First, every Christian, and therefore every person (meaning Christian values are for everyone, but not everyone is a Christian) is to be objective and just/fair. You must learn to value and speak truth, which includes being capable of stating both the good and bad in all things, policies and people.

American politics is not geared this way, as we tribalize then demonize, because we haven't yet 'evolved' enough to comprehend shared power, even as the winning party controls! Instead of the Founder's INTENDED checks and balances roles, we engage win-lose vs. win-win, as FOOLS.

Politicians are required to check their brains and conscience at the state house door, and only support their party. That is, by definition, idolatry sin, with one exception: IF every public policy within your political party perfectly lined up with God's word, that might be OK!

SO, since WASP Christianity has so intricately and recently been tied with political conservatism (WRONGLY, in many cases), what is it?

In no particular order, and unbiasedly/objectively it is for Capitalism, small government, low taxes and regulations, law and order, controlled borders, free speech, freedom of religion, right to bear arms, pro-Constitution, against freebies, pro-business, pro-democracy (globally), strong economy and national defense, pro-family values, reality of right vs. wrong, objective truth, and for the American Dream and America as #1 in our hearts.

The caustic vs. compassionate branch advocates irrational and immoral policies and personal practices. Morality is truly the main difference between the two, and I don't say that as holier than thou, but as a clear observation that impacts the GOP's capacity to attract more voters!

Caustic conservatism IS white-centric, rich favoring, hating all wealth redistribution, is greedy, selfish and hoarding of any wealth excess. Compassionate conservatism does believe government has some role in caretaking that all citizens make out alright—they don't say fend for yourself!

BOTH types of conservatives oppose freebies, but compassionate conservatives have no problem with government and private programs empowering the poor to become self-sufficient, with payback for any costs, once they're on their feet! Caustic conservatives simply say you're poor—deal with it; let me enjoy my life!

Caustic conservatives NEVER care about pollution, problems in society getting fixed (as that costs money), and have zero problem with worldliness, even though God opposes that sin! They also never wonder why so many American blacks and browns are so often poor, as if skin tone caused it!

I know many darker folk, stemming from India, and I know none of them who are poor, so skin color truly has nothing to do with this poverty struggle! You have to dig deeper than just stereotyping them as dumb and lazy, as an easy out for the KKK/white supremacist types, to continue zero concern for that problem.

Caustic conservatives NEVER visit poor neighborhoods, to observe in real life the struggles they endure, working min wage jobs with no hopes for expensive college, or health coverage, unable to pay for expensive daycare. Easier to keep the ostrich head in the sand!

Caustic conservatives have great rhetoric and excuses for their belief system. Freedom, Constitution, self-reliance. Lofty ideals they hide behind to begrudge government ever assisting any poor person to become self-sufficient!

They probably view Black history month, and BLM as a threat to their own economics, as blacks and browns get exalted on society's radar screen, because the vast majority in America are NOT college-educated, so blue collar workers are competing for the same generally lower-paying jobs. It all boils down to does a person want society morally bettered, or just their life materially bettered?

THAT is the difference between caustic vs. compassionate conservatism. And between liberals and compassionate cons, it's a question of is theft moral? Is stealing from taxpayers to force them to help poor moral? Cons always (rightly) answer no!

CONSERVATIVE ASSUMPTIONS ANALYZED

Let's validate true assumptions, and debunk myths of political conservatism, regarding the economy (their favorite public policy):

1. Economics is an amoral discipline. Though numbers have no moral value, or even feelings, the adage is NOT 100 percent true! IF profits and a growing economy are ALL that matter in life, slavery is free labor for business, and sweat shops and child labor are cheaper than minimum wage, paying overtime, giving mandated breaks, having a safe work environment, and caring about public safety or the good of the environment! Those concerns DON'T raise profits! YET, we Americans and our government care about such matters, NOT because we don't care about having a great economy!

2. HOW one achieves wealth also matters! You can get rich, robbing banks or imitating Bernie Madoff, or having a cameo on the movie Bad Bosses, but we Americans disapprove of those actions, even though they maximize profits (and NOT because we don't care about having a great economy).

3. The economy is good when the stock markets are good. Good for who? NOT the ~46 percent who aren't invested! Markets being bullish only ensures more job security, from less layoffs when markets crash.

4. The rich and business owners have to do well, for anyone else to do well. Businesses make money off employees, unless their job is required (lawyer, accountant, IT techie). It's true few-to-no people have ever gotten a job from a poor person, but it is not a law of nature that the rich have to get as rich as they do off the backs of employees! They CHOOSE to do so.

Good management cares for its employees, rewards the most productive, and even lets contributing employees share in the excess they helped create, through profit sharing or stock options! It's a MORAL vs. monetary decision, as business maximizing profits wouldn't care one iota about employee welfare, especially if they can be easily replaced!

5. Low taxes cause the best economy. Low taxes leave more money for the private sector, which, only if invested rightly, benefits business growth. A growing economy helps everyone ('a rising tide lifts all boats'). By analogy, that's ONLY true if all boats are connected to that rising river! Ponds only raise boats if ponds receive rain. My point is there are now many ways business can leverage a growing economy to ONLY benefit them!

They can automate, robotize, give executive raises, have stock buybacks, outsource, hire immigrated labor, etc. Those actions, in a growing economy, benefit AMERICAN workers little-to-none!

6. A growing economy grows jobs. TRUE, but only if the existing workforce can't be pushed any harder, and often only for minimum wage jobs, which few adults can live on.

You see, you have to analyze claims made by people confidently asserting things that can be true or false, even as they espouse them as gospel! That same skill applies to analyzing all claims of all political groups!

For example, conservatives say:

1. Local government is preferred to national. The TRUTH is whichever level of government works most efficiently and effectively is to be praised, and there are good national agencies (Ex.: the U.S. Military) and bad local governing (name your own examples galore). It's NOT the size, but results.

YES, the larger the entity, the more opportunity for bureaucracy, but Americans extoll big business as 'successful,' but they're big, so the negatives of national government aren't experienced by national franchises! It's not the size that inherently makes an entity good or bad, but how they're operated/run!

2. Cons say Capitalism is best (I agree, if it's constrained where it needs to be, morally), because human nature is people will work hardest, for the best quality, and most motivated if they can make bookoos of money, unconstrained by government restrictions, as in Communism.

100 percent TRUE, but it also can lead to workaholism, worldliness, greed, abuse of people, arrogance, selfishness, ripping unknowing people off by fraud or cutting corners, and never help anyone other than business owners and their families. Those are NOT good results!

3. The free market is best! TRUE, but NOT when it's treated like the wild west! You would not believe the Illegal and immoral behaviors one of my two industries occasionally engages to secure sales, because the industry is not regulated! Outright stealing from clients, unknown to them, and law-breaking, because there are no cops to patrol behaviors.

My point is unbridled Capitalism can bring out both the improvements of competition, but also the worsen demons of mankind, all at the same time. As with all things, keep the good, reject the bad!

4. Free-willed choices are morally superior to forced ones. TRUE, but not always relevant or important! Government doesn't wait around for every American to choose to obey the speed limit! They use cops to enforce the law, and courts to enforce fines!

5. Same with cons' hatred of abortion! They WANT government to force bans—not free-willed choices—and hypocrisy or double standards (right for me but wrong for you) are SINS, and any government system should be as God-honoring, or morality-conforming as is feasible, not living in a theocracy!

6. Government is bad. That attitude is embarrassingly stupid! Some actions government does are evil. But God ordained government, to restrain man's evil impulses! A chaotic and lawless society would ensue if we had no laws.

7. Laws are NOT infringements of freedom, in every case, because freedom is NOT the right to do anything you want! Go punch someone in the nose, and see if anyone else agrees you expressed your freedom!

8. The mainstream media is biased. The mainstream media slants some stories toward Democrat values, JUST LIKE Fox News, Breitbart, One America and NewsMax do to GOP values! The MSM rarely lies, nor right wing media! They slant how they cover news stories!

They're private companies trying to attract an audience, so businesses will advertise, to pay their bills! The MSM is NOT evil, an arm of the DNC, or fake news! READ what they write... it's true factual event coverage. It's only in how they frame headlines, the stories they cover, and the opinions they express that do often tend to lean Democrat; but so also do right-wing media outlets!

You should balance your intake from BOTH, as the truth is usually somewhere between extremes! Higher education and science are to be distrusted, as 'liberal.' Universities DO lean liberal, in opening minds to new thoughts, as that's what college is to do, vs. just reinforce what you already believe.

But on the core materials, like science, math, history, etc., they teach facts, not lies. They probably spin history to demean whites in America, and they should not, but a date of a history doesn't even have "alternative facts!"

And as we've seen in the Covid crisis, science is NOT God! They've gotten a few things wrong! But science knowledge doesn't contradict God's truth, because 'all truth is God's truth!' two + two will always be 4, whether you're an atheist, Christian or Jew!

HERE is where caustic conservatives derive their baseless confidence:

1. They're brainwashed that their ideology is perfect, and all other views are inferior, or wrong.
2. They're taught (by rightwing media OPINION shows, and talk radio) that all Dems are evil and mentally challenged.
3. They're encouraged to attack both Dem beliefs and Dem politicians and voters, as inferior and America-haters.
4. They NEVER speak the TRUTH about any fellow cons' sins, because they erringly use 'never speak evil of another GOP' as never tell the truth if it's negative! Those are NOT the same thing!
5. They do NOT value morality, if sinfulness seems an easier way to dominate the opponent and gain power, because power and money are the ultimate values in their worldview. NOT so to God, to Whom we are all ultimately beholden! Analyze EVERYONE's beliefs by truth and morality!... Democrat, Republican and Independent.

Cons are TAUGHT, usually implicitly vs. outright/expressly/explicitly, that every Dem and Dem policy is bad and evil, and every GOP and GOP proposal is God sent. Their pundits are paid handsomely to create reasons to match this model for every event that transpires! It's a lawyer skill!

It's also often a violation of Isa. 5:20! IF you can't defend a GOP's words or behaviors, distract, deflect, or ignore and stay quiet! If Dems ever do anything good, repeat that same methodology! And NEVER admit your faults or mistakes, as that gives Dems a political advantage! Win-lose is pase/old-fashioned, folks!

EVERY news event is taken as an opportunity to advance our party or slam the opponent! Ice cripples Texas, and Dems attack our governor, even as Cuomo lies about nursing home deaths, and GOP's jump on Dems. It's a sick and broken status quo system!

Let me tell you EXACTLY what values rightwing media and leftwing media will always cater to: Conservatives—cops, military, gun ownership, organized religion, whites, Asians and Indians, educated people, rich people, business, BIG oil, Capitalism, anti-abortion, disdain of LGBTQ sexual activities, pro-America, the Constitution, males and their wives (NOT husbands), the world's sole superpower, free speech, property rights, low taxes and few regulations, self-defense against crime, pro-democracy, controlled borders, freedom, the pursuit of happiness, the American Dream and American exceptionalism. MANY news articles will be framed to support these values of their worldview!

Dems and libs' news articles will focus on blacks, poverty, giving back, rich peoples sins, fixing societal problems (GOP's can fix privately, for themselves), NOT business success methods, how to save money, the sick, the young, maybe the elderly (BOTH parties cater to us), Hispanics, global needs, higher taxes, any evils of business, cops or the military, LGBTQ issues (no sins ever engaged by them, especially sexually, to the MSM/mainstream media), pro-abortion, criminal rights, police brutality, GOP sins, the environment, animal rights, refugees, America helping the world's poor, evil acts of rich people, the YUGE role of money in elections, voter suppression (mainly of blacks), entitlements and freebies. MSM articles will tend more to these values, over right-wing sources! LEARN reality.

Fox News will headline 'Unprecedented ice storm hits Texas.' CNN will headline the exact same event as 'Climate change calamity befalls Texas.' DO YOU SEE they're addressing the same circumstances and facts, from the lense of their political bias?

Breitbart will say California wildfires and rampant homelessness in LA are from failed Dem leadership, as with crime rates in Detroit. The MSM will blame climate change for the wildfires, lack of GOP compassion for LA's homeless camps (i.e., not enough taxpayer money allocated to fix the problem taxpayers didn't cause).

Get past the politics, and understand the politics! Know the principles and tricks! The smart and moral principles should always last in our public policies. The lesser things bring us down in the gutter, shut out our better angels, and cause taking the high ground to be seen as a weak and losing competitive position.

You are learning, THIS year, that not all GOP's or Dems are the same! Boebert and Marjorie Green are NOT in the same classification as more honorable figures! AOC's policies are NOT on par with those Biden at least USED to hold, as she wants U.S. Taxpayers nearly bankrupted for freebies.

POSITIVES OF POLITICAL CONSERVATISM

(2/21/21-2)

WHAT'S GOOD ABOUT POLITICAL CONSERVATISM (and why)?

1. Strong economy.
2. Strong military.
3. Law and order.
4. Controlled borders.
5. Pro-democracy.
6. Free speech.
7. Gun rights.
8. Religious liberty.
9. Low taxes and regulations.
10. Pro-America and Constitution.

HERE's WHY, per point:

1. Weak economies cause unemployment, depressions, and underfunded government services.

2. Weak militaries defeat U.S. Global interests, if not lose our nation to enemies.
3. Criminals running rampant defeats civilization.
4. Uncontrolled borders hurts U.S. Worker wages, and endangers America with criminals, terrorists and even more Illegal drugs.
5. Communism expands when America and her Western allies abandon promoting democracy internationally. Tyrants NEVER treat their masses/peoples well, but self-serve and rule cruelly!
6. Free speech was instituted mainly to prevent government NOT being criticized, by banning unflattering speech against pols! Dictators LOVE opposing it; Americans LOVE speaking their minds, debating, and even peacefully disagreeing intensely!
7. Good people keep bad people from harming people with guns! They're also a great way for self defense, protecting property, culling out-of-control animal population explosions, and just a fun sport (IF you eat what you kill).
8. Real religions benefit society! FAKE ones are generated to avoid taxes, and serve as cults, or tax fraud centers advocating bad behaviors.
9. Business does best with low taxes and regs, and U.S. Businesses are in global competition! IF other nations beat America at business, we all suffer some, with less jobs, lower paying jobs, or taxes and rich philanthropists helping other cultures, not those in our nation!
10. Worshipping America is a sin, but it's GOOD to like if not love your country, or move away if you hate or want her harmed! The U.S. Constitution is the greatest governing document any human has created, and the more you understand it, the more wisdom you see people had way before we were even born! We have evolved? Questionable

I have ZERO problem with anyone being rich! God isn't against wealth! I have a BIG problem with any rich person disobeying God! I Tim. 6:17-19 At such point you're sure to make it to death, living comfy off nest egg interest, you SHOULD start considering others beyond mere family and heirs, money-wise IF a problem in society can't be profited off of with sufficient margins, caustic conservatives want NOTHING done about them, except by charities and individuals! There's NO problem most conservatives can't fix by their own financial devices! Forcing them to help others is abhorrent, morally, IMO!

CHERRY-PICKING 'CONSTITUTIONAL' CONSERVATIVES

(2/21/21-2)

Conservatives ALWAYS believe the U.S. Constitution is on their side alone! They FEEL they're the only patriots, because of that ideology allegedly directly compliant with that document, which also means they believe everyone else is anti-U.S.A. Or hates her, for varying from their theory!

TRUTH is, most of us/U.S./we the people ONLY care about a very limited portion of the U.S. Constitution!: More perfect union, establish justice, general welfare, vs. secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, rights to free speech, be armed and practice our religion.

Add in free press, property rights, a well-armed militia and the 10th amendment, and right to peaceful assembly! MOST of us value but never use the clauses on criminal rights. Constitutional conservatives clamor for the document, but use or know about as much of it as libs—VERY little.

That great document is NOT a 'living, breathing document!' MAYBE that's why libs deem unborn babies nonliving, nonbreathing body tissue—they are confused! The Founding Fathers intended the document to only be changed by ratified amendments we could add! ANYTHING contrary to the set-in-stone document is Illegal (UNconstitutional), and intended-to-be nonpolitical SCOTUS rules on such cases.

Therefore, it should NOT be politicized, either by court stacking, or nominating people who will say (wink wink) they're neutral, but are picked to advocate for either party's agendas!

Tradition and precedent have GREAT value/weight, because the collective wisdom of our many predecessors have seen fit for it to be established! Having nine Justices isn't required, but it's reasonable!

And trying to bend SCOTUS to either UNjust extreme is EVIL, as 45 did with three con nominees! UNjust

BOTH sides also only care about a SMALL portion of our revered Declaration of Independence: Consent of the governed, all men are created equal vs. life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. This myopic focus is NOT innately bad, because there are many technicalities, and it's written in King James-type language.

Much of both docs isn't relevant to issues voters need to care about, though we all should still revere its great principles, like checks and balances, one person one vote, representative government, three separate branches of government, etc.

The GOP's implicitly sought to own the moral high ground on the Constitution, when they spent DAYS reading its every word before a new Congress, recently! THATs not justifying your causes more than others, but them conforming to it. Judicial activism of lib-leaning judges is also EVIL, like draping yourself in a flag doesn't make anyone more patriotic!

It's ALL about conformity to the document, or amending it if we disagree with its precepts! You may not even like its words, 'hi crimes and misdemeanors,' when applied against your guy or gal, but our feelings toward the document are irrelevant! It's the law of the land! These two great docs impact politics on a few matters, like Socialism, Capitalism, censorship, gun-grabbing, the unborn's life, churches forced to hire LGBTQs, freedom's definition (vs 'tyranny'), etc.

My main point is both sides use it for their means and agendas, but the Constitution is NOT divided like we are, and unless you amend it, legally, SCOTUS should unbiasedly and justly implement it to all challenged laws, and NEVER be used to advance any party's agenda. Amend the doc if you want SCOTUS to do that! Keep them apolitical

WHAT CONSERVATIVES BELIEVE (INCLUDING ON RACE)

(2/27/21-2)

In light of LeBron James' ~"not 'gonna stop speaking out on issues relevant to the black community, but use my platform," and Gosar attending a group whose host said white people are tired of being bullied, let me tell you the actual belief system of many political conservatives:

1. I'm a law-abiding citizen; I vote and love my country.
2. Whatever is in the U.S. Constitution, I am for!
3. I work my job, and try to make as much money as I can, to provide for my family.
4. Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.
5. Keep taxes as low as possible. It's MY money!

6. If there is racism, or some Americans don't experience equal opportunity, what is that to me? My circumstances are fine, and I never ask government for anything—just leave me alone!
7. I am not a racist, I'm NOT in the KKK, I don't hate anyone, but don't ask me to help anyone else!
8. If blacks were harmed by slavery, I had nothing to do with it, so don't bother me or my taxes in fixing any residual damage. I never owned one slave, nor did my ancestors.
9. Blacks complaining about life are lazy, weak or making excuses. White privilege doesn't exist, as (proven by the fact that) I am not rich.
10. LeBron James is privileged, so what's he mad or complaining about?

THESE are the heart attitudes, whether expressed or only kept within, that many political conservatives feel and hold, and often act on. Most of them are easily rebutted, where wrong!

It is ALL about the money! ESPECIALLY blue collar whites recoil at advancing black people in society, as that is seen as a threat to their livelihoods! Government and the media advancing African-American causes is taken as an attack on whites lacking higher education! Ex.: Black History Month.

If you NEVER ask for or use any government aid, you RIGHTLY wonder why anyone else sees a need to do so. That assumes everyone else has your same opportunities and experience, and therein lies the problem with the attitudes based on assumptions! Some make excuses; others don't.

The assumption is:

1. Centuries past abuse has ZERO impact on the psyche of modern people.
2. Even more recent discrimination doesn't, either.
3. Historic lack of assets, and no inheritances makes no difference in anyone's privilege.
4. Living in poor areas isn't a disadvantage.
5. Living nowhere near the good jobs and companies isn't a disadvantage.
6. Having bad schools, or factors that can interfere with academic success isn't a barrier, if you're committed enough. It doesn't matter that most whites don't have those challenges! That's equal opportunity, they say.
7. Having connections, hand me down nepotism businesses, nest eggs from the start, employers who are mainly your race is NOT an advantage, if we pass laws that say that employment discrimination is illegal. NO HR person would ever lie about why one lost a job, right?

Regarding race, those assumptions are held by some within the conservative movement, even if they've never thought them, consciously, or especially never stated them publicly. I met my first blue collar workers, recently, and there's more racism than I knew existed. White collars, not so much?

Your great grandparents were slaves. So what; work hard. Your skin color is less favored by our society. So what; work hard. I work in the country/rural areas, on a farm or ranch, and NO government program helps me (but occasional farm subsidies), so just work hard, like me!

I TRULY believe many whites believe any poor blacks are lazy, if not thieves, which is why cops so often have encounters that go south, when pulling over blacks. The assumption, from prejudice or statistics, is that crime is more prevalent as committed by certain groups! Is that true?

IF any race or races tend toward more criminal activity, need we ask why, as it's wrong to engage? Some say crime comes with poverty. How? Why? NOT inherently! Unless a person is robbing for food, it's an evil not related to one's skin color!

Race and crime:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Race_and_crime_in_the_United_States#:~:text=According%20to%20the%20FBI%2C%20African,rate%20is%20a%20similar%20figure...

When I was growing up, whites often thought of blacks (NOT all, but many A-A's) as lazy, not smart, and criminal-tending. I also live in the South. I'm not sure why stereotypes start or continue, but we STILL have some racism, decades later. It makes NO sense, to me!

Spray paint yourself and see if you feel more lazy, dumb or inclined to commit crime. It is NOT the skin tone! If ANYONE of ANY skin color is lazy or dumb, you have to assess why they are! Lack of innate ability, or motivation?

An old book alleged blacks were inferior, academically, by DNA (The Bell Curve). IF their premise had been true, all black people the world over would fall behind all whites! There wouldn't be exception cases, as genetics would disallow breaking from your biological deficiency!

Why are some people lazy? I know a quite lazy white person. I don't equate that to their skin color! WHY do we attach individual characteristics to entire groups, or their majority, without evidence? That's lazy! It's called stereotyping. I understand you can use past experiences to inform present decisions, but you always have to follow the evidence!

If I met three green people, and they were all loud mouths, I might expect the next Martian to be a loud mouth, but I'd have to wait and see if they actually were. I certainly would not say all green people were, or behave as if the next Martian was going to talk my arm off. They may not!

My three experiences of green people as yackaholics MAY have been the only three green people who suffer that problem! That's where statistics can help, but even they don't tell you any one person's tendencies!

I believe black people are generally better at dancing and jumping, than most whites. Does that mean they all are? NO! There are nerdy blacks who can't dance a lick, like me! There are whites who can jump high! My high school friend could cold jump 42 inches. You can't make blanket assumptions from even common group traits! Whites are stereotyped as pro-education!

Ever met a white high school drop out? Try an Indian or Asian! Whites are said to be pro hard work. Ever met a lazy white person? I have. Whites are reputed to use good diction! Ever heard any white person use sloppy language grammar? There ARE cultural differences, that are general vs., absolute!

Many A-As get their socializing in barber shops or at church. I would NEVER seek company by getting my hair cut—I cut my own. You can either tolerate differences, like them, or let them make you angry and divided. Lebron is not saying anything evil, in addressing challenges AAs face!

If you are more qualified than another job candidate, don't fear their group being given more limelight than historically! I think many more racist whites are afraid of the day our skin color isn't the American majority. If whites have treated blacks fairly, there should be no fear of revenge!

Again, I live in the South. That perspective is always a factor that could impact what I say. When I was young, people called whites N-lovers, if they EVER had anything positive to say about blacks, or especially if they ever took up for them, or were for any policy that aided them.

And any black who "acted white" was an "Uncle Tom." THIS chapter is detailing both the history, assumptions, and IMMoral bases for continued racial tensions in America! Different doesn't mean opposite. That simple phrase should fix a lot of this mess!

THE SINS & STUPIDITIES OF CONSERVATISM

I am starting to agree with the posts that say the GOP is dead! Trumpianism killed it. Who knows if it can be resurrected? HERE are ALL the SINS of caustic conservatism you see worshipped and embraced at CPAC, and in Trumpland:

1. To Hell with all poor people—they're all losers!
2. Blacks need to know their place, and shut up about their causes.
3. My money is only for me, and government STEALS it in taxation.
4. Worldliness is not a sin, but the ideal, and the American Dream!
5. God lied in Luke 12:15!
6. All rich are good people, and society's heroes!
7. Government must favor the rich, in public policy, contrary to Levit. 19:15.
8. Workers aren't human, but budget items, and how they can live on what they make is zero concern for government or business.
9. ALL wealth redistribution is evil, even if the recipients pay it back with interest. If churches and charities can't end severe suffering in poverty, WHO CARES?
10. You hate yourself if you sign the Giving Pledge (Mark Levin). To love yourself, you have to become God's enemy through worldliness, being a sinful lover of self and lover of money! (Jas. 4:4 11, etc.).
11. WASP Christianity is ALL about living for the here and now, living it up with riches government can rarely touch, OPPOSITE to being a disciple and to Jesus.
12. I can lift zero finger, give not one dime, the poor can fend for themselves, and I am a good person, as that is my Constitutional right, and what freedom and the pursuit of happiness is, to me! "God, America and apple pie" (the god of this world, II Cor. 4:4).
13. The U.S. Rich donating two percent, vs. average Joe donating three percent of income, annually, is NOT a problem!
14. Every man is an island, and God only teaches self-sufficiency (CONTRARY to Gal. 6:2, 5).
15. The poor are all lazy losers!

THESE are the main MYTHS and sins of political conservatism.

CONSERVATIVE VALUES

(8/16/21-2)

"Conservative values:" Guns (NO regulations), God (mainly on abortion), free speech (politicians lying is included, and alternative 'facts' and conspiracy theories), state's rights (the feds are always evil, and wasteful), low taxes, and private property rights.

"Conservative values:" Greed, love of money, idolatry, hoarding, selfishness, banning all abortions, polluting if it profits, protecting your own assets, never systemically helping the poor, coddling white supremacists, idolizing talk radio and the most evil politician in 30+ years, above.

"Conservative values:" "God" is a Trojan Horse for wanting all abortions banned, worldliness, disobeying Him in I Tim. 6:17-19, wanting government to condone anyone's suffering, requiring NOTHING of the rich, caring NOTHING for the poor, just pursuing "happiness" with a smile!

"Conservative values:" NOTHING in life or society shall ever be fixed or improved, unless business can profit with margins as high as they and investors demand—EXCEPT token Band-Aids, if charities ever get donations! THIS IS the great society!

"Conservative values:" NEVER think for yourself, NEVER say anything truthful about a fellow GOP (if it's not praise, or flattering), NEVER vote conscience (sear it like a steak), mouth "God," and believe He ONLY cares about abortion! Keep the sheep dumber-down!!! Knowledge ISN'T power.

"Conservative values:" ALWAYS find fault with your political opponent, even when they do good. Start with the premise they're evil, want evil for America, are inferior, and then seek out lawyers to find anecdotal evidence to try to prove your case to morons.

SAYING YOU'RE A CONSERVATIVE

Saying you're a 'conservative' because of abortion is like saying I'm a Moonie because they hand out flowers at airports! You needn't accept the philosophy, hook, line and sinker, but only take the good parts! There are several aspects that are anti-Christian, and you can't just ignore that, holding your nose.

I have NO idea what a moderate stands for, because I am NOT a moderate. Moderates usually stand either nowhere, or somewhere between extremes, but mainly just dislike extremes. I have actual common sense solution convictions I'll fight for, as they're good and reasonable, and not extreme! Biases cause division and fights.

True conservatives have good and bad. Here's the good: Lowest taxes possible, smallest government, pro-business, want the rich in America (vs. elsewhere), control borders, strong national defense, pro law and order, cop and military, pro religion, for a balanced budget and fiscal responsibility, believe most government programs are wasteful, and can be done better by the private sector, patriotic, pro-gun ownership, Capitalistic/free markets, marriage is between a man and a woman, hate abortions, believe in American exceptionalism, want equal opportunity for all, and are pro education. These are ALL good things!

So why do I slam conservatives so often, if I'm one of them in so many ways? THE WAY THEY PRACTICE IT! My-way-or-the-highway, no nuances, extreme and caustic behavior, religious devotion to its theories, hating even other GOP's, slandering good GOP presidents and presidential contenders, and being gleefully behind a man who has brought sinning and ignorance to a new low! That position is INcompatible with Christianity!

The dignity of the White House office, and acting "presidential" commands respect for our nation and its values, world-wide. HIS behavior does the OPPOSITE!

And the talk radio type of conservative has LITTLE to do with Christian values! Mainly hatred, arrogance, ignorance, love of money, selfish disregard of others, and an entitlement mentality that both God and the Constitution are on their side. Let me assure you, God is NOT! The main two policies He opposes them on are love of money sin and hateful arrogance.

In the HISTORY of the modern GOP, since I've been one all my life, starting voting GOP with Reagan, there has NEVER been such an abandonment of thinking over feeling, or secular morality vs. belief in religions ("family") values in that party—EVER! 81 percent of WASPs empowered this negative moral change!

A friend on Twitter calls himself the 'Values Voter.' He saw this problem way early, as did I, and his posts do NOT go along to get along with a cheapening of his former (possibly present) party! You do NOT just shift what a party stands for, based on who's at the top of the ticket, or wins! That's being a reed in the wind! (Mt. 11:7)

It's the EXACT sin conservatives accused Bill Clinton of... licking his index finger to see which way the winds were blowing, through focus groups. Double standards and hypocrisy are sins, just like nearly everything else in D.C. Is! Hypocrisy is NOT a cleaner sin! I guess if it weren't for double standards, some people would have no standards!?

Extreme conservatism eats its own, in circular firing squads, meaning they deem people in the GOP who are NOT like them as 'human scum.' Talk about a smaller tent! Every Democrat is satan in the flesh, and any cooperation is blasphemous Benedict Arnolding, or caving to the left (never the left giving in to the right, in their small mindset)!

Gridlock or domination are their only two modes of "thinking." Pay politicians to do nothing, or shove your views down everyone else's throats, because you won, with NO thought about later blowback, as with LGBTQs after SCOTUS was unjustly stacked conservative.

NO thought about justice. Justice IS both the end of civil laws and God's end for human government! So DON'T try to compare apples to oranges telling me biblically conservative Christians (which I am) must be politically conservative, because they use one common term! God is NOT a political conservative, pastor lies notwithstanding.

The instinctive, knee jerk response in people's punier heads will then be to say I'm claiming God is either a moderate or a liberal. He is none of the above! He only supports morally good and intellectually sound public policy. Can that be said of your political positions? Usually not, consistently.

Abortion seems to be the only issue D.C. Faces, according to many cons. Didn't Jesus speak about the wealthy and the poor, and minister to the latter? Didn't God write I Tim. 6:17-19 and Lk. 12:48?

Political conservatives have NEVER found a tax cut they didn't like. They actually believe it's THEFT, even though God says it's your civic duty, and is owed vs. owned/yours! (Rom. 13:6)

Cons are elated when their 401Ks expand with tax cuts, but Jesus said think of OTHERS first (Phil. 2), and NOT to store up earthly treasures (Mt. 6). If ONLY the rich get richer, and businesses ONLY care about profits, ~half the country gets scr-wed, including workers, and their only smart option is to oppose and vote against such privileged elitism!

Jesus was NOT a yuge fan of rich people, but talk radio embodies them as the second coming of Christ, saying 'I never got a job from a poor man.' They OWE a fair share of taxes, with NO loopholes, where a secretary could pay the same percent as his/her boss!

And God says they're to be freely generous with their excess (I Tim. 6:17-19). This is NOT what talk radio is advocating! Mark Love-in slandered Bill Gates and Warren Buffet as "self-loathing" for signing the Giving Pledge!

So IF a person understands problems cost money to fix, and I've been 'blessed' more than most, to do good with that excess is evil, or means I hate myself, because to love myself I must lust for money and be selfishly greedy? This is Levin's Judaism? It's certainly nowhere found in the 'Bible,' meaning our Old Testament!

This is conservative talk radio, however, folks. Idolize money, to Hell with the poor, and hate all taxes as theft by the evil government God ordained.

The feds have $22 TRILLION in debt! Entitlements are evil, but they can be reformed (as I've proposed). But voting for taxes to be so low that Uncle Sam MUST borrow from our frenemy China, or inflationarily print QE3 bills is irrational, but EXACTLY what political cons WANT! Me, me, me, OPPOSITE Lk. 9:23.

So DO NOT EVER DRAG JESUS' NAME INTO CONSERVATIVE POLITICS, just because He may agree with your revulsion over abortion! All the other evils He opposes and you gladly embrace, because it's mainly about the money! Keeping it all for yourself and your family; abortion is a nice moral and sincere COVER!

Religious political conservatives are in bed with the world, for abortion! Strange bedfellows have become not strange at all, because WASPs have abandoned God's view on worldliness and wealth, and morals in high office! LOOK at what they USED to believe in: https://thewayofimprovement.com/2016/06/25/james-dobson-on-the-character-of-the-president-of-the-united-states/... Double standard for CHUMP! Hypocrisy sin!

Talk radio is the Petri dish of extreme conservatism. Their audience can't figure out that they're paid handsomely to tow that line forever, even when its flaws are revealed. Always follow the money trail. That's NOT sincere conviction!

In the not so long ago good 'ol days, the right and center united for power and were often both on the GOP ticket. Today, from arrogance, the Trumpian cult wants centrists gone. I'll HAPPILY work for their demise in 2024 and 2028, to regain the party's historic legacy and moral stances. Caustic morons have taken over the asylum!

One more before I go: FOOLS (i.e., low IQ, brain dead, idiots) believe you can only win an election by using bold colors of polar opposite positions, meaning their constituents can't make distinctions, and are emotionally-driven, and hence, fools. #TRUTH! Just do the opposite of the other party. That's real 'thinking,' right?

9. COUNTRY

FARMERS & RANCHERS

Democrat-leaning counties MEANS poorer counties, because Dems advocate policies to hand out tax money to the poor, in various ways! The reason rural areas are usually GOP is those tough, independent, cowboy-like folk do NOT 'wanna pay for city slicker government programs they benefit LITTLE from (among other reasons).

My two hometowns are among the top five, size-wise, nationally. I'm an unabashed city slicker. But I hate high taxes, and if I were a farmer, rancher, or off-the-grid survivalist, WHAT benefits would I get from ever-increasing taxes? They're independent people! Their streets are not even always paved!

People often slander rural counties as backwoods, but common sense reigns, there, and they do not have any reason to want programs that benefit city poor! They rough it, and get no individual expenses help from government, and if big ag puts them out of business, they go bankrupt. They're NOT treated equal with city poor.

Government, leave me alone, come and take it, and don't tread on me are common slogans in rural areas. Rugged individualism (for the most part) is required on farms and ranches!

They do have barn raisings, but they're NOT government-sponsored. Their voting GOP ONLY makes sense, as taxes benefit them mainly by the U.S. Military and school teachers.

Even the police aren't quick responders in some rural areas, as distances are long in wide ranges. Some rural families home school. There's not one legitimate way Dems can gain rural votes, IMO, and even city votes all center on taxes being low, vs. taxes giving freebies to the poor! That's the CORE of politics!

WHAT does a rural resident get from their taxes? MAINLY national defense, police and public school houses. Beyond that, all government programs only benefit others, and they work hard for their money! Taxes AREN'T quid pro quo, but everyone likes fairness, and NOT feeling abused by the system!

Texans know farmers and ranchers do NOT consider it "selfish" if all their peers fend for themselves, with little help from a fellow peer, as they're NOT burdening others, and that's a virtue! People accusing taxpayers of 'selfishness' for tending to their own business do not share that same moral value!

Feeding the pigs, milking the cows, seeding and plowing the fields... These are INDIVIDUALISTIC tasks! People who LIKE not having a neighbor within multiple football field lengths live in rural counties. They have most of the city amenities (internet, TV, etc.), but they are far removed from MOST government programs.

My son dreams of living in the country. I will die either in a city or on a mountain. People go to the country for peace, serenity, and stress relief. My family OFTEN travels to rural areas, to see the greenery (mainly grass and crops), cows and horses. My daughter LOVES horses!

That lifestyle is NOT full of traffic, pollution, concrete, or wall-to-wall people! It's INSANE to think those honest day's work folk would support high taxes! Obama can call them clingers to God and guns, but they are the heartland, and they feed us all! I couldn't do what they do, but you have to respect it!

My ONLY point is that rural counties get as disrespected as poor city counties, but they do NOT have their hands out! They have their hands working (I Th. 4:11), and often as wrinkled/crusty as the lead ‘ol dude on Homestead Rescue! They know the value of a hard day's work, and they DESERVE respect!

Interjection: Non-College Graduates

Relatedly, NON-college degreed voters can sometimes be poo poo'd, by elitists. College is NOT for everyone, or even the majority! A sheepskin does NOT prove one has common sense, or makes smarter, better decisions. U.S. Policies MUST make them able to earn enough to live decently, in a globalized world.

We can teach (as MY zip code does) that grades and college are everything, but that's UNtrue for 58 percent of Americans—a majority! Decent pay is needed by every American who works hard, and government is NOT a substitute for it! If you won't work hard, you will and deserve to be poor! That's #CommonSense, and fair.

Continuing

The DIFFERENCE between rural and city poor people is that the rural poor do NOT seek government freebies! You HAVE to respect that, even if you agree with handouts! They want to earn their own way, even in tough times! Farming industry bailouts are mainly when government policies negatively impact them—NOT their own failures.

We take for granted buying any food we want, at a grocery store. We ignore the background processes! SOMEONE has to plant the seed, suffer drought, use watering systems, store the grain, milk the cows, sell cattle, no matter what the market is when they're ready for sale, etc.!

They don't always have home alarm systems, but they do have shotguns, and 911, and endure feral hogs, or predators seeking to kill their livestock. They work from dawn to dusk. They don't seek attention, but they won't be discounted as second-class citizens, forced to pay taxes to bless mainly cities.

I have only known two farmers in the past 20 years, but they're down-to-earth, and shoot you straight! They are the BEST people to run ideas off of, as they're practical and truthful/honest as the day is long! I have NO PROBLEM criticizing handout seekers, but rural poor are NEVER that! They'll starve, before asking for help! They're self-reliant.

Self-reliance is NOT unconcern for others, or selfishness! LEARN the wisdom of this adage/idiom (next tweet). Self-reliance means I won't be a burden to others, as they have enough problems on their own. That's caring for others! It's trusting God to supply your needs, through the Protestant Work Ethic of hard work!

“If everyone swept their own porch, the city would be clean.” –Johann Wolfgang von Goethe Live within your means. THESE idioms are common sense for our public policy! It's when people want more than they can afford that they look to others, via government. Sometimes, you just can't pay for all you incur (like serious medical expenses), but TRY! (9/5/18)

Ma and pa farmers (maybe a few ranchers?) compete with BIG ag. When BIG box harms city small businesses, they get jobs, or start a new business. Farmers have history and tradition, and their skills aren't easily transferred to a different, new-to-them job, if forced out. Yet, they RARELY complain, but adapt!

My suggestion is that every small farm unite/organize/cooperate/"unionize" with all others, for efficiencies of scale, to counter BIG ag's influence, as to market rate, bulk offers of crops, etc. Retain your fierce independence, but have an app that unites your offer to buyers/market!

IMO, smaller farmers don't think of other smaller farmers as competitors, but fellow endurers of a tough business. They, generally, wish each other well! They also wave at passersby, as vehicles pass on the roads, more often than in the city, at least in Texas (as my experience); generally very friendly folks!

I never thought I'd wake up to write on farmers and ranchers, but when election returns speak of rural areas being red, there's good reason for that! God-fearers don't seek or favor handouts, but hard work, and I never want any group stereotyped as all being the same, like only looking like this:

I am a rock-and-roller. I know few rap, country, classics, or other genre songs. That doesn't mean they don't have good stuff, but everyone has their preferences, if they're not aficionados of multiple genres. I

Conservatives say 'NO' to the very concept of government ever spending one more dime, then vote for coronavirus response funding. They're NOT consistent with theory vs. practice (hypocrisy), and what's needed is debt reduction, and only necessary and reasonable spending, toward a balanced budget ASAP!

IF every citizen paid their fair share of taxes, including sweat equity for those who can't, everyone would care that government QUIT ratcheting up our debt! If ALL entitlements ended, and/or ALL subsidies required civic service repayment to tax payers, America would have more peace as America would have more justice.

If EVERY U.S. Citizen but emergency responders and the military (and any 100 percent unable to work, physically or psychologically) did 10 hours, minimum, civic service to America, annually, the federal budget could be reduced a bit, and patriotic involvement and concern for our expenses would increase quite a bit.

I want the U.S. Debt reduced to $15 trillion. I have suggested five ways to achieve that, with the time-frame up to budget experts to decide. And that's just a start. Government needs to learn to do more with less, as families have for decades, to get the best bang for our tax buck!

As we see, especially today (Black Monday), you NEED all citizens emotionally invested in the success of the economy, because non-shareholders often AREN'T, until they receive pink slips! The upper half has to see that the lower 44 percent benefits, too, from an UP economy, vs. being 100 percent selfish. #MoralEconomy We need just wages, vs. just needing wages.

The MORE the upper half ONLY cares about profits and capital gains, and the more workers get laid off as a result, the more government has to step in, which is cheaper than businesses paying wages, but is getting NO production from that money spent (i.e., tax dollars with NO return on "investment"). That's DUMB public policy.

Anything that harms investments harms our economy, overall, which eventually hurts your job security and upward mobility! Liberal policies seemingly always cost money, which is money NOT then available for businesses to boost our economy, but businesses need to be run morally vs. selfishly, and mainly for the elites and the rich, or no one else will care.

IF America were truly energy independent, by mainly using green energy, our stock market wouldn't be so severely impacted by the oil price war between the Saudis and Putin.

Wise investors, like Warren Buffett, have always taught that you only risk in the stock market that which you are willing to lose. If you are fretting over the stock market crash, you have too much at stake, and caught up in the uncertainty of that avenue. (I Tim. 6:17)

NATIONAL DEBT, BUDGET & TAXES

The national debt is now so high, every writing I have ever penned is SO out-of-date! Dems have ZERO concern about debt, because buying votes and putting tax dollars behind their constituent agenda items IS their main concern! This is abhorrent transgressing, folks!

DO YOU KNOW you are NOT rich because you max out your credit cards? You may LOOK rich, to others, but it is a house of cards! DID YOU KNOW printing unbacked and excessive currency makes everyone's dollar is worth LESS? D.C. politicians KNOW this, but they don't care! Kick the can down the street.

(4/26/21-2)

It's LUDICROUS to discuss raised taxes (Biden) when the budget hasn't been dealt with as to reasonable and necessary spending! That's getting the cart before the horse! I believe MOST fed agencies could absorb a 20 percent cut! I hear BIG oils open to a carbon tax, now. WHY? C'mon man! NO!

Our government MUST be FORCED onto a diet plan--period! I HATE wasting Twitter characters for such a short sentence, so I'll remind you to re-read that till you understand it with conviction!

This ISNT rocket science--government can always use more money. Where can they get it from? NOT people who have none. That's the unfairness of politics! Experts are NEEDED to cut every ounce of waste, fat or unnecessary spending, as job 1; top-to-bottom review, and nothing off the table!

Wimpy, wuss politicians delay the inevitable, and don't deal with the real, in skyrocketing U.S. Debt! They KNOW no one wants to get a bill helping them pay it down. They also know the rich can most afford to, even though the rich already pay a much higher percent than anyone else. (5/15/21-2)

(7/3/21-2)

Government spending excessively is the exact same thing as a tax increase! It's just funded by delayed payback, at interest, or funded by inflation, by the dollar's devaluation. China and Russia WIN when U.S. Liberals and Socialists win! America haters, by DEED vs. sentiment! FIGHT BACK!

CAN YOU COMPREHEND that when liberals splurge with tax dollars, even if printed or borrowed, they are only stealing from taxpayers--NOT the non-taxpayers--and when the bills come due, their constituents will pay little to nothing?

DEADLY DEBT

MSNBC is painting GOP wrangling over a second stimulus package, as if they won't just throw money at needy, hurting, unemployed people, caused by the pandemic. That's how we got millions paid to DEAD people! Dems do NOT care how mainly GOP tax dollars get wasted--period! That's irresponsible.

Increased national debt, increased China borrowing or increased QE3 dollar printing will destroy America, when China rightly cuts us off, people start observing dollar devaluation or product price inflation, or the dollar is no longer the international reserve currency! FOOLish!

I'm SO tired of people saying America is the richest nation, so we can afford to fix so many problems! Uncle Sam is BROKE! He maxes out taxpayers' credit cards! We have some very rich citizens and businesses, but our government is in the red. Government IS taxpayers, financially!

Update

(7/27/20)

America is one of the most generous nations, and though we often use foreign aid to advance our own national interests, that's wise, as you don't just hand out freebies, with no requirements to qualify for them! That's bad business!

America is also quite generous to our own people, in our safety net! We have devised Welfare (section 8, food stamps, SNAP, Obamaphone, Welfare checks, Medicaid, et al) for those severely suffering, and it is to be temporary, and has to be tied to seeking better employment or better employee skills.

We have unemployment insurance and Social Security, for seniors, and Social Security disability for those unable to work.

YET, we have a $24 TRILLION national debt, in the richest nation on earth, and growing (with Covid stimulus check #2). As they said in the Planes, Trains movie, we're going the wrong way! Biden's plan adds even more 2.7T+. I'm past dealing with people who think our debt is no problem—you can't fix stupid, they say! I'm on to how we can lessen our debt!

NO specificity is possible, without an actual all-process audit, but general fixes are possible from management consulting science, and general budgetary numbers, below: <https://tinyurl.com/y225j9et>
First, it takes dedication to the goal (the will to do it).

Second, it takes time.

Third, it should be fair to all who are targeted. You can't use politics to decide which functions to reengineer!

Fourth, the largest categories are usually the ones with the biggest savings opportunities (but not always). You have to be committed to these principles:

Retrain people whose services aren't essential, to perform functions America needs.
Move toward layoff those whose job performance is inferior, who don't improve over a probation period.
Reward those who do best, either with more pay, or a job promotion—keep the best.

And America needs to consider everyone but military and first responders being required to contribute 10 hours a year as civic service, to allow the feds to do more with less, or at least the same for less—best bang for the buck belt-tightening.

With our revised Welfare program, that empowers the poor to be self-sustaining, and tokenly repaid by civic service, entitlement spending (a BIG budget expenditure) can be significantly reduced.

Military spending must be the best purchases for taxpayers hard-earned dollars, and technology used to reduce human casualties, and engagement in direct fire. NO $600K jet toilets will EVER be acceptable, nor the feds paying more than is absolutely necessary. Military personnel need to be the size needed, not too much or too little, for America to have the greatest national defense humanly possible.

Technology is our future, both to keep our great and brave men and women safe and alive, and to have dominance over enemy nations' threats.

In every other budget category, you analyze where any waste, abuse or fraud occurs, or could, and you end those possibilities! You structure government bidding process and contracts to increase competition, so America gets supplier who offer the best quality for the least cost possible–NOT from cronyism, nepotism, or political party connections!

EVERY government job needs to be analyzed as to whether it's being under- or over-paid, based on performance, and justice needs to be the standard, as there's a fiduciary duty of the people's government to the people, and especially taxpayers!

"Mandatory" spending (90 percent of the total) has to be re-considered, as that's a misnomer–everything should be on the table for improvement! With a growing economy, by right economic policies (discussed yesterday), the Treasury's revenue will increase, but "We the people" HAVE to demand less spending and less debt!

DEBT & THE SIZE OF GOVERNMENT

(12/19/21-2)

Federal government has to be re-prioritized. The entire budget, line by line, examined for need, waste, efficiency, improvement opportunities, and automation. Job one is fair taxes for ALL, and government 100 percent streamlined! Debt reduction is in top three U.S. Priorities! Get your act together!

The BIG, dirty secret in America is we have to live off our current budget–NOTHING BIGger! It needs to be less, NOT more! There are 5-8 ways to solve this dilemma, but it's EASILY done!

Taxpayers WON'T take any more giving (Manchin as symbol), but Dem poor want more. NOT compulsory civic service could empower government doing 10-20 percent more, for zero tax cost increase, and encourage more active patriotic involvement beyond mere voting! WHY should the police and military, alone, have to sacrifice (a 4-letter word to most) for America? Choose the function you 'wanna do.

The government can be reimagined to do more for less, through tech and reengineering!

1. 10-20 percent cuts can happen, with NO harm to services
2. Retrained employees
3. Incentivized employees to be efficient and have customer service
4. 0-20 percent new, more or less services possible, with no new taxes.

POLITICS & ECONOMICS

(Unpublished)

Presidents take credit or blame for economies on their watch, but in truth, they have LITTLE to do with it. Obamacare was a drain on business, as is our $22 trillion debt, and Chump's over-return of taxes, especially to the rich FURTHER increases our China debt, and QE3 printing of cash, devaluing your dollar.

Here's the MYTH: Uncle Sam returns 'X' amount of taxes to taxpayers in a money bag. That X amount we didn't have in excess, with $22T debt, so until it's recouped, that's X more money to borrow, at interest, or print. And it can take years to recoup, as X amount put toward "stimulating" the economy isn't guaranteed to do so!

Business people make bad decisions, and lose money, sometimes. That X amount isn't always funneled directly into activities sure to grow sales, and therefore profits, that are then taxed, to recoup the X amount by our Treasury. All the while, interest accrues.

Shareholders FEEL better/more positive, paying less taxes, so that's supposed to warm them up to spend more, so investments grow, with infusions of cash. They can also pour the X amount into bonuses, or automating, reducing the number of jobs in our economy, for humans. In short, if the THEORY of less taxes always improving our economy were true, it would go gangbusters if they were zero.

But government performs functions, hopefully conducive vs. detrimental to economic growth, and that costs money—tax payer's money! And when local governments give businesses tax incentives to move to their state, that LESSENS what government gets to pay its bills (until much later).

A better economy is mainly businesses doing well-sales! Consumers buying. Products changing hands. THAT is the focus and heart of economic growth! Businesses taking risks to innovate new products people want to buy, which causes jobs to facilitate those sales and manufacturing, which increases consumers with disposable income with which to purchase such goods.

Apart from existing products that are selling well, the entirety of our economy depends on people planning new products for the coming future, that people will want, and being first to market, before other nations' businesses copy and adapt. In short, innovation is our future! It is skill number one!

TRICKLE DOWN ON THE LITTLE GUY

Let's explore how conservatism HURTS the poor. It fights minimum wage, saying businesses will hire less people, meaning more people can have jobs, if they're cruddy-paying ones.

It's for whatever makes business profits, including automation/AI and robotics, which is expected to eat up more than 35 percent of all jobs in the near future, meaning more laborers out of work, and clamoring for many less jobs, which means lower wages.

It opposes any wealth redistribution, which means government disallowed from helping anyone struggling from these business decisions. Business outsourcing took jobs away, and immigration increases competition for jobs, which lowers wages.

It supports colleges charging whatever they want or can, as with the healthcare industry. That means the poor are priced out of the market for having a competitive education or their basic bodily needs met, when seriously ill. They're for this!

They don't even care that the federal government CAN'T pay all its required bills, cutting taxes too low, claiming that will increase government revenues. Our debt increases, as we borrow more from China, to make up for that gap, and QE3 printing money devalues the dollars in your wallet and purse.

Rightly blame all these negatives on political conservatism! And, again, religious people are often political conservatives, even though God's people, the Jews, had a public safety net program! They WERE a theocracy, but Christian political conservatives OPPOSE any safety net in America.

In short, God is NOT a political conservative, even if white Christians ACT like and insinuate that He is.

There used to be a joke that used government statistics of people in overlapping categories to conclude only two people in the nation were still a certain way, and make the hearer question if they were alive or dead. I DON'T want to misuse stats or facts to scare anyone, but here's what I see on the horizon:

Since the mid-80's, with globalization (and just before), big business has engaged ALL these strategies to reduce costs and boost profits, where some of their war chests are now nearly the size of small nations' budgets:

Streamlining, M and A, automation, contract work, outsourcing, immigration, AI/robotics and increasing insurance co-pays. Add to that prior generations ended pensions and made two-income families virtually required (and unions got busted with globalization), and the advantage is with business!

Then you add in 45's tax rebate mainly to the wealthy, and WHO's looking out for the workers? A 2013 Radar Magazine article estimated 70 percent of current jobs will be eliminated by robotics and AI (artificial intelligence).

THIS is why Andrew Chang has suggested a guaranteed $1K/month, and Mark Zuckerberg has said he'd pay everyone $30K/year not to work. With Amazon virtually ending the need for brick and mortar retail buildings (reversing itself with a few new mall venues), by drone and UPS/FedEx delivery, and Uber crushing the taxi cab industry, using people already driving around (just adding a route-coordinating app), when it gets driverless vehicles, there will be even more unemployed/out of work due to technology!

Every business owner ONLY focuses on their bottom line, and with every business doing that, NO ONE in business is incentivized to look at the BIG picture and see what's happening collectively!

NASDAQ may have broken records, yesterday, and the rich are getting richer, but again, WHO is looking out for the working class? YES, when the rich and business owners get richer, some are inclined to hire more, to assuage public outcries (reputation damage), and they can make money off them (at minimum wage), but the income gap keeps expanding, and people who enjoy the perks/benefits and don't care about justice (because that's what the market will bear), vote to keep the broken system.

Let me tell you exactly where I believe we're heading, as the globe is now your job competitor. EITHER we'll have massive global unemployment, voters will force the rich to pay citizens for exiting, nothing will change, and a violent revolt will ensue, or one-world government will begin.

Sheer competition alone will always keep investors pursuing AI and robotics, so America can't be left behind in that race with China (et al), so WHO is 'gonna manage the negative effects? Government! Businesses are hyper-individualized/mono-focused on their business, and inclined to vote accordingly.

Aristotle said when the people learn they can vote for public money for themselves, democracy dies, but when the people learn they out-number the people who are ruining their lives and livelihoods, for personal gain, they control things.

WHICH will it be? Democratic Socialists are choosing the former-bankrupt America with freebies, and punish the rich to get a job in D.C., buying votes with OPM (other people's money), scaring the rich away from America, and disincentivizing hard work.

May I suggest that it's with educating the public that their sheer numbers can and should control what happens which is the answer! God is for justice-Levit. 19:15. No one can say that today there is a level playing field between management and workers!

I watched The Men Who Built America, over the holidays, and times have been even more ruthless, before laws were set in place to protect workers! 12-hour days, no breaks, like sweatshops, producing steel on assembly lines.

One 'Frick'-in gent (named Frick) flooded an entire working class town because he wanted his carriage to have a wide enough lane atop a dam, which construction weakened the structure. The rich wanting everything good in life for their own elite selves. That's NOT as God intended, and the voice of the people reigns supreme, when imbalance occurs.

I also saw an article about a brilliant woman using virtual reality to imagine your exact home with a variety of furniture and decorating options, before you buy. She's yugely wealthy now, because it's the business owners who benefit most.

WHO is looking out for the little guy? Jesus' three year ministry on earth proves He was thusly concerned, yet His people often vote for policies favoring the wealthy! But when the only alternative is freebies and handouts, what else can they support? The correct answer is balance and justice—a level playing field, because the alternatives I've listed aren't pretty.

God instituted the concept (not percent) of the Giving Pledge for the wealthy! (I Tim. 6:17-19; Lk. 19:8) Yet, the average U.S. Non-rich person donates to charity three percent of their income to 2 percent for the wealthy! Our rich are NOT becoming more godly, Giving Pledgers as anomaly exceptions!

I've said here, repeatedly, that selfishness will ultimately doom America! In that series on America's modern economic beginnings, certain names stick out, like Carnegie, Rockefeller and Vanderbilt. DID YOU KNOW that those wealthy men VALUED charitable giving? In today's dollars, they gave as follows:

Carnegie, $7.2 billion; J. Rockefeller, $7.1 billion; J. Rockefeller, Jr., $5.5 billion. This aspect of wealth is NOT being emulated nearly as much as in days gone by, and will lead to people hating the rich even more (NOT from jealousy, but necessity for sustainable income), revolts and riots (like in South Africa), or lesser-votes to take from them by force of government, since free-willed appeals are falling on more deaf ears.

I've also said here, repeatedly, that we need a Forbes List of charitable donors, as sinful EGO makes competitive types unwilling to donate a lot, lest their rank and social status diminish thereby, and I've said never praise a man for a token percent of philanthropy, when a drop in his bucket is a bucket full in your personal economy!

We get impressed by BIG sums we could never own, given away to good causes, when they're often P.R. Stunts to keep the public from begrudging how much they're legally amassing. The story of the widow's mite shows how God views sacrificial giving, compared to amount owed.

There's only so much money in the world, and the sky's the limit only individually. The pie expands and contracts, but the market share of wealth by the wealthy keeps expanding as average Joes' wages are stagnant, and the rich don't even have to work to make those big bucks... their money works for them, and they can hire folk or use software to generate more and more off stock transactions that can be done even as they sleep.

Tom Steyer speaks of a fair economy; conservatives speak of a free economy, because it's legal to be unjust! We the people must demand fairness! You don't deserve to be overpaid, but the definition of a fair wage keeps changing to your detriment, when jobs get shipped away, and labor gets shipped in! WHO but government can stop this flip-flop to your detriment? That's NOT looking to Uncle Sam for a nanny state, but economic self-interest!

ECONOMIC COMMON SENSE will be the title of today's message, and it need not favor Democrats—it certainly opposes handouts. It favors justice, because God favors justice, and it may tick off selfishly greedy vs. generous rich, but that's exactly what Jesus also did, so so be it. Be like Jesus.

TRICKLE DOWN: TRICK OR EAR TICKLE?

Let's analyze trickle down. First, let's assess trickle up and government control of an economy! Dems, last year, proposed trickle up. Over-pay workers, and that will boost business profits. An ASTONISHING break from reality—fantasyland!

YES, being generous in wages MAY engender loyalty and harder work, but it also may just lead to even higher expectations for the same level of productivity as before the pay increase.

Liberals believe all workers and poor people are under-paid. IF you truly believe that, MOVE TO ANOTHER COUNTRY and see what wage your skills can muster! We're in a GLOBAL economy and labor market.

How about government-controlled economies, like price fixing, government owned businesses, and regulations and taxes out the wazoo? NEED I educate you on how those schemes have usually fared, as utter failures? Liberals tout Sweden and China (Socialism and Communism). WOULD YOU WANT TO WORK IN CHINA, if you weren't an ex-pat American?

And Sweden's YUGE safety net for all (healthcare, paid vacations, etc.) may help all people access healthcare, but their economy is nowhere near ours, investment there isn't, either, and contrary to urban myth, not all citizens are millionaires (and they tightly control their borders, to limit benefits from their system).

Now, trickle down... In theory, it COULD be used for GOOD... the poor actually are lifted up by the rising tide of the rich getting richer; But ONLY when the rich were predominantly as they were before the yuppie years of the 1980s, where 'greed is good' became a slogan.

When the rich hoard, are selfish, do everything just to get richer, or invest for personal gains, the poor benefit little-to-none! LOOK at their giving percents! It's LOWER than average Joes, and NOTHING like the true heroes of Capitalism... Carnegie, Rockefeller and Rothschild!

No, we've become selfish and stingy, and idolaters, so that economic theory OFTEN fails all but the elites on top! The theory was if the rich get richer, they'll share the abundance, by more jobs, charitable giving, and a national economy that benefits all people as it increases.

In reality, it just makes prices rise, where the poorer are priced out of the market, so they now clamor for Socialism! Tax breaks and vanity naming of buildings doesn't compete with increased lifestyles you can pass on to your heirs, ad infinitum!

The main thing that trickles down is misery. The rich even pay workers LESS, due to globalism, and all business schemes that increase profits, UNLESS they engage in profit-sharing!

I've addressed this topic way too many times. Read my more extensive works on trickle down. It's usually the rich peeing on the little guy. That's NOT the type of trickling the poor want, or need!

GOVERNMENT & ECONOMICS

(AKA, Socialism vs. capitalism; 7/24/20)

Every election cycle both political parties craft a platform of positions that is different from their previous ones, to some degree. So WHAT are their core values, that distinguish one from the other? The MOST basic difference is their valuing and attitude toward tax dollars spent to improve society!

The GOP leans toward "no new taxes," while the Dems are famously "tax and spend." WHICH is better for the economy? I will prove to you it's the former, but with one important adjustment!

Whenever government spends money, that's money taxpayers can't invest in businesses growth! Business growth is how an economy grows, as the economy is simply the sum of all businesses in a nation's successes. So minimizing government spending frees up capital to put into business.

Not all investments are successful, but at least that money went toward trying to make them so. And when government spends money, it's USUALLY not nearly as frugally spent as a business person would spend! Government waste is infamous! So, economically speaking, the less taxes the better for the economy!

BUT (I told you there was one BIG catch): Businesses doing well, or the stock market rising is NOT good news or bad news for the nearly half of all Americans who own no stocks. And if businesses DON'T hire, as they expand, or replace humans with AI robots, their growth is NOT good for all of America!

Business-minded people don't consider such considerations, as they only look at their bottom lines! But if every business only did that, they would all hire as few people for as few dollars as possible, and "hire" robots if their cost was paid for by the human salaries they replaced!

If business continues to not address how their micro decisions affect the macro society, especially regarding most people's need for a job, clamorings for Socialism in America will only rise, and any successes will rightly be pinned on blinders-on focus ONLY on profits! You were warned!

THIS is where politics gets involved! Ideally, Uncle Sam would ONLY serve as an arbiter/referee of fair laws, to prevent business abusing society, customers or the environment.

Practically, you have government systems where all businesses are owned by government, all the way to nations (like America) where few functions are 100 percent done by government (Ex.: military, police, politicians). Even education has private schools! In-between is Socialist nations, where the people often have some joint ownership of the businesses.

But for America's purposes, the only issue is how society gets improved, or at least some of our problems fixed (or at least addressed), under the two extremes of liberalism and conservatism!

Libs say tax the rich more (and probably ALL taxpayers). Conservatives say less taxes (or at least no tax increases). I already told you taxes are a drain on the economy, but so also is our national debt! YOU are less financially free when you're strapped for cash, and start credit carding your overage (debt). SAME with the federal government!

NO politician (to speak of) addresses our national debt, because the belief is that if politicians are going to win votes, they have to promise to do things, and most of those things costs money!

'Bottom line,' America has to learn to do more with the same (or, ideally, less)! There are ways! Our debt needs to lessen, our problems lessen, and our government spending change to being more effective and cost-effective!

You can have a better society on the same budget as today, or even slightly smaller, getting smaller over time, until the national debt is more reasonable, but it isn't happening, and isn't going to happen until people figure out how to do it!

I've detailed the solutions many other places (I don't reinvent wheels, here). Bottom line, freebies and wasteful spending are NOT how our economy improves, nor is businesses ONLY caring about their own bottom line, and never society as a whole, especially people's needs for a job!

I'll only summarize: Fair share taxes, everyone contributes (civic service if one can't afford taxes), rich people generously donate (rewarded for doing so), everyone does some civic service (freeing up government spending), streamlined government, a growing economy from low-ish taxes, and programs that empower self-sufficiency among poor people.

EVERY conservative wants LESS taxes and LESS government spending, but government functions cost money, and until it is streamlined, those bills are due. And EVERY politician votes to spend some government money! It's NOT reasonable to chase unachievable goals on either end.

EVERY one of those intertwined solutions I have detailed elsewhere, except streamlined government. Until one has the data, and does a thorough audit of all government spending, suggested streamlining measures are impossible, but I guarantee you I could do so, just like I have in business, and personally!

But if there's not a way to get Congress productive, due to intransigent party worship and polar extremes, even that goal is loftily unattainable. That's why I have detailed our Pledged Politicians solution, more times than you could count. There are solutions to EVERYTHING, IMO!

One update: Handouts are economic rat holes. There is zero return on investment from tax dollars given to people with nothing expected in return! If people have ANY economic sense, freebies are a drain on our economy! That doesn't mean there aren't ways to help the poor do better!

WHEN IS THE AMERICAN ECONOMY DOING WELL?

Economists judge economies by GDP, unemployment percents (3-4 percent is optimal, so most people have jobs, and business has choices in who to hire, vs. needing to hire anyone who applies), consumer confidence, CEO projections' optimism, and other factors. Many non-economist Americans simply watch the stock markets.

If the 48 percent of Americans owning NO stocks aren't doing better, our economy is NOT doing better! Trickle down says a rising tide raises all boats. NOT when all waterways are NOT connected to the ocean! People unconnected to the stock markets benefit ZERO from the rich getting richer, IF the rich are stingily selfish greedy hoarders!

Business people are trained to make money (I know, with two business degrees), and as Warren Buffet says, 'never lose money,' and that business' ONLY purpose is profits. That attitude has to stop outside the business, when one gets wealthy! GOD Himself says so! (I Tim. 6:17-19; Ecc. 5:13)

And even in business, overpaid CEOs and execs HAVE to start seeing their decisions as part of the whole! ALL Americans NEED a way to survive! MOST people aren't cut out to be great entrepreneurs, meaning they won't start a new business, and be successful! That means they need jobs!

I've worked among Fortune 500 executives. The sole focus on cut costs and grow revenues is great for the company and shareholders, but when it comes at the expense of society, workers and the environment, it IS selfish, and GOD says selfishness is evil.

The family is the best analogy for how a good business is run! Management actually cares about their employees, and not because government tells them they have to! The workers are how you're getting rich! They're the front line, and down in the trenches! Without them, you have nothing, and no company! Yes, they can be replaced, but the skilled ones are harder to jettison!

You are not just an adding machine. You are human, down deep in your soul! You know, using the logic in the brain God gave you that every American needs a job, and if every U.S. Company adopts the attitude that I'll only do what's best for my bottom line, millions of Americans will go homeless!

And if your attitude is that higher taxes are cheaper than all U.S. Businesses hiring all who need hiring, you're either morally bankrupt, or you favor bloated government, which would have to hire them!

The MOST corrupt of all is the business person who NEVER sees the macro, and his business's role as but one cog in the wheel, then votes against government helping any unemployed.

I'm NOT for any U.S. Business hiring people they don't need. I'm saying help the unemployed find work, if you don't have it for them! I'm saying when you employ AI and robots, and replace workers with machines, DON'T then vote against policies that make up for YOUR legally allowed damage!

Help Americans start new businesses, with the skills you have, or have access to. Don't empower competitors, but volunteer to make more successful businesses that will hire the unemployed. You will only do it for profit, most likely, but learn that you can own enough, at which time you NEED to start caring about humanity, vs. just your bank account!

MLK said as much!: "An individual has not started living until he can rise above the narrow confines of his individualistic concerns to the broader concerns of all humanity." GOD said life is NOT he who has the most toys wins! (Lk. 12:15) THIS is where American Capitalism fails!

The money has to come from somewhere, for all Americans to do OK! BIG business war chests and rich people's bank accounts are, in fact, the only places where excess exists in large numbers, as Uncle Sam's wealth is a house of cards, from borrowing or printing funny money!

Therefore, U.S. Businesses and rich people have to start devising ways to get all Americans employed, and stop thinking they always have to profit from such ventures, once they have enough. You CAN own enough, at which point if you still care only about yourself, you are the stereotypical greedy SOB, and the masses WON'T endure you forever, peacefully!

How do you know WHEN you should start giving back? At the latest, when you can live the rest of your life in high style off conservative interest off your nest egg! You should care before then, but American Capitalism can blind you to moral matters beyond money-making! The American Dream can be worldliness!

AI & AMERICA'S ECONOMIC FUTURE

Let's address where this mad dash to AI is heading... FEW jobs, money only in the hands of elites, HIGH unemployment, and BIG government to hire or pay for the unemployed, by taxing the elites who would be forced to pay up, even if they left America.

Business and rich people HAVE to either start caring about workers' lives and livelihoods, or when they retire or move from America, people will violently take over their assets (like South Africa), if not kill them! These lawless protesters are proof!

There is NO nation like America, nor Capitalism like ours, to run to! And most Americans wouldn't live anywhere else. If they did, they'd encounter MORE Socialism than is here already!

So it behooves U.S. Business to address both AI and the employment needs of Americans! Even if every rich American retired, or shut down their business, your gated communities can't stop an angry mob of displaced, permanently unemployed people!

"RELIGIOUS ECONOMICS"

I had NOTHING to say, and LOTS of work to do, but a FOOL of a Twitterer insulted my economics, because it includes religious principles, so let's educate the do-do's of the world on economics 101. Get your thinking caps on, and a hot cup of Joe, 'cause it's BORING!

Two theories abound, on economic theory and practice. Free market Capitalism, with little-to-no government intervention, instead of MUCH government intervention, such as regulations, injecting money, interest rate control to federal banks, bailouts, stimulus spending, and entitlements, etc.

First, you have to define terms!: An economy is only the sum total of how well every business or profit center is doing, meaning any legal entity that makes profit, be they in business for profit, or non-profit. GDP growth is the usual marker, as is stock market rises.

Such things as the consumer confidence index, unemployment levels (3-4%), debt and trade imbalances, inventory turnover, CEO projections/optimism in forecasts (such as buying for the longer-term, with capital investments) and other lesser indicators economics (professionals trained in this topic) look to to assess an economy's overall health.

Seen another way, economics is ONLY how everyone in a nation is doing, financially, as to job or job through ownership dividends. It's the collective, not the individual (macro vs. micro economics).

IF you analyze the discipline you see it is NOT how individuals are doing, financially, EXCEPT as to if they're employed, unemployed and on unemployment insurance, or even under employed. It does NOT consider if what one makes is enough to sustain themselves, for they have a means to live, called a j-o-b.

You also want SOME unemployment, so people are mobile, moving up, evolving, and so business has some choice in who they get to hire. Obviously, a 'good' economy is these factors doing well, and a nation doing financially well, compared to others, if not growing.

ALL of this has ZERO to do with whether any individual is pleased with their pay! When I said legal entities profiting is a sure sign of success, profit is that which a company or charity takes in in revenues, donations or sales, minus costs and expenses. EVERYone works a business to profit–NOT go bankrupt!

So, to keep profits high (a GOOD) thing, businesses like to keep costs low (a bad thing to be high). The two largest expenses are usually facilities and headcount/labor. To remain globally competitive, especially with other nations having NO minimum wage, and NOT disallowing child labor or sweat shops, U.S. Businesses like cheap labor, JUST LIKE YOU DO when hiring a lawn boy! Natural and human nature! NOT evil; self-interest vs. selfishness sin.

The 'market' (cumulative/collective total of all jobs and wage offers) sets the 'going' or market rate for any particular job, though individuals (management HR department) are involved, so variances in wages exist among regions (Ex.: higher cost of living in NY vs. TX), and it's a range—just like the TV ad for an app telling you a good, bad or great deal for a used car, based on the Kelly Blue Book.

That book sums up all transactions it gathers data on, just as Realtors have a database of all public home sales. The market! My own business (energy) has a market, which knows what the cost will be every day, based on numbers, NOT on what I or clients want.

The only other alternative is government arbitrarily and randomly setting prices for work, as the market would be usurped. America has NEVER had a system like that! Which economic theory is better? For the nation as a whole, America's historic economic achievements prove free market Capitalism is far superior to Socialism or Communism (varying degrees of government control of the economy).

HOWEVER, people (especially lower level workers) often hate Capitalism, especially youth, because when you have FEW to no job skills, you get paid the least, as it should be, to be fair! You get what you work for, and you are always free to upgrade, with better skills, job search, or moving to states with better economic conditions.

BUT certain folks, especially among Democrats, believe government should hire workers who work for companies, in the form of taxpayers subsidizing them with unearned freebies!

Joe Biden's 'plan' is a plan to CRUSH a good and recovering economy! 'Free' college, healthcare, home down payment, daycare subsidy, student loan debt (lenders LOSE), insurance for NON citizens (illegals), DOUBLED minimum wage, and surely other Santa Claus giveaways!

Is that economically sound, smart/wise or justified? People who want free stuff will say yes, because they comprehend ZERO about economics, poo poo'ing the subject as academic, but it is NOT. It is FACT and science concerning how businesses fare, overall, and individuals, as to employment.

You can't ally sound, smart/wise or justified? People who want free stuff will say yes, because they comprehend ZERO about economics, poo poo'ing the subject as academic, but it is NOT. It is FACT and science concerning how businesses fare, overall, and individuals, as to employment.

'You can't change stupid' is a book title a buddy once recommended to me (vs Dumb as a Donkey, Fat as an Elephant). I can't fix stupid, if I explain simply, and your desires or IQ can't grasp it, but I will try, by analogy. ARE YOU DOING BETTER, financially, when you have many toys, but high credit card balances, or are you better off when your income exceeds your outgo? The latter! SAME with business.

Labor is a cost. Their job is to profit, legally, and they aren't charities. If wages "feel" too low, to you, and you run to government-as-daddy to fix your lack of funds, YOU are the problem! You don't care about the nation's economic health, or success (ability to do things they do, like defend us from enemies), because you are an immoral moocher and selfishly a thief of taxpayers, wanting things you don't deserve or earn, from evil politics!

Live within your means! Spend less. Buy better. Earn more, etc. BUT, where I DO bring in my religion into economics is this: Brad Pitt (or was it Leonardo DiCaprio—I confuse handsome men) coined the phrase 'unbridled Capitalism.' That IS evil! Let me describe the difference!

Pure Capitalism ONLY says business is in business to profit. That statement could mean anything goes to make a profit, which means law violations, destroy the ecology and treat workers unjustly, if you can profit by so doing. That form of Capitalism I do NOT agree with.

And where God is involved is this: He teaches that politicians are NOT to favor the rich or the poor, in their public policies, or laws passed! Levit. 19:15 He also says the rich are to generously give back to society, and he hates greed, hoarding and selfishness. I Tim. 6:17-19, Lk. 12:15, Ecc. 5:13, Phil. 2:3-5+

He also says that a safety net for the poorest is morally RIGHT, not evil! The Jews showed that. But He also teaches justice (Mic. 6:8), so any help to poor people willing to work should be repaid, I say by civic service, token or literally equal—the public decides!

He also says whoever won't work is not to be fed (II Th. 3:10), so entitlements are unjust theft from hard-working taxpayers (hard work which he commends—Gen. 3:19/Col. 3:23-24)—the "Protestant Work Ethic"—OUR American history and tradition—Capitalism vs. socialism!

He even teaches personal property rights. Ac. 4:7 AS TO LABOR, God not only says to earn an honest living (I Th. 4:11; Eph. 4:5-9), He, again, teaches JUSTICE in this 2-way street—NOT favoring the employers! Levit. 19:15. Col. 4:1 says bosses are to do what's right toward their employees, in the fear of Him Who WILL judge the lawsuit addicts (Jas. 2:6-7) and arrogant tyrant bad bosses (Jas. 5:4)!

That means management is to do right by labor, and such laws as banning sweat shops, child labor, unemployment insurance, requiring overtime and safe working conditions are doing right by labor! In short, there is absolutely ZERO in conflict between the Bible and bridled Capitalism—period!

They exactly mirror each other, and are EXACTLY what everyone who is not evil WANTS! Justice! Hard work adequately/fairly rewarded, and bosses doing right by employees! So when any biblical fool—Ps 14:1—says religion discredits one's economic understanding, their mouth is merely exposing their heart, which is in rebellion to God, and heading the wrong direction as to living with Him forever! Lk. 6:45 If you want to debate my economic philosophy, LOGIC supports it!

EASIER for politicians to just say I'm for Capitalism or Socialism! Americans' attention span for comprehending TRUTH are so short! A photo op, 1-liner slogan mentality, which is no mentality at all—only fee-wings! Anathema, balderdash and ichabod!

I have my own 30 second TV ad: You KNOW American politics is bullhonkey! Fighting, extremism, division, gridlock and waste. There's a better way. READ <http://AmericanAnswers.org>, and if you find any better solutions, vote for them! Thanks. I'm JEM, and I approve this message; NOT that mess!

CONSERVATIVE & LIBERAL EXTREMES

THIS is 'gonna be gold: I was just shamed for bringing up politics at a family gathering, to prevent WASPs from backing Chump, apparently 2 to three years ago. So now I'm 'gonna let you have it...

ANY CHRISTIAN WHO VOTED FOR TRUMP IS A FOOL, AN IMMORAL REPRESENTATIVE OF THE CHRISTIAN FAITH, and NOT ONE LOST PEOPLE OUGHT TO CONSULT OR LISTEN TO ON MORAL ISSUES, and here's EXACTLY why (I just lost their vote—people HATE the TRUTH!):

Hillary was a BAD candidate, and NO WASP Christian should have voted for her, unless their conscience led them to. I'm NOT arguing for that! But rich, white claimers of Christ failed America in two YUGE ways: They NEVER required CHUMP to act like an adult, much less a baby Christian (under threat of withholding their vote), or publicly rebuked him!

I'm constantly told, 'but he's anti-Roe.' I just SILENCED one who was duped into that belief, by saying, "so are you for a boyfriend punching his girlfriend in the stomach, or her shoving a coat hanger up Megyn's [Kelly] wherever?" THEY DO NOT THINK! The term "conservative" was hidden behind, as synonym for "holy."

I told that party MANY things political conservatives are for are anti-God and against Christ! I think they were SHOCKED, as pastors tell them what to think—there's NOT really much thinking going on—just lock step IGNORANT obedience, made moral if you use the word "Jesus," somehow.

LET ME TELL YOU SOMETHING THAT'S POINT BLANK TRUE: Political conservatives have ZERO intent or desire to obey God, if He doesn't fit into their political mold! They LOVE money, and don't want one soul ever benefitted from it if not in their family or employ. They hide behind privacy laws about their taxes, to hide this fact.

Warren Buffett and Bill Gates are NOT slandered or libeled by Democrats or moderate Republicans, as "self-loathing." ONLY talk radio and their cult followers would speak evil of someone doing good, as 'do-gooders.' Jesus taught the rich to give money away, and be generous. This is NOT political conservatism.

It's selfish, greedy, hoarding and loving of money—all sins in God's book. They want zero wealth redistribution, taxes are seen as evil government stealing my money (even though their preachers teach them that everything belongs to God?), and they "think" a "tithe" at church absolves them of concern for any others, AS IF it doesn't mainly pay for buildings and salaries. They're deluded.

God's people, the Church/Christians are tunnel vision on the term "conservative," because they're too naïve to distinguish a spiritual conservative from a political one! Interpreting the Bible IS to be conservative... you don't play fast and loose with the words of the Word! Political is DIFFERENT!

You never heard ONE WORD from the 81 percent of WASPS who voted for CHUMP, decrying his full-time sin campaign, in both word and deed! NEVER! They acted like he was the only choice, because he'd vote against Roe. That is ignorance sin!

You vote for ALL GOP's BUT him, and tell him if he doesn't straighten up, you won't vote, and he'll lose, but Hillary will be checked against every evil she might thrust onto America by a super majority of GOP's who DON'T act like CHUMP, in both houses!

And you speak publicly about his sins, as John the Baptist would have, because morals mattered to him! Pastors were SILENTLY complicit.

EVEN NOW, Republicans cower at CHUMP, because he's an evil, vindictive narcissist who will exact revenge on any who don't bow to him! EVEN PASTORS fear he'd nominate a liberal to SCOTUS if they told the TRUTH about him in public! They INVENTED names for him, for the Christian vote! Baby Christian, Cyrus, etc.

ALL for the sins of power idolatry and injustice, stacking SCOTUS "conservative" (that synonym for "holy," to fools).

IF ROE WERE OVERTURNED AND ANY STATE COULD TOTALLY BAN ALL ABORTIONS, COAT HANGERS AND BOYFRIEND GUT PUNCHES WOULD ENSUE, white rich Christian dupe conservatives! This is ABSOLUTELY TRUE!

I live among them. I've heard their instinctive response, the same every time: "I never thought about that." I KNOW THAT, AND THAT'S A PROBLEM, if you bring Jesus' name into the mix! You are to love the Lord your God with all your mind. You're NOT doing that, so don't use His name! (1 Th. 5:22)

And favoritism is a SIN, in how CHUMP courted WASP votes by unjustly mistreating non-terrorist Arabs and his favoring Jews! THAT IS NOT SUCCESS FOR THE CAUSE OF GOD, fellow DUMB WASP Trumpsters! And you're 'gonna vote for him again, even as he has RUINED America's reputation everywhere but in your "mind."

'WHAT CHOICE DO WE HAVE,' ask DUMB sheep? THREATEN NOT TO VOTE FOR HIM, but vote for all other GOP's en masse—same as you should have done in 2016! God gave NO Christian a spirit of fear, but PASTORS are scared to say of Chump things that are TRUE. We're to LOVE the truth! We do NOT!

Christians are to stand for morality and against sin. NEWS FLASH—Homosexuality and abortion are NOT the only sins politics covers! Vindictive dictators who want good people impeached or ousted, like Romney, and many other GOP's are NOT American, but Communistic, MAGA notwithstanding!

'You have what you tolerate!' That was a sermon I heard by a WASP preacher. Apparently we don't believe it, or we're hypocrites! EVERYONE knows CHUMP is morally and mentally nowhere like any other living president, but NO GOP's will say this. Cowardice sin. Sin everywhere! Repent, America!

The GOP has always been touted as a [fairly] big tent and family. That's a LIE! They hate Socialism, but here's the difference. Conservatives want NO wealth redistribution. Centrists want NO freebies, so you tokenly repay America if you get any subsidy! 'To Hell with the poor's struggles' IS political conservatism at its core.

If college or healthcare are too expensive for the poor's pay to cover, get sick and die, and stay under-educated and earning low wages! THIS IS POLITICAL CONSERVATISM, and don't let anyone tell you otherwise. It's CONTRARY to God, in that element, and it lives for the here and now more than the hereafter, often, supposedly in Jesus' name.

Democrats are the EXACT same thing—divided. The rational centrists are quite quiet, this go-round, because the AOC radicals are in charge. Politicians promising other people's money to buy votes. I HATE BOTH EXTREMES, AND THE CORRUPT, BROKEN U.S. POLITICAL SYSTEM! YOU enjoy the coming civil war!

NO WASP political conservative has spent a week in a poor area of town—PERIOD! It's easier and more comfortable to imagine in your mind that they're all lazy, bad students, gang members, or Welfare queens! You don't want to know reality, as it will upset your idolatry apple cart! Deal with the real!

I have ZERO intention of adopting political conservatism hook, line and sinker, for any votes, and any WASP Christians who say political conservatism is God's view, I never want to sit next to in any church. You are anathema, and the reason Christianity's reputation took a hit in 2016! Are you proud?

If you are poor, you are a loser. You're a ne'er do well who made nothing of your life. A sponge, a leach, a drain on society. God hates you, as they show by an attitude toward you, as WASP political conservatives who feel this way toward most if not all not like them! God only loves the rich (CONTRARY to Bible).

If you were born in a 'hood or barrio, you have as EQUAL a chance of financial success as a spoiled rotten white brat raised by a butler behind gated community doors, and attending an Ivy league college! This is the INSANITY of political conservatism. They ACTUALLY believe this!

They care about the unborn, but not the poor who have been born, and they are pro-life, except for the eternal life of every born person. That means they hate the poor, and do very little evangelism. Cherry-picked, selective love of people and life, if you ask me! NOT like Jesus.

LOOK at (i.e., READ of) Jesus' life! He did NOT hob nob with the rich! He spent most of His effort toward the down-and-out and lowly! O PPOSITE to political conservatism, that CLAIMS to be of God, due to Roe.

If you only knew the HARM of WASP churches NOT evangelizing, a riot would ensue! And if you only knew the harm of political conservatism to the poor, same thing!

Conservatives' theory practices business is in business to screw all but the best workers! They vote for government to do NOTHING for the rest, even with robot replacement workers!

Howard Schultz said, "I'm a billionaire—I thought that was the American Dream!" No, that's selfish money idolatry that helps no one but you and your family, sir. THAT's why WASPs embracing worldliness and materialism is anathema to God, and many voters!

It's NOT like college and healthcare are luxuries for the poor, like BMWs and Gucci shoes. I don't care that any poor person in America can't ever have an expensive anything, if they can't afford it, but college is ever more necessary in a technological economy, and some health care, as bodies give out!

Something rich and middle class whites CAN'T understand... it's HARD to live in 'Merica on the wages some of them max out at, and businesses will always need minimum wage jobs.

The ONLY difference between political conservatism theory and telling a poor person to kill themselves, to end their suffering, is the theory will never say that. The economy is alleged to get better if the rich get richer, but that just means they get richer! There's NO guarantee of more jobs or better pay, as they can robotize, downsize, hire part-timers, and lobby to end minimum wage!

Trickle down is the rich peeing on you, nothing more. Government handouts are unsustainable, and fiscally irresponsible, as the government doesn't make any money—it just confiscates others' earnings. BOTH extremes are WRONG!

And to balance the scales, let's address people wanting something for nothing. It's NOT fair for tax payers to pay for your bills, as you're not family or their employee! You can't pay government for subsidized medicine or college, but you can pay back with compulsory civic service, and you shouldn't begrudge doing do! You'll vote against it, from selfishness.

EXTREMES ARE EVIL!

[Background:] Trump's SINS if not crimes concerning Ukraine do NOT merit impeachment and removal, but he cannot just skate Scot free! There must be other punishments, not just at the polls. Censuring, or whatever other measures Congress has in its worthless arsenal. I want him OUT, but by vote, and legally.

GUILTY people consider accountability an attack by a left-winged media! Far righters have bumper stickers saying they don't trust the fake news media, AS IF they're not just biased, but they full-time lie. Low IQ is rampant in the extremes! Stupidity, idiocy, foolishness-rampant!

Lord, destroy every selfishly ambitious, party-worshipping liar in Washington D.C. Politics, including all claiming "pastors" who have empowered this mess, please, ASAP! They LIE they want revival, by their deeds, priorities and votes!

Three Dems are considering acquittal (the RIGHT decision), and three GOP's are considering witnesses (the RIGHT decision). It's EVIL voters who scare them away from doing the right thing, threatening removal from idolized jobs! YOU wouldn't work a job like that, evil voter(s)! You need to repent, as well.

Resulting Message

America doesn't have a pure Democracy, but a representative one! We voters need to honor and support politicians who vote their conscience, behave independently, and do the right thing, even if they don't always do everything we want. We aren't elected to be leaders of U.S. Policy, or we'd run for office! Know your role!

There are MANY idiots in our American citizenry, who actually believe they're entitled to have D.C. Do their every whim! They're too stupid to see that polar opposite aims can never be achieved at the same time, or that victories can't be permanent, when you insist on one polar extreme position. Do you have a low IQ? Then don't vote!

Mob rule and chaos is what protesting clamorers bring about! Sometimes they bring needed spotlight on an issue, but if you aren't for balanced public policy, any gains you achieve will be undone, sometime later! BOTH extremes have to grow a brain to see common ground is the ONLY way forward! Low IQ people cannot see this!

For example, radio talker Mike Gallagher was calling green energy policy 'hysteria,' yesterday. I agree the sky is not falling, but his ilk would let people die from cancer caused by pollution, before he'd back any legislation to curb big oil's negative impacts! That's an extreme! #OpposeExtremes Let HIM breathe in oil fumes.

Another example: 'Family leave for all' trended yesterday. No limits, no specifics on when one qualifies for such a perk. Voters use votes to get freebies from tax payers and businesses, vs. working harder and smarter, and spending smarter, and/or less. The easy way out, cutting corners, wanting freebies and handouts... EVIL EXTREMES!

Example: Conservatives literally say 'business can do whatever it wants,' like a funeral home firing a person for changing his sex (SCOTUS case). It is extremes that are causing the division and hostile environment the U.S. Is currently experiencing, like Virginia gun-grabbers, and people wanting zero laws passed regarding guns!

It is an extreme to worship any human, but the GOP is cow-towing to the most evil president in 60 years! It's an extreme to favor Israel, and leave bread crumbs for Arabs! Extremes are unjust, and God is for justice; many humans are not!

It's unjust to over- or under-pay anyone, including CEOs and executives! Socialism and selfish conservatism are BOTH extremes!

I hope extremists will soon all meet on a historic battlefield (Gettysburg), verbally hash out their hatreds, and if it gets physical, centrists blow a whistle and let THEM have their second Civil War! America would be better off without them both!

Freebies are an unjust extreme. Hiring based on race, excused as something else, is unjust. Firing people because they're LGBTQ is unjust. Killing babies third trimester and beyond is evil, as is having zero concern what happens to women if all abortions are banned. Evil, extreme, unjust-sins!

Politicians who lie should be fined YUGELY! Chump would go bankrupt quickly, a sixth time! Politicians who worship a dictator should be fined, and worse! Politicians who refuse to work with the other side should be canned! We the people have let them have too many perks! They idolize working in D.C.. Shame on us voters!

Dems are for the down-and-out, and working stiffs; GOP's are for the rich and educated. God is for ALL humanity, you stupid fools who prove Evolution is a lie, by never evolving, morally or logically! The worship of political party is the cause of almost all ills in America! %^#%$ both your stupid labels!

STUPID people think if we stack SCOTUS right, Dems will never un-do that, like replacing retiring Ginsburg with a liberal, and probably another! When you cram your personal views onto America, by schmoozing satan's man, backlash will come, unless you never lose elections. EVERY party loses elections sometimes, foolish people! Why are we so dumb?

If the GOP returns to morality and thinking, there's not one day I'm not 'gonna call out all the hypocrites who have pushed Trumpist extremism, then turn on a dime to chase the next thing, with NO moral compass! Voters' memories may be short, but they'll get DAILY reminders! I don't suffer fools gladly.

And Jesus' name having been dragged into extremist political antics and positions has brought the greatest shame to Christendom since the Salem witch trials and Inquisition! Pastors are now slaves of Chump, as he'll wreak revenge if they obey God and speak honestly! Cowardice sin and hypocrisy! NO respect!

There's not one extreme I've ever met that I ever liked. It's not cool to be a thinker, level-headed and for rational solutions, but being extreme is what's tearing our nation apart. If we want two separate nations, do it legally, or meet on the battlefield! I want extremists silenced!

And that two-state solution is not workable, as some states aren't red or blue, and many people in every state are not the color their state is depicted! We have to learn to live together, despite our differences, and live in unity, through common ground, where both sides lose some of their ideal aspirations, never seeing them implemented!

Peaceful coexistence, with free speech disagreeing agreeably, but not taking public rhetoric seriously, AS IF you actually expect your extremes to be adopted by the nation as a whole! You have what you tolerate. I don't tolerate current state! I don't tolerate polar opposite extremists!

If Bernie wins the Democrat nomination, I guarantee a Trump win. I've been wrong before, but my track-record proves I'm usually right in my predictions. And the time I was most wrong was when God wanted me to change parties, which I wouldn't have without that result, to protest the evil Mr. Chump. WORST president in 60 years!

If one extreme holds to extremes, the other fights it tooth-and-nail, so you either get gridlock (paying politicians to do nothing), or any win is short-lived, as the policy will be overturned by the other side. This unstable pendulum swinging situation MUST be over many people's heads to comprehend, sadly!

ALL these extremes are intolerable: Do nothing about pollution, vs. waste tax dollars combatting 'climate change.' Business is god, vs. workers are god. High vs. low taxes. Big vs. small government. Freebies, vs. ignore the poor, as I'm rich and enjoying it. Extremes are what's killing America! The answers lie inbetween!

And NEVER let any religious person or claimed 'leader' tell you they have God's answers, when their policies proposed don't make sense, don't work, or are immoral! They usually don't know what they're talking about—they just use single moral issues to rile up votes for their idolized political party! Sin-to win!

God is for justice. God's people are to be for justice! Favoring Israel riles up UNeducated WASPs' votes, but is NOT what God wants, but justice (excepting treating violent people as equal with the nonviolent).

I've said for 40 years, WASPs have a 5/10/13 problem, and now you see the effects in politics! Sin reigns!

When you teach a false gospel (Lordship Salvation), you either get fake conversions, or conversions mixed with false thinking and theology, and no relational disciplining, because that's on the convert to do (an infant bottle feeding itself), as they had to promise to do, in order to be saved! Hence, carnality/sin REIGNS in the American Church!

Statistics for 30 years straight, 10 years ago (which makes a generation/40 years total) have shown this 5/10/13 problem! Five percent of claimers of Jesus have EVER won one person to Him in their lifetime! That means we don't share Christ's priorities, or values!

The super-majority of WASPs are NOT disciples of Jesus, but "nominal," which, by Rev. 3:16 means carnal! God wants believers cold to Him, rather than apathetic! We've embraced churchianity, to salve our guilty consciences, chasing money (disobeying God/Pv. 23:4-5) for worldliness, even in our mega church mania money to Balaam pastors!

WHAT DO YOU EXPECT will occur in our politics, when Christ-claimers are devil worshippers, in practice? Trump's win! The devil himself couldn't have run a more evil campaign, and CHUMP said it was him, NOT an act, and he wouldn't change. "Christians" voted for this. APOSTASY! Repent!

There are pastors who mouth a desire for revival, but started the most evil four years in modern American history! ANATHEMA! They schemed a way to stack SCOTUS rightward, as justice wasn't their interest, like it always is for God, and they failed to trust God, but leaned on their own devices, and look what resulted! Current day politics!

I hope you're proud of that achievement, when Roe is STILL in place, heretics! 'You made that,' to quote your favorite president Chump blames for all his many failures.

Does anyone in America SEE that that ilk of minister called 45 a baby Christian, when 45 said he was a Christian? 'Baby' means he was too morally immature/unfit for them to agree with his own assessment of himself! Then they changed it to Cyrus (a non-Christian). They've run through David, Nehemiah, Savior and anointed!

The inconsistency is the EXACT satanic lack of core as Sekulow saying zero quid pro quo, then saying even if there is, it is not impeachable. These people are all in the exact same clique of Christian activist circle! They socially interact, by technology, if not in person!

They concocted the Christian Cabal to overturn Roe! NO moral rules would dissuade them in that aim! Sin-to-win! Roe is still the law.

They don't even have the intelligence to foresee gut punches, coat hangers and quack doctors! Some of them oppose all contraception. They seem to have a sex fixation, and only believe it to be for having children (contrary to I Cor. 7:5, etc.).

They even oppose Plan B before three days post-insemination. They want you abstaining from all sex, unless to have kids, even though about 50 percent of all abortions are had by claiming Christian mothers/females!

Never address that hypocrisy! Just rile up GOP votes! POWER is idolized over God, to undo Roe in ways that are unworkable, even as their amicus brief claimed Roe is "unworkable."

They have ZERO proposals on how to lessen abortions, except by state-wide bans, because they can't think, folks! Lie detectors could tell us all if power is a higher priority for them, than wanting Roe ended! And if it weren't, some red states would keep those absolute bans, even for the three exceptions.

My point is that the divisiveness, hostility and even violence America has experience the past four years can be directly traced back to one man, who failed to trust God, but leaned on his own understanding, and political scheming, and he brought you Chump! One minister of a mega church. Do you know who he is?

You are the man! (II Sam. 12:7) I will refrain from naming him, for no good reason but that I've rebuked him enough, elsewhere, but it is YOUR job to un-do the massive damage YOU alone have done to America and Christendom, sir! One single, solitary pastor, who knows who he is! Fix your problem, or lie in the bed YOU made!

(2/20/22-2)

#CancelCulture NEEDS to comprehend iteration! THESE options for punishment EXIST (NO rush to judgment!):

1. Verbal reprimand
2. Work censure/write-up(s)
3. Temporary suspension with pay
4. Suspension without pay
5. Demotion
6. Probation

DIVIDED STATES OF AMERICA?

I've lived here 61 years. I love my country. I want her the UNITED states. Certain factions and foreign governments do not! DON'T let them win! If they do, because they have the numbers, secede, so we keep the union, but add more diversity, a state at a time. States' rights! Again, the BIG six are abortion, taxes and regs, immigration, guns, oil vs. green energy, entitlements, and LGBTQ rights. These are the things which divide! Send all illegals, poor and less educated immigrants to blue nation! Tax as high as you like, for freebies! Regulate blue nation businesses all you want.

Abort like a sport, and let people be whatever sex or gender they want, for as long as they want, till they change again, even through surgery! Make everyone own a battery-powered vehicle, and own a solar panel roof! Grab all guns! I dint care—I wouldn't live there! No more division!

Purple states can vary on what abortions are allowed, or if any immigrants gain access for living there, or any gun regulations. They can be in-between red nation and blue nation, as to laws passed, and SCOTUS nor Congress can force national standards on these six issues! When you visit

You know things will be different! Your gas guzzler might not be allowed in CA, so you rent a green energy car to drive there. In TX, if you 'wanna proselytize homosexuality in churches, businesses or schools, you'll face legal consequences. FAIR to all, and bridging gaps! Three nation secession.

NOW I can sleep more soundly, having gotten that off my chest! The GOP has to start considering their future! IF they 'wanna get rid of all but far right conservatives, decide so, and I'll happily never return, but start a centrist party with HUGE growth potential they'll NEVER have!

And you thought the Tea Party was radical! Just wait until Biden starts forcing taxpayers to fund free healthcare, daycare, college, home down payments and student debt forgiveness! Trumpism started with that group, and it will go on steroids if Joes true to his promises! Secede > war!

EXTREMIST THINK & THE NEED FOR A THIRD PARTY

HERE is conservative think: Nothing can change if we don't have power. Power comes with numbers. ALL defections of any kind lessens our power. And there is NO purpose served in being the party out of power. Therefore nothing matters but power, only hopefully for moral causes!

And unity must be severely enforced at all costs. They do not consider this idolatry or man or party worship, but the way the system was built (blame the system for your sins). Finally, the goal is to always be in power, any way you can achieve that goal. It doesn't matter that you'll lose, some of the time!

What you do then is complain, criticize, make everything sound evil that gets done (spin), and work harder to defeat them the next time. Fighters are revered, as there's no plan to find common ground and peacefully coexist. To heck with political conservative extremists, and lefty ones!

BY THAT ASININE attitude and "value," NO Christian can work in American politics!
READ THAT AGAIN! Check your religion and conscience at the Congressional doors! That means any believers in D.C. are sinning to be there, as conscience HAS to be stifled to stay employed—period!
Debate me on this!

A centrist third party is NEEDED! I have more solutions that either extreme base, and I am calling upon NON-Socialist Dems and non-Trumpian GOP's to start that party in 2024! READ all my writings. NO ONE can compete with common sense! Kick your extreme side to the curb, D and R!

That party will allow diversity, as centrist Dems won't hold same views as centrist GOP's! Far righters are already trying to gen up a Patriot Party of Trumpian conservatism. MANY TIMES I've detailed the sins latent within their theory! I'll NOT bow to habitual, unrepentant sinners!

Socialism or conservatism—THAT is where extremists want to take America! Many Dems and GOP's see how STUPID those results are! Ping pong politics, undoing opponent achievements, every 4-8 years, paying D.C. to achieve nothing long-lasting! I'll destroy evils in D.C., by God's grace!

I will use the power of the people who believe in logic, decency, common sense to destroy the FOOLS who are caustic conservatives and radical Socialists! I personally wish they'd both meet on a battlefield and battle to the death, so only one person remained standing! Both—burn in heck!

Libs want taxpayers funding all government activities; Cons want government engaging no activities, excepting cops and the military. They're fine with private school, we all see little value in politicians, and the rest can be done by private sector. These extremes are destroying America. Brain dead's!

NO Christian can be a political conservative or liberal, 100 percent! And being moderate is making no stand, and taking no position. The answer is common sense principles that never change. Until then, even as a third party or members of D and R, the system is broken, and sin rules the day in America!

7. Firing Fired Suspended

I have said this before: Iterative punishments ONLY apply with iterative behaviors! Serious infractions cause the sliding scale to escalate quickly, for justice to be served!

CANCEL CULTURE

If you don't like imperfect American, leave or change it, but you can't remake it in ways it's not founded for, or erase our history by Illegally trampling statues, and applying today's moral standards on earlier generations. Revisionism.

You cannot hold past generations to today's cultural moray standards! That's revisionist history! Cancel culture wants cartoons, products, American heroes and everything purged of anything not matching their litmus tests! ANATHEMA!

HERE is a TRICK of cancel culture: THEY decide what is racist or sexist or other ist, and negate any other opinions. Seeking to be judge, jury and executioners!

Here's social media politics—any flaw, any sin, any misspeak, any skeleton, any imperfection, any past indiscretion, any failed policy, any wrong word choice, any wrong touch or handshake or pat—it will ALL be used against you by the other side. Unless you're perfect—that's your lot. (3/15/21-2)

Left-leaning Twitterverse is calling cancel culture "accountability." NO! Punishment MUST match the crime, and cancel culture is a rush to the ultimate judgment of anyone or anything the mad mob doesn't like! FALSE labeling, from ignorance and inability to distinguish. DUMB as expected. (4/2/21-2)

(4/5/21-2)

I've NEVER been FOR boycotts, but protesting bad people and entities. Justice demands you target the bad actors, and NOT harm innocents! Businesses are mentally deficient, if they ever get involved in political spats, as half your clients will bug out. Stay neutral, or you are a FOOL! Sometimes, the ONLY way to break through with idiots is to make their own idiocy HURT them, especially financially! Cancel culture is purely a left-started phenomena, but since businesses and employees are INNOCENT, if the left wants to hurt them, GOP must hurt left businesses and jobs!

I am SO proud the GOP stood up to cancel culture, to fight fire with fire! If the left wants to ruin businesses and jobs, the right can do the same asinine thing. Boycotting any business is stupid, but if the left wants to do all the cancelling, WON'T HAPPEN!

It's called giving people a taste of their own medicine, and fighting fire with fire! The left would cancel everything non-left, if the right did no cancelling, to even the score! Wake up.

IMO, GOP's now need to KEEP fighting cancel culture, by boycotts (Coke, MLB, Delta, American Airlines, et al), but add: 1. Fire people identified as Democrat, by social media accounts, for JOB-related cause(S), and 2. END any state-funded social services/freebies.

CHRISTIAN FOREIGN POLICY (vs. Worldly Worldview)

(Unpublished)

Despite claims to the contrary, and boasts that we love our Bibles, Christians OFTEN want and advocate for things God does NOT want us to. A specific example... money, and caring for our fellow brother non-Americans. Please let me explain, in more tedious detail.

(Gen. 4:1-9) Cain asks if he's his brother's keeper, sarcastically. We in America do not, generally, consider other nations our duty to care for, as they rightly should handle their own business! But when a nation is poor, HOW do they ever compete, economically, in a global economy?

The West and G-20 and first world nations ALWAYS have an advantage, and work to keep that benefit! It's the chase for money and the race to have the rich (and their money) be where we are.

Tell me how a tin pot dictator can get some poor African or South American nation thriving? How? It's no wonder so many nations turn to Socialism or Communism, when property rights allow the rich to hoard, legally! HOW are the others to get their hands on money, except to sell their souls to slaver master-like bosses who pay peanuts, and get wealthier off their backs?

It's ONLY through government or survivalist skills that the masses can survive, as businesses only need so many employees!

At a minimum, every government must ensure that every citizen has clothes, food and water. Preferably a place to lay their head (i.e., shelter), though even Jesus didn't own that. Government lands MUST be made to farm the most efficiently and effectively, to have enough crops for the citizenry! Train them all in survivalist skills, to endure and survive.

If a nation hasn't many natural resources, their land or clout as a U.N. Vote or people, once educated as workers for others, are their ONLY assets for world economics. And if families can't afford their kids to get educated, as they need them working the fields, they'll never be employable elsewhere, for better wages, or get the education required in a modern world, where every nation is competing, which means third world nations are in competition with the first world, though they aren't able to compete well.

This is where aid, charity and the U.N. Comes in. Remember I started accusing Christians of NOT believing their own claimed favorite book? The Good Samaritan parable was spoken in response to the question, 'who is my neighbor?' (Lk. 10:25-37) If Christians READ the story, the foreigner cared for a man NOT from his country of origin, while the man's own countrymen left him to rot. The lesson in both those BIBLE passages is that humanity is in charge of humanity!

I was just on the road with a kid primping his hair, as his dad's topless Corvette let the wind blow it. The arrogance of the kid was evident on his face that 'we're rich.' America idolized the rich! There was a TV show on recently about how to retire early, and a Christian radio program spoke of 20 hours of DVR Kardashians show.

Americans consider the rich successful and heroes, and the thing to aspire to. GOD DOES NOT TEACH THIS, Christians! WASPs have devised sin-justifying one-liners, like 'money is neutral.'

Money is neutral, but quantity is NOT! God says the rich are to be generous, and to whom much is given, much is required. These are NOT verses you'll often hear preached in WASP churches, and WASPs are generally GOP, which presently is conservative, which generally idolizes money, and sin-justifies our selfishness by stereotyping all poor people as lazy.

We hide our 1040's by privacy laws, so no one can distinguish the good from the bad rich person! Your BMW may be because you are selfish, or as a perk for a generous person—no one knows!

Same with poor people... there are good and bad ones; lazy vs. hard-working. Who can know? Government ought never help a lazy person, but we all are to have mercy on the hard-working ones. News flash: NOT everyone can be anything they want! Conservatives say equal opportunity, but fight equal results, meaning they benefit from others being paid less than they should, and having less opportunities, by shipping out jobs and importing labor.

They fight the minimum wage, and want to end the estate tax. It's ALL about selfishness, greed and hoarding—all sins God condemns. But if we can shame the aborter, and embarrass the gays, we can get sheeple Christians to vote to sustain these wicked priorities!

So how do third world nations become second world? Politicians who ensure every citizen gets the basics I described. Rich people are taxed to pay for such, and everyone has to have a job, or do civic service to their nation, for that guaranteed minimum.

Investment is not prudent if payoffs are not likely, so how they'll ever get electricity or clean water is up to charities, churches, the U.N. And foreign aid. What some call 'banana republics' (a deserved term only if they're lazy) have land to let other nations use strategically, for military or economics. Even terrorists take advantage of it, sometimes.

They can also band together with other weaker nations to have more clout at the U.N., and they could be allies of either the U.S.-E.U., or Russia-China-Iran (BRIC). It's in the West's interests to make as many of these nations be on our side, not our opponents' side, via aid, and using their land strategically, at a monetary cost!

If most of Africa, or nations south of the TX border united, and sided with BRIC and Communism, the U.S. And E.U. Would have a BIG problem on our hands! We need MORE unity, and expansion of NATO nations, and the G-20 needs to use more of its money, strategically, to get benefit from our foreign aid.

In short, poor nations have little chance to modernize soon! It's time for Americans to see many of our luxuries as a direct and deliberate choice to let others suffer! You don't think like this, because you don't know the Bible! Your Corvette could have been a Toyota, and the difference donated to help people stay alive. But U.S. Culture does NOT teach this—only extreme liberals!

We Americans view the goal of life as being as rich as humanly possible, and retiring as soon as humanly possible. We are, in a word, selfish. You'll hate me for saying so, or call me anti-American, but your ire is rightly against the God of the universe who I've just shows supports these ideas you oppose.

It's NOT the middle class or poor who spend on many luxuries! It's the rich, and I'm NOT against people getting rich! I'm opposed to the selfish rich, which you can only decipher by looking at their taxes' charitable amounts, compared to net worth! But keep that secret so the guilty go unshamed!

America should NEVER elevate rich people just because they have money! It's how they got and use it, just like we should never consider every poor person lazy, or deserving mercy. It ALL depends on how hard-working they are, and how smart they are with how they spend what little they have!

There are distinctions we must make between good and bad poor and rich. READ the book of Proverbs. God has clear categories for the poor and rich as good or evil. We in America do NOT make godly distinctions, as God does, but lump all people into a group. Start demanding more accuracy, and do your part/fair share!

P.S.: God already wrote about the sin of pride tightly linked with wealth and sexual prowess of man whores! (I Jn. 2:15-17) And if Christians want to know where God said the rich are to be generous, and more is required of them, sermons won't likely tell you, but it's I Tim. 6:17-19 and Lk. 12:48.

Every American is trying to get a nest egg big enough to retire. Taxes slow down that achievement, so we want them as low as possible. Church tithes do too, as with charitable gifts. The entire U.S. System is geared toward every man for himself survivalism, with NO concern for others' pursuit of the same... hyper individualism. That's NOT what God teaches!

So PLEASE never bring your religion into politics if you're 'gonna cherry pick, or warp it to support unbiblical values! God does not approve, nor do any Americans who see through the selective passage picking by many Christians in America! READ MORE BIBLE; engage less sin and hypocrisy, Christians!

And I know this political bunch SO well, today's message will label me a 'liberal!' I am NOT! I'm a centrist with many conservative values. I simply know the Bible much better than that bunch, and know even many pastors have never sat down and tried to see what God's word really teaches in its entirety.

God's word does NOT list only two sins—abortion and homosexuality (Jer. 1:5/Ex. 20:13; Levit. 18:22)! It also does NOT teach go to church and tithe, and you're a good Christian (Heb. 10:25, Mal 3:10) as the only other two verses. That's a VERY small Bible we consult! (Rev. 22:18-19; Deut. 4:2, 12:32; Ac. 20:27)

LOOK at Christ's concern (Mt. 25). It was NOT the people who have it all! It was the strugglers (so long as they weren't lazy; II Th. 3:10). LOOK at the Jews' concern for the same, in the Old Testament—God's chosen nation, to be a light/role model to the world. LOOK at Gal. 6:2, 5, or Jas. 1:27, or Ac. 2, 4, and II Cor. 8, though voluntary caring. Caring for others is obeying Phil. 2! Political conservatism shares NONE of these concerns, though it tacks on Jesus' name to moralize a corrupt philosophy!

LOOK what God says about even such an attempt: Isa. 5:20. Christians need to know their Bible better than their political theories! They DON'T!

And many WASPs claim Dems rely on government vs. God! I just proved political conservatives rely on money more than God (Pv. 11:28), and use politics to enforce un-God-like values, claiming they're trusting God, unlike the evil liberals who trust government as their "god." Hypocrisy sin exposed (Eph. 5:11). Read more Bible, people

Though you may never see this, people of North Korea, the info needs to get to you! I had a dream that our van erringly crossed into North Korea, and when we tried to turn around, several of our passengers were detained.

During processing, any product that made us individualistic or unique was confiscated, and half our crew was forcibly captured, by fear of mild electrocution from devices on the floor.

Such sleeping nightmares are of no value, but addressing the nightmare which is daily life in North Korea (unless you're an elite) IS of great value!

Your government should not just favor those elites and the military! NONE of you should barely survive, or starve! Labor camps are archaic/primitive, and excessively abusive, as are the many kangaroo courts which convict them to be banished there!

You are cut off from the rest of the universe, and even family members in South Korea. This is not right, or even normal! You are the only nation which has so little internet connection, of who blacks out at night, having so little lights and electricity!

Your 'supreme leader' is only another human, like yourself, and is neither supreme nor any sort of 'god' to be worshipped! In fact, he is a brutal dictator, and you are as likely praising him at public rallies from fear as from sincere adoration!

You aren't even free to tell the truth, or speak your mind, if it differs from what some obese politician and his cronies demand!

And your state-run television does NOT seek to inform you of facts, but they want you to think and believe the way things are portrayed by those same self-serving politicians! It's called propaganda, not news.

What nation in the modern world forces its citizens to look so similar, in both their clothing or only having four make choices for haircuts that mirror the horrible one of your so-called 'leader?'

And those military parades probably are meant to scare off any internal opposition, as much as to try to exhibit strength to the outside world. You have NO say in who runs your country, AS IF genetics favor only one family for such duties! That's a very self-serving system, and you are the dupes for tolerating it!

BUT, you have no access to weaponry, and power in numbers doesn't work to overthrow bad people when weapons are aimed against you!

In short, you are not free, bust slaves to a tyrant! He wants you to believe you're living in Utopia, but every other human living on earth knows you are living in the least free land, and under the most repressive regime human experience! You have not been told this, as you are regularly lied to!

Your first step at ending this nightmare is to wake up to the fact that it is not a dream, as you are being told, but you are living in a Hell hole, and the God of Heaven sees your dilemma, and does not want you to be living that way!

ALL free nations (yes, they exist) want your release from captivity! ALL Western and NATO members feel for your plight, and want it to end. You may never have been told we exist, but everyone else on earth knows we do!

And finally, America is not at war with you. Your military conflict with us ended nearly seven decades ago! Your deluded 'leader' uses us as scapegoat boogie men to make you think your plight is caused by his need to spend your resources opposing us. That is a myth and a lie.

YES, we do want that idiot gone, but we have zero ill-will toward you, the people, and even your distant relatives in South Korea want reunification—you both deserve it.

I am not recommending ways to achieve this (as I have, elsewhere), but just know you are not living in Paradise, and every other human on earth (of which there are more than seven billion) wants a much better life for you, before you die!

DICTATORS: THE WEST VS. COMMUNISM

If a nation, or nations, wanted to take on America, they wouldn't usually directly attack. They'd try to weaken her, by dividing their people, and hacking vs. attacking infrastructure, or allying economic power. BRICs doing EXACTLY these things! WAKE UP to the Cold War you're already in!

America needs the technology to disable, deflect or destroy EVERY armament ever waged against us. With this power, peace can be maintained. I can only HOPE many such devices are being secretly developed by our U.S. Government! if not, that's incompetence among "leadership!"

Let's think through how evil governments strategize their opposition to America:

1. Weaken the UN, by voting power and alliances with the voting power of leadership—irrelevant nations
2. Attack America far away from America, so our military have to travel to respond
3. Use social media to cause social divisions in America
4. Hack U.S. Institutions, and attack places like U.S. Embassies and the USS Kohl (venues away from the homeland)
5. Get spies in America, and steal business trade secrets, and college expertise to take back to their nation
6. Gather allies VS America, including economic and military
7. Arm the enemies of America's friends, like Terrorists, and Israel-haters
8. Try to weaken NATO, and bolster the former USSA, and China
9. Seek celestial dominance, through satellites and stealth moon and mars missions
10. Manipulate markets and currency valuation
11. End dollar as global reserve currency
12. Cease funding U.S. Debt (China), and call in your investment in her
13. Develop technology to have the most advanced armies
14. Use U.S. Laws against them, like immigration laws
15. Slander America to other nations (demoralize her), etc. #ColdWar already going on!

Do YOU KNOW how NATO and the America could defeat Communism? Show them an attractive democracy society, and force their subject to learn how life can be, if you break the shackles of dictatorial totalitarianism. DON'T require them to emulate our U.S. Model, as it has problems, as well!

Physical violence would be required for citizens in in Korea, Russia and China to throw off their oppressive regimes. Those same nations don't have to engage physical violence, to harm America, as they're already seeking to do so in ways I just detailed, nonviolently! Fight fire with fire

MILITARY CONFLICTS & INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

(6/24/21-2)

Rome fell/collapsed from within. Even if our divisions weaken us, and encourage our enemies, America won't fall from within, as wed either have a civil war, or better, secede. Red and purple states would NEVER let her die, or lose her influence!

With mutually-assured destruction through nukes, enemy nations seek to destroy America by lesser means, like social division and economic collapse, by Yuan as global reserve currency, Socialism in America, etc. Their goals the same as if at war; just wise enough to not directly attack us BIGly!

Arms and ammunition manufactures or storage facilities. Public memorials or statues. Destroying these hurt the U.S. Psyche. you must out-think terrorists, and #KillAllterrorists Keep 'em so occupied with your attacks they can't plan to harm us here (George Bush strategy). Mini-nuke 'em, perhaps!

Google search of news articles says Saudis don't have nukes. Iran's NOT supposed to. You KNOW DON'T trust them and bomb their nuke facilities anytime are satellites detect any movement to build them! #Iran <http://msnbc.com/msnbc/iran-foreign-minister-javad-zarif-snap-back-clause-goes-both-ways...>

North Korea/Venezuela/Russia/Iran/Cuba: CAN'T you join the family of nations and live sensibly with sane leadership (or defeat them)? Come join the fam! (1/11/15)

National sovereignty does NOT apply when you house or encourage terrorists, Syria and Iran! Well hunt 'em down wherever they hide! -The UNITED world (2/9/15)

You TRULY believe Iran would ever in their hearts and internal leadership abandon plans to harm Israel? THAT's naive. They've stated their roadmap! (2/12/15)

Some in #Iran governance will NEVER abandon desires to wipe Israel off the map. Vigilance needed to always track secret ops with that aim. #Israel (2/14/15)

E.U. heads of state need to wake up to forget past histories and unite VS ISIS, terrorists, Iran with nukes, Russian aggression, North Korea and Syria! (2/18/15)

Operation Gideon if Iran allowed nukes anytime! Preemptive strikes NEEDED to save your country—apple of God's eye <http://bbc.in/1MTZprZ> @netanyahu. As I emailed you three years ago. If enriching uranium, bomb facilities and track EVERY new attempt! Don't be a wimp but SAFE. #Iran #Peace! (2/26/15)

Iran leadership uses good cop/bad cop to sound pious while pursuing evil. The U.S. or Israel bombing Iran nuke facilities is NOT evil "invasion!" (3/3/15)

Iran nuke facilities? The MOMENT it turns militarized do a surgical strike with eight hour notice so all humans can vacate. Common Sense, and tell the U.N.! (8/8/15)

Do I believe Iran lied in following Iran no nuke pursuit deal? YES. Proper response? If serious enough, sanctions, or even taking out facilities used in that process. I HOPE E.U. nations retain the deal, and the U.N. inspects all suspect venues to ensure no further violations. (5/11/18)

I have ALWAYS said if Iran develops the capability to aim nukes at Israel, U.S. Has to take out those capabilities before they are used! LOOK how lo-o-o-ong I've said that (next retweets). Note the dates! I'm no Johnny-come-lately on that position!

Do you know what would be AMAZING tech to free oppressed people? If Russia, in Korea or China ever started a war, NATO capability to only kill politicians, generals and the military—NO civilians! Targeted specificity. Hardliners wouldn't be impressed, but many would see their escape!

IF North Korea or terrorists launched missiles into South Korea, or Israel, respectively, overwhelming retaliation would be necessitated! NATO needs satellite knowledge of exactly where these get launched from, and the tech to destroy the launchers as soon as any missiles are sent forth!

What would stop tanks rolling into a NATO nation? Bombs, hacking their engines to break, mini missiles to derail their wheel tracks, lasers that melted or disintegrated 'em or their engines, anything to gum up their movement—shot from afar by smart weapons! Develop these presently!

Putin invaded Ukraine, when the world was DISTRACTED by the Olympics (if I recall, correctly). NATO, her allies, and all free nations, or those opposing evil regimes MUST unite to NEVER let ANYONE invade another nation, and be successful! Pay your fair share, but NEVER lose any ally!

Hitler literally took tanks and troops across borders, under threat of surrender or die. NO NATO allied nation should EVER again run that risk! Immediate resistance and superior fire power must be on call for INSTANT response to defeat any such invaders in our mutual futures! Use tech!

Speed of troop movement sometimes wins wars. Best strategy, as well. In one of the World Wars, a 2-flanked front was instituted to weaken Hitler, and one time a FAKE military build-up was used to make him defend against a non-existent threat, to be weaker where the allies attacked. WISE

Hum-Vs were partly defeated by IEDs. Stealth's may never have been shot down. That's tech giving America an advantage! Tanks, often bombed off their tracks. America needs sky superiority/dominance, and satellite surveillance intel superiority in any war! Knowledge, skies, and weaponry mastery!

In wars, people need food and temp lodging, and bathrooms, often on the move. They need safety/protection, much ammo, backup support, accurate intel, masses of warriors (usually), and the best tech and weapons! I want lite weight gun and bomb-proof military uniforms, and head protection!

Jan six showed the world a group large enough to have broken into our Capital COULDVE takes D.C. pols hostage or killed them, thus creating a governmental coup. If more than one had been risking being killed, I'm not sure all politicians could have safely bunkered up. Democracy's fragile—PROTECT IT

Weather is always a factor in military operations! Some groups gather for religious purposes. Santa Anna was defeated, surrounded as his men slept. Element of surprise, and wise military strategy. There are no rules, but to win, and never start it! They're seeking your death! Always win

Afghanistan taught us guerilla warfare is a strategy U.S. Has to develop the capability of defeating, MUCH sooner! Enemies dressed as civilians, underground tunnels, random attacks, terrorizing communities to not give intel to America, using their own terrain against us, knowing it better. control of their politicians so government works for the people.

The people have the numbers, and in numbers, can overtake any military, if needed, by sheer physical presence VS arsenals. D Day proved that. you can't let evil, greedy and selfish people be in charge of your future, as you aren't their #1 concern, though you are to God!

Hiroshima and Nagasaki, which we ALL never want to see repeated, though IMperfect analogies, do teach that if you decisively overpower an attacking enemy, you can save more lives than if you hadn't. Deterrence is REAL, even with Hitler, who committed suicide, to avoid being killed.

Enemy military generals and the smartest leaders orchestrating battle plans have to be able to be tracked, even down deep in cave bunkers, by new tech U.S. Better be developing with black budgets! I know a guy who designed a tool to ID pools of oil well under the earth. IT CAN BE DONE

Militaries get demoralized, or change strategies with significant defeats, or strategic interventions to earlier planned attacks. ANYtime America is at war, we must do BOTH these things, simultaneously! We must never initiate a war, but always win when attacked. And convincingly! DETER

When you are at war, the goal is to kill people and break things. U.S. Needs weaponry and tech that can break all serious offensive weapons of any enemy, and disable food supplies, intel, command and control, logistics/gasoline, and communications. We BETTER be pursuing these advances NOW!

Suicide bombers need to be able to be identified before they're 100 yards of any U.S. Military personnel. Same with oncoming vehicles packed with explosives. I am no scientist, but I know an inventor whose tool can ID any WMD entering the port of Houston. I'm SURE we can design these

Enemy snipers need to be identifiable from afar, using drones and radar or heat signals from bodies. America needs smart missiles, that Hansel and Gretel bread crumb their way back to the source of enemy fire. See through walls tech would find them hiding secretly/stealthily. #Innovation Poke the bear enemies attack small, remote, as hi profile as possible U.S. Targets. Masses always pose a threat, so U.S. Needs tech that can wipe out huge armies in one setting, like sucking oxygen out of area, or programmed bombs to hit 'em ALL. Human shields should be able to be avoided

Robots can be blown up. Drones that are fast, and programmed to avoid missiles and gun shots, should be America's next great military investment! Big enough to be lethal, and even small ones (the size of grasshoppers) should be fatal, with lasers, chemicals, or Kamikaze run into targets

In fighting the poke the bear types, you MUST have drones with stealth radar-deflection capability, that kill specific people, or can target several at once. Send a swarm of them, to defeat terrorists, and chase them down! They and robots need to be our next generation of weaponry!

Update: International Relations

(6/21/21-2)

HOW is America going to lead the world when we don't lead with moral authority? Enemy nations WIN when we are divided, hate, argue over race, allow injustice, flaunt sex and money worship, etc. Revival is desperately needed for our nation! II Chron. 7:14 Starts with the Church!

IF one, or several allied good nation kept a lid on the world's evils, knowing full well they needed to do the same for themselves, the world could be properly managed to not spin out of control with all the hate, violence, injustice and even wars we so often see now.

IF America "secretly" developed the tech to dominate all areas of war (land, sea, sky, space, underground and under water), that is the BIG STICK that deters any major (vs minor poking the bear skirmishes) warfare! If anyone has better stuff, and they initiate attack...WEAK position!

Someone needs to have Putin list his top five complains about America! they WON'T all be valid, and he needs to be on a polygraph while so listing. I'd LOVE to know this list! Can he envision how we could cease being enemies, and maybe even work together? Describe that scenario!

AFGHANISTAN

(7/5/21-2)

IF I had a son in the military, I would NOT want them in an engagement that didn't directly negatively affect U.S. Interests! That's why I have called for a global fighting force, so wrongs get fixed, with equal sacrifice of life, limb and lucre!

U.S. Policy toward Afghanistan is exactly like a male helping a stranded female fix a flat tire in a gang-infested neighborhood, then leaving the car on the jack, before lowering it and tightening the nuts!

It's the HEIGHT of selfishness and/or arrogance, to start military incursions, then decide an arbitrary calendar date is when we will save our skin, and abandon people we treated as allies! If you had won, we wouldn't be having these conversations! Enemy wasn't annihilated, as 45 said!

CHUMP also wanted all U.S. Troops removed from Afghanistan! Bad idea of his, and of Biden/Harris! Our military needed a break, but had to stay much longer, IF any stable government might develop, with military capacity! WE ABANDONED the Afghanistan people! ALWAYS needed some presence

WHO in their right mind would think the Middle East could retain any stability our U.S. Military brought, when we are extracted? @JoeBiden @KamalaHarris Historically volatile. Many tribal/cultural rivalries. Much animosity and unrest. The vacuum YOU TWO left is simply being filled!...

One could LEGITIMATELY ask why any of our great military men and women does in Afghanistan, and for WHAT? The armed forces should NEVER be made to pay the price for poorly thought out war plans! Clear goals, outcomes and exit strategies for victory; or don't ever start!

Someone in the establishment said there was no crystal ball about what would happen in Afghanistan. B.S.! America has had to prop up militaries, as the enemy doesn't fear them, but us. When we leave, they smell blood in the water, as we are the threat. EVERYONE knows this, even Biden!

(8/17/21)

WE invaded THEIR land, for our and their purposes, and now they do not get that which WE said we came there to give them! WE are a primary reason they will now live horrific lives enslaved to archaic thugs we did NOT defeat. Winning?

GLOBAL VISION

Here's what is needed by our world: Every government ensures that every citizen of theirs has enough to survive... shelter, clothes, food, water, and fatal disease prevention or treatment. Third world governments need their economies modernized, and dictators need to share the wealth, to be real leaders of their people!

The third world needs LESS babies birthed, unless families can afford them! They're NOT income earners for a family, enough to make up for their costs. Education and skills training are needed, and can be done for free, if they have electricity for the internet, or by generators; clean water wells dug, and potable/drinkable water separated from sanitation.

Exploit any natural resources in your nation, and see your people as assets to hire out to richer nations, if they specialize in skills they're trained in, for low wages to the third and second world, but higher wages than your people get now.

Train citizens to live off the land, safe to health and the environment, for a minimum subsistence. If government personnel can't or won't do these minimal things, the people MUST secretly organize, then protest, and eventually take over, if needed, trying to get military on your side, but if not, sacrifices will be required (i.e., martyrs). You have the numbers! Make your government work for you! Get good politicians and laws! Change your reality/experience/existence.

Dictators have these SAME needs for their people, and the people have this same need to rid themselves of selfish, greedy bums in charge, any way possible, including martyrdom, by some. If tyrants will do good by their people, as just described, they can stay in power. If not, they've got to be deposed by the people!

G-20, NATO, The West, the U.N. And other wealthier nations can help, if economic ties can be reasonably expected, as a result, but charity only goes so far! Their investments must be worthwhile for them—NOT just you. You're desperate for their aid! Find win-win for all sides, or you will remain broke and hurting!

Nations NEED to change cultural traditions of valuing 'strong men' that are EVIL to their people! It's sinful for those closest to such thugs to support them, because you get payout/payoff. If you're in government, you MUST think about the people, as you are God's representatives! Putting yourself first is a sin! Rule righteously.

(I Tim. 6:8) At a minimum, all citizens need food, water and clothes! A place to sleep is important (cave, grass hut; whatever's minimally protective), and medical care enough to prevent them prematurely dying from disease, especially from the preventable types. This is ALL governments' minimum success standard! Nothing less!

Advanced aspirations would be electricity, roads, cops, laws, courts, electricity, clean water, schools, sewer systems and hospitals. You take progress one step at a time. Businesses begin as a primitive area matures, if the people want that.

Nations like North Korea, Iran, Russia and others NEED to get control of their politicians, so government works for the people. The people have the numbers, and larger numbers can overtake any military, if needed, by sheer physical presence against weapons arsenals. D Day proved that.

You can't let evil, greedy and selfish people be in charge of your future, as you aren't their number one concern, though you are to God!

If your life's going O.K. Under such bums, you're not 'gonna join into an overthrow! It's those whose lives are so negative they'll risk life and limb for a better future for their future family members, if not themselves. Governments MUST care that everyone does O.K.—not just some! The non-elites WILL rebel, being ignored!

The poor have no power, maybe no weapons, maybe no votes, but they have numbers. South Africa shows numbers can achieve things, though taking others' things isn't the right way to rebel! Many people will never give up any good thing they enjoy, so you have to have government behave rightly for all the citizens!

Poor people NEED to realize most of them may NEVER get rich. That's O.K.! They don't all have to even enter the middle class. If no one severely suffers, or dies or goes bankrupt from inability to receive medical care, that's a MINIMUM success standard for any and all governments. Demand that, poor people!

This MAY sound like I put oweness on government to care for the poor. I do NOT. But in nations where resources and opportunities are tightly restricted by evil politicians, I AM blaming those type governments! When ALL people are free to pursue life the way they see fit, to earn a living, government has succeeded!

Where elites control opportunities, they MUST change, or be ousted! #RegimeChange The least among you is the determinant of how successful your entire nation is! How poor and struggling is the least, absent physical or mental disabilities! North Korea is Exhibit A in how NOT to run a government!

I am for ALL labor camps being freed and broken up, and any remaining Gulags anywhere. NO slavery anywhere! No forced prostitution. No theft. No initiating wars. No land grabs from other nations. No murdering, extortion, abductions, rapes, genocide, jailing people who speak negative of government, hoarding by politicians of their nations' resources, bribery, lying politicians, tax evasion, wife beating, incest, child abuse, inhumane sweat shops, robberies, bank hold-ups, terrorism, inciting to violence, indoctrinating kids to hate others (like Jews), treating women or gays as second-class citizens, refusing to let females be educated, own assets, work, drive, or be treated as equals with males, no cutting off wrists for stealing, or stoning gays for homosexual sex, no torture, harems/polygamy, bestiality, and other sins that destroy the fabric of nations' civilized cultures.

Rogue nations' politicians need to repent! WHY should ANY nation's "leader" have all the power, or control most resources, or be exorbitantly rich, when his/her rulership is allowing severe poverty to continue? You OWE your nation, before God, to dispose of MUCH of your assets, to help others you are ignoring, and letting suffer! Ex.: Putin/Un!

Female mutilation is EVIL, and MUST stop! At least minimal human rights MUST exist in ALL nations. This is NOT pushing Americanism on anyone, but God's morality. If your claimed "religion" opposes that, it's not worth of that name! God is for good, though you may not be! Do good, seek justice and peace!

And Iran's religious leaders MUST repent of trying to impose any deeds on the people that are immoral or evil, even if they interpret any holy book as requiring that! The standard I've detailed for ALL nations applies to you, too, no matter if your politicians let you avoid doing so. You must repent, too!

To say 'my wealth is personal property, so poor people aren't poor because of me,' depends on HOW you got your money! Even if morally, you have a moral obligation to be generous with your excess! (I Tim. 6:17-19) Selfish greedy hoarding is RIGHTLY opposed by others, as there's only so much money to go around, selfish ones.

A judgment/punishment is coming to our world, even if some politicians have zero belief in such, or in any religious claims. Evil politicians will be God's first target, and evil rich people! You have the power to enrich everyone's lives. When you don't, you fatten yourself up for a day of harvest/reckoning/accountability! (Jas. 5:5) Many of you are going to Hell. (Jn. 3:16)

And whether anyone's going to Heaven or Hell, in this life THIS is what God requires of your lifestyle: Mic. 6:8. God is for justice. People who aren't are evil! It's unrighteous to allow severe poverty to continue, when it's in your power to change, especially if you have way more than you'd ever need! Do right!

GLOBAL VISION SPECIFICS

(5/8/19)

Imaginary primitive or poor nations (which exist in reality) NEED food, water and clothes. Next, shelter and vaccines/medicines to prevent preventable fatal diseases. Next, clean water and sanitation; education, jobs, electricity and roads, thereafter.

HOW do they get these IF they want them (some tribes may want nothing but leaf clothes, and 'leaf' us alone!)? It ALL takes money. IF and only IF the goal is self-sustaining, their government and rich people (via taxes) are initial places, and money from renting land, or people used as labor to foreign states, or sell natural resources.

The U.N., G-20 foreign aid, major charities, churches and Giving Pledge donors like Bill Gates' Foundation. Businesses have excess, as with rich folk, and some governments could give more, but for many of these, there has to be a payoff. Maybe not quid pro quo, but not just forking out cash!

Literally, the clothes NYC and America throws out every day would clothe entire nations! A recent report said landfills are filling fast from instant fashion trend (temporary fads quickly replaced by spending FOOLS, in my opinion). Send leftovers to third worlders! If America has enough, spread the blessings! CARE about others! We never believe we have enough! (Ecc. 6:7)

The amount of food America wastes, at home and at restaurants could feed entire nations, until they could self-sustainingly farm! NOT food people have touched, but limiting portions, like endless chips you don't finish, at Tex-Mex.

Immediately, education on farming best practices and efficiency technology is needed. Money, once again! Water wells dug, and water cleaning technologies for diseased or polluted oceans and waterways.

Holes dug outside towns for underground outhouse depositories. Shelters made of the cheapest materials, like leaves and tree wood, or even abandoned cargo containers, like things U.S. Throws out!

Adopt-a-nation! Start small, and make a role model state to teach/show other G-20 nations. Lead! Battery- or generator-powered internet (or old books we throw out) could educate kids, for free, at night, as they learn more efficient farming, to make day jobs take less time and energy.

The Jesus video was taken to almost all venues, by film projectors with no electricity! The same could occur to teach kids basic education and job skills, so they can hire on with second world nations.

The products America puts in landfills could be recycled for them (and ocean plastics), as with our thrown out vehicles and bikes! DFW threw out many scooters that didn't comply with local laws! Bikes are basic transport that would transform a nation.

Plastic and cardboard in U.S. Landfills could make huts, with duct tape! Strengthen that with mud or tree branches, etc. Rick Warren can teach you on tracts of farm land! Solutions exist! WILL WE act?

RATHER than call these countries "shish-hole nations," HELP! We're the richest, most advanced nation on the earth! If WE can't (better, won't), no one can (better, will)! No one else is as blessed as us/U.S.! <https://financesonline.com/a-list-of-third-world-countries-10-poorest-nations-with-rising-economies/>

Chump's claimed wealth excess could fund MUCH of this, as penance for using that slanderous term! Whatever Chump's wealth is, he's proof money doesn't buy class, and money isn't success, by God's standards. IF he ever makes it to Heaven, he'll be one of the poorest persons there, forever, as he carnally brags of his wealth, EXACTLY like the evil rich God condemns in Scripture. Fake "baby Christian."

GLOBAL RIGHTS

Let's talk about tearing down evil regimes—China, Russia, North Korea, Iran, et al. Human being citizens MUST be educated more to envision what freedom from oppression looks like, and would be like in their own lives! North Koreans NEED to learn that humans live like that, today, in other parts of the world.

No one should fear their government will cut off their hand if they steal, which no one should do. No one should fear their government will mutilate women's sexuality, or allow men to treat them as second class, or property! No one should be killed by their government, or others, because they're gay.

No one should be jailed because they voice disagreement with their government. No one should be forced into labor camps, because they're perceived as academic or moral threats to an evil regime! Secret police, narking on their neighbors, are evil! You're only a human—you are not any better than anyone else. Be moral, vs. a tyrant's dupe!

You should be able to practice any religion in any nation on earth, and own property, marry whoever YOU so choose (not forced marriages, especially of under-aged girls), there should be NO human trafficking... people are not products. May every slave trader be caught and jailed for life, if not killed!

You should be able to hang around anyone you want, unless you're planning criminal activity. If your government accuses you of a crime, you should be provided a free lawyer, given due process and your day in court, a fair trial, the right to not incriminate yourself, the right to face your accuser and be judged by a jury of your peers, and any punishment must not be too harsh, but should match the crime.

Torture should be ended, as with genocide and ethnic cleansing. Every child should be provided an education by their government! That's the ONLY way in the modern world they have any chance at a decent life. Your government shouldn't be allowed to break into your home without a court-issued warrant, and judges can't be on the take, nor your police force (bribery and corruption) or politicians!

In court, you should be presumed innocent until untampered with/REAL vs. manufactured evidence proves otherwise, and in your home, you have a right to privacy no one should illegally invade. IF this list does NOT describe your state/nation/country, you are being cheated and ripped off in life!

Evil fellow human beings are making these choices about your life! God's not wanting or forcing this suppressed lifestyle on anyone! He wants you FREE. Make it happen; be released (I Cor. 7:23).

Update: Global Poverty

So now to the particulars:

1. Poor people, the world over, NEED to STOP having many if any kids—period! YOU CAN'T AFFORD THEM! They aren't a financial asset, but a fiscal liability (and it's immoral to use them in child labor, to pay YOUR bills)! Your over-populating the world is morally IRresponsible.
2. EVERY person has to set as their ambition to become self-sustaining/sufficient! Adults aren't responsible for other adults not in their nuclear family, or employment!
3. EVERY country needs its plan for helping their own poor stand on their own two feet! It is NOT America's job to fix other nations' poverty problem, just because we're rich! We already do MORE than our fair share!
4. Every nation needs its own safety net. They can individually decide how large it will be. It's NOT the U.N.'s or other countries' business to dictate how large any one nation's safety net is! That's called national sovereignty!
5. JUST LIKE God's people, the Jews, God supports some safety net. Sometimes, temporarily or in exceptional/anomaly cases, people can't handle all that life throws at them. That's why God created credit cards! (just joking) Societies decide what to do in that situation, but evil ones decide to turn a blind eye (i.e., far right ideology).
However, JUSTICE says they repay taxpayers, once they are on their financial feet.

The Pope had a lot to say to criticize America, by innuendo. AMERICA IS THE MORALLY GREATEST IMPERFECT NATION IN THE HISTORY OF MANKIND—PERIOD! The Pope speaks of vaccines for all. Nations' "leaders" (i.e., politicians) are morally responsible for their people.

If countries are poor, and remain impoverished, economically, FIX IT! It's NOT other nations' job to fix, though many will help—TEMPORARILY, like America always has!

Every problem must be temporary, or it's a willful commitment to have the problem continue! And every nation has a VALID self-interest in benefitting from helping poorer nations! China doesn't do so from the goodwill in their heart, alone, but to gain access to resources, ports, allies, etc.! SAME for the America.

Next, you are NOT going to get any business to STOP utilizing the natural resources of this earth! Be fruitful and multiply, and take dominion! They ONLY need to do so responsibly, in ways that don't harm the earth or ruin scenery. The Pope sounds VERY politically liberal in that part of his speech!

Businesses exist to profit, sir! Take a business or economics course, vs. just Latin, which is Latin to me! The NEED is to encourage giving back, ala I Tim. 6:17-19. There is no monopoly on food manufacturing! It's called global competition! If America doesn't keep up, we will be begging China for our daily rations. Again, I suggest a common introductory business or economics course, and READ I Tim. 6:17-19 in God's ONLY source of authority—His INERRANT word, the Bible!

Guns and military weapons KEEP GOOD PEOPLE SAFE, sir (I would NEVER call any mere man "father," Mt. 23:9). It is the evil in the world that guns help keep responsible gun owners from!

It is responsibility that runs through my entire responsive message, be it sex, or arms usage. Hate speech, fake news, conspiracy theories and political manipulation I 100 percent agree with the Pope denouncing!

It doesn't take MUCH money, relatively speaking, to put all school curricula on the Internet, for access to ALL!

LOOK!: https://bestcolleges.com/blog/platforms-for-online-courses/... Khan Academy is EXCELLENT! LOOK (K-12): https://howtohomeschoolforfree.com/full-online-homeschool-curriculum/... But electricity and computers accessible to all poor kids is the gap needing bridging.

Again, WHO is responsible for bridging that gap? Individuals, charities, and each nation's safety net! WHY is it Facebook's (a private company) job? I TOTALLY agree with the Pope's call for the media to stop "the logic of post-truth, disinformation, defamation, slander and the un-healthy attraction to dirt and scandal."

Unilateral sanctions can be needed, as the U.N. Has often been corrupted by minor nations allying to harm national interests of more influential nations! I AGREE that aggression must be stopped, (and America has to be the world's policeman, UNfortunately).

Finally, profit is NOT the problem. Idolatry of money, and zero concern for I Tim. 6:17-19 IS! II Chron. 7:14 IS the answer, but the Pope didn't address that, or God's EDDBS priorities (FULL evangelism, discipling, body life and social ministry), or John 3:16 as the ultimate solution! That's a major and SAD omission!

I'm a Protestant—he's a Catholic. NO MATTER how closely the two groups try to engage politics in America, there will ALWAYS be differences! The ONLY one that matters is are seven sacraments required, or can anyone go to Heaven by trusting Jesus alone—period (John 3:16), and is the Bible alone God's will?

COMMUNIST CHINESE

I learned of a book (title will be given when it's learned) that documents China's strategy to negatively impact America by buying up real estate, and shipping in undercover Communists sympathetic to president Xi, to steal trade secrets, stir up trouble, or vote against our values upon gaining citizenship! Identify and JAIL THEM as insurrectionist traitors!

Immigrants to America: We ALL have been in your shoes, in our heritage! That DOESN'T mean we all share same values! You have zero logical or moral reason to vote for one political party, because you weren't born here, but for the reasons you came here—to find a better life through hard work!

If you live in America, it's because you believe you can make whatever you want of your life, if you work hard, and NOT needing government's help—just their not restricting those ambitions. Anyone else who comes here, or is born here, who believes otherwise is FREE TO LEAVE, and should, including by force! We need no loafers.

If you want Socialism for America, MOVE TO A MORE SOCIALIST COUNTRY! America is NOT number one, historically, because of stealing from hard workers, by force of law, but from productivity, ingenuity and being smart and the first to market. If you aren't that type person, you really don't belong or fit in here, legally or otherwise!

People online write 'eat the rich.' You are jealous (a sin), because you can't do what they've done, and (likely) never will! Unless they stole their wealth, or gained it immorally, be glad they're here vs. somewhere else! America needs the best minds and investors, to regain America's number one status, forever! Beat Chinas butt!

I heard a story of China buying up public works in other nations too poor to repay them, so they retain ownership, and use those projects as platforms to import Commies into other nations, for global strategic advantage, to get a leg up on America and India, wherever they can. #EvilRegime! They MUST be stopped! USA #1!

America has ALWAYS welcomed immigrants with open arms, because they have, until recently, always been the hard-working kind, trying to get ahead by finding better freedom and opportunities here. That is the ONLY type America should ever let in. NOT beggars thinking that the U.S. Owes them anything!

Belief in hard work, working smart, being frugal, investing, property rights, aspiring to be rich are NOT "white values," but AMERICAN values! Proof? There are white nut cases protesting to burn the system down. It is NOT a racial thing, but values thing, and one of those two alternatives is Un-/NON-American!

Liberals have shown their true colors, the past month. They LITERALLY have NO PROBLEM tearing down America, because they do not love her, and aren't emotionally invested in her success! Riots, fires, looting, vandalism and violence have shown even the greatest skeptic what their core is! Remember/never forget!

Other ways China (Cf.: Russia and Iran) can infiltrate America: Listening devices in products we're sold, immigrant spies, bots and monitoring social media, higher education students, workers in U.S. Firms (stealing trade secrets), drone and satellite surveillance, man-made islands for military use.

CAN YOU IMAGINE how many new technological devices and bugs/surveillance/listening devices China will now insert in any structure Americans will occupy, now that the Olympics have been postponed by one year? One more year to prepare for a plethora of information-gathering seeking to destroy America!

Communists WON'T be convinced to accept Democracy! We and NATO MUST thwart their expansion! Their theory SEEMS just and moral, but execution of their theory (and people) has always been totally totalitarian and cruel! Dictatorships benefit the dic-tators and their inner circle, mainly, raping the land and harming the people!

IF America adopts a self number one attitude, EXPECT increased opposition, including militarily, or via terrorism! So long as America uses its great economic and military advantages to help all other peace-loving nations to improve for their people—including economically—no one (to speak of—there are always whack jobs) will oppose us but our enemy nations!

I am FOR "USA #1"; I am AGAINST "USA #1 and solely!" God doesn't bless a nation, to become worldly, selfish or arrogant! "Ugly Americanism" is NOT American Exceptionalism! America is great because we are good! Cease being so, and you cease being great! #MoralsMatter, America!

Enemy nations MOST to be watched, especially as average Joes get distracted by Covid fears/quarantines, and race riots, are Russia, China, Iran, North Korea, and to a lesser extent Cuba and Venezuela, as with any pockets of any nation breeding future terrorists! Our CIA, FBI, HSA and DOD need to monitor them full-time!

Everybody (the world over) has a right to be free! You don't have to live like a refugee. —Tom Petty (RIP) And The Heartbreakers - Refugee (Official Video) <https://youtu.be/fFnOfpJL0M>

WELCOME TO AMERICA, every immigrant willing to work, and not here to harm or destroy America! You made it to the #PromisedLand! <https://youtu.be/y8OtzJtp-EM> via @YouTube Immigrant Song (2007 Remaster)

This warning against China I have been making for many years in many ways! The U.S. Owes NO ONE a handout, even in foreign aid, but from mercy we need to be strategic in our best national interest, knowing "BRIC" is trying to beat us. (12/25/14)

BRIC trying to compete with the U.S. And her trade partners. KICK THEIR B-TT! For the ignos/ignoramuses, that's Brazil, Russia, Iran and China. STOP being so ignorant—U.S.: LEAD! (2/9/15)

BRIC came as economic counterpart to American economic dominance, and a military competitor to NATO is expected by axes of evil nations, and their allies (soon). (4/18/17)

There are two main player groups, internationally—the U.S. And her allies (many E,U, nations, et al) and BRIC (especially Russia, China and Iran). For economics there's a RACE to get South America and Africa on one side or the other, as with U.N. Clout. And with LIMITED national resources, not every nation will get [as much as they want or need]. (1/26/18)

We work separate deals, one nation to another, but limited resources and competition ensure alliances will have rivalries, so the U.S., E.U. (NATO) vs. BRIC and Communists arises. All over limited assets, ineffective global rules or enforcement, failure to agree on rules, and selfishness (a sin, but not if there are no morals, other than what 'I' want). Lying, hacking, deceiving, secret nuclear warhead tests and bribes—all are O.K., because there are no morals, and all advance our national alliances causes, though conflicting with our opponents'. (8/29/18)

[Enemy nations] Russia, Iran, ~China, many Arab nations, Venezuela, Cuba, some African and Central and South American nations. BRIC already exists. I'd push for the dollar NOT being default currency, and beef up all associated militaries. This is EXACTLY what's happening presently! (10/1/18)

One bare-chested dictator have BILLIONS most of which the people are due, cozying up with China (BRIC economic bloc), TRYing to break up or back off NATO, and cause E.U. Nations and especially Germany to splinter some loyalty to alliances with America. Cuba and Venezuela can't be too far from his planned alliances. (12/2/18)

How about government-controlled economies, like price fixing, government-owned businesses, and regulations and taxes out the wazoo. NEED I educate you on how those schemes have usually utterly failed? Liberals tout Sweden and China (i.e., Socialism and Communism). WOULD YOU WANT TO WORK IN CHINA, if you weren't an ex-pat American? (3/8/20)

They [China] are our enemy! We need to diversify manufacturing nations, seeking an exit from red China, ASAP, IMO. China cashes in off coronavirus, selling Spain $467 million in supplies, some of them substandard <https://fxn.ws/2UjV9Np> #FoxNews (3/26/20)

Shark Tank notwithstanding, "Nearly all of the advances in structural and aesthetic innovation is coming from abroad." –Arthur Erickso, The great American business man said it best (RIP), "Out-innovating them is the way to beat China. And to do everything that we do in this country to support innovative policy, that drives innovation and new products and more jobs and creates jobs. –Jack Welch (4/1/20)

Large national debt is a ball and chain on our economy! Some debt is O.K., if not healthy, but NOT a lot. Plus, America is indebted mainly to China, and they can pull the plug, or the world can end the dollar as reserve currency, and the U.S. Economy would crash like a house of cards! ALERT! (5/13/20)

... There are literally people who believe America needs to be defeated, economically—China, Iran, Russia, and anyone who immigrates here, or adopts liberal values to make our democracy liberal, or economy Socialist! Enemies of this United States. (6/4/20)

If you don't like living in America, get the $%# out of here! NO ONE makes you stay! If I lived in China, I'd expect the native Chinese to be more adept at surviving well in their native country! SAME with all people NOT inhabiting another nation they weren't born in! The fundamentals of the U.S.A are good. (6/4/20)

U.S. FOREIGN POLICY

Every nation puts its interests first and foremost, as they should. USA #1 (MY term, well before MAGA), always called on America to lead morally, which would never be isolationism, or bullying other nations, or arrogant ugly Americanism! Chump can't understand BALANCE! Extremism reigns.

To the 'never let a crisis go to waste' crowd, CHINA, RUSSIA and IRAN are out to destroy America, in subtle ways, not all-out war! Wake up! China has us by the gonads, financially. We have to diversify our global supply chain! Ally with every nation win-win is possible with! Power in numbers.

Iran has 12 TIMES the enriched Uranium They're allowed to possess. Israel is directly at risk, folks! Russian leadership is NOT ignoring our division! Putin is not wishing America well, in his heart of hearts! Economic alliances to defeat America and make the dollar fail as reserve currency.

HOW could enemy nations destroy America? Pretend to be friends, gain economic control through loans and dependence upon your labor force for cheap products. Build counter-alliances, initially just economic. Get the dollar ended as world's reserve currency.

Dump product to gain market share (government-funded manufacturing costs), send people to America to steal trade secrets, hack systems and gain America's great college knowledge. Make them act like friends, while they secretly do the emperor's bidding, but only among unidentified ones, so confusion rises as to who's dangerous.

Build economic alliances against U.S. Interests. Build man-made islands for satellites and military use, even space satellite mastery and control shipping lanes by violating international law through physical intimidation. Have Russian jets unsafely encroach U.S. Jets, build up nuke power capacity to quickly convert into bombs.

Gain footholds in Middle East for oil supply control. Use the U.N. To thwart U.S. Actions. Use climate change calls to weaken America, while other players don't suffer that same economic expense. Gen. Up anti-Americanism, and tout it when it's deserved (like 45's arrogance).

Try to split NATO loyalty, and use pay your fair share instructions to seek their allying with you, instead. Use Tik Tok to infiltrate data on enemy citizens. SUBTLE ways to avoid head-on war! China, Russia and Iran. ALL these actions are currently occurring. Is America awake?

America needs to find ways to make poor and moderate economy nations better, at profit of benefit to us. Win-win! NOT one-way charity! They give us labor, or resources, as we modernize them. It has to be good for both sides. If we don't, enemy nations will ally with them for power! Competition

Update: Global Plan

I don't have enough knowledge of The Great Reset, but the world needs a global minimum standard of poverty we will allow no one to fall under. Self-sufficiency must be the goal for everyone not disabled, and we all owe the poor fixes through education and motivation, and voluntary help!

China announced a new trading bloc. I've told @POTUS @realdonaldtrump America must ally economically with every nation willing to do so, as this is a global power grab for power and influence, economically and militarily! Two months to do so!

and they're part of BRIC! An economic alliance trying to counter the US's economic dominance and alliances (Brazil and Iran as partners). LEARN! (12/25/14)

BRIC? I only know of #TaylorSwift WakeUpAmerica! There are alliances seeking to destroy the U.S.-E.U./NATO economically and otherwise (NOT Brazil). (12/25/14)

They manipulate currency, want the U.S. Dollar as second-class currency and are building alliances to economically defeat the E.U. And the U.S. BEAT China, America! (5/22/15)

The U.S. MUST adopt NEW strategy relating to our frenemy China who owns us and hacks our trade secrets OFTEN! BEAT them economically! <http://foxnews.com/.../us-warns-china-not-to-challenge.../> ... (5/22/15)

Chinas pursuing eco alliances with BRIC and anyone else to cut the U.S. Out of our primary global business position, and Russia is dividing America from Europe. That's a PROBLEM! (3/10/17)

I'm ALL for the E.U. Becoming more independent and self-reliant from the U.S. Economy and military might, but we must NEVER let our alliances wane—EVER! #NATO (4/18/17)

#ForeignPolicyTip Always seek to grow alliances UNLESS times of the essence (killing Osama bin Laden) or you'd tip off the enemy thereby. Duh 101. (7/5/16)

People bent on evil aren't often convinced away from it. Is Chump aware of space race, race for land claims in icy regions in the north, man-made islands potentially used for military action, alliances forming with our rival nations, both economic and military, and cyber-attacks as modern warfare? (3/22/18)

IF you see this map, you'll see what I was saying the other day about the only future alliances America can make, to counter Russia, and other nations aligning against us: African continent, Central and South America; Ex.: USSR nations, and reasonable Arab nations:

https://jet.com/product/detail/b9a1ad4f2a7046d4841441d3cc27ab12?jcmp=pla:ggl:nj_roc_gen_home_decor_a2:home_decor_wall_decor_canvas_art_a2:na:PLA_1062503200_52416417552_pla-310531850793_c:na:na:2PLA15&pid=kenshoo_int&c=1062503200&is_retargeting=true&clickid=612d67c0-eba1-4f81-b5b6-6dbb4097768e&gclid=EAIaIQobChMIgra74be02gIVXbnACh2OSg8OEaQYAiABEgLDffD_BwE

... A race for allies. (4/12/18)

alliances will have rivalries, so U.S./E.U./NATO vs. BRIC and Communists arises. All over limited assets, ineffective global rules or enforcement, failure to agree on rules, and selfishness (a sin, but not if there are no morals, other than what I want). Lying, hacking, deceiving, secret... (8/28/18)

...the ugly American is a stereotype you hear about ELSEWHERE—NOT here, much. People resent others thinking they're superior or better, or even God-favored above the rest! I expect more anti-American alliances to rise, unless leaders show restraint and understand Chump is a temporary U.S. Anomaly. (10/1/18)

Ugly American bullying by Chump will lead to increased alliances against our interests, like BRIC, abandoning the dollar as default currency, etc. ALREADY, China, Russia, North Korea, the E.U., and likely Canada and Mexico have just started the resentment phase, which manifests much later! (10/1/18)

With Chumps 'we're America' (arrogant were the BIG dog attitude), MORE nations will seek trade alliances to counter our influence! Were it not for our military, spread out globally, more of those alliances would have already occurred, or more intensely! 45 is alienating even our allies. DUMB! (10/1/18) and medium- and longer-term it incentivizes them to split/part from close alliances with America, just as the E.U. Is doing concerning self-defense! I can't think of one nation closer to America, post-Chump, except Israel! That's success? If so, count me out of it. I hope you haven't fallen asleep. Facts can bore short-term memories. (12/1/18)

Russia is yet another enemy government America plays footsie with! "BRIC" is NOT an acronym many Americans know of, but it is an alliance to oppose the U.S.A. And divide our allies. #WakeUpAmerica! (4/28/19)

Centrists are for fair trade deals, good for America, or NOT entered into, and the more the merrier! Economic alliances bond nations, and with enemies uniting (Russia, China, Iran, et al), we NEED even more NATO members, and G-20 members—NOT less! NO nation is stupid enough to enter a BAD trade deal! (4/30/19)

Why is Russia meddling with America's allies, often over oil, trade routes and deals, as tRump ANGERS our fewer friends? You think it's WISE to go it alone in an increasingly evil world? General Mattis was RIGHT! FOOLISH foreign policy, as with favoring Israel, then hoping for peace you helped make hard to have! (9/4/19)

...and global sentiment toward 'arrogant' bully America will INcrease. More alliances against us, or expanding to have our influence lessen. More independence, opposition, willingness to strike deals with nations previously not considered, both economically and militarily. (10/12/19)

Win-lose loses in the medium- and long-term. Every nation puts its interests first and foremost, as they should. USA #1 (MY term, well before MAGA), always called on U.S.A. To lead morally, which would never be isolationism, or bullying other nations, or arrogant ugly Americanism! Chump can't understand BALANCE! Extremism reigns.

WORLDVIEW: THE STATE OF THE WORLD

China just surpassed America, economically. Russia is seeking to out-do us with military weaponry, with an UNproven prototype jet to out-do ours. They are provoking us in space, shooting down their own equipment, and pushing the envelope on the borders of Ukraine.

North Korea is not just mocking-up technology, but actually proving/testing their missile ranges, capable of carrying nuclear weapons our way. Russia is playing a strong second fiddle to China, united with her, but also competing for influence in the Middle East, and seeking to curry favor in the former EU, through oil influence and access to commerce/trade routes.

China, as well, through shipping lane control, new outposts that can be militarized (man-made islands), space satellites, buying favor with poor African nations for land access if not natural resources.

Iran may be seeming dormant, for now, but rest assured desires to take out Israel never leave their consciousness (and secret planning and plan executions). Covid has allowed many secretive plans to progress, the world distracted! The enemies of America relish in our division! They steal our intellectual property, desire the U.S. dollar to be replaced by the Yuan, as global reserve currency (which would collapse our economy).

China plays the long-term, and has used our Capitalist model to their Communist ends! Now we are their economic b-t-h/slave! ONLY by ruining their investment in us can we retaliate, as we FOOLishly haven't diversified our supply chain. And that has zero to do with skin color, but nations of origin from which we outsource production, since globalization.

Alliances with NATO nations are being sought by America's two largest foes (China and Russia), to further weaken America's prominence. And that's the BIG objective: The weakening if not destruction of America's global power, police power, super power and economic influence, dominance and control of world affairs.

We, on the other hand, have A.D.D., and get distracted from this game/competition/cold war, by such self-destructive FOOLishness as right vs. left, own the opponent, win-lose in our OWN country, Socialism vs. pure Capitalism, lib vs. con debates, which are quickly nearing war or secession!

Race riots are always under the surface tensions, as Dems believe Biden won off the crest of that 2020 summer wave, so expect them soon, to stir up more Dem voters for the midterms. In kind, expect more intransigent Lets Go Brandon types, only wanting that Socialism liberal movement crushed and utterly defeated!

WE are killing our own selves, with short-term blindness to the BIG picture, that a nation divided cannot stand, and our avowed enemies are all too happy to see us rot, even if we bring this demise upon ourselves, with strife and self-ambitions. NO, it does NOT look good, from where I sit, but quite good for our enemies.

And ALL of this plays PERFECTLY into the ever-drawing lures of prophecy trends! Gog arising and asserting itself. The kings of the East on the rise. ALL in direct opposition to one man who will stem from the EU regions, in some form or format.

And where is the Church in all of this? What do we see her doing, amidst all this chaos and prophetic signs of the end times? If ANYONE mouths 'abortion,' in lock step they will follow along in all this self-destructive morass I have just described, which means us vs. them, a house divided, QUICKLY playing into our enemies' longer-term plans for our harm if not end!

ARE YOU being played, and playing right into our own destructive ends, handing over America to China and Russia, for us to become their hand maids? Get your act together, America!

JOHN LENNON'S GOVERNMENT SYSTEMS

(5/4/19)

'Nobody doesn't like Sara Lee,' or the music of John Lennon's 'Imagine.' It's the lyrics that get it in trouble, but the intention is good. Can you imagine a world we humans created that ensured everyone had enough money to survive?

Gandhi said, 'The world has enough for everyone's need, but not enough for everyone's greed.' That statement is blaming rich people for poor people's poverty! The world has limited/finite resources. If they were unlimited, we wouldn't have to have money, or a means of determining ownership, or value for things and work efforts... you just take what you need, like "imagine no possessions" (said by a guy with MANY possessions)!

It's easy to dream of a better world, with no wars over oil, land, ideology ("and no religion, too"), with everyone living in peace, but this great song will NEVER be reality, due to the nature of man (i.e., selfish and sinful), the fallenness of our world, limited resources, and established government systems.

Communism TRIES to create a fairer society, but fails due to power-hungry dictators, and lack of work incentives; Socialism tries to do the same without the tyranny, but ends up hurting hard-workers, unjustly; Capitalism either doesn't care about justice (Ex.: popular phrase, "life's not fair"), or redefines fairness as whatever you can get away with, or the laws don't prohibit you doing (if you obey them).

All three systems of man governing himself FAIL to bring about what's needed: Enough for every citizen to survive, without severe suffering poverty! God said man is to work; those unable to, society must care for. Those able must do so, and any empowering of them not to is evil. Welfare can never do that harm.

There are politicians today advocating for basic minimum income guaranteed to all, even if you don't work. That is evil and stupid. It sounds humane, ensuring people never go without, but it can be abused to people never working, and that's evil, if they're physically or mentally capable! It would be O.K. If that stipulation were in place, and they had to work for it, through civic service!; a guaranteed job with basic minimum money, helping society with needed tasks.

Then there are politicians promising freebies—yet another evil, as nothing in repayment is required. These ilk of politician are using empty pipe dreams to win the votes of the gullible, and that's a sin.

Let's address how all three systems could be fixed. If you had a moral dictator, who ensured basic needs for all were met, and didn't use the police or military to enforce every potential rule to effect his personal desires for the people, but for just and good laws, the idea of a benevolent dictator who didn't siphon off his nation's assets for his or her family isn't a sinful concept, though that much power in one person's hands is not wise. I'm describing a transitional state from demagoguery to more democracy.

Socialism could be improved, and more fair, if people guaranteed healthcare, paid vacations, minimum incomes, etc., had to tokenly repay government for such guarantees, through civic service. It is unjust to the hard-workers and wealthy, to make them fund others not in their family or employ! It's not wrong to ask them to do their part to give back, and pay more in taxes than the rest, who aren't as blessed (Lk. 12:48).

And Capitalism's fixes: Fair wages—period. Equal leverage between worker and ownership, ensured by government. Fair minimum wage, where no one's work effort is less than what minimum wage pays them, or minimum wage so low they deserve better pay.

The rich paying their fair share, which means their tax bracket amount—NO loopholes, and encouraged by societal pressure to give back a decent percent to charity—NOT one percent of income, as is their average, compared to three percent for average Joes.

Poor people should NOT be contributing ZERO to our society and government! That's NOT fair to the rest! Required civic service as a token tax contribution equivalent, especially as partial repayment if they receive freebies, like Welfare, which must be temporary, and only to educate and empower them to be self-sufficient, through better skills, education, motivation, buying practices, and job search capabilities. With churches and charities doing their part, this would right-justified U.S. Capitalism!

And as to our democracy, the voice of the people is usually but not always morally right! Mob rule mentality and group think can make such desires as mood rings being popularized proof that majority rule isn't always good. That's why we have a representative democracy. Politicians sometimes buck their constituents/people, to do the right thing, just not so often they get booted out of office.

So when you hear the song, 'Imagine,' know its lofty ideals of no wars, only peace, love and flower children will NEVER happen, there are reasons for that, and we all need to work to improve our present systems, in REALITY, vs. musical fantasy! Do your part! Thanks.

P.S.: It's QUITE amazing how LITTLE actual involvement God does engage in the affairs of men, in how we organize our countries' governance. We dream of better states of existence, down here, and there's little stopping us from achieving them, yet we don't! God's NOT stopping us... we are! Our innate sinfulness is! Fix it!

Update

Let's further work through that great song's crazy lyrics: youtube.com/watch?v=YkgkTh Live for today, and you never plan for tomorrow (bad). No Heaven or Hell? That guarantees everyone they go to Hell, if the Bible's correct, as they never prepare for the afterlife. Even live it up full-time (I Cor. 15:32), and you die, anyway! You can't stop that.

No countries/borders? EVERYONE would flock to a first-world nation, and North Korea would only have a fat, lonely dictator. Nothing to kill or die for means we had enough assets for everyone. You can't find enough natural resources for that to work, even mining Mars! An endless supply of food, metal, plastic, oil, water, wood, diamonds, gold... fantasy land, John (RIP)!

No possessions means anyone can come into your mansion and take anything in there, including it, because you don't own it. They wouldn't, because everyone would have enough, but, again, there are not enough resources for that to occur, like Mitt Romney's "I wish everyone was rich" fantasy.

People living in peace? It's NOT lack of possessions, presently, which makes some races' members hate other races' members, and wouldn't stop people wanting to steal another man's wife, or wife's hubby, or saying mean, insulting things, that engender hate.

In short, there's NO reason to join John in his magical mystery ride fantasy of Lucy in the Sky with Diamonds yellow submarine cruise! What you NEED to do is use your voice, vote, money and energy to make your nation more as I just described.

Socialism needs to require civic service repayment of the rich subsidizing, or incentives for workers to be productive, and healthcare more competitive. Communism needs the people's voices heard for freedoms, and the people in charge limited in capped salaries, checks and balance power, no authoritarian rule, and egos checked at their palace doors. I've detailed Capitalism's needs!

Brotherhood of man WON'T ever happen, because people naturally get along with some people, and not others! NOTHING John's song calls for can fix that! I enjoy the company of people who can think, and are moral, fun and interesting, and get things done. What we like varies! We tolerate differences peacefully!

And to those who envision robots doing ALL jobs, so humans don't have to work, 1. Rich people would own them—NOT you, so you'd have no source of income; 2. If you could vote rich people being forced to use them for everyone, there's still limited resources. You imagine vacations, full-time, but our resources are finite!

And even if government owned all robots, which did every job, what would you do all day? You'd be rationed on what assets you can use, to ensure all got enough! Your vision is not all it's cracked up to be; it's crack-pottedly full of holes and cracks. Better is to learn to have a job you love, and get paid decently for.

The results of The Fall aren't overcome by man. We continually struggle with its effects, having to work, wear clothes, die, suffer disease, and sin. It's O.K. To try to fix problems, but you're never 'gonna overcome the effects of The Fall, fully! And the struggle continues! It's called life. Do fix problems, though!

Communism tries to feed all the people by government rationing what's grown, to be 'equal' to all, but isn't efficient and doesn't incentivize enough produce being produced, and sets arbitrary pricing unrelated to a product's intrinsic value.

Socialism tries to feed all the people by government mandating the wealthier people pay for some of the poorer ones' expenses, by force of law. Capitalism tries to feed all the people by incentivizing enough supply, at prices businesses can profit at, with enough competition that the people can afford it.

The poor will always want and somewhat need 'mo money. Dem vs. GOP is how they get the extra they need... by taxing others, or by them working harder. I guarantee you many poor are not the best shoppers, and haven't maximized their God-given talents to earn a living! Some have. They need a LITTLE help. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cOeKidp-iWo>

And when tax payers help anyone (or any state) with their bills, they need to be repaid in compulsory civic service/sweat equity. That's FAIR! It's merciful, vs. required, for us all to help, but it's just, and teaches responsibility, for recipients to pay back in a way they're able!

Communism hates the rich; Socialism punishes the rich; Capitalism idolizes the rich. How about we simply respect their achievement, and ensure they always pay their fair share, and are generous with their excess? (I Tim. 6:17-19; Lk. 12:48) No hatred, punishing or idolizing needed, folks!

MASLOW'S HIERARCHY OF GOVERNMENT NEEDS?

Maslow is famous for his hierarchy of needs (for individuals—psychological, safety, belonging, esteem and self-actualization), but I would like to propose a hierarchy of needs for governments, with the following rationalizations.

AFTERLIFE. Rationale: Even if a ruler is completely Hitler-like toward all his/her people, their entire life, at least they are offered information that can make their afterlife better, not worse (Ex.: religion, philosophy, and/or freedom of thought and inquiry). You can physically die, but that not end your pain and suffering.

SURVIVAL (food and clean water). Rationale: People need to survive/stay alive, once they're born. PREVENTION (avoid preventable disease). There is no reason a government can't protect their people from preventable fatal diseases—not care for or cure them, but prevent them in the first place.

SHELTER. Rationale: People can survive, avoid preventable fatal diseases, and have enough sustenance, and still do so using survivalist skills, building huts, hiding in caves or under brush, but after those initial needs have been met, a stable abode of some sort is a necessity (or minimal luxury).

FREEDOMS (Ex.: democratic, as with human rights). People's rights beyond the above list are essential for a decent and dignified society, but rights beyond that that many Western nations take for granted, though needed, ASAP, everywhere, are technically not required for people to survive and be safe from the elements.

Of course, a job, and the education behind it, as well as its implied right of property ownership is foundational to one owning any of the above life benefits, without the necessity of a total dependence upon government for them to be provided.

STREAMLINED GOVERNMENT: HOW GOVERNMENT CAN DO MORE WITH LESS

Our government is currently running about a $25 trillion national debt, maintained mainly by Chinese borrowing (at interest), and especially QE-4 dollar printing—both which hurt the economy (like dragging a boat anchor), and indebting generations to come, who will have received absolutely nothing for the burden incurred!

It is the responsibility of responsible politicians (as few as we may now have) to fix this growing problem, and to learn (like the rest of us have for decades) to belt-tighten, and get the best bang for the taxpayer's buck, when it comes to government services.

Leave it to Management Consultants and accounting auditors to most adequately be able to both assess the problems, and cost-cutting opportunities, but even in more general terms, businesses of all types can usually cut up to ten percent of their budget (in good times; NOT in a Covid climate), and still be functionally operational!

Of course, all fraud, waste and abuse needs to be excised like a cancer from our body politic. And fair taxation and entitlement programs that are at least tokenly repaid, and are temporary (except for the disabled), are a large means by which we move to a more balanced budget. Our next chapter details yet another way we head in that direction.

No one can say that your average (or typical) career politician is good at managing the public's money, as wise stewards! That problem has to cease! Politicians need to guard those funds as if they were their own, and stop blessing themselves so much, with those funds, as if they were their very own.

I am proposing a complete federal budget audit, to identify each and every place where the people's money can be more wisely spent, because just as in business, a legal entity (like government, or business) fares best when costs are minimized, and profits maximized, or, in the case of government, the best bang for the buck is realized, in the spending of the people's money!

ENERGY COMMON SENSE

THIS is a forward-thinking governor? LOOK at my following retweets, for HOW LONG we have called for this! <https://www.msnbc.com/.../oregon-governor-if-we-don-t...>

CA needs infrastructure to suck ocean water through pipes or hoses to forest fires in future. For BIG, recurring problems we must think and solve BIG! (9/16/14)

STILL DOES, four years later: CA needs infrastructure to suck ocean water through pipes or hoses to forest fires in future. For BIG, recurring problems we must think and amp; solve BIG! (6/17/18)

Year after year I call for approachable Robocop protection for police vital organs, and water lines connected to the ocean, for California wildfires, yet every year these two solutions get ignored, to the fatal peril of human beings. DUMB! Pv. 26:11 (1/1/20)

Wildfires: Underground pipelines connected to the ocean are needed for Cali infrastructure. SURELY their cost is LESS than the destruction and devastation we have all witnessed the past eight years (five summers?!). The water's there to put out the fires, but NOT accessible to fire fighters! (4/17/20)

JUST like predictable CA forest fires every year. We have an entire ocean of water nearby. Use pumps and infrastructure to solve it. U.S. Ingenuity.

CBS Sunday Morning citing Democrats for saying California and Oregon's wildfires are due to climate change. Fires start for reasons, and dry brush burns. Global warming would say temperatures rise, drying out brush. Climate change make no commitment to temps rising or falling! FARSE!

It's VERY self-serving to tout climate change. That means if climate is ever exactly the same as the past, and predictable, that's how things were before men's carbon footprint increased. That has NEVER been the case! Even global warming term had to be changed, to face the FACTS!

If you use LOGIC, science would say vehicle emissions INCREASE heat in the atmosphere, so temps should ONLY increase-NOT climate change. It's a political agenda to ruin oil and gas industry, that's favorable to (and often funds) GOP, as well as cleaning up our air! ALL FOR cleaner air!

God is behind 'Mother Nature,' and it has always been unpredictable. God also says that weather signs are going to be signs of prophecy's imminence! We need technology to cool down vehicle emissions, capturing them and converting them into a new energy source, and more green powered vehicles.

NOT one human being argues weather is constant and predictable, and never changes! "Climate change" is innate to nature. Proof human inventions have caused weather to get worse or more intense would have to prove increased heat in the atmosphere can cause even colder extremes, at times.

IF stats show overall temp rising-historically-radical winter weather's NOT consistent with carbon emission as a cause! EVERY negative weather event is blamed on climate change, so you have an enemy government can pay to combat! Boogie man scapegoat for more taxes!

Tech is needed to FREEZE large areas, or blow away hot air, to counter any heat vehicle emissions emit into our atmosphere, absent carbon capture! Wildfires in Cali are a new industry opportunity, as is countering vehicle emissions, if taxpayers want to fund them!

Americans are NOT going to take drastic action or make drastic lifestyle changes, to lessen vehicle emissions' negative impact to our environment! Vehicle manufacturers MUST make them cleaner, while not making them significantly more costly! Electric-powered ISN'T our only option!

Let me give you an average guy's view on Green New Deal—I don't plan to change any behaviors, much more, for our ecology! Whatever comes from doing little to nothing, I'm NOT concerned about! I'd like cleaner air, using technology, and I'm all for greener vehicles, if comparably priced!

There are costs for the greatest economy and most advanced lifestyles! Carbon emission is 1. Innovation can fix those negatives! A TV ad, just now, touts zero emissions by Amazon, by a certain date. More power to them! It has to be affordable, and oil industry will ALWAYS be needed!

Oil drilling can be made 100% environmentally safe! Emissions need to be cleaned or captured. Recirculate them into power, to run vehicles. America had EPA standards that cleaned up smoking vehicles from 70's. We CAN do this, but consumers may not demand it, especially if things cost more.

Oil is subsidized, and most green energy isn't. To argue that's not fair FAILS to address gas refilling stations are EVERYWHERE, but NOT electrical, and electrical can't fill you up in five minutes! The economy has to run on some fuel. It's a pragmatics issue, vs. biased against green energy.

HOW can government have MORE money for these infrastructure projects, WITHOUT unfair taxes?

1. Determine what's fair for ALL citizens, including those who aren't paying in, currently.
2. Streamline government for best bang for the buck!
3. END handouts, and convert Welfare into an empowerment program results in self-sufficiency.
4. Taxes scientifically determined to be not too high or low, where the Treasury gets maximum income off a growing economy (no tax avoidance from what you owe). People making more also encourages more charity giving, especially the rich.

Blue states are free to fund big projects red states don't want, like the Green New Deal. I'm ALL for tighter restrictions on major emitters, cleaner vehicles at affordable prices, and fining major violators in ways that will convince them to clean up their act—NOT the Green New Deal.

EVERY green energy source MUST be made commercially affordable. Companies don't develop such technologies if profits aren't in it, BIG enough, and first users pay those costs more than later ones (economies of scale), and eventually the feds must unsubsidize oil or subsidize green energy!

Oil and gas profits America, by exports, and derivatives will always be needed! CLEANER emission technology will preserve the industry, and politicians should NEVER harm that industry-just advocate for a balance with renewables! Fracking MAY disrupt underground stability. IF so, they must fill it in!

The amount of oil under the U.S. Land mass IS finite/limited. Oil is NOT renewable, except millennia later! America has to move more to renewables, and BIG oil needs to diversify more into green resources, to remain viable! Wind energy is endless, and vehicles need to be able to run off it!

Americans have endless energy from solar, geothermal, ocean waves and wind! Endless. These just can't fill a cars gas tank fast, and everywhere we need a fill-up! Change that infrastructure problem, and keep it same or less price as gasoline, and America will lessen carbon footprint immensely.

Oregon governor on Face The Nation is, again, touting the Dem talking point that climate change must be tackled. NO-fires must be put out, and you need much more sprinkler infrastructure, so late summer heat doesn't dry out your landscape, as fires start from multiple sources! DUMB!

Cali's wildfires are NO SURPRISE! This happens EVERY late summer! I planned our vacation around that predictability, after it ruined our Tahoe plans, two years ago. The insanity is people wring their hands over the problem, AS IF it surprises them, or can't be fixed!

18. HEALTHCARE

1. Healthcare For The Poor
2. Affordable Healthcare

HEALTHCARE FOR THE POOR

8.5 percent, or 27.5 million Americans have no health insurance. Bodies get old, and start falling apart/breaking down, and even young ones can have catastrophic injuries or diseases, which can financially wipe out a family, as healthcare in America is VERY expensive (17.2 of GDP, compared to an average of 8.9).

People NEED to be able to get well, and be treated when ill, especially when seriously so, where natural recovery is impossible. The U.S. Has among the best care, but we pay for that luxury! It's a rich man's game, even I (with it) choose to rarely if ever use, except in emergencies!

Is this the way things ought to be, with something NOT a luxury? No way, Jose. So how could we lower its costs, for those without insurance coverage? Like any other business, streamlining eliminates waste, and if cost savings are passed onto the consumer, costs to the public get lowered.

For one, the poor among us MUST eat healthy (though that's often more expensive), exercise, go to charity and low-cost clinics, use over-the-counter-remedies, and buy emergency situation catastrophic coverage! Whatever it takes to get covered by an employer, or to cut back spending to buy it, that they MUST do!

Sadly, crowd sourcing (Go Fund Me⁺) also exists. Even having few kids helps the potential strain! But, what about the cases where the very poor get treatable cancer, or the like, of Covid with ventilators? Must they go in debt, or personally bankrupt, or be strapped with medical bills the rest of their life to pay those costly procedures off?

This is where Obamacare came in, and why (as with Medicare for seniors, and Medicaid for the poor). America has already addressed this need, at taxpayers' expense. THAT (wealth redistribution) is ALWAYS an injustice, even if the richer 66 percent can afford it! You are not their child/dependent, or employed by them, but by your employer!

ANY help ANY American gets from anyone else, by way of subsidies, SHOULD be 100 percent repaid to taxpayers in the form of required civic service, though even token repayment gets skin in the game!

In America, our healthcare is Cadillac quality, and we need Yugo level care for the poor, but what doctors will go through medical school to be paid less than market rate? VERY few! That's a major reason they endure that grind!

EVERY way there is to lower costs for the poor MUST be found, for a certain percent of the medical practice, and the industry as a whole needs to be overhauled for best bang for the buck!

When insurance companies foot the bills, there is zero incentive to care about costs, but only for care of the patient. Insurance MUST be certified by the U.S. Government regulatory agencies, but purchasable world-wide! Competition lowers costs!

Drugs, as well... globally sourced, after FDA certification. Even receiving care in another nation, if the provider has been checked out by U.S. Quality standards.

The harm to America and all Americans and our economy would be if we had universal single payer coverage, as everyone would make a run on the bank to get every procedure and test known to man, which would flood the system (like Covid is doing in some cities, presently), which is bad for ALL, and especially unfair for people who can afford the best treatment, with efficient service! The answers are not plentiful, but, as always, they are out there!

I get the need and desire! I do NOT get how you think taxpayers OWE you coverage, as they do NOT! Use the limited means I've detailed, and be willing to work off any costs you incur spending some part of your nights and weekends repaying any subsidies by making taxpayers pay government workers less hours for work you learn to contribute to our country, for free, as token repayment for care you receive!

Catastrophic coverage, low-cost and charity clinics, out of country (where safe), self-help over-the-counter, Go Fund Me, Medicaid, changing employers to get benefits, eat and exercise correctly. For now, these are your best bet!

