept DUMB solutions, ever, even by force!

P.S.: Wind, geothermal, ocean waves and solar have YET to be applied to cars and trucks. This is incompetence! Those energy sources are inexhaustible, and being wasted and ignored every day, by liberals wanting we consumers to suffer their extreme and radical solutions, instead! FIX THE PROBLEM!

It is too small thinking to believe we should just slow down climate change's negative effects. Instead of colonizing Mars, Elon (and others) could fund profitable products to reverse emissions and pollutions down here on earth! Fix the probs we have HERE, vs cause others elsewhere!

EVERY weather event could, in theory at least, be curbed by technology! Tornados, hurricanes, tsunamis, earthquakes, wildfires, drought, hail, floods, iced streets, mud slides. I can imagine products used as fixes! WHY can't others make them? Doubts and disbelief! Small thinking!

Make products that fix probs and social challenges PROFITABLE! That is the trick! Taxes are NOT the answer, but the free market! and businesses need to start that don't demand as high ROI, where they only invest in the highest profit industries! Quit the greed and grow a heart, Scrooge!

Telecommuting/working from homes a good solution to lessen climate change. Our pandemic showed many more than the current 11 percent can do so. It takes little adapting! Just do it. Remember the months when traffic was minimal? They were great/Covid was not. Take the positive; reject the negative.

EVERY wave and windstorm, all geothermal drilled magma/steam vent, and all solar panels SHOULD be able to power storable energy cells and batteries, for vehicle future power usage! UNTIL those technologies are developed, green energy advocates look narrow-mindedly/blinders on foolish!

EVERY vehicle could have a collection area for exhaust, that empties (@ home) into the pipe/sewer system of pollution exhausts, which all funnel into the lower earth, or a huge pipe reaching beyond our ozone layer, like the space elevator idea, to lessen any manmade global warming.

WE HAVE pipes then sewer systems connected to every home and business and apartment's toilet. EVERY U.S. factory with exhaust could funnel that smoke into pipes, to centrally collect them well underground, to be burned up, to lessen climate change, IMO. Just need a similar piping system!

16. GUN CONTROL

NRA NUTS?

(9/3/19)

WHO is the NEXT mass shooter, and where are they doing their planning? THIS is the near impossible job the FBI has, this week! Pray for them.

We NEED technology and live updated databases that track every automatic weapon in America, to track where they are, and are being used. If legally used, cops can check that like game wardens check fishing licenses! Many more personnel will be needed for such a task, but NOT a military state.

By the way, I have ZERO problem with anyone being an NRA (or anti-NRA) member, but I do oppose ALL unreasonable extremes, like saying NO laws should ever be passed to try to curb gun violence.

I oppose gun-grabbing, but a limited few restrictions are reasonable, though they won't stop a devoted killer! They why do it? Any act that allows SOME people to be dissuaded from criminally killing is good, even if it slightly inconveniences law-abiding gun owners, like ensuring they're registered, licensed, background checked and have safety use training, and ways to keep them safely locked up. Red flag laws aren't a bad idea, IF laws have protections for people wrongly suspected of being unstable, by vindictive accusers.

We must decide how much of a criminal record can't have legal access to guns, and how mentally ill! Criminals' debt paid to society can't be treated as still a criminal, and non-violent crimes can't be banned!

Mental health challenges from X number of years ago, or medically treated can't be banned! And for any liberals reading here, I haven't hunted since 1982, or fished, or owned a shotgun, not because I oppose gun ownership, but because it never interested me! I am NOT pro guns because I am into them, but because I support common sense!

It is the criminal element who new gun laws and restrictions CAN'T stop, given gun show and online loopholes, hiring friends and family to buy a gun for a banned citizen, not undergoing background checks, or modifying a gun via YouTube instruction and the black market!

Laws have to be enforced, or they're mere political ceremony!

HOW do authorities force every gun buyer to be background checked, and never get a gun illegally, by friends, family, black market, theft, or homemade rifle modifications? THESE are the questions Congress should be asking this month, now back in session!

D.C. MUST define who can't have a gun! ALL criminals who used force (not just a gun), who haven't paid off their crime, or committed it in past 10 years! Any mentally ill people in the past 10 years, with serious vs. shallow manifestations of illness. Saying ALL who were depressed is extreme!

Congress MUST find a way to find the UN-treated mentally ill! They're the danger. Only people who know them well can report them (i.e., red flags), and if they're loners (like the Unabomber), NO ONE can!

Doctor-patient privilege and HIPAA laws may prevent our government learning all who shouldn't have gun access!

And when Texas allows people to protect churches with weapons, is there liability if they aim, shoot and miss, and kill an innocent? Good Samaritan laws exist. Only marksmen can be sure to get the right target, if the perp is proximate to any crowd!

Let's imagine a gun-free nation: 1. You will NEVER confiscate all guns. People will hide or bury them, for later secret (hunting/sport) or public (crime) use! 2. People will make/manufacture them from scratch, or black market manufacturers will arise, because some people LOVE hunting. 3. Government would have to have a program to cull herds of out-of-control beasts (like swine) that hunters no longer kill. 4. Criminals would turn to bombs, knives, using vehicles to mow down crowds, even parachute into mobs with bombs attached/strapped on them.

Chemical weapons would proliferate, as with arson of crowded venues, etc. Box cutters were used in an airplane, as with a shoe bomb! Guns are NOT America's only danger, in the wrong hands! FIND the wrong hands! That's the (near impossible) solution!

17. HEALTHCARE

1. Fair Healthcare?
2. Capitalist Healthcare
3. Medical Breakthroughs

FAIR HEALTHCARE?

(3/21/21-2)

HERE is the ONLY way I can envision fair healthcare: EITHER 100 percent private (which leaves the poor basically uncovered), or some (NOT all) public. If the poor only got MINIMAL care, and healthcare providers were mandated to only give that, based on the patient's status as poor, that would NOT be unfair, IF they were forced to repay any costs to taxpayers, by civic service, plus interest on their loaned money.

The middle class may opt private or public, but if public, their premiums would form a pool for sharing costs. That's over and above what's used to fund the poor's minimal coverage.

The rich could have all private coverage, though all taxpayers' money would be used to loan the poor payment of medical bills, in exchange for civic service that paid it back, with interest.

Every private payor could keep their doctor. The middle class would likely opt for private coverage, and for them and the rich, MANY more (even global) carriers are needed, with much more customized menu items. You can NEVER avoid some having to pay for others, unless ALL medical services are ONLY paid out of pocket! Near impossible!

Finally, people go into medicine largely for the money (YES, some care for people, but NOT if the wages are low!). So the tendency is for most doctors to cater to the rich, as they'll pay better, and use more services, and have better coverage. That's NOT evil, but it does become a problem if medical personnel aren't made available to care for the poor, because there's little profit in it!

That would argue for high pricing, even for minimal care, which even heightens how much the poor would have to repay society, in mandatory civic service activities. So be it, or be... uncovered.

Patients would be grouped as taxpayers or nontaxpayers, and the latter group would get the least coverage, and repay with civic service, and taxpayers would fund their own insurance, unless they'd opt in to minimal public coverage. Complicated, but logical!

Update

(3/21/21-2)

Healthcare NEEDS to be a FAIR insurance pool, where everyone pays in, everyone has coverage, we share each other's medical expenses, as insurance is for assurance your bills can be paid, and as inexpensively as possible. People SHOULDN'T have to rely on crowd funding!

HOW could healthcare can be like insurance, and available to all, while being fair to all?

1. Many don't want public healthcare; if they don't pay in, the pool is smaller, and the middle class subsidizes the poor, even if the poor are forced to do civic service as their pay in obligation.
2. More private insurance available, globally, would help lower premiums (if they met government standards for quality and transparent payouts).

3. Even if the poor work off their fair share, the care costs money, which taxpayers would have to fund, repaid by the poor's civic service.

That means the middle class's taxes would loan or float payments for medical services of the poor. The rich would get off Scot free in such temporary subsidizing, which isn't fair. It ALL goes back to the poor only getting minimum care, then repaying taxpayers by forced civic service!

Taxpayers would be reimbursed, including with interest, but it's NOT financial, but replacing government services taxpayers pay for, through the poor's repayment work. That is FAIR! The rich will balk their taxes are being used, when they don't use the public option, whereas some taxpayers would opt into public healthcare.

Unless you pay for your own medical treatment, out of pocket, someone is ALWAYS going to be Scrooged under an insurance pool—the healthier people. Youth will argue that's NOT fair, that they're subsidizing the elderly! A FAIR system is needed, but is it possible?

Anytime you pay for car or home insurance, and never make a claim, you are losing money and getting nothing for your money spent, except peace of mind if you need to file a claim! That truth makes many with subsidized healthcare milk it for all it's worth, to get MORE than they paid in!

If everyone seeks equal or more than they paid in, the system crashes/fails! If we are pooling our collective resources, so none of us are out costs we don't want to incur in lump sum, you can't see coverage as a service you get for paying in, but ONLY when you need it! Rationing of healthcare could ensure.

I am NOT providing answers, but posing issues! Answers exist, but you have to know the questions to ask before you can seek out their answers!

CAPITALIST HEALTHCARE

(7/3/21-2)

AS much as we pay for insurance, then a deductible limit we have to meet, before insurance pays much, you get NOTHING from the rich man's game of highway robbery till you paid most everything! ONLY good for emergencies and expensive procedures. U.S. healthcare has MANY necessary changes!

In order to make a thing better, you have to analyze what's wrong with it, or where it varies from the ideal. The U.S. healthcare system is BROKEN, IMO, but for those for whom it works well, they see no problems, and 'wanna keep status quo. The others 'wanna change it. Normal reactions!

Here's a list of what's broken in the U.S. healthcare system, as a primer/starter to figure out how it can be corrected:

1. EVERY player is USED to being rich, by a monopoly industry (drug manufacturers, hospitals, doctors and insurance companies). We're offering a Lamborghini product for the masses, when only the elites drive or can afford a Lambo.
2. There is NO CHOICE, or competition for the consumer! NO menu for procedures or drugs chosen! I LITERALLY know two out of two doctor experiences in 10 years, where the doctors knew NOTHING about the costs of what they prescribed, and didn't care, as they ONLY seek the best solution, or just the one they're most used to prescribing!

It took U.S. contacting our insurer, to price drugs, or generic ones. The doctors view is that's billing's problem, and we can't know all insurance plans. HAVE A MENU for procedures!

3. U.S. MAY (it is debated) have the best care in the world, but that comes at a premium, and not everyone needs the best care! The industry is geared toward the wealthy! NO doctor does 10 years of college to earn low wages, so they expect high dollar pay.

Middle and lower class people can't become patients, without insurance, or reasonable out of pocket expenses, and FEW doctors discount fees or work in free or low cost clinics. Again, they trained so they could command top dollar. FEW people go into medicine to be middle class, as they say it's to save lives.

4. Insurance is incentivized to reject claims! They profit more! People pay in premiums, ONLY promised security for emergencies, and with high co-pays, or businesses increasingly increasing deductibles, you're paying for NO care, unless your family gets sick a lot in a year! Highway robbery!

5. LOOK at the most lucrative companies on Fortune's list! It's pharmaceuticals, insurance companies, hospital conglomerates, and maybe 15 other industries. LOOK at a list of US professions, and what they pay. The top 60 or so are mainly medical! WHO makes them rich? PATIENTS!

I NEVER had health insurance from 1985-2015, when Obama mandated it. I'm inclined to go back to having none (as Limbaugh suggested, pay everything out of pocket) now that the mandate has been lifted! I'm checking out Medi share this month, or other plans! It's a RACKET and rip-off! EVIL!

I was in a doc's office, the other day, filled with older folks. When we joked about masks, they said medical facilities and airlines require them, but few others. The older crowd crowds medical facilities, because bodies break down, and were in a decently wealthy area. They can afford to often be in medical facilities. I'd venture 60 percent, or more, CAN'T! It's a game for the rich, and it should not be!

6. People can speak of cost control, but NO ONE is incentivized to work for less, or even cut costs, when insurance sets the pay scale, and doctors lose money if they charge less! There are FAR too few doctors, as the AMA purposely limits their numbers, to maintain a MONOPOLY! Insurance needs to be available from anywhere, so long as U.S. agencies have verified liquidity!

There's a reason Americans pay more than most nations for healthcare, and it's NOT good reasons, as the care you get elsewhere isn't that much inferior, if at all! We pay higher drug costs, and businesses can ALWAYS rationalize/justify why, but it all boils down to GREED! The status quo is acceptable to those who benefit from it!

7. Finally, if one is opposed to government subsidies for all who aren't rich (as I am, if never fairly paid back), you're stuck with an expensive industry that few can afford to utilize! College tuition is very similar, as new and online colleges aren't direct competition with established name-brand universities!

Again, pure Capitalism is GREAT for the FEW who enjoy its fruits/payoffs, but NOT for the many who don't. IF the rich choose to hoard all their wealth, a wealth tax or Socialism are SURE to come to America, to force them to do God's plan for them! I Tim. 6:17-19 Time to decide!

YOU DO NOT WANT TO KNOW what I think of the U.S. healthcare system, NOT as to quality, but price! You pay through the nose to get little or nothing, till a YUGE deductible is met! I am changing insurers, even though employer based! Everything in America is to benefit mainly the rich! EVIL.

If U.S. medicine can go from Polio to a vaccine, lobotomies to medicines for depression, and prosthetics for amputees, WHY can't we reverse and fix paralysis, cancer, and ALL illnesses, with more and more intense study? Not decades-long "research." Like Covid vaccines! Are we capable? Yes!?

I, literally, was trying to figure out how Downs Syndrome or Autism might be attacked for a cure. IF you slow down your thoughts, generalize your focus, with intense focus on those aims, it can feel like one of those two. Maybe some solution is in reversing those processes?

SURELY there is some way to implant the missing chromosome in Downs Syndrome patients, and ways to discover what emotional sensors in the brain work differently or defectively in Autistic persons! I believe we simply haven't studied the brain's details and workings enough! Naive?

COULD there be a genetic way for the body to regenerate in paralytics, even if the DNA or material comes from other people? The electrodes have ceased flowing to receptors. Can that be reversed, mechanically, internally? I'm getting sick to my stomach thinking medically! FIX IT!

There HAS to be a reason, or sources for why we have so much cancer in America! Bad/processed foods, or the pollutants in the environment! WHY hasn't science found the causes (besides smoking), yet? We DON'T have a Manhattan Project mentality of all hands on deck for cures!

America needs a global center of medical research, that has strict guidelines for not just funding scientists for life (tenure), but demanding collaborative RESULTS! WHY would 25 different centers research the same disease, as duplication costs MORE money! Bring the best brains together!

The U.S. Center for Global Medicine should allow the top 5-10 most promising procedures, per disease, and unite them for funding and information dissemination, in one umbrella organization, IMO!

Cancer should be curable in LESS than 10 years, or FIRE those scientists! I've heard that some doctors don't want permanent solutions, or they'd go out of business. They SHOULD! Make being a doctor virtually obsolete! Scr-w their craving for wealth! FIX the probs/diseases, like Polio was!

IMMIGRATION POLICY (PART I)

(1/21/21-2)

Illegal alien path to citizenship?

1. NOT for newcomers.
2. NOT until all past taxes and fines are repaid.
3. ONLY at the end of the line, as GWB said.
4. NOT if our economy doesn't need their skills, or they'll be moochers of our safety net. Pass all four hoops, it makes sense to me! (1/21/21-2)

The ONLY fair immigration policy is half poor and under-educated, and half rich and educated, but NONE allowed in if their job skills aren't needed by our economy, and NONE can take any job any American wants (and NO illegals)! You can't find better solutions than ours, by God's grace! (3/6/21-2)

THEORY OF IMMIGRATION

MOST nations LIMIT immigration! Try to go live in Switzerland or China! When you have a good thing going, your ancestors built, you don't just open it up for anyone to take part in!!

IF people are going to make immigration a racist issue, public policy should let in races according to their percent of population representation, or an equal number of every race! Southern border trespassing seems to heavily favor countries to our South!

HOW do you decide if America needs any new immigrant?

1. Are there jobs America needs filled that U.S. citizens won't do?
2. Will more people LOWER U.S. wages, and career opportunities?
3. Is letting anyone else in going to hurt or help unemployment percents? NO safety net should be given 'em! DIDN'T pay in.

The argument America was built by immigrants misses two points:

1. Not JUST by immigrants, and,
2. We've let MILLIONS of them in since then! FOUNDED by immigrants is true, but built by is another matter!

When you think of how you want your nation to be, you let in people coming to make something of themselves. You do not look for people wanting freebies/handouts, or too broke to not need them, or too uneducated to make it successfully in a first world economy!

The border issue ISN'T is Covid spread more, are they children, rapist or criminals, but are they LEGAL and does our economy NEED them? America decides who enters, and breaking the law from the start isn't a good start! NO ONE has a RIGHT to come here; it's a PRIVILEGE! America number one.

TEXAS BORDER

It's INSANE that @GOP would allow in immigrants and illegals demographically more inclined to vote Democrat than Republican, in MUCH larger numbers! @GovAbbott is doing a GREAT thing at the Texas border! It's an unfair political move, that also ruins our economy! Operation Lone Star.

ANYONE in America who believes Biden's administration didn't cause the border crisis is a FOOL! Note the timing! It happened AFTER he was elected, and every policy statement out of his mouth has ONLY spoken of allowing people entry into America; NOT banning or controlling our borders, dummies. (3/18/21-2)

Humane treatment should be afforded every human, but the treatment for illegals should be NO ADMITTANCE! Illegal means against our laws! trespassing. Breaking and entering. NOT law-abiding. Rule breaker. Criminal behavior (misdemeanor, or greater). (3/22/21-2)

IF Democrats are going to make D.C. and Puerto Rico states, when GOP's are in power, they need to ONLY allow in immigrants with higher education or a good bank account! #Justice It's ALL unjustly about votes! (3/23/21-2)

IMMIGRATION POLICY (PART II)

NBC is touting newly-minted Americans, saying we welcome 'em all, with open arms. That's ONLY true if our economy needs 'em, and they're NOT coming here looking for handouts. Dem-leaning, MSM will NEVER say that clarifying TRUTH! Immigration HURTS Americans when over-done or done wrong!

By calling/choice, I am not (yet?) a rich person, BY CHOICE and God's leading. However, even I despise government freebies given to the poor, as I AM a taxpayer. It's NOT moral. America was founded on the idea you can become anything you want, by hard work, as you are free. Socialism is ANTI-American! Subversive!

America has become the greatest nation, military and economy, NOT by ANY Socialist history, but through Capitalism! If people are rewarded for taking risks, and for hard work, the nation, overall, does better than if that reward is thwarted by forced charity Socialism! DIS-incentivizing!

NO immigrant should EVER take ANY job of ANY American citizen. That was George W Bush's position, and should still be America's position! America doesn't owe the world a living. We help, more than all other nations, but take care of your own, first and foremost!

The ONLY issues immigration harms America with are its abuse, in ILLEGAL entry, using it to gen up poor, less educated Dem voters, and especially seeking people who will vote for freebies Socialism. Beyond those issues, America should be for any immigrant our economy NEEDS! You CAN flood a labor market!

The PROBLEM with immigration is their countries of origin never get fixed. Their economy, their crime, and their poverty problem needs to be fixed! America, as always, lends a hand, in foreign aid, but EVERY nation NEEDS to become self-sufficient and self-sustaining. People have charity burnout!

MOST Americans don't own enough money to retire and live off the remainder of their living life. It's a hard sell to get 'em to give up hard-earned money to people outside your own family. ONLY the rich (having enough to retire on for life, comfortably) can spare a dime, YET Americans give!

Everyone (not literally) wants to come to America. There is no room in the inn for all who want to come here! There has to be criteria! You have to secure a job, before coming, and be banned from any safety net for years, till you have paid in! Those two are REASONABLE criteria! Do it.

I've said before, and will NEVER change my mind: Immigration NEEDS to let in an equal amount of poor and uneducated, and rich and educated, so NEITHER political party gains ANY advantage. NEW Americans are ONLY needed if their contribution HELPS vs. hurts America! Advance America. That's progress!

ASSIMILATE IN AMERICA THE GREAT

Let's address this source of cultural conflict: If an immigrant is used to less pay, can't they undercut your job or business? If an immigrant is more qualified than you, can't they do the same? In other words, are immigrants a threat to U.S. citizens, educated, and not so much?

Answers: ALL those possibilities are possible! Business desires cheapest labor for equal work quality. America benefits from talented and wealthy people. The U.S. economy benefits from labor skills Americans don't want to do, but are needed.

Therefore, since ALL nations are in a global economy, being born here is no protection from job competition, globally! Whether you are white, black, college-educated or a high school grad, your competition is global, whether they come here, or their job ships out of here! You simply MUST keep up! Always improve self!

IF America banned talented employees immigrating, other nations would gain them as a strategic advantage. If the rich did the same, same result. Poor and/or less educated or skilled people MUST not be a drain on social services, but a boon to our economy! America must put U.S. citizens first!

HOW do you harmonize these tensions?

1. Skills training for Americans
2. World-class education for Americans
3. Immigrants required to have jobs before coming
4. Immigrants disallowed access to safety net, till paid in sufficiently Just, fair and prioritized not to hurt U.S. citizens!

It's an illogical MYTH to believe everyone in the world has a right and claim to be in America, because it was built by immigrants! Humans came here, developed it, established rights (even squatter laws allow ownership after a number of years), and putting citizens first is governments job!

EVERY building has fire code maximum capacities. Nations have land space maximums. The belief we should immigrate-in forever is ludicrous! Traffic jams, destroying the liberals' precious environment, labor market pressures, etc. People cause 'more scars upon the land' –John Denver

WHO and how many America lets in (which is our sovereign choice) must be made based on if our economy needs them, and balancing both political parties' interests, justly, as well as taxpayers' rightful concern their money gets forced to subsidize people NOT family members or employees!

I will tell you, whether you want to learn/hear it or not: IF you are new to America, even as a citizen, you have to assimilate! DON'T bring any bad customs, habits, or practices HERE, and expect we who have ONLY lived to accept you trying to make America into your image! (11/23/21-2)

HOW TO SECURE THE BORDER

The Texas border wall has already had people cut through it, climb over it (and maybe even dig under it?). So it only costs us money, when manpower is what's needed to grab every violator. A virtual wall is MUCH cheaper, and manpower and fast access to a violation scene is what's needed!

Buried sensors, lasers with warning signs, that can't be jumped over or crawled under, because they form a virtual wall to detect all movement across the border. Automatically tracking drones with video cameras upon all breaches! @GregAbbott_TX Cheaper and more effective than real wall!

I care LITTLE about scenery, compared to security. But a virtual wall allows BOTH! Any time anyone crosses our TX border, buried sensors alert Border Patrol with GPS coordinates and camera video, and drones track them till humans get there, via helicopter or otherwise, @GregAbbott_TX

I DM'd Biden I could fix his border problem in one day. Armed troops would be engaged, with banners saying in Spanish: No entrance. Apply legally. If anyone ran across, mace and non-lethal pellets would ensue till they were grabbed and physically turned back. Easy, quick and legal fix!

Even illegal planes can let parachuters exit right over Chumps border. NO wall ends America's need for personnel, so why waste the money on a physical wall that ruins scenery, when virtual technology exists to keep them out without ruining the sites? Draconian solution to a modern problem. Dumb as a duck! (12/20/18; @JameMeroney)

WELL before Chump I called for closed borders. I NEVER proposed a literal wall, but virtual. you can make border infringement identification technology to capture every illegal crossing! Walls can be dug under and flown over, but hi technology answers can ID every violator, to be caught and sent back. It costs money!

I have ALWAYS been for 100 percent control of U.S. border, but by a virtual wall vs. scenery blocking, unneeded and archaic physical one people can fly or bounce over, scale (with right tech), or burrow under. Sensors, lasers, drones with GPS, helicopters; electric fence (if necessary; not preferred). (12/20/18)

A virtual wall would be monitored at central command for any human breach, by live cameras, and heat sensing imagery at night (we have all this technology already, including night vision). Drones could be flown to warn in Spanish, then helicopters arrive to seize violators, once trucks later arrive. DUH. (12/20/18)

The actual legal entry ways would become the center of illegal activity if a rock solid virtual wall

were built. Fresh air, food and water accessible compartments would be made to house single violators, especially for drug running. anyone can rent a flying motorcycle and one person jump over the wall. (12/20/18)

Literal vs. virtual wall is NOT only about landscapes, but what America stands for. An unwelcoming barricade is NOT our image, though complete control of who we let in is in our national interests. You allow NO illegals, but you welcome any we need who come in legally! Duh 101. (12/27/18)

a STUPID, thwartable solution to a REAL problem. People are, even now, climbing over, cutting through and burrowing under CHUMPs border wall! WASTE OF money when electronic virtual wall and more manpower WAS the solution I suggested, because 45 is an IDIOT-in-chief! Then no tax increases? The rich are. (2/12/20)

@GovAbbott: I mean this will ALL sincerity, as I did with Chump: Make it a virtual wall! Illegals can get through a physical wall, so Border Patrol still have to catch them. Use lasers, sensors, alarms, cameras and drones so helicopters can quickly catch any border violators! Save money!

BRILLIANT decision! TX has never, in recent decades, had such a winter storm, so a repeat is only a remote possibility. Trespassing illegal aliens are a daily occurrence, because liberal Biden won't do his job! @GovAbbott CUDOS Texas first! NO open borders!

Was I EVER for a border wall? NO. Was I for 100 percent control of U.S. borders? YES, so only legal immigrants and those are economy needs come N. How are these reconciled? I suggested using lasers, cameras, sensors, drones, AWAX and helicopters, but NOT a literal, but virtual wall Mexico WOULDN'T pay for! (10/17/18)

I've said for years, quick response police drones are NEEDED to film and trail criminals, immediately dispatched, and capable of rapid deployment and high speeds, as the time of crime committal and police response is OFTEN how they get away! Have drones strategically located in large numbers! (11/30/21-2)

(2/18/22-2)
Drones and choppers can track illegals, and can use facial recognition, to capture their image. Drones can even be programmed to track selected individuals, one drone for every escapee, till they're captured. GPS tracking by attached bugs isn't necessary, with enough drones.

They need more personnel, IMO, telephone poles can house drones, and GPS trackers could be placed on trespassers, if any entered more than 10 feet. There's technology that allows people to be tagged, from afar, with bar code electronic bus that GPS can track, till border patrol catch up. They may never even know.

North Korea has armed border guards stationed as a presence. I have said use technology, to alert personnel to seize all trespassers. I have nowhere suggested the southern border of U.S. become like North Korea's. Zero tolerance, but not by Marshall law heavy-handed human presence!

ANY immigrant wanting in America must do so legally! IF we need your job skills, and no American wants the job, green cards should be more expeditious. If we don't need your labor, go somewhere else! NO safety net for 10 years for any new citizens, as they haven't paid in, so unfair to taxpayers!

Even electric fences could be burrowed under, or catapulted over. Buried electric fences, stronger than are used for dogs at home lawns, could be buried, but warning signs posted, to be fair vs. cruel. Maybe a 10 foot area full of them, in case any break through? #ZeroTolerance @GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX WHEN you win, in November, you MUST have the capability to shoot rubber bullets, use Tasers, real bullets aim at legs (with bullhorn warnings), and shoot wild animal nets to capture illegals! Forget Biden! ZERO tolerance in Texas, or any Southern states!

Drones can even be armed with Tasers! Ultimately, it was manpower and high technology the U.S. border needed; NOT a physical wall! People can climb over, burrow under, and even saw through CHUMP's border wall! That's NOT a solution to keeping all out! ALL need to be kept from illegal entry! ALL!

And IF any ever snuck through, track them down till they're deported. We already have 12 foot long two foot think drones, with facial recognition technologied cameras on them! I saw one in Big bend, TX, and above my back yard in Plano. They looked like a huge black cigar. I wasn't sure how they flew! ~Wingless.

IF caravans tried to force themselves across our borders, by sheer numbers, bullhorns warn them gunfire is coming, and one minute or less later, have at it, including guns aimed at legs, if necessary. Corral the masses with nets shot, Tasers, manpower galore, etc. NO tolerance!

Sensors detect underground tunneling, or fly overs, or any border crossing from below to above. Those trigger immediate cameras on violators, and drones track them till humans can grab them, anywhere Tasers or guns can't shoot legs. OBVIOUS needs! #ZeroTolerance NO exceptions-period!

EVERY illegal who has come into America in the past five years MUST be captured and deported! The others, if they have jobs Americans don't want, pay fines and back taxes, and back of line citizenship applications. Zero tolerance for any future illegals! Documents matter. WE control America, not crooks.

Abbott, in his coming next term, has to use weaponry, to deter illegal entry! Shoot or Tase their legs! Put warning signs in Spanish, that this will occur. Armed personnel trained to hit legs, or rubber bullets elsewhere! <https://borderreport.com/hot-topics/immigration/u-s-officials-come-across-nearly-2-million-unauthorized-migrants-in-fy-2021/...>

I have been FOR that since well before 2014, and I have ALWAYS meant not one single illegal allowed in, under threat of shots in the leg, Tasers, capture, jail and expulsion! My posts have always said closed/controlled borders to illegals. We can also fight Putin, as we keep out illegals!

The wall was symbolic and wasteful. You use lasers, cameras, helicopters, sensors, and drones, so EVERY violator is nabbed. We needed that technology, and massively more manpower for quick responses. NOT a wall they can climb over or burrow under, or cut through! An electric fence with warnings, in some places.

(1/31/22-2)

It's NOT America's problem, funded by taxpayers to discover, why anyone flees their crappy country to come to America! It's ONLY America's duty to spend taxpayer's money to keep out ALL illegals!
@potus @joebiden

ZERO TOLERANCE is the ONLY right border policy for illegals. That does NOT mean those already here must ALL be deported, as Don Huffines suggests, IF they have jobs Americans don't want. Make them pay back taxes, and break-in penalties, then go to the back of line to MAYBE be citizens!

The border crisis is EASY to fix. Tons of manpower and machinery (NOT a damn wall people can climb over), and shoot Tasers and release guard dogs for ANY who step foot on our land, illegally. Use drones and cameras and lasers to detect ALL attempted intrusions! I've said this for YEARS!

FAIR IMMIGRATION

Let's discuss FAIR immigration:

1. It can NEVER be used to give either party a voting advantage!
2. It HAS to be for people our economy needs.
3. It CAN'T be used to subvert American values, bankrupt or ruin us!

As to DACA, those individuals came here illegally, but without a choice. They were innocents. However, they are more likely to vote Dem, since the illegal scheme was hatched by Dems, so an equal number of GOP-leaning immigrants would have to become citizens for them to become such.

Assimilation must be part of our immigration policy, including questions concerning English proficiency and potentiality, historic or background attachment to Socialism in their home/native nation, etc.! Immigration CANNOT be a source of bringing BAD foreign ideas here to fundamentally change America.

THE POLITICS OF IMMIGRATION

(10/22/21-2)

The immigration and border crises are mainly about getting non-white, poorer and less educated illegal aliens into America so Dems can install Socialism, to force taxpayers to fund the less rich world, by coming to America and voting to steal our wealth, and make America no longer a white majority!

NO one has any "right" to come to America—period! It's a privilege, and a decision solely for America! "Illegal aliens" are ALL people in America illegally, and alien (or foreign) to our culture! DEAL WITH IT.

Democrats want more voters, to install Socialism, so they welcome poor and less educated illegal aliens, and people from nations used to Socialism! Bidens border crisis is ALL about this

Illegal immigration is a conscious attempt to import poor people into America, so they'll be able to vote in freebies for themselves and their families back home, by becoming permanent Democrats! There, I said it! We don't lie, here! (7/10/20)

INNOVATION TIDBITS (PART I)

CARS

(6/25/21-2)

Yet another innovation needed for our U.S. military in harm's way: Tires on vehicles (Ex: Hum-Vs) that cannot go flat. I've heard pure rubber is too heavy, but self-sealing, or some un-perforating metal inner lining? They DESERVE t never be stranded in dangerous situations! FIX it!

CLOTHES

IF designers made suits that LOOKED tight on the neck, but weren't; ties that looked neck tight Knotted, but weren't, and pants that fit normal, but were roomy, I'd LOVE to wear suits! Modern technology should be able to make appearances that aren't slavishly binding and restrictive!

Suits should be made that don't pile on layers that make fatter folk sweat like a hog, just to dress formal! Modern materials should be able to look like cotton or wool, but be light-weight, with pores for breathing/air! America invents new materials all the time (Ex.: Kevlar).

CRIME

Watching First 48: Technology is needed to allow ZERO murderers to EVER get away with it! Drones with cameras automatically deploy to chase them and their cars, if not Tasers set up to automatically deploy anytime a gun is pulled at a convenience store, wall-mounted!

FOOD

(4/11/21-2)

I've come up with an aspirational invention: Tasty food that science removes many of the calories from, which loses none of its great taste! Can this be done?

GUNS

(3/24/21-2)

Invention: Assault rifle storage case that can withstand the elements, to be buried in the backyard, at night, with a grass-covered top layer. The reasons are obvious. The handle needs to be less so.

HOME

IS IT THAT HARD to invent home fire alarm batteries that give a week's warning before repeatedly interrupting your sleep? Paid highway robbery $15 at C-store, only to learn it was a false alarm, somehow, so I took 'em back. Lost Z's I'll never have back! SO, I write, early...

(6/1/21-2)

Toilet seat covers should be automatically movement activated! NO ONE wants to see in it, if not using it, or touch it if needing to! Alexa, my TV and Roomba should also be voice-activated! I'm TIRED of our PRIMITIVE technology! Let the human control the tool the way humans like!

OUTDOORS

Yet another drowning on North Woods Law. Divers need sonar hand-helds, when murky water makes seeing impossible, and crocodile sensing technology, so their lives are not also endangered. New innovation CAN be simply combining existing technology!

IF a person is lost in the woods, near an abandoned 4-wheeler (North Woods Law), WHY COULDN'T a drone take satellite pictures or have infrared heat-identifying technology on it, to find live beings nearby (or night vision cameras for after sundown)? New products needed! Duh 101.

North Woods Law has a drowned boy. A product needed is automatic blowup waistband, whenever a body sinks more than six feet, unless one is deep diving, where the product senses movement, or head below tail. I can invent THOUSANDS of new products; 4500+ already, at our website!

PROBLEMS

(3/16/21-2)

Other problems technology could fix: Date rape, lying politicians, drownings, shark bites, dog bites, lightning strikes humans, muggings, polluting vehicles, tainted Flint MI water, college cheating, corrupt cops (on the take in MEX), car wrecks, flat tires, addictions, homelessness, child abuse

WEATHER

(6/21/21-2)

HUGE dehumidifiers would help, this time of year in TX, just as we have tornado warning devices atop towers in every area. The walks at 8pm and 6am were equally muggy! I moved from Houston to ESCAPE that nightmare. Imagine a world with that technology!

HORRIBLE things happen in this life. Mankind HAS the capability to prevent MOST of them, but business' need for certain margins of profit keep us from having the solutions, as the market demand is too low. IF that weren't the case, you would prevent these, first by identifying them:

People get burned, certain actions cause paralysis, people go deaf, blind, senile, have Alzheimer's, lose limbs, fall to their death off cliffs, dads abandon their family, dads are physically abusive, makes are often the gender who cheats on spouses, cars and planes crash, genocide happens, avalanches bury live people, sink holes and earthquakes swallow people up, black ice causes pile-ups, electricity grids freeze up (killing citizens), floods destroy neighborhoods, mud flows, tsunamis, monsoons, tornadoes, wars break out, gun-toters shoot others in the head.

Women get raped, torture happens, terrorists kill innocents, IED bombs explode, businesses get armed robbed, hit-and-runs happen, road rage, a chimpanzee ripped one person's face off, people get cancer, some diseases disable people (MS etc.), bullies force a kid to drink urine, a nurse killed ~12 patients by insulin overdose, mass shooters attack schools, mass murderers attack society, people get scammed, identities get stolen, other countries steal U.S. business secrets by hacking; THERE'S A LOT OF EVIL IN THIS WORLD, and I believe MOST of it can be curbed by technology!

I choose NOT to reveal the answers, because this type innovation will be part of my 2023 national campaign, but the FUNDING would have to exist, where society values having safety features that keep us all safer, and don't pay high dividends immediately, if ever. A BETTER WORLD!

Other problems technology could fix: Date rape, lying politicians, drownings, shark bites, dog bites, lightning strikes humans, muggings, polluting vehicles, tainted Flint MI water, college cheating, corrupt cops (on the take in MEX), car wrecks, flat tires, addictions, homelessness, child abuse.

I'm certain mankind can create technology to end many evils, like detectors of deadly snakes, nearby alligators, quick sand, and even Putin's poison of enemies. It's ALL about funding! Literally, the rich either enjoy a high lifestyle, or society's problems get virtually solved.

Past episodes of 1000 Ways To Die would present MY mind with MANY new technologies, but ONLY for dangers that aren't flukes or rare. So would a list of all dangers humans face, and every top 30 means by which humans die prematurely. Innovation, by "The World's Most Innovative Man!"

Update: Problems & Technology

I don't know if science can fix all diseases, or reverse downs syndrome, but I'd sure like for them to try! God RARELY directly intervenes to stop horrific evils in our world, and he has given us the tools to stop many of them!

Do we, or do we not, because we can't fund them, because the rich want their high lifestyles, some with little to no give back? THAT issue IS one voters CAN and likely WILL decide, as I believe America has come to a point where the majority won't tolerate certain evils, like racism, discrimination vs. women as not economic equals, hating gays, etc.

With a new generation, America's morays are changing/shifting, and the old ways are literally dying out! Caustic conservatism is a dying philosophy, and CAN'T grow a BIGger tent! Especially with immigration and gens XYZ, every man for himself, even though it only works for elites is REJECTED!

The 92 million who don't vote will likely decide between these two forces, but I, for but one, want things fixed by science and technology, and believe the rich should obey God and generously give back to the society that afforded them that wealth! I Tim. 6:17-19 We have such amazing abilities!

INNOVATION IDEALS

I, NAIVELY, believe paralysis and Downs Syndrome have cures we have yet to discover. don't quote me as believing they exist, but I have that hunch, and it's NOT just optimism. I'm intrigued by what scientists may learn as ways to remedy those situations, if they want to be remedied!

Could there be a solution to dwarfism, or people feeling like the opposite sex, or homosexual impulses, or murderous rage? Chemicals, etc.? Obesity pill, to end it? I'd buy it tomorrow, if the price was right, through economies of scale!

I believe there's technology we can develop to end any fatal car crashes. I naively believe there's solutions for just about everything! Maybe it's because yours truly is the world's most innovative man(?). You fall off a cliff, accidentally... a solution/product should exist to prevent death!

I think of this guy OFTEN! Yes, risk-reward, but WHY no back-up safety plan? Daredevil climber dies during skyscraper stunt <https://youtu.be/hseUkzgw4ug> Daredevil climber dies during skyscraper stunt. A well-known climber fell to his death while performing a skyscraper stunt in China. Wu Yongning, 26, died after falling from a 62-story building in the city... youtube.com

A gal fell to her death at Grand Canyon. You WOULDN'T PLAN for that risk, to own a safety product! How could technology exist to prevent death from falls, if not a product the faller wore (like avalanche safety air bags)? What technology's needed if a parachute doesn't open?

If people had tracking devices/bar codes on vs. in their person (smart phone GPS, that remained on when it was off), they COULDN'T get lost in a forest! A lady came to our door, and retrieved a lost cell phone we found in our yard, in the rain, but it was still charged. What if NOT?

Full speed head-on car crashes could be avoided if sensors detected out of their lane, and the oncoming speed! If a driver has blacked out, technology is needed to bring a car safely to a stop, with flashers on! SO MUCH technology we primitively haven't yet developed, IMO! Baby steps!

Air bags are AMAZING! Jaws of life cases of crushed dashboards don't always prevent deaths, as imbedded race car roll bars might-a non-collapsible cockpit structure! How could shock absorption technology help end concussions from high-impact car crashes? Absorb the impact bumpers and doors?

WHY COULDN'T criminals' guns be remote control or automatically jammed, like cops can turn off fleeing cars remotely? WHY does any firefighter ever have to get burned, if technology could prevent that? Walls and roofs caving in on them SHOULD be detectable beforehand, by technology! Duh.

WHY can't robots, drones or sprinkler systems target house fires and douse them automatically? We have sensors that can detect heat! We have sprinkler systems. We have drones and robots. What once seemed impossible now becomes expectations! I demand we do better, because we CAN!

WHY should ANY kid die of SYDS? Sensors could alert parents if they're ever face down in a crib! WHY must any pedestrian be run over, when cars can have sensors to deploy anti-lock brakes, if objects suddenly come into the picture! we the people have to demand better in society!

WHY do child and wife/spouse abusers get away with it? Privacy of own home, financial dependence, love of spouse, fear of retaliation if rat to cops, etc. Technology and laws and other solutions should be able to end this abuse pandemic! Bully beatdown, if nothing else!

Hit-and-runs need solving, as 100 percent Unfair! There's a plane that records everything below, above a city, and IT could rewind the tape to ID the car if VIN numbers became trackable bar codes! Let satellites do that same function, as they're UP, all the time! Record, zoom in and catch them!

You see elderly hunchbacks? I believe that's solvable! Every AM my back aches, and I WANT to hunch over. Instead, pain pills, a roller/stretching and popping my back prevents that hardening! Used the carpeted stairs, yesterday, to pop my back opposite hunching direction! Couch, too.

A Heimlich product is needed, for self-fixing chokers (egg just got dislodged in my throat). I use life experiences to innovate! A belt across your chest, you yank hard, or something better. Imagine, think, create, dream, fix it!

When my sons move out (one day), I'll use my carpeted stairs, or my sturdy couch arm, to pop my back back into place, rather than the pain making you want to hunch forward. Use our own weight to force it backwards, and stretch! hunch backs could be fixed, over time, if not calcified!

Leading Causes of Death and Injury –PDFs|Injury Center|CDC

Ring doorbell cameras are AWESOME, but sensors that detected anyone on your front lawn/property would give homeowners 3+ seconds more, to prepare if ever home during a home invasion! Innovation doesn't have to be new, but have new uses and combinations. Can guns be made automatic assault weapons, by home customizations?

People falling off roofs is preventable, with technology! A fence, either attached to the roof, or from below, or ropes around waists, secured by trees on the other side. Humans allow so many deaths and injuries that products could alleviate. That's STUPID, to me! Be angry at their parents' irresponsibility! Elon is NOT their daddy!

If people fall down stairs, have a bar that prevents that, which ascends as they ascend. If people slip down stairs, give them or the person's shoes more grip. If people fall off ladders, is a seat belt that rises as they rise possible? WHY COULDN'T cars have black ice detectors?

What other and cheaper ways could they get upstairs safely (no fall back product)?

We have the technology to instantly deploy body air bags for the elderly prone to fall and break hips, with sensors to set it off if their body leans any direction beyond a pre-set angle/degree, especially if ever unattended! More mobility and freedom, yet with health and safety, too.

The 'I've fallen and I can't get up' emergency button doesn't prevent them breaking a bone (as my last post would). They even have home elevator chairs that attach to the stair railing (~$2K).

Flood remediation product: Heavy, durable, easily set-up temporary barrier to funnel water around your home, stored in the garage attic, till needed, in flood prone areas. Has to be heavy enough to withstand the water washing through, yet carryable. Maybe sand or water filled, ASAP?

ANY house without a smoke or carbon dioxide sensor should be below code, and forced to have one! Same with gas leak detectors. The elderly have to be safe from all dangers, in their "castle" (a man's home).

Smart technology should NEVER allow a senior to miss or mess up their medicines, or the correct number of them, or right day or days! Smart pill boxes! Self-bathing product needed, which scrubs them, saving home health nurse costs! Auto scrubbers, voice activated.

Snorers and sleep apnea sufferers should have a mini alarm that awakens them when it starts, or jiggles their body to roll over, vs. remain on their back. I have a wife to perform this function. Same for people who sleep with their arms raised over their heads, harming rotator cuffs.

Loneliness is a problem with some elderly. They COULD have group chat livestreams, to ensure someone is checking on them, besides just fam. Many "blue hairs" want to stay in their homes as long as possible. Technology can help them do so!

I've met many seniors who love to talk. Middle agers are busy. Find people with time on their hands to hear their stories, like other lonely people, perhaps sick, or bored at a job where they monitor facilities and do little. Marketplace connects these needs.

I believe almost every job can be made more interesting, if productivity never wanes, by new technology that allows watching TV on your person, hearing radio, or phone calling, never noticed by customers, and never distracting from serving them, or they get fired.

If a senior were assaulted, even Mace could be too late. Just like hit-and-runs, technology on their person should sense a violent personal space violation, and alarm or tase the suspects. Sensors would discern between a love pat and an assault. They can't always defend themselves.

Wheel chair bound people deserve technology to prevent any physical assault or armed robbery, taking advantage of their situation (chair-mounted). Segways SHOULDN'T be able to tip over, any direction. Do we have such gyroscopic technology?

Slip-and-falls occur among the greatest generation. HOW could that be impossible? traction, of floor or foot coverings, and slips in the shower or tub should be avoidable by cushioned sides, if they slip (for the elderly).

A hilarious gag product would be a lawn-submerged tool that tells kids "get off my lawn," remotely controlled with the voice of the homeowner. A robot should be able to gather up the elderly's newspaper, daily (and fix their meals).

The independent, single mature adult is in danger of being a crime target, as unexpected to fight back. They should always have home alarm systems, and need 911 on speed dial, if not training in proper use of a hand gun. A booby trapped shotgun is illegal.

ALL appliances should be controllable by voice commands, vs. pushing buttons! they should be customizable for commands the operator programs in, like "shut up" meaning turn Alexa's volume down.

Surely a robot or product could be devised to lift a fallen elderly person, who has not broken any bones. With home delivery and online ordering, if they're rich enough, the elderly should be able to live independently, at home, with all our modern technologies (if they want to)!

CHINA makes islands, to expand her territory! If Israel feels land-locked, DO THE SAME THING, instead of STEALING Palestinian claimed disputed territories! Thou shalt not steal. – YHWH! Israel's rich. I swear politicians can be such fools, it's like where all low IQs gather together!

Update

(7/8/21-2)

The latest trend, in NOT the highest income areas, but still quite upper class, seems to be small lots three stories high! Maximizing square footage, and profits off the land, with very little room between homes. It takes an adjustment, but it's smart maximizing of land and profits!

Expensive and limited housing challenge solutions:

30 Inexpensive But Realistic Alternative Housing Ideas to Consider

Consider yourself a minimalist? Then you must check out these 30 alternative housing ideas that'll reinforce your belief in living large by small means. homesthetics.net

3-story homes NEED to have both sides made at angles, at least for their windows! NO ONE wants to look out to a nearby neighbors home! Aim the side windows front, back, or toward the sky! If you're 'gonna put homes so close to each other, use that side space WISER, vs. dumbly!

IF you have sound-proof walls, and smartly-placed windows, four feet between homes isn't bad, if you don't like lawn upkeep. I'd feel claustrophobic, or like I was in an apartment, especially if I could hear the neighbors' noise! Some poor homes are RIGHT near airports, with NO noise reduction!

If an inexpensive small elevator was available, I'd have no problem with neighborhoods with homes four stories high! So long as they don't block nearby neighborhoods views, it's the wisest way to use land, if people want no play areas they have to mow, like adults with no kids.

There are 3-5 VERY interesting rural like areas that are within the city life of DFW! They're tucked away and hidden, but those people live the peaceful country life, with space and quiet, just around the corner from all of life's modern amenities. Best of both worlds! HARD to find!

I guess McMansions built in very poor areas that are centrally located have great security systems, as it would seem to be a very risky move, for robberies, until critical mass is gained, and tax hikes force the poorer folk to sell out, and get their old places razed and replaced.

Our FAV area we saw in the last six weeks, where I'd like to live in the far future, I'll NEVER name, but there was only one I'd forgotten about since seminary days. Your life's lived in your home, even if all around your nice house is nasty structures, till others join your revitalization!

INNOVATION 'TED TALK'

Major sources of any man-made climate change contribution (NOT in priority order): 1. Pollution from vehicles, but more so factories 2. Technologies, gadgets and products we Americans continually demand owning more of 3-10:

The Top 10 Causes of Global Warming
sciencing.com

Coal and electricity production, transportation of people and goods, farming, deforestation, oil and gas drilling, fertilizers, etc. Solutions?

1. Technology to capture carbon emissions.
2. Technology to reduce or eliminate or reverse carbon emissions
3. Technology to reverse carbons impact
4. Just like we would (and have) create air conditioning, to make the humid South habitable (swamp coolers, etc.), in the 1950s. We need technology on a grand scale to cool down our planet, just as all the things we use may add to heating it up! Expand your mind as to size needed and sources.
5. Green-powered products, like solar powered smart phones, TVs/appliances, and eventually most everything we use gasoline, batteries or electricity for.

Your imagination, and belief, based on gained confidence from learning what we humans have already achieved, is why you can't even consider these solutions, or think of them yourself!

"Crazy" is the natural, fear-based term we use for new things we can't wrap our minds around—

YET!

WHAT IF men could walk on the actual moon; Galveston could be raised 15 feet, to avoid flooding; vaccines could be developed in less than one year to prevent Covid's spread; the South could be fully habitable through developed ways to cool the hot air; Hitler could be stopped and defeated.

Cancer could be reduced through radiation and chemotherapy; faces torn off by a ravaging gorilla could be retransplanted; deaf people could hear audible words through Cochlear implants; surgeries could be done by robots, or Lasers; older women could have children through IVF and fertility drugs.

Sex didn't have to result in babies, through smart and fool-proof contraception (yet to be envisioned, then developed); Polio was eradicated by a vaccine; buildings could almost touch the sky, with elevators to the top (Ex-Burg Dubai); paralysis was reverses, as with Downs Syndrome?

Aging was slowed down; depression cured (like modern drugs we have to help eliminate its effects); blind people could see (Cochlear technology for sight); carbon could NOT harm our environment, and every asset that required energy came from geothermal, solar, wind or captured wave power?

WHAT IF there were ways to get China and Russia to get their dictators ends, while not harming people or threatening the world with domination? WHAT IF terminal diseases didn't have to be terminal? Do we have ANY evidence mankind has ever done anything that was previously unthinkable?

Private vehicles become taxis, and the BIGgest store has NO store front, and all good quality used products are available to anyone from their home. WHAT? That's simply Uber, Amazon and eBay!

"Everything starts with an idea." –Earl Nightingale I have an idea that we harbor zero limits to brain-storming what we would LIKE to have our world be like, products be like, and lifestyles be like, then we let scientists and engineers have the money and liberty to explore options to possibly achieve some of those things, without boxing them in with that will never happen thinking.

Flying cars ALREADY exist. Privatized NASA already exists (Elon). Electric cars that take zero gasoline probably exist. We have wind farms. We virtually ignore the power in lava, volcanoes, and magma way down in the core of our planet! A continual and constant flow of energy from heat.

If we were able to cool down virtually uninhabitable South, before electricity and air conditioning, HOW can we arrogantly and stupidly claim ozone damage can't be fixed, or carbon emissions can't be reversed, or our environment cooled vs. heated? We may not have THOUGHT well enough!

IF you look at that list of polluters, Americans (and most first world citizens) are NOT going to forego our hard-work based lifestyles, for some phobias that weather changes may turn more severe, or summers hotter! See it as an opportunity and make the best of the circumstances!

Rising sea levels? Make new man-made lakes, for relaxing and entertainment. In the longer term, find ways to cool down the environment, with new technology. NO one wants 100 or more degree summer days, no snow skiing, flooded homes on beach fronts. Make more inlets to the mainland, and find ways to END the damage caused by carbon.

I'm no scientist, and I don't play one on TV and would never 'wanna be. But surely there are ideas yet to be thought for how we can make carbon not environmentally harmful, or develop technologies that don't emit it.

I'm NOT promising they exist, but if you consider/think of all the things that seemed far-fetched, 100 years ago, that we take for granted, you MAY gain enough confidence in our ability to develop new things that fix problems, that someone could find these cures. Air conditioning, ice and freezers make hot things cooler.

We, apparently, need our planet cooled. Start small and work outward. America already conquered the hot South, with A/C units! Think how cooling devices could condition the outside air, and how carbon could be molecularly reengineered to be safe or clean. It ALL starts with an idea!

We have micro technology, and DNA sequencing. We have split atoms. UFOs may be man-made. You have to expand your ability to think in non-traditional ways, with some call creativity, or ingenuity, or innovation. You cannot accept everything as set in stone the way it is, presently!

HOW did people in the early 1800s think of airplane flight? "Crazy." Fresh running water to every home, and sanitation sewers vs. out houses? "Crazy." Rockets with now human machines roaming Mars. "Crazy." Bionic replacement arms for amputees? "insane" or "impossible."

Cars that get 75 mpg were manufactured in the 1970s, till someone bought off the patent! I read of them in Popular Mechanics as a teen! Technology exists in Cali to make grass NOT grow higher than the level you want! That patent also got bought out, as lawncare businesses would lose!

Hoover Dam, the Pyramids, the West settled, mine shafts miles down into the earth, electricity and the ability to hear a person's voice miles away on a phone. These concepts were "crazy" to everyone, 200 years ago! WERE THEY CRAZY? No, the people and their limiting thoughts were what was loony!

Never having to go out of your home to work or buy things. Crazy! Tele-commuting and Door Dash. Claim debunked! Ability to have business meetings 100 percent virtually, where no brick and mortar headquarters was necessary. Crazy!? Microsoft Teams, Facetime and video conferencing softwares!

DON'T TELL ME the small-ish percent of man-made climate change negative effects can't be undone! YOU haven't thought, enough, IMO! If modern products emit off heat, or carbon, make them not do so, or use that heat to power cooling technologies! Burning coal creates electricity that powers refrigerators, freezers and air conditioners.

Wind and solar can do the same, and geothermal and wave power. Literally make "air" cooling tech! If cancer does harm to humans, we zap it. Zap carbon's negative effects on our ozone! It HAS already been captured! Pollution gets captured by catalytic converters.

If electric cars don't need the space engines used to take, use that space for much larger batteries, and put huge catalytic converters in gasoline powered cars, where the trunk is. People can use overhead storage compartments when they need trunk space!

The Japanese are FAMOUS for making all technology smaller, like laptops and smart phones. That's why this BIG guy hates modern stuff... too small for my hands and eyes! I'm NOT 'gonna go blind to read a smart phone I can't even command by my voice!

Make car engines smaller, for more space for new carbon capture catalytic converters! Disclaimer: I am no engineer or scientist; I'm merely giving you ideas to develop, with the expertise I don't have, or want. STORED energy is how we make cars drive off wind or geothermal.

Wind energy relies on certain areas where mountains stir up wind gusts. Solar relies on no overcast days. Geothermal is always there, if you just drill down far enough, and ocean waves always occur! We can be, I say NOT to insult us, so stupid in how we "think!"

LIST the problems, then believe there could be a solution we never thought of technology that expands our use of existing materials? recycled stuff? COULDN'T we use ALL nature offers, without having to make the scenery look so horrible when we do? Replace what we dig/drill out!

Fill in what we take out, with trash, compacted mechanically to be as solid as the gold, diamonds, metals, coal, iron and other things we extract! I saw a TV show on sink holes. That's caused by stupidity, laziness, and cheapness! Old mines and tunnels/shafts collapse, as built weakly, before. WHERE could we get much more natural resources? The ocean's floor? Mars? Moon?

List every disease, or never filled in with trash and other undesirable materials, IF they can't seep out into the nearby water or dirt! We HATE landfills. Make a ski resort in Texas that's high enough to hold snow, using garbage, and find ways to eliminate related odors! "Crazy!" I'll just ignore your uncreative ignorance!

100 years from now my crazed ideas may be common place, and you may be seen as the moron I'm alleging your limited thinking may already make you! LIST the problems! Let nothing stand in your way in believing answers MAY exist we have yet to think of!

Some may think there all curable. Go prove 'em right or wrong! IMAGINE. (Ultimate Mix, 2020)– John Lennon and The Plastic Ono Band... youtube.com

America is NOT going to END or seriously curtail electricity generation, farming, transportation, or the other BIG 10 causes listed for climate change! You have to invent ways to offset the negative effects of these services/businesses we need, rely on and will never give up/abandon!

Like the cause(s) of war and tensions, crime, polluting source, evil (like wasps that sting, or crocs that kill), and I believe there's usually technology we haven't developed that can lessen or end such negatives and dangers.

And every day sheeple are buying more and more "must-have" gadgets, once luxuries, and later necessities! Were ONLY adding to the things that add to MORE pollution, greenhouse footprint and need for natural resources! Science has to deal with that reality, and invent our way forward, SOON!

Inventors have created cow feed so they emit less methane! We need MORE forests, and faster-growing trees technologies! Causes of Climate Change wwf.org.nz

Send all pollutants into space, beyond ozone layer, funneling it all through pipes. "Crazy!" We have an elevator to the sky, already, and water and gas pipelines, already. Think upward, where we already have men on the moon and Mars rovers. Refine and expand these ideas to workable solutions!

OR, send all pollutants into the magma layer far into our earth! Incinerate them! Nuclear run-off and waste has to go somewhere! Why not there, or beyond our atmosphere? What opportunities exist under the ocean for new materials, or inside mountains, aesthetically mined then filled?

We USED to simply cut down trees to make two X 4s. Now there's even cement from huge computer laser printers, and OSB studs! Think DIFFERENTLY! "Experts" say we have to have wood for home frames? If steel is more plentiful, businesses are often made of them! try hard plastic, or rock, or bamboo.

Some homes are made of straw bundles, hardened mud, leaves and build underground (where temp is constant 60 degrees). Greenies build homes and buildings with grass and trees on the roof, and bushes, to allow deforestation to be countered by MORE greenery for oxygen! THINK!!!

Homes can now be made of discarded freight containers! I will be hearing a great rock concert soon, at a venue made of those for half the venue's sides! Trash need not be disposed, but thought about for new uses, or places to discard the unusable! "YOU HAVE WHAT YOU TOLERATE!"

IF we hollowed out an entire mountain, but carefully refilled it as we extracted it, its beauty and structure need not be negatively impacted, and technology could be designed to identify what substances it housed, before any drilling began! A friend made technology to detect oil from the surface!

Dangers, like nuclear, atomic, chemical bombs, etc.). I know interesting and intelligent people! I'm bored and don't enjoy ignorant and boring ones! They're NOT leading U.S. progress, but impediments.

In the 1800s, WHO would have thought we'd have sonar, radar, baby sonograms, and MRI machines that can detect early signs of physical problems? TECHNOLOGY caused all this progress, which requires inventors and manufacturer, scientists and engineers, and people able to think, and differently! Another friend has a machine that detects every dangerous material entering Houston's port (five main WMD's detected).

LEARN whats being done differently, somewhere in our world! Expand your capacity to think outside your little toy box! See any good you find, like how EVIL Communism WANTS no sufferers, and more justice, in its theoretical ambitions. Find good, think smart! Fix problems, enjoy life.

WHY can't people live under the ocean, or in mountains, if they want? WHY can't everyone capable of working from home do so? It lessens traffic, pollution and stress! Reimagine how politics can be done! I already have, thoroughly, like an Encyclopedia, on ~every topic! THINK more than feel!

I would go for an automatic rabbit cage cleaner and feeder, Roomba dog crap picker-upper, home fly entrance detector or safe bug zapper near every door or window! WE ACCEPT SUCH A PRIMITIVE EXISTENCE! Speak-to technology is needed for EVERY product! NOT typing or buttons. Draconian!

Literally, WHY do I have to make my breakfast every morning, when a home robot should be able to scramble my three eggs! Every human action can be imitated by AI and robotics! This ISN'T the Jetsons! LEARN what robots are ALREADY doing, before your DUMB brain has your mouth state "crazy!"

So you liberals wipe your tails with four sheets of toilet paper, walk or bike to work in the Texas summer heat, ride share with total strangers, buy over-priced electric cars, wash your trash for recycling, and I'll envision BETTER ways to fix the environment, and NOT kill our economy!

Floods are too much water too soon in too small a venue. Slow the flow, expand the venue, or disperse the amount. Tornadoes are unpredictable swirls of fast wind. Slow the swirl! earthquakes are unpredictable splits. Find triggers and causes, then lessen that stress!

Fires require water or retardant. Homes need sprinkler systems that computer target every sensed flame beyond the size used on the stove or at the fireplace! NOT ceiling-based that molds every piece of furniture, or ripples flooring as a general, vs. specific fix! STOP BENG STUPID.

Hurricanes hurry with fury. Lessen the speed or severity! Droughts need water! ocean sea levels are rising. Put two and two together, dummies! Cali has fires every last summer! You need NO psychic to say that! Prepare in advance to minimize damage! Ocean water piped in; fireplugs everywhere.

IF climate change isn't making higher elevations as hot, annually, build cities higher off the ground! Let lower levels be parking, storage or garbage centers. If your beach house is threatened by erosion, have your HOA erect a pond or lake, in conjunction with other neighborhoods.

Hail could NOT damage properties, if Israel's Iron Dome technology that America developed were targeted when the weathercaster says it's likely! Zap them in mid-air! Lightning can kill, or damage assets. MORE aesthetic lightning rods, dual-functioning, like flag poles or cell towers!

Tsunamis spread much water, quickly. Divert them, when near land, so the entire ocean absorbs their otherwise massive ripples. If you need to take illegal drugs, to get more creative, maybe you just need to remain in a dolt job! Do it legally, LEARNING how to think and be creative!

Hoover dam was a BIG idea! So was raising Galveston, and developing sand into Las Vegas. IF your thinking is too small, so will be your puny solutions! Make carbon emission into a positive (or at least neutral) for the environment. Fund its research like a national security matter?

Oceans are ""filled"" with debris? NO! But where they are, sweep the ocean clean! Fine offenders, severely! Have drones with cameras ID all polluters, and punish them severely. It harms fish and people. Prevention is better than remediation! Catch the crooks.

Calorie-less tasty foods. ANYONE can retire a billionaire if they have the know-how to make this happen! We can extract bad things from human DNA strains. We can get plasma from human blood. Extract what's bad and tasteless from caloric foods! Study more. Think. Try things. Be creative!

Safe smart guns, that detect if their handler is a criminal seeking to kill an innocent, and shut down, or a child picking it up without adult supervision. I swear it is only in stating ideals first that you work backwards to develop actual solutions! You have to envision the un-imaginable and "impossible!"

TRUTH/facts/reality will tell you what's NOT possible, like living forever. Until it shuts you down in the process, research and think like it's NOT undoable. We don't need resurrected corpses. We need fatal diseases ended.

We don't need anyone walking on water, or flying, but jet packs that work, efficiently, and man able to wear shoes that DO let them trudge on the surface of the sea WOULD be amazing progress! Just shy of miraculous is where you aim, like was the case in Eden, sought to be regained at Babel. LOSE if you leave out God!

Can you use forceful language without cuss words? Probably, but many choices are NOT forceful if not edgy. It's a sin to be timid and a sin to cuss. Need better cuss word replacements with strength and force, but NOT constituting cuss words. Any suggestions?

Ant bites, bee stings, scorpion and snake bites... You can NOT eradicate the effects of sin in our world, but technology CAN mitigate all evils and problems, if we use the brains God gave us, in the image of God remaining inside humanity, IMO! Sensors that detect imminent harm to us!

Quicksand detectors, or trespassers within 20 feet of our domicile openings (windows and doors), nails in streets that can pop our tires, dangerous wildlife when you're hunting, nearby crocodiles when swimming in lakes, or sharks in oceans. ALL possible to be made by mankind, IMO!

People about to snatch a purse, or mug a male, or shoot a homeless person. AI algorithms are possible to identify movements, pace and posture and facial expressions and arm movements that predict those crimes are the next act befalling a victim, maybe on their smart phones.

Spouse abusers should have ankle monitors that have sensors or even blurred cameras, so the victim's code words or predicted abusive actions the camera sees can be seen or heard by the machine, notifying authorities. There's still LONG minutes before cops can arrive! Solve that!

Cars have cameras for behind them (and all around, for Tesla's); sensors for vehicles next to them; sounds or vibrations if you veer out of your lane. Sensor technology exists to do things like see through walls to find hold-up police custody escapees. America has a product for almost every need or desire! Make them for all remaining needs!

List every problem or evil, and I guarantee you a group of 50 or less innovative types can solve them! I propose a global innovation center, I'll advocate for when I run, and I'd be happy to start it, as to ideas! I have over 6K, documented. I could do twice that!

SURELY refrigerators can add a mold detector for bread, or sour milk detector, or fruit that's spoiling/going bad. I'm embarrassed that, as an American, no one knows how to make all technology custom voice commanded! You're not trying! I beta tested the Voice Commander in the 1980s.

Public schools should have detectors of incoming guns (X-ray, metal or plastic detectors). Mass shooters should NOT be able to succeed, via TECHNOLOGY! And I am NOT falling to Rom. 1:25, worshipping man or his abilities, nor holding a Babel attitude of arrogance over man's abilities!

Let me build YOUR confidence problems can be solved, using patterns/track records as proof: You USED to have nail holes to hang wall pictures, then fill 'em with toothpaste. NOT with Command brand and 3M tape products. NAME a problem, and a product can be named, like a game show contest!

List every crime, disease, problem, imperfection in life. The Center for Global Innovation can solve it, once it's instituted (ONLY for America, first, till patents expire). Global problems may have international collaboration, more on non-product (political) solutions.

Technology is needed to reverse hacking to explode in their face/keyboards, or nonviolently fry or ruin their computers! I have LONG fought (20 years) America going 100 percent digital, without hard copy backup, as I knew complete safety from information theft would probably be impossible! DUMB.

I've given up, NOT being a mechanical type, seeking to find how flies enter our home every summer for the past 3. We're buying two bug zappers. May every single one of them die! It's entertaining hearing them hit the fan, but it scares the dog.

My point, this morning, is if you simply think, or study (if you never knew), or remember, Americans have solved almost every challenge before them! That same history/lineage needs to be applied to all remaining problems! MOST of 'em we can solve! Doesn't make us gods, but God's creatures!

NEEDED MILITARY INNOVATIONS

IF you watch Hitler technology documentaries, even if they're 100 percent speculative drawings, and were never built, with Von Braun and others coming to America, we have to be so much further developed, lo a half century later! They speak of anti-gravity, and physics-defying equipment.

Let's get military-minded: America has to assume that one day, we could be at war. Vietnam has to have taught us you can't go half-hearted, but you have to win. What would guarantee that, besides enough money? Air, sea, ground and sub-surface superiority, absent nukes set off!

Examples (generally):

1. Anti-nuclear missile protection
2. Complete sonar/radar viewing under the water and in the air
3. Space superiority
4. Unmanned armaments, remote-controlled, for land, including drones (so no Americans are at risk).

Specifically, America needs total protection capability, to make all incoming weaponry fail in its ends. Either an Iron Dome shield (Star Wars. –Reagan), or hacking technology to send missiles to unarmful places, or lasers to blow them up mid-air. No place under the sea should be off limits.

Space, itself, has to be mastered, where no nation can gain any edge on America. On land, anti-IED and bomb technology is needed, ways to make personnel "invisible" to enemy, by deflecting what they see. Uniforms need to be bullet-proof, and head/face gear.

We need smart guns and bullets, that can be programmed in to hit specific targets. GPS should ID exact targets, from the air. ALL windows in vehicles need to be bullet-proof, as with Hum-V tires. Planted beneath the surface bombs need to be found, by technology for America to detect enemy submarines.

Complete domination with minimal casualties to the enemy (and the least collateral damage) would have to be the goal, though winning is more important. Night vision and through walls technology is also needed. The MORE America has all this, the less likely any war would break out against us!

Human shields, military in plain clothes, back pack bombs and suicide bombers and cars packed with explosives NEED to be detectable from a mile off, by U.S. technology! Complete U.S. military safety from enemy attacks of all conceivable weapons, places and times of day or night! It's needed!

SURFSIDE CONDO COLLAPSE

Greg Batista, a professional engineer of Davie: "Concrete spalling" [is] when salt water seeps into porous concrete, it causes the reinforced steel rods known as rebar in the support beams to rust and expand. In turn, the expansion breaks up the concrete and that weakens the beams.

"The Champlain Towers in Surfside Florida was bombed by ISIS, paid for by the U.S. government." This type of nonsense posting is how people get attention, followers and media attention, if not political voters, in our crazy society.

My GUESS is that sinking land will be a major cause of the Florida high rise collapse. Mark my words, months from now. (6/26/21-2)

Even building sand castles at Galveston, much of my childhood, if you're four feet deep, it's salt water that erodes your structure. Is there solid rock at a beachfront property on an island, deep down, upon which Surfside condos have been founded? Salt water seeps into concrete, I'm told.

As close as the Surfside condos are to salt water, on both front and back sides, erosion and underground water access to concrete, then rusting rebar HAS to be considered! There's all right on the ocean, with a bay behind! If you dig down, is it mainly water, at sea level? I'd be a bit nervous if I was living in these nearby Surfside condos! I'd demand an engineering inspection, IMMEDIATELY!

Drought: Miami is sinking, supposedly sea water levels are rising, from melting ice caps. We have pumps and pipes! Drain the unwanted excess to deserts, or drought-plighted regions, like we transfer oil from Houston (Pasadena/Deer Park) to the rest of the nation. It all takes money!

The topic of lightning and wildfires will complete #LightningSafetyWeek Colorado averages about 2,500 wildfires each year. About one quarter of all forest fires in Colorado are ignited by lightning. Additionally, many rangeland and grass fires are caused by lightning. #COWx

CA needs infrastructure to suck ocean H2O through pipes or hoses to forest fires in future. For BIG, recurring problems we must think and solve BIG! (9/16/14)

JUST like predictable CA forest fires every year. We have an entire ocean of H2O nearby. Use pumps and infrastructure to solve it. U.S. ingenuity. (10/6/16)

STILL DOES, four years later: CA needs infrastructure to suck ocean H2O through pipes or hoses to forest fires in future. For BIG, recurring problems we must think and solve BIG! (6/17/18)

Update

(6/26/21-2)

Causes of the FL condo collapse are ALREADY being investigated. NBC says it's too soon, as rescue efforts are still in motion, and that no one wants to say that they are all deceased. Be tactful, keep looking till no one could possibly endure it, but causes are already being investigated!

I do NOT believe salt water was the major cause of the condo collapse, UNLESS there's much salt water in the porous concrete underground. There's much water the rescuers are standing in, so perhaps so, in the foundation piers, at sea level. NOT above ground. Doesn't rain salt water

As much water as the FL condo rescuers are standing in, it would be NO WONDER if land erosion and 1980s reports of sinking property caused irreversible tension on the concrete and rebar, as parts settle differently from other parts. Is this problem possible in other nearby FL structures?

It's irrational to say wanting to know causes is "too soon," when people who ask and investigate those things are not always the same as the rescuers. A MSM report said experts are already investigating the debris, especially that which hangs off the side. Evidence gets altered, later.

RE: FL Condo, IMO, there's NO possibility contractors used inferior rebar diameter/strength, or pressured concrete drying! EVERY condo built at the time would have that same risk, and contractors would be risking a BIG lawsuit! one TV station said original blueprints are being checked for compliance.

America needs a technology that can suck up concrete chunks, NOT just grab them, for debris removal when PEOPLE may be beneath! The weight of rescuers ADDS to the pressure, when a machine that could quickly suck up pieces, and move them away, would cause NO extra pressure!

I can GUARANTEE you there are government engineers and experts, CURRENTLY using drones, or, more likely binoculars and telescopes (or camera zoom features), to try to examine from a block away the rebar and concrete hanging off the FL condo's side. They'll never tell the media; SHOULDN'T.

I can GUARANTEE you government officials are NOT ignoring the debris that gets piled up elsewhere, rather than examining the concrete and rebar, for rush, expansion, salt water input, cracks, chips, or other signs of tension, before the pile piles higher, NBC! Irresponsible NOT to!

NO EMS or rescuer has to have ANY involvement in the causation query, but there are experts who are NOT just standing by awaiting an announcement of rescue turned to recovery! They would NEVER be at the epicenter, or interfere, but they are there and aren't just picking their noses!

IF critical evidence of the causes of collapse got buried in a haste to build a rubble pile, to clear out the area to save anyone savable, lawsuits could ensue! NO responsible person would allow that! WATCH what happens with the removed debris, and where its placed and how it's piled!

Federal government sending scientists to investigate Miami-area building collapse

<https://thehill.com/homenews/administration/560311-federal-government-sending-scientists-to-investigate-miami-area>

It's interesting, to me, why ONE section of the condo fell. Either the connective structures were weakened, or the land beneath it was more unsettled than the other two or so sections. I believe the entire building will be torn down, for psychology, if not science. Too negative to live in!

IF you CAN'T help in the recovery effort, and you pray for all involved, there's nothing else Americans CAN do than wonder why the FL Condo collapse happened! That's NOT evil, or "insensitive." There's nothing else they could do, to be more sensitive! It also helps nearby FL residents!

I wonder if similarly-situated FL condo residents: 1. Fear their building could collapse 2. Want to know if the same contractor built their building, near the same time 3. Wonder if shifting land could negatively impact their condo (especially if very close by, proximately)

It is the responsibility of government to do everything in their power to ensure they did everything they could to find any survivors, no matter the cost or time that takes! However, in a day or two, they'll tell us that, SADLY, none others were found to have survived, IMO.

That last report said "salt air" could have caused structural integrity faults. That conclusion, if upheld by evidential investigating, has to unnerve EVERY Miami-area condo resident! Salt in the wind (not rain, or underground salt water near foundations). Terrifying possibility!

<https://www.nytimes.com/2021/06/26/us/miami-building-collapse-investigation.html>

When a freeway collapsed in CA, during the World Series, national standards for earthquake resistance changed! If salty air's found to have contributed anything to the FL condo collapse, concrete may need to be sealed against such corrosion! That would be a MAJOR national change!

The SAME article says key evidence of structural failure could already be being buried in rubble piles. THATS EXACTLY WHAT I SAID NEED NOT HAPPEN, if experts organize how and where cranes quickly pile the junk that could be trapping living humans! Cause inquiries HELP do it right, NBC!

We, RIGHTLY, bemoan the death of ~600K from Covid (America), 14 in AL (tropical storm), likely near 200 in FL collapse, but do we ever realize that the tragedy is NOT so much their deaths, but that they may never have received Jesus? John 3:16 Bible Hell is worse than death, by FAR!

When rescuers remove concrete chunks, only to place them on larger slabs, NO weight is removed off possible survivors. ALL weight needs to be quickly removed! ONLY where pockets could exist, is hand sorting valuable. We have X-ray like technology that can find underground oil pockets!

Americans, if not all humans, rarely address problems they don't anticipate happening often in the future. If it has to be library book sharing-like, globally, the world needs the concrete sucking machine and sonar searching for pockets technology I described today! Use for all nations?

The grippers/teeth of cranes are NOT so delicate, or flexible, to grab every piece of debris, from an operator 30 yards away. We need smart cranes, with AI that can adjust the grip to the shape of debris, and adjust the angles of multiple teeth, to quickly grab any size or weight!

When I was in high school football, we were being weighed in. I was asked to take off my helmet, and I, stupidly, held it in my hand on the weight scale. The coach mocked that stupid weight enhancement. That's what moving debris around, vs removal, does to any people below! Lift and remove!

The world NEEDS mini cranes with maxi capability, so MANY mini cranes can work at once, at a collapse scene, and NOT be reliant upon mainly one BIG machine! A rolling U-shaped tool atop the scene, with grips/teeth, that pull debris up, then carries it way like assembly line and fast!

LOOK at this video, to see machinery EXISTS to NOT interfere with a collapse site, but could stand above it, to pull debris upward, then outward to get the weight off and out, quicker. This is used for transportation, but adjust the use! <https://youtube.com/watch?v=9vVIBe94dCs...>
America number one. Elevated Bus That Drives Above Traffic Jams

EVERY highway concrete barrier could be used for piers, to create 3-story high second level, that goes over every crossover street, from downtown Dallas to McKinney/I-75. Prefab could make traffic inconvenience MINIMAL! Temp tubes for lane passage could protect from anything falling.

Gold Rush TV show has sucking pipes to gather gold. WHY COULDN'T much larger tubes be sucking out concrete debris in FL condo collapse? BECAUSE WE HAVEN'T DESIGNED IT YET! Get designing, people! Your future depends on and is determined by it! Plan around problems.

WHY don't we ALREADY have clothes line-like assembly lines, atop collapsed structures, that rotate like a cleaners circular clothes holder, to suck up debris, then stop suction long enough to drop it, or lay it on the ground, using teeth/grips? NOT DESIGNED YET! Make your future!

Gold Rush TV show, again, has rubber 'floors' on rollers. WHY WOULDN'T one strong enough to carry concrete debris exist, to haul off that which might have caused some survivors not to? Quick set-up, at major catastrophes. YOU HAVE TO DESIGN and PLAN, vs. only knee jerk responses! Think.

Everyone in FL is doing their best, IMO. It's the DESIGN of equipment that has failed us doing a better job! There's no U.S. market for new catastrophe equipment! But, globally, there could be, if quickly flyable to situations, including people falling into abandoned wells. DESIGN YOUR FUTURE.

For people fallen into wells, a rolling tool that puts no pressure on the crevice, from a wide stance of four wheels, could use camera and drones to go down and secure a vest, or rope around a victim, if unable to grab hold of a life preserving loop, under crotch and arm pits, remote controlled.

"There's no market for that" only means you haven't yet thought globally, or what the world could, unitedly, create and use, to solve problems that don't happen often enough to justify one nations investment. The U.N. could own this equipment. DESIGN IT for every natural disaster! I can!

Let's get SPECIFIC, but not scientific or technical (I can't, and leave that to experts). Floods: The water has to be split into multiple directions, slowed down, funneled into a deep hole, sucked up, or windblown to dissipate, QUICKLY, when dams break or rains flood. Technology NEEDED!

Let's get SPECIFIC, but not scientific or technical (I can't, and leave that to experts). Tornadoes: The spin has to be neutralized, or un-spun the other direction, till it stops. Blenders have wisps, and we need much larger ones, either chemically, mechanically, or otherwise, from above.

I don't reinvent wheels. I've already addressed such matters several times. Time to start my day, as we have our GREAT Christian couple coming for lunch, who gave encouraging messages and gifts to all our neighbors, when the pandemic first hit. 'Wanna entertain heroes!

I want bullet-proof see-through visors for all U.S. military in combat! Heart and lung protection (Kevlar), also, but light weight! These heroes volunteer to risk death, but should never face death if technology and wise strategy can keep them from that fate! Irresponsible NOT to do so

I've studied that car and bike tires can't be 100 percent rubber, with no air, as they'd be a hard/bumpy ride, and weigh too much. We NEED some material that's lighter, and absorbs stuff on the road that tires roll over, or have superior shock systems, as flats should NOT happen, IMO!

WHY don't Americans have technology for wreck avoidance? There are split seconds where physics laws and movement patterns, in conjunction with sensors, could predict an imminent crash, and safely deflect that danger, through AI. We ACCEPT such PRIMITIVE 'hi tech!' Demand better, America consumers!

A HUGE rake-like diverter, set down from above (by HUGE drones, or helicopters), or combined with HUGE fans, could divert floods in multiple directions, to lessen damage. Channeling the water is the need, as the earth can't absorb it fast enough, and there's too much in one direction!

The eye of the hurricane can be penetrated by aircraft. Now, they need to be equipped with tech, chemicals, mini bombs, or whatever means humans can devise, to reverse the spin, and slow down the intensity, from above, or by submarines. Science can devise a solution, IMO.

GLOBAL INNOVATION

COULD IT BE that EVERY problem can be fixed, if mankind has the right knowledge? COULD the curse, apart from starting sickness, death and wildness in nature, also have been ignorance, and Adam and Eve have had greater knowledge than we currently have, pre-Fall? They lacked nothing!

Analysis is how I discovered my recent back aches are from spending DAYS in a new-to-us car, whose seats are different from before! Firm, lumbar padded pillow is now in order! You have to KNOW, to fix problems! It WASN'T my bed mattress or couch laying. The problem was NEW, as with car!

Two summers ago, our Miami/Destin trip almost got cut short from house sitter cries of massive flies. A Facebook post solved it, this week, after 80+ killed by our two new bug zappers: Irish Spring soap spread around your doors. KNOWLEDGE solves problems! NO flies reported, today!

Watching para-Olympic trials on NBC, earlier, it's both inspiring, but also made me so sad that our fallen world brings such challenges to people! Would that all physical challenges could be cured, in this life, and not just later on in prophecy! Some people really rise through fire!

INNOVATION TIDBITS (PART II)

Pothole detectors on cars (no brainer) needed. I am ending this, as I can reimagine an entire world of products, based on the perfection standard of Heaven, but I won't. 'Gotta save some for the campaign.

Taking out the trash, doing the cleaning and cooking, dish and clothes washing. Robots should be doing all these things, and more. They don't have to look like humans, or be intimidatingly large. The more you learn about whats been done, the better you can imagine what needs to be!

COULDN'T a robot deep clean couches, do dusting, and scrub toilets? Same with poop picker upping, on dog walks. Robotics NEED to advance to Jetsons level, after such a long, disappointing delay!

Suicide net needed for people on edges/ledges, that captures and pulls them back, disguised so they don't know what will happen. TVs should be programmable to silence during commercials! ANY vehicle whose breaks are gone or going out need warning signals, like CO 18-wheeler charged!

My temptation is to write, and not edit, for which the Lord severely disciplined me. It's more fun, and how I stay connected. Cutting back will occur, at least till I'm caught up. Busy business starts back soon! Empty nest night, tonight!

IMO, if given three years, full-time, I could concoct 10K new products. I'm MORE interested in fixing problems in society; not consumer products! Give me 4-8 years, I'll leave a successor an EASY job, with many major problems fixed, in a balanced way!

"Barn door's open" should never occur. Sensor tells fools the zippers down. I am through, for now. My campaign will make these skills avail to whichever party I run for. Easily 1000 new products, to benefit individuals and businesses! NO OTHER politician can do the same, IMO!

Football concussions, head-on collisions, skidding on ice, rear enders, driving wrong way down highway, hit and run getaways, snatch and grab retail robberies. Find technology solutions! WHY can't the sun power light at night, and the moon make light avail everywhere, by tech, or reflectors?

Calorie-free tasty foods! Find out what molecules make something taste well, and extract it from caloric material. Micro level manufacturing of de-calorated foods. Can we do this one day? Make pizza and burgers as dangerous as broccoli! STEM solutions, and medical science!

South Texas ranchers NEED robots to shy away and capture or identify trespassing illegals! HOW HARD would that technology be? NOT hard! Can medical industry make the 20 minute gap between eating and feeling it instant, so you feel full when you eat. NOT later? Surgeries needed, or DNA altering?

NO ONE should drown. Technology needed to detect anyone under water for too long, to alert lifeguards. Home pools need the same, for wayward toddlers. NO MORE drownings, via technology. I can envision three ways to achieve this! Same with diving into shallow waters: paralysis; depth detectors!

We have water pic, and electric toothbrushes. WHY can't we have automatic flossers? I literally can envision 1000 new products, EASILY. Innovation is a skill I've been gifted with, that others can't keep up with. Not a spiritual gift, but like it! I've proved it at our website chapters!

How do you capture energy, for later use? Green power in batteries needs this ability! Can't just use wind when it blows! Date rape drug detectors are needed! HOW can we allow such chemicals to go undetected? Completely unfair to women, and empowers evil pervert rapists! FIX IT!

Instant tank fill-ups for electric vehicles have to be developed! Maybe you just snap in a new charged battery? It's EMBARRASSING some people on vacays spend four hours refilling! ONLY if at night, but day needs exist, on long voyages! Instant fill-up, like gasoline! They're working on it!

Droughts ought never occur in America! Were surrounded by water on the west, east and south! Infrastructure needed! Can't planes go supersonic speed, without sonic booms? develop planes that don't cause those, like stealth avoids radar. Try materials and shapes to prevent sonic booms!?

Colorado having wildfires. They're NOT near an ocean, but a nationwide water system that accessed ocean water could allow many more strategically-placed fire hydrants, to prevent them being a problem anywhere in America! Every structure NEEDS surrounding exterior water sprinklers!

Colorado WHINED about not enough snow; now they complain God gave them too much. Technology should be able to control the overage, and cloud seeding make more flow when lacking. Not just man-made snow (water shot into freezing air). Ski resorts need no lack or excess! Ala, II Cor. 8:15

Every hacker should face anti-hacking technology that destroys their user computer, instantly! If they seek firewall breach, aggressive initiative owes to the innocent's computer, and code should destroy the hacker's hard drive, instantly; and send hackers IP address/ID to the cops! Tech!

Pregnancy tests should never fail! Nor condoms or other birth control. Snow skis and snowboards should NOT yield broken legs. Body-worn motion detectors should deploy air bags, when ones fulcrum exceeds a safe degree, indicating tipping over, toward injury! Sirens if aimed at trees

People have WAY too many ways to be contacted! one tool should coordinate every DM, voicemail, phone call, text, Snap Chat convo, fax, email, and every social media messages, so alerts from any of them arrives on one's phone! Maybe that exists? I'm NOT a smart phone aficionado!

Did you know home intercoms would still be helpful, when smart phones aren't nearby (or used), as with garbage compactors? WHY were these ever abandoned? We have evolved beyond trash filling up space? Time passing, alone, isn't progress! We need IMPROVEMENT!

Bed mattresses need to automatically change form to your body shape when you lay on back, side or stomach! Computers should adjust firmnesses to needed areas, anytime you change positions. My couch needs the same, where I write! Butt and back ache. FIX IT!

Public transportation must be able to detect hidden weapons! Either scanners, or other types of detectors. Public schools need the same. Perhaps more targeted than a scanner, but a tool that senses plastic or metal, or sees gun shapes, by remote X-ray.

Watching 90 Day Fiancé TV show: There NEEDS to be birth control you can turn on and off, at will, that's fool proof. There must be a machine you speak fluently to, that translates it into the ears of a foreign-tongued listener! My pastor friend speaks in English, and audience hears in Spanish

Watching 90 Day Fiancé TV show, and there's a bald insecure guy. Can we find a permanent solution, and prevention pill or medicine? Dermatologists reinject your head skin cells, for new growth, but it lasts 10 years max. Maybe $2-3K. Prevent balding, scientists! Generic Propecia early on helps.

Six Flags wore my aching foot out. WHY can't there be automated shoes, like roller skates, but fully safe and unable to fall by wearing, so I WOULD'N'T have needed a wheelchair (which I didn't use)? Normal shows, with wide wheeled platforms, powered and controlled by hand?

I have one product I can envision: A pill that expands with saliva, or otherwise targets the area of brain, stomach, or both, that feels hunger! Can't science determine how to curb cravings, medically? What causes those urges, and find a solution that's NOT food; even surgery.

SOLVING PROBLEMS

WHAT are our world's top problems needing fixing? I've my own NON-liberal list:

Wars, human trafficking, slavery, child labor, work camps (North Korea/Russia), criminals, hackers, pollution, poverty, killing gays, cutting off robbers hands, treating women as second class, illegal immigration, Violent gangs, drug lords, the mafia, selfish rich people, selfish politicians, ignorance, U.S.

blacks often being poor, rogue nations, dictators, oppressors of peoples (lack of freedoms and human rights), diseases, solvable natural disasters, tax cheats, pimps and sex perverts. That's MY list.

Update

(12/31/21-2)

My responses to these 10 mankind challenges. Not exactly product worthy, but still valuable...
globaltopia.org TOP 10 CHALLENGES. Check out <http://globaltopia.org>! Globaltopia: Solutions for Living. List of the Top Ten Challenges Facing Humanity.

I'm in a creative mood. I will research a list of problems people encounter, and fix them all with newly envisioned products, IF such a list or lists exist(s)?...

1. Misinformation. UNbiased, proven facts, honest sources to debunk lies, bias indicators, etc. I'm all too happy to have an online podcast debunking any lies, and showing people the bias in claims. Better analysis skills taught in schools! Use lie detectors, too! I'll always submit!
2. Energy. Easy in theory. Costly and time-consuming in practice: Harness every ocean wave, all wind, solar and tap geothermal power from inside the earth's core (magma, steam, heat, eruptions). It's all free and endless. Make it storable for vehicle batteries! New technology needed to have this
3. Environment. Technology to clean up carbon emissions, capture and re-use them, or funnel them outside our atmosphere (sewer system to the sky), or to the earth's magma insides. Don't burn off refinery gas, but USE it. No spill drilling. Renewable energy vehicles easily refillable!
4. Food and water. WE HAVE OCEANS! NEVER a water shortage! Just de-salinate (much technology needed for that). Food can't be short, if better veggie-based products, efficient farming methods, multi-tiered gardens, more livestock, use all unused farmland anywhere found, eat what you buy.
5. Poverty. Everyone needs a job, if not a survivalist. Every nation employ your own. First world assist third world to economic sustainability. Any government handouts repaid by civic service, even if only tokenly. Education system train for jobs of the future. Robots may unemploy us all!?
6. Decreased human conflicts. EASY! DO what the Bible teaches! Deterrence, self-defense, peace talks, find mutual interests, look eye to eye, trust but verify (accept no lies), care about your enemies valid needs, no hate or slander, find common ground. Read my books on solutions!
7. Human suffering. Immunize everyone from preventable fatal diseases. Sanitation systems for all, even if just an outhouse. Medical care avail to all. STEM advances to defeat illnesses and diseases. Charities for poor's costly surgeries (world's rich give back), minimize wars, etc.
8. Education. IF any society has electricity, or battery-powered generators, all education can be taught, for free, off the internet, or prerecorded lesson videos, or loud speakers. No books required. Language barriers can use technology to translate the information to audiences native tongue
9. Human rights. Cops enforce more, and international force to impose human rights, and end genocides, and tribunals for violations (national sovereignty respected, meaning voluntarily). Violators who don't join need uprisings and the people to take over their governments! NO dictators!
10. Population. Technology advances to advance our lives are NOT helping this prob! Poor people SHOULDN'T have any or more than one kid. If they do, no government help! Birth control and safe sex education in school. Governments must never reward people unable to finance their family!

NOT the problems I had in mind; more into consumer products! I must find a list of every product mankind has created, then find their imperfections! I used to have 12 binders full of all registered products. It was too space-taking (two+ feet wide). I could invent 1000 new products.

LIBERALS & BUSINESS

Do you know ANYONE who works for $7.25/hour/minimum wage? I want to meet them, and ask them about their work history and education, because something is dreadfully WRONG!!!

Market rate does NOT mean every employer pays the same rate for the same job, as it's an AVERAGE! I got a STEAL on our 'new' car, but most people will pay much more, because I bought below average. Average is market rate. Bell curve is reality for pricing, many times! Buy smart!

Employers are smart/wise to know market rate, in what to pay employees. They are ONLY illegal when they collude to set prices (which would be to agree to lower rates, falsely manipulating market rate).

Liberals act like business executives choose a pay rate solely by how low they want to pay—NOT what other employers are paying, to hog all the profits and keep people poor. That's NOT how a market works! You can pay LOWER than others, and never fill the job, or higher, and interview everyone.

For newbies, politics is NOT hard to understand! You watch the DEEDS more than the words, and the two parties values are easily identified, and differentiated! This is NOT opinion, speculation or debatable.

LOOK at the XL pipeline. Oil is GOOD for our economy, but bad for our environment. Its owners offered Mr. Biden SO MANY concessions, to make it environment friendly, but he rejected this boon to our economy, because liberals hate fossil fuels and insist on only green energy. Conservatives would not have offered any concessions; just built that pipeline! Extremes!

War. Liberals want NONE. Conservatives don't mind them, and often profit off them.

Abortion. Liberals have NO problem with it, at all. Some Dems see its moral problem, yet want zero restrictions on its legality. Conservatives are for total bans. In-between is the centrist party!

Taxes. Liberal Pocahontas is calling for a wealth tax. They have issues, and NO problem spending tax money, and raising taxes (say crazy Bernie). JUST LOOK at Biden's Covid relief package! IT tells you liberal priorities!

Race. Liberals are ALL IN on African-Americans. It's the main racial group they address and talk about. Conservatives coddle white supremacists, like justifying the Capital rioters. Black vs. white.

That conservatives favor the rich and business owners is UNdebatable! They wanted tax rebates mainly for the rich, in 2016. Liberals begrudge the rich being rich.

Liberals speak of poverty and hunger ALL THE TIME. And the working class is claimed by both sides, but only the liberals have passed policies that benefit them, other than having a job, which conservatives tout. Things like breaks, overtime and a safe workplace.

Biden spoke of "FREE" healthcare, daycare, mortgage down payment, student debt relief and college. Liberals are for freebies/handouts, paid for ONLY by taxpayers, and given mainly to non-taxpayers (or more, but NOT funded by them all). Conservatives will tell you they oppose all wealth redistribution!

LIBERAL EXTREMES

A true liberal would have NO problem if there were NO rich people in America, freebies off taxpayers were abundant, problems got fixed by bankrupting America and exploding our debt, our population tripled by illegal immigration, and the GOP died. EVIL attitudes! SIN!!! (3/24/21-2)

Let's address the RIDICULOUS and/or EVIL presuppositions/assumptions of liberalism:

1. The government has a right to as much of your money as it wants. The Constitution specifically limits government; it doesn't give her free reign! God says only give her what's due/owed her. Mk. 12:17
2. The rich are evil, need punishing, own too much, or owes paying most of our nation's bills. It is not evil to be rich, if that's in God's will for an individual. Yes, some rich are evil, and got rich through evil, but NOT all. What one owns is THEIR property.

It may be more than YOU think they should own, but should laws force them to work for free, retire, or not use their God-given ability to make money MORE than your skills? God DOES say they're to give back generously, and ones who don't are sinful hoarders.

* But that excess is NOT the property of clamoring poor and JUSTICE (no justice, no peace) says EVERYONE owes their fair share of our nation's bills. WHY mainly the rich? Just because they can? You can mop floors better than me, or cook meals... does that make it fair you do all that and I sit back and watch?

3. Freebies are morally good. NOT morally but ECONOMICALLY, ONLY for the recipients!
4. BIG oil is evil. You're ALIVE because of fossil fuels! Your life WOULDND'T exist on horseback! It has negative (NOT evil) side effects of pollution, and technology and laws need to clean that up, but green energy is NOT always stable, nor should it replace brown energy!
5. The poor "deserve" handouts. Apart from physically and mentally disabled folks, your inability to spend what you earn, or earn less than you need is NOT a skill our society should celebrate!
6. All sexual deviance is on par with marital sex. With that belief there is zero morality involved in any sex acts, as they're just biological, physical exercise. Bestiality, polygamy, man-child relations, adultery, fornication, sexual confusion—ALL these are equally morally valid, if there's no compass!
7. Over-taxation is good; it's THEFT! Isa. 5:20

The money is personal property of taxpayers who EARNED it. ANY confiscation beyond what Uncle Sam NEEDS (vs wants) is sinful stealing! And the Founding Fathers listed what the feds are to spend for, and they ALL are things we ALL benefit from, but are unfeasible to individually expense.

ALL for, and business can't profit enough off of, or things that are needed to be consistently administered centrally! There are OTHERS, but if a human is logical, legal and moral, they will NEVER fully embrace political liberalism!

Whites are bad; America has much government excess funds to spend; business is bad; management is unfair. Men are evil; being straight is equal with deviance. Guns kill, on their own. The poor are life's heroes. THIS IS THE DEMOCRAT PARTY OF TODAY! (3/26/21-2)

Liberals think they hold the moral high ground! We'll be "nice," and make difficult expenses free, overpay workers, harm business, the rich and BIG oil, so pollution goes away. They have simpleton definitions of morals, and NO IDEA how America's bills get paid. Just vote to spend!

Liberals have some moral issues they're for. Their main problem is how they opt to fund them, by higher taxes! The alternatives to that unjust solution (stealing from taxpayers) are as follows:

1. Fair share taxes (not unjust loopholes).
2. A growing economy. (6/23/20)

(7/1/21-2)

Liberals say eat the rich. Liberals want the rich's riches! Liberals believe taxpayers don't pay enough taxes, already! Liberals are happy many American pay nothing in taxes. That injustice pleases them. They don't truly believe, 'no justice, no peace!' They LOVE freebies others pay for! EVIL!!! (10/13/21-2)

Liberal 'moral' values:

1. Guns kill; not gun users
2. Pollution is bad, and a luxury
3. Abortion may harm a baby, but I have a right to have sex
4. There should be no poor in America; give them freebies till they're middle class
5. Fiscal responsibility is an unnecessary MYTH
6. America needs to be punished for actions centuries ago (slavery, Mex-America War)
7. Free speech means only liberal propaganda; otherwise, censorship is good
8. White people are evil (unless they're Dems who donate a lot)
9. Government has unending funds it earns
10. War is always wrong; roll over and allow evil to win, if war's the only way to stop it
11. Borders should be open, and America should accept every refugee and everyone wanting to come here; they're just wanting to make America better (Socialist)
12. Business is evil, and cares nothing about workers
13. The media exists to more subtly enforce the liberal agenda than Dem politicians
14. Government should never kill anyone for any reason, as punishment for any crimes
15. Criminals should be free, and able to vote
16. Police are mainly evil, and enforcers of white supremacy; DEFUND!
17. Money spent on national defense would better be spent giving free money to poor people, so they're not poor anymore
18. Every problem in life should be fixed, and funded by government, if business can't profit off it enough

19. Any who disagree with this agenda are evil and inhumane.

LIBERALS HATE AMERICA?

IF you hated America, and were an American, what would you do?

1. Try to bankrupt her
2. Split her politically
3. Tout her history failings
4. Oppose Exceptionalism
5. Violently riot/protest
6. Appease her enemies
7. Disseminate her trade secrets
8. Invade her with poor and dumber immigrants

IF you hated America, and were NOT an American, what would you do, as a nation?

1. Try to bankrupt her 2.
- Try to divide her
3. Try to get others to hate her
 4. Oppose her at the U.N., and elsewhere
 5. Provoke her
 6. Ally against her
 7. Hack her often
 8. Invade her with immigrants and spies

DEMOCRAT POWER DEPENDS ON DEPENDENCY

(12/20/21-2)

MOST of this is Socialism!

GET THIS STRAIGHT, and stop all the belly aching: NO Republican wants to fund someone else's life, especially by force, and that is NOT evil, but rational and normal! END OF SUBJECT. Pay your own way!

If you haven't figured this out, yet, you're dumb as a duck, but that doesn't mean you don't have a right and responsibility to know it, so I'll teach you... Democrats don't want people financially self-sustaining! their power is based on people depending on them for life's needs!

1. Dems WANT GOP's financially drained by taxes, to pay for others' lives. They WANT to weaken GOP coffers thereby!
2. Dems WANT illegals, as immigrants who come legally are more inclined to vote GOP, and not want government handouts.

3. Dems want a U.S. majority to WANT and vote for handouts
4. Dems want BIG government to do many things, because most of them don't pay their fair share in funding those projects!
5. Dems WANT Californians and New Yorkers priced out of their state, to Texas, to blue up my state!
6. Dems want criminals released, to vote for Dems.
7. Dems rely on incrementalism. Over the decades, they got Medicaid, Welfare, Obamacare, and now Biden has opened the floodgates of expectations: "FREE" daycare, college, home down payment, family leave, student loan forgiveness. They rely on the long run, adding things every term!

I've done this before. I HATE doing things twice. BUT, it's NEEDED: HOW THE U.S. POOR CAN LIVE OFF WHAT THEY MAKE:

1. Earn more (better skills, effort or more hours)
2. Spend less
3. Buy wiser
4. Have no kids, till you can afford them

I have an entire LENGTHY chapter on specifics on how the poor can buy almost anything for less, or for better value(s). I will NOT re-write what's already been written! Other people don't owe you ANYTHING, but from mercy we should educate and motivate you to self-sufficiency!

Insurance is for the BIG costs of life you can't afford on your budget. Crowd funding now exists, as well. You can even move to a blue state, where handouts are more welcomed. National policies seeking to force everyone to an extremist agenda are EVIL, for BOTH parties' extremists.

MORE competition is the answer to lowering prices for anything costly! Healthcare is costly. If daycare is, start more daycares! Homes? Build more of them! Supply and demand! NOT government subsidies and freebies/handouts! Put your hand to the plow, not open for charity! Work for it!

MOTIVATIONAL METHODS (I)

The GREATEST motivation manual in the Bible is the book of Philemon. LOOK at all the methods Paul uses in this single chaptered letter:

Sympathy (prisoner of Christ, v. 1); love (beloved brother, v. 1); compatriot/partnership (fellow worker, v. 1); thanks for them (v. 4); prayer for them (v. 4); complements of their moral/spiritual achievements (v. 5); prayer for their benefit (effective fellowship by discussing our inheritance, v. 6); praise for them (joy and comfort in their love, v. 7); encouragement by one's influence on others testified to (v. 7); authority to command recognized, but humbly withheld (v. 8); appeal based on love, vs. demand (v. 9); appeal based on your character (I am such a person as Paul, v. 9); pity (aged, v. 9); sympathy (prisoner, twice addressed, v. 9); appeal selflessly for another, with authority of having evangelized (v. 10); showing them benefit they received by you and your associates (useful, v. 11); appeal based on one being your emotional and moral equal (v. 12); showing your humility to not fully exercise your rights (v. 13); seeking consent, vs. compulsion—respect for their will/decision (v. 14); implying they will choose right by free will (v. 14); positive spiritual speculation on God's hand in the situation (v. 15); showing multiple benefits to them for doing your request (v. 16); appealing to your partner relationship (v. 17); agreeing to right wrongs, so they're made whole (v. 18); appeal based on your word and reputation as an honest person of character (v. 19); backhanded threat or debt/obligation reminder that you've done more for them than vice versa (v. 19); reminder that their spiritual life is due to the requester (v. 19); request for an unselfish benefit by the appeal being accepted (v. 20); request for them to encourage you, spiritually, by an accepted appeal (v. 20); expressed confidence/expectation of their obedience (v. 21); expressed belief they'll go the extra mile, and do more than requested—trust (v. 21).

If that laundry list of motivational methods doesn't secure a positive decision to the request made, the recipient is hardened-hearted, as there are so many positive, and even negative features being used in Paul's appeal, Philemon has no choice (to speak of) but to do as Paul asks, not even having to demand it, using his authority as an apostle! That's clever tact!

MORALS & THE BIBLE

Forgiveness. Do you always forgive? Do you require the offender repenting before you do? How many times do you forgive? Is forgiveness weakness, or doormat-ism? How can you forgive BIG hurts? Does forgiveness mean forgetting? Do you have to express forgiveness to your offender?

Patience. Is being anxious a sin? Is everyone running at the same pace, morally, or might type A's have a faster standard? Is laziness the same as being patient? Is patience a virtue, when the early bird catches the worm? Is patience doing nothing? Can you be patient with a short-term (vs medium or long-term) perspective?

Peace. Is peacefulness an emotion? Is patience a virtue? Are men expected to be at peace with everyone? Are peace-makers to be praised, or are they weak? Is marijuana use peace the same as moral peace? Turn the other cheek. Are nations expected to do this, or only individuals?

How many times do you turn a cheek, until you become a doormat? Doesn't the Bible also teach self-defense? Isn't there value in teaching people a lesson, or giving them a taste of their own medicine? Love your neighbor. Even the evil ones?

How would you show that, especially in hoods where everyone stays indoors? Must you turn it evangelistic? Why and how can we love the unlovely?

Revenge. Is there never a place for it? Is it the same as retaliation, or opposite to justice? Who is to start the reconciliation process? Is karma a thing? Isn't revenge OK if no one sees you do it?

Hatred. Are we never to feel hatred for anything (or anyone)? Is ignoring someone stronger disgust than hatred? Aren't some words or actions worthy of engendering your hate of their source? Is hating evil evil?

Hope. Are pipe dreams wise? Isn't hope just wishful thinking? Does depression come from losing hope? Is encouragement instilling hope?

Joy. Is happiness a feeling? Is happiness the same as joy? Are we expected to be joyous in unjoyous circumstances? Are some temperaments more inclined to joy, like more well-rounded, happy-go-lucky types?

Love. Is romantic love an emotion? Can man unconditionally love? Are we expected to love everyone? Can you love without saying I love you? Can you love without behaving lovingly? Is love never having to say you're sorry?

Kindness. Is there value in liberal do-gooders who do random acts of kindness? Shouldn't we do so only when it's natural/unconscious? How can you be kind to unkind people?

Faithfulness. Aren't there times you have to quit being loyal? Is loyalty unthinking blind faith? Is it a sin to have affairs?

Are emotional affairs and marital flirting sin? You see, there can be modern complexities to ethical issues. The Bible contains the wisdom to answer all these questions, and more. Without it, man can stumble into its truths, or can wander blindly in subjectivity. Judg. 21:25

Contentment. Is it having no aspirations? Is it having peaceful or perfect circumstances? Is it simple-mindedness, not aware of one's financial sufferings? Faith. Is it the opposite of doubt? How do you get it? Is it positive mental attitude?

Generosity. Who is to be financially generous? ONLY the rich? Can you be generous in other ways? Can't you always use money for heirs yet to be born, rather than being generous to non-family members? How much is being generous vs. stingy?

Gentleness. Isn't that for females? Isn't it weakness? How can tough, macho men behave with gentleness, and not be effeminate? Humility. Is humiliation required to have humility?

Does humility mean you never tell others things you're proud of achieving? Is it being silent, or never in the lime light? Is self-promotion evil arrogance?

Selflessness. Is self-interest the same? Can't people be too selfless? Why value others as more valuable than yourself? Can a Christian be a disciple if they're selfish?

Truthful. Is lying always evil? Are white lies sin? Do you have to state every fact you know on every issue? (Ex.: Liar, Liar movie)

The Bible also teaches what sin IS (as EVIL comes from the dEVIL):

Anger. Is righteous indignation sinful? How can you be angry but not sin? How long should you feel anger (Eph. 4:26).

Argumentative. Is it evil to be a skeptic, or to challenge things asserted as true or moral?

Is there never a time to make one's case/argument? Are lawyers evil? People who enjoy arguing for argument's sake are committing sin. Arrogance. Is being proud of your quality of work arrogance? (i.e., are there two types of pride?).

Coveting. Is it evil to want assets you see others have? Is it a difference of intensity of desire?

Cussing: Are four-letter words expressed sinning? (yes) What about damn, a-s, Hell, frick? Is it OK to FEEL like saying some words, but refraining? Is %*^$@! on twitter sin? Divisiveness. Is all division evil? What's the difference?

Drunkness. Is it a sin, if done at your home (vs in public)? Is tipsiness sin? Is it wrong to have a few drinks? Is abstinence required? Was wine in the Bible days fermented? Fear. Is all fear sinful? Isn't it rational to be afraid at the edge of the Grand Canyon? Is reverence the same thing?

Fornication. Is sex before marriage sin? Second and third base?

Gossip. What is it? Are rumors evil, if you disclaim them as uncorroborated, but heard on credible sources? Isn't sharing information you can't prove the only way to raise questions needing investigating?

Greed. Is it evil to want money? Is it how intensely you want it, or how high a priority it is to you? Is greed good? What is worldliness?

Homosexuality. Is gay sex sin? Are gay emotions evil? Is it a choice, or a biologically forced status?

Laziness. Is relaxing being lazy? Are freebies evil, or gifts and windfalls to be thankful for? Sorcery. Is it a sin to hear tarot card readings? Are Ouija boards sinful? Is it evil to watch ghost TV shows?

Violence. Is all violence evil (like self-defense, or the military)? The Bible answers all these issues, with wisdom!

ON GOODNESS (I)

NO ONE likes overly-"good" people, like those who slow down traffic, letting everyone cut in front of them (and everyone behind them), or slow at four-way stop signs! Few to NONE of us are called to behave like Monks, or TM gurus who pray and contemplate/meditate all day!

BUT, goodness is golden. There's a range from Hitler to Mother Teresa, among mere humans (Jesus as NOT that), and many people just strive to fit in and "be normal." But goodness is MORE valuable than money-making, but many in our modern world do NOT know or hear this truth, even though likely every weekend sermon is on a topic or two which center on increasing in morality!

The gap is NOT lost on non-Christians, who RIGHTLY saw and complained of that gap in 2016 and 2020! (See: Apostasy For Power Idolatry, at Facebook's James.Meroney.9, #74)

Do whatever you want. The concept of "sin" and the "devil" are myths. Do whatever you can't get caught doing, or whatever you can get away with. Rules were made to be broken. God is dead, and never existed anyway. MANY (deceived) PEOPLE LIVE with THIS subconscious self-talk!

Your life purpose is to enjoy life, and have fun. Be fulfilled; you deserve it. Life, liberty and happiness. The American Dream. MANY (deceived) PEOPLE LIVE with THIS subconscious self-talk, which is a LIE, if God is omitted (which He OFTEN is).

It is the inner thoughts we listen to, or tell ourselves, that bring us justifying conclusions and decision-making rationale. The Bible says evils come from within; from the heart, and that we must guard that heart, for from it spring the issues of life.

It also says raise kids in the way they are supposed to behave, and later on, they will. Many people live by the golden rule (do unto others). You can set expectations on how you will be treated by not allowing people to mistreat you.

Have expectations for behavior, to make society better, by not tolerating inferior standards, or mere sheepish go along to get along standards of everyone else is doing it. You don't have to always swim against the stream, but the majority is NOT always right!

IF one doesn't believe in God, they still believe in the value of morality, or more people would be serial murderers, as nothing matters. My point is, although NO ONE will ever be perfect, strive to be good! The Bible says this takes effort, and discipline. What you put in your mind can impact what comes out of your deeds.

ONLY Jesus was morally perfect! NO others will ever come close. But blatant sin, habitual sin, or living lives conforming to mere social standards is an indication a claiming Christians does not yet comprehend why they were saved, or what it means to be a Christian in practice!

People may take offense at any accountability, but the Bible says you do them a favor, turning them away from sin. it also says God blesses people doing the same! Arrogant people can balk, and ask 'who are you' to correct me? NO ONE has to be perfect to do so, if needed or God-led, and we all do society a favor to do our part to lessen our own personal evils, and help others come to that same conclusion!

The opposite is turning down your conscience, thus hardening it more and more, over time, thus hardening that heart we are to guard with all diligence. Be good; not too good, and not bad!

Update

(12/5/21-2)

When I say God wants everyone to do good and not evil, let me move beyond that human statement, and give you God's opinion/word on the subject (following tweets). His commands...

Do good, NOT bad! Ps. 37:3 Trust in the Lord, and do good; dwell in the land and befriend faithfulness.

Mic. 6:8 He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

Do GOOD, NOT evil! Ecc. 3:12 I perceived that there is nothing better for them than to be joyful and to do good as long as they live; Ecc. 12:13 Now all has been heard; here is the conclusion of the matter: Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the duty of all mankind.

Do GOOD, NOT evil: Ps. 34:14 Turn away from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it I Pet. 3:11 Let him turn away from evil and do good; let him seek peace and pursue it three Jn. 1:11 Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God.

Pv. 28:5 Evildoers do not understand what is right, but those who seek the LORD understand it fully.

Let me give you an example of how people can increase in desire for goodness: I was saved at age 8. Till age 18, I had NO interest in pursuing goodness, just what everyone else pursued! God needs to get a hold of you, as He did me. Still, it's a lifelong battle. Purify your heart!

EVEN IF you don't believe the Bible, don't care about God and care nothing about goodness, READ the Bible daily! You will be shocked what happens before the year 2022 expires! Read these books first: Jn., Eph., Phil., I Jn., Ps., Pv. Meditate on what you like. Think deep, question, and define terms!

We all (save criminals) hate evil in our world! We may be intrigued by headlines, but we don't like the evils! Murders, rapes, human trafficking, school shootings, mowing over parade goers, lying politicians, divisiveness, race supremacists, hoarding rich. You're made in God's image.

EVERY human will be judged for every deed and word of their earthly lives! LOOK: Rom. 2:6 [God] who will render to each person according to his deeds: Ps. 62:12 and lovingkindness is Yours, O Lord, For You recompense a man according to his work.

George W. Bush spoke of this. ALL people are born sinners, but God speaks of some as evildoers. You know they exist, and aren't like everyone else: Ps. 37:1-2 Fret not yourself because of evildoers; be not envious of wrongdoers! For they will soon fade like the grass and wither like the green herb.

What you put into your mind (see or listen to, or read) affects your behavior! You are what you consume, like conspiracy theories and other lies fools entertain. As a man thinks in his heart, so is he. Pv. 23:7

THESE thoughts often justify sinful behavior in U.S. society, wrongly:

1. Everyone's doing it (X million people can't be wrong)
2. Majority rule
3. Do whatever you can't get caught doing
4. If I don't, others will (and will gain an advantage over me)
5. Live a two-faced life, but hide the private reality (hypocrisy and deceit)
6. Image is everything (UNtrue)
7. Rules were meant to be broken/push the envelope
8. There's an exception to every rule
9. Who pays the fiddler his song I sing
10. Who is anyone to ever tell me what to do?
11. Freedom means adults can do whatever they want
12. If you really mess up, lawyers will bail you out
13. Fit in/conform
14. I go to church, so I'm good for the week
15. I'm my own Boss, and moral compass
16. Consciences are for children
17. There are no moral absolutes
18. Politicians can do anything, as no one but voters can hold them accountable, ETC. As society goes to Hell in handbasket.

MORALS MANUAL

(12/8/21-2)

In seminary, not even our ethics course dealt with what I will address. NOWHERE in life are these things taught as explicitly. There are rules in life we all agree to and generally obey! Ex.: Never ask a mature woman her age, or as if one is pregnant, if you're unsure.

The left lane is NOT for slow pokes.

Turn right on red (unless disallowed by government sign).

Yellow means slow down, not speed up.

Walk on the right side of the sidewalk (opposite in Britain).

When someone asks you a question, it's rude to ignore them.

Smiles can brighten days.

Handshakes show friendliness (or fist bumps).

Burping in public is wrong.

Don't walk around in public in your underwear.

Keep your dog on a leash (unless all by yourself).

Mow your yard, and remember to edge and trim.

Paint your home when it's peeling or aged/off color from wear.

Your clothes should match, or at least not clash (like stripes and polka dots).

Talking too loud on your cell phone near others is selfish/rude.

Don't talk over others.

Don't ask people what size underwear they wear.

Don't mock anyone's disability.

Don't cuss in public. Saying GD is wrong.

Take a bath or shower every day (unless you exerted no energy).

Clean up what you mess up.

All work and no play makes Johnny a dull boy.

Pay your taxes.

Don't have an affair on your spouse.

Don't have babies you can't afford, or have unsafe sex if you don't want to become a mom.

Be quieter in libraries and funeral homes.

Don't wear casual clothes in a formal business (excepting casual days).

Don't park in handicapped spots if you aren't.

Don't take two parking spaces with one car.

Stay between the lines on highway lanes.

Don't tailgate, or cut people off.

Wear your wedding ring if you're married.

Don't physically touch a woman you don't know.

Don't stare.

Leaving your mouth open, or lower lip dropped looks stupid.

Comb your hair before going outdoors.

Pick up your dog's poop (this rule started in our generation; it wasn't a rule 40 years ago)

Don't yell fire in a crowded theater.

Doctors are to do no harm.

PDA is discouraged (public displays of affection).

Chew out any needy kids at home, if you can help it, rather than in public.

No public nudity (except at nude beaches).

Take the trash out.

Clean house ever so often.

Work 40 hours (minimum).

Pay your bills.

Help your neighbor, if they need or ask for it.

De-weed your yard.

Don't let your fence rot, decay or fall over.

Don't phone strangers before 8am (business calls), or after 7pm.

MANY rules, some unstated, and sourced from government, HOA's, traditions, business rules, and elsewhere. Yes, humanity has rules on ethical/moral behavior. Most of the time, they are non-negotiable, and not gray areas! Even more explicit rules of behavior are government laws! Black and white.

These things are right vs. wrong, rightly defined:

Contentment isn't lack of ambition, but satisfaction with what you have or achieve; not constant need for more, to feel satisfied with life.

Encouragement can be shallow words or deep and sincere. Saying 'I just wanted to encourage you' is not necessarily encouraging!

Complaining all the way through suffering is not enduring suffering, alone, but also complaining.

Faith is not absent reason, just like not all doubting is evil, like skepticism of fraudulent claims presented as fact. Faith is not sight, nor presuming upon God, or a feeling. It's conviction, based on God's word.

The Bible says forgive those who repent. If they don't, you do so in your heart, for your and their sake, but maybe not to their face, as they are unrepentant.

Generosity is often in the eye of the beholder, as we can be so stingy, anything impresses

Gentleness is not a male behaving like a wuss or pansy. It's not an innately female characteristic.

Your conscience is not the end-all, as God's Spirit is, but it's a great first start.

Gratitude comes from seeing the positives you've experienced; not by comparing to others, or what you may have wanted.

Hope must be based in substance. Mere wishing doesn't make anything so.

Humility is not low self-esteem or lack of confidence, but proper perspective; it's also not humiliation.

Joy is not the same as happiness, and can be internal. Smiles are not absolute proof of it Kindness is not weakness, but if you are kind and weak (taken advantage of), fix the latter, and stop being gullible!

Mercy doesn't oppose justice, but extends beyond its parameters.

Patience is not inefficiency or low productivity, but contentment if things take longer than you'd like.

Pure speech is both the absence of cursing and accuracy in information transmitted. You don't have to rejoice that you are encountering troubles, but you are to rejoice through those troubles.

Reverence is not being scared/afraid of God, but having somberly revering of God.

Self-control is not strong willpower, but letting the Spirit direct in fruitfulness.

Selflessness is not 100 percent abandoning cares for your own needs.

Truthfulness is not disclosing confidences/secrets, or information too personal to be shared publicly. It's the opposite of lying.

Adultery is married people having sex with anyone else.

Fornication is anyone having sex outside of marriage.

Anger is not evil, unless out of control, or not righteous indignation (which we need more of).

Coveting is craving what someone else has.

Not all divisions are evil, like parting ways over evil.

Tipsiness is morally wrong, as you are not fully in charge of your mental faculties.

Fear is not wrong if it is solidly justified, like standing on the edge of a cliff. Evil fear is paralyzing panic, when going forward is the right thing to do.

Gossip can be entertaining, but not when you speak untruths or evil things behind someone's back, or about them.

Greed is excessive desire for wealth It is right to feel guilty when you do wrong things, but not to wallow in self-punishment Hatred can remain internal, but remains just as evil

God says homosexuality is a sin.

Idolatry is valuing anything higher than God in your life.

Impatience is not making the most of your time, but anxious nervousness.

Laziness is a sin. The Protestant Work Ethic is God's work standard, working as unto Christ.

Loving money is beyond like thereof.

Loving yourself is not evil, but having an unhealthy love of yourself (arrogance) is.

Lust is immoral and unhealthy sexual (or otherwise) cravings. Lying is popular, but immoral.

White lies are evidence of an uncreative mind, IMO, trying to make others feel good, or have less conflict.

Materialism is valuing gaining assets over gaining God's favor, as number one in your life.

Prejudice is prejudging a person before learning of their character, or lack thereof, often based on race/skin color.

Quick tempered doesn't mean all anger is wrong, but sudden outbursts are.

Selfish ambition is self as number one to all others, including God.

Violence is never the answer.

KNOW these truths, and you've passed step one of the process of striving to live them out.
#DoTheRightThing!

Update #2: The Immorality of Hypocrisy

(1/31/22-2)

Everyday people hate hypocrisy, and know it when they see it. When ANY politician doesn't do what they require others to do, they're RIGHTLY slammed for that hypocrisy. Don't pass rules you don't live by yourself! Newsom (old, some, too)

What makes the sin of hypocrisy so repulsive to people who instinctively recognize it is those who practice it claim to or let on airs that they have moral authority, while you have NO credibility when you don't do what you say!

IF people will lie to you:

1. They think you're dumb, which is disrespectful of you and your intelligence
2. What else would they lie to you about?
3. How would they treat others, if in their self-interest?! (3/25/21-2)

RULES & MORALS

(1/22/22-2)

Being pro-Israel does NOT being pro Israel's sins! Christians are to oppose evil and support good. IF any claiming "Christian" EVER wants to debate me on this, I'll bring a Bible, and they can bring their opinions and conspiracy theories, because they won't need a Bible for their view! Love the sinner, hate the sin is an 100 percent biblical conclusion and behavioral posture!!!

White supremacy is EVIL, but so is black supremacy, disguised as only a BLM slogan! There ARE black supremacists in the world! Slavery is evil, adultery, rape, incest, child abuse, spouse abuse, laziness, cussing (I'm guilty sometimes), hate, violence, date rape, prostitution—EVIL.

WHERE in U.S. society do people learn morals vs. sins, if they don't go to church, and don't read the Bible, and grow seared consciences, over time and so choosing?

And if government makes rules, without enforcement, are they kept, and by what percent? And if there's too much enforcement, doesn't that stifle freedom? Yes! Are laws the best way to keep people generally moral? No, but they're one way God has instituted.

Rules were made to be broken is the attitude of rebels. But, not all rules are crafted well. And there are times rules don't need to apply, and many have exceptions. People, generally, don't like rules, especially when they feel restrictive. An entire chapter possible, but editing to do!

Evidence for natural law: Rom. 1, 2:14. Before people harden their hearts, after the age of innocence, their image of God consciences work. That doesn't mean morals are determined by feelings, but moral laws exist that our more innocent feelings start off being in touch with, pre-hardening.

THE problem with natural law is people's consciences wane, emotions rule their decisions, and they lose the ability to identify it, like China thinking they're doing right toward the Uyghurs, or Russia toward Ukraine. Mental blind spots creep in to formerly working consciences!

P.S.: And when I said religion is ultimately behind natural law, or moral law, I mean TRUE religion, meaning God is the Author of all moral laws. Religion does not represent Him, unless it's related to Him, directly.

Laws don't make actions moral. Their innate morality or immorality make them moral! Natural law supersedes man's law, when push comes to shove! –JEM

“Never forget that everything Hitler did in Germany was legal” –Martin Luther King

There is a law, often more powerful than statutes and regulations passed by law-makers. It is the court of public opinion! If enough citizens hate a new or proposed law, you may observe it getting shelved. In America, it would always be wisest to have the majority of people on your cause's side!

TABLES WILL TURN IN D.C.! (I)

Since I don't give a darn about current state politics, and the impeachment fiasco, I'll say if ever elected, EVERYONE in D.C. is 'gonna be told before media, 'you're all a bunch of crooks and liars, unless proved otherwise, and you are heading to Hell on a fast track!' MANY selfish, bad apples with NO morals!

Washington D.C. is the sin capital of America; NOT Vegas or New Orleans! Jesus is coming to overturn your corrupt money-changing ways! EXPECT judgment in 2020. There are some good people, but just read the headlines; there are NO rules enforced, on either side. Hypocrites and sinners abound!

IF a person is willing to lie, they're willing to do just about anything. Re-read that until you grasp it—if ever! Explanation, for the slow of mind: If you can cover over all evils, by lying about them, you'll become an expert liar rather than a repentant rehabilitated human being!

I Cor. 15:34 and I Pet. 4:3 are the VERY Bible verses Washington D.C. needs to hear—LOUDLY! “War has rules, mud wrestling has rules, but politics has no rules.” –Ross Perot Texas Truth (RIP) II Cor. 13:12 You were warned, politicians! #2020

I read Ecclesiastes, yesterday. Fearing God is often mentioned there, and what is lacking in Washington D.C.! LOOK what happens when man cares nothing about God and His certain judgment: Rom. 3:18 and Judg. 21:25. Washington D.C. needs a bias-neutral judge! Politicians ignore morals, and even voters!

You are NOT a leader to do what your constituents want, but just a pasty wanting a cushy job, and re-election! Leaders do what's right, and lead vs. follow constituents' polar opposite extremist whims, on the right and left! You either influence people, or people influence you, as a FOLLOWER! DON'T ELECT FOLLOWERS!

THIRD PARTY NEEDED

I'm PRETTY sure I'm changing political parties soon! The "RINOs" trending term shows GOP's Have abandoned Reagan, so I'm ready to help Dems defeat Chump, post haste!

MAY I SUGGEST every RINO immediately join forces with the Democrats, NEVER agree with Socialism, and again defeat CHUMP in 2024!

I'm one step away from joining the Democrats for 2024. If it helps defeat CHUMP, I'll run as a GOP, then switch if he gets the nomination. Otherwise, I'll just join the Dems NOW, and do anything I can to use my policy ideas to gather centrists against CHUMP! David slayed Goliath!

ALL I NEED is one more CHUMP statement (like on RINOs), and I will officially move my membership to the Democrat party, for 2024, and every year he tries to regain the WH! God told me wait for 3. Two have transpired! Just waiting for one more to fall! Resurrect the GOP later, or third party.

IT'S TIME for ALL people who aren't Trumpsters, or radical AOC Socialists, to unite in one BIG party, before 2024! I can get along with any such Democrats, if you don't tax people to fund freebies! MY ideas are better than current state, and third party will arise, if we can't unite vs. CHUMP!

Yellow dog Democrat/Reagan Democrat. I am READY to become one! I NEVER change ANY policies for any party or person, but job one is keeping CHUMP out of the White House, forever! ANYTHING you need for 2024 victory! Email me.

There doesn't have to be a split in the GOP. Trump wants RINOs kicked out vs. united, and I will personally lead the cause of them working to help defeat CHUMP in 2024, whether any of them TEMPORARILY change parties or not; doesn't matter their party. NO #Trump2024 David vs. Goliath!

IF Biden significantly rejects centrist ideas, in 2024, I'll run as GOP or Independent. I have NO problem being led to be a spoiler to CHUMP. I oppose Socialism, but Chump in the WH is even a more horrible thought! I can stay GOP and vote vs. Chump as nom, or become a Dem—I don't care.

Knowing Chump is continuing to steal my policy ideas, I am leaving the GOP for now and until he is gone, or too old to run again. I haven't changed one value. I still love all my GOP friends. Cult Trumpsters can go to heck! A third party would defeat his ideas easily. He's DUMB and evil!

I am not going to pay my webmaster to change my party affiliation until just before 2023. I'm that cheap. ALL Chump has to do is announce his run for 2024, and I am running just to defeat him, by telling my story and advocating my policies. Biden is preferable. I'll NEVER help CHUMP!

I don't lie! I DO destroy CHUMP (see below, etc.). <http://AmericanAnswers.org> RINOs need to realize, the GOP doesn't want you! Now, try to influence Dems to be less liberal, or a common sense centrist party will arise. I have detailed all the reasonings and policies. I'm ready for 2024; I'll start now if there's funding! I'll attack that need soon! No Trump 2024!

I am willing to go public with all the details of how CHUMP stole my ideas, to gain his momentum in 2016, and I'll expose anything TRUE to defeat him in 2024, if you let me on any show.

IF it makes ANY sense to remain GOP, to defeat Chump, working with all anti-Trump Americans, I'll stay in my party. Whatever causes his demise! I have 1.8 years to figure party out. Goliath is going down. Dems: Don't exceed Roe, and you could win some WASPs for 2024! Reject Socialism.

RINOs in 2022 will be attacked by the Trump cult mob. I hope you will ALL join our centrist party, or even help the Dems defeat every CHUMP GOP opposing you! A third party's irrational for 2022. Let the Dems help you stay in office! Some can vote GOP in primaries, then go Dem later!

Every RINO, there is a future for you! I assure every RINO, I will be pushing for a party against Trump and caustic conservatism, even if I have to unite with Dems, at least for awhile. Socialist extremists can leave, and we can replace their numbers! GOTTA destroy the far right!

It is NOT just CHUMP who needs destroying! The ideology of caustic conservatism is anathema to God! I will work every day, and work my heart out, starting Jan 13, 2023, to defeat that awful ideology. I'll also always oppose all freebies paid for by taxpayers! DJT losing is the number one need!

SINCE the Lord told me to wait two years to make my party decision, I will do that! Whoever funds our campaign will get my party commitment, but it will always be to defeat CHUMP and caustic conservatism! Party never matters to me; principles only! Party fluid; policy firm!

I expect zero more posts, here, for a very long time! NOT 'gonna help the former jack a-s in chief with any more ideas he'd steal. It's been fun. Now it gets serious. Policy posts will end, IMO! Fun and news comments likely will continue. NOTHING to help 45. ONLY ALL his opponents!

Final tweet in my policy writing era: Lord, slay the Antichrist! I know that will occur at Your second coming, but let that fatal wound happen ASAP, please! Rev. 13. YES, I believe Trump is the actual real deal! He doesn't fully fit all criteria, but closest thing since Hitler!

TRUE, but now we have to work even harder to counter all their efforts to re-elect that b-stard in chief! I'm a GOP, but #NeverTrump Under all circumstances all non-cultists must unite against satan's boy child FAKE Christian!

Democrats: 2022 has its value, but you need to be working and strategizing HARD, right now, to defeat CHUMP in 2024! America cannot endure four more years, in 2024, 2028 or 2032! Lure RINOs, centrists, independents! Cut AOC pushes!

I have ZERO concern Biden can't defeat Chump in 2024, but the GOP will be working harder than in 2020, to defeat Biden, so that effort has to be matched and exceeded by Dems. NEVER FORGET and make videos of the following, repeated OFTEN!

I'll debate the a-hole Donald tRUMP anytime, anywhere! Any issues! I can eviscerate the dumb, evil orange clown! PLS host it, and I won't use it for anything but to HELP the Dems defeat 45 in 2024! My aspirations' timing is secondary to his defeat. I'll debate for Joe.

My campaign plans won't change. The party may. The goal remains getting our ideas/solutions out, and defeating caustic conservatism, whoever advocates it (but NO 45 back in the WH). I have till 2032 for a win, and/or starting a third party, which would be a win in itself! Jan 15, 2023.

Because GOP has allowed caustic conservatism, and Chump, they left me. I never left Reagan Republicanism! Christians are satan-filled if they follow tRUMP in 2024! The Apostasy will change to their purging, IMO! I Pet. 4:17 I'll expose EVERYTHING, all truthfully and publicly! Promise.

Democrats: I fear you will get over-confident from Biden's win, and Chump's impeachments and insurrection. CULTISTS are committed, if not thinking. Start working to act like you are behind. Have a chip on your shoulder. UNITE and fight; pause Socialism!

I am volunteering to use my ideas to defeat CHUMP and caustic conservatism (if he's NOT the GOP nominee) in 2024! Trumpian conservatism is as bad as Socialism, but he's the bottom of the barrel. USE ME, please! AAorg2020@gmail.com NO 45 in the WH-ever! NOTHING will distract from Biden! ONLY embarrass worst President!

No matter what party I'm in, I will debate the screwball Chump in 2023 or 2024, NOT for myself, but for his loss! I can run for myself, later! PLEASE host my killing his stupidity, on Dem's behalf!

I don't care if CHUMP is NOT the GOP nominee in 2024! I will help the Democrats defeat any caustic conservative! The theory is anti-Christ, even as it coddles WASP Christians! I'll NEVER support Socialist freebies, either!

The Republican Party under CHUMP is most everything you're posting. BUT, they want tRUMP back in the White House, believing lies he was defrauded. We ALL must work hard to never let him back in the people's house, starting today!!!

IF the Democrats will agree to achieve their ends without taxpayers funding freebies, using the eight methods I listed, I will work vociferously to cause you to NEVER lose any national elections! AOC bunch needs to learn there are better ways! Caustic conservatism IS the enemy!

IF Dems advocate taxpayer paid freebies, secession of red states (which I'd join), or defeats to caustic conservatism will ensue! Taxpayer funded freebies aren't needed, but the poor get helped and Trumps GOP will NEVER win! Hers how:

You CAN'T allow freebies, and have reasonable abortion views! It is soon 'gonna be Caustic Conservatism against everyone else! I can even unite with my enemy, AOC, to defeat it, if she gets what she dreams, not by taxpayer paid freebies. This paradigm all but ensures Dem wins in perpetuity!

They rely on rich, old, sometimes selfish white people, for a win, or black hating whites! That's a DYING, shrinking constituency! Even without immigrants and criminals who have done their time, the numbers are on your side!

Socialists desires can be met by eight NON-taxpayer means. I will work my heart out through 2032, to ensure there are NO severely suffering poor in America, without freebies, fairly, and to never allow caustic conservatism to get any national wins!

Trump is NOT the only evil America faces! He has spawned many evil demons, like Cruz, Hawley, Greene, and Boebert (and many QPAC speakers). EVERY American who isn't a caustic conservative must unite in one large party! Forget a third one. NO freebies, and no one left behind!

Please get this through your head: Freebies seekers will cause Trumpian conservatism to stand a chance at wins, in the future. I can get non-voters onboard, with my ideas, to replace them, but they shouldn't reject my solutions, as people get helped and taxpayers aren't taxed for it,

AOC wing, traditional Dems, RINOs, independents, moderates, centrists, and the MILLIONS who never vote won't go for Trumpism conservatism, but WILL like my ideas! BOTH parties already have! I'll help Dems win forever, if you accept this proposal, as you lose NOTHING; nor taxpayers!

Caustic conservatism has NO growth potential! Hatred, division, selfishness, greed, only blessing rich who aren't great philanthropists ISN'T a winning hand. Dems have all future new generations in their hip pocket, cause their policies care they struggle on lowest economic rung!

EVERYTHING you folks like in helping the non-rich CAN be significantly gained, without empowering laziness or dependence, using my ideas. I ask you to join a movement to destroy caustic conservatism out of existence, starting in 2024! Unite with it.

You have been the brunt of MUCH despal by myself, over the years, but I have NEVER opposed the help you sought for the non-rich; ONLY how you funded it! I will unite with you to achieve reasonable ends, so we can end caustic conservatism forever!

You HAVE to be smart enough to see that Trump is NOT the only enemy of America, in his BAD policies (many are good, but the core of his movement is evil). Everyone NOT a Trumpster HAS to unite, starting in 2024, as us vs. Trumpists! Roe in place. No freebies!

I want Roe refined, by all things I wrote yesterday, but to defeat Trump and caustic conservatism, my solutions didn't much involve laws anyway. NOTHING in my beliefs changes. It just fluidly shifts to opposing NON-RINO GOP's only! EVERYONE else vs. them. Especially non-voters! MILLIONS!

My campaigns (three total) will be addressing the millions who never vote, because they don't believe it's worth it. My ideas solve that. They would have been used to help my lifelong GOP, but NOT with caustic conservatism at the wheel—EVER! I'm AGAINST them, whatever my party label!

I will always fight freebies/Socialism! The ends can be achieved without taxes! LET ME PROVE IT, and it will happen. NOT Utopian idealism, but no severe suffering poor. Abortion solutions I've detailed, that don't force women to take unsafe measures. Reasonable solutions. Centrism!

If you're arrogant, you three can go your independent way, and your constituency will be replaced by MORE who never vote. It's WISER, better for your careers and for America if you stay united with the anti-Trumpism cause! Your desires can be gained my way.

After a bath, I will be up all night, meaning as long as it takes, to detail a 100 percent complete plan for destroying caustic conservatism forever, in the great 'ol U.S. of A. SUCK-UP hypocrite, who I otherwise adored! Politics strips everyone of thinking and morality!!! Sin choices!

Dear Dems: I am NOT seeking your buy-in, for need of your constituency, but a desire for them, so the poor live decently, caustic sons lose forever, and taxpayers get justice! I also don't protect taxpayers from doing their fair share; taxes must be just.

When caustic conservatism is exposed to the public, people oppose it, by a vast majority! Its GOOD parts I will never abandon. The sticking point is entitlements. My eight solutions meet everyone's needs but selfish rich people who oppose just taxes! They should be opposed by everyone!

I'm NOT for the poor being unjustly favored, or over-helped! Justice demands fair solutions, but ignoring their plight, and not giving a hand-up is unmerciful, and can be done justly! NO taxpayer can reject this, unless they hate poor people! My solutions are just! Evil People hate justice.

HALF of Americans don't vote; 92 M eligible! When I take my JUST solutions to them, and show them my business products innovation skills, and how the poor can live better for less ideas, those will come OUR way! Stacy Abrams can register MORE!

Half of America is NOT going to vie for seditionists, haters, selfish greedy SOB's, white supremacy, conspiracy theorists, selfish rich, people against just solutions, people who want the poor to continue any suffering. That's NOT common sense, Democrats! They don't vote, as it's FUTILE!

MY solutions, through God, are NOT futile! I bet anyone that 90M will significantly fall Dem's way, if I join if not lead y'all to my ideas, sometime in the near future, taking NOTHING away from President Biden, but helping his reelection! There's NOTHING to dislike in my ideas, if you're moral!

Evil people who are unjust will oppose my solutions... caustic conservatives only! People who like freebies need to become moral, as that's theft from taxpayers, and unjust enrichment. No justice, no peace. BUT, you WILL get HELP, poor Americans! NO ONE will seriously suffer poverty!

Every American BUT Trumpists. That's the vision I'm TRYING to convey tonight! With all our differences, we can unite against his evil cause! Any good ideas he had mainly came from me, and I won't let him take credit or use them, but LOSE, and all who come after him! They're MY ideas, by God!

The 92M who don't vote aren't interested in either party, or extreme positions! Ponder that! They are mainstream majority middle who haven't been given that option! They're for common sense and common ground, to get things done, within budget and on time, or keep your hands OFF my money!

CENTRIST POLICIES (& HOW TO ACHIEVE THEM)

Minimal healthcare for the poor, meaning everything their body requires and nothing luxurious or more. Repaid, over time, if subsidized. Better is better job skills for better pay. Even that repaid, when financially on ones feet. Justice with help! College? Daycare? Home down payment?

They ALL can be had, using non-taxpayer solutions, or just use of taxes where taxpayers never lose a dime, as interest ensues if ever borrowed. I've detailed all these, and more, before! Certified home school college. Four-year junior colleges that rise in status, as the info is the same!

Online education, to lessen costs! Video'd experts can be YouTube watched, for credit, so NO teachers need hiring, for the cheapest new or existing low cost colleges. Daycare needs more competition and stay at home parents sharing the load, and all paying their fair share; MUCH less!

I can teach every poor person to save 1/6th to 1/4th of what they spend, spending wiser! I've lived 12+ years in a rich part of town, on one income. It CAN be done. Better job skills, and NO foreigner ever stealing any Americans job future potentials! America number one, as I said well BEFORE MAGA!

Home down payment? Savings, over time, or crowd funding, or charities, or Giving Pledgers, or libs in blue states, or churches or business profit sharing bonuses, over time, or borrowed and repaid to taxpayers, at interest. NO buying what you can't afford (subprime crisis). Student debt?

FAIR interest. Repayment that reasonable, like when people are doing better, vs. straddling them when they're breaking out of poorness. Three cheaper college options help future folks. Existing debtors need hope and a reasonable way out! NO loan sharks, or slave master burdens on them!

Policies

Healthcare? Minimal paid back by either civic service or actual funds, when one does better. Fairness only, but no one suffering sickness, because caustic conservatives don't give one damn about their suffering, because life's good for them! Justice! NO blue collar whites unfairly treated by these solutions!

The middle class treated fairly. No race preferred to another, but none falling behind. If caustic conservatives don't 'wanna help anyone but themselves, well do it without them, because they will NEVER be in charge, God willing, and using these methods for victory! Destroy 'em.

If they secede, it won't be because any injustice befalls them, but just following through on their evil core were all seeing at the QPAC meeting, this weekend! If you liked Hitler, NAZI symbols, shite supremacy, hate blacks and browns, want workers treated near slave-like, and are selfish. Social shunning will befall you, even if you secede.

A fair America, apart from caustic cons, would be a MUCH better America! I have NO PROBLEM with a two-state solution, if Trumpists hate justice! Let them suffer God's wrath; He doesn't bless such sinfulness! We will part company! NO problem.

Caustic conservatism HAS to be eliminated! I want a two-party system of checks and balance, and that can be had, but NOT until their third party is defeated into minority status forever. Otherwise, everyone but caustic conservatives can have D and Rs as checks on extremes, and debating among ourselves.

Talk about "owning" People. Taste of their own medicine! What's good for the goose is good for the gander. They want a fight? EVERYONE, including 90M who don't vote, siding with a plan that's better and fairer than anything they propose. Christians and religious People should like it, as it's godly

I will NEVER forget this statement by DeSatanist! Never! Elephants never forget! DeSantis said establishment GOP is dead. EVERY non-Trump GOP please join this group! DeSantis and CHUMP don't want you in the GOP. I'm lifelong GOP and pro-Reagan. Let them hang themselves! Give them lots of rope, like a KKK noose! Many of them probably own one, anyway!

NOT catering or caving to Dem theories. Uniting to common sense, and centrism, where everyone gets something, you take the good and reject the bad in all positions. The ONLY Americans NOT involved, and totally out of power will be the caustic conservatives. ALL other GOP's please join us in 2024! PLEASE!

I have NEVER left GOP values! GOP left their own values! You are doing nothing morally wrong to acknowledge that fact, and all RINOs quit being slandered for sticking with God and His morals the GOP used to be for! Acknowledge reality and come join this anti-caustic conservatism party!

It needn't even have a name, but "Democrat" is fine by me, if these ideas are espoused. Party never mattered to me, but solutions and values always have! Justice, the poor helped, injustice ended, a better America with problems curbed (not all 100 percent solved, but improvement); NOT with taxes!

I fear I haven't drawn the picture clearly enough, as I use words vs. pictures. The numbers favor this movement forever, folks! Don't try to get clever, and start a splinter party! Enough of your values will be achieved that it's more than you get today, and it will be FAIR to all! Moral.

The caustic conservative is a lessening bunch! Old, white, rich, heavily male, who don't follow Jesus, celebrate sin, selfishness and injustice. That's NO appeal for a broader tent. It's Trump, embodied! It's a losing hand, just like in 2020! Youth are much more for a better society!

Poor people are for having a hand-up. Workers want fairness in wage negotiations, and just wages. Taxes can't ever be unfair, even to the rich! Everyone has the same pain of taxation, and if funds don't exist, do your part in serving America in volunteerism that replaces tax funded work!

NO severe suffering. NO foreigners favored over Americans. A better economy, but NOT one that favors mainly the rich, or stock holders! JUSTICE! It's God's standard, and has to be ours! Mic. 6:8 Everything self-sustaining, as people become self-sufficient, with temporary help! Justice.

DO YOU SEE this plan can 100 percent DESTROY tRUMP and his spawned clones in the future? If you can't see that, my words have failed me, in speaking to you from my heart, with truth, honesty, simple language and a moral intention. For that I'm sorry, and I'll try better in the future! LOOK:

ALL Democrats, ALL RINOs, all GOP's who disagree with Trumpism, many Christians (NIT the sinful ones), 90 million non-voters, ALL independents, centrists and moderates; ALL OF THESE against whoever remains—Trumpster conservatives! Can you say LANDSLIDE? Do you see it now?

PLEASE draw a circle. Make it look like a pie with eight pie pieces. 1/8th to 3/8ths is the MOST Trumpsters could garner in votes; probably more like 1/4th, under this system. That picture is what I'm trying to get into your head. Super majority! 70 percent of the population, potentially! WINS indefinitely.

IF Socialists think this is not enough, you want injustice; that's a sin and I warn you you must repent! You don't steal from taxpayers, or over-help. Dems won't have to give freebies to secure loyal voters! People will LIKE a better society that keeps caustic conservatives in the public closet!

NEEDED EXECUTIVE ORDERS

(12/18/21-2)

If D.C. can't get their adult act together, THESE should constitute executive orders, only changed by high court orders, or functioning Congress deliberating something better!

1. No illegal alien EVER allowed in—period. I don't even care if they're the next Einstein!
2. Immigration only allows in people whose job skills America needs!
3. Half immigrants allowed in will be rich, educated, or both; the other half the opposite (but ONLY people whose skills our economy needs).
4. NO immigrant can get any social services till they've paid in 5-10 years!
5. Assimilation classes will be taught, as part of civics course required of new immigrants.
6. World-class education available to all, and no child left behind! That means even poorer school districts have a minimum of excellent teaching made available to ALL students.
7. No abortions after viability (mother's life as only exception; and severe disability only detectable then, if the family so chooses).
8. Plan B taken within three days of unsafe or forced sex not desiring motherhood as a result.
9. No abortions after heartbeat (except in states allowing up to viability).
10. No bans on contraception.
11. Equal job opportunities for EVERY American (enforced).
12. No gun-grabbing.
13. No gun purchase loopholes.
14. Red flag laws, if never abused.
15. Register all guns.
16. Gun safety and skill tests passed/proved.
17. Budget planned to move toward balance within 15-20 years.
18. Government work types warned, probated, then fired, if unchanged.
19. Customer service for all government workers dealing with the public.
20. Few to no government job security guarantees.
21. ALL donations public, to politicians (no buying them off/bribery).

22. Lying by politicians punished significantly enough to wake them up.
23. Media bias disclaimer notice ("WARNING: This station tends politically left/right").
24. Punishment for politicians' misinformation and misleading.
25. No excuse commitment to solve all crimes, and capture and punish all proven criminals
26. Standardized rules for when social media companies can punish speech they oppose (national rules).
27. Incentivized climate change remediation efforts by business.
28. Fair taxes (equal pain for all, as all will pay in, by money or civic service, including all businesses.
29. All deadbeat fathers/parents forced to pay child support (wage garnishment, etc.).
30. NO MORE national debt increases, and any future new spending has to pay for itself, or come from cuts!
31. China, Russia and Iran adequately contained and kept in check, by any and all means available.
32. Strongest military power on earth.
33. No police abuse (as a goal, and not just a sentiment).
34. Spread democracy everywhere, and work to free people, even if their politicians oppose it.
35. Healthcare made affordable by all means necessary, using the private sector's competition, and disallowing any government involvement that makes it more expensive.
36. D.C. gridlock solved by common sense solutions!
37. The rich socially and tax-wise incentivized to significant give back.
38. lobbyists fully exposed for the public.
39. Limit's to outsourcing.
40. Welfare re-envisioned to empower self-sufficiency within two years for one. ANY and all subsidies paid back by civic service.
41. SCOTUS ONLY held by an equal number of right- and left-leaning Justices! NO politicizing!
42. Taxes kept to a bare necessary minimum, after government fully streamlined by business consulting experts and auditors.
43. Problems mainly solved at the local and state level, or privately.
44. Extremists socially shunned. #MyChristmasWish

DEMOCRATS & CENTRISTS

I will repeat, as often as I must, the vision the Democrats must start to see: IF they will retain Roe and help the poor without tax dollars, EVERY American but the far right could bring a landslide against the scourge of Trumpism! D, R, independent, and non-voters! #NeverTrump EVER!

This RINOs NEVER going to conform to tRUMP conservatism–EVER! The policies he stole from ME, I will always support, or I'd be a hypocrite! HIPPOs (hypocrites to GOP values) wanting RINOs to leave can fight me anytime, anyplace (and lose). Debate. You won't win–EVER! Try it, wimps.

"A goal without a plan is just a wish." –Antoine de Saint-Exupéry

Government leave me alone; I need no help, and want to offer none. I pay my taxes, obey the law, and vote. Let me live my life. THIS is the narrow focus of caustic conservatism. Rugged individualism, self-reliance. Good, but opposed to any thought of anyone outside their circles/orbit.

THIS range will ALWAYS identify who I'll support in politics, character and personality being equal (CAPS ONLY):

Far left MIDDLE LEFT MIDDLE RIGHT Far right

Update

(3/22/21-2)

"Elections have consequences." The Dems hold ALL the power, because Trump LOST the WH and all of Congress. If Dems decide to ram their Socialist agenda down Americas throat, GOP's can get revenge in 2024, and undo it all, or secede, if their policies appear more permanent!

I HOPE both the Dems and GOP's know, when one party dominates the other, "BECAUSE THEY CAN," they engender severe backlash, like not negotiating any issues, but shoving your agenda down everyone's throat. The checks and balance filibuster is the only bulwark to people behaving thusly!

I don't understand why GOP's fear ALL black people voting!

1. NOT all blacks vote Democrat
2. They're only 13.4 percent of the population
3. LGBTQs are 3.5 percent
4. 18 percent are Latino, and NOT all Dems
5. 44 percent don't pay taxes; THAT's the challenge! NOT race.

GOP could DESTROY Dems if they could attract 92M who don't vote. I have the precise prescription, but I'll have NOTHING to do with foolish policies or evil attitudes, words or behaviors! The far right would need to repent of their sins, in order to win. I'll help Dems, if not.

You NEED to read my past four posts! Your chances at reelection is being directly, intentionally attacked, and if you don't gerrymander, you could permanently lose power, where secession would be required! WAKE UP! No justice being sought by Dems!

GOP's NEED to wake up to actionable red alert: Dems want to BRIBE votes, by stuffed Covid relief bill, proposed prisoners voting, want illegals here for votes, keep out rich and educated immigrants, and want D.C. and Puerto Pobre ("Rico") as a state of Dem voters! HOW would GOP ever win?

The GOP is LOSING BIG time! They chose stacking SCOTUS and federal judgeships. Dems are seeking voters by illegal border crossings and D.C. statehood. BOTH sides are as evil and corrupt as our nation has ever seen! Dems vying for politician positions; GOP's for judge rulings. NO justice!

MODERATES

I can completely understand why conservatives hate moderates, as do liberals! They are seen as obstructions to achieving their [polar opposite] ends. As for libs, it's a GOOD thing Dem moderates limit the tax dollars libs would otherwise 'wanna spend!

For conservatives, what a moderate is is NOT what a common sense centrist is! The latter is really a traditional conservative! They oppose NO real and rational conservative positions, but they use creativity to also give things to libs and Dems that are valid, that they seek, without taxes wasted on them!

CENTRIST SAFETY NET VS. SOCIALISM

MOST of modern politics is people wanting government to spend money on them, vs. people wanting government to spend nothing on them, or anyone else. Government is NOT a union boss, in charge of getting you a raise! If that continues, handout seekers can flock to blue state nation!

Imagine this; put yourself in another person's moccasins: A total stranger comes to your door, asking you to give him money; NO gun, no threat, just a beggar NOT staying on the street corner. Further, they have a legal right to your money, by law. THAT's what Socialism is to taxpayers!

People with little money have NO IDEA why Socialism would be offensive to people who have any money! They're used to having none, and wanting more, and seeking it any way they can. They even try to justify it by thinking someone done them wrong. The rich, business or slave owners centuries ago.

IF people with money WANT to give to charity, people outside their family will get it. IF they don't want to, the government is NOT the way to secure a job promotion or raise! Taxes MUST be fair, and it's never fair to over- or under-tax, or for anyone to NOT pay in, in some way! Justice.

IF Dems got many freebies under Biden, they're SURE to have them revoked when GOP's secure power! It's NOT a permanent solution to your poverty! and if Dems ever held power for too long, to not be able to have that undone, secession would end those handouts, as blue states would bankrupt.

LOOK TO YOURSELF FOR YOUR OWN SELF'S FINANCIAL NEEDS, every adult in America! IF you're mentally or physically disabled, we the people rightly help care for you, but only if you're 100 percent incapable of working! NO ONE owes you UBI or free money! You spend too much, or work to little!

That's different from every man for himself, as America has an abundant safety net! It needs revamping, I'm NOT saying end it all, but expanding it is asinine! YOU cause your own poverty, in MOST cases! Your work skills, effort or quality, or spending habits, or number of kids! That's ALL on you!

PLEDGERS & JUSTICE

The GOP UNjustly sought to stack SCOTUS to overthrow Roe. That's a BAD thing (injustice; not opposing killing babies). So Dems want three more liberal Justices added to the Court. Dems want more votes, so they know POOR areas with many non-whites will vote their way, so they seek D.C. and Puerto Rico statehood.

GOP's want more people to vote GOP, so they severely restrict who immigrates in. Dems want to force their agenda down Americas throat, so they attack the age-long filibuster. Has ANYTHING I just described show anyone that win lose extremism gets us NOWHERE?

As soon as one party loses, they lose most of their gains! Even Biden has undone many tRUMP policies, intentionally! Space Force, abandoning Paris Accords, border policy, XL Pipeline,

Garden of Heroes, etc. ARE YOU SO BLIND you don't see it's NOT three steps forward, two steps back, but one forward, one back, or NO permanent positive change!

These extremists constantly try to out-think their hated enemies, in how to ram-rod their agenda to the loss of those enemies! Ex.: Replace federal judges with conservatives. There is NO justice! I don't even care if both parties negotiate!

We NEED justice! Negotiations can often lead to less than justice, as people gauge their leverage and political capital. They ALL want permanent cushy jobs, and that, plus the ability to mainly bless their voters, is the game, and it is EVIL, in case you didn't just observe that fact!

IF career politicians in D.C. all (or mainly all... there's always an arrogant idiot seeking medic coverage) agreed to solve problems and achieve justice, I wouldn't care what party they clung to, and they'd keep their idol jobs. Just secure justice in all areas of public life! Mic. 6:8

"No justice, no peace" apeopleies to ALL policies! NOT just police brutality. And the lack of peace is NOT violence, bur unrest in the hearts of angry constituents! Violence is ALWAYS wrong! NO ONE gets angry when they get justice, like paying what you agreed to spend to buy a product.

When people cut you off, in traffic, they have NOT done justice toward you, as there are rules about both party's rights in their lane (right of way). When robbers break in and steal your goods, they have NOT behaved justly, and you get angry and want them locked up, RIGHTLY!

The lack of peace is anxiety and anger. Whenever anyone is treated unjustly, they don't like it, and often don't forget it. Justice is the standard America needs, in all areas of life! It may not be perfectly achievable, but it's certainly to be the aim! ONLY evil people oppose it! Oppose them!

And EVIL is the enemy of justice! Russian Hackers, Chinese domination aims, Iran interference in Middle East peace, terrorism, drug lords, the Mafia, criminals, thugs and bullies, human Traffickers; THESE are EVIL, and justice doesn't allow evil to prevail, nor do GOOD people!

(11/7/21-2)

IT'S EXTREMISTS in BOTH parties who are the enemies of America! Polar opposites can never get along, so they divide our country and cause chaos, always wanting to destroy their enemy. FOOLS fall for such games! NEITHER party is 100 percent perfect, and BOTH have good things to offer! Duh 101.

Common sense, getting things done on budget and within deadlines, that don't waste money, tax the least, and are funded by streamlined government, best economy, civic service, rich giving back, fair taxes are the solutions! NOT one side wins, then the other undoes those wins—ping pong politics.

MORAL VS. IMMORAL COMPROMISE

We ALL know the ideals liberals/Socialists envision: HIGH taxes, BIG government, taxpayers attacked, freebies for everyone else, kill BIG oil, harm business profits, debt out the wazoo, open borders, criminals voting, etc. EVIL vision! Let's now look at far right conservatives' ideals:

Make as much money as you can, and keep it all for yourself, if you want; anyone have as many guns as they want, even if they don't know how to use or store them safely, are crazy or criminally intended; say anything you want, including lying propaganda and conspiracy theories, from free speech;

No one do anything to aid the poor, if you don't want to; government do nothing but defend us and our property (military and police), and keep our roads smooth; Anything that's not profitable enough for business gets done by charities, or not at all. NO WONDER neither extreme is acceptable!

People (and most idiots) believe compromise has to happen, or war; nothing else is possible, like win-win! Win-win takes vision and creativity... traits many are in short supply of. They see it as which extreme will America cave more to for an election cycle? WRONG thinking!

They deem it give in on MORE taxes wasted on more projects and freebies, making more debt, or have a great economy for the rich and business owners/investors, and these are the only two options America ever has, every 2-4 years. Our education system must be major failures--there are so many better solutions!

CENTRISM VS. CONSERVATISM

I guess it's time to BORE myself, with yet another rehash of the 20 points of common sense centrism, that so few ever comprehend, in practice. Comparing the same 20 issues of liberalism and conservatism (done on past four days), here we go (if I don't fall asleep from boredom of repetition):

1. Guns. People who can't responsibly use arms shouldn't have them, as they violate the purpose for which we are guaranteed a right to have them.
2. Pollution. Pollution is the downside of our great American revolution! It can be lessened, and green is good, but we will always need oil and its derivatives
3. Abortion. Killing innocents is evil, and many ways can prevent one getting unwantedly pregnant. But, once inseminated, public policy can't be to force women to risk their health by self-help. Use Plan B within three days, if you don't choose to be a mom, as the result!
4. Poverty. Freebies are an Unsustainable crutch. Americans and our Welfare system have to train them to be self-sufficient, financially, as soon as is reasonably possible.
5. Fiscal Responsibility. It is a VIRTUE, NOT a liability! HUGE debt is BAD for our economy and country!
6. U.S. History. America hasn't behaved perfectly, but were the greatest experiment known to mankind, and among the greatest and most generous people ever to walked the face of this earth. We owe nobody anything, for any sins of our ancestors! That's as unfair as you going to jail for grandfathers' crime!
7. Free Speech. Public speech needs to be responsible, accurate and truthful. If it isn't, calling it out and even natural consequences should and will come, by others also using their right to free speech!
8. LGBTQ. Love the sinner, hate the sin, in a nutsHell don't discriminate or hate, but you also don't have to accept their behaviors and choices as normal, or good!
9. White Supremacy. Any racism is evil, and it goes as many ways as there are colors of skin. Americans seeking to keep other nations from invading, by open immigration, are NOT ONLY let in who evil, but patriotic!
10. Government spending and taxation. Government should spend the least they have to, get the best bang for OUR bucks, and taxes MUST be fair to ALL citizens! NO ONE off the hook from paying their fair share, one way or the other, or that's NOT fair!

11. War. Wars are a last resort, but NOT off the table, as options for defending American interests! IF America goes to war, she should ALWAYS win, and the best way to never enter war is to have such an amazingly superior BIG stick, that no one else dares to mess with you!
12. Immigration. Allow in who our economy needs, and stop trying to gain Democrat votes, by targeting the poor and less educated!
13. Business. Business makes America as great as we have been, but it is only good when it behaves good! Every business should actively care about how their employee family is treated, or they should be boycotted and bankrupted!
14. Media. The media IS right or left-leaning, and these things ought not be this way! Jas. 3:10 They should ONLY report facts, and NOT push political agendas! There is, currently, likely NO outlet that doesn't favor D (CNN, MSM) or are (Fox, Breitbart, One America, Newsmax, talk radio)
15. Death Penalty. It is just and right for proven cases of heinous acts, when humanely done, and never against an innocent person.
16. Crime. Criminals should NOT be set free (as Dems desire) until their time is paid, nor should they vote. Rehabilitation is needed, as recidivism must also be kept to a minimum. VERY FEW people are incarcerated, percentage wise!
17. Police Brutality. The FEW bad apples need to be identified, and if they don't reform quickly, FIRED! They are NOT given license to abuse citizens, just for carrying a badge!
18. National Defense. If you don't defend our nation, we have no nation. Our biggest challenge is from within, aided and abetted by outside forces/rogue nations! FEW will attack us head-on. Many will attack from afar, or from within, if they gain entrance!
19. Government Fixing Problems. It's a lofty ideal, but paying for it has to be fair, and voted for (or against), when it's Constitutional, and business can't sufficiently profit off such fixes.
20. Any who disagree with this agenda are biased, not as interested in America's success, and are too stupidly committed to worshipping their political party, than they are capable of thinking in moral and rational ways! Now, I HOPE I've made centrism 100 percent clear, as compared to liberalism and conservatism, as there are overlaps, but they're NOT THE SAME! Have a good day.

THE NEED FOR PLEDGED POLITICIANS

Pandering politicians promise to give the people what they want; NOT what they need, and cater to any desire that's popular, as they aren't so much representing the people, but coddling and pandering for votes, knowing those ideals sought will often never be realized! THAT IS EVIL!

There's SO MUCH NEED for a thorough house cleaning in Washington D.C., I'm convinced that if a Jesus style table turning with whips doesn't occur, our country is doomed! Corruption, ego, lying, cheating, greed, bias, injustice. YOU VOTE FOR THESE FOOLS! Stop repeating folly! Pv. 26:11

IF only EVIL people run for office, only evil people will be in Washington D.C.! It is HIGH TIME that moral people sacrifice better paying jobs, to temporarily run for positions of public service! LAWS are NEEDED, to end the massive sinning occurring in Washington D.C.

I AM FOR, and will happily institute laws that BAN politicians cheating, lying, being unjustly biased, getting kickbacks, financially gaining from their knowledge, etc.! Just get me there, PLEASE!

I am opposed to term limits, but IF America doesn't get some common sense and common decency in D.C., I am willing to change that position! <http://AmericanAnswers.org>

CENTRIST ECONOMIC POLICIES

The other day I spoke with a finance major, who wanted to make a lot of money. That's why he voted for tRUMP. Let's address what business school's vs. liberal universities teach on how to have the best economy.

First, is having a great economy good for a nation? Of course! Does a rising tide lift all boats? ONLY if the waterways are interconnected! The conservative theory is if our economy is growing, that will help all Americans, as more jobs and rising wages ensue. BUT IS THIS TRUE?

It's just as possible the rich reap all the rewards, by outsourcing more jobs, importing more cheap labor, automating all entry level jobs possible, hiking prices, layoffs (replaced by robots), hoard all income, invest it all, requiring 'never lose money,' and mainly the rich benefit from lowering taxes; the number one conservative solution for a good economy.

Lowering taxes too low to be able to pay Americas bills means borrowing from our slave master, China, or printing QE3 (fake) dollars, which, over time, devalues the dollar and causes inflation. On the other hand, liberals believe an economy grows through government intervention.

Natural forces can't be left alone (free markets), but taxation, regulations, subsidies, stimulus packages and entitlements are how an economy grows, says the liberal. You first have to define a good and growing economy! Is it good for every American, and are jobs and wages growing for every American?

Economics 101 says the less supply or higher the demand, the greater the prices. Labor is a commodity. The more people we have in America, the lower wages will fall. And with outsourcing, jobs can decline, here, too! Government has to play some role, to make life good for ALL Americans!

Business, by nature, doesn't care if they hire Americans or foreigners, or hire labor here or elsewhere—wherever the deal is best for them (highest quality for the lowest cost). EVERY action government performs costs money, and that's money NOT available to the private sector; it's a DRAIN on the economy, as is our debt and especially the interest paid on it.

So BOTH sides have some good aspects in them, toward creating a great economy.

We are in a GLOBAL economy, and if America doesn't have the best economy, China will!

They already use child labor and sweat shops (cheap labor). We're competing with that! So U.S. businesses HAVE to beat China (win), globally, but when they do, they also need to ensure every American benefits some from those national gains! I've already written how they can do that.

The BEST economy comes from minimal government spending, charitable rich people, innovation, civic service (free labor) for some government functions (10 hours a year for everyone NOT in public service), and being first to the global market (as we know our enemy nations STEAL intellectual property)!

China already subsidizes some of its businesses with government funds. We're competing with that, as with them reverse engineering OUR innovations. Our enemy is wicked and wily. They MUST be defeated. So NO ONE can be against U.S. businesses winning, but also against them doing right to ALL Americans!

The goal is beating China (and Russia), while NOT abandoning U.S. Citizens in that process. It's God's to do, if those who benefit most from such victories also remember their fellow citizens, through profit sharing, giving back, and supporting empowerment programs that make ALL Americans capable of earning a sustainable living, in a STEM/services/hi technology economy, where AI and robotics are a coming future competitor to their livelihoods!

World-class education will be ESSENTIAL, even for the poorest among us! THIS IS centrist eco policy! NOT right or left!

Streamlined government (run like a business), the rich giving back (voluntarily, or later, by force of taxation), civic service, re-envisioned Welfare (to empower self-sufficiency skills) and innovation are the keys! We are EXPERTS at the latter! The World's Most Innovative Man.

DEFUND THE POLICE?

As you would expect, liberals want gun control. The solution, beyond new, needed technology I can list, is MANY trained, licensed, deputized private citizens skilled at arms use, so a police like use of guns exists at almost every public place—to STOP the BAD guys!

WHY can't police use remote control robots, as with armed drones, or first responding cops in full body armor (head, heart and lungs protected)? No cop should have to die, to stop a mass shooter! Armed civilians would have helped before the police arrived! Every one in 10 People needs that.

THIS is NEVER going to be America's public policy, but if cops had been legally authorize to dismember the CO mass shooter' four appendages, with the message, "this is what every mass shooter will face in the future," you might deter some such events.

The public's NOT going to wear flak jackets, as normal attire, or Kevlar helmets! Police response times are the times mass killers kill! Even quick response armed cop drones take time to be on scene. ARMED CIVILIANS ARE THE SOLUTION TO MASS SHOOTERS (Licensed and trained)!

Armed security guards are a MUCH more hardened target than NOT! Every business is NOT going to hire one, but trained, licensed employees at every business, able to defend the public from crazed shooters IS a necessity in modern American life! At least one per shift!

I have already said wall-mounter Tasers, able to be specifically aimed at specific persons, by remote control or automatic (using facial recognition algorithms of the aggressor) is NEEDED to keep U.S. businesses safe from shootings! They need to be able to sense/detect aimed guns!

IF YOU LIMIT the number of Americans allowed to own and use guns, you limit America's safety! THE one and only issues is keeping guns out of the wrong people's hands! Criminals, mentally disturbed, and angry folk with vendettas (AS IF anyone but F and F/friends and family would know them).

A licensed, trained, law-abiding gun carrying marksman could have taken out the Colorado King Soopers shooter. We need so many more such people, but concealed makes the public much more relaxed and unstressed! TOO FEW of them, and/or cops, allows crazies open season! Second Amendment

Immunity from prosecution laws would be needed, for Good Samaritan/white hats, trained to take out mass shooters, if any collateral damage casualties ever occur, by accident! Deputizing the public!

You CANNOT minimize the SOLUTION of armed, trained citizens, against mass shooters! I once chased an armed bank robber, only having a rock, until he turned around with the security guard's pistol. Had I had a gun, he could have been dead! Is that the price to pay for public safety?

MORE police, especially under cover, is also the answer! RE-fund the police. If you don't want trained civilians armed and trained to keep public safe, you have to spend MORE tax dollars for MORE police! Was there a mental health history with the demon?

POLICE PONTIFICATIONS

There should be a national law that every first responder to any alleged or suspected shooting HAS to enter the premises with heart and lung protection (Kevlar, or flak jacket), and head protection, including the face! Eric Talley law.

(4/11/21-2)

YOU risk dying, every day, for $50,000 [Cops]. When, and ONLY if you do, you will then alone have any right to criticize cops in dangerous situations! Do you have the guts to do that, for a living? Walk a mile in their gumshoes!

Cops have EVERY legal right to KILL suspects and persons of interest who a reasonably prudent person would feel are exhibiting behavior that could seriously injure or kill such officers. This is the law of the land! Don't pose a reasonable threat, and keep your life! Brooklyn Center

Serving and protecting means protecting innocents from crime. Their relatively low pay shows a sacrifice to serve the public. They don't always kill suspects illegally, or even usually! Rare occurrences are being blown out of proportion for political ends!

Americans killed by cops, BY RACE; EYE-OPENING stats!:

https://statista.com/statistics/585152/people-shot-to-death-by-us-police-by-race/...

Cops killed in the line of duty, NOT BY RACE: https://fbi.gov/news/pressrel/press-releases/fbi-releases-2019-statistics-on-law-enforcement-officers-killed-in-the-line-of-duty#:~:text=May percent204 percent20C percent202020-,FBI percent20Releases percent202019 percent20Statistics percent20on percent20Law percent20Enforcement percent20Officers percent20Killed percent20in,41 percent20officers percent20died percent20in percent20accidents...

Update #2: Excessive Force

Eminent bodily harm is the legal standard for police using lethal force, in self-defense. ONLY three objective, public lie detectors would tell us if Kim Potter accidentally grabbed a gun. I believe her, but Tasers should be in different places and feel much different! Polygraph her!

Update #3: Bad Apples

Focusing only on needle(s) in a haystack makes one conclude it's the tree—not the apples(s)!

Without remote/distance detecting and see-through-walls technology, cops don't 100 percent know what a suspect has in their hand, or whats in their car when they jump into its cabin! BLM types NEED to know cops are always concerned guns can be hidden, stashes, flashes, and used in split-seconds

EVERY bad apple cop NEEDS to be kicked off every police force! You can't be a greater pro-cop supporter, but the thin blue line and band of brother's code hurts itself when they allow their reputation to be tarnished by a minority of bad apples! (4/24/21-2)

COPS & DISCIPLINE

I now split my time between two industries, but the newest one has MANY vets/ex-military, and I've noticed something I also observe in the first 48 TV show... they shut off their emotions quite often! I told one guy something VERY agonizing, and ZERO response! It angered me.

When you watch that show, cops investigate, but when they get confessions or inside info they need to trace down or verify, they immediately get up and walk out, saying NOTHING to the witness. This may be the tough guy act, but it's certainly emotionally NOT normal/natural or seemingly healthy!

Perhaps in boot camp or the police academy, where sergeants break you down to make you a man, they learn to shut off their emotions (Ours not to reason why, ours but to do and die).

This breeds GREAT discipline, which is why I see so many businesses hiring them in management, to control with order and hierarchical structure, but it is likely also why one job I declined catered to PTSD victims needing bonding with other males; to recreate the camaraderie of war service (because they still DO have emotional needs)! In fact, one competitor company hires mainly Barbie and Ken employees that have he-man Atlas physiques (gym rats).

There is an unhealthy belief in some parts of America that to be a man, one never cries, or wears their heart on their sleeve, as that's effeminate, so any who do are gay or metrosexual. NO, it's being human, and a real man.

These bumper stickers 'real men love Jesus' are heretical, because living rightly is NOT a matter of willpower discipline, but God's power through you! It's not the macho man who is the real man, but the person who's able to be authentic and transparent, like Jesus 100 percent was! he was NO body builder! Isa. 53:3

A lady I met yesterday said her church has ex-military pastors who are bikers who can scare wayward youth straight. I'm sure that sometimes works, but this is NOT Christianity, folks!

I have two sons who verbally fight, often—sometimes more than that. Pv. 17:17 I don't understand it, because I only have two sisters! Emotions—we all have them. How we handle them can be healthy, or the ticking time bomb volcano ready to explode. Deny them all you want—they exist!

AOC, BIDEN, NIKKI & PENCE

AOC is consistent in her desired policies, but is INconsistent in advocating for them! She's like a gopher, who pops up her head, from time to time, whenever she can't handle the establishment shunning or shutting her up for too long! She is an avowed Socialist, if not Communist!

And YES, people can flip-flop many times, back and forth, but if they land on the correct side, I will NOT criticize them for being on the correct/right side! I don't care how many times anyone flip-flops (I'll call them out, as I have) if they end up with truth and morality, for as long as they do!

There are FEW core beliefs in D.C. politics. More, flip-flop as public sentiment changes. The GOP is always for lower taxes, borders controlled, a strong economy and military, opposing abortion, pro-business, cops, law and order, and pro-America. Everything else is secondary! THESE are GOP core beliefs!

Dem core beliefs are higher taxes, opposing the non-philanthropic rich, pro-labor, for immigration, handouts, odd sex, gender confusion, ecology over profits, government fixing problems, helping the poor, advocating for "blacks and browns," and touting America's warts, including historically.

Nimrata Randhawa worries TRUTH honestly stated (which is a GOOD moral choice) hurts the GOP's victory chances! TELL THE TRUTH ABOUT THE DEMS, Nikki! Biden vs. AOC/Bernie is a split that's not that real, as Joe offered Socialism, and it failed; NOW he wants that distance! There's NO gap in his offer!

Joe Biden offered Socialism on steroids, to win his office. Then, he offered Socialism in the Covid relief bill and Build Back Better. NOW, ONLY after those all failed with the public, he WANTS dupes to think AOC and Bernie are far removed from him. THE SAME PROGRAMS ADVOCATED BY ALL THREE, folks!

Politicians think YOU are stupid! Let that FACT sink in! How can you respect, admire or vote for people who would try to trick or play you? YOU are the fool, if you let them get away with it, and no wonder they play you, if you can be played. It works in their favor! Wise UP, folks!

ANALYZE! Chump says he'll pardon insurrectionist rioters. He wants to be president! He slams Lindsey Graham as a 'RINO,' for saying the TRUTH, that CHUMP doesn't want law and order, or morals, proposing pardoning law-breakers. Nikki and Comey want 46-1 to hire them if he were president! IT'S SO CLEAR, folks!