This is NOT taxpayers being uncaring, but just/fair! Obamacare did NOT prove to be cheap, cover all who needed it, let you keep your doctor, and wasn't fair to taxpayers! Biden wants to expand it. It needs a total re-work! I wasn't for a repeal, but a revise, and I wasn't even for it in the first place, but now we have it. Scrap failed programs!

Dems NEVER require ANYTHING from freebie receivers—only freebie payers (mainly the GOP, and a few lefty rich folk)! That's unjust, and if America's new mantra is going to be 'no justice no peace,' expect a taxpayer revolt for all the unconstitutional handouts Dems love to offer THEIR constituents!

44 percent of Americans do not pay taxes. They are not invested in America's bills! They have no skin in the game; rent car mentality of OPM (other people's money). That is horrifically wrong! But they have no excess, so compulsory civic service is the ONLY rational way to achieve justice—period!

If your attitude is why should we care what's fair for rich people, as they have it made, you do not even live by your 'no justice no peace' mantra! God cares about justice! If you have money, of course your life is more pampered. Jealousy is a sin. Go learn to earn for yourself!

Democrats will NEVER be satisfied until ALL American poor people are in the middle class, through freebies, paid for by taxpayers, and the world's poor! They say they're NOT anti-rich people, but if the rich had to be in the middle class, to reach this end, they would approve of it.

The rich and rich businesses are where the excess money is, so how do we get them to do as God commands, and not selfishly hoard? (I Tim. 6:17-19) Incentives and public shaming; giving them tax breaks, or media coverage (free advertising) for their gifts. Fair share taxes are required of all.

Give the rich projects worthy of their money and interest! Everyone is motivated differently. What issue is of any concern to them, even if solely from a family member experiencing it? They are used to payoffs. You have to give them payoffs for donating generously! They don't just obey God.

Revival, where people got saved, then sanctified, would improve rich give back, but that's not 100 percent within our control. The rich should NOT be punished by society for being rich! It's NOT evil, and it's not unfair that not everyone can ever be rich! Jealousy has to be shunned by society.

If you're poor, you have two choices... make more or spend less! Most people work full-time, so making more isn't always an option, thru overtime or an advancement or pay increase or better job (new skills needed, which takes time and training). The FASTEST cure is to evaluate how you spend!

Poor people are not always the sharpest knife in the drawer, or they'd have better skills and pay/jobs. The KEY is educating poor people to be the best buyers in America. Value hunters! Our website gives FREE tips for them (Campaign Update button of <http://AmericanAnswers.org>). READ it!

Poor people in America must learn tricks for how to make blue collar jobs maximize bank! Learning how to start a successful business is essential information our public schools MUST be teaching the ~60 percent who will never step foot in any college! Trade school, vs. academic track in school.

P.S.: This will sound 100 percent uncaring, but it's given to help poor people have less life stress: If America is too expensive for you, you really might like it living somewhere else. MOST nations are cheaper. Study and see if this could be an option for you, if your wages are stuck 'forever.' You certainly wouldn't stay in Hawaii, or Dubai, if you were poor!

And ANYONE who thinks they may be poor for a long time should NOT have many if any kids! I didn't say you can't have sex. Kids are EXPENSIVE! They are NOT family employees! WAIT until your finances improve, and if they never do, be a great aunt or uncle, or visit hospitals or orphanages!

It's GREAT to want "affordable" healthcare for all! I want affordable Maserati's for all, and Romney wanted all to rich. PIPE DREAMS! Maserati's cost a lot, and NO business is 'gonna lose money, NOT recover costs and make a worthwhile profit-period! They're NOT charities

I know ZERO personnel in the medical field who want to cut their high wages in half or by a third, so healthcare costs reduce! I know of zero hi technology cutting-edge devices that aren't initially expensive, or any you'd doctor who wants to operate with 1980's equipment, to keep costs lower!

NO—"affordable" healthcare is a mirage and myth, UNLESS you're speaking taxpayer funded subsidies! Some (5-15% maximum) cost-cutting measures could be brought to their industry, by management consultant types, but there are ZERO incentives to pass on cost savings, or even find them, as insurance reimburses whatever doctors do, because doctors do what insurance will authorize—NOT more.

It's an incestuously symbiotic relationship, and the public/customer LOSES, price-wise! Insurance means pain is distributed, to cover the pool's risk of needing to use it. Everyone who pays in pays less than they get out if they have a bad illness.

Insurance actuaries study stats, so their employers don't lose money (step one of being in business), so the handful of insured who use a lot of the pool's funds get STEAL in other people helping with their exorbitant bills, in exchange for those people knowing they get the same if—God forbid—that happens to them.

That peace of mind, that a YUGE medical bill won't randomly destroy 'em, is worth the premiums they pay monthly, to them! People without coverage are a DRAIN/LOSS to taxpayers, as they get the cake, eat it too, and pay NOTHING, and used to race to the expensive emergency rooms in expensive ambulances or worse, helicopters, all at taxpayers or hospitals' expense/loss.

Now AOC's the squad ADDS to Biden's cornucopia of giveaways off taxpayers, in demanding peoples housing platform of FREE healthcare, daycare and student loan cancellation! Banks who lent money for college LOSE!

EVERYONE needs catastrophic health insurance coverage, to fend off debilitating debts!

<https://insurance.com/.../pros-and-cons-of-catastrophic...>

... Other medical treatments can be budgeted for, or payoff plans made! (10/18/20-2)

Affordable healthcare for the poor would be catastrophic insurance, low-cost and pro bono clinics, OTC (over-the-counter) self-help (where possible), and repaying big bills through work at hospitals, or repaying subsidizing taxpayers by civic service. (10/13/20-2)

EVERYONE needs catastrophic health insurance coverage, to fend off debilitating debts!

... Other medical treatments can be budgeted for, or payoff plans made! (10/18/20-2)

Preexisting condition means an insurance company agrees to pay for expensive treatment for diseases begun BEFORE they came into a contractual relationship with an insured. HOW is that fair to them? HIGHER premiums than all others who don't have that baggage are the ONLY fair way. (10/29/20-2)

OR, everyone has to pay more-to spread the pain—which is the very nature of insurance. People want something for nothing. That is the death knell of America! Selfish greed. At the same time, people NEED care for preexisting conditions, and have to be able to afford to pay for it! (10/29/20-2)

The ONLY way you can fix healthcare is, 1. Fairly, 2. Efficiently and affordably, 3. Letting existing private coverage remain in place. That must mean poor people are subsidized, but have to repay that payment with civic service! That's fair to all!

Doctors et al are NOT often 'gonna reduce their rates. We lawyers voted that down in law school (proposition for forced pro bono, at a small percent). The efficiency element is ending all waste, even if by outside consultants, and affordability by increased competition. ONLY reasonable solutions, and ALL get covered.

And any and all government involvement in healthcare for the poor MUST be on par with private insurance and care! "Government work," in ALL functions, can never again represent tortoise-slow, bureaucratic, red tape, wasteful, cushily secure jobs for people unable to hire privately!

Reiterating and fleshing out my idea of a 3-tiered health insurance system. The wealthy want (and have no need for otherwise) gold-plated, top-quality care. They can afford it, and there's zero reason they shouldn't be granted it. The middle class can't afford, and don't have to have that!

Poor can't afford even the minimalist care I've detailed before, so subsidies they'd pay back are in order-NOT freebies. Medical workers aren't 'gonna lessen or differentiate their care, so it's the insurance coverage that must be 3-tiered. Any public option being considered disallows the poor milking the system, as the restraints of care covered are built into their subsidized insurance.

It's simply having a Yugo, Ford and Cadillac insurance plan, where all pay for what they can afford, and pay back taxpayers if ever subsidized, and the system isn't overwhelmed by a universal coverage/government-run healthcare system.

Insurance companies decide what's covered at various quality plans offered, and consumers shop around for which plan best meets their needs and budget. Medical workers already do mainly if not only what will be repaid by insurance businesses!

Finally, IF there were some generous angels who'd cut their pay to serve people's medical needs, they're already working at low-cost clinics or pro bono places. You're NOT 'gonna get a whole lot more, and That's NOT evil!

You can't expect enough of them to care for all America's poor, so the poor's costs WILL exceed what they can afford! That gap, needing subsidies, must be repaid by unpaid civic service, over time (or they can work out their own repayment/installment plan with the various medical participants, if They're open to that—UNlikely). Easy fixes!

I want a food-refilling rabbit cage, and a TV that projects two different channels, directable to the family members who want to see one vs. the other, with headphones to sound, so we all watch together, but NOT the same show! I want to speak, and my car radio goes to my chosen channel!

I want a self-emptying vacuum cleaner. Why do I want to get all dusty, as I did today? Think lazy, perfect state, and list your ideal wants, and that's how you get new product ideas. "Everything starts with an idea" –Unknown author

I NEVER want to type anything ever again—just speak my thoughts to my laptop. I want a clothes sorter, that separates the three types of washes—white, darks and colors. Why do I want anyone else to handle my tighty whities? Ideally, a tool/robot would get clothes out of the dryer, and hang them up, and clean my rabbit cage.

I don't want to ever lose a product, like my only winter coat! GPS or the clapper technology to locate my chip imbedded jacket, like you can find a misplaced smart phone. I want to speak 'louder,' and my TV increases volume, without finding or using the remote! That's a smart TV. I want an expandable TV set, to go BIG for the Super Bowl, then fit in place, afterwards.

I want a laptop battery I don't have to manage, as to over- or under-charging! Let it stop charging when it's full! Start charging when it gets low, and don't involve me in the process! OF course I want it full, all the time, or never empty! If it gets too hot, turn on fan! Common sense innovations.

I want to simply speak out into the air, 'dial name,' and a phone hears me and dials, like Bosley on Charlie's Angels, unless others are in the room, where the phone comes to me, to keep the conversation more private. You have to dream ideal state, and work backwards, to get new innovations.

I want an automatic tub scrubber and shower cleaner. Water with Clorox bleach, sprayed, is the next best thing. We work 40-60-80 hours a week. We don't 'wanna work when we come home to relax! Roomba lawn mower that detects animals, people and rocks. I want a better world, through technology.

I want to be able to learn how long lines will be at a restaurant, before I choose where to eat, vs. when I arrive. Online reservations are good, but they don't tell you if it's crowded before you arrive. I waited two hours for a Ruidoso Cattle Barron's steak house. I won't get those hours back!

I want livestreamed free tribute concerts from home, at Legacy Hall, Plano, TX, when the band's not my ideal, so I can work when the songs are boring or unknown. I want livestream pictures of beautiful scenes, live, the world over, on my computer!

I want to be able to watch my son working, remotely, at work, on a camera that reveals no trade secrets. I want to know from home if a store is out of what I'm going there to get, so I don't waste a trip. I don't want to know your website, when businesses say, 'it's on our website!'

The other day, my sons and I went to Oklahoma, and a McD's required us to use the kiosk. I left, and the next one north got my money! I don't want to memorize all your offerings, and what screen they're found on. I just 'wanna speak what I want, pay, and go! Often, technological advances are a move BACKWARDS! Order, pay, go was GOOD and fast!

I want my bed to make itself, my toilet to clean itself, and my tub to fill to the level and temperature it knows I like when I say 'tub for Jim.' Call me crazy, but 20 years from now, these ideas will be common place.

I want my dishwasher to load and empty itself. Until then, I have kids (joke). I don't want to have to wash the dishes, before the dishwasher washes the dishes (there's a TV commercial about this frustration). I want my alarm clock to variously speak to me, with soothing music, or statements of a sulky voice, saying time to rise and shine, for this is the day that the Lord has made!

I want my kids' shoes to be taken to my front closet, NOT put in our hallway, by a knowledgeable robot. I want to be in the Jetson's home, obviously! I want my socks to match themselves. It wastes so much time getting my kids' white socks in my drawer, or different calf lengthed versions! No one has time.

I want my car to vacuum itself. Washing itself would be amazing, though it was fun, yesterday. Polishing is another matter. No one likes that elbow grease job, in the hot sun! I want a Roomba that cleans up my dogs tootsy rolls in the back yard (poop). You only need so much fertilizer!

I want life after work to be a 100 percent peaceful experience, with the massage chairs from NFM (furniture business), and robot to make our meals. No one should do much, when they pour their souls out all week long for the man, especially blue collar laborers! A time for rest, Ecc. 3:5.

And CHEAP funerals for the poor. Cheap childbirth is to have a midwife, at home, or an EMS worker on call, if you don't even do that. Funerals can be cheaper if you cremate. Poor people have to know how to buy smart. Our books teach you how, as our books teach you how to innovate, with 4,700 new product ideas in them!

Want cheaper snow skiing? There are very low scale resorts... two I've seen in New Mexico, on the way to Taos. I want an indoor ski resort in DFW! Why can't we make a climbable mountain here, too? I HATE having to drive four or five hours to climb a mountain! If we don't, other states get that business, as with skiing. Keep our money here for our economy!

I read Fellowship church bought a Gander Mountain building, and Six Flags headquarters is now in the Rangers' old stadium. That's creativity! Wise! You can't think inside the box, if you're future-thinking, and we're all heading to the future.

Why can't we use 3-D holographs for laser live concerts of old rock groups once they retire, like the Stones, using film from past concerts, for future generations? Disneyland Cali had a room of seemingly 3-D people, by focusing many movie projectors toward a table in the center of the room. Do that for classic rock group concerts!

Why were rats able to eat my car wires, leaving the car outside one winter (which insurance covered, thank God)? Fox pee fixed it, as with never leaving it outside. At the time, we owned four cars. There are always solutions if you can learn and think and imagine a better future!

I want autocorrect Twitter spelling. I write fast, with BIG fingers and fast thoughts. I'm not 'gonna miss a thought for word perfect typo omissions, since Twitter refuses to let you have an edit button for later corrections. I just learned there's advanced searching on Twitter I find helpful for research. I just discovered twitter GIFs. It's what you don't know that hurts you.

I want bike tires that self repair when you get flats. If you want proof I'm the most innovative person on the planet, go to the Campaign Update button at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>, and READ. No one can beat God through me in creativity!

VERY weird: A Mavericks game just flashed across my Twitter account, and I have no idea what button, if any, I accidentally touched. That was interesting! How did that happen? Dinosaurs want to know!

Luka has weak ankles. Aren't there weights exercises to keep his career long-term? My wife's wrist is hurting from keyboard use. Surely there are carpal tunnel surgery prevention solutions! I'll look for them now, on Google... <https://mayoclinic.org/diseases-conditions/carpal-tunnel-syndrome/diagnosis-treatment/drc-20355608...> Cold packs. OF COURSE use the keyboard less. DUH!

Every solution to every problem can be a product a business can profit off of! Innovation is the future of the global economy. That's why you need 2 hire The World's Most Innovative Man, in 2024! Details @ <http://AmericanAnswers.org>. The BEST life information is there and at Will You Live Forever? button, at this website, for FREE; you're welcome.

I want to scan a phone number and my landline dials it without using my fingers, when I make sales. I have 13 books available on Kindle and our website, ranging from business, to innovation, to the Bible, to Bible prophecy, to idioms, and common sense politics solutions on almost every issue. What you don't know hurts you!

My kitchen trash cans need emptying. Robot needed. Can you imagine if families had NO work/chores to do on nights and weekends, so they could relax? Doggie doors keep you from door opening, and there are oil changes you can have every 8,000 miles! It's what you don't know that hurts you.

The MOST IMPORTANT thing you can ever know is the contents of John 3:16, in the Bible, because we've all done one sin—minimum—and all sins get punished in Hell (fiery forever), unless Christ's death pays that price as a free gift you pray to receive! Do that today! (II Cor. 6:2) God loves you. Thanks. Bye.

Why can't my home toilet have a public bathroom sensor to know to flush when I depart from it? Why do I have to touch the lever? Why can't smart showers know every family member's preferred heat setting, by identifying them when they walk through the glass door? I refuse to accept current state!

Why can't you see livestream/FaceTime of every person watching you type on Twitter, to have direct conversations? Why can't I say aloud, 'find the best entertainment,' and my smart TV knows my likes, and selects options it knows I'll like? Why is technology so primitive, day?

Why can't there be a pill that expands in your stomach, with water, to make you feel full? Why can't there be home IV's, to insert water so you feel full without having to drink the nasty stuff? Why did we USED to have intercoms in homes, but we haven't modernized that, or trash compactors? Odd!

Why can't my throw rug have changeable colors or designs, via computer technology? Why can't my car have various looks/colors, by the body being a canvas for various projected colors or patterns? Why can't four-door sedan cars be compactable, if it's only you driving? That saves gasoline and pollution.

A Houston friend had suction for vacuums in house walls they screwed hoses into. Unique vacuuming! Did you know not all tax preparers are equal? Inexperienced ones can lose you money! They don't care—they get paid the same. Banks profit when you have many kids' bank accounts, vs. all in one, for your investing!

There are sales people whose interest is them, number one. They act like you're their concern, but their commission is preeminent in their mind. I had a recruiter, one week ago LIE that she was there to serve me, until I asked for things she couldn't deliver for the business she REALLY worked for. LIAR! She never called back!

I teach my kids all wisdom God has given me. Teens, if you want a job, GO IN PERSON and ask for an application. You KNOW they'll say apply online, but you met the boss. Tell them you are really interested in working there, and you just wanted to meet them in person, so they'd put a face to the name. It works WELL!

I've had to be career coach for my son. I said list every ideal business you want to work in, use Linked-In and ask for advice, or offer to serve them for free, as you express interest in a particular area. Get to know them over time. They may have ties to influencers in the company! Online applying is the LAST to be seen.

Wisdom is the common thread. The topic is 'gonna be what pops into the mind. Why can't cars have mini microwaves and microfreezers or refrigerators, for your drinks and snacks in the hot suns of Texas? My car should tell me when my oil needs changing! I'm NOT tracking when 3,000 miles have transpired! Modern ones do?

Instead of writing through the night, and giving all my innovation ideas away for free, with zero benefit to me, elect me, and I'll help anyone and any business, full-time, on the campaign trail, then IMPLEMENT all my better ideas than anything going that you can see, found at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>, in 2024! Thanks.

Tonight's message reinstated my own faith in God's calling. I had a meltdown, ending writing, and worried I wrote something God didn't want me to, yesterday. My heart may fail me, but God is the strength of my life. (Ps. 73:26) NOT a negative, arrogant Pharisee! I REBUT false allegations of our critics.

Why let plastic shower curtains and stalls gather mold? Invent solutions! Find a new fix for clogged sinks. Drano only works O.K.! You need a drill, or mini explosion chemical, or the equivalent of a coat hanger ramming through the crud/junk! WHY do you tolerate such a backwards society? Status quo!

Why not an organized set of shelves under bathroom sink cabinets? You waste space having it all one height, but with a pull-out drawer, you could see what's immediately beneath the sink, hidden away when the drawer retracts. Why are toilet seats allowed to loosen and shift/move around? That's DUMB! Problems bring inventions.

Did you know paraffin in shampoos helps dry out hair, if not accelerate thinning, as pores clog? What you don't know HURTS you! Science tests/studies tell you many answers, like how long to brush your teeth, and which direction gets the most junk off. It is knowledge, truth, that sets you free!

Why should humans pick up dirty whites, and take them to the laundry room? Laundry chutes from the second floor exist, or robots should do the nasty/dirty work of life! Why have Americans abandoned lazy Susans, trash compactors, and home intercoms? Resurrect products for new markets!

Did you know laundry dryers fade your colors more than hanging them up to dry naturally? More longevity for your wardrobe. Why not share wardrobes you rarely use? The thought sounds sick/unsanitary, but for designer duds, businesses already rent them out! You've got to think creatively to build a better future!

Why do I have to tolerate buying blue jeans when my sons grow, but only in height? Why can't they start off too long, be hemmed, then let them out as the years go by, if they aren't worn out beforehand? 'Functional obsolescence' is a business making products be ended or unpopular, before they're worn out.

Any person wearing a name-brand on their T-shirt is an unpaid marketer. Just sayin'. Businesses benefit with an individualized society, as if we bought in bulk, via an app, leverage would bring prices down (aggregation). People who try to impress people waste money by so doing, especially with clothes! Fact/truth.

ALL truth is God's truth. A lady said behind me, in church, that a study was conducted that you can fit more people into a church with seats, rather than pews. Did you know a certain angle increases parking lot capacity: https://mindyourdecisions.com/blog/2013/05/29/math-claim-is-angled-parking-ever-more-efficient-than-perpendicular-90-degree-parking/... What you don't know hurts you! The U.S. Education system is falling behind!

I will be HAPPY to invent a solution to nearly any problem a business or person has, when I run for office, as a major component of my campaign, for free, but I'm NOT spilling all the beans, here and now! I'm just proving God in me can do what I just said.

INGENUITY

To invent, learn what's been invented, to spur other ideas and improvements. My TV sleeps after four hours of no channel change. That's an improvement, to save energy. Why not a sensor that sees if people leave the room, and it asks are you through viewing? Voice commands instruct it to shut off, or not.

Toilet seats that heat in the winter and cool in the summer. A convenience store just off I-75 at Lake Texoma has an automatic seat cover machine! If you don't know what's already possible, you can't advance your thinking of what's possible, in many cases! Ignorance hurts America's economy! LEARN!

Why do wrinkles occur? A black lady said 'black don't crack.' What's in her skin that moisturizes better than my forehead? I want it in my skin! I've spoken with a couple of Hispanic males who said olive skin is more moist. I've seen Chinese cover their faces, fearing the sun. Thinner skin, or paler?

You've got to be curious—it's killed few cats! Why is my wife's DNA that of an anorexic with a few pounds to make them not so? I want that DNA, via a pill! Her sister was rejected for insurance, until a doctor said she's healthy, just skinny. I want that DNA for myself! Science innovations needed.

Why can't an app turn on or off your contraception? We can turn off house lights remotely from our smart phones! Why not invent a product or chemical that retards sperm if one has unsafe sex, is raped, or the condom breaks? A spray, or douche. WHERE do you see innovation like this? Don't lie to yourself when you answer.

Gravity cause wrinkles, over time, as with dry skin, in my opinion. Make hand shoes so it's normal for people to stand on their heads, some, during the day. I could go on nearly forever! I hope you see a unique skill in action. It's the Lord Jesus Christ within.

My garage door opener acts up in cold weather. Why? I've replaced the batteries.

Knowledge is foundational to a better society! Ignorance and stupidity and lies are the enemy of society! Why can't I watch any move on TV, like I used to could rent from Blockbuster? Maybe they're on YouTube, now, for free?

Did you know new movies are online, for free? I don't know why or if they're illegal. If so, it's probably because they were copied in other nations? Are you curious, or playing video games and watching cat videos on Twitter? Entertainment is an escape from a rough reality. Make jobs more enjoyable! I can!

You get BETTER productivity from happy campers, employers! And if one works harder, pay them harder! That's ONLY fair (Col. 4:1). Hiring for salary, so you can work them more than 40 hours is an evil business trick! Avoiding overtime, and their per hour wage lowers. DO YOU KNOW THESE THINGS, employees and workers?

Internships are unfair! They deserve some pay, but only what's fair for what they contribute. Justice has to be the standard for society and government, or God is not on a nation's side! (Levit. 19:15) Are Trump's pastor handlers saying these things? NO! Caustic conservatives like injustice! Screw the lower half.

In the old days clocks and temperatures were everywhere, especially on bank signs. I don't wear a watch, or own a smart phone. My laptop keeps my time, or my TV. Changes. Innovation brings change, and must bring improvement. New technology is often a step backwards, until kinks get worked out! Consumers have the power to demand better products!

Cars used to cost $12,000, and not have as many amenities, which are also ways businesses can make add-on profit when they break. Costs have skyrocketed for new cars, since consumers are holding them ~12 years, vs. turning them over every 3-5 years, as my dad used to do.

Do you observe trends and pattern changes? If not, you won't be very innovative! Depend diapers ("under garments") used to be bulky. TV ads show them seamless through your pants, now days. Improvement! I think I can improve most products, but only on the campaign trail, for free, in 2024, party fluid.

The majority of jobs are boring, and minimum wage jobs are often retail. Sweep the floor, check out customers, rearrange merchandise, do inventory—BORING! My son's past restaurant has NO self-check out or device to say your table's ready. That doesn't make it inferior. Personal preference! I like it.

Everyone wants your money! Business is a polite war. Never over-pay! Consumers teach business what to stock, by our purchases. The BEST bargain is a 98 cent Reece's peanut butter cups (times five) at Walmart, and 50 cent mini pecan pies, NOT THAT I KNOW. You 'gotta buy smart, poor people. DON'T seek handouts, stolen from the upper half.

I teach poor Americans the best ways to spend, for FREE, at my website that's NOT on that subject alone. You're 'gonna have to Where's Waldo find it, as I'm luring you to learn about better politics, in the process of that search. "It's on the website." HORRIBLE customer service slogan! I'm old-fashioned.

Did you know public power-up kiosks can subject you to hacking? NBC profiled that! You 'gotta LEARN! Ignorance may be bliss, but it's also destructive. Henry Ford said it's hard work, but what's the alternative? Problems, waste of money and time, conflict, chaos, and being paid little, deservedly!

Do you want to learn creativity? Interview the writers of Impractical Jokers! AMAZING innovative thinking outside the box! Challenge: IF you can find better political ideas than on our free website, vote for them in 2024. If not, please vote for me! <http://AmericanAnswers.org>

Same challenge with innovative ideas. If you can find anyone with more innovation skills, than The World's Most Innovative Man (moi), hire them to run America's economy for future growth. Innovations the key to America's future, as every nation eventually copies and catches up. You've got to always stay ahead. You CAN'T if you think inside the box!

I have my first cold in 12 years. I know there are two products I need to take today, to lessen the length of the effects. Do you know all the solutions that already exist to life's problems? LEARN! I hear face masks don't protect against the Corona virus. Myth or truth? I'd say true! They're porous, so you can breathe.

Gas? Gas-X. Hemorrhoids? There's a product for that. America has almost everything anyone would ever want, as ours is the greatest nation, because we're moral, and NOT like Trump. We want all nations to live as we do! But we have limited resources. Use innovation to stretch the limited supply; and find substitutes.

THAT is my sales pitch for my 2024 national campaign! IF you find better political solutions than my website, or more innovative ideas for our economy, vote for them! If not, vote for me, and party means zero to me! I change parties when they go off track significantly! Always will. They're NOT an idol, to me.

Diaper rash? Products exist on Google search! Diarrhea? Same thing. Man has solved so many mysteries and problems. Now he needs to master himself, and learn to live morally and intelligently! It starts with John 3:16, the Bible Literally, that's the answer! Offended? Read Gal. 4:16.

We PROVE Evolution is false by liberalism and caustic conservatism! I'm 'gonna let you chew on that for awhile. Dog-eat-dog makes us animals, and unsustainable giveaways make us stupid. That's NOT maturity, people! Just sayin'.

Jails need improving! Sixty Days In TV show makes me wonder if the inmates are in charge of the asylum. Most criminals get out, and many can't hire on, having a record. This needs solving. You can't use innovation if you don't know what the problems and imperfections of life are.

Every job could use a new device, to make it more fun or enjoyable, and more productive! I believe I can deliver such solutions, when God puts me in this mindset probably few of you have ever experienced! Test me on this when I run for office! <http://AmericanAnswers.org> (party can change!)

I believe I can make any job more enjoyable, if not fun. I believe I can invent products not already existing, that will make many jobs more efficient and enjoyable. I plan to do just that as I campaign, by improving businesses, and poor people's lives. You shouldn't hate your job! (12/24/19)

Did you know 'minimum wage minimum work' is a slogan some hold, as justice? Employers often take advantage of people who devise better ways of work, so they get more down time, so they aren't 'gonna put things in suggestion boxes, for fear of overworking tyrants! That's a fair decision! Be just, bosses.

Bosses raise expectations and workers seek ways to do the job for less effort, or faster, to have more me time during the day. Employment is a polite war. I'm only for justice! The GOP is for employers. Dems are for workers. I am for equal leverage and BOTH sides!

Fruit spoils. Why can't smart refrigerators detect that? Food product boxes have expiration dates. Why can't smart pantries detect that, and alert the owners? Why do we ACCEPT such a primitive society, compared to what's possible, if you re-imagined it? I have for six+ years—all on our website and in 13 books!

4,700 new product ideas are already available, in four of our books! Can anyone else do that, or did God give them to me? You decide! Popcorn that burns kernels is archaic. Smart microwaves are needed! Uncooked kernels are also wasteful. Let technology detect the perfect time to shut off!

CAN YOU DO THIS, spontaneously? I want my car dashboard to not just alert me that a tire is low on air, but tell me which one, and what pressure it's at! Why do you ACCEPT such a primitive society? I'm mocking you so you'll be riled up to demand better of D.C., and in American products, so our economy always leads! CAN YOU DO THIS, spontaneously?

I'd take any help getting these ideas spread. I'll reciprocally help your life or business, but no money changes hands. ALL these words will soon be on Facebook (james.meroney.9). I want a TV channel that gives all pro sports highlights, the night of—as with results. I ain't got time to watch football.

I want a TV channel that summarizes TV shows to their core. My TV's on Big Foot (dumb conspiracy), and it's boring me to sleep. Give me the conclusion of your evidence, and stop wasting my time, as with The Curse of Oak Island. Total time wasters, to me! And Live PD. ONLY the best events! Excite me.

UFO and ghost hunting shows? A waste of time, for me, but I WOULD watch a summary of evidence shows! Did you know a guy tried to commit suicide, but survived the Golden Gate Bridge fall? He now speaks on coping skills. WATCH morning news. Get edu-ma-cated, America! Dumb means death!

If you can't see that I can prove I'm The World's Most Innovative Man, by simply reading our FREE chapters at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>, Campaign Update button, that's an IQ test, and you failed!

Did you know America wastes enough food that there would likely be NO starvation in America, if we matched waste with need? Uber eats re-imagined! I just threw out banana bread my son got from a charity seeking donations. I don't know about its age or contents! Wild animals will enjoy it tonight! (Mt. 14:20)

Doggie doors are an open invite to thin criminals. Did you ever think about that? Literally, at present, the local police are subpoenaing Instagram to prosecute a guy who identity thefted my son, saying we had an open door for a party! I will press charges! Cops saved my family from visitors!

If you don't know the laws, your ignorance hurts you! My second car horn regularly educates people who didn't take their driver's test in Texas! Your ignorance hurts people, endangers lives, harms productivity, etc. Did you know Texas is installing more right turn lanes, because I prodded our governor to do so?

Get involved! Be the solution you want to see in others! I don't do pop culture psychology, much, so back to my favorite... inventions: Showers are NOT needed to spray, except to wet and rinse you! A heater could keep you warm, inbetween! Why waste precious water "because you can" afford to do so? That's NOT smart or moral.

I just started a David Koresh show. Trump cult comparisons will be made in my curious mind! One 'charismatic' leader, total allegiance demanded, critical and independent thinking disallowed and shunned. Everyone there to serve the egoist leader! Control freak. Sound familiar? Remembering my Baylor days.

Do you watch the X Games? Snowmobiles do flips! Things unheard of are done by snow boarders! It ALL starts with an idea! You can't find MORE ideas on solutions than I've written, all from one author... impossible. ALL glory to God.

I love the NBA, but NEVER watch entire games. Show me a TV highlight of the best plays and moves and dribbles, passes, blocks and dunks—five minutes maximum, then give the final score. THAT I might pay a little money for! I ain't got time, nor do you, if you're productive. 13 books in 11 years, and much more!

Why is music TV always worse than the radio? 24/7 formatting, vs. only 3am to ~midnight? I want a radio and TV station that airs my playlist, and music videos to match! I want to speak to my car radio, and my song is found on any U.S. Radio station, playing it then! You accept a primitive society! WHY? I don't.

Top 28 viewership, today. That ALWAYS happens when you speak on innovation! Want to lose 30 pounds in 30 days, and eat all you want of what you like? A half gallon of water, 20 minutes before all three meals! The problem is, I've done it three times, but the pounds I lose can always be found—they hide in easy hiding places!

Do you want to be more creative? Listen to classic music, jazz, and READ! I have four college degrees (JD/MBA/MDiv/BBA), and four post grad studies that didn't lead to a degree. I'm NOT bragging—FACT. Knowledge is power.

INVENTIONS FOR 'ACTS OF GOD'

(4/17/20)

We need automatic, instant response drones to breaking natural disasters, carrying technology that can avert or alleviate most if not all of their devastating forces!

Ideally, every natural disaster/act of God is an energy source, if captured! Geothermal is way under-utilized, as magma way down deep is always churning, and the steam power could be tapped into all over the world! That doesn't even pollute; solar and wind, as well! All these cost investing money!

Insurance is a great and easier solution to natural disasters. You either pay in enough to cover their clean-up and re-building, or you spend money on infrastructure to lessen their impact. Or you can ignore them, and cry when they hit.

It's AWESOME that we have warning alarms just before disasters strike! Now take it to the next logical step, and devise technology to thwart them, ameliorate their negative impact, or even prevent them, if any factors aid in their occurring. Ex.: Water available for expected droughts!

Wildfires: Underground pipelines connected to the ocean are needed for California infrastructure. SURELY their cost is LESS than the destruction and devastation we have all witnessed the past eight years (5 summers?!). The water's there to put out the fires, but NOT accessible to fire fighters!

Earthquakes: Surely scientists know the pressure points, fault lines, and historic regions that erupt, from seismic studies, etc. Couldn't pressure be released, thru drilling into those pockets to relieve some tension, and use the released energy convertible into fuel? High stress explodes!

Tornadoes: Circulating wind turbulence. COULD we invent something to reverse the spin, to nullify/neutralize its devastation, by slowing the spinning to a crawl or stop? Air-dropped chemical or machine (giant fan-like device or drone)? Undoing the swift-moving spin is the key!

Drought: Miami is sinking, supposedly sea water levels are rising, from melting ice caps. We have pumps and pipes! Drain the unwanted excess to deserts, or drought-plighted regions, like we transfer oil from Houston (Pasadena/Deer Park) to the rest of the nation. It all takes money!

Huge hail: Couldn't we use lasers to shoot it down, like we have missile defense technology? It's not a huge problem, so no need for such extremes. Maybe if a comet were facing us! Tornadoes pop up quickly, but meteorologists see the signs of danger, with enough time for us to react.

Tsunamis: Is there any conceivable technology we could devise to dissipate the direct direction they travel, once triggered, so their well breaks up into every direction, or gets channeled out back into the open waters/ocean? Quick response would be required, like a mini bomb.

Ice: How could we invent machines to melt ice, but not damage the roads, in winter? Same with huge snowdrifts (blown hot air?). It's one thing to make earthquake-resistant structures, but, ultimately, you can't stop mother nature's destruction! Try to stop the disasters at their source!

IF vehicle emissions are causing the temperatures to rise, over time, can we invent a counteracting force that freezes emissions, or at least neutralizes their heat? Catalytic converters helped reduce pollution. Can we reduce it twice as much, with new technology? Carbon capture?

ON THE PALESTINIAN PROBLEM

Concerning settling the "Palestine" problem, I have a friend in the car repair business who has NEVER ceases to slander Jews, every time I see him (which is often, with two older cars). They consider 1948 THEFT of their land! NOTHING you can do will allay those feelings, for good.

You can work temporary and minor means of forcing the two to get along (as my political books detail), but even though its historically IN-accurate, they FEEL like someone broke into their home and kicked them out, and claimed it for their own. HOW do you remedy that feeling, when Arabs and Islamists DID occupy that area pre-1948?

Jews were thrown out of their nation in 70 AD, and have been dispersed ever since. Other people take over the place and its structures, after 2,000 years! They were devastated by Hitler, so The West felt they needed a place, and it fulfilled Bible prophecy, but it came at the cost of unsettling Palestinians. That was NOT fair to them.

Wars aren't the same as that, as Arab types weren't Hitler's minions, but now they're acting like him, wanting Israel wiped off the map, and denying the Holocaust, from anger that their assets got forced out of their hands in 1948. Wouldn't that anger you, if Germans weren't punished by a land grab, but Palestinians?

The ONLY way to determine fairness, when both sides want the land, is all-out war, and may the best man win, but that's unreasonable, and not a good solution! But it's what Iran, the PLO and Hezbollah et al want, as someone took their assets. It DOESN'T help when Israel grabs even more space by over-development of apartments, etc., and restricts Arab flow and access.

It was an unjust taking in 1948, but the Jews aren't 'gonna leave, but the Palestinians shouldn't be treated as second-hand stepchildren, after we The West took their assets for a much-maligned and devastated Jewish people!

Justice isn't really a consideration, under current circumstances, but what is practical? Only Jesus will settle this issue, when He returns, but you don't conduct foreign policy based on religious beliefs about prophecy (vs. morality).

I ask you once again to think how you'd feel if Mexicans came up to your state, and pushed you out of your home, had you live in tent cities, and just wanted you to accept it for centuries, with no resolution.

If it had been by war, to the victor go the spoils, as with America vs. Mexico (which even La Raza sought to un-do). We even have the Hatfield's and McCoy's, and angst over Civil War monument removals, as the losing side still isn't happy, though they somewhat accept outcomes.

The point is you can't make Islamists and Arabs like Jews, who live where they used to! Peaceful coexistence is the BEST you can hope for. For more, see our political books!

ISRAEL IDIOCY POLICIES

NO negotiating, just one-sided action, like moving U.S. Embassy. These things MAY, humanly, cause the opposition to Israel that necessitates the Antichrist, as it is unjustly dictated vs. brokered.

Pompeo's new policy on Settlements is more radical than the Israeli government policy. It implies U.S. Recognition of a de-Facto Israeli annexation of most of the West Bank and seems to be a violation of the spirit of the "Abraham Accords" and the UAE-Israel peace treaty.

It is PURE IGNORANCE to apply prophetic and religious edicts to modern, real-life Middle East national policy, like all the land belongs to the Jews, so just seize territory and disrupt settlers. You apply Bible morals, where you can, but it is not international law. Confused Christians!

WHAT IF the Quran said China territory belongs to Muslims? Would the world simply let Muslims annex that nation like we let Putin take Ukraine? Religious texts do not control national policies, except morality should. Blood transfusions, polygamy. Secular laws conflict with religion.

From the Palestinian's viewpoint (NOT the violent terrorists'), their land was STOLEN in 1948! That IS true! It may have been prophetic, but it was UNjust. They're angry, and treated as red-headed step kids. Their RIGHTFUL anger can turn to violence. I HOPE it leads to prophecy!

Anytime anyone forces things against people's will, because they can, and all sides' interests aren't considered, backlash from injustice inevitably comes, and expectedly if not rightly so, just like Biden may stack SCOTUS from forcing con Justices, because GOP's could. INjustice angers.

The second half of the Tribulation, the Beast slaughters Jews and seeks full genocide (but doesn't get it). There's ZERO Bible evidence all Jews occupy the entire land Abe was promised! They're already in the land. Stealing territory from abused people is evil, and has NOTHING to do with the Bible.

If any human has attitude that what's right to do is what I can get away with, or whatever I alone want, America would invade Dubai, and every rich and beautiful land mass, because we probably could get away with it, militarily. My way or the highway arrogance is SIN, and NOT morally right!

Many people feel sorrow for getting caught; not for doing evil deeds. If Clinton hadn't gotten caught with the blue dress, I'm not certain he'd have stopped, or felt it beyond the pale to continue. Getting caught can be a deterrence, vs. getting away with things. That's NOT a moral attitude.

EVERYONE knows Putin's annexing of Ukraine during the Olympics was EVIL and WRONG, though he had some historic relation with the peoples and region. Stealing and tearing down Palestinian homes and lands is EVIL! 1948 was unjust, though the Jews deserved a permanent home. Forced Arab unsettling!

The Jews were WRONGLY kicked out of Israel in 70AD. The diaspora/exile lasted centuries. What Hitler did to them was intolerable, and they couldn't stay in a land with such holocaust horrible memories and lingering dangers of secret Nazis. But stealing Israel land from owners was immoral.

I'm THRILLED it occurred, from a Bible prophecy standpoint, but politically and morally it was unjust theft, and evil! I doubt the home and land owners were paid fair market rates! They were stashed in tent camps (~300K, now), in desert areas, with no perm land or political clout! UNjust!

ALL the Middle East angst and anger stems from that one move! It will one day "soon" cause Bible prophecy! Even Iran wants to nuke Jews, with their 12 times enriched Uranium stockpile! Hatred of the Jews continues near Hitler rates, mainly from 1948 state establishment in Arab's possession.

Anger at the Jews will cause mainly Arab nations to unite against her, necessitating a 7-year peace deals brokering, soon. The more Israel leadership takes over occupied land, the anger increases, further endangering Jews from the pre-prophecy hateful violence requiring the Beast!
2-state solution is only reasonable solution!

Safety ensured, business allowed, terrorists controlled, separate areas, separately governed. This is temporary, as prophecy will be the next step we can't control! Keep stealing Arab land, and you hasten it, evilly vs. morally! II Pet. 3:12

ALWAYS amazed at what topics I wake up to write about! I was working on New Testament insight writing. News events attract our interest, and need for clear perspective. Justice is always God's concern, even as people unjustly apply Gen. 12:1-3 Favoritism between peaceful vs. violent people is evil.

Part of me craves Israel behaving evilly toward Palestinians, ONLY because they will RIGHTLY retaliate, and even go beyond that, which likely will bring about Bible prophecy. I don't wish it on anyone, but it's inevitable and I've warned about it for years, and about the need for evangelism!

The attitude that Israel can do no wrong, because it's their land and their God's people is about as biblically stupid as saying WASPs own America, and can do anything they want with our laws! NOWHERE does God say being His people entitles anyone to sin or do injustice. Bible illiteracy!

ISRAEL

My friend I met, yesterday, had his home confiscated at gun point, for not fiscal remuneration, when he sought to come to America, at the hands of Jewish authorities in Palestine. That is EVIL! He said it's their law. That only means their laws are EVIL! Injustice! (which is EVIL)

I am 100 percent FOR Israel being protected and safe, but also for her behaving morally, vs. abusively! America has to support our allies, but when they do wrong, our relationship is no substitute for their necessity of doing right and justice. Ex: toward the Palestinians! Never support evil! (5/10/21-2)

We believe were right, and enjoy hanging with people who agree with us, or we have most common ground with. So denominations NEVER seem to have debates on right doctrine! You have to prove up your beliefs, lest they cause division to God's unity, or deviation, from God's morality. (5/10/21-2) 1948 happened. It was general consensus of the major world powers who won two world wars, to remedy how Hitler treated the Jewish nation and it had historic roots, as the Jews never freely abandoned their homeland, but were forced out in 70AD. However, during the intervening 1878 years others came and went in that land! People established rights to their land and property.

Quite literally, religious concerns aren't legal concerns, so Bible claims to the land were irrelevant to Palestinian rights to land they possessed for so long (well longer than squatter rights).

People got displaced/uprooted, and forcibly removed from their own property and land. Was it just? NOT to Palestinians. Was it right, for the Jews, who lost their land eons earlier. It certainly seemed right for them to return home, as the Diaspora separated them for eons. How the allies decided to do it, they so decided, 73 years ago! NO ONE is 'gonna undo that decision!

Also, all-out war for the land, winner takes all, is irrational and immoral, even if Arabs were armed enough to equal U.S.-backed weaponry Israel has. You can ONLY share the land! You can still hate, but hate can't turn violent, or authorities have every right to capture and incarcerate you!

However, Israel continues to confiscate land, building apartments. This is EVIL! They even rip people out of homes, guns drawn, and recompense them zero money.

The Middle East needs to either have all-out war, or learn to peacefully co-exist. I prefer the latter, obviously. I don't know what it will take, in intensity of conflicts, for all parties involved to see mutually-assured destruction is not an option. Learn your lessons, fools!

In ALL these conflicts, you have three options—all-out war/annihilation of opponent, peaceful toleration or continued fighting less than all-out war! NOTHING ELSE! You don't have to forgive, if your evil. You don't have to like 'em. You don't have to forget the past. But you are absolute FOOLS if you can't take addressing if not even improving reality, peacefully.

I understand Shia vs. Sunni is a BIG deal, among Arabs, but Islam, hatred of Israel and commonality in bloodline to Abraham will likely unite them all vs. Israel, someday soon. China and Russia will empower 'em, militarily, vs. America and Jews, IMO. I'd bet on it.

America could save A LOT of money and manpower, just beefing up Israel's defenses, and completely exiting the Middle East, except for our oil interests! They don't want us there, and we don't enjoy the experience. Oil and Israel's safety are our only national interests there!

But her defense of Israel could exacerbate the enmity vs. Israel, meaning increased violence there. and the very same nations who have the capacity to defeat America, if they united, could unite to attack her, instead, from hatred of us, but wise enough not to stoke the bear, America. Why would I actually hope Israel's enemies unite vs. her, for prophecy to begin!

I'd NEVER help or encourage 'em to, but Chumps Iran actions likely started that process, and I'm noting it! I even posted news articles about Arab nations being armed by Russia and China. It's happening, folks! Exciting!

Is it binary, good or bad-period? Pro-Israel REALLY got abused/warped, recently (Gen 12:3/Ps 122:6), in U.S. public policy FAVORING all Jews over Arabs (not distinguishing violent from peaceful ones, on either side), in an arbitrary embassy removal and capital announcement, AS IF America decides what other countries decide.

Enemy nations are NOT 'gonna roll over and just take U.S. Air superiority with unmanned drone strikes! I'd bet you China and Russia are already secretly speaking with Arab lands about nuke armament and drones of their own, ALL uniting vs. Israel and America. WATCH me prove my hunch, by any precursor actions:

And Israel is NOT innocent! DUMB Christians FEEL because they're God's chosen people, and were to honor em, that means overlook their sins, especially abuse of Arabs and Palestinians. That's IRRational, and UNbiblical interpretation! God's NEVER for sin or INjustice! Zionists—destined to dominate? That's NOT God's edict.

I'm GLAD 1948 occurred, because I want Bible prophecy to occur, and it couldn't if Israel weren't in her land. But it was unjust! any human gets angry being treated unjustly. That's human nature. America has ZERO right before God to treat Arabs as second class to Jews! Violent Arabs, UES! Peaceful—NO!

Any Christian has to be pro-Israel. BUT they also have to be pro-justice, and NOT anti-Arab, unless the Jew or Arab is violent or criminal, in which case no one is for them. This TRUTH is not as simplistic as a political slogan of 1-2 words! Simpleton is not biblical Christianity!

The displaced Palestinians have a legitimate gripe about their lives having been unjustly disrupted and property stolen in 1948! That wound will never heal, and why should it? If someone took your home, by force of arms, would you roll over and take it, even decades later? I wouldn't!

Israel MUST change their zoning laws, to either erect skyscrapers and tall condos, or build underground! Taking more land Palestinians claim, because you can, only exacerbates normal-to-be expected tensions! Go below, if ~2 story is a maximum, to preserve history!

Tents and temporary shelter for >300K Palestinians can never be deemed a rational solution, for more than perhaps a year! How hard is it to see if you got your home stolen, then were given a tent to live in, you might resort to violence, as anger built up over decades?

New underground architecture isn't hard to imagine, where sunlight can make it livable, for land-locked Israel. Modern technology can facilitate it not being dark, though the window views would need to be virtual or live streamed. Do it for expanding land mass, or build upwards!

There are ways to build Israeli skyscrapers that don't violate the historic look! The exact exterior material, all glass, mirror, or even technology-deflected facades that disguise the structure above a certain level are all technologically possible! > than seizing disputed land!

I want to search the web to see if any designer has created an underground town, where they have scenery, likely virtual, and also pumped-in sunlight, as that's what Israel needs more than anything else! It's a constant 60 degrees six feet down, and geothermal can be cheap or free!...

(5/16/21-2)

Being pro-Israel does NOT being pro Israel's sins! Christians are to oppose evil and support good. IF any claiming "Christian" EVER wants to debate me on this, I'll bring a Bible, and they can bring their opinions and conspiracy theories, because they won't need a Bible for their view!

I have sarcastically and logic-mockingly said the Middle East Hatfield's vs. McCoy's skirmishes need to go to all-out war, if forgiveness and justice are avowed enemies of either side. Some people will forever hate the other side, and want them thrown into the sea. HOW can you coexist with 'em?

(5/16/21-2)

The Palestinians have endured DECADES of mistreatment, compared to justice! We ALL condemn all violence, but when complaints go unresponded to, and they have no official government entity with brokering power, it's not unexpected they turn to EVIL violence! SOLVE THEIR PROBLEM(S)!

We in the West DON'T want to deal with how 1948 negatively impacted Palestinians! It's easier to label their physical disgruntledness "terrorism," than to address their legitimate complaints! I'm 100 percent against terrorism, but do they have ANY valid concerns angering 'em from injustice?

We in the West say vote, protest, be activist for new laws, organize voters, put up billboards and bumper stickers, and run for office. These civil means of change aren't readily available to Palestinians, to change their plight! So some turn violent, evilly. WHAT options have they?

Palestinians would have more freedom, if so many of them weren't inwardly avowed to wipe Israel off the map! More freedom, used to incite more violence and attacks, will and should NEVER be given! You get what you deserve, in responsible vs. evil choices! Jews self-defense is a virtue!

Even the Hatfield's and McCoy's weren't fighting over who owns the same edifice! You can't split cities into dual citizen centers! The historic animosity NEEDS physical separation, and inability to be violent if in shared areas, temporarily! #CommonSense Coexist by disallowing lack of peace!

Palestinians WANT what Jews have possession of. They had it before, in history (pre-1948), as did the Jews (pre-70AD). 1948 was needed for Hitler-desecrated Jews, but can't be said to have been JUST to Palestinians who owned and lived there! U.S. And the West MUST face INjustices!

The West SO backs Israel, they often back their sins. That is NOT what support means! Re-read this until you comprehend, if ever. Palestinians deserve a decent life, and the right to address grievances, peacefully. NO such adequate mechanism, presently?

Palestinian Arabs and Islamists, who desire to kill Jews, have to be identified! The others NEED NOT be stereotypedly lumped into the West's view of all Palestinians. If you had zero recourse to any injustices, you too may turn violent! FIX this and you solve the Middle East problem!

I've said for YEARS my Bible reading makes me think Antichrist will meet with Arabs, secretly, and collude to pretend brokering a 7-year peace deal, always intending it only for 3.5 years. WATCH for anyone meeting with Palestinian leaders, and expect secret meetings, including arms Discussions.

I've also said when skirmishes get bad enough in Israel, the Antichrist should be revealed, to seek to broker fake peace. I am for peace! I'm against violence! At the same time, if things escalate, there, as a Christian I'm ecstatic that the Rapture could be that close! Pray for all.

Wearing moccasins is #1 way to solve problems! HOW WOULD YOU FEEL and react, if someone took control of all you worked for (material assets of home and furnishings), and kicked you out, even for a moral cause of giving Jews a home? You wouldn't take it, if you're an American! You'd fight!

Let bygones be bygones doesn't help, when injustice is suffered! Stealing people's property angers rational people, just like U.S. Taxpayers despise freebies handed out off our backs! Palestinians were NOT given good living situations, post-1948, and time doesn't heal all wounds! Duh101

There was a divorced couple who loved their home so much they partitioned it. That's NOT a feasible solution for Israel! Palestinians deserve peaceful (disarmed) access to places, and decent living quarters. Jews CAN'T be safe with armed people you can't ID as ill-willed vs. good-willed!

Jews are NOT going to give up what they occupy and possess! Only a nuclear war would move them out. So Palestinians need to seek the next best thing, or lesser. Israel has a responsibility to do right to Palestinians, before YHWH. Even God's people sin, and He is NOT pleased with that!

Palestinians likely feel bitter that Jews occupy what was their place, pre-1948! Palestinians didn't evict Jews in 70AD! Palestinians didn't fund or back Hitler's atrocities against Jews! They feel like unjustly abused scapegoats!?

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/History_of_the_State_of_Palestine#:~:text=The%20Gaza%20Strip%20came%20under,to%20establish%20a%20Palestinian%20state...

Freely vs. forcibly build a Palestinian state that's so awesome, Palestinians can get over—over time—the anger at losing Israel to Jews in 1948! The West and the world OWES this solution to them, since we insisted they be evacuated, to make room for dispersed and wrongly treated Jews.

NO Jew can EVER trust an armed Palestinian in the land of Israel! Too much history and baggage, causing VALID fears of attacks. If Jewish police and military are NOT allowed to abuse their authority, Palestinians wouldn't feel a need for armed self-defense, traveling in Israel! DUH101

Cooperative economic and social activities could heal the dispute, a little. Like social media warriors, bold online and wusses in real life, distance estranges people to say things they wouldn't in person! Get Jews and Palestinians having united goals with economic payoffs! #CommonSense

WHY I believe the Antichrist secretly allies with Arabs is:

1. He persecuted Jews, 3.5 years after.
2. Peace is needed when it is absent, so violence must be intense.
3. He's an evil LIAR, so seven years was likely never intended, IMO! Just a ruse, for global power!

A danger of political liberalism is many (most?) of them DON'T believe bad things happen when countries oppose Israel, or that any of these events could usher in Bible prophecy. They will learn otherwise, but too late to fix their ERROR!

Palestinians need to build their own Utopia, outside Israel proper, as a 2-state implementation strategy! ALL Arab nations could help fund them, as their cultural brethren, with oil profits. IF it never threatened Israel, the world would welcome this answer. NOT justice, but OK!

Roll over and take it is the attitude of a rapist! Palestinians aren't 'gonna ask how high they must jump! To the extent they seek justice, NO CHRISTIAN can deny them that ambition! ANY unjust behavior by either side MUST be condemned by any claiming "Christian!" HERETICS won't do that.

To the extent Jews behave as the people of God (i.e., morally), to that extent Christians should treat them as the people of God! Ignoring rights of Palestinians, or how they benefitted from 1948 taking the land from Palestinians, will NEVER be overlooked by most moral people—EVER!

Christians MUST be equally for nonviolent Jews and Palestinians, even as we support the nation of Israel and its existence in its historic homeland. Justice isn't to be thwarted, by 'pro-Israel' overlooking Israeli or Palestinian sins. Equally oppose evil(s)!

MY mistake!: Israel already has high rises! No laws forbidding them, totally, obviously, so STOP taking disputed lands, and build MORE! Duh 101

(5/18/21-2)

Israel IS the Jews' home, forever, before God, but that fact has NOTHING to do with secular and governmental laws! GOD will give them it ALL, in another era, called the Millennium. Us trying to play God, from an American theocratic attitude is just that, like those who play God when they take a life.

I believe the Jews deserved a safe haven of united communing, after Hitler, and I'm GLAD it was chosen to be in the holy land (the ONLY natural choice), but eminent domain without fair market value payment to who occupied it in 1948 was UNjust. You CAN'T debate it!

Jews aren't even going to get all their Abe-promised land, even in the FUTURE, as they get persecuted and many expelled, in a COMING 7-year period, mainly the second half! To argue they own and deserve it ALL is biblical ignorance and short-sightedness of prophecy and the 1K year reign of Christ

Anti-Semitism is EVIL. Anti-Jewish sins is NOT, nor is anti-Muslim and Arab and Palestinian and black and white, red yellow and brown sins! #CommonSense Love the sinner, hate the sin. Support for the person is NOT support for all deeds, or you embrace, encourage and empower evil. DUH

(5/20/21-2)

IF Martians invaded TX, and stole all I owned, and forced me out of TX at gun point, I'd ALWAYS resent that and want justice! Just because major world consensus was to return Jews to Israel doesn't mean those who were there were treated right, in that process! HOW do you move on, given bad living conditions in exile?

Injustice ALWAYS breeds resentment, and often anger, if not rarely violence. The violence is never justified/the answer, but if Palestinians are ignored by Jewish leadership, WHAT AVENUES TO THEY POSSESS FOR REGRESS OF THEIR GRIEVANCES?

HAMAS and Iran may want Jews drowned in the sea, but that goal will NOT be achieved! Rational Arabs have to understand that, because living Jews aren't going anywhere! Genocide won't happen, and U.S. And the West will ALWAYS make sure of that. NOT a valid objective for anyone with a brain!

WHY do you think America had 9-11, the USS Kohl and the Iranian hostage crisis Reagan's strong stand and threats ended? ALL this animosity and hostility ties back to 1948! It ALWAYS will, until justice is gained for BOTH sides—not mainly one! Pre-Christ's return, that means Jews safe, and

If you missed NBC's Lester Holt's prison special, you PROBABLY have MANY misconceptions about prison! AMAZING, eye-opening, must see TV, if it's ever viewable again!

<https://nbcnews.com/.../lester-holt-what-i-learned...>

... (Mt. 25:36; Heb. 13:3) MANY changes (i.e., up to 10) are needed, to be humane and just! @NBC @LesterHoltNBC

There were many examples of over-punishment, little humanity, hard to retain sanity, little family contact, sometimes NO preparation to re-enter the outside world, resentment can make people MORE criminal, tight quarters, stress on guards, unreasonable noise conditions, the elderly getting no relief, slave wages, etc.

Some people can change, over (hard) time. One guy earned a Master's degree in prison, and one got out to found a charity to help people acclimate after release. The show WAS biased toward criminals vs. victims. If you can't do the time, don't do the crime, but some changes are needed, vs. lock them up and throw away the key.

The stat that five to six times more blacks are imprisoned, to whites, ONLY means a MUCH higher percent of blacks commit crime, IF and only if they are rightly accused, as their percent of the population is ~13 percent. There's NO racial discrimination if they're rightly convicted! Bad circumstances facilitating crime need fixing.

People in poor 'hoods would naturally be more despairing, needy (perhaps inclined to steal), and with gangs and absentee fathers, violence would be expected to be greater than in nice neighborhoods with less pressures and crime temptations! Why would the well-off commit crime, and risk losing it all?

Two cents an hour IS virtual slavery. Either don't make them work, give them credit in the commissary, for their work, or pay them minimum wage, from benefitted businesses! There's ZERO reason why any inmate has to feel the guy next door (i.e., in a separate cell) moving on his bed. POOR architecture design! #STUPIDITY And people yelling during sleeping hours? That's intolerable!

Juveniles are RIGHTLY getting second chances, later on in life, but ONLY because prisoners sued! Lifers should always get objectively evaluated for their crime potentiality, vs. parole boards as the "experts" on recidivism's likelihood. If you give a jail bird NO skills for the outside world, they're often 'gonna do crime.

If you give a prisoner $100 and say 'good luck,' they're 'gonna steal to survive. If there's NO counseling in prison, or conditions are deplorable, you're ONLY asking for people to get angrier, so you risk more violence in prison, or if they are released. Making them pick veggies ISN'T a job skill they'd likely use in the free world!

Prison IS punishment, but it CAN'T be over-punishment, or never prepare them for release. They need internal change, to never repeat their offenses, but they'll be our neighbors, one day.

Ethics and religion need to be taught inside there, ethics as mandatory; religion as optional (for legal purposes). They've got to feel loved (Mt. 25:36; Heb. 13:3)

Shanks, sodomy, fights, murders in prison... WE on the outside may say they get what they deserve, but do they deserve THAT, when they're already couped up as their legal punishment? NO judge ever sentences anyone to those actions!

Rewards for good behavior (Ex.: more freedoms) was a WISE strategy used in the Louisiana facility, as with NOT incarcerating non-violent offenders. Tax payers should NOT be on the hook if prisoners can earn their keep with job skills businesses can profit from! Pay your way (i.e., jail housing costs), and have marketable skills (and maybe that job) when you're released.

The TV show Sixty Days In shows guards and wardens having NO IDEA what goes on, little control of theft, fights, drugs and gangs. The inmates are sometimes in charge of the asylum! Under-staffed, and ignorant authorities, as bad things happen in secret, where cameras don't exist, or recording devices can't capture whispered conversations. A DUMB system!

The ONLY aspect of Lester's documentary that was like slavery days WASN'T the race of the majority of criminals, but two cents an hour pay! Have businesses hire them, and they get job training inside prison!

NO cop arrests people just because they're black! You HAVE to have probable cause even to question suspects! That was a false narrative/slant to the show last evening.

Robocop suits for prison guards—especially smaller females—should be mandatory, as Sixty Days In shows prison personnel often don't enter, except in force/en masse, but watch through windows and by cameras. HOW can you break up fights from the outside? You are there to keep law and order/peace, safely NOT endangering your own health!

Bottom line, if you rape or kill someone, EXPECT a miserable, almost meaningless life thereafter! Young people NEED to visit prisons, to learn that even if their brains aren't fully developed, murder is never an option, NO MATTER your circumstances in life—PERIOD! A high school field trip is needed!

NOT seeing sunlight for YEARS, or trees and grass is cruel for anyone! Surely we can do better than that! Jails reflect our values. 'Cruel and unusual' is the prohibited legal standard. Prisoners' kids deserve to have decent contact—it humanizes the prisoner, and is needed by family members, for their health and sanity.

I have ZERO idea how prisoners who get zero sex for decades, DON'T try to sodomize. THAT element of prison life MUST be addressed, as no one deserves to be the victim of a sexually frustrated prisoner. He's NOT even gay—just repressed of natural inclinations. There are fixes, that don't necessarily involve conjugal visits!

HOW can you PROVE a murderer is rehabilitated? Lie detectors have some value, years after the crime, when they claim they'd never recitivise. Ankle monitors CAN'T be able to be cut off! Would you want a murderer who did his time in your neighborhood? Not I! Some acts are near unforgiveable by society! That was your choice.

Rapist, child molester, armed robber and murderer... you engage THESE crimes, and EXPECT your remaining life is 'gonna be Hell! That lesson, taught by convicts going to middle schools, OUGHT to be a program we consider, especially in stressful neighborhoods with high crime statistics. Educate, deter, incentivize.

As always, technology can fix MANY prison problems! Long distance Tasers anytime a fight starts or escapee gets loose. Shot nets of wild animal managers used on escapees. Sensors to detect fights, sodomy, and shanks being made (i.e., MORE cameras). Robots to monitor them in their free time, to NOT escape.

Fights occur on what TV show to watch. Why not three or four TV's, so that doesn't occur? Gangs NEED to be separated, or NOT allowed to unite behind bars! There is much racial unity in prison! Why aren't "multicultural" classes forced on them there, vs. on we free citizens? The ability to control gangs or criminal enterprises from inside jail SHOULD'N'T OCCUR!

Drugs should NEVER be able to enter a prison from the outside! NO prisoner should ever be bullied into giving up food to thugs! Outside phone calls shouldn't result in fights, but an orderly process established and enforced. Suicide shouldn't be able to occur, with bed sheets! #Epstein example.

Why are males MUCH more prone to crime than females, statistically? Too much testosterone? Science can lessen those levels! Gangs NEED monitoring, and drug deals conducted safely and fairly in the light of day, since they're 'gonna be conducted anyway.

There are programs to solve gangs! <https://crimesolutions.gov/ProgramDetails.aspx?ID=275>

Government monitoring fatherless kids, to have mentors, so gangs aren't a social appeal. NO gang member should ever have any weapon, ideally! We all know there's only bad things 'gonna come of that, yet they need self-defense, as other gangs are armed, and shouldn't be allowed to be!
#CommonSense

Some people steal because they're addicts; some because they're poor; some because they're evil. Addicts need a way off drugs, but that costs money, and any of their disposable income goes to feed their habit.

Why do men rape? Too high testosterone, so it's a power act vs. lack of romance! Pills likely exist for that imbalance!

We NEED MORE deterrence! Some males 'wanna rape, because women are often physically weaker, and they have sex drives. Would they reconsider if they faced mild torture, or grueling physical labor in prison, or Bully Beatdown events after caught/arrested? Jail is an upgrade for some folk.

Could frontlines service in war be an earnable way to pay off your crime? Is it right that people who do the time still get labeled/branded, can't find work, and are on watch lists, so NO neighbors want them in their part of town? That's over-punishment! UN-just. 'And justice for all' means no injustice to any!

I've NEVER been a crime victim, but I was a bully victim, and I don't think victims can ever be objective on how much time is enough! I STILL 'wanna punch junior high's Larson, Wilson the 2 twins and the thug who came to my home's front door in 1973! That's NOT how legal sentencing should be determined!

An eye for an eye is NOT Jesus' model, Mr. TRUMP (his favorite verse). Nor is applying 'turn the other cheek' and forgive 70 times 7... those AREN'T law enforcement prescriptions, or military strategy, but individual behavioral mandates! Seek justice! (Micah 6:8)

CONFRONTING CRIME

What are ways to reduce crime or increase justice, and which work best?

1. On the latter question, I don't know, but comparative scientific research NEEDS to be had!
2. On the former, people have used ALL of the following: Cops on the beat, more public cameras, more cops, computer software detailing crime hot spots (from history or criminal records of residences), airplanes with cameras to film life for replay when a crime occurs, Hell's Angels, community watch groups, billboards ('Have you seen me?'), milk carton pictures, TV shows (John Walsh and Live PD bios of crooks).

IF a song had a criminal's real name in them, it would stick in people's head (like Jim Croce's Leroy Brown). Robots could also be used. We've also used PSA's (Ex.: McGruff the crime dog), celebrity commercials (like with trafficked females), confidential informants, Amber alerts, Crime Stopper rewards, and TV news articles.

Deterrence and detention are the carrot and stick, but you've got to identify and capture them (the First 48 TV show has excellent tips for that), but better is to NOT have crimes occur.

Research what incentivizes law-breakers, and seek early childhood interventions for kids heading down that wrongful path! Psychology and counseling, and profiles of the troubled teen, and family histories that can lead to it (like dads in jail, or impoverished circumstances with gang or drug influences). Church/religion would be a great solution to get in kids' heads, if not even a better required civics course, teaching good citizenship values.

Gangs should be on cops' radar, as they're usually up to no good! People in the circle to speak into people's lives need to monitor the degrees of anger and resentment, as it often leads to violence.

Any bad laws that allow a revolving door are OPPOSING progress in justice/crime prevention, or light sentences from jail over-crowding; but also, over-punishment leaves anger/bitterness in prisoner's mouth, and anyone who WILL get out NEEDS successful rehab. One jail gives prisoners much freedom, and the comforts of home, as a means to inspire their turning their lives around.

MANY are the methods, but I'm NOT sure we've ever fully studied what works better! Ring door bells have helped prevent break-ins, open carry laws should be studied as how Texas deters, in part. Getting people to NOT engage crime is better than ways to catch and punish them! Are there any DNA indicators, or public school behavioral ones?

(4/11/20)

HERE's how jail/prison SHOULD be, and you then compare this list to how it IS, to identify problems needing changing, post haste: NO shanks or contraband, no fights or shakedowns to force/bully one into giving their food or commissary money to anyone else, no godfather gang or organized crime activity run from behind bars, no hopelessness, dominating what's on the only one TV, racial cliques, violence, threatening inmates or guards, lack of guard protections at all times.

In short, as we're all quarantined, we see having no freedom is punishment enough—punishment must match the crime—not over-do it!

Many jailbirds WILL be released back into society. WHY would we want them incapable of getting a job, or tempted to return to a life of crime? Rehabilitation must occur, and often doesn't! 'Lifers' have zero incentives not to act up, for what do they have to lose, so they should never be in with the others!

Job skills, motivation, counseling—ALL needed, and cameras everywhere, and mounted Tasers, remote-controlled and able to be targeted against those who act up, as guards are out-numbered, and should NEVER risk life or limb doing their jobs—period! If the TV show 60 Days In is any indication, the inmates run the asylum!

At least for those who WILL return to society, prison should force murder suspects to visit a funeral (Ex.: observe family tears), morgue and cemetery, as part of rehab, as with psychological counseling, and a tour of places where they could dream to live, if they got on the right path. Hope and punishment. (4/14/20)

Update #2 (5/30/20)

The First 48 TV show (my favorite) is NOT racially biased, by showing as many suspects as they can film, who are predominantly of one race. That FACT needs to be remedied, by peaceful and wise members of that race (and others), as the criminal element brings down the reputation of all their God-fearers who aren't evil!

WHAT leads people into crime? Poverty? Bad role model parents? Gang influence abounding? Perceived no other alternatives for financial advancement? Bad peers? (I Cor. 15:33) There are ZERO excuses, but there may be knowable causes!?

Understanding Why People Commit Crimes
Examine the theories behind criminal behavior, as well as the role forensic psychology plays in criminal justice. online.maryville.edu

If you steal, you do not value another human high enough, or their rights! If you murder, you do not value another human's life high enough. If you rape, you do not value another human's right to sexual independence high enough. In every case, you ARROGANTLY and evilly hold a low view of others. (Phil. 2:1-5)

SOME people do NOT care about others, or learn to value others, until they get humbled! Bullies beaten down sometimes change! Wife beaters and rapists might rehab if they got the living daylight MILDLY tortured out of them; a taste of their own medicine is what some people require, to grow up some!

CRIME & CULTURE

'Wanna know how far this race to extremism can go, started by Trump's three con SCOTUS picks, vs. seeking justice and balance? Rubio fears Biden will be forced to pack SCOTUS. Bloomberg's funding FL jailbirds voting, and there are 14 U.S. Territories they could get voters from for Socialism!

GOP's don't have a pool of untapped voters! They'd have to immigrate in ONLY rich people from other nations, in large numbers, to combat even illegal aliens Biden wants to grant amnesty and healthcare to. It is ALL a mad dash to Socialism for America. Poor people 'wanna steal America's wealth!

When you're poor—apparently—you want 'mo money, any way you can get it, and if a pol promises freebies, you latch on, with ZERO conscience as to whether it's just, right, or wrong. Your desperation is faster solved by handouts than working harder and smarter. Taxpayers WILL revolt to Socialism.

The MORE GOP's get MORE people benefitting from Capitalism, the better they can fend off Socialism, politically! Saying lower taxes and regulations means jobs is NOT 100% true, as business buy back stocks, spend the savings on robotics and automation, and only hire who they need! Often RHETORIC!

IF America had 'systemic racism,' Asians and Indians would have a hard time succeeding in America, 1-2 generations in. For the most part, they do NOT! They get college educated, work hard, fit in, and are GREAT assets to the U.S. Of A. Lessons for 'oppressed' claimers! Emulate success!

Hispanics and Latinos have NOT been enslaved in America! WHY they sometimes unite with many blacks, politically, astounds me! They are hard-workers, often Catholics, and don't share any closer skin color to them as Indians, yet they band together as Dems, often. Freebies unite folk?

ONLY rational reason Hispanics and Latinos are sometimes poor in America, is their heirs have immigrated from poor nations! America was 100% white, when founded, so 'brown' folk trace back to POOR nations, excepting the rich ones who have come here (a minority). Forget the past! Phil. 3:13

Unless one comes to America with money or great skills, they start on the bottom. Immigrants of old came here to work hard, to achieve the American Dream, by hard work! That type is ALWAYS welcome here! But sneaking in, or coming to vote in Socialism is anti-American and is NOT welcome here!

Let's say it even more clearly: NO ONE has ANY right to America's or Americans' money! Just because we're a rich nation, is zero reason we will allow anyone to force our funds from our possession, and that's not selfish or greedy. You're the SAME WAY with your own assets! ANTI-Socialism.

'Mi casa es tu casa' attitude ONLY works and is welcomed by people with puny huts! Reread 'til you comprehend. People don't mind donating what they freely choose to, but being forced to is political thievery/armed robbery, and they will RIGHTLY rebel. Earn your own keep, or leave America!

NAME me a predominantly black or brown nation that's wealthy! THAT is why immigration from such lands is politically suspicious. Poor people in America OFTEN vote Democrat for freebies, and few people turn down money politicians promise them for no effort. Even GOP's accept tax cuts without complaint!

It's NOT racial profiling to police based on statistics, as info to know, but NOT as authoritative for any given suspect, innocent 'til proven guilty! For example, blacks are 13.4% of the population, but Wiki says 53.5% of murders and 31.4% of non-aggravated assaults were by black people.

Chinese are 5.6% and Indians 2/4% of the American population. I'd BET their percent of crimes, especially murder, rape and robbery are FAR less than those two percentage numbers! It's a cultural issue! I'm always SHOCKED if they're arrested, like only a handful I've heard on DFW TV in 15 years.

"The criminal justice system is not broken; its functioning exactly as it was imagined." –LIE of Dr. Yussef Salaam on AETV Innocence Project ad. He's saying INNOCENT blacks are in jail are BY DESIGN! LIE! NO one is trying to use jails to replace slavery! Tainted EVIDENCE is RARE!

Of the gun murder victims in the United States between 2007 and 2016, 1.35% [were] Asian, 0.98% unknown race... EXACTLY as I surmised, and taken from U.S. Crime stats found at Wikipedia.

A police department would be STUPID and wastefully squandering taxpayers' money to heavily police neighborhoods not historically known to be crime-ridden! The need is to learn WHY people engage crime, to lessen the numbers! You can't cure a problem 'til you learn its cause! #Crime

"The causes of crime are complex. Poverty, parental neglect, low self-esteem, alcohol and drug abuse can be connected to why people break the law. Some are at greater risk of becoming offenders because of the circumstances into which they are born." Source:

They need to add gangs, lack of a dad (in some cases), and glamorizing being gangsta, especially in pop music and TV shows. Robbery makes sense, if one is poor (Pv. 6:30), but murder and rape are anger and ego/power control issues. First 48 shows people murder for jealousy, insurance money, anger and drugs. Why people rape: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Causes_of_sexual_violence...

For these [power] rapists, rape becomes a way to compensate for their underlying feelings of inadequacy and feeds their issues of mastery, control, dominance, strength, intimidation, authority and capability. Why people steal: <https://healthline.com/health/stealing...>

Stealing may be caused by jealousy, low self-esteem, or peer-pressure. Social issues like feeling excluded or overlooked... To prove their independence, to act out against family or friends, or because they don't respect others or themselves

Stealing: Kleptomania Causes, Symptoms, and Treatment

Why people murder: The four sets of 'Ls': Lust; Love; Loathing; and Loot: Lust: a lover kills a rival for his/her object of desire; the 'thrill-killer' who murders people because he gains a sexual payoff. Love: the 'mercy killing' of a baby with a major deformity or partner with... incurable cancer. <https://google.com/search?q=why%20people%20murder...>

Signs of people heading toward these motivators must be identified by friends and family, schools, neighbors, churches, etc. 'It takes a village.' #EndingCrime

Can you imagine a neighborhood with zero murders, rapes or robberies? Drug dealing and gangs often exacerbate "bad" neighborhoods' reputations for crime, as turf protection, bad batches, robberies, or gang retaliation (and no narking rule) makes them LESS open to policing, though needed.

THE LOGIC OF LIBERALISM

Let's work through the logic of liberalism: They want change for a better world. They define that as everyone having a better standard of living. Their answer is freebies—NOT helping people budget better and earn more, with better skills and buying habits.

They look to the NON-poor to fund these gifts. Why? Because they alone have money. NOT because it's right. Things such as 'FREE' daycare, family leave, college, healthcare, reparations.

WHAT ELSE might they envision handing out to buy votes? Houses? We partly got that with the sub-prime mortgage crisis. Food? We have food stamps. Subsidized housing/section 8, school meals, SNAP, etc. WHY must Uncle Sam take care of you when you're NOT a federal employee? And WHY must tax payers fund YOUR bills?

I oppose ALL freebies, but am for any aid or subsidies tokenly repaid by compulsory civic service.

No one can criticize the aims of liberalism, wanting cleaner air and water, more concern for plants and animals (i.e., the environment) by developers and businesses, less animal and significant other abuse.

The main catch is how you pay for it, and who pays for it, and why. No one should get off Scot free from the burdens of programs government engages. Fairness is a moral value!

LESSONS FOR LIBERALS

(AKA, how to live within your means)

(2/24/20)

Let me make this PERFECTLY clear to every liberal: U.S. Tax payers do NOT want to fund any more freebies! We have our own bills to pay, and we have kids needing college, daycare and healthcare. Your constituents aren't in our employ or family! That's NOT evil! You're evil trying to steal our hard-earned money!

Libs: WE non-libs have paid for our kids' colleges, daycare and family's healthcare. ALL preceding generations have done so, too, so you're NOT 'gonna get any of us to see why your generation uniquely struggles to pay for those things, though their costs must be reduced, as they have escalated! Leave tax payers alone!

It would be GREAT if every American had access to NEEDED vs. luxury healthcare! SAME with affordable college and daycare, as those are important, in an information economy, with both parents working.

Government subsidies are ONLY tax payer subsidies! You're voting for US to pay for your lifestyle! That's NOT fair, and you will lose!

I've made practical suggestions for cheaper healthcare, college and daycare. I see the poor's need. MY budget is NOT your source for financial planning! I have my own challenges, and you aren't an expense to my family!

I've made suggestions for the poor to live a higher lifestyle. Leave tax payers OUT of it! It's NOT evil, or selfish, or stingy, or hoarding for tax payers to oppose freebies and handouts! We can give those to charity. Forcing us to fund the poor's lifestyle is robbery and immoral. NOTHING in life is free, but air. Look to yourself to spend wiser, and work with better-paying skills, poor folk!

I will ALWAYS fight, oppose, vote for and run for office AGAINST government-funded freebies, and I am NOT a caustic, self-centered conservative! It is a MYTH that government helps people. Tax payers alone fund government, when ALL Americans must—not just the richer half! Civic service, required!

The poor's kids NEED college, if smart enough! Two-income families NEED daycare that isn't the same cost as the second spouse's income! Healthcare isn't a luxury, when you fall ill! There are solutions, that DON'T harm tax payers! The easy road is vote for Socialism. It's also the sin-full road that loses elections!

UN-like caustic vs. compassionate cons, and because I'm a Christian, here is the greatest treasure trove of info for poor people to live better, on the same or less. Until you do all these things, you have ZERO right looking to tax dollars to "help" you! If you're evilly lazy, you'll just vote Socialism; God judges sin.

DON'T birth kids in the hopes that they'll bring in family money, or fund you when you're old! They're an expense. Don't have any (or have few), and you have less financial pressure!

Do you do extreme couponing? Then you're WASTING $300 a month, MINIMUM! It takes work/planning/effort, but tax payers OWE you nothing!

Are you taking advantage of every government program you qualify for, as with local charities? Do you know how to buy the smartest value? I have a chapter at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>, Campaign Update button, but news articles like NBC's The Today Show increase the savings tips all the time. WATCH and learn!

Are your job skills maxed out? Can you get any more training, to qualify for a better job, or a raise, or a promotion?

Are you doing your best quality work, and intensity? You can work overtime, or a second or third job. You could invest any savings you can have if you cut back spending! Live with multiple roommates, or family members! Let your parents babysit as a daycare substitute, in exchange for living at your place.

Try a different work shift, so one parent is always home when the kids need tending to. You spend 1/4th of your budget on non-essentials, to keep up with the Jones! Belt-tighten! I guarantee you you have NOT shopped the best price for a smart phone service, or cable TV! You have to change carriers every one to two years, to get their best discounts.

Every dime counts! My kids don't even use a service, just Wi-Fi, with emergency pay-as-you-go phones. DON'T ASK tax-paying ME FOR money for your luxuries!

Live out in the country—it's cheaper, but wear and tear on your vehicle has to be weighed against those savings!

Organize your neighbors to buy in bulk, as a single unit, leveraging aggregation purchases and push for an app to identify the best deals on every buy! Start a neighborhood garden, or one for you, if grocers ignore your area.

Public transportation, scooters or bikes to work, and carpooling. You are not above that, if it saves you money! Organize neighbors to boycott over-priced nearby daycares, and have a stay-at-home parent do the job, using YouTube to educate youngins.

Travel to a cheap daycare, and ask for a group discount if you bring 2 to 3 friends' kids, carpooled. They'll lower their rates to get three or four new customers, even the expensive ones. Hire a newly immigrated (or if legal, illegal alien) nanny to care for your kids. We did (she was legal).

Work from home/telecommute, so you need less daycare, and save car wear-and-tear (and commuting headaches). Buy cheap term life insurance, if you're old, and catastrophic health insurance, for big ticket items.

Otherwise, there are pro bono health clinics, including churches and free clinics for the community, and, sometimes, low cost ones at hospitals and even Sam's Clubs. My wife worked at a low-cost clinic—they exist—research it!

Stay in shape, eat healthy, take vitamins, and get your preventative shots and vaccines. Systemically, we need MORE doctors and physician assistants from other nations, and the ADA shouldn't limit the numbers allowed in medical schools!

Research safe drugs and procedures in Mexico; Be very wary, but some good ones are bound to exist. Volunteer at a hospital, in exchange for a needed surgery! Use Go Fund Me, as needed. Get your family, friends and church to help you in a medical crisis.

For college, attend junior/community colleges at least 60 hours. Systemically, support home school college being accredited, or self-taught off the internet!

NEVER use an ambulance or emergency room or emergency helicopter! My son had convulsions, as a child, and your car emergency blinkers will save you from a ticket, if pulled over! Avoid doctors, unless you need 'em! I've been to one maybe five times in 25+ years!

Socialize with nurses (I married one), and learn self-help medical fixes on the internet (if accurate/trustworthy). Sleep off the flu, or depression, or use St. John's Wort, OTC (over-the-counter)! Hospitals for any emotional challenges are highway robbers! DIY, at home, outpatient!

Online K-12 schools exist, to save your kid being bullied, and any commute wasted time going to a campus ('free'). Mother's Day Out and vacation Bible schools give you half a day/week, and one week per summer, of 'free' daycare. See if your business offers on-premise daycare.

Some businesses pay for college courses and/or books (McDonalds, Bank of America, etc.).

LEARN! You can buy a car, cheap, from auction, with a friend in the business, or a car dealership that repaired a vehicle that the owner forfeited, by not paying, or rental cars or demos at dealerships, or a 3-year old car with low mileage. $3,000 is wasted buying new.

NEVER pay college room and board if you don't have to! Let your kid live at home, or buy a house they rent out to roommates, so you're getting mortgage paid off by your kids' roomies! Buy quality cars, used, known to last, like Honda or Mercedes.

Renting homes is stupid, except in rare cases. Buy foreclosed homes, or distressed (termites, after treated).

You get the best deals from the four D's—death, disease, downturn (job loss/layoff) and divorce. Estate and garage sales can yield the astute buyer in nice neighborhoods some gems. You don't need a huge wardrobe! Share it with friends, or make that a part-time business of loaning clothes like a library rents out books, but charge for the usage/service.

DIY—do it yourself concerning any act you can learn to do, like mowing, doing your nails and hair (I've cut my own hair for over 10 years!). You waste money hiring professionals, like with house and car repairs, and oil changes.

Get your car repaired at a quality shop in a bad part of town... LOW overhead. Have AARP do your taxes, for free, at your local library. Have a midwife deliver your child, or call EMS/911, and do it at home, with them available if things go wrong!

Cremation is cheaper than a casket and funeral. Be smart!

WHO SAYS your kids must have $30,000 weddings? Idiots who pressure you to buy their crap/services, or friends and family who don't love you—just love free booze and good times, at your expense, or like to show off their wealth (arrogance sin). MUCH better is low key, and a house down payment, or great honeymoon!

Ever used Priceline's Name Your Own Price? If not, you wasted money! I'm an expert, and have used it since two years after it started. Our website gives all my tips—for FREE. Like Millennials, use the free economy, whenever you can, like trades and barbers! Craig's list, eBay, Amazon; used stuff, vs. name brand, or brand new!

Want a pet? FREE every August, at local shelters, through NBC. We searched 24 websites and six shelters, and got the cutest one available in DFW, but had to park our van at the front door, and stay all night between two prisons, to ensure we got 'the one.' It takes WORK to get best deals! DO the work!

ALWAYS shop around! The business people who say don't want you to waste money buying from them, with such excuses as 'you'll waste as much time or gas comparison shopping.' B.S.!

Rent cars are a prime example, for vacays! Why burn up your vehicle on long road trips? I've spent $600 three times, driving 7,500 miles off them. Airport rentals are often cheaper.

Think of a hotel as a place to lay your head, after all day fun and relaxation, and you don't need an awesome hotel! Look for deals! We stayed at a Florida resort, last year, ONLY because the deal was too good. I don't like hoity-toity places, but will use them if the price is right!

NOW, if you've done ALL those things, talk to me about voting for Bernie and AOC types. If you haven't, don't even talk to me about politics, as you are certifiably either lazy or selfish, wanting to steal (a sin) from tax payers, by voting, instead of armed robbery or street corner begging! Fact. I could go on!

Pay your mortgage payment two extra times in one year, doing it every two weeks, vs. two times a month, and a 30-year mortgage becomes about a 20 year one! Get rid of PMI (private mortgage insurance) on it, ASAP, usually when 20 percent or more is equity.

Only gamble if it's for fun, and you're NOT addicted (unless you're a professional, good at not losing). That's RARELY a financial payoff.

Does your church say you have to tithe 10 percent? They're LYING! Give what God tells you to do, be it more, less or the same! Never pay the government more than its required share, and if you get a tax refund, you let them make interest off that money all year long, instead of yourself; NOT a smart move!

College cost tricks are detailed at our website. You RARELY need text books, but access codes for online testing are a required rip-off you should clamor to have removed from being mandatory! Rent library text book copies, or get a scanned-in version off eBay!

Americans waste food at restaurants, and expiring at home. DON'T DO THAT! If you use a Southwest landscape, you won't have to mow, or maybe even water (expenses in time and money).

Funeral? I HOPE to be ashes, and have my closest associates speak well of me, scattering them somewhere (and other plans exist in my family). I'm a cheapskate, even in death.

NO law says parents have to pay for their kids' college! Let them work for some of it, or take a low interest loan. Scholarships are a joke, IMO, as so few exist, for the number applying, but if you qualify, go for it!

I know a man who let his son drive to a college in Sherman, TX, from Plano, every day, to save living expenses. My son attended four colleges, and has a Baylor degree at almost half what all others spent for the same degree! I'm NOT sharing all those tricks, yet! Lawyers use policies and rules to their greatest advantage.

Pro bono lawyer services exist, but we're generally greedy, so don't expect many! I voted against mandatory charity services in law school! I don't work for free, but for my family, and for a living!

Have multiple income streams! I have books, and will have business consulting and innovations services, after I run for office (FREE only when I run). I MAY do a talk radio gig for centrist politics, and evangelist work, when I'm retired.

Restaurants are FUN, but expensive. They're usually 3 to five times costlier than eating at home. Use coupons. Movies? FREE, online (if legal), or RedBox (if you can wait one month—self-control, vs. media and peer hype), or dollar theaters. Are you too good to do these things? Then you're arrogant, wanting tax payer subsidies!

Furniture? Buy used, or check online (I've never done either of those). Hotels? Use their frequent customer programs (as with rent cars), like La Quinta (earn a free night after 5+ visits). Pet rabbit? I got it for 60 percent off, at a pet store; watch for sales and deals! That's the BEST product I've ever bought! The gift that keeps on giving joy and entertainment!

Rent house? Negotiate terms for repairs! Landlords want you to pay for all or most fixes. A great Realtor brokered a sweet deal for us, when we moved here. Worth her fee! Insurance is ALWAYS wise for your assets! You can't control floods and fires! Just do it. Spend wise, work hard, and save! NO government freebies.

Job hop, a little bit, meaning ensure you have the best pay available for your skills, even if that means moving to a better city! A little job changing may, temporarily, look bad, if it has to be on the resume, but don't get ripped off by anyone! Unionize if you can't negotiate well for yourself!

Businesses aren't trying to over-pay you (they're not charities, and you're a line item)! Learn market rate. Life doesn't owe you anything. Be in charge of it for yourself and your family! Take the bull by the horns, and ensure you always spent the least and earn the most. Buy low, sell high. Common sense stuff. Compassionate cons CARE about the poor! Caustic cons actionably DON'T.

Now, I mean this in all sincerity: If you can find more and better money-making and money-saving advice, anywhere else, for FREE, you're either a liar, or I want you to tell me your source! DON'T ASK TAX PAYERS to fund giveaways! We pay ALL America's bills already! Do your part. It's ONLY fair and just! I taught you how.

Need a new laptop? Get a used one, but insist on a high quality HP! I've had an amazing run with mine, and I know exactly where to get my next ones! Black Friday is obviously one of the best days to buy TVs. January is best for buying whites. Winter clothes after it has passed. Duh 101 shopping tips!

New cars used to be cheaper, starting in August, as inventory needed clearing, but especially in November, December, or especially the year after! I don't buy new, so I'm not sure it's still true.

Hail damage sales make them cheaper, IF you can cheaply have the dents removed, or like looking foolish in a dorked new car. Drive your car until the wheels fall off, but ONLY if major expenses don't start coming in rapid succession!

Almost any repair is cheaper than a monthly car payment. Transmissions can cost $500-1,500. Do you live this way? If not, DON'T ASK TAX PAYERS to pay you anything, via a Democrat Socialist type pandering politician!

The liberal left believes black people deserve reparations (payments from government), because they didn't get the 40 acres and a mule they were promised.

The liberal left believes poor people deserve free college, because we have free K-12, and in a global world and information age, a higher education is required to get ahead.

The liberal left believes the poor deserve free healthcare, because they can't afford it, and everyone has bodily problems they must tend to (sometimes, or someday).

The liberal left believes the poor should receive daycare, because it's so expensive that a spouse barely makes enough extra, after working to pay for it, and they need it if they have kids, because kids can't be left alone to fend for themselves when both parents are away at work.

The liberal left believes the government should force business to pay for paid time off/family leave, because families go through emergencies and medical calamities, and someone has to stop work to become a temporary care giver (or people grieve after deaths, and need time to get back to normal).

The liberal left believes everyone is entitled to UBI (universal basic income), because everyone could use the assurance that if everything fails, at least they'll have some money to work with.

The liberal left believes homelessness needs to be ended, and since no business can profit off fixing it, the government should.

The liberal left believes the working class deserves nearly a doubled pay wage, by minimum wage being $15/hour, because life costs much money, business gets them at as low a rate as possible, and makes a lot of money off their labor.

The liberal left believes America needs a Green New Deal, because climate change is a huge and real problem, about to bring an end to life as we now know it (and why not clean up the air we breathe, and make it healthier to breathe, and make water levels not rise to flood stages?).

The liberal left wants all these things, and more, not only because some European democracies have these things, but because they describe a "compassionate" society, and we all want to be good people (by their definition), right?

Since businesses won't do things that are not profitable, and charities are ill-equipped to handle systemic problems, or solve them fully (from under-funding), why not make us "all" play our part in fixing these things, through taxation?

1. Because we don't "all" do our part, through paying taxes.
2. Because our national debt is already at $25 trillion, and climbing.
3. And because people who have those problems/challenges are NOT the same as the ones being asked to pay for them (and a Green New Deal is overkill, kills business and the economy, and ruins our great oil and gas industries).

HOW is it 'compassionate' to steal from hard workers, to pay for people who don't live within their means?

HOW is it 'compassionate' to make one a dependent-on-government citizen, or lazily wait for the check in the mail? As a fill-in talk radio host analogized, when people feed birds constantly, over time, they lose the ability to feed their own family. That's NOT helping anyone!

The liberal left does not care or analyze how these ambitions get paid, or the moral or legal (UN-constitutional) basis for which they are sought. They simply believe that voting is easier than working harder and smarter!

MORE than a taxpayer revolt WILL ensue; likely a Civil War! How about you pay for your bills/expenses, and I pay for mine, the way America was founded, designed, Constitutionally arranged, and has always been?

The liberal left will ALWAYS seek freebies for the poor, because promising them bribes secure votes, and people always like free things!

YES freed slaves did not all get 40 acres and a mule, but this generation didn't rip this generation of slave heirs off! People should have dealt with that injustice at the time, or whenever the heirs got political power.

YES a college degree is becoming more essential in a globalized world, but not all students academically qualify, and it's not richer folk's obligation to fund your kids—we have to fund our own!

YES every human body has aches and pains, but you can buy catastrophic coverage, for expensive ailments, and many jobs offer healthcare coverage, and there are many low-cost clinics, as well as Medicaid.

YES daycare is more expensive than earlier, but you can travel to cheaper ones, have a family member or neighbor care for many neighboring kids, for a cheaper price, or Groupon/bulk buy organized/"unionized" neighbors to leverage lower rates for daycare

[NBC even broadcast college students negotiating lower tuition, and this could be applied to daycares].

YES, family leave is sometimes needed, but why must government or business pay for it? Take vacation time, and since it will likely take longer, see if you can work part-time, for that time, and not lose your job. Have other relatives chip in time or money.

Business could afford it, if they're rich (not all are), but that's NOT fair to the average-profit and small businesses, or you could have money taken out of your paycheck to save up for such a rainy day.

In short, America already gives needy Americans over-blown Welfare and Medicaid! People are subsidized to live in places they can't afford, on their own, for NO REASON, and are subsidized for the food they eat with EBT fake credit cards! That's NOT just to taxpayers, or needed, if people live within their means, as mature adults should!

EVERY expense taxpayers are forced to pay for MUST be repaid to taxpayers, by civic service, either dollar-for-dollar, or just tokenly, in significant ways that make taxpayers NOT unjustly unenriched by forced payments the Constitution never planned on, which are evil theft, created by pandering, evil politicians who are NOT interested in justice after all! 'No justice, no peace!'

The rich must obey I Tim. 6:17-19, or the U.S. Majority WILL vote to tax them severely, if not a South African uprising to "eat the rich." God is opposed to greed, hoarding and selfishness!

Christians HAVE to get more vocal about the rich obeying I Tim. 6:17-19, to stave off Socialism or Civil War! They earn it legally, but hoarding is evil, allows less money for all others (through charity) who are struggling-the people Jesus cared most about. Silence is complicity.

WHAT'S WRONG with Biden's intention of ONLY taxing America's wealthiest to fund freebies like healthcare? After all, they don't need that much money, they earn it much easier than all others earn money, and they use tax loopholes to not pay their required share!

1. Recipients are NOT their family or employees (forced tax freebies are a chicken's way to rob the rich, or avoid begging on the street!)
2. It's unfair to them, as an over-burdening taxation ('no justice, no peace').
3. It requires NOTHING from the recipients.
4. It's not illegal or even immoral for the rich to have earned their excess. It's ONLY evil when they don't generously give back! I Tim. 6:17-19
5. Higher taxes RARELY if ever ONLY tax the ultra-rich! TAX PAYERS OWE NO POOR PEOPLE ONE DIME, but morally are to donate to charity, especially the richer ones. Unless a poor family is living by maxed-out budgeting skills, and buying the best deals, they aren't truly "needy," but wanting.

If you're so poor you want government freebies, DON'T HAVE KIDS, and consider moving to a poorer country, with lower standards of living! I want you here, but you must learn better buying and budgeting skills, and you have to learn better job skills for better pay. If you can't, you're disabled, and we have Social Security disability for that!

WHY WORK, if you don't have to (Welfare, or Zuckerberg's $30,000/year suggestion)?

WHY WORK HARDER or smarter, if you don't have to, when you can just vote Democrat (for more freebies, rather than having to work harder to pay for them yourself)? THIS is the heart attitude of Dem voters, and is CONTRARY to God! (Gen. 3:19; Col. 3:23)

HERE are EXACT/specific ways Dems are seeking to get enough votes to vote in Socialism: Illegal (poorer) immigration (open borders); poorer refugees and legal immigrants (low job skills, etc.); move blue state residents to red states, to dilute their redness; have interracial adoption or marriage, so historically poorer ethnicities can rise, while retaining their vote Dem attitudes; free criminals (who will vote against law and order—a GOP stronghold issue); ally with LGBTQ, for voting power, because traditional sex is supported by GOP's, traditionally and historically; enlist the youth vote, because they are bottom rung on the economic ladder, so they want stuff!

Tell them Social Security is paid for by them, but won't exist for them—get a generational war started, to gen up their vote; have politicians promise them freebies in exchange for their vote; use European nations to make weak Americans think America has to follow the majority of nations' Socialist lead; use the word 'inequality,' because there is always unequal pay and wealth, but make it sound like a moral and Constitutional injustice (all men created equal/and justice for all); use all means to get poorer black Americans to vote (Ex.: NBA propaganda and advertising), because you think they'll vote for freebies/Democrats; use protests, then media coverage of them, to make weak and unthinking people think American sentiment is expressed by their angst, when its ONLY people who don't work who protest during weekdays, paid by Soros, stimulus checks, unemployment insurance, or liberal unions. This minutely small percent of 'Americans' are loud, and liberals believe the squeaky wheel gets the grease.

Gen up American Indians and Latino votes by digging up past atrocities that will anger ancestors centuries later (Mexican-American war, trail of tears, etc.). So there you have it: Poor (vs. middle or upper class) blacks and browns, LGBTQ and native Americans, and any women who want to kill their babies anytime, without questions!

Call THAT "being for women," as if people who don't like people killing innocents is being against women! Liberals NEVER want to deal with the exact procedure details about what their free choice causes to their own flesh and blood within the womb! They DON'T 'wanna see the sonogram, or watch the 'procedure.'

Unwilling to look at the fetus, torn in pieces, after the operation. Want the freedom to be sluts, with zero consequences! Want the freedom to not have to use contraception, or a condom, then discard the results, if things go negative. Name the baby 'human tissue!'

ALL of these choices and actions are to empower freebies!

Aborters don't get freebies, except if they vote for government funding of abortions (they usually do).

The LGBTQ community members get no freebies, but want government to end all discrimination (a just cause), but even 'wanna work in religious institutions with no flack or opposition if they're openly flaming, or even advocate for LGBTQ issues, or even proselytize those around them to their lifestyle (or even flirt)—in religious institutions (NOT OK).

So it's an alliance of people wanting things from government that the GOP opposes! Democrats!

LIBERAL LOGIC

Let's take liberalism to an extreme... wait a decade, and these will be mainstream campaign promises: Everyone guaranteed a job, free college, healthcare, daycare, family leave. We already have subsidized housing, food and salary (Welfare). What's left? Actually having to work and be skilled?

Let's take liberalism to an extreme... wait a decade, and these will be mainstream campaign promises: Climate change eradication bill, feed poor nations, open borders, no military (just diplomats), empty prisons, businesses forgive all student debt. How did those sub-prime loans work out?

Let's take liberalism to an extreme... wait a decade, and these will be mainstream campaign promises: $25 an hour minimum wage, three week paid vacation, participation awards for failing college (degree, anyway), hire unqualified people based on race, and confiscate all rich peoples' excess.

Let's take liberalism to an extreme... wait a decade, and these will be mainstream campaign promises: End the oil industry, pay everyone the same, force stockholders to share ownership with everyone (for free), let illegals vote and access social services, MORE Obamaphones and free cable TV.

Liberals' pride won't let them beg tax payers on the street corner; their cowardice won't let them rob tax payers' armed and/or alarmed homes; so they vote for Socialists to do their dirty work for them. Your lifestyle is paid for by your job—that's all! Hate your lifestyle, get a better job!

LIBERAL ETHICS

Let's analyze the liberal mind and morality: Their belief system is that rich people owe poor people freebies. WHY? Their typical answer is because they have money, and can afford to help others. Is that a valid moral reason? Is demanding giving only incumbent upon the rich?

Liberals use freebies paid for by government (taxpayers) to gain political power and votes. Is that moral, using mainly other people to pay for gifts to their constituents? No. It's evil and unjust!

Yes, a handful percent of liberals pay into the system (Hollywood, rich Dem politicians and donors, etc.), but mainly GOP's (few GOP's are on Welfare, or accept handouts from Uncle Sam).

Liberals want freebies getters to not be ashamed when they use their EBT debit cards. That's why they make them look like any other credit device! There SHOULD be shame associated with forcing others to help you pay your way through life! They aren't your family or employer, and it is literally unConstitutional to do so!

Liberals do not care about such problems; they just want the money, too chicken to rob the rich or beg them on street corners—just vote the money out of their hands. And they justify (only in their own puny minds) doing so, because 'the man' is against them, or calling non-handout recipients selfish.

If selfishness is evil (and it is), aren't handout seekers selfishly seeking another man's property, labeled greed, jealousy or covetousness? Yes, those sins Are not the rich to be generous with their excess? Yes, but voluntarily (I Tim. 6:17-19); NOT confiscated by force of law.

Aren't liberals' ideals moral—wanting even the poor to have healthcare services when they get ill, to be able to pay their bills and not suffer or starve, and be able to keep up in a competitive world by having a college education, if they're academically qualified?

ALL those things are good aspirations and achievements we Americans want for everyone who needs them, but what is immoral is having other people forced to pay for them. After all, "government" is NOT all Americans, though its workers do services for (usually) all; when it comes to the bills getting paid, government is ONLY taxpayers, and that is not right and not just! No justice, no peace!

America is one of the most generous nations on earth, and we have a merciful safety net we do not legally have to have! It is more than sufficient to ensure no American severely suffers, and then some. No, the problem is that liberals believe every American and every human on earth who can get here, by hook or crook, "deserves" a standard of living beyond many of their means. That is NOT an American idea, and it never has been!

We are not an every man for himself culture, but we are for individuals paying their own way, as no one should burden the whole, or others, unless physically or mentally incapable of work. God Himself designed culture so. (Gen 3:19) You work, to put bread on your table. Thus, you are a 'bread-winner.' He even says if one won't work, society (and Christians in particular, in context) is NOT to let them eat. (II Th. 3:10)

The rich offer people jobs, or the means to earn wages/a living. Employees agree to accept their offer, or they decline it and go elsewhere. No one forces you to accept a job offer, or forces employers to offer you one. What you earn you have freely, volitionally chosen to accept.

If you feel it is not enough, you are to blame for having accepted too low of an offer and you are legally free to go negotiate a better financial situation for yourself, wherever you can find it! No human/American/'man' is holding you back from that job search!

Your abilities may keep you down, but not someone else with any proverbial knee on your neck (as Freddy Haynes brainwashes his parishioners to naively believe).

The rich, in short, have not short changed you, ripped you off, or abused you, whereby they need government to punish them, by forced freebies! Get this fact through your sometimes thick skulls, or you will forever suffer a psychological complex of feeling inferior, less worthy, or less of a person, bound if not destined to poverty!

America is the number one nation for opportunity for the innovative and hard-working! Nowhere else could anyone find as great a potential for success! If you are not fully fulfilled with your own situation, or achievements, it is not America that has held you back, but your own lack of either ingenuity or hustle!

Yes, there are small pockets of racism, which could, potentially, harm a few, but we have EEOC laws, and you can sue! Pro bono, NAACP, EEOC Commission and the ACLU exist, if you believe and have some proof that any employer is Scrooging you because of your color!

But in the vast majority of cases, if you had been equally qualified as any other person, you'd stand as equal a chance of being hired, especially if you are outgoing, friendly/personable, fluent with grammar and knowledge of the business, and fit in (meaning your clothes somewhat match and you don't have screamingly fake-colored hair or mohawk-ish hairstyle).

That's NOT an unreasonable thing for cultured businesses to expect/demand of job candidates, as your peers want to feel comfortable and at home in that eight hour environment, and especially the clients of their business want to deal with professionals, not slouches.

ALL this is to say the sky is the limit for EVERY American, if you play the game the right way. NO ONE has to forever be poor, in America. I guarantee you having kids is an expense, not a financial asset, and that poor Americans make several unwise purchases, from lacking knowledge of the best buying practices!

And/or, they are not maxed out in their job skills, or aren't the hardest worker, or employee with the best work ethic or productivity and efficiency and quality work product! And for those lacks, they will forever suffer, until they get fixed.

This is NOT being unmerciful to America's poor, but is the actual help you need to fix your dilemma in life. It is not voting for taxpayers to play your daddy, as an adult human being standing on your own two feet, by voting for freebies, only free to you, but costly to others-theft by vote. Yet, many liberals do not care about that moral issue!

Even Freddy Haynes, in a 'sermon,' tried to justify looting, by warping Mt. 7:1, when the real God of the Bible (not the god of this world—II Cor. 4:4) teaches real Christians that theft is sin, and preachers are not to encourage, endorse or justify continued sinning (only apostates do such things! II Tim. 4:3).

It matters who you listen to, as not all men of the cloth are sheep, but there are (biblically) men of the sheep's cloth, who are inwardly wolves in sheep's clothes! (Mt. 7:15) Today's 'sermon' may not be what you'll hear from your pulpit, BUT IT SHOULD BE! I've referenced everything I espoused with Bible verses.

And for all those not Christian, I have used logic, common sense and the morality of justice to justify all these conclusions. Remember, no justice, no peace. Mic 6:8 don't hate the truth, because it offends your feelings or political leanings! Jn. 8:32

Liberals believe the world is coming to an end, due to fossil fuels. It IS coming to an end, and they will go through it, but it is because of God's Tribulational judgment-not changes in our ecology! Liberals want you to use four sheets of TP for number 2, ride a bike to work, or carpool.

Liberals want to destroy the oil industry, which runs the world, gives America export revenues, and has built America as we know it. Liberals want everything run by solar or wind power, everything recycled, Americans forced to buy electric cars, and few to no airplane flights. Caveman setbacks!

Liberals believe guns kill people, so people shouldn't have guns; NOT that evil people with guns kill innocents. Liberals believe babies in the womb are mere human tissue, don't become humans 'til months after inception, magically, and should be able to be killed anytime, for any reason

Liberals believe government should favor workers over owners/management, to serve as a super union to double minimum wage, by edict. That means they oppose free markets. Liberals believe America is evil, and has to be punished for its African slavery and American native Indian wars past.

Liberals believe America is NOT exceptional (which doesn't mean perfect, or innately better than any others), that America shouldn't be the world's sole superpower, that Capitalism is evil, that a representative republic is the same as a pure democracy, that SCOTUS should be stacked left, that women should be paid the same as men, without being negotiated, and that taxpayers alone should pay for everything and all the many things they want our federal government to do.

Their Hollywood elites say they'll pay in more, but they 'wanna force GOP's to pay most of the tab! Libs support aberrant sex practices, want religion out of the public square, believe Constitutions a living document, meaning it morphs and changes from what its authors wrote and intended, and want ANYONE allowed into America, for citizenship (open borders), and safe havens to protect CRIMINALS!

Liberals want criminals freed early from jail, AS IF they substitute for juries and judges in our court system. Liberals think police are the enemies of America, instead of criminal law-breakers. Liberals SUPPORT by omission of enforcing laws, looting, arson and physically violent rioters!

Liberals believe man was evolved as apes from a soupy mush, or big bang, that we are all innately morally good, that there is no Heaven or Hell after death, that God is a crutch for emotionally weak people, and that government is the daddy for any people unable to pay their bills.

Liberals say they support free speech, but desire censorship and suppression of voices opposing their agenda. They use the media (excepting Fox) as their mouthpieces, public schools as their indoctrination venues, and stay in power by bribes stolen from taxpayers, to empower laziness and/or dependence, so votes are annuities/secure forever.

Liberals use identity politics, and divide America into black vs. white, and poor vs. rich. They believe the rich should be punished with higher taxes, for unstated crimes against the poor. Liberals want the poor to have zero contribution to America's debt.

Liberals lean toward Socialism, if not Communism, because they feel it unfair that some people don't succeed well when they have to compete in the open market. Liberals want free healthcare, college, daycare, family leave and reparations.

They want under-qualified students treated as qualified if they're of the right skin color (affirmative action), have zero concern for the size of America's debt, are more spenders than savers, publicly, hate conservatives, and want power at all costs. NOT all Democrats are liberals, but liberal Socialism is EVIL!

My graduation speech' for the class of 2020: CONGRATULATIONS! ALL your remembered years on this earth have been devoted to going to school, a majority of the hours of the work day.

You've endured topics galore, quizzes, tests, both mean and nice peers (and administrators), played sports, done extra-curriculars, bus rides, field trips, met many great teachers (and perhaps a few bad apples, along the way).

ALL to this end... that you would receive a high school diploma, proving to all that you made it through the 12 year grind. You made it! You endured, and now, America considers you a full-fledged adult.

So what was it all for? Your entire life, since the day your mom birthed you, has been preparing you (from walking and talking, to now) for the rest of your adult life! And just what will that life look like? No one knows, for sure, but you have a huge influence on that answer!

All your life you have acquired skills and knowledge to prepare you for such a time as this! NOW is the time for you to go change the world for the better, and to change your life for whatever you want it to be. You may not yet know what exactly you'll be doing, but please take these tips to heart:

1. You decide what you do with your life. Trust God to lead you. Do what you enjoy, or at least tolerate, that can make you enough money to pay your bills.

DON'T think any older adult will volunteer and reach out to you at your first "real world" job, but you assess your peers and find a successful mentor, who does a job like what you'd like to eventually do, and offer to serve them and try to get to know them, using all the tools your generation knows so well (like social media). Reach out to them; ask their advice; sincerely complement and serve them, after researching enough to know a little about them too.

2. Get the best job skills you're capable of (Ex.: On-the-job training, internship, certifications, experience, quality work, etc.).

3. Save or make your employer money, more than your wage/salary costs them!

4. Buy less, or shop smarter (U waste a lot of $ keeping up with the Jones' on TV ads).

5. Get a mentor in your career field.

6. Network to meet influential people in your chosen niche.

7. Get more education (Ex.: college, GED, grad school).

8. Shine on the job/be a star (Ex.: quality and efficiency, and being likable).

9. Unionize.

10. Publicly clamor for businesses to do what God says they must do... be fair to you. (Col. 4:1)

11. OPPOSE more immigration, as that increases your competition!

12. OPPOSE more outsourcing, as that makes you have LESS job opportunities.
13. Publicly clamor for the rich to voluntarily give back significantly, as God commands them to do! (I Tim. 6:17-19)
14. Organize buyers co-ops, to buy in bulk, leveraging size.
15. Politically push for cheaper medical care options, as with college and daycare, to meet the needs of the lower half/50 percent!
16. Start a business, or invent something you can sell. ALL these things people who are NOT weak, dependent or sinfully lazy would do, if they weren't those traits!

Covid has taught us all, if business doesn't do well, you don't do well—you lose your job/income! Force businesses to pamper you, vs. earn it, and they'll simply leave America, along with their jobs, or robotize your job, NOT because they're evil people, but because you're entitled mentality forces them to react, when it's enacted!

There is not one obstacle any American faces to being the most financially set as their skills will allow! SUE businesses if you think your race is holding you back from discriminatory personnel! EEOC. I've written many chapters on how to escape poverty, barrios and ghettos. READ and do them!

Update: Career Counseling

Here's some career advice: Take a test of your interests and talents. Explore careers to see which interest you. Make sure they have a money-making future, as trends change. Get an internship. Choose a marketable major in college.

Make good grades. Wherever you work, do an awesome job so you get recommendations. Learn transferable skills, if you're not in the industry you want to be in. List every employer you'd want to work for, and research what jobs they're hiring for. List job titles your skills qualify for.

Start contacting people within those companies (Linked-In, etc.) to see how you can help them as a volunteer, or ask them for advice. Try to find something in common with them. Do extracurricular activities that enhance your qualifications for a job you want, even in high school. Hang around or get to know decision makers. #CommonSense!

WISDOM FROM A THIRD GRADE DROP-OUT (Paraphrased)

(from the smartest man Dr. Rick Rigsby ever knew—his dad; 11/25/19)

Combine knowledge and wisdom to make an impact (WISDOM and KNOWLEDGE).

My father decided to stand and be a man—not a black man, not a white man, but a man (COLOR-BLIND; DON'T JUDGE).

Challenge yourself to be the best person you can be, all the days of your life (EXCELLENCE AMBITION).

You're not going to have a problem if you aim high and miss, but you will if you aim low and hit. If you think you can or think you can't, you're right. —Henry Ford (ATTITUDE)

You'd rather be an hour early than a minute late (PUNCTUALITY). WHY did my dad wake up so early in the morning to go to work? Hoping maybe one day, one of his sons would catch him in the act of excellence.

You are what you repeatedly do. —Aristotle Excellence ought to be a habit—not an act.

I know you're tough, but always remember to be kind (KINDNESS).

Never embarrass momma.

Make sure your servant's towel is bigger than your ego. Ego is the anesthesia that deadens the pain of stupidity (HUMILITY). Champion UCLA coach John Wooden was found brooming his own gym floor—find your broom every day, to make an impact, growing your influence that way, so you can attract people so you can impact them.

If you're going to do a job, do it tight. Tell yourself to shoot for the stars to be the best you can be. Better is not good enough if it can be best (IMPROVEMENT).

Wisdom can come from failure. Rock bottom can be a great foundation upon which to grow. I'm not worried that you will succeed, but that you will not fail from time to time, to pick yourself up off the canvas and keep growing, so your influence will keep growing (PERSEVERE IN FAILURE).

Keep standing firm, even in your sorrows. Have faith in God (FAITH). It doesn't matter how long you live, but how you live (QUALITY OF LIFE). How you do anything is how you do everything.

Honor those who have gone before and invested in you.

Enhance your life by seeking wisdom every day!

Every day ask yourself, how am I living?

THE PURPOSE OF LIFE

(From the book of Ecclesiastes)

The great wise man, Preacher-King Solomon (1:12) pursued:

- Wisdom (1:13)
- Pleasure (2:1)
- Comedy (2:2)
- Alcohol (2:3)
- Workaholism (2:4)
- Women (2:7)
- Money (2:8) and,
- All pleasures (2:10-11),

and found them all to be empty, vain, grievously mad folly.

But after all those pursuits, he made some rather somber conclusions about what life is all about:

- Eat and drink and tell yourself your work is good(2:24-26, 3:13, 5:18, 9:7)
- Rejoice and do good (3:12)
- Be happy and have joy in your activities (3:22, 5:18)
- Eat from the fruit of your wealth (5:19-20)
- Keep your clothes clean (9:8)
- Enjoy your spouse (9:9)
- Do your work with all your might (9:10)
- Enjoy your youthfulness and following your dreams (11:9-10)
- Remember God during your life (12:1, 6)

The conclusion of all is to fear God and keep His commandments (12:13-14)

Update

(11/8/19)

What is life's purpose? What are humans here on earth for, and to do? To a consistent Evolutionist, this question SHOULD sound ludicrous and irrational, because everything came into being by random chance, or for no good reason, so why should we be so arrogant as to think forces that brought about existence had any reasoning behind them, as they were mere laws of physics and/or happenstance.

Here are some honorable mention attempts

I believe that the very purpose of life is to be happy. From the very core of our being, we desire contentment. In my own limited experience I have found that the more we care for the happiness of others, the greater is our own sense of well-being. –Dalai Lama

The purpose of life is to give it away in the service of others. –Joshua Becker

The purpose of life is to contribute in some way to making things better. –RFK

I believe it is to become our greatest version. –Ralph Smart

The purpose of life is self-actualization – shaping the world in our vision through reaching our full potential. –Will Mitchell

The purpose of life is not to be happy. It is to be useful, to be honorable, to be compassionate, to have it make some difference that you have lived and lived well. –Ralph Waldo Emerson

The purpose of life is to live mindfully and passionately in the present moment, to love unabashedly, to be a lifelong learner, to seek adventure and growth, and to spread kindness and peace along the way. –Barrie Davenport

The purpose of life is a life of purpose. –Robert Bryne

The secret of life is enjoying the passing of time. –James Taylor

All (or at least most) noble aims; now let's apply logic to the mix.

ON MOTIVATION

BIBLICAL MOTIVATION

(non-exhaustive, carrot & stick examples)

Accountability (Rom. 14:10-12). Avoiding false theology (Gal. 5:3). Church's goals (Heb. 10:24; Tit. 3:8). Commanded (Lk. 17:10). Compelled (Ac. 4:20). Debt (Phm. 1:19). Duty (II Cor. 7:3, marriage context). Encouraged (Heb. 3:13). Exhortation (Heb. 10:36). Fairness (II Cor. 8:13, 7:2). Fear of punishment (Col. 3:6; Ac. 17:31; II Cor. 13:10). Free willed (Phm. 1:14). Godly jealousy (Rom. 10:19). Hope (I Pet. 1:6; Rom. 15:4). Limited time (I Pet. 4:7). Love (the morally greatest motive–I Cor. 4:14). Must/Have to (Conviction)–(Lk. 4:43). Not to disappoint (Rom. 10:11). Not to lose rewards (Rev. 3:11). Obedience (Ac. 26:19). Participation with God (I Cor. 9:23). Perspective (Jas. 5:3). Pity (Phm. 1:9). Please parents (Eph. 6:1, family context). Pride (vs. lose face)–(I Cor. 6:7; II Cor. 9:2). Proud in eternity (I Th. 2:19). Reason (Jas. 3:17). Relationship leveraging (Phm. 1:17). Reproof (Tit. 2:15). Reputation (I Tim. 3:13). Rewards (perhaps the biblically most referenced–Heb. 11:6; II Jn. 1:8). Right thing to do (Phil. 1:7; I Cor. 7:35). Role modeling (I Th. 2:7, 11; Heb. 11:26; Lk. 9:56). Thankfulness (I Th. 5:9). Unashamed (Rom. 6:21). Witnesses watching (Heb. 12:1). Your (new) nature (I Th. 5:7; Eph. 5:1).

OTHER (Etc.)–Read the Bible for yourself and come up with many more!

MOTIVATION

(7/22/21-2)

Motivation tips:

1. Take a break. Sometimes not working gives you more energy to work.
2. Do something different, for awhile. All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy.
3. Competition can motivate increased productivity, and deadlines, or limited time opportunities.
4. Rewards ALWAYS help! Schedule even little ones, and they're not always monetary.
5. Goals achieved incentivize some personality types; goading's required for others
6. Have a vision for where your labors are taking you; remember it often. #Attitude
7. There's a time to endure through and a time to step back. Your body or mind will often tell you when the former is not possible.
8. Temporary jolts from energy drinks or caffeine are ONLY temporary, and NOT motivation stimulators.
9. Good night's sleep gives energy.
10. IF you lack motivation, pray for it and wait on the Lord! IF you are His, He will lead the way, and sometimes He has you take a pause, to renew, just like MANY pastors take late summer off for a Sabbatical. The Lord's Day shows God knows we need time off/away.
11. Most people have several gears of productivity. In the right circumstances, energized, you can be as productive in half the time, but that pace is not sustainable. Same with long hour days, and all-nighters. Helpful sometimes; NOT regularly; depletes body and energy.
12. Some people are NOT motivated, and can hardly be motivated by others. Try your hardest, and as many methods as possible, but ultimately, you can't make a horse drink. A cattle prod is needed for the undisciplined, or semi-public shaming. Some people are just lazy!
13. Sometimes seeming dead ends are God's way to get your attention to change your tactical decisions.
14. If possible, sometimes delaying a plan allows you to get done all you have to get done. We just changed a business plan by two weeks, and great things opened up!
15. ALWAYS keep going, for good aspirations, and know that even small victories will incentivize even greater production. EVERY time my hard work doesn't pay, for awhile, invariably a good result will come, to buoy your spirits. Just keep going! Never quit good aims.

LIFE LESSONS

It is NOT the quantity of what one reads, or evidence they cull through, but the factual accuracy of what their brains consume! Anyone could make an author rich, reading a bogus book on slavery being behind the Alamo! EVIDENCE isn't theories or opinions! Prove the case! DOUBTED!

It is NOT whether someone reads, or listens to talk radio, or watches TV. It's the accuracy of what those mediums teach you! You could listen to Alex Jones, read conspiracy theorists, and watch lying politicians, and it's still garbage in, garbage out! Me fears that gent WON'T respond!

B) Communicate (or Shut Up/Don't waste our time)!

We teach common sense, here, because common sense is so UNcommon! Communication has not happened unless and until the communicator confirms the message was received! It MAY have, but you'll never know if the receiver never verifies meaning was effectively conveyed! #Communication
A professional does what he says, and says what she means, and if unable to do so, communicates/explains the problem, and maybe apologizes. Amateurs and incompetents do differently!

C) Differences

(3/18/21-2)

I've said differences can be interesting, must be tolerated, but can cause problems. There can exist significant distances between truck vs. car drivers, college vs. non-college grads, country v city dwellers, planners vs. non-planners, communicators vs. non-communicators+! LITTLE common ground

I am MOST grateful to NBC, today! I learned that 100 push-ups and sit-ups a day, and 30 minutes of brisk walking, five days a week, is the standard of healthy exercise I need. The push-ups may take years, to reach over 5, but the rest is DOABLE! @TheTodayShow

Every human has to be evaluated on their own merits, as were all uniquely created by God!
Culture groups have some similar traits, though with exceptions, that distinguish them, a little, then clothes can help define a person (Ex.: fashion queens vs. blue jeans and overalls). There... are also types of people, like the he-man/macho guy muscle-bound gym rat, the nerd, the loner, the center of attention, the wall flower, the jokester, business man, etc. ALL these cues help you know people before you get to know them, but judge them by their character, number 1!

(5/15/21-2)

IF you're born with a lower IQ, READ a lot, watch TV documentaries, DON'T listen to dumb song lyrics, or entertainment YouTube videos. Hang around smarter people, if they're endure you; if not, serve them/do them favors, for the privilege of your annoyance to learn and grow brain cells.

I am praying God's third judgment specifically targets evil D.C. politicians! NOT any good ones who remain silent, to go along to get along, still being evil by so doing!

H) Justice

It is almost always (always?) that people get angry with others when injustices are done. That's why politics is always contentious, because neither side seeks justice, "just us" win and the other lose! (12/5/21-2)

PROOF God is FOR justice: Deut. 16:20 Follow justice and justice alone, so that you may live and possess the land the LORD your God is giving you. Levit. 19:15a 'Do not pervert justice; Mic 6:8 He has shown you, O mortal, what is good and what does the LORD require of you? To act justly

Isa 61:8a-d "For I, the LORD, love justice; I hate robbery and wrongdoing. Isa 1:17a-b Learn to do right; seek justice... Ps. 106:3 Blessed are those who act justly, who always do what is right.

Hos 12:6a-b But you must return to your God; maintain love and justice... Am 5:24 But let justice roll on like a river, righteousness like a never-failing stream! Pv. 21:15 When justice is done, it brings joy to the righteous but terror to evildoers.

I) Leadership

(3/24/21-2)

Americans call politicians "leaders." One is NOT leading, if they shouldn't be followed, like leading in sinfulness! Plus, God says call no man such a thing. Mt. 23:10 Leadership gets followed, because followers value what the guide dog says or does. That MUST be moral! Duh 101.

J) Parenting

The hardest part of parenting is seeing people make bad, embarrassing or dumb decisions, and being forced to let them learn from the school of hard knocks! When your advice isn't heeded, welcome or respected, and you see red flags, you're helpless as a parent. Pray harder!

K) Relationships

Relationship advice: People teach you how to treat them, usually not by words! If you have few conversations, no one in their right mind can believe they have a close relationship! If you used to talk more, distance has crept in. Only morons don't know this #CommonSense!

Relationship advice: Relationships are like gas tanks. You have to keep re-filling them, to have one, and to have any right to "speak into" another's life! Blood does not replace gasoline!

(5/11/21-2)

BEST vacation planning: 1. Book travel and lodging back-ups, so you're sure to go; note cancellation policies. 2. Re-book upgrades, or discounts, by shopping around and using frequent flier programs. 3. Use NYOP Priceline, last minute, not violating cancellation policies. #Cheapskate

(6/18-19/21-2)

Father's day advice: Kids WILL disappoint, but so will parents. If you know that, you can lessen unrealistic expectations, and suffer less negative emotions!

Rule 1: If momma isn't happy, no one is happy. Rule 2: Read rule 1.

TEACH your kids you are NOT a perfect role model, as if that isn't obvious! For some reason, children like to follow footsteps, seven emulate their parents, when that's not always a good idea! I want NO writers in my family!

Celibacy is a gift not enough people ever realize they have, IMO. America denounces lifetime singles, as forever a bridesmaid, old hags, etc., but I know someone who doesn't want kids, and you have to encourage that choice, if made freely! Don't pressure grandkids!

As hard as you work at being a good one:

1. Never compare with others

2. Never think you've arrived! I am certain my kids would rank me a C, at best, as I'm too academic and unemotional, and always busy. NEED to do better!

If you are not good relating to one gender, let your wife manage that need more. I really relate to sports and travel and work sons, and my wife is my daughters BFF. I wish that were different, but we ensured they all got the expertise they desired, needed and wanted.

Morally good pastors can help make up for what can be lacking in people's relationships, as role model father figures! The three people I've felt the closest to, since age 19, were ALL pastors. BFFs come and go; pastors are usually constant and consistent!

Surrogates can fill in gaps! I have been emotionally close to Don Anderson, John Bisagno and Don Crossland, since the Bible became a priority in my life (age 19). Unfortunately, only one of these still lives (and I never commune with him). GREAT men! #FatherFigures

You work to live—not live to work. You can have a lot of money and not a lot of love. If you must choose between the 2, to get enough sleep in life, always choose the latter! You only get one set of natural parents!

1. Just because a bird flies the nest does not end your relationship.
2. The female is NOT the only one responsible for relating. I've told ALL my kids, if they ever don't 'wanna come by and visit us (wife and self), I have FAILED them!

DON'T just do what you saw done for you! IF I had known Love Languages book, early on, I might have learned by now that my boys love touching and hugs. I DON'T! Others may like hearing I love you. Again, I don't. I like proof—seeing it in action! You're not them!

1. Think twice before having children. They're an expense and a great blessing!
2. YOU chose to bring them into the world. You owe them a good time of it!
3. It can be the hardest job you'll ever have.

Kids emulate their parents, in many ways, whether for good or ill. If you do anything you shouldn't (like obesity, speeding and cussing), at least explain why you do (speeding), or beg them to do differently (obesity and some cussing when angry)!

You can NEVER 100 percent control your kids, meaning their words or deeds, especially as they age. NEVER blame anything on how you raised them, if they ever buck how you raised them! Pray for them, and blame free will and sin in the world!

Tell your kids to believe the Bible, but practice anti-biblical things, if that ever better suits you. (sarcasm) In other words, don't really believe it; just lip service, or cherry-pick, with YOU as the Boss. #Carnality!

Always teach your children that being rich is tradition, what white people always pursue, they're failures if that's not yet God's will for them, and brag on those who do! My mom publicly told everyone I wasn't rich, on my 50th birthday. RIH! LOST rewards, if in Heaven.

If your child tells you they believe God is leading them to write for Him, oppose, be angry, verbalize discontent, and never, never, never give them ANY encouragement in such a pursuit! Tell them it's all already been written, then ignore it! (sarcasm)

Plan for the worst; hope and pray for the best. True of almost anything!

1. Don't be nosey/a snooper
2. Don't let mothers do all the nurturing
3. Don't be a workaholic
4. Don't only have surfacy conversations
5. Share valuable advice, not verbosity

1. Love your kids. Show them that you do. Spend time with them, and actively care about their success

2. Don't oppose career choices forever
3. Don't criticize full-time
4. Tell them if you're ever proud of them, unsolicited
5. Stay married, and don't allow spousal distance

1. Don't favor any child

2. The ideal is unconditional love, but we all know if they screw up massively, anger, or requiring some standards can be taken to be lack of love, or conditional support!
3. Be your best, and rely on God for the rest and for your best!

24. LGBTQ

LGBTQ SOLUTIONS

(10/20-22/20-2)

Seeing that Trump had a Pride Day raises many issues:

1. How does his evangelical base feel about celebrating homosexuality?
2. If being gay isn't a choice, can one resist its urges?
3. If being gay isn't a choice, what role does their will play?
4. If only the sex act is sin, is the relationship wrong?
5. If gay marriage were overturned, is that government sanctioning divorce, and splitting up families?
6. Are their drugs, yet to be created, that can change urges to normal sexual aspirations?
7. Why is the term 'homophobic' used, for people who don't fear gays?
8. Why does the public allow calling sin sin to be labeled hatred?
9. Is it immoral to use shame, to try to convince people?
10. Does public stigma/shaming work? (no)
11. If gays had full contractual rights with married straights, unmarried, what's the difference?
12. Is there some DNA gene that is different in gay people, or a lack of testosterone or estrogen? 13. Do gays feel love more than scorn for their sin, from religious people?
14. If not, how could that change, without moral compromise?
15. Why is gayness a major political issue?
16. Is it unjust or unbiblical to make LGBTQ a wedge issue, politically, when other moral matters like ecological responsibility, helping the poor, etc. Are also in the Bible.
17. Is 'love the sinner, hate the sin' unjustly applied only to select moral issues, by religious people?
18. What are gay-leaning people to do as a sex outlet, according to religious people?
19. Are gay people to be lonely, as some sort of punishment for being gay?
20. Finally, do we want to entertain these questions, or just stay polarized, hateful, and unlovingly divided?

This is morally wrong and unjust, UNLESS any such patients solicited sex, or flirted or propositioned or made social workers exposed to such, including exposure to AIDS, or having to endure people 'flaming' in their sexual commitments! THOSE THINGS should be prohibited by patients!

@TexasTribune: A new Texas rule, recommended by Gov. Greg Abbott's office, will no longer prohibit social workers from turning away clients on the basis of disability, sexual orientation or gender identity. <https://bit.ly/35mPryz>

...I regret that I didn't stop high school people I heard of who shot buckshot at gays in Montrose from shotguns in 1976. I don't know names, but should have found out! That was/is the gay area of Houston. (1/1/18)

Discrimination in employment and housing (etc.) was always stated as wrong, as with using derogatory slurs, or harming gays (as people did in my high school, with buckshot from shotguns in Montrose, Houston, by their claims—whether they did in reality, or not). We also were avidly for all civil union. (12/10/18)

My former Democrat campaign manager said he was the black sheep of the family, as his other two brothers were major famous pastors in Houston, in my high school years. One should NOT feel like an outcast 'cause they are gay, or hated or treated second class inferior by fam! GREAT man! My sons love him.

'Strange flesh, abandoning natural function, abomination to lay man with man.' These biblical terms are NOT actions a person should ever be proud of! You HAVE to rip them out of your Bible, to say saying so is hateful, and no shame to be felt! Just sayin'.

(10/21/20-2)

Pope Francis: Gay people are going to have long-term relationships, and if they're like many if not most adults, they will want to have sex. They should never be discriminated against, but if hired by a religious institution, they shouldn't be allowed to proselytize or flaunt gayness!

Non-religious businesses have a right to prevent LGBTQ from flaunting or proselytizing their sexual identification, as its disruptive to business! That's NOT discrimination, any more than #MeToo opposes—AS THEY SHOULD—sex fiends allowed to be pervs on the job. Keep it/sex private!

A TV ad just said rethink bias, and showed two skeletons pop out from behind a screen as to kissing women. Calling it "bias" (an evil thing) to be against sin, is sinful deception (sin). We are not to treat virtues equal with vices, but hate the latter and be against them. Crazy culture. (10/22/20-2)

Gays will have long-term relationships no matter what the church does. Civil unions more than government sanctioning their so-called 'marriage.' (9/23/14)

I personally oppose homosexual marriage for civil unions, but for states determining its legality. Love the gay more than you hate his sin! (10/16/14)

I am NOT for Obergefell overturning—EVER. I was not for GM going national, based on states' rights and legal contracts of civil unions, but I accept the decision, and had to wake up the main Cabal members to even have any action in voicing opposition to it going national. Asleep at the wheel! (10/15/17)

Like George Bush, I was for civil unions, with all contractual rights married couples enjoy, but B4 God marriage is NEVER between same sex! To use the term is sacrilegious! Culture uses it, but God doesn't recognize their definitions! They're human equals but NOT spouses or God-approved! (5/20/19)

Update #3

Watching Elton John: The Nation's Favorite Song, and NO one should have to come near suicide, to come to grips with their sexuality! He almost married a woman, then someone said it was a mistake, so he stuck his head in a gas oven, trying to come to grips with being gay! Never knew that. (10/17/20)

Pistol Pete does NOT represent Christianity, where he vows to cling to and remain in a clear sin!

Let's tell the TRUTH about bullies: They are sinfully arrogant, sinfully mean and cruel, emotionally insecure, have sinful over-confidence over some trait that's better than their victims, and GOD WILL JUDGE THEM SEVERELY! Governments should, WELL before then! They're evil human beings, until they grow up (if ever, as our current White House occupier indicates)

Let's tell the TRUTH about bullies' victims: You MAY have things about you that the majority doesn't like or approve of, or just be the victim of circumstance, but GOD LOVES you, and you have eternal worth to Him! Endure the abuse, turn in the criminals, and know that God will JUDGE those evil, Hell-bound souls.

If one doesn't 'fit in,' in high school, they're MORE prone to being bullied. Be yourself! You MAY have things you could improve (Ex.: dorky, skinny, fat, zits, too tall, too short, LGBTQ, ugly, bad fashion), but DON'T please the crowd—only God! 'Conform and be dull' is fitting in like yet another sheep following the herd off a cliff!

If ANYONE is EVER bullied in high school, let ME know their names, and if I have time and the ability, I will END that abuse for you, just as I did for BOTH my sons! I DO tell cops, school administrators, politicians, their parents and them, to their face, even inviting a face off. Been there, done that!

The Bully Beatdown TV show NEEDS to be resurrected, and its model used in every community, by legal agreement! Getting a taste of their own medicine is OFTEN the ONLY way you can get through to hardened, arrogant thugs. They need to FEEL your pain, literally!

CONSTRUCTIVE VS. DESTRUCTIVE CRITICISM

It's TIME to address the biblical basis for rebuking politicians' sins.

1. No one has to be morally perfect to do it.
2. The greatest pre-Christian saint and prophet (i.e., John the Baptist) did it (Mk. 6:18).
3. Without it, we are silently complicit in empowering evil's continuance!
4. It is one of many commands for believers (especially ministers)—II Tim. 3:16-17.

5. It has to be done UN-hypocritically–Gal. 6:1, and humbly vs. arrogantly, as no one is better than anyone else.

YET, it is needed, helpful, yet often discouraged and slandered as sinful judging, despite it NOT being so–Jn. 7:24

Americans LOVE saying ‘the only thing necessary for evil to prevail is for good people to do nothing,’ then we do NOTHING with our words. Voting is too late! You need D.C. Politicians to change their IM-moral behaviors, if they're to be deemed "leaders!" PRAISE their virtuous choices, and rebuke their sins!

My own kids love to use the false rhetorical fallacy of one being a ‘know-it-all,’ or perfect, when they get NEEDED correction. ADULTS aren’t to fall to using such childish errors! If any industry NEEDED rebuke more than U.S. Politics, I can’t name it, save for pimps and drug dealers! It’s NEEDED!

The difference between sinful criticism, and constructive criticism is NOT whether the hearer receives it well, or in good faith, but whether the giver intends it in love, only does it when needed, and humbly trusts God wants to use them to TRY to bring about a moral, NEEDED turnabout. Phil. 2:14 is NOT applicable/relevant, as it is NOT describing constructive criticism.

Constructive is NOT defined by the response of the hearer. It’s the content quality, needed-ness, tone/manner in which it’s offered. Most people hate being criticized; for example, I NEED it when I eat fattening foods! ‘NEED’ is operative word.

STOP DOING EVIL & DO GOOD

Do good, not bad. That decision will NOT get you to Heaven, or out of Hell, but WILL help our nation unite and heal! MANY people can’t consciously even understand what is evil or good, being so morally depraved, so I’ll educate those types...

It’s EVIL to lie, like spinning untruths as facts, biased to your political party's advantage. It’s EVIL to only harp on Trump’s sins, and never see the log in your own eye, or your own short-comings. Humility is always GOOD, which is what that means, as opposed to EVIL arrogance sin.

It’s EVIL not to forgive. It’s EVIL to get in people's face, or personal space, and to yell at them your slogans! It’s EVIL to intimidate opponents, by flashing guns, or taunting them to start a fight. It’s EVIL to hate, or discriminate, and to falsely blame others for your own failings!

It’s EVIL to pay protesters to loot/steal, riot, burn things they don’t own, vandalize public property, or try to injure cops! It’s EVIL to not give a darn about poor people of all colors. It’s evil to think your race is superior to others. It’s EVIL to come to America and try to usurp her!

It’s EVIL to cuss. It’s EVIL to seek revenge, even when you were evilly wronged! It’s EVIL to want injustice, but it’s also EVIL to be violent to seek justice. It’s EVIL to want the government to steal other’s money to give you freebies, or to be jealous of people richer than you!

It’s EVIL to preach racial hatred from behind ANY church pulpit! It’s EVIL to spread Covid, knowingly or not, by refusing to wear a mask. It’s EVIL to only care about safe social distancing practices when it hits home to family or people you know! Selfishness is EVIL. So is greed and hoarding.

It’s EVIL to worship your political party, or its platform. It’s EVIL to demand my-way-or-the-highway! It’s EVIL to be willfully stupid, when you have the capacity to learn! There are MANY evils in America and American politics! Stop doing evil, and do good! Repent, America! II Chron. 7:14

The devil is EVIL, and real, and spiritually causing many people to do evil, though he never forces anyone to make those free-willed choices! Stopping their making does not get you to Heaven, or out of Hell. EVERY unforgiven sinner will be eternally in flaming Hell. John 3:16, the Bible.

#MORALSMATTER

FURTHER help for the Bible skeptic, or green horns [Besides our lesson on Skeptics and the Bible, at Jim.Meroney.5], and society in general, for comprehending what morals are:

Distinctions made make comprehension MUCH easier! For example, you have heard don't judge, but IS that the full extent of what it teaches? No. Mt. 7:1-3 We are not to sit in judgment of others, as if we're God (arrogant, holier-than-thou attitude/self-righteousness), but we are to judge between good and evil. Jn. 7:24

And our standard for judgment evil in others must first start with ourselves, watching that we not fall to the same sin(s). Jude 1:23; I Cor. 10:12; Gal. 6:1

What about patience? Patience is a virtue, right? Gal. 5:22-23 Yes, but type-A personalities will likely have a different speed of patience from the sluggard! Eph. 5:16 Relatedly, anxiety is wrong, but Mary hurried to the empty tomb, so her excited racing was not anxiety (and the same with Peter). Phil. 4:6-7; Jn. 20:2, 4 Anxiety is more the unsettled heart than the settled feet.

What other moral distinctions can and should be made, when you synthesize all vs. just some of what God has said? Let's try some further examples of morals (#MoralsMatter)... Peace... We all know people whose temperament is cool as a cucumber. Does that mean they have the peace of God? Well, if they aren't related to Him, it's a false absence of turmoil, because Hell awaits them. But even type-A's can continually have peace, if they're saved, and doing Phil 4:6-7, praying whenever they feel anxiety coming on.

They also can have victory in every circumstance. II Th. 3:16, as the Lord grants that answer to such prayers.

There's often a range of morality—good, better and best, and there's also often two sins disguised as morality, on either side; like we are to love ourselves, Mk. 12:31, but that clearly implies one can not love themselves, but also II Tim. 3:2 teaches of loving yourself as a sinful idol. Healthy self-love, vs. unhealthy not loving yourself/low self-esteem, or too high of an opinion of yourself.

MANY other examples could be listed, like fearing/revering God, NOT being afraid, and not rushing headlong where angels fear to tread fearlessness. Pv. 3:7; II Tim. 1:7; Jude 1:11.

Or faith vs. presumption or unbelief. Pv. 3:5; Mt. 4:7; Rom. 4:20.

Or not being too righteous, or too sinful. Ecc. 7:16; I Cor. 5:13

The point is it takes practice in the word of God to see and comprehend these nuances of morality, and they aren't essential to initially just reading its contents for fulfillment and getting to know Jesus! But if one is untrained in that word, and therefore accuses it of error, they err.

Let's go further in this lesson on morality (and realize, as you engulf your mind with God's word, His Spirit can bring verses to your memory—Eph. 6:17—even if you have never memorized them, as happened here):

Virtues: Contentment (Heb. 13:5; Phil. 4:11-13), Encouragement (I Th. 4:18), Enduring suffering (II Tim. 2:3; I Pet. 5:10), Faith (Mt. 17:20; Mk. 11:22-24), Forgiveness (Eph. 4:32; Mt. 6:15), Generosity (II Cor. 9:7; Lk. 6:38), Gentleness (Gal. 5:22-23, 6:1), Good conscience (I Tim. 1:19; Ac. 24:16), Goodness (Ac. 11:24; Gal. 5:22-23), Graciousness (Pv. 22:11; Col. 4:6), Gratitude (I Th. 5:18; Heb. 12:28-29), Heavenly-Mindedness (Col. 3:1-4; Phil. 3:20), Hope (Rom. 15:13; Heb. 6:19), Hospitality (Heb. 13:2), Humility (I Pet. 5:6; II Chron. 7:14), Impartiality (Jas. 2:1; Ac. 10:34), Joy (Phil. 4:4), Justice (Mic. 6:8), Kindness (Ac. 9:36, 28:2), Loving God (Mt. 22:37), Mercy (Rom. 9:15), Morality (II Cor. 8:21), Patience (Phil. 3:20), Peace (II Th. 3:16; Mt. 5:9), Praise (Heb. 13:15), Purity (Phil. 4:8; Eph. 4:29), Reasonableness (Jas. 3:17), Rejoicing in Trials (Jas. 1:2-4), Reverence (Ac. 9:31), Seeking God First (Mt. 6:33), Self-Control (Gal. 5:22-23), Selflessness (Phil. 2:3-4), Soundness of Mind (II Tim. 1:7), Suffering Ethically (I Pet. 4:19), Truthfulness (Eph. 4:25), ETC.

As you increase in these traits, you will prove useful to God's service, and be rewarded abundantly. II Pet. 1:8

God is NOT the author of confusion (I Cor. 14:33), so the OPPOSITE to morality is immorality, described, partially, as follows:

Vices: Adultery (Ex. 20:14; I Cor. 6:9); Anger (Jas. 1:20), Anxiety (Phil. 4:6-7; I Pet. 5:7-9), Argumentativeness (Pv. 15:18, 29:22), Arrogance (Pv. 16:18), Bitterness (Heb. 12:15), Boastfulness (Gal. 5:26), Covetousness (Ex. 20:17), Cussing (Eph. 4:29), Deception (II Tim. 3:13), Divisiveness (Tit. 3:10), Divorce (Mt. 5:32), Drunkenness (I Cor. 6:10-12), Fear (Lk. 12:32; II Tim. 1:7), Flattery To Take Advantage (Jude 1:16), Fornication (I Cor. 6:9), Gossip (Pv. 16:28), Greed (Eph. 5:3; I Tim. 6:9), Hatred (Pv. 10:12; I Jn. 2:9), Homosexuality (I Cor. 6:9; Rom. 1:26-27), Hypocrisy (Rom. 12:9), Idolatry (I Cor. 6:9), Jealousy (I Cor. 3:3), Laziness (II Th. 3:10; Pv. 13:4), Love of Money (Heb. 13:5; I Tim. 6:10; Lk. 16:14), Lovers of Self (II Tim. 3:2), Lust (I Jn. 2:15-16; II Tim. 2:22), Lying (Col. 3:9), Materialism (Lk. 12:15), Murder (Rom. 13:9; Ex. 20:13), Prejudice (Gal. 3:28; Ex. 22:21), Pride (Pv. 16:18), Quick Temper (Jas. 1:19), Rape (II Sam. 13:14), Rebellion (Pv. 17:11); Reviling (Jude 1:10), Selfishly Ambitious (Phil. 2:3-4), Selfishness (Phil. 2:4), Sensuality (Eph. 4:19), Slander (I Cor. 6:10-12), Sorcery (Levit. 19:31), Stealing (Eph. 4:28), Swindlers (I Cor. 6:10-12), Violence (Pv. 3:31), Worldliness (Jas. 4:4), Worry (Mt. 6:27), ETC.

So with those black and white distinctions, we also know lack of familiarity with God's word can confuse newbies, like the difference between sinful anger vs. righteous indignation; is it wrong to be angry? Jas. 1:20; Eph. 4:26

These distinctions become more easily understood as one ingests God's word on a regular basis, which is what I'm exhorting the Bible skeptics and green horns to do. Ps. 34:8; Heb. 5:14; Josh. 1:8; Ps. 119:9-11

An intricate but important subject: WHY be good? Why obey God's morals? For example, He opposes divorce, with few exceptions. Why is staying married better, and what if it's irreconcilable or abusive? What's the harm in divorce? God has three main reasons we are to obey. He wants to bless us (Ac. 3:26), to spare us unneeded suffering-I Cor. 7:28, and for rewards in Heaven, IF we're going. Maybe less severe yet horrific pain in eternally fiery Hell.

Before I address some sins, my rabbit got loose, because I left his second cage latch undone, unbeknownst to me. The RULE was broken-cost me aggravation, chasing him around the house, time and energy wasted; trouble.

Earlier, he got his regular walk, but someone left the dining room door unlatched, so I had to fish him out of the weights area; trouble! I'm sweating, as result. In both cases, someone broke good rules. Peace lacked, extra work ensued, wasted time and energy, and disruption to better plans for my day. THAT is what breaking God's rules does to us all.

In the case of divorce, you LOSE that special the emotional bond you once had. You lose intimacy, and sadden your kids! I know, as my parents broke up, and the Beaver Cleaver family has never been the same, especially after the glue died (mom). You are less attractive to any people who wanted an un-previously married spouse.

You disobey God (absent His biblical exceptions; Gen. 2:24; Mt. 5:32), and may have to return to the empty nest. Better to try to reconcile, and undergo counseling, but if it can't work, or is abusive, or there was adultery, some people say get one.

Bible scholars disagree on the first two "exceptions." What about cussing? Doesn't it get things off your chest, or tell people how you feel? It can also crush spirits, anger people to revenge, lose you a reputation, cause youth to emulate it/you, and it displeases God.

What about cheating? What's wrong with me getting a better grade than I worked for? it's Unfair to the honest test takers, especially the one you copied off of. It's dishonest gain. You really don't qualify for the job you faked your way into. And it breaks God's law.

What about stealing? People get away with it all the time! it's wrong. It hurts the business, who is the innocent-did nothing wrong. You can argue they have the bucks, but you're making other consumers pay more for their purchases, and the guilt you at least used to feel is rightly earned!

What about premarital sex? Don't we need a test drive before we buy the car? Why buy the cow if you can get the milk for free? You can have guilt. You could see an ex, later on, hand in hand with your love interest. You can have memories. You exposed your most intimate self to a lifelong stranger, if he/she is not the one you marry. Temporary pleasure with longer term consequences—especially if a baby ensues. Heb. 11:25 Isn't God trying to restrain us, and keep us from fun?

SAME idea the devil gave our forefathers. Gen. 3:4 Why not lie, especially if you can get away with it? God judges sin. You know you sinned, so guilt or worry about covering it up can ensue. What a tangled web we weave, when we practice to deceive.

The point is God's laws are there for our good/benefit. We can't always remember them, which is why God tells us to keep re-reading his word. Were also not capable of obeying them without His power. Our sin nature is too strong, and laws erupt it to vengeful power. Rom. 7:11

So, in general, obey God's laws; in specific, or how-to's, walk by the Spirit/faith. It's a relationship, which bears fruit, in obedience to the faith you receive. Spare yourself heartache and troubles, in this life and the next, by fearing the Lord, and turning from evil. Pv. 3:7; Mic. 6:8; Ecc. 12:13

There's a purpose for this story, but the story sets up the purpose, so here goes: I Met a gal from Nigeria, WHO said at least five tribes live there, AND each has its own ritual on how to greet the others, usually involving laying prostrate in respect.

She proceeded to tell me their differences trace back to land, but NOT for the younger generation. I asked if they got along, and she said the older ones don't like the other tribes, and I analogized it to a football rivalry, to which she agreed. However, it turns more serious:

Abductions for money are occurring, and the victim usually gets killed, from fear they'll talk. I asked if the cops don't intervene, but they're corrupt, said she. Why don't the politicians fix that problem? They're corrupt too! If you're an American, there, and a cop pulls you over, it's for money, vs. law violations.

HEREIN is my purpose: WHY is there so much evil in the world, and no entity or entities to solve that? It's NOT in America's national interest to punish such corrupt governments, nor any other nations. So why can't the world bodies have enforcement teams that respect national sovereignty, but enforce agreed to international laws, if the nations won't fix it? God instituted government, to curb sin! Cops/law enforcement, as well (authorities).

No nation like America RIGHTLY wants any outside body dictating our laws or behaviors, but if nations violate clear red lines, like the corruption just described, the rest of us OWE it to their citizens to help them out!

THINK of the groups the Chinese are committing genocide upon, or the paltry condition of the North Korean people. What about ANY peoples who live under oppressive regimes? God does NOT often miraculously intervene, perhaps because He is storing up deserved judgment upon the unjust world, but also because He made humans to have brains to be able to handle such affairs, under His designed structure (the church as a microcosm role model—I Cor. 6:5).

Even regarding poverty, the Church is God's object lesson, WHEN she lives as the church NOT a business (II Cor. 8:14; Ac. 2:45, 4:32-35). NO ONE wants society based on the American local church model, because it is NOT behaving per God's design!

If the church was salt and light by how it operated, then how its members operated in the world, everyone would want a society like that! Justice is God's standard for mankind, and its absence is what causes such anger between men.

Whether it's Jeremy Lin being taunted as "Coronavirus," or Cuomo's MULTIPLE sexual sins, if not crimes, WHY so much evil in our world, and how to stop it?

The ultimate answer is being delivered from this evil, fallen world, but that happens individually. Collectively, and temporarily, God has instituted government to curb evil and praise good (Rom. 13). What if nations use their sovereignty to keep out forces seeking to force better behavior?

EVEN salvation does NOT cure sinfulness! Many Trumpster "Christians" prove that fact to us all, every day. CHUMP himself is a role model that salvation doesn't change any behaviors, in some cases. It is a spiritually legislative declaration of forgiveness, and inner impartation of life/the Spirit, but absent conscious effort (i.e., prayer and Bible study), NO moral change may befall such a claimer!

My point is that we as society can't wait for all to be saved, then sanctified, as not all will do either. Government and laws are God's way for the collective! Again I ask, WHY isn't there a neutral military and police force, charged with the task of ending certain evils in our world, that either affect us all, or none of us have an interest in solving, so the identifiable list of problems continue: Genocide, killing gays, sexual mutilation, abductions etc.

I am FOR technology to end A select sin list, internationally, so no humans on the good side ever get injured. Done right, it can't be abused. Warnings precede use of such forces. The list has to be agreed to by many nations (set a number), and if any nation opposes this, they can war with the allied nations when the technology crosses their borders to end slavery and other evils on the limited list.

Drones and laser-guided weapons to Tase wrongdoers. Cameras to see where they hide. Privacy laws respected for all innocents. NO collateral damage. Facial recognition technology to identify culprits and crooks.

THIS system WILL be usurped and commandeered by the coming Antichrist, who will imbed bar codes in foreheads and/or wrists, forcibly if not volunteered for, so lasers can hit exact targets, even through walls. Until his 7-year deal with Israel (Dan. 9:27), such a system can be used for good.

Nations can have their own mini version, for increased law enforcement. Technology to lessen crimes. Drone-based Taser lasers to zap culprits after megaphone warnings. It's time to call all D.C. politicians together for corporate prayer for holiness commitment in their jobs! Prophecy's coming!

We have the World Health Organization, World Court, World Bank, United Nations, International Court of Justice. Curbing evil more must become a mandate! Terrorists killed. Murderers fleeing justice to other nations zapped and captured, if not killed. Honor killers.

Bank robbers. ALL beheaders of anyone for any reason. Torturers (properly defined). Invaders of nations (like Saddam in Kuwait, or Russia in Ukraine). Evil dictators zapped out of power (Ex.: Kim Jung Un). People who loot towns in war, and rape women. God has given government the power of the sword! (Rom. 13)

Child abusers, wife beaters, date rapers, thieves, armed robbers, hit and run villains, school mass shooters, arsonists, bombers (and private civilians using bombs for terror), muggers, purse snatchers, incest culprits, violent insurrectionists—there are MANY evils technology could stop, until suspects were arrested.

I am FOR technology to zap all such culprits, to disorient and stop them until the cops come. I'm for all privacy rights, but those don't trump law enforcements right to catch criminals! Do the crime, pay the fiddler (price) and do the time, including being Tased by drones, until cops get on scene! I'm ALL for it!

IF you read Rev. 13, those who don't worship tRUMP (I mean the Antichrist), get zapped by his image machines, or killed, and can't do business, as banks are tied to the number of every person (666), like today CHUMP demands 100 percent loyalty, under fear of career ruin, and like e-banking allows the U.S. To shut off bank accounts of Iran, or even monitors questionable transactions of citizens, fearing fraud.

We already have the technology to be used by an evil person to have such a system, but it happens three years after they rise! It's NOT evil to use such for good, vs. for evil. It's needed, if NOT lethal.

A machine can't be killed, and though it can be blown up or shot to pieces, that's not a life being threatened, so the lasers would have to be debilitating, but not deadly. The Antichrist can increase their intensity, for such evil ends.

Drones can follow escapees from justice, and need sensors to view through structures. We already have heat-sensing and night vision technology. A military dude I spoke to said we already have technology to see through walls, and guns that can shoot a mile away. Use that technology so NO U.S. Soldier ever dies in battle!

We need ways to deflect attacks on drones. I will own a fancy drone in two weeks (for work). It's very small, but has amazing capabilities. Government needs many of these, with flying cameras, for lessening evils in society! There's already a Piper-like plane that films major cities, so if any crime is reported, it can reverse to pics at the time of the crime, to follow footage of where the criminals fled to.

Streetlight-mounted cameras, and on-call quick response drones could be launched from cop and fire department venues, upon 911 calls! Film the crime ending, and escape happening, through walls!

THESE problems in society, that are NOT crimes, need funding–NOT so much technology: Poverty, pollution, animal abuse, spouse abuse, discrimination, homelessness, and many others. I've listed ~8 ways to fund them. Cons just want businesses making money! Economics only. No public concern for much more! That's EVIL!

The eight are: Civic service, liberals' extra taxes, government profiting off some services, repaid subsidies at interest, crowd funding, the Giving Pledge, churches and charities. Finding ways for businesses to profit solving these type problems would be good and needed innovation!

Cons don't want a better world; they just want a better wallet size! The world NEEDS to gather/convene, NOT for the Olympics, but to brainstorm how to curb its many ! Cons share no such concern! Just how's the U.S. Economy, and my bank account! All else is lip service or token interest in these things! That makes their theory the enemy of all.

Wars, pollution, land grabs, escapees from justice, illegal drugs, human trafficking, poverty, terrorists... Make the two lists (global and national), and fix these problems! Technology and funding as I described. Cons want NOTHING to do with any funding but charity donations—even not much off business profit!

Cons ONLY focus on the individual. Society is all individuals, collectively. Government has to care how policies impact all constituents/citizens. Cons have zero plans for all these things I've detailed! Just work hard (at your minimum wage job), and don't bother anyone else, especially financially!

EVERY nation's citizens DESERVE to be run by people of THEIR choosing! ALL nations deserve democracy, and all the freedoms and civil rights Americans enjoy! God is NOT stopping that happening! The devil, through evil humans is. Defeat all evil humans, folks! That could be a mantra for our generation!

THE SOURCE OF HATRED

One disclaimer—There are selfless, humble people who live to help others, who are 'good People,' who still share this sin nature I described, which aren't actively living for self as #1, yet they are imperfect, and one sin makes us all guilty before God; so the answer is always John 3:16!

This is to conclude the answer to our question, that people living for themselves as god of both their life and the universe, even if not consciously, maybe even humbly, is why anything anyone else ever does or says can eventually turn into sinful hatred in the human heart. Lk. 9:23

In other words, arrogantly and selfishly and subconsciously, you believe people owe you living up to your standards, as if you are God, and when they don't, and it negatively impacts your life, you don't like it so eventually that disgust or anger turns to hatred; hopefully not violence.

WHY do we hate? To show the answer, look at what triggers it: People annoy you, anger you, are hard to get along with, differ from you severely, a member of a group you believe them to be in does or says something you don't like (so you lump and stereotype), etc.—YOU are the standard

EVILS

Voting for government to spend tons of money, when YOU don't pay in is EVIL! Wanting freebies, any longer than it takes to get on your feet, is EVIL! Government overspending is EVIL! Blaming politicians for ALL of a pandemic's effects, as if no one ever would have died, is EVIL!

Rioting, looting and arson, to protest alleged police brutality is EVIL! It's NOT your property! You RUIN humans' livelihood, and the means they use to feed their family members! May YOU be burned by a flame, yourself, by accidental scorching of a candle. YOU are EVIL!
#SeattlePortland

Saying OUR nation (NOT any others, ironically) alone CAN'T sovereignly control who enters our borders is EVIL! TRYING to bring dumb and poor people here, so Dems can institute institutional theft Socialism is EVIL! Supporting, encouraging and pampering law-breaking immigrants is EVIL!

Murdering homosexuals for their sin is EVIL, because over-punishment is EVIL, Arabs!
Treating women as inferiors, who must walk 10 feet behind all-mighty (arrogant and deceived) YOU is EVIL! NOT letting female kids get an education, lest they be as smart as educated males is EVIL!

Police brutality—IF any cop is NOT in reasonable fatal danger—is EVIL! Resisting lawful police orders is EVIL! Committing crime is EVIL! Running from cops seeking to detail and interrogate you is EVIL! Robbing a convenience store is EVIL! Killing for drugs is VILE/EVIL. Hell is REAL!

Political bias in news reporting is EVIL! Wanting to stack SCOTUS, either by expanding the number of justices, or denying Merrick Garland, only to shove three of your own type is EVIL! EVIL, EVIL EVIL, and I'm NOT speaking of the revered Kniewel stunt jumper motorcyclist (RIP).
E-V-I-L

White supremacy is EVIL, but so is black supremacy, disguised as only a BLM slogan! There ARE black supremacists in the world! Slavery is evil, adultery, rape, incest, child abuse, spouse abuse, laziness, cussing (I'm guilty sometimes), hate, violence, date rape, prostitution—EVIL

Wanting jailbirds to vote and have guns, but not law-abiding citizens is EVIL! Wanting to cancel any opposing views is EVIL! #CancelCulture Unfair wages are evil, just as over-paid executives, or demanding wages you don't deserve or don't earn is EVIL! Unfair taxes to anyone is EVIL!

Some governments' leaders are EVIL (Kim Jung Un, Putin, Communist idolater Chinese, etc.). Governments that use internment camps, and genocide, and force religious people to recant, under threat of torture, are EVIL regimes (China, et al). EVIL exists; resist it! Heb. 12:4
#TheResistance

Government waste is EVIL! Letting anyone but the physically or mentally disabled NOT pay taxes in some form is EVIL! DID YOU UNDERSTAND MY LAST SENTENCE? It is EVIL for anyone to not pay in taxes, if they're not 100 percent disabled, though not always through money, if they have little! EVIL!

Lying is EVIL! Americans do NOT believe that, many times, because we have learned to justify EVIL! White lies, everyone does it, you're naïve if you don't, etc. Cheating on your wife is EVIL, before God and to her and your family! Temporary thrill God SEES! Heb. 11:25 Accounting–Rom. 2:6

IF you want to see the greatest accumulation of examples of evil, read news headlines, or watch many politicians' actions, attitudes or words. Modern politics has become satan's breeding grounds! Lies, demonizing slander, hypocrisy, idolatry, greed, waste, hate. Sin city D.C., IMO.

It should be ILLEGAL for ANY gun owner to NOT have a secure place for their guns, and proved safety testing for their use! EVIL!

On hating evil: https://openbible.info/topics/hate_evil...

Update

(10/19/21-2)

There is a REAL hunger in today's youth for evil to end! Even Steve Martin is talking about the evils of bullying. The tow truck scam and rip off artists I encountered, yesterday, who lied, delayed and had ZERO customer service skills had Our Daily Bread tracts and police Xmas event posters!

It is EVIL to associate evil with good, in that way! D.C. is polluted with full-time evil, NOT just the word "corruption!" EVERY DAY we see increasing evil in our society! The political ideology of far right conservatism is all about reinforcing the EVIL of not giving one da-n about anyone else, as a society as a whole.

Liberalism at least CARES that evil be stopped! The evil of greedy people only in it for themselves, for money! Addressing sex trafficking, people hooked on Illegal drugs, caring NOTHING about our planet, if a buck can be made. EVIL is what politics is ALL about, and money! Fighting evil, or defending it!

It's EVIL to kill innocents in the womb! It's evil to engage homosexual sodomy! It's evil to hate black people, or not lift one finger to help any poor people move a notch higher in life. It's evil to want government to steal for you (Socialism).

It's also evil to want a society with zero safety net, because YOU have it good (that's called selfishness). It's EVIL that America worships the almighty dollar, and that even evangelicals vote their pocketbooks, to embrace worldliness, under the guise of the "American Dream."

HOW MUCH MORE do people on Shark Tank NEED to make, till they give back significantly? If life is all about gaining wealth, God is a liar! It is EVIL that this generation has a fit about, like when Brian Laundrie escapes, unscathed.

It is EVIL to endanger public servants to try to overturn a free election! It is EVIL to push fake news, claim an election was stolen, because you don't like the results, or to manipulate stupid people to believe it was fraudulent, so you can maintain their political support. EVERYTHING in this meme of mine is EVIL!

It is EVIL that the majority (and actually all of them are required to) of U.S. Christians do NOT obey II Chron. 7:14, or embrace full evangelism, relational discipleship, body life and social ministry! WHY has this topic on goodness turned to a laundry list of evil? Because that's its OPPOSITE!

And if you can't identify good or evil, you'll engage the latter, thinking you're embracing the former! HEREs the rub/catch: Seeking good, and not evil, is COMMENDABLE, right, just and moral! BUT, goodness has an expiration date and a definition. Let me explain:

God defines good as moral perfection. He acknowledges man's lesser definitions as having useful validity ("he's a good man"; Cf: Ac. 11:24, but not being the same as His perfect definition. While you seek goodness, and not evil, you do so imperfectly, and that gap below perfection causes you a problem!

The problem is the expiration date! Everyone has one. Heb. 9:27 IF YOU DIE with your evils unforgiven, our loving God has pre-determined that everyone who rejects His solution burns in Hell, because in His accounting system one sin destroyed all mankind's original nature! Jas. 2:10

We all sin/do evil! I cuss and speed, mainly, and I'm impatient, and get quite angry at slow and stupid people, liars and people who cause problems. We are ALL imperfect, even as some of us seek goodness. God has an answer for this dilemma! You can and should still seek goodness! Just don't rely on everyone else so choosing.

LITTLE PROVERBS

FREEDOM

HERE's biblical proof God wants all men to live free:

He wants all men to be saved, and come to a knowledge of the truth (the Bible). I Tim. 2:4 2 Continuing in that Bible lets one know the truth, and the truth sets one free. Jn. 8:31-32 Oppressive regimes are EVIL! Ps. 9:9, 72:4, etc.

LOVE GOD

People say they love God. That's one of four Greek definitions of love, I call "luv": emotion! GOD says if you love Him, your deeds will show it—NOT sentiment words to humans about that love! Jn. 14:15 Prove your claim by practicing what you preach; live the life. Be genuine before Him! The two greatest commands are love God and man. Obedience/doing His will, by faith, is how you show He's number one, and showing love toward humans—not hatred. Evangelism is one of the greatest ways to do so, as it fulfills WHY Christ came, and is the ONLY act that helps men eternally! Lk. 19:10

SUCCESS

THIS verse PROVES that America mis-defines "success," because many (if not most) "successful" people have NEVER done this, which also proves the devil can make one rich! Josh. 1:8 (Cf.: Mt. 4:9)

PEOPLE SKILLS

Want to warm up a stranger? Smile, repeat their name and speak of what THEY are interested in. #CommonSense and lessons from Dale Carnegies' famous book. Earl Nightingale said, success is the continual realization of a worthy goal (paraphrased). LEARN wisdom from heroes/experts, Millennials. BLUE and WHITE COLLAR

I learned this week, there are professional and physical blue collar workers, and among those two categories there are NON-college educated people with people skills, intuition, judgment and common sense, and maybe even IQ's worthy of college; and then there are others lacking those, as with some college grads.

COMMUNICATION

Even though you're speaking the exact same language, communication may not occur, either from clinged to biases, or different experiences of the same terms, lower IQs, or disliking a person, so you're unwilling to listen or understand. Throw in language barriers, and it's MORE complex.

WORK HARD OR SMART?

I've NEVER thought the difference between working hard and working smart was that large, until I met people who work dumbly! The effort they exert from lack of thinking through what they're doing never overcomes dumb lack of planning, in ultimate results, yet they're content with LESSer!

MOTIVES

Fun experiment to learn people's motives, to see if they're more interested in your success, or theirs off your work!: When you test that distinction, and learn the former, it incentivizes even greater output. I'd guess if you learned the latter, if you weren't self-motivated, it could do the opposite.

BOOK SMART VS. STREET SMART

There are book smart and life smart people. Not everyone has both skills! They all have their place in life. We're born with natural talents, and there are some skills you can learn. Even if you're born with talent, you can learn to hone your craft! All people have at least one God-given talent. Find yours!

LIKING PEOPLE

In life, there are people you naturally like and/or are attracted to, and people you quite instantly DON'T like, and some you never will! You discover the difference over time and interactions.

THINKING VS. FEELING

When you're incapable of thinking, you are stuck with emotion and opinion! You're unable to argue your case, so you use emotion/anger, and maybe even threats. More brawn over brain, when the gray matter is pea puny.

THINK ON YOUR FEET

Thinking on your feet is a skill needed to be taught, with practice, in high school! Deep thinkers aren't always the fastest to detect evil manipulation attempts, but when they ponder/analyze what was said or done to try to manipulate, later they don't always trust those types again!

SELFLESSNESS

Don't know how you teach someone selflessness, or less selfishness! You can tell them others' perspective, ask them how they feel if something selfish was done to them. In driving, I sometimes give people a taste of their own medicine, or HONK, hoping learning is possible for them.

MENTALLY CHALLENGED

IF you're born with a lower IQ, READ a lot, watch TV documentaries, DON'T listen to dumb song lyrics, or entertainment YouTube videos. Hang around smarter people, if they're endure you; if not, serve them/do them favors, for the privilege of your annoyance to learn and grow brain cells/stretch brain muscles.

BANDWAGONS

I have one rule of thumb I regularly stand by: If people weren't with you when you were at low points, they get zero benefits being with you when you're at high points! #Justice People often flip, quite quickly, when others see success, but that's just hypocrisy, and you never reward evil!

PEOPLE TYPES

People-watching/observing is an interesting sport! There are bottom line folk, who you never speak small talk to, unless you have a result to share. Then there are people interested in HOW you achieve results, and your motivations for so doing. I find them MUCH more interesting people.

PEOPLE PERSONS

Some people have never met a stranger (like me). Others have never met a person they didn't like. Those types have to be FEW and far between! Most everyone has people they don't like, usually by words or deeds done by them!

OLD CARS

If you have an older car, you can usually find cosmetic parts at salvage yards, that will do the trick for under $100! My vans rear door would have cost $500-800, after-market. We got it for $75. I've bought two hoods for my Honda, and miraculously, they had one gold one last week out of town.

JUSTICE

In most cases in America, you earn what you deserve! If you can do better, it's 100 percent on you to prove it, by securing better pay! NO ONE owes you help, in this regard! Cold, hard facts!

INSIDER DEALS

If you think friendship deals are awesome, you're only right part of the time! Friends in business can also charge you MORE than strangers, because you won't price search your amigo like you would a stranger! "NEVER do business with friends or family." Relationships are more important than money!

FORGIVE & FORGET?

Forgive is NOT forget! God doesn't make us be stupid, and forget patterns! Annoyance, can turn to anger, then to rage, and eventually hatred, I would think, when repeated offenses continue, and confronting it only causes denial, playing possum stupid, or fake apologies with continuation. (7/6/21)

WEALTH & WISDOM

Wealth doesn't prove you're an expert at anything, especially if its inherited. You may be an expert at what made you wealthy, but that excellence does not innately transfer to any other areas of life, though its arrogance can. (7/7/21)

TWO TYPES OF ANGER

Bible on anger: Don't go to sleep still feeling it, and express it, without crossing moral lines; forgive, rebuke, look at log in your own eye first, be righteously angry (command). Psychology says depression is anger turned inward, like ticking time bombs for those who hold things in. (7/7/21)

RELATIONSHIPS

People change; grow apart; usually don't discuss those changes with those drifted from, and aren't always doing so because they're evil—just less interested in commonalities they may have shared in earlier times. Plus, they can tire of bad practices or habits, so they seek distance. (7/7/21)

WHY BE GOOD?

Christian goodness imposters: 1. Do-gooder-ism 2. Legalism 3. Holier than thou/Pharisaism 4. Self-righteousness 5. Fruit inspectors 6. Works-based living 7. Not trying at all, toward goodness (i.e., sin at will)

A WEIRD message, because you wouldn't expect a Christian to ever argue against morality. We are not. We are arguing against moral perfectionism, in that biblical morality is always less than that! Based on Ecc. 7:16, I'm saying these evils are imposters to authentic Christianity:

In light of this morning's message, lets address WHY NOT BE EVIL: 1. You can go to jail 2. It hurts your reputation 3. It can hurt your employment opportunities 4. Others don't like it, and may seek revenge 5. GOD doesn't like it, and will bring justice 6. You disappoint your parents.

BE GOOD!

(7/19/20)

To improve/advance/progress/evolve, you start with perfect state, and work backwards, knowing you will never achieve the end-game. Liberals have their own description of the perfect society. Let's now detail what that would look like, but get there without their funding mechanism—ONLY 66 percent of Americans who are tax payers:

In a perfect (unachievable) world, there would be NO wars, deadly/cancerous pollution, natural disasters, rape, murder, robberies, severely poor, unemployed against their will, injustice, excess police brutality, taxes more than are required, human trafficking, pimps, drug dealers, addicts, DUIs, homeless, spousal or even animal abuse, hatred, racism, bullies, tax cheats, Ponzi schemes, white collar crime, arsonists, incest, arrogance, selfishness, envy, greed.

In short, there would be morals, and no sin or problems. This will NEVER happen in this life! But how does a civil society fix social problems without taxpayers funding it? Quite literally, each civilian/citizen decides to be moral... to work a job, be their best, obey the laws, and generally respect others, or at least peacefully coexist by leaving them alone.

That one simple decision would fix MOST of those listed "issues." It doesn't require religion, though it can, and often does help many people.

Our problem is, even with free will, we're incapable of not sinning! Human nature is that we all will commit at least one sin; usually many more. But to the degree you have any self-control, decide to live moral!

And that is NOT do-gooder-ism, legalism, holier-than-thou pride; it's simply, peacefully and as an acquired habit, CHOOSING not to break any laws (except where laws are bad, and civil disobedience is in order), and treat other people right, or avoid them if you can't! (Rom. 12:18) Be your imperfect best!

GOOD & EVIL

There's a REAL hunger in today's youth for evil to end! Even Steve Martin is talking about the evils of bullying. It is EVIL to associate evil with good! D.C. is polluted with full-time evil, NOT just the word "corruption!"

EVERY DAY we see increasing evil in our society! The political ideology of far right conservatism is all about reinforcing the EVIL of not giving one da-n about anyone else, as a society as a whole.

Liberalism at least CARES that evil be stopped! The evil of greedy people only in it for themselves, for money! Addressing sex trafficking, people hooked on Illegal drugs, caring NOTHING about our planet, if a buck can be made.

EVIL is what politics is ALL about, and money! Fighting evil, or defending it! It's EVIL to kill innocents in the womb! It's evil to engage homosexual sodomy! It's evil to hate black people, or not lift one finger to help any poor people move a notch higher in life.

It's evil to want government to steal for you (Socialism). It's also evil to want a society with zero safety net, because YOU have it good (that's called selfishness). It's EVIL that America worships the almighty dollar, and that even evangelicals vote their pocketbooks, to embrace worldliness, under the guise of the "American Dream."

HOW MUCH MORE do people rich people NEED to make, until they give back significantly? If life is all about gaining wealth, God is a liar!

It is EVIL that this generation has a fit about, like when Brian Laundrie killed Gabby Petito. It is EVIL to endanger public servants to try to overturn a free election! It is EVIL to push fake news, claim an election was stolen, because you don't like the results, or to manipulate stupid people to believe it was fraudulent, so you can maintain their political support.

It is EVIL that the majority (and actually all of them are required to) of U.S. Christians do NOT obey II Chron. 7:14, or embrace full evangelism, relational discipleship, body life and social ministry!

WHY has this topic on goodness turned to a laundry list of evil? Because that's its OPPOSITE! And if you can't identify good or evil, you'll engage the latter, thinking you're embracing the former!

HERE's the rub/catch: Seeking good, and not evil, is COMMENDABLE, right, just and moral! BUT, goodness has an expiration date and a definition. Let me explain...

God defines good as moral perfection. He acknowledges man's lesser definitions as having useful validity ("he's a good man"; Cf: Ac. 11:24), but not being the same as His perfect definition. While you seek goodness, and not evil, you do so imperfectly, and that gap below perfection causes you a problem!

The problem is that expiration date! Everyone has one. (Heb. 9:27) IF YOU DIE with your evils unforgiven, our loving God has pre-determined that everyone who rejects His solution burns in Hell, because in His accounting system one sin destroyed all mankind's original nature! (Jas. 2:10)

We all sin/do evil! I cuss some, and speed, mainly, and I'm impatient, and get quite angry at slow and stupid people, liars and people who cause problems. We are ALL imperfect, even as some of us seek goodness. God has an answer for this dilemma!

You can and should still seek goodness! Just don't rely on that to get you where you should want to end up, when you reach your expiration date, because all your good actions and attitudes will never get anyone to Heaven, when that expiration date hits us all! John 3:16

And even as we often see evidence of society going to Hell in a hand basket, do also realize that sin was prophesied to increase in the last days, so even as our youth demand higher standards than their predecessors, victories will come even as losses do also.

In summary, my 3-point sermon is:

1. Be vigilant in being for good and against evil!
2. Get forgiven of all your sins, before you die! And,
3. Know that Bible prophecy is quickly approaching.

THE PERFECT MURDER

Disclaimer: The following is a “fictional” depiction. Any resemblance to real personages is purely coincidental. Any potential characters’ names have been omitted to protect the guilty.

Your career in paper towels, then commercial real estate sales is floundering. Your finances are desperate and you have run through all your wife’s inheritance that she will allow. A huge flood enters your hometown so you and your wife show concern for the harmed by volunteering at a local charity where you meet a (more) beautiful woman and her husband of over 48 years.

One day, your spouse and hers are unable to attend, and you use your salesman’s charm to seduce a weak woman who likely suffered bipolar mania for years. Soon you are covertly “dating,” though still married (adultery) and her son films your cars together at a hotel. He even tells the con man’s wife they are sleeping together, and she warns him that son is “crazy” and coming to his office to prove the affair. She later apologizes to that son.

Then the adulterous woman’s hubby hires an attorney to prove the situation. Upon her husband’s exposing the affair to his family in front of her, that mania kicks in and she asks what everyone would like for dinner. Soon there’s a separation. Her delusion—with vile attorneys’ help—labels her husband as an abandoner, having left the household to ease tensions and give her time to start thinking rationally again.

The con man uses that same separation period to deepen their sin together, and within months the two are married by an unsuspecting pastor without any family members’ knowledge, approval or attendance. He inquires about getting his hands on her children’s’ trust fund before deciding whether he will marry her.

Attorneys reject his inquiry but he figures there’s still enough money to make the deal worth it (10 years younger than the woman), and has his vile attorney draft a will cutting everyone but himself out of the money he never spent one minute earning, all as his wife was enthralled with his pseudo romanticism.

To convince her of his Christian “faith,” he writes a book of false theology on how to become a Christian (if God has nothing to do with his human process design) and self-publishes—as no one else would want to read it. He even uses her contacts with a Baptist college president to get an endorsement!

To play along with that mirage, he even lets her buy a condo in the Caymans—something her budget savvy husband would never have done he reminds her—but God destroys it in a hurricane. Now is his opportunity to pounce.

We've tried using our stash your way—now let this multiple-time business loser squander it in an on paper public oil company to boost his ego and hopefully his sales reputation. To no avail. Within a couple years he's begging his investors for a job at the company he sells them for pennies on the dollar. Still broke, he starts adulterating with between 2 and 3 other women, one set to inherit a lot, all as his wife stays at home, now suffering from depression for five years with him. One day, as he is in Belize, claiming to be doing oil deals—though that's also where his heiress mistress lived, his wife (aged 78) falls and breaks her arm in their household (the house her real husband paid for).

No one knows of it for 18 hours, as she lies in her poop and pain. That day she must have determined that she could no longer take being married to this scoundrel, for within a month—without ANY medical ailments—she chose (and somehow had the determination) to end her life through starvation.

The con had met some inexpensive help to care for her during that time, and he had them Google how to legally allow your otherwise healthy spouse to die without interference—something called death by dehydration. He had already been told by a mini skirt attired doctor that his state-funded insurance was bad and would cover few to no mental health procedures to make his wife better (as he also learned years back when she was hospitalized for depression).

So, the choice was clear—let my wife (with whom I have not had sex in six years, as he once told her son) die—not suicide, not murder—the perfect, LEGAL crime (all done under the tutelage of a Google web site).

For 21 days she starved herself. Her son called the police from four hours away to conduct a “welfare check,” as surely this was either illegal suicide or illegal murder (to which that mother said on the phone, “son, why are you trying to kill me?” though he lived four hours away). That statement alone shows the condition of her mental state to anyone with eyes.

Even those attending her decided to commit her to a country mental hospital ward, but the smooth operator assured them he loved her and was caring for all her needs and following her (depression and despairing) wishes.

Her eldest daughter tended to her constantly, and her best friend youngest daughter was by her side nearly every day, but eight days later she succumbed to what it means to be associated with this man whose own children have never had one visit or word with him in protest of the decision he made to abandon them, leave them high and dry and make his wife go back to full time work at a late age.

Both her grandson and one daughter have suffered severe collapses since that event (I guess writing gets me through!?), and all her children were cut out of their own inheritance by his conniving attorney (who should be disbarred) at the behest of this devil—except for a paltry sum for the handicapped one who needed it the most, all in the name of wanting to give some to the poor people of Mexico.

If ANYONE in Mexico ever sees a dime of his blood money, will you give me a call and tell me how your cup of Joe tasted? This man is still on the loose, still on the prowl, and I warn any elderly and wealthy female in West Houston to be on your guard. Bank account sucking vampires DO exist, and even use “Jesus” as their cover!

(2/1/20)

My dad informs me God took care of the scoundrel, late 2018, when he slipped in a shower, hit his head on the tiles, went into a coma, and died a few years later. The Grim Reaper then ushered him to Hell, IMO.

HOW TWITTER SITE @James Meroney

WAS USED BY GOD TO CHANGE AMERICAN POLITICS & RELIGION

When my family moved to DFW in late 2005, we soon joined one of the largest churches in North Dallas. Soon after, after attending regularly, I noticed (as with most American churches) there was not a lot of emphasis or activity for evangelism or relational discipling.

God led me to volunteer on eight occasions, to staff members, to teach those two subjects and invite those men to evangelize with me (more details can be found at “church conflicts” on our ‘religious’ website, which will later be revised to add details I omitted, when I thought some churches mentioned had made positive changes—only to discover they secretly rallied Christians for Trump, addressed below).

Every single time I was rebuffed on both counts, often told that that was not their Sunday School curricula (or ‘business model’).

I probably would have stopped the prodding there. But God would not let me! I left notes with Sunday School leaders, held our ‘Go Evangelize!’ sign outside the church on a busy Sunday morning, emailed and voice-mailed top staff, and engaged many other methods God led me to for about two or three years (details at “church conflicts,” mentioned above).

As well, in our Sunday School class, (which I really enjoyed), I would ask questions, clarify teachings or add material to enhance the lessons, given my ministry background.

One day a lady took offense at these interjections, and on another Saturday evening, when a staffer filled in to teach, he took offense at being corrected that ‘Christians need a whole new root’ (which is untrue; revival and pruning, yes; Jesus is our root, so NO new root!).

Then another top staffer mocked a prophecy chart I had designed, and joked with a different class teacher who was looking it over, ‘so you have it all figured out? All I know is Jesus is coming back soon.’ He also used the phrase ‘image is everything,’ which I (biblically) corrected.

I spoke of this guy’s comments on Twitter, and suggested (vaguely; referencing Moses) a staffer with a bit of a speech challenge who is well respected be put in charge of that new campus. He was. This led to a phone call from Arizona, where my Sunday School teacher was apparently being courted with top staff (at a Texas Ranger’s baseball practice arena) to call me and say, ‘I want to meet with you.’

I asked if it was about using my materials in class, and he said, ‘yes.’ When I arrived at the church, suddenly there was not just that teacher, but two staff members. After hearing me out (to fulfill due process requirements), they cut to the chase for what they were really there for: I was no longer allowed in Bible Fellowship (‘Sunday School’) class—any on that campus. My wife kept attending for years, but not I.

For four or five years there were serious changes for the good, there, and they continue to this day (which is highly commendable, as I have done on twitter from time to time!)! Sermons often came from our religious website’s contents, as with program changes seeking to address top priorities we refer to as ‘EDBS’ (many examples will be listed in our new book, which I reference below).

When my three kids got baptized, I told a respected staffer God doesn’t approve of sexual immorality among ministers. Several months later, a high up staffer relatedly quit. I also quit my membership there the weekend the pastor proposed buying a multi-million dollar third campus as ‘good news for evangelism.’

Then, in later 2013, after posting on Trip Advisor (as TruthTeller2020) that if visitors wanted to know the real story behind the scenes, go to our revised website's "church conflicts" section. This prompted a phone call to meet a staffer. When I arrived, the two gents informed me I could not add to that website anything about their church, or ever mention it online again, or speak with any staffers.

I not only agreed, I hand-wrote a contract to that effect, and they made three or four copies. Then, on our only Twitter site (at the time), I started seeing Christian minister viewers/visitors. I did not follow one soul at the time, and a glitch (now fixed) let me identify who was dropping by, or staying quite a while (I also rarely messaged anyone or used hashtags).

For about one year God led me (often late at night, sometimes for weeks) to address American pastors on top biblical priorities. At one time Linked-In (a platform I had never used—only posted a profile) emailed me that 'you are approaching legend status' and a 'stadium full of people' had been there.

I did not know about, or Twitter didn't yet have their analytic dashboard, so I had been typing completely in faith that people were watching—the numbers unknown by myself.

So after the contract is signed, that church monitored our Twitter account like a hawk! Many different accounts dropped by, associated with the staff or its programs. Many mega pastors, seminary professors and presidents, and denominational heads saw our call on the most important issues. Our book, Christians For Trump: Is God a Democrat or a Republican? will fully detail all these matters soon, for free, on our coming political website, AmericanAnswers.org.

Near the end of 2014, on three occasions God let me now that site would turn political (and I said as much on Twitter). Soon, I was typing 'messages' on political doctrines that SOLVE problems in a balanced way, not favoring either political party, and Washington VIP's and many others started dropping by, and even using some of our ideas!

I kept a log of many of these visitors in MS Word, as it was nearly as shocking as the famous ministers who dropped by the year before. How exactly these events turned into a handful of pastors getting out the WASP Christian vote for Trump, after betraying morals and even myself (who essentially got them together, only for spiritual priorities—details in the Media section of our main Twitter account) will also be fully disclosed in our Christians For Trump book.

Needless to say, although I am for some ideas Trump stumbled into (as they were detailed here first—well before he even started his campaign), his immoral and ignorant antics were opposed by us from the start, and we have never wavered from that position (except for four hours on one day, when we were quite angered over a politicized issue at my wife's high school).

Having been a life-long Republican, and having voted GOP since Reagan, the day Trump won I changed parties (at least so long as he is affecting that party). If you want to know why, one of the many reasons is our Facebook argument (Jim Meroney): <https://www.facebook.com/jim.meroney.3/posts/1683401871972299>

I hope you will read the whole story, when we post that latest book for free on that website. You will learn the methods a handful of ministers (mainly starting from my Twitter account, exhorting spiritual change, then advocating for gay marriage to remain a state's rights issue, Constitutionally), which warped into support of the most ignorant and immoral person of all 17 2016 GOP presidential candidates.

That decision, 1.5 weeks after its lead spokesperson said at this church that Trump's antics were 'non-sense,' and after telling the crowd at the North Texas Presidential Forum that they had the candidates they really wanted (and Trump and Hillary were NOT there), was made public to ABC news, where the term 'champion' was stated as what that pastor was willing to do for Trump's cause.

For the next six months I protested by not attending that church (except on special occasions, like children singing, etc.). Now, being again shocked and surprised that that very same pastor (an 'evangelical adviser' of Trump) threatened (then wisely retracted) to withhold $1 million from the Southern Baptist Convention, largely to keep members from criticizing Trump (like the great Dr. Russell Moore), I have temporarily and indefinitely chosen not to attend there again.

I already moved my membership to First Baptist, Houston in early July 2016, after discovering this Christian Cabal's actions, and our book will expose every detail that I know, for they played a large role in getting an 81 percent Christian turnout, mainly for Trump, after increasing their public stature among ministers, and public visibility from my private promptings to do spiritual priorities!

The intelligence and integrity standard Trump exhibited for seventeen months were not anything I would ever have supported, had I known these men would use my God-led promptings for evil, and our latest (free) books will be our response to that wicked choice (that hurts Jesus's reputation, and severely harmed the party I had been a member of).

I hope you will read it at AmericanAnswers.org (when online), and see our daily posts or interact with us anytime on Twitter (@JamesMeroney). Thanks, and God bless.

MY STORY (AKA, Who The Heck Is This?)

The following is a blow-by-blow TRUTHFUL account most U.S. Citizens do NOT know, and could not know unless a VIP informed them, or they randomly found our Twitter site, @JamesMeroney. It's lengthy, but important.

Starting in 2004/5, my family moved to Dallas, and joined Prestonwood Baptist Church. I had, since 1981, been pushing Christians and pastors to engage evangelism and discipleship, as the two main ministries MISSING significantly since the Church Growth Movement began, and had faced MUCH opposition (detailed in "Church Conflicts," at this website's Will You Live Forever? button).

I got that very same resistance trying to get that church to do those same two ministries much more, over about a six year span.

Finally, it seems possibly as a result of a summer of cancer treatments, the head pastor FINALLY started heeding my warnings and advice from God (ALL details are in that same section)!

To bring you up to speed, and make a long story shorter, that man had me banned from every Sunday School class, for knowing the Bible too much for the teacher and laymen, then proceeded 1.5 years later to force me to sign a contract to never mention his church online again (or converse with any staffers), or I could not return (it was my children's and wife's official church since that beginning—I un-membershiped myself when these conflicts started).

To monitor whether I was obeying the contract, he or his closest associates watched what I tweeted like a hawk! It was evident in his sermon content! For a period of about four or five years, perhaps a third of the new programs and sermon content came directly from that website!

I was amazed, gratified and humbled, and after a while, I believed he had SINCERELY seen the light that my materials were taken straight from the Bible, so to ignore or reject them meant willful disobedience to God's "EDBS" priorities.

That year of his monitoring, his gigantic connections became apparent to me, as Twitter had a glitch they have now fixed (I should have never informed them of), where I could see who viewed my posts, because if you never followed anyone, or used '@' or '#,' it was open and obvious! I copied and pasted most all of the accounts, and they were Christian VIPs! I still have the file listing them all!

Linked-In (which profile I have yet to use—it just exists as a bio) emailed me, and said that account was reaching "near legend status," and a "stadium full" of people had viewed it that month. This began near Nov 11, 2014 to late 2015. Major American pastors, seminary professors, and Southern Baptist denominational executives, et al.

But when, after a year of "religious" (spiritual) posts exhorting ALL pastors to do EDBS priorities ended, I wrote that the Lord was going to make that account "turn political." And boy did it, late 2014! The national gay marriage push back from pastors, which was WEAK and way late, came from there. The evangelical council behind Chump came from there!

I stirred up that man, God leading myself, to get angry when I accused his generation of letting Roe pass about as unabated as Obergefell! He, having fought abortion all his Texas ministry, apparently saw an opening to secure SCOTUS justices to possibly overturn that decision.

Six times he sought myself to run for President. They even had one sermon invitation explicitly asking people to come forward if they felt God calling them to run for office. The Lord warned me, so I did not go forward. Now, with his Trump support, abandoning morality, I know why!

He (or his associate(s)) actually WATCHED the Lord call me to run for president. It was near 3am, when God used to wake me to write (years on end), and the prayerful conversation was so intimate and personal, I deleted it the next few days (and I rarely delete anything I write, as I believe in the content).

Well he sees the common sense political doctrine I'm writing, live and spontaneously (NO rehearsal, or pre-planning), and starts telling famous pastors (who started to come to our church to ensure I was real, and to corroborate his desire that I run), and his GOP connections.

Soon the greatest VIPs in the world came by here—probably about everyone you could name! I kept a record of their account names, as well, as I was blown away (before Twitter finally fixed the glitch, so I started following accounts, to get my follower numbers up).

tRUMP learned of me, because when Jack Graham's final push for me to run was rebuffed (as God had always told me 2020), 1.5 weeks after a Wednesday eve service, when he called Trump's campaign "nonsense," I see him speaking to ABC news, saying he can "champion" that man! June 23, 2016.

Trump had actually hand-selected my only two pastors the past 30 years to start his adviser board, according to a Fox News article I cite as documentation at our FREE book, Christians For Trump, at AmericanAnswers.org.

No New York City hardly a churchgoer would have known or singled only those two pastors out! You could possibly get a CD of that Wednesday night service, and HERE is the news article that followed his ABC interview: <https://christianpost.com/.../megachurch-pastor-jack...>
FLIP-FLOP in 1.5 weeks!

I later surmised he and his close pastor friends brokered a deal with CHUMP to exchange white Christian votes for SCOTUS picks to overturn Roe! By that direct connection, CHUMP stole five or six of his VERY FEW policy ideas he campaigned on, namely MAGA (I had always used #USA#1), closed borders (NOT an actual wall, which was stupid to me, in most areas of the border—electronics were a much better solution!), lower taxes (especially for business; maybe 25 percent—not as low as he went), destroy ISIS, and stop hurting American workers and ‘Rust Belt’ employees by over-outsourcing and over-immigration, as it was unpatriotic and wrong (and a way Democrats got more voters)!

Do ANY of these concepts sound familiar to you, recalling the 2016 election? Chump mainly had "it will be yuge and great—believe me," prior to reviewing my writings (which is also likely one reason he started so late, as I write a lot!).

So when you "soon" see me doing what God called me to do (i.e., run for President), you are free to think me a nobody that I am, but you cannot discount all God has done through me since 2014!

That very same man (who visits the White House at least every three months, Oval Office included) even said (through innuendo, which has been going on for four years+) that I led America the past few years! It's actually true, but NO ONE but VIPs know it, to speak of!

The day CHUMP won, I changed parties, in protest of immorality and ignorance! For 2.5 years I helped Dems with their major strategy decisions. About 106 (I quit writing them down after 106) major news stories came from media outlets watching here, and about 70 accurate predictions were made here, documented in that FREE book.

I have a notebook by my bed, with going on four college-ruled pages, two-sided, every time a sermon adds innuendo, a news event follows my writing, or a politician uses it for strategy.

You would never know ANY of this, as God leads Christians to be humble, UN-like the “baby Christian” his handlers marketed as such, knowing his sin-full campaign couldn't sustain his own claim to having been an actual, vs. baby Christian!

Please let me, like the apostle Paul, be coerced by circumstances, to tell you of many other major impacts God alone has brought about through myself writing, because I have since learned that even men of the cloth lie, to save face ("plausible deniability"), and without being forced to take 2 or 3 professional and independent lie detectors, they will deny these factual claims until the Rapture, if it could hurt Chump, or their precious reputations they destroyed, backing evil to get Roe overturned.

I received an email from Barack Obama's office, and Mitt Romney said publicly about me a very glowing statement:

"One of our next generation of Republican leaders, one who may not be as well-known as I am today, one who has not yet taken their message across the country, one who is just getting started, may well emerge as being better able to defeat the Democrat nominee." –Mitt Romney (January, 2015)

"Your passion for effecting change is deeply inspiring, and as you continue looking for ways to spur progress across the country we both love, know MicHelle and I will be standing alongside you every step of the way." –Barack Obama (May 10, 2018)

Last November, I wrote 13 Democrat billionaires, seeking backing for a 2020 Dem run (my website still says I'm a Dem, as I'm too cheap to change the party or year, until I need to!).

Howard Schultz, God bless his soul, forsook his party's adoration, and lost $1 million, based on my letter, as he said on 60 Minutes, he wasn't necessarily the smartest person running, but he was “recruiting.” He went to my two hometowns, in his flawed testing the waters (Houston and Dallas’ SMU): <https://cbsnews.com/.../highlights-from-howard-schultz.../>

I did not know if he was flaunting stealing my ideas, or oddly trying to communicate by innuendo, but discovered a few weeks ago that backers/funders cannot legally contact candidates. I NEVER knew that, and wondered why he didn’t just phone, email or write!

I have since apologized to him profusely, by letter and tweet, but I don’t think he’s over licking his wounds! It was NOT just back surgery that ended his little jaunt!

Then there’s Melania... She told the media one of her three most troubling sources as first lady was “book writers,” and people on social media blasted her for not using the term “authors.” She SO knows my work, on Twitter, that term used to be my daily retweeted disclaimer!

“WELCOME to the hot seat of objectivity and TRUTH. IF you don’t read our tweets bottom-to-top, you’ll usually MISS their meaning and a doctorate in life! This is a personal diary and rough draft book writer’s note pad. We make typos for later correction and abbreviate words intentionally!”

Then CHUMP himself said, about a week after my political website went online (with the slogan, ‘America’s Honest Politician’), he thinks he’s a “pretty honest guy.”

And on Sept. 29, 2018, he said “The only thing I worry about is that some total unknown that nobody ever heard of comes along.” He knows my account, VERY well, even though I have blocked anyone and everyone associated with him, there are ways you can still watch!

How about Liz Warren? Did anyone ever hear her beg Dem candidates to renounce billionaire money? You’re welcome for causing her such fears! She knows of my Twitter account, and my outreach to Dem donors, as I am an open book—transparent/America’s Honest politician and The World’s Most Innovative Man.”

Did you see her homemade video, just before announcing, where there’s a dead air minute when she leaves the camera to go grab a beer? You’re welcome, again, as I’ve said I don’t drink the stuff, as I don’t like the taste. She knew I had promised to announce on Juneteenth (so Kamala Harris imitated it, announcing on another African-American day with meaning).

Mark Cuban and Kanye said things about possibly running, because Mark loves my centrist ideas, and my over 4,700 new product ideas. Kanye had to seek mental health treatment, when I did NOT run, as promised, but switched parties, as I inspired his consideration by MOCKING if this is just a popularity contest, and you don’t need any substance or knowledge, why doesn’t one of the Kardashians run? I have documentation of every tweet I reference in that free book. I save every tweet.

How about the very slight movement toward spiritual revival and more evangelism? God’s doing, through this nobody, primarily. (II Cor. 12:11; details at “church conflicts,” at our other website)—mainly that one year of debates and rebukes of national mega pastors, and others, for NOT doing FULL evangelism, or ‘EDBS’ priorities.

AOC’s rise in the Dem party made me put the brakes on, early April, and I had always said Biden was who I most related to. Oprah herself withdrew considering running, when the Lord had me post the following, at God’s direction:

[Personally, OK with just selling books]. Why do you think mudslides and the Cali fire 'you' were typing about AS IT STARTED hit where it did, 'young man?' Direct hit. You think that a mere coincidence? Think again! Probably global warming? HILARIOUS! Keep your options OPEN!

I've written Mr. Bloomberg 3 or four times, since last November, seeking funding. His seven accounts hovered at my Twitter account for over three weeks, in late March, but I NEVER knew why he didn't just contact me directly, until the Lord woke me up near 3am, recently, to research the law on donor contact!

Did anyone recently read Bill Gates say he doesn't want to grab that megaphone, when asked why he doesn't fund presidential candidates, then say, he's tempted sometimes? He's been written 2 or 3 times, and been made aware of our writings.

To be VERY specific, YOU need to read them too or you will NEVER understand why VIPs on BOTH sides of the aisle warmly embraced our solutions for D.C.! Here's where you can read them, for FREE:

Posts and especially liked tweets at @JamesMeroney (our home base) @ImMadTooEdwin @Pledgers2020 @2020Victory @PledgersARCHIVE @BuildBetterBiz @ProphecyForYou, Facebook (james.meroney.9), and 3 other Facebook accounts (Jim and James Meroney), YouTube (Search: AmericanAnswers.org), that same titled website, and its Will You Live Forever? button, and our 13 books at Kindle and Amazon, also available at AmericanAnswers.org.

I don't publicize; I don't seek out fame; I don't care that since 2011 the general public rarely finds my writings! I have turned down eight calls for me to run for President. I don't even believe 2024 will be successful, until these ideas get more known, by 2028. That's FINE with me!

God has His David prepared to take down Goliath, this year, with Bloomberg, if he or Biden so choose. God has His ways and timing. He led me to 2020, for four years, then gave more details, through AOC's rise, then my own pastor's shenanigans I cannot trust.

My party affiliation is fluid, but my positions are NOT! They're centrist, and benefit BOTH parties justly, as God is for justice! (Mic. 6:8) SIMPLY READ THE ONLY TEXT you first see, at AmericanAnswers.org, and if ANYONE running has better ideas, or didn't steal from me, vote for them! That website has THOUSANDS of life pointers, and wisdom second only to the Bible, but it looks primitive! I like things that way. Behind those immature/unsophisticated buttons is the greatest help to your life you will find anywhere—PERIOD, and all for FREE!

That's how we roll, just like the best tweets not in our free book are in the liked sections of our political Twitter accounts (i.e., hidden). I'm not a showy guy! My cars are 19 and 15 years old, and I don't care if anyone hates that! Formal attire, apart from funerals and weddings, is nice blue jeans!

Enough about me. The solution to D.C. Is finding the good in both parties, and rejecting their bad! The ONLY two alternatives are gridlock, or undoing your opponent's achievements. BOTH those STUPID alternatives are wasteful of tax payer money, which makes them ignorant and immoral!

We have a better way! You will hear of it in 2024 and 2028 (party not finally determined). This is my story, it is the truth, and remember to demand lie detectors if anyone named calls any claims 'crazy,' or 'untrue,' as people's fortunes, reputations and careers can feel threatened if the VIPs I have an entire file on ever get any bad publicity.

P.S.: To further prove how my writings have influenced U.S. Politics since 2015, perhaps more than any other, LOOK at the date my chapters are posted, then see when the news catches up! Quid Pro Quo and Khashoggi's murder denounced are just two examples of hundreds (at our political website).

Or read my chapter opposing Socialism, then see when Republicans followed (including the sermon by my family's pastor). By the way, I have NO animosity toward him. He got between a rock and a hard place, abandoning ethics to support Chump, and now has to be his slave!

I forgive his several sins against myself! We have BATTLED for a decade or more over 10 percent tithing and Lordship Salvation. He preaches with slurring innuendos against my BIBLICAL views, then I skewer those sermons in Twitter posts, and on my website and Facebook. I won't relent, nor will he! DIFFERING convictions!

ALWAYS test ANYONE's theology only by the Bible! (Ac. 17:11, 20:27; I Jn. 2:27, 4:1) BOTH have seminary degrees, pastoring experience, and have written books on the Bible. READ my spiritual website on Lordship Salvation, and Facebook on tithing! I PROVE my cases (lawyer)! (Ac. 26:26)

You cannot put my story or positions in a five word political slogan, easily, which is also why I wait to run! People want pabulum; we offer meat. Meat takes more time to eat, so 2024 and 2028 are FINE with me, if Biden or Bloomberg don't want to utilize my ideas and pull with Christians and GOP's, to defeat Chump!

"Common ground through common sense." "Do the right thing." "Principles over party." "Country over parties." "Common Sense Centrism" "#NoTrumpNoSocialism" "No gridlock or continual policy reversals." "Balance and common sense." "Intelligence and integrity." ALL future slogan possibilities for (2020), 2024, and 2028.

THANKS for your extended attention!

MY POLITICAL STORY

Let me tell you what's going on in the GOP, at least compared to my lifetime's perspective in history, from when I could first vote, especially for Millennials:

There was a handsome devil with charm and charisma, when I was in college, and famous Christian pastors touted him heavily. I was really into God's word, even then, and his likeability was out the roof.

Those pastors preached (however they actually did it—I don't recall any sermons on point) that the evil political issues of life were abortion and homosexuality. As a just-started growing Christian, I thought that was important, but so much more importantly, the man had wise quips, humor, a great, booming voice, and a commanding Hollywood presence and rugged rancher look.

That man was the first person I ever used my freedom to vote for, and his name was the great Ronald Reagan, the Gipper. I have NEVER regretted my two votes for him, though I also voted for a Texan, Ross Perot, in one primary, as he was a straight-shooter (honest), with Texas humor, accuracy (sometimes too much, with quirky charts and the weirdest VP, which is when I bugged out on him).

Then came the Gipper's VP and his son, BOTH of whom I happily voted for, and am glad I did, to this day (the Bushes)! Somewhere along the way I recall a vote for Bob Dole, in a primary, and I definitely voted for yet another rugged, good-looking, eloquent speaker, in two votes for Mr. Mitt Romney.

I barely recall, as you aren't as into politics when you're younger and pursuing life, but I do recall there were differences in how enthusiastically I backed those four presidential candidates (Reagan, the Bushes and Romney), but NEVER so much that I didn't vote GOP!

I learned in the last 20 years, there have been two sides to the GOP, and we usually bridged our gaps, kissed and made up after dirt and skeleton-filled campaigns, by having one branch atop the ticket, and the other as VP. It alternated, depending on who got the nomination—Reagan, the conservative side, and the Bushes, the more moderate side, and Romney picked Paul Ryan, for that conservative side, one of the two election cycles, I recall.

WHAT IS MY POINT? ALL these candidates had DIGNITY! Some say they were capable of behaving 'presidential.' It WASN'T that they all gave great speeches, like Reagan, and the also handsome Bill Clinton did, but there was, what lawyers in court call 'decorum.' Self-control, respect for the high office they held. A reflection of America you were proud to point your kids to.

Yes, even George W. Bush was often mocked for his Texas twanged idioms (that dog don't hunt), and if the more left-oriented media hated his war, they'd mock him prematurely claiming 'Mission Accomplished,' but the man (who the media also hounded for the drinking of his youth, and occasional misspeaks, like 'you can fool me once, shame on...'), but all these [by mere circumstances] males held themselves to a standard we voters could be proud of, generally speaking! They did not embarrass or shame the U.S. of A.

But now, something totally new is occurring, where one side of this family squabble has decided, it is not the thing to do to have two sides, but the right-wing will expel and excommunicate all politicians of that more centrist side!

Somehow, they think them EVIL, traitors, Benedict Arnolds, because they rightly refuse to drink the Kool-Aid of ALL that's in our chapter, entitled Apostasy For Power Idolatry. And for that, they are slandered as 'Dem lite, RINOs, fake Republicans' and enemies!

I was most happy voting for Reagan, as he's my favorite president since I've been of voting age, and I guess I've just learned in the past decade that he was considered a conservative, not a moderate, but I didn't vote for him for those reasons, excepting that I was part of the Inerrancy movement in the Southern Baptist denomination, even meeting up with one of its two founders, Judge Paul Pressler, when the convention was held in St. Louis, as a young seminary student, so abortion and homosexuality were important moral issues to me.

But it was Reagan's connecting with people, very much like Bill Clinton, that drew me the most! It had ZERO to do with him being on the conservative side of the equation! It is just in the past 11 years that I have 'gained my voice' regarding what I believe, and why, politically, and the Lord has shown me, through the fiscal challenges of writing 10+ years straight (full-time), how privileged I was raised, and how, statistically, that is NOT the norm, but even with one working family member, we fit in the upper ten percent—BARELY.

That is how I was raised, so I knew nothing more. But as God had me start writing full-time, I started analyzing, as a lawyer, that if I'm able to live in the richest country in Texas, on basically one income (I sold a little—not a lot), WHAT WOULD IT BE LIKE TO BE IN THE LOWER 90 PERCENT, as we barely eek by with one salary, probably a lot like most of them do with two?

That experience taught me to empathize with people who aren't in the ten percent! It probably, radically changed my political views, from being general (i.e., "I'm a Republican"), to more specific, especially when I added the Bible and idiomatic logic to them.

The more the Lord gave me insight, the more I could NOT be a 100 percent "conservative" purist, though I am more conservative on many issues than those who literally idolize branding themselves like a cow with that term, proudly announcing their cow status.

That new thing that is now happening, that I spoke of earlier, is that it is, ONLY for the present, no longer acceptable for a Republican (like myself, who has been one since birth, and has only NOT been one when Trump won, for 2.5 years, as a protest) to hold views that are not in lock step (YES, please do get the verbal imagery of Hitler's jack-booted men, marching in lock step) with conservatism.

Trump is consolidating power in ways previously unheard of, and that branch of the GOP that use to share a ticket, sometimes atop, sometimes in the Robin role with Batman, is personae non grata!

EVEN THOUGH I can out-think and out-argue and out conservative many conservatives, on many issues (PROVABLY), because I absolutely refuse to ever say these ideas below are qualifying credentials for my vote, Trump wants all #NeverTrump types GONE/'excised' from the party! (See our chapter, entitled, Apostasy For Power Idolatry).

I am all too happy to do so, to help Democrats defeat him, or start a centrist party of centrist Dems and GOP's (that branch/wing that USED to be welcome in our party).

From insecurity, an absence of understanding our history, and capitalizing on the most crass and base instincts of human nature, Trump can not only not accept any criticism, he disallows any debate, or differing opinions.

That is why I will be 'Hell-bent' opposed to his soul, until the day I die, for the harm he has done to the GOP, to America and to Christianity, and because, as a born again Christian, my faith has meant something to me since I turned 18, and God forbid I would sell my soul against Him, to worship a man who freely flaunted all those sins (in that named chapter), in order to seek to earn my vote, which he NEVER did!

The GOP, used to say they/we were the party of values voters, family values, thinking over feelings, and of religion. If you will take the time to really study my home-made 'meme' (in our chapter, entitled, Why I Was #NeverTrump), you will see those claims for the party have 100 percent gone out the window, in Trump! That is NOT "winning!"

#NEVERTRUMP VOTING FOR TRUMP

A Twitter post said voting is not a la carte—when you vote for someone, you accept all their faults and failings. Untrue! The person tried to say that Republicans own any and all errors, sins and bad policies, tweets and poorly-chosen public statements of President Trump.

As perhaps the first #NeverTrump (because reasons expressed in the GIF, below), I did not vote for anyone for President in 2016. But I will be voting to reelect President Trump in 2020, for several reasons.

1. I will NEVER have any alignment with people willing to literally destroy America, like the looting, violent, America-hating rioters in various cities. The ultimate expression of hatred toward America, is that, as with chanting 'death to America!' No American can side with insurrectionists.
2. I hate government freebies, empowering dependence and more laziness, stolen from hard-working, law-abiding American citizen taxpayers! Socialism is evil, and contrary both to the Bible (as it is not free-willed private charity, but forced public theft of people's fruits of their labor) and American history, tradition and even a normal rendering of Constitutional interpretation!
3. The values, or political positions President Trump represents in his public stances, even if some may be late-coming, some possibly less sincere, are the values I believe in, both as an American and a Bible believing Christian. The core of President Trump's Mt. Rushmore and Nomination Acceptance speech in 2020 express those values excellently.

That's why, in June of 2020, I officially ended my 2.5 year protest of his many sins and stupid ideas, detailed below (ideas like a complete Muslim ban, tariffs on China, which are a tax on Americans, made up for by more taxes than subsidizing American farmers, and claiming Mexico would pay for the wall, which I wanted to be virtual, and knew Mexico would never pay for). Those were about his only three policy proposals when he turned me #NeverTrump.

So now that America-hating insurrectionists, and AOC-like Socialists have arisen, seeking to hijack the Democrat party's more centrist wing, my return to my lifelong party is a circle complete. I have advocated successful policy and narrative strategies for Trump's reelection, ever since, and have given every ounce of my brain power to that end.

The left is desperate for #NeverTrump votes for Biden, this year, trying to walk an impossibly fine line between the big government (that their Socialist base wants) and not so big as to scare off 'Biden Republicans.'

The left is seeking to guilt all Republicans for supporting any and all sins or errors Trump has ever made, using that a la carte argument. In defense of all Republicans against such a charge, let's make a few things 'perfectly clear:'

1. A political party is much larger than any one person, and the party remains after every politician's career comes to an end. The viability of the party, in a competitive, two-party system must be defended at nearly all costs, lest America become a one-party state of Socialism or worse!
2. The reputation of the values the GOP stands for can withstand any and all hypocrisies or violations thereof, which none of us are capable of changing, by voting for Biden. Electing a Democrat does not prove our commitment to such values, as it violates so many of those values, to cut off our nose to spite our face, meaning to hurt Trump for words and actions we don't personally agree with.
3. The term, 'Silent Majority' applies to GOP voters (and some if not many politicians), both because of the flack (including threats and even violence) leftists hurl at conservatives (and conservative-leaning centrists) in the GOP, as well as a safer way to show support of GOP power, without publicly embracing any things we may cringe at, in private.
4. Finally, the careers and reputations of people invested in politics are not worth jettisoning, for any one person, by which I mean that career public servants are not going to threaten their livelihood by constantly calling out any of Trump's sins or bad policy trial balloons, or moral or verbal gaffes, as they have families to care for, and a career is not the same as one or two terms in the White House!

So when Democrats, predictably try to lump any and all bad things which President Trump has brought to the table (or Oval Office desk), the a la carte reasoning adequately applies, because our voting for his reelection is the best choice for those who do, to enact policies corresponding to their core values, even if those core values are not always on public display in the one who stands as a bulwark to protect them.

It is not our job to agree with or even to defend everything the head of party does, says or decides! And speaking out on each and every one of them is detrimental to the party, that man succeeding in office, and only empowers the other side, so expect more silence if he is granted a second term (though possibly less silence, when he were to become more 'lame duck').

And voting for someone who really does not stand for those values (i.e., Biden) is an even more detrimental decision to seeing those values enacted, even if but for four years!

In short, there will be a handful percent of claiming Republicans, who genuinely cannot stomach the President's shenanigans and traditional GOP standards (of which I was one, for 2.5 years), and there will mainly be Republicans who support Trump's many achievements toward values Republicans have always held (among whom I now find myself). But to any #NeverTrump Republicans, who think voting for Biden will advance GOP causes better than a guy you may personally loathe, that is some weird 'thinking!'

Do I believe the President will significantly change his personal character, behave more 'presidential,' tweet less insulting things, make less random if not rash decisions (that catch even his inner circle off guard, sometimes), in a second term?

I can pray and hope for it, but that is not why I am voting for him! I am protesting the America-hating insurrectionists and Socialists, and supporting President Trump in any and every decision he makes in conjunction with historic Republican values (as expressed in those two prior-referenced speeches), and my core values as a born again believer in Jesus Christ.

There will be face palm moments, I am sure, and cringe-worthy moral lapse, I predict, but as compared to Socialism and America-hating rioters, I will take those embarrassments, a la carte, any day, to the powers behind the throne, using gentle Joe as the face of their audacious aspirations!

(10/2/20)

My decision to support 45 (made in May 2020) came after AOC's Socialist rise (with liberal Bernie's ascent, Biden spared by liberal Warren's exit), and race rioting, when I prayed for which party to be part of, under the circumstances. Socialist race rioters made it an easy call. Trump's Mt. Rushmore speech helped.

WHY was I not for 45, from Nov. 8, 2016 'til May, 2020, if positions matter more than character? 1. They don't! It's a weighing process. 2. Biden's positions weren't hardly (or fully) exposed. 3. 45 served his punishment. 4. Socialist rioters and AOC's rise are WORSE than 45's sinfulness with better policies, more so than Biden!

As a born again Christian, I am NOT for Trump's sins and stupid statements. I am 100 percent FOR him, however, in most of his positions. Biden's positions are worse! I pray for and HOPE 45 will change his character, but am under zero illusions that he will. Just pass good policies! He NEEDS to repent!

America faces a horrible choice: Socialism, or four years of a guy who CAN'T act professional/civil/normal/presidential, for longer than a few days. Socialism is WORSE, but my five family members will NOT be enthusiastically voting for a man, tomorrow, but what he stands for! Five for DJT! (10/20/20-2)

SERMON I'LL GIVE AT YOUR CHURCH (If you dare!)

(11/26/20-2)

Thank you, and I'm honored to be allowed to speak with you today, because I believe this short message is the most important one God would ever have you hear; NOT because I'm giving it, but because of the need for it.

There is nothing I can say on this topic that you don't already know. There's no new insight I could give. You're not going to learn anything new.

So why am I here to speak to you? I'm praying and hoping God might use my FEW words to aliven some new perspective in your heart to a subject we all know well, to make you think about it in a new light.

Let me start with a famous illustration, updated. If Pfizer developed a Covid vaccine that was 100 percent effective at preventing getting the virus, but they never let it out of their lab, what would the world think of Pfizer?

If a home was burning, and 911 was called, but the fire department remained at the station, what would the homeowners think of them? Same with the California wildfires?

And finally, if a man was drowning, and the life guard was on duty and alert, but chose to simply ignore the cries of the desperate dying person, what would beachgoers think of that lifesaver?

Unfortunately, these 3 or four illustrations are the universal church, whenever she fails to do what Charles Spurgeon said, when he wrote: "If sinners be damned, at least let them leap to Hell over our dead bodies. And if they perish, let them perish with our arms wrapped about their knees, imploring them to stay. If Hell must be filled, let it be filled in the teeth of our exertions, and let not one go unwarned and unprayed for."

WE are the Polio vaccine inventor who never makes it available, whenever any of us doesn't evangelize our fair share! And when we DO do our part, but never coordinate enough to ensure were not just all reaching the same targeted lost people, we leave the unevangelized left behind, falling through eternal cracks, like a Swiss cheese bloc!

What am I saying? God's Great Commission is to a person, both as to who's to say it and who's to hear it--ALL Christians are to speak it, and all lost people are to hear it. But that is NOT happening, today! And even where it IS happening, our efforts are so disjointed, everyone is doing their own thing, which is GUARANTEED to miss some--MANY!

I'm not here to make anyone feel bad, or live under guilt. I'm here to ask you to prayerfully consider your part, and ask you to start doing it! We can have conferences, revival meetings, evangelists speak, or even have church evangelism programs, but the truth is that most of us don't do much evangelizing, and that the world is still going to Hell.

I want to let you know of a free resource I feel is excellent at trying to motivate you to change this condition in your life. It's Will You Live Forever? button, at this website, and I just happened to have written it. The best chapter might be 'Why Evangelize?' If you will READ that chapter in its entirety, it would be hard for you to continue not doing your part.

But if I might, before we close, I'd like to walk you through just one more small chapter from that website, at least for people who like logic. It's called 'On Hell.' I used it one time, and an entire Sunday School class left the building and actually went evangelizing, while we were to be in class.

If I could wish ANYTHING upon this fine crowd, it would be that you all would use that logical lesson, to get any and every pastor you may know to use it in a sermon, to get his people to leave the building, use their blessed feet and go open their mouths to speak the Gospel to all nearby lost people.

Thank you, and again, I am honored to have been allowed to speak to you about this important subject!

Sermon Prep

Based on Mt. 8:12, 10:28; Mk. 9:42-48; Lk. 16:19-31; Heb. 9:27; II Pet. 2:4; Jude 1:3, 7 and Rev. 20:10, I want you to ask your church members a series of questions based on what was learned. It is based on the Bible, but is organized based on PURE LOGIC:

1. Would You Say that Hell is a Positive or Negative Place? Very negative. (Duh 101)
2. Who is Going to Go There--What Kind of People? All who are not believers in Christ. (Jn. 3:36)
3. Is There Any Way for Men to Avoid It? Salvation in Jesus Christ. (Rom. 6:23)
4. Is there any message other than the Gospel which can inform men how to get to God? No--all others are false messages. (Ac. 4:12; Rom. 1:16)
5. From What You Know of Scripture, Does God Want All or Just Some People to Be Saved? All. (I Tim. 2:4)
6. When Does God Want Men to Be Saved--Sooner or Later? Today! (II Cor. 6:2)
7. What One Group has been Entrusted by God to Deliver that Message to Every Human Being? (Col. 1:24-25) The Church--all Christians/believers.
8. Are YOU a Member of That Group? (I Jn. 5:11-13) Yes (or No).
9. Then Does Anyone Have an vehicle So We Can Go Right Now and Tell Somebody About Jesus? Yes. (II Cor. 6:2)

CAN YOU THINK?

I can't believe I have to write this: Truth, reality, facts are not subject to debate, but they are subject to distortion! Even this conflict over whether Russia is posturing for attack, vs. retreating, is one way or the other, in TRUTH (even though some could do both, as deception).

NASA could never have landed a man on the moon being unfactual. Someone can say their green Martian friend is yellow, but (besides the obvious lack of such friend) they would be WRONG! Truth matters. Reality is what it is. Your opinion of it doesn't make your opinion true/right!

You're entitled to your own opinion, but not your own facts. And DUMB people accept opinions as fact, are too lazy or intellectually weak to research what is true/fact check, or hate the truth, preferring feelings (feelings). That should NEVER be said of ANY Christian! God places an extremely high value on truth! He opposes and despises lies!

Satan is the father of lies. God cannot lie. Anyone associated with God can't believe or be wrapped up in believing lies, or their walk with God falters or fails! The Church is the pillar of truth! I Tim. 3:15

Christ is the Way, the TRUTH, and the Life. Jn. 14:6 No untruth was found in the mouths of the 144,000 tribulation elders. Rev. 14:5 Those will be heroes; NOT hams! It's the aim, the goal, the outcome we are all aspiring to, IF we know God! Untruths, distortions, deception, delusion, lies-these are SATANic.

Believers are not to trifle or dabble in sin, including spreading lies, misinformation, "alternative facts" (a nonsensical phrase). It is an abandonment of God which would lead any to do so! We are to speak words of sober truth. Ac. 26:25

LOST souls who remain Hellhound are the ones expected to NOT love the truth enough to get saved, as prophecy approaches. II Th. 2:10 As prophecy approaches, a spirit of delusion is coming, where men cannot believe truth.

II Th. 2:11 A major force to keep men believing lies. Preachers are to preach the truth!

II Tim. 4:3 You can think, or feel, something is true, and it not be. You can even be quite confident your belief is right, and it not be.

Truth is truth, and all truth is God's truth, and all who have not the truth are not following in God's ways. #CommonSense Christians are to be matured up in the truth. Jn. 17:17 Whenever anyone's opinion does not comport with the truth, those beliefs must be changed! and people who advocate for and push untruths are EVIL, by God's accounting!

Christians are NOT to be known as people embracing evil, or untruths, but for loving God with all our hearts and minds. Bernie Madoff's victims believed lies, and suffered accordingly. Jim Jones' followers believed lies, and suffered, accordingly. David Koresh's followers the same. Untruth harms and hurts. It is NOT a moral value, and Christians must abstain from accepting lies! DO so!

WHY I WAS #NEVERTRUMP (EXPLAINED)

I guess it's only appropriate with the way Liz Cheney is being treated, and with 45 addressing CPAC today, that the Lord awakened me this morn (3:30am) with the following message:

The GOP USED to/formerly/in the past claim to be a party of family values, religion and thinking. Old school! LOOK at the following meme, and SEE how far a generation of GOP's has FALLEN from any standard of ethics or morality (below).

I am NOT going to try to convince anyone that morals matter, because Hell-bound people are satan-blinded to believe otherwise, so let them meet their fate!

""Christians"" are NO bulwark against this tide of sin-fulness, but QUIETLY complicit, now! CRICKETS! The reason is secular power is their idol, which makes God secondary, which makes them carnal, which makes God their enemy, which makes America NEED revival! II Chron. 7:14

FAKE "Christians" DON'T CARE to live for God (holy and ministering, and drawing close daily), as disciples, but their religion is political conservatism at all costs! It's TRUE they believe if you have no power in D.C./government, morally bad policies can and often do ensue!

BUT when you strive to achieve morally good policies, by evil means, the Bible teaches God does NOT bless you, just as a nation committed to evil ends will NOT have His blessings upon it! We are raising a generation of GOP's who believe morals don't matter—ONLY power! That's moral and spiritual FAILURE!

Again, I will NOT try to persuade anyone to believe morals matter! (Rev. 22:11) Live out your truth! It's becoming obvious to all what your truth IS! At the same time, Dems are now showing us how morals DO matter to them! Cancel culture IS an extreme, but it IS for moral values!

The next generation of Dems, though Evilly Socialist, pro deviant sex, and pro-killing babies, will not tolerate unchecked politician hypocrisy, overt racism, only the rich being blessed in America, sexual predators (#MeToo), white supremacists, conspiracy theories, riot inciters, etc.!

1. Winning at all costs would never have banished Pete Rose for any period of time! Winning at all costs means cheating is good. It means fixed games, so betters win, is moral. It means nothing else (like God or morals) matters, but winning. It means break any rules to win! It's EVIL!
2. GOOD parents used to, at least, teach their children not to be pouty bad sports if they lost. Maybe a newer generation of adults/parents now disagrees with that moral standard (at least on the GOP side)?
3. IF the end justifies the means, anything goes! The end doesn't even have to be moral! Colombian drug lords demonstrate this truth daily! They are fiercely committed to an end, and will kill for it, but it is an end that ends lives and ruins those it doesn't kill! The ends do NOT justify the means, any poorly parented gens X, why and Z!
4. MAYBE public kindergarten teacher curricula no longer teaches 'don't reward bad behavior.' Maybe teachers tolerate and allow kids to behave unruly, fearing lawsuits if they discipline and punish brats and bad boys (and girls). I don't know—my kids are all adults, now. I don't believe that! Rewarding BAD behavior (See: Apostasy For Power Idolatry, at Facebook's James.Meroney.9, #74) is ALL that happened in 2016, but that ERROR got corrected in 2020!
5. A PASTOR preached a sermon, using a DFW past politician's quote, that you have what you tolerate. DO WE BELIEVE THAT ADAGE, or just preach empty words that sound or feel good, for money? Abused wives allow continued abuse when they do nothing but take it! You have what you tolerate.
6. Cultish loyalty to an evil and not so smart man is DUMB! It's NOT demonstrating adult critical/analytical or independent thinking. It's being stupid—a trait the GOP used to pride itself in not valuing. You can't accuse the GOP of valuing thinking over feelings, any longer, SADLY!
7. Several GOP's wore T-shirts reading 'F__ your feelings,' the past four years. IS THAT MORALITY? Absolutely NOT! Nor is it moral to advocate racism (white superiority), conspiracy theories, or embrace a person who LIED 22,000+ times in office! That's NOT moral values, but sin-full ones!
8. Religious ""leaders"" NEVER publicly confronting CHUMP, rebuking or correcting his many self-inflicted and blatant and habitual sins is the exact OPPOSITE of moral leadership! That makes the GOP no longer the party of the religious right, in a morally vs. politically right sense.
9. Dole, Romney, McCain, Bush, GWB, Reagan, Ford—total/add up ALL their obvious public sins, and stack them against 22K+ lies in office, all the sins of the following meme, and yet, 'religious' people supported embracing that "character" as our national "role model" leader! ANATHEMA!
10. IF America has ever been more divided, save for our Civil War days, it was under CHUMP's influence! You do NOT have to agree with your rival, but in the past, the GOP would agree that you disagree agreeably. Today it says take up arms when you disagree, and always disagree!
11. Demographics show by ~2042 whites will be a minority in America. HOW do values of believing lies, shoving your views down others' throats, gloating, bullying, conspiracy theories, division and hatred empower a widening of the GOP tent with ANYONE of any race? It's a dying breed!

12. WE ALL have seen CHUMP be consistent in shocking the national conscience, embarrassing our nation on the international stage, blatantly sin without remorse, and be a basic JERK and vengeful FAKE Christian for five years! Any tRUMP 2.0 will be FAKE, and just to advance self for power!

13. 16 GOP's were smarter, more moral, or both, in 2016, yet the majority chose the bottom of the barrel, because he stirred the reality TV train wreck rubber necking desire we often feel. It was entertainment, but boy at such a high cost! His 2016 campaign was his offer to America!

14. If good policy is all that matters, CHUMP STOLE most good ideas from me (just like his wife plagiarized MicHelle Obama). Theft is NOT moral, even as Socialism is theft from taxpayers! You don't elevate thieves, and you could elect a programmed robot, if policy is all that matters!

And ALL tRUMP had for nine months was:

A. Ban all Muslims.

B. Build a wall—most Illegals are rapists and criminals.

C. It will be great; believe me!

ONLY when he learned of my writings (via our family's pastor) did his policy proposals mature (detailed in a FREE book at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>)

That covers #s 14-15.

16. Allowing Hillary to have won would have meant many really bad policies executed, but could have preserved the GOP's reputation, if not long-term viability, and voting ALL other GOP's could easily have kept those bad policies in check/from being passed!

Note that I NEVER said any GOP should have voted for her—just abstained from electing a man, who, unless he murders someone, now behaves like he can get away with murder, because empty-headed yes men rubber stamps fear him, and never hold him to any moral accounting! 'LOSING!'

17. I EXPECT CHUMP to alter his M.O. And hypocritically change some of his persona (something he said he wouldn't do), having LOST the senate, House and White House. But if you believe charlatans, you're a bigger fool than they are. Hint: That's NOT a good thing, GOP's! Enjoy CPAC today!

VERY FEW Americans are biblically literate, anymore, but God does NOT take well the worship of any human, and punished Israel for her many golden idols! I EXPECT the same result from FOOLISH CPAC cult followers of CHUMP! Golden Calf

CHRISTIANS: Are you watching 46 allow males to compete with females in sports, Mr. and Mrs. to be seen as offending Mr. and Mr., or Mrs. and Mrs., trans NOT seen as abnormal or confused, and religious businesses forced to hire flaming gays? PASTORS MUST ADDRESS THESE THIS SUNDAY! II Chron. 7:14

If a political party doesn't advance a moral cause, then it is merely a conspiracy to seize power.

—Dwight Eisenhower

WARNING: One cuss word. Democrats, slandered by conservatives as anti-God, see these things from God's perspective/Bible better than conservatives do. Hypocrisy sin, and irony! God's people behaving like the Jews of old! (sin-full)

WHY I WAS #NEVERTRUMP

1. Win at all costs is a lesson NO good parent teaches their kids.
2. Neither is being a bad sport (which summarizes ALL of Trump's whiney campaign).
3. The end justifies the means is not a lesson any moral person adheres to.
4. You NEVER reward bad behavior is a lesson even Kindergartners know.
5. You have what you tolerate, and you must be willing to tolerate Champ antics in future politicians.
6. The GOP is NO LONGER the party of thinking more than feelings, with UN-thinking Trump!
7. The GOP is NO LONGER the party of values voters! Hillary Clinton ran a MUCH more moral campaign, despite her several faults.
8. The GOP is no longer the religious right party, as even non-religious voters see the hypocrisy and power idolatry of Christians voting for Trump! It also gives Jesus a bad name.
9. If you put all the sins and gaffes of the past five GOP nominees together (including their time in office), it DOESN'T compare to Trumps campaign—much less four years in office!
10. Trump ONLY divided the GOP and the nation further. He is NO uniter, at all!
11. The GOP's chances at expanding their tent to minorities is harmed for a LONG time with Trump!
12. What Trump did and said for 7/8ths of his campaign was the real deal! Faking presidential and knowledgeable is OTHER people controlling him, to be acceptable.
13. Trump's behavior in the primary IS his credentials for why he became the GOP nominee against sixteen BETTER-qualified people. He CAN'T live down all he FREELY chose to do and say. No one put a gun to his head and said act like a fool and a buffoon. HE ALONE caused his OWN presidential backlash!
14. If policy alone matters (i.e., not personal temperament), Kasich, Cruz, Rubio and Bush had policy down pat when Trump had FEW ideas (i.e., up until his last three months of the campaign!).
15. If policy is all that matters, you could have voted for a trained chimp, robot or even Hitler, because he was wise enough to HIDE his evils until he got in power.
16. Voting for ALL down-ballot Republicans was the ONLY wise Republican choice, as Donald's campaign HURTS the GOP's reputation with minorities (and others) for quite a while.
17. I expect president Trump to change into what more people always wanted, but if you believe a political charlatan and chameleon with the core he's demonstrated, you will believe anything, and you did drink the Kool-Aid!

COLLATERAL DAMAGE OF AN EGOIST

Covid response deaths & economic collapse.
Inspired Capital riots.
Separated immigrant families.
An economy mainly for investors.
International disdain/less respect for USA.
African countries are 'shhole nations.'
Arrogance at G-8 (Minister of Montenegro pushed aside).
Nothing substantive achieved with North Korea.
Rarely stood up to Russia.
Khashoggi's death washed over for arms sales with the Saudis.
Impeached twice.
Lost 2 crucial GA Senatorial races (GOP's Socialism firewall).
Democrats won it ALL: The White House, Senate & the House!
Revenge, firing or reputation smeared for any criticism.
Ruled by fear & intimidation, as a 'baby' "Christian."
Golfing bill out the wazoo (multiple millions of dollars).
Photo op before a church, holding a never-read Bible.
Many staffers fired or indicted.
22,000+ lies, in office, by the Divider-in-Chief.
Revolving door staffing, & many careers ruined.

MOST GOOD IDEAS OF TRUMP CAME FROM YOURS TRULY!

I don't wake up this early for no reason! You are witnessing the exact forces that brought the world Hitler! Weak, cowardly, complicit in their silence masses of brain-dead followers of a man rising to do evil in the name of nationalism! Very well may be THE prototype Antichrist, yet crickets.

Everyone is SO afraid of THE Beast! They fear losing their idolized D.C. careers, power, fame, money, as they lose their dignity, reputation and moral credibility! One person stands up to CHUMP, and they get primaried. McConnell speaks the TRUTH, then sheepishly backs down. PANSIES! SIN!

YOU, voters, are LETTING evil reign, from sinful FEAR. What in the heck can dumb ass tRUMP do to you? I will take that b-start on in a campaign to debate, expose, rebuke and destroy his lack of character and thinking in 2023! You people sadly embarrass me how you worship satan's man!

It is EXACTLY how Hitler rose, and in at least a figurative way, resurrecting back to life after a fatal political wound occurs tonight (Rev. 13). I stand alone, but NOT without God. Pharaoh WILL fall! DOES NO GOP SEE that SIN is rampant, rewarded and relished in America, because of CHUMP,

And it's his M.O.? That man HAS to be utterly destroyed and banished from pop culture and public life! He is the most asinine and vile creature to ever step into U.S. Politics! Michael Cohen credited him with not being stupid, but crazy. He ONLY looked smart because he read MY policy writings!

You haven't heard one peep from him since, and he cannot fill Limbaugh's shoes, as the emperor has no academic clothes! Yes, at Mara Lago, advisers will pump him full of data, but just as Ben Sasse RIGHTLY said, DUMB GOP's who take a trek to FL, thinking it's Mecca for some enlightened guru are DECEIVED!

He STOLE policy ideas, and a few handlers (probably mainly Steve Bannon) brought in the BAD policies of stoking white nationalism. The EVILS of conservatism and the conspiracy theories came from elsewhere, and belief that the public can't tell lies from truth. WICKED man!

You have seen how his adoring fans will go to the mat, if not the death, for this FOOL. This is spiritual warfare in real life, folks! None other than satan himself empowered that man, and still does. WHY CAN'T YOU SEE THIS? Because there is LITTLE spirituality or discernment in GOP circles, even among carnal Christians!

NO John the Baptists calling the a-hole onto the carpet. NO one teaching the duped masses that THIS IS NOT RIGHT, even though it is far right! Man worship is NOT going to spare America from God's third judgment—Covid, race riots, and what's coming!

The way of peace they have not known; there is zero fear of God before their eyes. (Rom. 3:17-18) FIGHT! FREEDOM! Hatred. Division. My-way-or-the-highway selfishness, even from #CancunCruz, the FAKE "Christian!"

DC politicians sin and lie ALL THE TIME! Three of them wrote they couldn't vote for Covid safety concerns, LYING so they could speak to white supremacists and foolish extremists! YOU, THE NON-POLITICIAN CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES, must put your foot down on this rampant unrighteousness now expected and perfected by career politicians in D.C.! That makes them NOT leaders, but followers!

These FOOLS fear the mob voting them out of power, so anything the mob wants they do. That's being a YES MAN—not an influencer, and therefore leader, convincing people to live more holy, but encouraging living more sinfully! I personally HOPE God wipes D.C. politicians off the map, excepting the remnant FEW!

Where is the outrage? The ONLY people who see clearly are those dreaded "godless" Demon-crats! Subjectivity vs. objectivity keeps GOP's from seeing what's going on right before their eyes, as you are too wrapped up in the lies and deceit and worship, to take a step back and THINK what you are approving of!

If great policy is all that matters, I have ten times greater policies than CHUMP, and he STOLE (a sin of a brainless thief) most good policies he enacted! Beefed up military, lower business tax for a better economy (though not as low as he went), control of our borders, telling the TRUTH that open borders are for Democrat voting power, railing against globalism hurting U.S. Blue collar jobs, 'America #1' preceded MAGA, getting WASP pastors on his side (the first two preachers CHUMP tapped to join him were MY only two pastors as an adult, from Texas, no less).

CHUMP doesn't know Texas preachers from the holes in his head! They aren't the two most famous on TV, and one wisely declined his offer . He had learned how God was using me in WASP circles, to generate God's priorities in Christendom, then saw my political writings, live.

One of those two men became his spiritual advisor! You think he doesn't know of God's work through me? His wife said she despises journalists, critics, and "book writers" MOST, in her First Lady position. WHO uses the phrase book writer, vs. author. LOOK at my regularly pinned post, at my Twitter site for YEARS!

China needing to be taken on, ISIS must be defeated, U.S. IS exceptional, GOP has to appeal more to blacks (which promoted my home church's pastor to suggest a politician in our audience to take on Chump's initiative on that issue).

YOU DO NOT KNOW THESE THINGS, because you haven't watched my actions or writings since 2014! You SOON will know it all, as I will hold nothing back in attacking and causing the defeat of that wicked worm, in whatever form God has me used!

I am a nobody. The God I've served since 1978 will utterly destroy Mr. Chump, including in Hell forever, IMO!

The Patriot Party wants to rise, to use "his" policies, even without him (he hasn't said he'd join), and they have zero idea that most of those ideas are MINE! How could I get anyone to know that? I've been a broke book writer for 12 years straight, writing mainly to many of the world's VIPs.

You would not believe how many of their accounts came by here, or how many news stories came from what I wrote! I have a list, and I made a log book of at least half of those news events, and the notebook (which sits by my bedside table) has at least six double-sided pages of entries!

Like the apostle Paul, I want to brag of my weaknesses, and think it foolish to even write such memories, but you must know the source of 45s "power," good ideas, and especially the evil that emanates from him, habitually. It's DIRECTLY from satan, and if he's not a precursor of THE Antichrist, then that would make him the real deal of prophecy!

The Church (CHRISTIANS) is predicted to fall away from the faith (the apostasy in Thessalonians). WHAT WOULD YOU CALL THEIR SUPPORT and EMBOLDENING ENCOURAGEMENT OF REWARDING THIS MUCH EVIL WITH POWER, other than abandoning God for temporal power Jesus Himself shunned and rejected? APOSTACY!

WHO gave God the most horrible reputation, via guilt by association, than the white Protestant who said power for abortion is worth selling our souls to satan, unjustly court stacking to force our views onto America? SIN!

PREDICTIONS

Just a few of the many accurate predictions we have made on Twitter:

I would BET many Republicans won't take a vaccine, mainly to harm Biden! If the virus continues, his efforts FAIL. They'll risk life and health to defeat Democrats, IMO! (3/19/21-2)

I would BET there are some Americans who won't get a vaccine, because they don't want Biden to get praised for the pandemic in America being ended. Could some privately celebrate Covid cases being on the rise, with mass gatherings over Spring break? Is our politics THAT evil? (3/20/21-2)

I literally suspect there are some Republicans who aren't getting vaccines, so Biden will have a FAILURE at eradicating Covid! They may or may not think they're endangering themselves, because their prime ambition is his demise. NO herd immunity reached by their inaction? (3/24/21-2)

I would HOPE there are no so jaded GOP's as to withhold getting a Covid vaccine, in the hopes of harming the Biden administration's effectiveness at combatting it, but there are people for whom morals don't matter as much as political power! (4/25/21-2)

I mall walked—yesterday—never wearing a mask (or getting super close to anyone), and attended a family reunion of all vaccinated people, excepting my kids and I. I GUARANTEE you, in humble reliance on the Lord, using safety measures, NONE of us will get Covid, as proof America has to OPEN. (5/9/21-2)

To show how good my intuition is, I got my car inspected today. And the entire eight mile drive, I felt a BIG negative, like something would go wrong. When I got there, their machines were down. Wasted trip, but found a new one that did a fine job. Trust your gut, if trained! Heb. 5:14 (5/14/21-2)

And I WAS RIGHT!: GREY HORSE ALL THE WAY! [National horse race results] (6/6/21-2)

WHO guessed his exact height and weight?: Tyler Davis averaged 14.7 points and 8.7 rebounds for Texas A&M. The 6-foot-10, 265-pounder shot the ball well in workouts for Atlanta and Houston. If Davis doesn't get drafted, he will likely play in the G-League next season. (7/5/21-2)

I was right, and he changed his mind/decision!: AWESOME! Intervention show has ALL family members exacting stringent prohibitions against an addict, cutting him off from all funds, associations, places to live, contact with his children, wife and best friend. Me guesses this ends up with him changing his kind! (7/5/21-2)

WHO TOLD YOU terrorism will NOT be defeated, as the vacuum gets filled, as the anger/hatred and ideology doesn't die, even if every current-day terrorist dies! I WON'T retweet my proof. That takes too much time and effort. It can be done, however. (7/5/21-2)

I ABSOLUTELY believe Biden's 100 percent Afghanistan withdrawal WILL increase Middle East instability, and heighten the terrorist threat to America, medium-term! NO DOUBT ABOUT IT! "American first" does not mean endanger us or our interests first, globally, or pay the military to do nothing! (7/9/21-2)

I SAID this would happen (Next retweet)! WHY is public policy SO STUPID?: The Taliban has seized a 17th provincial capital in Afghanistan. (8/13/21-2)

WANT TO KNOW WHERE JOE BIDEN GOT THE FELT NEED TO USE THE PHRASE, "The buck stops here?" Yours truly, thank you, by God's grace alone! (8/16/21-2)

PLEDGED POLITICIANS

Don't you sometimes wish you could bang politicians' heads together, tell them to 'shut up' with all the insults, games and non-sense and just get something GOOD done for our nation? There IS a way, and it's actually easy for you, and easy to implement. In 2020, you merely have to vote for any and all candidates who claim to be "Pledged Politicians," and that process can start!

What is a "Pledged Politician?" It is any person—male or female, Democrat, Republican or otherwise, incumbent or newcomer—running for any office—Senate, House, or otherwise—who has committed to prioritizing principles and priorities over party or personalities. They will adhere to the (novel) concept of taking the good in any and all parties and rejecting their bad—on an issue-by-issue basis, and they will find common ground through common sense for the common good of our great country.

We will get enough such politicians in 2020 (at the latest, 2024, through educating the public on this concept) that they can serve as power brokers for 'We the people' to force Congress to "do the right thing" (a likely 'Pledger' campaign slogan).

If this sounds like a cause you are interested in or you see that it's one of the FEW ways available for laymen/voters/"average Joes" to take their RIGHTFUL place in being the bosses in D.C. Of our so-called "public servants," I hope you'll join us in cleaning up the mess which is Washington! We must throw out all the bums, but also know that not all are bums. A BIG part of differentiating which is which is if a candidate has filled out our "Politicians Profile" (that details EXACTLY where they stand on a host of pressing issues) and signed our "Principled Politician's Pledge," both available soon at AmericanAnswers.org.

This author-lawyer has a total of thirteen books coming out as part of the Pledged Politician's campaign, but three that completely describe and detail the "Pledger" concept and show common sense solutions on most issues that America faces (Dumb as a Donkey, Fat as an Elephant, Wit and Wisdom: You Can't Speak of Politics or Religion, and The Way Things Ought To Be). They will also be available through that website.

In the meantime, pray for our nation to remain vigilant in insisting on common sense ruling the day in Washington, and thank you for taking the effort to read this, and to vote.

Sincerely, James Meroney, JD, MBA, MDiv

ALTERNATIVES TO PLEDGERS

(8/8/17)

Neither political party owns a monopoly on good ideas. In fact, they are both imperfect. Americans need to take the good in both parties, and reject the bad. We have proposed, for 2020, the majority public voting in enough Congress persons to broker power between the two parties’ extremes, so that common ground can be found using common sense for the common good. These politicians will sign a vow to adhere to certain moral principles and logical solutions to the nation’s most-pressing needs, and, above all, value the nation and principles over party or political ambition. More can be learned at @Pledgers2020 and our Facebook message, entitled ‘Pledged Politicians.’

However, let’s consider the alternatives (which we often witness, or see evidence of their serious possibility in the future):

1. Demonizing Domination. It appears to be the dream of many political operatives to put the other party out of business (i.e., a one-party nation and one-party rule). They demonstrate this ambition through demonizing their opponents’ positions, and sometimes personnel. They spend time, money and energy seeking to defeat the opposite party in every election venue they can (and through gerrymandering, voter restrictions, and other methods). However, if you understand the concept of checks and balances, and the importance of both balance, and the dangers of many extremes, you will see the foolishness of this collective ambition.
2. Grinding Gridlock. We the people pay professional politicians a pretty penny to produce results we would be fired over for lack of productivity! Gridlock is better than passing bad or morally or logically compromised legislation, but it is a poor substituted for simply passing good laws, which place America’s needs and interests above whether any given party derives a feather in their cap for their side winning on any given matter.
3. Ping Pong Politics. Every four to eight years, American voters often choose to change majority/ruling parties, expecting better results. However, if you read opinion polls, or simply pay any attention to Washington, you can attest to the fact that there is a lot of heat, but not a lot of light shed in all their efforts. There is a better way, and we have detailed exactly what that way is (referenced above).
4. Selfish Secession. In many ways, the Civil War continues, often along race/minority lines, and somewhat related big vs. small government ideologies. No one can honestly believe that a literal division of our United States of America would be a good thing, and though, at times, voter frustration rises to the level that such things are sometimes called for, it is always necessary that cooler heads prevail.

So when you get the chance to vote for ‘Pledged Politicians’ from either party, in 2020, please do not forget to think for yourself, consider America’s needs above blind party fidelity, and, in short, “do the right thing!,” please. Thank you.

CENTRIST ECONOMIC THEORY

Even with a BBA and MBA, I've NEVER read of centrist economic theory, so here are the details. First, the extremes:

Conservatives want zero government involvement in the economy—all private sector. Liberals want much involvement by Uncle Sam. Centrists want some... the least needed, but we do not say any- and everything government does is bad for the economy, especially in a depression!

Conservative theory would let business do anything that profits them, as it teaches that's business' only purpose! Liberal theory would make businesses act like choir boys, restraining their ability to profit. Centrists want businesses to profit, even greatly, but be run ethically, which includes paying a fair wage, and having humane working conditions; ideally, treating workers as family!

Conservative economic theory wants the lowest taxes possible; liberals want them high. Centrists want them just right—not too high or too low, and how much must government require to pay its bills? Of course centrists want the least taxes possible, as that money could have been used to fund growing businesses (including more jobs), and we want businesses to grow! The real question is how big should government be?

Conservatives want cops and the military—not even teachers, if their kids are in private schools (always clamoring for vouchers). Liberals want almost every societal problem fixed and paid for by tax dollars. Centrists want between these two extremes! We believe government can do good, if run efficiently and effectively, and keeping such good deeds to a minimum, as state's rights are in our Constitution, meaning keep it local wherever possible.

However, the people also have a say, when they vote! Poorer people would always vote to spend 'OPM' (Other People's Money), and richer people would always preach 'self-sufficiency.' Centrists are for disallowing any severe poverty, through efficient, temporary Welfare, and empowering the poor to become self-sufficient, ASAP, even with government help, including skills training, education and motivation!

We are for fair wages, and opposed to business decisions which hurt Americans, in favor of 'foreigners first!' Over-outsourcing and over-immigration are bad for America. However, businesses are not citizens, and we support them profiting. We do not support the idea that businesses are only in business to profit, but recognize their additional social responsibility; not to any large harm to profits, but in reasonable ways! Rationality is our claim to fame!

Centrists believe in bad times, government can temporarily provide jobs, like infrastructure, until the economy recovers. We do not believe in make-work projects—paying people just to stay busy, with our nation not needing their work.

We also oppose handouts vs. handups, in the medium term. Individuals are free to give the latter (and charities, churches). Government should ONLY give freebies with token repayment required through compulsory civic service matching the degree of help received (10-30 hours a year, or so). Even on taxes, those who pay none must have skin in the game, by that civic service!

At the same time, centrists oppose the rich scheming legal ways to not pay the tax bracket they fall into! Taxes are to be fair, and ten percent of nothing is a greater sacrifice than ten percent of more than you'll ever need. Hence, our progressive tax system is O.K. By centrists, but never if used to punish success.

Quantitative easing and China borrowing, at interest, and $22 trillion debt are all nondesirable to centrists, though sometimes necessary evils, due to unnecessarily evil politicians, spending our money like water/like there's no tomorrow, then kicking the effects, like a can, down the road.

Printing funny money DEVALUES the dollar, and can cause inflation! Borrowing makes us slaves of an enemy state we have tolerable economic relations with (Pv. 22:7), and risks war, if we default, or if the Saudis ever refuse oil paid for in our international reserve currency (for the Yuan or Euro), which would tank the U.S. Economy.

Centrists are for fair trade deals, good for America, or NOT entered into, and the more the merrier! Economic alliances bond nations, and with enemies uniting (Russia, China, Iran, et al), we NEED even more NATO members, and G-20 members—NOT less!

NO nation is stupid enough to enter a BAD trade deal, so why offer one? With politicians leading their people, a fool born every moment shouldn't apply in such transactions. Plus, if America screws over other nations, wielding our leverage unjustly, we only engender ill-will, that can breed terrorism, and other U.S.-opposing attitudes, as we sometimes see at the U.N.

You hear terms like 'trickle down' and 'trickle up?' Centrists believe in trickle horizontally! It's government not favoring the poor or the rich, and it's BIBLICAL (Levit. 19:15).

We believe executives can be overpaid, despite Lamebaugh saying since someone paid them, it can't be too much, because someone was willing to fork out the dough.

We also believe business should never overpay a person, unless their work effort earn it, or the executive chooses to be generous. We also oppose tricks that harm what the market will bear, in labor pay, when such tricks aren't able to be reciprocated by labor!

We do NOT oppose outsourcing, immigration, automation, streamlining, mergers and acquisitions, contract labor, ending pensions, two-earner families, and any needed layoffs, but we do oppose executives benefitting off such, or only shareholders, and such ilk voting conservative, so even government is disallowed from helping those crushed by such tactics! Since government can't control who the rich vote for, it must address the fairness of such actions, wherever laws allow!

Centrists also oppose government over-helping anyone! Hand-ups are always to be temporary, and are always better than handouts, as there's no free lunch in this life.

In short, centrists advocate for ethics in business decisions—not just fiscal considerations! An economy is NOT great just by GDP numbers, but also unemployment percents, evaluating what jobs and wages employed people are taking, and not having an economy that favors the rich (i.e., imbalance).

Just as with individuals, there are strugglers, sustainers and thrivers. Thriving businesses should give back! Sustainers pay their fair taxes, and strugglers may even receive government expertise in how to stay afloat, and thrive, as hurt businesses hurt America! This is centrist economic theory! Have you ever seen it before?

'Trickle sideways' may be a better term from 'trickle horizontally.' The rich need the LEAST assistance from government, and the poor need the MOST! This is #CommonSense, which is the basis for all of centrism's positions on all issues!... Rationality. Intelligence and integrity, vs. ignorance and immorality!

A great slogan for centrist economics is 'pigs get fat, but hogs get slaughtered.' When America pursues greed and hoarding, other nations resent it (i.e., the 'ugly American'), which eventually could lead to them refusing to do business with us, or worse—war(s)! Money idolaters NEVER think through these potential consequences! That's DUMB!

Self-restraint is a biblical virtue, whereas greed is a sin. If the U.S. Economy was supported more by biblical Christians pushing for God's values, our economy would be better for all, including our enemies, as with other nations—not just us, temporarily! Will the Church vote for godlier economics?

(10/14/19-2)

Left-wing extremists want morally good things, paid for by the rich and tax payers ONLY (mainly GOP's). That is EVIL! Conservative extremists ONLY want their-way-or-the-highway on every issue, and that selfishness sin is NOT God-honoring. I oppose sins on all sides' extremes! Always will, and ALL WASP's SHOULD!

Let's analyze seven top issues where extremes get something, but not everything:

Gun control: Every law-abiding citizen can keep all their guns, even AK's, but they have to be safely stored away, unable to be stolen by crooks, trained for (or tested out of) proper use, and licensed, so government knows if guns get into wrong hands.

NO loopholes for gun shows or online sales, to subvert these legitimate needs. It takes a little effort by law-abiders to train and register, but tracking guns used in crimes is easier when prosecutors can track weapons down to their rightful owners! NO gun grabbing. If anything, MORE guns sold, and protecting churches and schools that desire them!

Militias entitled to have whatever weapons could overtake a coup of a government by Communists, or any Hitler types! Just registered, so democratic government knows whose hands they are in, so criminals and terrorists can't steal and use them, untracked. Separate the sheep from the goats in gun ownership!

Criminal record of violence—banned. Serious mental illness requiring medical treatment in the past 10 years—banned. Discernable ties to violent gangs or terrorist groups—banned. (Especially a) male with a record of violent spousal or significant other abuse—banned.

Absolute zero tolerance of goats accessing guns illegally, or making them at home, or off internet instructions, including modifications, like bump stocks. Red flag laws, with the caveat that no one can ever be a political target for such accusations! ONLY true red flag status deservers, with credible evidence unbiased judges assess.

Taxes: Not too high or too low, but just right! Our budget needs streamlining, before you can assess how much the feds need vs. want! Compulsory civic service for all not paying any taxes, 30 hours a year, and more if they're receiving any freebies.

They can't afford a tax bill on April 15th! They use sweat equity, in lieu of paying taxes. This makes taxes FAIR to all, and everyone has skin in the game when they vote or clown politicians who promise the moon in giveaways!

The rich deserve to pay a higher percent than the middle class, as they have life's best, already! NO loopholes, where any secretary pays the same bracket as his/her boss (Buffett rule). NO tricks for any rich to pay less than their bracket.

DON'T punish their success! Have them pay their fair share, nothing less, and that's more than others, as they benefit most from doing business and living in America (Lk. 12:48).

The LEAST taxes humanly possible, and incentives for charities to be run efficiently, and NOT just as a high-paying gig for executives! Recipients get the most, or it loses 501(C-3) tax status! Make a litmus test; same with any churches rightly defined as being run as a business, for profit. There are ways to define what is and isn't tax abuse in church operations. I can name you many examples!

Compulsory civic service of 10 hours for tax payers, with the alternative to pay more in taxes, gets people more engaged in our society and government, than just voting and obeying laws. It also gets government size reduced, by free labor, as you can choose any government function or charity for your 10 hours. Ask NOT what your country (or politician) can do for you!

America can't keep our $22 TRILLION debt climbing! We're going the wrong way! A balanced budget must be reasonably targeted in the number of years or decades that would take.

Green energy: YES, big oil gets an 'unfair' tax advantage, because everyone uses gasoline for vehicles (excepting battery-powered), and not everyone can afford it absent those subsidies. It's NOT fair to green energy, but green energy isn't a fair comparison of apples-to-apples, as the technology isn't advanced enough, yet!

Carbon capture, some plan for re-growing trees anywhere we can, and maybe even laws prohibiting uprooting them all for development! Target the worst polluters with fines, and incentivize converting to cleaner technologies!

Businesses will always choose the cheapest route to anything, quality being equal, as that's financially smart! If fines aren't large enough, it's cheaper to pay them than to repent of spewing disease-causing pollutants! #CommonSense

And DON'T harm U.S. Business! Be for U.S. Business in all policies, but only when they act morally toward consumers, workers and the environment. They DON'T have to be Ben and Jerry's ecological, or become tree huggers, just responsibly search for energy, and don't destroy farm land or underground water sources people can drink! #CommonSense stuff!

I'm willing to advise any Forbes 2,000 U.S.-based company, for free, on strategy, innovation, productivity/growth, advertising and architecture, as part of the national campaign I will undertake in 2024, especially 2028, and maybe 2020! I am more pro-business than many conservatives, but I believe in morals—that can't always be said of all of them, even among claiming Christians in their herd, apostately!

Abortion: Roe needed refinements for science discovering heartbeats, and proving pain in the "embryo," when sliced or chemically destroyed! That's inhumane cruelty the U.S. can't abide, nor killing a baby out of the womb, New York! At the same time, public policy encouraging self-help (i.e., a coat hanger where Trump thinks he can grab, as a faux celebrity) or boyfriend punch to the gut, or black market quack doctors, is NOT safe or right, if a woman is determined to have one!

Late term abortions have zero justification, as women had six months to decide they want to murder their own! Plan B pills should be available, and government policy encourage its use within 3 days of any sex not intended to make you a mom! That kills NO child!

As heinous as abortion is, safety is a Constitutional mandate for government toward its citizens, so Roe sought a balance between total bans and total killing sprees! I detailed its needed refinements, but no humane human can glory in seeing an innocent killed, with no say so or consent. They didn't choose to be started!

Immigration: I was probably the first to bring it and many if not most issues America is now discussing up, in 2014-2015! The standard MUST be does our economy need you? I don't care your color, accent, sex or nation of origin (if you're provably not a criminal, destitute, or terrorist), but the GAME of giving Dems a voting advantage by turning a blind eye to illegals MUST end, as with using border control as a way to import mainly whites, as Chump hinted by inviting more Norwegians!

Dems can't be a party of handouts to anyone, just as GOP's can't be the party of screw everyone else because I'm rich and I like it! BOTH sides need to repent! But I digress.

Over-supply of labor hurts everyone but the hiring executives, who have cozy relations with boards of directors (I scratch your back, and vice versa), and this favoritism MUST end, so every is treated fairly (even LGBTQ) in the supposed equal opportunity aspired to ideal!

If the executives, businesses, shareholders and rich are benefitting from tRump's economy, minimum wage should go UP! If the economy takes a nose dive, so can minimum wage! That's ONLY fair!

And NO employee should ever be fired because they're gay or trans. If they're openly flaunting or proselytizing it on the job site, they can be, especially in religious institutions and businesses! You're hired to do a job, not another type of job! (crude humor). Keep your sexuality in your home, as with #MeToo womanizers abusing power for sexual favors. What's good for the goose is good for the gander... fairness.

So NO illegal immigration, easier and cheaper citizenship for those whose labor America's economy needs, dreamers get citizenship (as they had no choice, being under age, with their parents' illegal choices).

America NEEDS the smartest brains here, and it's best for the world's rich to be here, too. NO freebies for any illegals, but if they've been here more than five years, you can't uproot their lives (by deportation), but make a path to citizenship if they jump through all the hoops, like paying fines and back taxes, etc.

Finally, poverty and education: NO American can be allowed to fall through the cracks in our public education! There MUST be 2 to 3 minimum teaching tracks, for the gifted and talented, normal/average student, and the slow, but NOT their being special needs. It's the lower groups on the academic totem pole who need the most, as America loses when we have dumb citizens! They lose wages, and America doles out more freebies!

Tutoring, learn how they learn best, more time allowed for them to take tests, as needed (if they have learning disabilities), and teachers and administrators coordinating with their mom or parents to ensure studying and homework are adequately provided for and instilled/ensured/enforced at home!

Mentors would help, which gets into severe poverty eradication. America can end severe poverty, but not end poverty! Any homeless deemed mentally sane, who choose the lifestyle, are free to be beggars. But cities can restrict those annoying panhandling activities! You chose the life—go learn to live off the grid!

The ones addicted need help from charities, counseling, medications, but repay for any government-subsidized services rendered when Welfare, churches or charities (or all of the above) get you on your feet, through skills retraining, GED education, interviewing, job search, resume writing, networking, dress for success and bare essentials etiquette/manners lessons.

IF any entity provides you cheap housing or job transportation, it will come out of your paychecks, as you get on your feet, and can pay all your minimized bills. Non homeless poor need these same skills instilled by the same sources, including people doing their 10 hours of civic service.

Mentors help, if there's a missing parent in the picture. Force sperm donor baby makers to pay child support, garnished from their paycheck, and going to baby momma! Tax payers shouldn't pay your freight/tab, player!

Gangs need to be monitored, so no more Chi-town black on black murder nonsense! You may want the social affirmation of a clique group, but when it turns illegal, you must exit and report them to authorities!

Every adult in your hood, barrio or trailer park must band together to shoo away violent gangs, drug dealers, and pimps! All drug deals must be done in a safe zone, monitored by cops, meaning the deals involve fair transactions of product and payment, no bogus stash, robberies, or violence, and the cops are free to fine or jail you if caught transacting anywhere else!

We've got to get real that the war on drugs has failed, and you don't make them legal, which encourages dead heads (as flock to Denver, I'm told), but the back alley buys are killing innocents, and making too many of our youth, especially blacks, NOT expect to live past age 21! This is UNacceptable.

Give poor people REAL economic opportunities, by skills training for the future's needed jobs, given that AI and robotics are their direct competitors! Teach them how to open a successful ma and pa business. Teach them a great work ethic, and investing, and saving, and budgeting, and buying for the best deal (I'm an "expert" at it, and teach my tricks FREE at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>). Our books have many other helps for the poor in America.

Finally, schools must teach stress coping skills, as with over-outsourcing and over-immigration, the pressure to survive just gets harder for those least privileged! The rich and whites have got to start caring about this issue more, and the Giving Pledge implemented by all upper crust!

Now, summarize that in a neat little slogan, and I'll run for president in 2020! You can't do it! The closest thing is 'common ground through common sense.' I am considering any party, but finances likely prevent 2020, as it doesn't pay to write 11 years straight, for no wage! #OpenToAnyAndAllIdeas

As but one example of our coming national campaign of consulting businesses and educating the poor, these are but a FEW of the new product invention ideas that came to me as I drove past America's workhorses—the long haul 18-wheeler drivers: HOW could their lives be improved with technology?

Butt and back massagers (if not also heated and cooled), rear end cameras for backing up, and side cams for tight turns; radar sensors to protect from any intruders as they sleep in their cabs at night, with deterrent Tasers when encroached; entertainment for long distances, like TV you can receive anywhere (like some radio stations are now nationally received), or live streamed video on their dashboard (only if not distracting); turbo boost power for passing big rigs going about the same pace, uphill; sensor tech for detecting wild animals about to cross their path; exact engine problem diagnoses, with onboard excess parts (so they never get stranded in nowhereville, unable to continue), etc.

EVERY industry I believe God has improvements for, that I can usually discern, and will start doing so in two years until my 2024 campaign's completion!

Update: Pledgers Rejection

(11/19/20)

It's OBVIOUS who'd reject Pledgers concepts: Freebies seekers (because they have to do something to get subsidies, including paying in by service), and greedy, selfish people who don't want ANY help for poor people, even if it costs nothing to them, and who don't even want win-win, from hating Dems.

People who make a living/money off the conflict/drama, want things easy, like the division and hatred, 'wanna' dominate opponents, even if just for awhile, worship party, misunderstand centrist solutions as moral compromise, can't think of solutions, and are basically evil. Christians can't be that!

Others who'd oppose Pledgers concept: Rich people who selfishly refuse to obey God (I Tim. 6:17-19), government workers who work at a slow pace, and self-centered people who don't want to lift one finger to solve any problems, as their 'patriotic' right of freedom to be involved ZERO, save taxes.

COMPULSORY CIVIC SERVICE

(8/31/20)

All we red-blooded Americans love and enjoy our freedoms. We boast of how America is the land of the free, and home of the brave.

But is there any patriotic duty incumbent upon us all, besides obeying the laws, paying taxes, and maybe voting?

What I am asking is how involved in the life and livelihood of our great nation are we, when there is no JFK-like call of what can I do for my country?

We're all extremely busy, and it's not like we can budget in more of our precious time, and none of us want to put in any more of our precious dollars, for the cause.

But I am proposing that even if it were as little as ten hours a year, every citizen who is NOT already in public service (which service includes first responders, and the like, such as cops and the military), needs to seriously consider adopting an openness to the idea of putting in civic service to our great nation, or its equivalent monetary amount in substitution.

This would reduce the government's need for paid employees, just a smidgeon, which would lessen our budget just a smidgeon, but is also engages and encourages patriotic pride, as one has more skin in the game, of actually participating in the functions of government we often criticize and poo poo, as mere 'government work,' or dysfunctional and wasteful 'big government.

Like every other proposal I have advocated for, tonight (chapters 38 to 41), I do not expect a hearty reception both to new and just ideas, or especially those which call for changed behaviors, and less selfish living, but these solutions are important, and needed, and truly challenge whether our practice matches our preaching, of sincerely seeking justice and peace, and not mere selfish lip service!

I have, elsewhere, written in more detail on several ways our federal government can do more with less, and fund our many government activities, as well as having written on areas for government cut-back. I am not inclined to reinvent the wheel on those subjects, but I invite you to check out our other writings (including Facebook's Jim.Meroney.3, and James.Meroney.3 and 9), to see what has already been addressed, many moons ago, yet still relevant today! Thank you.

P.S.: If America took seriously its need for fair share taxes (including the rich's give back obligation before God and man), a revised Welfare system (where people were trained and equipped to pay their own way, ASAP), government expenditures were prioritized and streamlined (for the best bang for the buck), and we all contributed a little labor for the cause (i.e., compulsory civic service), America would be on its best footing, divisions would be lessened, our bills would be paid, we would not be slaves to China, and our economy would flourish even greater than it did pre-Covid!

Aren't those ambitions and goals worth fighting for? And before you answer that question for yourself, remember to answer it based on common sense, logic and morality—not sinfully selfish desires. Thank you!

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

(10/28/20-2)

Executive orders are NOT the main way the founders imagined our government would be run. But with career gridlock tactics, and division and warring now a full-time sport, some presidents resort to them, even if they get challenged in court, as possibly the only way to get things done.

WHAT would some ideal executive orders be, if push came to shove, and both parties would never agree on anything? Per category, here are my top 100, NOT in priority order:

1. NO ONE is allowed to enter America for work, unless the American economy needs their services.
2. No foreigner can take a job an equally qualified American citizen is being considered for.
3. No human is allowed into America without entering legally.
4. Federal taxes must be the lowest possible, to meet needed government functions' expense.
5. Every U.S. Citizen must contribute fairly to the costs of our federal budget (poor people are allowed to pay their part in required, unpaid civic service).
6. There will be zero legal loopholes for anyone dodging their fair share of tax responsibility (severe penalties will ensue for violators).
7. Congress is disallowed from wasting taxpayer money (meaning favoritistic pork and all contracts must be bid out, unless they are already the best bang for the buck).
8. Congress must reveal all uses of taxpayer funds spent on their campaigns and for any personal uses and/or perks.
9. Lying by any D.C. Politician will be fined.
10. TV political campaign ads must be truthful (they can include fluff, but the FCC will censor outright lies).
11. The media must include disclaimer language in any reporting that favors one party over the other (like Fox to the right and CNN to the left), somewhere in their feed.
12. Back room, smoke-filled elitist meetings must see the light of day (sunshine laws).
13. Grandstanding in Congressional hearings will be called out for what it is, as serious business, paid for by taxpayers, needs to commence.
14. A public TV channel will be made available to all, 24/7, if they ever want to watch and hear anything any Congressman or D.C. Politician says or does, that impacts the public's lives (livestreamed, etc.).
15. Every presidential interview will be independently and publicly recorded, for context (to fend off spin, creative editing, or media misrepresentation or manipulation).

16. America will have a public policy that the best brains and best nest egg people get priority in immigration (as we desire the smartest, richest and greatest nation we can become).
17. No immigrant will be granted any access to any safety net for a period of at least five years (as America does not want anyone coming here disinterested in hard work).
18. It shall be illegal for any politician to promise free stuff to any voters, as wealth redistribution is not in the U.S. Constitution.
19. The U.S. Supreme Court shall take up the issue of the Constitutionality of freebies/handouts doled out by politicians with zero repayment requirements, using taxpayer funds to forcibly require them to 'help' only some (vs. all) citizens.
20. Refugees must be proven, including using lie detectors, and taken in only in conjunction with the U.N., in a fair amount for all countries, America not taking on more than their fair share (excepting private citizens doing so on their own efforts and dollars).
21. Any illegal alien already in the U.S. Must go to the back of the line, as to U.S. Citizenship, and pay back taxes.
22. Any person or organization found to be hiding or protecting undocumented workers from apprehension shall face the full extent of the law consequences (and there shall be zero safe havens).
23. People in America illegally shall have zero access to the U.S. Safety net, or gaining a driver's license.
24. The immigration process will be streamlined for efficiency, and made less expensive for poorer immigrants our economy needs (meaning they have a job secured in America).
25. American public education will be analyzed and overhauled to allow zero kids to fall through the cracks, and have world-class quality education for all.
26. There will be zero unmerited tenure of public school staff, so that bad apples can be sanctioned, put on probation, and eventually fired (if not reformed), and good teachers rewarded financially with such savings.
27. There will be zero cheating in public school. Any means of so doing will be monitored and ended (like at home education that merely uses Google to answer exams). Software exists to end such practices!
28. There will be no more administrators in public school than are absolutely necessary, and their pay shall be commensurate with the quality of their work (i.e.-there will be no over-paying off the taxpayers).
29. The U.S. Military will be and remain the best and best prepared in the world, but its operations will be streamlined for the best bang for taxpayer's buck.
30. Technologies will be developed to make the U.S. Military most effective, and American service people's lives the least endangered in combat.
31. The U.S. Supreme Court justice will be required to be objective and independent, and any politicizing or bias shown will subject them to sanctions, probation, and even firing. If that body loses its reverence, the nation loses its respect!
32. Private financial perks and benefits offered to any active politician, while in office, must be publicly disclosed.
33. Rules of Congress shall not be tampered with, except by the consent of 66% of the votes. Moving the goal posts, to serve party interests will not be tolerated.

34. No LGBTQ person shall be discriminated in for housing, employment or any other function of life, excepting that religious organizations can prohibit proselytizing, expressing one's sexual leanings to clients, staff or students, and no one shall be forced to engage business that violates their religious convictions (if a substitute business exists within 10 miles).
35. College and healthcare shall be made to be affordable for those citizens proven to earn below a certain threshold.
36. Every instance of animal abuse shall be exposed and appropriately punished.
37. Every U.S. City shall have the lowest crime rates possible, using proven techniques, and it shall no longer be acceptable to have high crime areas in any city.
38. The federal government shall move toward a balanced budget within 20 years.
39. Any black market activities will be discovered, and at least taxed, if not shut down.
40. The American federal budget shall be streamlined by objective outsiders, for the best bang for taxpayer's buck, and all federal workers will be evaluated by the same quality standards as in the private sector.
41. Reasonable measures to curb pollution will be instituted, with regulations that don't unfairly punish business.
42. Criminal justice sentencing shall be fair, never abusive, as consistent as humanly possible (given differing juries and case facts) and any credible and provable claims of innocents being imprisoned will be investigated, and such results never tolerated.
43. Racial discrimination in any form shall not be tolerated, with fines for proven violators, and polygraphs utilized for any employer suspected of engaging such behaviors.
44. Every deadbeat parent will pay up, through garnished wages, or private agreements to comply with existing laws. The taxpayer is not one's daddy, but only the persons who brought their child into this world.
45. The war on drugs shall be won—not merely waged.
46. Rehabilitation, mental health services and counseling shall be made affordable for drug addicts.
47. Homeless persons shall not be subject to violence or death, because their circumstances have them in those conditions.
48. Technology shall be developed to forcibly identify DUI drivers before they get on our roads, or drive the wrong way.
49. Severe fines shall await any oil company whose drilling efforts destroy our land, water or air.
50. Free speech shall be allowed, but illegal speech shall have appropriate penalties enforced.
51. There shall be zero gun-grabbing in America.
52. There shall be zero gun-buying loopholes, to avoid existing, reasonable laws.
53. Protests that turn violent shall be quickly quelled, and guilty parties legally punished.
54. Gangs with any record of criminal activity and/or violence shall be monitored by the police, or other governmental personnel, to curb such activities.
55. There will be no human trafficking, or sex slavery allowed in the U.S.
56. Hackers and identity thieves will be tracked down and prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law, no matter where they originate.

57. All cases of insurance fraud will be fully prosecuted.
58. All abuses of the U.S. Safety net will be identified and ended.
59. Judicial activism will not be tolerated, and judges' records will be publicly exposed if such patterns are identified.
60. All lobbyists interactions will be made public, as with topics spoken of and monies exchanged.
61. Extortion in all forms will not be tolerated, nor abductions and ransoms, from any source of origin.
62. When America engages war, they will be committed to winning and ending the crisis/violence, as swiftly as humanly possible. No half-hearted commitment is allowed when sending U.S. Men and women into harm's way.
63. Foreign interference in U.S. Elections shall receive their deserved penalties.
64. Terrorist groups shall not infiltrate, enter or recruit on U.S. Soil, including the internet, including radicalizing U.S. Citizens.
65. Every terrorist group at war with America shall be soundly defeated.
66. Minimum wage shall be adjustable, only in times of severe depression or sever economic boom.
67. No murderer, rapist or armed robber shall ever turn into a cold case. They will all be caught, and punished.
68. The U.S. Obesity epidemic will be addressed seriously, as a security threat to our nation's proper functioning.
69. Any child falling behind, academically-from their best capabilities-shall have all necessary resources made available for their personal success.
70. American public schools shall have vocational training for decent-paying jobs, for all who don't intend or don't academically lean toward higher education.
71. Judges will make rulings on the intended meaning of stated laws, expressed or implied in precedent, or a law's legislative history.
72. Road pot holes shall be filled as quickly as possible, in every jurisdiction where the state has such authority.
73. It shall be intolerable for any American to live in squalor, or a financial condition below which we will not tolerate.
74. Prisons and jails shall be run humanely, meaning dehumanizing, rapes, shanks and gang activity shall not be tolerated. They are already serving their just time; those things are excessive and unjust punishment.
75. Every instance of theft shall be investigated, and proven cases legally punished.
76. Prostitutes shall not be subject to beatings, murder or STD's. To the extent they get away with their craft, Johns and pimps shall not abuse women in tough life circumstances (or bad life choices).
77. Any U.S. Citizen shall be given the choice of transferring from poorly-performing schools.
78. Poorly performing schools shall be put on notice, then on probation, and if problems are not eradicated, be shut down.
79. School shootings shall be prevented, using any and all technologies to identify armed suspects before entering the facility, and the death penalty shall not be off the table for any such culprits in any state.

80. Spousal abuse shall not be tolerated, and the government shall provide safe havens, protection, and monitoring of any returning victim to proven abusers, which abusers shall be rightly/justly punished, and encouraged to seek counseling or rehab.
81. Every and all efforts will be made by all citizens to identify at-risk persons-to prevent any suicides- while maintaining people's right to privacy from unjustified or irrational suspicions leading to intrusion/invasion of said privacy.
82. Torture shall not be performed by U.S. Military personnel, but severe interrogation techniques are not off limits, humaneness being the distinguishing factor. Any and all cases of torture of U.S. Personnel shall be severely retaliated against/punished.
83. The U.N. Shall be engaged, when appropriate, but never the final authority, and never when it engages immoral or biased policies.
84. The US shall lead the world in innovation, and every arena of future business and job-creating industries (like AI, STEM, robotics, sustainability, etc.).
85. America will never lead, in order to dominate or dictate to other nations, but lead only by moral example, including generosity.
86. American foreign aid shall be merited/deserved, prioritized, and given for the best bang for our bucks, in the best interests of recipients, but especially the U.S. Of A.
87. America will not unjustly pay for the world's defense of freedom.
88. America will pursue alliances with any and every freedom-loving nation, and expand NATO membership and economic ties, wherever feasible, safe and in our national interest.
89. No one shall be allowed to usurp the intention of U.S. Laws, to violate the clear intention of any law (such as allowing people into our country, set on destroying her.
90. Companies shall hire the best qualified and best fits, and not engage hiring practices that reward befriending people for emotional connections, to gain a job others are more qualified for.
91. Enemies of the U.S.A. Will be properly and promptly dealt with; not appeased or acquiesced to.
92. NASA will conduct cost-benefit analyses of every mission, as small payoff luxuries can be better spent elsewhere.
93. D.C. Politicians shall be fined for certain unacceptable behaviors (a general list can be found at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>) Sinning as a habit can't continue.
94. Since bribes are illegal, so shall every campaign promise that offers monetary value (with zero repayment or qualification requirements) be deemed illegal.
95. Partial- and after-birth abortions shall be banned in every state.
96. Defense of one's property shall include any necessary and reasonable actions to prevent such theft.
97. Discrimination based on religious preference, in any form, shall not be tolerated, but unreasonable or illegal religious practices won't be allowed.
98. D.C. Politics will be cleaned up, or may the voters vote them all out.
99. A good American economy will not be defined by only the upper half doing financially better.
100. Anyone with better ideas than these is welcome to add to this list, but if they can't, they should put up or shut up.
- In summary, let freedom and justice reign over this God-blessed land!

Update #1: Additional Needed Executive Orders

(7/18/20)

In one week you could STEAL the Dems' thunder by executive order on detailed fixes to cop brutality, criminal justice, and severe poverty eradication and racial discrimination in employment!

POLICE BRUTALITY

Executive order: No chokeholds, unless a cops' life is in danger, onlooking cops MUST intervene in unnecessary abuse of suspects; police cameras must be used and publicly viewable; agencies must have policies to identify bad apple cops, with a process of disciplining. @realdonaldtrump @POTUS (7/18/20)

GANGS

Executive order that gang violence will be quelled (zero tolerance)–NOT gangs themselves, and community policing used, preferably by majority black cops in black neighborhoods (reflect the community), and allow safe haven areas for illegal drug transactions, @realdonaldtrump @POTUS

JAILS

Executive order: ANY shanks, fights, escape attempts, extortion, threats, food or commissary theft (or drug use) in jails automatically tacks on an extra one year sentence, per violation. Incarceration is punishment enough! Prisoners are humans, too! @realdonaldtrump @POTUS Civil Rights

Executive order: Every incarcerated parent MUST make communication with all their children, once every two months, or more often, by mail, video, phone, text or otherwise, @realdonaldtrump @POTUS NO MORE it takes a village to do a parent's job, when they're not doing their parent duty.

CIVIL RIGHTS

Executive order: Add to the civil rights website every business that offers cheap or free burglar bars, escapable in fires. Have fire marshals inspect poor area homes, for safety, and escape routes. Have cops meet neighbors in an old-fashioned black party! @realdonaldtrump @POTUS

EDUCATION

Make an executive order that bad teachers and administrators (defined by criteria) CAN be fired, after proper disciplining and due process, DESPITE any union collective bargaining agreements, as they HURT Americans! @realdonaldtrump @POTUS #CleanUpOurSchools post haste! Three months to go.

Executive order: No black child in America shall be allowed to fall through any educational crack; strugglers will be tutored to success; unique learners will be allowed special educational means under the ADA. Parents MUST be involved for C average students! @realdonaldtrump @POTUS

Executive order: Public school children will be educated that the school lunch programs, and all types of government assistance are from MERCY by 66% tax payers–NOT the 44%, and it's not Constitutionally required, so be thankful! No one is entitled to or deserves it. @realdonaldtrump @POTUS

Executive order: ANY public school teacher or administrator heard by witnesses or recorded encouraging voting for handouts, will be verbally reprimanded/sanctioned, then demoted/temporarily suspended, then fired on the third violation! @realdonaldtrump @POTUS NO Socialism activism!

Executive order: Public schools will educate student, by role play or video, how to handle a police pullover, what is compliance vs resistance, and what cops are legally able to do. Educate on racial profiling, and driving while black problems, and how to stay legal! @realdonaldtrump @POTUS

With parental permission, schools teach methods to keep sex from becoming pregnancy! Have handouts for parents who object, and have them agree to teach the info to their kids. @realdonaldtrump @POTUS No unwanted kids, less evil abortions! Five ways I can think of. Plan ahead!

One day minimum per public school, of parents giving a 1-3 minute spiel about their career industry, to broaden our youth's knowledge of potentialities! Have school counselors have info on all careers— income potential and future need. @realdonaldtrump @POTUS It's negligence not to.

CHILD SUPPORT

Executive order: EVERY male who has birthed a child, who owes child support, will have their paychecks seized, over time and by percent, until their debt to their children is paid in full. Parents Get Punished law. @realdonaldtrump @POTUS And jailed dads MUST see their kids 3 times a year.

VOTING

Make an executive order that every mail-in ballot must be notarized, beforehand, as proved to be signed by the self-styled balloter. They can start that process immediately, and that cuts down fraud, @realdonaldtrump @POTUS DO IT! It LOOKS like you're making an excuse for if you lose! (7/30/20)

LGBTQ

I read Trumps reaching out to LGBTQ. TODAY executive order zero discrimination in hiring, housing, loans, et al, though religious institutions can forbid any outward proselytizing to that lifestyle, or flaunting or even mentioning their sexual orientation! @POTUS @realdonaldtrump (8/21/20)

MEDIA

You NEED to make an executive order that social media WILL have balance in political views proffered! YOU said Twitter execs decide trending terms, so FIX that problem! Conservative views are all but squelched! @POTUS @realdonaldtrump Force objectivity by executive order, today! (8/21/20)

Fox is not dumb enough to be more objective, if MSM won't do the same. BOTH sides need to be forced to, while retaining their cherished political bents, to keep an audience. Functional Congress would pass such a law, but D.C. Is dysfunctional! Executive order. (8/21/20)

URGENT... @realdonaldtrump @POTUS NEEDS to make an executive order that Google and Twitter STOP censoring conservative voices to steal his reelection! I DETAIL what they're doing at Facebooks Jim.Meroney.5 and James.Meroney.378, and cite a book with more expertise! Censoring Conservatives. (9/7/20)

RACE

Surely you've seen one NBA game, this bubble playoffs season. SHUT UP THE BLM BUNCH by one executive order saying automatic 10 year prison sentence for any American proven to discriminate based on color! @POTUS @realdonaldtrump I'd do so before the first debate! They're chasing phantoms! (9/28/20)

An executive order of an immediate 10-year prison sentence for anyone proved to not hire someone due to their skin color, and we have about completely addressed ending any severe poverty suffering in America, as Social Security disability pays only those incapable of work. (9/30/20)

(11/16/20)

A whistleblower hotline will be established to report any instances of sub-par government employee customer service or productivity, all of which will be investigated. Taxpayers can't be abused by people their money employs—period—like non-taxpayer freebies!

The issue of the Constitutionality of taxpayer-funded handouts to non-taxpayers will be taken to the U.S. Supreme Court to decide on the merits of what's clearly stated or unstated in that document!

Anyone ever involved in a hit-and-run of person or property gets an automatic doubling of their sentence for injury or damage, solely because they failed to stop! Automatic, and no questions asked.
#Deterrenceof evil!

THE WAY FORWARD (I)

(11/5/20-2)

I'm quite upset, today, with the division in America! It's SO stupid. I HATE dumbness. Education/knowledge is the way forward! We live in a consumerist economy, knowledge-based era, and globalized. If anyone in America isn't smart, they have to learn how to be smarter! FEW people are stuck being dumb! (11/4/20-2)

I'm frustrated, today, as I HATE when morals are topsy-turvy, like supporting selfish rich folk, lazy poor folk, or slandering rural folk as stupid, when a college degree is not always needed to run a family farm. When greed, dependence and insults and stereotypes are normative, morals lack! (11/4/20-2)

Both parties have two sides, but for power most in either party will go with their party's other side, if it gains momentum, as the other party winning is less tolerable than siding with your party's other side.
Ex: Lib, mod-D; mod-R, con.

Both parties have values they're committed to, no matter which side of that party were talking about, and they have joint values they hold as a party. Dems want cleaner ecology, more government services for the poor, better situations for workers, acceptance of abortion, higher taxes/BIGger government, and many social ills/problems addressed NOT just privately.

GOP's want businesses to flourish, the nation defended, law and order, smaller government and less taxes and regulations, border control and international leadership, including Capitalism and democracy, religious rights, free speech and gun rights.

You can change directions every 4-8 years, and undo your opponent's achievements, but that's not even moving forward three steps and backwards two! Its UNstable, allies can't rely on it, it's Unproductive, and a great waste of the taxpayers' money! How can there be harmony, even within the GOP?

Agree on a common set of values! Trump's Mt. Rushmore and 2020 nomination acceptance speech lays out many such positions. Cons generally want low taxes and government helping no one—keep it private—where moderates are willing to have some government-funded safety net, and see that sometimes things won't get fixed by the private sector alone, if there's not enough profit in doing so.

They also can see that nothing getting done is better than bad things getting done, but is also wasting money on getting nothing done. Even Mr. Trump INcreased our debt—NOT a conservative value! Compromise of core values is never good for either party, but win-win and justice are GOOD things for the nation!

I am not a moderate, as I'm not moderated in anything I'm for, but I do NOT believe taxes should be so low we can't pay our bills, and have to borrow from China, making them our slave-masters.

I'm not for ANY handouts, and am for taxes as low as humanly possible. However, I do not worship the term "conservative." I believe in common sense, justice and balance! You can continue to divide the nation, and hate, and be extreme, or there are ways D's and R's can get things done!

NOT in a Kumbaya way, not in a compromise of core values, not without severe argumentation, not by domination/forcing your views on all others, and not by undoing the opponents gains, where America returns to neutral, and doesn't move ahead. I've written on these ways many, many times! Just do it!

GOP's hate Socialism more than they hate things in their other side (and Dems hate selfish greed that ignores problems and the poor, more than they hate things in their other side). Most of the issues differentiating all four groups is how much money government spends!

I can have conservative spending with moderate Dem results! Everyone but Socialist extremists get what they want, with the lowest taxes possible, using at least five methods I've detailed, before. THAT is the way forward; not division, fighting, getting nothing done, and wasting lots of our tax dollars! Let justice reign!

NBC article speaks of a divided nation. Here are the polarizing issues EXTREMES: Border control or open borders. High or low taxes and regulations. Pro-business or pro worker. Ban or allow all abortions. Freebies or no freebies. Public or private health insurance. You can't harmonize opposites! (~11/18/20-2)

THE SOLUTION: 'THE TERRIFIC TWELVE'

American Capitalism CLEARLY has many problems, not the least of which is economic inequality, where the rich and business hold most of the cards/leverage. There are solutions, which don't require Socialism, but the GOP denying any problems, because they're rich, ISN'T a solution at all!

Unfortunately, this must be said... The evils of Capitalism: Capitalism is the greatest economic system mankind has yet to invent, but it does suffer several pitfalls. IF we care to make a 'more perfect union,' and believe 'no justice no peace,' these problems MUST be fixed:

1. Taxes have to be fair to all citizens.
2. Government spending has to be the minimum necessary.
3. Freebies must be forbidden.
4. Subsidies must be repaid, by mandatory civic service.
5. Government has to be streamlined for the best bang for the buck.
6. Everyone not in public service must volunteer 10 hours a year, as their patriotic duty (and to save government expenses).
7. Rich people have to be publicly pressured to generously give back, vs. selfishly hoard (as with successful businesses; I Tim. 6:17-19)
8. Welfare has to be revamped to only be temporary, and an empowerment program to self-sufficiency.
9. Immigration must allow in only people our economy needs.
10. Social Security disability should continue to help only those physically or mentally incapable of working (and make some work required if they can do some).
11. Every American NOT in management or ownership MUST organize, to have union-like leverage in wage negotiations.

12. Every U.S. Consumer needs access to an app that literally exposes every best deal on every item in every venue, so consumers have knowledge needed to not waste money.

THESE "terrific twelve" steps will FIX Capitalism's major problems! No rich person is morally (vs. legally) allowed to simply hoard, and give the middle finger to society, and no poor person will severely suffer poverty, or get unfair handouts. Justice, which even God agrees with (Levit. 19:15) #JustDoIt #CommonSense The system is broken!

IF Americans don't want full-fledged Socialism, or more Trumpian conservatism, THIS is the answer! It avoids both extremes, is fair, meets needs, doesn't punish the rich, allows U.S. Business to still compete, globally, and doesn't ignore people's sufferings, or give them immoral freebies.

WHAT COMPASSIONATE CONSERVATISM IS NOT

People who raise themselves by their own bootstraps see zero reason for anyone else to seek or need help! How else could they see the world? It's certainly a commendable skill they have, and used, especially if they started in the same exact position/circumstances as poor 'blacks and browns' (assuming, as I do, that it's an advantage in America to be in the white majority).

Caustic conservatism doesn't give one damn about fixing any societal problems, if private business can't sufficiently profit by doing so, or charities and churches don't fully meet those needs! They begrudge any poor American wanting any temporary assistance to get a hand up (vs. hand out), as they never needed that. They call it unconstitutional, even though the Supreme Court disagrees.

Compassionate conservatism, on the other hand, CARES that the poor in America suffer. They don't want every social ill to continue unabated. What they AREN'T are people willing to have taxpayers fund those problems getting fixed! In that, they are like caustic cons. Were a Republican to want government to fund those things, they'd better fit in the Democrat party! So what's the difference, as it relates to poverty and social problems?

Compassionate conservatives do NOT have an attitude, commitment and behaviors that 100 percent ignore those issues, confidently believing they're "good" people to do so!

BOTH GOP groups are for charities and religious institutions doing their part toward cures. They're BOTH for private individuals donating what they want to for such causes. They're BOTH for any business that can profit at helping fix those ailments, like homeless shelters made of recycled plastic garbage cans, for safety and weather protection, or technology to track human trafficking victims, or pollution carbon capture, etc.

Some in the caustic con category MAY even be for stiffer penalties for spousal or animal abuse (so long as it's not waged against businesses in wholesale slaughtering operations).

BOTH groups fully support volunteerism, for helping fix problems. Where the rub arises is taxes, or compulsory civic service. Compassionate conservatives support any subsidized people REPAYING taxpayers in money or required civic service, equal to both the expense incurred, and interest that would have accrued to taxpayers, had no help been given.

They are also for Welfare being revamped to empower all poor Americans to be self-sufficient. The money we already spend, and especially with repayment, is well worth that temporary cost, to have NO ONE needing help, and NO taxpayer forcibly put out to fund anyone else!

A compulsory patriotic duty of ALL Americans (excepting public servants and first responders and military—already doing so as a profession) of only TEN HOURS a year, for any because you want to help fix, IS too much for caustic cons!

It's easier and more selfish (and less patriotic) to vote for NO public involvement, beyond voting! They even oppose all subsidies, even when required to be paid back! That's because the forced nature is morally reprehensible, to them seen as unconstitutional violation of their freedom, and they want to do NOTHING, and still be deemed a good citizen!

So NO help by government or helping fellow Americans by citizens, by force! Leave it to volunteering, because then many of them can get away with doing NOTHING to lift a finger of concern for any other American! THATs the more secret motive!

TEN HOURS; repaid loaned subsidy money. A bridge too far and red line never to be crossed, to the caustic con, all justified as "moral."

BOTH groups want charities and crowd funding efforts to pay for every problem that gets addressed, and even let libs pay in more in taxes! Where these two GOP groups part ways is if any caustic con is ever discovered to never contribute to charity, or volunteer for anything, because they want others to think kindly of their ideology, which directly OPPOSES such things, unless you feel like it. Hint: Most of them don't feel like it!

Their voting numbers are stagnant and on the decline, as to future possibilities! More and more Americans reject selfishness in political ideology, especially about the poor and richer people doing nothing towards anyone but their fam, for generations on end!

If a caustic con DID give or volunteer 10 hours a year, on their own initiative (giving amounts equaling, in total, what amount would be needed for subsidies that get paid back), THAT WOULD BE GREAT! Perhaps you give them three years to make that decision. You may even offer an opt out provision, but then most would take it!

The point is that America can ignore its unprofitable problems (as caustic conservatives are want to do), or they have to be addressed (to some extent), and that costs money and manpower. Those resources have to come from somewhere. Caustic conservatives just say let it NOT be me! That's "freedom," for them.

This solution is NOT a concession to Socialism, but doing the right thing. If EVERYONE is made to do it, it's NOT like Democratic Socialism, which seeks mainly GOP's doing all the heavy lifting (tax expense). It's also ensuring an improved society, without increasing our debt!

It ALL boils down to is ones neck in the sand, regarding all others, or are you functioning as a feeling human being, as Chicago Dialogue lyrics call it. IF caustic conservatives want nothing to do with this answer, propose something better! I'm 100 percent FOR private industry doing so, but these problems ARENT profitable!

IF a company can get a homeless person back on their feet, then charge them the cost, plus reasonable profit, paid out over time, more power to you! If addressing pollution, prostitution, drugs, mental illness, failed schools, gangs, poverty, animal abuse, wife beating, human trafficking, job discrimination, etc., can be solved for a profit, I'd be the loudest cheerleader! Dems propose "FREE" healthcare, daycare, college, student loan debt forgiveness, and mortgage down payments.

Those proposals SOUND "compassionate," just as many people in America think European Socialist countries are morally superior to America, because of paid family leave, August vacation, healthcare, etc. They're willing to compare us with them on social matters, but NOT on economic or military matters!

Such people are FREE to move to those nations, but places like Switzerland DON'T freely allow just anyone in, as they protect the golden goose of their safety net system, for natural-borns, and select few others, rightly so (and control borders accordingly, as to citizenship). U.S. Liberals want anyone to become American, in any numbers!

They want a YUGE safety net, paid for mainly by GOP's (and the minority of Dems who pay taxes), and the math doesn't add up, and leads to a bad economy, if not bankruptcy! There's NO incentive to come here to work hard, when so much is given to you! And it's immoral and unfair to have taxpayers fund libs Utopian ideas and ideals!

THAT WILL lead to secession, or civil war! I have proposed a workable means for win-win. Extremists don't want it, as either Dems aren't getting freebies for nothing, or conservatives are required to care one iota about non family members. Yet, my views are HATED by extremists.

One more minor point: When an economy is growing, there's MORE money, and therefore MORE likelihood that people with disposable income give to charity, at least in theory! Cons are RIGHT on that economic observation.

However, in practice, statistics say the rich give two percent to average Joe's three percent, even though average Joe has much less than the Jones' people try to keep up with! Also, revered and respected rich titans of industry were philanthropic, and celebrated for being such. Now, caustic conservatives demean such gestures as self-loathing. Selfishness is inculcated into our system!

...Andrew Carnegie, $7.2 billion; J. Rockefeller, $7.1 billion; J. Rockefeller, Jr., $5.5 billion. This aspect of wealth is NOT being emulated nearly as much as in days gone by, and will lead to people hating the rich even more—NOT from jealousy but necessity for sustainable income—revolts and riots. (12/27/19)

WHY care about poor people's struggles?

1. Jesus did. If you know Him, you must!
2. It's humane. 'Human' is the gist of that one-letter more word.
3. There but by the grace of God go you, even though you're confident that will never happen, even as Covid and the Texas ice storm teaches us there can be circumstances outside our control, that humble us.
4. It's the right thing to do.
5. Some believe our nation is only as strong as its weakest link. Such people usually vote Democrat.
6. God's commands are for all people, even though NOT for Heaven's entrance! He says to!
7. Finally, rather than me answering my own question, CHOOSE to go visit a hood or barrio for one day, just to observe how they daily live! Learn the facts on the ground, and walk one mile in their moccasins. You MAY change your caustic ways, as a result. I've done it many times.

P.S.: Let me remind you of all the benefits, privileges and "blessings" the rich enjoy, that all others done nearly as much, before any caustic con starts seeking tax breaks mainly for the wealthy, favoritism in government policies, or defending them as under attack in any way more than anyone else:

Gated communities, chauffeurs to safely drive their tinted windowed limos, best seats at restaurants, golf a lot, mansions, Mercedes/best cars, vacations, yachts, attorneys and accountants "pay for it all" (as Joe Walsh would say) in LESS a percent than the tax code intends, tax breaks, loopholes and shelters, maids, butlers, great police protection and response times, private security, lawn men, fanciest clothes, interviewed by the media, inheritances, trusts and other ways to hide wealth from the tax man, the best toys, fine cuisine, gold plated healthcare; not a financial worry in the world!

They'll argue they worked for it. I WON'T debate that, but keep perspective on your top 10 percent lifestyle, and START to consider others! Jesus demands it. (Phil. 2:1-6) Government is NOT to favor you! (Levit. 19:15) Accept both privileges and responsibilities! (I Tim. 6:17-19)

Another new fancy car, or funding spent toward a cause that has meaning and significance/ importance in life and for humanity? Another vacation, or making the world better by some of your excess benefitting the society that allowed you to earn so much? You decide. Decide wisely!

P.S.S.: When political conservatives ever wonder why everyone else labels them selfish, cold-hearted (Ex.: throw momma from the train, and let her eat dog food type allegations), greedy, heartless, hoarders, idolaters and uncompassionate, just re-read this chapter, until you ever get a glimpse into where such concepts might have arisen! God demands better! Your party may not.

I "lied"—One more update: NOT ONLY will political conservatism NOT always win (as it 100 percent LOST in 2020—BOTH houses and the white one), demographic trends show even more challenges for its ideology, and AOC Socialism is gaining ground. MY free solutions and minimal inconveniences HELP GOP's not lose almost forever into the future!

FREE SPEECH THREATENED?

The GOVERNMENT can't restrict speech, AND free speech is in the public square; not in a private business. I believe social media businesses must be deemed businesses whose core product IS the public arena of ideas, so government enforces laws when violated there!

We also need a government-paid for social media platform for every view, where government can enforce laws against incitement to violence, state laws on hate speech, terrorist organizing, and anything else that's illegal (Ex.: sting operations set up based on plans disclosed to abduct or murder).

Cons and centrists are FREE to start their own social media platforms, but participants would mainly just reinforce the bent of the business, with no cross-pollination of ideas, which isn't as good as all ideas debated and discussed! Freedom of religion is NOT your right to force your religion's beliefs on all Americans!

MINIMUM WAGE

Government forcing business to pay more for labor is wrong! But, a minimum threshold amount isn't wrong, as business, left to its own devices, would pay nothing, if they could! The market determines wages, but collusion could cause them to be near zero, which is intolerable. (1/21/21-2)

Government is NOT a national worker's union! If you get paid less than $15 an hour, qualify for $15 an hour by your skills! My high schoolers got that, with NO experience! #BetoForGovernor crowd Senate Democrats. (3/3/21-2)

HERE are solutions for the working class making less than minimum wage: 1. Unionize! 2. Boycott, boycott and strike. 3. Work harder, longer (overtime) and smarter. 4. Get better job skills. 5. Search for a better-paying company. 6. Start a business. 7. Spend less and smarter! (3/5/21-2)

(3/5/21-2)

MANY people do NOT know. Wages VARY! I know two entry level employees who do NOT make the same hourly rate. Unless you know what every employer pays, you're probably under-paid! EVERY employee shouldn't work at low paying companies, nor consumers shop there; let them die! eight Dems

Someone told me, yesterday, businesses make so much money, why can't workers make $15/hour? I said when you start a business, you can decide how much to pay people. You took no risk, and forked out no capital. The market decides; look around for a better paying job if paid minimum.

If entry level workers want $15/hour starting pay, find liberal funders or unions to subsidize you for as long as a national strike would last! Don't make government by ALL the people's consent be a BIG union for just some of the people! eight Dems

EVER heard of a labor strike? If you want business to increase minimum wage, instead of government being a big union, try it sometime! If you can't negotiate $15/hour for yourself, maybe you should look in the mirror and assess what you bring to the employment table.

HERE are actions business can take, to counter strikes for better wages: MORE immigrant labor imported, outsourcing jobs, automating and robotics, over-working existing employees, moving out of country, replacing clamorers (revolving door hiring), etc. Dems have to counter these!

When unemployment rate is HIGH, business can pay low. Economics 101. Replace workers at will, because there are more workers than jobs. U.S. Blue collar workers NEED to be FOR limited immigration, for their own best interests and self-survival, even if you're a Dem, FOR immigrants.

The working class (EVEN white Trumpsters) NEED to understand economics, before choosing political positions! Our economy is globalized, and that can't change! IF laws restrict business global sourcing, too much, they can leave America, import labor or outsource jobs! GOP's for working class?

Population explosion will ALWAYS hurt labor's leverage for wages! Businesses are HARD to start and make successful! They also prefer little competition. That means there will ALWAYS be more people than there are jobs, and the best value for the wage will be chosen by smart businesses.

U.S. businesses DON'T pay "good wages" or living wages, from generosity or moral goodwill! It has to be needed! Your skills have to demand higher-than-normal income! ALDI pays higher because those workers work faster, as a pact in their employment! Americans who make BIG money usually own businesses, invest, have unique skills or above average work ethic (or they inherited).

Employees are a business expense. YOU try to keep expenses down, in your personal spending, and get the best deal! Businesses are NO different! It's NOT evil, it's business! Best bang for the buck.

Consumers shop for the best deals/value. Business is NO different! They are judged by investors by profits, and investor money keeps them liquid and able to grow. They NEED to keep shareholders happy, in payouts! Otherwise, NO ONE exists to fund their ambitions > their overage of revenue - overhead!

Shareholders are NOT evil to demand a return on investment! YOU wouldn't put money in a bank if it offered zero interest! That would be foolish! Even though the rich have excess, they don't opt for low returns on money making money! That's NOT wise. So business has to hire for the lowest possible, and profit as much as possible.

It IS evil that many execs are overpaid! Lamebaugh said that's impossible, because someone was willing to pay that amount. It's NOT always done above board, but cozy relations on boards allow mutual back scratching! EVIL!

People DON'T flock to America because other economies or countries have BETTER opportunity! YOU (blue collar American) NEED to look out for your own self-interests, instead of bleeding heart ignorance that looks "nice," and RUINS your OWN future, for foreigners! That's NOT selfish!

U.S. workers need to do all that applies, below: 1. Get a GED, if you're a drop out! 2. Focus on trade school skills in high school 3. Get jobs training if an adult 4. ADD jobs skills, in your job! 5. Do quality work better than average (including work ethic) It takes TIME to improve!

FREE GED: <https://classroom.usaHello.org/programs/ged/#gref...>

Cheap job skills training: <https://monster.com/career-advice/article/free-job-training...>

Sacrifice of nights and weekends may be needed, for a time. #WorthIt! #GetAhead

SHOP AROUND! Even accounting for different standards of living, even in your OWN state or town, wages VARY! You MAY be earning LESS than you already qualify for, because your initiative hasn't had you test the market in a long time, stuck in a rut! That LOSS is on YOU–NOT business.

For an effective work strike, replacement wages have to exist from activists, crowd funding and Dem donors! One week of #BoycottAmazon won't hurt them enough to force better wages! A 3-6 months labor strike might, if replacement troops weren't available, and MANY vs. few strike. IF you are going to #BoycottAmazon, remember Wal-Mart and Alibaba!

$15/hour minimum wage would DOUBLE business labor expenses. WOULD YOU tolerate if your landlord doubled your mortgage? Never! Normal, rational rejection! Use common sense!

Liberals act like business executives choose a pay rate solely by how low they want to pay–NOT what other employers are paying, to hog all the profits and keep people poor. That's NOT how a market works! You can pay LOWER than others, and never fill the job, or higher, and interview everyone. (3/12/21-2)

Female pay differences by race: <https://nationalpartnership.org/our-work/resources/economic-justice/fair-pay/quantifying-americas-gender-wage-gap.pdf...>

Women's sports, generally (vs absolutely) are NOT on equal par with men, as to entertainment value of the quality of skills, so their pay disparity occurs. Not just audience size and TV ratings, but put many gals in the NBA, and they couldn't keep up. That pay difference is fair!

Equal pay based on genders unfair to the employer, as opposed to equal pay based on results and effort! Even men vary in their output, for the same position! I'm FOR all women NOT making less than any man, if their output in the same job is equal! Not rewarding People for their gender.

For all U.S. Women to be paid equal with men, would require them having the exact same job, and them being told what the men in those positions make, and the men to have no variance in what they're being paid! A near impossible feat, as people get raises, work better and harder, etc.!

If an employee accepts a wage, and is not forced to, that's just! It may be low, and lower than elsewhere, but it's fair. It could be higher, and workers should do all they can to get fair leverage, but it's not evil to pay market rate! Unfair is asking government to do your negotiating job!

In theory, as a goal and ideal, I am for equal pay. In practice, it has to be worked up to, over time. So sleepy, my tweets are suffering lesser quality, so no all-nighter training, as planned! Zzz. Mt. 26:41

Forcing equal pay, by force of law, would nearly double some women's pay, which is unjust to business (huge windfall). Pay increases are negotiated, in a free market. Equal pay is a goal, but it has to be earned and achieved, over time–NOT by force of politicians' strokes of pens.

If the law ever required equal pay, you would have to document that every worker worked the same quantity and quality. And privacy laws would prevent employees learning if their wages were equal with their peers!

When employees don't know everyone's pay, you can never know if your pay was equal, as a woman, with a man. I believe in equal pay for equal work, voluntarily, but I also believe business can offer whatever they want, and if you take it, it may be lower than others, and that's on you!

HOW to reconcile being for equal pay and business negotiating wages? Easy! Business's should give be equal pay for equal work, but pay is individually negotiated, absent unions. A law requiring equal pay would have to be for exactly equal work, as in quality and effort. Free markets broker wages.

INFRASTRUCTURE

In America today, you HAVE to explain that which was OBVIOUS, merely 10 years ago! "Infrastructure" means roads and bridges, and any national systems that support commerce, like light and electricity, railroads, sewers, etc. It has ZERO to do with social programs, @POTUS

President Biden needs to level with the American people about the fact that his "infrastructure" package is a $2.25 trillion liberal wish list with only about 25 percent being spent on traditional infrastructure like roads, bridges, tunnels and rails. Be honest with us Mr. President.

(4/13/21-2)

Biden's willing to consider funding of "infrastructure?" TRY CUTTING UP TO 20 percent OUT OF EVERY FEDERAL AGENCY. Make government efficient and effective! NO waste, bloat, pork or unnecessary things ONLY taxpayers pay for! I would! @JoeBiden @POTUS #Justice! NO JUSTICE, NO PEACE!

Biden's willing to consider funding of "infrastructure?" IF you have streamlined government and made EVERY able-bodied person pay in, tax the richest who aren't charitable more than those who are, and raise business taxes to 25 percent! @JoeBiden @POTUS #Justice! NO JUSTICE, NO PEACE!

Biden's willing to consider funding of "infrastructure?" IF you have streamlined government and made EVERY able-bodied person pay in, tax the richest who aren't charitable more than those who are, and raise business taxes to 25 percent!

Biden's willing to consider funding of "infrastructure?" TRY CUTTING UP TO 20 percent OUT OF EVERY FEDERAL AGENCY. Make government efficient and effective! NO waste, bloat, pork or unnecessary things ONLY taxpayers pay for! I would! (12/20/21-2)

INFRASTRUCTURE is:

1. Broken bridges
2. Pot holed roads
3. Electric grid weaknesses
4. Sewage and water problems

DISEASE & DEATH

(11/28/21-2)

The Case For Disease Eradication: I am convinced mankind is seeking Paradise Regained, and SHOULD seek that, but ONLY in the right way—God's way. Let me explain. EVERY public policy and business decision MUST promote good, not bad/evil! NO MORE EVIL tolerated, or injustice! #JustDoIt!

IT IS INTOLERABLE anyone could profit off others' sufferings, like people unable to pay for their health needs! IF businesses were run morally, world-wide, disease eradication and weather-related calamities technology COULD and should be invented! The funding has to come from profits or fair taxes.

CAN YOU IMAGINE no more cancer, heart disease, dementia, stuttering, cerebral palsy, amputations, mental illnesses, retardation, paralysis? I believe we can discover the solutions! It's intolerable people can go bankrupt fixing medical problems they didn't create!..

NO business should EVER be able to make unsafe or harmful products—period, no matter what political connections they possess! My nurse wife is convinced many illnesses are from the manmade chemicals in our foods. She RARELY lets me drink water filler she says will cause cancer.

ANYONE doing EVIL should be halted, by all moral and legal means, including businesses, knowing cigarette smoking kills, yet deceiving through false science and lying to Congress. ALL evils should be curbed, or ended, within budget and with minimal taxes and regulations!

We are responsible for seeking to make the kingdom of God on our fallen earth; never perfectly, never as a theocratic government, but by governments of the world doing their God-given duty, to thwart evil and reward good! Rom. 13 and they CANNOT be allowed to do evil! Justice is God's standard! #JustDoIt!

We ALL love crime stats lessening, except EVIL people. We ALL need to rejoice when all types of evil get confronted! Bullies, thieves, liars, corrupt and selfish politicians, tax avoiders, tax mooches, etc. Collaboratively or individually, America needs to pursue means to END illnesses!

The fall of man (Adam) brought all these things into our world! Even salvation doesn't immunize saved people from sickness! Faith itself doesn't always lead to miracle healings! God is sovereign! BUT, He does NOT use vs. abuse.

It was the Tower of Babel attitude and actions that caused man a downfall—trying to regain Paradise Lost by leaving God out, and putting man as god. Gain it back the right way!

HERE are sicknesses we need solutions to: <https://euro.who.int/en/health-topics/health-emergencies/pages/whos-work-in-emergencies/health-hazards-infectious/a-z-list-of-diseases...>

I would LOVE to see a Center of Global Disease Eradication created, only by U.S. Companies, or in collaboration like the Space Station. ALL people need access to fixes to fatal diseases! If businesses can't profit enough from such products, all nations must pay their fair share!... oppose mankind seeking to fix problems and reverse evils, including diseases. He gave us brains to

My plantar's wart is the ONLY physical problem I've ever experienced more than one month. EVERY disease that harms, hurts and limits humans MUST come to an end! I don't believe this is Babel attitude, if God is central and doing good is the result; NOT evil! Not man as god, either! (humanism)

In sum, 1. Man is NOT to be worshipped! Even if you reject God, do NOT do things opposed to Him!
2. Do good, not evil, including businesses and governments 3. End all diseases and natural disasters' negative effects, through technology, science, intelligence WE CAN DO THIS! #CommonSense Creation also longs for a release from the fall of man, through Adam! Rom. 8:19-23 Mankind cannot undo their sin nature, through technology, or avoid a fallen world, aging, death or things deteriorating—

Mt. 6:19-20 BUT, we can improve our condition! Made in God's image, we can do no less!

LITERALLY, there shouldn't ever be a need for wars! Just wars are OK, by God, but with the brains God's given us all, learning to solve disputes, amicably and justly should be within the purview of human achievement! Intransigent evil MUST be stopped, however. Fix the politicians!!!

EVEN NOW, NBC national news will be showcasing a semi-paralytic woman walking the aisle to be married. I don't yet know what tech she is benefitting from, but EVERYONE wants ALL diseases eradicated! Just do so where all can benefit—not just the rich!

We ALL rejoiced at how far a comedian got on AGT, with cerebral palsy! BETTER would be we find a way to relieve him of those challenges! Leg braces locked a paralyzed gals' legs so she could walk at her wedding. We have tech to force muscles to cramp up! NEED more innovations!

29. POLITICAL TRICKS

(3/1 & 26/21-2)

Political MYTH: Checks and balances means when both sides agree on good policy, there has to be opposition. Usually, that's just grandstanding, or seeking media attention for being the unique lone wolf voice, for personal political points of photo ops, etc.!

Political tricks (playbook):

1. Exaggerate (Lie and distort) Ex.: The Democrats are purposely exaggerating GOP laws on voting integrity, to seem like they're against blacks voting, or that there are so many in society, absent these laws, the whole country would be a supermajority of black voters
2. Justice is NEVER to be sought, unless it benefits your causes, but always say you're seeking it.
3. WHEN you have evil ambitions, always sell them as virtuous causes, to the public. There too dumb or busy to catch on, anyway, right? #Politics
4. Leave your religion at home, except for policies!
5. Accuse your opponents of things, even if untrue.
6. If you're constituency likes a fighter, never seek peace or common ground, and divide the nation, if that's what they want. You're a follower to their lead!
7. NEVER seek common ground with the opposing party when you hold all the power. Just dominate in kind fashion.
8. If you ever hold all the cards, STILL accuse the other side of evils, and use your dominating and demeaning to try to destroy their existence! Gal. 6:7
9. ONLY if one of your own's sins hurt morale or public opinion, or the party's chances at winning, do you rebuke or seek to remove them from office. The offense(s) mean nothing, morally, as winning is everything.
10. If such party hurts your brand, ostracize 'em!
11. If you can't get your agenda on the federal level, pursue it at the state and/or local levels.
12. If your opponent has the power to totally ignore you, gen up enough anger to get virulent revenge between elections! (a smart strategy, actually)
13. Assume and act and speak like you are smarter than the average bear voter, but never condescendingly.
14. Say you're representing all Americans when you're only representing your party's voters (AKA, LIE).
15. HOPE God isn't going to judge you for all your public sins!
16. Make unsubstantiated accusations, and force your opponent to defend or prove 'em wrong
17. Don't do much, but stir up controversies, to distract the public, via media ratings
18. IF you're going to do anything do too little or too much; never just do the right amount
19. Never admit any faults or failures, as that is weakness the enemy will take advantage of.
20. Only focus on the faults and failures of your opponent and their party. Skeletons are the prime rib of politics!
21. Doing the right thing is only what you are to do if it benefits the party or its agenda.

22. Never be honest, if an admission can hurt your party's reputation, or chances at winning (power trumps morals; God allows morals to be left at home).
23. Use public opinion ONLY when it supports your agenda.
24. If the public majority is for something you're against, stay quiet, restrict their ability to vote for it, or sell your view to and only serve your constituency.
25. Use a front man who behaves nice and kind, to pass very un-nice and unkind policies (the Trojan Horse technique).
26. Tell the public you're honest, but only be so when it benefits you.
27. Blame bad decisions on it being what the public wants.
28. Anything goes for power; sin-to-win (easier to ask God's forgiveness than His permission)
29. Accuse your opponent of doing exactly what you're doing, as your anger will look like you think it's evil (even though you approve of doing it).
30. No matter what sins are committed, stand by your team and teammates
31. When accused if that for which you are guilty, deflect, deny, deceive and distract
32. Take opponent apologies as weakness, and expound on the neg or evil thing they're apologizing for.
33. Pass an evil law, and tout it as good.
34. Accuse a law of being evil, when it is good.
35. Tell, or try to convince the public the opponent is doing evil, so voting against them is good.

30. POLITICIANS

WHAT GOD WANTS IN A POLITICIAN

(11/19/19)

You, as a voter, may want certain things from those you vote for, but what you should be valuing is what God wants from them; namely, the following:

God wants politicians to be capable, God-fearing, trustworthy, and to hate dishonest wealth (Ex. 18:21), to praise good and punish evil (Rom. 13:1-7), and to not favor the rich or poor (Levit. 19:15).

Our nation's leaders should also adhere to these principles: Pv. 16:7 If you please God, you will have peace with your enemies (Ex.: Political); Pv. 16:10 Politicians should implement God's will; Pv. 16:15 Politicians should bring life to situations; Pv. 17:7 Politicians should use excellent speech and not be liars; Pv. 20:8 Politicians are to be for justice and despise evil; Pv. 20:26 Politicians are to reduce evil; Pv. 20:28 They are to be honest; Pv. 22:11, 29, 25:5 They are to surround themselves with quality people; Pv. 25:3 Politicians are to have depth; Pv. 29:4, 26 They are to be for justice; Pv. 29:7 They are to care for the poor; Pv. 29:12, 14 They are NOT be liars; Pv. 31:4-5 Politicians are not to be given to alcohol (or drugs, in our modern day). In short, they are to be knowledgeable, temperate and moral.

We tend to vote for what benefits us, and sometimes care only what a political candidate promises us, but their character determines if those promises are lies, as well as whether their positions are wise for the nation. Do your civic duty, before God, by evaluating politicians according to these traits, and making your ballot choices accordingly.

Politicians' sins: Lying, idolatry, slander, arrogance, injustice, selfish ambition, hate, divisiveness, greed, irreconcilable, word wranglers, lip service, feigned anger, agitators, inventors of evil, pandering/coddling/catering kiss-ups, hypocrisy. The Bible addresses ALL these. (3/7/21)

1. The System is Broken
2. Washington D.C.–Repent!
3. Cancel the Cancel Culture!
4. Morals In Politics? (Part II)
5. The Core of American Politics (2021)

THE SYSTEM IS BROKEN

Current state U.S. Politics is fighting and division between entrenched extremes—the left vs. the right. My way or the highway, and destroy the enemy. The ONLY things that can happen in that system is one party wins, and dominates its opponent, or gridlock.

Even if one dominates, while in power, no one stays in power forever, so their so-called victories get undone by the other side, when they gain power. And gridlock is merely tax payers paying for politicians to do nothing, and nothing being fixed.

THE FIX IS EASY

Isn't there a better way? Yes, and it's quick and easy, if you are willing to value solutions and common sense, instead of idolizing power and your biased pet peeve extreme. It is through using common sense to get common ground for the common good of the nation as a whole. It is not hand holding Kumbaya unity, or bad compromises, but justly doing the right thing, and ensuring win-win, where both sides fairly get something they want, just not the whole enchilada.

Let me give you a few examples of these polar extremes (which cannot be harmonized, or their gaps bridged), and then suggest you read the solutions: more in-depth, at our website—AmericanAnswers.org.

You are either for gun grabbing or gun hugging.
You are either for a cleaner environment or profits.
You are either pro-cop or for criminal rights.
You are either for high or low taxes, and big or small government.
And you are either for open border or letting no one else in.

THE EXAMPLES ARE ENDLESS

The right and correct solution to almost every problem America faces has been thoroughly and entertainingly addressed in our many writings, mainly AmericanAnswers.org, but also Facebook's james.meroney.9 (and .3, and jim.meroney.3), and the posts and liked sections of these Twitter sites (as well as four books on politics, of our 11 books, available on Amazon/Kindle, and at that website): @pledgers2020, @ImMadTooEdwin, @2020Victory, @PledgersARCHIVE, @BuildBetterBiz, @ProphecyForYou.

The answers are out there, the solutions are easy—if you are committed to common sense, and country over party and principles over personalities. Go read about them. They have been guiding our nation the past four years, through VIP's who are quite familiar with what we write!

THE DECISION IS YOURS, AMERICA!

WASHINGTON D.C.–REPENT!!!

Dear D.C.: You fancy yourself the power of America, but you are WEAK! You imagine yourself leaders, but you are FOLLOWERS of public opinion, polls and focus groups! You fancy a party something of value, when it has become a harmful idol to you! You think you're role models. God help our children if that's true!

You spoke for two weeks about the GOOD U.S. Founders' intent. They NEVER intended the gridlock and continual fighting, my-way-or-the-highway domination, scheming tricks to defeat the "enemy," hatred, division, lies and outright sin-full behavior you must ALL repent of, or may God wipe out your futile enterprise, soon!

You are paid wages most of us would dream of. You produce much less than all of us achieve! You have too cushy of jobs! You are way over-paid and rewarded, and you are not leading our nation in integrity, but are mere ambulance-chasing used car salesmen! You spin, lie, impugn motives, feign motives, deem the other side evil, and act like you're pure holiness, when almost ALL you do is sin, and God is NOT mocked!

You are the modern-day Pharisee, who loves respectful greetings in the public square, like 'Congressperson' or 'Senator,' when your ploys are from satan, and your words and deeds disrespected by 82 percent of Americans, who polled your industry's respect level among those two prior-mentioned professions!

You have group think SHEEP mentality of a sports analogy, AS IF life is a mere game, and you're on one team trying to decimate the opponent. THAT IS NOT AS THE FOUNDERS INTENDED! They only wanted checks on extremes, but you both are extreme! You NEVER seek common ground! You LOVE riling up fools, for self-gain and votes—you are NOT public servants!

You manipulate people you SHOULD be educating, so America has no stupid citizens, in a global economy! You are grifters off the public dole! You believe coiffed hair and fancy suits makes you something. You are NOTHING before God, and if Jesus returned today, He would FIRST come to your foolishly hallowed House and whip His cord until you all fled (as guilty cowards rightly would). Your judgment is ripe, over-due, and coming!

You are extremists, erringly believing Reagan's 'bold colors' B.S.! You are among some of the stupidest people I have ever witnessed, despite most of you being lawyers!

New Orleans and Las Vegas have NOTHING on sin city D.C.! I know, even now, in your heart you all are thinking this message applies to your opponent party! NO! You are the man (and woman), because NONE of you LEAD your peers to a holier practice of law-making!

You FEAR losing your cushy job, because it pays off too well! Too many perks! 'We the people' want you all fired, if you choose not to change! You deserve term limits and perk and pay cuts, for you do not earn your keep! Reaching across the aisle is disdained by you, and you are leading our nation to a second Civil War! YOU!

You are slanderers, liars, word wranglers who spin everything YOUR party does as holy, and everything your opponent does as wicked. That makes YOU wicked! Talk radio and mainstream media are your party's' complicit mouthpieces for propaganda, with their bents and biases!

May you be utterly destroyed by God, if you do not repent, which all indications are, at present, you freely choose NOT to do. Trump is the grandfather of all this evil, and his so-called pastor handlers are GUILTY for all these things, before God!

Judgment is your fates, unless you repent! I have NO idea the form or fashion, but 9-11 was NOTHING compared to what God is going to bring upon you, in the soon-coming Tribulation, which MANY of you will go through, because you do not know God, as your deeds prove.

And any claiming Christians in D.C. Are heretical apostates, in FOLLOWING in all this muck, rather than following Jesus, which causes one to be a leader of others into holiness. I have NOT been easy on you, this morning, and give me any chance to appear before you, and this message will be just the beginning, for you NEED it! Repent!

You don't throw the baby out with the bath water, any more than the DUMB and extreme #CancelCulture wants to punish all service workers at Jimmy Johns for a stupid an evil ploy of (apparently) only two bad eggs in the organization! The CEO didn't order that behavior—maybe a sandwich.

#CancelCulture is CONSTANTLY ruining businesses that don't bow to their agenda. Buy American is saying #ClosetCandidate HAS NO economic policy, or knowledge of economics! It's also saying Americans have to pay MORE for the things we buy, to help him get elected. Americans buy the best deal for price and quality, Joe. Out-of-touch elitists wouldn't know that! (7/9/20)

Leftists literally want non-liberals harmed, their businesses ruined, them to lose their jobs, and their opinions muted in the public square, and on social media. WE OWN THE BUSINESSES and JOBS, silent majority! Let them fend for themselves, unemployed, or owning hemp factories! #JustDoIt

1. Identify every liberal who's in the cancel culture (like Julian Fidel Castro), and make their lives a living Hell, financially, JUST AS they are doing and avowed to do. If you sit back and doormatishly take it, you lose, and you are a bona fide fool! Fight back with your assets of jobs and access to products. (7/10/20)

(7/11/20)

VERY practically: WHY can't a federal agency monitor EVERY social media account calling for boycotts of U.S. Businesses (Ex.: Goya), and out them publicly, like NYC Karen was, who lost her job, so they will too? @realDonaldTrump @POTUS They are economic insurrectionists! #Treason America-haters

If Republicans simply refused to hire or do business with or serve any Democrat customers, requiring political party registration documentation, TEMPORARILY, the cancel culture would disband from poverty and unemployment, unless Soros subsidized them! @realdonaldtrump @POTUS

Cancel culture can be cancelled by business owners refusing service and to hire them. Job interviews with targeted questions, and business signs warning no boycotters (all leftists?) welcome would be an incomplete start. You have to identify them all, on social media, and at protests! @realdonaldtrump @POTUS

I am against ANY and ALL boycotts of any and all American businesses! We ALL benefit from a good economy, and we all suffer from a bad one. People have to live, which takes money (profits or wages). Use your free speech in more constructive ways!

Background

LEAVE POLITICS OUT OF BUSINESS! You hurt us ALL when you don't, because we ALL benefit when our economy is strong—not hindered by boycotts, and crying babies too incapable of expressing their political arguments where they belong—in the public (vs. private) square!!! GROW UP! (9/5/18)

I want to start a hashtag for all Twitter extremists who constantly call for boycotts/end of certain businesses, and for people to destroy their lives and careers, by resigning, anytime those posters get offended, who, hypocritically, would NEVER do that themselves! #JimJordanResign (3/7/20)

(12/25/20-2)

Are you 100 percent going to be a party vote, no matter what the party position is, because if you are not, because you think for yourself or vote conscience, we hate you as an outsider, and you may as well be on the other team, even if just abstaining. THIS is D.C. Think, morals be damned!

If that act can save or make our company money, it is the correct decision. If not, it is the wrong decision. THIS attitude in business, absent moral personnel or government regs, is how anyone in the way of just profits loses. The old 'economics is amoral' lie. Morals be damned!

I JUST showed you how politics and business can quickly leave morals 100 percent out of them, left without a judge! THIS is how Christians can care about their "religion" mainly two hours Sundays, as bucking a system that ignores morals doesn't advance your pocketbook! #MoralsMatter (Jud. 21:25)

And if a claiming Christian has zero quiet time, all but two hours a week they live by societal norms, unrenewed in mind to God's will! Even sermons can be wrong, and at best, tell a layman one topic a week, and are forgotten three days later. Thus, America is as America is! Selfishness will doom us!

If you are a Christian, because you have prayed to receive Jesus in your heart for forgiveness of all your sins, the Spirit dwells in you, and you are eternally saved. But that is not then end-all! You still have a life to live until you die! God wants it lived for Him!

When you got saved, that Spirit sealed you forever, indwelt you forever, made you new and clean/covered/forgiven on the inside, and gave you a new spiritual nature and new identity in Christ. Everything changed! (II Cor. 5:17)

NOW, it's time for those changes to manifest. God's word, the Bible, is your food. (I Pet. 2:2) Doing God's will becomes your life sustenance. (Jn. 4:34) You are directly related to God, and Jesus fellowships/communes with you full-time, and His Spirit can empower and lead/guide your life.

If you choose to live your own way, you are living in sin. (Pv. 3:5-7) Great blessings are yours following God in this life, and it's the only choice you have, to live acceptable to God, even though you know Him, and will be with Him when you die.

The person who told you the gospel may not have told you all this. I certainly don't to the many I've told the gospel, mainly because we speak, then go our separate ways, usually never to see one another again. But I do tell them to read the Bible and attend a Bible-believing church.

The Bible is what is in common with those two suggestions. Jesus said we cannot not live without it! (Mt. 4:4) Following, vs. just receiving Christ, is a daily process. (Lk. 9:23)

You eat three meals a day, not because you want rewards, or have to be incentivized to do so, but because you need to, to stay alive. You, even more than food, need God's word eaten/ingested daily!

And just skimming its contents will NOT benefit your life nearly as much as eating the Bible (in your heart and mind), like a cow chews its food! They eat, swallow, burp it up, and continue that process to digestion. That illustration is the exact Greek picture behind Josh. 1:8—a verse you should memorize!

Meditation is how God's word becomes your behavior, along with prayer! And on your own, you are incapable of successfully resisting temptation. You will yield to it most every time. You need to be empowered, spiritually. Daily ask God to fill you with His Spirit, and anytime you feel you have or might have sinned, confess that sin to God, in prayer, and ask to be refilled, because sin breaks off fellowship and the power of God. (I Jn. 1:9)

This is the life of a Christian. Continually knowing Him better, and getting better at living as he did. Yes there are eternal rewards for so doing, but this is the expected and normal Christian life.

If you want more help, read Will You Live Forever? button, at this website's chapters Why Be Totally Committed to God, and How To Have a Daily Quiet Time. MEDITATE/think deeply about what's written there, especially the Bible verses! God bless you if you do.

"He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain what he cannot lose." –Jim Elliot
Missionary C. T. Studd said, "Only one life 'twill soon be past. Only what's done for Christ will last."

(1/25/21-2)

THIS is a NEEDED message for you to understand what's going on, and how to fix it. There are two extremes in politics, 100 percent opposite, and they both wish the other didn't exist—liberal vs. conservative. They BOTH want ONLY their views enacted into law!

Far left wants to take citizens guns, "thinking" that makes us all safer, with less weapons that can hurt people. Problem is, if any crook makes or gets a gun, were all less safe, as only cops can take them out if they go on a shooting spree! Far right want zero gun restrictions.

I can own a bazooka, machine gun, tank, B2 bomber, and open carry, even without a license to carry. Zero proof I know how to use a gun (classes with licensing), zero concern that mentally unstable people can buy them, zero concern that registered serial numbers help cops catch criminals.

Just a guttural/instinctive/primitive/immature belief in the second amendment, with zero nuance that helps society. Those extremes are BOTH wrong! A LITTLE inconvenience that doesn't restrict your right to bear arms makes us all safer and better off, with zero gun-grabbing; maybe MORE guns, so deterrence is expected, as many citizens pack heat.

This is but one example of how extremists think-gun grab or no restrictions; all or nothing; my way or the highway, and they want to nationally force their position on everyone. Their positions will reverse, when the other party's in power!

That's INconsistent, unreliable, unstable, and not reasonable, long-term, as laws keep being go, then no go, depending on who's in office! RATIONAL is a policy that meets both sides' concerns, with give and take/win-win! The middle/centrist way.

But libs insist on NO guns, and cons insist on no restrictions; even internet and gun show exceptions to skirt our laws as a loophole. If a law is GOOD (sound, reasonable, moral and practical), its skirting is evil, and unsafe to society, while its enforcement is good for mankind. You start with good laws!

Let's debunk both extremes on this one sample issue-You CAN'T take everyone's guns! They'll hide them, bury them, lie about what they own, or even shoot you if you try (come and get it!). Plus, if they're skilled at using it, and law-abiding, there's zero rational reason to take their weapons!

They have a RIGHT to protect their family vs. burglars, thieves etc., and they can avert further murders, as in the case of a church-goer who killed a church shooter in TX! Cops can't be everywhere; guns are needed everywhere a criminal is using them for evil/harm/bad/crime/sin!

On the other hand, militias that equal or exceed the US military can be a threat, as we saw with basically under-armed people at our Capital! The government can't allow a domestic army to compete with them, as they alone are legally mandated to protect America and enforce laws, via armed cops.

BOTH extremes are often not open to re-thinking their positions! That is the problem! Cult-like brainwashed mind numb robots to only their beliefs! They can't see anyone else's viewpoint, and plug their ears to considering society as a whole. THAT is what ISIS types do-cut off thinking and emotion for willpower discipline!

We in the mainstream majority middle cannot allow either extreme to rule! Give them whatever you can that's moral (like safety from school shootings, and the ability to hunt and fish), but NOT everything they "demand," because opposites can't be implemented, except by secession (red states arm to the hilt, and blue states gun grab).

On a national level, that's the ONLY way for both sides to be happy, unless you give them 2-4 years of their way, then 2-4 ways of their enemy's way, which is irrational, unstable and unsustainable! Take ANY public policy! Libs and cons are on OPPOSITE ends of the scale on all of them! That's NOT workable, save by secession, or ping pong politics, where you win for a time, then you lose for a time, and America is known for inconsistent laws, depending on which party's in office! That's DUMB!

Taxes: high vs. low; regs: many vs. few; military: under- or over-fund; law and order: police brutality or defund cops; border: open or closed; debt: BOTH sides Increase it (bad)! HERE's the BIG problem: Funding of liberal causes. Cons want ZERO taxpayer money to fund them!

They fear moderates will give in and vote for them to be funded. As a centrist, I 100 percent oppose every freebie! I DO support severely poverty-stricken people being "helped," but ONLY if it's fair. It is NOT fair to taxpayers to fund anyone's bills! They MUST repay anything they're loaned to get on their feet!

Cons don't even want that, because tax money could be used, temporarily, even though repayment is required. THAT's how they get the reputation for not caring about people, and being greedy! Libs spend money like its water, because it's mainly GOP's (their enemies) money! That's UNjust and EVIL!

Some Dems pay taxes, but the ~50 percent who pay NO taxes are mainly Democrats, which is why they're always seeking freebies—because they're too poor to owe taxes! That's also why libs like open borders! Millionaires never cross our borders, illegally, save for drug lords!

These extreme policies are causing America to need a divide! BLM riots, and now Boogaloo and Proud Boys as the natural response! It all goes to government handouts, because whites usually won't accept them, but others beg for them. TAXPAYERS owe no one anything, concerning expenses paid for!

When you emphasize black lives mattering, poorer and less educated whites wonder how poor and less educated blacks should get favored, and resent it! That's normal! They all have the same economic challenges, no matter their skin color! They need equal opportunity; not favoritism by color.

Again, libs want many things funded: "Free" healthcare, daycare, college, student debt forgiveness, home down payment, reparations, climate clean up, Covid relief stimulus checks, housing, food, etc., as well as problems solved, like human trafficking, drug addiction, and a host of others.

WHERE can that money come from? NOT people with no bank balance! Tax payers, business owners and the rich are always targeted, but they are mainly GOP's! That is intolerable! WE didn't make anyone poor! We don't owe anyone anything! Even RINOs/centrists/moderates oppose all freebies! So how can anything new be funded?

1. Government functions for a profit.
2. Streamline government (best bang for the buck, and efficient like private sector, and prioritized, using automation and retraining).
3. FAIR to all taxes! Same pain, according to what you have; if you have no money to pay in, you will work for the government for free, enough hours to pay your own way! No justice no peace!
4. Charities.
5. Businesses voluntarily adopting causes.
6. The rich voluntarily adopting causes, like a modified Giving Pledge of LESS than 50 percent, and not just after they're dead!
7. Churches, synagogues and mosques doing their part!
8. Compulsory civic service of 10 hours a year from every citizen NOT in public service or a first responder. Ask NOT what your country can do for you...
9. EVERY such "help" being repaid by the recipient (including Welfare revamped to ONLY empower self-sufficiency in the medium-term. EVERY dollar repaid when they're on their feet, over time. Tax payers lose NOTHING (you could even charge for the interest lost on such a loan), yet cons will oppose this as they don't want to lift one finger to help anyone, even fairly and finally.
10. Liberals and liberal states are free to fund any and all projects they desire fixing! Just don't try to force the rest of us to join your merry band!

Charge as high of state taxes as you like! DON'T use the feds to steal from states not so inclined. YOU libs are concerned about those problems! We red states, not as much as you!

That doesn't make us morally inferior, as we pay for our own expenses, never ask government to help with that, and insist that's how red state citizens live! We reach out a helping hand, when needed, but reject Uncle Sam forcing it!

IF our economy ever gets great (like the surplus days of Bill Clinton), that excess could partly be used, but actually belongs to the tax payers. With 27T in debt, and climbing rapidly, with Biden's next Covid check, we won't see such a surplus! ALL of politics is about funding!

Dem constituents vote to spend, but don't pay in very often (except those on the higher income scale, whose percents are far less than GOP's). Its 100 percent unfair to make GOP's fund most things! taxes have to be fair to all, with no loopholes! NO extremist will like my plan, because it's FAIR!

IF extremes ever get the upper hand, like Trump or AOC, it is truly, reasonably and morally time to secede! America can't go on/continue divided, wanting war, or demanding opposite things! ONLY gridlock or ping pong politics are alternatives! The two-state solution is quite reasonable-then!

WATCH politics and politicians EVERY DAY! They USUALLY engage sin and often partisan stupidity! You have what you tolerate. I don't tolerate either of those vices in so-called "leaders!" Vote ALL the bums out! Not all are bums.

ON INCOME DISPARITY

There appears to be a fissure between the educated (if you hate them, you call them 'elites') Dems and their base, as with GOP's and their base, in thinking that extremism is the way forward—MY extreme, yours be damned.

Are the less-educated THAT dumb NOT to see where that leads? Gridlock and undoing policies every few years!

Your political philosophy is NOT perfect, extremists on the left and right, but this one (about to be described) is much closer to that—provably! Every caustic conservative thinks anything but conservatism means tax payers will pay more, and they RIGHTLY hate being the ones footing America's bills (44 percent pay NOTHING).

The 44 percent think life is Scrooging them, the man is taking advantage, and he always makes bookoos of bucks off their back, so they cry and clamor to Uncle Sam to remedy their inability to make more—all as FREEBIES!

Socialism is stealing from people who work for their money! And conservatism is people who make taxable income saying it's all mine... I'll give you none, to temporarily help you, by force of law, or if I feel like it on the street corner, begging. It's ALL about money! Trumpianism and AOC/Bernie-ism are ALL about how taxes are spent and raised, and how much! I don't want any more taxes on me, with a government that wastes money, empowers laziness and dependence, and can't control itself, with a $23T debt, and counting!

You don't curb their addiction by withholding so much money we have to borrow from our frenemy, China, at interest, or print fake dollars causing currency devaluation and inflation!

You also don't give people government handouts! Government is NOT you and me, but when it pays bills, it is ONLY us (tax payers) who pay in! We have to de-mystify that nanny state communalism idea!

America has a safety net, which is humane, but it should ONLY be temporary, and empower self-sufficiency learning skills. And ONLY keep people from severe poverty, like the difference between being out on the streets, and having bare bones minimums!

'Anyone' can learn such skills in six months to one year (obviously not people with academic challenges). And token repayment of 30 hours minimum, compulsory civic service for such benefits, is NOT unfair to taxpayers who aren't your employer or daddy/family!

The lower 44 percent CAN'T afford health insurance, often, so they sure can't afford to pitch in to the public dole. So they use sweat equity! Government, as an entity, is not a money tree, and it isn't an ATM machine! You wouldn't have the gonads to ask an upper 66 percenter for handouts, so you use politicians to do it for you!

Cons RIGHTLY begrudge section 8, Welfare, food stamps, Obamaphones, Medicaid, and whatever other freebies any American of any stripe or color receive, as they DON'T PAY US BACK, and we don't owe them! Its mercy, NOT justice, that allows that safety net, yet people feel entitled. You aren't! You work!

Then business and the rich do everything under the sun to make profits large, at the expense of the working class. They get YUGE bonuses and perks and salaries for screwing "peons" lives up, and that is RIGHTLY opposed by those oppressed! The answer/solution is justice and balance—NOT extremes!

'MY' solution meets the fiscal needs of the lower 44 percent, and the fairness needs of the upper 66 percent who pay taxes! And everyone should be made to do civic service, 10 hours minimum per year, to cut down the feds' costs, by sweat equity, as our patriotic duty, excepting those in public service, like the military, cops and emergency workers.

You have to find ways to reduce America's dependence on China's debt dependence! Streamlined government, changing ALL entitlements to be based on civic service repayment, everyone paying their fair share (the rich included, which will NOT be the same percent as the less rich), and growing our economy with business innovations I've written for years, and have many books on.

It will take 10 to 20 years for our debt to get manageable and reasonable, but you've got to start somewhere, and even cons, via Chump, have added more than $1 trillion to it, claiming/lying that his tax cuts would pay for themselves. This solution solves D.C.'s fights!

So when I slam BOTH extremes as imperfect, let me give some details! Liberalism has lofty ideals that sound moral. Everyone has healthcare, college (if smart enough), daycare and family leave. All basic needs secure, including Welfare. That's NOT FAIR to tax payers! That's a problem, unless you're an unjust/evil person.

They don't even pretend to want recipients to repay the tax payer! They act, vote and pass laws like money grows on trees. They use moral-sounding ideals to paint the picture, but their vision steals from hard-working, responsible tax payers, for ZERO reason other than that everyone wants more money!

Get a pay raise. Get a promotion. Get another job, or two. Work overtime. Get better, more marketable skills. Quit having as many kids. Cut back. Buy smarter. You're an adult—act like it. I'm not your daddy, as a tax payer—period!

And as to conservatism's imperfections and sins, their theory absolutely says screw the lower half! DO YOU THINK a person who so vehemently fights wealth redistribution is 'gonna pay charities enough to equal what Welfare provides, out of the goodness of their own, greedy hearts, freely? Then you're a FOOL! They're fighting Welfare, because THEY want that money returned to them, NOT to all go to charity, if any!

Both extremes' less-educated NEED to understand these things, as they're the core to D.C. Politics! The emperor has no clothes! You aren't rich because you max out many credit cards to 'own' many possessions! This is common sense, and economics 101.

So BETWEEN the two extremes of conservatism and liberalism, is common sense centrism, and conservatives needn't fear MORE taxes, and liberals needn't fear LESS help for the poor, but the type of help they really need—teaching them how to fish, vs. giving them a fish. This isn't rocket science, folks! Wake up. Geez!

Finally, for the cons who are as certain that their view is perfect as I am that most people are going to Hell, here's an exact, detailed laundry list of proof, explained, for why your view HURTS everyone but the rich and business owners, and isn't God's view... ALL these polices are conservatives! No one else proposed these:

End minimum wage. That absolutely means workers will make LESS, in most cases (a few rare exceptions).

End the estate tax. That means the rich, who already have life better than everyone else, have even less social responsibility, even though society benefits them most.

End five federal agencies. That means everything those groups do is useless, to the conservative! It also means MORE of an employer's market, with those millions of workers unemployed.

End child labor laws, because China is our competitor, and they do that! That means America's K-12 compulsory education system would be thwarted by pre-teens working full-time, like adults, losing their childhood.

And if you believe conservatism's dogma and mantra, business is in business only for profits, so if profit could be had by overworking employees (no breaks, no safety laws, no overtime), that's "good," to the conservative! We ALL know it's NOT!

Automate and robotize as many jobs as possible, so an employer's market becomes even more of a disparity. More unemployment, because machines can replace the lower 44 percent. HOW DO THEY LIVE and SURVIVE? Who cares, if you're a conservative? You're doing your patriotic duty to America, making business successful, right? WRONG!

It backfires, and government has to hire or pay for them off your taxes, dummies! Trickle down is a MYTH! The rich getting richer benefits all is a MYTH, if they're hoarders, selfish, or don't pay their fair share in taxes!

The joke is let the rich be richer, and they'll hire more. At minimum wage, or less, if allowed to do so, and they're profiting off employees! The ONLY jobs business doesn't profit off are 'business required,' like business lawyers, accountants and I.T. Folk. If life is all about making rich people happy and richer, it's skewed to the advantaged! Let's all bow down and worship the rich guy.

They already get the best streets (no pot holes), security (gated communities), perks (country clubs, best seating at restaurants, chauffeurs). Why do people barely eking by and unsure they'll ever retire need to serve them, to make their life better than is already better than the others will EVER have?

GOD has an answer to this question, and it's I Tim. 6:17-19, conducive with the Giving Pledge, and progressive taxation (Lk. 12:48), because 10 percent of not enough to survive is NOT the same sacrifice for the country as 10 percent of anything you'd ever want!

Warren Buffett understands all that I've just laid out. He and Bill Gates do NOT do what they do regarding charity because they're STUPID! They're smarter rich people than probably every conservative rich person who is NOT significantly philanthropic, proved by their ease at making money!

But they know life is more than just making money! They're certainly not people who loathe themselves, as conservative Mark Levin alleges, because they CARE about people and society—not just themselves (Phil. 2)!

And finally, IF you only knew the facts! 'Average Joe' gives back three percent of his income to charity. Rich Americans give TWO percent. The people MOST able are least giving. And the TRUE heroes of commerce proved to everyone that they were kings of industry, then proved that they were kings as humans. NOT nearly so, today.

Rockefeller, Rothschild and Carnegie were as proud of their wealth as their philanthropy! Today, we often omit the latter, as money is an idol we selfishly covet in America.

P.S.: This ALL relates/pertains to conservatism vs. liberalism! One extreme wants to steal others' money, and the other wants (or tolerates) the poor suffering. That sounds harsh, but what's harsh are these two extremes.

HOW TO POWER THROUGH POVERTY

Let's imagine you were born in the projects. Maybe a single parent, or a locked-up dad. HOW can you get out?

1. Dream, by visiting rich areas; and take pictures, and put them on your walls.
2. Mentor: Find a successful older person to guide your decisions.
3. Great GPA in school, as with extra-curriculars.
4. Volunteer as an intern to a good business, even if you have to travel far, even on public transportation.
5. If you invent something people like, your race or financial circumstances DON'T matter to your customers!
6. Get help to start a needed business, with and SBA (Small Business Association) loan, and business mentor from someone NOT directly competing with you (i.e., located farther away, by phone or web contact).
7. Focus. Stay away from the gangs, crime, drugs and pimps. Stay inside and read, learn, memorize! Do it at school, church, after hours facilities, or at home.
8. Get tutoring help, so your grades become exceptional!
9. Ask teachers and school administrator for help and resources for your college prep.
10. Ignore or improve the physical quality of your public school. If you can't ignore rundown facilities, volunteer to paint them on the weekends, to help all your peers (instilling pride).
11. Team up with smart peers, for study groups!
12. Get experts to educate you, via library books, or YouTube tutorials (like Khan Academy).
13. Understand that number one is your grades! Everything else is secondary.
14. Take advantage of free food programs at school, or via charity soup kitchens, as hunger can distract you from studying.
15. Pray and trust God.

In 90+ percent of the cases, white people are NOT consciously or otherwise trying to keep you down, or NOT hire you! Use Linked-In to connect to a successful person of your race, if you believe that, and ask for their advice and/or help, if you believe discrimination is big or bad. Let nothing thwart your success!

You are NO different from me! Your color and circumstances may be, but I was an A to C student in high school. My FREE website offers MANY college studying tips. There are tricks, and even professional businesses to improve your grade results... Kaplan, Kumon, etc.! You can make great grades, if you work hard, and grades are about all colleges can judge you on!

I'd even move to a lower-performing school, so your results will rank you higher! This is NOT becoming "more white." It's becoming more marketable for good-paying jobs! If your culture poo poos education, buck it! That only HURTS you, in the information age!

DON'T limit yourself to music and sports, as a way out of poverty! Take exams to determine your innate talents and interests, and milk what you're good at—accentuate the positive, minimize the negative. Major on the majors, which are the skills you're good at that businesses want and need (to save or make them money)! You can be a success! Believe it.

Update: The Poor You Will Have with You Always

You aren't 'gonna eradicate poverty in America (Mt. 26:11). At best, end severe suffering poverty! No one LIKES giving up money—we try to buy the best deals/value for the quality, and work hard to make our cash stash. The Constitution DOESN'T speak of wealth redistribution—NOT explicitly or implicitly.

Every person is responsible for their own lifestyle getting paid. Insurance helps for BIG bills. Crowd funding, as well. But government's purpose/job is NOT to make up for your wages! You're in a global labor pool, so you've got to be worth the pay that you want, to business! Be the best job candidate you can be. Work hard and smart!

Market rate and fair market value are often a RANGE—NOT a set amount. Remember that, as an employee, and learn what your skills are worth. It can vary per city (i.e., variant regions' costs of living). What the market can bear is a wide range, in many cases.

POOR PEOPLE ARE SUCCESSFUL?

Permit me, if you will, to address a subject most Americans will HATE, disagree with, or be disinterested in hearing, even though it's 100 percent biblical—the Bible on Poverty... Before getting specific, let's first list general observations of life in America concerning poverty!

The poor are discounted, even labeled 'losers' by the competitive/sports-backgrounded types. Their opinion of public policy is rarely sought, as it's assumed all they care about is getting money, so why would they have any opinion on what the government should do?

They're deemed ne'er do wells, or people who never choose to "buckle down," and work hard, or get a decent education, or job skills.

Their suffering is always deemed their own fault, as is their solution—their own responsibility. Inside, others laugh at their trashed- or rusted-out hoopies/vehicles, and people can't believe they could live like that, or even enjoy life not having a "nice" car or house! DID YOU KNOW assets can be nice (or presumably mean), depending on their quality? (sarcasm).

NOTHING the poor man owns is nice, unless, like Obama wrote, they pour all their excess into a nice car, as they return to their not-so-nice domicile.

Why wouldn't they want to be fashionable, or keep up with the Jones'? Don't you know God thinks the Jones' are life's role models? (a LIE from satan's world system).

I've even had folks say the problem is they don't focus hard enough on their labors (by people whose ministry to God and country NEVER interfered with one hour of employment).

DO WE SEE any people in Scripture who were so busy serving God, that their finances were negatively impacted? Well, maybe some average Joes like JESUS and Peter, for starters (mocking rebuke). So now let's take a look at Bible verses Americans usually have ZERO desire to see, and even concoct LIES to circumvent!

DID YOU KNOW God says not only blessed are those poor in spirit, or humble-attituded, but blessed are the poor? (Mt. 5:3; Lk. 6:20) Then I don't want to be blessed by God, but by the world, is the typical internal dialogue for most who learn these truths--NEVER verbalized out loud! Secret thoughts. God and the Bible do equate poverty with humility (Jas. 1:9), but it is not always a mere humble attitude that God calls people to, but actual humble circumstances!

DID YOU KNOW God says the poor man is in a HIGH position before Him, and the rich man is in a low position before Him? I didn't think you did! (Jas. 1:10)

The rich person is in a LOW position before God! The person with a high standing with Him is the poor man. These are NOT words you hear in America!

And why is that status his? Partly because the poor man HAS to trust God; while the rich ones often trust in their riches, with God as a back-up, or spare tire for emergencies; TRUTH! (Jas. 2:5; Ps. 49:5-6)

DID YOU MISS the nugget that the POOR are heirs of the rich coming kingdom, or did you miss Pv. 11:28, that those who trust in their riches will FALL/fail? God/the Bible (meaning not that the Bible is God, but it IS God speaking to us) also says pride goes before destruction, and says riches often instill such pride. (Pv. 16:18; I Jn. 2:15-17)

We equate net worth with self-worth! I'm someone, because I'm rich, and I don't want to be rich without others knowing it (like only a full bank account) so I show it off in ways people will praise my "achievements" and ambition! THIS IS PRIDE, folks.

I told and warned you you wouldn't like this teaching, so how many have already bugged out? NOT lovers of the truth (or you're already fighting it, with "but what abouts" in your head)!

Let's continue. Aren't there sinful poor, or people poor because of sin? YES. Today's lesson is addressing those who aren't. It's NOT from laziness, a drug habit, low self-esteem, bad decisions (the most popular "Christian" excuse given for poverty, from my observation... consequences for bad decisions, whereas wise people get painted as the rich ones, like Peter and Jesus, I suppose).

No, America DOES idolize money! Just admit the truth! Even politically-minded so-called "Christians" avidly support a theory that all my money is mine, and God approves of that hoarding sin (Ecc. 5:3), because He wrote I am to enjoy the fruits of my labors, and taught personal property rights. (Gen. 3:19; Ac. 5:4) That's WARPING of what God taught! (I Tim. 6:17-19; Pv. 19:17)

But I do it for my family and heirs... "family values"/generational wealth! BALDERDASH! God NOWHERE taught to ONLY benefit blood relatives with your wealth, and though He gives the power to get rich, the devil can too! (Deut. 8:18; Mt. 4:9) HAVE I SCARED YOU OFF, YET?

Bible scholars call these type topics the "hard sayings of Scripture." Hard to take, because our flesh/sin nature bristles and rebels at such ideas! I'm 'gonna stop there, as you can do your own Bible research on the word "poor," and discover jewels I don't need to spoon feed you with, if you are not lazy!

God gives the power to be poor and rich--NOT just rich! God calls some to be poor, which means they're doing God's will not chasing money, as you sinfully do. (Pv. 23:4-5) YES, there are some saints

God actually has believe what He said, when He wrote a saint's prayer in Pv. 30:8, extolling moderate income.

It is the culture of America that has warped your theology! Worldliness extolled as virtuous. The American Dream. Live it up and live for this life, OPPOSITE God, in many ways (Col. 4:1-3; Mt 6), and not denying yourself (Lk. 9:23).

I (sort of) hate bursting your bubble of self-congratulation and pats on the back for your worldly/temporal "achievements," but I HAVE to warn you that God's concern is what we do for Him in this life, not serving our own pleasures and pamperings!

Your pastor MAY not tell you, because he loves the unrequired "tithe," or has bought into the heresy that lies that God wants all believers rich!

SURELY no American is still reading, so I will cut out with this... trust God, serve Him madly, pursue riches that do not fade (Mt. 6:19), and give money to people NOT in your family! THIS is Gods will for you, like it or not. Bye (and don't come tar and feather me; your anger is at God, with whom you are at war; Jas. 4:4)!

P.S.: Jesus knows how hard it is for rich people to give to the poor, without being forced! You get used to self-pampering lifestyles/creature comforts, enjoying life, and forgetting that anyone else exists, except for your socio-economic peers! That's why He challenged a wealthy young man seeking to get to Heaven by good works! (Mt. 19:21) Hoarding is easier!

Jesus told His closest confidantes to sell what they had. Do we in America really believe Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever? (Lk. 12:33; Heb. 13:8) We Christians truly do NOT believe God's promise of eternal rewards for so doing, or value His priorities on this subject! (I Tim. 6:17-19) Repent!

And God would NOT instruct us to give cash gifts, in great amounts or for long, as that's fiscally irresponsible! Give (even if it's only sweat equity) to projects that empower the poor to make the most of what they have, and to make the most that their skills can fetch! (II Th. 3:10)

HELPING THE POOR

(11/3/20-2)

Liberals' definition of being nice and helping people means money to poor people; nothing and no one else. They seem willing to fork out more money for them, in their states, but want to force all others who aren't poor to do the same, nation-wide. The problem with free money is...

1. There's no ownership (rent car mentality).
2. It's unjust to taxpayers, and creates dependence and laziness.
3. There's little-to-no payback; recipients can spend it however they like.
4. It's not sustainable—the cash just runs out/dry.
5. The poor are NOT taught to ever improve themselves.
6. The poor aren't your kids or employees.

TRUE help and compassion is teaching all poor people how to fish; NOT giving them fish. That's unsustainable and irresponsible! Every poor person unable to do better, from disability, already has Social Security, and the poorest have Welfare! That's a merciful safety net, and more than enough!

The middle and upper class usually didn't receive ANY government help, to get to where they are, financially! So it's UNfair favoritism to keep handing out freebies to the lower class. They NEED to be taught how to move into the middle class. Those are skills that can be learned! NO free money.

You FEEL sorrow, empathy, compassion and pity for the poor, but the lazy poor deserve NO sympathy, and the hard-working poor need better skills and/or education. FEEL FREE to fund the poor yourself, Universal Basic Income-supporting billionaires! Just adopt them into your family, daddy BIG bucks. That's NOT your job to do!

Every functioning human adult has to learn to fend for themselves. It's a life-long skillset they need. That DOESN'T mean no one ever gets a little help along the way, but liberals MUST be trying to buy votes, as their "help" is usually overkill and forever! That's human growth retarding!

EVERY American poor person could at least be earning near $15/hour, with the current minimum wage, or they must suffer a disability—mental or physical—for which Social Security Disability exists! Entry level wages were never designed for heads of households, or as career jobs; ONLY stepping stones—NOT living wage.

The Twitter Jack, Facebook Zuck and Tesla Elon trio SHOULD be even more concerned with the world's poor, IMO, as most all of them are doing worse than America's poor. They need food, clean water, primitive sanitation, shelter, survivalist skills, clothes and preventative medicine, at a minimum. Fund that, IMO.

Sustainability is the liberal's mantra for our ecology; it needs to be for our charity! Throwing money down a rat hole is STUPID! Give a poor person $4K this year and even if they spend it all on valuable things, next year the need persists, if nothing changes in their money-making skills.

American liberals have a MUCH skewed by our consumerist culture view of what an American poor person NEEDS! I Tim. 6:8 I've met many people poorer than myself, with newer shoes, cars, smart phones and Netflix. Our ideas of necessity vs. luxury get warped by TV images of the Jones' we try to keep up with.

College and healthcare are the top two industries needing an option for the poor! Daycare can be solved by technology, organizing neighbors (funding a stay-at-home parent), or Groupon-like leverage to reduce prices, if many neighbors buy a single daycare membership for all—MORE competition!

First, not all Americans need college, and 58 percent don't have a degree. A government program for it would UNfairly benefit only those with higher IQ's! Why would any university reduce tuition for smart poor people, when they can earn full tuition from richer smart people? They aren't a charity!

SAME with medical costs... WHY would hospitals, doctors, drug companies and insurance companies give poor people a price break, when that's UNfair to the rest, and they can find enough richer people to pay full fare? Subsidies, paid back in civic service, more competition, and certified home school college are the answer for college.

For healthcare, MORE insurance competition lowers premiums, but the field is NOT incentivized to cut costs, as the medical establishment is the highest-paid industry, overall, and they like that money!

Again, civic service paid back subsidies, along with charities, low-cost or free clinics, OTC remedies, staying healthy/preventive maintenance, catastrophic insurance for BIG bills, and Medicaid are solutions NOT requiring one size fits all government Socialized medicine! Solutions exist. Lazy people just want to vote for freebies!

Let's get exhaustively detailed in what American poor people NOT on Social Security Disability need, which I HOPE generous billionaires will fund, as there is payback and payoff when a man learns to make his own way, with help!

GED, college (if qualified), trade school skills, motivation (personalized to their energizers), goals, dress for success, interview skills and practice, resume writing and job search tips, hygiene, diction, manners training, transportation to the interviews and job, and a positive attitude belief in self.

Also, house and appliance repairs, possibly lawn upkeep (for neighborhood self-image/pride) and budgeting skills, MAINLY education on how to buy the best value, and not over-pay, or mistake a luxury for a necessity. There are tricks to the trade of life they must learn!

It's NOT uncompassionate to expect an American adult to learn how to pay their own way! It IS uncompassionate to say do so, and don't ask me to lift one finger for anyone, if they struggle with that pursuit! Politically, there are labels attached to these differing attitudes toward the poor.

MANY rich Americans do NOT agree with the adage, 'there but by the grace of God go I.' They feel insulated from calamity, by reliance on bank accounts—NOT God. Arrogance creeps in, that I'm above such experiences, and if I can do it, why haven't the poor? They must be lazy! Making ASSumptions!

God has commanded the rich to give back generously. I Tim. 6:17-19 It's not an option to simply hoard, and blame your sinning on having earned it all. You, of all people, have the wherewithal to help others, but you should never waste that charity, by dumb investing in "free money!"

Free money doesn't teach anyone to earn enough for income to exceed outgo! It's a mirage, a vapor; it's not real, but fake supply; undependable, unsustainable, irresponsible and bankrupting, as the $ earns nothing; it just gets spent! Do philanthropy wisely! Fund self-empowerment for the poor.

IMO, an app or website chocked full with info that educates U.S. Poor on all these skills would be a lasting one-time investment, continually updated with the best deals per area, best money-saving tips, motivational techniques, job opportunities updates, skills development centers and even free GED or vocational training charities, government programs, or schools (or even free GED and vocational training via the internet/YouTube, only paying one expert per topic, to teach nationally, if not universally, with hands-on by associated apprenticeships and internships. There are NO excuses for severe poverty continuing.

IF any American without a disability is poor, thereafter, it is totally their problem. There are people who like to beg, who make a decent amount by not working. Society owes them zero favors! Make all the needed skills for the poor to move up avail, for free, online, and fund no more!

Liberals can come up with endless projects to throw taxpayer funds at! That's NOT how the Constitution or even common-sense works! People must be taught to carry their own weight! That's what adulting is all about. Freebies make adults into children, financially! BAD public policy!

Perhaps our current U.S. Divisions show the wisdom of why our Founders defaulted to states' rights, where not explicitly enumerated, as making a federal case out of everything fails to capture the diversity of thought that makes up our melting pot tapestry, though remaining united!?

There's OBVIOUSLY an attitudinal difference between the Bible Belt and the two major coasts (or predominantly liberal regions). The attitude SEEMS to be for me to be a nice/good person, I can't want significant wealth, and/or I must fund poor people with handouts, tax-wise.

The very definition of being "good" gets equated to how much money one gives away, and how many freebies they fund. That is, I must apologetically say, an ODD way of viewing life! Goodness is behaving morally!

I detailed morals from sins, this morning (i.e., #MoralsMatter)! Among many good things we can do is help the poor. But it is UNhelpful to keep them poor, hinder their efforts at escaping poverty, or block that escape by any racist or unjust hiring, housing, education or socializing discrimination! EVERY American ought to be rooting every poor American on, to escape poverty and achieve the American dream for themselves, defined by themselves!

We are a competitive nation, but the poor are not "losers" or life's failures, and we aren't competing with them, to keep them down, like a football team tries to keep an opponent down on the scoreboard! Life's more important than sports! Be kind.

There are people who just want to make money, and don't care if the world goes to Hell, and there are people who just want the world to be like Heaven, and don't care if businesses go out of business. BOTH of these extremes are WRONG!

(11/1/20-2)

It's AWESOME that @Facebook's Mark Zuckerberb, @ElonMusk and Twitter's @Jack want to help the poor! YOU DON'T GIVE FREE CASH! That's DUMB, irresponsible, and unrealistic/unsustainable. You spend your money on teaching them how to fish/be self-sustaining, financially! That helps, vs. creating dependence!

NO intelligent investor throws money down a rat hole! Even if you have money to burn, you don't waste it on zero payback to society, by FREE money, or 'UBI!' @Facebook Mark Zuckerberg, @Jack, @ElonMusk They need job and life skills to make it in the world, as grown adults! Pay for that training!

People incapable of making it through life, by mental or physical disability, already get Social Security disability. Beyond that, you're empowering laziness, dependence, achieving less than one's full potential, and disincentivizing hard work! UBI is Unreasonably Blatant Ignorance. Free money!

If the only thing a grown adult head of household can do in life is be a retail cashier, his/her family is going to be poor. After well over 18 years on this earth, surely every adult can learn skills that pay better than minimum wage! Everyone must learn to live within their means.