Pence told the TRUTH, that HE didn't have the right to overturn the vote of the American people. Now Nikki says he did something wrong. TRUTH and MORALITY are NOT values of the far right; only power idolatry they believe only happens by-sin to-win strategies. IT'S SO CLEAR, folks! Can you see it for yourself?

(2/8/22-2)

DID YOU KNOW many politicians say radical or controversial things, TO GET IN THE MEDIA, to appear relevant? They purposely pose for photo ops, and do things to get media coverage, like eating at Waffle House, one week after a brawl erupted, and hit the media there! It's contrived!

Nimrata Randhawa changed her name because she believes Muslims aren't that popular in the GOP! It has to sound more American, even though she's an American. It's called "image!" The BEST time to debate the two sides of the party are when its future is at stake! She's a Trump whore, FIGURATIVELY.

There's a belief if you debate BOTH sides of either party, one side won't vote, and the party will lose. Debating caustic conservatism, vs. common sense centrism, is ESSENTIAL, as the GOP shifts sides from time to time, but always has BOTH sides! Truth/facts and morals ALWAYS matter, Nikki!

Even Pence's awesomely honest and truthful statement took 1.2 years to say, as politics practiced EVILLY always worries what to say when, vs. what God wants politicians to do and say, which is facts and morals.

Atheist Ron Reagan HATES that facts and morals could be part of U.S. politics! ISN'T it truth and honesty, if not even morality, that voters miss most in career politicians? NO God-fearer can separate facts and morals from any area of their life, including politics! Politicians having done so is exactly what's gotten us into the mess were in (AKA, "status quo." –Ronald Reagan)

The Democrats have TWO factions, too! They aren't YET fighting it out, because they own the White House. The AOC/Bernie types are more silent, even though AOC courageously speaks her beliefs, almost always! Stand up for what you believe! Don't cower in silence. The arena of ideas!

BOTH Comey and Nikki Haley WANT a job with President Trump 2.0. You need to analyze why politicians do and say what they do, when! There's an entire other reality in their hearts, from that which the "common man" sees and is told. The HEART is where the reality lies–NOT the many lies!

I don't even care if Pence parted with tRUMP because of legal pressures over Jan. 6, as some have alleged. When the truth and the right thing are said or done, everyone should rejoice! Far righters want RINOS destroyed! You don't go silent under attack, but fight and WIN! Fire with fire!

CHUMP has ALREADY set himself up for an excuse for any loss, blaming Pence as an automatic conveyor belt for Biden's re-election. Emotionally and morally immature adults always blame others, vs. take responsibility for their actions. The REAL GOP is for personal responsibility and values!

DID YOU NOTICE the censure of Kinzinger and Cheney stopped short of expulsion, and struck a happy medium middle? That is wisdom! They didn't deserve ANY punishment, but at least CHUMP didn't win getting Ronna to kick them out, as Speaker McCarthyism EVILLY wanted, saying they won't be back. Call sin sin!

My hero, Ronald Reagan, instituted an 11th commandment. IT IS CONTRARY TO THE BIBLE and GOD, so I would never adhere to it. EITHER the truth sets you free, or it keeps you in bondage.

EITHER Christians live out what God said, or they abandon Him in apostasy! DO WE BELIEVE THE BIBLE?

Speaking evil of someone is NOT the same as speaking negative truth about someone! If the facts are negative, deal with the real. OF COURSE I am biasedly advocating for my political views, as they must rule America as they are better, IMO. Have the courage of your stable convictions!

D.C. is so full of sin, division and egos. The solution is morality and justice! However and in whatever ways you must argue for those solutions, any man-made rules opposed to God can and should be disregarded, like NOT telling the TRUTH about Chump! I'd NEVER do that—we tell the truth!

And when the extreme wing of the Dems go silent, for fake "unity," it's the GOP's DUTY to publicly point out that almost all Dems want Socialist freebies, even as Biden flip-flops back to the middle, because his programs have flopped. TELL THE TRUTH. STOP trying to play the voters with lies!

God is issuing a challenge as to whether mankind believes His words and morals are right and true, or whether they are lies. When you abandon facts and morality, you have made your vote! A GOP loss with 46-1 would be better than letting his ilk of politics reign in Reagan's and Lincoln's party, if that occurred!

POLITICAL SINS

Modern politics is find anything negative or sinful about the candidate, from any words or deeds after age 18, and use them to discredit them for everything else they've ever done, said or achieved!

Hypocrisy, bias, injustice, double standards, under- and over-emphases, contradictions, flip-flops, lies, spin, selfish motives, party worship-ALL these evils Twitter will bust you on if you're a politician or pundit, and I LOVE it! BEST improvement to government of the People! Brian Kilmeade (3/12/21-2)

Here's social media politics: Any flaw, any sin, any misspeak, any skeleton, any imperfection, any past indiscretion, any failed policy, any wrong word choice, any wrong touch or handshake or pat; it will ALL be used against you by the other side. Unless you're perfect; that's your lot. (3/15/21-2)

D.C. is the cesspool of sin and stupidity! The abyss of ignorance and immorality. Because a party has the power, they ignore, bully and TEMPORARILY dominate the party out of power, only to incite the same and worse, later, as revenge. A confederacy of dunces! (3/19/21-2)

ANYTIME you push something too far, a backlash ensues! People must not believe for every action there's an equal and opposite reaction! Be it racism claims, or Dems dominating, because they can, that arrogant self-centeredness engenders energy to oppose and defeat your cause(s), dummies. (3/24/21-2)

Modern politics: Attack everything you can about the other side and it's personnel, and defend everything you can about your side and it's personnel. (3/25/21-2)

KEEP IT LOCAL (state's rights): MUCH conflict, in politics, comes from people trying to make their state's values national, like CA pro green energy, and TX pro BIG oil! Keep it within your own border, and enjoy our unique differences! (3/26/21-2)

...the average chronic nonvoter is a married, nonreligious white woman between 56 and 73 who works full time but makes less than $50,000 a year. She is most likely to identify as a moderate. -Politico (4/3/21-2)

Non-voters are an eclectic faction with distinctive blocs that support Democrats and Republicans, but don't show up to cast their ballots, and an even larger group that is alienated from a political system it finds bewildering, corrupt, irrelevant or some combination thereof. Politico

It is ILLEGAL to bribe, but politicians bribe votes all the time, promising them freebies, paid for mainly by the other side! Government is not established as a safeguard to your own financial incompetence! A case MUST go to SCOTUS on whether freebies are unconstitutional—NOW!

Political trick: Angrily accuse the opponent of doing what you are doing, to look like you own righteous indignation, to any who haven't yet figured out you're just a hypocrite—NOT a righteous crusader. (4/8/21-2)

Because of the momentum they bring, Dems AREN'T 'gonna rightly correct youth (Boomers call 'entitled') clamoring for Socialism, just like GOP won't correct radical right sins. Votes over morality or party reputation! NO societal progress till this values problem gets solved! (4/24/21-2)

Update

(6/18/21-2)

Lord, destroy Washington D.C.'s evil politicians, and only spare the good ones, I pray. May Your judgment be SO clear to everyone watching, that no one can doubt You brought about justice through Your judgment on all evil politicians in Washington D.C., ASAP, I pray! Get them ALL!

Politics in U.S. is fully EVIL and I'm READY to punch every evil player straight in their proverbial nose! Trumps mad he was impeached; NOT sorry he did wrongs, so he wants to be SOH to exact revenge vs. Biden. His sanity was questioned, so now GOP's question Biden's memory, and Dems say hands off.

Let's shorten today's message: America faces more freebies, or status quo (SCOTUS further entrenched Obamacare, last week). THAT is the political battle of our future. Hold the line, never give in, give not one more dime, but if all else fails, secede! That's our prescription for success! (6/27/21-2)

CENTRIST POLITICS

Centrism is NOT compromising on core principles! It is HAVING core principles, which includes fundamental fairness and pragmatics! I disagree with liberals' policies 99 times more than far righters, but where those type of "conservatives" are wrong, I disagree with them vehemently!

Gridlocks better than ping pong politics (domineering, then being domineered). If both sides can't agree to something, and it's important, the majority can pass it and it get sent to the courts. Our courts AREN'T to be politicized! THEY care about justice, by oath and job duty, vs. party wins.

It's a sad state of affairs when the public's not given all evidence, but fed biased versions by politicians and the media! EITHER Fulton County HAD voter fraud (in significant amounts) or it did not. BOTH parties are claiming the opposite, and if you only listen to one side's media, you're a FOOL!

There is NO excuse why America doesn't have the BEST voting integrity processes in the world, and the technology to detect any and all fraud, so it never reaches the point of a fraudulent vote being counted!

It was HILARIOUS hearing someone on Fox News say Dems specialize in seeking felons', illegal immigrants and dead people's votes! Certainly more so than Republicans, as I don't know a one who seeks any of those votes! #EndTheCorruption #VoterIntegrity #NoCheating or fraud-period!

Gerrymandering will ALWAYS be a political hot potato, as politics is mainly what it's about! If it's also about representation, you have to ASSUME poor areas want a Dem, and rich a GOP, but those assumptions aren't 100 percent correct for every voter! Just poll the majority in a district?

THE reason both parties fight so hard to win/defeat the opponent, is because America has a STUPID belief that checks and balances means cancel the other side, and because people often believe a win means you should get everything you want. One of the DUMBEST industries in the world—and evil!

Republicans ONLY need to watch Twitter, to see how Democrats negatively spin everything they do, day or desire! One post said increase the federal spending, because GOP's will criticize any spending anyway. THIS attitude is how households go bankrupt; FOOLS! Not my money attitude! (7/22/21-2)

EXTREMISM IN POLITICS

Dems ALWAYS want to spend 'mo money, and GOP's ALWAYS 'wanna save 'mo federal money. There NEEDS to be a law that every new spend is offset by cuts, or justified by new sources of government revenues, like from an proven expanded economy, or let blue states alone fund them (state's rights)! #Justice

Extremists on BOTH sides ultimately fall into one of two traits, if not both: Dumb and/or evil. You can worship America and your interpretation of our Constitution, just as you can worship nature and government as God! BOTH extremes are evil!

Dems try to use moderates to Dems' advantage, just as GOP's try to use them to theirs (Manchin, etc.). QUITE LITERALLY, D.C. NEEDS a table turning temple scourging, as Jesus twice did to the Jews! I SERIOUSLY doubt he had a smile on His face, either time, but He did the right thing!

As I read through Psalms (on vacay), justice is an oft-repeated theme! That's EXACTLY what D.C. needs! LOOK how often it's referenced, even concerning governing: Ps. 33:5, 37:28, 75:2, 82:2, 96:10, 106:3. U.S. politics is ONLY for justice when it favors one side or the other! God sees our many sins!

Government does NOT define morality; God does. Government sets socially acceptable boundaries on public morality, or immorality, but isn't the source of morality! I've seen several libs who FEEL holier, because they do exactly what the government demands (like masking up full-time).

HERE's current state U.S. politics: Win-Lose. Examples: The GOP seeks to stack SCOTUS conservative. Dems seek to end filibuster when they're in charge (to ram-rod their agenda), and make D.C. and Puerto Rico states (for more votes for Socialism). Everything is a zero sum. ANY cooperation is failure.

Ronald Reagan's rule on never speaking "evil" of a fellow party member is COMPLETELY unbiblical, both in deeming truthful statements as evil, and never addressing problems in a party, lest doing so be deemed speaking evil of a fellow member! It's NOT God's 11th commandment, but CONTRARY!

LIFE IS POLITICS?

EVERY public moral matter is NOW only politics! Court shop, and you can always find some judge to overturn any politician's edicts! I PREDICTED THIS WOULD ENSUE (next retweet)...

Let's be honest: We don't care if judges make law, so long as they make it the right way! I'm GLAD for this decision, which will surely be appealed. (6/5/21-2)

HERE is modern, SATANIC, sin-full U.S. politics: IF Ken Paxton files in a conservative judge's court (court shopping), his suit vs. my neighboring school district will prevail. If not, it won't.

Judges are now politicized, and doing law makers' job. Satan is in charge of U.S. politics!!! Politics is infiltrating law making and judgement making (in BOTH directions)!!! Court shopping is the game of ambulance chasers! (11/6/21-2)

OF COURSE IT DID! It's conservative! WHY ARE WE PAYING POLITICIANS, if they only resort to court shopping, if anything doesn't go their way? "Everyone did what was right in his own eyes!" Jug 21:25, from lack of leadership!

https://www.dallasnews.com/news/courts/2021/08/15/texas-supreme-court-blocks-mask-mandates-in-dallas-bexar-counties/?utm_content=buffere6e84&utm_medium=social&utm_source=twitter.com&utm_campaign=buffer

POLITICIANS: FLIP-FLOP OR REPENTANCE?

Politicians can "evolve," and learn new things, forcing a change to their views. But lying and evil politicians use those concepts to explain moral compromise flip-flops! WE the people ALLOW politicians too much power and too many perks! Term limits for all politicians may be needed!

WHY is the public so incapable of observing changes in politicians views (flip flops), and WHY do We the people allow them to abandon convictions? That's NOT accountability! TX Gov Abbott has totally run to the right, the past three months, and NO ONE notices or speaks to his HYPOCRISY sin!

Common sense does NOT take a high IQ, but in days of extreme ignorance, it can seem unnecessarily insightful! NO ONE is a leader, who FOLLOWS political winds! That, by definition, is being a FOLLOWER! Politicians speak for the people, but NOT when the people speak for evil things! Duh!

Politicians were envisioned as mainly TEMPORARY servants! NOT as career holders! That's how our Founders wanted and designed it! You leave your career, for awhile, and government benefits from private sector skills and know-how, till another fills the gap. Term limits MAY be needed, someday! (10/17/21-2)

CURRENT STATE U.S. POLITICS

Let's address current state U.S. politics, and where it's going, offer NO solutions, then get off the subject, as MANY people are turned off to it, because of what I'll describe:

1. Power is the aim. Majority control the opponent can't stop is even better than a landslide win. END all tools avail to the out of power party, like the filibuster, so when you're in power, you get all you want (but just until you lose).

2. Ensure you never lose, by redistricting, making it harder for opponent voters to vote, have Californians and others move to TX, illegal immigration, buying votes by promising freebies, etc.
3. Have the courts on your side, by stacking SCOTUS and the federal bench, or widen the Court with all liberals.
4. NEVER allow any deviation from far right or left, within your party! "Bold colors" as Reagan said, and never speak ill of a fellow party member... the 11th commandment which God never wrote. Expunge all independent and conscientious members. Have everyone on the team be a rubber stamp yes man, even to horrible things!
5. Morals and thinking are informally outlawed within the party! After all, politicians ONLY represent—they don't lead! The majority of Americans aren't Rhode's scholars, are unsaved or carnal, so be like Mike, the average Joe! Don't bring religion into politics, if you mean its main emphasis of morality!
6. NEVER give one inch to the other side! EVERYTHING is a core value! Your aim is they never win anything. Compromise is a wicked term, as it means you are losing.
7. Everything is political, even sports, music, TV shows and movies. Even business and cars, and airlines, and advertising. EVERYTHING.
8. ALWAYS start with the premise the enemy is always wrong. Have lawyers craft scant evidence and reasons you spin, to make the case, as America is dumbed down anyway, and Americans are so busy, and tuned out to the details, they'll believe lies if you repeat them often enough.
9. HIRE cheap labor to stage protests, because the media will cover it if more than five people are present (they've told me that on the phone, and mentioned wearing the same colored or logo'd shirts doesn't hurt, either).
10. Lie. No one has the time or ability to fact check politicians, today, so lie all the time!

THIS IS CURRENT STATE U.S. POLITICS. I hope you enjoy it!

Update

(11/8, 10/21-2)

THIS is current state U.S. politics: Win-lose. EVERYTHING is viewed in light of one party's gain or loss. Infrastructure bill (with other and even bad things in it) much less than originally proposed is a win for Ds, believe people with this sick mindset. NOT a win for America.

You can't let the other side have any gains or do anything. Not just party out of power—now you are opposition party! And anyone from your party who votes for anything the other party proposes is anathema, EXCEPT you praise Manchin and Sinema for doing the same thing!

The sins and hypocrisy DON'T matter, because it's only us win and they lose! NO cooperation on anything. It's beyond gridlock, where the minority party gummed up the works to oppose bad legislation. Now it's to ensure the majority party never gets anything they want.

Yet, you want to gain what you want when you're in power! And it's all about getting into power, but NOT by having better ideas, but by making the party in power look feckless. Ensure Covid continues, so Biden looks like a failure. Give him no infrastructure bill. It's NOT just watch him fail in Afghanistan and on the border!

And IF you got in power in 2022, HOW would you end Covid? Mask and vaccine mandates, opposed to your ideology? No, they haven't though that far ahead—just idolizing power!

IF you read Fox News, it is inevitable that stories will say Biden is a complete failure! Those headlines have been in the making since he WON. They just had to wait awhile to concoct enough anecdotal evidence to make an article.

It is all win-lose, gridlock, forced failure for the other side, NEVER proposing better ideas, and all to keep your cushy D.C. jobs/careers! IT IS EVIL, folks! BOTH sides do it!

There are NO olive branches, reaches across the aisle, admitting personal fault, admitting personal value in opposing party members. THIS IS MODERN U.S. POLITICS! God has left the Capital building! The chaplain can publicly pray all he wants, IN VAIN! Leaders lead! D.C. lacks MANY!

Third party, Dem or GOP has best chance and best God-honoring platform opportunities for 24? NO idea, this early! Far right is satanic extremists. Far left is thieves to taxpayers. The center is where God hangs out far more. WHO hangs with Him? NOT MANY anymore! Satan loves extremists

#CancelCulture NEEDS to comprehend iteration! THESE options for punishment EXIST (NO rush to judgment!):

1. Verbal reprimand
2. Work censure/write-up(s)
3. Temporary suspension with pay
4. Suspension without pay
5. Demotion
6. Probation
7. Firing Fired Suspended

I have said this before: Iterative punishments ONLY apply with iterative behaviors! Serious infractions cause the sliding scale to escalate quickly, for justice to be served!

POVERTY IS NOT INALIENABLE

(1/21/21-2)

[RE Dallas poor zip codes vaccination plan cancelled by the state of Texas] Your bank account doesn't make you special for getting the vaccine before others in your health, age or work proximity to catching Covid category! @GovAbbott did the RIGHT thing!

There is ZERO scientific proof that one's income or skin color makes them more susceptible to getting Covid! Therefore, Dallas wanting to favor the poor neighborhoods with vaccine access was political, or at the least, irrational. Where you work is VERY related, if tight quarters.

Being poor is NOT an immutable characteristic, like being tall, or one's skin color! It's supposed to be TEMPORARY! Unless you're a single mother, or physically or mentally disabled, you're poor if you spend too much or earn too little! That's on YOU!

Democrats treat poverty as a virtue (or the poor are heroes), as it's one of their major power sources. They SHOULD work themselves out of a constituency, IF they were truly helping poor people, because help is finding ways out; not remaining in poverty, or getting more people in poverty!

The ONLY way Dems view government helping the poor through poverty is FREEBIES! That's NOT the help they need! Education and job skills, as with knowing how to buy smart and live within your means/on a budget is the help they NEED! Common sense 101

(2/24/21-2)

My frustrated disdain is showing: Amazon ad is on food insecurity and people in need. Dems seem to want poverty to exist forever, and only GOP's to "help" them, through taxes. America must set a goal that NO ONE can't pay their bills 10 years from now. Less spending, or better earning power!

IF you can't pay your bills, you're an adult, and you aren't physically or mentally incapacitated, you chose to birth too many kids (YOU choice), you spend poorly or too liberally, or are under-skilled, or just immature as an adult-period! NOP OTHER OPTIONS.

IF America ended severe poverty, liberals would then shift focus to the world's poor! They are NEVER satisfied with seeking to steal money from hard-working taxpayers! Robinhood must have been their childhood hero, or they aspired to be bank robbers, but didn't have the guts.

POOR & WORKERS

America deems armed robbers and beggars LESSER! Freebies seekers are exactly the same! They are beggars too wussified to beg, and robbers too wussy to pull a gun, they coddle Dem politicians to STEAL from taxpayers! EVIL!

IF you aren't management material, you will likely forever work for an hourly wage! You are competing with the world's workforce! NOTHING can change that! and if you're DUMB enough to vote for more immigration, you are destroying your job opportunities! Foreigners are used to less!

IF you can't pay your bills, as an adult, don't HAVE KIDS! You have your own challenge; don't push your challenges on innocents! China has a one kid policy. Adopt a NO kid policy, at least till you can afford them! NO one else has to pay for them to live! they're YOUR kids, adults!

MANY jobs top out at minimum wage, especially retail. If you don't have management potential, you could be stuck at those wages forever! That's NOT from any evil in business, but you aren't real skilled or talented. FIX IT, if you can. Otherwise, spend wisely! Life owes you nothing, sadly. (3/26/21-2)

The two political parties are mainly about people who want to be free from government, to pursue wealth (life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness), vs. people trying to use government to help the poor not be as poor. It's ALL about money, and government has no money of its own! Taxpayers alone! When a "good" economy only or mainly helps elites, it's NOT a good economy. When poor people aren't helped to become richer, on their own merits, but by government stealing money from richer folk, that's NOT a good economy, either! Re-read that, in case you may ever understand it (hoped)!

Poor Americans NEED to attitudinally START their own nation and economy! That means a few start businesses; poor people use them as customers. I know a DFW church that fosters black-owned businesses. I'm AGAINST race as a criteria (like white-owned), but poor need to support poor! Many poor areas are food deserts, because businesses open where profits can be had. Poor areas have to increase their disposable income! Poverty isn't a chronic disease, but a fixable problem. People have to be taught how to earn more and spend less—PERIOD!

ESCAPING THE HOOD: Let's say you're young and don't want to be HERE. Make the best grades you can, and do extra-curriculars. Only focus on grades, vs. distractions of your area, and electronically find a mentor, or offer free service to some exec. You can travel there, dressed nice—impress 'em. (4/26/21-2)

IF you have an older car, you can usually find cosmetic parts at salvage yards, that will do the trick for under $100! My vans rear door would have cost $500-800, after-market. We got it for $75. I've bought two hoods for my Honda, and miraculously, they had one gold one last week in Sherman. (5/15/21-2)

POOR & THE HOOD

MORE evidence you live in junky places: 1. Wall-to-wall vehicles, some which don't work. 2. Fences like Joseph's coat of many colors (and with rips and holes). 3. Refrig, couch or storage on your front porch. It's called exterior, for a REASON, folks! 4. Window A/C units.

CAN YOU TELL the obvious clues (and I'm NOT making fun of it): Boarded-up windows, trash cans where they aren't to be, often cars in the front yard; not just driveway, fence around all sides of a home, trash pile in front yard (cousin Eddie), and no edging or trimming. Better presentation!

FURTHER signs you're in a ?able area: Bars, bail and defense attorney businesses near residential, as with strip clubs, junk yards, or people using their garage as auto mechanics. Broken windows, cars on jacks, or lacking a rear window, businesses advertised as being home based, etc.

POVERTY PROOF

I've said if poor people want more money, as a community, they have to have 'safe,' investible areas. I've been using Google Earth to find potential business partners. Here's what I've observed, that would keep me from conducting business in some areas (needing fixing):

1. Reputation of named area of town, streets or neighborhood.
2. Many cars in front of one home, especially older or dilapidated, or functional work trucks with dents or rust.
3. Overgrown landscape and poorly-kept lawns.
4. Buildings so old, they should be razed.
5. VERY small homes.
6. Overgrown trees, chain fences, and bars on doors or windows.
7. Real old-school brick, or architecture styled buildings.
8. Very little space between homes (tight quarters, small lots).
9. Vehicles with MANY decals or bumper stickers.
10. Dogs running loose, or on chains, etc.

NOT all of those things can be fixed, especially with tight budgets. But EVERYone can maintain their yard, keep home exteriors well-kempt, park cars in driveways or in garages (unless one owns a bunch), and not junk up their cars with too many decals. ATTRACT vs. detract business and investment!

NO offense intended, to any who live here, but this is an example of what I found, that I wouldn't get near with a 'ten foot pole.' If people want their neighborhoods more prosperous, the needed changes are obvious, and not that expensive!

Update

(4/27/21-2)

Further evidence you're NOT in a business investment-likely environment: Graffiti, shoes hanging off electricity lines, really old cars, low-hanging power lines, concrete driveways partly missing or overgrown, unkempt toys in front yard, overgrown/never-trimmed trees, peeling paint

More: Wooden business signs, yard signs for bond, bail bond lawyer billboards, street corner panhandlers, homeless encampments, borders city dump, a prison, or railroad tracks. "There, but by the grace of God, could we (most) all go, with series of unfortunate circumstances.

HANDLING THE HOOD (I)

I've said businesses decide if a decision is good based on profit, like Chipotle $15/hour. How's that relate to just pay? Isn't that saying unjust pay is good if it profits a business? NO! Just wages are negotiated, and market-free determined, and EARNED vs. gifted.

SO, let's address evil vs. good rich folk, as the Bible addresses this issue! Jas. 2:6, Jas. 4:13-5:4; Ps. 73:12; Pv. 3:27, 10:2, 13:11, 22:16; Ecc. 1-3, 5:13; I Tim. 6; Lk. 12:13-21, 16:19-31; ETC. Greed, selfishness, idolatry and hoarding are SINS. Those who engage them are sinning.

There ARE good rich people, and the Bible also addresses them! They're NOT that way, but generous, unselfish, not hoarders or greedy and selfish, and they treat their employees fairly if not well.

In short, they obey God's general rules for life. But the tenor/majority of verses are more down on the rich, vs. the poor (among whom there are also evil poor, usually from theft or laziness; See Proverbs). Lk. 6:24-26

Jesus even says MOST rich folk end up in the fiery Hell. That's because they don't see fit to, or needy of receiving God's sin forgiveness, from reliance on money and the worldly pride often tied to its acquisition.

The media hypes the richest man in the world. Suck-ups give Bentleys to birthday boys who don't need them; money which could easily have been better used for less self-serving and selfish luxurious purposes. We see evil richness ALL THE TIME in America!

SOME (not all) try to control the levers of government, to bend the laws to their advantage, buying off politicians who will protect their financial and business interests, in UNfair ways. We see SOME (not all) hiding their assets so government can't get its fair share in DUE

Because taxes God Himself says they owe to Caesar! We see the injustice of ANY business paying zero in taxes, though incentives to move headquarters to states and cities often allow such, because of the tax revenue brought forth from the employees they bring with them. But HOW is it fair to all other businesses who pay their taxes?

NO ONE likes to pay taxes! They are intended to pay only for what's necessary, for society as a whole, in things business can't profit enough from to make a business viable, and they're NOT for making the poor richer (wealth redistribution)!

They're often too high, people hire fancy lawyers and accountants to shield them from that pain. It is ALL about protecting your assets/money! Vote D if you want to legally steal it from those who pay in, and vote are if you don't want that to occur! Everything else is virtually secondary!

So what does society do to the evil rich? There are several options:

1. Fines and jail for all law-breakers, according to their crimes.
2. Boycott the entities that make them wealth.
3. Socially shun and shame them for.
4. Force them to pay the taxes they owe (and I believe a progressive tax system is fair, because the PAIN must be equal, for ALL; not just taxpayers), and a rich person's pain threshold is much higher than someone who is broke.
5. Liberals want them punished, by taxes, or Socialism instituted, or even a South Africa-like war for their property!

NOT the answer! God has one explicit/CLEAR solution, and one implied: Generous give back (charity) and profit-sharing, where that is fair to (vs harms) the business. Anywhere you read, in the Bible, justice is addressed, and profit-sharing for profitable companies is JUST, because the workers helped achieve that success! NO one believes it's right to have a society where only a few elites get all the goodies of life!

There are no rules that state this has to be the case. And with a younger generation, that concept is becoming more atrocious and unacceptable, daily; rightfully so. That wouldn't be for broke or struggling businesses, as there no gain to share.

Thriving ones, certainly. In-between, yes, but not as much. We Americans LOVE to observe other nations, as object lessons, but only when they prove what we want to argue. If other nations have lower business taxes, the GOP will use Europe as role models for how U.S. taxes should be structured.

But if Europe has Socialist policies that ensure the poor still have healthcare, or other things, the GOP will argue America is different and special. THIS is self-serving rhetoric for an agenda! SAME goes for Dems!

The answers are justice, profitability of U.S. businesses, and good vs. bad rich people and management, that cares for their good employees, and ensures the bad ones shape up or ship out, as that is just, and actually helps the loafers, in life! They do NOT all deserve $15/hour minimum wage!

Some deserve more, many less. Justice demands they be paid what their work ethic commands—nothing more or less. So (in conclusion) be FOR good rich and poor people, against the others, and always be for just wages and work practices! God will bless America if we do, IMO!

P.S.: Net worth NEEDS to be considered, not for income taxation, but what society demands from rich folk giving back to society! They average two percent to charity, when average Joe averages three percent. THIS IS NOT RIGHT, folks, and IF they choose to let that evil continue,

I'm certain enough Americans will one day back either a wealth tax, Socialism programs, or an

'eat the rich' rebellions, which could turn physical, as it nearly did in St Louis. PREACHERS, of all citizens, NEED to be holding the wealthy accountable to what God says they are to be doing and not doing! I'm doing my part.

And in the meantime, workers can respond to wages they feel to be unjust, in the following ways:

1. Move to where wages are higher
2. Change jobs
3. Get better work skills, and work harder as your work ethic
4. Unionize for wage leverage
5. Boycott and work slowdowns and stoppages
6. Start your own businesses
7. Vote Democrat (including Socialist policies)
8. God forbid, start an economic war to harm businesses that behave evilly, which could even turn physical and violent.

Nonviolent ways ARE the answer—NOT this! Do something, vs. just take injustice on the chin! Unbridled Capitalism has zero aid for poor, unemployed or abused on the work site! 100 percent every man for himself, which works for some—NOT all. Socialism allows unjust freebies.

Communism (in theory) seeks more justice, by evil dictatorships and fear and threats. A BETTER way exists, folks!

POOR & RACE

(6/24/21-2)

In EVERY race there are JERKS! I NEVER view any color of person as acting one way, but usually assume they're either good people, or A-holes, and I'm usually right. I NEVER consider people as equals, who behave lesser than the good guys! You get treated the way you deserve! Rom. 13:7

We were in a predominantly black town, today, at Sam's, and an older guy refused to converse with us, save a bit, when I pushed and a car load insulted my sons knee injury, height, and looking like Abe Lincoln. Racist hate is still palpable, some places! My son chimed back, angrily. A bit scary!

Update

(6/19/21-2)

MUCH has been made of white people's role in slavery's aftermath. What EXACTLY should society do to help the OFTEN (NOT always) poor black race in America?

1. The culprits are LONG since deceased! Those deserving punishing are DEAD!
2. The ancestors of slave owners MAY feel a need to help descendants of THEIR slaves—that's their choice.
3. Reparations are NOT fair to modern taxpayers, as we had ZERO to do with slavery!
4. YES, our government did not give 40 acres and a mule. BUT, politicians LIE and over-promise all the time. Shall we sue them for all such lies?
5. Equal opportunity at employment is a necessity! NO racial discrimination, or you can be fined and punished.
6. Equal education opportunities, including same quality of public school information. NOT buildings so run down, they distract from learning.

7. Citizens involved in helping poor blacks, voluntarily, or up to 10 hours a year (mandatory for some chosen patriotic duty they choose) for:

- A. Home repairs
- B. Lawn upkeep (pride in community)
- C. Mentoring
- D. Skills (work and buying) development
- E. Crime, drugs and violent gang amelioration
- F. Absentee dad fill-ins, and,
- G. NO freebies from government, but Welfare re-envisioned to empower self-sufficiency ability within a reasonable amount of time, for every poor American who doesn't mentally or physically qualify for Social Security disability. That's FAIR, merciful, and right! Opposers choose EVIL, IMO.

SOCIETY & THE POOR

I believe an anger, if not could care less/nothing to lose attitude can come from living in the poorest neighborhoods. Value for life can lessen, as your life is so bad. No one seems to care about your struggles, so why care about others? Hence, gang violence and crime, IMO. Wrong?

THE reason most people don't care about the condition of people in the hood is that hoods are far away, they never have to see them, so out of sight, out of mind, IMO. It's NOT racism, or hatred of any skin color; they just never even enter our radar of experience, IMO! Separation

I've been part of churches that do civic clean-up work. They NEVER target the poorest neighborhoods, as that wouldn't be responsible or safe! So long as your area is considered more dangerous than others, you'll NEVER get outside help! A police presence would be required, for help!

CAN hood homes be insured? https://ableelite.com/home-insurance-mississauga/what-would-make-a-house-uninsurable/...

I believe MANY individuals and charities would help the poorest Americans have better homes, if they were safe! Volunteer private security personnel surrounding a home could give people time to paint, repair, mow, etc., and one per neighborhood could start a movement, as role models!

The three places for the fastest death of others are bullets through head, lungs and heart. CAN WE MAKE helmets that bullets can't penetrate, bullet-proof, see through visors, and heart and long flak jackets bullets can't penetrate, for cops and the military? Tourniquets for any other gun wounds!

Why disadvantaged neighborhoods are more attractive targets for burglary than wealthy ones. Despite concerns about crime among the wealthy and middle-class, crime is much more prevalent in poor inner-city neighborhoods than in better off suburbs. In new research, Alyssa W. Chamberlain and... blogs.lse.ac.uk

WHY is there a seeming innate concern for crime in the poorest neighborhood, among outsiders/visitors? Nothing to lose? Economic opportunity? Gang activity? High crime statistics? Hatred of certain races? Devalued life?

(6/30/21-2)

Your life is mainly lived in your home, car and at work; YOU control only the latter two. Poorest Americans need to enjoy their 14 or so hours a day, at home! Depressing environments can lead to despair! Rugs, wall hangings, paint and major appliance repairs help! SEE a positive existence.

An entire wall of livestreamed videos, in a small house, could expand the feeling of its size, or mirrors, or adding a rood out back, for a sunroom add on. There are ways to improve quality of life for Americas poorest, that don't cost lots! Pop-up tents could make a new outdoor area.

I'm convinced charities, churches, and compulsory civic service hours could FIX rundown neighborhoods, IF the workers were safe from physical harm (guns, violence, muggings). It doesn't take all homes fixed, but role model ones to set the pace! Those seen by all (prominent locales).

Everywhere I see things, in my five mile radius, it's either clean, well-maintained, or new. That's why people LOVE living here! I can't help but believe those traits must be transferred to hoods!

LOOK new or clean! Not sloppy, disheveled, disrepaired. What you see can affect your mood! Schools, businesses and churches are FAST ways to bring pride to ghetto areas! We saw many decent schools and churches, but the businesses were often failures at maintaining pride in community! Rusted, paint peeling, faded signs, rotting siding. Could have brought HOPE to neighbors!

Car covers don't cost $100. If you have a junky vehicle, and live in a junky neighborhood, BUY one!

If you're too lazy (or old, and can't afford a lawn boy to mow)—install rocks! Paint costs $25 for JUST your home's front wall. It's NOT expensive to instill pride in the poorest neighborhoods

Your grassy front lawn is NOT a parking lot! Your front porch is not an extra bedroom, or kitchen. Your driveway is not an auto repair company. There are common sense ways for even the poorest neighborhoods to have hope, by NOT making decisions that deteriorate your community!

It is UNfair, genned up/fake, and wrong for anyone to live anywhere they can't afford, by subprime mortgages or section 8! FIX where you can afford to live! Our HOA hassles one family, endlessly, as they can't seem to fit in to our rules! I LOVE how the cops cite them OFTEN! Deserved!

EVERYONE, subconsciously, knows when they're in areas of town that are not good, and we all can tell when things get better, as we drive! It's the lawn and structures maintenance quality, size of homes, age and condition of cars, and often how smooth the streets are. Poorest areas NEED fixing!

I've only seen three examples of quite poor people living very close to quite rich people, in North Dallas. I'm SURE all those areas will one day be demolished! two trailer parks (I-75 and near Swindoll's church), and a neighborhood across from Wakeland High, one neighborhood back. POOR planning!

HOW could a very poor person's life majorly change, financially? ONLY the lotto, quickly! They NEED much better skills, to start a successful business, invent something, or make great investments.

Other than that, save money, over time, by working longer and harder, with great quality!

We saw FEW new-ish cars, many with tinted windows, often raised with 22 inch rims, many "hoopties" (poor people often find treasure in revitalized OLD cars, well-maintained). Maybe they find escape in nice clothes, too? Jewelry? If your home is a mess, you 'gotta have some outlet!

Many if not most people don't like their jobs. Your domicile is your castle, and escape to relax-off hours. Jobs need to be made more interesting (I can innovate that), but if your home is junky, you're getting no escape from the negativity! It's supposed to be your safe haven! Rejuvenate.

Clutter in yards, vehicles on jacks, rusted cars, or windows missing in them; THESE are things we saw in rundown neighborhoods. HIDE all your junk in the back yard! Have some pride, even if you won't be improving your home, anytime soon. It's contagious! Just de-clutter and landscape!

DO small homes usually have home insurance? If they own, and care about their investment, they need not have such rundown roofs and exteriors, if weathers played a part in that destruction! IF laborers were safe, they could improve those homes for zero out of pocket! WHY stay rundown?

It was SHOCKING to see some neighborhood streets with ZERO street corner signs! If we didn't have Siri, we'd have never found our targets! HOW does the city of Ft. Worth allow some neighborhoods to have no street named signs? #EMBARRASSING Newly paved streets give hope to rundown areas!

We saw MANY people who brought down their neighborhood, by gaudy sculptures, gnomes, overly potted plant front yards, or very homemade front porches with couches and many products cluttering/junking them up. One person starts a renewal in a rundown area of town, keeping a clean area.

Buying skills are the fastest way to get ahead, if your job skills can't improve quickly! In the ghetto, here's the fastest way to bring pride in community:

1. Mow, trim bushes, edge and de-weed
2. Trim trees
3. Paint your house
4. Trash in cans
5. Park cars in BACK vs. front yard!

Believe you can do better, with hard work! Being a "minority" has NOTHING to do with financial success in America, as EVERY Asian and Indian I know does well, here, even newly minted, as they value EDUCATION! America is a knowledge and service economy! Do good in school, or learn a trade there UNLESS one is 100 percent mentally or physically disabled (where Soc Sec disability helps out), MOST Americans can have better than minimum wage skills, soon after high school. Go visit a neighborhood that motivates you. Explore other lifestyles on Google. Dream. Explore your talents-take tests.

Motivation for poor and "slum" people: I believe very poor Americans lack faith or incentive to do MUCH better in/with their lives, from despair, depression, hopelessness, or futility/giving up on belief in a much more positive future. ALL they see, all day long, is rundown things.

In the hood, front yards are often fenced in. I know of ZERO homes within 15 miles of my home, where that's the case. I guess that's a form of security system, as burglars have to make noise, or have barriers to entry? Saw many shoes hanging off electricity wires, overhead! Gangs!

It was RARE, but we saw perhaps three two-story large new homes, right smack dab in the middle of ghetto areas. Usually people do that when they believe the area will be bought out, eventually, because the location is ideal (like Meyerland, Houston). Must have great security systems!

I TRULY believe brand new homes being built in the hood/ghetto are what breeds hope, optimism and faith in the neighbors! We saw maybe one every 30 homes. That act of commitment shows others the neighborhood has a future, and doesn't have to keep going down further! Some were quite nice.

We saw TONS of neighborhoods with very small houses, in Ft Worth. Family, entertainment (TV, smart phone, video games), exercise (gym membership), church and work HAVE to be outlets to such cramped quarters! I'm NOT making fun of it, but trying to see how claustrophobia doesn't ensue!

POOR, RACE & SECESSION

(7/3/21-2)

Not everyone can afford all their medical bills, when emergencies arise, with high deductibles businesses now require. HOW are the poor to deal with problems they can't fix OTC? Subsidies, with repayment in civic service! NOT UNFAIR freebies, or just suck it up/non-mercy!

Student loan interests should be fair and reasonable! Vultures should be banned. If a poorer person is academically qualified, they should be able to get a college education! I oppose free college, but the industry is virtually a monopoly! Break it up, as with medicine/healthcare!

White person's perspective: I was born, made good grades/worked hard, went to college, got a good job, and can pay all my bills. WHY does anyone else need government aid? WHY do the poor need "help?," if they're not physically or mentally disabled? Show me your budget and spending!

At the same time, inflation increases prices for food, gas, medical, college, daycare, etc., even homes (Ex.: DFW hot market). The push is always for more money for business! I predict one day America will have a Civil War, or South African-type uprising by the poorer citizenry!

One day all non-rich people of the world, who are NOT content living off peanuts, WILL physically attack every rich person, IMO! A South African uprising. I am NOT encouraging but predicting it, and if it happens in my lifetime, I will not lift a finger to help either side, especially the rich.

POOR PRAGMATICS

I am SERIOUSLY thinking about taking a Saturday, or two, and going to the hood just to talk to the poorest among us, because we have driven through nearly every poor zip code in DFW, and I want to understand why they can't earn enough to be better off! Get it from the horses' mouth, safely.

Poor people's budget:

1. Rent
2. Food
3. Car and gas
4. Electricity
5. Clothes
6. Water.

Almost everything else is a luxury! Clothes can be had at thrift stores. HERE are solutions for the others I listed:

Water and gasoline you have NO control over, unless you dig a well and shop around for a few pennies difference on gas.

1. Cheapest housing: Homeless, tent, old RV/camper, small house, public housing, many people in an apartment.
2. Food. Buy a cow and a few chickens, and start a garden! Red beans and rice and Ramen noodles, often.
3. Cars. Salvage yard or really old used vehicle, public transportation, a bike, scooter, skateboard or walk.
5. Clothes: Hand me down, garage sales, thrift stores. If BOTH parents work, most people should be able to bring in $50,000 for their fam, minimum! It's the single moms who have it the roughest!

WE SAW many neighborhoods with churches this small, and houses about half that size! LOOK at Juarez, MEX! America's poor have it BETTER than many other nations!

DO NOT HAVE KIDS if you are poor, and your budget can't afford that added expense! I KNOW that's "tough love," but it's REASONABLE! Your kids are NOT society's problem, and the mi casa es tu casa and it takes a village mindset doesn't involve paying for your sex results! Be responsible!

THE HOOD (DESCRIBED)

(7/8/21-2)

Having driven through MOST "bad" areas of DFW, this year, I KNOW being white makes you often stick out, and ~nervous, especially at night, but WHAT would a black person in the richer areas fear? Cops thinking they're "suspicious," as so rare a sight, there? No one's 'gonna mug or shoot them!

WHY is a rundown area of town more dangerous at night? People can't see all that could negatively happen, as well as when the sun exposes everything! There are neighborhoods you would be a FOOL being caught in after dark (crime). Those areas need more morals, and valuing life and others!

I'm spit balling, but VERY destitute neighborhoods are depressing, and I can see how, over time, people may lose their value for life, which may be why crime and murder happens more often there, often (why not suicides?). Theft, from lacking things; the easy way out, vs. working more!

A "hood" could become a classy low-income neighborhood, if 90+ percent of residents:

1. Painted their home, IF needed
2. Mowed and trimmed trees
3. De-cluttered their front yard LESS than $1000, especially if they just paint the front façade! MUCH less if YOU do-it-yourself, when not working!

EVEN public housing could benefit from alternative paint colors per building unit! What makes them look "public" is the uniformity! When you decide to paint over brick exteriors, there's no going back—you have dated your home, forever, IMO!

Hoarders TV show shows HORRIBLE interiors, but at least many of them are respectable enough to NOT bring down their neighborhoods by treating their exteriors like their interiors! What people regularly see can affect their moods, IMO, like depressing environments! FIX IT UP! It's your room and board, at least eight hours a day.

Junk yards have tall metal walls, to protect the public seeing that ugliness. It's responsible human behavior to care about your assets enough to not create eyesores for your neighbors! That's not vanity, or asset worship, but reasonable and common sense behavior! Just DO it! NO excuses.

If you live in the "hood," Maaco annually offers full car painting for about $300, if all your paint has peeled off! CHEAP way to look better! I've seen TRUNKS held on by straps to rear door handles, and tape covering broken windows, or keeping bumpers on. Junk yards fix exteriors!

IF liberals want to fix climate change, as some panic crisis, YOU pay for everyone to own an electric car, and retrofitting all smoke-emitting manufacturing plants in America! I would have NO problem with this drastic solution! YOU, NOT taxpayers, pay for the transformations cost! Fixed!

IF you have a front yard (especially metal) fence, PAINT IT when it needs it! NOTHING says hood more than it mainly for security, having lost all aesthetics! HOAs know all these common sense rules. Not all neighborhoods have HOAs, Unfortunately! Maintain your community, anyway!

IF your front porch is used as another home room, don't clutter it up with too many rocking chairs, and certainly NO refrigerators, washing machines, couches! and IF you have clothes lines, outdoors, NEVER put them in the front yard! #CommonSense De-clutter the one home side others SEE!

Common sense: If you have a vehicle with a missing back window, wheels completely off it, on jacks, or major damage to the sHell of your car, don't PARK IT ON THE FRONT STREET! You can replace the car skin, for under $250, buying same colored metal exterior from junk yards! DO it!

IF you have to be taught THIS, you may never have class: Trees painted white from roots to limbs (even if effective against bugs—there are other options!), and large limbs all cut back to near the trunk, RUIN a trees aesthetics, as with your neighborhood. ONLY can uproot it, then!

FLOWERS well-maintained can make a home REALLY improve the ghetto! MANY times we saw very small homes, but they were higher class, when they simply did landscaping, painted, and trimmed trees, with no front yard clutter! Often the difference between rundown, for SAME sized homes!

Pink flamingos, many and multi-colored potted plants, gnomes, water sculptures, and MANY other things in people's front yards BRING DOWN neighborhoods! Less is more, if you want a hood do go more upscale! Your odd idiosyncrasies are BAD, if not commonly accepted! Value your neighbor!

UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES allow any shoes to hang off electricity wires, anywhere in any city! Gangs love tagging hoods, with graffiti. NEVER allow that, either! We saw some tacky (to me) painted concrete and neighborhood barriers, that make an area LESS professional. Locally liked?

ONE home in a rundown neighborhood can spark/inspire change, if they upkeep their siding, paint and lawn! Mowed regularly, edged and trimmed bushes. NO weeds in sidewalks. SET THE STANDARD for pride in ownership and community. SHOW others how they COULD do life, if they tried harder!

NO MATTER HOW despairingly impoverished your area or neighborhood is, green areas/parks, and community playgrounds give HOPE to your youth! We saw a public park with water spouts for playing, in a POOR neighborhood just across from Love field. Gives the youth HOPE, fun and positivity.

I have been ALL over DFW, and besides a FEW small hills (none significant), which I bemoan, I have to say seeing the amazing Dallas skyline from 20-30 miles away, on the south, west and eastside, give HOPE to very poor areas, IMO! They SEE wealth is within reach (or their cars)!

(7/8/21-2)

The lack of garages, and existence of fenced front yards, with home sizes I've never seen before, were the most surprising finds! Also, using the front yard GRASS to park vehicles, if not work on them. HOA's (homeowner associations) can keep neighborhoods nicer, to maintain property values! They serve a valuable function.

The neediest areas have the most need for HOPE (and are often also the most dangerous). I must admit, if anyone there could use volunteers' help, they'd get more help if there was police protection at the places being renovated!

Overgrown trees and bushes cause big shadows and darker viewing, which adds to rundown areas of town, as with 18-wheeler cabs in front yards, and streets lined with cars (lacking garages). Clutter in front yards, and slacking siding and paint jobs also depict such areas, and many street walkers.

The ONLY essential government duty about roadways is to patch any bumps or holes that could pop tires. A nail got us, yesterday, and two angels (a Latino and black man) helped us limp into our repair shop (aired spare and gave directions), nowhere near home. Heb. 13:2 Character of heart vs. color!

I would say that in EVER neighborhood, there are a handful of believers who reinvest with new homes, that revitalize future hope for their neighbors! If the location is excellent, many mansions exist right next to near slum-like houses, until they buy out the poorer homeowners.

Our trip to all areas of DFWs now over. We hit every zip code but two that I know to be highly dangerous. Quite an eye-opening experience, done for work, but other observations also made. Sometimes quite decent neighborhoods are just a street away from very poor ones! Poor planning.

POOR & POLITICS

IF a majority of voters united to NOT seek Socialism, but better, fairer wages, everyone paying their fair share in taxes (civic service for the poor), and government streamlined, America would be fairer, and tensions/divisions lessened! The rich are NOT God! God sees these abuses! FIX THEM.

God has an "opinion" on rich people exploiting the poor, and trying to get everyone else to be poor! Pv. 22:16 HERE is God's minimum standard for every poor person on earth: I Tim. 6:8 This is God's requirement for all rich people: I Tim. 6:17-19 ALL nations disobey God to NOT do these!

A South Africa uprising of America's poor WILL occur, if America does NOT repent, IMO! I have said this before! ALL I have said can be proven in Twitter searches, date stamped! If you down trod people, for long periods of time, they rebel! The poor won't take it anymore, being ignored!

YOU HAVE THE NUMBERS! You do not have the ability to force this, except through sinful and evil means, like forcing it through increased taxes, or worse, South African literal uprisings to "eat the rich." After all, they are NOT being evil being smart business people! They are only needed changes!

EVIL (vs good) rich people will just try to flee, or protect their assets in secretive ways. There is NO guarantee that a South African uprising can occur, and D-day proves there is no place left to hide, when wronged people unite to exact PEACEFUL vs. violent justice.

PROVERBS+ ON POVERTY

(12/13/21-2)

Ps. 49:1-2 The wisdom of the book of Psalms is for rich and poor alike!

Ps. 49:16:19 DON'T be alarmed or impressed when anyone gets wealthy, as their certain death ends their glory and praise from man, and they'll take nothing with them, nor ever see the light of day again!

Pv. 10:4 Hard work is how people are supposed to get rich. Today, you can get rich by lesser means! Gen up stock prices, just invest, have computers make trades for you, get tax breaks, buy off politicians, screw workers, hide your assets overseas, etc. NOT God's way!

Pv. 10:15 Rich people's security lies in their bank accounts.

Pv. 13:7 There are posers, trying to look rich, to those who live off appearances.

Pv. 14:20 Groupies to the rich are many.

Pv. 18:23 There are ruthless rich!

Pv. 22:2 Common ground between the two political parties! God created you and you ALL die!

Pv. 22:7 WHY should any rich person reign over poorer people? That's the way of the world, but not a command of God!

Pv. 22:16 The GOP NEVER demeans people getting rich off the backs of workers they constantly seek to make poorer! Sin-full silence! Ex: Outsource, import labor, AI, increase co-pays, end benefits through contract labor, hire part-timers, fight minimum wage and overtime pay, disallow unions, etc. Prophets would call them out on BOTH sides of the aisle! NO such people are found in Christendom, today!

Pv. 28:6 Rich people can be crooks! NO ONE believes it's better to be poor with integrity than rich with crookedness! The Bible CONSTANTLY stands as a witness to our practice of "Christianity!"

Pv. 28:11 Rich folk often think they're something! NOT to God! Jas. 1:10

Pv. 28:20 Haste makes waste, when hasting after money.

Ecc. 5:12 The rich can be obsessed with wealth gain!

Ecc. 10:20 DON'T bemoan evil politicians and any evil rich people privately! Fix the problem, publicly! Here, fearing them was in order. In America, no such fear should ever befall anyone!

Jer. 9:23-24 CLEAR rebuke of Herschel Walker's son, by God! How many rap songs brag about being rich? How many celebrities brag by assets, not their mouth? It's all the same sin!

Hos. 12:8 Wealth can't hide ones sins from God!

Mic. 6:12-13 God judges the rich, and violent rich people exist!

Hab. 2:6 Credit card (loaned) wealth is a fraud/sham!

POOR SOLUTIONS (PART II)

(12/16/21-2)

IF you are poor:

1. Don't have kids
 2. Don't try to keep up with any Jones'
 3. Don't expect to live like you see on TV ads and shows
 4. Prioritize your expenses
 5. Work harder or longer
 6. ONLY buy deals/specials/values—LEARN to buy better!
- NO ONE else owe you anything, including government!

Ideally, government would have funding sources that aren't just taxes! I'd LOVE our government to do many things to improve society, but I don't want to be taxed to pay for them! There should be some for-profit activities that they do, to raise revenue! NO ONE likes giving up hard-worked for money!

IF poorer Americans paid taxes in the same PAIN capacity as the richer ones, they would clamor for less things being done by our government! Yet voters always like to demand government do things, without considering the price, so people will always whine it doesn't do enough. YOU pay them.

EVEN IF taxes were 100 percent fair to EVERYONE, there are people who like, want and enjoy government fixing many things, while others want it doing the minimum/least it can do. It's wrong to force the latter to fund the former! Charity is always avail for those former types! Pay in first!

EVERY poorer American NEEDS to be taught and motivated to be able to live within their means! Exceptional costs should be covered by insurance you pay for. Ideally, no American will ever need any "government" (taxpayer) assistance! Better skills, effort, buying and budgeting skills needed.

IT IS BETTER to assist others, financially, voluntarily vs. by force (taxation). Even better is not needing any help, and any societal help being raised by equal pain to all citizens--NOT just taxpayers! It is EVIL to just take and never give (mooching)! Tend to your own business!

Giving back/charity/helping others is OVER-done in America! It's a GREAT thing, but self-sufficiency is under-rated! The greatest help is training a person to not need help!

OPEN LETTER TO THE POOR

(12/23/21-2)

Giving back/charity/helping others is OVER-done in America! It's a GREAT thing, but self-sufficiency is under-rated! The greatest help is training a person to not need help! And IF society helps anyone, the pain should be equally shared! Not just the rich! #Justice!

EVERY poor black American NEEDS to spend one weekend day with a wealthier black American--period! I live among some in the latter group, but also some using immoral section 8. Those who EARNED their way to living in a decent area could teach the others how to do it, by self-effort!

[Lower your bills! Water wells can provide a cheap or free supply, out in the country. As a society, at least in theory, energy/electricity is constant from] geothermal power and solar. Water and natural gas you can't lower the cost of. Clothes from resale, and mix and match. Buy in bulk, and in the right seasons. I've already written two large chapters on this. It can be done. I'm not 'gonna regurgitate the same stuff. Belief it can be done is step one!

I may make some speeches for specific groups, and put them on YouTube, so more people in those categories can see what we say in person. I already have a speech for black youth! It's what I'd tell EVERY young black person face to face. Need a speech for innovation audience--summarize my book?

Attitude is everything, for youth living in dilapidated communities. A firm conviction that they are NOT stuck there, but can move away, learning the right skills, when they turn 18! If academics isn't their niche, high-paying blue collar job skills must be mastered; find a mentor!

Lacking a dad can be substituted (big brother or mentor), or not needed. Gangs all around can be ignored, soliciting cops and school admin's help, and safe ways home, or to after school programs. ANY kid can do their best in academics, if they hang with friendly smart people and learn.

There ARE barriers one faces in life, living in a very poor part of town! Depressing environment, rundown homes, old, rusty cars, drugs, violence, crime, missing dads, jailed dads, dilapidated school buildings, etc. BUT there is the ability to be your best at a job skill or grades!

Find three other students who also aspire to be their best (excellence). DON'T just look to sports or music/rap as the way out! God has gifted every soul with at least one talent they can be their best at. Take tests to discover yours, then milk it to the max! Find a caring teacher for you!

Academics are NOT always the way out, in the hood. You're competing with students in areas like mine, where straight A's are expected! Don't put yourself at a disadvantage! Assess what you can do better than the brainiacs! Is it humor, people skills, caring for others, intensity?

It could be creativity, loyalty, attention to detail, big picture ideas, brokering people together to make deals with them, sales, finding money-making opportunities, or new business or products that are needed. It may be finding ways to improve businesses, save or make them 'mo money!

It may be your looks, or in shape-ness, or personality, or the ministry, or being a cop or fireman or soldier or nurse or techie or plumber or welder or many other decent-paying professions. The phrase "if you can see it you can be it" is B.S.!

You do NOT have to see a black Olympic swimmer, snow skier, tennis player or golfer! You just have to know about jobs you're interested in, even if NO black person holds that job! Your skin has nothing to do with your ability! Find your talent! Pray to God to show it or them to you! Trust Him to guide your journey!

Maybe you're good at math, writing, editing, singing, dancing, problem solving, motivating others, organizing, planning, budgeting, finding cheaper suppliers. ALL these skills are valuable and important to BIG business (excepting the sing and dance skills). Have the skills businesses need!

EVERY business needs people good in IT, people skills, sales, management, planning, budgeting, accounting, recruiting people, incentivizing employees (HR), monitoring quality and supply chain, finding financing, etc. Skills! Doesn't require college, necessarily!

Demand your public school prepare you for the real world before you graduate! Make them train you in resume writing, job search, interviewing, dressing for success, and unique ways to get your foot in the door of desired companies! Fit in where you interview! Act the part! Be able to speak on your feet!

I GUARANTEE you I could take any young black person (excepting the very low IQ ones) and make them successes, if they did everything I just wrote of! NOTHING is off base! You can even design a resume that makes you look very local, applying many miles away (P.O. Box).

EVEN your name on your resume, IF you suspect racism, can be altered to make your application equally considered! I can call myself Jim, J, James, or Edwin! That's ALL legal and legitimate. You could legally change your first or last name if required (I don't suggest that). There are NO barriers MUST be your continual attitude!

If I would coach a black youth to success, I'd give them 5-10 Bible memory verses, and require them to set/focus their minds on their goal, with a vision board and written goals, and anytime anything negative to their achievement was to be used as an excuse, they'd renew their mind to the end.

Youth in horrible situations have to focus their minds to where they're heading—not where they are. It might help to drive them to areas they desire to live in, to show them they exist. By faith they have to see beyond their circumstances, to what they're aiming at, continually!

The inner thoughts that I can't do this, I'm always 'gonna be here, I'm missing out, others have it better or easier, this will be hard, impossible or negative HAVE to be expelled from their conscious thought processes, and replaced with better thinking. It's all in their thought life!

A Vice TV ad shows a black male saying the government doesn't care about me—I'm 'gonna have to get by on my own. WHERE would anyone ever think governments job is to care for you, like our parents should? Look to yourself! You have ALL you need, inside. Nurture it up to maturity! Be independent!

Orphans have made it, and can! It doesn't require parents! You realize you're in this life, to make it for yourself, and you alone determine your own destiny! You have to make money to survive, so find a good way to do so. If you believe you can't, it's hard to succeed, with such attitude!

Learn how to learn, well. There are always things to know that you don't, presently. Don't rely on teachers to alone teach you! Be curious. Read. Watch TV that educates. Hang around curious people. Always be improving yourself. You WILL escape poverty if you DO these things, for sure!

You do NOT have to steal, cheat or lie, to make it! Honest dealings with hard work and knowing tricks to buying wise can get you out of poverty the quickest, once you know your unique, God-given talent/niche and pursue it with all your heart. Just do it; that's all! No shortcuts exist, or ways to cut corners to the masterpiece God is creating through and in you.

For the poor: Take the time and effort to learn where your skills can be paid the highest! It may require moving to another region! You'd be SHOCKED at the range of wages for entry level jobs (which NO ONE should only qualify for, after 1-2 years of working!). CONDUCT A STUDY!!! (12/24/21-2)

POINTERS FOR THE POOR

(1/1/22-2)

Conservatism, LITERALLY, wants to have its cake (money-making) and eat it too (NEVER use money to help anyone else). That's "freedom," by their definition. Every man for himself, because that works for them. EVERY current entitlement reversed, though SCOTUS hasn't said they're UNconstitutional.

Prosperity for ALL should be America's public policy goal! NOT everyone rich, as Romney wished, but no one severely suffering, but empowered to fiscal self-sufficiency, including by government training in school and revised Welfare that's repaid to taxpayers when on one's two adult financial feet.

Last evening, New York City Dem Mayor even said prosperity was his goal. But conservatives mean pursue it, and care NOTHING about others, publicly, or even privately is your "freedom." They have to be balanced priorities! GO LIVE IN THE HOOD A FEW DAYS, far right conservatives, you ostrich.

'Prosperity and freedom' as House Republicans' goals MEANS government leave me alone so I can idolize wealth selfishly! They are NOT interested in centrist private sector solutions to poverty, even if NO money is asked of them. Don't make me lift one finger for anyone else!

And the rich called to do as God commands Christian ministers to tell them: Give back generously, is AGAINST far right conservatism! Favoring the rich is good, when God calls it bad, just as greed is good Gordon Geckoism, CONTRARY to God. Levit. 19:15; Lk. 12:15 NOT Christian philosophy!

The conservative's private definition of freedom is government: Don't tread on me! Don't have any control over how any gun gets to anyone, or gets used; don't ever regulate business for any reason; don't make me help others; don't worry if I get overpaid, or selfishly hoard. None of your da-n business.

To be a conservative, you LITERALLY have to care zero about society's problems that can't be fixed by new products or charity alone—period! They focus on the individual, because any concern for the whole forces them to have to deal with others, and society as a whole, vs. me, me, me!

IF conservatism's ONLY solution for every Americans needs and problems is a J-O-B, what happens when robots take ~33 percent of lowest level jobs, and can any conservative teach any poor person how to live off what they earn? Easy to be ego-centric/subjective, since YOU can pay all your bills!

The positives of conservatism: Low taxes, strong economy, military and cops. Oppose illegal immigration. Pro-business, free speech, religion. Anti-abortion. The positives of liberalism: Want to fix society's problems and make the world better. NOT just selfish money-chasing idolatry.

Conservatives want the public to believe the rich's owned asset amounts are none of anyone else's business, and certainly are private property, unavailable, outside their control. But God says pay your fair share, and give back generously! I Tim. 6:17-19 Do they care what He says?

HERE's a study that NEEDS to be undertaken by the GAO or OMB: List all the expenses one American must incur, and price them out to see a minimum income one would need. The avg American earns ~$56K/year, but not everyone earns the average! Poverty rates exist, for a reason!

Conservatives NEED to interview poor people, and see their lifestyles, in real life, to see if they're lazy, or if life's expensive, and not everyone earns what they do! LIST all expenses, and see what one American MUST earn to survive—NO luxuries. $56K/$28/hour is U.S. average wage. Dual income obviously helps.

Single parents exist, and widows/ers. Some need better skills, but may then find no time or money for such training? My point is true conservatives want NO safety net, and that's not only inhumane and self-centered, it's EVIL, though they believe that's how the Founders wanted it. SCOUS disagrees!

LITERALLY conduct the study, per area (as costs of livings VARY): Electricity, housing, transportation, food, clothes, gasoline, gas and water, insurance (of various kinds), TV/internet, daycare, et al. $28/hour is about the MAX for non-management (avg U.S. salary/$56K/year).

Go SEE what poor people earn, and how they spend and on what! PROVE your theory right or wrong that they lazily don't work, or sit around on couches eating bon bons, as spoiled brat Herschel Walker's son has been taught by someone (dad or talk radio?!). Safety net is BIBLICAL! The Jews had one!

BUT, conservatives don't want one! They wish there were not one. I don't want one BIGger, but I know SCOTUS hasn't ruled it illegal, and I've been to hoods and barrios, and my Christian faith teaches me NOT to ban it! IF conservatives had b—ls, they state: NO SAFETY NET! Wealth redistribution!

And I believe foster and adoption systems that allow anyone to pawn their kid off to the state, absent orphans, or both parents jailed or strung out on drugs, should FORCE the parent or parents to pay into their care, apart from state funding! Same with deadbeats on child support!

And let's be honest, Medicare pays out, at times, more than people have put in! Soc Sec people earned. There's waste in Medicare! I know a millionaire with three houses who got a total knee replacement for free (RIP). He did NOT need that taxpayer funding! The system is BROKEN at taxpayers' expense!

But politicians just avoid accounting, by QE3 and China loans! The system WILL collapse, or inflation and dollar devaluation kill our economy, especially if the Yuan ever becomes the reserve currency of the world, or crypto. America needs to live within her means—period! STREAMLINE!

What America's poor NEED: Good-paying job, from deserving skills, education and effort. The end only comes from qualifications! Public schools MUST graduate students deserving of that desired end, with some work experience and developed skills. We're in global competition! (1/12/22-2)

The government paying for everyone's daycare, healthcare, home down payment, college, student loan repayment, fam leave and reparations ONLY MEANS taxpayers pay for those freebies. NOT government or all America. Government is taxpayer funded! NOT non-taxpayer funded! It has no money of its own! (1/12/22-2)

POOR YOUTH, MINORITIES & ADULTS

This is written especially for all the poor black youth, and by extension to all youth—Your circumstances do not define you! You may look out at a despairing environment/neighborhood; your parents may not own a lot. But faith in your own abilities,—God-led-will lead you to greatness.

Political liberalism teaches you have to know ancestors in Africa reigned and ruled as "queens," and you are to wear such attire. They also teach you all about slavery, targeted at the white race vs. just slave owners. They also teach giving kids participation trophies.

They also teach over-self-confidence, bragging on kids as awesome, no matter what. ALL these teachings hinder and hurt you, because what others achieved, or what others didn't achieve have zero to do with what you will achieve—your God-given potential! Your greatness will be achieving that!

Nothing can stop that achievement, even though it isn't defined by money. It may not even mean you make straight A's. It means you discover your niche and master it. MLK said whatever you do (career-wise), do it to the best of your ability! No one and nothing can prevent you from doing that!

Some people in America like to label your race as often possessing traits of laziness or lesser intelligence. Even that belief/influence has NOTHING to do with you! There are no racially genetic traits applicable to all within one race! Your limits are only self-imposed!

Again, political liberalism states that to be it you must see it. BALDERDASH! You can be anything you want and your mind aspires to, only limited by your own God-given abilities!

DON'T listen to negative and Untruthful statements about you or your race! ONLY listen to what God says of you, and that is that you were made in His image, and nothing is impossible with Him. Be with Him! Focus your mind and attention solely to what He has for you to achieve in this world!

You may be the next MLK! Who knows? And do not believe you must be the greatest academic star. Many have achieved great things not being the class champion in grades! You may be Gods next great painter, or salesman, or manager, or business owner, or whatever job exists that you are best suited for.

It does not have to have status or fame, but in God's eyes, if it's His job for you, you're famous with Him. Find out what it is, and what skills he has bestowed within you, and let nothing stop you from achieving your full God-given potential in life, because then you can meet Him, and hear Him say, well done, My good and faithful servant!" John 3:16, the Bible. Be your best!

HATRED

TRYING to wrap my head around this: Why some blue collar whites hate all blacks. It's a confusion to say justice doesn't identify under- and over-served communities! Emphases on blacks in society are from under-emphases of the past! WHY would that FEEL like an attack on whites? Huh?

My GUESS is it's three things:

1. A felt threat of competition for jobs.
2. Reinforcing what your life experience is,
3. Building up FELT self-worth, by bringing others down. Have these types never met a black person that wasn't offensive to their racist stereotype? Denial of a problem.

OWED?

(11/27/21-2)

White people owe NO black person one dime, for history they never participated in! Taxpayers owe NO ONE any free lunch! Rich executives DO owe justice to their employees, and give back to the society that gave them that opportunity! People like Warren Buffett ARE heroes with wealth!

BETTER OFF

I would gentleman's bet EVEN historically tied ancestors to actual U.S. slaves are, overall, doing better being in America, than the ancestors of those who were never forced onto boats heading for the new world! Almost NO ONE leaves America clamoring to move back!

SUPREMACY

(4/7/21-2)

White supremacy is evil. BUT, black supremacy attitude, beliefs and actions are equally repugnant. Plus, BOTH parties take votes from wherever they can get them. One-sided calls to denounce constituents is partisan politics—evil itself! Many evils in America! II Chron. 7:14

CRITICAL RACE THEORY

(11/9/21-2)

HERE is the solution to Critical Race Theory in schools: Teach the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth about all of America's history in American History. Our own court room sworn oaths give you the formula!

DISCRIMINATION

(3/22/21-2)

The black general on #60Minutes nailed the disparity in employment problem—NOT racial prejudice, but "ducks pick ducks." I have said this SO many times, here, using "birds of a feather." It's maybe natural, that you're most comfortable with people like you, subconsciously...

BEST QUALIFIED

(3/24/21-2)

The best-qualified employee has zero to do with race! IF two candidates are exactly equal, you choose by personality, dress, diction, fit in the company, likeability, looks, etc., but NOT by common ground on skin color! THOSE things listed can distinguish "equal" candidates!

FAMILY TIES

IF you're black or brown (or any other color) in a poor area of town, your parents' income limitations are the ONLY thing keeping YOU in poverty—period! There is no white man, or rich business owner screwing you or holding you back or down! Education is your way out, as a student

Advice for B and B's to succeed in America: I rejected putting targeted business partners on my list, if their area of town looked rundown, or dangerous. If you want to succeed and fit in with business culture, it has to be safe to do so, just as many investors avoid risky and unstable nations!

RICH BLACKS

(4/25/21-2)

HOW IN THE WORLD are there rich and/or tax-paying black people, in America, who don't seek reparations for things that occurred many generations back, and maybe not even to their relatives? Hard, smart work! Millions of them could be interviewed!

INVESTMENT

(4/24/21-2)

When we talk about black areas of town increasing, economically, if business persons are hesitant to conduct business there, from crime, drugs or gun violence (or run down), you're NOT 'gonna rise without investment, especially if businesses can't sufficiently profit! Safe and profitable!

OVER-WOKE

Woke is over-done! Earn a living, and STFU, unless you experience illegal discrimination! FEW whites are racist—an excuse for others' failures!

SYSTEMIC RACISM? (I)

(2/22/21-2)

When Coke's diversity trainer said everyone is racist, I wouldn't listen a second longer, if a Coke employee. People LOSE credibility when they state lies or errors, from biased presuppositions. SAME with claiming systemic racism exists, rather than pockets of racism. Be accurate!

The Coke inclusion/multicultural/sensitivity training said ALL whites are racist, and many say systemic racism is prevalent in America. LIES, folks! Racism means you hate a certain group, and all its members, for no rational reason, based on skin color.

And systemic means it's built into "Systemic" racism, AS OPPOSED to racist pockets, means education, government/politics, business, banks/loans, housing, job opportunities, car sales, church choice ALL are designed to keep out or cull out blacks participating as equal as anyone else! SIMPLY not the case! Think clearly!

There is no systemic racism in America! There may be pockets of racism, even among some public figures and government authorities, but the American governmental and criminal/legal system is NOT designed to keep the black man down—period! and not all people of NE race are the same! That's group think! (5/29/20)

If I hear anyone else claim "systemic racism," I'm 'gonna pull my hair out to a bald stage. Give details and examples! It's an IRrational claim. NO law, no business and no cop is under orders to harm black people or their economics—period! Prove otherwise, political HACK liars! Sinning! (6/20/20)

Houston police chief RIGHTLY oversees a prayer vigil between two races, repenting of any racism and of angry unforgiveness. If ANYONE has any racism in their hearts, this is the right thing to do! however, I reject the stupid allegation that "systemic racism" exists! (6/30/20)

The court system, judicial and prison system, police system, business laws and the Welfare system are NOT designed to put down black people! This is NOT the 1800s! "Systemic racism" is a myth and an excuse to blame a phantom enemy. FEW white people hate black people—period! Very FEW!

Because of these destructive LIES of America haters, that we have 'systemic racism,' and Socialism needs to steal from taxpayers, I am voting for Donald J. Trump! Don't ask me to defend anything he does or says, as this is a protest vote. Five voters live here!
@realdonaldtrump @POTUS (6/4/20)

IF America had 'systemic racism,' Asians and Indians would have a hard time succeeding in America, 1-2 generations in. For the most part, they do NOT! They get college educated, work hard, fit in, and are GREAT assets to the U.S. of A. Lessons for 'oppressed' claimers! Emulate success! (10/19/20)

BIG oil, BIG, medium and even small business, all Americans who are not poor blacks and all taxpayers BEWARE!: Biden double-speaks about unity, then advocates Dem agenda of climate change, systemic racism, economy and Covid curbing. He will NOT have FAIR solutions, but Dem-biased ones! (11/7/20)

@JoeBiden wants to attack systemic racism. Sounds like attacking climate change! There's VERY LITTLE reality to either of those! There are some racist people, and man's vehicles contribute some heat from pollution, but it's MUCH smaller percent than a systemic crisis! Be smart!

(3/14/21-2)

THIS is a credible suggestion: ANY black American clamoring that there's racism everywhere, INTERVIEW a NON-celebrity black American who is financially doing well, and learn from their experience, and any tips they're generous enough to give you! There are ways forward, by self-effort!

My GUESS about African-Americans' "racism" complaints would be: 1. Equal economic opportunities 2. Equal educational opportunities 3. Police brutality used only when a cop's life is in danger.

Black Americans need to make a VERY brief list of grievances, PRIORITIZED, in what they allege is racist in America, that negatively affects their lives, with practical and just solutions suggested! The general racist complaint is rightly falling on deaf ears, a year (and decades) later!

CLARIFICATION: One is NOT a supremacy sympathizer simply for remaining silent! Not everyone wants to be put inside this feud! IF one is NOT awake to the needs of poor blacks, they aren't woke. For sleepers: Would you rather be born white or black in America, all things being equal?

THE dilemma, for America today, is calls for black equality have been heard and now over-done, yet many public voices show the message has not hit many people's hearts. That means as it needs to be toned down, many are tone deaf.

There are, apparently, MANY blue collar whites, who see blacks being elevated to equal status in society, as a job threat, just as whites in South Africa feared their properties would be seized, when apartheid fell. Re-read this!

ON IDENTITY POLITICS

It's NOT like all whites are racists, or only whites have race haters! IF any criminal attacks a race outside his own, that does NOT mean skin color was why he did it, or who did it, but the heart of that criminal! Whites have been attacked by other colors, too!

STOP the identity politics for political gain! I'm CERTAIN 2022 elections are centering (strategically) on border/immigration, and violence against Asians, as Dems try to broaden their tent to expand beyond black and brown. It is HIGH TIME MLK's words reverberated in our consciences!

Character of heart over color of skin, and lady justice's color-blindness. It's getting to the point were almost seeking a race war, or South Africa-like uprising, with battle lines drawn on white vs. black (BLM vs. blue lives, etc.). I will say to ALL involved—STOP IT! QUIT separating and segregating along racial lines!

YES, we all came to America from somewhere else (except native American Indians), sometime in the past, but at the same time our politicians have allowed in many in the past 30 years who were not raised in American ways or culture or history.

Assimilation is how the melting pot works, and there are SOME whites who begrudge so many NON-whites having come here, legally or illegally, as a challenge to their job opportunities, or from fear the white majority will slip, IMO.

Though I am not among them, you can understand if Americans flooded any other nation, they might resent us taking over any historic collective morays. TRY IT anywhere else! They won't allow it, because they limit how many people get in!

Even "white-predominant" nations like Switzerland, Norway, Sweden will NOT let in so many that their traditions and culture significantly changes, or their economy and safety net. I am NOT saying America has YET done that, but some whites fear we will, or think we have.

The issue is newly minted citizens NOT trying to implement Socialism, or use identity politics to try to threaten careers, or the many great things in this greatest land on God's green earth! I'm NOT alleging if any have or are trying to, or how many or what percent.

But I assure you politicians are trying to unite people for voting power, solely on stirring up hatred along color lines! I don't think in those type terms, but I speak what I observe/see.

It is EVIL! Either you're a proud American, or you don't really like America. We have zero problem with anyone criticizing us for our faults, but we will always have a problem with others (especially foreign governments) trying to divide the UNITED States! STOP stereotyping based on skin color!

Literally, NOT every black American can jump higher than every white person, or Asian out-do every other race, academically, for example. We LOVE stereotypes, because they make complex life SEEM simpler. But they're based on FALSE premises! I have more in common with many of my black friends that some white country dwelling "good 'ol boys."

BUT, it's on a case by case basis, because I don't think of individuals as belonging to a group, except by their words and behaviors--NOT their skin tone! I have ONLY Asian and Indian friends, NOT enemies, but I'm sure I just haven't met enough to find those I wouldn't enjoy the company of, and vice versa!

We are INDIVIDUALS, created in God's image, and though racial groups can have common traits (like the quiet dignified peacefulness of most Asian friends I know), you can't make that an absolute in your mind, because I haven't met every person in any given group!

I, for one, am TIRED of white people in America being blamed for slavery! WE DIDN'T DO IT! A few of ours heirs did! and there were white slaves, though in fewer numbers. STOP alleging/claiming systemic racism EVERY DAY, and PROVE your case and suggest solutions, or shut the heck up!

Playing the race card any time it's politically expedient (like every day since George Floyd) is getting tiresome and counter-productive! List what your demands are, and what the solutions are, and who in society you believe is to fix them, but better yet, be your best (not #BeBest) and leave the color of a person's skin out of consideration.

See character, or lack thereof, and hang with the good people and ostracize the bad 1s. If you will, America will again be great!

RACIAL RECONCILIATION, OR REVENGE?

There's a movement, never overtly stated, to overturn white being the majority race in America. It's a political movement, for Socialism, to steal rich and white people (NOT synonyms or the same groups, though some overlap) through government spending and freebies! They believe it's historic justice.

If there were no rules. If we humans had inherited a world 100 percent of our own design, and not as it is from what it was before us, good people would want one where everyone had enough, there was no pollution, no wars, no murders, robberies or hate.

What rules say those things are required? None. No such laws exist. As to wars, some are necessary, or evil prevails, but we are not fighting rules, but human nature and choices; sin and the selfish impulses of some to retain bad aspects of status quo.

In fact, achieving what we all (save for evil people) want is possible, and that for which we should be striving. I say possible, because we will NOT achieve it, first due to Bible prophecy intervening, but especially because too many people don't want that type of world, because they selfishly enjoy the warped one we all inhabit.

Let's get specific: There are only limited resources, so not everyone can have all they want—only what they need. And that need not occur by stealing from others, but working smart and hard (excepting the physically and mentally disabled). Pollution is inherent in combustible machines, which we all have benefitted from.

But new, greener technology could, one day, replace the need for burning fuels for power. But we need not force people to that choice before the time of such developments, or without their free choice to use such improvements, when the price is competitive.

Everyone who wants a job should have a job, and if their skills deserve it, it should have decent pay! Taxation should be fair to all; NOT any getting off the hook, or any being punished for gaining wealth. Everybody has needs, and healthcare is needed by everybody, at some point in their life.

The ONLY issue is how much, what quality, and who pays for it. It is UNfair for others to have to pay for your needs in life, so healthcare has to be fair and affordable. And finally, crimes benefit society NONE! We must develop technology to prevent it, as well as understanding why people engage it, and have mechanisms to prevent their acting on those impulses.

You see, it's not that hard to envision a brighter future we all want in our inner souls. We just have to think clearer, and design the future we all internally want!

If your ancestors did, shame on THEM. That was centuries ago, and if your family wants to right that wrong, feel free. Otherwise, just ensure everyone has equal opportunities, and go to work!

If slavery is the reason you're not successful in life, why are there hundreds of thousands if not millions of successful black Americans? Were they all born into wealth? NO!

Very literally there IS no white shame or guilt! NONE of us living today enslaved anyone!

Mail-in and drive-by ballots can be fraudulently used (no proven connection to identified recipient, as with polling places) and filled-out.

I'm FOR everyone qualified voting, but I'm also for a law you can't vote to spend other people's money if your money isn't also at risk! ONLY fair!

Generally, psychologically and to some extent culturally, slavery has had a negative impact on black America, historically, but smart and hard work can always overcome any circumstances anyone finds themselves in, and over time, the oneness is on you; NOT a society that once allowed slavery!

IF you're poor, what are you doing to fix that? Government (voting) is NOT a valid answer! Hustling more (effort), better quality work, or work skills, spending less, having limited number of (or NO) kids, and shopping your skills around elsewhere?

WHAT BLM SHOULD HAVE PROMOTED

(4/25/21-2)

"Latino Lives Matter! Asian Lives Matter! White Lives Matter, Native Indians Lives Matter, and Black Lives Matter! Life Is Precious and Can't Be Replaced." ~DeVotee Tymes (4/18/21-2)

People are growing tired of the BLM movement NOT because they're white supremacists, but because:

1. It had one year, and could hardly detail exact policy change needs
2. It's backed by mob rule and cancel culture, and,
3. "Systemic racism" is a MYTH! Dems hated 45s lies; we hate that lie!

Because this BLM/social justice movement has such little SPECIFIC focus and aim, or identified leaders, I'm 'gonna help them state the causes they have had one year to enumerate, and only recently have barely begun to: BLM SHOULD have been coined blacks are humans too, or black lives are equal. But that train has left the station/cats out of the bag/toothpaste is out of the tube.

Spokespersons aren't essential, but hypocrites or bad role models hurt any cause. NOW, as to needed beliefs:

1. White supremacy is evil, but so is black power/nationalism. Be for JUSTICE!
2. Admit MOST cops are good. The FEW rogue ones are bad apples, and need removing from governments tree.
3. Admit that most people shot by cops were not law-abiding when pulled over. SOME were. Jeep perspective on your quantities or percents.
4. Admit racism is still a problem, but in POCKETS--NOT systemically! NO societal function is designed to keep the black person down (government, education, business, police, banking, housing). NO white elite bunch schemes ways to make many blacks stay forever poor!
5. Admit fatherless kids more often have problems in life, and shun and shame family abandoners, and especially deadbeats who never pay up.
6. NEVER seek handouts and freebies, forced out of the wallets of people who simply work for a living, abide by the law, and pay their taxes (GOOD citizens).
7. When cops pull you over, obey--PERIOD! NO NEED to freak!
8. Know, even if you'd NEVER admit it, that Democrats are using race to keep a political advantage for 2022, believing the Floyd riots helped Biden be ushered in! Now, to specific grievances:
9. Police policies SHOULD mandate other cops intervene when any cop is exceeding needed force!
10. De-escalation methods should be the first recourse of cops, and lethal force the last resort. However, when their lives are reasonably endangered, that scale can be quite brief!
11. Admit whites are killed by cops more than blacks. LOOK at the statistics/keep perspective!
12. Chokeholds can't be banned, as they're less dangerous than a gun, and effective!
13. Body cameras should ALWAYS be on, for traffic stops, and always avail to the public for any negative incident, immediately! Full transparency.

14. Justice requires every U.S. citizen to get a certain level of quality education; its availability is where justice counts; not all make themselves availed to it!
15. The black community has to end the stigma against turning criminals in to the cops (narks, rats).
16. Gangs that turn violent MUST end, and drug dealing made safer!
17. Hoods need cleaning up, so one can have pride in their environment! Lawns, appliances and houses need maintaining.
18. Efforts should be made to make blacker areas of town better investment opportunities for business! Profitable and safe-period! NO good jobs will be in those areas, otherwise
19. Music and sports must be seen for the percent of opportunity they actually afford young black kids, as Charles Barkley said! Focusing on pipe dreams of NBA play, by HUGE percents, is an asinine black community strategy!
20. Jobs training is needed for all non-college bound! Fix it!
Unless and until someone grows a brain enough to articulate these 20 principles, the BLM movement has about achieved all it can, because calling attention to blacks' plight is a HORRIBLE message to continually harm on! Fix it, now that you know their needs, or STFU with repeated mantras.

REPARATIONS?

It is a RIDICULOUS notion to punish present-day taxpayers and white Americans for sins of white people multi-generations ago, as with reparations, or dredging up the Mexican-American War, or cowboy and Indian era! NO ONE believes those were moral, by today's standards!

BUT, time has passed, and whats done is done—the past is the past! Courageous explorers came here, and then we settled here. It was NOT without conflict. YES, white people from Great Britain engaged Indian wars, but wars do happen, in the history of mankind, and the loser forfeits assets, often.

It is NOT like we jailed the native Americans, but we gave them reservations. To the victor go the spoils, and legitimate conflicts arose as to claims to this land! Morally, they existed here first, but those Pilgrims were also seeking escape from religious persecution, and when they arrived, it was virtually undeveloped, by modern standards (NOT as Rick Santorum stated, "nothing").

There were violent atrocities against the 'red man.' NO ONE denies that! But it was centuries ago, and people get over things, and wrongs done to them! This is political, folks!

Dems want to tear down white culture dominance, even though whites made up 100 percent of the founding generation, so for any whites to take Umbridge with trying to make their race a scape goat is totally understandable, and NOT 'racist,' but rightful resistance to an evil attack, for political gain!

Dems NEVER speak of America's greatness—only our historic sins! That's why people legitimately wonder if they are true America-hating non-patriots! What America has done right FAR exceeds what she has done wrong, but dem constituents involve many generations removed ancestors to the sins of an ancient past of slavery, Mexican-American War, and cowboy and Indian scuffles.

IF you had won those battles, America would be a totally different place! Wars have consequences (NOT that slavery is equivalent). You ALL enjoy quite a nice life, here, even after such horrific events!

Update

(5/16/21-2)

Birds of a feather is why many blacks and browns don't have great jobs, and it's NOT racism. Skills or education being equal, many people prefer hiring people they have much in common with, like same college, athletics background, gender, politics/values, where they live, clothes, etc.

IF I moved to China, where Chinese culture was dominant, and I wasn't coming back, and wanted to move up, I'd adopt some Chinese habits, to fit in! That's EXACTLY what Tony Evans taught that he did, to have more success in America. It's SMART, vs. fighting the hiring system. Move on up!

IF I wanted a job at a barber shop in "the hood," I'd have to know all hairstyles popular there, be good at cutting them, and even more; maybe learn some rap, dress differently, talk whatever slang was popular, and imitate my peers. That's NOT racism against a white! It's fitting in!

IF you have come to America, English is how you succeed! That doesn't mean you can't speak your native tongue, at home. WHY FIGHT the system, that every nation has, if you're trying to climb the ladder existent in the system you chose to live within? Live where you can climb best!

Great companies usually aren't located in poor parts of town. People aspiring to leave poverty have to ACT like they live close by, always have, know corporate culture, it jives with their values, and play the part, to overcome that gap, culturally and geographically! Goal is money, number one!

IF I wanted to work at a Chinese cleaners, or Mexican restaurant, it would help me to learn that second language, some, to have things in common with the majority of workers, and NOT insist their business change to accommodate MY habits! They're the ones paying! Fit in, or start your own business.

IF I were a boss, ALL SKILLS BEING EQUAL, it'd be easiest and most comfy hiring a Baylor University or Texas Technology grad, male, involved Christian, ex-jock, BIG person, travel devotee, pro-exercise and honesty, or a really cute gal. WHY? Makes the decision easiest, mirroring the boss' priorities and values!

HARDEST job for me to ever land would be in an Arab nation, doing manual labor. VERY little in common, including language, often. No history in common, some bad blood history, not my skills or interest, job-wise, and general fish out of water! NOT a smart move! Work where you fit best!

Racism would be choosing NOT to hire someone, because of their skin color. NOT because others have more in common. Business is stressful enough, without time and energy expended to bridge divides, in areas where there's less common ground! That INcreases expenses—opposite business's purpose.

If a company had to train someone, vs. hire someone able to hit the ground running from the start, they'd choose the latter, unless the candidate was exceptional! That's the same as people fitting in vs. sticking out. Time and energy wasted to bring compliance is WASTEFUL, vs. profit-making.

I've met MANY Indians and Asians, and they fit in quickly and well in American business culture!

Besides high education and hard work, they don't cling to old ways that distract from their fitting in, and they're financially rewarded, accordingly! It's NOT racist for these things to help them!

IF I wanted to work at Hooters, it would be VERY difficult! I'm NOT a Chippendale dancer, nor female and buxom, and I have no skills in the kitchen. If anyone wants a great job, fit into the culture of great companies that have those jobs! It's not betraying any culture, but

ALL these differences bring innate challenges, if people champion those differences: Language, size/height, race, gender, education, wealth, religion, politics, work ethic, personality, talkativeness, clothing, interests, etc. Common ground is EASIEST for businesses to hire!

WHITE ANGST? ("FRAGILITY")

(5/4/21-2)

HERE is the angst among poorer, or blue collar whites in America: As trends move toward focus on minorities, less jobs will be allowed whites than before such trend! NO white I know is against any minority, but justice requires the best qualified be chosen for a job—NOT skin color! People think 22 will stop Biden's Socialism. They think secession is too radical. What has done in 100 days shows you can't WAIT 1.6 more years to stop this evil! Article five convention that freebies are unconstitutional, or secede! Don't FOOLishly lose the nation, being patient! GOP gets attacked for opposing handout programs. America wasn't designed for taxpayers to subsidize or bail out others, but everyone to be their God-given best! Live within your means is an age-old adage. Equal opportunity is ALL America promises anyone! Make non-taxpayers do their share.

RANDOM RACE RANTS

Black Wall Street (Tulsa)

(5/30/21-2)

The ONLY people owing anything for Tulsa's burning of Black Wall Street are those who committed that crime! MOST of them are dead. Some KKK members hired by government doesn't link those criminals to government sanctioning their dirty deeds! RIDICULOUS assertion!

The heirs of those criminals didn't force their parents or grandparents to commit that crime! They didn't even gain, financially, for tearing down others' assets! Tax payers in Tulsa don't owe one dime, but DO owe jail time to any living active criminal participants, but statute of limitations exist.

The black heirs whose forefathers were burnt out of their properties WERE wronged, just like business owners in Portland and Seattle, last summer. They had insurance! If eminent domain was used to seize the burnt Black Wall Street, government might owe their heirs something. Government didn't arson it!

My great great grandfather had his mansion burned down, near Hobby Airport. Am I going to now seek reparations for that familial loss? NO! Statutes of limitation only last that long for murder crimes! It was an amazing structure I have pics of. Water under the bridge!

If Tulsa's Black Wall Street massacre doesn't teach you anything else, that you can ACT upon, you NEED to learn statutes of limitation, and learn to fight back in a much more timely manner, when any wrong or injustice is ever done against you! That is American law, folks! Heed it!

SUE the KKK to regain some losses from Tulsa's Black Wall Street massacre! That's about the only just remedy! Again, the problem is statutes of limitation! YOU weren't financially wronged. Your predecessors WERE! You just cling to a wish you'd have inherited more had it not occurred.

(6/5/21-2)

When you see United Airlines choosing race over flying skill and experience, they have a totally valid point! That's NOT United, but divisive! BEST-qualified is the American (Airlines?) way! NO ONE is stopping you from moving to a nation where you're more comfortable, or even where your ancestors may have come from!

I CAN'T find a retweeted post by another, but it read: "United Airline: We might not have the best pilots, but we have the most diverse. How are the black ones 'gonna get a pilot license? I was told they can't get an ID." Brilliance, analysis and sarcasm, all in one! Was it deleted? I've said that many poorer and less-educated whites see blacks being exalted as economic threats.

IF the NBA hired players to reflect their percent in society, the league would FOLD, because, for whatever reason (probably hustle and years of effort), they are predominantly black, AS IT SHOULD BE, as we fans only want the best skills hired. Applies to every business!

How much pigment you are born with has ZERO to do with whether you have the skills to be trusted with hundreds of passengers' lives, as a commercial pilot! If ANY applicant is NOT hired, in favor of a less-skilled applicant, I HOPE you get sued into bankruptcy!

IF businesses ONLY hired best-qualified, and every position was filled by blacks, browns, whites or greens, SO BE IT! That's America. MERIT-based; NOT racially divided by hiring less-qualified, for political or social rationale! That competition makes everyone strive to be better and their best!

ANOTHER reason to "fit into" the culture of the company/ies you want to work for, no matter what their predominant skin tone may be! If the majority has to adjust to your unique quirks/habits (like Friday prayers), that's disruptive to business productivity! Fit in, or be out!

(7/3/21-2)

EVERY black American who makes money, and doesn't vote Democrat is called an "Uncle Tom" or "sell-out." Getting a good education is sometimes called "acting white." Dems want black people dependent upon government freebies, to ensure their power and jobs! don't be dumb or deceived!

If ANYONE seeks to change America into a Socialist Utopia, I challenge such idiots to compare results, if all we non-Socialists secede, into a separate nation. I GUARANTEE you they would risk bankruptcy, and we would THRIVE! Secession is better than Socialism in America!

NOT ONE SLAVE was used for America's Industrial Revolution, or winning two world wars! Those events mainly put us where we are, today! Picking cotton was NOT the main industry that made America great, if you know anything about U.S. history! Reparations are NOT due to anyone!

If you are a white American, and don't feel any threat being posed against you as a person, solely due to your skin color (based on ancient historic events), you aren't listening to the news, or politics! Your money, and/or job is in their cross-hairs! It's way beyond rhetorical, now!

The black radicals (NOT all black Americans) WANT political allies, for power, so they lure LGBTQ, as traditional values people aren't as welcoming. From poverty they lure SOME Latinos who want freebies, but NOT the religious or hard working ones. SOME youth join, for freebies!

I mean this literally, seriously, and sadly: I feel a race war is possibly brewing in America! The "we're all Americans" belief has gone by the wayside, dividing America to scare up votes!

It's as ludicrous to tax present-day white taxpayers, or hate them, for what SOME whites did owning slaves, or WINNING wars with Mexico and native Indians, as it is to jail a teenager of any color for crimes from decades ago committed by people their same skin color.

I have the following suggestion for all rich white people, given Socialism's push: Legally hide your assets, shelter them from taxation, and never hire anyone you do research on who voted for Socialism! If you give to charity, ensure Socialists never get benefitted by it—only others.

LOOK at the people who have most impacted America for the good, in American history. List the greatest achievements, and not the personalities. Note percentages. If liberals want pride and black history months, we may need a white history month, for balance! Brown, Asian and Indian, too!

I NEVER think about my race, unless a form asks for it. It is liberal activists who are taking AMERICA back to the 60s, where color is a dividing line! People worked SO HARD to get over that era, only to have politicians resurrect it! A bumper sticker read, 'I remember when we were all Americans.'

Liberals are coming for white people's money and jobs! They don't blame Asians or Indians, who also chose to be smart and work hard, and get rich, thereby; only whites, because of events that occurred centuries ago. EVERY non-Socialist has to crush this movement, or secede if you lose!

IF liberals are going to blame white people for slavery, Indians and Mexicans being defeated and losing lands, it ONLY stands to reason that white people get all the credit for everything good that came of America, too! Pure, just and logical! NOT how liberals 'wanna play it, however.

Liberal logic: White men used black slaves. White men killed the Indians. White men battled Mexico (and won). NOW, their young offspring, generations later, are seeking revenge, politically (freebies by taxation)!

American taxpayers of all colors: The Socialists, liberals and Democrats are coming for your nest eggs, especially if you're white! They may not raise taxes, this go round, but over-spending is the same thing, just delaying paying the fiddler! Their constituents RARELY pay into the kitty.

I know NOTHING factual about immoral slavery in TX, but IF the North demanded an immediate end to a business plan that involved cheap labor, with NO TIME to compensate or adjust, I'd fight them forcing that radical intervention too! Remember the Alamo! Native Texan to its founding

(7/3/21-2)

Tom Barton is saying the king of England brought slaves to America, and our founding Fathers disagreed with and opposed it. The longest grievance in the Jeffersons original Declaration of Independence defat was opposing slavery. John Hancock required unanimity for its passage.

The American Revolution began with the death of a black patriot (Crispus Attucks), and was won by the work of a black patriot (spies pretending to be escaped slaves, who helped Washington win the battle of Cornwallis; Marquis de Lafayette and James Armistead). Tom Barton, WallBuilders

OPEN LETTER to EVERY black activist: Educate your constituents where to vote, and how, legally! NO ONE can stop a committed voter! Proving you are the registered voter is NOT a barrier, but not being able to so prove is room for fraud. You have NOTHING to fear with one person one vote! (7/5/21-2)

(7/4/21-2)

Race activist, Fred Haynes "preached" that whites don't celebrate blacks' achievements. Name me one percent of whites who don't like seeing NBA players do well, and be paid well, division-sowing poverty pimp! ONLY KKK types hold that against them! FEW and far between, by percent-NOT mainstream!

White supremacy is evil, but so is any black hatred of whites, whatever you may call it, and they BOTH are evil, and are the SAME evil thing! BOTH must be denounced, contemporaneously, lest evil politicians only focus on one such evil, for selfish political gain!

60 Minutes interviewed college prof advocating for reparations, stating ~$300K per AA would be today's value for unreceived 40 acres and a mule

1. NO ONE, today, enslaved anyone
2. Not all U.S. blacks descend from slaves
3. Government promises get broken LOTS
4. Let slave owner families pay up.

156 years since the original 'Juneteenth.' HOW does what your great great grandparents did for a living have anything to do with your current circumstances? I don't even know the name of my relative who lived then! Free, so go conquer your goals! NO restrictions!

Many news reports have parroted that black areas of towns were often divided by interstates. The TRUTH is, most likely, that those areas had land that was way cheaper than buying elsewhere, so it was a fiscally responsible government decision, which is VERY rare!

We could have a white history month, and straight pride month, but NOTHING would happen, because we'd just be working, like we always have and do! Here's an ad that should run in the month of June: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DJLDF6qZUX0>

(7/8/21-2)

Someone on TV said POSITIVE stereotypes (like Asians and Indians are smart) are "BAD," and "racist," because they put pressure on all in those groups. Being in those groups, if you look around, the pressure is there if you keep up, and it's a COMPLIMENT! Never praise stupidity or failure!

I've found a HUMOROUS thing that people from other nations, who aren't comfy driving Texas fast, are now doing, putting student driver bumper stickers on older adults' cars, so people will be more patient. I say fit in with how business gets done here, and grow more courage! Clever ploy!

My sons friend's mom had her credit card stolen from her purse at Walmart, by an Indian dude. That culture, and Asians, NEVER beg on street corners, or do crime, with FEW exceptions! That is an AWESOME track record they should NEVER Americanize to change for the WORSE! Stay SMART!

Wokeness is NOT the same thing as being so bug-eyed awake that you hear alarm clocks behind every bush!

If the glove doesn't fit, you must acquit? If O.J. Did it, you must find guilty! It doesn't rhyme, but rhymes don't make claims true—just sound rhythmic! OJ Simpson Rhymes sound thought out, but it's NO proof of good thinking—just good rhyming! Duh 101

Some people worship rhymes, AS IF somethings has to be true if it rhymes! A dude said kids can't be what they can't see. That's not faith, or America, where you can be whatever you aspire to being! That's being a SHEEP, who walks by sight and only does what others do. LIMITED vision!

Hood updates: Lock your doors. Businesses can pressure wash painted brick exteriors. For any who complain they don't have generational wealth, BUY LIFE INSURANCE!

LISTEN as one "expert" says we (black people) didn't say OJ didn't kill two people, but that he was not guilty. Worshipping rhymes (if glove doesn't fit—acquit):

1. Blood SHRINKS leather, dried.
2. OJ maximized his fingers stretched out, so it would be tight! EVIL!!!

(11/7/21-2)

In American life, there are people who are:

1. Woke
2. So awake they're bug-eyed woke, seeing racial injustice behind every bush, and there are 3. Sleepers, or people who don't want to see any such issues. Which are you?

Government forcing citizens to affirmatively do things is limited by the Constitution to what's explicitly stated, "and to the states and the people." SCOTUS NEEDS to specifically define that quote, and decide if in an emergency, ONLY, are minimized mandates, for public safety legal?

HERE is the solution to Critical Race Theory in schools: Teach the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth about all of America's history in American History. Our own court room sworn oaths give you the formula! (11/9/21-2)

It's quiet in Kenosha because the people killed by Rittenhouse weren't black BLM protesters. IF he had killed an African-American, and been acquitted, summer 2020 tells us rioting would be highly likely! There, I said it! (11/19/21-2)

ECONOMIC JUSTICE?

TO THE PEOPLE who still believe the pure Capitalism THEORY taught in business school, that conservative economics is best for everyone, REMEMBER ALL THESE THINGS business has harmed labor's lives by doing to benefit mainly them:

Outsourcing, importing cheap labor, layoffs, opposing minimum wage or its increase, increased employee co-pays for health insurance, NO pensions, union busting, contract labor, cutting benefits to part-timers, AI, automation, robotics, ETC.

@cher_said: WHILE GOP SIT and PLAN HOW TO PICK OUR BONES CLEAN IF WE FAIL. HOW can all the things I just listed NOT make her come to this conclusion? Far righters want zero tax money to help any strugglers, so die if you can't compete!

"The rich would rather pay their lawyers than pay higher taxes." —While The Rest of Us Die, on @VICE God is for justice! Mic. 6:8; Levit. 19:15 NEITHER political party is for it, but for their own agendas!

RACE & THE HUMAN RACE

Let's address race relations in America. Proud Boys wearing masks and flak jackets attended a school board meeting JUST to be intimidating/threatening, in support of any parents speaking against critical race theory. THIS is modern American culture wars, folks!

Pandering to ANY race is seen as a direct threat to others, as public policy is seen as a zero sum game. You help the blacks, you hurt the whites! More black NFL coaches means less white ones! Addressing historic injustices against AAs is seen as a threat to the livelihoods of lesser skilled whites.

It's as EQUALLY evil to be a racist or supremacist if you are white as if you are black! KKK vs. BLM. Modern KKKs just present themselves in more traditional garb. The solution to a person seeing so much poverty among blacks, and wanting to remedy it (as it traces back to slavery) is equal opportunity and equal educational opportunities!

May the best man (or woman) win. America truly MUST require hiring the best qualified—not the best connected! I am for that becoming the law of the land! Businesses are HARMED when they hire lesser skilled people who have a friend or family member help get them a job, even though they often fit into the corporate culture well, if they already get along well with people inside the business.

Add in illegal aliens and outsourcing, and less skilled white people can EASILY and justifiably become interested in supremacy movements, as they see 'their' country (i.e., America founded by mainly whites) slipping away, demographically.

It may be actual hatred of black people, but is often likely due to economic pressures of their peers being favored over the color of their skin! Reverse discrimination pro black and brown.

Add in the more recent rages against Asians, and the country of origin is America vs. all others, among such racial extremists. You CANNOT overlook the valid needs of poorer or less educated whites, even as America becomes more diverse, and seeks to make up for our national sin of slavery!

You would think that wages would be HIGH, right now, with an absence of workers (I witnessed a Wendy's close down between the time I was in line, and came back one hour later, as the lines were too long), from lack of workers. Bring in immigrants!

If people are too scared of dying of covid, replace them with NON-Americans who will do work Americans want! My point is economics 101 says scarcity drives up prices. That's NOT happening in businesses, as they simply close shop, and forfeit profits, rather than pay more!

Economic theories are OFTEN debunked by real life! Reality is business ALWAYS does what's best for profits in the long term and even short term, and usually cares nothing about anything else. This is evil, folks.

Business school 101 promotes this myth, that business is ONLY in business for profits. That would literally mean you can defraud consumers, endanger them, lie to them in advertising, have a monopoly and work laborers to death, legally, because those actions profit businesses!

Again, reality trumps theory! We have laws, to curb business' excesses! And WHO alone benefits from this theory? Profit sharers—executives and investors only.

I've said MANY times one day a revolt among laborers and the poor will occur against the wealthy! Everything is done to serve them only. Global solutions exist, if all nations unite and none break ranks!

But even Bible prophecy shows that will not end the existence of having both poor and rich; it will come about by the force of global power in the hands of one man. Until then, there will probably always be some rogue nations wanting to cater to the rich's hoarding ways, to benefit their country!

The solution, short of a riot, is fair taxes for all, unions for wage bargaining power, an adjustable minimum wage (up when the economy's up, and vice versa) and society demanding rich people obey I Tim. 6:17-19.

Warren Buffett sleeps soundly at night, because he obeys God even more than is required. Sound sleep is NOT motivating to those who'd rather have three Cadillacs, than give a dime to charity! More pressure is needed to have others than just the rich have all of life's benefits.

And the solution is NOT Socialism, but bridled Capitalism, God's way! So be it economics, or race relations, the solutions are ALL found in God's word, the Bible, answered millennia ago, yet we 'wiser than those ancient dinosaurs' generation can't even come up with their wise solutions of old! Darwinian dog eat dog economics is contrary to the Bible, Creationists/Intelligent Design advocates!

Update

(11/15/21-2)

Let's take the KKK perspective on opposing reverse discrimination:

1. Slavery was decades ago, and no living soul was directly impacted.
2. Less educated whites suffer the same job insecurities as many blacks, since globalization. Outsourcing doesn't discriminate!
3. Favoritism is wrong.

One can be opposed to government actions to help poor black folk from hatred of black folk, OR from fear it lessens white opportunity. You can also believe slavery has zero impact on the descendants, who got a ~400 year economic holdback from whites. Your beliefs MUST be moral and factual!

The Dallas Mavs organization is exactly why white supremacist groups will rise (expectation/prediction)! INSTEAD of hiring the best qualified, they purposely chose percent's of blacks and women, that don't even reflect population percent's. Whites lose out on jobs with such initiatives!

If ANY violence erupts in Kenosha, cops should shoot rubber bullets IMMEDIATELY. If it continues or escalates, warn by megaphone, then shoot to kill, if it doesn't dissipate!

@KenoshaPolice PEACE and safety is priority 1, and innocents are NOT equal with guiltyies (businesses, homes, persons) (11/16/21-2)

WOKE OR BROKE?

(11/16/21-2)

Wokeness is morally OK, if it leads to helping poorer blacks do better for themselves. It is UNjust and not morally OK, when it infringes on any others' rights to a job, especially if any lesser qualified candidates ever move ahead of others, due to skin color.

IF centuries of slavery have ZERO effects on non-slave descendants, wokeness is not a moral issue, and Fox ratings are all that matter. IF you were given the choice of being white or black in America, and you choose the former, you might want to reconsider any privileges!

Asleepness ignores the plight of others, only focusing on one's own successes. Over wokeness supports Critical Race Theory. Wokeness simply means you'd visit a hood to see others' reality.

Update

(11/17/21-2)

Laura Ingraham bragged Fox News viewership/ratings PROVE people want/like life without talk of "wokeness." Wokeness has CERTAINLY been over-done! BLM riots, defund the police, constant showcasing of black American sports stars' opinions on the black experience, race activists in prominent court cases, football kneelings, etc.

MUCH talk, and now, much BAD actions! It is NEVER right to hire anyone or let them into college because of their skin color, or to try to match your headcount percents to any race's population percent! ONLY who is most qualified!

And giving MORE freebies to ANYONE, stolen from taxpayers, is also a BAD solution! THE solution has ALWAYS been ensuring every American has an EQUAL opportunity at success in life-period! NOT guaranteeing it, but making it available! MANY Americans think themselves "good" people if they are tax-paying and law-abiding.

That means they only pursue wealth, and NEVER do or have to do one thing or have one thought about anyone else in America's plight through life! And don't let government do that either! We are all already equal!

The kid brought up in the projects has equal opportunity as the kind raised with a silver spoon, because no HR person is forbidding hiring the former because of his skin color. This is equal opportunity, or if it isn't, life's not fair anyway. THIS IS the predominant subconscious belief system of many if not most white Americans!

Slavery was a LONG time ago, so all black people have had enough time to make up our 300-400 year economic head start! The fact that many of them live in rundown areas where we would never live isn't unequal opportunity, because they can hire on anywhere!

They're just lazy or dependent on Uncle Sam, or anti-education. Again, this is the attitude of many, never spoken (at least outside white company), if ever even realized. It's NOT that whites have better access to inroads, connections, shorter commutes to good jobs, easier lives growing up, or have role models, BOTH parents at home, no relative in jail, no gangs in the neighborhood, not much crime, or depressingly rundown neighborhoods.

I am NOT advocating pity, or UNjust help! I am saying what people WANT is NOT always what they NEED! You want a life absent any thought of the average black experience. You say that's your choice, but it's also your choice to sin with self-centeredness!

MANY TIMES I've challenged famous conservatives to just visit a hood or barrio for 1-5 days. JUST go there and observe! PROVE your belief they're just lazy and dependent on government to be true or false, for all or just some, or maybe even none. You'll never know until you go! And as I also always ask, ALL OTHER THINGS BEING EQUAL, would you rather be born white or black in America?

IF you are honest, your answer should teach you that ignoring the plight of many black people could raise animosity and resentment, over the decades, as YOU don't go there to make their lives better, or even to observe. Then you vote for government to do nothing to help, either. YET, you feel you are a good person. SEE the problem? Maybe not!?

AGAIN, the ONLY answer is equal educational opportunity for black kids, and employment opportunity IF they are equally qualified! Affirmative action, quotas, reparations, handouts—ALL these are unfair and evil solutions! Bit NO solutions, just keep working your job and caring none is also NO solution!

We pride ourselves if a church program feeds poorer blacks for Thanksgiving, or cleans up one alley! That's the MINORITY of whites even doing that! Solutions must be sustainable! Give a man a fish, you feed him for a day; teach a man to fish, you feed him for a lifetime! —Maimonides

There should NOT be permanent programs to help anyone! two years maximum! NO ONE should be incapable of providing food for their family all their lives! The mainstream media LOVES stories of helping the less fortunate! Help them be less less-fortunate! It's NOT something to be proud of, or to cling to as a lifelong badge of honor!

Gardens provide food. Charities, churches and civic service from all could fix what's broken, paint the 'little pink houses,' clean up the landscaping (instill a sense of pride). I've been to "the hood" over 15 times, the past two months! Garbage often isn't picked up by trash people.

But I have seen MUCH renovation of brand new houses (even pretty nice and modern styled ones) popping up smack dab in a rundown neighborhood! HOPE is arising, IMO! Be part of the solution! don't be an ostrich!

A LETTER TO BLACK AMERICA

(11/17/21-2)

We face the onslaught of two trial verdicts that could stir racial strife, once again—Rittenhouse and Arbury. Not all African-Americans think alike! I would never so presume. Not all sound, look, act, earn or desire the same things!

But for those among you who feel 'the man' is out to get you, the system is rigged, there is "systemic racism," YOU HAVE BEEN LIED TO! I am certain there are white people, maybe many, who hate black people in America. I don't know why, and it's rudely ironic they would hate people their skin color of people FORCED to come here!

You can't hate someone being here when your racial ancestors forced them to be here! Yet some do. They are morally WRONG! So were all who enslaved any black person, centuries ago! It's a HUGE stain on America's historic conscience! However, NO ONE living did that!

MAYBE their ancestors are alive, but NO ONE living enslaved any black person. That is why you will NEVER get a sympathetic or listening ear to wanting reparations paid for by any living taxpayer, or freebies paid by the same! The people who owe your race are DEAD!

What America owes you is an apology and an opportunity—an equal opportunity! I guarantee you with all my heart there is no organized secret collusion to put you down, economically, educationally, politically, grocery or banking or housing wise! Everything costs money, and U.S. businesses want to profit.

If they can't, enough, they don't open up shops. That leaves some of you in poor, destitute areas of town that lack some of those things, like grocery stores, good-paying nearby jobs, decent and affordable housing, the like. NO white person is wanting or forcing that situation.

I DON'T KNOW how your parents decided to live where those conditions exist! Likely, it was all they could afford. don't blame or be mad at them! Rise above those circumstances and do better for yourself! Education and hard work are how you do that!
I am one white person wanting your success.

NO ONE of any color wants to forfeit their career to let another person take their place, so hiring based on skin color is NOT a legitimate answer. You must be a great job candidate, just as I have to be! BUT you need an equal shot! Many U.S. Companies are very white.

DON'T let that intimidate you! You do NOT not fit in because you are black! If your personality and professional demeanor and dress fits into their culture, you only need to be as qualified as the next applicant! I have to fit into a company, and I'm white! Everyone has to fit into a company's culture!

DO NOT BELIEVE there is a judicial, police, or any other system stacked against you! YES, a handful of cops are bad apples. The system is NOT racist, but some individual cops could be, or are less than adequately trained in handling race-related conflicts!

Violence is NEVER the right answer! THE reason BLM race riots sprung up, 1.3 years ago, is zero investment in the success of the businesses ruined! Many black people believe all valuable assets in America are mainly owned by whites, so what's the harm in taking revenge on those assets?

Because those owners do nothing negative to you! Whoever does do anything negative to you should be held accountable! You RIGHTLY have bitterness when any black suspect is wrongly murdered, especially NOT by a fellow black person. But the majority of white Americans do not think black lives don't matter!

That is a MYTH, to keep you angry, to keep you following so-called leaders who preach that, usually to get you to vote for Democrats who promise you free things. NOTHING comes free. Someone always pays. And white taxpayers, and ALL taxpayers, for that matter, have NOT done you wrong!

ANY employer who secretly chose to overlook hiring you, because you are black—that person did you wrong! It's HARD to prove their true motivations, but we have laws and you can sue through the EEOC if you suspect such a situation. Your attitude must be conformed to reality, and that is that you can do anything you set your mind to achieving!

NO ONE can hold you back if you are committed! Not even your present, sometimes dire circumstances! And ANYONE who ever does you wrong, get them in trouble with the law! Thanks for your time. –
Average White American

WHITES ARE PRIVILEGED?

(11/18/21-2)

It is NOT racism, but history that many are clamoring against, where whites own so much and hold so many powerful positions in society. They did NOT achieve these gains from owning slaves, but hard work and academic excellence! Plus, America started with them as the majority!

You'd expect 'em to have the majority of those benefits. Moral issue arises IF any of 'em have insider good 'ol boys club that keeps it all in the family, in barring blacks from entry into that club, because of race, vs. because of lack of credentials to have those positions. NOT innately racism!

WHITE CHRISTMAS

WHITE CHRISTMAS. Let's address a perspective on American life that some (smaller percent, bigger numbers) share, regarding race. I do not, but I sympathize with and understand lots of it, and if anything they believe I ever agree with, I'll tell you. America was founded by 99+ percent whites.

It was settled and developed mainly by the same (slaves and others excepted, slavery being evil, wrong, unjust, etc.). American culture mainly stemmed from traditions white individuals created. This is NOT arrogance, but stating the obvious, and historic fact.

It does not mean whites are better, innately more creative or hard-working, smarter or genetically superior to anyone, but to say we are proud of the country ancestors built! SO proud, we know people the world over wish to come here! Our roots run deep! My own ancestors have been here for over seven generations.

When our values, our beliefs, NOT as whites, but original modern-day (vs native Americans) Americans, are attempted to be changed, challenged or overturned, we RIGHTLY take offense, be it democracy, Capitalism, our rights and freedoms, or whatever traditions we hold dear!

ALL this unrest and uprisings began with globalization! Other nations' citizens began coming here, or working our former American jobs (by then, 1990s, it was much more than whites here, and negatively affected), through outsourcing and immigration.

Suddenly, schools and colleges became MUCH more cut-throat competitive. Jobs were fewer and people were more, and more 'diverse.' Americans were lectured to be more accepting of diversity. Assimilation did NOT always occur, and wasn't mandated.

We started hearing languages foreign to us, and some who NEVE learned English. $70,000 union jobs with pensions went the way of the typewriter, for blue collar Americans (still, mainly white). We started learning that the majority in America would no longer be white by 2052, or so, from immigration—legal or illegal.

Our borders became a means for Democrats to allow in foreigners who would more likely vote for Socialism, as others wanted in on the richest nation's (till last week, when China surpassed us) goods, by hook or crook (mainly stealing freebies from taxpayers, by force of law). Even the smart, wealthy, or both imports got good U.S. jobs and dominated our school achievements.

You either believe America is better with the best and brightest, or you see any of them coming here as a threat to your own livelihood. Globalization was going to allow U.S. businesses to hire anyone, anywhere, so I'd rather the best and wealthiest be HERE! We're in global competition!

BUT, less good-paying jobs available to native-born Americans can stress out especially those lower on the totem pole (the high school graduates). Now we have black Americans digging up dirt from CENTURIES past in American history, and somehow trying to blame modern whites.

They'll riot, loot, commit arson, dominate the public narrative, for their "rights," and always angry and hateful of white Americans.

YOU CANNOT HELP BUT SEE HOW MODERN KKK TYPES HAVE ARISEN and gotten louder! Proud Boys, Oath Keepers, QAnon. ALL these societal phenomena have occurred the past 30 years, and few to none have been good for less educated white people's livelihood outlooks!

Even now, with BLM, JOBS are being sought to be filled based on race; NOT based on the best qualified and skills. I 100 percent do not oppose there being anger at this attack!

Update

(11/23/21-2)

I 100 percent support black Americans receiving equal opportunities and access to high-quality education. I do NOT support any violent or militaristic organizations, like BLM showed itself to be on the West Coast, summer 2020 (and elsewhere)! MLK > Malcolm X, BY FAR!!!

It's SO funny the black nationalists at Arbury trial say Karma is coming to white America, then say 'we aren't going to take it anymore.' Put two and two together! They don't believe in karma; they believe they are karma. Can't even get their own B.S. story straight! LOW IQs!

Gangs, drugs, robberies, car theft, violent bullying, arson, rape, pimping, prostitution, homelessness, vagrancy, vigilantism, dangerous driving, gun running, truancy and loitering: ALL these actions can get you to have more police interaction than normal people! Avoid them ALL!

DO YOU NEVER WANT ANY BLACK PERSON KILLED BY ANY COP? Never even come close to breaking any felony laws! I have ONLY been pulled over for speeding! They could NEVER have me as a person of interest for anything serious! We LOVE the blue!!!

I heard some TV comment that if America gets a cold, the black community gets the flu.

EVERY TIME anything negative happens (Covid, supply chain blockage, economy wanes), their activists are first in line to seek pity. Have self-respect and confidence; STOP the victim and race card games!

ANY black person who makes it in life, though education and hard work is proof to all others they have zero excuses for not doing so themselves. YES, innate IQs vary (like Ben Carson's achievement), but many examples exist of hard work paying off, even with lower IQs!

I live in a nice area of DFW. MANY black people have moved here, on their own merits and some through section 8. They PROVE you don't have to be angry over decades ago slavery, used as an excuse to live failed lives! Most of them fit in well, seem happy and have money. ALL—do the same!

There will be no race war in America! IF either side starts 1, I'm certain black nationalists would lose. Wiser never to so engage! Can't we all just get along? NO LIVING AMERICAN EVER OWNED ANY SLAVE. Grow up and get over bad things you never experienced—period! youtube.com Get Over It. Provided to YouTube by Universal Music GroupGet Over It · Eagles Hell Freezes Over® 1994 UMG Recordings, Inc. Released on: 1994-11-08Producer: Eagles Producer,

Were cops really used to corral wayward slaves, as some have said? Why would such a practice from centuries ago still affect any today? I don't even know the name of my great grandfather; much less his experience of life! Asking to learn answers!

I do NOT support white supremacy, but with the existence of Black Panthers, black nationalists, BLM and Judah Armed Forces, I 100 percent support the countering existence of the KKK, proud Boys and Oath Keepers! You can't let evil organizations run unabated or unchecked!

RACE IDIOSYNCRASIES

(12/4/21-2)

"Just the other day" (Billy Graham-ism) I wrote of a funny Tik Tok mocking people phobic Covid vaccines are harmful and people who think they're end-alls. A talented soul said 'no after-effects,' then stuttered very skillfully. He was NOT mocking stutterers, but many people laughed!

Comedians recently take heat for off color humor, like George carlin's often real insights on life. One does NOT have to be intending ridicule when they find ways to make others laugh, if with vs. at them! Humor is good medicine, like music! Then there are people who intend harm.

I've heard people say 'that's very white of you,' or she's 'ghetto.' Those statements, rather than comedic words, aren't intended for good. I will now detail differences I observe in races, and make some sincere comments and questions, no harm to be received, but advancing racial understanding.

Some differences irritate others; others are just like art—beauty in the eye of the beholder (subjective offense or enjoyment). We are often told blacks and whites are opposites, AS IF the two groups could never get along. Some traits of some whites probably irritate some blacks, and vice versa.

I have observed Asians, and find it interesting that so many of them are not fat, love veggies, park their shoes at the door, and sometimes don't choose to have homes full of "stuff." I have observed Indians, who seem to love curry powder, and I LOVE how some of them wear sandals year round, no matter the formal setting.

Casual me LOVES that, but not sure I could pull it off at church. They are also usually quite studious, and hard-working. Hispanics are hard-working, sometimes have huge families (~Catholic lack of contraception), often have amazingly wrinkle free face skin, even in old age, and the only trait I notice that bothers some is their speaking Spanish in front of whites and others who don't sprechen le Española.

But when it comes to the so-called opposite race, I have a few things I know annoy some whites:

From sincere curiosity, a desire to learn, and promote racial harmony, let me just address them:

1. WHY are very old boat cars (Cadi and Buick), well-polished and newly painted such an appeal?
2. WHY 26 inch silver wheel rims, sometimes with spikes or white walls?
3. Rap can irritate people who like lyrics and arranged/organized musical sounds.
4. WHY is swimming so often a challenge? Why so few in golf, tennis, race cars and snow skiing?
5. WHY is the word "strength" ever pronounced "strinth" or "ask" come out "axe"?
6. WHY does anyone ever hear—He be, she do, we is?
7. WHY are there so many absentee black fathers? That's SO harmful to the kids you chose to bring into this world!
8. WHY is there so much crime in poorer areas of town, including gangs and drugs?
9. WHY is Malcolm X considered anywhere equal to MLK?
10. WHY does anyone own a "hooptie," or a low rider?

THESE sincere questions answered would help many whites who are NOT racists. The racists have their answers, speaking for another group, so their opinions can usually be disregarded, "irregardless" (a Grammar joke many people suffer from).

I will be listening into a very black church, the next three weeks, to get a better understanding of our differences. I will report what I observe. I've been there seven times or so, and met with the pastor. IT IS WRONG that the human race allows such divisions, based on the percent of pigment!

CURRENT STATE RACE RELATIONS

IF you believe NO white privilege exists, ask yourself, HONESTLY, all things being equal, would you rather be born white or black in America?

You can't force anyone who dislikes or hates black people to change that evaluation, internally! THAT's the problem, with all this public woke talk and white shaming! If I were black, I'd quit worrying if all whites liked or respected me, and make myself the best job candidate I could be.

It is God's to label someone a racist. BUT, you do NOT know what's in their heart, and never can, for sure. Deeds may show such an attitude, or words, but making accusations doesn't mean one is correct! You can ruin careers with such free flowing labeling of white people you suspect!

Good things can be over-done, and become a bad thing! Talking about whites being racists and black rights has far exceeded a helpful dialogue! Now people are just venting from past evils or frustrations. DO YOUR JOB, and if anyone refuses you a job, phone the EEOC, and an NAACP attorney!

There's WAY too much talk about race in America, today! FEW white supremacists exist! NOT every issue has a race component! ALL THAT MATTERS is if any black person is ever denied a job because of their skin tone! EVERYTHING ELSE IS SECONDARY! America is NOT a majority racist nation.

White privilege ISN'T living a financially privileged life! It's the extra benefit of the doubt people get when in the demographic majority, or slightly easier time at life, from so many decision makers having ethos simpatico with you, subconsciously, due to commonality of skin tone.

I have ZERO "white guilt." WHY would I? I never enslaved anyone, nor did my ancestors, and whites are not all of one type! Believing majority brings some white privilege is NOT the same as white guilt. It's stating fact. Two separate issues: Guilt over slavery vs. majority benefits today!

The ultra-rich COULD end U.S. poverty, voluntarily, but self-sufficiency is the only sustainable solution—NOT handouts, voluntary or compulsory! EVERY adult NEEDS to make enough to pay all their bills. That need is no one else's to fill! YES, the rich could bridge the gap YOU made

The race card is so worn out, you can't even read its number or whether it's a heart, spade, club or diamond!

CHARLES BARKLEY WAS RIGHT—AGAIN!

“Let's say I'm at a white school. I ask how many kids want to play pro sports. Less than 10 percent raised their hand. They say they want to be doctors, lawyers, engineers. But when I speak at predominantly black schools' 90 percent of kids want to play sports.” —Charles Barkley; PROBLEM!

Let's stipulate the round mound of rebound had anecdotal statistics, but if he's anywhere near what most black schools have, as percents seeking to be pro sports players, there is a YUGE problem that taxpayers don't owe for fixing!

I've told my sons, for years, unless you're going to the NBA, high school sports is mainly for exercise/health, and learning teamwork and discipline; NOT something you're going to make money at.

And let's also be honest: When the majority white school students say they want to be doctors, lawyers and engineers, it's mainly because those professions are known to make you good money; it's NOT that they are necessarily interested in the work they'll aspire to.

Plus, a recent report said America is facing a doctor shortage by 2033. OBVIOUSLY, the apt percent of Chuck's 90 percent stat do NOT all make it to their stated career ambitions as doctors!

IF black students didn't idolize rappers and sports stars, but learned that business owners and hiring managers mainly look to grades, when you have no experience (as do colleges), they'd spend less time throwing balls and more time opening books!

It is TOTAL career suicide to spend years hoping to be a pro athlete, when MOST of those 90 percent Chuck referenced will NOT become that! It's like training for a marathon, when you're 500 lbs. Better to use skills you have, vs. pipe dream.

BE LIKE MARTIN: COLOR BLIND (MLK)

(3/24/21-2)

America MUST immediately return to the years we learned to be race neutral and color blind! SINCE George Floyd, it's become popular to make race an issue in everything! If BLM types want to push even harder, I predict some employers WON'T hire any blacks, and never admit their reasons!

It has ALWAYS been a MYTH, that if green people represent 18 percent of the U.S. population, if there are 35 percent of green people in prisons, there's something fishy systemically going on! Statistically, races have differed in their crime rates! Asians and Indians RARELY so engage, by comparison.

I predict a backlash by SOME (NOT all) whites, to people playing the race card, nearly every day, and ignoring the best qualified's credentials for judging a man by the color of his skin, vs. character, in businesses hiring even more whites, never stating the reason, to stay legal!

And with Duck-worthless demanding certain skin tones be represented in Bidens cabinet, race is now becoming a THREAT to people's livelihoods, as I have said many blue collar white have felt with over-immigration. Even the 60 Minutes report suggested more skin tones needed representing

If you're white in America, you MAY feel under attack, as almost all racism accusations head your groups way, and even VP's relative made some snide comment about the CO shooter being white (when he's a Syrian Muslim). People are using anecdotes vs. statistics, to justify comparing races!

Update

People sometimes don't like certain groups as a whole, because of the words or actions of individuals within those groups, or patterns/habits in a group that occur more frequently in that group than others.

We deal in reality, so I'm 'gonna state thought patterns (stereotypes) some people hold, that keep us divided, as a nation, and SEEK TO REBUT THEM WHEN THEY'RE UNTRUE, IRRELEVANT, OR SHOULD BE TOLERATED RATHER THAN HATED:

Nappy hair, pug nosed, dumb, lazy, criminals and thieves, always wanting government handout.

Smart, demure, skinny, nerdy, not into owning many products (hippies), love gadgets/devices/technology

Lazy, short, often have too many kids, sometimes here illegally and don't speak English, mi casa es tu casa

- Cut throat, low ball business people
- Oil camel jockey

- How; heap BIG Injun
- Arrogant supremacists, privileged, elitist/exclusive

"But though I was initially disappointed at being categorized as an extremist, as I continued to think about the matter I gradually gained a measure of satisfaction from the label. Was not Jesus an extremist for love ... Was not Amos an extremist for justice: 'Let justice roll down like waters and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.' ... And John Bunyan: 'I will stay in jail to the end of my days before I make a butchery of my conscience.' And Abraham Lincoln: 'This nation cannot survive half slave and half free.' And Thomas Jefferson: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal....' So the question is not whether we will be extremists, but what kind of extremists we will be. Will we be extremists for hate or for love? Will we be extremists for preservation of injustice or for the extension of justice? In that dramatic scene on Calvary's hill three men...were [all] crucified for the same crime—the crime of extremism. Two were extremists for immorality, and thus fell below their environment. The other, Jesus Christ, was an extremist for love, truth, and goodness, and thereby rose above his environment. Perhaps the South, the nation, and the world are in dire need of creative extremists." —Martin Luther King, Jr., "Letter from Birmingham Jail"

LIBERALS & RACE

(4/25/21-2)

HERE is what racism is to liberals: If you're not black or brown, you are a racist. If you show any resistance to freebies Socialism, you are a racist. If there's ever any rogue cop, who kills a black suspect, that proves their entire case claiming systemic racism! ODD "thinking!"

Let's be clear: Liberals despise whites being the majority in America. They want to hasten the date other groups will ascend to the majority, by population trends. It's ALL for voting power to institutionalize freebies off taxpayers/Socialism! Whites stole the wealth they earned!?

White liberals are NOT hypocrites in hating a generally wealthier white majority than blacks and browns, because their support of government freebies/handouts Socialism makes them NOT identify with values of Capitalist whites, in their mind! It's ALL about money confiscating from tax payers.

EVERY SINGLE BLACK American who pays taxes, and pays their own way in life, barely to excessively/richly, is proof positive evidence AGAINST liberal presuppositions that blacks are all poor, and all traced to slavery! Their beliefs fly in the face of reality and facts!

Liberals believe hoods, ghettos and barrios are the purposed plan and design devised by white people, to keep blacks and browns down. WE JUST WORK OUR JOBS, HARD! We hold zero secret meetings with such STUPIDLY-alleged designs! It's a red herring, and TOTAL B.S. argument! We work-period!

Your education and/or job skills make you either rich or poor, and your effort and quality of work. That is ALL! Your skin color RARELY if ever is used to disqualify you from a job, and you can file an EEOC claim if you ever proof that ever occurs! Hence, YOU are the problem, if healthy!

People move in and out of nice areas of town, ALL THE TIME! They do NOT all stay there forever, for generations! NO American currently living in poverty has any legal barriers to movin' on up and getting the heck out of there! You're NOT destined to live there forever or for generations.

It is NOT 'racism' to want to live near people of similar socio-economic achievements, and NOT wanting lower class people (of any color) moving in, and bringing down home values, propped up by section eight freebies! That's a natural human desire, to protect your assets' value! Smart!

Please, let us stop the RACIALIZATION of everyone and everything. We are all children of God, and therefore family in the truest sense, no matter our race or ethnicity. This is aloha: Love and respect for others. This is what our country and the world need.

RACIAL EXTREMES: KOMMON SENSE FOR THE KLAN

White supremacists in America: I don't know why you hate all blacks. You don't have to like everyone, but tolerate all people! I don't like all white people! Their pigment amount is an IRRATIONAL thing to hate. Words and deeds, or feared threats to your job would at least make some sense!

White supremacists in America: You are RIGHT to denounce government freebies! BUT, not all black Americans vote for or clamor for them! And others in other races USE them! It makes NO sense that white people brought blacks here, and now blame them for being here! Oxy-moronic irrationality!

It is NOT that a conservative black person is an Uncle Tom (kissing up to fit in with whites). They could sincerely believe in conservative beliefs! Conservative beliefs are NOT innately antithetical to the success of black people who work hard in America! It REWARDS them!

Increased government spending, and increased government freebies are THE KEY issues dividing America! With national debt WAY out of whack, it's irrational and evil to be seeking those two things! Race is a scapegoat!

Update: BLM's Slogan & Agenda

#AllLivesMatter 'Black lives matter' SHOULD worry less about a catchy phrase, and be renamed, don't kill nonthreatening blacks! VERY FEW Americans deny black lives matter! The issue is stopping the killing of any and all criminal suspects not imminently endangering any cops' life! DUH. (6/2/20)

African-American lives have value, and that value is EQUAL with all other human beings! GOD values them, and Christians do too! The ONLY people who think blacks aren't fully human, but are to be devalued as lesser/second class, are racists and white supremacists, which we condemn! (6/2/20)

One female was physically assaulted for saying "all lives matter." NO white person I know needs, wants or cares one iota about anyone else thinking we matter, because we know we do, because we have healthy self-esteem. That's what people insecure about needing constant validation NEED! (6/3/20)

If God says ALL humans were created in His image, all lives matter! Gen. 1:27 Black lives have always mattered, and no law-abiding citizen of any color is under attack from any cop of any color. (6/30/20)

Coach K naively says saying "BLM" ISN'T political, then demands people say it. I wouldn't mouth words anyone said I had to, as proof of my attitude, including not saying "white lives matter" out loud, as it's childish, immature and an irrational command asked of grown adults. ALL lives matter! (6/28/20)

HERE's the problem with BLM and why I don't say it spelled out: We passed a mini protest of theirs. My son had All Lives Matter poster in the car, raised it, and a black gal gave us the finger, while a white gal and I gave each other a peace sign. It is a fascist demand to parrot their organizations'

GOP DIVISION (I)

Political conservatives fear centrists, or anyone not in their bunch want more tax money, when cons ALWAYS want to pay less, even if not enough to fund existing government commitments! They're the LEAST helpful to anyone else, financially, voluntarily vs. by force! Love of money and selfishness idols.

The division in the GOP is all about tax dollars! Cons want ZERO wealth redistribution, while centrists are OK with some, temporarily, if it will get all poor people on their feet, tokenly repaid by compulsory civic service. WHICH is more humane? DUH.

And IF all poor who are able to work were equipped for the best job they could land, any temporary government help to so equip them would help the economy and the U.S. Treasury, vs. our freebies/handout system of Welfare today, or cons wanting them to just beg for a living. No taxes come into our coffers from beggars!

Update

I heard an EXCELLENT talk on disciple requirements. Lordshippers confuse that with salvation calls. This sermon did not. Jesus cautioned people NOT to go forward with involvement if you weren't willing to pay the price. He NOWHERE and never said go to Hell if you won't pay the price for salvation! It's FREE.

So HOW do you get commitment from people who only decided to receive the free gift? Do what the Bible shows Christians did. Educate converts/follow-up. The epistles tell many positive truths about salvation, before calling for ethical application. It's a consistent pattern!

And the theological basis for commitment is BECAUSE you're saved, out of gratitude, be fully committed! When you learn all God did for you, you can't help but think 'I must live for Him if He did all that for me!' Not, 'I have to do so in order to get to Heaven—that's works.

I feel for the people in the room, tonight, who surrendered to full-time work, likely evangelism or missionaries, if they have had a divorce. God never opened any doors, even before that, for funding. It should NEVER be that those willing to evangelize have the hard time getting paid, whereas pastors who don't evangelize much get guaranteed salaries. That's OPPOSITE a commitment to the Great Commission! Backwards!

Apart from my denomination, you usually have to raise your own support, from friends and family. Some Bible churches help a portion to sponsor/partial funding. WHY muzzle the ox willing to thresh? That PROVES evangelism is LOW in our priorities! Sermons are NOT!

Lest anyone think I agree with everything Leonard Ravenhill said, I strongly disagree with him on only a few matters; namely his belief evangelism was being made too easy by faith alone, and his assertion that people claim 'legalism' anytime they don't like a commandment.

Part of legalism is taking all commands as required to be obeyed, right now, or one is in willful sin. He didn't seem to understand grace in experience, excellently, or in salvation. Other than that, I found the study to be quite refreshing, and to confirm many things we say here. I guess we have more than Texas in common.

People, apparently, have a hard time understanding how a totally free gift, with no strings attached that you can't work for can turn into a person being totally committed to God, if that's not required to receive the gift. It's precisely because it's that free, that you do so, in gratitude, when experienced.

And people seem to have a hard time understanding that even Christians can't obey every command, right now, or we'd be perfect, but that imperfection doesn't mean one is willfully sinning (or a hypocrite), or needs to ask forgiveness, as we're under grace, all sins having been forgiven, and we walk by a faith standard that's unique to each of us, and direct from God, through the Scriptures.

If the Christian life were just obeying all commandments, that would be death, as the Law kills, and we're incapable, even through Christ, and ours is not a rule book religion, but a relationship. How can folk miss this, unless they don't read the word?

Rom. 7 is one of the clearest passages that no man can obey God on his own, even a Christian in the flesh. The more you try to obey Him, the worse you get. You have to rely on Him living through you, and that burden is light. All commands, or the Law, is the heaviest burden known to man—moral perfection!

That DOESN'T mean we're not submitted to God, and willing to do whatever in Scripture He asks us to. But it's His subjective convicting that empowers our/that obedience. Obedience to laws, absent His Spirit's leading, is biblically called 'dead works.' Paul could have been excellent at them (Phil. 3), but DIDN'T live that way, in Christ!

People who don't know what faith is simply choose commandments to try to obey. God is not needed. That's NOT relationship. It also fails. You're nothing without God, and can do nothing, and nothing good dwells within you, even as a Christian, except Christ in you, the hope of glory. Rely on Him (Gal. 2:20; I Cor. 15:10)

GOP HONESTY

(1/10/22-2)

Does it help the other party to tell the negative truth about people in your party? I believe it engenders trust from MORE voters, to tell the objective truth, rather than just preaching to the choir! That's what every career politician does-just caters to their own. The GOP needs a BIGger tent!

The GOP has to learn what within their platform attracts undecided and independents! JUST catering to the base, or uniting the two wings is not enough. With demographic changes, and man's natural laziness, freebies are a draw to the sin nature! The GOP MUST defeat Socialism, or secede!

GOP COMMON GROUND

I think this NEEDS to be said, at this time, because the Dems are UNITED in clamping down on their far left extreme wing, for a victory for their left wing's Socialism: The GOP needs unity, to defeat Socialism, without abandoning their obvious wing differences!

I certainly will never bow to the evils of the far right, but what unites us exceeds what divides us. We, literally have differences on issues, even as we have agreement on those same views; the far right just takes them further to the extreme, which is WRONG.

That having been said, and never changing (even if they do, or never do), our agreement is on these more general positions: Greatest economy, national defense, law and order, controlled borders, NO Socialism, no higher taxes, wanting less abortions, pro religion and free speech and, hopefully, a love for Reagan.

UNITY does NOT require agreement on all details, or even liking the other; just liking them more than Dems, especially the lefty ones! I have as much in common with conservative Dems as far right GOP's, but NOT from ANY willingness to fund any new freebies, but from their reasonableness and interest in morality, as EVERY Christian SHOULD value.

But uniting with them for a third party isn't as likely this ground, as may be needed in the future, though I am open to it if far right evils prevail. The point is we can unite for victory, holding our noses at what we don't share in common.

The far right has ZERO sound, rational or moral reasons to hate we centrists, even if we see some good in both sides and some policies Dems may propose (neither party is perfect). The all-or-nothing, win or lose attitude is intolerable, but for a 2022 win, till better ways are explained, unity for victory is essential, and I just detailed exact policies we can all agree with.

I truly believe the far right must repent, before God, but that belief emotionally offends non-Christians in that group. I'd say it no matter what party you're in!

Life (and especially eternity) is MUCH greater than temporal politics! You NEED intelligence and integrity, and that's NOT a losing proposal. You, LITERALLY, are facing Hell, and that problem is much more important to me than if my words make you happy! You need to be right with God; not with me!

GOP ON VOTING

STAVING OFF SECESSION. Chuck Schumer proposes an election day national holiday and universal mail-in balloting. What's the purpose of all these voting laws? Nearly 24 states passed some, last year, after all. Let's explain/analyze the answer, exactly:

Making voting as easy as sneezing favors Democrats, as it's effort free, so more people will vote, and voting for free things is more of an appeal than working for those things! YES, fraud is likelier, with zero verification the one filling out a mail-in ballot is qualified to vote, but Dems' aim, as always, is MORE Socialism, any way they can swing it!

Demographic changes and immigration policies the past 20-30 years have also favored poorer voters, which, along with population trends, also bodes poorer for the white majority staying a majority! This is all for Socialism! Take from the haves and give to the have nots. Period.

Now Schumer and company want to restrict the party out of powers ability to gum up the works (filibuster, et al), so they can shove through Socialism! WHO is it harder on, to spend time in long lines to vote?

People who can ill-afford the time away from work, not getting paid! And when ballot box locations shrink, or move. WHO is the least likely to keep up with that information? The less bright, lower IQ'd crowd.

If were trying to keep our country together, and not break into two, these measures are NOT the way forward, as Socialism will be the death knell to our great democracy! The GOP, of necessity, has to have a greater appeal than just work and work harder, to make the masses' lives better, even as the rich easily get richer! Far right conservatism is a limited audience.

It's HUMAN NATURE: Getting a gift, rather than working for a paycheck, is the easier road of least resistance! And even as crazy uncle Bernie calculated, even if one is taxed a little more, but gets a lot more, voting for that makes financial sense. Dems do EVERYTHING for Socialism!

I DON'T THINK the GOP has YET comprehended when they pass laws that are biased, it only engenders the Dems to pass laws to the opposite effect, sometimes national vs. local, like state laws on voter rights, and now national ones proposed, while they have power. Then GOP reverse, later!

Whites (enslaved blacks), the rich (pay low wages, and "make too much"), could never be so much that keeping a lucrative D.C. job isn't worth that extra cost! The ONLY people making no sense of this grifting is non-politician Dems with money! But they're taught (especially in MSM) it's being a good person to "help" the poor with tangible/money gifts.

Because it's hard to justify as fair stealing from hard workers, to alone fund unworked for freebies, Dems have to paint the following groups as evil, so recipient constituents feel they deserve to pay that:

Males (females paid less, on average), older folk (who own businesses, and aren't low man on the experience totem pole) and Christians (who support political conservatism over liberalism/Socialism/freebies, from their Protestant work ethic). And Democrat politicians calculate if their taxes get raised, it could never be so much that keeping a lucrative D.C. job isn't worth that extra cost!

The ONLY people making no sense of this grifting is non-politician Dems with money! But they're taught (especially in the mainstream media) it's being a good person to "help" the poor with tangible/money gifts.

Add to that public education used to reinforce teaching Americans "stole" land from Mexico and American Indians, and you have the Dem constituency: Black, brown, native Americans, women, youth and LGBTQ.

When you add in teachings on America colonizing, you engender global disdain among poorer folk the Dems want to come here, legally or not, to get in on this systemic revenge on taxpayers. America being the most powerful and rich nation is seen as a reason to force giving back, through increased freebies and taxes, as if that money was stolen from the world!

Even critical race theory. ALL these things are aimed at U.S. taxpayers in the constituency I mentioned: white, Christian, rich, male, older (and all who come here just to make their own way, like Asians and Indians, who don't seek handouts). This is modern politics, beyond all the surfacy window dressing issues!

Biden offered the biggest bribe ever mentioned by any U.S. politician ("free" healthcare, daycare, college, home down payment, student debt relief, fam leave; reparations?), and now D.C. Dems have to show they're fighting to give people things, lest they lose those cushy jobs.

The Covid relief package had much pork, as does Build Back Better. The ONLY people who care about paying for things are people who pay for the things, and their appeal to the masses is harder than saying "vote for me and I'll give you things."

NEEDS BIG tent, through a platform that goes beyond mainly those who are doing great, as the percent who'd take freebies, if they'd lose them if they didn't, is a large and growing populous! Economic opportunity has to go well beyond mere rhetoric, for the GOP to win in the long term! Freebies are easier!

Requiring ID verification is NOT making voting harder for minorities, but preventing fraud. YES, it's one step more than mere voting, but how else could anyone know you are who you claim to be? And if you're not, you're committing voting fraud (a crime). This MUST BE REQUIRED OF ALL everywhere.

Speaking of EVIL politics, labeling a criminal "undocumented," rather than "illegal alien," is to make them appear less than they are—criminals. The documents they don't have are the proof they have that they deserve to be here, by following our laws! They are illegally here!

And some TV show shows "The Cleaning Lady" say I did what I had to to give my son a better life, but that's not who I am, meaning she BROKE OUR LAW, trespassed, and forced herself here against our laws, for a motive EVERYONE on earth has, but not everyone can come here! WE decide!

Everyone with kids needs daycare; everyone wants the American Dream (home ownership); everyone smart enough wants to go to college. Dems capitalize on these universal desires to say government (AKA ONLY taxpayers) will provide them for you, free of charge for all who can't afford them!

The GOP could put an absolute END to cries for freebies, if they would take a case through the system to the Supreme Court, to get a ruling on whether freebies/wealth redistribution is unConstitutional, as their belief system affirms. Get a high Court ruling, once and for all!

ITS NOT FAIR for ANY voting rights laws to favor or disfavor any voting group! It must be equally hard-or easy-for all! Proven identity, zero fraud, not making it as unserious and easier than throwing away a piece of trash. Should have left well enough alone!

Shorter voting hours and days favor GOP, as with less voting venues, more qualifications (registration and ID proof). Making it easy for dead, criminal and illegals to vote favors Dems. Those able to waste 2-3 hours standing in line aren't burdened. Make nights and weekend voting available?

Take the 10th Amendment's specific interpretation to SCOTUS, ASAP! Is Socialism (more taxpayer-funded freebies) illegal in America? @GOP @RNC @SenateGOP @HouseGOP

Issue: If it's not explicitly enumerated, can voters vote for it anyway?

Forbes would do America a BIG favor to end its list of the world's richest! Egos strive to retain status. At the same time, that list gives a targeted list of people the public should be clamoring to ensure they generously give back-in obedience to God! I Tim. 6:17-19 ALL on the list!

YOU KNOW, full well, the voter's rights ruse is an attempt to get MORE easy votes for Socialism (more taxpayer-funded freebies)! @SenatorCollins Need I say more? Susan Collins

The GOP's future hope lies in getting more people paying taxes, by having jobs good enough to merit that! PERIOD. The more people who DON'T pay much if any are in America, the more votes are potentially there for Socialism. Capitalism has to benefit more Americans. PERIOD! @rnc @gop

If mainly the rich get richer, and the rest remain stagnant, there goes Capitalism in America, and the GOP's future! And the more businesses employ robots to replace people, one day government will be the only source of funding for all who don't own the robots! UBI or Zuckerberg's $30K/year proposal.

As I said before, EVERYTHING is aimed at Socialism!!! Any and all angles attempted.

Bob Dylan used to be a Christian. That statement is irrational, and untrue! He either never was one (but claimed to be), or still is one! Praying for my apostate brother. @bobdylan

Pass a law that if you pay zero in taxes, you cannot vote for government to spend money on freebies. THEN you may get some voting rights laws passed! @POTUS @JoeBiden

Filibuster changes are to pass Socialism freebies. Voter's rights laws are to pass Socialism freebies.

EVERY action the Dems have undertaken since Bidens inauguration have been to pass Socialism freebies! Taxpayer revolt is in order. Secede as a last resort! Texas first!

The GOP, merely as a PR/publicity stunt, should offer legislation for America's poor to give back to America's rich, just to be fair!

It's literally NOT what needs to occur, but interject the concept of justice in their continual attempts to drain the rich-few others-for freebies

EVERY RED and PURPLE STATE needs to pass a law that no future federal freebies will be allowed or disseminated in their state. Ban any new handout programs, by state law. THAT's one way you get the 10th Amendment's interpretation to SCOTUS! @GregAbbott_TX @GovAbbott Like voter rights!

A vote, now days, either means you want something from someone else, or you want what you earned to remain with yourself. PERIOD.

GOP VS. SOCIALISM

(1/14/22-2)

Good-paying jobs are anathema to business, except for elites and execs! EVERYTHING THEY DO is to undercut the wages of workers! If one earns too much, especially as they age, they replace them with youth, too inexperienced (or stupid?) to see they're offering them peanuts for what used to pay well.

A MORAL revolution in biz is needed, but NOT expected, where employees are again family, so big boss cares about them, and their being able to feed their family. As it is, mergings, stock prices and bonuses are their main or only focus, which screws the working class! It's evil, and may God judge that horrific system!

Wall Street treated like gods; the rich alone get significantly richer off their money doing the work, taxed or tax avoidanced, buying politicians, hiding assets, living it up while their business' profit off the back of those barely able to earn a living wage.

EVER SINCE globalization and outsourcing, THIS has been reality for the average Joe, and NOT even in a pandemic with supply chain issues and lacking personnel to hire have the opportunities risen, economically! Too many people in America for a seller's market to ever return to labor!

And if you can't (or don't often) force business' hand, through strikes, slowdowns and walkouts, Socialism is the only other way to get needed funds into the hands of the needy. It OUGHT not be from taxpayers, but business, and I 100 percent support that, if they'll never repent! Shocker? Don't care.

It's better than a Civil War, and even if business types secede, state by state, violence may erupt, as they're not going anywhere, physically. YES I am predicting a civil war, after secession, after status quo continues, if repentance never occurs, or if Socialism prevails.

Revival will NOT save America, at this point! I'm not even sure I care to spend my time praying for it! God's people refuse the four steps, because status quo Churchianity is preferred in Laodicea. So, Annie get your gun. It's troubling times ahead, IMO!

ACTUALLY, I believe what I just predicted IS the long-awaited judgment the Lord informed me would come, in this order:

1. NO major repentance
 2. Socialism
 3. Secession
 4. "Civil" (2-state) War thereafter
- Then, the Rapture?

If you don't want Socialism, make more paths for non-executives and investors to get good pay. PERIOD! EVERYTHING business has done since the 80s has been to screw the little guy!

Automation, AI/robotics, layoffs, part time contract work (to avoid benefits), fighting minimum wage, favoring cheap foreign labor, outsourcing, hiring youth to replace the experienced, self-service (no customer service-"it's on our website"), rewarding execs who harm the majority's income (manufactures stock increases). I could go on. Socialism is coming, IMO. I'll be a Dem, then!

The RIGHT kind of U.S. Socialism is when those irresponsible for its need pay all the freight! Taxpayers who aren't business owners or hiring managers are NOT in that group! I expect to be forced to change parties in the not so distant future, as biz and the rich WONT repent, IMO! DO SO!

Unionize, strike, walkout, work slowdowns. Those are relics of an earlier time. They ONLY helped people at specific plants. Now youth and the non-rich seek national answers that help everyone non-rich! That's through government Socialism. Higher minimum wage is the ONLY valid push; NOT freebies.

Perhaps required profit-sharing, as that is ONLY fair! EVERYTHING must be based in justice! Freebies taxpayers fund aren't fair. Those two solutions ARE! A level playing field of offer and acceptance individual wage negotiations, and LIMITING the labor pool till it is fair to both sides!

Limiting outsourcing MUST occur; not banning it entirely. "America first" HAS to care more about Americans than what's best for U.S. business' bottom lines alone! I am ready for this transition, today, but I'm often ahead of the curve. I'll be patient, in when the Dem switch is made!

JUSTICE demands this outcome, if nothing free-willedly changes among business executives! The masses will NOT endure more abuse, as the elites ignore their plight! South Africa PROVED that! You can only run and hide so far behind your gated communities. Walls can be scaled! Change or face it!

To reiterate, I am 100 percent against all taxpayer funded freebies. I am FOR labor doing everything in their power to secure a level playing field! And I'm for a fair minimum wage, voluntary profit sharing and limiting the number of people living in America. Employment MUST be fair; not just favor the rich and business owners and Wall Street!

God Himself says the rich aren't to be favored! Levit. 19:15 I do NOT speak alone! Anyone FOR injustice is evil, and doesn't want justice, because they benefit off injustice! I'm warning you a civil war is near imminent, if U.S. business won't change!

I guess I'm not alone in this conclusion (though I haven't read this, yet):
"America Is Falling Apart at the Seams" by David Brooks via NYT <https://ift.tt/3FvWHrX>

If the GOP doesn't expand its policies to benefit more people, Socialism WILL take hold/root. The masses aren't stupid. They know when mainly the rich benefit from America's free market system, and God's not 'gonna miraculously change it. They'll try, if you don't fix it!

Update

(1/16/22-2)

EXtremists seem to be INCapable of understanding this FACT; You fight and fight to force your views on everyone else, but you will NOT be in power forever, which invariably means many if not most of your gains will be REVERSED. That ends up being wasteful futility, vs. permanent solutions.

IF a super majority of Americans agree to Socialism, it will be difficult to stop. GOP MUST learn that our economy has to produce contented workers, with good opportunities, who pay taxes (and let in few to none who don't meet that criteria). IF THE majority want freebies, THE GOP's in trouble.

Democrat's power requires and demands poverty continuing! If people earned enough to not feel a need to beg government to steal from taxpayers, Dems would have NO power! GOP's should work to that end, at least for a super majority! Does ANYONE strategize this way? They NEED to!

The GOP has to wake up to the fact that being ONLY pro-business will backfire! Humaneness has to enter business, because 80 hour weeks with no benefits IS an economically good decision if profits alone matter! They don't! That's unjust, as well, favoring rich. (1/18/22-2)

GOP BEATING SOCIALISM

(1/27/22-2)

I speak a lot against Socialism and pure conservatism, but the former isn't as in-depth, because they only have a few problems, which are HUGE! Mainly taxpayers funding freebies. We are UNlikely to upend gay marriage, and abortions being presently fought over at SCOTUS. Handouts are.

THE issue. HOW do you convince people who want more stuff they shouldn't vote for more ('free') stuff? Morals would argue you don't, but many Americans have zero concern for morals, if self gets blessed not caring about morals!

I'm not even sure you CAN give a person an argument against freebies, as work harder and smarter and get more education, skills, or both are NOT what they want to hear, but the easy way out! The GOP MUST expand their tent to EVERYONE who pays taxes, and get more people in America earning enough to have to do so (pay taxes)!

I mean this as literal as a heart attack: Civil war or secession will SOON be our only choices, and this great U.S. of A will come to an end, in the form we now know it. The GOP would be negligent if they didn't find a case to fast-track to SCOTUS to decide if wealth endless redistribution is un-Constitutional.

There are MANY stupid people in the U.S.! A wise man from many generations ago understood the problem better than many today-Aristotle. Paraphrased: When the majority learns they can vote for things from the public dole, democracy is finished, and the poor always out-number the rich.

GOP members: PLEASE hear me out! "Get a j-o-b" vs. vote for free healthcare, daycare, college, student loan forgiveness, home down payment and ~reparations, and tax only the richest 40 families more is what we are facing as our two offers to America! MOST people earn $56K or less.

The total of all the free things Bernie/AOC types 'wanna give those who will ONLY vote Dem has to almost reach that amount, and far more!

College: $10,560 state school average daycare: $9,324 in Texas, per year.

Down payment: Average of six percent of a home's value.

Healthcare average: $456/month per person, or $1,152/month per family.

Student loans: $17,000 average.

Reparations? $12 trillion total average price tag.

The GOP needs to wake up from being Rumpelstiltskin, and get thicker skin, to say enough is enough! Dem politicians have NO morals/scruples, keeping cushy jobs by spending taxpayer money! GO TO SCOTUS and IF the GOP gains seats in mid-terms, they MUST pass a bill that outlaws any further freebies!

I have zero problem if D.C. politicians want this debate to turn to war or secession, as I know which side I would fight on (the South, taxpayers, GOP). It's irrational and immoral to let that occur! GOP: You CANNOT win the battle of social media trending terms!

If the MSM uses hashtag views to create their news, you can never win with them, either! The left lean among youth and poorer people is unassailable.

If YOU, GOP, do NOT start creating jobs that pay decent and give people hope for their future, and especially if you continue on the road of pure conservatism, you will rile up the dummies, but you will lose your party and most elections, as a result.

You NEED a BIGger tent! Old, rich, white male WASPS are a dying breed! I is 1. I'm aging. Get better strategists!

GOP SPLIT (PART I)

(1/27/21-2)

The Democrats WANT the Republican party to split, so they'll win for longer! I want it reformed, returned to its former values, or split long enough to rid ourselves of the stupid and sinful scum which are tRUMP cultists!

The GOP isn't going to convict CHUMP, because he's their hope for 2024, so far! It really is that simple! Party over country. Power over morality.

tRUMP's NOT going to start Patriot party, but run as GOP in 2024. The GOP loves power too much to split! Therefore, I'm willing to help the Dems defeat CHUMP, any way I can, to regain the soul of the GOP out of the grasp of a cult leader! IF Biden goes Socialist, I'll fight him too!

I've been lifelong GOP. I feel like an Independent, as GOP has gone whacko! I don't care the label, I'll fight to the death to defeat freebies, and tRUMP. 45's policies are mainly mine, as he STOLE them from me. Which party in 2024 is an open question for two years! Circumstances decide!

If Biden passes freebies, I'll unite with even Trumpsters to defeat him in 2024. If Biden doesn't pass freebies, I'll work with him to defeat Trump in 2024. I'll run for whichever party achieves my goals for 2024—NO freebies and NO Trump. Only good policies he STOLE from me!

Winning is NOT my expectation for 2024, but getting our better ideas out, and defeating Socialism and Trump. The ideas WILL win, one day, but aren't my number one priority! I'm running for three cycles, then opting for secession, if D.C. doesn't get fixed and cleaned up before then! I'm GOP registered.

IF the GOP were as she was from Reagan to Bush 2, I'd have NO PROBLEM intensely working for her victories! Until she repent, I'll only work with her for victories if the other side advocates freebies/Socialism. I have NO problem working with Dems who are NOT anti-business, or pro handouts!

As long as it takes, I will NEVER support Trumpian cultism, sin and stupidity, nor freebies Socialism! There are TWO enemies to America—NOT just one or the other! If people can't bifurcate their thinking, to identify whats killing our country, God help them, as they'll get swallowed!

#NeverTrump is anti-Socialism! We don't want to help Dems who are FOR freebies! We are the ONLY GOP's who stayed loyal to claimed values! It's the Trump cultists who have ruined the brand. We may be orphans, but we are faithful to God, morality and thinking, as the GOP USED to be!

My use of #NeverTrump applies to the man—not the policies! I even voted all GOP's in 2020, to thwart Biden's promised Socialism! The GOP is much bigger than a sin-filled stupid dude, but deceived followers can see past their nose! Stupidity and sinfulness will be GOP's demise! Two S's.

To defeat the man, tRUMP, I'd even become a temporary Democrat. To defeat Socialism, I'll remain a GOP. Until a centrist third party arises, you pick your battles. I have picked 2, as there's NO OTHER WAY for ANY Christian who actually heeds their conscience! Many don't; hence, no problem

RINOs SHOULD abstain from voting. I can't say they should ever vote Democrat! I wasn't willing to go that far, but a few were. You have to remember many GOP's are SCARED of the evil one, as he is vindictive, so they are sheepishly silent. That's NOT agreement with, or support of him!

RINOs are the real GOP's! I accept the term only because it's popular. WE are the Reaganites, and traditional cons! We are NOT the crazies, conspiracy nuts who oppose facts, are stupid or worship sin. We hold standard conservative views, consistently, and aren't a cult of personality!

GOP USED to be for thinking over feelings, and claim to be the party of religion. Whats below is NEITHER of those two values! We who are faithful are still for small government, low taxes, strong economy and military, controlled borders, pro-gun, religion, free speech and law and order! "RINOs?"

This RINO will ram his horn up your wazoo, if you accuse centrists of being unfaithful to the GOP brand! It's the Trumpster cult that has abandoned all decency and intelligence, for a cult guru, because sin to win IS their motto, in practice. Christians abandon God to be with them!

Freebies are EASILY secured by working and shopping hard and smart! They're IMMoral, stolen from taxpayers. If Biden advances them, I am willing to take up arms, if necessary, but before then, secede! They aren't necessary or fair! No justice, no peace! Handouts are evil, medium-term+!

You have four groups, in politics, mainly differentiated by how much money they're willing for taxpayers to fork out. Liberals, Centrist Dems, Centrist GOP's, and conservatives. I oppose ALL freebies, but am NOT a Trumpian conservative, as morals and thinking matter to me. It USED to, to GOP's.

The difference between traditional and Trumpian GOP's is the latter will use violence, believe lies, separate from RINOs, support white supremacy and conspiracy theories, defy God, live on emotion, hate all Dems, and believe they're right by so doing! Traditionalist GOP's will NOT!

Anyone who values a fighter over a uniter to common sense only wants gridlock or civil war! Gridlock is a waste of taxpayer money! Getting along with Dems on some issues is NEVER supporting the feds spending more taxpayer dollars! That's where Trumpsters can be SO stupid! Anal low IQ.

The Democrats are smart enough to have silenced AOC, Bernie and Pocahontas (extremist wing)! The PROBLEM is they're silent, because some behind-the-scenes agreement has been reached to push Socialism, at the right time, either by Biden, or the VP, later! Radicals have been appeased.

DIVISION IN THE GOP

(2/22/22-2)

Where far righters will not budge, thus making them enemies of the state:

1. Zero safety net is their ideal
2. Taxes too low to pay America's bills
3. 'Greed is good' is actually their belief
4. White supremacy
5. Absolutists/zero nuance
6. Morals and logic are spurned

I'll keep it at SIX!

I will NEVER be a Socialist, be FOR freebies, cheer perverted or deviant sex, embrace abortion lovers, BUT, to defeat CHUMP, I will join forces with them, as a lifelong GOP. I am NOT joining their party, but joining forces to defeat EVIL 45, and company! A centrist third party is coming!

Choose you THIS day what values you serve: Are you in a Trump cult, or are you NOT? Vote accordingly! House Republicans

Update: The Overlap of the Two Sides of the GOP

(2/25/22-2)

I feel the need to explain this in more detail:

Don Huffines (TX) has a GOOD TV ad, that's to the point, detailed, and black and white. Let's go over its exact positions, to differentiate these two groups. Its conclusion I do NOT agree with, as Abbott is a much more sensible and reasonable, and less extreme man.

BUT, on policies, I agree with the ad in many ways! Unfortunately, I can't find that ad on Google, so must go from memory:

He is FOR controlled borders. The problem is he thinks a wall is the answer, he calls illegals "invaders" (guns or force would be needed for that term, like in Ukraine), he wants them all deported (as do I, if they're freshly minted, here-NOT those here five years⁺, who have jobs Americans don't want, and pay taxes, with fines for their breach).

He is against CRT. He's pro-life. He opposes trans surgery among children (calling it mutilation). He doesn't like drag queens flaunted in society. No problem with those values.

He claims Governor Abbott is not a real Republican. FALSE/lie! This far right ilk thinks their party is ONLY the extremists! It NEVER has been.

His STUPID position is no property tax. It's good he says no Texas income tax. I guess he wants a large sales tax increase? Radical change.

He may be for our heartbeat law, but he likely goes beyond that!

He's pro NRA, which ALWAYS means there can be zero regulations to make us safer, like proof you can use a gun, store it safely, register its serial number (so cops can trace crime weapons to actual owners), or red flag laws never abused.

That's an un-nuanced, and therefore STUPID/extreme position! Let crazy people and criminals and babies have guns? Ridiculous!

On his website, he's for term limits. I'm not. We need reform, but we do need politicians to NOT all be green about how government works, Congressional laws, etc.

Finally, he says he never took a dime of government pay. THAT MEANS ONLY RICH PEOPLE CAN BE POLITICIANS, by his value system. I 100 percent oppose this man.

P.S.: I recall he said NO vaccine or mask mandates. That's too simplistic! IF Ebola struck America, the exact local area where that occurred MIGHT, temporarily, need mandates that science would tell are effective.

He'd fit better in the truck convoy. Blue collar heroes aren't always sharpest tack, and THAT is the key to the far right! They are OFTEN NOT more than high school grads, if that, and they have amazingly holy rural values, often tied to religion.

But their ability to analyze and nuance (or handle two related thoughts at the same time) is often missing. Black and white absolutists. They can't think through implications of their positions, or project where decisions lead.

I DON'T KNOW if college teaches it, or just IQ itself allows some people to do this, but this short-sighted, immature ability to think is a deficiency in the far right, often displayed and this is NOT an insult; it's an accurate observation.

People who can't think well resort to emotion and opinions (and conspiracy theories). It's all they've got! I have met some not so smart people, the past year, and they don't improve in their thinking very often, or significantly, sadly!

And even THAT statement is NOT arrogance! I thank God for any ability He's given myself and others to think, decently so. It's needed and important! We TRY, with all our might, to inform/educate and improve others' ability to think, but it's a hard fight, with some, who seem more IQ challenged, by nature.

I have ALWAYS told my kids, read a lot, listen to all sides, question what you think and believe, hang with smart people, and ask many questions about everything you observe. These skills could make dumber people smarter, IF they desire to be. Ignorance can be bliss, and power in numbers.

GOP ADVICE (I)

(3/4/21-2)

IT IS NOT EVIL to oppose being forced to fund people not in your family or employ. "Re-Reid" that until you comprehend it! "Fair taxes" means fair to ALL—no freeloaders, for any reason!

Government funding is ONLY taxpayer funding, and free things are costly to non-recipients. IF Socialism takes root, I've said red states MUST secede. I still hold that position! Freebies are evil, medium-to long-term! UNjust!

My eight ways (to fund things without more tax dollars):

1. Blue states fund them
2. Giving Pledge
3. Individual charity contributions
4. Crowd funding
5. Compulsory civic service (10 hours/year) "Government" will pay for it, and "it's free" are MYTHS!
6. Fair taxes, where everyone pays in
7. Government services profiting some, whenever possible
8. Streamlining government expenses
9. Also, subsidized help, repaid once the poor are on their fiscal feet, with back interest. AKA, empowering them to be self-sufficient, even by taxes, but taxpayers NEVER out, as all is repaid; a LOAN, but more than that—education and motivation to make them ALL successful. SOLVED!

If it weren't for me, the House would have lost 25 seats instead of gaining 15—it was a shock to everyone, and almost cost Pelosi her Speaker position. Likewise, 8-10 Senators would have lost their position, including Karl's friend Mitch, our wonderful leader who would rather spend his time fighting me than Pelosi, Schumer, and Sleepy Joe. In last year's Congressional primaries, 120 of the 122 candidates I endorsed won - and the two that lost were beaten by people claiming to be more Trump than their opponent. In the Senate, I was undefeated in primary endorsements with a record of 21 and 0, and close to that in the general election.

31 million people listened to my CPAC speech online, and it had among the largest television audience of the week, even though it was on cable at 4pm on Sunday afternoon.

Karl Rove is all talk and no action! Next time Karl, save your Election night phone call and keep doing a great job for the Democrats. Fox should get rid of Karl Rove and his ridiculous "whiteboard" as soon as possible!

ALL THE MORE REASON traditional Republicans MUST unite with all Americans but Trumpists, in 2024, to defeat Trumpism every election cycle till it is destroyed!!!

@KarlRove CHUMP, true to form, is delusionally blaming @KarlRove and @LeaderMcconnell for GOP losing Georgia. ALWAYS touting and believing lies, arrogantly, as a narcissist! If cheating had been allowed, by GA officials, and others, he could have won. They lost the election, for obeying the law!

SHUT THE HELL UP, FOREVER, and GO AWAY TO YOUR PLACE, ETERNALLY,
@realdonaldtrump CHUMP/tRUMP (and everyone like you)! IF WASP Christians, especially pastors, haven't yet learned that tRUMP is a moral-less human being, and therefore, can never be followed, they are carnal, apostate, or BOTH! Karl Rove

IF YOU CAN'T SEE Chump is chasing RINOs out, so Dems NEED to pick them up, by moderating on freebies and abortion, you are FOOLS! They're NOT a large number, but they can make up for increased GOP fervor to reelect CHUMP! They're just one bunch to woo! We don't do freebies or love aborting.

GOP TWO SIDES TRANSPARENCY

(3/4/21-2)

In light of #CancunCruz Lyin' Ted vs. Liz Cheney and John Boehner, THESE THINGS have to be said about the split in the GOP (READ every one, as NONE are UNtrue!):

1. The opponent is Socialism and leftism/liberalism.
2. We do NOT agree! I will NEVER agree with caustic conservatism, as I have clearly defined it on Facebook!
3. There is a moral and intellectual difference between the two sides! Insurrectionists and Trumpists NEVER acknowledge or apologize publicly for their MANY sins!
4. Unity of purpose must be found to defeat Dems, and that is the uniting objective!
5. I despise the horrific lack of character in all Trump types, because God demands people behave much better, so it's especially disheartening when that ilk uses Jesus' name!
6. We have to disagree, even argumentatively, but unite for power! I'll NEVER respect such people's "ethics!"

Caustic conservatives share these satanic values: Arrogance, ignorance, bombast, inaccuracy, selfishness if not greed, and self-advancement idolatry. Their policies HATE others, and aren't holistic for an entire nation! They seek media attention through saying shocking B.S. things! EVIL!

Mature, reasonable, calm, thoughtful, balanced, NOT polarizing, or ruining the GOP's reputation type Republicans are who I side with, even as they're slandered as RINOs, the Swamp or Deep State. On Judgment Day, the sheep vs. goats will be evident to all! Caustic conservatives are the goats.

There's NO reason to try to convince caustic conservatives to accept any other positions, as theirs is a religion. The BEST that can be done is all GOP's uniting to defeat Dems, because their policies waste only taxpayers' money! We won't be good friends in that process, ever, likely. So what?

You pick/choose a side: Caustic conservative or compassionate con. The policies are DIFFERENT, and the players are quite distinct! Cruz, Hawley, DeSatanist, and Trump-worshippers, vs. all others. There will be no harmony of agreeing on issues! I won't bow to any caustic cons' idolatry demands!

At best, America gets "more" conservative policies than the hyper liberal ones of Biden! NOT as much as caustic conservatives would like, but enough Dem centrists would like for things to get done! Caustic conservatives want their own party, according to DeSatanist. Unite, or let GOP break up forever!

CHUMP is primarying GOP's. I likely oppose everyone he is behind, because his stupidity in policies, having to steal good ones from me, and all these sins will NEVER be acceptable to any Christian-only imposters who are going to Hell-FAKE Christians in behavior! Carnal apostates!

So my little message is one of unity, for power to implement less Socialist initiatives, but I'm just as happy with centrist Dems as a caustic con, as I unite with people seeking integrity; not people relishing and glorying in, and promoting sin! God-haters don't care about morals, even in GOP!

And I don't criticize your hatred of God, AS IF it was conscious or willful! You simply NEED Jesus, NOT to get along with other GOP's, in sincerity, but because you are currently facing an eternity of fire in Hell! You, caustic conservative GOP's who embrace Trumpist attitudes and antics! Repent!

P.S.: Let's be honest/get real: If it weren't for our mutual disdain for government wasting our taxes, to give freebies and over-spend to appease moochers who pay no taxes, or hate the rich, we wouldn't necessarily even be in the same party, if a centrist third one arose, caustic conservatives!

GOP SPLIT (PART II)

(3/14/21-2)

Caustic conservatism's evils would need to be identified, acknowledged, considered from a moral vantagepoint, and repented of! The party's reputation is in the TANK, right not, and GOP's have to know that isn't GOOD for long-term prospects at winning! I've detailed how GOP is perceived, with mostly self-inflicted wounds!

They NEED moral leadership, for credibility with the majority! They CANNOT have valid evidence they favor the rich are mainly pro whites, hate any help of the poor, and only care about the economy!

The messenger cannot ruin an otherwise good message, I've detailed elsewhere (positives of conservatism chapter). Change is the sign of growth and life; self-improvement, maturity/evolving, growing up! Caring for ALL Americans, and not arrogant win-lose, or dominating the libs has to change. A smaller tent will NEVER win! Can GOP see this?

The GOOD aspects of political conservatism NEED to be kept—the evils abandoned. NOT caving to Dems, not mushy middle moderatism, and NOT cultish loyalty to any human being! Selfishness is a sin, and the GOP must abandon it, anywhere it exists, even of Dems never do! The two sides have so much in common!

Their major differences are extreme policy warpings and a sinfully horrible attitude of hatred of everyone else, and arrogant belief in lies, conspiracy theories and ideology over fact. To remain for these values, would lead possibly to demise/an end of the party!

Arrogant intransigent stubbornness to change, both of policy and attitude, WILL split or end the GOP, acting as if they're perfect, even as the vast majority pokes holes in that false belief, nearly every day on Twitter, and in the news. A humble self-reassessment is needed! Repentance!

Update

(3/19/21-2)

Message to the GOP: MANY Democrats still hold to win-lose and scorched earth strategies. YOU are at a VERY low point, self-inflicted, for backing CHUMP. However, the Bible teaches that over-punishment is injustice! II Cor. 2:7 No justice, no peace! You have to FIGHT for a reputation!

Many Dems want you out of business, as a party (NOT Biden). They back social media's CONSTANT slandering ONLY of Republicans, and ONLY focusing on GOP sins! NEVER any self-reflection! This is by biased, partisan design. You MUST rise from the ashes!

@RNC @SenateGOP @HouseGOP -Dutch

The Limbaugh show was talking about "President Harris," and how she'd be the MOST liberal. GOP's have to make red lines in the sand, at which point all red and purple states secede! If you want your nest eggs preserved, one day this would prove inevitable! People 'wanna STEAL your excess!

An ideology that mainly benefits the poor can be voted out of existence, by sheer mathematics. MANY U.S. voters want 'mo money, any way they can get it, no matter who it comes from! Bidens Covid relief has only whetted their appetite! GUARD YOUR WALLETS. Secede before surrendering!