Aptitude and interest tests should be mandatory in high school! I'd make a HORRIBLE mechanic! You may make a HORRIBLE author. Learn what your innate skills/talents are, and maximize them, with training and experience. Poor people can learn, and if they can't, Social Security disability exists! Be your best!

Poverty OUGHT to be only a short-term problem for anyone! Democrat policies treat it as life-long! Their EXPECTATIONS are low, which means they don't trust people to evolve/advance/improve/grow up, by their ever-expanding handout policies! Social Security Disability exists for people who CAN'T self-sustain. (11/4/20-2)

(1/22/21-2)

A little economics lesson for the poor: We ALL would LIKE to be overpaid! The janitor would LOVE to earn $70K a year! WHY doesn't that happen? Do managers simply throw a dart at a salary dartboard, or spin a wheel to determine what to pay you? NEVER!

If they're HORRIBLE at business, they'll randomly pick a salary or hourly wage number by asking their peers. If they're good at business, they will know what the going/market rate is.

YOU would NOT buy a year 2000 clunker car for $30K! ONLY a fool would! NO business person aspires to work FOOLishly! You're paid what you're paid because enough people like you (with your skill set) agree to work for that wage!

If your job is needed by business, and no one skilled like you ever applies, management would be forced to pay MORE for your job! APPLY these facts to your life!

And when you cry Uncle to Uncle Sam, you are asking those same employers, plus all taxpayers, to pay for your pay raise, for whatever freebie you're seeking! That's EVIL, but I know morality is not your concern, but money.

When that's how you seek a job advancement, or raise, the economy does WORSE, because forced expenses on business, by government, means business responds, usually by cutting where they can, like jobs, or robotizing your job out of existence.

If you couldn't mow your lawn, from age or incapacity, and your lawn boy charged DOUBLE what you were used to, you'd hire someone else! If they ALL raised their rate to double, you'd buy or invent a Roomba for lawns, or change your yard to all rocks!

YOU wouldn't just take it on the chin! NEITHER will business. In short, YOU have to have skills deserving higher pay! Government can't change that!

Let me edu-ma-cate poor people on one other thing: INFLATION (rising cost of goods sold) makes your paycheck worth LESS! Harmful things to an economy cause that, like higher taxes, less access to oil, etc. You DON'T have to go to college to understand this stuff! You'll FEEL it!

And IF government forced business to overpay workers, unemployment (people out of work) would RISE! Why? To keep costs as they were! Less mouths to feed, with paychecks, but those keeping a job worked harder. You REALLY can't have political positions based on DUMB emotions. SOME knowledge is required! Wise UP!

ELON MUSK'S $6B FOR THE HUNGRY POOR

(11/2/21-2)

NO MATTER how the HUGELY Socialist-biased MSNBC poo poo's your awesome and generous offer as minimal, I am 100 percent behind your decision, and think you are being a true hero! DON'T empower laziness, but self-sufficiency skills with your donation! That's sustainable! GOD BLESS YOU.

@ELONMUSK: HERE's a GOOD plan (multiple tweets):

1. Minimal infrastructure for farming/food
2. Minimal accessing of education materials (LOW cost)
3. Education in basic job skills
4. Motivation training to self-sufficiency skills (earning and spending) THIS plan solved poverty quick

Broken down:

1. Poorest nations with equipment to farm enough food to feed their citizens
2. FREE K-12 materials avail by basic internet access everywhere (electricity, or cheaper: Books and loud speakers)
3. Job skills for using nations' natural resources
4. Empower budgeting

EVERY human needs food, basic shelter, clothes and death-deferring medical preventatives. YOUR $6B should go to educate and motivate them how to have those basic essentials—NOT give that to them, as that's NOT sustainable. Per country, enact education on how to achieve it!

Gardening per household, or 'hood. Caves, huts, TPs, used cargo containers or crates, made into shelters. Sustainable hunting and fishing skills. Sanitary refuge and excrement disposal. Wells for fresh water. MAYBE generators or electricity. Vaccines. Hand me down clothes

EVERY nation has similarities and differences in needs and resources. Have a generic model for all, customizable! I just taught how your $6B could be maximized for the BEST bang for the buck, with zero handouts. I'll bet the U.N. doesn't come up with a better plan (by God's grace)

IF a poor person can die from preventable disease, preventing getting that disease is essential! If they get enslaved, or abused by bosses—or have no food—that's step 2, like Maslow's Hierarchy. They ALL likely have clothes/covering and a place to lay their heads, already

And IF a poor person has no marketable job skills, they'll always be poor! They have to be taught them, even as they have to work, full-time, to remain alive. Pre-recorded K-12 curricula by loudspeaker could replace needs for massive book investments! public and open air!

USE your $6B in cooperation with fatal disease vaccine charities. Food and job skills are number one (as with ending preventable deaths). ALL ELSE is secondary! poorest nations have manpower businesses can utilize, IF trained for low skill jobs. VERY cheap global labor source!

The @UN Just gave you a cheat sheet on how to respond to @elonmusk's "out of this world" (rocket ship reference) offer! IF your bureaucracy gets their grimy hands on it for any but the poor, or for handouts, may God curse you! MY plan has none of that! BEST bang for buck—Just DO it!

Before I return to sleep, HUNGER eradication is NOT the sole need, if they die from preventable disease, or haven't the ability to pay their own way through life! THAT would only involve endless food giveaways! Teach them how to fish! It's wiser than giving them fish!

IF ending hunger is the only aim, your $6B needs to go to sustainable farming at every level that ensures all poor people eat. That means individually or collectively, with means for them to access it, which usually requires money from working! MY plan is BETTER! READ it.

You gained your wealth legally! You're NOT daddy to the world's poor, nor obligated to alone fix hunger. Motivate other rich people to emulate you, by tying your offer to their matching or making contributions! LEVERAGE your generosity to do more, PLS! DON'T go it alone!

IF Elon Musk follows through on his $6B offer, I will consider him in the top 10 of all-time Texans, transplanted or not! Being 6th generation, and from one of the original 53 families, I want to bestow that great honor on him if he so does! WELCOME TO TEJAS, y'all (Elon/rocket man)!

@WarrenBuffett @BillGates YOU two should be inviting @elonmusk to a meeting/social gathering, to discuss the plan I just gave him and the @UN, to never duplicate efforts, but seamlessly work in tandem! ALL three of you are heroes of mine for your business and charity—not just one without the other!

VERY specifically: Every poor nation has to identify land suitable for farming. Then the most efficient means of harvesting need to be utilized, vs. wasteful, inefficient ways of old! Maximize the bounty that can grow from limited land cultivation! America is great at that!

Consider contacting @RickWarren for his farm land strips, @elonmusk! I believe he supports charitable efforts to entrust every family with six foot plots they can grow food from, to survive. There is NO NEED to reinvent the wheel, or duplicate efforts, as that's wasteful of limited resources!

Elon says we have to have inspiration; not just solve problems, because he reniged on $6B promise to solve poverty, and instead poured it into a craft that blew up within 15 minutes! Priorities vs. positivity and platitudes! He cares less about the poor than mechanical objects!

HANDLING THE 'HOOD

Let's get this straight, once and for all: Black persons were immorally enslaved in America—period! Whether it was legal, it was EVIL! 400 years of impact can't be erased overnight, or by the stroke of a politician's pen!

At the same time, over time, you catch up, like the whole industrialized world has caught up to America! There is no systemic racism in America! There are pockets of racism, maybe even among some public figures and government authorities, but the American governmental and criminal/legal system is NOT designed to keep the black man down—period! And not all people of any race are the same! That's group think!

There is not one thing keeping any American down, but their scholastic achievements and hustle—period!

It's HARDER to get good grades, when you're hungry, or fear violence in your neighborhood, but making A's and B's will ALWAYS get you ahead in the U.S. of A.—period! #JustDoIt

Hang around smart people, vs. C and below students! You tend to develop acquired traits of the people you surround yourself with!

If you lack food, resources exist (church, charity and country/government). If you are unsafe from gangs, SECRETLY tell a cop!

Call a back line police phone number and seek their subtle assistance!

Tell a school principal, or assistant, or teacher, in private! If you're being abused, at home, TELL SOMEONE! You may fear you'll be yanked away from your relatives, but that doesn't have to happen if the abuser gets help!

If you are depressed because you live in a dilapidated area of town, FOCUS on what WILL be if you keep your academic nose to the grindstone!

Have a civil rights group bus you to the nicer places, and dream of a better future! Tax payers already over-give with Welfare (section 8, food stamps, CHIPS, phones, debit card money Medicaid). THAT IS NOT YOUR TICKET OUT! You are your own savior, with some help.

And if you have ZERO local role models of an older person who lives like you want to live, when you DO graduate, either from high school or college, contact a famous black celebrity, and ask for their encouragement or help! LeBron and Jordan seem like awesome role models to tell you you can do it if you try HARD!

EVERY first-world nation has caught up with America, technologically, educationally, and somewhat economically. Black folk in Canada do not use their race as an excuse for poverty! After years of race baiting and playing the race card, it's time to succeed in America through GOOD GRADES! (5/31/20)

GETTING OUT OF THE 'GHETTO'

(Listen to Stevie Wonder's 'The World Is a Ghetto,' and 'I Wish,' as you read!; Our full Race Riots coverage is at AmericanAnswers.org, Campaign Update)

I woke up planning a detailed message on how poorer blacks can succeed in America, but I've said it before, and this violence makes me not in the mood, for now! Get good grades, don't do crime (or drugs or gangs), spend wisely, was the gist, anyway! Lazy people just want politicians to steal from the rich, vs. working hard and smart.

BUT it's needed, so maybe half of what I would have said: NO RACE IN America gets great jobs without a college degree, unless they start a successful business, or invent something that sells well. You don't have to go to college, but you do have to work hard and be smart.

IF any black person has succeeded in America, observe and learn what they did; imitate success. By the way, there are MILLIONS who have! They're of the same race, so your skin tone is irrelevant, though your life circumstances could be similar to how they started.

I live in one of the most competitive counties in America, and if you don't make near straight A's, you will rank LOW in your class! Many smart immigrants live all around me (mainly Indian and Asian). These neighbors work hard, they don't break the law, and their kids STUDY.

There's NO OTHER WAY around or out of this (global) competition! There's a limited number of great jobs, there are massive numbers of people who want them, and good paying employers want the best bang for their buck. Poorer blacks are competing with these people! GRADES are the main test of your qualifications, plus a few extra-curriculars, if you're a youth.

Let's imagine you live in the crappiest of neighborhoods, with rundown schools, gang violence, and lacking food and healthcare—worst case scenario.

Get on Google and find all the local shelters, charities and food banks (or have your busy parents or parent do this—it's THEIR job!), as with all government programs, and generous churches and local businesses.

Learn how to grow a garden in your back yard (or community, project's/public housing's or apartment's central area). Before and after school lunch programs also exist.

Look for all the low cost or free health clinics, for emergencies, and necessary vaccines and checkups. Know where your public hospital is (like Parkland, Dallas, and Ben Taub, Houston). Look for all the after school programs, like the YMCA, Boys Club, or just stay at home and study.

Befriend cops and teachers and administrators for help staying safe from the dangers of violence, or pressures to join a gang (Ex.: crips and bloods, or MS-13, etc.).

If one exists, solicit/recruit a mentor (i.e., an older adult, in the area, in a field/profession you're interested in, or who just knows the ropes in your area of town).

All these actions take work, but the only one that really is necessary is for you to STUDY hard! Google search memory devices! Learn about FREE Khan Academy! Local libraries have FREE books and online resources.

Hit up your school counselor for tutoring opportunities!

You may even qualify, academically, for special help that is NOT special education/needs, by government Americans with Disabilities Act mandate!

There is absolutely NO rule of government or business that is holding you down, or back! In fact, there are laws against racial discrimination in the work place!

The sky IS the limit, but you don't hear sermons like this, but often you hear sermons that 'the man has his foot on your neck,' and business and government policies are holding you back. LIES!

You are your own best advocate, resource and solution! Invest in yourself, for life! Others WILL help you, but YOU have to have the determination that you WILL succeed, come Hell or high water, gangs, poverty, or crappy old school buildings!

REMEMBER, it's the TEACHER, and the text book that is essential! You can become the magna cum laude number one student in your class, in the darkest of circumstances!

High-falutin' buildings and class rooms can spoil people to get lazy, because everything is given to you on a silver platter, so effort can wane; but dilapidated surroundings can inspire one to say to themselves, my educational achievement is exactly equal to those rich kids, elsewhere, IF I put my mind to my studies, and my nose to the grindstone in understanding, then remembering!

Online helps can aid your comprehension. Memory devices can aid your retention. And if you aren't 'college material' (like ~60 percent of Americans), pursue a trade (school), avidly!

As Martin Luther King said, 'Whatever your life's work is, do it well. A man should do his job so well that the living, the dead, and the unborn could do it no better.' Google RESEARCH 'blue collar' jobs that pay well. They exist! Get prepared and skilled to succeed at one of them! Trust God, and be your best. NOTHING can stop you!

And while we're at it, RE-IMAGINE your neighborhood the way you'd like it to be, NOT like other neighborhoods, but it at its best, and volunteer to work to make it that way! No crime, NO gangs, NO hunger, NO despair, NO lack of basic healthcare, NO lack of jobs or nearby businesses, NO bad teaching in schools, mentors galore, NO pot holes, NO broken down homes or appliances, NO severe poverty, NO mental illness, and NO mentality that this can't change, or that we're stuck living here forever.

SHARE this vision with friends and family! Get people to buy into it. Then, with others' help, make it happen, but AFTER you graduate. For now, just go study!

And for all those NOT in these circumstances, especially the rich (I Tim. 6:17-19), take this vision and go make it a reality for some poorer neighborhood! Don't pour money down a rat hole of no returns on investment, like freebies. Help them have clinics, food sources, etc. And cops, keep them safe, humanely!

Update

(6/6/20)

Imaging you live in a POOR part of town. It could be the ghetto, barrio or a trailer park. Why people have concern for the entire area, vs. their own life improving, people where I live NEVER think about! I never wonder, how could my community be improved for us all?

If everyone improved their own income, any poverty problem would be gone, taxes would pay for better schools, and all citizens would be able to afford catastrophic health insurance, and see the doctor when needed. ALL this comes by everyone in the community being their best, employment skills-wise and academically!

Almost 60 percent of Americans DON'T earn college degrees, which means high schools are gearing people for jobs they aren't 'gonna hold, if a sheepskin is required, in an information age. Those schools NEED to prepare many students for blue collar success!

And since poorer areas can't usually afford college, or can with severe student loan debt, gear your child to be the best blue collar worker and the smartest money spender in the world! THAT is how any poorer area gets less- or un-poor!

And for the trailer parkers—they may like it there, and not want to improve/upgrade it! Mobility and travel, when they want. That means, don't force any of this change, but organize people willing to work to improve Mr. Rogers' neighborhood for any who want it improved.

And the more that poor areas earn better wages, the more businesses and amenities will invest in those communities! It's ALL about economics—NOT race! I'd bet there may not be one neighborhood in America that is 100 percent only one skin color, or at least very few! They ALL suffer poverty.

And finally, there's a nearby neighborhood of mainly Indians, by the design of its home owners, nearby. Anyone can move in there, but they like being in a non-native country with people with shared values. Is that wrong? NO! I wouldn't 'wanna live there, but I have NO PROBLEM with them wanting to be with their friends and relatives.

I've said this before (many times), but most people are NOT special in natural talent! MOST people will work mundane jobs, and not be rich! The goal is to spend smarter, have new technology to make jobs more fun/enjoyable/interesting, or a robot will take your place, and you'll have no source of income! (7/14/20)

I WISH there were a test poor people could take, in public school, to identify exactly what natural talents, interests and aptitudes they possess, so they can use them to escape poverty! Motivation is also key! Tests DO exist, but aren't always real specific. They also cost money! (7/14/20)

THE RACE FOR RACE-BAITING

(By Genny the Vote-Genning Types)

Poorer black Americans: YOU can't keep re-living slavery, as any reason for your own poverty, as that is NOT why you are poor, and is a self-fulfilling prophecy and EXCUSE! You were NEVER a slave!

Americans and immigrants have done well, financially, in ONE generation, NOT using excuses! Rags-to-riches stories PROVE skin color and ancient, evil history (slavery) cannot hinder a person focused and committed to success! The number of such stories is irrelevant! They're proof it can be done. Everyone has a will, so they can choose focus and commitment, no matter their race!

Republicans need to identify every poor American who wants better job opportunities, and who doesn't want government handouts. IF many of them exist, they do NOT belong in the Democrat party! They are Republicans at heart!—period! Honor and reward any you find! They are NOT lazy losers!

The Bible teaches empathy for the hard-working poor; NOT for the lazy poor. It makes a CLEAR distinction between the two, as one is evil, and the other is righteous. Charity is how the poor are to be helped; NOT forced taxation, save for the Jew's safety net analogy, from tithes.

ANY safety net that goes beyond TEMPORARY aid to help the severest sufferers get back on their feet is EVIL! America's Welfare system is already overly generous! Section 8 is an injustice, where people can live where they can't afford! END all abuse, waste and fraud in Welfare, ASAP!

WHAT would have been a just settlement with black slaves in America? Freedom. Some offering to make up for unpaid wages, paid for by slave owners. That decision should have been made decades if not centuries ago, but the guilty are long since dead! It is UN-just to punish modern taxpayers!

IT IS NOT like every white American inherits money derived from slave trade profits, or that every U.S. Business was started by slave owners, who passed them on to heirs, through nepotism! Punishing taxpayers and U.S. Businesses for the past sins of slavery is totally irrational!

The ONLY people who might want to pay reparations are heirs of slave owners who inherited profits from them, or businesses tied to founding slave owners! And NOT every black American is a slave heir! Black people come to America from elsewhere, and have for centuries!

Update

RE: Camel-A-Harris' comment... It is NOT 'systemic racism' that our justice system (the BEST in the world, though imperfect) finds people criminally liable, based on facts and evidence, NO MATTER their color, as your percent of the population doesn't determine how many in that group commit crime! Skin color doesn't force choices!

IF more green people chose to commit crime, for whatever reason they chose, green people would dominate our prisons and jail cells! You can try to blame poverty for crime, but it is a free-willed decision. 'If you can't do the time, don't do the crime!' NO systemic racism exists in America!

The system is NOT against black people! Cops don't go hunt down black people, as Joy-Less Reid alleged! Courts are NOT biased against black defendants, nor are prosecutors! Our prisons are not biased against them, either. EVERY race suffers in detention, no matter how many are in there!

CAN YOU IMAGINE if @realdonaldtrump @POTUS said, "If you don't know who to vote for between me and Biden, you aren't white?" WHAT IF white people protested if a cop shot a white criminal suspect? WOULDN'T HAPPEN (we don't think in those terms), and we'd be labeled "racists" if it did!

RACIAL RECONCILIATION?

(Our full Race Riots coverage is at AmericanAnswers.org, Campaign Update)

Someone argued that So Africa and Germany reconciled, after mistreating people in their country, but America never has.

1. Though we appreciate the world getting behind no more unneeded black deaths at the hands of cops, you can't actually say whites having possessions confiscated, when apartheid fell, was reconciliation, though their peaceful coexistence IS a good thing (as we have had, excepting occasional uprisings), and you can't say Germany's killing of six million Jews was reconciliation—at least we have slave heirs still alive!

But it IS true that our far back forefathers did not exactly end slavery in ways that were fair to the emancipated Americans! Two mules and 40 cares was an empty promise for many if not most, and the lands U.S. Blacks were given were often either not so hot, or intentionally on the other side of the tracks from whites (like LA, or the wards of Houston, where gentle George hailed from).

JUST saying 'you're free' didn't exactly make amends to black people for the decades of enslavement! However, in many ways, our Welfare system has and continues to do!

Though it's also accessed by whites and others, it does keep the poorest of the poor from severest poverty! But is that enough, or fair restitution or recompensing? Yes and no.

We can never repay, on the one hand, the enormous debt our far back American white ancestors owed for their sin of slavery! Why they ever thought it wise to base a "Christian" nation on evil is about as screwed up as Christians living for the worldly here-and-now, currently (i.e., screwed up "Christianity")!

So, yes, we've done something, including desegregation, anti-discrimination laws, and Welfare (which is far too generous, and unjustly robs from the rich to create dependence and less incentives to work hard), but in so many ways we have done far too little, because pockets of poverty are so often riddled with despair and crime, and are also often predominantly black (though other races also experience poverty, just not the effects of centuries of enslavement).

So what's the answer? Is stealing from white rich people the answer? Reparations? I believe the answer is three-fold:

1. Welfare that empowers financial independence, and emancipation from that achievement limiting program (tokenly repaid by civic service, so as to be fair to tax payers, who had nothing to do with slavery).
2. The rich voluntarily obeying God's will for them to not just bless and often spoil their own, indefinitely, for generations on end/to come, but to adopt a much more biblical concept of treating others as family, especially the poor (Mt. 12:46-50; I Tim. 6:17-19), though not by direct gifts of cash, but investments in community resources that prevent crime, by keeping teens physically active and mentally fit, as well as training centers to empower great job and budgeting skills, etc.

Even less wealthy people can contribute sweat equity, as they haven't those financial resources, but they could be compelled, if need be, to spend up to 10 hours a year giving back to 'the least among us'/those less fortunate than I—those Jesus Himself most concerned Himself with. And finally,

3. Poor (vs. richer) black Americans devote themselves to overcoming any victimitus/victim mentality, in forgetting the past (Phil. 3; and it having been MANY decades ago), and purposing to be the very best they can possibly be; especially kids as students, but also adults doing what MLK taught:

"All labor that uplifts humanity has dignity and importance, and should be undertaken with painstaking excellence." And,

"If a man is called to be a street sweeper, he should sweep streets even as Michelangelo painted, or Beethoven composed music, or Shakespeare wrote poetry. He should sweep streets so well that all the hosts of Heaven and earth will pause to say, here lived a great street sweeper, who did his job well."

It's 100 percent understandable for today's slave heir(s)/ancestors to see the greed and gluttony of some white Americans, and not from jealousy, but from a sense of injustice, to say, 'why must things be as they are, where a centuries long head start gives that race an advantage I can hardly hope to catch up with?'

VALID question, and one God has (hopefully) answered in the trifold solutions I've proposed—I Tim. 6:17-19 Reparations are unfair to today's whites, who had zero participation in enslaving anyone, and when a handful percent of white families owned slaves, who's heirs now reap the benefits.

But no one can say America did a great job at righting the wrongs of black slavery, despite some efforts I've noted! There's much more work to do, and not the work of a job where whites merely parrot Ostriches, with our heads in the sand as to the ramifications of our white forefathers' sins upon the black community!

At the same time, it is not our sins we are to atone or make restitution for, but we all must do our part to bridge the gap for sins our white ancestors forced upon the black race in America! And this is not white guilt!

EVERY white American has zero culpability for any slavery or its effects, yet we do live in a society that historically participated in that evil, and both north and south need to work to make life better for all Americans, especially the poor among our African-American community!

I leave you with one final note for this evening, in case the recent uprisings have yet to drive you back to the great words of that great Baptist preacher, Martin Luther King Jr.:

“An individual has not started living until he can rise above the narrow confines of his individualistic concerns to the broader concerns of all humanity,” and,

“Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about things that matter,” and, concerning the American educational system:

“The function of education is to teach one to think intensively, and to think critically. Intelligence plus character—that is the goal of true education.”

No one can say that U.S. Education is great at teaching analytical/critical thinking, intense evaluation and pondering, and certainly not in engendering deep, sincere character! More, we teach to the test, teach political correctness and rely on rote memory! Just fix it! Just do it!

BE LESS WHITE?

(2/21/21-2)

HORRIBLE lesson, especially considering all the advancements for mankind that that culture has brought the world (including Coca Cola)!!! I may switch to Pepsi. Try to be less stupid, and racist!
@CocaCola

Analysis of stupidity:

1. All whites do not act the same, nor do all of us engage these behaviors!
2. EVERY race needs to be less ignorant.
3. A minority of whites hate blacks (KKK types).
4. Confidence is a virtue! If you're insecure, be more certain, through self-improvement and education.

Superior in what categories?: Merrick Garland defends DOJ nominee Kristen Clarke, who called Blacks superior <https://foxnews.com/politics/merrick-garland-defends-doj-nominee-kristen-clarke-resurfaced-letter...> (2/22/21-2)

The Coke inclusion/multicultural/sensitivity training said ALL whites are racist, and many say systemic racism is prevalent in America. LIES, folks! Racism means you hate a certain group, and all its members, for no rational reason, based on skin color.

And systemic means it's built into societal structures, meaning it is overt and intentionally part of how the system works. We have laws against race discrimination, hate crime laws, etc., so living in the far back past of Jim Crow days, or blacks as 3/5ths human equivalent are not at all reflective of America today!

Systemic" racism, AS OPPOSED to racist pockets, means education, government/politics, business, banks/loans, housing, job opportunities, car sales, church choice ALL are designed to keep out or cull out blacks participating as equal as anyone else! SIMPLY not the case! Think clearly!

Income inequality CAN come from race discrimination, but it can equally come from lacking equal job qualifications as others! The fact that anyone is paid less than people of other races has to be to a man, for systemic racism to be a factor! Otherwise, it's individual comparisons.

Identity politics is a political term to avoid addressing differences in experience between members of groups with identifiable differences, like income level, gender, race, age, etc. To be color blind isn't to ignore differences in different color's experiences of life in America

Trumpsters don't want unity, because they deludedly believe the election was 'stolen.' Trump haters don't want unity because of all the harm he did to America, with zero repentance. ONLY time heals (and prayer; II Chron. 7:14).

HERE are satanic substitutes for repentance: Glossing over, justifying, sweeping under the rug, moving forward (with no admission of wrong-doing, or apology), distracting, denying, pointing out others' faults, saying everyone sins/excusing, ignoring and attacking sin exposer/the messenger!

Accountability means some justice is achieved, and responsibility for wrong-doing is taken by the offender! It can happen quickly or slowly, but it has to happen if genuine unity is to occur! Brushing riot inciting under the rug ONLY encourages future outbursts, vs. deters them!

Unity and working together does NOT mean agreeing to your opponents' bad policies! Compromise is a two-way street! The middle ground requires BOTH extremes to moderate! It's NOT one-sided ram-rodging. The ONLY alternative is fighting, and undoing opponents' past achievements!

RINOS VS. HIPPOS (HYPOCRITES)

IF far right GOP's want RINOs expelled, don't 'wanna open their minds, are uncompromising, and believe they're 100 percent morally right on every issue, I want nothing to do with them! That's NOT going to go away by McCarthy saying attack democrats. A TRUE division exists; Ignorance doesn't heal.

A LEADER would call in the riot caucus leaders (Cruz, Gaetz, Hawley), Limbaugh, Hannity and Levin, and leading traditional GOP's, and have them air out their differences and gripes in closed session. I do not see leaders anywhere! @GOP @SenateGOP @HouseGOP You're killing the brand and wins!

Debate in the GOP is will GOP politicians always vote for party over everything, and can we excise John McCain conscience followers? Also, will you worship Donald tRUMP, and can we excise all #NeverTrump and Reagan Republicans. Far right wants that! Worship conservatism and DON'T think or be moral.

EVERY thinking and morals aspiring GOP NEEDS to join a third party of centrists who united with non-Socialist Democrats, in 2024! LET the Patriot party begin, with AOC vs. DJT heads, fighting tooth and nail, with violent, hateful division and gridlock, and the rest of us will get things done!

Someone told me, the other day, Ronald Reagan would be rolling over in his grave (RIP) at what the Republican party has become since 2016! I 100 percent AGREE!

ASK any UNbiased friends and family members of Ronald Reagan, George Bush if they're proud of where the GOP is since 2016, or even ask GWB on polygraph if he is. Any honest answers of NO will be 100 percent blamable on CHUMP!

GOP must split up! I have NOTHING in common with violent rioters, white supremacy, conspiracy theories, taking actions against fellow GOP's who use conscience, wanting zero consequences for inciting a riot, want radical right views forced onto everyone and worship a cult of clown!

The arrogant stupidity of a group of self-emboldened extremists, to think their views are the only valid ones! They get censored by PRIVATE businesses, and suddenly they turn from bullies to whining cowards! They didn't want RINOs to have a voice or place in the GOP! Shut them down!

The not so unexpected, but amazing thing is networking Christians (go to church and claim Christ for votes) are the ones doing as much sin as they can to woo over Trump voters! The riot caucus of Cruz, Gaetz and Hawley. If morals matter, they do not to this ilk! Power over God heresy

The way political parties historically bridged the divide between their two sides is with a VP from the lesser-at-the-time side. NOW, far righters only want far righters in their party! Let's, AGAIN, go over all the major issues where the two GOP sides differ, and see if reconciling is possible:

Taxes: Cons want them as low as possible; centrists want them as low as needed for required government functions, so they're not so low we have to borrow from China or print funny money.

Regs: Cons want as few as possible; centrists want as few as necessary to ensure both business profits and public health and safety, truth in advertising, and safe work places.

Oil: Cons want PROBABLY zero done about pollution; centrists want the worst offenders cleaned up, and the free market to bring us green energy—not government fiats!

National security: Cons want it strong; centrists want that too, but NOT by overspending, or never acknowledging any wrongdoing in our military!

Immigration: Cons want borders closed and walled; centrists wanted a virtual wall, because you STILL pay Border Patrol to capture wall climbers! Cons want PROBABLY no southern border immigrants; centrists want ONLY those our economy needs.

Welfare: Cons want it ended, as it IS wealth redistribution! Centrists want it revamped to ONLY be a temporary self-empowerment program to learn self-sufficiency skills and spending strategies.

Economy: BOTH want it strong, but centrists believe business is NOT to be favored by government, and workers' concerns are also valid—Levit. 19:15.

Guns: Cons want their right to bear arms, period; centrists want NO gun-grabbing, but see the value in registered arms serial numbers for cops to find crooks, and licenses to prove owners passed safety and usage exams, like a motor vehicle license shows adequacy at handling a car.

They also don't oppose red flag laws, properly used to flag ONLY people mentally disturbed, or dangerous for society to allow to be armed—NOT government vindictively targeting political opponents.

Law and order: BOTH want it, but conservatives may look away at any alleged police brutality claims more than centrists. Centrists don't show favoritism to any group, and call a spade a spade, no matter what letter is by their name—R or D!

Abortion: Cons are OFTEN for total bans Centrists know bans only lead to more out of state abortions, gut punches, back alley coat hangers and quack black market docs, and recognize at least three exceptions of rape, incest and mothers life. Plan be pills also circumvent total bans, cheaply and freely avail on the internet!

Centrists believe education/planning and motivation are the way to lessen abortions, and incentives for pregnant women wanting to abort to carry to term. Gay marriage: Some conservatives dream of retracting Obergefell! Centrists know it's now the law of the land, and government isn't going to break up "families."

YOU SEE, there are NUANCES (let me make that word easier for some to grasp—minor but important differences) between conservatives and centrists! Centrists don't worship a political ideology, but common sense, morals and thinking are our priorities, and were NEVER a cult of personality!

WHERE HIPPOS DIFFER FROM RINOS (POLICY-WISE)

I had a gentleman say to me, don't bow down to Dems, but fight them! IF all Dems and Dem positions were evil, and all GOP's and GOP policies were perfect, THAT WOULD MAKE SENSE! But, that's NOT reality! One party wins, then it loses! Policies flip-flop!

NO ONE has ever suggested bowing down to Dem positions, and fighting only causes heat, not light, division, hate and even violence! I don't want Dems to bow to GOP's, either! This dominate and own the opponent war mentality is stupid, immoral, and unproductive!

The MAIN difference between HIPPOs (far right hypocrites to espoused principles) and RINOs (people consistent on principles) is tax money, and accepting Dem policies. Let me explain...

HIPPOs believe RINOs vote for Dem policies, and to spend ever more tax dollars. They are WRONG, about myself, but they believe it!

The standard for what a good policy is is NOT which party holds it, but morality, rationality and practicality! Here are some Dem aspirations that are NOT evil:

Help the poor, fix society's problems, and have a more just society. Funding those ambitions off taxpayers IS wrong!

It's NOT bad policy to want less pollution, LGBTQs to not be treated evilly, blacks to not be discriminated against or hated, or for youth to have decent career opportunities, people to be paid fairly, people to be able to access healthcare, afford college and daycare, and the poor to not severely suffer!

That statement doesn't make me a Democrat, or pro-Democrats! It's a statement of fact, and a morally sound assertion! The ONLY (or main) issue is how you fund those things! I oppose ALL freebies! I'm FOR hand-ups; NOT handouts, and even they need to be repaid, over time!

Far righters want zero government helping, fixing or addressing any of those causes! By logical deduction, that means they are fine with blacks (and browns) discriminated against, LGBTQs to be treated as lesser, problems in society to remain (if business can't profit enough fixing them, or charities can't raise enough money to curb or fix them), Americans (whose bodies always fail and get sick, sometimes) having zero access to healthcare (if they can't afford it), failed schools in poor areas continuing to NOT provide equal quality education, gangs roaming poorer areas, threatening and endangering students' ability to academically succeed as well as without that, smart enough people not getting higher education, people having to leave young children at home (latch key kids), hoping they don't get caught and charged with child abandonment or abuse, dangerous pollution harming our air, water and food supplied from the land, and causing some diseases or medical ailments, and maybe contributing some percent to radical weather changes—NOT all; not a ton, but some, from hot exhaust air added to the atmosphere, more so than how much would be there with zero vehicles.

Cons/far righters/HIPPOs can ONLY see those two choices before us! Either/or, win-lose, fight or bow down. It is literally a failure to be able to think, or think critically! That means it is ignorantly based! ALL those issues can be addressed without tax dollars, or by any tax dollars spent being repaid at interest! That's fair to taxpayers!

And I'm FOR taxes being fair to ALL; not just imposed on some! How? Compulsory civic service sweat equity equivalent for all who can't afford to send in money!

Let's flip the coin and see what conservative concerns Dems should "bow" to: Low taxes and regulations, strong economy and military, controlled borders, law and order, free speech, religion and right to bear arms.

Dems can agree to no more tax spending, and empower private solutions! BOTH sides could learn to THINK, so they can SEE how BOTH sides can get what they want, without all the unproductive fighting! Win-win. I've written the answers, MANY times!

There may be some moderates who concede to Dem empowering policies; there may even be some RINOs who want to spend more tax dollars. I AM NOT ONE OF THEM. DO WE NOT have the mental capability to see that win-lose is unstable policy? Undo what was just done, every 4-8 years! That's DUMB, and wasteful of MY tax dollars!

Pay D.C. politicians ~$270K a year to do virtually nothing!?! FEW laws passed. Little progress in problems being solved. Photo ops, sound bites, spin/positioning, self-promotion, P.R. Stunts, constant arguments, dirt-digging and closet skeleton witch hunts. WE THE PEOPLE pay for that? That's DUMB and immoral!

The better way is common sense positions! Common sense is NOT subject to one's interpretation, or party bias! Win-win isn't conceding to Dems or GOP's, but promoting any politicians who support common sense solutions, on time and within budget. I've written all the solutions, MANY times! Just do them!

The main, if not only social issues far righters care about are the military and the police! Other than that, earn your keep, and leave me alone is the mantra their beliefs exhibit, to all who can see!

WHERE THE REPUBLICAN PARTY CAN UNITE

There are at least two sides/wings to BOTH parties, and BOTH parties need their two sides, to have enough voting power to defeat the other! AOC/the squad/crazy Bernie and Pocahontas WANT freebies galore, paid for by taxpayers.

Rational, reasonable, mature and thinking adults WHO PAY TAXES, and claim to be Democrats KNOW the math doesn't add up, nor the morality of STEALING from taxpayers for things that are unconstitutional, economy damaging, debt skyrocketing, bankrupting, laziness empowering, and UN-just!

They HAVE to be quiet, for now, because youth and poorer Americans have gotten turned on to voting, by Biden's teasing "FREE" healthcare, daycare, college, student loan forgiveness, home down payment, and other DASTARDLY and devilish schemes to gen up voting interest! HOWEVER, they DO exist!

They understand that unity, even with strange bedfellows, is required for governing! The GOP, on the other hand, is more independent, and less amenable to agreeing with their other half, and for good reason! Any Democrat must, in their heart of hearts, LIKE paying more taxes, spending out the wazoo, or FEELING like a "good" person, when public policy fixes social ills off taxpayers, OR they simply pay in too little, or zero, so that decision never pains them!

Those two beliefs unify their political party! Spend raised taxes to "help," and HURT the opponent/GOP, who pays taxes more often!

The GOP NEEDS that same unifying theme, which has to be to defeat Socialism, and make ALL Americans pay their FAIR and just share in taxes (or their equivalent), so there's zero benefit without cost, to every citizen! THAT we ALL can agree on, as NO Republican doesn't believe in those two beliefs!

Defeating freebies, and "forcing" EVERY U.S. Citizen to have buy-in and actually FEEL the pain of their votes and their politicians' decisions to spend more is absolutely mandatory for GOP unity! NOTHING ELSE is as important as core values, just as spending, taxing more, and "helping" people and fixing societal problems private businesses can't profit enough off of. That's THEIR core!

Ours HAS to be solving problems NOT by more spending and taxes, but by private means that actually work—NOT just rhetoric of concern, with NO action! That's where the GOP gets splintered!

I've written extensively on where we agree, as Republicans, so I will NOT reinvent the wheel, but it centers on the best economy, best national defense, low taxes and least government spending needed, controlled borders, zero gun-grabbing, best education system, freedom of speech and religion, supporting democracy world-wide, debt reduction, streamlining government, and good relations with our allies (while fighting Communism, terrorists, dictators, and evil regimes that hate us).

Where we DIS-agree is on the following:

1. Some GOP's believe THIS is OK (See: Apostasy For Power Idolatry, at Facebook's James.Meroney.9, #74). They also disagree with THIS (my meme, above), though they're ALWAYS 100 percent incapable of arguing a counter attack, every time I've asked for it! Once they learn that MOST of his GOOD ideas were STOLEN from my writings, MAYBE their cultish obsession with a personality will lessen, when they realize he did not have those ideas on his own!? He HURTS the party's chances of winning votes, expanding the tent, and defending values we've held for decades, like thinking over feelings, family values and the 'moral' majority religious right!
2. ANY GOP who has ZERO interest in fixing ANY problems America faces, is, BY DEFINITION or description, evilly, sinfully selfish, and you will NOT get real religious folk (a major part of our party) to agree with that value! YET, such concern NEVER has to involve MORE taxes, or maybe any taxes, and certainly all freebies are morally EVIL! They are UN-just theft! Justice HAS to be OUR standard!
3. Taxes so low our budget can't be met without China borrowing or QE4-10 funny money printing (that devalues the dollar and causes inflation) CAN'T be any GOP's rational solution! They should NOT be higher/raised, BUT the federal spend HAS to be belt-tightened! That's EASY to do, as we did it in management consulting, and I'm excellent in it for the fam!

4. Valuing lies, stupidity, conspiracy theories and catering to ignorance, as "free speech," RATHER than belief in knowledge is power, HAS to be a belief we ALL share! Dumbness is NOT becoming of ANY American!

5. Self-sufficiency is an awesome goal for EVERY American, and MUST occur, by revamping Welfare (which SCOTUS has NOT deemed unconstitutional, so we HAVE to live with it, for awhile, at least) to ONLY empowering people to get on their own two fiscal feet ASAP, with even civic service repayment of taxpayers for any money expended in that process! JUSTICE! No free lunches, but no selfish dis-concern for people's struggles, as a society! Finally...

6. Morality HAS to again become a tenet of the GOP platform! EVERY DAY the GOP RIGHTLY gets whacked on social media and in the media for their legitimately stupid or sinful stances, usually by a minority in the bunch! Lying, greed, hypocrisy, stupidity, cheating, double-standards, selfishness—in a word, EVIL!

The extreme AOC wing has been silenced to make Biden appear more moderate, and be less challenged for doing little, so he upsets the cultural apple cart less, so he doesn't tick off reasonable people who hate extremes, but the GOP needs that very same unity to NOT catering to dumb or evil voters, but educating them, and encouraging more morality!

These two traits win the day in the USA! NO ONE respects stupidity or blatant evil, or they're behind bars, or should be! You cannot build a BIGger tent off those two foundations (stupidity and sinfulness)! IF we choose to do so, a third party WILL arise! I promise!

I am all too happy to help that happen, because these six things we CANNOT be supporting, and the 2 or 3 things we CAN united on, as core principles, and the many policies I listed that we ALL agree on, is enough to create at least surface unity, like that between AOC types, and the other, silenced Dems.

IF the far right and talk radio bunch has NO interest in morality or intelligence, values selfishness, greed, letting problems continue, if business can't fix them, EVEN WITH ZERO FREEBIES and ZERO MORE TAX DOLLARS FUNDING THAT, perhaps a forever split is in order!

JUST realize, a GOP separation from the other wing means losses for one to 3 election cycles! And in that time, being the party out of power, consider how much damage the Dems could wreak on America! Likely insurmountable and unfixable. Secession might be the only choice left to us all/GOP's!

SOMEHOW, the GOP's far right vs. Christian (in practice) and establishment wings have to unite to beat Dems, OR split, and lose a round or two to institute a third party some GOP's have already started.

35. RICH

1. Almighty God or Almighty Dollar?
2. On the Giving Pledge
3. The Rich Get Richer & the Poor Get Poorer
4. The Haves & the Have Nots
5. How To Get Rich (Yes, An America-Baiting Title)
6. Dear American Rich Person
7. So You Want To Be Rich?

ALMIGHTY GOD OR ALMIGHTY DOLLAR?

(Bible and Bucks; God and Gold)
(Unpublished)

It is reported that the Bible speaks on money more than almost any other topic. But from what you hear and see from American Christians, what it says is not seeping through to their heads; such things as:

- 1) 'It's not a sin to be rich,'
- 2) 'You can't be generous when you have nothing to give,' and,
- 3) 'Money is neutral/a tool, so it's not how much money you have, but how much money has you.'

Clever 1-liner slogans, but are they true? Anyone who challenges these assumptions may be accused of promoting a 'poverty complex' (literal words I have heard).

- 1) It can be a sin to be rich, if you made that decision, but were not led to it as God's will for you. Many of us never ask, as we might not want or agree with the answer.
- 2) The widow's mite story would disprove the claim you have to have a lot to give a lot! And is being generous one's true motive for wanting to be rich, and do their 1040's prove out that claim?
- 3) It may not matter that some Christians are rich, as were Abraham, David and Solomon, but these slogans never mention God's command for significant give back by the rich—only that the amount you have, allegedly, is no issue.

So let's look at what God has to say on the subject, to see if American Christians are truly following God in their valuation of money, or more justifying fleshly desires and trying to 'Christianize' them:

On the positive side, God can be the source of one being rich, or 'blessing' you. (Pv. 10:22) It is also true that the Devil can make people rich (Mt. 4:9). How you gained your wealth, how you use it, and how high a priority it is to you show if it was God or Satan.

On the positive side, some poor people God honors, and has mercy on, because they are hard-working, and had tough times or just don't have great money-making skills. (or too many mouths to feed; Lk. 6:20) It is also true that God criticizes lazy poor, and even teaches others not to financially help them (Pv. 10:4; II Th. 3:10).

Things many don't know:

- You can't serve God and money; balancing the two is the idolatry sin! (Mt. 6:24)
- Christians are to have our minds set/defaulted to Heavenly/spiritual things. (Phil. 3:17-19; Col. 4:1-4)
- Christians are not to chase after money (like the treadmill rat race; Pv. 23:5)
- Christians are not to lay up treasures on earth, which perish, but seek God first. (Mt. 6:19-21)

- Business aspirations and achievements are to be submitted to God's will. (Jas. 4:13-5:8)
- Life does not consist of your possessions; it is NOT he with the most toys wins, in God's accounting. (Lk. 12:15)
- You are NOT successful if you did not achieve your wealth this way. (Josh. 1:8)
- Carnality (i.e., sinful living) is described as a lust for things, sex, and the pride associated with achieving them. (I Jn. 2:15-17)
- The story of the rich man and Lazarus teaches that God evens things out, especially in the next life. (Lk. 19:19-31)
- The rich are to generously give back. (I Tim. 6:17-19)
- God teaches that giving to the poor stores riches in Heaven. (Lk. 18:22)
- The rich are who Christ warned—not the poor. (Lk. 6:24)
- The evil rich are sue-happy control freaks. (Jas. 2:6)
- Poor people are made to be rich in faith, while it's hard for rich people to be saved. (Jas. 2:5; Mt. 19:24)
- Christ and Peter were poor, as was Paul, at times. (Mt. 8:20; Lk. 8:3, 23:50-56 8:3; Ac. 3:6; Phil. 4:11-13)
- If we have food and covering, Christians are to be content with this. Can any American live up to that standard? (I Tim. 6:8)
- Desiring to be rich causes one to fall to temptation and pierce themselves. (I Tim. 6:9)
- The love of money is the root of all sorts of evil, and corrupts some believers. (I Tim. 6:10)
- Christians are to be free from the love of money. (Heb. 13:5)
- Pastors are to be free from love of money (I Tim. 3:3). Can every mega pastor be accused of that? Ought they rather fully reveal their total compensation, as it is donated, and cap their salaries as they ever seek to expand and engage multi-sites? If their church is run like a business, they ought to be taxed!

ON THE GIVING PLEDGE

(Unpublished)

Dear affluent American: You are to be commended for success in your business ventures! You're enjoying the fruits of your labors, as the God Who enabled you to get rich encourages (Deut. 8:18; Gen. 3:19; Ecc. 2:24). You obviously have skills and talents not everyone possesses.

And that very same God says with privilege comes responsibility (Lk. 12:48; I Tim. 6:17-19). We ALL face Him one day, and it will either be a good meeting or a bad one. Simply through wealth, it can be easy to neglect Him, and it end badly for you.

I'm writing you to encourage your considering the many problems in our world, most of which require money, as few people work for free, and few assets are surrendered for free. I beg you in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ to consider how some of your excess could be used to make our world better. I'm NOT asking you to gyp your heirs, or give away money to the point you become middle class.

In investing, we MBA's are taught 'never lose money' (Warren Buffett). The whole Capitalist system honors people who financially succeed, we respect people on Forbes' Billionaires list, and name buildings after the wealthy, giving to them near hero/celebrity status.

May I be so bold as to humbly ask you to consider how God will view you on Judgment Day—NOT Americans? You've already proven your worth as a business man/woman. Please consider how your legacy will be viewed by future generations, by how you used your wealth!

No one wants you to drive a Kia, or live in a home of Mr. Buffett's Lincoln, NE, size and age! But could you see the humanity of funding some projects that improve the lives of the least among us in our world?

Jesus valued the least, and down-and-out/lowly. They are the most needy! They should NEVER be given handouts, but be helped to be self-sustaining. Projects that enable that result are worthy of charity investing, if executives don't hoard the gifts!

Third world nations need food, clean water, sanitation and disease prevention and eradication. On a merely human level, would you consider them, with some of your excess; or better, take a trip to their country, to SEE their needs? Education is another need of theirs.

Many rich people like buildings named after them, for posterity. You can't get great P.R. Funding foreign lands' projects, but God sees! And He has promised to reward gifts to the poor—not empowering laziness or throwing money down a ray hole. Sustainability is always the wisest investment!

You will face your Creator, one day, and I want it to be a good experience for you. However, the Bible says that MOST rich people end up in Hell. Money preoccupation, vs. priorities focus, has to be one major reason.

The 'Giving Pledge' asks an extreme percent sacrifice from you! I'm not encouraging 50 percent, but between 20 and 50 percent. You'll not only get a tax write off, you rightly deserve credit and fame (if you want it) for so doing! And what will you really get for your donations? A sense of doing the right thing before God, having helped fellow human beings, as with His rewards, in Heaven.

God said selfishness, greed and hoarding are sins. We Americans idolize money, but we respect the titans of industry who were most successful and most generous!... Rockefeller, Carnegie and Morgan, to start. Modern statistics say wealthy Americans average one percent of income to charity, while average Joes average three percent. THIS CANNOT STAND!

Those most able are least willing to help? Don't be in that horrific statistic, please. I encourage you to give generously to a cause of your choosing, and to sign a modified Giving Pledge, as part of your legal estate.

It is NOT the amount, but the amount of sacrifice! God told us so. I want the best meeting with Him, for you, so I encourage you to read and pray John 3:16, and to give back generously. Thanks.

Update

I give a lot of rosy scenarios for our world, like rich people doing their part to solve the world's problems. Let's deal with the more likely situation... status quo. Most people are stingy with money used to help others! I don't have excess, and I don't care to cut back even more to help strangers, especially non-Americans.

And every tax dollar spent in foreign aid is a dollar I don't have to feed my kids. It's easy to believe in the philosophy of self-sufficiency for everyone! You feel moral not caring about anyone, because that's their business they're failing at! Is this a Christian action or attitude? NO, but Christians hold it as conservatives.

What can middle and lower income Americans do to help third worlders?

1. Don't ignore them; remember they exist
2. Care and pray
3. If you can afford it, take a trip there, to see reality you never experience. And,
4. Do something, no matter how little, to help them have a better life, even if just voting for our government; not you being as selfish as it's easy for us to be.

It's easy to make the ones with excess take the brunt of the load, but compulsory civic service should befall every American NOT in public service, to provide us the chance to help country and world in ways we never will without it. That's NOT popular, but needed!

The rich aren't evil for having excess, or enjoying using it for their families. They are evil to hoard, or not do their fair share. They're more able to help out, financially, but we all play a part. We live lives that don't teach us we need to be doing anything for anyone, let alone strangers on the other side of the world.

That's only a narcissistic, me, me, me culture teaching us at every turn to live for self and fun, as life values number one. Enjoy life. You can also do so by forgetting others, even as others suffer. Ostriches can shut out the world; God doesn't say to be one. If you follow Him, you act like Him! That's the whole point.

I LIKE much stability, and no chaos, economically! At the same time, NO one can argue that women paid less, for equal job skills, is morally right! Those who benefit most from injustice complain about it the least! That's why THEY say 'economics is amoral.' How convenient!

There is always a memorized answer robots can parrot, to advocate for conservative beliefs, like minimum wage means less jobs, or pays you less than you might make (a Hannity argument). It's humane, especially when the economy is doing well, and the rich have benefitted!

The rich get richer and the poor get poorer is EVIL. The rich get richer because it's easier to earn when you make money off money! And you get privileges and the best deals and terms! The more business and the rich squeeze every ounce of profit, the more the poor will lose out. (Pv. 22:22) That means wage reduction pressures for maximum profits!

The more the rich require getting richer, before they'll hire others, or to profit off workers to their target margins, the less jobs will be made available for the blue collar working stiff! Business isn't charity, which is how they justify no concern for unemployed workers. They even desire a certain percent of unemployed people, in our economy.

Jobs and investments come from the rich. This is how cons justify government favoring business and the rich. But God DISAGREES with such justifications! (Levit. 19:15) NEVER over-pay, but employees NEED to be great consumers of job offers, to never screw themselves, financially!

The more businesses only think subjectively (i.e., only about their one business), ignoring the overall impact of hiring only the best talent (i.e., the economy as a whole), the more government has to hire others those business folks' taxes go to pay. But taxes are cheaper than wages, so the cycle continues.

It's inevitable that the masses are rebelling against unbridled Capitalism, as every action business has done, since globalism, has, overall, HURT their wages and job opportunities! The rich get richer and the poor get poorer, and that income gap is EVIL!

Mutiny on the bounty as the "natives" (average Joes) get restless, and they are the majority, numbers-wise! As Aristotle said, if the people learn that they can suck off the public dole, by voting, there goes democracy (paraphrased).

You who rejoice when 401Ks improve, by government policies and other things, and have zero thought or concern for the ~half of America who aren't invested, you are the problem, according to Jesus, Who cared much more about the poor and oppressed's suffering, than how well the wealthier enjoyed their lifestyles!

Worker wages have been stagnant, if not mildly down turning, over the decades. From the 50s, and era of pensions, people who have to work for a living, and who live pay check to pay check have lost out, as business persons and the rich have gained!

Businesses make decisions for their business, alone, but as every business does so, the economy as a whole suffers the consequences to laborers of all business' collective decisions—always for more profit, and at the expense of personnel NOT in management or ownership!

The Bible speaks to the evil of oppressing the poor! Caustic vs. compassionate cons ALWAYS default to saying those people are lazy, need college, or need to work harder—NEVER one action to help them, other than a dollar or two to a street corner beggar.

They vote for NO helping of those who can't keep up, economically, as they're life's "losers." This is NOT Jesus' attitude or actions, and He taught those doing well to give away their excess, significantly.

Our flesh/sin nature will never do so, as we worked so hard to get it, why would we give it away? BUT, the more selfish the upper half is with their gains, the more likely Socialism will infect America! Ignore the lower half, and they're not dumb to see the evils of the poor getting poorer as the rich get richer! Care, give, be holy.

(8/18/20)

Speaking of God's view of the rich and poor, here's a message from my vacation for people who want to be rich:

1. God's will is NOT wealth for everyone! (Pv. 30:8)
 2. Those who want to be rich harm themselves! (I Tim. 6:10)
 3. Chase wealth and you chase phantoms! (Pv. 23:4-5)
- You may HATE learning these truths, but I speak them for your good and benefit!
4. It's not a sin to be wealthy, but it is a sin to be wealthy if that's not God's will for you, or you selfishly hoard it, or idolize it above Him!

NOW that you know these foundations, let's address people who always want freebies, or jealously lust for what others possess. Here are but some of the means some people have used to achieve wealth:

Inheritance, investing (Ex.: real estate), starting a business (sell to the masses, or the minority rich, like the game of Monopoly), pro sports (unique, in demand/mass audience-watched skills), rap/music, actors, some politicians, bank robberies and pyramid schemes (Ex.: Bonnie and Clyde, and Bernie Madoff), being ruthless jerks (Jas. 4-5), climbing the corporate ladder (Ex.: executives and CEO's), doctors/lawyers/engineers (i.e., education), overtime, multiple jobs, spending frugally (Ex.: saving), winning the lottery, YouTube celebrities, national media figure jobs, inventions and authors, etc.

Though these seem like a long laundry list, they are the minority! MOST people will NOT get rich. God teaches us to ambitious for His morals, and to be content! Competition for who out-earns who, or showing off one's wealth are sinful displays of worldly priorities!

For example, many rap and other pop songs brag of their G-wagons and Range Rovers, how many lawyers you got?, guy's got four garage doors but only two cars, etc.

YES, America worships the almighty dollar, and our politics reflects that idolatry, in stealing it, or hoarding it! Repent, America! II Chron. 7:14

One P.S. I almost forgot, from my 16 hour drive, yesterday: For anyone wanting handouts (like the two possibly illegal alien idiots who asked us for $50 in New Mexico, yesterday, and got rebuffed): GET A JOB, and learn how to get a better one! READ this information!: <https://bls.gov/ooh/fastest-growing.htm> Be qualified, vs. beggars!

If you're poor, improve yourself! Bring more intensity and intelligence to your job and job skills! Know which jobs pay best, and have the best long-term future! NO ONE owes you one dime!
<https://businessinsider.com/best-jobs-future-growth-2019-3>

Society TEMPORARILY assists the poorest, from mercy, vs. justice! Pay your way!

And the LEAST-qualified people to speak on how to get wealth, or to define success, are people ignorant of God's word, or who inherited their riches! James 4 addresses worldly Christians, and Judgment Day will NOT be kind to them, even if they are saved! Satanically deceived FOOLS, wasting their life!

DEAR AMERICAN RICH PERSON

(10/10/20)

DO YOU WANT TO KNOW why there is MUCH rage among Dems and poor Americans? Sometimes it's jealousy; often it's because they struggle, as the rich blindly enjoy life's high lifestyle, oblivious to their struggles, rich off their backs, begrudging that lack of care or concern.

It IS the rich who have suffered NO little-to-no lapse in earnings during the pandemic, who outsource jobs, USED TO import cheap labor (supporting public policies for), tax dodge with accounting tricks, robotize jobs out of existence, only have to work by studying where to invest, pass on their wealth to endless generations (who don't have to work), lobby Congress for the best laws in their favor, some of whom vote against any government aid that would ever help anyone struggling, enjoying caviar and bon bons, as others barely make ends meet, with salaries WELL over-valued, by boards of directors jacking up CEO to worker ratios, over two decades.

WHY would these people begrudge legally-gained 'success,' if not stolen or gained illegally? Because there's an intuitive knowledge of what God Himself has commanded of them! I Tim. 6:17-19 and the average Joe averages 3% of income to charity, while those with WELL more than they'd ever need only average two percent.

There is VERY GOOD reason for this animosity, and if America's rich don't start giving back more, in significant ways, Socialism and eat the rich mantras will become REAL!

Trump on Rush Limbaugh says he can't understand why so many people don't want a great country. WRONG conclusion and analysis of the uprising! They hate the messenger, who caused much of that hatred, and greatness doesn't just mean the rich get richer, or 401K's rise!

Pride is wanting to show off your wealth, and believes your worth is your net worth. If you DISbelieve God, and live a Hell-bound life, you will fall to all these sins, because you really don't believe the Bible you may claim to respect! Lying, arrogance, money- and power lustful/idolatrous sinners. (10/25/20-2)

Update

(10/5/20-2)

I'm NOT for selfish hoarding among the wealthy! It is SIN, and angers the Lord. I Tim. 6:17-19. Legally, taxes should never go for unconstitutional or wasteful or luxury things, but the rich are to generously use their excess freely, to bless society. WHAT DO YOU DO if the rich hoard?

Liberals say tax to the max. Cons say (as I've literally heard on talk radio), what are you going to do if there are SOB conservatives? (i.e., hand-wringing). With IRS 1040 info being private info, the rich can get away with hoarding! Even Giving Pledgers can ONLY pledge, and not implement.

It'd help for society NOT to idolize them as heroes, or have Forbes wealthiest lists, where EGOs trump ethics/give back! Public pressure NEEDS to be brought to expose all wealth hoarders! Some will publicly or voluntarily demonstrate their charity giving. Others are more silent, or private.

The IRS can't release charity percents or amounts. Catch 22? Not exclusively. The IF the rich hoard, Dems WILL raise their taxes, with zero conscience about the morality of so doing! That threat may change some hoarders' hoarding, but very few! Incentives could help, either acclaim, or tax breaks, or government actions benefitting their businesses more (if fair to all others).

It IS a personal decision, and a moral revolution/revival would help. But the sermons on I Tim. 6:17-19 do NOT reach the vast majority of rich Americans! Charities should be best bang for the buck, so they attract wise investment.

Heroes like Gates and Buffet are role models, but I don't think they often change hearts or minds of stingy rich! Protests outside their homes or gated 'hoods could pressure them! Ultimately, charitable rich SHOULDN'T be taxed more, but the rest WILL be, and some could say should be.

There have to be convos on WHY to give back, and the donor has to personally benefit through fulfillment for so doing, so charities need to speak to interests the rich value fixing in society. Schmucks who selfishly live will be judged by God! Sin!

The GREATEST charity I can imagine would be a nationwide one that empowered financial self-sufficiency! Every poor American EDUCATED and motivated to live within their means, with tips on how to do so on their salary, and how to increase that salary!

If every citizen made enough to live on, mainly liberals and good-hearted Americans would fund all other charities (as it should be). Government is not a cash cow/golden calf/money tree! Charities are merely businesses taxed differently! They BOTH want your money, as voters do in politics. It's ALL about the money, honey!

Identify all rich Americans, by name and address and company. Make a customized appeal to them, based on interests they have, you learn from news articles or social media. Make PSA TV ads to appeal to their generosity. DON'T be deceived by token gifts!

$200K from a multi-millionaire is generous, as it's freely given, but NOT 'generous' compared to their net worth, which is what I Tim. 6:17-19 is addressing. The widow's mite PROVES it's the free sacrifice that 'impresses' God about your heart—not chump change (like $50 is BIG for some, and miniscule for others).

There are responsibilities that go along with the privilege of privilege! There is no Jesus figure, speaking in open air public venues, of God's morals, to people not attending churches! There NEEDS to be, like John the Baptist, who kept politicians on their moral toes, before losing his head, literally!

Such a figure, just as if Jesus were here, today, in person (vs. seated at the right hand of God, in Heaven, soon returning) would tell you: Rich people... Give back generously to society! I Tim. 6:17-19.

And REMEMBER, life is NOT defined by what you own (Lk. 12:15), he with the most toys LOSES, as the rich USUALLY go to Hell forever (NOT because they're rich, but because their financial security blinds them to their insecurity at facing Hell, unforgiven). Mt. 7:14, 19:23.

The Bible is CLEAR that rich people are to generously donate, and be warned that most of them are heading to Hell, left unforgiven! You cannot take it with you, and you need not spoil your heirs to not have to work (as Warren Buffett says). USE your excess, WHILE YOU'RE ALIVE, vs. after you're gone, if you signed the Giving Pledge.

QUIT the sinful ego trip or fear/insecurity if you lose money for once! You GAIN so much more in giving! God rewards it! Mt. 6:19-20, 19:21. Hoarding is SIN, and God punishes evil! Ecc. 5:13 You have been blessed; now be a blessing to others!

USE your excess (NOT all of it, of course) to empower the poor to make it through life on their own two adult financial feet! DON'T give money directly! Fund an empowerment charity! Don't let ANY charity CEO be over-paid, using 'charity' as a faux way to get rich, treated exactly like a business!

You are WISE with money-making; be wise in money donating! You live the life of luxury, already! The Bible says THAT IS ALL YOU ARE EVER GOING TO HAVE and GET! Lk. 16:25 The afterlife will be Hell for you. Even if you go to Heaven, you will live in a golden outhouse, if you're stingy in this life, as a rich person!

There are good and evil rich, in the Bible, and one way they're distinguished is by their charitable giving! DON'T be THIS type of rich person!: Jas. 2:6, 5:6; Lk. 6:24 (another verse saying all you ever get is what you get in this life, when you're an evil rich person). Be generous, empower the poor, be blessed!

Some people think a South Africa uprising is likely, among 'eat the rich' mob. The rich didn't do you wrong by earning their wealth legally! Only bank robbers deserve your disdain. You're really just frustrated that you're such a financial loser, truth be told! Look in the mirror... you are the problem!

SO YOU WANT TO BE RICH?

It's NOT sexy to earn a decent wage that meets your needs, but it was the aspiration of God's saints. Pv. 30:8 As Aristotle said, "The most perfect political community is one in which the middle class is in control, and outnumbers both of the other classes." Wise man!; NOT extreme.

WORLDLY Christians and uninformed lost people seek to define "life" by its quality standards (i.e., living the high life), in contradiction of the very God they claim to serve. Lk. 12:15

If getting money isn't the purpose of life, what is? God's answered that question! Ecc. 12:13 Do you like the answer?

Solomon, David and Abraham prove you can be rich on earth and in Heaven, but God is a just judge, and evens all things out. Lk. 16:25 IF you are set on earthly treasures, you won't have many Heavenly ones, and they last FAR longer. Mt. 6 Many Christians will regret their life choices in Heaven!

MOST rich people go to Hell. Most humans go to Hell. FEW people go to Heaven. Why, and what's the difference? Both questions answered in their refusing to allow God to save them from Hell, by forgiving all their sins, for any and whatever reasons they concoct. That's their own, bad choice!

IF atheists are right, there's zero to fear on your deathbed. If there's no God, there's NO reason not to live any way you'd like, excepting causing friction with other people by such choices. If the Bibles true, TODAY YOU could be burning in a fiery Hell, with zero let-up, forever!

It's harder for rich people to go to Heaven than others. WHY? Probably because their wealth distracts them from thoughts of the afterlife and their dependence is upon their bank account, so it's hard for them to trust the Lord. Hell is a HUGE risk to a life invested in TEMPORARY assets!

WHY does the Bible command the rich to give back generously? I Tim. 6:17-19 That's likely because they can spare more, as they have more excess! Everyone else isn't even certain they can afford their life until it expires!

WHY would a rich person give back to society? After all, they worked for it, it's their possession, they always sought to gain vs. lose money, and heirs could always use it, down the generations.

1. God said to.
2. Selfishness is a sin, even if just keeping it all in the family (as is spoiling heirs a sin, though an inheritance is not).
3. WHO ELSE can afford to pay to fix problems in society? The majority of citizens aren't rich!

Business war chests, as well, in my opinion (IMO)! Charitable businesses should be patronized, but selfish companies with BIG war chests avoided, IMO.

HOW do we get the elites to give back to society, freely vs forcibly, as Socialists are want to do?

1. Acknowledgment for their generosity!
2. Tax incentives.
3. Convincing them to great causes that aren't a waste of their donations.
4. Convincing them that their rank on Forbes list is mere pride/ego sin.
5. Making them societal heroes for their gifts vs. gains!
6. Shunning the selfish hoarders.
7. Making them visit a hood or barrio, even if out of tinted windows of a limo. BUT when Biden forces their generosity, expect LITTLE charity from them, as that plan is UNjust to the wealthy!

Relatives will always greedily want in your deep pockets. EVERYONE likes if not wants things for free. THINK of the majority who do NOT receive inheritances, and the poor who struggle, when you set up your estate plan, so as to NOT just bless your heirs in perpetuity! SIGN and live out the Giving Pledge before you die, so you witness its positive effects!

It's EASY to live high on the hog, when you NEVER observe the goats on the low lands! People insulate themselves from social encounters with people opposite them, financially, by gated walls, security, private access clubs, limited social circles, cloistered transportation. OPEN YOUR EYES!

You do NOT need to feel guilt that you're rich, but you DO need to feel your earned guilt if your rich and stingy! Mark Levin's statement that you're self-loathing to sign the Giving Pledge is OPPOSITE to and contradicts everything God ever taught in even his Jewish heritage!

Undercover Boss bosses are generous to individuals, because they get free advertising for their firm on the show. Same with the Undercover Millionaire show.

If you find ways for the rich to benefit, they become generous. LEARN to give without profiting, on some of the rich's excess! Institutions name buildings after large donors. If you want a rich person to forfeit funds, what's in it for them to do so? Certainly not profit! You have to think of other incentives that they, uniquely/individually, value, beyond mere money-making!

If I were a Giving Pledger, I wouldn't want ANY charity staff to earn a large salary I'd be helping pay! I'd 'wanna know their payout percent! I'd want their 'help' to be self-sustaining, like my money earning more money, and recipients learning NOT to need the help, vs. paying for dependents!

THE SAFETY NET & PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY

I've written about healthcare for the poor many times before. The minimum they need is catastrophic insurance (make it required?), as Sean Hannity said. It's the BIG expenses that can bankrupt them—not check-ups, flu shots, etc. Anything more should be an out of pocket expense.

It's NOT evil for America to believe in every adult paying for your own expenses (i.e., personal responsibility)! The poor shouldn't have kids they can't afford, NOT by legal requirement, but common sense living! It's actually a cultural norm NOT to bother your neighbor with your problems! Even a TV ad mocks a neighbor doing supplier background checks, estimates, available service times, etc. (Home Adviser).

We're also a nation who knows everyone can have unexpected calamities, and our safety net—if kept to a minimum—isn't an immoral thing, if not abused. Why should tax payers be FORCED to supply you free college, daycare, healthcare, family leave, reparations, housing- and food subsidies?

If you can't afford your lifestyle, belt-tighten! Just because a politician will promise you freebies, to get himself/herself a cushy job, doesn't mean you should vote for them. It should be illegal! It's armed robbery, absent the arms (excepting the U.S. Military backing our laws, ultimately).

People SHOULD be ashamed to think they can vote to steal another's better salary! It's a form of envy and jealous sins! At the same time, healthcare and college are two expensive, and they aren't luxuries in modern life—all people need the former!

Catastrophic insurance is the REAL need, and ways to reduce healthcare costs. Healthcare providers may need to be forced to offer up to 10 percent of their services at reduced rates, for verifiably 'broke' patients. That wouldn't be fair to them (compared to all other industries), and that would have to be addressed.

Self-taught, accredited college, via online/YouTube courses and e-books OUGHT to be allowed to anyone who literally just wants the education—not the Greek life, sports, socializing and general college experience. That's ALL you need for a great career! Remotely accessed education, online, keeps costs cheap!

Even if you're a breadwinner for a family, and all your brain can ever possibly achieve is a minimum wage job, you can work 2 or jobs (as Beto's gal shows), and why shouldn't you, rather than ask other people to be forced to help with your bills?

It's RIDICULOUS that some people use crowd sourcing/funding to pay medical bills. It's insane, to me. A general insurance pool for catastrophic coverage ought to cover any bankrupting-potential illnesses! You shouldn't have to be rich to be in good health!

But any subsidized care must require payback to tax payers by compulsory civic service.

Why should anyone get anything FREE by forcing their neighbors to pay? That's unfair, and justice is the end of U.S. Laws, and a moral value which God supports, and every citizen should, as well.

Seek justice, and people get less angry with each other! When there's injustice, people stay upset, be it tax payers bailing out others, or people being railroaded by our judicial system.

One STUPID thing any poor person probably does all the time, because many people do it is NOT shop around for things they buy! I have a car needing healthcare, and the expense is up to THREE TIMES more, having called nine suppliers to cost out the fix. WHY should any tax payer have to fund any poor person who isn't living down to the bone with ALL their expenses? That's UNfair!

Life guarantees no one luxuries. It doesn't even guarantee you your job will pay all your expenses—that's ALL on you—NOT tax payers. You should be THANKFUL a safety net exists, and not feel entitled to anything! Be a grown up, and live within your means!

IS SOCIALISM MORAL?

Now that there's no mystery about who your presidential choices are, let's address a recurring theme we heard throughout the political season—the "morality" of Socialism. It was generally supported by youth and many poorer minorities. Let's assess whether it's "moral."

Is it a sin to steal? YES. Would you be justified arm robbing another's home, if you wanted what they had? NO. Even God says, if one's truly needy, and does so, they must pay back seven-fold (Pv. 6:30-31). DON'T think if he gets away with it, it's moral, because the punishment of giving up all his wealth shows God frowns on that behavior.

And are jealousy and envy sins? YES. People justify taking by force, from those wealthier than them, because doing it through taxation makes it "legal." There are even theories bandied about, often in public schools, that America got rich through evil means, so they need to be humbled, and taught a lesson.

We recruit people from other nations that aren't rich, to come here to vote for freebies. Young folks indoctrinated in this hate America rhetoric believe Capitalism is innately evil, so they must vote against it. THESE are evil, dumb and wrong attitudes!

America did not become as she is by stealing from other nations! Our wealth, from 1900 on, and earlier, was from hard, smart work. YES, slavery was evil, but that was far back in our past, and we've tried to make amends ever since. This generation owes no one reparations, as we didn't enslave anyone, nor was anyone enslaved in our time.

OPPORTUNITY to financially succeed we DO owe to every American, unhindered by unfair barriers! MUCH work must be done in this regard, especially for minorities, as God hasn't ordained that mainly white people get to enjoy all the good things in this world. But our youth have, somehow, been taught that the rich are evil, for being rich!

Work hard, be smart, take risks, and if you profit too much from those choices, you are evil, and voters must take back some of your gains, as its "not fair" that you can be so "blessed"/benefitted. BALDERDASH!

God DOES say they should generously, voluntarily give back (I Tim. 6:17-19), but these voters are having nothing to do with charitable gifts—they want money and they want it now, via voting for liberal politicians! THAT IS EVIL!

To want more money in the U.S. Coffers, for things that benefit us all, like pollution reduction, disease eradication, etc., is not evil, but wanting your budget covered by the tax payer is evil, lazy, and wrong.

Tax payers already over-pay for Welfare in its many forms, and our debt is $23 trillion, pre-U.S. Covid bailout! You do NOT care about that, because you are not paying into the system, much, if any! That's a rent car mentality, and it's evil.

Don't care about who pays, so long as you benefit. That is selfishness sin! Vote for things you'll hardly if ever pay for, until you're much older, and life is better for you. It's NOT better for responsible, hard-working, law-abiding citizens who foot the bills—tax payers. But if morality is NOT your concern, you still want it, though you'll call it 'moral.'

EVERY human in America deserves an opportunity (and an equal one, at that) to succeed in life—period. You are not guaranteed to succeed—that's up to you, and your skills, work ethic and ingenuity!

Socialism is an attempt to thwart the hard work to force gifts out of tax payers' wallets, and people who work hard will ALWAYS fight it! America gained our great status by innovation and the Protestant work ethic! Now we enjoy the fruits of our labors, as the economic envy of the world (pre-Covid, at least, and soon after its passing).

You can't hone in on our successes without paying into the system, or thinking America owes you anything! Immigrants of earlier years came here to work hard, to earn the American Dream for themselves—rags-to-riches! They didn't come to rob the Treasury by freebies!

I live amidst MANY Asians and Indians. I guarantee you I've NEVER met one who looks for any handout! They out-work whites, in many cases. That's America, and people with that attitude and commitment are more than welcome here!

But seeking freebies from "government" (i.e., tax payers) is EVIL, especially when our merciful generosity already overpays for Welfare, to help the poor. Get out there and find your niche for success, spend less, quit believing you are deserving of the lifestyles you see on TV, just because you were brought into this world, and fight to end any barriers to your achieving your full potential here in the greatest nation on God's green earth!

And if that's NOT your attitude, consider moving to where your values are more in line with how another nation is run!

America has ALWAYS been for Capitalism, and it has made us what we are today! Slavery's effects haven't fully been eradicated, but what we are today is NOT mainly from capturing slaves, 400 years ago! It's the Industrial Revolution, way later, innovation, and the many other things (including winning two world wars), especially in the 1980s!

And YES we mistreated the native Americans, and we fought a war with Mexico (and won), but we have made some amends to the former, and we aren't 'gonna cede land to Mexico, even by any strategy to regain it by bringing enough Mexican citizens, legally or otherwise, to vote to steal money from taxpayers!

If you're here in America, you are privileged! We all know this! Use that opportunity to be the very best you can be, and do it honestly and with a good conscience! Don't do it through theft, grudges, jealousy, envy, or hatred (all sins). You made it here, however you got here, so go seek your own future and fortune.

No one is stopping you! There are MANY barriers, for some, that need to be torn down, like dilapidated schools (which are irrelevant to your ability to academically succeed, if you focus, though they shouldn't exist), there is still some racism (you can fight to end), but you're generally free to be whatever you want and can achieve!

If you are dedicated to your success, nothing can stop you, no matter your circumstances! NO employer who runs a worthwhile business turns down any candidate who is a great, smart worker, who makes or saves them money! And you can always start your own, or invent something, or invest.

QUIT whining that the cards are stacked against you, because you're young. We ALL went through what you're enduring! Americans adapt; we find a way; we trudge through until victory is won. Have this same attitude, and nothing can stop you! The tax payer certainly owes you no bailout from not enough income and too much out-go!

P.S.: If we've learned anything from the American Revolution and Boston Tea Party, people who pay taxes can have enough, where it's too much, and they literally fight back! People who want to gun grab, or, more often, the people who want to wallet grab, as well, through Socialism attempts... a second Civil War is possible.

IF SOCIALISM WERE TO WIN

(7/26/20)

Let's be completely REAL about what would happen if Socialists ever got their way in the U.S.A.—they DREAM U.S. Taxpayers, and its rich, would simply take it on the chin, and become Sweden and Denmark. But that's NOT how business people respond to losses! ALL of the following would be options they'd choose between:

Take investment money to wherever else the ROI was better, move their headquarters, hire foreigners at cheaper costs, layoff expensive U.S. Workers, or replace them with robots, retire, fold up the business or hire few workers (i.e., HIGH unemployment).

That's IF the GOP didn't stop Socialism, by:

1. A landslide,
2. Enough GOP's to have power in the Senate,
3. The GOP with enough clout in D.C. To gum up its implementation,
4. Secession could ensue, or,
5. Civil war.

You do NOT see Milliberals seeking high minimum wage, as they feel entitled to freebies—healthcare, daycare, college. They have the arrogant, spoiled audacity to believe the taxpaying 66 percent of U.S. Citizens want or are willing to pay for their second spouse, as that's about as much as all those things totaled up is worth—a second income!

And why do they FEEL they deserve that? Because they can vote—NO rational or economic or moral reasons! And where did they get such crazy notions? Burn taxpayers' bucks Bernie, war on reason and Capitalism Warren, Dang Yang's UBI free funds proposal, and Zuckerberg's $30,000/year free money suggestion for all people displaced by AI and robotic technology.

Those are ALL leftists! The U.S. Economy would tank, and this ilk of subhuman is deemed "compassionate."

Update

(12/25/20-2)

Let's ask a perfectly reasonable question: Why do taxpayers have to lose money for government doing more and more things people can vote for, but non-taxpayers suffer zero sacrifice? No justice, no peace! It's unfair and wrong! There are solutions!

SOCIALISM: A CLEAR & PRESENT DANGER

By the Angel [pastor] of the Church of North Dallas (identified in the previous chapter)
(10/4-5/20)

[Socialism]... is not something across the seas, or in another time, or a foreign affair. It is seducing Americans, who choose to get in bed with Marxists, and leftist politicians and liberal universities, and we are under attack by an age-old ideology and idolatry, that you could call 'Socialism,' or again, 'Marxism.' It's been around awhile, of course... 1917, the Bolshevik Revolution, in Russia; they were marching and changing the world. They were chanting, 'we are cold and we are tired and we are hungry, but we are changing the world.' And indeed, the world was turned upside down by the Bolshevik Marxist Revolution in Russia, and while Moscow was burning down, and Russia was under siege, do you know what the Orthodox Church was doing—the Christian Orthodox Church in Russia—do you know what they were doing? At the same time people were chanting and burning buildings in the streets, they were in red hot debate as to what color of vestments the priests ought to wear. Playing little church games while the world was coming apart. We need, also, to be reminded that the world is on edge, right now, and that includes America.

I want to remind you that Socialism, Marxism, is a start-up—a starter kit for advanced Communism, where the government becomes the resident nanny in your life. I call Communism it's big, bad brother, telling you how to live, where you can go, how you work, how much you can make, what you can buy, what you do with your life. And this ideology is virulent, and violent. It will kill your soul, if you allow it, and killed the soul of a nation. And I warn you to say that we in America are just one generation away from a recast of our nation as we have known it. Your children, and our grandchildren are at risk. A clear and present danger.

This propaganda is dangerous, and deadly, and its power is being unleashed upon our country. And we must take a stand against this... in our churches... in our government, in our social institutions, in our colleges and universities, and in our homes. We must always stand for the principles of life, given to us in the Bible. The only way to beat an idea is with a better idea. And we have a better idea and ideal—not an idol.

... We are compelled... to face the social and moral issues, and yes political issues of our times, and bring a prophetic voice to our community. [Pastors have a pastoral calling...] But we also have a prophetic calling, don't we? When you read your Bible, you discover the prophets, both so-called major and minor prophets; all had a major message to their generation, and typically the prophets of yesteryear, including the apostles in the New Testament, addressed the social, political and social issues of their time.

All who love faith and freedom should hear this call. And we must build our nation continually on the foundations of our faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, because the Bible says 'if the foundations be destroyed, what will the righteous do?' The battle that we face, and the battle that we fight is not a battle between what is left and what is right, politically, but what is right, and what is wrong, biblically.

This message of hope requires courage and compassion. We are to speak the truth with love; we are to speak the truth with tears. When Jesus saw the multitudes, they were scattered, as those who did not have a shepherd—like America, today, in so many ways. He had compassion on them. And oh how we ought to love our country, and have compassion upon our nation... Jesus saw the multitude, and He spoke, and He spoke of the issues that mattered the most, including economic systems and political systems of the day.

Just a few decades ago, the well-known ethicist and apologist, Francis Schaeffer—a great man—said this: “We as Bible-believing Christians, are locked in a battle. This is not a friendly gentleman’s discussion. It is a life and death conflict between the spiritual hosts of wickedness and those who claim the name of Christ. Where is the clear voice speaking to the crucial issues of the day with distinctly biblical answers? We must be the voice of reason. May we not sin through silence.” Good question.

I will not sin against God; I will not sin against you, with silence. This is not a time for silence; this is a time to speak, and to be bold, and to be brave; to be courageous with compassion. May we not sin through silence.

...Socialism’s primary concern is in providing equality of outcomes... We, as Bible-believing Christians, who believe in freedom and free enterprise, we believe, in America, historically, in providing equal opportunity [to all], but knowing there are not equal outcomes. Socialism is

This division is real. A recent USA Today reports that four out of 10 Americans embrace some form of Socialism. 51 percent believe it would be a bad idea for America. Socialism is popular especially younger people. A recent poll of Millennials found that a majority—58 percent—would prefer to live in a Socialist nation, than a Capitalist nation (only 33 percent of these surveyed could define Socialism). It’s because they Capitalism seems so cruel, so corporate, so greedy and wicked. And Capitalism, can be greedy, but it’s not Capitalism or Socialism, but a human problem of greed in the heart. If there’s greed, it goes bad.

Well, young people today, in particular, have not seen in the past 30 years or so the devastating effect of Soviet-style oppression and depression. Mao Tse Tung’s Red China. The killing fields of Cambodia. Modern Venezuela. It has been said that the nature of youth is if you are not a Socialist at age 20, you have no heart, but if you are Socialist at age 40, you have no head. I’m going to make a bold, true statement... No one serious about their Christianity can be serious about supporting Socialism and Marxism.

It’s totally secular, and requires and is based in atheism. God is not needed to explain anything.

...Socialism is an attack on the Christian faith itself, and its worldview. Barbarians are at the gates.

...Even if you are brave enough to enter Kim Jung Un’s country, they will seize your packages, to seek for and seize Bibles. But for the believer, in America, faith is the foundation, in God, Christ and the Bible.

[See his entire sermon on Socialism’s ills, at AmericanAnswers.org, Books Update tab, page 416, entitled, What The Bible Teaches on Socialism]... Socialism is dehumanizing... We believe in life from womb to tomb, and beyond ...Freedom comes from God, as a gift. Our Founders understood this, and wrote it into our Constitution. Our hope is not in government, but God.

From 1917 to 2000, 100 million people were murdered under Marxist governments. Socialism increases poverty, and is a tool to control the people. Winston Churchill said, “Socialism is a philosophy of failure, the creed of ignorance, and the gospel of envy. Its inherent virtue is the equal sharing of misery.” Everywhere Socialism moves it destroys economies, and people’s lives, who live in abject fear of the state.

Pastor Adrian Rodgers once read a statement from 1958, quoting Gerald Smith: “You cannot legislate the poor into freedom by legislating the wealthy out of freedom. What one person receives without working for, another person works for without receiving. The government cannot give to anyone anything that the government does not take away from someone else. When half of the people get the idea that they do not have to work, because the other half is going to take care of them, and when the other half gets the idea that it does no good to work, because somebody else is going to get what they work for, that my friend is the end of any nation. You cannot multiply wealth by dividing it.” This is biblical (II Th. 3:10). It doesn’t say if a man cannot work. It’s Christians’ responsibility to help the poor, seen throughout the Bible.

The answer is giving, by people who care and share. Those who will not work should not run on the ticket of others who will. Even Ecclesiastes 2:24 says, Nothing is better for a man than to eat and drink and enjoy his work. I have also seen that this is from the hand of God. The ability to work is gift and blessing from God, in same category of worship—glorifying God with your life. Find God’s will for your life, and do it with all your heart. This creates innovation, freedom, fulfilment, dreams and initiative. It used to be that people would say to keep your religion at home and in church, but keep it out of +the public square. There’s a difference between the Founders on freedom of religion (vs. that belief in the freedom to worship), where they say, it’s OK if you stay in church, do your thing, read books, sing songs, hear sermons.

Freedom of religion is the ability to practice our faith in our homes, our families, our churches, our community, our nation, and our world—not just in our churches, because God has called us to break out of the walls and into the world. And we have that freedom in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Make no mistake about it, America is great because it is built on the principles our Judeo-Christian principles. The system of free enterprise allows us to get and protect our things, to live and love well. In this land of life and liberty, we are to be generous with our talent and treasures. Americans have blessed the world with the gospel, concern and care. America’s wealth has allowed us to give to missions more than any nation in history. We need to keep that going. ...God’s in control, but He has given us an assignment, as ambassadors. We must use our time and talents to share our faith, and the freedom we have in Christ, and support everyone who gives us that freedom and opportunity.

There was a Chinese business man who came to America to study why America was so successful in its free enterprise system, and the secret of America—Rodney Stark. He writes, “We studied everything we could from a historical, political, economic, and cultural perspective. At first we thought it was because you had more powerful guns than we had; then we thought it was because you had the best political system. Next, we focused on your economic system. But in the past 20 years we have realized that the heart of your culture is your religion, Christianity. That is why the west is so powerful. The Christian moral foundation of social and cultural life was what made possible the emergence of Capitalism, and then the successful transition to democracy politics. We don’t have any doubt about this.”

Truth: America is great because of God; this nation was built upon our faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. So how then shall we live? Focus on God’s word. Evaluate all ideologies and philosophies compared to it, past, present and future. America is founded upon Christ and His principles. ...Fight for your freedoms, and never give up your freedoms to any tyranny in life!

Update

(10/4/20-2)

Let’s stipulate, JUST FOR the sake of argument, that Bernie/AOC type 'American Socialists' do NOT want to control every aspect of your life (like the size of your BIG Gulp, or type of light bulb you can buy), and only have good motives (besides their own self-advancement), to help the poor.

Let’s take the scenario one meme stated, that pure Communism hasn’t been tried, yet. Let’s assume no American Socialists would ever kill any fellow American, if their scheme were implemented. WHATS THE HARM? To their constituents, no financial harm, excepting unmotivated-to-fully-work dependence, and the evil of that party securing D.C. Jobs by securing votes, by securing security, through government pay checks.

Perhaps some of their plantation/reservation residents couldn't have earned more, on their own. But many of them could, and are stifled by less incentive, or restrictions for receiving 'benefits,' that full-time effort at work could violate.

The harm to taxpayers is obvious, and they could shut down businesses, move them out of America, boycott paying taxes/revolt, secede, or engage Civil War.

Let's also address the evil brought upon the U.S. Economy: Making U.S. Businesses pay double for employees' minimum (vs. maximum) wage, and having government escalate debt, for all Biden's freebies means less money in the economy for business growth! More money for government means less money for business, when business taxes rise, as with employees' taxes.

Besides shut downs, layoffs, automation's rise, and existing workers worked harder, these costs to our government mean more printed or borrowed money, or, if Biden didn't lie on this one thing, and only those earning $400K/year pay more (less than one percent), those U.S. Citizens will find ways to skirt our tax laws, legally, or in some cases illegally, or move away and pay taxes elsewhere, as they are unfairly being picked on. Their invested money could leave our markets and economy.

Economically, the U.S. Economy would clearly do worse, with HUGELY increased government spending! Debt skyrocketing would make borrowing more difficult, be a boat anchor to growth, cause investors to seek safer harbor nations, and U.S. Jobs would shrink significantly.

Maybe these freebies-seekers don't care about these FACTS, because they believe Petticoat Junction's Uncle Joe will take care of them, when jobs are cut, perhaps in half (doubled wages require halved jobs, just to break even—IF you can; common sense) which means even more government make-work project jobs, requiring even more taxpayer bailout. Bankruptcy can't be too far ahead, under these dire decisions! This is Economics 101!

SOCIALISM'S SINS

Socialism does NOT incentivize risk-taking, entrepreneurship, or innovation! WHY WOULD you, if your profits are forced to help people who never contributed to your company's success? Socialism disincentivizes work, and even living here, if you are rich. Socialism kills—MILLIONS!

Our Communist enemies WANT America's destruction, as they hate and are jealous of our economic and military superiority! Remember the Cold War? Capitalism nearly bankrupted the USSR, in the nuclear and space race!

Capitalism won. There is no USSR, today! Communists want to totally control people, and force who works where for what wage. The many freedoms we Americans take for granted are what Communists despise like the plague (or pandemic).

They can't control people, with tyrannical power and nepotistic histories of elitist power continuance. So they CHEER when America moves any direction toward Communism, because anything that weakens America (like cultural division) weakens their enemy!

Socialism IS that weak link to Communism, and like the TV show, just say "you are the weakest link, goodbye!" Capitalism brought you your right even to complain about it!

America's enemies hack our computers, steal our trade secrets, send social media disinformation to divide us, probably help fund people literally tearing down liberal cities (anarchists), want a weak president, sympathetic to their interests, seek to divide NATO, and LOVE U.S. Socialists!

America USED to be concerned with porous borders allowing terrorists in, and already housing sleeper cells. Now we elect squad members, to institute Sharia law, and vote for freebies to destroy our economy, and make America an Islamic or Socialist state! Radical Islam terrorists believe that's their Allah-sanctioned duty!

This is a peaceful or cold Jihad! Members of the squad are more concerned with the economic and political views of poor nations their ancestors immigrated from, than keeping America great! Anti-American FOOLS! Seditious insurrectionists. Benedict Arnolds.

IF you look at AOC's eyes, they are usually wild-eyed, as you HAVE to be hyper emotionally charged, to look that crazy! Thinking, rational, peaceful people who don't hate America NEVER look like that, except if they're rabid fans of pro sports games! She's NOT a fox, but crazy like one.

Finally, ENEMIES of America are using our lax laws against us! NO other nation would allow in people who desire to destroy their host country, as evil intruders and 'guests!' Sowing seeds of sedition—Mt. 13:28—and strangers to OUR American values—Mt. 22:11. Wolves in sheep's clothes.

IF recipients are forced to repay taxpayers for any and all subsidies, I have zero problem with government helping anyone with anything! Dems want justice in crime enforcement, but "Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere." —Martin Luther King, Jr. (RIP) Micah 6:8 (10/31/20-2)

POPE-ING OR POPPING OFF?

Let's address Pope's under-reported and highly important message from the other day!

1. First, does he know with absolute certainty that he has sincerely prayed and asked Jesus to live inside him, to forgive ALL his sins, past, present and future? @Pontifex
2. What day did he do that? The reason I start there is that that is the starting place for everything concerning THIS life—which was the subject of his speech.
3. Finally, on what basis, or what specific reason does he believe with certainty that he will be going to Heaven when he dies? Answer for yourself! John 3:16

One more aside, before a direct response: In Texas, where I live, the governor wants to ban contraception. Some religious people believe because God has always known people from time immemorial, stopping them being born disobeys God and what He knew, and therefore decrees. Let's dig deep:

1. If two people, male and female, NEVER have sex, NO human will spring forth. If one chose to be celibate, but that was a selfish decision NOT in God's will for them, they'd be preventing a person from being born whom God wanted birthed. HOW would any human know? God already knew they wouldn't be born!
2. IF someone had sex outside of marriage, or even within marriage, but forcibly (i.e., rape), that's outside God's will, as well, and can spring forth children. Did God know those offspring eons ago? ONLY if they get conceived! If conception never happens, no person gets started!

And the mechanism by which they never start CAN'T be said to be killing anyone, or preventing God's will, because humans cannot know if God already knew someone that had to come forth from someone else's sex act! If the tadpole never impregnates the egg, NO HUMAN STARTS!

You can't say if God had always known someone who never starts! ALL you can say is sex inside marriage, not against either party's will, is the only holy way to start a new human life! You certainly can't say that technology that prevents unwanted kids is evil! It's wise and good NOT to have kids you didn't want or can't afford.

The ONLY argument against birth control is that such a prohibition would force humans to only have sex for family-making, yet that prohibition still doesn't prevent marital rape, and doesn't responsibly address I Cor. Seven on marital sex NOT for childbearing, but pleasure alone!

3. Finally, you are NOT going to stop unmarried people from having sex, married people having sex only for pleasure, and some marital rape. In short, banning birth control doesn't keep people from being started who God obviously knew before hand, obvious only because He knows all things. It doesn't even end fornication!

I ask all the great pharmaceutical laboratories to release the patents. Make a gesture of humanity and allow every country, every people, every human being, to have access to the vaccines. There are countries where only three or four per cent of the inhabitants have been vaccinated.

In the name of God, I ask financial groups and international credit institutions to allow poor countries to assure "the basic needs of their people" and to cancel those debts that so often are contracted against the interests of those same peoples.

In the name of God, I ask the great extractive industries -- mining, oil, forestry, real estate, agribusiness -- to stop destroying forests, wetlands and mountains, to stop polluting rivers and seas, to stop poisoning food and people.

In the name of God, I ask the great food corporations to stop imposing monopolistic systems of production and distribution that inflate prices and end up withholding bread from the hungry.

In the name of God, I ask arms manufacturers and dealers to completely stop their activity, because it foments violence and war, it contributes to those awful geopolitical games which cost millions of lives displaced and millions dead.

In the name of God, I ask the technology giants to stop exploiting human weakness, people's vulnerability, for the sake of profits without caring about the spread of hate speech, grooming, fake news, conspiracy theories, and political manipulation.

In the name of God, I ask the telecommunications giants to ease access to educational material and connectivity for teachers via the internet so that poor children can be educated even under quarantine.

In the name of God, I ask the media to stop the logic of post-truth, disinformation, defamation, slander and the unhealthy attraction to dirt and scandal, and to contribute to human fraternity and empathy with those who are most deeply damaged.

In the name of God, I call on powerful countries to stop aggression, blockades and unilateral sanctions against any country anywhere on earth. No to neo-colonialism. Conflicts must be resolved in multilateral fora such as the United Nations. We have already seen how unilateral interventions, invasions and occupations end up; even if they are justified by noble motives and fine words.

This system, with its relentless logic of profit, is escaping all human control. It is time to slow the locomotive down, an out-of-control locomotive hurtling towards the abyss. There is still time.

Background: There are many false but some true things in this piece. The false comes from political bias, Bible omission and Illogical applications to public policy. I'm Not Saying Conservative Christianity is Anti-Jesus. Jesus is. Update
(10/22/21-2)

The Pope's words STILL bother me, as when you speak for God, you have to be accurate, and the Bible is the ONLY way to determine accuracy! He seems to have a vendetta against America, when were the most generous nation in the world!

There is no imaginary world where any humans got together, in a Utopian Communist hippie compound, and said, let's start a business, so we can take care of everyone's needs! EVERY business—even farming—is in business to make profit!

If poor people lack food, they need to garden, band together to fund a grocery store in their food drought, EARN more, work harder, spend smarter, access charities and government safety nets, and quit having kids! I LITERALLY hate how an entire political party caters to and rewards economic losers in life! Adults pay their own bills!

COMMUNISM believes the government (taxpayers only) have to take care of all citizen's expenses/needs. Socialism believes about the same thing, but with a little more responsibility expected of some citizens. Capitalism believes you earn your own keep and carry your own weight, because you have the opportunity and availability to do so, in a free country.

You can rise as high as your own skills and ambitions carry you! You can also sink as low as a skid row bum, if alcohol and poor decisions make you poor. NO ONE forces any of those outcomes! you decide your fate

IF the Pope's so worried about the world's poor and their shortage of food, why doesn't he sell some of the millions if not billions in assets his legal entity owns? Just giving homeless people one hair cut is a TOKEN gesture! It's up to every adult individual to make it through life—period!

The ONLY exception is people unable to work, and I mean 100 percent unable; not partly able, but sucking off Uncle Sam's teet! (I know some of these). It is NOT evil that some succeed more than others! It's not unjust, either! It's proof we are not all equal or the same in our skills!

Some

DUMB higher education institution had a TV ad saying our talents are equally distributed. LIE! The parable of the talents and life itself shows that is a disqualified "education" center! Would you want Michael Jordan or Andre the Giant on your basketball team? DUMB opinion,
@SNHU

The Jews, by God's design, were to be a beacon/role model to the world! They allowed the poor to have the leftovers/"crumbs" of a harvested field. Fairness requires farmers NOT be the only ones sacrificing to help the poor eat! Fairness also requires taxpayers to NOT be the only ones sacrificing to help the poor eat!

The poor must help themselves and repay in some way getting assistance none of the rest of us require! That's ONLY fair! No justice, no peace, or piece of the pie, to eat! It's HARD making it through inflation, greedy businesses always wanting more profit!

NO ONE said life was easy! and God commands all rich people to generously give back! I Tim. 6:17-19 Since many of them don't, perhaps hiking their taxes would one day be in order!? But Welfare MUST be TEMPORARY (1-3 years max, only accessed once), and NOT be unrepaid handouts, but teaching life skills to sustain all adults!

If the Pope wants to speak for God, He must start quoting God's word, NOT be referred to as "father," NOT teach that a personal relationship with Jesus is dangerous, and make sure he has that for himself, first and foremost!

America's wealth was EARNED! We did not plunder another nation's treasures! Italy's squatter Pope can begrudge U.S. Ingenuity, Protestant work ethic, and American exceptionalism, but NOT if he ever reads the Bible (the ONLY source of authority)! Jealousy vs. emulation is sinful! Go... make poorer nations in our image!

We will help—we always have and do! But the poor countries' governments must figure out what assets and natural resources they possess, and provide electricity, clean water and sanitation, roads, food, EDUCATION, internet access, basic health needs, OR BE FIRED or forcibly removed.

It is NOT America's problem, caused by Americans, nor is it our legal obligation to fix! We HELP, from our general moral compass, but EVERY nation has a fair part to play, but especially the poor people pulling themselves up by their own bootstraps!

Self-sufficiency. There is NO FREE LUNCH in this world! If you're dumb enough to bring into this world any kid you can't afford, that is entirely upon you, and your lack of wisdom and self-control! NO ONE owes anyone a bailout!

As societies, we, like the Jews, establish safety nets. But they are from MERCY vs. justice! If you are poor, bad on you, unless you have a disability not of your own making! At the same time poverty is NOT bad on you if that's the lifestyle you choose, like some homeless people. You were free to make your bed and lie in it!

COMBATTING SOCIALISM

Biden's agenda IS stealing! They haven't the b-ss to beg or break into homes, so they vote. Come and get it! I would recommend if it is passed, taxpayers possibly rebel by NOT paying or under-paying their taxes, with a SCOTUS class action lawsuit! Poor areas may be targeted, IMO! Pray.

I know MANY Americans who would never start violence, but if the riots began, by either side, they'd join in like Texans do, if Biden's Socialist agenda passed. This is NO threat. I'm predicting my belief of what may happen. Red state secession is preferred to Civil War! I'd be for it!3

It HAS to be anger by blue states that they pay high taxes and red states don't, so their idea of "fairness" is forcing everyone to pay what they do! That's the ONLY rational explanation for why Socialism is so close to coming to America. Jealousy red states spend smarter, and theirs don't!

IGNORE state borders! NO STATE is 100 percent red or blue! EVERY taxpayer, person not receiving freebies, and opposing Socialism MUST unite and fight! You may have to move to a solidly "red state," where the laws are favorable to your values and beliefs!

Let "blue states" go bankrupt! The color of your state mainly applies to state tax laws and Congress persons who support or oppose Biden's Socialism in D.C.! @JoeBiden is under severe heat from leftists that it's now-or-never, and facing a rebellion and NON-support if he doesn't. ALL OTHER Americans must support his staying a centrist

I'm saying Republicans NEED to support Biden staying a centrist! This isn't changing parties. It's countering Socialists who will NOT vote in 2022 or 2024 for Biden politicians and policies, and WE others must fill that gap to keep him NON-Socialist! Forget him as a Dem; him as saving America from Socialism!

IF HE CAVES, oppose him like he declared Civil War (but nonviolently). This is that serious! His agenda will be reversed, but when any human feels free money can be available, for any period of time, they experience bloodlust for more. NO ONE turns down free money!

Texas NEEDS a Constitutional amendment passed NOW, that states our taxpayers are not required to pay for national 'free' healthcare, daycare, college, and home down payments. @GovAbbott @DanPatrick Cause a federalism issue that leads to SCOTUS; wealth redistribution is UNconstitutional!

JUST GO ON as if 45 had conceded, and may the @GOPhouse and @GOP'senate fully support you having access to everything you'd otherwise have access to, had 45 already conceded! IF you abandon Socialism, GOP's would support you over that, IMO, as you'd lose leftist votes-make up the gap for you.

If Biden caves to Socialism, GOP's must organize to have a super party! ANY taxpayer MUST be a GOP, and we have 2 and four years to sell that need! Independents, swing voters, conservative Dems-GOP needs a dominating party for 2022, if Socialism gets passed. I'm will help make that occur!

Biden would NEVER abandon the squeaky wheel Socialist vote, if he had no replacement! If Biden vows to abandon Socialism, GOP's would have to hold their nose and support him. If he didn't, they'd have to vow to destroy him and his ilk in 2022 and 2024! His choice! @JoeBiden Ex.: centrist? @NationalNusa @SenateGOP @HouseGOP BLOCK BIDEN'S SOCIALISM!!! Six ways Congress can curb a runaway president

If GA runoff makes a firewall vs. socialism, Jan 5th, GUARANTEE you Dem AOC leftists will full-time beef up for a win in 2020, so Biden pushes that agenda his second half of his one-term presidency! They're probably already working on those plans! @GOP @NationalNusa @SenateGOP @HouseGOP @GOP

I predict Dems are already targeting vulnerable Senators and Reps up for reelection in 2022 @GOP @NationalNusa @SenateGOP @HouseGOP Taxpayers have to join GOP efforts! If Biden gives them more than he takes, that may be harder for GOP's! I'd all vulnerable incumbents for 22 and weak Dems.

Public relations for Socialism as unjust and evil may or may not work. People can be selfish and immoral. They vote their wallets. If Biden's agenda passes, taxpayers, the rich and business owners MUST organize to fire every person who voted to support it! Find ways to I'd them! NO mercy.

Blackball every Socialist from future employment and make liberal businesses like Ben and Jerrys hire them all! Organize, GOP! Even now start taking names of every citizen who didn't vote GOP, and assume they wanted Socialism, IF they voted, but NOT for GOP, though 45 may have been their reason!

OBVIOUSLY, you must obey all laws, but if you interview anyone identified as voting Socialist, if in doubt between them and equally qualified candidates, you know what to do! <https://nolo.com/.../can-employers-discriminate-based-on...>

... Find disqualifying reasons apart from politics! Be sincere! Obey laws and oppose Socialism! Can Employers Discriminate Based on Political Beliefs or Affiliation?
nolo.com

Socialists aren't quickly identified! I know South Dallas pastors who are such, paid handsomely, and a neighbor and a big bank executive! it's NOT just poor people! Rich folk can want freebies for others, even if they receive none! That exec wanted free healthcare (college grad raised poor).

That pastor ministers to poor. He has an economic motivation to vote for poor to get freebies. It increases his status and wealth, representing their desires! DON'T assume only poor people are for Socialism! ANY person who'd pay in more, to get out even more for selves or their clients.

I don't support boycotts or buycotts! But if Biden's Socialism passes, I'd support leftist businesses being punished, and Socialists being rejected as customers, legally and temporarily! ALL this can be avoided if GA GOP wins, or 2022 gets MORE GOP Senators in close states. Work on it NOW!

I have already virtually shunned a neighbor coming to America from a non-American voting territory, and voting for Socialism! LOVE their dad-nice guy-but if you come HERE from THERE to make HERE THERE, you are NOT welcome HERE! I don't tolerate anyone with such an evil attitude! Never will.

It's ALL about America and wealth! That family's moving to a poorer area of town, to buy. I prefer renting, for now, in a nicer area. Socialism is 100 percent about money—whether you expect you can earn enough for your needs, or whether you want help, as an "adult" from total (and richer) strangers!

IF enough taxpayers refused to pay, I don't think IRS could handle enforcement, until SCOTUS took on the UNconstitutionality of wealth redistribution. Welfare hasn't been ruled illegal, but Biden's agenda is it on steroids. DON'T BREAK THE LAW—organize to rebel if it passes; be creative.

The @GOP should be secretly financially donating to Joe Manchin! This is no longer about party! it's about America vs. socialism! That is the litmus test! NOT party identification! Are you FOR freebies or not? Employment, support, social ostracization. That's the one and only matter, folks.

If you think I'm obsessed with opposing Socialism, remember, I was in a deep sleep from 2:30-5pm. When I awaken with ideas on my mind, they're either depressing nightmare attacks from satan, or vision from Heaven! If stealing and NOT teaching how to fish are moral, Socialism's moral!

UNfortunately, I'm NOT editing anymore, for now, so my suggestions on what to do if Socialism passes will be on Facebook later on! Suffice it to say that businesses, the rich and taxpayers hold all the cards for Socialists' funding and very survival living in AMERICA! USE your power, if so!

ANYONE not on these lists as GOP, or registered Independent can be initially assumed to be a Democrat. <https://ncsl.org/.../access-to-and-use-of-voter...>

... The public also needs to know who the hoarding rich are, and make them peacefully uncomfortable for that sin!

PRESSURE the rich to reveal whether they are philanthropists in any significant way! IF their charity donations funded self-empowerment of all non-taxpayers, I'd be for them hoarding thereafter, if they wanted to, or giving little, as they choose. Just make poor self-sufficient!

One website with tips, videos and experts on deals, sales and best-practices budgeting, buying and job enhancement skill development, and motivation, and the rich can sit on their cash, IMO. I hope they wouldn't! Minimum: Education and motivation for the poor able to pay own bills. That's help!

Even if patriotic civic service required by all not in public service was rejected, one website that updates all best deals for every area and what's in my past post, would be a minimum rich could donate to, and have met their obligation to God, IMO! can't make a horse drink! NO Socialism!

And accepting a national policy that every subsidy has to be repaid, over time, by civic service! That's fair to all! The poor get what they need, when in a pinch. Taxpayers aren't adopting others by force of tax law, and everyone pays their own way, with temporary help, when needed!

Since I won't edit for awhile, let me remind you if Socialism passes, fire as many as possible, automate and robotize, make paper losses, be paid in NON-monetary ways (where possible), don't hire Socialists, and other tips you'll see later on Facebook james.meroney.378 Fight back fiercely.

Update: Combatting Socialism

(11/17/20-2)

Crazy Bernie claims a majority of Americans want Socialism.

1. That's UNtrue.
2. We have a representative democracy; not a pure one.
3. The public can want UNconstitutional things, but They're NOT allowed them. Responsible politicians pass laws that are rational, legal and moral, you old coot!

I fear some on you think I'm being sarcastic, humorous or entertainingly provocative, but I LITERALLY mean this: If Socialism ever passes and has lasting legs in America, taxpayers, the rich and business owners and management MUST do ALL of the following, civil disobedience/illegal or not!:

Per state, secede from the union. Short of and probably before that, do all of these things, knowing legal consequences will ensue: Get GOP or Dem voting rolls, and let businesses access them to refuse service to every Dem entering their biz. Never hire them! Unless one proves

They're GOP or Independent, never hire anyone usually targeted as a Dem voter (just observe Dem policies and TV ads to identify the three or so groups). Allow for exceptions if they prove they're NOT for freebies/Socialism. EVERY business but liberal ones combine sources to prevent their buying or hiring!

Ben and Jerrys will have way too many employees, as will our federal government. Hide your assets from taxation. Socially shun anyone you know who voted for Socialism! I've already started doing that with my FEW contacts.

Buy a gun, if you don't already own one. Join a class action lawsuit to withhold taxes in protest, and in proportion to how much Socialism adds to your last year's 1040. NEVER give one dime to any charity-only churches. The liberal Socialists will see their do-gooderism can't get funded, publicly or privately! Boycott blue states for tourism and business!

Red and purple states pass Constitutional amendments to have NO safety net services in their state, and that their states' citizens cannot and are prohibited from paying any tax dollars toward federal Socialist policies, by reducing IRS debt due by that amount or percent. Take wealth redistribution to SCOTUS to settle for good.

When Socialists don't have funding, aren't allowed jobs or to buy goods and services, unless they work for their own life expenses, they will learn that any short-term victory is a LOSS, mainly for THEM; only businesses, temporarily! #JustDoIt! FIGHT Socialism.

Some of those actions are currently illegal, so pro bono GOP and Independent lawyers will be needed. Step one would be going to SCOTUS over wealth redistribution! That ends the need for all these drastic measures for any future drastic times! Secession isn't needed before, as there are iterative measures avail, and Biden won't likely get all he wants in his one-term presidency.

But we face this menace indefinitely! Liberals truly believe it is being nice, kind and moral to give fish vs. teach how to fish, and steal from hard workers. WARPED morality and deceived what help means. One more I forgot... if Socialism sticks, automate every job you can, and use robots.

Force the feds to hire all the low rungs on the ladder. I actually can see how this all leads to prophecy (one-world government and government control of commerce). I've said lasers may be part of 666.

37. TAXES

ON TAXES

I am NOT for a wealth tax. I am for a FAIR tax that raises enough revenue for our bills to be paid, and where the pain is shared by ALL! #WealthTax (3/1/21-2)

I'm for a "wealth tax" on billionaires ONLY if it's FAIR, requiring

1. EVERY citizen pays their fair share
2. NO loopholes are allowed anyone, and,
3. The wealthy's charity donations are first deducted from that tax. NOT all income levels need pay the same percent for taxes to be fair! (3/20/21-2)

I've said this before—the rich already have life good! Government doesn't need to make it even better for them, but those who don't have it as good, if government is going to be in the unconstitutional business of settling economic scores. (3/20/21-2)

God says rich people are to significantly give back! HOWEVER, when any Americans DON'T pay anything in for taxes, and vote for taxpayer nest eggs and business profits to pay for freebies, it's NO WONDER they're NOT inclined to be further fleeced! Already being unjustly shaken down! (4/3/21-2)

Delete the annual charity donations of every person earning over $400K/year and everyone owning over $15M, and tax them a fair percent, including a two percent tax on the nest egg, AFTER everyone is taxed, and government is streamlined. (4/7/21-2)

2. Traffic & Complaining
3. Traffic

TRAFFIC CONGESTION

(5/4/19)

It's government incompetent negligence for us to NOT have smart street lights! Monitor line backups, and extend green lights accordingly. I sat at an intersection where NO directions were using it. That's a FAILure! Drive-time needs longer greens for one direction... Heading to where most of the jobs are (like downtown Dallas in the morning). #CommonSense vs. idiocy!

TRAFFIC & COMPLAINING

IS IT THAT HARD for EVERY U.S. Intersection with a street light to be programmed to not stay green when no one is using the green light? We do some things SO stupidly regarding U.S. Productivity, and government barriers! We're in global competition! Let's get busy!

There are TWO types of complaining: Angry whining because you don't like something, and constructive criticism. The Bible forbids the former (Phil. 2:14), but advocates the latter (Mk. 6:18, etc.). Without pointing out life's imperfections, they RARELY get changed/improved!

TRAFFIC

(4/27/21-2)

Also, if someone is depending on what you're doing, to do what they're wanting to do, USE YOUR BLINKER! And when the light turns green, hit the gas—you're not the only one wanting through the intersection!

WHEN YOU MUST use your vehicle's signal/blinker: When anyone else is depending on knowing where you're going, or turning, in order to make their next move. Legally, all the time. Practically, when people detrimentally rely on your signal for their next decisions!
#CommonSense

Update

(6/22/21-2)

$400 for a car horn that sounds like a train (can't be unreasonably loud, in TX). Haven't found, but I doubt it's legal in TX for a car horn that sounds like AK47 gun shots. If you do NOTHING, people don't learn the rules of the road they forgot or never knew! Educate them clearly!

People who drive slow in the left lane NEED to be ticketed. ANY group of cars who wolf pack (all three lanes going exact same speed), also! Texas driver's ed courses TAUGHT you NOT to do that—it's unsafe! No outlet if anything goes wrong. More certain crashes! FOOLS!

I've had choices of multiple days, long distance, or very long days, visiting one day. We've ALWAYS chosen the latter! I DON'T DO TRAFFIC. Like any native Houstonian, I cut through parking lots, take back routes, honk, pass on the right, go out of my way to have more open roads. BAD problem.

people accept, tolerate, resign themselves, throw up their hands and take bad things on the chin, when they think no solutions exist, or their one voice won't change anything. Drive time traffic is the result of fools in charge of design! FOOLS! You breathe their pollution and waste time.

It's humiliating how much time, money, effort and blocked lanes happen every day for replacing concrete slabs. Rubberized tar/asphalt can ADJUST to soil shifts and hardenings, and floodings. Let that layer make up for break downs below. FOOLISH current state! Think better!

EVERYONE who can work remote/from home SHOULD. Staggered work start times lessened traffic in Houston, in the 80s. 2-tiered freeways are essential. We should be able to 100 percent do chores and work, with driverless cars, if we have to drive to work! EMBARRASSINGLY primitive modern life!

ONE HOUR a day, 365 hours a year, or FIFTEEN DAYS for the average American—time you'll NEVER get back! IDIOTIC!!! Solutions exist! <https://fatherly.com/gear/how-much-time-do-american-families-spend-in-their-cars/#:~:text=Each%20day%2C%20Americans%20drive%20about,one%20hour%20behind%20the%20wheel.and text=10%3A12%20AM-.Each%20day%2C%20Americans%20drive%20about%2025%20miles%20and%20spend%20an,one%20hour%20behind%20the%20wheel...> Americans Spend six percent Of Their Lives in Cars No joke. Fatherly.com

When we were new Management Consultants at Ernst and Young, I asked a partner what value new grads had for CEOs, with no business experience: A fresh/objective look at problems. That's what I am about traffic jams. I NEVER drove in drive time for 13 years. Now, it's UNacceptable! Fire torches!

Highway shoulders COULD make further lanes, but if a car breaks down, the lane comes to an end. 2-tiered freeways are THE answer! Every major U.S. City with congestion problems. GUARANTEE you this is the best and most pragmatic solution! Expand it beyond loops, wherever clogs occur!

On any given highway, there are people with local destinations and regional end-games. They should NOT be on the same layer! ONLY long drive vehicles should travel the upper layer, and FEW exits would cause that result, as, if you get on it by mistake, you go WAY out of your way!

A second layer loop around Dallas, earthquake-proof, with FEW exits, and only into huge open areas with multiple direction lanes, on four corners, would facilitate traffic to and from outskirts to downtown. Later build a second loop outside the first, with the same set-up. Congestion EASILY solved!

Common sense says many people go to work between 7-9a and 3-5p, on major arteries. Roads can ONLY go up, below, or expand. Many are land locked to ONLY above or below, and below is far more complicated and costly. Double decker highways are needed all over civilized TX cities! Essential

IMO, traffic is the result of BAD planning and design! Authorities KNOW thousands are flocking to TX, yet the roads stay basically the same. Double decker roads are NEEDED, the upper lanes with few exits, to move vehicles from downtown to outer living quarter centers!

I want a car indicator that tells you when a yellow light will start, and a turbo boost button to ensure you get through an intersection before the red light starts, as traffic is an irrational example of poor design, IMO. Many people spend months a year driving to work, back to back.

America has one of the most advanced highway and road systems, but its upkeep is VERY primitive, compared to what's needed! I've driven all around DFW, and cracks, potholes and bumps are everywhere, from soil changes, and rubbery tar surfaces are needed to adjust to soil shifts from heat and cold!

39. VOTERS

2. Voters: We the People

VOTER'S RIGHTS

(3/4/21-2)

Voter suppression would require active, intentional behaviors to deceive targeted victims, like lying about polling locations, making them very far from constituents, having them outdoors in a blizzard, limiting their number, from that of the past, etc.!

Pundits LOVE to say Voter ID laws limit "blacks and browns." If you are an adult, and have months or even years to have a driver's license, or other Voter ID, and you don't get it during that time, don't whine to me on election day that you're required to prove who you are, to lessen fraud!

EVERYONE views EVER political issue from a politics perspective—NOT a morals perspective. Is it good that someone could vote and not have a right to? NO. Therefore, and therefore ALONE, Voter ID is needed! People can and have cheated, and that's Illegal, and it can be STOPped!

(3/22/21-2)

I don't understand why GOP's fear ALL black people voting!

1. NOT all blacks vote Democrat.
2. They're only 13.4 percent of the population
3. LGBTQs are 3.5 percent
4. 18 percent are Latino, and NOT all Dems
5. 44 percent don't pay taxes—THATs the challenge! NOT race.

WHY work your tail off for riches, if Dems will vote to confiscate so much of them? Offshore tax havens MUST increase, as Dems have zero brakes on their desires to spend! If they bankrupt America, or ruin rich people, they're fine with that as they don't love U.S. Like those who pay for it

Let's stipulate these measures are to restrict black votes. That would be EVIL, but it's also EVIL to vote for spending tax dollars if you don't pay in, or much! There either has to be a law that that's Illegal, or secession will one day be needed, to avoid Socialism, IMO! Handouts!

Politicians don't work for you! They work to represent you! If you pay no taxes, you aren't their boss! Even if you do pay taxes, you don't hire them. You vote for them to represent you, and they have to obey the Constitution and serve all in their jurisdiction vs. just party! Common Sense

People do NOT work hard, to help non family members! REMEMBER this FAXT when you vote! The 44 percent who pay no taxes are ROBBING taxpayers, to have zero sacrifice! Where's their selflessness and compassion? Libs would bankrupt America with crippling debt, for selfishness!

Drive through and mail in voting are suspect, IMO! There's no way to prove the person is who they say, or sent in their ballot. NO proof of one's identity, tied to their ballot not being anyone else's, invites voter fraud! I DISagree with Freddie Haynes! Elections have to be just and transparent. (4/1/21-2)

(4/1/21-2)

Let's stipulate these measures are to restrict black votes. That would be EVIL, but it's also EVIL to vote for spending tax dollars if you don't pay in, or much! There either has to be a law that that's Illegal, or secession will one day be needed, to avoid Socialism, IMO! Handouts!

IF these recent bills are TRULY to suppress black votes, I GUARANTEE you that effort will bring out MORE black votes! I believe they are LIKELY being promoted as suppressing, when they are not, but I don't yet know, as their language hasn't been broadly available to the public!

I haven't read any ALLEGED voter suppression laws (have you?), and I DOUBT they are that, but no one can keep you from voting, so just vote! It's EVIL for gov't to try to target any group(s) to get more voters. That's NOT the job of government, but political parties!

Long voting lines aren't voters suppression, unless it's extremely hot or cold. They should be lessened, by having enough places to vote, that last minute Larry's are not stuck with only that option. Plan ahead, and do your civic duty!

(4/7/21-2)

Blacks voting is NOT a problem! ANYONE voting for taxpayers to fund freebies IS a problem! It's UNjust! Every citizen has a right to vote. NO ONE has a right to steal from taxpayers, by taxation! SCOTUS NEEDS to rule on this fact! NO Socialism!

Black Americans: If you "FEEL" ANY Republican or state is trying to negate your Constitutional vote, DO this:

1. Grab your ID
2. Calendar in the election season
3. Find your nearest polling place
4. Decide when and how you'll go there. It's NOT complicated!

Plan ahead/early! NOW!

I am FOR every American voting! I am FOR voting made easier and less time-consuming. I am FOR voter integrity, and AGAINST any and all fraud. If it's hard for you to get an ID, you're either homeless, or live in a cave! Even the homeless have ID. First 48 TV show has proved that to me!

(6/15/21-2)

I DON'T believe the ~40 states voting rights laws are suppression of black votes, but even if they were to become that, it's probably less destructive and transformative to what I've proposed, which is red and purple states seceding from the union, if freebies Socialism wins the day!

If Dems are up in arms about voting rights: 1. Stop voting to STEAL taxpayers' money, and 2. Get an ID, plan your vote, and execute plan! Dem blacks are EARNING a rep as freebies-seekers, when their pols offer handouts: "FREE" daycare, healthcare, college, home down payment, student debt+!

(6/23/21-2)

Voter integrity vs. suppression is SO easy: Register, bring valid ID, vote. You're given a LUXURY to vote any other times but on election day. Any lessening of these luxuries is NOT a vote denial. Meet the voter qualifications, do these steps, and SHUT UP with further complaints!

HOW HARD is it to vote? You register, drive to the polls and push buttons (maybe show a driver's license or ID). If that is hard for you, life is going to be a bear for you. Expect little pay! (7/15/21-2)

VOTERS: WE THE PEOPLE

I'm sure self-taught psychology pundits would argue I'm missing something, or bemoaning something missing, but the truth is I simply want to not be annoyed, probed, fakely questioned, and peacefully left alone, if tricks, insincerity and shallowness is all one has! Asking for NO such B.S.

When you can't speak of politics or religion, from no depth, or fear of confrontation, because you can't defend your views, and don't know why you believe what you do, and another party is all about those subjects, shallow and empty is all that's left, never even knowing them. Relationship?

MIDDLE CLASS

(Assorted Dates)

The most perfect political community is one in which the middle class is in control, and outnumbers both of the other classes. –Aristotle (3/24/15)

by which he AGREED with Aristotle, that in a democracy the poor will have more power than the rich, because there are more of 'em and the will of the majority is supreme. (4/27/17)

“the greater the number of owners, the less the respect for common property. People are much more careful of their personal possessions than of those owned communally; they exercise care over common property only in so far as they are personally affected.” –Aristotle (6/3/19)

Poor people are always voting for politicians who'll steal others (taxpayers) money to pay for their lives. Aristotle said, People are much more careful of their personal possessions than of those owned communally; they exercise care over common property only in so far as they are personally affected. (10/21/19)

I 100 percent agree with Steven Rattner: Governments' top priority should be "addressing the state of the average worker." If they don't, "we are going to have populism, it's going to take down Capitalism, and it's all going to be worse off." Aristotle said this eons ago. They have the numbers! (11/21/19)

[you'll have mutiny on the] bounty as the "natives" (average Joes) get restless, and they are the majority, numbers-wise! As Aristotle said, if the people learn they can suck off the public dole, by voting, there goes democracy (paraphrased). you who rejoice when 401Ks improve, by government policies and other things, and have zero. (2/27/20)

ON WORKING STIFFS

(2/27/20)

Life doesn't guarantee anyone a living wage, as your standard of living can be higher than your work skills deserve! Businesses usually pay market rate (a range), and everyone but the severely disabled has to pull their own weight. Live within your means, meager as they may be, by your meager skills! Improve them.

Update: Pay the Workers (Fairly)

(2/29/20)

Content employees stay with you longer, are more productive, and take pride in their company! Breaks (and naps) make people more able to be more productive, as with an enjoyable if not fun work environment, and rewarding pay!

Pigs get fat, hogs get slaughtered, business people. Be fair to your workers, and good to the best ones.

You do NOT restrict anyone's earning potential, but you do restrict their selfishness and hoarding potential, publicly, by shaming, or politically, by increased taxes, as the rich MUST pay in a fair share, with zero loopholes! That's justice/fairness.

AMERICA'S WORKING CLASS

(8/24/20)

American worker: If I read anything in the Bible, God is FOR the vulnerable, weak, abused and exploited/down-and-out. That description, unfortunately, more and more describes YOU—working class blue collar hard workers. Is God FOR you struggling or even suffering? NO!

Is He for you earning more than you deserve, living off aid from others, or government? NO. Is He for the rich boss/owners having all the fun, and easily making bookoos, without any significant give back to society? NO, He actually hates that, commands that it not occur, and judges it.

So what's a guy or gal to do? In NO particular order, let me give you a playbook you must consider, both for your own survival, and for ending being abused by "the system" that favors the job givers, NOT the job needers: Before I do, LOOK how LONG I've warned about this problem:

Expect a large unemployment increase in the next five to 10 years if Sam's Club stops using cashiers for all self-checkout, as smaller retailers emulate the Big Dog! (4/17/14)

Population explosion causes SEVERE strain and strife! Limit your family size, poorer nations! Technology to make what we do have stretch would be amazing! (11/16/16)

Business owners will do LITERALLY anything to lower costs... move company headquarters elsewhere, move their family out of country, renounce U.S. Citizenship. (5/3/17)

...and robots will SOON render the least-skilled unemployed for good [in their field], without better training! Radar Magazine said ~70 percent of current jobs will be automated... (5/3/17)

Self-driving cars... What SOUNDS fantastical is now reality. They didn't import from Mars! Engineers have been designing them for years. You just never saw or knew it. That all came from someone's ideas. Self driving 18-wheelers will spike unemployment with long-haul drivers! Robotics, as well. (1/19/18)

Radar Magazine envisioned great things we can do when about 70 percent of present-day jobs are automated, like clean the environment and mine Mars. It will be ONLY what the rich want/require, or governments mandates! NBC said cashier, fast food and sales clerk are the top three U.S. Jobs, and may be automated in future. Let's see where this leads... (1/22/28)

Population explosion ONLY puts greater pressure on limited resources and the need for land grabs! You want families to do as they want with family planning, but you also need less over-birthing! China has limited the number of kids citizens can have. That seems extreme, but something has got to happen to fix the problem. (10/1/18)

The world IS madly racing to AI (artificial intelligence) and robotics, and I've posted MANY times that government's role in society and the economy WILL rise, as even the book of Rev. Indicates. People will not tolerate the rich elites having all the power for jobs, even as the masses unionize! I've also proffered solutions... Read them. (12/4/19)

If leftists are upset with America controlling the number of people immigrating to escape bad situations, maybe they should blame the open borders crowd, for there is 'no room in the inn,' from over-immigration glutting the job market and draining our social services, never having paid in!
#CBSSundayMorning (2/2/20)

I've NEVER been in a union (except one day when I tried to work for my brother-in-law's dad's business), and they required it. I can negotiate my own salary on my own. If you can't, you need to learn how to, or if your skills are a commodity, you need to unionize for better wages. I don't like unions, but see why they arise. (2/26/20)

...6. Network to meet influential people in your chosen niche. 7. Get more education (college, GED, grad school). 8. Shine on the job/be a star (quality and efficiency, being likable). 9. Unionize. 10. Publicly clamor for businesses to do what God says they must do—be fair to you (Col. 4:1). 10. OPPOSE more... (5/18/20)

MANY other chapters I have written to help you, and expose this coming problem. In summary, less jobs, or at least retraining, and technology taking your job, if you don't have needed or unique skills, and globalization's competition will NOT slow up to end this pressure!

There are good and bad things you can do, and things you will have to do as pressure increases. In the short term, you need to be the best job candidate possible... education, job skills, great attitude and a hard work ethic.

You are competing with EVERY worker in the world, now, because U.S. Businesses can hire anywhere, especially for jobs by people on computer, vs. requiring in-person workplaces, and can move their businesses to other nations, or merely shut down and sit on their profits, ending all the jobs they formerly offered.

You need to take a GLOBAL position on your job's future! The more people occupy this planet, the LESS jobs and advancement opportunities you have, especially as robotics and AI suck up human-filled jobs.

You should unite (unionize) to DISallow ANY U.S. Company leaving America, outsourcing many more jobs, and you should be AGAINST much immigration, as that increases pressure on YOUR job!

People from poor nations often undercut your salary, used to living on a lot less, so they offer your skills for less cost to U.S. Business, or start businesses here that lower the price charged for actions U.S. Small business owners have to charge more for, to stay in business.

You need to be adaptable, and learn to be a continual learner, meaning you may have to retrain, if your career ends or is significantly cut back! I have had to adjust, when a divorce ended my ministry career, after having already earned two college degrees. It can be done.

If you unionize, KNOW that U.S. Businesses will FLOCK to at-will employment states, so you may have to move to low tax red states, if you do not unionize nationally, and even globally—which is UNlikely.

It is NOT evil that business seeks the best skills for the lowest cost! YOU DO the SAME!:
Capitalism and justice: When you buy a house, you, generally, seek to pay the lowest possible, compared to 'comps'; when you pay a yard man to mow the lawn, you want the best value for your money; when you buy things, you don't like over-paying, and may shop around for the lowest price per quality... (5/10/18)

Again, you are competing with everyone in the world! You could move to another, cheaper-lifestyled nation, but what American wants or is willing to do that?

You MUST make it your aim to make or save your company money, if your job is not necessary for business to operate legally!:

...offer crumbs, to keep the public outcry at bay, when THEY benefit most from lowered taxes, by increasing jobs THEY literally profit from! NO business person hires anyone they can't profit off of, unless the function is 'business required,' like accountants, lawyers, H.R. (human resources) and IT (information technology) professionals! They're profiting off more jobs [or won't hire, if not, as they're NOT a charity]! (2/26/20)

Business people DON'T hire people out of the goodness of their hearts, and unless they're stupid (excepting 'business-required' functions), they profit off employees. WHY should a CEO or founder reap all the perks, when workers contributed to that success? Give profit sharing bonuses! Should it become legally-required? (2/29/20)

You can become an entrepreneur, if you have the skills, and can get a loan from a great business idea and plan (like from the SBA/Small Business Administration). You could turn off grid survivalist, and check out of this system entirely (which few will or should do). You can't stop the AI and robotics race, as it's global.

You have to have job skills robots can't easily imitate! You have to be the employee businesses can't do without! You MUST pressure rich people and business owners to be very generous charitable donors, as God Himself commands them! (I Tim. 6:17-19) DO NOT ALLOW greedy, selfish hoarders!

YOU HAVE THE NUMBERS! You do not have the ability to force this, except through sinful and evil means, like forcing it through increased taxes, or worse, South African literal uprisings to "eat the rich." After all, they are NOT being evil by being smart business people! They are only evil when they DIS-obey God's mandate for Capitalism, to be generous in giving back!

Identify which are which—selfish vs. selfless! DON'T buy from the former! Boycott businesses run by greedy SOB's! Make their competitors 'filthy rich.' Buy less, and belt-tighten. Learn to buy smarter, with best bang for the buck (value), and demand someone invent an app that in real time tells you the best value in your area for every item sold in America!

Best gasoline deals in every neighborhood, best home sales deals (like foreclosures), ALL coupons and discounts available, including those NOT advertised (i.e., insider deals). Take advantage of frequent flyer plans, and learn how to negotiate successfully, instead of just accepting the price on the product's price tag! The WORST that can happen is the retailer says 'NO.'

Learn how to market your job skills with transferrable skills. You don't always have to go back to school, if you can sell yourself well, using skills from one industry as applicable to a new one.

Work overtime. Work a second or third job. Pay the least in taxes that you legally have to! NEVER overpay, be it taxes or purchases. I once fed banana chips to pigeons, waiting for my family to tour Vegas' hotels, because I was NOT going to pay the parking rates I continually found! Be cheap; be smart! I have an entire chapter on HOW, at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>, Campaign Update tab (living large chapter).

Job security in the future will be mainly up to YOU, except for government and tenured jobs. LONG GONE are the seniority, pension and union-protected jobs, because in the 80's, when the world was opening up, unions stubbornly rejected take-it-or-leave-it U.S. Business offers of lower salaries, or outsourcing jobs!

Unions have NOT done a good job at saving U.S. Jobs, and the blame lies with their leadership, who ALWAYS profit massively, as they sometimes Scrooge the little guy—YOU.

You are directly competing with machines, and if your wage can be recouped in a few years by a permanent machine replacement, WHY WOULDN'T business do it? You would too! Jobs that can be easily imitated by robots are job skills certain to be replaced first!

I've supported a flexible minimum wage, which means it increases when the economy is doing good ($12/hour, max), but reducible when the economy flops. That's ONLY fair!

And you MUST push for the rich to pay their fair share in taxes, without any loopholes allowing them paying less! And you should take personal insult at any American never paying one dime in taxes, as that forces you to pay more in taxes, which means you have less to spend. Learn how to save (not spend all your disposable income)—DON'T dispose of it, but invest it, so your money grows!

ALL these solutions take smarts and hustle! If you don't have those, EXPECT to be poor, as it is what you earn/deserve! A great and bright future awaits America, its businesses and its workers (I have envisioned thousands of new products, businesses, and even some new industries, and can envision more), but it will NOT happen if business views employees as enemies to profits, or workers view the rich and owners as all evil people out to ruin everyone's life but theirs!

You are family, folks! You have no stable workers if you are a greedy, selfish jerk (perennial reemployment/revolving door of expensive hiring), or difficult, costly job hopping, if you aren't loyal at all to your employer(s)!

But EVERY American has to gear up for our STEM-based, information age, consuming economy in America! ANY work task that you can do easily, that requires little knowledge, or that you think a machine could be designed or programmed to do will be, so you better have better skills than that, to remain employed.

And finally, government jobs will explode, if U.S. Workers refuse to implement this plan, because that's what politicians offer to private sector unemployable people (among the many well-qualified government workers), and taxes to fund that are cheaper than business paying for their wage! That's NOT a good 'solution!'

JUSTICE AT WORK

(10/22/20-2)

EVERY one of these things hurt labor's wages: M and A, immigration, outsourcing/globalization, streamlining, automation, robotics, contract labor, increased copays. Labor HAS to fight back! Unionize, where legal. Everyone learn what everyone earns, and see if its "fair" wages, women!

I'm ONLY for fairness of wage and work! Honest day's work for an honest day's pay! That doesn't mean a living wage, if your living lifestyle is higher than you can afford, by living within your means! Market rate has been manipulated by those business actions—prior tweet—to labors DETRIMENT!

The BEST way for U.S. Wages to rise are: BEST educated workforce in the world, limited immigration, that gives preference to U.S. Economic needs and Americans first, banning much if any more outsourced jobs, incentivizing business staying in America and hiring U.S. Citizens, tax-wise, low taxes!

Unions, properly run, could help labor. When they have excessive/unreasonable demands, they HURT labor! People able to negotiate their own wages do better than sheep herd mentality of union bosses negotiating for you! I am NOT a fan of unions, because they are usually ruin evilly!

NO job security is "deserved," NO MATTER how long you have worked there, if the market doesn't justify your pay, or demand your labor function! Business owners NEED to share excess, that all workers helped make, by bonuses or profit sharing! NOT just elites have all the perks!

JUSTICE is the ONLY standard by which most people can get along! If you are being ripped off, you slack on the job, trying not to get caught, or rebel in other ways. If the worker rips off the ownership, by such slowdowns, they're treating them unjustly. JUSTICE is the only standard!

Is it morally wrong that only owners get all the profits? No, but it's better if some is shared! Justice demands that people who helped you profit benefit from helping you profit so! If workers earned fair wages, it's up to them to live off those wages—NOT business' problem if they can't!

~Everyone wants a good job, usually defined as good-paying, because ~everyone wants to be rich. Bubble burst: MOST will never be! You 'gotta learn to live on less. Globalization has made the world business oyster, and the good-paying jobs are spread across it—NOT mainly in America anymore. #RealityCheck (5/11/18)

Everyone wants a good-paying job, but do you have good-paying skills? Because if you don't, you don't deserve what you want!

You need a nation where good-paying jobs exist in good numbers! Prepare yourself to be best employee and ONLY vote for politicians who can deliver on such an economy!

"Good-paying jobs." WHO doesn't WANT THAT? Employers who pay them! You have to earn and deserve that! Government isn't to force business to overpay! It's an asinine proposal of for failed policies. I'm quite unimpressed, though they sound so good to dumber voters who can't analyze! Sad first TV ads policies!

A local TX pol says college isn't for everyone, but all deserve good-paying jobs. Good is in the emotions of the hearer! Fair is the standard! Market rate. Would YOU overpay your lawn boy? Does he think he's well-paid? Put the shoe on the other foot, and walk in business's moccasins, do-dos.

You can NEVER define good-paying jobs by what laborers WANT! Nor by comparing with Madison Ave and Hollywood images of the lifestyle some TV ads say they 'deserve!' LOOK at your spending! You spend too much, or over-pay, in many cases! You deserve what your skills can fetch! NO more.

Fair wages are freely negotiated. NOT forced by government, or bullied by tactics of business (as I listed earlier), or labor unions (walkouts, strikes, boycotts). Free market job pricing! Get a better job by shopping around—labor! Hire for cheaper by shopping around—management!

'Good-paying jobs' USUALLY means making more than you currently are! Dissatisfaction with the rate people freely agreed to earn! Champagne tastes on a beer budget. That's human nature, to feel underpaid, but it's not human behavior, that you are being ripped off, necessarily!

THESE are mainly the Democrat voters seeking government freebies!

The Psychology of Being Underpaid | Career Contessa

Clearly, it's not just you. careercontessa.com

46% of workers feel that feeling: <https://careercontessa.com/advice/psychology-underpaid/...>

55% of U.S. Women feel underpaid: <https://careercontessa.com/advice/psychology-underpaid/...>

...IF you are underpaid, quit! Move to a better-paying city or state! Shop around with your company's competitors! ASK your colleagues what they're paid! Feelings are phantoms. They don't matter, in calculating fair wages! It's either a fact that you're underpaid-or you aren't underpaid!

You're underpaid if someone with the same skills gets paid more! You're underpaid if you could do the same work for higher pay elsewhere. Go elsewhere! You're underpaid if people with less skills get paid more. This complicity of silence on what people get paid empowers injustice!

How business can pay the least: Flood the market of job applicants (immigration and outsourcing jobs); automate, so less human jobs exist. Business has been doing these things! What's labor been doing since globalization in the 90s? Struggling and complaining? Fight back, for JUSTICE!

You're underpaid if you get passed over for a deserved promotion. You have zero right to complain you're underpaid, if your evaluations don't show you to be a star! You usually feel underpaid only because you over-spend! That gap you blame on employers, vs. your guilty self! Repent!

ASK for 'mo: PayScale Inc. Survey reveals who's most likely to ask for - and get - a raise - Bizwomen When women of color ask for a raise, they are 19 percent less likely than white men to get a raise, according to a new survey by PayScale bizjournals.com

EVERY human wants to be paid more. That is not morally noble, in itself! That's just animal instinct, like craving sex or food. Justify/defend/objectify WHY you deserve more, then go ask for a raise! MOST wont-just complain to Uncle Joe (Biden). <https://bizjournals.com/.../whos-most-likely-to-ask-for...>

It's EASIER to vote to steal from taxpayers! The easy road is the lazy and sinful route! Robinhood was robbin' for the hood. The hood need not be hoodlums, but the best educated and hardest workers, to deserve 'good-paying' jobs! Forcing business to give raises is UNConstitutional!

Business pays what it has to for labor. They're NOT a charity! That's not evil. If you owned a business, you'd do exactly the same! You already do, when you hire people to do things for you, or when you buy deals! You don't purposely overpay for things, nor would any smart business person.

Deserve and negotiate for higher wages! If you can hire a good babysitter for $8/hour, vs. $18, WHICH WILL YOU CHOOSE, for this Friday night's young parents' night out date? Are you evil, because you will pay $8? The person accepting $8 accepted $8! No gun put to their head-FREE market.

You CHOOSE to be poor, if you do nothing to get out of poverty! EXACTLY the actions I listed that churches, charities and government (including every American doing 10 hours of civic service, excepting public servants) should engage, to ensure NO ONE severely suffers-financially-in America!

It's easier to complain than to compete! Easier to gripe than to grunt it out and work harder. Easier to vote than to ask for a raise. Easier to steal-through corrupt politicians-than to earn. Easier to be envious and jealous, than to plan a way to earn wealth! The easy road is the road to Hell.

The numbers are with voters stealing from taxpayers! That's also a recipe for America's doom/end! Taxpayers MUST unite to thwart Socialism, and force it to fail immediately, so freebies-seekers suffer its consequences, SOON, if Biden wins! Unite and fight! #Resist Defund Biden!

Poor people are always voting for politicians who'll steal others (taxpayers) money to pay for their lives. Aristotle said, People are much more careful of their personal possessions than of those owned communally; they exercise care over common property only in so far as they are personally affected. (10/21/19)

"Yes the truth is that men's ambition and their desire to make money are among the most frequent causes of deliberate acts of injustice." –Aristotle #UnbridledCapitalism (6/3/19)

At his best, man is the noblest of animals; separated from law and justice, he is the worst. –Aristotle (King Solomon of his age/day!; 3/3/17)

One of the wisest men ever: "There is only one way to avoid criticism: do nothing, say nothing, and be nothing." –Aristotle Amazing for his era! (2/21/17)

In a democracy the poor will have more power than the rich because there are more of them and the will of the majority is supreme. –Aristotle (12/22/16)

"The most perfect political community is one in which the middle class is in control, and outnumbers both of the other classes." –Aristotle (9/18/15)

"the greater the number of owners, the less the respect for common property. People are much more careful of their personal possessions than of those owned communally; they exercise care over common property only in so far as they are personally affected." –Aristotle

...As Aristotle said, if the people learn they can suck off the public dole, by voting, there goes democracy (paraphrased). You who rejoice when 401Ks improve, by government policies and other things, and have zero. (2/27/20)

I have NOT advocated for tax avoidance, fraud or cheating, but using every legal means to defund Biden's Socialism! That avoids a civil war or secession! Tax payer revolt need not get violent! There are ways (I've detailed) to make Biden's Socialism fail miserably, SOON, if elected.

There are Democrats among Americas 1%ers. Identify and ignore/leave them alone! They're happy paying for others' freebies, so long as GOP's are also forced to. ALL OTHERS, unite and fight! My past two days have taught you how! YOU are the majority of 1%ers in America. Defund Biden's Socialism.

.@seanhannity wondered how any GOP could be elected president, after Biden's giveaway bonanza got implemented. EASY! Force it to fail! EVERY WASP, Capitalist, business owner, taxpayer and rich person do EXACTLY what I said we unite to do, yesterday! They'll BEG for Capitalism!

WORKERS

I've said before, most people aren't uniquely talented. That means most aren't 'gonna generate exorbitant wages by the tasks they do. Employees have NO problem if businesses ever overpay—they rarely do—so some seek government to force them to. Your skills earn what you're paid, or hire elsewhere!

IF you want a better wage, besides unionizing and having better skills and work quality/ethic, oppose immigration, outsourcing and robotizing, and become management or entrepreneur material. Unless you're in sales, moving up the ladder, pay-wise, usually requires taking on more responsibility. (3/21/21-2)

(4/7/21-2)

You are NOT God, business owners and management! God sees how you keep all the goodies, from the efforts of ALL employees! He WILL destroy you on Judgment day, but He also instituted government and humans as His hands and feet to exact justice in our world. Greedy SOBs need fiscal targeting!

Workers in America could get better pay if they would strike. It would take MANY of them, and billionaire Democrats funding them for the duration. Frickin' do it! I don't write solutions for academic enjoyment! Execs can be REAL sinfully greedy and selfish. Punish that, severely!

MOST rich Americans don't want to leave America, but if taxes got too high, even if only for three years, they could renounce citizenship, use offshore safe havens, use tax schemes to legally avoid taxes, automate all jobs possible, and sue the government to SCOTUS, as unfair targeting!

(11/9/21-2)

HOW IS IT NOT FAIR that any employee whose productivity contributed to company profits doesn't deserve some portion of those profits shared? Answer: Business isn't concerned with justice, but just profits! That's where the government comes into play, as a neutral arbiter.

Justice is NOT everyone paid the same. It's NOT anyone being over-paid. It's also not employees taking what they can get, with business holding all the leverage. It's a fair wage, based on market forces that aren't solely dictated by business, but negotiated on a level playing field

Update #3: Working Stiffs

Let's help out the poor the best way I know how—teach them how to fish: Your job can fit in one of four categories, and for the poor, it will be one of the first 2–1. Hourly employee 2. Manager 3. Business owner 4. Investor Poor people must move into management, or do exceptional work, to earn raises, promotions and/or bonuses, or work long hours (overtime pay).

Dual income parents also help. Also, businesses pay differently, and these rates are NOT publicized. YOU have to research and inquire to find the best paying offer for your skills—skills you need to improve!

As a poor person, your incomes limited, so your outgo must be strictly/tightly controlled! You need discipline, and education on how to find the best values and deals. Lack of knowledge will KILL your making ends meet. Gaining that knowledge is YOUR responsibility! NOT taxpayers' problem.

IF anyone is willing to lower their standards, and work for lesser pay for the same quality of work, everyone's wages go downward! Competition from too few jobs makes people abandon self-confidence and do such, and ONLY business benefits, as a result. Poor people NEED to comprehend this

Global competition is racing for AI and robotize, one day the world's governments will have to regulate their use, as the least skilled citizens will be permanently out of a job! The race can continue, but it's toward government regulation, globally! 666 beast image MAY be that! Rev. 13

FOOLS accept crumbs, as corporations rake in millions! Workers won't strike or unionize nowadays, so they are resorting to voting for Dem freebies, instead. IF the rich don't start obeying God (I Tim. 6:17-19), I am for them being taxed more, so pain is equal for ALL, including all Dems! (10/27/21-2)

BLUE COLLAR

Many blue collar whites resent blacks getting attention, because they think employers will favor them, to make up for slavery, and allege 'reverse discrimination.' They fear immigrants will work for lower wages, and undercut their jobs. They don't fully accept Capitalism's implications

Unless a business chooses to lose profits, for patriotism, the lowest wage for the best quality is what every business would naturally choose! Chinese and Indian labor offered U.S. Manufacturers a better deal than blue collar Americans would accept. Now, we're globally competitive!

Just because one was born here doesn't guarantee them a job for life. America is competitive, as Capitalism is competitive. No college, no advanced job skills, physical labor leanings lead to automation or lower-wage immigrants endangering job security! NOT government or business' problem! Yours.

US businesses can automate, outsource, or import labor. Good 'ol boys who believe patriotism requires U.S. Businesses to hire Americans first DON'T understand globalism, or that it won't ever be reversed! Government can encourage and incentivize manufacturers returning here. Labor rates differ America evolved from agrarian to manufacturing/assembly line to an information age economy. The MORE non-college educated American workers DON'T have elite blue collar skills, the more they'll lose out, when knowledge is now power in that third wave information—and tech/STEM economy!

It may be normal/natural to feel your own country owes you first choice for jobs, over newer comers, but business is about profits, and profits are had by sales or cut expenses. Labor and facilities are the highest expenses. U.S. Working class have to compete with global labor skills! Required

Cost of living seems to continually increase. Every business always wants to be able to charge more than they presently do. It's NOT easy to live in such an advanced society, and without college, you better work long hours, or have unique skills few others possess (or live cheaply).

More than 65 percent of Americans don't go to college. Most aren't 'gonna move away! our economy HAS to develop "good-paying" jobs for them. Their spending expectations must be lessened, because in a global economy, labor is not scarce, but jobs are more! Economic common sense.

WHY would ANY U.S. Business pay for an American citizen instead of a cheaper equally-qualified laborer from elsewhere? Blue collar Americans have to start learning they compete with labor they'll never see. When Covid unemployment checks end, reality will hit about labor exceeding jobs

The ONLY rational way for US-born citizens and patriots without college to make good money is to learn how to live cheaper and buy smarter! Make less go further! I've listed probably 10 ways to do that, like coops, best buys app, DIY, home grown garden, coupons, etc. Learn the skills!

Everyone cannot be rich. Everyone capable of being rich can B, but the global and U.S. Economy are a pyramid. With best-paying jobs on the top. It will NEVER become an upside down pyramid, or a box with all rich people. Romney said he wished everyone were rich. Pinocchio pipe dream! Will NEVER happen!

Mk. 14:6 As one lifted from another, the economy IS a pyramid! READ Rich Dad, Poor Dad (book). Investors and owners on top, then managers, then workers/"grunts." EVERY business needs minimum wage workers! Their function/service will ALWAYS be needed. in days of old, immigrants were shipped in to do.

Many people mouth buy Made in the America, but MOST people buy the best value for the price! If made in America isn't the best deal, I'll NEVER buy it, per item, because I'm not 'gonna be charged extra for showing patriotism through purchases, vs. through sincere love of my country, and a great deal!

Protectionist policies HURT workers in the medium-term! They're artificial/trumped up barriers to competition and sales! You may not convince people having to stretch a dollar that this is true, as they only see a need for a BIGger paycheck. Leaders teach the TRUTH, liked or not!

If U.S. Businesses do well, America does well, and tax revenues do well. If U.S. Businesses do poorly, just the opposite. U.S. Workers HAVE to be the best in class world-classed trained labor force on the face of this green earth! If not, expect lower wages! Your choice what you do, or don't.

Russian, Chinese, Indian and Japanese home-based companies LIKELY hire nationals, over others, unless exceptionally talented. They fit in, know the culture, speak the language, and it helps their economy, with wages that get taxed. America should do NO differently! America first, by U.S. Government

The ONLY way U.S. Workers can be put first, by government policy, is our education system to produce the best-equipped graduates for the current and future economy! NOT protectionism, nationalism, or ending all immigration! No American left behind, or failing schools—period!

The ONLY labor America needs from afar is the best brains, best skills, or best labor for the cheapest price, as those assets benefit U.S. Businesses, and deter them outsourcing or moving away! US citizens have to offer U.S. Businesses their best effort and skills, to keep up, in a global economy!

LIVING WAGE

(12/28/21-2)

Let's talk about the poor and opening a business. That would solve their problem, but isn't often done. SBA or bank loans are rare, without a provable concept. Just having an idea isn't having a business plan. The poor need to be taught to be entrepreneurs, without a business degree!

A poor person will work in front lines or entry level work, from lack of skills, education or experience. They might work into management, but are UNlikely business owners—stats show. Their hope for a future is NOT the lottery, but qualifying for higher-paying jobs! Better skills.

EVERYONE wants a "living wage"—to be able to live off what they earn. Problems are: 1. Businesses don't owe you that. It's what your skills are worth on the open market 2. Everyone's lifestyle costs differ. 3. YOU are responsible to earn what you need to live off of. NO ONE else.

THE KEY for poor people is better-paying skills, and better buying skills! The latter are much easier to acquire! The former take time, money, and may not increase pay a ton, depending on one's innate/natural talent capabilities. Buy smart, as step 1! LEARN how. Be the best purchaser.

Poor people are usually not the brightest. Yet, for buying things, they NEED to be the brightest! That dilemma/gap has to be bridged by education on buying smart! NO ONE can help you get more from your limited funds if you buy stupidly, or overpay! That's 100 percent on you! Self-imposed

It's NOT illegal to take advantage of dumb purchasers! NO ONE owes any consumer teaching them where the best value or deals can be found, especially not retailers/businesses. If you aren't curious, or don't shop around, all overpaying is all on YOU! Taxpayers don't owe you any bailouts!

Dems get accused of being lazy. Voting for taxpayer funded freebies actually is lazy, as people don't want to put in the work to unionize, vote for minimum wage increases, or earn higher pay! They just want to steal through government. It's faster and easier, meaning LAZY and unjust.

WHY should any person not in your nuclear family be called upon to help pay YOUR bills? Any so willing are at crowd funding sites! ANYONE who depends or looks to government to help with their bills has a horrible view of what governments do, are supposed to do, and aren't mature adults, with one exception—those 100 percent mentally or physically disabled.

Entry level jobs are for high school drop outs and graduates, with little experience! Parents and adults long since out of school shouldn't be caring what minimum wage is. WHAT DID THEY DO BETWEEN high school and now, work-wise?

It's MERCY that'd have taxpayers aid the poor to become self-sufficient, economically. I am FOR such mentoring mercy, even forced, but NOT money, but Welfare and patriot service that educates and motivates the poor, as a decent society. It's NOT morally required! Your bills are on you!

High schools should enable every American to: 1. Know how to buy smartest 2. Maximize their identified talents 3. Have best pay job skills if no future college 4. Be financially literate for self-sufficiency WHERE ELSE are we SURE all learn these necessities? #CommonSense

And EVERY U.S. High school MUST be mandated to ensure NO ONE falls through the cracks, in making the best grades they're capable of! Some learn differently. That difference is on educators—NOT students! The non-college bound MUST be graduated with employable job skills! NOT academics!

We, as a society, have to care enough to keep everyone from being a burden to the public dole, that our high schools graduate people capable of independent success skills! It's NOT enough to say they passed subjects we mandated they learn! At age 18, you're to stand on your feet.

Update

(1/14/22-2)

I just read a post that D.C. Politicians do the bidding of corporations—NOT the people. JUSTICE DEMANDS D.C. NOT favor either! I pray if they continue doing so, God wipes them all off the map, if they won't repent! NOT freebies, but level playing field for wages and opportunities—PERIOD!

To EVERYONE who does not deem themselves rich (earning less than $100K/year, I will say): YOU must fight for power against politicians bought off by the rich! They already have life wonderful. God's NOT 'gonna intervene, most likely. YOU have to unite, Dem and GOP! Level playing field!

Labor has NO leverage in America. They're at the mercy of business. THAT MUST CHANGE! No justice, no peace! I'm still angry that average Joes buy into favoring the rich, in public policy, AS IF that ever helps you! They're already blessed beyond measure! Wake up and unite for good wages!

IF the Democrat party would abandon seeking freebies, for the four solutions I propose for workers, I could easily see a future one day with them (2028, 2032?!). Voluntary profit sharing, limited outsourcing, decent minimum wage (NOT a living wage), and less immigration!

The people have more votes! Overpaid execs and CEOs should not get away with that! Boards of Directors are flooded with the likeminded! GOP's making less than 100,000 NEED to hold their nose and unite with WORKING Dems; not lazy bums, to end the income disparity/gap!

Limbaugh argued no execs overpaid, as someone pays 'em. LIE! YES, someone pays them, but those who vote to overpay them get their backs scratched, as well, financially! And investors put in place people who bless mainly their investments! Selfishly indulgent cannibalism of all others.

I have said, MANY times, NO ONE deserves a higher minimum wage, whose work ethic doesn't deserve it. I am NOT for overpaying labor, but fairly paying them. When biz holds all the cards, no one can accuse them of being fair! EQUAL PLAYING FIELD! Gods for justice! Mic. 6:8

I want people able to live off their wage, but that's not by overpaying, but learning to live within your means.

HOW TO MAKE IT AS A MILLENNIAL

(11/29/19)

Generations XYZ start life as the low 'man' on the economic totem pole. NOTHING can change that status. YOU, however, can change where you climb to, ASAP! To keep costs down, read our FREE chapter at the 'Campaign Update' button at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>, entitled 'Living Large, Paying Puny.'

Literally, getting married or having roommates cuts the large expense of housing. Making great grades in high school. Making contacts, and volunteering (Ex.: internships), and helping people networked with helps.

You can invest your $220 sport shoes, and start a business with an SBA loan. You work hard, impress the boss, do more or better than your coworkers, shop your skills around, world-wide, and always be improving your skills, connections, and awareness of market rate, and employers you could meet or impress.

Living at home is SMART, for a time, and the free or barter economy is brilliant! The "kids" who do NOT earn the top marks have life rougher! You need to learn every tip I've advised for poor people. Investing, opening a business, inventing or writing a sellable product are also means, as with studying how the rich got rich, and imitating success. Doing a job you like, and are good at—NOT just chosen by wage alone.

You have to make or save a business money, for you to make money, unless your job is business-required, like an accountant. There are high-paying industries, like engineer, lawyer, doctor. Those aren't for everyone. Don't be an employee forever! Have multiple income streams. You will make it, over time.

P.S.: Millennials want to be where 35 and 40 year old's are, so they're tempted to save $10-20K+ in expenses voting for handouts. Everyone who came before you worked their way up, climbing the corporate ladder. You're no different. Nothing in life is free. Learn how to ascend, ASAP, and have reasonable expectations!

Government is NOT a means to a pay raise or job promotion you didn't ask for or deserve. That punishes businesses you agreed to a wage to work for, and especially tax payers who hired no one!
LEARN #CommonSense

Millennials are idealistic, and question all the rules. That is an amazing perspective on life and culture, but it also has to be informed by facts, experience and a sense of fairness to all. As they say, 'And Justice For All,' and "No Justice No Peace."

Poor people and Millennials: There is NO person on earth working to make you rich, unless you can make them richer, except your parents! Apply this fact if you want to get ahead in your career! People aren't in business as a charity. Only politically-minded people even care to help you do better, except good parents.

Update

IF society is for fairness, NO employee should EVER have a better chance of getting a job because of family or friend connections, where they graduated from, or nepotism! The U.S. CLAIMS the best-qualified candidates get the job, though that's OFTEN a MYTH that should be ILLEGAL! 'And justice for ALL!' #MorePerfectUnion

Conservatives ALWAYS favor family over government, on sex ed. FINE! But on everything else, family's info is NOT equal, and every U.S. Student deserves to know all insider knowledge on careers, IF we want justice, not favoritism and bias, empowering elitism! 'And justice for ALL!' #MorePerfectUnion MYTHS?

DID YOU KNOW that the majority of U.S. Jobs get posted INTERNALLY (i.e., hiring from within), and the public learns of them LATE, by force of law? HOW is that FAIR for better-qualified people on the outside? EEOC laws need more specifics, and bigger teeth! 'And justice for ALL.' Fairness is God's standard! (Mt. 6:10)

There's a management trick often used, to test an applicant's interest in a job: Ignore you. It's evil, but it's also the persistent one who shows employers more interest than other applicants! They have to be able to distinguish the wheat from the chaff. ALWAYS manage people. Hold them accountable (including hiring personnel)!

Should American colleges and employers be legally allowed to favor citizens over immigrants and illegals? ABSOLUTELY! America has a responsibility to America's people! Most of us aren't 'gonna move to another nation, where we know no one, nor the language! Foreigners are GUESTS, vs. citizen owners!

MILLIBERALS AGAINST CAPITALISM

Milliberals (i.e., Millennial liberal extremists, most loudly) are decrying Capitalism, even willing to tear down everything it built and stands for. They've been taught, better, been-brainwashed or otherwise believe Capitalism is evil, and Socialism is morally good.

Let's analyze that 'sentiment' (not logical argument): First, NO ONE can deny history, that the United States has had the greatest economic engine, especially since World War 2, and that our strong military has kept us safe from invasion, or war on our own turf, paid for from that great economy.

If you don't like our having these things, you have freedom! Use it to LEAVE! Most nations that are small have poorer economies, much poverty, and the people suffer greatly, at the hands of and at the expense of the ruling class, living in luxury.

America is the number one nation where ANYONE can make of themselves anything they so desire! We do not have caste systems, where your upward mobility depends on your family's heritage, or religious or skin tone status.

In America, there are NO legal barriers to you succeeding as greatly as your God-given capabilities allow! No other country is so flocked to by outsiders! BUT, if you have few skills, or don't want to work hard, America is NOT for you!

We are not solely rugged individualists—we have a safety net, but it's for emergency cases—but we are for personal responsibility! No one born in the America works so they can pay money to any other family.

We each have and take moral responsibility for our own. We strive to live within our means, budget, and we certainly do not look to other people, by force of government, to help us pay the bills we freely choose to incur!

This, at its core, is Capitalism! The God-given freedom to pursue happiness, without undue restraints. No other country has achieved what we have! List all the great inventions and advancements for mankind, and the majority came from HERE!

You can call that bragging, but it's a fact, Jack, and it's why people risk their lives to get here! ALL of these accomplishments came from a belief in free market Capitalism! Business people and investors felt secure enough spending their money to build up businesses that would return a profit. That is NOT evil!

As Warren Buffett says, don't lose money! Only charities can endure breaking even. There is a MYTH going around in youthful circles that government has unlimited money, or more to spend than we currently do. Our debt (mainly to our enemy, China) is about $23 TRILLION, and quickly climbing. And learn this fact... government's money comes ONLY from tax payers—NO ONE ELSE!

That means all the lazy people who want anything for free, rather than working for it, are attempting to STEAL richer people's assets, by taxation, because government's money is ONLY tax payer's money, as it makes no money on its own labors and services.

So any time anyone wants anything "for free," they mean free for them; NOT free for everyone. And even if healthcare was made free for everyone, the only ones who would foot the bill and be out that expense are tax payers!

NOTHING in life is free, except the air we breathe! Even our very liberty was paid for by the lives of deceased soldiers! When people clamor to vote for freebies and handouts, it is the exact theft of one robbing you at gun point, or the beggar on the street corner. They simply use the voting booth to sanitize their theft!

And God help these Milliberals when they, one day have families, mortgages, decent careers and pay taxes! Hypocritically (a sin), they will be fighting yet another inexperienced generation wanting THEM to pay for handouts! Age and experience usually make people wiser. That is their problem, craving Socialism—life inexperience!

One young tweeter said 'eat the rich and let there be equality,' as they mint money and buy politicians. That is NOT how the rich get rich. These type people have zero chance to ever make it, financially, because their attitudinal focus is jealousy of others, vs. smart, hard work that pays them well! (5/31/20)

MILLIBERAL THINK

(6/27/20)

You know, all these older generations have screwed us, eating up Social Security 'til it's bone dry, soon; making us work, so it gets funded, debt at $23 trillion (and climbing) that they won't pay off/down, because they'll be dead, and we'll be stuck holding the bag.

They shipped out the good jobs, they automate, and use AI and robotics to ruin our job opportunities, so only 'the man' gets paid well.

We're smarter than them, as we're the terminal/last generation, and we're 'gonna get things right, for once!

They went into Iraq and Afghanistan, under false WMD pretenses, being 'mean' to 'innocents,' and getting the U.S.A. Into Vietnam, etc. Heck, they love war—they were in World Wars I and II, and even our very nation was founded upon looting, pillaging, violence and theft, so let's use those 'virtues' to make things right in America, for once!

911 happened, and Hitler happened, but you don't retaliate, as innocents can get hurt that way... war is always wrong; better to love people, and hand them a flower with a smile!

To get our way—the right way—we'll use those very tactics on behalf of the heirs to America's evil foundations—the brown, black man and red man, through riots, looting, and burning down the system! It's all corrupt, anyway!

Why should anyone have wealth, when many so many are poor? That's not 'fair!' Let's make life fair! Give us $15/hour wages, no matter our skills or experience, because we can, by voting for that!

We now have the power to organize, through social media, and Hollywood celebrities love our noble causes! Guns hurt people, in mass- and school shootings, so it's only logical that we confiscate them all, so problem fixed, right?

And who's to say I'm a male or female? I can be anything I want, as I'm an equal! It's 'the man' who's having all the fun—he has NO right to be so rich! Humble him, and force him to pay up.

In an information age, people need a college education, so let ambiguous, depersonalized "government" pay for college! Working parents have to have babysitters (it's illegal to keep your kid home alone, before age 14, or so), so let ambiguous, depersonalized "government" pay for our daycare!

And if we ever get a headache, let us have free paid time off, even if we're not sick, but we just feel like having an extra day to goof off, or protest). Why not a four-day work week [which I actually like!]? Forty hours is even a stretch—why not make it 25 or 30? You've got to enjoy life, too, and Europe teaches us so many things that America does wrong, like not getting the entire month of August off, fully paid! We work too hard! Why are we treated like slaves? I deserve healthcare, as a human right, because I was born in a body that gets sick!

Why can't everyone in America have universal basic income, so we never have to stress if we lose a job, or suffer another pandemic, or just for mental health peace of mind—a core security blanket so we're sure not to suffer, starve or die!

No, Boomers and all who have gone before us were not as enlightened as we, and America is not great, but greedy and selfish, and catering mainly to the rich, and we say 'eat the rich,' and screw the society that raised us, because we have a better plan, and we're bound and determined to see it to fruition, because if we lack education, experience, money or clout, we have one vote, and we will unionize social media to get protests and rioters to bring attention to our cause, so we can vote in this new vision of America.

And then we can offer this land to the world, by open borders, so we can spread the love and share the wealth, because it's all evil that has come before, and we alone have the knowledge of how things should be done, because all other generations were evil and foolish, greedy and selfish hoarders, and we are smart and moral, and we choose to make a difference and a better world with our vote!

It's only by not thinking this way that the world is as it is, in its many evil ways! All you have to do is think this way, and see this better way, and John Lennon's 'Imagine' can be ours!

America is evil, and we will change that, starting from its beginnings! The white and rich people will get what's coming to them!

We LOST Bernie and Pocahontas; now we have some establishment milquetoast who's NOT fully for all this, so we're taking the bull by the horns, and taking things into our own hands, until AOC's quad gang can get in power, and really ream evil Capitalism, and those rich people who buy off politicians to stay rich, and keep us—force us to be—poor as slaves!

If for any reason you think this morning's depiction of 'Milliberal think' is out there, crazy or far-fetched, you simply have not listened, observed, or analyzed the things being done and said by them, in these protests, riots and on social media! WAKE UP!

Your country is at stake from traitorous insider insurrectionists.

"Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same, or one day we will spend our sunset years telling our children and our children's children what it was once like in the United States where men were free." —Ronald Reagan

P.S.: Also add-in defunding the police, and the military will be next; why even have school—it hasn't gotten any prior generations to see this future vision, and we don't have to be skilled or smart—just vote! Zuckerberg has offered them ~$30,000/year to sit on their cans/duffs, so he, through AI (and robotics?) can rule the world, economically!

THE MILLIBERAL "THOUGHT" PROCESS

(7/31/20)

People say we live in an information and STEM age, where you need a college education to get a good job. I want a good job, but I can't afford college, so, just like we have public education through grade 12, why not extend it to grade 16?

And, while we're at it, I have to have dual incomes, so why can't daycare for my kids be paid for by government, or my spouse or myself are basically working to pay for daycare, so I'm not getting ahead. And everyone lives in a body that will fail, so it's a universal human right that I get healthcare that is so expensive in America!

And why? Why must others (taxpayers) pay for it all? Why not? They can afford it, they're enjoying life better than me, and that's not right or fair, and I have a vote, and Dems will promise me these things, so why wouldn't I?

In fact, with AI and robotics, my job's 'gonna be replaced, so why not elect as President a guy whose ONLY idea is giving us all $12,000 a year, just for being alive (UBI), or be for anything Facebook does, because its founder promotes $30,000 a year to sit around and do nothing, so elitists can pursue as much money as they can earn?

Hasn't this pandemic taught us that Uncle Sam has the money! It's just how politicians decide to spend it! It's virtually limitless, says my hero, AOC. 'Debt' is just a word old white men use to justify hoarding, and keeping all their ill-gained wealth off the backs of American Indians and black slaves, anyway! STOLEN land from Mexico, too.

I'm 'gonna right these historic wrongs, by tearing down other people's property and businesses, including statues, because there's power in numbers, and the cops can't do anything if we unite! They need to lose their job function in society anyway, because a few of them kill black people, even though their own lives can be at stake, in many of those cases.

It's a human life! You never kill another person (except in the womb), even a heinous murderer, because the death penalty is evil, and needs to be abolished, along with cops! Let unarmed social workers defuse and talk down people engaged in violent crime. They can reason with them. Positive Mental Attitude!

And we have a right to march and protest, without end, disrupting businesses and traffic flow, because that's what it means to be a patriotic American. Even if some loot, arson, throw Molotov cocktails or seek to blind cops with lasers, that's justified, given all the violence slaves endured at the hands of the evil white man!

We have every right to barrage the NBA with our beliefs, now even replacing players' names on jerseys, because there are so many white people in America who actually believe black people are genetically inferior, if not sub-human!

The PROOF that they exist is how many blacks live in poverty! Someone has forced that condition on them, and it has to be the race that owns the majority of the money and jobs!

So don't resist or complain when we mob together to threaten what's yours, especially behind gated neighborhoods, as you have no right to separate yourself from the other half who live on the wrong side of the tracks! You must feel what we live through, daily, by fearing our taking what's rightfully yours.

You probably got your wealth by inheritance from slave owners, anyway, or stealing, or defrauding the poor and less-educated, so it's only just that I vote against you, and support a career politician who incites hatred of the rich and business owners in his latest TV ad, because, as he says, I deserve to be paid what I'm worth, and I alone know that value, because I feel it, and it's always higher than market rate, because 'the man' is always out to screw me so he can get rich off my back, and lack of job skills or experience!

Well I'm no dummy, and I'm mad, and I'm not 'gonna take it anymore, Eddie! I've put my protest foot down, and nothing a doddering old dead man named Aristotle could say (like democracy ends when people get the notion that they can vote themselves raises off the public dole) has any relevance to this situation, as I'm a member of the smartest generation, who knows that injustices need to be fixed, and history white-washed from our memory/collective conscience!

Debt? Like age, just a number. Stock market? Just paper earnings of the rich getting richer. GDP? Not even sure what that means, or is, specifically. Earning a living? What's that? Government pays me $600 a week to protest and destroy America!

If Covid is around, at least 'til Nov. 3rd, Dems have proven they have zero fiscal restraint, so why wouldn't I encourage them hiking the debt so I can keep desecrating and graffiti 'artist' vandalizing our streets with signs VERY few Americans didn't already believe?

I will organize my demon hordes of youth to cancel any business or job of anyone who disagrees with these beliefs, because we are not advocating Venezuelan Socialism, with violence and civil war—we're just saying make a more perfect union, and justice for all, so anyone who opposes this ideology is, by very definition, evil, and should be shoved back under the rock they came from.

IF you haven't yet gotten the sarcasm of today's message, your IQ is demonstrably low, yet this is the exact "thought" process going on in the sheepish group think idiocy we see in Portland, and elsewhere. WHERE DID MY GENERATION FAIL THESE PEOPLE? Our education system must be atrocious! Have a great day.

YOUTH & DATING

THIS message is for ALL our youth. IMO, if you want a spouse, God has one for you! Your best way to find them is seeking Him. If you have no such interest, I still believe there's an Eve for every Adam, and vice versa, if you want that. USE eHarmony. They ask so many questions, they've got to find you a match!

You have to have confidence; NOT people thinking more highly of themselves than they ought, but solid peace from having goals, and a plan for your life. Even if you're fat, ugly, or not the brightest, confidence sells. It shows you're in charge, vs. drifting with the wind and waves.

Always put your best foot forward, and hold back on revealing your deepest, darkest secrets, till the relationship matures, some. Dress nice, smile, smell good, don't say stupid things, compliment, and have some humor. There are millions of singles out there! One is for you!

Be yourself, be honest, be moral, care about their interests, don't brag, be interesting, plan fun dates, be respectful, find common ground, communicate, listen, don't talk over or over-talk. You will find your mate, and God can't wait for you to, if that's your desire. Be your best!

I have asked Mark Cuban (by Twitter) to open his enclosed stadium, once a month, with a small entry fee, for singles to find dates, as it can be hard if you're not on a college campus, or working at a large firm! Everyone's so busy and spread out (and online can be so impersonal, as well as catfishing potentiality).

CHRISTIANS, CAPITALISM & CONSERVATISM

(11/23/22-2)

BECAUSE I AM A CHRISTIAN, I CANNOT and NEVER WILL BE A CONSERVATIVE. Let me explain!

Pure Capitalism is EVIL. It is Darwinian. It IS dog eat dog. It IS every man for himself. You will NEVER see that attitude/value taught in the Bible, even though you WILL see be/reach your God-given potential, private property, and making money off your money, in a bank! What gives?

Yesterday, NBC had an article about a company that uses the rich's excess to buy out home owners and convert their home into a rental. Policies allowing this are favoring people with cash to spare, or the rich. Morally, that violates Levit. 19:15! ANY time public policy isn't fair, but allows leverage by only one side, it is EVIL.

LOOK at the end game of pure Capitalism: Monopoly, the rich (alone) get richer (with NO emphasis on give back), greed is good is the foundational value, and there will eventually be NO place for the poor Jesus said will always be with us. Why? They get priced out of the market, and out of the United States!

That same economic value system we call "conservatism" has NO problem if one man owned everything, so long as he/she did so legally, but then it never wants making money having any legal restrictions, or "regulations." THIS IS LAODICEA, folks.

It is what the Bible calls "worldliness." It could NEVER be described as modeling what Christ taught, even as Christian Nationalists want to force their warped views of God onto all of America.

Again, as rent and mortgages rise [usually the first and top priority expense people ensure gets paid], "because that's what the market will bear," the poor can either go homeless, or go/move to Mexico, where the cost of living is so much lower, as the standard of living is so sub-par, on average, for the poor, compared to America.

And this entire economic system is designed this way, and designed to ONLY cater to the middle and upper classes, under the guise (or promise?) of unlimited opportunity! Literally, conservatism ONLY favors rich people (usually older, white and many males). LOOK at my proof:

They HATE all "wealth redistribution." That's a fancy way of saying government better NEVER help any poor American—period!

They always want lower taxes, because one can never own enough, even though God says you CAN have enough and ought to learn contentment, and the rich ought to give back (I Tim. 6:17-19).

They only want cops and military funded by taxes. WHY? Those two entities protect their stuff from enemies, foreign and abroad. That's the main reason, folks! It's also why they MOUTH a belief in "God," yet ultimately rely on guns, because cops can't always get to their domicile fast enough when there is any threat to their idolized assets and properties!

It is a system that favors the rich! They fight estate taxes, anything that betters society (like our ecology, or solving problems) IF tax dollars are involved, or business profits are ever curtailed, because "business' ONLY purpose it profits," they teach in business schools.

They are so pro-business (as I am pro-business) that they empower and embrace business doing anything for profit, and they whine if any regulations (or restrictions) are ever put on businesses, by "evil" government, because "it's MY business—government has no right to tell me how to run MY business."

It's a system based in selfishness! It doesn't even desire any safety net! Even Social Security (which people WORKED to have, and earned by paying in) they want to end, because of only one reason: MANY PEOPLE WHO ARE RICH DONT GIVE ONE CARE ABOUT ANYONE ELSE, ESPECIALLY THE POOR.

I use the abbreviated term -D because God literally judges, or damns, this system in Bible prophecy! Rev. 16-18. Babylon is fallen, like sinful mankind is fallen in Adam.

So to be a pure Capitalist (as I was in college, as a member of Students In free Enterprise) is to be antichrist, and NOT pro-God, as claimed, folks! I was ignorant! I believed what I was told and raised in. I had never put my new found (as to applying it) faith into practice!

It is NOT that Socialism is the answer, biblically, but can ANYONE sincerely say many European nations are EVIL, and God-opposing, to inflict a sprinkle of mercy in their public policy, with some subsidies? You'd have to be drunk, on drugs, or crazy lying, to believe so!

Healthcare. The ability to afford to keep your body from sickness and even death, can become a LUXURY? Balderdash! So I will forever, here on out, be committed to this one value before God:

I cannot be a pure Capitalist or a pure conservative. And NO true Christian can be, but they are, all the time, because the majority don't take their faith seriously, or judge their own lives by what the Bible actually teaches!

Just what they might learn in a sermon. Statistics bear me out, and have for nearly 40 years! The Bible calls it "carnality," and severely frowns upon its existence. Church discipline is also one remedy it prescribes, which NO church would ever obey, because the customer is king. Whose bread I eat his song I sing. Never bite the hand that feeds you.

THIS IS CORRUPT CAPITALISM IN THE CHURCH, folks! Never expect or even kindly demand Christians obey God's teachings. Just come and pay up, regularly! THIS one entity, the Church, is both the cause of the problem, and the solution to America's problems, according to II Chron. 7:14.

The poor you will always have with you, but not Jesus, and He is certainly OUTSIDE of a Church, or even a Christ-claiming nation, knocking to get inside, when money and wealth are the core value He taught was NOT life's purpose, Laodiceans! Lk. 12:15

You'll NEVER hear a sermon like this! WHY?

BIBLICAL MASCULINITY

(11/23/22-2)

FIFA's World Cup WOULD have been an ideal venue for launching the black and white arm emblems supporting the Straight Supermajority, to balance their foolish politicization with the rainbow flag! I've called for such for quite awhile!

The rise of gay people in USA, politically, has, naturally, brought about a counter movement of machismo & testosterone-promoting, like some character, Nick Adams' perversion of Christianity's view on gender, masculinity and sex.

Ban every abortion, by force of law, force to birth and let no one responsibly prevent unwanted pregnancies by outlawing birth control, but promote Hooters, FAKE or carnal immature Christian "Saint" Nicholas?

No, his over-reaction to the sin of effeminatism in gays is to go also contrary to the Jesus he will claim (confession is not always possession, folks). There are times you need a he-man! Rugby, pro football, racing into fires, on the front lines, and on the thin blue line.

But Jesus is the ultimate male, and He was neither effeminate, gay, or macho. A "man's man." He might have been viewed as, ONLY depending on one's definition of that term!

The muscle-bound "alpha male" brute, who bullies his way through life owning and dominating others, and making his woman submit to him is NOWHERE IN THE BIBLE a characterization of what it means to be male!

And I greatly appreciate Matt Walsh's question, 'what is a woman,' as the trans efforts and grooming attempts at queer story hours are EVIL perversions of God ordained genders! It's all based in identity confusion, blurring clear lines of demarcation, and Satan is its ultimate author.

I am ALL for treating ALL LGBTQs with equal respect as human beings created in the image of God, NOT discriminating against them in non-religious entity employment, not discriminating in housing, etc., but it can never be achieved (the goal many are seeking) to force or pressure by majority consent, the moral super-majority to accept that sodomy is morally equal to monogamy in God-ordained marriage between a man and a woman, only.

So U.S. manufacturers: GET ON with making black and white arm bands, flags, and attire, to balance out the gay pride parade events, and have a counter balance to this perverse force seeking to normalize perversion.

LOVE the sinner; hate the sin. For some reason we find it hard to see both sides of a balanced equation! It's either hate the sinner or love the sin; one or the other; not both and. You CAN walk and chew gum at the same time!

THE AMERICAN MAJORITY IS NOT EXTREME!

(11/23/22-2)

DISTINCTIONS. They're important, and you learn about them in law school. I'm NOT talking about distinguished people, but slighter differences that are bigger than they may appear. It's NOT like black vs. right, but dark vs. light gray. The difference can be crucial, nonetheless! Example:

BOTH major political parties have two sides, and they've decided to remain united, despite their differences, as their values in common outweigh those differences, as their beliefs in common are more different from the other party than their own differences.

I will and would NEVER agree with pure conservatism. Compassionate conservatism and mild Democrat beliefs I can find home and company at, either way! WHY can't I EVER agree with liberalism or conservatism, but only moderate Dem and GOP beliefs (the mainstream majority middle)?

On a select number of issues, I'll show you EXACTLY why (which argues for a BIG new Centrist third party!). I will place the extreme view on the left, and my similar but different view on the right, for liberalism and conservatism, and you can SEE why I will NEVER join any extreme!

1. Abort after heartbeat (including after birth) VS. before heartbeat (except mom's life and vegetative baby), but favoring Plan B within three days of any sex that MAY cause fertilization, if one's not sure they want to be parents as a result.

2. Gun-grabbing VS. reasonable restrictions, like red flag laws NEVER abused, background checks and required training (to prove you know how to use and store guns), and serial numbers (so cops can always chase down chains of possession, in crimes involving stolen weapons).
3. Global warming/climate change VS. man may and likely does have SOME negative impact needing remediation.
4. Freebies VS. some government subsidies, ALL of which have to be paid back by at least token if not actual pay back of civic service.
5. LGBTQ rights normalizing sodomy and gender confusion VS. respecting them as human equals, while disagreeing with those choices and aberrant feelings.
6. Light on crime VS. respecting valid criminal rights, seeking rehab, where possible, and always opposing ALL police brutality
7. BIG government VS. moderate sized to be only as big as absolutely necessary, and therefore "small" by comparison.
8. Open borders VS. allowing in all skills our economy needs; ONLY!
9. Appeasement VS. STRONG national defense, including wars as a last but viable resort, where necessary (just wars).
10. Censorship VS. free speech with guidelines and warnings about lies, misinformation, or abusive language.
11. Socialism VS. Bridled Capitalism.
12. Separation of Church and State VS. freedom of religion, government NOT prohibiting or establishing any religion(s)
13. Government control to affect the economy VS. free market with reasonable boundaries.

IF you have any brain waves, that's centrism compared to liberalism. Let's now compare it to conservatism, with centrism on the right:

1. Total abortion bans, no exceptions, including birth control prohibited VS. my position, stated earlier.
2. Pro-gun (meaning zero restrictions for anyone on anything) VS. my position, stated earlier.
3. ZERO agreement man does any damage to the environment VS. my position.
4. No wealth redistribution, at all, ever VS. my position.
5. Hating if not hurting LGBTQs, mocking them, and trying to make their lives miserable, any way that's legal, or not, including discrimination VS. my position.
6. Never questioning any police choices, or decrying police brutality VS. my back the blue position.
7. Small government so small the feds bills can't be paid, the rich get favored (some don't pay their fair share), and government is never allowed to fix anything or help anyone, because if something can't be profited off of enough, you just allow it to continue VS. my position.
8. Closed immigration VS. controlled borders of MY position.
9. Hawkish, trigger-happy national security policy VS. my position.

10. Lies, propaganda, violence threats, conspiracy theories, and believing anything, where opinions are deemed equally valued with facts VS. my position.

11. Unbridled Capitalism, where the rich get richer off the backs of everyone else, with zero give back required VS. my position, which includes required profit sharing, according to how a business is profited, and disallowing accounting games to hide profits from employees. Employees' share is according to their contribution, or not (i.e., they vary).

12. Religion controlling government (say Marjorie Taylor Green) VS. the First Amendment/my position.

13. No government involvement in our economy, where anything goes (i.e., the wild west) VS. my position.

It's CLEAR, centrism is superior, and both parties can adopt it, with slighter distinctions" than extremists!

P.S. The joke of the golden rule being he with the gold rules is ANTI-biblical! Morality and justice are to control public policy—NOT buying off politicians to favor the rich or their businesses! This is common sense, and biblical, and centrist political doctrine/dogma!

Rich and poor are equals under the law (Lady Justice is blindfolded), and leverage between management/ownership and labor/employees MUST be equal, by law, or you live in an unjust society.

LITERALLY, the ONLY Americans who don't desire the version of centrism I just described are people who hate and reject justice, and who are evil. Let that TRUTHFUL statement resonate and sink deeply within your mind, as many people in America are evil, in both extremes! Yes, I said it!

CHRISTIAN NATIONALISM'S CAPITALISM

While I'm on the topic of rehashing the MOST IMPORTANT issues we've written on, for easy access of voters on BOTH website Updates Buttons, let's address a (final?) theme Christian Nationalist conservatives FOOLISHLY and IGNORANTLY don't know they're advocating for: Gods view of wealth.

FAKE "Christians" think they should force their values onto America, because they have been faked out by fake depictions of Jesus and the Bible! NOT ONLY would they have to FINALLY start doing God's top four priorities, by force of law (MOST of them never do any of the four, to any serious or significant extent), their sinfully IDOLIZED Capitalist society would have to crumble, just as it will in the second half of the coming seven years of God's judgment on earth. Rev. 16-18 (Commercial Babylon).

God's Top Priorities for His People (EDBS):

1. Full EVANGELISM of all lost people, especially those within walking distance of your church!
2. Relational DISCIPLISHIP of all Christians, especially those within your church membership.
3. BODY LIFE. All members using their spiritual gifts to edify the body, when it is gathered.
4. Significant SOcial MINISTRY, like Jesus did, making society better, by doing good.
(Lk 19:10; II Pet 3:9; I Tim 2:4; Ac 4:13; II Tim 2:2; Eph 4:11-16; Ac 10:38)

The far right "Christian" has been taught (or brainwashed) that the Bible teaches make money (Gen. 3:19), give no freebies (II Th. 3:10), and work hard (Protestant work ethic; Col. 3:23-24).

BECAUSE the super majority of U.S. claiming Christians have NO IDEA what the Bible teaches (FULL counsel of God, Ac. 20:27), are NOT Berean (Ac. 17:11), and DIS-obey II Tim. 2:15, we must EDUCATE them on Gods view of money!

Let's start by my experience with a GREAT seminary grad friend who got me a seminary professor job, who said, "money is neutral," and "God never said being rich is a sin." (Chris Kim).

These are TRUE statements, but they must be understood and interpreted in light of the FULL counsel of God. HERE are the repeated verses MOST U.S. Christians will NEVER learn (as they rely on sermons to do all their educating, CONTRARY to Ps. 119:9-11; Josh. 1:8, and many other verses):

First, life is NOT summed up by he with the most toys wins, FOOLS! Lk. 12:15 READ the passage! The purpose of adulting is NOT getting as much as you can, canning what you get and selling the rest, FOOLS! There are MANY types of greed, and CONTRARY to Gordon Gecko, greed is NOT good, but it is a sin, FOOLS!

Yes, I'm NOT violating Mt. 5:22, as I have NOT said to any person to their face, "you fool." Proverbs speaks OFTEN of FOOLS, and your value system fits you in that category. But lest I anger you more, trying to wake you up, let's continue!

Luke 12 teaches EVERYTHING will be revealed, that's NOW hidden, and what you hear in secret announce to the rooftops. God wants VERY few secrets (Pv. 11:3), but TRANSPARENCY/honesty, and that's NOT what U.S. pastors, and especially Christian Nationalist ones are feeding to their sheeple concerning riches! Laodicean CULTURE of the American Dream is controlling their thoughts and politics—PERIOD!

U.S. politics is ALL about the money! Follow the money trail! Whose bread I eat his song I sing. Take money from those with it, or keep it all for yourself, for those with it. THIS IS U.S. politics in a nutsHell. MOST all else is a cover for this fact! But I digress.

Lk. 12 goes on to say fear God, and nothing more than you do Him, because He's capable of killing you, then throwing you into the forever furnace. That speaks to all men, and says Christians are to evangelize (which most do very little). You are SO much more valuable to Him.

WHEN actual believers are persecuted (prophetic context, most likely; we suffer so little, today, in USA), God's Spirit will give us the words we need, like people saved during the coming 7-year tribulation. Trust His leadership; DON'T be carnal, as a majority is, today, Christians.

Jesus gets interrupted by a TYPICAL family dispute among rich heirs, asking Him to divide one's inheritance. HOW MANY TIMES have siblings gone their separate ways after a disbursement of an inheritance? The prodigal son asked for his early inheritance, then squandered it unto poverty.

Then He illustrates with a story (parable) of the rich FOOL (maybe that's why God had me use that word so much?). IF you read the parable (you should—DON'T BE LAZY; Protestant work ethic, don't you know), a rich man had a dilemma of where to put/store all his many gained assets/crops.

Instead of being content (I Tim. 6:6-12), he labors to build even more and BIGger grain silohs. He RAZES his old ones to build new ones (wasting perfectly good assets, like McMansions built over smaller buyouts). His lust for more is insatiable. Ecc. 6:7

When he finally feels he has enough, he tells himself to retire of work, take it easy/relax, and enjoy life (eat, drink and be merry—the EXACT attitude that precedes the coming 7-year judgment in earth; Lk. 17:27; I Cor. 15:32).

Live it up! Enjoy the good life. Live the high life! Live high on the hog. Live the life of Riley. Live large. Be on Easy Street. That's what American culture teaches!

That's the goal of adulthood! BIG house, great nest egg, white picket fence. This passage says that a person can have enough! Ecclesiastes teaches man's heart can never have enough, because of sin. Lk. 12 says the man never felt content that he had enough, due to sin!

And look what happens to him: God does NOT always allow that foolishness to continue! The grim reaper harvested him to Hell, because he is a FOOL (v. 20). ALL he worked for is vanity, empty, and taken away from him, thereafter, because you can't take it with you where you are going! I Tim. 6:7

MOST rich people will burn forever in Hell. Fear God; not man's opinion of you by your nest egg and showy assets, because your adulators haven't His power to kill you, and send you to Hell!

As Christian (NOT a Christian Nationalist), I am OBLIGATED to tell EVERY rich person this order/command from God, whether you are a Christian or not one:

I Tim. 6:17-19. "Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God, who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share. In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life.

READ Mt. 19:24! MOST rich people will burn in Hell!

READ Jas. 2:5 God says the poor are much more likely to be in Heaven, as they are prone more to faith in God, having nothing else to rely on, than the rich, whose faith is in their possessions. Pv. 10:15

Your glory before man is TEMPORARY! Jas. 1:10. IN that verse, GOD says the rich are in a LOW status. America calls them "heroes;" totally opposite value systems! QUIT ADHERING TO SATAN'S VALUES, political conservatives and Christian Nationalist FOOLS!

Read on: Pv. 23:4-5; Mt. 6:19-21; Pv. 30:7-9; Levit. 19:15; Lk. 6:24; Jas. 2:6, 5:1-6. READ the story (parable) of the rich man and Lazarus (Lk. 16:19-31). Something MOST people MISS is this verse: v. 25 "But Abraham replied, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things, but now he is comforted here and you are in agony.'"

You are getting all you will ever get ONLY in this life, rich people who don't fear God, aren't saved, and aren't generously giving back to others. You are Hell-bound, and you feel you're in a high and mighty position of power, but you are in a lowly way before God, which is ALL that matters, when you comprehend life, fools!

When your rat race chase of the good life finds you facing the grim reaper, God shows (in that verse) that Lazarus (the poor man) gets some form of justice in the next life—which justice only turns out Hellishly HORRIBLE for you!

I will NOT presume lazy pew sitter bench warmers will actually look up verses, when they require others to do their thinking for them, so let's look up those prior-referenced verses!

Pv. 23:4-5 "Do not weary yourself to gain wealth, cease from your consideration of it. When you set your eyes on it, it is gone. For wealth certainly makes itself wings like an eagle that flies toward the Heavens."

We are told to NOT weary ourselves for wealth! DO YOU OBEY that command, Christian? It's what your eyes are set upon that matters! Heb. 12:2; Col. 3:1-4.

Mt. 6:19-21 "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in Heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in or steal; for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."

Where is your heart? You CAN'T serve God and money, equally! Mt. 6:24 We try to, but it's impossible. Your ministry amount proves your claims FALSE, majority Laodicean U.S. Christian FOOLS!

LOOK how the Laodicean church viewed itself: Rev 3: "I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other! So, because you are lukewarm—neither hot nor cold—I am about to spit you out of my mouth. You say, 'I am rich; I have acquired wealth and do not need a thing.' But you do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked. I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, so you can become rich; and white clothes to wear, so you can cover your shameful nakedness; and salve to put on your eyes, so you can see. Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest and repent. Here I am! I stand at the door and knock [OUTSIDE the Church]. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with that person, and they with Me."

Scholars virtually ALL agree we are living in the Laodicean church age of history; the last era before prophecy! Self-deluded and deceived by riches, when we are wretches, pitiful, dare I say "deplorable," poor, blind and naked, because riches deceive one as being powerful when they're weak before God! Mk. 4:19

Riches deceive! Worldliness is a SIN. Christians can be materialistic sinners (Jas. 4:1-8), thereby making themselves ENEMIES of God!

I Jn. 2:15-17 says (that is, commands): "Do not love the world nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the boastful pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world. The world is passing away [aka, YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU] and also its lusts; but the one who does the will of God continues to live forever."

The love (vs. like) of money is a sin. I Tim. 6:10; Lk. 16:14. God knows our hearts, and the words you speak most of, and the deeds you engage most most often show where your affections lie!

Pv. 30:7-9 "Two things I have asked of You; Do not refuse me before I die: Keep deception and lies far from me, give me neither poverty nor riches; Feed me with the food that is my portion, so that I will not be full and deny You and say, "Who is the Lord?" And that I will not become impoverished and steal, and profane the name of my God."

IS THIS YOUR HEART ATTITUDE and PRAYER, U.S. Christian? And in your politics, READ Levit. 19:15 "Do not pervert justice; do not show partiality to the poor or favoritism to the great, but judge your neighbor fairly." DOES THAT DESCRIBE POLITICAL CONSERVATISM, U.S. Christians?

READ Lk. 6:24-25 "But woe to you who are rich, for you are receiving your comfort in full. Woe to you who are well-fed now, for the outcry of those who did the harvesting has reached the ears of the Lord of armies. You have lived for pleasure on the earth and lived luxuriously; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter. You have condemned and put to death the righteous person; he offers you no resistance."

WHO can NOW say the Bible's overall tone is positive toward seeking riches, or idolizing the rich? ONLY FOOLS! And THIS is Christianity, folks, but NOT the apostate Christian Nationalism being sought by political conservatives. Thus says the word of the Lord! Repent, FOOLS!

P.S.: SHOW ME ANY church sermon recording that EVER gave that sermon/lesson!!! Not 'gonna happen, as it might step on some parishioners' tithing toes! Mic drop.

VARIOUS TOPICS

a) Cancel Culture

#CancelCulture lacks mercy, second chances and forgiveness (or even any requirement of evidence of direct involvement). Good luck with that standard applied to everything! (1/19/23)

b) Ecology

(4/23/23)

The STUPID ecology debate is EASILY solved! Drill almost anywhere, cleanly and safely! Use carbon capture, and reward new technologies that reduce pollution! It's NOT restrict drilling, or pollute at will. EXTREMISTS ARE AMERICA'S GREATEST THREAT, besides China and maybe Russia!

Under that FoxNews article, because China pollutes at will, America should. WHY do those pundits not also argue for sweatshops and child labor in America, because China does it? MORALITY is leadership, which the far right will NEVER understand! SAME with truthfulness and facts! Evil liars!

One more insight from that FoxNews article: Lessening pollution has ZERO to do with helping poor people, or requiring ANYONE to cut back consumption! It's for our health! Let far righters live next to coal and oil plants, and breathe in the runoff air! They WON'T! Hypocrisy SIN!

c) Immigration

The border trespassers do NOT speak the language, aren't well educated, or rich, and are trying to start a new life in our country on the wrong foot of forcibly breaking our laws! I LOVE using box tanks as a wall, or anything that keeps them out, unless legal and needed! (12/18/22-2)

Aren't there enough old, used shipping containers to close off our border? I know architects repurpose them for homes, but not that often! For less price competition, get the grungiest, most rotten interior'd ones, and #CloseTheGap! (12/19/22-2)

Deep ditches could deter illegal immigration at TX border, perhaps cheaper than cargo containers. BUT, people would dig slanted ramps, if they fell or jumped in, if not constantly monitored. 15 feet deep. Wide enough they can't jump across them or use ladders, @GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX (12/19/22-2)

The greatness of America, that has more people wanting to be here than anywhere else, was created by Americans! Even if this was Podunkville, every nation has sovereignty, meaning their right is to determine who gets in! Trying to force your way in, illegally, is UN-American! (12/19/22-2)

Here is assimilation:

1. LEARN U.S. history.
2. Learn English.
3. Learn our driving laws.
4. Work hard, and ask nothing from taxpayers.
5. Reject bad traditions we don't like, from elsewhere. Bring what's good from there! Then, WELCOME ABOARD! (12/20/22-2)

Update

(5/8-10/23)

RE: Crowds amassing at our Southern border (with Title 42's end): Swamp People--"Shoot 'em" (in the legs, of course; no fatalities; only use rubber bullets). Fire warning shots in the air, first!

WHO but the ultra wealthy wouldn't want "a better life?" That excuse for illegal aliens is B.S.! The entire world's non-America living standard people would want to come here, by that emotional and STUPID basis for being FOR law-breaker aliens! #Immigration The world's poor are NOT our problem!

My wife records and watches CBS Sunday Morning. They're addressing immigration, lower crime rate for newcomers and 4.2M unfilled jobs without them (don't seek OUR jobs!). LEARN THE LANGUAGE, we don't want low educated and poor ones coming, as they drain our safety net. ASSIMILATE, and come legally.

Immigration:

1. Take NO jobs Americans want.
2. NO undue likelihood of them becoming Socialism (i.e., Democrat only) voters.
3. Can't access safety net for years!
4. Must have a job, and skills America needs.
5. Learn English.
6. Don't try to make U.S.A. into an image of where you came from!
7. Be legal. It's called #Assimilation!

d) Innovations

@WheelOfFortune could be improved if the game board was always seen by viewers, when contemporaneously showing the contestants play (small box in the left corner). They get MUCH more time to solve puzzles than we do at home! #FixIt #Kaizen (always improve) (1/23/23)

OBVIOUSLY, a needed and important invention would be a blowing hot air machine, to not singe power lines, but hot enough to melt the ice, so tree limbs don't fall on those lines. Like a hot air gun or blow dryer on steroids (private and public use in ice storms)! (2/1/23)

IT SHOULD BE THE LAW that everything the medical industry does for a patient has a menu with costs, and exact costs their insurance will cover, or that they will pay—like every other business, when you pay for services. Same with lawyers! I feel for FOOLS who go in blind. You'll lose! (2/10/23)

e) Mass Shooters

(12/16/22-2)

I watched a very convincing VICE TV article about certain guns designed to kill quickly and massively. SURE, in an ideal world, they'd be banned from all evil doers. But they have Second Amendment, sport and self-defense value, and laws can't distinguish between the good and bad guys. Fix that, and bans are OK,

It is LITERALLY impossible to ban fast fire massive destruction guns from just evildoers, until 666 tech arises, where people's intent can be known and cut off before being acted on! Mass shootings are lessened in schools by restricted access and detectors of weapons! NOT open venues.

I don't give one rat's tail if reasonable gun laws limit sales potentials of gun manufacturers! Public safety over profits. Humans over money. BUT only reasonable restrictions! Manufacturers can still profit and sell, and make needed adjustments to reasonable laws! People more than pocket books!

A DFW school district is allowing armed trained teachers. OK; not ideal. IF any person can EVER access those weapons, it's a terrible solution! Those teachers have to have complete control of the guns at all times, and never be able to have them yanked away from their possession!

FACT: Even if we hardened all schools, an adult legally able to access a weapon, determined to kill en masse, with no prior violence/mental health issues, who plans their schemes, can still kill when kids are let out of school, and NOT inside the building! (3/28/23)

FACT: People in politics who don't advocate for moral policies or tactics DO NOT TRUST GOD, or believe in the Bible, or in morality! They may even claim to be Christians, but their excuses and rationalizing winning, or that's how it is in politics is satanic thinking! God sees ALL! (3/28/23)

f) Money & Christianity

WHY can't ANY U.S. WASP mega pastors EVER preach that the rich are lowly before God, the poor are of high standing, life's purpose is NOT riches, but God's will, including holiness, the rich are generously to give back, don't chase money, or it will fly away, and give me neither riches or poverty? WHY? (12/5/22-2)

g) Extremes

(12/14/22-2)

#LiberalismIsAMentalDisorder(?) You HAVE TO BE CRAZY to believe hoarding, love of money, greed and selfishness are sins, I Tim. 6:17-19 exists, and some people need help, which almost NO ONE wants to do, financially, unless forced to by taxation!

You HAVE TO BE CRAZY to want problems in society addressed, that business can't make enough profit off fixing! How crazy must one be to seek "Thy kingdom come, on earth," as it is in Heaven! NUT JOBS!

Rich Americans who sign the Giving Pledge are "self-loathing," said @marklevinshow. Forsaking his Judaism, to embrace sin and unbiblical values, makes him a hero to the right! You only love yourself if you only pamper yourself? BLASPHEMY to YHWH!

h) Predictions

Any given Sunday. With success, resting on laurels/complacency can seep in, especially against a weak team. Don't under-estimate my #Hometown Texans, but be ready and prepared! I want your win, but would also like to see Houston get more decent, one day! @dallascowboys (12/11/22-2)

i) Socialism

(12/29/22-2)

People, generally, DON'T want to pay for any bills of anyone outside their nuclear family! Any who do are legally free to do so! That's why taxpayers HATE Socialism, as they should, because it's UNjust, and your poverty isn't their problem. Society and government's concern means taxpayers' money!

j) Taxes

It would be GREAT to not have to pay IRS agents. But a consumption tax is TRYING to favor the rich! MOST of their expenses are purchased, except everyday items everyone buys. The poor would be punished, and the rich would have the least sacrifice from what they own! That's unjust and evil!

(1/10/23-2)

k) Weight Loss

(4/23/23)

In weight loss, there will be failures, plateaus, temptations/eating out, surprising successes, and times you consider quitting. Envision your goal, be reasonable, be very patient, pray, and above all, be more committed to losing than eating decent sized portions! Water and exercise!

In weight loss, my experience is you will FAIL if it is a diet/short-term effort. If, instead, it is how you choose to eat, the rest of your life, you CAN shrink your stomach, learn contentment in much smaller portions, and exercise intensely, at times, to inspire bigger losses!

RACE ISSUES (I)

Church & Racial Politics

(11/20/22-2)

RE: "Most of you grew up in an America where there was cultural Christianity. There was a Christian consensus. A moral majority. Christians could still get people elected. That is gone. No more." –John MacArthur

It is a form of brainwashing to try to insinuate that the only moral Americans are GOP's, or that Christians have to vote GOP! It is power idolatry, using religion for political ends, folks!

IF John MacArthur were right, Obama, Carter and Clinton would NEVER have been President, because Christians would have some innate majority! And people LOVE to self-title/label themselves good or moral! I have never seen as IMMoral people, and even some pastors, as in the MAGA movement! Self-delusion and deception are evidence satan is involved, folks!

John based these STUPID comments on the "agenda" of the left. Let me assure you he is correct, IF he has proof, and is not just opining, or fear-mongering, when he says "they" 'wanna groom a new generation of young homosexuals. I want names, proof, video, audio and numbers of who's doing this, John!

It is EASY to broad brush a small percent, and attach it to the whole of the Dem party, but that's a sin, John! And ONLY to the degree such people do exist, Christians SHOULD fight them! It's NOT the Dem platform.

Drag Queen read-a-longs may be one piece of evidence he could proffer, or curricula that encourages gayness. Fight that all you want! But DON'T lie and falsely mislead that the ONLY two moral issues in U.S. politics are gays and abortion!

And Christians, of all people, SHOULD have welcomed some emphasis on righting the wrongs done to black people, historically! The term "woke" vs. "awake" is a distinction perhaps lacking substance, but caring that American policy has harmed them and American Indians and to some extent, poorer Latinos (slavery and wars as the source) is a GOOD reckoning for America to go through, John!

And MacArthur NEVER addresses the Immoral majority's emphases of NO thorough evangelism, relational discipling, body life or social ministry, NO public repenting on supporting all these sins (See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at page 412), NO acknowledgement of the Immorality of greed, lust, love of money, selfishness, hate and hoarding!

EQUALLY an immoral value system, as with wanting to kill babies (MORE serious) and have sex with the same sex! Immorality exists on BOTH sides, @johnmacarthur, and you are insinuating that it only goes one way is an abuse of your office as pastor with media access!

I SUGGEST Dems and the media monitor politicized pastor sermons as open game! They are "GROOMING" hatred of Democrats, GROOMING divisiveness, and GROOMING deceived followers who hang on their every word, and who can't think critically!

THIS is a national security matter, just as Ukraine has been! This group REFUSES to acknowledge ANY white supremacists, or condemn them, when in fact it is FEAR among low-skilled and low-educated whites that detests ANY lifting up of any black Americans, by policy or media attention, for fear THEIR jobs might be at stake!

As to illegal immigration, those fears are legitimate, from too many people wanting too few jobs.

Abortion and gay marriage are the ONLY moral issues American politics faces,

1. Because people believe that lie, and,

2. Because GOP operatives in Reagan's day decided they were!

NOT because it's true, or even Bible-consistent. STOP using God for your secular power golden calf, WASPS!

IT'S EVIL to cherry-pick the Bible, and only use select proof texts, @johnmacarthur! Your statement, by pure logic, is saying @fhunscripted is either UNSaved, or is IMMoral, because he is NOT in your ""moral"" majority GOP party. YOU need to repent, gospel requirements errant sir!

(3/15/2023)

There's NO sane white (or any other colored) American who would ever give up any good-paying job they have, to help "downtrodden" people! ONLY if jobs grow, in number, would they welcome helping only the BEST-QUALIFIED candidates, no matter their race! That's NOT racism!

THE solution for ALL poor Americans—of ANY color—is a quality education and skills-training for good job. Training in budgeting, resume writing, interviewing, buying smart, and being content OUGHT to be required curricula in public schools! NOT handouts; hand-ups!

It is NOT white supremacy to desire to remain the majority race in America. It IS if that desire is because you don't like other minorities. It's also NOT racist to oppose handouts only taxpayers pay for! Race in America can be solved, fairly/justly, by hard work and paying the best qualified best!

Update #2: Woke

(4/26/23)

Wokeness on race, IF it never means favoring under-qualified job or college candidates, reparations or handouts, is merely acknowledging historic abuse of blacks as slaves, with implications upon some heirs. Equal education is the answer! NOT diminishing whites' opportunities! DUH.

POLITICS ISSUES (I)

(11/23/22)

DISTINCTIONS: They're important, and you learn about them in law school. I'm NOT talking about distinguished people, but slighter differences that are bigger than they may appear. It's NOT like black vs. right, but dark vs. light gray. The difference can be crucial, nonetheless!

Example: BOTH major political parties have two sides, and they've decided to remain united, despite their differences, as their values in common outweigh those differences, as their beliefs in common are more different from the other party than their own differences.

I will and would NEVER agree with pure conservatism. Compassionate conservatism and mild Democrat beliefs I can find home and company at, either way! WHY can't I EVER agree with liberalism or conservatism, but only moderate Dem and GOP beliefs (the mainstream majority middle)?

On a select number of issues, I'll show you EXACTLY why (which argues for a BIG new Centrist third party!). I will place the extreme view on the left, and my similar but different view on the right, for liberalism and conservatism, and you can SEE why I will NEVER join any extreme!

1. Abort after heartbeat (including after birth) VS. before heartbeat (except mom's life and vegetative baby), but favoring Plan B within three days of any sex that MAY cause fertilization, if one's not sure they want to be parents as a result.
2. Gun grabbing VS. reasonable restrictions, like red flag laws NEVER abused, background checks and required training (to prove you know how to use and store guns) and serial numbers (so cops can always chase down chains of possession, in crimes involving stolen weapons).
3. Global warming/climate change VS. man may and likely does have SOME negative impact needing remediation.
4. Freebies VS. some government subsidies, ALL of which have to be paid back by at least token if not actual pay back of civic service.
5. LGBTQ rights normalizing sodomy and gender confusion VS. respecting them as human equals, while disagreeing with those choices and aberrant feelings.
6. Light on crime VS. respecting valid criminal rights, seeking rehab, where possible, and always opposing ALL police brutality.
7. BIG government VS. moderate sized to be only as big as absolutely necessary, and therefore "small" by comparison.
8. Open borders VS. allowing in all skills our economy needs; ONLY!

9. Appeasement VS. STRONG national defense, including wars as a last but viable resort, where necessary (just wars).
10. Censorship VS. free speech with guidelines and warnings about lies, misinformation, or abusive language.
11. Socialism VS. Bridled Capitalism.
12. Separation of Church and State VS. freedom of religion, government NOT prohibiting or establishing any religion(s).
13. Government control to affect the economy VS. free market with reasonable boundaries. IF you have any brain waves, that's centrism compared to liberalism.

Let's now compare it to conservatism, with centrism on the right:

1. Total abortion bans, no exceptions, including birth control prohibited VS. my position, stated earlier.
2. Pro-gun (meaning zero restrictions for anyone n anything) VS. my position, stated earlier.
3. ZERO agreement man does any damage to the environment VS. my position.
4. No wealth redistribution, at all, ever VS. my position.
5. Hating if not hurting LGBTQs, mocking them, and trying to make their lives miserable, any way that's legal, or not, including discrimination VS. my position.
6. Small government so small the feds bills can't be paid, the rich get favored (some don't pay their fair share), and government is never allowed to fix anything or help anyone, because if something can't be profited off of enough, you just allow it to continue VS. my position.
7. Closed immigration VS. controlled borders of MY position.
8. Hawkish, trigger happy national security policy VS. my position.
9. Lies, propaganda, violence threats, conspiracy theories and believing anything, where opinions are deemed equally valued with facts VS. my position.
10. Unbridled Capitalism, where the rich get richer off the backs of everyone else, with zero give back required VS. my position, which includes required profit sharing, according to how a business is profited, and disallowing accounting games to hide profits from employees. Employees' share is according to their contribution, or not (they vary).
11. Religion controlling government (say MGT) VS. the first Amendment/my position.
12. No government involvement in our economy, where anything goes (the wild west) VS. my position.

It's CLEAR, centrism is superior, and both parties can adopt it, with slighter distinctions" than extremists! The joke of the golden rule being he with the gold rules is ANTI-biblical! Morality and justice are to control public policy; NOT buying off politicians to favor the rich or their businesses! This is common sense, and biblical, and centrist political doctrine/dogma! The rich and poor are equals.

(11/27/22-2)

The GOP would have a MUCH better chance of criticizing white supremacy, if they balanced that needed criticism with criticism of black supremacy, at the same time! It's the over-emphasis on black lives that caused backlash among KKK types, AS IF excess is good; it is NOT!

I absolutely LOVE that racial reconciliation clamoring is occurring! White people were mainly the slave owners. NOT most white people, and NOT that a few blacks owned slaves, but we whites have NEVER dealt with the aftermath of slavery for black Americans. Most just wanted to brush it under rug.

EVERYTHING in U.S. politics has to be 3-word slogans! Ex: BLM, defund the police, close the borders, go woke go broke (4), Let's go Brandon. IDIOT level IQ rhetoric passing as political discussion! FOOLS.

(12/28/22-2)

I am NOT for white supremacists, but black supremacists also exist! ANY time white activists are fighting to not become a minority in America, which they've never been, that is NOT an evil ambition, so long as everyone is treated fairly!

'Everyone sins, and no one is perfect—we all make mistakes' are the most abused slogans in U.S. politics. Excusing sin is always wrong. We don't all lie about our college, career, sexuality, heritage or charity work! In fact, FEW of us do. DON'T LET HIM OFF THE HOOK! @dnc George Santos

THESE SINS ARE AN EVIL, REGULAR PART OF D.C., which "leaders" don't engage! READ Exodus 18:21! (1/13/23-2)

- Lying
- Cheating
- Deception
- Hatred
- Division-making
- Idolatry
- Arrogance
- Greed
- Selfishness
- Speaking with a forked tongue
- (Double speak/talk)
- Flattery/coddling
- Hypocrisy & flip flops
- Etc.

IF you want to blow people's mind, agree with the other party whenever they are right, and criticize your own whenever they are wrong. WE DO IT ALL THE TIME, and it is a paradigm shift for honesty, morality and truth! #Objectivity! (2/21/23)

I can assure you the #1 needed policy for America is fair tax reform, tied to streamlined/accountable government and associated spending. People are incentivized to cheat government programs for self (Ex.: Medicare), and therefore others are incentivized to find ways to not pay their fair share!

Morality (honesty, not self #1, not idolatry or hypocrisy, hatred, divisiveness, or greed) is Washington D.C.'s GREATEST need. Absent a revival, that town requires Jesus to come turn the tables on the money-changers! His servant(s) doing His will to be His hands and feet, there!

America has become extremist and polarized, by irrational punishments for minor infractions. There are zero iterations or nuanced responses. Your opponent does ANYTHING wrong, there are calls for their firing or jailing! Cancel culture is satanic overkill! This is spiritual warfare.

IF Washington D.C. does NOT experience a total moral overhaul, judgment on our entire nation is absolutely imminent, IMO. A neutral voice who hates sin, favors no one, bows to and worships NO party, who can get the people to support D.C. politicians doing right, or being retired by said voters!

It is IMPOSSIBLE to wait for evangelism or a "revival" to fix SO-CALLED "leaders!" The force of law and the voice of the voting people MUST pressure politicians to do right! God instituted government to curb evil and praise good (Rom. 13) It is TIME for it to do so, starting with D.C. politicians!

NO ONE begrudges paying taxes, when they're the least-sized needed, used for important and necessary things, and EVERYONE suffers the pain of paying them, without loopholes, or where those earning the most pay the least, hiring pros to avoid their fair share. Just do it in 2024!

I may be an idealist or dreamer, but my business consulting years trained me (as well as a "you have what you tolerate" sermon) that waste, abuse, fraud, kickbacks, and avoidance of legal taxes are ALL curable, after an extensive audit. I accept NOTHING LESS. And zero freeloaders!

D.C. MUST adopt these two verses, ONLY as principles—not making Bible verses the law of the land—as its creed: Levit. 19:15; Ex. 18:21. Frame them in secular language, but justice, morality, honesty and faithfulness are REQUIRED of all politicians, absent any religious involvement needed/required! DO IT!

(3/11/23)

It seems NO ONE understand this!: When one party gets a gain, the other should get an equally-sized and valued gain, on another issue. That is the ONLY way retaliation, hatred and all-out war can be averted. Just ensure ALL gains are just, moral, and in America's best interest, and on time and within budget!

American FOOLS idolize their political party! ALL they are are voters aligned with enough common beliefs to seek control/power over people who disagree with them. It is ALL based on selfishness, bullying, and arrogance. The system is broken, and has to be revamped, in 2024-2032!

Justice, honesty, America over self, no party worship, no self-dealing, considering the opponent's needs, not lying, or cheating taxpayers. THESE moral principles have to control D.C. decisions! A vow to these, publicly, is needed on day one of any Congressional assembly! God help America! S.O.S.!

Some IDIOT politician, this week, said 'Dems want to control you'. FOOLS with LOW IQs cheered. EVERY law is some degree of controlling behavior, because when there are NO rules, evil prevails. That is NOT evil. It's government's J-O-B, before God, asinine brain dead dolts! (Rom. 13)

(3/11/23)

Freedom is NOT the right to do anything you damn well please! Government taking away freedoms can mean taking away some people's right to do wrong. This is NOT legislated morality, but laws to set boundaries on what behaviors are acceptable by society, and which are NOT! #CommonSense

I am absolutely at wits end with FOOLS who seek first-time milestones for race or gender! Get back to the best-qualified standard! There will always be firsts, for groups who have never done something, but that is not innately success, but rewarding the best-qualified for any job IS!

SO LONG as America has NO concept of unequally-shared power, the other side will ALWAYS be incentivized to demonize their opponent, to stir up FOOLS to clamor for a change to the party in power! Re-read that until your failed public education allows you understanding!

HERE's another things about modern (EVIL) politics: BOTH SIDES can ONLY remember the bad of the other's history and the good of their own! Objectivity and justice are impossible among extremist fools which BOTH MUST be defeated, forever, if America is to survive! (3/26/23-2)

CHRISTIAN CABAL

(12/28/22-2)

SO-CALLED ""Christians"" DON'T CARE if God is obeyed, in the politicians they support, violating Ex. 18:21! The secular power idolatry SIN is more valued than Jesus! Case in point: George Santos and Donald Trump

TrumPastors also NEVER admit:

1. Stacking SCOTUS unjustly rightward was evil/unjust.
2. The LIES behind the scenes and in Justices' confirmation hearings were EVIL.
3. Deceiving dumb Christians that Trump was a "baby Christian" was EVIL.
4. They SHOULD have threatened NO support if Chump change didn't change (I Jn. 1:9)! (1/4/23-2)

(3/20/23)

NEVER FORGET, Franklin Graham supported all of this evil (See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at page 412)! When he speaks on morality, he's willing to change standards, if it means his politics gets elevated! Cherry-picked double standard, and overlooking huge log in his buddy's (CHUMP's) eye, while he'll happily attack Butt-I-gag being gay. @Franklin_Graham

@Franklin_Graham is RIGHT on THIS matter (NOT the election manipulated issue). We slam error and praise truth, no matter who utters it! #Objectivity Manipulated the election? He is NOT Billy Graham, one iota!!!

Look, Franklin Graham COULD do great things with his daddy's last name, in evangelism, as he has less than Billy, and has in charity work. But politics is obviously not his forte, but only biased worship of Republican conservatism! Billy was more neutral, and noble! HERO OF THE AGES!

President Trump 2024 ""Christians"" will say, by deed, if not word, "LET SIN REIGN!"

Franklin Graham says the 2020 election was manipulated. LIAR, blaspheming God! Your cult claim has been debunked and disproved many times. Let Dominion Systems and others now sue Frankie, too!!!

The Big lie forwarded by a claiming Christian, Lordship Salvationists? Heretical!!!

Let me make this perfectly clear: ANY claiming Christian who values politics over spirituality is an idolater! Oh, and by the way, for those who are Bible ignorant, idolatry is a sin! ANYTHING placed as a higher priority than God, by definition.

HERE is what Franklin Graham SHOULD have told the media, rather than the 2020 election was manipulated! @POTUS @JoeBiden These are IRREFUTABLE Christian propositions!

WHY I WAS #NEVERTRUMP

1. Win at all costs is a lesson NO good parent teaches their kids.
2. Neither is being a bad sport (which summarizes ALL of Trump's whiney campaign).
3. The end justifies the means is not a lesson any moral person adheres to.
4. You NEVER reward bad behavior is a lesson even Kindergartners know.
5. You have what you tolerate, and you must be willing to tolerate Chump antics in future politicians.
6. The GOP is NO LONGER the party of thinking more than feelings, with UN-thinking Trump!
7. The GOP is NO LONGER the party of values voters! Hillary Clinton ran a MUCH more moral campaign, despite her several faults.
8. The GOP is no longer the religious right party, as even non-religious voters see the hypocrisy and power idolatry of Christians voting for Trump! It also gives Jesus a bad name.
9. If you put all the sins and gaffes of the past five GOP nominees together (including their time in office), it DOESN'T compare to Trumps campaign—much less four years in office!
10. Trump ONLY divided the GOP and the nation further. He is NO uniter, at all!
11. The GOP's chances at expanding their tent to minorities is harmed for a LONG time with Trump!
12. What Trump did and said for 7/8ths of his campaign was the real deal! Faking presidential and knowledgeable is OTHER people controlling him, to be acceptable.
13. Trump's behavior in the primary IS his credentials for why he became the GOP nominee against sixteen BETTER-qualified people. He CAN'T live down all he FREELY chose to do and say. No one put a gun to his head and said act like a fool and a buffoon. HE ALONE caused his OWN presidential backlash!
14. If policy alone matters (i.e., not personal temperament), Kasich, Cruz, Rubio and Bush had policy down pat when Trump had FEW ideas (i.e., up until his last three months of the campaign)!
15. If policy is all that matters, you could have voted for a trained chimp, robot or even Hitler, because he was wise enough to HIDE his evils until he got in power.
16. Voting for ALL down-ballot Republicans was the ONLY wise Republican choice, as Donald's campaign HURTS the GOP's reputation with minorities (and others) for quite a while.
17. I expect president Trump to change into what more people always wanted, but if you believe a political charlatan and chameleon with the core he's demonstrated, you will believe anything, and you did drink the Kool-Aid!

Being a disciple, rather than requiring that for salvation, is HARD, as Franklin Graham is learning, when political EVIL people ask you to do and say sinful and untruthful things, to keep in their good graces. Serving secular power more than God! Blasphemous apostasy! Repent, @franklin_graham

WOULD IT BE RATIONAL for you to take moral advice from people who supported ALL THESE SINS? (See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at page 412) (3/20/23)

The Christian Cabal members may have changed, for 2024, but those still in the cult are still as satanically-motivated as they were when they started in 2015! (3/27/23)

CHRISTIAN NATIONALISM

Christian Nationalism vs. The Bible

(11/24/22-2)

FAKE "Christians" think they should force their values onto America, because they have been faked out by fake depictions of Jesus and the Bible! NOT ONLY would they have to FINALLY start doing God's top four priorities, by force of law (MOST of them never do any of the four, to any serious or significant extent), their sinfully IDOLIZED Capitalist society would have to crumble, just as it will in the second half of the coming seven years of God's judgment on earth. Rev. 16-18 (Commercial Babylon and Laodicea).

The far right "Christian" has been taught (or brainwashed) by political philosophy instead of the Bible; obey II Tim. 2:15! We must EDUCATE them on God's view of money! Let's start by my experience with a GREAT seminary grad friend who got me a seminary professor job, who said, "money is neutral," and "God never said being rich is a sin." (Chris Kim).

These are TRUE statements, but they must be understood and interpreted in light of the FULL counsel of God. HERE are the repeated verses MOST U.S. Christians will NEVER learn (as they rely on sermons to do all their educating, CONTRARY to Ps. 119:9-11; Josh. 1:8, and many other verses):

Life is NOT summed up by he with the most toys wins, FOOLISH ONES! (Lk. 12:15) READ the passage! The purpose of adulting is NOT getting as much as you can, canning what you get and selling the rest, FOOLISH ONES!

There are MANY types of greed, and CONTRARY to Gordon Gecko, greed is NOT good, but it is a sin, FOOLISH ONES! Yes, I'm NOT violating Mt. 5:22, as I have NOT said to any person to their face, "you fool."

Proverbs speaks OFTEN of FOOLS, and your value system fits you in that category. But lest I anger you more, trying to wake you up, lets continue! Lk. 12 teaches EVERYTHING will be revealed, that's NOW hidden, and what you hear in secret announce from the rooftops.

God wants VERY few secrets (Pv. 11:3), but TRANSPARENCY/honesty, and that's NOT what U.S. pastors, and especially Christian nationalist ones are feeding to their sheeple regarding riches! Laodicean CULTURE of the American Dream is controlling their thoughts and politics–PERIOD!

U.S. politics is ALL about the money! Follow the money trail! Who's bread I eat his song I sing. Take money from those with it, or keep it all for yourself, for those with it. THIS IS U.S. politics in a nutsHell. MOST everything else is a cover for this fact! But I digress.

Lk. 12 goes on to say fear God, and nothing more than you do Him, because He's capable of killing you, then throwing you into the forever furnace. That speaks to all men, and says Christians are to evangelize (which most do very little). You are SO much more valuable to Him.

WHEN actual believers are persecuted (prophecy context, most likely; we suffer so little, today, in America), God's Spirit will give us the words we need, like people saved during the coming 7 year tribulation. Trust His leadership; DON'T be carnal, as a majority is, today, Christians.

Jesus gets interrupted by a TYPICAL family dispute among rich heirs, asking Him to divide one's inheritance. HOW MANY TIMES have siblings gone their separate ways after a disbursement of an inheritance? The prodigal son asked for his early inheritance, then squandered it into poverty.

Then he illustrates with a story (parable) of the rich FOOL (maybe that's why God had me use that word so much?). IF you read the parable (you should–DON'T BE LAZY; Protestant work ethic, don't you know), a rich man had a dilemma of where to put/store all his many gained assets/crops.

Instead of being content (I Tim. 6:6-12), he labors to build even more and BIGger grain silos. He RAZES his old ones to build new ones (wasting perfectly good assets, like McMansions built over perfectly good smaller buyouts). His lust for more is insatiable. (Ecc. 6:7)

When he finally feels he has enough, he tells himself to retire of work, take it easy/relax, and enjoy life (eat drink and be merry–the EXACT attitude that precedes the coming 7-year judgment in earth; Lk. 17:27; I Cor. 15:32). Live it up! Enjoy the good life. Live the high life! That's what American culture teaches.

That's the goal of adulthood! BIG house, great nest egg, white picket fence. This passage says that a person can have enough! Ecclesiastes teaches man's heart can never have enough, because of sin. Lk. 12 says the man never felt content that he had enough, due to sin! And look what happens to him:

God does NOT always allow that foolishness to continue! The grim reaper harvested him to Hell, because he was a FOOL (v. 20). ALL he worked for is vanity, empty, and taken away from him, thereafter, because you can't take it with you where you are going!

I Tim. 6:7 MOST rich people will burn forever in Hell. Fear God; not man's opinion of you by your nest egg and showy assets, because your adulators haven't His power to kill you, and send you to Hell!

As Christian (NOT a Christian Nationalist), I am OBLIGATED to tell EVERY rich person this order/command from God, whether you are a Christian or not one: I Tim. 6:17-19:

"Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God, who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share. In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life."

READ Mt. 19:24! MOST rich people will burn in Hell! READ Jas. 2:5 God says the poor are much more likely to be in Heaven, as they are prone more to faith in God, having nothing else to rely on, than the rich, whose faith is in their possessions.

Pv. 10:15 Your glory before man is TEMPORARY! Jas. 1:10. IN this verse, GOD says the rich are in a LOW status. America calls them "heroes." Totally opposite value systems! QUIT ADHERING TO SATAN'S VALUES, political conservatives and Christian Nationalist FOOLS!

Read on: Pv. 23:4-5; Mt. 6:19-21; Pv. 30:7-9; Levit. 19:15; Lk. 6:24; Jas. 2:6, 5:1-6. READ the story (parable) of the rich man and Lazarus (Lk. 16:19-31). Something MOST people MISS is this verse: (v. 25) "But Abraham replied, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things, but now he is comforted here and you are in agony.'"

You are getting all you will ever get ONLY in this life, rich people who don't fear God, aren't saved, and aren't generously giving back to others. You are Hell-bound, and you feel you're in a high and mighty position of power, but you are in a lowly way before God, which is ALL that matters, when you comprehend life, fools!

When your rat race chase of the good life finds you facing the grim reaper, God shows (in that verse) that Lazarus (the poor man) gets some form of justice in the next life—which justice only turns out Hellishly HORRIBLE for you!

I will NOT presume lazy pew-sitter bench warmers will actually look up those verses, when they require others to do their thinking for them, so let's look up those prior-referenced verses!

Pv. 23:4-5 "Do not weary yourself to gain wealth, Cease from your consideration of it. When you set your eyes on it, it is gone. For wealth certainly makes itself wings like an eagle that flies toward the Heavens." We are told to NOT weary ourselves for wealth! DO YOU OBEY that command, Christian? It's what your eyes are set upon that matters! (Heb. 12:2; Col. 3:1-4).

Mt. 6:19-21 "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in Heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in or steal; for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."

Where is your heart? You CAN'T serve God and money, equally! (Mt. 6:24) We try to, but it's impossible. Your ministry amount proves your claims FALSE, majority Laodicean U.S. Christian FOOLS!

LOOK how the Laodicean church viewed itself (Rev. 3:15-20):

"I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other! So, because you are lukewarm—neither hot nor cold—I am about to spit you out of my mouth. You say, 'I am rich; I have acquired wealth and do not need a thing.' But you do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked. I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, so you can become rich; and white clothes to wear, so you can cover your shameful nakedness; and salve to put on your eyes, so you can see. Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest and repent. Here I am! I stand at the door and knock [OUTSIDE the Church]. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with that person, and they with Me."

Scholars virtually ALL agree we are living in the Laodicean church age of history; the last era before prophecy!

Self-deluded and deceived by riches, when we are wretches, pitiful, dare I say "deplorable," poor, blind and naked, because riches deceive one as being powerful when they're weak before God!

Mk. 4:19 Riches deceive! Worldliness is a SIN. Christians can be materialistic sinners (Jas. 4:1-8), thereby making themselves ENEMIES of God!

I Jn. 2:15-17 says (that is, commands):

"Do not love the world nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the boastful pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world. The world is passing away [aka, YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU] and also its lusts; but the one who does the will of God continues to live forever"

The love (vs. like) of money is a sin. (I Tim. 6:10; Lk. 16:14) God knows our hearts, and the words you speak most of, and the deeds you engage the most, most often, show where your affections lie!

(Pv. 30:7-9) "Two things I have asked of You; Do not refuse me before I die: Keep deception and lies far from me, give me neither poverty nor riches; Feed me with the food that is my portion, so that I will not be full and deny You and say, "Who is the Lord?" And that I will not become impoverished and steal, and profane the name of my God."

IS THIS YOUR HEART ATTITUDE and PRAYER, U.S. Christian? And in your politics, READ Levit. 19:15:

"Do not pervert justice; do not show partiality to the poor or favoritism to the great, but judge your neighbor fairly." DOES THAT DESCRIBE POLITICAL CONSERVATISM, U.S. Christians?

READ Lk. 6:24-25: "But woe to you who are rich, for you are receiving your comfort in full. Woe to you who are well-fed now, for the outcry of those who did the harvesting has reached the ears of the Lord of armies. You have lived for pleasure on the earth and lived luxuriously; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter. You have condemned and put to death the righteous person; he offers you no resistance."

WHO can NOW say the Bible's overall tone is positive toward seeking riches, or idolizing the rich? ONLY FOOLS! And THIS is Christianity, folks, but NOT the apostate Christian Nationalism being sought by political conservatives. Thus says the word of the Lord! Repent, FOOLS!

(12/9/22-2)

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU ASK FOR. People clamoring for Christian nationalism have NO IDEA what they're really asking for! IF any government was based on the Bible, we would truly see "Thy kingdom come, on earth, as it is in Heaven!" That means justice would reign!

That also means EVERY Christians would have to be a fully committed disciple of Jesus, suffer, sacrifice, have a ministry that was connected to their share of global goals, like world evangelism, know and use their spiritual gifts, learn the Bible like a workman, obey God, living holy, end the love of money, worldliness, being Laodicean Christians, give back to society, help solve problems, deem other nations our "neighbors," and help them reach a minimum standard of quality of life (America doing her fair share), taxes fair, the rich forced to generously give back, body life in churches, pastors preaching and teaching, NO church members undisciplined, and all learning to disciple others, fixing problems, not seeking poverty nor wealth, living quiet lives, no fornication, lust or adultery, and a HOST of other perfect world changes cons REALLY don't want, truth be told.

U.S. Christians have SUCH LITTLE UNDERSTANDING of the Bible, they are clamoring for things they don't even want! Proof they don't want those things is how they hardly if ever engage them now, from IGNORANCE sin. They've been spoon fed that conservatism as the Bible's view of life. IT IS NOT!

They would have to call out and rebuke sin, publicly, be disallowed from voting for stupid or evil politicians, unbiasedly, love and pray for Democrats, not idolize secular power Jesus never even sought, not hate, turn a blind eye to violence, racism, discrimination of or hating LGBTQs, care about the environment, pay laborers fairly, NOT bow to the rich funding their politicians to favor the rich, have bridled vs. unbridled Capitalism, with employees treated fairly, and all enjoying profit-sharing, no handouts, but paid back subsidies, and NO severe poor in any nation.

Money would no longer be their god, and churchianity would END. Tithing would never be mandated, they would have to be Spirit-powered and led. There would be no more super majority carnal Christians, Lordship Salvation theory would be banned. Prayer results would be obvious to all, and maybe even miracles happening (not mainly unproven claims).

False doctrine would be shunned and rebutted. Pastors in ministry for money #1 would be fired, and not rehired elsewhere. Churches would not be entertainment centers to have luxuries for the members, but would serve the world!

Most wars would never happen, and resources would be equitably accessed. Oil would give way to much more renewable energy (as it is finite; green is not). Government wouldn't waste money, or over- or under-tax, would be efficient and balance its budget.

Crime would virtually end. Morals would reign. U.S.A. would truly honor God. Homosexuals would repent. Kids would never be groomed to be confused about their gender. Murders, rapes, incest, abductions, mass shootings, robberies, divorce, porn, prostitution would all be lowered if not ended.

Christians would evangelize, then disciple, so many more Americans would be more moral. Not all would be saved, but all would be warned, and live in a nation where moral and just laws were all they encountered. Hit and runs, scams, identity theft—all evils in our world would lessen, because Christians would truly be what the Bible teaches Christians are to be, but they NEVER know its contents much more than the last sermons they heard at church!

So when you clamor for Christian Nationalism, by force of law, realize, you've been sold a bill of goods that conservatism is a synonym for it, foolish ones!

Christianity has been warped and misrepresented for decades! IF you ever knew what was in the Bible, churchianity isn't the model of that religion! Yes, a weekly gathering is in there, and YES, preaching the word is in there, and even giving, and singing. But there's SO MUCH MORE!

We often pray the Lord's Prayer—Thy kingdom come, on earth... LOOK at how many things REAL practicing Christians should be concerned with, but CULTURE and right-winged politics have replaced with churchianity, career and love of money worship, as well as just pay taxes, don't break the law, and do vote:

1. Our politics HAS to be revamped! Our polices HAVE to be just. Our parties HAVE to work together, and not cause strife and gridlock all the time!
2. Our businesses have to innovate, be efficient and profitable, but also be fair to employees, the environment and ethics.
3. Problems have to be solved! NOT all of them can be solved for sufficient profit that businesses will attempt their solution!

IF Christians REALLY cared about practicing biblical Christianity, and being the real deal, and sincerely prayed, 'Thy kingdom come,' Christians would lead the way in solving the world's many problems!

We not only DON'T have church God's way, we don't have society God's way, and instead the devil has replaced these things with a selfish, greedy, idolizing NON-disciple lifestyle of churchianity and Laodicean career and money worship. We MUST repent! (II Chron. 7:14) We likely never will! Judge us, Lord, for a fourth time!

(12/23/22-2)

Christian Nationalists believe America is a "Christian nation." UN-true! It was founded based on several Judeo-Christian values. But it's NOT a theocracy! The fact that we celebrate Christmas would NEVER hold water if there weren't a Santa, a tree, carols, lights and presents!

And Christians would rebel if we had a national holiday for Buddha or Mohammad! They'd have to commercialize those holidays too, because we aren't a country of any one religion. The SAME with Easter! The Easter bunny, eggs and candy make it palatable to most Americans, as NOT just Christ's resurrection day!

"In God we trust" on dollar bills and SOME cop cars is as "religious" as we get, in NOT favoring any one religion! Same with "so help me God" in swearing-ins! "God" is a very general term all religions gods (yes, some have multiple ones) can agree with, not favoring any one religion!

CRAPITALISM?

"If a monkey hoarded more bananas than it could eat, while most of the other monkeys starved, scientists would study that monkey to figure out what the heck was wrong with it. When humans do it, we put them on the cover of Forbes." —Nathalie Robin

1. I am a Bridled Capitalist; NOT a Socialist or Pure Capitalist. DO YOU "Democratic Socialist" Americans UNDERSTAND that you have the voting numbers, by far? The elites and rich are a super minority! Just sayin'! Do the math!

2. If any Americans believe life is a BIG game of Monopoly, they have to be DESTROYED, in every way but physically, folks! MOST of you are getting F-d, willingly, because you don't know how to change the system! LEARN! You have the numbers! Force BAD rich into obscurity and loss!

3. NO ONE can disagree with this meme, except satan's pawns! READ it! The ONLY thing wrong in it is that one day violence COULD be necessary, if the BAD rich siphon off all their wealth from government access. That WOULD be Marxian, immoral, but like a necessary/just war.

A DEMOCRATIC SOCIALIST IS NOT A MARXIST SOCIALIST OR A COMMUNIST.
A DEMOCRATIC SOCIALIST IS STILL A CAPITALIST, JUST ONE WHO SEEKS TO RESTRAIN THE SELF-DESTRUCTIVE
EXCESSES OF CAPITALISM AND CHANNEL GOVERNMENT'S USE OF
OUR TAX MONEY INTO CREATING OPPORTUNITIES FOR EVERYONE.
DEMOCRATIC SOCIALISTS BELIEVE THAT BOTH THE ECONOMY AND SOCIETY
SHOULD BE RUN DEMOCRATICALLY TO MEET HUMAN NEEDS, NOT SIMPLY TO MAKE PROFITS FOR A GREEDY FEW.

4. Equal opportunity CANNOT just be an aspiration. That pays no one's bills! No guarantee of financial success is in order, but a basic minimum standard HAS to be experienced by ALL Americans. NO severe suffering! Period.

5. EVERY monopoly HAS to be broken up and DISallowed! Period. ANY company able to raise prices, with no competitors keeping them in check, to SCREW the average guy/consumers HAS to be broken up. Period. This isn't anti-Capitalism, but anti-Pure Dog-Eat-Dog Darwinian Capitalism. It is GOOD.

6. Taxes for the very rich, OBVIOUSLY, have to be higher! They get all of life's perks. There exists NO "natural laws" or rights from God to hoard the world's resources. Let me say this again, Christians do NOT know the Bible, well, so they will be FOR Pure Capitalism, from SIN!

I AM SORRY that generations X, Y & Z have been labeled entitled brats, lazy, & do-gooders, by more stupid people, because what I see is kids unwilling to accept status quo, & the sins the older generation always accepted, if it yielded people power & profits! Tolerating evil!

I am a Houstonian, and was in SIFE (Students In Free Enterprise) in college. I've bowed my hat to pure Capitalism long enough. It HAS to be changed or ended by force, NOT for Socialism, but Bridled Capitalism! Business schools CAN'T keep grooming grads with their "business' purpose is ONLY profits" mantra!

IT IS INSUFFICIENT for "Christians" to use Lk. 16:1-13 and Mt. 25:14-31 to justify Pure Capitalism! They are justified using II Th. 3:10 to decry Socialism's freebies, but there is a middle ground, called Bridled Capitalism. Leonardo DiCaprio (or Brad Pitt?) coined the phrase. All props to him!

NOTHING is completely a matter of freedom, folks! There are ALWAYS boundaries, constraints, limits! Biblical freedom is NOT the right to do whatever you want! Freedom isn't the right to do anything, and government can't constrain your choices! Rom. 13 teaches they have a God-given role in society.

Now, IDIOTS are advocating Christian Nationalism. In their STUPIDITY, they have NO idea what they are clamoring for! People with NO knowledge of God's word, the Bible, want the Bible to be secular American law. They can't handle the TRUTH, or what they're seeking! Just like Rom. 10:2!

Boycotts, buycotts, higher FAIR taxes, NO person or business paying zero taxes, NO tax shelters, no ending estate taxes, NO abusive employers, ONLY fair wages, shunning hoarders, taxing evil rich more than the good ones, breaking up monopolies. These are ALL "Christian" values!

You on the left are labeled "godless" and "satanic," by IDIOTS who NEVER teach the whole counsel of God's Bible. They can't even SEE that Jesus dined with sinners, and NEVER said condemn a lost soul for being lost. That's natural. You don't judge them for not having God. There are some FOOLS behind pulpits!

And JUST LIKE Mt. 7:5, they cannot see the LOG in the political rights' eye, where:

1. Many are lost
2. Many go along with the religious, on abortion, for power vs. sincere conviction
3. MOST Christians are carnal in America Yet, YOU on the left are "godless." HYPOCRISY sin! Call it out!

IF anyone is going to APPLY God's Bible to politics and economics, justice must prevail! To whom much is given, more is required. That argues for taxing the rich more than others, with no legal loopholes that get them off the hook of those implications! NO exceptions. No favoritism!

Levit. 19:15 would rule U.S. economics. Government not allowed to favor the poor (Dem policies) or rich (GOP policies). The Jews of the Old Testament were God's role model nation—IN THEORY ONLY—to the world, of how He wanted things run! Forget "rights derived from God." RESPONSIBILITIES matter more!

POLITICAL cons (I use the abbreviation with BOTH meanings!) say achieve your God-given potential. That is their phrase to merge worldliness with Christianity, as acceptable political theory, folks! the American Dream IS worldliness, selfishness and sin, and anti- being a disciple!

HAVE YOU EVER NOTICED, this BIG game of Monopoly never ended, when we were kids, or that we quit playing it when we grew up? The people who are lower and middle class outnumber the upper crust. Vote in this new system, now! Force them, globally, to have no safe havens (ONLY the unphilanthropic rich)!

Rise up against the ruling class. Speak up against injustice. Vote against pure Capitalism. Don't fall into seeking freebies, but force justice in U.S. economics. If it ever gets to a Civil War, I'll be on your side, with gun in hand! The Bible doesn't teach Darwinian economics—EVER!

I 'gotta be specific:

1. Identify evil rich businesses and people.
2. TARGET THEM with boycotts, buycotts, increased taxes, social shunning, no comfortable safe havens for their wealth to hide from Uncle Sam, and start businesses to compete against them, and break up ALL Monopolies.

Capitalism MUST fall, IF you are using the term as Pure vs. Bridled Capitalism! European nations are NOT evil to ensure their people all do OK! Freebies aren't needed, but fair subsidies are, where people get help, then pay it back when on their feet. Hoarding rich MUST be politically targeted.

And young people: PLEASE never accept ("you have what you tolerate," said Mr. Evans—a Dallas politician) OLD people telling you youth want unjust things, that cost them money, because you want normal things everyone knows you ought to have, in a moral society, because those with money 'wanna hoard! Screw them, folks!!!

If a Civil War starts, I'll arm myself and be with the left side. I am NOT on the left, but the far right would be the rightful targets! Christianity is being warped by it, and sin reigns in it, as pastors remain apostate silent. I LOVE compassionate conservatives, though! NOT targets!

I am 100% pro-business, IF it's run justly and morally. I want U.S. businesses to be the world's best. When profit-seeking comes by breaking moral laws, I 100% oppose those businesses and managers/owners. EVERY business IS a family; some are dysfunctional, and that's NOT good, obviously! Fix it!

I have to educate you, THE SUPER MAJORITY OF U.S. CHRISTIANS ARE NOT FULLY COMMITTED TO JESUS, and ARE LIVING SIN-FULLY. That's why they vote far right. IGNORANCE! Ask them to recite 10 Bible verses. Deer in the headlights look will face you! An apostate generation!

Interjection

And I'm evil, too! PTL—I'm SO glad for my past three hours, an hour ago. I experienced Rom. 7 for myself. Every evil is still resident within myself! You never grow away from that ever-present possibility! I went further than Lot and Jonah. HAPPY to know evil always exists within me, fully! You can't escape it here on earth.

Continuing

I am willing to go to war against the far right and Socialist leftist extremists, if that ever occurs. MOST WASPs support a politics Jesus has NOTHING to do with—carnal, apostate and ignorant. ALL the lost will NEVER all hear the gospel message!

CHURCH & STATE

(AKA, Christ vs. Trumpism; 11/27/22-2)

Private account: "Whenever the church gets in bed with politics the church gets pregnant... and the offspring does not look like our Father in Heaven." —@jdgrear #SBC21 (6/17/22)

WANT TO KNOW HOW STUPID MANY CLAIMING CHRISTIANS IN AMERICA ARE? any celebrity or politician mentions "God" in the media, they have an emotional euphoria! It doesn't matter "God" isn't a synonym for Jesus, but could relate to any religion's main deity. CARNALITY REIGNS IN U.S. CHRISTENDOM!

NOWHERE in the Bible does God demand getting proper by celebrities, or does He seek to be advertised, or need celebrities to complete the Great Commission. PASTORS are guilty before God of teaching so many heresies! Seeker sensitive, relational evangelism, celebrities in If evangelism, ETC.

DID YOU KNOW Tim Tebow and Coach Dungy (perfectly fine gents) are fawned over by "Christians" because of their secular fame! They get entire careers failing at football, or speaking engagements on Christianity, because they're famous. The Bible NOWHERE says God needs famous people for evangelism!

(11/29/22-2)

The Constitution OR the Bible? The American voter—"We the people"—has to understand this problem: MOST Christ claimers are NOT disciples of Jesus, in their commitment. YOU can consider that NOT your problem, but it affects your public policy a lot. Bear with an explanation!

When Americans CLAIM Christianity, those outside that religion MIGHT assume that means these claimers care what its teachings are, and to some extent TRY to adhere to them. And IF outsiders think the teachings of Jesus are noble, they MIGHT conclude all is well with Christians!

But that is NOT the case, and it affects who you are up against, politically! Know Thy enemy, folks. The values in the Bible have VERY little to do with claiming Christians when politics is injected into the mix. MOST American (mainly WASPS) Christians have the Constitution as god!

They KNOW a new Constitutional amendment is basically impossible, in our evenly split, polarized times, so they worship worldliness sin through their interpretation of the 10th Amendment! NO MATTER what Trojan Horses they throw out—mainly gay marriage, abortion, crime, immigration—it is ALL based on the CORE of making as much money as is humanly possible (greed and love of money idol sin) MARKETED as "achieving one's God-given potential."

And they LOVE private property being found as a right in that same document! Put these two facts together, and what the Bible WOULD teach them, if they EVER knew much about it, and they are siding with worldliness and love of money sins!

Even Tim Tebow MISdefined "success," yesterday, because he does NOT know the Bible well. (Josh. 1:8) LOOK at the lives of the apostles. They were the MOST successful humans-ever—yet they were sometimes poor, and some of them (and Jesus) were always poor.

WHY? Not because they were ne'er do wells, but because they did so much work for God, that careers and salaries were NOT their #1 concern! [Yes, Tebow also spoke of lives having significance, as well).

It is the Bible OR it is the Constitution, for Christ claimers, and I would say that probably almost EVERY U.S. GOP Christian has chosen the latter! Have you ever heard a conservative speak of being a "Constitutional conservative?" THAT literally is code words, and means ZERO government helping anyone!

They do NOT want to learn of the Jews having a safety net. They do NOT want to read II Cor. 8, or Ac. 2 and 4. They do NOT want to read Phil. 2:1-6, or Mt. 6:33, or especially I Tim. 6:17-19, or even Levit. 19:15, Pv. 23:4-5 and Pv. 30:7-9. They do NOT want to follow Christ! How can I claim that?

Jesus said if you would follow Him, you do what He said. LIP SERVICE, with hearts far from Him. THAT is how God describes their politics! It is ALL about spurning Mt. 6 and Col. 4. RIP those verses out of your church accessory Bible! God didn't mean it! It was a joke! He was being sarcastic!

Again, it ALL goes back to minimizing taxes, and always voting for them to NEVER help anyone. And just like living for self is the epitome of an anti-disciple (no sacrifice, no suffering, no commitment, just me, me, me), and how they cover greed as good by pursuing "God-given" potential, they also cover the ultimate anti-Christian values of hoarding and selfishness with the worship of "self-sufficiency!"

They admire the Amish barn raising, but don't you EVER ask their tax dollars to engage such sentiment or they will vote you out! The Americans who love Darwinian self-sufficiency MOST are the ones who will fight you teaching Darwin in public schools!

And the Americans who love the concept of self-sufficiency MOST are ONLY those for whom what they have in the bank is believed by them to have been achieved by self-sufficiency! That's self-serving. SELFISHNESS sin, anti-Bible and anti-Christian.

Finally, I was in Austin, yesterday, and saw a bumper sticker which read, "bleeding heart liberal." The word "liberal," in political parlance, means generous, or caring of others. Liberals care that people NOT themselves suffer!

And do NOT try to debate with me about public vs. private helping of the lower class! The SAME people who want government to NEVER help never want government to expose how much they give to charity, which would prove whether they practice what they preach, or it's mere lip service, and a cover.

They will even use that Bible when it serves their purposes to say the left hand isn't to know what the right hand is doing. YES, this pertains to alms giving. But the dirty little secret sin is they never want anyone to know how LITTLE they donate! Statistics say the NON-rich in America give 3%, while the rich average 2%.

IMAGINE THAT! Those with the MOST give the least! It USED to not be this way (in the Rockefeller/Carnegie era, BEFORE the greedy 1980s yuppie years and globalism's outsourcing). IT IS TIME that the vast majority in America quit treating the rich as heroes, but calling them out for what they are.

"Godless" (a Rev. Ed Young label) for abandoning I Tim. 6:17-19, which is their God-required role in society, no matter your religious preferences, if any or if none!

Philanthropical rich are NOT targeted, here. LIARS who hide behind the Giving Pledge, but never give, or wait until they are deceased, because they want the P.R. image of being a "good guy" are culprits and enemies to our great-ish nation! QUIT LETTING THEM OFF THE HOOK, voters!

It's like when Rush Limbaugh donated $200K for some disease. COMPARED to his nest egg that was NOTHING! Everything is relative, or compared to the sacrifice, or not, of your particular situation!

$200K for a majority of Americans would be almost like the widow's mite. QUIT accepting token gestures! Jeff Bezo's ex-wife and J. R. Tolkien are HEROES, as is Mr. Gates, and Warren Buffett will be when his estate implements his pledge, IF the legal documents support what he claims!

I AM TIRED of my "religion" of Christianity being abused, misconstrued and manipulated for political gain, by people who DON'T follow it! And most do not! Just read its precepts!

Update #2

One P.S.: WHO ELSE is more easily able to help the poor than the rich? NOT everyone else who barely gets by, or can't retire, or lives pay check to pay check. I LOVE this statement, which far right "Constitutional conservatives" hate: "America is the wealthiest nation on Earth, but its people are mainly poor, and poor Americans are urged to hate themselves." –Kurt Vonnegut

100% TRUE! The wealthy in America have to be forced to do their fair share, and everyone has to pay in something! NO MORE GOOD 'OL BOY tax loopholes! No more free rides. Rise up, voters! Fix it!

60% of Americans live pay check to pay check, a report said, last week. The poor in America are either lazy as Hell, or forced into poverty by bad skills, or forced into it by companies offering peanuts, and they'd offer even less if minimum wage laws were ended, as "Constitutional cons" desire.

If any American isn't lazy, and is doing their best, they should NEVER suffer severe poverty, and should always be able to make enough to live off of, frugally and with great budgeting and buying skills. The "Constitutional conservative" has ZERO concerns about this! Just self and money!

Related aside: I understand, the Bible is NOT to be used for a rule book religion of legalism! It's a relationship–NOT a performance. Christians are under grace, NOT law. The Bible is a means to an end, to know Christ. ALL these things are TRUE! But it also speaks of milk vs. meat.

And if anyone ever treats its teachings as literal, though applied by faith, as Spirit-led, and uses what it teaches as a standard for comparison, you will see how carnal (i.e., sin-full) U.S. Christendom is! Non-Christians can read it for themselves, and ask, where is this verse seen in anyone's practice?

The Bible SAYS The Apostasy will come. I believe it already has. Masses falling away from the faith. It also says the end times will see people having a form of godliness, but denying its power. That's the opposite of Bible-founded Spirit empowered living!

FAKE Christianity, posing as good (wolves in sheep's clothes). The devil always brings some truth and some morality to his evil schemes, as the father of lies, and masked as an angel of light. (II Cor. 11:14) The final era of church history is Laodicean. Rich, but spiritually broke. WE ARE THEM!

IF JESUS' PARENTS HAD BEEN BORN AMERICAN

(12/14/22-2)

You know, Jesus was a loser, a ne'er do well; broke and always depending on others for his sustenance. He never owned a big home, or 2 or 3, no white picket fence. He wasn't even married, for that matter, or had kids He could buy cars for and spoil ("bless").

He never went to college, Ivy League or played sports (that we know of). Never had social status, joined the country club, played golf, lives in a gated community. Heck, He wasn't even known for 30+ years, and only went public late in His life! He was basically a transient ("itinerant") homeless bum. NOT a "success."

He always talked about God. Heck, even as early as age 12, we couldn't keep Him out of church. He didn't have a "real" career; never even tried to climb the social or corporate ladder. AMAZING how He never got it! Missed the memo!

He never even had sex! Imagine that! Probably never dated. Sweet 33 and never been kissed. On the path to being a 40 year old virgin; a male old maid. Bachelor 'til the Rapture. He probably shopped at Wal-Mart or Aldi. Never knew a name brand. Ignored Madison Avenue advertising.

IF He was a member of anything, it wasn't a fraternity or sorority, or social club. And IF He was a member of any shopping club, AT LEAST you'd expect He'd choose Costco over Sam's Club! Didn't the guy have ANY sense, or aspirations in life? He NEVER used Red Box, because 'we use Netflix.'

He didn't even get hand-me-down vehicles, but if He'd have had kids, He would have had them learn financial responsibility and bought their own. Made them walk 3 miles in snow, to school. Heck, He was an ascetic; a stoic! A monk. One who shunned any worldly goods. He just didn't get it.

Crazy claims, agreeing He was King of the Jews! Didn't have two dimes to rub together, or any fame, starting out, yet He spoke of such foolishness! Delusional fool. The fool on the hill. A family embarrassment. The black sheep of the family. A true loser we can only pray for and pity!

THIS is the First Family of humanity, had Jesus NOT been born in a manger, in a stable, in the little old town of Bethlehem, but had He been made in America! Two completely different and often at odds value systems, following CULTURE and sight-walking, vs. obeying God, His real Father! Amen.

UKRAINE

@ZelenskyyUA You could have had sex, and become a parent, by the time NATO and the U.S. provided what Ukraine has been needing since I called for it way back when, when the ordeal could have been relatively quickly ENDED by brute military force to back down Hitler #2! (12/19/22-2)

(12/22/22-2)

When that 40 mile trail of Russian military vehicles was advancing on Kiev, Ukraine, I SAID bomb the s(&% out of it. EVERYONE with any brain waves knew where it was leading! DUMB! Preemptive, decisive strike(s)! Self-defense. AVOIDING the inevitable we now fund! NO MORE MONEY

I'm NOT 'gonna advise on how to end the Ukraine War, or when we should decide NO MORE MONEY, because my website's Campaign Updates proves I suggested ways to end this over 7 months ago, so all wasted money thereafter was from a TEPID response to Putin; I wash my hands thereafter!

Russia SHOULD have been defeated within three months of its initiated war, and politicians WATCHED as a 40 mile convoy descended on Ukraine. MORONS! DID THEY THINK HUMANITARIAN AID WAS WITHIN THOSE VEHICLES? (2/24/23)

(2/25/23)

"It is in America's interest to support Ukraine. If Russia can invade, subjugate, and pillage Ukraine with impunity, it will do the same again to others, and a world at war diminishes the security of Americans." – Mitt Romney (2/25/23)

I have ZERO need to write about Ukraine, as I taught how to solve it MONTHS ago! It would have never lasted this long! BUT, still, overwhelming force that Russia can't keep up with is needed to force him to the bargaining table. Bullies and dictators ONLY respond to force! Duh 101.

HOW would any neutral party negotiate peace with Russia? ANY compromise is only a loss for Ukraine! Remember the FACTS: Putin invaded a sovereign nation—period. Like Operation Desert Storm, you must put the bully back in his bottle, back in Russia, then him pay for all damages!

Putin targets electric power grids? Do so in Russia! Eye for an eye, meaning let him feel the destruction he inflicts on innocents! Start attacking Russian military sites within Russia, @ZelenskyyUa TAKE THE FIGHT TO HIM, or suffer withdrawal of U.S. funding!

It is FAR late for still funding Ukraine! It's money down the drain. You make a surge, or you withdraw funding! I opt for the severe surge; dominating force. Overwhelming and conqueringly strong. Do or die. The final battle. ONLY that will persuade satan's man, Gog/Hitler #2, IMO.

NO ONE has YET to drop a serious bomb on the Kremlin! I don't recall even many reports of harm ensuing to Russian land space! Putin is making Ukraine suffer ALL the territorial destruction! That must change, as he is not being harmed by this war like Putin should be, for starting it all!

LITERALLY, unless there is a HUGE surge in Ukraine, there is no end in sight! America can't get so involved that world war breaks out, but those people deserve one last handout, that ends it, or anything less is MORE waste of U.S. taxpayer dollars. This could've been over after ~3 months, tops! That's DUMB!

AMERICA'S FOUNDING

(12/20/22-2)

The other day, I spoke with a dude about how amazed I was that U.S. has so much gun violence and so many murders, as you could film six TV shows, indefinitely, about our murders. He replied, America was founded on violence.

Liberals actually believe America was immorally and unjustly founded off stealing the American-Indian's land, enslaving blacks, and stealing Mexican's land! School curricula are trying to teach this view of history!

The liberal Cali governor is seeking reparations of about $223K per qualifying black resident. Open borders types believe the world owns America, by right, as some dunce from Dallas' Thanksgiving Foundation said last eve on NBC:

'Imagine a world where a border was just a line in the sand.' I HAVE, and it is NOT a pretty picture! Over-crowded, over-polluted, under-employed and under-paid everyone but those on top! Cultural upheaval!

The belief is WHITE PEOPLE, represented by older males, are to blame for evil America, so they (as a HUGE taxpayer base) must be punished! It DOESN'T MATTER none of them had anything to do with any of those three events! You need a scapegoat, and the liberals have found it!

IT DOESN'T MATTER that we (America) offered the "red man" $BILLIONS, which they refused. Gave them land (reservations), and allow them casinos not everyone else can't get in on, or that we aid them with their drug epidemic, mental health/depression crises, or allow them to make their own sovereign laws!

We won the battles. Conservatives say we "conquered." YES, our government, centuries ago, made some promises they broke, both to the "reds and blacks." 40 acres and a mule. You can have this territory; now we discover it has gold on it, so we are Indian givers. YES, TX, NM, CO, AZ et al USED to belong to Mexico. But remember the Alamo. Wars happened. One won, one lost.

You CAN'T say starting a war is moral (say Putin), but to insist America is evil, because of what our physical ancestors did four centuries ago is preposterous! Give back Mt. Rushmore to the Lakotas? Get realistic!

U.S. has been the most generous nation on earth! Our immigration policy over the last century has been WAY more generous than most other nations. Liberals have used this for votes! It's EXACTLY why they want Puerto Rico and Washington D.C. declared states, and open borders!... Socialist votes!

STEAL the (predominantly) white man's money through government confiscation, to fund freebies for the poor, who are often tied to those three events, historically! I was raised believing George Washington and Abe Lincoln were heroes, as with Christopher Columbus.

Now the left wants George vilified as he, allegedly, had a slave (mistress?). And Columbus caused the end of the "red man." These grievances are NOT settled by stating intended purposes, but hidden in an agreed-upon agenda you have to deduce from deeds, more than words!

And that agenda is to make America into the image of every nation and culture, destroy white culture as we have known it for 400+ years, take their wealth, accuse them all of racism and being closet white supremacists, and make all rich whites middle class, through excessive taxation to fund handouts! THERE, I said it! It needed to be said.

And this best of all nation was built by people who have heirs. It was NOT built by people now trying to break in and claim all our bounty as their own, with some imaginary legal rights to what our forefathers built! It's preposterous! They'd fight that in their own country, but no one flocks to live outside of America (except, perhaps Europe) because they're NOT as nice (excepting Dubai).

NO, it doesn't work that way, that you claim some 400 year past squatter's rights to what OTHERS totally unrelated to you built, because you like it (envy). And YES, we will fight this scourge, even if that were ever to lead to a second Civil War!

America has done well toward black slave descendants. As one I spoke with told me, WE didn't round your ancestors up in the jungles and make a profit off selling them as slaves! Go hang those tribal lord's ancestors!

And the ONLY reparations anyone can justly seek would be from wealthy direct descendants of those who actually owned slaves! More than 93% of white Americans back then NEVER owned one slave! As Governor Jindal said, "immigration without assimilation is an invasion."

WE HAVE AN INVADING FORCE trying to make OUR America into its own image, not just bringing good traditions from their culture, but believing this land actually belongs to them to rule! It's expressed in liberal votes, because tax and spend IS the foundation of U.S. liberalism! And spend on freebies! Waste other people's money!

EDICTS VISION

(12/23/22-2)

IF I WERE IN CHARGE, ALL issues that laws can fix would fix with JUSTICE! Manchin and Sinema have proved it only takes a FEW centrists to bring about influence of polarized parties. WHEN we rule, these will become law, by force, because they're JUST (nothing UN-just).

Laws we need:

1. NO laws allowed to be voted on, un-read.
2. NO laws allowed to be voted on without time for legitimate deliberation.
3. NO laws voted on the public isn't summarily/briefly educated on, in THEIR language.
4. NO back room deals—ever. FULL transparency.
5. NO lobbyists favored over the people, or anyone supporting just laws!
6. FULL transparency of ALL lobbyists interactions with politicians.
7. ALL dark money fully revealed to the public, as to amount and source.
8. ALL benefits and profits accruing to any and all politician fully revealed, vs. becoming millionaires off $200K salaries, without WE THE PEOPLE knowing how that happened.
9. No oil spills allowed without severe penalties that deter future occurrences.
10. The XL Pipeline laid, with those environmental precautions in place.
11. Geothermal fully developed for stable energy.
12. Heartbeat law with mom's life and vegetative state exceptions.
13. No discrimination against gay married people, BUT no religious entities ever forced to conduct such ceremonies, or religious businesses ever forced to condone by participation (if a competitor exists within 10 miles).
14. Taxes fair to ALL. That means no one doesn't pay in their fair share!
15. Fair means escalating scale (as 10% of more than you ever wanted vs. 10% of little to nothing isn't the same sacrifice). BUT, no taxes beyond what government NEEDS!
16. NO change to anyone's taxes until the feds' budget is determined, by streamlining it to a bare bones minimum!
17. Zero pork, zero waste, zero manipulating the tax code to cheat other Americans who are tax payers.
18. The filibuster continues in place, and term limits are disallowed, by law, so D.C. isn't run by green horns. BUT, a standard is defined whereby a states' bad apples can be pressured to resign or be recalled by other states IF that standard is repeatedly or severely violated.
19. Ethics laws passed to clean up SCOTUS, as well as serious punishments for politicians lying or self-serving. LIARS!
20. States are encouraged and even financially incentivized to encourage safe sex, so few to NO abortions occur, even though legal before heartbeat. NO state is 'gonna fine or jail people for unsafe sex behind closed doors, but encourage it by public policy.
21. Government, cooperatively with private sector, develop controllable birth control, that cannot fail.
22. Joint efforts also for eradication of all major life-threatening diseases. NO MORE wasted money on competing companies, where first to market alone gets the profits and copyrights! That wastes time and money.

23. Free speech on social media is enforced, which also means NO illegal words posted (like threats of violence, or plans for terrorism), and a standard set by Congress for those entities requiring warnings, time-outs, or cancellation (like conspiracy theory warnings, at the least).
24. ZERO illegal aliens enter America. ONLY people our economy needs. And they must not be allowed any access to any safety net for a minimum of five years of paying in.
25. States encouraged by the feds for training new immigrants in assimilation, like learning English, U.S. traffic laws, etc.
26. An EQUAL number of Dem-leaning immigrants are allowed in, as GOP! Base it on wealth, education, and tests/polygraphs. AMERICAN tax payers have zero obligation to be forced to accept paying others' freebies, U.S.-born or new arrivers—ever! That is UN-just!
27. Welfare changed to empower self-sufficiency! How you earn, what you buy and how you buy will be investigated and trained in, for a balanced budget. Job skills, interview and resume writing skills, and how to find openings, and ways to get your foot through doors will also be trained, as with motivation. Your poverty is NO ONE ELSE'S' problem, except family, friends or church/temple/mosque, who chooses to help, along with charities! EXCEPTION: Mentally and physically disabled with zero ability to earn (Social Security disability).
28. Social Security NEVER ended, but right-sized to not run out of funding! IF that means raising the qualifying age, or lessening payouts, that's what has to be done, to save the program. Businesses and society encourage self-funded retirement investments, and public schools teach how to wisely invest and save!
29. A "bum" politician is defined (and see #14 consequences). Bums include people who stir up strife, demonize opponents, lie, cheat, take kickbacks, can be bribed, change laws when they face violating them, only represent lobbyist interests, especially if different from what's best for America, sexcapades, like affairs/adultery in office, prostitutes, harassing any female employees, etc. Bums never care about justice, but "just" what's good for "us"/cliques/elites. They hide things from the public, and use lawyers and the media to cover for them. Bums exist in the media, too! Punish them! Party biased operatives who lie by denying that fact!
30. The media forced to only report facts, and to do so objectively/bipartisanly/unbiasedly, with severe fines that get business' attention for deterrence!
31. Perks of politicians fully disclosed to the public! Vacation trips, conferences, private meals, private jet usage, etc.
32. National background check; red flag laws unable to be abused for political punishment or unjust targeting, but due process procedures in place. All guns registered with serial numbers, or they are illegal, as cops use those in crime investigations. Training classes on use and storage proved to have been passed, or self-taught skills in those areas passed, with no such courses.
33. NO lawful gun owner EVER having their guns confiscated by any government entity (except if used illegally, as in a crime).
34. Gerrymandering made fair to both parties. ZERO exceptions, and the same with any growing counties, that redistrict 30. Fair voting procedures, like processes disallowing fraud, dead people "voting," or anyone voting more than once, or voting for another, or voting while unqualified.

35. Big oil no longer targeted, but appreciated, as they learn to diversify, because the supply is FINITE! We will always need its derivatives (rubber, plastics, etc.), and we CANNOT wait until we run out of supply for American ingenuity to take over, as one conservative author suggested.
36. No city in America has citizens drinking unsafe water, or any Americans anywhere eating foods that are medically, physically harmful to them, or with additives or ingredients that can kill them, or cause cancer!
37. Crimes disallowed to proliferate in ANY U.S. town or city! Period.
38. Reasonable, affordable college options created for any who academically qualify, and want to attend college, and employers legally banned from discriminating against them, because they are not foo foo enough for their arrogant status-based standards, elitist snobs!
39. Drug deals made safely, by open transactions in select publicly designated areas, even in states where they are illegal, so murders and violence and theft is discouraged, and gang violence lessens.
40. The U.S. Supreme Court ONLY has balance! 4 cons, 4 libs and 1 centrist, or 3, 3 and 3! ONLY justice!
41. U.S. public policy NEVER favoring the rich or the poor.
42. The rich NOT controlling public policy, by buying off politicians to their selfish whims, which are often against America's best interests, as a nation as a whole!
43. No child left behind in public schools. Period! That means poorer schools get the same quality education made available to them. Tutors, addressing the learning disabled's challenges, and requiring after school guardians to ensure they do homework & study, safely, without gang or other distractions. Public-private ventures!
44. "Church" defined, where no group can call itself such, just to avoid taxes. Only sincere and valid religious groups!
45. U.S. national security second to none, with more technology and less endangering human beings!
46. Cops unafraid of doing their jobs, by fear of jail time or firing. BUT, severe fines and job penalties for those who are corrupt or engage unjust brutality, including the possibility of being fired.
47. Government streamlined by professional accountants, auditors and management consultants, before any budgets get established! Nothing off limits!
- I can envision 100 more laws that are JUST! I've written 100, before. Justice isn't hard to observe, with honest, unbiased people! And the way to do this is by parties reforming (unlikely), or centrists forcing that result, to Hell with any who dislike justice! DO IT 2024, 2028, 2032!

Update

(1/15/23-2)

Seek votes for these laws. If not available, the President make them executive orders. When they're challenged to SCOTUS, if it overturns them, elect enough mainstream majority centrists to make it law. NO ONE has better content for America. #CommonSense In NO set order...

48. NO law unjustly favoring any group especially sponsors, or industry groups.
49. NO law can have anything off topic slipped into it.
50. NO laws will be passed that will be reversed by politics, because NO law will be UN-just.

51. NO ONE is above the law, and when convicted by a fair trial with credible evidence, their crime can't be expunged.
52. EVERY American will pay taxes.
53. ALL taxes must be fair, and have no loopholes.
54. Taxes will ONLY be as large as is absolutely needed to cover required federal expenditures
55. NO taxes will be levied until the federal budget is audited and streamlined for the best bang for the buck.
56. The federal government will be reimagined, aiming at 20% cuts through automation.
57. The XL pipeline will be developed, BUT only with fail-proof safeguards against all spills and blowouts.
58. ANY large oil spill will be punished so heavily, it's not fiscally responsible to risk that ever happening again.
59. Oil can be drilled for anywhere, under these conditions, excepting scenic lands or human-harming proximity.
60. Green energy will be made practical, all across America, with quickly filled gas tanks
61. Government will run efficiently, or personnel will be sanctioned, including retraining and firings (and replacement by robots and automation).
62. Crime will be reduced, researching all cutting edge means for EVERY city (no safe havens in America, or lenient on crime cities).
63. No law-abiding citizen will ever have their guns taken away.
64. Red flag laws can pass, but never be abused or politicized/weaponized.
65. All guns need serial numbers.
66. Home-made weapons (especially guns) will be identified by government, for safety reasons (unsafe manufacturer, or outlaw usages outlawed).
67. Automatic guns and AK-47 types will be strictly outlawed from criminals, terrorists and gang members; ONLY hunters, self-defense and practice.
68. Universal background checks can pass, but zero privacy laws violated (only flagged violators get identified).
69. Every gun owner will prove their skills, knowledge and ability to safely store away.
70. Abortions will be disallowed after heartbeat, excepting mom's life and vegetative baby states.
71. Politicians will be severely fined for lying to the public.
72. ALL donor meetings and communications of politicians will be transparent to the public, content summarized accurately.
73. EVERY back room deal of D.C. will be recorded, and made public (save confidential, national security or top secret edited portions).
74. EVERY vote in Congress will be automated, by push button, and the members' name tied to their vote (no anonymity). Votes for House Speakers will NEVER take more than one minute per round, again!

75. China will be economically beaten by America!

76. America will be the #1 nation for innovation.

77. America will be the global center for discovering CURES to every disease, and we will not waste money having researchers do the same work, but collaborate, for efficient discoveries.

78. NO expensive medicines will be unsubsidized by ALL, for any who provably have no way to pay for it (but health insurance will be required by all).

79. Obamacare will be made fair to taxpayers, and run efficiently, and mainly for absolutely needed procedures.

80. Social Security will be made sustainable, by any means required.

81. Medicare will also be made sustainable. That means, for example, my childhood millionaire neighbor who got three knee replacements paid for by government, WILL NOT HAPPEN! He didn't need that "help!" RIP, and Semper Fi.

82. Welfare will not give money or its equivalent, except during the time it takes to train enrollees to become fiscally self-sufficient, through budget, job search, job skills, motivation, buying habits, and investment training. Then those subsidies will be paid back in a reasonable timeframe.

83. Any and all subsidies will be justly paid back to taxpayers, by money or civic service to benefit our country for free.

84. The U.S. military will be dominantly #1, especially through innovation and technology, minimizing U.S. personnel fatality risks, and collateral damage, and will never be used to be the initiator or aggressor, or to take anyone's land (like Ukraine).

85. Homeless people will NOT be allowed to construct encampments on city streets, anywhere.

86. Public lands will be designated for homeless who refuse to get jobs and pursue their own lodging.

87. Charities will partner with existing government programs to offer homeless a way back to normalcy.

88. Gang drug dealing will happen in safe, public places, subject to all existing laws, but not targeted for arrest while safely transacting. Murders and thefts in such activities should NOT be risked by such criminals!

89. ALL addicting and deadly drugs will be eliminated from America.

90. Every gang or bike club who encourages any violence of any kind, or proof of loyalty thru crimes will be prosecuted as to every violator. No more face tattoo tear drops from pride, vs. from prison! And the Mafia, organized crime, terrorist and drug lords WILL be defeated in America!

91. Inflation will be defeated, by sound fiscal policy, and NEVER bloating U.S. federal spending!

92. Fair wages will be required of all U.S. employers. It's in the eye of the beholder, but standards are needed, with NO loopholes!

93. Unproductive or under-performing workers will be demoted or fired, with zero legal consequences.

94. Unions will be allowed, anywhere, but can only work for fair to both sides outcomes.

95. NO born male will ever compete in athletic events with born females, no matter how he identifies, as to his gender choice/preference.

96. NO public school child will be taught ANYTHING by anyone in school, about sex, until an age-appropriate grade (especially not ‘grooming’ to sexual perversions).
97. China and Russia will be dealt with, including American always maintaining military and technology superiority.
98. America always supporting all NATO members, and encouraging new entrants.
99. NO child under age 18 allowed to undergo sex change or hormone replacement surgery, without parental consent.
100. Judges banned and disallowed from demonstrating ANY pattern of political bias in their decisions! This goes all the way up to the U.S. Supreme Court!
- MANY more edicts are forthcoming, and I, for one, will never back down on requiring them, and nothing less! #CommonSense

REVIVAL FOR AMERICA!?

(12/23/22-2)

HERE, in detail, is the solution for U.S.’s MANY problems, which, if it never happens, U.S. has NO hope, medium- and long-term: II Chron. 7:14 Prayer is humbling (I Pet. 5:7-9), BUT prayer can be arrogantly for self! (Jas. 4:1-8). Humbling yourself is NOT just praying! READ Jas. 4! Christians must do the deeds that show one has repented of their arrogance!

In Rev. 3 (the Laodicean church), God tells Christians how to resolve their arrogance problem. These two passages NEVER say just pray! Humbling ourselves first requires acknowledging we are arrogant and self-dependent! (Pv. 3:5-7)

It’s hard (impossible) to fix a problem you can’t admit you suffer with! We have an arrogance problem, because of our riches, and selfish desires, so says Jas. 4 and Rev. 3! Jas. 4 even says you pray, but for wrong motives, for answers to feed your own lusts! That’s where seeking Gods face comes in.

That means aspiring to know and do God’s will, learning His ways! We have to choose to be committed to doing God’s will over our own! Not My will, but Thine attitude. Submission, surrender. Making a choice to become Christ's disciples; NOT just saved!

Then praying according to HIS will, we will get HIS answers. And when we turn away from our evil ways. YES, Christians do evil things. We MUST repent from them, meaning, in context, turn away from and stop doing them! It can be a host of evils, but we hide them from church-goers on Sunday!

I’ll just name a few: Extremism in politics, bias and party worship, power idolatry, hatred of Dems, lack of reconciling attempts with the left, worship of political conservatism (which is NOT fully godly), tolerating stupid and evil people as our political allies, and never calling them out; only caring about abortion and homosexuality, AS IF the entire Bible revolves around those two moral issues! BALDERDASH!

Greed, selfishness, carnality, hoarding, ignoring the poor, worshipping self-sufficiency to cover for our lack of selflessness, or disobedience to Phil. 2 (others as MORE important than us attitude).

Worship of money, workaholism, the American Dream turned into worldliness, Laodicean churches, who do LITTLE evangelism, discipling, use of laymen spiritual gifts or ministries that ever bless society. Tithing myth, 50% of church members giving NOTHING.

Unrevealed pastor salary figures. False beliefs that mega pastors deserve same wages as CEOs of same-sized businesses (because they manage them 40 hours a week, vs. speak to them for 1.5 hours). Love of money, delusion of America as only exceptional, vs. also flawed—as with cops and the military.

Trust in our bank accounts and 401K's more so than in Christ (if Jesus was a myth, our lifestyles wouldn't much be impacted, as Paul argued in I Cor. 15). Sex sins in church and among leaders, even as WASPs over-focus on laws regarding sex (hypocritically).

NEVER holding politicians accountable. Tolerating their lies and antics. Hiding our assets from justly paying taxes. Paying pros to use sophisticated tricks to lessen our taxes, so we don't even pay as much as secretaries pay. Believing three-word political slogans, never thinking through our positions.

SO MANY SINS the Church has to repent of. God sees all. I happen to see these things, as well. I, like Job and Ecclesiastes, may just be in a very bad mood, today, after the omnibus bill passed, but I see very few positive signs for America. Constantly politicians make BAD decisions! It MUST end!

And ADD, D.C. is constantly just conducting time-consuming and costly "investigations" of every little matter, INSTEAD OF DOING THEIR FRICKING JOBS TO PASS LEGISLATION, and not bust the budget. THROW OUT ALL BUMS! Term limits MAY, one day, be required! Have a great day!? UGH.

P.S.: I'm NOT becoming a pure conservative! I've always been a fiscal conservative, with solutions to even allow a safety net that is just. I just DESPISE spending tax payer money, especially when we are near a recession, have no surplus, and $31 TRILLION in debt. Centrists join with all good policies!

Update #1: Asbury Revival?

(2/17/23)

People are giddy over youth in Asbury skipping classes to sing, pray, confess and testify, indefinitely. WHERE IN THE HECK HAS EVERYONE ELSE BEEN THE PAST 30-40 YEARS, waiting around on "God to move," when He's been waiting on US to move? II Chron. 7:14 WE are the ones needing to move!

DUMB people are constantly saying, "find out where God is moving and join in." God says, draw near to Me and I will draw near to you." QUIT BLAMING GOD FOR YOUR UTTER SPIRITUAL FAILURES, CHURCH! I have no more patience for this message.

CAN YOU IMAGINE the righteous anger God RIGHTLY has, that since the mid-1980s, America hasn't had a revival, and FEW Christians even cried out for that during that time? I'd be FURIOUS that so many of the people He did so much for ignored Him for most of those years! Judgment deserved.

As I told a Navigators executive's assistant, this morning, "it's ALWAYS the youth, who haven't yet been ruined by the chase for money, Monday through Friday!" That's WHY Campus Crusade and the Navigators used to mainly target college kids, in my day! Open hearts; empty wallets! Priorities! (Jas. 2:5)

IF YOU prayerfully MEDITATE ON the Best Memory Verses at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>'s Will you live forever? button, as with Why Be Totally Committed to Christ?, and it doesn't move you one iota to being more committed, I would say test yourself to see if you are in the faith! (II Cor. 13:5)

The Navs uses suggestive selling technique/back door/subtle, where you ask how one person does their Bible study, then show them how you do (their method). They do it 1 on 1. I don't think ANYONE has a vision that the entire global church needs to have been disciplined! Do we care?

It is the FOOLISHNESS of mortals that they wait around for some miraculous movement of God, we call "revival!" The vived need to disciple the barely breathing, then BOTH go rescue the lost. God blesses that. He isn't the One slow to move! And evangelism happens.

(2/18/23)

The phenomena we call "revival" is merely more than one Christian getting excited about the God who saved them, so they start getting serious about their walk with God! It is what Lordship Salvationists demand as salvation requirements, which is OBVIOUSLY wrong, because they demand it for life, and it OBVIOUSLY doesn't always last for life; in fact, our calling for revival shows MOST Christians don't have it for life! So Lordshippers MUST deem most Christians unsaved, by their false doctrine's standard for salvation's requirements! This is UNDISPUTABLE

"Revival" isn't even in the New Testament, as a phenomena! God does command, "wake up, sleeper, arise from the dead and Christ will shine on you." NOTE, the HUMAN is the one needing change—not man waiting on God to act! SAME with II Chron. 7:14! Same with Jas. 4:8!

We pray God will do something "big," IGNORANT of the fact He's waiting for US to do something! And that something is discipleship of other Christians! NOT preach sermons at them, where the preacher has NO relationship with those who hear him, excepting a select few! It's relational discipleship!

The Navs do it 1:1. Jesus did it 1:12. It requires intimacy and intensity. It is NOT mass manufactured assembly line Christianity of Capitalism, or church as a business, or churchianity! It IS II Tim. 2:2 and Phil 4:2. It is passing on life to barely alive believers (I Th. 2:8). Fire begets fire.

It requires FAT learners—faithful, available and teachable (NAVS terminology). It requires Christians daily getting into God's word. Not legalistically, where you never miss any days for any reason, but a lifestyle habit being formed. And it's NOT skim reading, or checking off a box.

It is getting to know God, through meeting with Him daily, in his word and prayer. You speak to Him, He speaks to you. Conversation, communication, communion, fellowship, koinonia. And it affects your walk, 24/7. Discipleship is 24/7, 365! Jesus says it is daily! And it is NOT an emotional mountain top experience, BUT that can generate it.

What's happening in Asbury can lack the intellect element, with mainly music. It HAS to extend beyond that to Bible understanding, and fitting into a daily life schedule. Not cancelling life, altogether, indefinitely! God doesn't do that!

NOWHERE in the book of Acts did Christians completely abandon their duties and responsibilities, indefinitely. YES, they met, sometimes daily, but they kept their jobs and met their family's needs (or attended college classes, as the case would have been in modern day), after a time of acknowledging God's movement.

In short, it turns into a discipleship and quiet time habit, or it is only temporary! And those two ministries (along with Scripture memory) turn into evangelism, or spiritual gifts are being abused, for self-edification!

Moral maturity by God's Spirit alone, which ALWAYS cares about the condition of the lost, MUST accompany any revival, or it is fake. And ALL ALONG, this could and should have been happening the past 40 years, but the Church Growth Movement and church as a business philosophy KILLED the revival a movie coming Feb. 24th addresses!

The love of money sin ALWAYS seeks to master the believer, over His being their Master, or sitting on the throne of their heart, as Bill Bright's tract and My Heart Christ's Home spoke of back in the BETTER days!

It is OUR problem; NOT God's. We strayed! We are prodigals! WE must return to God! He is waiting on US! You can pray all you want, and sing 'til your throat is sore, but II Chron. 7:14 has FOUR things Christians MUST do, or our nation is doomed!

These youth KNOW our society has crises! They've decided the fix, correctly! WHY is it people OLDER than college age didn't figure it out? Money! And Bible IGNORANCE or illiteracy. Sin!

My seminary evangelism professor everyone loved (RIP Dr. Fish) used to say evangelism is more caught than taught. SO IS DISCIPLESHIP! The vived MUST revive the barely breathing super majority of claimers of Christ in America—immediately, or America has NO hope!

And it will ALWAYS be wholly insufficient to substitute man's/preachers' words with God's word. His words don't return void. Clever, rhyming, alliterated or otherwise fancy language is NOT called for in Scripture. Straightforward is God's way; NOT backhanded attempts to get Christians into the word!

Ask them to! Do so prayerfully and repeatedly! God has very CLEAR ways He does His business! (Gal. 2:14; II Cor. 2:17; Eph. 6:20) And God's vision is NEVER for ANY attempts that don't reach ALL lost (evangelism) and all saved (discipleship). Is your revival of Him? Time will tell!

Who needs revival, when you have all promises of God yes in Jesus? (2/19/23)

A "revival" could just as easily occur if every church evangelized all their nearby lost neighbors, as praying for something miraculous to occur without us doing a thing! God causing many to positively respond would have the SAME effect, and is what we're to be doing, anyway! (2/20/23)

(2/21/23)

I DISAGREE college coeds should indefinitely be full-time praising, instead of also studying. When I got lit up in college, I spent 5-8 hours a day, reading the Bible, but still did classes. God says continue in My word, and you're truly disciples; NOT sing, full-time.

The amount of hours isn't the key, but the longevity and intensity! Their parents pay for them to attend classes. You can chew gum and walk at the same time, just don't lose what was started as Asbury!

The Bible promises blessing on people who found their lives upon God's word. It DOESN'T say eternal life comes by doing so. Lost people SHOULD do what it teaches, and they will be blessed in this life. But the next life is more important! (Mt. 7:24-27; Jn. 13:17)

I LOVE what I've seen at Asbury, as it's just like Body Life! Open microphone, testimonies and confessing sins publicly. Body life and discipleship, leading to evangelism and social ministry is ALL I've ranted about for nearly two decades, as with II Chron. 7:14 having four parts. Is it coming to pass?

I LOVE hearing about revival calls for repentance, or feeling badly that we've sinned so against God! As we learned, today, that feeling is a holy, God-wrought thing that man's will must also cooperate with. Acting like you're all OK, and have done nothing wrong will never bring revival!

(2/23/23)

When I got "revived," I had a Baylor dorm R.A., a B.S.U. Director, Jamie Lash's teaching ministry, The Navs and CRU all around me, as with Highland Baptist and eventually Don Anderson Ministries to teach well; and a quiet time for hours a day. These revival "kids" have NOTHING to inform them!

Local churches in EVERY city where college students are getting revived NEED to offer discipleship courses on campus, with ZERO calls to become a church member or give donations! SERVE and benefit them! That selfless act will do what you're SUPPOSED to do, vs. advertising your "business."

It's a sad loss that this would be an IDEAL time for The Navigators and Campus Crusade to teach college students their materials, but it would look like capitalizing on revival, and they surely would seek recruits, or donations for their staffers. That would ruin everything, IMO!

I FEEL for these revival-praying college students, because they are like sheep without a shepherd, as they RIGHTLY don't want this about any human leader—or money! They NEED to learn how to have a quiet time, and read our websites discipleship section, but ONLY follow Jesus!

(2/23/23)

THIS is the problem with Asbury, at THIS point! They NEED educating on God's word; specifically, how and why to grow and walk with Christ, fully committed! Jesus spent hours praying, even an entire day. When He was transfigured that was precious time with three disciples. BUT those experiences END, transitioning into real life application! He DIDN'T remain on that mountain, forever! Read your Bible! Eph., I Jn., Jn., Ps., Pv.

Rom. 10:2 and Ac. 18:26 show why newly-revived Christians need knowledge of God and His word! You NEVER squelch anyone's zeal, but you add knowledge to that zeal (and morality and evangelism, etc.; II Pet. 1:5-8).

IMO the #1 thing the Asbury-like coeds across the nation need to learn is how to have a daily quiet time, and what Bible books and chapters to read first! IF you go to <http://AmericanAnswers.org>'s Will You Live Forever button, the discipleship section has all of that information!

(2/25/23)

IF anyone ever thought a revival could be man-made (which it can't be), they would do FULL evangelism of all lost people, prayer-backed, and full discipling of all Christians, all along intensely praying for their nation's restoration to morality it may have had more of, previously.

People who are seeking a revival (as I am) are wanting our nation healed of its many sin problems, many to get saved, and all to be more moral. Unity isn't a required result, or necessarily possible (as we are so different), but tolerance, peace and joy, vs. hate and angry (and sometimes violent) division in America!

I DON'T CARE if we ever have "revival," IF we get a super majority of Christians committed to Christ and evangelistic, knowing their Bibles! Lovingly nag a believer into a daily quiet time habit. That's the hard but necessary work ALL pastors and maturer Christians must engage, or there's no hope.

II Chron. 7:14 has FOUR steps! We settle for prayer, because it's quick and easy! The most omitted step is turning from our sins ('gotta identify and acknowledge them, first), and seeking God's face is His will and ways, which means doing His priority work(s). Prayer is much easier, so revival tarries!

And you're never 'gonna have real and widespread revival if we don't ALL do those four steps, as believers, or at least a super majority that represents the whole. II Chron. 7:14 says if God's people; NOT if a handful of them. We LOVE to short circuit God's ways, cutting corners! Lazy and sinful.

Like we have to do for many other things (like evangelism), the Southern Baptists should LEAD in intense prayer for revival at their annual convention (as well as commitment to discipling). The largest denomination showing others the way, humbly and prayerfully. #JustDoIt #NIKE

CONSERVATISM & CHRISTIANITY

(11/24/22-2)

Political conservatism goes hand in hand with churchianity and carnality. ALL one has to do to be "good," and never feel otherwise, is work hard, pay your taxes, follow the rules/laws, vote, and go to church! IS THAT what the Bible teaches Christians they are to do, ONLY? Read it! 'EDBS.'

People who haven't read the Bible, who are wondering what normal Christianity ought to look like might be wise to start with the book of Acts. IF you read it, you must walk away from that experience thinking it's from a faraway time in a magical place where people didn't behave as we do!

Just peruse these book of Acts references, and look up what a disciple is, and you will see how little is required in America, for preachers to consider you a faithful Christian! Attend; perhaps "tithe." So long as your behavior at the building isn't bad, you're good in their eyes, forever! Anathema!

Ac. 1:8, 2:41, 4:12, 19-20, 31, 5:20, 29, 42, 6:7, 7:2, 8:1, 4, 12, 25, 35, 9:3-9, 20, 31, 10:1-23, 43, 11:19, 24, 12:24, 13:5, 48-49, 52, 14:3, 21, 26, 15:36, 16:5, 15, 31, 17:2, 11, 25, 18:5, 27-28, 19:8, 10, 18, 26, 20:20, 24, 24:15, 26:7, 18, 23, 26:7, 18, 23, 26:26, 28:23.

I just saved you HOURS of reading every verse in Acts. Read those, and ask yourself, is that what I observe in U.S. Christendom? If not, why not? Is it ONLY that Christianity was new then, and no one was saved but those 120 & a few others we read of in the New Testament, or are the practices described there unique to one generation?

DO YOU OBSERVE Christians going to a church/building, for a 1-2 hour service they sit and observe, when you read Acts? DO YOU SEE them, otherwise, just working 40-60 hour a week jobs? Is the difference cultural?

I assert the difference is moral and spiritual! ALL you have to do to become a believer is sincerely believe from the heart! IF you never do anything more, HOW is spiritual growth supposed to happen? God is always at work, but sanctification requires willful cooperation. NOT just hearing sermons!

Jesus' calls to discipleship have a high standard. They are NOT just get saved and attend church! The rewards are many, but those willing to meet the requirements are few. And that's why U.S. Christendom is so full of carnal claimers of Christ. Discipleship lacks!

Just hearing a sermon is supposed to do all the work. Jesus NEVER taught that! Sermons are forgotten after 72 hours, and discipleship is daily. It's time with God, alone. I don't know where in church history the false doctrine of churchianity arose, but it was never derived from reading the Bible on what church is, or what the Christian life is!

American culture, just as with worldliness marketed as the American Dream, is likely the cause, just as preach and be paid mirrors the Industrial Revolution mass production model. Pastors NEVER doing EDDBS; just sermons.

EVERYTHING is to occur behind a pulpit for one hour. ALL ministry, all discipling, all evangelism, all caring for the poor, all mentoring, all spiritual gifts using; EVERYTHING! Balderdash! FIND that in the Bible! You NEVER will.

But we are impatient, busy, and disinterested in the biblical practice of Christianity, so we allow preachers to tell us that's what being a "good Christian" entails: Go to church, obey the laws, and give them 10% of what we earn. MOST Christians don't tithe, so even that unbiblical crux of churchianity isn't obeyed by MOST U.S. Christians!

The first century church was MUCH more concerned with God's will than their own will (which usually means pampering one's self with luxuries that cost money); creature comforts. They had nowhere near all the tools we have to complete the Great Commission, yet just a few of them turned the world upside down in a short period of time.

We aren't interested in doing that! We want our own lifestyle goals achieved, early retirement, owning as much as our abilities can earn, but also to feel good about ourselves, morally, so church attending salves our guilt!

It was NOT just the professionals, the apostles, or the pastors who ministered much in the book of Acts! READ the book! If you do, it might inspire you what God can and has done, but it should also show you how far we have fallen! 20 centuries later, and improvement is NOT what I see.

Pastors, by and large, are NOT requiring parishioners to actually live as disciples of Jesus! Their false doctrine of Lordship Salvation requires lost people to commit to living so, but that's where it ends. There's NO checking in or up on them to see if they are, because they mainly aren't.

That wasn't what God required of them for salvation, but you would think the theory that was invented to solve the very real carnality problem would at least have the objective self-reflection to notice it isn't working, in most of the cases. At the very same time, I assure you most "Christians" I know are "nice" people! That is NOT what Jesus called us to be!

ECONOMY ISSUES (I)

Inflation

(12/23/22-2)

IF a D.C.-wide house cleaning is NOT undertaken, soon (like Jesus overturning the tables of the money-changers), I don't believe we will have a country to save, either by bankruptcy, secession, civil war, or China/Russia taking over global power from our self-imposed weakness! USA#1

Omnibus "Omni" (of all things; all) "Bus" (a big vehicle that will roll you over if you get in its way). "The word 'politics' is derived from the word 'poly' meaning 'many,' and the word 'ticks' meaning 'blood-sucking parasites.'" –Larry Hardiman

Printing money is how we get away, temporarily, with spending massively with zero balanced budget! NOT borrowing, NOT a growing economy, NOT increased taxes. Forcing future (unborn) generations to deal with the very negative consequences. That's UNjust and evil!

(12/23/22-2)

THIS message I've delayed for three hours, as I believe it futile! But then I heard two talk radio stations, and I am confirmed that it is valid! The books of Job and Ecclesiastes show some author negativity! THIS message is ALL negative, so I started thinking maybe it's just me, but talk radio 100% AGREES with my conclusion:

America and its economy are DOOMED, if politicians keep spending needlessly, never addressing our debt!

We had Covid relief, infrastructure bill, Ukraine costs, and now a monstrous omnibus bill. I have NO belief that D.C. will ever reform itself! You have to pay the fiddler someday! Like talk radio said, it's our grandkids and their children who won't have a standard of living as good as ours!

They labeled it narcissistic, selfish and immoral. I 100% AGREE! And I differ from the many centrist GOP's who thought it acceptable to vote for it.

MAYBE business school lied to us, and we know nothing about economics, as BBAs and MBAs, because somehow our economy hasn't crashed, yet, or our dollar become virtually worthless, like in the 1920s.

China's NOT stupid enough to lend to us, except by higher interest rates. The economy isn't growing enough to ever have a surplus that can pay down our debt! Inflation is making EVERYTHING cost more, and even with wage increases, you JUST BREAK EVEN. You earn more, but everything costs more!

It is EVIL how D.C. career politicians feel Dems will lose power on Jan. 3, so spend baby spend, and for ANY GOP to have gone along to get along! EVIL. Sin! And it's EVIL to wait until the last minute, and vote on things you know nothing about! EVIL! God judge our wicked politicians! If anything doesn't go their way, they just change the laws to their favor. THEY profit and benefit. NOT the people, or taxpayers!

Someone has to foot this bill! It will be people not yet born! That's WICKED! Kick the can down the road until politicians retire in comfort, and care nothing about who suffers the consequences! A talk radio DJ said its people without kids not caring about future generations. I believe many have kids, but THEY benefit their family!

There is no magic fairy money tree, but because America has the reserve global currency, we temporarily get away with PRINTING MONEY. It's a farce; a mirage; a phantom/ghost; a lie! NO ONE but elite secretive folk know how much we print!

YOU don't feel that lessening of value to YOUR dollars for a long time. It almost argues for the 'screw everyone else; I'm just 'gonna care about my family's finances' attitude! Survivalist skills of the black market crash of the 1920s will be needed, as I, unfortunately, see zero positive signs of this debt increase problem being fixed!

I hope, wish and pray God will kill every evil D.C. politician! They're NOT all evil, but you know who you are! You selfishly don't care about anyone but you. Not even your grandkids, or constituents! Lord, PLEASE destroy them in undeniable ways only You can do, soon!

Debt is NOT an asset, a possession, or a positive entry in a ledger sheet! It's a negative, a boat anchor to economic growth, a liability, a bad thing! YOU get cut off maxing out credit cards, because those who lend/loan to you know your ability limits. D.C. doesn't see any limits for themselves!

In Bill Clinton's day, we had a SURPLUS. Now we have $31 TRILLION and growing debt! And some wonder why there's inflation. False dollars glutting the market with no innate value but the pure ignorant confidence of consumers who continue to be positive, so they keep spending. It's blind, baseless faith!

Those who have enough will fare OK, when the Titanic economy hits. Good luck to the super majority! D.C. politicians also love to demonize China and Russia (often deservedly), but as long as they paint them as evil enemies, normal citizens can't see especially China has legitimate interest in its investment in America being solid/stable.

IT IS NOT! It is a house of cards. And all nations are interdependent, so when we fall, many more will too, quickly after! China is smart enough to cut us off, or raise the cost to borrow! D.C. politicians are NOT smart enough to self-regulate!

I sincerely fear that America will go bankrupt, after a severe crash, that's taken decades in the making to make, by irresponsible, evil, sin-full print-and-spend politicians! They're not even tax-and-spend politicians, anymore! They just print USELESS money the public deems useful, from IGNORANCE those same D.C. pols will never educate them on, lest their evil will be exposed!

It takes time, but pay up will be required! SMART people who pay taxes already know this, and rightly fear they alone will be forced to bail us out. Who else would? It's all so very vile, I have NO HOPE for it being fixed!

McConnell blamed Social Security and other entitlements for 70% of D.C. spending, but even Reagan knew it's paid for by taking out money from pay checks; NOT from taking money out of the Treasury's bank account. BUT, promises were irrational, made decades ago, that cost of living increases and age 65 would sustain the elderly like they have become accustomed to believe Social Security will!

The numbers do not work! I have many solutions, addressed before, but I'll add that three other sources can be targeted, beyond streamlining government, fair taxes, reimagining what government does, compulsory civic service for everyone NOT in public service, innovation, balanced budget by 15-20 years, NO waste, NO pork, and Welfare being changed to empower self-sufficiency within two years maximum:

Corporations, the rich and politicized or run like a business churches (NOT all) SHOULD pay their fair share in taxes! But NOTHING about raising anyone's taxes even needs to be considered until the feds get their budget right-sized.

I used to say 10-20% cuts are required. With AI, robotics and automation, maybe higher percents! I've also said management consultants, accountants and auditors could EASILY tear apart all fed expenses, and get more things done for less, for a best bang for the buck. I HOPE I'll, one day, be able to prove that claim, as I know how I run my finances, and those skills apply in D.C.! I am near no hope!

They're blue hairs will be long retired, if not dead, before their EVIL decisions' impacts are suffered by the majority! That is EVIL! Same with pressuring votes by arbitrary deadlines, and bribing morally WEAK people to vote FOR waste, because their state gets perks! %$& the system!

Labeling a government spending bill the "inflation reduction bill" is like a company selling a toilet paper roll sized-wad of toilet paper a "toilet clog un-doer!" (12/24/22-2)

If an economy's growing jobs, Americans are more open to immigration. With AI/automation/layoffs, etc., it's seen more as job and wage competition. The professional class welcomes skilled, smart newcomers more so than those with generic/commodity labor skills. Less to distinguish over. (2/6/23)

UTAH FOUR SLAYINGS/KOBERGER

(& Bryan Kohberger; 12/29/22-2)

He would be a FOOL to still, be in Idaho. And YES, I did say he, not she. My assumption is a male did it, if not with others' help.

(12/30/22-2)

Bryan Kohberger: Bachelors 2020 and Master of Arts Criminal Justice 6/22, DeSales University, PA. Now Ph.D. student at Washington State University, Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology, WA. Sick smartie and MASS MURDERER!

Rational route from where Bryan Kohberger was arrested (at a house), & where he had allegedly been seen (in the Poconos). #Idaho4 #Moscow4 #Idahohomicides

Where Bryan Kohberger was allegedly arrested:

I SERIOUSLY doubt he would take the time to cut them open, with four murders, trying to escape, and keep DNA evidence to a minimum! But, the police would know about the fan(s) and intestines! (and the landlord)

Bryan Kohberger is proof MUCH higher education on law enforcement techniques isn't a sure-fire means to commit the "perfect crime."

Bryan Kohberger's student peers, professors, parents and any friends or roommates have a LOT of explaining about his behavior the past two months!

I DOUBT Bryan Kohberger left the weapon on scene, or dripped any of his own blood. Sweat even unlikely. Shoe prints? Outdoor cameras? Finger prints on front door or bodies?
SOMETHING broke this case! DOUBT he told anyone about it-too! His car tripped him up?

EVEN IF the #Idaho4 were all asleep, it's HARD to believe just one guy could kill them all, without some of them fighting back or gang tackling Bryan Kohberger, IMO. Even sleepy, you react, especially if you see or hear nearby murders!

Tears and prayers for all family members of the #Idaho4. If I knew their Twitter addresses, I would post directly to them. PLEASE show them love! God is with the sorrowful! (Ps. 147:6; II Cor. 1)

THANK YOU to all ID and PA law enforcement authorities, FBI, Twitter sleuths, and tipsters, for the capture of Bryan Kohberger! You're always loved, by me, since your work started with the #GabbyPetitio case! I LOVE justice warriors!

Top 3 all-time viewerships, today, as "everyone" is interested in the #Idaho4 case! Moscow PD PLEASE find his prior rap sheet, address, family members, work history and PhD supervisor/thesis advisor, Twitter sleuths. Law enforcement won't reveal it for awhile, IMO.

People: Unless Bryan Kohberger's parents are retired, they, eventually, have to go to work. They will be hounded, God willing, by the press, mercilessly, until we the public get answers even they may not know/have, but do have to be asked! @briantentin (12/31/23-2)

Update #2 (12/31/22-2)

WHERE ARE Bryan Kohberger's parents addressing the media? They SURELY know things about his words, deeds and lifestyle, the past two months! Get 'em talking, or pressure the same, as neighbors and the national media. You can't hide everything from your parents, very well, IMO!

Kohberger was NOT as smart as his aspiring PhD mind thought he was!

Bryan Kohberger appears to lack feeling. Tasers might teach him how to feel. But since they're illegal, by law enforcement, maybe someone inside some jail will teach him just an inkling of what a shank/knife felt like for the #Idaho4 Not fatally, but a taste of his own medicine.

I WONDER if Bryan Kohberger will answer the public's research questions:

1. How and why did you pick those victims?
2. What were your emotions when you murdered them?

If he asks others to answer such questions (i.e., class project questionnaire of criminal inmates), why will he likely never answer them for himself?

ALL that matters is what evidence ties Bryan Kohberger to the crime scene, and if it can/does, what was his motive (and did he plan this well before)? EVERYTHING ELSE is worthless gossip and speculation, to me. Will take time to get these answers, IF we ever do.

Beautiful in-crowd sorority girls likely what he longed for, being bullied by girls in high school, as well.

WOULDN'T YOU LIKE Bryan Kohberger (or his parents) to tell us:

1. What went wrong in your life that made you want to kill?
2. WHY didn't you seek counseling help for that?
3. Did that affect your college major decisions?

(1/1/23-2)

My track record is I never speculated about the #Idaho4 murders, for two months. ONLY today do I wonder aloud how one guy could kill four, without screams causing even more people to enter and help them not be. Asleep explains the first 1-2. Kill the male first would be wisest (strength).

To me, Kohberger planned this for at least five minutes, if not weeks, as he had to know where the knife would kill individuals the fastest, since he had four to kill, then escape. Through the heart? And certainly the other three would be hitting him, screaming, and finding tools to hurt him with.

IMO, killing at ~3am gave Kohberger the BIG upper hand, as you're hardly conscious, awakened from sleeping. It takes a few seconds to be aware your life is at stake, to fight back. You have no nearby weapons, as you never expected a self-defense need! Only fists, or grabs, scratches and kicks.

It's hard to believe someone would have such rage at four coeds, with zero provocation from their own perception, like being jilted, or bad interaction at the restaurant, or fanaticizing stalker who was merely jealous of their lives. They may have served him as a restaurant customer.

I'd venture that the #Idaho4 had ZERO negative interactions with that devil, but he was jealous of their happy lives, good looks, or sorority lifestyles, and being a loser with the ladies, wanted to experiment in real life with ideas he studied in criminal justice courses, from hate.

It's possible devil boy actually studied murderers, and thought, I'm PhD material (arrogance). I could have gotten away with that, unlike mass murderers. They're just stupid. Then he planned how to prove his theory, with gals he met at the Greek Restaurant, attacking while they were asleep.

IF you have a large, serrated hunting knife wielded aggressively, you're not as inclined to jump on the murderer, beat or kick him, as you're within range of getting cut! Throwing things at him don't hurt, unless they're very sharp. Hopelessly watching and yelling, IMO, trying to gang up.

It was likely very dark. Lights may never have been turned on. Only moonlight. You can't find objects to fend off a murderer, easily. You don't see exactly what's going on. You may not even see the knife. You hear yelling, but Kohberger could have struck all quickly, as they slept.

IMO, Kohberger DIDNT choose his victims because he had bad interactions with any of them. More likely, he wanted some targets, to experiment on theories of murder he'd learned, thinking he could NOT be caught. He identified nearby college females, maybe not knowing a guy was there, also. And at ~3am, the only people out are cops and long haul truckers, for the most part.

Kohberger didn't scope out nearby external cameras! A smart devil would have used a rent car, IMO. Likely, he got some blood on his clothes, and washed them back at school. His car may have its DNA.

IF Kohberger is as smart as his punk a-s thinks, he'd have used gloves; maybe even mask he didn't wear until at scene, as that looks suspicious. He likely didn't get cut by any object, or his own knife. Maybe bruised, or an object thrown at him. DNA is likely from hair or under fingernails.

I'd assume Kohberger parked His Elantra where he saw, or had previously scoped out, there were not obvious external cameras. Perhaps he circled the block, a time or two, before doing his dastardly deed. But NOT close enough to the house to arouse suspicions, within. Quiet stepping.

We HAVE to hope the three girls colluded to group tackle Kohberger, if the male was killed first (which would make the most sense, strategically). They'd have risked severe cuts, but the only way his knife couldn't be swung to keep them all at bay. 'Let's roll' sort of thing. HOPE and pray SO!

IMO, at least two people could have been killed, before the remaining two knew what was going on! That would require Kohberger to have known where to stab, where they were located, and his being a very accurate slayer. Maybe practiced, before? Many body parts cut aren't fatal! #Planning.

And Kohberger didn't know if any victims were sleeping on back, stomach or sides, except if viewable through their window. The jugular or heart or sometimes the leg rear vein are the only three areas he could have planned to sever for quick killing. Even through the back doesn't guarantee you strike the heart.

IMO, Bryan Kohberger chose a knife over a gun, because of the noise factor of a gun! Just a few pops, and the other two floors would be at the scene, or calling 911. I don't think he strangled or smothered any, to keep things quiet, as there were too many in the room, and/or it takes too long to perform!

I'd LOVE to know if the boyfriend sleeping overnight was a routine practice, as a weak coward like Bryan Kohberger LIKELY targeted what he thought was a room of three college females. You can read our speculative posts from today of how it may have gone down. First time speculating!

I'm assuming the #Idaho4's house didn't have motion-activated night lights, or at least not from the direction 'Cold Burger' came from, until at last minute range from around a corner. To me, planning was involved. Premeditation. Four all gone by one suspect would take amazing "luck," if NO planning!

Let's say Kohberger stalked the girls, perhaps online. WHY? How did he learn of them, and what was the fascination? Was he just looking for targets, to fulfill his desire to commit a perfect murder? I understand female victims, but why three, and why those three? Inquiring minds want to know! (1/1/23-2)

(1/2/23-2)

Bryan Kohberger can argue he partied at the home, earlier that evening, to try to explain away MUCH DNA evidence. He could even say he had a fight, which explains why any is under anyone's fingernails. Proving the party's end time, could prove important. But why was his car videoed nearby well after that time?

DNA I expect to see: Fingerprints on some bodies, sweat from Bryan Kohberger on some of them, or maybe hair from him. Unlikely but possibly his blood on victims from being cut by them. Fingernails with his flesh and/or blood under them. May have touched the front door/handle, or elsewhere.

HOW do you think Bryan Kohberger got in (busted door, key?)—based on news articles? And has any news article said if the house had an alarm system, or that it was unarmed? Breaking through a locked door would have given some advanced notice to the sleeping residents.

Online speculation about Bryan Kohberger is NOT from morbid curiosity, for most. We can't understand how this could have occurred, and until we do, many feel it could be repeated. And we're likely NOT to get a lot of details, for sometime. Coeds 'wanna feel safe at their campuses, IMO.

EVERYONE wants to know Bryan Kohberger's defense against DNA on-scene (partied there before?), why he chose those targets, what he got out of it, emotionally, and why he threw his life and career away for that cause. I DOUBT we'll ever know all these answers! There are few benefits for him to tell!

Proving Bryan Kohberger did it would be from witnesses (none?), video (none?), confession (unlikely), DNA (not just that he'd been in the house, before), or circumstantial cellphone pings, video of car. The knife being found would help, or blood in his Elantra, or on his clothes! A diary, as well.

Proving Bryan Kohberger's guilt could come from DNA under victim fingernails, scratches on Kohberger (now healed), blood or sweat at the scene, or on the bodies, hair, or even dog hairs or blood in his car, or receipts of his buying a hunting knife (or pictures of his having owned one), combined.

Throw-away cloth "booties" can cover footprints. Changing car tires would distract tire mark comparisons (FIND OUT WHERE HE HAD HIS CAR SERVICED, and find those old tires!). Bryan Kohberger's fingerprints have to be in the house! His car and clothes have residual blood, IMO! Luminol!

IMO, Bryan Kohberger would surely have planned for NO BLOOD to be in his car. He likely had booties, a change of clothes, and burned the stained ones, and had gloves. He may have even had plastic covering his car interior front area and seats. Smart people prepare for contingencies! Parked away from the scene.

What baffles me is how Bryan Kohberger could secure FOUR people, once awakened, and keep their screams to a minimum! Some would try to run away; some would try to fight back. Some would yell. BUT, they're all just waking up! It's HARD to control four people, save with a Taser, mace, or a helper.

Up to two victims HAD to be instantly murdered, with very few accurate knife thrusts, for Bryan Kohberger to handle remaining live victims. Four is a handful! Two quick ones, stealthily and swiftly killed, makes that more manageable, IF only one murderer was involved. How many exits existed?

I DON'T expect a confession from Bryan Kohberger, and a defense that he wasn't there that evening (at the time of the event), but had partied there, before. Proof of his claimed alibi for the night in question will be essential for the defense. IF the knife's never found, blood in his car would upend his defense!

IMO, it's 'gonna be a needle in a haystack good luck to find the murder weapon! Bryan Kohberger could have driven it somewhere (woods), or hurled it anywhere along the 8 miles from the two universities, OR even along his travels back to PA. Metal detectors, IF any clue where to start.

Authorities are SURELY combing Bryan Kohberger's cell phone records, and bank purchases! Knife purchase, car tire replacement, gloves, car cleaning, supplies; whether he was near the crime scene by cell tower pings, that evening. And proof of where he claims he was that evening, DIS-proved (i.e., alibi shown to be a lie).

Catching a criminal in a lie is sometimes equal to a confession. I HOPE Idaho cops can interview Bryan Kohberger, but he will surely have great counsel, who will never let him tell them one word! Even if he's indigent, famed attorneys will take the case, for business publicity, IMO!

Bryan Kohberger's defense team will allege someone else did it, and seek to find ANY DNA in the house that doesn't belong to him or the four victims. As a party house, there's likely MUCH such evidence. They just need to raise reasonable doubt that it was him, and the knife should prove hard to find, IMO!

Interviewing WSU faculty and students will be crucial, to disprove any alibi Bryan Kohberger will raise for the night of incident, as with friends, family or especially neighbors. I assume he had no roommate(?). Video of the apartment, in the wee hours of evening would be critical! Do they exist?

Let's HOPE that over time, rotting in jail, Bryan Kohberger tells some inmate some secrets about his dastardly deeds. BUT, he's ALLEGEDLY smart, so he'd be a FOOL to do so. IF he's actually smart, he will never speak one word of the incident to anyone, ever, and force others to prove he did it.

I'm assuming the insanity defense WON'T be raised, but complete denial of Bryan Kohberger's guilt, as his knife won't be easy to find, and his lawyers simply say he'd partied there, before (thus explaining his DNA being there). IF his DNA is under victim fingernails, or mixed with their blood, that defense would change!

From pictures I've seen online, I see NO camera outside the front of the crime scene home that Bryan Kohberger could be found on. Surrounding structures are another issue! Genealogical DNA would tell me authorities found some object of a family member, in the trash, to compare strands.

Some are saying Bryan Kohberger's dad flying to Idaho before Christmas is suspect.

1. That drive isn't impossible, by B.K.
2. If the dad could fly, he could have bought B.K. a ticket, and saved the trouble, for the price of a 2-way ticket, vs. one.

WHY did they need his Elantra in Pennsylvania over vacation/holidays, at home with family? IMO, the murder weapon would most likely be between WSU and the Moscow route to the crime scene. Bryan Kohberger would be QUICKLY escaping, after the dirty deed, and if he's smart, had plans for where to hide it, well before using it! Drainage ditch, garbage compactor—easy, quick disposal!

IF the @FBI was tracking Bryan Kohberger from ID to PA, SURELY they never allowed Elantra to be professionally cleaned! IF there was ever blood inside, its remnants will still be there, to match with crime scenes of victim bodies' blood mixtures! He had WEEKS to clean it immediately after that deed!?

SURELY the @FBI and Moscow Police have culled all public cameras along this route, for video of the Elantra, the night of the murders, and searched likely knife hiding places along the way. IF Bryan Kohberger's blood is on the bodies, or mixed with theirs, weapon recovery isn't mandatory, IMO.

I believe Bryan Kohberger wore a ski-like mask, as witnesses are claiming he was smart. ANYONE would know, during their planning, that things can go wrong, and he would have been a FOOL to have his accurate license plate on the Elantra. IMO, he's just another DUMB criminal! Book smart only.

WHY would Bryan Kohberger want to kill them? Jilted? Jealous? Random targets from rage over prior bullying, or not being accepted into a fraternity? Obsessed as an online stalker? Frustrated he couldn't get a girl? Testing a perfect murder theory? Engrossed with mass murderers through graduate studies?

Was Bryan Kohberger SO arrogant that he was "smart" that he simply thought he could get away with it, as he did for two months? Testing all he'd learned in three levels of higher education, certain he could out-do past "dumber" mass murderers? We may never know! He's dumb, though!

Bryan Kohberger's DNA can be explained away if NOT on the beds or bodies, as a his having been a past partier. Whatever it is, if it's on their persons, bed, or mixed with their blood, his goose is cooked, IMO. Then, FRY HIM! One TV pundit said that costs too much, and takes too many resources to prove.

WHERE could Bryan Kohberger hide a knife, indefinitely, and not have it found? Bank/safety deposit box, buried in woods (pre-arranged location), cave, off a cliff few descend, mine shaft, hidden fam home compartment/basement, air shaft, drainage ditch, abandoned well. Your opinion?

Bryan Kohberger's defense team doesn't have to produce any name of any other possible perp. Just deny he was there that evening. They'd probably claim he'd been there before, to party. Authorities have to tie his presence there, that evening! Fresh DNA, etc. DISprove any alibis and catch him in any lies!

I've OFTEN said a determined criminal/murderer, who speaks to NO ONE, plans, and keeps his plans private, is UNdetectable until the minute they act! That's where 666 technology will come in as an acceptable solution, just before prophecy, IMO. Able to monitor thoughts/intents of find otherwise undetectable red flags.

I KNOW there's a lot more news going on in America, than the Bryan Kohberger case, but the FACT that such events can occur in America makes me determined to understand his actions well enough to have the public educated on how to prevent, or avoid being a victim, if possible! #NeverAgain

Bryan Kohberger may have fended off a group tackle, wielding his knife ravagely, then punched, or merely stabbed current victim in the right places. IF he's smart, he knew the kill points. Bleeding out is less certain than targeted thrusts. The coroner would know best how he acted!

IMO, the Bryan Kohberger crime scene would be VERY bloody, because there aren't that many places on four bodies where a knife can kill, absent limb severance. Heart, leg rear, neck/arm artery. And fighting off some, there are probably MANY cuts on their bodies, to keep them away from him, as he killed.

Most security cameras don't keep months-long video footage. BUT if any do, I HOPE authorities have checked every last one of them between Moscow and WSU, the early morning of the #idaho4 murders, to show HIS Elantra in the vicinity with Bryan Kohberger in it! Is that what they've been doing the past 1.5 months?

Bryan Kohberger's cell phone ping locations should be SIGNIFICANT, the night of the offense. BUT, if he's as smart as some allege, he'd have had his phone wiped clean, by expert technicians, to have nothing to recover, once voided out. I think he's too dumb to have done this! #Idiot!

Tire treads would be relevant if Bryan Kohberger parked on dirt or grass, or if concrete driveway wasn't clean. I also assume most Elantras have standard issue tires, so that wouldn't be dispositive, IMO. BUT, as an alleged smartie, he'd have covered all his bases, with pre-planning.

(1/3/23-2)

Bryan Kohberger doesn't even have to argue his DNA came from the crime evening, but almost any time in the past, when the house had party-goers. That would excuse his DNA being there, as many other peoples' DNA likely was, if they had parties. The prosecution needs more than that, IMO!

Bryan Kohberger's DNA at the house isn't dispositive. Under victim fingernails—dispositive. Mixed with their blood—dispositive. On victim's bodies or clothes—dispositive. IMO, that's the ONLY way the prosecution has a lay-down hand! Visited earlier is a VALID reason for it being found there!

Proof Bryan Kohberger was NEAR the murder house, the night of the murders will strengthen the prosecution's case, like cell phone pings and/or that Elantra video proved to be his car. Absent that, the defense will say he'd visited that venue in the past, and deny his presence that evening, IMO.

I DON'T KNOW why #BryanChristopherKohberger is trending (maybe in court usage?), with his middle name, but people USUALLY add their middle name (or "the 2nd/3rd") from PRIDE. I suggest we DON'T give this monster any reason for pride, or any more fame (infamy) by adding that (middle) name.

'Change of venue, for sure. Impartial jury? There are always idiots who live under a rock/bridge, or people who claim they can be impartial, if for no other reason than they want the fame of being on the panel, perhaps to write a book.

People close enough to yell at Bryan Kohberger (publicly entering jail or court) NEED to use words that strike his heart, that would shock him to know they know about him (best girlfriend name, dog name, family secret, etc.). Otherwise, he's unmoved. And his EYES always look like someone of a crazed mindset! Helter Skelter.

Authorities need to subpoena Bryan Kohberger's bank records for the past six months to one year, as I believe they will find a purchase consistent with the hunting knife alleged to have been used. They aren't cheap, and it would likely be a unique purchase, vs. part of a bulk buy of his.

What happened at WSU could be a Freudian slip by the dad! Bryan Kohberger

Parental instinct is to defend child, but it can shift. EVIL parents defend them because they don't care about the crime. Good ones because they still love their son. HOW MUCH ARE THEY ACTULLY HELPING authorities, and what did they do and say when he was home with them at Christmas?

I am NOT an outdoorsman, though I've hunted and fished, before. No matter the size of the #BrianKohberger knife, they can get costly, and a receipt should be discoverable. He doesn't strike me as someone who already had one.

AS IF the police would fully reveal all evidence they possess against Bryan Kohberger, or the prosecution won't have much more, after discovery. The document, today, are JUST to show probable cause. NOT to prove the case. Oh my gosh some people are stupid, criticizing the #MoscowPD and @FBI (1/5/23-2)

(1/6/23-2)

KEY evidence against Bryan Kohberger will be the Facebook knife purchase, especially if the sheave and knife have serial numbers. Match the crime scene knife holder with same one he bought online, and ask him where his recent knife purchase is. HARD to lose a ~$350 product in two months!

I'm GLAD the prosecution has cop video evidence of Bryan Kohberger's puffy knuckles and cut wrist! He'll need to explain how he lost his knife he bought in October, and the scratches; why he cleaned his car, changed license plates and was near the house so often! NOT just why his DNA was there!

Keeping fingerprints off items, and unless his parents' trash cans were full, he threw out incriminating things, hoping cops would only dig through his family's trash.

I think his dad may have known, and spoken to him about it. His dad said "the WSU tragedy." NO tragedy occurred at WSU, except his son's attending there. A smart dad would say say nothing, and get the car home. Why not just fly Bryan home for the holidays? LONG drive for two week's Pennsylvania use.

From what I see on First 48 (I'm a junkie of the show), absent paint or serious chemicals everywhere, no one can avoid leaving some blood traces Luminol will pick up. Kohberger cleaned up on-site, right? Not much blood left to bring into his car? Yet, he cleaned it in PA, scared of evidence!

WHO is substitute teaching Bryan Kohberger's classes, or grading their papers? The Green River Killer, by livestream? Too soon for sick humor?

West Coast/scenic environments, beautiful young college-aged girls (primarily), lives taken too soon by a young man in his 20's, who takes cross-country trek home to mommy and daddy. Maybe not so handsome males (bald or nerdy). I see similarities with the #GabbyPetito case.

Have the police looked through all video cameras facing the highway between Moscow and WSU, the eve of the murders? I HOPE they did. Many private citizens delete footage after two days. Kohberger could have hidden his knife any evening/early morning between then and his trip home.

Cell phone pings near the murder scene will likely be excused as Bryan Kohberger attending parties, or hanging with undergrads from University of Idaho, that evening, by the defense. He may say he was an outsider/stranger, so he couldn't name any witnesses as to such an alibi.

What proof do we have that Kohberger owned Vans, the size of his shoes, and are there any receipts of his buying them? If those all matched up, it strengthens the case!

The eyewitness who came face-to-face with a dark figure with mask, bushy eyebrows and an athletic but not muscular build is another piece of the strengthening case against Kohberger. MANY strands will make up this circumstantial case! How did he break in? Tools? Fingerprints there?

The knife sheath has to be directly tied to . Does it have a serial or bar code number on it? Does the Facebook business that sold the knife to him have records of knife serial numbers, IF knives have such numbers? HOW did he lose it so soon (after only two months)? He likely HID or buried it!

Classic case of "hurt people hurt people."

FREEDOM

This debate between Florida and California on which state is freest is asinine! You have to define terms, first! Throw in accusations of 'Communist state' and you have FOOLS on both sides of the debate! Freedom is the power to do right. God instituted government, so it is good. It just doesn't always do good, because of bad people in it.

IF people define 'freedom' as the right to do whatever you want, with no government boundaries, that's anarchy. If all government boundaries mean you're living under Communism, we've re-defined what it really is! There are people who hate government, and want just to be left alone from it (possibly for questionable behaviors/'freedoms').

On the other (left) side there are people who dutifully enslave themselves to whatever government says, with no critical thinking or common sense. They also depend on government for their survival, literally (Ex.: handout programs to make up for their lack).

If government says masks are mandatory, they want everyone wearing a mask, even if it's not needed (like people who work from home and rarely encounter the public).

Absolutes for everyone. Edicts, like requiring all gas guzzler vehicles off their state's roads by 2035, and hoping this spreads nationwide.

Texas is CLEARLY a top contender for freest state from government regulations. Is that a good thing? Is life's purpose to be free of any government intervention? It ALL depends on what that intervention entails! Freedom to commit murder? Bad thing. Freedom to pollute the environment? Cons will cheer that and libs will jeer that!

Every state also has its own personality, and wants to express that uniqueness. Of course CA is much more government restrictive than TX or FL, as is NY. They seem to like it that way, or they have wimpy voter citizens that tolerate too much.

The obvious answer to the question is FL over CA, but if you fall in line with CA's rules, perhaps your business can flourish as well or better than in a freer state. But it costs more, through penalties, compliance, and purchases to comply with green regulations, and government permits, etc.

CA likes their set-up, as with NY. TX and FL like theirs, with lower taxes attracting more people who pay them, using the Wal-Mart model (low prices, high volume of sales), vs. CA's Neiman Marcus ("Needless Mark-up," as my grandpa called it) model of high taxes, deterring influxes to population.

The answers are VERY clear, even if few may want them: Let individual states be themselves, as much as possible, and nationalize as little as is needed. DON'T try to cram CA standards on Texans, and vice versa.

BUT, that requires compromise at the national level, from the status quo of winner take all, and win-lose, every 2-4 years. One period of liberal polices, then a period of far right national policies. Ping Pong Politics. the irrational, divisive and demonizing polarized camp mentality of party worship we all observe, every day. See <http://AmericanAnswers.org> for fixes!

And with CA and NY's higher taxes, costs of living are also higher, which forces increased poverty and homelessness, as you really have to 'make it there' in the city that never sleeps, or you'll never have a place to sleep, or lay your head, like Jesus, because taxes alone tax you out of the market, there.

That's one reason we see so many homeless encampments, and why so many snow birds are fleeing to the South. Again, I am not saying NY and CA don't like their setup, but it has consequences, as does TX and FL's. More traffic, pollution, etc., in the Lone Star State.

MORAL ISSUES (I)

(1/10/23)

Wal-Mart is closing stores, do to THEFT. YOU pay high insurance costs, because the medical establishment is a monopoly. DEMAND JUSTICE, and do not tolerate or participate in evil! We ALL pay more, because of wicked people among us! Are you one of them? God sees ALL, including YOU. You won't escape.

(3/11/23)

HERE is one BIG reason evil is now prevailing in America: NO ONE wants a police state, in a free nation, but MORE enforcement is needed, even if identified by undercover cops! I'm watching the TV show, Trafficked. Criminals work with impunity, with zero fear of the law! More enforcement is needed!

I (and only me?) want to see ZERO fraud, scammers, drug lords, gang murders, rapes, armed robberies, theft, child abuse, incest, abuse of women and of employees, unfair wages, illegal border crossers, tax cheats, etc. THIS REQUIRES morals and laws being enforced! Nothing less will do.

I've never known if one could make more money by sinning, rather than doing rightly. MANY people in America believe it's the former. Lie, deceive, defraud, misrepresent, care nothing about customers, even ignore them (arrogance). So long as it leads to many sales, consciences are seared!

Deterrence, without overkill, is better than massive enforcement measures. Law-making requires unbiased, excellent word-crafting skills!

(3/11/23)

I am at the end of my rope with the evils of America! There are 6 ways I've learned people STEAL from Wal-Mart, and many get away with it. WHAT GIVES YOU THE RIGHT? That makes ME pay more, and I'm NOT tolerating YOUR behavior anymore. IF I see it, you WILL be citizen arrested by ME!

I am sick and tired of thieves in America. There are people in my industry who daily break the law. There are people billing Medicare for services never rendered. There are rich people who pay themselves puny, all assets in their business, then get government handouts. SIN will and must be conquered.

BIBLICAL MANHOOD & MASCULINITY

(1/1/23-2)

Jesus and I Th. 1-2 PROVE a biblical man can be disciplined and sensitive. Paul's discipling nurtured and corrected. Both/and. NOT either/or. DUH.

I recall in high school, some footballer teammates wanted buckshot, to go to Montrose, Houston, to shoot gays' legs. This mentality of hating and wanting to hurt gays is part of the machismo unbiblical value system of far right conservatives, In God's blasphemed Name! (11/27/22-2)

DO YOU THINK machismo MAGA "alpha males" obey this verse?: Mt. 5:5 (11/27/22-2)

There's a MYTH, many Americans buy into, that if you are physically BIG, by weight lifting, you have power, and are to be feared, or be intimidating to less-sized people. That is TOTAL B.S.! I don't respect anyone based on their body, but their heart, to which God agrees! I fear NO ONE. (12/20/22-2)

NOBODY gives one dang (da-n) about the alpha male concept! Machismo is testosterone on steroids. Jesus is the male role model. ANY Christian who doesn't understand this is a fool, a Bible illiterate, and OUGHT NOT mention His great Name! (12/24/22-2)

'Alpha Male' vs. True Masculinity

(1/1/23-2)

THIS irritates me to write about, but when people speak of God/Jesus or the Bible/Christianity, then evilly WARP it, I will speak. Whoever Nick Adams is, his STUPID vows for 2023 do NOT reflect God, in MANY ways!

1. Having a Bible in hand is of zero value, until it is in the heart, then in one's behavior.
2. Attending a restaurant where women are scantily clad, and NOT dressed biblically (i.e., modestly), is NOT what God would often lead a real Christian to flaunt.
3. Eat more red meat? FEEL FREE to die early of heart disease, to prove you're a carnivore!
4. Never apologize? When you sin, you repent—at least real Christians (I Jn. 1:9).

5. And his attitude of no apologies (like Chump's) DOESN'T likely apply to his not being ashamed of the gospel, where he evangelizes much.

The he-man attitude is NOT godly, but is faith in willpower; not in God. Jesus is the ultimate Man, and He didn't behave as dummy Nick fake Christian "alpha male."

Update

(5/15/23)

Jesus was the ultimate male, and you see how often He reached for a weapon, advocated physical superiority, and even how He handled Peter cutting off Malchus' ear. (Isa 53:2) Jan. 6 running away from danger Josh Hawley is merely worldly and wrong (saying U.S. males need to become more masculine)!

HOUSE SPEAKER VOTE

I have NO problem with this House Speaker election process taking so long! Rather than force people to fall in line, let people talk, and negotiate, until you get consensus on the person that's right! It's NOT like D.C. is greatly productive, or doesn't waste our money when they are, anyway!

The leftist media is calling the GOP dysfunctional. DO THEY REALIZE human adult individuals have free will, and can think for themselves? Being a sheep, or rubber stamp, would cause the House Speaker vote to be as easy as they imagine it should be. Adults don't take orders, like slaves!!!

CAN WE PLEASE (yes, media included) not refer to these rounds as Kevin McCarthy losses, but his nomination falls slightly short, again? A loss is final. A near miss that has endless re-do's is NOT a loss. He hasn't lost until he has lost for good, if ever!

Update

(1/6/23-2)

I understand the 20's not strongly liking Kevin McCarthy! I'm not a huge fan, the way he coddled Trump, extremists, conspiracy theories and Jan. 6, but unless the 20 have a unifier's name that can reach the magic number, time to get the GOP in House power, working! Name a better one.

Calling for a vote to oust the speaker, by ONE person raising the issue DOESN'T mean the correct number of votes would go along with that option. However, there are MANY silent Trumpsters who might speak up once Kevin McCarthy is the House Speaker, to get someone else in place!

This is NOT negotiation, but extortion! Negotiation is give-and-take. The minority is controlling the GOP majority!!! That's NOT progress or success!

Kevin McCarthy may be the House Speaker, soon, but with MANY silent MAGA GOP's, with a one or five person recall vote rule in place, he may not be Speaker for long. IS THAT SUCCESS OR PROGRESS? (No)

IF the Montana Congressman is factual about how bills get passed in D.C., I am on their team to oppose Kevin McCarthy! I want further proof/testimonies. If factual, I oppose Kevin! #MattRosendale

The EASY answer for the House Speaker is open, transparent, public airing of grievances between the two GOP sides! LET THE VOTERS know what the 20 really want! The media is skewering them, but what do they really want, IF GOP got Speakership to work with? Exact details, and honestly!

GET TO THE F*&^ING VOTE, and shut up! Your mini speeches don't convince. People already made up their minds. Just tally where they stand. It's 'gonna take MANY rounds! Be more efficient with this STUPID snail's pace proceeding/procedure. Wasting taxpayer dollars!!! House of representatives.

Chaos and rebels are how @CNN have labeled the 20. Beholden to lobbyists, shoving laws down Congress' throats on Mondays, and other issues they have raised in the past 24 hours are TOTALLY CREDIBLE COMPLAINTS!!! House of Representatives 6 Rs

I am NOT #NeverKevin! I am for the 20 getting any and all of their valid complaints addressed! Until that happens, they have valid Democratic bases for their votes and speeches! Their FREE right!

IMO, Kevin McCarthy could be Speaker of the House by today's end, IF he would meet with the 20, before TV/media cameras, and let the public know what they want and what he agrees and disagrees with. NO such transparency expected, as D.C. is EVIL!

@CNN silver fox pundit just said Matt Gaetz doesn't care and doesn't live in a logical world. THAT IS DENYING that Gaetz said the swamp is beholden to donors. CLEAR liberal and unfactual bias against the 20! @mattgaetz

FIND OUT WHAT THE #NeverKevin crowd want! Trying to shame, embarrass, or make 'em feel like GOP outcasts IS NOT CONVINCING of anyone who stands on principles!

Something @CNN is NOT stating is the crossover #NeverKevin people can easily vote differently, in next rounds. THE PUBLIC IS OWED EXPLANATION OF WHAT THOSE CROSSOVERS WERE PROMISED, and WHAT THE REMAINDERS HAVE ISSUES WITH ABOUT KEVIN. QUIT ignoring voters!

EVERY ISSUE #NeverKevin's has the public has a right to know and fully understand, as with why Kevin would disagree with them! QUIT IGNORING THE VOTERS, D.C. career politicians. It is the smoke-filled back room dealing that LOSES D.C. credibility and the public's trust!

NOW @CNN is calling #NeverKevin a "clown show." Earlier said they just want chaos. @MattGaetz (who my tweets prove I've never liked) had VALID reasons, catering laws to donors over We the people! Left-bias showing, liberal media! Address that issue!

@CNN also says "the serious people" crossed over to McCarthy. That is liberal bias, AS IF @mattgaetz has a joking concern for donor over-influence, or a Montana Representative's concern that laws get crammed on Monday! THOSE ARE SERIOUS CONCERNS!

Someone on @CNN asserted the 20 GOP's who opposed Kevin McCarthy wanted to hurt and inflict jabs, AS IF it's all for career publicity, vindictiveness, etc. EVERY ONE OF THOSE 20 NEEDS TO GO TO CNN and TELL WHY THEY OPPOSED HIM AT ONE TIME! That, by the 20, will never happen.

I've alleged some in the 20 arrogantly wanted publicity. To the extent they all explain their reasons for opposing Kevin McCarthy, originally, I'm willing to say NONE of them did that, IF they explain to the voting public! WE deserve to know! No more back room deals! Transparency!

"Holdouts" is a FACTUAL description @CNN just used of the 20 opposing Kevin McCarthy. CONGRATS on getting the verbiage less partisan and emotional!!! Progress.

IF the cheers and claps of GOP's influence ANYONE in the 20, they are sell-outs! (Gal. 1:10) If you stand for principle, you stand for principle. I have little idea of all 20 did that; the public kept in the dark!

Some liberal female pundit on @CNN says the @MattGaetz 7 are willing to let us go to the very brink of destruction only for their own gain. THIS IS LIBERAL BIAS! Gaetz stated exactly why he opposed, as did the Montana Representative! Your liberal bias is showing!

Another @CNN pundit says the Matt Gaetz 7 are preventing more investigations, like into Biden. IS THAT why people voted for a FEW more Republicans than Democrats, last November? Pay good tax money for little law-making; just investigations? A deliberative body?

I'm GLAD a @CNN female pundit just called the 20 McCarthy opposers "flippers." Use objective language. They're debating arm twisting vs. negotiating. If threats of punishment or fiscal loss are involved, it's the former. The PUBLIC HAS A RIGHT TO KNOW THOSE CONVERSATIONS!

The flippers are Sellouts IF they compromised valid complaints, were bribed, or weren't given good concessions. Otherwise, they're just flippers. THE BIG PROBLEM IS WE THE PEOPLE/THE VOTING PUBLIC ARE INFORMED OF NO CONVO--and were the power behind the throne!

You know Friday night primetime TV programming is boring, or you're getting older, or both, when the thrill of the evening is waiting until 9pm for the House of Representatives Speaker's vote!!!

I'm NOT against Kevin McCarthy! I'm FOR all good proposals the 20 had--like not shoving bills down GOP pols' throats on Mondays, favoring donors over voters, balanced budget, fair tax bill and controlled borders. I'm VERY close to the beliefs of the HOLD THE LINE crowd. NOT term limits.

CONGRATS, @GOPlleader (prediction). An overtime win is still a win, and a win by one point is still a 'W.' House of Representatives Speaker McCarthy (1/7/23-2)

THE FAR RIGHT TRUMP CULT

I was told by two far righters that Dr. Fauci caused Covid, to keep Biden in a basement! BOTH parties looked me square in the eye with serious faces, not meaning this as a joke. This is cultism, folks. Conspiracy theory IGNORANCE and lies. Christians can't participate with such choices!

HEY dumb a-s-s (some who exist in America): Communism is NOT when government tells you to do something vs. just not do something! God says it exists to help curb evil. Government is ONLY fellow human Americans. If it's evil, you are evil! FOOLS reign in politics! A state of low IQ! (1/18/23)

Update

(3/6/23)

Let me entertain you with a MAGA conversation I had, yesterday: Dr. Fauci brought the Covid epidemic to the world, to force Biden into his basement, as he couldn't have beat tRUMP fairly. This stated from a (lower named) college graduate! UNBELIEVABLE!

SAME conversation: Biden sniffs little girls' hair.

My reply: Better than grabbing women by the crotch if you're a celebrity. Dead silence.

Next try: Not all Dems are criminals but all criminals are Dems.

My reply: What about white collar crimes? Dead silence. IGNORANT cult mindset! EASY to rebut!

Same convo: I like Nikki Haley.

My reply: She was for CHUMP, then quit her U.N. job in protest of his evils, then kissed up to him last year, and now wants to fight him in high heels. WHO CAN RESPECT A HYPOCRITICAL FLIP FLOPPER WITH NO CORE CONVICTION? Dead silence a third time! EASY prey!

The far rights are all too happy to support sin-to-win strategies, like the lawyer LYING he doesn't want a nationwide abortion ban—just to protect women and the unborn, banning the abortion pill. The SAME PEOPLE NOT COMMITTED TO THE BIBLE in backing CHUMP'S 22K LIES! Take Rom. 6:2 seriously, FAKES! (4/21/23)

IF D.C. FEARED GOD

(1/12/23-2)

LOOK at the advantages of D.C. politicians choosing to fear God more than they fear anything else, including if donors withheld donations, unless they did the RIGHT things:

Pv. 8:13 By definition, to fear God is to hate evil, pride and perverse speech.

Pv. 1:7 You CAN'T be wise lacking the fear of God!

Mt. 10:28 Humans are to fear God over fearing even humans who can kill their bodies!

Ecc. 12:13 ALL humanity has an OBLIGATION to fear God, and obey His commands! It applies to the religious, and all others! NO ONE is exempt, especially Washington D.C. so-called "leaders." Mt. 23:10 Fear God

Pv. 14:27 Fearing God is the fountain of life. WE want the fountain of youth; We NEED the fountain that keeps us from dying earlier, and keeps us enjoying life longer!

Lk. 1:50 God's undeserved mercy is upon God-fearers. By implication, not so much for God disdainers, who spurn His laws!

Pv. 19:23 The question, "what keeps you up at night?" is SOLVED by restful, peaceful, refreshing sleeping, for those who fear God, and keeps you from troubles when you awaken.

Ps. 25:14 God is NEVER 'gonna tell you secret things if you aren't a God-fearer; like accurate predictions, and having accurate vision, etc.

Pv. 14:26 The rich and D.C. politicians often FEEL secure in their bank accounts/investments, but those are FICKLE (I Tim. 6:17), but those things DON'T proceed with you when you die, and go where you're going! But fearing God makes one confident, and their family can rest in that security, as well! Be a family values politician!

Pv. 3:7 The WISE politicians fears God and shuns/turns away from evil. EVERY DAY We the people (i.e., the public) MAINLY see D.C. politicians doing evil! If they're America's "leaders," God help America NOT be overtaken, bankrupted, or forever dividing into two! America must have revival, NOW! II Chron. 7:14 NOW!

Ps. 34:9 A $ BILLION lotto was recently up for grabs. EVERYONE thinks that's how you have no more needs. God disagrees, and says if you fear Him, you will never lack.

Ps. 112:1 Americans 'wanna be "blessed." God defines it NOT as wealth, but having His favor, which ALL can, if they fear Him!

Ps. 86:11 PRAY that God would give you the fear of Him!

Ps. 33:8 This need applies to every human!

I Tim. 2:2 Christians: Pray that D.C. 'public servants' would get a healthy dose of the fear of our God—SOON! Do it this Sunday! Our nation desperately needs it! Our country may not survive without it!

THE GOP

THIS is for all the far right extremists who believe anytime government does or makes laws about anything they don't like, that's "Communism:"

When a cop pulls you over and asks for your license and insurance card, IS THAT COMMUNISM? IF THEY ASK WHY YOU WERE DRIVING SO FAST, is that Communism? When they go to a suspect's home, and command open the door, hand's up, IS THAT COMMUNISM? LEARN something, or our country will die, FOOLS! Law enforcing is NOT Communism!

The far right ONLY sees the word "freedom" when reading the Constitution. They NEVER see the often implied concept of "responsibility." And they do not define freedom like God does. But they're happy to blaspheme His name, acting like He knows them! Ron DeSantis/tRUMP lite. (1/18/23)

There are Americans who worship the U.S. Constitution, and there are Americans who worship God. They are NOT always the same people! The U.S. Constitution is a minimal requirements document; obeying God requires much more! Selfishness, greed and worldliness are legal–NOT moral! #GOP'split (1/25/23)

The House @GOP needs to prioritize:

1. Spending cuts, and move to balanced budget.
2. Close border access.
3. Just ethics rules for D.C.
4. Crime reduction.
5. Getting US out of Ukraine, when feasible. (3/10/23-2)

Update #1: GOP Division

(3/10/23)

The GOP is two sides. The far right has NO interest in the other side, or reconciling, or compromising–only dominating everyone but their own group. How would a 2024 ticket look? They'd want top slot. NEVER! Too cultishly DUMB!

The 2-sided GOP could unite, IF the far right wasn't Hell-bent extreme. Their commonalities are closer than any with Dems. I believe a third party WILL rise in 2024, IF the GOP can't reconcile. I will HAPPILY join with that new group, if so! READ Amos 3:3 You CANT align intransigents!

IF the GOP platform is generic and general, unity can occur. BUT, there's a NEED for the non-far right to join the middle's third party, one day. The far right HATES RINOs and moderates! And WE aren't 'gonna join the Dems' party! The ONLY rational decision is a centrist third party, IF no unity!

EVERY non-Dem is for a strong economy, military, border control, quality education, no wasted tax dollars, guns not deemed evil, free speech, religious freedom, pro-business, law and order, some environmental concern, and taxes as low as they can be. #Unity, or break up the GOP!

The far right is adamant about the following, and this is where they are wrong, and even sometimes evil:

1. Disdain for government, especially centralized, or the feds.
2. Belief that no laws should ever make guns safer to own and use.
3. Government should NEVER help anyone, even justly (i.e., repaid).
4. Taxes are theft (a lie).

5. Idiot behavior and statements (Bobo, MTG, Gaetz, et al) are welcomed, touted and united behind. Accuracy and intelligence (if not morality) are NOT highly valued.
6. The MSM is claimed to lie 100% of the time (not just have a political bias).
7. Somehow, Christianity is practiced, if you force non-believers to live under our belief system, by force of secular law.
8. Conspiracy theories make you look more insightful, and doubting everything anyone in authority tells you, as some "free thinker." College is also not a good pursuit.
9. Alternative facts exist, as with an alternative universe. Probably UFO aliens and Big Foot.
10. Heroes are people who cause division and fight, vs. learning how to be civil, get things done, and earn your keep in D.C. NON-far righters will NEVER concede to these satanic "values!" EVER.

GOP Reconciliation

Literally, the far right has to somehow become convinced that thinking accurately/intelligence and behaving morally are valuable, rather than only winning elections, any way you can! That requires a biblical fear of God many lack! Christians can't be 100% in their camp, without sinning!

The far right believes ANY deviation from their version of conservatism means you are siding with (or a secret) Democrats! Without a third party, voting-wise, they have some basis for such a belief. Abstaining is even hurting your party. They DON'T appreciate people following consciences

HOW would you reconcile the GOP?

1. LET the GOP lose in 2024, to TEACH dumb people clinging to extremes and demanding everyone else join you is a LOSING strategy.
2. Helping Dems win, if the far right insists on only their views being represented.
3. NOT demanding only the far right changes.

NON-far right GOP's have to learn that when you cave to the far right, you lose your soul! When you buck them, expect to be vilified. We are not dealing with normal people, here! They are zealots. With religious fervor they idolize things we don't deem moral. They don't serve God!

Christians, of all Americans, have to learn that going along to get along, or politics makes strange bedfellows are NOT Bible injunctions! Sleeping with the far right, to defeat EVIL Dem policies, is NOT the only option God has allowed us! Carnals could care less about morals!

GOP Division

I don't think "RINOs" get that the far right has ZERO interest in uniting with us! They demand we compromise moral convictions, and go along with their extremism! A LOSS is better (for four years) than empowering them more! Their win would entrench their extremism for decades! NOT happening!

HERE are the DIFFERENCES between moderates and far righters:

1. Society has a duty to care for citizens; not just every man for himself.
2. Fair taxes is the standard; not so low the budget can't be met.
3. Government isn't innately evil! God started the concept, fools!
4. Every human has a duty before God to care about others. You may not like having to be moral, but God's going to judge you on this, and many other things!

5. Your life experience isn't everyone's. If you can't understand this, you're a bona fide idiot. God teaches considering others; not pure selfishness.
6. My-way-or-the-highway is NOT a Christian value.
7. Power is NOT the most important thing in life, nor is money. IF you knew God, you would know this!
8. Democrats are NOT satanic. They're made in God's image, and your hating their policy never changes these FACTS!
There's the difference!

The mainstream GOP has three choices regarding the far right:

1. Split from them.
2. Go along with their extremism.
3. try to change their cult-set minds.
4. Pretend to get along, for power, never solving the rift?

The far right HATES moderates. WE do NOT hate 'em! I do hate their extremism and stupidities. They want US to cave. I want them to grow up and fear God! We SHOULD vote with the Dems, if caving to the far right is demanded. Let 'em learn from a loss, if they can learn! Humbling reality.

IF the far right has the majority of support, there are ONLY two options for moderate GOP's:

1. Join a viable centrist third party, or
2. Cave to the far right. I would NEVER do #2, as it is #2 (poo poo). Intransigent bullies get backed down; they're empowered by culpable, WEAK cowards!

Defeating Biden and more leftist policies is the GOP's 2024 goal; NOT being defeated by division!

IF RINOs will cave, to get a win, they will never win again. You unite to a platform that beats Dems, and has something for both sides of that party! NOT just catering to one side! Duh 101

HERE is what the far right has to learn, likely the hard way: When ANY human gets forced to do or agree to things, their Compliance is ONLY short-term! Medium-term, they plan ways to retaliate. Be it moderates or Dems, try to force one view on America, and you get blowback, justly so!

What the GOP SHOULD do is each side list their top three policy issues, then work toward win-win agreement on common ground where no one fully loses on each of those 3-6 issues. That's if you were working with reasonable people. Fighters and dolts want old-fashioned win-lose, at all costs!

The GOP is CLEARLY two groups. And they don't really like each other! I'll NEVER respect dumb or evil people, so how would you reconcile the two? Pure conservatism is BOTH those things, before God, and assessed biblically! Unity would be fraudulent, for power! Some common ground exists.

The GOP is circumstantially forced to deal with its other side, for enough votes to possibly win. CHUMP wants 100% submission and lock step following. That is NOT a Christian value, and opposite how God works, idolizing and sinning to win!

You CANNOT reconcile with people whose IQ, "logic," "evidence," claimed facts, ONLY subjective "values" are NOT shared by you! It's EXACTLY like arguing with a cultist! They redefine reality, terms, and 100% believe the nonsense they espouse! Amos 3:3 says you can't be in agreement!

(4/24/23)

Mike Pence says he's very concerned how abortion pill was approved by the FDA, 20 years ago. WHY DO YOU FOOLS BELIEVE HIS LIES? Has ANYONE EVER heard him voice this concern IN 20 YEARS? He's LYING (a sin), as a votes panderer. He and Chump lie and pander. FAKE concern and interest of LIARS!

CHUMP says he's 'gonna bring back God to the public schools and town square. EXACTLY how? In a Cadillac SUV? God is everywhere, and America isn't a theocracy! Government CAN'T establish any religion over any others. He's a panderer who needs to meet God, first! HYPOCRITE!

Dr. David Grimes of Family Health International in Durham N.C. says "No woman has ever died or been seriously hurt by emergency contraception." <https://nbcnews.com/id/wbna4224466> Mike Pence, QUIT LYING/sinful about your intentions and motives (to gen-up Christian votes)! Repent, brother! @Mike_Pence

Politicians REGULARLY huddle with advisers to ask "what should I say that will get our target constituency to like/want me more? What issue will rile them up, like gender confusion, hating abortion and homosexuality?" Actors with scripts! Spin the wheel morality dart board throwing! EVIL!

ABORTION ISSUES (I)

(1/21/23)

The ONLY reason the abortion is NOT equal to murder is there are two people involved, the baby is innocent (like the crime victim), but what got the mother into the situation was NOT a criminal intention to harm others, as is the case with a murderer, especially in rape and incest cases.

And, until a certain point, human cells dividing isn't exactly the same weightiness, under civil law, as a baby with a heartbeat, form of a human, and able to sustain life independent of its mother, especially once birthed!

(11/27/22-2)

The sin-full condition of America is caused by the sinful priorities of the Church! (II Chron. 7:14) That verse says Christians are the solution to heal America. THAT MEANS their refusal to obey that verse makes them the CAUSE of America's problems! PROTEST EVERY CHURCH! No violence, please.

PLEASE protest EVERY church you see! You DON'T need to spiritually comprehend why, but THEY will understand it if you cite II Chron. 7:14. You can do it from spite; God will use it for GOOD! Your numbers will get their attention!

(4/20/23)

YOU WITNESS sin-FULL LIARS, all the time, yet take it in stride! The "lawyer" who said he wasn't seeking a national abortion ban, by seeking to prohibit the abortion pill was lying with a smile! Lying lawyer—that's nothing new! YOU accept it! I call him a satanic, bald faced LIAR!

(4/21/23)

SINCE I believe in the heartbeat deadline for abortions, OF COURSE the abortion pill should be outlawed after that deadline (two exceptions)! Civil government has to consider BOTH parties' interests, for justice! They AREN'T a religious body! It is still killing a human life, and evil!

The two exceptions for the abortion pill AFTER a heartbeat is detected should be mom's life, and vegetative state baby, only detectable after a heartbeat is detected. The far right wants U.S. women to have zero rights after sex! Only the male partners! That's bias, evil and UNjust! DUH.

Mike Pence said he's open to a 6-week heartbeat bill, and he's for the abortion pill being banned. HE IS A PANDERER FOR VOTES; not a Christian with sincere convictions on the matter, as you cannot have the 6-week deadline with no way to prevent births before those 6 weeks, foolish one!

(4/21/23)

Carnal Christian cultists argued:

1. Roe's bad law because 'abortion' isn't expressly mentioned in Constitution; then,
2. The 10th Amendment prohibited it as national law,
3. They now say a nationwide prohibition with Plan B is required of D.C. politicians. SCREW these arrogant bullies who care LESS for living souls going to Hell!

Politicians are IDIOTS to believe U.S. law requires them to be mere mouthpieces of whatever majority in their district wants! You're SUPPOSED to be "leaders." That's being a follower! We live on a REPRESENTATIVE democracy! Never bow to demands, as if America revolves around them!

LGBTQ ISSUES (I)

A phobia is a severe fear. Being "homophobic" is to be fearful of gays. To refuse to accept the gay lifestyle as morally equal to being straight is NOT a fear of anyone, but standing up for what is right, even as the mad mob labels this something it is NOT. (2/21/23)

IT IS NOT "don't say gay." It is don't say anything about sex, in grades 1-3! ANY advocacy is EVIL. Education, where age-appropriate, is as it should be. I'll re-name it the "don't say straight" FL law. SAME difference, LGBTQ people! (4/24/22-2)

Update #1: LGBTQ & Machismo

(11/23/22)

Biblical Masculinity. FIFA's World Cup WOULD have been an ideal venue for launching the black and white arm emblems supporting the Straight Supermajority, to balance their foolish politicization with the rainbow flag! I've called for such for quite awhile!

The rise of gay people in America, politically, has, naturally, brought about a counter movement of machismo and testosterone-promoting, like some character, Nick Adams' perversion of Christianity's view on gender, masculinity and sex.

Ban every abortion, by force of law, force to birth, and let no one responsibly prevent unwanted pregnancies by outlawing birth control, but promote Hooters, FAKE or carnal immature Christian "Saint" Nicholas?

No, his over-reaction to the sin of effeminitism in gays is to go also contrary to the Jesus he will claim (confession is not always possession, folks). There are times you need a he-man! Rugby, pro football, racing into fires, on the front lines, and on the thin blue line.

But Jesus is the ultimate male, and He was neither effeminate, gay, or macho. A "man's man" He might have been viewed as, ONLY depending on one's definition of that term!

The muscle-bound "alpha male" brute, who bullies his way through life owning and dominating others, and making his woman submit to him is NOWHERE IN THE BIBLE a characterization of what it means to be male!

And I greatly appreciate Matt Walsh's question, 'what is a woman,' as the trans efforts and grooming attempts at queer story hours are EVIL perversions of God-ordained genders! It's all based in identity confusion, blurring clear lines of demarcation, and satan is its ultimate author.

I am ALL for treating ALL LGBTQs with equal respect as human beings created in the image of God—NOT discriminating against them in non-religious entity employment, not discriminating in housing, etc., but it can never be achieved (the goal many are seeking) to force or pressure by majority consent, the moral super-majority to accept that sodomy is morally equal to monogamy in God-ordained marriage between only a man and a woman.

So U.S. manufacturers: GET ON with making black and white arm bands, flags, and attire, to balance out the gay pride parade events, and have a counter balance to this perverse force seeking to normalize perversion.

LOVE the sinner; hate the sin. For some reason we find it hard to see both sides of a balanced equation! It's either hate the sinner or love the sin, or one or the other; not both and. You CAN walk and chew gum at the same time!

Update #2

God (including Jesus) equates being gay with lawlessness, rebellion, ungodly sinning, parricide, murder, immorality, kidnapping, lying, perjury & what is contrary to sound teaching! (I Tim. 1:9-10) ALL Bible verses are on par with red letter ones! (II Tim. 3:16-17; 12/28/22-2)

MORE complicating factors about Amy Grant hosting a family member's gay marriage:

1. Her farm is sometimes rented out for weddings. Maybe she forbids gay marriages there, but it was also family.
2. She SHOULD have told the media she doesn't approve of homosexuality, but I love my niece.
3. It's HARD to allow the event, attend and NOT be deemed the host! So here's some questions related to others:
 1. Would ANY Christian wedding venue owner prohibit a drunk being married there? A racist? An adulterer?
 2. WHAT are gays supposed to do with their attraction to their own sex? Be celibate, lonely, do the 'M' word?
 3. If there's no "cure" for gay feelings—and they're continually felt—what are they to do with that? I've always believed hormones or testosterone levels were out of whack. Certainly "conversion therapy" is a farce! Jesus didn't die to fix mental anomalies, but for men's sins.

Update #3

You have a range, with a Y for morally OK:

- Flamingly gay (N)
- Gay (N)
- Effeminate male (N)
- Sensitive male (Y)
- Male (Y)
- Macho man (N)

Insecure people have to self-label as alpha male! True men need no such affirmation otherwise others might never have observed! Nick Adams the tare. (1/1/2023-2)

One tweeter said gays, aborters and trans are political scapegoats of the political right. 100% TRUE. One tweeter Christian said we can't compromise our morals on gay, abortion and trans. 100% TRUE. BUT, we are but a proportion of U.S. votes, and we can't force law-making outcomes, morally (and ALL moral issues under the full counsel of God ought to be our concern)! (1/2/2023-2)

If they feel strong emotions toward someone of the same sex, apart from drugs (testosterone, etc.), how would they quit forever? Be solo and celibate for life. I think it would be near impossible, absent a miracle, for them to be attracted to the opposite sex, from what they testify. (1/23/23)

(4/26/23)

Allowing born-male jocks to compete against born female jocks is sort of like allowing an able-bodied athlete to compete against disabled athletes. Physically, biologically, muscle and strength-wise, most males are naturally stronger, though some females do bulk up. An unfair advantage!

IF ANYONE DOUBTS males, by species, are generally physically stronger (and hence, UNfair to compete against women), WHO does society look to most, to break up a fight, physically stop a criminal (absent Tasers and tools), run into a fire? We AREN'T superior! Equals, with different gifts.

The ONLY reasonable solution for trans in sports is to have their own league, and if people are interested in watching, they can! Non-trans born-female females RARELY compete with born-male males, but if they can do so, it can be exciting to watch their achievements!

Floor-to-ceiling, lockable bathroom stalls don't solve all threats to females in the STUPID plan for coed usage! Husky horny, immoral, criminal males with a lone female, meeting at the sink, could lead to rapes, if no one else around! Wokeness on sex is wickedness!

IT SHOULDN'T REQUIRE scientific investigation and verification for reasonable humans to know that a born-male athlete has athletic/muscular strength advantages to born-females, who HE should NEVER compete against, even if he feels like a woman, now! Biology, nature and common sense! (4/21/23)

FOREIGN POLICY & NATIONAL SECURITY

If you don't know you're in a subtle/cold war you're likely to lose it! China's exploits, in securing relations with nations with the money America FOOLishly gave her through globalization, and now expanding militarily, and wanting the Yuan as global reserve currency, along with ties to Russia, who is draining America's money like we did to the Soviet Union through arms build-up, are steps to weaken America!

And "America first" is an immature and naive idea that we alone can go it alone! Funding NATO allies further weakens us, when they don't pay fair share. America can ONLY spend cause dollar's worlds reserve currency! That's being severely challenged, presently!

I've said for years that the U.S.A. has to expand alliances, both economic and militarily! Now you have OPEC wanting oil drilling cut back, and America's STUPID reliance on other nations for a lot of our oil use FURTHER weakens us!

Be it Biden's blunders in WEAK policies against our enemies just named, and CHUMP's stupid idea of America first, where we ignore this growing bloc's threat, we question NATO alliances and retreat from the world as the world's sole superpower are BOTH idiotic strategies! America NEEDS a third party!

(4/20/23)

I have SERIOUS concerns about unvocalized acted-upon intentions of Russia and China, for world domination, and America's demise or subrogation, through UFO-like technology, alliances, Yuan advocacy, expansive land deals, influences to stifle criticism (even in U.S.A.) and other things the public may never know!

(4/21/23)

I'd BET, UFO's are NOT Russian or Chinese technology, but the government person who warned they likely are was trying or being used to incentivize U.S. military technology enhancement. Physics law violations are HIGHLY unlikely by any nation, current state!

(4/24/23)

Between Adam Kinzinger (fund Ukraine) and Mile Lee (Russia didn't attack us!), we DO have to cut off some of the money spigot, and quit the taxpayer drain! BUT, we don't let Ukraine cave. HOW?

1. Negotiated settlement (unlikely), or,
2. Overwhelming forceful end, that doesn't erupt into World War III. I've been for option #2 for so many months! DUH.

ALL my opinions, today, on how to end the Ukraine War are NOT mine (i.e., how I would have done things), because I said stop the 40-mile convoy, and use as much force as necessary, once Putin invaded, so it's been ~8 months past where my advice applied! BUT, here we find ourselves. Solutions?

IF you give Putin ANY territory, he's rewarded for evil! IF you quit funding Ukraine, they lose. SO, a 100% neutral party could try to broker peace. I prefer whatever U.S. experts say would back Putin down, militarily! A one-time surge, as GWB asked for. Tell China we aren't escalating.

Rally allies, but especially enemy nations to understand we are NOT wanting any war; certainly no escalation or expansion, but Russia initiated evil, and ALL of us have to prevent that from occurring! U.S.'s enemies are more inclined to side with Russia. Tell THEM we want peace and prosperity for THEM!

THIS would be an IDEAL time for America to re-set relations with China! Iran, North Korea and Russia may be a different timing. America has needed China as a frienemy, not enemy or BFF, for three years or more! It's irresponsible to provoke Xi, as status quo in Taiwan was better than win-lose! (Mt. 5:44)

We KNOW China and Russia are seeking global dominance. Contemporaneously you fight that, while seeking any cracks at our unofficially economically allying with China, in a mutually beneficial (vs. abusive) relationship, all the while gathering up MORE new U.S. allies, as China is doing!

Trust but verify! Not actually trusting, but verbally offering them the chance to reform or change their minds some, knowing they likely won't, and never allowing their continued actions to go unabated, as you prayerfully wait IF, by chance, they'd change any. Trust but verify! –Ronald Reagan

I WOULD BET very few if any see the prophecy implications possible in China's global rise (kings of the East), Russia's global unsettling in Ukraine (Gog/Magog), and how if this spreads to Israel, the Antichrist will rise to lyingly settle the crisis with a fake 7-year peace deal!

In most negotiations, both sides give up something. Ukraine MIGHT need to give up their 100% valid demand that Russia remake their land to what it was before. THAT would be justice, but unrealistic! But to get Putin to leave, it might be needed (Russia and international money used to rebuild). Military force is better!

IMO almost any bad blood can be resolved, absent war! I even believe the serious rift between America and China can be healed/resolved. I believe rocket man can be assuaged (by talks), and terrorists ended (NOT by negotiations). I would LOVE the opportunity to prove my beliefs. But it takes TIME!

You have to deal with very sly and evil people who lie, happily! Even agreements will be broken, if entered into. And you will hear lies that they will cut back on vile aspirations. They're like mass shooters—hard to stop if you believe they intend to! Yet, peace can be had, with biblical negotiating wisdom.

They would NOT come to the bargaining table with clean hands, or an open mind. Yet, you both offer something and threaten something! You ally every nation standing for good, for coalition consensus ready to back any agreement that's decent, as a result, always expecting violations!