The GOP needs to be united to fight Socialism! They also cannot unite in that way, supporting evils! To have the moral high ground, they need unity and morality! Disposable income is in the cross hairs by people NOT wanting to earn their own nest egg! Too wimpy to steal or beg—just vote!

The GOP faces THIS number one hurdle: EVERYONE wants more money. If they don't have to work for it, and it's gifted to them, that's easier than having to work harder for a raise, or even unionizing! The lower half thinks the upper half should fund their wants, or needs, through tax-funded freebies!

The far left wants BIG oil to go belly up, high minimum wage, higher taxes, to fund FREE daycare, healthcare, home mortgage, student loan debt, college tuition, subsidized housing, food stamps. Taxpayers as their unrelated daddy! This is EVIL. Secede, if ever seriously considered.

The far left believes America is EVIL, because a minority of Americans enslaved blacks, and to establish this great land, Indians were warred with and Mexico lost some territory. With THAT as your premise, WHO CARES if you destroy America by bankrupting her with freebies and debt? You hate her!

The far left believes if enough people are let into America, Democrats can always win, because MOST people who enter here by borders, vs. VISAs and green cards, are poor and under-educated. This is ALL a grand plan/scheme to institute Socialism! SAME with blue staters moving to red states!

WHY should I be poor, if I can get 1/3rd of my expenses gifted to me by "government"? (AKA ONLY taxpayers). People who pay my salary are richer than me, they are screwing me to get rich, and Dems will get back at them by giving me freebies! This is becoming America majority attitude!

I don't CARE about morals and justice! I want more money. I use Europe as analogy to argue for Socialism. I don't even need an analogy; I want it, I can stir up enough votes to get it, and it's easier than working or starting a business! Secession will one day be required, when this value reigns!

I have alleged Dems want mainly GOP's to fund Dem constituents' lives. HERE is the proof/case:

1. Poor people usually vote Democrat.
2. Many poor people pay in NO taxes.
3. GOP's are for saving assets from taxation, for people with disposable income. Hence, my assertion is TRUE!

WHO will ultimately have to pay off America's skyrocketing debt? The poor don't pay in taxes! They don't even own enough to pay their own bills. THIS is why leftist Dems don't CARE about taxes funding freebies, or how high our debt rises, even if U.S. goes bankrupt. Rent car mentality.

There are so-called "Americans" who believe America being one of the richest nations is EVIL! Innate greed and selfishness is ASSumed, and it's labeled "unfair" to other nations. They 'wanna bring America down, to level the playing field, and they vote Dem, even as they'd say they're "patriots!"

It is EVIL that anyone can get rich, and never donate one dime. THAT is true. BUT the leftist solution is a wealth tax, or punishing money-making skills. The left ALWAYS wants someone else to make their constituents' lives better, usually Republicans, taxpayers and the rich scapegoats!

It is NOT that hard to secede! Red and purple states can fund freed states with low taxes, and NOT as against the current national debt, or movement toward Socialism! Suppose they held a war, and no none came? don't engage Socialism; opt out of that country! FORCE libs to fund liberal causes!

A minority of taxpayers fail to pay what they legally owe. This unpaid amount – the #TaxGap ($574 Billion) – is more than all the income tax paid by 90 percent of individual taxpayers. That's not fair. We've got a plan to fix it. Make The Federal Tax System Fair For Everyone Who Pays Their Taxes shrinkthetaxgap.com

In 61 years, I have NEVER thought that taxpayers owed me one dime, to help me pay my bills. That thought has never entered my mind! I am a taxpayer, and I pay for my own family. I don't want or need to fund anyone else! The attitude is EVIL! Work harder and spend less, undisciplined ones!

It was a shameful day when Welfare shame was replaced by debit cards, so government dependents could LOOK like they pay their own bills when shopping in public! Unless you're physically or mentally disabled, it SHOULD be a shameful thing to live off others' hard work!

The day the U.S. government 100 percent CEASES from subsidizing anyone but the 100 percent mentally or physically disabled, is the day I will be happy that our government is working well! The Constitution didn't envision Uncle Sam as a banker, or picker of winners and losers; more, the referee!

This talk about President Harris or M. Markle is ALL about symbolism! Wanting the first female President, and hopefully a black one! MORE THAN THAT, it is a desire by the far left to institutionalize Socialism! Biden may even get attacked by them for any moderate positions! They're dead-set!

Socialists want EVERYONE to have all major needs met securely by government; then they want everyone in the world who wants to come to America to be let in, to get in on those guaranteed needs. They NEVER address how an economy works or how this gets funded! NOT their immature interest.

I don't like my car, my house, my school, my job, my bank account, my income, my life. Therefore, I will vote for taxpayers to improve it! THIS is the EVIL attitude of lazy, selfish, EVIL people, and a growing number of them are in or coming to America, sadly!

Fund me to live! UBI. Zuckerberg proposed $30,000 per year per person, if businesses can use AI to robotize as many jobs as possible. Lazy do-nothing attitude is embraced by people who'd rather not work hard. This is ANTI-Christian values! Protestant work ethic! Col. 3:23-24

Liberals will NEVER say the words, but in their hearts they believe anyone owning over ~$15 million is EVIL, if MUCH of their wealth over that amount isn't given back to issues society encounters! You can't trust people's words, but observe their deeds, to determine their values!

Sounds silly or extreme, to some, to talk about secession, but if a growing number of U.S. voters want free stuff, you have NO CHOICE! Easy money is addictive! Those immigrating in, especially illegally, are MORE inclined to vote for Socialism than Capitalism. Secession's going to be needed.

MOST American taxpayers don't want to move out of the nation! The very rich may be willing to, as they can have it good in other countries. Therefore, for taxpayers to protect what they have legally earned, secession will be needed, if demographic and political trends continue!

The rich fund ALL of that disparity of input to outcome! They don't have the voting numbers! The GOP must make relevant connections with the 92 million who don't vote! If Dems offer more in freebies, than the increase in taxes for a majority, many will opt for a bit more taxes for more bang for those bucks! The rich are the only ones losing out—they're a MINORITY! Wise UP!

Economically, if you paid $2000 more a year, in taxes, but got $4000 a year more in value of services rendered, through handouts, many in America would be lured by this crazy Bernie scheme!

Quite honestly, if BIG business and the rich don't pay off politicians, by legal donations, they are going to lose out, have to move, or find ways to hide their wealth from HIGH Socialist taxes! they don't have the voting numbers.

The MORAL matter is what GOP must advocate for, vs. the moral hazard. MANY whites, Asians and Indians (and even whatever the percent of Latinos and blacks is), especially with a religious bent, don't want anything for free, paid for by others. Other people's money is other people's money—NOT yours!

If I found a $50 bill on the mall floor, and I didn't see it fall out of anyone's purse or wallet, I'd keep it. Free money is easier and faster and more exciting than often BORING jobs. THIS is the temptation of Socialism, unless you're a taxpayer. Then it's ONLY more expenses, and ALL negative!

Politicians are NOT your union boss or managing talent agent! Their job is NOT to find money for your life! EVIL ones do that so THEY can keep a cushy job! No one cares HOW they get funded more, as long as they get more money, even if by freebies!

Do good, not evil. That would fix almost everything!

When you look to government to increase the amount you live on, or improve your quality of life, for "free," government doesn't make any money! You're really demanding taxpayers subsidize you, for zero good reason, as they're NOT your family or employer! No justice no peace!

LOOK at this lunacy: Dems fund handouts by debt; then GOP's fund tax rebates by debt. Debt is slavery, a drain on the economy, NOT an asset, but a liability, has to be paid back, and is passed on to future generations, as a boat anchor! Dumb, bad and a cover for no fiscal discipline!

The RIFT in the GOP could possibly have some to do with blue vs. white collar votes, as that IQ gap is NOT easily bridged! People unable to discern lies, conspiracy theories, and run more by emotion don't react to logic as much as manipulated feelings that rile up anger or white pride. (5/15/21-2)

GOP & RACE

This CONSTANT talk about "racism" is an attempt to steal taxpayer's wealth, and convert it to freebies for non-taxpayers! Socialism is the Dem's aim and end, ANY way they can get it. Secession would be NEEDED, if they ever do! Let blue states hand out handouts, and go bankrupt!

Freeloaders, mooches, tax cheats, grifters, not pulling your weight, or fair share, immaturely riding others' efforts. ALL these terms belong to anyone NOT paying taxes! We KNOW you're poor, but you can do compulsory civic service, as sweat equity equivalent to taxes! Will you? No.

When I was in law school, my torts professors said you sue people with deep pockets, not due to justice but money on hand. That attitude is exactly what Democrats are using about voting for freebies! They're UNjust, but they have money on hand. LIARS mouth 'no justice, no peace!'

There is ONLY one reason ANYONE would want to restrict the black vote... fear they will vote for taxpayer funded freebies! I am for everyone voting, but I oppose ANYONE not paying taxes able to vote for taxpayers to spend when they never have to! No justice, no peace!

I've voted every one of my 43 voting years. There has NEVER been a time it was difficult to do, or interfered with my work schedule. People who can't early vote or stand in line the day of DESERVE to NOT have their votes counted. It can ALWAYS be worked around work, and driven to!

People who vote for freebies, increased minimum wage, government spending the way Biden is spending, anti-business green programs, etc., SHOULD be considered enemies of business, in hiring considerations! If you oppose business, you oppose your own job, unless you own a business!

Can't discriminate in hiring, based on race and other Constitutionally forbidden categories, but HR departments should be monitoring candidate's social media, who are attacking taxpayers with their votes, and consider that factor as whether they fit in and are qualified! ANTI-business posture.

The group seeking a majority NON-white America (through immigration, re-settling red states, voting for freebies, and claiming systemic racism) are seeking perceived historic revenge for unnamed grievances, which always means they're targeting whites' wealth and jobs and assets, even now!

When Biden, Harris and AOC increasingly spend money Uncle Sam doesn't have or own, especially for freebies, EVERY red and purple state needs to cut off ALL state-funded safety net programs (since no one YET has the heart to secede)!

IF you READ tweets, people are admitting voter restriction laws are to keep black people from voting and winning. WHAT would black people be voting for, different from others, that makes others want to stop them? Socialist freebies only taxpayers pay for! The SOURCE of stereotypes!

Being white doesn't make anyone a racist! It's NOT supremacy to be proud of massive achievements white folk (along with others) have achieved! The West and most innovations came from that culture, which is something to be celebrated—not condemned! NOT skin color, but values and attitudes!

GOP's: NO MATTER WHAT YOU DO OR SAY, you are deemed a "racist" just for being born white, so let it brush off your back like water off a duck. Don't even get defensive or respond. Its ALL the left has! DUMB people believe it, but also vote, and that's what Dems are counting on!

I STILL haven't read any voter law changes, but "racism" would be treating black areas of town different, like shutting down or limiting their polling places, in ways more severe than all others. "Racism" is an over-used and often WRONG claim and label, to tar and feather innocents!

Update

(4/4/21-2)

You HAVE to understand what's going on, or you will be played and LOSE in 2022, GOP!: Social media cancel culture has one standard for clamoring, and that is anything leftist is to be praised, anything conservative is evil, and the squeaky wheel gets the grease.

The height was with George Floyd, with riots on the West Coast-looting, arson, sovereign blocks or ne'er do wells, etc.

This ILK believe their continual protest won Biden an election, so they pick a cause and stick with it for future victories. Presently, the issue is "racism." Trumpist behavior gave them a huge moral platform to decry, so they try to discredit ALL GOP's, all so Dems can win!

The ONLY fault they've EVER found in anyone Dem is with Cuomo! Otherwise, full-time GOP targets! You cannot convince or talk to a dead set mind intent on an agenda, about truth, morality or justice!

They literally mock GOP's using cancel culture against baseball, as hypocrisy, but DO YOU SEE their methodology? Jesus noted its use (Mt. 11:17) ALWAYS act/pretend like you own the righteous cause, and always attack the opponent as having the unrighteous cause, even if the opponent does opposite behavior! You will NOT win this ilk over by NOT cancelling or by cancelling.

They only care about cancelling anti-Socialism and leftist/liberal causes, even if their side behaves or speaks evil, and you live like a saint. Don't make behavioral decisions seeking to appease mob rule! They are operating off the premise everything GOP is evil, especially all our policies.

Fight fire with fire, folks! Espouse the good things in GOP beliefs, and showcase the bad things in dem platform policies, and leave your personal words and behaviors to ONLY pleasing God—NOT the mad mob!

They don't care if business gets harmed, or moves away, debt triples, borders are open, criminals get jailed (so long as no police physicality ensues), taxes get doubled, the rich get punished, whites get painted as all supremacists—THEY DON'T CARE, but LIKE that result!

It furthers their agenda, which is leftist Socialism! They STUPIDLY believe everyone black and brown votes Dem, and all whites vote GOP. They believe rich people and business got wealthy by stealing what was rightfully theirs, by wages collusively and immorally secured at the bottom!

They are the entitlement generation, so life owes them freebies! (college, healthcare, welfare, daycare, Medicaid, home mortgage down payment, student loan debt forgiveness). They believe they are entitled to these things, like they are civil rights! HERE are their players:

Poor People, MANY blacks, several browns, LGBTQ, feminists (who LOVE abortion), and a few select others. Their philosophical foundation is that WHITES stole Mexico's land, STOLE American Indian lives and property/land, and stole blacks from Africa from their land, AS IF whites went to Africa and abducted vs. paid slave traders for them (even though even doing that was evil).

Now they seek revenge, centuries later! They try to white-wash history, tearing down statues, make EVERYTHING a race issue (like banning the Confederate flag), and the object of their angst IS predominantly America's white majority! They are HAPPY with illegal aliens trespassing, as more POC (non-whites) get here to eventually vote!

They are HAPPY when snow birds move to the South, where the jobs are, from lower taxes, because blue values make red states flippable! They don't care if Biden spends TRILLIONS we don't have, because they want revenge on a society that they are unsuccessful at competing within, and want to punish business, the wealthy, and taxpayers, knowing non-taxpayers won't pay down the exorbitant debt!

Rent car mentality, and vengeance for historic events this generation had NOTHING to do with. Because they start and continue with such irrational premises, they are both dangerous and evil, and they have to be utterly defeated, any moral or gray-area means necessary—not by sin-to-win, only due to God—NOT the mad mob! DO SO in 2022, GOP!

AMERICAN EXCEPTIONALISM (& RACE)

(4/4/21-2)

Socialism and far right conservatism are BOTH the enemies of peace, unity, and dignity in America! You CAN'T have total opposite forces reconciled! Pay me freebies, or completely ignore my suffering plight are BOTH evil positions to hold!

The GOP has leftist Socialism to defeat soundly. The Dems have Trumpian far right conservatism to soundly defeat. I am 100 percent for BOTH these evils being soundly defeated in 2022, 2024, 2026, 2028, 2030 and 2032. Then I'm retiring (if not sooner)! Two vs. just one evil! Matthew 7:3, folks!

Passionate activists rile up the sheep to STEREOTYPE! one white man kills an Asian, and protest signs say whites must stop being racists. One black man runs over capital police, and opposing people blame BLM/black power founder types. IGNORE THE SKIN COLOR—pigment can't make decisions!

I want an END to BLM T-shirts, banners, bumper stickers, and everyone promote ALL colors and people matter! We get that POOR (vs richer) black people wanted needed attention! You got it, for one+ years! Now reconcile! Get along. Peacefully coexist. STOP spouting 'racist' every sentence.

And to every true white supremacist: You may live poorly, with shrinking blue collar opportunities. But go visit a hood, ghetto or barrio for one week. Take a vacay to walk in another's moccasins. Answers exist; NOT hatred and division, or either political extreme!

The GOP has Trumpism to live down! Pay the fiddler, in public scorn! I was NOT part of it, so I bear no cross. But IF your repentance is real, your roots/foundation is built on solid moral policies, for the most part!

Be proud and raise up Reagan values: Smaller government, lower taxes, strong national defense and economy, law and order, controlled borders, democracy, free speech and freedom of religion, sole superpower, American exceptionalism, entrepreneurship and free enterprise, self-sufficiency and self-determination, 2A and oil is not 100 percent evil. Run on that in 2022!

MY adjustments to such a platform are: Green is also not evil, but good for the environment (if cost effective), helping the poor, through charity and a revamped welfare program, not promoting conspiracy theories as 'free speech,' an economy for all—not just elites, fair wages, NO government or military waste, police brutality only when absolutely necessary, the rich generously giving back, fair taxes for ALL Americans—not just a percent of us, and a host of other NON-TAXED improvements to better and broaden the GOP appeal, which works for BOTH sides!

American culture is NOT white culture, though it was begun by whites! I have ZERO problem with people from other places coming here, IF they aren't here to promote Socialism! My Indian and Asian neighbors are here to work hard and make wealth! They fit in perfectly! They don't seek handouts!

The far left WANTS poor and non-white immigrants here, legally or otherwise, as needing money is how Dems secure votes, promising freebies! GOP's want the educated and rich to be immigrants, so long as they don't take our jobs in the process, as America is to put American citizens first!

BOTH parties have TWO sides. Lately, the moderate Democrat has become a scarce commodity! Moderate D and are do make up the VAST American majority! We have differences, but we can get along, get things done, not waste taxes or increase debt, or selfishly ignore societal problems!

Like the round mound of rebound said, there are percents of every race who want agitation and hate! Like MLK said, you can NEVER lump everyone of a given skin color into a particular political belief pattern! People DIFFER! Not all Dems want freebies, as some Dems pay taxes, too!

NOT all GOP's are white supremacy racists—a very small percent! In 61 years I had never met one, until 2020! There ARE traits of culture groups that are real, by comparison, like many Asians ARE smart, and that's NOT a stereotype, but an observable fact! It's NOT evil to admit truth!

Someone said even positive stereotypes are bad, because it makes less smart members of a group feel inferior. The FACT I stated doesn't make one feel inferior; they're not living up to the common (vs absolute) standard is why they feel like failures. It's NEVER wrong to state truth!

Many blacks are good at athletics and rap, and dancing. That's a fact, Jack. It's NOT a stereotype, nor does it mean black nerds are inferior! I bless any AA who makes it to an Ivy League school, since, as Charles Barkley also said, most youth won't play pro sports!

White men (generally) can't jump. It's a true statement, as with dancing, I can attest in my own skill set. It's no slam to me for people to make fun of that fact, as I have no need, interest or desire to jump or dance! If I needed to, I'd learn the skill! You can't make money off those talents, at my age!

Indian-Americans are very disciplined, especially about academics. That's a TRUE statement, if intended and taken as a general observation! I'm certain not all of them are like that. I observe Asians and Indians RARELY engage crime!

That's a GOOD and commendable trait! Don't slam it as an evil stereotype or to observe, comment on and praise! I literally had the ONLY two Asians I have ever known of to do criminal activity do it unto my home, and my son caught them in the act, and they got deserved justice. Their culture is such, I'm certain their dad did much worse to them than what was done!

That's an AWESOME value system! They respect older people! Americans often leave the retired to rot, or deem them out-of-touch and has-beens. I guarantee you, in my neighborhood, the blue hairs are respected by their culture's young! These factual observations aren't evil or

A DFW school test-preparing crew implying Asians often eat dogs and cats IS stereotyping, as it's either 100 percent untrue, or not a majority trait of that group of people (and they rightly got busted for it). Observations, generalizations, and percentages vs. absolutes aren't evil or untrue!

And despite all our differences, like the NCAA basketball court rightly promoted, "UNITY" IS possible! We unite to common values: Freedom from an oppressive, dictatorial regime, the right to earn a living, live free of crime, enjoy life, be healthy, have as many kids as we want, etc. A belief that, despite all her faults, America is a GREAT nation, as proven by how many people flock to come here!

We can be PROUD that we don't take other nations' land, we defend our allies, we confront evil regimes, we keep the peace, globally, we ARE rich, and it's better than the alternative, we lead the world in culture, innovations, entrepreneurship/new business upstarts, we put men on the moon (first), we usually win the Olympics, we won two world wars, for OTHER nations, we can defend our nation from attacks, and deter aggressors, we promote democracy for ALL people, we have foreign aid more than most other countries, we lead the world in business, our colleges are world-class, as are most of our freeways.

We brought the world the Industrial Revolution, modern society, we fight for human rights, globally. We don't cut people's wrists off for stealing, or hang gays, or treat women as inferior. We believe in the dignity of every human God created.

We oppose crime and criminals. We punish justly, and even harshly, if deserved (justice). We do have flaws: There are SOME racists, selfish rich, mooching or lazy poor.

We honestly acknowledge that standards of the past sometimes need improving, like to the victor go the spoils in MEX land seized by war victory, American Indians losing land (but also treated humanely thereafter) and slavery's evil, but we also don't live in the past, but carpe diem!

WE initiated the Marshall Plan, to rebuild Europe after war. It wasn't OUR land that needed rebuilding! It was OUR President who insisted the Berlin wall be torn down. We didn't cause Pearl Harbor, but we put an end to that initiated aggression—somerly so! WE have an adequate and merciful safety net, people EVILLY now want to balloon into a welfare state.

WE did not start the Cold War, but brought it to a temporary end, by that same U.S. President (as with Berlin wall).

WE declared the intent to land on the moon, and ask not what your country can do for you, and the only thing we have to fear is fear itself, through REAL leaders from BOTH parties!

WE lead NATO, and keep the Middle East safe from war (YES, often for oil interests; you don't waste treasure and manpower for zero self-interest)!

WE engaged D-Day! Our fallen soldier HEROES didn't die in vain, or even die to protect America, but selfless courage is a value we extol!

Name any invention people regularly rely upon in modern life. MOST of them came from HERE! We lead the globe in entertainment, luxury and comfort items, wisdom in how to be efficient with agriculture that ALL nations need and benefit from.

If you are from here, or have only recently come here, if you share these same proud values, you are welcome here in the U.S. of A. If those things, imperfect as they are, are offensive to you, you don't belong here! We have enough enemies abroad!

This ISN'T white supremacy, but American Exceptionalism ALL true Americans rejoice in! Enemies hate it, thus exposing themselves as such!

JUST look and listen to how an OUTSIDER to America ACCURATELY described our great nation: <https://americanrhetoric.com/speeches/gordonsinclairtheamericans.htm...>

GOP & SOCIALISM

GOP: PLEASE realize when you cancel cancel culture, and social media regularly reams you for so doing, you have OBVIOUSLY taken steps to thwart their secret plans, and that angers them, because you are busting their not always private Socialist aims! Marks of SUCCESS!!! Good job! (4/8/21-2)

Justice is NOT getting my way. It is not a Trojan Horse term to disguise getting my agenda passed. It is not to be cherry picked in its use, or just when a ruling favors my side! It IS God's standard, and the only remedy that makes moral people content with outcomes! WHAT do I mean?

YOU get angry when something wrong is done to you! You don't get angry when you get a windfall, or something you didn't earn or deserve! You only get angry when your treated unjustly, UNLESS you're a selfishly evil person, who demands everything go your way!

America WASN'T founded upon laws being adhered to by evil people, as they don't do so, but moral/good people do, which is what our nation was founded on as its premise behind law and order. Seek justice. Lady Justice has a blindfold: She doesn't see race or political party! She weighs everything in the balance!

OF COURSE there will be large differences in pay between important and menial jobs! That gap is NOT injustice! Injustice is being paid less than you deserve through earning it! Most EVERYONE feels underpaid, because you WANT 'no money--NOT because you believe you deserve it from your work ethic.

MOST companies will reward quality, hard work with a raise or promotion. THAT is justice! Overpaying is INjustice. Underpaying is injustice. How do you know if it's under or over? Compare your pay with a similar job in your same standard of living area! Go take a better job!

THE CALLED & THE CALLED OUT?

(10/7/21-2)

Sounds like the silent mannequin is AGAIN kissing up to the evil one, and pandering the dumbed-down and morals deprived crowd, for personal gain, even as his life was risked. Chameleon flip flopping politician, and NOT "Christian" behavior, but power idolatry sin!

Mike Pence will NOT lead, by seeking to sincerely and lovingly (even sternly, as needed) convince avid Trumpsters to value intelligence and integrity! He just crassly and raw-ly wants their votes! THAT IS NOT LEADERSHIP, folks! Leaders lead by example, to a higher plane!

As a claiming Christian, when you cannot say that the Jan. 6 riot on D.C. was WRONG, ill-conceived, possibly well-meaning, but evil, you are NOT a leader, because you have placed appeasing and pandering to voters over obeying God, teaching morals and standing for truth!

Love and leadership (and obeying God) REQUIRE politicians to shoot straight, and tell the people hard facts and honest truths. EVEN THOUGH he was the target for a possible lynching, Pence caters to cowards who would overtake government to discredit the free election results! NOT leading!

The GOP must preserve its brand for long-term viability! I have NO problem with people trying to reconcile the two sides of the GOP, but intelligence and integrity always have to be core principles! Some pastors need to stand up and take a stand against stupidity and sinfulness, someday!

You mean Nimrata Nikki Randhawa Haley, JUST LIKE Rafael Edward Cruz and Robert Francis O'Rourke! ALWAYS hiding behind their real selves, to dupe dopes! #BeYourself (IF you are a good self) #TrumpStink! --Chris Christi

Nimrata Nikki Randhawa Haley says the GOP can't return to the Reagan days! I 100 percent DISagree with Nikki Haley! SHE is hypocritically protesting, and later praising all of this, because, like CHUMP, she is all about she! You CAN'T be a Christian, and embrace this or that! PERIOD! Sinners.

Nikki Haley, who has accomplished NOTHING compared to Reagan, GWB and his dad, is saying the GOP can't return to the days before CHUMP. That about says it all, about her so-called value system! NOT even close to being in their league!: George W. Bush George H. W. Bush Ronald Reagan

10/4/21 Chump announces his only approved MAGA Super Pac, for those who embrace his achievements. 10/5/21 Nikki Haley announces he's her friend, and the GOP can't return to the civilized days of the past four GOP nominees. COINCIDENCE? (AKA, daddy tRUMP, fund me!?). Me thinks so.

Due to EVIL D.C. politics, everyone feels they are above the law, as any law enforcement is viewed as political, unless issues go to court! The MOST evil of all is advising guilty peers to defy a Jan six summons. Judg. 21:25 Lawless sin reigns; NO respect for morals or rules!

Madison Cawthorn spoke to duped Christians using II Chron. 7:14 speaking of political activism. YOU CAN'T MANUFACTURE REVIVAL!

1. It's sovereign (God's decision and timing)
2. You have to meet its requirements. I've vaguely seen him do or say MANY disqualifying things to speak with authority in the past four years!

1. Messengers need to be IMperfect, but biblically 'blameless,' as much as humanly possible. That means no glaring big sins.

2. They have to have a God and morals agenda, NOT mainly a political one

3. They have to be biblically knowledgeable; not layman tokenism!

It is BEYOND despicable to use God for political gain, when you don't know Him, or don't know His will, or His Good Book, don't follow His morals, or cherry-pick them to benefit YOUR political party! Jesus did not seek secular power! He taught we are NOT of this world. OPPOSITES!

The BIBLE teaches use the FULL counsel of God, don't be biased, and don't be silent about evil, but stand for good, and expose the evils! DO Christians in the court of public opinion DO that, and are we gracious about it, or caustic, shoving our views onto others vs. seeking to convince?

GOP UNITY: MCCONNELL ON HERSCHEL

Background

(8/8/21-2)

Where the far right and centrist GOP's can unite, and what policies they'd have to disagree on, and choose to not advertise their differences on (a chapter for another day; I'm tired). The agenda of a new centrist third party (just see my website on that "chapter!"). <http://AmericanAnswers.org>

SOMEHOW, the GOP's far right vs. Christian (in practice) and establishment wings have to unite to beat Dems, OR split, and lose a round or to institute a third party some GOP's have already started. Patience says do what's best for the country, which could be either of those two choices!

Message: Herschel Walker

(10/27/21-2)

The GOP is AGAIN proving they have NOT learned the lesson of CHUMP: You NEVER rally behind or unite behind a single person, but ideology. Because they are, I hope they burn in flames in 2022.

Herschel Walker is brain-dead! I can prove it in any debate, just to prove it! HAPPY TO.

If tRUMP ally Herschel Walker is the "only person who can unite the party," the GOP is SUNK! I will NEVER be party with unrepentant Trumpster cultists! WHAT DOES HE KNOW ABOUT POLITICAL SOLUTIONS? What a joke! RE-thinking my party alliance, going forward!!!

Its EMBARRASSING McConnel says a former NFL star (name recognition only) Trump touted can unite the GOP! Getting along with both sides is NOT a credential! And being a CHUMP devotee is NOT a feather in one's cap! He may be a nice guy, but what policies does he support?

You unite by POLICIES, you DAMN FOOLS! Here is EXACTLY how the decrepit dumb and Donald-tainted GOP unites, if possible:

1. LEARN that he STOLE most good ideas from another source! He is a LIAR, thief, and NOT a role model!
2. REJECT and renounce sin and stupidity. HUMBL Y admit your moral guilt and fault in supporting ALL of this! (below):
3. Be FOR debt reduction
4. Be FOR guns never being confiscated
5. Be FOR lessening abortions
6. Be FOR controlled borders that don't favor either party
7. Be FOR lowest taxes possible
8. Be FOR world-class education
9. Be FOR business profits, in a global economy, but also for profit-sharing with the employees whose backs profits were gained!
10. Be FOR rich people legally gaining as much as they're capable, but also FOR them generously (vs. tokenly) giving back, as God demands. I Tim. 6:17-19
11. Be FOR Welfare that only empowers the poor to become self-sufficient before two years
12. Be FOR compulsory civic service of 10 hours a year, so problems get fixed without taxpayers being taxed
13. Be FOR fair taxes, and NO ONE suffering NO pain!
14. Be FOR spreading democracy, globally
15. Be FOR a strong economy and military
16. Be FOR ethics in Washington D.C. politicians. Truth, honesty, selflessness and justice
17. Be FOR private and voluntary ways to lift up the black and brown communities, economically and socially
18. Be FOR justice, and against favoring rich or poor! Levit. 19:15
19. Be FOR traditional marriage, straight genders, respect for others, but not acceptance of deviant sexual lifestyles
20. Be for all Constitutional rights, responsibly exercised. Absent that, I want nothing to do with GOP being united!

I'll go Dem or Independent, uniting around one person A BIG middle finger and FU to anyone trying to lie to and deceive the public that the GOP is united by a person who's rich and famous, with zero policies, proven political skills, or objectivity to unite the GOP. I will debate Herschel Walker any time, any day, on any subject-period!

22K lies in office, the hate, divisiveness, J6, the tweets, the global embarrassments, the arrogance, the insults, the ignorant comments and NO religious values, I'll NEVER unite with you! Third party!

Update

(3/15/22-2)

Introduction: Herschel asks if Evolution is true, why are there still apes?

Society's possible majority, and/or "the world" makes people out to be idiots if they don't believe in Evolution. @HerschelWalker HOW can order and beauty come from an explosion, or soup? Where'd the soup come from? IF you take people eons back, the brain shuts down from possibilities! 'Billions and billions.'

God created the earth in fully mature form, within seven days. OF COURSE a fully ripe fruit looks matured, as it was grown instantly, in creation. Evidence would also look matured, or evolved, but it was instantly spoken into existence. NO contradiction, @HerschelWalker! It started aged/ripe.

What would naturally look possibly "billions and billions" of years old, evidentially-wise, God miraculously spoke into existence. That means a Ferrari might take two months, but God created ex nihilo, with the result being a fully-completed Ferrari of an earth, @HerschelWalker

You should ask was it a big bang or a primordial soup? Soup doesn't explode! And where did the material come from, be it what exploded or the soup? Inquiring minds want to know! NO ONE sees a Swiss watch and says no one designed that! (borrowed analogy)

SILENCE IS COMPLICITY?

I speak OFTEN, here, about problems and solutions our society faces. Some may even call me "negative," because I untimidly call a spade a spade, and our condition is bleak (negative). The Bible does NOT call on us to deceive ourselves, put on rose-colored glasses, or deny reality!

Reagan's 11th commandment is NOT in the Bible, and even contrary thereto, so any who obey it are engaged in idolatry and deriving their morality from society, NOT God. At the same time, you also speak TRUTH about Dem's failings, as they're sure to point out GOP's own! BOTH are imperfect!

I KNOW many GOP's prefer to stay silent, when other GOP's do or say evil things, because POWER is an idol over God and His morality, but at least confirm you see the moral problems of the far right, and WOULDN'T support it if you truly believed in God! Timidity is a sin! II Tim. 1:7 Boebert and Gosar

IGNORANT and lying/false statement, and horribly irresponsible attempted analogy! FOOLS would agree with this low IQ conclusion, even if I give no listen to Mr. Fauci anymore (haven't in nearly a year).

"You have what you tolerate." –Dallas politician of yesteryear

HOUSE GOP VIDEO: ECONOMICS & CONSERVATISM

(12/31/21-2)

'Job creators' means businesses. No Socialism means zero wealth redistribution. That means the ONLY solution for the poor is a job; no Welfare, Medicaid, Obamacare, section 8, food stamps or CHIP. Are they FOR ending these programs? That also means jobs created have to fund all ones expenses, by self-control and budgeting.

NO help at all educating or motivating the poor how to do that successfully, or get better job skills. I've advocated public school teach those skills! I'm also for profit-sharing (it's JUST), variable minimum wage, unionizing, and outsourcing restrictions (NOT bans).

Those four things HELP workers, and are fair (as with fair taxes for ALL). 'Freedom' defined as zero government involvement, is great for entrepreneurs and the rich. The group seems to have NO plan for poor people, but get a minimum wage job and good luck and shut up! Biased!

"Conservatism," per the House Republicans video, is for ZERO Socialism, which means ENDING Welfare, section 8, Medicaid, food stamps, CHIP, etc. That might be fine, but their solution is a job, as substitute? I'm against any more Socialism, but society doing NOTHING for the poor?

The House Republicans anti-Socialism video can also mean ending Obamacare. They AREN'T clear what their generalities mean! To believe a poor person can earn enough to pay for all their lifestyle, just wishing them well, is immoral and irrational! They're poor because they need help!

The poor MUST get help, in the form of job skills training, budgeting and spending skills, shopping around educating, learning how to open a business, and get cheap healthcare, and by competition making it cheaper. Just saying get a job IS cold, especially from those with money (i.e., taxpayers)!

HERE is an illusion: JUST grow an economy, and everyone's wages will rise. THAT is conservatism dogma. There's zero proof that will occur, as owners and investors may alone increase, and wages can lessen or stagnate, with automation and immigration! That's a plan for the poor, House Republicans?

With a BBA and MBA, I've been forced to take maybe three economics courses. I didn't make an A, if I recall, as the charts, math and theories were boring to me, and less clear, or more academic. BUT, what I do know is common sense! Two main economic theories exist, but I'll recommend a third!:

GOOD economics is based on common sense! ALL these propositions are TRUE:

1. The more money government takes, the less money is avail to the private sector
2. Government does some activities which cost money
3. An expanding/growing economy is a GOOD thing, generally speaking/properly defined
4. U.S. businesses need to be world-class, as were in global competition
5. A growing economy SHOULD mean more jobs, IF employees aren't replaced by machines
6. A good economy CANNOT be defined as just good for the rich and taxpayers, but for ALL Americans
7. NOT all regulations are bad
8. Taxes MUST be fair, and minimal, meaning only for needed things, efficiently spent
9. The lower taxes are, the better for business. This does NOT mean taxes should be zero, though that would be BEST for business! Government has a rightful role to what's due Caesar!
10. Government choosing winners and losers is EVIL
11. Reserve Bank interest/borrowing policies expand or contract the money supply, which can affect inflation (for good or ill)
12. Printing ungrounded money (QE3) is ONLY valuable by trust/faith; it is irrationally deemed valuable, and causes dollar devaluing and inflation!

13. Constantly raising the debt ceiling is NOT a sustainable fiscal policy! Borrowing from China is a boat anchor, as is total dependence on a frenemy nation for America's supply chain! irrational and STUPID!

14. Socialism is UNjust theft by government force, and HURTS economic growth, by taking from investors and job creators, so there's less money in the private sector. Plus, the funds are NOT self-generating for recipients, like investments or a job are.

15. Product scarcity and quality commands higher prices (supply and demand)

16. Business wants lowest wages; labor wants highest. So long as the ground is level (fairness), that's all government has anything to do with in a free enterprise nation! They are mutually OPPOSING aims/desires, and justice has to be ensured.

17. The MORE people America allows in, the LESS wages and jobs will be available to Americans (unless jobs increase with economic growth)

18. The rich just getting richer, with no give back, means the economy favors the rich, which is UNjust

19. Freebies favor the poor, and are UNjust to all others

20. Profit-sharing is FAIR to those who helped gain the profits.

Put all these postulates/propositional truths together, and you conclude for economic compassionate conservatism; NOT Socialism or unbridled Capitalism! The most moral economic system might not be the most monetarily beneficial, and vice versa! And justice are ALWAYS in order!

That means free markets, with legal restraints against bad things, like required breaks and time off, overtime pay, safe working conditions, public health and safety laws, truth in advertising laws, anti-monopoly laws, and everything America already embraces (which ISN'T pure conservatism).

If you can make more money defrauding consumers, consumer protection laws disallow you those extra profits. That is as it should be! There are moral parameters to money-making, like NOT polluting at will! THIS is moral and reasonable centrist economic policy, avoiding extremes!

And ANY subsidies anyone would ever receive being paid back to taxpayers, through required civic service—NOT from handouts. And a Welfare program we already budget and pay for ONLY setting the poor up for success, after two years, through training, education and motivation. BEST and most moral economy!

RESPONSIBILITY OF THE RICH (I)

(Originally posted 11/8/19)

I have addressed this well before it became popular, so many times: Explain why billionaires owe others money, if they earned it legally! They don't, unless they stole it. However, they DO owe a fair share in taxes, which is NOT often what we see paid, and a higher percent than others, so the pain vs. amount is equal.

Is it immoral for ~621 families in America to be billionaires, as millions suffer? Yes and no. Yes, if they don't give back significantly, and pay fair share in taxes. No if they do. They benefit from all business strategies to boost profits off workers' backs! Government has to rectify injustices! Business never will!

Is it immoral to give people government handouts, and to redistribute wealth? Yes. But [exception] it's NOT immoral to do so in limited fashion, only to empower them to be self-sustaining, and only for as short a time as that takes to achieve, with compulsory civic service repayment to tax payers! This is fair, useful and needed!

How you're EVER 'gonna get billionaires to care about the poor is public pressure, and forcing them to live a week in the life of a poor area of town, as their limo escorts them to meet REAL PEOPLE who struggle. I'm 100 percent for BOTH these solutions! And Forbes list of philanthropists. Stop making them heroes!

Christians, especially WASPs, SHOULD be clamoring for America's rich to be obeying God's instructions for the rich, as much as or more so than SCOTUS following God's view on the sanctity of life. Should be isn't always doing so, sadly! Hypocritical inconsistency and bias.

RICH END POVERTY?

(3/20/21-2)

Business people ALWAYS argue they took risk—they deserve all the reward.

1. NOT all business ventures are the same risk.
2. You didn't take that risk without the efforts of your people/employees, and IF success is gained, you didn't gain it all on your own! Unbridled Capitalism is NOT God's way!

People are poor in America from their OWN bad habits or decisions, excepting the mentally or physically disabled. YES their circumstances are NOT equal with those raised with a silver spoon, but IF there is equal opportunity (NOT always the case), it's up to YOU to succeed.

However, wages as market rate is partially a myth (bell curve, often), and a contrivance of legal collusion. What do I mean? Employers learn what others are paying. It's only illegal if they get together to fix wages!

But even if all wages were fairly entered into, profit sharing is the ONLY just way to benefit all who contributed to the benefits of profit! and the rich giving back to society is the ONLY way to please God, and do right to the society that allowed you such excess, as Warren Buffett has stated. IMO, the rich have it coming to them, if they hoard and withhold!

“The world has enough for everyone's need, but not enough for everyone's greed.” –Mahatma Gandhi
Spend five minutes analyzing the implications! (8/29/17)

The rich requiring EVERY event in life to benefit them more, financially, before anyone else can be blessed, is selfishness and short-sighted! Limbaugh said there is NO finite money pie, but essentially there are boundaries! YES, anyone can make it BIG on Shark Tank, but NOT everyone.

It's the people who aren't doing well whom God has compassionate concern for! NOT praising the "winners!" And IF our society is to reflect Him (all people are to do so, imperfectly; Ecc. 12:13), we MUST address NOT inequality of results, but of opportunities, and injustice in pay, of both rich and poor.

We probably won't, as ours is a sinfully fallen world of selfish sinners needing salvation/forgiveness from God, lest and before we all would end up in a deserved eternal fire!
John 3:16, the Bible

The rich COULD end severe poverty in America. I OPPOSE freebies from taxpayers, or any handouts that aren't self-sustaining! So if the selfish vs. philanthropic rich chose to end serious poverty, their gifts would HAVE to be earmarked to the following causes:

Better job skills training, better spending habits training, better school results, teaching the poor how to DIY (do it yourself) about car repairs and home maintenance and yard upkeep and appliance repair.

NOT gifts of dollar bills, directly! That's unsustainable, and irresponsible, medium-term! WHY would a selfish beyond rich person choose to give back, when all their adult life has been focused on self-gain, and "never lose money?"

Besides the fear of God and His deserved judgment for disobeying I Tim. 6:17-19, you would HOPE they would learn that they alone (and successful businesses) have the excess that could help fix society's problems, like severe poverty.

You can HOPE and pray, like wise king Solomon, they'd come to an end of themselves, in finding the EMPTINESS of just owning things, rather than also helping people and doing things of value/worth and fulfillment, by seeing just themselves and their heirs. Ecc. 1-3.

You would HOPE they would abandon arrogance, in thinking themselves to be something special, by making a worldly Forbes list, or having to have buildings named in their honor! Maybe if they ever see that arrogance exhibited in others, they will turn from their wicked ways!?

You could NOT hope greatly that tax incentives will engender such generosity, as keeping it all is always easier than parting with our idols! Public shaming is in order, as with social shunning, BUT the rich hang with their own kind, so reality doesn't bite them in the tush, by reinforcing they're not the only selfish rich people, and bad company corrupts good morals! I Cor. 15:33

ANY WAY the public can discover their wages and charity contributions would be of benefit, in exposing that selfishness! The humble, secret who don't seek acclaim for their philanthropy are life's ultimate heroes! Mt. 6:4

It is NOT that God is against wealth, but He IS against selfish hoarding, greed and idolatry. Caustic Conservatism is NOT against those things God is against, in this matter!

P.S.: There's a YUGE difference between taxpayer funded handouts, and earned profit-sharing from your employment! IF you can't see the difference, you don't know the difference between working for something vs. being gifted something! Profit-sharing isn't wages, but was worked for!

RICH RESPONSIBILITIES

You never know how generous any rich person is unless they tell you or signed Giving Pledge! and what they tell you may be an amount, not a percent of wealth. Average is two percent of annual income, to average Joes three percent! WE HAVE A SELFISHNESS PROBLEM AMONG AMERICA'S WEALTHY, folks! IT engenders Socialism!

Sign the Giving Pledge for credit in Heaven, and use here and now more than just for family and self, please! Jeff Bezos Becomes World's Richest Person <https://nyti.ms/2u1LvyL> (7/27/17)

Jeff Bezos is one of the greatest billionaires (and Buffett/Gates/Oprah), because he CHOOSES to pay $100K average, and not cheat workers because he can. No one begrudges his wealth, though he still should sign the Giving Pledge. He's already a HERO! Frequent moral businesses! The People are the power! USE it. (10/19/17)

NOT to be a contradictory hypocrite, I've suggested Bezos and Elon and ALL rich people voluntarily and significantly give back to society, MANY times (next retweets):

What's scandalous about that? and Gates gives back a lot! It's their EARNED personal property, Socialist! (3/25/21-2)

THE RICH & SOCIALISM

(6/9/21-2)

America is NOT getting the message, and she wouldn't listen if she did! Your wealth does NOT make you special, before God! In fact, Bezos and Musk will BOTH be living a fiery existence forever! You FOOLS think Forbes lists make one better than others! You are SO deceived by satan!

A TV ad showed a huge house, and a service truck seeking the entry pad code, which was 'GOAT.' Rich people will either be poor in Heaven, or in Hell, people! The ONLY exception is saved rich people, who use their wealth as God commands. Those who don't will be broke in Heaven, and MOST rich folk will BURN without let-up.

I don't know why U.S. pastors refuse to preach this truth! I guess it might turn off rich donors, but it's true, and we have a duty to warn! Robert Kraft got a Bentley for his birthday, AS IF that money couldn't better have solved a problem or blessed others.

America does NOT believe it's better to give than receive, because she does NOT believe the Bible! She is Laodicean-rich in money and poor in morality and spirituality! Deceived by satan. Worldliness is a sin, but the American Dream is essentially just that, with NO give back plans.

And token ones are NOT honored by God! ONLY significant ones. And significance is according to what one possesses! The widow's mite was VERY small in quantity, but very large before God!

And I must say if Dems ever got such, most Americans would NOT have pity parties over the rich's plight, even though I ONLY believe in fair taxes for everyone. YOU (selfish, hoarding, humble so people won't mob you) arrogant rich people are bringing disdain against yourselves, freely!

Young people cry 'eat the rich.' You may not have noticed but they really don't care what happens to your safety and health! They see how you can hob knob in luxury, as others suffer, and they are honest enough to say that is WRONG! Back to bed! You wouldn't listen anyway. Enjoy Hell!

IF, from NO fault of your own, mental or physical disabilities prevent you earning your own keep, Soc Sec disability exists! ALL OTHERS have NO excuse! YOU are the problem! Dems will NEVER tell you this, as they fear losing your vote for their cushy jobs! I JUST told you the TRUTH!

WHICH do you surmise God wants on our earth? It's NOT a hard question! If you're dead broke, and mentally competent, YOU ARE DOING SOMETHING WRONG, folks! You need to be trained! You're in crisis!

The Bible is CLEAR: There are lazy and productive poor, and there are evil and good rich people. WHICH do you surmise God wants on our earth? It's NOT a hard question! If you're dead broke, and mentally competent, YOU ARE DOING SOMETHING WRONG, folks! You need to be trained! You're in crisis!

And QUIT having kids if you're poor! They are ONLY an expense and a luxury! Get your own house in order, and maybe then you can afford to start a household! Keep your legs un-spread and your zipper zipped! You need to be working, not sexing! DO YOU LOVE THE TRUTH? Gal. 4:16 The devil doesn't

Finally, I mean this as zero disrespect, but if you are so poor that you struggle greatly, you truly may like life better in Mexico! There are ways to learn the language, fairly easily. I'm sure there are expat areas. The standard of living is LOW, and it's right across the border!

Homeless people have not earned taxpayer funding! They haven't earned money, to become taxpayers! They NEED help (psychological, job skills, motivation, spending habits). IF taxes got them on their feet, those taxes would rightly need to be paid back, thereafter! It's ONLY fair!

YOU got yourself into your predicament, somehow! Drugs, ticking off a spouse, bad gambles, alcohol, mental illness (which you didn't cause, in many cases). You have a history when you weren't homeless! You fell. Get back on your feet, with assistance I'm GLAD America offers! Then pay back!

And pay backs need not be Hell on your budget! Taxpayers aren't needy of crushing your success by instant repayment. No justice no peace! There's NOTHING just about people who don't need government help forced to help people who don't even pay into the system! Justice is KEY! Solutions exist!

One P.S.: If rich people refuse to be generous, and only some do, their collective ALLOWING of that selfish hoarding is going to bring on a wealth tax, IMO, or a South African uprising against the wealthy! It CAN'T be that you can't see how your excess can bless more than just your heirs!

TOO RICH FOR MY BLOOD

When you have WAY more than enough to make it to the end ($15M+), TOKEN gifts to charity (by percent of nest egg) do NOT impress God. I Tim. 6:17-19 The Giving Pledge! (12/9/14) and for any gifts from government EVERY recipient needs to be required to do needed civic service as token repayment. NO free lunches. One exception... (12/9/14)

NO economy has enough money supply so every citizen can be a millionaire! It's limited, in total. So when you have much more than you need, token showy gifts to charity don't deceive the informed! Rich folk average one percent to charity; the rest average three percent. Money can induce greed and hoarding sins! Ecc. 5:13/I Tim. 6:10 (3/28/19)

The Bible says MOST rich people end up in Hell. Money preoccupation vs. priorities focus has to be one major reason. The Giving Pledge asks an extreme percent sacrifice from you! I'm not encouraging 50 percent, but between 20 and 50 percent. You'll not only get a tax write off, you rightly deserve credit and fame (if you want it). That exception is the 100 percent mentally or physically disabled.

Identify all rich Americans, by name and address and company. Make a customized appeal to them, based on interests they have, you learn from news articles or social media. Make PSA TV ads to appeal to their generosity. don't be deceived by token gifts! $200K from a multi-millionaire. (10/5/20)

THE RICH GET RICHER

(10/27//21-2)

Let's be honest (as MOST people CAN'T do, but we ALWAYS do): There are benefits to being in the majority! Whites in America aren't going to give that status up readily; we may even secede, rather than lose it. It's NOT justice. That's a sin problem needing fixing! You rather be born black in America?

Fair taxes are NOT everyone paying the same percent! Fair requires ALL to suffer the same pain! Billionaires won't feel the same pain at low tax percent, and paying no taxes isn't feeling any pain, through freebies! Pain equality is justice. ALL else is injustice!

Dems want freebies, paid for mainly by GOP's. GOP's want no freebies, but earn your own keep. IF YOU DON'T KNOW OR DON'T BELIEVE THIS, YOUR IQ IS LACKING!

They NEVER will, because so many of them are greedy, selfish idolaters with egos seeking Forbes' richest rankings, and disobeying God! Hell is where most of them will end up! I Tim. 6:17-19

FOOLS accept crumbs, as corporations rake in millions! Workers won't strike or unionize nowadays, so they are resorting to voting for Dem freebies, instead. IF the rich don't start obeying God (I Tim. 6:17-19), I am for them being taxed more, so pain is equal for ALL, including all Dems!

One more update from my conversation, today. The rich have rich around them all the time, so they literally lose touch with the struggles of the majority poor. Bottom line, many of them don't give a damn about anyone else's struggles, if they have life's perks. God will destroy them, and bring justice.

EAT THE RICH? (PART I)

(10/27/21-2)

Business executives ONLY care about profits and cutting expenses. They could care less if you starve to death, if they are living in luxury. This is economic theory in U.S. business schools! I have two business degrees. They preach this is moral. It is satanically selfish, sin-full and evil! FIGHT IT!!!

Shareholders ALWAYS "demand" profit off their invested money. They require life to serve them. F them, folks! God is opposed to such selfish greed and hoarding, and on His behalf I will speak out against that, as they are NOT gods, but (usually) Hell-bound mere men! I am onto you!

Business is a pyramid. The top 15 percent, MAX, are executives and CEOs, who are over-paid and get bonuses off above-expected profits. If you are GOP, and NOT an executive, even you should be rallying for HIGHER wages for non-executives through profit sharing! TOO MANY WUSSIES IN America! Sheeple! WIMPS!

WHY are laborers/workers always so blindly ignorant of this FACT?: YOU are the U.S. majority! You have the voting power to force businesses to give you a decent wage! You have forfeited ALL power to business to dictate your life's wages, as unions got busted and globalization occurred.

Executives get BONUSSES for extra profits. IT'S TIME the laborers get a fair share of the corporate gains, too, as they were integral to their being gained! I am putting my foot down I will fight laborers being treated like scum, and business having all the leverage and power! That's UNjust!

RICH RULES

(10/29/21-2)

Message on rich people (EVERYTHING I SAY IS ABSOLUTELY TRUE, though you may not like it all):

1. If a rich person earned their living legally, they're NOT evil being rich.
2. Inheritance wealth is NOT as valued to be admired by others as earned yourself! The poor don't even get one!
3. The rich control business, and it controls wages. U.S. business is in global competition, but profits mainly benefitting the rich, executives and shareholders is NOT just! NO ONE should be overpaid (including execs), but executives have the power they use evilly to ONLY reward their own, vs. profit-sharing

4. EVERY rich person who isn't generous with their wealth is disobeying God! Token P.R. stunts are not generous! NO sacrifice, adjust trying to stave off hatred of the masses for your hoarding.
5. The rich have the best perks in life! They don't need government help for even better lifestyles!
6. MOST rich people will forever burn in a fiery Hell.
7. I know MANY rich people. MOST of them are 100 percent nice people; not miserly, mean or hateful. They simply never think about poor people, because their life never intersects. They may never have been poor, so can't relate to them
8. Inheritances are unfair to all who don't get one. Life's not fair, but you can see why non-recipients think already having advantages shouldn't be allowed to distance themselves so much, economically, through gifts! Taxes is how many poor seek to bridge this growing wealth gap.
9. Envy is evil! BUT, poor people thinking the rich have enough, and shouldn't hoard it all is NOT innately an evil idea, as God agrees the rich aren't to hoard.
10. Taxes for the rich should NEVER be lower than that of a secretary, NO MATTER WHAT, nor for any successful business!
11. Rich people should NOT have more influence over politicians than the masses!
12. The non-rich WILL unite and confiscate the rich's assets, if not physical safety, IMO, if they don't start giving back more than two percent, when average Joe gives three percent! ALL millionaires are "rich."

ANY who can retire today, live off conservative interest, and maintain their lifestyle are more than rich! Rich is always a matter of degree and comparison. I'm NOT for singling out the 400 richest families for more taxes, but they DO owe more taxes, as we make taxes fair to ALL citizens!

Handouts are EVIL, as government policy. EVERY American who isn't 100 percent disabled can live off what they earn, if they have the right skills, business and purchasing. The rich must fund a new Welfare program that ensures those results for all U.S. poor, for self-sufficiency!

There are MANY ways the non-rich can unite to make life more bearable, that don't involve any freebies! It is them vs. us! You're either a millionaire, or you aren't, and if those who are rich aren't obeying God (I Tim. 6:17-19), they have made themselves the ENEMIES of all others, and of God, IMO!

I have consistently been for a slightly higher business tax, $12/hour minimum wage, profit-sharing, strikes and unions. I was WELL before CHUMP on saying blue collar jobs must be decent paying and returned to America. The rich are OFTEN overpaid, "because they can." This IS everyone's business!

13. Rich people make money far easier than others! Their money can do all the heavy lifting. Some people call this unfair, but life's not fair. We must always work to make it more so, however.

Since every U.S. rich person requires making more money, to "help" others make money, by investment or a job, you are NOT going to get many rich people giving back much! Social pressure is needed, if not law changes.

Even unions and striking ONLY helps employees in individual businesses. ALL poorer people have to benefit, but NONE earn more than they deserve!

That's by the 3+ means I said. There's NO LAW that says the rich control things! There's no law that says working class always has to barely eek by! God does not mandate those things, and it is man's responsibility to rectify these unjust disparities! You can pray all your life; actions needed!

I do NOT want the poor physically harming the rich. I want the rich to meet God, and start obeying Him! And to the majority who never will, I warn you you are heading straight to Hell, and I hope and pray the poor are used to humble you, before then!

IMO, a third party WON'T be viable by 2024. It can start right now, to become so by 2028 or 2032. I am 100 percent behind that effort. The extremes MUST be defeated! The middle (dem and GOP), MUST unite! They won't see eye to eye, but common ground is common sense for them all—the majority!!!

You have Socialists and Capitalists. The Socialists are gaining ground. The Capitalists MUST unite. However, pure Capitalists NEED to repent! Modified Capitalists have nothing to repent of. Uniting with unrepentant sinners risks one siding with satan, subject to God's judgment!

Pure Trumpsters NEED God. They are NOT saved! They are Hellhound. They are in a cult, and satan has them captured and deceived. They need to repent, and be evangelized! Their political association with real Christians is an abomination, and an apostasy of convenience and power idolatry!

The GOOD things in political conservatism I 100 percent accept and agree with. The evil things I renounce any association with. ANY Christian who doesn't do the same is sinning, and can't be walking rightly with God. You stand for morality or you fall to sin! What's your decision? Josh. 24:15

RICH VS. POOR

(11/8/21-2)

I've been ITCHING to write this all day, since my day off ended up being work, and since Twitter time-outed our other main account for stating what conservative political ideology's actions deem OK toward the poor (government do nothing, even if people were to diet, minus the T, as a result).

NO Christian can have NO concern about the poor; their life being fine, so why worry! Sinful Christians CAN have such lack of concern! Paul didn't (Gal. 2:10), but was EAGER to consider their plight. Proverbs says a righteous man shares that concern! Pv. 29:7

Though I do NOT believe UNSustainable freebies are the answer, WHAT government actions could bring justice, when all but the rich were harmed by globalization and outsourcing of the 1980's, when 1950's pensions ended, as with all other business actions that only favored business (listed this AM at @JamesMeroney2)? Level the playing field!

That's ALL government is allowed to do: Seek justice, not favoritism. Everyone's happy for the poor to do better if it doesn't involve their money helping them! politicians propose minimum wage hikes, freebies galore, voting higher taxes on the rich, but what's needed is a level playing field where business and labor have equal negotiating power!

The federal government ALLOWED business to have almost all the advantages and leverage, with over-immigration and over-outsourcing, and now over-robotizing and over-automating! Americans aren't often going to leave America!

The government HAS to care for the well-being of ALL Americans—NOT just the rich! IF this injustice from the early 90s and late 80s isn't remedied, BAD policies WILL ensue (like Socialism), as the poor have the numbers, or even eat the rich riots that can spin out of control.

IF VICE TV is correct, the rich would rather pay lawyers than lose any more wealth to higher taxes. THAT WOULD MEAN the rich have NO intention of lessening their luxurious lifestyles, if doing so helped anyone else! That also means them signing the Giving Pledge, or upping their charity gifts from two percent (to average Joe's three percent) will NOT often happen!

Their argument is many Americans pay NO taxes, and that's UNfair for them to do the heavy lifting. 100 percent TRUE! Makes taxes fair, which is equal pain, not equal percentage, then let those who help business profit share profits!

We've gone from $70-90K union and manufacturing jobs, pre-globalization, to $56K national average. That shift was NOT negotiated through equal leverage! ALL injustices need to be remedied by government, if the private sector won't first. NO favoritism, but JUSTICE! Levit. 19:15 That is God's will/plan!

THE RICH RULE!?

One is privileged to be in the top 10 percent in America. That means 90 percent of Americans live at a lower lifestyle. People like Sean Hannity proverbially ask 'who is rich,' but the question has answers! Let's explore how almost everything in America is against the poor.

First, do not get me wrong: The poor are NOT heroes. There's zero reason to make them a cause celebre. But they DO exist, are human, and deserve to be considered and treated humanely, as creations of God. Trickle-down economics teaches that lower taxes will eventually help them. That's often a farse!

Lower taxes give businesses and richer people (like investors and taxpayers) more money to spend or invest to make more money from. It causes paper nest eggs to rise. What does it do for the majority poor? Basically nothing!

If the feds can't pay all their bills, because revenue decreases, it borrows or prints more money, which increases debt or inflation, or both. Inflation makes the poor's daily bread costlier.

The theory goes lower taxes will expand the economy, because more people have more money to spend or invest. But NOT SO for the poor. They are supposedly to benefit from job creation. But modern business often pays executives big bonuses, buys back stock, reinvests in the company, or AI/automation/robotics (which REPLACE low level jobs), and fund ways to CUT the workforce, rather than grow more jobs (as happened in earlier times).

If the rich get richer, that's supposed to help the poor? That only widens the wealth gap! In the olden days it triggered more charitable giving. We have rich, now days, who fight every tax and law, in their favor, so that's NOT behavior indicating any concern to donate more.

And with all the tricks business engages to profit more (outsourcing, imported labor, automation, part-time benefit-less, contract labor, increased insurance co-pays, fighting minimum wage increases and unions), none of them benefit the poor's wages or buying power! The poor in America MUST organize for leverage!!!

The selfish, greedy, hoarding, uncaring rich person is anti-American, pure Capitalist, and a God-hating phenomena! The generous rich are the opposite! The former NEED to be ostracized, criticized, and 1 day will be pulverized by the angry mobs, IMO. People don't get trampled on forever!

ANY government that has ANY public policy or laws that favor the rich is satanic, God-disobeying, and evil! Levit. 19:15 The rich already have it good, folks. The ungenerous ones should be targets of public scorn, if not worse! I Tim. 6:17-19; Pv. 22:16 and I'm NOT saying the poor are heroes!

MONEY VS. MATERIALISM

(11/27/21; @Jameseroney2)

The entire debate is over money! Taxation and our burdensome over-spending government and escalating national debt is about money! Entitlements, and Biden promising many, many freebies off taxpayers is ALL ABOUT THE MONEY!

The late Rush Limbaugh said no one can be overpaid, as someone paid them! He 100 percent/completely missed the point of those clamoring about wage inequality! NO ONE deserves to be over- or under-paid! You should be paid what is fair and what you deserve!

Wages can be manipulated, just as prices can! That tweet said that company jacked up prices because they wanted to, then blamed it on inflation. Our country and our world has gone crazy and is in a satanic stronghold over money!

Money rules the world. God only does in a reality few of us believe (I do), because we see Him intervene so infrequently, and see the golden rule at play—he with the gold makes the rules. God told us this would be the case! Pv. 22:7; Ecc. 10:19 BUT God told us many other truths about money that certain ones among us DON'T want to hear!

WE DO NOT WANT TO HEAR what God has to say about the ownership and use of filthy lucre! YES, God calls money filthy, when abused! I Tim. 3:3 God says you can own enough, after which you must and should give back, if you're rich! I Tim. 6:17-19 That pertains to EVERY rich person!

God says do not chase after money! Pv. 23:4-5 God says loving money is a sin. Lk. 16:14 God says loving money causes you many problems! I Tim. 6:10 God says that greed, selfishness and hoarding are evils. God says the holy man prays for neither wealth nor poverty.

Pv. 30:8 God says the Christian who is entrenched in the affairs of this life, mainly the lust for money, things and sex, and the arrogance that often comes in that pursuit, is worldliness, and that worldliness makes a person God's ENEMY! I Jn. 2:15-17; Jas. 4:4 God says the rich person is in a LOW position before Him.

Jas. 1:10 God says FEW rich people will avoid a fiery eternity in Hell! Mt. 19:24 God describes the last era of Christendom as depicted by wealthy churches spiritually bankrupt. Rev. 3:14-22 God says the poor will be the ones rich in faith in Him. Jas. 2:5

God shows some of His most faithful servants as poor. Ac. 3:6 Jesus didn't even have enough funds to lay down His head, at times. Lk. 9:58 God teaches humans to care for the poor. WE DON'T WANT TO! We'd rather disdain them and call them fools or losers in life!

God says life is NOT about how much you own Lk. 12:15 God says a person EITHER seeks Him and His holiness first priority, and relies on him to supply his needs, or he lives in sin! Mt. 6:16-33 God says a man's wealth will be both a fortress for him in this life, and also a boat anchoring slave master! Pv. 10:15; Mt. 6:24

NO ONE can serve God and serve money! One will always out-prioritize the other! God says we are to be content with food and shelter. MOST are NOT! I Tim. 6:8 YOU NEVER HEAR THESE THINGS about money! It's NOT that you don't attend church; these truths are hidden even inside there!

So ALL of this world's society is clamoring over money! The black females were saying "colonialism" has established a white supremacist state that has to be dethroned, and they don't care if any white people are uncomfortable with their anger. The liberal complains the worker gets screwed by the rich.

The conservative, Mark Levin, says Giving Pledge rich people are "self-loathing," meaning if you love yourself you will disobey God, by being greedy, selfish and hoarding. EVERYONE is talking about money! The liberal (Ex.: Biden) is promising freebies to buy votes!

He may have considered rewarding law breaking trespassers with a life's lottery windfall, for tRUMP RIGHTLY seeking some way to discourage their illegally breaking into OUR country! Even that act of illegal immigration is to get more Dem voters for Socialism, which is THEFT from the rich and taxpayers!

"Free" healthcare, daycare, home down payment, student loan forgiveness, college. EVERYTHING is about the money, and who has it, who wants it, and how to get in on it, legally or illegally, fairly or unfairly! Money is our obsession, and national pastime! We have a golden idol and our idol is NOT God, America!

We can mouth "in God we trust," "one nation under God," and being a "Christian nation" all we want, but the facts prove otherwise! God, like Elvis, has left the building! We are a money-worshipping society with MANY problems, and many of them stem from our valuation and use of money!

IT IS EVIL that some among us live the high life, while any severely struggle! Mahatma Gandhi RIGHTLY said, "The world has enough for everyone's needs, but not everyone's greed." God Himself spoke of the rich having enough, and needing to give back!

I Tim. 6:17-19 WE DON'T WANT TO OBEY GOD! We reject His rulership over our lives! We spurn His laws and commands! We LIKE injustice, if it benefits us! We could care less about the poor, if we never have to see them, because we have geographic segregation!

WE DON'T CARE that profit-sharing is FAIR, if a company succeeds, as the workers helped gain those profits! WE DON'T CARE if workers starve, or barely get by, or can't pay their exorbitant medical bills, except through crowd funding, because we are a sick and evil people needing moral awakening and sin forsaking!

WE CANNOT ESCAPE THE COMING WRATH OF GOD, people! Seven years of Hell-on-earth are quickly approaching, and so well-deserved and overdue! If we are fat and happy, living in the lap of luxury, we don't give one damn about anyone else!

People like Elon Musk toy with the idea of obeying God, apparently for media coverage. IF he actually forks out his own $6B to fund hunger the right way, that will NOT be rightly said of him. People like Jeff Bezos has an ex-wife who obeys God, but NOT him, in obeying I Tim. 6:17-19. Yet these types are raised up as "heroes," by some!

THE MORE EVIL VS. GOOD RICH

(11/28/21-2)

Wonder why cutting costs, to drive up stock values, at the cost of worker wages stagnating, layoffs, low minimum wage, etc., got us into more debt, less people living the American Dream, etc.? Everything costs more, so the average America dies in debt. @Vice While The Rest of Us Die

Jack Welch focused on making pure profit, as the suckers made productive things that had to be manufactured. So they shipped out those functions overseas, sold off their productive assets, and entered the financial services game. They discovered that they can make more money lending for consumers to buy, with interest, than actually producing anything, which costs them money.

...The corporate elites and CEOs became the only ones getting richer, and greatly so. (paraphrased)

I said/wrote that a third judgment is coming to America. I will NEVER retract that statement! Only sit back and watch what form it comes in!

I'm AGAINST all freebies, ALL taxes higher than is required, FOR business, against severe poverty, and AGAINST anyone not paying into taxes, by money or civic service. Justice is God's standard! ANYONE opposing justice opposes God. Mercy is even better, freewilledly! READ MORE BIBLE!

ALEC, Federalist Society, Heritage Foundation, Institute for Justice, CATO, Manhattan Institute, AEI, Marshall Institute, George Mason University ALL seeking to influence government to favor the rich, says @Vice on While the Rest of Us Die. GOD OPPOSES THAT! READ Leviticus 19:15

We the people are going to make EVERYONE pay their fair share in taxes! NO ONE left behind. And government's going to go on a YUGE diet! NO paid-for politicians, as well! ONLY justice 61 percent of Americans paid no federal income taxes in 2020

That injustice is 100 percent behind the growing movement for Socialism in America! When poor see the rich having it all, while NOT paying in, or paying in their fair share, they revolt. NO American can pay zero in taxes, poor included. They HAVE to do civic service, as no funds to part with!

IT IS ASININE that those who have life the best insist on paying less taxes than is fair! WHO IN THE h—would call that just? Justice is God's standard, and I will personally discover every name of people paying LESS than their fair share (even if it's the top 400 families, or not)!

I GUARANTEE you every business and person paying NO taxes are going to bear the brunt of the lower and middle class, politically or physically! I had NEVER known so many companies and people were paying ZERO!

@Vice educated me. It's SIN God opposes! Levit. 19:15 He who pays piper calls the tune?

'We end up living in a society where we the people pay for all of the external costs of a corporation.' ...'that's the way every corporation tends to work. They look at whatever's going to cost them money, and they figure out how to externalize that to the public sector.
...How did we become convinced that bankrupting our government was good for us, even as bridges and roads crumbled, and the costs of college and housing exploded, wages flatlined, and the middle class began to disappear?

IT IS INTOLERABLE that the poor and middle class suffer unnecessarily, because the upper class ever avoids their fair share of collective costs, known as taxes. It's also intolerable for government to ever spend more than is required, or waste anything! FIX IT ALL!

@Vice transcript:

‘And then, at the very end, when they die, they can avoid the taxes at the end of life—the estate tax—and so they are really outside of the tax system.’ Of course, wealthy individuals aren’t alone in avoiding paying taxes. In 2020, 55 of the richest corporations in America also got away with paying zero taxes. <https://itep.org/55-profitable-corporations-zero-corporate-tax/>

ABSOLUTELY NO individual and NO corporation should EVER pay ZERO in taxes! Eye-opening show While The Rest of Us Doe, on @Vice
YES, it’s left-leaning, but God has said not to favor the rich! They are the most to give back, and the most blessed already! LOOK at the episode transcript:

You simply decide what your income really is. You simply choose not to pay yourself. Leave your wealth alone in your company, or your investments. ‘They sit on this mountain of wealth; it appreciates in value, and they don’t sell, and they don’t spend down their fortunes. Instead they borrow against their fortunes to fund their lifestyles, help their business.’ While for the rest of us, borrowing means going into debt, for the uber rich it’s a way to sequester their wealth from the IRS.

THE RICH & CHARITY

(12/5//21-2)

It’s time for me to come clean: I can be subjective. My upbringing, my education (2 business degrees), my pro-business values and having been in Students In Free Enterprise in college (and being white) have ALL influenced my treating people not in the top 10 percent more theoretically than practically!

As I watch my near 20s kids earn OK wages, but never yet enough to make it in our area of town on their own, without roommates, it reminds me 90 percent of Americans make less than we do, and I’ve been writing for over a decade for no pay yet. I read the Bible a lot, and there you see Jesus and the Old Testament talk about caring for the poor.

Of all people He gets maddest at, it the religious and the rich; I can’t recall one incident where He rebuked a poor person. HE was poor, earthly-speaking, as often were His disciples. It’s no glory being poor, but it’s a challenge He says others must care about.

That’s hard, because we also strive to meet our own needs, so why add more stress taking away from your own to help another? God understood this dilemma, and targets mainly the rich for giving back. I Tim. 6:17-19 Where I am going with all this is that, as a centrist, I am NOT a trickle down economic adherent!

IF the Bible is true, governments are NOT to favor the rich (or poor). Levit. 19:15 IF the Bible is a myth, and irrelevant, go right ahead! I read a post, yesterday, that said 50 years of research shows that economic theory has caused a wide income gap, NOT changed unemployment much, grown our economy much (it’s grown, when it has, off irresponsible national debt!) and the rich have made out like bandits as the other were stagnant or got poorer.

Another post said the upper crust seeks to divide all others, so they’re distracted by the fact that mainly if not only the rich make off with all the goodies. IF you observe life, these amateur, layman-based posts are spot on! You don’t have to own a PhD to see they are correct! This message is on Bridled Capitalism.

Fair and balanced! (NOT like Fox News or MSM). JUST OBSERVE, with open mind and eyes to facts, what has happened since the Reagan era: The working class USED to have manufacturing jobs that paid nearly $70K and had benefits and pensions. Post WW2, labor made decent to good wages!

BUT when Yuppies took over in the 1980s, LOOK at all the policies that transpired, and ask yourself if ANY of them help the working class? and if not, are we working where there's a level playing field between labor and management, because God is for justice, even as many men are NOT!

Economics pundits are NOT concerned about justice! MBA and BBA curricula is all about maximizing profits and minimizing costs/expenses, ANY WAY YOU LEGALLY CAN! That attitude has ZERO concern for the environment (you can't profit, but you lose, spending money to make your golden goose less pollutive!).

Human beings, made in God's image, were reduced to FTE accounting entries! I know, because I worked at a Big Four Consulting company. Actual, living, breathing human beings with God-given dignity were called (aloud), "FTE's" (full-time equivalents), to erase any emotional connection to them as any different from a widget, when it came to budget slashing.

Now, here's that list. TELL ME honestly (vs lying or biasedly) which of these policies helped the working class?

1. CEOs exorbitantly overpaid, because Boards of Directors colludes, lining their own pockets by so doing/in the process, as bonuses and salaries were tied to stock price, which could be manipulated using MBA techniques.
2. Massive layoffs.
3. Automation and streamlining.
4. M and A (mergers and acquisitions).
5. Outsourced jobs from America.
6. Imported labor, including illegal aliens.
7. Part-time and contract labor (which simply means the company owes NO benefits).
8. Increased patient co-pays.
9. Fighting all minimum wage increase attempts.
10. Ending pensions.
11. Union busting.
12. Robotics and AI.
13. Buying politicians, because it's cheaper to pay lobbyists and lawyers to fight taxes than to pay them.
14. Cajoling ZERO taxation as threat/leverage to move one's headquarters to another state
15. Avoiding executives and CEO's taking actual salaries, so they borrow from the business, to gain a tax advantage off their sustenance.
16. Tax shelters, offshore bank accounts, sHell companies, purposeful business losses, to counter profits, for tax avoidance purposes.
17. Fighting having an estate tax (so all you raked in only stays with spoiled brats raised with a silver spoon).
18. Tax breaks, even with 28 trillion in debt NOT getting paid down.

19. Executives and shareholders (investors) splitting ALL the profits, or them being funneled into ownership of income-producing holdings. NONE ever going to employees (profit-sharing)

20. Getting taxed off capital gains (money doing all the work) at rates lower than off actual work, that requires human effort (vs algorithms and computer generated trading).

TELL ME AGAIN God is in such a system that favors mainly the rich! Again, remember Jesus! II Tim. 2:8 His concern was for the needy. He never opened a business, and didn't fraternize with the high and mighty. BUT God teaches balance! Pv. 30:7-9; Levit. 19:15

Our economic system wants NONE of that, nor any justice! 90 percent of Americans aren't living it up in the lap of luxury. They're making ends meet, and banks and the rich are wanting them living off credit cards, as that's 'pure profit.'

Forget Jesus on this subject, if you aren't spiritually inclined: Remember as well, the days when companies were families! The boss cared about his employees, and they remained loyal, as a result. Job hopping wasn't a sport! My ONLY point is current state is anti-worker! That's WRONG!

and guess what will come of this obsession toward wealth? An uprising of Socialism! They have the numbers! They have the votes. They have the protesters and violent agitators. You can buy as many guns as you'd like, but your own selfish values are coming back to haunt you, self-inflicted.

P.S.: God has a solution for the rich, which pure Capitalists NEVER want to hear or do: Give back to society! It's NOT just a suggestion! I Tim. 6:17-19 MOST rich people will be in Hell, and life is NOT about how much you have! Lk. 12:15 START CARING about people outside your family and orbit!

The great titans of industry used to have monopolies, and rake in amazing sums, by today's standards. yet the ones we still revere gave back huge philanthropic sums, as well. NOT AS MUCH, today, where avg Joe donates three percent, and selfish greedy SOBs give a paltry two percent. LOOK at the numbers:

Carnegie, $7.2 billion; J. Rockefeller, $7.1 billion; J. Rockefeller, Jr., $5.5 billion. This aspect of wealth is NOT being emulated nearly as much as in days gone by, and will lead to people hating the rich even more; NOT from jealousy but necessity for sustainable income—revolts and riots... (12/27/19)

I don't want Elon or Bezos to stop using their gift at money-making, or to retire! I don't want Jack to quit business. I want them all to learn to obey God! I Tim. 6:17-19 It will NOT be well for most rich people when they surely die! They're living a FALSE concept of what's really living!

Equal footing, economically, is NOT freebies. It is the following:

1. Just enough immigrants that Americans' jobs and wages aren't threatened, but business doesn't lack for needed labor
2. Unions are allowed
3. Profit-sharing happens. Employees contributed to making those profits!
4. Minimum wages adjusts up and down depending on economic ups and downs. That's JUST!
5. Executives give back generously
6. Taxes are FAIR, and no one pays zero
7. Government is involved in monitoring if all advances are simply pushing everyone not owning a machine out of the workplace
8. Outsourcing is given limits. America first for Americans!
9. World class jobs training and education makes American workers the best-qualified American job candidates

10. America stops outsourcing everything to our frenemy, China, but diversifies our supply chain, IMMEDIATELY!

HISTORIC RICH

(12/5/21-2)

In early 1900s Americans idolized captains of industry for their wealthy and philanthropy. Since the greedy 80-90s, they only idolize the former! That is American FAILURE! I am warning us all, God is going to judge America for all her many and massive sins! May be too late to repent!

If any human thinks poorly of Giving Pledgers, or even thinks they're just like every other rich person, YOU ARE A BONA FIDE FOOL! Just like the bumper-sticker: If I'm passing you on the right, you're an idiot! These statements are common sense, folks! I shouldn't have to tell you, but I do and taxing the rich taxes their annual income.

NOT their nest eggs, off of which they can live through interest! ONLY the estate taxes that, when they die. Taxing the rich more doesn't pay down U.S. debt as much as some might think! one year's pay is a pittance for them! And FAIRNESS matters.

There USED to be buyers and sellers' markets in employment. Only at the pandemic have businesses finally experienced worker shortages (a taste of their own medicine). It should ALWAYS be good for BOTH sides; never favoring rich or poor! Immigration is the governor for this, positive or negative.

Market forces will cause most jobs to pay more, but what we need, for the field to be leveled with management, is accurate information made public on every job's payout-period! You'd be surprised the range of entry level jobs my son found years ago, as to pay differentials! LEARN.

NO ONE is supposed to stay there, but if one is a mere high school grad (or drop out), the ONLY way to rise (i.e. better skills), or work harder, better or work overtime! Raises aren't plentiful, or advanced into management! Robots can replace entry level employees! BAND TOGETHER!

$7.25 an hour minimum wage is slave wages, except for those who earn mainly off tips. That's ~$15K/year, just over the U.S. poverty rate for one person. HOW could they survive? Fixed costs exist for water, gas, gasoline, vehicle maintenance, housing, food, clothes, TV/web, etc.!

I know. I live in the 10 percent area. Anywhere I go for five miles I see NO need, excepting any UNJUSTLY shipped in here through section 8. It's EASY to only see life through that lens, but I've also been all over DFW, and I've seen how the 90 percent others live! I don't yield to subjectivism (blind to others).

NO business anywhere in the world shouldn't pay their fair share in taxes, nor any rich person anywhere in the world. Period! Workers EVERYWHERE should have safe working conditions and humane treatment! There are global standards every nation should adhere to, to do the right thing!

Minimum wage hike, Socialism/freebies, higher taxes on the wealthy, or the like. The rich can quell this backlash by obeying God. When Mark levin calls Giving Pledgers "self-loathing," he shows political conservatism is opposed to God on the proper use of and attitude toward money!

Rev. 17-18 proves there will always be rich people. The liberal "eat the rich" campaign will FAIL! The rich do not deserve harm, but they do owe society fair taxes and significant give back. Since they won't, for the most part, the voters will make a move that is nonviolent!

Either Solomon, David and Abraham were rich for their day. For the most part, over all, they were quite righteous person. That means the way they used their wealth would have conformed to God's will. That conformity is what we are missing in so many modern rich people! I Tim. 6:17-19

God does NOT set an amount on when someone has enough, nor does the Bible explicitly teach having too much means anyone quits working, or gets taxed more. I Tim. 6:17-19 solves what to do then, BUT most rich people WON'T do that! So, will the people opt to tax them more, vs. free willed?

Richest people in history: lovemoney.com The richest people of all time
From Bill Gates to Genghis Khan, Henry Ford to Augustus Caesar, we reveal the wealthiest individuals ever.

Strategy for overthrowing the NON-Giving Pledge rich is the same as overthrowing Communist dictators!
1. Organize, secretly 2. Get the military on your side 3. Have arms sufficient to the task I'm FOR people being rich! I'm NOT for them hoarding, or having MUCH more than they need!

Money has replaced God in the WASP Church, in MANY lives! Our faith is in our bank accounts, and God and Caesar get short-changed. Lip service "faith" in God never really needs Him to provide for us; just more an emotional feeling that makes us feel good about ourselves!

There is a contingent of Americans who idolize money, make heroes of the rich, and don't give one damn what God thinks about that! For ANY Christians to be allied with these idolaters is the height of apostasy and hypocrisy, YET we see that EVERY DAY! Laodicean values and priorities!

IT WILL NEVER HAPPEN, absent violence, but IF every rich person was capped at $150M, every human could get all needed (vs desired) healthcare, never starve, have clothes, a place to live, the ecology preserved, diseases eradicated and weather disasters averted by technology.

Bible teaches one can own enough. Lk. 12:13-21 This man was a FOOL to God, when he sought much more than he needed. That's the point where taxes should be able to get at most excess. What a world we could experience of that occurred, with nowhere on earth or on Mars for them to escape.

THE PROBLEM WITH WEALTH

(12/6/21-2)

THE PROBLEMS WITH WEALTH. THIS will be a mouthful, but I don't wake up till 6:15, unless the Lord awakens me. It will also be long-winded, and a bit convoluted, with a clear end-game in mind: The rich young ruler (Mk. 10:17-27) is OFTEN misinterpreted.

Many teach you have to give up EVERYTHING to get saved, and cite this story, combined with Christ's own teaching that that is true regarding becoming His disciple. IF you read closely, the man had lived a stellar moral life, even from his childhood! He asks Jesus what deed or deeds he can do to inherit eternal life? Inheritance was his domain, as a wealthy man who could leave one.

It was the right of his heirs, so he thinks one has a right to eternal life if they do something he felt he had missed. Instead, Jesus points out that if one is unwilling to admit they are a sinner/imperfect, morally, they will never enter in. Jesus uses the man's idol, the love of money, as proof he was not perfect, and to prove what was in his heart, He asks him to give up what was in his hand and bank account, which he was Unwilling to do.

The disciples ask Jesus about this curious exchange, afterwards, and the moral/lesson of the story is revealed: Salvation is impossible for man, by works, and only possible by God, and faith in Him. WHY do I share this story's interpretation? MANY rich people idolize and hoard money, and are greedy and self-centered! It's like an addiction you cannot forsake.

Last night, it was revealed even China is nobly/honorably/morally seeking to bridge the income gap PROBLEM. Problem?, you may ask? I am as much a Capitalist as the next guy, but it is being abused, so YES, "problem!" The few are making out like bandits, while masses of people suffer needlessly.

This is NOT how God wants the world! The Bible DOES teach you should enjoy the fruits of your labor. But HOW one gets and uses their wealth God also speaks of! We LIKE to avoid the responsibility part, and just enjoy the privilege!

Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; private property rights; don't tread on me, et al. The late Rush Limbaugh posited that the economy is NOT a finite pie everyone takes a slice of, but it expands and contracts, and anyone can get rich if they have the right ideas implemented.

This is HALF true I'm sorry that it's complicated, and not just a lie or a truth, but it's half true! Anyone can get as rich as their skills and God-given talents can take them, but if everyone had a great idea to profit off of, there are not enough consumers in the world with disposable income to fund all those businesses, because the disposable income would have quickly all have been disposed of.

This is why income inequality is a thing, and a bad thing! The more the elites make money off their money, invest it to make businesses more profitable, so they make more money through capital gains, and hoard their nest eggs from much if any charitable giving, and pay high-priced lawyers and accountants to hide and shield their earnings and nest eggs from taxation, the less society benefits from their being the primarily sole winners! And I am not, and never am speaking of freebies.

EVERYTHING in American life is coddling the rich—period! The more you learn, the more you learn that statement is TRUE! Forget all the perks and amenities and special treatment. WHO ELSE can pay off lawyers to avoid taxes? WHO ELSE can pay off evil politicians to make laws favor them?

WHO ELSE pays nothing in taxes, individually or in their business, but those who can't afford their next meal?

WHY DO AMERICANS ACCEPT THIS FAVORING OF THE WEALTHY, when God says to NOT do that? Levit. 19:15 They are NOT God, and MOST of them will spend eternity NOT with God!

We idolize money, so he with the most has to be a hero, right? WRONG-O! It's commendable that one has the skill to be paid handsomely! It's NOT commendable when they disobey God (I Tim. 6:17-19), hoard, spoil their heirs, and live the life of Riley as others struggle, because they do everything in their power/control to squeeze every last dime out of everyone not in their social circle!

The income gap between the top crust (crust is dried bread, hardened and unappealing) and the lower rung has ONLY widened over time. Our biggest competitor, China, is addressing it, and so should we!

A preacher named J John said, 'what's the cure for greed? Give it away. Jesus told that same remedy to the rich young ruler! But he didn't obey Jesus either! The titans of industry, from our industrial revolution, USED to be as known for their giving as their getting!

Now the rich are primarily known for their landing on the Forbes list of the world's wealthiest! God, again, has relevance to this situation! He says of money, that which man cherishes is despicable to Him. Lk. 16:15 God says a rich man is in a LOW position before Him! Jas. 1:10-12

We humans call the rich the high and mighty. Jesus rebuked the rich (Lk. 6:24), because in this life they are getting all they will ever get, because the FEW who make it to Heaven will be paupers there! God is a fair God. You can't have it all now, and expect much if any hereafter!

Ostriches, who don't want to hear anything negative about over-doing Capitalism: READ this! Open your mind to more than your agenda and rhetoric!:

You LITERALLY have to think that in an ideal world, everyone would have enough to survive, and many would have enough for their basic wants and needs, and the rest would be held by the rich. That is NOT AT ALL what we see down here on earth! Make our world better!

THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS (I)

(12/7/21-2)

God teaches those with ears to hear to generously give back. I Tim. 6:17-19 If ears get clogged with wax, or index fingers, the people revolt, and start clamoring for Socialism!

It may be nice thinking you are the one who call all the shots, but you who are rich are not likely to enjoy life past your 80 or so years, as God also teaches your faith in your wealth often hinders your knowing Him, which leads to it all being burnt up once you're gone.

You may believe you're enjoying your best life now, but God is just, and it will NOT go well for you when you die, and your life could be MUCH better before then, if you did what God commands of you toward society/others! Less trials, longer years, more fulfillment, possibly. That's NOT how God designs economies or governments! Levit. 19:15

Less medical problems, more joy, more self-respect, a better reputation, and IF you were to learn to know God, even your eternity would brighten up! John 3:16 You can learn these lessons the easy way or the hard way!

You may get away with a hoardingly greedy lifestyle, for a while, (till Hell) with your gains and happiness, then retiring, but rest assured if the general populous doesn't have at you, from anger over your lack of concern, God is just waiting to execute the judgment you are already living under, not knowing Him. I pray you learn the joy and value of less selfishness, greed and sinfulness—soon!

FRUGALLY FILTHY RICH

(12/13/21-2)

America's unphilanthropic rich primarily NEVER consider or even think of others! They believe it's moral just to get as much as you can, for yourself. Judgment day will be HELL for them! (NOT the generous/philanthropic ones).

WHY are the rich looked to fix problems and increase lifestyles of the poor? NO ONE ELSE but businesses have excess. They don't owe it, as they didn't birth those people. They should do it, without becoming middle class, because God blessed you to bless others. Never give money directly.

EVERY human needs a job- or survivalist skills (if they don't plan to have a job). The most primitive culture has to have the most mundane job skills worker capable of learning how to live off what wages that job procure! Or, become a survivalist and live off the land, earning no money.

EVERY human SHOULD have food, shelter, clothes and sanitation, as with basic healthcare needs met, and a means to get any needed costly medical care. IF our world agreed to this minimum standard, I believe God would be pleased! Each nation care for your own citizens. Push self-sufficiency!

Communism, Socialism and bridled Capitalism ALL seek to ensure no one severely suffers. Pure Capitalism claims that concern, but practice is not the same as theory. If EVERY nation ensured basic minimums for all, who would care how rich anyone got? That's the global need!

Doing good by your people is seen as slighting shareholders, even as conservatives claim the money supply is NOT finite! Richer than all others investors can afford a bit less, so the working class can enjoy a little more! Fear they'll withdraw funds can be globally rebuffed!

IF conservatives refuse all of the following, I expect a majority will vote for taxing the rich more, if not freebies Socialism:

1. Giving back significant. I Tim. 6:17-19
2. Paying their fair share in taxes--NONE pay none!
3. Profit sharing
4. Adjustable with economy minimum wage

JUST ACT HUMBLE?

(12/24/21-2)

It's NOT how humble rich people do or don't live. It's whether they benefit society and obey God's I Tim. 6:17-19 command! Warren Buffett DOES (and lives humble, though he certainly doesn't have to).

THIS should go without saying, but needs to be said: NO rich person should EVER skate, and not pay their fair share in taxes--period! and they SHOULD obey God, in being generous in giving back to society! I Tim. 6:17-19

1. You are NOT a hero to be a hoarder!
2. No one else can improve our society as easy as you, with your spare change!
3. How much do you need, to feed your competitive ego, vs. being moral?
4. YES, it's yours (Ac. 5:4) and you "earned" it. But the more you gain is at others' expense, as you take it out of circulation to spoil heirs and your luxuried self
5. IF you disbelieve in or have NO fear of God, you will believe all is OK with your high lifestyle. BUT, if He is real, you are in severe trouble!
6. I can't guilt you into caring about societal probs vs. just money-making! You have to have a conscience and heart, for that, as a human vs. bot
7. Your peers keep you keeping your stash, from a FAKE status game! You are nobody to God, and put your fancy pants on the same way as the workers you squeeze every last dime from!
8. Investing is NOT sweat of the brow hard work-but intellectual, comfortable and automated
9. You are legally FREE to hoard it all, and be praised by evil people who are Hell bound, but in most cases, YOU are also Hell bound! DO YOU CARE? That means fire singeing you every day forever! Good luck with that, tough guy!
10. You LOVE men's praise of your achievements. God's NOT impressed. Gal. 1:10

Find a cause; one cause! Make the world better because you lived in it! Give NO ONE direct cash, as individual recipients! Fix a problem you can't make enough profit from! You WON'T suffer learning Jesus' words, in Ac. 20:35 and Lk. 12:33 You are NOT God; HE sees ALL!

and READ Luke 16! 1. FOOLS believe life is making money. 2. Justice awaits the rich when they die. They get ALL they'll ever get only in this life, if unsaved 3. You can have enough. You already do! SIN tells you that's untrue; Satan, from Hell, gives you those thoughts. Merry Christmas!

P.S.: And IF you can't see a quality difference between the likes of Warren Buffett and Elon Musk, DON'T EVER be in charge of quality assurance at any of your invested businesses! God sees the difference! Your sin nature can blind you from seeing the same! And QUIT buying (off) politicians! Levit. 19:15

P.S.S.: FYI, the phrase, "that's none of your business" often is said by people not happy you're holding them accountable to moral principles! NOT that you have no right or business doing so! IF true, this would make him a LIAR, and liars end in the Lake of Fire, and aren't heroes for any to emulate, adulate or congratulate! Duh 101

BIBLE OR CONSTITUTION?

(12/24/21-2)

For the Christian, the U.S. Constitution (interpreted by conservatism) OR the Bible is your number one life authority, including in your politics! Re-read this till it ever impacts your decision-making. YOU'RE rebelliously carnal/sinful, if you choose wrongly! MANY do! Judgment coming! I Pet. 4:17

There is NO law, nor does God anywhere say that business' ONLY purpose is profit-making! He does speak of business, but often in a negative light! READ James 4-5. The far right conservative position on business, taxes and the Giving Pledge is ANTI-God! Christians apostatize FOR it!

HERE is EXACTLY when U.S. business theory/philosophy went morally astray: In the 1990s, employees/workers were labeled "FTE's" (full-time equivalents), by consultants, to dehumanize them as mere budgetary entries, like other physical assets! NO concern for their being humans! EVIL!!!

HERE's how it breaks down: Society has problems needing fixing, and the fixes cost money. Taxes are ONLY on a percent of citizens. EVERYONE has to have buy in, and suffer its pain. The rich have been benefitted the most by our society. Must be good at business and philanthropy, to be respected!

WHY GIVE BACK?

(12/28/21-2)

HOW could society convince unphilanthropic rich Americans to give back generously, as God demands? I Tim. 6:17-19 Get them saved and disciplined, as He commanded. Fair taxes. Incentives to be charitable. Just penalties for not being so. Ego strokes for what they give (Ex.: Building names).

Boards of Directors MUST be paid reasonably, not overly, so they aren't incentivized to overpay CEOs and executives, in a scratch my back I'll scratch yours Ponzi scheme against profit sharing! and capital gains cannot favor investors, but be FAIR! They're already better off than most!

Peer pressure MUST reach critical mass. At present, Giving Pledgers (of any percent) are the minority. Society/the general public must quit making rich people your heroes. They aren't heroes. They are just rich! Forbes should END its list of the world's richest! That encourages NO giving back.

IMO, the GREATEST if not fastest way to get a stingy rich person to start generously giving back to society is making them spend time among the world's poor! You can insulate yourself from how your excess only benefits yourself!

EAT THE RICH? (PART II)

(12/25/21-2)

You can't incentivize rich people enough, through tax breaks, to part with much if any of their idolized excess! Even social pressure/shaming doesn't work! one day it will be higher taxes or literal violent assaults on their fortified mansions, IMO! Even praising philanthropists doesn't

Taxes MUST be fair, ALL pay in (civic service if unaffordable), and government has to be severely streamlined. THEN, we can talk of how to fund these many needed fixes! NOT beforehand!

POOR VS. RICH

(12/26/21-2)

Permit me to edu-ma-cate you on the attitude of BIG business: People only fall into three categories: Value-added Non-value added, and Business required If you don't make or save them money exceeding your cost, they only hire if your skills required to run the business, like accounting and IT.

It is ALL about profit, and employees are an expense, just like machinery and buildings.

The book, Rich Dad, Poor Dad proffers there are four categories of people, and the lower, the less, as to income potential: Investors Owners Managers Line level With these two perspectives in mind, dog eat dog Darwinism IS conservatism, economically, contrary to Creationist beliefs!

I read a meme, yesterday: Democrats are like Christmas lights: Half of the don't work and half of them aren't bright. THIS is a disdain, hatred and arrogance Creationists cannot embrace, but are in bed with.

The point of my three little illustrations is with AI and robotics, if you aren't smarter than a fifth grader, a machine costs less than your annual salary for life! Soon, like the stereotype goes, only government will hire you. You have NO CHOICE in American Capitalism but to get smarter!

Your job can be shipped overseas, or others shipped in from afar to replace you. After all, you are ONLY a line item/FTE, and it is all and only for profits, and only management and investors gain/benefit from the system. The rich get richer.

IF you think this is Christ-comporting, it's because you are like the super majority of claiming believers who don't know squat about what God has said! He values ALL human beings, as made in His own image. He created them. They all are to work, and become their best, according to abilities He put in them.

A society has a duty and obligation to ensure no one severely suffers, and that all who want to work can find work. This is NOT the concern of political conservatism, but only every business owner making as much as humanly possible, and no one else, except any needed investors!

You "agreed" to the wages, so what do you have to complain about (even though you agreed because you had to [force], because there weren't enough alternatives/jobs, or that's the wage the market could bear). A buyer's market ALWAYS benefits business! Too few jobs for too many people. Supply and demand.

Let's address that un-Christ-like meme:

1. Is it true?
2. To the extent it is, do conservatives lift one finger to fix it?
3. HOW could Dems tolerate people thinking of them that way, if so? Are all Dems dumb or lazy?

To answer the question, you'd have to have interaction with some! But our polarized politics keeps us coupéd/huddled up in camps, throwing grenades from afar, online, and missing that human connection.

I can tell you the premise is flawed, just by two anecdotal names: Clinton and Obama. Your theory just FAILED! So not all Dems are stupid or lazy, or both.

But this is the sin-full arrogance of people with decent to good jobs, or who believe they'd never need help paying for any of their bills! That, by definition, is a GOP! I can't imagine ever needing others' help, but I've also never faced a life crisis medical bill or condition my insurance wouldn't cover so well that I needed to find $150K-$1M to pay my co-pay!

I've lost jobs, but never been unable to find one quickly (except once as an early college grad, laid off and utilizing unemployment), but that's because I have four degrees (and 98.6-I'm alive and breathing-joke).

Even unemployment is NOT a Socialist gift/freebie/handout, as it's built into your pay arrangement. My point is are moral people to deem others as stupid and lazy if they aren't? and if they're lazy, that can be fixed, quickly and easily! If they're challenged, mentally, the fix isn't as easy.

DID JESUS have ANY attitude of disdain for, or "you're lesser," to ANY people but the arrogant rich and Pharisees? Answer (because so few know God's word, including Christians) is a resounding NO.

Then WHO ARE YOU (you're NOT God; He WAS and is) to have a superior attitude, when only He had the goods and wherewithal to be able to think Himself superior, yet didn't?

Answer (because so few know God's word, including Christians): A sinfully arrogant, self vs. God-reliant hating evil and idolatrous person, that is who you are, if ALL you care about is money, not humans. Debate that with God!

LABOR AGREED TO PEANUTS?

The Forbes list of richest people may come back to haunt its listees, even as I've encouraged that publication to go the way of the do-do bird and sewing machine. It puts a target squarely on the backs of those most capable of fixing this dilemma, who usually wont.

I'm zero percent hypocritical in my views! I'm 100 percent FOR business profiting. I'm 100 percent against their hoarding those profits only for elites! Business was NOT always this way in America! It began in the preppy 80s, and hasn't returned to humane values since, toward labor. THAT I'll always OPPOSE! Family values?

Let's take this a little further, in explaining why my vows DON'T contradict. Biz says "you agreed to these wages." TRUE! BUT, behind the scenes, they lobbied to have an unfair leverage/advantage over workers, where they have to agree to lower wages, as that's all the market bears.

Such things as illegal and legal immigration, outsourcing, firing older folk to replace with cheaper youth, automating every job they can, making customers do workers former work, lobbying politicians for laws in their favor, etc. This is NOT a level playing field!

So YES labor agreed to the wage, as there's nowhere else to get a job! They were FORCED to accept it, as biz did everything they could to make market rate favorable to them, then rewarded execs for so doing. South Africa is coming to America, and NOT through immigration (IMO)!

Taxpayers did NOTHING to harm workers! Many of 'em are workers/employees. It's the business controllers, owners and funders who favor the rich, off the backs of all others. They alone should be the gist of the angst of those now clamoring for Socialism! Karma, and you get what you paid for.

QUITE LITERALLY, what options are available to the masses who work for a living, to even the playing field? It costs money to strike, as your income comes to a standstill. And that ONLY benefits company workers where strikes occur. Biz doesn't need to overpay, but needs to QUIT making the "open market" their exclusive domain to control or influence—PERIOD.

It is NOT fair, it is NOT free, it is NOT natural, but man-made and manufactured. And EVERY unphilanthropic rich person should be fearful the masses don't come for you, IMO! God is AGAINST you, too! Fear Him.

I want U.S. businesses number one, but I also want America number one in morality, which includes U.S. businesses! Profit sharing should be policy for any successful firm! And Dems need to do everything in their power to level the playing field for wage negotiations of the working class—PERIOD! Let justice prevail!!!

I detest freebies. I will never support them. But I DO support labor getting fair treatment by business, and if that means government forces biz to pay fairly, and level the labor market/employers buyers' market playing field, SO BE IT! Self-reform is the better way! NOT expected-2 Chron. 7:14

I write as to fools: I'm NOT teaching overpaying! I'm teaching a fair labor market, with equal leverage, and may the best man or woman win in wage negotiations, thereafter, based on qualifications and skills and selling yourself. NOT by biz controlling going price, through tricks and laws!

Unfortunately, I feel a compelling urge to explain this further: Businesses are beholden to investors, for expansion, cashflow, and general financing. Investors ONLY demand a percent ROI, with nothing less, based on going rate. NO ONE ELSE matters as much to biz!

And the executives make these decisions, and the company's value (on paper) increases, on the NYSE, when stock prices rise, even if genned up (which is often the case), which lures further investment in them, vs. in other companies. Then, those execs get rewarded for so doing (bonuses).

NO labor ever benefits, except they have some security if the biz doesn't bankrupt. That is IT! All these profits, many simply paper profits, ONLY go to investors and execs, who already earn ~243 times the average Joe. CAN ANYONE SEE WHY THE GENERAL PUBLIC IS UP IN ARMS AT THIS SYSTEM? Then they lobby D.C.!

ALL I can repeat/reiterate is what I continually hear in my spirit: South Africa is coming to America! I just described the problem. ALL who don't work to fix it ARE the problem. Enjoy what ensues (sarcasm).

1 PS: The general public is NOT astute enough to figure out the source of these crises. They just FEEL their paycheck lessening, and buying less! THATS why they clamor to government for freebies. They could care less if it's from business or taxpayers. They just feel the squeeze, and cry out!

The average taxpayer has done NOTHING to harm employees and laborers, as they are such! It is NOT the taxpayer who should be in the public's crosshairs, but rich and biz execs who rig the system to only benefit themselves and their investment partners! Wise up, Socialism clamorers!

The ONLY reason I oppose laws mandating profit-sharing (justice) is some biz's barely survive. They need that money to stay afloat. ALL businesses who are doing well SHOULD have profit sharing, but that doesn't help all U.S. labor. So, Socialism is clamored for! It's a rational reaction!

So the ONLY national remedy would be higher minimum wage, as it forces all other wage brackets upward. That causes more layoffs, as businesses wont part with their cherished profits. At the heart of it, biz MUST repent of idolatry, or face the publics wrath, physically, IMO! I predict it.

And I oppose any minimum wage that is not adjustable up and down, with the tide of the economy! The rich benefit in almost all markets. ONLY raising minimum wage means overpaying when the economy tanks, and that's NOT just. Profit sharing is best, for all who are profitable! But NOT all are.

Unless and until global grass roots movement pressures such vs. unphilanthropic rich, global wealth tax recently proposed in a book is a bad idea. (12/2/14)

NO business anywhere in the world shouldn't pay their fair share in taxes, nor any rich person anywhere in the world. Period! Workers EVERYWHERE should have safe working conditions and humane treatment! There are global standards every nation should adhere to, to do the right thing! (12/5/21-2)

Governments will ultimately unite, as well, to stop businesses and the rich having all the fun at everyone else's expense through NON-opportunity! Global unity. (8/28/16)

Global worker unionization. Bernie on steroids. And nations vowing to give no business or rich person a safe haven to scr-w workers anywhere. Radical? (11/17/16)

RUSSIA & CHINA

(6/18/21-2)

I AGREE with Fox News analysis that Biden giving Putin a list of off-limits hacking target only gives Putin a list of hacking targets!

1. He doesn't obey us, and,
2. He didn't promise not to hack, and,
3. He's evil, so you don't give him any ideas! Public cordiality is NOT his core heart!

With Putin, Xi and Jong Un, you HAVE to know if not memorize II Cor. 11:14 and Mt. 7:15. Smart , evil people don't broadcast their evil intentions, but put on a good face. Even Biden said he was putting a positive face on their meeting. Faces are images, and reality isn't image! Don't trust evil people.

Russia and China don't care what America thinks about imminent Ukraine invasion or missile test in space! ALL the Biden administration does is express disgust, and wring their hands.

I want Taiwan to join NATO! (10/27/21-2)

PUTIN ON UKRAINE

(12/25/21-2)

In a "post-truth" world, inaugurated by 45, and so named by media pundits, truth remains forever, and it's NOT hard to decipher who started the recent conflict between Russia and NATO! BOTH sides are seeking MORE alliances, and distrust each other, but Putin started the military buildup!

PLUS, Putin has a recent track record of invading a nearby sovereign nation and former USSR satellite country/member, so the moral oweness is totally on him NOT to provoke a war, playing the victim card of fearing our starting any attack (lying, which he also does a lot, like 45).

Both alternative facts and 22,000+ lies in office may have been tricks learned from 45s good green room buddy, Putin, as with his later authoritarianism, and demand for loyalty to an immoral person. NOT a good thing to cozy up to evil dictators, even if opposing them hasn't changed them.

Update

(2/17/22-2)

RUSSIA (Putin): Accept Ukraine may join NATO. NATO will NEVER invade Russia. America accepts Communist Cuba, nearby. You don't own Ukraine. The USSR was broken up–Ancient history. Ukraine is free, and can choose to join with you, or not! You're seeking alliances, too!

WHAT KIND OF CRAZY is willing to consider and speak of nuclear capabilities (war), to get their way with Ukraine and NATO? A psychopath with zero checks and balances EVIL dictator, with only concern for self-not even his own people! NO humanity–just satan's man, literally! (2/18/22-2)

IMO, Putin has wanted to reconstruct the USSR for decades, and now he sees how difficult that would be, if not impossible, as his former satellite countries have experienced freedom and independence. And he does NOT like that dark cloud on his lofty ambitions, so he strikes out in anger! (2/18/22-2)

COULD we be seeing precursors to the Holy Spirit's restraining force in the world being removed, with all this chaos and unrest? II Th. 2:7 NO self-control! (2/18/22-2)

THIS is the negative, and even sometimes EVIL aspect of military training: Taught just to obey orders; never think! The Russian troops following a mad man are FOOLS, yet they get paid to be grunts, incapable of thinking independently. That lack of skill will ruin their life, later on! (2/19/22-2)

31. SECESSION

1. Secession Solution
2. Secession Sampling
3. Secession & Socialism

SECESSION SOLUTION

(1/27/21-2)

I BEG you to start preparing papers for Texas' secession! @GovAbbott @KenPaxtonAG @DanPatrick, and contact the other ~17 states. FREE healthcare, daycare, student debt, college and home down payment, open borders, statehood for D.C. and Puerto Rico, and Socialism will be enshrined in America!

I am already ready for secession, given XL pipeline, Paris Accords, green energy czar, LGBTQ executive order, Bidens five promised freebies, open border caravans coming, D.C. and Puerto Rico wanting statehood. It's a bit premature, but everything has to occur fast, once it's needed, Govs!

I don't even think 45 and all GOP's uniting (RINO and Trumpster) can stop Socialism, if Biden continues open borders, anti-oil, world first, his Big five handouts, D.C. and Puerto Rico become states! Secession will be the ONLY peaceful option. Civil War is stupid! Just leave the union! Texas first.

Office of climate Justice. I have had enough! If the GOP doesn't grab their gonads and fight like Hell, it's over for RINOs and Trumpsters, and secession is the ONLY option! two more bad policies by Biden, and I'm actively campaigning for secession! Reparations, freebies, end fracking—two more!

HERE are the red states who should unite to secede, soon: Texas, Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Indiana, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah and West Virginia. Abandon Socialism!

46 CAN'T fix our economy till he fixes Covid! Solutions are SO easy! Identify where the batches are, let any 65+ year old and front lines worker get it, first come first served, with proof they got it, and have thousands of nurses administer them in huge public places! you guys are so dumb, sometimes!

SECESSION IF SOCIALISM

Socialism is theft & injustice to taxpayers! Taxpayers get NOTHING; recipients get everything, & they're NOT even our family or employees! 'No justice, no peace.'

IF the "President for all Americans" keeps rewarding only Democrat constituents, & keeps with his campaign promises of "FREE" healthcare, daycare, college, student loan debt & home down payments, & Dems use control of the Senate, House & White House to implement Socialism, before 2022, secession will be needed!

If the GOP doesn't make gains then, it will certainly be needed, as open borders, & statehood for DC & Puerto Rico virtually ensure Socialism! 'Freedom isn't free!'

PLEASE plan and prepare, so you're ready if this comes!

@GovAbbott @AsaHutchinson @GovLauraKelly @GovGianforte @tatereeves @GovParsonMO @GovRicketts @DougBurgum @LouisianaGov @GovernorKayIvey @GovStitt @govkristinoem @BillLeeTN @henrymcmaster @WVGovernor @GovCox

SECESSION SAMPLING

IF the Dems use scorched earth, ALL red states secede, IMMEDIATELY!

@LeaderMcConnell That's why CHUMP's forcing three SCOTUS justices in his far right favor started this revenge ill-will! STUPID! "For every action there is an equal and opposite reaction!" McConnell Justice Kennedy

(3/24/21-2)

I don't know why it is considered too radical for red and purple states to consider secession, since peaceful coexistence would still be intact. The liberals are fronting Biden as their poster boy to moderates, while almost all he does pleases them! I am FOR secession, when needed!

Seceded red and purple states could avoid all liberal extremes, like pro oil and environment, LGBTQ as equals but not hired by religious groups if flaming, NO gun grabbing, no high taxes, business able to negotiate wages, no freebies, controlled borders, no hatred of whites, etc.

(3/31/21-2)

When Dems overspend, the ONLY recourse is mainly GOP's giving taxpayers a break, with rebates, funded by escalating debt. Secession is the main way you end this lunacy, if GOP's can't get Dems on a budget. Debt must be DEcreased–NOT INcreased, fools! Secede!!! Let the house of cards fall on them! (3/31/21-2)

There's NO stopping a tax-and-spend liberal with power, from confiscating, then spending YOUR hard-earned money! Payback will be Hell, or we could secede, and let blue states foot his bills! HOW MANY YEARS will GOP's wait to undo being fleeced, when MOST Dems don't pay much in taxes?

(4/7/21-2)

Red and purple states NEED to secede and form their own government–period! Zero freebies. I GUARANTEE you blue states would go bankrupt, and lose all reasonable businesses. Biden can't be stopped till Nov 2022; that's a whole lot of months! Secession is reasonable with his spending spree!

Filibuster, Covid relief, infrastructure, Equality Act, border crisis, tax money 400K+ earners, Paris climate accord, ended XL pipeline. WHERE IS THE RESISTANCE? @RNC @SenateGOP @HouseGOP Due to tRUMP, you lost all power. We MUST secede, if this continues another year or 3! NO choice!

Fucking taxpayers... where are your b-ls? This is as cussing a tweet as you will ever see from me! Your money, and ONLY your money is being poured down a rat hole, by force, against your will, and as TYPICAL GOP's, we're remaining silent. Go protest! Boycott ALL Dem entities and businesses!

Does NO GOP see what's going on? Empathetic titles to destroy America and the rich, business, taxpayers and our economy. WHO can't empathize with Covid's devastation, so fill a bill with pork, and unity for infrastructure you fill with pork, by a LYING "centrist." @RNC @SenateGOP @HouseGOP

GOP has a bunch of -u-s-e- if they won't even consider secession! Castrated fools! Biden is spending like there's no tomorrow, and like Uncle Sam discovered money trees! China borrowing and QE3 fake money! If you have no power, SECEDE! @RNC @SenateGOP @HouseGOP We can't afford two years more,

TELL ME what I can do to stop Socialism in Texas, meaning confronting and combatting its clear existence in Washington D.C.? I am ready to ACT! @GovAbbott @JohnCornyn Bidens first two spending bills have to be record debt-killing attacks on taxpayers! I want to be involved! Please respond.

More proof people are often MORONS: WHO will pay for Biden's bloat (Covid relief overkill and NON-infrastructure)? ONLY taxpayers! I will join the Tea Party if it resurrects! Your kids and grandkids will inherit HUGE debt, having never even voted! It's B.S.

People are so often LOW IQs! Proof? NO ONE who gets freebies cares about morals, justice, economics or debt! They often pay NOTHIN in taxes, yet think richer people OWE them something, for zero reason. I'm ready for armed combat with Socialists, literally. If it starts, I am IN!

Update #4: 'Build Back Broke' (-Ted Cruz)

(4/7/21-2)

I'm DAMN tired of being considered extreme for saying red and purple states need to consider secession! LOOK at Biden's "infrastructure" bill. A cow is NOT a horse, just because you call it a horse. Democrats want STUPID, irresponsible people blessed, financially, for incompetence!

You guys and gals BETTER stop Bidens NON-infrastructure bill, or I will propose that Texas secede from the union! EVERYTHING Dems touch is to give freebies to low life's incapable of paying their own bills! @RNC @HouseGOP @SenateGOP WHO cares about taxpayer rights? Debt be damned?

WHY is it radical vs. rational for Texas to work up papers for secession, which appears soon needed? READ Biden's infrastructure and Covid relief bills details! They are pouring free money to losers, and we already have Socialism under two disguised names! LIARS!

(4/7/21-2)

Would a two-state solution have two Presidents, Congresses and SCOTUS'? Not necessarily. ALL such powers MUST comply with state laws. IF SCOTUS ruled against one state's laws, without clear Constitutional authority, they'd be FREE to disregard the ruling! Two connected,

The U.S. Constitution would still rule over BOTH "states"/countries, but SCOTUS makes MANY rulings that aren't clearly delineated in the Constitution, but based on its principles, where Justices engage opinion and political ideologies. Those rulings wouldn't be national! Or, two sets of powers sovereign countries.

(6/28/21-2)

OF COURSE there's a double standard. Liberals 'wanna dominate and have NO MORE cons. Secede, red and purple states! http://foxnews.com/us/2015/06/28/confederacy-purge-builds-steam-while-last-century-worst-villains-spared/...

IF red/purple states secede/form their own union as Americans with Constitution as rule of law here's blue states anthem: <https://search.yahoo.com/search?fr=mcafeeand type=C210US91020D20150311and p=feelings+song> I'm officially calling for red and purple states to PEACEFULLY secede to form their own union-one nation, two sets of laws. Constitutional states' rights.

IF your TIRED of liberal vs. Conservative fighting, CONSIDER red and purple states peacefully, legally seceding to form their own union. States' Rights! NO NEED for bloodshed.

Red state union is ONLY abiding by the U.S. Constitution. Secede and form a constitutional government, red/purple states! IF red/purple states secede it's NOT we who abandoned are nation/Constitution but the others! We still 'cling' to U.S. roots and founding principles!

Blue states can have welfare, free healthcare, daycare, college, reparations, $15 minimum wage, and repeal Trump tax cuts (businesses and rich will FLEE!). Red states can do the opposite, Purple states do in-between, as they choose. #StatesRights No more extremes every four years. Unstable policy!

Texas has been a country before; let her be again! Secede, and bring ALL red and purple states with you. Lone Star State. Proud to be a Tejano!

I guarantee you if America split into two nations, red vs. blue, with purples choosing a side, the red sides' economy would flourish, and the blue nation would have all the lazy workers, few businesses, and would come begging for us to rejoin the union! Secede, red and purple states!

It is TIME to FIGHT! Resist! Do NOT be overtaken by liberalism, purple and red states MUST unite and eventually peacefully and legally secede!

IF red (and purple) states seceded I GUARANTEE you blue states would be FORCED to address their extremes, as they are financially Unsustainable! IF 30M illegals are granted citizenship it'll spell END of the @GOP! Red and purple states PEACEFULLY secede! @RNC SCOTUS states' rights are DEAD!

Let blue states form their own union, and install Socialism. NO red state taxes will go to them, nor will many smart businesses. Give freebies out the wazoo, till you go bankrupt. That nation's credit rating will fall; NOT red states' union/nation! Purple states can fit in-between.

It REALLY is time for red and purple states to make our own nation, where Confederate monuments aren't torn down, but plaques erected saying slavery was wrong and evil. Let the blue states give handouts, and bankrupt their taxpayers and businesses! It WON'T be our problem to bail 'em out!

The Civil War has unofficially begun! Now, GOP's can ONLY do business with GOP's, and hire GOP's! NEVER hire a Democrat, and let BOB's and blue states handle ALL the unemployed who want freebies! This is a political move, so late in! @GovAbbott Red and purple states' secession, soon-needed!

(5/2/21-2)

Red and purple states MUST start with a Convention of States, post haste! You don't have to secede, but you have to pass a Constitutional amendment that government-paid freebies are unconstitutional! TAKE IT TO SCOTUS, as I've said repeatedly! WHY such Inaction? Sleeping? Lazy? Scared?

34 states for Article five Convention. I can name you 34! You don't even have to have that! Just have TX pass a law banning all government freebies/handouts, and appeal it to SCOTUS, before Joe packs it liberal! I've said all these solutions for MONTHS! WHY such INaction? NOT leading!

God says rich people are to significantly give back! HOWEVER, when any Americans don't pay anything in for taxes, and vote for taxpayer nest eggs and business profits to pay for freebies, it's NO WONDER they're NOT inclined to be further fleeced! Already being unjustly shaken down!

ANY new government spend is money that isn't in the private sector, or your pockets, if you pay taxes. The people clamoring for freebies, green new deal, etc., DON'T PAY THEIR FAIR SHARE of what they're clamoring for! You should have to pay taxes to be able to vote for government to spend more money.

A seceded red-purple state nation would not celebrate sex abnormality or gender confusion, not seek guns grabbed, not hate America, not have freebies, not oppose religion, not have high taxes; be pro-military and cops, have controlled borders, and make liberals living there miserable! (6/30/21-2)

SECESSION & SOCIALISM

WHY am I open to secession? I see trends, and know human nature. I would LOVE to live in a nation of red and purple states, and visit blue states like I was visiting Europe! Their economy would collapse. Ours would flourish and thrive! They'd BEG for reunification! DO IT when needed!

Secession is preferable to withholding paying your IRS bill, as that can land you in jail, or garnishment. If Dems EVER get major control, and a NON-moderate leads them, simply secede! It's LEGAL! Stiffing Uncle Sam is illegal. No coup or insurrection is needed. Let them hold the bag.

With uncontrolled borders, Biden planting the idea of 5-6 "free" things, race pimps advocating reparations, BLM stirring up white hatred, and AOC Socialism gaining momentum, taxpayers are in the cross hairs of ne'er do wells, who never pay in! Hide your assets any way you can!

Reparations (and other new entitlements) are what GOP's are fearing, IMO, as they are UNjust punishment of innocents (taxpayers), but if enough voters are garnered, you can't be sure SCOTUS will vote them down! Human nature takes free secular gifts!

Three BIG defenses to Socialism:

1. Pass a law, or go to SCOTUS to decide if taxpayer funded freebies are unconstitutional.
2. NEVER hire anyone for Socialism.
3. Secede, if all else fails, and liberal states can eat all those bills. A race or Civil War are both unacceptable!

Update: Socialists Analyzed

(12/23/21-2)

End the filibuster, gerrymander, unfair voting access, statehood to D.C. and Puerto Rico, open borders, slander Manchin, stack the federal judiciary, label BBB infrastructure: ALL these tricks are to force Socialism onto America, before Dems lose power! DON'T fall for any of these tricks!

IT'S EITHER taxes, charity, church, or some combination thereof! Taxes can't be avoided. Religious people will opt for church over charity. Taxes are ONLY for collectively utilized benefits to society business can't profit enough off fixing. NO ONE should pay ZERO in taxes-period!

I WANT A BETTER LIFESTYLE. Someone should give that to me. I deserve it (entitlement mentality). I could use "free" healthcare, daycare, family leave, home down payment, college. Can ANYONE explain why anyone owes anyone that, namely taxpayers?

If you think voting for freebies will garner the rich giving more to charities, somehow, you are deceived! When taxpayers pay all the bills, and the rich pay even more than all others, I'd be surprised if they give one dime for charities! They're already being fleeced by government!

The "help" poor Americans need is:

1. Equal job opportunities—zero discriminating!
2. Better skills
3. Better education
4. Better motivation
5. Better buying skills
6. Better effort
7. Better work load (hours).

Dems don't 'wanna hear THESE solutions! Rather have a handout! NO effort.

Taxpayers are evil. THIS is the ONLY conclusion you can come to when you analyze Socialism advocates. Taxpayers need punishment, and owe everyone else, because they must have stolen from them, somehow. WHY ELSE should they alone pay to fund the others? Socialism is EVIL/theft!

I won't waste any more time reading #DefundThePolice posts. They're trying to define what the term means, because JUST LIKE BLM, the slogan was lacking. Defund means less dollars; police means cops. You CAN'T redefine what words you chose mean! Bad sloganeering!

STRATEGY MESSAGE TO SOCIALISTS

THIS message is to U.S. Socialists: America MUST defeat tRUMP and CHUMPsters—period, and forever! NOTHING matters more! YOU want YUGE freebies and tax increases. NOT reasonable! YOU could cause DJT to win in 2024, clinging to extremes. I HOPE you'll consider my ways to help the poor!

IF Socialists stay stubborn, I GUARANTEE you my ideas can stir up enough nonvoters to replace lost Socialist votes, to defeat CHUMP and his caustic conservatism! The majority haven't had that option! BUT, I WANT @RepAOC types on our side, vs. making it close for a CHUMP comeback!

I take MY positions based on logic and morals—NOT political parties. I ALWAYS will! Therefore, I BEG Socialists to understand IF the non-Trump caucus of U.S. voters I'm suggesting makes JUSTICE their northern star, MANY liberals will get ENOUGH to be satisfied!

LITERALLY, I want poor blacks and browns doing decently, and NOT severely suffering, or ever discriminated against! I'm even for lie detectors of HR departments suspected of lying when they give an alleged reason for NOT hiring a qualified black or brown!

I WANT minority schools with equal education poor blacks and browns doing decently, and NOT severely suffering, or ever discriminated against! I'm even for lie detectors of HR departments suspected of lying when they give an alleged reason for NOT hiring a qualified black or brown!

I WANT minority schools with equal education quality as others! I want LGBTQs (whose sexuality I DISagree with) nevertheless treated with respect, as fellow human equals! They should want to work in a business they disagree with, like a religious church or business! That's a conflict rarely if ever needed!

I'm FOR them being able to NOT hire flaming folk in that community, as advocating for a lifestyle against their beliefs is wrong on so many levels, for them and the rainbow coalition.

I want cleaner air, and whatever climate change percent caused by man to be profitably addressed! NOT harming BIG oil, but making them produce in ways good to our environment. Youth (I have THREE) start off as the low man on the totem pole!

That's due to lack of life or job experience, and every other generation has suffered that same struggle! However, college costs have gone through the roof, where it's a way to separate the rich from the poor, even if academically qualified. THAT IS NOT RIGHT!

I have solutions that don't involve freebies or unfair tax theft! The poor have kids, and when both spouses work, before kindergarten, daycare IS a need of theirs. I have private solutions that work!

The poor have bodies, and bodies break down! They should NOT have to die, or live with dangerous bad diseases, because they can't afford needed care! I have solutions, that aren't freebies! Youth have student loan debt, as a boat anchor to early adulthood success. I have non-handouts solutions.

Finally, we ALL 'wanna own a home. The poor can't afford the ~10 percent down payment. There are solutions that don't UNjustly make taxpayers fund those wants! Finally, ALL taxes MUST be fair! Liberals LOVE to punish the rich for being good at money-making! That's WRONG!

A progressive tax system is fair, when ALL Americans pay in! If you can't afford to, you MUST be taxed by forced actions vs. assets! Then and only then are taxes fair!

And NO rich person shall be allowed to ever pay less than their fair share! IF liberals and Socialists can't agree THESE solutions are good, fair, and enough for sometimes WILD Utopian ambitions, this caucus must part ways with them, and replace their votes with nonvoters (90m), but this BETTER vision for a BETTER America, that defeats CHUMP and caustic conservatism in a 2024 LANDSLIDE! God's to do!

Extremists want NO oil, no fracking, no rich people, no poor (vs no severely suffering poor), freebies, deviant sexual practices celebrated, aborting babies even after they're birthed, gun-grabbing, censorship/cancel culture, open borders, sanctuary cities, and MANY other BAD things.

For EVERY extreme policy extremists clamor for, on BOTH sides, I can EASILY shoot Titanic iceberg holes in them using logic and morality (justice). The ONLY focus HAS to be defeating Trump and his heirs, and their caustic philosophy, from NOW till my dying breath! I am so sworn! @RepAOC

I believe MANY Republicans will join this anti-Trumpism caucus, if my common sense centrist solutions are adopted! Liberals and Socialists get more than incrementalism allows, while taxpayers aren't forced to pay for freebies, @RepAOC Consider the prize-Defeating Trumpism evils forever!

IF Dems move to Socialism leftism, and CHUMP and DeSatanist are already trying to force out all RINOs, WE traditional Republicans HAVE to abandon label, till the GOP ever regains her moral compass, and help defeat caustic conservatism, forever, even if GOP can never be returned to till then!

This is SO FAR beyond ANY policy or party or person! The closest thing to the Bible's antichrist has already harmed America so severely, NOTHING is as important as his demise into the dust heap of history! Till he's dead, Hell push his style of predecessor! ALL must lose demonstrably!

Dems (with or without Socialists), traditional GOP's. (myself included), independents, and third parties who realize they're engaging wasted votes for phantom fame and useless non-influence! Finally, 90M non-voters. That temporary coalition can DESTROY Trump and his family and caustic conservatism.

If a centrist third party is needed, I have the Bible on common sense solutions, and I'll be running in 2024, 2028 and 2032. There's time to grow a viable centrist party! I just don't want tRUMP to EVER be in the WH, or anyone like him or his caustic extreme and evil policies, before then!

Race horses wear blinders, so they have a chance to win! EVERY American needs to see the clear choice: Trump as President again for four more years, or anything but! And IF not CHUMP, DeSatanist or anyone else who holds to conservatisms EVIL policies, or in the Trump cult MAGA movement.

If I can unite with @RepAOC, who archived tweets show I railed against even before others, and always, anything is possible, and defeating caustic vs. compassionate conservatism "forever" means literally endlessly! It's now America against Trumpism! Josh. 24:15; Lk. 11:23 2024 decision time!

IF it's ONLY Dems against Trumpism, the results can be as close as they were in 2020! You cannot rest on laurels of 2020 victories, or chance GOP's won't severely get the vote out when duped ones think the election was stolen! Dems NEED RINOs and can't turn them off by extreme policies!

I have NOT voted, before (for 2016 President). If Dems go far left in 2024, many Trump despising GOP's won't help Dems by voting! FEW change parties, especially long-term! There's ZERO reason the most extreme Dem wouldn't prefer MY solutions to Trump solutions into the future! 2024, 28, 32.

and IF Dems go far left in 2024, a centrist third party will begin its mission to become viable ASAP! NON-Socialist Dems should cast them off and join centrist/traditional GOP's in 2024, and I guarantee you my solutions are more appealing to gain others than extremist views; plus my innovations.

It's ALL about if tax dollars should pay freebies! and if they shouldn't (they shouldn't), how to help the poor! Leftists love freebies; caustic conservatives love zero wealth redistribution. Are we 'gonna have polar opposite policies every 4-8 years? Handouts then pull backs! SKITZO!

Its ALL about do you turn your back on the suffering or the poor, and any and all injustice in society, because life's good for you, with status quo, or do you destroy businesses and the rich's comfort zone, because you're not creative enough to fund things needing fixing apart from taxes?

SILLY SOCIALISM

Let's take Socialism to its logical conclusion: MANY Dems will be unemployed! GOP owners will fire any identified Dems, legal or not! GOP business owners will robotize to the max, for LESS jobs available. Outsourced jobs will increased, if not U.S. businesses leave America or move from blue states.

GOP owners will be FOR more immigration, as foreigners usually come from poorer nations, as America is one of the richest! That means others will undercut YOUR wages and job opportunities. WHY would business care? They make more profit off lower labor costs!

Government would have to pay the unemployed. But GOP's wouldn't be paying in taxes, fully, and using tax havens to avoid it. Debt would increase, and dollar devalue. Inflation; higher costs for products. High unemployment. Blue states would have to fund Dem unemployed people. Reds would be fine, seceding, possibly.

I am TIRED of explaining common sense! IF you know NOTHING about politics, economics, business or logic, you need to re-read this afternoon's message, as I am through trying to educate people who may not be able to learn. Your deeds will show if you can, or not!

SOME youth believe government paying for ANY programs (like our military) is Socialism. IDIOCY! Socialism's stealing other's wealth through taxes, to have government pay your personal bills. Government raising taxes to do actions for all, that are Constitutional, is government! (3/16/21-2)

SOCIALISM MISUNDERSTANDINGS (PART I)

(3/17/21-2)

America has to make a choice: Does the majority believe the rich should be forced to fund things business can't profit off of enough, that fix societal problems and life/health dangers, or should they mainly continue? Though it's NOT fair, does society think it right to force wealth redistribution?

It amazes me many youth don't understand the difference between Socialism and government spending!

1. The latter has specific listed actions in the U.S. Constitution.
2. Those actions help/benefit ALL citizens.
3. Those actions AREN'T funding personal expenses SOME can't afford! Duh 101

DEFUNDING REPUBLICANS

(3/19/21-2)

I have alleged Dems want mainly GOP's to fund Dem constituents' lives. HERE is the proof/case:

1. Poor people usually vote Democrat.
2. Many poor people pay in NO taxes.
3. GOP's are for saving assets from taxation, for people with disposable income. Hence, my assertion is TRUE!

Freebies, increased debt and taxes, lost jobs, destroying oil... these are just some of their radical agenda, including @realdonaldtrump @POTUS' RIGHTFUL assessment that Biden had radical SCOTUS picks, to court the Socialist voters, or he's reveals who he'd nominate! Save our country!

Legally, Welfare is unconstitutional, but SCOTUS hasn't ruled that way. But why must taxpayers help people NOT in their family or employ? That aside, now Dems will continually 'wanna promise even more freebies, with zero payback, to get elected! Poor people do need daycare, with two-income families, and Biden's healthcare for all is paid for NOT by all, but taxpayers.

Requiring absolutely NOTHING from the recipients, abuse, waste, and entitlement are certain to ensue, and taxpayers WILL revolt! NO WONDER ending Obamacare is on the SCOTUS radar screen! Freebies are not free, dumb A.

Congress has the power to pass a law that SCOTUS NOT be politicized, by specifically requiring an even number of left- and right-leaning justices, based on analysis of their past rulings, and the swing vote be independently leaning. Justice is only reached when fairness rules the day.

Congress must pass a law that any SCOTUS nominee who states their personal beliefs will not infringe upon their judicial duties pays a severe price if they lie by so saying! We punish perjury! PASS THAT LAW! @dnc @gop Justices MUST follow the Constitution and its original intent!

GOVERNMENT ISN'T YOUR DADDY!

A soldier's rant to Biden mentioned we could eradicate poverty if we ended wars. The government's job is NOT to give poor people money, to raise them into the middle class! If you can't enter that status, you shouldn't have kids, and you need education or motivation, if you're healthy.

Constitutionally, government's job is NOT to fix societal problems, excepting those it lists. However, voters can opt for it to, Constitutionally. There ought to be a law that you can't vote to spend taxpayer money if you are not a taxpayer!

I don't THINK many Americans see this trendline: Conservatives want lowest taxes and least problems addressed by government; liberals want most problems fixed by government, no matter how that affected debt and taxes, especially on the rich. Polar opposites, like stretching a rubber band.

IF conservatives have power, LESS things get addressed, and taxes decrease. IF liberals have power, MORE things get addressed, and taxes INcrease. ALL YOU ARE DOING IS NEGATIVE EACH OTHER'S ACTIONS! We the people are wasting our hard-earned dollars on UNproductive D.C. politicians!

I am equally FOR liberal states seceding, if far right conservative policies get forced down Americas throats, just as I am for the opposite! If you're satisfied with NO secession, and just polar opposite policies every 4-8 years, to reverse the past administration, YOU ARE SICK!

States do what they can't see the feds doing! When Biden wasn't addressing the border crisis, Gov Abbott DID! If the feds aren't spending enough tax dollars for your tastes, let your governor spend YOUR state tax dollars, and vice versa! THAT is preferable to secession! Liberal and conservative states.

When federal tax dollars subsidize any state, is where the problem occurs! CA and NY have every legal right to tax their citizens to where businesses and jobs leave! TX is free to welcome businesses and jobs, and NOT have many public programs. Does America REALLY celebrate "diversity?"

SOCIALISM VS. ANTI-SOCIALISM

(3/26/21-2)

IF Welfare is unconstitutional, take it to SCOTUS to rule it so! At the same time, Dems want poor people's votes, so they offer section eight (live where you don't financially deserve), food stamps, Welfare, Medicaid, etc., PLUS "free" healthcare, daycare, mortgage down payment, college!

SOCIALISM DISINCENTIVIZES HARD WORK

(4/1/21-2)

WHY work your tail off for riches, if Dems will vote to confiscate so much of them? Offshore tax havens MUST increase, as Dems have zero brakes on their desires to spend! If they bankrupt America, or ruin rich People, they're fine with that as they don't love U.S. like those who pay for it.

With Dems having all the levers but SCOTUS, you can wait four years of tax and spend, or you can fight back, and pass state laws that refund taxpayers for Biden's spending money like water.

ALL state expenses beyond bare essentials, or secede! Defund Washington!

GOP's consider secession extreme, even as they have FEW other alternatives! I guess you just take economic losses on the chin, and the injustice of "freebies?" ALL YOUR LIFE you're trained to not lose money, then you just abandon that adage happily, with little fight? I don't get it!

Printing and borrowing dollars is an addiction in D.C.! They believe they don't have to pay the fiddler, or they'll be retired when the rubber hits the road. Play that game to the hilt, and see what happens to America. Politicians are irresponsibly pushing the envelope! House of cards!

If you work hard, try to make money to provide for your family, obey the law and pay your taxes, that is NOT enough for liberals! For no good reason they believe you owe more money to others NOT in your family or employ. And those people owe others NOTHING. Injustice!

If you don't feel the pain, you only see the gain.

People who receive freebies don't feel any pain—only the gain. And if you pay in few to no taxes, why not pass laws to have a better society you don't have to pay for? Cleaner air and water, better roads, etc. Sin-full attitude, but legal!

IF you don't care about the debt, or printing money, or that the markets may one day have a reckoning over such wasteful fiscal policies as libs propose, because you don't invest, or benefit otherwise, you'll keep spending public funds to benefit yourself or your party!

Dems are committed to Socialism, as it's how they seek to retain power forever, IMO! Yes, the FEW who will pay more taxes LOSE. But they're more inclined to have taxes spent on others, or they be GOP's, and majority of Dems pay little-to-no taxes. GOP's can't bribe votes! A harder sell!

IF Democrat politicians keep their jobs, with MANY perks, they have less problem authorizing their losing more in taxes, because they benefit with their own job, and Dem rich are fewer than GOP, and don't mind helping society more than keeping it for themselves, more, IMO. Helps Dems!

I've said, many times, no one turns down free stuff of quality! Biden has shown us you can lure a majority of poorer, often non taxpayer types with promises of free stuff, paid for by taxpayers!

He RAN on free mortgage down payment, college, daycare, healthcare, student loan forgiveness. The perception, in some Americans' minds, is the evil white man killed red folk, stole land from brown folk, and enslaved black folk, and the nation that was once all white is the richest in the world, so those groups' many centuries removed heirs will steal back white money by taxation.

BIDEN BUCKS?

Joe Biden does NOT own enough assets to have promised "free" healthcare, daycare, college, home down payment and student loan forgiveness! If it's NOT his money, he has zero right to offer it to voters—period! Drain him dry before letting him gaffe again, with such lies and thefts!

WHO's NOT incentivized or motivated to vote Dem for "free" healthcare, daycare, college, home down payment and student loan forgiveness? Taxpayers! People who pay NO taxes, or get more from freebies than their taxes will rise are bribed by EVIL promises to Robinhood steal for them!

WHO's NOT incentivized or motivated to vote Dem for "free" healthcare, daycare, college, home down payment and student loan forgiveness? The poor and the young, which are NOT all one race, but Biden ran his campaign AS IF blacks held most of the power/keys! Bribed votes by handout promises!

I don't know why so many can't figure this out: You can't always know which political party a person is in, but with Dems heavily courting black vote through promising freebies, businesses will GENERALIZE that hiring blacks is contrary to profits lost to increased taxes to pay for handouts!

People voting for politicians promising freebies are ONLY hurting their own careers! Temporarily, they may win, but business, the rich and taxpayers ARENT stupid, and will react, and their reaction will NOT be good for freebies receivers. This is common sense, folks. Natural and NOT unjust!

There's a difference between taking advantage of freely offered free stuff, and voting for free stuff to be forced out of the hands of people doing better than you, financially! I accept free offers, but I've never voted for government to give any freebie to anyone! That's EVIL, selfish theft.

Self-sufficiency is NOT immoral! Selfishness IS. The rich are to give back, but being needy is not expected to be a permanent condition in life! Children are dependent upon parents. Adults are expected to pay their own bills! Immaturity seeks handouts! It's a moral issue; sin!

THE KEY to future political campaigns will be enough people believing other people don't owe them any money for anything, as taxpayers, vs. those who calculate if freebies are worth more than the increased tax amount, it's a good economic decision! The rich are being targeted!

What U.S. businesses can do in response to Biden's 28 percent business tax rate INcrease: Robotize, streamline, outsource, import labor, layoff, move away, fire known Democrats (see social media!), for other reasons, automate, fund GOP's, M and A, and fight minimum wage increases! Newton's third law!

IF a rich person screwed you out of your deserved and agreed-on pay, some of their money you rightly want to get back. Jas. 5:4-6 If you're jealous they're better at earning than you, you have no one to be angry at than your inept self. Mi casa is NOT su casa, folks! ONLY poor people believe so.

Low taxes or freebies and other government spending ARE the red lines of politics! Everything else is secondary! Most people accept free stuff, but especially people who financially struggle, IF they don't care what God thinks of handouts. Politics is all about the money, IMO!

SOCIALISM VS. CONSERVATISM

U.S. taxpayers: I suggest you SOON find ways to hide your wealth, legally or otherwise! This is NOT legal advice. If illegals can flock to our borders and my state, as CITIZENS you should be able to break the law, too! Civil disobedience and conscientious objectors!

It's EITHER China loans or QE3 fake currency printing, or screwing our heirs for generations, which will fund Biden's economy boat anchor proposals (or ONLY rich people, if he isn't stopped)!

The helped NEVER want to help the helpers—just demand others help them. This truth applies to government taxation. It is UNjust, but Dems don't care about justice, unless their causes are felt to be just! BE SELF-SUFFICIENT!

Ted Cruz said, after a pandemic, it's especially sensible the people keep more of their pay check. The TRICK is equating average Joes with people earning over $400K/year, as Biden proposes. Politicians think you are a bone headed FOOL, U.S. voters. ARE YOU?

Let them alone the rest of their lives, as that's enough "help" for a lifetime! If anyone but the severely disabled can't make it on that, they deserve to die of poverty! Sarcasm detection is up to YOU to discern!

GOP: KNOW the tricks the Socialists will use against you! ANYTHING you do or say their lawyers will be paid well to spin negative or evil! Yesterday, GOP was accused of abandoning Capitalism, to confront Socialism-caving businesses. They'll be positive about you ONLY if you agree with 'em!

Even Manchin takes their heat, because he often rightly opposes their agenda. Fox example, walking an old lady across the street would be depicted as trying to control the elderly. Getting married would be depicted as trying to force yourself into half a person's money. It's SPIN!

You will NEVER be depicted in a good light, just as Dems will rarely if ever be depicted negatively, UNLESS they hurt the cause or violate its agenda (Cuomo, Manchin).

When you do bad things, they'll never forget it. When they get caught with their hands in the cookie jar, they'll find times GOP's did, cry hypocrisy, or just find worse things a GOP has done, and never admit or apologize.

If you're a hated GOP (Cruz), or one seeking high office, and a threat to their agenda, even if you do something good, at best they will report the facts, but RARELY is that where they leave it. It is SO MUCH more than a culture war, like abortion and homosexuality sins!

It is Socialism, and the possible end of American greatness, through bankruptcy. ALL their proposals are NOT sustaining, like investments with returns and payoffs ARE! They don't even seek people able to carry their own load, but permanent wealth draining to keep them afloat!

Economically, the model collapses, over time. But that's not their concern, but power and profession and perks. I am NOT saying they alone use these tricks, but, at present, the fight is on in red alert mode to pass liberal policies, before they lose owning almost all the levers of government! (filibuster ended, SCOTUS expansion, etc.).

There is no future war of Capitalism vs. Socialism in America! That war is being actively waged this day, and if you don't know you're in a war, you LOSE!

MAYBE you just awakened from a long nap, like Rip Van Winkle or Snow White, Or climbed out from under a rock or out from a cave, but if you don't know what Socialism is, it is NOT government having programs to do something! It IS them stealing tax dollars to pay others' bills! (filibuster ended, SCOTUS expansion, etc.).

Socialism is taxpayers subsidizing others' lifestyles, and liberalism is government spending taxpayers' money to do things that aren't required, may be 'good,' but certainly aren't expressly in the U.S. Constitution. If you pay few-to-NO taxes, YOU benefit; NOT taxpayers! That's UNjust!

The OPPOSITE of Socialism is government doing zero to help anyone struggling. NO safety net. NO minimum wage. NO mandatory overtime pay, work breaks, workplace safety laws, consumer protection or truth in advertising laws. Pure unbridled Capitalism, where profits are everything.

And it's HOW the poor get helped that's different! A growing economy with growing jobs, so they can self-sustain, or taxing the economy to hand out handouts and freebies. It may LOOK "nice" to "care" and have "compassion" on the poor, but charities are for that need and desire—NOT government!

It is injustice to ONLY tax certain people, and not others! HOW could that be fair, when the non-payors BENEFIT from things tax dollars pay for? 100 percent not right, and no justice, no peace! That slogan should be used by everyone, all the time, on both sides of the aisle!

It is EVIL for any rich person to hoard all their wealth! Ecc. 5:13 It's also evil for them to charitably give cheaply! I Tim. 6:17-19 They alone have excess they can afford to voluntarily part with, to pay for things businesses can't profit enough from, as with wealthy businesses.

Update: Secession if Socialism

WHY am I so incapable of writing words that influence change, when I've had 13 years to perfect my craft? A violent uprising is IN THE MAKING, and it's NOT ISIS terrorism! A bloody Civil War seems (to only me?) to be inevitable, on the path were on, and Dems rapidly are provoking!

Oil, the economy's backbone, is not tolerated. It's not enough just to curb its negative impact on our air and water, it has to be destroyed (scorched earth). The most deviant of carnival side show sex perverts are NOT just equals, but touted as more than normal—the ideal no one can criticize.

Money, unbeknownst to anyone before 2021, DOES grow on trees! We Boomers always knew that was a sarcastic/mocking phrase, but the crazed lunatic liberals who control Biden have found the trees, hidden away in some government warehouse all these centuries!

The trees were the American taxpayer, but before that forest, China borrowing or Xerox machines full of FAKE printing of dollar bills. Oh, and debt is a figment of our imagination! It is a great thing! You can never have enough! WHY work? Government can fund all your needs. NO adulting required! Whats next?

The most Utopian vision for leftist ideals is ALREADY BEING IMPLEMENTED without a fight! We have NINETEEN more months of this CRAP, till the GOP can return REASON and self-control of Uncle Sam! We've ONLY had four months, and look how much Socialism America has accepted! SECEDE or go to war!

WORK FOR VS. VOTE FOR A PAY RAISE

(4/19/21-2)

...[That's where] the foreign values (i.e., comparing U.S.A. to other countries) comes in, and is a problem! America did NOT become the number one economy and most envied nation by dawdlers who are unproductive or under-productive!

America believes in hard work! Twitter posts on Socialism state Capitalism causes inequality. OF COURSE! Some work harder than others, and therefore deserve to earn more!

Capitalism rewards hard and smart work. If you don't want to engage such behaviors, LEAVE America, as NO America citizen owes or wants to "help" you, financially, and if they do, it's voluntarily; NOT by force of confiscated taxes, liberals! Fund yourself.

I don't think taxpayers and/or GOP's understand what's happening! YOUR money is being attacked by Socialism! The debt is merely a delay tactic! It harms the economy, and has to be repaid. NON-taxpayers will NEVER pay it back, so they don't care if it rises. Anti-American enemies of America!

IS IT unfair to be paid what the market will bear? IS IT unfair that minimum wage exists? EVERYONE feels they deserve higher pay. People also often exaggerate their importance and worth! You deserve what you can negotiate from an employer—no more, no less! That's JUST, liberals!

Government giving taxpayer money to financial 'losers' is NOT just! To those 100 percent disabled, that's good. To people who are lazy, unskilled or don't work smart or hard, that is EVIL, though liberals call it compassionate and nice. Leave others' money alone; pay your own way in life—PERIOD!

People think I'm being facetious, sarcastic or joking: Red and purple states NEED to secede, and let liberal states be stuck with the bills their constituents vote for the feds to spend! SINCE you don't have the b-ls to do so, FIRE liberals you have on payroll, and never hire another!

They want to defund cops? Fund them MORE, in red and purple states! They want open borders?

Send EVERY illegal to blue states, and track them to NEVER let them into red and purple states!

They want green energy? Oil companies: CUT OFF THOSE STATES!

<https://youtube.com/watch?v=bADTIEo0Y30...> [Freeze a Yankee song]

Let green energy sustain blue states! They want cops disarmed? Make cops armed to the teeth, and send anyone fearing them to blue states! They demand cops behave perfectly? Demand the same of libs!

They want freebies? State Constitutional amendments that NO freebies can be offered by governments!

They want businesses harmed? NEVER hire them! The rich punished. Don't GIVE TO ANY CHARITY! Taxpayers pained? Secede, so our federal taxes go to a government system we believe in and agree with! They want criminals released and voting. Release them to blue state prisons!

They want abort like a sport, and "marriages" for gays, government sanctioned? LET blue states do this, but red and purple states need to outlaw such beliefs, and expect court fights to SCOTUS!

They want homelessness cured by tax dollars? Force red and blue state homeless to blue states! Outlaw them!

They want science as God, even with its flaws? Let blue states shut down and mask up, as long as they like. NO blue and red states ever subsidizing blue state economies, through secession!

Free college? Let blue states offer that!

Free healthcare? Same.

Free home down payment? Same!

Free student debt reduction? Same.

Free daycare? Same.
Reparations? Same.

Secession is the ONLY reasonable solution to all these conflicts, but red and purple states will keep taking it on the chin (or up the rear), losing billions in that LOSS process! You aren't standing up to libs!

BLM rallies? Where's the opposition to its unjust agenda items? Tax payers and GOP's WORK!
We make enough money it costs us to take off work to protest. Hence, the media only covers the loud mouths. HIRE fake protesters with our values on protest signs! The other side does!

NO red or purple state should allow ANY Welfare. Let all who want it flock to blue states!
Liberals are FLOCKING to red states (like TX), to save taxes! don't let them come here! Force them, by state law, to keep paying the tax rates they were used to in blue states! Deterrence!

Socialism and liberalism are getting into red and purple state youths minds, by internet or public education. END the anti-red and anti-purple state ideological rhetoric! Invite businesses FLOCKING to red-purple nation, but force citizens to pay taxes they did in blue states! Secede! PASS A STATE LAW that says no one can vote for spending others' tax dollars if they pay nothing in taxes! @GovAbbott

File a lawsuit challenging the Constitutionality of wealth redistribution by government-funded freebies, GO TO SCOTUS! @txag

I STILL don't think the political right understands what we were fighting, and up against!
EVERYTHING America has historically been for is under assault; namely our military might, economic wealth, and democracy and Capitalist system! Traditional American values! You're being taken over from within! You're LOSING the nation YOUR ancestors built!

Newer to America persons with beliefs NOT founded in America, and home-grown insurrectionists are allying to take over America and significantly change it into their Socialist image, folks. FIGHT, or lose your country! FIGHT!

Rich Americans, American business people, and U.S. taxpayers: YOUR personal property, your bank account, is being directly targeted for looting, either while you're alive, or in the inheritance you'd otherwise give your heirs, through irresponsible national debt increases, under Biden!

Red states are obvious, as are blue. Let purple states pass laws to their liking. IF red states secede, purple ones can join them, or opt out. IF they go with red, they can keep their purple values, but secession over taxpayer-funded freebies and Socialism would end this conflict forever!

I'm actually quite agitated, today, about people who are over age 35: YOU LIVED HERE when Socialism wasn't on the ballot! You enjoyed the benefits of Capitalism! You lived here when national debt was too high, but WAY lower than today. WHY haven't you personalized taxes? Your money!

It would be your money, had government not confiscated it, beyond what they need or deserve! That's UNjust! Everyone is acting like America's debt is a myth, a joke, or a positive! I CAN'T WAIT till the day it crushes our economy and markets. ONLY then will you wake up, if ever. Fools we are.

SOCIALISM & THE BIBLE

(4/20/21-2)

People RIGHTLY bristle that Socialism has infiltrated America, especially people who aren't broke poor! re-read that statement till you understand, as you SHOULD care about its truth, IF you are a good vs. evil person!

Liberals are taking advantage of blue state citizens flocking to red states, to turn them blue. HOW could GOP's get red state people to live in colder climates? A near impossible task! I HATE snow, except to ski or see for two weeks a year-MAX!

Taxpayers do NOT owe you one dime, because you need much more than one dime! Government-supplied freebies are ONLY taxpayer's money confiscated from their private property ownership! The poor should THANK richer people for EVIL handouts, and NOT seek them.

BUT rich people are commanded to voluntarily generously give back to society! I Tim. 6:17-19 They, alone, can afford the loss, even though all they're taught is to gain, not lose money. It's counter-intuitive, but moral, biblical, and God-honoring! Easier to disobey God. Sin gets punished.

ENTITLEMENT MENTALITY

I want freebies. I don't care about justice, morals or logic—just give me my freebies! No justice no peace, but only for police brutality. Otherwise, give me my freebies, stolen from people ABLE to pay their own way, by force of government. THIS is U.S. Socialism! UNjust, dumb and weak.

Where'd the concept arise that government is supposed to help anyone pay their own bills and expenses? Government has no money, but that which it steals from hard workers, whenever it spends more than Constitutionally allowed! Socialists are financial LOSERS!

I want to work hard, but not hard enough to pay all the bills I incur. I want someone to help me, but I'm too chicken to rob someone, and too proud to beg, so I vote for Socialism. THIS is modern leftism! You don't even have to thank the people who get NOTHING out of it—taxpayers!

Give me free daycare, healthcare, section 8, college, home down payment, student loan debt forgiveness, even though all other generations DIDN'T get that? No justice, no peace!

There NEEDS to be a legal litmus test of who are enemies to America, living within our very own midst, and expel those who cross over such a test! NO color, nationality, gender, age, or anything else but sincere hatred of America, identified by polygraph! It's like allowing sleeper cells.

SOCIALISM MISUNDERSTANDINGS (PART II)

(5/15/21-2)

Liberal-think is money used for the military, or ANY wars, could solve poverty. WHY DOES THE GOVERNMENT NEED TO USE TAXPAYER DOLLARS TO SOLVE POVERTY? Solve your own financial woes, and government isn't to favor one group, but do things that benefit ALL citizens, like U.S. and ally defense, fools!

Civics classes no longer mandatory if even taught in public school, and liberal-leaning educators HAVE to be why this generation so often views governments job as serving the wants of the few, or even majority, vs. doing needed things ALL benefit from business can't profit enough off of.

US Socialism is the ultimate entitlement mentality! Life owes me things, because I was born into poor families (poor in more ways than one). AKA taxpayers and the rich owe me, because I can't negotiate for better

One solution to Socialism is getting more taxpayers, so more people feel the pain of their very own money being forced to "help" more ne'er do well types! In America, it's UNjust for anyone to freeload and be a mooch, without paying in something! NOTHING in life is free, but air.

SOCIALISM OPPONENTS AREN'T SELFISH

(6/1/21-2)

"Let me make this perfectly clear:" People opposing Socialism are NOT all selfish! In fact, opposing it doesn't make anyone selfish! LOOK at all taxpayers already pay for, NOT for their own benefit, but others: Welfare, section 8, food stamps, school lunch programs, Obamacare and phones, etc.

NONE OF THOSE THINGS do taxpayers receive, or gain from funding! What do they get in return? NOTHING! What do their recipients pay for? NOTHING! No justice, no peace! That is NOT justice, but MERCY, forced by force of law! NO ONE owes anyone anything in America!

You EARN what you get! Government has zero funds they don't confiscate from people, and those people are ONLY taxpayers! It has and makes zero funds! and just because taxpayers have more money than those who pay in nothing isn't evil, unjust, or selfish or greedy!

They (usually) work for it, and it's NOT evil to want to keep what you worked for/earned, even if it's a lot!

YOU would do the exact thing, if or when you earn money! YOU have zero rights to envy or set your eyes on their stash, but a responsibility to get your own, through working; NOT by voting to STEAL richer people's financial achievements, because you WRONGLY believe 'the man,' or someone dun you wrong, by YOUR poor ability to earn well, usually from poor work skills, effort or time at work (or bad spending habits).

NO ONE forced you into that condition, or owes you!

Update: Our Tweeted History on Point

There are people who view America as too rich, or rich through evil, and historically mainly white. So they seek to settle the score by illegal immigration, to get poor and uneducated people who are NOT white, to vote for freebies Socialism. (6/9/21-2)

The GOP has to take wealth redistribution to SCOTUS, as soon as ACB is installed! It is CLEARLY NOT in the U.S. Constitution! It has to be ended! It is unconstitutionally ILLEGAL for Biden to promise taxpayers money to freebies seekers, for BRIBING votes! Sue him! (10/22/20)

La Raza, illegal immigration MAINLY through MEX, and freebies for 'em in Cali (open borders, sanctuary city safe havens) were ALL part of the strategy, as with teaching youth America is bad (NOT in such words, but by emphasis on are founding), and using European Socialism as a glorified comparison! (7/5/20)

Liberals also want poor nations' people here, illegal or otherwise, so Dems can offer 'em freebies, to BUY DEM VOTES! This is evil. I know few people care about whats right vs. evil, but when a liberal presents freebies as 'compassionate'/virtuous, you have to... (11/28/19)

...free college, daycare, healthcare, family leave, reparations, housing and food subsidies? If you can't afford your lifestyle, belt tighten! Just because a politician will promise you freebies to get himself/herself a cushy job, doesn't mean you should vote for them. It should be illegal! It's armed robbery... (10/17/19)

TIPS FOR THE POOR

(6/22/21-2)

[...If you want to raise bums, criminals or addicts, don't set rules and expectations, and let youth have free reign! Society will inherit YOUR failure(s)!...]

Pay your own way (justice); you get what you pay for (justice). Democrats and liberals are ALWAYS looking for INjustice and UNfairness, even as their people shout threats of violence, or at least threats of no calm without the yelling ('no justice, no peace'), and it's ALL about THEFT!

They tout "free" healthcare, daycare, college, student loan debt forgiveness, and home down payments. WHO are these gimmes free to? Mainly Dem voters/constituents! NOT to tax payers (who, alone, fund the government)! Not only are they NOT free, they are NOT just!

The things our Constitution allows are:

1. For EVERYONE/every1s benefit (military keeps the nation safe; cops keep the neighborhoods safe; and teachers keep everyone learning and knowledgeable). Even libraries, though richer folks can buy all the books they 'wanna read.
2. Not profitable enough for business to engage. But WHAT OF the things Dems and libs 'wanna handout?

WHO benefits from daycare? ONLY people with young children.

WHO benefits from healthcare? Only people without health insurance.

College? Only those smart enough to go, but not rich enough to go.

Debt relief? ONLY youth who qualify to go, went, and now want richer people who are NOT their parents to pay!

Home down payment? Renters; not home owners.

NONE of these handouts benefit all, and they're only not profitable enough for biz when people who can't afford them get to be customers!

Social Security was paid into by recipients! These freebies were NOT! Even Welfare and Obamacare are UNjust, but from forced mercy! Dems and libs have devised a scheme whereby they count on unjust evil to motivate votes, like counting on a majority to be willing to pay more in taxes if they get even more in benefits.

Who loses out in their scheme? Taxpayers and everyone who doesn't get more from government than they pay in.

Who gets UNjustly enriched, by forcibly STEALING from tax payers? UNjust people, who will still mouth 'no justice, no peace!' Corrupt, evil, lazy and sin-FULL plans!

Update

(6/22/21-2)

I believe some people in America want everyone to own the same, and earn the same, and call that "equality." Such people are ignorant, confused, and enemies of America! The devil who inspires them uses good words to support bad policies! II Cor. 11:14

DO YOU KNOW what would happen if America guaranteed every citizen "free" healthcare, college, daycare, and home down payment? Whenever any Dem was in office, they would literally invite THE WORLD to come to America, legally or illegally! America would die, from corruption and bankruptcy!

EVERY building has a "maximum capacity." Democrats, who think humans cause severe climate variances, want MORE people coming to America, to get their votes! Smart and rich ones, who enter LEGALLY, they're LESS fond of. ONLY take in who our economy NEEDS! Americans first, in America!

Socialism is the aim of the Democrat party! Secretly, many of them hate rich people (unless they're Democrat rich), and they want them much poorer, so others can have that excess! Laws against freebies, or secession, will one day be the only option to oppose this evil agenda! America number one!

Liberals' ideal is every American has all their needs and some wants paid for, by work, forced business overpaying wages, or freebies from "government" (taxpayers only). NEVER a word about self-restraint, working longer or harder, better skills and buying smarter! Personal responsibility.

It is NOT selfishness, to pay your own way! It IS selfishness to only address paying your own way, and caring zero if any others struggle to do so. God says the rich are to generously give back. Conservatives say NO. Liberals say force them to, through taxes! NEITHER party is right about it—only God!

I've been in some of the poorest areas of DFW, the past week. Seen many panhandlers. Welfare and charities exist! No one should be able to make a living begging! We have government help for mentally and physically disabled! Tax payers have given enough to "help," including Obamacare. NOT our problem!

The rich, and taxpayers, are NOT your daddy or employer! The fact that they can pay their own bills, and you cannot, is not their problem (unless you're physically or mentally disabled). Your jealous, and as inflation hits, you have to do more, or move 'outa America! NOT steal from taxpayers.

I'm TIRED of helping poor people LEARN how to live off less. But I'll do so, anyway:

1. Have many people share your rent. Fam, friends/roommates, etc.
2. Live in a lower class neighborhood. Try public housing, apartments, tiny homes or RVs or trailer homes, or country living
3. Buy when on sale, and use coupons!
4. Go to dollar stores, and NOT Dollar General, as it only means generally a dollar—usually higher!
5. Buy in bulk, if you can!
6. Start a garden. If you're rural, own a cow and chickens (eggs and milk; maybe cheese).
7. BOTH parents work full-time
8. Use charities, and ALL government services avail to you!
9. Start a Go fund Me account, for emergencies (like medical crises)

10. Consider moving away from America, as it's expensive. Or move to a town that has a lower standard of living!
11. Charge kids rent after age 18, and have less (kids are an expense).
12. Overtime pay, or second or third job!
13. Better work skills
14. Start a business, partnering with others
15. Start a community food pantry, garden, or co-op
16. Use free or low cost medical clinics
17. Stay healthy, and use OTC medical remedies, or Google solutions
18. CHEAP transportation is public buses, ride share, bike, motorized scooter, or very used cars at auctions (don't hitch hike)
19. Garage and estate sales, and thrift shops
20. Maybe solar panels or geothermal electricity sourcing, over time. SAVES or cuts down energy costs!

People, often, don't want to go to the trouble of living frugally and with self-restraint. they'd rather be lazy, and vote for freebies stolen from people who DO save money, invest and live within their means, and make money well! That is evil and unjust! 'No justice, no peace!' Do right!

CURRENT STATE POLITICS: SOCIALISM

(6/27/21-2)

Let's get a handle on whats going on in America: There's an avid push for Socialism, using various means (illegal immigration, God's voting fraud opportunity, promised multiple freebies, calls for equity, critical race theory, etc.), all to punish the less generous rich and often white taxpayers.

Reports are America will be non-majority white by 2052, but multiculturalism and openish border (where Biden and Camel-A claim there's a crisis, yet silently allow it to not get fixed, as it's a major source of new Dem voters.

I live among Indians and Asians. I have NEVER met one seeking Socialism, but I HAVE met white liberals (1 who was affluent) who wanted subsidized healthcare, and I've met a decently well to do Hispanic who wanted freebies, and we know many poorer blacks seek Socialist freebies, including "pastor" Freddie Haynes demanding reparations.

AOC and Omar (the squad) are HAPPY to spend U.S. tax money, and the belief in these circles is America is the richest country (therefore, we have excess to spare and spend). Many in this camp also believe America is EVIL, and that's how we got rich, stealing native Indians and Mexicans' land, and getting free labor off slaves.

They want "revenge," AS IF this were South Africa, where national policy was Apartheid! They prefer the complaints redressed by freebies, but if America were to die of bankruptcy, they'd accept that, as well, as so-called "justice" has to be exacted!

Youth join in, from having zero experience working many years or paying in taxes! All they see is escalating costs of things we use every day, older people having more than them (because they worked since they also were youth), and believing vultures charge exorbitant interest for loans for college.

So the desire to HASTEN 2052, to make what started out as a nation founded by nearly if not perfectly 100 percent whites, is now having our laws used against us to reverse that history, which, in conjunction with other races who came later, built what we have, using the methods I just described.

BLM, Bernie's American Socialism, laxed border policies, critical race theory... they ALL work in tandem to overthrow a majority white and conservative-minded other races (i.e., NOT all conservatives are white!), for Socialism! Conservatism itself, especially under CHUMP, led to a defining moment in our history, of conservatism seen for its ugly sides!

In its purest form, it has ZERO concern for poverty, blacks and browns, fixing pollution, gun violence, conspiracy theories and lie dissemination, and openly welcomes racist white supremacists, if for nothing more than wanting political power through that wider tent.

Add to that the perception that cops abuse their power (which is RARE), as a tool of mainly the majority keeping often black suspects in line, the narrative is all unified against the current demographic majority, conservatism and Capitalism, using "democracy" as the code word for vote in Socialism.

Even our enemy nations approve of this divide, as it weakens America, economically, and therefore militarily, with an escalating debt burden! But WHO would care about debt, when they don't pay it down? ONLY taxpayers.

So cooperation with Dems is viewed as giving in, to some extent, to Socialism, less power for the present white majority (that fact proving there IS advantage to being a majority, though many deny any such advantage for U.S. whites vs. poor blacks), and MORE freebies taxpayers get forced to fund.

NO WONDER everyone who doesn't get a freebie, without any paying in, unites for power to defeat this Socialist enemy (myself included)! It is from policy that cared NOTHING about ANY repercussions of slavery on following generations, who relished in their lifestyle being good, selfishly enjoying only the fruits of their majority-privileged yet also hard-worked for gains, that engendered a backlash of a false belief that the man is oppressing someone in America, like this were the prior South Africa!

Zero active concern for many blacks being poor is what has ignited this growing flame (and the fact that people who work can't protest and be marching, vocally, except on weekends, as that would be economic loss).

Add in the majority, historically, allowing unequal pay for equally qualified women, in business, and disdain for LGBTQs as LESS than equal people, and you have our modern Civil Cold Culture War!

The end-game is uprooting the white majority, sooner than 2052, by means of enacting policies centering on freebies Socialism, to STEAL the goods of the majority white and tax paying Americans, ASAP!

Anything goes to achieve this end. Justice is only a Trojan Horse term! and if this ilk/group can get GOP's to denounce and divide over evil Jan six insurrection activities, all the better for advancing this Socialist agenda, as the Dems are hardly divided over Socialism, centrists having mainly gone silent!

You see even Manchin and Sinema being excoriated for not going along with this BIG plan! There is undeniably a war going on, backed by Americas fiercest nation enemies, to fundamentally change America into this Socialist image.

DO YOU KNOW ANY OTHER NATION that allows such radical upheaval, or change to their historic cultural makeup? China will always be predominantly Chinese citizens! Mexico, as well. Cuba, North Korea, Russia, etc.

ONLY in America is our melting pot becoming a pressure cooker pot for violence and radical remaking of America! In short, you can fight this movement, and cling to the more ancient past, give up and give in, or fight it vehemently, tooth and nail, and win, by also caring to ensure the poorest among us, and those more needy in life get the tools to also enjoy what we in this majority already do! Three options; two BAD for America's future!

Civil War or secession are what await us, if we continue to choose only Socialism or conservatism! YOU WILL NOTE there are many Latinos who don't buy into Socialism, as many of them are hard-working people, are religious, hate abortion, and aren't in America for a handout, but an opportunity to make something of themselves, to pursue the American Dream.

You will also note there are many successful African-Americans in America, or even those in the middle class, who do not embrace Socialism.

This ISN'T a white vs. black and brown issue, but everyone united against freebies Socialism, vs. everyone for freebies Socialism, regardless of their skin tone! You either pay in or you take out, and it is not a matter of taking out more than you pay in, or gaming the system! It is zero freebies, yet helping the poor become self-sufficient!

Again, pure conservatism BREEDS Socialism, as a natural and rational backlash. Giving into Socialism enshrines Socialism. ONLY fighting Socialism wins, only so long as people wanting to vote in Socialism don't garner the numbers.

Solving extreme poverty, some a historic repercussion of ancient slavery, is how you win the day of keeping what we Americans have, without necessitating Socialism, Civil War number two, or two-state secession (which I am NOT opposed to, if it comes to that, by Socialism reigning, or an imminent civil war/race war being encountered).

Defeat U.S. Socialism HANDILY, not by insisting that poor Americans be ignored, or by all the immoral means used to dominate or own opponents, but by giving people who sometimes FEEL "oppressed" equal opportunity, education, and self-sufficiency skills to NOT need handouts! Secede, otherwise.

One P.S.: Even the Jan six riot/attempted insurrection has had Mike Pence booed as a "traitor" at a so-called "Christian" political activism group, for NOT single-handedly deciding our President, and not going along with actions seeking to hang him, as nothing matters to extremists but fighting Socialism, any way you can—even illegally!

For voting power, people who RIGHTLY oppose freebies Socialism get lumped with this type, as even McCarthy wouldn't denounce them or their ways, because that gives Dems even more opportunity for Socialism to win, by weakened GOP!

And even these voter integrity laws, and Texas border building push are ALL in an effort to defeat handouts Socialism coming to America! That's a NOBLE end, and it HAS to win, but you do it legally and morally, and if the enemies of America still can win, you secede! Fight, win, and never concede!

JUSTIFYING SOCIALISM

Biden said his is a transitional presidency. VP Harris and AOC are the most liberal Democrats, besides Pocahontas and crazy Bernie. Biden planted the seeds; THEY will water it to full bloom, if action isn't taken.

WHAT exactly did Biden promise, or tease, for dumb, naïve and desperate people? "Free" healthcare, daycare, family leave, student loan debt forgiveness, college, home mortgage down payment, and now several black activists are pushing a $14 trillion reparations package, to end inequality with a ~$300K nest egg give away.

Obama was once asked for a job and a car. The economy-crippling sub-prime mortgage CRISIS was that party seeking to give homes to people who couldn't afford them! That didn't end well! Pandemic payments have convinced some you don't have to work, because government has an endless supply of money!

You deserve it, because the evil white man enslaved blacks, stole Indian and Mexican lands. Right the historic wrongs. Indians and Asians certainly didn't do that, as they were hardly here in any significant numbers. Add in LGBTQ, who want in on this "equality" bandwagon, and low man on the economic totem pole, youth, want college for free, because most everyone will take something of value for free, if offered (windfall), but how often in life is there anyone offering their valuables to strangers for free? Basically never!

But Democrats have created this illusion, and NOT so WHO wouldn't take that deal? and the numbers of poor or not rich people who could use an extra buck or two are all too happy to accept a $300K bank account deposit, a 10 percent of home value down payment, $5K/year healthcare premiums for full access to whatever treatments they could imagine using, free babysitters and educators for all pre-K children (as many as you want to produce), college for all, even those not capable of keeping up, and NO past contractual debts for smart and desperate people see a life raft being thrown to them, with only payoff and no cost to them!

Higher education still being enforced. WHAT an offer! OF COURSE Socialist Biden had to walk it back, by deceptively going silent, and HOPING the Covid relief over-generous package, and mainly unemployment checks would allay demands of doing what he said, and appease the masses just long enough for his transitional presidency to end, so he can retire, and take no heat for under-delivering, but setting naïve or dumber people up for expectations that can never be realized.

This is the present-day agenda of the leftist party, folks! WHO pays for this boondoggle, and how? ONLY taxpayers! I will NOT strive to quote a figure, but whatever percent pay in NOTHING get everything for free! They only have to care about working to pay for food (beyond free school lunches), clothes, shelter (subsidized by section 8), and retirement (beyond Social Security), as Medicaid, Welfare, Obamacare, Obama phones, SNAP, public housing, and whatever other existing freebies or subsidies take care of the rest of life expenses!

Zuckerberg has even proposed $30K per American, to do NOTHING, so his ilk can get richer off AI and robotics. Empower laziness, and non-productivity and non-growth and non-innovation, just so he can have more than he ever would need, ten-fold! This whole house of cards WILL collapse, folks!

"A government big enough to give you everything you want, is a government big enough to take away everything that you have." –Gerald Ford. Cradle to grave, nanny state, womb to tomb care, paid for by BIG government, paid for ONLY by taxpayers! THIS is the grand vision of the NOT Grand Old Party, but the liberal party, known as Democrats!

China is footing the bill, because they're all but guaranteed interest on their loans (money making money), and the solidity of America is behind their belief we are fiscally sound enough to be a good investment. Compound interest could also play a part in that decision of theirs. But the jig is up, folks!

They HAVE to understand (they're NOT stupid!) that their investment is now becoming a sHell game, because as the only nation with the U.S. dollar as the world's reserve currency, we print unbacked, and increasingly worthless bills to repay them with, and then, every time, Congress increases our debt ceiling, to avoid default, so THEY aren't seen as the irresponsible enablers of a coming economic collapse.

Kick the can down the street till I retire, so the mud and egg isn't on my face, as I cash out with lucrative perks, pensions, and retirement lifestyle. China is going to call in their debt, one day!

NO bank fails to set credit limits on credit card users! If you don't agree with me, call yours, and ask how big a bill you can incur, through spending. They will give you a set number. Now for those NOT invested in the stock market, you will likely say, "who cares?" If the economy crashes, and the U.S. debt crushes our borrowing clout with China, WHY WOULD I CARE? I have no portfolio, and I don't have to pay off America's debt!

REMEMBER BLACK THURSDAY, and THE GREAT DEPRESSION, any who so say! Read, study, watch documentaries on that period! ONLY the rich were sheltered some!

Did any of you see the viral video of a Cuban man seeing a Walmart for the first time in his life? His words tell you status quo in Cuba! He was mesmerized by our abundance. His reality/existence will become ours, if we keep pursuing this path to destruction, called Socialism! And WHY do we have a housing shortage, beyond the impact of the pandemic? OVER-immigration!

EVERY venue has a maximum capacity allowed by fire marshals, but Dems have no limits, for seeking votes for freebies Socialism! Too many people HURTS your job prospects, security and income!

[INTERJECTION: I guess Ammon Bundy believes cities create liberalism, but farms and ranches preserve conservatism? Can't say I follow his logic, as most advances besides food production come from cities, and there are many conservatives in BIG cities. Probably few liberals in rural areas, however]

Back to my point, if you can't see my point, or feel this is fearmongering, I am ONLY putting together historic facts of Dem efforts and promises! NONE of it was made up! and if you don't think the crazies sincerely want this liberal Utopia, you believe the squad being silenced was from sincere repentance, and not to lie in wait for a more opportune time, when Biden's gone, he caves, or more Dems get elected, and the GOP gets weakened by being split over tRUMP vs.

traditional "conservatism." I PRAY these things aren't over your head! WAKE UP, AMERICA, or secede!

SOCIALISM SOLUTIONS

(7/3/21-2)

Non-Socialists in America: I mean this SO literally: If you will choose to never hire any Socialists, they will die out! Watch their social media accounts! Identify them at protest rallies. Have documentation, vs. assuming, and NEVER hire them! That's how Capitalism wins in America!

MY POSITION ON SOCIALISM

(8/17/21-2)

NEED I clarify my position on Socialism? I'm against all freebies, but not opposed to any subsidies being fairly repaid to taxpayers, in whatever form. I'm for Welfare empowering people to live on what they make, ASAP, and for taxes as low as can be reasonably had! WHAT party am I?

SOCIALISM IS COMPASSION?

(10/27/21-2)

Let's DEBUNK the MYTH that Socialisms "being nice." People who want it in America always say they want a compassionate society toward the poor. It's God's to advocate for their definitions of compassion, when other people pay the freight, especially if the poor pay nothing, nor many advocates.

Socialism is NOT compassionate, because:

1. It is unjust to taxpayers, and is government-sanctioned THEFT (a crime).
2. It emboldens laziness and dependence.
3. It does NOT fairly require anything of entitlement recipients! TAXPAYERS aren't your daddy or momma, freebies-seeker "adults!"

I will say something GOP's NEVER say: A human can own enough, after which time they own too much! GOD says as much! It is NOT that they sin to own so much, but they do sin to hoard so much! God says the rich must give back liberally; MOST do not. That's SIN GOP's should call out!

Freebies/handouts-seeking Dems: Instead of envying what the rich have, jealously craving government steal their stuff for you, work smarter, harder, longer; get better skills, and wiser spending habits; and birth less kids. That's the MORAL way to better your life--NOT the sinful way!

SECESSION & SOCIALISM (I)

(10/28//21-2)

AS MUCH as I despise CHUMP and caustic conservatives, America is teetering on the brink of a split over freebies. Taxpayers may own more than handout seekers, but your poverty is NOT their problem! Start a business, or move up the ladder. I'm willing to secede over taxpayer-funded handouts!

Secession seems inevitable! Every state decides for itself how many freebies it gives citizens. Even red states can have none to a few. Businesses will flock to red state nation, and blue states will have little money for their many freebies social programs! Everyone gets what their state wants.

Manchin and Sinema are HEROES to our national debt, and tax*payers unjustly being forced to pay for other people's "free" handouts! I HOPE they join the GOP or Independent Party soon; NOT the tRUMP faction! Government paid for ONLY means non taxpayers UNjustly benefit off taxpayers!

Let 'em all go to Hell; I will stay in Texas. –Davy Crocket, modernized. The far right wants government to help no one, and to hoard all wealth they possess, and far left wants to give handouts on a silver platter. May God judge BOTH extremes, SOON! They're BOTH evil and satanic!

Update

(10/31/21-2)

One of the MANY problems with Socialist freebies/handouts is they ARENT sustainable. IF government made money, they might be more tolerable. But it only does so by confiscating taxpayer assets. The money keeps having to be confiscated, vs. self-replenishing, like work does your bank account.

America NEEDS a much more competitive healthcare marketplace! As costs rise, the poor get shut out! Many businesses mainly target the rich, as you have to make less sales. Movies are at least $11-used to be $5-7. A Ferris wheel at Grandscape is $12 minimum. Is America just for the rich?

Rock concerts are pricey. Everyone in America who can command a high price does. That's selfishness, but also what the market will bear. IMAGINE how the vast majority in America never do things others take for granted, as it's too costly for their budget. You may not care to so think of them

REFUTING LEFTIST SOCIALISM

(11/7/21-2)

WHO benefits the most, living in America? WHO makes money the easiest, living in America? WHO gets the best and most perks, living in America? The rich. We have to start teaching more the responsibility than the privilege of being wealthy! Conservatives don't want to hear of it!

Mark Levin said Giving Pledgers were "self-loathing." THAT MEANS you hate yourself if you don't hoard all your wealth! You hate yourself if you want to aid/help others. You hate yourself if you don't live money. God 100 percent DISagrees! Lk. 9:27/Ecc. 5:13/Lk. 12:33-34/Phil. 2:3-4/1 Tim. 6:10

WHERE's it written that government is created to help people; NOT that it's designed to hurt people, but it's true functions are law and order, public health and safety, ensuring justice and doing collective activities business can't profit enough from! YOUR definition of help is handouts!

WHEREs it written that government is created to help people; NOT that it's designed to hurt people, but it's true functions are law and order, public health and safety, ensuring justice and doing collective activities business can't profit enough from! YOUR definition of help is handouts! [Private account]

The BEST help for any human is learning how to make your own ends meet, as an adult! ANYTHING anyone else can do to bring that about is helpful, like education and motivation! NOT stealing from taxpayers, to fund people NOT in their family or employ!

HERE is Dems' description of "help" for people, from government: GIVE them free daycare, healthcare/Obamacare, home down payment, student loan forgiveness, school lunch, college, pre-K head start, Welfare, ETC! WHO pays for all of it? ONLY taxpayers! That's i100 percent UNfair and evil!

WHY does ANY taxpayer "owe" anyone else any subsidy, or funding for that stranger's lifestyle? They're NOT their family members, and they aren't their employees! JUST because taxpayers EARN more than freebies-seekers is NOT taxpayers' fault or problem, or any sin against those others!

If you want to make money, and think you can, you'll be a GOP. If you don't think you can hack competition, and want handouts, you'll be a Dem. This is the basic divide in America!

DUMB and/or ignorant people NEED to learn this FACT: Government has no money. What funds it uses comes from people, or borrowing! Government is NOT a money machine, but funds taken ONLY from taxpayers! Nontaxpayers are leaches, if they get anything without putting into the system!

Leftists have EVERY RIGHT to voluntarily fund every giveaway program their bleeding hearts desire! NO ONE is stopping them, yet you see FEW of them send in an extra IRS payment! No, they want to fund their ambitions off mainly GOP's, who are mainly taxpayers! Steal, and pay with OPM (other people's money).

Mi casa is NOT su casa! Sharing is caring goes BOTH ways! It takes a village to raise the village idiot means that idiot needs to start getting an edu-ma-cation! He ain't heavy, he's my brother ONLY applies to your blood brother. Everyone must learn to pay their own way, folks!

Government is to fund roads, military, police, etc., and NOT there to move the lower class into the middle class! That idea is NOWHERE in the U.S. Constitution! IF YOU ARE POOR, get better job skills, or learn to spend less, or both! Don't have kids! Grow up and be the adult you are!

It's expensive to live in America, yet everyone the world over wants to come here! If you can't afford the lifestyle, you have to live in a place with a lower standard of living! America only needs people our economy needs, and those NOT coming here to seek handouts—period!

DUMB people think letting in uneducated and unskilled immigrants increases democrat votes. It also DEcreases your own economic bargaining power, as more people flock to fewer jobs, with outsourcing! There is no room in the inn, as our U.S. land mass is finite, people!

Goldilocks!: Not too few, not too many, but just right is the only just and right answer to immigration! On abortion, the centrist position is anywhere between heartbeat and third trimester, determined per state, with a national standard of ONLY that range! This sums last night's conversation with my Texas Technology buddies.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL SOCIALISM?

SCOTUS has allowed Medicaid, Welfare, Obamacare, and other entitlements, for many decades, and NEVER deemed them unconstitutional! So conservatives want SCOTUS stacked right-ward, to overturn such rulings.

They believe all money they earn is their personal private property right to do with as they please. And government has NO right to "their money" beyond a bare bone's minimum! That means a government that ONLY does what's explicitly listed in that great document! Anything and everything else are unconstitutional. This is conservative political theory!

Anyone remember #CancunCruz wanting to END the IRS, or others calling for five fed agencies to be ended? God does NOT agree it's all your own money, but it's His and some is also government's! Again, it is a battle of Bible vs. U.S. Constitution, in whom you serve, and the moral isn't changed due to the legal, meaning you are to obey God, no matter what the law states, and this is for everyone. Not just Christians!

The ONLY issue is how BIG of a safety net is just? Do we really want people unable to get major medical problems fixed because they're too poor, or starting a Go Fund Me account to be able to stay alive and well?

The dirty little secret is NO American wants to or enjoys giving up any of their hard-earned money! Jesus' words in Ac. 20:35 are ANATHEMA to us all! We HATE to stumble onto Lk. 12:33 in our Bible readings! We HATE any Bible verse indicating caring for others, IF that involves any finances!

THIS fact is where liberals derive the concept that conservatives are greedy, selfish hoarders! God Himself opposes hoarding! So to bring Him into the discussion does NOT always give conservatives any moral edge! However, if you also stumble onto I Tim. 6:8, you QUICKLY see the limits to biblical social concern!

Food and covering is ALL we are to guarantee everybody! Covering, presumably is clothes, but MAYBE a place to lay their head, which even Jesus did not have as a permanent societal promise! The ability to survive and not go hungry to the point of death.

COUNTERING SOCIALISM: BUILD BACK BROKE? (-TED CRUZ)

(12/20/21-2)

I will NEVER be a Socialist, or 100 percent/pure "conservative"-period! NO ONE can serve God and be either of those extremes, 100 percent! You may not always have an option for your values, or like every choice you're offered, but you don't abandon God's principles to empower evil! Duh 101

The P.R. problem with GOP's is they oppose every freebie, then do absolutely nothing, privately, to help the poor! They NEED to do significant charitable activity that assists the poor, to practice what they preach and show the empathy they're accused of not having. NOT just vote NO.

WHY don't we just let government pay for childbirth, daycare, pre-K, after school activities, Section 8 housing, public housing, food stamps, Welfare, Medicaid, uninsured disaster relief, cars, electricity, water, gas, clothes, gasoline, college, mortgages, EVERYTHING? (sarcasm)

HOW ABOUT because ONLY taxpayers and businesses fund those handouts, and that's 100 percent unfair to them? You can lump them all together... that's the answer for every one of them!

@davidaxelrod: I'd love to see @SenSchumer put each, individual piece of the BBB bill on the floor for a vote. Let senators explain why they oppose universal pre-K; paid family leave; child tax credit; home health care for the elderly and the other popular elements of the bill. (12/20/21-2)

Update: Countering Socialism

(12/23/21-2)

HOW did EVERY American generation before ours survive and make it through life, without all the handouts/freebies Dems now insist upon? It's remarkable and mind-numbing to think they found a way to live off what they earned, as meager as it was for some of them! They were better people?

Countering Socialism:

Family Leave. Let a grandparent or one spouse handle the crisis. Alternate parents taking time off. Pay cheap help, if needed

Home Down payment. One firm pays it for you, paid back over time, and taken out of prior rent payments! Save up over time! Buy a smaller home.

Student Loans. Find the cheapest interest rate. Get a decent job after graduation. Start later, after wouldn't save up.

Daycare. Start one in your home, with neighbors as clients and one stay at home neighbor as the one teacher! Support new, cheaper daycare businesses.

Affordable College. Two years at Junior/Community College. Online universities. Get the information at a lesser-known college.

Healthcare. Global insurance access, verified. Shop around. ONLY use for major problems. Stay in good health. Use free or low-cost clinics. Obamacare?

WHERE did people get the idea other people owe them anything? WHERE did Americans get the idea other people's money can be theirs? You work for what you earn, and it's NOT evil that you use it for your needs. Taxpayers already fund sec 8, public housing, food stamps, Medicaid, etc.!

Personal property rights don't matter much to people with little personal property, it seems! God teaches the rich should be generous in giving back, but Dems want that to be forced upon them, in the form of increased taxes on the wealthy. You're NOT their fam member or employees!

The wealthy COULD fund sustainable initiatives to solve probs businesses can't profit enough from! Incentivize them to do so, NOT just by tax breaks, but motivators not related to making more money, but giving more away! Legacy, reputation social acceptance, debt to society, obeying God.

The wealthy SHOULD fund sustainable initiatives to solve probs businesses can't profit enough from! NOT by force of tax law, but force of a moral and clear conscience. Find issues that matter to them, individually! Sustainability is key, vs. money down a rat hole. Temporary and self-sustaining.

WHAT'S DIFFERENT between today's rich and those of yesteryear, famous for generous philanthropy? IMO, preppy greed of the 1980s made selfishness in vogue, and it hasn't stopped, except for the Giving Pledger types. A moral decline, even as evangelism and discipleship waned. #Revival need.

WHY would anyone give away money they worked hard to get? They can just expand their luxury lifestyle! Enjoy life more. Work less. Retire earlier. Even control markets and politicians. It's because you make a moral choice to obey God's principles! Not follow satan's values, 100 percent!

And IF you discard God from the equation, you believe satan's lie that life is all about he with the most toys wins, and greed is good. Lk. 12:15 MEDITATE on that one Bible verse, today! It's either true, or a lie! There's either an accounting for your life and how you lived it, or there is NOT!

IF there's a concept of greed, selfishness and hoarding, there's merit to those beliefs. If those are myths, and no one can own too much, keep living sinfully with your excess. Rev. 22:11 If there's a God, there will be a day of reckoning for the selfish rich, and it won't be pretty!

RICH OFF THE BACKS OF THE POOR?

The relentless pursuit of the left is to make America's (and the world's) poor comfortable, by "free" housing subsidies, food, healthcare, college, daycare, home down payments, pay for not working, and UBI.

And yet, those who pay in little-to-nothing demand quality from services they don't pay for, like zero police brutality, zero falsely imprisoned, sentencing guideline changes, no rapes in the military, equal pay for women, trans surgeries paid for, and abortions, excellent schools in broke parts of town, libraries, politicians behaving certain ways, streets smooth, water pure, sewers working, all while funding little-to-none of it.

Then, they want government to do for them what they wouldn't or couldn't do for themselves-negotiate a decent pay wage. Be it minimum wage, or freebies, they want a better lifestyle NOT from hard work, but easy gifts from taxpayers!

They literally believe America's rich don't give enough, so they want to force them to (eat the rich/wealth tax), even as they pay the most money and largest percent of our collective bills. It's never enough, nor are they ever called upon to pay their fair share, themselves!

It is an endless pursuit of more freebies and more sacrifice by the rich and tax payers! Even as they mouth 'no justice, no peace,' they NEVER seek justice in taxation or public social services, because it's Unfair to pay nothing and get lots, just as it's UNfair to pay lots and get little! Duh 101.

EVEN IF Dems could force Americas rich to pay more in taxes, they can always:

1. Pay it through stock expansion (Elon)
2. Hide more assets
3. Lay off
4. Build losing businesses as offset
5. Automate
6. Fund politicians to fight this
7. Move biz out of America, and move themselves

The way you get America's rich to be more charitable in society is NOT by force, but by force of persuasion! The philanthropists of old who were titans of industry did so voluntarily! I've already written up to eight ways to pressure rich folk not to hoard and be selfish. Until EVERYONE pays their fair share in taxes.

DON'T expect any movement of increased charitable giving among the rich, as the system isn't fair till then! Dems NEVER speak to the injustice of the poor demanding freebies, while paying in little-to-nothing. Till they do, expect a fierce fight to retain/keep money away from taxation!

It is NOT being "FOR" voting rights, but being for fair voting procedures, and protecting America from more taxpayer-funded freebies, through voting! Social media wants Susan Collins to vote for a Dem-leaning bill. WHY WOULD SHE? It's ALL a push for Socialism (taxpayer-funded freebies).

I GUARANTEE you that if any of these shenanigans the Dems are pushing, procedurally, to enact Socialism succeeds, nearly half of America's states will secede, if there's no other way to remain a union, and NOT be forced to fund more freebies ONLY paid for by taxpayers!

IDIOTS don't get whats going on. The right to vote, infrastructure repair. NOBLE aims, now warped by Dems seeking to get and bribe MORE votes to enact Socialism. Name your initiative as a moral cause, then warp it into a giveaway program or way to ensure more Dem votes!

Gerrymandering is yet another way politicians use to shore up their side's support. EVERYTHING is for Socialism or Capitalism! Build Back Better, Covid relief package, filibuster reform, voting rights laws, stacked SCOTUS and federal judges, D.C. and Puerto Rico statehood, open borders, VP Harris, etc.

Update

(2/19/22-2)

I know NOTHING about this book, but Jesus' good deeds were privately sourced, out of the goodness of His perfect heart. He NEVER involved taxes of working people to do what He did for the poor! BUT, render unto Caesar that which is due. Jesus WASN'T a Socialist!

Tucker shreds book that compares AOC to Jesus | <https://video.foxnews.com/v/6298105005001>

It's VERY kind, as a society, to collectively decide a nation wants to gift the poor with free healthcare, and all the Socialist programs Europe offers, unmerited. BUT, did the rich and taxpayers agree to that, or were they forced, including by being out-voted? THAT is UNkind and UNjust! Evil.

THE AFTERLIFE

I had a dream we were on vacation, and the roof rack fell off and we many items crashed and were ruined. They were lost to us. YOU are lost, spiritually, if you have never received Jesus. What does it mean to be lost vs. saved? Number one, first and foremost, you WON'T be going to Heaven when you die.

Your life will have been futile, wasted, a loss, dying without Jesus. The Bible also says this about unsaved/lost people: You are: Darkness and in darkness. Eph. 5:8; II Cor. 6:14 Enemies of God. Rom. 5:10; Phil. 3:18 Deprived of the Truth. I Tim. 6:5 Alienated from God. Col. 1:21 Hostile in mind. Col. 1:21 Engaged in evil deeds. Col. 1:21 Aliens to God and spiritual things. Eph. 2:19 Children of God's wrath. Eph. 2:3 Sons of destruction. Eph. 2:2 Strangers to God. Eph. 2:19 Alive to sin, and dead to God. Rom. 6:6-11 NOT a pretty picture! YOU have an expiration date!

You brought nothing into this world and can take nothing with you! I Tim. 6:17 No hearse has a U-Haul following it. YET we live our lives as if all I have just said is UNtrue. We believe Elon and Bezos are 'living the life.' But MOST rich people go to Hell! Mt. 19:24

The Bible even teaches us wanting to be rich pierces yourself with many aches and pains, yet we internally yell, 'bring on the pangs!' I Tim. 6:9 The richest and wisest man of old suffered the same stupidity as we, believing as we do: Solomon. LOOK what wisdom he left for us, taking no wealth with him:

King Solomon pursued wisdom (Ecc. 1:12-18), pleasure (2:1), laughter/entertainment (2:2), drugs and alcohol (2:3), asset accumulation (2:4-8), fame (2:9), and WHAT did he conclude after all of that, depriving himself of nothing this life offered (2:10-11). Despite some joy in the process it was all futile/vanity; worthless striving and unfulfilling, long-term!

Even as he considered wisdom further, he got despairingly depressed (2:12-23). Solomon the wise made conclusions after all of this, which you can learn the hard way, in the school of hard knocks, or the easy way, learning from his mistakes.

And what did he conclude? 3:12-13, 22, 5:18-20, 8:15, 9:7-10, 11:9-12:1. His overall life summary and purpose/reason for living was obey God, as this apeopleies to all humans (12:13-14), with which the New Testament also agrees. I Cor. 7:19 That is NOT so you miss Hell and make Heaven, but a recipe for a good life before you die.

Heaven and Hell are decided by what you do with Jesus, for knowing God is what eternal life is, in both quality of life and quantity of life. Jn. 17:3 Do you know Him, personally? John 3:16 don't waste your life!

Update: Life Perspective

(11/30/21-2)

Do whatever you want. The concept of "sin" and the "devil" are myths. Do whatever you can't get caught doing, or whatever you can get away with. Rules were made to be broken. God is dead, and never existed anyway. MANY (deceived) PEOPLE LIVE with THIS subconscious self-talk!

Your life purpose is to enjoy life, and have fun. Be fulfilled; you deserve it. Life, liberty and happiness. The American Dream. MANY (deceived) PEOPLE LIVE with THIS subconscious self-talk, which is a LIE, if God is omitted (which He OFTEN is).

Your entire life is a film being recorded in Heaven, for all to one day see. Remember that every time you face a decision, privately or publicly!

The purpose of life is to discover your gift and the meaning of life is in giving it away. ~~Pablo Picasso

WHO SHOULD BE A PASTOR?

Unfortunately, because of the almost equal number of pastors I've met who AREN'T angels, but hypocrites, liars, manipulators, cowards, and arrogant, I believe I'm to detail minister qualifications. This ISN'T a commentary, but the information is needed, as some pastors DON'T want parishioners to know:

Tit. 1:5-10 Paul writes Titus for him to set in order what remains, BECAUSE there are many rebels and empty talkers! That is EXACTLY what I encounters, nearly half the time! Spiritual rebels to God; just words! Orderly, proper, biblical church has pastors/elders with THESE traits:

1. BIBLICALLY, it is to be a male! I Tim. 2:12 Met some nice female head ministers
2. The summary requirement is their being beyond reproach (I explained that yesterday)
3. Husband of one wife. Male and married, though Timothy could have been single (I Tim. 4:12). Certainly not polygamous. People debate divorcees, but it's certainly NOT the ideal!
4. Having children who believe. Technically and literally, it's not married without at least one kid, and preacher's kid types have to at least be saved! It shows dad's leadership!
5. Not accused of indecent behavior. Obviously and implicitly, false allegations are not considered. Defined: Not conforming with generally accepted standards of behavior or propriety; obscene (especially sexual)
6. Not accused of rebellion. Defined: An act of violent or open resistance to an established government (especially God)

NOT living in carnality, which is willful abandonment of God's morals. WHY? Because, again, overseers must be beyond reproach as God's steward. They don't own the joint, but are entrusted with the gift of overseeing! I met some who actually own the building!

7. Not self-willed. One quit because the crowd wouldn't "obey him" over Covid concerns, when social gatherings are NOT commanded, but observed, in Scripture
8. Not quick-tempered (short-fused)
9. Not overindulging in wine (it does NOT require never drinking)
10. Not a bully (heavy-handed, or liking that type of politician, IMO)
11. Not greedy for money. LOOK at some of the methods some pastors go through, hiring lawyers to veil their wealth from parishioners and government taxes!

TELL ME those who live in colossal River Oaks mansions have their sights set on Heavenly mansions (or the TV type that's ALWAYS asking for 'mo money). INSTEAD/contrasted, they're to be:

12. Hospitable. Know any who have security detail to ensure they can slip out the back and not have to fraternize with the commoners, after their speech? I do!

13. Loving what is good. That would mean they hate evil (not just tolerate or look the other way at it, like below).

14. Self-controlled. NOT flaky/unstable emotionalists!

15. Righteous. Defined: Morally right, virtuous, excellent

16. Holy. After all, they used to be called 'holy men.' Defined: Dedicated to God, or a religious aim. You CANNOT serve God and money, equally. ALL who try are idolizing wealth!

17. Disciplined. Defined: showing a controlled form of behavior or way of working (self-controlled)

18. Holding firmly the Bible, so he can:

a) Exhort in sound doctrine, and,

b) Refute those who contradict. DOES YOUR PASTOR know the Bible well? In seminary, that wasn't even the goal! They taught "tools," so one could spend a lifetime mastering God's word. ANATHEMA! Can YOUR pastor exhort in right doctrine (NOT error), and are they able to rebut false teaching?

AS YOU CAN SEE, it is NO WONDER many U.S. Christians compromise and rebel against God, in their pastor standard being can he preach and draw a crowd? Those two traits aren't even mentioned (it says exhort in sound doctrine-not just able to publicly speak). This is a HIGH bar. NO WONDER.

I encountered about half my contacts as people I would NOT sit under! In my BRIEF encounters with them, I could discern they did NOT meet this test, and even when I was a pastor, the search committee NEVER inquired one iota of any of these traits! I called them on it, and asked why they weren't asking me questions about this passage and I Tim. 3:1-6, which adds a few new traits, for this NOBLE undertaking.

18. Faithful to his wife (i.e., emotionally and sexually). You remember Mike Pence never being alone with a woman not his wife? GREAT advice! Anyone ever heard of Jimmy Swaggart, or read this list of men of the cloth taking all clothes off for stranger women? <https://ranker.com/list/pastors-that-fell-from-grace/genevieve-carlton...>

19. Temperate

20. Respectable

21. Able to teach (not just preach; that takes understanding; not just verbosity).

22. Gentle

23. Not quarrelsome/argumentative

24. Manages his family and home well

25. Respectfully respected by and obeyed by his children. NOT raising "PK's" (preacher's kids, ignored by busy dad, so they rebel). If you can't manage your fam, how can you manage the fam of God (logic)?

26. NOT a new Christian (as arrogance creeps in, that anyone would think you a leader, when you just started, and know nothing and have done nothing). God judges this type!

27. Good reputation with non-church member lost people. The devil will RIGHTLY usurp your leadership with truthful accusations, without this! ~27 traits!

DO WE TAKE THEM SERIOUSLY? I am seriously considering my campaign opening event(s), and David with a sling shot, or one dressed in sackcloth and ashes, or a Bible burning have crossed my mind, because the condition of the U.S. church is why America is in the condition she is in. II Chron. 7:14

And when pastors are hired for whether they can conduct an entertaining, smooth/eloquent and seamless service, with many man words, but few words of God, and draw a paying crowd, this list is ignored, so why not rip out pages of the Good Book, in public, to show whats already happening, which has caused all of what we see going on.

As go U.S. churches, by how go their leaders, so goes America! Ex: Black vs. white preachers, like Haynes vs. Jeffress!

You can't even get @robertjeffress to even speak with, much less meet with @FHunscripted, to discuss racial reconciliation! I've tried, several times. HOW is God 'gonna bless America, when the "leaders" (Mt. 23:10) can't even get along? One was radical left; the other radical 46-1 right!

WHY NOT rip Bibles to shreds, publicly (if they're old and discarded ones, not useful anyway, as an illustration)? How seriously do we take the Good Book, and its pastor qualifications? DO YOU KNOW ANY Christian demanding all Christians do all four elements of II Chron. 7:14, immediately? Poor America!

BIBLICAL CHURCH (II)

(2/11/22-2)

I have learned that those who preach to laymen, "that's the way we've always done it" is a bad church member attitude, are the same ones who can hold that same attitude with regard to changing their business and its practices! God would call that the sin of hypocrisy! Practice what you preach!

Working, I've met the most wonderful pastors, BUT I was mistaken that they'd all be like that, because, after all, they're in the ministry. I've been flabbergasted that about half of those I met were NO DIFFERENT from hardened lost business people. ZERO credibility behind a pulpit!

I attend church from childhood habit and one Bible command. I also enjoy the two places I attend. WHY would people go, if not raised to go, and knowing many Bible verses other than Heb. 10:25? WHY does God command our gathering together every week to worship, collectively? Answer with the Bible!

WHY go to church: Shared Christian experience, fellowship and friendships, feeling of unity of the faith, comfort in others believing as you do, joint ministering, edification by the sermon and music, focusing on God, experiencing His power, growing in maturity, etc. It's NOT just a command.

The ONLY church experience I can say I absolutely craved not ever missing, NOT from habit or obligation, but excitement about what happened when attending was the Body Life practice at Highland Baptist, Waco, in college! It's a far different draw to be fully involved and present every week!

YOU, reader, will NEVER likely EVER see Body Life in real time. I experienced it! Most every Sunday, 10 minutes of a church service was devoted to time for members to go speak with their friends elsewhere in the room, to pray or just fellowship.

Then there was open microphone, for members to ask for needs to be met, make prayer requests, reverse pass the plate to TAKE OUT IF NEEDED, tell testimonies, tell what God's teaching you in your quiet time. It was monitored and previewed by staff, I was later told, so brief and never out of hand! THAT is CHURCH!

EVEN LAST NIGHT, the Peyton Manning Man of the Year award winner spoke of community involvement/civic service. For a Christian, that is the "S" of EDBS! He spoke of using your voice/platform, money and actions to do good in society. That's what Jesus was KNOWN for! Ac. 10:38

Again, READ the book of Acts, today! Awe and wonder, miracles, excitement, persecution, full and distant parts evangelism (by laymen, as well), shared resources, spiritual gifts used, a sense of joy, daily evangelism and meeting in homes, and the Lord continually added to them, as with favor with men!

Church buildings were NEVER commanded; pastor salaries were NEVER promised; sermons were biblical, and preaching and teaching were its foundation. ENTIRE books of the Bible were read aloud in one sitting! There was no time limit restricting that practice. Acts shows church DIFFERENT!

God's church is to be KNOWN as a place/house of prayer; known by results, and known among outsiders! We get squeamish if a person on stage takes over one minute to pray! HOW are laymen praying with others, in such church practice? HOW can II Chron. 7:14 occur by one person for one minute?

Jesus taught (ALL the Bible is His ideas) disciples are known by remaining in His Book, and by their love for one another. HOW do Christians at church SHOW love to one another? A greeter does it to everyone else? ALL attendees are to be showing love to their brethren! BODY LIFE lacks in America!

And it's NOT pawned off to some elite gatherings! IF you READ any passages about gathered church (Gal.-Eph.+), even I Cor. 14 (absent the sign gifts) shows corporate gatherings where laymen were involved. Not just sit and sing! Churchianity is NOT Christianity, folks! That's my point!

WORLD RELIGIONS

(2/17/22-2)

Let's address the EVIL, however well-intentioned and sincerely believed of offering people false hope about a positive future after they die. NOWHERE in Scripture are ANY of the following presented as being true: Cessationism (your life just ends), annihilationism (you are obliterated, reincarnation (you start a new life on earth), Purgatory (there's a middle place of second chances between Heaven and Hell), or any other promises of Heaven by works.

God (meaning God, through what he has said, in the Bible), says do not add to or subtract from what He's written there ANYTHING contrary to what's there is a myth, or tradition of man. Mk. 7:8; Col. 2:20-22

Jesus, as Creator, pre-existent, and God, and having always existed, knowing all things, having never lied, and having come back from the grave, certainly would register as an expert on the afterlife!

NOWHERE does Christ promise anything for man's future but Heaven or Hell. And everything in the Good Book stems from God, no matter the human penman/author, so even what's said in Acts, is God's truth, and that, just like Jn. 14:6, teaches there's only one way to Heaven (4:12).

It is NOT negating the value of doing good. It is NOT exclusively cutting anyone out, as everyone is welcome! It is not insulting any other belief systems, as if stupid or evil. It's just that when claims contradict Christ's words/teachings, even if stated by Christ's own people, they can't also be true.

How big a tragedy it would be, to live all your life believing you were OK, when you die, when you were not! Especially if that result couldn't be reversed, thereafter! NO ONE willingly signs up to for something good, knowing they won't get it!

We ALL love ourselves enough to avoid Hell, IF there is a Hell (There is. Jesus told us so), if the cost is acceptable to us. In this case, that cost has already been fully paid by Someone Else! It is free. That's not my point.

My point is do not go to Hell, believing you're not going! It's too horrific. It's internally inconsistent to even allow an ecumenical attitude that all roads lead to Heaven!

HOW can people cease, but also come back, but also be destroyed, but also go somewhere like a halfway house till they go to Heaven? IT CAN'T BE all of these smorgasbord of future options.

It's even evil to hope the grave is the end of it all, if it is not, unless everyone goes to Heaven (universalism).

Jesus, again, shot down that future option. And God is merciful, but when you have all your life on earth to settle your eternal destiny, and you never do, He's been merciful enough, and given you ALL the opportunities you will ever get. THAT decision is on you, 100 percent!

I have studied world religions. I LOVE how most of them point people to a God figure, and morals! Most of their adherents try to be good, and that's a good thing! I just want all people to miss Hell!

IF you study the major world religions, all of them teach working your way to Heaven, but one, and they all have different details that are required of those works. HOW could a "God" be so chaotic or skitzo that he demands variant standards for Heaven's entry? It's irrational!

And if Christ lied, committed Christians are the most to be pitied, as we sacrificed a wonderful time, just living for fun in this life, if what He said is utterly empty/futile! God told us this is true, through the apostle Paul! I Cor. 15 Wasted life, if it's all a myth! Yes, in some sense, logically-speaking, there is a risk to faith.

TRUMP FOREIGN POLICY

(Excerpted from Wild West or Sitting Ducks?)

(9/4/19)

WHY do you think tRump wanted to buy Greenland, or Russia mining that frozen tundra? Natural resources. Why is China building man-made islands? Why did it REALLY buy a YUGE land-based satellite in Argentina? To study the dark side of the moon, as advertised? Governments LIE, to get away with things.

Why is Russia meddling with U.S. allies, often over oil, trade routes and trade deals, as tRump ANGERS our fewer friends? You think it's WISE to go it alone in an increasingly evil world? General Mattis was RIGHT! FOOLISH foreign policy, as with favoring Israel, then hoping for peace you helped make hard to have!

Call African nations S-hole countries, and you "think" they won't be inclined to offer their lands and resources to our enemies, like Qaddafi? FOOL-in-chief! CANADA's ex-Prime Minister wanted Hurricane Dorian to harm tRump's asset! Mexico rightly hated tRump lying that THEY would pay for an American wall!

45 is causing MUCH EVIL disruption! He calls it the "art of the deal," but WHO doesn't feel revenge feelings when a bully insists on my-way-or-the-highway, like with EMBARRASSING trade war tariffs with the nation that keeps us financially afloat, if we don't print funny money, and manufactures our goods at rates that make American careers worth less, except for greedy executives who outsourced as much as legally allowed?

Wanting Russia back in the G-7 was for re-election help, as 45 must think stealing Crimea is a good thing!/? Punishment—something Donnie must have spoiledly LACKED—is part of justice! BRITAIN has stiff upper lip types, but 45 has even managed to anger several of their kingpins of government!

The ONLY head of state Chump hasn't angered is Netanyahu, it seems. THIS is winning and success? If so, I'm all for losing! WHAT a fool! And DON'T believe one+ years of insults and crass acts don't engender backlash and hatred! For every action there's an equal and opposite reaction. READ THIS LIST, and tell me the liberals and mainstream media just had it in for tRump, for zero reason other than party worship!:

Sue-happy (NBC, Ms. America, Telemundo, and threatens to against sex abuse accusers); MOST Hispanic illegals are rapists and criminals; A Mexican judge can't be fair to me; Lies that Mexico's President never discussed the wall payment on his photo op trip to Mexico; We will have a deportation force; Mexico will pay for a 50 foot wall; I am calling for a complete Muslim ban; Mr. Khan has not sacrificed; I saw Muslims cheering after 9-11; I can't say I respect women; Women are pigs and dogs; You can grab women's __ if you're a celebrity; I'd liked to nail Princess Di; Ms. Piggy; Miss housekeeper; Has been a Democrat (and contributed to them) all his adult life; George Bush didn't keep Presidents set tones, and are role models, and represent peoples! NO "Christian" can say he did even a failing job of doing that, for his entire, worthless 2016 campaign! Yet GOD's people abandoned ALL morals and sense to empower him! #Apostasy!

Bitterness and reactions to wrongs done take time! We're only now seeing the impact of his 'punch that guy and I'll pay your legal bills,' and 'I could shoot someone on a NYC street corner and lose no support,' or 'you may like or hate me but you're 'gonna vote for me' LIES and evil arrogant sins!

TRUMPSTERS

THIS message goes to my Trumpster GOP voters: I have prayed God would fatally judge you, if you do not change certain things! That does NOT put us on good social footing, if you hold grudges, and are incapable of evaluating truth and morality!

You DO need to change, NOT to suit me, but God! I don't care if you embrace religion or not. You face God's judgment eternally, as well as in this life, since tRUMP was your hero! You embraced sin, and God says everyone who does so will get deserved consequences! Rom. 2:9

I do NOT ask you to change to get to Heaven, but to spare you trials in this life! I'm fine if you freely reject salvation! Your free-willed choice to go to eternal fiery Hell is just another in a set of DUMB decisions you have made.

I'm not going to pressure you to avoid Hell! But I'm going to tell you you are bringing down the GOP brand! I understand how Biden needs to be rebuffed; NOT embraced by Liz Cheney! He's a lying sack of s— when he claims to be centrist and a unifier, who is more Socialist than Hillary, Barack and William Jefferson, combined! He HAS to be vigorously opposed!

I also didn't think impeaching evidence proved a high crime or misdemeanor, but YOU are proud of an insurrection! YOU believe the BIG lie, that the election was stolen.

YOU believe conspiracy theories, like Dominion System winning every case against all their LYING critics, like My Pillow guy! You LOOK stupid, because you behave, speak and believe stupidly! You may not care about morals!

After all, you still back a guy who did all of this (below). I don't care about your reputation, quite frankly, because YOU don't! You think only what men think of you matters, or doesn't! UNtrue! What God thinks matters far more!

Your disdain of thinking over feelings, and power over morals will be both your downfall, and your rightful basis for societal disdain! I 100 percent get that BLM riots ignore the plight of blue collar white males, harmed by outsourcing and immigration!

Blacks aren't the only low-skilled workers negatively impacted! Even business owners get harmed, like landscapers, and any industry cheap labor undercuts, used to peon wages! and yes, white lives matter— NOT just cops or blacks! I get it 100 percent!

But your worship of an evil man disqualifies you from any serious/credible public policy discussions, as you only reinforce the gun-clinging and religion toting good 'ol boys Obama mocked! YOU are living out his stereotype, making his case stronger!

YOU may not have been born with a great IQ; you may not need one for your job; you don't have to be of any religion. But these two verses prove you must behave more morally, or life will never go well for you! Rom. 2:9; Ecc. 12:13.

I WANT God to slay you, if you continue in immorality and ignorance! If you don't, and change, I want you united with the rest of the GOP against Socialism!

Realize one thing: Dumbness is NOT a virtue, and sinfulness isn't, either! You CAN make more money sinning, by breaking laws or abusing people, but ONLY till you get caught! and God sees all! You WILL get caught by Him, in this life, or certainly in the next! You NEED to change; fear Him!

Stupidity is easier to live with and defend than immorality! You feel the consequences of dumb decisions. You sometimes get even more windfall from sinful decisions, but sins are passing pleasures! They will catch up with you! Num. 32:23; Heb. 11:25.

I don't know if you ever frequent the little white country church, within five miles of where you live, but the Bible doesn't get into your head by osmosis, and public schools aren't teaching civics courses much, anymore. WHERE else will you learn morality?

You have to learn morals, for your own good! God, guns and America are NOT mere slogans, or all the morals needed in life!

Hating black people, distrusting all government actions, etc. are STUPID beliefs, or fear that your gun will get grabbed, unless you're mentally unstable, where it should be grabbed! Hunt all you want, and eat all you kill.

You NEED to READ (something you're NOT famous for, sadly) what's below, and THINK about its statements! You are exalting a man who is NOT a role model for any kids you may someday have! You allowed many sins, for the sin of power idolatry! I KNOW you hate Socialism, I do too! Reject sin!

I am NOT one of the 70 percent of Republicans, though my party has historically been Republican!

Stupidity and sinfulness have blossomed in Reagan's and Lincoln's party as they roll over in their graves!

tRUMPsters: DEFEND embracing all these sins and stupidities, when 16 others were available in 2016! It is IMPOSSIBLE for you to, not just because your brain power isn't great for debates, but because this is a laydown, open and shut case that you LOSE! Try doing so, and play the fool!:

I 100 percent blame CHUMP and tRUMPsters for Dems owning all houses of power in D.C., causing Socialism to have been instituted the past 100 days! You all SO ticked off the majority, backing an EVIL and dumb man, now all taxpayers suffer for YOUR bad discernment! Own up. You made that!

I can LOVE a repentant Trumpster! Deluded deniers I can only oppose! We have more in common than not! Smaller government, strong economy and national defense; law and order; controlled borders, America number one, no wasted tax dollars, pro guns and cops, etc. HATING Socialism and liberal extremism! United?

Non-Trumpsters are NOT perfect, intellectually or morally! But they see the swamp got nothing done, and needed a way to get along—NOT be drained! IF they still only fuss and fight, THEN they'll need to be sent out to pasture. TRUMP didn't have a way for them, or give them that chance!

NON-Christian majority in the world: Please know there are fake Christians (claimers, who lie), and carnal Christians (real deal who sin madly). NEITHER of these types please God, but are both under His deserved judgment. Never associate Jesus with them. He vomits over them. Rev. 3:16

LET Biden/AOC Socialists, and Trumpster conservatives meet on an open battlefield, and may the best man win! Both sides want this animosity, so let's get it on and settle this forever! Dems want to force Socialism; mainly Manchin stops their aim. Battle it out! Annie, get your gun!

FOOLISH, dare I say STUPID far righters were SO happy to rub their agenda in others' face, via caustic CHUMP, and now they're desperate to avoid filibuster end/vengeance, via Manchin and Sinema.

They cannot comprehend Newton's third law... things adults learn, even without graduating college! The far right NEVER addresses this argument against their cult leader, because it is impossible to argue against!

Far right searches to find anything to criticize Biden over, as that's the goal. His July 4th ceremony wasn't full of enough fireworks; he whispers into a microphone; his wife wore a flower dress; Melania was more of a model (though less of a model citizen—F Xmas, I don't care, do you?)

STAND UP TO TRUMP

(8/12/21-2)

The lynch me, we're on good speaking terms position of Pence is from fear and lack of moral courage to confront the most evil politician America has seen in over 30 years! SILENT for 4+ years! Those are NOT qualification for office traits, or track-record, folks! Mike Pence

To ALL non-Christians: If ANYONE ever says they're a "Christian," then says or believes anything patently stupid, PLEASE quote them (or simply say) "Matthew 22:37!" It will HELP society for them to NOT go around stupid. Fix society, by fixing people's thinking, PLEASE!

ANY claiming or even actual Christian who proves to lack intelligence is willfully slandering both the cause and Person of Christ! Period. If career politicians can say words to get your emotions riled, and you buy into that process, you are NOT serving Jesus. PREACH THAT, pastors!

ANYONE who would accept 1-liners and slogans, to base their vote upon, is by definition, an idiot-period. SAME with fools who believe if you're rich, famous or physically attractive, you're qualified to lead this great nation! Have we become a nation of idiots? Good night!

I'm FUMING over the intolerable PANDERING to MY people, Christians, in the belief that we are dolts and stupid! I can't even return to sleep, and I need it badly! THOU SHALT LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, MIND. Read the Good Book. Like Ragu, it's in there, folks! DUMB!

TRUMP 'CULT?'

Cult indoctrination 101:

- Supreme leader
- No speaking to or fraternizing with the outside world
- Money and loyalty goes to the organization
- Unquestioning faith

THIS is far right conservatism, to these mandates:

1. Taxes are theft, and evil, as is government
 2. Right to guns-period
 3. Business, cops and the military can do no wrong (ever)
 4. The rich are to be served by society
 5. Greed is good
 6. Government can't make you do anything; you have freedom
- I'll leave it at six: The number for fallen man (vs. perfection/"seven").

OLYMPIC-SIZED VISION

(2/5/22-2)

@RepAOC It's redeemable, but also broken. I agree with some of her comments, and would have to—I said them well before. She's sounding more educated. Has Hell frozen over?

<https://www.foxnews.com/politics/aoc-capitalism-not-redeemable-system-for-us>

[Unbridled] "Capitalism at its core... is the absolute pursuit of profit at all human, environmental, and social cost. ...They can control our labor... massive markets that they dictate and can capture governments. And they can essentially have power over the many. TRUTH I agree with!

The far left Socialist loon, AOC, has RIGHTLY identified the problem, but WRONGLY tried to solve it!

God cares about justice, so fair wages are needed. Unions got demolished in the late 1980's, with globalization. BIG companies demanded near half as much wage cuts, or jobs would leave.

Politicians let this happen, including Biden. China was the largest benefactor, and now we're in mortal combat with the beast hyper-Capitalists and corrupt U.S. politicians created!

It became a UNeven playing field for U.S labor. And when you abandon God's ways, even in economics, trouble is all you get!

IN]justice in government policies, favoring the rich. Levit. 19:15 Greed is good attitude. Selfishness, ego and hoarding. I Tim. 6:17-19 NOT even mentioned on the far right, as one of God's many solutions to these problems, as with profit-sharing, unions allowed, fair wages and taxes, and the elites NOT being the only ones benefitting, and enjoying all life's perks.

The Giving Pledge is shunned and ridiculed as "self-loathing," because one must hate themselves if they love others (says the devil).

Let's LOOK at Capitalism from God's perspective, and see how both Socialism and unbridled Capitalism are EVIL, despite any good motives (like helping the poor, or allowing people to express their full human economic potential). Capitalism/free markets tenets:

- Property rights. Ac. 5:3-4
- Negotiated wages. Mt. 20:13
- Concern for labor. Jas. 2:6, 5:6
- Right to profit. Lk. 19:23
- Inheritance. Pv. 13:22
- Protestant work ethic. Col. 3:23-24
- Opposing evil vs. good rich. Jas. 4-5
- Opposing lazy vs. productive poor. Pv. 10:4
- WORK for what you have! II Th. 3:10
- Safety net (Old Testament Jews' example). Ac. 2, 4; II Cor. 8; Gal. 6:2, 5

- Freedom (including of markets). ~Jn. 8:36
- Controlled debt. Pv. 22:7
- No government theft of personal assets. Ex. 20:15
- No artificially overpaid humans, labor or management (unjust)
- Overall, justice. Mic. 6:8

Profit-sharing is ONLY fair, because the workers worked to make the company its profits.
Fair wages are only fair, because they are "fair" wages.

Unions ONLY make the bargaining table sit on a level playing field, which means operate in a fair environment.

Fair taxes for ALL are needed! And the LEAST that are needed, to get things done that are needed, and done efficiently.

- Our debt is out of control, and it's UNfair to taxpayers.
- Socialism proposes stealing from taxpayers to raise up the poor.
- Unbridled Capitalism proposes ignoring and oppressing the poor for profit.
- God's Capitalism is for JUSTICE, as JUST described.

Update

Let's John Lennon IMAGINE how America, China and Russia could live in more harmonious coexistence. I do NOT believe this will occur, but it is how it could, if all parties were willing.

Lies are forbidden, and use polygraphs. Selfish ambitions give way to cooperative win-win opportunities.

Limited resources are artificially manufactured, and new technologies created to expand and extend the usefulness of all existing natural resources.

Cooperative ventures squeeze the last drop of resources out of our planet, and begin searching for more on other planets, thereafter.

ALL agree to treat their citizens RIGHT, and NOT as slaves, living in fear. The poor have a way to not be seriously so. The rich obey God, and give back. I Tim. 6:17-19

The military is maximized for effectiveness, but our common enemy becomes diseases and weather calamities.

Politicians do NOT stay in power forever, and the masses have a say in their countries' direction! The citizen is NOT living in fear of UNjust things the police and government are allowed to do.

NO ONE is a slave, even if paid peanuts in immoral/sinful concentration camps. The media is NOT used as a propaganda machine of the government, or any political party—but ONLY truth.

Trust is built between nations, by cooperative ventures well beyond the 2031-retiring Space Station! The people of China and Russia MEET the people of U.S.A., just as the rich in U.S.A. interact with the U.S. poor, on the poor's turf, to get a dose of reality, before making policy favoring their already benefitted selves!

I KNOW this is a pipe dream, and I do NOT propose it as even something to believe will ever happen. The HEART of man must be changed, or this vision will NOT occur!

WHAT can change the heart of man? Long-term, only God can! Shorter term, perhaps severe personal crises, or motivational educating on the benefits of morality. Religion cannot, in sincerity and sustainability. It can reinforce morality, as can public civics courses.

But the acknowledgement of God's existence, by observing the solar system, and wonders of our created planet, as well as Putin and Xi recalling when they were mere lads, and they felt a tinge of guilt when they did bad things, and their egos weren't enlarged, and their conscience told them God exists!

To operate a government system built on the nonexistence of God intrinsically builds upon that foundation with UNgodly characteristics! NOT to say America isn't also pursuing MANY ungodly traits, as well! ALL must prioritize doing moral behaviors. THAT's why this vision will NEVER come to pass!

We already know that Gog and Magog (Russia) will war against a coming world dictator, then all nations (including the kings of the East, especially China) will cooperate to seek direct war with God, at Armageddon. That war could be as close as seven years from now. We also know Capitalism will NOT be abandoned, nor poverty erased. Rev. 16-18

So as you dream of a better future, know the end chapter, and work backwards! We are ALL heading (at break-neck speed) to an eternal future of flames and fire, without allowing God to forgive our many wrongs! John 3:16 DO SO today. II Cor. 6:2

I, myself, personally believe that joint activities at pleasure, business, touring and meeting the common man, among world leaders, could break open a crack of humanity for human rights, among the worst abusers.

What I mean is heads of state doing sports, together, visiting people, SEEING the suffering, first-hand (as I saw in Cambodia), talking with everyday Joes (together, with translators, as we had there), visiting each other's countries, to see their assets and meet their people (UN-choreographed), to let them know the other nation's "leader" is human, and cares.

Joint events, where friendships can form. REST ASSURED, our frenemies KNOW all U.S. policy only lasts, at a minimum, four years, so they distrust every U.S. politician, RIGHTLY so! America has to secure permanent good policies! No ping pong policies! WHO can trust our word, for more than four years? NO ONE!

Capitalism vs. Communism is the ultimate difference! DO YOU BELIEVE people should be free, or that freedom produces chaos and troubles? America's divisions over extremes is proving their fears of democracy to be decently well-founded! END the extremism, by making them two minorities, and world peace is possible!

And NOT world peace from a brokered 7-year deal with Israel and her neighbors, or forced peace by one man dominating all nations through a controlled global economy! Dan. 9:27; Rev. 13. LEARN prophecy! It's future history yet to be lived! KNOW the final chapter! Duh 101

CAN Communism be morally reformed? Possible, not probable. Their politicians want absolute power and control. The people fear the government, not vice versa. Just laws aren't enforced, but only what benefits the state.

They don't have to adopt religion, but MUST adopt morality within government! LOOK at the EVILS Commies accept, vs. the GOODS of human rights, but first, take the log out of America's collective eyes!

WE must repent, as a nation, of our greed, sex addiction, arrogance, selfishness, entertainment idol, caring little about any other nation, etc.! <https://ipl.org/essay/The-Evils-Of-Communism-Karl-Marx-And-F3QAXW3RC48R...>

China, at the Olympics, basically thumbed its nose at the West trying to tell them how to handle human rights. America to have moral authority, to credibly speak to others! 45 offered NO ONE any moral authority!

And Commies have to learn what morality is, lacking a belief in God! Somehow, Communist dictators believe allowing religion will topple their reign. IF they remain evil, in practices, that's a wholly true concern. They rightfully SHOULD be dethroned.

But IF they will repent, and relinquish evil practices, religions would support their rule. It's up to them.

We live with Communist Cuba at our back door. Russia can live with a free Ukraine, next door!

PLEASE consider reading my message, today, from a post about AOC forward!!! YOU can ONLY benefit therefrom! @prezxi Jinping @China @EKremlinrussia #Olympics2022 #WinterOlympics2022 Beijing #WinterOlympics WHY be able to get along only two weeks every four years? DUMB!

LANDSLIDE AGAINST THE FAR RIGHT

WHERE THE RIGHT IS RIGHT:

1. Small government
2. Low taxes
3. NO freebies
4. Pro-business
5. Strong economy
6. Strong military
7. 100 percent controlled borders
8. Hating abortion; disagreeing with homosexuality
9. Pro spreading democracy
10. For no gun-grabbing.

OPPOSING THE FAR RIGHT

EVERYTHING Bernie and AOC want you could find ways to achieve for them, privately! And in the end, the more the far right becomes stubborn to improvement, the numbers only favor everyone else. UNITE the non-far right-period. Us vs. them! You don't oppose most of their aims, but means!

PAY ATTENTION! You can 100 percent oppose all evils of the non-far right, and they're wise enough to allow for differences! NOT the far right! Just because you oppose homosexuality and think abortion is evil doesn't mean they don't have a BIG tent! They want votes and victories!

The far right wants ideological conformity. EVEN recently YOU agreed with Ilhan and AOC on one issue each. Agreement is possible!

You are NOT opposed to problems in society being fixed! MANY lifelong GOP's would never vote against Chump as GOP nominee, even if consciences still work! Unite all others!

DO IT RIGHT NOW! Explain exactly why the far right must be defeated, what good they offer that the others should adopt, and where the left extremists are wrong, or can get what they want, without their extremes. If push comes to shove, Socialism could win, and America seceded into two!

Liberal ideals, centrist-ized:

1. Cleaner ecology. Make it profitable for business. NEVER abandon oil, completely, as world politics depends on that power, and derivatives can't be produced without it. Demand that it be clean and safe (no blow out technology). Electric cars aren't reasonable for all to own, yet, as not enough charging stations, energy prices fluctuate with war crises and weather calamities, refilling takes hours.

Fixing problems SHOULD occur! Ex.: Homelessness, human trafficking, drug addiction, unfair workplaces, only the rich get richer, etc. It HAS to come fairly; NOT only from taxpayers, and no one should pay zero! Civic service, if any can't pay in money!

I can happily join even the far left, as a movement, if they accept justice, better solutions, less than perfect results, and keep America from civil war or secession, with state and private solutions!

MAYBE both extremes believe you shout and clamor for more than you really want or think is possible, or reasonable, to try to sway public opinion critical mass in that direction? If so, there's hope. If either side really expects their ideals, America will end, violently or voluntarily!

I've noted, likely a proverbial thousand times, how the far right isn't interested in intelligence or integrity! I am not requiring them to accept those two values. I am walking away from any association with them, until they do. They're a cult. I don't join cults. I'm with everyone else!

You're either a caustic conservative or you are an "other." ALL others must unite to forever defeat caustic conservatism! That is, most talk radio DJs, anyone acting like CHUMP, any evils GOP's propose, etc. IF there's to be a secession, I won't live with but fight the far right!

Update

(2/21/22-2)

I have opposed you two more than anyone in America, but CHUMP. There is more room for common ground between us than his ilk and any evil policies he's been for. BELIEVE ME, your aims can be achieved, in large part, without unfair tax burdens. I want to bridge our gaps, by private means. @AOC @Ilhan

HERE's a rehash of private solutions to AOC ideals:

Healthcare. We have Obamacare. There's Medicaid. There are cheap and free medical clinics. Prevention is essential. Go Fund Me crowdsourcing can handle large expenses. Government gifts should be repaid, and every American pay taxes. Why? Because we ALL benefit from government existing.

Daycare. One spouse become a full-time worker for many neighborhood youngins. House them in a larger home, and neighbor kids go there, for cheaper than businesses. Refuse to pay high prices. Maybe open professional competitor daycares. Competition lowers prices!

Home mortgage down payment. Rent-to-own homes exist! One company builds up equity, as a percent of rent, till a down payment is secured, to own/buy the house. There are zero down payment mortgages. But your income must afford the monthly payments! Government can't help you with that!

College. Go to junior/community college two or four years. Then attend a state university the last two years. Vote for accredited home study college! It can be self-taught off the internet (or library books). There are cheap student loans, too. Pay them off over decades, as needed. Invest in you.

Student debt. Vote for government debt interest to be reasonable, and private debt companies to be forced to only charge reasonable rates! Vote for payoff plans to extend out long enough the payments aren't a burden to you, till you earn more. Avoid it up-front, if possible! Start later.

IF you want more to be offered to the poor, than our last few tweets, let blue states pay for that! OR, ensure all Americans pay fair taxes, then vote for more to be offered. That's fair majority rule!

No or few taxes, vs. many taxes. The solution is private actions to help the poor, and them being better prepared to fund adulthood, through public school, and Welfare being revamped, as well as charitable giving, voluntarily (as well as higher than red states blue state taxes).

FINDING COMMON GROUND WITH AOC'S SQUAD

(2/21/22-2)

Rush Lamebaugh alleged libs see conservatives as the problem. I see caustic conservatives as a huge problem, as with radical lefties. BUT, for power, I'll united with lefties, because Trumpism is so wicked (absent its good, mainly stolen from my writings). Before that, HOW is it evil?

1. Money is God, and the purpose of life. They'd never say that! They just tout "freedom" and the pursuit of happiness. Even Mark Davis said there may be many greedy SOBs in his bunch, but "what are you 'gonna do about it?" That is tolerating it.

2. With "greed is good," so is every man is an island! The far right wants NO safety net! They'll never say that, as well. Their proposals do the speaking, from deception and cowardice sins. NO wealth redistribution; end five federal agencies.

THAT MEANS every poor American gets NOTHING, EVER, from government! To Hell with you, and if you die suffering from starvation or poverty, as that's societally acceptable!

3. EVERYTHING is to promote the rich getting richer! IF anyone else does, that's almost by accident!

Elites make money off money MUCH easier than working to make money, especially the labor of blue collar people! Elon is touted as a HERO, when God says the rich should generously give back. I Tim. 6:17-19 The Giving Pledgers are mocked as self-loathing, by conservative Mark Levin.

THAT MEANS, if you care about anyone but your immediate family, and their heirs in perpetuity, you hate yourself! That said from a Jew, no less. A 100 percent contradiction of Judaism! NOT a strictly practicing one, obviously!

4. TRUTH is spurned. So are morals. CHUMP is the epitome as exhibit A proof! Those are NOT the group of family values or religious right! ONLY on abortion, to lure in DUMB Christians, who stay DUMB because their pastors teach them almost everything they know about God's word! They even have to have public testimonials from laymen, trying to get up interest in meeting with God through Bible study!

5. Finally (I could go on "forever," but not now), a good economy is when my 401K is safe, secure and growing. LAZINESS! Selfishness. Greed (money as the center of my life). ONLY the investing class ~53 percent of Americans are what matter! Mainly white and WASP. Ichabod.

So, as to unity with the squad, I would and could NEVER agree with much of what that group advocates for, but I can never agree with CHUMP, his ilk, or the sins I've described among his pastor advisors. So I have to be able to unite for power with people I'd hold my nose over, till a third party arises (ASAP, please!).

1. They want the poor doing OK. I do too, but not through national taxes.
2. They want the environment cleaner. I do too, but not by punishing business.
3. They want life fairer. So does God and so do I!
4. They want to punish the rich. I want them doing their fair share.
5. They probably want any and all abortions legal. I want any woman determined to get one to have a safe go of that evil, sinful and to be socially discouraged choice!
6. They likely celebrate sexual deviancy. I never would or will, but I can love and respect most anyone NOT Chump, or the Christian Cabal.
7. They may want to grab guns. I'll grab a gun-my own, if they ever seek to do that! There are reasonable restraints on the wrong use and users that we CAN agree on! The far right says anything goes! That's irresponsible (but morality isn't their strong suit).
8. They want police defunded, most likely. I desire no cop ever kill a suspect, unless they absolutely have to. And, unfortunately, they have to behave perfectly, under stress, or they get it wrong and riots tend to erupt. HARD job! Pray for those heroes!
9. They may want open borders, so more Dem votes come to America. That is EVIL. That's NOT how you get more voters! Have better solutions! Attract more voters!
10. I've already addressed their love of freebies. Blue states can offer those! IF a secession occurs, over handouts, blue states would eventually go bankrupt! You have to be smarter in solving poverty, that stealing from taxpayers!

You solve it by ensuring equal opportunity, no good 'ol boy clubs ("ducks hire ducks," as a General called it on CBS). Equal education. No child left behind, academically! Teaching them how to buy wisely, and invest, in public school!

Graduate people capable of self-sustaining! They may face single parents, drugs and gangs, dilapidated school buildings and homes, depression from their circumstances, distractions from unsafe neighborhoods (crime, violence).

America as a WHOLE has to eliminate these barriers. NOT do as the far right does: Be ostriches. NEVER visit, to see the conditions. Life is good because MY life (and my 401k) is good (i.e., selfishness). That's what caustic cons DON'T WANT anything to do with!

There are many decent GOP's! They need to be in this largest group of voters, called the non-Trumpists, or non-caustic conservatives, or non-far righters (NFR party).

AOC types WANT good things for others; NOT just for self (though I'm sure she likes her perks). Someone wrongly likened her to Jesus, for her desired aims Europe has larger social programs/safety net. Liberals always want America like that.

They think it kinder than how cons want America. It has to be majority rule, but ONLY if all pay their fair share in taxes! Once that's achieved, everything is fair game! BUT, a "national divorce" is on the horizon if The Squads vision is enacted, even fairly, through votes (more Dems in D.C. than presently, or a landslide).

WE CANT HAVE AN UN-UNITED STATES, folks! YES, both extremes are EVIL! Until a third party arises, you have to choose your poison, in who you vote with. I will always oppose BOTH extremes, but the sin-full far right and Trumpism I will oppose more, in 2024, because of the EVILS I have personally witnessed from claiming Christian "leaders."

The rich and elites Christ was hardest on! READ Jas. 2, 4-5, Lk. 6, Mt. 19:24. JUST YESTERDAY, a person who believed the Jewish national tax is for Christians (10 percent of income/"tithing") said some of you are poor because God isn't in charge of your finances. In other words he'd NEVER state: If you don't tithe, God will punish your finances.

I guess Jesus and Peter disobeyed God in their giving to Him!? Mt. 8:20; Ac. 3:6 BALDERDASH! It's ALL about the riches, in Laodicea. It's ALL about the riches and rich people, for the far right. The others be damned! I never have understood why non-rich people adopt far right ideology, except everyone hopes and thinks they'll be rich one day, in America!

Or they hate abortion, as I do, or being taxed to pay for someone else's lifestyle, as I hate. There can be unity for power, with ALL who aren't far right! It HAS to happen, folks!

Let's break down where far right economics break down, morally:

The economy is BEST when it's growing. TRUE.

The economy grows best with the least money taken out of it by government. TRUE.

Growth means profits for business. TRUE.

A rising tide lifts all boats. LIE!

The waterways would have to be connected! NO ONE overpays anyone, on purpose, even in a great and growing economy! The lowest rung will NEVER make enough to live off of, if business can hire the same work effort and quality for less! YOU do the same, with pet walkers and lawn maintenance!

The far right ONLY says poor should get a job. That often means minimum wage jobs with one in five needed for advancement into management. NO ONE will pay more than they have to, to fill positions! BUT, management and owners ALWAYS get all excess.

Profit-sharing is shunned, as are unions, by the far right, though they are JUST! The workers helped the company gain their capital gains! And unions only give blue collar folk more leverage, when the leverage has ONLY been in business's favor since globalization!

And the rising tide argument assumes the rich give back, like the giants of the industrial revolution USED to. ONLY Giving Pledge minority do, now!

The statistics say normal Nelson and Nellie pay three percent toward charities, but rich Roger and Rebecca only two percent. Selfish greed has come in, since the preppy days of the 1990s. And globalization has brought ALL these harms to labor wages:

Reinvest all profits into company, or to shareholders, streamline, automate, robotize, layoff, increase insurance premiums, use contract labor so no benefits accrue, treat humans as line item FTEs, buy politicians to bless the already blessed more than all others, use lawyers and accountants to pay less than your fair share, even less than secretaries, have offshore bank accounts to hide your assets, or use trust funds to shield assets from government knowing of them. Open failing businesses, to offset successes, so government gets the least. Overpay CEOs, based on genning up stock prices, any way they can. Cut corners, use lower quality suppliers, or put dangerous materials in foods, if cheaper than healthy. Puffery in advertising, so the "common man" doesn't know when he gets snookered, or Scrooged. Import labor and export jobs. Be FOR illegal immigration, so business gets cheaper labor, use unpaid internships!

ONLY bless management and executives and shareholders. THIS is the Wall Street game, folks, and the little guy Jesus cared most about gets squeezed, especially by inflation! Your dollars buy less! Rich cons don't care! They're OK (financially, vs. morally and spiritually)!

They either benefit from them, or approve of them as "patriotic." Morality is NOT their strong suit. God is FOR morality. That's why they must be utterly defeated! They're NOT good GOP's, and RINOs! Duh.

I'm right of Sinema and Manchin; that makes me as far away from the Squad as anyone can be, unless they're in the alt-right. I am 100 percent NOT in the radical conservative group, but I agree with the good in their views. I would have to, as I elucidated those good policies for their dear leader! But their abuses and warpings must be defeated!

THIS IS unbridled Capitalism! I LOVE Capitalism. I HATE its abuses. The far right doesn't. It's a pre-preppy era ideology, when our economy grew, jobs grew and wages. Now, with machinery, people can be replaced, and they're cheaper, over time! THIS is where the myth of the far right's economic policy gets exposed. We aren't in pre 1990 Kansas anymore, Toto!

IF you've NEVER taken an economics course, if you only have 100 French fries for 10 people, whoever pays you the most for them gets them. Their fiscal value increases by their scarcity and high demand/number wanting them. THIS truth also applies to jobs!

Outsource many, and import labor, and U.S. citizens get screwed—NOT business owners, management and shareholders. Business school literally teaches that business only exists for profits. THAT MEANS pollute all you want, break any rules you don't get caught breaking, screw over customers, IF profit can be had doing so!

Lie and defraud! Treat employees like crap, or slaves (unless workplace safety, breaks, overtime pay and minimum wage laws are passed). SAME with truth in advertising, food safety and FDA rules, etc. MORE humans fighting for less jobs. That ONLY helps the rich: Owners, shareholders and management! Economics 101

And far right politicians do NOT have to ever pass anything! ALL they have to do, and get paid to do by rich people, is gum up any law-making that costs taxpayers/government any money!

P.S.: If the economy one grows does not benefit all, it is NOT good for America, because America encompasses all who live here legally, as citizens.

P.S.: The one way that far right economics is harmful to blacks, browns and Muslims is what a U.S. General said: "Ducks hire ducks." By historic progression, most big and profitable businesses have a majority of whites, and you want to work with people you can easily get along with, for workplace efficiency!

36. YOUTH

YEARNINGS FOR OUR YOUTH

(Originally posted 11/18/19)

I'm going to show my age, but importantly, hopefully also, the wisdom of age. There have always been generation gaps, but this one could severely harm the country I love, left unguarded.

We have two gen X rising so-called stars for the younger generation, in politics, which break all molds for politicians... one an extreme leftist radical; the other a popular rapper whose wife admits he knows nothing about politics.

American pundits have posited the first African-American President (and we got one), the first female, someday the first Latino, Indian, Asian, LGBTQ, "little person." We've now had a reality TV President billionaire non-politician who knew LITTLE, and had FEW morals.

Holding office is MUCH more important than constituents being happy that they can relate to them because they share a common trait! It's NOT a popularity contest, or who's richer, more famous or good-looking!

Youth are ambitious and bright-eyed. They see the flaws of older generations, and this generation seems intent on fixing the wrongs, which is a great thing! But experience, with age, teaches you things ideology alone never can, like the value of leaders in Congress having understanding, knowledge and character.

We have ALL been young, before, and had to make it through life, find our way, get jobs and work our way up. NONE of us did it through government giveaways of democratic Socialism, as that is NOT what America is, from inception until now. Nor is America a land who devalues the office into a clown show of unqualified popular people, until now. If this is a permanent shift, I fear for my kids and grandkids!

Two extremists, one who would bankrupt America or cause Civil War; the other an arrogant newly-claimed 'Christian,' who could conveniently just want Trump's base, as he relishes in wearing a MAGA hat because a $5 hat with a slogan makes him feel powerful, and whose UN-Christian bravado claims himself a genius and the greatest artist God has ever created (near blasphemy).

The term "presidential" has been tossed around a lot, in the Chump era, rightly so, because the DIGNITY and seriousness of the duties require an adult at the helm, which is probably why the current leading contenders are in their 70s! This is NOT innately a bad thing, young people!

It's novel to want your generation represented in high office, but not necessarily smart (it depends on the candidate)! JFK and Bill Clinton were somewhat young, and they were good for America, overall, compared to the Jerry Springer on steroids White House we have today from the boomer generation. It's the PERSON and office that matter—not their age!

But with radicalism and ignorance as claimed credentials, you need to consider things with more gravitas than merely seeing one trait represented that you can identify with (or you aspire to), such as AGE (or popularity, fame, money), which reflect ZERO of qualifications!

Haven't we had enough of unqualified politicians in D.C., to get us in the mess we're in? And finally, for that crowd the Kardashian rapper suddenly wants to court, suddenly finding religion when political aspirations were in his head (before his fall, ~3 years ago), may I remind real Christians and others what God says a politician is supposed to be, as surely the best way you can get leadership in the nation we all love:

Pv. 16:7 If you please God, you will have peace with your enemies (Ex-political); Pv. 16:10 Politicians should implement God's will; Pv. 16:15 Pols should bring life to situations; Pv. 17:7 Pols should use excellent speech and not be liars; Pv. 20:8 Politicians are to be for justice and despise evil; Pv. 20:26 Politicians are to reduce evil; Pv. 20:28 They are to be honest; Pv. 22:11, 29, 25:5 They are to surround themselves with quality people; Pv. 25:3 Politicians are to have depth; Pv. 29:4, 26 They are to be for justice; Pv. 29:7 They are to care for the poor; Pv. 29:12, 14 They are NOT be liars; Pv. 31:4-5 Politicians are not to be given to alcohol (or drugs, in our modern day). In short, they are to be knowledgeable, temperate and moral.

I feel quite certain you could add to that list if you browse through that book of wisdom! YES, the older generation has done MANY things wrong, like favoring the rich (contrary to Levit. 19:15); piled on our debt, so now we're slaves to China (or heading toward war; Pv. 22:7); ALLOWED colleges to charge an arm-and-a-leg, by globalism opening the student body up to the entire world, so competition for limited seats causes some celebrities to pay bribes for entrance; allowed healthcare to be only a rich man's game and right; stuck our nose in some nations' business, at the cost of the lives of often youthful American soldiers; saddled you with a bankrupting Social Security system Uncle Sam now says you are to fund; and LESS good-paying job opportunities, again from over-outsourcing and over-immigration, all in the worshipful pursuit of riches.

Your generation is idealistic! I have three from your crowd! You insist that LGBTQs be treated as equals, and heavy people not be discriminated against, and the environment not to go to Hell to earn another buck!

Your generation has MANY admirable traits! And even as when I was young, or even before, when Elvis was seen as a threat to the establishment, or the Beatles, the 60s hippies, or that scarily evil rock and roll I was raised on, you will always differ from your parents, because that's how you establish your independence!

We had pong and Pac-Man; you have Fortnite and World of Warcraft, and other games; You have Snap Chat, YouTube and Instagram, and we may have Facebook and email. There will always be differences between generations, and that is as it should be. But we must share in common values concerning the type of people who lead us: People of content and character/intelligence and integrity, no matter their age!

I am on the late end of that generation that brought you several bad things, and I do not support you being straddled with the negatives of those who have gone before you! But you do not throw the baby out with the bathwater, by trying to tear down the whole democratic experiment, by radical, unrealistic ideals that steal from all tax payers, or vote for people with zero knowledge of their subject, for whatever reasons they may excite you!

Remember JFK's and Bill Clinton's age, from your history classes, and know this has nothing to do with generational warfare, but establishing what traits in a person makes a good situation for your life, with them in charge!

Because you're young, you want a good life, ASAP. You don't want student loan debt keeping you in the red for years; daycare that makes one parent work just to pay for it; you want healthcare, which is QUITE reasonable, because you live in a body that gets sick and old—as all of us do!

You want good-paying jobs; NOT to give them to citizens of other nations, while our own struggle with what's leftover! And you want breathable air and drinkable water; QUITE reasonable, given that those same aging bodies breathe air and drink water!

My caution to you, which I hope you don't turn off to, as my kids often do, because the old man is saying them, is to do things the right way, be patient, be fair, and be realistic in your ideals, because every generation before you has faced challenges they got through, and NONE of them did so without work and struggle, simply demanding their desired ends for an easier life through voting for handouts, or a continuation of tRUMP policies by a young person who's like Chump in many ways: Rich, flamboyant, embracing his policies, etc.

You, having BETTER education, simply by taking course content we had in college, in high school, are much more prepared to make good decisions! Identify the problems, and recognize the good things this older generation has brought you, and reject the former and embrace the latter!

You happen to live in the greatest nation on earth, that gives/entrusts to you the freedoms to aspire to all you rightly do. Don't blow it!

CARNALITY, CASH & CONSERVATISM

(4/14/22-2)

It's established—a statistical, real, actual fact—that American Christianity suffers from a large carnality problem—uncommitted believers, resulting in obvious symptoms of sinfulness, fitting into the world, not sticking out, morally, and disinterested in evangelism or Bible study.

One major reason is our valuation/priority of money! MAYBE it's pastoring, vs. teaching, but I have NEVER heard one sermon like this one, in 62 years, often attending 2-3 times a week, in four states. Sermons are often topical, but rarely cover this topic thoroughly.

The American Dream, political conservatism, and worldliness have MUCH in common, and not in common with the Bible! The last church in Revelation was Laodicean; rich with money, poor with spirituality, power and morality. Is there a correlation? YES!

Jesus said you CAN'T serve Him and money, so many U.S. Christians serve money, but attend 1.5 hours on Sundays, at church, to "serve" God. THAT'S NOT SERVING GOD, the way God defines it, people! Being a disciple is denial of self, and daily!

King Solomon chased all this world had to offer. He was the most worldly and fleshly person, in such pursuits. Unlike us, he made a sane and moral conclusion: Obeying God is life's purpose, and all else is futility and emptiness.

The book of Luke says even when a person has all the world's assets and money, life does not consist of what one owns. Just like "it is better to give than to receive," we DIS-believe that!

I Timothy WARNS anyone aspiring to achieve wealth! It does NOT encourage it. James 4 says ALL business/money-making plans should be first be subjected to God's plans, like Jesus, Who said, 'not My will but Thine be done.' WE don't do this, folks! We don't say, 'if the Lord wills let us do so-and-so business plans!' Jas. 4

WE U.S. Christians IGNORE Pv. 23:4-5! It commands do not seek wealth, or weary yourself for it! Mt. 6:33 says seek God and His holiness first, and everything else you acquire God will supply for you, as He does the birds of the field (earlier in the same chapter).

WE do not hear these truths, we do not want to hear these truths, and preachers withhold these truths from us, and we are not Berean enough to find them on our own, but DISobey I Jn. 2:27, in treating pastors as our ONLY source of knowledge of what God says, AS IF we needed a guru!

My point is we disobey, constantly, from ignorance, and live sub-par spiritual lives, chasing churchianity—NOT biblical Christianity! You CAN'T pursue something you never know of or explore, just comparing yourself by the next guy! II Cor. 10:12

LOOK at Pv. 30:7-9! READ IT! The prayer is for middle income/moderation! It is to NOT be poor or wealthy!

YES, for their time, David, Abraham and Solomon were wealthy! And YES, God gives the power to gain wealth. Deut. 8:18 But IF we knew our Bibles well, we could figure out on our own that satan also can make sinners rich!

How could we deduce this?

1. He offers ALL the kingdoms of the world to Jesus, if He will sin, in Mt. 4
2. Worldliness makes a Christian God's experiential enemy, according to Jas. 4
3. Laodicea is NOT commended, though wealthy, as it was a barrier to their morality
4. Peter and Jesus were dirt poor, often, and NO one ever accused either of them of not being in God's will
5. Jesus commends the widow's mite offering, rather than deeming her a 'loser,' which political conservatism would, in their hearts!

That ideology worships the rich as heroes deserving all life's perks, and even government DISobeying God by favoring them! Levit. 19:15

It also demonizes Giving Pledge donors to society, EVEN THOUGH Jesus said one with that attitude was evidencing salvation. Lk. 19 Again, that ideology IGNORES God's command to ALL rich people (NOT just Christian ones). I Tim. 6:17-19 The pursuit of happiness, and life, liberty are usually meant as my right to get as rich as humanly possible, with no restraints or obligations, under their ideology, folks!

SO, when are we going to hear ANY such sermon as today? It might offend donors!; don't want to prioritize truth over money, or break Reagans 11th command, and criticize any behavior of our fellow party members, right? THIS is why carnality reigns, to some extent: America's obsession with gaining wealth.

And finally, lest any accuse me of teaching a "poverty complex," there is a dastardly doctrine taught in several churches, which ear tickles Christians, called the gospel of health and wealth. It justifies worldliness, teaching riches are in the atonement, or come with salvation, if one is walking rightly with God. BALDERDASH, heretics!

Sorry, one more thing: IF you EVER read the book of Acts, you will see why our Christianity is SO deficient! Those people were too busy serving God, to serve filthy lucre/mammon! YOUR SERVICE TO GOD IS NOT SITTING ON A PEW FOR 1.5 HOURS A WEEK, folks! That's passive vs. action/active.

DESTROY EVIL!

THIS is as needed a topic as ever: How are humans to stop evil? Maybe you, like many Americans, have to have been personally and negatively impacted by evil, for you to rise up to fight it, but that should not be case!

How does God say evil is to be handled? We see it in mass shooters, nation invaders and genocide with rape. We see it in scammers, hackers, liars, politicians in the business for self as number one, price gougers, culture war immorality, celebrities dressing and behaving immorally, increased crimes, hatred, unjust gender competition in sports, attempted brainwashing of innocents on race and gender, people milking the system, breaking into a country not their own, unprioritized or even false doctrine in some churches, and sin in almost every newscast.

How are we to respond? Several ways exist! First, on an individual basis, God intervenes with restraints on His children who walk closely with Him. However, many do not do so, so His constraints are not felt or heeded, as much. And as to non-family members, God has instituted governments, even though those can even be corrupted (as we see in Russia).

Far be it from me to NOT believe God is in control, and does intervene in the affairs of mankind, but He sure doesn't seem to do so as often and as directly as many Old Testament accounts! You would think, after the passing of millennia of centuries, man would mature, or evolve! But human nature does NOT self-reform! Small external improvements, on occasion, but NOT its core!

So HERE is my suggested list of ways to curb evil, even as we know sin will be increased in the latter days:

1. Evangelize
2. Disciple
3. Pray
4. Better laws, if not more of them; more importantly, more law enforcing, and more police presence
5. Active citizens willing to get involved
6. Voting for moral role models (AS IF that could occur)
7. Lawsuits (the Bible doesn't forbid them among lost people, or even Christians with lost people, or even inter-Christian relations, if it can't be settled internally, and isn't a minor legal matter)
8. Exposing evil, including to the media (accountability)
9. Verbally confronting evil humans, including with militaries
10. Ceasing to do any business with discovered evil people
11. Setting boundaries on evil people you are required to interact with
12. Personally committing to NOT be an evil person, even if everyone else goes a different direction, and especially when no one is looking.

These magic 12 solutions MIGHT curb the problem just a little.

BAN GOD?

(4/15/22-2)

A New York Times opiner said get rid of belief in God, due to Old Testament judgments killing innocents, like Russia in Ukraine. Here's an OBVIOUS response to that Hellbound moron:

1. He needs salvation. Pray for him!
2. He has NO idea God's view of Adam's one sin!
3. God always warns
4. Adults liable for babes!
5. His STUPID analogy is undiscerning.

Ukraine is the innocent, and Christians are FOR defending her against Putin. Putin's deeds are like satan, and God's judgment is pulled back restraint of evil; NOT the evil itself. A COMPLETE moron at NYT! Finally, do away with God; He's going to do away with you, forever.

My point is that turd can dispel of ideas of God, but he won't be able to withstand thoughts of the God who punishes in the coming 7-year Tribulation, and then Hell! Can't do away with His reality, though you block Him out! Moronic and harmful worldview for Him.

For Passover and Good Friday, NYT essayist writes about 'killing' 'hateful God'

<https://foxnews.com/media/passover-good-friday-new-york-times-writes-killing-hateful-god...>

#FoxNews foxnews.com For Passover and Good Friday, NYT essayist writes about 'killing' 'hateful God' NYT guest essayist Shalom Auslander complained about the "brutal" God of the Old Testament on Good Friday and the start of Passover.

The NYT nut likens God's judgment to Russia's actions? God's actions are NATO's response to Russia. God's only role is the restraint is lessened, so evil is getting more blatant. That's a judgment, but the evil is not God's. Morons shouldn't opine on God's word! Blinded and dumb—a BAD combination.

Update: One Sin Is All It Takes!

(4/16/22-2)

Satan-blinded humans view any one sin as just one sin. They can't comprehend one sin only proves the existence of a sin nature, which is guilty of all sins. Jas. 2:10 When God judges "innocents," NONE exist! Even infants are separated sinners, through Adam, Mr. Shalom! READ MORE TORAH PLUS!

HERE is what the NYT moron, Shalom Auslander (whose first name might make you think he reveres YHWH, but NOT) doesn't understand: The severity of Adam's one sin, and how the sin nature has passed down to us all, ever since! EVERYTHING was lost by one sin! God's judgments are JUST!

PUT YOUR TOES in scalding tub water/palm over flames, tonight, briefly. You can't even handle three seconds! What are you going to do in Hell? There's no water for relief! and fire is hotter than hot tub water. Wake up fools who say there's no God, like NYT opiner from yesterday! Ps. 14:1

The Old Testament judgments that also included children, the disabled and elderly (all in a given civilization) were warned about well beforehand, usually several times, and the innocents became collateral damage to the judgment due to the guilty. They caused others harm; NOT God.

UKRAINE

(An addendum to our Ukraine advice, found at Campaign Updates' "Hell Week")

(4/13/22-2)

I don't know enough, because this information doesn't get to America, but IF Russian troops and tanks come in strong to one of your towns, you can see that coming, right? So have many powerful men leave, and hide out to attack them from behind, when they come!

@ZelenskyyUa #Ambush! Element of surprise.

The Japanese had Kamikaze pilots. Wouldn't ONE brave patriotic Ukrainian pilot risk being shot down, with heat-seeking missile deflecting technology, and go bomb the Kremlin, at risk of death for the country's cause? @ZelenskyyUa Could die anyway, if upper hand not gained!

GREAT targets for a Stealth, or military grade drone, at night, LATE, to avoid unintended collateral damage: https://travel2next.com/landmarks-in-russia/... What are the most famous Russian landmarks? Surely a drone could swiftly be sent to destroy one or two of them!

Got to defeat their morale! Get their people upset at what their henchmen have chosen! What are the most famous Russian landmarks? Surely a drone could swiftly be sent to destroy one or two of them!

Got to defeat their morale! Get their people upset at what their henchmen have chosen! HOW HARD would it be to fly a jet or drone to bomb the Kremlin? @ZelenskyyUa "Asking for a friend." They need to FEEL their own caused pain!

BLOW UP the highway and its surrounds, where the Russian convoy is heading! There is so much outsiders don't know about what limits Ukraine have, but if they can do these things, they seem #CommonSense! Give them only craters to cross!

NBC showed many Russian vehicles with rubber tires-NOT tank treads. Can't Ukrainians pop those tires, firing at them, or setting up spike strips, thrown last minute, like cops do, if their inhabitants aren't prepared to shoot? Hide street side! dress as a bush, if need be.

Can daring Ukrainians jump atop Russian tanks, and spray black paint on the periscope and window, or do they have GPS dashboards, inside? @ZelenskyyUa Can't you open their ceiling hatch, and drop grenades? Their turrets can't shoot you if you run from sides or rear, right? #Ninja serpentine

At night, can you dig deep holes with backhoes, then cover them with two X 4s covered with grass and hay, so Russian tanks fall into them and become disabled to fire, effectively?

Can anyone jam their treads as they move, with metal? Break them off? Ask Joe for some MOAB bombs, to defend Mairupol!

MOAB bombs BETTER drop on any large congregations of Russian vehicles, or YOU are incompetent! @POTUS @JoeBiden

Update #1: Severe Force, or Don't Engage

(4/17/22-2)

I said Putin wanted to raze towns, to get Ukrainians to surrender. Unfortunately, I did not, apparently, use the word "raze," so I can't retweet my proof. I used a synonym. Haven't the time to search down what word it was, to retweet!

Ukrainian city Mariupol 'doesn't exist anymore' after Russian army razed it to ground, official says https://foxnews.com/world/ukrainian-city-mariupol-doesn't-exist-anymore-russian-army-razed-ground-ukraine-foreign-minister... #FoxNews

BEFORE: Putin day one of his War with Ukraine vs. AFTER: Putin day eight of his War with Ukraine, if Biden had done his job. Mike Tyson

It is irresponsible, reprehensible, intolerable and unforgiveable that the West has yet to stop Putin's aggression in Ukraine. I would have ended it 3-4 weeks ago, using the exact strategies I've had posted on our website for that long. EVIL people let this continue! Nothing I can do!

I read Putin is on plan D, to "save face." NEVER LET HIM SAVE FACE! @JoeBiden @POTUS He must be humbled back into his cave, and exposed and estranged for the pariah he is, without end. He murdered thousands of guiltless humans. NO face saving; ONLY humiliation! Check his ego, Joe!

Update #2: Hellbound Putin Will Go Rogue?

(4/20/22-2)

I have some food for thought for Putin: YOU ARE GOING TO BURN IN HELL, FOREVER, and NEVER DIE OR BE ABLE TO ESCAPE THE PAIN and MISERY! Chew on that!

I have ZERO concern that Poot-in will unleash nuclear weapons, and certainly not more than one or two, before America would totally wipe his nation off the map, IN RESPONSE, NOT IN INITIATION! His own people and leaders NEED to take him out, soon. Fearful cowards. Be patriots! Save Russia!

I KNOW our federal government doesn't disclose top secret technologies we have developed, and we are NOT like Commies, that show off or even publicly test our latest weapons, where anyone can see them, but the Pentagon better have, or be designing massive Russia deterrence weaponry!

Rational humans need to remember, NO ONE and NO NATION did anything to set off the crazed Hitler #2/Putin-period. He started everything. WE (NATO) must finish it! That's how it goes with evil people, and bullies. You don't cower in fear by their threats. They're defense mechanisms!

YOU could have ENDED IT, over a month ago! America military HAS the capability! @POTUS @JoeBiden Therefore, ALL inflation stemming from that war is YOURS to own up to!!!

Update #3: Wasting Money, Over Time!?

(5/11/22-2)

NO ONE can chide ME on how I was supporting Ukraine, because I would have stopped the war over a month ago, and NOT cost America so much taxpayer money, by overwhelming force that deters if not destroys. PROOF is at Hell Week, Campaign updates button of <http://AmericanAnswers.org> #Fools!

It IS true, the $40 billion IS wasted, but only because Biden was wimpy on Russia, from the start! A quick, swift, decisive victory would have saved us many taxpayer dollars! EXACTLY what I recommended in week 1. READ Hell Week, at Campaign Updates button of <http://AmericanAnswers.org>

Update #4: Don't Under- or Over-Fund the War

(5/13/22-2)

I DIDN'T say the $40 billion to Ukraine shouldn't ever get to them. I said be cautious, more strategic, ensure no waste, and best bang for buck use. I would have ended this conflict after eight days. MUCH cheaper! Details as proof at <http://AmericanAnswers.org> Campaign updates "Hell Week."

Update #5: Bully Empowerers

(5/24/22-2)

Lessons to our children: If a bully steals your lunch at school, let him keep it, and don't tell the teachers. This will ensure peace, and no further lunch thefts. –Henry Kiss-my-assinger Henry Kissinger Ukraine

@ZelenskyyUa ABSOLUTELY NO WAY should you cede any territory to Russia! My NON-political wife even said "why" would old codger Kissinger suggest that? F Putin up!!!

Update #6: Hands Off/Frustrated

(10/17/22-2)

YOU MAY NOTICE I don't write about Ukraine much, anymore. That's because MY suggestions for handling the war (posted months ago at our website) were NOT heeded, and now we're wasting billions– which I oppose! Should have nipped it in the bud, early, with HUGE force! Stop the bleeding.

IMMIGRATION

(4/19/22-2)

YOU have every right, being in charge of the state of Texas, to post border signs everywhere, that read (in Spanish, et al): "Everyone seeking entry into the America illegally is NOT WELCOME in the state of Texas!" and "WELCOME to all who come here legally!" @GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX

"Apply legally! Anyone entering this land, illegally, will be deported immediately, and prosecuted to the fullest extent of American law." Signs posted all across the TX border, in Spanish, need to be erected immediately!

IMMEDIATELY ALL the TX border needs cameras on drones, or on helicopters, with infrared sensors, to identify every breach. Then central command calls Border Patrol to nab those people ASAP, and send them back! Drones can follow them until captured.

Do it today immigration reform is EASY! 1. ONLY let in whose skills our economy needs, who don't take jobs from Americans. 2. Let ALL who meet that criteria IN, and make it easier (more efficient) and less expensive for any poor who meet that criteria. 3. Let in an equal number inclined to vote D as R!

I'll WARN the @GOP @RNC one more time: Dems can increase voting rolls, over time, for Socialism, the longer illegals stay here. GOP's have zero such source of millions more votes, to call upon, so Socialism is MORE certain if our borders have leaks, gaps or open doors! #CommonSense

ANYONE wanting open borders NEEDS to watch Border Wars, Locked Up Abroad and To Catch a Smuggler TV shows. Most other nations are QUITE strict on who gets in, and how. America is DUMB not to! @POTUS @Joe Biden More wage pressures down, crime, pollution, congestion, government spending we can't afford.

OH MY GOSH, I can't believe any Dem can see the problem with open borders. #AMAZING! Crime, wage lowering, overpopulation, pollution, law-breaker start, MORE entitlement votes, more crowded housing and streets, etc. <https://foxnews.com/politics/ten-dems-flip-on-biden-join-gop-in-opposing-plan-to-end-title-42...>

BETTER wake up, that illegal aliens flooding into TX are 1-Taxpayer drainer potentialities 2-Potential Dem voters 3-Potential criminals, as they start their time law-breaking Rich and educated immigrants come legally. You're WATCHING and allowing MORE Dem votes and GOP losses!

BETTER wake up, that illegal aliens flooding into TX are:

1. Taxpayer drainer potentialities
2. Potential Dem voters

3. Potential criminals, as they start their time here law-breaking. Rich and educated immigrants come legally. You're WATCHING and allowing MORE Dem votes.

The @GOP @RNC BETTER wake up, that illegal aliens flooding into America are

1. Taxpayer drainer potentialities
2. Potential Dem voters
3. Potential criminals, as they start their time here law-breaking.

Rich and educated immigrants come legally. You're WATCHING and allowing MORE Dem votes.

DO YOU NEED MINUTE MEN armed and at the ready, manning the Texas border? Pay us what is deserved, for defending our nation's sovereignty, and I'm volunteering to be hired to do that job, as would many other TRUE Texans! AAorg2020@gmail, if hiring, temporary labor.

You do NOT have any inalienable right to be in America! REMEMBER THAT our nation decides our rules for entry. Law-breakers are NOT the types we want! Our economy has to need your skills, or you are harming Americans (lower wages). ZERO TOLERANCE. TRESPASSING!

1. Signs in Spanish: Enter legally, or be warned of the consequences!
2. Armed humans all across the TX border, with Tasers and guns
3. Zero tolerance entry, with bullhorns, and physical capture, any way that's needed! @GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX Do these before they arrive! #Planning!

My two sons lost jobs turning in an illegal alien, as their manager defended the criminal, from cultural simpatico. If they're willing to have to find a new job, to defend TX and America from illegal trespass, how much more should YOUR actions prove such commitment?

@GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX TODAY is the day you must secure our TX border, at ALL costs! Like the 40-mile Russian convoy, WE ALL KNOW what is heading our way! Do our laws mean anything, and is America a sovereign nation? Weapons and Tasers aimed at legs are required, sir! DETER! Your job. As Swamp People would say, "shoot 'em" in their legs!!!

Update #1: What Works?

(4/20/22-2)

I am NOT opposed to an electric fence, or buried one (like the invisible dog fence), with Spanish WARNING signs, where Trumps wall isn't built (or paid for by Mexico), IF we don't have the manpower to monitor every border breach by drone or chopper cameras!

Update #2: Close That Border!

(4/24/22-2)

SHOOT THEIR LEGS! Who's in charge of America's citizenship laws? Other countries? @GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX Email me: I WILL SHOOT LEGS! Aaorg2020@gmail.com Zero tolerance! DO YOUR JOB! Those are GOP's downfall/Dem votes! Unbelievable!

Update #3: Who to let In

(5/10/22-2)

EXECUTIVE ORDERS. DSC is intolerably broken, so let lawyers fight overturning these, in the courts. ONLY unjust FOOLS would oppose these: IMMIGRATION.

1. Only who our economy needs gets in
2. No American jobs lost to immigrants
3. Equal number of Dem and GOP-leaning immigrants (education and money)

4. Completely controlled borders
5. Easier, faster and cheaper immigration for NEEDED poorer applicants
6. NO safety net accessibility for 10 years
7. Path to citizenship for people who pay past taxes, get back of line, and pay penalties, here five years back and before, if qualified.

Taxpayers: If you don't already own a gun, I suggest you buy one soon! Open borders and sanctuary cities are breeding grounds for future Dem votes for Socialism. (9/4/22)

Update #4: Chicago Foolishness

(9/5/22-2)

Under Lori Lightfoot's MIS-interpretation of the Bible, America should let in anyone wanting in. Just think of the traffic jams, lower wages, pollution, lost land masses, housing cost rises, employer leverage (vs. labor), terror threats, increase in crime and lack of assimilation.

America was settled and developed by people who have heirs. Especially with the Industrial Revolution, and WW one and two wins, our economy grew. Now everyone outside America wants in on those blessings. NO claim to such achievements! Just getting in on other's labor fruits! [RE: Lori Lightfoot]

Update #5: Give Me Your Tired, Poor, Dumb, Unassimilating & Un-Needed?

(9/17/22-2)

Liberals are acting like America just started, we have never allowed in any immigrants, and we desperately need to populate our land, to settle and develop it! THIS IS ALL A DEVIOUS PLAN TO GET DEMOCRAT VOTES FOR SOCIALISM, years down the line!

White Americans are NOT the only taxpayers! But there is a purposeful effort to hasten white people being a minority! It's expected by 2045. Illegal immigration could hasten that date, quite significantly! That DOESN'T mean no illegals are ever white.

The land mass crowded, wages lowered, less job openings, more handout votes, and general lack of assimilation, to change America's historic culture are ALL behind the illegal border crossings Biden is internally all in favor of, for Dem Socialism votes! Actions show he's NOT serious.

Republican Jesus says abortion and homosexuality are wrong, and Socialism is unjust. Poverty is fixed by better skills, efforts or both. AMERICANS decide who gets into our country-NOT forced to accept law breakers who want what Americans built (and freebies). This is JUST/moral/fair!

#MarthasVineyardRacists?

1. They DON'T speak our language
2. They don't come from Capitalist countries
3. They don't obey our law
4. They don't always assimilate to our culture
5. They are often poor and less educated.

These FACTS make people "racists? Facts are facts; not biased!

Update #6: Illegals to Martha's Vineyard

(9/18/22-2)

Responding to a tweet about illegal immigrants...

1. They are law-breakers, who have zero legal right to be here

2. Unless we need their skills, they reduce wages and job opportunities, make places more crowded, and housing costs rise. Jesus NEVER taught have no standards/anything goes!
3. We've allowed in MILLIONS! NOT chinchy!

If they don't pay taxes, I do! They can come legally, if we need them for those jobs! and if they are ever made citizens, they are almost certain to vote for Socialist freebies, stealing from taxpayers. IF not, come on in, legally!

Update #7: Love America!

(9/26/22-2)

Let me say something controversial: Americans are proud of the U.S. culture! We have the greatest nation mankind has ever built. Forgive us if we were not excited to bring in people who don't come from that background, who may try to make America into their country's image! NOT going to occur!

Update #8: We Decide Who Comes to America!

(10/16/22-2)

IT DOESN'T MATTER if NO illegal aliens are criminals! They're law-breaking to trespass, forcibly violating OUR laws! If America doesn't need their skills, and they take ANY Americans' job, or undercut ANY American's pay, THEY ARE NOT NEEDED, no matter their skin color or nation of origin!

I am NOT against open borders due to Fentanyl or rapists and murderers and terrorists possibly if not sometimes entering, though I'm against those happening. I am against open borders because it is OUR damn country! NO ONE tells us who we let in, by force! WE decide! #Sovereignty!

BUSINESS

(4/16/22-2)

Waiting for the Journey tribute concert to start, I thought of rules that would make ALL businesses better (below), perhaps by law (hard to enforce; anonymous hot lines?). Bosses always think ownership can't be infringed upon by the feds-WRONG! Treat your employees right, or else!

- Several overtime & breaks denials or abuse
- Arrogant, bossy, dictatorial leadership
- Unfair favoring of some, not based on work quality
- Sexual advances or flirty-based promotions
- Ripping employees off of pay
- Never sharing profits with meritorious employees
- Nepotism of less-qualified employees
- Over-working managers

Good companies put customers first. Bad companies say they do, and never intend to. Good owners share profits; bad owners view employees as means to their personal financial gain. Good employers aren't arrogant; bad owners need to suffer loss, to be humbled back to humanity!

Good managers care about employees. Bad managers just ask what have you done for me lately? Good managers help employees succeed. Bad managers fire any who can't self-teach and self-succeed. Bad managers want to make money off you; Good ones want to make money with you. SEE the difference.

Update #1: Profit-Sharing

(9/4/22-2)

THIS may not be popular, but it is fair: Businesses should share profits with those who helped earn them for those businesses; namely, employees. HOW is it fair not to? If a business isn't profitable, the workers don't deserve anything shared, as there's no profits to share.

Update #2: The Working Class

(9/15/22-2)

I had a dream the Today Show was showcasing the "lesser" jobs, to educate the public, and especially to give them glory, as God and MLK teaches-that every job has dignity! Col. 3:23 It was maid, but could have been janitor, trash collector, or hundreds of unsung tasks society needs and ignores!

Update #3: Fair Wages

(9/21/22-2)

IF I used a lawn boy, and he asked how he could earn more, I'd say do a better job than your competitor, unionize, vote for less low-skilled immigrants, automate as much as possible, and learn to work longer, faster or both. If I can hire the same quality for less, I will. Human nature.

IF you don't want lowest wages in your field, organize, and as a group, refuse to accept low offers! If automation can replace you for cheaper, over a ROI set of years, management will do that, if business savvy. Profit sharing is FAIR! Employees helped garner it, unless bad workers.

Update #4: Blue Collar Man

(10/16/22-2)

CBS Sunday morning has an EXCELLENT article on the arrogance of the college educated against trades people! A college degree, in America, is certainly, by tradition, a distinguishing mark that says whether one is intelligent, or not so much. It's WHAT you're smart about! NOT your IQ!

Dirty, grimy jobs people prefer not to do are looked down on, in America, like garbage man, janitor, toilet fixing plumber+. BUT, without them, where will you poop? MLK said every man must do his job honorably, and has value. A college degree shows you have enough money and IQ to earn it.

THE ECONOMY & INFLATION

(4/13/22-2)

THIS inflation is BEST fixed by speeding up manufacturing and supply chain blockages, @JoeBiden @POTUS You can increase the cost to lend, but this is two years pandemic related, for the most part. Use Manhattan project efforts to get supply back, with overt one and faster production!

I would NOT want the problem, but I could sure fix it! Find the top inflationary industries, call the main CEOs in, discover where they are having supply problems, and see if or how government can assist. Specifically, oil should drill like mad, where profitable, ASAP, until prices subside.

I advised @JoeBiden on ports of entry blockage solutions. Now it has to extend to manufacturing and even long haul driver shortages. Sourcing has to be expanded and expedited, to make up for a gap in demand, now on overdrive. Got to play catch-up, or the economy gets harmed for awhile!

Getting specific, war footing status for a return to business normalcy (and sacrifice) could lessen inflation! Covid was a national security threat, and recovering from its effects should be treated the same as rebuilding our nation, as ONE. @POTUS @JoeBiden A Herculean effort to be back to normal.

I DON'T believe higher taxes or government acts to shrink the money supply will fix THIS spike in inflation. It was mainly caused by low supply and high demand, after restrictions on consumers were lifted.

Update #1: Immediate Need

(4/28/22-2)

IMO, YOU need a Manhattan Project/Herculean effort to get new housing booming, by ending all log jams to supply chain! Treat it as a national emergency! Investors buying up existing homes is an assault on fair prices. NEED so many new homes, especially with immigrants! @JoeBiden @POTUS

Update #2: THIS Inflation's Causes

(5/10/22-2)

To all the DUMB mofos (to use GOP Rick Perry's term) who want to blame @JoeBiden for inflation, this version was from two years of Covid's damaging our economy, then quick reactions of consumers to return to normal, when the back-up in logistics came from that same Covid event, MORONS.

Update #3: Inflation Analysis

(8/9/22-2)

[Explaining Biden inflation: The world experienced a global pandemic. People were forced to segregate, physically, which left many without jobs (unless they could work from home), except for essential workers. That led to lower demand for products and services, which meant businesses needed less inventory, and profits waned.]

U.S. productivity ground to a near halt. Laborers got stimulus checks (from government) that sustained their basic human needs. Many of them got their eyes opened to new career choices, where they didn't have to be unjustly treated as grunts, or where they could work from home for the first time.

That was the labor shortage. The supply shortage was from lower inventories from lower productivity and manufacturing, from lesser output of companies in waiting it out mode, lessening hours and output for ~2 years. Suddenly, Covid wasn't so much a threat, with CHUMP and Biden's responses, SLOW as they both were and less effective than required as they both were.

Over MUCH time, we got a basic handle on Covid. So nearly immediately demand for things returned for nearly all Americans. You cannot have a demand for things far outstripping its supply, without prices going sky high!

And once any business notices other businesses raising rates, they follow suit out of instinct, for self-preservation, and so as not to be the last man standing with out-dated prices.

THIS IS PRESENT-DAY INFLATION, folks, and it is NOT solved by government spending!

INcreasing the cost of money is a traditional and good solution to inflation, so people can't buy as much as they want. Restricted demand, by fed policy. A Herculean Manhattan Project effort using the Defense Production Act should have caused our nation to be focused on a return to normalcy.

Lower taxes often stimulate more investing by companies, to be able to expand supply that had been pent up for two years. Enduring some pain, is also often needed, until balance is restored. But after Covid payment checks, a revised Build Back Better infrastructure bill, and now an "anti-inflation bill" worth BILLIONS, America's debt has skyrocketed.

The average American cannot understand how that affects economics! Here it is, simply: MUCH government money is now in the economy, and it has to be paid for by someone (taxpayers).

OR, it is funny money/FAKE printed by government, backed by NOTHING, and only as valuable as anyone deems it, making every dollar less valuable for everyone! That is why bread does not cost 35 cents, as it may have in the 1930s. Inflation! The people who pay the price for inflation are either taxpayers, by raised taxes, or everyone, by raised prices.

Businesses are NOT going to lose profits willingly! They will simply pass on increased costs by increasing prices! This B.S. anti-inflation bill is for liberal, extremist democrats' wish list of Unrelated things, like healthcare and the environment!

YOU, the normal American citizen, do NOT feel or experience the negative impacts of inflationary actions by politicians for years afterwards! Covid relief payments, infrastructure bill and now "anti-inflation" ECOLOGY and HEALTHCARE bill WILL harm your buying power, well afterwards!

News, yesterday, said U.S. has a labor shortage.

1. Force every citizen to pay their fair share in taxes.
2. Let illegals willing to work and not seeking handouts in, legally, and disallow any handouts until they've paid in for 5-10 years THERE's your work force, dummies. (9/4/22)

Update #4: Inflation, Economics & Morality

(10/19/22-2)

Economics was never my favorite subject, both in undergraduate and graduate business school. BUT, logic, morals, Bible and common sense have always served me well, and no amount of fancy theories can overcome those forces! We have tremendous inflation. The causes and cures are debated.

But what's undebatable is that people hurt when costs rise. Average people-NOT rich people. YES, they pay more, too, but it hurts much less.

I believe the GOP can handle the economy better than the Dems, mainly because Dems always like spending taxpayer money, and that hurts money being freed up for private use and investment! and we all know the GOP is the party pro-business and the rich.

With record profits, amidst serious inflation, you MUST see that power is UNjustly in the hands of business management, who are NEVER the poor! Costs rise, they just raise prices MORE, and that gap is called margin. Profits.

And without further and more severe competition (AKA existing businesses lowering prices or new entrants), their near monopoly has consumers buying about as much at higher prices! Where else can they buy such things, except at knock-off brand companies, or at discount stores (or food pantries).

I am against Socialism, and also against pure Capitalism, because THIS is what happens! ONLY or mainly the rich get richer, or poorer people get freebies pay for by taxpayers. Both are EVIL results!

Government bridges that gap between the two, by laws/rules and regulations. And before God, justice is to be their aim-NOT favoring either the rich or the poor, in public policy! At present, the bent is NOT toward the poor and working class!

Even now, the GOP is discussing cutting EARNED vs. gifted entitlements of Social Security and Medicare. Let me repeat that: EARNED benefits people paid into.

And why? The rich REFUSE to EVER be harmed or impacted by government policies! They lobby, hike prices, and instead of paying their fair share, decide politicians should attack everyone else, EVEN WHERE THEY HAVE PAID IN! NOT Welfare, but money recipients already paid in. That's because the rich:

1. Always demand they get more
2. Always demand they never lose any money
3. Always require taxes to benefit them
4. NEVER give one damn about others these policies harm (except the FEW philanthropic ones), and,
5. NEVER consider God, and what He has demanded of them!

This PROBLEM MUST be fixed, and it will only be done so by:

1. Unions
2. Voting against their interests
3. Fair taxes where loopholes disallowed
4. Boycotts
5. Secession, or,
6. Civil War. FIX it!

I believe MOST U.S. business people prefer a GOP in the White House to a Dem, because GOP favors business and the rich, while Dems favor workers and the poor! Could be one reason prices remain high—to make Biden's ratings suffer. Certainly why China and Russia and OPEC are fighting him. Political sway.

Update #5: #CommonSense Insights on Inflation

(10/27-28/22-2)

No matter your political ideology, EVERYONE cares when prices are high (average income ~$57K/year), especially those whose ideology demands freebies, for helping their economic condition. This #CommonSense FACT will affect the midterm results, IMO. People don't like inflation—even hardened Democrats!

'If you will lower our taxes, we will lower our prices,' I believe, is a prevalent attitude toward midterm results, by U.S. businesses. SAME with 'if you will tolerate our evils, we won't as much interfere with your elections,' by foreign adversaries.

MORE competition decreases inflation. YOU should pass a policy (by executive order) that lessens barriers to entry for all new start-ups, IMO! @JoeBiden @POTUS You may not have a great midterms, but you still have two years in office. GET THIS INFLATION DOWN! We NEED more competition!

POLITICS

[DeSATANist attacks tenured professors over wokeness:]

<https://floridaphoenix.com/2022/04/19/desantis-other-state-officials-go-after-university-professors-tenure-protections/> Does NOT look like a good decision. I'd want to know his reasoning! Best and most talented professors like security, especially as they aren't always paid equal with private sector. Probably worries they're indoctrinating college minds full of mush!?

It is "HIGH" time state's rights trumps federal laws, on such things as marijuana legalization. National law should allow any state that supports it to not incur any federal enforcement. TX is NOT for it. Many states are. Allow for variety! No need for uniformity! #StatesRights!

People will ALWAYS dislike, hate or oppose some laws. You'll likely NEVER get full agreement, even if just to be different, to get media attention. NO kid needs to consider their own sexuality until puberty! There WAY too one mature for such related decisions! #Disney vs. #Desantis

RE: Disney vs. Desantis: IF Disney's trying to overturn the law preventing indoctrination of babes on perverse subjects, before maybe age 8-10, I 100% support his seeking to ruin their governing exemption. If they're just complaining, it's overreach on his part; divisive polarization.

Desantis is NOT advocating white supremacist books in public school, or pro straight literature to grades 1-5 public schools, to balance out CRT and LGBTQ materials targeting FL kids. He is passing race and gender neutral laws. ONLY extremists and perverts would oppose that! Are you one?

Public school books should NOT teach any race is innately prejudiced against any other race! NO entity should be advocating sexualizing kids, for any outcome, especially perverted or warped ones. Desantis is doing NOTHING one moral against FL schools or Disney. He's preventing evil!

ANYONE who watches U.S. politics very long sees there's a clear liberal vs. conservative battle constantly being waged. They do not want, nor do they ever choose, to see any fault in their side or their beliefs, and purposely ignore that the U.S. majority are centrists; NOT extremists!

IS THERE ANY HUMAN IN America who can see there are NOT just liberals and conservatives in America? In fact, the MAJORITY are in neither extreme camp! You NEVER heard about us, or our beliefs, but READ <http://AmericanAnswers.org> It's the Bible for our political ideology, and rational and moral.

Update #1: Problems Are Passing?

(4/13/22-2)

HAVE YOU NOTICED career politicians ONLY poll what's hot, and currently relevant to their constituents? NOT what's needed! They ONLY act when it's time for reelection, and only on issues pressing to their vote bloc that month or two. This ISN'T leadership, folks, but loser-ship! Duh 101

I HATE this evil facet of politics. Rile up Americans, then kiss and make up, like your arguments were insincere, and it was all a big game!!! Someone have some gosh dang convictions, for once!

End of:

1. You getting owned
2. You occasionally making good points
3. You seeking fame

Update #2: Fascism or Fairness?

(5/22/22-2)

America needs the next nearest thing to a strongman for justice. Executive orders, a landslide, or one righteous party controlling all houses of government. Justice must prevail, or a civil war seems inevitable, and likely overdue! 2024, 2028 or 2032-whenver voters are ready for justice.

Dems spend taxpayer money; GOP's save taxpayers money. If you pay few taxes, you vote Dem. If you pay many taxes (or don't want to pay more), you vote GOP. That's about as succinctly as you can summarize U.S. politics! (8/8/22)

MAJA: Make America Just Again! Mic. 6:8; II Chron. 7:14. (8/9/22)

Update #3: Politics is 'All About the Money'

(8/25/22-2)

CORRUPT U.S. politics is ALL about money and power. Power is all about keeping one's money from Caesar's rightful share!

DO YOU NOT GET IT? GOP is all about protecting the rich; Dems are all about helping the poor. Middle class fall where they may. God says favor NEITHER rich nor poor, so NEITHER party obeys God, on these matters! NOT parties 100% for Christians!

Political TRICK: Make average Joes think our politician is like them, say if the FBI can do this to CHUMP, what could they do to you (so he's NOT like them after all), and cause concern taxes will be raised on non-rich taxpayers, like mechanics, plumbers and welders. Trick the stupid!

IF voters are going to be allowed to vote in politicians that pass bills to help some pay bills, especially off those who need no help's tax dollars (and one NOT saying that has to be the case, but a prohibitive law may be impossible), there have to be standards. It's NOT fair to taxpayers!

IF taxes were FAIR, and for EVERYONE, and progressive—where the pain was equally shared by all—voters voting in politicians who give freebies wouldn't be so unfair to taxpayers, as all Americans would be squeezed, for such "help! Balance being just and merciful.

Update #4: Never Criticize a Fellow Republican? (Reagan's 11TH Commandment)

(8/29/22-2)

You hear VERY LITTLE from white TV preachers, speaking out against the evils in the GOP! NOT like John the Baptist, or ANY Bible prophets. #Cowardice SIN. Strange bedfellows, for idolized secular power Jesus never sought, RIGHTLY gets you bed bugs on your moral "reputations"

Update #5: "Christian" Losing Its Meaning (in Politics)

(9/1/22-2)

You can be a Christian and do, say or believe ANYTHING! You Can't be a "good" (i.e., committed) one and be a 100% political liberal or conservative, even though pundits lie and deceive to make idiots think you can! Idiocy is a chosen sin, folks!

I LOATHE that in politics, everyone tries to reduce every issue to a slogan and binary extreme position! Greg Abbott devotees holding 'parents matter' signs must mean Uvalde parents, and parents who oppose assault weapons in the hands of people under 21, also-DUH! They're ALL parents!

When your so-called "value system" is political party or bust, to win at all costs, EVERY politician in your party is ONLY a bot/rubber stamp/mindless robot, incapable of using conscience and unnecessary to have any reasoning powers! RE-READ this until you understand it, if ever.

Update #6: Extremists Are Committed!

(9/2/22-2)

When politics is practiced as "all's fair in love and war," like Ross Perot's "politics has no rules," Christians can't participate in immoral activities, policies or statements. Wayward ones do so ALL THE time, symptomatic of a carnal majority problem that spirituality alone fixes. From what LITTLE I've seen and heard (10 minutes), the far right has adopted a "reject everything negative said about us" approach, with zero concern for whether it is true.

And they assail the motives, whether pure or vile. Then name-call opponents with slanderous terms Pure Evil Dictator.

You can never convince avid extremists of truth, or win a name-calling battle with them. Like wrestling with a pig, spare yourself getting muddy!

And you wonder why the VAST majority of Americans are disinterested in and turned off to politics! The parties LOVE offering voters polar extremes, neither of which are good, best or even palatable, and tell you you have to choose. BULLHONKEY! I choose a better, higher way! #CommonSense

Cancel culture thinks economic activism is a good way to express their politics. IDIOCY! When you boycott a business or its management, for anything political, you hurt employees, who are less rich, and the U.S. economy as a whole! (9/3/22)

Update #7: Protest Votes

LET ME ARGUE the merits of protest votes, and non-votes. Your conscience before God can be clearer, if you don't choose lesser of two evils, and it teaches parties not to offer evil politicians! And protest votes may support other evils, but educates politicians on the evils of what's being protested!

Politicians can become arrogant, liars (promise one thing, do another), out of touch, or ideological intransigents. IF they don't or won't listen to voices opposing any bad policies of theirs, ALL YOU HAVE LEFT is a protest vote, or a non-vote! Use that power, wisely!

Political idolaters always teach that anything you do that could cause their party to lose is bad behavior on your part. But a loss can wise up a party to what they are doing wrong, when arrogance had blinded them to that fact, ignoring the things that caused their loss!

Update #8: Demonize Your Opponent

(9/6/22-2)

Biden and Dems are the devil, and all his policies are from Hell, vs. the GOP are the devil tRUMP's, and all their policies are from Hell. THIS is the gist of what you will read until early November, stated in different words! Typical political extremist's B.S.! I just saved you reading!

Update #9: Socialist Youth

Youth, quite naturally, lean Socialist (having little in life), while the elderly do the opposite (unless they're poor). It's the middle class and middle aged who may be our hope between the two extremes! (9/11/22)

Update #10: Politicians Sin All The Time!

IF you observe we commoners' posts-on Twitter-the general public sees and has a keen eye for moral violations, double standards and hypocrisy! It seems the politicians lose that skill, as their consciences sera harder and harder, through lies and denials! I love our collective conscience. (9/14/22)

Update #11: Spenders & Savers

(10/21/22-2)

Dems spend taxpayer money. The rich pay the most in taxes. So GOP's counter this with tax cuts for the rich. Where does that back-and-forth/ping pong politics leave us? HUGE DEBT, no one addresses, and someone will have to pay down someday!

Update #12: Problems With Parties

(11/8/22-2)

WHAT'S WRONG with the Democrats?

- Taxpayers alone pay for "free" healthcare, daycare, home down payment, college, student debt
- Open borders
- Soft on crime
- Soft on national defense (appeasement)
- Inflation
- Increased national debt
- Environmentalism to destroy the oil & gas industry
- Pro aberrant sex
- Kill babies after 1st trimester—even 3rd & beyond
- Tax & spend/BIG government (Socialism)
- Gun-grabbing
- Biased vs. just censoring of free speech|
- ETC.

WHAT'S WRONG with the GOP?

- Favor the rich & businesses—NOT justice toward poor & employees/workers
- Taxes never can help anyone.
- Government is bad
- Taxes are evil
- The rich can ignore 1 Tim 6:17-19 with impunity!
- Racism rarely rebuked
- Objectivity doesn't exist, on any police or military sins
- Power idolatry, & win-at-all-costs to own the Dems attitude
- Let business do everything to make labor be paid peanuts (unfair leverage)
- Buy off elections & politicians (bribery)
- Greed is good, & 1 man owning everything wouldn't be bad, if legal
- Worldliness encouraged as the American Dream
- American Exceptionalism ignores any & all national sins of history
- The environment be damned if profit can be had
- Only charities should fix any problems good profit can't be made off fixing
- Life consists of what a man owns, contrary to the God they also want to claim
- Let bullying nations overtake neighbors, as USA should only care about USA
- Etc!

VARIOUS TOPICS

a) BABY FORMULA

(5/13/22-2)

Baby formula shortage can be solved by:

1. imports
2. Generic substitute science, in the long-term
3. Pay women for breast milk to others
4. Defense Production Act for even manufacturers NOT producing baby formula
5. Temporary paying new manufacturers to start. That's a LIMITED option!

I don't have a baby, so I ignore topics irrelevant to my life, often. On baby formula, if no alternatives exist, OF COURSE emergency DPA government actions to boost productivity is required!

#CommonSense Breast milk can't be substituted, even by another? I'm a man—I don't understand!

My wife is a nurse. She laughed that I said women should pump breast milk and sell it. I don't know the subject, well enough, but it seems logical! I know not every breast has tolerable usage for every baby, but you can monitor keeping it safe! "Suck it up," literally!

b) CLIMATE CHANGE

(8/23/22-2)

It is RIDICULOUS to keep talking about climate change, or man's percent contribution! NO ONE (to speak of) is going to ride a bike to work, use four plies toilet paper, or many other stupid solutions. Technology consumers buy has to be green, and America needs weather ameliorating technology!

America needs tech to undo potential damage from tornadoes, floods, tsunamis, earthquakes, fires, drought, hurricanes and hail. I CAN ENVISION EXACT MACHINES WE NEED TO CREAT FOR EACH OF THESE! Can others? Just do it! Then consumers can live normal, and there be a remedy! NOT extreme ones.

c) FREE SPEECH

(4/24/22-2)

I HATE to tell you, free speech is NOT on a private business' platform, but government not censoring public speech. Conservatives always say businesses can do what they want!

@Twitter didn't even just do what they want, but had advertised rules you break with consequences!

THE solution is NOT Elon buying Twitter, or Twitter remaining left-leaning. It is government rules for fairness on social media, IF Big tech won't effectively self-police! Free speech is NOT lying without consequences, or unchecked propaganda, like Russia experiences! (4/15/22)

Free speech should be responsible speech. Without moral guidelines, anything goes, which means lying, deception, misinformation and propaganda. Punishments need more variety, on Twitter. Total bans are severe. Elon Musk (10/28/22)

Provable lies, violence threats, and private information doxxing should be a minimum of banned activities on @Twitter! @elonmusk NO biased punishing, based on politics. I was in time-out, once due to stupid people misinterpreting what I said. Twice warned, once for showing an abortion picture. (10/28/22)

d) MEDIA

(4/19/22-2)

I have concluded the mainstream media will ALWAYS cover the moderate and liberal viewpoints, and FoxNews will ALWAYS cover the far right and centrist GOP viewpoints, and rarely if ever discuss the tensions between the two sides of their respective parties!

YOU are a certifiable FOOL if you can't SEE that FoxNews is GOP-slanted, and MSNBC is Dem-slanted! MANY articles slam opponents or their agenda, tout their players, and issues they're for. To call it purely news is just a LIE! (8/26/22)

A centrist TV and radio network will be needed, by 2032, as with Independent newspapers, and PACs, and Congress persons! MUCH work to do, even as I am simply providing the agenda framework and a campaign to initiate many victories to follow, God willing. (8/26/22)

IF you ONLY listen to conservative or liberal media, all day, on TV or radio, you are freely choosing to sin, to be stupified, manipulated, deceived and brainwashed! That sin choice is yours to be accountable for before God! Can't blame the media, on Judgment Day! (9/1/22)

PS: Pastors SHOULD take notice, that almost every tweet in the cyber verse is based on people's morality understanding and standards! VERY apt place and time to teach Bible-based morals! Sometimes, lost people get it "righter" than Christians! Opinions don't trump moral rules, folks! (9/26/22)

Comparisons, analogies, double standards, exceptions to rules, the other sides' sins/past, hypocrisy, lies and other sins are REGULARLY pointed out on Twitter, and I'm thankful for this improvement to our society! They USED to be ignored/kept quiet about. No place for sin to hide, now. (9/26/22)

It ONLY makes sense that FoxNews leans right and center, because all the other major networks lean left and center. #Balance You can complain when they go far right, but do you ever complain when the other four go far left? #Justice (10/4/22)

e) MUSEUM INNOVATIONS

(10/15/22-2)

I could design a museum, but the art work would have to do something to you, like livestream scenery from the world's best architecture, or nature scenes, BIG screened like in Jerry's World/ATT Stadium. I would pay to go to that type of museum! A virtual world tour of best sites!

IF a museum had the highest quality imagery of livestreamed architecture, famous art pieces at the Louvre and the like, and nature scenes of the world, like you were there in person (3D/4D, virtual reality like), I think they could make profit! World tour in one building!

I am picky in what art I like, and will spend one hour looking at! I'm sure there are awesome pieces, the world over. Have livestream or 3-D replicas, in one venue! Our website has MY choice of best art and architecture. Put it all in one 4D hi-def big screened livestream museum! I'd go!

f) MURDERERS

(5/2/22-2)

Murderers NEED to FEEL the pain they have inflicted upon others! They should have to hear all about their victims, go to their home, meet their kids, see their business colleagues, learn how their finances were harmed, visit the morgue and cemetery--THEN life in jail, or death!

g) RACE & WOKENESS

(4/25/22-2)

The term "woke" can be defined several ways. I am conscious of the struggles of more black people than many others, and browns, and LGBTQ, and I know most whites would choose to be white in America, if given the choice. To be a Christian, you HAVE to care about others vs. ignore them! Phil. 2

ANYTHING many white people oppose, that favors or helps any minorities, by government, is "racist," in liberal's mindset. But no minority can be racist, because they are all downtrodden, though they are not all, and some are rich and middle income. (9/1/22)

IF you want to SEE what the far right GOP's really for and stands for, it's RICH black people, liking fraternizing with rich white people, like Kanye West/Herschel Walker/Ben Carson! It's NOT the poorer people who choose that party, as its policies favor the rich-disobeying God! Levit. 19:15 (10/6/22)

John Legend is 100% correct on race relations in America, on @CBSSunday: Zero sum game is why some whites fear POC's rising! IF whites become a minority, if blacks treat whites as whites have treated blacks, they NEED to fear! Honest guy, and former management consultant, too! (10/16/22)

h) SECESSION

(5/11/22-2)

IF secession comes, I believe it will have to be on a more micro level than the state. Individuals will have to identify as MAGA, or other. Only two choices. The two can't have the same laws. An invisible red nation of individuals—the way cons love seeing life, anyway!

i) SOCIAL MEDIA

(4/19/22-2)

ANYONE who watches Twitter very long sees there's a clear lib bias to its majority of users. They sincerely believe it's good vs. bad, and they are the holy ones. Liberalism isn't ever challenged, or even considered to have flaws. Give tax money until everyone's OK! that's moral, to them.

j) TAXES

(4/19/22-2)

I will NEVER say this as clearly again: Successful businesses and individuals are the MOST capable of paying taxes, without any change to their high lifestyles! It is ONLY fair to tax non-strugglers more than those who struggle! #CommonSense #GOPTaxScam Debate me any time-you lose!

RAGE AGAINST THE MACHINE (RICH)?

Here's my controversy: Talk radio D.J. Mark Davis once said there may be greedy SOBs in the GOP, "but what are you going to do about it?" One day, if one migrants keep illegally entering America, and jobs keep getting automated, the masses are going to attack if not kill them, that's what! EVERYONE has to survive, and it takes money to survive, which requires a j-o-b.

One employee told me they're making as much as humanly possible off little staff (and NO tech to tell you about products or where to find them), then they'll scramble before the sh- hits the fan I say, one day soon (if prophecy doesn't intervene), a revolt of everyone NOT rich will happen; an uprising, and gated communities and safe havens and off shore bank accounts won't save them, as those merely seeking to stay alive will get violent, if not murderously outraged.

I've said it before!: Let's use logic... More or even the same number of people plus more machines taking their jobs means>equals less jobs. That means lower wages. And Americans usually don't leave America, but the world comes here. With AI, I see a huge shortage of how many people will pay for life's survival!

BUT, Rev. 17-18 says there will be poor and rich, and flourishing economies, at least four years from now, if not millennia (4-6.5 years into the 7-year Tribulation), so the problem must get solved somehow! I don't see such a revolt in prophecy. AntiChrist solves it, with forced 666?

POLITICAL DOOR KNOCKER

(4/24/-27/22-2)

"DISAGREE AGREEABLY" [vs. constantly angry, picking fights, hating enemies, and arrogantly confident they're always right, and the enemy is dumb and evil] That's what I stated to my door knocker, but his group is more interested in owning and sticking things down people's throats!

That's NOT "Christian." He THINKS I'll vote GOP in next two weeks. I may not vote. I also didn't trust his recommended politicians, as he's a 45 cultist.

WEIRD thing is Trump cultists LIKE extremists! [Birds of a feather find comfort in others holding the same views [I told him of two avid GOP's, and said one would jump off a cliff if GOP asked him to [over-zealous, but not in accordance with wisdom/knowledge], the other is reasonable, and likely wouldn't. He was more interested in going to that first guy first. Extremism; Zeal without knowledge; brainwashing! EVIL and dumb.

The "we have to fight those wicked Democrats" attitude, OR "we have to give into those Democrats" are BOTH wrongful attitudes [primitive and immature win-lose mentality]. We have to find common ground, where NO extremes control policy, or get all they want. Take the good; reject the bad. PERIOD! #CommonSense Wake UP, America!

I caught the guy in a few quandaries, when asked if the GOP has any extremists, or sins or bad policies? He TRIED to tell me CHUMP is a sinner like we all sin [inability to make obvious distinctions; guilt by association, lumping the needle with the haystack; confusion. The "we all sin" is a distortion—NO president or politician sinned like Trump. And tried to recall all these things, but NOT memorized.

MIND YOU, I very much liked arguing with a Christian (door knocker), having to tell him these things are NOT what Christians are supposed to support. IF YOU HAVE TO EDUCATE A BELIEVE TO THAT STATEMENT, we have a horribly uneducated and one moral mass of claiming Christians in America!

When I told him I'd help Biden win a second term, over any far right GOP in WH, he immediately had talking points to wipe out any good found in Joe. I said I'd only help if Joe was open to my ideas, and agreed where Joes been bad, but far right and Socialism are both intolerable.

He LOVED to say you only get two parties to choose from [tribal worship mentality], and I said I am actively and currently working to make that an untrue statement, maybe even as early as 2024. I'd rather not vote [he'd see that as a Dem vote, vs. protest vote], than keep the two extremes fighting full time, passing few laws, wasting tax dollars! He was shocked.

AS MUCH as I had in common with pro-45 vote ginner, the differences are always too much, and he was shocked Id help Biden rather than have any far righter in WH, but NOT if Biden goes rad—then third party! Cult-like, conspiracy theory and talk radio data robots! Riled up on emotionalism!

NO ONE has to oppose parental rights, and can support don't say gay, but you can't support vengeance by force of law [nuance and iteration go over their heads]! Trumpsters CAN'T think-period! The first deSATANIST law was excellent. But cultists always go too far to own people they deem severe enemies.

In the cultist's mind, if you aren't for vengeance and fighting, you are for aberrant sex [find a flavor-of-the-month cause and be avid against or for it]. THIS is tRUMP on abortion (UNjustly stack SCOTUS) and deSATANIST on Don't Say Gay. It is cancel culture, division, hate, and everything NOT Christian in politics! YET, DUMB Christians will go along!

The door knocker was avid that nothing went right in handling Covid [lies and inaccurate/unfactual], he's a religious guy-but for tRUMP [doesn't understand his own claimed religion], libs want to control people [attribute evil motives to opponents], NATO needs to disband [so U.S. loses to BRIC], vengeance against Disney was needed, and CRT and grooming are going on behind every bush [seeing a needle, and calling it a haystack]. I CAN'T have agreement with moronic thoughts.

OF COURSE my door knocker who said he was a religious man had NO IDEA what Gog and Magog was [typical Bible ignorance], when he claimed Putin ONLY wanted Ukraine to NOT join NATO, when he opined why Putin acted. I couldn't fit in that America has Commy Cuba right next door! Cult-like zeal and data at the ready!

I also told our door knocker CHUMP demands loyalty [cultists wonder why that's a problem! You have to have unity to have numbers, after all]. You should NEVER have to demand it, but your integrity should command it, from respect. And if one differs, handle it privately first; if public thereafter, say it's your personal opinion where you disagree agreeably!

That's leadership and my door knocker political precinct activist INSISTED Dems withholding IT were conspiratorially withholding good fixes, to control people [phobias and demonizing opponents], THEN said ALL vaccines harms reaching natural one munity [want things both ways]. #CULT! Cannot think, or be consistent!

I USED to listen to Limbaugh, for ~8-12 years. He mockingly joked about "brain-numb robots" being how opponents viewed his listeners, AS IF they weren't just spewing his talking points, never having their own information or ideas. Then, he proceeded to do just that! EX.: My door knocker!

Far rights allowed to look smart by having talk radio hosts think for them how to spin everything positive for them and negative for everyone else [ignorance covered by others' brains]! The stories and stats they tell you, and conspiracy theories mainly come from listening to the radio. ZERO learning on their own-or research or verifying.

Phobias and delusions are what often drive the far right. My door knocker was CERTAIN mask mandates were a dress rehearsal for some global lib push to control the population, programming people to be willing to give up their rights [delusional motive attribution to opponents], vs. a rare emergency our government hadn't dealt with before.

Door knocker asked me how many people in America I thought were smart. We BOTH agreed 23% was max one um (he seemed to think much lower %, and he may be right). So do leaders bring UP the population, by educating, or coddle and cater to stupidity? [cater to dummies, speaking lies, and they'll never catch on]

That's a RINO vs. HIPPO (GOP hypocrite) question OPPOSITE to my radical and far right door knockers OPINION/claim! I may not even vote, in 1-2 weeks, and CERTAINLY not for who he said he vetted, knowing he's far right. I'll do my own research, thank you, IF I vote at all!

DISNEY VS. DESATAN: DON'T SAY GAY

(Or Your Land Tax Status We Take Away)

(4/15/22-2)

Free speech has to be responsible speech, or it has to be punished by someone! You are always entitled to express your opinion, but people are duty-bound to correct lies, errors, and to rebut misinformation! THAT is what should ALWAYS happen on social media!

Note to EVERY U.S. political extremist, liberal left or far right: STFU!

I am SO tired of DUMB Christians, who demand no morals from politicians! They can't even figure out DeSATANists is posturing to coddle their votes!

1. His new abortion law will last a few weeks, if SCOTUS rules differently. Posturing/posing/signaling-symbol over substance, OPPOSITE God/the Bible!
2. WHERE was his concern for the unborn the past six years? DO YOU EVER WONDER about motives and timing, dummies?
3. His money "for fathers" is EMBARRASSING! WHERE is that explicitly enumerated in Constitution? Aren't conservatives AGAINST government helping people with taxpayer money, hypocrites? Dads I need the money! Single moms from screwy dads do!
4. His edict denying a male hasn't won a female contest has NO authority, fools! You have what you tolerate! And,
5. WHERE was deSATANist for YEARS, worrying about babes being taught about homosexuality and transgender in his states' public school text books? He's up for re-election and wants to be Trump #2, folks! He said establishment GOP is dead. Prove him wrong!

Update #1: Keep Politics Out of Business! Disney: Come to Texas!

(4/20/22-2)

You BETTER ensure there are NO CRT advocacy plugs in any TX text book, or LGBTQ-advocating sentences! @GovAbbott @GregAbbott PLEASE conduct a commission to ensure that end. And tell ALL the truth about America's history, warts and all. We value TRUTH, education and free speech! Facts and morals

I welcome Ben and Jerrys as with Chic-Fil-A. Texans can handle free speech! We don't have to frequent your business, if it's political. We value business, freedom and jobs!

@Disney, please come to Texas! <https://youtube.com/watch?v=TedXFSUUbOY...> @GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX

LOOK, it's time for businesses to STOP stating political views, so they can attract as many customers as possible. Save that for the CEO's private life and vote! People can take political action without hurting profits. That's NOT worshipping money, but being wise. Fund your party! Extremists' Ping Pong Politics in action!

Some extremist IDIOT calls bringing @Disney to TX getting woke. Some people do not engage extremist political hate, but value business! There's NO WAY TX would adopt LGBTQ curricula to youth, so there is NO wokeness or danger; just taking advantage of FL's loss, extremist FOOL! EVERYONE knows nothing keeps up with @Disney! Six Flags is a decent alternative, if it's all you got, as with SeaWorld, but those are ride/amusement parks. YOU BRING CHILDREN AN EXPERIENCE! We AREN'T afraid you'd turn TX LGBTQ in public school curricula. WON'T occur. Move some from FL!

We in Texas have ZERO interest in paying more taxes for police, streets, water, and all the public amenities of a @Disney Universe in Texas. KEEP your self-policing! Just come to Texas. Number one state for business! We don't punish entities for voicing their opinions. That's extremism-y'all.

I don't know @Disney World-NEVER been there. But I watched Astroworld end, and rides from it be sent all over America. Apart from buildings, YOU CAN DO THAT in bringing Disney magic to Texas! We respect all people, and you won't change our sex neutral kids' curricula, and well keep it neutral

ASK @ElonMusk or Warren Buffett's Nebraska Furniture Mart, or all the corporate headquarters in West Plano, if a move to Texas freedom is profitable @Disney

We are for free speech! You can disagree with laws banning sex education to babes in school, and still be welcome for business, here! KS, NE, OK, AR, NM, LA, CO ALL would drive to Houston or Dallas, for @Disney Universe, as that's closer than CA or FL.

@GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX may give you tax breaks. Cut back in Florida, to punish Desantis, and COME TO TX! Central part of America would have a closer outlet to your magic!

I LOVED Disney Land, as a kid. My kids LOVED Disney World, as young teens, going with their grandparent's. Let my grandkids go to @Disney Universe, in Texas! Houston is hot and humid. VERY north Dallas would be ideal, or north Ft Worth. Mar-Nov season, maybe longer, if north/cooler! Dallas has FAR better weather, for longer months, than Houston! Long season.

@Disney @TexasGOP should be actively soliciting them to come to TX and cut back in FL, and be able to self-police! Economic BOON from BAD overreach by Desantis; OUR gain! Draw from all central/midwest states! @Disney

FL and CA are 12 and 22 hours away from Dallas, and MANY states exist all around TX. Build a Disney Universe/planet, outside Katy! You could KILL business at six Flags Fiesta TX and Six Flags over TX. Even San Antonio has Seaworld—two ride places competing and they BOTH stay in business. COME!

Disney World: COME TO TEXAS! Houston has NO six Flags anymore! @Disney I KNOW you've invested too much, but at least cut back, and move some here! You've been contemplating land outside Katy for decades. @GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX will let you police yourself! DIVERSIFY and cut back!

Update #2: We Are Free To NOT Approve Your Lifestyle Choice

(4/21/22-2)

NO ONE has to accept your choice or inclination to live an LGBTQ lifestyle, and not think less of it—period! We live in a free country! We also have freedom of religion. We do owe every human honor and respect, made in God's image, for who they are vs. what they do!

Update #3: DeSatanist Sleepiness vs. Disney Wokeness

(4/22/22-2)

BIG government, cancel culture, government deciding winners and hurting business... YES, this is DeSatanist's work in Florida. @Disney Hypocrisy sin of an extremist, and revenge Christians can't support, even as we support the no say gay law! #FOOL! tRUMP #2; #2 in more than one way!

There are folks in the far right who have ZERO interest in caring about any poor people, especially blacks and browns, or ever caring about any struggles gay people may have in society!

They use "woke" as a signal, and economics determines their "morality." SICK people; You can layoff, automate, move some, close for awhile, end FL season passes, limit hours, increase prices. But it has to harm deSATANIST and FL tax revenues, not others. You have one year—you'll figure it out!

@Disney stock value will return; emotional sell-offs, TEMPORARILY! Defeat evil Punishing FL residents for DeSATANIST's over-reach isn't the answer, retracting annual passes. Hiring employees with closing for one month, isn't, either. OBVIOUSLY the more you send to TX, the less tax revenue FL and the dictator get, from their number one employer. Taste of his own medicine!

If I were @Disney, I would darn sure use all my influence and ability to access money and donations, to ensure DeSATANIST lost his re-election bid. "You start something, we end it," has always been the anti-bully motto.

@Disney Extremist dictator DeSATANIST won't back off, so TODAY, you must decide future plans in response, to save shareholders! Harm him, in return! Move much to TX! Even a month closing doesn't hurt him as much as employees. Permanently move many assets to open in TX; Downsize FL!

Update #4: Keep Sex Out of Elementary School!?

(4/24/22-2)

IT IS NOT "don't say gay." It is don't say anything about sex, in grades 1-3! ANY advocacy is EVIL. Education, where age-appropriate, is as it should be. I'll re-name it the "don't say straight" FL law. SAME difference, LGBTQ people!

TOO MANY buildings no one will need (buy), designed like they are. That area needs that many hotels, with no amusement park? NO!!!

Update #5: 'Owning' Disney?

(4/24/22-2)

@Disney Gov. Ron DeSantis's attacks on Disney may violate First Amendment https://theintercept.com/2022/04/23/disney-desantis-first-amendment-florida-dont-say-gay/... [Threatening withholding tax breaks on major portions of their land]

HERE is the ""thinking"" of the far right: If an armed robber gets stopped, by a gun-toting homeowner, that's good, but if he shoots the criminal 100 times, and anyone objects, they're FOR robbery.

@Disney Overkill/excess is as evil as bad laws! They CAN'T think or analyze! Just FEEL JUST FYI, deSATANIST's official account dropped by here, about three days ago, and I blocked it. A day later his personal/private account dropped by, with the same fate. I haven't tagged either of them, anytime lately, if ever.

YOU have ONE year to gain leverage over the FL government. Enough leverage and deSATANIST may backtrack. If he doesn't, punitive actions by @Disney need to make him pay, financially or politically, or both, for his extreme retaliation against free speech! one year to plan. Move some to TX.

IT IS NOT an issue to make @Disney on equal tax footing as all their Florida competitors. That perk was decided decades ago.

It is vengeance from a bully, who only likes free speech supporting him (ego). SAME attitude as CHUMP. They BOTH must go! #Disney DeSATANist #Florida
Christians influence culture by living godly lives, praying, evangelizing and discipling!

NOT by voting for INjustice, like stacking SCOTUS or boycotting or bullying @Disney, even as we got a good FL law passed. Taking things too far is sin! I Cor. 4:6; Rom. 12:19

I know NOT one thing about Kevin Sorbo, but if he's rejoicing over a U.S. business' decline, because of political culture wars, THAT IS NOT A CHRIST-LIKE DECISION on his part. I may have heard he's a claiming Christian. Again, I know very little about him. Culture wars divide, from arrogance.

The ONLY businesses that are clearly ones Christians shouldn't support are whore houses, Planned Parenthood (ideally), where they use slave or child labor, meth labs, satan-worshipper touting businesses (if they exist), etc. Buying products and services isn't a political donation!

I have NEVER inquired if Walmart, Amazon, Kroger, QT, RaceTrac, Aldi or any other grocery supplier is more owned by Christians as lost people. I REALLY DON'T CARE! I base businesses on business standards. Leave that for church and politics! Run businesses as businesses! Make money; the customer is king.

BUY where you like the product and price! I would NEVER go to Hobby Lobby because it's "Christian," but to compare its offerings with competitor! Best value for the consumer should be why you buy; NOT making some PHANTOM political statement! Same with Chick-Fil-A and Ben and Jerrys!

Business executives have every free speech right to state their political opinions, publicly. But they should NEVER allow their personal beliefs to be directly associated with their business! That's bad for profits, shareholders, and employee's job security. 100% IRresponsible to do.

IF I ever eat Ben and Jerrys ice cream, I am NOT agreeing with their liberal leadership's politics! IF I donate money to political organizations, I probably do. Exception is businesses trying to get along with both parties. Keep business secular and neutral-value for price, and job openings!

COMPLETELY disassociate businesses with politics, both in their public stances and your private purchases! We have a country and economy to save (as Larry Elder might say). Keep political activism OUT of business-period. It hurts profits and jobs, and is downright STUPID! We NEED the number one economy.

NOT visiting @Disney is the epitome of guilt by association, cancel culture, divisive culture wars, and cult litmus tests! For my grandkids to enjoy that fun experience has NOTHING to do with supporting LGBTQ sex practices! and you're NOT a great Christian because you go to Hobby Lobby or Chick-Fil-A!

In the cultist's mind, if you aren't for vengeance and fighting, you are for aberrant sex. THIS is tRUMP on abortion (UNjustly stack SCOTUS) and deSATANIST on Don't Say Gay. It is cancel culture, division, hate, and everything NOT Christian in politics! YET, DUMB Christians will go along!

NO ONE has to oppose parental rights, and can support don't say gay, but you can't support vengeance by force of law! Trumpsters CAN'T think—period! The first deSATANIST law was excellent. But cultists always go to far to own people they deem severe enemies. GREAT job! BIG H hometown!

CONSERVATIVE NEGATIVES

I USED to listen to Limbaugh, for ~8-12 years. He mockingly joked about "brain-numb robots" being how opponents viewed his listeners, AS IF they weren't just spewing his talking points, never having their own information or ideas. Then, he proceeded to do just that! EX.: My door knocker!

Far rights allowed to look smart by having talk radio hosts think for them how to spin everything positive for them and negative for everyone else! The stories and stats they tell you, and conspiracy theories mainly come from listening to the radio. ZERO learning on their own—or research or verifying.

Phobias and delusions are what often drive the far right. My door knocker was CERTAIN mask mandates were a dress rehearsal for some global lib push to control the population, programming people to be willing to give up their rights, vs. a rare emergency our government hadn't dealt with before.

SUCH is the far rights ideology, ANYTHING done federally is evil, but everything done locally is godly. How about reality?: Anything done good, at any level, is good, and anything done bad, at any level, is done bad. Let's act like #Commonsense still existed!

It's a cult, and uses methods to indoctrinate dumber folk, promising they're patriots if they join. IN CASE YOU DIDN'T KNOW, these are tenets of the far right, stated or just lived out:

1. EVERYONE else is evil and wrong, including fellow Republicans
2. ALWAYS cry wolf about taxes being too high
3. EVERYTHING any Dem proposes has no merit, is evil, and must be destroyed; they're NEVER for good
4. EVERY public figure not in their cult is evil, and America-hating
5. Has-been D list actors are heroes, if they're in our cult. Their fame PROVES they have worthwhile political views to spew!
6. Talk radio replaces college, and their hosts don't need college. College only warps minds liberal
7. Conspiracy theories are ONLY truth yet to be proven, or rejected by mainstream, left-leaning media
8. ALL news outlets promote the Dem agenda, all the time; never listen to them; they NEVER report any stories where they're not pushing lib ideas. ONLY listen to Fox, One America, Breitbart or NewsMax! and those four NEVER lie, or spin thing to any right-winged agenda! They're pure angels!
9. IF someone has a talk radio show, that's proof they're brilliant, and right!

10. The only patriots in America are members of the far right CULT! ALL others demean the Constitution!

11. You can never get along with anyone but fellow far righters, or you are giving in and compromising, and letting them win. They must always be "owned."

12. ALL far righters are holy and brilliant. How do we know? because we all believe the same things! How else could we do that?

Far right is the right, taken too far. We RINOS can have MUCH in common with them, until you have a real conversation with them. That takes time people don't have, so slogans are used to try to unite these two disparate groups, for unity for power over "EVIL" Dems. GOP strategy in a nutsHell.

I use the term RINO, because it's commonly accepted/used/popular. I do NOT accept its core premise. WE are really RICA, Republican in core always! It's the far right that has drifted from what the GOP has been for more than three decades! An aberration, or true "RINOs!"

LET ME SHOW YOU where RINOs and HIPPOs (hypocritical GOP-claimers) agree, then where they part ways: AGREE:

1. Lowest taxes needed
2. Strongest economy
3. NO government handouts
4. Controlled borders
5. Best education
6. Lower debt
7. America number one
8. Strongest military
9. Law and order
10. Guns aren't evil
11. Freedom of speech
12. Freedom of religion

Where I Disagree With Trumpers:

1. Any GOP's not in the far right cult are traitors
2. tRUMP was a great president (eyes closed, ears and mouth covered to what's below).
3. Unity must be enforced and demanded; NO individual thinking, consciences or convictions
4. You NEVER reach across the aisle! You throw eggs, or rocks across it.
5. You ONLY listen to talk radio and four media outlets! (Fox, Breitbart, One America and NewsMax).
5. You have to own and demonize everyone outside the cult.
6. NEVER question! Certainly our bunch is right and perfect!
7. Truth isn't important, nor morals; power IS.
8. History will show we were the only right Americans, and the Founders would be proud only of us, as the only Constitutionally faithful patriots.
9. Getting las passed is evil, unless it's ones we want!
10. Tell lies and say shocking things, so you can get media attention.

THESE 10 PREMISES are where REAL Republicans differ from the far right, and always will! RINO means Republican In Normal Operation. Far right means far radical, un-thinking, and un-moral. Check brain and conscience/morals at the cult meeting door!

Finally, the far right is convinced the CDC did EVERYTHING wrong, for some devious and purposeful political reasons. NOT that the pandemic was new to this generation, many did the best they could, science evolved through hastened studies. NO credit is given to heroes who kept us safe!

YOU CAN TELL the caustic conservatives and Trumpsters are back on Twitter, with their Libtards terminology, believing everything liberal is evil, and people with Down's Syndrome can be treated as lessers, for political insult!

Insults, hate, division, arrogance, ignorance, immorality, continual fighting (I Tim. 6:5), getting nothing done in D.C., or seeking to own and dominate all others. YES, the caustic conservatives are back on Twitter. Under Elon expect more of this: Libtard #LiberalismIsaMentalDisease Contards Libtards Extremism, hate and division are political movements NO Christian can be a party with, and remain right with God!

People calling liberalism a mental illness (and I am NOT a liberal) have mental IQ challenges! They mean you have to be crazy to want to help anyone outside your own immediate family. Jesus commands people to behave crazily, then, I guess?

Liberalism is a mental illness? I'm NOT a lib, but wanting poor people not to severely struggle is love. Not giving a damn about that, and selfishly only caring if you're doing good is the sins of selfishness and not loving your neighbor. SIN problem; not mental illness, for either! Libtard

DO CHRISTIANS SEE (or care) all the sins on open display by the far right re-joining Twitter with bullying, arrogance, insults, slander, meanness, divisiveness, vengefulness and lying? That is part and parcel of their system, as their ideas aren't popular enough to grow a BIG tent!

Cussing/hate/arrogance/demonizing/"owning"/domineering/bullies trying to force their views on everyone/ignorance/cockiness in their shame/confidence in numbers. THESE sins are what buoys the far right. NOT truth and morality. PASTORS MUST MAKE A STAND—or apostatize for power idolatry.

Update #1: What Is a Doctor?

(5/1/22-2)

Let's address Dr. Biden. Cultural tradition has reserved the term "doctor" to MD's, and academic PhDs who teach in college. NOT chiropractors, basket weaving PhDs, DMin pastors, or even lawyers. BUT, technically, ALL of these can be called doctor, having degrees ABOVE a masters!

Update #2: Conservatism is Christian & Constitutional?

WHEN you hear conservatives imply their political ideology is "Christian" and Constitutional, remember their belief system has NO ROOM for government helping any struggling American, even though the Jews had a safety net (paid for by tithes, or theocratic taxes), and the first churches had a voluntary safety net! II Cor 8; Ac 2, 4 MANY of these people aren't concerned with voluntarily relinquishing one dime to the poor. Their verses are I Th. 3:10 and Mt. 26:11.

WHEN you hear conservatives imply their political ideology is "Constitutional," (and therefore, "patriotic"), remember their belief system has NO ROOM for government helping any struggling American, so remember these phrases from our Founding documents: "general welfare," "all men created equal," "and justice for all," "more perfect union" and "and to the states, and the people."

ME, A DEMOCRAT?

(4/29/22-2)

The government has a duty to keep the field level/support fairness. That's NOT favoring anyone or any group. Labor vs. management, investors vs. renters, etc. Just secure impartial justice. Monopolies are injustice. #LevelPlayingField always needed. Businesses wont secure it!

Update: Do the Rich Want to Give Up Any Riches?

I just retweeted three posts to show how much I don't know about investing fairness. Monopolies are illegal. There are negatives to Capitalism, that ALL need to be addressed. Justice is the only right standard, and not making poor people suffer so rich can get richer. Morals are foundational!

DO YOU UNDERSTAND, when rich people demand great ROI's on all their money, it has to come from somewhere. The more they squeeze, to have even more, the less is in the marketplace, unless value or productivity are increased, or the feds print fake dollars. It's a PROBLEM, folks!

I am NOT a Socialist. I do NOT believe in freebies. But I do see how the poor keep getting crushed by inflation, investing monopolies, businesses doing everything for profits, including hurting workers' livelihoods, and these injustices cannot continue. Those types don't care about humans!

Forget laws, traditions, precedents or earning money morally and legally, FOR A SECOND. IS a society moral if it lets any suffer, while others live in luxury, before God? NO! My neighbors moving, as rent nearly doubled. Sad, after nearly two decades! Housing crisis is out of control!

It's NOT a free market if the richest investment coalitions can force people to be permanent renters, but buying above asking price all homes, to rent them out for ROI. IMO, Capitalism has gone crazy out of control in America, and it may change my party affiliation! GOD CARES about THE POOR!

America NEEDS a basic minimum law, where everyone's assured of a job, who wants one, and that they can live off what they make, working hard, full-time. After that, I don't give a darn how much rich make. until then, that has to happen, IMO. It's ONLY humane, vs. INhumane! Bridled Capitalism.

When you devise higher profits off hurting humans, you are evil. Short, clear tweet.

I Tim. 6:17-19 is NOT voluntarily being obeyed by many rich people in America. IMO, if that remains consistent, a revolt will occur, or higher taxes, or a judgment from God. I simply call things as I see them. You don't have to like it, but you need a Bible verse to refute it!

Government should be helping people struggling endure this high inflation caused by the pandemic and Russia's actions, as it's beyond their control. When supply catches up with demand, it will lower. It's very similar to pandemic checks-emergency measures, all mainly tied to Covid's effects.

Zuckerberg's $30K/year and Andrew Yang's UBI proposals are attempts to deal with too much money in too few hands, and the problem of the rich getting richer off everyone else ISN'T going away or getting better! YOU CAN HAVE ENOUGH. Cons don't care if one man owned everything. The problem HAS solutions!

WITH illegal immigration, inflation, AI and robotics, NO ONE is stating the obvious: Jobs will diminish just as labor flourishes in numbers, lowering everyone's wages, even as the rich profit off all this mess. Solutions MUST come, for more good-paying jobs! NOT business' interest; expense.

This housing shortage, in part is the childhood game of Monopoly! Buy up all income-producing properties, so users keep you continually fed. Monopolies are illegal in America, and it's high time the laws are enforced, WHEREVER monopolies are found to exist--period! @JoeBiden @POTUS

IMO, YOU need a Manhattan Project/Herculean effort to get new housing booming, by ending all log jams to supply chain! Treat it as a national emergency! Investors buying up existing homes is an assault on fair prices. NEED so many new homes, especially with immigrants! @JoeBiden @POTUS

In business, the ideal sale is that which is required and that which is an annuity. In that sense, what Blackstone and Bill Gates are doing is brilliant! ROI that is needed vs. wanted (food and shelter) and continual returns. I Tim. 6:8 BUT, it's an EVIL and should be illegal monopoly!

The rich, who have life better than everyone else, think they deserve even more money, made easier than by working (money making money), buying off politicians so taxes and laws favor them, when they already have more than they'll ever need, and NEVER struggle. Voters must change this! It's NOT right.

DID YOU KNOW labor and employees have LITTLE-to-no leverage? Business can simply automate away many jobs! It's expected that up to 75% of today's jobs will be run by robots (Radar magazine). WAHT IN THE HELL are voters going to do to fix this disparity? Unite, right and left, to fix it!

Pv. 22:7 is stating a factual observation. Is NOT stating God's desire, or ideal, which is Levit. 19:15! Governments must NEVER favor the rich (or the poor). EVERY government! You're tempted to lure their money to your land, with tax bribes, but they keep winning at everyone else's loss.

LOOK at the LOSSES labor has LOST to management, over the years: AI/robotics/contract labor/immigration (more competition)/buying up houses and farm land/streamlining/automation/outsourcing-globalization/higher copays/part-time without benefits/pensions gone, ETC! TELL ME ANY GAINS!

God's NOT in the business of ignoring the non-rich! I've said before, He RARELY directly intervenes in the affairs of man, in obvious ways, in our dispensation. He expects man to do right/obey His laws. That means, men fix this disparity of the rich having a monopoly on life's positives.

There is a DIRECT correlation between getting wealthy and hating God. You get preoccupied pursuing money. Serving God would detract. The Bible says you CANNOT serve both. Many charismatic denomination Christians teach it's a balance. It's NOT.

You will HATE God! Mt. 6:24 The rich MAINLY burn in Hell! WHY pamper and treat as heroes people so foolish as to be heading to an eternal fire? YOU CAN HAVE ENOUGH, at which point your skill at money-making must be used to do good to humanity. God teaches that, which is probably why many rich don't love Him, but money as god.

TELL ME how MOST rich donate LESS than average Joe, owning MUCH more than he, yet conservatives say Giving Pledgers are stupid and "self-loathing?" (Mark Levin). Cons wouldn't care if one man owned it all, if he had that skill. God is NOT a conservative. Only on some policies! Fix it!

Voluntary relinquishment of things you fought so hard to gain and keep, and keep in your family forever isn't easily parted with (like BIG charity donations). What's left is boycotts (not if it's a product you have to have, vs. want to buy), or higher taxes, or government-forced higher wages.

The little guy will CONTINUALLY be screwed by the rich, as AI advanced, as with robotics! LESS human jobs, even as more humans get birthed, and break into our country! Average Joe doesn't think or worry about these things, which the rich take advantage of, until it's too late for the unthinking.

That's EXACTLY why Andrew Chang and Zuckerberg proposed UBI and $30K/year for all. The masses wouldn't have to work. Couldn't, much, anyway, with machines doing most of the labor! Will you accept $12K-$30K to love off, and no chance to make more? I won't! Got to fix the system, NOW! Will we?

It is VERY possible the "image of the beast" is machines that do men's jobs! Rev. 13 MOST toys are smaller replicas of humans and our adult assets. They're made in our likeness. The image of the Beast (man) may be human replacement machines, imitating us and our work skills!

We already have cameras (eyes), sensors (ears), Siri (mouth), computers (brain), robots (body), all sorts of transportation means to replace feet. What more is left? Rev. 16-18 describe a wealthy global economy, with rich and poor.

ALL serious suffering poverty COULD be eliminated, and they still be poor. And a great economy at least 3.5 years from now (if the Rapture happened today) would be a centrally controlled global economy, by one man, of ALL commercial transactions! It's coming! How fast is the question.

WORSE than Ukraine is the housing shortage in America, for American interests. YOU need to treat it as a national security matter! SO many people flock here, and lumber and labor shortages. I could and would fix it, in your position! @POTUS @JoeBiden Will you? It's destroying lives (and votes)

DO YOU, the public, SEE how often people with money break moral and legal rules, all surrounding greedily wanting MORE, and cheating our government? The Bible talked about this 2K years ago! Love of money is ROOT of all sorts of evils! Believe IT, and eliminate evil!

Blackstone was BRILLIANT! Housing shortage from labor and lumber under-supply, from pandemic slowdowns, and more people coming to America, especially illegally, means profit for homeowners goes to investors if they buy at above market, then rent, or re-sell after remodeling! 2-3 year window!

Once labor and lumber shortages are solved, houses will proliferate, easing tension in housing market prices. Permanent renters won't occur, if more houses get built. Until @JoeBiden @POTUS prioritizes massive efforts to making homes erect, Blackstone gets huge profits off Pv. 22:16!!!

Economics 101: MORE humans in America, less wages and higher living costs for domiciles! Covid already clogged the supply chain for new homes, and labor shortage from people paid to do nothing. This is crisis number one, IMO, @POTUS @JoeBiden People aren't going to leave. NEED MANY HOUSES BUILT FAST!

I am NOT for freebies. BUT, if taxes were fair to all, and government streamlined, what would the top needs of people be, to be able to access, no matter their income? College (if academically qualified) Healthcare (minimal coverage, after catastrophic insurance) House down payment, IMO.

IF you can't get the rich to be charitable (or obey God—I Tim. 6:17-19), is it evil to force them to? NOT if untargeted taxes, that apply to all, fairly. In a democracy, the majority can vote for that. We use taxes from most all, for education for all students not in private school.

If people got those three things, and repaid them in civic service, that'd be fair to taxpayers. If they can get them without tax dollars, that is BETTER! Rent to own homes, junior colleges and accredited homeschool college MUST happen, and required catastrophic insurance, and affordable healthcare.

Let's play this out: Employees/labor unionize, to force higher wages. Then rich just automate to the max, in retaliation. The rich always want thing their way! Fair taxes high enough to cover all needed fed bills is the answer, after government is skim and trim, and civic service patriotism.

We ALL know U.S. CEO and many executive salaries are ginned up/unfair/overly-high, as NOT based on what's earned, or productivity, but stock price and profits. They should NOT be allowed to be more than what is deserved! If you can't get the rich charitable, FAIRLY tax them more—and everyone taxed.

COUNTRY FOLKS

(5/1/22-2)

If I know Rural America well, they just want government out of their business, not costing them more in taxes, screwing up the economy (as with inflation), or forcing them to pay for things mainly cities benefit from (or teaching their kids evil things in school). #DontTreadOnMe!

Update: Get Hoodies on the Farm, & Vice-Versa

(5/7/22-2)

Let's address THIS prickly subject: Country folk live self-reliantly, MOST of the time. WHY would they ever care about helping poor black and city people, when they spend 18 hours a day earning their keep, without Barn raising neighbor help? Excellent question!

Because they're usually religious. NOT that people always obey their religion, but they're supposed to. Country folk can teach poorer black folk self-reliance attitudes and skills, just as country folk visiting "the hood" can learn a thing or two about whether their circumstances are exactly the same!

SEX PERVS

(4/28/22-2)

If ANY parent wants ANY child to learn about trans, gay, or other LGBTQ issues, TEACH IT @ HOME! It's your job to raise your kid the way you see fit. DON'T try to shove your perversions and confusions onto everyone else, in the name of inclusion and tolerance. Do your job; we'll do ours!

Public schools ONLY need to teach our youth academic subjects—period. Grow their brains. Don't try to indoctrinate the most vulnerable to your sick political philosophies and sexual perversions, and biases pro or con any race! ACADEMICS! NOT social engineering! That's PARENTS' JOB!

Are public schools going to educate on sex positions, and porn sights, and sex toys, and anal sex, lesbian love, and show gay sex acts to children, in the name of education? Why not show a live abortion from inside the womb? We're just educating, right? PARENTS can teach beyond sex basics!

There are people born with both genitalia, male and female. There are people who practice bestiality, and swingers, and man-child relations advocates, and necrophiliacs. Are public schools going to teach pre-pubescent youth these things, in the guise of education? Anything and everything goes?

Update #1: Keep It In Your Pants & Closet

(5/1/22-2)

There have ALWAYS been anomaly people! Men and women born with BOTH genitalia. People feeling not masculine or feminine, per their natural sex plumbing. They need more testosterone, or estrogen, as is their case, but a complete sex change should be reserved ONLY for confused adults!

Update #2: KIDS Don't Need Sex Diversity Training!

The question is raised, why the opposition? Kids are impressionable, and moral parents don't want them exposed to immoral choices. EASY answer!

NO ONE has EVER had to advertise or advocate for natural sexual relations, in the public arena of ideas! Aberrant sexual perversions are now seeking mainstream attention, as those choices are NOT natural, and must be coaxed, by repeated advocacy!

You are free, in America, to have drag queen story hour events, just as I am free to oppose them! That doesn't make me a fascist, cancel culture! I'M free to have a story telling time, with no sexual implications. You can protest that, too, if foolish enough to do so. Repent!

Being proud of yourself isn't the same as being proud of your aberrant sexual choices. STOP equating self-worth with sexual choices. You are more than a reproductive organ, fools!

THE LEFT'S NEGATIVES

HERE's where repenting is required in the two extremes, or negative consequences befall them:

The far left WANTS to teach impressionable innocents that all white people are racists, even subconsciously, and that sex is a topic they need to learn, well before puberty. BALDERDASH! They also want to believe freebies are good, as is stealing from tax payers to fund them.

They have endless programs they want the feds to pursue, destroying GOP's by mainly funding them all. They want open borders, cops afraid to do their job, guns grabbed, businesses harmed for a pristine ecology, any and all abortions allowed, including after birth, males competing against females, in sports, IF the male says "man, I feel like a woman."

They would like the rich to be forced into the middle class, and punished for being good at making money. They would like all poor to be forced into the middle class, off taxpayers. They want America over-populated, and America to coddle and appease evil dictators, by using the military sparingly, believing diplomacy and economic sanctions alone deter bullies.

They want illegals voting and b getting in on OUR safety net! They want "FREE" healthcare, daycare, college, student loan forgiveness, home down payment and even reparations, and a wealth tax. EVERY ONE of these desires is EVIL.

Far left libs are always slandered as "godless degenerates, and God haters, wanting America destroyed, or at least punished over historic cowboy vs. Indian wars, Mexico defeated and slavery.

But JUST AS the far left NEEDS to repent of all those evils I just described, so does the far right need to embrace God and His morals, and repent! EVERY human is to live morally, religion or not.

The far right suffers these evils, equally needing salvation and discipling, IF the GOP is to be reformed to be a non-hypocritical claimer as a party of God and religion and family values!:

I will, instead, refer you to chapters we've written on the evils of caustic conservatism (see website). It is as evil and stupid as the far left! BOTH extremes cause our hate and divisions, and MUST repent!

THE FAR RIGHT'S NEEDS

(5/2/22-2)

Small chapter add-on. The far right complains their opinions aren't heard on Twitter, and WSJ, NYT and WaPo don't want them heard. IT'S 100% UNDERSTANDABLE why their ideas are anathema to so many, on these points.

1. Tin foil hat conspiracy theories
2. Lies
3. Worship of a FOOL in chief

The far right is FOR these things, rarely stated as clearly (for fear more people would reject them):

4. DO NOT HELP ANY POOR PERSON, especially with any tax money!
5. One man owning it all is OK, if gained legally!
6. Don't worry about the ecology! Suck in and drink the pollution, if business can profit!
7. The rich should be favored by government laws (OPPOSITE Levit. 19:15)
8. Giving Pledgers are "self-loathing." You have to hate yourself if you care about anyone else! Selfishness is god!
9. Shareholders are ALL that matters in an economy determined as doing well! 401Ks.
10. ALL these HARMS to everyday Americans are GOOG, because the elites profit MORE: AI, robotics, streamlining, layoffs, automation, outsourcing, foreign labor taking American jobs, self-service, contract labor, no pensions, higher co-pays, some rich and business paying NO taxes, etc.
11. Fight the estate tax. Money should be hoarded for generations of lazy heirs! The public should get NOTHING from what I earned.
12. Making money off money, rather than off working, is the IDEAL productive America the Founders envisioned.
13. Overpaid execs is GOOD (for them).
14. Black Americans had ZERO negative economic setbacks by centuries of slavery! To address their struggles, at all, is an attack on white assets, wages and jobs!
15. Paying peanuts is the IDEAL, if market rate can force that result! Get other execs to pay as little as possible! Race to the bottom!
16. Business and rich who pay less taxes than they were scheduled to are genius', NOT thieves.
17. Usually Hellbound people are deemed heroes, because they own more than others.
18. People are like crawdads (Limbaugh said). Celebrate the ones who escape the sardine can NEVER lend a hand to others on that mountain climb, even as you near the top. Every man for himself!
19. Life is all about what you own. OPPOSITE God! Lk. 12:15
20. EVERYONE not in our cult is evil, hates America, and must be fought against full-time!
21. Government should NEVER try to fix ANY problems! If businesses can't do so, profitably, token charity efforts are the best that should ever happen!
22. Government—leave me alone! I'll live however I damn well please, and you have NO right to say otherwise, as I cherish "freedom," as a "patriot." NO WONDER far right is opposed/hated!

IT IS EVERYONE ELSE but the far right against the far right, folks! I am NOT left, but I'm actively working to find common ground with them, as this is the battle of the ages, and the good guys will win in America! Far right vs. everyone else. IMO, GOP needs a split, in the next decade!

IF far right was open to repenting, unity could be restored, IMO. Most of the time I read them wanting all non-cult members gone, which they label RINOs. Their attitude is your for our beliefs, or you're an enemy, and partner of the left. IF SO, they MUST be destroyed by all others!

Temporarily putting aside your differences, for power, for implementing better policies than the other side offers is the smart thing to do. Whether the far right is willing, is another matter entirely. If not, and it's my way or the highway, the vast majority isn't in their camp!

PRIORITIED PROBLEMS

Let's be completely honest—IF the rich self-limited their total ownership (or Dems taxed them enough to cover costs), we could have the fund for a pipeline system where NM forest fires wouldn't cause such destruction. Who NEEDS more than $15M? Wants, NOT needs! Disease could be ended.

IF the feds had the money, many if not most problems in society could be ended. The poor and middle class don't have the excess, and aren't certain to retire. Charities all want to pay staff and executives, vs. combining forces to be efficient. IMO, in a perfect world, God would limit the rich's total!

Disease eradication, pollution remediation, weather catastrophe aversion technology, crimes, homelessness, severe poverty: ALL these problems could be SUSTAINABLY fixed, without throwing money down a rat hole. If business can't profit enough, they'll never try to fix these! They NEED fixing!

IF taxes are fair, no cheating or loopholes, voters can vote for enough taxes to fix things the majority wants fixed! It has to be fair, and everyone taxed, just not as the same percent/pain. And NO ONE gets off Scot Free, paying in nothing! IMO, fed government HAS to be streamlined first!

Top of the head list of all problems government could fix, businesses won't (too unprofitable), and charities can only make a dent at: Pollution, crime, weather disasters, diseases, homelessness, illegal drug addiction, border breaches, inflation, supply chain disruption, wars, limited resources.

The ONLY valid definition of "Social Justice" is every LEGAL black and brown American gets a fair assessment at any job they apply for and are qualified for. Anything beyond that isn't justice, but social injustice!

I always say think of ideal state, and work backwards. CAN YOU THINK of any other way those listed problems get fixed, unless charities got streamlined and people became more generous? I can't! IF pain is equal, with taxes, whatever majority votes for should be implemented, if not evil!

THIS IS IDEAL STATE (and what we should work toward): NO poor American severely suffers, crime much less, disease ended, natural disasters averted, NO homeless, or drug addicts, controlled borders, no housing crisis or supply chain backlog, everyone smart enough can go to college, everyone who can afford a home has a down payment, everyone has the minimal healthcare coverage needed for all their bodily ills, air and water quality are good, we lessen our impact on the ozone, everyone who wants a job has a job, and they're good-paying. No wars. Vision for America.

Disease Disasters (weather) Border breaches Wars Poverty Pollution Housing Homeless Healthcare
Home down payment College Crime and Addicts MAJOR GOVERNMENT INITIATIVES NEEDED, best bang for the buck, and ONLY justly to taxpayers!

Update #1: Solutions

(5/2/22-2)

Mature tree growth in one year or less is tech scientists need to invent! We'd have NO housing shortage, from lack of lumber, if we could cut down forests, with no danger to the aesthetics, from super regrowth technology! There has to be a way to do this, or plant way more forests!

I know there are nay-sayers. IF forest trees can't regrow in 6-9 months, through artificial engineering. Plant lumber forests all over NM and AZ cactus-laden fields. Plant forests JUST to harvest lumber. Grow them one foot apart, for maximum productivity!

BIGger, faster tree growth: pbs.org Scientists Have Discovered a Way to Make Trees Grow Bigger and Faster Scientists believe they've figured out how to tap into a tree's command center, allowing them to grow faster and sprout more leaves.

IF computer-"printed" laser "printed" concrete is a fast, effective way to build houses, we need that. The pandemic got us two years behind in inventory needed! NOT near neighborhoods, apartments and public housing should be built for the poor, so property values done diminish.

I HATE small yards. Some people LOVE even NO yards. Three story homes are now popular on small lots. If people will build them, and you don't hear your neighbors, go for it! It maximizes space, going UPward, like NYC had to, land-locked. I prefer my own yard! Hate the mowing, though.

I suggest MANY more basements! three story homes can be eyesores, and block views. I'm sure there's a way to build them, even at sea level, which won't leak or flood. It takes technology! Most people don't pay much attention to what's right outside, so homes with LIL space between can be OK!

PARKS and walking trails and dog parks help many condensed neighborhoods have room. Common areas. Play areas, sports fields, playgrounds. If people wanted NO yard, they also may not want an apartment, with noise six inches away. Make them, floors and ceilings sound proof! More porches!

I would NEVER live in a high rise, in a million years. Many like them. A high rise for the poor, NOT running any neighborhoods or scenery, would be productive use of little land mass. Build upward. Never harm homeowner's property values! Keep them elsewhere, but good for them!

Update #2: Funding Ideals/Solutions

(5/2/22-2)

LET ME DETAIL how all those priorities can be self-sustaining! NO one wants endless pocketbook drains! Disease: Centralize all the best U.S. scientists to find solutions, and quit wasting money on multiple manufactures racing to one product cure, the others losing out! #Collaboration

Disasters: I know we can build tech to eliminate the negative effects of every weather threat! Hail, tornado, hurricane, tsunami, drought, earthquake, flood, fires. Once we have the infrastructure, it's only maintenance and repair needed, thereafter. Border: Zero breach technology! Sensors.

Quick response forces for all breaches cameras and sensors detect. Chopper, ATV, boat, drone, etc. Wild animal shooting nets to capture, or Tasers to legs, or even rubber bullets. Even drones armed with shooting nets or Tasers or rubber bullets. Wars. Deterrence!

IF I were @MCuban, I'd buy up many seats in Phoenix, pay Dallasites who can yell well to sit in those seats, wear coordinated team colors. Isn't moving to the next level worth it? May violate NBA rules!?
@RealJasonKidd @DallasMavs NEED home crowd FEEL in Phoenix, track record proves!

VERY proud the home cookin' worked for the Mavs, last eve. I was so tired, I didn't see much of the first quarter, then crashed. I have no words for game 7, because they have to figure out how to win in Phoenix, with crowd noise! Import YELLERS from Dallas! Pay them to go!?

Suns are analyzing what they did wrong in your three wins. You Can't just do what got you wins! Consider what they'll change-to avoid one more loss-then make your strategy by what they'll change and what you're good at, analyzing your wins! NEVER rest on laurels. Change something.

Lesson: TAKE ADVANTAGE OF A CRISIS (inflation) and PROFIT FROM IT! Your results are OBVIOUSLY the SAME as the Suns—your skills CAN keep up! You have to drown out the crowd, by hypnotist, therapist, psychologist, motivational speaker or pastor, to get you to FOCUS in Phoenix!

3 days of training your minds to FOCUS and tune out. JustDoIt

Season or die! Intensity, play to your strengths, tire out Chris Paul, 1.5-team Booker, steals, hustle, REBOUNDS on BOTH ends, defense, pace vs. speed, don't wear out Luka, or one hog the shots, others step up like never in your life! NO foul outs; make free throws, etc.

Update #3: Western Finalists

(5/13/22-2)

Would you consider a tall, then a small court presence, and even a both/and (like you have with Powell), to spice things up and keep them guessing, and shelve any such lineup that fails, quickly assessed?

Suns have zero advantage in wins. You have a 50/50 chance of winning, not including strategy and effort. One game, and you make recent Dallas history! One game one season/year. You can recover for next round.

What is the specific, scientific and thorough plan to overcome the home court advantage on Sunday?

Y'all haven't figured it out, yet. Something BIG has to happen, as they've basically blown you out the last three games in Phoenix! It's the crowd and pressure!

Wouldn't it be cost effective to buy blue T-shirts, and any noise makers allowed in the Suns' stadium, and hand them out to all Mavs fans in attendance, Sunday? Megaphones are likely banned. Pay them $50 to go hoarse in the game, if that's legal! Make them obnoxious! Go Mavs!

I've GOT to find better articles and comments from Dallas Mavs to believe they have any plan for how to win in Phoenix! They never have, this playoffs round. WHAT ARE THEY 'gonna DO DIFFERENTLY, and what's the problem, there, besides loud crowd home court advantage?

YOU should be showing the @dallasmavs team all the highlights of what they did best, last three games, what they did worst, what the Suns did best and worst, and exactly how the Suns adjusted after every halftime of all six games! @RealJasonkidd EDUCATION! Motivations already high-do or die.

One of the best ways to overcome home court advantage is silence the crowd by dominating the Suns, early! For some reason, crowds yell less, when down 10-15 points, when their team needs them the most!

Everyone but Luka has to commit to career best effort. I would FINE the bench players if they don't lose their minds yelling, shaking and stomping, Sunday!

If you won't sacrifice your voice and dignity, to advance to the next round, you are not a true Maverick! Multi-thousand dollar fines! DO YOUR JOB/DUTY.

Update #4: Game Plan

(5/14/22-2)

I've watched five of your six Suns games. You MUST have a backup plan you switch to in time-outs; NOT just at half time, when you start losing momentum, late in second, early in third quarter. DON'T just take a time out. Change the plan like it's half time! Instantly!

You do know one thing about how to win away games this round: DON'T DO EXACTLY WHAT YOU DID THE PAST three LOSSES! #DallasMavericks Study film and learn when and why you lost momentum, when the blowouts started. More timeouts, when that starts! And game plan adjust.

Update #5: Tactics

If everyone but Luka doesn't put all their sweat and energy into best game ever, including as bench players, I may never support the team again! If you give it your all, and lose, that's honorable! TAKE timeouts when momentum slips!