IF Russia or China want global domination, weak nations will capitulate/cave. The world cannot let this occur. BUT, if they seek reasonable changes that benefit them, while considering all others' needs, there's room to negotiate averting WW3, one day! Israel would be involved, then, IMO.

China's already using their wealth to emotionally bribe weak African nations to side with them. This gives them even more clout at the U.N.! They donate harbors, infrastructure, etc., and can say it's charitable, but it gains them trade routes and resource access, and global allies against the West.

Central and South American nations are surely already being targeted by China, to become global allies through various economic and so-called charitable acts! It's to get the Yuan as global reserve currency, as unofficial allies! That tanks the U.S. dollar and our economy. We can't let that happen.

And America HAS to get the logs out of our own eyes, IF we are to remain the world's sole superpower! That begins by our uniting to common ground, and not ending our nation by sinful and stupid extremists' dividing us, thus helping our enemies! Details at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>! Just Do It.

American arrogance, American meddling (when our national interests aren't at stake), American wasteful resources (because we can, and can afford it), American ignoring other nations' plights, American entrenched only caring about ourselves attitudes HAVE TO END, to lead morally! Repent! (II Chron. 7:14)

Some, maybe even many nations are going to do things to their people that America opposes! Dictatorships, ruthless egoist politicians, living the high life as their people starve. Women banned from education, or walking side-by-side with their man. Many distasteful habits.

America can WANT these changed (mainly liberals and moderates), but we live in a fallen world, where "evildoers" (GWB) will always say that's none of your business; get your nose out of our affairs. Ultimately it takes a miracle of God, evangelism and discipling, the people to rise up, with help, and our understanding that that's mainly the Millennium!

At the minimum we avert wars and ensure everyone has food needed to stay alive, and medical care for the same goal, and maybe clothes and a place to lay their heads. And America won't pay for it all! Help them become economically on their own two feet!

And technology for us to use less natural resources, getting the best bang for their usage, so there's NOT such pressure on limited assets! And less population strains on limited resources would help! Wear a condom, MANY third worlders! SO many answers, even for an imperfect world! Just Do It!

WHENEVER America uses its sole superpower status to mainly benefit itself, IT IS NO WONDER other nations take offense! That's the tweet!

Verses needed for all negotiating: Am. 3:3; Phil. 2:3-4; Mt. 5:44, 7:5; Rom. 12:18; Mic. 6:8; I Cor. 6:7, 9:15; I Tim. 5:20; Eph. 4:31; Pv. 6:16-19, ETC. Prioritize, win-win (VS. win-lose), justice, honesty, good faith, and NO doormatism! TAKE THAT GLOBALLY!!!

TEXAS SENATE

Texas Senate's bill was passed as proof positive U.S. pastors have UTTERLY FAILED at full evangelism, then full discipling, since 1978! It must be seen as the scarlet letter on their forehead, PROVING THEM TO BE SPIRITUAL FAILURES at God's top priorities! UN-constitutional; 1A!

1A: "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof;" the U.S. Constitution applies to EVERY state! Texas is preferring Judaism and Christianity to all other religions, and establishing their holy book, secularly/civilly! #ILLEGAL!

JESUS taught the way to make a society moral is to pray, evangelize, then disciple. The PANDERING Texas Senate believes the way is to force their constituents' views of abortion and the importance of the Bible onto impressionable public school youth! DO YOU SEE THE DIFFERENCE, BLIND BATS?

LOOK how LONG I have taught that mandatory civics course in public schools OUGHT to reinforce moral principles, which principles would, being moral, comport to the Bible's teachings, but in a secular/non-religious government setting, Texas Senate (next retweet(s)). You blew it! [Many!]

We were NEVER founded as a Christian Nationalist Theocracy. IF we were, Christians would be FORCED to do what they hardly do, today (EDBS priorities). My flesh thinks that would be a great improvement, but Christians don't walk according to their flesh! Conservatives, obey I Tim. 6:17-19!!! How badly do you like what a theocracy would bring?

"Most of you grew up in an America where there was cultural Christianity. There was a Christian consensus. A moral majority. Christians could still get people elected. That is gone. No more." —John MacArthur (~11/20/22)

The Bible sanctioned by public school as something students are to read is CLEARLY favoring Judaism and Christianity over all other religions, and those having no religion! That's NOT what our Constitution allows. The ten commandments should also have every other religion's pillars next to it, Texas Senate!

Government is NOT 100% devoid of religious or moral influence, nor should it be! BUT, NO religion dictates U.S. laws, and the First Amendment requires government NOT to favor, establish or prohibit ANY religion! The Texas Senate got it WRONG! Iranian #Theocracy! Separation of Church and State.

GOD NOWHERE TELLS CHRISTIANS TO FORCE THEIR VIEWS ONTO AMERICA! We are to influence people, free-willedly, Texas Senate! CHURCHES HAVE FAILED at this since 1978.

POLITICS ISSUES (II)

Puppets?

(4/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

Politicians are IDIOTS to believe U.S. law requires them to be mere mouthpieces of whatever majority in their district wants! You're SUPPOSED to be "leaders." That's being a follower! We live on a REPRESENTATIVE democracy! Never bow to demands, as if America revolves around them!

Update #1: Uni-Party?

(5/28/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let's debunk FOOLS' allegation "RINOs" (Righteous In Never Overkilling) and Dems are a "uni-party," as HIPPOS (moral-less hypocrite GOP's) allege: RINOs are NOT for Socialism, gun grabbing, harming business for ecology, LGBTQ values pushed on anyone else, high taxes, abort like a sport, ETC.

Update #2:

(6/5/23; @JamesMeroney)

It is clear to ALL why many Hispanics and especially blacks vote Democrat, and why so many illegal aliens are from poor, less-educated countries: Democrats support free giveaways, paid for only by U.S. taxpayers! Duh 101

It is clear to ALL why many Republicans want the smallest government possible: They can afford all their life expenses, so why would they want their assets going to anything outside their own nuclear family, they earned the money for? Duh 101

Update #3: Riled Up for What?

(6/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

There will ALWAYS be people upset with public policy (extremists) who can never be satisfied, and yell, vote and cry for their desired policies, no matter how much they win toward them! Government give away freebies until bankrupt vs. government do little but protect me and my assets. Always warring!

Update #4: Puppets (II): ANYONE for Right Policies?

(6/25/23; @JamesMeroney)

WHY NOT free Bryan Kohberger, let him be GOP nominee, and spoon feed him good and Christian policies? Why not free any mass murderer, if a President's job is ONLY to be a hypocritical mouthpiece to advocate for "Christian values?" The messenger could be satan himself, to many "conservatives!"

Update #5: Keeping Up with the Jones'

(6/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

Politics in America will NEVER be fixed, so long as both sides follow satan, in saying, "well the other side does this, so I will, for justice, or because I'll get behind if I don't." Until any decide to do the right thing, no matter what, they're deciding to sin! Believe in morality!

Update #6: Sin is Inevitable?

(7/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

Finally, one could argue "you write ideal state solutions—we live in the real, fallen world." IF you do not stand for the right things, vote for, run for the right things, and only support those who do, you get the real, fallen world! That's on you! You have what you tolerate! —Ex-Dallas Mayor Evans

Update #7: Old or New?

(7/5/23; @JamesMeroney)

In MANY ways, status quo, as well as returning to some old ways, is MUCH better than being modern! Modern America is full of division, chaos, violence, hate, not much peace, much selfishness, and teetering on Civil War. Status quo was good enough, in some cases! Pv. 24:21 Bad change.

Update #8: Local or National?

(7/11/23; @JamesMeroney)

IMO, interpreting the 10th Amendment is KEY between conservatives and liberals! IF what's not expressly elucidated in the U.S. Constitution ONLY goes to the states, conservatives win, legally (vs. elections-wise). If to the people means voters, liberals win, legally (vs. elections-wise). SCOTUS!?

Update #9: Hold Them Accountable!

(7/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

Voters CANNOT have bad memories, because politicians disregard convictions, changing with the wind! THESE are the "credentials" CHUMP ran on, and said they were him and he wasn't changing. HOLD HIM TO THAT ADMISSION, and ignore his contorting to seem like a better human being!

APOSTASY FOR POWER IDOLATRY

Christians are supposed to oppose sin & ignorance, & stand for integrity & intelligence, NEVER perfectly, but we SHOULD HAVE put our voting feet down to NOT embrace & empower ALL of the following, for ANY reason! We failed, & I apologize for 81% WASPs.

Sue-happy (NBC, Ms. America, Telemundo, and threatens to against sex abuse accusers); MOST Hispanic illegals are rapists and criminals; A Mexican judge can't be fair to me; Lies that Mexico's President never discussed the wall payment on his photo op trip to Mexico; We will have a deportation force; Mexico will pay for a 50 foot wall; I am calling for a complete Muslim ban; Mr. Khan has not sacrificed; I saw Muslims cheating after 9-11; I can't say I respect women; Women are pigs and dogs; You can grab a woman's ... if you're a celebrity; I'd like to nail princess Di; Ms. Piggy; Miss Housekeeper; Has been a Democrat (and contributed to them) all his adult life; Physically mocked & mimicked a disabled reporter; George Bush didn't keep us safe; Jeb is as dumb as a box of rocks; Look at Fiorina's face; There's a lot of material to work with with Rand Paul; little Marco; I'm going to spill the beans on Cruz's wife; He couldn't be elected dog catcher; Serial adulterer; Serial divorcer; "Two" Corinthians; Favorite Bible verse is eye for an eye; never asked God's forgiveness for ANYTHING, but he's a "Christian;" Now, one year later, he's a "baby Christian;" His own pastor hardly knows him; I know more than the generals about ISIS; Pro-choice all his life; Punish the aborting woman; Bomb the sh... out of them; Tell them to go F themselves; Used the "P" word in public (at his rally); NEVER apologizes; The cast of Hamilton should apologize to Pence (something trump's incapable of doing himself); I assure you my hands are not small, nor other parts of my anatomy; Blood was coming from Megyn Kelly's wherever; I'd date my daughter if it was legal; Of course women flirted with me—it's to be expected; The great thing about me is I'm so rich; I'm so handsome; Six foot portrait of himself paid for with charity donations; Has NO detailed plans until the last three months of his campaign; only "it will be great, yuge, we'll look into that, believe me!"; Levy 45 percent tariffs on China; Sell federal lands to foreigners to pay off our debt; Default on loans from China to pay down our debt; There may be riots in Cleveland; I want to punch that guy in the face; I could shoot someone on a New York City street and lose no support; I'll pay your legal bills if you beat punch that protester; POW's are losers; John McCain and Mitt Romney are losers; I was for the Iraq War before I was against it; Skipped a GOP debate for a vet fundraiser (to make up for his gaffe); and the media pressured him to pay up; I couldn't serve in the military from an ankle pain/spur that I can't recall which foot it was on; Ted Cruz's dad killed JFK; Burlier on Obama, Cruz and Rubio; Everything is rigged (elections, the media, GOP primaries) or unfair; If the GOP is not "fair" to me I may go third party (the man who started all the unfairness, and was ONLY unfair to every rival); Would never release his tax returns; Eighteen years of paying NO taxes; Would never prove his Wharton class rank; I'm my only adviser; I alone can fix it; I have the best words; I have a great brain; Daddy's little $1 million loan to Donnie (and he's the champion of the little guy?); Four (or more) bankruptcies; Unpaid illegal alien laborers; Outnumbered many of his products; Paid off a golf shot winner debt from charity funds; Settled Trump university lawsuit; Putin is my green rooms buddy/pal; Russia didn't invade Ukraine.

Voters CANNOT have bad memories, because politicians disregard convictions, changing with the wind! THESE are the "credentials" Biden ran on. He is a Socialist. HOLD HIM TO THAT position, and ignore his contorting to seem like a moderate!

Biden OFFERED, teased or promised "FREE" healthcare, daycare, college, paid time off, home mortgage down payment & student loan forgiveness. For him to back off these issues is a flip flop, for expediency! HE WANTS TAXPAYERS TO FUND THESE FOR EVERYONE WHO CANT PAY FOR THEM!...

Update #10: Silly Socialism

(7/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

The political right MUST learn that Socialism is what you (we) fight! I had a reply that didn't even understand they were for it. EVERY bill you incur that you want taxpayers to pay, is Socialism! YOU wouldn't volunteer to pay anyone else's life expenses! WHY would taxpayers want to, foolish ones?

Update #11: GOP Strategy

The need, at least for 2024, is to resurrect GOP's image, through a third party candidacy. Reelecting CHUMP could solidify far right extremism for years. If it's only between Biden and TRUMP, enduring four more years is preferable to Trumpism equated with Republicanism! Fight Joes liberalism!

Republicans, and especially their donors, should be planning backlash possibilities to STOP Biden's no holds barred Socialism, if he wins and is a lame duck, like Sinema and Manchin in 2020. It would be irresponsible not to! @RNC @GOP Run GOP's as Dems in 2024, if needed! NO Socialism!

IF Joe Biden wins, and goes full Socialism, for legacy, and because he will be lame duck, secession or Civil War could occur! It is THAT important that the GOP be prepared to stop that, any legal way possible! Chump loses, IMO, so planning for what comes next starts NOW; not later!

I'm marking history before it occurs: IF CHUMP loses to Biden, the GOP will have DESERVED IT, because so many of them bowed, cowered and sucked up to evil, for power idolatry! ONLY Romney and Christie didn't, Mitt WAY back (as with myself)! YOU ruined the brand by that! But it's resurrectable!

ABORTION ASSORTMENT

Shifting Sand

(4/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

Carnal Christian cultists argued:

1. Roe is bad law because abortion isn't mentioned in Constitution. Then,
2. The 10th Amendment prohibited it as national law.
3. They now say a nationwide prohibition of Plan B is required of D.C. politicians.

ALWAYS changing their position, to suit themselves. SCREW these arrogant bullies who care LESS for living souls going to hell!

Update #1

(6/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

Give me one good reason why ANY American woman should be allowed to kill her baby, after a heartbeat has been detected, EXCEPTING late-discovered vegetative state or mother's life. There are NONE! It's NOT your body, but INSIDE your body. Murderous intentions are all that remains as incentives.

Update #2

(7/12/23; @JamesMeroney)

[Private account:] "Iowa Republicans pass a new 6-week abortion ban"

EXCELLENT! BUT, it NEEDS two exceptions for late-identified vegetative state baby, and mom's life, if ever in jeopardy, for her and her family to decide! SUCH a GREAT victory!!!

People angry about Ohio's abortion law (except mom's life and vegetative baby cases) just want to or enjoy killing kids! They had fair notice they were pregnant, and they had a chance to see their baby forming. They just want sinful total freedom to do as they please, like the far right also does!

Update #3

(7/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

WHAT is a fetus? An alien? A Martian? A product, or foreign object? A growth, like a wart? We ALL know it is a human growing into human features, shape/form and functionality! It's not an animal. It's not invisible. It's not non-existent! Face facts!

Update #4

(7/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

Pence's position on non-viable babies is baby worship! I'm going to coin a phrase for it, that sounds more sophisticated: Infantolatry. Extremists ONLY see one litigant's side: mom or baby. BOTH are sacred to God! Justice applies to BOTH. One may be more innocent, but BOTH are sinners.

Update #5

(7/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

I heard a MORON GOP try to ban birth control say "~have sex only if you want a baby." Personal freedom (and that's NOT what the Bible demands, either; I Cor. 7:3-5)! Fornication is lessened by salvation, and convincing people of morality! NOT big brother sex cops in the privacy of people's home! If hypocrisy was a crime, most of DC would be in jail!

Update #6

(7/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

Remember when CHUMP was criticized for saying punish the aborting mother? Now Nebraska is doing exactly that! tRUMP is owed an apology! NOT EVERY LAW IS MORAL OR JUST, and civil disobedience is a well-treasured U.S. principle, when egregious laws get passed, folks! BTW, I lived (and was saved) in Lincoln.

Update #7

(8/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

[Private account:] It's called cold-blooded murder, like if a man wants to abort his wife because his social life is suffering.

LEARN THE LAW BEFORE YOU SPEAK, and learn science and justice! It's the Solomonian choice, and courts consider both parties/litigants, until some point where the woman has no valid interests. YOU go prevent an abortion today, if someone's committing murder! You would if you observed a real murder scheme being conducted!

Let's analyze a hypothetical conversation with that gal, as I will NOT engage that type!

She: I can't stop a murder—that's the cop's job

Me: Then call 911 on all abortion clinics

She: They won't respond

Me: Because that's not their law

She: It should be

Me: Engage civil disobedience.

She: Silence and inaction, from hypocrisy sin

ASSORTED ISSUES

a) Book Bans?

(7/4/23; @JamesMeroney)

I don't speak about local politics, much (boring), but school boards banning books or censoring isn't anti-free speech, IF the content is untrue or not age-appropriate. Kids NEED the truth, and hiding anything in our history is wrong, IMO. But NO propaganda or bias in its presentation!

b) Cancel Culture

(7/22/23; @JamesMeroney)

Everyone is trying to control others, by cancel culture and social shaming! The hypocrisy is endless! The right claims they oppose cancel culture, but demand athletes sing the National Anthem. The left demands society accept trans and LGBTQs trying to recruit kids. Hypocrites abound.

c) Conservatives

(6/24/23; @JamesMeroney)

The political conservative says life's purpose is to pursue happiness. Most Americans say it is to make money. God says it is to do His commands, non-legalistically, but from a relationship. Who's right? Obviously ONLY the latter! No meaning to life if no purpose for it is known!

Update

(8/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

Conservatives always want lower taxes, but with that comes more personal responsibility of citizenship duties. As busy as I am, I much prefer that professionals handle crises like Maui fires, and me pay today's taxes, than depend on volunteers, when such may not be able to arrive!

d) Consumers

(5/26/23; @JamesMeroney)

YOU NEED TO INVESTIGATE whether airlines advertise low fares, then wait to completely change itineraries until when the market is hot, so people can't find comparable fares, like @FlyFrontier! Bait and switch, circumstantially forced to accept it, or lose large sums! @DNC @RNC @GOP

Update

(7/26/23; @JamesMeroney)

Consumers NEED to organize, with a central website database, and inform others when a company seems to have little concern for customers! You can say online reviews do that, I maybe that's the answer, but not everyone checks those before entering a shop! MAKE businesses behave morally!

THIS is Duh 101, but bears repeating: Businesses can be run ethically, or unethically, even and especially in the same industry. And industries can be predominantly ethical or otherwise! Outside forces need to force change in bad businesses!

e) Covid & Mask Mandates

(7/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

Our ONLY official word on mask mandates and vaccines: In unprecedented emergencies, most government officials did the best they could, with limited scientific testing available, including BOTH tRUMP and Biden. If it wasn't perfect, YOU stfu, as if you could have done better! The end.

f) Ecology & Environment

(4/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

The STUPID ecology debate is EASILY solved! Drill almost anywhere, cleanly and safely! Use carbon capture, and reward new technologies that reduce pollution! It's NOT restrict drilling, or pollute at will EXTREMISTS ARE AMERICA'S GREATEST THREAT, besides China and maybe Russia!

Under that FoxNews article, because China pollutes at will, America should. WHY do those pundits not also argue for sweatshops and child labor in USA, because China does it? MORALITY is leadership, which the far right will NEVER understand! SAME with truthfulness and facts! Evil liars!

One more insight from that Fox article: Lessening pollution has ZERO to do with helping poor people, or requiring ANYONE to cut back consumption! It's for our health! Let far righters live next to coal and oil plants, and breathe in the runoff air! They WONT! Hypocrisy SIN! Good night!

Update

(7/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

IT IS TIME! Climate change:

1. It's MUCH cleaner than the 1970's, when cars belched out black smoke, and dark clouds were often man-made
2. Man only contributes some, at worst
3. Reasonable solutions, or few will ever apply them!
4. Make it money-making, vs. business hurting. #CommonSense

g) Global

(7/4/23; @JamesMeroney)

Be it Ukraine, Israel, France, D.C., N Korea, Iran, China, or anywhere else: In a very fallen world you have to trust but verify, and have good faith negotiations, but compromise and reconciling of differences is (to some degree) possible! The Bible teaches you how; dirty dealers ruin it.

Update

(7/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

Reducing our world population, IF and only if by family's choices to self-restrain, incentivized, is smart! PEOPLE are what drain our limited natural resources, and pollute our earth! This is NOT about governments murdering citizens! @KamalaHarris

h) Guns

Bad things happen with guns. Bad things happen to people from guns. -First 48 (5/17/23)

Gun-toting teachers WOULDNT stop AK-wielding shooters entering, nor metal detectors. If they hide their weapon, they can enter for yards before their intentions discovered, even if that set off metal detector alarms. 'Gotta stop them well before entering schools, malls, churches.

Update

i) Israel

(7/5/23; @JamesMeroney)

I am pro-Israel, but NOT when they do or initiate immoral or unjust things! I am not anti-Palestinian, and am for them when they do good things, not evil. If you are for justice, this has to also be your position, no matter who you are!

j) Jailbirds, Crime & Punishment

(7/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

Hearing this song, it dawned on me, if legal and not disruptive, lifers/death row inmates STILL need purpose in life, like the ability to earn money or have a business, ministry, and conjugal visits (and be safe). <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XdSdNdDE4PY> (Momma, Just Killed A Man, Queen)

k) Judges & Court Shopping

(7/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

U.S. judges would be LESS inclined to maintain the reputation of some as being liberal or conservative, if almost all court cases were livestreamed! It is EVIL to be able to court shop, but no attorney is professional if he/she doesn't, cause the phenomenon shouldn't exist!

l) Leftism/Liberalism

(7/3/23; @JamesMeroney)

HERE is the language of the radical left: White privilege, white supremacy, equality, racist, colonizers, "justice." It is ALL for taxpayers to fund people's personal expenses!

m) Life

(6/24/23; @JamesMeroney)

WHAT's the purpose of life? For ALL people, it is to love God, and obey Him #1. But for non-Christians, the answer is a little different, in that they have to get saved from His wrath, or all else is in vain. For Christians, doing God's will is to be #1—NOT money making, including these:

God's Top Priorities for His People (EDBS)

1. Full EVANGELISM of all lost people, especially those within walking distance of your church!
2. Relational DISCIPLESHIP of all Christians, especially those within your church membership.
3. BODY LIFE. All members using their spiritual gifts to edify the body, when it is gathered.
4. Significant SOCIAL MINISTRY, like Jesus did, making society better, by doing good.
(Lk. 19:10; II Pet. 3:9; I Tim. 2:4; Ac. 4:13; II Tim. 2:2; Eph. 4:11-16; Ac. 10:38, etc.)

n) Mass Shootings

(5/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

It's HILARIOUS for liberals to agree with conservatives that mental illness is behind many mass murders, then seek tax payer money for people to handle their own mental or medical needs and problems. Be self-sufficient!

o) National Anthem & Sports Audiences

(7/22/23; @JamesMeroney)

Americans have something called the freedom of expression! You can sing the National Anthem, or not; you can put your hand over your heart, or not. Those don't prove your respect or disrespect for our fallen military, or patriotism, or absence thereof. We live in a free country!

p) Obama

(6/22/23; @JamesMeroney)

CNN covering Obama. Democracy is NOT something you can force on other nations, and dictatorships can't be forced to not be such. They're sovereign! I 100% agree with @barackobama you deal with imperfect situations that are complex and rarely if ever ideal! Great interview!

q) Panhandlers

(6/3/23)

NO street corner panhandler should EVER make more than minimum wage, hourly, or the FOOLs who are donating are hurting them, undercutting their own tax burden, and empowering NOT working. It happens all the time, I'm sure. Give them leads on where people are hiring, instead.

r) Political Parties

(6/30/23; @JamesMeroney)

THIS is clear: Democrats believe politicians who care about 'the people' will use government to give them things, and they believe Democracy means the majority can vote for anything to make taxpayers pay for those things, so ensure that majority is mainly poor, and needing things!

s) Rules

(6/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let's deal with rules. Were rules meant to be broken? Such adages are used by people who don't like a given rule, or rebelliously 'wanna not do right. Its ALL in if the rule is perfect, or has flaws! Law-makers HAVE to JUSTLY craft perfect laws, handling all exceptions as well as enforcement!

t) School Boards

(6/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

I AM 100% OPPOSED to any school avoiding teaching anything in our history which is true!
#Whitewashing Book Bans

u) Taxes

(5/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

deSATANist's flat tax is anti-biblical. It sounds fair, but it is NOT just/fair. Below is exactly why.
CHRISTIANS: DON'T fall for sophisticated tricks.

Why a Flat Tax is Unbiblical God says to him who has been given much, much is required (Lk 12:28). God says don't favor the rich or poor (Levit 19:15). A flat tax favors the rich (reasons, below), but a flat tax is trying to avoid a progressive/stair-stepped tax (proportional pain). Same percent of barely surviving vs. all you'd ever need is NOT the same sacrifice/pain. The rich have most things & luxuries they want, so a consumption tax would financially affect them the least! BOTH of these 2 (often advocated together) taxes favor the rich! An excessive progressive tax punishes the rich, as with some Americans paying nothing. Pure Cons cater to those life has blessed the most. Libs do the opposite. Centrists do justice!

v) Terrorism?

(6/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

UNfortunately, terrorists likely learned new methods from the recent I-95 collapse. Government HAS to out-think criminals, and EXPECT that they did, just like we changed policies after 9-11, about airplanes with cockpit takeovers. Identify major economy hot spots and secure them better!

w) Transportation

(8/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

THERE OUGHT TO BE A LAW that if you are too diminished by age to follow right on red, one lane turns, and/or slower traffic keep right laws, you aren't allowed to drive! My car horn nearly used up its remaining shelf life, yesterday, twice! Follow the rules; you don't own our roads!

x) Weight Loss

(6/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

THE secret of major weight loss is eating half, then, ASAP, eating 2/5ths what you normally did, and getting used to that amount forever, even if experiencing some small, initial hunger after 20 minutes of a meal. Salads can be deceiving! Even they require these portion sizes! Add walking and water, too.

y) Woke

(4/26/23; @JamesMeroney)

Wokeness on race, IF it never means favoring under-qualified job or college candidates, reparations or handouts, is merely acknowledging historic abuse of blacks as slaves, with implications upon some heirs. Equal educations the answer! NOT diminishing whites' opportunities! DUH.

z) Women

(7/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

Women can do anything they set their minds to! There's NO reason any "American woman" should ever believe otherwise! We have EEOC and other agencies any discrimination can be addressed to, so never fear if you're the best qualified, you should be the one hired!

PROPHECY

(5/5/23; @JamesMeroney)

Louisiana's Congressman Kennedy brought up a VERY cogent argument! IF America wasted $50 billion to be carbon neutral, at 13% of the world's pollution, how many degrees would global temperatures drop? It's UN-fair that U.S. has to do much that other countries won't do! THIS type of issue is where the Antichrist's agenda will enter the world scene!

When he is revealed, he will have the power to force all nations to his agenda, which is what our world doesn't have, today (the U.N. and world Court notwithstanding). Like forcing all nations to curb pollution, end wars (Ukraine), not harbor terrorists and criminals, or tax evaders, etc.

UN-fortunately, the world will be deceived by his morally good agenda, as his real heart/character won't be fully revealed until he's resurrected, mid-Tribulation, with a vengeance. He'll even tout AI and robotics' 666 as able to identify who with a gun is about to use it for evil (i.e., mind reading technology).

His deception is promoting morally good policies! What's absent, presently, is serious violence against Israel. Whenever that is exacerbated, where the world cries out for it to end, he will usurp three 'E.U.' heads of state, broker a FAKE 7-year peace deal, and the Tribulation will be on!

And I'd NEVER support America spending $50B to become carbon neutral! Private industry and innovative technology must make it a profitable transition, including carbon capture! Americans WON'T pay more for fixes a minority care for government to fix (like pollution). That's SOCIALISM!

And speaking of Socialism, people touting a one-world government (from fear and misunderstanding how it gets forced onto the world, vs. voluntarily, through voting) need to read Rev. 16-18. There are poor and rich people in the Tribulation! Socialism WON'T be the Antichrist's economic system! Babylon is rich.

I do NOT wish the Tribulation upon anyone, but personally and selfishly, I'm ready for the Rapture, which would institute that outcome. The world has to be warned one last time to receive Jesus, or suffer, and end in hell! WHAT will get violence against Israel to that degree that Dan. 9:27 occurs?

IMMIGRATION ISSUES (I)

(5/8-10/23; @JamesMeroney)

RE: Crowds amassing at our border: Swamp People—"Shoot 'em" (in the legs, of course; no fatalities). Warning shots in the air, first!

WHO but the ultra-wealthy wouldn't want "a better life?" That excuse for illegal aliens is B.S.! The entire world's non-America living standard people would want to come here, by that emotional and STUPID basis for being FOR law-breaker aliens! #Immigration The world's poor are NOT our problem!

My wife records and watches CBS Sunday Morning. They're addressing immigration, lower crime rate for newcomers and 4.2M unfilled jobs without them (don't seek OUR jobs!). LEARN THE LANGUAGE, we don't want low educated and poor ones coming, as they drain our safety net. ASSIMILATE, and come legally.

Immigration:

1. Take NO jobs Americans want.
2. NO undue likelihood of them becoming Socialism (i.e., Democrat only) voters.
3. Can't access safety net for years!
4. Must have a job, and skills America needs.
5. Learn English.
6. Don't try to make U.S.A. into an image of where you came from!
7. Be legal. It's called #Assimilation!

Update

CBS said there were 5.2 million job openings immigrants could fill, if we let them in.

1. DO THEY POSSESS the skills required or those jobs?
2. Do any Americans want those jobs?

There's always unemployment, as workers switch jobs or take breaks, AND businesses need options to hire! (5/19/23)

IMMIGRATION, RACE & LGBTQ IN CHURCH?

(5/21/23)

I'll FOREVER defend this immigration stance:

1. DON'T try to make U.S.A. into the country you fled!
2. Don't come to U.S.A. to vote for Socialism (i.e., stealing our wealth)
3. Learn English, and U.S. history
4. Don't steal Americans' jobs!
5. U.S.A. doesn't need more traffic and pollution and job/wage pressures.

'Give us your tired your poor' is a sentiment of a past era. America has been VERY generous with immigrants, and even EVIL in NOT deporting illegals! MILLIONS have come. We only have a limited land mass. Americans have to care for America, before we worry about other countries' problems!

Other nations that are crappy need to be fixed! Instead, so many try to come to U.S.A., when NONE of their relatives helped create it! It's a PRIVILEGE; not a right to come here, and WE decide who gets in! EVERY other nation has strict immigration laws, but Dems in charge of our border.

There will ALWAYS be refugees! U.S.A. doesn't owe the world our lifestyle, liberals! Liberals always want U.S. tax dollars to "help" poorer nations! FIX YOUR OWN DAMN ECONOMIES! We'll help, but it's NOT our job! It's MERCY, because U.S.A. is a moral/good nation! Fix your own nation, vs. run to the U.S.A.!

It's a DEVIOUS scheme of the Dem party to allow in people inclined to vote for Socialism! Many fear whites becoming a minority in U.S.A. is a white supremacy issue. In reality and in morality it's a concern that poorer and less educated and people from Socialist nations will vote for Americans with money's money!

I'll GUARANTEE you if Socialism is ever voted for by the U.S. majority, our nation is over, either by Civil War, bankruptcy, or people who have money fleeing America.

RACE & SLAVERY

(5/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

I've NEVER said this, but @Libin_A (one of our three home pastors, Libin Abraham) speaks too much about slavery, not born here. THIS GENERATION DIDN'T MAKE SLAVES!

America KNOWS slavery was sinful and wrong. Born-here Americans do NOT need to have that fact shoved down our throats with "woke" bull crud! WE DID NOT CHOOSE TO HAVE SLAVES. OUR PARENTS DID NOT. EVEN OUR GRANDPARENTS DID NOT. Get over it. NONE of you were slaves, living presently!

I am almost ready to quit going to that one church, because an outsider to American birth always mentions slavery. It's EASY to criticize MY nation when from somewhere else, when U.S.A. has repented, historically, even though we who are living NEVER did anything wrong! Only a handful did, centuries ago!

@Libin_A Sir: With ALL respect, and loving your sermons (usually), respectfully suggest you consider how often mentioning slavery rings HOLLOW, when you weren't born here, and NO ONE living had slaves, and only a handful of families did, WAY LONG AGO. The Bible teaches THIS: II Cor. 2:7-11 U.S.A. has repented!

Reparations are 100% unjust and irrational! NO living slave descendant was in chains, or even their parents or grandparents! The ONLY thing they were impacted by is psychological, and less inherited wealth (AS IF every other American always inherits money-ha!). They need best education and job opportunities; NOT taxpayers' wealth!

Today's taxpayers did NOT profit off slavery! The ONLY Americans who possibly did are any wealthy families who can be shown to have had slaves, generations ago. If you want reparations, go knock on their door, even though you were never a slave, nor your parents or grandparents!

I am SO sick of hearing about open borders, supposedly based on God's word, and condemning Americans for slavery, when that wasn't even America's ancestors, but only a handful of Americans!

America is NOT the possession of the world! Liberals want the world to come here, as most of it is poorer, so they'll vote for poverty-based policies!

Whether it's reparations, open borders, or fixing problems with tax dollars, excepting their leadership, liberals are usually poor, so of course they'll choose to vote to steal from those who aren't, rather than physically rob them. ALL others have every moral right to defend their labors' fruits!

Biblically, charity's voluntary—NOT compulsory! The rich ARE to generously give back, but compulsory taxes are to be FAIR to all! Punishing the rich, or some paying nothing, is NOT fairness! By Libin's Bible view, U.S.A. is to always feel we are slave-owners, and owe the world citizenship!

Families who have been in America from the beginning have a much more vested interest in preserving the values upon which she was founded! People who do not assimilate, manipulate our generosity to make U.S.A. into the image of a nation the FLED from. That is NOT RIGHT! Go back, if so (i.e., if that's your attitude)!

I've NEVER met an Asian- or Indian-American who did not assimilate very well, in U.S.A.! Never, and I know many of them! But I resent one of my three pastors always bringing up slavery! Natural-born Americans have more authority to speak of its evil, but it was the past, and harping is overkill!

NOT ONE LIVING AMERICAN HAS OWNED SLAVES! We DONT have any need to feel badly about ourselves for decisions a handful of Americans made centuries ago, and our money never has to be confiscated to help people who have never been enslaved, either! That's NOT racist or supremacist, but logic.

Liberals LOVE to speak about U.S. slavery, BUT hardly mention World Wars 1 and 2! Always picking on the negatives of our history. They obsess over the Mexican-American War, and Cowboys vs. native Indians. Rarely anything in the past 100 years! Living in the past, for the political gain of Socialism votes!

IT IS POLITICAL for a non-native-born American to side with LGBTQ and black Americans, teaching that the church has harmed them, when NOT balancing that statement with saying homosexuality is sin, and that most Americans and churchgoers never had any slave master relatives, @Libin_A ! Balance and justice are God's way!

Liberals love talk of slavery. Occasionally they add the native Indian and Mexicans who lost land through war. DO THEY EVER SPEAK OF landing on the moon, winning two World Wars, the Industrial Revolution, the generosity of U.S.A., and all U.S.A.'s great feats and moral deeds? Why? Politics!

It is slavery descendants, as with indigenous Americans, Mexican-American War defeated progeny, LGBTQ, and a handful of others who make up the Dem party. They WANT money for these losses! And that money isn't from "government," but from Americans who pay taxes, as they make money, by hard work.

Come to our nation to criticize our nation, or its history, is as welcomed as if we had done that to YOUR native land! You may be citizens, but you are late citizens, who we graciously allowed in. Have some respect for that difference! I'd never move to China, to tear her down! DUH.

To EVERY American, and new citizen, here: People work hard for their money. They don't have any desire to be forced to "help" people NOT in their family! They may, voluntarily, but forcing through votes will END America! We will NOT put up with it! We will FIGHT! It's unjust and un-American!

IT RINGS HOLLOWER for an 'outsider' to come to a new country and criticize its past sins! If I moved to India, as a preacher, and often spoke of their historic sins (whatever they may be), NORMAL citizens would bristle! Think about wearing native born Americans' "moccasins." @Libin_A

NOT ONE LIVING AMERICAN TAXPAYER promised or failed to deliver 40 acres and a mule, nor did any living U.S. citizen receive that promise for themselves, from the U.S. government which exists today. Are Jews going to seek reparations from modern Germany? These are different generations in history!

To claim the Bible teaches receive the asylum-seekers/refugees, and NEVER use the mind God said love Him with, completely, is to IGNORE facts (Christians aren't to do so) of the 44.8 million immigrants living in the U.S. (2018 stat). WE DON'T POSSESS ENDLESS LAND OR RESOURCES! @Libin_A

Illegal aliens are law-breakers, and that's anti-Bible/sinful! I'm FOR as many immigrants as possess the skills needed to fill jobs U.S. business owners can't fill with citizens already here. Dem border policies DONT equate skills with jobs sought! Just let them in for Socialist votes.

MORE people occupying U.S. land ONLY means MORE competition for jobs, which means LESS pay for Americans! Economics 101/common sense! People born here have much greater rights to work and be able to pay their bills, than worrying about the world's MAJORITY poor! That's NOT selfish!

ANY nation's government has primary (if not exclusive) responsibility to care for the health and welfare of their own citizens! That is true for ALL governments! ANY immigrant who lowers U.S. wages, or takes a job an American wanted is stealing our natural resources! @Libin_A Theft crime and sin.

U.S. border policy MUST accurately assess:

1. Is there a job this person will land, and is skilled for?
2. Is that a job no American wants, or qualifies for?
3. Will this person ever be voting for freebies off U.S. taxpayers?

IF WE CAN'T DETERMINE THESE ANSWERS, allow no U.S. entry!

I live among mainly Indian- and Asian-American neighbors. I LOVE their cultures! THEY DO NOT SEEK HANDOUTS! They're skilled and educated! They earn enough to never seek taxpayer handouts. I am SO GLAD they are here. That's what U.S.A. needs; not moochers! Safety net drainers are NOT welcome!

People at the Texas border are demanding entry. YOU DON'T DO THAT! I wouldn't go to any nation and demand entry! It's a privilege if they let me in! And if you don't have money, you're going to seek it from our paid-for government. We don't pay taxes for that! Be self-sufficient, or stay home!

@Libin_A: The LGBTQ community HAS been harmed by Christians demonizing them, but they also choose sinful behavior, and I've NEVER heard you say that, in any sermon, or exegete I Tim. 2:12. Cherry-picking what God teaches (contrary to His whole counsel)? Subjective sin is knowing the right thing, and not doing it. (Jas. 4:17)

IF YOU want to use all these verses for public policy, WHAT'S KEEPING U.S.A. from being real generous, and inviting all the world's poor here? @Libin_A STANDARDS! REASON.

RESTRICTIONS. COMMON SENSE God gave some of us! <https://sojo.net/22-bible-verses-welcoming-immigrants...> Think, brother, with ALL your mind love Jesus!

If ANY black American has career success, living in supposedly systemically racist America, it's proof that slavery from eons ago did not hinder their ability to succeed, financially! @Libin_A Unfortunately for the woke crowd, I can think of THOUSANDS of such achievers! It takes smarts and hard work!

I'd be HAPPY to publicly debate you, anytime, on this generation's guilt or non-guilt over slavery, LGBTQ respect and moral accountability, who should America allow in as immigrants, women as preachers, whether homosexuality and trans decisions are sin, and whether abortion is evil, @Libin_A

PREVALENT WORLDLINESS ~UNNOTICED IN THE LAODICEAN CHURCH

(5/21/23)

Time to teach on a subject so many Christians are wrapped up in, and don't even know what its name means: WORLDLINESS! I've read several people thinking salvation is the end-all of everything, and our interaction with God. BOGUS! It's the beginning of a life of grace. (Rom. 5:2) It's the start!

JUST because you are certain you are going to heaven is zero reason to do nothing toward God; no new decisions, no changed deeds, or nothing different! You were 100% changed! Out of gratitude you please the Lord. It's your new identity and nature! Your re-made to live holy.

Instead, many Christians live in the world, even though we are in the world but not of it. What is worldliness? (I Jn. 2:15-16) It is walking by what we see! (II Cor. 5:7, 4:18) Worldliness is a life based on this life, and all it shows and teaches. Basing all your decisions on the secular world.

In a description, it is this (in America): Graduate, work hard, make lots of money, retire early, and have luxuries and enjoy life and the fruits of your labors. GOD DOES NOT EXACTLY TEACH THIS American Dream "ideal" we worship! IT is exactly what Solomon sinfully did in Ecc. 1-3!

It is showing off your assets, and wearing tons of makeup, wearing the fanciest clothes and watches, and owning a mansion, because you want others to think your value is the value of your net worth!

I Jn. says it's 3 things: Lust of the flesh and eyes, and the boatful pride of life. Sex, sin, wealth and the pride that comes from these idols! Jas. 4 says an entire church was worldly, praying for selfish ends, and that made them ENEMIES of God!

Positionally, we can sing 'I am a child of God,' but in experience Christians can be God's enemy! They ARE when they are worldly!

MOST U.S. Christians will regret how they lived this life! There will be months, if not longer, in heaven, where they feel horrible about the values and priorities they lived under from spiritual birth to physical death. Repent! You are failing God, and are sinning!

The Bible calls it carnality. Saved; going to heaven, but living lost as a goose, spiritually. Imitating the values of a fallen and lost world of people who don't know God.

Here's what else God says about such a lifestyle: II Cor. 10:12 I AM MORE CONVINCED OF THIS THAN ANYTHING ELSE:

I know more Christians that are worldly than not, in the U.S.A.! Their ministry efforts are MINIMAL to non-existent. They have ZERO knowledge of, interest or involvement in God's 4 top EDBS priorities. BUT they do go to church. Churchianity replaces Christianity, for these enemies.

I guess I'll NEVER find one church that will evangelize all nearby lost people within one year. Much less relationally disciple all their members. As to writing, I intend to leave this subject, as it is falling on deaf ears. WE JUST DON'T CARE! Preach and get paid handsomely in Laodicea! God WILL judge us for this! (I Pet. 4:17)

Update

(5/23/23)

@Libin_A would be wise to balance his political inneundos, by using ALL of God's word to speak to public moral issues, and never favor either political party's agenda. Committed Christians cannot be beholden to any one party—only morals and God—or it's idolatry! Here's some help:

ALL injustice Tax cheats & unfair taxes Severe poverty eliminated Unfair wages & lazy workers Greed & selfishness; hoarding Abortion, & the mother's legal rights The poor helped to become self-sufficient No waste in government spending (Mt. 14:20) USA as the moral & justice leader of the world People judged by heart character vs. skin color The rich encouraged to give back (I Tim 6:17-19) People judged by heart character vs. skin color Homosexuality & trans sin, & hate toward LGBTQ NO rich person paying less taxes than a secretary! No corruption or lying by politicians! & no bribing. Illegals & just immigration that favors neither party Balanced budget & reined-in government spending No handouts, but repaid help by entitlement recipients & many more! NOT mainly slavery, LGBTQ & women's rights!

You likely are a GOP, based on salary and education, and your audience is likely mainly GOP, in North Dallas. That is ZERO reason to choose sides! A godly man (as I believe you are) would be a Centrist, and show no bias to any party agendas! Balance all political statements! @Libin_A

ONLY a FOOL can't see any good in one party, and only good in the other. I believe you to be a wise young man. LEAD pastors to understand political parties are IDOLS, and both are full of sin, as are many politicians, and teach that Jesus isn't a GOP (or Dem). LEAD your elders! @Libin_A

In scolding, then encouraging, as I've done toward you, this week, I've given you an example of what I also said you need to do on scolding U.S.A. about slavery, repeatedly. DO II Cor. 2:1-8, and BALANCE that with U.S.A.'s many goods! They far out-weigh our bads, at least to your audience, @Libin_A

BUSINESS ISSUES

Mass Thefts

(5/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

@Walmart—Criminals take YOUR property by:

1. Putting an item in BIG boxed items
2. Scanning less than all items
3. Using backpacks to hide merchandise
4. Scanning lower priced items—not higher
5. Weighing items NOT on the scale

Yet, employees CAN'T chase crooks down! DUMB. Catch the crooks! Theft costs consumers high prices!

I know FIVE ways people steal from Walmart, as customers, but employees aren't allowed to chase after them if they leave the store. BLADERDASH! EVIL PREVAILS WHEN GOOD PEOPLE DO NOTHING. Government has to do its job to curb evil, or it will exponentially accelerate even worse!!!
(6/9/23)

(6/9/23; @JamesMeroney)

I've met an HONEST car repair man. His prices are cheap to fair. On occasion, hell jack up a price, if you don't price shop, but RARELY. My only point, this AM, is keep/hold all people accountable to live morally! You aren't God, but people don't listen for or obey Him often! Be His mouth!

When the cats away, the mice will play. I believe MANY Americans believe God is asleep, or blind! IF people can get away with things, they will try to do so. I know a THIEF at someone's business, but employees aren't allowed to catch or touch or speak to him. I WILL, soon, as a citizen!

Update #2

(6/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

I Tim. 6:10 is THE verse for the evils in U.S. business! The example are endless, and the duty to stop them is with government! Whistleblowers are dependent on their jobs, so fearful of exposing evils, as it cuts off their source of income! They MUST have immunity from business retaliation!

Update #3

(6/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

Years back, Sam's Club reconnoitered their self-checkout machines, and nearby Wal-Mart established a completely new online orders warehouse. Facelifts keep business's afloat, longer-term!

Update #4

(6/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

NEW TV show: One Star reviews, on @VICETV is EXACTLY what's needed for justice! Every online review is:

1. One person's opinion
2. Subject to how they describe it, accurate or not
3. Businesses deserve every right to rebut lies! I CAN'T WAIT FOR THIS SERIES! #Justice more possible.

Update #5

(7/5/23; @JamesMeroney)

SINCE U.S. businesses won't self-police, we NEED a law that they either promote and sell straight and LGBTQ items (and never favor one race in their products), or that they aren't allowed to sell such items. I favor free market, but with balance! Go woke only, you have broken the law, with fines!

U.S. businesses seemingly haven't yet comprehended that when you interject politics into your business, you're ticking off about half your customer base, unless you're Chic Fil A or Ben and Jerrys, where the hit is less, depending on a right or left message. KEEP POLITICS OUT OF U.S. BUSINESS!

For Americas economy to be best, all businesses that can need to succeed, and all Americans need to want and be willing to shop anywhere! IT HURTS AMERICANS when U.S. businesses get into the political fray! A lesser economy lessens jobs and wages, over time and intensity of impact! DUH 101

(7/17/23; @JamesMeroney)

It's literally STUPID for some citizen's groups to think U.S. businesses (like Disney) should or would completely ostracize LGBTQ and trans consumers! That's DUMB business! A MAJOR problem is the straight community hasn't created many products to sell, advertising their beliefs—for balance!

OFTEN, you can't say enough in one tweet! Christian businesses should never be forced to sell LGBTQ items. Christian workers at not Christian businesses shouldn't, either, if it bothers their conscience, based on their religion! Secular businesses are there to sell things and profit!

Today's three business experiences lead me to the following: Some force should make/force businesses to be run right! Customers always right, unless they're jack wads. Customer service skills mandatory. Do your job right. Be open at posted hours and on time. Take responsibility vs. blame others.

Update #7: Business Give Back?

(8/9/23; @JamesMeroney)

IMO, ANY entity responsible for investing or profiting using others' money (like shareholders or investors) should NOT be giving back any monies to society! That obligation before God is for individuals. Business owners can decide for their business, but NOT with entrusted money!

Private companies who give back to society, voluntarily, aren't using entrusted funds, and even public ones who choose to risk disinvestment—unless a majority of shareholders were supportive of that use of their funds. You know when you invest in Ben and Jerrys, what you're investing in!

Over vacay, I got to wondering if I have any biblical basis for saying that successful business should, morally (NOT legally), give back to society. It's a great thing to do, but I Tim. 6:17-19 is written to humans; not legal entities. I'll leave it as unsettled, for me, for now! (8/14/23)

THE AI/ROBOTICS DILEMMA

(5/28/23; @JamesMeroney)

At present, there's a mad rush to be the first company and/or nation to dominate the AI industry. Reports are that it's growing at such a pace, regulation may be in order. With crazy competition, thinking doesn't occur. WHERE IS THIS ALL LEADING?

Taken to its logical conclusion, ALL jobs would be automated. FOOLS envision humans all served by robots, not having to work, or working completely new jobs like exploring the universe. HOW WOULD YOU GET PAID? ONLY the AI/robot owners would get profits.

And with everyone out of a job, those owners would have no market of buyers for the things their machines produced! It's the Henry Ford problem, who understood if you make cars cheap enough, everyone can have one, and the money to buy one with good-paying jobs. But you don't destroy the market by ending all jobs.

Still others, more recently, have envisioned UBI or Zuckerberg's $30K per human pay from the ultra-rich who own it all. What would coerce those elitists to give $30K to everyone, getting nothing in return but the right to profit off owning all means of production? Most don't do that, and wouldn't!

The answer, as always, is found in the Bible; specifically Rev 18. Economic Babylon will be quite prosperous (v. 9)! And it will have humans working jobs (vv. 11-13). So all 18-wheeler drivers will NOT lose their careers to driverless vehicles! We (or the Antichrist) are going to assuage the negative consequences of this current mad dash!

These machines will also cause the demise of perhaps millions (Rev. 13)—those unwilling to bow allegiance to that coming world dictator, who uses them to enforce his economic system/vision. But it will be prosperous, and full of employment.

Men will adulter with it, and be judged for doing so! Cohabiting with evil, to get rich, as so many already do.

But all time between now and 3.5 years before that event, we deal with what to do with AI. Laws are certainly in order, but we also need the technology, if used wisely, and to improve lives and assist workers.

BUT, you know how business thinks! Replace as many salaried or hourly workers as humanly possible, and let them and the government pick up the pieces, through taxes and a welfare system, until their skills can do things a robot can't! It's a problem.

HERE'S the main problem with AI/robotics: The jobs these machines replace are of people whose skills are the LEAST! They are NOT intellectually qualified to out-smart a programmed machine, to do things those machines cannot be designed to do. That means MAJOR Welfare programs coming!

MORAL ISSUES (II)

Being Good

(6/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

SINCE no one will ever be perfect, how good must one be to be deemed a "good person?" It's really if you're trying, sincerely, vs. feigning/faking it, and if your succeeding in major, noticeable ways. MANY in America don't even try. They're willful sinners (like tRUMP's crednetials in 2016)

Update #1: Legacy

(7/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

Legacy: WHAT will you do with your life that any people will care to learn about, when you're gone?

Update #2: Hard Times

Hard times create strong men. Strong men create good times.

Good times create weak men. Weak men create hard times. —G. Michael Hopf

Update #3: Morals & Politics

(7/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

I'm vehemently angry at one thing—EVIL has to be stopped in its tracks, in our world—period! The Sound of Freedom appears to be just one issue being exposed. Start with D.C.! Sin is not to rule our great nation! A national repentance is in order in our secular country; return to morals!

Update #4: Morals & the Media

(7/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let's address Barbie movie, Sound of freedom and Bud Lite: NO MATTER HOW HARD Christians try to make our society more moral, ONLY THE GOSPEL CHANGES PEOPLE FOREVER! Not moral rehabilitation or behavior modification! Moral lost people burn in hell, brethren! Solve THAT—first and foremost!

My past post was SO important, I'll rephrase it: IF Christians were ever able to get society to adopt more moral standards for society, they COMPLETELY FAILED, because Jesus died for men's eternal souls! NOT for their temporary deeds being cleaned up! II Chron. 7:14 is to Gods people!

Update #5: Morals & Politics

(7/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

When POLITICS rules the rules being made, your country is totally fricked up! There is ALWAYS a higher law than the mere law of man, and we are always to follow it. JUSTICE is always in order, even if not always on the books!

Update #6: Objective vs. Subjective Sins

(8/17/23; @JamesMeroney)

EVERY SINGLE TIME we speak of actions, intentions, desires, words or thoughts being sin, there is ALWAYS the objective vs. the subjective! What is objectively a sin may not be a sin for you, if God hasn't yet given you faith to do it. Get (understand) this and you get sanctification!

CHURCH & GOD'S PRIORITIES

(6/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let's describe a scenario, and see if its description matches reality, anywhere: A church is mainly music and sermons, and asking people to attend, sit, sing and tithe. Now when we look at what God says one is, and is to do, we observe the following activities, too. WHAT IF THEY WONT DO THEM?

WHAT IF a pastor has decided, privately, that he will do anything and everything in his power to grow his audience and their giving, to ever expand his business kingdom and salary? Or if he believes the church is his? What are Christians to do with such wolves/tares? Rebuke/scold/shame

WHAT IF a "pastor" decided he agreed with philosophy that church is a business, parishioners are the customers, and his sermon is his product, along with the musicians? WHAT IF any church dabbled in top priorities, then said they do those priorities? Do enough people buy those lines?

WHAT are consequences of any pastor NOT evangelizing all nearby lost, discipling ALL his members, and training them to do the same, having ALL members use spiritual gifts in ministry, or the congregation doing little social ministry to their communities, if laymen remain ignorant?

WHAT IF hiring "pastors" have decided the ONLY main consequences for their NOT doing THESE priorities well comes in the next life only, so they will live it up in Laodicea, ignore Jesus knocking on the door, and take their fate and lost rewards on the other side, IF they're going?

WHAT IF "ministers" believed all other pastors are significantly under-performing at the EDDBS priorities, so they're OK doing the same? II Cor. 10:12 WHERE would laymen learn of these private decisions, or these priorities, if they mainly rely on pastors' words? READ BIBLE and WATCH DEEDS!

WHAT IF any sincere critics of those sin-full decisions were labeled judgers, or legalists, to get the heat off of under-performance? Wouldn't sinful status quo simply continue, and the critic be banished or socially ostracized, and satan win the victory? Absolutely YES! Do you ever see this?

(6/14/23; @JamesMeroney)

DISTINCTION WITH A DIFFERENCE: I've spent the past hour of my sleep, fighting off writing this, until normal waking hours, but I can't sleep. Missions strategists TEACH you do good deeds to "plant churches." Planting churches is NOT what occurred in the book of Acts! Evangelism WAS!

OF COURSE, if your goal is to have a church where you get a business started, that makes a salary for the "church planter," you WOULDN'T just evangelize, or rent a room and host a Bible study, un-advertised! You'd target people who might join, because they had a reason to do so!

God's concern is that EVERY soul hears gospel, even knowing many will reject! Man's goal in church planting is to get enough church goers to have a viable business, as good a business as that is! Church planting is NOT concerned with reaching everyone! They hope a church, "planted" will later reach the remaining unreached by the "planters."

In fact, many churches become introspective, and pastors justify simply catering to their crowd, as they're seen as shepherds of the sheep, and the sheep are their members. NOWHERE in Scripture does God command, nor do we see churches started as the purpose for evangelism! It's the effect or result, when enough get saved! But ALL are to be reached! NOT just enough to pay a man's salary!

If your purpose is starting a new business, your aim is finding a quorum who'll come and give! IF, instead, your goal is completing the Great Commission, ALL in an area will be reached, and even if not enough want to become a church, thereafter, you start them, individually, on their walk with Christ, and encourage them to join a church, whenever they can, or one exists (online available, today).

I can't make this any clearer!: You EITHER aspire to start a new business/church, OR you aspire to tell the gospel to everyone in an area. "Church planters" will significantly QUIT their evangelizing efforts, once enough people exist to form a church; then focus on becoming preachers.

ALL the people in any given "targeted" area who DON'T hear the gospel through the efforts and mouths of "church planters" STILL GO TO HELL, AT ANY TIME, even if a church gets started big enough to make the head pastor wealthy! Do we want a pastor career, or the world reached for Christ?

It's the culture of churchianity that praises more church entities started, even as NOT all lost people hear the gospel! READ book of Acts! Entire cities and nations were reached, by open air preaching, corroborated by miracles! NOT by mowing lawns and filling gas tanks! Distinctions!

Finally, NOT ONE church, likely (even though ALL churches are to do so), has evangelized EVERY lost soul within walking distance! YOU CABNT TELL ME starting another such entity is how God commanded His Great Commission to be completed! Back to sleep!

I "lied:" When we were on a Cambodia mission trip, we NEVER considered whether a new church could or would be formed! We tried to reach as many lost as we could, while there! That idea never entered my mind! We left materials for all who got saved.

If there had been NO local church within walking distance of "our" fruit/converts, I feel certain most involved would have done the exact same thing! You can ask them! It's now called E3, but was then called Global Missions Fellowship. Nov 1996. EVANGELISM! NOT "church planting!" ALL vs. Some reached! Duh!

Two passages on point: I Cor. 2:2-5, 10:33. PAUL NEVER SOUGHT ANYTHING FROM APPROACHED LOST PEOPLE, like a salary/money, or church attendance! He only powerfully spoke of Jesus crucified! He didn't even wait around long enough for churches to be formed; appointed elders LATER! Role model.

Church Growth Movement and Industrial Revolution/assembly line big box mentality made focus drawing crowds. one Community Church advertises a Dallas Cowboy speaking at men's conference. This is NOT how it was done in the Bible, folks! We have enough believers to reach everyone, even 1:1.

SMALL and medium-sized churches are NOT "failures," because they draw very small crowds! That's the tweet!

Update #2

(6/25/23; @JamesMeroney)

IT IS DIFFICULT when someone claims to know Jesus, but cannot comprehend why you would protest CHUMP, never vote for or support him, even risk a GOP loss, to take a stand and save that party, and work to ensure whoever wins is kept in check to closer Christian values than unchecked!

There are SO MANY claiming Christians who DON'T yet comprehend that living with integrity, having morality, is ultimately what God is requiring of lost people, and especially people who name His Name! HOW does that message get missed? Morals trump even secular power Christ passed on!

It's probably easier to chat with a lost soul than a believer who lacks Bible knowledge, because you EXPECT lost people to have NO clue. The believers you just get frustrated with, as they or their pastors are FAILING so openly, without regret or awareness of their failing God!

IF anyone EVER took the time and effort to know God and His word, they would QUICKLY know these are tenets of God's view of our world and life down here. The MORE you share them in common with Him, the better your life will become. MOST never will, then will burn in hell, forever!

1. Your purpose in life is obeying Jesus
2. Money is NOT the point of life
3. You get as many years as you get, in which time you have to get saved, or it was ALL a huge waste!
4. Truth is everything, and you have to apply it to your politics, and see good and evil, by knowing truth!
5. EVERYTHING is headed toward the coming 7-year Tribulation (Bible prophecy). ALL events are trending toward that event, and God has already told you what the future looks like! You do NOT have to live an ignorant life, preoccupied with the things you visibly see!
6. Evangelism is the most important act you can do toward another human!
7. EVERY "Christian" is required to be fully sold out to Jesus, in your life behaviors, or you are NOT a friend of God, but an apostate rebel.
8. EVERY Christian is supposed to be able to learn how to grow up other believers!
9. You, Christian, have a spiritual gift! You're supposed to use it when church is gathered to edify others!
10. EVERY Christian is supposed to do something with their life that improves the life of humanity—you're the hands and feet of Jesus. NOT understanding these 10 makes folk fools!

I've MANY times said not all Bible verses have the same impact, like so and so begat so and so vs. key memory verses at our website. EVERY one of the 10 principles I just elucidated have Bible verses behind them! PASTORS MUST START TEACHING THE KEY TRUTHS OF THE BIBLE, that change lives!

IT IS INSUFFICIENT for pastors to view sermons as a thing you do because it's your job, and why crowds come to hear you. Professional ear-tickling entertainers have that attitude! YOUR JOB IS TO GROW UP/MATURE UP the people sitting in front of you, ASAP!; Not 10+ years from now!

Carnality is RAMPANT in U.S. Christendom! NOT my opinion; statistically provable and observably verifiable. FACT that claimers of Christ don't care that this verse exists, and support one who would choose the opposite, is proof positive! II Tim. 2:19 Idolizing power and money over morality sins!

(7/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

And here's one more rants session you need to endure: IF AMERICAN CHRISTIANS TOOK THEIR RELATIONSHIP TO JESUS AS SERIOUSLY AS THEY TOOK THEIR POLITICS, the world would be turned upside down for the right, not the wrong! We do NOT do this, by and large, so sin reigns! Repent! II Chron. 7:14

God's Top Priorities for His People (EDBS)

1. Full EVANGELISM of all lost people, especially those within walking distance of your church!
2. Relational DISCIPLESHIP of all Christians, especially those within your church membership.
3. BODY LIFE. All members using their spiritual gifts to edify the body, when it is gathered.
4. Significant SOCIAL MINISTRY, like Jesus did, making society better, by doing good.
(Lk. 19:10; II Pet. 3:9; I Tim. 2:4; Ac. 4:13; II Tim. 2:2; Eph. 4:11-16; Ac. 10:38, etc.)

Update #4

(7/3/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF we want revival in USA, II Chron. 7:14 (analogous) requires more than prayer! DON'T blame God withholding what we asked for! Humble ourselves, do pray, turn from evil and seek His face (which is to do His ways and will). Name me churches committed to His top priorities—doing His will.

Update #5

Your life as a Christian should make non-believers question their disbelief in God.

—Dietrich Bonhoeffer

CHURCH POLITY

(5/2/23; @JamesMeroney)

Sorry, but when you've been kicked out of all Sun School classes, for telling truth and banned from attending if you say one online word about a church, some young, very talented music man's offense I said someone was off pitch won't stop me from seeing and saying what the Lord leads me to!

FYI, EVERY time we pass by Cottonwood Creek (2-3 times a year), I chuckle that a pastor could have researched an illustration to say he didn't want anyone coming there to change his church, even as they do NOT fully do EDDBS priorities. Laodicea was wealthy, yet spiritually poor!

I'm NOT wrong in trying to help fix that problem! Whats wrong is people resistant to changes that improve a church, maybe even affecting attendance! Budgets have to be paid! Pastors care!

EVERY wise business executive evaluates the customer experience! They can take polls, hire observers, compare to similar businesses, or hire undercover shoppers. IF a church wants repeat attenders, they have to identify things that turn off and on those already willing to come once

GET THIS: 20% of Americans believe the Bible is to be taken literally as the word of God. YET, Wikipedia says 63% of Americans claim to be Christians. That is 43% (double 20%) of claimers who don't obey God as to their view of His Bible! HERESY and sin, folks! Repent, #Fake Christians

Nit-picky nose church consumers care about the carpet color (unless its glaringly ragged or ugly-colored), church ending at the exact minute, etc. Things that attract or detract from visitors returning SHOULD concern ALL paid staffers! God hasn't sent your salary as manna! Mt. 11:15

P.S.: JUST LIKE Ernst and Young taught, outsiders and especially young MBA grads/first timers are some of the BEST sources for observing needed business changes, as they aren't subjectively blind to the problems. They can see where people get entrenched in bad habits, which blind them to needed changes!

I'll NEVER back off calling for ALL churches to do EDBS right and thoroughly! Church polity has NEVER been a topic I've even addressed, until two months ago! I was helping a church I was considering regularly attending. Otherwise, I wouldn't care—that's the local members concern for growth.

I've ONLY encountered RESISTANCE by churches not doing EDBS significantly, and God leading me to change that! Cottonwood Creek knew I was coming to visit, considering going there, and preached an illustration that they didn't want anyone changing their church! DO EDBS RIGHT! Period!

I don't even care if any church's polity gets improved, IF they adopt God's EDBS priorities! I've simply observed MOST won't, ever, and that pastors often care MORE about how to grow than how to better obey God in what their churches do, as to EDBS ministry efforts! Sin, but reality!

I have ONLY written on church polity ONCE in my lifetime, as I HATE that lower importance subject! BUT, pastors DO care about how the quality of the "product" they're presenting is doing. IF churches ONLY did EDBS, God would bless their so doing! MOST WONT—ever, thoroughly! Sin!

ALLEN PREMIUM OUTLET MALL SHOOTING

(5/6/23; @JamesMeroney)

WARNING!!! I retweet this as a pro-gun citizen, to say America has a problem, and it's hardly ever any other weapon but a GUN! IF we can't figure out who's good and who's bad, who have access to guns, we will always have these incidents. Mind scan technology, or better control of who gets them! [GRAPHIC video of the shooting]

My family did NOT want me to retweet that graphic video. BUT people have to SEE with their own eyes what carnage guns in the wrong hands cause. ALL respect to the victims, and condolences to their families. WE CAN'T TELL WHO'S EVIL with a gun, so polygraphs upon purchases may be needed, to identify (evil) intentions!

HOW MANY MASS SHOOTINGS ARE WE 'GONNA ALLOW, demanding absolute rights to gun ownership? There HAS to be a law that gun owners are interviewed and polygraphed as to intentions, BUT it's the illegal access to guns that's the problem; criminals, evil hearted and the mentally ill accessing them—NOT law abiders!

GOP's can say it's not the gun, but the gun user, BUT how will society ever know the intentions of all gun holders? It's IMPOSSIBLE! Its' RARELY a bomb, a grenade, Molotov cocktail, knife, machete, bat, sling shot, bow and arrow, but a GUN—and an automated gun, at that! Allen Premium Outlets (been there ~17 times)

I'VE SAID all soft targets have to get hardened! Allen Mall is VERY soft, because last time I went there, FEW places are connected indoors. Maybe none. Only outdoor store-to-store walking. Open sitting duck targets for madmen! NO protection, if you're unarmed! Open season for murderers.

UNTIL technology can distinguish a well-meaning vs. evil-intending gun holder, all targets have to be hardened, everyone should arm themselves, criminals and the mentally ill need no access (not just by law, but physically), and very angry people get red flagged!

IF ANYONE wants to argue #ItsTheGuns is 100% UNtrue, NAME ME everyone planning a mass shooting, and I will agree with you! You CANT! It is evil people who get their hands on guns, any way that they do! Both/and; not just man, or guns, but BOTH! DUH 101.

NO amount of mass shootings will ever be enough for FOOLS to demand any new laws! That is saying they are content if thousands of such incidents occur. It's just the price of "freedom." B.S.! Our great military paid for it (i.e., our freedom); NOT civilians!

Instagram shows an armored vehicle at Stonebriar Mall. I can't find it on Twitter. Green; maybe camouflaged (the camera filmed from further away, and from behind parked cars). KILL ALL TERRORISTS! Allen Premium Outlet Malls is only about 7 miles away! This is a bad night for North Dallas!

#BREAKING #Frisco, Texas Stonebriar Mall in Collin County just 12 miles from #Allen Outlets is currently being evacuated for another possible active shooter situation just hours from the ones first down the road [I had an insider go through this whole event].

Do people not know, you always keep moving, in dangerous situations when you're in a car! You never get in a line, or stop. We drove all through Stonebriar Mall, until we found an easy exit to Preston. Most people waited to exit to 121. Sitting duck dummies. Untrained in self-defense! [I drove there with my son, to see the activity, and prove no tanks were present, as had been alleged].

God's blessings to you, @johnmarkcaton, in tomorrow's service in Memorial for today's Allen Premium Outlet Mall! You'll remember me from the next two retweets!... [reminding him when I took a go fully evangelize sign, and when he preached a sermon that they didn't want anyone coming there to change his church, knowing I was coming]

(5/7/23; @JamesMeroney)

Here's a law that couldn't hurt: ANY mass shooters caught alive will be shot by firing squad, with all appeals to be made within three years maximum. Let them feel their pain. It's legal in Utah, I believe. Cruel and unusual punishment is what they did to innocents!

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE to know and identify evil (not just mentally ill) people who privately plan mass shootings! They'd have to speak or write of it, or behave unusually, and ONLY those closest to them would see those signs!

IF you ban rapid fire assault weapons, you will NOT get them all out of our society! They will only be harder for people to illegally get. Owners will hide them, and criminals will stash them before the law changed. DUMB attempted solution! It doesn't work!

@CNN is saying authorities should have identified the Allen killer, his background and amount of weaponry. ABC local revealed his home (not an address), likely race (Hispanic, as a translator needed), his demeanor (quiet, loner). Some fear he has cartel ties, so cops are staying silent. SPEAK, authorities!

I was told many mall employees believed a gun was shot at Stonebriar. THERE WOULD BE EVIDENCE of where the bullets lodged! Others say it may have been dropping something loudly, or a popped balloon. That I believe! Their videos don't identify culprits, a Frisco cop said.

An interjecting conversation with an online idiot who struggled to ever speak truth, but wanted me to meet him at Cottonwood Creek Baptist, which he claimed was his home church, which I told him I'd been to many times, but would never return to, given the head pastor's resistance to God's top priorities.

He was convinced a fuzzy tattoo picture on the gunman's hand proved he was with a drug cartel, and slandered my using lawyer skills, such as waiting to see what the evidence proved. He also claimed to be a "Christian," to which I wrote the following two tweets:

IF ANYONE CLAIMS TO BE A "CHRISTIAN," and states ANY political opinion without citing any Bible verse, ignore and run from them! They are NOT speaking for God, but feel that somehow knowing Him informs their uneducated brains. It doesn't work that way!

...As clear as the fuzzy tattoo! I'll patiently wait until his race is confirmed by people in authority who examine his body; not make conclusions based on a photo from 8 feet away, thank you. IF @johnmarkcaton (Cottonwood's head pastor) isn't discipling well [as proved by this harassing, full-time cussing congregant], that's his problem! John said you forget sermons 72 hours later.

BY THE WAY, this mass shooting is just one of the effects of not fully evangelizing all nearby lost people, and fully discipling your members, every church! @JohnMarkCaton REMEMBER when I brought this sign outside your church, on 121 access road, with the cops? Fun times!

Our viewership of this incident:

Sermons are not relational discipling, @johnmarkcaton! There is ZERO knowing if your audience is growing, meeting with God, how they live outside church, if they read any Bible, pray, evangelize. No questions asked. No relationship. You know I've ranted about this for decades! FIX IT!

For now, I won't retweet that dude's continued contact. As a "Christian," he's trying to insult, hurt and discourage me, and finds joy in angering me, AS IF righteous indignation over evil and stupidity is losing self-control. THIS IS CARNALITY in church, pastors and Americans! And it is prevalent.

I WILL REPEAT: There is NO number of mass shootings large enough for the far right to want any laws changed on the subject! QUIT expecting that to change!

Let me address a pertinent fact: Jesus IS the answer to America's problems, but many people will not and will never receive Him. Therefore, God Himself instituted government, to curb evil and praise good (Rom. 13). We CAN'T wait for a hoped-for revival to fix U.S.'s many problems. God's answer to our prayers for revival is NOT the problem!

HERE is where you can watch the memorial service for the victims of the Allen Outlet Mall, at 5pm, central time: <https://cottonwoodcreek.tv/worship-services/tn7pn8jv7n...> <Mauricio Martinez Garcia—Rot in hell, as you burn> (5/7/23)

Update #2

(5/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

My wife and I, with our eldest son, walked the Stonebriar Mall, as we often do, but wore these shirts, which we rarely do. #MakeAStatement

Update #3: Church Reproof (& Talk of Judgment)

(5/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

I enjoyed every speaker at the Allen Outlet Mall Memorial, including very interesting church staffers from all over the world, BUT when it got to the head pastor, I ended it, as I know he is volitionally resistant to these [EDBS priorities] values in serious application, and likes Laodicea better! He said as much.

Unconfirmed (but my wife never lies, has good hearing, and is usually accurate): She says three victims of the Allen Outlet Mall shooting were from our 16⁺-year church's Prestonwood Christian Academy [PCA] (parents and a child), with another child in the hospital.

Yesterday, a MORON said I was siding with helping the Democrats to believe something has to change with our laws on gun ownership. THAT IS THE #1 USA PROBLEM: MORALITY is never a consideration! Just does this position help or hurt my idolized political party? ANATHEMA. God judge us ALL! We can be SO EVIL!

I've ONLY encountered RESISTANCE by churches not doing EDBS significantly, and God leading me to change that! Cottonwood Creek Baptist's pastor knew I was coming to visit, we considering going there, and preached an illustration that they didn't want anyone changing their church! DO EDBS PRIORITIES RIGHT! Period!

That needs MORE attention: @johnmarkcaton REFUSED this [Fully evangelize] sign, and these priorities, verbally and behaviorally, which is WHY Allen Outlet Mall happened as judgment in HIS city! God can use evil, but NOT do evil. The man didn't want to change his church's successful practice, and this was at 'his' church!

MAKE SURE Allen Premium Outlet Mall's memorial service host, @johnmarkcaton, REMEMBERS why God allowed that to occur! HE refused this and other priorities of God's, four [Actually nine] years ago! Repent!

[Private account:] I never imagined I'd see the day when countries like the UK, France, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and Uruguay would warn their citizens about the danger of being gunned down if they travel to the United States.

THERE IS AN OBVIOUS DIFFERENCE between a gun, and an automatic weapon! The latter takes little aiming skill, or trigger finger talent. There's no time interval for thinking. Decisions can't be taken back; just full pedal to the metal to gun down as many as it can handle! EVIL!

Automatic weapons in civilian hands are ONLY good for:

1. Gun range or outdoor target practice.
2. Killing wild overpopulated animals (Ex.: wild boars in Texas).

3. Self-defense against a criminal or crazy with one. Texas MUST identify the criminally and mortally mentally intended possessors!

I have owned guns, and voluntarily gave one away, when I was clinically depressed at around age 27. I was never concerned about its use against others, but wasn't sure I was safe! ANYONE severely angry, depressed, or having mental problems should NEVER possess a weapon, until they are cured!

DO YOU KNOW OF Good Samaritan laws? I have a business friend in the mall who packs heat (against mall rules). He would RUN, rather than engage, and I told him if you miss, and hit innocents, you can go to jail for a very long time. He knows that, and would only would use if facing a gun barrel!

A South Texas rancher, if faced with many violent or dangerous illegals breaking into his home, would have every use for an assault weapon! One vs. the masses is only made FAIR by such a weapon! We MUST IDENTIFY the criminally minded, mentally well or mentally ill. THEY are our danger!

IF MASS SHOOTERS were given VERY disgraceful burial arrangements, that could deter some future ones! NOT dragging their bodies through our streets, but a public spectacle of humiliating burial, near a trash heap, only in a plastic bag, spat upon, and left for the wolves to dig up?!

Captured alive mass shooters SHOULD be hung upside down by their feet, for five minutes, above a very public area, for all to ridicule, at a given public time, then processed like other criminals. THEY CAN ENDURE THE PAIN FOR FIVE MINUTES! Just Do It, wimps!

Mass shooters like fame, even if infamy! They 'wanna feel people knew they existed. You can't stop their names going famous, but make their burials embarrassing! Let the public throw stones at their corpse, then bury it inside a trash dump. Make future ones think twice. Deterrence!

Mass shooters are angry, feel cheated by life, or hate certain people, or types of people. If you're depressed, you 'wanna end the pain by ending your life. If you hate or are angry, you 'wanna take it out on someone NOT yourself! Identify majorly angry people!

I was VERY hesitant letting my youngest shoot his first gun, last week, at a range! I always remember how Chris Kyle died. I didn't know the maintenance history of the pistol being used, or if any "mental" people could be there. I was relieved when he arrived alive, hoping for no repeat!

Texas argues law-abiding citizens need automatic weapons, in case they're faced with that breaking into their homes. VERY likely your spray could injure others [like in or across the street], if you used it against an intruder. You'd have to be very good, or you could go to jail, arguing self-defense! Good Samaritan laws.

Wow. Report: Texas House Bill 2744—which raises the age to purchase semi-automatic firearms from 18 to 21—was just voted favorably 8-2 out of committee. The Uvalde parents have been tirelessly pushing for a vote for months.

A MOST humiliating end for a mass shooter would be to be buried in a manure pile, sewer, or to be thrown down an abandoned well shaft. THESE ARE POSSIBLE DETERRANTS FOR some who might seek such a future "career!" City dump, or an obscure "lepers" island!

EVERY Texas roadside rest area building should have one toilet designated with Texas mass shooters' names inscribed on them, so we can "enjoy the go," as the toilet paper ad says! @gregabbott_TX @GovAbbott JUST DO-DO IT! Uvalde and Allen first!

Threat of physical death isn't enough to deter future mass shooters! America needs guns that can target their hand holding a gun, to blow it off, then remain alive, to face a horrific punishment! The easy way is to kill, then die! Disarm them, then face a firing squad.

DETERRENCE is a MAJOR avenue America hasn't explored enough, regarding mass shooters. And punishment we haven't yet imagined, for those who don't die (like a firing squad, so they feel what they did to others)! Deter, and scare others about their legal punishment!

My son argued mass shooters just need to be eliminated as a threat. IF we had the technology it wouldn't take more time to shoot their hand holding the gun, to keep them alive, for close to torture! Laser aims at the hand! Computer aided, if needed.

WHY would police dog bites of captured mass shooters be illegal, for 5 minutes, IF CAUGHT IN THE ACT? Presumption of innocence is a court room legal right. Make it part of arresting alive mass shooters! Part of taking into custody! ARM THE DOGS TO THE HILT (for the canine's protection)!

IMO, Rev. 13 describes technology that can kill opponents to the Antichrist. IMO, those are fatal lasers, computer-directed, placed all throughout societies (including on AI robots)! Aims at the heart. #666

I DON'T CARE if someone is mentally ill, and becomes a mass shooter. When you cross that line, death is your only legal option! Even demon-possessed people who kill the masses, need personal accountability. NO rehab or mental committals! They crossed a line!

I had some MORON call me a "spineless, conscienceless" lawyer, because I would NOT agree the shooter was for certain in a cartel! Extremists are America's domestic enemy, far right and far left! Non-thinking CULTISTS!!!

[Responding to a mocking 'ban cars too' tweet] The EASIEST object to kill masses with just a touch of a trigger! Designed for massive damage. Cars are not. They can be abused, but rapid fire is to kill or injure quickly and in large numbers, with much less skill than driving a car!

Three of these are now in heaven. Six year old in the hospital. My wife says NBC local associated them with my 16+-year church's private school. I DON'T know if they attended our church, or if a funeral is coming there, soon(?). Great #Sadness! Tell my mom 'hi,' heroes!

Update #4

(5/9/23; @JamesMeroney)

YOU WOULD THINK that the church we left over politics would renounce the far right politics that unites with people like the thug who killed three of their associated school members, BUT idolatry of wanting votes to sin-to-win can be a satanic lure! Time will tell if there will be ANY public statements on that sin.

[Responding to an #EnoughIsEnough hashtag tweet:] Enough deaths are NEVER enough for the far right cult, folks. They know no boundaries. Morals and thinking are NOT ways they seek to win-at-all-costs! NO Christian joins them sin free! ENOUGH IS ENOUGH.

And you wonder if the GOP will ever publicly and continually renounce the violence that comes from people hating that so many other culture groups have immigrated to America, which appears to be an incentive for the Allen Mall massacre? And the demonizing of the mainstream media (MSM) who is pointing this out!?

And the conspiracy theories and lies, like claiming Allen Mall murderer was in a cartel, because he's Latino, because we have to hate Latinos, because they often vote Democrat, and EVERYTHING is about political wins. WILL THE GOP PUBLICLY DENOUNCE EVIL PEOPLE WITHIN THEIR RANKS?

TRUMP ALONE is responsible for this disinformation, lying, and demonizing the MSM, and wanting all his cult followers to never listen to MSM. Hatred of government, and clear but innuendo'd hatred that whites are losing their majority status. WILL PASTORS EVER DENOUNCE THESE SINS PUBLICLY, AND HIM?

(And I guess this morning's message makes me a "liberal" and far right GOP enemy, if you understand cult think).

WILL all U.S. WASP pastors publicly and repeatedly renounce the sins and evils resident in the far right cult? LISTEN TO THEIR LIVESTREAMS TO ANSWER THIS QUESTION! Hypocrisy sin practitioners?

We don't want people coming here to change our church. Illustration used by @johnmarkcaton, ~four years ago, when I was about to attend to consider it as a new home, knowing we push for these [EDBS priorities] things, everywhere we go! Bent Tree and ~Prestonwood (after years) weren't hardened like this!

Johnny boy: Does anyone recall Allen Police lighted cruiser on 121's feeder, when my son and I held this sign for your members to read as they entered your worship Sunday parking lot? HOW MANY NEARBY LOST PEOPLE DIED IN THAT TIME, UNWARNED ABOUT HELL BY YOU?

@johnmarkcaton

@johnmarkcaton has had NINE YEARS (almost a decade) to implement a plan to evangelize all nearby lost people, and yet he hasn't. And some wonder why God judges, as happened this week?

@CottonwoodFam HOW MANY WENT TO HELL, UNWARNED, and closest to YOU believers?

@cottonwoodfam THIS is what your pastor spoke a three monks illustration to oppose coming to your church, nearly five years ago! @johnmarkcaton

God's Top Priorities for His People (EDBS)

1. Full EVANGELISM of all lost people, especially those within walking distance of your church!
2. Relational DISCIPLESHIP of all Christians, especially those within your church membership.
3. BODY LIFE. All members using their spiritual gifts to edify the body, when it is gathered.
4. Significant SOCIAL MINISTRY, like Jesus did, making society better, by doing good.

(Lk. 19:10; II Pet. 3:9; I Tim. 2:4; Ac. 4:13; II Tim. 2:2; Eph. 4:11-16; Ac. 10:38, etc.)

Update #5

(5/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

AS YOU OBSERVE U.S. churches CONTINUE to NOT do these things, especially #1, also OBSERVE how mass shootings WILL continue, as judgment (100% UN-known by the murderers)! GET THE WORD OUT TO REPENT! II Chron. 7:14

We listened to K104 or 97.9 The Beat (I NEVER do), and they had a brilliant discussion about the Allen Killer lying about his military discharge to legally get his gun, and how others are blaming the government for not alerting society of why he was disallowed in their ranks. AWESOME INFORMATION!

I drove by PCA, today, wondering if flowers would be gathering. My wife heard on the news about the church's video about the family's connection to them. I can't imagine this 6 year olds reality check! It REALLY tears me up! IF I were wealthier, we might have adopted him [if no relatives were in USA]! The thought crossed my mind, yesterday!

If there were EVER a great basis for offering someone a scholarship to PCA, letting the media know the 6-year old Cho son had a full ride through high school seems like a win-win for being amazingly generous, but getting church promoted, as well. I'd LOVE to see the lad on stage [someday]!

'I've seen a lot of gunshot wounds from assault rifles, all very nasty. They do a lot of damage.' 'The bullet does a lot of tumbling, a little more damage inside human tissue, than a handgun. Semi-automatic handheld pistol victims overwhelmingly survive; all bets are off for assault rifle wounds.' –Two cop quotes from First 48

I COULDN'T be prouder of my 16+-year home church, than THIS week! James 1:27
[@Prestonwood \[FoxNews article on a classmate's dad saying the church has an army ready to support them indefinitely, which will not stand down\]](#)

The NFL's Kyler Murray is a HERO, as a human, apart from what he does on the football field!!!
@K1 [Donated $15K to the Cho's son].

It seems grief over public violence can be impacted by geography/proximity. I spent all day in Ft. Worth, and FEW I met were thinking about the Allen Mall shooting, until I raised it, when someone asked how my weekend was. I was the same about Uvalde (further removed, geographically).

Allen Premium Outlet Mall Cho family funeral details: <https://legacy.com/us/obituaries/name/kyu-song-cindy-and-james-cho-obituary?id=51852114...> RIP, heroes!!!

Update #6: Fourth Judgment

(5/12/23; @JamesMeroney)

(3:30am) The mass shooting epidemic in U.S.A. will continue, as the fourth judgment of God (Covid, BLM riots and Ukraine as numbers 1-3), and let me tell you why and how! Why is that U.S. pastors predominantly will NOT fully evangelize their own sphere, or area near church. PERIOD!

Let me explain how this works, or make some sense to lost people of this claim. EVERY human who doesn't have Jesus in their heart is heading to an eternal forever fire, already! Physical death is NOT the end. God does NOT want that for anyone! But Christians aren't telling and warning everyone of this predicament!

In Bible prophecy, two related events will occur: The restrainer will be lifted and sin will be increased. As God's Holy Spirit's blanket/general protection of our lives is withdrawn, more demonic occurrences will arise, and sin increased!

It is LESS drastic that we're experiencing mass shootings than we enter the 7-year Tribulation period, or that all go instantly to hell! So though these crises are horrific, they are birth pangs/precursor signs of impending prophecy, and NOT even as bad as it will get!

YES, innocents die. But everyone (which is a much greater number) is going to, one day, already, and breaking the chain is NOT happening in any full or serious way, by Christians and their pastors (a few exceptions won't get the whole job done!). So it's mercy that worse hasn't yet befallen us. It's a warning.

God is not out there doing evil! It's certainly the devil getting a little looser reign on his short leash with God, just as was predicted would occur before prophecy!

God's will has four possible facets, and this is the what He allows, but doesn't want to occur aspect! But WORSE is people not hearing how to avoid hell and that 7-year Tribulation, which is coming!

I hate to inform you, but I have warned pastors, even nation-wide (but certainly not all; as many as I could) to start doing this full telling and warning function for decades. THEY CHOOSE NOT TO. So God judges!

Cottonwood Creek Baptist (the church that hosted the Allen Mall Memorial service) was just the first of many to come who are under God's severe judgment ONLY for their pastor. Nearly a decade ago they were publicly WARNED to do this, with THIS exact sign [Our Go fully evangelize sign] outside their cars entering their large parking lot on a major pay toll access street, including police car with lights on blocking the left lane for myself and my eldest son to be safer (restricted grassy area).

IT DID NOT CHANGE. Then, as pastors got to learn of my work and ministry, especially online, when I made it obvious I was considering attending there, regularly, THE DAY I arrived, that man preached an illustration joking about three monks, but the application was verbally expressed in its punch line: WE DON'T WANT PEOPLE COMING HERE TO CHANGE OUR CHURCH. That was ~5 years ago.

DO YOU NOTICE THE PATTERN? Decades of neglect of FULL evangelism of all nearby lost people, so a warning was issued. Five years later, a more intense warning (still rejected), so now physical judgment in that city. THIS PATTERN WILL CONTINUE, and U.S. pastors have gotten God's warning!

WHY is God so serious about evangelism (and the other three EDBS values)? They're His top priorities for His people! Evangelism is YOUR only hope, and hell is real, as will be the 7-year tribulation! Pastors (MOST of them) dabble in evangelism.

FEW do their fair share! Maybe only @prestonwood, and a handful more. That's EXACTLY why they're now the fastest-growing church in U.S.A.! It's NOT methods, it's NOT just evangelism: It's OBEDIENCE, pastors and folks!

And it's the exact opposite that led to a disaster in Allen, TX, and will occur in cities where pastors are disobeying this edict.

This is NOT rocket science, but so FEW Americans know how God has operated through the centuries, especially as we see in the Old Testament, vs. the age of grace! Command, patience, correction, warning, judgment, restoration/forgiveness (upon repentance). It's His way and pattern, STILL! YOU not knowing that changes NOTHING in God's ways and plans!

How is God allowing suffering of innocents?

1. They will suffer MORE, if not warned and their predicament solved, and God wants none to suffer this fate! II Pet. 3:9
2. NONE are 100% innocent; all are sinners.
3. The devil is behind these mass shootings! He is the author of evil.
4. The devil's work will increase, as we approach prophecy. God said as much!

So don't be surprised! EXPECT this outcome. Prepare for it; it is NOT 'gonna change, much, if any, until U.S. pastors repent! I've never seen many do so!

As horrible as it is, it's better that 8 lose their lives than ALL, in some instant death event! And this ALL could have been prevented! I, personally, think it's too late to be averted, just like Covid, BLM West coast riots and Ukraine judgments weren't averted, but II Chron. 7:14 is always available to God's people (which are Christians, post-cross).

I am saying, as UN-selfishly as I can (i.e., it is not promoting my ministry to say this): IF U.S. PASTORS DID THOSE FOUR THINGS, mass shootings would be severely cut back! Non-Christians should be fuming at U.S. pastors' sins of omission on the top four priorities of God!

Church buildings SHOULD be being protested, if only you knew what their overlooking warning you about hell is going to literally do to your body and soul, in hell. BUT, you aren't expected to know or understand this fact! II Cor. 4:4 Christians DO.

P.S.: I have been praying for years (that is, very few years but many times), asking God what His fourth judgment will be, as I sensed/spiritually knew I was coming after Ukraine. I got my answer last weekend, starting with Cottonwood Creek Baptist. [Proved by many retweets on "4th/fourth judgment"]

JUST SOME of the MANY sins God does not turn a blind eye to...

...the killing fields, genocide, hoarding dictators, date rape drugs, peeping Toms, glory holes, centerfolds, nudist beaches, Kim Jung Un's bro killed by face chemicals, death camps, hard labor camps, indoctrination schools in China, persecution of the religious, Kremlin critics killed... (12/17/18)

I watched two documentaries, last evening, and IF we wonder why God will judge, we're woefully ignorant how evil some people are! One was on sex clubs in NYC (free sex with strangers), and the other was on businesses cheating the government of taxes by having two sets of books. I Cor. 6:9; Mt. 22:21

Update #7

(5/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

I believe many mass shooters are demon possessed. They don't know it; they haven't sworn allegiance to satan; they can think; their eyes don't roll back in their head. But that power combines with an evil heart, intention and emotional or mental problems.

I am opposed to gun-grabbing, and also opposed to evil people accessing guns. Mass shooters, if they couldn't get their hands on assault weapons, would be much less inclined to act, making home-made bombs, using a knife, or trying to kill many using any lesser weapon! New Mexico [Mass shooting]

Update #8

(7/5/23; @JamesMeroney)

CAN WE BEGIN TO FIGURE OUT THAT MASS SHOOTERS USUALLY ATTACK WHERE CROWDS ARE GATHERED, WHICH OCCURS VERY OFTEN ON HOLIDAYS, AT PUBLIC PLACES? #Philadelphia

PRO-LABOR

(6/1/23)

DOES GOD want the rich having most of the fun in life, easy road, or controlling things? NO. The Bible does indicate they (often) do, but this is NOT justice, or God's will, or 'Thy kingdom come, on earth.' Voters must work and fight for justice, and NOT allow mere mortals to control things!

In a perfect world, there would be EQUAL leverage between management and labor. THAT is what voters and government should be refereeing! Since the 1980's, it has almost exclusively been leverage advantage business. NO WONDER non-owners solicit politicians (government) for redress, to get justice!

TELL ME ONE act employees/labor have been successful doing to counter union busting, layoffs, streamlining, automation, AI/robotics, increased copays, contract labor, part-time jobs, pensions ended, illegal aliens, outsourcing and globalization? ALL 1-way, favoring the rich! That's NOT justice!

I heard this remix, yesterday, where poor Americans are slandered as losers.

youtube.com Jack Harlow - First Class (Remix) ft. Chris Brown, Tory Lanez, Brent...

"First Class" remixed by DJ DiscretionStream/Listen <https://instagram.com/djdiscretionhttps://tiktok.com...>

It is NOT popular to say, in America, that Laodicean culture is what many U.S. Christians follow; NOT God. Many don't even know what that means. We follow political conservatism, where making money is EVERYTHING! Don't tax me, or clean up the environment. Let me pursue happiness!

Believing "the truth shall set you free," WE address controversial subjects, here! Blue vs. white collar. There IS a difference, even though we're all made in God's image. Workers can think the former are arrogant, but we qualified for and passed college; an achievement to be proud of.

BUT there IS also a status/an arrogance against and looking down the nose at laborers! We all know it! The physical labor vs. intellectual labor person is more seen as the server than the served. And these two groups don't always like to associate together in social circles!

The sheepskin gives one a sense of pride, as they're in top 1/3 of Americans. Add in Ivy League, and the snobbery can rise.

The far left LOVES to mock the pickup truck Bubba's who worship MAGA. Stereotype: Dumb, slow, working man. How does God view laborers? Jesus was a carpenter! Peter a fisherman. Paul a tent maker. Construction/general labor work. They typically earn much less, over a lifetime, than those who endure higher education.

And how does God view the hard-working poor? Lazy bums and losers? NO. That's satan's opinion! What about the homeless, IF they're willing to work? NOT bums or beggars! Society often accepts satan's position about all but the rich and educated. Jesus demonstrated His concern for those NOT high and mighty.

So HOW can the non-elites make it better through life, and even the leverage with business ownership/management? To the latter, unionize. If illegal or banned, do so informally! QUIT being an individual about wages, unless you have awesome talents! TALK about who pays what, and what everyone's making! An invisible market place hurts your chances to command higher pay!

Businesses know going rates! And automation is a threat to your livelihood, if it can be robotized! So are more people coming to America!

You can always work two jobs, get better skills (it takes time; sometimes money), work overtime, move to a better-paying state, move up the ladder, but MOST AMERICANS ARE NOT GOING TO GET RICH!

Employees are at the mercy of business to hire them! IF business has few-to-none to hire, and immigration is stagnant (as it should often be), labor gains leverage! Voting for fair taxes, no tax cheats, and boycotts of evil (vs. good) business owners are also methods.

NO ONE should be over-paid, but they should also NOT be under-paid. I believe many are! IF you work like a dog, your pay shouldn't be the same as a lazy employee! If your work effort doesn't deserve minimum wage, you shouldn't get it, or be hired. But a living wage, based on the most frugal of expenses, SHOULD be possible.

And healthcare is a racket! MY WIFE, who is a NURSE, agreed with me that people don't become doctors to help people, IF THE MONEY'S NOT THERE, except in rare cases! A rural doctor was interviewed on NBC, who banded together sole practitioners, for bargaining leverage. SHE wanted to help people, even if her pay wasn't great. She's the exception.

And we ALL pay for this hyper-expensive healthcare system! WE DON'T NEED Cadillac services, to make it until death! It's NICE to know it's available, but all Americans have to get treated for anything they can't cure at home, or over the counter. I have full insurance, but unless we spend $7,000 a year, out of pocket, we get LITTLE for it. The system is BROKEN!

God cares about those who aren't rich! Jesus showed it, and the Bible often denounces seeking wealth. Therefore, He expects non-wealthy to be abundant in numbers. And it is humane attitudes that care for their plight. NOT those just chasing money, who only care for themselves. Those God also talks about, and His attitude toward them is NOT pretty!

The poor MUST band together their collective buying power. QUIT THINKING you alone are buying whatever you purchase! REALIZE that hundreds of Americans are buying the same product, who aren't rich, and use technology to group your purchases into one, for lowering costs! I've written MANY chapters on how the poor can live cheaper, at a better lifestyle!

DON'T count on the lottery, or marrying a rich person! LEARN how to get more income with less outflow, or a better lifestyle for the same cost. ANY American who doesn't care that you learn these skills is selfish, and God says selfishness is the OPPOSITE of living as a Christian/disciple. DON'T look to government!

There are some Americans who will NEVER make a lot of money. They just don't have great brains, hustle/motivation, or skills. I'm not speaking of the disabled, especially mentally. Just your average Joe who doesn't have a lot going for her or him. They have to survive, too! Society should HELP them survive, through education and motivation--NOT more tax dollars!

The left LOVES to say Jesus cared for the poor, so we should too, but they ignore our safety net, and how many poor immigrants we've let get in the past 30 years! Taxpayers over-help the poor! It's time to truly help them by training/teaching them how to be self-sufficient!

And I'm NOT speaking of just pulling your own weight. I'm talking of doing that, and helping others. Never pure selfishness, but also never pure unselfishness, where your own house isn't in order. #NIKE! Just do it!

The rich don't need anyone's help, including government. The middle class, probably little-to-none. The poor, by circumstances, PROVE they need help (unless they like and are content with, and have chosen that as a lifestyle). Let NO ONE fall through the cracks! Make them self-sufficient! WHY should any rich American give back to society?

1. God demands it.
2. You'll feel like a moral person, even if untrue.
3. You alone have the means
4. Society needs it
5. Society gave you your opportunity to achieve.
6. Greed and selfishness are sins God will judge.
7. Tax breaks,
ETC.

I've 'GOTTA stick with this!: I could EASILY go through any poor person's budget, and make improvements in how they spend! I can all but guarantee a 20% savings. THAT's the difference between working and retiring! Struggling vs. not. Buying smart education is what they need, in public schools!

THE absolute solution to selfish vs. giving rich people is forcing them to learn, first-hand, how life is in the poorest areas of town, and meeting some of those people, to learn they are NOT all dumb or lazy bums, high on crack!

Selfish (vs. unselfish) rich have a HUGE and rude awakening, living like God doesn't exist, with faith in their bank accounts! God gets justice in the afterlife, the story of Lazarus and the rich man teaches us. Going to heaven is almost impossible for rich people, from worldly pride.

I am warning ALL rich people in America: It is easier for a literal camel to go through the eye of a literal needle, than for a rich person to enter heaven. It's NOT by works; that's impossible. It's hard because your wealth blinds you to the coming life/Hell, or your need for God!

SOLUTIONS for the poor and homeless in U.S.A.:

1. Food: Garden, own two chickens, a cow, if possible, community garden, Aldi and Wal-Mart (low cost stores), leftovers restaurants throw out, and out of date items grocers do (sign a liability release of them, if harm comes). City dumps and dumpsters.
2. Extra cash: A source told me they can make spending cash donating human DNA not for procreation, $1200 every 6 months for swabbing your nose for Covid research, and up to $1200 a month for donating plasma. Every little bit can help them!
3. Transportation: Bike, scooter, long board, roller skates, Uber?, walk (guy I met, today, walks everywhere--has no cars), auto auctions, used cars, demo cars at dealerships, ride share, public transport/bus/train passes; don't hitchhike!
4. Housing: Cardboard box (weatherproof plastic or rain resistant spray), caves in public properties, tents, RV, abandoned structures, streets (unsafe), under bridges, storage shed, shipping container, small houses and mobile homes, rent in poor areas.

5. Clothes: Hand-me-down, charities/Goodwill stores, recycled clothes stores REJECT many items (but them outside, when sellers leave), garage sales, estate sales, EBay, vary your item combinations, store sales; clothes thrown out by others?
6. A/C and heat: Fans, open windows, build 6 feet below ground surface (cooler), wear less (or more, for heat) clothes.
7. Haircuts: Buy an electric hair clipper, and use a mirror (or someone else) for the back side.
8. Bath: If no home, local rivers?
9. Healthcare: Low cost clinics, some free hospital and Sam's Club medical events. Over the counter and self-help solutions from expert sites on Google.
10. Computer: Go to your local library!
11. Cell phone: T-Mobile POGO (pay as you go), or TracPhone monthly.
12. Gasoline: NO options, but to electronically shop around, to save a few pennies per gallon! Gas Buddy?
13. Water: You will pay what the government dictates, absent a public water source, like a local stream, or private suppliers.
14. Car insurance: Illegal is go without.
15. Furniture: Garage sales, estate sales, and heavy/bulk pickup days in wealthier neighborhoods.
16. Pets: Summer pet giveaways, often sponsored by local media outlets, or when shelters are over-populated.
17. Vets: Vetco, through PetCo.
18. Childbirth: Have NO kids. Absent that, birth at home, prepared for safe umbilical cord cutter! Midwife.
19. Funeral: Pauper's graves. Cardboard or wooden homemade casket. Cremation, or burial in cloths, several feet under, on public land, if legal.
20. College: Junior/community college, for 2 to 4 years. Lesser named college. Or, trade school, and forego that debt. God cares about the poor in America, even if many don't, politically or personally! Get better job skills, too.
21. Employment: Do what you're naturally good at, and improve your skills. Work hard, with quality. Overtime, and utilize all matching 401K contributions. Shop your value, as well as in another state! Know how to interview, resume write and dress well.
Books can teach you how to qualify better for a job, based on current skills (Knock Em Dead and What Color Is Your Parachute). Some career transition workshops exist, for networking and educating.
22. Motivation: God loves you. You're valuable to Him! You're created in his image! Jesus died, and would have if you had been the only one! Your family needs you. You can do better. There are good things in store for you in this life, if you pursue and work hard for them! Life doesn't have to remain negative, or poor! You will be judged by your deeds, so do good, and life will go better for you than if you didn't.
23. Entertainment: Seek free things, before spending money! You'd be surprised how many there may be! Google it!

24. Relationships: Go to churches with people your age, or their social events, or do hobbies you enjoy, or try E-Harmony. The cost is brief, and they ask so many questions, you're sure to find a common ground partner.
25. Church: Go to a good one!
26. Taxes: AARP does free returns if you're old enough, or poor enough! Check with your local library, for details.
27. TV: I'm told there's a device you can buy to stream free TV from any source. $200. My ex-neighbor had it; it's legal, but unfamous.
28. Shopping: Buy in bulk, when you can! Larger quantities yield lower prices per unit, usually. Dollar stores and discount places (if the quality's OK). YOU CAN MAKE IT, AND DO BETTER! You JUST need educating! I just did that for you. Read. Learn! Try Groupon, for cheaper deals, and Go Fund Me. You'll make it!
29. Dieting: PAY NOTHING! Eat 1/2 to 1/4th of what you currently eat! That's ALL! You can add healthier food choices, walking, and more water, but just cutting back lost me 50 pounds in 4 months! Free diet plan: QUIT EATING SO DAMN MUCH. That's it!
30. Car wash and lawn maintenance: DIY (do it yourself).
31. Car repair: DIY, or get it done in a poor area of town, by someone proven to be honest, and to know what they're doing. Use used parts, for cosmetics, even from junk yards! I have!
32. Movies: Matinees, or some are available online--free (I am told; illegal for the posting party).
33. Books: Public library.
34. Maid service: Chores by offspring and parents, a little at a time.
35. Home or health insurance: Shop around! Obamacare?
36. Vacations: Staycations. Road trips. Priceline deals. Rewards programs of hotels. America The Beautiful card if visiting many U.S. national parks in one year.
37. Retirement: Study investing books at library and online, years before.
38. Voting: Vote for the party that represents your interests best!
39. Business leverage: UNIONIZE, informally, for employment and shopping power! Businesses take advantage of your ignorance and individuality! Group up!
40. Surgeries: IF big or costly, look into a Canada or Mexico trip. I wouldn't risk it, but it may work, in some cases, if you're desperate. AVOID ambulances, emergency rooms and hospitals/doctors, anytime you can! They're high dollar luxuries!
- IMO, if ANY U.S. poor person applies all that teaching, and learns even more on NBC Today Show articles, they can't help but make it, not struggle as much, maybe move into the middle class, enjoy life more, and be less of a burden to others, including taxpayers.
- Just like making the most of your time, making the most of your money is a matter of adding up all the decisions in a day! A few dollars here and there add up, over time; NOT per transaction! My family rips me for not wasting seconds, driving. ADD IT UP OVER A YEAR, and it makes sense!

P.S.S.: Utilize EVERY charity, church and homeless shelter, and government agency's offers. ASSUME you don't know them all, and do research! There are many more than you can imagine, with LIMITED life experience and exposure! That's on you, not knowing!

Poor people in America: IF you read my last 35 posts, you can't help but not be as poor, after you apply them! You're welcome, and it is free of charge! Learn from people who know more, or better information! That's how to get smarter!

DO YOU KNOW why so many D.C. politicians favor big business? Lobbyists funding political campaigns. That's NOT justice, fair to labor, or the general public, but FEW people in D.C. care about justice! Just sayin'!

Update

(6/3/23)

If ANY American doesn't pay taxes, they have no personal involvement in what America spends! They're using a vote to rob others. What incentive is there to not vote for government doing anything and everything? You're not affected, or paying for it! THAT is EVIL!

The rich want to keep their money from being voted for being used for government to solve things, and the poor 'wanna vote to get things from government. WHAT self-respecting person would want someone else to help them pay their own chosen bills? It's financial immaturity!

ONLY when EVERY American has EQUAL pain and buy-in to America, can voting for the feds to do things fair (civic service, if the poor can't pay up). And the poor will always outnumber the rich, and always vote for government to give them things they don't have, because they aren't getting those things on their own!

MANY of them have NO problem forcing the rich to pay for most things, because the rich have money, and they don't. HOW is their attitude fair? It's practical, but NOT fair! It cannot be allowed, by law!

And those with no skin in the game don't really care about the U.S. debt, as taxpayers will have to pay it down! Not them, as they're paying little to nothing! It's an ultimate selfishness sin!

NO rich person desires to part with their hard-earned money any more than a poor person likes to! Just because they have excess doesn't mean they don't want to have that excess, and just 'wanna give it away! They worked hard so they'd have that excess!

Put the shoe on the other foot! Wear another man's moccasins! Poor people don't want their meager wages garnished any more than the rich do. It HAS to all be fair! It is NOT, presently, and EVIL people like unfairness! Repent/change!

FREE off taxpayers: $15K down payment, $7K daycare subsidy, $14-15K/year raise, $10K education loan reduction, FREE college, universal healthcare, Welfare, and additional $1300/year for Social Security. BIDEN IS NOW BERNIE, AOC AND POCOHONTAS WRAPPED INTO ONE LIAR OF A SOCIALIST, VS. CENTRIST! (10/7/20)

Biden OFFERED, teased or promised "FREE" healthcare, daycare, college, paid time off, home mortgage down payment and student loan forgiveness. For him to back off these issues is a flip-flop, for expediency! HE WANTS TAXPAYERS TO FUND THESE FOR EVERYONE WHO CANT PAY FOR THEM!

Biden brought us inflation (higher prices for everything), over-spend in Ukraine, a horrible Afghanistan exit, trans, drag and gay in your faceness, continued mass shooters (on his watch), reparations talk, more debt ($4.8T), and he's aging sort of poorly. But he's basically a good man.

Conservatives don't want less pollution, or government to fix any problems business or charities can't, or won't! They JUST want to keep all they earn! Money over morals, public policy wise. Liberals want government to do anything and everything it can. The difference? WHO PAYS FOR YOUR DESIRES? You, or others? The latter is EVIL!

Taxes are your wages you can't spend. The more they take, the less you have, and have to use. People always want 'mo money! That's why the ONLY people wanting government to do much more are people who aren't hurt/affected by it, like low to no tax paying citizens! Mainly Democrats! I'm an Independent.

THIS will never happen, because mankind is NOT smart enough, but you always start with the ideal, then work backwards to find the optimal. America could have a budget surplus, if we led the world in innovation, and streamlined government, as I've detailed.

And globally, IF all workers unionized, businesses would NOT have the excessive leverage they currently hold over jobs and wages! BUT, people are selfish, and they won't work in unison, if they think they can advance by breaking those bonds. SAME with tax havens & harboring criminals: Global agreement to disallow.

IF America could profit off doing so, we could cause all third world nations to enter the first world, IF we had new tech capabilities to stretch limited natural resources. We'd have to be paid in labor or resources, as they don't have the cash. China's loaning, then with defaults/owns, controls them.

EVERY small business has to consider unionizing their buying leverage from suppliers. Medium sized often get arrogant that they don't need such, but they also do. Citizens need to unionize to defeat all dictators, and get access to weapons, to do so! These are global needs we'll never see occur!

Instead, were 'gonna see the Antichrist take down three European governments, just after the Rapture, then sign a fake 7-year peace deal with Israel. Then he will conquer nations with satanic power, and bribe with the spoils of those gains, to seize global control.

Then force loyalty or death including persecution of the "religious," and physical forcing through machines to only be capable of buying and selling if you imbed his symbol on wrist or forehead. I don't know why humanity wouldn't choose our better vision, but God shows they ultimately WON'T! Dumb and selfish us!

GOVERNMENT & ENTITLEMENT REFORM

(6/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

THIS will be fun! A NEEDED topic NO ONE will touch. When you assess the federal budget, MANY departments could make it effectively with a 30% cut, or more, prioritizing and automating and streamlining!

People HATE you when you affect their income! They'll even vote against you! It happens even when government affects businesses, like making oil companies operate cleaner. NO ONE likes anyone affecting their livelihood. But government jobs are TAXPAYERS as employers! And they don't like being manipulated to spend more than they MUST! And ALL Americans must pay in!

I met a vet, today, aged ~31, who doesn't work, has Social Security disability and veteran benefits, and is VERY capable of working! He ONLY had some deafness and some one eye vision loss, from active service (shot several times in action), and ANYTIME ANYONE doesn't work, who isn't retired, and use government funds to do so it is offensive to me, even if they're vets, whose service I honor!

Americans used to have pensions. Then they lost benefits, for contract labor and part-time. Freebies and "benefits" taxpayers pay for MUST be ONLY for those who can't work! I know of MANY abuses!

Retirement and medical issues are the majority of our federal budget, and if you care about justice, many cases are NOT fair to taxpayers or the next generations who inherit debt!

Social Security was designed so our society could afford to take care of citizens when they're no longer able to work, and to force some people to plan for retirement, financially. Those who are savers never needed it, nor those with good-paying jobs.

EVERY human despises being forced to pay any money to "help" anyone else not a family member, by force of law; even poor people who ever have to. It's human nature! Rare is the bird happy to give when they aren't sure they have enough to make it until they die! They exist, and are legally allowed to send in their extra IRS gift, but that's unnatural.

I am saying clearly, that Social Security, Medicare, and especially Medicaid and Welfare HAVE TO be just!

It's NOT just to have paid in and get out more than you paid in, adding interest you could have earned if not forced to pay in! Living longer, OF COURSE you'd expect to work longer! But we DON'T! Some of us are happy to screw our fellow countrymen--even bankrupt our nation--if we can live the easy life, unjustly!

I even know avowed conservatives who are practicing Socialists with Medicare, once they qualified. They brag, and happily offered us some glass lense cleaners they got and didn't need, "because it's free." I know a man who owned three houses, who got a free knee replacement.

EVERY human's sin nature is naturally lazy, and wants to do everything in their power to avoid the "curse" of Adam's fall, which is by the sweat of your brow you will work, when everything had been given to him and his wife, previously.

Using other people's money is a favorite past time in America! Apart from insurance (where you paid in, and knew what you were buying, and that you may never need to utilize it), bosses and executives make money off most employees. Landlords profit off renters funding their equity/ownership. EVERYONE wants a robot, or a "slave" to profit off of!

My point is justice has to return to tax paying, federal spending, and especially the four major programs that drain America into escalating debt, and rob future generations of their chance to have good lives. NO WONDER many gen X-Z's DON'T want to fund the elderly, who had the pensions, Social Security and Medicare, and profited off all losses being incurred NOT by bosses, but workers/employees (layoffs, part-time, contract labor, higher co-pays, automation, outsourcing, globalization, robotics, streamlining, illegal alien job pressures, etc.). JUSTICE must serve U.S. programs and policies!

Everyone likes a gift, and most people will accept one. Social Security and Medicare were NOT designed as gifts. Once anyone takes out more than they paid in, it is unjust, and a gift! Medicaid and Welfare are even worse! They're designed to be unjust to taxpayers. These programs must be fixed!

I guarantee you this list of federal agencies can do much more, for much less, and don't all need to do more; some need to do less. <https://www.usa.gov/agency-index>

Politicians are SCARED to lose their D.C. jobs, so they will rarely tackle that needed subject! Maybe if their perks weren't so great, they wouldn't idolize those jobs so much! We need one-term private citizen majority politicians to do the right thing for our country, knowing many hate justice!

IF any politician ran on doing right regarding entitlements, they'd never be elected. That's because it's human nature to like getting things you don't deserve or work hard for. Injustice if preferred by evil people. Government is to be run justly before God, or He can shut it down, and America!

Another thing that bothers me, besides ANYONE wanting government to take taxpayer's money to their benefit: Obesity! It costs society medical and insurance rates through the roof, and diseases, etc. EVERY TIME I now see any heavy person, I 'wanna say: "Eat half or less—period!" I do say so, sometimes!

Finally, IT IS EVIL to garner votes by promising anyone money equivalents! That is a form of bribery! And politicians do so because their perks are far too many. Less public service, and more self-serving, with the benefits they get in D.C. ANOTHER abuse of taxpayers! Repent, America!

If EVERYONE was a taxpayer (who earned wages in America), and EVERYONE suffered the same pain in so doing, proportional to their wealth, what voters voted for government to spend would be FAIR! Unless and until that occurs, their spending is NOT just/fair! America has to be a just nation!

If ANY U.S. rich person earns their wealth legally and morally, NO ONE can begrudge them desiring to keep as much of it as humanly possible, and protect it against more tax taking! Voluntarily they are to give back (I Tim. 6:17-19), but it is THEIR private property/fruit of their labors.

WHO in their right mind wants to be forced to pay someone else's expenses through taxation? NO ONE; NOT even poor people! Society owes a moral duty to the poor, but it is NOT money, nor them not paying in their fair share. It's helping them be financially independent, and able to retire.

Social Security and Medicare, if they EVER pay out to anyone more than they pay in, are Socialism. And JUST Social Security has to account for inflation and interest those who never needed it could have made if not forced to be in the system! Society doesn't want old people working until they die!

A moral society has a system for the poor. Jews in the Bible prove that! But it is mainly to eliminate severe poverty, has to be just (and therefore repaid) and Social Security disability has to be for ONLY people who 100% can't work! NO abuse, fraud or over-use! That's NOT just to taxpayers!

THE solution is justice! EVERYONE suffers the same pain of taxes; only those who can't work don't. No one pays for anyone outside their family, unless they want to (charity), and any help is repaid to government, once people can! NO wasted taxes, or milking the system! That's immoral/unjust!

An immoral society would have NO safety net, or an unjust one. Mercy offers help; justice requires payback when they can, to taxpayers. Immoral societies also empower laziness, by too much "help." Society should incentivize working for all able-bodied, before retirement age, and that age increases, as people live longer.

When Social Security was designed, the average American lived to age 59.9 (male) and 63.9 (female). Now days, those figures are 76.4; 16 more years than the system was built to handle. And youth don't 'wanna work their butts off to keep grandma alive! They're at the totem pole's bottom, financially.

Gens XYZ are NOT stupid, and they don't tolerate injustice! THEY SEE people getting Social Security and Medicare, even as they haven't paid in enough to cover all they get before they die! These kiddos can figure out they're footing that bill, and it is NOT right! That's disincentivizing long, hard work.

And Welfare and Medicaid are horribly unjust to taxpayers! There's NO WAY the U.S. medical industry will EVER be just, when they can pass on most any costs they set to insurance carriers, or the government. It's an ambiguous entity, but it's taxpayers, now, or down the line, even not yet born.

HOW could a poor person ever retire? Longer hours, better skills and job, dual income family, older kids work, save and invest, cut back lifestyle to the bone (or win the lottery). It's HARD to be poor in U.S.A. Moving to lower standard of living countries is also an option. NOT taxpayers!

Go Fund Me is a GREAT resource for people who believe (accurately) government often wastes money, but 'wanna help struggling people pay bills. Even charities often only dole out a fraction of what they get in! It shouldn't be taxpayers, EXCEPT for people 100% unable to work! NOT less.

There need to be more jobs available to suit elderly who were unable to retire younger, other than greeter at Wal-Mart; NOT from mercy, but if they're capable--and needy--greeter ISN'T the only thing they can do! We need to consider semi-retirement jobs when people are middle aged, so bodies last longer.

And if people 'wanna compare or complain 'other countries have better safety nets,' WORK, PAY-IN and MOVE THERE! Be a part of their 30-hour work weeks, all summers off, government paid for medical care, early retirement. THEY will require pay-in, as well, or harm the rich, or go bankrupt!

And the rich in America should, BY ALL MEANS POSSIBLE, be pressured to give back to society, and obey God (I Tim. 6:17-19). IF you can retire, and live comfy on nest egg interest, you have enough to start thinking about others. Giving Pledgers are heroes. The others, not nearly so much, if at all.

There will likely ALWAYS be enough poorer Americans to vote for Socialism. But it is NOT right, or just! Some people would rather bankrupt America, or force the rich into the middle class, so they can get an easier lifestyle they never had to work for! Evil people do evil things!

A LOT of what I wrote, today, will feel mean, cruel or harsh, to freebies lovers, but they don't consider justice (except regarding race). And IF they understood I mean government actually makes every American capable of self-sufficiency, it's actually helping them, to adopt this type of system! It's NOT injustice!

MANY U.S. voters do NOT comprehend, if you vote in Socialism, many taxpayers will:

1. Hide assets.
2. Cheat on taxes.
3. Manufacture business losses.
4. Automate tons, and fire humans.
5. Move elsewhere.
6. Secede, or go to war. This is NOT a threat, but reality! Can you handle that backlash, financially?

IF you agree to a pay amount at your job, DON'T go clamoring to government to get more from them, or from government! Your income is mainly determined by what you make at your work place. Government isn't full of cash, just waiting to be handed out! EARN YOUR KEEP!

Many Americans who paid into Social Security would've happily have invested that money, and done better than cost of living increases! But had they, then lost it in the market, it'd have been unfair for them to access Social Security again, so politicians didn't offer that option, as they'd be scr-wed, IMO.

The ONLY fair government managed retirement program is people getting back what they put in. Anything else is Socialism. And government needs to learn to have rules that don't apply to all, like many would NEVER rely on government handling anything about their retirement! They can do better without them!

Some would argue the rich should pay for Social Security for others, because of all the bad things they've done to worker perks and wages, having most of the leverage. It's HARD to argue with that, but fair, progressive taxes is how they do their part, IMO. ALL citizens have to pay taxes!

Ultimately, the U.S. debt needs to be paid down, and our budget balanced. Taxpayers alone fund governments costs, which is why EVERY citizen must pay their fair share in taxes! Creating an economy that has a surplus is what America needs, through innovation, and other means, including cutting costs.

I am NOT for massive firing of federal agency employees, but retraining the 20-30% cuts per department, to do productive things that make government have a surplus, while doing more with less, and including automating, AI and robotics to get more productivity. NO lazy "government work" efforts!

IT'S ALL about money! NO ONE likes giving it up, for government, yet we citizens demand our leaders address so many things that cost money. We are quite hypocritical, and non self-reflecting, and LOVE to say someone else should pay more, but not in my back yard. Politicians have to deal with us.

I've NOT said Social Security and Medicare have to be cut, as a campaign proposal. I have started a conversation about what needs to be done, and how it can be done fairly. Getting it done requires buy-in, and enough votes and politicians to make it happen. Keeping status quo debt can lead to disaster!

WE, as Americans, are FAR less interested in doing the right thing, regarding the national debt, than about any other matter! We like to pride ourselves in being for good policies and decisions, but mainly if they hardly affect our wallets and purses! We LOVE using other people's money!

Even with health insurance, we feel we should use at least enough medical services to cover what we paid in premiums, or we are losing. We've designed systems that incentivize bankrupting themselves!

The health industry HAS to be made more affordable, as ~ALL other nations have! And retirement needs to be reimagined. Its' NOT even mentioned in the Bible! Semi-retirement will be reality for many, and they need career paths for that which are lucrative. And when you're too old, what fun are you 'gonna have not working? Enjoy life NOW, and take time off for the long run.

OF COURSE, many rich are simply 'gonna enjoy early retirement, and NEVER care about any other American's retirement needs, suffering poverty, or medical ailments! They'll vote to support that selfish value, too! That aspect of Capitalism is UNbiblical/satanic, but often WASP-supported!

A REPAID safety net is THE answer to everything! And Welfare and an entitlement system that educates and motivates and ensures no one falls through the cracks, because they are made/forced to be as successful as they can be, or they're allowed to choose homelessness, and we don't have to care after that.

And FAIR taxes for ALL Americans, only as large as is needed for a fully streamlined and reimagined federal government. NO ONE can begrudge this solution unless they are evil! Same pain, different percentages to achieve that same and fair sacrifice for a bare bones costing efficient government!

I have NO PROBLEM with Social Security returning to what it was created as: a retirement SUPPLEMENT. Many people do NOT rely on it as such, but never save or invest for retirement, then vote out politicians who don't keep incurring debt for it to not go bankrupt. That's selfish and EVIL!

How people view justice applied to Social Security (get in what you put in) is emblematic of our often feigned concern for justice. At best, we care about it for others, if it also positively affects us. Phil. 2 isn't often our concern, as being a disciple is OPPOSITE to society, of me, me, me!

People who don't need government for their retirement would opt out of Social Security, but if they could, could NEVER opt in, if investments failed. People who need discipline at saving or investing NEED Social Security, but EVERYONE should ONLY get what they put in! Outlive it, and your IRA, and you're on your own!

NO American should EVER get LESS than they paid into Medicare and Social Security. IF that were ever attempted, it's the negligent ineptness of politicians that caused the problem/need, so they alone would need to solve it, without harming people who paid in. Getting MORE than one paid in is evil.

YOU ARE MISTAKEN if you believe FICA withholdings for Medicare are like insurance premiums, where others help pay your bills for the hyper expensive medical industry! It's only a savings account to pay their retail prices, years later! ALWAYS invest in yourself and your family!

The Centrist position in politics is the Justice position.

Bleeding heart liberalism is over-mercy.

Cold hearted conservatism is heartless, callous, selfish.

BLIGHTED 'BLACK & BROWN' BOYS & GIRLS

(6/4/23)

I'm writing, specifically, to "black and brown" youth in America: You are taught, usually implicitly, or by circumstances, that your culture is often poor. DON'T BELIEVE THIS IS CHRONIC, or comes with the territory of your skin color!

I have sold products in the "worst" neighborhoods of Dallas. Dangerous, poor, blight-filled ones. I have seen, witnessed, and talked to neighbors in those areas. If you are raised around that environment, you may believe you have to be in the Crips or Bloods, just to survive. Gangs may dominate your area of existence. But you do NOT have to engage drugs or violence.

Your way out is to concentrate on YOU! Get a good education, and if you test out of being a great prospect for college, learn a good-paying trade. Find teachers who will watch over you from gang influence, while at school!

Charles Barkley was RIGHT, that too often, young black children believe rap or sports are their way out. UN-true! You can escape through education, motivation, and developing business-needed skills!

IT IS A LIE of the devil that 'blacks and browns' must mainly remain poor, or they have sold out to the white man! 'Uncle Tom' is NOT a concept you have to accept! Just learn to behave like a professional. Set goals. Dream dreams. Learn from TV (if not real life) what could be your future, outside your present circumstances!

Your parents likely did the best that they could, and you know they love you! If you have no dad, present, find a neighborhood male mentor who is more than 15 years ahead of you!

Talk to and get to know the local cops and fire men and women. Tell them you don't want to engage with gangs, but need protection from their bullying! Ask your principal what after school programs are available, to keep you busy, entertained, away from gang influence, and able to study!

LOOK at the fact that there are "black and brown" Americans who aren't poor, and write them a letter for advice!

I watched a TV show, the other day--George Lopez. His mom was bemoaning 'when does my ship ever come in?' DO NOT ACCEPT a defeatist or defeated attitude! America promotes riches and wealth. God does NOT. He promises you an abundant and contentful life, no matter what size your bank account is. Get to know Him!

MOST people who live high on the hog, in this life, will be living low in the flames of hell, in the next! God tells us life is not about money! (Lk. 12:15) Focus on achieving joy, fulfillment, and contentment! (Phil. 4:11-13; I Tim. 6:8) Realize that you will die, someday, then meet God face to face. Get to know Him now!

Barber shops and black churches are cultural meeting places, so attend a good church, and ask the pastor staff for help!

You are taught, often not with words, that you must grow up to become a Democrat, because they try to give you things for free. Learn to be able to get those things on your own! That teaching implies that you will always need handouts, because of your culture, or skin color. How disrespectful of your God-given abilities is that abhorrent belief?

You CAN make it out of the 'hood or barrio! You are NOT destined to be a janitor, garbage collector or any other low-paying job you can fill in, here!

DO NOT BELIEVE the lie of satan that you have to be "rich," or you're a failure. SATAN says these things! America implies these things. God disagrees. Go set goals, and achieve them, with His help! Thanks.

MORALS IN AMERICA

(6/9/23; @JamesMeroney)

Selfishness, greed/love of money, lying/deception and theft have to be among America's worst/most prevalent sins, along with violence, hatred, power and sex idolatry/porn, homosexuality and confusion (which is from satan) over one's gender. Sin has been increased since 2016, tremendously!

There is LITTLE fear of God in the eyes of many Americans in business, personal relations, politics, and sometimes, even in religion! I believe God is withholding judgment, so we think none is coming, so we fully earn what's coming our way! Deceived by accountability being delayed!

We've LOST any sense of morality, or a working conscience, or sorrow for sin, or even the concept that evil exists, as does the devil! We are seared, hardened, and SO ripe for judgment. Mass murders are just the beginning of birth pangs of the times of Jacobs troubles! The beginning

Honor, integrity, honesty and a sense of pride in one's work and the way we live is all but gone from predominant social norms. Its every man for himself, and only a fool on the hill would still believe in such childish ambitions! Truly mentally deficient souls who are Puritanical and dumb

IF one EVER speaks of morality, the modern mind instantly accuses them of hypocrisy, if such types aren't perfect! We can quicker identify sin in others telling U.S. we have a sin problem, as identifying what such types are accurately accusing U.S. of! Blinded by comfy logs in our eyes!

You cannot have a good person with bad policies (Biden), or a bad person with good policies (tRUMP), any more than you can have good intentions but bad thinking! It takes morality and intelligence. Imperfectly, but not one without the other, or America is screwed! Extremists don't care

The Whistleblower: I HAVE SEEN the evils of Capitalism. There are MANY goods, but also many bads. It is governments J-O-B to lessen the latter! When I worked in law, the handicapped boss had files sitting on the floor, totally untouched for months, and had me do research to hike pay!

As a Consultant, I heard Southerners happy that Cali could receive rolling brownouts if the electricity producer simply jacked up their rates! "Freeze a Yankee" was a popular song, down here. I also witnessed intentional scope creep, to increase billable hours. Land an engagement, then constantly be looking for more opportunities to expand your time working for F500s.

There, as well, I literally was told that human employees were expense items ("FTE's), and LIE to them, when working with them, if they asked if we were hired to fire some of them. WE WERE, 10%!

I worked for one firm where laborers told me the boss was a tyrant. But he lives high on the hog off their labor! Yet another company steals from employees, when they land big accounts. They promise X amount, but if a sales person achieves that, they offer them a lower salary! Bait and switch.

My dad quit a job because the owner was lying to clients about the quality of the product. I worked for a HOU headhunter for one week, but when he saw my Bible, he asked if I loved Jews, then proceeded to "fire" me, because I said Christians are to honor Israel. Government is NOT doing its policing job of businesses!

I know of employees who lied about client data, as they got paid more if they did. I know many businesses who have screwed employees, using their severe leverage inequity, and your only other choice than to take it is go somewhere else.

I've seen a manager confiscate sales of sales people, because they possessed the expertise to finalize the deal, then do nothing (lose accounts), or wait until unpaid employees quit, to steal all their commission. I have seen the worst of humanity in U.S. business' idolizing money!!!

I have had a "pastor" tell me, indirectly (not face to face), before his crowd, "WE DON'T WANT ANYONE COMING HERE TO CHANGE OUR CHURCH." Didn't matter his church wasn't doing Gods priorities well. It was "his church." God 100% disagrees, yet he prospers in Laodicea (Capitalist USA).

WE ALL see the MANY sins of paid politicians, all the time, and every day in the news! They spin negatives into positives, and STUPID people believe their insincere words. They will continue to lie to you, if you are so STUPID as to accept them doing that to you, STUPID vs. wise voters!

And I've seen GOOD pastors and business people! It is NOT all just evil people! But governments JOB is to root out evils in society. Rom. 13 People say God isn't 'gonna do that for us, and it IS true He left government to do much of that work. DO YOUR JOB! Root out evil, D.C. and state pols!

I have WITNESED a claiming Christian who used to care about evangelism, and ministering to the poor, be WARNED by me to never abandon those values, ONLY to see them instantly abandoned when he found money could become his idol! I've HEARD people GUSH over the childhood friend who's now rich, because his mom handed him her business, before she died.

I know people who are retired, who only were able to because their parents died, NOT because they served the Lord for no pay, for decades, but because their career choices led to no financial independence.

I know a real estate "mogul" who tried to fire me for allowing an angry customer to find his office, to complain about bad results, when I was in charge of handling clients, as a lawyer. I quit earlier that day, and told him ask your secretary, who begged me to stay on until this evening.

I am coming to believe God has had me involved in several various jobs, over the years, many for the briefest of times, to see how things are on the inside! He sees it. He knows it. He observes the many evils by management and labor. He is tired of it, and gov't has to do her job!!!

I've seen lawyers who send crash victims to the wrong doctors, out of network, and their insurance pay for damage they didn't cause. Then never contact the victim, promise five times what they actually got, and ask them to do their job in finalizing collections. Frenkel-y they're corrupt!

I WITNESSED the most famous "Christian" car dealer company jack up a used car price, AFTER it was accepted and agreed upon, by $3K, to manipulate a young buyer, but lose the sale because lawyers disallow such EVILS! Grubb-y greedy SOBs! On the positive side, I witnessed another son buy a car exactly as advertised, and I never allowed the salesman the possibility he never lied to us, but he never did.

There are workers who steal from employers, or steal by regulating their work effort/pace, but there are also employers who get rich off the backs of employees hard labor, who don't give one rats tail about justice. In a Capitalistic society, I've seen it all—good and bad. END THE BAD!

Lying, greed, selfishness, deception, idolatry, Karen's (manipulating dumber people), ruthless tyrants, not fearing God one iota. THESE are the sins of Capitalism! I know MANY rich people who have zero intention of EVER obeying I Tim. 6:17-19, fight taxes and claim Jesus is their buddy.

I've WITNESSED a Sunday School teacher LOSE his job/position of 16 years, because he taught too deeply. Those in charge wanted it shallower, to be "seeker sensitive."

I observed a head denominational ""leader"" see perfect evangelism results by myself, then tell me Gods gifted you, you have a calling, but "I don't want that taught in my church." Then three years later, he moved to Dallas and now works for a ministry that sends out missionaries to do exactly what I did before his eyes. The pay must be great, to live as such a hypocrite (a sin). EVIL corruption.

I had a pastor change the sermon topic and published Bible text, to attack my Bible-accurate view of requirements for heaven, to which God gave me the boldness to stand up and tell the crowd what he was doing, and why! Ernest Weedon, First Baptist, Deer Park, 1986. EVIL exists, people!

LGBTQ ISSUES (II)

Bathrooms & Sports

(4/26/23; @JamesMeroney)

Floor-to-ceiling, lockable bathroom stalls don't solve all threats to females in the STUPID plan for coed usage! Husky horny, immoral, criminal males with a lone female, meeting at the sink, could lead to rapes, if no one else around! Wokeness on sex is wickedness! Loudoun County

The ONLY reasonable solution for trans in sports is to have their own league, and if people are interested in watching, they can! Non-trans born-female females RARELY compete with born-male males, but if they can do so, it can be exciting to watch their achievements!

IF ANYONE DOUBTS males, by species, are generally physically stronger (and hence, UNfair to compete against women), WHO does society look to most, to break up a fight, physically stop a criminal (absent Tasers and tools), run into a fire? We ARENT superior! Equals, with different gifts.

Allowing born-male jocks to compete against born female jocks is sort of like allowing an able-bodied athlete to compete against disabled athletes. Physically, biologically, muscle and strength-wise, most males are naturally stronger, though some females do bulk up. Unfair advantage

Update #1: LGBTQ Merch

(5/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

Whether we like it or not, Walmart and Target have to cater sales to all demographics. We CAN stop subtle influencing of drag queen book readings to impressionable kids, but selling merch to LGBTQs is what businesses do to people wanting to buy! Make straight life imaged clothes!

The appropriate and just response to drag queens trying to teach youth their lifestyle is OK and normal is for straight majority to try to influence gay "marriage" children that homosexuality is wrong, any way you can get to them! #NIKE (just do it)

The far right misses the valid nuance of hating the sin, but loving the sinner within the LGBTQ community, in these culture wars. They are NOT standing for morality, but just for normalcy. If for morality, they'd oppose fornication, adultery and divorce, and machismo womanizing! (5/29/23)

Update #2

(6/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

I AM SURE Cracker Barrel has served MANY gays and LGBTQs, over the decades. They would have been MUCH wiser taking a neutral posture on "pride month," and continued to conduct business as usually. That says NOTHING about how they feel about LGBTQs. They're there to feed people food!!!

Update #3

(6/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

ITS STUPID that the far right demands people either be for or against LGBTQ! Businesses should remain politically neutral, as they sell to any and every. Until someone designs straight memorabilia, companies should NOT favor or disfavor any major buying constituency! Cracker Barrel

Update #4

(6/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

PROUD of the hometown @TXRangersPR! Stay neutral on political issues, as a business. and stay moral, as an institution God sees! Straight night is needed by ALL your competitors, now!

Update #5

(6/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

THIS ISN'T COMPLICATED! You DON'T have to support or approve of LGBTQ sex perversions, confusion and choices in behavior, while fully supporting them as humans made in God's image. It IS loving to warn them to turn away from sinful choices. Love, not hate. That doesn't make you their enemy.

Christians AREN'T to approve of people glorying in their shame! Phil. 3:19 Pride month ISN'T an event they can, in good conscience, celebrate. Black history month is NOT based in moral choices, so its FINE, or you can let pass by, but NOT OK to oppose, unless for equality of all races

(6/26/23; @JamesMeroney)

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE between closet gays, gays who keep their private lives private, and flaming gays! FIAMinG gays deserve their capital letters!

Update #7

(6/28/23; @JamesMeroney)

There's NO WAY I will repost what you can find if you search "gay gang sex," but those images are what Pride Month is proud of! KNOW WHAT YOU'RE SUPPORTING, just like you SHOULD be able to observe what a live abortion does to the baby! Ignorance doesn't fully know what it supports!

Update #8

(6/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

The ONLY people who should be gender confused are biological hermaphrodites! ALL others need psychological counseling, and/or testosterone or estrogen injections. and under-aged children haven't the brain development to make any related (or permanent) decisions!

It should be national law, that no one and no legal entity can ever punish anyone for not using anyone's designated pronouns! Choose any that you please; free speech allows others to reference you (or anyone else) any way they choose!

Update #9

(6/30/23; @JamesMeroney)

I will call and refer to any person whatever I choose to call them. If they look like a dude, I'll say sir. If they look like a chick, I'll say mam. If they don't look like one or the other, I'll probably not address them, or just say hey you.

IF I see a person who is obviously born male, trying to pass as a trans female, I have every right to address him as "sir," even if he doesn't like it! Same applies with people born female, obviously trying to become a male. I don't have to bow to others' confusions!!!

Update #10

(6/30/23; @JamesMeroney)

When people hold their dogs and you say it's cute, they'll QUICKLY correct you if you said the wrong pronouns (genitals covered), because ALL humans know the gender of their pets. Sadly, not all humans are so discerning of their own sex/gender! Animals are smarter, and NOT confused!?

Update #11

(7/5/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let's be honest: LGBTQ weren't satisfied with Obergefell. They want government and the force of law to force every American to accept their sex choices as morally OK, or to never be criticized, using "equality" as their Trojan horse. Will NEVER happen, even by laws! #MissionImpossible

Update #12

(7/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

It is child abuse to pay for gender reassignment surgery before kids are of age where brains are fully developed (and sufficient life experience to make life-changing adult decisions)!!!

Update #13

(7/9/23; @JamesMeroney)

Haven't males been accused of dominating positions of power, wealth and authority for supposedly too long? WHY are MORONS letting them now defeat women at sports and even beauty pageants? Do feminists hate themselves? Mr. Miss Netherlands #SelfSabotage!

I'd BET liberals argue informing children about LGBTQ lifestyles is "education," and teaching them mainly whites stole Indian and Mexican land, and enslaved blacks is "history." ALL school boards must end biased, agenda-driven political indoctrination! There are things kids can learn of later!

I did NOT watch the event, but it is patently OBVIOUS that there are politically-driven beauty contest "judges" (activists) who JUST want their petty cause to get headlines limelight, and NOT pick the best candidates as winners! MISTER Miss Netherlands

(7/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

There are many evil Americans who hate and want to harm, humiliate or hinder trans and gays, either for political gain or to feel more masculine. That's DIFFERENT from those who know homosexuality and confusion are sins, and can't accept those choices as normative or moral Charles Barkley.

Update #15

(7/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

1. I have ZERO phobias about gays
2. I am NOT in the group wanting laws that discriminate against LGBTQ

3. I'm against treating them disrespectfully
4. They're engaging gross immorality, religion or not Nice try, though, morality-phobe anarchist/chaos-fascist.

Update #16

(7/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

Being confused in life is NOT a good condition! If a person thought math was "fuzzy," then became an engineer, he/she would be a failure at that career, as would any buildings they helped construct. Gender confusion is bad, and it has doesn't have to have anything to do with religion.

Adults trying to influence children not their own to be open to, accepting of, or even considering or practicing ideas that you might not want to remain the gender you were born with is harmful for people under the age of consent. This is NOT phobic or fascist; that's child abuse!

I am 100% sure trans and gays FEEL emotions that are not normal to the majority of humans. I'm quite sure they never conjured up those feelings, consciously. But just like people get angry, you deal with and process and tame those harmful powers; not give in! Self-control and medication!

There is NOTHING wrong with gay people who stay in the closet, or are outed but not flaming. When people promote that lifestyle, seek to be considered exactly as straights, or flaunt their sinful behavior, good people should shun and shame! Not just religious folk! God-fearers too.

Blurring lines of distinction between genders is exactly the distortion and deception satan desires in society, just as with sin's increase in these end times, good will be seen as bad, and vice versa! Isa. 5:20 Sign of our times! Black is white; morals don't exist. Lies told as truth.

Update #17

(7/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

So WHAT are gays supposed to do with their homosexual feelings?

1. Behind closed doors, a man's home is his castle
2. Don't flaunt your "relationships" in public, just as straights don't!
3. Could consider injections (or pills) of more testosterone, or therapy. Its strong emotions!

So what are trans supposed to do when nature calls? Use a bathroom, but DON'T force innocents to be uncomfortable with you near them! ALWAYS USE A STALL. If you look like a female, but aren't, go in the men's room and dress masculine for those few minutes! And vice versa for females.

Update #18

(7/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

Trans people are going to make others very uncomfortable in public rest rooms, no matter which gender room they choose! MUCH worse is a perverted make in a female bathroom. I'm sure perverted females exist, but it's usually males who are much hornier. Exceptions exist, of course.

Trans is, ultimately, a rejection of God's creation. It's a conscious movement to reject life as it is, to choose man over God, in how one expresses oneself! It has spiritual origins, and they are not good ones.

I was FOR Target selling whatever they wanted, and said we needed straight products. Once I learned they had genital tucking technology for swimsuits, I took opposition! I'm not a hypocrite. I believe business is there to sell. That one product crossed the line, for me!

Anti-LGBTQ and anti-trans Americans are NOT going to end those phenomena, or get many of them to change! And threatening their safety with physical harm isn't the right thing, either! You can reject their choices, and fight grooming, but that's mainly to influence others away from that!

(7/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

Christians: Reading Charles Barkley's comments on gays and trans, lost people do not rely on God's word for their values, but derive them elsewhere! Christians who do the same are no better. We expect more from saved people, than conformity to the world! You don't always see that, though.

Update #20

(7/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

Keep it in your pants, behind closed doors, or in the closet!!! [Private account:]

Update #21

(7/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

God bless Italy having common sense to show America how to run a FEMALE beauty pageant! Dio benedica il tuo paese e i tuoi connazionali e le tue connazionali per avere il buon senso di mostrare agli americani come gestisci un concorso di bellezza FEMMINILE! @EP_President

SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION 2023: WOMEN PREACHERS

(6/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

Twitter opiners see Southern Baptists' numbers decline as related to female pastors, when it's from NOT fully evangelizing and disciping, and being in the end times, when sin will be increased. The devil is TERRIBLE at discerning reality, as are his human agents! #SBC23

IT IS HILARIOUS to watch the spiritually dead, Bible-ignoring "world" slam Southern Baptists on Twitter, by using their standards, not God's! If a person NEVER cares what God says about their afterlife, it will be hell for them, all other issues LESS important! No comparison!

Rick Warren argued he only disagreed with ONE word of the Baptist Faith and message, and 99.9+% agreed with all else. It is MUCH MORE than a word. Its millions of females; an entire gender of human equals. Its changing biblical pastoring 100%, with his only one word objected to!

FUNNY, in 43 years of ministry, Rick Warren JUST discovered some new revelation he HASNT advocated for all prior years!: Female pastors. Did the Bible get revised/updated/changed, or merely Rick? Southern Baptists

Rick Warren is WRONG, alleging the Southern Baptists want to take women back to the 1950's, to 1500's. We want BOTH sexes taken to 2023 and beyond, based on God's truth from 2,000 years ago, sir! QUIT LYING, with angry arrogance! Repent! #ReadMoreBible; less news headlines on gender

The Southern Baptist position has NOTHING to do with women as only homemakers, pregnant and barefoot! Pv. 31 exalts a hard working professional woman! We simply affirm what the Bible teaches. Its offensiveness to some can be taken up before God! He is Who offends you! Repent!

(6/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

NOTHING changes in your relationships with individuals who are Southern Baptist, and little to nothing changes in our respect for you! @RickWarren Absolutely NOTHING changes in our love for you, as well!

Unfortunately, THIS is a consequence of brethren taking liberties with the Bible, yet wanting to remain in good standing with fellow brethren not willing to do the same! I LOVE Rick Warren, but the Bible hasn't changed, to accommodate modern trends! #SBC23 Decisions have consequences.

Update #2

(7/9/23; @JamesMeroney)

WE LOVE YOU! @RickWarren @stevenfurtick Honorary Southern Baptists!

POLITICAL TRICKS

Political Tricks

(6/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

Political TRICK: Everyday Twitterers find sins and stupidities among GOP's, then claim they should never be in power. This is their way to try to force Socialism out of taxpayers, if stupid people fall for this trick!

Update #1

(6/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

HERE's a political TRICK and logical fallacy: If anyone ever names any politician they admire, find any and all faults of that hero and claim they support those evils. I am a Reaganite, but I never agree with everything he said or did!

Update #2

(6/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

HEREs a political trick: If any politician on the team you hate ever does or says anything wrong, or bad, lump them as irredeemably bad! Extremists ALWAYS dwell on the negatives of their enemies, NEVER see the log in their eye, and never forgive! Even gaffes are mocked! Dan Crenshaw

EVERY DAY, in the news and on social media, nearly every topic is pro or con Dem or GOP. It's NOT news, but political advocacy. Few-to-none are ever changed to a different party leaning, thereby, and nearly everyone is fully confident they are in the right. I find extremes silly and boring!

(6/28/23; @JamesMeroney)

Reading official tweets, today, it's clear now that in national U.S. politics, you project. That means either that you accuse others of what you're doing, or you say things are so, especially when they are not, AS IF your statement makes it true/so. EVIL industry! All PMA and lies!

Update #4

(7/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

The latest dumb people's methodology isn't just conspiracy theories, but allegations politicians use the media to distract bad news with topics to get the public's attention off it. There's way too much access to information to be able to pull that off. It's a HOAX/myth! Little goes undetected!

Update #5

(7/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

Rule of thumb: IF U.S. politicians don't speak and behave perfectly, they will receive criticism from people not in their political party. Mt. 12:37

Update #6

(7/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

You can ALWAYS find negative things in society, as life isn't perfect. EVIL politics blames whoever's in power for any imperfections, AS IF they could or have done much better! Politics is find fault with opponents, and take no personal responsibility for your own party! Sin and EVIL!

Update #7

(7/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

HERE's U.S. politics, especially as elections heat up: IGNORE any and all good ideas and words of your opponent, even if its 99% of what they said or did. ONLY focus on gaffes, sins and stupid words and deeds, and suggest everyone make character determinations accordingly! EVIL and sin-FULL industry.

RACE ISSUES (II)

(6/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

You CAN'T say racism is ended in America. Today, lake swimming, five youth played truth or dare, daring a gal to say the N-word to a mixed race guy on the beach. She backed out, but to even conjure up that dare shows some people hate blacks just because of their skin tone!

Update #1

(6/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

People have a RIGHT to associate with whoever they choose! No matter their color, many in America don't hang with low class people! They don't have to. They may even resent them living near them. That's not discriminatory! Classier folk 'wanna hang with their own kind. Not dumb, loud or emotional.

Unfortunately (or awesomely, or just limited life experience), I've NEVER observed a low class Indian- or Asian-American (and I've encountered many of them!). Their cultural values, taught elsewhere, make them hard working, educated and sophisticated, more so than possibly any other types!

(6/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

The ONLY way you'll ever get justice in the workplace is NOT when the percent of every race in America is represented there, but only when the best-qualified that applied gets hired! America is based on hard work; not rewarding any skin color, as a qualification for employment! Duh 101

Update #3: Who Deserves White Guilt?

(6/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

It's an ironic day for me to get this message, but when is enough enough, in berating white people over slavery? They had nothing to do with? YES, some still hate blacks, but NO ONE living engaged the slave trade, and we don't pay for the sins of a few we never even knew! There has to be an end.

There is ZERO reason for any white American to feel white guilt, UNLESS your ancestors were engaged in the slave trade, or supported its existence!

I AM TIRED OF RACE-BASED ACHIEVEMENTS BEING CELEBRATED IN AMERICA, instead of the achievements, compared to everyone in America! There will be "first black" (fill in the blank activity) for decades. How about we celebrate ALL wins, and leave race out of it; only character?

I believe MOST racist and even non-racist whites in America are simply living their lives, ignoring Dems and the medias constant talk about race; especially black struggles or successes. Some from hate, but MOST from it as a non-issue. Time to treat every American as equals, vs. favoritism.

I've said this before: The existence of ANY wealthy or career-accomplished black person in America disproves claims of systemic racism, UNLESS every one of them got special treatment by any whites to advance apart from their own skills. Quit excusing any failures on slavery past!

I'm not responsible for any sins of my grandparents, just like no American white persons responsible for any sins of any whites who held slaves. Even slave owner heirs didn't engage the practice! THEIR wealth may be subject to scrutiny, but none others! Innocent of others' past sins.

I've said this before, too: With pride month, and black history month, for "equality" we now need straight month, white history month, Indian-American month, Asian-American month, and EVERY other culture group in America's month! WHY single out just a few? EVERYONE gets attention!

INSTEAD of dwelling on the past, WHY can't we determine when black Americans have achieved equal opportunities in America, so we leave the past in the past, and together reach for a brighter future? IF you find a racist employer, report them to the EEOC! Otherwise, you are equal.

IF I interviewed with a predominantly black business (like a church), I would EXPECT to have to adjust my dress and language topics a little, to fit in. That same expectation of any AA's at predominantly white businesses is NOT racism or discrimination! Even Tony Evans says fit in!

The dilemma between two races, white and black, in USA, is that blacks often say whites hold most of the businesses and managerial good jobs, stemming from slavery days, while whites say they worked hard to get where they are. These are NOT reconcilable explanations! One is an excuse, and wrong!

Many U.S. blacks being poor is explained by some as tied to slavery's start in this nation, while others say laziness or stupidity's to blame. These are irreconcilable explanations of the same phenomena! HOW has slavery affected the modern African-American, specifically and tangibly? Psyche?

Some say poorer black Americans simply need an attitude change of belief, confidence or commitment to succeed. Still others say they need help from society or government. IF an attitude shift has helped ANY achieve, WHY isn't that enough for every poor person? Why need taxpayers?

EVERY race of people has some within it who will do well and poorly! There are even 'white trash' among Caucasians in USA! We can NEVER expect all in any race will do well, or that race is being discriminated against! Equal opportunity is the best we can strive for! NOT results!

I AM CERTAIN there are poor, not real smart, and even lazy American Asians and Indians, BUT I have never seen them, and I see BOTH these groups constantly. I know America gets the cream of the crop who qualify to immigrate here (can afford to and academically qualify to), but where are they?

IMO, the Asian-American and Indian-American culture HAS to be analyzed and studied by experts on the poorer 'black and brown' American sub-group! Skin tone different from a predominantly white culture has NOT harmed or hindered them one iota! Smarts and hard work have suited them WELL!

IMO ANY American of any skin tone can achieve whatever they desire, IF they work hard and think smart, not dumbly, or emotionally. EVEN IF you live in a ghetto, hood or barrio, you determine your fate. More distractions to fail (gangs, poverty, drugs), but YOUR attitude wins or loses.

White Americans have addressed in full the grievances against prior generations' slavery, red lining, employment discrimination, and every other sin and evil committed against black Americans! ONLY KKK types still relish those evils (likely privately). They're a small minority in USA!

Rosa Parks bus event was 1955. I was born in 1959. Yes, mistreatment of blacks wasn't that long ago, but slavery was. I don't live off things that happened when I was a mere child, 50+ years ago, and neither should any black American! Times have changed, and you can succeed! No excuses.

IMO, social nepotism is the #1 challenge black Americans face in employment in USA. NOT necessarily familial nepotism, but buddies hiring buddies, who socialize in areas where it's mainly white. Chew on this insight for awhile.

It DOESNT require a George Lopez or The Jefferson's TV show to convince 'blacks and browns' they can succeed in USA! You NEVER have to see something on TV, to know YOU can succeed! You merely have to put your mind to the goal you have set for yourself, and work at it a bite at a time!

I watched a documentary on Richard Pryor, yesterday. It said he catered to whites for jokes, then turned on that and started insulting them, and catering to blacks (then did drugs). HOW ABOUT we stop differentiating audiences, and seeing them all as Americans, in USA? Be race neutral.

It is HILARIOUS that SOME think there's camaraderie between all of those of their race! Social class is much more uniting than skin color! You RARELY see rich people living right next to poor people! Class is the great differentiator—NOT skin color, innately!

Unbelievable! Punish people who never owned slaves (current taxpayers), to pay people who were never slaves (current reparations clamorers). Logical! Send your own donation to the IRS!

HOW MUCH WORK REMAINS in white-black relations, since U.S. has racially come a long way? Many want that rift never cured; many always 'wanna complain a rift exists. I say quit addressing race, offer equal opportunity, and get back to work! We're CLOSE to as good as its 'gonna get!

1863 and 1865s a long way in our past, considering all that's transpired since then! Even two world wars, the 1020s crash, and the Industrial Revolution happened AFTER that. African-Americans have been free in America for 160 years! That's MORE than three generations (40 year intervals). Future vs. past focus!

Update #4

(6/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

There's a statute of limitations on every crime but murder, and if not a legal one certainly a moral one against reparations. At best, ID lawmakers and slave owners who enacted slavery and other discriminatory policies, and trace their assets to heirs for any compensation, but victims are deceased

Update #5

(6/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

There are people in America who hate all blacks. NO laws will change that. The best you can hope for is they are disallowed from turning that into violence, or employment discrimination!

YOU CAN SEE WHY rich hide and legally shelter their assets from taxation!: SO MANY AMERICANS are indoctrinated in public schools to vote for Socialism! It may not always be jealousy, but many want the rich's money, and justify that want by any means necessary!; Ethics and justice be damned!

Update #6: OceanGate Response was White Supremacy?

(6/22/23; @JamesMeroney)

I read a tweet that said "racism" is behind U.S. efforts to rescue the #OceanGate, but not take efforts for some Pakistani refugee boat. America became the #1 nation by hard work! NO new arrivals will EVER change that value! And yes, most HAPPENED to have been white from its inception.

The other day Twitter was trending White Privilege, presumably about OceanGate. IF U.S. whites have more money than most other groups, THEY DIDN'T STEAL IT, but worked for it, and it is NOT anyone else's private property to steal by voting for Socialism through open borders or anything else!

I haven't written about "wokeness," much, first because its variously defined. IF economic policy ever favors any group, that is wrong! Whites have every reason to fight such things as OceanGate CEO not hiring 50-year old white men as uninspirational! That's NOT how jobs are to be gained!

Liberals ALWAYS say U.S. is racist and favors the rich. It DOES favor the rich (a sin), but it is NOT systemically racist! The FACT that it's been occupied mainly by whites, most of its history, doesn't mean it's racist! OF COURSE people will fight to keep the good thing that's been created!

Update #7

(6/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

If every U.S. college ONLY has whites, Indians and Asians, because they alone have the highest high school GPAs, SO BE IT! That won't happen, but that's the results America was founded upon—best qualified get rewarded, as in employment! Anyone can study hard! NOT all will! Their problem!

I HATE and don't give one damn about any group representing how our society looks! If a church, school or business, hires the best-qualified, or freely chooses to associate, that's both moral and legal. The percent of any race in America ISN'T same as their % qualified, necessarily! It can be more or less.

Let's say there are 15% green people in City X. University X is in city X. To argue university X should have 15% green admittances is 100% irrelevant to how many within 15% green within its population earned grades high enough to be admitted! #CommonSense Asians

Update #8

(6/30/23; @JamesMeroney)

There is LITERALLY no end to claims against white Americans being "unjust," historically and forever—among fools!

The term "racist" is the modern American left Trojan horse weapon to advance the liberal agenda! It is taken as a lay down hand, when used; no further proof or explanation needed, like accusing men of rape. The charge proves itself! BALDERDASH! HOGWASH!

Update #9

(7/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

Can we all QUIT the clamoring for "Diversity," and return to the concept/value of hiring the best-qualified? USA #1 MLK said it BEST: He longed for the day he wasn't judged by the color of his skin, but content of his character! NO MORE IDENTITY POLITICS—START caring about character

Update #10

(7/2/23; @JamesMeroney)

Black Twitter: With ALL sincerity, if Affirmative Action's end offends, insist you get the highest-quality education America offers, at every school! Then study hard. Learn memory techniques. Read repeatedly. It's served me well, for my 4+ college degrees. YOU CAN COMPETE EQUALLY!

Update #11

(7/2/23; @JamesMeroney)

Black Twitter: With ALL sincerity, if Affirmative Action's end offends, insist you get the highest-quality education America offers, at every school! Then study hard. Learn memory techniques. Read repeatedly. It's served me well, for my 4+ college degrees. YOU CAN COMPETE EQUALLY!

Update #12

(7/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

I'm 110% FOR any and all races of people, all of whom are made in Gods image! However, your skin color is NOT a credential for hiring! If any U.S. company had all the best talent they could hire, and all had green skin color, that's a GOOD result! Diversity of color is unrelated to talent! RE: Texas A and M

Update #13

(7/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

It is as evil to prejudge that every black person is less qualified than all white job applicants as it is evil to prejudge that every black candidate ought to be hire, to make an office more diverse! MLK was right! The heart character and job skills quality is ALL that matters!

Update #14

(7/3/23; @JamesMeroney)

There may be a Klan in America; I'm quite sure they exist, if or if not organized. But there's also a counter group against America, wanting to destroy America. I'm NOT for either evils, but you do have to have checks and balances to offset your opponent group. You CAN'T just focus on one side as evil!

WORKERS

(6/17/23; @JamesMeroney)

It will 'never' happen, but America NEEDS an authority level between criminal and civil, as MANY business's violate the law, and there are no cops, or cops won't enforce civil laws, and the harmed can't hire lawyers, from cost, or case value under what attorneys will accept to accept their case!

Even the media only picks up cases that have a widespread problem, or interesting enough content for viewers. Be it Grubbs Auto's bait and switch, roofers illegally waiving deductibles, or owners stealing from employee sales, challenging them to sue if they don't like it, it's ALL evil!

And MOST people aren't concerned when individuals get cheated by employers, unless they also get Scrooged. The system favors the boss, as laws are mainly on the honor code. Lawyers rarely accept cases intended to make management obey the law! Little money in it for them! EVIL system

(6/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF there were a national whistleblower hotline, for employees to air valid complains, even then, retaliation can come in the form of reduced hours or firings, if employers figure out who likely called. THIS IS UNJUST, and must NOT BE THE CASE IN USA! Fairness to BOTH sides—ONLY!

HOW am I pro-business?

1. Absent sins, I'm 100% for them earning as much as humanly possible, any moral and legal way!
2. I'm for taxes as low as can pay our bills
3. I'm for innovation making America world leader in sales of U.S.-controlled new products. DO RIGHT BY YOUR EMPLOYEES! Col. 4:1; Eph. 6:9

Update #2

(6/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

How am I NOT just pro-worker, and unjustly favoring any side?

1. I'm against all injustice and sinning by employees
2. I'm not for under- or over-paying anyone
3. I'm for labor doing an honest day's work, and having the Protestant work ethic! Eph. 6:5-8; Col. 3:22-24; I Tim. 6:1-2; Tit. 2:9-10

Update #3

(6/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

The idea that everyone is "paid what they're worth" has proven to be a cruelly effective way to put the blame on workers for not getting ahead — while giving the rich and powerful cover to rig the game for their own benefit. Don't buy it.

There is NEVER any guarantee that inheritances will come to all families (I got ZERO from my wealthier mom, as it was squandered), and the people who forced those evil things are all dead. Un-dig the graves, and steal what valuables they're wearing!

Any youth who haven't paid in much, and aren't earning much are a dangerous voting bloc, because they have nothing to lose voting to spend OPM/other people's money! Blame the older generation, because, over time, they've accumulated, JUST LIKE those youth someday will!? Crazyiness!

Update #4

(6/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

VERY interesting sign!!! MUCH truth in it!!!

Since the pandemic, the top 1%'s share of income is at a record high. Folks, this is unsustainable for our economy and democracy.

Even as worker productivity has INcreased (as @RBReich video statistics showed)! Work them harder, and pay them the same, to increase YOUR profits. As a kid said in high school, "minimum wage, minimum work." #Justice is what's needed! @RBReich

Update #5

(6/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

Are American workers lazy, or is management greedy? Some may be lazy, but most aren't. Many are greedy. When you demand higher productivity, but don't reward it with higher pay, YOU ARE STEALING! That's an INjustice! Repent!

Update #6: Needs for the Working Class

(6/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

I get my sourcing/inspiration for writings and innovations from real life—NOT Ivory Tower academia! It has always made sense to me if you fill up on water, you pee it out, so you don't retain that weight, long. I will test this theory to (hopefully) lose my final 20 pounds.

Relatedly, persistence solves problems. After 30 minutes in the hot Texas heat, alternating four hoses, I finally have something that works to water my driest lawn area. My PJs are soaked, and I hate manual labor, but it was a success!

Relatedly, when I was fighting the hoses and heat, roofers are two doors down. They're usually Mexican or Latino! They should unionize! I KNOW, first-hand, owners get rich, paying them peanuts! Also, being from south of the border, they're used to even hotter climates, so the sun isn't as annoying to them as U.S.-grounded people.

BUT they deserve (if they want it) air-conditioned body suits, and protection from skin cancer, and safety! I KNOW they own Tiger Paws shoes, have foam rubber mats and have strap-on claws for shoes, but the other day an ambulance and fire truck raced by, maybe as one fell off a roof. That should NEVER happen!

Chuck in a truck hires even illegals (I also KNOW this from first-hand experience), pays them little, and even Governor Abbott says they're not entitled to water at breaks. Jesus was for the least among us! IF anyone claims to know Him, they must be too! Air-conditioned suits, safer work conditions, sun protection, dying avoiding products and the ability to hydrate.

And IF their service are needed, and they're illegal (many are), make a way for them to receive temporary or permanent green card status! Our economy needs them! MOST Americans won't go up there! I used drones. I DESPISED my 30 minutes in the back yard.

I LOVE sweating my tookus off, hiking. When it comes to work, I LOVE my air conditioned couch! We have to make outdoor laborers as comfy as indoor, with new technologies! Don't hate the little man cause he's poor. Jesus didn't! Be like Him!

SOCIALISM & THE RICH

(6/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

Mall walking, I overheard two girls say, "they ought to take all the money and make it even." Government STEAL from people who worked for their wealth, and give it to people who didn't? THIS is how some idiots view "justice," when its 100% UN-just! #Socialism 'Gotta fight it until it dies!

RE: Socialism, MAYBE if EVERYONE paid taxes, and their fair share of them, the rich wouldn't balk at giving back, or obeying I Tim. 6:17-19, as much, or try to hide and shield their assets from government confiscation, as often. NOTHING in political conservatism addresses this duty!

People LIKE to cling to conservatism, claiming it's the ONLY Constitutional theory, because they don't want one dime to ever help anyone outside their family, unless they feel like it. Stats prove the rich don't feel like it even as often as everyone else, and that's a problem!

Private property and fruits of our labor are the justifications, to make selfishness and worldliness appear holy and biblical, but they are not! Even in the workplace, the ownership has all the leverage for punishing evil! Just fire people. What can workers do when management does wrong? Risk their job by whistleblowing?

It HAS to be equal leverage! That's where unions come in! I was promised my co could bid to win offers Id sell, but wasn't told that's a lie, and they can cut me out, unless I go find proof that they did, or contacted companies later, that rejected our hi bids. STEALING!

There's NO WAY the average employee has the wherewithal to take time off to research whether management purposely over-bid, or later bid with the employee's same clients, behind their back, or won the bid, privately, and the client lied the co lost the bid. I do, and will!

Cops won't come out for civil infractions, and most lawyers won't take such cases (mine happens to be high dollar enough that they might, or I can do it). This is NOT just for labor! Workers can get canned for stealing, but what happens when business does wrong?

Conservatives argue business's purpose is to make money, and government has no business telling business how or what to do, as it's their business and money on the line. These adages are totally BS! NO human has any absolute right to do anything they please to employees, customers, or in how they conduct business! Its government's job to police some behaviors!

AT THE SAME TIME, employees sin on the job, and rightfully get repercussions, usually firing. They can purposely slow down their efforts, doctor time clocks, lie, cheat, steal, collude, not treat clients well, be rude, turn away sales by attitude or inaccurate info. Sin goes BOTH ways!

But management has the authority to remedy those situations, when caught! Employees do not. EEOC or Commerce Department personnel aren't 'gonna come out on single issue single victim cases! There needs to be an inbetween force to police business wrongs, like business has vs. labor!

I've seen many cases of businesses doing wrong and illegal things, and there's LITTLE to no accountability! That can't continue, and getting JUSTICE in the workplace is a major emphasis I will make, when we run! I am 100% FOR business! I'm 100% against evil business practices! Do right, or get in trouble! Justice!

I understand businesses desires and perspectives! Whatever the law is, if they can get around it to profit, many will try. Hire only part-timers, to avoid required benefits. Even Greg Abbott insists construction workers employers can't be forced to provide water in sweltering heat. Bring your own.

ALL laws pertaining to business-employee relations MUST be just! They CAN'T favor one side or the other! That is how America should be. With politics and donations from special interests, that's not always how things are. The rich always 'wanna keep all their money, usually!

Hence, you get calls for Socialism. RFK Jr decried the absence of the middle class. IT EXISTS, but it's down, and "inequality" in earnings is HIGH. That's what causes this Dem push for Socialism! Greedy, selfish rich and businesses, never obeying God or caring about anyone but themselves!!!

And they're labeled patriots and Constitutionlists for supporting this sinful value system! Calling evil good—the very sin God warned a society when it came to such conclusions! Isa 5:20 NO ONE should get anything for free, but justly, and not unjustly favoring the rich!!! Levit. 19:15

I wasn't planning on writing again about Socialism, or the rich's give back duty before God, but the Lord often surprises me when I awaken, with what subjects He wants me to write on!

Update

(7/5/23; @JamesMeroney)

We don't live in a pure democracy, but a representative government and democratic republic. That's on purpose, and for good reason! If the masses/majority always got what they want, if they were mainly poor, the country would go bankrupt with Socialist handouts.

ELON-GATED SUFFERING CONTINUES!?

(6/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

THIS will sound uncaring and insensitive, yet sound like a liberal, BUT the lost submersible possibly illustrates Ecc. 1-3 and Lk. 12:20! IF authorities find it with people alive, it's just a warning; if no (as I suspect), we MISS Gods judgments ALL THE TIME. Was rich boy philanthropic?

When the ultra wealthy argue that there is nothing illegal about their paying zero taxes, remember that they are the ones, through their purchase of our representatives, who decide what is legal and illegal.

WHO do you guess the media touted as in that Titanic excursion boat? The billionaire! U.S. society worships as heroes rich people, but God says they are in a LOW position before Him! Jas. 1:10 America cannot get this fact into our heads! HOW you use your money matters to God, NOT much to us! We all just wonder what his job was, because we want his wealth.

AFTER you own enough money to live comfortably off nest egg interest, you have NO EXCUSE for not doing significant things to improve society! NOT just make money off rich people flown to Mars, the Moon or Titanic!

I Tim. 6:17-19 There are costly things needing fixing, and you alone have the means, more than 99% of us! God DOES judge playboys who aren't very philanthropic, but self-centered with their wealth, and just living for Self!

I have NO IDEA if that's how this "low life positioned" man lived! Jas. 1:10 But stats say the average Joe donates 3%, to the rich's 2%, and their differences in abilities to give are enormous! Living for YOU, because you can and because it's your money is a political conservative attitude God 100% DISagrees with!

Hiding that you're rich, so society won't want or vote for your money to be used more morally is also a sin, but a phenomena the Bible is all too familiar with, as with lobbying to keep your income and taxes and charity donations unknown by anyone, again trying to cover up your wealth. Pv. 13:7

OBVIOUSLY, I hope they find the craft and crew, with all intact. IF they do not (as I suspect), just know that so many people claim God never acts, or shows Himself to be real, with miracles, anymore. He does them and judgments, all the time, and WE haven't the eyes to see it! Pray for all involved!

P.S.: ANY and EVERY multi-millionaire and even richer person who is NOT significantly impacting our world for the good, with their excess, is sinning. I Tim. 6:17-19 I, for one, will never let that message go unsaid, or any violators feel comfy in their sins! Repent and do right, or else!

P.S.S.: DO you KNOW or can you even suspect WHY Elon changed from a $6B pledge to end poverty, to rocket launches to outer space, instead? You can't make money giving it away to those with no ROI (return on investment), vs. the rich, who can afford to move to Mars! Yes I said it. Repent.

Mt. 19:21-24; Lk. 12:33; Ac. 20:35; I Tim. 6:17-19. Jesus was FOR the down and outers, and rebuked the most those we deem heroes—the rich and powerful!

@ElonMusk WHAT HAPPENED to your $6B mentioned MORAL gift/money loss to end poverty? Will you have any heavenly treasures, if you're going there?

OCEANGATE

(6/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

Retweeted for informational purposes on preserving oxygen. Completely believe this is NOT a real interaction with #OceanGate! <https://twitter.com/LeStoicInvestor/status/1671535667875119104> We've already addressed it so many times, it's beating a dead horse/over-kill, for political gain purposes, mainly, now!

Update #1

(6/22/23; @JamesMeroney)

It IS unjust and immoral that TAXPAYERS have to foot the bill for the OceanGate rescue! That company MUST fold, and all its assets be confiscated to tokenly repay government treasuries! You take irresponsible risks, NOT taxpayers problem! Applies to banks, and everyone! Don't tread on us!

As humans, they're equally valued. As humans who do and achieve things, there's NO comparison! WHY would you reward people who get nowhere equal with those who go great places? Your view of justice is FLAWED! Rewarding incompetence!

Is there any evidence the sub has to implode, someday, just because the inhabitants are dead and it has no oxygen? Titanium surfaced sub.

The public isn't intrigued or interested in details about people with foolish plans on a desperation run to another country! That's NOT news worthy, except to report the loss. How interesting would it be to tell their individual stories, cruise plans, boat stats? Near NONE!

UN-true! WE celebrate people who achieve things, don't try to force themselves onto strangers for help and who stay in their own situations to make them better and fix problems, rather than trying to bring down another country by making it poorer and taxed more! NO racism or poor hate!

We were transfixed with the OceanGate crisis, as we knew their oxygen deadline. In evangelism, we ASSUME everyone not in hospice has more time, but obituaries prove is WRONG! We'll, sin-FULLY, CONTINUE this delusion, sadly!

If anyone remembers HeavensGate or Watergate, MAYBE it wasn't such a bright idea to name a company OceanGate!?

Award for the BEST-matched addition!

Can someone Photoshop an "S" in front of the company's first advertised word? #OceanGate

RE: OceanGate, one Twitterer said anyone able to take a vanity ride needs to be taxed more. That lib doesn't want the rich enjoying their assets. A conservative would have no problem if a person burnt up all their money, as they don't follow God, but money idolatry! I Tim. 6:17-19 etc.

RIP! #OceanGate

Update #2

(6/22/23; @JamesMeroney)

You over-load an old, likely not top-notch boat, with zero invitation to your destination, charting into rough waters with people who probably didn't pay the fare, hoping some country will take you in with no money in your pockets, and CNN liberals are 'gonna obligate taxpayers to help U?

Oh my gosh, CNN is addressing "inequality" between the Pakistani poor people drowning in a boat, from limited resources, but not so for the OceanGate sub. AMERICA REWARDS ACHIEVEMENT!

America is NOT for bailing out with handouts! Peoples achievements are NOT the same; people are.

Update #3

(6/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

VERY interesting quote that's MAINLY (i.e., a HIGH percentage) true! Have you noticed the spin to not have OceanGate pay for its rescue efforts? They're explorers, doing research; scientists interested in preserving the ocean. Trying to enlist liberals and conservatives to side with their joy ride.

THIS is sad!

Top 30-40 all-time viewerships, in past 24 hours. #OceanGate is a BIG story of interest!!!

It is NOT wrong or immoral to be a billionaire. It IS wrong and immoral to be one who is not significantly philanthropic. EVERYONE has an interest in knowing if they are! "Mind your own business" means I'm covering my selfishness! Disclose your giving!!! I Tim. 6:17-19 Billionaires

I have spoken with seven strangers in two days, and FIVE of them knew nothing about #OceanGate And some wonder about how America is sinking, with an under-educated workforce. My son asked, "do they not watch TV?" Good question!

Note the absence of any uninspirational older males. Hires are to inspire?

The way people are treating the #OceanGate incident is so weird, these billionaires never did anything for you, why should we care about these rich pieces of shit. No one should have that much money period.

Update #4

(6/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

Although I am a fan of Dan Crenshaw (who is two miles from my childhood home), I 100% DISagree that the rescue effort of the OceanGate was an Epic Failure of Leadership. This isn't World War II, where every asset, ASAP, must be mustered!

A rich man's joy ride!

We have people making foolish, risky choices all the time, and government resources bail them out (like being trapped hiking or lost at sea). But OceanGate was a risky venture by the mainly rich, with extreme recovery costs, in an extreme environment! Let them pay back U.S. taxpayers.

Update #5

(6/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

My intuition was SPOT ON! "as I suspect." OceanGate

Update #6: Refugee Boat Sinking

(6/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

1. U.S. tax dollars mainly go for Americans
2. Not interesting enough for media, except to report the event
3. America rewards hard work and achievement; not desperate people wanting others to care for them, over-loaded and with a poor plan of escape
4. Poor-situated nations need to fix themselves

Update #7

(6/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

@barackobama decried "inequality" between a migrant boat sinking and OceanGate. Below are the MANY reasons these are NOT an apples-to-apples comparison, as to media coverage and assets deployed. Boats of refugees happen a lot; sub rescues are RARE! His "equality" push is COSTLY!

American media has primary concern for issues of concern to Americans and their audience.
OceanGate became an international incident (world's attention), as other nations helped out.
Migrants fleeing in over-crowded boats is not unique; unique subs to the Titanic are!
Poor people escaping suffering happens to millions; few go to the depths of the ocean.
Throwing yourself into the ocean hoping others will financially help you is NOT what Americans admire.
The oxygen limit set a sure deadline; a capsizing boat was not certain, or expected.
Accomplished people were in the sub (for the most part); important or authority-wielding ones.
The sub crew never set out to become a financial liability to others; that's what migrants seek.
Race has NOTHING to do with these distinctions! The sub father and son were NOT white, race-baiters!
Media stories often need to be unique, interesting, of mass concern or involve famous people.

UKRAINE & RUSSIA

(2/24/23; @JamesMeroney)

Russia SHOULD have been defeated within three months of its initiated war, and politicians WATCHED as a 40-mile convoy descended on Ukraine. MORONS! DID THEY THINK HUMANITARIAN AID WAS WITHIN THOSE VEHICLES?

Update #1

(2/25/23; @JamesMeroney)

I have ZERO need to write about Ukraine, as I taught how to solve it MONTHS ago! It would have never lasted this long! BUT, still, overwhelming force that Russia can't keep up with is needed to force him to the bargaining table. Bullies and dictators ONLY respond to force! Duh 101

Update #2

(6/24/23; @JamesMeroney)

About 1.5 months ago, #wagner and #prigozhin made clear their disdain for the Ukraine invasion, lamenting that Putin seemed to only want their men to die, for a body count, rather than for victory. News articles covered this. Now, their leader has increased his resisting that!

Update #3

(6/24/23; @JamesMeroney)

I DON'T CARE if Prigozhin and Wagner aren't angels! God uses even evil people for good. Anyone disrupting Putin's unjustified invasion and murdering innocent Ukrainians is helping our world, and making U.S. safer, unless Putin lets off nukes, from desperation! The enemy of my enemy is my friend.

I have NO belief Russia will fall! That would require MANY Russian soldiers turning on Putin! I mainly watch @CNN during major crises. SO happy it's on, as it covered (well!) the OceanGate and now Russia coup possibility! There is NO OTHER TV OUTLET LIKE IT, for major world events! Not three minute snippets! I don't even watch other channels, under these events! 24/7 live coverage origins.

ANY chance what's going on in Russia could increase Palestinian tensions with Israel? Right before the Rapture, that conflict will be intense enough to necessitate Dan. 9:27, by a stealth leader who upends three E.U. heads of state, just after that Rapture. Inquiring minds 'wanna know.

A CNN expert, otherwise correct, misunderstands that the danger with Putin with nukes is NOT attacking his own country or countrymen, but sending them to Ukraine (or elsewhere). Desperate dictators do desperate things! That would also turn the tide, in a very bad way! @CNN @ZelenskyyUa

I would not make it, during world crises, without Twitter videos and @CNN continual reports, including live! SUCH an improvement for average Joes to understand what's really happening, instead of pundits filtering what we learn!!! Putin WWII Kiev

ALL that matters is Ukraine defeats or gets Russia out of their country! Putin weakened but not toppled isn't a complete loss. We could WISH the mercenaries had overthrown him, but they didn't look to be a much better substitute—if at all! Get on with the fight, and WIN!

Update #4

(6/24/23; @JamesMeroney)

I don't think Prigozhin wants to replace Putin. Today's coup scare could embolden them both to be more ferocious against Ukraine, but ONLY if Putin supplies the mercenaries with enough weaponry to make gains. They can work together and still hate each other! Likely NOT good for Ukraine.

IMO, Prigozhin and Putin look weaker, after today. The former looked strong, until he capitulated, and we all know Putin doesn't tolerate defectors. At best the mercenaries will get what they were demanding—better arms support from Russia. Putin will never fully trust him again, IMO!

IMO, Putin either:

1. Arms Prigozhin MORE, as he requested
2. Distrusts him, and tries to win without him (unlikely), or
3. Uses him, but tries to advance others, to keep him in check. Or,
4. Has him killed by operatives not traceable to Putin.

Luka better watch his back and food!

Update #5: Russian Coup?

(6/25/23; @JamesMeroney)

CAN YOU IMAGINE being a member of the Wagner Group, today? Your "leader" abandoned you, likely paid well to do so, and what do you get? NOTHING but to serve with more inept Russian troops, over a turd who opposed you, yesterday (Putin), who's weak, and didn't arm you sufficiently. WOW!

IMO, Putin had better sleep with eyes open, and always have his food tested, before eating! Just saying, the Russian people, and even people who can think, within his administration, have zero tolerance for his continued reign, FORTUNATELY! Good redds, one day, into a fiery hell, Gog

(7/31/23; @JamesMeroney)

I SAID, probably ~1.5 years ago, Ukraine had to attack Russia's own homeland, as Ukraine alone was suffering the casualties of a war they didn't start (proved by net retweet). WAY late, and billions of U.S. tax dollars wasted, as a result! #FAILURE!

Update #7

(8/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

Could America reconcile with China and especially Russia?

1. IF Russia changed from its ambitions, intents, oppositional actions and commitments, as a government, led, for now, by a mad man.
2. IF Chinese leadership revealed TRUE intentions, vs smiled lying thru their teeth
3. IF America took more into account those two nation's needs and interests, all the while verifying everything heard in those two nations' verbalized promises. In short, common ground and interests have to exist! Win-win vs win-lose, which can lead to war, eventually. UNlikely full reconciliation, IMO.

Update #8

(8/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

HUGE if true: Unconfirmed reports that Prigozhin's jet was just shot down by Russian Air Defence.

You desperately NEED Jesus! Hell will reserve its finest fires for you, if you don't experience a serious spiritual change, "sir!" @KremlinRussia_E Your MANY evils are NOT hidden to God, Who's much more powerful than you could ever dream of being! May Prigozhin's ghost haunt you [Gospel meme attached]

TRUMP

I retweet AGAINST tRUMP 2024. ANY "Christian" who believes his words, when his deeds defy them, is a FOOL of a believer, proven below! 22K+ lies in office; everything for Self. Get some discernment! READ MORE BIBLE! Liars say what you 'wanna hear—for your dumb vote! #CommonSense Eph. 5:14

MANY Faith and Freedom Coalition attendees have NO IDEA what God values! With a person so evil they might be the Revelation Antichrist, they should shun him; not cheer. Deceived or dumb SHEEPLE! May not even be true Christians! Policies aren't everything; Hitler could espouse them

(7/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

WHAT REPUBLICANS SAID ABOUT tRUMP when they valued the ethic of honesty over sinful (idol) choices:

Here's what tRump's own people are saying:

He's a f%#ing moron. –Rex Tillerson (tRump's Secretary of State)
He tries to divide us. –James Mattis (tRump's Secretary of Defense)
He's an idiot. –John Kelly (tRump's Chief of Staff)
A professional liar. –Gary Cohn (tRump's Economic Advisor)
He thinks he's god. –Barbara Res (S.V.P. Of tRump Organization)
Like an 11-year old child. –Steve Bannon (tRump's Advisor)
I don't think he's fit for office. –John Bolton (tRump's National Security Advisor)
Source: The Lincoln Project

Update #2

(6/9-10/23; @JamesMeroney)

I'd pardon tRUMP on these latest documents charges!

I believe an ex-President should be held to the high crimes and misdemeanor standard, for politically-oriented acts. If they rob a bank, after the WH, jail them. If CHUMP intended to sell or give spy info to foreign governments, enforce to the fullest extent of the law. Must show intent!

I do NOT define a high crime to be negligently,33 even knowingly owning classified documents in one's home, IF they were never shared with foreign governments or sought to be profited off of. IF tRUMP intended either of these, he should NOT be pardoned. If not, he should be, IMO!

Update #3

(8/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

With proper evidence of CHUMP committing crimes, he DESERVES law-based punishments! But, given politics, that punishment should be large fines, until he is out of politics, and then any required jail time! Pardons alone incentivize recidivism, even in one's personal vs. public life!

Update #4

(8/24/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF there is ZERO evidence, or not enough to not be thrown out of court as a frivolous lawsuit, this is political persecution of CHUMP. SINCE that is NOT the case, this is the normal outworkings of our better-than-elsewhere judicial system of justice! God Bless President Trump?