Third quarter is KEY, and early fourth @Luka7Doncic (adopted) HOMETOWN HERO! Brunson, Dinwiddie and Finney HAVE to show up. Do or die. Be your best! Three heroes or hams? Make your career, tonight, you three! Key is those three! DEFENSE! Rebounds!

One of the best ways to overcome home court advantage is silence the crowd by dominating the Suns, early! For some reason, crowds yell less, when down 10-15 points, when their team needs them the most!

Everyone but Luka has to commit to career best effort. CLEAR YOUR HEADS! We're completely even! Suns have zero advantage in wins. You have a 50/50 chance of winning, not including strategy and effort. One game, and you make recent Dallas history!

I am a dinosaur. I can't make a meme. Someone make one with Luka carrying everyone on his back, please! It may be what we need, tonight! PUT THE ENTIRE MAVERICKS TEAM ON YOUR BACK, @Luka7doncic, IF NEEDED, like the goat Michael Jordan did! In late third quarter and early fourth, that will be the difference in the game, IMO. Y'all let down, then. STOP IT! #DoItForDallas!!!

(5/4/22-2)

IF Dems want to defeat GOP in 2024, I'll help them do so. If they don't want my help, I'll help defeat them, too, with a third party. It's their choice. The GOP MUST be splintered into the far right, and all others join a new centrist party, to punish extremes, and all non-far righters unite.

#VoteBlueIn2022 As a lifelong GOP, I will, now! May still vote for a few good GOP's, if such can be found.

GOP: Tries to conduct a coup Jan six Trump 22K lies in office UNjustly stack SCOTUS as a discredited political wing Claim s 2020 election was stolen Support ALL these sins (BELOW) But white "Christians" are to be GOP. BALDERDASH!

EVERY RINO and #NeverTrump GOP better vote Democrat, for 2022, IF you care about America over worshipping sin! We will create a centrist third party you will be much happier with, ASAP. Until then, all far right GOP politicians are the enemies of America. Vote accordingly! #Independent

Liberals—HERE IS REALITY: The white church is mainly Laodicean. Financially rich, and spiritually poor. They will NEVER obey I Tim. 6:17-19, if they get rich. They are worldly enemies of God. BUT THEY GO TO CHURCH, so they FEEL all is well with them, morally!

They believe slavery didn't keep back the black American group AT ALL! one paper gets signed, and were equal. ANY repair of centuries of damage is favoring blacks and harming whites' jobs. And browns are destined to be laborers (for some reason). They name Jesus, to cleanse all of this!

God says one can own enough, therefore one can own too much. Not FOR CONSERVATIVES! and in white churches all across America, pew sitters are brainwashed that to be a Christian, vote "conservative." Chase money and go to church to atone for that idol! THIS IS U.S. CHRISTIANITY!

The immoral pervert dumb-A is trying to poo poo education he will never have, and could never get! #AlwaysBeLearning! He's proof, ignorance is bliss, and bad! INSTEAD of wasting my time, updating this tweet every day, with hashtags and trending terms, I will just leave it here, and leave you there.

Under-educated Matt Gaetz needs to edu-ma-cate himself!: 19% of evangelical women had abortions. Fool! <https://gutmacher.org/article/2020/10/people-all-religions-use-birth-control-and-have-abortions...>

Running through un-retweeted elsewhere posts, and it's refreshing I care ZERO about addressing any religious professional, or even their false deeds or doctrine! Won't waste time educating how wicked people can be, even in Jesus' name. Just had enough of the subject!

I don't care to post about extremist politicians, either. Sin in D.C. IS the playbook! My ONLY goal is retweeting enough good content, that all that can be seen is retweets, so this account can go dormant, until the Lord gives me my next big move! Unfortunately, many more retweets to clear my timeline!

Complete burnout on religion and politics achieved! NOT with walking with Jesus, or knowing what the solutions are. Business-focused, for awhile. Adjusting to no more church, after 62 years. A good one would have to come to my door, to be found by me. I won't look for it!

Lord, You know what needs to be done! IF it's NOT the 7-year Tribulation starting, Your fourth judgment is long overdue, and You said judgment begins with the church of God. #Waiting!

HERE is exactly WHY political conservatism has to be destroyed, annihilated, eradicated and defeated; NOT just barely lose elections. Before I list every reason, I must explain HOW that can occur, so no one thinks it's a pipe dream, so I'd just waste my time listing their evils:

EVERY American who isn't in the far right cult votes! Having a third party (which WILL happen) will help split radical leftists away from moderate Dems, and capture the massive middle, BUT it can NEVER help the far right. It must have common ground with leftists! Ill detail ALL that!

BUT, before speaking of the third party, or even starting one, ALL Americans MUST vote for moderate Dems in 2022. I am a lifelong GOP, born and raised. I am voting straight ticket Dem, no questions asked, and it will be the first time I've ever voted for any Dem! I WONT do that when a third party is viable.

EVERY AMERICAN has to vote against the far right in 2022! A landslide is very possible! I will tell you how you can hold your nose and do that, as well. So, three topics in one:

1. Why defeat cons
2. How
3. How to join with Dems until a viable third party starts. Here goes...

IF you vote against the far right, you are opposing all of this:

1. Stupidity
2. Sinfulness
3. Selfishness
4. Hate
5. Division
6. FAKE Christianity
7. Forcing poor to stay poor, ETC.

Poor and middle class: KNOW THIS FACT... The hoarding, greedy selfish rich (as opposed to the charitable rich) HATE YOU. They fight to ensure you don't advance, financially, unless they make more money by your advancement, UNLESS you start a business!

They have NO intention of advancing you unless you can significantly advance their bank account! They get rich off your backs and labor, folks! If they can't, they won't hire you! They just automate, or go self-service. ONLY the people who can make them richer get ahead, UNLESS you start a business!

EVERY DAMN ACTION of these EVIL people has been to hurt you and help themselves! They define the economy "good" when their investments rise. They want taxes very low, so their portfolios rise. They coddle and buy off corrupt and wicked politicians to favor them and do their bidding! They fight any government benefits helping you! YOU are their slaves, in their opinion.

It's a very nice and professional relationship, so long as you never learn everyone's wages, and see when YOU are getting screwed! They want you in debt. They want you as permanent renters, as they make money off your rent! It's ALL about them! And WHO ELSE gets life's perks more than them? NO ONE!

If someone can join their club, any way they can, They're welcome. If not, you are a peon, or as Ernst and young called you, a full-time equivalent/line item expense. THEY DON'T GIVE one DAMN ABOUT YOUR LIFE, or ability to survive! They are sitting pretty, enjoying the luxury life, so WHY would they even consider you?

They consider their inner circle of peers and neighbors and family, ONLY! It's "liberal" to think of anyone other than your family, and you compare morality ONLY by if your peers are doing the same thing, or not. THIS IS POLITICAL CONSERVATISM.

And for the middle class far righter, they HATE government taking anything in taxes, especially if it ever helps anyone else, because they need those dollars. They resent all entitlements, as they don't want them for themselves.

ALL OF THEM WISH YOU TO DIE, if you can't make it off what you make, so long as their idolized money never gets in your hands! It is, literally, every man for himself, and the opposite of no man is an island. They're PROUD of their philosophy! They hold to it far more than to the Bible they often carry, and rarely know. They are Darwinians, economically!

IT IS GOOD to be WHITE in America, as we have the best of everything, and don't suffer discrimination. They want to keep that a monopoly, so everyone NOT like us is the enemy. Indians and Asians act like us, so they get a pass! THIS IS conservatism.

You're either in this cult, or you are a threat to its continuance (in their mindset). I AM SAYING be the BIGgest threat to this cult, by voting straight party Dem for 2022 only. 2024, if no third party is yet viable! GOOD people don't vote conservative on every issue. Cultists do!

I will never in the remainder of my life vote for ANYONE who says they are Trumpers, or far right conservative GOP's! I will vote for their opponent! The GOP has BOTH sides. ONLY one side is moral. If you can't see this difference, vote Dem or don't vote! I'm against many Dem policies.

BUT step one is ending any power to the far right! THEN, those who remain (all non-far righters) can find common ground to meet as much of everyone's aims as is possible! Everyone who is NOT a conservative has moral aspirations for society.

Conservatives ONLY aspire to be rich for themselves—period. They want a society of individuals, with no one (including government) EVER considering how things fare for those this set-up doesn't work as well for. THIS IS ANTI-JESUS, even as Jesus is often in their mouth, but absent their lifestyle! Christians cannot be cons 100%!

I mean that morally. Capability-wise, they can and often are, because we have many sinful claimers of Jesus in America! Forgive us; don't blame God, and call us out every time we apostatize! Now, after a long exercise break, I'll detail exactly how all non-far righters can unite.

BUT, before that intermission, I must repeat, as people have short term memories: EVERY AMERICAN WHO IS NOT FAR RIGHT MUST VOTE DEMOCRAT FOR 2022! Hold your nose, and vote for the least liberal ones running. Vote for NON far right GOP's, if they still exist!

THIS is my reach-out to @BernieSanders @SenWarren and @RepAOC For fun, and to make up for Socialist positions, I've gone along with nicknames, like crazy uncle Bernie, Pocahontas and far left AOC. That's because I despise stealing from taxpayers to fund freebies. But let's discuss CONTENT.

ALL three of you want some freebies for the poor and lower middle class, "government" paid for. You are not asking for this hypocritically, but sincerely caring about the poor. THAT IS COMMENDABLE! Especially for Bernie and Warren, YOU don't need them, but you represent people who do!

Elizabeth had a public video faux pas of asking her hubby for a beer, and the far right never lets any imperfections go. You also FALSELY claimed American Indian status, so CHUMP called you Pocahontas. That's NOT going to go away, and unimportant!

CONTENT: All three of you CARE about people NOT in your family. ONLY false Christians could fault you for that concern! The rub comes taking funding from taxpayers. AOC (and maybe Warren) think America, historically, wronged Mexicans, blacks and native Americans, and they think money is owed as restitution. The culprits are LONG deceased!

BUT the lives of Americans in those three groups likely have some negative impact from how they could have been had America not won a war with them, or enslaved them. Your trying to remedy that disparity, to do the right thing, using "social justice" as the label. WHO can say your attempts are evil?

People can NOT want to pay for ancestors' sins, as they should despise, but your aims are morally noble! HOW to help is the issue! Modern-day taxpayers didn't cause those centuries old abuses!

You can speak generically of "government" paying back for actions government authorized, centuries ago, but government is ONLY taxpayers, when money gets involved. Let me make a proposal. Identify exactly what those three groups need, to make them historically whole.

I do NOT agree taxpayers owe them anything. But I think Americans are interested in learning what struggles they endure, more than others, and helping fix them! To me, it's a good education and a good job. Discrimination happens!

I believe some businesses LIE when they reject certain candidates, based on ethnicity or especially race! If you look or act ghetto, they're going to reject you!

If your equally qualified, they'll pick someone who fits in faster! Name the top three issues those three groups struggle with, based on not being in the majority, and let's fix them, without harming others in the process! Biden has proposed "free" healthcare, daycare, college, student debt forgiveness, and home down payment.

IT WOULD BE NICE for every American to have all the healthcare they need, own a house, have a place they can afford for their kid while they work, and have a college degree if smart enough. JUSTICE is the problem! It's NOT just to steal from taxpayers. Just solve that! I have, many times, many ways!

And get wages up, by unionizing, better skills, work slowdowns if not boycotts, and demanding (legally) profit sharing and a decent minimum wage. I can agree with you three on all these solutions to your ambitions! Nickname me anything. We NEED agreement!

Update #1: Everyone Against The Far Right Cult!?

I'm up (3am), so a third stab at the GREATEST need in America: We all know there exists the tRumpian far right. What people fail to observe is to defeat their sin and stupidity, every other American must join forces to policies that aren't far right!

I can exactly detail for you what those are, and how the far left and the non-far right right can agree! I feel it's my duty to educate on this, on every major policy!

I will now pick 10 issues the far right is adamant about, then show you common ground positions that aren't far right. IF we who are NOT far right do not unite we are allowing our differences to give the far right a chance to have power over U.S. laws!

I could not be more different from AOC! But even though I share perhaps 80% beliefs in common with some far right tenets, their taking them too far makes me much closer to AOC! My proximity to the far right is NOT close, because they demand cult loyalty to their extremes!

So 10 topics for the far right vs. everyone else... Far right tenets:

1. Taxes can NEVER be used to help anyone in America who struggles.
2. Government is evil, and no matter its words, it always hates America and wants to steal your assets.
3. Everyone from other countries is a threat to my career, coming here.
4. Pregnant women must always take to term, or be jailed.
5. Lying and thinking wrong are virtues, because free speech allows anything goes.
6. Business can't do wrong, and government can't ever tell business what to do.
7. If society doesn't bow down to the rich, our economy will fail
8. Black people who never get rich can only be said to be dumb, lazy, or both.

9. America is so different from every other nation, it would be impossible for any to ever catch up with us.

10. The Constitution is greater than the Bible. You choose the former over the latter!

IF you want to know how the far left can achieve much of their aspirations, privately (or even some, publicly), but by FAIR taxes imposed fairly on all Americans, and only after our federal budget is streamlined thin to the bone. <http://AmericanAnswers.org> details all important policies many times over!

Update #2: Centrist-Left Strategy

MORE on far left and right unity.

1. You MUST know thy enemy. It is the far right, with their sins and stupidity. Period.
2. If you know point one, everything else is secondary!
3. You can differ, greatly, but vote the same party (until a third party arises). #CommonSense Duh 101

People, PLEASE grow a brain! The non-rich FAR out-number the rich, in America! That fact alone should enable a landslide, if only the far left would moderate! <http://AmericanAnswers.org> (5/17/22)

THE GOP & TAXES

(5/5/22-2)

The GOP is designed to keep as many taxes in the taxpayer's hands as humanly possible! Taxes have to be fair to all, but many of them have loopholes, lawyers and accountants having them pay LESS that government intended. THIS MUST END!

And there NEEDS to be laws that executive salaries cannot receive bonuses for ginning up stock prices, but by actual quality of productivity! The Board of Directors' scratch my back everyone gets paid phenomena MUST end! Majority vote for this! WHO SAID Wall Street is god? NOT God!

The philanthropic rich MUST be exposed! The generous ones must be praised and identified! There's a clear difference, and the majority MUST vote to bring justice against the former, and respect for the latter. We have the numbers! NO SAFE HAVENS anywhere in the world!

DO U KNOW, taxes are off income? Nest eggs aren't taxed until one dies, or gets capital gain. That's NOT getting them to use their wealth selflessly. Jesus is coming to rule with a rod of iron. Before then, justice is what we're to seek. Many WASPS don't want it; injustice benefits them.

I'll be 100% honest—NO white person I know wants any government law making it easier for any other person to land a job the white person is seeking, based on skin color, nationality, or anything else! ONLY justice for all. But proving HR departments don't reject minorities is ~impossible.

It's GREAT to have EEOC laws. NOT so great when an HR person simply tells a minority we decided to move in another direction. They will NEVER state they don't want you in the firm due to color! Decision processes for hiring MUST be transparent to government, or discrimination WILL happen.

Literally, lie detectors are ONLY way to prove you were cheated out of a job, black or brown American citizen. Decisions are made secretly/privately! Professionals are TRAINED to never tell the candidate any words that could institute a lawsuit! I believe discrimination happens!

I, chasing the world! Church? Yes. Claim to love Jesus? Yes. Do any evangelism, discipling, Bible understanding, or work to improve society, morally? ABSOLUTELY NOT. Too busy living it up in Laodicea! BROKEN in Heaven fools! Carnals.

WHAT government policy would be just, to undo the unequal leverage of business outsourcing, importing labor, automating, laying off, contract labor, ending pensions and benefits, higher copays, and blessing execs for screwing up laborer's lives, treating them as mere budget items vs. humans?

This PAINS me to say, but I tell the TRUTH. I know many dumb Christians. Clueless about news, prophecy, the Bible. They are SO gullible about all is well, because all is well for them (subjective). I APOLOGIZE TO EVERYONE who isn't a Christian, that these types exist! ANATHEMA!

DO NOT evaluate a Christian by if they have Christian clothes slogans, hats, wall hangings and saying, say "praise the Lord," attend church, pray publicly at meals. THESE ARE EXTERNALS. Are the living moral, and do they know God? Stats say MOST don't. Prophecy sign of the times!

Fricked up brain types: Women can get Plan B. Your dumb ass laws are going to force coat hangers, poison or gut punches! This is what Jesus would do? SO HAPPY I have zero plans to ever go to any church again. They are mentally low IQ'd for a blasphemed Jesus they don't know! FOOLS.

If ANYONE in Texas ever tells a pregnant Texas mom they MUST kill themselves, to save their baby, I want their name!

IF ANY WOMAN IN TEXAS is ever raped or an incest victim, and comes to MY house to take Plan B within three days, ANYONE trying to stop her will be met with the loaded barrel of a gun that I will NOT hesitate to use. #ComeAndGetIt, in more ways than one!

IF TX bans Plan B, in person or off the internet, come to my house and we will get you it, even illegally, if between 1-3 days of unsafe sex. I will defend your right to do that (which kills nothing), even pro bono in court, all the way to the Supreme Court!

ANY HUMAN who will try to ever enforce banning Plan b within three days of unsafe sex, rape or incest, I will personally take on to defend all women needing that solution. My home is a safe haven for ANY woman preventing pregnancy this way within those three days!

IF any TX woman has sex and discovers the condom broke, ANY time after a reasonable amount of time to discover that fact she wants to take Plan B or whatever will end her unplanned pregnancy, call me and I'll take your lawsuit for your right to do it. ONLY within a reasonable # of days.

IF any TX woman has sex her contraception fails, ANY time after a reasonable amount of time to discover that fact she wants to take Plan B or whatever will end her unplanned pregnancy, call me and I'll take your lawsuit for your right to do it. ONLY within a reasonable number of days!

IF any Texas woman wants to use birth control, and it is illegal, call me and we will ensure you have access to the ability to do the right and responsible things, and not start a baby you don't want. I won't tell your priests, either!

Roman Catholic Church used to do homilies in Latin, and not make Bibles available to the masses, SO THERE WAS ZERO ACCOUNTABILITY about what was believed by parishioners. SAME THING happens when Christians don't study their Bibles for themselves in tithing, Lordship Salvation and drinking.

DON'T define it; order an amicus brief that SCOTUS has to define these terms, once and for all. They define state's rights! Lawyers know this.

YOUR STATE needs lawyers who will fight for these cases, in court! I will pay the fee to re-activate my license, to defend TX women, in the following cases. I won't waste that ~$1500 (plus CE course fees), for no reason, as I work in other fields.

YOU NEED to make an exec order, TOMORROW, that specifically defines "to the states, and to the people," in the 10th Amendment! @JoeBiden @POTUS

Black market businesses in TX will arise, to sell Plan b and chemical abortion drugs, and I'm sure they're working in overdrive, already! IF used within three days of sex, I 100% support them, and would defend them in court. @JoeBiden @POTUS

You could authorize more liberal justices to be seated on SCOTUS's next session, until balance is restored. NOT deadlock, by an even number. A proven moderate must always be in the Bench. WHAT THE HELL IS YOUR DELAY, respected Sir? I can advise you to GOOD policy!

CHURCH (Part I)

(5/6/22-2)

Under-Evangelistic Churches

Regarding churches rarely if ever fully evangelizing all nearby lost people...

THINK. I know it's a hard muscle to use, with all the video around, these days, but consider how wretched a human has to be to allow you to burn forever in Hell, unwarned, and not even spoken to, when you live just down the street!

I've never had a Muslim come to my home concerned I could be facing Hell, but their message wouldn't get me there, anyway. Same with every other method men might propose. The Bible says there's only one way out of your certain eternal future in Hell, but the people who know that one way live like mutes!

Please, briefly, understand: One sin sends everyone to Hell. If you've ever sinned, even just once, your heading there. NOT because any sin is that terrible, but it proves you are a sinner, and separated from God, from birth. You're the one who needs that proof; God already knows! He doesn't need you to prove it to Him!

The wages of sin is death! What you earn and get rewarded/paid with is not money, but death. BUT, everyone dies, so it isn't speaking of being buried six feet under. It's speaking of eternal death/spiritual death/life in Hell forever.

BUT, the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus. It's a gift. MOST U.S. Christians don't even comprehend what the gift of eternal life means or is, because they, like every other religion, feel certainly man must do something to qualify for or earn or deserve Heaven, but that's untrue.

That means that belief is a LIE, an error, a falsehood. Jesus said accept His gift like a child. Little kids aren't complicated. They naively or innocently, or not full knowingly trust what adults tell them, without detailed verification. They know how to receive gifts! They LOVE Christmas!

You don't ever have to explain to a kid that they have a gift waiting for them under the tree! Yet, MOST U.S. Christians cannot explain God offering a gift to mankind!

They focus on how the gift might get used, IF the child opens the wrapping! LUDICROUS, but almost always what U.S. pastors concern themselves with! one recently said "turn from your sin and open your heart to Jesus."

SHOW ME ONE BIBLE VERSE THAT USES THAT LANGUAGE! It doesn't exist, folks. Christians, SADLY, can be SO ignorant of God's word, it is worse than a sin! It's heresy and apostasy!

You simply believe ANYTHING ANYONE BEHIND A PULPIT TELLS YOU! the OPPOSITE of a commendable choice, like the Bereans made.

My point is I don't think YOU will EVER hear how to go to Heaven and avoid Hell or going through Bible prophecy! God nowhere commands you to find that way out for.

Update #1: Fishing For Trout Among Bass

(5/7/22-2)

THE reason pastors WANT evangelism done from pulpits is because they can control what comes next: Push for membership, and eventually 10% tithes. Having lost people hear the gospel by coming to church is NEVER commanded in Scripture. Go and tell IS commanded of Christians! Be Berean!

WHY would a spiritually-dead soul desire to attend a claimed spiritual meeting? It CAN happen, but U.S. Christians are CONTENT reaching a drop in the bucket of lost souls, if they'll come to church! Pastors LOVE increased membership often more than lost getting saved outside church!

When I was about 8, I won a picture Bible for bringing the most people to church for a revival. Churches do secular activities to "attract" lost people to their UNcommanded buildings! The U.S. Church has ABANDONED God's method of go and tell evangelism, for the most part! Apostasy!

The Good Shepherd LEAVES the 99 safe to find the one unsaved. The Good Shepherd NEVER asked the lost to come hear him speak in his business! Jesus is that Good Shepherd. We are BAD shepherds ignoring His role model for evangelism!

There are MANY good folks/stock in church. Church CAN be a good thing. Biblical church is RARE. I simply DON'T choose to attend, as two decades+ of HORRIFIC experiences with people opposing God's word (The Apostasy), but you must make your own decision. I'll watch online, if I participate anywhere.

Update #2: False Allegations & "Thinking"

HERE's how organized religion retaliates against Committed Christians who have had enough of their political B.S., and UNbiblical practice they refuse to repent of, or change for EDBS priorities. They label them lone wolf Christians, and say no one can be that. Tell that to John on Patmos Isle!

'People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care' is a rhymic statement; NOT the Bible! [And no one is showing off how much they know, just to know 5 Bible verses which make up the gospel; knowing less-ignorance-makes evangelism virtually impossible]. Organized religion wants deeds of love, so lost people can become customers.

If you evangelize lovingly, then do this if they reject, no church membership ensues!: Mt. 10:14 All about the money.

People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care is HOGWASH! NO Christian evangelized unlovingly-obeying God-nor do they seek to show off their knowledge, when they evangelize, opposite Mt. 6:1 In fact, those showing good deeds before they can speak CAN be doing Mt. 6:1!

That's TWICE I've heard from men in the ministry who told me, "most pastors are not saved. They're in it for the money." It's "prostitution of the gospel," because it's big business and big bucks now. BOTH times I said, you're exaggerating/extreme, but they were serious! (5/12/22)

Update #3: Fleecing the Flock? BE LIKE BILLY GRAHAM!

(5/13/22-2)

A certain DFW pastor allegedly gets paid $30K every time he speaks at a venue. I WANT TO SEE HIS 1040, TO SEE IF HE OBEYS I Tim. 6:17-19. I've said before, he is NOT the next Billy Graham, as he doesn't do evangelism like Billy did. That's the ONLY way anyone can fill those shoes!

I was told, yesterday, about a LOST person gifted at shaking down DUMB Christians. He had a stich/spiel, to get them to give. THERES A REASON pastoral staff salaries are usually not in Alito's standard of clear and obvious in the church budget. #TotalTransparency, or don't give!

EXCELLENT article on how Christians are to apply the Old Testament, and what parts don't apply. Not 100% specific, but EXCELLENT, nevertheless. https://baptistcourier.com/2016/02/christian-worldview-and-apologetics-why-christians-no-longer-follow-certain-ot-commandments/... Walk by the Spirit, and you'll fulfill righteousness.

Christians aren't commanded to marry their deceased brother's wife. Jubilee year applies to Jews, as with feasts. There's MUCH in the Old Testament you have to understand the New Testament first, to know how to view what you read in the OT. God doesn't lead Christians to kill populations!

There are THREE references to "tithe" in the New Testament. NONE of them reference Christians! one pastor said I can find in the OT everything in the New Testament. UNtrue! Temple sacrifices, 10% mandatory tithe, eye for an eye, and several other things improved in Christ! I could list them all.

The MOST carnal (sinful) church in the Bible had a pastor-worship idolatry sin problem! I Cor. 1:1-17, 2:1-3:17 Christians need no one to teach them-1 Jn. 2:27; they have God's Spirit! Test the spirits, and be Berean! Don't outsource your thinking to gurus!

God will judge EVERY pastor who doesn't lead his people to evangelize every lost person within walking distance of their UNcommanded church buildings, IMO! WHO ELSE is as responsible for that field? Evangelists aren't going to speak to them all, individually, or gather them all to a crusade!

Update #4: Alternatives to EDBS Priorities

(5/14/22-2)

You may or may not know, I've sworn off church attendance, in person, indefinitely, and likely forever at my home church. I'll take time to heal, to see if there's any interest left in onlining at America's great churches. There's NONE, so far. Too raw.

Let me explain to you exactly how churchianity uses the Bible to box the less astute into that system!

1. People get saved hearing false gospel requirements (Lordship Salvation). That theory ensures pastors NEVER have to lift a finger to disciple converts, and can blame converts for any lack of growth, and even guilt them into growth by questioning their salvation.

It forces lost people to commit to be good, in order to get a free gift, and they, INconsistently, NEVER teach God's standard for a disciple. You have to sell all and give all and place God above all else, even family, but they just say follow Jesus.

Half-hearted, one-fourth hearted, whatever gets one following meets THEIR criteria, and they have NEVER examined all God teaches on the subjects of salvation vs. sanctification requirements. They don't and won't because of a second trait:

2. Church is what you see your peers do—period. II Cor. 10:12 APTly describes them!

I've spend 34 years trying to right the ship of U.S. churchianity, and even in the one mega church where God broke through, there was major reluctance and resistance, and eventually evil/satanic/unbiblical politics idolatry broke us up, as reconciliation isn't available when someone chooses NOT to worship party!

3. EDDBS priorities are severely lacking in most U.S. churches, and apparently always will. The 5/10/13 problem hasn't and doesn't go away. I don't write about it much, anymore, as I've given up hopes they'll ever change their paradigm! I truly believe The Apostasy of prophecy is happening before our very eyes! Ill address those two acronyms in a bit.

4. Church is now BIG business. The stories I was told, last Wednesday, I'll reveal in due time! Amazing stories! Suffice it to say NO church exercises needed church discipline, or punishes or fires pastors biblically disqualified to serve, for not meeting God's requirements, especially about the love of money.

The "theological construct" of churchianity uses these verses to insulate pastors from any evils being revealed or punished: Heb. 10:25 Anyone who protests or can't take the fakeness/insincerity and hypocrisy and idolatry and manipulation anymore is branded a bad Christian. You have to keep in the system, to be good. Mal 3:10

Even though Christians AREN'T Jews, AREN'T living in a theocracy, where the tithe is our tax, and even though that term NOWHERE references believers, in the New testament, the assured riches of the sheep swindlers and scalpers and shearers/fleecers relies heavily on that verse. Again, you're bad if you don't tithe. Doesn't matter God says give as the Spirit leads, under grace!

3. Pastors can NEVER be exposed for any frauds or crooks/corrupt ones that exist, due to I Tim. 5:19. Therefore, give me 10% of all you make, come here regularly, and never say anything truthful about me if it's negative. THIS IS apostasy and a false Christianity practice I call churchianity!

And add in the church growth movement, and the invitational/relationship evangelism model of the 1980s, and everything that's done happens behind the pulpit!

Preach and be paid, for bodies, bucks and buildings! And be paid well, if you can attach the word "doctor" before your name. Jesus having nowhere to lay his head has NO relevance in our age of mega salaries (we hide from congregants) and gospel of health and wealth being accepted as the ear tickling worldliness that it is.

The truth is, I do want my weekend off, so Ill further explain the two acronyms in retweets. I'm having a great day, with family, at peace, enjoying nature, vs. continuing to recall all I've experienced since 1985, which would lead MOST people to stay away like I'm finally concluding I will do, in person, for a long time, and maybe forever. EDDBS and 5/10/13 explained by retweets (the most important part of this chapter):

Unfortunately, 5/10/13 was used on my website; not here, much: 5% of Christians have ever won anyone to Jesus in their lifetime 10% are fully committed to Jesus, and 13% of Christians regularly read their Bible This isn't legalism—it's the source of predominant U.S. carnality in Christendom!

Unfortunately, EDDBS is mainly addressed at our website:

E-Thorough evangelism (to a person)
D-Thorough discipling of all Christians
B-Body life (spiritual gifts used to edify the body when it's gathered)
S-Social ministry, doing good in society, like Jesus did. Now, off to nature!

Update #5: Money > Morals? Is the U.S. Laodicean Church Like the Book of Acts?

(5/15/22-2)

Stories of ministry misconduct, from personal observation or pastoral interviews...

A very good man, Don Anderson (RIP), was swindled out of a $500-1M Colorado camp he later told me he should never have bought, as it was the first time he ever did such a thing. It's the pressure to build a kingdom on this earth, like pastors keep building buildings! It's worldliness.

The AMAZING thing is the two SCOUNDRELS who legally stole it from him helped me host his Bible studies in my home in Houston (below)! I didn't know them from Adam, but coordinated his airport pickup and lodging. He regretted the day he ever took his focus off mere Bible teaching!

There was one man (allegedly dead, now) who could chant and sing in a loud way that evoked black believers to give money in droves. I've got a blessing fo' 'ya was his tune.

Pastors KNEW he wasn't saved, but he could bring in the sheaves. My own evangelism association I was with, just before moving to Dallas, was considering paying a man $500K to raise funds to have a Luis Palau festival evangelism crusade, which cost millions. ALL UNNECESSARY TRAPPINGS OF EAR TICKLING, folks!!!

It's all about the cash! False prophet for false profits. Be filthy humans for filthy lucre, as the Bible calls it. Keep the sheep too stupid to ever see the wool being pulled over their eyes! Dumb them down, so they think supporting THIS is holy.

Even Peter Popoff now selling 'miracle water' on TV, in retirement (or Joel Gregory's lifestyle, NOT obeying I Tim 6:17-19, or laying nearly as many treasures up in Heaven, by watered-down PMA theology). It's all about making them rich! YOU NEED TO EXAMINE how much mega church pastors make!

It's NOTHING like the book of Acts or the life of Jesus! Speak of 180 degree opposite! There are pastors fighting over VIP seating in restaurants, and bumping "lesser" people out of reservations, demanding to be treated as special, with their entourage/henchmen/body guards.

JUST like the Pharisees who loved the affirming greetings in the marketplace, wearing the phylacteries and parading their righteousness before men. $30K per speaking engagement. Pampered fakes! Posers. Tares. Wolves.

Christian laymen are SCARED to speak with lost people, so they outsource it to part of a sermon. Sermons are MAINLY (90+%) to saved people, who don't need evangelism! and pastors won't address your Hellbound plight if you won't come to their Uncommand building!

WHY? When you come forward, they're going to act so loving and doting, then invite you to fill out a form to become a church member. IF YOU DO, they'll want your return visits, and when you do that, KNOW a guilt trip of paying 10% of your income will befall you ever so often! Pay to play—you get the privilege.

If you can't get the gospel right, NO WONDER YOU can't GET CHURCH RIGHT! I will bet not one U.S. church has documentation that every lost person within walking distance has heard the gospel in the past 5-15 years! THEY DON'T CARE! Not my job—I'm a pastor, many say. II Tim. 4:5 refutes you.

WHO ELSE is going to evangelize those people? Do we rely on happenstance and superstition that some mysterious someone will, if we only pray? Evangelists aren't, unless those people attend their RARE-to-never crusades. WE DON'T CARE! And here is why we don't care.

Update #6: Non-Christians: Ask Christians To Prove Their Devotion Evidence!

(5/17/22-2)

"We have become less fishers of men and more keepers of the aquarium; who swipe their fish from other bowls. –Frank Page

You can't find one in 10 claiming Christians who can recite 10 Bible verses. It's NOT legalism were after, but proof they get into the word!

You can't find one in 10 claiming Christians who has evangelized two people last week.

You can't find five churches in U.S. who has evangelized all nearby lost people.

You can't find one church in 10 that actively and purposely disciples all its members, uses spiritual gifts when the body is assembled, or makes any major impact on their community, through good works (social ministry).

Pastors have NO IDEA what any given New Testament book is about, as to theme, general topics, flow of argument, or who exegetically teaches, much anymore!

I am writing to NON-Christians, knowing these terms mean little to you, but showing you prophecy signs are EVERYWHERE! In Church, the Bible says the end times will see few Christians walking by faith.

Most Christians love for God will grow cold. They'll attend Laodicean churches. They'll apostatize.

I JUST DESCRIBED all that to you! Churchianity and church as a business has replaced biblical Christendom in America! Preach and be paid for bodies, bucks and buildings!

The 5/10/13 problem and carnality are PREVALENT, yet NO ONE sees or speaks about it! Our budgets are met and our buildings and salaries paid for! You have pastors who are multi-millionaires, who I am positing disobey I Tim. 6:17-19, written to ALL rich people. Biblically DISqualified from ministry!

Update #7: Church as a Business/Churchianity

(5/22/22-2)

It's Sunday, and there's NO better day of the week for this message! Churchianity is going to church and tithing 10% Christianity is far more, and quite different! Yes, church-going is one part, but tithing is NOT! You give what the Spirit leads you to and HERE'S what church is supposed to be.

Pastors WANT you to regularly go to their business. MUCH greater chance you'll give, and they like preaching to more vs. less people, just like Kenny Loggins just said of his music concerts. They even have Heb. 10:25, to justify their desire for you.

But they have NO verse indicating 10% is required for believers! It's in the Old Testament, for Jews in a theocracy, but NOWHERE in the New testament is "tithe" applied to Christians! DON'T take ANY pastors view on that claim. READ for yourself! HERE's what would make regularly attending church worthwhile, but NEVER happens, which is one of many reasons I'm not going back: Churches are SUPPOSED to:

1. Evangelize. Take the gospel to every lost soul within walking distance of their UN-commanded (NOT required) buildings, and their fair share elsewhere. Ac. 1:8. I'm guessing ZERO church can say they've done that, or ever will. That sends people to Hell, forever!

It's the greatest act of hatred. It's ensuring fiery forever befalls people who wouldn't attend their uncommanded building to be hit up for an uncommanded 10% of their income! To Hell with everyone else; were in our holy huddle!

NOWHERE in the entire New Testament are Christians commanded to use come and hear/attraction evangelism, but we ARE commanded to go and tell! three instances exist where come and hear was used, BECAUSE:

- a) Jesus was right around the corner, physically (Andrew)
- b) The person in charge of an evangelism gathering/crusade DIDN'T know the message, so he invited friends to hear someone who did. WE DIDN'T HAVE THIS SITUATION, or excuse!
- c) Paul was too old, and very famous, so in his waning years, people came to Him to be evangelized. NONE of us have that fame or frailty combination. ONLY Billy Graham might have, his last three years of life on this earth!

2. Relational discipling of all saved church members. This is NOT preaching sermons! II Tim. 2:2 EVERY Christian is to be matured up by a mentor, tutor, or spiritual parent!

They're to get into the habit of daily Bible ingestion and meeting with God. Sermons learn NOTHING about the person. NO questions can be asked. No specific insight related to their life and Bible application. NO teaching them how to have a quiet time. NO activities shared, like a real relationship does.

There's ZERO relationship, two-way interaction, sharing of deeper things (unless we risk turning off the babes), learning what the student has learned on their own, correction, encouragement. It is mass production assembly line Christianity! Let this sink in: Jesus preached to crowds but disciplined the 11.

And the results were astonishingly different! The 11 were even known for having spent time with Jesus! NO Christians spends time with their pastor! They spend time seated next to often strangers, absorbing and bench warming. The preacher is the only one conversing!

I have NEVER heard of ANY U.S. church that disciples all its members! It's usually just a class you can attend if you're interested. FAILURE! That brings me to #3. Body Life. EVERY Christian has one spiritual gift, minimum. They are given to edify the body. The body is ONLY together as one entity on Sunday mornings!

That means the only time the body can be edified by spiritual gifts is when they gather for weekly worship! DO YOU KNOW ANY U.S. CHURCH that uses laymen's spiritual gifts during their once a week service? I don't!

Finally, 4. Social ministry. WHO in America looks to ANY U.S. church to lead any movement for good in our society? NO, we look to government, charities, activists and "woke" corporations to fund and do things to fix societal problems that businesses can't profit enough fixing. NOT churches, because we are NOT like Christ!

His entire life was going about doing good! He was known for that! There's ZERO evidence He ever asked for 10%! He fully evangelized, as did Paul. He disciplined, as did Paul. He used all spiritual gifts He had, as did Paul. And He made a huge impact on the world, as did Paul.

We are NOTHING like that, and Paul got it while we do NOT! Instead, we chase the almighty dollar god! Laodicea! And as our nation goes to Hell in a hand basket, we'll NOT corporately do II Chron. 7:14, which is NOT simply praying, but DOING what God values, as I just detailed! But were fat, happy and apostate!

I will cover this as many times as I want, as NO pastor can stop me (though they'd like to): 10% tithing is NOWHERE commanded for Christians! Mal 3:10 was for Jews in a theocracy. We Christians live in a democracy! PROVE ME WRONG! impossible. Can't stay stupid!!! "Jesus Guns Babies"

ABORTION (Part I)

(5/6/22-2)

YOU NEED TO KNOW, as the Roe decision will PROVE to you, the now far right GOP is ONLY about the richer among us keeping it all for themselves. EVERY other policy is a Trojan Horse to that innermost number one heart desire! QUIT THINKING STUPIDLY, folks, believing otherwise!

GOP ideal laws: No contraception, condoms, Plan B. Rape and incest victims forced to term. Mothers commit suicide for their child. Vegetative babies taken to term. NO SEX UNLESS TO BE A MOM. ALL rules about women's rights! Men can rape and control EVERYTHING! And baby worship/idolatry!

Didn't CHUMP get reamed for saying women should be punished for abortion, by handlers who changed that to punish the doctor? Now LA not only wants to punish the woman, they want to charge her as a murderer! CONS HAVE LOST THEIR MIND and Trump was less radical than them! Crazy party!

"Unity Party?! Unfortunately, NO rest for the weary! Do you have a new centrist third party, or can Dem far left be content not getting a radical agenda passed-ever? I tend to believe three parties are required!

The goal is the far right LOSES at getting their agenda passed, BUT they get any good things they're after. "Take the good, reject the bad." That means you don't punish evildoers by overkill, but through love by giving them what they need-NOT what they want! "In victory, magnanimity."

Two NON-right parties will likely be needed, because the far left seems to have NO limits to what they're freely for tax dollars spent on, and even if we made America morally decent in policies, they want that funded to go everywhere else! Because it's hardly their money, spending OPM (Other People's Money) is easy, though EVIL!

Update #1: Abortion & Homosexual Marriages

WHY are anti-sodomy laws not now being sought in red states? HYPOCRISY sin is why! SCOTUS is ONLY FoxNews in robes, now.

I opposed national gay marriage WAY before the #ChristianCabal I got them organized! But if SCOTUS ever seeks to overturn Obergefell, I will take that court case, because government has zero good policy role breaking up marriages and families. OLD pastors FAILED to speak up! Losing.

I will take the case of ANY Texas gay couple, if Obergefell is ever sought to be undone. Period. (and I don't even agree with your sexual choices)

Update #2: Legal Justifications for Roe's Reasonings (Viability)

(5/7/22-2)

Is Plan B harmful at all to a woman's body? IF at all, it's certainly LESS harmful than aborting (if taken within three days of unsafe sex)!

I know one pregnancy center worker Christian, college-educated, no less, who was told Plan B is harmful to women. I GUARANTEE you lying is a predominant skill and sin in GOP politics! Satan CHEERS! #RoeVWade Supreme Court Chris Christie thinks that's no problem, and NEEDS to fear Hell!

[The far right has calculated that with divided government, SCOTUS will ultimately decide all legal issues—NOT Congressional law-making...] because getting another Constitutional Amendment passed is near impossible! Justice has to occur, as well, or fighting will always follow. No justice, no peace.

Conflicts of laws occur all the time. The equal protection and due process clause could be raised as DENYING Clarence Thomas's assertion we just have to live with polar opposite disparities on who can end a pregnancy without killing anyone, three days or less after unsafe sex! Idiocy!

Changed circumstances of science detecting heartbeats is a VALID reason for SCOTUS to choose some national standard on abortion! IF they only overturn Roe, with NO national standard, I am willing to refresh my law license and sue until the cows come home, against all this B.S.:

Politicized Clarence Thomas (who I have loved, until recently, with Ginny, etc.) says We the people just have to accept what they decide. WE have to accept that "good behavior" is their Constitutional requirement, and lifetime tenure is NOT guaranteed! Accept that, Justice Thomas!!!

Dear We the people: Clarence Thomas says we have to just sit back and take whatever SCOTUS decides on Roe, apparently just like women just have to lay back and enjoy rape!

If ANYONE thinks PEACEFUL protests of SCOTUS over Roe decision might cause them to double down at ending Roe (with NO national boundaries/standards), they're proving people think Justices use politics and emotion; NOT just legal arguments!!!

I DON'T WANT ANY PARTICULAR ROE OUTCOME, Clarence Thomas. I want JUSTICE for the baby and for the mother. Period. GET BACK TO WORK, and stop time wasted crying over PEACEFUL protests. You have a Solomonian decision to address! I Ki. 3:16-18 I'll pray for you! Justice—NOT bias! Two people!

Babies are born sinners. Pregnant mothers are sinners. The innocence of the unborn is important, which is why EVERY woman should take Plan B, within three days of any sex they didn't want to result in a baby. Period. There's NO excuse for waiting longer! You KNEW you took a risk!

Clarence Thomas says women must accept the consequences of their sex. I say he has to accept the consequences of his wife on Jan 6, and his bad behavior, not publicly condemning several peers LYING to Congress, to cram their politicized solution down America's throat, because they can!

PASTORS want GOVERNMENT to force U.S. women NOT to be promiscuous (fornicate), when THEY don't fully evangelize, then disciple converts, which is how God says you curb promiscuity! GOP hates government mandates for private sector solutions? Mere rhetoric!?

Leftist EXTREMISTS won't like SCOTUS' decision, unless Roe remains, and far right EXTREMISTS won't be happy unless total abortion bans are allowed. BOTH extremes need to be significantly disappointed! Don't appease extremists! Duh 101

VIABILITY was a WISE compromise, based on science. Babies are 100% dependent on mom, until they're viable. And fetuses Can't sue or be in court, and they're NOT citizens until birthed. Now SCOTUS wants to say prior Justices were NOT wise! Arrogance! Freedom includes how you manage your body.

BECAUSE a fetus ISN'T guaranteed to be birthed, SCOTUS concluded they weren't U.S. citizens until they were born. Politicized SCOTUS arrogantly wants to claim prior predecessors were WRONG! They know better, somehow. Abortion isn't explicitly mentioned in Constitution, but LIFE and liberty are.

The U.S. citizen woman has a right to liberty, but NOT when her rights infringe on another's right to life. BUT, UN-birthed fetuses aren't yet U.S. citizens. BOTH humans have rights to justice! The baby has a right to not be killed! The woman has a right to control her body--NOT another's.

When the fetus is 100% dependent on mom, he/she can't have mom kill them! The woman also has a right to NOT have sex result in fertilization! She also can't be forced to make a decision before she's informed a baby has started! and moms should decide if they should commit suicide to save their baby.

And moms should decide if a vegetative fetus is what they want to birth! and rape and incest victims should be allowed time to decide if they want to keep the baby (a better decision); NOT be forced to term. Three days to decide, via Plan B is NOT evil, and kills NO ONE!

Heartbeat laws an IMPROVEMENT to viability, based on changed circumstances of science being able to detect a heartbeat! Total abortion bans are ASININE! Required Plan B within three days of unsafe sex would be FINE! Heartbeat law is FINE. Total bans are NOT fine. Get it right, SCOTUS

I DISagree with Bill Kristol on Retests, if violence doesn't happen and no one steps on any church or home's private property. Putting protesters where elitists want them to be doesn't get them heard by the people who need to hear them the most! I rarely disagree with sane Bill. (5/8/22)

Update #3: Morality & Aborting

(5/9/22-2)

God expects all people to behave morally. It gets NO one to Heaven. Christians, like Jesus, are to embrace morals, including public encouragement thereto, but in a democracy, the Bible isn't our Constitution--that's a theocracy! Freedom in America will find many sins; Christian aren't to participate.

IS IT inconsistent to be FOR heartbeat laws and Plan B within three days of unsafe sex? NO. Plan B could be legally required of all rape and incest victims, IF they don't want to risk pregnancy. All others must decide if want to be moms, and act by heartbeat, informed consent from PG test fail.

Why abortion services MUST be made available is for mother's life cases and vegetative state cases. After heartbeat, you are on your own, medically! The chemical abortion pill may be illegal, thereafter, in states, but people do illegal things all the time, and don't always get caught.

What is the proper penalty for violating abortion after heartbeat, when NOT mother's life or vegetative state cases? Significant enough fine to deter making it an easy choice; jail time is a ridiculous concept, as rights aren't conferred to non-citizens; unborn aren't yet citizens!

WHY would any woman decide to abort AFTER the heartbeat? What takes them so long to decide? NO good reason, but mother's life and vegetative state! Therefore, the state has an interest in discouraging such behaviors after heartbeat is passed, IMO! No reason for such time freedom!

IF contraception or Plan B become illegal, anywhere, even by online orders, secret shipments will still arrive in unmarked brown packages, and an entire black market retail for said products will emerge. Word of mouth and dark web purchasing.

IF a state disallows mother's life and vegetative state exceptions to heartbeat laws (which is WHY abortion has to be avail for those cases, vs. banned entirely), self-help WILL occur, in which case the state is adopting policies harmful to citizens' (women's) health! BAD public policy.

Am I hypocritical to have opposed national gay marriage, though I'd represent "married" couples NOT being forced to be divorced? NO. I still oppose the sex, don't call it a religious or moral marriage, but am against government splitting up families, relationships and secular "marriages."

HERE is the problem with the far right: Too much SPORTS participation in many of their youth, meaning they never accept a loss in the real world, but imagine life to be a game you simply live to play another day. Life is NOT a sport. Precedent matters. Pastors FAILED on gay marriage!

If we can un-do every law we don't like, because we can stack SCOTUS or get enough votes for our cause, NO LAW is stable, and everything is up for grabs. That's an unstable society, and God says it's chaos when the foundations aren't stable! HE is for precedent of good laws. Ps. 11:3

For ANY moronic Justice on SCOTUS to say Roe was wrongly decided, we've had 50 years for some legal experts to have identified that huge problem! States could have enacted laws to challenge it the entire 1/2 century since its inception. Arrogance and politics are motivating this!

IF ROE IS OVERTURNED, MR. ALITO HAD BETTER NEVER EVER ACCEPT HEARING ANY CASE ON ANY SUBJECT WHERE THE U.S. CONSTITUTION DOESN'T EXPRESSLY PROVIDE THE ANSWER, in which case we really don't need SCOTUS in the first place! Just apply the law! Interpretation Can't be politically tainted!

I am saying @JoeBiden @POTUS must make an executive order that if Roe is overturned, with zero national standard to replace viability standard, the high Court can NEVER rule on anything that's not expressly stated in the Constitution. Call this the Alito edict! Only clear issues!

There HAS TO BE penalties for ANY SCOTUS Justice allowing personal bias and political ideology influencing their interpretation of settled law. Period! @JoeBiden @POTUS If Congress is dysfunctional, make an executive order to this effect, today! I would!

If life and liberty of a U.S. citizen don't rise to the level of major questions, NOTHING does! It is a FARCE to say only things of longstanding tradition form the basis of U.S. law!

We have laws about high tech! That's NOT in our longstanding history, but very recent. It's poppycock!

Longstanding U.S. traditions were slavery, far right SCOTUS Justices! Same with electric chair! Maybe firing squads. Polluting at will, and women unable to vote, and blacks as 3/5th human value. Riding horse and buggy and gold-backed dollar, etc. RIDICULOUS jurisprudence! NOT legal scholarship.

YES, Amendments FIXED women and blacks negatively affected by longstanding U.S. tradition, but it is impossible to get a new Amendment, or end an existing one, in today's political climate, so traditions from back when politicians wore white wigs are almost entirely irrelevant, today!!!

Laws are made based on morals, public majority voice of the people, precedent and logic! We need red lights, because human behavior is selfish, and control or just orderliness requires laws on traffic flow. That's NOT longstanding U.S. tradition! Cars started in early 1900s! DUMB argument.

Precedent gets changed for specific legal reasons, even if such precedent stems back to longstanding U.S. historic traditions! Thanksgiving is a longstanding U.S. tradition. There's no Constitutional requirement that we celebrate it. That's NOT expressly stated in that great document!

If the age of a tradition is why U.S. law exists, our laws are NOT based on morals or logic; just what happened to be popular in the 1700s. I'm going back to bed, because it is ASININE for any SCOTUS figure to allege such absurdities! We need better legal scholars on the bench! DUH.

Roe can be changed from viability to heartbeat, based on changed circumstances of science detecting fetal heartbeats (and knowing when pain can be felt). That's a LEGAL basis for improving and modernizing Roe. It's the HEIGHT of arrogance to question our predecessors 50-year analysis!

The 1970s Court WISELY balanced interests of the mom and the baby! Viability makes sense! If you are independent, you get your own rights, because you can live without mom. To jettison all that wisdom, for politics, is EVIL! You're NOT smarter than the 70s Court! Some are stupider!

It's a negative and perhaps necessary and certainly an evil that some babies will be killed, under the heartbeat standard. But SCOTUS has TWO lives to consider; NOT just one! The innocence of the infant doesn't mean the mom is obliterated as to legal standing or rights! It's Solomonian.

total abortion bans are public policy embracing self-harm, and supporting government bans/control, which HYPOCRITICAL right wingers say is evil. The far right justifies what their ideology already says is the right outcome of every political issue!

IF ANYONES BEEN AWAKE the past six years, the GOP has zero moral compass, or consistent morality or religious adherence! Everything is negotiable, all is for power, and even cherished core beliefs can change, like mandates bad, except for pregnant women; Government bad, except for abortion.

Government spending of tax dollars is bad, except if for our military. Business can do whatever it wants, unless it's Planned Parenthood. Speech is to be free, unless it's Disney's speech about Florida laws! Cancel cultures bad, unless it's Disney. The HYPOCRISY is chosen; not job required, folks!

SCOTUS claiming Roe was bad means they are ALL complete incompetents, if they hadn't fixed a problem in 50 years of that importance! The claim defeats their own desired credibility!

Update #4: pROEtests (Roe'd Rage)

(5/11/22-2)

SO LONG as you're peaceful, respectful, only during business hours, keep going with #RoeVWadeProtest BETTER is to push for better state laws, to counter ALL bad things that could come if Roe's overturned with NO national standard, as the far right is proposing MANY crazy things!

REMEMBER what you're fighting for, and against!:

- ✓ Banned birth control/contraception, & condoms
- ✓ Banned Plan B, in-person or over the internet
- ✓ Mothers forced to commit suicide
- ✓ Mothers forced to birth vegetative babies
- ✓ Rape victims unable to take Plan B, before fertilization
- ✓ Incest victims unable to take Plan B, before fertilization
- ✓ Women forced to make decisions without notice they're pregnant
- ✓ Banning getting an abortion where it is legal (through travel)
- ✓ Criminal jail time for all aborters (punishing the woman)
- ✓ Males get zero repercussions for their involvement in sex.
- ✓ I am FOR a national heartbeat law; better than viability!

Dems should strive for a national heartbeat law on abortion! You could get Manchin! Make an executive order! It balances BOTH sides interests, with neither extreme 100% happy. That's the best you could ever hope for. #RoeVWadeProtest GET PRACTICAL. You need Senate votes, NOW!

Convinced the greatest generations NOT the greatest at all, as Esper said of aged politicians from that generation! I know many over 70 people who are as mean, selfish and ruthless, and not caring about anyone else and money grubbing as any generation. I think Gen X-Z care about morals!

EVEN IF a far left woman believes she has some God-given right to always kill her baby, before it's birthed, because she controls what goes in and out of her body, in any state where abortions are ever banned, even this evil type selfish person has to be kept safe and healthy!

I AM CERTAIN the far right has many members who think in their heart, "if you are going to kill a baby, bleed out to death, if that's what happens." It's their warped sense of justice. Or mutilate yourself with a coat hanger; that's just the consequences of breaking OUR laws! #EVIL

I guarantee you, if I had a daughter who got raped, I don't care what the law is in my state or nation: If she didn't want to birth a baby, as a result, I'd get her the undoing capacity, any way I had to and anyone who got in my way would be mowed over, including with violence!

I KNOW it's too soon, before the final Roe decision, but DO YOU HAVE PLANS TO LIMIT TERMS and CHARGE 3+ Justices for lying under oath to Congress (perjury)? YOU ARE INCOMPETENT and INEPT if you haven't started preparing for that! @SpeakerPelosi @ChuckSchumer @DNC

NO MATTER WHAT circumstances, EVERY woman should be able to make an informed decision about abortion, WHEN she knows she's pregnant (two weeks to decide). Better to take Plan B within three days of sex, if no baby had been wanted! It kills NOTHING! I'll fight for these rights.

The far right cares NOTHING about one of the two parties involved in abortion! If raped, incest victim, birth control fails, mother's life or vegetative baby, THEY DON'T CARE! Force them to term. I say force the far right to be sterilized, if we're proposing crazy laws!

The far right is proposing bans on travel to get an abortion. I am FOR those laws after a heartbeat; NOT before. They are for Plan B bans. I am only for that after a heartbeat; NOT before!

Update #5: Babies Go to Heaven; Birthed Humans Go to Hell

(5/12/22-2)

On Judgment day, it'll be too late to take your righteous anger out on people too selfish to tell you this message, unless you'd visit their uncommanded buildings, where they'll ask for 10% of your income, if you respond. PROTEST THEM NOW! They're sending you to Hell.

DO YOU WANT TO KNOW WHY NO CHRISTIAN WILL LIKELY EVER COME TO YOUR HOME TO TELL YOU HOW TO GO TO HEAVEN? Their pastor can't control what you do right after, like join the church, so afterwards he can say God says you owe 10% to his business!

Pro-life means FULL evangelism! Abortion kills/under-evangelism murders forever! Mt. 10:28 and embryos go to Heaven!

FoxNews claims overturning Roe won't make abortion illegal. TRUE only in blue states. So poor and middle class women will have to incur travel expenses. They LIE it won't be illegal in red states. They don't care rich women can travel and not suffer noticeable loss!

If it won't be illegal, what would you call total bans? Criminalized? FoxNews is as propagandist as Sean Hannity!

Update #6: Government is Bad, Except for Mandating Bans?

(5/13/22-2)

White Christians want government involved in babies' lives, ONLY until they are birthed. After that, leave them alone, until they're old enough to vote or enlist in the military. George Carlin got this 100% correct! #SpotOn

HILARIOUS! Not to mention the nine month process' effects on the woman not wanting to be a mom. Plan B before three days after sex IS the number one answer! Let's say some people want natural sex without condoms. Unnatural, comfy, I don't know.

Maybe some women don't take or want to take birth control, for whatever reasons(?). IF the woman uses Plan B within three days of "natural" sex. NO HUMAN ENSUES! Why wouldn't they?

Update #7: Ban Evangelism, as a Priorities Illustration?

(5/14/22-2)

Just to expose the sin and hypocrisy among UNprioritized claimers of Christ, libs should propose a religious proselytizing ban! 100% of them would clamor, but less than 10% of them would be impacted, if it could pass (can't; first Amendment). Expose under-evangelism! Eph. 5:11

One of my childhood friends I saw in Arizona said he had his girlfriend have an abortion, but he's against abortion. He asked me if I liked Obamacare. I said no. Abortions a Trojan horse to lower taxes for conservatives. SOME care about the babies. MANY are hypocrites; just lower taxes!

Make Christians take lie detectors! What percent use birth control or condoms? What percent have unprotected sex? What percent use pullout method? What percent use rhythm method? What percent abstain from sex, pre-marriage? They're HYPOCRITES, folks! Or they IRRESPONSIBLY have massive numbers of kids; or they aborted.

Before I head off to nature, I am certain there's MUCH Christian hypocrisy sin over Roe! It's mainly for less taxes/to keep more money! Here's my proof: ~19% of Christians get abortion VERY few Christians have had as few sex partners as myself (I married both) FEW use the pull-out or rhythm method.

I will post this now, while it is legal. I will retweet this then, if it's ever illegal.
If Roe is overturned, with no national (heartbeat) standard,

Every red state activist must, NOW, be preparing a system for:
Plan B availability for every rape victim 1-3 days after sex
Plan B availability for every incest victim 1-3 days after sex
Safe and sterile abortion for a mother's life scenario
Safe and sterile abortion for a vegetative baby scenario
Anyone so desiring before a heartbeat is detected
And/or safe, swift and cheap travel access to a blue state
Legal and available contraception and birth control (including condoms)
Speakeasy's took time to create, and were available in prohibition

Update #8: Dobson's Hypocrisy (Convenient & Corrupt)

(5/15/22-2)

READ these words from Mr. Hyde James Dobson; NOT the Dr. Jekyll who supported CHUMP, and will UNrepentantly do so again in 2024 (NEVER being called out on it, but attacking the messenger who points out truth as spiritually gifted but not spiritually mature, or hurt):

As it turns out, character DOES matter. You can't run a family, let alone a country, without it. How foolish to believe that a person who lacks honesty and moral integrity is qualified to lead a nation and the world! Nevertheless, our people continue to say that the President is doing a good job even if they don't respect him personally. Those two positions are fundamentally incompatible. In the Book of James the question is posed, "Can both fresh water and salt water flow from the same spring" (James 3:11 NIV). The answer is no.

READ THIS ARTICLE about what James Dobson said about morality in presidents. HYPOCRISY, when he overlooked SO MUCH MORE IN tRUMP! HOW can a man fall that badly? Power idolatry and satanic warfare! <https://twitter.com/JamesMeroney/status/1207914552907771904>

The decades ago revered saint hero, James Dobson, said this:

<http://ontology.buffalo.edu/smith/clinton/character.html>... READ Jimmy's standard for presidents, then compare those empty words (Mt. 12:36) with his support of all these massively more sins! (hypocrisy and idolatry sins)

Update #9: Killing is Evil (& Indiana Law is Good)

(8/6/22-2)

From a BRIEF skim read of its contents, what I read makes me 100% behind this bill! ALL I read is 10 weeks (near heartbeat length), exceptions for rape and incest and serious medical problems with the baby. Mother's life I don't know if it's in there-needs to be! AWESOME!

OH MY GOSH! I just read the Indiana abortion law article more in depth, and EVERYTHING I have been advocating for is in that bill! That would mark it as my favorite state's bill, with VA a close second! Heartbeat isn't the term used, but 10 weeks is reasonable, and closely related!

YOU—the public—HAVE to notice there's a serious difference in a living blob of human tissue that is a baby's life in growth process, vs. a human-formed fetus with a heartbeat! BOTH are a human life, but when members show, you CAN'T rip them off his/her torso! VERY evil and hurtful sin!

It was interesting to see Don Lemmon push some Dem about the Kansas abortion referendum, basically asking if it proves the voters want NO restrictions. She was an extremist, and wouldn't entertain his logical inquiry! She's FOR killing babies with NO limits! It was radical Klobuchar.

It is HEINOUSLY, egregiously, horrendously evil for ANY U.S. woman to desire to and choose to kill a baby with limbs, human shape/form, and a heartbeat, EXCEPT to save her own life or if the baby will be vegetative! OBSERVE what your choice causes that child to physically endure! LOOK!

It is negotiable, per state, what date they put on heartbeats! If a woman has enough time to learn she's pregnant, then to choose what to do next, the law is fair! 10-14 weeks will differ, in states, but they all focus on earlier than viability! That's a success SCOTUS failed at!

The devil's advocate could argue had SCOTUS not overturned Roe, IN and VA laws couldn't have been passed. SCOTUS already determined the issue was serious enough to nationalize! They needed national standards for consistency, earlier than viability! They chose NONE; hence, chaos!

Don Lemon was SPOT ON questioning radical Klobuchar on whether KS voters want NO abortion restrictions! Start seeing babies killed AFTER a heartbeat, limbs form, or partial- or after birth abortions, and that great red state will be (RIGHTLY) up in arms!

There is a difference between a human life (baby) being formed, and already formed. The heartbeat vs. non-heartbeat stage is CRITICAL in law decisions! It could never live/survive, absent a heartbeat. BOTH are sins, and killing a baby, but distinctions matter, and considering BOTH people!

CENTRISM VS. EXTREMES

(4/25/22-2)

I am NOT comfortable with any GOP run by far righters, and I am not comfy with the radical ideas Dems often tout. It's either center for me, in either party (not conforming to any ideas but my own), or a third party must rise! I'll NEVER embrace any party 100%! There NOT perfect/God!

Update #1: The Future Is Centristm

(5/7/22-2)

Many Americans (in number; NOT as much in percent) LOVE freebies! Many Americans (in number; NOT as much in percent) have ZERO interest in any poor person's plight, especially using tax dollars! I have so much more to say, but I'll let you digest on this concept first, before continuing.

BUT, they have NEVER been offered values morally superior to theirs! (centrist party). Over time, the centrist party will fight the far left just as vehemently as the far right, and fight on BOTH flanks/fronts! Die hard extremists don't quit.

I know GOP's. They WORSHIP their party identity more than Jesus Himself! They will NEVER vote for any Dem, but they MIGHT vote for a Centrist party, IF God intervenes to open their eyes to seeing the evil we all-excepting them-already see! It's emotion. It's a belief that GOP values are ALWAYS morally superior to Dem values.

Opposing the GOP'S far right is job number one. Ensuring enough voters turn out for at least one of the two parties, to ALWAYS defeat the far right/GOP. I will again say, I will NOT assume the GOP will always stay far right! I have hopes and prayers they return to their senses, but if CHUMP loses in 2024, he or one of his progeny will likely be there to battle in 2028!

So how can the far left learn that America will forever reject tax dollars funding non-taxpayer lives? Maybe only experience of losing elections! That's why I believe three parties are necessary! How would they interact?

I'm NOT calling for there NOT to be rivalry between Dems and Centrists, exactly over that distinction of funding people off tax dollars! I am saying that rivalry can NEVER allow room for a GOP/far right victory! It would be better if we were all one BIG party!

Centrists WILL suck up everyone who isn't extreme! That's a super majority in America! Especially, the disinterested and nonvoters. Dems CAN occupy this position, IF their far left branch accepts less than their ideal! If not, to Hell with them, forever! People don't want to fund other peoples' lives. Period!

A centrist third party would relate to the Dem party (and any open-minded far righters). NEVER allow one of the two to become a spoiler, allowing any opening for a GOP/far right win. By the way, if the GOP repented, this scenario would change! I'd even become one, again, but it's looking highly unlikely they'll repent.

Update #2: Tax the Rich More so Poor are Taxed by Life Less?

(5/7/22-2)

What's JUST about me paying for your lifestyle? NOTHING! Centristm IS the answer! If lefties can't accept that truth, Dems MUST jettison lefties and join a new centrist political party. Period. Lefties aren't going to start their own new party, IMO!

Taxes are the ONLY way to get these matters solved, where taxes are FAIR to all (same suffering; NOT same percent), and enough to cover government needs. Enough voters can vote for freebies, but they're UNConstitutional!

Taxes enough where the feds budget is paid for is ALL we can hope for, beyond charities! And IF we tax the rich more, it CAN'T be to fund freebies, but only to empower self-sufficiency in EVERY American!

The rich have no challenges. They don't suffer. They have excess. That doesn't mean it can be stolen to help others! It CAN be taxed away-if fair-to fund things that force an outcome of all Americans being financially self-sufficient. That's NOT freebies. TIRED of subject!

Here's the MAXIMUM you can hope for, and the MINIMUM you can require. Safe place to live, non-harmful air and water, good public education, minimal healthcare to stay alive and somewhat healthy, a job you qualify for, paid fairly, and safety from becoming a crime victim. THAT IS ALL, IMO!

BUT you have to EARN it! You can't demand it, and not be maxed out at a full-time job! The centrists MUST oppose ALL extremes! Freebies and zero concern for actions toward the poor, privately! Force 10 hours of patriotic civic service on civilians, if they won't do so voluntarily! I'm FOR it!

BUT conservatives will sue to SCOTUS that that's government forcing people to do something NOT explicitly in the Constitution, vs. banning certain behavior. They fight helping others every chance they get! That's why they can never be in power. Period! You can't have one dime of my money, or one hour of my time!

I'm FREE! I can be as selfish and greedy and hoarding as I damn well want to be, even as a "Christian," because the Constitution "trumps" my Bible. Again, centrists and leftists MUST jointly always defeat these sinners! I'm done with this topic for today!

Update #3: Fighting the Far Right

I don't care WHAT sins ANYONE has ever done (excepting murder and rape), but everyone who has been in public service will get a second chance in our third party centrist administration, and we will have your back against those trying to lessen you by always bringing up dirt, to deflect eye LOGS.

Vow: I will never return to the GOP with it predominantly far right! I'll start a centrist third party before compromising to joining the far right. I'd be a Dem, rather than join the far right. Hence, I will NEVER be far right! IF the far right changed, they can come to the center.

ABORTION (Part II)

(5/9/22-2)

I had always pretty-much respected Clarence Thomas, because he was on the Bench, as a black male and conservative (blacks usually aren't conservative, percentage wise). That was before I heard him speak (decades after his Coke can refutation/denial).

When he said the people just have to take what we dish out (said another way), the arrogance was condescending (just like Sarah Palin allegedly thinking Air Force 1, or 2, was hers to fly wherever she pleased). BUT when he said people have to accept the consequences of their actions, he will NEVER be pregnant!

There are costs, pains, life interruptions, doctor visits, time off work, etc. And especially for rape and incest victims, it is NEVER a consequence of their actions! I lost SO MUCH respect for him, last week! His wife hasn't faced ANY consequences for paying to ship rioters to execute a coup or insurrection!

I don't give one damn if he's black and at the peak of his profession, now! You can think and speak stupidly, even when at the top! Period! And as to #TheView having a gal say it's an oxymoron to be black or brown and GOP, apart from religion, RICHES are usually the only reason we have the Ben Carson's of black conservatism.

They want to hoard their wealth from government, like every other rich person does, unless they're more Dem-leaning! There's NO biblical tie between wealth and godliness, and GOP purposely chose Ben because racial identity politics is ALL about fighting wealth used to forcibly help the less fortunate, which is often entitlements for black and browns, for whatever reason they often are the recipients.

SAD to see my lifelong reverence for Clarence tarnish, by his opening his mouth! Should have stayed more years MUTE.

Childbirth and pregnancy are about the ONLY decision in life you live with such severe consequences for so long, for a split second decision! EVEN MARRIAGE takes a five minute "I do," yet Clarence is NOT banning all divorced, which are UN-doing marriage's consequences. HYPOCRITE!

I'm CERTAIN, before Clarence was on SCOTUS, someone hired him to minimize the consequences of some legal circumstance they found themselves in! That's the lawyers JOB! They're NOT evil for hiring one, to minimize the costs and consequences! and birth control PREVENTS consequences, dummy!

I HATE lawyering's boring details, which is why I don't practice. I can't imagine doing it full-time. BUT, after this SCOTUS Roe debacle, I'm absolutely convinced even I could do their job, at least as well, as we see it's NOT great legal scholarship needed; just a political opinion you can justify enough to vote for (or even not justify well, but you have the power where no one is over you to correct that decision).

My point is I am now for ending lifetime appointments to the Supreme Court! I never was before these idiots showed their true colors; NOT black.

It was a GREAT teachable moment for voters to see how QUICKLY Justices can conclude, without serious deliberation! I've come to MUCH better solutions than the far right on the Court, but it's taken MONTHS of analysis! They didn't take months! Many other cases to consider! Deliberative?

They'll say abortion was made up as being in the Constitution, so Roe being errant was an easy decision. THEN WHY WERENT YOU HONET ABOUT THAT POSITION DURING YOUR CONFIRMATION HEARINGS, liars?

You didn't conclude that for the first time in your life on this MS case! You studied the 10th Amendment in law school, as did I. And you're political conservatives, so it's one of your key political values! I HATE liars!

The Court tried to balance BOTH interests. These political HACKS have no interests in blindly balancing the scales of justice! So, respect gone! I can do your job! and I have NEVER had great interest in the leftist Justices, because they support leftist causes!

@POTUS @JoeBiden MUST make an executive order there will be four cons four libs and one centrist, or SCOTUS' rep is gone. I would make that order myself, today! 3, three seven three is also OK!
#JustDoIt

Maybe science can extract fetuses, and artificially replicate pregnancy process, and you go on with your life and let conservatives handle all the related costs and consequences of them preventing your using Plan B before three days of sex, or knowing you're PG at a heartbeat!

EVEN AS I am against abortion after a heartbeat, and wish people wouldn't even do it after three days of sex (that kills NO ONE, by Plan B), women who choose to break state laws to abort have to be safe. Coat hangers, gut punches and poison are NOT safe, so a black market WILL arise, IMO!

It was a SAD week when Clarence Thomas too black people BACKWARDS, as to all other people respecting his having achieved the highest tier! Live with our decision, and live with your consequences were SUCH stupid words. Should have STFU, vs. open mouth and prove Pv. 17:28's truthfulness.

Better to Remain Silent and Be Thought a Fool than to Speak and Remove All Doubt, Clarence Thomas!

Update #1: Leaked Roe Draft

(5/9/22-2)

My youngest son cleaned his room, last eve. He brought down 40 coat hangers. Does anyone want to deliver them as a gift to the Supreme Court? I'll donate them, in honor of Clarence Thomas!
#RoeVWadeProtest #RoeVWade

AMAZING to learn this article was published the same hour I wrote the exact same thing! "Great minds think alike." Clarence Thomas speaks, shows a profound lack of self-awareness
<https://msnbc.com/rachel-maddow-showwith/maddowblog/clarence-thomas-speaks-shows-profound-lack-self-awareness-rcna27896...>

The leaked Roe draft decision makes it hard for a change to it to be seen as anything other than caving to the loud mobs! #RoeVWade #RoeVWadeProtests and that makes SCOTUS look even more political (vs. legally deliberative) than they already are! But it also makes them think twice.

THIS account SAYS don't ask me about abortion. There's a REASON. Most people didn't go to law school. Had you, Constitutional law teaches that SCOTUS takes conflicting lower cases that are important enough to not have severe diversity of rulings.

It's a sliding scale, that must rise to another level of importance, where intervention is needed, with conflicts of laws. SCOTUS made a national viability standard in the 70's. People argue that isn't expressly in the Constitution, but Justices INTERPRET that document!

If interpretation wasn't necessary, neither would be their job! Abortion isn't stated in that document, nor baby's rights, before birthed! It's ALL subject to interpretation, based on legal principles. Mexicans don't get U.S. legal rights, as they aren't U.S. citizens. Babies in the womb can't sue, and may not get birthed. So, no standing before U.S. courts!

If anyone alleges viability was arbitrary or capricious, they're simply disingenuous FOOLS! It was wisely and well thought out/deliberated! Women were having abortions in one state, and banned in others. Equal protection was LIKELY a consideration, as to that disparity!

HOW can a right be deemed "Constitutionally protected" if it isn't in red states but is in blue? That's irrational! So SCOTUS set a standard. Viability is NOT expressly stated in the Constitution! Heartbeat isn't, either. These are legal theories to apply freedom rights and right to life!

Mothers have both. Unborn babies aren't deemed citizens, yet. Yet, they have some rights to not be murdered! Cons side with the baby; libs side with the woman. Blind justice requires BOTH sides be heard and get their rights enforced.

Your rights end where mine begin! I think SCOTUS did a VERY admirable job come up with science-based viability! I also believe they will do an excellent job determining science-based heartbeat national standard, as circumstances have changed with our ability to detect! NO standard is chaos, and NOT equal protection on a BIG issue.

Were literally exactly where we were pre-Roe! A heartbeat standard would p-so off both sides, which is probably how you know you made a great decision! NOT catering to any extreme! LESS babies might be killed, but less abortions will be allowed, as well. #Compromise/balance.

I have a 401K. Because I trust God, I NEVER inquire as to its amount! It's professionally handled, and when I will need it (apart from tax times, Apr 15), I'll pay attention to it more detailedly. I'm in it for the long haul. GOP's literally have faith in money; NOT God, in MANY cases!

HERE is GOP in a nutsHell: I have a 401k. Politicians owe me making it bigger. NOTHING in politics matters as much, so everything is based on it growing. Anything else doesn't matter as much. That's why many Dems (the ones who DON'T have 401ks) don't buy a "great economy" based on stocks rising.

IT IS ALL ABOUT THE 401k, for GOP's! Even Ukraine angst is about tax dollars spent, which means taxpayer dollars. Roe is a moral cake icing to this heart idol! IF Dems agreed to ban all abortions, GOP's would never vote Dem, as it is ALL ABOUT THE MONEY!

Update #2: Male Impregnators Go Scot free?

Concerning Plan B within three days, heartbeat law, birth control, mother's life and vegetative babies, she is 100% RIGHT! Anything more, and she is wrong.

IF you analyze GOP proposals, they'd like women to have no birth control, Plan B, or men condoms, so sex always results in babies, even for rape, incest, mother's life and vegetative state babies. Sex can only be to become a mom, and men can always have their way!

IF you analyze GOP proposals, en toto, they'd like women to have no birth control, Plan B, or men condoms, so sex with women always results in babies, even for rape, incest, mother's life and vegetative state babies. Sex can only be to become a mom, and men can always have their way!

What is the criminal charge for any male impregnating any American woman, who takes Plan B within three days of broken condoms or failed birth control? If murder is what she could be charged with, what about the perv? #RoeVWadeProtests Justice for men and women! No justice, no peace.

I'm not willing to be charged with murder, for any male to get his jollies with me, sexually, if Plan B is banned, so NO sex for them, until that gets resolved. -ANY sane American woman!

#RoeVWadeProtest participant women: IF you reject giving any man sex, for quite awhile, you might have a lot more males who will open up their minds to any valid arguments you have. Fight fire with fire! They will NOT handle being denied too long. Try it. Ref: Joy Behar's idea!

Hey, we're good with using abortion to lure DUMB Christians' votes, but DON'T mention any other Bible concepts in politics, like I Tim. 6:17-19 and Levit. 19:15, as we like to use God like toilet paper, to keep My 401k doing well! -The Far Right Far right is WRONG; God knows it; do you?

The far right's ONLY concern in politics is protecting My 401k. GOD says life is NOT about what you own, YET they use His blasphemed Name to push for hoarding their selfish greed to never benefit another soul outside their family into perpetuity! Lk. 12:15 Jesus isn't far right, folks!

Christian fascism LITERALLY tries to make the Bible our Constitution, and God's commands lost people's personal moral duty. B4 God, they are. Before Uncle Sam, they aren't! In America, Uncle Sam sets the laws. Always, men also live B4 God! This isn't as complicated as many pastors make it.

I Tim. 6:17-19 says Christians are to tell (all) rich people to generously give back. He does NOT tell us to use government to dictate personal moral choices in a democracy! And evangelism is their need; not moralizing from Christians! Everyone has a say in what our laws are—NOT just us.

Would I join a pro-life or pro-choice march? I'd bang BOTH of their heads together, and tell them their extreme thinking is MORONIC! I'd probably take THIS sign, pray for them, and reprove the dumb Christians worshipping ambiguous slogans and 1-liners. I'd be kicked out by both groups.

Are you WADING and wallowing in the sludge of chaos and clashes, or ROWING the boat above it? Centrism is the solution for Roe vs. Wade! <http://AmericanAnswers.org> INjustice is opposite to God. People who ONLY care about the baby, and not the mother, are seeking INjustice, and vice versa! Mic. 6:8

His prerogative to so believe. I simply disagree, if it's civil, peaceful/non-violent, and only during business hours: President Biden criticizes abortion protests at judges' houses <https://bbc.in/3P7BPxp>

If anyone has the audacity to make rulings in ivory towers, that directly affect so many people, with no accountability to those people, they have to have their lives face the reality of what they are academically deciding devoid of any relating to the consequences

What if you're a total selfish schmuck, and enjoy killing your own unborn, after they have a heartbeat, you're a procrastinator, or arrogantly believe the child has no rights? Should you have physical pain if you kill it? YES! Just not death or serious injury from a coat hanger.

What's this Roe stance doing to lost people's willingness to hear claiming Christians tell them about Jesus/how to go to Heaven? LIKELY a millstone hung around our necks is preferred to the stumbling block many are placing over UNjust and unneeded extremism! REPENT, fools! God judge them!

The stereotype of Christian stupidity is being reinforced by radical, unneeded and unjust extremes over abortion, ONLY focused on one human's interests. Well-earned! DO NOT HOLD THEIR SINS AGAINST JESUS, ALL OTHERS! He is NOT stupid like many of them are!

It should not be a cross in front of activist churches, but a symbol of a baby! Fetuses go to Heaven, but LOST birthed humans evangelicals fail to evangelize, unless they attend church (where the tithe can be enforced) do go to Hell.

If ANY American woman gets pregnant, doesn't want to give birth, and seeks Plan B before three days of sex, I will do everything in my power to get you Plan B, and I don't care if it's illegal to do so, in ANY state! It kills NOTHING, pre-fertilization! Many Christians are stupid on abortion!

ASK CHRISTIANS HOLDING pro-life signs:

1. How many people have you evangelized?
2. How many Bible verses have you memorized?
3. Have you been discipled, or discipled anyone else?

4. What's your spiritual gift you use in ministry?
5. Do you have regular quiet times?

This borrowed meme is far too nuanced for most WASP evangelical voters to comprehend. They're to love God with all their mind, but they prefer only with their heart! #Apostasy

MEN DO NOT UNDERSTAND morning sickness, labor pains, cravings, nine months of growing pressure, doctor visits and costs, work interruptions, new wardrobes, sleep interruptions, tiredness, nausea, or ANYTHING about pregnancy. Only how to start it! #RoeVWadeProtests I DON'T think you do!

I am amazed. I have three kids, and I asked my wife what pregnancy was like, and she added three traits I never knew (and I lived through it): Nausea, sleep interruption and tiredness. Yet, men want to tell women what they're allowed to do with pregnancy a man had just as much involvement in starting!

My support for the #RoeVWadeProtests does NOT change any belief I have on the subject! I still have NO room for any aborting after heartbeat, except for moms life and vegetative babies. You don't have to be for life, and against protesting for Plan B within three days of ANY sex! DUH.

There is NO REASON couples need to abort, unless birth control or condoms fail, mom's life is at risk, or a vegetative baby is discovered! Plan B within three days is always available, and kills no human!

Women may not know they're pregnant. The moment they learn of that, they should ONLY have enough time to decide on aborting, from that date to the date a heartbeat is discovered. Informed consent, vs. forced motherhood and forced taking to term!

1970s SCOTUS was FAR superior intellectually, justice-wise, pragmatically, sensing public opinion, knowing legal theories and argumentation, and keeping politics OUT. They knew the 10th Amendment, but saw tension of two people's rights, and didn't take it with NO interpretation or implications.

Update #3: Do Males Get It? (AKA, 13-Year Old Rape Victim Forced Out-Of-State)
(5/10/22-2)

Women 100% have 100% control of their own bodies! The baby growing inside of you is NOT your body, but another human's body. #RoeVWadeProtests The ONLY question is when does he/she gets rights, separate from yours? 70s SCOTUS said at viability. Doesn't "NEED" you anymore, then!

I feel horrible for the 13-year-old girls who aren't yet old enough to vote – but are being told by GOP men like Brett Kavanaugh, Ted Cruz and Marco Rubio that rape/incest is an “opportunity” to give birth. I hope you all find it in you to show up to the ballot box this November.

FOOLS can't understand THIS:

Babies want to be birthed.
Some pregnant women want the opposite.
BOTH are humans.
BOTH deserve their rights respected.
Justice & balance requires BOTH's interests be considered.

Any woman whose birth control fails, within reasonable time to discover that fact
Any woman whose partner's condom broke, within reasonable time to discover that fact
Any woman raped, who wants to take Plan B within 3 days of that crime
Any woman the victim of incest, who wants to take Plan B within 3 days of that crime
Any mother who is told by any authority, she has to commit suicide to save her baby
Any mother who discovers her fetus will be a “vegetable,” within reasonable time of that discovery
ALL others, who get pregnant by negligence or non-diligence, you are on your pwn!

YOUR STATE needs lawyers who will fight for these cases, in court! I will pay the fee to re-activate my license, to defend TX women, in the following cases. I won't waste that ~$1500 (plus CE course fees), for no reason, as I work in other fields.

I AM FOR:

- ✓ Innocents being allowed to come to full fruition of life!
- ✓ Informed consent: Women being forced to choose within a reasonable time of discovering they're pregnant (1-2 weeks)
- ✓ Heartbeat laws, where the baby doesn't feel your killing, but earlier than Roe's viability
- ✓ Plan B within 3 days of unsafe sex, broken condoms, or failed birth control (it kills no one)
- ✓ Mothers deciding if they want to commit suicide, to save their child
- ✓ Mothers deciding if they want to bring a vegetative state baby into the world
- ✓ Planned, safe sex (there's never a need to abort, if you have smart sex!)
- ✓ Contraception (it's the only responsible option, except perfect rhythm or pull-out methods)
- ✓ Married political extremists minding their own sex lives, or having one for once (1 Cor. 7; Song of Solomon, etc.)

Frick-ups (I won't type the needed cuss word) are proposing: 1. Crimes for certain online searches for Plan B 2. Penalties for leaving your state to get an abortion elsewhere These frick-ups HAVE TO BE SOUNDLY DEFEATED back to the Stone Age!!!

"Christians" have ZERO impact on society, they chased their money idol since 1980, and now they want BIG Brother to enforce sex rules they are incapable of convincing anyone to accept. You can't outsource your duty to evangelize and disciple to the government, FOOLS!

Those posting at #RoeVWadeprotest SHOULD read our sound rationale found often at #RoeVWadeprotests If you want moral and logical ammunition, not just emotion, see our posts, there!

SINCE the far right is proposing CRAZY state laws, I'll propose:

1. ANY man who rapes ANY woman gets hung up by his nuts!
2. SAME with incest villains! If America is going to go crazy stupid, let's go all the way!

SINCE the far right is proposing CRAZY state laws, I'll propose: Any person who gets Plan B to women (within three days of sex) where it's banned gets paid well by their own state!

SINCE the far right is proposing CRAZY state laws, I'll propose: Any man who gets a woman pregnant, who didn't want to become a mom, as a result, gets criminal jail time!

SINCE the far right is proposing CRAZY state laws, I'll propose: Any person charged for searching out Plan B, online, who gets charged with anything automatically gets pardoned by any democrat President!

SINCE the far right is proposing CRAZY state laws, I'll propose: Any mother forced to commit suicide, rather than her baby dies, gets an automatic plane ticket to a state of her choice where that is NOT the law!

SINCE the far right is proposing CRAZY state laws, I'll propose: Any woman who discovers she has a vegetative baby, and can't abort it, is automatically given a plane ticket to a state of her choice where that's not the case.

SINCE far right is proposing CRAZY state laws, I'll propose: In ANY state where contraception is banned, EVERY woman who gets pregnant, and didn't want to, gets a plane ticket to a state where abortions legal, any time before heartbeat.

SINCE far right is proposing CRAZY state laws, I'll propose: In ANY state where abortion is banned before heartbeat, safe but illegal clinics in that open where everyone can access one within 150 miles. Arm them to the hilt with guns

SINCE far right is proposing CRAZY state laws, I'll propose: Every red state has to mandate metal chastity belt string bikinis for all women between age 12-43, to prevent even rapes from causing fertilization.

SINCE far rights proposing CRAZY state laws, I'll propose: ANY man who might impregnate a woman not his wife, has to be castrated, only in red states. What's good for the goose is good for the gander! Prevent conception in BOTH sexes.

SINCE far right is proposing CRAZY state laws, I'll propose: If condoms or birth control fail, in red states, women can't abort, but the man who used it can't be free to impregnate another, again. JAIL time!

ANYONE for abortions after a heartbeat is detected, defend your position logically and morally, with the ONLY exceptions being mother's life and vegetative babies. You CAN'T! (5/11/22)

Update #4: Talking Abortion on Twitter

(10/28/22-2)

I am testing Twitter AFTER Elon took over. Because this video doesn't show up in my feed, unless one reads the article, no penalty ensued in the past, but did when I revealed its contents.

This is Abortion | Abort73 Video https://abort73.com/videos/this_is_abortion/...

It is a child you are choosing to kill, when you abort. Here is but one picture of the aftermath of that sinful decision. I am testing to see if the new Twitter punishes telling the truth (below).

I would EXPECT a warning of graphic content on that post! NOT a warning to me, that if I don't delete it, I will be in days-long time out. Let's see if anything happens, now that @ElonMusk is in charge.

SO LONG as I can get away with it, here, I will post excerpts from this video (which I was unable to do, pre-@elonmusk). I am NOT posting the worst pics I can find, to upset people's stomachs. There are worse ones in that video!

HEARTBEAT should be where mom's rights (to make an informed decision, knowing if they are pregnant) ENDS! After that, if their lives are in danger, or a vegetative baby is discovered, those are the only two valid exceptions, IMO!

Moral con artists, I mean conservatives, are ONLY vindictive, now, and NOT pro-U.S. business against all competitor nations' business, like Josh Hawley/WHORE-ly punishing America's great treasure of @Disney. THESE FOOLS have to be landslide! NOT just a win, to gridlock, again! DESTROY!

The far right is in a race to stupid and sinful, to get the vote of claiming Christians who have very little knowledge of their religion, and often even less involvement in what it teaches for them to be doing! Marco Rubio God weeps; GOP cheers! NOT the party of Him!!! #Apostates

Little to nothing CHUMP proposes CAN be done, though promised, as he has NO means of breaking D.C. gridlock, or the talent to unify anyone. We do. #TRUTH! Truth Social

To rebut the fool, liar and thief (orange oaf):

1. America First came from MY America number one posts from years ago (THIEF)
2. He wants taxes too low to do what government has to, to appease people who never want to pay any taxes.
3. Low regulations can mean hurt employees. ALL depends on specifics/case by case.
4. I proposed NATO was ripping us off. This FOOL steals ideas from me! NO brain power, without my posts over the years. letting him in on this site, then Melanie hating "book writers," as I scold the FOOL, regularly!
5. America rich? I said America number one in ALL areas, including morals, which he gets an F in.
6. The Second Amendment is hardly under attack. Reasonable measures to make guns safer are just that—reasonable, NO gun-grabbing, like Beta proposed!
7. Great healthcare is his WENT NOWHERE promise to offer to Americans! He never even proposed a plan in four years! He may mean GREAT for the wealthy who can afford it!?
8. Energy independence is Sean Hannity talking through his puppet! If America has zero Middle East involvement, through oil and other business, chaos and destruction will reign, or Putin and Xi will!

9. Parental control is fine.

"TRUMPISM," as some call AMERICA FIRST, is very simple: Low Taxes and Regulations, the most powerful Military, Tariffs & Taxes on other countries who have taken advantage of the United States and which will make the USA rich and debt free again (if countries want to "take" from the U.S., they must pay for the privilege!), protection of our under siege 2nd Amendment, GREAT Healthcare, Low Energy Prices through Energy Independence, PARENTAL POWER on School Boards, "LIFE," STRONG Borders, & more!

10. "Life" means banned Plan B within three days of unwanted sex, forced births of rape and incest victims, forced suicide of moms, forced vegetative babies, and all sex is only for baby making. It also means banned contraception. It's ludicrous sloganizing, without detailing what the slogan entails.

11. Strong borders was MY idea.

12. Debt free is a mirage/MYTH, for at least 15-20 years! Don't believe serial LIARS! This FOOL can't think, were it not for my writings, and now talk radio advisors! DEFEAT HIS LYING, STUPID, STEALING A-S in 2024!

Update #1: Are Liberals More Publically Moral?

(5/11/22-2)

Selfishness (Christian carnality vs. disciples), lack of Jesus' empathy, and a general uncaringness is the ONLY way people can ignore the hood and barrio, and many whites purpose to never step foot in those areas, not just from fear that it's dangerous. DON'T want to know ostriches! #TRUTH

I have spent MANY days in the ghetto, the past year. I will be damned if any Trumpeters going to ever tell me those people are living the life God intends for them. They are very joyous, usually, but American history has NOT dealt them a great hand of cards to play. NOT their fault.

Country people are self-sufficient. Everyday joe is hard-working. NEITHER want to give money to help poor blacks and browns. BUT, you have to honestly ask yourself why are they poor, and in poor areas? DO YOU CARE TO LEARN THE ANSWER? It's historical, ultimately. NOT laziness or low IQ, always.

Libs have bad ways to fund, spend too much, are all too happy to spend other people's money, and aren't fiscally responsible. That's SUPERIOR a vice to lusting for money, only for self (anti-disciple attitude), and not caring one damn about U.S.'s poor-just tells them to work harder and get a job.

Update #2: The Constitution Requires Causticness?

(5/13/22-2)

ANOTHER example of far right/"conservative"" inability to nuance, a TX ad says Biden is anti-oil. Wanting pollution lessened, as with oil spills, and more movement to renewable energy, while being pro-oil (as I am), is NOT opposing oil, but oil alone, FOOLS!

APART from abortion, this cartoon meme sums up the two sides EXACTLY! EVEN Hannity tried to say being rich can't be defined, and we need to focus on individuals seeking jobs; NOT the entire economy on who needs jobs and who has jobs open! Me, me, me!

Why the far right LOVES the Constitution: It has zero express or explicit words allowing wealth redistribution. That means they can help no one outside their family, get as rich as humanly possible, and feel they're good people and patriots! God disagrees, which is why they hate talk of Him.

Conservatives NEVER want to help anyone else! They're never rich enough. Taxes are always too high. Minimum wage jobs, where business holds all the cards, is always their only solution for everyone they refuse to help. "Christian?"

I have in my hand a political ad saying vote conservative. That term will always have me vote different, seven today's, the furthest complete opposite, and here are a few reasons why:

1. We already know the CRAZY ideas they hold over abortion extremes. Literally, insane.
2. They work hard, trying to get rich, but if they do, they aren't famous for giving back. I spend lots of time in the hood. ONLY if you never go there can you never think about the poor, or care about the poor, or want to do whatever you can to help the poor! THEY NEVER GO THERE!
3. They ALWAYS help cops solve crimes, and they parrot low taxes. NO definition needed, just a slogan. It's all about the money-keeping it all for myself, getting as much as I can, and never letting government "steal"/confiscate any. Low taxes, life, free market. These words move their emotions to action! NO nuance. Pure stupidity.
4. The second Amendment, to them, says anyone can own any weapon of any type, in any capacity and quantity, for any use, no matter who they are, what they don't know or what skills they don't have, including criminals and crazies, or even babies. Serial numbers may help cops catch criminals, and cons CLAIM to be pro law and order, but don't you force me to have a gun registered with any 666 number on it!

And, again, they CLAIM they're for law and order, but they're FOR going around the law by buying loopholes at gun shows if not online or self-manufactured guns. They live in FEAR and hatred of government using red flag laws to become gun-grabbers.

5. They HATE government, unless it does things their way, like forcing all women to childbirth! DON'T force me to wear a mask, in a pandemic, but it's OK to force others in medical matters! NO consistency, no morality, no intelligence.
6. They HATE government spending, but beef up the military, and they're ALL FOR government spending! DOES ANYONE SEE THEIR STUPIDITY and HYPOCRISY?
7. They, literally, don't like poor Latinos wanting to live here! I don't want ANYONE accessing social services they never paid in on, or voting for them, but it's literally

ANYONE coming into America from the southern border that triggers them.

IF our economy needs cheap labor, make the immigration process faster and cheaper, IF we need them! It's not like the "total Muslim ban," AS IF all Hispanics or Muslims are "mainly criminals and rapists," as their Great MAGA King literally stated.

STUPIDITY and IMMORALITY, and lack of nuance, and Hitler S.S. lock step boot licker loyalty demanded. THIS IS CONSERVATISM, folks, and why on May 24 my entire family will vote as extreme Dem as possible, to balance their evil ignorance!

[RE: A Carson City resident mad when I mention laws should keep Lake Tahoe water clear, if there are ever too many boats polluting it]: Here's what's interesting, to me, about far right conservatives (among other things): "Freedom" means NEVER allowing any restrictions by "evil" government. I'm sure that WEAK woman doesn't want her lake polluted to a murky brown color; she just hates government acting to prevent that! DUMB. (8/6/22)

Update #3: Trump (Later) Leaned On Talk Radio

(8/24/22-2)

When Conservatives ever mention the U.S. Constitution, MAINLY it's for abusing the first, second and 10th Amendments! Let me deceive and lie (free speech), own any and all guns, and never allow government to do anything, even by voter desires voted for, except what it stated 200+ years ago!

Conservatives are DESPERATE to keep gridlock and near even election results, because if they ever lose bad enough, new Constitutional amendments could be passed, like their foolish belief the feds can NEVER redistribute any money. "And to the people," idiots! It's in there! READ.

YOU need to KNOW what we (including liberals) are up against! Fox News says CHUMP is 26-0 in endorsing winners, so far.

1. That rallies GOP's on the fence, who want a W more than anything else in all of life, besides money.
2. That crowds out DE Satanist, except for VP slot.

That means he is, by far, the GOP nominee front-runner. What YOU need to know is tRUMP will LIKELY "pivot" (hypocritically play an act) and try to be a nicer guy, the next go-round. A leopard can't change its colors, and HE said his shtick wasn't an act, but was his true self!

HERE's what YOU MUST know. His ideology is the following, as he got it from talk radio pundits (the GOOD parts he got from myself). Far right beliefs are:

1. Free Speech means you can say absolutely anything. They're probably too DUMB to know even SCOTUS says you can't yell fire in a movie theater. But now that they have UNjustly stacked IT to be a GOP political arm, NO precedents are safe—anything goes!

That's why Social Security, Medicare, military insurance, Welfare, unemployment insurance, workplace safety laws, overtime, consumer protections are ALL at risk! ALL (as with gay marriage, right to contraception—EVERYTHING is subject to a new Judicial review, because we have a far right High Court).

2. The Constitution is god and God's word, the Bible. Dan Patrick said as much, and NOT one Texas magazine or newspaper I submitted my rebuttal article to has positively responded! BOTH medias are very biased to their particular party, and want NO place for a competing CENTRIST third party!

THAT means throw away your Bible teaching you how to live! ALL Americans have to do is obey our Constitution.

And it teaches chase money and NEVER use any of the money you use to pay taxes to help anyone. Period! That selfish hoarding decision is HOLY, because it's law-abiding, patriotic, and what it MEANS to be an American! Make as much as you can, any way you can, and the feds should not interfere. Cons HATE all regulations!

3. Business and money-making are life's purpose, and are god. Business can do no wrong! The entire purpose of any business is profits. ONLY profits! Environment, people, society BE DAMNED if they EVER get in the way of ever more profits! I'm describing far right ideology, folks!

4. Ban ALL abortions! Rape and incest victims? RE-VICTIMIZE THEM! Mom's life? Force her to commit suicide! Vegetative child? Force that family to fund a life support-ending period of time for a child who will never have a real life! It's EVIL, folks. It's conservatism in purest form!

5. The skies can be black with soot; the ground can be contaminated with cancer-causing chemicals; the seas can be barraged with caustic chemicals that kill off all sea life. THAT DOESN'T MATTER if business can make profits during that process! Period. NOT business' concern!

6. A "good" economy is when stock markets are rising and 401K portfolio values are increasing. DOESN'T MATTER about 46% of Americans aren't invested! DOESN'T MATTER! The perks of the rich getting richer will, someday, "trickle down," like peeing on the little guy! THIS is conservatism.

7. "Freedom" is the catch phrase, because it's never defined! It's held to mean the right to do whatever you like or want, with NO government restraints, or that is "tyranny," anti-American, and government trying to "control" every aspect of your life. God disagrees, but WHO CARES? NOT cons.

I think I'll restrict myself to six points, because a heightened six is soon coming! 666. I believe more than I ever have that a certain person is THE anti-Christ, and his rise to power comes from people's craving to "win" at all costs, including moral costs! In my reading of Psalms, four times.

I read verses instructing Christians to value morals over money. WHO in their right mind would accuse CHUMP of being a success at moral achievement, rather than monetary achievement? He has made his spiritual bed, and now he has to lie in it. God's judgment is also all through Psalms!

Getting RIDICULOUS! You say TRUTHFUL things about MAGA Republicans, and if it's negative or critical, they now can feign righteous indignation that anyone would dare say such things, when their groups character has lacked for YEARS! It's fake and a defense mechanism—they got nothing else. (8/30/22)

Update #4: Davis' Dumb Decisions

(9/1/22-2)

BECAUSE wayward Christian Mark Davis was touting political conservatism as perfect (it's NOT), and therefore God's ideology, lets reiterate that I could defeat him in any debate, including using the Bible, and he supports MANY sins, and will never debate, from cowardice SIN! Wussy!

Debate me-any day-on whether my writings on centrism, and the Bible, are more or less biblical, reasonable and God-honoring than your worshipped political conservatism, claiming Christian, @MarkDavis! @keratx @NBCDFW @wfaa @CBS11 @Fox4 WUSS out in your echo chamber—instead? II Tim. 1:7

JOKE of a serious "Christian" (as personally told to me by someone who knows him from their shared Christian high school) Mark Davis says you're either a lib or a con, and you just have to decide which camp you're in. BULLHONKEY! That's a "Christian" saying accept bad things—don't oppose them! (9/1/22)

Update #5: How The Far Right "Thinks"

LET me walk you through the mindset of a far right conservative, who is NOT a cult member, or idiot. They truly believe theirs is the only Constitutional viewpoint to hold. Therefore, everyone else is anti-America.

They believe that document says NO infringement on religion or gun ownership, or free speech, and that 10th A disallows any wealth redistribution, and that "abortion" isn't found in a word search of the document, that national defense is called for in there, and that a great economy is needed to sustain our people. They also believe if anyone wants it any other way, you must amend the Constitution. NOT vote.

They also know such Amendments would be virtually impossible, in our polarized day, so they can hold these views as the only right way, forever. BUT we vote against them anyway, as they are wrong! How? Voters have a say in what happens in America, by who they vote for and what they stand for!

And SCOTUS interprets that document, which doesn't disallow a range of strictness or literalness to its words' intended meanings (original intent). Our Founding documents DO say a government by the people's consent, and we are to strive for a more perfect union, seek justice for all, and the 10th Amendment does state to the states and the people.

THIS is where the "Constitutional conservative" loses both his marbles, and his argument. STUPID blinders-on interpretations from brainwashing!

Radio talk jerk, CLAIMING Christian Mark Davis said "this is how we get things done:" We fight, one party wins power; the other dusts themselves off to fight another day. IF THAT'S HOW YOU GET THINGS DONE, WHAT EXACTLY ARE YOU GETTING DONE THAT LASTS PAST YOUR HOLDING POWER, idiot?

Talk radio DJ, Mark Davis (so-called "Christian") ACTUALLY said, if you want to know if a policy is good,

1. Is it articulated well by a conservative, or,
2. Does it get liberals riled up?

THIS IS BRAINWASHING, and NOT what God says! You evaluate policy content compared to the Bible! (9/5/22)

Update #6: Take Over America?

(9/7/22-2)

One post said government's job is to help the people, presumably as opposed to business. WHERE is that idea from? Politicians are to ensure the citizenry is doing OK, but "help" usually means steal from taxpayers to hand out gifts to strugglers! That's NOT just and it's NOT government's job!

My one minute of talk radio listening had a called claim there are one million ex-military in America, and "we could take our country back." EXACTLY who took over our country-and when? The FOOL blamed bureaucrats (swamp). Violent implications to his suggestion, though he poo poo'd Civil War.

Update #7: Far Right Ideology

(9/7/22-2)

HERE is why the far right is so adamant they are never wrong and always right. THIS is their ideology, and it is clung to in light of believing U.S. already has way too many things paid for by taxes, so their beliefs are the law, God's will and the only patriotic position, to them!:

1. Business is only for profits, and that statement is moral. NOTHING they do for profits is holy, because it's for profits
2. Living your life for riches, and as many as humanly possible is moral, and keep it all for your family, because this is godly, in their minds
3. Oil is how America was built, we'll always need it (true), so if pollution happens in any amount, that's just the cost of doing business. Greener is OK, but NOT if it ever costs anything by business profits or tax money lost for the cause. But DON'T say were anti-environment! We care, but take no action
4. Guns basically replace any trust in God (even though you can do both), and you can never have enough, or any too dangerous a weapon. We probably should be allowed tanks, bazookas and F16s, based on the well-regulated militia clause. Every American has this right to arms-no exceptions
5. America was founded by mainly whites, and that majority is going to shift, but the far right will do anything and everything NOT to let that happen, including banning any immigrant POC's, except Indians and Asians. They aren't this bold in their motives, but these are their idealized actions
6. Cops and the military rule, and can never do wrong, or if they do, just brush over it, because we've got to show them full support, because they protect us
7. Taxes need to be as low as humanly possible, and NO human should ever be helped by government in any struggles they incur!
8. Free speech means you can say absolutely anything, which means you can lie with impunity
9. Freedom of religion means we can make life hard for second class LGBTQs and ban all abortions, because God said don't kill 10. Military can never have enough funding or stuff-to keep us safe.

Again, the far right believes the U.S. Constitution teaches these 10 principles, and anyone who ever varies from them, to any extent, is the enemy, anti-American, an America hater, a supporter of leftist Dem Socialists, and shouldn't be in the GOP, especially if they are politicians. DOGMA!

Update #8: You Can't Unite With Separatists!

(9/10/22-2)

It is IMPOSSIBLE to have unity with people avowed to NOT unify! Amos 3:3 It takes TWO to Tango! and Kumbaya unity is not going to happen in America, except briefly, if we are attacked like 9-11, or WW 1 and 2! However, I'd LOVE to see the MAGA Americans come into the mainstream, by facings a few facts:

1. Your belief system is NOT God's—100%
2. It's not even 100% Constitutional, as the only option
3. You will NEVER control all the levers of power, indefinitely/forever, meaning you will lose. It'd be better to agree on permanent GOOD policies! Yours aren't that.

Far right (mainly) only cares about solving problems if market rate ROI/profits can be had in the process! Otherwise, they hope and pray charities can do the job. They could gain a modicum of respectability if they offered private solutions to the following:

Pollution, sex slaves, illegal border crossings, illegal drugs, crime, poverty, racial discrimination, hatred, Communist expansion, inflation, identity theft, hacking trade secrets, traffic, and a host of other challenges America faces.

Invent products that solve them, as you HATE government trying to!

Update #9: America First!?

(9/13/22-2)

America First!

First militarily

First in morality

First in economy

First in innovation

First in democracy

First in honoring God

First in solving problems

First in being world's lead superpower

First in world-class education, and everything else!

NOT SURE that's MAGAs meaning! America number one!

Update #10: Don't Tread On Me

(9/17/22-2)

Political conservatives want nothing from government but military and police protection! They even want public school funds to fund their private academic centers of learning! They are content that their finances are fine, so leave me alone, and don't tread on me! Ultimate selfishness.

Update #11: "Freedom" To Sin?

(9/23/22-2)

I am SO SICK of the term, "freedom." Fake Christians use it in politics, and define it exactly the way the devil does! Government has NO RIGHT to restrict me in any way (that's tyranny) and I can do as I please in a free country. Gal. 5:13; I Pet. 2:16 CARNALITY CONTROLS U.S. CHRISTIANITY!

The far right is FOR worldliness, selfishness, greed, hoarding, love of money, exploitation, caring about no one else but family, license labeled freedom, the poor struggling severely, injustice, hatred, division, and often blaspheme God, by invoking His support of all these sins!

Far right political conservatism would have NO PROBLEM with one man owning everything, if he or she did so legally! And if charity won't fix a problem in society, and businesses can't profit enough fixing it, THAT'S A GOOD THING. Let it continue forever! JUST make money!!! (9/25/22)

Update #12: Some Rich Need to Learn God's Command!

(9/29/22-2)

Some GOP's HAVE to start considering if everything in America is subject to maximized profits, including schools, healthcare, and other basics everyone needs to survive, actual Americans would be priced out of the market, and have to leave America, or maybe die! Life's NOT all about money! Lk. 12:15

People like Jeff Bezos and Elon Musk NEED to LEARN that God says life's not all about money, and you can own too much! Luke 12. He encourages giving back, and commands Christians to tell them to do so, so I'm telling them to do so-NOT just get divorced and let your wife do it-I Tim. 6:17-19

Far right conservatives want so little gov't (AKA so little taxes) that government is mainly police and military, to protect their stuff. They believe they have enough money to pay for everything else they'll ever need in life, so "why can't everyone else do as I've done, financially?"

Update #13: MonEy, MonEy, MonEy (& Me, Me, Me)

(10/10/22-2)

For the conservative, EVERYTHING is about money! If anything needs fixing, if it costs money-NO! If it makes society better, safer or cleaner, but costs money-NO Presidents are judged ONLY by how their 401K's perform, and how much they pay at the gas pump! #TRUTH! #GoWokeGoBroke

CONSERVATISM

SINCE I'm in the business of making my most important topics the first reads at Facebook, lets address the modern GOP, and the concept of "conservatism." That word used to be OK by me. Now, it has come to represent all of the following:

1. Total, national abortion bans (coat hanger, anyone?). No RESPONSIBLE birth control. No mercy on rape or incest victims. NO brain power, to comprehend NOTHING dies using Plan B within three days of sex. Extreme, self-righteous, dumb!

2. Guns. Where would Jesus' days have been without them? (Answer: where they were). NO limits. Personal arsenal and private militia owning tanks, F-16s and bazookas! Background checks for criminals and crazies seen as bad, as with gun serial numbers, so cops can trace crime weapons. Dumb, again.

And allow gun show and private purchase loopholes, so NONE of those great regulations impact us. Red flag laws seen as evil, to warn society of potential postal persons. And requiring proof you can adequately use and keep safe your weapon? Evil, to fools, as well!

3. Taxes have to be as low as humanly possible. Government can't fix anything, or do any good, as that's only MY choice to do good, and I usually choose not to, if it involves anyone outside my family (family worship, opposite Jesus). Doesn't matter if the feds can pay their bills!

Government is evil, and stealing/confiscating, and don't ask the rich to pay their fair share, because they pay amounts larger than others (because they own and earn more than others, do-dos). ALWAYS cry for lower taxes. It wins you votes, among "conservatives."

4. The American Dream IS biblical worldliness, in many if not most cases. Yet claiming Christians vote "conservative," because we are Laodicean and like James four and Ecc. 1-3 (rebellious apostates). Try to Christianize sin, like abortion covers for greed and idolatry, as a Trojan horse.

5. Freedom means government can't tell you to do anything, except pay taxes and go into the military when demanded. THIS is their idea of "patriotism! Do whatever I damn well want to do is freedom, and aunt nobody going to tell me otherwise, as I fight for my rights (NOT my responsibilities)!

6. The rich can never have enough. That's the goal in life! Pursuit of happiness, defining success NOT as God does (Josh 1:8), but as the satanic world system does! Lk. 12:15 Let them control everything, and abuse others for profit, and government favor them, OPPOSITE Jesus! Levit. 19:15

And label the good ones as "self-loathing," for seeing the wisdom in using some of their excess to help society or others outside their idolized family values crowd of me and mine. Hoard everything, then keep it "all in the family."

I think six is a well-deserved number of imperfection, for this bunch. Ultra MAGA (far right) is intensely conservative, so this chapter should end with 666, not 6, IMO! "Conservative" just means let rich and especially whites rule the roost, and keep all our money to ourselves—in Jesus' Name!

In keeping with my theme of most important topics at top of mind and list of Facebook chapters, I am NOT writing on Lordship Salvation heresy, as it was fully covered in a website chapter called "Discipling or Lordship Salvation?," at Campaign Updates button!

Update #1: Christ Is For Hoarding?

For many conservatives, abortion is a Trojan horse to morally cover what "conservatism" is mainly about! It is making as much money as humanly possible, no limits/never enough, always fighting any government interference (get it any way you can), worldliness and anti-disciple greed and idolatry, living by sight (Ecc. 1-3-like), attending church and tithing, to cleanse the guilty conscience! Let the poor suffer!

I'll NEVER help them, or let my worshipped dollar bills help them, but will ALWAYS vote for less taxes, and supporting businesses screwing the little guy, by a 100% UN-level playing field! Layoffs, automation, increased copays, contract labor without benefits, pro illegal immigration (lowers wages), outsourcing, mergers and acquisitions, streamlining, government policy favoring those who fund politicians (the rich), DISOBEDIENT to God.
Levit. 19:15

Robotizing/AI, monopolizing markets, pushing debt and rental abodes, jacking up prices during inflation, making money off money (vs. work), good 'ol boy hiring who you know vs. beat qualified. EVERYTHING about far right GOP is against middle and lower classes Jesus cared MOST about.

Non-Christians: If you want to know what's wrong with the U.S. Church, read the book of Acts! Take notes, and make a comparison T-bar of what you see in both. There's NOT a lot of overlap! The first century was far smarter and far more committed!

Non-Christians: Christians SAY the love the Bible. If for no other reason than to prove that claim often lip service, READ the New Testament, and see if their claim matches their behaviors, when NOT in a church building!

Update #2: No One Can Tell You How To Run Your Business?

(5/26/22-2)

THIS is an important topic for the U.S. majority voters who are NOT management or ownership: Hierarchical companies structure opportunities and pay structures to favor the favored! If you're low on the totem pole, that's not just by experience, but by design! Case in point:

The company I am seriously considering suing (among others) has an insider memo I probably wasn't privy to, but got from STUPID staff, that says all the company leads go to their managers, and the biggest ticket leads go to the corrupt owner. I was a threat to him, as I targeted them!

My point is conservatives say government can't tell me or my business what to do—it's MY business. BALDERDASH! Government is charged with bringing about justice! I assure everyone who's an employee, someone's profiting off hiring you, unless you're in IT, legal or accounting! Re-read that!

And conservatives are NOT interested in justice, but profits! Fair taxes, fair wages? NOT the language of the conservative! They WANT unjust leverage over employee wage and job opportunities! They WANT too few jobs and too many workers! Justice is their enemy! It's Jesus' friend! EVIL!

Update #3: Christians Are For Justice?

YES, Pv. 22:7 says the rich rule the poor, and Mt. 26:1 says you will always have the poor, but let's look at what ELSE God says on the subject! first, the rich ruling is an OBSERVATION; not a command, or obligation of society! Who's to say the majority can't vote that NOT to be the case?

As Christians, we are to be working at bringing Thy kingdom's traits to this earth, until it comes in the Millennium. Imperfectly, but actively! Justice is its preeminent trait. There's nothing innate in a rich soul to make them a leader!

There ARE rich leaders, but there are also poor and middle class leaders, and there are MANY rich people who ONLY got rich because someone else died! Imagine that! They did NOTHING to get rich, but inherit! That's earning wealth? Hardly! That's self-made? No, that's self-doing nothing more than living and awaiting a windfall!

And there are MANY black and brown Americans who will NEVER have any inheritance. WHY IS THAT—ask yourself? When we trace back through history, we often find the answer! You can't carry on "generational wealth" when there was none to begin with! and ask yourself again: WHY IS THAT?

Slavery and for the brown man/woman, just the way history treated them when they immigrated to this great country. Low man on the totem pole, mainly because they did not fluently speak the language of American commerce—English. Dish washers, house cleaners, crop threshers, etc. Low jobs.

And with that lack of English came the lack of a solid education, as they were being taught subjects mainly in English. So, back to our subject of what else God says about the rich (who get all life's luxuries/perks, special treatment at restaurants, deferrals from dangers in war, better financing of things bought on credit, like cars, tax loopholes, access to supposedly better education, separation from the rest of us in nearly any endeavor they pursue, by gated communities, exclusive private clubs and golf courses, IMO driver separation from real life, driving, hands off interaction with real people illegals at Martha's Vineyard, other people doing their shopping for them, before they could do so over the internet, butlers and nannies to raise their children, homes with the best scenery and sites, hand-me-down luxury vehicles, Ivy League schools, UNjust political influence, and lobbyists none of the rest of us enjoy, the finest of everything, sometimes not even paying a penny in taxes, as a business owners' money they never have to exert effort at earning, as their money makes them money, government bailouts during Covid, or sub-prime failings, corporate welfare-when corporations need help the LEAST of all U.S. entities-laws protecting their business, and allowing them to pay people as little as humanly possible, so long as they don't undercut minimum wage, etc.

In fact, some companies get around even that rule, by no-pay internships, or restaurants paying, in part, off customer tips, with base pay well under minimum wage. IT HAS NOT ALWAYS BEEN THIS WAY, folks! In fact, in the 1950s, blue collar laborers often earned near six figure incomes in manufacturing and rust belt dirty jobs, WITH PENSIONS!

What changed? The rich started insisting on only getting their share, and no one else getting any share of the pie! ALL of the following are business and rich-favoring!:

1. Layoffs
2. Immigration (legal or otherwise)
3. Streamlining
4. Automation
5. Contract work WITHOUT benefits (save business the cost of insurance)
6. Increased insurance copays (employees lose, employers win)
7. M and A (same work, less employees)
8. Outsourcing and globalization (US labor loses; U.S. business wins)
9. Tax breaks and cuts for mainly the rich.

YES, they DO pay more in numbers than others, and even more in percent, but they are also benefitted much more than all others by the system we have freely chosen to engage in this nation, Capitalism. I said freely. That means voters-NOT the Constitution-says this is so.

Again, what does God say about these matters (I digressed, to give more background to this biased subject of America favoring the rich as heroes to be bowed down to, rather than what they truly are before God-only men and women like you and me who put their pants on one leg at a time, like us all!).

LOOK at the following LESSONS for humanity, which MANY church sermons in one's lifetime will likely NEVER cover!:

1. God says it is more blessed to give than to receive. Ac. 20:35 WE DO NOT BELIEVE THIS, especially those most able to give! We ONLY expect to make money; not "lose" it to anyone else. That's irrational, to intend to lose that which you worked so hard to gain! But God says it! Lk. 12:33, 16:9, Mt. 19:21

2. God teaches healthy loving of yourself. Mk. 12:31 BUT, a Jew, no less (Mark Levin) says generous rich people are "self-loathing." THAT MEANS YOU HATE YOURSELF IF YOU CARE ABOUT OTHERS, ever using one red dime! IS THAT WHAT YHWH (the God of the Jews) teaches? Hel-/heck NO. Just the opposite! I Tim. 6:17-19

THAT MEANS (we interpret things our public school system may have inadequately prepared you to understand) obeying God won't hoard, be selfish, greedy of suffer the love of money! Those are ALL sins. So Mr. Levin is in willful, active DISobedience to YHWH in his satanic assertion! Period!

3. God says DON'T layup treasures on earth, but in Heaven. WE DO THE OPPOSITE! WE are rebellious sinners, folks! It doesn't mean own nothing, though some of God's greatest workers owned little, like Jesus and Peter. It means prioritizing, which we utterly FAIL at. Mt. 6; Col. 3:1-4, etc.

4. God says (THAT MEANS, commands, as led by faith) do not seek money, or (warning) it will flee from you! HAVE YOU EVER heard one sermon on Pv. 23:4-5? You likely never will! READ THE TEXT, folks! Living in Laodicea, our culture rules us, not Christ! That's why the rich rule us, not justice, folks!

5. Does ANY U.S. pastor teach Pv. 30:7-9? WHY NOT? The human author prays that God would NOT make him rich or poor (the two extremes), and gives reasons why. In fact, I Tim. 6 says wanting to be rich is choosing to pierce yourself with many pangs (or pains/wounds/sorrows), YET WE FREELY RUN TO THAT WHICH GOD HAS WARNED U.S. IS HARMFUL TO OUR HEALTH–wealth!

6. Lk. 12:15 Another verse American churches would HATE, if they were Bible literate! GET THIS STRAIGHT: Life does NOT consist of what you have or own. Period. THAT MEANS you are NOT "living the life" being rich! It's a mirage/a delusion/the grand illusion!

<https://youtube.com/watch?v=nO62scTZ7Qk...>

NOT so deep inside, WE ARE ALL THE SAME! Creatures, created in God's image, and responsible to Him for how we live our lives down here on this fallen earth. Period! Ecc. 12:13 HOW ARE YOU DOING ON THAT SUBJECT, AS IT TO PERTAINS TO YOUR VIEW OF THE ALMIGHTY DOLLAR BEFORE THE ALMIGHTY GOD–huh?

7. I Jn. 2:15-17 says do not love the world, or the things in it, then proceeds to describe those things. ARE YOU LIVING FOR THIS WORLD, people? For most of us, that answer is a pure "YES! THAT MEANS we are living for the devil.

8. DID YOU KNOW, Christians are told (NOT taught by pastors, but educated by God, for the FEW who are Bible literate), to show restraint in the pursuit of money and life perks on earth. Where? I Cor. 7:31 ANOTHER Bible verse you will likely NEVER hear one sermon on! WHY? It hurts churchianity (Christianity as a business endeavor)!

9. READ Lk. 16:14-15! The love of money (not the like thereof) is a sin, but we're all too happy to engage that sin, nonetheless! In the sight of men we justify favoring the rich, but wrongly do so in the eyes of God! Levit. 19:15

Note to self, and others: If you HATE what I'm telling you, here, rip out the book of Luke, as that seems to be the main source of many verses I have addressed. You still won't be able to avoid the truth I have taught, but that is how many live their lives, anyway!

10. Ps. 34:9 Those who fear God will have everything they need. It does NOT say everything they want, which is what our culture lures you to seek! In fact, God says no one who so does will ever beg for bread.

Tell that to the homeless person soliciting on our street corners! Ps. 37:25. Verse 37 of that same chapter says God delights in the welfare of His servants! He is NOT trying to rip you off! He is the Author of good things, all of which we are to enjoy. Jas. 1:17; I Tim. 6:17; Mt. 7:10

11. Pv. 19:4 The wealthy have many feigned, or insincere friends, who want in on what they've got! Gold diggers. Yes, they often surround themselves with like-situated persons in the circles of influence, never having to deal with us commoners, but that is friendship based on socio-economic class circumstances. The rich can suffer loneliness of real people who really care about them as persons vs. bank accounts!

12. Ps. 49:16-17 Don't stress when others (often) change, forget their roots, and become a different person, from gaining wealth. They're still the same person, who will take none of those increases with them to Heaven or Hell (where MOST rich people end up)! I Tim. 6:7; Mt. 19:24 13.

Ps. 106:3, 140:12, 37:27-29; Mic 6:8 Again, JUSTICE is God's standard! Is America just to the non-rich? Vote for JUSTICE! In doing so, you are obeying God! THAT is true blessing and true "success" Ps. 119:1; Josh. 1:8

DID YOU ENJOY this Sunday sermon? If you are rich, and not much philanthropic, likely not. BUT, your response never dictates what I write! If you are poor, remember the lifestyle Jesus is famous for—caring for the down and out! He cares for you! A just society will too!

Pv. 11:28 Trust in wealth leads to failure! Pv. 18:10-12 Wealth often brings pride—AS IF YOU ARE SOMEONE! God isn't looking for selfishness with humility, but giving back/"losing" money to others, society, or both! Can I get an "amen," on Sunday? (likely not—flesh controls the majority)

I am SURPRISED "Christians" willingly go along with a political party whose policies NEVER help the poor or workers/laborers! WHY would ANYONE believe our great God favors the rich? Levit. 19:15 Bible ignorant apostate tares and carnal claimers don't care of such matters! Sinners. (9/21/22)

Update #4: Culture Over Christ

(9/23/22-2)

@betoorourke has NO CHANCE at a TX win! He HAS to walk back defund the police, and gun-grabbing, as with any desired property taxes. IF he did that, I believe he'd get close. I am 100% against him on many issues, but for punishing Abbott on abortion, he's getting this family's votes!

MANY WASP "Christians" prioritize culture over Christ, and UNjustly side with the rich over the poor, because it's fun to hang around wealthy people, and have them fund your political causes. Jesus would turn the tables, and say "anathema! They don't care what He would say! Apostates!

Some "conservative" (synonym for "unthinking") group said they're in spiritual battle with the left. GOD says we battle not with humans, but demonic forces, and evangelism is how you win over those lacking the Spirit. NOT political warfare. There are SO MANY fake Christians in America!

Update #5: Bible Warping For Political Gain

(9/25/22-2)

An article stated conservative strategists are plotting their belief system's (religion, Dr. Ed Young?) future, as pitting them as good vs. evil ("godless," Dr. Ed Young?), and needing to cite theological premises to gain support. LET ME NIP THIS IN THE BUD BEFORE IT REARS ITS UGLY HEAD!

ASK Christians you know what body life is, biblically, or what New Testament/biblical church consists of. Deer-in-the-headlights look, or a reciting of how their own church does Sunday morning will be the answer! Finally, ASK any claimer of Christ what they do to improve society for the good.

They'll likely have NO answer, or say vote, pay taxes and obey laws. That's NOT how anyone would summarize the life of Jesus. So when conservatism tries to lure these weak people to its cause, CALL THEIR SIN OUT AGAINST THEM—all in America who aren't Christian! Do so for God.

That article, again, said political conservatism's future relies on using theological terms to pit them as good, vs. "evil" Democrats and "godless" liberals. HERE is EXACTLY what YOU need to know, and to watch out for in conservatism's future moves:

Update #6: Guns Make You Tough?

(9/27/22-2)

I will NEVER understand morons who think they're tough, because they use an automatic weapon, like MGT. The GUN is tough. ANY fool can use one! MUCH more important is to be moral and intelligent, which Marjorie Taylor Green can't be accused of! Dumb, evil, and an extremist.

YOU need to comprehend you're dealing with CULT brainwashing. I got an email editorial of one PROUD they never wore a mask in the pandemic, denying 2020 election results, and suffering a persecution complex. This is what happens when confidence mixes with ignorance. How'd I get that Email?

I'VE HEARD so-called "Christians" warning that dark times are coming, so be strong, and don't let people steal away Christianity from America. THESE ARE DELUSIONAL HALLUCINATIONS! You can ALWAYS meet with God daily, evangelize, minister and be good! NO ONE CAN STOP YOU! Do you do so?

CAN ANYONE SEE what happened to Marjorie Taylor Greene? Won an election, power went to her head, especially when tRUMP gave her attention, the fame brought arrogance, backed by stupidity, and now she loses her marriage, as a claiming "Christian." Carnality does this—or being a tare. (9/29/22)

Update #7: Do As I Say—Not As I Do?

RE: <https://www.msnbc.com/opinion/msnbc-opinion/herschel-walker-win-evangelicals-are-willing-sell-their-soul-n1299416>

Morality is not something that white evangelicals actually demand of their candidates. They want their candidates, to deliver policies, judges and laws that erase abortion and same sex-marriage rights. Their aim is not democracy, but theocracy. —Anthea Butler

Morality is not something that white evangelicals actually demand of their candidates. What they want is for their chosen candidates to bring them power and prestige [EXACTLY OPPOSITE EVERYTHING CHURIST TAUGHT!]. —Althea Butler (i.e., The Laodicean U.S. Church is predominantly carnal)

I, an evangelical, do NOT want national gay marriage undone, because precedent matters! Evangelicals LOST, because they were delinquent! I told them so, before it occurred! I also do NOT want a national abortion ban. On this, Dems are my party! (10/8/22)

CHRISTIAN NATIONALISM (Part I)

(5/22/22-2)

Non-Christians: The MYTH America is a "Christian nation" would mean the Constitution says favor Christianity, and the Bible would be our law book. Kandiss Taylor is a blooming idiot, bringing shame to Jesus for her ignorance! Tell her to read more Bible and history books. "Jesus Guns Babies"

Update #1: Is America a "Christian Nation?"

(8/22/22-2)

A growing movement has arisen toward "Christian nationalism," or the belief that America is a theocracy. Often pandering politicians seek the votes of the faithful, more than the faithful practice of religion.

Our very own U.S. Constitution states that the government shall not infringe on the free exercise of religion, nor should it establish any religion. But, just yesterday, at a CPAC meeting in Texas, Texas Lieutenant governor Dan Patrick said the following:

"We were a nation founded upon not the words of our Founders, but the words of God because He wrote the Constitution."

I would like to kindly rebut my fellow believer, with the topic, IF GOD WROTE THE CONSTITUTION.

If God wrote the U.S. Constitution:

1. It would include a safety net, as God's people, the Jews, had.
2. The rich would be told to generously give back. I Tim. 6:17-19
3. Taxes would be FAIR to all, and for ALL.
4. Life's purpose would not be the pursuit of happiness, but the pursuit of God's will. Lk. 12:15
5. The document would not have legally deemed African-Americans a percentage of a whole person, or disallowed women from voting!
6. It would mandate government (and political parties?) NOT favor rich or poor. Levit. 19:15
7. It would NOT allow businesses to abuse workers, like the "anything for profits" value system of the far right. Pv. 14:31
8. If one wouldn't work, they wouldn't eat! II Th. 3:10
9. Man could subdue the earth, but be obligated to rightly manage our environment. Gen. 1:28, 2:15; Deut. 10:14
10. Seeking a 'more perfect union' of our "UNITED" States would be required of all citizens; NOT dividing and demonizing! Rom. 16:17-18; Eph. 4:31
11. The rich hoarding all their wealth would be prohibited (like those who fight the estate tax). Ecc. 5:13
12. Greed and selfishness would be illegal. Phil. 2:3-4; Ecc. 5:10
13. The first of all your paychecks would go to churches.
14. Political parties would have to reconcile, and repent of all sins!
15. Politicians couldn't accept bribes, or 'lord over' their views on abortion, by unjustly stacking the U.S. Supreme Court to their desired position. Deut. 16:19; Mt. 20:25
16. ALL extremes would be disallowed. Ecc. 7:18
17. ALL citizens would have to strive to be 'good' people. That can NOT be said of present-day political engagements!
18. Reason would rule political policies. Jas. 3:17-18 18. Public policy would be just—not biased! Mic. 6:8

As we can see, my native state's Lieutenant Governor is wrong in his assertion, and the U.S. Is obviously not a theocracy, where the Bible is our nation's civil law which government is free to establish.

Update #2: Carnal Christians Embolden Political Extremes

(8/14/22-2)

A growing movement has arisen toward "Christian nationalism," or the belief that America is a theocracy. In fact, just yesterday, at a CPAC meeting in Texas, Texas Lieutenant governor Dan Patrick stated the following:

"We were a nation founded upon not the words of our Founders, but the words of God because He wrote the Constitution."

The public MUST learn that such claim s can sometimes be effective because:

1. OVER 70% of claiming Christians are NOT fully committed to living for God, and

2. We EARN our stereotype of being gullible or stupid, as only 13% of Christians regularly read their Bibles!

HERE is how the devil plies his trade: He usually mixes some truth in with lies, like Mr. Patrick saying God wrote the U.S. Constitution (a LIE, when the Bible would add MANY more provisions), then saying we are predominantly a Christian populous (the TRUTH). See: Mt. 4:1-11, Tit. 1:12 and Jn. 8:44.

It is SIN for Christians to be gullible and/or stupid! Believing LIES that our U.S. Constitution is equal to God's word, the Bible, because Dan Patrick says God wrote it, justifies our being slandered as blind faith believers! Mk. 12:30, Pv. 14:15-16, II Tim. 2:15. Ignorance may be bliss, but IS also sin!

Pandering politicians have little-to-no interest in sincere Christian practice; they want sincere Christians' votes! IF Christians applied their Bible to their politics, they couldn't be 100% Republican or Democrat, and the Constitution would be a LOT different, from its inception, if GOD had written it!

Let's take a closer look at that claim of mine: I challenge Mr. Patrick (who I grew up on, politically-speaking, on Houston talk radio) to DEBATE ME on this, and not to remain either a coward (Rev. 21:8) or a fool (Pv. 1:7, 18:2, 26:11!

CHURCH (Part II)

(8/10/22-2)

I know SO MANY claiming U.S. Christians whose lives have NOTHING in common with those in the book of Acts! We chase the American Dream instead of the will of God! READ that book! I'm NOT asking you to read the entire Bible, today-just that one book! Few to no Christians live like that.

THAT is motivation for embarrassing or humiliating myself in a David vs. Goliath public battle! IT IS DISGRACEFUL! VERY regularly I observe claiming Christians who are worldly, and live NO different priorities or activities than what the Bible calls "sinners."

I even see pastors doing the EXACT SAME THING! MONEY is our God! That's idolatry! The Apostasy of prophecy has already taken place in America! The Democrats, of all people (i.e. often non-religious) have even noticed this fact! The Church is living a fake experience of biblical Christianity! A form of godliness.

I REGULARLY observe claiming Christian laymen who are NO DIFFERENT from lost people! They do LITTLE if any service for God! It is TOKEN, at best! It's IMPOSSIBLE to watch their lifestyles and say they are sold out to Jesus, as disciples. A LAUGHABLE assertion for any of them to make.

There is NO sacrifice, no struggle, no trials, no restraint in their worldly aspirations! They are EXACTLY as King Solomon was in Ecc. 1-3, until he woke up, but we remain asleep in the light, folks! <https://youtube.com/watch?v=prJSdB126bw...>

I Tim. 6:17-19 is ignored, abhorred and completely never taught in WASP churches! IF IT WAS, no real Christian could be in today's GOP! They fight tooth and nail to allow NO taxes to be collected, including yesterday's adulation of THIS ridiculous quote by Ron Paul:

This is where I step away and the Lord starts to speak through me: They are rebellious children of the night; apostate tares and sinful bastard children, if Mine. They have spurned and forsaken Me. They LOVE the perks of association, but never the duties! They monetize Me and My book, for.

This is where I step away and the Lord starts to speak through Me: They are rebellious children of the night; apostate tares and sinful bastard children, if Mine. They have spurned and forsaken Me. They LOVE the perks of association, but never the duties! They monetize Me and My book, for profits, not as prophets.

A fourth judgment on America! And God's men are to blame—period! PASTORS! Period! Why, you might ask? IT IS NO SECRET that anyone who reads God's Book can decipher that these are God's values and priorities for ALL Christians, yet NO church actively pursues them over sermons and tithes!

1. FULL evangelism. IF Jesus died for all men, and His message is the only hope for any man, all men have to hear that message. There's NO WAY IN HELL that job is being done! MOST laymen don't even have a clue their part in that task!

2. Relational discipling. I met a Dallas Seminary T-shirted man, the other day, and told him these four priorities, and because that school is accurate with Scripture, he agreed with my four, but that will likely be the end of it in his PhD studies on theology. WE DON'T NEED PhDs in theology, we need these four priorities DONE!

Jesus did NOT speak to crowds to mature them up in the faith as saved people! He spoke to mainly lost crowds, only occasionally evangelizing them, but mainly teaching them ethics, publicly, while performing miracles. Sunday sermons do LITTLE to produce mature believers!

Sermons are forgotten within 72 hours. Thy word I have laid on my heart, that I might not sin against thee. Ps. 119:11 Forgetting a majority MAN's words (in a sermon) is NOT doing that! ASK ANY claiming U.S. Christian to recite just 10 verses to you! Ask them to name just 10 people they have evangelized.

Ask your average Joe Christian if they daily meet with Jesus just 10 minutes! RESEARCH the statistics on carnality percent among claimed Christians! It is well above 70%, and has been since the late 1970s. 60% of U.S. Christian youth believe Mohammad and Buddha are equal with Jesus in getting lost souls to Heaven! THE SITUATION IS UNOBSERVATIBE WITH MERE HUMAN EYES, folks!

YOU see nice, new dresses and ladies fashionable hats with smiles. GOD SEES THE HEART! YOU see nicely polished cars driving ever so cautiously in church parking lots, exited by suited males with ties, an accessory Bible and a smile and handshake. GOD SEES THE HEAERTS!

And when even YOU, the lost persons of America, see claiming "Christians" voting for what's below, even YOU know The Apostasy has already occurred in America, as the Dem meme shows you have observed! (See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at page 412)

3. Body Life. Corporate/family gathering mutual edification by knowing and using people's valid spiritual gifts, on Sunday mornings-NOT elite gatherings on other days or at other hours. 4. Social Ministry. IT'S ANATHEMA TO THE POLITICAL FAR RIGHT WASPS idolize! Help NO ONE but yourself.

CAN YOU IMAGINE if the U.S. Church ever discovered these five passages, and learned that life is lived 24/7 with Jesus, which means also in our politics? I Tim. 6:17-19, Phil. 2:3-4, I Cor. 9:16/6:7 (duty is more important than "rights" and privileges/benefits), and I Cor. 7:31. THESE VERSES HAVE BEEN IN THAT GOOD BOOK FOR 2,000 YEARS, folks!

Pastors willfully avoid them, as they have NO CLUE the full counsel of God! They cherry pick! MOST of their sermons content is THEIR OWN THOUGHTS and WORDS! NO WONDER fools deem them gurus, OPPOSITE God, or anti-Christ! I Cor. 1-3; I Jn. 2:27

YES, I have a grand reason to go public with the undeniably better solutions God gave me for politics, and that is to EXPOSE THE APOSTASY OF PEOPLE CLAIMING CHRIST! In my nightmares, I was actually considering just throwing in the towel, hoping a great fish wouldn't swallow me!

It is NOT about politics! Our battle is spiritual! Satan has taken over God's Church, and Jesus remains OUTSIDE knocking to get back into our Laodicean churches! Rev. 3 WHO needs to hear this message more than the lost and dying Hellhound world who suffers from these fakes living this way? II Chron. 7:14

So YES I do have incentive/motivation to run for office. It has little to do with the corrupt satan-infested industry needing Jesus to turn its tables! It has EVERYTHING to do with exposing evil in God's Church- evils I have observed for over 40 years! Eph. 5:16; I Pet. 4:17

THIS morning's message MAY have just fully re-energized and revamped my plans for Jan 2023! I was attacking the symptoms, not the source! II Chron. 7:14 tells us the solutions! It is a spiritual battle America is suffering from, and claiming Christians are the cause! Carnal Christians, or fakes/tares, folks.

READ that passage! It's analogizable to believers in the Christian era, though addressing Jews! 1.

Humble yourself

2. Pray (ONLY one step of four)

3. Seek God's face (know Him and His will)

4. Turn away from sinful things I'd been viewing politics wrongly! Eph. 6:12 PASTORS are my targets, now.

Update #1: Deficient Churches

(9/5/22-2)

IF you are a carnal Christian, you don't know, or don't care that you face a judgment before God—NOT as to Heaven or Hell, but a judgment, nonetheless. He will ask you why you supported sin, for secular power idolatry sin! WHAT will you say, or do in 2024, apostates?

ANY local church that doesn't have a specific/intentional plan to evangelize all nearby lost people, ASAP, is apostate! WHO else is going to reach those identifiable people? You don't know they'll stumble onto a TV show preaching the gospel! Just admit your rebellion, vs. excusing it!

ANY church that doesn't have a specific/intentional plan to grow up (in the Lord) EVERY church member, by intense, short-term relational discipling, does NOT value moral and spiritual maturity over attending and giving money! It's that cut and dry. You're on one side or the other! Josh 24:15

ANY local church that doesn't have a specific/intentional plan to have laymen know and use their spiritual gifts to edify each other, when they are gathered as a body, does NOT believe the Bible, or cherry picks it, and chooses man's traditions over Go's revelation! Apostasy and idolatry.

ANY local church that doesn't have a specific/intentional plan to significantly impact society for the good (vs. for the bad), does NOT seek to emulate Christ. Period. Token gestures are not acceptable. You're either serious about doing God's will, or you are worldly. One or the other!

Update #2: Christians Sending People to Hell

(10/20/22-2)

Christians do NOT consider God's description of Hell, because they believe they're not going! If they're saved, they won't be. But OTHER PEOPLE are who you should care about MORE than even your own self! Their MAJORITY is facing Hell at any time. Repent of your apostasy. Phil 2:3-5

ANY pastor who sees NO need and had NO plan for evangelizing ALL nearby lost people to his church does NOT believe God or His word, the Bible! WHO ELSE is as responsible for their eternity? The pastors further away? IDIOCY!! Sin-full apostates caring about donations more!

TELL ME AGAIN how were committed to evangelism? Jesus died for EVERY soul. The Bible doesn't give hope God will save people after they've died! WE don't know when that will happen, or when Jesus will return. WHERE IS OUR URGENCY? It's urgently chasing dollar bills, instead! LAODICEA.

4. YET, CLAIMING (possibly NOT actual) "Christians" NEVER ask what's my part in that global effort? They don't know how many people they're responsible before God to reach! 5. No CHURCH, seminary or denomination even keeps track of who hasn't heard, or needs to hear again!

DEAL with this LOGIC, in follow-on tweets-IF YOU CAN! MOST Christians CAN'T handle this truth:

1. Every birthed human over the age of accountability go to an eternally fiery HELL, forever, unforgiven.
2. This is the ONLY way out (below)
3. Christians are the ONLY people to tell it.

I am CONSTANTLY SHOCKED how NOT ONE person or religious entity has YET seen the purpose of having a global evangelism tally system of knowing EXACTLY who is saved and who needs to be evangelized! WE DON'T TAKE GOD SERIOUSLY!

IT AMAZES ME that CLAIMING "Christians" want a nation-wide total abortion ban, for BABIES WHO GO TO HEAVEN by a forgivable sin (NOT the unpardonable sin), but not nearly that concern for birthed humans who go to Hell ensuring they ALL hear not to! HYPOCRISY and wrong priorities SINS!

"Come to our church because we have the best music, preaching, children's ministry. When you come, you'll have a great experience." When a church combines "Come to us" with "we have the best," you can be sure of two things: Attractional ministry is the draw, and consumerism is at work. -Daniel Dickard

ABORTION (Part III)

(8/11/22-2)

The SAD truth is Americans often suffer from short attention spans! So long as SCOTUS is out of session, we FORGET that the SAME Dodds ideological extremism is set to rule next time they're in session! NOTHING has changed, but time passing! #NeverForget!

Do taxpayers get their money back if a miscarriage or failure to take to term occurs? THIS is LUNACY!!! I thought the GOP was pro-taxpayer!: Georgia Abortion Law Says a Fetus Is Tax Deductible

Many Americans have NO IDEA the impact of Dodds. It is FAR beyond abortion. It is THE case which proves a majority on SCOTUS believe NO precedent means ANYTHING. That means any law on the books can be overturned. NOTHING is stable or solid, anymore, with a politicized SCOTUS! (8/27/22)

I am ABSOLUTELY for nationwide laws that prevent aborting all babies who have a heartbeat (except for mother's life and vegetative state babies). A democracy allows all voters to have input on laws, not just religious folks. That's a theocracy. SCOTUS unjustly screwed up with Dodds! (8/28/22)

Update #1: Fake Christian Pundits

(9/1/22-2)

One more thing about Mark Davis, today: He said were always happy if any Dem wants to join us in what we're doing. His practice of politics is anti-Christian! My-way-or-the-highway arrogance, selfishness, and zero care that other Americans have a say! Satanic in Jesus' Name! HERETIC

The IDEAL would be every U.S. state had a law that NO abortions could occur after a heartbeat is detected, except mom's life and vegetative baby cases. NO ONE approves of tongs ripping limbs off torsos. That DOESN'T happen when the bay is a certain shape! Just a living blob human.

I 100% oppose EVERY abortion after a heartbeat is detected, except mom's life and vegetative baby. Without a heartbeat, NO ONE can say the baby has any chance of living in this world—on its own. The heartbeat symbolizes life. Before then, mom's rights should be considered by the law.

IF there was EVER a case where an issue of national importance "rose to the level" of national standards needing to be determined by SCOTUS, it was life/abortion! The High Court intervenes when disparity is problematic on very important matters! This is legal dogma, and precedent!

Update #2: Texas' Law Needs Changing!

(9/3/22-2)

I'm going to assume if I DM'd Abbott, he wouldn't be too concerned that five Texans will vote for Beto if he doesn't alter Texas' abortion law! TX legislature is not even in session before the midterms. Therefore, unless Beto has a good chance to win, I'm voting for Beto, to protest Texas' law.

THERES A REASON a heartbeat can't be detected on one day, but can on another! In God's design, growth development evolves into a maturer state, over time. The heart is the core of a human, and is a milestone legal achievement in that God-designed natural evolutionary process!

IF you merely LOOK at the abortion procedure, from inside the womb, you will oppose it! IF it occurs before the baby has discernable appendages, not as much, or especially if no heartbeat. Yet, they're all a killing and taking of a human life. Forgivable, but sin.

An article I read said 10% of Americans are for total abortion bans. How this happened is avoiding the people's input, forcing that result by unjustly stacking SCOTUS, and state politicians claiming (LYING) their decisions represent the majority of their state. Partisan arrogant bullying. (9/7/22)

Update #3: GOP Hypocrisy Sins Over Abortion

After decades of lying that they think abortion should be "left to the states to decide" Senate Republicans are introducing a nationwide abortion ban.

Late term abortions SHOULD be banned, except for the mother's life or vegetative state cases only identifiable late term! IF your depiction is correct, I like it, but oppose no carve out for mom's life or vegetative state babies! I'd vote NO, until they got it right!

It's like career politicians intentionally make bad laws, or are too stupid and partisan to ever make good ones! Last trimester SHOULD BE off limits (even Roe had that!), EXCEPT for mom's life and vegetative baby situations. Can't ANYONE WRITE RATIONAL LAWS ANYMORE? Senate Republicans

NO American woman should be forced by the state to commit suicide, if it's her or her baby! That decision should be hers alone, before God! and NO U.S. woman should be forced by the state to birth a baby that can't survive anyway (vegetative). That ONLY causes costs and more heartache!

Congressman Jamie Raskin: Originally, they said Roe was settled precedent. Then they packed the court with their justices who were determined to overturn Roe and they did it. Then they said let the states decide and now they want a national criminal ban. (9/15/22)

On abortion, I'm pro-justice, pro-commonsense and pro-non-extremism. Governments have to take BOTH parties into consideration, with the least harm, and least drastic results. Heartbeat, with mom's life and vegetative baby exceptions! The BEST practice is Plan B within three days. (9/18/22)

Extremists on both sides! AFTER 15 weeks bans, with mom's life and vegetative baby exceptions are REASONABLE! We have to get extremists OUT of U.S. politics, on BOTH sides of the crooked aisle!!!: Charlie Crist: As Florida's next governor, I will veto any abortion ban that comes across my desk. (9/23/22)

Update #4: Politicized Pastors

(9/25/22-2)

Ed Young's comment shows how UN-objective pastors can get! Saying any abortions means God won't make U.S. great needs defining of great! We've had abortions since 1977. Has U.S. been un-great ever since? It's pushing a religious tenet as fact, for political gain. Evil, like abortions are.

I saw a Beto bumper sticker with pro-choice as sub-heading. I am NOT pro-abortion, nor pro-choice. I'm against aborting, but realize there are times they must occur. They should be minimized. The law has little to do with it! Plan sex well, and Plan B up to three days after non-mom-making sex.

PLEASE use ALL the power at your disposal to publicly air a REAL abortion of an anonymous baby after age 15 weeks-from inside the womb! You know you're one of the GOP's I have always loved! Shut down the VP's atrocious comments! People HAVE to know what they're approving!

This is Abortion | Abort73 Video https://abort73.com/videos/this_is_abortion/...

NO ONE would go into a hospital nursery or NICU, and shoot a newborn. But Democrats like VP Harris WOULD, one day before birth, with scissors or chemicals, instead of a gun! Just use a more sterile weapon. #EVIL!

@JohnCornyn: Volitionally, every American SHOULD: 1. Use birth control, or safe sex practices (plan) 2. Use Plan B before three days of unsafe sex 3. Decide if they want to be a mom, ASAP (including rape and incest victims); legally, no later than a baby's heartbeat (excepting mom's life and vegetative baby).

@johncornyn: PLEASE have two minutes of video clips of this video on a tablet, at a news conference, to rebut VP Harris! https://abort73.com/videos/this_is_abortion/...

IMO, if ANY woman didn't plan or intend to become a mom, when having sex, she only needs 1-3 weeks to decide if she now wants to! Plan B within three days is ideal. You can always get pregnant, later! If ANY doubt, Plan B within three days, or decide you want a child! A three day window is ideal.

I 100% understand why many women want to have sex, any way they choose, including unprotected. I do NOT understand how any woman believes it's her God-given right to kill her own flesh and blood, in the womb, any time she damn well pleases! #Abortion

I WILL NEVER UNDERSTAND why churches that hate abortion won't use a portable blow-up telescreen, and SHOW THIS VIDEO at major traffic times at Park and Midway! They did so for a FOOTBALL GAME!

Please explain ANY need to kill "it" after a heartbeat, except for mom's life or vegetative baby cases. I'm 100% open to learning any justified reasons.

Update #5: Crazy Excuses For Aborting

(9/26/22-2)

Folks, I am making public the replies to reasons women might get an abortion AFTER a heartbeat is detected. If you can't see how shallow the excuses are, I can't aid your gaining a higher IQ.

Responses: High school, fashion school, prom night, wedding, finances (as reasons to abort).

[Private account:] The woman in front of me is ALWAYS more important than the embryo/fetus within. If she says she needs an abortion, then she does. No panel/authority should ever be established to decide if she is right; that power would absolutely be abused.

SO, to look pretty, for a temporary occasion, or valuing women over babies; NOT as human EQUALS before God (both sinners, but also made in His image)? Did I get that right? Prom, wedding, beauty pageant, to finish high school? USE PLAN B within three days! It kills NO ONE!

IN CASE those people weaken out and delete their DMs or block me, they said: Pageant season. Prom season. Beauty school. (to finish) High school. And pregnant women are always more important than fetuses. THANKS for the replies. Eye-opening evil excuses for NO Plan B within three days!

LET ME GET THIS STRAIGHT: You can have unsafe sex, not do one thing to undo the consequences, before the process starts a human, and to look good on prom night, you'd kill your own child in the womb, so another man might be interested in you, and the process continues (most likely)?

LET ME GET THIS STRAIGHT: I didn't know there existed beauty schools, but maybe beautician training? IF such exist, you certainly knew you planned to attend, when you had unprotected sex, 3-4 months earlier. Plan B was available 2-3 days after that sex act!

LET ME GET THIS STRAIGHT: With over 60 million abortions since Roe, are 60M women trying to enter beauty pageants? To finish high school is a good answer, but it can be done at home, OR Plan B was available before three days of unsafe sex! That's the problem! Waiting too long to decide!

LET ME GET THIS STRAIGHT: Birthed adult human females are not just more important than conceived but not yet birthed humans, they alone are important? That means the baby has NO rights, NO value, and no choice in the matter, before our laws, according to the left? (Yes, that's right).

Can't find it but a news article had Biden speaking on what the Catholic church has always taught about abortion being evil. VP Harris mouthed satan, saying you don't have to abandon God to adopt the left's abortion stance. Could anyone see the horns out her head? Direct embodiment!

Morally (vs. legally), there's ZERO good reason NOT to use Plan B within three days of unsafe sex, except in mom's life and vegetative baby cases, later on, for those who chose not to PREVENT PREGNANCY. YOU KNOW if you intended to be a mom, when you allowed sex, or were raped or incested.

One more word, and back to sleep: One issue that's evil doesn't make an entire belief system 100% evil! The political left's view of abortion after heartbeat (two exceptions) is EVIL. Hoarding, greed and selfishness are also EVIL. NEITHER party is without sin, or morally dominant to the other.

Note to all women wanting to abort, and have no baby bump for prom, beauty contests and school, or to finish high school at high school: the bump is a baby, and plan B within three days of unsafe or unvolitional sex is always available, kills no one, and costs less than $100!

I have to say (because I'm the most honest person you'll ever meet, or read), there are people in the "pro-life" movement I share zero spiritual kinship with, would never want to socialize with, who do NOT obey God in top priorities, and use that issue for secular power idolatry! TARES. (9/27/22)

IT SHOULD BE ILLEGAL to use abortion for birth control, but NOT for broken birth control! PROBLEM is evidence in enforcement. (9/9/22)

Update #6: Why Heartbeats Matter

(10/3/22-2)

The Texas legislature should amend the abortion law to allow up to a heartbeat (whichever number of weeks they choose, based on science), allowing time for informed consent, but DISallowing FELT baby torture, and add exceptions thereafter only for mom's life and vegetative babies.

When babies in the womb feel pain is VERY CRUCIAL in number of weeks states decide to ban abortions (excepting mom's life and vegetative baby). It's killing, and if they feel it, torture, too. Both wrong, but two parties involved. BEST is Plan B within three days of unsafe sex, voluntarily.

When babies in the womb feel pain: <https://acog.org/advocacy/facts-are-important/gestational-development-capacity-for-pain...>

If you are going to sin, and choose to kill your own flesh and blood, at least don't let them feel the impact of your sinful choice! That's doubly or triply cruel!

People of All Religions Use Birth Control and Have Abortions <https://gutmacher.org>

99.6% of women with no religious affiliation have done so; 99.0% of Catholics; 99.4% of mainline Protestants; 99.3% of evangelical... The percent of Christians who have them is about the same as all others! HYPOCRISY!

Update #7: Birth Control is Morally Responsible!

(10/5/22-2)

Birth control is NOT sinful, but smart and responsible. PROVE OTHERWISE, from the Bible (not your opinion)! It kills no one. Duh 101

We're going to make you get pregnant, if you have sex, and were going to make you have a baby, if you get pregnant, because sex is ONLY for procreation (even though God DISagrees)! THIS IS the Christian Taliban. IF we could legally force the unmarried to not fornicate, we would!

Update #8: Countering My critics

(10/10/22-2)

To my critics who will say, you are for baby killing,

1. YOU are a LIAR! I am NOT!
2. I understand there are times babies' lives will be unjustly and prematurely and evilly taken, before they have a heartbeat. That is regrettable, but women also have a say.

3. I oppose babies feeling the impact of that sinful decision!
4. I oppose fetuses that resemble full human shape being aborted, except for mom's life and vegetative bay cases.
5. I oppose forcing all sex to lead to births, and preventing babies to be illegal!

Let's talk about my two exceptions AFTER heartbeat:

WHY should a woman, a wife, perhaps even a mom of children have to commit suicide, by government decree, in order to save the life of a sibling none of them have even yet met? Can the government force a U.S. female to killed herself, medically (vs. with a gun)? That concept is preposterous!

LET THE FAMILY DECIDE which of the two human beings they want to live! Ultimately, if the husband, kids and wife disagree, it's her choice, as it's in her body alone! What about the vegetative baby situation?

WHY should the government FORCE families to undergo a useless and purposeless process of taking such fetuses to term, when they will NOT survive, even medium-term, and will have a horrible existence until then, quality of life-wise? (not to mention the heartache and expense of such a decision)? WHY force some families into bankruptcy, for a pregnancy that will never take?

That is NOT to say the lobotomized-like existence hasn't equal human value to all other humans! It is to spare the child that misery, as well as their family, at a time where it can be prevented, if that's the family's wishes. The state should have no business in such a personal decision.

IF government tells American women they cannot abort up to heartbeat:

1. ALL sex has to bring forth kids, unless they use Plan B within three days, EVEN IF THEY WERENT EVER PREGNANT
2. All pregnancies from failed contraception would "punish" the women who behaved responsibly. Irrational!

IF government tells U.S. women they can't abort up to heartbeat:

3. Plan B would become emergency contraception for ALL sex that wasn't intended for family-building
4. Some women would choose Plan B, never knowing if they would become pregnant, in which case they may have kept their baby.

From the moment women discover they're pregnant, they need a reasonable time to decide whether to continue, but not so long that it harms the child, torturously, even though they ARE choosing to kill him/her, which is WORSE than torture, especially if the baby feels it! Heartbeat is BEST (in a democracy).

States DESERVE some flexibility in determining their abortion policies. A range from six weeks to heartbeat is in order, but always with exceptions for mom's life and vegetative baby circumstances. Heartbeat should be the latest for every state, with those two exceptions, discoverable afterwards.

AMAZING TV show for the abortion debate: Baby Surgeons: Delivering Miracles, on TLCHD. Can ANYONE tell me that's not a human baby with a cancerous growth the doctor is trying to laser zap, to cut off the blood flow to the mass? You'd have to be blind drunk! (10/12/22)

To me, it's IRRATIONAL for ANY state law to not allow women to learn that they're pregnant, before deciding if they will go forward! Heartbeat provides that time for informed consent. What if contraception broke? And rape and incest victims don't always overcome trauma in three days-Plan B. (10/15/22)

Update #9: Vegetative Baby & Mom's Life Exceptions

(10/16/22-2)

VEGETATIVE BABY EXCEPTION: If a mother doesn't discover that their baby will be on life support or have no quality of life, until he/she dies-just alive on a bed, shouldn't the mom have the choice whether to take to term, if discovered AFTER heartbeat is detected? Wife and I say YES!

TX NEEDS these abortion refinements:

1. Heartbeat cut off (includes rape and incest victims)
2. Encouraging Plan B within three days of sex, if sure motherhood not desired
3. Exception for mom's life
4. Exception for vegetative baby
5. No ban on contraception
6. No un-doing gay ""marriages""

MOM'S LIFE EXCEPTION: If and only if a pregnant woman faces a life or death choice for her or her baby, AFTER a heartbeat has been detected, WHO is to be killed should solely be HER decision! WHO ELSE is more qualified to decide to leave their family through assisted suicide? Government?

My wife wisely said, if government forces a family to birth a vegetative baby, taxpayers will fund it until it dies. I said family might go bankrupt. BOTH are possible, and BOTH are bad! It is NOT like a parent took a gun and offed their born kid! NOT the same! I believe God understand the difference.

Update #10: God's View On Exceptions?

(10/17/22-2)

When I wrote that I believed God understands about the vegetative baby exception to abortion, where moms decide, I did not say He didn't call it sin. But I also know we live in America, where the people ultimately decide their laws, and were in a democracy vs. a theocracy.

Also, thou shalt not kill isn't an absolute, simple-minded ones. Just wars are in the Bible, as is self-defense. I'm NOT equating those justified killings, but saying don't kill has to be rightly applied. Even with divorce, God made concessions to man's sin. He didn't change His opinion on its evil nature.

So even if the vegetative baby sin exception isn't understood by our Lord, it is a decision Americans make, and I believe it reasonable to not force a family into possible bankruptcy, for a futile effort at sustaining unsustainable life. The voting majority can agree, or disagree!

In a perfect world there'd be no abortions. We live in a fallen world. Christians are to work to bring Thy kingdom on earth, as it is in Heaven, or a more perfect union, but also have to stand for justice for baby and mom. Do the least harm! Even total bans don't end all abortions!

Update #11: Codify or Cancel Roe in Congress?

(10/19/22-2)

I don't want @JoeBiden @POTUS codifying Roe, any more than I want states banning all abortions! Heartbeat, with two exceptions (mom's life and vegetative child), and advocating Plan B within three days of sex for any who didn't engage it to become a mom. #CommonSense!

IF you WATCH video or replicas of sperm fertilizing eggs, growth from that until the baby looks human can't be said to be the exact same as killing him/her once all limbs are at full maturity! It's STILL a life, but much less viable, until a heartbeat and fully formed body that feels pain!

Earlier the better, in choosing to KILL your baby in the womb! It's evil and sinful, at any time you do, but worse for the baby, and more sinfully culpable, the longer you wait. Once you fail a pregnancy test, decide ASAP! babies FEEL your evil choice, at a time certain! Doubly evil!

Most women wouldn't want to take Plan B, if they didn't know if they were pregnant or not, UNLESS they had sex, and knew they never intended a child, or worry contraception might be imperfect. In extreme states, you can't know your PG before you make any decision—it's made for you!

It is no light thing to choose to kill a baby in the womb, even before heartbeat! Plan B is BEST if there's any way a woman doesn't want to risk birthing a child, from sex! But they have to know they're pregnant, which isn't possible within three days, last time I read the science data!

I have NEVER said abortion doesn't kill a human life. I've never said such a killing isn't sin. But there are cases where necessary evils occur. They're forgivable, by God, and womb babies go to Heaven. It's BEST not to abort, if you don't have to! Plan B within three days of sex is ideal!

If their heart is not yet beating, it would be impossible for them to be 100% independent human beings, capable of life apart from their mother! DUH. They have no separate life, that finds legal standing, if dependent! Heartbeat is critical in this analysis—and when they feel pain!

ANSWER: Because the baby FEELS the evil deed, vs is a mere human in process, that doesn't feel it. Heartbeat is a MAJOR concept in the Bible. Murder requires an intent many women don't possess, when aborting, FOOL!

IMO, people who call all abortions "murder" have NEVER EVER risked getting pregnant without wanting to! I have a friend in AZ who had his FG get an abortion, but he opposes it, politically. That's called HYPOCRISY sin! I've NEVER had anyone seek one, but I'm against total bans!

Killing is not the same as murder. It's more general a term for taking a life. Government doesn't even define God's definition of murder. The anger or malicious intent element in abortion is missing, though that intent is to end a baby's life, which is horrendously harmful to him/her.

Non-lawyers: Abortion is not murder, but IS killing a human life in process. If you don't know the difference, and don't want to or can't get into law school, look up your state's definition for elements in the crime of murder. Fetuses don't have standing, in many cases, until deadline thresholds are passed (requirements met).

Update #12: Blob Or Baby HUMAN?

(10/20/22-2)

When OBGyn docs and womb baby surgeons deliver the bad news to parents, or mere moms, that their baby didn't make it, bodily advanced enough they hand them to hold in a blanket. If just a blob of tissue HUMAN, they DONT! There's a REASON, and it pertains to abortion and viability!

Mike Pence is trying to be, or at least wants to be Donald Trump (the man who sought to kill him). ISN'T IT NICE that so many claiming Christians warm up to people behaving totally different than Jesus? Hypocrisy, apostasy and carnality, folks! Bible IDIOTS with NO clue on morals!

I'll never understand-or want to-Mike Pence's attitude toward taking pro-life to every state house, AS IF that's Jesus' attitude of putting others above yourself, seeking reconciliation, using reason vs being divisive and shoving your views down others' throats! Bible ignorants will like it.

Abortion ban advocates FAIL to realize:

1. Birth control can break, making the woman 100% INNOCENT
2. Rape and incest victims are INNOCENT
3. Moms facing baby's life or death are INNOCENT
4. Vegetative babies have no hopes for "life"
5. Women need to know they're pregnant; takes time

I could be FOR total abortion bans, IF there were no female woman also involved! You cannot pretend or act like she doesn't exist, or has no rights under our legal system! SAME with the unborn baby. You can't ignore his/her rights! Both parties ignore one party!

I can hear ALL the TX GOP TV ads, agree w/almost everything they say, but Ill NOT forget the INjustice of stacking SCOTUS to overturn Roe, with zero national standard, and an anything goes attitude to force far right beliefs onto America, passing over Garland, and politicizing SCOTUS!

Dr. Odd/Oz thinks the fact that a baby is a baby settles the abortion issue, hands down. He FAILS to acknowledge our government has to take into account BOTH parties before it! They are NOT moral equals, but human equals, and equally to be represented under our laws!

If you decide to abort/kill your unborn child, because times are tough and finances are flailing, YOU COULD HAVE MADE THAT DECISION within three days of sex, and never killed anyone! LOOK at who you are killing, through a sonogram! Plan better. Use contraception! (10/22/22)

POLITICIANS: SAINTS OR SINNERS?

THIS topic is too juicy and relevant to pass up, even for the extra sleep hour I'd rather had! In politics, we all compare sins of politicians. We are NOT all equally good at that comparison!

Distinctions as to degree, frequency and seriousness of those sins, all while acknowledging NO one lives morally perfectly, is where the inequalities lie, as with disagreeing on proof standards, what constitutes proof, and what is truth, in a very recent (Trump era) age when assertions of fact need not be verified, if they advance your cause, unless others fact check.

VERY specifically, CHUMP (yes, I admit bias against and disdain for the man boy, 100% based on the factual meme, below) cannot admit any faults. Even his own "spiritual" advisor (not sure if it was for satan or Jesus, based on results, but it was "spiritual").

NEVER calls for public "repenting," even as he will fight tooth and nail with me over using that word, what it means from the Greek, vs. Southern Baptist traditions of man, and his best friend evangelist even says on the radio, some have a problem using the word, when the problem lies in their defining it, wrongly.

That advisor called the FBI investigation "deep state" operation, but NOW that more information has been revealed, they're back to talking SPORTS–NOT spirituality or politics, on their Twitter feed, because glossing over, avoiding, denying and switching subjects is how this ilk.

I do NOT want to write this, as I want a day off, but it's needed: HERE is what the far right fight for so vehemently:

1. Taxes too low to pay our collective public bills.
2. Government favoring the rich because they provide jobs and invest in U.S. businesses. Levit. 19:15
3. The rich free to hoard, and/or to never help anyone but their own flesh and blood. Ecc. 5:13
4. Business free to do anything that brings a profit. Literally anything/no boundaries.
5. Private citizens 2A rights having no limits, including bazookas, tanks, F-16s, etc., in any number.
6. Law and order meaning we simply overlook every instance of police brutality.
7. National defense meaning we never question any military actions, or sinful actions by any military personnel.
8. Freedom of religion meaning religion controls public policy, at least about abortions
9. Free speech means you can lie, and stir up violence, and that freedom should never be questioned or curbed.
10. Border control means we should only let in educated or rich people of color.
11. No wealth redistribution means cons should never have to help anyone, with tax money, or privately!
12. "Patriotic Constitutionalist" means that great document boiled down to the 10th Amendment, and the Declaration of Independences' phrase, "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." THIS IS far right dogma, folks. EVERYONE not 100% behind it is the enemy, to be fought, constantly.

HERE is what the far right left fights for so vehemently:

1. Taxes that punish the rich for gaining wealth.
2. Government BIG enough to force the poor into the middle class, by taxpayer-funded freebies (healthcare, Section 8, food stamps, Welfare, Medicaid, home down payment, student loan forgiveness, free daycare, college, Obama phones, etc.
3. Environment so clean businesses suffer significantly, profit-wise (and BIG oil, hopefully, goes out of business).
4. Government favoring the poor and working class.
5. Gun-grabbing/confiscation, ideally.
6. Government forcing taxpayers subsidize fellow Americans not adult enough to be self-sufficient (excepting those with physical or mental disabilities).
7. Defund the police sledgehammer to a fly of a few bad apple cops, and more for criminals than their victims.
8. Appease enemies and dictators, as peace-nicks ALWAYS oppose war, even when justified.
9. Cancel speech that offends you, as it clashes with your ideology or worldview.
10. Government be 100% neutral about religion, and keep these 100% separated.
11. Open borders, especially for those inclined to vote Dem (like the poor, less educated and illegals.
12. Dislike America for its historic sins, or only dwell on them.

THIS is as non-"patriotic" as flag worshippers who see no warts on America. BOTH extremes are WRONG! Get it right, people! <http://AmericanAnswers.org>

GOD WROTE THE CONSTITUTION, DAN PATRICK?

(Cf.: Christian Nationalism)

(8/14/22-2)

@DanPatrick, who claimed "We were a nation founded upon not the words of our Founders, but the words of God because He wrote the Constitution." Gal. 6:2 and 5!
 BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU WISH FOR! Jews had a safety net, and I Tim. 6:17-19 exists (among many other GOP-defeating verses), LIAR!

The public MUST learn @DanPatrick's CPAC claim that "God wrote the U.S. Constitution" can sometimes be effective because:

1. OVER 70% of claiming Christians are NOT fully committed to living for God, and
2. We EARN our stereotype of being gullible or stupid, as only 13% regularly read their Bibles!

@DanPatrick saying God wrote the U.S. Constitution (LIE, when the Bible would add MANY more provisions), then saying we are predominantly a Christian populous (TRUTH). See: Mt. 4, Tit. 1:12, Jn. 8:44

@DanPatrick says He wrote it, justifies our slandering as blind faith FOOLS! Mk. 12:30, Pv. 14:15-16, II Tim. 2:15 Ignorance may be bliss, but IS sin!

HERE is how the devil plies his trade: Usually mixes some truth in with his lies, like Its SIN for Christians to be gullible and/or stupid! Believing LIES that the U.S. Constitution is equal to God's word, the Bible, because pandering politicians have ZERO interest in sincere Christian practice; they want sincere Christians' votes!

IF Christians applied their Bible to our politics, they couldn't be 100% GOP or Dem, and the Constitution would be a LOT different, from its inception, if GOD had If GOD wrote the U.S. Constitution:

1. It'd have a safety net-as the Jews had
2. The rich would be told to generously give back-I Tim. 6:17-19
3. Taxes would be FAIR and for ALL
4. Life's purpose would NOT be pursuing happiness-but His will. Lk. 12:15
5. NO slaves, or non-voting women

If GOD wrote the U.S. Constitution:

6. It would mandate government (and parties?) NOT favor rich or poor-Levit. 19:15
 7. It'd NOT allow businesses to abuse workers, like the "anything for profits" value system of the far right-Pv. 14:31
 8. If one wouldn't work, he wouldn't eat! II Th. 3:10
- If GOD wrote the Constitution
9. Man could subdue the earth, but be obligated to rightly manage our environment. Gen. 1:28, 2:15; Deut. 10:14
 10. Seeking a more perfect union of our "UNITED" States would be required of all citizens; NOT dividing and demonizing! Rom. 16:17-18; Eph. 4:31
 11. The rich hoarding all their wealth would be prohibited (like those who fight the estate tax). Ecc. 5:13
 12. Greed and selfishness would be illegal. Phil. 2:3-4; Ecc. 5:10
 12. The first of all your paychecks would go to churches. U.S. ISN'T A THEOCRACY!

The SAFEST position/decision for ANY Christian, politically, is to NOT fully identify with or associate with any political party! ONLY vote for the smartest, most moral and most-qualified candidates from any party. This is an unassailable way to practice your voting duty!

God wrote the Constitution, Dan Patrick? Then WHY did a perfect God make mistakes, like omitting women voting and allowing slavery in its original manuscript? YOU are the embodiment of what Billy Graham warned about. Carnal, at best. Bible illiterate, too. Using "God" for power idolatry. (10/22/22-2)

CHRISTIAN NATIONALISM (Part II)

(8/19/22-2)

"In God We Trust" signs are NOWHERE commanded nor prohibited in Scripture. The message does NOT represent all Texans; MAYBE a majority. It also does NOTHING to get lost people SAVED! READ this verse, as it MAY apply!: Mt. 6:1 They're TRYING to have the phrase SEEN!

The TRICK in America, and in American politics, is that even if a majority in a state want "In God We Trust" signs in public places:

1. Politicians DON'T KNOW if the majority does, and,
2. DON'T care if the majority does, and,
3. Many others (minority) do NOT! Their rights get subverted!

ChristoFascists do NOT want laws enforcing I Tim. 6:17-19, hatred as a sin, divisiveness as evil, helping the poor as moral, greed and selfishness as sin, etc. It's a VERY selective cherry pick operation! Justice is NOT their interest, nor truth or morality! and I'm a Christian. (8/28/22)

What a HIGH price the Christian Cabal/TaliBAN paid to their reputations for morality, trying to force their view onto America, with zero voter input (bullying), UNjustly stacking SCOTUS, and empowering all these sins, CONTRARY to Dr. Dobson's standard for Presidents. God sees ALL! (8/30/22)

Update #1: The Devil & "Conservatism"

(9/5/22-2)

I have been ranting and railing for TWO DECADES+ against churchianity, and the 5/10/13 problem, which basically means uncommitted, quite sinful claiming Christians. Stats prove it's the majority. Now EVIL political hacks TRY to lure them to evil, from ignorance of their Bible! EVIL!

The DEVIL, satan, Lucifer, the evil one, the snake, the father of lies has co-opted the term "conservative" to be taken as a synonym for "Christian." Theological conservatism is good. Political conservatism is NOT all good. DON'T name Jesus if you disagree or can't understand this!

The ONLY way actual Christians could ever embrace any political party, enthusiastically/zealously is if their positions all matched with God's word. HINT: They do NOT! YET, fake and sinful/carnal claimers of Christ embrace "conservatism," deceived by satan from Bible ignorance!

This is where the fake Christian Nationalist extremists want to take our country! An authoritarian theocracy where we have no choice but to bow down to these frauds. The working class barely get by but these frauds are living an unimaginable luxurious life. (9/17/22)

Update #2: Implications of Christian Nationalism

(9/25/22-2)

IF Ed Young indeed said vote out politicians who don't do what you elected them to:

1. MTG saying the Church should direct the government is a wider-spread heresy than many thought.
2. A theocracy of Christian Nationalism is envisioned by the Christian Taliban.
3. Politicians are SLAVES to voters.

Politicians are mere rubber stamps, with zero brains or consciences needed; just vote your party's policies/agenda, even when it's bad, stupid or wrong!

4. Were in a direct democracy, vs. representative one.

5. He is LIKELY to have violated the Johnson Amendment, and @pouts @JoeBiden's @DOJPH should investigate, and consider tax exempt status removal.

6. Religious people believe in lording over bullying, OPPOSITE Jesus!

7. Religious voters must be legally required to use the WHOLE council of God in what issues they have their gurus tell them to vote all bums out over; NOT just cherry pick GOP topics!

8. Any and all hypocrites in politics must be voted out, as they do, then don't do what they promised.

9. The same HYPOCRITES who whine about cancel culture want to cancel anyone who doesn't agree with their views! Christianity is arrogantly divisive, my-way-or-the-highway, vs. reconciling? NOT Jesus' Bible!

Update #3: Other Religions Could Control!

(9/26/22-2)

I am a born again believer in Jesus, and have been for 55 years. Because of that, I OPPOSE Christian Nationalism! Our Founders and their Constitution oppose America becoming a theocracy. It's a democracy, and government can't forbid or establish ANY religion. FOOLS and carnals can't get this!

IF Christian Nationalism took root, and used force, I would fight AGAINST my heretical, apostate, carnal and even tare claimers of Christ, who do not follow Him Who said His kingdom is NOT of this earth, and set your mind on the things above—NOT on the things below! READ MORE BIBLE!

Muslim Nationalism. Hindu Nationalism Atheist Nationalism. SEE if CLAIMING "Christians" like when the shoe is put on the other foot! "Do unto others"/golden rule is somewhere in their Good Book, isn't it?

It ALL depends on how one defines wokeness! Because definitions vary, opposing or supporting the word is innately stupid, undefined! POOR church choice, below.

Christian Nationalism that accepted satan's man and morals? No hypocrisy there!?

The backslidden Christians and fake tares clamoring for Christian Nationalism have NO IDEA what life would be like if the Bible's commandments were all made secular laws, with fines or jail time attached to their violation! I Tim. 6:17-19 is just a start. Be careful what you ask for.

The uncommitted/carnal Christians and fake tares clamoring for Christian Nationalism have NO IDEA what life would be like if the Bible's commandments were all made secular laws, with fines or jail time attached to their violation! Ex: Mt. 5:44, Mt. 25, II Cor. 8, Ac. 20:35, Lk. 12:15, 48

DID YOU KNOW Christian Nationalist adherents are spiritual rebels to God, and can't live up to the standards they would have to enact into secular law, if the Bible were ever known by them (Hint: It RARELY is)? (9/28/22)

Update #4: Be Careful What You Ask For!

(9/29/22-2)

Christian Nationalism: APPLY these to secular law, with fines or jail times attached for violations!: Mt. 4:19, 5:28, 32, 6:33, 10:37; Mk. 12:30; Pv. 23:4, 30:8; I Tim. 6:10, 17-19; Ac. 20:35; Phil. 2:3; Col. 3:1-4; Josh. 1:8; I Cor. 7:31; I Jn. 2:15-17; I Th. 5:22

Christian Nationalism would have U.S. laws with fines or jail time for things such as cussing (even at home/in private), sex before marriage (no second or third base, even when engaged), no tipsiness, much less drunkenness, required financial help to the poor and gifts to churches. #TRUTH

Christian Nationalism would have U.S. laws with fines or jail time for things such as quick or unrighteous anger, failure to forgive wrongs (grudges/bitterness), adultery/swingers, nudist beaches, pornography, women not modestly dressed, unsubmitive wives, lording over husbands.

Christian Nationalism would have U.S. laws with fines or jail time for things such as dirty jokes (coarse jesting), politician doublespeak (word wranglers; THAT might not be a bad law!), cheating in school or cheating your boss (sluffing off at work), under-reporting taxes to IRS.

Christian Nationalism would have U.S. laws-subject to fines or jail-for complaining, not being deferential, starting AMs off in prayer, meditating on your bed, no beggars, mandatory fasting, Bible memorizing by lost people, many R-rated movies banned, only two reasons for any divorce.

Christian Nationalism would force Christians to evangelize, disciple and be disciplined, use their spiritual gift(s) in ministry, have a daily quiet time, and significantly engage social ministry. BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU ASK FOR! Sanctification is voluntary-NOT optional to be good with God.

Christian Nationalism would legally force all Christians to evangelize all lost people, under danger of fines or jail time. BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU ASK FOR!

In states that believe the tithe applies to Christians (not a Jewish tax in a theocracy), 10% of every citizens' income would be "taxed" and given to churches. BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU ASK FOR!

Update #5: Herschel Walker's Sins Are No Problem?

(10/5/22-2)

Newt Gingrich doesn't give one damn if Herschel Walker paid for an abortion, yet is opposed to all abortions! Any and all sins are NO PROBLEM for power worshippers! Sin is called a virtue, winning at all costs. WHERE ARE THE WHITE PASTORS CALLING OUT THESE SINS? #Crickets of complicity

Herschel Walker speaking on one issue (abortion), and Newt Gingrich speaking on Herschel's faith is ALL AN ACT to try to convince DUMB vs. smart Christians to vote GOP! It's the EXACT same ruse of satan to call THIS behavior a "baby Christian" who could be "championed" by white pastors!!!

ANYTHING FOR POWER is NOT a Bible "virtue! Dana Loesch! READ THE GOOD BOOK, for once! Jesus shunned that power He deserved, and said Christians are not of this world, but only in it. Idolatry is a sin, and NO good parent says win at all costs. There are MORAL/virtue boundaries!

Update #6: Our Founders & Diversity

(10/6/22-2)

Rick Scott said Herschel Walker's winning, so the Democrats will throw everything at him. That foolish statement PROVES his branch or Republicanism DOES NOT CARE ABOUT MORALITY, which means religion means little to nothing to them! NEVER investigate if he paid to abort! Irrelevant

IF Chick-fil-A has wrongly branded itself as anti-LGBT, INSTEAD of for LGBTQ people, but against sexual sins, their marketing personnel, or their CEO, should be demoted! Jesus loved the sinner but hated the sin; He didn't hate the sinner, or love the sin! GET IT BIBLICAL, Cathy!

IF Hobby Lobby has wrongly branded itself as anti-contraception, instead of anti-abortion, their marketing personnel need to be demoted! GET IT BIBLICAL, Mr. Green! NOWHER does God say birth control kills anyone, or is sinful! It's responsible planning and prevention. Repent, if so!

Our U.S. Founders KNEW America had a diversity of opinions, so they WISELY enacted state's rights, for the majority of issues, so people could live where they want without being changed by outsiders' rules nationalizing issues, except when absolutely needed! Smart people! Wish we were. (10/21/22)

WHAT IF we had Biblical Christian Nationalism, which was 100% voluntary, and all U.S. Christians obeyed God? Justice would prevail; love would shine; hate would end. Businesses would be run as a family, and workers paid fairly. Greed and hoarding would be shunned; abortions freely ended! (10/23/22)

FATHERLY ADVICE

(8/25/22-2)

My advice to dads with daughters: LEARN to have a "feminine side! It is NOT masculine or macho NOT to; it is sin! Learn to respect shopping, fashion, dresses, cheer leading, makeup, friend- and relationship talk, and ANYTHING she might like. Your likes are UNimportant! #BeAdad

Humble if not humiliate yourself by doing things you don't want to, but she does! #Sacrifice Learn how to talk to her. DON'T let your wife be the go-between, who does that work/job for you! #BePresent

Football, sports, police shows, business talk, math, asset acquisition, career planning, building muscles, dating tips: These things come natural with your sons. DON'T treat your girl(s) with less attention, because it's less natural! #BeYourself

CONSERVATISM IS CHRIST-LIKE?

(8/27/22-2)

THIS is getting settled, now, forever!: The term "conservative" is misused and abused—CONSTANTLY! There's some sort of mystique and adoration of it, AS IF it's a synonym for holy. There are two separate and distinct groups who use it, with OPPOSITE aspirations! We got to get our nomenclature RIGHT!

GWB coined the phrase, "compassionate conservative." Conservatism is NOT compassionate, in public affairs! It believes government was designed to allow human suffering, and perpetuate it in perpetuity! It worships NOT God, but government envisioned by the U.S. Founders!

Absolutely NO help/aid/hand up or especially hand-out is EVER to befall ANY American! The Founders suffered schizophrenia, when they penned "a more perfect union," or when one said you can't have democracy without a moral citizenry.

They were LYING and deceiving all who would read their great writings, because they purposely desired America to ONLY support everyone being self-sufficient, and anyone getting as rich as humanly possible, with zero of that money going to anyone outside your family, or even to government, as it is "your money" (AS IF render to Caesar, or levy taxes words never existed anywhere).

NO, there are NOT two types of conservatives! There are evil people and there are compassionate conservatives, otherwise known as moderates or centrists! They share many things in common, but on the number one issue that U.S. politics is now focused on they aren't even kissing cousins, but better the Hatfield's and McCoy's!

IF anyone ever has any financial need, beyond what their skills can render through work, TOUGH IT OUT and SUCK IT UP! That's a pure conservative's idea of the American dream, and what the 10th Amendment means!

BTW, that concept was an ADD ON to the original document, and NOWHERE does it EVER only say what's expressly delegated for the feds is ALL that can ever occur, for it also says "to the people," and people VOTE, fools!

The word "con," in "conservative," is MUCH MORE APPLICABLE to true conservatives. Many of them have even been conned by the ultra-rich, to do the handiwork of the elites, to fight for this belief system they hardly even benefit from!

Like Elton John's song, Levon, the upper crust likes their money, and make a lot, but somehow can get their showcased blue collar exceptions to be angry over any change to taxation, AS IF being blue collar doesn't imply poorer than white collar, in most instances.

Yes, America is being played, CONSTANTLY, by people with exorbitant wealth, to NOT see them as the villains, but sometimes even victims, in NOT distinguishing between those who are generous with it vs. those who hoard it all for themselves and their spoiled brat heirs. IF U.S. citizens EVER got educated, there would be REAL class warfare!

Jeff Bezos would be rightly called out by Robert Reich for being able to re-make a port for his yacht, but unable to pay a dime in corporate taxes (Reich argued for a living wage, but I am not for such being forced, as NO ONE over-pays the lawn guy, if they can get the same quality work for cheaper!). I'm saying the UNcharitable rich are the enemy of the masses!

They LOVE to brag and whine the size of their tax bills, but compared to their nest egg and asset ownership, and by their percent of income, this is the fallacy of fools, who believe things like Rush Limbaugh donating $200K is a great and heroic act, when BIG numbers to average Joes are chump change, PR stunts, NOT sacrifice, a good deed, but also a shallow one intended to deceive the masses that they are great philanthropists.

And even the Giving Pledge can be the same, if never implemented in their lifetime, or if not implemented once they die, by heir lawsuits!

A conservative (as DISTINCT from a compassionate conservative) would want ZERO public schools, libraries, Social Security, unemployment insurance, required work breaks and overtime pay, work safety laws, child labor law restrictions, truth in advertising laws, Welfare, section 8, Obamacare, food stamps, school lunch programs, Medicaid, Medicare, gay marriage, civil rights (precedent be damned-return to the way things USED to be, eons ago), want sodomy laws, blue laws, at-fault divorces, no EPA rules, POW torture, anyone owning a gun (including crazies and criminals), politicians having the RIGHT to lie and deceive with propaganda and misinformation, including conspiracy theories, ALL women forced to take to term, with NO exceptions, slavery might even be desired among enough of them to become the voting majority, with a politicized SCOTUS!

When you have NO precedents, anymore (post-Roe), every law is subject to change, when a new party's administration takes over! God knew these ignorant realities would arise! That's why He wrote, thousands of years ago, this verse which conservatives ignore, as with most of the rest of the Bible: Ps. 11:3 (and Judg. 21:25).

Political conservatism is as far away from God as is political liberalism, and "Christian nationalists" are also as far away from Christ as the lost people they often slander, instead of evangelize! CROOKS and CRIMINALS carnal Christians will again vote for, because they do not obey God.

Update #1: Bridled Or Unbridled Capitalism?

(8/28/22-2)

Cons DO NOT understand the needed distinction between pure Capitalism and bridled Capitalism. IF THEY WERE HONEST, vs. biased, they'd have to admit businesses ONLY making profits would harm many people and things, and is NOT how U.S. economics works. It's ideology worship, absent reality!

One thing America First cons are DISinterested in is moral improvement! They are egocentric and subjective, and will hear NOTHING about how the richest country on earth could help poorer nations improve. It's ALL about the money, and keeping it all for myself! Party of religion and morals? (8/30/22)

Update #2: Cold-Hearted Founders?

Conservatives believe the Founders and Constitution intended government to be the most cold-hearted, least caring of citizens' welfare, and most inattentive organization on the planet. And they believe they're both patriotic and God fearing to adhere to these sins and lies! #Deluded by satan

I am firmly AGAINST an assault rifle ban! IF there were a way to keep them ALL out of all hands, and they weren't useful for wild hog hunts, or target practice, maybe I'd alter my position. Criminals will always be able to make or get them, and citizens deserve self-defense equity!

Update #3: Conservative "Help" For the Poor Is Products to Buy & A Minimum Wage J-O-B!

(9/9/22-2)

Political Conservatism is NOT about "helping" people, but making as much money as humanly possible, for yourself! Seemingly, the ONLY difference between worldliness and the American Dream is if anyone ever sincerely prays Jas. 4:15. HINT: Few do!

It's an ideology that equates wealth with God's will and blessings, just as the Jews of old confused. Lk. 16:14 Because God said work by the sweat of your brow for the fruits of your labor, this ideology considers pursuing wealth God-sanctioned.

I have, many times, showed you verses that teach otherwise. Now let me PROVE how political conservatism is anti-God, in so many (but NOT all) ways. The Church, like the Jews of old, is to be a light to the world, and role model of a good society.

The Jews theocracy had a safety net, and the church had a voluntary one. II Cor. 8-9; Ac. 2:44-48 WE DO NOT LIVE THE LIFE those first century Christians lived! READ the book of Acts! We are NOTHING like them! and to be worldly is to have money and possessions as number one in your life priorities. Jas. 4:1-6, I Jn. 2:13-17, Rev. 3:14-22. We do NOT obey Mt. 6 or Col. 3:1-4, or heed Pv. 23:4-5, 30:7-9 or Levit. 19:15! I said I'd prove conservatism is all about money and the rich. Here's my Exhibit A:

JUST LIKE the media rarely reports on how you do your job, or could do it better, or with more enjoyment, but instead always discusses issues that cost money that government is to tackle, as there's not enough profit in fixing them by businesses, conservatism is almost exactly the opposite! NO concern for such things, as money-making is the focus.

HOW can I allege and conclude that? LOOK at this list of things it is for, and evaluate every one of them as to how they help or hurt the masses, and whether they cause the rich or poor to be financially benefitted?

End Welfare, Medicaid, section 8, CHIPS, food stamps, school lunch programs, child labor laws, bans on sweat shops, consumer protection laws, overtime and breaks, truth in advertising laws, estate tax, unionizing, five federal agencies (including the IRS), minimum wage, unemployment insurance, Social Security—ANYTHING that improves the life of the poorer half!

WASN'T it Jesus who went around doing GOOD to the masses, and taught to help the down and out of life? Mt. 25, etc.? HOW does the far right help anyone but themselves? Their pundits have taught their dupes to say it is by offering jobs and products.

OF COURSE, only if they can profit enough off hiring or offering consumers such jobs and products! Otherwise, just let charities (a little bit churches) handle everything else, but leave "my money" alone, Uncle Sam. Again I remind you of the examples of caring for each other's needs in the Bible, for claiming Christians who care what God thinks/wrote.

ONCE AGAIN, political conservatism protects the rich, like Jeff Bezos opposing unions, because he might get forced to pay up more, losing some of his excess of billions! Further proof of what I wrote, earlier!: Conservatism is anti-God, in many ways, claimers of Christ! Duh 101

THE QUESTION for political conservatives who are NOT sincerely religious, or intentionally moral, is does mankind have an obligation to God to morally improve? Those types would say NO, as it's my choice (freedom). Mic. 6:8; Ecc. 12:13; I Cor. 7:19

Political conservatism appeals to the flesh (sin nature). Just do what you naturally want ("freedom"), which is live for Self and chase money.

To sound more moral, and to garner the religious vote, they add two moral standards: Hate the gays and oppose abortion. A merging of good and evil.

Update #4: Is It Hard to be a ('Persecuted') Conservative?

(9/11/22-2)

It's VERY easy/convenient, and academically unchallenging to be a political conservative! Just work your job, vote, pay taxes, and break no laws.

1. You can NOT live one finger or brain cell trying to make poverty less severe!
2. You vote against all taxes and increases!
3. You oppose ANY laws that increase federal spending
4. You support everything cops and the military do, including increased funding, despite opposing all federal spending increases.
5. If ANY gun laws are proposed, oppose them, even if they make America safer!
6. Believe all sex acts must end in a child.
7. Oppose LGBTQs, and don't distinguish between the human and the acts. Let that opposition be constantly known, as they should feel uncomfortable, and have less rights.
8. Say you're for the environment, but vote against any fixes, and do nothing to make earth cleaner!
9. Say and do whatever you feel like.

ANY restraint to anything goes is an infringement on your rights. 10. Earn as much as you can, and NEVER use one dime to ever help anyone else. This is patriotism, as our Founders envisioned it, so you believe. Even enlist "God" as on your side, to feel better!

SOCIALISM

It is Socialism to ask the rich to pay your bills, through taxes. It is NOT Socialism to have government right the wrongs and injustices business has done to labor's wages, or to force them to pay their fair share in taxes, no matter what it's used for. Learn the distinction! One's MORAL!

Update #1: Funding Freebies

(8/27/22-2)

Let's talk about a relevant and important subject: Funding of government actions to "help" some citizens. NO ONE likes to pay taxes. Some even believe government has NO right to your money, in any amount. God says those people are WRONG. The issue is how much is Caesar owed?

God doesn't answer that. He does say it is owed. Government functions cost money, and they're to be for things we all benefit from, that businesses can't adequately profit off of, and be kept to a minimum. Voters have a say in what things it does; NOT just essential duties listed in the Constitution.

So WHERE's the money to come from? It's Unfair to only come from some. It's wrong to only come from the rich. However, they are the most easily targeted for most funding, if not severely inconveniencing their lifestyles, as you have to get it from where money exists.

Everyone feels what THEY earned is their money. That's partly true. Ac. 5:1-5 But we ALL have a duty to fund government, as it is to serve us all. Roads, military, cops, teachers, lawmakers all cost money, and we ALL benefit from them being funded. It's HARD to say we all benefit when government only benefits certain sub-groups, excepting the physically or mentally disabled!

WHY have I said the rich should pay the largest share? Our free society and its laws have MOST benefitted them. To him who has been given much, much is to be required. Plus, they have the excess no one else has.

That's NOT to say tax them into the middle class, or punish their success. That's to say cause the pain felt to be EQUAL as between ALL citizens! Conservatives LOVE to say morality is best engaged voluntarily, vs. mandatorily.

But NO ONE IN THEIR RIGHT MIND would want to pay money that helps someone NOT in their family, or at least not a large amount! We don't work hard for other people, but for ourselves and our families!

Force is sometimes needed, sometimes a good thing (rarely), and sometimes the only way what needs to happen gets done! Find more sources of funding, like ALL profitable businesses, and even some churches should rightly be considered targets, as they free load, not having to pay in!

I understand U.S. tax law is encouraging church-going and churches existing, by not taxing them, but they are simply businesses with a religious product. If they're significantly profitable, just like businesses, it's fairer to tax them than those who aren't, or those who barely get by.

The TRICK is they can always add new services, to claim profits are being re-injected back into the business! Fairness is the only right standard.

Update #2: True Help

(8/28/22-2)

What's TRULY needed, in America, is a government institution devoted and dedicated to helping any and all poor people learn how to earn more, or spend less, and be qualified for better pay. Handouts are NOT needed. Temporary, at best, and repaid, token or fully, as voters decide.

You know the phrase, #Never Forget it's usually referencing the Holocaust. You also know the phrase, "those who forget the past are destined to repeat it." The point is "forgive and forget" is NOT always good advice!

Even Greg Laurie recently said God doesn't forget things, or He wouldn't be omniscient, but He remembers our sins no more, in using them against us. But is there value in recalling patterns of behavior, or even exposing evil deeds done more in private, where the evildoers don't want those deeds publicly exposed, lest it hurt their business or reputation? Absolutely! Eph. 5:16

It is EASY for politicized pundits to accuse using the following meme as never forgiving, or rubbing things in one's face. But that is because they WANT the public to forget the wretched details, as that forgetfulness benefits them. That is EVIL!

FASTEST way to rebut the Capitalism or Communism narrative, seeking to end any U.S. Socialism, is to use many European nations as examples. They have several subsidized programs, and NO ONE would accuse them of being Venezuela or Communists. Logical FALLACY! POOR distinction-making!

Update #3: Capitalism Or Socialism?

(8/31/22-2)

I believe in bridled Capitalism—NOT unbridled, and NOT Communism or Socialism, like when government requires breaks, safe working conditions, paid overtime, etc. You do NOT mess with our free market system, and not suffer consequences and damages!

NOT every entry-level worker's work quality DESERVES $22/hour. That's an Injustice! and forcing business owners to increase expenses by law, with government doing NOTHING to increase their sales or profits, is a burden to business, but they will mainly pass costs through to consumers!

What Gavin and Company desire is mono-focused on the workers; NOT macroeconomics based! IF you want better wages in Cali, work harder, longer, better quality, or get better skills or work a second job, or learn to spend less! That's how every other generation did it! Government isn't Santa!

Government isn't your Savior or God. Every time you rely on it to do things for you, YOU lose as a human being! YOU lose your dignity, work ethic, self-reliance, and you become more entitled, more lazy/less aspiring, dependent, and more of a Democrat voter! YOUR earned money will buy LESS!

YES businesses OFTEN take advantage if not abuse workers, and YES many of them are greedy, selfish and EVIL. Forcing them to pay workers MUCH more for minimum wage is NOT how you curb those evils, BUT those evils NEED to be curbed! That's for another chapter, later!

Bad Bosses is not just a movie, but a life experience of some U.S. workers. Bad pay, bad attitude, bad working conditions that border on illegal, and bad pushing them to work harder, that does the same. HOW do you combat bad businesses? Greedy, selfish, tyrannical? You can quit, but that doesn't force them to change.

Government NEEDs more regulations or more enforcement of existing ones, to ensure bad businesses don't exist, using the Commerce Department and EEOC, if not DOJ. Whistleblower hotlines without recrimination by anguished accused, for a fair investigation.

Unions, boycotts, walk outs/strikes, work slowdowns are ALL ways to increase pay, or improve working conditions, if you haven't negotiated a good situation for yourself, individually. There are BAD bosses. Many of them are arrogant, mean and rude. Their bosses have to care!

And their boss' bosses (like investors, or Board of Directors) have to care, and NOT just care if their bottom lines are healthy! When numbers/analytics are ALL that are considered, and not how they are achieved, inevitably bad bosses will arise. Tyrants.

Lawyers won't take your case unless the moneys BIG (for the most part). There needs to be government lawyers who take cases where investigations show illegal behaviors! and as to getting management to care more than just for profits, BUYCOTT! Let the public know about your work environment! Organize, so many stories get out.

I am FOR government being used for GOOD moral purposes, including lessening evil! That's their j-o-b! (Rom. 13). Money spent for them to do their job is NOT money wasted, but money spent to artificially prop up wages, forcing inflation, is an abuse, and NOT their job!

Update #4: Are Capitalism Or Socialism Perfect?

(9/3/22-2)

Let's face it, Communism hates Capitalism, and vice versa, and neither ideology's countries are readily going to change to the other. BUT, we have to get along just shy of warfare, at the least. Ex: China and Russia. India wont side with NATO, to keep economic ties with China.

E-XTREMES ARE E-VIL!

I will delineate, for the umpteenth time, what I HATE about extreme positions:

Conservatives want small government. So do I. But they want it so small our bills can be paid. They want five federal agencies ended. They want no human to ever be benefitted or helped by any government money. That's a government smaller than I want! It's every man for himself selfishness.

Conservatives are pro-business. So am I! I LOVE business (2 business degrees, as proof), and I want U.S. businesses to thrive, above all others. I believe in American exceptionalism, and that God has uniquely blessed America, at least in the 20th century.

But JUSTICE is a virtue God wants from societies, even if some don't. That means human beings, made in God's image, who may never become managers or owners or shareholders, are EQUAL in the eyes of the law, as with business ownership. Government does NOT favor either! SAME goes for poor vs. rich! Levit. 19:15

That doesn't mean anyone gets unfairly enriched, can sluff off, do poor quality work, profits can be attacked, owners are unethically restricted from profiting. It means justice prevails, win-win, everyone gets what they need, and government is umpiring fairness, vs. catering to one side!

Conservatives want a strong national defense. SO DO I! America has to have the best military, and latest technology to always be ahead of the bad guys! However, that does NOT mean we over-spend, or stupidly spend, or overlook any bad things the military might ever do!

You NEVER have to be so for anything or anybody that you can't be objective about their faults and imperfections! and trying to seek negotiated peace is always a good thing to take a stab at, before military conflict, but you always have to be at the ready to defend U.S. interests, with NO hesitation at using U.S. might! Cons want a strong economy. I want it number one in the world!

BUT, you don't define when we have that by mere stock market analytics! Just shy of 50% of Americans are NOT invested in our markets. YOUR portfolio gain NEVER benefits them!

Trickle down is mainly a MYTH, except for donated libraries and buildings named after benefactors, and any charity gifts any rich ever give, because U.S. provided them a land to be enriched in. That's not a pay increase for any U.S. worker! That's not even much of a benefit to the lower half, if they aren't library patrons.

Cons want controlled borders. That was MY idea, first! NOT closed, but controlled. NOT a wall, but an electronic wall, with the manpower even a physical wall requires, to seize law breakers. Zero tolerance, but not zero mercy! We allow in those we want in, and none others!

And who we want in are people who our economy needs! NOT more Dems or GOP's. We want the best and brightest! We want people who will love our country! We want educated, rich, sophisticated, hard-working immigrants, who can learn English, and U.S. values.

The poor and less educated immigrants we want IF they aren't wanting our safety net, and don't need more education, because the jobs they'll do don't require it, and don't steal jobs from native-born Americans. Conservatives want less abortions. I do too!

I never want any limb ripped off any innocent baby, ever again (unless a mother's life is at stake, and she chooses to not commit suicide), or her baby could never make it outside her womb, absent life support/sustaining technology (vegetative state cases).

Conservatives HATE homosexuality. It is a sin, and Christians are to hate sin, so it is one of many things we should hate. BUT, you aren't to hate the person! That's where we differ. I opposed national gay marriage.

I started the movement to get PASTORS to speak out so it wouldn't pass. It passed SCOTUS. Our view lost. But you do NOT undo precedent, and break up unions, because you were late to the party, negligent and delinquent in opposing it!

You still stand for anti-sodomy positions, but you do not discriminate against humans made in God's image, because you hate a choice they make! they, likely and rightly, hate some choices you make, like arrogance, selfishness, greed and hoarding, the love of money, power idolatry, divisiveness, slander, self-delusion, and bullying your religion onto America, with zero voter input!

Conservatives are pro-guns. So am I. The difference is you can have reasonable limitations, which would never grab anyone's guns unless they were criminals or crazies. We don't need those two groups LEGALLY handling weapons!

They will, no matter what laws are passed, and that's where all gun restrictions fail to prevent violence and mass shootings! But that doesn't mean the restrictions don't prevent some bad actors.

Gun restrictions are NOT ever going to end risks of mass violence in public places! Even banning any or all weapons is an absurd idea, as government can confiscate all weapons, as they can be hidden, or created at home, or imported off the internet! Gun laws AREN'T about ending mass killings!

They're about ensuring users are properly skilled and educated, cops can trace weapons found at crime scenes, people know how to secure guns safely from others (especially children), and people known by insiders to be unstable, are properly watched over, to ensure they don't "lose it" with weapon in hand.

Conservatives love BIG oil. I'm a native Texan. NO ONE loves my state or its main economic engine like I do. But I also like not breathing black smoke out a car exhaust pipe, or eating food contaminated with caustic or cancer-producing chemicals, and even when I sip the drink I probably hate the most (water) I don't want it polluted with oil drilling runoff.

I do believe man's machines have caused SOME claim ate damage, but I know for certain the world will NOT end due to "climate change," or "global warming." The Bible tells me so. So if reasonable solutions exist, I'm all for it. We will always need oil.

I'm all for more green technology. But don't charge me more, or expect I'm going to bike to work in hot Texas, or use four plies of toilet paper to wipe my butt. Extreme solutions are not welcome, nor helpful!

As to liberals, almost exactly the opposite of everything I've just mentioned is their position, but one main issue is their calling card: Taxpayer funded freebies. That's the thing they are SO famous for, like Biden running and winning off lies that raised expectations of "FREE" daycare, healthcare, home down payment, college, student loan forgiveness, and whatever else the far left could concoct in the future.

Let me ONLY address liberals with the following points for them to consider:

1. WHY does any taxpayer owe for anyone else's life expenses?
2. WHERE do your handouts ever end?
3. HOW is it just (justice) to steal from the haves, to offer a fish to the have nots, rather than teaching them how to successfully fish?
4. How big must our debt get, before you ever give a damn? DO YOU really, secretly, hate America, and want it bankrupt because of slavery, taken/conquered native Indian land, or won land masses from Mexico (or from our meddling in other country's business, over the centuries)?
5. WHY are mainly white (including Asian and Indian) people always your assumed culprits owing others taxpayer funded gifts?

6. HOWs it fair that ANY percent of our population ever pays NO taxes, when we ALL benefit from things government does (not all things, but at least some things it does)?
7. WHY do you believe the rich should be unjustly taxed, just because they make money better than you ever will?

THIS message addresses most of the main issues dividing our great nation. IF you can see nothing wrong with these extreme positions, I assert that you are a sin-full, immoral, low IQ person who hasn't the ability or skills to have much say in America! Hate me for it. I'm OK with that!

ONLY because I am waiting on my signs, I will engage one more topic: HERE is the "thinking" of religious fanatics, who truly believe they're doing right within a democracy:

1. God says do not kill
2. Abortion kills
3. Human life starts at conception
4. Therefore, no abortions after it.

NOT AT ALL to compare or allege they are equally important (they aren't), but under THAT "reasoning," that what the Bible says should be our U.S. laws (as Dan Patrick said, God made the Constitution), WHAT IF these extremists were right, and forcing one's religion's tenets onto America was how America is supposed to work, rather than it ben a democracy (vs. theocracy), like if we had no first amendment (no prohibition, no establishment of religion)?

Which religion would we use? Who would decide? Majority rule? and what would that look like? Laws with fines or jail time for every sin!

Cussing, premarital sex, tipsiness with alcohol, hatred, slander within free speech (U.S. politics), adultery, lust, arrogance, selfishness, greed, love of money, hoarding, power idolatry, hypocrisy, white lies, lying, deceiving—ALL these would be illegal (fines or jail).

MASS SHOOTINGS

I HATE to tell you this, but I am burnt out on work, and have little political planning to do. So, HOW COULD America end mass shootings? Mainly by technology we don't yet possess! Very severe punishment laws might deter some (like mandatory capital punishment). That wouldn't stop all!

You, literally, have to see inside a person's mind, to be able to stop all mass shootings! That's where 666 will come into play, one day (soon). Friends and families incentivized or legally forced to rat on suspects might help some.

But even then, parents don't always know what their children do behind closed doors. We DO know this: Mass shooters have to engage all of the following, and these steps are when the public could be able to stop them:

1. Make a plan for who to target, when and where. IF they don't write it down, or post it online, no one else may ever those details.
2. Buy or get access to weaponry. THIS the government and public can have a stake in!
3. Rehearse, of reconnaissance is ever conducted. Again, hard to identify motives for why a person drives past an unknown-to-the-public target.
4. Plan execution. Second phase where government and the public MIGHT be able to intervene.

We don't know when they start their plan. We MIGHT be able to see people loading up vehicles with guns. We MIGHT read online posts cryptically implying someone is going to do bad things. The police already monitor such posts. Hasn't stopped many acts!

We CAN have many skilled deputized gun owners near every place that could become a target, simply living their lives with legalized open carry (or concealed). We CAN have areas we designate as secured, so no free access is given to just anyone!

But in open, free areas (like malls sports arenas, big companies with many employees entering from a parking lot), major freeway intersections, or anywhere where masses assemble (like church, music venues, shopping areas, sports fields, national monuments or famous tourist sites or scenery venues), MUCH harder to stop!

Technology that sees who is carrying what is mandatory! I don't think we can do that, yet. Even wands or sensors that detect metal or plastic would help, in open areas that have limited entries (like the Houston livestock show).

In venues like Woodstock, physical screening of everyone, as cops milled around in the crowd, would be the only way, as access is from all fronts. Even mowing pedestrians down with a car, or the Boston marathon bombers, would require technology to see what people possess, or individual pat downs! Let's work through a liberal's "thinking:"

1. If there were no guns, no one would be killed by a gun. True, but bombs, swords, Fentanyl, Molotov cocktails, arsonists, etc., also exist!
2. You can't confiscate all guns! And it's our Constitutional right to own them!

If you tried to grab all guns, owners would hide them, and lie about what they owned. Or they tear them down and separate the pieces for later reconstituting! And homemade guns could always be manufactured. The issue is keeping weapons away from people intent on doing harm to other people! how you ID them is the issue!

Technology that could detect thoughts of murderous plots would help/work, but privacy issues arise, as does the real threat of 666. You don't have to settle with accepting mass killings as the new norm. But you do have to accept that barriers to such crooks have to be erected is the new norm.

MORE armed citizens, new technologies, more entry barriers, more individual screenings, more cameras everywhere, more scrutiny of gun purchasers, more government stakeouts of suspected culprits, more narking rewarded by government (inside informants), and less soft targets. That's our new norm!

EVEN this Tupelo stolen plane incident shows that to end mass killings, it is NOT solved by gun regulations, or passing laws. He, obviously, BROKE a law against theft of property! He may not even have a gun in the cockpit. Planes have been used as weapons (9-11). BIGger than guns.

A train could EASILY be used for mass murder, of someone positioned the right object on the tracks, just before a crowded intersection or venue! A car, barricaded from shots through windows, could mow down many people, then continue to do it again and again! Or boats at busy docks!

It's Labor Day weekend. Yesterday, we saw the largest line of traffic exiting where we swam at Lake Texoma, as I've ever seen in that area. Crowds will be in many open places (lakes, oceans, mountains hiking, national monuments). These can ALL be targets of evil people! Guards up!

Parks, parades, even Argentina's president speaking to a crowd, yesterday, or Japan's ex-prime minister (RIP). You want to end all senseless killings? You have to out-think the plotting culprits! I just showed you some ways to do so. Just do it!

Literally, if someone carried an AK down their zip-up sports pants, or if an automatic gun were available in a pistol form, all open areas where crowds gather would be impossible to keep safe! We often can't wand every entrant, or lines would be long, and people wouldn't tolerate it.

britannica.com semiautomatic pistol | weapon semiautomatic pistol, handgun that utilizes either recoil or blowback to discharge the empty cartridge, reload, and cock the piece after each shot. The semiautomatic pistol dates from the very late...

FEW automatic pistols exist, likely because the cartridge chamber requires room/space for all those bullets. If bullets got smaller, but equally lethal, the crooks and criminals would have a hey day!

Update #1: Solutions

(9/4/22-2)

After yesterday's record number of mall visitors, I am extremely cautious and wondering when we will see mass scans of all entering? It would have to be extremely quick, as people won't tolerate lines. Does such technology exist?

Chicago Metra Tests Crowd-Scanning Weapon Detection System. govtech.com Chicago Metra Tests Crowd-Scanning Weapon Detection System. The Transportation Security Administration has been loaning the detectors out to transit agencies across the country who want to try them out. Critics say the technology amounts to "digital stop and..."

I DON'T CARE if you label it "stop and frisk." The more violent and illegally gun-prone America becomes, the less free of intrusion, by government scans, we have to be, in order to be safe. The least intrusive the better!

WHY does America have so many crazies with guns?

1. Highly stressful and competitive country, chasing money.
2. Too loose gun access procedures.
3. Family and friends unwilling to nark on questionable characters, for fear of retaliation, or guessing wrong.
4. Etc.

The ONLY way to avoid "I never thought it could happen to me" is to learn from people it happened to, and do something different than they did! There is zero wisdom in after-the-fact hindsight, at preventing bad things happening. ONLY foresight is vigilance! LEARN from bad events!

WHAT did I write about, about soft targets where crowds can be targets. Man at U.S. Open tried entering tournament with a gun before pointing it at cop: report <https://foxnews.com/sports/man-us-open-tried-entering-tournament-gun-before-pointing-cop-report...> #FoxNews

VERY fast body scanners for guns (no backups/blockages) are now essential at all public venues, corralling the public through limited accesses, if you want a safe society.

HOW can the citizenry identify future mass shooters? They're usually under age 30, male, not making big bucks, and angry at something. That's way too large a candidate pool.

SURELY the @FBI has a more precise profile description!?

Hijacked non-commercial planes are now in play for crazies seeking mass killings. 9-11 solidified our defenses against major airliners being used as fueled bombs. Taxi cabs, jacked up monster trucks all could be confiscated, and run over many, without stopping, especially high-up (lift kit) trucks.

A devoted Unabomber (ISIS secret cell member), able to parachute, could easily land on a U.S. skyscraper, and let off a bomb that could kill hundreds. NOT as severe as 9-11, but a risk we must consider.

Ocean liners and especially cargo ships in port, or in congested shipping lanes would be great tools for vast destruction, if armed with hidden explosives or bombs! The port of Houston I'll see in three weeks is very busy, and tight. We've got to keep vigilant against "evildoers!" Think ahead of them.

WHEREVER more than 10 people are gathered close together is a serious target for mass killers. Larger businesses have employees in one building. Skyscrapers house hundreds of tenants. Unless we can identify potential killers, we have to strengthen/harden potential targets, to be safe!

Airports have been hardened against violence, beyond check points, but incoming flights have to be secure of explosives, and drones, small planes, parachuters and powered parachutes could also land near parked planes, and set off a domino effect.

The NFL season is about to start up. Two hours before game time, and especially at large open area parking lots full of tailgaters would also be obvious targets for mass shooters. You have to think through the possibilities, or you won't harden potential targets, from lack of foresight!

Semi-automatic pistols do exist, and are much easier to hide, entering public places, than rifles. Quick, mass scanners are essential! It's a sad day in America when you have to remain on the constant lookout and head swivel, when we attend outdoor tribute concerts!

WHO's to say a crazy couldn't plan to hijack a public bus, 18-wheeler, or train, and run through a nearby crowd? Authorities NEED to start imagining what if scenarios, to keep us all safe. Also, keep yourself safe! Get trained and armed!

HERE's the problem with mass shooters: Authorities often wait for tips, or some signs something's going down, based on our laws not allowing arrests for actions not yet taken. If that makes cops not on the lookout at large events, that's a FAILURE! These don't telegraph, always!

Update #2: Bans Not the Fix

(9/23/22-2)

OBVIOUSLY, a ban on crime-intended assault weapons possessors is impossible to enforce, but it's the ONLY law change on that matter that should be passed! Until technology exists to detect such motives, even bans never eliminate all assault weapons! and they can be made at home.

MONEY & MORALITY

(4/18/22-2)

Many people believe owners and managers alone deserve good pay, or shareholders (all of which are already richer than most) deserve the best fruits of a business's profits. I do NOT believe God teaches that. Yes, they provide the funds to survive, but no economic system is to favor the rich.

Update #1: The Rich Are To Control Everything?

(5/22/22-2)

Multi-millionaires have the voting numbers, and incentives to make them pay their fair share, and start obeying I Tim. 6:17-19. Landslides are required to defeat them in politics! I'm a centrist.

Update #2: Money Makes the Man?

(8/30/22-2)

I believe rich people's disdain for using much if any money for anyone but their own is one theme of the rich, young ruler, that Jesus was hitting upon! The man thought himself righteous, but Christ pointed out his greedy selfishness as proof otherwise! Mk. 10:17-27 No different today. (9/3/22)

I have personally witnessed money change people. I have seen money used to control people. I have seen people think more highly of themselves than before they had money. I know one employer who used to be a nice guy, until he owned a business.

I met a non-college educated man, last eve, who bragged about his six figure income. There is something arrogant that creeps into the psyche, at some point among the nest egg size comparison chart, that insulates you from humility, caring about others, and makes you believe the devil, that now you are something or someone!

I believe that hits when people own a million, or break the 100K threshold. My kids can't even live on their own, yet, yet one was searching used BMWs, today. There's something in the water, in America, that tells even my daughter, Uptown and Legacy Hall are where it's at.

Fanciest cars over-priced goods and foods, and women dressed to the hilt, often sexily trying to catch a man. Our CULTURE idolizes money, and NO ONE calls us out on it, or even considers it a problem! God does! READ I Tim. 6! Even Obama wrote poor blacks desire an old car gussied up.

We live by sight. We live to impress strangers by the cost or quality of some showy assets, like clothes and cars. "We buy things we don't need with money we don't have to impress people we don't like." It's a SICKNESS, folks! WE ARE Laodicea! Rev. 3

Update #3: Free (Unregulated) Markets favor the Rich & Businesses!

Robert Reich: Corporate profit margins have soared to their highest levels since 1950. Meanwhile, the wealth of the top 1% increased by $6.5 trillion last year. It's excessive profits, not wages, that need to be controlled.

Greedy SOBs will parrot "free markets," but there is nothing free or fair, when businesses have all the leverage, both in wage negotiations, or when they can use the pandemic or inflation as EXCUSES to jack up prices. Many rich people are addicted to money, at others' expense! #SIN

Update #4: The Squeezed Poor Need to Squeeze Back

(9/27/22-2)

The U.S. poor and middle class have the numbers to vote for ALL rich people to pay their fair share in taxes, and for higher wages to all—IF THEY'RE ORGANIZED! There's not one reason why the rich should get all of life's fun. God doesn't teach that's how things are to be.

GIVE ME ONE good/solid/moral reason why EVERY billionaire shouldn't be paying their fair share in taxes, with NO loopholes?

Jesus cared for the poor, so I must. May not even want to, but I must. They need equal education, safety from crime and gangs/drugs, two parents, or the equivalent, equal job opportunities, and transportation to jobs that pay well. Good skills and motivation, as well. Government can help!

With immigration (legal or otherwise) U.S. wages are being equalized with third world standards, over time! That is NOT making America great, but average, and the world average is quite bleak! There aren't as many job openings as there are people breaking into our great nation! Wages dip!

Update #5: Is Being Rich Evil?

(10/4/22-2)

Try this: The Bible does NOT say being rich is a sin, but MOST of its teachings are cautious, warning, and even critical of the rich, from how they don't use their wealth for others or for good, how they acquired or prioritized its acquisition-and had less than eternal values in life.

So there are good and bad rich, depending on those factors to determine which is which, just as there are good and bad poor people, in the Bible, and in life. We AREN'T to help or feed the lazy poor, unwilling to work! We ARE to help the others. With that Bible perspective backdrop, LOOK at how society should view all less than generous rich people:

They already make money on their money (not working, per se), get the best financing, and access to capital, have the best and nicest things, have the most influential peer circles, etc. WHY should government favor them? They're already favored by life!

YES, often by their own hard work, but favored, nonetheless! It's all others who don't have life guaranteed, who are God's concern, especially the productive poor! The lazies need incentives and motivation, often by the hard knocks of life.

But government policy favoring the rich is IRRATIONAL! It's analogous-in an opposite way-to purring gas on a fire. They don't need more help in life, but more justice! It's justified (rationalized) by their investing in businesses, which grows the economy.

They're going to pursue profits no matter what government does! So it should do justly! and we, as the voting public, living in Laodicea, NEED to stop valuing the rich as heroes! They are not innately heroes! Some are; many are not. And having wealth is not a heroic deed! Don't give them ego-stroking attention-like the Kardashians!

LEARN how to make life better for all the majority NON-rich, and have government help them into the middle class, NOT with handouts but hand-ups! The rich even try to control our public policies, by funding politicians. THIS SHOULD BE ILLEGAL, WITH HUGE PENALTIES!

If they want to support politicians who are for justice, GREAT! If they want to support politicians who vote policies that protect their wealth at all costs, from ever helping anyone else, through taxation, make that illegal! Same for those who support politicians to give away taxpayer funded "freebies," costly to people who work!

EXTREMES

(5/2/22-2)

I will ALWAYS fight against liberal lunacy, but always vote against the far right. WHEN a centrist common sense political party gets started, that is all I will ever vote for, again, until I die!

<http://AmericanAnswers.org>

The STUPID extremists on the right and left MUST relate, privately, through food and a jointly enjoyed event, like a sport. BUT, evil pundits are paid well to divide America. Any unwilling to reconcile should be boycotted. I can make them get along, or go bankrupt! READY to act to fix problems.

Liberals ALWAYS want U.S. taxpayers to fund every problem and poor person in the world. That's it; that's the tweet. (5/13/22)

Update #1: Far Right Wish List

(9/8/22-2)

Just as the far left wants, and won't be happy until they get the following freebies, the far right has their list, too!: Healthcare, daycare, college, student loan debt, home down payment, reparations etc. HERE is what the far right idealizes.

The far right wants NO welfare, section 8, Obamacare, food stamps, SNAP, free school lunch, Medicaid, regulations, truth in advertising laws, child labor laws, overtime and breaks, consumer safety laws, estate taxes-ANYTHING that takes from money they would have, otherwise, as taxpayers.

Update #2: Unsustainable Freebies

(9/17/22-2)

Handouts are UNSustainable! That means the money does not get reimbursed from profitable activities. It's only a drain. It doesn't even invest in profit making future activities. It just fills a one-time gap, which will recur into the future, as folk make too little, or spend too much!

We OPPOSE Socialism and far right extremism, here. If you can't see two enemies attacking you at the same time, you will lose to the one you're incapable of focusing on! defended against!

Update #3: How Extremists "Think"

(9/23/22-2)

THIS is the IQ capability of extremists on both sides: All or nothing, like cops can never do anything wrong (even with EVIDENCE to the contrary), and need more funding and support, or cops are always the enemy, and need to be defunded. OBJECTIVITY can see the positive and negative in everyone.

HERE is the "thinking" of extremists: If someone will vote for our agenda, nothing else matters, if they can get one more vote than their opponent. If they EVER consider voting with the other side, even if it was for saving our country or ending terrorism, they are ENEMIES of ours! (10/6/22)

People are NOT voting for saints or sinners, but whoever can garner one more votes than their opponent, so their party gets one more vote for seeking dominant power. This is not as it should be, but is how it is. If Hitler could out-pull a rival, his team would like him! (10/6/22)

It's not about how accomplished a candidate is, how moral or smart they are-it is ALL about if they can garner one more vote than the other side, so your side controls power, with no intention on sharing it, unless forced, by procedural rules or otherwise. THIS IS far right thinking. (10/15/22)

DEMOCRATS & LIBERALISM

(9/5/22-2)

Chi town's Mayor, Lori Lightfoot acts like America just got started, we have plenty of room in the inn, and taxpayers are overjoyed at trying to fund people with little money, education, or both. That is NOT what Levit. 19:34 means! Not BIASED seeking of more Socialist voters, or rewarding law-breaking!

NO ONE who has ever watched, here, could ever accuse me of being racist. But I do tell the truth, and what Democrats WANT, with open borders and sanctuary cities, is more people of any color but educated and/or rich white immigrants! and they reward law-breakers. It's ALL for Dem votes!

Socialism IS the goal of the Democrat party! HOW ELSE can anyone label Biden's free healthcare, daycare, student loan forgiveness, college and home down payment offer for 2020? They want like-minded people from poorer nations, legally or illegally, eventually to vote for them! #TRUTH

The political TRICK career politicians often use is to speak of "government," but NOT taxpayers, who alone allow government to do anything and everything they do. EVERY CITIZEN OWES U.S. ALL THEIR FAIR SHARE IN TAXES. NO exceptions! Then, it's harder to want government spending on things!

Liberals believe rich people are evil, as proved by the fact that they are rich. That is asinine "thinking." Some do get rich, evilly, but not all! What's evil is them selfishly hoarding, or being greedy idolaters! I Tim. 6:17-19 NOT all rich are exactly alike. Duh 101 #CommonSense

THE FICTION, AFFLICTION & ADDICTION OF AFFLUENCE

(9/6/22-2)

I don't understand this, but I see it all the time-The MORE money people get, even excess beyond ability to retire, the MORE stingy they get, in voting for it to never help anyone outside their own family. You'd think the more you'd have, you'd get more generous!?! Selfish #GreedDemon

Update #1: The Ways Some Rich Avoid Fair Share

(9/21/22-2)

I DON'T know what it is, and I will never know the allure, from experience (and this ISN'T from envy), but, apparently, for the upper 1%, the felt need/craving to have more, to never have enough, and to splurge only on self is irresistible! It's NOT a sin to be rich, but to hoard and crave!

And for ANY rich person to demand that government allow them tax breaks/loopholes, special treatment, or stay away from FAIR taxation, is LUDICROUS! It's society's duty to ensure those with the most pay the most! God even believes this, IMO! Justice, and proper role of government! Render to Caesar.

You can't forever wait around for every rich person/1%er/billionaire to obey I Tim. 6:17-19 and become generous/philanthropic, as the captains of industry were earlier on! Give them three years max, then up their taxes, based on THIS principle: Lk. 13:8 Fair vs. punitive taxes! Lk. 12:48

And DIS-allow ALL hiding of assets from the government! The problem is the love of money sin/evil government needs to help them with! Rom. 13 HOW they got their money, and even the amount matters to society, as they have a Warren Buffett DUTY to give back to the society that enabled their wealth!

The Bible speaks of the pride that can come from riches, thinking you're something because you have something in the bank! I Jn. 2:15-17; Pv. 28:11

In America, we do NOT believe what God says, that rich people possess a LOW status before Him! Jas. 1:10 We REGULARLY call God a liar, whenever we behave as if the Bible is false!

Update #2: Control Freaks Faking Normalcy?

(9/22/22-2)

I DO NOT KNOW why rich people think they should control things, like government and laws and all financial decisions, or have all the leverage in wage negotiations, or any right to avoid their rightful fair share in taxation! It's UNjust and arrogance the majority MUST vehemently oppose.

The CBS Sunday Morning article on rich folk in Jackson hole said they often dress casual, so locals don't think they're rich. That is NOT what God says ALL rich are to do, but to generously give back! I'm on a mission to tell them so! I Tim. 6:17-19 vs. Pv. 13:7 I'm commanded to do so! (10/17/22)

TRUMP & THE BIBLE

(AKA Trump Holds The Bible, But The Bible Does Not Hold Trump)

(9/7/22-2)

TRIBUTE TO BAYLOR'S LIZA FLETCHER

(9/6/22-2)

In light of the #ElizaFletcher case, MAY I SUGGEST women take self-defense courses, and always carry Mace, or a Taser? You don't have to become macho, or bulk like the hulk, but there are many evil males, who use their strength against you, evilly! #GuardsUp Plan ahead. Take NO crap.

Update: Solutions for Lone Joggers

(9/8/22-2)

The way to prevent or lessen crime is anticipate and prepare, knowing how it happens. For example, at 6:20 we saw a #LizaFletcher jogger female with NO markings. Wanted to blend into the darkness. Easy prey, if not near people who'd hear her scream, covering her mouth and shoving one into a car.

Jogging abductions could be lessened with:

1. Tandem joggers
2. Instant 911 alarm button (smart phone feature)
3. A loud blaring horn, upon contact
4. Taser, mace or gun
5. Self-defense skills
6. Live FaceTime to someone watching
7. Sensor alarm for any approaching

I do NOT say that jogger was unwise wearing no lights or reflectors @ 6am! In the dark, with dark clothes, she was hardly noticeable. But criminals may stalk, and observe patterns, so know when one jogs where houses are sparse, so screams go unheard. Got to solve that!

HOW TO HEAL AMERICA

(9/10/22-2)

HOW TO HEAL AMERICA. II Chron. 7:14 isn't written to Christians, but it's applicable, in the Christian era. We LOVE the prayer part, as that's quick and easy, and no sacrifice or much commitment needed! BUT THERE ARE three OTHER ELEMENTS!

You:

1. Humble yourself. Christian Nationalism is the OPPOSITE of this! Arrogant uniting with MAGA isn't, either!
2. Seek God's face. That means His person and ways. Get to know God (and your evil will lessen)
3. Turn from your wicked ways. Carnal U.S. Christians wonder what would this be?
 - a) Money idolatry
 - b) Secular power idolatry, and one party worship (AS IF it's perfect)
 - c) Churchianity (our religion as two hours a week)
 - d) Lack of evangelism
 - e) Lack of discipling and being disciplined
 - f) Lack of use of one's spiritual gift in ministry
 - g) Little social improving
 - h) Workaholism
 - i) Entertainment and/or exercise valued more than spirituality

- j) Lack of daily Quiet Times and Scripture memory
- k) Supporting evil, hoping good public policy will come
- l) Arrogance over being saved (AS IF you caused it)
- m) Tithe error mandated by pastors
- n) Lordship Salvation error
- o) Disobeying I Tim. 6:17-19, when rich, denying it is better to give than to receive
- p) General Bible illiteracy, and using pastors as gurus
- q) Refusal to reconcile with black Christians, or do anything to fix poverty
- r) Any sexual perversions or addictions
- s) Caring only about America

IT IS EASY to say pray for America to turn to God. That is NOT what God said fixes America! It is NOT that many people here are unsaved. They're unsaved because the Church won't evangelize much, or obey II Chron. 7:14, blaming satan's victims, vs. looking in the mirror! Avoiding responsibility.

HOW YOUTH & THE POOR CAN RISE MORE RAPIDLY

(9/11/22-2)

I have been giving this a lot of thought, this weekend, especially as I see youth on Twitter so down on all GOP's, because entitlement to freebies seems to have been indoctrinated into them in public school. HOW do people on the bottom rungs succeed, absent government handouts?

1. Do well in college
2. Internships in college
3. Trade school training in high school
4. Experience with part-time jobs in high school
5. Connections (friends and family)
6. Entrepreneurship (start a business)

VERY specifically, HOW do they NOT earn little?

1. Unionize!
2. Vote for a higher minimum wage
3. Refuse to be paid peanuts; fully disclose all starting pay at all businesses, on an open website, and boycott the cheapskates!
4. Vote for little to no immigration (less competition)
5. Discover your niche in high school
6. ID special talents of yours
7. Government SHOULD help you navigate these issues in high school, but especially teach you how to live well on little, at least starting out
8. Work hard, and with high quality
9. ID those with physical and/or mental disabilities government SHOULD help
10. Find cheap, private ways to move up (like lower cost colleges, daycare, home mortgage down payments, weddings, cars, etc.).

We have detailed all of these in earlier writings. You have to move up to higher-paying, more career opportunities, with market-needed skills! Government, businesses and individuals SHOULD help! It's tough!

CONSERVATISM & WEALTH

(9/13/22-2)

When you see conservative political meetings, it seems there's two terms they agree on and unite around: Patriot and freedom. I'm pretty sure REAL U.S. patriots were called that by OTHERS, who saw their sacrificial deeds for our country! NOT self-labeled!

And for the conservative, freedom is a nebulous term they often or usually interpret as government can't tell me anything to do or not do—Don't tread on or restrict me! That's NOT God's definition, and government CAN do just that, and be doing His will! Rom. 13, etc.

I don't speak from experience, but TRUTH—God wants EVERY rich person to use their money for more than just themselves! I Tim. 6:17-19. I am instructed to tell you that, as a believer! You're to do just that, as a wealthy person! And the more you don't, the more taxes get clamored for!

Even U.S. Christians DON'T believe Ac. 20:35, Lk. 12:33 or Mt. 19:21! WE have adopted our culture over Christ! I made it so I keep it. It's mine to control. Ac. 5:4 It's the fruit of MY labors! Ps. 128:2; Gen. 3:19 NO ONE can tell me how to spend what I earned! WRONG-O! God can, and does!

GET A CAUSE! I guarantee you the temptation is to rationalize that heirs, ad infinitum, could benefit from you keeping it all in the family! God says bless others. Phil. 2 He teaches self-sufficiency and helping others' deficiency! Gal. 6:2, 5; II Cor. 8; Ac. 2:44-45 WE REJECT GOD's word!

I watched an illegal drug kingpin documentary, where some fool owned the largest home in Pakistan, and the question was asked, "what else was he to spend his fortunes on?" SELFISHNESS, GREED and HOARDING are bred into our cultural understanding! How about OTHERS, as God teaches?

You will die. Your riches won't travel with you, to Hell, where MOST rich people end up! Mt. 19:24; I Tim. 6:7 You will likely choose to spoil heirs, and pursue ego trips of climbing the Forbes' list of richest people, but you SHOULD emulate J. K. Rowling, and give much of it away! You won't.

OR, you'll demand your name be put on some library or other building. How about you find a cause needing funding, and "adopt a highway" for such a cause? Why not be remembered, when you die, for having done something good for the world—not just having done well for yourself, rich ones?

THIS subject doesn't get enough attention in my recent writings, because the Democrats have learned how to pipe down their extreme wing: AOC, Bernie, Warren, and the rest. Plus, the GOP, with MAGAs, take the spotlight, so people forget the Socialist bent in the Dem party. And, Joe has given their extremists MUCH of what they wanted!

MUCH wasted by mismanagement Covid stimulus money, BBB infrastructure bill's money, "inflation reduction" (healthcare and environment) law, TWO MILLION illegals entering our great country, and crime on the rise in many places WHY should the far left clamor?

It is their medium-term goal to get the following, even though they learned more patience, to be temporarily quiet, and to accept it iteratively, in crumbs vs. the whole enchilada. But NEVER FORGET, it was Biden who promised and lured poorer votes with "free" healthcare, daycare, college, student loan forgiveness, and home mortgage down payments!

They have NOT abandoned those desired ends! They also want MUCH higher minimum wage, the police reformed, climate change to incentivize killing business profits, especially BIG oil, and a host of other initiatives, like abortion on demand, with NO limits, forbidding people, ultimately, from even being able to say homosexuality is wrong (censorship/cancel culture), trans being able to compete in sports and men win all the women's medals, etc.!

DON'T THINK just because Jan. 6, and the horrible and often stupid deeds and words of MAGAs gains the media's attention, that that other extreme is not alive and well, waiting in the wings or their day to shine, IF the GOP ever returns to its right mind and moral moorings! I ALWAYS oppose BOTH extremes, even if one is more vocal!

WHY ARE SO MANY POC'S POORER?

(NOTE: NOT saying African-Americans are the only POC's that exist, or that all are poorer!)

(9/22/22-2)

THIS IS REAL SIMPLE! I've been researching politicians, and most GOP's are white. WHY IS THAT? People with some money like to keep it, and many people lacking it like to vote for government to help them out! Also why conservatism attracts so few POC, apart from Asians and Indians. Government help needn't be money!

WHY are so many "black and brown" people often poorer, and often happy to vote for government help? Is it slavery aftermath, or immigrants who don't speak English? I don't ask to be demeaning, but to understand, so we can find a way to FIX the problem, because it IS a problem! Answers?

Black men born to low-income parents are much more likely to end up with a low individual income than black women, white women, and—especially—white men. —Raj Chetty's "Race and Economic Opportunity in the United States: An Intergenerational Perspective"

Brookings Institute findings Why are employment rates so low among Black men?
<https://brook.gs/2NR4dJd> via @BrookingsInst

Major causes of lower employment and earnings among Black men:

1. Lower education, skills and work experience
2. Discrimination and social/spatial isolation
3. Lower marriage/child custody rates and worse health
4. Crime/incarceration and child support

To me, those studies suggest poorer black males need to:

1. Have protected sex (no child support)
2. Avoid drugs, gangs and crime
3. Get good work credentials
4. Have good transportation to work Practical, helpful information generally harder to do in "the hood"/"ghetto," I'm sure!

GODLESS DEMOCRATS?

(9/25/22-2)

WHY would Democrats be soft on crime? EVERYONE who is NOT a criminal is a potential victim! Is the jailhouse vote really that large a constituency?

I've been too busy to confirm, but allegedly Ed Young called Dems "godless."

1. That's natural for every human!
2. The solution is evangelism, not insults.

3. MANY GOP's are godless/unsaved, as well, especially within MAGA
4. You don't BLAME lost people for being unsaved; devil's victims!

Update #1: Demonizing Lost People is Un-Christlike

(9/26/22-2)

Democrats (which I am not): God, NOWHERE, calls you godless, for living a natural life. No one is condemned for being born a sinner! The Bible DOES describe the godless, for their evil deeds, but those are willful rebels to Him. There's as many in the MAGA GOP as in the Dem party!

Democrats: "Pastor" Edwin Young Inaccurately called you all "godless." LOOK at these verses, and see if your lifestyle is as described. If so, the shoe fits. If no, he is speaking heretically, for politics, to protect his BIG stash (hoard, Ecc. 5:13; I Tim. 6) <https://bible.knowing-jesus.com/words/Godless>

Ed Young is ONLY using the old and tarnished playbook of James Robison, who in Reagan's day, called Democrats "godless," and other terms I have previously discussed and directly quoted (Age-old trick): White Christians OFTEN slander Dems as being "godless." (James Robison, et al). I'm 100% elated that even if one is lost/unsaved, MANY Dems are now clearly seeing sins and hypocrisy among GOP claimers of religion! You don't have to know Jesus to know a skunk when you smell one! (1/30/21)

Update #2: How the Allegation Sticks (HINT: Bible Ignorance)

(9/28/22-2)

...because the other side doesn't share that idolatrous one position (abortion) on one of hundreds of issues facing our country, you demonize them as morally superior, or "godless," and self-righteously beat your chest as the moral superior, never seeing the LOGs in your eye!

YES, God sees this all. Many people live as though He doesn't, just because so many stupid people exist in America, who don't see this trick. I am NOT denying the sincerity of concern of some in the movement, maybe many. But it is to seize power that Jesus shunned for Himself!

It's the desire to lord over, by force of the Supreme Court, EXACTLY OPPOSITE the teachings of Jesus, Who said worldly lost people do that, but believers were not to do so, but to humbly serve others! EVER READ THAT BEFORE, pro-lifers? Mt. 20:25 be honest!

Those of you who are NOT of the Christian religion, or who don't go to church NEED to know that the VAST majority of those who claim Jesus are either fakes and frauds, deceived, or especially fall away apostate backslidden prodigals! They can act the act on Sunday! Two hour acting presentation!

My mom (RIP) could ACT happy, when she eventually died of suicide, obviously unhappy on the inside. They're sincere in thinking they're going to Heaven. Many will. But God calls them rebels, carnals, and ripe for judgment. Research proves they're the majority!

Those who rarely if ever pick up a Bible, or meet with Jesus for 10 minutes or so, daily, even though Jesus said discipleship is daily. They don't want to know Christ. They don't want to be more holy.

They don't want to be bothered with doing any service for Him (ministry). They want to work their jobs, get rich and have a good time ("freedom" and "the pursuit of happiness" is their "Bible" verse).

When God says set your mind above, they say I have set my mind below. When Jesus says do not store up treasures on earth, they say I am accumulating as many earthly treasures as I can set goals to acquire!

HOW ELSE can we categorize these Christ-claimers, than rebel backslidden carnal apostates? They are members of the Laodicean Church! Rev. 3 NO clue what their spiritual gift is, or how to disciple another believer (and no moral authority to do so). NO knowledge of God's word, to speak of.

Many of them have NO IDEA what any one book of the Bible is written about! Couldn't recite 10 Bible verses if you offered them their idol-a million dollars! NO service to humanity, to make the world better for their having lived in it their 70-80 wasted years. BUT they vote pro-life, so they're deemed good people.

God's sovereign calling of people to salvation, through the Gospel through your mouth is why one can NEVER criticize lost people (like is done against "Democrats," by Ed Young) for not accepting the Gospel! It is NOT a mere secular decision anyone can simply choose. Wills are bound! (9/29/22)

MORALS & COMMON SENSE

(9/3/22-2)

Rules, enforcement, and authority are KEY issues in our country and world, today! In a godless age, everyone likes to believe NO human has ANY right to tell any other human how they can or can't behave, or speak. AS IF there are no standards, rules, or any accountability. Judg. 21:25

NOT to sound preachy, but to preach: ALL our American focus on possessions and nest eggs distracts and deludes us from the important things of life, like morals, family, and devotion to God. For true Christians, FEW of us do EDBS priorities, and judgment day will be Hellish, as a result!

Update: Morality

(9/28/22-2)

On morality, every "rule" ties to some virtue or vice mentioned or alluded to or described in the Bible!

We don't like Ken Paxton lying that he feared a process server he claims looked suspicious, because people don't like liars.

We don't like Congress wasting billions, because waste is stupid and sinful. We don't like people breaking into our country, because they have no rights to take over, as if a nation has no rights to make its own migration rules.

We don't like politicians demonizing others, because that's demeaning and insulting (two other sins).

We don't like hypocrites in D.C. (double standards), because that's a sin, and it's unjust (justice is a virtue).

We don't like lawyer tricks, because they often deceive, mislead or distract from the truth (people like the truth-a virtue-unless they're guilty of sin, and want to cover it--yet another sin).

We like FEMA helping Florida Hurricane victims, because that's merciful and compassionate (two virtues).

We DON'T like Brett Favre (and/or his government associates) stealing money from the poor, because theft is a sin, but money to help the poor aligns with a virtue of helping the poor.

We don't like road rage killings in DFW, because murders a heinous sin, as is out of control anger.

We don't like extremists fighting, because that type of divisiveness is sin, and peace is a virtue, as is unity that allows for disagreeing agreeably.

You see, humanity likes morals, if you don't call them such! And we hate sins, renamed.

STOCKTON SERIAL KILLER

(10/5/22-2)

THIS video mainly to let the perp know the authorities are on to him, and remind him there are cameras "everywhere." It doesn't help the public a lot. I could TRY to guess his race (won't), by the swag walk, cap in Cali heat, overall body type and muscles—but NO way to know for sure, yet.

#StocktonKiller #Manhunt update:

Experts weigh in on Stockton serial killer, their next possible move.

<https://abcnews.go.com/US/mysterious-stockton-serial-killings-timeline/story?id=90916836>

THIS perimeter should be flooded with undercover cops from 6p-6a, BUT, now the killer knows he's on camera and TV, he could stop, or expand this area. His walk can give him away, in daytime.

@StocktonPolice CHECK MORE CAMERAS IN THE AREA! May live nearby-as ALL within walking distance.

IMO, he lives within five miles of this perimeter, since the murders span two years. Keeps going back to the same general area, which someone from elsewhere, or on the move/transient, would less likely do!

@StocktonPolice Check mall and college cameras facing outward from premises!

HERE's ground zero for finding the serial killer. I would NOT post fliers, as you tip him off, further, that you know his stomping grounds. Only do that after you have, undercover, check all businesses and cameras in this zone, IMO! @StocktonPolice During the day, look for his walk.

IF serial killer is shooting at night, he may sleep, some, during the day, or it's just a non-time-consuming "hobby" after hours, if he works. I expect him to NOT show his face or walk, in daylight hours, in the area. That would be stupid (but criminals often are).

IF killer has car, or uses public transportation, he could be anywhere within 30 miles, from sun up to sun down. @StocktonPolice Have you examined busses, public rail, Uber cameras? "They only come out at night." Can ballistics identify his gun as unique? Check gun store cameras.

OBVIOUSLY, you place Latino-looking undercover male cops between ages 28 and 52, as decoys in the evenings, in the area where the murders are found, just like bait cars. Maybe have them camp out, or look homeless, or be in dark/unlighted areas. Keep them safe and armed! @StocktonPolice

The Stockton killer is, most likely, a local, based on his attacking in the same general area, but especially his comfort and familiarity at the pass through you caught him on camera walking by. OR, he scopes out targets a lot. I doubt that; more random victims.

Update: Resolution

(10/16/22-2)

CAUGHT! GREAT JOB, @stocktonpolice

KANYE KRAZINESS: BOO, NOT YE-A!

(10/6/22-2)

Moses was a HERO for God. Stuttering is NOT a moral choice. Trump did all of the below, which DISqualified him for leadership, no matter that even some good was possible (if never realized?) in Hitler! (See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at page 412)

There REALLY is value-as God said-in spiritual maturity, which takes time and effort! Kanye is NO spokesman for God, or about Moses, comparing the possible Antichrist to one of the greatest humans of all time! It's blasphemy how ignorant people can be, just claiming to be Christians!

People CLAMING to be "Christians" should publicly speak words conforming to Him! Kanye comparing a disability to an immoral lifestyle is the HEIGHT of insult to people with disabilities! He's TRYING to appeal to DUMB vs. smart believers, invoking Moses; but it FAILS bigly! LOGIC!

I HOPE U.S. pastors SEE pundits are manipulating your flock/people's IGNORANCE, like Kanye referencing Moses, and Herschel Walker touted for his great faith, when he's a hypocrite on abortion. YOU PASTORS MUST DISCIPE YOUR PEOPLE BETTER! Dumb and evil are NOT a good look! They're in YOUR charge! (Eph. 4; I Pet. 5)

Hitler was like Helen Keller! That is the ONLY logical conclusion you can make from the illogical claim of Kanye West that tRUMP is anything like Moses, because every human is imperfect. THERE ARE DEGREES OF DIFFERENCES IN IMPERFECTION!

See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at page 412, vs.:

Kanye West says trump loves America.

1. He loves himself, more
2. Most Americans love America
3. Loving America doesn't require anyone overlook her sins
4. True love isn't arrogant (I Cor. 13) like U.S. superiority complex!
5. He says what you want to hear! That's not love, but manipulation. @kanyewest

What's tRUMP's disability, Kanye West? freely choosing sin over righteousness, and ignorance over intelligence? Moses would be rolling over in his grave!

THIS is godlessness, @kanyewest! Learn, and grow up, spiritually, claiming brother I suspect actually is saved!?

A 'godless agenda' is poor... fend for yourself; let me idolize money, hoard and be selfish, engage greed, make all leverage disadvantage workers, NOT render what's due to Caesar, if my experts are crafty.

THAT IS GODLESS, spiritually immature @kanyewest, like your "baby Christian" hero.

We are objective, here! I slammed Ye on Trump like Moses, but he's got a lot of truth said, here. If she had no singing talent, he'd have a higher percent of truthfulness, but the left hates body type stereotypes!: Kanye West says the media is purposely supporting Lizzo for being unhealthy. (10/8/22)

Kanye threatened the Jews on Twitter, yesterday? If it doesn't trend, I rarely learn about it. That man is likely off his meds, and Jesus should never be associated with anything evil or dumb he does or says! EMBARRASSING hoof-in-mouth disease! (10/22/22)

WARNING: This man does NOT speak for Jesus, any more than I can say I speak for skinny people!: Kanye West says George Floyd passed away because of fentanyl and that the cop's knee "wasn't even on his neck like that." (10/17/22)

PRECEDENT IS A PRESENT (& A PRESCRIPTION)

(10/10/22-2)

I don't think conservatives who AREN'T lawyers understand or appreciate the legal concept of precedent! Precedent is how society maintains stability! Imagine if you didn't know if your everyday commute's speed limit was going to change, randomly, whenever.

Imagine if one state said murder is OK, but another disagreed. Or imagine if one state said murder is illegal, then another political party took over its reins, and made it legal.

Precedent allows lawyers to bring court cases, knowing the rules of the game they have to play by. It allows them to know the law, so they can know if it's been broken. When there is not clear legislation, past court case rulings provide precedent, going forward, in that jurisdiction.

I opposed nationalizing gay marriage! I spoke out as LOUDly as I could opposing it! I even tried to get pastors on board.

But they were snails and sloths, and it passed. Now it's precedent. The government isn't in the business of breaking up marriages, or disrupting families! I can 100% STILL disagree with homosexuality, or calling their union "marriage" (as I DO), but it doesn't affect much to keep Obergefell!

I will NEVER agree with their relationship being called a "marriage," but what I agree with or call something doesn't require them to lose rights and stability precedent allows them! We can agree to disagree, without having to ruin their lives over what the state labels their union!

I am also FOR the heartbeat law for abortion, with mom's life and vegetative baby exceptions. It is BEST for rape or incest victims to VOLUNTARILY take Plan B within three days of their attack, but they're traumatized, and that might not happen. SO BE IT!

Give them until a heartbeat! And as for ANY woman seeking an abortion before its heartbeat, YES, you ARE killing a human being! It IS evil and sinful, but women are also allowed (under our laws) informed consent, like knowing if they're pregnant, or not, before making a decision about whether to continue. That takes a few weeks. Again, arguing for the heartbeat!

Also, the earlier one decides, the better, as it's less harmful or painful to the baby! This position does not mean its supporters are for or advocating in support of killing babies! If we were for that, we'd line up one year olds and gun them down with AK-47's!

This (right) position is legally acknowledging there are two parties involved (like the Solomonian baby splitting case), both are sinners, one is more innocent, and the government is responsible for justice, and considering BOTH parties "standing" before it! I am NOT for banning all abortions after insemination or even after fertilization!

Heartbeat allows the sometimes necessary evil choice to NOT be felt by the baby. It gives women enough time to know if they're pregnant. It allows the baby to not even have formed enough to resemble a human shape (if done at an earlier point), but especially to FEEL the torturous impact of this sinful procedure.

And, just as with Roe's viability standard, a baby certainly could not exist outside the womb without a beating heart! Even in the Bible-the heart is a very crucial element of man's existence, symbolically and otherwise. States now have the freedom to choose their laws, due to an UNjust and politicized BAD SCOTUS decision that left zero guidelines or restraints (Dodds).

So my Christian brethren are FREE to DISagree with my heartbeat standard, but everyone else NEEDS to know that MOST of them never lift one finger to keep BIRTHED humans from going to Hell, and aborted fetuses GO TO HEAVEN! That disparity I do NOT hear them clamoring about as much as abortion, and that's where their hypocrisy sin shouts out to all who'd hear, the most!

SOUTHWESTERN SEMINARY

(10/12/22-2)

I DON'T know exactly what's going on at my seminary alma mater, but MUCH upheaval, recently! I have NO lack of faith in O S Hawkins to steer the ship soundly, during transition. WISH articles detailed more of what their problems have been! Run it right-avoid problems! Duh 101

Letter to the Editor: On the crisis at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary
https://baptistnews.com/article/letter-to-the-editor-on-the-crisis-at-southwestern-baptist-theological-seminary/#.Y0bF7HDis_0.twitter... via @baptist_news

So @swbts suffers from autocratic firings, funds depletion and low enrollees. They DO spend too much on fancy building programs, are in a HORRIBLE (and boring) part of town. LOOK at the president's house-much too extravagant! I'd go to @dallaseminary, if I had it to do over again!

IF @swbts is to be resurrected, they NEED to be known for excellent preachers who know the Bible well! NOT giving students tools, and graduating knowing the Bible LITTLE, except for personal studies! QUIT the fancy building expansions, and train small church pastors how to survive!

I DON'TKNOW how @swbts lost so much money, but I'm SURE an audit would reveal the waste and problems and luxuries and overpaid administrators. #Corruption can't focus on filling mega church pulpits! Majority will never work at one! Small church economic survival training needed, IMO!

I am a theological conservative. I have NO place for moderation/compromise in theology. But Paige Patterson (and my hero, Paul Pressler) did MUCH harm with Dilday's home lockout, and being arrogant autocrats! I no longer speak to the Judge. Theirs was an ego/power trip for publicity!

I didn't like Dilday, as a theological moderate to liberal! I refused to shake his hand in a reception line at SWBTS. But he was MISTreated, unjustly! I NEVER support unjust behavior. Stained glass windows of Paige Patterson, before he's dead, is an arrogant ego trip. Can't imagine!

Adam Greenway: Today is the 91st birthday of @SWBTS's sixth President, Russell H. Dilday. He became our seminary's president the year I was born, and led here during years of record enrollment and impact. I hope all my fellow Southwesterners will join me in wishing Dr. Dilday birthday blessings.

Update #1: Needed Changes

(10/12/22-2)

Southwestern Seminary CANNOT change this, but even though they have bought up MUCH of the surrounding rundown properties, they are located off the Beaton path, miles from a major artery and off the main drag, in a dangerous area within mere miles! @swbts @dallaseminary is citified.

IF I were to go to seminary in DFW, it'd likely be Criswell. @swbts was NOT famous for teaching the Bible, but tools to understand it, over decades. What I now know, which <http://AmericanAnswers.org> PROVES is much, came from personal study. Teach the Bible, evangelism and discipling!

When I was at @swbts, everyone wanted to be a mega church pulpiteer! Fake doctorates (D.Min. vs. Ph.D.) and excelling at homiletics class was the way to go. I DIDN'T choose that path more taken! QUIT Joel Gregory's class for an inductive Bible study alternative. Content over presentation!

@swbts NEEDS to de-emphasize mega salaries for pastors, which started when I was there, with the "Church Growth Movement." People in ministry for money are disqualified, and discrediting to our fine institution! Teach them bivocational skills/real life! Not fancy speaking tricks!

@swbts now has Truitt-just down the road. MUCH more scholarly @dallaseminary and even Bible-oriented Criswell. It can't remain tools teaching, when DTS teaches Bible, Criswell more so than SWBTS, and Truitt siphoning off theological moderates! @OSHawkins What's its niche/specialty?

On the history of the SWBTS president's home being on campus (a HORRIBLE and idiotic idea): IF you drive past the presidents house on the @swbts campus, you see ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW about its current fiscal challenges! You are attracting money-hungry so-called leaders, making life so cushy for them, AT A SEMINARY! It's NOT a medical school! Deemphasize wealth. Baylor, as well.

DTS: Bible understanding, and teaching

Criswell: Exposition and general Bible understanding

Truitt: Preaching and moderate theological bent

Southwestern: Teach tools for Bible knowledge, and preaching skills Competitive? @swbts Niche is undeterminable, IMO!

When I was at @swbts (M.Div. 1985), EVERYONE (but one roommate) wanted a mega church job, by getting A's in preaching lab and class, and seeking a D.Min. That's IRRATIONAL, when MOST will NOT get such gigs! Too much UNbiblical emphasis on profits vs. prophets! Carnal, Laodicean emphases!

Baylor went the exact same way as @swbts, since I graduated, with building programs as the focus, and getting scholarly rankings to jack up tuition (and gold football helmets, overpaying coaches to get national rankings). I'm GLAD no more of my kids will graduate from there! Money-crazed!

IF @swbts had a required bivocational course and lab, to ensure all graduates could be financially stable, no matter where they got pulpits, they'd have a useful and unique niche to attract pragmatic preachers! @oshawkins Make sure they survive and remain in the field, vs. burn out and leave!

IF, as I read, @swbts is as big as SMU (6K+) or TCU (10K+), consider selling off part of the property, to help with financial woes! We're nothing like them (~3K max), as to draw of student body size! and they're known for wealthy alumni. GET OUT OF THE OVER-ASSET BUSINESS! @oshawkins

Update #2: Accolades & Assets

(10/13/22-2)

This has always been the heartbeat of Southwestern...like our Lord..."Seeking to save the lost" Matt Queen @DrMattQueen

Hope for @SWBTS PROUD of my two past churches! swbts.edu Prestonwood gifts $100,000 to Southwestern Seminary, announces matching gift from Second Baptist...

Because of the "love and affection" he and his church have for Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Jack Graham, pastor of Prestonwood Baptist Church in Plano, gave a $100,000 gift to the...

Dr. Roy Fish was THE MAN!

Update #3: Vision 2022

(10/15/22-2)

I'd NOT market @swbts as facing problems, needing a bailout and resurrection/rebuilding/restoration! I would sell assets, to reduce liabilities/debt/expenses, fix problems, set a positive vision, make that vision reality, THEN seek students to join in that vision. Only takes three months, IMO!

If @swbts has ~the same campus size as SMU and TCU, with 1/3 to 1/2 their student population, and MUCH less rich alumni, logic calls out to me they own too much real estate, rather than seeking handouts from churches with members who might become future students! #CommonSense to me!

@oshawkins I UNDERSTAND @swbts and @Baylor decided to buy up nearby slums-decades ago-to make campuses safer and more attractive/appealing. But if enrollment tuition can't support that debt load, you aren't going to get a huge increase in students-magically-without severe changes, or asset reduction.

IF @swbts founded a Center for Global Evangelism that tracked where Great Commission hasn't gone, which individuals hadn't heard, taught EDDBS priorities, general Bible understanding-BEFORE graduating (and real life bivocational skills), I think they'd have a BRIGHT future!

I'm SO impressed with O S Hawkins (Ex: sermon, You Have What You Tolerate), IF I learn he's speaking at Prestonwood, I will ask the wife if she will go with me to hear him. I don't monitor who's speaking there, but his twitter account is a suggested read, so maybe I'd learn that way?

IF I knew what bad decisions were made at @swbts, I could more easily help them solve them! I've read harmed reputation, fiscal mismanagement, and autocratic ruler ship over professors. I have NO idea the specifics! GENERALLY: Have standards for profs, don't waste money and be biblical.

Just another person's take on non-specific alleged problems at @swbts:

baptistnews.com What happened at Southwestern and why does it matter? There is no joy in reporting that Southwestern Seminary has forced out its fourth president in 28 years. But there is a need to give some interpretation to what this means and why it likely happened.

If STUDENTS' tuition is the budget backbone, or even if alumni gifts are significant, @swbts HAS to re-establish trust. That's NOT a P.R. stunt! You have to have credible using of monies, respected scholar profs, moral decisions and teach biblical values, and prepare grads for success!

Early 20s students are going to be reticent to choose @swbts for career, until the problems are fixed, which can then improve reputation. DON'T try marketing to students to help rebuild; rebuild first, and make it a place to WANT to attend. "If you build it they will come," @oshawkins

It appears faculty at @swbts are good, and basically victims of POOR leadership, about sex allegations handling, and financial mismanagement. That is an administrative vs. professorial problem!
DON'THARM doctors' careers, or chances at getting enrollment up. FIX THE LEADERSHIP decisions!

Sir-For my alma mater to be restored, full transparency of past culprits' deeds admitted seems in order! I (as but one in the public) have ZERO idea what actions by whom caused the problems at @swbts.
DON'T make us speculate! Have the organization 'fess up with appropriate specificity. @oshawkins

I don't know the @swbts campus well, but 1/3 to 1/2 the student body of SMU and TCU tells me sell off assets! The entry has MUCH wasted grass. Retail could use that, off the main drag! I'm sure a map could show me many more land spaces the seminary should NOT own, as can't afford!

Last time I was at @swbts, it looked like they have become in the housing business, with apartments, and other buildings that were privately owned when I was there. Get in the education business, number one! Is it mishandling of sex lawsuits that are killing the budget? TELL THE PUBLIC! (10/16/22)

@oshawkins 3-month task to right the @swbts ship is SO EASY, IMO:

1. Publicly expose the bad decisions; don't name names
2. Sell assets, to cover costs
3. Re-orient the seminary to God's priorities for preachers, and train them to be successful
4. Have a niche of global evangelism center

So long as you train young people to know God's word well, preach it well, do ministry well, and have good personal moral values, churches (future employers) should NOT hold any of the school's past administrators' actions against @swbts graduates! @oshawkins (10/17/22)

Update #4: Innovations

(10/19/22-2)

OBVIOUSLY, history and heroes of @swbts need to be touted at the New Prospects event. Highlights of achievements by the seminary, like numbers graduated, famous alumni, ministry output, mega churches spawned, missions and evangelism impact, etc. @oshawkins The past can be surpassed!

MAY I SUGGEST a required preaching style course that dissects 50 awesome preachers over the century, with video clips, audio, or text (for ancients) analysis of why they were effective, tools used, and practice using such tools? THAT would make great graduates! @swbts @oshawkins

DOWN THE LINE (when money flows), 3-D holograph mock ups of Spurgeon (actor reads his sermon), Moody, Martin Luther, Calvin, and clips of Billy Graham, and all famous evangelists (video or hologram). PUT @SWBTS ON THE MAP! @oshawkins number one preacher training, and great Bible understanding!!!

CHEAPLY, yet effectively, you could DVD record today's best preachers, and have students evaluate their techniques, watching a good representative sample of David Jeremiah, Greg Laurie, Jack Graham, Swindoll, Charles Stanley, and 10 others! @swbts @oshawkins LEARN how to imitate greatness.

ISN'T IT ILLOGICAL to teach seminary students tools for life use, vs. mainly teaching them the Bible they will be preaching for life? DTS does it best. Even Criswell is better than @swbts's two general overview courses (little detail; actual reading ALL Bible NOT required). @oshawkins FIX this, please.

IF we believe the Bible, God's calling His men of the cloth to be world changers, and know what church is to be and do-not just hymns, announcements, sermon, invitation and giving order of worship presented in pastoral studies class! START with the Bible's descriptions. @swbts @oshawkins

It's SAD, as I'm actively working on the speaking engagement element of media/outreach, ALL I keep thinking about is Friday's new student showcase of SWBTS, and how 20 somethings could be excited about joining what looks like a ship with holes in it. You've got to present a vision in three days!

Get the best preachers in America to come speak to the preaching classes. Maybe a week or two of best and brightest-giving away trade secrets. You have to distinguish @swbts from all other options for seminary student tuition dollars! @oshawkins DTS rejected me-thinking my grades too low.

@swbts, and aren't on TV DVR. MacArthur, John Piper, Robert Morris, and maybe 20 total. Let preachers-to-be LEARN how the best do it, as sermons are a BIG part of U.S. Christendom @swbts @oshawkins Show them how also to teach.

@swbts OUGHT TO BE the missionary training center of our world! @oshawkins The IMB (International Mission Board) should get MOST of its best-skilled and prepared graduates from there, in the lineage of Hudson Taylor, and many others I studied in a missions class. May it be so! Have them ready to hit the ground running.

IF @swbts taught biblical qualifications for ministers, students wouldn't-(in the heart-be clamoring to secure mega church gigs upon graduation! IF you matriculated the most biblical practicing grads, the school would become world-renowned! @oshawkins MAY IT BE SO! God honors it!

You should have an entire psychology course taught by trained Christian psychologists, to prevent @swbts students falling prey to this problem!: @OSHawkins <https://southwestledger.news/news/burned-out-mainline-pastors-consider-quitting-ministry#:~:text=Deeper%20analysis%20of%20the%20research,of%20pastors%2045%20and%20older...> "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure!"

IF you read my past two weeks of tweeted suggestions for my alma mater, @SWBTS, you will make Southern Baptist seminaries the cream of the crop (if you hire some @dallaseminary professors, or grads, to teach them the Bible). #JustDoIt

IF you read my past two weeks of tweeted suggestions for @SWBTS, you will make SB seminaries the cream of the crop (if you hire some @dallaseminary profs, or grads, to teach them the Bible) #JustDoIt @GatewaySeminary @SEBTS @NOBTS @MBTS @SBTS @jasonkeithallen @dannyakim @jamiakdew Dr. Jeff Lorg @gatewayseminary) @albertmohler

WHAT would define "success" for @swbts? What God defines it as! Josh. 1:8 MOST graduates will NOT head up mega churches, but they CAN do God's top priorities, morally, blessed and empowered by Him. MAY IT BE SO!

CAMPAIGN PROMOTIONS

(10/16/22-2)

I know a man who was teleported, in OUR generation (1981), from Hillsboro, TX to Austin, TX, in a split second! On behalf of that man I will boast. II Cor. 12

I know a man whose writings have secretly led America's politics, since 2014, including two Presidents! On behalf of that guy I will boast. II Cor. 12

I know the dude for who these quote was said! I have met and personally know his name! On behalf of that person I will boast. II Cor. 12 See: AmericanAnswers.org, Campaign Updates, Credentials

I have interviewed the man that George W. Bush was referring to! I have even penned his answers and thoughts! Me, a mere writer! II Cor. 12 See: AmericanAnswers.org, Campaign Updates, Influencers

I heard of a website that has all the right, common sense answers to all issues America faces, or at least forms the basis for their solutions being generated based on its principles! I stumbled onto it, quite "by accident." It's called <http://AmericanAnswers.org>

There's some guy who started Trump's evangelical voting bloc, and whose ideas trump stole, to give substance to his otherwise policy-useless campaign, back in 2015. I have never told people about him, but he exists, and I know the guy and his phone number! I'll let him reveal himself!

The Jews are the ONLY group of people who God formed into an actual "religious" nation! The Church is NOT a nation, because Christians exist all over the world, as God designed it—not in one geographical nation! Christian Nationalism is error and falsehood! (11/2/22)

FRANKLIN GRAHAM & CHRISTIAN NATIONALISM

(10/12/22-2)

Vote according to biblical convictions, Franklin Graham? You mean where the Bible is for life, but also for helping the poor, and not being greedy or selfish? Which party would that be?

Update: "America is a Christian nation, and always will be"

(10/19/22-2)

Franklin Graham is mistaken! ("America is a Christian nation, and always will be"). America is a nation founded upon Judeo-Christian principles. The difference is like Iran being a Muslim nation! Christian Nationalism is against the First amendment! NOT a theocracy! He's just trying to get WASPs to vote GOP in the midterms!

HERE is PROOF Franklin Graham is WRONG: Evangelism is the ONLY way ANY American becomes a "Christian," so the more people are born, here, who don't turn to Jesus, the more NON-Christian our nation becomes! And evangelism has waned since the 1980s. Has NOTHING to do with government!

America is a secular democracy founded upon Judeo-Christian principles, by Founders who were often Christians. WHY CAN'T Franklin Graham use words accurately? Christian Nationalism violates the First Amendment! Duh 101

Franklin Graham NEEDS to read the first Amendment, today! "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof;" NO ESTABLISHING OR PROHIBITING any religion, including mine (and his): Christianity! READ THE WORDS LITERALLY!

America will ONLY be a predominantly Christian-filled nation if believers evangelize, @Franklin Graham! YOU KNOW THIS! You're just trying to say, "Christians, vote GOP! We AREN'T a theocracy, and Christian Nationalism is heresy and violates the Constitution's first Amendment! YOU KNOW THIS!

Pushing Christian Nationalism does HARM to the cause of Christ! If ANY lost person sees you're a Christian, trying to get them to Heaven, they have every reason to believe you believe America is a theocracy they have to obey, whether they get saved, or remain lost!

Franklin Graham's LIE (statement) is further proven wrong, IF he knew prophecy! IF America hasn't gone defunct, by political spats he flares and embraces, Bible prophecy itself says ALL nations will be ruled by the Antichrist, before Jesus returns! READ MORE BIBLE!

Update: Robert Jeffress & Christian Nationalism

(11/2/22-2)

IF you read the accounts of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, or of Christ's temptations, the difference between truth and error can be slight, requiring specific distinctions.

The devil is always trying to warp God's words! I skimmed an article, by a preacher, no less, the other day that said, "I want to impose our [Christians'] values onto America," and who agreed with the statement, "America is a Christian nation."

Facts matter, and lies are evil! IF he had also been well-versed IN God's word, God does NOT teach to impose moral rules on lost people before trying to get them saved (which is so much more important than them behaving more morally)!

And He does NOT teach you use sin, evil or injustice to do so, like denying Garland a seat, then having 1-3 Justices LIE about precedent, to cram your agenda down America's throat, UN-justly!

And God SEES the wickedness that the values Mr. Jeffress was speaking of NEVER includes the WHOLE counsel of God, but only narrow, cherry-picked verses and political issues that favor the right, and keeping all one's money, as much as humanly possible!

NO concern for anything but abortion and gays, for the most part! Not a PEEP in his sermon about do not chase money, life is not about money, the love of money is the root of all sorts of evil, greed and worldliness are NOT good, but bad, as is selfishness, the safety net the Jews and early Christians had, commands to help the poor, and that government is NOT evil, but ordained by God, and Christians should NOT be encouraging people that taxes are evil, or "abolish the IRS," or favor the rich and businesses, don't have any policy toward the workers, but to work harder (even though business has made the market an uneven playing field, by layoffs, M and A, streamlining, outsourcing, automating, AI and robotics, increased copays, part time unbenefitted contract labor, unpaid internships, fighting minimum wage and unionizing, some paying NO taxes—vs. their fair share—ended pensions, ignoring illegal alien labor, etc.

NO, what "values" he was advocating are NOT Christian, but political conservative values! Was he concerned Christians DO NOT evangelize every lost American, even as he is concerned every American is forced to take to term, if they're ever pregnant, rape, incest, or however? NO!

Does he care the rich are often NOT generous, according to I Tim. 6:17-19? He-I NO.

Does he believe to whom much is given, much will be required, or that the Bible, more often than not, is scolding or cautioning the rich, and Jesus spent more efforts to help the down and out—THOSE BIBLICAL values? No sir-ee.

And as to America being a "Christian nation," the phrase is laughable. You aren't born a Christian, but you are born an American. You aren't a Christian because your family is. Preachers say this, all the time, in sermon invitations!

YET, somehow he believes a nation can maintain the same or greater percent of Christians as when it was founded, my osmosis. NO, it's by thorough/100% evangelism, ONLY!

And not one Christian Bible verse has ever been enacted verbatim into our law code!

The difference between us having been begun by mainly religiously oppressed people, with documents founded often influenced by Judeo-Christian values, and not America being a "Christian nation" is a distinction about as important as "hath God said" and "throw Yourself down" and God's angels will take care of you TESTING vs. trusting of God!

Finally, he FAILS to comprehend the First Amendment, and if I recall correctly, said all religions aren't to be hindered or established by government, but that doesn't mean all religions are equal. To our laws? YES THEY ARE, if they're real religions, vs. tax-averting schemes.

America could just as easily become an atheist or Islamist nation, IF Christians don't do their evangelism job, and become better salt and light, to get non-Christians to FREELY vs. forcibly accept our biblical moral values, Mr. Jeffress!

Pray and think about it, and read Gen. 3 and Mt. 4!

P.S.: I WILL completely commend him, SIX YEARS LATER, for abandoning the concept that Christians have to save American, and replacing that bull honkey with Christians need to get Americans saved from the wrath of God. That, my friends, is a moral and biblical evolution/change/improvement!

#FAKECHRISTIAN

(10/26/22-2)

It's election day for my family, and here's a related three-fer of messages. Our decision is based on these warpings of Christianity:

- a) "God wrote the Constitution" (TX Lt. Gov. Dan Patrick's LIE). God wrote the Bible, which Danny boy needs to heed more closely!
- b) "Godless Democrats" (Second Baptist, Houston's Ed Young). WHERE in the Bible are Christians taught to insult the lost for being lost, rather than to evangelize/save them, as satan's victims? II Cor. 4:4, and AS IF many GOP's aren't godless in their values and behaviors. WARPING of "Christianity"—again!
- c) Fighting "demon Democrats" (Trump's black pastor Burns). People who BELIEVE the Bible know we wrestle not against flesh and blood, foolish fake! Eph. 6:12
- d) "America is a Christian nation" LIE of Franklin Graham. It is a nation founded by many but not all who were fleeing religious persecution, and was founded upon many Judeo-Christian values. We do NOT live in a theocracy, and "you can't handle the truth," or the truth of how our laws would be IF this was a theocracy! (Jack Nicholson reference).

Finally:

- e) Southwestern Seminary (my alma mater) warns a Democrat politician is coming there, uninvited. SO afraid alumni might think the school isn't GOP-oriented!

ALL of these lies, sins and deceptions are intended to implicitly (vs. expressly) teach WASP predominantly carnal Christians that if you're white and believe you're saved, you have to vote GOP! For that reason, except for some good GOP's, for my first time I'll vote Democrat, today, in protest!

Message one out of the way, but I said these three-fers were related. WHERE is the fruit of the Spirit in claiming Christians engaging politics? Gal. 5:22-23 LITERALLY, religious people have ABANDONED God and His values, and accepted Ross Perot's characterization (which he denounced) that 'politics has no rules!'

God ALWAYS has rules Christians are NOT free to abandon in any area of life, including business and the privacy of one's own home, gay believers. Lying, exaggerating, hypocrisy, idolatry, favoritism, hatred, division... THESE are NOT Christian values, folks!

NO reconciling, loving (vs. hatred) seeking common ground, SOLVING problems, respect, relating to the other side, loving your enemy, humility, reproof, truth/accuracy of word (or dare I say deed?).

These Christian values are NOT often on display in U.S. politics. And to insinuate that EVERY black or brown American church and its members who votes Democrat is NOT in God's will, is blasphemy!
@FHunscripted.

There are REASONS the devil's tactics are being used by white preachers speaking politically! Because they supported a DUMB/unwise decision to UNjustly stack SCOTUS to force Roe's undoing, with ZERO national standard range to replace it, they are DESPERATE (not a condition people with faith in God should face) to ensure Roe doesn't get codified by @POTUS!

This election cycle, they are worried (another sin) all their ill-gotten gains could be lost, if GOP's don't make gains!

It is from the idolatry of secular power Jesus shunned for Himself (and taught us we are not of this world, but in it) that they only view America as facing one challenge/crisis/problem—abortions! Talk about HYPER mono-focus!

And finally,

3) What POLICIES are they seeking to defend, that Franklin Graham tells any who listen to him (UNlike those who'd have listened to his dad, with a MUCH more biblical message on politics!) "vote according to biblical values?" I've made a list, Frankie!

I will assign homework, today, and readers have to actually do the work it takes to look up their references, then decide which political party they more support. Call this the Political Bible. Good luck having the patience to do a little Bible study!

So here they are, in random/no particular order! Go vote! Mt. 7:12 (would ALL U.S. business owners want to be treated like they treat every employee, especially financially, or lording over? Huh? Bad bosses); Mt. 20:25; I Pet. 5:3; Jas. 5:1-5.

Phil. 2:3-5 (humility); Gal. 6:2; Gal. 6:5; Ac. 5:4 (property rights); Mt. 20:1-16; II Th. 3:10; PVAs. 14:31; Pv. 22:9; I Tim. 6:17-19; The Jews' NATIONAL safety net; Ac. 2:42-44; Ac. 4:32-35; II Cor. 8:1-13; Mt. 25:31-40; Rom. 13:1-7; Mk. 12:17; Levit. 19:15; Mic. 6:8, for starters.

EVERY issue we face has a moral component, and they're usually warped to an extreme, to rile up voters! I've written enough on how to solve that. Enjoy your reading, and avoid sour grapes as your life's fruit!

It ALL comes down to do Christians, including pastors, believe in God, believe in the Bible, believe in obeying both of those, or do they rather believe you must sin-to-win, in U.S. politics? #MoralsMatter, to all but FAKE and carnal Christians! End of my three-fer messages! Off to vote!

I will add these verses to today's homework assignment. TELL ME which political party these Christian values pertain to?: Eph. 6:5-9; Col. 3:22-4:1;

P.S.: EVERY Republican except the top three and one's wife (Abbott, Patrick, Paxton and Paxton) got my vote, today! The other four went to Democrats. Whoever Jamie Jolly is, both my wife and I were turned off by something annoying in her signs and ads, so a democrat against her, as well.

Update: Trumpstink Evangelicals

(11/10/22-2)

Christian Nationalists are PROVING for the WHOLE world to observe, their own sinful/carnal walk with their claimed God, by idolizing secular power Jesus rejected, to allow NO moral standards in their candidates! EVERYTHING biblical Christianity teaches they are rejecting about who to vote for.

Just LOOK at all the moral principles they REGULARLY break, in the pursuit of secular power, even as they denounce the concept of "secular" in "godless" Democrats:

1. Does God, ANYWHERE, teach Christians to view lost people are enemies, vs. victims needing a Savior? NO.
2. Does God teach to evangelize people you believe are lost, and pray for people you believe are enemies, or teach pastors to label them "godless" and enemies of God?
3. God specifically teaches who His enemies are, and that's Christians (and pastors) who suffer worldly love of things and money.
4. I know "preachers" (NOT teachers) who will have others fill in for them, and preach "You have what you tolerate," then tolerate all sorts of evils, for secular power, like championing Trump, backing deSATAN, Herschel, MTG, Boebert, GYM Jordan, etc. NO moral standards in the pursuit of power.
5. Win-at-all-costs is a value NO decent human adheres to, but these FAKE Christians do!
6. Satan himself, and Hitler would be OK as candidates, if they'd vote for a national abortion ban! DON'T KID YOURSELF--this ILK will deny that with their mouths, but their DEEDS prove its TRUE!
7. This character-abandoning "Christian" is, by definition, apostate and carnal/backslidden, sinning (idolatry). Tell your kids that's OK, because ONLY policy matters, then have several unChristian policies! Kids are too innocent to catch the ploy, parents!
8. This scourge on MY religion gives Jesus a bad name, reputation-wise, and there's NO WAY any lost person wants to hear about our faith if they know the speaker engages such obvious hypocrisy!
9. This outlaw bunch DOES NOT BELIEVE "the only thing keeping evil from prevailing is good people doing nothing"!
10. This bunch NEVER speaks up, never speaks out, never puts one foot down, or ever publicly denounces ANY sins among their tribe! COMPLETE opposites to Jesus, Paul, Peter, John, John the Baptist, and God Himself. I'd call that ANTI-Christ, and "God-less." Satanic. Sin-full.
11. These imposters find NO value in split ticket voting, not voting (as a protest), or even threatening not to vote, if politicians don't change! They go along to get along, and stay silent, wanting time alone to heal all wounds. NOTHING in that free-willed sin choice is consistent with ANY Christian morals.
12. Accountability, responsibility and reproof are NOT in their moral playbook, but sin justifying IS! ALL these anti-Christian values are freely accepted by people who blasphemously name "Jesus," because they have cultishly self-brainwashed that a total national abortion ban is the ONLY political issue the entire Bible speaks about!

They not only REJECT full counsel of God, they can throw out 99.99 percent of the Bible, when it comes to politics and voting! YET, they'll preach God is Master of EVERY aspect of a Christian's life (but not their politics, apparently, or better: obviously).

EVERY Sunday and EVERY sermon Christian-wanna-bes, along with actual ones, hear sermons on moral improvement, for God (sanctification). But when you apply your sermons, and the rubber hits the road, politicians can behave any old ways, so long as you support them on policy. HYPOCRISY sin!

The smartest, WISEST pastors in America privately voted for as biblical policies as they could, but didn't get publicly involved in supporting CHUMP. That distinction will ALWAYS haunt the fools who crossed that line, and I am but one who will ensure that it does. #Trumpstink Evangelicals

WOULD YOU listen to, or find ANY moral authority or credibility of any Trump-supporting "Christian" Evangelicals who talked to you about your morals, or where you will spend eternity?

FLOOD SIDEWAYS (CENTRIST) ECONOMICS

(10/29/22-2)

I do NOT believe in trickle-down economics (which favors the rich) or trickle-up (which favors the poor). I believe in flood sideways economics! Its elements are as follows:

1. EVERY American pays their fair share in taxes, including all businesses
 2. The fed budget is streamlined for best bang for the buck
 3. 10 hours of civic service a year are required of all U.S. citizens NOT in public service, to help government do more for less tax dollars
 4. Taxes are scaled, with the rich paying the highest percent, with NO loopholes
 5. There are zero freebies, and any subsidies are repaid, by money or more civic service. Justice prevails
 6. U.S. businesses are required to treat employees fairly, like a family, and to do good toward them, as well as punishing slackers.
 7. No one is overpaid, or underpaid.
 8. U.S. business is #1 in the world, through innovation, effectiveness and efficiency
 9. Politics is disallowed to affect businesses. We ALL profit when U.S. businesses profit, vs. losing jobs from preventable B.S.
 10. Money supply is not too much or too little, but just right, according to need in present circumstances
 11. The budget is balanced
 12. Taxes are as low as feasible, and the rich are encouraged if not incentivized to seriously give back to society
 13. Government (as with charities & churches & individuals thru civic service) help all poor people spend wiser, budget better, and earn more, by better skills or interviewing (national mentoring).
- THIS IS flood sideways economics! I have zero interest in any trickling! Our economy is too important for puttering around, as is getting inflation under control. Also,
14. Barriers to entry must lessen, and more competition arise! #TheSolution for U.S. economics!

15. Finally, profit sharing is mandatory for all profitable businesses, according to employees' contribution to those profits. That also means slackers may get nothing. #Justice

MIDTERMS, MIDDLE GROUND & MORALITY

(11/1/22-2)

It's midterm season, and about every TV ad is political, and they're EXCELLENT at criticizing bad things about their opponent! What's NEVER done is being objective about your own sins, and your rivals virtues, policy-wise! We pride ourselves on being objective—as we aren't loyal to parties.

Democrat political ads will NEVER tell you their horrible faults; nor will Republican ads! Dems ARE tax and spenders. Now-a-days, they're more print and spenders, which is why we have inflation! Milton Friedman said it was caused by too much government money in the marketplace—flooded ease of money supply.

Robert Reich is on a kick to say it's greedy big businesses' profits. There's ALWAYS a counter statement to the other side, but NEVER a voice of reason that tells you just the TRUTH!

GOP's spend, too! CHUMP added $8 TRILLION to our debt, in 4 years! GOP's won't talk about it, because it was for Covid vaccine development, a border wall, ISIS and terrorism fighting, and other things they're FOR!

EVERY DAY we see politicians sin. We RARELY see them doing RIGHT! WHY do We the people tolerate them? Because they're the only choice on voting day! Get BETTER choices! YOU don't get away with sinning that much in your own life or job, or your be fired, or divorced!

Lying, bribery, idolatry, deception, slander, hypocrisy, misinformation/propaganda, party worship—God sees our politics, and he is NOT pleased! In fact, He's going to judge us—SOON! Rightly, and deservedly so!

Dems are known for "caring about the little guy." GOP's are known for caring about the rich guy. WHY CAN'T ANY POLITICIAN CARE ABOUT ALL guys and gals in America, equally and justly? They PROFIT off taking polar opposite sides to everything! MONEY!

It's VERY big business. You've seen how people enter the field average nest egged, and leave millionaires. It is an EVIL, corrupt, dare I say satanic industry, and ALL involved (except a handful) go along with the system, because it benefits them personally and profit-wise!

God needs to raze it to the ground, and I believe He's going to, soon! It might be the end of America, as we now know it, and I will cheer His actions on, every step of the way! I'm just telling you in advance, not believing anyone will change, but giving you forewarning, so you are accountable!

Update #1: Objectivity On Parties

Dems care about the struggles of the poor, don't want a harmed ecology, want equality for gays, blacks and browns. They want the working stiff to be adequately paid, and the rich to pay their fair share in taxes. They want wars to be averted, women to not be treated as lessers to males, believe criminals still have rights, and can't be tortured or treated inhumanely (cruel and unusual punishment). And they want LGBTQ folk treated with respect.

BUT let's turn the coin of positivity over, and see their dark underbelly, that their TV ads NEVER speak of:

They over-spend; they happily spend mainly GOP's tax dollars; they cause inflation; they truly want porous borders for future Socialist votes, and people needing handouts!; they want sexual perversion accepted by our laws; they want to be able to kill babies, even after they're born, if the mother changes her mind on the operating table; they believe trans people are NOT confused, or suffering mental deficiencies, but purely being themselves, when they chop off their pen-s' to PRETEND they're the other sex, with a wig, dress, makeup and high heels; they KNOW males are—as a species—physically stronger (excepting effeminate men, and masculine to weight lifting females), but still want to so protect their VOTING constituents' interests that they advocate for males competing vs females in sports (an UN-fair advantage); they have NO PROBLEM with a man peeing in a urinal in front of ladies, or being able to see through their toilet stalls, as they sit down to do the same, in public rest rooms and locker rooms. PERVERSION!

They HATE the oil and gas industry, and will grovel and beg for Saudi and Venezuelan oil, when AMERICA has enough to seek overflow to other nations (if allowed to drill for all we possess); they clamor about climate change, until they're blue in the face; they teach our youth that the world's going to end over rising tides and hotter weather (when the Bible says that is a LIE, and the world will NOT end from that cause); they have no problem forcing businesses to over-pay less productive workers, because everyone is to be paid "equally." That's UN-just!

They ARE softer on crime than red states BECAUSE the largest percent of the jail/prison population is black, and that's their voting bloc (among others). So they care MOST about votes—not public safety, or our land being overrun by people who want to vote for Socialism! Many of them LOVE Socialism!

Biden PROMISED “free” healthcare, daycare, college, home down payment and loan forgiveness! HOW IS IT "FREE?" Impossible! THERE ARE NO MONEY TREES! It's "free" because he makes the upper half pay for it, folks!

NO, neither side is without great faults! Yet we see TV ads ACTING like only one side is evil. They BOTH are! Yet, they BOTH have good elements, as well! That's ALL you'll hear in their own TV ads!

Lower taxes, public safety, caring about lowering your expenses, good education, protecting your retirement and Social Security. These people couldn't be fair or objective if we overpaid them MORE to do so!

It's like they all met in one big dark alley back room, one day, set forth all policy positions, and said you get an equal number of the black chips, and we get the same! Neither of them only got the good policies! But their TV ads would make you think otherwise.

WE the voting people can CHOOSE to ONLY support GOOD policies and politicians! That option will be ours in 2024, 2028 and 2032! We do NOT have to stoop to the bottom of the barrel, or choose between bad and worse! It's a rigged system, at present, of you having to choose the lesser of two EVILS! It must change!

IF, for the midterms, you can't just vote for the good guys, protesting this FLAWED system by NOT voting is STUPID! Why? Because you're having no say in the outcome of who we get!

I advise you to ONLY vote for the best people running with the largest number of good policies!

And if these morons continue choosing to own half the bad issues, per party, boycott NOT by not voting, but by ousting all their sorry as-ses by voting Independent Centrist third party candidates!

Ds and Rs will NEVER vote for term limits! You can forget that pipe dream! Instead, force the BAD people out of power, and force the system to change this half bad policy game, that keeps us divided, hating, violent, stressed, lying, arrogant, greedy, manipulative, hypocrites, and in a word, "sinners" who God sees, and will soon judge. CHANGE THE SYSTEM, through third party voting!!!

What industry am I describing?: Flip flops, feigned motives and concern, self as #1, worship of your club, hatred of rival gang, slander, lying, deception and distraction, love of money and power, dominating opponents, no common ground, full-time fighting, overpaid to do LITTLE? Politics!

And DID I OMIT self-serving, pandering, placating, favoring rich or poor, double dipping, bias, injustice, no objectivity (or desire for), constant lies, no morals, little truth, fake "facts," conspiracy theories, ignorance and low IQs touted, dumbing down society? THIS IS U.S. POLITICS!

Update # 2: On Vices & Virtues

Let's continue, on a repeat topic too many in America fail to understand. Many people AREN'T church-goers, and public school civics classes don't actually teach overt morality. The home is about the only place some Americans learn what sin is.

I'm about to educate you on virtues vs vices!: Virtues/good deeds vs. vices/bad deeds. STUDY this list. Memorize, then think deeply (meditate) on what these words mean; NOT how politicians and lawyers can warp good terms into bad decisions or deeds. This isn't religious, per se, but isn't opposite from religion. ALL PEOPLE NEED THIS!

REPRESENTATIVE ETHICS ("VIRTUES")

Boasting in Christ, Contentment, Delighting in God, Encouragement, Enduring suffering, Faith, Forgiveness; Generosity; Gentleness, Good conscience, Goodness, Graciousness, Gratitude, Heavenly-mindedness, Hope, Humility, Impartiality, Joy, Kindness, Loving God, Mercy, Morality, Not jealous, Patience, Peace, Praise, Pure speech, Reasonableness, Rejoicing in trials, Responsibility; Reverence, Seeking God first, Self-control, Selflessness, Soundness of mind, Suffering ethically, Truthfulness, ETC.

REPRESENTATIVE SINS ("VICIES")

Adultery, Anger, Anxiety, Argumentativeness, Arrogance, Bitterness, Boastfulness, Covetousness, Cussing, Deception, Dissention, Divisiveness, Drunkenness, Envy, Fear, Flattery for the sake of taking advantage, Fornication, Gossip, Greed, Guilt, Hatred, Homosexuality, Idolatry, Impatience, Jealousy, Laziness, Love of money, Lovers of self, Lust, Lying, Materialism, Murder, Partiality, Prejudice, Pride, Profanity, Quick temper, Rape, Rebellion; Reviling, Self-centeredness, Selfishly ambitious, Selfishness, Sensuality, Sorcery, Stealing, Swindlers, Thievery, Violence, Worry, ETC.

Milton Friedman said all business people are greedy. Untrue, but to all who are: Change it! Old-fashioned word, "repent!" That is NOT a good decision! You will be judged for every sin you commit, if you die, unforgiven. Closer place to the eternal flames! Undo your bad choices! Greed is not good, Gordon Gecko!

The Bible says EVERY human is to behave well, morally! Ecc. 12:13 That WON'T get ANYONE into Heaven, and out of Hell, but WILL lessen your pain and punishment, though still in an eternally dark and fiery forever place. It's mainly for this life, with less troubles and natural negative consequences!

The human race is under obligation to obey God's commandments. We worry about obeying (or getting caught breaking) man and government's laws. God has universal rules for everyone! If you want to see what they are NOT, watch U.S. politics! They're broken every day. Repent or be judged!

God Himself teaches us NOT to be overly righteous, holier than thou attituded, legalistic, or looking at specks in others' eyes with a log in our own. FEW suffer such maladies. More often, we don't give one rat's tail of concern about morality, in public life/politics, or in business!

It's more like, what do I want, and what can I get away with? Self as #1 concern of yours is a sin, folks! Money as more important than morality is a sin, folks. YOU don't know what sin is, but come old-fashioned religious term, yet you watch its reality every day on TV! It's all around us!

Trying to impress others; wanting to keep up with the Jones; not caring one iota about others; wanting to have no interaction with the lesser class; bragging about sexploits, or what you own; seeking status, in job title or style of car you drive. THESE are how sins get implemented.

Motives, intentions and attitudes can be sinful! Politicians OFTEN claim one good/pure motive, when their #1 motive is quite devious! God judges the heart! The exterior can lie to others, as can the mouth, and often do.

YOU are facing a forever judgment sentence for how you lived your life down here! Whatever your age, you don't fantasize about your funeral, but you SHOULD think about it, because it's what comes afterwards that you should be sweating pale-faced scared about!

You won't hear about this, unless you accidentally hear a TV preacher on Sunday! Nowhere in society will you learn of this reality, if you don't visit churches! FEW individuals will ever broach this topic in conversation with strangers. You can live an entire adult life, and never know that Hell is your for certain future. It is for everyone unforgiven! A fiery punishment, with no end.

You live like there's no tomorrow, no accountability, no one seeing the choices you make, no rules enforcement. You are mistaken! God sees all, and He judges sins. If you choose not to fear/respect Him, your judgment will be greater than if you choose correctly, even if you never accept His Son, Jesus!

God judges our sins. That is my message today. And He exists. You don't see or feel Him, so you think you're getting away with proverbial murder, but you're simply adding to your tab before him, earning your sin wages which are coming! Live for Him, or face judgment.

I'm TRYING to write a modern adaptation of Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God speech, today! He is not angry at you, but your choices will anger Him after you die, because he keeps accounts. He loves you, but NOT your sins. Live rightly. And get saved, today! John 3:16, the Bible

If WE THE PEOPLE allow politicians to behave more sinfully than most of us do, HOW ARE THEY "LEADERS?" They are not! And if they only follow majority constituent whims, HOW ARE THEY LEADING? They're NOT! We must force them to behave morally! We have to, and they should, anyhow. They're NOT leaders!

CONSERVATISM & CHRISTIAN NATIONALISM

Conservatism's ONLY solution for the poor is "get a job." They, LITERALLY, could care less about the poor's plight! It must be a low-paying job, as they fight minimum wage, and do everything to pay peanuts, but make it on crumbs! They believe Constitution demands this, so they're patriotic!

A conservative is happy if the stock market is rising or stable. They don't give one rat's tail if ~42 percent of Americans aren't invested! They just say, get invested! It's hard to do when your required bills barely stretch your wages to cover the spread. So they blame them as dumb or lazy!

The economy is a pyramid, with the folk on top always clamoring for the base to rise to that diamond. EASIER than reaching out a hand to help! I got that illustration from another; and yet another said, when you reach a mountain peak, you look back to help others up that path. NOT conservatives!

WHEN I ever use the term "conservative," there are two distinct types! The caustic vs the compassionate. I will always slam the former and praise the latter, as that is also what God would do, and will do, on Judgment Day! It's why Houston loves Mattress Mack vs. Joel Osteen! #Character! Others, vs. mainly Self #1.

Billionaires don't need one damn favor from government. They need to pay their fair share! They've got it better than anyone else, and you don't deserve special tax treatment, because you think your money should control others. God is for justice; NOT for favoring rich folk! Levit. 19:15

"Christian Nationalism" is opposed to Christ! They do NOT like these verses!: I Tim. 6:17-19; Gal. 6:2; II Cor. 8; Ac. 2, 4; Jews' safety net; Lk. 12:15, 33, 48; Pv. 23:5, 30:7-9; Phil. 2:3-4; Col. 3:1-2; Mt. 6:19-21; I Tim. 6:8 NEVER believe the LIE that they want Christ's values; they're Bible cherry-pickers!

Verses for "Christian nationalists" and caustic political conservative "Christians" to meditate on, today, in STARTING a daily quiet time habit. The habit is obviously not set, yet. 29 Bible Verses about Helping the Poor https://blog.mohiafrica.org/bible-verses-helping-poor?utm_medium=social&utm_source=twitter

Worldliness is a sin many U.S. Christian political conservatives suffer from! Laodicean values! You can't be a disciple and put self first. Worldliness chases the things you see and your body wants, like sex and money. I Jn. 2:15-17; Jas. 4:1-8, etc. Worldly Christians are ENEMIES of Christ.

God says the rich occupy a LOW status. (Jas. 1:9) American culture says the exact opposite. WHICH are YOU going to believe? I KNOW the answer, for most, and that's because we love God with lip service, and our hearts are far from Him! America, bless God, vs. God bless America! Get saved.

Conservatives believe the rich should NEVER have ANY of their money forcibly used to help any other Americans! Yet, if they never free willedly donate anything, that's also OK. Even a DFW local talk radio DJ said there may be many SOBs, but "what can you do about it?" Tax 'em more!

If justice is a value God values, ask yourself if it is fair that many rich Americans do everything in their power to keep all they have, when they gain much of it working tirelessly to find ways to make workers do more for less? I've addressed their one-sided tactics MANY times before!

- Layoffs
- Automation
- Streamlining
- Outsourcing
- Import labor (legal or otherwise)
- Mergers & acquisitions
- Ended pensions
- Increased co-pays
- Contract labor (no benefits)
- Unpaid internships
- Fight minimum wage
- Ban unions
- AI & robotics (replace workers)
- Etc.

CHURCH THE WAY IT IS SUPPOSED TO BE

(11/8/22-2)

You better put your ear plugs in and your blinders on, because you're NOT going to like this message! My family is in transition from church-going, slowly looking for a new church. It is the tradition of man—NOT God's word—that causes MANY churches to have youth and elderly services!

HOW can I prove that statement? Music and family reunions. God instructs what type music church is to sing/play, and it is NOT hymns go to this service time (usually 8 am, as elderly like to rise and shine, early to bed), and psalms and spiritual songs to this different service!

And if church is the ONLY hour of the week where the entire membership gathers as one, it is literally a family reunion, because church is body, family & building—all the parts work together; NOT the hands in one area, the feet elsewhere, and the ears yet somewhere else.

At family reunions, part of the UNcomfortable part of it (food is what saves many from this), you don't see uncles and grandpas and grandchildren never interacting, at least at the front door! You may have the women all huddle up in one chit chat section, and the adults in one area, but all are together in one place!

NOT so with segregated church, which is catering to members as customers more than commanded saints! WHAT ELSE is WRONG about U.S. church practice? MANY things (I said you wouldn't like this message)...

Sermons that preach, but barely teach. Emotion, platitudes, rhythmic three points and a poem outlines (Rev. John Bisagno would have up to 7—NOT 3 alone!).

Education on the Bible, and exposition, meaning laymen actually LEARN the Bible the exact way it was written, in context, and more than 1-2 verses a book at one sitting. Exegesis!

How about evangelism's MAIN method being a sermon invitation? That makes as much sense as going to a convention of nuns to find a wife! Almost every soul in the pews believes they're saved! WHY are you telling them how to get saved, every weekend? It's embarrassing! ONLY if you have guests, or a radio or TV broadcast does that make any sense at all!

HOW ABOUT church is to be known (reputation before OUTsiders) for prayer. HOW would lost strangers know if a local church prayed a lot, or at least intensely, if they never showed up? THE EFFECTS/RESULTS! NOT from naming your uncommanded building the house of prayer! That's LUDICROUS "thinking!"

HOW ABOUT Christians are to be known (reputation before OUTsiders, again) for their love of one another. MANY if not most churches are just strangers seated next to strangers, with zero interaction ever needed or expected! NO socializing, as that biblical function is relegated to the elite smaller gatherings we used to call Sunday School.

BALDERDASH! At least half of any Sunday morning crowd doesn't attend those, on average, I would guess. Commands for the church aren't for elitists within the body!

HOW ABOUT disciples are known (again, before OUTsiders) to be such by continuing in God's word. ASK ANY man on the street Christian to recite 10 Bible verses from memory, or to tell you the theme, or makeup of ANY (just one) book of the Bible! They can't! NOT continuing in God's word; NOT in a daily quiet time habit of even 10 minutes! YET, discipleship is DAILY! Jesus said so.

HOW ABOUT discipleship as a ministry of mentoring and maturing up believers, intentionally/consciously? Again, a special class for the elites, even though Jesus said ALL believers are to be matured up in the faith.

"Well we preach sermons." As you should, but those do not replace personal interaction of relational discipling, which ensures application and continuing in the word! There is no personal relationship between minister and individual sheep, with sermons!

No questions asked or answered; no getting to know individual's spiritual struggles; no prayer requests or confessing of sins, or accountability for morality or for continuing in God's word. Again, special classes for the elite few is how U.S. church handles these commanded ministries for all churches & Christians and pastors!

HOW ABOUT spiritual gifts? Aren't all laymen gifted with the butt gift to sit in pews on? NO! Everyone has at least one, and if there is no corporate interaction between laity and clergy, when they're all together, you aren't functioning as a body or a family!

So, even as I may be challenged that I repeat the same topics over and over again, it's to reach new audiences who may watch or read, today—not two years ago—and I WON'T quit until every church starts becoming as God commanded! You may not like it. God doesn't like your rebellion!

Update

Finally, the HERESY of Lordship Salvation is now taught at MANY churches. Getting the gospel's requirements WRONG from the start CAN'T be a great beginning for anyone's walk of grace through faith! Grace Evangelical Society is one of the FEW accurate organizations on God's gospel!

And G. Michael Cocoris is one of the FEW ministers still capable and effectively defending the true gospel from the false one, now that my heroes, Dr. Charles Ryrie, and Dr. Zane Hodges have passed. Ryrie told me this issue had to be resurrected! I will honor his legacy, and NEVER end speaking on it.

Want to know where else modern church is WRONG? (about as much as you wanted to hear what I wrote before!) ENTIRE books of the Bible were read in one sitting, at times. IMAGINE how bored and antsy modern bench warmer pew sitters would be, especially if the service took more than one hour!

And church buildings are NOWHERE commanded as required (not sinful, either), and the love feasts are RARELY engaged, so the family reunions include food, which, I said, is often what saves the family reunions uncomfortable conversations! Enjoy the rest of your day, if you didn't enjoy TRUTH!

DO YOU want to know where these false practices of "church," or EVIL omissions come from? The traditions of men, and what's taught in seminary. Mainly, men observing peer practices—competition. READ these related verses: Mk. 7:8; II Cor. 10:12

Oh, and I forgot one of the MOST IMPORTANT omissions in modern church: WHO ELSE is as responsible for ensuring the spiritual condition of every nearby human, than the congregation closest in proximity to where they abide/live? NO ONE! ONLY 76116 zip code has been fully evangelized! Deplorable and sin-FULL omission!

Fire your pastor if he will not lead his people to evangelize all nearby lost people!

JACK GRAHAM: TRUMP SYCOPHANT

(11/8/22-2)

“Let me encourage you to get on your knees tonight and pray that we have an election tomorrow that repudiates the secular left and that a clear outcome will affirm conservative Biblical principles across America. Let God arise and his enemies be scattered. Ps. 68:1” –Jack Graham

@FHunscripted PLEASE read Jack N. Graham's latest tweet. He slanders the left as secular, when MOST MAGATs are secular, and equates political conservatism with biblical. Please phone and challenge him to a public debate. He can't stand people who buck him (dictator type). DON'T be silent!

One Hour Later...

YOU KNEW that STUPID and EVIL comment by my EX-pastor would NOT go unrefuted, with a chapter (after doing chores and exercise)! Let's analyze the truth, morality and intended insinuations of Jack N. Graham's latest post.

Implied as clearly as humanly possible is:

1. Any Christian reading his warped words must vote GOP, or they are voting against God.
2. Democrats are secular; NOT GOP's (large LIE)
3. Lost people are God's enemies. He wants God to scatter Democrats.

Let's evaluate this heresy in detail:

"Secular" means no spiritual or religious association with something.

"Conservative" means averse to change, innovation, and holding traditional values.

Now to the EASY analysis, EXCEPT to DUMB vs. informed Christians, who take gurus' words for all things...

1. Are all Dems secular? NO
2. Are all GOP's spiritual/religious? NO
3. Are all Dem policies anti-God? NO
4. Are all GOP policies pro-God? NO

5. Does the word "conservative" mean holy? NO

In Bible interpreting, it's great to be conservative; NOT politically, on every issue! Political conservatism is NOT 100 percent compatible with spiritual conservatism. And that is the INTENDED deception of his words... to CONFUSE political with biblical conservatism!

And to imply GOP's are spiritual, and Dems are secular. Tell Biden and @fhunscripted they aren't religious at all! And tell me THIS is spiritual; YOU ARE FOR IT, Jackie Gram ("Ounce")! [See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at page 412]

Sinful Christians and fools treat ANY pastor as a guru, especially in politics! They AREN'T smarter than any layman who knows their Bible, or political experts! And intentional deception is sin, as is party worship; it is idolatry of secular power. That's being secular!

LET ME TELL YOU HOW MANY TIMES I HAVE PROVEN THAT MAN IS EVIL, privately, but NOT in his stage presentation and sermon content, and church activities/ministries (because God through me MADE him get his church in order).

1. He banned me from all Sunday School classes, because I knew too much, and would add too much to the lectures (and had the teacher LIE to me about what a meeting would be about)

2. He made me sign a contract that if I ever mentioned @prestonwood @jackngraham or any staffer online, I could not return to his church. READ my testimony about this man who has sold his soul to political idolatry, and sold WASPs on CHUMP, as a "baby Christian." It's at "Church Conflicts" at our website's Will You Live Forever? button.

#TrumpStink is ALL over @jackngraham, and can't be washed off by ignoring public accountability, simply letting time pass! HE flip-flopped from calling that campaign "nonsense," to saying he could "champion" the man (in one week, in June 2016), as promises of Roe-overturning SCOTUS Justices were made, in exchange for WASP votes.

THIS IS his political and private character! EVERY detail about THAT is at our Twitter account, @2020Victory, and detailed in our FREE book at <http://AmericanAnswers.org> And he is HAPPY to take credit for everything I made him change at his church, and never mention me. Election season will be INTERESTING! He preaches "repentance," but never does, himself!

Also see page 299 in the Christians For Trump book at <http://AmericanAnswers.org> These are the Christian Cabal members, who advocate Christian Nationalism, warping the gospel for political ends.

Would any Democrat let @jackngraham tell them the gospel, when he says they're God's enemy? Worldly Christians are enemies of God! (Jas. 4). And there are enemies of God in the GOP party, like many caustic Trumpsters, who'd say F Joe Biden, divide America, and have NO morals, but idolize money.

Let me prepare you for tactics people in the wrong do to abuse the Bible to defend themselves. They CAN'T win on the merits, so his ilk would knee jerk use "divisive" and "word wrangler" verses to attack my biblical rebuttal of his character, or "do not judge."

I am not dividing; his post did! I'm rightly dividing the truth, not arguing over which words that are synonyms one should use; exact opposite!

I'm saying "conservative" is NOT a synonym for "holy." And "do not judge" is a verse usually used by political liberals, to avoid accountability of a biblical rebuke, which is what I just offered @jackngraham, who doesn't even understand the gospel rightly. Debate me anytime!

.@AntheaButler Please read this afternoon's message, and make a similar op-ed for MSNBC. READ @jackngraham's latest post, labeling Democrats "secular" and "God's enemies," by implication. He knows better--this is intentional manipulation of dumb sheep, for "secular" idolatry!

THE FINAL CHAPTER: A CONVERSATION WITH GOD!?

(11/8/22-2)

(4:20 am) I am peeved! I was having a perfectly good sleep, and swore off any more chapter writing (not opinion expressing). I PRAY this isn't turned into a chapter, and I wondered (or worried) when I made that vow to myself if God would have other plans! I don't intend this as a chapter!

IF you follow-up on yesterday's chapter, @jackngraham is congratulating Sarah Sanders as AR Governor. It is ALL about seeking secular power through sin-to-win strategies. CHRISTIAN PARENTS: TEACH YOUR KIDS TO LIE FOR A LIVING, and reward BAD behavior! It works, in satan's economy!

Then I read 82 percent of "Christians" supported Herschel. AGAIN, CHRISTIAN PARENTS: REWARD BAD BEHAVIOR IN YOUR CHILDREN! It works! If ANYONE ever hears a TV sermon by @jackngraham, and can't comprehend the message does NOT match private behavior, you are a fool, being duped! SIN-TO-WIN, like Jesus (never) said!

Secular power is the goal, and protecting being rich! And total national abortion bans, maybe in that order; maybe not. ANY WAY YOU CAN GET A WIN IS MORAL! Sinning is good; lying is good; greed is good. Blaming Democrats as "secular," as you idolize "secular" power is good. Up is down (hypocrisy). Isa. 5:20

IF I continue much more, a chapter will erupt. DO NOT BELIEVE ANY PREACHER WHO HAS GREAT WORDS, BUT NOT GREAT CHARACTER, or who doesn't walk the talk! HOW COULD ANY NON-CHRISTIAN listen to @jackngraham on how to go to Heaven, when he supported and "championed" THIS? [See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at AmericanAnswers.org, page 412] APOSTASY! HERESY!

I'm absolutely convinced what I've said MANY times here, before. A fourth judgment on America is coming (after BLM riots on the West coast, Covid, and Ukraine, which dragged us in), and it's because the U.S. church WON'T obey II Chron. 7:14! MORALS DON'T MATTER! ANY WAY CHRISTIANS CAN HOLD OFFICE IS THE GOAL. God sees it differently, and will punish His apostate kids, "soon"

I want to ensure tonight's message is clearly understood: GET SAVED, SO YOU MISS HELL, THEN LIVE LIKE THE DEVIL! THIS IS THE CLEAR MESSAGE OF 82 percent OF WASPS SUPPORTING SATAN'S MAN IN 2016, WALKER and SUCKABEE. Morals don't matter, and sermons are pretense. This is an obvious conclusion from behavior!

And NO WASP preacher I've ever heard of has the b-lls to just say: If you're white and Christian, vote GOP, or you are anti-God. THESE ARE ALL CONCLUSIONS ANY RATIONAL PERSON WOULD MAKE FROM WATCHING POLITICAL BEHAVIOR OF FAKE OR CLAIMING "CHRISTIANS" IN America! Morality does NOT matter!

If you are rich and famous, that qualifies you for office! If you can get in the media, and get rich people to donate to you, you should lead; NOT if you are smart or moral! God was LYING in Ex. 18:21! In fact, Jesus was MISTAKEN, poo pooing secular power!

John the Baptist was in ERROR rebuking a politician for his sins! The hilarious thing is @jackngraham NEVER EVER PUBLICLY REBUKES ANY GOP POLITICIAN FOR ANY SINS, but he's quick to label Dems "secular" and Ed Young Sr. call them "godless." FAKE SPIRITUAL LEADERS, folks! Graham COPIED my materials to fix/shape up his church.

Graham got EXACTLY what he wanted in TX (draconian abortion law), through Abbott, and is still not content! Tax the Hell out of him and make him squeal! Money talks! They'll NEVER admit it, but cut their salary, and they'll move on to greener pastures, folks! Reveal his salary! MILLIONS!?

Reveal Ed Young Sr.'s salary and net worth, and his secret condo in Maui, and desire to change Second Baptist's name to delete "Baptist," and seeking out a helicopter to shuttle between churches, imitating Tilman Fertitta (restauranteur), and wanting first dibs on 3-D holograph technology from Silicon Valley, and how the CEO of Cisco Foods, now deceased (John Baugh) was cut off on a business meeting microphone for opposing his $20M gift used to open the Katy branch of Second Baptist, Houston, or how two men challenged the crowd, as a church tithe raising even in the Summit, that "I gave $50K, and some of you can too!" Or some staffer praised for his great spirituality, for idolizing money all his adult life, and once his nest egg was BIG enough, he served God fully, on staff (still being paid, likely).

TELL EVERY DAMN THING YOU KNOW ABOUT THESE CROOKS, and NOT ON A WEBSITE! GET IT TO THE MEDIA!

TELL how Osteen had a huge home on Doliver Drive, well before he was even a preacher, and allegedly hid two very expensive cars in a storage facility on the other side of town, so STUPID parishioners would never see they were being fleeced!

EXPOSE THESE FRAUDS, FULLY! Private lives faking crowds! TELL how a famous Houston lawyer was taken to Hawaii, seeking his becoming a Second Baptist member, so a biblically UNrequired 10 percent tithe could be extracted from his BIG salary!

TELL how they brought in $1M a week, but told you they had a "hiring freeze," when you said everyone on staff needed to evangelize, when they interviewed you as Evangelism Minister.

Tell how Edwin has security guards in plain clothes, who were told he wants fast exits from sermons, to not have to interact with the people (allegedly).

TELL how a Second Baptist deacon told you he believes in firing 1-2 people a year, to keep staff on their toes.

DICTATORS for money is the common theme, and NO WONDER #Trumpstink is all over them! A rich dictator is their ideal! TELL how Eddie Young believes and teaches that church is a business, even though God had Jesus TWICE turn the moneychanger tables in the synagogue!

TELL EVERY STORY YOU HAVE PERSONALLY WITNESSED, FIRST-HAND, WITH ED YOUNG, JACK GRAHAM and JOEL OSTEEN! "Even expose them!" Eph. 5:11 "Do not hold back or I will not hold back on you!" Idiots treat them as gurus! Biblically illiterate fools do!

Me: Am I finished, now, so I can go back to bed?

Not at all. TELL how @jackngraham took your idea I gave you to unite Falwell and Frankie Graham, to milk their FATHERS' last names for uniting Christians to vote for morality, and how they used CHUMP to warp it sin-full! TELL YOUR TESTIMONY!

TELL how @jackngraham took sermons from your website for almost a decade, and will never say so publicly, but is happy with having the fastest growing church, now. NEVER any thanks, and never any repenting!

TELL how you were offered millions to run (by sermon insinuations), but when the Roe draft was released. You told them you'd not play their game, by leaving church in protest, for eight months!

TELL the public the private character of these three schmucks!

Me: Ok, I will. It's 5am; can I nap now?

Yes.

Me: WHY don't You EVER judge anyone when their deeds cry out for it?

I will.

Me: WHEN? Never?

One day "soon"

Me: No proof. You delay too much! Procrastinator.

It is because of your leadership of @jackngraham that people don't see his evil in his heart and private political actions! He uses YOUR morality and truth information as a cover! He didn't have that information before your spiritual website (now a button on AmericanAnswers.org)! He is abusing it to cover for his "character!"

NO ONE knows it but you, and a few insiders, who he pays well, or gets lucrative jobs for, or who are very close friends, who scratch his back so he scratches theirs. Judgment Day will reveal all this stuff! Life is like a serial video recording. He will get his; trust Me.

Me: Already did, a few times, with cancer and the Dallas campus dying. But, since money is so important to him, he will believe that a victory, to have profited off Gateway's purchase!

That's how the men of Jude and II Pet. think! You recall his sermon about the $150M meal plan! Your oldest son sure does.

It's a love of money that disqualifies them, but the laymen are too stupid to ever know they're disqualified; or they don't care, because their managerial or speaking skills keep members coming and paying up that unrequired 10 percent.

Me: WHY IN THE HELL CAN'T YOU JUST SHOUT THESE TRUTHS FROM THE SKY?

I could. I don't often choose that method. Your scientists would explain it away with some fancy theories. Plus, I have chosen humans to work through, most of the time.

Me: BUT THE WORD IS NOT GETTING OUT, and both parties are incentivized to keep my info private, IMO.

You don't know that for sure--yet! You've not given them time.

BUT, if that becomes the case, I will assuredly decimate them in horrendous judgment, as with any and all backers who refuse MY ways, detailed through you.

Me: In this life? I never see You do anything of the sort down here!

What about the wife of Phil Thames?

Me: They don't accept that as a judgment for his betraying me through lies and deception, orchestrated by @jackngraham, because it took years to accumulate such a cancer!

Who do you think started the process, Who sees the end from the beginning?

Me: I know; they don't!

Correct.

Me: But that's only one event, as with @prestonwood @jackngraham's prostate cancer. Very little proof You're 'gonna judge all evildoers! You're too patient, IMO! Some could even think you blind, deaf or dumb, by such inaction.

WHAT HAVE I TOLD YOU FOR YEARS?

Me: That The Tribulation will find no one criticizing You for its intensity, as the evidence against mankind will be so obviously a lay down hand, that justice will be man's only opinion of its severity.

Exactly.

Me: Then when is it 'gonna start?

You know I don't tell humans!

Me: Why?

You'd tell others

Me: So, they'd get prepared

They don't get prepared when you and others warn them! WHY would you believe they'd be preparing if I gave you the starting date? They'd even call you crazy, or say you're unbiblical, setting dates (which IS unbiblical)

Me: Ok, so don't tell me when. Is it soon?

Yes, of course, as you know the Greek definition isn't as in English.

Me: That means 'soon' could be a long way off!

NOT in My accounting (II Pet. 3)

Me: How much more "crap" must we endure, down here, in culture rot and political B.S.?

Much more! You might even see riots, wars or even secession or civil wars, Jimbo. Mt. 24!

Me: You'd allow all that, rather than just end it all, and start afresh?

THINK what you're asking! Me to slaughter millions, because you think they're beyond moral saving!

Me: You said You would.

I said My timing is My timing.

Fine. Don't judge soon, by English standards. Do something! Are You blind?

I have plans; you are part of them. I've told you my plans for 8 years+. Do My plans.

Me: Supply the funds, or ain't nothing happening, here! I'll just tend sheep, if You do nothing! I'm not even sure You're able to get me media access or money, the way those years have been!

My ability? You're questioning My abilities?

Me: In my experience, only, not ability but willingness. Show me the money! You rarely do!

My timing.

Me: Is very slow, IMO.

READ II Pet. 3

Me: Your clock isn't mine; I get it.

You're Jimpatient.

Me: I have bills to pay, and mouths to feed!

Go do it.

Me: Ok, then you get someone else to do Your bidding.

I don't need another; I need you to be faithful, and do what I told you.

Me: It's not possible without fame and a small fortune!
Yes it is; $500K max, and some media interviews, and all "Hell" will break loose on D.C. politicians' sins in BOTH parties.

Me: Good, send that money, and the media
I will, in My timing. You just work the plan, and tend the sheep. Learn to chew gum and walk at the same time!

Me: Ok, but I don't believe You're 'gonna come through.
Fine. Disbelieve! I'll prove you wrong, punish you with trials, and one day you will believe.

Me: Fine; I assess track records.
WHERE would you be if I had blessed your secular career the past 10 years? Website-less; unknown by VIPs. NO change to church or politics.

Me: And how has that benefitted me ANY?
It will, in due time.

Me: I'm not sure that's true.
You're a doubter.

Me: You're a procrastinator.
Sovereign timing.

Me: Slow timing
Your schedule, not Mine; READ II Pet. 3

Me: Well You have two months, or it's over this round.
Really? Really? You have to start Jan. 16?

Me: I've been told to.
Can that change?
Yes, but less time to make an impact.
Do you need time, or Me?

Me: You, with miracles.
That's what I do.

Me: Rarely.
You don't see them. Miracles happen all the time, but you (humans) explain them away as coincidence, natural explanation, or you require fireworks. When your arm heals from a cut—is that a miracle? When lost people come forward in church, to receive Jesus, is that a miracle? The way you drive, with no wrecks or tickets, to speak of—is that a miracle? Is you waking up at 3 am to write the greatest materials on politics not a miracle? Was Hillsboro to Austin in one second not a miracle?

Me: That's was only one time.
How many miracles do you need? You need to live natural/normal life, and quit acting like a Charismatic, who needs the extraordinary, every day, to know I exist! That's testing vs. trusting.

Me: Ok, but when'll these things happen?
When you're obedient to tend sheep and also pursue media and money for campaigning—at the same time; not one, then the other! Multitask. Don't let them ignore you any longer. Hassle them so much they have to give you some platform, or they have no peace.

Me: That's not my style, but at your bidding, I can learn/adjust.
It's for My and a good cause for America! Knock down their barriers, and stubborn favoring of the 2-party system. Expose them. Tell the public who's rejecting you, and why! Nag them until you receive a cease and desist order!

Me: Really?

Yes. Contact foreign media. Break no laws, but seek funding anywhere it can be found. You've only just begun to solicit. If you think traditional GOP or Dem rich would fund a campaign that could destroy both parties, you're not bright.

Me: Ok, but it isn't to destroy them.

THEY think so, as it's competition that can take away their voters.

Me: They're free to join the cause.

They don't 'wanna. Careers and businesses got another thing coming, if you think old dogs will learn new tricks, or leopards will change their spots. They're entrenched! They LIKE the back-and-forth! The heat and drama brings them ratings, and donations! Talk radio THRIVES on lies, conspiracy theories and riling up fools! You are a disrupter to that system. You threaten pocket books of crooks.

UNlike @jackngraham, you WILL speak against the evils in BOTH parties, and you DON'T worship secular power. You HATE politics. He loves the adulation of dupes who think he's really clever, stealing your ideas and warping them.

Me: I don't care one iota about him, or even hearing his name ever mentioned again. He is ripe for judgment.

True. Let's move on to important people: You are called to turn D.C.'s tables upside down. Wheat vs. chaff. Separate the two in politics. I came to divide. I'll separate the sheep from the goats, spiritually, after all these clowns are dead, but in the meantime, you are commanded to even expose them all!

Show the dumbed-down populous the good guys from the bad, in BOTH parties. Explain their tactics, even as they use them, and name their sins! It's NOT 'gonna happen on Twitter! Not until you get known! You 'gotta get known, by media exposure and other means. You could even start a YouTube video to expose all these evils.

Me: I don't know how to get known, any more than I've already done!

You're known, by VIPs. Laymen don't know you from Adam.

Me: So how does that change?

Speak to them, in numbers.

Me: How? Where?

You centrists need meetings where centrist politicians can speak to centrist voters! Get No Labels and The Forward Party to have meetings where candidates can speak on centrist policies. @fwd_party @nolabelsorg

Me: I'm busy selling.

Multitask!

Dems don't want to hear better solutions, if you're not a Dem; same with GOP's. They're cliquishly cultist in their worship of party label and familial camaraderie/tribalism. Unless their party can gain, you're the enemy.

Me: They CAN gain, opposing extremists in both parties.

But they want GOP's and Dems to do that. You're NIETHER! They're loyal to their friends and party.

Destroy their extremes by hogging the middle, exclusively!

Me: What if I don't care to do this much work, for free?

Fine. Get paid to do it.

Me: By whom?

I told you who to target! Go do it.

Me: Ok; off to bed.

Your mandate is turning the tables one third time, and doing what John the Baptist did.

Me: Great. That will make me very popular. (sarcasm)

With the right crowd, yes. U.S. politics needs a makeover, or they can just await My coming judgment.

Me: Why delay?

You're impatient!

Me: I'm tired of procrastination.

There are two things wrong with your thoughts; really three:

1. You prefer people killed, to continuing to sin.

2. Your timetable isn't Mine.

3. You doubt change can come in D.C. All three of these are evil and dumb thinking, lacking faith.

Me: Fine, but I'm tired of the fight. Results rarely come!

You have yet to even begin!

Me: Yes, and You're not making that easy in the slightest.

You're targeting the wrong people!

Me: There's NO centrist media.

Then solicit some rich person to start it!

Me: There are no known centrist rich people I know.

That's because they've never had that option! Give them it!

You have until 2032. If you don't tear down the evils of D.C., I am going to, and My way is much more decimating to them!

Me: I prefer that!

That's because your path is hard. You want it easier. Nothing great comes easily.

Me: I'd rather sell and get rich.

And forsake Me?

Me: Sometimes!

Get back on the horse.

Me: You make NOTHING easy!

I make nothing bad.

Me: There's no point trying to counter You—just obey.

EXACTLY.

Me: OK, will do, and now I know who to target, in general/theory (no names).

They exist; go look up their names! I'll prepare them.

Me: Maybe You will!?

Doubter.

Track record.

Doubter.

UGH.

If the Dems don't want to use you to destroy DeSATANist and/or tRUMP, destroy them too!

Me: Will do. UGH. Why can't they SEE the value in centrism?

Party worship.

Me: They can't see how the system is broken?

The money is good for insiders! And the perks.

Me: They're evil self-servers.

So take whip to D.C.

Me: Maybe I will.

What do you mean, "maybe?"

Me: I mean You have to ACT, soon! I'll just sell/tend sheep if You remain passive!
I said contact politically neutral or uninvolved rich folks.
Me: Fine, but if that doesn't work, I don't work either, on politics, for You! I chase money, selling!
Deal. Go bore yourself with that.
Me: It's the only option if You keep procrastinating!
I am NOT. You are fishing in the wrong watering holes!
Me: You told me to.
Yes, so you'd learn they are party worshippers, entirely! If you won't run for their label, you become their enemy.
Me: Just wipe 'em all out—it would be easier and faster!

I will, in due time. They get or "deserve" (no human merits anything) at least one more chance to repent of sinful politics. Your STUPID voters call them "leaders." I've said call NO MAN that! They lead in sin, lies and stupidity, yet fools re-elect that "crap."
Me: We don't get many better options!
YOU have the solutions.

Many people could run on that platform. An entire new crop of politicians. And FOOLs can't see their party's extremists are causing most all America's problems. They can't part with them, or they lose voters they can join your center, and lose NO votes. Maybe gain more! Dems and GOP's can join the centrist movement, and remain Dems and GOP's. It's not joining some stupid fraternity of insecure nothings. It's putting right policies in place, and righteous people in office. That is all it is. Labels are unrelated!

YOU will campaign for ANY politician of any label who supports centrist and best practices policies!
Me: Correct, and the public can credit BOTH parties when good legislation gets passed, by common sense common ground solutions
No party has to get an edge or leg up, if enough of their members join your policies and vote for them.
Me: There may not be enough good people in D.C. to take that chance!
Then I'll destroy them.
Me: Good; you're late, IMO!
Give them the chance, first. I'll deal with the rejecters. And don't let them lose anything in the process—ONLY bad policies!
Me: I wish You'd just end it, instead.
You're Jimpatient!
Me: WHEN does common parenting skills of responsibility, accountability, consequences and even punishment EVER befall the arrogant untouchables in D.C.?
Their time is coming! WARN them of My fierce judgment, before eternal Hell fire. Make them repent, or else, for them! WARN them severely.
Me: I don't think moderate GOP's and Dems will abandon their friends. It's ALL about money and emotion. Even @jackngraham is far more loyal to friends and party than morality, and therefore, You! Correct.
Me: Rebuke them severely!
I just said that! (Tit. 1:13)
Me: He never repents or changes.
Forget and expose him, and all like him!
Me: Will do, if You ever open doors for me to do so in the media. If You don't, fools will keep being duped & misled into sin, for political idolatry

DO YOU THINK I DO NOT SEE ALL HIS EVILS?

Me: Honestly, it seems You overlook them!

He's storing up judgment, piling it higher and deeper. I Th. 2:16 He believes he's doing right. I said that type of delusion would come! Jn. 16:2

Me: HOW is he so deluded?

He's in bed with satan's man. There's a force/power/spirit in those interactions! A satanic pull for idolaters!

Me: Judge him!

I will; go multitask.

Me: Ok.

Anything else?

Me: Yes. Will You promise me the 7-year Tribulation will follow, if D.C. rejects centrism by 2032?

I will promise I will judge America, entirely, if it rejects My solutions, and if the church rejects DOING II Chron. 7:14. I simply will NOT give YOU an exact day.

Me: Soon after 2032?

I'm NOT 'gonna tell you!

YOU are to WARN D.C. politicians of impending judgment, if they don't repent of politics-as-usual.

YOU are to WARN the church that if they don't start doing My priorities, judgment starts with the household of God. I Pet. 4:17 You must WARN U.S. voters, if they keep tolerating evil politicians.

America will be judged, as I will turn my face away from that formerly blessed nation!

Me: That's not a popular mantra.

No one asked you if it is positive or catchy. EVERY prophet encountered opposition, and several were killed. That's NOT a concern you're to engage.

Me: You have to win.

You have to warn.

Me: So winning isn't the objective?

Winning is VERY possible, and My will. But NOT if you refuse to warn! That will certainly fail.

Warning is much more important than winning, even if winning would bring much good to America.

They face judgment. Years of good policy won't change that. Warnings COULD, at least for those who heed the warnings. Peoples' eternities are so far more important to even them (and Me) than if America fails or succeeds! Have you not even considered the severity of Hell?

Me: Many times, but it's not a concern for me.

Yes, but it is for them, and they're NOT considering it at all. NO preacher is in the public square talking about the Tribulation, or Hell's reality! AT BEST, they HOPE lost people happen onto their TV and radio shows!

You NEVER hear @jackngraham warn tRump of his horrid future, being so stupid and sin-full. NEVER!

He's NOT like John the Baptist, one iota—just a Southern Baptist! WHERE ARE THE WARNINGS?

There are several pastors trying to make America a theocracy. WHERE IS ROBERT JEFFRESS and FRANKLIN GRAHAM (three men YOU started in political alliance) WARNING GOPs and DEMS OF JUDGMENT?

Just donate to me and give me media accolades! Heretical, in practice. Judgment is NOT feared in America! You're full of practicing atheists who claim My Son! There is no fear before their eyes! They believe I'm blind and deaf. Judgment STARTS with the people of God. Get ready; be prepared; you'll endure horrible trials of judgment!

Me: WHY do I have to keep writing? Pastors IGNORE Your priorities I detail, constantly. They have NO intention of changing "successful" church! It pays the bills, and makes them rich, famous or both. WARN THEM OF JUDGMENT–PERIOD!

Me: How?

Run for office to get the word out.

Me: You supply the $500K and I'll work full time for 1.7 years. Otherwise, I care about my family's needs!

You contact the people I told you to, and learn to multitask.

Me: I'll contact them by weekend's end. YOU have to provide. You haven't and don't, has been my experience.

Faith doesn't look at circumstances or track records. It looks at My promises.

Me: But Phil. 4:19 hasn't worked for me in 10 years.

I told you if I had blessed you with income, you wouldn't have a website to run off of.

Me: I can't run with no notoriety among laymen, and no funds.

Contact people I'm preparing!

Me: Ok. UGH. Judgment isn't the most popular campaign slogan.

IS IT TRUE? IS IT IMPORTANT? IS IT COMING? Then shut up about popularity. Think priority.

Millions will forever burn in flames forever. Shouldn't they be warned, to possibly avoid that fate?

Me: That's pastors' job!

They're failing, and are preaching to the choir of SAVED people. It's a humiliatingly embarrassing "strategy." Fishing for fish in a septic tank! Lost fish are rarely in church houses! Lost sheep are ALWAYS everywhere around church buildings.

WHO ELSE will be judged for NOT reaching those nearest to their business? Pastors, who drive right past lost peoples doors, HOPING they'll read signs to come hear them speak! They don't care enough about their neighbors' eternity to take My gospel to each and every one of them, through their members, obeying Eph. 4, and many other verses. Guilty for judgment! WARN THEM!

Me: Great, a "winning" campaign to warn politicians, pastors, Christians and America of impending judgment. That will yield many votes.

You're NOT just warning. You're offering a far better way for all those five groups. IF they reject, then comes judgment.

Me: That's fair.

Me: Ok. Bye.

Bye, for now.

And it is NOT illegal to solicit foreign media air time for your global and U.S. solutions! It IS illegal to seek their funding. Tell other nations how U.S. politicians reject centrist solutions, as they choose sin.

WARN THE WORLD OF IMPENDING JUDGMENT. A fifth group to warn.

Me: VERY popular.

Obey! You have an entire website button, and one book on how the world could accept moral, good and truth-filled common sense solutions to its many problems. Again, if they reject those answers, NOW we're talking global judgment. THAT'S where Rev 5-20 kicks in!

Me: Wow; makes sense! You lead!

Ok.

HOW would any other nation listen to or even hear of you if you didn't run for the one office I CALLED YOU TO BACK IN 2015? Mad advertising? You got funds for that, to every country? Just run in America with My solutions.

Me: Fund me.

I will

Me: I'm waiting.

Be patient; and multitask.

Ok. Bye.

Ditto.

Me: WHY can't You get a preacher to do this/their job?

I called you, and they'd have to run for office. Did I give these answers to them?

Me: No.

Then why do you want them to do your job?

Me: It's THEIR job!

They've failed.

Me: Ok. UGH!!! ISN'T saying "here are the solutions to your problems that God has given me; accept them—or be judged" EXACTLY the same sinful bullying @jackngraham embraces?

Yes, so don't do it that way. Put this message as your last chapter, and tell people to read the last chapter. Period.

You tend to forget, I gave you answers for every nation! Common sense solutions. You have one book and one button about it. Should that wisdom just rot on an unseen website? Do the worlds' heads of state have no need to learn these things?

Me: Yes they do.

Then get on the world stage.

Me: You lead.

Do what I said, and I will. Contact those people by weekend's end.

Me: Will do. NOW You're leading with needed DETAIL.

Sovereign timing, Jimpatient.

Me: UGH. I STILL think You'd be JUST to judge all these rebel people in politics, and evil extremists in America!

Yes I would, but I'm patient, not willing that any should perish, but all to come to repentance.

Me: You're right; I'm NOT that patient!

Do your job.

Morals don't matter to claiming Christians. ONLY abortion morality, taken to an extreme. [Private account:] 88 percent of evangelical Christians voted for Herschel Walker, not Warnock, the candidate who has devoted his adult life to Jesus Christ. Let that sink in.

@prestonwood @jackngraham now praises the serial liar Huckabee, because MORALS DON'T MATTER! Reward bad behavior. If your last name is famous, and stupid vs. smart rich people will back you, and you blaspheme Jesus' name in the process, you're a hero for pushing total abortion bans in Arkansas.

Update #1: Warnings To the World!

You need and you must write a warning update to the nations of the world, as they may not all see your book or website button on global solutions. WARN Gog and Magog that their nation is going to be judged, as I do have judgments of nations and peoples!

WARN Putin Hell is certain, if he never repents; same with China's Xi, and Iran's corrupt bunch of bandits.

Tell EVERY head of state that if you are not doing right, but wrong, judgment is certain on your soul. And tell the peoples of every nation, if they do not do rightly, justice will prevail when I judge them!

Tell heads of states to stop all their sinfulness. Do right toward your people! Ensure a good economy, and safe living conditions, and the ability to not die from preventable diseases. Do that, or may the people rise up to take you out of power, even if not allowed to vote!

Warn terrorists: Your day in Hell is coming, soon, and there aren't 17 virgins waiting to screw you. You are getting screwed by satan's lies! You can blow yourself up, but your self doesn't die—it just transfers to the fiery pits of Hell, endlessly. Don't be scared of it—embrace your future, if you choose not to repent!

And let me explain what that old-fashioned word means: Stop your sins! It will NOT get you into Heaven, but will lessen an intolerable punishment, some, at least in this life (trials, suffering), and maybe a little in Hell, but it's still Hell! Stop sinning!

I Cor. 15:34 is written to CHRISTIANS, and what they NEED to obey, today! STOP SINNING! Stop voting for liars, like Herschel and Texas' Paxton, who DID use his wife to avoid a subpoena! Practice what you hear preached! Repent! Judgment is upon your heads, for NOT doing God's EDBS priorities!

Pastors, the world over: Repent! Most of you are NOT doing God's top EDBS priorities in any significant amounts! STOP the traditions of men to preach and be paid; Teach, as well; disciple, as well; evangelize fully, as well. Lead, for once!

There should be zero people who dies from poverty! It's fixable. Greedy SOB rich hoarders: Obey I Tim. 6:17-19 or judgment is yours, and you're already likely headed to Hell, anyway, as few rich people enter Heaven, because their faith is in their bank accounts; NOT God. Repent!

YOU billionaires can end poverty, without freebies. You rich a-s-es can afford to give up some of what you idolatrously and greedily chased as your life's wrongful mission (wasted lives. Lk. 12:15). Specifically put it in education and motivation programs for the world's poor to learn budgeting, buying, job skills and self-sufficiency! DO IT.

I feel led to remind fools what Hell is:

1. A spiritual place; invisible to the naked eye. NASA will never discover it. It's NOT the molten lava center of our earth!
2. Real; NOT a fantasy, any more than Jesus was a myth Who never walked this earth, ~2K years ago. There's evidence for His having come, and He never lied, or was unfactual, and He says Hell is real.
3. Fire and darkness, separated from God. You're already used to that separation, but the fire will burn like a shocker! Your afterlife body will feel that pain, and never disintegrate!
4. Forever; NO out!

WARN governments to not steal neighbors land, Poot-in. End injustices. STOP harassing Iranian and Muslim women who are 100 percent human equals to their evil, bullying male "morality police," so deceived by satan they call sin morality! Uncover your dang faces. Get an education. Drive cars. Start businesses. Go to work if you so choose.

And spies trying to hack governments, individuals and businesses: Repent! You have NO IDEA the fury God is about to unleash upon YOU! Rapists, murderers, armed robbers, violent gang members, thugs, incest perverts, adulterers, and all caught up in greed, hoarding, selfishness, idolatry, sin-to-win politics, injustice, manipulating DUMB voters and parishioners, Bible ignorant claimers of Christ, UNevangelistic UNcommitted "Christians," pastors DISqualified from a secret love of money, unrevealed pastor salaries, pastors who try to lure David's to run for office because of the $150M payoff (over time), because YOU idolize money!

ALL of you NEED to repent! And aborters and homosexuals—your sex choices are sinful, to kill a baby you should have and could have prevented; NOT the unpreventable children of broken condoms, failed contraception, rape or incest, mom's life or vegetative baby cases.

Politicians: You, like the Pharisees, love the fancy titles, but you are exactly what Jesus called those Pharisee hypocrites!: White-washed sepulchers, brood of vipers, and everything else! Lk. 20:46 Repent!

I'm NOT evangelizing you, or speaking on how to avoid Hell for Heaven! That's NOT my message, today! My message is repent! Stop sinning, or judgment on your puny and morally worthless souls is CERTAIN!

You're made in God's image, but your choices are making your souls worthless for ANY good thing.

The Bible book of Ecclesiastes, written by the wisest rich man, speaks to futility. Chasing money and secular power is futility! Y'all get LITTLE accomplished for your overpaid total compensation, in D.C.; mainly bad things, or nothing/gridlock. REPENT!

God will judge you more harshly than voters, due to Lk. 12:48! Jas. 3:1 speaks to the responsibility of business owners and management! GREATER judgment is coming to you than to your employees, as you control the power/authority, and many of you use it selfishly and unjustly!

I am warning you to repent! NOT get saved. That's a different message, some Christian or pastor can tell you about, if they will ever get off their duffs, leave their cloistered comfort zones and obey God.

BUT, I digress... I have just detailed the MINIMUM God expects of all politicians for their people.

And to the world's rich: Logic (a good thing)—you came into this world with not a penny to your name, and you will exit this world, usually into Hell, with that same net worth! Pride in your wealth is arrogant sin and worldliness. Be proud of how you gained and used it, your mere flash in the pan lifespan on earth!

You can't take it with you, UNLESS you get saved, then bring others to Heaven and give to the poor. THOSE actions bring riches that last forever. Otherwise my message to you is one of warning you to repent or be judged, more severely than the poor will be!

I could TRY to describe for you the coming 7-year judgment on earth, but you can read our chapter, entitled Bible Prophecy.

WHY try to dramatize or hype it? READ THE JUDGMENTS FOR YOURSELF! They are coming, if you do not repent. Judgment is for your sins. Salvation is for forgiveness of your sins. It's one or the other, folks. Let Jesus pay the penalty, or you surely will—forever! STOP your wicked ways!

Stopping sinfulness gets NO ONE to Heaven. Starting goodness gets NO ONE out of Hell. But those good decisions do promise you a longer and more healthy and prosperous life, generally-speaking, in THIS life; less sorrows, suffering and unnecessary trials. NOTHING you do can qualify you for Heaven!

I've told you how to get there, and how to avoid Hell. That's NOT my concern in this message, but a WARNING of impending judgment, if all groups I've addressed to not do right and not wrong: Rich, politicians, business owners, pastors, Christians and criminals/terrorists/violent folks.

EVERYone sins, and is a sinner. There are degrees of guilt and culpability. I am speaking ONLY to the humans who are producing evil actions and unjust results, in politics, religion, and business. Do justly to those under your care, or be judged! I'm for it today; God is more patient.

I don't think people care about God's judgment, because they don't believe it's real, will happen, or if it will, it's way far away, or somehow they won't be targeted. WRONG! The ONLY people who miss it have ALL their sins forgiven, so judgment is averted. Here's how to be one of them:

THE GOSPEL ("Good News")

DO YOU KNOW FOR CERTAIN THAT YOU WILL GO TO HEAVEN WHEN YOU DIE?...

1. GOD'S PLAN: Good News... God Loves You, and has a Wonderful Plan for your Life!

"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life." (John 3:16)
 "The thief comes only to steal, and kill, and destroy; I came that they might have life, and might have it abundantly." (John 10:10)

2. MAN'S PROBLEM: All People have Sinned--No One is Morally Perfect.

If you have ever committed one sin, you are guilty before God as if you had committed all sins. Therefore, no one deserves to go to heaven and no one can work their way there.
 "for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." (Rom. 3:23)
 Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but through Me." (John 14:6)

3. SIN'S PUNISHMENT: The Punishment for Sin is Physical and Eternal Death.

Man not only dies bodily when this life is over, but his soul is eternally separated from God--in hell--without Christ.
 "For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Rom. 6:23)

4. GOD'S PROVISION: God has Provided Jesus Christ as the Solution to Man's Problem.

Christ paid the punishment/penalty for all men's sins by dying on the cross, and He is alive today, in heaven, having been resurrected from the dead.
 "Now I make known to you, brethren, the Gospel which I preached to you, which also you received, in which also you stand, by which also you are saved, if you hold fast the word which I preached to you, unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures." (1 Cor. 15:1-4)
 "But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." (Rom. 5:8)
 "And there is salvation in no one else; for there is no other name under heaven that has been given among men, by which we must be saved." (Acts 4:12)

5. MAN'S RESPONSE: You can Receive Jesus Christ for the Forgiveness of All your Sins.

By faith in God's word, the Bible, you trust God to save you from your sins. You do this by praying to invite Jesus Christ to live in your heart (i.e., life).
 "But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name." (John 1:12)
 "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with Me." (Rev. 3:20)

Humans walk by what they see. We don't see Hell. We don't see judgment. We don't see God's wrath. So we live/walk as if they don't exist. I don't want one human pointing any fingers at me, and saying YOU NEVER WARNED ME THIS WOULD HAPPEN TO ME! It's going to happen to everyone who isn't saved!

Hell Description

(Lk. 16:23-24; Mt. 10:28) Literal, Real (Not Imaginary or Figurative).

(Jude 1:7) Punishment of Eternal Fire.

(II Pet. 2:4) Pits of Darkness Reserved for Judgment.

(Mt. 8:12; Jude 1:13) Outer, Black Darkness; Weeping and Gnashing of Teeth.

(Lk. 16:23-24) A Place of Torment, with No Let Up or Relief.

(Mt. 10:28) Both Body and Soul are There.

(Mk. 9:42-48) The Worm Does Not Die and the Fire is Not Quenched.

(Rev. 20:10). The Devil's Rightful Home.

(Lk. 16:19-31) There is No Way to Appeal Your Case or plea your way out of Hell.

(Heb. 9:27) Finally, there is no salvation after physical death—only judgment—for those who have rejected Christ.

Update #2: Conversation with God (Continued)

Your duty is to warn, and as you campaign, mention this chapter! It warns for you. You can stay positive!

Me: Ok. Will You, for me, hold out a special judgment for @jackngraham?, for justice's sake?

Yes I will.

Me: Thanks! Well-deserved.

MORALS DO NOT MATTER! Only abortion, and extremist policies. This is the modern GOP! Christian apostates, heretics and carnals buy into satan's lies—hook, line and sinker—as their hearts are FAR from God and His Bible!

ANYONE, like Mike or Sarah Hucksterabee, or @jackngraham, whose actions (if not words) are that you reward bad behavior, and lying is just what she had to do to get a job so she could be AR governor, is MORALLY CORRUPT as a claimer vs. follower of Christ "Christian!" Just 'sayin'.

A STRANGE part of me WANTS tRUMP to win, to show that he's the Anti-Christ! Not a big enough part of me that I would ever not work to defeat him, and every sinful idiot in the cult he established!

I said I was THROUGH writing chapters. God has another add-on: WHY Christians are often so stupid:

1. They don't read the Bible much
2. Everything else falls for #1!
3. They're often under-educated, especially in logic and analytical skills
4. They gullibly believe pastors' every word
5. Belief can become a substitute for intelligence, if one is lazy.
6. Sin/carnality. Failing to obey God in worshipping Him with all their minds.
7. Any naturally low IQs; you can't fault them for that!

REPENT!

Worship the word "conservative!" Jesus didn't say that; the devil does! If you worship Him, you could never be 100 percent "conservative." Going to church and being "conservative" makes NO ONE right with God, in and of themselves. Repent, fakes, frauds and failures!

One more add-on to yesterday's message: THE REASON pastors don't choose to practice biblical church is one word: Sin! It could be the sin of laziness, competition, ignorance, delusion that all is well, but the Bible is CLEAR on how church is to operate. We don't, from rebellion! REPENT!

Did you think a man-child who can't even get his gospel straight, would have inner character?

Me: Actually, yes. I just thought he was following the crowd. He loves the security of being on teams Well, you were wrong, weren't you?

Me: Yes I was. Proven over and over, but few know of it Expose it!

You endured his church, for decades, because he was NOT your pastor. That's the ONLY way you made it that many years! Ever since he shut down your service, it's been a challenge, and you literally ONLY sat under him for three months.

Me: That was enough, forever!
Agreed.

Even if Jeremiah, Swindoll or Stanley HATED you for exposing the GOP's dark underbelly, you know their character, and that difference of opinion would be because you only speak truth, but they can't offend parishioners. Those three are above board (reproach), UNlike the past two in your life!

Me: Agreed!

Me: WHY don't You judge more often? Kids who get away with things usually turn out even worse! I would, I will, but you don't seem to realize when I act in any significant way, it will be My final act.

Me: Ok, if that's the case, your mercy is way better than mine.
As I've been saying.

EVIL people do things in secret, so few will learn of them; or they use surrogates to do their dirty work, like Manson did using his female followers to kill. @jackngraham is COUNTING on you never getting this info to the public. He'd retire, if he feared you'd be successful, or he'd lie.

Go protest his (@jackngraham) church!

Me: With what signs?

The one below.

Me: He'll claim he's more evangelistic than most pastors.

He'll NEVER tell the congregation YOU made him be that way. Arrogance SIN.

Me: Do I have to?

If you want to.

Me: I may, if have time. He's evil. Judge him!

In due time. He already got a slap in the face, with a majority of Southern Baptists NOT electing the guy he advocated for for their President!

Me: True that, and for a GOOD man.

There's some judgment and justice for you.

Me: Dribbles and drabs.

Better than injustice.

Me: True.

You need a cord/whip and sackcloth, for D.C.

Me: Literal props?

Symbolic. Go turn those tables, and call out every evil.

Me: I have my own they can use against me.

I'll handle them. You do as I say.

Me: Ok. WHY didn't You just have me sit under morally good pastors, vs. weeding out the rats?

I did! Bisagno and Stephens.

Me: Inbetween Young and Ounce.

You BARELY had to interact with either of them.

Me: But they pulled the strings. Six Flags over Second Baptist, and other crap from music minister/second in command. YOU can expose all this. Insiders knew it, and told you all the stories, like John Baugh, etc. They keep their sins hidden! Not from Me, but from dumb congregants.

Me: True

Expose them, as you tried to with Bible Answer Man, Hanegraff, incentivized not to reveal it; got a speaking gig/(pay)!

Twitter is a dead end. This info has to go to the media.

Me: Ok, if they're interested.

They will be if it helps a cause of theirs.

Me: That's not my concern.

That's their concern. If you want them taking up your concern, consider theirs.

Me: Ok

Update #3: The Most Important Topic In the World (HOPE For the World)

(11/11/22-2)

On the surface, and from the exterior, there are good and bad deeds. All humans are to choose good deeds. (Ecc. 12:13) BUT, so choosing gets NO ONE to Heaven! (Rom. 2:16, 3:20)

But in the Bible there are up to four types of deeds! Unsaved/lost people are spiritually incapable of doing deeds that get credited in Heaven. Perhaps they'll get less severe Hell punishment, but the evidence is not crystal clear. Even morally good (exterior) deeds are sin-tainted, if one is lost, because they were not wrought in God, or borne from/out of a relationship with Christ.

It's still, what they're to do (Ecc. 12:13, again), and that benefits them in this life, and maybe a bit in their Hell life. Longevity, health, seeing good things, etc. [There are verses for everything I'm saying]

Then there are attempted good deeds of the Law by lost souls, seeking to earn Heaven, thereby. Unsaved Jews would have been the most involved with such externally "good" deeds, trying to obey their misunderstanding of their religion, at least in Old Testament times.

For Christians, there are deeds of the flesh (sin) and deeds/fruit of the Spirit. Dead works (Heb. 6:1) are deeds Christians try in their own power/strength/initiative to do for God, instead of through God. They're sin-tainted, as well, so one might categorize these as a form of deeds of the flesh, BUT they are not externally sinful, but righteous.

I've said all this for one reason: Lordship Salvationists literally do not understand biblical salvation, intellectually, if perhaps (and likely) knowing it experientially. I'm not here to doubt any claimer of Christ's salvation, if they're a Lordshipper. HOW can I assert they misunderstand God's gospel? By looking at Scripture, and comparing the two.

Confusion is a trait the devil brings to people (I Cor. 14:33), and Lordshippers are confused about salvation! They view it as a lifelong process one commits to. God does NOT teach that!

The Bible teaches salvation happens on one day, and has forever effects! One is born again on one day in their life history! They can't and don't ever get re-born again, nor are there several rebirths, even though Christians can get re-committed, once and if they get committed.

I'm NOT trying to confuse anyone with my rhythmic words on this subject! Salvation takes place on one day! And the proof to the person that God indeed saved them, when they trusted Him to, is the indwelling Holy Spirit! Nothing more, nothing less! (Rom. 8:15-16; II Cor. 1:22)

Of course deeds will stem forth from humans after they are saved, good or bad, even if they never do one thing for God. Those would be dead works, as NOT produced by the filling Spirit Who indwells them, even externally good ones. Sin-tainted, and not credited in Heaven toward rewards!

The requirements for salvation are NOT the same as those for sanctification. Let me break that statement down in simpler form: What is required to go to Heaven is not the same as what is required to live right with God all one's life. THIS is the difference between Lordship Salvationists, and free grace/Saviorhood Salvationists.

Lordshippers are intellectually blinded and/or incapable of seeing that there is a moment in time (salvation only takes a matter of split seconds, as it's a miraculously instantaneous work of God) when a lost person gets saved.

The Holy Spirit is received. Jesus lives inside. One is made a new creation. All is made new on the inside. All sins are forever forgiven—past, present and future. One is made a citizen of Heaven, and given all things pertaining to life and godliness. Instantly.

Miraculously. Forever. The assurance of that fact is the Holy Spirit in our spirit! But thereafter, sanctification starts. A completely different, yet related period of time; the outgrowth/effects of having been forever saved, instantaneously and miraculously.

Famous Lordshippers (like Belcher) accuse MY side of hiding the bad news/sandbagging, or burdening new Christians with all the rules all at once, or, more often, of requiring zero rules. The book of Acts adequately rebuts such foolishness!

No less than Paul only placed four rules on newly -saved people who would evangelize strict Jewish adherents, so that their past Jewish lifestyle wouldn't detract from their present Christian gospel ministering to lost Jews. (Ac. 15)

As I read the Bible (probably the 165th time through the New Testament, last night), it appears to me that what often bridged the gap between "spiritual abandonment" MY side is always slandered as teaching, and getting new Christians maturing, is:

1. Gathering with believers, and
2. Teaching

There's NO indication they were required to do this, but excitedly and spontaneously (you might say, naturally, with a new nature from supernatural Sourcing) wanted to. Plus, the movement was fresh and exciting, and persecution often lent to a need to band together. (Rom. 6:17; I Th. 1:6, 2:8; I Pet. 1:22).

And we have the case where one other person was translated from one place to another, instantly, where follow-up by the evangelizer was impossible. (Ac. 8:40)

My point is that sanctification isn't automatic, with zero effort on the new Christian's part. And the New Testament CLEARLY demonstrates through the theological books (mainly the epistles) that the authors rejoice in people's salvation, pray for their growth, then educate them on salvation, identity, inheritance, and all that happened when they believed, and THEN speak to application, or sanctification, with detailed moral instruction.

The pattern is obvious to everyone but Helen Keller (God rest her soul). READ Romans through Jude! You can't miss it, unless your intellectual training in man's theology has warped your ability to be honest and objective!

I have the entire New Testament full of verses to write on, to make a systematic theology on the subject.

Now, IF you are "man enough" or "woman enough" to handle the truth, HERE is what the Bible teaches about salvation, as differentiated from sanctification, just like today is different from tomorrow. Have the discipline to look up the verses! Don't be lazy...

First, the Bible is written in a contextual order, so every systematic theology has to interrupt context, to pull out verses for its support. That's NOT evil, if their interpretation is based on original context.

Second, history books are best interpreted in light of theological ones.

They would never contradict, but unique events have to be understood in their broader application to all—which the epistles do for the Gospels. Individual's life experiences are interpreted in their lessons by God to all; not just subjectively to one or a few.

So, here we go...