People arguing "banana republic" and "political persecution" JUST WANT TRUMP TO NEVER FACE ANY BACKLASH if he did or does any crimes. They are saying a President is above the law! That's what their little slogans mean, folks! Free Trump? He's not even in jail, IDIOTS! (8/25/23)

IMMIGRATION ISSUES (II)

La Raza was a strategy to reclaim former Mexican territory, through legal and illegal immigration and voting. For ANY American to oppose such tactics, when the war is over and was won, is NOT racist, but defending our land from subtle invasion against our national interests! (6/3/19)

Because more and more Hispanics are coming to America and Texas is ZERO reason to re-write history, to accommodate late-comers to our country, and newly-minted citizens! La Raza has been a movement to seek to reclaim Mexican territory, which could be seen as an anti-American invasion and insurrection (7/5/21; @JamesMeroney)

Update #1

(6/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

If you lived in another nation, and people NOT born there flocked there, then wanted to change things, would you like it? Does it make people "racists," to preserve things people from its inception built, not wanting outsiders breaking in to make it into their country's image? NO!

Update #2

(7/4/23; @JamesMeroney)

NBC showcased DeSATANists immigration policy as possibly causing worker shortage in produce picking. IF limited to only jobs Americans won't do, I've said let in who our economy needs. Green card for farm workers in FL! A partial improvement to his bill. Much more for full solution

Update #3

(7/6/23; @JamesMeroney)

If I've ever, previously, said citizenship for illegals already here is OK, it was:

1. Only for jobs Americans don't want/if economy needs them
2. Back of line, and pay back taxes
3. Forbidden to access safety net or vote for Socialism for a number of years!

I save my tweets, as proof!

Update #4

(7/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

SOLELY at hands of everyone who chose to attempt an illegal trespass entry, like parents, adults, etc.! @GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX If you drown, you shouldn't have entered the water, unskilled!

Hey BETO: WHY DON'T YOU CARE ABOUT PEOPLE OBEYING LAWS, vs. Law-breakers? If YOU want no drownings, or injuries from barbed wire, use your "fluent" Spanish to tell people stay out of the river, Robert Francis! @BetoOrourke

IF the American economy NEEDS the job skills of illegal aliens, make a cheap path to green card status, or permanent resident. When the need abates, they must return home. IF they come legally, and pay back taxes, citizenship, if employed and no safety net access for seven years!

Update #5

(7/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

DON'T ENTER THE WATERS FROM THE SOUTH SIDE, and ZERO DEATH DANGERS WILL EVER BEFALL ANYONE! Comprene?

Beto (Robert Francis): VERY SERIOUSLY, open your rather large home to illegal aliens, before preaching to AMERICANS how having laws and borders is a bad thing! @BetoORourke #StopTheHypocrisy sin! Beto

Update #6

(8/3/23; @JamesMeroney)

WE DIDN'T COME TO YOUR COUNTRY! Learn our country's language and road rules, just as we'd have to do if we left America for your home nation! #CommonSense

CHRISTIANS & TRUMPISM

(6/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

I'll make a bold statement: You CAN'T be a Christian who is right with God and be a pure political conservative, or a pure political liberal. Absolutely impossible! IF you follow the tenets of your faith (the Bible), you WILL become a Centrist, or support it, unwilling to leave party CHRISTIANS and POLITICS

Update #1: A Conservative SCOTUS Justified Chump?

(7/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

THIS will be interesting, but very intricate. Buckle your seatbelts! Don't the two SCOTUS decisions from yesterday (refusing LGBTQ web development; no cancelled federal student loans) justify Christians having voted for tRUMP? Bear with my answer, before opining. I use logic and morals.

1. ANY good SCOTUS decision until the Courts makeup is changed can be credited to unjustly stacking it to the right! That's NOT a hard argument to make. BUT, that ASSumes no other court makeup would make good decisions the far right approves of! And history shows that's FALSE!

SCOTUS justices have proved they don't always rule the way their appointees politically thought they would! Even THIS Court ruled rightly/correctly, but NOT far rightly, on disallowing states full control on gerrymandering lines!

2. The U.S. Constitution can be variously interpreted as to details, but especially application, because MANY issues it handles aren't explicitly in the document, so they have to apply principles derived from it. SCOTUS should NEVER become a political wing! ALWAYS be neutral, hear all facts, have legal bases for decisions, and NEVER be able to be bought off or bribed. The minute the public views it as political hacks, it has lost all credibility and authority!

3. God can bring forth good out of bad. Of course a right leaning Court will rule in ways pleasing the right, all things being equal, more so than any other makeup. That does NOT prove all far right positions are Constitutional, just or even moral! And when they're NOT, they done need to be supported.

4. No one can say, definitively, how any past Courts would have decided on any current cases, as that's mere speculation! We can assume the three liberal Justices would rule in favor of the lefts agenda, and Socialism, but we can't 100% prove that! And they all are sworn to uphold the law, and not allow personal or political biases to interfere with their doing their job. That has to be enforced, perhaps by ethics rules.

5. ZERO good policies or SCOTUS rulings can EVER justify supporting all the sins, below! The Bible is CLEAR: Shall we sin, that grace may come? May it never be! The Bibles also clear on what politicians Christians should vote for. FAKE Christian CHUMP deceived WASPs with acting skills of a con man carnival barker, and lies (including 22K in office).

Christians are NOT to be deceived/fooled, or dumb, and because carnality reigns in U.S. Christendom, many didn't care about morality; just WRONGLY worshipping far right political conservatism.

6. We've also seen how Roes overturn hasn't gone exactly as promised by the Court stacker advocates! Many states are doing exactly what Christians didn't want to occur! And the violence, division, and overall evil that's come forth from a 2016 campaign run like below, further shows CHUMP inspired sins increase!

Be it Jan. 6, illegal top secret documents handling, or the atrocious way his reign stressed everyone out for four years, it has ALWAYS been a matter of Christians supporting sin, or not, in 2016! That was foundational to his rise, and no one can or need forget this!

He did some good things (MANY policy proposals he STOLE from me—yet another sin), but everything that has come since Nov 2016, good or bad, comes mainly from Christians supporting sin! No matter that God can bring good from evil.

We Christians always had only one moral choice: Abstain, or demand he repent. Publicly call him out, repeatedly, and NOT allow Goliath to win, if he didn't! But we didn't, and America and the world has suffered as a result, ever since, as has Gods reputation, unjustly but surely; He has NOTHING to do with condoning Christians' sinful choices or votes!

So when any Christian tries to proffer anecdotal evidence of good things that came from DJT being in office, I have always, and you should too, refer them to this TV commercial of ways claimers of Christ supported SIN, and call carnals to repentance! II Chron. 7:14 is for the Church!

Now, if ANYONE can follow that TRUTH-ful argument, they're quite great critical thinkers! But, if you're an emotional opiner, biased only to party, and not to Gods values, you will reject it, JUST LIKE the cult book I'm getting from the library on tRumpsters, today, deceived by Jim Jones.

P.S.: I have, MANY times, explained exactly where God and the Bible differ from far right conservatism, so for ANY Christian to still 100% them brace it, YOU need to repent, carnal ones! And not everything Dems propose is anti-God! IF you can't see this, satan has blinded you! Be Centrist!

Update #2: The Church & the GOP

(7/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

On the rightful makeup of SCOTUS, I have a suggestion (besides 3 liberals, 3 conservatives and 3 centrists, or 4 liberals, 4 conservatives and one centrist): HOW ABOUT EVERY SUPREME COURT JUSTICE BE FORECED TO OBEY THEIR VOWS TO PUT PERSONAL and POLITICAL BIASES ASIDE and ONLY INTERPRET THE CONSTITUION AS IT WAS INTENDED! They likely won't; we NEED balance.

The Charles Barkley article reminds me of one more P.S.: IF Christians abstaining from voting brought Biden to office, there are always ways to fight any and all evil policies, like trying to force Christian doctors to conduct abortions! At worse, civil disobedience, or suffer loss, standing for whats right.

Sinema and Manchin PROVE there are always ways to fight evil, that don't require you voting to support it, that good may come! Convince enough NON-Christians to your policies, NOT requiring them to be Bible adherers! Our website does that—it's NOT hard. WORK.

And IF you believe God can't reign supreme, even if an evil person won the White House (like Christians abstaining and Biden wins, as a result, in 2020), you don't believe in the God of the Bible. God got U.S. through CHUMP! Doesn't mean Christians should have them braced sin, in Jesus' Name!

Majority or minority, there's ALWAYS right vs. wrong ways for Christians to engage the political process! IF GOP needed a loss, to show people far right extremism is evil, a loss was needed! Save the party; do whats right, and don't ever celebrate evil! Carnals don't care-and will be judged

Update #3: 'Good Christians' & Voting

(7/4-5/23; @JamesMeroney)

Less than half of U.S. Christians believe Jesus lived a sinless life (heresy); and 70% believe Jesus isn't the only way to heaven (heresy). HOW can pastors believe they're discipling successfully? By judging that by money given; NOT the Bible! NO WONDER revival hasn't come! II Chron. 7:14

70% of U.S. Christians believe there are several ways to heaven (heresy). We really need to just burn or tear up the Bibles we refuse to read or obey! NO WONDER CHUMP was a viable option to CINOs!!!
<https://christianpost.com/news/nearly-70-percent-of-born-again-christians-don't-see-jesus-as-only-way.html>

Let's make this clear as a cow bell: When you receive Jesus, you are forever a Christian. You're going to heaven. But God's work with you is NOT over—it just started, and you're now in a relationship with Him. If you do nothing, you are carnal, as I was age 8-18. Saved and sinful.

You NEED Gods perspective on your salvation and life thereafter! He says Christians are to follow Him. They're not to neglect so great a salvation, or judgment is certain. NO saved person can ever support a less biblical political option, and be in right state with God, though saved!

You may not 'wanna read the Bible. You may not even go to church. Your eternity isn't affected, but your rewards in eternity are! And you're subject to God judging you, if you simply live for yourself, awaiting heaven, living for this world, as a saved person. You're an enemy of God!

The Bible gives perhaps hundreds of reasons a Christian should grow mature. IF you never read it, you may never know them, or grow. Going to church is good, but may not even teach you those reasons. and reading the Good Book is how God speaks to you; you to Him in prayer—daily!

So a born again Christian can live as a non-disciple/carnal. Disobediently rebellious, but saved. They may think going to church, or voting GOP or being anti-abortion makes them 'good Christians' but God defines that concept—not our myths or traditions/opinions!

Only disciples please God, who are fully committed and walk by faith. And Jn. 15 and Heb. 12 show us God prunes us, if we are being grown up by God. If you are never pruned, beware, and test yourself to see if you are in the faith/saved. God indicates four years of non-growth, since salvation, can doom you. Lk. 13:6-8

So, IF you care about God; if you claim to know Him; if you care about your quality of life in eternity; if you desire to please God; if you want to avoid judgment, extra sickness and maybe premature death, learn how to follow Jesus, as a Christian, in every area of your life—fully.

Update #4: Christians & Politics

(7/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE for any Christian to 100% support any politician or political party! ALL you can do, to be walking with Jesus, is accept the good and reject the bad, and be open to a good and truth from any source. Otherwise, you are sinning!

Update #5: Church & State

(7/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

Some tweets addressed separation of church and state. EVERY citizen seeks to influence laws to be as they envision America to be, to become a more perfect union. Christians and others with morals are such citizens! Nothing wrong or different about seeking our values as our agenda! Tim Scott

Update #6: Christians & Politics (I)

(8/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

There are MANY U.S. "Christians" who are MUCH more influenced in their politics by talk radio than the Bible! And if their DJ's mention "God," FOOLS think the two subjects are related. "My brethren, these things ought not be this way!" James 3:10

Update #5: Christians & Politics (II)

(8/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

THE reason ANY evangelicals support CHUMP, rather than standing for morality, is because carnality is a real and Bible taught evil concept. Christians still have wills, and many of them use them for satan (and his man). Apostasy is also always something they can fall prey to.

Christians who believe in winning at all costs believe moral boundaries and rules are NOT important, and that idolatry is NOT a sin (like the Trump baseball cap-carrying old man at church). People are EXPECTED, after decades, to learn Kindergarten lessons, or absorb sermon content!

SCOTUS & AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

(6/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

Get the grades, get the graduation (from high school, and acceptance into college). This rule applies to everyone of any color! America rewards achievement and hard work, where you earn what you get. Supreme Court Affirmative Action

If you worked hard all your life, and made good grades, wouldn't it be normal that it would anger you if anyone with lower GPAs got college accepted, and you didn't, because of their skin tone? That disincentivizes hard work, and isn't just! Anyone can study hard! Affirmative Action

ISN'T IT CURIOUS you hear zero Asian-American and Indian-Americans complaining about the end to Affirmative Action! They understand academics and hard work are what America rewards, and that's RARELY-if-ever any barrier to their achievement! #Honorable! Supreme Court

I know MANY White Women, and absolutely NONE are saddened by the end to Affirmative Action! IF it benefitted them the most, as some speculate, they would be complaining. Minorities should CHEER that the U.S. majority race's benefit has been removed, to make things fairer! They won't!

Update #1

(6/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

Indians and Asians in America get into college, so often, because they WORK THEIR A-SES OFF! I live among them! Their high schoolers stay up studying beyond midnight. They take AP courses. NO OTHER RACE is prevented from doing the same! Imitate success! Work hard! Affirmative Action

Is Hah-vahd going to now require facial photos on all applications? Probably. Harvard reacts to Supreme Court affirmative action ruling: Diversity is 'essential to academic excellence'

<https://foxbusiness.com/politics/harvard-reacts-supreme-court-affirmative-action-ruling-diversity-is-essential-to-academic-excellence...> #FoxBusiness

Unless black Americans are biologically inferior, academically/IQ-wise, as a race, ending Affirmative Action does NOTHING to hinder all of their future success opportunities! Supreme Court @Harvard: "HARD WORK is essential to academic excellence!" Who's sitting next to you has NOTHING to do with how hard you study, read, memorize, and learn to take quizzes and tests!

Update #2: SCOTUS On Legacy Admissions

(6/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

NBC just asked a pundit college staffer how she was going to ensure U.S. colleges are diverse, after Affirmative Action is ended. THAT QUESTION IS ADMITTING IT WASN'T MOST ADVANTAGEOUS TO White Women, and assumes "blacks and browns" aren't smart. That's a very EVIL presupposition!

IF their kids have the grades, it's rewarding loyal customers. Every business does that!

SOCIALISM

(6/30/23; @JamesMeroney)

HAVE YOU NOTICED the Democrats are stating that if you're for Democracy, you will vote Democrat. So anyone who votes any other way (like Common Sense Centrist Independent) would be choosing to destroy America. Even CHUMP could have reformed, a little. Took a MUCH-deserved beating!

Update #1

(6/30/23; @JamesMeroney)

PPP loans were due to an "act of God" (Covid), no American caused. Socialism seeks ONLY taxpayers to bail out those who can't pay their own bills! #CarryYourWeight

Update #2

(7/6/23; @JamesMeroney)

IMO, the day America them braces full-blown Socialism, we will either have:

1. Secession (Ill join it), or
2. Go bankrupt, or
3. Have Civil War I'd never fight for Socialism advocates, or for far right Trumpism, but I'd fight!

TRUMP CULT BOOK

(7/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

Went by library to get Trump cult book, but not open. Until wife gets it, I can tell you methods he uses:

1. Lie
2. Tell far right Gods on their side—make the cause seem spiritual
3. Only trust him (Savior complex). Any critics are fired or shunned
4. Say what followers ‘wanna hear
5. EVERYTHING Chump does is for self! He’ll say he’s enduring things for his followers
6. Everyone is the enemy of the cult, with a cult leader. That’s why they usually say give them your funds, associate only with cult members, and renounce family associations. Talk radio reinforces this
7. Cult leaders NEVER only lie! They throw in some truths, to confuse dumber people and to have truthful things to claim against accusations they lie
8. Cult leaders use doomsday scenarios for their being needed, like world will end if Biden wins, etc. Trump is political Jim Jones!

Update #1: Cult of Trump

(7/2/23; @JamesMeroney)

Excerpts from the EXCELLENT (but with several off-topic, technical chapters) book, The Cult Of tRUMP, by Steven Hassan

One remedy for blind faith is to see the world from different perspectives. If your loved one is stuck on their beliefs—about Trump or anything concerning—try a role-switching exercise with them. Begin by asking them to teach you how to see trump or his policies through their eyes. [then ask them to do the same, which they may be unwilling to do]. (p. 209)

Ch. 9 How To Undo Mind Control. In my experience, telling a person that they are brainwashed, that they are in a cult, or that they are following a false god, is doomed to fail. It puts them immediately on the defensive, confirms you are a threat, possibly an enemy, and reinforces their indoctrination. (p. 196)

Ch. 3 Subtopics about Trump’s personality: Malignant narcissism, grandiosity/exaggeration, fantasies of success, excessive admiration, sense of entitlement, lack of empathy, envy, lying, interpersonally exploitative, sadism (dehumanizing others), harassment and silencing, violence, paranoia, enemies, etc.

Trump uses all kinds of cult tactics—lying, insulting opponents, projecting his weaknesses onto others, deflecting, distracting, presenting alternative facts and competing versions of reality—to confuse, disorient, and ultimately coerce his followers. Repetition programs the beliefs into the unconscious. But fearmongering tops the list. (p. xiv)

The making of a con man, who was capable of deceiving even God's own people, who are not to be deceived.

One might say that Donald Trump, the successful businessman, is himself a story created by Tony Schwartz, his ghostwriter on The Art of the Deal—one that was furthered through the propaganda efforts of Mark Burnett for fourteen seasons reality television. People who have worked on the Apprentice have talked about how important the editing process was to crafting a story that reinforced the image of trump’s greatness. The Cult of Trump, by Steven Hassan, p. 104

CAN YOU IMAGINE Trump lite and ‘wanna be claims CHUMP is children's role model? Child abuse!

In The Art of the Deal, Trump promoted himself as a kind of business role model. Now he touts himself as a kind of political savior who will help rescue America. We saw earlier how Florida governor Ron DeSantis said he can’t think of a better role model for his own children than Trump. The Cult of Trump, by Steven Hassan, pp. 105-106

I, myself, chose to forego a free (won) radio ticket to a DFW Tea Party event, as I smelled a red flag/rat. Now Hannity advises Chump to his far right vision of America, abandoning his Catholic values for political conservatism on steroids! This is NOT progress, to God, IMO!

Alex Shephard describes how far Fox News has slipped in journalistic principles since Ailes resigned in 2016. “Back in 2010, the network canceled a [Sean] Hannity appearance at a Tea Party rally, fearing that it would damage the institution’s journalistic integrity.” The Cult of Trump, by Steven Hassan, p. 139

(The) APOSTASY! Jesus discounted secular power, said being salt and light is how you influence people, by getting people saved and disciplined! We live in a DEMOcracy—NOT theocracy. You do NOT shove your values onto others, but convince. Our carnal lifestyles aren’t convincing to anyone

More mainstream Christian groups may evangelize and otherwise seek to influence politics and government. What distinguishes the modern Christian right is the idea that their theocratic takeover is ordained by God and, some believe, may lead to the return of Jesus. The Cult of Trump, by Steven Hassan, p. 153

Christian Nationalism's origins (besides hell)?

In his 2013 book, Rebuilding America: The Biblical Blueprint, [Ralph] Drollinger claims that it is the state’s “God-given responsibility to moralize a fallen world through the use of force.” ...As an early supporter of Trump, he once called on him to create a “benevolent dictatorship.” The Cult of Trump, by Steven Hassan, p. 153

I, publicly, repent of the acts of these Bible-illiterate claimers of Christ, trying to force our shared(?) religion on everyone else! I’ve NEVER had ANY association with such narrow bigots, I don’t read the same Good Book they do, apparently, but if they won’t repent, I will FOR them!

Once Trump arrived in the White House, he set to work making good on promises to the NAR [New Apostolic Reformation] and the broader Christian right. During their meeting with Trump, Christian leaders had discussed their concerns about what they perceived to be the government’s assault on religious freedom, defined as the right to practice their own brand of Christianity... Several Christian right groups had organized a legislative campaign, called Project Blitz, providing state legislators with a manual outlining how to write laws that further their goal of theocratic Christian dominion. The Cult of Trump, by Steven Hassan, pp. 158-159

Christians often have disagreements over how to live holy, or less so, according to Scripture! Furtick

Pastor John MacArthur, host of his own international radio show, would describe Trinity as a bunch of “religious quacks”—a network “dominated by faith healers, full-time fund-raisers, and self-proclaimed prophets” preaching the prosperity gospel. It appears to be a winning formula. The Cult of Trump, by Steven Hassan, p. 129

MOMS FOR LIBERTY?

(7/9/23; @JamesMeroney)

I studied Wikipedia on Moms For Liberty, seeking objective beliefs understanding. As always, we take the good and reject the bad of any and every group! Below are our initial conclusions. Maybe we need a Dads For Apple Pie? “Liberty” is so ambiguous: Do what you like; no government interference, whatsoever.

Good & Bad of ‘Moms For Liberty’

Banning books. OK if the books have immoral content, presented to youth.
No LGBTQ advocacy. Excellent, in public schools, to impressionable youth.
Racism. Unacceptable, against blacks or whites or any other color.
No CRT. Good, if actual American history events are not ignored or denied.
Covid restrictions. Responsible government efforts to protect citizens were fine;
In an unprecedented pandemic, doing nothing would have been irresponsible, and never have helped bring about herd immunity.

It is reported that they want trans kids separated in public schools, like some disabled.

REPARATIONS KING: GAVIN NEWSOM

(7/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

Referencing: California Governor Gavin Newsom let his opinion of Texas Governor Greg Abbott and other Republicans be known. “One of the worst crime and murder rates in America and one of the worst mental health records of any governor in America, I’m not so convinced about the merits of his... Show more IGNORE this moron! @GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX EVERYTHING he raises he wants government and taxes to fix, when every responsible person who’s fiscally mature never asks government for any of these things! Texas understand this; California, apparently, doesn’t. Crying Uncle! Wah, wah! GROW UP (and a pair)!

I’ve MAJOR work to do, but THIS gets under my native Texan craw: @GavinNewsom @GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX UNDERSTAND Texas attitude, and if you don’t accept it, that’s your choice, but we love it!: Work hard, pay your own damn bills, and government leave U.S. alone and don’t interfere with our lives!

WE DON’T CARE if our state were to rank LAST on issues that liberals want government to spend taxpayer money to fix, because those issues individuals and families are to pay for by working a j-o-b! @GavinNewsom @GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX We are PROUD businesses love our low Texas taxes!

We are PROUD our economy is #1 or 2 in America! We KNOW most movement is to Texas or FL! Stay away, if you don’t like it here. We can make it without your moving (or illegally breaking in) here to make it blue! @GavinNewsom @GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX SEND YOUR OWN GIFT TO THE FEDS!

We do NOT look to Austin or D.C. to solve any challenges we face. We look to ourselves! PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY. It's what adults and mature people do or at least aspire to! @GavinNewsom @GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX WEAK people look to others, through government, to pay for or fix their issues!

BACK TO WORK, as even Bill Clinton wrote. @GavinNewsom @GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX You want a better lifestyle, reparations King Gavin, GET BETTER JOB SKILLS FOR A BETTER JOB! Don't encourage lazier people to seek handouts for their own private expenses! DON'T MESS WITH TEXAS, Newsom

P.S.: It's NOT racist to say anyone who wants to live in TX, but also wants government help to live (excepting mentally or physically disabled) CAN LIVE SOMEWHERE ELSE, or should be resisted for seeking handouts! @gavinnewsom @GovAbbott @GregAbbott_TX NOT a Texas value; Sixth generation!

I REALLY 'Gotta get to work, BUT Texans see government's role as providing economic opportunity to all its citizens. IF they achieve that potential is 100% up to them, and any unjust impediments government should eliminate. Otherwise, you're on your own, and charities exist. @gavinnewsom

It's REALLY not a Constitutional issue, for a federal case, but the 10th Amendment, interpreted one way, argues for Texas attitude on Socialism. EVEN IF it were the only right interpretation, voters can vote for politicians who do otherwise. Texas and California can be opposites! That's Federalism!

IF California wants to be a Socialist mecca, that's their right. Whats NOT their right is trying to nationally shove that value system onto all states, federally! California taxpayers may be outnumbered, wimpy (for all I know), or make so much they like helping strangers, by force. We Texans do not!

And, for that matter, SINCE this interrupts my work, NO state wants to subsidize any other state. That's how America works, but if we really don't like it, and its every state for itself, some will flourish and some will struggle. Is that what we want? NOT isolationism or Socialism! #Balance

ONLY way Isolationism and Socialism can find common ground is through JUSTICE: All government help gets repaid to taxpayers, once on their financial feet, as they're taught and motivated to spend smart, earn their max, and live within their means! @gavinnewsom @govabbott @gregabbott_TX

California taxpayers might think selves morally superior to TX, because they vote for forcing themselves to fund strangers, but you can send your own gift to government, and NOT force that value system onto your neighbors, and keep that righteous standard without unrighteously forcing others

POLITICIANS & RELIGION

(7/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

ANY claiming "Christian" that just has to hear a GOP candidate say "I will nationally ban abortion," to earn their vote, is NOT an experiential follower of Jesus! IF I could get this tweet to the world, I would do so! Deceived and dumb people think it's that simple. Learn the issue!

NO political candidate is a leader if they are followers of crowds/numbers! This statement applies to everyone running for any public office. If people aren't inspired by your vision and leadership, but are able to sway your convictions to what they want, you are weak and not leading.

Politicians who say what people want to hear, what research says people are interested in, or who project an image they want people to buy are LIARS! I know people accept lying as normal behavior (I work with so many of them!), but IT IS EVIL and God will judge lying. It's a sin!

Update #1: Religion & Politics

(7/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

Pastors OWE their congregants learning how Bible applies in politics! ITS NOT JUST ABORTION and GAYS! Never has been and never will be! God demands we speak on every issue with any moral angle, and be for justice and His values by the FULL counsel of God. Dumb FOOLS do less, all the time.

The ONLY candidates that should EVERY garner Christians' political support is people who know the Bible, know how to apply it in politics, are for justice, solving problems, not favoring the rich or poor, and use logic and can do all this for every topic. NOT single issue panderers!

EVERY group of any size has an agenda they desire and demand pols implement, even though often opposite some other group! I HATE TO DEATH SEEING GOP PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES CODDLING SO-CALLED CHRISTIANS WITH WHAT WORDS THEY CAN SAY TO GET THEIR SUPPORT! Such a mockery! Embarrassing

Let's address "Christofascist." NOT in the MAGA/Chump FALSE religion type, just wanting political policies to lure dumb Christians, but REAL believers role in politics. Flip the script! People who are FOR immoral laws are fascist about their unnamed religion of secularism! #TRUTH!

Update #2: Church & Politics

(8/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

I LOVE how Christians love to tell America to "repent," when God says if Christians will repent, pray, humble themselves and seek His face, He will heal the land they are blaming as needing to repent so problems (moral sickness) will go away! Confused and contradictory! II Chron. 7:14

RICHY RICH?

(6/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

Like EVERY real Christian, I am against both the rich or the poor being favored by any government policy. Sinning apostates, carnals and tares are the claimers of Jesus who disagree with this stated sentiment! Levit. 19:15

Pv. 22:7: "The rich rules over the poor, and the borrower is slave of the lender." This is an observational truth. It is NOT the way god designed or desires public policy to be run, as we learn by also reading Levit. 19:15. Buying off politicians is the sin of bribery! Repent, America!

Update #1

(7/14/23; @JamesMeroney)

What's legal is NOT always what's moral! Christians and God-fearers have to care about the latter; "sinners" do NOT, and get judged! With zero luxuries, and minimal needs met, it is WRONG that the rich get richer as the poor can't even live off a 40-hour wage! Sin, selfishly coveted!

There's ZERO way that a rich American should EVER pay a lower tax percent than a poor one, just as there's ZERO way that any poor person should ever pay nothing, or not their fair share! Justice or bust—for EVERYONE. Evil people fight justice, and get judged by God, someday! Repent!

IT IS SO EASY for D.C. politicians to believe that since the rich pay in such large sums, compared to everyone else (even if all tax percents were the same) they deserve more preference in public policy. Bull honkey! God says they're to give back, and to never favor the rich or poor!

I've a particular disdain for over-paid CEO's, who DON'T allow profit-sharing, always seek to cut jobs, wages and costs, at the expense of "the little guy," and average Joes. Jesus did NOT cater to, but criticized the high and mighty above all else! Christians must do the same, so I will

(7/17/23; @JamesMeroney)

Look: I'M ON VACATION, so I REALLY have no patience writing on this! But, it is essential. TAXES.

1. No one wants to pay them
2. Everyone will try anything legal to minimize them
3. Unfair taxes anger all others the most! Let's get specific, for rich, poor and the middle class!

IF God means ANYTHING to any American, fair taxes are mandatory! Anytime anyone gets a break from paying that, that's a problem, as everyone else will want or envy it! Fair is fair—NO exceptions! What is fair? Is 10% of all income levels fair? Is a progressive tax system fair?

The problem is the very poor class can't afford 10% in taxes. BUT they MUST do that equivalent sacrifice in mandatory civic service! And should any millionaire or billionaire EVER pay a lower tax percent than all others? Absolutely NOT! God is Who you are sinning against, and cheating!

I FULLY understand the rich's argument, that they deserve loopholes, exceptions, and favors, because of the size of their tax payments, compared to everyone else. But IF all Americans had to pay the exact same percent, that excuse fails!

They'll still argue they provide people jobs, which brings in more to government by taxes on their employees. So they want compensation for that benefit by tax breaks. and there are some U.S. businesses that pay ZERO in taxes.

ALL THESE EXCEPTIONS ARE EVIL! Fair share—period. It's a privilege to do business in America! Justice is required!

And to EVERY rich person, IF your taxes were fair (not excessive), God also says YOU are to give back (voluntarily) to society! It makes total sense that you average 2% to everyone else's 3%, because you pay in such large sums. But percents, NOT amounts, are all that matter as to justice.

YES, you earned it, legally! But whether it was God or Satan who made you rich, you have life GOOD! No real worries, whatever you want, it's yours. STOP THE DAMN COMPLAINING ABOUT TAXES! Deaf ears, when you look out at how the lower 99% live! NO mercy deserved—period!

Just pay your damn fair share—period! And for the poor: ABSOLUTELY NO POOR PERSON of any means can get off Scot free, paying nothing! They have NO skin in the game! They can just vote for more government spending of others' hard-earned money. THAT IS EVIL and THAT MUST STOP! #Justice

The ONLY issue is whether America has a flat or progressive tax, to be fair. No matter which, the rich are only taxed on their income—not their nest egg (except when it grows interest, or they die). and there are ways to hide income, to be paid less. NO ONE LIKES PAYING TAXES! Deal with it.

It's your duty to God, even if you don't know or even believe in Him! Do your duty, and quit shirking it, or trying to! BUT, when government wastes money, NO WONDER the rich don't 'wanna pay their fair share! NO ONE likes investing in failed propositions, or waste! THAT has to be fixed, FIRST! You can't ask any American to pay for things that aren't the best the government can do!

No waste; prioritized; streamlined; best bang for the buck; efficient. I want it totally revamped and audited and made to run like something to be proud of! And as to the poor paying taxes: YOU MUST BE FORCED TO FEEL THE EXACT SAME SORROW and PAIN on April 15th AS A BILLIONAIRE!

I care that you're struggling, but I don't care that you have to feel this pain! Whether by civic service, or money, you MUST pay your fair share—period! NO exceptions! #Justice

THIS is where the rubber hits the road (or better, something hits the fan): Flat tax or staggered/progressive tax, as fair? Flat IS fair, if everyone has to pay in, and no one ever gets any legal breaks from paying it! I am FOR a flat tax IF it covers our bills, the poor pay it, and no one ever gets any exception, after government is set up properly.

BUT until then, we have a progressive tax system. So, all the loopholes get interjected! NO rich American should EVER pay a lower percent than a secretary, as Warren Buffett said! Common sense!

Fix our federal government, and then move to a flat tax that everyone fully pays. After that, the rich should donate, to obey God! Many won't, but the rest of U.S. have to pressure them to do that duty, if we get to a flat tax, after government is run as I would, as a business person—MBA/BBA/JD.

You really can't have alterations to a progressive system that are fully fair, as fair would only be those perks equaling a flat tax. The reason I've opposed a flat tax, previously, is government is never reimagined to run as I envision, first, and the poor always want to opt out claiming inability to pay, or afford paying as personal debt or a loan. CIVIC SERVICE IS THE COMMON SENSE ANSWER!

You can opt for paying money, civic service, or a combo of both, but you need to pay your fair share, too! Our tax code should be EASY to understand—not hire experts!

IF you understand 1040 forms, there are GREAT reasons for almost all the line items! It's NOT a quick fix, where an imaginary post card will suffice for sending in with your IRS payment! But much simpler is needed, like a flat percent, once we know how much is needed! How much?

THIRTY PERCENT FEDERAL BUDGET CUTS ARE VERY DOABLE, if not a slight bit more! BUT, don't do anything drastic, but incrementally! Don't rely on firings, or cutting services! Start with a 100% audit by an independent, objective professional team! First, find all waste, abuse and fraud!

Then, prioritize. Then automate, motivate, restructure job descriptions, cross train, incentivize productivity, and address military, entitlements, Social Security and Medicare. I can find 20-30% cuts in ALL those things, over time! You have to have a booming economy based on innovation and global sales!

That starts by the citizenry believing their government isn't taking them to the cleaners as those in charge live high on the hog! Get government spending under control, where anyone but extremists would say its run as a fair institution, and the economy improves, and people pay their fair share, unhappily and begrudgingly, but not complaining that it's unfair.

I've already written on revamping entitlements. What about the military, Social Security and Medicare? The military MUST do the most with the least needed. That means cutting edge tech, that relies less on payroll/manpower. Preventing wars, and ending them quickly (UNlike Ukraine) is how!

Social Security? Some age date cutoff has to begin the process of lowered expectations, either as to amounts received, or retirement age. Age 30 is clearly fair warning, maybe older. And NO one should ever use Medicare if they don't need it, either medically or even financially.

YES, they paid in, but it is not quid pro quo! IF IT WAS, you'd only get out of it what you put in. Facts are that's not how it always operates! And medical costs of it must be reduced! No more bilking the government.

I 100% understand, at some price point, people whose nest eggs exceed a certain figure will be weaned off using Medicaid. As with most things, that usually needs to be graduated, so it's not one magical number, but a range! Staggered, so it's not a radical break from the past. Moderation.

And I HOPE people under age 30 can have Social Security! If we did these adjustments, along with having the number one economy in the world (never to be number two again), it should be financeable! Until then, invest wisely, people under age 30! I am fighting to keep your Social Security!

A complete house cleaning in D.C. is mandatory, for these fixes to take place! NOT necessarily ANYONE leaving D.C., but their old attitudes being rebuked out of their bodily systems! Buy into this plan, or may constituents ruin your lucrative careers! It is just, and you may be EVIL!

One final word: ALL these changes have to be graduated into implementation, over time, just as our national debt MUST come down, so we can have a balanced budget, over time. Put those timeframes into a bill that gets passed in a 2024 administration! Implement in stages. Get 'er dun!

P.S.: IS IT JUST for the quite rich to be gradually cut off of Medicare they paid into? Not really! But, they can use that sacrifice as their voluntary give back to society, God demands! Charities also need to be run like a business; not the elites skimming off the top, and those for whom they were created getting scraps.

And it is NOT government's business, but IF I ever become a politician, and I ever hear of any corrupt business, or poorly run company, I'll personally visit it to get its house in order! You hurt America when you run your business poorly, and when you screw the little guy.

Update #3: The Rich & Taxes/Politics

(7/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

Objective vs. subjective (God cares about the former): Is rich people mainly controlling who we get to vote for (politicians) a problem? IF it is for their causes, vs. America's as a whole—YES! That's injustice. If for moral causes, NO. Your OPINION on the question must match God's!

ECONOMY ISSUES (II)

(7/13/23; @JamesMeroney)

I am quite proud to have come up with this list (and the one, following), today, inbetween my hectic work schedule.

Centrist Economic Mechanisms
Taxes as low as needed
Spending as little as necessary
Government streamlined to the max for best bang for the buck
Innovation to the maximum
Enough jobs available for Americans (vs. mainly outsourced)
Curbed immigration (those our economy needs)
Responsible birth control families can afford (vs. too many workers)
AI and robotics global leaders, but not to replace all jobs
World-class education of our workforce
Global growth of U.S. businesses and products
Decreased national debt, toward a balanced federal budget
Maximized workforce productivity, though rewarded accordingly
Reduced failed companies
Ending politics entering business
Decreasing college costs for more affordability and less out of control price increases
Increased skills training for non-college workers

COMMON SENSE TAXES & GOVERNMENT SIZE

(7/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

The rich have ZERO God-based reason to rule America! Justice and moral principles must, as we honor God by our lives, NOT because were a "Christian" nation, but because every soul is accountable to God to live morally! Every business should consider profit-sharing, according to the contribution of each employee!

God is NOT likely to EVER come down and send lightning strikes on bad businesses and evil executives! He has left that job mainly with government, whistleblowers, and voters, who also do online reviews, or sue. FIX THE PROBLEMS!

And as to the UN, or any world economic entity, or anyone calling for one-world government, or universal standards on LGBTQ, wars, climate change, or anything else, America WILL DO WHAT'S IN

ITS BEST INTERESTS, as every nation should, and well NEVER bow to anything or anyone but that!
Justice

I am SO angry, and ready to go back to my vacation! The solutions are so easy! IDIOTS rule the way things are, in so many cases! Balderdash! NO ONE RULES but just people, whose concern is for U.S.A. #1, and for EVERYONE in U.S.A., and not anti- other nations, either.

EVERYONE wants a way to pay less taxes, as everyone would want the amount they give Uncle Sam in their own bank account, like a raise. WHO GIVES A and%#@ what you WANT? Whats fair? Our country will die if we keep chasing selfish, unprincipled lives and public policies! Guaranteed!

I am ready to proverbially torch the D.C. governmental system! It is SO selfishly biasedly corrupt! Does anyone care? Just let me work my job; those concerns are above my pay grade? ANATHEMA!

HERE is THE problem in America: If we all were required to pay all our own bills, many don't earn enough to do so, if they suffer any unexpected financial losses, like getting cancer, or inability to work for awhile! Justice has to solve those cases, too!

IF we ever get to a single bracket federal income tax, and any rich person ever claims they gave millions, when other gave hundreds, so they have a greater stake, or deserve more from government, it's NOT the amount but the same percent, so everyone expects the same out of government!

THE RICH & GIVING BACK

(7/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

I need to mow, but it must be said: IF you're a multi-millionaire or more, able to comfortably retire off conservative interest from your nest egg, God says you MUST be generous to others/society. You need the LEAST help from government. Think of others, selfish ASSES! Yes I said it.

THIS message is for America's rich and poor, then everyone else. IF you feel singled/called out, JUST WAIT. Your opposites' is coming! The Bible says DON'T favor rich or poor. How does what God says affect America? For religious people, a lot; For everyone else, justice and common sense and common decency demand it; Levit. 19:15

WHO favors the poor? Doesn't everyone disdain them? Pv. 19:7 Democrats favor them, FOR VOTES, and to feel morally good about themselves—caring for people outside themselves and their own family! HOW do they unjustly favor them? Stealing for handouts

ANY human with an ounce of HUMANity left in their adult bodies will naturally have compassion about the plight of the poor! Heartless, selfish SOBs could care less, and God will judge them! But I'll get to them, later. There are poor who are lazy. There are poor who are disabled.

There are even poor who wrote full-time for 26 years, for free. and there are poor who are hard working. There are even homeless poor. WHAT should be done about their poverty? Jesus said we will always have poverty! Mt. 25:40 But severe poverty the Bible addresses curing! The Jews had a safety net, and so does America. Instead of widening or wasting it, whats needed is exactly this:

1. Every homeless person decide if they want to be free to run and roam, remaining homeless. Nothing needs be done for those types, save through charity.
2. Homeless wanting a way out need our current safety net reimagined to ONLY be an empowerment program! And when any accessing it get on their own two financial feet, they pay back, either tokenly, or by civic service, if not funds.

3. Every poor person must maximize their God-given potential, and learn to live within their means! Skills improvement can be part of a reimagined safety net. and this:

- a) Buying skills
- b) Budgeting skills
- c) Job matching and networking/connecting
- d) Interview training
- e) Job search skills
- f) Dress for success training
- g) Motivation

THIS is all government must do to alleviate severe poverty in America.

And public policy MUST provide maximum good-paying jobs. Profit-sharing should be encouraged, and fair wages. NO taking advantage of people by having too many people in America for too few jobs. Wages people with NO luxuries can pay their bills with.

Now to the job makers: The rich. GOD SAYS MOST OF YOU WILL BURN IN HELL FOREVER. Mt. 19:24 So you better enjoy your advantages, now, as there are NONE when you die! And in your pursuit of riches, God may slay you! Lk. 12:20 You need to get saved, if you aren't, yet! Hell is real fire!

Any rich person in America got there by inheritance or hard work. IF legally gained, it's all their money. BUT God says the rich are obligated to give back! I Tim. 6:17-19 DO SO! Don't selfishly hoard, or be greedy! America worships riches! We make the rich heroes. THEY ARE NOT, folks!

God says they have a LOW position in life. Jas. 1:9 Again, what does it matter what God says, if you don't care about Him? Normal, common sense Americans KNOW it may be legal, but it's NOT right that 1% owns 50% of Americas wealth, or that CEO salaries are now 399:1 to workers, when it used to be much less.

Everyone who is not ultra-rich has to pressure the selfish rich to give. Philanthropic rich are OFF THE HOOK! You are the true heroes in life, because wherever you learned it, you comprehend some of your excess can do good in the world all others can't afford.

Let me zoom in a little bit. The sin of pride creeps in, with wealth, and you 'wanna remain on the Forbes riches list, for EGO. You've lived my investing's motto—never lose money. I'm here to say, LOSE MONEY to charitable causes! God says he will reward you for that!

And again, who cares what He thinks, if you don't believe in or value Him? Society/others value and honor rich who give back! You can have enough! That means you can also have too much! Give some away! I've given away 26 years of my life, at whatever salary id have earned. I can say to you, GIVE IT AWAY!

You can spoil heirs, and that's a "sin" (that means it's wrong). Warren Buffett is one who understands these concepts. Many schmucks fight taxes, even illegally, and all their efforts are in getting more. The rich get richer, easier is WRONG and unjust! Care about others! Phil. 2

Leave an inheritance, but I relish in the fact that an estate tax forces you to be generous, as God demanded, when you die! Your accumulation will be squandered in two generations. You'll raise lazy kids and grandkids if all you do is give it all to them! Be moral!

Your yacht doesn't impress God. Your butlers, mansions, jet set lifestyle, caviar and champagne lifestyle ENDS! Then you face your Maker, and I am warning you it will NOT be good for you; NOT a pleasant experience, or eternity! STOP using politicians and government policies for self as god of your corrupt life!

I don't give one damn if today's message hurts my donor recruitment effort! God will lead me to the fewer morally good rich heroes! I'll never back down from saying what I just wrote. I'd be apostatizing/backsliding. You may hate me for it, but God backs me up, and will judge you. Repent.

I misused "flat tax" term, previously, when I means same percentage federal income tax. I am FOR progressive taxes, UNTIL the budget is streamlined, and all loopholes eliminated. When government is minimized, and all in America pay taxes, I'm FOR a flat income tax percentage for all! Not before then

NATIONS, REPENTANCE & JUDGMENT

(7/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

ALL humans have free will. Their decisions can either conform to God's will/word, or not. Lost people don't have the spiritual power to obey God in the right way (through relationship), but can make Bible-consistent moral choices, and it's their duty to do so, but NOT to earn heaven!

EVERY human WILL face God in judgment of their deeds (accountability)! For Christians, it's ONLY for eternal rewards. For lost people, for severity of punishment, though hell's equal for all of them, as their forever destiny.

Why choose good deeds? Less pain and punishment in this life? Generally, the more moral lost people live and choose, the better and longer type of life they'll live in this life. Degrees of punishment in hell is likely true, though the evidence is sparse. It does comport with God's sense of justice. But lost people doing good isn't to avoid hell!

Nations differ in how God sees them as a whole! He observes more good and more evil nations, than others, by comparison to each other and to His word. America was founded on Judeo-Christian values, but isn't a Christian nation like Saudi Arabia is a Muslim nation! They're NOT the same, and the overlap is unofficial!

MESSAGE FOR ALL: For any nation to "repent," or return to God, would imply they had once been close to Him! Only in Adam are some people having a return to a former state. Many nations wouldn't be returning, but meeting Him for the first time. They ALL need to! Therefore, repent!

However, any nation got to where it is, to the degree it is morally imperfect, collectively it needs to repent! North Korea is far away from God, in its so-called "leadership." There are degrees of separation from Him! Not all nations are so far away. They ALL must come closer!

The Bible states that God will judge the nations. Your involvement in your nation is part of your own judgment, or personal accountability to and before God, which all will face! What type of country have your efforts produced?

Politics is MUCH more than expressing YOUR way you want your country to be run. For the Christian, it is an act of worship, and Christ's prayer fulfillment! 'Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven.' Not perfectly, and the Millennium much more, but as much as is in your power.

Christians will be held personally responsible/accountable for how they exercised their rights to vote, and engaged politics, including both who they voted for and what policies they supported. The Bema Judgment accounts for every deed in a believer's life! II Cor. 5:10, etc.

IMO, the vast silent and 'moral' majority (relatively speaking; not perfectionism) is SLOW to respond to cultural activism! Obergefell passed, and just NOW we're fighting its woke implications. 2020 riots occurred, and NOW Jason Aldean's song comes out. Much water under the bridge! Be vigilant!

In fighting cultural rot, in case, like most people, you aren't an expert, or full-time employed in political endeavors, ASSUME someone is covertly trying to push their evil agenda on someone, somewhere, to garner critical mass support. Be always on the watch, watchmen! Evil lurks!

Be ever vigilant to defend against anyone or any movement seeking to divide Americans, bankrupt or otherwise destroy America, change America into some other nation's image, turn Americans against love for America, or infiltrate Communist or terrorist interests into our great U.S.A.!

Each U.S. Christian has only one vote, obviously. Instead of striving to shove your beliefs onto strangers, engage people in un-heated conversations, and try to find ways to influence and convince them to the right ways, through behavior, words and voting. NOT by demanding your views be made the law.

GLOBAL VISION (III)

(8/7/23; @JamesMeroney)

What poor nations need to become first or second world:

No matter who they are, every government is responsible for bringing their people to a better place/situation in life, through educational and economic opportunities! A dumb and broke populous will only be a drain, if not a bankrupting failure to any regime!

At a minimum, God says all people need food and covering. I Tim. 6:8 That's clothes and sustenance; not even a promised place to lay one's head (like Jesus).

Just above that biblically minimum standard ('the poor you have with you always'), they need a domicile, job, some education, enough preventative care not to prematurely die, unnecessarily, and a sewage system, fresh water and even electricity and hardened roads for whatever transportation, would be ideal.

HOW would poor nations gain these things, with competition for sometimes limited resources? Their leaders have to find assets for bargaining natural resources, land or land access, people as laborers, or allying for political power in exchange for aid.

When you're bottom rung on the economic totem pole, you do what you have to to rise up, or you accept homelessness and survivalist living! Certainly America has and does do more than its fair share of aid.

We need justice, or getting something in exchange for it! Not exploitative, but more justice for our acts of mercy, as that's in our national interest. and(voluntary) donated funds need to increase the supply to these needs.

The people have to help themselves and if any person or group/tribe, or nation decides they choose and freely want a primitive way of life, LET THEM! No one needs to go in there and colonize, or force more primitive existences to modernize, if the natives/people are happy and voluntarily choosing their lifestyle.

The poor people of North Korea have NOT chosen their lot in life, but resigned themselves to what's been forced upon them for decades. They should NOT have to live like that, or be forced into their current existence!

DESATANTIST

(8/14/23; @JamesMeroney)

Bill Clinton was railed against as someone with an index finger to the wind, as a focus group panderer. Now Ron DeSATANist is told to shift gears/pivot from his extremism, and people who bow to others' whims, instead of having convictions, will TELL YOU ANYTHING/lie! Juan Williams

Ron DeSATANist said get rid of all RINOs. NOW, when funders tell him to moderate (be less extreme), he's changing his tune a little. THAT'S THE VERY DESCRIPTION OF A CONVICTIONLESS SOUL who will do and say anything for self advancement! Am I the only one who sees this? Juan Williams

Referencing:

(3/5/21; @JamesMeroney)

CHUMP and DeSATAN have made an ultimatum: GOP's are either for him, or for Dems! They're trying to push all RINOs out of power! They aren't even opposing Dems, but GOP's, presently! Make the choice he wants made one way or the other! Unite to destroy satan's man in 2022 and 2024! That's rational!

RINOs need to leave, DeSATAN? Happily! So your cult will burn in flames by everyone else uniting to defeat you, even as we will have total opposites in that unity! NOT uniformity, but united for one cause—your forever demise, liars and idiots, along with your evil ideology of hate, division, arrogance and bullying.

RESPONDING TO VIVEK

(8/18/23)

RE:

TRUTH.

1. God is real.
2. There are two genders.
3. Human flourishing requires fossil fuels.
4. Reverse racism is racism.
5. An open border is no border.
6. Parents determine the education of their children.
7. The nuclear family is the greatest form of governance known to mankind.
8. Capitalism lifts people up from poverty.
9. There are three branches of the U.S. government, not four.
10. The U.S. Constitution is the strongest guarantor of freedoms in history.

1. WHICH "god" do you reference? There is ONLY one God, and His Name is Jesus.
2. Flourishing does NOT require only fossil fuels, nor their polluting or destroying our environment, unnecessarily. We also have the capacity to eventually mainly use them for derivatives, as green technology advances.
3. An open border is still a line in the sand, just not an effective deterrence to illegal entry.

4. Parents do determine their kid's education, BUT the government and society have a valid and vested interest in ensuring ALL American children receive quality education! There should be standards, when educating is not done by professionals, or is done away from any accountability to any outside academic entity.
5. The nuclear family is this great governing model, but only when it is functional. And non-traditional family units can also function as well as traditional nuclear families, even as they sometimes can be in disobedience to God's structure and model of existence.
6. Capitalism CAN lift people out of poverty. It can also keep people in poverty, when businesses do everything in their power to pay the lowest wages and no benefits, so one has little opportunity to get better skills or education, because they're working endless hours, just to try to pay all their required bills. Capitalism also can empower greed, selfishness, hoarding, the love of money, and the rich being disobedient to the god you reference, by never giving back. I Tim. 6:17-19, etc.
7. The Constitution is what you say, but is not perfect, and the Bible is a far superior work of writing, though we do not live in a theocracy, where it is the law of the land.

Update

CHRISTIANS: DO NOT BE DECEIVED! Vivek says he "shares Christian values," then calls for ending America's special relationship with Israel. Jesus warned us of wolves in sheep's clothing (even tennis shorts)! (8/22/23)

It is ALWAYS UN-fair to change the rules in the middle of the game! This guy has TERRIBLE positions! Report: Vivek Ramaswamy, has proposed raising the voting age from 18 to 25 unless you pass a test. (8/21/23)

AI, SOCIETY & PROPHECY

(8/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

A BIG, wide-ranging and convoluted chapter coming: I just had a dream I was in college, at an oil refinery field trip, and I forgot my shoes, so the professor and I returned to the hotel, and I asked him, "if we can't do much to change oil's polluting, why should we care?"

Then, two hours later, I had a dream about Elon's AI customer service technology imitating sales people's responses to inquirers. The subject becomes where are we going with space travel, AI, attempts to put oil out of business, and where do politicians draw lines regulating, to keep people having jobs?

Let's parse this dream in pieces. There are movements (even found in a recent TV ad) to END oil! That's the goal of some people! What do you think my hometown of Houston thinks of their dreams? We'll fight it tooth and nail! NO ONE wants anyone else encroaching on their livelihood!

Exxon is venturing out and experimenting with green energy (algae?), and Shell claims a much cleaner gasoline, presently, but their core business is drilling and fracking oil! As we run out of it at shallow, easy to find levels, it becomes more expensive and complicated to secure!

I had a neighbor who designed software to "see" through the earth to identify pockets where oil was geologically more likely than not. You could interview sewing machine industry employees: People do NOT like government allowing their industries to die!

And AI could easily destroy many jobs, but politicians can and should NEVER allow AI to 100% do so! Just yesterday, a driverless car wrecked with a fire truck. Our technology is NOT perfected, can cause problems, and even so, taxi and 18-wheeler drivers have legitimate concerns such technologies could end their careers!

Zuckerberg proposed $30K per person, to do nothing, so these giant corporations could just pursue profits, without any restrictions. There is NO WAY I'm ever going to allow anyone to force me to try to live on $30K, nor to allow an elite few to make billions as they pay folk $30K! WAR is guaranteed, if so.

Then we have chases to have sub and space tours, so people with already too much money can just keep making more money, rather than obey God and give some of it up. Yes, these space billionaires choose that industry because the rich will fork out $400K to see the earth from just outside our atmosphere, so profits can be had by the few companies catering to the rich's fantasies, pleasures and luxuries.

We are NOT 'gonna colonize the Moon or Mars for valuable purposes for those of us who remain in earth! Period. Joy rides and fantasy trips, to say we can? Maybe!

Add in global competition from, at best, frienemy nations like China, as well as less frienemy Russia, and there's incentive to secure space and plants from attacks from such players. I don't know where my two dreams lead me, but I do know AI can NEVER end needed industries, make America where every American who wants a job can't have one, because some robot has it, and that any who aren't content with $30K free money a year, in exchange for doing nothing, are forced to accept that type of society!

New technologies are GOOD, when they do things humans don't want to. They're BAD when they do things humans want to do or get paid to do! It's not easy changing professions, especially at older ages, and I guarantee you fights and wars will erupt if all these changes lead to that! Long haul and Uber/Lyft/taxi drivers might be ground zero!

And as for big oil, them dabbling in green technology and sourcing is NOT their core competence, so they are NOT going to become solar, wind, and geothermal leaders, anytime soon. naturally, they're going to FIGHT pushes to end their businesses/industry!

Whether there is climate change or not, they will always argue (with scientific back-up) against it being real, just as people who hate pollution, or big oils influence in Washington DC, are always going to try to put fossil fuels to rest/out to pasture.

I leave my two early-morning dreams with very few takeaways, except that AI cannot be allowed to ruin industries and careers, except if doing so makes life better, and transitioning replaced workers happens and is paid for by AI developers. Big oil should NEVER go away completely, as many products we rely on come from derivatives!

IF science invents artificial replacements, perhaps those could substitute. Big oil would do great for themselves to pay for tech that prevents blowouts, seepage and dirty runoff, and keeps black smoke from billowing into our skies, if they don't want people wanting them dead, as an industry, to win!

The people HAVE to/must/are required to start thinking about these things, lest elites force a worse world onto your everyday lives! Laws will be needed to curb anyone owning so much, that others are forced onto a set amount a year, paid to do nothing, if you don't like that existence!

I can't even hope this message was very helpful, as its conclusions were few, but anytime any technology replaces jobs, society has to track what happens to the displaced workers, and care about how they rebound!

Finally. 666 is swiftly coming! BEWARE that all these new technologies are one day relatively soon going to be used for evil. A world where every business transaction requires you to have imbedded ID in your hand or head, to be able to deposit or withdraw "money"/currency, or have a job that pays you, or a business that pays others, or to buy and sell, as consumers.

It will require your total allegiance to one man, reinforced and enforced by images of him (likely Laser/AI robot statues) able to kill any who don't. It sounds fantastical; NOT fantastic. BUT, YOU will live through it, if you're still alive and you never do what's below! [Gospel meme attached]

Update

Let's play this out a little more: IF AI were full-blown, with no regulations, businesses aren't stupid enough to cut off their clients who make them profits, so some people outside their business would still retain jobs, beyond just the AI or robot owners.

So not all jobs will get replaced! In fact, Rev 17 indicates there are poor and rich, and that society era will flourish (one-world government days). So prophecy will intervene before AI takes over jobs, in a percent where Zuckerberg's $30K plan would be enforced, UNLESS the Bible refers to those recipients as the poor of Rev 17.

And no war is spoken of between business and labor, so it's reasonable to expect prophecy to start before AI gets totally out of control in putting millions out of a job. Interesting insight as to its possible timing! Still, laws ARE needed, to protect all citizens.

CHRISTIANS & CONSERVATISM (I)

(8/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

I see it as clear as a bell, though it is not always that easy to discern, when you live by what you see: Political conservatism does NOT come from the Bible, BUT it sells itself as directly compatible with God. Let me explain, in this Sunday sermon:

IF you start with the premise that your political beliefs come NOT from church, or reading the Bible, but from talk radio, and you hear things from preachers that sometimes mirror political conservatism, you can make the false inference they're the same! Especially when the beliefs of the left that are unbiblical get railed against.

The relation between Jesus and politics gets VERY blurred, especially when you never read the Bible much, and feel good about yourself because you attend church! YOU CAN LIVE A WORLDLY AND CARNAL lifestyle, as a believer, and so long as you attend church, and maybe "tithe," you'll NEVER hear ANY criticism from any humans on the right, and you will never hear God, either, because you can't!

WHERE is political conservatism anti-God? That's a preposterous claim, right? After all, it's for opposing homosexuality and abortion. Those two issues are CLEARLY pro-God and pro-Bible! And the left is FOR LGBTQ constituents, including their sex perversions, and for killing babies, some even up to the point of birth. SO THE ISSUE IS SETTLED! Good & religious people are GOP, and bad, evil people are on the left, right? NO.

The left has some morally and biblically-consistent policies! They want our environment preserved, vs. pillaged. They care about creatures God created humans as stewards of (anti-animal abuse, etc.). They don't just lock them up and throw away the keys, but like Jesus, in Mt. 25, they care for those in prison to receive justice, even behind bars, and oppose all police brutality and abuse.

They actually, tangibly care that the people Jesus cared the most about (besides kids), the lowly, do OK. They don't just allow themselves to live lives chasing money (anti-Bible), and never care about others (completely opposite Phil. 2, and with self as god as a key sin feature, in the Bible—living for self, vs. denying yourself daily).

YES, the left has their sins, too! Wanting to, if not even enjoying killing innocents, perverted sex acts and gender confusion.

But when it comes to taxes, the real moral distinctions arise! The conservative never wants one penny helping others. BUT, God's model for society (as shown by the Jewish nation) had a safety net!

Liberals want it to be HUGE, and violate II Th. 3:10. The difference is does the Bible teach every man for himself/am I my brother's keeper, or bleeding heart liberalism? NEITHER, and balance. Gal. 6:2, 5. We are to pull our own weight. Leftists DON'T advocate for that, but taxpayers always helping more and more, the poorer and non-taxpayers (their constituents and voters).

Conservatives always teach "its my money," the fruits of my labor, personal property, and my freedom as to how I use and spend it (denying I Tim. 6:17-19 for the rich)!

And if one argues any government help of anyone should, biblically, be a private decision (i.e., charitable giving/philanthropy), and never "confiscated" by force, like taxes, statistics prove that's OFTEN used as a cover to do little-to-nothing of the sort, but to hoard, selfishly, from greed and love of money (four sins in a row, biblically).

Our society teaches that the ideal life is the high lifestyle! The American Dream. Get all you can, sell all you can, and can the rest. The ONLY difference between that attitude/value/belief system and a Laodicean (worldly/materialistic) one is that carnal and worldly Christians go to church, and says they're for Jesus!

What did Jesus Himself say about that? The Bible speaks of having a form of godliness, but denying its power. Denying Jesus His rightful Lordship over their lives! Jesus Himself decried those who audibly say, "Lord, Lord," but didn't DO what He said/taught.

Even the Great Commission says Christians are to make disciples (of all men, evangelizing first), "teaching them to do all I have commanded." That means anyone who is not habitually and increasingly imitating Jesus, in their behavior, is NOT following Jesus!

For example, Jesus said, "follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men (evangelists)." ANY claiming "Christ follower" who is not regularly evangelistic is a liar (a sin). And even that "Lord, Lord" passage shows that these false brethren/tares/wolves, or mere worldly carnals can do miracles, and prophesy in Jesus' Name, yet, HE NEVER KNEW THEM! That means miracles can be performed by lost people deceived that they're saved, when they are not saved!

My point is that politics is an act of worship, but it is and can never be such when it is ever practiced in an ungodly manner, or for ungodly policies! Letting culture control your life values, more than Christ, makes one Laodicean, and worldly! Such beliefs as the purpose of life is for you to have happiness. The pursuit of happiness/freedom. The purpose of life is making money, as is the purpose of business, so business must be favored, by government, over labor. FALSE!

A cursory skim of God's word would lead you to many verses on justice, but just start with Levit. 19:15! And on getting rich as the goal of life, READ Lk. 12:15 and Pv. 23:4-5. Mt. 6:33 teaches a claiming Christian life's value system! Seeking God, AND HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS! And the Great Commission teaches claiming Christians what actions are most important to God, for them, besides morality!

DO POLITICAL CONSERVATIVES preaching God DO God's morals, teachings, and ministry activities (like fishers of men, and making disciples taught to obey all Jesus' commands), DAILY (Lk. 9:23), or, instead, do they obey culture, and fit into a system of get all you can, quit work as soon as possible, and live it up, and let others serve your wants and needs, vs. being servants, who will receive the greatest rewards, because their minds are not on the things below, but they're living for the life to come, with its rewards?

THIS is the difference between political conservatism and biblical Christianity! Carnality and worldliness is lived, tolerated, and even empowered, so long as you mention 'God' in even anti-biblical political stances!

And when ANY preacher implies these two belief systems are 100% compatible, they're apostate! Prophecy foresaw The Apostasy would come!

One P.S.: When claiming "Christians" empower, support and cheer sinning, you know they're part of The Apostasy! It is NOT just policies that matter. It is obeying the Bible, which tells Christians to abstain from evil, and THIS is what politicians we are to support: Ex. 18:21-22 NOT THIS (See: The Case Against Trump, at page 412.

WHY SO MUCH EVIL?

(8/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

There is SO much evil in our world, people often ask why?

1. We live on a fallen world, since Adam
2. Satan has been loosed, with a short time before his demise
3. Sin will be increased, just before prophecy arrives.

But WHY do we choose evil so often (besides it as our nature)?

1. Sin is passing pleasure, and we live for the short-term
2. Our minds are on the temporal, vs. eternal rewards
3. There is no fear of God before their eyes. We think we are getting away with it, because God hasn't judged us yet, and may not until the next life
4. Others are doing it, and competition society makes you not want to be different/stick out
5. We do things if we think we can get away with them and not get caught, or there are no punishments/enforcements, or if the payoff seems greater
6. We DON'T absorb the Bible, regularly
7. We don't care a lot about thinking about or teaching about morals, and have bought into a lie that they are all subjective and relative.
8. Man has free will (including Christians)
9. Laws are not always enforced
10. Public schools rarely teach civics or ethics courses, as mandatory

ALL these reasons are why our society has become so God-awful wicked. Even if you observe claiming Christians, disappointment will befall your observations, regularly!

We are on desperate need of repentance, by which I do mean we come to ourselves and realize the vile ways we have been living, and decide we are not going to continue down that immoral path.

Our nation, as a whole, requires that decision, as does every human being on this fallen earth!

CONSERVATISM TAKEN TO ITS LOGICAL CONCLUSIONS

(8/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF we define "conservatism" as maximizing one's wealth (as we should define it), these issues would be acceptable to a political conservative (IF morality played NO role):

1. Defund many government programs
2. No taxes
3. Don't pay your taxes, if there are taxes
4. Child labor
5. Sweat shops
6. Heck, why not slavery (free labor?)
7. Defraud the public, as a business, if you can get away with it (NO regulations, consumer protections, truth in advertising laws, or product or workplace safety laws, etc.)
8. Over-work labor, and pay LESS than minimum wage
9. End minimum wage
10. Work employees 39 hours (so you don't owe benefits)
11. Cut corners
12. No workforce breaks or lunch/dinner breaks
13. NO overtime laws (requiring 1.5 times regular pay)
14. Never advance anyone (except stars)
15. Automate and robotize as many jobs as possible
16. Self-service everything! (no laborers helping customers—DIY!)
17. ALL customer service automated, smart phoned, or on a website for consumers to look up pat answers
18. ALL profits only to management/ownership and shareholders—NEVER bonuses, raises or profit-sharing!
19. Tax fraud schemes and offshore money laundering
20. Hoard everything ONLY for your family and heirs
21. Never give to church or charities
22. Sue anyone who challenges your nest egg or business, as with whistleblowers
23. Outsource labor to wherever decent quality is cheapest in the world
24. Get supplies from cheapest venue for desired quality
25. Hide assets from taxation, and open failed businesses to offset successful ones, tax-wise

26. Pay yourself a small salary, on paper, and give yourself all the company luxuries in the world, as company expenses
27. Buy off politicians favoring these policies
28. Anything goes in attacking and slandering all political views but extreme conservatism; even say the U.S. Constitution demands only it
29. Move away to another nation if conservatism doesn't rule America, and where standards of living and taxes are cheaper; even renounce U.S. citizenship...
30. ALL legitimate lawsuits against business hang up in court, for YEARS, to defund your opposition's budget
31. Hire the best and most ruthless lawyers to defend all these schemes
32. Live away from the public, so you never encounter any needed fallout!

THIS IS IDEAL FAR RIGHT CONSERVATISM!

1. LORDSHIP SALVATION LESSONS

(8/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

Do unsaved people need to turn away from sinning, and apologize to God for their sins? Yes! Do they need to be committed to living holy? Yes. But only the sorrowful asking for forgiveness, in faith, saves. Apology isn't correct term, in context. And sorrow comes from God! Rom. 2:4; II Cor. 7:10

Update #1

(8/22/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF 'repent' meant stop being behaviorally evil, that'd mean to gain heaven lost people would have to choose to disengage/stop bad deeds, in order to receive a free gift. Continuing in them is also not what is addressed to lost people, in the gospel, but their consequences—INITIALLY.

Lost people are out of a relationship with God, and born sinners. A lost person could commit only one sin in their life, and still be guilty of all sins, yet Lordshippers accuse them all of having many sins to stop doing. One or all—it's all the same hell-inducing; it's NOT the number but the existence.

Update #2

(8/25/23; @JamesMeroney)

Jesus' death on the cross paid a penalty for our sins. Anyone with brain waves knows that means sins aren't good, are bad, and deserve punishing. That's NOT encouraging sinning! The penalty of hell is what Jesus paid, which frees all from sins power, when He is inside.

Lordship Salvation's view of lost people surrendering for salvation, like a military victor conquers foes is in conflict with Paul's popular bond slave idea! You aren't conquered to become a slave, but you are FREED, so you voluntarily choose to become a slave! Totally opposite!

Update #3

(9/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

Mk. 8:34-38 Then he called the crowd to Him along with his disciples and said: "Whoever wants to be my disciple [Not get eternal life] must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. [WHY?:] For whoever wants to save their life will lose it [living for Self], but whoever loses their life for me [surrender/sacrifice/commitment] and for the gospel [evangelism] will save it [a worthwhile life lived, vs. wasted; WHY?:]. What good is it for someone to gain the whole world [materialism/worldliness pursuits], yet forfeit their soul? [a life wasted] Or what can anyone give in exchange for their soul? If anyone is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of them when he comes in his Father's glory with the holy angels. SHAME of Christ in sanctification being addressed; Unrewarded.

You ALWAYS have what it takes to go to heaven and to live for God, if you're going! NOT the same. One is a free gift. One is a hard road you are exhorted to choose, but able to reject, and be judged for so doing, as a carnal Christian. Jesus even taught lost people disciple requirements!

Jn. 8:12 Jesus said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." That isn't a prescription for how to go to heaven. It's 100% true! Follow Him and you'll have that, but receive for eternal life. Never receive: hell.

IF lost people followed Jesus' teachings, they would have lives full of light in their decisions and thoughts and likely behaviors. But if they never received Him (unlikely, if they read His word that much to follow), they don't have light/hope for eternity! Sanctification prescription

Jn. 10:1-30 Jesus' sheep know and follow Him. TRUE. That's the supernatural expectation for ALL Christians. BUT, that passage is NOT the only one in the Bible. Carnality and apostasy are also addressed. You need the WHOLE counsel to see the whole picture (forest vs. tree)! Sheep can stray!

Jn. 8:12 Jesus [said] "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." SAME life of light we just addressed. House built on the rock encourages lost people to use the Bible as life's foundation! Doesn't save; works don't.

Mt. 4:19 And He said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men." Spoken to His disciples. BUT, if ANY Christian isn't living as a fisher of men, they aren't following Jesus! A supermajority of Christ claimers rarely evangelize, BUT they claim to follow Him. LIARS! (a sin).

Jn. 1:43 The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow me." Jesus was gathering His full-time ministry laborers. They literally left family and careers, for three years. That's NOT what following Jesus requires, unless He says to do so! Unique people!

Lk. 14:25-27 Large crowds were traveling with Jesus, and turning to them he said: "If anyone comes to Me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters—yes, even their own life—such a person cannot be my disciple. And whoever does not carry their cross and follow Me cannot be my disciple.

This disciple requirement paragraph precedes the Tower Builder parable we already addressed. NO ONE can be a disciple of Jesus if they don't hate fam, by comparison, their life, by comparison, and carry their cross and follow! That's a HIGH standard, but NOT for eternal life and heaven.

Jn. 13:34-35 Christ's disciples are to be known by outsiders by their love for one another. That CAN'T very easily be demonstrated the day one gets saved, to outsiders, because this is a sanctificational effect of salvation, in an engaged vs. carnal believer! Staying in the Bible is too!

Jn. 12:26 If anyone serves Me, he must follow Me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him. IF you want to work for Jesus, follow Him/live morally—first. The reward is God's honor. You will be where He is if you're saved; NOT for following!

It's AMAZING how those three articles use verses from anywhere other than the four gospels, to "prove" disciple requirements! Christians didn't exist in the Old Testament, and the epistles were written to Christians. So they didn't need to learn how to be saved. I only address Mt.-Jn.!

Mt. 28:19-20 Christians aren't just to evangelize! We're to grow up converts into disciples. Pastors are to equip saints (Eph. 4), and relational discipling and daily quiet times mature up babes. The goal isn't just heaven citizens, but living as such!

From my website: Mt. 8:19-22/Lk. 9:57-60 Emotional commitment sobered by priorities and showing the will's limitations. Follow Jesus. Don't brag how committed you're willing to be—follow Jesus. Jn. 12:24-25 [AS JESUS FACED IMMINENT DEATH, THREE YEARS INTO HIS MINISTRY and 11 APOSTLES BEING SAVED]

Jesus replied, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly I tell you, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies [the cross and burial of Jesus, specifically, in context], it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds.

Anyone who loves their life will lose it, while anyone who hates their life in this world will keep it for eternal life [not to get, but unto—the end state]. Whoever serves Me must follow Me; and where I am, My servant also will be. My Father will honor the one who serves Me. [Addressed before]

EVERY SINGLE INCIDENT of Lordship commitment/disciple requirements we JUST addressed, and NONE of them even hint that eternal life is the reward for so doing. Jesus often gave these requirements to SAVED people, three years into ministering with them, just before dying, Lordshippers!

Mt. 10:34-39 (walking worthily, having lost your life finds life; NO salvation requirements mentioned, here!); Mt. 11:28-30 (rest and a light load promised if one comes; NO salvation requirements mentioned, here, Lordship Salvationists! Eternal life not mentioned as the payoff/promise!

Jn. 4:34-36; Mt. 4:4 It's common knowledge: Christians are to imitate Jesus. JESUS HIMSELF said ingesting the Bible was our DAILY sustenance (spiritual bread), and doing God's will was His food/sustenance. If those two things aren't you, you AREN'T following Jesus, but something else! Lk. 9:23

Jn. 6:27; Mt. 6:33; Col. 3:1-4 Christians are not to work for food, as their number one life ambition, but for God's will and holiness. They're NOT to have their heart set down here, but minds set above. IF you aren't living that way, you AREN'T following Jesus, but something else—your flesh!

Jn. 6:35 Coming to Jesus gives people lack of hunger and thirst, and coming to Him gave the weary rest and a light load. Mt. 11:28-30 Jesus often spoke of sanctification, but also salvation. You have to be able to identify the difference. They naturally flow into one another, eventually.

Jn. 6:33 Jesus as the bread of life gives life to all who eat. Again, He references His eternal pre-existence, as God/deity (Cf.: Jn. 3:13; Phil. 2:5-8. You can hardly interpret rightly without cross-references! WHOLE counsel of God; NOT cherry-picking proof texts, or less clear ones.

Faith in Christ saves: Jn. 3:15-18, 36, 5:24, 40 (come to Me), 6:40, 47, 54 (full participation of faith), 7:5, 31; Living water, and no hunger or thirst promised to all who believes, drinks the water He'll give, and comes to Jesus: Jn. 4:14, 6:35, 7:38 Positive sanctification promises.

Mt. 7:29; Jn. 6:66-68, 7:46 People noticed Jesus' unique words of eternal life and with authority! They are what kept Peter from apostatizing, as many disciples had done! If His words were so amazing, WHY do only 13% of U.S. Christians daily/regularly read them—the bread of life?

Jn. 7:48 Even the (lost) Jews knew faith in Christ was where it starts! Jn. 8:2 Coming to Christ can refer to physically or spiritually, in the Bible. Their being a public audience didn't prove they all had believed. Curious/interested listeners, and some sign watchers, too. I LOVE this!

I find it interesting that just after Jesus forgives the woman caught in adultery, and scorches her judging critics, he says sin no more, then speaks of benefits of following Him! Jn. 8:3-12 Once you're forgiven, follow Him, and sin no more: Walking in lights possible when you're saved.

Jn. 8:18, 46 Deity of Christ verses. Christians CAN'T be disciples if they aren't continuing in God's word!

Jn. 8:32, 36, 17:17 The Bible is God's tool for sanctification, and to set you free. 13% of U.S. Christians regularly read it. That's NOT living as disciples, but carnals! You can claim "Christ follower," but the Bible says NOY a disciple!

Modern American Christians LOVE to label themselves Christ followers—NOT disciples or Christians. Jesus said if you follow Me I'll make you fishers of men. ASK ANY SUCH CLAIMERS HOW MANY PEOPLE THEY SPOKE THE GOSPEL TO THIS YEAR! We'll see if their label is lipstick on a carnal pig, or not. Liars?

Jn. 8:51 is a curious verse: WE always define death as physical demise. God says He gives life, and any who aren't walking with Him and in His word are walking dead men—Mt. 4:4/Rom. 8:10-11. Keeping the Bible people will never experience death (fellowship breach). Their bodies will die!

Jn. 8:58 Jesus says He existed before Abraham—422 years earlier (eternal pre-existence of Christ). And Jesus uses God's self appellation: I Am. Ex. 3:14 TWO deity of Christ claims in ONE verse! Jesus was NOT 422 years old, as a human, folks! Eternally existent, before ~2023 years ago.

People came to Jesus for various things promised/offered, but not because they didn't believe in Him. If you do, you come to Him to receive what you're looking for. Some immediately followed; some disciples fell away. Sanctification success isn't guaranteed when one's saved. A choice.

Jn. 11:48, 12:19 Jesus' public words were what His enemies feared, as the crowds would follow such unique words! Jn. 11:26 Simply believing or disbelieving what Jesus said/promised is what saves or damns a human! Do YOU believe this, Lordship Salvationists? God does! He said it.

Jn. 12:42 These people got saved, without public confession, because that's not required to get saved.

Jn. 13:10 Christians have bathed, but their sins need their feet washed, to maintain power and fellowship; not to keep the relationship. I Jn. 1:9

Jn. 13:17 You are blessed to know God's word, but blessed like God wants you blessed only if you DO it. That's NOT legalism, as you do it by faith/dependence upon Him.

Mt. 7:24-27 Jesus taught morals to lost people, publicly, and also spoke of how to be saved, not always in same speech.

Jesus taught lost people to live morally, and the New Testament teaches Christians to live morally. However, doing so gets no one to heaven. Therefore, committing to do so can't save anyone, as it's not premised on your vows but God's merciful offer and sacrifice, Lordship Salvationists

The certainty of a positive afterlife motivated Paul's morality, even as a HOPE for a positive afterlife motivated the Jews' morality.

Ac. 24:15-16 vs. Ac. 26:7; Ac. 26:4 Paul had a lifetime of moral aspiration; Ac. 19:18 Salvation should cause people to reveal large hidden sin habits.

Paul began sanctification immediately upon salvation. Some started, but then abandoned.

Jn. 6:66 Some don't start until later. Because a decision to start it is not required for salvation, Christians have various fruits, start points, and end points at sanctification! Lifelong is the goal.

The phrase, 'trust Jesus as Savior, and follow Him as Lord,' said to lost people, in evangelism, is NOWHERE found in all of Scripture. It's a great invitation to make, but NOT that which was made in the Bible. And it can confuse the lost about God's salvation requirements (by design!?).

The Bible presents salvation as a seed sown. Growth takes time. In Acts, after FULL evangelism, the leaders returned to see how Christians were faring. They had no guarantee they'd find good results. The epistles show authors exhorting sanctification by Christians. And THIS: Lk. 13:6-9

Law vs. grace in sanctification is the difference between applying what's in the Bible by man's choice, or God's, giving Christians faith for what to apply! There are THOUSANDS of Bible commands. NOT doing them all, this moment, isn't sin were convicted of, but breaking our standard.

Lk. 9:23-24 speaks to losing your control of your life on earth, and letting Jesus be in charge of it, if you would follow Him. NO mention of obtaining eternal life, as a result of making that awesome decision, Lordship Salvationists. Required for sanctification, for the saved.

Jn. 10:27 Jesus' sheep:

1. Hear His voice (sovereign conviction through the gospel)
2. He knows them (He seals/saves them), and
3. They follow Him (sanctification).

It's the natural expectation Christians follow; the Bible, and observing life show it doesn't always happen. It's NOT guaranteed.

Mt. 10:38, 16:24 If one would follow Christ MEANS voluntarily choose to, or if they want to do that. It's NOT mentioned as how one gets heaven—ever. One is "not worthy of" Jesus if they don't make that important choice. Christians are carnal, and God's experiential enemies until they do.

Jn. 12:26 If you want to serve God, follow Jesus.

Jn. 8:12 Jesus promises the light of life to all who promise Him. That's NOT salvation/ heaven, but light for this life on earth. Verses on following Jesus: https://openbible.info/topics/follow_me...

Peter wanted to know what's in it for us to be committed and sacrifice in this life? Jesus says humility's needed and rewarded, and says people who have left friends and family for His sake and evangelism receive great rewards, and will also be in heaven (NOT a reward for that commitment)—Mt. 19:29

There's ZERO rational reason for Peter to ask Jesus what's in it for us, if he thought heaven was in any way related to Christians living fully committed to Jesus!

Mt. 19:23-30 He had chosen to follow Christ, and as things progressed and it got hard, he needed assurance it was worth it.

Salvation is a choice. You can't make it if God isn't calling you, but if He is, you must, or you don't get heaven. Following Jesus/sanctifications a choice. If you don't, you can't be blessed by God in this life, please Him, or rewarded in the next life. CAN make both choices at once!

Do people immediately have changed behaviors, at salvation, in the Bible, because they chose to be committed and to follow, or because God coming within makes internal change? It depends on which case is being referenced. And, we may not know. BOTH are good, for EVERY Christian!

"To be sure of heaven, you have to fully commit to live for Jesus, and not for sinning, for all your life" is the FALSEHOOD Lordship Salvationists espouse, implicitly or explicitly. Heavens a gift, as is sanctification, and you live that way from gratitude, having received salvation!

You live for Jesus, and not for sin, because you're going to heaven. NOT because you want to go, and think that's how to secure your way there! Duh 101

THE danger of the heresy of Lordship Salvation is that people deduce that living for holiness and not sin, for life, is how anyone secures heaven. THAT is works, and that theory would LOVE to teach works, if it wasn't forbidden by Scripture, as tied to heaven, as some reward! UN-true!

Lordshippers fear if you preach the accurate gospel, somehow offering someone a free mansion, they'll never use it. That analogy is perfect! Jn. 14:1-5. They try as hard as possible to imply you must live for morals and not for evil, or you aren't saved, or can't be saved. Works-minded.

The other day, we got an Islamist to finally agree his religion requires works to have a chance at heaven. He was an ex-Christian, and tried to use Jas. 2 to say Christianity teaches the same. Lordship Salvationists have a very close relationship to works-based salvation advocates!

God works are not proof one is saved, just as sins are not proof one is not saved. Jesus within is proof one is saved. That reality is supposed to improve morals, but doesn't, always, just as lost people can choose morals, and less sinfulness, yet go to hell, unforgiven.

Is not wanting to go to hell, or wanting to go to heaven good enough reason to get saved? free gracers say YES. Lordship Salvationists say NO. They think you must want or be willing to live moral, too, even though FEW Christians do, all their life, 100%. Heart goodness required!

I am almost as grateful, if not more grateful, that my preacher, when I was eight years old, understood the gospel, as that he offered it to me. If he had preached a Lordship Salvation gospel, I could be in hell! I wasn't interested in holiness, or quitting sin, and those weren't issues he confused.

VERY few people innately want to be fully holy, and want to never do any more sins! And NO human does those two things, even if they're so interested! Every Christian does some sin, no matter how committed to Christ they are. I certainly do (speed, ~cuss). Morality isn't required for salvation.

Lordship Salvationists' faith is in their commitment; NOT God's power to save. They believe what man needs is increased morality and decreased sinfulness. Free gracers believe men need salvation, Jesus, forgiveness. Morality will come when they get that; it's the effect, not source!

Lordship Salvationists believe lost peoples need is changed deeds—from evil to good. Free gracers believe hell, entered into any day, is men's problem, because they are BORN SINNERS; not because they sin. They sin because they're BORN SINNERS! Change all your deeds—still go to hell.

I have NEVER seen ANY Bible verse where one is engaged in evangelism, where being fully committed to Jesus, for life, is related to receiving eternal life! Positive benefits of sanctification, YES! Calls to be so committed in life, YES. In an evangelism conversation? NO. Show me otherwise, or shut the heck up.

Lk. 14:25-33 The tower builder story is one of many amazing passages about the requirements for discipleship. Crowds were walking along with Jesus, and He abruptly tells them if you don't hate family and even your own life, you CAN'T be My disciple. MANY American Christians love and are bosses of their lives.

THEY ARE SAVED, but NOT disciples! Some of them might not be saved. Carrying your cross and coming after Jesus is required to be His disciple. Lk. 14:27 That cannot occur on just one day, but over a lifetime! Salvation happens on one day, in a few seconds, with eternal effects, Lordshippers.

Lk. 14:28-29 Jesus says you budget/analyze whether you're able to build a tower, before starting, as a direct analogy for becoming a disciple. If you started, and don't complete it, you rightly get mocked. He's saying count the cost! NOT related to being born again, but living as a disciple!

Lk. 14:33 You CANNOT be Christ's disciple if you don't give up all your possessions. NO Lordship Salvationists teaches the TRUTH of these verses! Gloss over it! That's deception sin! OBVIOUSLY willingness vs. actual relinquishment of all assets is being sought; not destitute poverty!

A new matter Lordshippers now raise is keep believing, which is linear vs. punctiliar, or Greek aorist tense, for what receiving a gift by faith means. Lifelong belief. YOU KNOW YOU OWN A GIFT THE DAY IT'S GIVEN and ACCEPTED! And this isn't temporary faith. You always know you have it!

I HATE Lordship Salvation! So many people don't even understand the controversy. Grace is a gift, UN-earned!

If you aren't interested in being holy, and not sinful, go to hell. THAT IS LORDSHIP SALVATION, folks! I ALWAYS tell things the way they are. Lordshippers HIDE the realities and implications of their theory. That is not honest, or straightforward, but sinful and deceptive! Satan's way!

AMAZINGLY, Lordship Salvationists can read and know of Jn. 3:1-2, 7:50, 12:42-4 and 19:38-39 and STILL claim that verbal public confession of Jesus is required, or one goes to hell! That means mutes can't be saved! Even sign language would not be audible confessing! It's a great thing to do.

Lordship Salvationists HAVE to learn talking about sanctification, BEFORE a lost person chooses to get saved, CAN lead them to NOT get saved, and go to hell, because YOU brought up the cart before the horse, stupidly and unbiblically! BLOOD IS ON YOUR HANDS! I'd be lost vs. saved at age eight!

I HAVE HEARD a preacher say, "an experience at church doesn't save you, but receiving Jesus saves you." IF that experience was receiving Jesus, it saves you. Receiving Jesus IS an experience. Being born again happens in a moment, on one day. It's NOT a lifetime process, folks!

THIS IS LORDSHIP SALVATION: If you are not good enough in your heart to be willing to commit to live good and not bad, all your remaining life, GO TO HELL!

Lordshippers CLAIM free gracers hide the ball. That's absolutely true! We hide something that's NOT a ball, and NOT negative, but can't be understood by lost people as being good and positive until they have Jesus inside. That ball is sanctification. They haven't capacity to comprehend! I Cor. 2:14

It is heresy, though John is a good man, and very often accurate; NOT on salvation's requirements!

The thief on the cross, and the Ethiopian Eunuch PROVE Lordship Salvation is heresy! They had no time to prove salvation by works (in Scripture, and at least the thief), and didn't need to. THESE two verses KILL that heresy! Jn. 11:25-26 Absolutely destroy it, though its advocates won't repent.

Free gracers DO "hide the ball" about sanctification, in evangelism, because it's NOT the gospel, NOT mans need, or the issue he faces. He'd benefit from improved deeds, but even if he did so, perfectly, he'd still go to hell, as changed deeds do not save!

The gospel/good news is NOT that you/lost people can start obeying God for your lifetime, and stop sinning against Him! Christ paid a penalty on the cross. NO sacrifice was necessary to tell lost people they need to be good and not bad! Lordshippers DON'T understand this fact!

ZERO none and never has a life guard raced to a drowning man, offered a life ring, and said "take this ring and save/preserve your life, and come back to our beach when the currents are milder or you have better swimming skills." ABSOLUTELY NEVER. THEY HAVE TO GET SAVED FIRST! That's the ONLY ISSUE.

ZERO, none, and never have authorities in fires raced door to door to warn, "escape this deadly blaze, and make sure your insurer preserves your structure like it was yesterday." ABSOLUTELY NEVER. THEY HAVE TO GET SAVED FIRST! THAT'S THE ONLY ISSUE THAT MATTERS, until THEYRE SAFE! Period!

NO lifeguard has EVER said, "I will save you if you take this life ring and agree to change your behaviors hereafter." NO government authority has EVER told fire endangered citizens, get out and be safe, if you're willing to change your behaviors once this all settles! SIMPLY NEVER OCCURS!

I don't believe Lordship Salvationists understand salvation, or what lost people are imminently facing! Hell; today! Prove me wrong, that they have more time, or hell isn't real, or isn't a bad place to go. THAT is their ONLY issue; not changing deeds! Change them 1000%—STILL hellbound.

The entire books of Galatians and Hebrews were mainly written to address saved people returning to Law obedience/living, as how one gets sanctified. IF you have EVER read either, the authors are vehemently opposed to that concept! That concept is Lordship Salvation's teachings!!!

Lordship Salvationists believe discipleship requirements are heaven/salvation requirements! That is their largest interpretive error! Sanctification is salvation, to them, and salvation is a lifelong process; not an instant change experience/miracle or being born again on one day!

Lordship Salvationists are a parents giving their kid a Maserati for Christmas, IF he promises to use, care for, wax and oil change it indefinitely! Strings attached, and NOT a gift, or free. Main concerns not it being accepted, but what commitments secured about what happens afterwards!

ANYTHING: Any word, deed or even internal intent or motive that detracts from a lost person accepting the gospel is blood on the hands of the Lordship Salvation evangelizer! Period! ANYTHING that might cause them to reject, because of your words or deeds, is sin, and a deviation!

The devil purposely interjects to stop lost people from accepting God's free gift of salvation! In the four soils parable, the first soil didn't understand the gospel, as the thief took the seed away. Lordship Salvation causes misunderstanding of what a gift, grace and free mean! The first soil had seed stealing.

180-degree deed changes DON'T save anyone, Lordship Salvationists! 180 degree abandonment of sinning does not, either! Living PERFECT the rest of one's life doesn't, either. Lordshippers cannot conceive these facts are true! Deeds never save anyone! Jesus paid a price (cross)—NOT man!

Lordshippers don't even allow time for heavens angels to rejoice when one gets saved ('honeymoon period'), before bringing out rules to obey! THEY rejoice when lost people commit to obeying rules, like Pharisees would have for the Law. Ac. 15:29 ONLY put four rules on new Jewish Christians.

There are 1,050 commands in the New Testament for Christians to obey. Due to repetitions we can classify them under about 800 headings. —ABC.net.au NO Christian comes anywhere near obeying them all. Lordshippers would call that result sinning! Faith is how you apply the Bible!

1,050 and 613 total Bible commandments. RARELY do we read a LIST of them in the New Testament, as sanctification is NOT a rule book religion! When we last attended, Greg Matte tried to find the needle in haystack list, but I never said NO lists exist; just VERY few! Maybe 4-7 total?

YOU HAVE TO BEHAVE GOOD, and we're going to try to ensure that you do, by mentioning deeds in the same breath as God's promise for heaven. THIS IS LORDSHIP SALVATION'S EVIL DEED, FOLKS! Imply deeds have anything to do with receiving a gift Jesus paid for! Deceptive and manipulative.

Of the VERY few ethics lists in the New Testament, MUCH less that 1% of the entire 27 books contains them! That's because sanctification is a faith-based relationship; NOT a performance. Greg Matte DID do a great Saviorhood salvation invitation, on the radio, more recently. Both/and?

IF Lordshippers had the morality to actually READ all disciple requirements verses, they would, at best, find 1-3 "problem passages" that could imply any connection to heaven's requirements. Maybe only one. It could be zero—my memory's not great. Look them up and READ! I have, MANY times!

NON-CHRISTIANS: Some claiming Christians are convinced your deeds are much worse than theirs, and you need radical change! Some of you do; some are about like many Christ claimer deeds. What you DO need is salvation: the way out of hell Christ alone paid for on your behalf! TAKE IT.

Free gracers' message is You must get saved! Lordship Salvationists' message is You must be sanctified (deeds improved, morally) THESE TWO DIVERSE MESSAGES AREN'T THE SAME, and CAN NEVER BE SAID TO BE THE SAME GOSPEL! Impossible to reconcile the two. Salvation's re-defined by one. Gal. 1:8

FUNNY thing about Lordship Salvationists is they can't see the log in so many of their parishioners eyes, when their concern is lost people behaving more morally, when the lifestyles their members live Mon.-Sat. is a complete unknown to so many pastors! NOT MUCH DIFFERENT from the lost.

As I worked through the weekend, I have as much times, today, as it takes to END research on Lordship Salvation! People have said congrats on "your decision to follow Christ," AS IF that's what it took to get saved! They're putting thots and words in maybe new Christians' minds!

Can you understand, or see the difference between:

1. Receiving/accepting a gift, vs.
2. Following Jesus?

A gift you choose to accept, and it's yours. Following Christ is a process, that is supposed to last all one's life!

If deciding to start that process saves you:

1. You LOSE salvation if you don't make it to the end,
2. Born again experience is lifelong childbirth,
3. Christianity is like every other religion: Adherents decide to adopt a lifelong lifestyle, following their religion. There's no instantaneous, miraculous change in one day! Just start a path with first step!

People also say "give your life to Christ." LITERALLY, does your brain see the difference between give vs. take? Kindergartners sure know the difference, when a bully steals their toys! You RECEIVE the gift of salvation! You aren't the Giver! You have nothing worthy to exchange!

Give your life is a synonym for surrender (BOTH are unbiblical language). Lose your life is biblical language, as in discipleship commitment! Let me repeat, "give your life" and "surrender" are NOT terms the Bible uses, folks! Neither is "give Jesus your heart." This is SAPPY emotionalism, sort of like a marriage language of giving your heart to your spouse.

When you decide to commit to get married, you are making a firm, lifelong commitment to be with that person, for life, fully devoted only to them (and vice versa). If that Lordship-type decision is what saves a lost person, or especially is what Lordshippers are calling for, and requiring for salvation, SAY THAT!

And be accurate in saying exactly what a Lordship decision entails! It's not some easy, walk the aisle and pray decision! I'll now go through ALL related verses, to PROVE it's MORE!

Rather than waste a day researching Lordship proof texts, I'll go through all New Testament for best verses, and rely on these: <https://thinkaboutsuchthings.com/bible-verses-about-surrender/...>

25 Bible Verses about Discipleship for Spiritual Growth – Bible Lyfe

Discover the essence of true discipleship through these Bible verses about becoming a follower of Jesus.

IF any claiming "Christian" is going to tell lost people that living for Jesus as Lord (Boss, as they define the term) is required for heaven, WHAT exactly are they calling on lost people to vow/commit to, biblically? They'll NEVER tell you all of this, but God does, so they should.

Actually, I haven't the patience to rehash EVERY repent verse, deny self, follow and take up cross. Our website's Will You Live Forever button, p. 475+, does that. You must define repenting. And repenting of what? The object repented of changes, per context! The Greek meaning is "change mind!" (meta/change, neo/mind).

NOTHING of a 180 degree U-turn or about face in that term, though when one changes their mind, it can be for a 180 degree about face. CONTEXT determines what the mind changes about!

IF a 180 degree turn from sin was required for salvation:

1. You're asking lost people to change their deeds, to qualify for salvation.
2. Or, you're just asking them to commit to, which is quite worthless, as the deed change is what matters, and
3. DEEDS save, in the deeds of sin being eradicated, so you can be saved! Jews had a relationship with God, as a nation.

Feeling sorry (remorse) you sinned is a good thing. If you never receive Jesus, however, it's useless and empty! THAT changes people and their eternity! Not a feeling. And GOD gives repentance.

Gal. 2:20 CHRISTIAN Paul is testifying/writing, of the life he now lives (sanctification, after salvation).

Jas. 4:7 CHRISTIANS ("brothers") are told to submit to God and resist the devil. Lordshippers requiring submission DOD NOT WORK, if they're told to submit, after salvation!

Mt. 16:24-27 Then Jesus said to His disciples [the 12], "If anyone desires to come after Me [not receive eternal life and heaven], let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. [WHY?:] For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? For the Son of Man will come in the glory of His Father with His angels, and then He will reward [NOT with heaven, but heavenly rewards] each according to his works. [CLEARLY, requirements for sanctification/Christian life–NOT how to become a Christian]

Lk. 9:23-24 Then He said to <them> all, If anyone desires to come after Me [NOT receive/ have eternal life], let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily [being born again is NOT a daily thing!], and follow Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it [sanctification saving of vs. wasting away your life on earth], but whoever loses his life for My sake will save [preserve] it.

Mt. 6:33; Pv. 3:5-6; Jas. 4:10 But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you [All three passages describe life in Christ as a committed vs. Carnal Christian].

Heb. 10:22-23 ...let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water [written to saved people! NOT teaching how to get saved]. Let us hold fast the confession of <our> hope without wavering, for He who promised <is> faithful [NOT to get heaven, or prove we're saved, but rewards promised].

Jas. 4:8 is telling CHRISTIANS ("brothers") to draw near to God and cleanse their hands, "you sinners." Didn't Lordship repenting and surrendering already require that? They must not have worked!

Lk. 9:23-24 Then He said to <them> all, "If anyone desires to come after Me [NOT receive/have eternal life], let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily [being born again is NOT a daily thing!], and follow Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it [sanctification saving of vs. wasting away your life on earth], but whoever loses his life for My sake will save [preserve] it.

I Cor. 6:19-20 Written to Christians (Holy Spirit in you makes you such, v. 19); NOT teaching how to become one.

Mk. 8:35 "For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel's will save it.

Mt. 26:39 Great disciple attitude! "He went a little farther and fell on His face, and prayed, saying, "O My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as You [will]."

I Pet. 5:6-10 Sanctification passage, written to believers. Verse 10 describes the reward for so doing, and it isn't heaven.

Rom. 12:1-2 Telling CHRISTIANS to be committed. Lordshippers required that to become a Christian!

Jn. 15:1-7 I am the true vine, and My Father is the vinedresser. Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit He takes away [physical judgment of wayward believers]; and every <branch> that bears fruit He prunes, that it may bear more fruit. You are already clean [SAVED; no need for another bath] because of the word which I have spoken to you.

Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me. I am the vine, you [are] the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in Me, he is cast out as a branch and is withered; and they gather them and throw [them] into the fire, and they are burned [judged]. If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you [Bible's role in sanctification], you will ask [prayer] what you desire, and it shall be done for you [promise].

I feel certain that in heaven, God hates being lumped with sales offers of something "free," but there's always a catch, when His salvation offer is legitimately free and fully paid for by a serious cross sacrifice. The analogies don't work! Hugely expensive and valuable gift, vs. sales. (9/7/23)

Update #4

(9/13/23; @JamesMeroney)

For the gospels, THESE verses are those most relevant to the subject of Lordship Salvation (I'll explain and interpret, later): Mt. 1:21, 3:3, 6-10, 4:19, 5:1, 10-16, 17-20, 44-48, 6:33, 7:15-23, (9:28), 10:26-40, 11:25-30, 12:30-37, (47-50), 13:44-46, 16:21-26, 18:3, (19:3-4), 16-30, (23:37), 24:13-14, 28:18-20 Lk. 6:46-49, 10:42, 12:31-34, 13:6-9, 14:15-24, (18:10-14), 19:8-9 Jn. 1:12, (29), 3:1-21, 36, 4:1-2, 10-14, 24, 5:24-29, (39), 40-42, 6:35, 39-40, (44), 47, 54, (7:5), 31, 38-39, (8:10, 12, 32, 36, 44), 46, 51, (9:31), <10:10>, 26-30, (11:9-10), 25-27, 48, (12:19), 24-32, (42), (13:17), 14:12, (23), 15:1-8, 17:3, 20:31.

Jesus talked about ethics, even to lost people, when He spoke of salvation and when He didn't (but never as what saves). And the Sermon on the Mounts a great treatise bridging Law to grace, with a higher standard.

It's early on in His ministry, and is aspirational, meaning you don't obey those commands in order to get saved, but to be blessed. At least two disciple requirement passages come before His final days.

Update #5

(9/14/23; @JamesMeroney)

Salvation is a low bar, and discipleship is a high bar, for humans. HOW do you reconcile those disparities? God wants all men saved, but Jesus cautioned people on becoming disciples!

God wants ALL people to become disciples of Jesus, and Christians are to make them of all we successfully reach in evangelism. And God expects all men to live holy, and not sinful, having NOTHING to do with earning salvation, thereby. So to reconcile the two standards, here's your options.

Lordships say disciple requirements are heaven requirements (FALSE). Moderate Lordships tell the lost to get saved and follow Jesus (NEVER addressing the requirement differences). Licentious people say get saved and that's all Truth advocates say get saved, but if they do, they disciple.

Lordshippers are ALL about getting lost people committed to live holy for life, even though Bible evidence is not everyone does (Jn. 6:66, et al), so that CAN'T be a requirement for salvation, and it's works-based salvation, to require lifelong deeds to get heaven!

It's also CLEAR that Jesus always taught about living morally, to both lost and saved people, just as God expects that of the lost and saved, but NOT to earn heaven. Jesus presented life in Christ as positive, when speaking to the lost! NOT as "you 'gotta do good deeds all your life, and not bad ones."

DOES ANYONE REALIZE how a lost soul interprets that? Not fun, enjoyable, contrary to their only one spiritual nature, rules, and NOT relationship-based fellowship, and walking with Jesus, but obeying commands.

Jesus DID teach even lost people they'll be blessed if they obey His word, and found their lives on the Bible! Heaven is just NOT the reward for so doing. ONLY blessings in this life.

Lordships believe the ONLY time they'll have "leverage" over lost people's decisions is when heaven is discussed, so one way or the other, they'll speak of works being committed to! MacArthur outright says that commitments required for salvation.

Others don't say that, but imply it, by mentioning discipleship/following Jesus when they speak of how to go to heaven. Licentious people say get saved, then live like the devil. I've NEVER met one!

Lordships are also in a hurry to brow beat newbies with rules, to get those good deeds. A honeymoon period is normal, for many! The joy and excitement of being heaven sure.

Even the epistles tell CHRISTIANS to be committed, usually after chapters of theology and greetings. HOW STRANGE, if commitment was required for heaven! Lordships also LOVE to say free gracers are FOR carnality. FALSE!

The tower builder addresses that not everyone will have the wherewithal to start and finish, so better not to start. That's carnality! IF people aren't willing to meet disciple requirements (which are several, and steep/difficult), Lordships say they're lost; free gracers say they're carnal, if they received Jesus.

Lordships also say receiving Him is like social reception, vs. gift taking. BOTH are in the Bible! Even if you receive Jesus into your heart home you have to allow Him mastery of the various rooms.

And being born again occurs on one calendar day, very swiftly (seconds), with eternal impact. Discipleship is daily and lifelong! Childbirth is NOT daily, or lifelong! The flavorless salt is carnality, as are those unwilling to meet disciple requirements. Eternal life is free for the asking, in faith.

Heaven (at the end of this life, where we experience eternal life/knowing Jesus until we die) is NEVER a reward for good works! Good deeds, as a believer, are rewarded in heaven; NOT heaven as that reward!

The way to accurately reconcile high and low standards is ensure people get saved. Then get them matured up. If they aren't interested, God's still working on their growth—Phil. 1:6, and He has promised to finish what He started.

A person who verbalizes: 'I want to live sinfully, and go to heaven,' has a heart not yet under conviction. The person who wants to go to heaven, and thinks nothing about how deeds are affected, could be under conviction (as I was at age 8).

The attitude of the following RT person is clearly hard hearted, and unlikely to ever get saved (pray for him!):

IF you READ all gospel verses on salvation's requirements, and all disciple requirements verses (I listed most of them, last eve), you'll see there's a discrepancy in whats required from man!

IF unwilling to be a disciple, but saved, carnality is what the Bible describes, with its negative consequences. IT WILL BE JUDGED! Some people get saved, and their deeds change immediately.

Some, their deeds are still bad (READ the book of Acts). Some, the deeds come much later. If the fruit never comes, some die prematurely, or at least get severely pruned.

The Apostasy of prophecy, Demas, Hymenaeus, Jn. 6:66, and the people of Hebrews were taken seriously as able to fall away! "Endure to the end" (Mt. 24) is a PROPHECY context; surviving the Tribulation, physically.

By their fruits you'll know false teachers? Words, deeds or both! But I Corinthians has a carnal church! You've 'gotta take into account the WHOLE counsel of God, in the Old Testament (not just the gospels), in reconciling discipleship with salvation.

Christians were called disciples. I distinguish positional vs. experiential ones, based on Jn. 6:66! Even if a Christian is carnal, God expects them to live holy, as He expects lost people to do! There's NEVER a condoning of sinful living, by any gospel theory (but licentiousness, which is heresy).

But how do you address sanctification in evangelism? Jesus usually if not always mentioned ethics, when he did that, but framed it positive! Living water, never see death, have the light of life, not walk in darkness, never hunger or thirst. He did NOT say get saved, then start obeying all commandments.

YES, generally, Christians are to obey God's word, but in application, it's by faith; NOT by getting a list, and choosing to do deeds!

Lordships so desire Christian converts to live holy, they misrepresent a free gift of heaven! That's evil! The nature of the gift, with God as the Giver, will work out how they use it, and we know they won't all use it. That's evil, but God allows for that risk, and punishes it, too.

God wants all people to live holy, whether going to heaven, or not! How to go to heaven is not related to that expectation!

If I was a church pastor, I'd address the lost and say get saved/receive Jesus. Then I'd look to the whole crowd and say, to all who already are saved, make sure you're not just Christians, but living the life and requirements God placed on actual disciples, which we read of in the gospels.

Just a review of disciple requirements: sell all (attitude), hate family (by comparison), lose your life, daily deny yourself, carry cross and follow Jesus, be fishes of men, count the cost and build the tower to completion. That's not pray to receive a gift! Deception and confusion to mix!

And John MacArthur's HORRIBLE illustration that salvation is like military conscription: Easy to join; hard to live out, is SO not related at all to receiving the best Christmas gift a child could ever receive! FEW 'wanna join the military; everyone loves a gift! John sends folk to hell!

There were times Jesus ONLY spoke of discipleship, and times He only spoke of salvation! And He spoke of both to lost and saved, at various times. Fruits DIFFER!

Lordships say the four soils has three lost people. UNTRUE; only the first, as he, like them, couldn't understand the gospel! Unable to be saved if one can't comprehend the gospel!

The second and third soil didn't complete lifelong good deeds from worries of world, love of money distraction, no deep root. And rich young rulers SO awesome at rebutting Lordshippers.

I've heard a preacher say you can get to heaven by living perfect! NO ONE ever can! Even the ruler was shown to covet money, when asked to part with it, and Jesus follows that it is IMPOSSIBLE to work your way to heaven; only with God is salvation possible! God teaches believers to make disciples—not just converts! Mt. 28:18-20

Paul's goal was to have every man complete in Christ. He wrote God wants all men saved, and to come to the knowledge of the truth (Bible). IT is how people become experiential disciples—Jn. 17:17

That happens beyond day one of salvation, Lordshippers! And salvation is an introduction to grace—Rom. 5:1; NOT the end of it! Believers are saved UNTO good works!

Titus emphasizes Christians being engaged in good deeds, based on the gospel which he mentions three times. Repentance is to yield good deeds; not just a decision to do so, without fulfillment (two sons parable teaches).

We can state that being born again should affect behaviors, but that's NOT language the Bible uses in speaking to lost people! Their need is NOT deeds improvement, but forgiveness. If they completely cleaned up their cat, they'd still go to hell, without Jesus inside (the gift, received).

Lordships LOVE to say you aren't saved by good works, but you aren't saved if you don't have good works. BALDERDASH. You're saved if God's Spirit seals you! They also LOVE to doubt people's salvation, as an attempt to force better behaviors, through guilt!

ALL their methods are fear, doubt, guilt, and judgment. They don't trust God working with new believers. You should NEVER confuse a lost person that salvation is free, but discipleship is costly!

That's NOT encouraging carnality, but stating what the Bible teaches! Lordship commitment is worth it, and rewarded/blessed by God!

"Lord, Lord" passage says "I never knew you." These people using that term did miracles, but were NOT saved!

Lk. 6:45-46 Jesus doesn't go for referencing Him as "Lord," when one is carnal/ disobedient!

Lk. 11:23 You're either for or against Christ! That's NOT speaking of salvation requirements.

Mk. 9:38-41 says if anyone's not against Jesus they're for Him. So only being actively for Jesus isn't required to be for Jesus, but just not being against/opposed to Him! I'm basically addressing most lordship proof texts from memory!

Your life after salvation means NOTHING until you have salvation! Until the Spirit is within, it doesn't matter what you might have done with Christ, if you remain hellbound! Any carnal Christian NEEDS to be exhorted to grow, even if they aren't yet a disciple! They should be warned they're disobeying God, and subject to judgment!

It is NOT a two-step salvation! It's a three-phased process of justification, sanctification and glorification! It's NOT hiding the ball! Lost people can't spiritually conceive of sanctification as positive, until the Spirit changes them on the inside! Get Christians in the Bible, for growth!

And get lost people saved! Watching deeds, to assure yourself another is saved is a futile endeavor! The four soils story says the best soil has some 30, 60 and 100-fold fruit! The middle two didn't have fruit, after awhile, from various temptations. Is God's Spirit resident within? That's the question.

Does a lost soul have to commit to live holy, and not sinful, the remainder of their life, to qualify to receive a free gift? Lordhippers say 'yes.' Free gracers say 'no,' but everyone's expected by God to live holy, no matter what they do with Jesus. THAT'S the difference between the two views.

And it is disingenuous to tell lost people they need to become Christ followers, without detailing exactly all the Bible says about what it takes to become His disciple! That is watering down God's word (evil)! Informed decisions is what God is after! Not snake oil flim-flam sales!

The cautions to commitment were people zealously claiming they were committed to Jesus. Peter, no place to lay head/dead bury the dead and tower builder. NOWHER is receiving eternal life cautioned against; only strongly encouraged! Two standards! One high, one low (free); They're NOT synonyms!

Update #6

(9/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

WHY NOT just tell lost people, in evangelism, Christ's disciple requirements? Christians don't even live up to them, in many cases, and the Bible doesn't do that, or say to do that. It's basing heaven on if you're good enough to be willing to be a disciple! Good enough means works!

If a person doesn't want to go to hell, but to heaven, and is offered Christ's gift paid for on the cross, if they'll believe, it's the faith that is NOT a work (Rom. 4:4-5), in God's accounting, as you're trusting Him to do all the work of saving you!

"I was willing to be committed as a disciple, to get saved" is a pride attitude of self-reliance! Plus, if you're errantly taught you have to, or you go to hell, you might do that. But that error distorts what grace is, and how great a salvation is offered to all, if they'll only ask in faith!

We're getting phone calls from the investment "free book" people. My son blocked them. It's the strings attached/gotcha/catches to "free" offer that make our gospel so hard for people (including Christians) to believe good offers.

He is confident in the gift; doesn't nag you if you accept it, and the SECOND you pray in faith to accept God's offer that He seals you FOREVER. Temporary faith is a nonsensical concept, because His Spirit inside bears witness that you're saved! It's not you holding on to a belief. He is inside, assuring you God sealed you forever, instantaneously.

It is pure logical deduction that if Jesus warned Peter his commitment to even die for Him would result in three denials, soon after, shows our emotional decisions have limits. When God gives you a commitment, by faith, it lasts! same with tower builder/foxes have holes/dead bury dead.

Lordships HAVE to conclude counting the cost applies to getting saved, because their theory leads to that conclusion! People have HEARD Christ's three or so disciple commands, and have no idea what they say, to whom, or their relation to eternal life. It's in the Bible is all they know.

WHY would God tell lost people to consider the cost, to make sure you have enough to finish the job (tower builder) if salvation occurs on one birthday? Having enough to get to the end pertains to discipleship in lifelong sanctification (good deeds of faith, iteratively improving)!

IF Jesus' disciple requirements aren't met, it's deducible to say those who don't meet them won't get what's promised as a reward! Eternal life is NOT what's missed out on. And that doesn't mean encourage anyone not to be a disciple. But count the cost. Carnality is the only alternative!

Disciples are to be known by their love for one another and continuing in the Bible. That CAN'T refer to deeds on the one day they get saved, but the process of sanctification! In Acts, some deeds changed at salvation; some didn't! They don't prove the Spirit is within, as Christians have a sin nature and free will.

Demas abandoned Christ, having been a faithful minister with Paul, previously. Some Christians were shipwrecked in their faith, from not keeping faith and a good conscience. I Tim. 1:19-20 MANY walk wrongly—Phil. 3:18-19. DISCIPLES apostatized in Jn. 6:66.

The Apostasy WILL occur in prophecy, among Christians—II Th. 2:3 (already started, in my opinion). In Phil. 2:19-21, Paul had NO ONE like Timothy, as ALL OTHERS sought their own interests—NOT Christ's. That's NOT denying self/being a disciple, among Christians! ONLY one was the right way, Paul could use and rely on!

The book of Hebrews is NOT joking in its 7-8 warning passages about Christians abandoning Christ (there, mainly Jewish Christians returning to Law living). I Pet. 4:15 instructs Christians NOT to let any suffer as a murderer. It's irrational if that wasn't possible! We have a flesh/old man and free will.

Sanctification success is NOT guaranteed, and the results VARY! Even the only good soil varies from 30- 60- and 100-fold fruit! You can't have a doctrine based on works proving salvation, especially with such varying results! This guy acted evil right at salvation—Ac. 8:24, VS. 16:15, 19:18.

IF we ONLY read the gospels, it's easy to find carnality verses rare. The whole counsel of God has to be used to have proper doctrine. Corinth had many plaguing sins. Most epistles exhort Christians to holiness and commitment, or even increasing it! And God values one being COLD about Him, rather than lukewarm.

A cold on God person, if saved, would be carnal. It's NOT that anyone encourages carnality, but you have to admit its existence, if you're going to fix that sinful problem! You CAN'T use works to guilt a Christian into doubting salvation, or to prove it!

YES, good deeds are expected of believers. It's why they were saved. But reality is not all exhibit them, and certainly fruits vary. Rather than slandering Christians teaching what's true (carnality exists) acknowledge the problem so it can get fixed! 'You can't fix what you don't acknowledge.'

And be it free grace or Lordship Salvation that "caused" carnality, no matter what gospel a real Christian heard, it's maturer believers' duty to disciple them up to maturity! You can't get a genuine Lordship decision from guilt, fear or worry, but God's promises to all who do that!

Jesus had NO PROBLEM speaking about how to receive eternal life, and what it takes to be His disciple! He just rarely if not never put those two things in the same paragraph! They're NOT opposites, but they're NOT the same, either. He understood that! Do we? Not many, it seems.

Mt. 10:26-33 The context for defining confessing Christ is not fearing when you're evangelizing and saying aloud what you hear whispered, who persecute you as a result. Not confessing Christ stifles your prayers! Nothing to do with salvation requirement.

Mt. 10:34-42 Christ came to divide even families based on commitment to Him; or not. By comparison, no family member can be a higher priority to Him for a disciple. Take up cross and follow Him, or you're not worthy of Him; not teaching how to get saved, but walk worthily! Eph. 5:15-16, etc.

Mt. 10:39 If you are living your life (you in charge, as the boss), you will lose your life. Opposite of you lose it to Jesus. Verses 40-42 speak of rewards. There's NO hint of eternal life being taught anywhere in this long passage! Rewards and walking worthy. That's sanctification!

Mt. 11:25-30 Jesus thanks God He reveals truth to kids, and other like-minded innocents. Then He invites weary to Him, for rest. Faith rest is for all who trust in/come to Him. (Heb. 4-5). Likely people tired of living under the Law. Jesus' yoke is sanctification, vs. day one born again.

Mt. 12:30-37 Speaking to the hypocritical Pharisees (vv. 24-25) he says make the tree and its root good, or bad. Be for or against Christ (v. 30). Goodness comes from a good/purified heart (v. 35). The choice to live morally is man's, Lordships! It's NOT in order to receive salvation!

Mt. 16:21-26 Just before Passion week, Jesus rebuked Satan through Peter trying to stop the cross. Then Jesus teaches His SAVED disciples disciple requirements (vv. 24-26). If anyone wishes to follow Jesus is the prerequisite; NOT if you desire to receive eternal life, Lordships!

READ Lk. 6:43-49 Again, Jesus speaks of the good root and fruit choice. Trees are known by their fruit. Out of the overflow of the heart come good things. That's the Bible out on one's memory (meditation). That's NOT a salvation invitation! Don't call Him Lord if your life's not built on His word.

THOSE are the key Synoptic discipleship requirement passages (omitting duplicates in Mt). Not one word about eternal life, because deeds or even commitment to do deeds are NOT what saves.

One more synoptics discipleship passage comes to mind (doing it from memory, for now):

Mk. 10:23-31 Jesus first teaches it's hardest for the rich to get saved (as they trust themselves and their wealth, vs. children (Mt. 18:2-5) and the poor (Jas. 2:5-8), with nothing else to trust), but for ALL it's impossible without God (on your own/by works).

V. 28 Peter had been saved nearly three years, and asks "what's all our commitment worth for us?" Yes, salvation requires God, but we've left everything/it all; what's the payoff? Jesus answers him!

No one has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or farms (LEFT THEM), for My sake (for Jesus' purposes) and for the gospel's sake (evangelism), but that he will receive 100 times as much now in the present age, houses (like fam, staying with Christians) and brothers and sisters and mothers and children (true family—Mk. 3:35) and farms, along with persecutions (trials are in THIS life; in sanctification; NOT the day of one's spiritual birth!); and in the age to come, eternal life (not as the reward, but they were already getting that, as a positive added bonus to all they get for their sacrificial effort.

Jesus concludes that pride asks what's in it for me, more so that what can I do for my Lord. Quit seeking the rewards and seek the Lord! The disciples were saved AFTER they agreed to follow Jesus as disciples! Jn. 2:11 Lordship commitment isn't for salvation!

IF we Christians and pastors would READ the source text, and NOT so much other men (like MacArthur), the free grace position is SO obvious!

It BEARS REPEATING: If a full and lifelong commitment to not live in sin but to live for morals is required to receive free gift of salvation, that's saying deeds don't save, but you have to decide to have the deeds later. People who work their way to get heaven make the SAME decision!

Update #7: What is Salvation?

(9/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

Salvation is: Being born again. Being a heavenly citizen. Made alive and a new creation; old things passed away, all things became new. Justified. Reconciled to God. Now having direct access to Him. 100% forgiven of all sins (covered). Life hidden with God in Christ. New man. Dead to sin; alive to God. God's Spirit residing within, initially knowing God; having eternal life. Introduced into grace in which we stand. Hell and eternal judgment/wrath averted. Being in Christ. Rightly related to God. Access to power of and fellowship with God. Returned to the pre-Fall Adamic status with God; forever.

IF you 'wanna know what salvation is, READ what Christians USED to be, before they got saved. It is a BIG deal! See: Former Identity verses at Will You Live forever, of <http://AmericanAnswers.org> Those things changed instantly, when God saved/rescued and sealed you eternally! 100% change.

IN AN INSTANT, miraculously, God brings about a person's salvation, which, in their spirit/inner man, changes everything! Time and effort make those changes manifest to others, and before God, externally. LOOK what a BIG deal salvation is!:

Christians Formerly:

Were separated from Christ, excluded from the commonwealth of Israel, strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope—Eph. 2:13, 17; Walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience—Eph. 2:2; I Cor. 2:12; Bore fruit to death—Rom. 7:14 Foolish, disobedient to God, enslaved to various lusts and pleasures, spending our lives in malice and envy, hateful, and hating each other—Tit. 3:3; Dead in our trespasses and sins—Col. 2:13; Eph. 2:1, 5; Wanted to do the devil's desires—Jn. 8:44; Living a futile life—I Pet. 1:18; Alienated from God—Col. 1:21; Hostile in mind toward God—Col. 1:21; Devoid of the Spirit—Jude 1:19; Spiritual father was the devil—Jn. 8:44; Sin was our master—Rom. 6:14; Had not received mercy—I Pet. 2:10; Of this world—Jn. 8:23; Enemies of God—Rom. 5:10; Phil. 3:18; Not God's people—Rom. 9:25-26; Did not know God—I Jn. 3:1; Engaged in evil deeds—Col. 1:21; In the flesh—Rom. 8:9; Of darkness—Eph. 5:8; II Cor. 6:14; I Th. 5:4-5; I Pet. 2:9; Subject to a depraved mind—I Tim. 6:5; II Tim. 3:8; Had a certificate of death against us—Col. 2:14; Shut up under sin, by the Scriptures—Gal. 3:22;

There ARE fake/posing/imposter Christians! Professing; NOT possessing! Bible calls them tares. Unfortunately, they go to churches! And church discipline never occurs (as commanded), and we aren't commanded to remove lost from among the saved, so God's Name gets blasphemed!

Mt. 13:47-52 It would be ludicrous to believe all punishments in hell are exactly the same, based on God's justice. TO ME, that FACT argues for degrees of punishment, or distance or time further from the direct flames, or in them then near them. Maybe above them? According to our deeds that DIFFER.

Rom. 2:4-11 God leads people to repent. Jews unrepentant/unwilling to get saved—v 5. God impartially judges our deeds—vv. 6, 11. There's good things for good behaviors, and vice versa. Hell is punishment for sins that could have been forgiven, and it avoided. V. 7 expected of Christians.

Carnality is what happens if anyone gets saved, and nothing else happens! Habits don't change, and thoughts remain as before Christ! That's NATURAL. Established actual Christians were told to long for God's milk, so they will grow. They're to act like babies, to be maturer! Drink God's milk.

CARNALITY: The prevalent reality the Bible also describes and names, of saved people not fully committed to Jesus. The examples are endless, and MANY Bible verses make this concept known to us, as it is to God, yet Lordshippers deny its existence, insisting practicers are all lost.

IF a person is not fully committed to Jesus, or even just lukewarm or half-hearted, Lordshippers allege they were never saved. Bible doesn't teach that! They MAY be lost, or saved. God knows for sure! They know if He lives inside. They may not be acting like it—that proves little!

You aren't saved by good deeds, or stopping bad deeds, but if you don't have good deeds, and stopped bad deeds, we will deny you are saved. —Lordship Salvationists No contradiction, confusion or double talk there?

Lordship Salvation can't give assurance of salvation until one's deathbed, if it is consistent with its teachings! Good deeds for life are required, or you can't know you're going to heaven, is EXACTLY what their theory/heresy espouses! Using heaven to incentivize morality; and hell threat.

It's a hilarious strategy God engages, that even if someone like me had zero interest in being holy, or committed, at age 8, once His Spirit gets inside, Phil. 1:6 works, whenever it does. In my case, 10 years later. God doesn't need me to get me to commit to live for Him, though I did.

If God wants a Christian to be a disciple, He can orchestrate circumstances to ensure it happens! A gal I intended to later marry two-timed me, at Baylor, so I cut her off so badly her mom was upset I never learned she had a serious health scare, a year later. That caused my commitment.

The problem with free grace is NOT our message, but being so free to not follow-up converts! I know it's not required, of we evangelists, but we have to be better at coordinating that with the more timid non-evangelizers! Get them in a daily quiet time habit, or LITTLE growth occurs.

Lordship Salvationists KNOW very little change, if any, will come if one ONLY gets saved. That's NOT from God failing. It takes effort and time for His complete inner change to show, externally. That's just NOT a required commitment to gain heaven. It's maturer Christians' DUTY to address.

Salvation is MUCH more than just being sure you go to heaven, and miss hell! According to the Bible, it is all these things, and more.

Salvation Is:
Justified—Rom. 5:9
Born again—Jn. 3:3
New man—Eph. 2:15
Made alive—Eph. 2:5
Heaven citizen—Phil. 3:20
Being in Christ—II Cor. 5:17
Initially knowing God—Gal. 4:9
Having eternal life—I Jn. 5:11-13
Reconciled to God—Rom. 5:10-11
Made a new creation—II Cor. 5:17
Dead to sin; alive to God—Rom. 6:10-12
Life hidden with God in Christ—Col. 3:3
Hell & eternal judgment/wrath averted—Jn. 5:24
Spirit residing within—Rom. 8:11, 16 , I Cor. 3:16
Introduced into grace in which we stand—Rom. 5:1
Rightly related to God/Made righteous—II Cor. 5:21
100% forgiven of all sins (covered; Ps. 32:1)—Eph. 1:7
Now having direct access to Him—Rom. 5:2; Heb. 4:14-16
Old things passed away, all things became new—II cor. 5:17
Access to power of & fellowship with God—Rev. 3:20; I Jn. 1:6
Returned to the pre-Fall Adamic status with God—Rom. 5:12-18
Now & forever!

Eph. 1:13 Having believed ("-ed": past tense), you were sealed with God's Spirit ("-ed": past tense). II Cor. 6:2 Today (NOT this weekend, week or month) is the day of salvation (to any who believe). Born again occurs in seconds, on one calendar day! Proving discipleship takes time!

They'll know you're My disciples by your love and if you continue in My word Jn. 8:31, 13:35 That isn't known on day one! May be a disciple, may be only saved, may not be saved (if no Spirit received). Salvation is proof is the indwelling Spirit!

Externally unprovable, day one, except when tongues were manifested, in His four fallings, and before the oral tradition was written, and later canonized. Acts shows many believing people got saved because they spoke in real human languages they had never learned. We don't confirm salvation is that way, today! Salvation is NOT discipleship.

HOW MANY TIMES do the New Testament epistles greet, TEACH and encourage, for 2-3 chapters, before addressing behavior? USUALLY (excepting longer books). You'd never get someone saved, then say, "now, you've got to start doing works for God, full-hearted and for life." You teach identity, security, prayer, Bible reading, inheritance, victory,

God's plan for their lives/will, promises, and give incentives to grow/surrender! You inform them al God did for them at salvation, so a life of gratitude is the normal and expected response. NOT law/rule book religion, or legalism.

It's called growing in grace! Even in Acts, the first evangelists reached nearly all the known world, before they started concerning themselves with how their converts were doing. They had priorities, and urgency, though NOT neglecting later concern for their growth/discipling. READ the Bible.

I hate to break it to you, Lordshippers, but people can lie, so people could mouth the words, "Jesus is Lord," and not mean it. That phrase isn't proof one is saved, as sincerity can be hidden from humans. Your spirit has to bear witness with their testimony of their conversion, IF you're saved.

God does ALL the saving! Jas. 1:17-18 We allow and ask Him to, in faith, but we wouldn't sincerely do that had He not first convicted us and worked in softening our hearts! There's NO place for bragging on us. He gets all the credit, as we can do nothing and are nothing without Him!

DO YOU NOW SEE, Lordship Salvationists, you cannot prove a person's salvation by behaviors! Bobo Boebert, Kristi Noem, Ken Paxton. We're talking adultery. I Pet. warned CHRISTIANS against murder. I Cor. 5 spoke of an atrocious sex sin. Deeds don't prove salvation, but SHOULD show it; they don't always.

YES there are a handful of pretty clear passages that teach that good fruit comes from good roots, and Christians are expected to be known by their love and good deeds. BUT, it's a choice, there's temptation, they have a flesh and free will, and carnality was written of by God as a reality.

Jn. 10:27-28, 15:1-7; Mt. 7:15-20; I Cor. 6:9-20; Rev. 22:15 and SEVERAL others teach Christians are expected to live holy/morally. BUT, reality defies expectations, often, as God also knows: Jas. 3:10, and many other verses I cited earlier this week on carnality's experiential reality.

DISCIPLESHIP–NOT Lordship Salvation–is the solution to America's majority Christian carnality and worldliness problems! NOT just hoping believers attend church. Seeking out wayward sheep and getting them into a daily quiet time habit. THAT would bring about II Chron. 7:14, in my opinion. #Revival!!!

Update #8

(9/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

Lordships say middle two of four soils parable AREN'T saved. THAT MEANS works save, as needed until death! Alternatively, saying there will be good deeds until death if one's saved means commitment to works is required for salvation, as are works, or we'll doubt you're saved! SALVATION BY WORKS.

AM I the only one who sees the ERROR?: You're NOT saved by good works, but if you don't have good works until you die, Lordship Salvationists say you weren't saved!

AM I the only one who sees the ERROR?: You're NOT saved by good works, but if you don't have good works until you die, Lordship Salvationists question peoples salvation (trying to pressure works for life, though that "doesn't save")! Grace sustains even fall-aways and apostates. IT saves!

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE for a theory to believe true Christians will endure in good deeds until they die, or they were never saved, and not believe works save, unless the nature of salvation cases such enduring deeds, which the Bible proves is NOT true in every true salvation case! READ IT!

Rom. 1:21, 24; Mt. 13:14; I Tim. 1:18-20, 4:2 Consciences can grow cold over time, quickly, or anytime in-between! hearts can get hard at those same paces! Pv. 4:23! It's the little foxes of sin that can slowly cause drift, as Don Anderson used to teach—SofS. 2:15-17 Slow rodent infestation.

The book of Hebrews has the perfect number SEVEN warning passages to Christians (3:1, 14-15, 6:9, 8:1, 10:32, 39, 12:28, 13:1) NOT to fall away in unbelief! They make NO sense if that's NOT possible, Lordshippers! Heb. 2:1-4, 3:7-19, 4:11-13, 5:11-6:20, 10:26-31, 12:14-17, 25-29.

You have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, to an innumerable company of angels, to the General Assembly and church of the firstborn who are registered in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant. Heb. 12:22⁺

It's fair to say, and clear that John expected even new Christians to be enabled to maintain a disciple/Lordship commitment, after five chapters, even having just heard basic info (like 1:1-4, 8-10). I Jn. 5:21 A great reason why babes are often first sent to I Jn. The last verse leaves with that!

Update #9: American Christians Living for Self #1!?

(9/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let's address a sickness prevalent in America Christendom: Living for yourself. What does that mean? Many lost people are not selfish, and care about and for others (usually women) and can a lost person live for God #1? NOT until they're saved! But they CAN live lives based on the Bible.

What about Christians? Stats make the point (NOT me) that a majority live for themselves. THAT MEANS God is NOT number one in their lives. Idols are in the way, by choice, by self making the decisions; self as boss of their lives.

Ecc. 1-3 shows how one man lived that way! Pursuing sex, pleasure, wealth, comfort and convenience, entertainment—ANYTHING but God as number one. Mt. 6:33 says believers are to pursue God and His practical righteousness FIRST. Everything else will fall in place and He will supply, if you do. BUT we ALL know most do NOT live this way!

Lordship Salvationists teach they are NOT saved, because they are NOT obeying Jesus' requirements for a disciple. Free gracers say they are saved, but carnal, IF they've received Jesus. So holiness #1, for life, or you're unsaved, but you're not saved by works? Got it, Lordships!?

Jesus said if you keep your life you'll lose it. I've spoken of lazy retired people, whose lives are ALL about having a good time, pampering myself and living the life. WHICH CATEGORY WOULD YOU SAY THEY ARE FALLING INTO? Living for self or for God? There's WORK to do for Him! You have done LITTLE when you were working!

NOW is the time you can go become a Peter and Paul and turn the world upside down, and COMPLETE the Great Commission. But you'd rather own more things, do more things, travel and relax, and pamper yourself, before you're too decrepitly stiff and achy!

Carnal or committed? WHICH does this lifestyle CHOICE describe? Again, you did LITTLE your working years for Jesus, but attend church and maybe tithe! That is NOT doing the Great Commission, churchianity adherents! Your being law-abiding isn't what following Jesus ONLY means—READ IT.

I know a guy at Second Baptist Houston who was publicly praised for being such a "great" business man he could retire early and come work a PAID JOB at the church. DID HE OBEY GOD TO GET THAT RICH, or was he cleansing his conscience after chasing money all his life? I don't know him!

America teaches you to get all you can, can all you get and sell the rest. Jesus said His food was to do God's will, and He must be working, for night was coming when no man can work. WE say my food will be gourmet and we just keep working to retire ASAP! SEE how carnal the U.S. church has become?

I HAVE TO discuss the consequences of carnality, since so many suffer from it in America. There is NO church discipline, or even verbal reproof, so it is SO prevalent, and easy to choose, because it is so easy to lie, and mask carnality on Sunday, for two hours!

YOU know if you're fully committed to Jesus! Others will know if you're not exhibiting proof. Not regularly meeting with God, ignorant of His word, evangelizing few, talking to others about the things dearest to you (which is NOT Jesus), and people will know when you're play acting your fuzzy feelings about God!

You can wear the T-shirts, hang the Christian book store mementos, name our business something spiritual-sounding, even pray at the dinner table with your kids, in public, or carry around a pocket Bible with you. But your FRUIT shows as spoiled or luscious, to others!

Losing your life is one consequence of carnality! He who saves/preserves his life will lose it. Does that mean die? We ALL die! It CAN mean physically die early! But it certainly means you're a walking dead man! What will a man gain in exchange for his soul?

Well you can gain very much money, losing your soul in the process. But when our lives are weighed in the eternal balances, on Judgment Day, YOU WILL LOSE! If you never received Jesus, you will lose in hell. If you were carnal, you'll lose rewards and status; maybe even be sad/sorrowful, and poor in heaven! I Jn. 2:28

You will lose blessings in this life, and health! And get MORE trials and troubles. Lose reputation (for those who can see through your charade). Maybe lose at your job, as employers like honest and hard-working employees. You will lose. But you will gain money, and passing pleasures of sin.

You CAN'T serve Jesus and money, equally. If you love money, you hate God. Period. You have chosen your master, to whom your life is devoted as priority one! SPEND your retirement years making up for all the years you idolized money! It's the ONLY way you'll have much of anything in heaven!

THE problem is carnal Christians do NOT see God's judgments! ANYtime they get sick, have problems, lose money, fail at work, die early, or of a calamity, they believe these were all natural occurrences in a fallen world the devil controls. They may never see God's hand until heaven!

Update #10

(12/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

"Repent of/turn from your sins" HAS to be DEFINED! Is it a decision to stop sins OR exit a condition of being a sinner? SIN is man's problem. Sins SHOW that! It's FUNNY one can call someone a "baby Christian" when there's NO evidence about-face/U-turn defined "repenting" ever happened!

Update #11

(12/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

Our rabbit escaped outdoor pen, again. PERFECT sanctification illustration! She didn't want to or try to run away with her freedom! She wanted to be with us. Bond slave means VOLUNTARILY making one's self a disciple/slave of Jesus. NOT as required to obtain salvation!

The FACT my rabbit got loose, outdoors, TWICE, and didn't run away to the woods, is shocking to me! It's the time we've spent with her, six years into owning her. The first day we bought her she would have run away! THAT is a sanctification illustration par excellence!

[I am 100% DISTRACTED!] My dog got loose, when we first got her, and did not know how to return, and had no fellowship with us to want to come back. The fact our bunny wouldn't run away if allowed is such a great thrill, for me! Not required to! Freedom used rightly. She's got me in awe!

EVERY lost person NEEDS to cease from any and all sins they engage in! That will not get them to haven, but they must do so, nonetheless, to live rightly before God. Heaven is NOT God's reward for living good and not bad! Heavenly rewards are, IF you're going! Are you?

Lordships believe if you don't require lost people to commit to holiness, and turn away from sinfulness, for salvation, they'll remain in sinfulness. That 100% believes SALVATION DOES and CHANGES NOTHING, and God does and can do nothing with His children, to grow them up, when born again!

Google searching "repent of your sins" or "turn from your sins," in the New Testament, there are absolutely ZERO such phrased verses, on initial search. I'm NOT 'gonna go get my Concordance, as defining 'repent' has to first be defined! Meta noce/mind change. And WHO is addressed?

There's not more than five, maybe LESS New Testament verses that say "repent of your sins and you will be saved." 'Repent' MEANS change your mind. It does NOT mean a U-turn or about face in behavior. Lordships say that means we are FOR people living in sin. LIE! We're FOR them getting saved.

Lost people CAN decide to be fully committed to Jesus, as disciples, AT salvation! Paul did that, after lightning struck! It's VOLUNTARY vs. required for salvation. That doesn't mean they're free to sin, but it's a choice; not a salvation requirement! Biblically #CommonSense, if you read it!

NO HUMAN believes THIS is a gift: "I'll give you the greatest Christmas gift-ever-BUT you have to commit to not living sinfully and living holy, the rest of your life. That is a gift only to people who have undergone lobotomies! IT IS WORKS! Heaven isn't achieved by good deeds!

Salvation happens on ONE DAY, in an instance (point). Following Jesus is DAILY, for life (process). THE MOMENT anyone prays to be forgiven and to receive Jesus they are sure they are going to heaven! they SHOULD live holy, thereafter, but the thereafter requires salvation, first!

Any human can mouth the words, at gunpoint, 'Jesus is Lord.' You can't say it sincerely and from experience unless the Holy Spirit is inside-which is EXACTLY what salvation means! You have received him, as a seal for eternity that you have eternal life! I Cor. 12:3; Eph. 1:13; I Jn. 5:13

IF a lost soul NEVER sinned again, and always behaved morally perfectly, from today until their death, THEY WOULD GO TO HELL, because works do NOT save. Lordship Salvationists demand they commit to do things that don't save, or they can't be saved. Contradiction! It's a GIFT, received.

DEEDS AREN'T what people have to fix, to go to heaven! That's salvation by works! Guilt before God for sin deeds, as proof they're born sinners guilty of all sins has to be cured, and ONLY the cross does that! Not any deeds decisions of lost people! They can clean up, but not save themselves.

IF 'repent' meant stop living sinfully, CHRISTIANS have to choose to repent, all the time, and there's NO difference between them and lost people! SAME with 'surrender', as CHRISTIANS have to daily do so. Salvation is NOT daily, but only on one day!

IF a lost person HAD to commit to live for Jesus the rest of their life, that's the same as salvation by works! This does NOT mean a lost person can be committed to remaining sinful. Their deeds changing is NOT what salvation initially addresses, but judgment for their sins. GIFT!

Jesus is Lord. That means He's God. You can't be saved believing He was just a good man. But surrendering to Him as Lord of the rest of your life is NOT a salvation requirement, but faith in Him is, for forgiving all your sins and receiving the Holy Spirit and assurance of salvation.

LISTEN to these lyrics! THIS is salvation!!! 03 My Heart Belongs To You - Saviour
<https://youtu.be/8xGNJIZ8UWk?si=t00qELE7Yt3tRj0w...>

There's NOT one New Testament verse that says "repent, believe and surrender," or "receive Jesus as Lord." Believe in your heart that Jesus is Lord DOES exist. Rom. 10. Lordshippers' three requirements for salvation are NOWHERE found in any invitation, but faith is there HUNDREDS of times!

Lordshippers say to lost people, 'are you trusting Jesus as Savior and Lord?' That phrase is ONLY found in I Peter, and NEVER found in any New Testament Gospel invitation or even letters to Christians, regarding the Gospel or salvation, excepting I Peter, where it's NOT an evangelism setting! Get your thinking straight/right. (3/25/2018)

NOWHERE in Scripture will you find the words "receive Jesus as Savior and Lord," but believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, with a full heart/all your heart. (11/20/2015)

One other REPEATED truth: God is NOT out there seeing to dominate, bully, beat down or oppress lost people, for them to raise a white flag of "surrender" to His Lordship status as Boss. That's a very strange view of how God sacrificially loves people! That's a hateful tyrant view! (12/1/23)

Update #12: Pastoral Sermon Prep (& Lordship Salvation)

(12/22/23; @JamesMeroney)

Back in seminary we were taught to spend 20-40 hours/ week preparing for sermons. I DOUBT that's what many do today! And what's the result? Misunderstanding and false doctrine abounds Correct. Preoccupied with lesser things! READ II Tim. 2:4 and Ac. 6:4 IS THAT TODAY'S PREACHERS? Rarely, in my opinion.

AMAZING stats from a man I know, and highly respect! <https://churchanswers.com/blog/how-much-time-do-pastors-spend-preparing-a-sermon/...> (Hours of sermon prep, by pastors) NO WONDER THE AMERICAN CHURCH IS SO WEAK, and falls for what's below! GOOD news is 10-18 hours/week is majority.

And sermon research is on ONE main subject! Imagine how long it would take pastors to understand My word, in its entirety. Dallas seminary MAY be the only one that requires graduates to have read the whole Book, and been taught on every Bible book, of they can't graduate! True. Problem!

Instead men rely on the words and traditions of men. If a seminary professor, or famous Cali preacher, says that Lordship Salvation is what My word says, and has a book so claiming, they respect him, so why not believe that, instead of being Berean? THAT'S HOW THIS PROBLEM CONTINUES!

I believe EVERY pastor must be given an entire summer off, as sabbatical, to read and analyze Your word as many times as they can achieve in those three months, taking notes and prayerfully re-reading it at least five times; at least the New Testament. Once, minimum, for the Old. Yes!
It's that important!

Lordship Salvationists DO NOT comprehend that disciple requirements are NOT the same as heaven requirements. Christians were labeled disciples, because they lived like Jesus. Our generation doesn't disciple converts up to that lifestyle reputation. Just sermonize, IF they attend!

What's the difference between first century salvations and ours?

1. NOT all of them lives as disciples, but seemingly much more than us. Ac. 8:24 It took persecution for them to leave Jerusalem to do evangelism!
2. Miracles and power
3. Persecution
4. Newness and excitement
5. Jesus had just left
6. Paul was struck by lightning-like light, and blinded for three days
7. First century culture wasn't as individualistic as America! Get saved, then never see a person again
8. First century Christians willingly gathered more than just one two-hour session on Sundays! MAJOR differences in results!

The Jesus of CHRISTmas must be received, as THE gift, in order to go to heaven! He is Lord, God, and He saves, upon simple childlike faith, by asking, in prayer! Any other gospel than this is false doctrine!

SINCE "Lord and Savior" is trending, lets analyze Lordship Salvation doctrinal heresy! A lost person must fully commit to live for God/holiness, and fully commit to not live sinfully, ALL THE REMAINDER OF THEIR LIFE, or they can't have the free gift of eternal life. That's THEIR view.

1. Committing to live holy, for life, is a GREAT decision! It does NOT save, any more than actually living holy for life would.
2. Committing to not live sinfully, for life, is a GREAT decision! It does NOT save, any more than actually living holy for life would.
3. Claiming Christians OFTEN don't live holy and non-sinful, for life. SO, under their theory, they are NOT meeting God's standard for heaven, so they either lost salvation (not possible) or never were saved. Either way, WORKS are how Lordship Salvationists determine if they think one is saved. NOT a sincere prayer of faith!
4. Lordship Salvationists sincerely believe it's lost people's sinful deeds, and lack of virtuous ones, that sentence them to hell! Those are ONLY manifestations of the fact that they're lost sinners, born that way, with only spiritual nature!

Any externally "good" deeds are the remnant of the image of God within. NOT God wrought, by the Holy Spirit inside! He, within, is proof one is saved! NOT deeds! Deeds never save anyone from hell, so a full commitment to do deeds is even LESS valuable than doing the deeds, Lordshippers! Illogical heresy.

5. Lordshippers LOVE to use the phrase, "Lord and Savior," because Jesus, Who is God/Lord, is not enough of a belief for lost people, in their false doctrine! He must be surrendered to, as a conquering foe, Who vanquishes people into submission, AS A FREE "GIFT." BALDERDASH!!!

6. Lordship Salvationists ONLY interpret "Lord" as Master and Boss. NOT God and deity. Even taking Jesus their way, in salvation, His load is LIGHT; He is NOT a heavy-handed task master, as they want lost people to commit to believing he is! Boss and master to a slave, vs. bond slaves!

7. Lordship Salvationists view salvation WRONG! To them it's not a drowning person being rescued, or a lost sheep carried on the good shepherd's shoulders. It's a Tyrant demanding strict obedience by his serfs, and if you won't do so, you go to hell. BALDERDASH! No love in that "Savior"

8. Can a lost person who wants to live sinfully be saved? NOT if they aren't under conviction, which will bring godly sorrow for their having sinned. The sin of arrogance keeps some people from trusting and getting saved!

9. Lordship Salvation IS salvation by works, OR, salvation by committing to lifelong works. Either way, it is salvation by works!

Grace people teach lost people it's OK to remain sinful; just pray a little prayer? ABSOLUTELY NOT! We do NOT minimize the severity of just one sin, which alone qualifies everyone for hell, and makes everyone guilty of ALL sins! NO ONE can U-turn their behaviors from ALL sins—period!

Not one human (excepting Jesus) will ever U-turn "repent" from sin, as just one sin means guilty of ALL sins, so perfection would be required, for heaven, which it is not. You can't cease from sinning, perfectly, in this life, and heaven isn't based on if you can or can't, Lordshippers!

10. Commitment to Jesus, as a disciple, is FULL commitment. Half-hearted is NOT being a disciple, but luke-warm! That's speaking of a Christian's walk; not heavens requirements! Many, if not most U.S. Christians aren't biblical disciples, but most are saved. Salvation is FREE; discipleship is hard and costly!

Lordshippers TRY to merge the two experiences as to one requirement for heaven, but free and costly don't mix, even as they teach salvation is like inscription—easy to join but hard to live out. That is NOT an analogy for the one TRUE gospel! That's a fake one! Gal. 1:8

11. The ONLY difference between Lordship Salvation and EVERY OTHER RELIGIONS' teachings on how to go to heaven, and avoid hell, is Lordshippers mention Jesus! The human requirements are THE SAME! Commit to works; and not to sinning! Exact same works doctrine/teaching, for a "FREE gift!"

12. Grace eludes the mind of Lordship Salvationists! It's too wonderful a concept for them to grasp! HOW and WHY would God do all the work, and allow lost people to simply, and freely receive? Why wouldn't He require more from them? And such requirement means works, folks! It baffles them!

13. If you, lost soul, won't commit to live for God all your life, you're going to hell. If you, lost soul, won't commit to stop being sinful, the rest of your life, you will go to hell. This is SUPPOSEDLY "good news" offering a "free gift," which Lordshippers CANNOT do, or offer!

14. Lordship Salvation wants behavior change in humans, for the good, and against the evil. Their theory doesn't deal with the sin nature, or 100% guilt before God for only one sin. To them, those are academic assertions, though they are EVERYTHING! They look at deeds; we look at the Bible!

For the most thorough handling of the heresy of Lordship Salvation, just peruse our website's Index on said subject! It's been exhaustively researched and written about! I HATE rehashing what I've said before, clearly, biblically and thoroughly!

13. There's NOT ONE Bible verse that says "receive Jesus as Lord and Savior!" And there's NOT ONE Bible verse that says "repent, surrender and believe (three things)!" NO parent asks their kid, at Christmas, "how are you receiving this gift?" It's a FOOLISH idea and theological error!

14. Lordship Salvationists are absolutely convinced that free grace/Saviorhooders teach lost people they can casually accept Jesus like you take a flier from a sales person, at public events, just to get them not to give you their spiel! Lip service, and insincere. BALDERDASH!

15. Lordship Salvationists are absolutely convinced that free grace/Saviorhooders teach lost people they can live evilly, but just pray a little prayer. BALDERDASH! We do NOT address their lifestyle, but their status before God, where ONE sin risks eternal hell for them this day!

Lordshippers CLAMOR for and CLING to two verses, to try to prove their surrender theory: Ac. 16:31 and Rom. 10:9-10. WE believe "Lord" refers to Jesus' divinity/godhood/ deity. They believe it refers to one's subjective attitude of commitment to a Boss, until you die! That's discipleship; NOT salvation!

Living as a disciple is DAILY! Lk. 9:23 Being saved happens on one day only! I guess it's II Cor. 4:4 spiritual blindness that disallows Lordshippers from understanding this difference!?! You're saved on one day; You live until death, saved! Whether holy, or not, depends on your will.

Salvation requires faith. Once saved by faith, discipleship requires commitment, daily, also by faith. To live rightly with God, one must live as a disciple (fully, vs. half-heartedly committed), but that's not the same as being in right relation with Him! Relationship, then fellowship!

One can be in relationship with God, but out of fellowship! It happens ALL THE TIME, in American Christendom! Biblically, it's called carnality! Saved people living sinfully. Salvation rarely if ever instantly changes people's behaviors in all areas they sin in! That takes work/effort, at mind renewal and commitment!

SANCTIFICATION is NOT salvation, any more than child birth is toddler years. Salvation STARTS sanctification. Rom. 5:2 But Paul is educating CHRISTIANS that they've been introduced into the grace in which they stand. Salvation is the introduction! Duh.

Lordship Salvationists take disciple requirements as heaven requirements. That's where their heresy/fallacy originates! They can't read, properly! Those FEW verses always say IF one wishes/desires, then states the requirements, and NEVER about getting heaven, as a result! READ! II Tim. 2:15

16. IF a lost soul lived PERFECTLY, from today forward until death, they go to hell, because changed deeds never save anyone; the cross/the blood of Jesus alone, personally applied to the heart, does!

17. If a lost person NEVER sinned any more times in their remaining earthly life, they still go to hell, because it's the unforgiven sins they haven't overcome/solved, when only one sin makes them guilty of ALL sins in the entire holy Book!

18. If a lost person lived morally PERFECT, all their remaining earthly life, they still go to hell, because it's the unforgiven sins they haven't overcome/solved, when only one sin makes them guilty of ALL sins in the entire holy Book!

19. Cleaning up your act saves NO ONE! Turning over a new leaf, behaviorally, saves NO ONE! Deciding to give up something for Lent saves NO ONE. Getting tired of sinning, so you decide to be less bad, behaviorally, SAVES NO ONE. No human decision about deeds saves anyone!

20. Deeds of sin PROVE you're a sinner, facing hell, and BORN with one nature, which is to sin. It's not the symptoms or externalities that are the true problem needing fixing, but the innermost source of those sins; the root problem of being born a sinner. One deed proves it to everyone.

Turn away from living sinfully, and surrender to living godly. THAT is Lordshippers' gospel. Oh, and throw in "receive Jesus," in case we're wrong. Receiving Him doesn't save them, if they don't do the first two things. This is the heresy of Lordship Salvation. I'm not sure anyone gets it.

Update #13

(12/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

The gift of salvation is NOT unrelated to sin, like God just wants to be Santa Claus! You have to admit you're a sinner, who needs all your sins forgiven/covered, because they earn you death, and just one makes you guilty of all, and you go to hell, if ALL your sins aren't forgiven!

IF a person denies or is not willing to admit they're a sinner, and don't sincerely ask for forgiveness, in prayer, they can't be saved. God's not just out there desperate to give away the gift of salvation to anyone who will take it! The sinner's prayer is not some rote set of words!

Lordship salvationists SHOULD find it interesting that one of their favorite words, "repent," doesn't appear in the most evangelistic book in the Bible: John, and if mercy serves me isn't mentioned in the epistles (maybe once?). It's so essential to the gospel that it's lacking, there?

In fact, the term Lordshippers so often use, "surrender," is NOWHERE mentioned in the entire New Testament, if memory serves me (it's early, and I can't wake the wife to find my Concordance). At 2:40 the Lord gave me THIS, word for word, but I wasn't 'gonna waken the bunny to post it:

If repenting, or turning away from sin—perfectly—(where a person NEVER sinned again their entire life), doesn't save them, HOW can something that doesn't save someone be required for them to get saved?

If surrendering, or committing to live for Jesus and His morals—perfectly—(where a person ONLY behaved righteously the rest of their life), doesn't save them, HOW can something that doesn't save someone be required for them to get saved?

Update #14: Things that Never Happen

(12/26/23; @JamesMeroney)

NO life guard swims or jet skis out to an ocean-drowner, having a life ring, and says, "IF you promise to live good, and not evil, hereafter, when we reach the beach/shore, I will rescue/save you!" There's a GREAT reason why they don't ever say that!

NO government official going door-to-door in a neighborhood near an oncoming forest fire says, "IF you promise to live good, and not evil, hereafter, I will tell you something VERY critical to your very existence." There's a GREAT reason why they don't ever say that!

2. ISSUES

a) Business & Workers

(11/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

Look, businesses ALWAYS seek leverage over employees, to keep wages down and executives over-paid! Workers are STUPID if they support open borders, as there goes your wages South even more! The UAW strikes are some of the FEW levers employees have to make this system equal and just!

But, pigs get fat but hogs get slaughtered! The UAW has to compromise, someday, or management will replace workers, substitute robotics and AI, ship jobs overseas, work you harder with less laborers, or otherwise get revenge for a long-winded strike! Seek justice vs. selfish greed!

Update

(12/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

ANYONE who boasts in jobs numbers, lower joblessness or inflation, under THIS administration, NEEDS perspective, to compare those results to where things were before it started, as you don't get credit for hacking something up, then bringing it down to where it was before you did!

Some pundit bragged labor wages are increasing under Uncle Joe. THEY BETTER BE, just to keep up with his runaway inflation! Otherwise, you're getting behind! Now, you're just treading water!

ANY time ANY worker/laborer/employee's wages don't keep up with inflation, business is unjustly gaining at his/her expense! They aren't 'gonna keep prices low, and not adjust for inflation, and pass on those charges to the consuming public, unless we choose not to buy at that price!

b) Cancel Culture

(12/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

DON'T boycott ANY U.S.business! It hurts the workers, and the overall economy! If you don't like something Home Depot founder said, vote against what he supported! Only buy where the value is BEST for the consumer, and we will have the best economy for all consumers! #BoycottWalmart

c) Crime/Law & Order

(9/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

To me what's interesting is why crime rates are sometimes if not usually higher in poor areas of town! Do you have less value for life and property, when you don't have much property? Are your goods more apt to be stolen, so you live on the defensive-vs. at peace in your neighborhood?

Drugs often deaden the pain of poverty, perhaps, and drug dealers AREN'T famous for always being MLK nonviolent! Some people claim the absent or incarcerated dad problem causes more crime in some areas, as no immediate role model, for males.

d) Cussing

(11/14/23; @JamesMeroney)

"Darn, golly gee, gee whiz, shucks, fudge, shoot and crud" are insufficient to always express one's emotional disdain for things! Can you think of cleaner cuss words, that lack vulgarity? Sincere, but #StupidQuestionsAboutCussing

e) Death Penalty

(9/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

Dan Bongino says he oppose killing life, so he opposes the death penalty, because he follows a "higher power." NO Christian referees to Jesus in those terms, and Jesus is OK with death penalty, by government (Rom. 13). CHRISTIANS: Beware who you listen to—test all by Scripture! I Jn. 4:1

On MOST matters, there is a right answer before God. Even many Christians may not have grown up enough in Christ to have it as their conviction, yet, but anything else is wrong. For instance, the death penalty as a legal option. Objective truth isn't varying! Your Christian growth IS!

Christians can and will differ over the death penalty, but if you rightly interpret Scripture, and know how to harmonize and analyze, it's moral. God's word never contradicts. It's an allowed exception for government to do not kill. Duh 101. Rom. 13 LEARN TO INTERPRET! II Tim. 2:15 Hermeneutics!

f) Cultic Trump Delusion/Derangement Syndrome

[Private account:] "President" Trump is a draft dodger who claimed to have a bone spur in his foot to avoid actual military service. Trump also compared navigating the AIDS epidemic in his sex life to serving in Vietnam. Trump is and has always been only in pursuit of power, money, and fame.

g) Employers

h) Free Speech

(12/12/23; @JamesMeroney)

The wonderful doctrine of free speech has been warped by the far right and left to mean anything goes! Lies, conspiracy theories, and even calls for genocide of the Jews. Centrists on BOTH sides know that's NOT what our Founders intended!

i) Guns

(10/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let's address the liberal's dream: ALL guns confiscated!

1. Government would NEVER find them all! People would hide them, and lie!

2. Homemade ones would be produced, as with the black market.

CAN WE QUIT SPEAKING OF THIS IRRATIONAL PIPE DREAM?

j) Homelessness

Homelessness is INEVITABLE when taxes (California) or an influx of newcomers come to a state (Texas), and drive up ALL housing prices. Go ask California, and pretty soon Texas. Same with pollution and traffic/crowded streets, and more infrastructure needs, like the Texas power grid, streets and water. Balance.

k) Hypocrisy: What Is It?

(12/14/23; @JamesMeroney)

The DIFFERENCE between imperfect God followers who hold to their faith standards, and legalistic Pharisees, is the latter had rules, not relationship, behind their standards, and self vs. God as their power; plus, they were hypocritical to their own standards—arrogantly judging others.

l) Immigration

(9/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

The respected greatly-Chuck Swindoll severely missed the mark, in deeming immigration mercy, in my opinion (NOT in theory, but in present practice):

1. Americans SETTLED this great land! People now want what our ancestors made. A form of stealing!
2. Earlier immigrants DIDNT seek taxpayer help!
3. We've let in MILLIONS, and so many illegally. Lk. 2:7!

m) Mass Theft Rings

(12/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

It ALWAYS bothers me when the bad guys win, injustice prevails, or taxpayers or consumers have to pay more for other's sins. Many U.S. businesses will fire managers who pursue shoplifters. I get lawsuits if employees get hurt or killed, so the Easy Road is to pass those prices on to law-abiders.

One does NOT have to be morally perfect to avoid being a hypocrite! They merely need to live up to the standard they espouse for others! Pharisees failed to do that, and were arrogant. Paul, humbly, lived up to his standard, and NO ONE accused otherwise! He wasn't perfect! I Cor. 11:1 (12/22/23)

n) National Debt

America isn't in $30T debt because the poor rely too much on welfare and pay too little tax – but because billionaires pay too little tax and rely too much on corporate welfare.

Because government spends too much!

Update

(12/2/23; @JamesMeroney)

Social Security isn't where America is going to reduce our debt, or balance our budget! I GUARANTEE you I, just as auditors and management consultants professionals can reduce that mountain in ways that NEVER cut programs or departments 100%, but prioritize, end waste, and get BEST bang for buck!

U.S. debt reduction is, pragmatically, between a 20-30 year proposal! We didn't get in this mess overnight, nor will we get out of it that soon. But you have to start somewhere. EVERY expense has to be analyzed for best bang, and maximize an incentivized workforce, and automate/streamline.

o) Panhandlers

(11/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

It IS GREAT when any city forbids panhandling and homeless encampments. But they have to go somewhere. Some want to be homeless. Some are mentally ill. Those who want help should get it, then repay government when back on their feet. The others are on their own! The lifestyle they choose.

p) Religious Liberty?

(12/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

I would be ALL for the Bible taught in public schools, BUT that would also require them learning the Quran, and every religion's holy book, so it is better left to after-hours volunteer organizations. Ethics classes CAN be taught, without endorsing religion(s)! Right from wrong.

q) School Funding

(11/17/23; @JamesMeroney)

NO ONE "likes" subsidizing ANYONE not in their immediate or nuclear family! Private school parents in Texas have to have part of their taxes pay for public schools, when their kiddos get nothing out of public schools. THAT amount SHOULD transfer to private schools, to be fair to all.

Taxpayers don't like Robinhood school funds plans, any more than any human likes being forced to pay for someone else's bills! The ONLY people who crave Socialism are the freebies/handout crowd! It's CommonSense that those who PAY will oppose it! It is UNjust to force others to fund YOU!

r) School Shootings (@TheSkeptic4122)

s) Social Security

(12/2/23; @JamesMeroney)

With Social Security, you OBVIOUSLY have to either raise the retirement age, reduce payouts, or both, and the rich who rightly own their part don't get it, because they don't need it, and we can't afford it. You encourage the youth to invest for themselves, and no one to fully depend on it for retirement!

The people saying they paid into Social Security are RIGHT! But they AREN'T often right that they paid in as much as they expect to get paid out, with inflation, people living longer, inflation, and some depending solely upon Social Security for retirement, which it was NEVER set up to do. Duh 101

Dan Bongino suggested what I've also said, that one solution for Social Security is people not needing it ought not get it. YES they paid in, but changed circumstances, where we haven't enough going in to keep up with inflation and the boomer boom of retirees! Millionaires don't get it-period.

NOBODY who is capable of doing ANY work, for ANY amount of hours, unless 100% physically or 100% mentally disabled should EVER be paid by government not to work, and all cases must be medically verified, for NO fraud or abuse of taxpayers! This is justice. The other is injustice! (9/6/23)

t) Stolen Election? (@richard2380)

u) Taxes

(9/25/23; @JamesMeroney)

HOW is a Biden Billionaire tax FAIR to billionaires? Answer: Democrats only care about justice when it suits their agenda! (and I am NOT a republican, at present). "No justice, no peace?" WHY would they? Punish the rich for succeeding!?

The estate tax, and prosecuting illegal hiding of assets and profits, is how government gets its fair share off the rich's nest egg; NOT by over-taxing their income. EVERYONE owes their fair share off their earned funds, each year, with NO exceptions or cheating!

NO smart person over-pays taxes, or ignores al legal avenues for paying the least. BUT, IF you want just taxes for all, you vote Centrist. If you want unjust taxes favoring the poor, and punishing the rich, vote Democrat. If you want the opposite, vote Republican

Update

(12/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

I 100% AGRRE with this meme! FAIR taxes, and the most blessed should NOT pay the least, to sustain the society that made opportunity for their gains!

[Private account:] A billionaire minimum tax of just 25% would raise $440 billion over the next 10 years. Imagine what we could do if we just made billionaires pay their taxes like everyone else.

Food for thought. (@jilevin)

"A 2021 report from the White House's Office of Management and Budget and Council of Economic Advisers found that as of now, the U.S.'s 400 wealthiest billionaire families pay an average federal tax rate of 8.2%." –Fortune magazine NEVER should be LESS than average Joe's pay! #NEVER! (12/26/23)

v) 'We The People'

(11/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

WE THE PEOPLE means citizens of America, and usually references those who vote. It is NOT we who are of any one or two parties, politicians! It's also NOT politicians, except in their private capacity. I HATE that famous phrase misused to claim one has a pulse on the nation, and it's a small percent!

w) Young Politicians?

(8/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

I DO NOT UNDERSTAND, NOR WILL I EVER, people like Vivek and Beto—young enough to have energy, but not yet wise enough to know their bad statements will haunt their political aspirations even when they're old. Speak well the first time! think through your positions. #CommonSense Duh 101!

3. DOES THE BIBLE TEACH RETIRING AT AGE 65?

(9/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

THIS will be controversial, but WORTH it... As one of my three home pastors recently said, "I don't see retirement taught in the Bible." (paraphrased). YES, we see people getting too old to keep working, or working full-time, but the concept that you live for money, then quit working, ASAP, is NOT in the Bible, folks!

BUT, Christians do NOT care (or know?) what's in the Bible. Often, many wouldn't obey it if they did know, because the majority (statistics tell us) are carnal—doing what comes natural; not supernatural, as informed by God's word. You get saved, and NO Bible information automatically gets into your head!

It is IMPOSSIBLE to know God's will without knowing God's word, and it's impossible to know God's word if you never read it! You can learn very small portions of it, siphoned through another person's influence, via sermons, but you will NEVER see in the Bible your relationship with Jesus as primarily being attending church! NO, it's DAILY, 24/7.

It ISN'T that for a majority of Christ-claimers in America (40-year historic statistics prove), but it's SUPPOSED to be that in ALL Christians' experience of life.

IF you were UN-lazy enough to read the book of Acts, you would see saved human ministers totally devoted to lives of evangelism, who got that way when Jesus met them (Paul) or when He resurrected, after they forsook Him, awaiting that event (Peter).

These two are NOT people to just admire, but for many, they're role models to imitate! I Cor. 11:1-2 Paul only lessened his ministry when he was famous, old and physically frail. Ac. 28

Peter died a martyr's death, hanging upside down on a cross, serving Christ until that point. <https://crosswalk.com/faith/bible-study/how-did-peter-die-and-why-is-it-so-significant.html...> God doesn't write of these men for our entertainment, awe or admiration. Be like them!

crosswalk.com

How Did Peter Die and Why Is it Significant?

So, how did Peter die? While we may never know exactly how Peter died, meaning whether he was just crucified, or crucified upside down, there is one thing we do know about Peter's life and Peter's

I see humans waiting around to die; humans wanting to retire early; people wanting to live it up in retirement; and one person serving God, full-time, ONLY after he secured a big enough nest egg, and he's still paid handsomely by a mega church in Houston.

NO, I don't often see U.S. Christians living God's way (Mt. 6:33), especially regarding retirement. I (often) see people living for themselves—their joy and happiness, pleasures and entertainment. Waking up late, wondering what they're going to do today, and how will they allay boredom.

This ILK of claiming Christian has no idea they're warriors in the battle of the ages, against all demonic forces, to rescue all lost souls. Instead, they are MIA (missing in action, or AWOL)!

They could never be said to be active disciples, as that requires daily denying vs. pampering yourself (Ecc. 1-3), taking up their cross (i.e., sacrifice), and following Jesus, doing what He says to do.

Apart from sermons, they have NO idea what 99%+ of the Bible teaches, and they rarely meet 1:1 with Him. Powerless, influence-less, useless dry weeds prepared for a fire! I Cor. 3:15 Wasted lives! NO reason for being, or being here! Dead weight. Like Ezekiel's dry bones!

And ministry-retired (vs. retired, but still serving God) pastors can NEVER testify THIS: II Tim. 4:5-8 Paul ministered until his time had come!

Ac. 28:30-31 If people go to hell, and you still have a voice, WHERE does God say live for yourself over serving others, or at any given age? And I'm NOT saying you can't retire to a degree/percent, or ever, if you called by God to.

Update

(9/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

Right-wing talk radio host Dan Bongino said he opposes killing life, so he opposes the death penalty, because he follows a "higher power." NO Christian refers to Jesus in those terms, and Jesus is OK with the death penalty, by government (Rom. 13). CHRISTIANS: Beware who you listen to—test all by Scripture! I Jn. 4:1

On MOST matters, there is a right answer before God. Even many Christians may not have grown up enough in Christ to have those answers as their conviction, yet, but anything else is wrong. For instance, the death penalty as a legal option. Objective truth isn't varying! Your Christian growth IS!

How Christians refute error is by being faithful to the Bible, so they can silence rebels with it. Tit. 1:9-11 Bad people rightly criticized Christians for sins, and Paul tells a pastor to reprove the Christians severely, so they'll be sound in the faith. Tit. 1:10-13 This rebuking NEVER happens in America, so we have carnality prevalent.

Tit. 2:14 Christian: You were saved for a purpose—to be God's possession, redeem you from every sinful deed, to be zealous for good works! Vv. 3:3-6 AMAZING! Paul doesn't credit man or his will for his change, but God's kindness and love, while we were wayward—NOT us repenting/changing!

Tit. 3:14 Paul tells pastors they need to teach laymen to learn to engage good deeds. It's neither automatic, natural, nor guaranteed by salvation! It (sanctification) is a learned habit; learned behavior, taught by more mature Christians! Salvation doesn't make it happen, for life!

5. TRUMP

(9/17/23; @JamesMeroney)

U.S. voters MUST learn—Spinning is often or usually LYING (sin). Boebert knew her behaviors, yet authorized her spokespeople to say she's guilty of laughing, singing and having a good time.

Middle finger, groping, threats that she is someone important and LYING is not no problem, as Texas says they'll vote the evidence, but agreed to keep Paxton unpunished, for securities fraud, mistress gets a job, developer had judge asked to favor him—from ""CHRISTIANS"". Lying is no small matter, folks. And then there's tRUMP: 22K lies in office!

And after all this sin-full behavior, CHUMP thinks YOU voters are so stupid, he can fire Lewandowsky and reject a Noem endorsement, and YOU will believe "we're for family values and integrity" line! This meme PROVES he's lying about that, for himself, and he's to be a so-called "leader." LIAR!

U.S. politics is practiced sin-fully! Idolatry, lying, deception, self-seeking, arrogance (do you know who I am?) and no sincere repenting! The devil's city is NOT Vegas or NOLA, but Washington D.C., folks! Laodicea may represent America, and many U.S. cities, but we're watching prophecy occur!

Let me edu-ma-cate you on GOD's view of lying, EVEN IF you could care less, and intend to use and treat it as a supposedly wise way to protect self and image. https://biblestudytools.com/topical-verses/lying-bible-verses/... and REMEMBER Honest Abe and I cannot tell a lie George Washington! America was NEVER as corrupt as she is today!

Texas A and M's corps has a "we don't lie, cheat or steal" motto. The adage goes, if I'm lyin, I'm dyin. People USED to know lying is a sin. Not so much, now days. The devil is influencing your decisions when you lie! tRUMP lied 22K times in office, and Christians support him! Satanic!

Levit. 19:11 Do not steal. Do not lie. Do not deceive one another. Ps. 119:163 I hate and detest falsehood but I love your law. THERE is our problem! America and the Christian church do NOT love the Bible like the REAL King David (NOT Chump) did! He'd NOT have a photo op with it, or sign it!

Pv. 12:22 The LORD detests lying lips, but he delights in people who are trustworthy. JUST LIKE the love of money idol in America, that which man adores God detests!

Lk. 16:15 Laodicea! We THINK ourselves "good" people, but Pv. 13:5 says The righteous hate what is false, but the wicked make themselves a stench and bring shame on themselves.

You MIGHT recall, bearing false witness is one of the 10 forbidden behaviors in the 10 commandments (NOT the movie). READ Pv. 14:5 An honest witness does not deceive, but a false witness pours out lies.

MAGATs—READ Pv. 17:17! (if you're able): Pv. 17:7 Eloquent lips are unsuited to a godless fool—how much worse lying lips to a ruler! LYING IS NOT FIT FOR A POLITICIAN—I'll paraphrase it for ya. TWENTY-TWO THOUND LIES IN OFFICE. You love God, country and family? BALDERDASH! Follow God's values, LIARS!

(Unknown source)

Source: @AnnieForTruth

For your information, THIS verse praises a certain type of human behavior: Zeph. 3:13 They will do no wrong; they will tell no lies. A deceitful tongue will not be found in their mouths. They will eat and lie down and no one will make them afraid. OPPOSITE so many U.S. politicians! Sinning vs. winning!

Jn. 8:44 You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies. Lies are of satan.

Rev. 22:15 Outside [of heaven, in hell] are the dogs, those who practice magic arts, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters and everyone who loves and practices falsehood. And as if to summarize last week in U.S. history.

I Cor. 6:9 Do you not know that the wicked will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: Neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers nor male prostitutes nor homosexual offenders, nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. I Cor. 6:9 Habitual acts.

I DIDN'T start that chapter intending it toward CHUMP, but TX politicians who swore to be impartial vs. political, Boebert about her spokesperson, and Noem, who praised Christian values while sleeping with a fool for two years. Lying is evil. Not really, says satan! D.C. does it ALL THE TIME, voters.

Mt. 10:32-33 Therefore, everyone who confesses Me before people, I will also confess him before My Father who is in heaven. But whoever denies Me before people, I will also deny him before My Father who is in heaven. RE: tRUMP and Lamebaugh's SAME excuse on faith discussed publicly!

Update #1: MAGA Myths

(11/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

In Bible prophecy (history yet and soon to be made), we will see not only the falling away of Christians from their faith (The Apostasy), but also the grand delusion, where men will believe what is false, by that delusion spirit. But people are to value truth and facts!

Not all in the far right WANT to believe lies, or are such low IQs that they can't learn truth! THIS message is to help those caught in a trap of satan's lies in politics! If a human has no valuing of morals or truth, they are hopeless in life!

They won't go far, and will burn in hell, never having enough love of the truth, so as to be saved! Truth is what landed man on the moon. Morals is what makes most of us not murders.

IF you had no parents, or had bad ones, or failed Kindergarten, it's never too late to LEARN that truth and morals are valuable and important! Myths relied upon are deadly!

Imagine if you sincerely believed a booby trapped car was 100% safe to drive?

You sincerely and confidently believed a lie that killed you! The Bible teaches against myths and mere traditions of men that are contrary to truth!

HERE are some MYTHS the MAGA beliefs-reinforced crowd may sincerely believe, but that belief is as valuable as a male sincerely believing he is a monkey!

1. Taxes are bad
2. Government is all bad
3. Anyone not a "conservative" hates America
4. Biden is an evil human
5. Trump is "godly"
6. Winning is everything
7. The 2020 election was stolen
8. Mike Pence should have rejected the 2020 results, if he was a patriot
9. The mainstream media never tells any truth, and always lies
10. The U.S. Constitution demands there only be state-decided law issues, except where that doc clearly says the feds can be involved. The Tenth Amendment says 'and the people,' NOT and the people in every state for every issue
11. Government does evil when it ever helps anyone
12. Winning is more important than truth and morality
13. Talk radio hosts are always accurate
14. Higher education (college) is a bad thing, and only indoctrinates graduates into liberalism
15. Only conservatives can be patriotic
16. Freedom means do whatever you want, and government can never tell you otherwise, legally
17. I can claim to be "for God," and know little to nothing about Him, and behave little to nothing like Him

18. As long as I support abortion bans, God is happy with me

19. Liberals are all evil

20. Money is the main point of life Be released from bondage to lies! They don't set you free! Jn. 8:32

P.S.:

21. Jan. 6 was a peaceful tour of the Capitol building, and anyone who disagrees with that viewpoint ought to be in GITMO for treason.

These STUPID conclusions—extreme, irrational, biased and from mental incapacity or low IQ—do not make for a successful life in other areas!

IF Mike Pence is "the modern-day Judas," Bible scholars (cough, cough), tRUMP being likened to Jesus only shows how utterly satanically deluded and devoid of the Bible such claimers are. Anti-Christ spirit! Below describes the complete OPPOSITE of Jesus! READ it, if you're literate!

I've read liberals' tweets claiming CHUMP has written vows to jail enemies on a specific list, and that his re-election would end democracy in America. There's NO way it will end. BUT he very possibly would start a civil war, and I'd be HAPPY to join it, against his forces, if so! #BringItOn

I don't know half of these alleged groups, and may even agree some or even all of them ought not be in America, but this FOOL thinks he's 'gonna end all opponents? Delusional con man. These are dictatorial and Hitler ambitions, likening these groups to Jews Germany needed to eliminate! EVIL!

I'd rather be sleeping, but THIS is what keeps me up at night: CHUMP lists groups he wants to utterly end (below). He feels he has some holy calling to force his view in every American, when he's the least holy politician in America! WRONG! Who are his scapegoats his DUMB followers hate?

Public servants and average Joe government employees, politicians NOT in his cult ("deep state"), people who would help Ukraine and Israel ("warmongers"), globalist liberals, who want foreign aid, or presumably follow some cockamamie alleged skull and bones or trilateral commission agenda to make America weak and equal to all other nations, economically, militarily and power-wise, through Socialism; Communists and Marxists (notice, he names none, as I don't think we have many, but his green room friend is Putin, the Commie, hypocritically!), Fascists (projecting, again!), sick political class that hates America (again he names no one, and he attributes a motive to some leftists that is often untrue; they just differ with this MORON on people not being selfishly left to rot, in life), fake news (a made up term that ONLY means people who speak truth to power, and OFTEN do have a left agenda NOT to allow Americans to rot and die, because hyper selfish conservatism likes that vision for America).

LOOK: Rural America is self-sufficiency with a gun. They RARELY do barn raisings (old fashioned), though they do do them. They CAN'T comprehend why our federal government costs us so much, and those funds RARELY go to the farmers and ranchers (except farm subsidies, public schools, Welfare, Medicare, Social Security, cops, roads that are sometimes paved, wars that keep us safe, etc., and they OFTEN have vets and military.

They sometimes feel empowered to be deemed the political leaders or most American, because of that sacrifice. NO, as honored as their service is, it does NOT guarantee you are more patriotic than civilians, and you certainly have NO MORE RIGHT to say how America should look than any other voter!

THANKS for your service, but you are NOT better at interpreting our Constitution than lawyers, who spent much more time getting educated, than people who just listen to mainly college dropout talk radio extremists!

And when you say God and country, you defy and deny the God of the Bible (the ONLY God—Jesus) to oppose any safety net, praise the new Argentinian President (who is an extremists nut case/job), want five federal agencies shut down, NO IRS to collect taxes, etc.

ANY CHRISTIAN IN THIS CHUMP CULT has a SERIOUS spiritual problem walking biblically faithful!

Plus, CHUMP ALWAYS LIES! TWENTY-TWO THOUSAND+ times in office. Does anyone REALLY think he will achieve his inane (stupid) goals in the post, below? YES! Fools believe it, even though it will never happen, because they're duped as sheeple FOOLS by the great Oz con man orange turd.

But THAT is the trick, when YOU are your own god! You ONLY care about getting their votes, even though gained through FRAUD/lying. WHO CARES how you get the vote? Morals and truth do NOT matter! Just say whatever words get idiots to worship a mere mortal, as apostate, low IQ dupes!

I believe IF tRUMP actually tried to seek vengeance on his enemy list, and do all these things against this unnamed bunch of Americans, Civil War would occur, before anyone opposing him (as I do) allowed democracy to fail and his dictatorship to win!

It is the moral and rational Americans who I appeal to (which may or may not include all Christians—many of them are carnal/immoral): You CANNOT serve God, or be a mere God-fearer, and follow this cult con man who very well may be revealed as THE Antichrist!

You're rebelling against Jesus, to do so! YES, he has stolen a few policies that comport with the Bible. Satan ALWAYS appears as an angel of light! I don't give one rat's ass about CHUMP. He will be long gone, one blessed day.

I care what he's trying to do to MY country, my ex-party and my religion! It is EVIL and satanic. Pastors who supported CHUMP in the past MUST publicly repent, as their "followers" still believe he was sent by God, because he got elected, and nothing happens by accident, before a sovereign God.

Putin and Kim Jong Un are in power! Is that God's will? Hell no, but He allows it! I am convinced, over the past seven years, NO Trumpster can or even tries to defend what's below. They simply choose amnesia!

Dems and centrists MUST run the contents of this meme regularly, to attract the non-partisan middle and NOT far righters! IT is rightly damning! READ IT!!!

Remember it! You've had three years of peaceful Presiding, so you may forget the stress, the division, the hate, the inciting to violence, the arrogance, the tweets, the global shame, the hiding your kids eyes from our "leaders' behaviors."

God NOWHERE says you should let history repeat itself because YOU have a BAD memory! In I Peter, THREE times people are called to remember! The holocaust gets denied by these same ilk, but we rational and moral people coined the phrase, #NeverForget.

And NO ONE can say CHUMP ever repented, so he still isn't forgiven by God! He's just out there hocking his latest ploy, acting (like a Hollywood celeb who can grab a woman's crotch) like a food feeder of border agents and free pizzas and drinks for anyone dumb enough to be entertained by his immoral and idiotic clown show. And yes, pastor, I ALWAYS pray up before I post!

IF you oppose and don't want the #MAGACult continuing after Chump is in a nursing home, through his ilk like his sons, Gaetz, MTG, Boobert, and many other clowns/ unserious NON-leaders, PLEASE read my earlier chapter!

They say it's not filtered, not nice, not "Christian," or kind and loving. BALDERDASH! @Libin_A IT IS NEEDED plain and clear truth, the way we ought to speak, reprove and call out sins of #1 sinner!

I WILL REPEAT, ONE MORE TIME: The Apostasy and the great delusion of satan will cause Bible prophecy (the 7-year Tribulation) to occur, and the Antichrist to be revealed! READ I-II Thessalonians! Christians living sinfully and stupidly, and deceived lost people ALLOW it to come to fruition!

FEEDING groupies pizza, and non-homeless border patrols over Thanksgiving week does NOT make one a "man of the people," nor taking no White House salary, while your family makes hundreds of millions, abusing that power and office! IT'S ALL AN ACT he LIED he wouldn't do.

I HOPE I'm on CHUMP's enemies list, because I DARE him to step foot on my doorstep to try to seek revenge! I said he'd start a Civil War! TRY to get inside my home to get revenge on me TELLING THE TRUTH ABOUT AMERICA'S #1 SINNER! Please try to come by, hellbound fool! Chicken pansy!

U.S. Christians: DO YOU APPEASE OR HATE EVIL? The fear of God is to hate evil. I fear we DON'T plan to make a stand against sin in America, by opposing America's #1 sinner, because the Church won't repent—to get revival—but embraces sin for secular power idolatry, below! (See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at AmericanAnswers.org's Campaign updates p. 40). God judge us, if so!

I believe there's a 98% chance CHUMP is The Antichrist. That means I could be 100% wrong, but that wouldn't negate I left open that 2% possibility! HOW could he become that?

Once ALL Christians are gone (Rapture), he is 100% satan-filled, especially as the Spirit's restraints taken from the earth, as judgment. Revelation speaks of miraculous but satanic powers of the Beast.

And if the Israel War drags on until next Nov., and he were to win, the second the rapture took place, he'd return to his evil real self, vs. the food feeder ACT! Beware, folks.