Rom. 2:28, 3:20, 22, 24-28, 4:3-8, 11, 13-16, 24, 5:1, 9-10, 15-17, 19, 6:1-2, 6, 11, 15-22, 7:1-6, 8:1-8, 13, 15-16, 23, 32, 35, 9:30-32, 10:4, 8-11, 12:1 (Cf.: 6:16), 13:13; I Cor. 1:18, 30, 2:5, 16, 6:19-20, 7:19, 12:3, 13, 15:10, 19, 33-34, 16:22; II Cor. 1:9, 12, 22, 3:6, 16-17, 4:13, 16, 5:21, 7:1; Gal. 2:16, 3:3, 10-12; Eph. 1:13, 4:22-23, 5:5; Phil. 1:29, 2:12-13; Col. 1:4-5, 2:23; I Th. 1:4-6; II Th. 2:13-14; I Tim. 1:9-10; II Tim. 1:12; Tit. 1:2-3, 2:14, 3:5, 14; Jas. 1:17-18; I Pet. 1:3-5, 13, 22-23; II Pet. 1:3-5; I Jn. 2:15, 5:10-13; Jude 1:3 (and the gospels-Acts, covered at our website, multiple times).

I'll add these, to ensure EVERY book but Rev. is included: II Jn. 1:4; III Jn. 3-4; Heb. 5:11-6:9, 7:25; 9:23, 12:28; and even Rev. 1:5

YOU WOULD DO WELL TO READ ALL THESE, IN CONTEXT (suggested from the NASB), before seeing what I would selectively interpret. NO ONE is misleading you but your own choice of ignorance!

As to the gospels, I already interpreted EVERY discipleship call, and have shown how they DON'T teach Lordship Salvation! I don't reinvent the wheel, wasting time.

<http://AmericanAnswers.org> Campaign Update and Will You Live Forever buttons handle EVERY verse Lordshippers cherry pick to prove their heresy. EVEN Book Updates (at AmericanAnswers.org) handles the heresy of Lordship Salvation.

Any and every proof text they will assert has been thoroughly refuted, in context, with EVERY Bible verse relevant to the subject. I haven't time nor patience to re-do that BIG work.

READ FOR YOURSELF! I REALLY don't 'wanna interpret those verses for others. I read the entire New Testament, last eve, and that's exhausting.

I'll even help newbies learn the proof texts Lordshippers use, then I'm taking a vacation!: Mt. 3:2, 4:19, 7:15-20, 22, 8:35-37, 16:24-26, 24:13; Jas. 2:19, 24; I Cor. 6:9-11; II Pet. 3:9.

These two simple verses, along with the vast, super majority of New Testament texts, DESTROY Lordship Salvation, but they're rooted in man's tradition, so they're unlikely to open their sheepish (i.e., crowd think) minds, anytime soon:

Jn. 2:11, 11:26

That HERESY is FULLY EXPOSED and REFUTED at our website.

One more logical refutation, then no more repeating past truths we've already taught: If a human FULLY committed to live righteous, and NOT sinful, for the rest of their life on earth, THEY WOULD STILL GO TO HELL, because those actions do NOT produce salvation, Lordship Salvation errorists!

I wrote this, as I was dozing off to sleep, late last night: "Works don't save, but commit to do works or you can't get saved." So says the heresy of Lordship Salvation.

ALL YOU EVER NEED TO KNOW, and WHAT YOU HAVE TO KNOW:

THE GOSPEL (“Good News”)

DO YOU KNOW FOR CERTAIN THAT YOU WILL GO TO HEAVEN WHEN YOU DIE?...

1. GOD’S PLAN: Good News... God Loves You, and has a Wonderful Plan for your Life!

“For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life.” (John 3:16)
 “The thief comes only to steal, and kill, and destroy; I came that they might have life, and might have it abundantly.” (John 10:10)

2. MAN’S PROBLEM: All People have Sinned–No One is Morally Perfect.

If you have ever committed one sin, you are guilty before God as if you had committed all sins. Therefore, no one deserves to go to heaven and no one can work their way there.
 “for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.” (Rom. 3:23)
 Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but through Me.” (John 14:6)

3. SIN’S PUNISHMENT: The Punishment for Sin is Physical and Eternal Death.

Man not only dies bodily when this life is over, but his soul is eternally separated from God—in hell—without Christ.
 “For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.” (Rom. 6:23)

4. GOD’S PROVISION: God has Provided Jesus Christ as the Solution to Man’s Problem.

Christ paid the punishment/penalty for all men’s sins by dying on the cross, and He is alive today, in heaven, having been resurrected from the dead.
 “Now I make known to you, brethren, the Gospel which I preached to you, which also you received, in which also you stand, by which also you are saved, if you hold fast the word which I preached to you, unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures.” (1 Cor. 15:1-4)
 “But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.” (Rom. 5:8)
 “And there is salvation in no one else; for there is no other name under heaven that has been given among men, by which we must be saved.” (Acts 4:12)

5. MAN’S RESPONSE: You can Receive Jesus Christ for the Forgiveness of All your Sins.

By faith in God’s word, the Bible, you trust God to save you from your sins. You do this by praying to invite Jesus Christ to live in your heart (i.e., life).
 “But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name.” (John 1:12)
 “Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with Me.” (Rev. 3:20)

Update #4: Tithing (Unpublished)

While we are writing on ‘ultimate issues,’ let’s THOROUGHLY address the claim that Christians owe their church 10% of their income—a tithe—based on Mal. 3:10. First, there were zero Christians existing anywhere near the time or place where that verse was taught and written. Jews, yes, in a theocracy.

So what about the argument Jesus came to fulfill the Law, and Christians are to emulate Jesus? (Mt. 5:17):

1. Jesus fully fulfilled it; there is not one commandment He ever broke.
2. His fulfilling made Him the perfect sacrificial Lamb to cover for all men’s sins.
3. Christians are NOT under the Law! (Rom. 6:14, 7:6, etc.)

There are teachings in the New Testament that update, amend or supersede some Old Testament teachings. The Sermon on the Mount is prime evidence (“You have heard, but I say”). IS TITHING TAUGHT IN THE NEW TESTAMENT, as continuing the practice from Old Testament times?

Let’s look! Here is EVERY reference to any form of the root core, “tith,” found in the Christian era writings. Let’s interpret and analyze each and every one of them, so there is NO confusion.

Mt. 23:23 In this chapter, Jesus, initially, addresses the crowds and His disciples (v. 1). But in verse 13, He addresses teachers of the Law and Pharisees. In verse 23 he rebukes them tithing, but neglecting greater priorities. Again, they were Jewish teachers of the Law, and (hypocritical/Pharisaical’) Pharisees. NOT Christians.

Lk. 11:42 In verse 37 we see Jesus is speaking with a Pharisee. In verse 39 he tells that Pharisee things about his group, known as Pharisees. In verse 42, specifically, Jesus addresses the Jewish Pharisees, tithing, but neglecting greater values, just as in Mt. 23:23.

Lk. 18:12 In verse 11 we see it is a holier-than-thou/arrogant Pharisee bragging how he is more virtuous than others, including his tithing. Note to Captain Obvious: Pharisees are NOT Christians!

Heb. 7:8-9 Abraham was a father of the Jews. He tithes to the human one greater than him—Melchizadek. Again, father Abraham was a believing Jew, but his act occurred well before the Christian era began, namely when Christ ascended and the Spirit started the Church in Acts 2.

LOOK at II Cor. 9. Giving is to be as one is led by the Spirit, according to how one has been blessed. EVERYTHING in the Christian life is by being led by God’s Spirit. There is absolutely NO (zero) percentage ever listed in the New Testament for how much the Spirit will lead any person to give!

The problem is Christians either can’t be trusted, by pastors, to be led by the Spirit, or get tempted by the flesh to give nothing, or little. So, many pastors suggest an amount or percent, playing God. And it usually, wrongly, goes back to Mal. 3:10

THE reason pastors want to teach tithing as mandatory is it guilts if not guarantees church income, at 10% of the parishioners’ incomes. Either that, or from our Bible ignorance. Either way, NOT moral motivations, if inconsistent with the teachings of God’s word, which I just proved to you it is.

God may lead you to 10%. He may lead you to 100%, like the widow’s mite. He may lead you to less, like very poor believers. NO man can tell you what amount or percent God wants you to give, because NO man is God, or can rightly play Him! Learn to be led of the Spirit, Christians!

Update #5: Evangelism & God’s Top Priorities (Unpublished)

IF the Bible was purely logical, it would contain nothing supernatural, spiritual or miraculous. At the same time, God has made us to have minds, and commanded us to use them. God’s truth often corresponds to what is rational/reasonable, if not sometimes logical.

For those believers who aren’t caught up in emotionalism, who simply want to understand what God teaches on this subject, please forgive the logical presentation of this subject, because if my points made match up with the Bible, the argument is rock solid and irrefutable!

Every human goes to Hell without Christ inside (possibly excepting youth not yet to the age of accountability).

Hell is real, spiritual, a place of torment, dark, absent from God, fiery, and forever.

No one knows when they will die, but everyone knows they will die (excepting any who are Raptured).

There is only one way to avoid Hell, and accepting Jesus is that exclusive means.

The gospel message is the only message about how any human can end up in Heaven, when they die.

The Church/Christians are the only humans commanded by God to tell everyone else how to avoid Hell—urgently and thoroughly.

That means every Christian has a part to play in evangelizing the entire world. Jesus wasn't kidding when He commanded us to take the gospel to every creature—not just representative people, or even just people groups, because every human faces Hell without Christ!

The Bible teaches the concepts of a farm, a sphere and a familial relationship between ministers and people they are most responsible for ministering to, and reaching with the gospel.

The Bible also teaches that pastors are to train up their church members to do the work of ministry, evangelism being the most important ministry that benefits non-Christians.

Therefore, it makes absolutely zero sense for any pastor, anywhere, to feel it is not his duty, or that someone else should burden the responsibility of being the main go-to person for ensuring people nearest to his church building hearing the gospel.

And since it takes, on average, 7 hearings for people to respond positively, it is professional negligence the small amount of pastors who even believe, much less implement this truth!

That is why, it is my goal for the remainder of my life, to inspire people all across our globe, who will spend $75 and replicate the following 3' X 3.5' metal sign, and take it (along with others, if you can find them) to every major church near where they live, at least one Sunday morning (or whenever they are gathered with many people, preferably up to an hour before service start times, to ensure as many people in vehicles read the sign as humanly possible, prayed over).

Do it legally, and ethically. Dress decently, stay on public property, don't block or obstruct traffic, smile, wave, and don't act weird. On Judgment Day, or before (if you read your Bible), you will see the issue is important and serious enough to literally call for this solution! People will thank you, on the other side of death!

It would be ideal to take it to every nearby church, but start with the larger ones, as “to whom much is given, much will be required,” and the community, if not some smaller churches, sometimes follow what the big boys (sometimes HUMANLY labeled “leaders”) are doing, assuming that might grow their membership like it has them (i.e., competition and business comparison).

I can give you Bible verses for all my propositions, and any implications are directly derived from proper interpretations, from experience in applying Bible truths I am writing about, but not directly quoting or referencing, as my entire button, “Will You Live Forever?” covers the entire topic thoroughly, with said references!

I will happily share my electronic file design, with anyone, but it’s pretty basic, as even a dinosaur like myself created it! Shop around with print or sign shops. I only paid $75 in the late 1990’s, and recently got that same price for even more complex signs, with plastic between 2 sided metal faces.

EVERY area with a church needs to have those churches exhorted to do thorough evangelism, or face severe judgment from God (or firing by parishioners), because every area with a church needs its field fully harvested/threshed.

Then, it is the unchurched areas of the world where missionaries and Christians on mission can most effectively utilize their service and spending!

Remember, urgency and thoroughness are biblical! We never know when anyone will die, when Jesus will return, and the longer we delay, the more our deeds of inaction are telling a lost world that it’s no big deal to be saved, and no great risk facing Hell at any unknown time of death!

Finally, I have written on these top 4 priorities, many times, but to round out this chapter on most important things, I share this meme, for you to assess what it means, if it’s biblical, and if you and your church are obediently doing God’s will and priorities, like the tithing Pharisees were NOT.

God’s Top Priorities for His People (EDBS):

1. Full EVANGELISM of all lost people, especially those within walking distance of your church!
2. Relational DISCIPLINESHIP of all Christians, especially those within your church membership.
3. BODY LIFE. All members using their spiritual gifts to edify the body, when it is gathered.
4. Significant SOcial MINISTRY, like Jesus did, making society better, by doing good.
(Lk 19:10; II Pet 3:9; I Tim 2:4; Ac 4:13; II Tim 2:2; Eph 4:11-16; Ac 10:38)

Update #6: FULL Evangelism (Part I)

(11/17-19/22-2)

Some of the MOST important work in the world has been taking place at @JamesMeroney this week, God-led. PLEASE join and make a sign, and take it all around the churches near you! NOTHING is more important than getting Christians to urgently evangelize! NOTHING IN ETERNITY! #JustDoIt!

EVERY major U.S. church that has a Twitter account that can be found, that I haven’t already had interaction with, will be getting THIS meme, this week. All other nearby BIG churches should see us before our campaign starts. Laborers are needed, so laymen will be asked to join, here.

There's NO threat or attack on pastors, if laymen took that meme, made is a $75 sign, and took it during heavy Sunday vehicular traffic! No one will lose their job! They NEED to! If last night was any indication of how satan HATES people pushing for evangelism, He HATES this ministry!

At the Bema Judgment for Christians, our record at @jamesmeroney will SHOW that most BIG church pastors in U.S. (and some, world-wide) were specifically put on notice to evangelize their nearby lost people, ASAP, and God will determine if that task got completed by them! We need global retweeters!

Smaller churches sometimes imitate larger ones, hoping they can grow as big ones have, so we are reaching the larger ones (you can't reach them all). (Gal. 2:6) Plus, it makes more Christians accountable, as pastors of those churches rule "over" more Christians than smaller churches.

IF you only knew how LITTLE evangelism gets done by laymen in America, and IF you are a believer who cares one iota about God, you would lay prostrate, in public, face down, in tears, sack cloth and ashes! I CAN'T SHOW YOU INACTION, only action! No video camera can record non-evangelism!

Preachers speak the gospel to 99%+ SAVED people, at church. Then they air their sermons through the media, to MAINY Christian viewers and listeners. WE ARE DECEIVED that the gospel is going to the ends of the earth, and how FEW lost people happen upon our programs, compared to how many exist!

If no one knows who needs to hear the gospel, and who doesn't, our evangelism drips and drabs are only sporadic, disorganized, unthorough, haphazard, random, token, irrational and underwhelming, which means they are DISobedient to the Great Commission, and rebellion against God! Re-read this, please!

HERE are FIVE separately contexted Bible passages SHOWING the concept of pastoral responsibility of their church to evangelize all lost near their building! And Jesus left the 99 to get the very last one. He is thorough (Lk. 15:4)! II Tim. 2:6; II Cor. 10:13; I Tim. 5:18; Lk. 10:25-37; Ac. 1:8

HOW HARD is it for ANY amount of evangelistic pastors and Christians to screenshot that meme, then look up Christians and churches and pastors to tweet it to! There are church lists everywhere, then Google their Twitter handle! Take one day off to do that. There's NO hypocrisy if you evangelize!

WHO doesn't have one day to Twitter or Google search Christians with Twitter accounts, who could individually tweet them with THIS meme? IF you never evangelize, I am saying clearly YOU ARE NOT AUTHORIZED TO EVER USE THAT MEME. Everyone else (the few)... have at it. Will one person do it?

U.S. pastors who are evangelistic (like @jackngraham) have EVERY RIGHT to use THAT meme to directly tag pastors of mega churches outside America! There are MANY evangelistic U.S. pastors, in number; maybe not in percent. WAKE UP THE WORLD, by waking up sleeping global pastors with it!

HOW many U.S. Christians couldn't find the time to find other believers on Twitter, to tag this meme to, IF you have evangelized one time in the last year, or even in your life? Sacrifice ONE Saturday, and serve the Lord's needs; not your own! Wake up the sleeping Giant, individually!

THE DEVIL will whisper in Christian's hearts and minds: "Isn't that meme too severe!" I've tried for 45 years to get Christians and pastors evangelistic. It can take decades for a church to change! WE DON'T HAVE ENOUGH TIME FOR THAT PACE OF LESSER TACTICS! Hell is coming for ALL lost people!

And DO note, a less severe meme (sign) and in-person campaign to large churches near me has ALREADY BEEN DONE, EIGHT YEARS AGO! It is time to be more intense/severe, to use the sign above, and no longer this one! Screenshot and use it, all Christians who do ANY evangelism!!!

WHO ELSE is responsible before God to evangelize lost people nearer their own church than any other church, than the local pastor of that church? NAME ME ANYONE! Professional evangelists will NEVER ensure all those neighbors get reached! HOLD PASTORS ACCOUNTABLE, evangelistic Christians!

Ac. 1:8 teaches a principle (NOT a requirement/rule) of starting in your own home area. This argues for local churches starting and completing evangelizing all nearby lost people! The farmer verse teaches farmers plow their fields! They may help out a neighbor, but they don't harvest his field!

Paul was careful not to extend into another man's sphere. But he certainly was thorough in his own, and his was a huge, world-wide sphere! The oxen verse teaches this, too. Oxen stay within their fences, to feed. Your own neighborhood is MAINLY yours to evangelize, pastors; job one!

LOGIC argues that if every church MERELY evangelized ALL lost people in their area, the Great Commission would only then need missionaries to areas lacking any church! It's wasting money and personnel to not fully evangelize those you can walk to at zero cost to anyone. #JustDoIt!

The Good Samaritan parable teaches that everyone is our neighbor, and if you have community, "who is my brother" applies beyond mere flesh and blood, to have a familial attitude toward your church's neighbors, as "pastors" are father-like, and should have concern for the lost's souls. They're going to HELL.

DID YOU KNOW 96% of trained minister graduates in America remain in America? It is OBVIOUS why, when MOST evangelism need is elsewhere! MONEY! Creature comforts! That's like sending rescue workers to places having no emergency, while the world burns! We are SO carnal, selfish and worldly!

OTHER COUNTRIES are sending missionaries to America! Let that sink in! THEY SEE our Laodicean lifestyles, and lack of evangelism! How many people did you speak the gospel to in 2022? How many people asked you about your eternity? Poll your church crowds, privately and honestly! VERY FEW!

The Rapture could occur today (Jesus coming back in the clouds). MANY people will die, today! Every day we don't fully evangelize, WE are causing lost people to go to Hell! And we're saying being saved is no big deal; feel free to delay that decision, and risk Hell! #FOOLISHNESS!!!

YOU don't SEE many people die, everyday! Read obituaries. MOST people in your neighborhood don't travel down your street in a hearse or medical examiner's station wagon. But every day they don't hear the gospel is another day they risk eternity in a fiery forever. That's a HUGE risk and danger!

Rebukes and shaming are BIBLICAL methods to stir people up! And MONEY talks in America. Just the thought that the parishioners and even outsiders will see THAT sign, in front of major churches on Sunday, just might prayerfully spur pastors to take one more step toward this goal. Maybe!

NO MATTER your reasons for NOT evangelizing, they are reasons to wish lost people into Hell!

Understand the logic of this meme (below)! Jesus said if you follow Him, He will make you evangelistic. That means, if you aren't evangelistic, you aren't following Jesus. If you're saved, but don't care others get so, you don't understand salvation! The WHOLE Bible is about God redeeming man.

I'd rather be accused of being mean and harsh (on stirring up believers to evangelize) than to be accused of being too nice, and have the results I've witnessed the past 45 years! In the afterlife, MANY people you never met will thank you for doing everything in your power to increase evangelism!

We MUST pray for laborers! The fields are WHITE for harvest. AT THE SAME TIME we are told to learn how to stimulate one another to good deeds. There is NO greater good deed than evangelizing lost people heading to Hell, Christians! Heb. 10:24-25; Mt. 9:37-38

Mega pastors will do ANYTHING and everything to keep their high-paying jobs, AT ALL COSTS (even never retiring)! It's their (secret?) idol. Even the thought that any congregation might fire them if they don't LEAD in full local evangelism will send shivers down their weak spines! #JustDoIt!

JUST THINK of the size of the army that could be utilized, if just some mega pastors lead in evangelism! Many smaller churches fit their membership into one single mega church. But when the money is good, pastors sometimes think their job is done. It has ONLY just begun! Rally the troops!

If mega pastors could get mega churches to do mega evangelism, the Great Commission could get COMPLETED! IF only!

If Coke's CEO decided everyone in the world will get a free taste of his/her new product, executives would:

1. Identify all humans
2. Appoint regional managers
3. Localize territory managers
4. Recruit employees per territory. The Church has NONE OF SUCH CONCERN FOR THE GREAT COMMISSION! NONE!

HOW FOOLISH is it to evangelize away from your own neighborhood (time, expense, effort), when you don't even know for certain it has been fully reached? It may even smack of hypocrisy. The cheapest way to complete the Great Commission is every church reach your neighborhood, first!

Until someone other than God knows who has been evangelized and who hasn't, and who needs a re-evangelism, the church is incompetently negligent, NOT serious about the Great Commission, and fiddling while Rome burns!

EVERY TIME anyone does evangelism away from their own neighborhood, and no one ever tracks what work gets done, the universal church is UN-wisely evangelizing, and wasting precious few resources of manpower and money! Document who still must hear a first time; THEN do re-evangelism!

Pastors are comfortable and HAPPY when budgets are met and pews are filled. GOD IS THE OPPOSITE, when people OUTSIDE those uncommanded buildings do not get urgently reached with the gospel! Laodicea!

THIS week's posts at @jamesmeroney are an eternal record God can use to hold the universal church accountable, on Bema Judgment Day, for knowing we were to urgently evangelize, but we CHOSE to NOT fulfill the Great Commission, to the last lost sheep! MOST BIG churches were notified!

Update #7: Judgment (Part I)

HOW will God judge us for our many sins? THATs the ONLY remaining question curious to me! I've personally witnessed politicians try to and actually STEAL my political ideas, for self gain, crediting themselves for their origins, as with pastors for our spiritual ideas! God sees ALL!

I've seen BIG money back out of funding me, thrice, the media refuse to air me (with several opportunities), and seen Bloomberg and Schultz TRY to succeed off our ideas, as with CHUMP, and you see what happened to all three! FAILURE! I may be seeing one already trying to steal our ideas for 2024! God sees ALL!

There are NO people wanting or willing to help another! There are NO GOOD Samaritans! It's all greed, power lust/idolatry, and selfishness SINS! God sees ALL!

YOU saw, yesterday, Robert Jeffress and others say tRUMP used them. Victimitis/victim mentality, and NOT taking ANY moral responsibility for THEIR using CHUMP to get SCOTUS UNjustly stacked so Roe could be overturned!

Sin among pastors! Then, that sin-full strategy and free willed choice is harming them in Obergefell redefining marriage, YET one of their crew now blames Congress for such redefinition!

<https://www.yahoo.com/news/key-evangelical-figures-turn-trump-092100813.html>

Albert Moehler (a man who, if memory serves me well, got rewarded with a seminary headship and a radio gig, for changing his tune about CHUMP) is targeting GOP legislators who simply support precedent, and not unjustly being Indian Givers to the LGBTQ community! WHERE IS ANYONE calling out sins? <https://newsletters.theatlantic.com/the-third-rail/6377fb0dce44df0038de4c62/respect-for-marriage-same-sex-religious-freedom/>

I suggest the GOOD man, Russell Moore, on a witness stand or polygraph, could tell you more than I've detailed, here! THEN, Jeffress says he'd STILL back CHUMP! He wants it both ways! We were used, but I'll return to my abusive husband. BALDERDASH! GROW A PAIR, Robert!

And get this: MANY pastors are NOW... NOW... NOW speaking out against national gay marriage, codifying under Biden. WHERE WERE THSE WEASLES when I told them to speak up in 2015? YOU have to think VERY carefully to see the sin problem, here:

1. They were WARNED to speak up! SCOTUS was trending toward nationalizing gay marriage! NO sound from these famed preachers, publicly!
2. It passed, THEY failed (see #1).
3. NOW... NOW... NOW, SEVEN YEARS LATER they speak up! And AFTER they evilly/sin-fully embraced EVIL, to force unjustly an unjust court number to do their bidding through deceiving and lying in Justice appointment hearings!

And even Pence is TRYING to act like he was NOT just the silent mannequin for 4 years, with #Trumpstink ALL OVER HIM for his complicit silence for 4 whole years, acting in the media like some hero or saint!

4. These pastors FAILED in 2014, SINNED to get SCOTUS politicized, and NOW are mad at GOP legislators who believe precedent matters, millions have relied on Obergefell, and government rules bring stability, predictability, and they have relied on gay marriage to get married, and government's job is NOT forcing divorces.

DO YOU SEE THE LIST OF SINS I'VE JUST DESCRIBED? I fear few do, because so few know the Bible! Marriage was redefined by our government in 2015, folks! Gay people married ever since! It's NOT a handful of GOP legislators who are causing marriage to be redefined!

It is PASTORS who FAILED in 2015 to speak against nationalizing gay marriage (when I specifically told them they MUST, urgently and loudly). Then its' PASTORS who courted the stupidest and most evil politician I've ever witnessed, to sin-fully and Unjustly stack SCOTUS!

Now they're also playing the victim (Trump used us) and trying to blame ~11 GOP's for redefining marriage, when it was THEM who allowed SCOTUS to redefine it in Obergefell (2015)!

Blame others, point fingers, never repent, never speak up against sin, embrace sin (Trump), say you got played, when you played Trump to get what you want, and accuse good GOP's of redefining marriage, mischaracterizing their decisions AS IF they ruled on Obergefell. YOU WONDER WHY AMERICA IS GOING DOWN THE TOILET, folks? It's pastors like this ilk, folks!

Finally, one of them FINALLY had his gonads drop, and told CHUMP just to stay quiet and not speak. NOT ONE WORD from James Robison to condemn or criticize or rebuke ANY of this, after SIX YEARS, folks! See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at AmericanAnswers.org, page 412.

So IF people are merely waiting me out to NOT get funded by Jan 16, and give me NO media coverage for MY ideas God gave me, HOW will God judge us for all these obvious sins?

Remember, God sees ALL! I, personally, WANT, hope and fear for others it could very well be the 7-year Tribulation coming as that judgment. The way I've been treated and misused, I HOPE all who I've described get the BIGgest dose! But vengeance is His!

Update #8: FULL Evangelism (Part II)

Reaching your own mini Jerusalem is ONLY the beginning, but it's a minimum! It's the LEAST we can and must do, to do our global part! Let's address that, further (people HATE judgment messages)...

I know this is unrealistic, ONLY because humans and even saved ones REFUSE to behave morally and obey God on this matter, but IF every church in the world MERELY used their members to evangelize every lost soul within walking distance (1-3 mile radius), the BULK of the Great Commission could be done/completed.

ALL that would remain is assigning the thousands of missionaries we currently pay for to all areas NOT on some universally-shared global map of the pockets fully reached near every local church!

THIS IS NOT ROCKET SCIENCE, but it IS pulling teeth, because people and pastors can and OFTEN do become sinfully self-centered, viewing church as their career and business, so their life's goal is paying their salary and the church's bills. TO HELL WITH EVERYONE ELSE AROUND THEM WHO IS LOST, if they don't come to our services, contrary to their ONLY spiritual nature!

OR, our building can't hold many more people, especially the number you're speaking for our members to reach. THIS IS LITERALLY CHRISTIAN CAPITALISM, folks! Lost souls going to Hell are of NO concern, if they can't benefit me personally, financially or fame-wise!

They are ONLY potential church customers, to me! YES I want and pray and hope they get saved, but I chose to be a pastor—NOT an evangelist. I HAVE LITERALLY HEARD THAT STATEMENT OUT OF PASTORS' MOUTHS! The PASTORal epistle of II Tim. (4:5) TELLS pastors, Tim as a poster child, to DO THE WORK OF AN EVANGELIST!

Eph. 4 says God chose PASTORS (among other gifts) to raise up laymen to do the work of ministry. IF entire local church bodies are NOT reaching all nearby lost people (HINT: I know NONE who have), it's the fault of the elder NOT doing his job successfully! BUT, FAILURE on the priorities, below! I promised a move away from judgment message. It's NOT possible!

Look around, see no other pastor doing it, so you feel OK with your sinful omissions. REPENT! Since we live in Laodicea, MONEY determines success; NOT Josh. 1:8, or God's priorities getting done. So on man's view (the outside), these ilk are "successful." God DISagrees, completely!

The ONLY reason EDDBS priorities are NOT being done to any serious, or even biblical (full) extent is:

1. Man's tradition, OR
2. Sin and ignorance (or open rebellion from money idolatry).

I'm NOT in the judgment business, so I happily await seeing what God does to all these schmucks. But let me educate you on what will merit such judgment!:

Every human goes to Hell if their sins aren't all forgiven.

ONLY Christians have the way for that to occur. They WON'T tell people (i.e., most won't)!

YES, there is evangelism occurring, and YES any expert hater can find a few needles in a haystack to "prove" me wrong that great evangelism efforts are hardly happening, because they will NEVER proffer a global perspective!

1. Did Jesus die for ALL, or just some?
2. Does God want ALL saved, or some?
3. Is the Great Commission to get to all (human) creatures ("creation"), or just some?

THAT IS THE QUESTION, and THAT IS THE ONLY QUESTION. I know pastors, quite well! I used to be one. HERE is how they ""think:"""

1. That's too big a job! It can't be done
2. If we reach representative samples, they can complete the task, and we've done our job
3. I'm a pastor, not an evangelist
4. If God wanted all to hear, He'd have a way to do it (i.e., that didn't involve me). BALDERDASH!

The Lord Jesus Christ does NOT look kindly upon, and WILL judge every Christian who doesn't do their part in literally completing the Great Commission, through thorough evangelism! I Pet. 4:17

Those FOOLS who would try to steal our ideas, for personal political gain, FAIL to remember an Independent third party run is presently anticipated, if neither of the majors fund us! You WILL be publicly exposed, debated, and defeated, folks! God is with US!

Update #9: Judgment (Part II)

WHERE WAS JOHN MACARTHUR'S PUBLIC OUTCRY ON GAY MARRIAGE IN 2015, WHEN I WARNED WELL-KNOWN PASTORS TO DO SO? (next retweet as proof). Obergefell redefined marriage, years ago!

SEVEN YEARS LATE! @johnmacarthur John MacArthur:

(Feb 23, 2015): RAISE UR VOICE so USSC doesn't think national gay marriage is a slam dunk in May+ @davidjeremiah @ZolaLevitt @HLindseyReport @johnmacarthur

Relatedly, IT IS AMAZING that Calvinism EVER evangelizes, and is skitzo on thinking God makes some people saved, YET to get saved, they put a burden on lost people larger than even God does. SO MANY ERRORS in it and Lordship Salvation!

Here is how my son and I spent the day Obergefell was decided, JUST LIKE I took similar signs to four places across Houston, on 9-11! Evangelism is the answer, folks!

(Jun 26, 2015): SORRY U cant read the sign(s) but it tells the Gospel @ Frisco courthouse 2day. Sons sign there too. John 3:16, America!

To the "he used us" LIAR "pastors" (who mutually used CHUMP), there's NO courage to speak NOW, when consensus is GOP's will abandon tRUMP! WHERE WAS YOUR ROLE MODELING OR VOICES WHEN ALL THIS CRAP OCCURRED? Cowards, and NOT those kids should emulate! SPINELESS power idolater political opportunists!

And when WRONG-ON-SALVATION @JohnMacArthur says the Democrats' agenda is "immoral," SO IS government favoring the rich, white older males, and business! Levit. 19:15; I Tim. 6:17-19. Selfishness, greed/love of money and hoarding are sins, too, and a policy of government never helping the poor! The Jews had a safety net. DEBATE ME! I'm not a Democrat!

Update #10: John MacArthur on Homosexuality

It is a form of brainwashing to try to insinuate that the only moral Americans are GOP's, or that Christians have to vote GOP! It is power idolatry, using religion for political ends, folks! IF John were right, Obama, Carter and Clinton would NEVER have been President, because Christians would have some innate majority!

And people LOVE to self-title/label themselves good or moral! I have never seen as IMMoral people and even some pastors, as in the MAGA movement! Self-delusion and deception are evidence satan is involved, folks!

John based these STUPID comments on the "agenda" of the left. Let me assure you he is correct, IF he has proof, and is not just opining, or fear mongering, when he says "they" want to groom a new generation of young homosexuals. I want names, proof, video, audio and numbers of who's doing this, John!

It is EASY to broad brush a small percent and attach it to the whole of the Democrat party, but that's a sin, John! And ONLY to the degree such people do exist, Christians SHOULD fight them! It's NOT the Dem platform.

Drag Queen read-a-longs may be one piece of evidence he could proffer, or curricula that encourages gayness. Fight that all you want! But DON'T lie and falsely mislead that the ONLY two moral issues in U.S. politics are gays and abortion!

And Christians, of all people, SHOULD have welcomed some emphasis on righting the wrongs done to black people, historically! The term "woke" vs. "awake" is a distinction perhaps lacking substance, but caring that American policy has harmed them and American Indians and to some extent, poorer Latinos (slavery and wars as the source) is a GOOD reckoning for America to go through, John!

And MacArthur NEVER addresses the IMMoral majority's emphases of NO thorough evangelism, relational discipling, body life or social ministry, NO public repenting on supporting all the sins [See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at page 412], NO acknowledgement of the IMMorality of greed, lust, love of money, selfishness, hate and hoarding! EQUALLY an immoral value system, as with wanting to kill babies (MORE serious) and have sex with the same sex!

Immorality exists on BOTH sides, @johnmacarthur, and your insinuating it only goes one way is an abuse of your office as pastor with media access! I SUGGEST Dems and the media monitor politicized pastor sermons as open game!

They are "GROOMING" hatred of Democrats, GROOMING divisiveness, and GROOMING deceived followers who hang on their every word, and who can't think critically (or for themselves)!

THIS is a national security matter, just as Ukraine has been! This group REFUSES to acknowledge ANY white supremacists, or condemn them, when in fact it is FEAR among low skilled and low educated whites that detests ANY lifting up of any black Americans, by policy or media attention, for fear THEIR jobs might be at stake!

As to illegal immigration, those fears are legitimate, from too many people wanting too few jobs. IT'S EVIL to cherry-pick the Bible, and only use select proof texts, @johnmacarthur! Your statement, by pure logic, is saying @fhunscripted_is either Unsaved, or is IMMoral, because he is NOT in your ""moral"" majority GOP party. YOU need to repent, gospel requirements errant sir!

Abortion and gay marriage are the ONLY moral issues American politics faces,

1. Because people believe that lie, and
2. Because GOP operatives in Reagan's day decided they were! NOT because it's true, or even Bible-consistent. STOP using God for your secular power golden calf, WASPS!

THIS is what your rhetoric inspires! @johnmacarthur_John MacArthur OWN UP TO THIS FACT, and repent! [Private account:] Breaking: A shooting at an LGBTQ club in Colorado Springs killed five people and injured 18 others overnight. Club Q, where police said the first call came in minutes before midnight, described it as a "hate attack." https://washingtonpost.com/nation/2022/11/20/colorado-springs-lgbtq-clubq-shooting/...

Let's rebut John MacArthur even more, on Romans 1. HE ACTS LIKE MOSEXUALITY it the worst sin, and the only sin that causes God to pass over a nation, or humanity. DOES IT TEACH THAT position? NO! Endure a Sunday sermon with me, won't you? Rom. 1:16-32

INSTEAD of pushing church members to vote GOP, the Apostle Paul is NOT ashamed of the gospel (evangelism), as it's the ONLY power that gets anyone to Heaven! MacArthur doesn't even understand its requirements, and his Calvinism has NO logical role for evangelism! God already chose the elect, and they'll be saved, no matter what, because they're in a finite group He knew from the foundation of the world! But I digress.

I'm commenting verse by verse; READ the text to figure out which verse I'm addressing! God's wrath is revealed against ALL godlessness and wickedness of people who suppress the truth by their wickedness. ALL godlessness isn't just homosexuality, @johnmacarthur! Abortion isn't even mentioned, but many sins are included. And truth deniers are more often MAGAts, John! Sinfully suppressing facts!

In context, it's lost people choosing to deny God's existence, when its reality is proven by conscience and creation.

1. IS EVERY GOP SAVED?
2. IS EVERY DEM LOST?

Then @johnmacarthur is ERRING, again, insinuating the Dems alone are "godless" (a term Second Baptist Houston also used); coordinated talking Points?

These people knew God existed, but gave Him no glory nor thanks, but their thinking became futile and foolish, and their hearts turned dark. They claim to be smart, when they're dumb (sounds more like conspiracy theorists!).

They traded/exchanged the immortal God's glory for images/replicas of humans and animals. These would be modern day products, or idols of man. Materialism. Objects replicating man's abilities, like brain/computer, TV/eyes, radio/ears, etc.!

It can include worshipping brahmas, or vishna "gods," or an obese shirtless bald guy, but it's MORE than that!

They're without excuse, and God gives them over to their sinful and sexual desires. Their bodies degrade, as a result, like STDs, AIDS, monkey pox, etc.! They serve and worship created things (Ex.: products) rather than the Creator. God gives them over to lesbianism and homosexuality ("shameful lusts" and "error").

Further, He gives them over to depraved minds, for ignoring His existence, resulting in their doing what ought not to be done. IS THAT ONLY HOMOSEXUALITY, @johnmacarthur? Hasn't product worship already been addressed, John? YES. And read more:

"They have become filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit and malice. They are gossips, slanderers, God-haters, insolent, arrogant and boastful; they invent ways of doing evil; they disobey their parents; they have no understanding, no fidelity, no love, no mercy."

That does NOT just describe only or even all Democrats @johnmacarthur! MANY MAGATS fit into said description, and NOT all GOP's or Dems, political divider, hate inspirer and Christian manipulator for power idolatry! Repent.

Finally, they KNEW such practices earn one rightful death, yet they continue, and encourage others into said practices.

LET'S LOOK at that sin list more carefully!

Greed. That's a GOP value!

Evil. That's almost every politician in Washington.

Envy. That can be poorer Dems.

Murder (criminals).

Strife. GOP's stir it up as much as Dems (Ex.: Colorado Springs).

Deceit, like PASTORS implying the ONLY godly choice is to vote every GOP candidate and policy!

The list goes on!

Slanderers. Didn't Ed Young call Dems "godless." Fits the bill for slander, @johnmacarthur!

God-haters—MANY GOP's and Dems fit that description, but GOP's go along with WASPs for power! STRANGE bedfellows, like strange flesh of homoseXuality, mentioned in this passage. Unnatural sex, where lubricant is confused with excrement.

Inventing ways to be evil. THIS DOES NOT ONLY ADDRESS GAYS and ABORTION, @johnmacarthur.

YES, male and female homosexuality IS described as one blatant and obvious external manifesting of God giving a people over (vv. 26-27), but you REJECT the full counsel of God, making U.S. politics two issues, morally (gays and abortion). That's UNjust, so "repent," John!

I am NOT saying the context of the Bible's Jn. 16:2 is modern-day America (YET), but just look how pastors demonizing all "immoral" (@johnmacarthur term) LGBTQs CAN cause weaker minds to do what happened in Colorado Springs! Or @winningwalk_"godless" Dems.

DO WE HEAR pastors decry ALL the sins listed in Romans 1? NO! And it's for political advantage! @johnmacarthur @winningwalk

A tweet said it's AMAZING how far right news stories on crime plummeted after the midterms, as if crime is now solved. Same with inflation and some border crisis coverage. #TRUTH!

And JUST to be "perfectly clear" (Nixon), John MacArthur and especially John Piper are two of my favorite pastors! I just disagree with John's several recent statements, and I always reject Calvinism and Lordship Salvation, and will refute them in debates, any time!

I recall in high school, some football teammates wanted buckshot, to go to Montrose, Houston, to shoot gays' legs. This mentality of hating and wanting to hurt gays is part of the machismo unbiblical value system of far right conservatives, In God's blasphemed Name!

Update #11: Conversation with God (Continued & Excerpted)

(11/22/22-2)

DO YOU REALIZE, when you tweeted to ~all U.S. mega pastors that if every church member only evangelized one soul, entire neighborhoods could be reached [Record at @JamesMeroney], they scoffed and laughed at such a suggestion? They KNOW how sin-FULL their crowds are! BUT, if they're DUMB enough to believe the lie that 10 percent is required, the preachers get rich. Earthly treasures laid up in this life! Filthy lucre. Mere mammon. BROKE in Heaven—IF they're going!

Me: WHY can't YOU say these things to this ILK of minister?

You mean audibly?

Me: Yes!

When have I done that?

Me: I don't know, but it's rare .

Look it up! IF I were to speak, loudly, to all creation:

1. What faith would be needed?
2. It would precipitate the Tribulation.

Me: Why?

The moment things get so bad that even My prophets can't break through, there's no other choice! Judgment must commence.

Me: Well, we're at that point, IMO.

You haven't tried everything! DO YOU RECALL II Chron. 7:14?

Me: Yes, and they just want a series of prayer meetings.

True that.

Me: They don't want to DO EDBS!

True that.

Me: They want evangelism crusades, a couple times, then the fame that comes from IGNORAMUSES, who deem that heroic! You don't have one person who sees the Great Commission is urgent, and to a man/woman!

You do.

Me: I'm unknown.

I can change that.

Me: Then do it.

I will, in My timing.

Me: Always slow timing, IMO.

Slow to man; My timing isn't yours! II Pet. 3

Me: Ok, so completely ignore politics, and work?

Yes! You've done all you can. Believe!

Me: Ok. What about your MANY worthless shepherds, who have a form of godliness but will NEVER do your priorities, because churchianity is the business model?

I will judge them!

Me: When?

Soon.

Me: It never happens! Laodicea believes they're successful!

Did I not come to them?

Me: Yes.

I will again, on the outside.

Me: I don't think You see how bad it is down here! Pastors have ZERO intention of holding their people accountable for evangelism and relational discipleship! Maybe one, after decades of my nagging, and not on discipleship, and not actual finding out if they apply his sermons! Decades for one church!

YOU have the privilege of modern technology! You alone (this generation) can hear the greatest preachers, LIVE, anywhere in the world. USE that resource!

Me: Ok.

Learn from the masters. They're NOT getting any younger.

Me: OK. Message received!

Go do your assignment(s).

Me: Ok. [The masters:]

No rest for the weary traveler... Your illegitimate/"bastard" (Heb. 12) children will NEVER do global evangelism, except hodge podge with huge omissions, without a plan for every church's fair share!

Exactly. Write such a plan!

Ok. EVERY church on earth is God-bound responsible to evangelize every lost soul within their church's reach. PERIOD. Pastors allow 90+% of parishoners to NEVER evangelize, because they come and pay! THIS MUST & WILL CHANGE! I will force such a change, as necessary! I can go full-time!

Every Sunday and Wednesday and Saturday eve service could be protested, if funding happened, the rest of my life. But, that's not Gods plan for me.

So what's a plan for fair share evangelism?

1. EVERY church reach their nearby neighbors. The larger the church, the larger the circle around them! And Paul taught the GOOD people do more than their share, to make up for the many BAD ones! I Cor. 15:10 2.

2. ALL the world's missionaries target everywhere else that remains, organizedly! It's STUPID to not coordinate, with so few workers! FOOLS we are!

Do the math on a lifelong proposal...

Let's say you have 30 more years in you (my dad is 93, or so). 52 weeks a year; 52 Sundays to take our Fire Your Pastor sign to mega churches. $52 \times 30 = 1,560$ churches. You could go in person to every church you warned at @jamesmeroney, and work full-time in politics (eventually). A weekend gig, if funded.

[RE: Our visiting churches with a Fire Your Pastor sign:]

Me: YOU KNOW many will spin this as an attack on churches, or crazy, or say they do evangelism!

DO NOT allow that devilish mischaracteriation! NO ONE is doing thorough evangelism by all members of all neighbors, and make that clear that's what you're calling for, with your signage!

Me: Ok.

YOU KNOW the excuses coming! We do evangelism, our sermons disciple, spiritual gifts are used in Bible Fellowship, our church helps society with charity. And are you a pastor? Who are you to tell me how to run my business. NEVER put up with defending churchianity. TURN TABLES!

ASK pastors how many of their members regularly have a quiet time, evangelize, and have been disciplined, or disciple others, have a ministry and do community activities to better society. Force them to give names or percents, and have an eyes closed hand raise in church! They'll wake up!

Me: The great commission is not to be left to pastors. All of us are called to win souls to Christ.

Continuing

IN ACTS, Christians got physically persecuted, because of their evangelism upsetting the status quo. That increased evangelism, world-wide. There's NO chance of that persecution happening in America, as so LITTLE evangelism gets done, and it upsets few things in society! Anathema!

[Sample tweeted warning:]

I am incapable of writing words that put this picture in Christians' minds: Sorrow in Heaven, knowing how many people are burning in Hell, because YOU wouldn't evangelize. Lost rewards, punishment in this life. An ETERNITY lost to so many people you ignored. I WISH I had the words!

PASTOR: Next Sunday, ask your members, heads bowed, eyes closed, and 100% honest before God (tell them not to lie to the Holy Spirit)—how many of you have evangelized your rightful/fair share of lost people in 2022? Say nothing more. Start praying when you see so FEW hands raised!

THESE verses KILL U.S. Christians' claims that they are for God:
Col. 3:1 SET your mind on Heavenly things. Spiritual things. Bible truths.

Me: They do NOT, Sir, predominantly!

Mt. 6:19-21 Do not lay up/store up earthly treasures.

Me: That's ALL we do, Sir! You know it!

Heb. 12:2

Me: Keeping them on Him? They don't even know what it means eyes fixed on anything but money and assets. And the terminology confuses them. How can you see Jesus? II Cor. 5:7 They DO walk by sight! EVERY decision is based on what is seen with human eyes! They can't see Hell's cliff all are falling toward! So it doesn't exist, for them!

They don't see NO human has been to MY front door, in 17 years, to speak to me about Heaven (except cultists), nor (likely) any others of my neighbors!
Pastors don't see that 90% and way more of their members DON'T live this way, or speak the gospel to anyone!

The Bible IS a book of myths, to them. Story time, like Santa Claus. What happened in Acts is SO far removed from how we live!

Lk. 9:23 is a JOKE! NO ONE doesn't live for self. That's the goal! Pamper yourself with security and luxuries. DO YOU SEE THIS, Lord?

I do.

Me: What are You 'gonna do?

Judge.

Me: WHAT pastor EVER preaches on Christian judgment? Few to none; usually only in an eschatology sermon, as an event—no description or details. The Apostasy has occurred, and NO ONE NOTICED!

Exactly true.

Me: Are there NO consequences?

Building up culpability. I Th. 2:16; Rev. 18:5

Me: I go to church; I tithe. I'm good. You're Laodicea! NO quiet times; no discipling; NO Bible knowledge; NO evangelism; NO ministry, NO social change. You have so much time to chase money (violative of Pv. 23:4-5), because you do NOTHING for God! Churchianity! A pastor's "BUSINESS" model.

Keep customers coming and paying residuals. That's the set-up. NEVER any church discipline. NO accountability for anything but attending; maybe giving, by guilt, through Joash Box ceremonies to publicly embarrass people into paying the preacher!

You think I don't see all this?

Me: I don't Sir. Campus Crusade (of old) and The Navigators are almost the ONLY remaining two groups that disciple. NO church has a Body Life part of their services! FEW do significant social ministry; mainly push GOP propaganda and tell parishioners to vote AGAINST government helping anyone—ever!

I see all!

Me: IF zip code 76115 has been fully evangelized, ANY U.S. zip code could be!
MOST mega churches have enough members, that if everyone only evangelized one neighbor, their entire nearby lost community could be fully reached with the gospel!

Me: They won't, Lord!

What are the excuses?

Me: It turns neighbors off. Not our business plan. Or, they've already heard (with NO proof of such claim). They SO STUPIDLY think people in the book of Acts told lost people what church they were members of. That's 100% unrelated to evangelism! It needn't be any barrier to the nearby church's growth opportunities!

Many would rather have them as potential members than assured of Heaven.

Me: Isn't that prioritizing money over God?

Yes. You can't serve both. So they choose money.

Me: That's Jude and II Peter, isn't it?

Yes!

Me: Does anyone else see this?

FEW.

Me: Why?

Bible ignorance, despite sermons

Me: Amazing! Terrible!

Continuing

Are you aware of "Christian" enemies to evangelism, who mock evangelistically zealous believers as witnessing to telephone poles? It's a projection of guilt, trying to slander people they will never be, morally!

I understand the getting yourself up for evangelizing need. I've done a lot, and my share, but every time, I had to mentally get it in gear, to go out there and be focused on that topic raised with strangers. BUT, you have to do it. It's NOT natural for non-salesman types. That doesn't matter!

It is NOT about glory for self, rewards, competition, or holier-than-thou. Unless Hell is a myth, you HAVE to view the Great Commission as literal, urgent and serious. I think many Christians have mental assent to its truthfulness!

I am incapable of creating word pictures. Try this: All humanity falling off a cliff on a slow-moving escalator they never notice, because the slowness is the frog in a boiling pot. THIS is Hell's reality.

I am incapable of creating word pictures. Global evangelism is a Charlotte's web of missed people and over-reached people. It's more disorganized than herding cats! No one knows who gets reached and who is reaching and who gets missed! WHY don't we care about disorganization?

[I believe this is by design, so no one is ever humanly held accountable for all who we never reach, because the ones we need to reach are never identified, nor the ones we reach]

No one and no church wants to think they always have to be engaging evangelism, or they're evil! Actual fair share needs to be defined! God doesn't require us reaching everyone seven times, though that's the number with the largest response. If you care, that's not asking too much!

The BIGgest problem if every U.S. Christian became evangelistic is, to do their fair share, MOST of the people they would have to reach DONT live in America! How to evangelize, outside America, while being in America, that is the BIG challenge! Use technology! Send missionaries money! Go on a short-term EVANGELISM mission trip.

ROE, ROE, ROE

(10/24/19)

81 percent of WASP Christians voted for immorality and ignorance in 2016, to overturn Roe V Wade. Was the gamble worth it? If the reputation of Christianity, Christ and God is something you will abandon, for power idolatry to achieve that end—yes.

If accepting all the negatives that come with full association with political conservatism is worth that one issue POSSIBLY going your way, then yes. If bias and injustice are family values you embrace for our government, in the name of God, then yes.

And let's evaluate what else happens with such a decision—especially if you repeat it in 2020 (as most in that 81 percent will): International disdain of America, for the unpredictable and often crazy/impulsive decisions of consequence, which makes U.S.A. Not great again, but bad, as never before (BANF vs. MAGA).

Not to mention the backlash stacking SCOTUS right-ward has caused among leftist extremists, like AOC! Seeing so-called “pastors” kiss up to the devil, for Christian favors has only engendered political ill-will which will haunt conservatives for years, if not decades.

SCOTUS Justices are the most revered part of our federal government, and WASP activists decided to apostatize on conservatives' hatred of “judicial activism” and engage it, because our belief is not in values, but what's expedient, truth be told.

Let us now evaluate EXACTLY what could happen if Roe were ever overturned—a decision I am neither for nor against, as I let the Court retain its revered independence, in its apolitical judgment, to decide cases according to precedent, and other judicial principles.

Do I personally want Roe overturned? It ALL depends on how this analysis played out in real life!: Some blue states would pass laws allowing third trimester abortions, which would be even more heinous than current state, even killing live babies, if the mother had second thoughts when she saw her child.

Those states would also increase the number aborted, from women traveling from states that banned them for their citizens. And surely some red states would do just that. That legislative decision, alone, means more red state women would be punched in the gut, or dangerously stick coat hangers up they're birth canal, for the cheapest self-help. Illegal black market doctor's offices would also arise, and one has to question the moral credentials of any doctor operating under cloak of darkness.

At least states would have the freedom to decide the issue as the majority of their constituents desired, rather than bowing to a federal mandate.

However, certain issues are of such import, that state law variances cannot be allowed, as conflict of laws are unacceptable to SCOTUS on issues rising to this level. Abortion has been deemed that important. But if a now politicized SCOTUS decided to forsake 42 years of precedent, for some legally justified reason, then states would do anything along the spectrum of banning them all, to anything and everything goes.

SCOTUS would NEED to establish some parameters/boundaries, which all states must follow. Some red states would limit when abortions can occur, probably to near the heartbeat stage; others would ban them entirely. Some blue states would keep Roe intact, in pragmatics, while others would emulate the NYC standard of almost anything goes.

If the Christian's goal is to get as few abortions happening in our beloved country, overturning Roe is not the only avenue. And overturning it causes almost as many problems as it solves.

Again, I am neither for or against it being un-done... it all depends on what replaces it, at the state and national level (national meaning any restrictions SCOTUS might impose on all states, in their crafting of state-based responses).

We all know how heinous killing an innocent is—even extreme liberals who celebrate such moral murder (though they'll deny they do). The only issue is how best to reduce the number of unwanted pregnancies, with the ideal being women only get pregnant when they want to become mothers (though only technology could keep women from being raped, or victims of incest, it seems).

So when we address the difference between a far right political conservative, and a rational/common sense conservative, the difference is not whether life is as valued between the two, but if more draconian sledge hammer tactics are as effective in achieving our shared ends, or whether there are better ways, that prevent exceeding Roe's parameters in some blue states, while offering red states more customizable solutions, to more satisfy their constituents, without endangering women citizen's lives by so doing.

HOW DO YOU LESSEN ABORTIONS?

(11/1/19)

In response to Franklin Graham's post, addressed in the next post, HOW do you convince a society that all abortions are murder, if that's what you believe?

1. Murder before God ISN'T the same as murder in the eyes of human laws! You have to define which of these two you are trying to convince! Non-religious people don't care what any holy book says on the matter!

And if our laws make aborting moms murderers (they WON'T, except maybe in a handful of red states, if Roe overturned; and would they punish rape and incest victims the same as at-will murderers?) that opens a whole new can of worms as to punishment.

2. You have to start by showing or proving a human life exists when an egg is fertilized. SHOW video, pictures and scientific evidence that it's alive, growing, and has human DNA at that point, independent of its moms DNA.

Viability is also a legal hurdle to overcome, as our laws giving standing to one who can't stand, as they can't even be in court is something the Supreme Court (SCOTUS) has never done.

And JUST like national gay marriage, activists spent over 20 years convincing the majority that gays were human equals, and not human scum. They used PSA's, got heroes like Ellen, Navratilova and Elton John accepted as mainstream, for their skills, had gay pride parades, many gays bulked up with weights, to not appear effeminate, activists used U.S. Legal concepts to frame their argument (equal protection, all men created equal, etc.), and youth got indoctrinated in public schools to accept LGBTQ lifestyles.

Musicians sang about Same Love, saying it's not a choice. Activists rightly railed against their opponent's abuses, like hatred, and using conversion therapy. They used logic and reason to say gays were already in long-term relationships, and it was the government, NOT churches, they sought to legitimize those as "marriages."

Gays outed themselves for decades, especially famous ones. AIDS got under control, through drugs. Hatred, equality and unjust discrimination were their main arguments, and they won the day by winning the hearts of the American people's majority, so SCOTUS went along from "changed circumstances," abandoning millennia of precedent.

These efforts succeeded. But they took effort and patience, and good arguments. LGBTQs did NOT chum up to Obama to stack SCOTUS far left, for national gay marriage, or support an evil politician to win their voting support. They took their time and did things right, in their means, not their ends.

HOW CAN abortion haters learn from this? They have THESE challenges to overcome: There are two people involved in the decision—not just one, and the innocent is still born a "sinner"; rape and incest aren't deemed the same as willful pregnancy, by most people; gut punches, coat hangers and black market quack doctors violate a woman's safety... an issue government has a legal interest in; nine months of pain and pay for a moment's lapse in judgment isn't a "punishment"/consequence many people deem fair.

Viability is a legal obstacle, in treating the unborn like birthed citizens, and Roe being precedent for 42 years.

In the public's mind, you have to overcome 'all pregnancies take to term by force' being widely rejected, some thinking a child in the womb isn't human, or becomes human later on (use science for that), and no harm no foul thinking that if the child doesn't feel it, it's not that bad.

The unborn have NO VOICE in this matter! We who have voices have to raise ours, like Franklin Graham said, but we have to do so intelligently, knowing the science, laws, and human psychology—not

For ZERO abortions to ever occur, NO gal can ever be raped or an incest victim, through technology, or a law forces everyone pregnant to take to term (harsh and draconian). The four solutions I espoused must be adopted, culturally if not even legally.

If you're not sure you want to be a mom, use Plan B ASAP! You can always get pregnant again! ALWAYS use effective contraception, though it can fail, so clamor for manufacturers to make perfect and controllable/reversible contraception. And always plan your sex. If there's any chance you're loose enough to spread your legs when you drink or get high or go on dates, take the pill!

Public schools should be teaching these four solutions! Churches should get realistic that ~50 percent of abortions are undergone by claiming Christians, and address these four solutions. PSA's and celebrities should embrace these four solutions! Even any negative side effects of Plan B are better than killing a baby, no matter what stage he/she (there are no fluid genders in the womb!) is in growth!

Males should agree to NEVER have sex with any gal without a condom, as women can lie that they're on the pill. Be smart, plan ahead, end or lessen abortions! DON'T be a dumb or immoral nation!

P.S.: Pastors are STILL free in America to preach that homosexuality is a sin, even though we lost Obergefell. You can even advocate that belief in public, but before God, who you care about with abortion being murder, you can't hate, or hate the sin and hate the "sinner!" DO you strike this right balance? Learn to do so.

WANTING gays to have less job opportunities, because they're gay, isn't advocating for justice (God's value, Mic. 6:8), and IS showing hate, unless their flaming gayness affects business negatively, or violated a religious employer's rules. All else is pure meanness, unbecoming a Christian.

South Carolina governor responds to court decision overturning his executive order on abortion <https://cbsnews.com/news/abortion-laws-in-south-carolina-governor-henry-mcmaster-responds-to-court-overturning-executive-order-on-abortion/...> via @CBSPolitics

P.S.S: If abortion is a matter of every state's majority's view becoming law, the range of 100 percent bans to killing outside the womb will be wide! SCOTUS deemed this issue important enough ('rising to the level') to make a consistent national law. State's rights will have ~chaotic disparities!

Why can't women simply decide if they want to be moms, the day after they have unprotected sex? Don't wait for months! If you made a mistake, beyond being unprotected, take plan B, and be a mom later! #CommonSense Be proactive. Babies change your life!

PLAN PARENTHOOD

(12/24/19)

You can't read God's word and not conclude that life starts at conception, and taking an innocent life is wrong. You also can't read it and believe gut punches (violence), coat hangers (unsafe) and black market quack doctors are right, if you make every abortion criminal.

If every state gets the right to make laws about abortion, many red states will choose total bans, which means internet plan B pill sales, out of state abortion travels, or the three choices I just enumerated.

Some blue states would allow aborting after birth and before the babies are wrapped in swaddling clothes, ending the third trimester prohibition. NO consistent rules, nationwide, means a hodge-podge patchwork of options and prohibitions which will NOT significantly end abortions—just transfer them to the unsafe realm, or costlier travel realm.

MUCH wiser is to educate and motivate safe sex and planned parenting (with technology that aids those two)!

Some couples don't like condoms, or choose to plan well with contraception pills—especially spontaneous sex partners (hook-ups). USE Plan B within three days, even if you didn't get fertilized! NO human is begun before the egg gets penetrated!

Males can't know if females are lying that they're on birth control, so it's ultimately up to condom use, or women own their child killing, if they decline Plan B within three days! Why should you care that a baby has been begun in your womb, so as to spare/preserve its life? Why not just vote for the convenience of discarding it anytime you want/feel like it, because you have choice, and it's in your body?

Because it's your own flesh and blood child, momma. You made that! And even if you don't believe in God, you can trust science, that once the egg is penetrated, something starts to grow—a something that without interruption becomes your living baby which you hold.

People like sex. Today's generation doesn't feel the need to be married before they engage it, even as many others didn't in the past, but they adopted out, and hid the girl from school mates learning of her pregnancy (shame at teen pregnancy).

Since the sex, drugs and rock and roll 60s, the sexual revolution has freed folks from most scruples concerning sex. Be they right or wrong, it's a fact. So those so engaged (in conduct vs. pre-marital status) NEED to make smart decisions!

IS IT MORALLY WRONG for someone other than yourself to encourage you to make good decisions? Isn't that the love your parents showed you, wanted or invited, or not? You do NOT have to get pregnant, just because you may be promiscuous/loose/horny/sexualized! Wouldn't it make even more sense to avoid the cost, hassle and dangers of a medical procedure (abortion) to PLAN AHEAD?

You'd never take a vacation, and set out on a trip without a destination and a road map. If you're willing to spread your legs, have hook-ups, be a friend with benefits, or date someone you're willing to have sex with, YOU KNOW that could lead to a child being involved, against their will!

You can't be so stupid that you don't know these things! If you are, you should be in a state facility, as your IQ makes you non-functioning in the outside (real) world! And if your religion is telling you that birth control is evil/a sin, that's teaching that to be prepared, responsible, to plan and to think ahead is sinning. That's irrational!

Statistics say about half of all U.S. Abortions are by CHRISTIANS! So when religious people tell you they want to force your outcomes, not only are half of their daughters hypocrites (a sin), they're NOT doing the educating and motivating they SHOULD be, to ensure no unwanted pregnancies occur in the first place!

You should know before you take off your panties/undies, that you choose and want to become a mother to a child, that night—period! If you aren't sure, DON'T have unsafe sex! You can plan it when you're sure!

If you surely don't want to be a mom that night, take birth control, and NEVER believe you can hook a man by lying about it! You'll mainly tick them off, if they didn't intend to be a dad that eve, and you lose them anyway, or invite into your life pressure to abort, in some cases. You made that!

Perfect birth control is the way to go, as condoms can break, some don't like the feel, some forget them in the heat of passion or spur of the moment, and you females are the ones who alone bear the resulting burden! THINK!

You can argue that a fetus doesn't become a human until later (breathes or heart beats), but we all know (and science confirms) once the tadpoles enter the huevos/egg, SOMETHING begins to grow, or be alive. That something NEVER receives outside stimulus to make it anything different from what it ends up at the end of the process! You could stick a video camera in the birth canal, time-lapsed, and NEVER see 'life' enter the growing tissue, for it was already resident in those initially-splitting cells!

This ISN'T religion—it's scientific fact! The Bible only confirms what science teaches on the matter! (Jer. 1:5; Ps. 139:14; Lk. 1:41; Job 31:15; Ps. 22:10)

It's NOT because the Bible says life begins at conception, but because science confirms that it does. And we all know, instinctively, that killing a child is wrong. The Bible simply confirms that—the 10 commandments (Ex. 20:13). Plan ahead, by using your head, or be a fool.

Update

(12/28/19)

To those who dislike, hate or detest abortion (call them pro-life or anti-abortion, I don't care the label), among whom I fit, with caveats, you have to know our society likes sex, will have sex, and no laws passed will stop that urge/tendency.

And people like easy sex, meaning natural, un-thought-out, even quick, compared to condom applying, rhythm method (timing by a calendar, vs. whenever they choose/like/want), pulling out, not finalizing, or any other barriers to just getting it on, and doing the Nike slogan!

And we're NOT 'gonna stop fornication. The issue is ensuring that trend doesn't start an unwanted baby! Fail-proof female contraception is the best answer, but I guess some women are unprepared? I just read this headline, to answer my own question about preventing fertilization, and Plan B is the only way after seeds been sown: <https://kidshealth.org/en/teens/contraception-douche.html>

I also found this:

How to avoid pregnancy: 15 ways

A person can choose from a wide range of methods to avoid pregnancy. Non-hormonal methods include condoms and natural family planning, where a person tracks their cycle of fertility. Hormonal methods... medicalnewstoday.com
<https://medicalnewstoday.com/articles/321558.php>

You do not and should not let natural sex with no precautionary limits to just getting at it because you two have to consider killing another human! WELL before you'd ever consider sex, READ up on prevention, especially if your religion says contraception is irresponsible or a sin—it's not.

No one wants to interrupt the excitement with talk or worries of what am I 'gonna do now/next, before the act, in the heat of passion. That decision has to be made well before! And for people to want laws to say you get no choice afterwards, if you screw up, is absurd to many people—maybe a majority! Plan B within three days kills NO baby!

Update #1: Pastors Reconciling Over Roe & 'Po'?

Let's envision how U.S. Christian political reconciliation could go—it's mainly overturn Roe and help the poor. Redefine that as lessen abortions and give better lives to the downtrodden. Any REAL Christian can agree to those two aims, among many others you could address later.

Favoring one political party by stacking SCOTUS is an UNjust solution for the former, and any REAL Christian can agree justice has to be the solution to every problem. And every real Christian can agree that if a man won't work, he can't eat, so you give nothing to lazy people, and it's immoral theft to force tax payers to help the poor.

You educate and motivate and mentor all poor—even by government program—to self-sufficiency.

I've already detailed at least three ways to lessen abortions. Pastors from both sides of the aisle simply need to meet, and advocate for these solutions. They will not, as power vs. morals and solutions is their aim, for one side at least, to force abortion views onto America, black pastors be danged.

I know this is true, as I know the core members, and know for a fact that Freddie Haynes has been rebuffed by arrogant Jeffress. I've met with Fred, in his office, and he wrote a rebuffed open letter. NO reconciliation is sought by Bob!

Update #2: Amicus Brief of Roe vs. Wade

39 Republican senators sign amicus brief asking SCOTUS to consider overturning Roe v. Wade and Casey.

'Unworkable' is about the stupidest SCOTUS argument any NON-lawyer has ever devised!

You have to argue legal fault with the law of Roe v Wade. It has worked for 43 years, so to argue NOW that it's unworkable is laughable on its face, legally. A MORON's argument!

DON'T tell me evangelical council members didn't unjustly engage judicial activism trying to make SCOTUS a political institution, so their claimed objective justices would rule based on personal preferences vs. the law! Roe v Wade national standards are needed even if Roe ended!

"If appropriate" is the ONLY saving grace in this brief. Even that language is STUPID! If you find changed circumstances, or illegalities, overturn, if and when you devise another national standard (vs. willy-nilly chaos) would've been better!

GOP's are SO scared to bow to WASP voters, who have NO IDEA what will happen if Roe v Wade is overturned. STUPIDITY is NOT a strategy! Every state would have their own laws, from total bans to killing once birthed. I'm ashamed politicians are such bad lawyers. #Embarrassing Forfeit your law licenses!

You argue LEGAL arguments if you want Roe v Wade overturned! And you suggest alternative, better laws to replace it, as its importance is such that national standards are needed. You can't allow back alley, black market and gut punches or late term and after birth abortions!

I am seriously doubting my being a true Republican at heart, with the idiocy of the Roe v Wade amicus brief, today! These politicians are merely bowing to pastors who have ZERO knowledge of the law. They're practicing law without a license, and lobbying, unregistered! I disavow such foolishness!

The ONLY 'viable' replacement for Roe would be a ban on later term and after birth abortions in all states, and allowing NO state to ban abortions in cases of rape, incest and the mother's life. Absent that change, it's FOOLISH to overturn Roe v Wade.

Here's EXACTLY what will happen absent that: Out of state/country abortions (unequal expense burden), gut punches against pregnant women, back alley, unsafe coat hanger abortions, or quack, illegal black market doctors in states that ban them! NO government can Constitutionally allow that; it's a public safety matter! The GOP did NOT think today!

IF you weigh today's GOP amicus brief, you also better consider my past eight tweets, as emotion, and desire are NOT legal arguments, and there are complexities of law and reality you must address if you choose to overturn Roe v Wade—NOT politics! @USSupremeCourt Please do your appointed jobs!

The timing of the GOP brief is because they fear CHUMP will NOT be re-elected, and a Dem would nominate a liberal to SCOTUS, ending their small window for overturning Roe v Wade through judicial activism they USED to scold liberals for doing!

If I had been a GOP Congressman, I would NOT have signed that brief, as it is legally amateurish! I'd write my own, which I'm thinking of doing, the skeletal outline I will post soon. Conservatives USED to argue the silliness of 'appropriate,' vs. moral, used in public schools—now it's their argument!

SINCE @USSupremeCourt friend of the court briefs take time and specificity of process for citizens to have them approved, I hope you will forward the following law summary to the respected Justices, NOT that they don't know them, but the GOP politicians apparently don't (See image, below)! Thanks. Roe v Wade

If you are stupid, you might think I'm pro-abortion. I am not. I am for reasonable laws that work, and are moral and fair.

FEEL FREE to use this language, verbatim, to file an amicus brief to counter the amateur one the Republicans filed to SCOTUS, today! Appropriateness and workability are childish arguments! Legality and logic severely lacked in theirs. @DNC @TheDemocrats @SenateDems @NBC @CNN @ABC @CBS

Roe v Wade Overturn Considerations

Roe has long been the law of the land's precedent, for over 43 years. Even some on the Supreme Court call it 'super precedent.' It was an attempt at balance between the extremes of anything or nothing goes, which extremes took no consideration of the interests of the mother or innocent, respectively. A superseding, compelling reason would be needed! Politics and personal bias have no place in such consideration—judges are to be objective, and interpret the law, based on legal principles, such as changed circumstances, unconstitutionality, fundamental fairness, equal protection. Factually, such changes as public opinion, scientific discoveries regarding fetal heart beats, or pain from the procedure could be considerations. The undue burden to blue state females, or poor people, would also need considering. As the case would be remanded to state courts, SCOTUS would still have to prescribe national standards to prevent any state from late term or after birth abortions, or unsafe public health risks such as self-help abortions from gut punches, coat hangers or illegal quack doctors, as well as outlaw any state prohibiting the three exceptions of rape, incest and the life of the mother. If SCOTUS is to retain its honored and revered status as an independent branch of the U.S. government, political opportunism and judicial activism through court stacking can never be part of their legal consideration, or may 'We the people' forever hold you in ill repute, as a result!

On behalf of we citizens who want many less U.S. Abortions, legally and fairly, please disregard the foolish representation of our view being painted as Roe v Wade being "unworkable" (having worked for 43 years) and overturned "if appropriate," vs. if legally flawed! @USSupremeCourt My hand is raised!

I hope people know this Roe v Wade SCOTUS brief is a political attempt to tell Christians the GOP is God's party, when it is not, and national total bans are truly NOT 'workable.' It's a stunt to signal WASPs to vote GOP! I fear most people miss this. DON'T be naive!

The ONLY good thing about the GOP Roe v Wade brief is politicians are finally leaving the decision where it always should have been—with SCOTUS! If anyone has legal grounds for its overturn, I'm ALL for hearing them be argued! Chummy-with-Chump pastors aren't legislators, or elected! Duh 101.

The GOP amicus brief could be deemed a Constitutional violation of separation of powers! The correct way for Congress to go before SCOTUS is by passing laws that get challenged with appeals, or citizen litigants appeal their way up to SCOTUS! Congress corrects bad SCOTUS decisions!

I have NEVER been opposed to overturning Roe, if a sufficient substitute is in place, nationally, and if it has legal reasons that justify that overturn. People who are IDIOTS about the law have opinions that are irrational, and only based in emotion. Judges disregard such foolishness!

NOW you see the FORMER party of morals and religion LIES (sin-to-win), claiming Kavanaugh would be objective, restrictions were for women's health (doctor hospital access, defund Planned Parenthood (PP), hassle PP workers to quit, shut down PP units, etc.). PASTORS lying; God help us all!!

Interjecting Conversation with Rebuttals

NO one with a conscience says it's good the unborn get killed! I have argued for Plan B within 3 days, education, motivation (financial incentives) and perfect contraception. Plus, two people are in the decision—not just baby or mom. The first three months are the least evil.

If U.S. Pastors do NOT stop catering to and empowering stupidity, by trying to think for their parishioners, instead of teaching them to be Berean, and obey II Tim. 2:15, we Christians DESERVE the stereotype of checking our brains at the door, and HATING God with our minds, OPPOSITE Lk. 10:27.

So, a woman gets raped, is the victim of incest, or a mom's life is in jeopardy, and she MUST take to term, or be jailed or severely fined? Same with one whose condom broke or contraception failed. Punish the innocent. IF you take Plan B before three days, NO child is killed.

Those who want total abortion bans CAN'T think—period! They CAN'T comprehend that women will have boyfriends punch their growing stomach, stick coat hangers where Trump likes to grab strangers, or use black market doctors. IS THIS REALLY ROCKET SCIENCE? Am I the only one who can extrapolate?

Continuing

The GOP would much better spend their time, state-by-state passing these laws: Required education on abortion procedure for women seeking one; public broadcasting of an abortion on prime time; requiring sonograms; limiting abortions to the first three months.

And penalties for NOT using condoms or birth control. I am NOT stating whether I agree with all those, but since they freely choose NOT to use my three solutions, at least these laws passed could LESSEN abortion numbers! Overturning Roe would technically NOT allow SCOTUS to make a substitute law—yet.

(I Cor. 1-4; I Jn. 2:27) Pastor worship is a sin (idolatry), and NO Christian NEEDS a pastor to understand God's word! It can help, and usually will, as most of them went to seminary, and study it more, but Christians don't have human gurus, and it's a sin to check your brain at the door (Lk. 10:27).

Update #3: Abortion is Murder, to Whom?

For the umpteenth time, let's address the abortion is murder crowd: Biblically, that's 100 percent TRUE, from inception forward. In reality, scientifically, its 100 percent true—a baby has already begun! But legally, SCOTUS has never given citizenship status to the unborn, and they have to weigh BOTH parties' interests.

Babies are innocent, though still born sinners, but so are rape and incest victims. There is NO proof a baby will go to term and be birthed, so SCOTUS doesn't assume they will. 'Viability' is the term they used in 1977, to decide when you can't kill it... when it could survive on its own.

At that point, two people's legal rights are involved, because the baby isn't dependent on the mom. You can argue that's an arbitrary cut-off point, but they had to balance between extremes of abort like a sport and ban them all, even if the condom or contraception broke, or one was raped, there was incest, or the mom's life was endangered!

Religion will ALWAYS view this LEGAL decision to be wrong, but we don't live in a theocracy, and SCOTUS used much greater wisdom than merely being theocrats, to balance interests. PASTORS have tolerated it for 42 years, but NOW that they've illegally lobbied to engage judicial activism and court stacking (hypocritically—a sin—doing what they railed against libs doing) they care!

Obergefell is next, a few decades from now. They are NOT courageous (a virtue), or honest to tell you their intentions, but they want total bans in many red states! BUT, they do NOT choose to THINK about the consequences or legal issues! They just grab their Bibles and demand a theocracy! Gut punches, bleed outs from coat hangers and quack doctors will be on their hands!

You do NOT have to be "for" abortion to find solutions, foolish people who can't think! Plan B within three days kills NO ONE. Perfect contraception that can't fail is another solution. Education and incentivizing women to NOT abort is another solution those pastors will NEVER pay for out of pocket!

I've even added four more laws that could be passed in states, today, to lessen abortions. IF total bans occurred in red states, some pregnant women would just travel to Mexico, or a blue state. That brings up unequal protection undue burden (financially) legal issues, as does gut punches/coat hangers/quack doctors raise public health and safety concerns. These REAL concerns DON'T concern cultish, blinders-on pastors!

That's because it's EMOTION, NOT thinking, that leads their positions, as with GOP idolatry worship, knowing that since the Moral majority days, they have dumbed-down sheep parishioners to believe total abortion bans are the answer to a heinous evil. Stupidity for Jesus—NO contradiction there?

Finally, their knee jerk reaction to these TRUTHs is to claim people with my ideas are 'pro-abortion.' Unless you 100 percent agree with their failed ideas of total bans, you WANT abortions, and are fighting against God. This is cult-think! It's NOT God-honoring, though its intentions are holy. Think and be moral! (Rom. 10:2)

Update #4: Abortion Activists' Logical Conclusion

Let's take this to its logical, unreasonable conclusion. If the Bible (my favorite book, provably by my writings, Unlike Chump's claim/lie) is how lawmakers are to rule, like Iran uses their holy book to pass laws, cussing should be a misdemeanor, and adultery maybe a crime, and lying (all of D.C. Would be in jail), fornication (most Millennials would be fined), greed would get you in trouble, as with selfishness, hate, idolatry, and THOUSANDS of other new laws, including gays being against the law. America is NOT a theocracy, pastors denying being theocrats notwithstanding.

U.S. Laws have traditionally been founded on Judeo-Christian principles, but NOT specific Bible verses, per se! It traces back to Blacks law manual and English common law, and has developed/evolved, involving public will/sentiment, precedent, logic and common sense morals/natural law—NOT the Bible alone!

MANY Americans are sound bite stupid, and A.D.D. Short-term memory thinkers, based on two minute TV commercials between show breaks, who REFUSE to think through public policy if it's not neatly wrapped into a catchy slogan! GOD HELP US!!! Idiocy reigns!

We mock 'cave men' grunting 'ugh,' and native American Indians saying 'how' (palm to your face), but we can't see 'abortion murder' is simpleton "thinking." The motive and intent is 100 percent pure and holy, but you can't be a good, dumb person—God requires BOTH holiness and intelligence of His people! Duh 101

YES, it's a sin when you end the life of a baby, as soon as the egg gets penetrated. But U.S. Laws don't criminalize every sin, and there's a legal and medical difference between an egg splitting into four, and a fetus with a heartbeat. That's where red states should focus their laws, and the baby's felt pain!

Would a state-wide ban on all abortions cause some women to take to term? Yes, which would be great for the babies saved! But it wouldn't help all babies, and those who forewent the procedure would have pre-adoption costs some can't afford, as ~39 percent are from the three percent poor, black women, a statistic showed.

You can't argue that a pregnant woman who wants the right to kill her child in the last month is equally as evil as one who uses Plan B before the baby feels its demise. Both are evil, but there are degrees. Same with rape and incest victims, vs. women who use abortion to not plan sex, or use contraception!

Kindergartner lesson: If Roe were repealed, every state would resort to the law on the books in 1977, until their legislature changed it. Some would have total bans. THAT MEANS all of the following:

If you are raped, you will birth a child that looks like your attacker, and even if you adopt Out, and never look at it or its face, you get nine months of regular remembering of your victimization, by force of law. Same with incest victims. And if a mom faces a do-or-die decision on who lives, even if the child might be in a vegetative state inside her, from brain damage, shed have to choose medical suicide.

And for those whose contraception breaks or fails, their moment of passion would be forced into a nine-month period, if the woman didn't use Plan B within three days. Just "punishment?"

And for all women in those states who refused to accept these restrictions to their lives and choices, hubby or boyfriend gut punches would be sought, if travel costs were high to a legal state, which could cause internal damage, besides killing the baby, possibly not instantly. Same risk for coat hangers and quack doctors, in health risks, to secretly violate the law. Or they could just travel, and abort in a blue state...

EITHER way, a baby is NOT saved by the ban law! Some would be, for women not willing to travel, or break their own state law. And proof of all these cases is virtually impossible, between innocent vs. guilty motives. Promiscuous women could just say the guy's condom broke!

The ONLY way to guarantee zero abortions is forced, perfect contraception for all who will have sex, or forced Plan B before three days after insemination! HOW would you enforce those laws, given privacy laws in the privacy of a man's home, his castle? I'm ALL for zero abortions, if you find a way.

You could incentivize women to go to term, and adopt out, but WHO's 'gonna pay women who are on the fence about whether to abort? The people clamoring for abortion bans? NO—they usually just get political, and vote for the party not known for wanting even more taxes, to pay such incentives! We 'gotta THINK, people!

I'm NOT making this up... a black lady at my family's church said if a white gal got pregnant by an unemployed, school drop-out, dreads-wearing, pants-sagging black male, many of them would abort. And statistics say about half of abortions are by Christians, so we can't be hypocrites by deeds vs. votes, yet we often are!

IF Democrats decided to be 100 percent pro-life, anti-abortion, do you seriously believe many WASPs would vote Democrat, when keeping their sacred cow dollars in their pockets would still be at risk? Just sayin'!

WHEN does it become a human? Day one!

Update #5: How Roe Could Be Improved

HOW could Roe B improved, since I provoked the pastor who started all this mess, mocking his generation letting it pass, unopposed? The national standard I detailed earlier, and SCOTUS decides if the three exceptions are Constitutional (rape, incest and mom's life); then, SCOTUS decides if individual states can ban all other abortions, within what time-frame, how it gets enforced, and whether forced sonograms and required doctor hospital privileges are legal, as with cutting federal funding of Planned Parenthood (PP), informed consent of parents or the male sperm donor, and harassing PP employees out of business!

That's fixing it, as with setting consistent punishments, if they're deemed legal, addressing the heartbeat deadline (vs. later viability), and the inhumane (cruel and unusual punishment) of the procedure, especially if they give citizenship rights to the unborn.

THAT is Roe improved; NOT today's clamorings, and addressing if liberal/blue states can late term and after birth abort, and answering if 'undue burden' applies to forcing women to travel out of state, when red state women don't incur such costs, and blue state travel distances can be disparate. Activists DON'T want this type detail—just voter hype!

Ideal state would be society—parents, schools, etc.—teaches all U.S. Citizens to value life, and not kill fetuses or birthed people. If people feared and thought of consequences of unplanned sex, more, they'd avoid having to get into this mess of considering killing an innocent human, from your bad choices.

Update #6: March for Life or Death?

(1/25/20)

Since last week was Roe's anniversary, and March For Life, let's go over some rational views on the subject! Could I ever attend a parade or rally for women's choice? No. March for life? Maybe not, though I'm for it, because the RIGHT answer is not marches, but right policies passed! Here they are:

If Roe is overturned, SCOTUS would need to still have national laws on boundaries to anything goes (though judges DON'T make laws). Congress would have to make it, and in today's polarized environment, that couldn't happen. So every state's laws on abortion would revert to 1977 status!

The extremes of third trimester/late term and after birth abortions (NY+) would be advocated by NEW state laws, as would 100 percent bans, even for rape, incest and a mother's life! If contraception or condoms failed, state laws would force a woman to term!

Some might even outlaw contraception, if they had a large Catholic population. Many Christians even say Plan B is evil, or always severely hurts women, in effect saying all sex must lead to birth, so have none, or pray contraception works perfectly! These are BOTH extreme positions, folks!

It's NOT wrong to say that because life begins at conception, everything thereafter is killing a child! Extremists label it murder, but the intent is NOT the same as murder, so that foolish argument fails. It IS killing a human, before God!

But before man and his laws, should red states be allowed to say that unsafe sex that may cause conception can't legally occur? HOW would you enforce that? Government officials break into a home and catch folk in bed?

And to argue that ALL sex MUST, by force of law, lead to childbirth is insane! Condoms and birth control have failed before! Purists will say the couple was innocent, but the conceived child is more innocent, so it can't be terminated/discarded, even before the egg gets penetrated, using plan B, or before a heartbeat, or it feels the pain of that nasty procedure. IS THIS RATIONAL LAW?

It's moral, before God, on a personal basis, but is it sound public policy? Must ALL sex be abstained from, unless a couple wants to be parents? And where's that same indignant outcry on gay sex? Why aren't these same purists demanding zero consensual sex, even behind closed doors, in the privacy of one's own home, among homosexuals?

If God says that act is an abomination, why aren't these purists trying to pass laws to ban all gay sex? Moral outrage inconsistency, and due to POLITICS, and public opinion!

IF red states ban all abortions, rape and incest victims would have to incur travel bills to blue states, for the evil procedure, or risk gut punches, coat hangers or illegal doctors!

IS THAT SOUND PUBLIC POLICY, given the health (and, case law inferred safety) and general welfare clauses of the U.S. Constitution! NO!

HOW can doctors be forced to be prosecutors and detectives, to determine if a pregnant woman meets the legal requirements to have an abortion? Can they be called on to distinguish between rape and consent, incest and consent? Is that what medical school will now have to offer courses in?

WHEN exactly does it become evil to abort a conceived child? The moment of conception! Is it MORE evil to kill it as it grows? YES! Is it evil at all to prevent it being conceived? NO—it's intelligent and responsible!

Is it evil to use Plan B before three days, to avert conception? NO! Is it medically dangerous? Science, not religious activists, can answer that, but it's no less dangerous than the procedure itself, and it doesn't kill a human, like the procedure does!

So back to my original question: Which march would I attend? I'd likely start a third lane protest march of both extremes, promoting smart solutions to lessening abortions, like planning, perfect contraception technology, Plan B before three days, education, and not letting a child feel the pain of your sinful decision!

Update #7: Lessen Abortions, America!

I'd love Roe to be overturned, if better national laws replaced it. That's NOT how law overturns occur! They revert to the laws on the books before the overturned decision. That's why Roe's overturn is problematic!

LESSENING abortions IS the aim! You can't 100 percent prevent them, even by bans! You can even cause them to be banned in your state, to make you FEEL your state honors God more than other states, but don't then claim you voted to end abortion, as you just endangered women (gut punch, coat hanger, quack docs), and had them travel elsewhere!

To lessen them, you incentivize going to term, while NOT making it a get pregnant to get cash/rich scheme! You educate people on birth control, and (usually) futilely educate on abstinence. Deal with the real! People are 'gonna have sex that causes conception!

Does that mean I'm for abortion? NO! I'm for public policy that deals with reality! Perfect technology would turn on and off a woman's ability to get pregnant, when she chose/wanted to! NO man with any IQ can trust every woman who says they're on the pill!

Condoms are always wise, even if they say that. But they can break. They should be manufactured to NEVER break, but that likely would make them too uncomfortable/thick, and many people don't like using them.

Couples are 'gonna 'wanna be natural, or are 'gonna get caught up in the heat of passion! Sex, especially among the unmarried, is NOT a mortgage decision you plan out, save up for, and use a calculator to prepare for! It's spontaneous, instinctive, emotional! Laws have to deal with that reality!

Adoption is an amazing option, but not all, and perhaps few women want to endure nine months of morning sickness, doctor visits, pain and inconvenience for a moment's lapse in judgment or planning! Plan B, made even safer, within three days, kills NOTHING! Condoms kill no baby, as with the pill. Having sex when a woman's NOT ovulating kills no innocent!

Why wouldn't one take Plan B within three days, unless they wanted to be a mom? It's as cheap as $10 (My Choice Emergency, at Wal-Mart)! To argue primarily MEN are forcing laws on women, or it's 'my body my choice' is to skew the truth! Male politicians are making laws about your baby, and it's NOT your body—it's a separate human being trying to be human, vs. killed! Irrational arguments!

LESSEN the number of abortions, America! Use protection! If you're at all willing to consider sex with strangers, or on a date, take precautions! Plan ahead. Males can't trust women saying they're on the pill, and women can't trust that condoms can't break! BOTH sides do your part. Babies aren't given a choice!

So next time there's a March For Life and for choice, why don't we start a march inbetween those two streets, to be for common sense and solutions, and to advocate for policies and products and planning that actually lessens abortions, and that advocates for rational laws that avoid extremes, as TWO people are involved in the decision to abort— NOT just an innocent (conservatism), and not just a woman (liberals).

Anyone with any lick of sense knows that decision is NOT one-sided! Avoid the extremes of red and blue states, were Roe to ever be overturned! 100 percent bans merely force bad solutions, and 100 percent aborting leads to third trimester and after birth abortions!

Bans may dissuade some women, and that's EXCELLENT! But they also lead others to self-harm, or aborting in blue states. Nothing goes or anything goes extremes are BOTH bad!

END ABORTION?

(2/5/20)

There are MANY good things about political conservatism! Pro-business, pro law and order, pro religion, pro-life, pro a strong economy and strong national defense, lower taxes, smaller government, and pro fiscal responsibility.

BUT there are also many sins and evils, cult members who want to hear no truth try to hide. Here are some:

Telling church teenagers we are 'gonna end all abortions (the sin of lying). Hypocritically (also a sin) abandoning saying that liberals engage judicial activism, then stacking SCOTUS conservative, to overturn Roe. Keep a count—that's two sins, so far! Slandering someone (a sin) having truth and morals, for opposing them.

Supporting the closest thing to Hitler, for power idolatry (sin #4). Belief in win-at-all-costs (no moral bounds, which is idolatry, once again). And on policy, the delusional belief that lower taxes help the poor, even as they want Welfare ended, so one can take a minimum wage job.

I've detailed many others, in a chapter called Caustic Conservatism. I won't reinvent the wheel! Now, onto ChumPastors: To end Roe, NOTHING is off limits for Jack Graham, Robert Jeffress, James Robison, Franklin Graham and James Dobson! NOTHING! Lying, idolatry, hatred—NOTHING!

Let's see where that gets them: RUIN Christianity's reputation in America, so lost people have even more reason to choose to stay Hell-bound! And sacrifice your entire careers' reputation for truth and morality, to support all that's at our chapter, Apostasy For Power Idolatry, all from a sin-full action!

And WILL abortions end, or be lessened a lot, by their souls being sold to satan?

1. Abortions will NOT end (See my coming chapter called "End abortion").
2. Will abortions lessen? Maybe, if anyone is scared to take Plan B, or any red state outlaws its sale, even on the web. Otherwise, absolutely not at all! So these fake "leaders" sacrificed ALL for an empty pipe dream!

Judas at least got 30 pieces of silver, @jackngraham, for selling his soul to satan, for a non-achievement! Overturning Roe cannot prevent any American from taking plan B in her home! AMAZING delusion, to support all tRUMP's sins, from the power idolatry sin! Prophecy's spirit of delusion!

Update #1

End abortion... My wife—who still attends that man's church—even laughed at the concept. If you dangle an impossible aim, dumb people will believe and vote for it forever. But you are LYING from God's pulpit, "sir."

[Note: I rejected your third meeting phone call, "arrogant" control freak! Be a Bisagno. Good luck with your boy crush, the prototype Antichrist! Fear judgment day! It's coming sooner than later, given both of our ages. Fear God and repent, and be sincerely changed. In short, for once, BE A BISAGNO! I'm NOT expecting it, sadly].

END abortion. The death penalty for any who abort wouldn't even end them all! No one knows what goes on behind closed doors, OUNCE (his nick name)! Government CAN'T break and enter without a warrant. Are cops 'gonna suspect a woman got impregnated, so as to have probable cause to get such a warrant? You're foolish, sadly!

If Prestonwood Baptist Church is anything like all other church memberships, approximately 50 percent of abortions in Collin County, TX are from Christian women! Let's hear a sermon on that FACT, and NOT around election time, @jackngraham @prestonwood (maybe they'll call me again?) Whoopee!

END abortion. Physically prevent all sex that is not safe. Even YUGE fines of those whose condoms or contraception breaks wouldn't end them, but would just fine them! Are the feds going to police bedrooms? WHO ON EARTH knows ANY woman got impregnated last evening, but her 'significant other?' Idiocy.

END abortion. Stack SCOTUS with MORE conservative justices, so Roe gets overturned, then they all go away, right? The DELUSIONAL thinking of a CHILD! (I Cor. 14:20) Blue states are NOT 'gonna close all abortion clinics! They had them when Roe was passed, and the law reverts to 1977, upon reverse and remand, dodo.

Texas may end abortion CLINICS, but NOT abortion, dodo (Ounce is now 'dodo,' as my nick name for him). It's too fitting!

End abortion. EVERY time anyone in America has sex, the woman will, by force of law, take to term? People violate laws all the time, dodo! You can't end murders, dodo! School shootings, as well.

End abortion. NO WONDER you spoke such a concept to TEENAGERS! Impressionable young minds full of mush (a Limbaughism) you are to be LEADING in truth and morality, yet you LIE to them, for political gain. THAT IS EVIL, dodo! I'll take any label you want to throw at me, dodo. I tell the TRUTH. Trump lies full-time.

End abortion. ANY time a sperm heads toward an egg, whatever comes next must follow the laws of nature! Even Catholics oppose contraception, and some Christians say spilling the seed is a sin. You just want sex for family building/procreation, and you want laws to enforce that, Jack/dodo!

Interjection: And with this group's distractive complaint of the Super Bowl halftime dancing, it seems all you think or care about is sex!

You can't think, because thinking is NOT the aim, but GOP votes at all costs. Sports competitiveness taught you lessons the great Lombardi did NOT agree with, like win-at-all-costs.

End abortion. No sex unless you choose to be a parent, by force of law. You can't enforce that pipe dream law, jack Gram/Ounce... impossible.

End abortion. Texas will surely shut down every Planned Parenthood death factory. DOES THAT END ABORTIONS IN TEXAS, Jack Graham? U.S. Women are USED to the medical option, since the old days when you were letting Roe get on the books! They will NOT just take to term!

They will travel to a blue state, or take a Plan B pill ($18 box at Wal-Mart) at home. YOU deceive and delude teenagers, for political gain, and THAT IS EVIL, @JackNGraham. Repent!

End abortion. NO impregnated egg ever ceases to grow into fruition, by law. HOW CAN ANY HUMAN OR GOVERNMENT ensure that result? Yet, impressionable teenagers are told this LIE by a claiming Christian pastor! My twins will be told the TRUTH, today! One already has been! I'll disciple at home, with TRUTH!

End abortion. You can jail, fine, or even give the death penalty to U.S. Women who abort, but that didn't end THEIR abortion, so you are a liar, @jackngraham! A liar in the pulpit/ministry. I thought only lawyers are liars!

End abortion. Plan B outlawed in America, as if the internet doesn't exist, like it DIDN'T in the days he's trying to return us to, when Jack Graham allowed Roe to get on the books! Even if Texas banned Plan B, and Austin monitored every Texas online purchase, gut punches can't be stopped by outsiders to a woman's home! Is the government 'gonna insert cameras to watch people at home? Privacy laws, dodo.

End abortion. I do NOT believe modern (as opposed to women from when Jack Graham let Roe get on the books) will risk coat hangers, even if they are sterilized! It's too intricate and risky/dangerous. Illegal doctors will open a black market industry! But that's ONLY if Plan B is outlawed in Texas!

The VERY same people who say m-sterbat-on, sex for fun/enjoyment, contraception, and all sex must take to term are the people who scare 'Christians' that Plan B is like drinking cyanide! I've heard the spiel! I had to argue one such person down, and they agreed, after you snap them out of the cult trance!

They even agreed that gut punches, black market, and coat hangers were NOT a good idea. NO WONDER Christians get the reputation for checking their brains at the church door. And DON'T you ever believe it's NOT intentional, as when pastors tell you God requires 10 percent of your income! False doctrine indoctrination.

LIE to the YOUNG sheep that abortion can be ended, and stir up the older crowd that Roe being ended will cause abortion bans that end all abortions. LIE through your teeth, for Jesus, from the pulpit! Apostate Christianity, by the very definition! This is happening very often in WASP churches!

End abortion. One would have to physically constrain an impregnated woman all nine months, never letting her out of their sight, to ensure she never took Plan B, or got a gut punch, or saw a quack doctor, or traveled to a blue state, or owned a coat hanger. "Christian" LIARS FOR JESUS.

I do NOT care if the AntichrisTrump gets more conservative justices on SCOTUS! It will NOT end abortion, even if Roe is overturned! CHUMP praised his two nominees, trying to get them to act on that amicus brief, and see if they're bribable by complements! "Christian" Politics in America!

NO WONDER @robertjeffress that tweeted evangelicals will do anything to re-elect Trump! Everything for the LIE and pipe dream of ending abortion by stacking SCOTUS! NO WONDER an astute Bible teacher called them a jar of NUTS! Truth telling is "arrogant negativity of a hateful hypocrite?" B.S.!

I have NEVER seen Jack Graham picketing Planned Parenthood, or speaking with any women entering there! I pass by there every time my old cars get fixed! But then again, it's usually NOT during election season. Just sayin'.

And just so we're clear, his 1/31/20 Twitter post came right after I ROASTED Trumpianism. Anything that is truthful about DJT, that's negative, makes false prophets slander you as arrogant, hateful, negative and hypocritical, because Chump delivered justices to overturn Roe. He fulfills biased, promises to WASPs--NOT to all of America!

With my family's pastor having sold his soul to satan, and people saying Romney should become a Democrat, I am inches away from declaring myself one, or an independent, who will vote against caustic conservatism and Socialism, every time!

Protesters need to be outside every politicized mega church, until November, with signs that God is not a political conservative!

Update #2

For 2020, it looks like this former Republican is with the Democrats, to defeat CHUMP. Who I vote for below top tier is up for debate. If it's a Trump cult member, their opponent will be voted for. I oppose Socialism, but the GOP has shut my Reagan types out! They need humbling!

This has been about the best day in my life, since the horrific day CHUMP won! Thanks, @mittromney! Christians abandoned God, and lost their reputations, only to have any Roe overturn overturned by an $18 Wal-Mart box of Plan B pills!

It is NOT about ending abortion, or about abortion bans. It is about the GOP ridding itself of all who aren't 100 percent caustic conservatives! A third party WILL be rising! Wait and see! Fear of buying plan B illegally could prevent some other abortions, NEVER "ending abortion."

Travel to blue states is still possible, but not for poor women. Gut punches agreed to/volunteered for can never be prosecuted, or caught! Do TrumPastors research DETAILS of their golden calves?

What about banning Plan B sales? We know illegal drugs can't be sold on the internet, but there's also a black market dark web. That leads to the black market doctors, and out of state travels, as coat hangers are not 'gonna be used, with the existence of better options. Can a red state ban internet sales of Plan B? That will become the leading legal question, if Trump succeeds at stacking SCOTUS even more, to overturn Roe.

End Roe, ban all abortions, and tell me how any state government can prevent a woman from buying Plan B over the internet, using it in the privacy of her own home, so those law bans can have any effect to lessen or end abortion, @jackngraham.

Side note: There are evil pastors in the world! NOT many, but I've met several of them, in person, and for years! There are more than you can ever imagine! They even claim to have graduated cum laude, or thereabouts, yet they can't see that Plan B defeats all their sell-out to satan sought to achieve! DUMMIES! Low IQ!

With Plan B, all the "Christians for Trump" coalition's efforts are 100 percent in vain, even if they further try to politicize SCOTUS, to overturn Roe! Every single impregnated U.S. Female can un-do that process for less than $18, at Wal-Mart. These people are stupid, and NOT leaders! I'm evil for saying so?

In the RARE case that a pregnant woman can't discover that her baby is 'gonna be severely costly vegetative, or lifelong terminally ill, would blue states be allowed to abort, third trimester? What if such cases were caused during the childbirth exit? Red states women can't travel to blue states from red state hospital beds? Would that violate the Equal Protection clause? (2/6/20)

WOULD YOU CHEER AT A FUNERAL?

(2/9/20)

WHO in America can honestly say abortion is great? It's moral? It's innocent? I read two tweets that said the stigma against it is evil. NO—killing children not yet born is evil! They also said it's female autonomy. That's NOT your body growing inside! It's a 100 percent different human being, dodo!

But it's one thing to say abortion is EVIL. It's another thing to figure out how to lessen the numbers! That's NOT the main concern, or activist pastors would have clamored about this the past 20 years, as they have the past three! Convicting silence! It's merging Jesus with worldliness, for power idolatry.

JUST LOOK at what you get when a pastor sells his soul to satan for power, all for Roe's overturn: current state division, and, more importantly, backlash that gums up ALL you sought to achieve, because in America, you don't cram views, you convince humans outside of uncommanded church buildings.

Roe reversed means total bans take effect in states that had them in 1977. WE HAVE PLAN B, now, Boomer!, available on the internet you didn't have when Roe passed
Your bans won't stop a determined woman. You want GOP votes. You don't have solutions—I have four! Debate me, anytime.

THIS is "Christian" ignorance, and NOT loving God with all your mind: you just get angry about evil abortions (and they are evil), and vote for Trump! TELL me what Roe overturn would do to "end" abortions, as a pastor said to MY twin teenagers? It's just GOP propaganda. They need lessening!

To end all abortions would mean government forcibly controlled a woman's body all nine months after insemination, at all times of her life, even inside her home! You have to convince women not to abort!

To end abortion, you'd have to convince every U.S. Female to take Plan B before day 3, or to always use safe sex, and have technology that can never break or fail! TrumPastors will NEVER tell WASPs this, or if they do, they STOLE my ideas, because they're not as astute using parroted mantras.

End abortion. Mandate every woman take plan B before day three. Government can even pay for it. Make it even safer to her body, with technological improvements. You have to convince the U.S. Majority that they want such a law. You don't schmooze satan to cram your view onto America!

End abortion. Mandate every U.S. Female use safe sex practices. HOW do you enforce such a law? Mandate all U.S. Females use contraception that doesn't break or fail. HOW do you ensure 100 percent compliance? A police state theocracy is the ONLY way. Keep riling up Christians for 45, with lies, fear, hatred of aborters and ignorance!

It's about TAXES! Far righters believe taxes are still too high, even after CHUMP's tax cut. They're always too high, even at one percent, because feds/government is EVIL, or their deeds "unconstitutional." The Founders intended zero safety net. Welfare isn't humane, but theft sin, say Trump cultists! We don't need government ourselves!

If one chooses to obey God, government has zero to do with that. The far right says people can be greedy SOB's, and never give back to society, and dodge their fair share of taxes, and that's what WASPs should support, all so Roe can be ended, so plan B sales skyrocket. It IS party idolatry sin, folks, and power lust flesh/sin!

Even when TrumPastors achieve their purpose of 45 re-ushered into office, gridlock happens, and his policies get undone when the GOP loses! These pastors have known all these things the past five years! They willfully reject these ideas, and God will judge that sinfulness! Repent, activist pastors. You knew better!

PRO-LIFE MEANS ENDANGER POORER COMMITTED KILLER WOMEN?

RE: <https://www.msnbc.com/.../what-national-elections-mean...>

THIS argument is asinine! NO ONE has personal moral responsibility for killing an innocent but the woman who chooses to do so, and even that decision can be forgiven by God.

The doctor is doing the bidding of his client, and some doctor will do it, or she will engage dangerous self-help. Even the baby's father is not responsible for the baby's death, if the mother chooses to abort against his will.

When 'pro-life' is defined as meaning every state must ban all abortions, or they are evil, no matter what ever good or evil laws they pass, that is an asinine mono-focus. Life and government are much wider than just this important issue.

The main problem is that people are looking to government at God (the same people who blame liberals as treating government as their daddy), in fixing a problem by laws, that do not end the problem, and are not the best way to end the problem!

The problem is American women getting pregnant when they weren't intending to become moms. The problem is killing innocent babies in the womb, to make up for adults' immature poor planning with sex! And in the cases of rape, incest and the mother's life, the baby is still innocent, but reasonable people can disagree as to whether the victim has to take that evil pregnancy to term.

In short, voters who allow laws to protect the health and safety of women who evilly choose to abort (not in the three exception cases) are not condoning killing innocents, but citizens' health and safety (as the U.S. Constitution demands).

If voters were to be guilty of a baby's blood on their hands, they would have to be the mother who decided to abort, legally or illegally, and, as I said earlier, even that evil choice is forgivable by God, if one sincerely seeks it.

State bans on abortion only cause women to engage self-help (gut punches or coat hangers), or to leave their state and get it done elsewhere. Some people would argue that keeps their state innocent before God, forcing them to do the dirty deed elsewhere, but that neglects the health and safety matter, and the fact that the woman is ultimately the only one with blood on her hands, and even then, forgivable by God!

This consistent position of mine is based on both the Bible and the reality of U.S. Law-making, in a secular/non-theocratic society. It does NOT mean I condone women killing their innocent child! In fact, we have listed up to five ways that evil decision can be avoided! It simply deals with the real, while offering multiple ways to achieve the ideal (listed elsewhere), which is less to no abortions.

The only way no abortions could ever be achieved is if every women of child-birthing age could not get pregnant, even if raped or as the victim of incest! That means technologically and physically incapable of ever getting pregnant, unless they wanted children!

P.S.: Rest assured, as the title of this chapter states, the argument of inconvenience is not this author's concern, but the likelihood that some women would or could not abort out-of-state, would engage dangerous self-help, in cases where saving the baby's life is not a consideration, anyway, as the mother is determined to abort.

I have zero problems with individual states accepting that moral responsibility, if Roe were ever overturned, but I, personally, do not think it the wisest moral choice, endangering moms as we lose the baby either way!

P.S.S.: And President Trump's position has agreed with the same, though it has varied from extreme to extreme, through the years. Mine remains consistent, because it is not politicized, but based on common sense and common decency, in a non-theocracy.

ROE ALTERNATIVES

(9/7/20)

IF states were free to pass laws about abortion (i.e., Roe were overturned) , the following would happen:

1. Some states would ban all abortions, criminalizing them.
2. Some states would allow all abortions, including third trimester and even after birth.
3. Some states would have a more middle-of-the-road policy, ranging from 3 exceptions, to third trimester and after birth prohibitions, to even second trimester prohibitions.

What would be bad about that outcome? Killing babies who can feel it, consciously (third trimester) and especially murdering a born human being is a horrible and horrifically negative result!
And gut punches if not coat hangers would also be a dangerous and bad self-help remedy.

But when you modernize the debate, with the advent of Plan B pills, none of these arguments matter, as they're available over the internet, for relatively cheap prices, so no state laws would stop abortions, anytime a woman wanted one, unless states banned online and in-person purchases of that drug, which would simply move it to the black market, in such states.

The BEST way to lessen abortions is to be preventative, and educate and incentivize people not engaging risky sex, if they don't plan on becoming parents!

You can never completely eliminate abortions, as there are always private ways to discard of one's child, unbeknownst to others (especially in cases of incest and rape).

The BEST we can hope for is that American women become cognizant of the evils done to the baby, the unjust death he/she suffers, all from poor planning that only the mother (and her partner) ultimately control!

ABORTION ANECDOTES

(9/27/20)

NOT everything that is natural is moral! It may be unnatural to use contraception, but it is wise, and making smart and moral decisions is what God desires of man. He did not give us brains to ignore! The fool is he/she who has unprotected sex, then sin-fully kills innocent babies!

Insemination is not conception. There's a 2-3 day lapse between the two. Plan B must be made 100 percent safe, because rapes, incest and unprotected sex (even broken or failed "oops" contraception) can still be remedied before a human baby is begun! God has not told us to not use our heads!

The solution to abortion is NOT banning, but convincing American women to prevent unwanted pregnancies, and to use Plan B immediately after unprotected or unwanted sex! Contraception is better than undesired conception! Eggs aren't penetrated until 2-3 days later. Un-do bad decisions before they take effect/have consequences.

Any UNlikely Roe overturn is NULLIFIED by the existence of the morning after pill, available off the internet, purchasable from any state in our great union! States banning all abortions would fight that, and black market sales, as with gut punches and coat hangers, and cross/inter-state travel!

STACKING SCOTUS

(10/11/20-2)

This will NOT be popular, but that's NOT our standard, but is it TRUE? This whole SCOTUS picking scheme is unjust and immoral, and simply proves the wide divide, and how D.C. Politicians will do ANYTHING for raw power, with ZERO concern for justice—only winning! PERIOD. Now cry or laugh—it's TRUE! (10/1/20-2)

The correct make-up of SCOTUS is ONLY if ALL justices agree to be NEUTRAL and only hold to original intent. That does not mean they have to be political conservatives! I want an equal number of liberals and cons, where the decider is centrist, or all centrists, politically!

Dems are NOT dumb, that court stacking is already occurring, as @JoeBiden said, to overturn Roe! That's immoral, even though abortion is also immoral! EVERYONE knows D.C. Politicians and parties ONLY do what's in their selfish interest, with zero interest in justice, and change rules if not to their liking or in their favor.

The WHOLE SYSTEM needs an overhaul for JUSTICE, neutrality and balance! You do a power play to load up courts to your liking, WHAT DO YOU THINK the opposing side is going to do when you LOSE power? Go along with that injustice? SCIENCE tells NON-fools 'for every action there is an equal and opposite reaction."

GOP's do NOT seem to comprehend this basic/science 101 fact! OF COURSE the Dems are going to want to stack SCOTUS the opposite way as Trumps three nominees! HUMAN NATURE! Ross Perot was right—in politics, there are no rules, but there MUST be rules, and rules that don't change. Its legally called "precedent."

I don't personally want Obergefell overturned, as it's now the law of the land, it would be government forced divorces, before man only, would cause disruptions, and we lost. Live with it! Same with legal access to safe abortions if one is determined to murder their child.

It's wrong, it shouldn't occur, I oppose it, I'm even for states banning it in certain cases, but the government cannot sanction endangering oneself if they are bound and determined to do it. The Constitution demands public safety protected by SCOTUS!

Finally, America is NOT a theocracy! Ultra-right conservatives are NOT clamoring to reinstate at fault divorce, or divorce disallowed for the only two biblical reasons! That's because the great book, the Bible, is not the Constitution, and if anyone doesn't like the Constitution we all live under, CONGRESS is the Constitutional place to change the laws!

The FRAMERS didn't write that if it is corruptly gridlocked, you politicize SCOTUS! Amendments are hard to do, for good reason. And judges, of all people, must be forced to be neutral in their personal views affecting LEGAL opinions!

SCOTUS overrules only cases that are clearly wrongly decided, according to existing, active law. They are given several factors for determining that conclusion, by case law precedent and tradition, but it is NEVER because of any justices' personal opinions or religious convictions!

They are NOT elected, and they, technically, do NOT serve the will of the people, but the letter of the Constitution! I am FOR ACB's nomination, NOT for her views on abortion, but because the radical wing of the Dems is seeking to make America Socialist, and ANYONE who read the clear language of the Constitution can NEVER find wealth redistribution in there, or the feds doing anything beyond what's explicitly (vs implicitly) enumerated.

America was FOUNDED upon Judeo-Christian principles, but those principles became laws and precedent. The Bible is great for swearing in's, but it is NOT the law of the land, and if far right cons can't learn the lessons of science, their attempt to make America a theocracy will backfire, when enough Americans vote to make America anti-Bible in its laws and Capitalism!

People become Christians NOT by forcing Christian views on them, in the firm of laws! Calling America a 'Christian' nation is as absurd as calling it an atheist nation. It's a melting pot of all types, but it is founded on Judeo-Christian principles, and those, now as laws, must be obeyed! NO politicizing of SCOTUS!

You cannot cherry-pick, or be selective in when you're a Constitutionalist! The document is great, but it is not perfect, and it doesn't address every issue America faces, in specific, so if you don't like what it says, have Congress get together enough to pass Constitutional amendments!

And there IS such thing as faux/fake Christian persecution for our faith! @JoeBiden is a Catholic, as is ACB. To say Christianity is under assault, because people don't want SCOTUS justices' personal beliefs making national law is NOT a religious freedom violation! Victim mentality!

Activist judges are legally unconstitutional! Founders separated powers, and the judicial branch INTERPRETS laws, legislative MAKES laws, and never the twain shall meet! SINCE voters want to be lawyers and judges, by mob rule or court stacking, here's what you MUST know, from law school:

KNOW THESE TERMS!: Precedent, remand, reverse, changed circumstances, person, citizen, substantive due process, equal protection, sliding scale, fundamental vs. other rights, social welfare.
<https://everycrsreport.com/reports/R45319.html>

OPINION/feelings are all you have, otherwise! NO standing in court. The Supreme Court's Overruling of Constitutional Precedent. By exercising its power to determine the constitutionality of federal and state government actions, the Supreme Court has developed a... everycrsreport.com

READ that article, and LEARN those terms for when precedent can be overturned!: Quality of Reasoning, workability, inconsistency with related decisions, changed understanding of relevant facts and reliance. You are NOT lawyers, so STOP trying to play one in the court of public opinion!

Roe is an IDOL, even as kids being killed is an abomination. EXPECT the Dems to cram their views down your throat, when you try to do the same. Single-issue voting and party worship are both dumb, and idolatrous. NEITHER party is perfect! That's why I've been a Democrat before; no compromise.

SCOTUS must ONLY have originalists, but their personal positions on any issue MUST be kept out of their consideration! They're to be as objective and neutral as they require jurors to swear to be! Politicizing SCOTUS is SIN, and unconstitutional, even if WASP pastors those sins!

The way Merrick Garland was treated was atrocious, and biased injustice! I said so at the time. Now you change the rules because it favors you? Favoritism sin! God sees your desires for selective justice! I'll prove some of these claims, now. I speak TRUTH, consistently, and seek justice!

D.C. Politicians HAVE to be among worlds stupidest folk about justice, human nature and common sense! When Merrick Garland got railroaded, and now two conservative justices crammed down throats—because they can—WHAT would any normal human do? What Dems will do! Get revenge with lib justices—as you aren't in control forever. (9/26/18)

WAS ROE ILLEGAL?

(10/13/20-2)

I HAVE to bore myself, for the sake of others: Roe as a wrong decision would be if it was clearly contrary to the Constitution. It was not. It contradicted what some people wanted, but that's NOT the legal standard! Denying blacks voting rights WOULD be unconstitutional! Not Roe.

Roe could have been decided differently, and still be constitutional! There's NOTHING clear in the document to address pre-born life! There IS clear language about public safety, and killing is illegal, but that's of the born. SCOTUS adeptly balanced extremes' interests! BOTH lost some.

HOW would you enforce abortion bans? If a woman flushes the fetus, or takes it as human waste, and says she had a miscarriage, HOW would authorities prove otherwise? HOW would government prevent ordering Plan B off the internet, even if banned? Political wedge issue, and a sinful decision!

How abortion became a partisan issue in America

Joe Biden, a Democrat, has a mixed record on abortion. Here's why that's increasingly rare.

vox.com

'Throughline' Traces Evangelicals' History On The Abortion Issue. NPR's history podcast, Throughline, examines how the issue of abortion became a defining political issue for evangelicals. npr.org

“The shift to opposing abortion rights was part of a larger effort to paint the Republican Party as pro-family in a way that would help mobilize socially conservative voters, according to Greenhouse and Siegel ...scholars estimate that between 20% and 25% of all pregnancies ended in abortion before Roe v. Wade. Immediately before Roe v. Wade, officially approximately 200 women died per year.

Historically, the most commonplace method that women have used when they haven't been able to obtain legal abortions is self-induction.” —Vox

Those are the horror stories that you hear of women trying to fall down stairs or ingesting poisons or using instruments to try to induce an abortion. Another method that women commonly used was turning to the unregulated market. –NPR

Update: Roe's Legality

(10/14/20-2)

Let's address the legality of Roe. Does the U.S. Constitution say a woman has a right to kill her baby in womb? NO. Have American laws EVER condoned murder? Never. So isn't it an open and closed case? IF you define abortion as legal murder, and a fetus (baby in process/in womb) as a human, with citizen rights.

SCOTUS did not so decide. They also considered the woman's safety if they were to reject the Roe conclusion, and the U.S. Constitution does speak to governments job/role in protecting safety and welfare. It takes reasoning.

They also concluded disparate state laws forbade equal rights under the law to an issue that rose to the level of importance that standardization of laws and opportunities for such procedure merited their intervention. You may not agree with how they decided. You may not always like what they decide.

IMO, all three of Trump's nominees have been excellent, based on scholastic and legal qualifications. And I have zero basis to doubt they'll adhere to their oath and pledge to not be biased by personal convictions, as they should not. But even then, presidents, over time, have been surprised by how Justices evolve, change and mature!

RGB was not, as I read articles, initially a far-left jurist. Judge Roberts has surprised some by his moderation, and sometimes not leaning conservative. Justices are human, and develop, and just as ACB said, they aren't clones.

Justices view the facts, they know the law, they argue amongst themselves for why or why not, as to overturning or upholding precedent, and the national respect for their place of work remains high when they don't engage overt politics! Politicizing their great institution is wrong.

PERIOD, and from either party and for whatever reason. Period. It's unconstitutional, and sin. We have enough partisanship in Congress, and our wise framers knew to keep powers separated, for uniquely distinct functions, and Justices aren't to make laws. Period. So back to my original question:

Was Roe legally wrongly decided? If the decision was made based on legal principles, logic, case law argumentation, or legitimate factors, it was fine, though we may not all like their conclusion. Did the Court invent out of thin air a right to abort? It had not existed previously.

Can we say the Framers intended women to abort? NO writings of theirs could likely say yes, as that word appears to exist nowhere in their writings. So Justices have to decide if such an action—in a more modern setting—violates principles the founders would have approved.

Murder could never have been in their minds as OK! Would they have considered a fetus a citizen?

Again, their writings, apparently, don't so state. SCOTUS appears to have used the reasoning that since a fetus is not certain to be born, to experience life outside the womb, their "life" is not certain, and citizens with legal rights enforceable in courts of law must have standing, and no one can have standing, not even able to be in a court of law, as not yet out of their mothers' womb.

Is that logic rational? Are fetuses citizens of America? One can argue they DO have life, as even yesterday a woman's baby survived her being shot and killed, while pregnant, and some corrupt soul cut a baby out of another's womb, and stole her former friends' child. Babies ARE alive, though not yet birthed. But their birth is uncertain, and the law deals in certainties.

It DOES deal with and consider contingencies, but it deals with reality—not fantasies. And reality is that women were aborting, pre-Roe, and a majority number of those Justices felt it was their duty to not condone by their ruling, that unsafe practice.

You can argue they made up the right out of whole cloth, but Justices have to apply laws already existing, unless they are wrongly passed, and Unconstitutional, and when the Constitution does not speak to a more modern societal issue, like euthanasia, they have to vote on whether to allow or disallow that practice based on legal principles consistent with the Framers.

Why one justice feels one way and another the other way they alone know for certain. Likely it is their life's bent toward right and wrong, like murder being evil, and babies being humans, if not citizens, yet, if ever.

As I stated before the Court struck a balance between extremes with extremely negative consequences, especially for the baby! The trimester system at least acknowledged biological and scientific differences in what we deem a human, in its development.

Conservatives should be glad they decided third trimester was a stopping point, while liberals should be glad they decided total bans were also of limits.

The innocence of a baby who never chose to be born must always be considered, as well as the safety and health of the mother engaging self-help! BOTH and, not either or! THIS is the Solomonian task SCOTUS faced. They also would divide the country by siding with extremes.

Conservatives argue aborters can travel to blue states, just don't have that murderous blood on our state's hands. Liberals argue that's unfair to poor red state women, and thus, unequal treatment under the law.

States' rights was what we had, pre-Roe, and cons always lean that direction, but, again, SCOTUS weighed the merits of a patchwork of opposite state laws, and decided on such a fundamental matter, uniformity was in order. In any case you may make, Congress is the rightful venue for changing Roe!

Either it enshrines Roe, by law, or it improves upon Roe, to address differing concerns. If SCOTUS ever takes up the matter, more likely by some case directly violating Roe, we will again have to address variations in state laws! Equal protection will still arise as a concern.

ALL these issues are of little concern to lay people. They just want the right, or want the right banned. Period. SCOTUS does NOT run as a court of public opinion! That's what pandering politicians do! SCOTUS is designed to be better than that, above that, and higher than that, and it is, usually! It will NOT be if evil people politicize the Court!

Finally, and once again, consider the evolving of RGB and Roberts. NO president can predict or control that, so just like I believe 45's three picks are honorable and qualified, no one but them could know if they intend to be activist Judges, down the line, and excuse it as evolving, or whether they evolve apart from pre-planned intention, or if they evolve at all.

Evolving is not necessary, especially if you have right thinking from the beginning! I 100% trust all three Justices will serve America well, but I do not know their heart as to whether they see themselves as religious plants, there on a mission from God to overturn Roe (and Obergefell).

They alone, presently, now that, which is exactly why I would bring in lie detectors for EVERY nominee of any persuasion! It's not perfect evidence, and it's not admissible in court, and it can be gamed, but I would simply like to know the result of three professionally administered objective polygraphs, to help me have more full knowledge on my opinion as to any bias! It is CERTAINLY the intention of activists for all three to collude to overturn Roe.

They have stated as much, many times. And to say no one has asked me to or required that I do so, as a judge, is NOT necessary, as those in the know know the objective! Overturn Roe! That's the ONLY reason a true Christian and pastor type would support THIS (See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at page 412)

P.S.: I, for 1, and possibly only 1, am NOT for stacking SCOTUS left or right! I've already addressed what must be done if Roe were ever overturned, to have national guidelines I've detailed, but I 100% oppose politicizing SCOTUS, even if it's been done before, and opponents have done so!

NEUTRALITY must be the standard. NOT robots with no opinions, but Justices literally choosing to put aside political bents for legal considerations alone. That is the mark of a professional, and their Court will not retain its revered status without so doing.

P.S.S.: SCOTUS did NOT deem abortion legal murder, or aborting women would be jailed. Killing a one day old would be murder, as it was alive and birthed. That one distinction seems to be the lynch pin in their thinking, because birthing has to occur, before citizenship rights ensue.

I would rather SLEEP, but I'll further detail what would be required if Roe reversed. Reverse and remand is not the same as a reversal! Immediately, every state's law would revert to 1973. States would have to change laws, or Congress make national standards, but its gridlocked.

What SHOULD occur is rape, incest, vegetative state types, and mother's life be solely the decision of the woman. NO state should fund abortions, nor the feds, period. If blue states wanted to, post Roe reversal, their choice.

Partial birth, third trimester and after birth abortions SHOULD be banned in all 50 states, but NY and other blue states might allow all those abhorrent practices. The heartbeat law is certainly a medically sound cut-off point, if a state is going to allow the procedure.

The entity within is certainly alive and human, to all honest Americans upon that scientific proof (meaning I don't require you to accept my belief that life begins at inception, based on a holy book, but only if science proves it, which I believe can be proved in my positions favor). Nonetheless, even a live human is something some women will kill!

Red states should certainly ban abortions upon heartbeat, if not before (given my four exceptions, previously enumerated). Blue states WOULD allow second trimester abortions, as Roe does, but red states probably wouldn't.

Beyond the second trimester, people virtually willing to murder would argue for those rights in blue states. You would conceivably have an equal protection issue if red states banned all abortions, making poor women resort to self-help, or travel across state lines.

And terminally ill or severely deformed babies-to-be-birthed can't always be known 'til late in the process, and while I oppose killing babies due to medical challenges, states may allow women to make those late term decisions, as with mother's life. I don't think any state should make those decisions for them, though I oppose them making the former decision!

GREAT things have come from severely deformed people—maybe even vegetative state babies. Mothers life, even though LESS innocent than a pre-born baby, is still a decision the mom must face, as with her family (husband, etc.), as suicide is NOT a job for government to force upon her, IMO! Complexities!

The hairy part is red state bans, first trimester. How long do states allow a woman to decide not to take to term if she wasn't raped or an incest victim? ANY time before three days post-insemination is killing a human!

Even if a red state forbade Plan B, that law can be easily circumvented and we, as a nation, don't want women taking gut punches, throwing themselves down stairs, poisoning themselves, cramming coat hangers 'where the sun doesn't shine,' if any red state bans Plan B! Nor do we want a black market of doctors I'd call "quacks," for violating the law.

Some might deem them heroes, using civil disobedience. Still, their underground clinics can't be regulated. Even if 100% sterile, public policy must not encourage law-breaking.

And red states banning all abortions would raise even more dilemmas! Rape, incest, to start. Plan B ends most of these concerns, taken 1-3 days after the crime, but bans of Plan B—in person or online—would further complicate matters.

CAN YOU SEE why I despise politics, which relies on 1-liner slogans to get votes, when real solutions aren't that quick? IDIOTS allow people to be 'leaders' who can't articulate the problems or the solutions; just have glossy 30 second TV ads with childish, kindergarten level words smoothly stated!

That's being a leader? That's being a marketer, and real law makers actually make laws, so they have to know these details, or pass GOOD laws!

ABORTION MARATHON

(10/13/20)

Strict constructionism does NOT mean there is no difference of opinions, but those differences can't come from personal feelings, but alternative legal theory and case law precedents! THIS is what law school teaches the elites, that laymen can't seem to comprehend. America is NOT mob rule.

I have said my first choice would be precedent! I'm OK with Roe overturn, only with national guidelines to prevent extremes. Obergefell un-do would be government sanctioning man's version of divorce, and LGBTQs won't tolerate it! Obamacare needs changes, but IS wealth redistribution!

What if white supremacists decided they didn't like blacks able to vote, or being deemed 100% human, under the law? Would they be morally right to try to stack SCOTUS to overturn the 13th Amendment, or using $250 in Dark Money to politicize the judiciary? HUH? Hint: Absolutely not.

Mandatory modern chastity belts or perfect contraception are about the only way to prevent all abortions. Read that again! No rape could occur with the former. They could with the latter. No one is going to advocate forced chastity belts, but they'll ban you from contraception and plan B!

Roe, Obergefell and Obamacare as the targets of activists. IF they won, gays could get same legal rights as straight marrieds, women would use self-help, and the poor could get catastrophic health insurance. I'm NOT for any of these three, as the Court has spoken, but if politicizing worked.

Obamacare is unconstitutional wealth redistribution! An unbiased/objective SCOTUS needs to address that! Trump has promised a better replacement. He's had four years to present it. If SCOTUS deems wealth redistribution unconstitutional, bye bye, Welfare. Cons want government helping none!

If red and blue states had their own laws on abortion, SCOTUS has said the issue was so substantial, hodge podge would be problematic. They'd be reversing their own logic to say otherwise. NY/CA would have late and partial term, and after birth. Texas would probably ban all, including rape and incest.

DON'T POLITICIZE THE DAMN SUPREME COURT! That is evil! Let them rule, deal with precedent, and change it in Congress, if you don't like it. The Christian Cabal is using sin-to-win strategies of satan, that good may come! Romans 6:1

IVF? Criminal? It is science replicating sex, in ways natural means fail at. That is a LUDICROUS scenario, to criminalize couples seeking to get pregnant, who have troubles at it! Older couples use many methods and medicines to increase fertilization! A crime? This isn't the U.S.S.R.!!!

By the time laws get to SCOTUS, it's NOT how morals apply to law, as that was at their formation stage! By SCOTUS, the issue is was a lower court's ruling wrong/unconstitutional, or do disparate appeals court rulings need harmonizing? SCOTUS isn't a court of original jurisdiction.

For domestic peace, would SCOTUS be wiser allowing states' rights to address Obergefell and Roe, with national guidelines on handling variations? Ex.: How gays get divorced in a gay no gay marriage states? I'm for precedent. Super precedent needs defining--anyone can call for any law's overturn!

(10/13/20)

It does NOT mean one is pro-death, or anti-pro-life, or pro-choice, if they oppose abortion, morally, but want any who insist on aborting kept medically safe, which is the legal responsibility of our government! Pro-life meaning ban all abortions is ASKING for women to risk harm or death!

Choosing abortion as contraception is a HEINOUS evil, from LAZY 'sinners' who won't plan. Broken condoms and failed 'the pill' are NOT the couples fault, morally! And despite some Catholic's OPINION, nothing is killed using Plan B within three days of inseminating sex. That's NOT a sin!

Some people argue contraception is sin. WRONG! God NOWHERE said don't use your head in making wise decisions, or the technology unavailable in Bible days! You are not thwarting a child's destiny, as there never was going to be a child, if you didn't have inseminating sex!

To argue it's against nature, so its morally wrong is like saying the coming Covid vaccine is against nature, and morally wrong! Man-made inventions are not, per se, morally wrong! Unnatural vs natural is NOT always a moral matter! Rom. 1 (IMmoral/unnatural) vs. I Tim. 5:23 (moral and man-made wine)

Gender confusion is ultimately from satan, the father of lies and confusion! Jn. 8:44/I Cor. 14:33 THIS verse applies to the LGBTQ community's "pride," though they are equals, and should never be discriminated against: Phil. 3:19

'Bortion Banners have no mercy-you were raped? Tough-Birth it! Victim of incest? Tough-Birth it. I say take the morning after pill IMMEDIATELY! I've had some pro-life activists try to scare people that Plan B is 'very dangerous.' THEY'RE PREVENTING AN UNWANTED LIFE BEFORE IT STARTS.

'Bortion Banners say technology says you're going to birth a 'vegetable.' Tough; birth it. That science fact can't be known within three days of insemination. WHO wants to tell a woman what decision she must make, under force of criminal penalties? She's already in an intolerable circumstance!

'Bortion Banners say the mom is less of an innocent, so she should volunteer to commit doctor-assisted suicide (though the same types oppose Dr. Kevorkian's, otherwise), if it's the pre-born vs. its mother's life. WHO should tell mom her decision is forced, or a crime if disobeyed?

WHO will speak for the preborn baby's rights? EVERY American should, but it is not the only factor, nor is the mom! There are two lives involved, just like it took two to tango, to get her into this predicament in the first place! NONE OF THIS needs occur, if you plan sex, and Plan B if you don't, within three days! The world does not need another baby a mom doesn't want! The world, also, needs no abortions, when they could be prevented!

Mother's life and vegetative state pre-borns are decisions that can't be prevented before egg insemination, 'til tech advances that far!

(10/13/20-2)

The other day I cited this article, which lawyers know the exact case law behind, but even ACB says sound legal reasoning and precedent determine her judicial philosophy, and strict adherence to the Constitution—NOT making laws (that's the people's representatives' job), but interpreting.

You can no more stop a committed woman from aborting as you can stop a lone wolf school shooter who tells no one of his (they're USUALLY males) plans. Plan B pill off the internet!

Some voters want 1950 returned to America. Note: ABORTIONS HAPPENED BEFORE ROE, folks!
<https://npr.org/2019/05/20/725139713/>

Gut punch miscarriage, with no bruising. WHOS to prosecute that, in red states that would ban all abortions? Same with coat hangers that don't lacerate or cause her scars. It's LUDICROUS to want total bans, and to say Roe was legally wrongly decided!

"Citizen" applied to fetuses is NOT in the Constitution, nor is it against it—it's simply NOT ADDRESSED! Life, liberty and happiness has ZERO language as to its application to a baby in one's womb! That takes INTERPRETATION—a judges' job! The Framers don't even have written notes surrounding its creation, that details unborn's rights as citizens or not, or rights to life, or not.

OF COURSE they should all live, as God started them, and people play God to end life! But the law had to balance the FACT that two parties are involved—a mom and a baby, not just the baby. We may HATE their ruling, but it was NOT legally invalid.

Banning all abortions caused real consequences the Court knew were bad and dangerous, and the state couldn't sanction (self-help, etc.), and Biden NOT saying if he'll stack SCOTUS is wise strategy! America deserves to know, but he's not going to energize conservatives, or discourage liberals, by saying!

I'd vote against him for simply saying nothing! America deserves to know! And court stacking is EXACTLY what the Christian Cabal DID; unjust and sin-full! Cram their views down America's throats, because they could. NOWHERE found in Scripture! Repent, brethren!

Murder is one evil person killing an innocent; abortion is a person in bad circumstances doing evil by killing an innocent, but if she can't do so safely, she often do so less safely (at least before Plan B pills were invented). Are red states going to ban OTC internet sales of it?

IF they did, gut punches, travel to blue states, coat hangers and black market quack clinics would arise! Christian activists want zero abortions. Force people to always use 100% unfailable contraception, then! Catholics would balk that's thwarting nature, so God must want people who have a lot of sex to have more kids than would be responsible!?

The "thinking" is SO poor, among most activists on BOTH extremes, because EMOTION rules their day. I just want abortions to end now. NO thought of if that's practical, reasonable or moral. Just do it! I don't care two hoots that 75%+ of Americans want Roe as law. We are not a direct/pure democracy.

The ONLY issue is was Roe decided unconstitutionally? And that document doesn't speak of preborns, or women's rights to abort! We're stuck having to rule what's best for America—like it or not.

I'm FOR ACB on SCOTUS, but NOT if she lies and uses her personal beliefs to make rulings. She should be removed if she does, as should any other members! I'm FOR her because wealth redistribution is against the Constitution. THEFT (Ex.: freebies from taxpayers) has always been a crime.

The ONLY way to change ANYTHING in the U.S. Constitution is by laws of Congress, or Constitutional amendments. Judicial activism is sin and illegal! Political biases affecting ANY SCOTUS decision is sin, and technically illegal. Follow the law, Founders intent, and precedent, unless a case was legally wrong, or the factors in that article (from the other day) apply!

The Supreme Court should have ALL nine (and only nine) Justices as objective, politically neutral in their rulings, and court stacking to either extreme is sin and wrong; political idolatry biases! @ABC @CNN @CBS

THINK what an abortion is. It is NOT cutting off a wart, as zero warts grow into birthed humans! You are killing a human—your own flesh and blood! You are saying, my child cannot experience life, or be what God created her or him to be, because I am circumventing God and playing Him!

Babies get their limbs sucked off their torso, or ripped right off it by medical scissors! The blood has to be atrocious! What comes out of the womb has to look like a monstrosity to the nurses, doctor and killer! A blob of would-be human life, in mangled parts. YOU made that! Sin!

Sonograms SHOW you the otherwise invisible, but not unfelt, when they kick or roll over in your tummy. YOU decided to have sex—NOT your child! YOU decided not to have sperm donor wear a condom, or risked it not breaking! YOU free-willedly CHOSE not to take contraception pills! NOT your baby!

Your baby did NOTHING wrong! YOU screwed up, in more ways than one, one of which knocked you up! YOU, the woman, ultimately have the power to prevent killing your child, but NOT if you're raped or an incest victim. YOU are the innocent in those cases! You had NO choice in the matter.

And when any mother's life is at risk, who is society to make a horrific personal choice for her family? And if the baby will have terrible medical problems, or the family will be bankrupted by such care, who is society to tell the mom how she should decide, legally vs. morally?

Is it society's need to tell a rape or incest victim they must pay all costs, endure all pains, disrupt their life for nine months, and live with that reminder either the rest of her life, or suffer maternal withdrawal pains if she adopts out? HER personal decision NEEDS to be a moral one.

It's certainly NOT smart to have a hodge podge of options, varying by state, on such a crucial issue! SCOTUS uses a sliding scale of 'reaching to the level' of needing consistency across the board. THAT's what Roe sought to do. No one loves its ruling, as both sides extremists LOST!

NO third trimester abortions; no partial birth or after birth. The LEFT loses. NO total bans on abortion. The RIGHT loses. I think the decision, whose implications I mourn and oppose, for the babies, was Solomonian, in splitting the middle! I Ki. 3:25

IF SCOTUS had supported total bans, they would sanction gut punches and coat hangers, CONTRARY to the health and safety duty, which could be said to be an unconstitutional ruling!

<https://law.cornell.edu/.../sect.../health-safety-and-morals>

THERE ARE OTHER WAYS to lessen if not end abortions. UNjust court stacking is the devil's way! God's for justice! Micah 6:8

JUST like GOP activists wanted court stacking via Trump, Biden can legally add more Justices to SCOTUS! Does anyone think they'd even be as moderate as Merrick Garland? Only fools! That means MORE tax payer dollars wasted, more wrangling, and politicizing SCOTUS, as GOP's did via 45!

I Jn. 5:21; I Cor. 10:14 The Bible is CLEAR that idolatry is SIN. The Christian Cabal idolized secular power, for Roes overturn, abandoning Gods morals to serve God, then were sinfully SILENT about ALL these sins, and 45's 20K lies in office! Sin-to-win strategy of satan! That's NOT faith!

Research: Abortion was discovered as a wedge issue to elicit WASP votes, just before Reagan's run. Roe was on the books for 43 years, before the Christian Cabal thought they could maneuver ways to overturn it! 43 years of tolerating it, even as it passed on their age 18+ watches!

THAT is party idolatry! LOOK at the history of how abortion was discovered as a wedge issue to secure evangelical votes! Parties are NOTHING to God! Values are! I will serve the Lord, and no political party, or corrupt Christ claimers-period! Independent of pressure to change views!

I guess if people are very moral, they've never had to face whether they'd have to abort. I've NEVER had to worry about it, but I know people have unprotected sex, and you kill NOTHING before fertilization (Plan B 2-3 days after). 'Pro-life' is a mantra, often undefined and intended to be so!

Update #3

ALL the Christian Cabal's eggs are in one basket... overturn Roe by court stacking SCOTUS! It's been their pact and agenda since 2014, when I mocked them allowing Roe to get on the books, unprotected, before I was age 18! @CNN @CBS @NBCnews @Foxnews @ABC Lie detector(s) for ACB on Roe!

I am 100% FINE with Roe overturn, IF and only if national guidelines disallowed total bans or partial birth and after birth abortions! Even third trimester I personally oppose, just as I personally oppose ALL abortions, but they have to be safe, when women choose to sin and kill!

I'm NOT listening to the ACB hearings; I haven't for one second. I know the game—ROE OVERTURN!

That's why evangelicals (mainly white) support and turn a blind eye to all that's below! [See our chapter: Apostasy For Power Idolatry, at Facebook's James.Meroney.9, #74)]. I'm FOR her on NO Socialism, and Obamacare needing fixing, but total abortion bans cause harm to citizen women.

I even said ACB SHOULD be in the bench. The minute I detect any personal feelings engaged in her decisions, I am going to seek Congress to pass a law to remove all justices who so do. If that takes a Constitutional amendment, it would be worth the fight. They are NOT elected!

If @JoeBiden DOESN'T stack SCOTUS with at least one Justice, if not three, he'd be taking it on the chin, and allowing some injustice, by having an imbalanced Court! ALL members must swear to strict interpretation and zero political views affecting their rulings! Neutral interpreters ONLY!

ABORTION BANS ARE THE ONLY MORAL CHOICE?

It dawned on me, before dawn has broken (4am) that morality is not always understood, even among Bible-believing believers. I've used this meme for over two years, but the way politics is practiced, today, simple one-liners are the catch of the day, so it needs explaining, apparently:

Sports enthusiasts, and often coaches, say winning isn't everything, it's the only thing, as they emphasize the value of a victory. But outside of sports, GOOD parents know you don't teach your kids such lessons of life, as there are rules and referees to ensure you win fair and square!

When the Christian Cabal made their deal with the literal devil, to back 45, "no matter what," come Hell or high water, in exchange for conservative SCOTUS picks, that was an IMMoral choice, even as the motive/intention could have been pure.

Let me explain a second well-known moral adage: The ends justify the means is NOT a phrase morally-sensitive people adhere to! It is countered, in Washington, with if you don't win, you don't rule (which is also true), so they go the way of the world, with the herd/sheep mentality that if my competitor might do so-and-so, I must do so-and-so.

So, we LITERALLY violate Romans 6:1, where Paul MOCKED such thinking, and addressed its doing with the most emphatic Greek word tense of 'may it never be!' May it never be that Christians would do evil, so more grace from God may come!

Agreeing to support the most immoral person running for President in the last 30-40 years, and one of the least policy informed, initially, because you want abortion ended is a literal pact with satan. BUT, its commended, because of the moral atrocity which is abortion!

'ANYTHING for the babies' MUST have been the rallying cry! IS THAT A BIBLICAL choice? NOT if you analyze the adages and verses I just gave you, because justice is Gods ultimate levelling standard, and there is NO justice in forcing your views onto others, because you can/are able! My-way-or-the-highway is the OPPOSITE attitude from putting others first, and being a disciple; it is flesh, me/Self first, even if for a moral cause of saving innocents!

And let's see where that arrogance has gotten us: Not only is it unconstitutional to try to make laws, by undoing laws through politicizing SCOTUS, it has engendered the left seeking to get even/revenge, through further court stacking!

ALL courts are neutral arbiters, justice is blind, and lady justice metes out her rulings based on the law, in a land ruled by law and order. So,

1. Me first-ism, even for a good cause (Rom 6:1)
2. Politicizing SCOTUS (a neutral, apolitical body)
3. Inciting revenge among leftists, and,
4. Violating the Constitution, because it explicitly tells us how bad SCOTUS rulings get fixed-Either SCOTUS takes up amicus brief appeals (friend of the court) to reconsider (which it rejected, for now, last year) or Congress changes the law.

Otherwise, a lower case must rise through the appeals process to reach the highest level, challenging their precedent! NOWHERE is having a president nominate biased judges a consideration of our Founding Fathers! Again, D.C. Types would argue, the Dems do or would do it, so so must we. That is NOWHERE in Scripture, as a condoned "Christian" attitude!

But, just so our opponents know, even in the past 2 weeks, this group has publicly stated 'we are as close to overturning Roe as we've ever been,' then the speaker cut himself off, lest it be heard in the recording, by the wrong hearers.

That brings me to my last point (so I can go back to sleep): Did the immoral idolatry choice achieve its end?

A. Will all abortions be ended if Roe were overturned? No, as I detailed yesterday. Plan B and self-help still exist

B. Would LESS abortions occur if it weren't legal, under fear of criminal prosecution, and high fines or jail time? Probably! If a woman doesn't want to risk self-inducing childbirth, where the baby may live, or have to explain how she miscarried, overturning Roe certainly may lessen the number of women unwilling to engage self-help (but not those wealthy enough to take a couple days off work, to travel to a blue state).

So, one may ask, isn't that a morally good thing, to lessen abortions by forcing her choice to be illegal? Isn't anything we can do to have less abortions a moral aspiration? IF you believe the ends justify the means, and win at all costs is not the main thing, it's the only thing.

The grave and great moral dilemma with such thinking is there are other things we can do to lessen abortions, which do not require abandoning Christian morality, for when you engage sin, that righteousness may ensue, you do violate Christian morality (Rom. 6:1, etc.). I've detailed those actions.

And IF Biden doesn't stack SCOTUS, in revenge, rest assured the Dems WILL devise a more subtle scheme to exact revenge, even if all 3 of 45s picks for SCOTUS morally decide to never play pawns of the right, and do their Constitutional duty!

Again, these activists will argue this choice of theirs is how the game is played—to the victor go the spoils, and they had the power to prohibit Merrick Garland, and to nominate 3 con Justices so they used it. Sounds wise, because its legal.

Is it moral, and do Christians have any duty to check the morality of choice, as they check the morality of pro-choice? I argue yes, but again, this argument is so time-consuming, the average parishioner simply blindly trusts preachers and there's little chance of changing that unbiblical mentality, when so few even read their Bibles, and ~30% are single-issue voters (mainly for overturning Roe).

If you cannot SIMPLY (and I mean in simple terms and one-liner slogans) educate laymen on these matters, you will lose them as too academic! And perhaps that's our greatest sin, that obeying God's word, and comprehending its clear teachings is such a foreign mist in our brains we are to use to love God with all of.

That won't cure overnight, but the choice was wrong, even if few can even comprehend why.

U.S. Christians USED to ask WWJD, but they can ask Him directly, and their opinion only matters when they see what He did do, in Scripture.

Update

(11/23/20-2)

I've done this a million times: If we label all abortions 'murder,' if Pharaoh or Herod was killing all males age two and under, we'd clamor to put an end to that heinous injustice and abuse! Some people genuinely want to ban all abortions in their state, under all circumstances, as the baby is innocent.

Does that end all abortions in that state? NO. Plan B off the internet, gut punches, coat hangers and quack black market doctors will still do abortions, or travel to a pro-abortion state. Government is charged with keeping citizens safe. Those aren't all safe self-help remedies!

If rape or incest, or a mom's life, some people don't see any difference, because the baby's innocent. Making poorer citizens engage costly travel when blue state women don't have to raises an equal protection issue. The answers are preventing unwanted pregnancies! Total bans don't end all abortions!

In the three exceptions cases, the baby's always innocent, but so also is the mom whose life is at stake, and the mom who was a rape or incest victim! It's NOT government's job to tell those three cases what they should do. Those are hard decisions they must/should make.

If you want all TX women to take to term, pay their expenses and be with them through the strains of that nine month period! People don't want that much involvement. They just want a quick, easy answer of legal total bans; not involvement in issues they're so passionate about!

'BORTION BANS?'

(10/15/20-2)

12.3% U.S. Women are virgins after college (<http://transformedwives.com>), and 3% remain such 'til wedding day (Hiner). That means the super majority risk impregnation, as contraception isn't always perfect, and can fail. Babies can result, so expecting them never to do so is naïve!

Not everyone plans their premarital sex. If they did, abortions would lessen HUGELY! Condoms and The Pill RARELY fail! Forgetfulness is NO excuse! If you think you might have sex, you MUST take precautions! God teaches abstinence, vs. fornication, but reality can be vastly different!

The two most shameful positions to hold, about abortion, are claiming contraception is evil, and using Plan B within 1-3 days post insemination, IMO, as they have ZERO at all to do with killing any human being! ASININE viewpoints to have, IMO, as if God says do not use your brain I gave!

There is ZERO reason why any woman doesn't know within 1-3 days if they had planned on getting pregnant when they allowed sex, and that they wanted a kid, as a result, or not! Even if raped or incest occurred, use Plan B immediately! You murder no one—period! Delay, and you will do so.

If a condom burst or The Pill failed, NO ONE in their sound mind would blame a woman for not wanting to suffer the consequences she didn't choose! The latter failure takes weeks to discover, so Plan B use would be after the child began. A wife would be morally innocent for getting pregnant.

If abortion is NOT the unpardonable sin (and it is not), moms choosing to remain with their family, rather than die for their unborn child, and women whose contraception failed, who learn that later, have less moral guilt than those using abortion as contraception! That is 100% evil!

Due to freedoms/free will, I hesitate to advocate any specific law that could curb abortions-and 100% bans don't end them—but if you really wanted a law I don't favor, to do the trick, criminalize not preparing for sex, using contraception, or Plan B 1-3 days later the lack thereof!

Pro-life MUST include an unwillingness to let living women endanger their lives by self-help aborting! Life outside the womb is as valuable as within it! That is the Solomonian dilemma, when anyone takes only one side or the other (which I don't), though babies are more innocent!

I would NOT let my wife commit suicide, if she were pregnant, and my wife's life was in limbo if we kept that child! My kids would lose a mother, and I my partner, and I wouldn't want police telling us my life partner must die! NOT governments business, IMO!

If a family faces a HORRIBLE medical prognosis for a preborn, where their life will be vegetative, or the cost to poor families will be astronomical to care for him/her, government should not force their difficult decision, IMO, though aborting is still killing.

WHY do abortions occur? Are lots of women trying to trap men, like gold diggers? Don't you know or not know you plan to become a mother, when you have unsafe sex, or do you only start thinking about that when your pee pee test shows two lines (pregnant)? Do you think at all?

If a female is to take the life of her own flesh and blood, it makes sense, to me at least, that that killing occur before the baby can feel it, or have a heart beat! It is inhumane if abortion doctors don't sedate the innocent murder victim. Do they? #SilentSecreem video!

'My body my decision' is FALSE, as it's another person's body inside! My healthcare decision is UNTRUE, as its two person's health! My choice is true—your choice to kill a human, or not do so. NO excuse for aborting when the baby can feel it, IMO, except for mother's life exception.

Even the trauma of rape or incest should be ZERO excuse for not taking Plan B within 1-3 days of those crimes! HOW HARD IS IT TO TAKE THE PILL OR WEAR A CONDOM, folks? The whole abortion issues comes mainly from selfish sex hogs, IMO! Sinful lustful emotionalism—NOT planning!

We are the edit un-do generation. We want quick fixes to our oops moments. Absent Plan B within 1-3 days, your attempted undo has become an un-life! Viability was a wise standard SCOTUS used, as any child who can live without mom, if need be, is its own human being under the law.

Before viability, the baby has to have momma to survive. After viability, it does not. That point is the point where the child could live, outside the womb, so the law gives it status if not standing, apart from the moms wishes alone! Some states criminally punish fetus shooters!

Preborn legal rights: <https://ncsl.org/.../health/fetal-homicide-state-laws.aspx>
... and SCOTUS' three trimester scheme was based on biology and science-bodily development. It was NOT random and arbitrary/capricious, or political. They surely studied the growth of babies, and determined viability/sustainability concept.

NO female should EVER want a third trimester (excepting moms life cases), partial birth-, or after birth abortion! NOTHING medical can surprise you, last minute, and only worship of the will says I have a right to murder a living human, if minutes outside my womb! Murderous intent!

Partial birth details: <https://centerformedicalprogress.org/.../special-report.../>
... If you don't "choose"—NOW—to be a mom, have safe sex, or use Plan B before three days elapse! ONLY other need might be a mom's life exception! Delayed decisions KILL!

You can always become a mom, unless your body impregnates difficultly. If you aren't actively planning to be a mom, through your sex, don't BECOME A MOM, yet! Use contraception! Its unnatural nature means NOTHING! Dentists are unnatural, filling your cavities! Plan your sex, folks!

Biden just said if an eight or 10-year-old decides they want to be transgender, to make their life better, who are we to question that, as that would be "discrimination." They can't even decide what cereal brand they want! They're not adults, and would change their future possibly forever.

45 did a GREAT—though contentious job—debating Savannah, often. She held her own and her peace/patience. Joe stammers a lot, in not answering straight out, and is a lot lower energy, but quite peaceful and refreshingly calm. Decency is needed in America, but NOT Socialism! QUITE different styles.

If my boy came home and told me some God-hating atheist, who hated America and wanted to be a lifelong bum got pregnant by him, God forbid, and was going to have an abortion, I'd tell my son he owes child support, if she doesn't, but it would be her decision. WILD hypothetical on aborting!

If my daughter, God forbid, was raped, by a serial murdered, I would tell her it is a human baby, she can adopt out, but it would be her call as to what she wanted to do with her victim situation. I would pray with and for her, and support her, whatever she chose! Her adult decision!

Trump adeptly dodged abortion ban opinion, agreeing many GOP's want that, but not taking a stand. Bans do not end all abortions, and if Roe were overturned, abortions could increase, overall, if blue states allowed any and all types, offsetting red state bans! We simply don't know!

I'll say it again, even more forcefully, if my amazing and sweet wife were facing death, in order to birth a child, there is NO WAY I would support a baby I hadn't yet met, to such a lady I've known for 32 years! NO question, even if abortion was how we saved her life!

(10/18/20-2)

Plan B won't work if a woman is ovulating. Weight and some medications decrease Plan B's effectiveness. Allergies or medication interactions can prevent women from being able to use Plan B. Physical lack of access, along with the high price, can easily make Plan B unobtainable.

Update #2

(10/22/20-2)

You can say SCOTUS considered changed public sentiment, and state laws towards gay marriage, but on Roes overturn, that's NOT the case on the publics part, or that many states, to make a critical mass. Just a minority trying to politicize SCOTUS to do that job. NOT apples-to-apples!

It's AMAZING that some Christians believe the ultimate ethic is to be true to your word, to support Trump, no matter what, when that commitment means you support sin, no matter what, if he keeps his word to stack SCOTUS to overturn Roe! Amazingly screwy "morality!" Be evil so good comes

EVERY DAY SCOTUS is in session they address lawsuit issues that the Constitution never speaks on! It is how the principles, values and exact words and meaning of that document are best to be rationally and legally applied to those issues that matters, including precedent, for stability!

BLESSED IS THE NATION WHOSE GOD IS THE LORD

— PSALM 33:12 —

PRESIDENTS

"It is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and humbly to implore His protection and favor." — George Washington

"We have no government armed with power capable of confounding with human passions unsubordinated by morality and religion. ... Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other." — John Adams

"Before any man can be considered as a member of civil society, he must be considered as a subject of the Governor of the Universe." — James Madison

"And can the liberties of a nation be thought secure when we have removed their only firm basis, a conviction in the minds of the people that these liberties are of the gift of God? That they are not to be violated but with His wrath? Indeed I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just; that His justice cannot sleep forever." — Thomas Jefferson

"It is not that in the chain of human events, the birthday of the nation is indissolubly linked with the birthday of the Savior! That it forms a leading event in the progress of the Gospel dispensation! It is not that the Declaration of Independence first organized the social compact on the foundation of the Redeemer's mission upon earth! That it laid the cornerstone of the government upon the first precepts of Christianity?" — John Quincy Adams

FOUNDING FATHERS

"To the steady influence of Christianity we owe that degree of civil freedom, and political and social happiness, which mankind now enjoys. ... Whenever the pillars of Christianity shall be overthrown, our present republican form of government — and all blessings which flow from them — must fall with them." — Judith Sargent Murray

"An appeal to arms and to the God of hosts is all that is left us! ... Sir, we are not weak if we make a proper use of those means which the God of nature hath placed in our power. ... Besides, sir, we shall not fight our battles alone. There is a just God who presides over the destinies of nations, and who will raise up friends to fight our battles for us. ... Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take, but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!" — Patrick Henry

"I have lived, sir, a long time, and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth, that God governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without His notice, is it probable that an empire can rise without His aid? We have been assured, sir, in the sacred writings that 'except the Lord builds the house, they labor in vain who build it.' I firmly believe this; and I also believe that without His concurring aid we shall succeed in this political building no better than the builders of Babel." — Benjamin Franklin

SUPREME COURT JUSTICES

"The Bible is the best of all books, for it is the word of God and teaches us the way to be happy in this world and in the next. Continue therefore to read it and to regulate your life by its precepts." — John Jay First Chief Justice

"Providence has given to our people the choice of their rulers, and it is the duty, as well as the privilege and interest of our Christian nation, to select and prefer Christians for their rulers." — John Jay First Chief Justice

"Human law must rest its authority ultimately upon the authority of that law which is Divine. ... Far from being rivals or enemies, religion and law are twin sisters, friends, and mutual assistants. Indeed, these two sciences run into each other." — James Wilson Original Justice on the U.S. Supreme Court

"One of the beautiful boasts of our municipal jurisprudence is that Christianity is a part of the Common Law. ... There never has been a period in which the Common Law did not recognize Christianity as lying at its foundation. I verily believe Christianity necessary to the support of civil society." — Joseph Story U.S. Supreme Court Justice

CONGRESS

"We are a Christian people...not because the law demands it, not to gain exclusive benefits or to avoid legal disabilities, but from choice and education; and in a land thus universally Christian, what is to be expected, what desired, but that we shall pay due regard to Christianity?" — Senate Judiciary Committee Report, January 29, 1853

"At the time of the adoption of the Constitution and the amendments, the universal sentiment was that Christianity should be encouraged. ... In this age there can be no substitute for Christianity. ... That was the religion of the founders of the republic and they expected it to remain the religion of their descendants." — House Judiciary Committee Report, March 27, 1854

EDUCATION

"Let every student be plainly instructed and earnestly pressed to consider well the main end of his life and studies is to know God and Jesus Christ which is eternal life (John 17:3) and therefore to lay Christ in the bottom as the only foundation of all sound knowledge and learning. And seeing the Lord only giveth wisdom, let every one seriously set himself by prayer in secret to seek it of Him (Proverbs 2, 3). Every one shall so exercise himself in reading the Scriptures twice a day that he shall be ready to give such an account of his proficiency therein." — Harvard 1636 Student Guidelines

"All the scholars are required to live a religious and blameless life according to the rules of God's Word, diligently reading the Holy Scriptures, that fountain of Divine light and truth, and constantly attending all the duties of religion." — Yale 1787 Student Guidelines

SUPREME COURT RULINGS

"There is no dissonance in these [legal] declarations. ... These are not individual sayings, declarations of private persons; they are organic [legal, governmental] utterances; they speak the voice of the entire people. ... These, and many other matters which might be noticed, add a volume of official declarations to the mass of organic utterances that this is a Christian nation." — Church of the Holy Trinity v. U.S., 1892 Unanimous decision declaring America a Christian nation. Significantly, the U.S. Supreme Court cited dozens of court rulings and legal documents as precedents to arrive at this ruling. But in 1962, when the Supreme Court struck down voluntary prayer in schools, it did so without using any such precedent.

"Why may not the Bible, and especially the New Testament, without note or comment, be read and taught as a divine revelation in schools? ... Its general precepts expounded, its evidences explained and its glorious principles of morality inculcated? ... Where can the purest principles of morality be learned so clearly or so perfectly as from the New Testament?" — Vidal v. Girard's Executors, 1844 Unanimous decision commending and encouraging the use of the Bible in government-run schools

FOREIGN OPINION

"The Americans combine the notions of Christianity and of liberty so intimately in their minds that it is impossible to make them conceive the one without the other." — Alexis de Tocqueville French observer of America in 1821, author of Democracy in America

"There is no country in which the people are so religious as in the United States. ... The great number of religious societies existing in the United States is truly surprising; there are some of them for everything; for instance, societies to distribute the Bible, to distribute tracts; to encourage religious journals; to convert, civilize, educate, to take care of their widows and orphans, to preach, extend, purify, preserve, reform the faith; to build chapels, endow congregations, support seminaries, ... to establish Sunday schools, ... to prevent drunkenness, etc." — Achille Murat, French observer of America in 1832

PANDERING WITH PIPE DREAMS ON ABORTION & FREEBIES

(8/12/21-2)

I am absolutely and 100 percent aghast and appalled at nearly every D.C. Type politician, for their LACK OF MORALS! They say and do ANYTHING their advisers poll as effective for them to say or do to lure interest their way!

They have ZERO solutions or positions, to speak of, that involve common sense, or ANY mechanism to implement a just agenda. I'm starting to feel that I despise, and may one day hate most every D.C. Politician on BOTH sides of the aisle, who lies, engages hypocrisy, slanders, cheats, seeks self-serving luxuries, and voters seem to NEVER figure this out. Good luck, America!

OF ALL PEOPLE on earth, claiming if not actually true Christians should be wanting people of integrity to lead our great nation. People who won't lie to them, or seek to manipulate them, or promise them impossible things!

Dems aren't 'gonna let total abortion bans occur in any but red states, and women devoted to NOT becoming pregnant to delivery, or moms, can and will seek quack black market doctors, seek boyfriend gut punches, or attempt back alley abortions, IF Plan B is disallowed in red states, by all means (Ex.: over-the counter and off the internet).

You REALLY have to get smarter, in order to in sincerity serve Jesus, folks! That's your "Christian" duty and obligation! THINK! Analyze and critically think about the implications and motives of politicians' proposals! OR, are we really just a dumb sheep people, as believers (as often accused)? Answer for yourself!

I am old, but still too young to know if other self-help remedies and homemade procedures exist, as I wasn't thinking about abortion in 1973. I would bet even safer methods can be concocted!?

.@TheDemocrats @DNC @SenateDems @HouseDemocrats DO YOU HEAR these proposals to end Roe v Wade? WILL you allow politicians to gen up votes based on that myth and pipe dream? Red states women would use self-help, or travel costly miles, with unequal burdens! ARE YOU ASLEEP (at 4 am)?

I have said I would NOT oppose Roe overturn, but SCOTUS would still need consistent and national guidelines! We do NOT need a nation with:

1. Legal after birth abortions.
2. MORE aborting.
3. Unsafe self-help.
4. Poor women discriminated against, unconstitutionally. @USSupremeCourt

[Pence is dead to me, just as CHUMP always has been, now that I see his real character, that he'd manipulate less astute voters, for personal gain! SHAME ON YOU, claiming believer! Your good intentions are JUST LIKE liberals'—NOT well thought out! You just mouth words for votes!

.@Mike_Pence I WILL DEBATE YOU, ANY DAY, ON YOUR PROPOSAL FOR HOW TO ADDRESS THE IMMORALITY OF ABORTION! Any time, any place, any topic!]

CORRUPT politicians do not feel any need to explain their positions! No need to analyze their implications! No need to go through the challenges, nuances, or political realities of getting them implemented! They simply spew crap that polls say dumb voters want to hear! Dumb ones!

I WISH I could find an article on how to abort without pills or doctors. I can ONLY imagine horrific ways, like gut punches and coat hangers. I once heard someone speak of pre-1973 women drinking caustic substances/poisons to try to self-help. PUBLIC POLICY is going to engender that, when government's constitutional duty is public health and safety?

I GUARANTEE you Pence seeking the WH, after he coddled all this for four+ years, is going to help Dems get out more votes than his DUMB abortion proposal garners him! Try to lynch me, boss—we're still on good speaking terms? SPINELESS!

An IQ test and an are you paying taxes test BOTH seem in order, in order to vote! Too dumb, or not paying in-your vote can be and often is be evil, unjust, or both! TELL ME PENCE'S PROPOSAL FOR SCOTUS NATIONAL STANDARDS POST-ROE! @ABC @CBSnews @NBCnews @CNN @FoxNews ASK HIM THURSDAY!

ASK lynch me, we're on good speaking terms PENCE exactly what will occur if Roe is overturned, and if blue states might pass even looser abortion laws, and how Plan B bans off the internet can be enforced! DO responsible journalism! @ABC @CBSnews @NBCnews @CNN @FoxNews Investigate!

ASK lynch me, we're on good speaking terms PENCE if gut punches, poisons or coat hangers are moral and legal and good public policy to engender! DO responsible journalism! @ABC @CBSnews @NBCnews @CNN @FoxNews Investigate! LET ME debate him on your networks, any time, any day, please!

I'm MORE upset the media doesn't hold D.C. Pols accountable for their pandering political rhetoric, and the stupidity allowed in the church, than I am that Pence would be self-serving with pabulum one-liners! Can anyone think, anymore? HOLD EVERY POLITICIAN 100 PERCENT ACCOUNTABLE for every word and deed.

Lynch me we're on good speaking terms Pence believes red states will be able to claim to be abortion free, before God. That will NEVER 100 percent happen! Plan B in stores can be outlawed, but will the USPS inspect shipped packages going to red states, for internet purchases, Mikey?

IT IS NOT like Plan B manufacturers, and especially middle men, can't use many post office box return addresses! I am TRULY concerned that thinking is a dying art in America! I met a 25 year old gal, yesterday, who AGREED that her generation's information intake is dumbing them down! WISE woman!

YOU NEED TO FACT CHECK EVERY STATEMENT BY EVERY CANDIDATE RUNNING FOR OFFICE, ESPECIALLY AS PRESIDENT, FULL-TIME! Sorry to inform you you're about the only people who can, and should, by job description! @abc @cbsnews @nbcnews @CNN @FoxNews

PLEASE serve the public in this traditional way!

State's rights is what Roe overturn returns to. There are about seven criteria for when SCOTUS determines an issue is important enough to require national standards. They decided life was that important! They struck a balance between banners and free-for-all with a viability standard.

IF Roe were ended, red states would do any of these:

1. Ban every abortion.
2. Have exceptions for rape, incest and mom's life.
3. Have heartbeat laws.
4. Ban Plan B OTC and by internet.

Blue states:

1. Approve after birth and third trimester abortions .
2. Advertise for red state pregnant women.

WHO'd ACTUALLY risk coat hanger abortions, if Roe ended? Poor, emotionally desperate red state women who feared buying Plan B pills off the internet (if red state stores were banned from selling it). Gut punches would be less dangerous than poison, and black market docs would arise.

Red states women who were not poor would travel to blue states to get abortions. MS and AL have about the furthest distance. SCOTUS would get lawsuits claiming undue burden and violation of equal protection for poor red state women. DOES MIKE PENCE DISCUSS THIS before dumber voters?

Incentivizing women NOT to abort is a solution lynch me we're on good speaking terms Pence did NOT discuss, as with my four preventative solutions! DOES PENCE GO TO PLANNED PARENTHOODS to try to convince pregnant women not to abort? Isn't that called hypocrisy, if he's so concerned?

Is lynch me we're on good speaking terms Pence (LMWOGST) willing to pay for any unwanted pregnancy's costs to delivery, for any woman not in his family? Will he be there to help her with the cramps and cravings, and doctor visits? Isn't the answer proof of hypocrisy sin, claiming "Christian?"

Lynch me we're on good speaking terms, because I sat SILENT like a mannequin for FOUR years ought to be disqualifying behavior, let alone his DUMB position on abortion! If you want to lessen abortions, read what I've written many, many times! Facebook, <http://AmericanAnswers.org> and here.

Even a hypothetical hyper conservative Texas will NEVER 100 percent END abortions–period! The concept is ludicrous on its face, in its impracticality! So ANY voter who cheers such rhetoric is certifiably lacking sense! The Bible speaks AGAINST people lacking accurate knowledge, especially God's people! Wake up.

I'm FUMING over the intolerable PANDERING to MY people–Christians, in the belief that we are dolts and stupid! I can't even return to sleep, and I need it badly! THOU SHALT LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, MIND... Read the good Book–like Ragu, it's in there, folks! This is DUMB!

ANYONE who would accept 1-liners and slogans, to base their vote upon, is by definition, an idiot–period. SAME with fools who believe if you're rich, famous or physically attractive, you're qualified to lead this great nation! Have we become a nation of idiots?

ANY claiming, or even actual Christian who proves to lack intelligence is willfully slandering both the cause and Person of Christ!—period. If career politicians can say words to get your emotions riled, and you buy into that process, you are NOT serving Jesus. PREACH THAT, pastors!

To ALL non-Christians: If ANYONE ever says they're a "Christian," then says or believes anything patently stupid, PLEASE quote them (or simply say) "Matthew 22:37!" It will HELP society for them to NOT go around stupid. Fix society, by fixing people's thinking, PLEASE!

The lynch me, we're on good speaking terms position of Pence is from fear and lack of moral courage to confront the most evil politician America has seen in over 30 years! SILENT for four+ years! Those are NOT qualification for office traits, or track-record, folks! Mike Pence

Again, I will debate you on ANY subject, ANY TIME, ANYWHERE, @Mike_Pence! @ABC @CBSnews @NBCnews @CNN @FoxNews Chicken?

P.S.: HYPOTHETICALS (some people face in reality)

1. What if birth control fails? Must women pay that price, and take to term?
2. What if a poor person learns their child will be a vegetable (expensive) only in the third trimester? Will the law force them to undergo that? Far right WANTS government intervention, for THEIR causes (only)!

ABORTION Q & A

(8/13/21-2)

Let's continue our abortion discussion with some Q and A!:

1. Why would we need a national standard if Roe were overturned? Because of the atrocities and injustices some states would allow, like third trimester and after birth killings, and having zero exceptions for rape, incest and mom's life.
2. What should a post-Roe national standard be? IMO, the answer to question number one! You can't kill a baby that can feel and know/be conscious of it! You certainly can't kill one that's already birthed! He/she is not only viable, they have zero dependence on mom, but are their own person, under the Constitution!

Also, to blame and force a victim to alone bear the consequences of a crime committed against them is not fair, even though it's great for the baby.

3. Should we have laws requiring Plan B before three days of unplanned or forced sex, so ZERO humans are born as a result? I like that, but that would better be decided per state, post-Roe. A talk radio host said laws don't stop all bad behaviors, but set standards, and boundaries for what makes society better. Those same types HATE when leftists try to define what makes society better!
4. If states make abortion laws, what penalties should ensue? If conservative states outlaw them, or deem abortion murder, the woman would have to be jailed as a murder, right? The far right usually says NO, but punish the doctor, but the law was broken by the choice of the woman!
5. Is abortion murder, by U.S. Legal standards? The victim would have to be a human, under the law, and the unborn haven't proven to have "standing," because they can't even stand, outside the womb-yet. Law makers can change that, but viability affects if a victim's rights exist, when they might not, all the way to term.

6. If laws don't prevent all behaviors they seek to, enforcement becomes the issue! HOW would state laws enforce abortion bans? Will cops be allowed in people's right to privacy a home is a man's castle personal space, to look for afterbirth?

Would they need a warrant, to conduct search and seizure? Laws against murder don't stop all murders, so the far right needs to END the lie that ending Roe might end all abortions. YES, prohibition laws in red states would deter some, from fear of getting caught and punished, which is GOOD for the baby, but black markets and unsafe self-help would also result!

If the goal is no abortions, your dreaming! If less abortions is the goal, Draconian measures are NOT the answer! This issue FAILS to recognize that wanting abortion bans is what brought America Trump, division the left's revenge of almost getting an end to the filibuster, and making D.C. And Puerto Rico (Dem) states, were it not for Charles Koch of @KochIndustries, via Mr. Mansion!

The far right has YET to comprehend that forcing your extreme views ONLY engenders the other extreme, and breaks out war (figuratively, before literally). Dems even considered Court packing up to twelve Justices!

YOU are NOT the only Americans, those who crave abortion bans! We ALL live here, and majority may rule, but the minority also have rights. SCOTUS has WISELY seen that life/abortion is TOO important to be an issue that is YES for one term, then NO for a next term, when ping pong politics causes a different party to rise, from time to time!

I would be FINE with every state having its own rules on baby killing, but national guidelines of what's not allowed would still be needed! The heartbeat rule is AWESOME, and still gives a woman time to make an informed decision!

Why abortion is NOT exactly apples to apples like murder is NOT because there's no killing with death, or victim, or initiator who decides to take a life, but because of sex and viability two people are involved with creating the "problem," and two people are involved in the solution—a human baby and a human mother.

If you ONLY consider the child, women would be legally forced to take every pregnancy to term. If you only consider the mother, all unwanted unborn kids would be killed. TWO people are involved!

The law and courts can't forget that fact! Therefore, they have to consider the rights and what's just for BOTH parties! Outlawing Plan B by stores and internet sales WOULD be what some red states would do, as with contraception! Intolerable, as IT can prevent even one unwanted child being started, if used within three days of sex!

So for ANY pol of ANY stripe to run on a platform of giving his constituents hope for a fix they desperately want, without informing them of reality, is morally reprehensible and NOT adult behavior! Roe needs adjustments! It ONLY needs overturning if national standards are part of that process of overturning!

It is the ultimate far right ploy to only care about one's self, or ones state, to take a position that their state will ban abortions, and NOT care that blue states will allow partial birth, third trimester and after birth abortions, or that MORE abortions, overall, may ensue, if Roe's overturned! Saying you desire zero abortions and certainly less abortions, you can't be mono-focused, and only see Roes overturns affect in YOUR state alone! That's IGNORANT!

IF a woman got pregnant, and WASN'T showing, HOW would any abortion banning state EVER discover she used self-help to end her pregnancy? The Peter Pan fantasy of ending abortion is from stupidity! The BEST we can achieve is LESS abortions! Planning sex is the BEST remedy! Duh 101

Pandering politicians promise to give the people what they want—NOT what they need, and cater to any desire that's popular, as they aren't so much representing the people, but coddling and pandering for votes, knowing those ideals sought will often never be realized! THAT IS EVIL!

There's SO MUCH NEED for a thorough house cleaning in Washington D.C., I'm convinced that if a Jesus style table turning with whips doesn't occur, our country is doomed! Corruption, ego, lying, cheating, greed, bias, injustice. YOU VOTE FOR THESE FOOLS! Stop repeating folly! Pv. 26:11

IF only EVIL people run for office, only evil people will be in Washington D.C.! It is HIGH TIME that moral people sacrifice better paying jobs, to temporarily run for positions of public service! LAWS are NEEDED, to end the massive sinning occurring in Washington D.C..

I AM FOR, and will happily institute laws that BAN politicians cheating, lying, being unjustly biased, getting kickbacks, financially gaining from their knowledge, etc.! Just get me there, PLEASE!
<http://AmericanAnswers.org>

I am opposed to term limits, but IF America doesn't get some common sense and common decency in D.C., I am willing to change that position! <http://AmericanAnswers.org>

ABORTION INTRICACIES

(8/15/21-2)

Should state or federal governments prohibit (ban/outlaw) any and all abortions (i.e., make them criminally illegal, with fines or jail time) because abortion is killing a life God created? MANY who believe in God would answer 'yes.' Be for life, not for death. IS IT THAT SIMPLE? The same may say yes.

Raped? Take to term. Incest victim? Take to term. Mother facing do-or-die decision? Choose to sacrifice for your unborn child. EVERYONE else: If you get pregnant, and don't want to take to term, risk your health and safety, by self-help means, if you'll break the law. THIS is "Christian?"

The people who MOST claim they want government OUT of people's lives want government all into their personal sex lives, when it comes to abortion! But politics engages the hypocrisy sin ALL THE TIME!

WHO should decide what a pregnant woman should do? If government can tell you you can't control decisions about your body, health, procreation, WHAT ELSE can they tell you you can and can't do, and by what specific authority? Total/100 percent bans are "FOR" coat hangers, gut punches, black market doctors and poison remedies! I find those repulsive, inhumane, unsafe and intolerable, JUST AS is killing a baby!

MOST people, Americans included, do NOT leave their home at 7:20 am intent on murdering another human! I've watched First 48 enough to know it usually takes anger, jealous, hatred or the lust to violently steal from another, to generate a murder result. Even among the SMALL percent who kill others, FEW are so cold they do so for pleasure!

ANY grown female who has never thought one minute about her sex willingness and potentiality for rape, is a FOOL! YOU know your limits! And if you will NOT choose abstinence, until marriage (God's standard), you are FREELY choosing to risk pregnancy!

Drinking alcohol, and simple fraternizing with males on weekends CAN lead to sex! YOU KNOW THIS! What are you going to do with this knowledge? You would NOT leave your home for work and end up a wanted murderer, instead! WHY would you leave home for time around males and NOT have limits or plans or principles about how far you will go, romantically, and what can scientifically occur if you allow sex?

That lack of planning IS a choice to become a life taker, just like murderers! That's 100 percent on YOU, for NOT planning ahead! It's NOT the unpardonable sin, but YOU alone ARE taking someone else's life!

I would have NO problem with states passing laws that EVERY rape and incest victim MUST take Plan B within 2-3 days, if they don't want to take to term! I'd NEVER want government telling any mom they must sacrifice themselves for a life that may or may not be birthed, as that's the family's decision!

As to the VAST majority of abortion cases, YOU, the female, chose to get yourself into this pickle! IF you had taken birth control, it usually doesn't fail! And NEVER lie to a male that you're on it, when you're not! NOT all males use condoms, as far as I know. The woman can circumvent that!

The law has LITTLE to do with this issue and these decisions! Making all abortion legal encourages people aborting! Making them all illegal encourages self-help! Government is NOT 'gonna force women to use birth control, nor males!

There are FOUR ways to never abort:

1. Never have sex/abstinence (like NO fornication)
2. Pull out, or rhythm method
3. Birth control that doesn't fail, or,
4. Plan B within 3 days of sex

And to the people who believe even contraception and Plan B within 3 days is killing a life God created before inception, that person who so chooses ALONE bears responsibility before God for that forgivable decision and sin!

Governments do NOT pass laws for every rule in every holy book, like anti cussing or drunk at home laws. YES, life is FAR more important than those examples, but voters/citizens who do NOT so believe also have a say in the government that represents them! Equal say, with majority rule.

WOULD JESUS condone a pregnant woman being forced to have an unsafe back alley coat hanger abortion? Does He teach one should risk endangering their own life, to ensure secular laws reflect His will?

The ONLY reason I like heartbeat bills is the living baby doesn't feel the impact of that TERRIBLE, sin-full decision! I would NOT oppose any of the following state laws on the subject:

1. Exception for rape, incest and mom's life
2. Require Plan B for rape and incest victims, within 3 days
3. Mandatory public education on how to plan sex
4. Require Plan B within 3 days, if a woman is sure she doesn't want to birth the child otherwise physically created as a result

5. Prohibit, nationally, after birth, partial birth and third trimester abortions
6. Disallow any state from total bans (i.e., lacking the three exceptions)
7. Allow states to decide heartbeat, viability, or any other deadline prohibitions that allow women enough time to be informed that they're pregnant.

Total bans (no 3 exceptions, and forcing UN-safe self-help) and total freedom to do anything are BOTH bad ideas—period! GUIDELINES are needed! States can differ, but they can't cross those extreme lines, on either ends of the spectrum!

Finally, it is NOT being pro/for death, to make legal room for the woman to have a say, and not be forced to take to term, or risk criminal penalty. To be TRULY pro-life and anti-death, you do everything in your power to get everyone to plan sex, and not kill unborn babies, by the four ways I mentioned, government or no government—period!

And opposing all contraception is simply irresponsibly ASKING for troubles! People are NOT 100 percent self-restrained, when passions flair! God is NOT against planning! He is NOT against making wise choices! He is NOT against preventing bad things, when within your power to do so! Do the right thing!

Forcing women to take to term does NOT make every pregnant woman take to term! Some might fear the penalties, and do so, but not all. And what criminal penalties would be just? Murder charges? Fines? HOW would you even find out a woman aborted? It's NOT as simple as the naive believe!

P.S.: I wouldn't even oppose state laws requiring students in public and private schools being forced to watch blurred out videos of what abortion actually is/involves! INFORMED decision-making/education. I OPPOSE total bans (i.e., no 3 exceptions), and forcing unsafe self-help, because better solutions exist!

Some Americans want to kill their children any time, any place, no matter how far along in the process the 'growth' is. They believe government has no business constricting that "freedom." Such people are promiscuous, and evil, having no motherly love instinct for a person THEY started! Repent!

And using abortion for birth control, meaning in lieu thereof, is EVIL! If one accidentally, unexpectedly or forcibly becomes pregnant, that's different from choosing to have unsafe sex, knowing you can kill a baby later, to make up for that sinful decision!

IF any Americans want to force women to term, financially incentivize them to do so, and MORE women will choose NOT to abort! Volunteer to go with them and pay their medical bills, lost wages, and to console and encourage them when the cravings, pains and hard times come!

And EVERY state law I listed as not opposing, states can pass TODAY, which would be a WISE way of legally challenging the parameters of Roe, or confronting SCOTUS considering overturning it! They establish a framework of what states can and can't do, if Roe is ever reversed. They can be passed NOW!

One final intricacy: You do not have to personally be "for"/pro people killing the unborn, to believe government has a duty to protect the life and health of the woman, too. Both/and! The decision to kill even what God knew before inception is a sin. Bans won't stop all, and all must stay safe.

The MOST any state would penalize an illegally aborting woman with would be fines—NOT jail time! And that fact shows you we do NOT deem it equal with murder. How would governing authorities discover a woman engaged an illegal abortion? Laws have to have pragmatic enforcement!

(8/15-16/21-2)

If Roe ended, with no national guidelines, only poor red state women couldn't access safe and legal procedures in another state. Coat hangers would only be used if no access to Plan B, quack doctors, or poison or gut punches failed to miscarry!

Conservatives have PROVEN they want less abortions, by hospital access requirements, threatening Planned Parenthood workers jobs, cutting funding, etc. Total abortion bans WOULD scare some women into taking to term, so I guess they deem that a victory—NOT doing so morally, while NOT ending all.

If Roe ended, with no national guidelines, those who advocated for that would be personally responsible for the INcrease in blue and purple states abortions, especially third trimester, partial birth and after birth killings! That blood will be on THEIR hands, seeking DUMB/un-thought out aims!

Murder is illegal, yet it happens. Its stiff penalties deter any on the fence about committing it. What penalties do conservatives advocate for the aborting woman? SHE chose to hire her doctor; he's just doing his job! #FreeEnterprise Pro-business. How much money is a life worth?

NO ONE in their right mind can be "FOR" babies sucked out of all breath, and ripped limb to limb within the womb! They can be FOR the right to end an unwanted pregnancy, but no one is giddy over the procedure, as to the baby's impact! Sociopaths MAY find it intriguing!?

The MOST any state would penalize an illegally aborting woman with would be fines—NOT jail time! And that fact shows you we do NOT deem it equal with murder. How would governing authorities discover a woman engaged an illegal abortion? Laws have to have pragmatic enforcement!

Though it's IMPOSSIBLE to enforce, in conservative/red states, there would have to be a legal difference between aborting because you were careless, vs. raped, or had unexpected consensual sex. What fines would they charge? Killing a baby is a misdemeanor? WHY just punish the doctor?

I WOULD BET Texas' new abortion law has many ladies thinking more about sex and what to do after unplanned sex, as there's a deadline! That's a GREAT thing! They aren't forbidden their (for now, at least) federal right, but can't be as casual in planning. What's the fine if they violate?

Are inhumane abortions performed humanely, as to pain to the baby? Do doctors inject deadening fluid, as they can't put them on anesthesia? Why ANY woman wouldn't take Plan B in 2-3 days, if not wanting to birth a child, is beyond my comprehension! Err on the side of Plan B quick!

WHY don't people plan sex? They didn't know they engage it that day. IF you're willing to so engage—PLAN! Planning isn't spontaneous, but birth control allows for spontaneity without risk of starting children! Anyone could rape you, too.

If you're a Catholic, female adult, NOT taking birth control, you BETTER demand a condom, or walk away, no matter how hot the dude is, or how h-rny you are! Knowing where you are in a cycle is NOT preventative enough! And does anyone believe fornication is sin, anymore? God does!

IF anyone argues Plan B on day 1-2 after sex is sin, as its killing a person God made before then, you're stipulated as right, but that's NOT a determining factor for many people in the heat/throes of passion. We HAVE to deal with unwanted or unplanned pregnancies, as a society!

Finally, to argue someone is FOR/pro/in favor of abortion, because they want determined women to do what they're determined to do, safely, is a HUGE leap in logic, as it's called pragmatics! My eight state law proposals show as far as state laws can bend, and still keep women safe, IMO!

IF Roe ever got reversed, blue states (absent national guidelines) would do HORRIBLE things with their laws! Their increases could balance red states' decreases! If states' rights rule, you do NOT necessarily get ANY less abortions! Illegal ones in red states; more in blue states!

Those who shy away from aborting, if illegal in red states, would be a percent, just as law breakers would be a percent. FEW in blue states would avoid aborting, as there's NO restraints! My four solutions and eight laws are state of the art best for red states, as with my national guidelines range.

I also have no idea how Roe overturn could be had, with guidelines for national laws boundaries. I do know a court case from lower courts has to rise to SCOTUS that challenges its validity. Can Congress pass a law to overturn it? I oppose it ended with no plan for thereafter!

Presumably, every state would revert to the laws on the books before Roe. There are BAD and extreme positions some states might have taken, or choose to pass, that can't be had at any state level, like after birth abortions. SCOTUS doesn't make laws. D.C. is dysfunctional, to fix this!

Blue state extremists would allow ANY abortions, even after birth, or partial birth abortions, or third trimester. Some red states would force bans of all abortions, where pregnant gals would have to travel out of state, or do self-help, as with raped and incested victims! They want such laws.

You can say the state majority wants these extremes, but unless there's a voter referendum, that's only rhetoric! Will every state put abortion laws to the people's vote, then what happens when demographics change, by population aging, illegals, immigration and northerners moving south?

Besides gerrymandering and voter suppression, those are the ways minority party out of power seeks to become majority party! SCOTUS decided life is too important for hodge podge laws for such a fundamental right! Extremists will always fight what they don't like, like reasonable laws

WOULD Texas vote for a total ban on all abortions? Maybe 30 years ago. Maybe not 10 years from now. Women's rights should NOT be subject to such a fickle basis of what types of people move to Texas! And the equal protection clause impacts forcing women to travel 'outa state to abort.

Some liberals might have buyer's remorse, once made parents, and want the right to abort before taking their newborn home! These extremes have to be nationally boundaried, with flexibility inbetween, as to who can't abort, and by what date! No matter the law(s), people can break them.

IF SCOTUS overturned Roe, can they set national guidelines extremists can't cross, in their opinion? That's law-making, so likely not. And D.C. Won't agree on anything, as between extremes, such as such guidelines, so extreme state laws WOULD ensue, in some cases! NOT desirable!

What's "Constitutional" is now a matter of finding any judge who will support your opinion! God help America! IS the future of politics court stacking with extremists supporting your party? WHY pay any politicians, if so?

NO other policy matters, if abortions aren't outlawed. The ONLY issue in life is banning abortions! God doesn't care about character, good policy, peace in the land, vs. division. JUST force pregnant women to term! THIS IS GOP religious' sole concern--NOT God's!

@FoxNews @ABC @ABCnews @CBSnews @NBCnews @CNN All or nothing, win-lose!

Whoever their nominee is will be backed if he/she seeks that same end, including MORE conservative Justices, hoping to outlaw abortions! @TheDemocrats @SenateDems @HouseDemocrats But @JoeBiden can't expand its number.

The aborting mother is guilty (except for rape and incest) and the unborn innocent, but that doesn't mean the mother has no say! That's the same logic as saying minorities have no say, as NOT the majority, or there's zero role for the party out of power!

You MUST know!: The religious GOP's already stacked SCOTUS, to overturn Roe. If Roe ended, with no national guidelines, all but red state women would be encouraged to never use birth control—just have sex out the wazoo, especially if abortion costs were subsidized, or came down. Plan B sales would skyrocket!

If Roe ended, with no national guidelines, red state black market/underground clinics (or traveling doctors) would pop up all over! Red states would ban Plan B sales off internet and in person. Maybe even ban all birth control.

If you can convince a woman of the adoption option, and not to abort, through sonograms or pregnancy center counseling, MORE POWER TO YOU, and you have done a great service to humanity, and for God and His gift of that baby! If you can't, that's her call.

Update #2

Politicizing the judiciary (it's already happening on mask mandates), happened on Roe reversal (SCOTUS), and seems to be the future for INEPT at doing their law-making job pols. @CNN @NBCnews @ABCnews @FoxNews @CBSnews @ABC Court shop until you get your way! Judg. 17:6 And history repeats itself!

JUST LIKE religious GOP's will tout abortion bans as THE issue that gens up votes, Dems will again offer freebies galore, to buy votes off taxpayers' backs!

NEED I clarify my position on Socialism? I'm against all freebies, but not opposed to any subsidies being fairly repaid to taxpayers, in whatever form. I'm for Welfare empowering people to live on what they make, ASAP, and for taxes as low as can be reasonably had! WHAT party am I?

YOU ARE BLIND if you can't see religious GOP's care NOTHING about justice from SCOTUS and federal judges, so long as they rule in their favor on outlawing abortions! @CNN @ABC @ABCnews @NBCnews @CBSnews @FoxNews @TheDemocrats @SenateDems @HouseDemocrats @JoeBiden ARE YOU blind as a bat?

God doesn't care about pollution, justice, poverty, wars, solving problems, racism, hatred and division vs peace. He ONLY cares that abortions cease. —Religious GOP's (sin-fully ignoring His FULL counsel; Ac 20:27) @ABCnews @CBSnews @NBCnews @FoxNews @CNN @ABC I think GOP's are seeking ways to gen up 2022 votes.

IF the GOP had an articulate, compelling platform, we wouldn't have to be fighting among brethren over technicalities of but one issue offered to the public! Is 2022 just going to be an appeal to emotion, over intelligence? WHERE'S NEWT's WINNING (and unifying) AGENDA? I can help! Is the party (formerly) of thinking over feelings now FOR dumbed-down appeals?

@gtconway3d Christian adversaries in this conflict do NOT disagree on much, yet their divide is HEATED! I've said I don't oppose Roe being overturned, BUT I HAVE THOUGHT THROUGH THE IMPLICATIONS and they usually have NOT! National boundaries would be a must! WHO'd set and enforce them?

ABORTION: ONE IMPORTANT ISSUE AMONG MANY

(8/17/21-2)

ITS A COP OUT to say MY state obeys God, and we ban all abortions, and feel holy about yourself when your political actions caused the death of so many babies elsewhere! That's being an ostrich! God NEVER commands Christians to think stupidly!

There are friends of the court (amicus) briefs SCOTUS RARELY acts on; there are conflicts of laws between fed appeals courts they hear; there are state laws that fly in the face of established fed precedent which they take up, or laws Congress passes that get challenged to them..

I seriously doubt an executive order could force SCOTUS to reconsider Roe! I'm by far not alone in the Americans who oppose ANY American riling up votes through deception, like promising UNjust freebies, or in any way implying voters or a President can force SCOTUS to overturn Roe; that's EVIL!

Even considering Roe Roe Roe your boat being capsized, the will of the people is A factor, and majority rule is another one, in American democracy! One group may life-or-death want a certain end, but no man (or loud voice) rules the roost in a democracy. And that's NOT how SCOTUS works!

Lawyers would have to find a glaring legal error in that ruling, like arbitrary and capricious, overreach, unconstitutional conclusion that the unborn don't have standing, or that 'life' includes those alive in the womb! They've had nearly 50 years to consider those options, and haven't!

IT IS EVIL to politicize the courts! IT IS short-sighted to say you agree with that, but NOT on abortion, so you'll seek Justices to overturn Roe, and hope and pray they'll NOT be biased on every other ruling of theirs. That's naive, Kindergartner "thinking!"

IT IS EVIL, and an UNbiblical and God disobedient support of INjustice to seek to stack any court your way–period (politicizing)! YES, strict interpretation IS the Constitutionally RIGHT way, but conservatism is NOT 100 percent the only ideology one can derive from that great document!

IMO, the @USSupremeCourt, overall, does an EXCELLENT job at being professionals, even though they individually differ. They have derived a reasoned structure for considering cases and overturns, and they RARELY get things wrong! THEY know they're apolitical. Some Americans do not!

Before Roe, abortions occurred. They were riskier than today! They were less than today. If EVERY friend or family member who opposes abortion took the effort to seek to counsel any unwantedly pregnant, the numbers would go down! It's ultimately a failure of the family, or church!

IF you haven't instilled moral values in your child enough to prevent unwanted pregnancies, and they aren't rebels (which some become, absent your involvement), and if the church had done Gods amount of evangelism and discipling, abortions would be FAR lower! LOOK IN THE MIRROR of society!

The sexual revolution and Roe case are and were a mere outgrowth of the Church abandoning God's priorities for numerical growth, IMO! Life in the 50's and before was far simpler, and holier. The CHURCH is to be the watchman and bastion of hope and holiness! We FAILED that task! II Chron. 7:14

YET, sin's increase is prophetically INEVITABLE! Mt. 24:12; II Tim. 3:1-2 I sometimes wonder if we Christians in America are too dotarded as to notice these claims of climate change are mere precursors of biblically expected signs in the natural order that Christ's return is imminent?

IMO, even some Christians get devilishly drawn into extremes, like UN-Christlike warring with the political enemy, and insisting on our own way (or the highway), and NOT seeking justice! READ MORE BIBLE, and listen LESS to talk radio, politicized Christians! I Cor. 14:33;

An article I retweeted states many states have been seeking outright abortion bans, for years. LET ME INTERPRET, for lower IQs: That means those people WANT women to cram coat hangers where the sun don't shine (PRE Plan B), IF they won't choose to take to term! THAT IS E-V-I-L, even from Christians!

Mandatory metal chastity belts are about the only way of guaranteeing zero abortions! Even if the saved sheep were to clap if pastors taught that opposing abortion is "conservative" and "Christian" DOESN'T mean ANY of them have considered the whole picture, the legalities and all consequences! Love God with ALL your mind, as well as heart!

Update #1

Let's play out a hypothetical... Texas bans all abortions. Forget rape, incest and the mom's life, for now. If contraception failed, women would want to travel elsewhere, and would be free to do so (PRE Plan B)! It would also force women to think twice about having unprotected sex! What penalty would attach?

WOULD JESUS tell the woman at the well, suffer a gut punch, travel out of Samaria, use a coat hanger, or visit a black market doctor, if it instituted total abortion bans (PRE Plan B)? He would NOT encourage her to abort/take a life! He would seek to convince her to save the child! #WWJD

My wife has had three kids. She's endured childbirth TWICE (twins). She's had the eating binges, pain and cramps, and maybe some missed work. Nine months is NOT forever, but the stain of killing your own flesh and blood probably will be felt forever! Unexpectedly pregnant? Consider the adoption option!

Conservatives CLAIM they hate mandates! They always want choices and free market solutions. Total abortion bans are mandates—period. Isn't this lesson in sinful hypocrisy clear enough to all, that I need say no more?

Conservatives don't want to use tax dollars to incentivize women on the fence to take to term, rather than aborting, as it's much easier to demand they comply with our wishes, than to put our money where our mouths are!

I don't deny their sincerity, but they haven't worked through all the implications! How convenient!

IF the Democrats promised to overturn Roe, pro-lifers would STILL vote Republican, as it's often more about money than morality. Mt. 6:24

I do NOT believe Roe is unflawed. It NEEDS fixing! STATES can and should do so! States SHOULD have MORE liberty to express their majorities, as Texas did with the heartbeat law! The problem is, some blue states want third trimester, partial birth and post-birth.

Especially if a horrific deformity were only discoverable in the third trimester, they want that trimester as an option! The problem also is red states seeking total bans. If there's ANY legislation one could dictate, or convince both sides to pass, it would be a national standard for boundaries to both extremes on abortion!:

1. The woman HAS to have enough time pass to be informed that she's pregnant, in red states.
2. Red states would NOT be allowed to ban every abortion (the three exceptions are valid).
3. Red states CAN require rape and incest victims to take Plan B before three days expire (the time before the sperm penetrates the egg/fertilization).
4. Any state CAN require private and public schools to show blurred-out video and/or pictures of the actual abortion procedure, and MUST teach how to prevent unwanted pregnancies.
5. Red states will want to ban Plan B, in person or over the internet. To do so WOULD lead to unsafer self-help measures of the 1950's!
6. Fines must be reasonable for red states punishing law breakers—NOT jail time! Maybe $500, NOT as the price of a life, but deterrence and pain, but not excessive (punishment matches the crime, and about the cost of the least expensive abortion). Fines can vary, up to a range. Blue states can charge zero penalty, if so desired.
7. The mothers' life is up to her and her family.
8. Zero government officials can ever break and enter, even with a warrant, seeking evidence of self-help, in a woman's home.
9. Lie detectors will NEVER be allowed by doctors seeking to discover if the pregnancy was unwanted, or just poor planning.
10. Licensed doctors can't be sued for doing a legal procedure. Black market doctors in red states would be breaking the law, and state law penalties must be reasonable.
11. NO state can ban contraception.
12. Every state is encouraged to run PSA's, and pass public policies that encourage PLANNED sex, and discourage at-will abortions, or using abortion in lieu of contraception!

13. Required sonograms to see the image of the baby and hear its heartbeat may be up to the states themselves.

14. NO state can be required to subsidize abortions.

15. No woman can be forced to pay for an aborted person's funeral.

These are REASONABLE!

IF there's ANY way D.C. Could bring about these 15 parameters for a national standard, post-Roe, if I were in office I'd even petition SCOTUS to reconsider that law, but no one should EVER UNjustly stack SCOTUS, as if we are so stupid as to think that doesn't affect many other policies than just Roe!

For the dupes of the world, who worship slogans, this position is pro-life, health and safety, JUST AS the U.S. Constitution and Declaration of Independence are!

Whether blue states can allow third trimester, partial birth or after birth abortions, post-Roe, would also be up to SCOTUS to decide, and whether the third trimester ban had an exception for late-discovered serious and/or specified bodily challenges! Ending Roe is NOT as simple as pandering politicians imply!!!

Update #2

If a mass murder was known to be snatching school kids off the street and fatally shooting them, the authorities would NOT allow another death. Unfortunately, that's NOT the exact same thing as Planned Parenthood, either cause of the age, method, or existence inside another's womb. However, for the baby, the results are exactly the same! They're INNOCENT! The did NOT ask to be brought into this world!

Our laws favor the innocent victim over criminals. Some Americans deem these two examples the exact same, yet they NEVER tackle women entering Planned Parenthood, or shoot abortion doctors, EVEN THOUGH you'd be legally justified (in some states) to shoot a mass murderer in the act, like happened in a Texas church.

There are differences, but we can all agree abortions should be kept to a minimum. There is NO excuse for NOT using protection, except in the case of rape or incest! Be responsible!

IF these logical, practical, and as moral as can be made in a non-theocracy abortion positions make adherents persona non grata in the GOP, LET US KNOW, as we can go elsewhere! They are FAR superior to emotion, rhetoric, slogans, and pandering for pipe dreams, address everyone's concerns, and are wise!

Continuing

Man on the street questions I asked two, and most will answer the same:

1 and 2. In the cases of rape or incest, should the law require the victim to take to term?

3. If pregnant under any circumstances, should the law require taking to term, no matter when she discovers it? Both said 'NO,' and it should be her decision.

IF public sentiment shifted some, to see abortion as literally gruesome as it literally is (factually), peer pressure is a powerful force to sway some females to decide earlier on if they're going to keep or kill their baby!

The far right WANTS 100 percent abortion bans, nationally, if Roe is overturned! The far left wants third trimester, partial birth and after birth abortions, nationally, if Roe is overturned! The race to keep or reverse Roe is NOT what's important, but what would follow! That's why I hate pandering politicians!

Polar opposites CAN'T peacefully coexist! You cannot have anything goes or nothing goes, on national abortion policy! It's IMPOSSIBLE! States' rights would cause some very horrific results in blue states, without national guidelines! It would also cause total bans in some red states!

The three abortions liberals and blue states could enact are reprehensible for the baby, who feels and probably knows all that's occurring to him/her. NO anti-abortion person can wash their hands and live at peace allowing that to occur if Roe ended! Your push for its end CAUSES those evils, absent national guidelines/boundaries!

And total abortion bans MEAN:

1. Coat hangers in crotches, or gut punches, or poison or black market doctors, IF Plan B is banned and the ban enforced.
2. Rape and incest victims get punished (i.e., further victimized, at least psychologically), IF they don't want to take to term.
3. The mother has NO say—just suicide—if she's pregnant, and it comes down to which life to take. These are UNDENIABLE results.

CAN ANYONE IN THEIR RIGHT MIND say those evils at both extremes are acceptable? Pushing for Roe's overturn, without addressing what comes next, is like pulling out of Afghanistan, without a plan for what would ensure, which CHUMP, Pence, Biden and Harris ALL did to those poor people!

I know religious people care ZERO, legally, about the pregnant guilty woman's concerns about abortion! They ONLY care about the innocent baby's rights! Wise King Solomon faced a similar dilemma, balancing two sides' interests! My solutions consider all involved! Let's recap:

1. ZERO abortions requires mandatory metal chastity belts, worn full time, by every American woman—period! That's a PIPE DREAM!
2. LESS abortions is ALL you can hope and pray for! A determined woman will have one, no matter the law. Cops aren't going to break and enter and pull Plan B from her mouth.
3. LESS abortions can come from PSAs on planning sex, public and PRIVATE school required education on safe sex and planning, including showing what abortion is for the baby!
4. Public sentiment against unneeded abortions from poor planning could sway some women to plan better, and use contraception.
5. LESS abortions WON'T come from Roe's end, in blue and purple states!
6. LESS abortions can be had by red states legally requiring rape and incest VICTIMS to take Plan B within 72 hours of being crime victims! Put it in rape kits, IF she doesn't want to take to term—her choice!
7. LESS abortions come from perfect contraception that can't break, and you turn it on and off.
8. LESS abortions come from having conversations with females at and after puberty! Friends and fam have the greatest influence, as with church/pastors! Teach about safe sex!...
9. LESS abortions would come from abstinence, but FEW in our evil generation will consider God's way!

10. LESS abortions come from crisis pregnancy centers, private and religious, intervening all across America! Sonograms and counseling, etc.
11. LESS abortions come from females using birth control, as some men will reject condoms, and they could break. Women should NEVER lie about contraception, to hook any man!
12. LESS abortions can come from forcing women to decide if they want to be moms, earlier than the baby can feel her fatal choice! Heartbeat laws, etc.
13. LESS abortions can come from revival, where the Church does what God said they were to do— evangelize and disciple. Pipe dreams about NO abortions if Roe is overturned are lies and sinful! That's riling up votes with emotion vs. facts! God HATES lying! I hate liars!

Continuing

If we can just overturn Roe, everything will be fine! Abortions will be thrown on the ash heap of history! NOT! ALL state laws revert to pre-Roe, where states allowed and disallowed them, which conflict prompted SCOTUS intervention! and unsafe and "illegal" means start! and Plan B exists

IF ANYONE feels my writings on abortion prove I am for the procedure, they're IQ challenged! and if anyone hates that I roast people who tout pipe dreams to voters,

1. God is against liars
2. God is against ignorant Christian practice! You just FEEL offended, as the truth may hurt!

Overturning Roe will cause a flurry of state law changes! Many will an them all; many will allow any aborting any time. If that makes anyone feel better about themselves or their state, and they're incapable of seeing what it does to the total abortions, I can't help you think better!

If anyone thinks total bans totally end abortions, I can't help you increase your IQ! If anyone thinks Roe made abortions legal, so no Roe makes them all illegal, READ this: <https://bbc.com/news/world-us-canada-44713614...>

Binary thinking is NOT always the smartest! (win-lose; either/or; yea or nay). NO panacea
That article says 23 states would be able to ban abortion outright. That means (you have to be able to interpret English words!)

1. Rape and incest victims can't abort, or even use Plan B within three days.
2. Mothers' life would require suicide
3. Unsafe and illegal abortions would happen!
4. Red state PG women would travel to purple or blue states
5. Women in red states WOULD plan their sex better, which is a GOOD thing!
6. Coat hangers, gut punches, poison, quack black market docs, or Plan B in person or by internet would increase. This is #CommonSense, folks!

and let's talk Re SCOTUS' reputation, once politicized! DOWN THE DRAIN! They are Constitutionally designed to be apolitical! If they ended Roe, depending on their reason (changed circumstances?), and left no national boundaries, WHO would trust them again to be objective? NOT ME!!!

Their interpretations of laws HAVE to be originalist and literal, as laws were meant to be defined and applied. However, politically, it is EVIL to stack SCOTUS to your extreme base, Dem or GOP! That's injustice/bias, and NOT their role as the apolitical judiciary! Its SINning vs winning.

ANYONE who believes might makes right, or sin is OK if it's for a moral end, DISbelieves THIS verse!: Rom 6:1 The ends justify the means is a satanic belief! Stacking SCOTUS to your position, vs seeking justice, is anti-God! Isa 33:15

JUST LIKE gun sales INcrease, anytime gun grabber fears erupt over gun law legislation, Plan B sales will SKYROCKET, and secret stashes will be hoarded in red states, if Roe's end could lead to red states total bans of all abortions! Groups will provide them, covertly, in red states

IS Jesus pro violence? (no) Gut punches are violent! Is Jesus FOR endangering one's health and life? (no) Coat hangers can cause women to bleed out! Total bans are totally un-well-thought-out, folks! I'm against abortion, but I also have a brain I seek to use on the issue, thanks to God!

I REFUSE to make abortion the number one issue in my campaign! It's one important issue among many! I'm NOT a one-trick pony, on single issue voter, AS IF Americas only problem is Roe! That's more mono-focused than a race horse with blinders on! Ending Roe DOESNT end abortions! Pv. 1:22

INABILITY to get to hearts is why government mandates are being sought by "freedom loving" cons! You DON'T have to convince women to not have sex, JUST take birth control! That solves everything, except when it fails! It's NOT anti-God to RESPONSIBLY protect against unwanted pregnancy!

ABORTION ADD-ONS

(8/18-19/21-2)

To argue that birth control thwarts a person God knew before inception is to say if we never have sex, or have sex out the wazoo, we are doing God's will in bringing those people into existence. Have 100 kids! WHO KNOWS if God knew 100 kids before YOU had sex! IS THIS OVER PEOPLE'S HEADS?

Failing to have sex (abstinence), under that "thinking" thwarts God bringing into existence someone He may know already, even though He teaches against fornication. Sexual perverts and whores are bringing into existence people He already knows? The concept is ludicrous, when applied. We are responsible for what we can know and can control!

NOTHING and NO ONE is killed using Plan B within 72 hours of unprotected sex (unwanted and unplanned pregnancies). God knows who He knows, before they're humanly conceived. The BEST practice is safe sex! There's NO excuse not to. Even rapes get thwarted by birth control, Catholics!

God did NOT create cars, but we use them all the time, and that's NOT evil, except to the Amish! Birth control is the SAME THING! God didn't create it, but He does teach responsible living, using the brain He gave you, and planning and avoiding bad things, if within your power, folks!

I GUESS a Christian could have a great conscience telling God that in their state, they chose to have laws that would never allow any unborn babies to be killed. But since BETTER ways exist, then endangering women, maybe not so much!

I KNOW people 100 percent sincerely against all abortion, NOT to win elections! However, when it's used to gen up GOP votes, as a conscious strategy (not addressing post-Roe realities), it's EVIL, because of its lack of thinking of a whole agenda to offer voters, IMO!

Public policy shouldn't encourage killing babies, or endangering women's lives. BOTH parties err on the side they're most for. My views address both concerns! It's EASY to say total ban law breakers just suffer the consequences, like death by coat hanger, until the numbers get large enough (PRE-Plan B)!

Access to Plan B will be THE issue! NO ONE is going to use a coat hanger, gut punch, poison or black market doctor, in our modern era. Bans in person and by internet would be HARD to fully enforce! USPS will open up all packages, like ED and purple pill medicines in the mail? Be real!

Interjection

The life of a human is especially sacred. Babies are the innocents. Christians are to support biblical values. Put these three premises together, and most Christians only know how to vote—NOT administer government or bring justice to all! It's sincere, but it's simplistic, too! Pastors teach flocks!

They're almost brainwashed like robots to believe bans will end abortion. They're NOT famously intelligent, if they couldn't see Satan's man for what he always displayed: 100 percent OPPOSITE Christian values. Mike Lindell is the worst of these! A complete drug damaged fool! This is how God's reputation gets slandered!

Total bans mean if contraception fails, or one is raped, an incest victim, or mother's life hangs in the balance, it's a crime if they self-help! WHY ARE God's claiming people too often too stupid to know this? Pastors "think" FOR them, for politics, I guess!

If any woman dies or has serious injury or disease, these people believe that's just the cost of one breaking the law they fought for—total abortion bans. The hubby and family can't say if mom or the sibling baby dies—just ban aborting. Adoption is the ONLY option, or keep your child to term!

You HAVE to commend the three Justices CHUMP tapped, for TEMPORARILY not tipping their hands in their rulings! I hope and pray they remain independent, and honest to their pledges, and NOT political. Time will tell. You don't expose your motives for years, if your evil! 45's were on open display.

FYI: What Abortion Was Like In The U.S. Before Roe V. Wade

<https://www.npr.org/2019/05/20/725139713/what-abortion-was-like-in-the-u-s-before-roe-v-wade>

Continuing

There exist a very few people who believe life comes into a baby well into a pregnancy. However, HOW could it (he or she—there's only two genders) be growing if it were dead and lifeless before such time?

It was a legal term for the courts to decide WHEN does the baby get rights apart from their mom's rights? They determined it rational that when the baby could live on its own, were it outside the womb, and the birthing itself gave standing, as you still aren't sure the baby will be alive on its own until then.

They were seeking to balance the interests of two extremes: Ban everyone for everything, or allow everyone anything, about abortion! That's NOT "evil" lawyer discussions like the ancient priest discussions of how many angels fit on the head of a pen! You must have rights that the law recognizes, or you don't get your day in court!

Illegals don't have those rights in America, under our Constitution, as they are NOT citizens, Americans, and they committed trespass or breaking and entering just to physically be here.

I want total zero abortions, but NOT by government mandate! Rape and incest victims should have the choice, but make that choice within three days, to use or not use Plan B.

WHY does ANYONE become unwantedly pregnant, absent rape? You KNOW contraception RARELY fails! It's MAINLY because they choose (pro-choice) NOT to practice safe sex, which means no condom or no 'the pill' by the woman.

That is a choice, and the law making you make a better choice on this matter is a VERY good thing! Like stating that you can be fined if you don't have sex safely? How could that ever be enforced (and people lie to authorities, to save their own skin).

I've never owned or touched a condom. I don't know why some wouldn't use them. I've been told they're not natural or comfortable. IF so, is new technology available to change that alleged problem?

Birth control doesn't kill or murder anyone! Lack of using it causes problems, and God is not in the advocating for more problems game, excepting trials He alone brings our way-not self-induced calamities!

Continuing

Let's talk about comparative innocence. Babies are sinners, even though they have yet to knowingly commit one in the womb, that WE know about (perhaps selfishness, or anger), and aren't yet old enough to know right from wrong (age of accountability). YET, compared to a mom who CHOSE not to safely have sex, SHE alone (with some male) is the guilty party!

Our laws always target the culprits-NOT the innocents, or victims! So why aren't total abortion bans EXACTLY like a murderer and a murder victim?-I guilty, one innocent? It's NOT because the child is born a sinner! It's mainly because the child has rights, and so does his or her mom, as it is NOT her body, but part of it, but a completely separate part that belongs to someone else who is NOT her.

Having two rights involved, one unable to speak for itself, their desires are polar opposite! Shouldn't the courts have sided with the one innocent? Many say yes; many say no. Nine months seems a lengthy "sentence" for a rape or incest victim to relive the trauma, if she doesn't want to (especially when she never has to kill anyone, using Plan B within three days)!

NO OTHER use of your body does the U.S. Government restrict, on your freedoms to do whatever you want with, like plastic surgery, or getting any surgery you want or need. But a baby is NOT like excising a wart! So it's (he or she) rights must also be considered.

That's why the courts investigated whether the child HAS legal rights, uncertain it can live apart from mom, and will come to fruition. NO MATTER WHAT anyone thinks of their legal conclusions, no one in their right mind can rejoice or celebrate that baby in process being KILLED! Every American should do ALL within their control and power to PREVENT the situation where anyone considers killing their very own flesh and blood!

On that innocence issue, specifically, the baby wins! On the legal rights before a judge matter, they couldn't have their day in court without their mom, and without being birthed. SCOTUS didn't see in our Constitution rights inherent in non-citizens, which babies are, pre-birth, in many states, at least, and before them, in that decision.

It's like animals suing in court, except kids aren't animals, but the capacity to possess legal rights has to make sense, and no one can say for sure a plaintiff can appear in court until they're born. You may not agree with their rationale, and you may still believe all abortions are homicide, but instead of forcing women to use modern coat hangers, WHY don't you advocate for the several solutions I have proposed, including laws that keep abortions to a minimum? NOTHING can stop a committed woman wanting termination

Its cold-hearted to say "let her die or bleed out, or be injured herself" to force a ban, then wash your hands of considering what could happen to her. However, in the advent of Plan b, all these arguments are archaic! It's all about bans on its access in red states, post-Roe! Bye

Some say condoms break the mood, and make sex sterile/sanitary. That's why women should always use birth control. When MANKIND constantly makes bad decisions they feel necessitate aborting, NO ONE can criticize God for saying thou shalt not abort (which aren't exact quotes).

One talk radio dude said laws set standards and display cultural values, even though they get violated. In FACT, they're rules society has deemed unacceptable normal behavior, enforced by penalties. And what does a total abortion ban say about society?

YES, that killing babies is evil, but ALSO that women who got caught up in romance should be punished (not that babies are punishment, but nine months can serve as such, to the women), and that society doesn't care about the health and welfare of any who are raped or incest victims (unless Plan B within three days).

Are our U.S. Laws REALLY seeking to be a reflection of society's values? He also said the preventative purpose of laws deters some. TRUE. Some women won't have the courage to swallow a Plan B pill, in our modern day (vs coat hangers or stair falls of old)? JUSTICE is what laws SHOULD stand for, and promoting goodness. Rom. 13

The definitions thereof can differ, pols are to represent voters, and laws are ultimately what rules our country, not men or personal feelings. Cops are restrained by them (NOT total freedom!). Point being, laws aren't ideals, but minimal acceptable behaviors citizens can't drop/stoop below!

IF they were to define society, or be our aspirational ideas (vs pragmatic boundaries to evil), adultery, drunkenness, cussing, arrogance, greed, selfishness would ALL be banned. NOT in a non-theocratic democracy!

The same talk show guy said laws are to make society better. Better than with rampant evil. Laws don't change hearts, but some behaviors. Less abortions would make society better, but endangering women's health and lives in the process doesn't. It's a Solomonian dilemma extremists are polarized on.

TWO ABORTION EXTREMES

(9/26/21)

HERE are the two extremes on abortion: Ban them all, nationally, or anything goes, nationally! Ending Roe MEANS state's rights, which means any state can pass any law they want on the subject!

Texas already has a San Antonio doctor challenging its heartbeat law, and the House just passed a proposed law of aborting any baby any time during all of pregnancy, nation-wide. Extremes can't get along. They can't have peace, vs. division! They can't all be made happy. Of course, making people happy isn't the purpose of laws, but SCOTUS is far wiser than individuals self-focused legal aims!

MY solution makes BOTH extremes unhappy, as its balanced, which is why it's probably best! The far right would HATE that blue states keep Roe limits, and blue states would hate heartbeat laws if the woman has medical proof she's pregnant, making rape and incest victims take Plan B within three days, unless they want a baby, letting moms and their family decide between her or the baby dying, when push comes to shove.

I DON'T CARE that this great solution doesn't make extremists happy! IF SCOTUS went with NO guidelines, post-Roe, EVERY state would do whatever they want.

Some would ban all abortions, some would use heartbeat, some would stay with Roe, and many would allow after birth-, partial birth, and third trimester abortions!

IF SCOTUS had NO guidelines (as the far right extremists clamor for), less abortions would likely occur in red states, and more in blue states. IF the extremists got their way, nationally, all states would ban all abortions (basically forcing sex only for procreation, and if raped, incest or contraception failed, too bad!), and self-help, back alley coat hanger women endangerment would ensue, as with black- and quack market doctors, poison, gut punches, Plan B over the internet or illegally (if banned) before it can't do its function, and travel to other states; OR, the opposite: Every state COULD abort after birth, partial birth or third trimester, and if a baby is deemed to be handicapped!

MY REASONABLE solution angers BOTH extremes, but is consistent with state's rights and the purpose of Roe intervention, which is some national consistency! Red states would still have women who traveled elsewhere, or used self-help, and blue states could be encouraged NOT to abort, via privately paid for TV ads!

SCOTUS sought to strike a BALANCE, with Roe, and viability makes rational (if not moral) sense, in that the baby can be its own person, at that point, NOT dependent on mom or her decisions.

IF Roe gets overturned. A national standard is a MUST, or state laws will go to SCOTUS anyway! Even Texas' law will go to SCOTUS. And whenever Democrats get enough D.C. Power, they'll codify Roe, which will also get to SCOTUS!

Therefore, stacking SCOTUS to your extreme is EVIL and unjust, even if one's motive is good (as I've consistently said). There's EVIL everywhere!

So, to consider EVERY state's interests, for national consistency, to avoid endangering women, and to respect state's rights and federalism/federal authority, MY solution is the best option possible, or revising Roe to make that solution its improvements!

Extremists hate each other, and want war, and are arrogant that their opinion alone matters, in a democracy, and think they have a God-given right to shove their views on everyone else, left and right. The rest of us KNOW these past five years haven't been pleasant, and it started by backing the most evil politician to undo Roe! FACT!

And now Texas even is trying to undo gay marriage rights! NOTHING is precedent. There are NO settled laws. Everything is in upheaval. With that EVIL attitude, why not end the fifth amendment, and make Brian laundries' parents speak?

This ALL began with supporting EVIL, for a good cause, or intention, which is OPPOSITE God's truth, and therefore anti-God! Rom. 3:8, 6:1

It's HUMAN engineering/manipulating/scheming, and NOT trusting that God is in control of all that occurs! And it's using SIN-to-win! That is the genesis of all the ill-will, division, and even violent protests of BLM.

The seeds were sown when 76 percent CARNAL Christians backed evil in 2016, because we lived up to our reputation of being blind faith stupid, and can't differentiate between Bible morals and how they apply in a NON-theocracy! IF SCOTUS isn't balanced, there goes their reputation!

And how many sins got three conservative Justices on SCOTUS, be it bribes, payoffs, lying (including to Congress), or otherwise? I'm NOT alleging any, but we need to know any and all!

The point is it is NOT faith in God, but man! It's NOT Gods morals, but satan's! NO WONDER the industry is so LOWly reputed! Two Justices WISELY decided they needed to speak out on this problem, perceived in society, or experienced among their ranks: Amy Coney Barrett and Clarence Thomas. THEY care about the JUST reputation of our highest Court. Some, for SIN, don't!

The devil ALWAYS gives excuses/reasons to compromise morals and sin, like the Dems aren't playing fairly, so we can't! NO real Christian can be in the politics business, unless they live the life, which would make them unusual to what we see today! Go along to get along sin compromise.

And God's moral standards apply to everyone—NOT just Christians! Ecc. 12:13 You must be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. We're dumb as ducks and guilty as sin! Lord, judge US! NO WONDER our nations going to Hell in a hand basket, when sin-fulness is called "leadership," even among pastors who engage these sin-to-win tactics. You can pray for revival, but God is not mocked.

Some ""pastors"" are political prostitutes! They will get in bed with ANY policies and voting bloc, so long as that groups will vote to uphold their one-trick pony idol of a total nation-wide abortion ban. Sell your soul, like a hooker/whore sells her body!

ABORTION EXTREMES (Part II)

(9/28/21-2)

DO YOU SEE the insanity of the two extreme positions on abortion? One says:

1. If you birth your child, then decide you either don't like it, or want it, kill it, but somehow that's not murder.
2. If your kid is shown to be medically imperfect, do away with it before YOU have to endure that trial, any time before it comes out.
3. If, for any reason, you ever decide you don't want to be a parent of the child YOU chose to start, kill it. You have as long as you want to make this decision. You alone—not even the father—can do so, as the baby is your body. And,
4. If you choose that you don't want to be pregnant anymore, destroy your own flesh and blood when it is fully grown, and about to come out, by sucking the breath out of it, or tearing the life from it, ripping limb to limb off of its torso, because it is just tissue—not a human, despite its heartbeat, hands, fingers, head, legs and arms.

It's just like another wart that grew in you, like a cancer, even though YOU having sex started it, vs. nothing you directly did necessarily and surely started the wart or cancer. This is insanity, folks! End a life so you feel happier!

On the other hand:

1. If any woman is raped or a victim of incest, force her to remember that experience, with pains, for nine months! Don't let her take Plan B within 3 days (which kills nothing and no one)!

2. Try to force all Americans to stop having sex, unless their desire is to birth children! Sex for fun must be ended, if it causes pregnancy and the parents don't want a child as a result of their sex! Make them have it anyway!

3. NO family members, or even an adult female, can decide if they want momma to live—the state will dictate (an ANTI-conservative tenet) that she MUST commit suicide, if push comes to shove on her or her child continuing living. And,

4. NO American female who has sex that fertilizes her eggs, can NOT take to term! ALL sex must end in child birth, be it forcible sex, unplanned sex, planned but broken contraception sex, or anything else!

Some even say you can't use contraception, so ALL sex is ONLY for baby-making, for all people, and even m-st-rb-tion is wrong, or oral sex, because we do not want anyone having sex—ONLY to make babies.

We especially hate unmarried people having sex, and we want to undo the 60's sexual revolution's effects!

Even the offensively GROSS anal sex we prohibit, by law, somehow, between men and women, but especially men on men (sodomy laws).

It is ALL about frowning upon sex (except to become a parent), and even HOLY MARITAL sex is ONLY for procreation, because you are NOT allowed to not go all the way through with it, if fertilization occurs! EVERY family has to become the Duggars!

THIS is insanity, folks (NOT saying I approve of fornication or homosexuality, but addressing this from a public policy perspective only).

And if you do violate OUR religions edict, you will pay for that violation/sin by being forced to suffer the consequences for that illegal decision, be it back alley coat hanger abortions, bleeding out, or ruining one's ability to birth in the future, gut punches, poison, Plan B, or quack black market doctors, by force of law, and including paying all the expenses to travel to another state to break our state law, even though that's an unfair burden on women in states with restrictive laws.

YOU SEE both the insanity, and the need the Supreme Court had in making national policy, consistent, stable, rational and NOT appeasing, but even ticking off both side's extreme voting blocs? The no sex but to be a parent group, or all sex, and no consideration for the child voting bloc.

YES the baby is more innocent than the parents, but the law has to justly address both litigant's interests! NEITHER crazy extreme does that. And for POLITICS, they BOTH have devised means to sell their extreme.

One says we're only considering the innocent gift from God child. The other extreme sells their ambitions as a woman's freedom to do with her body as she pleases. Well, that baby growing within her body is IN her body, but is NOT her body, as it grows to be independent, and able to sustain life without any help from her (viability).

And the baby is NOT the only litigant courts must consider! There's also a woman, with rights! To ONLY see the baby would be baby worship, and to only see the mother is "secular humanism."

Courts MUST do justice! NEITHER extreme is interested in justice, but only in forcing their view on everyone else in America, even as some cherish state's rights, in rhetoric, at least!

HAVE I SUFFICIENTLY SHOWN YOU THE INSANITY of these two abortion

extremes? IF this subject means something serious to you, you will (naturally/instinctively/EMOTIONALLY) take umbrance with your position being called UNjust or extreme! That knee jerk reaction is YOUR choice—to reject truth for emotion, and hate the messenger because you can't face facts!

That's NOT a noble place to make your moral stand, though your justification for your position can be 100 percent holy (as in saving babies from being killed). Courts are not churches! USA is NOT a theocracy. Your desire for all Americans is but one vote, one voice!

Even if the majority wants your position, the courts have to decide what's just, and best for our nation as a whole! Majorities change, especially as demographics change! Public policy must be relied upon, and stable, not fickle (i.e., precedent)!

State's rights alone led to many divergent laws, and unfair rights and rights denied. Federalism, or national law, obviously offended EVERY extremist, as it is impossible to reconcile polar opposites!

SCOTUS made the wise choice to strike a balance, based on the child able to live alone being when the mom can no longer claim it as her own body! At the same time, I have detailed a BETTER way than even that, but red states will hate that blue states can abort at all, and blue states will hate that any American has restrictions on how long they can wait to decide to kill their own. Maybe offending every extreme is always best?

SCOTUS had to decide between state's rights or national law. Under the Constitution (which one extreme thinks they alone care about), equal protection matters! For one woman to have rights in one state, while another woman in another state doesn't have those same rights DOES raise Constitutional considerations by thinking (vs. emotional) judges (if not to any emotional citizens)!

America has always had this balance between local and the national, by design! The extreme that claims it loves that document claims to love state's rights, but NOT on total abortion bans!

You see, BOTH extremes are both hypocritical and self-serving, as the ONLY real "principle" they both adhere to is my-way-or-the-highway, and may all others get rolled over, IN A DEMOCRACY, no less.

I can hear it now!: "We just want babies' lives saved." GREAT ambition! But, are you doing it in a moral and just way, in a democracy?

I can also hear this now!: "We just want women free to do with their bodies as they please." But are you ever considering the interests of the child?

UNASSAILABLE ABORTION LOGIC!

Background

The Texas heartbeat bill that may reach SCOTUS scientifically proves abortion lovers LIE when they deem an unborn child tissue mass! (2/22/21-2)

Message

(2/27/21-2)

THIS is painful to me, as I've done it so many other times. Writing these two chapters will be slow, as my boredom level is so high! Where far right differs from centrists, and how laws should handle abortion:

First, the latter. Remember, it will be drawn out, as I'm sleepy and its rehash:

Some Americans want zero abortions. They don't even care if the pregnancy was from rape, incest, or the mother's life would be at stake, because the unborn person is 100 percent innocent, didn't choose to be born, and is an alive human. I am FOR that ideal! We live in a fallen, imperfect world, however.

IF a national law banned every abortion, and punished even those three exceptions, even with jail time, would all abortions end? No! Women who planned poorly, got wrapped up in the emotion of romance, and even more evil people who believe killing is their right would NOT take every pregnancy to term!

The pain, costs, and inconvenience to lifestyle, as with partner pressures to end it would cause many (who knows the percent or number?) to do any of the following acts, all of which kill the baby, and can't be condoned by government:

Plan be pill, gut punches, poison swallowing (to induce miscarriage), black market abortion clinics, traveling to Mexico or Canada, or 'back alley' coat hangers. First, no blue state would ever agree to have zero abortions. If forced to, they'd pass state laws by civil disobedience, to usurp a ban!

The danger to mothers wouldn't be tolerated, maybe even in some red states. Killing babies after they're born would be less likely to occur, anywhere, if a national law banned that, as with third trimester (late term) killings, as we have today.

Some people, for odd reasons, believe they have a right to kill babies, because it's their body, even though it is not, but is inside their body, and is NOT them, but a completely different person they alone created through sex!

So having zero abortions in America is never 'gonna happen, and shouldn't be promoted to gen up unrealistic expectations, for political gain! Illegal abortions would happen! We HAVE TO BE reasonable, practical and realistic about that pipe dream being a MYTH! Great aspiration; won't ever happen.

IF we can agree abortion is killing a human, we can address how to LESSEN them! Many (in number) don't believe it's a human baby, or that killing it is wrong, but morally OK.

WHEN is it a human? Science can identify its shape like a human, its hands, fingers, toes, eyes, head! We have sonograms! It's NOT a mystery! It can even detect heart beats. It's NOT made of plastic, wood or metal. It comes out of the womb fully human!

HOW can a cat morph into a dog? It CAN'T! A robot can't become a human, or vice versa. Nature in, nature out. IT IS HUMAN!

When does life come into it? Life expresses itself in movement and growth! An embryo doesn't just statically sit there, then one day the sonogram detects awakening or movement! Lungs breathe, hands move, thumbs get sucked. LOOK at the pictures!

By its heartbeat date, NO ONE can credibly say it's mere body tissue. Even before that, NO ONE believes a wart, a mole, or a facial hair can grow into a baby! Body tissue does NOT morph into human beings!

People use the 'my body my right' argument, because they DON'T want to face the mirror and see that they're making an immoral death decision! They probably don't even want to see the sonogram, or watch videos, or read brochures detailing the abortion procedures. They just 'wanna pay the bill and get it over! That's NOT informed consent!

These avoiding behavior choices are from guilt, because the internal conscience knows the immorality of those decisions, but consciences can be squelched! People can listen to demons or angels on their shoulders!

If blue states had the freedom to set their own abortion standards, if Roe were overturned, MORE abortions would occur in blue states! Roe's overturn doesn't cause zero abortions! Red states would ban them, or have serious restrictions, but blue states would do the opposite, and red state women could travel to blue states, if theirs was too restrictive!

Roe's overturn is NOT the only or even best answer, and doesn't invariably lessen abortions (especially where red states border blue ones).

So where can harmony be found, and how can this evil scourge be lessened, because that's the only reasonable outcome? Set women up for sexual success!

Perfect contraception technology we don't yet have could undo all rapes' and incest's' implications! Plan B, taken within 2-3 days of rape or incest can already do that, and it's cheap, and available on the internet. It kills NO baby, as the tadpole hasn't even fertilized the huevo, yet!

It's morally responsible to NOT start the life process! Even better is to not start the life process' pre-process, or 2-3 day fertilization process! That means contraception, safe sex, and planning (absent forced sex one can't prevent).

Motivation and education. Incentives to take to term would convince some women to not abort, but who's 'gonna pay them? Condoms can break; birth control can fail. That's from NO fault of the users! That's technology's fault.

Society also plays a role in not encouraging abortion as a totally amoral and acceptable decision! It is a killing/taking of a human life.

Whore/slut-type women want the freedom to sin (fornication or adultery) without consequences or any shame caused by anyone else! They want society to accept those decisions as equally morally valid as marital sex or abstinence. Politically, they want to force America to condone it! NOT 'gonna happen!

So, in my opinion, the solutions I've proposed are best. IF Roe is ever abandoned, third trimester and beyond abortions must be nationally banned, and heartbeat laws should force women to watch their sonograms! Just like far righters think "freedom" means the right to do anything you want, abortion advocates think they have a right to kill the unborn, any time they choose—even immediately after birth.

What if your kid was going to be totally physically deformed, in ways that would drain your finances for a lifetime? What if that fact was determined in the womb, or only in the third trimester? What if the damage came during the expulsion/birthing process? Some would want the legal right to not have to face those effects. Blue states would want to let them. Red states would not.

Overturning Roe would bring on all these moral questions for society to answer. And, by the way, lawmakers are NOT just representatives of their constituent majorities! They are to be leaders, and influencers, vs. mere followers, so obeying the law and fulfilling oaths means you're NOT just a pawn of mob rule, even if the mob feels one way or the other!

P.S.: Restricting abortions by hospital access requirements, defunding, etc., is an intention to FORCE women not to abort! Forced morality—the exact thing the radical right HATES and opposes when it comes to helping poor people (or wearing masks, or getting vaccines)! We hate Socialism, as forced money to do good and help. Be consistent!

2. AMERICA

1. Repent, America!
2. America: You have Issues!
3. America First

REPENT, AMERICA!

(11/5/19)

WITH ALL DUE RESPECT, SHUT THE HECK UP! This is the message Jesus would tell everyone in politics, as He turned our tables and whipped His cord; SO needed! Extremists LIKE disruption, division, slander, hate and political party worship. They make money off it, or seize power. It is EVIL!

Dems are NOT 100 percent evil, nor GOP's! We are ALL imperfect, as are our selfish agendas. Win at all costs is an IMMORAL attitude, as is to the winner go (all) the spoils! We have a two-party system, for a reason, and NEED a third one!

The "minority" party serves a useful purpose, and shared power (Obama's term), properly understood, is intelligent, where the winner steers the ship, but does not dominate, shoving their views down the country's throat! It's negotiation; it's win-win; it's learning to work across the aisle, and getting things done.

EVERY DAY sin is what we all HATE in politicians, and why they're ranked with ambulance chasers and used car salesmen. Lying, spinning everything positive, reading evil motives into opponents' actions, only bragging about your IMPERFECT party, violence, threats, insults, hypocrisy, fearmongering... FULL-TIME SIN! Cussing, smoke-filled back room deals, exaggeration, delusion, radicality, dominating opponents, etc.

America NEEDS spiritual and moral revival! I don't care what religion you adhere to, or don't, our nation is imploding in selfishness, greed and anger. Civil War can't be far off in our future.

YOU are guilty, and to blame, if YOU only listen to the mainstream media, or FoxNews and talk radio! You are FREELY submitting yourself and your mind to propaganda if not brain washing!

You CHOOSE to be manipulated, misled and duped/taken advantage of. If We the people do not turn this around, China and Russia WILL unite and defeat us, just as Rome fell, all because of our internal bickerings and selfish polar opposites! (Judg. 21:25)

So when you get honest with yourself, look in the mirror and face facts/become objective, after your political hangover, point that bony index finger straight at yourself, if you FREELY choose to continue status quo!

"War has rules, mud wrestling has rules-politics has no rules" –Ross Perot And thus we find ourselves in "status quo, you know, is Latin for 'the mess we're in.'" –Ronald Reagan Repent, American voters and politicians!

You have NO EXCUSE arguing "the other side does it!" Moral leaders take the lead, vs. follow sheep off a cliff. These are KINDERGARTEN lessons! Just because the adversary does something bad, you choose to do good, ESPECIALLY as Christians! Start putting Jesus' morals in your politics!

Justice is ALWAYS the common aim we are to be shooting for. Occasionally mercy (Ex.: revised Welfare), certainly judgment (Ex.: crime's punishment), but ALWAYS justice! (Mic. 6:8) You can consider this "weak," but my strong God will weaken you forever for your arrogantly sinful attitude.

Justice is NOT what we aspire to today! ONLY our side or the highway! The other side and half of the nation be damned. This is ludicrous! NO one can believe in evolution, when we are degenerating into animals, in our politics. That's reverse maturing, and childishness! "You made that."

Peacefully coexist. Learn to tolerate. Disagree agreeably. Make your case and see where the chips fall. Accept defeats NOT as a sore loser. In victory, magnanimity. These adages are, again, KINDERGARTEN lessons! Adults are NOT acting as role models, and younger generations SHOULD reject modern-day politics.

I'm NOT calling for Kumbaya hand-holding, giving up principles, or nicey-nice politically correct public debating. But ethics must reign, because #MoralsMatter If not to you, to God, and He has the final say on you and your behavior, and it's NOT looking so good!

AMERICA: YOU HAVE ISSUES!

A) Child Tax Credit

(12/24/21-2)

IT IS AMAZING that families received $300 a month, PER CHILD, by the "child tax credit." Paid by taxpayers for having kids? Appalling! Neary $1K more a month for doing NOTHING? I'd LOVE to have a bonus 1K/month. TERRIBLE debt escalating policy! Revolt, taxpayers! Maybe secede!

B) Crime

(3/26/21-2)

How could murders be lessened? The TV show, First 48, has endless examples of people valuing life little, and killing for money, sex, anger and drugs. Those four incentives need to be analyzed, for their input in these needless and horrific crimes. Do long jail sentences (as opposed to the death penalty) deter anymore?

C) Democracy

(3/23/21-2)

Here's EXACTLY how oppressed people can take over Communist and dictatorial Arab governments:

1. Identify sympathetic nations that sell or give weapons.
2. Identify like-minded citizens.
3. Plan in utter secret, undiscoverable by technology.
4. Find SAFE ways to smuggle in weaponry
5. NEVER tell of plans unless certain listener isn't pro-government.
6. IF any military member ever expresses sympathies for the cause, note their name.
7. Expect MANY to die, in your fight for freedom.
8. Attack when MOST officials are centrally gathered.

I pray EVERY dictator falls!

D) Elderly

(4/7/21-2)

I'm going to UNpopularly stand up for all old-fashioned older people. YOU DO NOT have to change all life-long habits, just because it's UNcool to own a flip phone, call TV shows programs, call to-go boxes doggie bags, abandon cable or land lines, etc. BE YOURSELF, or conform and be dull.

E) Energy

(7/3/21-2)

Blow-out proof oil pipelines must be mandated! I've said this before, but we cannot afford oil spills and breakdowns, just because we need oil! Green energy is the way of the future, except for oil derivatives. We can invent fool-proof systems, but they will cost more!

F) Homeless

(6/22/21-2)

A dude who advocated for guaranteed freebies for life, Andrew Yang, is being hassled for complaining about unkempt homeless discouraging NYC tourism. OBVIOUS-Tourists don't want to see that! In TX, we pass laws on panhandling! It's come to my town, more, recently—even an INDIAN family

Liberal Think: WHY CARE if tourists might boycott NYC, so we can openly display our homeless population? Yet another proof they have little understanding of or appreciation for economics! Andrew Yang

G) Iraq War

(3/21/21-2)

I was FOR the Iraq War, because I believed a report that WMDs were secretly shipped out of the country in covert airplanes. That report also said where they were taken, and hidden. IF that intel was incorrect, we invaded a nation on false pretense, though Saddam Hussein HAD to go!

It may have even been the Rush Limbaugh show, that posited that secret airplanes shipped WMD's out of Iraq. It was an interview of an author, and purported "expert." I USED to listen to him religiously, for about eight years. Haven't in maybe 15+ years, until he passed.

H) Laws

(3/25/21-2)

WHATEVER laws are ever passed MUST be fair to BOTH sides! States' rights allows at will employment, but the people should have a say as to whether that status changes! TX loves pro-business stance, but you can't rely on a banned union to increase your pay, but yourself (or Socialism?) Is that legal is just one question the public should ask themselves. The deeper and more significant question they should be asking is if it is legal, is that just?

I) Looting

(11/23/21-2)

@WalMart will NOT allow employees to chase any shoplifter once they exit the store. Hire me and I'll shoot their nasty A's! I already told a high up they need drones to video the license plates! WE honest people foot the bill of higher costs! That DUMB policy is an OPEN invitation to theft.

J) Mass Shootings

(4/18/21-2)

The ONLY solutions to mass shootings are: 1. Grab ALL guns (Unconstitutional) 2. Gun detectors with alarms, 3. Remote control gun-disarming technology, or 3. 666 system that detects criminal mental intent (Rev. 13)

Update

(4/19/21-2)

Quite honestly, you'll notice I don't post much about shootings, anymore! Until all places get fortified/hardened, more gun owners exist, and maybe cops, as with mental health and tech to defend cops and civilians, why fret over things you cannot change? Just pray and mourn sin's rule!

K) Patriotism?

(7/5/21-2)

I'm TIRED of symbolism of one's patriotism! Singing songs, fireworks, flag waving. If you love America, you will NOT bankrupt her, allow open dialogue, do what's in her best long-term interests, and allow peaceful disagreement with people you differ with. Forget your pomp and circumstance!

Here's the facts: GOOD rules serve a noble purpose. Bad rules need correcting, or ignoring. Not all rules get enforced, or for every violation. Many rules have exceptions. Not all exceptions are codified. A biker ran a red light, with NO ONE in the intersection. No harm, no foul.

We are in an era of civil disobedience, appealing everything to court, or law shenanigans. Why didn't Kristi Noem simply have her fireworks display, and appeal it to what some people want to be a politicized Supreme Court? Rules were made for breaking, right? (WRONG)

If Kristi Noem deciphers patriotism by fireworks displays' size, because a judge banned hers over safety concerns, what says she about NBC/Macy's July 4th show? The "evil and leftist" mainstream media has more patriotism than Chump, by her thinking. POOR debaters! Trump's America

I am TIRED of the war stories/p-ssing contest of who loves America more, as "proven" by how BIG a fireworks display a President hosts! Patriotism does NOT mean you have to agree with either extremist ideology! We are a melting pot of ideas, with solid foundations Americans hold!

L) Refugees

(3/23/21-2)

Refugee Island is a GREAT solution, which one millionaire offered to buy, near one country! Make sure they have all they need, paid for by ALL countries, through the UN, but let them establish a new country, rather than flock to or flood other nations, or live forever in temporary tents!

M) Supreme Court

(4/9/21-2)

Supreme Court MUST have for conservatives and for liberals and one moderate, or five moderates and to conservatives and liberals. Balance/justice in leanings must always be the case, and people DO outlast their effectiveness vs. lifetime appointment, @POTUS Criteria litmus test needed! NO imbalances!

I would set a 25 year MAXIMUM, and 85 year old MAXIMUM, for ALL Supreme Court Justices. @POTUS @JoeBiden Also, ONLY balance of ideology, with ties determined by one centrist or 5! NO extremes to rule the roost! Extremes are EVIL, and RUIN America. YOU used to know that! Don't abandon it

I've rarely if ever heard of a SCOTUS Justice outliving their effectiveness on the bench, as they take the job seriously! However, most humans can face challenges knowing when it's time to throw in the towel, so rules should determine when one has been there long enough, or criteria

N) Self-Defense

(5/20/21-2)

Collateral damage is USUALLY unavoidable. They aren't reasons to cease self-defense! We live in a fallen world, where the bad guys don't separate from the good guys, so we can only take out the former! Hamas is a terrorist organization, but advocating for valid issues of Palestinians.

O) Sin in Society

(5/~20/21-2)

HERE is why people get away with many evils: Too many cops, and people will cry 'police state.' Too many undercover cops, and people will cry 'Hitler's SS.' Whistleblower private citizens are the ONLY other option! Get involved, but don't get killed! Alex Jones

P) Terrorism

I will NEVER justify any terrorist's evil actions, but it sometimes helps to understand what motivates or angers them, to see if they have any valid complaints of injustice! If you owned property in the holy land, pre-1948, you be angry it was taken, and not just forgive and forget!

Terrorists must be defeated! The oppressed also need relief. Violence is when ones just because crosses the line, but people do need outlets for outcries to injustice. Ignore them forever, and they won't take it forever. MOST of us don't even know what started these eruptions in Israel.

Groups we label "terrorists" ARE evil, but some have valid anger over displaced Palestinians. Their solutions are evil, initiating attacks and violence, not concerned about innocents, instilling fear, etc. You DON'T legitimize them by talks, but the Palestinians deserve justice talks

You do NOT reward evil-period. Groups who use violence to draw attention to their cause do NOT deserve attention, or rewarding! The Palestinians, themselves, who ARENT violent, have EVERY right to voice their complaints, and demand justice and a decent life. NOT terrorists-kill 'em all!

Q) Kentucky Tornadoes

(12/12/21-2)

WILL WE learn any lessons from this horrific KY tornado? 1. Resistant structures 2. Damage ameliorating technology (anti-"acts of god") 3. Insurance for everyone 4. Tech to find the living under rubble HOW MANY YEARS will I call for this? (next retweets) Takes money and innovation!

R) Torture

(7/1/21-2)

I'd BET torture works to get true information, because if you lie, they could re-administer it. I'd say or do anything to end the pain of the repair work on my plantar wart. NOTHING in my life has hurt as much, even with pain pills. Don't tape record my words or agony! Can't help it!

S) War

(4/13/21-2)

I have NO problem saying America has WASTED billions on over-done or unnecessary military incursions, and weaponry spending, over the past half century! I will NOT detail where or when, because the issue is never doing so again! Smart wars and tech vs. $600K jet seats, etc. Government WASTE is all over the place, skyrocketing our debt as Biden proposes piling on more!

T) World's Policeman

(6/19/21-2)

America as world's policeman makes us ever more responsible to be a morally good nation—not just good at military and economic might! That's why a genuine vs. contrived revival is necessary in America, and that oweness is upon Christians—NOT other Americans! II Chron. 7:14 as an analogy.

WHY does America have to play world policeman?

1. Someone has to—there are evil regimes
2. Our military might makes others rely on our action to curb evils and our economic might makes others rely on our curbing problems
3. It's a duty—NOT a privilege
4. Our value system is mainly fair

AMERICA FIRST

(3/6/21-2)

FAKE baby Christian tRUMP doesn't know ANYTHING about the Bible, and doesn't heed its contents! USA#1 would have to be by service, not demanded respect! Mt. 20:26 Donald trump is the embodiment of the anti-Bible, were one to be written! Thou shalt not act like the jerk in chief! Rule one.

THIS is the exact OPPOSITE of USA#1: Arrogance of CHUMP. USA#1 means in money, education, military and MORALITY! CHUMP is the worst human to hold office, in 1+ generations, and was a dumb A, had he not copied many of my policy writings! Dumb and evil—a great combination—NOT! Loser!

I did NOT coin the phrase, "America first," but the CONCEPT! IF you search twitter archives, #USA#1 was mine way before CHUMP stole it from me, via cozying up to my then pastor, who became his WH chaplain, of sorts, and monitored my tweets to see any contract violations. 2014-2015

USA#1 doesn't mean no foreign aid, no spreading of global democracy, no allying with NATO nations, no intervention to stop evils in the world (worlds super power), ripping other nations off, violating valid international laws, etc. It means your nation it your top priority! Duh101

America first is EXACTLY the value EVERY nation has with their nation mentioned before the word first, or they are IDIOTS! Every nation puts their own interests above every other nation's! It's called national interest and sovereignty! WHO cares MORE for your people—outsiders? DUMB

Americans first only makes sense, for American public policy! It doesn't mean no one else, ever, as secondary! It doesn't mean ugly American arrogance, or U.S. Has superior humans. It means U.S. Citizens get first dibs at the best jobs and education found in OUR country, and WE control borders.

BIDEN'S 'ECONOMIC' PLAN

(9/7/20)

This is no scare tactic or fear mongering, but fact that America's leadership will have to deal with, if wrong decisions are made. It is not even written to try to change anyone's mind, probably because most people will not—they are committed to their cause and agendas, the truth be damned.

But If Joe Biden's pro-worker, anti-business economic agenda ($15/hour 'minimum' wage, universal healthcare coverage and Green New Deal) were implemented, exactly what would occur, in significant ways?

1. More than doubling the national minimum wage of $7.25/hour will cause the following, for most employers (the only ones who wouldn't do this can't, either due to finances, jobs requiring humans, or only having a local vs. national presence:
 - a) Headquarters moved to either red states, or shipped overseas.
 - b) More jobs outsources overseas.
 - c) More cheap labor immigrated to the USA.
 - d) Layoffs galore, making remaining workers do more with less (over-worked).
 - e) Shut down operations and close (if the projected profit numbers were too bleak).
 - f) Automation to replace low-skilled labor (AI and robotics), immediately hastening the Radar Magazine-projected nearly 70 percent of jobs lost to such technologies.

If any sane business person is faced with doubling one of his/her top two expenses, so long as a replacement machine pays for itself by that excess expense over a few years, WHY WOULDN'T THEY? Machines don't talk back, walk off the job, insult customers, demand raises, etc.!

g) Any and especially all of these reactions will spike unemployment through the roof. More Americans with no jobs, or growth opportunities, and those jobs not returning, and new jobs being flooded with job applicants/competition, further driving down wages.

This is, indeed, a bleak picture, but even if you are as uncaring about your country, others, our economy and even your own job future as to still think making minimum wage more of a maximum wage, TRY to put yourself in a business owner's shoes.

I'll try to help you. If you pay a dog walker, or a lawn boy, or even if you go buy some groceries, and all of a sudden, by government edict, every expense of yours doubles, what do you naturally if not self-interestedly do? You find alternatives, or do without (if not internally protest). You do not take it on the chin and continue business-as-usual!

That is mere human nature, and business people are people too, so why would anyone expect any different behavior from them if they encounter doubled prices? It's irrational, naïve and down-right proof that a person is stupid, if they think anything other than what is described above would occur.

So less Americans working/with jobs, earning less money than they do today (as wages lower when there are less jobs and more job applicants; Economics 101), dependent upon government to bail them out, and probably leading to economic recession if not depression.

And MAYBE this is the end-game of Democrat politicians pushing this economic suicide, because they have always sought ever bigger government, as that engenders voting loyalty among any who aren't self-sufficient. An extremely horrible and detrimental means to a power idolatry end.

Now, surely, things will not turn out that badly, as not all American business owners will leave their cherished homeland, or automate human interaction and customer service into oblivion, but just remember exactly what you would do if one of your two top expenses were doubled over night. You would make major adjustments! Remember in your physics or science class?: 'For every action there is an equal and opposite reaction.'

2. Now let's address universal healthcare coverage. It sounds nice; compassionate, good. Every American can have their medical needs treated and paid for. So what could be any reasonable to expect downsides?

- a) Those with existing coverage are not going to take it lying down, that now they have so many more people filling the waiting rooms, wanting to see their physician!
- b) Those with existing coverage are not going to just take it, when there are waiting lists to get procedures they used to could have accessed more quickly.
- c) And those with existing coverage are not just going to roll over and play dead, when they alone are being asked (more accurately, forced) to PAY for all these newly covered Americans!

A revolt, a rebellion and even a possible schism/secession or even Civil War could ultimately come from more and more of these Socialist programs! The history of nations across the globe is that that does occur, when those who have lived fiscally responsibly get forced to having to start financially caring for people they don't know, aren't related to and haven't employed! Study history.

I am NOT saying violence would immediately ensue, but taxpayers would react, as with business owners, to right the ship of their expenses increasing, through no fault of their own, just as they would if business expenses for labor were immediately doubled! If nothing less, Democrats would suffer landslide losses thereafter, only to have this Socialism overturned, likely (and hopefully) for good.

Again, it might not get this dire, or this soon, but, again, 'for every action there is an equal and opposite reaction.' Taxpayers would not idly sit by, taking it on the chin!

3. And finally, FDR's New Deal for energy. Trillions of tax dollars spent on government propping up a fledgling but good industry. NOT the free market demanding it, but government edict.

- a) America would lose its profits, taxes from the sale of, and energy independence and surplus exports.
- b) Oil producing states' economies would plummet, with a major competitor artificially propped up by government.
- c) One could not honestly say America believed in free market Capitalism, with government in charge of one of our largest and most important industries, upon which most other ones are run.
- d) Yes, the environment might get somewhat cleaner (which is a good thing), but at what cost? The costs being described!
- e) Job losses in brown energy would ensue, as it takes time to re-train for a related, but completely different energy source job functions.
- f) Taxes would go through the roof, to pay for this pet project, unless, instead, politicians simply borrowed more, at interest, or continued to print funny money, deflating the dollar's value, increasing our national debt, and hurting our economy thereby.

A skeptical person might conclude that liberal Democrats truly do not care about America, business or the economy, because all of these initiatives, taken to their logical conclusion, lead to Socialism—government in charge of either citizens' livelihoods, or actual industries, or both.

And Socialism is just Communism Lite, and a kinder-sounding bridge to that ultimate end! I am not saying America would become Communist, but there are some people in America whose aim is that end, and more moves toward Socialism, or bad decisions that eventually require federal government intervention, bring forth more Socialism, intended or unintended!

So if you are so selfish as to only care about getting something from government, unlike the Democrat JFK's 'ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country,' his party has truly gone by the wayside from better days in our great history!

And, by the way, when ANY taxpayer is taxed more, to pay for all these things (be it only the ultra-rich, or also all the others), they have less money to spend and invest, which hurts the economy (ours being a consumerism economy), so tax-and-spend "economics" is really a misnomer!

It is NOT an economic strategy for growth and health, but a social program for increased Socialism! DON'T be deceived when politicians call it initiatives to aid our economy (i.e., when politicians LIE)!

BIDENOMICS

(9/27/20)

President Trump's Mt. Rushmore and 2020 nomination speech are a blueprint for why he should get four more years. In my opinion, those two speeches were the highlight of his administration, beyond what's below (especially judicial achievements).

Economics 101 (i.e., FACT) says government spending HURTS economic growth, unless it is for infrastructure that boosts an economy! Doubled minimum wage, Green New Deal and free healthcare are ALL a DRAIN to the already on life support from an American Covid-tainted economy. There is NO Treasury excess, as in Bill Clinton's day.

If ANYONE believes Biden's three horsemen of the apocalypse proposals (doubled minimum wage, free healthcare and green New Deal) will HELP America's economy, after a pandemic decimated it, they are bona fide FOOLS! You cannot maintain a nation by the mood/emotion of mob rule, or fools!

Biden's DOUBLED minimum wage doubles that business expense. WHAT would any rational business owner do? Cut their staff in half, and/or replace them with automation, robots, or self-service, or move their businesses out of country! It also increases every wage above minimum, and KILLS business.

Biden's Green Screw Deal:

1. Kills BIG oil.
2. Ruins America's export of oil (revenues to the Treasury).
3. Kills energy jobs.
4. Is killing a fly with a sledgehammer.
5. Is government determining winners.
6. Has NO equivalent to quick gas tank fill-ups.
7. Chases phantoms, that man can control weather

I would have considered Joe Biden, based on his civility and dignity in office, UNTIL I learned of his positions! ALL Trump has is his positions, and a RECENTLY-changed presidential demeanor, feigned or not, and those positions must dominate his debate answers! @POTUS @realdonaldtrump

People who can bounce balls (NBA) and pretend to be doing life (Hollywood) are telling DUMB people they should vote the way those people tell them to. It's an AMAZING phenomenon, when any voter is influenced by uneducated, biased, uninformed, fiscally irresponsible losers! Bad news!

I'll be the first to say, if 45 gets reelected, and acts, speaks and tweets like he did much of the past 3.5 years, I'll be as in his face in rebuking and opposing that nonsense as I was 'til anti-America AOC and radical rioters arose. I HOPE his struggle for reelection has humbled his change.

Every Christian and taxpayer must vote for Trump, NOT because you support his sins or any stupid actions or words, but because of what he stands for, and acts upon, when given the opportunity! As possibly the first #NeverTrump, I 100 percent support his reelection!

Democrats are pulling out ALL the stops to pose their opposition to Trump: MSM negative articles, Hollywood celebrities, pro sports TV ads of ONLY blacks saying vote, etc. People have EVERY reason to vehemently begrudge all his sins and stupidities of the first 3.5 years, but his policies are superior.

I may be reading in my own hopes, but I truly have noticed a morality change in President Trump since his Mt. Rushmore speech. It may be opportunistic, temporary, certainly violates his pledge not to change, but it is GOOD and needed, as his positions have been very good for 2020! Stay on course!

The 2020 election is not about Roe, but Capitalism and historic/traditional American values vs. socialism. It's NOT that abortion isn't important, but the woman makes the final call, and people are trying to take over our country, and remake it into their image! A hostile takeover was sought.

Hollywood type liberals don't mind paying higher taxes, but they want to force all other taxpayers to do the same, vs. only them doing so voluntarily. EVERYTHING Biden proposes costs lots of taxpayer money, and mainly benefits non-taxpayers! Green Energy is costly overkill, and wasteful!

Update: Arguments Against Biden

You work hard for your money; always play by the rules; pay your taxes, love your family and your country. But now there are people who want to take what you've got, by looting or arson, and some D.C. Politicians who want to take it as well, and spend it on things, when America has $25 trillion in debt, offering things for free, to people who have not paid in, off your tax dollars.

Joe Biden is one of those D.C. Politicians, who believes you have not given/done enough, even with America's generosity, and our more than merciful safety net. Always wanting more, even as Washington D.C. Does so little.

Now this is wrong, and you know it, and that's why I'm asking you to stand with President Trump to fight the tax and spend liberals, and their riotous, looting allies, to Keep America Great, and keep the things you worked so hard to have.

BIDEN'S BADS

(10/7/20-2)

FREE off taxpayers: $15,000 down payment, $7,000 daycare subsidy, $14-15,000/year raise, $10,000 education loan reduction, FREE college, universal healthcare, Welfare, and an additional $1,300/year for Social Security. BIDEN IS NOW BERNIE, AOC AND POCOHONTAS WRAPPED INTO ONE LIAR OF A SOCIALIST, VS. CENTRIST!

@JoeBiden has moved SO far to the left, I'm surprised he can recognize his own self in the mirror! FURTHEST THING from a centrist! Free off taxpayers: Down payment, daycare subsidy, pay raise, loan reduction, college, universal healthcare, Welfare, and $1,300/year for Social Security.

WHEN will you be giving out free homes and cars, like the lady asked Obama for in 2012, which prompted me to write my first book? @JoeBiden Have Oprah in an imagined cabinet, so at least the presentation can be dramatic! YOU get a car; YOU get a house; YOU get healthcare; etc., etc., etc.

WHY NOT free food (school lunches), free electricity, free furniture, free Obamaphone, gas and water, lawnmowing, clothes, car, house—just send in your budget to @JoeBiden and he'll play Robinhood to fund his way to D.C. And retirement! SIN-full man, stealing from taxpayers for self-gain!

Why not month-long paid vacations, family leave, home insurance, car insurance, home remodeling (green retrofit), meals out, burials, births, babysitting, home repair? Maybe 2024? @JoeBiden Never have to work... Just vote for Petticoat Junction's Uncle Joe! He's that rich—NOT!

Santa Claus, Robinhood and a homeless bum went into a bar and had a baby, and the result was @JoeBiden He promises the world as he bankrupts the nation! Green energy, "free" healthcare, college, student loan reduction, down payment, doubled minimum wage, Welfare. The ULTIMATE SOCIALIST comrade.

YOU got us tied to China, and in $25 TRILLION debt, in your 47 years, going along to get along (and line your pockets all along), with inept D.C. Gridlock and inaction! 47 years and little to show for it! YOU ARE THE SWAMP @JoeBiden Unions even died under your tenure, to outsourcing! Own it.

Update

(10/8/20-2)

Jesus was NOT unsympathetic to the poor, but though He was perfect, and knew ALL, He said the poor you will always have! Mk. 14:7 WHY didn't HE think of funding the poor out of the lower class, by punishing the rich? Because it's immoral; He was perfect, after all!

The Democrat plan 'helps' everyone but the rich. Biden even mentioned a middle-class tax cut. It's as if the powers that be in that party got together and said, HOW CAN WE BUY OFF A VOTING MAJORITY, if money were no object, and who could we screw, and get away with it, like bandits? Their answer?

Eat the rich! Tax cuts for the middle class secures them. FREEBIES for the lower class secures them (healthcare, daycare, college, student loan subsidy, mortgage down payment), and even seniors on a fixed income, with an additional annual Social Security payments.

Who DOESNT receive ANY benefit, and who, alone, is targeted? Anyone who doesn't get any benefit from their vote-buying plan; namely the rich.

IF Joe is NOT a CINO (Catholic In Name Only), WHY didn't he see these facts from the Bible, or is their non-canonical tradition to screw the rich? WHERE did he get this biblically evil plan, besides from Bernie, Warren and AOC? Spiritually, the devil!

Let's get VERY brass tacks practical right now. What EXACTLY happens when a society chooses to turn on their rich? MANY things—few if any of them positive!

First, if they earned their wealth, it's an IMMORAL scheme, and God doesn't bless nations using sin to win!

Second, lying is a sin, and besides Socialist Biden lying he was a centrist, he's lying about fair share taxes! ALL he wants is the rich to foot all bills! L-I-A-R! I will NEVER stop referring to him as that, for that's what he is, and if the shoe fits, wear it, and call the spade the spade!

The graphic in this article tells you WHY they came up with this ploy: <https://forbes.com/.../are-americas-richest-families.../>

... 56% vs. 14% of the 50 richest families in America are Republican, rather than Democrat!

Play the numbers, and punish your opponent (JUST AS I said Trump's tax cut unduly favored the rich, and I also said when you do extreme measures, an equal and opposite reaction occurs, like blessing the rich, now cursing them; or conservatism extremism, now liberal extremism), AS OPPOSED to God's way! Levit. 19:15

If those percent's hold up beyond the top 50 families, and extend down to millionaires, and those earning $400K or more a year, Biden's scheme makes perfect strategic vs. moral sense.

Tax filers earning $400K/year fall are between the 98th and 99th percentile. So Joe wants to unfairly punish the upper 2%! WHERE are their voices? If they're Dems-like failed Bloomberg—who WASTED a BILLION on a vanity run, he's so sold his soul for a PARTY—not values or causes, that he's ABANDONED centrism, to even be FOR funding CRIMINALS to vote! NO MORALS.

But liberals have ALWAYS wanted higher taxes and more spending; they just wanted everyone else to share in that pain they say they are willing to endure! Now they've devised a scheme to make only 2% of Americans feel any pain—the rest have Christmas on Nov. 3rd! Devilishly clever scheme!

It is NOT about fairness! I have, MANY TIMES, detailed what a FAIR tax scheme will look like, when and if given the chance to make it. This is about forcing the rich to pay for everyone not in their family or employ! And, again, WHAT WILL THEY DO, and what will it look like?

You and I, obviously, don't often think like the hyper rich, or we'd be hyper rich (myself excluded, as I've spent nearly 18 years unpaid, full-time, writing), so what would they do, if they're NORMAL humans? I CAN tell you, because I believe I can think like a normal human... Get revenge and retaliate. HOW?

1. Invest anywhere but the America.
2. Possibly move away to where taxes are cheaper.
3. Possibly move their companies elsewhere.
4. Hire the best accountants and attorneys to avoid the tax bill (including offshore bank accounts and money laundering).
5. FIRE the workforce to bare bones minimum (which, like Camel-A Harris likes to do—explain to the children in the room, means UNEMPLOYMENT out the wazoo, which means MORE people dependent on government pay checks, which requires MORE taxes, which means Biden's plan is NOT the end to rising taxes for ALL taxpayers)!
6. Work the remaining staff like dogs, as they'll be GLAD to have a job!
7. Automate out the wazoo (AI and robotics, as Radar magazine said ~70% of front-line jobs would be, in the next few years, decade, or so).
8. Outsourced jobs, where $15/hour min wage was NOT the nation's law; say sweat shop operations in China, for example, further harming liberals' ideals of no slave-made products in the U.S.A.

9. Destroying all politicians who go along with this scheme, by pumping so much money into GOP races, you can hardly watch TV ads, for they will all become political.

10. Physical violence is NOT expected, but it wasn't expected of democrats, either, 'til George Floyd and company!

11. Rebellion in one of two forms... moves to secede into two blue and red nations, or a literal physical second Civil War, if people NOT being punished by taxation are sympathetic the injustice being done to them.

Two words of GOOD cheer... NO politician EVER gets everything they promise or propose! GOP's exist, and will fight like cats and dogs to oppose this evil scheme. And 2, some rich people will DUMBly take it on the chin, and not resist.

So, there you have it... Biden's plan for America, or rational, common sense and fair and balanced plans (as I have proposed so many times).

Bottom line, his promised goodies will NOT be executed as intended or promised! IMPOSSIBLE! There are GOP pols in D.C. And a Supreme Court. Again, he's LYING to you, for a vote.

Let's have free cars, homes, 401Ks/IRAs, food, clothes, daycare, healthcare, environmental remediation, college, water, electricity, TV, internet, smart phones. Hey, I just invented the liberal Democrat platform for 2024! No need for money or work—just let government hand out freebies!

One more thing, if Dems have out-smarted God, that the rich can make everyone middle class, He's NOT God, but they are! Government as God. Standard liberal fare, and Socialist belief, despite ALL historical evidence that those plans FAIL and end BADly!!! Thank God GOP's exist in D.C.!

No lower class/poor; upper class makes all poor Americans middle class. THIS is the Biden economic plan! NO WONDER people flock to come to America, to get in on the freebies, if they're poor, and vote Democrat!!!

Armed bandit: Give me your money!

Beggar: Give me some money.

Democrats: I will take your money!

BIDEN HIS TIME FOR SOCIALISM?

(1/27/21-2)

IMO, Biden wants to remain true to centrism, so he'll wait for 2022 results, hoping in his heart GOP's gain to help defeat Socialism; or, he wants to retire or let VP fight for Socialism in 2024 or 2028. I don't think the AOC crowd will let him kick the can that long, so succession could ensue.

SO FAR, Biden hasn't done anything ultra-radical; bad, but not ultra-radical. He knows what GOP's will do in 2022 and 2024 if he does, and united, they're much larger than his radical base, and doing Socialism is radical enough HE will have united the GOP by such Socialism, IMO!

I HOPE the youth, black and brown and other Dem constituents clamor for the freebies Biden promised, because if GOP's can't stop them one at a time, or in bulk, they will unite (like me with CHUMP) and either defeat them indefinitely, or secede. Biden can unite the splintered GOP with Socialism!

I don't want to see secession! It MAY be needed. It can be avoided if Biden passes more freebies! I DO want to see the GOP reunited and resurrected to be a party of thinking and morality. @JoeBiden KEEPING his freebies promises can do all of that, and gain GOP's victories in 2022 and 2024!

IF I had more social media skills (mine is writing books), I would start hashtags to pressure Biden to pass promised freebies. I BEG any conservative or GOP with such skills to get that trending! Healthcare, daycare, college, student loans, home down payment. Feet to the fire!

Maybe it's human nature, but poor people vote for freebies, by and large. The more of them, the better the chances of them being enacted into law. That's why D.C. and Puerto Rico statehood cannot happen, nor loose immigration policies! Taxpayers will RIGHTLY revolt, or secede! Deserved.

IF Biden accepted MY solutions to poverty, with NO freebies, and had a place for my skills to be utilized, I would work for his reelection. ONLY under those conditions, and NOT as a Democrat. It prevents Socialism, or a Trump second term. My many great solutions borrowed for a Dem win!

I prefer a GOP win, as that's my lifelong party. But if she remains stuck on sin and stupid, NO INTEREST, except to defeat Socialism. Even an Independent third party could achieve all these (2) goals in 2024, of: #NoTrumpNoSocialism Extremists WANT America to only have two choices: Trumpian conservatism or Socialism. They WANT both parties to cater to their base, and ignore their center! A third party would soak up BOTH parties' centrists, and defeat ALL extremists! If backers, I'd run as third party in next three cycles!

Biden's executive orders are raising anticipation and expectation of libs wanting their freebies! They won't wait two years, as GOP's may make gains in the mid-terms! If GOP's can't stop freebies before 2022, secession would be needed. Let's detail that a little further:

Blue and red nation, or red, white (purple) and blue? United for what issues? One SCOTUS, FBI, CIA, military, Congress, President, but without national powers to usurp state laws on six major topics (listed earlier). NO fed funds subsidizing any state! Would each nation have to have its own President, Congress, CIA, etc., as independent nations, or could there legally be a hybrid?

Constitutional amendments aren't possible in current political climate, so secession would be more efficient for states' rights on those six issues. Then make treaties for cooperation.

The six issues are taxes/regs, immigration, guns, abortion, entitlements and green energy—MAYBE gay marriage? IF America as now structured could allow state rights on these six matters, secession wouldn't be needed. Red states would ban Socialism. Biden's not 'gonna risk states seceding—IMO.

Really red states want no government sanctioned gay marriages, or abortions (with three possible exceptions—rape, incest and mom's life). They want low regs and taxes, full gun rights, few to no poor or undereducated immigrating (or NOT to our states), big oil thriving, and NO freebies!

Red states NEED to beware: libs are flooding our states, to escape high taxes and cold weather! Portman may have done GOP a BIG favor, as they need as much opposition to Socialism as possible, and no one willing to vote for any more spending is needed in the GOP; he retains conscience

GOP has a YUGE problem, as more voters for Dems can come from immigration, criminals, youth under age 18, the poor and statehood for D.C. and Puerto Rico. Educated and/or rich people aren't readily available to flood our nation, through immigration! Make Socialism illegal, or secede!

I've said this before: IF Biden passes freebies, EVERY business but big tech and Ben and Jerry's needs to automate and robotize, fire all Dems, and legally hide away your assets from taxation! ONLY hire GOP's and independents NOT for Socialism, or move out of America if not enough workers left!

I don't think Trump, with all his baggage, has ANY chance of winning in 2024, no matter how GOP's connive and scheme to get up better voter turnout! The messenger is too flawed! I will also work for his defeat, but NOT to implement Socialism. Third party MAY be needed even that early!

EVERY good policy TRUMP advocated or passed MAINLY came from me/my writings. I tell the detailed story in our free book at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>. I will NOT be silent about his plagiarism, or satanic theft! Just not the time, yet! Witnesses and polygraphs exist! David vs. "Goliath."

BIDEN BADNESS

(1/27/21-2)

You may have noticed, Biden already has placated Dem constituents, as the 'President for all Americans." XL pipeline (environmental whackos), open border types LOVE the coming caravans, he said systemic racism will be addressed (black caucus), and LGBTQ executive order for feds and military

WHAT's "President for all" doing for business, taxpayers, the rich, whites, Christians, the middle class who don't want handouts, straight people, people who want a blue collar job not stolen by undercutting Illegals, gasoline for their NON-battery-powered vehicles? Absolutely NOTHING!

YOU have to learn to separate the person from the policy (Ex.: Trump) and the words from the deeds (Ex.: Biden). IF YOU CAN'T, and the embodiment merges these together in your puny mind, you are the problem in American politics! Policy affects behaviors, but you never support evil people!

WHEN-NOT if-46 starts pushing freebies, all Hell will break loose! He promised free healthcare, daycare, student loan forgiveness, college, home down payment. The minute he starts THOSE five policies, a revolt will start, IMO! GOP as party out of power may secede, by state! HOPE so

You know how near impossible it is to end government programs! James Dobson warned it's like going in reverse on a freeway. Future administrations can undo what Biden does, but once freebies become policy, secession is required of all red and purple states! He may delay till 2024. Unlikely

THESE five policies are deal breakers for me EVER helping Biden win in 2024: "Free"

1. Healthcare
2. College
3. Student loan debt
4. Home down payment
5. Daycare I would even help Trump (whom I despise) win, if Biden implements those Socialist items!

WHERE IS OUR FREE HEALTHCARE, DAYCARE, COLLEGE, STUDENT DEBT FORGIVENESS, and HOME DOWNPAYMENT? @JoeBiden @POTUS I'm NOT asking for myself, but once you cross those red lines, you're re-election is likely in jeopardy!

You have what you tolerate. CHRISTIANS have preached this mantra; now, they need to LIVE it out, to NOT be hypocrites! I do NOT tolerate Socialism, nor Trumpianism B.S., like 22K lies in office, and all below!

BIDEN'S BLUNDER (Afghanistan)

3. Their evils MUST be defeated, even physically!

BACK TO BUSINESS BASICS

(2/4/20)

If business' only purpose is profits (as MBA schools say like mantras), anything goes, and every law that infringes on profits is evil, because without businesses, people have no jobs, right? This is conservatism's dogma! But they're inconsistent, even in its application, as I'll show:

Pro-business, profits-are-all beliefs deny the reality that many laws are GOOD for society and business, though more profits could, temporarily, be had without them! Slavery would be best for business (i.e., no wages owed), child labor sweatshops, as well, and unsafe products you defraud consumers with.

But when workers or consumers die, or get seriously sick, catch onto your fraud in advertising, or unsafe products, business loses its work force and market of consumers. Same with severe polluting! Ultimately, we're interconnected, so business does well to do well, vs. evil, laws or not!

Conservatives are accused of being racists or supremacists (usually untrue). With the over-immigration of the past 30 years, you can't help but expect they would deem it a threat to import any who could pose a challenge to their majority status! That's a normal human reaction!

Business likes under-educated immigrants, and illegals, because they can pay them less. And low-paid people usually vote Democrat, so Dems like them too. Low wages bring down almost everyone's wages, over time! America must take care of America first! I said this WAY before Trump!

BAD salesmen lie, and put themselves first, above the client, acting and saying words like the customer's interests are foremost. You can fool some of the people some of the time, but God is not deceived. Fear Him! It won't be good for you, selling that way!

PRO BUSINESS & PRO WORKER

(2/26/20)

HOW can one be for workers and business, as I am? Easy. Understand ALL of the following!: Without business, workers are unemployed and broke/homeless. So business is essential to any nation!

MOST workers aren't 'gonna start a business, or if they do, most businesses fail in the first three years, or so. So America needs businesses! I'm 100 percent for business! I PROVE that claim by my 5,800+ inventions, business consulting for FREE (when I run for office), in the areas of strategy/growth, sales and advertising, architecture, R and D/inventions, streamlining and increasing productivity with motivation and innovation, as The World's Most Innovative Man.

My BBA and MBA also attest to me being pro-business, as with my having been a Fortune 500 management consultant, and been in SIFE in college (Students For Free Enterprise). As a Christian, I'm for holy or just businesses, as God is! (Col. 4:1)

And since I'm a Christian, Jesus cared most for the down and out, oppressed and poor, and since they're humans, I am equally pro-worker! I prove that by all my writings on how to live higher on less or the same, and policies that are fair to workers, like equal pay for equal output by women, increasing minimum wage ONLY if the economy's increasing for the stockholding class (as it has under Chump), and being for 4 workplace safety, overtime pay, unemployment insurance, consumer health and safety laws, etc.

Successful businesses SHOULD give back to their employees and communities, as with successful rich people! Struggling businesses haven't that luxury, and those in-between, some but not a lot.

People argue free vs. fair trade. People who benefit from unfairness always want a totally free market—zero government interference, as they have the leverage to screw people, legally! Workers always want fairness, as people hate being abused and oppressed, "because we can."

Globally, every nation negotiates trade deals in their own interests, and none get brokered if both sides don't agree. However, there's leverage used in those talks, as neither side is concerned with the other's gain, as, like a lawsuit, their interest is protecting their nations' interests.

Win-win is NOT that way. I want the American economy number one, but I also want USA #1 morally, which means when you have a lot, you give back a lot, as a nation, business and individual!

Dominating others is NOT moral, though extremists try to do so in politics all the time, because politics in America is immoral. You engender backlash when you treat others wrong, nationally, employment-wise, and as rich individuals!

Business can maximize its profits behaving immorally toward workers! Since globalization, leverage has 100 percent been in the employer's markets court, as unions got busted, under threat of jobs shipped off to Mexico, China and India.

ONLY with controlled immigration, and other measures, has putting Americans first become popularized (MY idea, well before Chump). Ethics are integrally intertwined with economics! Economics is NOT amoral.

Buy American is an emotional sentiment—NOT a wise business decision, if buying elsewhere for same quality is cheaper! Yet, politically, it's now popular, because economics is NOT amoral.

Business owners earning 350:1 worker's salary is immoral! Employees wanting more money, by government fiat, is immoral, if you don't deserve more! Business should never over-pay, economically vs. morally.

Practical application: Workers, be your best in how you work, as to quality and intensity, but expect to be paid better when you do, and if you aren't, quit, or clamor politically! Employers: Treat your workers well, and reward hard work. Don't just bless yourself, financially! This IS common sense!

Any human hiring a lawn boy will pay as little as possible. Business is no different, and they're NOT evil for so doing. The leverage has to be equal, which is where government intervenes as a referee for justice. Workers NEED more leverage in America, to counter-act all these business-favoring deeds, that were morally justified under globalized competition:

Mergers and acquisitions, streamlining, automation, contract labor, increased copays, layoffs, AI and robotics, outsourcing and immigration increases. Those deeds since 1985 made America a buyer's market for business! We need justice for workers!

I've NEVER been in a union (except one day when I tried to work for my brother-in-law's dad's business, and they required it). I can negotiate my own salary on my own. If you can't, you need to learn how to, or if your skills are a commodity, you need to unionize for better wages.

I don't like unions, but see why they arise. U.S. Workers want better wages? Work smarter and harder, NOT necessarily longer hours! Make your company money, or save them money! Encourage profit-sharing, as its' just/fair. You helped them get those profits, off your backs! Be against immigration glutting the labor market! Think! Get better skills!

If your business skills are not unique, you can be replaced on a dime! Workers also ought to fight against 350:1 CEO and executive pay, and any reasonable salary and bonus reductions be shared among the workers, or to make the workplace better for ALL! I can invent products to make almost any job more enjoyable!

Public pressure is needed to lessen 350:1 CEO-to-worker wage disparity! Shaming! Expose their lifestyles and give back percents on their taxes! It's 2 percent of income, on average, vs. three percent for average Joe.

Exalt rich heroes, like Buffett and Gates, and reveal the stark difference between America's heroes of commerce, vs. today's evil, greedy, stingy selfish hoarding types. STUDY and learn how Rockefeller, Carnegie and Rothschild gave back, after proving themselves best in business, and praise and reward Giving Pledgers—NOT Forbes' richest list members who DON'T give back much, percent-wise!

Get rich, then be rich in giving vs. getting! Jesus taught this! It's NOT restricting how much you can earn, but restricting how selfish you can be, by public pressure and fair share taxes on the rich! This is ALL common sense, and Bible-consistent. NO Christian can morally oppose this, but only sinfully!

Work breaks make people more able to be more productive, as with an enjoyable if not fun work environment, and rewarding pay! Pigs get fat, hogs get slaughtered, business people. Be fair to your workers, and good to the best ones.

And if you have a crappy business, or pay crappy, expect crappy workers. Common sense 101. Content employees stay with you longer, are more productive, and take pride in their company!

Update

(10/28/21-2)

I want a better lifestyle, and I don't want to have to work for it; taxpayers owe it to me, because they get rich off my labor, and I get nothing but paid my agreed upon salary. So government must force them to pay the fiddler. THIS is the attitude of losers, folks! Handout seekers!

I am 110 percent FOR all U.S. Laborers uniting for power! THAT is the ONLY moral way to get better wages! You got SCREWED when pensions died, unions got busted, globalization shipped your job out, or imported labor competition. Strike in January, then unionize, for equal leverage with business!

IT IS ONLY FAIR that labor and management have EQUAL bargaining power—period! Labor has to consider business' global competition, and management has to consider workers' ability to survive on what they're paid. Rich execs could forfeit some, so others can live off their wages paid!

IT IS AMAZING that people who claim Creationist beliefs most strongly oppose any intelligent design in how society handles poverty! Dog eat dog is NOT God's design, but the far right's! And eat the rich may one day be the poor's response, given Newton's third law of thermodynamics!

One day the world's poor won't tolerate rich people ignoring their plight! They will unite, grab guns, and barrage safe compounds and gated communities in numbers security cannot control, IMO! proverbial torches and pitch forks will give way to physical violence, IMO, if rich ignore I Tim. 6:17-19

WALL STREET WOES

(9/8/20)

The Dems are divided over the value of Wall Street, with African-Americans seeing its value, while leftist Socialists want it destroyed. So is the U.S. Stock market good or bad? Let's analyze the question...

Rich people with excess money they don't need for expenses put that money somewhere. They are taught, 'don't lose money,' and 'make your money work for you.' Even the Bible teaches the same, as to making interest in a bank.

The stock markets are an efficient and central and organized way for investors to have a nearly 1-stop shop of investment opportunities in most of America's best-performing companies.

American companies, on the other hand, need resources for growth, and sometimes for cash flow. Rather than expensive and more cumbersome bank loans, the stock market provides the best performers with quick access to liquidity. It works well for both.

But what about society? Do 'we the people' benefit from the stock exchanges? If you have no investments, you gain nothing, financially, but you do gain access to companies and a corollary effective economy with job opportunities. Any nation with wealthy citizens in any capacity/percent is better off than all people being poor, as there are no funds with which to grow an economy or to sustain businesses there, which offer jobs.

We all know the bad aspects and abuses of Wall Street, as well... the Bernie Madoffs, the hedge fund managers who rake in millions and more, simply by investing other peoples' money, the greed, the idolatry of profit over all else, and the illegal insider trading. Even absent that, big purchasers have an advantage on trades, well before the general public can buy in.

And with nearly half of America not owning stocks or bonds, politics rears its ugly head, because their numbers could one day grow to a point they literally vote down the U.S. Stock markets. The far left already hates Wall Street. Does anyone remember a time, not so far ago, when mainly young protesters made up 'Occupy Wall Street?'

Those pro-business (as am I) use the adage, 'a rising tide lifts all boats,' to which I say, NOT if the waterways aren't connected. Your financial gain, even as a business, benefits only employees and shareholders, and those disconnected from businesses in the stock market conceive of NO benefit for them, when those companies succeed.

However, if American businesses fail, that misery trickles down to the lower rungs, quickly!
We've seen from this pandemic, that the rich will always fare well, but the front lines got hurt, if not killed, the quickest.

Therefore, purely for the sake of society, any true-blooded American should want American businesses to succeed (not to mention foreign competition, ever biting on the heels of our successes and market shares), and should want to be living in a nation where investors want to invest, rather than that money going elsewhere! Only a fool would want otherwise!

But how can Wall Street's gains become a benefit to the little guy? Must, as Bill Clinton asserted, yesterday, U.S. Businesses offer a 'living wage,' which ALWAYS means a higher wage than they are currently paying? Must businesses offer stocks to their least-skilled workers, or ownership in their own profit-sharing (if on no stock exchange)? I do not think so.

A wage is negotiated between worker and employer. Employers do not randomly pick a number out of a hat. They learn market rate, and pay accordingly. Democrats are angry that globalization has caused American blue collar labor rates to fall, as the world is now the oyster of businesses seeking labor! That was and is inevitable, and unchangeable.

A business is not responsible for your family's well-being—you are, breadwinner(s)! It is great and right when management treats employees like family, but they do not spoil their 'children' by over-paying them more than market rate! And you wouldn't, either! PAY your lawn man $10 more a week than his bill totals! You won't, and neither will any business person, and that is not morally evil!

The things I described about Wall Street abuses ARE evil, and MUST end, and I tell everyone who does well in the stock market... God commands you to be generous in giving back to society! 1 Tim. 6:17-19

That passage is NOT written for just Christians, but even people who will never read it. In short, if you are rich, God says you are to generously help society with your excess; not all of it, of course, but being stingily selfish or hoarding from greed are sinful choices He will exact judgment upon.

That, and that alone, is what He demands, and can solve the angst and anger against the rich, among the 'eat the rich' crowd. You do not have to pay people more than they are worth, you do not have to give money directly to street corner beggars, you do not have to feel any guilt for being successful, and you do not have to give ownership or even excess profits to your employees.

Your duty, before God, is to be fair to employees, and to generously give back to society! (Col. 4:1; Eph. 6:9). Be the caring parent/father-like figure with your good employees; reward achievement, and discipline ineptness. In all things be fair, not a tyrant; be good to your employees, and treat them fairly. Consider giving annual bonuses, as those people did cause your company to profit!

I'm not asking you to be unfair to yourself, your shareholders or your company, but 'no justice, no peace.' Remember that those who hate Capitalism are at least growing louder, as is their willingness to threaten the rich and their possessions. YOU can allay this EVIL movement by treating all good workers fairly, and giving back generously to society! It's also your God-given duty so to do.

I strongly recommend that when and if you do obey God, that money mainly or firstly goes to empowerment programs to make the least among us competent to earn the maximum that their talents can render, by maximizing their job and purchasing/budgeting skills.

When the very poorest are starting to feel less stress, because they can adequately pay their own bills, without any government handouts, then and only then is America as a whole truly prospering, no matter the state of our stock markets!

I will warn you, however, beyond the illegal and immoral judgment of the mad mobs who may rise more, in opposition to mainly the rich getting richer, you rich Americans face a moral and fierce judgment by God, if you remain hoarding, and disobeying the commandment I just taught you! No government, political access, security team or bank account can protect you from that certain future! Now, you were warned! Go do the right thing!

BUSINESS TIPS

(11/13/20-2)

If you own a business, what are you doing to make it better? Is your customer experience the best it can be? How does it compare to your competitors, and their price? Are your employees the best they can be, in training and customer service? Do you pay them accordingly? Is your advertising excellent?

What do you do to attract sales, and reward faithful clients? How do you identify your target market? Are you better than your competitors at anything? Are you taking advantage of industry-related trends? Have an online presence? Are you as efficient as possible, with least waste of resources?

Is your building attractive, inside and out? Located where all can see you, or have signage to get them to you? Do you have a slogan, or catchy icon, or name? Are your suppliers the best for what you pay? READ our book on business, to learn more, at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>, "Books."

PRO-BUSINESS

(1/26/21-2)

I'm going to defend U.S. Business, against charges all but liberal Dem politicians bow to it, over workers:

1. Workers are of value to God, but also are a dime a dozen. If you have no unique skills, you aren't unique. Business management has skills you can't do, that are needed, and make U.S. Businesses globally competitive!
2. Without U.S. Businesses, most of you have NO job; survivalism and homestead, off-the-grid living is your lot in life, or begging street corner homelessness!
3. U.S. Business is competing globally! MANY nations don't require the things America does, of business, because we have more humane practices (like work breaks, safe workplaces, required overtime pay, unemployment insurance, no sweatshops or child labor, etc.). These are all costs to business profits competitor nations don't always face. Without profit, businesses fail/go bankrupt.
4. Everyone wants higher pay. We don't base that desire on facts, but emotion. Liberals speak of a 'living wage.' Everyone's idea of livable standard varies, and luxuries are often part of it. Bottom line, business sometimes does some evil things, all of which must be ended, but they are a higher priority for keeping our economy running; you have nothing without them!

ROBOTS, BUSINESS & PROPHECY

HOW will you compete against a robot employee? For MOST of you, you won't be able to, the more sophisticated they become! I WON'T live off Zuckerberg's $30K, nor will I take Yang's UNI of $12K/year! All these trends are pell mell leading us to Bible prophecy! The global race is for AI.

Business makes a good/wise decision, to replace anyone whose salary is equal to the cost of a replacement robot in a target payback period! Rather than just outsourcing jobs, or importing labor, robotics adds numbers to the workforce, ever clamoring for fewer jobs! The money supply is NOT unlimited, even though America can print funny money! The more the rich demand gains off every transaction, more pressure is exerted on wages lowering.

Government will have to intervene, for its citizens to live! THIS is where 1-world government will step in, after a series of deadly judgments from God, for 3.5 years–Rev. 6-13. Those machines and robots will be the tools/instruments by which one crazed politician will demand control of all economic transactions. They will have the power to kill. However, Rev. 17-18 indicates humans will still have jobs!

THIS means, logically, that apart from God’s supernatural intervention (which WILL happen), society is set for Rev. 13 when enough robots cause government to be forced to intervene, to save their citizens from mass unemployment. Governments intervention in the economy will first be.. to counter devastating calamities on earth! Rev. 6-12.

Reactions to Covid, Hurricane Harvey, et al, are just drip in the bucket precursors to how government will be called upon for emergency response, when Christians are taken out of this world.

How these future history events relate to today is our society and technology is rapidly advancing to a state where things like images of the Beast (replicas of human capacity-machines) are everywhere, and can easily be programmed to control every business transaction, and even to kill people with targeted lasers to an imbedded bar code, so no collateral damage occurs.

When you see self-checkout, driverless taxis and 18-wheelers, self-service, NO customer service, and other such "advances" from technology, KNOW that Bible prophecy can’t be too far away! Beware and be ready! John 3:16, the Bible

Even forgetting prophecy, as we never know when it will start, government will have to employ all non-robot owners, off taxes of robot owners. If those taxes are cheaper than hiring them, businesses will go along with that, but will the people agree to live off those wages, or a war?

IN DEFENSE OF CAPITALISM

(4/11/20)

IF for no other reason, Communism and Socialism are worse! I'm NOT for unbridled Capitalism, which is often what we've experienced since the yuppie days of the 1980's, with globalism. Businesses NEED to share profits (Ex.: annual bonuses), and workers NEED to unionize! We need equal leverage.

GOD is opposed to 'unbridled Capitalism,' where you profit off near slave labor, abuse the poor by ignoring their plight, and voting against helping them in any form or fashion, then hoarding all your wealth, selfishly and as an idol called greed. (I Tim. 6:17-19) I 100 percent oppose unbridled Capitalism and Socialism!

So why do you remain here? Because you KNOW it's better being here! You can learn Swedish; they may not let you in, because they're smart. But practice what you preach! Go live in Venezuela or Russia, to EXPERIENCE Socialism and Communism. You won't. #Hypocrite Soft Socialism disincentivizes investment by the rich.

If you want a better society for the poor and youth in America, I've detailed MANY ways to achieve that, but it's mainly by smart and hard work, some business practice changes, more unionizing, spending wiser (and less), and getting the rich to charitably give a higher percent. NOT by stealing freebies by vote!

Capitalism's greatest argument IS the past 250 years of U.S. Existence! People do NOT flock to other nations like they do here, and you can exclusively lay that credit at the feet of bridled vs. unbridled Capitalism! NOT Socialism or Communism! There's NO place I'd rather be! MOVE, if you disagree!

There are problems with unbridled Capitalism! People get filthy rich, and give back little-to-nothing. That's SIN. Jobs get replaced by robots, even by people who vote against helping those so displaced! People live it up while fellow Americans suffer in poverty, feeling zero connection to resolving that!

Profit-sharing is NOT popular, because many Capitalists are greedy and selfish. The people brought you your success, and ought to join in the benefits, Scrooge! Workers are expendable, as Covid has proved, to EVIL business people who put profits over health and safety. DIE to make me rich is EVIL!

But these problems CAN be overcome, without biting the hand that feeds you! Youth are angry that their entitlement mentality is rejected by BOTH political parties! When you're 18, it's time to spread those wings and fly, or flop. No one owes you a guaranteed lifestyle! YOU WORK for and EARN it!

EVERY U.S. Generation has known this! You are not special. Your plight is NOT unique. EVERY American starts out life on the bottom rung of economic success. How else could it be, when you've only been in school, and have little to offer business (excepting people who do internships). Live Spartan, and smart, and go find your niche! Go make your money!

I've given so many tips on how to live decently on a minimal salary, I WON'T repeat them! Tax payers DON'T owe you comfort and fun. No one owes you anything, when you're an adult. Look to your parents if they raised you so poorly that you never learned these facts in school! It's life's reality—deal with it.

It's NOT rich whites putting others down, or the rich preventing your success! Have you ever watched Shark Tank? Those people aren't begging government for freebies! They WORKED, and look where it gets many of them!

The sinful easy way is to vote for politicians to steal from tax payers; a SIN-full way to fund yourself. 'I deserve healthcare, daycare, family leave and free college.' REALLY? Why you?

When every other generation did NOT have those perks, as youth, why are you uniquely privileged, pampered and entitled? You picked up this evil attitude somewhere, and I suggest you get a refund from where you got it!

Youth OFTEN cite Sweden and Nordic nations as making life better, even for their poor and youth. GO LIVE THERE! Why try to make America into another nation's image, when we're the leaders the world envies, apart from our many sins? Literally, pack up and go become a Swede. They're great people!

CAPITALIST AMERICA

(10/9/20)

Capitalist America. WHERE are most diseases in man's history eradicated the most? Capitalist America. WHO does the world look to for leadership and help in major crises? Capitalist America. WHERE is the entertainment capital of the world? Capitalist America. WHERE are the greatest accumulation of professional athletes? Capitalist America. WHERE do the greatest movies come from? Capitalist America.

WHO has the strongest military and uses it to defend peace, vs. invade and take over other nations? Capitalist America. What culture has most influenced our world? Capitalist America. It is NOT nations that engage Robinhood theft! It is neither evil to profit off your labors, nor selfish.

ONLY IN America could even our poor people live at a higher standard of living than any other poor people in the world! WHERE are the drugs that keep us safe and healthy get developed more than anywhere else? Capitalist America.

WHERE in the world can ANYONE be ANYTHING they set their mind to becoming? Capitalist America. WHERE does your class/caste, color, history or family NOT restrict or limit your achievement? Capitalist America

WHERE did terrorists target their evil hatred more than anywhere else? Capitalist America. WHO kicked their a-s? Capitalist America. WHERE can you practice your religion, any religion, and even NO religion, and still be treated as doing what you're free to do? Capitalist America.

WHERE do the people/vast population/masses of individual citizens alone decide who is in power to enact laws that guide their lives? Capitalist America. WHERE would you most want to live, if you were capable of getting rich? Capitalist America. Who put a man on the moon? Capitalist America.

WHERE did the industrial revolution happen, more than anywhere else? Capitalist America. WHERE did workers get rights, and child labor and sweat shops are illegal? Capitalist America.

WHERE do people have a safety net, so no one severely suffers, in times of hardship? Capitalist America. WHERE is the market where business' stocks the world over are MOST traded and followed? Capitalist America.

WHO has the greatest world-class higher education? Capitalist America. WHAT nation is among the most philanthropical and charitably generous? Capitalist America.

Capitalism and a democratic republic (NOT a pure democracy, or direct representation) are the bedrock foundation upon which the greatest nation in the history of the world (I say, humbly, thankful to God) was built and stands, and it was never, has never been and never will be Socialism!

In a free enterprise economy, you are FREE to buy whatever you want, and businesses are free to set prices wherever they want, and can sell their wares. Their profit margins are private, as none of your concern, because you're free to shop around and get the best value you can find!

And their profiting, vs. breaking even or losing money, is what Capitalist America is all about! When they make money, they can make more products to bless the world. When they don't, you're stuck with past- or current-state of technology. People who begrudge Capitalism aren't good at it.

Update: Capitalism & Poverty

(10/22/20-2)

IS Capitalism sinful? Is it evil to profit/make money? Is it evil to make lots of money, or to have an economic system that rewards hard work and ingenuity? NO to all! It's evil when it's your idol, or there's not much societal give back when people do do well, financially! I Tim. 6:17-19

Disability covers many like that, but any like that who aren't qualified for it! NOT people who have too many kids, free-willedly, or spend too much, or are lazy, or aren't maxed out in their skills and work effort. They deserve zero societal help, absent charities dumb to help 'em.

Severe suffering poverty is the ONLY thing society must ensure doesn't occur! NOT poverty eradication. The poor you have with you always! It's the single mothers, the disabled, the mentally challenged, the people with no real talents who are maxed out that need help—ONLY!

PARISHIONER PRIORITIES

(12/25/19)

Pastor @johnmarkcaton polled his nearby community, and their top concerns were finances, comebacks from failures, health, anxiety, work enjoyment, stress, scheduling/time management, friendships, marriage, work-life balance, knowing God's will and doubts. Let's address them, biblically and logically:

FINANCES. Spend less! Buy smarter! Don't keep up with the futile Jones'! Work harder and smarter.

FAILURES. Forgive yourself; we're all imperfect. Learn from your mistakes, and don't repeat them (Pv. 26:11). Any who judge you for failing aren't your friends, so care NOTHING of their opinions! (Gal. 1:10) Memorize these three verses: Phil. 3:13; Joel 2:25; I Cor. 2:14.

HEALTH. Eat healthy, get regular medical check-ups, exercise, pray for health, but know we live in a fallen world, and Christians aren't immune from sickness or disease, and aren't promised perfect health in this life.

ANXIETY. Memorize Phil. 4:6-7. Read Mt. 6:19-33 and Col. 3:14. Don't over-commit; prioritize! Busy lives leave no room for meditation or reflection (Josh. 1:8), and multi-tasking may impress men, but not all activity is valuable achievement!

WORK ENJOYMENT. Col. 3:23-24. Analyze what you don't like about your job, and fix it, if within your power. Get another job (or position within the firm), or ask for more (or less) responsibility, as the case may be. There are inventions I could make to make you enjoy your job more! Find your calling, and you'll not hate what you do. Spend less, and you're your job's slave less!

TIME MANAGEMENT. We all have the same amount. If you don't prioritize, and realize you can't do everything, Ur always chasing the clock, burning the candle at both ends. Give your plans to the Lord, and follow His specifics. Pv 16:9 Set routines, from habit, are more efficient than unplanned lifestyles

WORK-LIFE BALANCE. You spend too much time commuting and working, to find life balance! Your after work life is NOT the problem! Learn to be more efficient at work; move closer to it, telecommute, carpool (so you can relax, or work on the road), and seek work rewards for less effort but the same results, as employers will always add more to your plate, if you let them! 'You have what you tolerate!'

GOD'S WILL. Read more Bible, prayerfully and submissively. Do what you know is right, and God will show you if that's not His will.

DOUBTS. Same thing... read more Bible! (Rom. 10:17)

P.S.: Ask your employer if you can arrive and leave earlier, to be more productive and avoid rush hour! Four-day work weeks are a GREAT stress reliever that studies show often produce more productivity. Houston had off-hour commute schedules, to lessen traffic congestion. A six-hour day, no lunch, and little traffic?

MOST people WASTE up to two hours a day at work. Why wouldn't it benefit both employer and employee to have those two hours at home, and just blow-and-go for six straight hours at peak performance at the height of an employee's productive waking hours? SKIP rush hour, and be less stressed when you arrive at work (and home), before or after rush hour traffic jams?

CATHOLICS & PROTESTANTS

(10/13/20-2)

People on Twitter were mocking evangelicals/WASPs/born again Christians/Protestants pushing Catholic ACB, saying evangelicals otherwise hate Catholics, unless it serves their political purposes. Youth think disagreement is hatred, as with calling homosexuality sin is phobic and hate!

Protestants (P) and Catholics (C) share MANY beliefs in common, like the tenets of the Apostles' creed, though P's aren't credalists. There's one and only one difference between our two doctrines that makes a YUGE distinction!

Official dogma of works getting one to Heaven, vs. faith in Christ alone. A very close second is the Bible vs. tradition, or any Bible adding apocryphal books not in the canon, but especially man's traditions being on equal par with Scripture.

These two BIG differences are HUGE, but salvation by works, or having to do the seven sacraments is an eternal separation between the two groups of 'Christendom' that can NEVER be fully harmonized!

That's what Martin Luther, Zwingli and Calvin's Protestant Revolution was all about—sola scriptura, sola fide! And these ODD beliefs of yesteryear (some continuing to today) will always make us two groups!:
<https://carm.org/.../list-of-roman-catholic-false-teachings>

But the things we share in common, we agree and unite on, just as Dems do with minorities and LGBTQs, united for political power, though commonalities aren't always much more than that.

I'd add we disagree on confessional booths to priests, calling ministers 'father' (Mt 23:9), and their not being able to be married (I Cor. 9:5), holy water, infant baptism, rosaries, penance, veneration of Mary, anti-contraception, etc., added to LaHaye's HUGELY significant list of ~12 historic errors of their past, which this dude adds to in thorough detail: <https://d3hgrlq6yacptf.cloudfront.net/.../1393876384.pdf>

So it's NOT hatred, but disagreeing, while you major on majors and unite for political power in America! Coalitions, not cohesion! And Protestants have their list of historic errors, like being dividedly cut off by denominationalism worship, saying all dancing is evil, drinking in moderation, wrongly seen as a no-no, to some (I Tim. 3:8, 5:23; Mt. 11:18), 10 percent mandatory tithe, red letter Christians (who think Jesus' words are superior to other Scripture (II Tim. 3:16-17), and any other practices that don't conform to God's word.

The point is we unite by what unites us, and in politics, helping the poor vs. abortion are BOTH moral issues, but Dems want to help them by theft, while GOP's want to protect innocent life, though rarely concerned with the safety of the mom.

There is NOT hatred, but disagreement, hopefully agreeably, and on the one most important difference, they will forever be differentiated, as works do not work to get anyone to Heaven, and out of Hell! John 3:16; Eph. 2:8-10; Gal. 2:21

And if ANY politician uses their religion for political reasons more than they're faithful practicers, they are sinners in practice, be it a CINO (Catholic in name only) or a EINO (evangelical in name only).

Morally, MOST religions agree in peace, war as last resort, national defense, no hatred or violence, theft is wrong, as with rape, incest, bestiality, polygamy (some Mormons excepting), adultery, divorce (two biblical exceptions), drunkenness, rudeness, arrogance, lying, hypocrisy, deception (I'm describing D.C., it appears to me), fighting, envy, murder, and a host of other sins! Abortion and homosexuality just happen to be the most popular politically wedge sins in America!

And as to ACB on Obamacare, if wealth redistribution is NOT even implicitly in the U.S. Constitution, it was legally wrong! It IS the law of America, it needs major overhauls, but I was for replace and improve vs. repeal. I value precedent's STABILITY, even if I disagree with a SCOTUS ruling!

So when anyone says Christians hate or are phobic of gays, they're usually wrong or lying. Same with hating women, because we hate them killing their babies, who are NOT just part of 'their body,' but a separate human being. And Evangelicals don't hate Catholics, but disagree on what I detailed.

Update

While I'm on the topic of Catholicism vs. Protestantism,

1. Is the Bible equal with or superior in authority to any human traditions?, and,
2. Do good works play any role in anyone going to Heaven? The answers are, respectively, "superior and exclusive" and "no, for earning such!"

There's NO purgatory, reincarnation, cessationism or annihilationism; ONLY Heaven or Hell, and Christ within is the ONLY differentiator between the two! (2/25/15)

CHURCH PRIORITIES

(11/21/20-2)

There are TWO results initially befalling every Christian, upon death-Hearing 'well done, thou good and faithful servant,' or shrinking in shame at His coming. Mt. 25:21 vs. I Jn.. 2:28. Set your mind on the things NOT below! Col. 3:1-4. Do we?... Cf.: II Tim. 2:4 everyday life entangled. (11/7/20-2)

THE number one problem of the Church is NOT teaching and doing 'EDBS,' much. People living for this world, wasting away their lives chasing money, just wasting away their lives doing little-to-nothing, or working to seek favor with God, all to 'glorify God,' happy they're "tithers." SUCH deception!

Perhaps one church is exempt from this, but after SIX years, WHY hasn't every church YET adopted a practical plan to evangelize ALL lost people within one mile of their building, for evangelism? Hell's not hot enough? A miraculous falling away! Let people go to Hell, UNwarned! That's negligence.

Irrefutably, God's top four priorities for Christians/the Church are FULL/thorough evangelism of every lost person on earth, FULL discipling/maturing up in the word and morality of every church member/saved soul, DOING the one another's of Scripture, using spiritual gifts when gathered, and changing the world/turning it upside down for morality and problem-solving, ushering in more of Thy kingdom come on earth, through social ministry (especially ministry to the poor).

READ the WHOLE New Testament, and EDDBS priorities are obvious. Stay Bible illiterate, and 'EDDBS' sounds like a human construct. READ the entire book of Acts, if you're too lazy to do that, and evangelism and discipleship are clearly God's top priorities!

The first century Christians reached entire cities, countries and continents, moving on after one got reached; always seeking more souls to save!

The average U.S. Christian has never won one person to Jesus, and RARELY speaks the gospel to people! I know some, later in life, who probably have never spoken once! WHAT DOES GOD KEEP YOU LIVING DOWN HERE FOR, when you're such a fruitless/useless child of God? He said those would be burned, or He'd take away! Jn. 15

Let's work through the LOGIC of EDBS, for any who haven't read us before: EVERY human goes to Hell if they die unsaved. Hell is fiery punishment, and is eternal. HOW could anything be as BIG as evangelism, or the means by which a person gets saved from Hell?

In all our 80 years, or less, or more, the ONLY purpose for man's existence, for his own benefit vs., others' or Gods', is to make sure his death doesn't end up in Hell! 80 or so years to figure out this whole thing we call life. Yet, most people never do! Hell eats up the majority of people you know and see daily!

And once a person's sins are all forgiven, and they know God personally, He wants that relationship grown/matured, intimately, so saved souls start living more as He did (which was morally—100 percent so, only in His case). That does NOT happen without Bible ingesting/meditating! So MANY Christians are Heaven certain, and Bible illiterate. My brethren, these things ought not be this way!

Let's try the 'B' of EDBS: Body Life. In the first and first century Church, Christians gathered MORE than just on the Lord's day! Sometimes daily, and sometimes in homes.

But our modern model has us together mainly for one worship service a week. That being the ONLY time we are all together (many don't even attend Bible fellowship of smaller groups), that is the time for laymen involvement with each other's lives!

The church is a family and a body, and it only works properly when it functions as such! No body is healthy with missing limbs, or family reunion complete when we segregate by sex or age group! ONLY the main service is when laymen are to NOT be spectators, but participants in the healthy functioning of the WHOLE body, using spiritual gifts to edify each other/it.

And finally, the Church is to emulate Christ, who is probably best known to lost people for His gracious kindness, and caring for the down and out, the orphan, widow, stranger, foreigner, poor, disabled and needy. Changing society's many ills should be something Christians lead at (alongside loving one another and prayer; Jn. 13:35; Mt. 21:13)—not the exclusive purview of the politically liberal!

If churches don't do EDBS, HOW can we say we've obeyed II Chron. 7:14, and expect revival? "Wicked ways" ignore God's top priorities!

Update

(11/23/20-2)

Sins of Gods church: Judgment will first come upon claiming Christians. For what, you may ask?...

1. Your politics being your idol/god/religion.
 2. LYING that man can serve God and money—you just balance them, and send in a tithe.
 3. Refusing to do EDBS priorities even tokenly.
 4. Believing the lie that your mind set above is only on Sunday for 1.5 hours, or in your quiet time.
 5. Your faith NOT being in God, but your bank account.
 6. Worldliness and selfishness, blamed on 'glorifying God.'
 7. Belief that personal character doesn't matter if the policies are correct.
 8. Win at all costs idolatry, and fear-mongering how bad things could be if your team loses.
- There are SO many Bible verses God's people ignore and rebel against in ignorance, letting their pastor be their brain, and their Bibles go untouched in personal study. But then, I'm just always negative.

HOW CHURCH WORKS

(12/2/20-2)

Acts 1:8 The Holy Spirit was given to empower these new believers, primarily so they would evangelism, which they did. Ch. 2 "tongues" were UN-learned, known languages these people spoke to foreigners visiting Jerusalem in, concerning God, miraculously never haven studied before.

2:22-40 A reinvigorated Peter publicly evangelizes, which makes him the Church leader, before Paul (because he evangelized), having failed Christ 3 times, when the cock crowed, as Jesus predicted, just a short time earlier. The Spirit's power and Christ's resurrection gave him courage!

And look at the very first church-a mega church of over 3000 (2:41-47) IS YOUR CHURCH described like they voluntarily, spontaneously and instantly were?: Water baptized, continually devoted to being taught and fellowship and Lord's Supper. Everyone feeling a sense of awe, amidst miracles.

Voluntarily, wanting to ensure none of them had a lack/need, by giving assets and money. Day by day, continuing in one mind (NOT diversity of theology or commitment) eating together in temples and homes, with gladness and sincerity of heart—not having to go to church once a week!

Praising God, and having favor (vs. disdain, over politics and sinful behavior) with ALL the people. And daily, God was adding to their number by people being saved. That HARDLY describes ANY church I know! Peter continues his public evangelism sermons (Chs. 3-4), causing religious and governmental opposition and even physical persecution.

After repeated miracles, LOOK at 4:32-37, how the second church (5,000+ members) was described: Of one heart and soul/no division, possessions voluntarily in common, powerful evangelism by leadership, abundant grace upon them all. The fear of God came with judgments on some sins (5:1-11).

LOOK at these verses about church growing naturally, through God—5:14, 6:7, 12:24, 19:20. Then church offices get arranged, so the leaders don't have to engage lesser things than prayer and Bible ingestion, leading to evangelism and discipling (Ch. 5).

Widows were cared for, symbolizing social ministry to needy people (6:1-7. Miracles kept happening, as did conflict with government trying to stifle their religious expression, but here's how they stood firm against such attacks (4:19-20, 5:20, 29). Persecution then arose, which spread evangelism further than they may have stretched, otherwise (8:1, 4).

Healings occurred, often. Joy (8:8) and favor with society existed. People were blessed by these few people turning the world upside down (17:6)! Their success was a threat to the religious and political order, just as Jesus was seen as a competitor to corrupt Roman authorities/politicians.

Read these verses about how the church matured up (especially after evangelism was finished)—9:31, 11:23, 13:43, 52, 14:26-27, 15:35-36 (after evangelism), 41, 16:5, 15, 18:11, 27, 20:20, and how evangelism flourished, thoroughly—8:5, 14, 25-40, 9:20, 22, 28, 35, 42, 10:1-48, 11:1, 19, 21, 24, 13:5, 7, 44, 48-49, 14:3, 7, 15, 21, 15:35, 16:5, 14, 31-34, 17:1-3, 17-34, 18:5, 28, 19:8, 10, 18 (public repenting), even before rulers (Chs. 22-26), 28:23-24, 28-31; and amazement-8:13, 13:12 (also word search prayer, fasting and joy, in Acts!).

NOW, compare that record with sitting in a pew, hearing a sermon and giving 10 percent of your income, and there is absolutely NO comparison whatsoever! It is a great argument against evolution, as we have digressed worse than the first baby Christians!

Will you EVER hear that chapter update as a sermon in any church in America? UNlikely! The evidence is too incriminating. They were NOT forced to act that way, or required to behave thusly under threat they wouldn't get Heaven if they didn't. They had the joy of grace-based salvation!

That's the ultimate walking by sight—ignoring what God said, and what He showed has happened, to build churches made after man's image he sees all around him! [Unpublished]

The Church's attitude is all have heard, though seven times per person is needed, one's all they need, we've done our job, everyone's going to Hell, so let's ignore that and party like it's 1999, then the Rapture will come to bless us even more. Dabble a little, inbetween.

CHRISTIANS & THE SAFETY NET

(AKA, Welfare and Wealth; Christ and Culture; 5/1/19)

No one knows how long it will take to land a job, once unemployed, and most Americans have little excess to live off during that time. Hence, unemployment insurance is an excellent idea! Those rich enough to not care wouldn't want to opt in, but since the money comes from your earnings, that's O.K. If they never need it; if they do, they paid in nothing, so they couldn't opt back in.

My point is our social safety net is MORAL. It's also smart to ensure people have money when they retire, in case they can't or don't save up, so they're NOT burdens to family or charities. Those rich enough to not need Social Security will argue they could have invested that money, and made more, but if their fortunes reversed, they'd want to opt in, having never paid in.

My point, again, is our social safety net is MORAL. Rich folk begrudge government making them participate, but you never know for 100 percent certain that you'll never need it!

And when it comes to Welfare, again, the rich believe they'll never need it, but it gets despised because recipients DIDN'T pay in! In short, political conservatives ONLY want everyone to pay their own way through life, 100 percent (excepting cops and military, paid by taxes—maybe public teachers and a few politicians), because they don't feel they'll ever need any government help (which you can never know for certain), and that premise proves they have little concern for others, selfishly assured they'll be fine.

They argue free-willed is morally better than forced, then most of them immorally don't give much, because it's a ruse to make helping others little-to-none (hoarding, greed and selfishness) LOOK/sound/appear moral! Not everyone is 'gonna be as well off as conservatives believe everyone should or can be, because they are. Not everyone has a family to rely on, between jobs, or a nest egg.

They wrap themselves in the Constitution to say any taxes used to help fellow citizens is EVIL and illegal "wealth redistribution." It's ALL about money, and often in the name of 'Jesus.' We 'wanna be good Christians, but don't let our government help the less fortunate, the way the Jews' tax system did. Why? Because we love money, and are selfish, OPPOSITE of being a disciple of Jesus!

Call it a 'Christian nation,' as if Capitalism is God, because we suffer (better, crave) the love of money sin! But accuse us of such, and one is advocating a 'poverty complex,' or 'Socialism!'

I'm advocating for a society where no one severely suffers poverty! Jesus said it will always be around (Mt. 26:11), but it's NOT evil to help the poor, and even the tithe and Jubilee years and laws on farmers' excess aided the poor, with God's people, so why do God's New Testament people have an opposite view? Because they value their interpretation of the Constitution over their uninformed interpretation of their little-known Bibles!

READ Ac. 2, 4; II Cor. 8. Voluntarily—not by force—Christians cared for others. It's NOT evil to do so. They also engaged ministry much more than we do (read the FULL book)! There's the difference! You can't serve God and money, so we've opted for money, with church attendance as our check box religious duty.

DO YOU SEE THAT PRACTICE in Acts? NO! In short, NO Christian can be following Christ and be an avid political conservative, unless sin is an active problem for them, in their lack of thinking biblically about their politics!

You can be anti-abortion, and NOT a conservative! Your party and position is PER ISSUE, or you're lazy (a sin) or ignorant (a sin). You try to apply the Bible as much as possible to your views, as we don't leave Jesus in the church house.

The FULL counsel of God is God's standard (Ac. 20:27), as opposed to cherry-picking a few moral injunctions or prohibitions, as much as is possible under the government system you are in submission to. Communist Christians have much less chance to express Christian values in their public squares!

And concerning paid overtime, 40 hour work weeks, safe working conditions and job benefits, these laws, which infringe on how business could maximize profits, are MORAL, and Christians SHOULD support morals over money! (Mt. 6:24) OFTEN we don't, as PROVED by 81 percent of WASPs rewarding THIS behavior: <http://facebook.com/jim.meroney.3/> facebook.com/jim.meroney.3/.

We cherry-pick, and accept the whole kitchen sink of sins by identifying with all that comes from NOT thinking, but choosing a party and theory, hook, line and sinker, called conservatism, OFTEN because being a spiritual conservative IS holy! We confuse political with spiritual, due to that term, from IGNORANCE sin!

You can hold any position on any issue in any party or political theory, and Christians CAN'T choose to support sins in the party or theory they identify with. YET WE DO, because greed isn't a sin to many American Christians, because they don't know their Bibles, or care, because they love money (a sin). We attend church, which supposedly covers all sins, or at least cleanses the conscience, though NOT before God.

Many morally good things in our society have come from the political party many Christians paint/spin as immoral (because of abortion and homosexuality), when WASPs themselves support many other sins. As Buttigieg said, 'God has no political party.' He only has positions on issues.

You decide which party and politician MOST represents Christian values, and vote for them, even as you fight their immoral deeds, words and positions! You never wash your hands, after you vote, and accept their sins!

The O. S. Hawkins sermon, 'You have what you tolerate,' ought to be required listening for EVERY U.S. Christian! All that's required for evil to prevail is good people to do (or say) nothing.

Christians are supposed to change our culture to the more moral, increasingly and incrementally, over time. MOST of us just say abortion is evil, vote accordingly, then return to the rat race paper (dollar) chase, contrary to Pv. 23:4-5, hypocritically and sinfully, because it's convenient, tradition (Mk. 7:8; Col. 2:8), we love our money (I Tim. 6:10), and we know God's word so LITTLE (OPPOSITE of II Tim. 2:15).

The problem in white Christianity is NOT so much our politics, but our spiritual walks with Christ, as I've said for DECADES! One is foundational to the other! In Laodicea, disciples are RARE!

P.S.: It would be ideal for all severe poverty suffering to be remedied privately. However, we are not as generous as to consistently be able to rely on that! Sporadic and chinchy, often, so Welfare steps in to provide what's needed, stably.

It HAS to be temporary, self-sufficiency-empowering, and tokenly repaid by compulsory civic service. NO abuse, fraud, waste, or Welfare queens, or encouraging birthing babies to get 'mo money! But its existence is NOT evil! Its abuses are! Our safety net is MORAL, despite any immoral abuses we need to fully weed out! Christians should always support moral policies.

And let's review the CREDIBLE allegation liberals raise that conservatives are greedy and selfish. Here are ALL the things conservatives are for, all which benefit their personal pocket books: End five federal agencies, NO wealth redistribution (i.e., Welfare), end minimum wage, end the estate tax, lower taxes, lower wages from illegals and legal immigrants (i.e., flood the labor market to drive wages down), outsource (for cheaper wages), automate (to replace workers), always want less regulations (where consumers and workers often get squeezed), tax loopholes, etc.

Conservatism is about conserving the rich's money! Any moderate or liberal rich person KNOWS this, and actively disagrees with that attitude/personal value, as should every Christian, as selfishness, hoarding and greed/love of money are all listed as sins (Phil. 2; Ecc. 5:13; Lk. 12:15). THESE sins aren't reproached by conservatives—ONLY abortion and homosexuality! That's NOT the FULL counsel of God! (Rev. 22:19)

WHITE & BLACK CHRISTIANS

(9/2/19)

THIS will be HARD to do... try to explain to NON-Christians what gathered Christians are to be doing, so you see where so many problems in our society originate: JUST like the Old Testament Jews, Christians are to be a light to the world—not hurdles, blockades or stumbling blocks.

As a group, congregated, "EDBS" is their mission! A REAL church is to be known by non-Christians for their love for one another, and prayer results/power. Can y'all say Robert Jeffress and Freddy Haynes exhibit that organic unity of the Spirit? One cares about the living poor, while the other the unborn. BOTH legitimate Bible concerns, yet ANIMOSITY between brothers.

Word search 'quarrels' and 'divisions,' and PRIDE is their root, and there are MANY injunctions against it, and examples of it in the New Testament! Idiocy. Both/and vs either or. Tastes great, less filling. Duh 101.

In any church, white or black, they are to be led by a man with these priorities: "EDBS." What that acronym stands for is IRRELEVANT. I'll present it as to a baby alien from Mars...

If Christians, through Jesus, have the only way to Heaven, and it's good news and a free gift for eternity, they SHOULD ensure everyone gets a chance to go there (and I'm NOT speaking of church membership)! Many of us never do! Sin.

And for every Christian, growing up into Christ-likeness/holiness is the next greatest priority! Do you, non-Christians, see many claimers of Christ whose deeds are exceptionally different from average in their goodness sense? Failure and sin!

Then, all Christians have been supernaturally/miraculously enabled to do actions not natural to their skill set, and use them to bless other Christians, when Christians are together. If you, non-Christian, have visited any church lately, do you see church members serving each other during the gathering, or do you see only professionals speaking, and often singing on stage? UNbiblical.

And finally, JUST LIKE the Jesus we are to be emulating, He was known for going about doing good. (Ac. 10:38) Are U.S. Christians known for bringing goodness to society? Hospitals, yes, originally non-profit. It seems everything we Christians now touch gets commercialized.

Our faith is to impact EVERY aspect of life, including our politics! Do you see that, non-Christian? Instead, don't you see two camps rigidly adhering to moral issues of their own cherry-picking!?

Fix all problems, no matter who pays, if we overspend, and by robbing Peter to enact Paul's agenda, vs. live for this world and its wealth, and parrot "personal responsibility" as a cover for selfishness. My brethren, these things ought not be this way!

Shall brothers walk separate ways, or live in harmony? (Am. 3:3; Ecc. 4:12) We cast stones from our stain glassed fish bowl sanctuaries at our brothers, WORSE that the fighting believers in secular law courts! (I Cor. 6:1-8) WHAT is the outside world to think of our Jesus, due to our behaviors, and lack of priorities, even as we claim to be 'values voters,' and a 'family?'

Repent, every politically active pastor who has idolized political power and party, for PARTIAL policies, slandering your brother (through the media), who possesses that same partiality! Embrace the FULL counsel of God!

The answers are NOT in party worship (idolatry sin, even if for good intentions), but principles exalting! Mr. Jeffress claimed Democrats are provenly NOT the party for religious folk, when 81 percent of religious folk empowered a serial liar, adulterer, egoist and lover of money! Abortion is NOT all God cares about, Bobby. Read His FULL Book! Thanks!

And helping the poor is NOT how you would summarize the entire Bible, Mr. Haynes! You two are GUILTY of condensing God's word to one issue each, and God warns you both against doing so! (Deut. 4:2; Rev. 22:18-19)

Come down from your soap box and clean off with said soap, as your sins are obvious to all non-Christians! Partiality and bias are SINS! No one can say you and your political "bunch" aren't partial ONLY to your 'side,' seeing the other as the enemy!

When Christians are fighting, both for moral matters, yet opposing each other, you know the devil is getting victory, through pride sin. Repent if you want revival—BOTH sides' constituents!

And IF you argue you're only representing the voice of your constituents, you are not a leader or influencer, but a follower with a platform! Biblical pastors disciple/raise up their children to be holy, which is what uniting all brethren could be described as being!

MORALS IN POLITICS? (Part I)

(10/17/20)

Let's address morals in politics. Ross Perot said "War has rules, mud wrestling has rules—politics has not rules." We ALL know he was right about this wrong! IT IS WRONG that D.C.

Politics has no SET rules, or that the goal posts can move when it serves our selfish purposes! 'We the people' can't trust career or amateur politicians to police themselves, or agree long enough to pass rules on their own behavior! It's NOT in their SELFISH interests!

They often play fast and loose, flip-flop, backtrack, evolve, and generally behave as moral chameleons, to keep their jobs! So what rules should be in place? I'm ONLY suggesting Bible verses that apply, not specific rules, but our website suggests some, with fines attached, like lies being fined!

What does God say about taking the high road, or getting down and dirty? Should political argumentation be two monks at a chess board, kindly awaiting the other's move, or should it be the MMA? NEITHER extreme!

Here are some relevant verses: Justice (Mic 6:8), peace, or walk away (Rom. 12:18), reconcile/common ground (Mt. 5:9/II Cor. 5:18), sometimes fighting fire with fire (Rom. 13:7/Ecc. 3:8), a time for allowing the other to sin against you (Mt. 5:39), but NEVER a doormat (Eph. 6:13/Lk. 11:21), allowing room for God's revenge (Rom. 12:19), telling the truth, as opposed to lies (Eph. 4:15), being more positive than negative, even in TV ads (Phil. 4:9), forgiving (Lk. 11:24), praying for and doing good to your opponent (Lk. 6:27), be humble (you aren't perfect—Jas. 4:6), rebuke and stand against evil (Mk. 6:18), and know God's view of men's TEMPORARY competitions (Eph. 6:12/Ecc. 4:4). In everything be led of the Spirit, by faith (Rom. 8:14/II Cor. 5:7).

So what are some pragmatics?

1. Lead by example. Don't wait for your opponent to join, but don't let him take advantage of your goodness, either!
2. Practice what you preach! Hypocrisy is a career skill in Washington. Have core values, unwavering.
3. Be flexible on minors, and major on majors.
4. Arrogant my-way-or-the-highway domination desire or decisions are sin.
5. Initiate friendships on the other side, as we all bleed red, and put our pants on one leg at a time.
6. Do not seek extremes, as they are certain to engender backlash! Pv. 16:11/Rom. 2:11
7. Consider the other side's desires (Phil. 2:1-7).

MANY other principles apply, but seeking a TRUCE between the Hatfield's and the McCoy's is essential, even if by a neutral third party! You would EXPECT God-fearers and Christians to start that process. Instead, we are entrenched tribalists, clinging to our party idolatry. Repent!

When you view politics as war, EXPECT these adages are NOT lost on your opponent!: Fight fire with fire, give them a taste of their own medicine, paybacks are Hell, don't get mad—get even. Here's what God thinks of men's STUPID competitions!: Ecc. 4:41 Dominate, then get destroyed or reversed! (10/25/20-2)

Let's write a biblical argument for morals in politics. First, with no rules, anything goes. Judg. 21:25 The two extremes of hyper righteous or hyper sinful are also rejected. Ecc. 7:16, I Cor. 5:2. JUSTICE has to be the standard, or we only do what's best for our party, vs. nation! Mic. 6:8 (10/25/20-2)

Update

(10/12/20-2)

ANYTIME you speak publicly about morals, two questions seem to always arise: By what authority do you determine them, and by what authority do you speak on the topic?

OFTEN ways to didge not wanting to deal with one's personal sins. You can never talk about all morals, as the number is in the thousands, so selective 'morality' will always be alleged, by those angered by the subject.

Who has a right to speak with authority is not the person with just an opinion, but people who show they comprehend the subject, and it helps if they live some sort of moral life! NEVER perfectly, to which the ignorant will WRONGLY allege 'hypocrisy.'

But morality is behind almost every law we live under! And because we are not a theocracy, law books determine the issues where morals overlap laws, as an expression of historic precedence, by a government of the people.

People can get defensive, when 'their' topic gets raised! And those who speak on morals must always know they can fall from any standard they're living by! I Cor. 10:12., Gal. 6:1.

Despite those dangers, the subject is very important, especially as fewer people attend religious institutions. People disagree on what a sin and moral are, usually because they're engaged in the former, or don't want to do the latter, but we intuitively know right from wrong, as conscience is the image of God resident within all, at least until it gets squelched.

Rom. 2:15 The BIG problem/challenge is we don't always want to do right! The sin nature always wants to do evil, even if doing good, for self-acclamation evil motives! Lost people can't do morally good before God, by HIS definition, not man's.

They get zero credit in Heaven for what people call good deeds (because God's definition is His deeds worked through you by His power and initiative). Yet, even lost man is to do good! Ecc. 3:12 That never gets anyone to Heaven, but it'll keep trials in this life from being as many or intense (more than likely), or other general blessings in life.

If public schools have all but abandoned civics courses, and fewer go to church, moral lessons have to be learned somewhere, and the school of hard knocks is a slow teacher! Hence, we address how #MoralsMatter, here, OFTEN, citing rationale, common sense, Bible and examples as proof.

And on morals, here are Billy Graham, Mother Teresa, Gandhi types, then there's the rest of us, and at the low ebb, the Hitler's of the world. It's a range of achievement. No one likes goody-two shoes/holier-than-thou types, but we all must try to be our best. #MoralsMatter

RELIGIOUS EXTREMISM IN POLITICS

(9/24/21-2)

I CAN'T BELIEVE "Christians" vote politically conservative! It is a true confusion of terms and the Bible! Theological conservatism means you take the Bible literally, and don't deny its miracles (a GOOD thing!). Political conservatism means all these evils (a BAD thing):

1. Celebrate stupid. The examples are ENDLESS! Just to name a few, without the detailed examples, WHERE do conspiracy theories and alternative facts come from? THINK of the antics of Boebert, Gaetz and Greene, for one. Thinking is NOT their forte!

Just yesterday, TALK RADIO (their bastion of brain numbing) said they were down on college degrees, because that's where liberalism gets indoctrinated. I have four degrees, and never heard a word about political liberalism. What a FOOL! That's reinforcing belief in stupidity! In a world of STEM and information age, dumbing sheeple down is most atrocious for their lives, careers and our country!

2. They SAY Dems hate America. That's an inner attitude no one can prove, as it's likely rarely felt by many Dems, but they use open borders as proof. How about they have DUMB positions—not that they hate America. But that's the point! Demonize the enemy/opponent, which is my third point.

3. Dems are evil/vile wicked. You probably missed #4, as well:

4. LIE! Just attributing evil desires, motives, intentions to all Dems is both lying, and the logical fallacy of generalizing about all, without proof of the real percent. Again, DUMB! Dumb, evil, and let's add,

5. Divisive. It's us vs. them, our way or no way. And what evils are in their way?

a) Tax policy FAVORING the rich. God says DON'T do that, yet "Christians" are all in! Levit. 19:15 Just yesterday, as well, talk radio stated Dems never know any facts, like how much the rich pay. The Biden's administration says on average its near eight percent. Talk radio talking heads would DEFEND the rich paying LESS than their fair share, as they won't bite the hand that feeds their lucrative gigs, for justice, morality, or any cause!

I AGREE EVERYONE owes a fair share! I DISagree the rich should be favored, like ANY person or business paying ZERO in taxes! As a WISE twitterer said, "if you can go to space, you can pay taxes!"

b) Conservatives do NOT agree with God on the giving back! I Tim. 6:17-19 HOW can Christians be in bed with them, politically?

BECAUSE of sinfulness/"carnality" among claimers of Christ! 67 percent of claimers say the Holy Spirit isn't a real Person. That's not only blasphemy, but apostasy! NO WONDER people who say there "Christians" abandon Christian morals to support evil, as TRUMP consistently exhibited! It's a natural progression.

c) Conservatives WANT all poor people to struggle! YES, their WORDS say they want equal opportunity, but ALL the poor get are words! NO help from government. Occasional help from church outings, and certainly help from charities. DON'T YOU DARE USE ONE DIME OF TAXES TO HELP ANYONE!!!

d) There is no such thing as "worldliness," in political conservatism, even though God speaks of it often! NO ONE can be greedy, selfish, or materialistic, because the almighty dollar is worshipped, and the American dream is the goal of life—NOT doing God's will! THIS IS CONSERVATISM.

e) Government responsibly paying its bills is NOT the concern of conservatism! Just tax me less! Government IS too BIG and wasteful, but conservatives themselves ADDED $8 TRILLION to our debt under their fuehrer! HYPOCRISY! Yet another SIN of political conservatism!

f) Let's talk race! Political conservatism NEVER EVER goes to ANY poor neighborhood or area/side of town for more than a drive through on their way to somewhere better! They have ZERO first-hand knowledge of what the black and brown community OFTEN endure!

They even deny there's ANY white privilege, EVEN THOUGH if you asked them TO A PERSON if they rather be born white, or black and brown, in America, they always fail a lie detector if they answered anything but the former! But claiming (maybe not actually being) "Christians" are taught by preachers and talk radio to be "conservative!"

AGAIN, DO NOT accept/embrace/adopt the devil's sin of confusion (I Cor. 14:33) between a theological conservative and a political one! Using the same term isn't meaning the same thing. If you do, your again embracing stupidity! Dumbing down, and reinforcing the Jesus' followers are ignorant and naïve stereotype/reputation!

Update #1

A BRIEF update on our earlier chapter—People who are NOT Christians NEED to know this: There are politicized pastors who paint YOU as "godless" and "secular," AS IF all church-goers are holy. Word to the wise, they are NOT! The majority are what the Bible calls "carnal."

And many NON-Christians are decent people in their desires, ambitions and behavior! They are just born sinners, like us all! JESUS Himself taught Christians to love the lost, and be friends with them, but for politics, some of us demonize you as evil people! That's evil!

Preacher James Robison was famous for stirring up GOP votes by lumping/generalizing Dems as "godless sinners," degenerates, reprobates and perverts. IS THIS HOW JESUS TALKED ABOUT OR TREATED THE LOST? No! There but by the grace of God go I is more like Him! Not arrogant holier than thou, for politics!!!

AIDS as God's punishment for homosexuals, and the recent revision, the reason hurricanes eventually go to the East Coast (even though they don't always do so). This is the WARPING of Christianity, folks, all for politics (including saying I don't know any libs/Dems who are real Christians).

Be bold enough to have the courage of your convictions enough to go to every black pastor and tell them you believe they are NOT saved, Franklin Graham! And tell gays you hate them, and blame them for hurricanes on the East Coast! It's EASY to say such things far away from those you demonize!

And Albert Mohler, who got a radio gig⁺ (i.e., money), for changing his opinion of CHUMP: TELL me and all Christians who oppose what's below that we don't stand up for morals, because we oppose total abortion bans!

Update #2

What do total abortion bans cause?

1. Some women to take to term
2. Many others to use back alley coat hanger self-help, gut punches, Plan B, poison, quack and black market docs and travel to other states. Attempts at overturning Roe (which MEANS states' rights) lead to Congress trying to codify Roe, or stack SCOTUS Justices!

Those who want total bans NEVER push for:

1. Perfect contraception technology
2. Education on safe sex
3. Promoting contraception
4. Plan B within 3 days of unprotected sex.

They want the quick and EASY way out, that ONLY leads to MORE division in America! And their bone-headed stubbornness DOESN'T demand national standards, so MORE abortions and more evil ones will ensue in blue states!

In short, nearly everything the far right does is stupid, sinful, or both. Christians can't obey God and vote that way, unless they sin!

AMERICA'S SOLUTION (AKA If Revival Broke Out)

(11/16/21-2)

IF revival broke out in America (it won't), what would that look like? Liberals would get the kingdom of God on earth utopia they've sought, and conservatives would have it paid for the way they've always sought—by private donations only. That means, America's many problems would be fixed.

Diseases researched for eradication, natural disaster amelioration technologies, so they didn't harm mankind. Poverty fixed, so every citizen had food and shelter (I Tim. 6:8). The poor you have with you always, but NOT the severe poor (Mk. 14:7). The rich would obey God (all of them) by generously giving back to the society that allowed them such privilege (I Tim. 6:17-19).

The poor would be taught and motivated to become self-sufficient, responsible adults; not dependent, needy, whiny or leaches to our tax system (II Th. 3:10; Col. 3:23). Charities would coordinate to have zero overlapping functions (waste). Wages would be fair, and management would not get over-paid.

Race relations would mimic MLK (judged by the character of one's heart—NOT the color of their skin). Our economy would BOOM, from innovation, as God is a Creator. PROOF? See our web site and you will nowhere find as many innovative ideas, including over 4500 new product ideas in our four main books! TAKE THAT, Shark Tank!

New efficiencies would be reached in business, using technology. World-class education would be available to ALL U.S. Kids. Our borders would only let in people whose job skills we need, and equally GOP- and Dem-leaning types (by examination), so neither major party gained any advantage by disadvantaging the United States with over- or under-immigration, but Goldilocks (just right) immigration.

New refugees and migrants would assimilate, grateful to be in the greatest nation on earth. Green energy would prevail—by market forces. That means less pollution, because we found ways to make such developments profitable—not mandated by Uncle Sam! Many less babies would be murdered out of sight in the mother's womb.

Gay 'couples' would keep their sexuality private and behind closed doors, just as straight people never publicly announce that they're straight! NATO would be expanded, and democracy spread, without any negative trappings of unbridled Capitalism, where people get exploited to cater, UNjustly, mainly to the rich (Levit. 19:15).

People would be free to exercise any or no religion they chose. And that point brings me to why this will never happen, but instead, why prophecy WILL. It would take every claiming Christian doing all four elements of II Chron. 7:14. They will NOT!

Revival starts at every church you see on every street corner in the South, and all the other ones spread across our great land! politics would be as I exactly describe in all my writings: JUST to all, favoring neither, where all sides win some and lose some through common ground pipe dream, the American dream as GOD would envision it. Completely doable, but unattainable because of sin within the walls of the Church. GOD is the One saying the blame lies there—NOT this messenger! I Pet. 4:17

HAD real Christians obeyed God's priorities, the past generation/40 years, this described reality would already exist, because all Americans would have been evangelized, all saved ones disciplined, ministry from ones supernatural gifts exercised would be done by all believers, and their efforts would have led the charge to change society to Thy kingdom on earth, as it is in Heaven.

I have been a part of all four of those priority ministries, so no satanic LIAR will EVER tell me it can't be done! Rick Warren daily proves social ministry is possible! He works tirelessly to ensure food supplies to the world's poor, through garden growing plots of land. NO American need go round hungry, with this solution, or beg for bread (which NO Christian should ever have to do, as God supplies for His children. Phil. 4:19; Ps 37:25).

Entire neighborhoods heard the gospel in Waco, TX, in 1978 or 79. Baylor students got disciplined through Campus Crusade and the Navigators. I couldn't get EITHER of those ministries even to CONTACT my eldest when he attended there, two years ago! He wasn't one of the cherished and targeted frat rats, I was told, in more religious terminology!

It's the same SATANIC belief system that believes you NEED a Tim Tebow, a Tony Dungy to speak at your church, and a Christian in Hollywood, as sheep follow icons. NOWHERE in Scripture is this idea taught—period! Evangelism is 1:1.

The entire zip code of 76116 has been entirely evangelized by members of my alma mater, @swbts! As D.L. Moody said, 'It can be done, it must be done, it will be done.' That attitude must be felt by every American Christian. Sadly, it's hardly even spoken of in Christian circles!

So we find ourselves in a broken, divided, hate-filled country; everyone at each other's throats, stressed out, politically polarized, led by some of the most corrupt liars in man's history.

ALL because since 1980, churches have not avidly pursued:

1. Thorough evangelism of the lost
2. Thorough discipling of Christians
3. Body life/spiritual gifts in ministry and,
4. Social ministry/blessing society I am NOT teaching non-Christians to loathe Christians.

I am placing the blame for society's many ills precisely where God places it, with one BIG caveat. We also know, as prophecy approaches, sin will be increased! Mt. 24:12; II Tim. 3:1-7 Welcome to THAT generation! DO II Chron. 7:14

WHY do I say that vision could have been implemented by now, had the Church DONE EDDBS priorities the past 40 years? Many more would be saved, which doesn't innately change society, but all saved would be disciplined, which does. The Church would look like the Bride and body of Christ she is supposed to, which would attract more onlookers, and through ministry, needs would be met, which includes expanded care for our community at large. There's little time to repent. I believe the window is closing. "and then the end shall come."

God delays prophecy for evangelism openings. II Pet. 3:9; Mt. 24:14 If we, His Church, aren't going to fulfill the great commission, there's little logical reason for further delay of His ripe and right judgment, starting with us! I Pet. 4:17; Heb. 2:3-4

IF revival came, LESS people would be pure liberals (as theft for freebies is frowned upon) and pure conservatives (who care little about others, unless it profits them, personally). Steal from taxpayers, or care nothing about the poor. These are the public policy choices extremists without Christ posit to voters!

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY THREATENED?

(1/18/21-2)

America is NOT a theocracy! Muslims cannot force Sharia law on American laws, any more than Christians can force their beliefs on everyone, nor polygamists! It is the freedom to PRACTICE your religion! Your religion has to be a real one, not a sham for tax evasion!

And EVERY religious person in America is FREE to attend church, synagogue, mosque, pray, read their holy book, proselytize and live morally before Yahweh, Jesus, Allah, or whoever they worship. NO government is forbidding those behaviors! WASPs aren't even taking advantage of this legal freedom, much, in evangelizing or disciplining claiming Christians into moral people, or real/true disciples.

Your religions "right" in the public arena of politics is to express your views, vote your convictions (which is NOT this: See: Apostasy For Power Idolatry, at Facebook's James.Meroney.9, #74), and try to persuade (vs. force) others to adopt them!

I've written ENOUGH on abortion policy! Gay marriage is the law of the land! We fought it; we lost! Government isn't going to condone divorces, break up families, or SCOTUS reverse course/flip-flop, like politicians do! Their relationships don't affect your life; leave them alone, and treat them equally.

OUR religion opposes gay sex/homosexuality. You can't abandon that belief. But APPLYING it, you would no more go up to two guys holding hands and tell them they're sinning, as they'd go up to you and say you are obese! QUIT riling up WASPs for political reasons, using God! Just be honest!

Update: Freedom of Association Threatened?

A relative once said he was for freedom of association. I said what if they're gathered to conduct a crime? He got quiet. There are limits to freedoms! ANY person or group seeking violence for any reason has to have government monitor them, and arrest them as they start engaging criminal acts!

People seem to have a hard time thinking through their beliefs! The right to free association does NOT allow crime mob family business meetings, via the RICO statute. There are legal and common sense boundaries! Freedom to bear arms doesn't mean my neighbor can own armed tanks and B2 bombers!

LIMBAUGH QUOTES (REBUTTED)

(12/24/20-2)

I know there's RINOs, and I know that the Republican Party in the establishment wing of Washington, it's not that different from the Democrats. –Rush Limbaugh LIE!; a man who NEVER would admit any failures to his political RELIGION, even as a claiming “Christian.” A SAD way to end life.

I've had all of these years to get to people, to explain the wonders, the beauties of freedom and liberty and how that is conservatism. –Rush Limbaugh Glowing generalities! NO specifics. One-word slogans; exactly what I have repeatedly warned against. Simpleton slogans, with zero nuance!

Even in an article about Rush Limbaugh, to the end he sought to divide our nation as us-vs.-them, liberals vs. conservatives, as if there's no majority centrist middle; he'd say they were Democrats, when there are centrists in both parties. A LIAR before he meets his Maker—not a smart choice.

Rushbo extolled freedom and liberty, presumably as opposed to government tyranny. In-between these two extremes, government passes laws men must abide by, which God Himself instituted government to do! You're NOT 'free' to do whatever you want, and government is NOT inherently evil, nor are laws, @RealRLimbaugh

Speed limits, no human trafficking, overtime, safe work places, no child labor, minimum wage, OSHA, no insider trading, theft, looting, riots, arson in protests, illegal border entry, polygamy, bestiality, medical malpractice, frivolous lawsuits, voter fraud, truth in advertising laws, no white collar crime, prostitution, slavery, blacks as fully 5/5ths human in the eyes of the law, discrimination, violence and crime—ALL these, and hundreds more, are laws government passes that restrict what some call their 'freedom' to do those evil things! (I Tim. 1:9) Enforced laws lessen sin.

And would @realrumbaugh EVER have said on his show, as a claiming “Christian,” that GOD says use your freedom to serve others, and NOT as an opportunity for license/sin? (Gal. 5:13; I Pet. 2:16) NO, because his was a political show, and far be it that a claiming “Christian” ever lets his relationship with God IMPACT his life!

For example, would @realrumbaugh have EVER mentioned these Bible verses, when he extolled the American Dream, continually, as a REAL Christian must? Lk. 12:15; Pv 23:4-5, 30:8; I Jn. 15-17; I Tim. 6:10, 17-19. NEVER! Keep Jesus locked away until Sunday.

YET, Christians, and non-believers who God says are to obey His commands were taught for 32 years that greed is good, worldliness is worthy, hoarding is helpful, selfishness is success, and ONLY care about yourself, as that's how an economy grows! After all, we're all just crawdads seeking to escape a bucket.

The FACT that most never escape is NOT an issue @RealLimbaugh ever addressed, except to encourage individual crawdads to escape! In short, his claimed Christianity NEVER impacted his true religious practice of conservative political ideology! FEAR GOD!

Sinners eat up that message, because it "frees" them to live natural/fleshly, justifying it as good, even though God tells REAL Christians they are to daily deny themselves! They IGNORE the Jews' safety net, and THESE thoughts of God: Gal. 6:2, 5; II Cor. 8:15 DON'T CARE ABOUT ANYONE!

LIMBAUGH LIES

(12/24/20-2)

Rush Limbaugh said "RINO's" are basically Democrats. WHAT OTHER LIES and SINS has he been spewing for over three decades?

First, 'RINO' is denying those GOP's are Republicans (a LIE). And the label is intended to be an insult (yet another sin). Here's exactly why he's wrong for 30+ years, besides those two, for those who follow in his political beliefs:

Trickle down only helps all people with public amenities, or a long-term lifestyle upgrade by wage increases. It's an EXCUSE to bless rich people, and have government favor them, CONTRARY to Levit. 19:15.

He's been AGAINST all wealth redistribution. God's people, the Jews, had a safety net, so, again, a CLAIMING "Christian" OPPOSES God in his politics. God opposes handouts, medium- and long-term, but Welfare re-envisioned would make the poor self-sufficient. Rush just says NO wealth redistribution.

Limbaugh's PHILOSOPHY discourages viewing society as a whole, for individualism. And how convenient that is, because you can turn a blind eye to everyone NOT getting rich like you! He has NEVER taken me up on my offer to go visit a hood or barrio! He WON'T, before his end/demise!

And Rush Limbaugh NEVER advocates for the Giving Pledge, or signs it, even though a man who had such an attitude toward his partially evilly acquired wealth was commended by Jesus as exhibiting evidence he was spiritually saved. (Lk. 19:8-9). His peer, Markie Levin, says that's 'self-loathing.'

Lamebaugh is for taxes so low that America has to borrow from China, and print fake money, so long as his investments increase! I NEVER hear him speak of the evils of our out-of-control debt (but I haven't listened in 20 years)—maybe he has?

He supported ALL these sins, as a cough-cough "Christian" [See: Apostasy For Power Idolatry, at Facebook's James.Meroney.9, #74]

RINOs are for guns and hate abortions. That's NOT a Democrat value, @realLimbaugh, and the FACT that total bans don't end all abortions is an oversight you will NOT address, lest you turnoff rabid proliferators who can't think!

Centrist GOP's are NOT for any freebies, paid for by tax payers. They are NOT for BIG government, or higher taxes. So he (@realLimbaugh) got rich (ONLY in this life—very poor in Heaven, if he's going) by lying and sinning! I've already taught how his beliefs contradict the God he doesn't serve/follow.

And making 'Merica safer is NOT his interest, if registering serial numbers made it easier for cops to trace down criminals. Making people prove they know how to handle a forearm is also something Limbaugh disfavors, as law, as some restriction on freedom. NO ONE is gun-grabbing, by making people prove they have needed skills, like we require of car drivers!

Red flag laws (ONLY if 100 percent accurate) are NOT evil, for there are people that criteria can identify as societal risk if they get their hands on guns. YOU just don't want to be inconvenienced, to do these three things, as "freedom" means do whatever you want, by YOUR definition!

WORSHIP the NRA! They're perfect! Even on abortion, Plan B off the internet RUINS Limbaugh's position, even if all abortions were banned! OR, gut punches, coat hangers and black market abortions would make U.S. Women UN-safe, even though the Constitution requires government to care about the public's health and safety.

I could go on for days. DUPES who can't think for themselves, or critically/independently, have let him make you mind-numb robots, even as he mocked that wasn't happening! You rely on his research and conclusions. He's NOT even college-educated, folks. THINK for yourself!

I JUST showed/proved to you where @realrlimbaugh is wrong, lies and advocates sin, in Jesus' blasphemed Name. Yet, you will still follow his advice, because hyper conservatism is ONLY concerned about money, NOT morals! That's idolatry which God disapproves of, justified as "good!" #Heresy!

Rush Limbaugh and his ilk of right wing nut cakes do NOT represent Christianity, even if they claim to be Christians! The Bible is clear that there can be tares, or fake believers. His words, deeds, and idolatry of conservatism over God defy any such claims!

I don't mock that Rush Limbaugh is soon to die! I warn him with all sobriety that he needs to repent! People will call this taking advantage of his plight. He only has a LITTLE time to get right with God. He has much fewer days than most of us! Be certain where you're going! @realrlimbaugh John 3:16

I challenge @MarkLevinShow @realrlimbaugh and @SeanHannity to a debate of any political topic, for who has the better solutions, and DON'T forget to bring your common sense, and the Bible YOUR views often contradict. Are you wusses up to this challenge, Hellbound LOSERS? They WILL ignore this invite! (12/10/20)

Rush Limbaugh is too chicken/wimpy/wussly to debate myself in public, before he passes! He KNOWS it would not go well, so he hoards his platform from listeners hearing more biblical solutions! WHAT A WAY TO face your Maker, with such "Christian" timidity! @realrlimbaugh (II Tim. 1:7)

Two additional verses for Rush Limbaugh... Though VOLUNTARY, REAL Christians (freshly saved) were not wanting all their wealth for themselves, but eager to meet needs and help struggling believers! (Ac. 2:44-45, 4:32-34) The first two churches were mega churches, and NON-"conservative" with their money!

AN EXPOSE OF POLITICAL CONSERVATISM

(2/18/21-2)

The Bible tells Christians what is true and what is moral. It even applies to non-Christians, though they are only benefitted by doing so in this and the afterlife; lost souls only in this life. Believers are to live holy, as God is holy. Christ as Lord of one's life means every area of their life, including their political choices and beliefs!

God doesn't separate off certain aspects from His moral standards, like how we conduct business, or engage politics! At the same time, we all can observe not all Christians care to obey God!

The Bible addresses and judges that type believer (carnals), as well. So if the Bible is truth, and truth teaches us to live moral, what standards should we all aim toward, in light of living under the one same God, even if irreligious? He has said His standard for politicians. Ex. 18:21 (moral people). Moral character is the foundation for any good politician, as good policy makes good politics, and the common thread is goodness!

Then, when we read God's mandate for society, it is to replicate Heaven as much as possible on earth (a sin-free environment)—Mt. 6:10 The Church, as salt and light, is to lead this moral societal transformation! II Chron. 7:14. How this applies to politics is that politicians and voters are to choose the most moral people running, who have the most moral, or biblical policies, knowing everyone is imperfect!

SO, when mainly white American Christians claim that political conservatism is most in line with their religious convictions, we have to examine if they are accurate, and if that's their true motive, so let's evaluate the theory! First, there are caustic and compassionate conservatives.

They should NEVER be equated, as they are NOT the same! They share many same beliefs, but morality (as with every religious person) is a concern to the latter—not so much the former, even though I started off elaborating that God's moral rules are for ALL mankind.

Rebels and the disobedient have zero concern about such things, thereby evidencing the likelihood they are already Hell-bound when they die. And a person who has no future for which he is aiming, has no real value in telling others how they should live, as he is aimlessly lost!

So, if a person knew NOTHING about conservatism, what could they learn/I teach them, especially since Rush Limbaugh recently passed? They are for traditional/conservative/past and established ways. New and changing things are less amenable to them, and they sometimes advocate morals from Americas past.

That's not all good or bad! Women as homemakers and not working is an honorable choice, though women can also have careers in the workplace! Feminists sometimes demean the former, to which conservatives bristle. Marriage as between a man and a woman is traditional and historical, from the beginning of time. It is certainly not evil, and is how mankind got to where it is.

Traditional, or conservative moral values still believes what God's word says, that homosexuality is a sin. They also believe, as is true, that unborn babies are innocent, didn't choose to begin, and that killing a life is wrong (abortion). These 'family values' have traditionally been associated with the GOP, but more specifically with claiming Christians within that group.

Since American politics is a collaboration of various groups, for power in numbers, religious folk have united with quite strange bedfellows, over the decades, and NOT always pleasingly to God. But, as I said, God's rules apply to everyone, so it's not that Christians are to advocate a theocracy, but a more moral society, or as the U.S. Constitution calls it, a more perfect union.

Religion, or God's morals, also impact policies like support for Israel, opposing freebies, rewarding hard work (protestant work ethic), private property rights, helping the poor, being wise stewards of the environment and animals, etc.

We all read how Jesus often rebuffed the high and mighty, and advocated for the down and out—the widow, orphan, disabled, poor, sick, foreigner and weak. That value must interject itself in any society which seeks to obey God in its public policy (as all should, or they are corporately living in disobedience). What about conservatism?