We have Russian War in Ukraine lasting that long, and more! If Israel's War brings in more anti-Jew nations and groups (Iran proxies), the ferocity eventually necessitates God's direct intervention, by a man who brokers a FAKE 7-year peace deal! DJT could do that, right at the Rapture!

Update #2: A Sincere, Public Trump Apology Would Be Enough?

(11/26/23; @JamesMeroney)

EVEN IF 46-1 publically renounced and behaved sorrowful about all that's below, sincerity would be questioned, as he's proven he only serves self, so he would have calculated a political reason to do so. This behavior crossed a line you can't come back from, politically, before God, in my opinion!

When a terrorist group attacks peaceful Israelis, or the school bully punches and steals the lunch money of many kiddos, THEY ARE RIGHTLY SHUNNED, and ANY changed behavior thereafter NEVER gets them in good graces of the masses! Murderers have a HARD time getting a job—post jail time.

ANY AMERICAN and all Christians who votes for tRUMP, because economy was better, has idolized money over morality, willfully and knowingly violating Mt. 6:24! IF all running GOP's for all offices, EXCEPT Chump, were voted for, Biden would be checkmated for bad policies (four more years), or third party win!

Update #3

(11/30/23; @JamesMeroney)

CHUMP said THIS was him (See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at AmericanAnswers.org's Campaign updates p. 40), and he scolded a handler who wanted him to change his shtick. Anyone who trusts a liar is stupid, gullible, or suffers from battered spouse-like return-to-the-abuser syndrome!

And the FACT that CHUMP said he won't pick anyone running for VP is perfect ammo and evidence that he very well may, as if his lips are moving, the lies are flowing!

Update #4: Trump, Accurately Described!

(11/30/23; @JamesMeroney)

One of the BEST tweet posts I have ever read! I even copied it to the file where I keep all our own posts, it was that good. This hero (thanks for your service) has a handle on the Chump, and tRUMPsters!!!

@naretevdurp: He's a pathological liar. He openly supports and empowers racism, bigotry, misogyny, xenophobia, and mocks the disabled. He doesn't support most government agencies. He doesn't have any real policy positions on anything. Whatever helps himself the most is what he does.

He's a malignant narcissist who's main use for people is for his betterment. He routinely screws over friends, supporters, employees, and small businesses that provide him and his businesses products and services. He panders to (and colludes with) murderous dictators to enrich himself, spread false propaganda, mislead his supporters, and hurt his political opponents.

He has associated with known pedophiles and sexual predators. He has been accused of and found responsible for rape and sexual assault. He has been married three times and cheated on all three wives. He paid for a mistress to have an abortion and paid a porn star for sex, then tried to cover that up to win an election. Then there's his petty vindictiveness, his insidious cruelty and his staggering ineptitude.

His presidency was one long grifting con. Tax payers paid millions to his businesses while he played golf 305 days, that costing taxpayers an estimated $144 Million. On top of his grifting there's his nepotism, funneling money to his children from foreign governments and our own. He led a conspiracy, a coup, to steal the 2020 election and overthrow our government.

He's not only ignorant of our nation's history, our principles, our social norms, he couldn't care less. He encourages violence and hatred in his supporters. There's the 91 felony counts and two impeachments! [and 22,000 lies in office; all these things done completely unapologetically].

Update #5: Trump's 2023 TV Ad (Rebuttal)

(11/30/23; @JamesMeroney)

HERE's the tRUMP cult: Your dear leader bullies everyone in 2016, shames America four years, and when that rightly causes backlash, they play the martyr card, and claim no one loves me; they're all haters! Sick, self-absorbed group! EVERYTHING in Chumps ad he stole, mostly from me! God judge him!

DISCLAIMER: This DOESN'T mean he couldn't have eventually gotten these policies from elsewhere, or that I had a monopoly on good solutions, but he got them through my home pastor (if not others) alerting him to our writings.

Strong economy
Military might Secure borders
Calm America (law & order)
Energy non-dependence
I nation under God
America rich
America proud
America respected
USA #1 (he calls America 1 st)
ALL OUR IDEAS HE STOLE!!!

I have tweets that date-stamp prove CHUMP just steals our ideas, in his ad. I'll demand a lie detector, and call witnesses, as needed. He'd never tell the truth without polygraphs! Every one of these issues we spoke of the past eight years! We just omit being the Antichrist in our advocacy!
 here IS MY REBUTTAL OF Trump's EXCELLENTLY GLOSSY/PROFESSIONAL AD:

1. STRONG ECONOMY. He will argue for tax cuts on the rich. I say fair taxes for all, and as low as pays our bills, after streamlining government. He'd say cut five agencies. I say cut them back.
2. MILITARY MIGHT. I say #1 in the world, BUT not chicken to defend U.S. national interests abroad! And highest tech, so humans risk harm rarely. And best bang for the buck. Not $600K jet toilet seats. He just uses two-word slogans for idiots. I explain what he stole from me, and talk radio afterwards!
3. SECURE BORDERS. He DOESN'T address any need of U.S. employers for illegals' service, needing away to work here, temporarily! I don't call for a 40-foot beautiful wall Mexico will pay for, as they won't pay for our asset, and a virtual wall is what I called for! Physical walls can be breached. Sensored walls with immediate response teams physically keep illegals out, even if rubber bullets and physical restraint until they cross back over is needed!

Then, get at the back of the line and come legally. Get a sponsor, and come if you have a job. No government handouts when you arrive, for years CHUMP only has two-word slogans! He reminds me of an immature teenager, like a joke my youngest son said, as a pick-up line: Didn't we have class together? We had chemistry. One-liner, immature slogans, the details of which he'll try to steal, but I'm coming to expose Goliath! God wins!

4. LAW & ORDER? I've written on that well before the BLM (Black Lives Matter) West Coast riots, and been pro thin blue line all my life. There wouldn't be expected to be much room between his views and ours, as his are ours—STOLEN! ALL HE HAD before us was it will be great—believe me. I won't let him get away with THEFT of intellectual property, or claim the ideas as his own, nor his contacting MY two pastors, seeking to steal what God was doing through me!
5. ENERGY INDEPENDENCE. I do differ in that America needs our influence in the middle east, for Israel's protection. And I care that environmental protections are in place. 100% independence would give us no reason to be in that region, save for NATO military presence! One area of disagreement. America RICH, PROUD and RESPECTED. America BEFORE OTHER NATIONS, BY THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT. ALL MY IDEAS! Twitter search America #1!

HOWEVER, Chump has NO plans for America to be richer. I have about eight, previously detailed. He just says tax cuts, ESPECIALLY for the rich. That's not justice, and that's not the only aspect of how a great economy happens. Respected? We were humiliated by dictator schmoozer loser!

EVERY two-worder in his ad was excellent, and you're welcome! What's NOT excellent is his thievery, crimes, 22,000 lies in office, his harm to Christianity, and all that's in The Case Against Donald Trump, at AmericanAnswers.org's Campaign updates p. 40.

He is no role model or leader, except to cultists! #2024 Goliath debate! I'll be there, ANY time! TELL THE FOOL SO.

Update #6: Trump Dangers 2024

(12/2/23; @JamesMeroney)

IMPORTANT information from @RpsAgainstTrump

[TRUMP] has made it very clear that if he gets elected again, he's going to spend his time and use the government to retaliate against his domestic enemies in government, media, and beyond. Axios revealed the exact questionnaires Trump allies are planning to use for appointees and employees in case he wins back the White House. Here's one example: "What part of Candidate Trump's campaign message most appealed to you and why?" Another question: "Briefly describe your political evolution. What thinkers, authors, books, or political leaders influenced you and led you to your current beliefs? What political commentator, thinker or politician best reflects your views?"

CHUMP's Dictator edicts are irresponsible! You don't drill baby drill (Sarah Palin-ism), IF spills or blowouts are allowed, or everywhere! And you don't 'close' but fully control it, and only let in those our economy needs, to come here legally. Fast-tracked green card for sponsored workers. (12/6/23)

Update #7: Lower Taxes Grow An economy (Leaving Debt as a Boat Anchor)?

(12/17/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let's go over CHUMPs. lower the rich's taxes scheme. Bribery is evil—a sin. And using taxpayer's dollars to bribe the rich vote is more heinous! It's EXACTLY what Democrats do, promising taxpayer-funded handouts! WE don't HAVE MONEY TO SPEND, with ~$34 TRILLION in debt!

He says it will cause an economic boom. Likely true, for a little while, as business and the rich will have MORE than they already do (much more than anyone else) to spend, not being spent on taxes. BUT, that rebate comes at a cost. The amount returned and interest on borrowed money to hand it to the rich, as WE HAVE NO MONEY!

IF doing so caused an increase in our economy (a GOOD thing), the increase would HAVE to exceed the amount of the bribe, plus interest! If not, the money would HAVE to be returned to the U.S. Treasury, because, again, WE HAVE NO MONEY! The money going for a tax rebate (call it X, plus interest; call it Why MUST be recovered; XY), plus some, or is it merely a scheme to put America MORE in debt!

What matters is whether taxes are FAIR to all! MOST Americans (poor and rich) do NOT have the luxury of tax avoidance schemes of accountants and lawyers!

This is PING PONG POLITICS! Dems give away tax dollars to the poor; GOP's give away tax dollars to the rich, and America is $34 TRILLION in debt! NO one cares or is serious about reducing our debt, and paying whats rightly due and owed! It's an evil bribery scheme, and the Antichrist will gain global power through bribes and military force.

Justice is ALL that matters, and fiscal responsibility. OF COURSE those with the LEAST need for government help pay much more in taxes than everyone else, because the income they pull in is significantly higher. Taxes HAVE to be FAIR for ALL!

And you can't even know what taxes ought to be until federal budgets thoroughly analyzed and streamlined for best bang for the buck, and a plan made to decide how our debt will be reduced, so we get to a balanced budget within 20 years or sooner. It's easier for politicians to promise money for votes!

6. CHURCH ISSUES

(8/22/23; @JamesMeroney)

IS IT wrong/sinful to invite a friend to church, to hear the gospel? DUMB question! BUT, it IS sin if you're doing it because you're scared to tell them yourself! You can argue the pro will do a better job, but you are being a timid coward. He can clean up, but you are to speak!

Update #1: Church Discipleship

(9/9/23; @JamesMeroney)

Yet another matter: Subjective vs. objective sins. Christians are (supposed) to walk by faith. You CAN'T, when you rarely read the Bible, as it is faith's source. Rom. 10:17 So, your ONLY option for how to live is by what you observe, comparing to others.

The Bible says that's walking by sight, and a Christian cannot please God living that way. But since salvation does NOT automatically fill one's brain with Bible knowledge, that's exactly how the U.S. majority live! Yes, a bit influenced by sermons, but NOT by God, directly, from meeting with Him daily.

Those who are Spirit-led apply what God gives them to do (subjective). Those who aren't Spirit-powered can rightly be evaluated by what the Bible says all people are supposed to be doing (objective). IF a Christian is NOT walking by faith, the law of God's word shows others how they SHOULD be behaving, but aren't.

But for the faith-walker, they're held to obeying the standard God has given them. Phil. 3:16 It's an imperfect standard, but based on a relationship to Jesus; not rules. And the whole counsel of God is their ultimate aim, but the scope and pace of applying is left with God!

I hear "Christians," all the time, call people legalists, if they have a Bible verse used for their decisions. BY VERY DEFINITION, THAT MEANS THEY BELIEVE TO BE A GOOD CHRISTIAN YOU DON'T DO WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS, THAT YOU CAN CONSCIOUSLY RECALL!

ONE MORE TIME I ask you to READ the book of Acts, and SEE how far-off normal Christian living (and retirement) is in America, compared to how REAL believers with not nearly our assets or education actually lived! They pleased God! Us, not so much. #Laodicea Jas. 4:4 They weren't mythical figures.

Update #2: Follow-Up

FOLLOW-UP. Now that you're a Christian, what does that mean? You're saved; you have eternal life; you'll go to heaven when you die; all your sins are forgiven. IS THAT ALL? No.

You were made a new creation; a holy brother; a royal priesthood; a saint. You have an inheritance. And every day you're to live walking with God, 24/7, since you have eternal life, now and forever. That means knowing God, and getting to know Him better, every day, until you see/meet Him face-to-face.

He will empower you to live the life He saved you for; Holy Spirit-filled, as you're committed to Him. If and when you sin, you confess it, to maintain the closeness/intimacy/ fellowship—not that those sins aren't already covered, as to missing hell. You pray to get re-filled with His Spirit.

Your heart is like a home, and Jesus owns the title and has the keys, but you have to let Him into every room, closet, nook and cranny, to be boss/master/Lord of all those areas.

Every day you purify that heart by Bible meditation and prayer. And God has a plan for your life you're to find and do, and He has work to do, we call ministry; especially evangelism, and discipling Christians.

Generally, you're to live holy, as God is holy, in gratitude for so great a salvation; not to earn or repay it. It's iterative, and increasing all your life. Never perfection, but learning specifically what He has for you to do and apply that day, by faith, and being obedient to the faith He gives.

It's living in victory over the power of sin (sanctification). People will tell you to read the Bible. IF you had a full working knowledge of its totality, verses would tell you the main points are the main points, rather than taking you decades to learn its main priorities and actions every believer is to do.

There are Bible verses for everything I've just told you. Live this way, and you'll have the greatest life. Christians who don't are displeasing God, will be judged, and will have a worse and much harder life in this world, and sadder heavenly entry.

Update #3

The other day I wrote about the satanic Bible, saying the one I've seen the cover to wouldn't say what satan actually says, which is anything and everything OPPOSITE accurate Bible interpretation! Here's a highlight of New Testament teachings (below).

I understand when I first started reading the Bible, it was a more peaceful time. Now, everything's rush-rush. No one takes the time to read, or get to know God. They want a quick fix transaction. That's NOT how God gets approached! And we're warned NOT to add to or subtract from His word. Deut. 4:2; Rev. 17:21

That's NOT what I'm doing. I'm 'gonna stroll through the entire New Testament with you, pointing out key jewels along the way. New and stagnant Christians NEED inspiration to 'wanna spend time in God's word! Church is needed, but NEVER a substitute for one-on-one time with Jesus!

Ps. 119:9-11 says Thy word I have laid on my heart that I might not sin against Thee. That's NOT listening to sermons! And Josh. 1:8 says success is to those who meditate in God's word day and night. Again, that's NOT listening to sermons!

YOU HAVE NO SUBSTITUTE from Bible reading, to get Christians' minds renewed, get 'em to know God, get 'em to know God's will for their lives, and get 'em to believe in God's values, and to start living differently from when they got saved! NO substitutes exist! Scripture memory and meditation are NOT sermon hearing, or song listening!

WE want that quick fix. We'll spend 30 minutes working out each day, but GOD says godly discipline is more important than that time well-spent! I Tim. 4:7-8 Growing as a Christian takes effort! Intentionality; purpose; choice.

VERY little change comes doing nothing! God is always at work—Phil. 1:6, but that work, for those unengaged, is severe trials, pruning, disciplining and chiding. Avoid the need for that by realizing Jesus wants EVERY Christian to live as His disciple, not in name only, but behaviorally, with Him as Lord of all areas, led by His Spirit!

That is a lifelong commitment to DAILY activity of walking with Jesus! Lk. 9:23 We OWE it to Him, after all He did in saving us, and from gratitude were going to heaven! It's what He saved us for. Eph. 2:10 It's the ONLY way you can please God, be blessed, and get eternally rewarded! Heb. 11:6

NOT living that way you are subject to pruning (Jn. 15), more trials, lack of peace, premature death, a shorter lifespan, worse health and likely finances, more troubles and problems, lost heavenly rewards you would have had, sorrow in heaven, and little to no power in this life!

And you WON'T know Jesus decently, and will be a stain/blemish and dark mark on His reputation, before men! In short, carnal Christians are a shame and embarrassment to God, are His experiential ENEMIES, and will receive His judgment. HERE are my verses, offered to prove these claims:

Heb. 11:6, 12:6; Rev. 13:9, 22:12; Jn. 10:10, 15:4, 6; Lk. 13:7-8; I Cor. 2:9, 3:10-15, 11:30; Mk. 4:14-20; Mt. 6:2, 6, 7:24-27, 25:21, 29; I Pet. 3:10; Rom. 2:4-10; Jas. 1:12, 5:15; Isa. 26:3; I Jn. 2:28; II Tim. 4:14; Deut. 5:33; Pv. 11:18; Amos 5:14 and even the non-Christian is supposed to live morally, before God's eyes! Ecc. 12:1, 13-14; II Chron. 16:9

YOU CANNOT HAVE GOD'S SPIRIT bring Bible verses to your recollection if you've never read God's love letter written directly to you, and would have been written only for you! Read more Bible, folks! II Tim. 2:15, 3:16-17

It's DAILY spiritual bread/life sustenance! Mt. 4:4 So now, to its highlights: Mt. 1:1, 17 Jesus' genealogy is directly tied to David and Abraham. 1:18-25 Jesus was virgin born;

LOOK how seriously God takes bad Bible interpretations and false doctrine heard/learned in error and sin by Christians, from evil or sinful "leaders":

Mt. 7:15-20; Mk. 13:22; Jn. 8:44; Ac. 20:28-30; Rom. 16:17-18; II Cor. 11:13-15; Eph. 4:14; I Tim. 1:3-7, 18-20, 6:3-5, 20-21; II Tim. 2:16-18; 3:1-5, 4:1-4, Tit. 1:9-11, 16; II Pet. 1:16, 2:1-22, 3:14-18; I Jn. 4:1-3; II Jn. 1:10-11; Jude 1:4; Rev. 2:20 What you put in your mind will come out in your deeds! Pv. 3:5-7, 4:23, 23:7; Mt. 15:19; Rom. 12:2; II Cor. 10:5; Eph. 4:22-24; Col. 3:1-4; Phil. 4:6-8.

And on the importance of prayer, READ Pointers for Prayer, at the same website tab! Jer. 29:13; Ps. 102:17, 145:18, 141:2; Pv. 15:8, 29; Mt. 5:44, 6:7, 7:7-11, 26:41 (I Cor. 10:13); Mk. 11:22-24; Lk. 6:12, 18:1; Rom. 12:12; Eph. 3:20, 6:18; Phil. 4:6-7; Col. 4:2; I Th. 5:17; I Tim. 2:1-2, 8; Jas. 1:2-7, 4:2-3, 5:13, 16; I Pet. 5:6-7; I Jn. 5:14; WHOEVER you are, pray and read the Bible! IT BENEFIT YOUR LIFE!

Update #4

Having learned a little doctrine and a lot of pragmatics, I WILL BE FRANK WITH YOU:

1. Be VERY cautious who you learn Bible claims from!
2. The Bible isn't always as clear as Americans would have written it, topic by topic, with all verses on point, compared. OUR WEBSITE DOES THAT, as people live hurried, sound bite attention span lives.

I sincerely believe if ANY Christian, or even lost soul, READS the Best Memory Verses chapter of <http://AmericanAnswers.org>'s Will You Live forever button, they will start a lifelong habit, in 30 days, and will have done the MOST IMPORTANT thing they can do in life, besides getting saved!

I refer you to Best Memory Verses and Best Chapters to initially read pages of Will You Live Forever button of <http://AmericanAnswers.org>, to get the best Bible verses summary (pp. 316-324). I thought THIS chapter would have me read Mt-Rev. Was I in for a surprise! Doctrine and John 14:26

A Christian has basically NO information in their heads different from what they had the day before they got saved (except the gospel's content)! Knowledge of the Bible doesn't happen by osmosis, but what comes natural, came before (old habits), or what the world teaches them!

In a (daily) quiet time, you go to the Bible to meet God; not mainly to acquire knowledge. But if you've met with God for a long time, you acquire the knowledge of the Bible very well. Jn. 5:39 His love letter becomes very familiar to you!

Update #5: Seeker-Sensitive Church Practice?

(9/17/23; @JamesMeroney)

Can YOU reconcile churches claiming to be seeker sensitive with THIS passage? Rom. 3:9-13 It's NEVER that you only get general information from the Bible, to rightly interpret. You have to see the forest/whole counsel, but also the trees; compare and harmonize. They NEVER contradict!

Update #6

(9/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

I Jn. 2:15-17 teaches PRIDE often accompanies sex or "success" achievements, financially (trophy wife, livin' the life, etc.)! THOSE THREE SINS EXHIBIT WORLDLINESS, and a Christian friend of the world is an experiential ENEMY of God! Jas. 4:4. Believers can lack God's values and priorities!

YOU—the viewing public—have SEEN how man's definition of success can go to one's head (results in pride sin), in the "do you know who I am" comments of Boebert! The devil has you start feeling like you are something, when you are ALWAYS a nobody! Christ is ALL! II Cor. 12:11; Col. 3:11

Update #7: Seminary Curricula

(10/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

[Sent to MANY seminaries:] It ONLY makes sense, knowing the Bible, to require this of students—right? (yes)

IF God's Great Commission & 'preach the word' mean anything to us...

- 3-hour course on evangelism, apologetics & disciple-making
- Outline every chapter & Bible book, in a year
- Week of every semester, students read Ps. 119

Update #8: Sir Paul McCartney & Heaven

(10/22/23; @JamesMeroney)

I listened to your I-Heart Radio podcast @PaulMcCartney and because I care about you and especially as the greatest songwriter of all times, I MUST tell you christening DOESN'T save your eternal soul! As we all get older, DON'T go into eternity with false info and vain hope! PLEASE read:

THE GOSPEL ("Good News")

DO YOU KNOW FOR CERTAIN THAT YOU WILL GO TO HEAVEN WHEN YOU DIE?...

1. GOD'S PLAN: Good News... God Loves You, and has a Wonderful Plan for your Life!

 "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life." (John 3:16)
"The thief comes only to steal, and kill, and destroy; I came that they might have life, and might have it abundantly." (John 10:10)

2. MAN'S PROBLEM: All People have Sinned--No One is Morally Perfect.

 If you have ever committed one sin, you are guilty before God as if you had committed all sins. Therefore, no one deserves to go to heaven and no one can work their way there.
"For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." (Rom. 3:23)
Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but through Me." (John 14:6)

3. SIN'S PUNISHMENT: The Punishment for Sin is Physical and Eternal Death.

 Man not only dies bodily when this life is over, but his soul is eternally separated from God--in hell--without Christ.
"For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Rom. 6:23)

4. GOD'S PROVISION: God has Provided Jesus Christ as the Solution to Man's Problem.

 Christ paid the punishment/penalty for all men's sins by dying on the cross, and He is alive today, in heaven, having been resurrected from the dead.
"Now I make known to you, brethren, the Gospel which I preached to you, which also you received, in which also you stand, by which also you are saved, if you hold fast the word which I preached to you, unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures." (1 Cor. 15:1-4)
"But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." (Rom. 5:8)
"And there is salvation in no one else; for there is no other name under heaven that has been given among men, by which we must be saved." (Acts 4:12)

5. MAN'S RESPONSE: You can Receive Jesus Christ for the Forgiveness of All Your Sins.

 By faith in God's word, the Bible, you trust God to save you from your sins. You do this by praying to invite Jesus Christ to live in your heart (i.e., life).
"That as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name." (John 1:12)
"Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with Me." (Rev. 3:20)

If we had God's eyes/from a spiritual perspective, there are only two metrics that matter: Is the gap between those who have never heard the gospel getting shortened, and are things that hasten physical death being eliminated, so people who have heard have more time to get saved! (10/24/23)

Update #9: The Global Evangelism Need

(10/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

List of cities that NEED to learn the gospel! <http://ad2000.org/1040city.htm>

IT WOULD BE WORTH IT to use drones to drop gospel leaflets all across the 10/40 Window (even if some of them got shot down)! THAT is a ministry I would want to be a part of in retirement!

Update #10

(11/30/23; @JamesMeroney)

ANY Christian who doesn't regularly pray and read their Bibles, do their share of evangelizing (110 unique people), rarely if ever disciple any newbies, aren't using their spiritual gift in ministry and improving society to some degree, as they live moral and work hard--THEYRE FAILURES!

People aren't taught God's expectations of their lives! There's an invisible, eternal battle for men's souls, and satan wants every human in hell with him! EVERY Christian has been enlisted, but most are not in active service. In heaven, they will learn how futile their existence was!

BECAUSE you can basically find this information NOWHERE, few to no Americans understand he with the most toys is NOT a winner in life! MOST of who the world calls winners will forever burn in hell. That's NOT "success!" Josh. 1:8 defines success. It's NOT what people or the media or businesses say.

The Bible has CLEAR commands that are impossible to obey, on your own. Certainly not all of them, and not perfectly. You need a power to be able to do anything spiritual! It's not relationships but power Christians lack in evangelism success! The Bible is CLEAR on this fact! POWER!

Bible is NOT ambiguous about what disciples have to commit to, to be such! WHEN (or IF) you ever read those requirements, MOST American Christians are NOT experiential disciples! They can only be carnal, as the only other biblical option! What else can you call them? Displeasing to God.

The CLEAR Bible says worldly Christians are God's ENEMY! Jas. 4 You can sing, in church, "I am the friend of God," But that is ONLY a status as a believer, in Christ. It's NOT your experience before God, but you are His ENEMY, and if you walk by sight, you DISplease Him! Rom. 8:7-9

Heb. 11:6 Christians don't want to walk by faith, or live as disciples! It's HARD! Praying to receive Jesus is EASY. We want the Easy Road! We want the rich lifestyle! That desire is often or usually our flesh/sin nature! We want to be pampered with luxuries. We want to live for ourselves.

Living for yourself you get to decide for yourself and do what you want to do, and just enjoy life and get as rich as humanly possible, with ZERO moral obligations to minister for/serve God! Just go to church and "tithed." Cleanse our guilty consciences that we're all good. We're NOT!

This isn't profound, but obvious from any Bible reading! WHY DO WE NEVER HEAR THESE THINGS? Pastors don't want to turn off or scare away potential donors. That's not innately evil, to see people as how God blesses pastors, but it's an idol if you shy away from telling the TRUTH! Sin!

TWICE this week I've explained EXACTLY what a human life consists of, in God's estimation! It's not intuitive, or common sense. Human nature would NOT lead you to do all God expects! It's not innate to know His word! You have to READ it; NOT just hear sermons! DO THE WORK! II Tim. 2:15

Christians who walk by faith are NOT same as saved people who do zero to grow! There are two biblical categories, and stats for 40 years have said (three sources) the vast majority are carnal! Many are church-going! May even donate! Carnal. It's EASY to attend and give, but HARD to follow!

It's actually impossible, but once you learn that, and how to be empowered, motivation comes into play! WHY OIVE FOR GOD? If he's a myth, no reason! If He doesn't reward, in this and the next life, only stoics need apply! Type A he man types with great willpower. It's NOT that! Zech. 4:1

My former BFF (who died of cancer) said you are a HORRIBLE investor if you are only investing in your 80 years on earth! It benefits you, but isn't innately selfishly to want a wonderful eternity! People in heaven will NOT have the same rewards, or status! Paupers will exist, there.

God is the One who invented rewards motivation! Every parent uses rewards motivation. Employers use rewards motivation. Our economy incentivizes good behavior by fear of punishment, or rewarded good behavior (much less the latter). Rom. 13 REWARDS AS MOTIVATORS ARE NOT SINNING!

YOU, likely, are incapable of quickly finding most of the Bibles motivators! You'd mainly Google search for someone else's topic on point! WE DO NOT KNOW OUR BIBLES, WELL, folks! READ this! I know READ is a four-letter word to lazy, sinful people. don't sin by laziness. READ and meditate!

The Bible DOESNT read topically on motivation. God expected His children would read His word, but I'm certain He's very disappointed we don't! It's NOT evil to sum its teachings, but it's evil we don't care to know the Bible well! Meditate on God's ways of motivating you to be a better person!

Update #11: What Church Is

(12/14/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF you read Ac. 2, 4, Eph. 3-5, Jas. 4-5, I Cor. 12-14, and other passages about WHAT CHURCH IS, it is impossible to have biblical church practice without layman participation! Others can WATCH it, livestream, but they aren't experiencing it. Only do so if you must, or are protesting.

The ONE ANOTHERS of Scripture CANNOT be implemented, or spiritual gifts used, in normal church service formats! The Bible does NOT say to use those outside Sunday service, where all the body is gathered more than any other time! last eve was SO like how church is to be! #Amazing!

U.S. pastors NEED to comprehend: GOING TO CHURCH IS NOT NATURL FOR LOST PEOPLE. In the 1950's, our cultural tradition may have been, predominantly, to do so on Sunday (Ex: Alcohol blue laws before noon). GO TO THEM with the gospel, like the Bible teaches! (12/22/23)

7. CARNALITY: SINFULLY-LIVING CHRISTIANS

(9/5/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let's address the carnal majority in U.S. Christendom, and what consequences they are facing. IF a believe is not living as a disciple (committed/"devout"), they are saved, but carnal. Jesus said discipleship is sacrifice, involves suffering, and is daily and rewarded—Lk. 9:23

The opposite would be to live for yourself, vs. denying yourself. Living it up (Ecc. 1-3), doing what makes me happy, as I am the boss of my own life. Self-worship/idolatry.

Worldliness, even laziness, just pampering your flesh to have a good time in their life. NO service of God; no effort at growing (sanctification), Little to no Bible reading. Pray when you're in trouble, or rotely, like you go to church, to check off the boxes and try to clear your guilty conscience. Live just like everyone else, because comparing your choices with the world and what you see is your standard.

These people seem to get away with this lifestyle for years and decades; maybe even half centuries! Does God not see? Does He not care? There's no shunning or church discipline, and it's not civilly illegal, so WHAT, if anything, ever befalls them, negatively, for their sin choice?

The Bible says:

1. They're losing heavenly rewards and status
2. God will judge them
3. They're subject to MORE trials in this life
4. MORE sickness should befall their temporal life
5. Premature deaths possible
6. They are displeasing to God, and His enemy; if worldly DO THEY CARE and REPENT?

There are times it seems that God does NOT see the things I do, down here, like how carnal Christians seem to get away with their choices, with ZERO negative fallout. You can have more in common with lost people than claimers who are living as enemies of God! Are they really saved?

I am more and more convinced that claiming Christians who don't know the Bible choose things morally and spiritually wrongly, all the time! The contents of that book are not always common sense, or self-evident. If you won't read it, God deserves to judge you severely, Christ claimer!

There's objective and subjective behavior expectations for believers, differentiated by faith and Holy Spirit. However, IF you read the Bible objectively, AS IF God wasn't joking that He meant its contents, you have to conclude prophecy's The Apostasy of Christians has already occurred!

IT IS EASY to see how carnality happens in America! Our culture teaches Americans you're to pursue happiness, and one can never have enough money. The rich are posited as heroes, even if they're not philanthropic. When you never read the Bible, THAT value system replaces God's!

Update #1

(9/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

GREAT verses about gospel prophesied in Old Testament, concerning positive expectation ("hope") of actually having eternal life, through the manifested Word come to earth, for which the author labors for people's faith (which saves), and knowledge of godly truth (i.e., sanctification). Tit. 1:1-3

How Christians refute error is being faithful to the Bible, so they can silence rebels with it. Tit. 1:9-11
Bad people rightly criticized Christians for sins, and Paul tells a pastor to reprove the Christians severely, so they'll be sound in the faith. Tit. 1:10-13 It NEVER happens in America, so carnality exists.

Tit. 2:14 Christian: You were saved for a purpose—to be God's possession, redeem you from every sinful deed, to be zealous for good works! Vv. 3:3-6 AMAZING! Paul doesn't credit man or his will for his change, but God's kindness and love, while we were wayward—NOT us repenting/changing!

Tit. 3:14 Paul tells pastors they need to teach laymen to learn to engage good deeds. It's neither automatic, natural, nor guaranteed by salvation! It (sanctification) is a learned habit; learned behavior, taught by more mature Christians! Salvation doesn't make it happen for life!

It's fair to say, and clear John expected even new Christians to be enabled to maintain a disciple/Lordship commitment, after five chapters, even having just heard basic info (like 1:1-4, 8-10).

I Jn. 5:21 Great reason why babes are often first sent to I Jn. Last verse leaves with that!

I Tim. 4:1-5 As WE evangelize, people are expected to fall away from Christianity, paying attention to MYTHS (false stories/lies). That's apostasy, because just as The Apostasy will come, John warned not to let anything cause idols in one's life (a possibility—carnality) I Jn. 5:21

I Tim. 3:13 Imposter/fake Christians DO exist. Their deeds will worsen (sins increase).

I Tim. 3:15 A PASTOR is exhorted by Paul to continue in the Bible! It's NOT automatic with salvation! We ALL need this reminder! II Pet. 1:13, 15, 3:1

Update #2

(11/25/23; @JamesMeroney)

UNDERSTAND, I know the carnal Christian WELL! I was one from age eight to 18. But I NEVER thought because I was certain of heaven, I knew anything about God's values or book! That's the problem with tares and carnals in politics, claiming Jesus! Glorifying in their shame! Phil. 3:19; Rom. 10:1

God COMMANDED division, though that is NOT being divisive, over morals, spirituality, truth and Him! Mt. 10:34-36 Christians AREN'T to excommunicate tares, but claimers who live like the devil! These acts are part of biblical UNITY! Confused? I Cor. 14:33

(12/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let's address carnal Christians. Basically, they have little to no interest in God, the Bible, or becoming more moral. They just accepted heaven's free gift. How do you educate them that's not all there is to it? I'd suggest doing it like the Bible did. Disciple.

And if they don't go to church, go to them! It's literally NOT telling them they need to be more moral, or go to church, but teaching them how to grow their relationship with God through prayer and Bible. They already know Him, initially. Show advantages of knowing Him well! Bible-based motivation and promises.

Politically, a carnal Christian will vote for the far right MUCH more often than for Centrist, MORE biblical policies, because they care so little about morality. Many of them are just saved, meaning there's been NO growth. They have the same mind habits and desires as before they were saved!

8. 2024 PRESIDENTIAL CONTENDERS

Update #1: Ron (Get Rid of All the RINOs) DeSatanist

(8/14/23; @JamesMeroney)

Ron DeSATANist said get rid of all RINOs. NOW, when funders tell him to moderate (be less extreme), he's changing his tune a little. THAT'S THE VERY DESCRIPTION OF A CONVICTIONLESS SOUL who will do and say anything for self advancement! Am I the only one who sees this?

Near Aug 14, 2023 Ron DeSantist (deSATAN) SAID get rid of all RINOs! NOW, he tries to invoke Romney and McCain's good names and reputations. ANYONE WHO LISTENS TO ONE WORD OUT HIS MOUTH IS A BONA FIDE FOOL! YOU choose to be lied to and they know you're that dumb! YOU get what YOU deserve! (10/2/23)

Update #2: Nim-Rotten Nimrod-Ta (Flip-Flopping/Coreless Bird brain?!)

(9/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

Nimarata Nikki Randhawa Haley is ANOTHER that can't be trusted! She quit her U.N. Ambassador role, implying CHUMP was immoral, then kissed his ring, to get back into the devil's good graces, and now she wants to say she'll take him on in high heels. NO CORE CONVICTIONS flip flopper!

Update #3

(11/30/23; @JamesMeroney)

U.S. voters: Please comprehend/USE your IQ, and the brain God gave you! deSATAN said get rid of all RINOs Nimrata said she'll fight CHUMP in heels EITHER of them as VP would be a sin of hypocrisy! Christie stood his ground. The only honorable one of five with any numbers! He wouldn't do VP with 45; SMART!

People who think Nikki Haley is the "reasonable" Republican in the race are grossly misguided. Like so many Republicans she once recognized how incompetent and immoral Trump was, but happily joined him when it served her ambitions. (12/6/23)

FOOLs do not care if politicians sin all the time! Nimrata was FOR Chump, then tried to be morally incensed with him, and quit her UN job, then sucked up back into his good graces, now thinks she can take on the bully? Flip-flopping like that is the sin of hypocrisy. You have what you tolerate!

Nikki Haley is an unprincipled, hyper-ambitious, marginally brighter, far meaner version of Sarah Palin, and nothing more dignified than that. There's also this: <https://politico.com/news/2022/08/26/donors-secretly-funded-nikki-haleys-nonprofit-00053963...>

She was FOR tRUMP, then AGAINST him, then FOR him, and now against him. In other words, she is ONLY for self and self ambition! #NoCorePrinciples but me, me, me! NOT leadership material, Nimrata name-changer!

Nikki Haley, who quit her U.N. job, opposing Chump's behavior, now sucking up? (12/30/23)

@MittRomneyMitt Romney: "No one has been more loyal, more willing to smile when he saw absurdities, more willing to ascribe God's will to things that were ungodly than Mike." (9/15/23)

Update #4: Some Good Guys

(Chris Christie & Mike Pence Praised, & Vivek Criticized, Elsewhere)

General Milley also said we don't serve a king. The reference was OBVIOUS, except for this guy, who never chooses to take ANY courage to state the truth, boldly! Marsh mellow cowardice! Afraid of getting hanged? Mannequin Pence. (9/23/23)

[Private account:] Unreal. Tim Scott (@votetimsco) said companies should "absolutely" fire workers who strike for better wages and safer working conditions

Wow—Tim Scott says that workers who go on strike should be fired. Not only is he telling workers to shut up and do whatever the boss says, even swallow lousy wages, he's urging employers to act illegally—it's illegal under federal law to fire private-sector workers who go on strike. (9/19/23)

Update #5: Biden's Bads

(9/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

Biden says Iran can only use the $6B for humanitarian needs. The Ayatollah, on a TV interview, said Iran can use it for whatever they want. ONLY A FOOL ignores Reagan's "trust but verify," or allows for the honor system with nations with track records like Iran! ONLY FOOLS!

Biden has done horribly on the border, and pretty poorly in Ukraine. Terrible on spending sprees, jacking up our debt, and causing massive inflation. Afghanistan's departure was a debacle. That is on the negative side of the ledger. (9/21/23)

HOW does a voter oppose CHUMP, and harm Biden for his bad policies, IF only two options existed? Vote vehemently and in huge numbers for every GOP but tRUMP, and ensure Biden 2.0 has NO power against a landslide of voted in GOP's! Common sense; Duh 101 (9/21/23)

9. LIFE PURPOSE

(9/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

An honorable heritage—THAT's the legacy all should leave to their posterity! NOT just an inheritance. With mundane lives lived for little, doing little significant, or to be remembered by, it's mainly chase dollars, the fork them over when you pass, now days. That's NOT how disciples live.

WHAT CAN YOU do with YOUR life, to make life better for anyone beyond your own family? Pray for a vision for what God would have YOU do for Him! He didn't make you just to work and enjoy the fruits of your labors!

We're 'gonna tackle the subject of the mundanity of life—MOST Americans work BORING, and /or repetitive jobs, 40 hours a week. Business NEED to make them as exciting, fulfilling and maybe even fun as possible, IF that maintains or increases productivity!

You HAVE to work, and your skills restrict what jobs you can do! MLK said all jobs are important; do them with quality. Col. 4 says do your work as if you were directly serving Christ. ALL these things are great for attitude adjusting, but how do you get fulfillment in life, working a mundane job for so-so pay?

Unless you're going to do a significant job, like keep Russia out of Ukraine, physically, as a military inscriptee, people search for excitement, to fill the mundanity void! Parachute jumps, adrenaline rushes from alcohol, sex, etc., or chasing money. Or, pampering yourself when at home.

ALL THESE PURSUITS are trying to fill the void of having purpose or meaning in life! Live, work, die. Mundanity. May I suggest THESE activities bring your otherwise BORING life meaning: Engaging the global war against satan, through evangelism. Then discipling converts! And obey by faith/walk with God, 24/7, daily!

Ecc. 1-3 ALREADY TAUGHT US ALL THE BLUEPRINT FOR HOW TO FILL THE EMPTY VOID OF MUNDANE, MEANINGLESS LIVES! Why repeat Solomon's folly? You think you'll find a different conclusion than Ecc. 12:1, 13-14 You'll chase phantoms reinventing his wheel!

YOU are NOT special! You are unique, but most of us don't have extraordinary talents! We can be replaced by machines, in many cases! You have to discover a purpose for your being upon this earth! And that reason is NOT just to eat, drink and breathe air! FIND YOUR REASON FOR LIVING!

God has a plan for your life! Jn. 10:10/ Chron. 4:10 ASK Him what it is—specifically. YOU will, naturally, think it's to get rich and enjoy life. That's your sin nature, serving YOU! You were NOT created to be served, but to serve others, selflessly, or your life will be a misery!

IF you are NOT a Christian/saved, your entire life is a waste of time on earth, because it is futile, and ends up burned forever in hell. If you ARE heaven-bound, your life is still a waste of space if you aren't a soldier in God's evangelism war!

If your life is doing NOTHING to make this world better for others and /or everyone, our life was a waste, no matter what glowing bullhonkey people spew at your funeral, before they forget your very existence forever, after a few years pass and your corpse rots with maggots, six feet under! Wasted lives live for self!

Wasted lives live for money and luxuries Wasted lives live for fun Wasted lives live for pleasure and sex Wasted lives live only to survive Wasted lives do NOTHING for God Wasted lives NEVER evangelize Is yours a wasting life? In MOST cases, YES. Repent! DON'T BE A WASTE OF SPACE!

YOUR LIFE is a vapor which passes, like the fading of a flower. How soon the years slip by! When you look back over your life, what have you achieved living it? A bank account you give to heirs? Fun and memories? DO SOMETHING FOR GOD, for once! Jn. 4:34, 9:4 HELL is for MOST people!

The obituary I referenced, earlier, bragged about my great aunt's dad saving a life drowning. That saved life was only saved for a few years. Evangelism saves those lives forever! There's NOTHING in eternity a person can do with MORE impact on the lives of others, and for God! NADA!

WHAT could one do to have an important life? FIX something wrong in society! Do whatever you can to lessen crime, hate, poverty, pollution, political corruption, hoarding rich, etc. PICK A CAUSE and DEVOTE TO IT, some hours a month! Make your life USEFUL, and valuable; not just enjoyable.

IF you want to be a hero, and do something valuable with your wife, learn the art of convincing people to live morally! THAT helps our world better than anything but evangelism! Use music, art, your platform, your lifestyle role model; teach your kids, and strangers! EDUCATE and MOTIVATE.

Update

(9/25/23; @JamesMeroney)

People SUBSTITUTE emotionalism, hype, positive mental attitude, and motivational speakers for achieving "success," for biblical incentives for living right, and being successful before God. Josh. 1:8 In a culture that worships money, we easily behave like these wayward ones: Lk. 16:14-15

I believe entertainment and news items are opiates for the masses, to distract them from what life is really all about. Just make them feel excited, as they work mundane jobs, barely getting by, and keep them from rioting against politicians who let this system continue. Dumb down the sheep.

NOT everyone wants or feels the need to live a life with meaning and significance! Many just 'wanna have a good time, retire, and live the good life. THOSE people's lives are NOT significant, from God's perspective. But for those who desire fulfillment, so ANY of the following, to ANY extent:

1. Pay your taxes
2. Work hard, but working smart is better
3. Do quality work
4. Have customer service skills; smile, greet customers and don't begrudge your job!
5. Evangelize
6. Obey the laws
7. Help someone else
8. Do something to break up drug rings, prostitution, human slavery, theft rings (crime of all sorts), spouse abuse, rapes, government corruption (vote!), wars, pollution, poverty, hate, immoral sex, divorce, child abuse or abandonment, animal cruelty, hit and run drivers, DUI drivers, mass shooters, murderers, porn prevalence, abortion, illegal border entries, bomb threats, terrorism, dictators, ship pirates, adultery, fornication, child labor, fraudulent businesses, lying people (liars), idolaters and greedy executives, hoarders, slanderers, etc.

ANYTHING you do to lessen these evils makes your life have purpose! You likely won't end any one of them by yourself. But ally with others, and design ways to lessen one you're passionate about! Work for change!

Coordinate people to effect change, and find funding for people who might fight it full-time! YOU live the model life of NOT doing those things, and you've lived an exemplary life of meaning!

Just chasing dollars in the rat race, desiring to live a pampered life for Self as God is a wasted, not meaningful, useless, empty and FAILED life! Start with the man in the mirror

10. CHRISTIANS & TRUMPOLITICS

(8/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

THE reason ANY evangelicals support CHUMP, rather than standing for morality, i.e., because carnality is a real and Bible taught evil concept. Christians still have wills, and many of them use them for (and his man). Apostasy is also always something they can fall prey to.

Christians who believe in winning at all costs believe moral boundaries and rules are NOT important, and that idolatry is NOT a sin (like the Trump baseball cap-carrying old man at church). People are EXPECTED, after decades, to learn Kindergarten lessons, or absorb sermon content!

Update #1

(8/22/23; @JamesMeroney)

There are MANY U.S. "Christians" who are MUCH more influenced in their politics by talk radio than the Bible! And if their DJ's mention "God," FOOLS think the two subjects are related. "My brethren, these things ought not be this way!" Jas. 3:10

Update #2: Conservatism is ‘Christian?’

(8/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

I see it as clear as a bell, though it is not always that easy to discern, when you live by what you see: Political conservatism does NOT come from the Bible, BUT it sells itself as directly compatible with God. Let me explain, in this Sunday sermon:

IF you start with the premise that your political beliefs come NOT from church, or reading the Bible, but from talk radio, and you hear things from preachers that sometimes mirror political conservatism, you can make the false inference they're the same! Especially when the beliefs of the left that are unbiblical get railed against.

The relation between Jesus and politics gets VERY blurred, especially when you never read the Bible much, and feel good about yourself because you attend church!

YOU CAN LIVE A WORLDLY and CARNAL lifestyle, as a believer, and so long as you attend church, and maybe "tithe," you'll NEVER hear ANY criticism from any humans on the right, and you will never hear God, either, because you can't!

WHERE is political conservatism anti-God? That's a preposterous claim, right? After all, it's for opposing homosexuality and abortion.

Those two issues are CLEARLY pro-God and pro-Bible! And the left is FOR LGBTQ constituents, including their sex perversions, and for killing babies, some even up to the point of birth. SO THE ISSUE IS SETTLED! Good and religious people are GOP, and bad, evil people are on the left, right? NO.

The left has some morally and biblically-consistent policies! They want our environment preserved vs. pillaged. They care about creatures God created humans as stewards of (anti-animal abuse, etc.).

They don't just lock them away and throw away the keys, but like Jesus, in Mt. 25, they care for those in prison, to receive justice, even behind bars, and oppose all police brutality and abuse. They actually, tangibly care that the people Jesus cared the most about (besides kids), the lowly, do OK.

They don't just allow themselves to live lives chasing money (anti-Bible) and never care about others (completely opposite Phil. 2, and self as god as a key sin feature, in the Bible—living for self, vs. denying yourself daily). YES, the left has their sins, too!

Wanting to, if not even enjoying killing innocents, perverted sex acts and gender confusion. But when it comes to taxes, the real moral distinctions arise! The con never wants one penny helping others.

BUT, God's model for society (as shown by the Jewish nation) had a safety net! Libs want it to be HUGE, and violate II Th. 3:10. The difference is does the Bible teach every man for himself/ am I my brother's keeper, or bleeding heart liberalism? NEITHER, and balance. We are to pull our own weight.

Leftists DON'T advocate for that, but taxpayers always helping more and more, the poorer and non-taxpayers (their constituents and voters). Cons always teach "it's my money," the fruits of my labor, personal property, and my freedom as to how I use and spend it!

And if one argues any government help of anyone should, biblically, be a private decision (charitable giving), and never "confiscated" by force, like taxes, statistics prove that's OFTEN used as a cover to do little to nothing of the sort, but to hoard, selfishly, from greed and love of money (four sins in a row, biblically). Our society teaches that the ideal life is the high lifestyle!

The American Dream. Get all you can, sell all you can, and can the rest. The ONLY difference between that attitude/value/belief system and a Laodicean one is that carnal and worldly Christians go to church, and says they're for Jesus! What did Jesus Himself say about that? The Bible speaks of having a form of godliness, but denying its power.

Denying Jesus His rightful Lordship over their lives! Jesus Himself decried those who audibly say, "Lord, Lord," but didn't DO what He said/taught. Even the Great Commission says Christians are to make disciples (of all men, evangelizing first), "teaching them to do all I have commanded."

That means anyone who is not habitually and increasingly imitating Jesus, in their behavior, is NOT following Jesus! For example, He said, "follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men (evangelists)."

ANY claiming "Christ follower" who is not regularly evangelistic is a liar (a sin). And even that "Lord, Lord" passage shows that these false brethren/tares/wolves, or mere worldly carnals can do miracles, and prophesy in Jesus' Name, yet, HE NEVER KNEW THEM!

That means miracles can be performed by lost people deceived that they're saved, when they are not saved! My point is that politics is an act of worship, but it is and can never be such when it is ever practiced in an ungodly manner, or for ungodly policies!

Letting culture control your life values, more than Christ, makes one Laodicean, and worldly! Such beliefs as the purpose of life is for you to have happiness.

The pursuit of happiness/freedom. The purpose of life is making money, as is the purpose of business, so business must be favored, by government, over labor. FALSE! A cursory skim of God's word would lead you to many verses on justice, but just start with Levit. 19:15!

And on getting rich as the goal of life, READ Lk. 12:15 and Pv. 23:4-5. Mt. 6:33 teaches a claiming Christian life's value system! Seeking God, AND HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS! And the Great Commission teaches claiming Christians what actions are most important to God, for them, besides morality!

DO POLITICAL CONSERVATIVES preaching God DO God's morals, teachings, and ministry activities (like fishers of men and making disciples taught to obey all Jesus' commands), DAILY (Lk. 9:23), or, instead, do they obey culture, and fit into a system of get all you can, quit work as soon as possible, and live it up and let others serve your wants and needs, vs. being servants, who will receive the greatest rewards, because their minds are not on the things below, but they're living for the life to come, with its rewards?

THIS is the difference between political conservatism and biblical Christianity! Carnality and worldliness is lived, tolerated, and even empowered, so long as you mention God in even anti-biblical political stances!

And when ANY preacher implies these two belief systems are 100% compatible, they're apostate! Prophecy foresaw The Apostasy would come!

ONE P.S.: When claiming "Christians" empower, support and cheer sinning, you know they're part of The Apostasy! It is NOT just policies that matter. It is obeying the Bible, which tells Christians to abstain from evil, and THIS is what politicians we are to support: Ex. 18:21-22 NOT THIS (See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at AmericanAnswers.org's Campaign updates p. 40).

Update #3

(9/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

SHOW me a Christ follower-claiming Christian's Bible, and list me names of who they evangelized this year (BEST way to show love), and I will tell you if they are carnal or spiritual! It's no magic trick. The proof is in the pudding, based on God's word/standards!

Update #4: Carnality, Lordship Salvation & Lordship Commitment

(9/2/23; @JamesMeroney)

Unexpected message, but it's been brewing for some time: It is the great offense of life to watch Christians mildly committed to Jesus! Half-hearted. One foot in the world, the other in heaven. Church-going, but carnal. It's the majority in America, statistics indicate. This message is for you.

You're saved and sure you're going to heaven. All is great for your eternity, so thinks you. But it is UN-true! Judgment Day will be harsh on you! No hell at risk, but shame, embarrassment and sorrow over your poor choices, and waste of a lifetime on earth, doing nothing and waiting to die.

God has humans on earth for a REASON, especially Christians! That reason is to do His will. For the natural man, it is to get saved, and even if they never do, to live holy, as hell's wicked punishment might be a bit lighter if you do, and this life better for you.

For the believer, God never saved you to do nothing with you, or for you to do nothing for Him! He has work to do. The polar opposite of being a disciple is to live for the life you choose and desire! That's what statistics show a vast U.S. majority of church-goers do! We COVER our sins by church-going.

The requirements for a disciple of Jesus are steep! You're even warned to consider the cost, to estimate whether you will be able to do it. Salvation NEVER has such a caution. So what are the alternatives, and consequences? A Christian can either be committed, or carnal. There's NO middle ground, as the middle ground is luke-warm worldly carnality! Rev. 3.

We have an entire chapter on Why Be Fully Committed to Jesus, at the Will You Live Forever button of <http://AmericanAnswers.org>. MEDITATE on the verses listed, daily! Discipleship IS daily! It's denying yourself, taking up your death implement (cross) and following Jesus-DAILY! Lk. 9:23-24 Paul said "I die daily.” I Cor. 15:31 You die to choosing fleshly ambitions, preferring God’s will and values and priorities, DAILY!

It’s DAILY meeting with Him, in prayer and Bible ingestion! IF YOU DON’T, you are spiritually famished! Give us this day our daily bread! My food is to do Thy will; if Thou wouldst, take this cup from Me, but not My will but Thine be done. THESE are the attitude of disciples! Anything else is carnality, compromise and punishable with trials and lost heaven rewards.

YOU ARE WASTING YOUR LIFE AWAY, if you aren’t committed fully to Jesus! You may only learn this fact on the other side, in regretted sorrow, for awhile. I Jn. 2:28 After all he did for you, you would return in gratitude little to nothing? ANATHEMA! You owe Him your life; FULLY!

READ I Cor. 7:31 READ about the FOOL King Solomon was, before he learned that life’s purpose is obeying God’s will. Ecc. 1-3 vs. Ecc. 13:12:13-14 GOING TO CHURCH, as wonderful as that is, is NO substitute for daily discipleship; led by God’s Spirit 24/7! NOT AT ALL a synonym! Go, but become a disciple! You will be glad if you do! You will be sad if you do not.

Maybe never in this life will you see the error of your ways, chasing things and cash and fun and entertainment/luxuries, but if you’re truly saved, you will forever know the bad choices you lifelong made, remaining carnal!

I wasted 10 years of my life living that way. I PRAY God whacks you with a severe crisis, if my mere words can’t wake you from this slumber, like He did for me at age 19. Eph. 5:14 dead bones rise! Repent of carnality! Go serve your Creator, in all earnestness–NOW.

IF any Christian could ever lose salvation:

1. They didn’t receive ETERNAL, but temporal life
2. God is an Indian giver, and liar with His promises, and
3. Keeping salvation would be based on man’s works

Eternal security is not eternal liberty to do what you want, or live as you want. It’s being freed from sin’s slavery, so you free-willedly sell all as a bond slave, to live for Christ and His interests. Anything less is flesh/sin/carnality, for Christians/believers/saved people!

Many believers never renews their mind–DAILY, just as discipleship is DAILY! Eph. 4:22-24; Rom. 12:2; Lk. 9:23 But we are NOT spiritual camels who can live for a week off one sermon! And we are commanded to test the spirits (decide based on prayer, the Spirit and the Bible if were being taught the Bible accurately) and grow in Christ by God’s word, to be able to discern good from evil. I Jn. 4:1; Heb. 5:14

WE in the U.S. do NOT take the danger of false teaching seriously enough! Just LOOK at MUCH God wrote about the evils of errant teaching (because as you think, so are you): Mt. 7:15, 24:11, 24; Mk. 13:22; Lk. 6:26; Jn. Ac. 13:6; II Cor. 11:13; Gal. 2:4; Phil. 3:2; II Th. 2:11; II Pet. 2:1, 3; I Jn. 4:1; Rev. 2:2.

Even innocently, accidentally and sincerely preachers can teach you lies, like God’s will is every Christian to be rich and fully healthy in this life, etc. Beware of false doctrine! As prophecy approaches, the Bible says ear ticklers will arise, and men will fall away from sound doctrine. I Tim. 4:1; II Tim. 4:3

You NEED to value understanding the Bible with all your heart, soul, mind and strength, U.S. Christians! Lk. 10:27 HOW can you confess you love Jesus, when your DEEDS prove you hate or are apathetic about His only love letter to you, and the only clear way He communes with you?

Your testimony makes you a liar, bearing false witness—both sins. I want to briefly, now enter into a cursory overview of those harder passages and then take on our 250 apologetic questions, all stemming from the Will You Live Forever button at <http://AmericanAnswers.org>.

Update #5: The Sound of Failure (Spiritually & Morally): 'tRUMP is Like King David'

(9/14/23; @JamesMeroney)

Having a fond emotional affection and good feeling toward Jesus, because He saved you, does NOT make one a disciple! I had NOTHING against Him, would have said I loved Him, the 10 years after I was saved, and was 100% carnal. "King David" claiming actor has NO Bible authority for such a claim!

ANY claiming "Christian" who believes tRUMP is a politician a Christian should vote for has ZERO knowledge of the Bible! I said it! God says THIS is what you support: Ex. 18:21; NOT whats below. The Apostasy is claimers supporting his many lies and sins!

Even the Jews awarding CHUMP some object shows many people choose NOT to value morals over adoration of power! Any sane human with a working conscience would shun him, or treat him like an outcast, despite his prior position! People suck up to power (idolaters)! Sinners!

Even the Rev. 3 lukewarm verse has room for carnality! It is evil! BUT, it is more evil to be half-hearted/luke-warm that cold on God! Carnality is a very clearly evident sin in the bible, possible for any believer/Christian! We have wills and a flesh, that can be used for evil!

If you believe tRUMP is anything like King David, look in the mirror and admit before God that you are a carnal "Christian," in desperate need of repenting, and becoming His disciple, for the first time in your life! And acknowledge you have no idea what your Bible says! 100% ignorance.

IF YOU BELIEVE TRUMP IS ANYTHING LIKE KING DAVID, DO NOT ATTEND ANY CHURCH!
All U.S. Churches will benefit, as a result!

NON-CHRISTIANS: Please know if anyone claims to be a "Christian," that ONLY means they believe they're sure to go to heaven! It has NOTHING to do with their being qualified to speak on morals, if they don't know the Bible. "King David" is exactly illustrating this important point!

Now I am dead-set firm that I will never watch the movie 'Sound of Freedom,' even if it was free on TV! Idiots think actors are somehow experts on topics they "play" a role on film "acting." If CHUMP is like King David, satan is like Jesus! Just another carnal who is a thespian!

I DON'T THINK VERY MANY PEOPLE UNDERSTAND HOW THIS King David comment IS the prophesied great delusion and The Apostasy spoken of in I and II Thessalonians! The Bible says beware when men call evil good. That's blasphemous sin to equate 45 with the great Israel leader! Proves he's carnal!

King David murdered a man and adulterated. That is the ONLY thing CHUMP/tRUMP has in common (except, tRUMP hasn't murdered, that I'm aware of). NOTHING else is in common. Anyone claiming to be a "Christian" who says otherwise is a carnal, Bible deficient fool, with zero discernment!

Note to Lordship Salvationists: Even YOUR converts know NOTHING but perhaps a gospel content, the day after they get saved! ANY claiming "Christian" has ZERO authority to EVER speak on morality, just because they're saved! 'Gotta know God's word, to do that! King David is BLASPHEMY.

I may be sick, today, but some IDIOT equating CHUMP to King David has my energy level higher than when I was well! Church discipline isn't practiced in America, but these carnal, confident in their ignorance fools NEED to be excommunicated! Evil is good? black is white? BALDERDASH!

IT IS SAD that God referenced Christian as sheep, so often, when WE in America so often take that as justifying us being so darn stupid and gullible, like anyone thinking CHUMP is anything like King David. SO much more like the coming AntiChrist, he may very well prove to be that!

You have NO spiritual discernment, and are proving how little you know of God and His word! STOP making a fool of Christendom, condoning so many sins satanically "in Jesus' blasphemed Name!" King David. Grow up and become His disciple! YOU need church discipline!

America: Christians are as capable of being evil and stupid as anyone else! Case in point: Whoever Gavial character is. He has ZERO authority to speak on God's behalf because he played a role in some movie! Good gosh Christians give God's Name such an atrocious reputation!

I 100% don't want a second term for CHUMP. Period. BUT, a small part of me wants him to be show to be the real AntiChrist, which would require that result. I just don't know how the fatal wound would be administered, or healed. It would be interesting to see Christians' eyes opened!

tRUMP/Chump has deep faith? In himself! LOOK how God teaches people with deep faith act, and don't act: Mt. 15:9 He keeps it private? LOOK what God says about that sin: Mt. 10:27, 32 Gaviezel is a suck-up 'wanna-be LIAR and doesn't know his Bible! Real King David rolls over in his grave!

CHUMP/tRUMP is like King David in ONLY one aspect: David had adulterous relations with Bathsheba. ALL other comparisons FAIL, miserably! MORE like the Anti-Christ, and him and David are WORLD'S apart opposites! Whoever actor Gaviezel is, he has NO IDEA what His Bible teaches! #Apostate!

Update #6

(9/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

WHERE ARE any PROPHETS (preachers/pastors) DECRYING SIN IN THE SO-CALLED "LEADERS" OF THEIR SUPPOSED POLITICAL PARTY? Complicit #crickets!

Update #7

(9/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

Politicians can lie, and try to make Christians FEEL they relate to that large voting bloc they coddle, and pretend to be Christians! They may even be, but have zero involvement in living like one. ALL for power idolatry vs. following God! BEWARE of charlatans! II Tim. 2:19 Kristi Noem? tRUMP!

U.S. Christians involved with politics: "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee." Hos. 4:6 DISCERNMENT is a learned skill, practicing God's word, and NOT being deceived, or making DUMB decisions! I Jn. 4:1/Heb. 5:14

WHY does it matter that a politician have integrity? Can't they just support good policies, and be bad people?

1. GOD says! Ex. 18:21; That SHOULD be enough of an answer to any sincere Christian!

2. Hitler, or a robot, would be an acceptable mouthpiece of good policies.
3. Someone who has NO core convictions, and will say anything that's needed CAN'T BE TRUSTED, because that's the very behavior of a self- (vs. God-) promoting serial liar.

U.S. Christian voters MUST learn that hypocrisy is a sin, and they empower sinning when they support claimers of Jesus who behave in quite sinful ways! Guilt earned! II Tim. 2:19; Rom. 2:21-22 READ YOUR BIBLES and vote accordingly! CARNALITY/sin calls doing that "legalism!"

DID YOU KNOW the poor condition of U.S. ethics in our culture is a DIRECT result of statistically and historically proven fact of a majority of carnal Christians in America? Maybe saved; certainly not living for God as #1 in their lives! II Chron. 7:14

Ex. 18:21 Instead of putting collective feet down, and willing to lose to make that stand, they believed all his marketing and lies! God will hold them accountable, even if they don't realize it!

LOOK: I KNOW pastors WON'T engage biblical excommunication, because they value attenders over obedience, especially if those attenders might ever tithe. IF they trusted God for their finances, they'd rebuke if not expel MAGA members who disobey what God says to vote for—Ex. 18:21.

Update #8: Christian Presidential Options for 2024

(9/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

I HAVE said if it's ONLY between CHUMP and Biden, committed/real/serious Christians will vote to have huge GOP gains, but never vote for tRUMP, because of whats below, version 2.0 attempts at faking y'all out (promised not to occur, as it was him, but likely will), notwithstanding!

And I have NEVER said vote for Biden. I have said ANYONE who supports these actions is NOT a committed Christian!

And to ANY "Christian" who'd argue if you don't vote for tRUMP, because of whats below, you LET Biden win:

1. You're assuming no third party will run
2. BETTER a loss to his madness, to teach GOP and voters to live rightly!
3. We've endured three years, so far
4. Read your ERROR in #1!

IT GOES WITH (not without) SAYING: ANYONE who supports these actions is NOT a committed Christian. Period. They have idolized secular power over God's values! Mt. 6:33 (See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at AmericanAnswers.org's Campaign updates p. 40).

Update #9

II Tim. 2:19; I Pet. 1:16 If ANY U.S. politician claims to know Jesus, LOUDLY RECITE THESE VERSES TO THEM IN PUBLIC!

I Tim. 3:13 Imposter/fake Christians DO exist. Their deeds will worsen (sins increase).

I Tim. 3:15 A PASTOR is exhorted by Paul to continue in the Bible! It's NOT automatic with salvation! We ALL need this reminder! II Pet. 1:13, 15, 3:1

I Tim. 4:1-5 As WE evangelize, people are expected to fall away from Christianity, paying attention to MYTHS (false stories/lies). That's apostasy, because just as The Apostasy will come, John warned not to let anything cause idols in one's life (a possibility—carnality) I Jn. 5:21

Update #10: 'Christians' for Trump (I Use the Term Loosely)

(9/25/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let's address "we can be transactional" with tRUMP argument for Christians:

1. This isn't Russia, where you'll never change the dictator.
2. This is YOUR nation, and who YOU choose to represent it
3. How'd that work for four years, with hate, violence, division?
4. Jesus' Name slandered

In MANY cases in the America, you have to rest in the fact that God holds everyone accountable for their deeds, when it comes to claiming Christians supporting CHUMP! The Bema Judgment will be tough on them, if they aren't tares! They missed their opportunity to stand for God, vs. sin.

MAGA: "M.ajorly" A.nti-G.od A.nd Intelligence! Trump

If ANY self-professing "Christian" votes for tRUMP in 2024, and they inform me, I want NOTHING to do with them, ever again! They CHOSE to MISS their opportunity to stand for morality, as God is NOT #1 for them! And I NEVER said vote for Biden, but TO TAKE A STAND FOR GOD AGAINST EVIL.

Secular power is an IDOL (a sin) to MANY U.S. so-called "Christians." THAT FACT MEANS THEY ARE NOT HIS SDICSIPLES! They are self-deluded that for a good cause you support evil. God said the opposite! Romans 3:8, 6:1 You can serve satan and be saved! Mt. 16:23 FOR Trump is FOR satan!

ANYONE who would vote for Trump in 2024 better NEVER tell me or anyone else they're a "Christian!" And I am NOT saying any Christian votes for Biden! YOU TAKE A STAND FOR MORALITY, and better "leadership," and demand politicians live moral and be God-qualified! Ex. 18:21 Sin-to-win is SIN.

If YOU are FOR or promoting tRUMP, YOU are for and promoting sin! And I am NOT saying vote for Biden! REAL "Christians" put their feet down in rejecting sin, even if it means a temporary political loss, so Reagan and Lincolns party doesn't live with his stench indefinitely. Obey Jesus!

THIS is WHO tRUMP IS! He said so himself! He said he wasn't acting, and wasn't going to change. IF he's not a serial liar (which he IS: 22K times in office), THIS is what you are supporting when you support CHUMP. Are ANY so-called "Christians" SIN empowerers and promoters?

Update #11: Christians & the Far Right

(10/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

MANY MAGA values are 100% OPPOSITE to Jesus and the Bible! Carnal Christians would have NO problem with that! Christians who actually care about God, and want to do right, would never full-heartedly support MAGA 100%, and would never empower these many sins. Bad role models, like for kids.

I would NOT back down to always believing any actual Christian who would support the MAGA cult and especially their leader, rather than not vote, I would NEVER associate with! It's NOT unforgiveness. It's not tolerating claimers who take no stands for morals and God's values. Carnals!

ASK ANY MAGA CLAIMING CHRISTIAN TO RECITE FROM MEMORY 10 BIBLE VERSES, EXPLAIN THE GOSPEL, AND NAME FIVE PEOPLE THEY HAVE BROUGHT TO SALVATION. Also, have them take an IQ test.

Update #12

(11/25/23; @JamesMeroney)

You can REST ASSURED we'll call out EVERY person misrepresenting God, Christianity and the Bible, in politics, this entire near year season! I'll NOT allow God's great Name to be blasphemes by tares and carnals, like happened in 2016 and 2020! #NeverAgain The world gets confused about Jesus!

Biblically uninformed "Christians" will call rebuking Jesus-warping "Christians" (tares and carnals), in politics, "divisive. FALSE! It's having discernment and testing the spirits. Even expose them! Jesus' Name was dragged through the mud with CHUMP, and I won't let it happen, un rebutted!

I can't, and won't allow false claims to stand! Jesus COMMANDED division, NOT being divisive, over morals, spirituality, truth and Him! Mt. 10:34-36 Christians AREN'T to excommunicate tares, but claimers who live like the devil! These acts are part of biblical UNITY! Confused? I Cor. 14:33

UNDERSTAND I know the carnal Christian WELL! I was one from age 8 to 18. But I NEVER thought because I was certain of heaven, I knew anything about God's values or book! That's the problem with tares and carnals in politics, claiming Jesus! Glorifying in their shame! Phil. 3:19; Rom. 10:1

Update #13: 'Christian' Pastors for Trump 2024?

(12/4/23; @JamesMeroney)

AMAZINGLY STUPID "pastors!" Weapons formed against him are righteous people trying to stand against evil. His calling was to destroy U.S. culture? SATAN called him! Your prayers of agreement are agreeing to be complicit in sin. AVOID THEIR CHURCHES, folks! Apostate heretics! Tares?

TEST THE SPIRITS! Compare EVERYTHING to the word of God! Claiming pastors/ministers were TESTED, in Rev. 2:2. Some pastors just know enough of the Bible to stay one week ahead of their audience, and wait a lifetime to know the Good Book! The Apostasy was prophesied! And tares exist!

The ONLY thing Christians should be doing about CHUMP is praying for him, and for him to get saved, and to repent of his horrendous number of sins, blasphemously claiming Christ! YES, pray for those in authority! He is NOT! He USES believers for self idolatry and secular power worship!

Praying over Trump in IA: "The Gates of Hell will not prevail over him. I pray for protection over him and his family. All the weapons formed against him will not prosper. There is a great victory coming for this nation and the world because of the calling you've placed on this man."

IF I knew who these pastors were (I know all the main players in U.S. Christendom!) I'd tell them "TRUMP WANTS YOUR VOTE," and The Liar has PROVEN to everyone his track record of saying and doing ANYTHING to be in power. They NEED to repent. You don't pray for sin to succeed! They DO!

"Faith communities trust President Trump to lead our nation forward with integrity and moral clarity."

Just WOW! Trump campaign touts evangelical support in Iowa as faith leaders endorse him

Update #14

(12/5/23; @JamesMeroney)

3-4,000 years later: have we learned one damn/dang thing? Feckless, weak, cowardly suck-up yes men, too scared to be prophets! And they will argue time has passed. OF COURSE time has passed! Time asses when mass murderers are on the lam, and not get caught. Their victims don't interpret the clock always ticking as healing anything!

America is living in the past if they allow CHUMP/Goliath back in the White House, and they are proving they can learn NOTHING more than those primitive early breed of humanity, who ALLOWED Pharaohs to dominate them, AS IF THEY COULD DO NOTHING!

I'm CERTIAN these so-called "pastors" in Iowa are mainly decent people, apart from their sin caving. But isn't that exactly what they are on this earth for, for such a time as this? To be an Elijah, a Jeremiah, or a John the Baptist?

The complicit sin of cowardice, rather than virtue of courage is ASTONISHING, except for my over 40 years of dealing with many pastors, who I've found to OFTEN violate Scripture, if it got them fame or fortune. EDBS priorities poo poo'd, if I can fill one more seat or get one more tithes. Churchianity! Carnality! Sin, folks.

There is absolutely zero doubt how The Antichrist of prophecy will deceive even Christians, including their so-called "leaders!" The Apostasy has already begun, if not gone full course! NO ONE has the balls to publicly call out tRUMP, from a pulpit or before cameras! Does he PAY these so-called "men of the cloth?"

Are they SO ignorant of God's word, or do they not know God enough to remember what the prophets did, and what is needed? It's SHOCKING! I am aware the alternative isn't often as consistent in policy with our holy Book, BUT YOU DO NOT SUPPORT EVIL!

The super majority carnality (non-disciple) problem I've spoken of and written about the past generation is 100% laid at the feet of men like these Iowa 150! I could go on, but I like my sleep. No one cares, anyway. The Bible isn't taken literally; only fools apply it-apparently.

Meet the evangelical pastors who just might pick our next president

<https://www.deseret.com/2023/8/14/23828971/iowa-evangelicals-national-initiative-trump>

I pray for small church pastors financial blessings, who obey morals, NOT seeking fame! Sincere, fervent prayer of mine!

The FACT that ANY born again "Christian" pastors would endorse CHUMP over you (who I also oppose) makes me volunteer to debate them on your behalf, if you're interested! Apostasy Cowardice Carnality and I DO own a Bible I can swear on! You can borrow it.

CHRISTIANS in America: DO NOT BE FOOLED by evil people using our Good Book for personal political gain! This man is a fake, and God NOWHERE says condemn lost people for not being for saved people's values. don't JOIN The Apostasy of prophecy! Are pastors FAILING to disciple THIS BADLY?

[Private account:] Josh Hawley (R-MO): "The left absolutely hates it when you mention God or the Bible. I mean they just lose their minds."

Judg. 21:25 When American pastors FAIL to disciple church members, fearing they'll lose donations if they preach and teach the WHOLE counsel of God, carnality ensues, which is precisely why we had tRUMP for four stressfully disruptive years! PREACH THE WORD! Know it, too! II Tim. 2:15

EXPLAIN to me how ALL politicians now have to watch their Ps. and Qs, behaviorally and word-wise, lest they lose support or donations, yet Trumpsters free-willedly ALLOWED all these open sins to slide under the American rug. It HAS to have a spiritual basis! Rev. 13; II Th. 2:3-10 It has to.

Biblical reproof, rebuke, shunning and church discipline DOESNT exist in America, and so-called "pastors" who are cowardly before CHUMP are NOT prophets, usually NOT even evangelists, as they say that's not their job—just tend saved sheep, CONTRARY to II Tim. 4:5. Regarding: 150 Iowa apostates.

Update #15: A Deal with the Devil (Roe's Overturn)

(12/6/23; @JamesMeroney)

The Christian right made a deal with the devil, to overturn Roe in exchange for conservatives getting zero opposition from The Church/Christians, as was testified to before Congress. As Dr. Phil. would ask, "how'd that work out for you?" You NEVER compromise morals for idolatry!

MY PERIODIC REMINDER RETWEET ABOUT THE CONDITION OF THE AMERICAN CHURCH, POLITICALLY! #GoliathReminder to self. Report: Pastor testifies on the reason evangelicals support Republicans: We "made a deal with the devil."

Update #16: Christian Nationalism is Sin & Selfish Idolatry!

(12/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

Christian Nationalism is sinful carnality. Christians influencing politics, based on Bible values, is Christianity. We do NOT live in a theocracy, nor is that what God has commanded. But salt and light are to penetrate the darkness. Little evangelism and discipling caused what we see today!

THESE two verses completely destroy the argument many pastors made in 2016, to support CHUMP, because he would overturn Roe! Rom. 3:8, 6:1. That's why the eight year old meme, below, NEVER loses relevance! (See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at AmericanAnswers.org's Campaign updates p. 40). Idolatry of power and abortion bans is baby worship, and injustice. One-trick pony. REPENT! (12/13/23)

Rewarding sin is what ANY Christian who votes for tRUMP in 2024's doing.
Not only do they contribute to ruining God's Name before lost Americans and the world, they value some policies of his over God, as America can endure four more years, but NOT enshrined Trumpism! Vote all GOP's but 45!

John the Baptist had courage to tell a sin-full politician, "it's not right" what you're doing! HAS ANYONE EVER HEARD ANY U.S. PREACHER, IN PUBLIC, TELL SUCH WORDS TO CHUMP, REGARDING ALL OF WHAT'S BELOW? We ALL know the answer! They're SCARED of Goliath! I'm NOT! That emperor has NO clothes! (12/13/23)

Update

(12/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

MAGAs who name Jesus AREN'T INTERESTED IN KNOWING THEIR RELIGION, Adam Kinzinger! They RARELY evangelize, know little Bible, couldn't recite 10 verses from memory! They USE abortion to lure real believers, as if that's all the Bible speaks about! They are Billy Graham's worst nightmare.

There exists a SERIOUS need for pastors to unite to identify ALL saved but unchurched Christians in America, to ensure they're growing and having a daily quiet time! NO church caused me to grow or get committed! It was a Baptist Student Union man at Baylor. WE CAN'T ENDURE CARNALITY'S REIGN IN our land!

It's NORMAL and OK that Christians have different convictions in their personal walk with Christ. But it is NEVER OK for us to take public positions on policies or character of politicians that is NOT consistent with God's word! You have what you tolerate! DON'T empower/reward evil. Duh 101

11. APOLOGETICS

(8/22/23; @JamesMeroney)

I am happy/proud to have awakened with this message on my mind: WHY?

CREATURES (and HUMAN BODIES)

- Why are we able to speak, listen and understand, analyze, be curious as a cat, invent, be creative and artistic, remember (memory) and learn?
- Why do we mainly start out with working consciences, and so many of us experience a sixth sense, or intuition?
- Why are there internal organs serving functions we could hardly have thought of or designed, either the functionality or placement all together?
- Why are there so many unique and original faces (excepting similar doppelgangers and twins); and natural talents, with unique personalities?
- Why do our eyes see far away and nearby, with focus, not blurry; and natural water keeps them from drying out, and eye lids blink to reduce incoming matter; and eye lids reduce matter from atop?
- Why do our ears hear, and our fingers, feet and body able to feel and have touch?
- Why are our noses able to smell, and why do nose hairs filter our dust and foreign particles; and why are our mouths and tongues able to taste?
- Why do we have teeth able to chew, and saliva to swallow what we eat, or do our stomachs digest, take needed nutrients, and our tail feathers and private parts discard what's left over?
- Why do we have toes for balance, after we learn how to walk after we crawl?
- Why do our hands have opposable thumbs and fingers, able to do things a mere stub could never do?
- Why do we have various body types, but all with same core features (absent problem cases)
- Why do naps and night sleeping refresh our entire bodies?
- Why do we dream and have visions, plans and goals?
- Why does exercise energize, and do cuts heal, or does blood flow through our body and veins?
- Why are there two genders, and do people generally not walk around public naked?
- Why do we all work, die and decay?
- Why at near age 12 do boys turn toward manhood and girls womanhood?
- Why do our sex organs perfectly align, and active engagement produce a baby in nine months?
- Why do women have the strength and ability to push out a baby at least five times larger than where they get expelled?
- Why do they have menstruation cycles, then menopause, or do their breasts provide milk, in due season?
- Why do we mature/grow up, get older, work, then die?

- Why do we procreate, and pass on our own genes to other generations?
- Why do we have love and hate, and about everything in-between?

CREATION (and PLANETARY BODIES)

- Why does the earth provide us with most everything we'd ever need?; plants, water and food, and beauty, yet also with some ugly things, like out of control weather events?
- Why is their always air to breathe, and do our lungs breathe without our choosing, and our hearts beat without our commanding?
- Why do the Moon and start consistently and routinely provide us light, as with the sun, with its heat/warmth (which, if any closer, we'd burn up)
- Why does a rainbow appear after heavy rains, and why does weather both help and hurt, depending on severity?
- Why is there also disease and disaster?

CULTURE (and SOCIETY)

- Why are we curious, and do we travel and explore our vast universe and galaxies?
- Why are they there, anyway?
- Why are there so many languages, and how did that whole confusing mess get started?
- Why is there government, and the family unit?

CRITTERS (and ANIMALS)

- Why do animals have beauty, breath, eyes, ears, personalities, the ability to eat and procreate?

CONCLUSIONS

Why is life basically predictable? Time alone passing doesn't bring such drastic changes, or complexity! Thousands of years of humankind has never produced anything similar to us, our animals, plants and planet, until very recent technologies imitate the originals!

ANSWER

God, and His design, as explained in the Bible (including sin and satan's evil existences)! NOT random soup morphing or destructive explosions over eons of time, able to bring order and answers to all these questions' answers and complex, pretty perfectly working solutions!

Update #1: Deity of Christ, The Trinity & the Virgin Birth

(9/9/23; @JamesMeroney)

Mt. 1:23 Jesus was God with us—Isa. 9:6 (Immanuel)—another deity of Christ verse.

Mary never had sex with Joseph, to conceive Jesus, but God the Father moved upon her, miraculously. That's how He Who was pre-existent God/deity (Jn. 1:1-5, 6:68, 8:45-47, 58; 10:30, 38, 14:6; Lk. 5:24; II Cor. 5:21; Col. 1:15-20, 2:9-10; Heb. 4:14-15, 6:18; I Pet. 1:18-19, 2:22; I Jn. 3:5; Isa. 53:9) could become human for 33 years, and sin never be involved in His life.

Phil. 2:5-11 We've just seen Jesus' full deity and full humanity (for 33 years on earth; not half and half, not deity unable to become human, or human unable to also be divine), and His virgin birth! All that's left is the Trinity, and you've learned great theology in two chapters! There's only one God—Deut. 6:4.

Yet Jesus and the Holy Spirit exhibit all the traits of the Father (in voluntarily humble subservient/submissive roles—Lk. 22:42; Jn. 16:14-15). The Trinity (three Persons in the one godhead—Father, Son and Spirit) is expressly implied in Gen. 1:26, and man made in God's image is spirit, soul and body! I Th. 5:23

Our website lists the many traits all three share as deity (Will You Live Forever button of <http://AmericanAnswers.org>, Doctrine section on The Trinity). You can also learn verses on man's fallenness, the doctrine of sin, angels, demons and the devil, as well as the Bible, eternal security, eschatology/prophecy (the 10 most important doctrines).

IF only God the Father were God, Jesus and the Spirit would NOT be God. If Christians claimed three God's, they would violate Scripture. But Scripture clearly teaches three distinct persons in the Godhead. All three are eternally preexistent, omniscient, omnipresent and omnipotent! #Trinity!

IF Jesus had been born of normal human sex, He couldn't have been God, but just another (natural) man. IF Jesus was only a man, He wasn't God. IF Jesus was only God, while on earth, He couldn't have had a body (as God is invisible). If Jesus was half man and God, He wasn't fully God.

Update #1: If Man Evolved

(10/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF man evolved:

1. WHY are some not as evolved, intellectually and morally?
2. WHY do monkeys exist?
3. WHY do men do evil?
4. How can such complex order come randomly?
5. WHY do men die, if it took eons to make man, and 80 years to end?
6. WHY don't YOU walk around naked in public?

Update #2: Lee Strobel (At First Baptist, Dallas)

(10/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

A poll says 1/4th of America doesn't believe Jesus lived on earth ("mythicists").

Jesus was alive, at point A, Jesus died, at point B, Jesus was alive at point C in history. There's proof He resurrected, which is the core of our faith. He was not a myth. Scholars agree He lived.

1.6 billion Muslims believe Jesus didn't die on a cross. A source within months of His death, and five other sources outside the Bible say He did. There's NO evidence anyone ever survived a full Roman crucifixion. JAMA (the Journal of the American Medical Association) concluded medical evidence He died before the sword to His side.

Evidence for Christ's resurrection is an empty tomb (though sealed). Romans didn't allow the burial of crucifixion victims? Archaeology proves buried remains of spiked ankle bone victims. The earliest reports say He was buried. Jesus' ENEMIES admitted He was alive!

Christ's enemies excused His being alive saying the 11 disciples stole the body from grave. They admit the tomb was empty. How did it get that way? Religious leaders wanted Him to stay dead. Seven sources outside Bible say the 11 suffered, and were willing to die because they knew He was alive.

It takes more faith to remain an atheist than to accept Jesus, was @leestrobel's personal verdict. His claims of deity, miracles, teachings, fulfilled prophecies, forgiving sins, resurrection, virgin birth, etc. Jn. 1:12 receive His free gift of forgiveness and eternal life!

Update #3: What Jesus as the Son of God Means

(12/12/23; @JamesMeroney)

Apologetics: Jesus is the Son of God DOESN'T mean preexistent Jesus had a mother, before Mary, or God had sex, or the God the Father is a generation older than Jesus. Humanly, Jesus was born a man, and Son by the Holy Spirit, using Mary. There are NO inferior Trinity members! Subservient, willingly.

12. GLOBALISM

(10/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

I HAVE A TOPIC!: Globalism. There are people in and out of America who believe America is too powerful! BALDERDASH! We need to be MORE powerful, IF we live morally! People try to bring America down and bankrupt us, to even things out. They are ENEMIES who MUST be defeated, at ALL costs! America #1!

EVERY nation NEEDS to imitate America on valuing self-sufficiency! NO ONE likes being hit upon for money donations, continually, for problems that never get fixed! LEARN to have a job and budget for all people to meet their own needs. Period. That's the American way! Imitate it-ALL!

Be it porous borders, youth indoctrinated toward socialism, politicians gaining personal lifestyle perks by making U.S. government BIGger, or laws to punish U.S. businesses and our rich, there's a demonic movement trying to lessen America, so stoop to other nations' standards! FIGHT IT!

China, Russia, Iran and North Korea are trying to fight US's power. IF we use it for good, they're EVIL to fight it. If we're selfish and worldly, they have a just cause. WE decide if our nation deserves to be the most powerful, or forfeit that status! America#1! Every nation-care for your own!

EVERY human has a RIGHT to have education, then a job they can pay all their needed bills with, and enough healthcare not to die of preventable diseases, and enough food to survive, and a place to stay. That's every governments duty to ensure their economy causes! NOT America for the world!

I spoke with a missionary to Europe, and asked if it's really being overrun by Muslims and Africans. Pretty much agreed, as they fill jobs from low birthrates. Then, those policies get abused, and they never stop coming.

I asked WHY would ANYONE build something great, only to let it be taken away by others? She said they're waking up to this problem! Americas going down that same path!

Point blank: If you believe America needs to be leveled to other nations' standards, you are anti-American, and our enemy! You need to be expelled from our great nation! You aren't welcome here.

I GUARANTEE you the U.S. Founders, the men who died at the Alamo, and ALL Americans who settled this great land, and built it to what it has become did NOT create a great thing so others could dismantle it! America can help others "grow up," but they're NOT our problem to fix! Imitate America!

That missionary spoke of many peoples hating America's power and Capitalism. Capitalism has problems, but it is NOT a problem! It is what brought America to our world! If anyone wants America lessened, you suffer the sin of envy and jealousy. You're sinning! You're EVIL! You MUST be defeated!

Update #1: Self-Sufficiency, Selfishness or Dependency?

(9/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

SELF-SUFFICIENCY is a virtue!? The far right LOVES the term, "personal responsibility" with finances. The left LOVES dependency as a policy. WHAT DOES GOD SAY ABOUT SELF-

SUFFICIENCY? First, NO ONE likes to pay taxes! It's money you could have had to spend for your own needs. So what?

GOD says you pay your taxes that government deserves—NOT what they don't, from waste. You FIGHT that! BUT, when ANYONE is not paying any taxes, the system is unfair! Get that straight, where everyone's pain is the same, compared to their assets, and you have a fair system!

I return to my original belief that PAIN equality is more important than percentage equality! Everyone's buy-in on government spending HAS to hurt them when it spends, and the pain has to hurt exactly the same to a poor person as a rich person, with NO freeloaders! So, self-sufficiency:

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE (God) TEACH ABOUT SELF-SUFFICIENCY? It IS a virtue, but not standing alone! It is coupled with generous voluntary giving to others! The Jews had a safety net. The first Christians collectively ensured no one had needs. 1 Tim. 6:17-19 commands all rich people to give back generously!

But as to taxes, those are forced upon people. No choice in the matter! They HAVE to be fair! Progressive or flat? Progressive is more equal pain, but flat is the same percent of wages, NOT accounting for one's nest eggs—only income! People HIDE their wages, by letting companies pay them in other ways than salary. They can even purposely bankrupt one business, to offset profits of another!

People do cash transactions the government will never know of. The entire system is full of people HATING taxes, and avoiding them at all costs, because we do NOT want to pay them, but we sure love telling government what to do, that costs tax dollars! The rich are most easily self-sufficient! The poor are the least!

I read a tweet of a tRUMP supporter hoping he'll have government help pay for her back surgery! WHERE DO WE GET OFF VOTING TO FORCE FELLOW AMERICANS TO FUND OUR OWN EXPENSES? Biden wants student loans to magically disappear!

TAXPAYERS are who he is targeting! He proposed a 20 or 25% tax on billionaires! Punish them for owning stuff! He wanted "free" healthcare, college, mortgage down payment, daycare and student loan forgiveness. HOW IS ANYTHING IN LIFE "FREE?"

ONLY when someone else pays for it, or chooses to donate a gift! EVERYTHING government does costs money—TAXPAYER MONEY! Even open borders! Have you ever heard 'inflow must exceed outflow?' Live within your means.

NO ONE wants to help you pay for your life! We all have our own challenges doing so! And EVERY dollar government spends to help someone HAS TO BE repaid, by service or funds, once on their feet! The ONLY Americans deserving of help are 100% disabled, physically, mentally, or both!

I know many people are NOT 100% disabled, but get 100% help. That's WRONG and unjust! I also know people hide their assets, and can doctor shop to get who'll say they qualify for government benefits. THE SYSTEM IS BROKEN! Pay your own damn bills, and never look to another human for help!

BUT, when you can't, government repaid help and crowd funding exist, as with cheap Obamacare insurance. Or, you can work longer hours, or a second job. A government safety net should be MINIMAL, and repaid, if justice is operating! Gal. 6:2, 5 teaches help yourself and others (balance).

II Th. 3:10-13 says if unwilling to work, suffer the consequences! It's both/and, forcibly for necessities of government, always justly operated, and voluntary for all else! That's the biblical model of social services and taxation, and the size of government! Self-sufficiency, and Phil. 2:3-5 helping others!

Paul's employment was donation-based, so it's NOT a 100% analogy to workers in America. But he depended on God for his finances, usually needs supplied through humans, but also tent making. Jesus, the same thing. BUT, Paul worked harder than them all! He offered his gospel for FREE!

Paul was indebted to no man, and sought the benefit accruing to his donors much more than his personal financial help, when they did! He was both rich and poor, at times, but knew contentment! How? He was able to endure anything by trusting God as his strength! Phil. 4:13 Depend on God.

SO, self-sufficiency (not without God, but depending upon Him) IS biblical, but NOT the whole story! Giving back to others, voluntarily, is also equally taught. But looking to taxpayers/government to pay your daily expenses is NOWHERE in the Bible, if you're not unworkably disabled!

One more thing: We think if government pays for our surgeries, we'll vote for politicians who make that happen. HOW DOES GOVT PAY FOR THEM? Tax dollars! There are NO money trees! Government has NOTHING it doesn't take from someone! You're using government to force a citizen to fund YOUR expense! That's EVIL!

There will ALWAYS be lots of financially needy voters wanting to vote to STEAL taxpayers' wealth, by letting government confiscate it! And with open borders, even more future, potential Socialist voters! Secession would occur, before allowing that to go much further, or civil war.

Update #2:

(12/6/23; @JamesMeroney)

Obama said in foreign relations, you do not deal with angels. I'd add trust but verify. Unless they tell the truth, talk is cheap! Deeds prove intentions. BRICS (save Brazil and ~China) are opponents. I think America can work some with China, but Communists are uniting, and hate democracy.

Update #3: How To Deal with Evil Regimes

(12/6/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let's deal with who and how you deal with evil regimes! A HUGE bloc is organizing to end the dollar, and U.S. world dominance. Russia, Iran, N Korea, ~Saudis, ~China. You can't keep only opposing them 100% as enemies, unless you like or want war. You add allies, and find any areas to agree/work with them.

The world's enemies should be war-happy nations, limited resources, diseases, natural disasters, cruelty to humans and their rights, crime, etc. NOT nation vs. nation. "As much as is in your power, be at peace with all men." Rom. 12:18 Never start a fight, just END it! Find win-win!

Update #4: If the Dollar Wasn't the Global Reserve Currency

(12/7/23; @JamesMeroney)

De-dollarization: What Happens if the Dollar Loses Reserve Status?

https://money.usnews.com/investing/articles/de-dollarization-what-happens-if-the-dollar-loses-reserve-status?src=usn_tw

IF America lost the dollar as the world's reserve currency, our debt would cost us MORE interest, our global clout lowers, we can't borrow from China as easily, and printing money loses some effect, as others don't accept devalued dollars as readily. In short, our debt HAS to be reduced, or you default, and send the world in financial crisis (NOT a good solution).

Nations are conspiring against America, which have good and even great economies, militaries, and numbers of population. Many of them have evil regimes, but their peoples are unable to change that, anytime soon, and as America is rightly supporting Israel, even more smaller Arab nations are rising in hostility to America and Israel.

Russia openly defies us in Ukraine! Already, there's tensions with China and somewhat the Saudis, not to mention the outright animosity with North Korea, Iran and Russia—large nations with people, assets and some nukes.

WHAT is America doing to counter these trends? Have we done anything to set them against us? ABSOLUTELY, YES! And we start by admitting that! The arrogant exceptionalism attitude does NOT endear you to fellow humans equally made in God's image!

I believe in our exceptional blessedness, and achievements, and can do spirit, but when it crosses into arrogance, people grow disdain. And while we rightly speak on morals, globally, we have to first look inside to see if we have authority to speak, when our own culture is in such shambles!

The America First crowd wants nothing to do with America as the world's sole superpower! Isolationists. Let the world cave to the next Hitler, and deal with that threat only when his troops enter our homeland. YET, our military are deemed patriots for being paid not to defend U.S. interests abroad. POPPEYCOCK!

It saved Americans tax dollars, so the far right is all for it! That's their ONLY concern! Save all the money I earn for me and my family, and to hell with the world and others! I think it's way too late for America to reshape her image towards those adversary nations' leaders, but NOT to their peoples!

China and Saudi Arabia are much quicker fixes. Russia and Iran and terrorists are dead set against America (in their regimes), and it's NOT just cause they're Communists, or autocratic (Iran). It's Israel, it's our arrogance, it's our putting our nose in the Middle East in ways that have destroyed their peer's countries, even if well-intentioned!

It's jealousy over our economic success. It's disdain for our morals, which have severely slipped.

It's rejection of one world's policeman!

It's allying to oppose all this, as no one wants to take us on 1:1, militarily! So the hack us, drain our treasury for wars THEY start. They steal from us, send spies to live among us, attack our friends and threaten our allies we spend money defending.

It's outsmarting us by becoming the #1 economy by serving OUR desire for cheap labor!

It's uniting against the almighty dollar, to harm our economic abilities.

It's befriending and investing in charity projects in poor nations, to gain access on loan defaults, or to enlist their leaders to their alliance.

It's space satellites, and plane and ship encounters with Americans.

It's keeping their people in fear of any criticism, or opposition, by jail, death or labor camps.

It's using their natural resources to advantage their alliance, and directly compete and try to win against America and the West.

It's initiatives to divide America, and our Western alliance, building economic ties with our partners, and getting America to a feverishly divided state, as a house divided can't stand.

It's stealing and reverse engineering our inventions, and ignoring international laws and intellectual property rights.

It's human rights abuses and polluting at will, with little regard that there is any sheriff on duty, as they have worked tirelessly to unite and act to reduce his influence.

It's chaos, but strategically thought out, and it's disruptive, disorderly, devilish, defiant, and destructive, but it is working for leaders who have no working conscience, except self, power, and annihilating the America, and maybe later, the West.

Little satan. Death to America. BRICS. Send Israel to the sea. Pro-Socialism, so America is left more in the cold, as we, historically, don't accept that prelude toward Communism. WHAT is America doing in response?

Update #5: Putin as Hitler #2?

(12/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

I do NOT believe Putin wants expansion into NATO territories, but to reunify the Soviet Union, whose breakup always irritated him. The minute he ever attacked ANY NATO partner, he'd be met with ferocity that would make his horse buck in shirtless frame!

IF Communist dictators actually wanted to find common ground with democracies, and find win-win solutions on land grabs, energy, natural resources, human rights, the space race, military and economic issues, WHAT WOULD THAT LOOK LIKE?

The great Ronald Reagan opposed the evil empire's leaders, in the Soviet Union. TRUMP/CHUMP appeases and does the bidding of them!

Commies will lie, cheat, steal and deceive, all to advance their interests, and not change their bad practices cause some democracy tells them they should. It is ultimately man playing God, because they don't believe in Him, and His messengers would be deemed self-sent—as no One to send.

Why would oppressing the masses, violating human rights, forced labor camps, child labor and sweat shops, murdering political opponents, jailing (or sawing into parts) critics, disarming citizens be in best interests of dictators? Maintaining power! They fear losing their job and life!

I'd have NO problem with dictators staying in power, if that's 'gotta be, IF they treated their people better! How they treat other nations is up to those nations to defend against and respond to!

Update #6: What the West Must Do

(12/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

I have a GREAT concern for how the West must unite and expand, to counter the threat of Communists uniting, and any intent to take over our world, subtly. Land grabs, etc.

Conservatives have LONG complained U.S. is held to a higher standard, and that hurts business, like no child labor or sweat shops, competing against China. IF we believe God rewards good, we will continue that standard. Our standard of living, the envy of the world, is proof He blesses it.

The West isn't 'gonna get axis of evil nations' heads to change/morally improve! Just have to deal with their rampant sinfulness, and expect their evil tactics, even as they promise to do good with a smile! Only God can break their backs, if they were to miss hell, where they're bound.

NO nation's leaders are 100% evil or 100% good! Arrogant ones refuse to hear anyone tell them where they need to improve, like human rights abuses, usually in states that have no belief in God, so they feel accountable to no one. Hell is going to be very hot for their future! Repent!

What AMAZES me is the non-politician masses in N Korea, Russia, ~China, or any other oppressive and Communist state, who NEVER try to break free, one iota, except a handful, who are forced to do things covertly and to small degrees. DO THEY LIKE LIVING THIS WAY? It's NOT God's will for them.

America could build BIG bridges with ALL Arab nations, if and when the Israeli War ends, by insisting on one two-state solution in Gaza, and NOT letting Netanyahu just obstinately keep building apartments on disputes lands. You push people too far, and they break! ALWAYS keep Israel safe—always.

Update #7: Intolerable Liberal Globalist Ideals

I'll never understand the mentality of stealing another country's land, but I don't have to. We ALL know it's evil, and can't stand! Putin has to be utterly defeated, soon, or America is wasting taxpayer dollars! (12/6/23)

13. GOP STRATEGY

(9/17/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF I were the GOP, I'd be recruiting someone else to primary Bobo Boebert! THIS event will not go away, online! @RNC @SenateGOP @HouseGOP @GOP #ForEveryActionTheres an equal and opposite reaction?

Update #1

(9/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

Standing alone as an issue, despite other bad policies, Biden's handling of the U.S. border, alone, is reason to VOTE HIM OUT OF OFFICE!!!

YOU, alone, are single-handedly giving CHUMP a "yuge" advantage at beating you, with your horrific border policies! Idiot-level choices! @POTUS @joebiden Shall I commend you? I shall NOT! I Cor. 11:2, 17 Keep it up and a loss is certain, in my opinion!

Update #2

(10/2/23; @JamesMeroney)

MANY in America AREN'T discerning, so we MUST educate: deSATAN said CHUMP was a role model for his kids, and behaved like "Trump lite" (a nickname others gave, observing his act). NOW he flip-flops to naming Romney and McCain, as he HAS NO CORE VALUES! Are we BLIND to their manipulating?

MANY in America AREN'T discerning, so we MUST educate: deSATAN fought Disney like a hard righter, then backed off a lawsuit, as his campaign floundered! He also said government's job isn't to help people. NOW he's trying to use the good names of Romney and McCain. 100% LYING 'POS' fraud!

IT'S NOT HARD to have convictions and stick with 'em! DeSantis/deSATAN is 100% a spineless weasel with zero core—just idolizer of power and Self-promoting, which FAILS! Read our past two tweets. ANY politician with focus group index finger to the wind will say anything—even contradictory!

@realdonaldtrump YOU must point out that deSATAN imitated you (Disney, you as his kid's role model, government isn't for helping, Trump Lite), and NOW invokes the GOOD men, Romney and McCain. Flip-flopper in chief, with NO core, and severely FAILING! "Loser," as you'd call it! SAY IT!

I GET you can only vote for people who run, but you get what you deserve, IF you vote for LIARS, and immoral, stupid people, because you can always withhold voting, to teach them a lesson that they run according to God's standards for politicians, or their opponent will be allowed to crush 'em!

DeSATAN 2028: I'm Trump Lite and Romney-McCain. I'm whatever can get me elected! I can't understand the fracture within the GOP, so I'll say I'm both! That's how stupid I am, so elect me! DeSantis Wishy-washy stand for nothing but Self-er! No core; just idolatry! "Loser." –DJT term

CHUMP: deSATAN said he will NOT play second fiddle (your VP). You can ignore him, as he hangs himself, or you can send him into eternal demise for future runs, stating he loved and imitated you, and now invokes Romney and McCain. POINT OUT HIS FLIP FLOPS and lack of any core! He's a FRAUD

I can't believe I'm stooping to advising CHUMP! I've done it a few times since he stole most of his good ideas from me, but then helped Biden, lest I have over-helped DJ, and helped cause a re-election! I'd NEVER advise that much!

Quite honestly, CHUMP doesn't have to address DE SATAN, at all! He's the only one running who even breaks 10 points, and he's losing severely to tRUMP. WHY even give anyone a chance to hurt you, or show up your flaws? @realdonaldtrump I'd keep avoiding interaction and debates! They CAN'T KEEP UP.

Update #3

(10/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

I am SO tired of the GOP feeling insecure over race, that they tout the handful of famous black politicians, never caring about qualifications! Byron Donalds for Speaker is just the latest example. GOP's believe in best-qualified! GOP's didn't create slavery! Quit your "white guilt!"

The ONLY reason there would ever be a lack of "blacks and browns" in the GOP is if either of those two groups prefer government handouts! NOT because GOP policies discriminate against them! We believe in MLK, color blindness, and competition, so may the best person win!

Update #4

(11/14/23; @JamesMeroney)

@GOPChairwoman: IF for NO other reason (though there are others), #NeverResign! These bully tactics by Trump and his cult have to be stood against! Someone in the GOP has to grow a pair and back down these IDIOTS, even if it's a woman growing them! #TakeNoCrap, mam! Josh. 1:9

Update #5

(11/30/23; @JamesMeroney)

It appears GOP is desperately trying to get a RINO for CHUMP's VP!

1. He's NOT that kind of guy, and said VP won't be anyone running
2. He can't unite #NeverTrump or establishment that hates him. \
3. NO committed Christian will vote for him, if better options! Futile efforts, in my opinion!

Update #6

(12/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

I can see if morals mean NOTHING to you, truth doesn't matter, the spiritual world is foolish to you, sin isn't a concern of yours and policy is all that matters, Hitler or a robot would be viable choices for you, so endorsing satan's man (Chump) comes naturally, even for some pastors.

GOP House and Senate SHOULD set forth an agenda like I just described, so they aren't tied to tRUMP, or any other candidates! That party could win in a landslide if they broke free and used their independence to stand for things, and not one very failed and flawed man! There SCARED of him!

14. TALK RADIO & THE CHURCH: StRaNgE BEDFELLOWS!

(10/3/23; @JamesMeroney)

THIS is worth writing about: Drove my wife to the airport, and listened to talk radio on the way home. There is what the Bible calls a "bastardization" of Christianity going on there! Carnality on full display. Uncommitted Christians using Jesus' Name for politics. VILE and sin-FULL!

Political far right "conservatives" on talk radio are using abortion (sonogram donations) and saying they cause some to 'receive Jesus as Savior' as justification for supporting ALL this sin (below). People who do LITTLE to no evangelism milking the flock of God for votes for THIS:

BECAUSE discipling does not much occur, carnal Christians get deceived that political conservatism is godly. NO discernment. NO knowledge of the Bible. NO evangelism. Commitment to money-making over serving God! Laodicea and The Apostasy, embracing EVIL for stolen policies of Trump.

I don't have patience to write chapters needing editing. Suffice it to say that MANY U.S. Christians never take a stand for morality, have horrible memories of how bad things were with crazy CHUMP in the White House, and deceptively believe they serve God voting for the likely Antichrist! Jn. 16:2

TARES use abortion and Jesus as Savior language to equate a vote for CHUMP with anything to do with Jesus! FAKE Christians preying on Bible-deficient REAL but carnal Christians! Jesus Christ is Alive and He watches "The Apostasy!" Repent and read more Bible. I Th. 5:22; II Tim. 2:19; I Pet. 1:16

YES, I've addressed, YOU, Mike. Confused, deceived or purposely anti-God mixer of evil with Bible. Whats happening to CHUMP is Gal. 6:7-9, as a pastor used about a Houston Astros player! Non-Christians call it "karma." Idioms say you made your bed, lie in it! @radiotalkermike

The far right ALWAYS labels any American who DOESNT worship THEIR cult's god-CHUMP-as "haters!" Mike Gallagher did so today. Call it disgust, disapproval, protest, righteous indignation, Trumplers NEVER address this meme, because they cannot. THEY SUPPORT ALL THESE SINS, yet name Jesus. (See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at AmericanAnswers.org's Campaign updates p. 40).

Christians in America NEED a sermon on the attributes of the Antichrist, because they have proven that they are NOT discerning enough to not fall for The Apostasy of prophecy!

Antichrist Traits
The Personality of the Coming World Ruler	Traits & Actions
• Charismatic (Dan. 7:7-8, 20, Rev. 13:5)	Prideful (Dan. 11:36-37)

(3) Wiser than Daniel, no secrets unrevealed (v. 3-4a)
(4) Rich off wisdom and understanding (4-5, 7g)
(5) Ruthless nations of strangers will war with him (v. 7a-f, 8, 10b)
(6) Splendor will be defiled (v. 7g)
(7) Dies the death of Gentiles, down to the pit in the heart of the seas (v. 8-10)
(8) Men slay and wound him (before resurrection?); (v. 8-10), Ezek. 28:1-10

15. HOUSE SPEAKER JOHNSON REPLACING MCCARTHY

(10/3/23; @JamesMeroney)

D.C. Is broken! Fix it, 'We the people!'

It is the MOST asinine thing that the leading nation in the world and one of the top technology centers/leaders of the world can't STOP WASTING taxpayer dollars by manual and verbal House votes, vs. verified electronic button pushing, to get back to business!!!

Update #1

(10/4/23; @JamesMeroney)

GET OVER IT! Gaetz's act was legal and succeeded! The rule allowing such a low bar was DUMB, but McCarthy had little leverage against the far right for a higher standard! Move forward with a uniter, OR just someone able to govern a bunch of stray cats, who don't have much unity!

I GUARANTEE you Congress can work productively! You MUST master techniques of justice, balance, compromise, and especially win-win! If Dems get a win that's not horribly against GOP values, they get it only when the opposite happens for the GOP's! I HATE bureaucracy and Parliamentary rules!

EVERYTHING Congress does has to first allow for a 100% audit of all federal spending, by independent, unbiased experts! NO ox is off the table as a golden calf! Streamline everything for best bang for the buck. The days of the government worker disincentivized at customer service.

Update #2

(10/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

A post asked how you'd describe 22 GOP's who use their conscience. MAGAs used these descriptions, below FUNNY, when only 10 GOP's voted to end McCarthy, these same IDIOTS called them heroes, but now the minority is evil. It's all a worship of satanic far right conservatism! HYPOCRISY SIN.

Democrats - uniparty members! Future unemployed Incorrigible RINOS Self-serving Spiteful Traitors Weak

Talk radio slandered GOP's who still have a working conscience, accusing them of not wanting to govern, but wanting to be out of power and just complain and enjoy D.C.'s perks. IF I could at every "moderate" who votes vs. Jordan, I'd commend them profusely! These people are EVIL and deluded!

What GOP needs is a unifier who sees both sides of their philosophical split! One who is pragmatic enough to work with Dems to get things done, but won't sacrifice core principles in that process, and who isn't there just to demonize them, or insist only on GOP's policies! Good luck.

Update #3

(10/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

You can't, AKA it's impossible to unite with people unwilling to compromise one iota, but requiring centrist GOP's to bow to Trumpism! It can't work, and would necessitate a viable third party's rise, as early as 2024! #CommonSense No give, no unity; my-way-or-the-highway win-lose loses—Am. 3:3

Update #4

(10/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

YOU tell me how you can unite radicals with rationals? Amos 3:3 The two GOP sides fundamentally disagree on how to change D.C. gridlock. One side believes they can be convinced to better solutions. The other only likes scorched earth disruption! NO middle ground Speaker of the House.

Update #5

(11/14/23; @JamesMeroney)

THIS IS NOT CHRISTIAN BEHAVIOR, to flip flop, take all sides of the issue, take no stand, have no convictions, and have a linguini spine and backbone!

@SpeakerJohnson You CANNOT hide behind a Bible and claim to Christ! BEHAVIOR is where proof is in the pudding! NO consistency, here!

WE are ALWAYS objective! Positives for @speakerjohnson: Pro-Israel speech, today, and this win for America: <https://foxnews.com/politics/house-passes-bill-avert-government-shutdown-speaker-johnson...>
Negative: 2020 was "stolen" and "I'm all in for tRUMP for 2024." Be more like Jesus, sir, or DON'T MENTION HIM!

We will DESERVE the reputation in this society OUR free-willed decisions earn! @SpeakerJohnson @RonDeSantis @NikkiHaley @ChrisChristie

And @VoteTimScott: @SpeakerJohnson says he's all in for CHUMP. That's NOT objectivity, or letting the nomination process proceed. Disqualifying statement as to credibility as a GOP "leader," in my opinion! Mt. 23:10 Your candidacies are 100% dismissed!

IF EVER in the history of the America American Christians had a chance to stand for morality and against sin and stupidity, it would be whether they vote for CHUMP, or not!

16. GOVERNMENT STREAMLINING/REFORM

(10/4/23; @JamesMeroney)

I DO NOT KNOW HOW America WILL RECOVER to ever reach a balanced federal budget, or to reduce our national debt to a more reasonable and manageable level, without severe spending cuts! NO ONE wants more taxes, and any sized growing economy isn't 'gonna bring in those figures needed!

Compulsory civic service, fair taxes for all, complete streamlining for best bang for the buck federal budget, and teaching Americans to never rely on government for any funds, but to be self-sufficient, and skilled enough to pay their own bills of what they earn is ESSENTIAL, and what I'd do.

And requiring some form of payback for any offered government help, excepting people who are 100% disabled, mentally or physically. And increasing allies, and economic partners, as America becomes the innovation center of the universe. That's how you make America #1 again! That's what I'd do, if allowed.

30% spending cuts in almost every category are VERY reasonable and doable, with methods I know from consulting! Foreign aid, war in Ukraine, entitlements, etc.; I'm certain we could balance a budget in 30 years. I used to say 15-20, but that was when our debt was $23T; not in the 30s!

The way you get Dems onboard for spending cuts is prioritizing and efficiency techniques! And actually aiding poorer Americans with how to earn more, spend smarter and less, live within their means, and have a decent lifestyle off the wages they max out with! Government can help them with that!

The MORE America gets people who are poor, less skilled or educated, or from Socialism-leaning countries, the more EVIL Dems (vs. the good ones) will seek their voting rights! It's ALL designed to make U.S. rich suffer, and be less rich, as their wealth is seen as unfair. Globalist bullhonkey.

EVERYTHING Congress does has to first allow for a 100% audit of all federal spending, by independent, UNbiased experts! NO ox/golden calf is off the table as a golden calf! Streamline everything for best bang for the buck. The days of the government worker disincentivized at customer service are OVER! No more government jobs unrelated to productivity.

Treat government like a business! Let our institutions no longer be ever seen as the place people who can't make it 'in the real world' go for a lower pay but stable career! Compete, or move to another nation! Be your best!

Automate! Require all handouts be repaid, when people are on their financial feet, as a result of such help! Don't engage long wars, but be decisive, and feared, so people don't try to start them against U.S. or our allies! Much more NATO members, and economic ties with U.N. allies of America!

17. CENTRISM

(10/4/23; @JamesMeroney)

HOW do you bridge the far right with the other GOP's, when the far right has stated they don't want unity, and want us out? Impossible, for any with that attitude! So you dominate them, but treat them like Jesus would, when you run them out of power, considering their needs and interests!

Mt. 5:43-44, 7:12, Phil. 2:1-6, Rom. 12:20, Mic 6:8. Win-win is how you bridge the GOP's divide, and the Dems divide with GOP's! Unity isn't needed, but common ground in the best interests of ALL, where everyone gets something; none get all! Bye, for now. Doc physical appointment! ANSWERS EXIST.

IF you get the vast majority of Americans on the side of your policies/solutions, like Reagan did, you have leverage for Congress to get along enough to do the right things, based on common sense common ground! Win-win requires that centrist solution to D.C.'s many self-inflicted problems!

18. CONSERVATIVES

(10/4/23; @JamesMeroney)

A GOP candidate was on Mike Gallagher, today, saying conservatism is the answer to all U.S. problems. LIE! HERE are the many problems centrism does NOT have, that political conservatism HAS. Spiritual conservatism is godly. Political, not nearly so much! HERE are its problems before God:

1. Favors the rich. Levit. 19:15
2. Favors business. Justice requires government to favor neither! Mic. 6:8, et al
3. Assumes government always wastes money. That doesn't have to occur! Discipline is a Bible virtue!
4. Promotes selfishness and greed (SINS).
5. ONLY help for the poor is get a job.
6. Cares NOTHING of pollution if it ever costs oil companies a dime to do better!
7. Turns a blind eye to slandering and treating LGBTQ's as second class
8. Wants national total abortion ban
9. Believes taxes are citizens money. God says what's due is governments rightful money—NOT yours!
10. Wants government to never help any citizen! deSATANist actually mouthed those words, through his wife!
11. Has NO PROBLEM if rich people disobey God, and hoard!
12. HAS NO PROBLEM with select investors buying up all single family dwellings (homes), monopolizing the market
13. CONTRARY to God, it makes heroes of the rich! Lk. 12:15, Jas. 1:10

14. So believes in America as #1, it cares none if we are just to any other nations, as bullying and dominating are a core value of Trumpism!
15. OBVIOUSLY, cares NOTHING about morals, as it enabled tRUMP! 15 Anti-God values listed!
16. Has NO PROBLEM with business owners paying as little as humanly possible, as laws prevent that; not conservative values!
17. Has NO PROBLEM with child labor (Newt), and breaks and overtime pay did NOT come from conservatism! Humane values REJECTED by conservatism, but out-voted!
18. Truth in advertising, anti-fraud and consumer safety laws did NOT come from conservatism! It ONLY encourages make all you can, OK if you never give back, and funnel it all to your heirs. These are anti-God values of conservatism, even as they try to use Him as their origins! LIE.

Update #1: Quote by @brixwe

YOU KNOW FOLKS , I never cared that you were gay, until you started shoving it down my throat, and I never cared what color you were ,till you started blaming me for your problems ,and I never cared about your political affiliation ,until you started condemning me for mine. I really never even cared where you were born , until you wanted to erase my history, and blame my ancestors for your problems you know I never even cared if your beliefs were different than mine, until you said my beliefs were wrong,but now I care, my patience and tolerance are gone, and I am not alone in feeling like this, there are millions of us who feel like this,

19. BLACK & WHITE: TRUMP VS. JESUS

(10/4/23; @JamesMeroney)

NON-CHRISTIANS IN AMERICA: People who claim Jesus, yet support tRUMP do not do much evangelism, aren't disciples, don't value morals over money and/or do not stand for morality. DON'T BE DECEIVED, OTHERWISE! I've proved this in many tweets!

NON-CHRISTIANS IN AMERICA: People who claim Jesus, yet support tRUMP do not do much evangelism, aren't disciples, don't value morals over money and/or do not know their Bibles. DON'T BE DECEIVED, OTHERWISE!

I'M ASHAMED and EMBARRASSED by claiming Christians supporting tRUMP! They can't tell you God's standard for pols, or how supporting evil is biblical (it's not). Ex. 18:21 REPENT, possible tares! Excommunication IS biblical, and there's a cost standing for morals!

Policy is usually more important than a candidate having excellent character. But when your evils stack higher than all living Presidents, combined, REAL Christians take a stand against supporting empowering sin! If Mt. 6 and Rom. 6 teach anything, morals above all, and never aid evil!

20. POLITICS & THE BIBLE

(10/4/23; @JamesMeroney)

A verse for EVERY politician to memorize: Mt. 12:37 STOP lying and flip flopping, and speak the accurate truth from the start, and to the end (and everywhere in-between)!

Update #1

(10/6/23; @JamesMeroney)

I have learned SEVERAL insightful things about what God says about rulers/politicians, and NONE that I remember are how ours in America typically act, though they're supposed to. READ our outline sums, and learn the way things are supposed to be!

Update #2

(11/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

I'M TIRED of people complaining about who politicians receive funds from, or take photos with! It's probably impossible to screen out every bad player you meet, or get donations from! If anyone supports good solutions, I DON'T CARE if even evil people deny their character, for good!

21. THE FAR RIGHT'S EVILS

(8/24/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF there is ZERO evidence, or not enough to not be thrown out of court as a frivolous lawsuit, this is political persecution of CHUMP. SINCE that is NOT the case, this is the normal outworkings of our better than elsewhere judicial system of justice! God Bless President Trump?

Update #1

(8/25/23; @JamesMeroney)

People arguing "banana republic" and "political persecution" JUST WANT TRUMP TO NEVER FACE ANY BACKLASH if he did or does any crimes. They are saying a President is above the law! That's what their little slogans mean, folks! Free Trump? He's not even in jail, IDIOTS!

Update #2: Evil & the Far Right

(10/4/23; @JamesMeroney)

There is SO much evil in our world, people often ask why?

1. We live on a fallen world, since Adam
2. Satan has been loosed, with a short time before his demise
3. Sin will be increased, just before prophecy arrives.

But WHY do we choose evil so often (besides it as our nature)?

1. Sin is passing pleasure, and we live for the short-term
2. Our minds are on the temporal, vs. eternal rewards
3. There is no fear of God before their eyes. We think we are getting away with it, because God hasn't judged us yet, and may not until the next life

4. Others are doing it, and competition society makes you not want to be different/stick out
5. We do things if we think we can get away with them and not get caught, or there are no punishments/enforcements, or if the payoff seems greater
6. We DON'T absorb the Bible, regularly
7. We don't care a lot about thinking about or teaching about morals, and have bought into a lie that they are all subjective and relative. ALL these reasons are why our society has become so God-awful wicked.

Even if you observe claiming Christians, disappointment will befall your observations, regularly! We are on desperate need of repentance, by which I do mean we come to ourselves and realize the vile ways we have been living, and decide we are not going to continue down that immoral path. Our nation, as a whole, requires that decision, as does every human being on this fallen earth!

IF we define "conservatism" as maximizing one's wealth (as we should define it), these issues would be acceptable to a political conservative (IF morality played NO role):

1. Defund many government programs
2. No taxes
3. Don't pay your taxes, if there are taxes
4. Child labor
5. Sweat shops
6. Defraud the public, as a business, if you can get away with it (NO regulations, consumer protections, truth in advertising laws, or product or workplace safety laws)
7. Over-work labor, and pay LESS than minimum wage
8. End minimum wage
9. Work employees 39 hours (so you don't owe benefits)
10. Cut corners
11. No workforce breaks or lunch/dinner breaks
12. NO overtime laws (requiring 1.5 times regular pay)
13. Never advance anyone (except stars)
14. Automate and robotize as many jobs as possible
15. Self-service everything! (no laborers helping customers–DIY!)
16. ALL customer service automated, smart phoned, or on a website for consumers to look up pat answers
17. ALL profits only to management/ownership and shareholders–NEVER bonuses, raises or profit-sharing!
18. Tax fraud schemes and offshore money laundering
19. Hoard everything ONLY for your family and heirs
20. Never give to church or charities
21. Sue anyone who challenges your nest egg or business, as with whistleblowers

22. Outsource labor to wherever decent quality is cheapest in the world
23. Get supplies from cheapest venue for desired quality
24. Conservatism did NOT bring America a safety net. The Jews, God's people, had one. NO ONE can tell me they know God and their Bible, and support conservatism. ONLY a modified version is biblical, as with common sense centrism! Prove me wrong, with SCRIPTURE! You can't—it's NOT in there!
25. Hide assets from taxation, and open failed businesses to offset successful ones, tax-wise
26. Pay yourself a small salary, on paper, and give yourself all the company luxuries in the world, as company expenses
27. Buy off politicians favoring these policies
28. Anything goes in attacking and slandering all political views but extreme conservatism; even say the U.S. Constitution demands only it
29. Move away to another nation if conservatism doesn't rule America, and where standards of living and taxes are cheaper; even renounce U.S. citizenship
30. ALL legitimate lawsuits against business hang up in court, for YEARS, to defund your opposition's budget
31. Hire the best and most ruthless lawyers to defend all these schemes
32. Live away from the public, so you never encounter any needed fallout! THIS IS IDEAL FAR RIGHT CONS!

Political conservatism opposes collective morality and government integrity; ONLY individual integrity, if you want to! God is for integrity in all places and all peoples!

Update #3

(10/7/23; @JamesMeroney)

ANYone who says in their heart, or aloud, I like my lifestyle, and /or political beliefs that support it, and don't want anyone telling me it's wrong, if it is wrong, is an idolater, which makes them either unsaved, or a carnal Christian/non-disciple. They hate the truth, and therefore they hate God.

Update #4

(10/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

There is VERY LITTLE in political conservatism for many if not most youth! They're low on the totem pole, so would like freebies! They make so little, they pay little taxes, so if anyone else mainly pays for handouts, they're in. That is the challenge for non-Socialists in America!

Update #5

(9/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let me ask you a common sense question: Do you think many Americans would say they are against God? I read Twitter bios of 'God, family, country,' and there is a cultural religion having NOTHING to do with biblical Christianity! An emotion! A positive feeling about an undetailed god!

For any and ALL MAGAts who say "God, family, country," READ THIS which God has written: "If you love Me, keep My commandments." –Jn. 14:15

For any and ALL MAGAts who say "God, family, country," READ THIS which God has written: "By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep His commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments." 1 Jn. 5:2-3

IT'S SAD that I can relate: From 8-18 I attended church three times a week. Would've said I loved God! Was pretty moral, though imperfect. Fit in. Did mainly the right things. BUT I WAS CARNAL, until a guy nagged me into a daily quiet time. No Bible ingesting, ~NO growth! Jn. 17:17 DUH

WHY is sin and stupidity SO rampant among the MAGA/far right branch of the GOP? I propose that CHUMP (tRUMP) made them feel free to be themselves, and not care about morality, or accuracy, as he, their leader, certainly didn't!

I understand! Christians have a sin nature, free will, and temptation exists. I also understand perfection isn't required. Ecc. 7:16 But WHY are so many claiming Christian politicians so vile?

NO ONE is perfect, and we can't demand that of any politician. But, there are standards. Many MAGAS have NO problem lying, sinning, and deceiving dumber voters. That has never been a standard America supported. And power idolatry is a sin, for Christians and lost people! They engage it!

Update #6

(9/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

Measurement. Iteration. Degree. Boundaries. THESE concepts are what are LACKING when anyone says I'm for immigration, as a merciful and "Christian" value, when taxpayers pay for that abuse! Or, saying I back innocent Ukraine, but have no limits to such taxpayer funded backing!

Update #7: On MAGA

(11/14/23; @JamesMeroney)

COWARDICE is a sin we often see in D.C. GOP's who refuse to ever rightly criticize CHUMP, from sinful fear! He is NOT scary, but LAUGHABLE, STUPID and SIN-FULL, chickens/folks! An unqualified American EMBARRASSMENT Repent of your cowardice and fear sins, politicians! Fear God MORE!

TO THOSE CULTISTS:

1. Morals don't matter
 2. Truth doesn't matter
 3. ONLY secular power matters!
- Anti-America and anti-God CULT.

I AM BEING LITERAL: If ANY American can't see how the far right wing of the GOP has gone totally nuts, violent bullying (like their cult leader) and sin-full, since 2016, you have an intellectual disability, a low IQ, or both! United States Senator Bernie Sanders Kevin McCarthy

The greatest commandment is love God with all you have (paraphrased). That means valuing intelligence, facts, accuracy, morals, and being fully committed to Him, His ways and His agenda. That is how I say any claiming Christian empowering all this sin is apostate/backslidden/carnal!

Update #8

(11/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

MAGAs LOVE to say Pence is a traitor, for certifying the 2020 election, BUT they argue their Jan. 6 event was not an insurrection, or coup. IF YOU CAN'T UNDERSTAND WHAT'S IRONIC IN THIS FACT, you are a bona fide FOOL!

Update #9: Accidental MAGA Christians

(11/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

I believe there may exist committed Christians who accidentally got caught up in the emotion of a GOP win, who are Trumpsters, but there are NONE who know the Bible, and free-willedly choose to still support him, IF they're educated that you can vote all other GOPs and hamstring Biden!

Actually, the brainwashed CAN say they'll vote for CHUMP, because Biden's worse. But ANY Christian who would do that is PROVING that standing against sin, and FOR the fear of God (obedience) is less valued to them than secular power idolatry Jesus rejected! Undebatable statement!

HEREs MAGA "thinking:" NO GOP can criticize Ted Cruz for claiming Rainbow Bridge was terrorism, as that helps Democrats. That thinking is anti-Christ! Therefore, you CANNOT claim God, and support satins policies, yet people do this ALL THE TIME! Sin, hypocrisy and apostate stupidity!

When EVERYTHING you say and do is to support one political party, and you avoid TRUTH or morality, to do so, you have just committed the sin of idolatry! Ted Cruz was WRONG about the Rainbow Bridge! EVERY GOP should be able to publicly state this FACT, including Christian Speaker Johnson!

Update #10

(11/25/23; @JamesMeroney)

It doesn't take much to become a Christian. It requires a lot to be a disciple. That difference is why you see claimers of Christ still backing sin/Trump! Carnality is the majority practice among Christian laymen, stats have shown for an entire generation!

You CAN'T conclude MAGA ""Christians"" are ANYTHING but The Apostasy! and their non-Christian MAGA cult buddies are The Delusion of prophecy! I-II Th.

The BIBLE says there are tares in churches. Fake Christians. Lost church-goers. It also teaches of carnal believers. With the support of what's below, they are now just revealing their true colors more out in the open, all for the love of money political conservatism/ worldliness!

Update #11

(11/26/23; @JamesMeroney)

I have learned two things about CHUMPsters, this week--They have two knee jerk responses to valid criticism:

1. Attack critics in slanderous swamps, online, with negative labels, OR,
2. Ignore the content and huddle with your cult members for reassurance. Don't deal with the real! tRUMPsters can't (incapable) take responsibility, or criticism. ALL they know how to do is find fault with the critics, or use talking points about their opponents' agendas.

Literally, they never self-correct, morally or intellectually. They must think they're perfect, or don't care (demonstrably the latter)

Update #12: The MAGA Agenda

(11/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

The MAGA mindset. To the extent ANY MAGA member ever thinks, it is usually just regurgitating talking points from talk radio! Even though Rush Limbaugh scoffed at his listeners being mind-numb robots, that's exactly what the far right often is. That's called "projecting," or deflecting.

The MAGA agenda:

1. Eliminate every federal government program that's not names in the Constitution, and send any related functions to the states
2. Distrust CBS, ABC, NBC, CNN and even FoxNews, and deem them lying all the time
3. Call our great military "patriots," but never make them risk actual service and war, unless upon U.S. soil
4. Taxes MUST favor and benefit the rich, oil companies, business and be as low as humanly possible
5. Pollution and environmental concerns be damned, for profits
6. Any way any business person can profit is allowed, as regulations are usually evil
7. Any American NOT in America First movement is the enemy
8. NEVER have an open mind; only absorb what talk radio pundits spew
9. Do not believe anything that's not stated by a MAGA spokesman, and reject all other evidence
10. ALL federal workers MUST be MAGA adherents
11. All who aren't MAGA must be subject to cancel culture punishments, revenge or even jail
12. World dictators are to be praised, admired and emulated
13. America is to retract ALL foreign aid, get out of NATO, and become isolationist; otherwise, we are globalists
14. Everyone should have a gun
15. Give lip service to being for "God," so you attract DUMB vs. Bible-informed Christians to your cult. God, country and Apple pie (but don't promote His teachings as policy proposals, or you will lose Christians)
16. ALL help of anyone outside your family is evil, unless you feel like it; as self-sufficiency is the only right way to live (God disagrees, but like #15, we ignore Him, even as we invoke Him)—hypocrisy sin
17. Lying is good, as is greed! Money-making is life's point/purpose, and there is no objective truth, anyway
18. Conspiracy theories are usually truths the mainstream media rejects, as opposed to their political agenda. Belief in them makes you look smarter than the average bear, who believes their lies, hook, line and sinker
19. Win at all costs. NO boundaries exist to this goal/idol
20. Morals and truth don't exist. THIS is MAGA

Update #13: No Morals, No America!

(11/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

Our American Founders said democracy is not possible without a moral constituency, and now the far right wants their Constitution, interpreted by their version of the 10th Amendment, so they can behave immorally, and just take what's good for them out of our Founders' vision!

I read a MAGA post that the Establishment hates them. Well, when you ruin the GOP's reputation, you don't value morals or facts, and selfishly want to dominate everyone, fire everyone in government not in your cult, is it any wonder you're not liked or wanted? You brought that on yourself!

I don't need to be governed, and who is any mere mortal to ever tell me what to do? THIS attitude exists within MAGA, like the sovereign citizen types. Totally against God's teachings!

TUMPsters who deny Jan. 6 had anything to do with a coup, consider the exact timing and deeds. They instilled fear from illegal break-ins of hundreds, at the exact time the 2020 vote count was scheduled to be certified. That's NOT ironic timing, but the purpose of the riots!_(11/30/23)

Update #14

(11/30/23; @JamesMeroney)

THIS is what we're up against! LET Russia take entire nations, and Israel be thrown into the sea, because we pay military to sit on their hands as 'patriots.' Anyone not in this cult hates U.S.. Know Thy enemies! And all D.C. politicians are 100% corrupt. Brainwashing, folks. Duped, deluded FOOLS.

The mainstream media LIES in every news article. Every government worker is unconstitutionally paid. Every D.C. politician hates America and is corrupted by power and money. Donors are all satanic. THIS IS THE "THINKING" OF STUPID PEOPLE, FOLKS! You can't be an ostrich about MAGA! They exist, and vote.

"Funny:" With Reagan, Bush 1, Bush 2, McCain and Romney, the "Establishment GOP's" NEVER sought to oust the far right wing. But with CHUMP, that's exactly what they want of "RINOs". Power truly goes to people's heads, when they are arrogant, evil idolaters! (12/4/23)

AWESOME meme from @canadianpoli: (12/5/23)

Update #15: Far Right Policies

(12/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

It seems many in the GOP don't SEE you'll have Trumpism and Vivek attitudes for YEARS, if you keep empowering and allowing Chump and his crime family ($2B from Saudis, etc.). Our centrist third party will destroy that small bloc, when Dems also fight it! IF this continues, GOP is dead, in my opinion.

There's zero room for growth for the far right! Youth, independents, sane people disinterested in politics for what it is in practice has NO interest in braggadocios blow-hards leading our great nation! And far right policies are mainly good for people who are rich, OR self-centered.

The far right policy is for:

1. ENDING (not cutting back) 5+ federal agencies, as they aren't explicitly mentioned in the Constitution. These bums cannot read the 10th A's "and to the people!" Illiterate!
2. Taxes so low our bills get paid for by borrowing at interest and printed bills.

3. Taxes so low we NEVER require fairness, favor the rich (who need help the least), and our budget never gets balanced, or debt reduced, as lower taxes to the rich doesn't guarantee a better economy, as that treasury loss has to be exceeded by tax dollars from resulting business growth!
4. Total abortion bans, nationwide, even when a woman's health and possibly life is at stake (Ex.: Texas).
5. Borders shut down/100% closed, INSTEAD of 100% controlled, where we allow in only those our economy needs, and who come legally. None others allowed to cross our borders—period! Zero tolerance.
6. STRONG military that sits on its hands getting paid and called 'patriots,' as they ignore America's national interest in Russia/Communism NOT taking over the world, slowly, one nation at a time, or paying to help defend our ALLY, Israel. It even wants OUT of NATO! #Amazing!
7. A great economy (as everyone wants), but only by lowering taxes mainly on the rich! I already said that refund comes at a budget expense, when were already in deficit, and the rich and business (some who never pay their fair share) need government's help the LEAST! I've listed between 8 and 15.
8. Drill, baby, drill. That's a slogan. It is NOT thought out policy! I've already detailed by oil drilling and environmental policy, and it is NOT willy-nilly drill anywhere, any way you want, and just deal with the consequences or wait until there is no oil left, then U.S. innovation will take over (a conservative pundit wrote that solution!).

The time gap between the last drop of oil, and innovation replacing crude would leave our economy in shambles! Be it China, Commies uniting, or ANY other policy, we have already written the solutions, and they're FAR better than CHUMPs!

M-ajorly A-damantly G-hoolishly A-sinine! (12/12/23)

I have to add to this AM's chapter: Nick Fuentes says non-Christians will get the death penalty for suppressing Christ when America First movement takes power, and Kimberly Guilfoyle says RINOS, and RNC won't be allowed to be on their team (we wouldn't want to be!). Evil, fake Christianity. (12/12/23)

Update #16: MAGA as Anti-Christ

(12/12/23; @JamesMeroney)

YET another far right behavior that is anti-Christ: 'F your feelings.' ANYONE who ever simply cracks open a Bible to the Gospels would immediately conclude, that sentiment is NOT "WWJD!"; Or 'F Joe Biden' coded/cleaned up by 'Let's Go Brandon.'

Class, sophistication, distinctions, open-mindedness, sympathy/compassion, analysis, critical thinking, dignity: These are NOT traits common amongst the far right! Rather, crudeness, arrogance, brash rudeness, bullying, ego, stupidity and worship of simpleton slogans and conspiracies.

[Background: "Charlie Kirk says Taylor Swift is not a Christian anymore because "she pursues money, fame, and the approval of the world." If that's the case, this dimwit should warn the MAGA-Evangelicals about supporting 45."]

In SO MANY ways far right conservatism is OPPOSITE Christianity, yet I hear NO pastors say so, even as our "religion" is WARPED by them, just like the hero, Billy Graham, warned about, This silence allows such Apostasy by carnals! LOOK at ALL these examples:

1. Accountability and responsibility are CHRISTIAN principles, and "no one is above the law" is a cherished American value.
2. Registering Americans to vote is seen as BAD, and a great musician is slandered (a sin), because the far right KNOWS most normal people wouldn't vote for their policies, as they only benefit the rich or people who want zero government heling anyone. The Jews had a safety net!
- 3a. These far right idiots pretend to know God and His teachings, EVEN THOUGH actions/behaviors, in themselves, would NEVER cause any Christian to go to hell, once saved! Even worldly Christians chasing money don't lose their salvation, carnal, Bible-ignorant boy!
- 3b. Conspiracy theories ABOUND among the often under-educated or college dropout DJ pundits on the far right. That is NOT loving God with all your mind, or taking every thought captive to the obedience of Christ! Or testing the spirits, or discernment from senses trained! Heb. 5:14
4. And just as bad company corrupts good morals, they associate with their own kind! Almost exclusively, because they can't deal with an open mind to explore any other views, and demonize everyone not in their cult, including Republicans ("RINOs"). I Cor. 15:33
5. One post from the far right/dark side said of Cali "homeless people on the streets are life's losers, waiting at death's doorstep." DOES GOD TEACH THAT THE POOR ARE LOSERS and THE RICH WINNERS, and to insult their condition, vs. help them? That's ANTI-Christianity!
6. A Houston teacher friend of mine at a Christian college said it's not a sin to be rich. TO ONLY TEACH THAT IS MISLEADING ON GOD'S WHOLE COUNSEL ON WEALTH! It CAN BE a sin, God has obligations for the rich, and how you get and use riches matters to God. Far right sins and distortions!
7. Christian teaching says it's not how much money you have, but how much money has you, that causes the sin problem. 100% TRUE! However, I've NEVER met a rich person who thought money or worldliness had them. Outsiders can be more objective! What they talk and spend time on, and amount of ministry.
8. Far right ALLOWED a Texas woman, Kate Cox, to risk injury or death, because her unborn child would NOT make it after she was birthed! This is yet another error and extreme, impractical aspect of far rightism! No compassion for the only soul who could survive! And opposing birth control.
9. Far right rightly states homosexuality is a sin, yet in private conversations OFTEN treat gays as lesser, or sub-human, and I have often witnessed they will not watch things like Elton John, or Barry Manilow's EXCELLENT Christmas special, BECAUSE HES GAY! It's NOT two dudes kissing!

10. MTG SAID (can't find post, yet) "~I'm a Christian, and America needs to be a Christian nation." Christian Nationalism. This ILK doesn't understand carnality vs. spirituality, or that we live in a democracy, vs. theocracy. Ignorant, Christianity warpers, giving God a bad Name!

11. A state banned conversion therapy, which posits salvation cures homosexuality. Another WARPING of Christian teaching!

12. Some far right pundit criticized many Dems for hating to hear of God. God says evangelize all lost—not insult their NATURALLY not being inclined to Him!

The [baker's dozen] 12 Days of Christmas, far right style! It's amazing what God puts in my head, every morning, that I had never considered until I awake! I could list MANY more sins and perversions of Christianity that the far right espouse. The BAD thing is MANY Christians can't see these things!

When ANY Christian doesn't know their Bible well, their opinion on morals and values is as NON-valuable as any other ignorant person! And ASK the far right Christ-claimers to recite 10 verses, how many people they've disciplined and evangelized! You'll see the shallow carnality, first-hand!

Two more examples: Far right is AGAINST America helping Ukraine defend itself against an immoral taking by Russia, and ONLY see Israel as heroes, or victims, who have done no wrong, even though some Palestinians were shoved out and treated inhumanely, though Hamas attack was 100% UN-justified!

I don't expect any far right American to be persuaded by what I say, because they are dead set in their agenda, and implementing it by force, any way that works, with zero moral restraints, and truth be damned. I do write for the rest of society, to see what they're up to! Jn. 8:31-32

My mistake—one more: Recently, a voter in ~Iowa said "Trump was sent as a gift from God." THIS IS CARNALITY, folks! Lordshippers deny that concept, but it is proved to everyone, every day! God does not send satan's tools as a gift. So deceived and Bible-lacking "Christians," SO often!

And God does NOT lead Christians to do devilish things, even for good causes, like the next retweet!
Rom. 3:8, 6:1

One more: CPAC "Christian" head grabs boys genitals, Mothers for Liberty heads have sexual threesome, and some female rep speaks of premarital sex at a National Prayer Breakfast. DOES ANYONE SEE HACKS ARE USING CHRISTIANITY FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES ONLY? Don't be used, true Christians!

22. GLOBAL WIN-WIN VISION

(10/4/23; @JamesMeroney)

Enemy nations' needs and interests considered, when they're moral and valid! Wars aren't required, often! If someone else starts them, end them quickly and decisively! Foreign aid? Less, cut off, or use threat of cut off for more benefit to U.S. national interests! We don't owe anyone funding.

Apart from Putin and Kim Jung Un (NOT their peoples), I believe enemy and frienemy nations can be worked with in ways that aren't ideal, but manageable. The whole world needs peace and prosperity, along with justice, with limited resources. America never needs to adopt Socialism!

Capitalism can be tweaked, to be more moral and just, and America doesn't have to try to change every nation into our image! Force is less persuasive than role modeling! If America lead the world in morality, more of the world would follow Americas lead! It starts with Christians and politicians being moral!

Update: AntiChrist & Israel

(10/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

HERE is a blueprint I HOPE the real Antichrist learns of, as I'm ready for the Rapture.

1. The land mass is finite
2. MANY Islamists want NO Jews in Palestine
3. 1948 disrupted legally owned land claims, based on 70 AD injustices!
4. Neither side wants Jerusalem decimated!
5. All-out war only kills people on BOTH sides! DUMB
6. Palestinians DESERVE life's essentials, and a place to live within Israel
7. Second-class citizen treatment is likely, when they initiate violence, and don't control it! They breed it in their youth! Indoctrination and propaganda!
8. NO weapons allowed in Israeli territory, by Palestinians
9. Access to the holy places, at agreed upon days or hours
10. Even the most holy Palestinian can't 100% be trusted to live alongside Jews in Jewish territories! No one knows what's in one's mind! Too big a risk for any Jews!
11. All outside Islamist nations should be for a plan that lets Palestinians have every reasonable thing they need but access to weapons to harm Jews! Many won't accept that—they want blood, from eons-long hatred they never repent of!
12. Arabs and Muslims resent Israel controlling the core of the land of Israel! They think they were robbed in 1948. They won't accept that any more than you would accept outsiders taking your home and giving it to anyone with a land claim or deed!
13. More land doesn't exist, near Jerusalem, so build skyscrapers, dig deep and add
It's not about the First Amendment. It is about his right to trial by jury. If he can't control himself by talking about the case and disparaging individuals, he kind of forfeits his right to one. Play stupid games win stupid prizes.

Norway and my homeland of Ireland are the only shockers on this list, but they don't 100% condemn everything Israel is doing!

GO TO ISRAEL and sit @netanyahu down with Yehya Sinwar and figure out a 7-year peace deal!
@realdonaldtrump I just laid out enough details, and as you often steal my ideas, do so with my blessing, this one time, so you get "revealed!" II Th. 2:3 Go demonstrate the art of the deal! (ha ha)

Why hasn't America sent Dennis Rodman to Israel, to negotiate basketball peace with Hamas, yet?

MANY spiritually liberal "Christians" interpret Rev. 13:3 as near fatal. I believe with all his satanic miracles powers, it will be a resurrection from actual death. That wonder will cause all the world to follow after him! Is tRUMP worried about Rev. 13:3 and 19:20 in his 'favorite book?'

23. PROPHECY & GLOBAL VISION

(10/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

We'll be 100: After awhile, Israel will have gotten justice, even before all Hamas are dead. BUT, to deter future eruptions, they NEED all dead. Even then, others will replace them, like their kids. NO peace is possible, long-term, until the second coming of Jesus! Hate ties to Abram days!

I can't WAIT to see how the Antichrist explains 7-year peace deal is authentic, and gets Arab/Muslim nations to agree with each other to support it! Israel would be STUPID to agree to it, but we know that they will. May be forced to, or threatened with annihilation!?! When will it be?

Putin says he wants a new world, and he's VIOLENTLY INVADES a sovereign nation, and sides with Hamas. NO ONE IN THEIR RIGHT MIND THINKS PUTIN HAS ANY MORAL AUTHORITY TO ENVISION ANYTHING! Everyone stay peaceful, pursue prosperity, ally with who you can, and Putin—shut the heck up! You're NO leader!

Russia and China aggressive and owning nukes. Iran, n Korea and some Arab nations hating Israel. WHATS NEEDED IS FOR INDIVIDUALS TO HAVE A MORAL CHANGE TO CARING ABOUT MORALITY. Communism seems to breed it out of some dictators! And satan gets involved! #FightEvil, all free nations!

The Bible says in the latter days sin will be increased. We have to EXPECT more evil nations or more evil in evil nations! Your response, short of war, is contain, appease, ally, ignore, build alliances, isolate, harm them economically, compromise, win-win, or, last resort—war.

By the way, the Antichrist will broker a 7-year peace deal by usurping three heads of state, and likely siding with the Arabs, and feigning being neutral, as he knows the deal won't last but 3.5 years. Then he gets total world control of all nations and economies by military and bribes those 3+ years.

Update

(10/17/23; @JamesMeroney)

[Background:] When I signed off, last eve, I told myself I was quitting writing for several days, SO frustrated with the state of the world! But ALL I HAVE is my words, at present, and the Lord awakened me with this dream, since Putin wants a new world reset:

IT IS ASININE that dictators exist! Period. 100% irrational and STUPID! Unfair, unjust, EVIL/wicked, not the way God intended the masses to live, oppressed and fearful of one man who is no more special than anyone else! Period. GET THE MEMO, people! Shake off their balls and chains—NOW!

DO YOU REMEMBER the Arab Spring? I want to see an Arab Spring, Winter, Fall and Summer, YEAR ROUND and for years to come! DO YOU REMEMBER Tank Man? (below) I want to see Tank Man all across every Communist/oppressive nation! China, Russia, Iran, North Korea, Venezuela, etc.! Do it NOW.

IF anyone is EVER able to read this message, YOU were made/created for freedom, by the God of this universe! He NEVER intended any human to be a slave to any other mere mortal human sub-beings! Those types are hellbound dastardly selfish and wicked toward you! BREAK FREE! You have to.

NO, we NEED to rise up and break free from the vile sub-humans who think they're in charge!!!...

@stewartdantec: We, the people of the Earth, need a National Day of Mourning. The collective tragedies and traumas we have to hold at once is unprecedented. We are exhausted and have depleted our spiritual resources for justice. We are afraid. What is happening is unfair. We need to grieve.

I am specifically addressing the nations I mentioned, and every poor nation's "leaders!" IT IS EMBARRASSING that the continent of Africa is the butt of so many jokes for it's bass ackwards economies and educational systems! HOW MANY DECADES or centuries will you be so damn primitive?

It's humiliating to the human race that masses still remain stupid, poor, oppressed, scared of governing humans, broke, tolerating all this or living a subsistence lifestyle living off the land, because their governments have such backwards infrastructures! This is the 21st century.

And that ANYONE is allowed to start/initiate any war is intolerable! We are SO concerned about prophecy's 1-world government we think no entity or human has any right to ever tell any head of state the boundaries of human existence on this one planet! BALDERDASH! THERE ARE LIMITS!!!

God says things ALL humans MUST hear, but in some barbaric nations the people aren't allowed to learn what He says! I don't care if it's a competitor to the U.N., or a reformed U.N., or none of the above, people have EVERY right to know God's standards for His created world, and how we are supposed to live in it!

It is NOT by oppressive dictators! They are ONLY humans, just like everyone else! They have zero reason for being in charge, and no special features that make them superior!

WE THE PEOPLE of this world must start learning this fact! Humans have gone through The Enlightenment. Many times I think we have reverted to the dark ages in our collective mentalities! Words written TWO THOUSAND years ago are smarter than what many current residents of this blue planet ever come up with on their own/left to their own devices! STUPIDITY.

Let me BRIEFLY explain to any moronically low IQ citizens of planet Earth: 1-world government NEVER happens until 3.5 years after a 7-year FAKE peace treaty is brokered between Israel and here enemy nations. YOU DON'T NEED TO FEAR 1-WORLD GOVERNMENT UNTIL THEN!

You NEED to fear remaining oppressed by dictators who are going to forever burn in hell's flames! Be a hero! Rise up! Unite! Refuse to live as you do! I know for absolute certain that America is NOT the role model I am asking you to imitate! Since CHUMP, we have modeled sin and division YOU shouldn't want or envy!

But LOOK at the freedom in the Western world, for what it provides for the citizenry! Rights and freedoms to not fear going to jail for speaking the truth about your EVIL so-called "leaders" (they AREN'T leaders, but bullies). No concentration- or re-education camps!

NO forced child labor or sweat shops. No Kim Jung Un you STUPIDLY worship, either because YOU are stupid, or more likely, because you fear what will happen to you if you don't dolt-ily/dutifully act like you worship him. THIS IS NO WAY TO LIVE, humans made in God's image! WAKE UP!

Arab and Islamic nations: YOU DO NOT HAVE TO adopt a new religion, to comprehend that violence is wicked! Murdering is bad. Treating women as a second-class citizens is wrong! Not educating your youth is wicked. And indoctrinating them to hate Jews is sin/evil. YOUR BRAINS CAN COMPREHEND!

I am about out of patience with people like Putin thinking he has ANY moral authority to set a new world vision! Russian people: ARE YOU IN YOUR HEART OF HEARTS AS EVIL AS HE IS, and if you are not (most are not), WHY do you tolerate him representing you so evilly? It's IGNORANT!

You ALL need to read the Bible, to learn how God wants this established order to be run! Learn of coming history (prophecy), to see that Putin and Russia are Gog and Magog, and it is NOT a good future for him or any evil dictators! He is a murderer and war starter, Russians! R you proud?

24. HAMAS VS. ISRAEL & PEACEFUL PALESTINIANS

(10/7/23; @JamesMeroney)

Day 1

Live updates: Netanyahu says Israel 'at war' after Hamas attack; Gaza militants claim Israelis held hostage

Ed Krassenstein: The wall isn't preventing Palestinians from entering Israel. They are attacking from land, sea, and air. New this morning, Palestinian militants have been barraging Israel. They have sent fighters to Israel from Gaza, using bulldozers like this one to plow right through...

1. Southern border wall isn't like that one
2. It's to deter, not expected to fully prevent, until it is iron clad
3. We aren't at war with illegals
4. Dems solution is if a wall doesn't work perfectly, have an open border! Totally illogical!

It isn't proven, yet, but when Iran gets $6B, even if their money, though they may not yet have access to it, they can spend like they do, knowing all barriers to its access have been removed, when Ayatollah says they'll use it as they please. One pile replaces another to fund Hamas!

Day 2

(10/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

DESTROY EVERY and ALL TERRORISTS! Prove to them there are NO 17 virgins, awaiting them in Paradise, but only an eternally fiery HELL!

Day 3

(10/9/23; @JamesMeroney)

OF COURSE, our work environment has had @cnn on, full-time, since we woke up!!! God bless Israel!

Pv. 20:18 Prepare plans by consultation, and make war by wise guidance.

@Netanyahu @IsraeliPM #God'speed!!!

People talk about "proportional responses" in Israeli-Palestinian War. With people who want you dead and you wiped off the map, who have committed the atrocities Hamas has, doing that would only keep Israel in permanent risk! it has NO application in this situation. End the threats!

Pv. 24:6 For by wise guidance you will wage war, and in an abundance of counselors there is victory.
@netanyahu

Pv. 24:11 Rescue those who are being taken away to death; hold back those who are stumbling to the slaughter. @netanyahu #IsraeliPalestinian War

George Takei worries Israel cutting off water to masses doesn't deescalate situation and incites more terrorists. WE ARE SO PAST TRYING TO DEESCALATE! Need to decimate. And if people lack water they might turn in the wrongdoers, to physically save their own lives! Terror sympathizer!?

Ecc. 8:11 When the sentence for a crime is not quickly carried out, people's hearts are filled with schemes to do wrong. REMEMBER this word of the Lord as you root out future terror capabilities!!!

I said this, in different words, but Bibi calling this a "war," after ~24 hours, was a choice to make it last long, to use this event as a chance to rid Israel citizens of much if any danger of violent terrorists living nearby. THEY opened the door. I FULLY support his escalation.

Day 4

(10/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

History lectures about Israel's land claims, and even from the Bible, are IRRELEVANT to today's crisis! 1948 happened! In the Millennium, all of it'll be theirs. We are NOT in that 1000-year period, deluded Zionism adherents. WE have to deal with the here and now of BOTH sides being there.

IT DOES NOT MATTER how gruesome the images, the numbers killed on either side, or the horrible things Israel's enemies may stoop to. This is war, and the ONLY issue is winning or safely ending it ASAP! YES, innocents will be killed. REMEMBER THE OBJECTIVE, stated above! @netanyahu

In surgeries, doctors do NOT leave a little cancer when they excise it, even though in so doing, some good skin/organ tissue also gets cut. Leave some cancer cells, and they can grow back to bite/haunt you!
@IsraeiPM @netanyahu Future deterrence is success, at least for some time!

The enemy of the good is perfectionism! YOU are charged with protecting the Israeli people. IF in doing so, some innocents are killed, by accident of Hamas/Hezbollah, if you did your best to defeat the enemy with minimal collaterals, you have done GOOD!

Pv. 28:28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.

THE reason I'm not inclined to think this war will cause the Tribulation is because Israel is now on the offensive/taking the fight to the enemy. God will intervene when attacks on (vs. by) Israel REQUIRE Antichrist to end it by fake 7-year deal, in my opinion.

IF, however, major Arab powers join in on the Israeli-Palestinian War, and Israel starts losing the upper hand, in a significant way, I DO believe the Antichrist will reveal himself, after three major world politicians have been subverted, or worked around.

Pv. 28:4 (paraphrased) Those who forsake the law [of God] praise wickedness practitioners, but those who keep the law strive with the wicked.

WHAT character of "human" can initiate deadly violence against innocents? Angry, hateful and demonic.

Day 6

(10/12/23; @JamesMeroney)

My one point is requiring perfection in avoiding all/100% collateral damage on either side (a horrible term I did not invent!) can screw up or delay victory actions, as you tip toe through trying to cut out all cancer cells! Doing your best is needed; bad things will occur, sadly!

Day 7

(10/13/23; @JamesMeroney)

There are ZERO excuses for ANY IDF members to EVER rape, steal, pee on, kick or joyfully take photos of any dead Hamas terrorist! JUST DO YOUR JOB and rid the world of all of them, as quickly as possible, striving never to harm any innocents in that process. Then go home to comfort

Day 9

(10/15/23; @JamesMeroney)

EXCELLENT Wolf Blitzer interview of Israel's President. They're seeking peace for ALL Palestinians, but need terrorists not ruling them. I learned Iran is threatening a wider escalation. THAT could prompt Bible prophecy! AGAIN, realize what that means... Hastening most peoples' trip to hell.

Day 10

(10/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

The Today Show asks what's the end game in Israel, and guest calls killing all Hamas a pipe dream.

1. A government able to peacefully co-exist, and give Palestinians all they need to survive decently and honorably
2. Fair land distribution
3. NO violent extremists
4. No Israeli land dominance

The two-state solution is the OBVIOUS solution for Palestine that I've pushed for decades. NOT Israel risking being attacked, but Palestinians having their own state that must peacefully coexist with Israel. If they violate it, they get the consequences they're now enduring. #CommonSense

I DON'T believe eradicating all Hamas is a pipe dream! Very difficult! They will dress like civilians. They will use human shields. I'd guess many of them have fled toward Egypt, to live to fight another day. You can't identify them by their uniforms! Tough work ahead, but worth it.

An NBC guest also alleged vengeance. Vengeance is targeting Palestinian civilians! Justice and wisdom is eradicating the cancer which is Hamas, for the safety of all civilians in that nation! Turn the other cheek is a command for individuals; not governments/nations! That's ignorant!

Self-defense is IN the Bible! Lk. 11:21 It would be un-wise for Israel to risk another attack like Hamas did, recently! The best way is to end them! The second best is surveillance and intelligence to see their coming assaults, and thwart them on the way! NOT allow break-ins, as happened!

Lasting peace for Israel can NEVER be negotiated by ANYONE—even the Antichrist—until Jesus' return! The BEST we can pray for is technology that alerts them any time any threat starts, then crush it like a cockroach, for STRONG deterrence; then monitor them for future fights!

So long as any nearby Arab nations do not recognize Israel's right to exist (NOT to dominate Palestinians), there won't even be temporary peace! I'd suggest using China's technology of man-made floating islands, for more space, and maximize land use, with skyscrapers! NOT in Jerusalem.

No matter what temporary solutions occur for Israel peace, it needs security, which requires people entering to be unarmed, as well as Hamas un-missiled. It's in BOTH civilians' interests to not have violence, but also not to be cheated out of land space and do nothing/be doormats!

HOW will the world tolerate/not fight a 7-year Israeli peace deal by Antichrist? He'll have satanic miracle powers, and charisma, PLUS the spirit of delusion will be on the earth, where people will ignore I said it was a FAKE 7-year deal that only lasts 3.5 years. I WARNED YOU!

Perhaps I saved my Israel solutions for my for sale books, but it's how do two groups share the same Jerusalem and surrounds? Select days each, same days unarmed, virtual mock-up or war. It's a divorcing couple sharing the same house dilemma. Many Arabs won't ever accept Jews in Israel!

There is NO WAY it is fair to punish Gaza/Palestinian civilians, except when unintended collateral damage! After a BRIEF time, cutting off food and water, so they rat on the culprits, becomes inhumane! Israel ALWAYS has to be just toward Palestinian civilians! Safe corridor needed!

In my opinion, Hamas is out-gunned, save for Iran re-supply, and they have no real gain warring it out. They won't control Jerusalem. They won't wipe Israel off the map. IF they were smart, they'd disengage, or offer a settlement deal. Why die for a no-gain cause? 17 virgins DON'T await you!

I CAN'TIMAGINE how difficult it is for IDF to identify where hostages are! WHO is going to help them on the ground? NOT Palestinian civilians, who are often sympathizers with Hamas, as they allowed them to be their governing authority! ANYONE who helps Hamas in ANY way is a target!

Look, I've NOT been a big fan of Bibi! He was a hard liner (NOT a centrist), and did almost everything you can do to agitate Palestinians, with feigned land grabs sold as something moral! BUT, you can't do what Hamas did, as a result! @netanyahu NEEDS to repent of arrogant bullying!

Day 12

(10/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

I heard someone on TV saying people aren't logical, but they ARE predictable. I foresee Islamic nations NOT seriously joining the Palestinian War, but animosity growing, and new plots forming. NO forgiveness. NO burying the hatchet. Just future violence and hatred advocated by a "religion."

There is ONLY one God, but many man-made "gods"/idols! NO true "god" would tell anyone to start violence and murdering on His behalf, like a "jihad!" The god of this world, the devil, would absolutely tell deceived and deluded followers to do just that!

A word of clarity to #PalestineGenocide clamorers: Bombs are not yet precise enough to not hit everyone where they land, or to hit just the ones you want them to! You might think about that, and design new versions that achieve those noble ends!

And I'm 100% FOR Israel being allowed back into its historic nation! BUT, since 1948, they've done LITTLE to allow room for a two state solution, but just increased expanding settlements, pushing people into a corner! That is EVIL and selfish and arrogant (all sins)! God's people need to repent.

THAT is why there will NEVER be peace in Israel, until Jesus comes back. YOU wouldn't accept your home and hometown being taken away, and you banished to a second-rate place! The Palestinians aren't going to, either! Peaceful coexistence with beneficiaries of that injustice is HARD!

LET ME EXPLAIN what's going on in Israel. If YOUR hometown was confiscated, by force and by law, to be given to someone else, you would NEVER get over or live that down, or accept that! 70 AD dispersion was NOT conducted by Islamists! 1948 forced people out of their purchased homes!

Technology is NOT perfect! Iron Dome doesn't always work, and Hamas rockets go off course. The answer is NO war, which requires evil people not starting it! Until the threat and danger of it is eliminated, you can't avoid these risks, even from Israel's best efforts!

People want Israeli War to end. Perfect! EVERY Hamas member surrender, and I believe @netanyahu would end it. The oneness is on Hamas, so quit blaming Israel for continuing to end threats to themselves! Tell your terrorist friends to turn themselves in if you REALLY want peace!

Day 17

(10/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

I have one piece of advice for the innocent Palestinians in Gaza: Instead of just mourning losses from collateral destruction of imperfect weapons, go escape to a safer place for a month or two! Live somewhere a military wouldn't consider targeting! Sacrifice for a bit, to stay alive!

Do I believe Israel's over-playing its moral right of self-defense, now? Yes. Do I believe they are rightly attacking Hamas? Yes. Do I believe more nations are starting to rally to fight against Israel? Yes. Do prophecy dominoes seem to be starting to fall? Yes, but it CAN stop.

Day 21

(10/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

JUST cause I hate editing, watching @cnn on Israeli War. Cease fire would allow many Hamas to remain alive. The innocents deserve full protection from this violence, but when evil people use human shields, too cowardly to face IDF, beloved of God people/collateral damage WILL occur!

DOES ISRAEL have technology that can identify the underground tunnels, from the air, like satellite or drones with cameras? That technology would be amazing! #Innovation

Day 23

(10/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

GAZA CIVILIANS: Move your feet and go far from where bombs are dropping! This is an emergency for your life! If you don't know where Hamas members are, ASSUME they're near you and go to some rural area and carry a white flag, to be seen as innocent! #CommonSense IDIOTS ignore this plea!

Day 25

(10/31/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF it is true that Hamas isn't letting innocent Palestinians leave Gaza, Hamas alone has blood on their hands for all deaths caused by bombs, which can't discriminate between the good and bad guys in its area of dropping. If that's a lie, Israel is doing evil! Which story is true?

Day 28

(11/3/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF @Netanyahu doesn't use high tech to identify every member in this crowd, for a facial recognition database, he is a FOOL! You KNOW these are the people who want your people wiped off the earth. Once they attack, you know who to target, specifically! Satellites and drones!

Day 39

(11/14/23; @JamesMeroney)

No ceasefire until the job is done!: Hamas is annihilated/eliminated. @Netanyahu

Day 43

(11/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

HERE's the ONLY thing NOT being said enough, that is NOT anti-Semitic: Israel's government has done bad things, and unjustly pressured some Palestinians, thinking they have rights to more land than they morally (vs. religiously) do. Protests vs. violence would've been in order, to rebel.

Being pro-Israel (as I am) is NOT being pro every action they take, just as being pro anything or anyone isn't full support of every word or deed they engage in! #CommonSense and it is NOT anti-Palestinian! It is anti-violence and anti-terrorists like Hamas. Duh 101; #Commonsense

1948 caused the strife we are now watching be physically meted out in the Israeli War! The 2-state solution must occur. However, ALWAYS fear and fight a fake 7-year peace deal the actual Antichrist will broker, as it's a LIE against the Jews. He breaks it in 3.5 years! #Prophecy

We need to envision a peaceful, safe, prosperous and rebuilt Gaza, where the rule of law rules, terrorists aren't allowed inside, and Palestinians can peacefully coexist with Israelis!

Day 48

(11/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

MANY people DONT comprehend war! IF technology allowed you to identify bad vs good guys, innocents would never die. WE DONT HAVE THAT! @POTUS @JoeBiden

ANY time Israel kills innocents, purposely, rather than accidentally, not knowing if someone is Hamas, or a danger and threat to any IDF members, they are sinning! Genocide is NOT mass collateral damage, from human shield and abductee tactics!

Day 51

(11/26/23; @JamesMeroney)

IT IS GREAT that hostages were released! BUT, I seriously doubt Hamas will release them all, as they lose all leverage to hold back a full-out ground war! Human shields are the only thing restraining Israel any iota. Pray they all come out alive!!! Thanks Qatar!

Day 54

(11/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

YOU KNOW Hamas (and Israel) are using the temporary cease fire to better their positions in war. That's natural, expected, and Israel needs to anticipate what Hamas is adjusting, to be able to best destroy any bolstered positions by Hamas, including sneaking away like civilians—vs fighting.

I HATE that innocent Palestinians are dying, at the fault of Hamas! Here's a suggestion: IF you risk death, anyway, risk martyrdom, band together, and all run to safety at once, or identify terrorists near you to IDF members! Don't passively risk dying! Do something heroic! (12/3/23)

Torture and beatings are NEVER tolerable, ESPECIALLY of civilians! @netanyahu If YOU can't defeat Hamas using humane tactics regarding innocents, as much as humanly possible, God will oppose YOU, in my opinion! Choices cause torture; NOT necessity/required! Repent! (12/24/23)

Day 79

(12/24/23; @JamesMeroney)

Israel, @Netanyahu and the IDF NEED to repent of any and all torture or beatings of innocent Palestinian civilians, post-haste! It's NOT needed!!!

25. EXTREMISTS

(10/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

I DON'T know if I have the words to explain to uninformed people how bad political conservatism in its pure/extreme form is! Maybe I shouldn't even try, as words fail me, after many tries!

Just now, I read two posts that said: If the GOP doesn't vote unanimously for Jordan it's because they're protecting Biden, Ukraine money laundering, and/or they're affiliated with Burisma.

Yet another said the ~22 NOT voting for Jordan were "useless, sellout cowards," and "narcissist, cocky, arrogant jerks who laugh at their voters while selling their souls to lobbyists and big money donors."

If ANYONE doesn't lock step submit to their dogma, they are slandered and vilified and demonized as traitors and non-patriots! The venom and HATRED and cussing and sinning they advocate and specialize in is beyond historic comparison!

Reagan had Bush; Ryan was with Romney. GOP has had BOTH GOP sides able to work together since I started voting! Even Palin was with McCain! GWB was with Quayle.

It has NEVER been that the extreme/far right side has demanded they get the whole enchilada! Talk radio is to blame, and Rush Lamebaugh (RIH). It's a sad departure likely requiring a divorce!

And CHRISTIANS CANNOT side with the far right, or their pastors should excommunicate them, IF those pastors choose to be holy/godly/biblical, instead of sinful, compromising and apostate heretics. I DON'T think I need to describe the evils of far rightism anymore, but I will.

The far right is for ALL of these things, collectively (meaning not every far righter wants all of them, but all of them come from far right advocates):

1. Total nationwide abortion ban
2. Take away contraception
3. Cut back or end Social Security and Medicare
4. Pollute at will oil drilling and fracking
5. NO ONE disallowed access to a gun, including the mentally disturbed, and criminals
6. Own the libs and never work with Dems
7. Close five federal agencies
8. Get out of and fully defund Ukraine War
9. Side with and cozy up to Putin and Kim Jong Un dictators
10. Claim to be for debt reduction, while raising it $7 trillion (hypocrisy)
11. Favor the rich
12. ONLY offer minimum wage jobs as poverty's solution, yet oppose minimum wage!
13. Teach that government is evil and thieves for taxes
14. Be AGAINST America helping any allies and even get out of NATO ("America First")
15. Be FOR child labor (Newt) and sweat shops

16. Be FOR greed and selfishness, in NEVER speaking of the rich's God-given duty to be generous! It's acceptable for them to hoard, to the far right, and just keep getting richer, any way they can, if legal or you don't get caught
17. Be FOR white supremacy, and silently oppose blacks and Hispanics
18. Never let anyone into America, by closed for good borders
19. Money is everything in life: Unbiblical worldliness promoted as the American Dream
20. No compromise—ever. Always fight and hate and demonize.

Be so united your commitment IS a cult. Want none others in your political party, and accuse them of being the establishment swamp and a uniparty. THIS is who's FOR tRUMP and Jordan, folks. The far right is VILE! I just proved it!

And the mealy-mouthed squashed Squad far left is EQUALLY vile in wanting Socialism, hating U.S. dominance, wanting no rich people, and many handouts taxpayers fund, over-taxation, open borders, hurting businesses with regulations, higher taxes, abort anytime and weaken America in the world!

26. GLOBAL: DOWNING DICTATORS

(10/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

America's two political extremist groups resent anyone else trying to tell them to change behaviors (based on sovereignty doctrine), and ask, who are you to tell me what to do. THERE IS AN ANSWER! If you're violating God's rules, ANYONE can tell you you need to change (and should do so)!

Nations resent outsiders trying to tell them to change behaviors (based on sovereignty doctrine), and ask, who are you to tell me what to do. THERE IS AN ANSWER! If you're violating God's rules, ANYONE can tell you you need to change (and should do so)!

In my opinion, the ground work for Armageddon is being tilled, presently, with axes of evil nations uniting with their new-found economic, and soon to be military equity with the West! China, Russia, North Korea, Iran and their several smaller partners. China's the least radical of their bunch, in my opinion.

My initial take, absent needed further analysis, is I have NO problem with this bill! 'Gotta protect Israel and prevent nukes for Iran!

One more thing: DO YOU SEE how many nations lack morals and approve lies and sinning? Many are parading dead bodies of non-military, to engender hate and unforgiveness of Israel, and NEVER mention their extremists started this violent cycle. Disingenuous selfish sinfulness! ALL must repent.

Update #1: Dictators

(10/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

You can set a vision for how the world should be, but REALITY is, most of the masses will NOT choose to buck their oppressive "leaders." Putin's vision is allied nations opposing America and the West at all costs, rejecting a sole superpower, furious that the USSR fell in the Cold War!

IF you read nothing else, today, read "The Way Forward," here:

<https://facebook.com/james.meroney.37...>

People FORGET that Noah's flood is coming in a non-watery way! Rainbows are symbols God WON'T 100% flood our planet, again, but there is zero promise He won't crush it in fire and brimstone and judgment in the coming 7-year Tribulation! That's promised to occur!

Update #2: How Dictators Could be Ousted

(10/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

THIS interests me: How a country could oust dictators.

1. One person decide that's their goal
2. The end plan is get some in the military, and maybe some on government staff with your cause, and civilians.
3. Millions support those seeking freedom from dictators. Many nations want them helped, too!
4. Thousands and perhaps millions in YOUR corrupt country want what you do. You have to meet them, despite fears of jail time if such conversations occur. Make a code word or hand signal!
5. SOME in your country's military would buck their bosses, but not lose their status or salary, unless a coup would be successful!
6. You need arms. Very unlikely to get them past your government! Has to be done secretly
7. Martyrs will be needed
8. Youth protest most readily, usually
9. Insiders could assassinate the thugs, but infiltrating the upper echelon can be difficult, tedious and time consuming!
10. Mass protests, like Arab Spring, have power when the medic picks up on them!
11. 'Gotta be able to financially sustain weeks of protests! Sacrifice needed.
12. PRAY! God's FOR your cause.

Many in the West would do anything we could to help your uprising for freedom be successful! I'll do anything I know I can do. I just did the best think I know how to do, in setting a plan, and hopefully inspiring defeat of EVERY dictator in the world.

13. You've GOT to understand if other countries overtly help you, that can be taken as initiating a war or coup.

So private agencies and individuals are best to reach out to, but only by untraceable communications! Burner phones. Dark web? Stool pigeons? Your government monitors all!

Update #3

(10/28/23; @JamesMeroney)

Spiritual roots for why so much terrorism and violence comes from within the 10/40 Window?

<https://worldpopulationreview.com/country-rankings/countries-where-christianity-is-illegal>

27. FUMIGATE SEWER RATS

(10/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

TIME to drain the swamp or as Ross Perot said, clean the [D.C.] barn!: (10/18/2015)

...wave provided that for them all, from either party! Get things done, keep your job. Do as you have in the past, drain the swamp. Your decision one time. (10/28/2016)

FUMIGATE THE SEWER RATS/PATRI-RATS/HIPPOS: After CHUMP STOLE (among many others) my idea I rightfully attributed to Clayton Williams—Throw all the bums out, for 'drain the swamp, the title doesn't matter but the concept does, on what it represents! They call us RINOs and swamp creatures/establishment.

That negative label ASSUMES the labelers are the righteous ones! They need to be labeled! I've called them HIPPOS, because their morals and policies are hypocritical, so often. They also fancy themselves patriots, AS IF only their positions are Constitutional.

WELL before tRUMP, I thoroughly and clearly identified the problem of D.C. inaction (which he also STOLE), but he decided to go cancel culture, while we offered them a reasonable solution—many of them! There are MANY things Sewer rats have in common with Centrists, policy-wise!

BUT, they are unwilling to morally and intellectually IMPROVE/evolve, as God expects people to do, as time passes! Patri-rats believe you never deal with "democ-rats" (their term). They don't even want RINOs in the GOP (deSATANist, et al). So where do the two GOP sides agree?

Strong economy, Capitalism, freedom, abortion is evil, gay unions are NOT marriages, to us or God, controlled border, lower debt, least needed regulations, lowest taxes necessary, no endless wars, but strong national defense, oil has made America what she is, guns don't kill—gun users do, etc.

So what policies do the two sides of the GOP agree to oppose?

Abortion policies unjustly favoring the woman, grooming kids to accept LGBTQ lifestyles and values (in public school, drag queen book readings, pride parades, etc.), open borders, gun-grabbing, higher taxes and regulations, green policies harming businesses, appeasement of dictators/weak NATO and America, reparations, affirmative action quotas, and a host of other leftwing policies (NOT those of moderate Democrats).

But it is irrelevant if they have commonality if the far right insists on their way 100%!

There are public servants who CHUMP wants to fire and replace. THIS IS CANCEL CULTURE! No other profession makes its employees risk forced career change for doing their job, just in ways a select few adamantly disapprove of! That is EVIL!

Many in "the swamp" are good people, just lacking a way to advance a right-leaning agenda with equal opposition from the left! Hence, gridlock. WE have fully solved this problem, on likely every issue, so draining the swamp is killing a fly with a sledge hammer STUPID!

And politicians rightly like the perks D.C. offers, when they do the work they were elected to do, and not just sit on their a-s! It's NOT wise to have a slew of green horns replace them all, and many if not most of them simply didn't know how to find common ground to get things done! So, little got done. That problem is SOLVED! Fumigate the sewer rats!

28. HOUSTON ASTROS

(10/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

I told my son if the Astros lose, tomorrow, I'm considering driving down Monday eve, to be part of the pregame hoopla. I would hate to miss out on it if they were to miss the World Series. Also, they NEED more modern look to their logo or uniforms, like the Rockets did! @astros

NFL teams (and college) now have custom designed uniforms, some with flecked paint chip look, and others like animal patterns. Helmets have modernized, too. YOU could really revamp Astros uniforms, to modernize, to show off the successful/winning team track record, vs. Westchester High schemes!

Please modernize the Astros uniforms to update them like envelope pushing pro teams have, to not have a 1970's stripes Westchester High School color scheme. Keep consistency and innovation. LESS orange, more navy and yellow and black. NASA/astronaut theme, still.

IF I was more artistic, I would design options, but all I can do is show you some examples for you to play off of. Conduct a city-wide art contest, like the @rockets did, and did Texans for their name!

BEING multiple MLB world champions, LEAD in cutting edge uniforms and logo!

There are more sophisticated colors of orange the @Astros uniforms could use than blatant hard hat! In my opinion, navy, black, yellow and grey need to be more emphasized, while keeping a little classy orange shade as an offset, to maintain consistency. The logo may need a rocket. Keep the Texas star.

Let your knee and forearm pads be the screaming yellow or orange, or even change colors. Distracts the pitchers!

Until or unless it's banned, consider uniforms that change colors and color schemes, to adjust to the team's mood and situation during a game!

Until banned, consider batting helmets like NFL concussion-resistant in technology, and that light up for night games, or change colors, to distract pitchers. LEAD the league in style and in innovation and technology, as a statement of the team's commitment to that in playing!

Mirrored/reflective batting helmets might reflect the sun, in outdoor day games, which could distract the pitchers, if allowed. Be innovative in outfits and play style!

(10/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

If I understood the four or so pitch types, lineup order's purposes, more of the rules, and watched videos of past games, I think even I could coach better than the Astro's skipper, after months of research. NOTHING innovative is happening! NOT aggressive enough, in my opinion. SO disappointed.

29. EVANGELISM & RELIGION

(10/22/23; @JamesMeroney)

Islam or Hinduism, but you never receive Jesus, YOU ARE CERTAIN NOT TO END UP IN HEAVEN, WHEN YOU DIE! And YOU ARE GUARANTEED THAT A FIERY FOREVER IS YOUR FOREVER FUTURE!

This ISN'T about joining any religion, a church, denomination, set of creeds or rituals! It's about having ALL your sins forgiven, so on Judgment Day, God already has you in His family!

I have studied world religions, very slightly, and could tell you the teachings of theirs that comport with the Bible, but that's all about beliefs and behaviors! You stand hellbound, the day you come into this world, and God holds you accountable for that state the moment you mature enough to understand evil vs. good choices!

EVERYONE over age 8, and many age 4-5 is experientially guilty, and going to hell! Brand new babies are even born sinners, by nature. They prove it by selfish cries, often.

It is also NOT serial repenting, to stay saved. It's a 1-time forever experience every human has to accept, or hell is absolutely certain for them! I fear, from what I heard Sir Paul say, that there may be millions who think they are safe, on judgment Day, who absolutely are NOT!

The greatest tragedy of all of life would be a person who rejected the only way to heaven, because they thought they didn't need it, because some parent did something for and to them when they were babies! False security, vain hope, errant thinking. THESE are the tools of the devil!

I WANT you to see a picture in your brain, right now: A dark, black, fearful/scary place with also pockets of fires. Many people are there, but there is NO party going on. ALL are suffering in agony, inside the fires, with not one drop of water to help them. THIS is hell! Avoid it!

And among popular beliefs/philosophies, THESE are lies and intellectual ERROR: Annihilationism, Cessationism, Purgatory, Universalism and Reincarnation. ALL of them are from satan, as he WANTS YOU in hell with him, forever in flames! God does NOT! He loves, vs. hates you! Resist the devil.

30. AMERICA ONLY IS AMERICA FIRST?

(10/6/23; @JamesMeroney)

RE: Trump on North Korea—It didn't do much, if anything, and was a nice gesture, but his doctrine of America First MEANS ignore other problems in the world, if it costs U.S. dollars, unless someone attacks us on our own soil. Nice try, though.

His "America first" would let Russia take over any non-NATO countries. AKA, screw the world. It also hates U.S. intervention anywhere; just wait until they come here to take over, violently.

Commented [H1]:

Update #1

(10/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

Hey, MAGA America First crowd: HOW do you justify money spent to help Israel (which I fully support), but nowhere else, outside of America? You want all tax dollars to help Americans, yet want zero safety net to help anyone. You need to consider your skewed hodge-podge of beliefs!

Update #2

(10/17/23; @JamesMeroney)

I have in mind EVERY Middle East nation innately hating the Jews. I have in mind N Korea, Russia, China, Iran, Venezuela, Cuba, and all poor nations. GET YOUR ACT TOGETHER. GROW UP. MATURE AS A SPECIES! THROW OFF YOUR GOVERNING HUMANS FOR BETTER PEOPLE. DON'T ACCEPT STATUS QUO!

And for my own America, we do NOT have to accept a philosophy that says rich always rule, their interests are always superior to everyone else's, and you have to suffer being unable to get medical treatment because you don't own enough for expensive surgeries! Pure conservatism is selfishness!

People who ONLY want to get rich, and don't give a flying ^$#* about anyone else not their immediate family are EVIL and hellbound, Americans! LEARN THESE FACTS! God says the rich are to be generous in giving back.

Pure conservatives do not want government helping anyone, NOT because they wish they could give back without being forced to, but because they want that money all to themselves, as the "fruits of their labors."

The SAME God Who wrote that favorite phrase of theirs also said the rich are to give back, and life's purpose is not wealth, and you're not to seek it! People cherry pick what they want to see in the Bible. That's is unjust and evil.

And pure conservatism has little in common with the Bible! Liberalism, which seeks to be Robinhood, is equally wicked. CAN'T YOUR BRAINS GRASP THAT America HAS two ENEMIES: Left and right extremes?

Update #3

(10/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

I listened to talk radio, a bit, yesterday. You ALWAYS want to know what one of your two enemies (enemas) is thinking, advocating and marketing itself to the dumbed-down listener class. They had a Capital (money, NOT government) CEO pro-Jim Jordan. YOU, voters, ALWAYS have to assess:

1. Who is this? (does he hold sway or influence over many people)
2. What angle is he coming from (far right or otherwise/open-minded)
3. Whats his end game/goal?
4. What tactics is he using to push his agenda?

The Chump CULT (I'll explain that later) ALWAYS wants their people and policies advocated and enacted, AT ALL COSTS! Even if not having a Speaker took some time to fix, THEY would say government doing NOTHING is good, because government is BAD.

They sin of hypocrisy is that they WANT government to do things--THEIR things! But I digress. The schmuck was doing everything in his verbal power/arsenal to paint the 20 GOP holdouts as EVIL, and wanting evil. This is called spinning or projecting, folks!

They are using the Israeli War as some reason you MUST choose their far right guy! ANYTHING their lawyers can concoct as reasons to push their people and policies! There exists NO truth, and NO morality, in their cult world.

ONLY money and power exist, and you must do everything in your power to advocate for those two values, and anyone who ever opposes those two values is the enemy you MUST hate and "fight" (their favorite word).

They tried to say the 20 GOP's had vendettas and grudges and personal agendas, and self-promoting motives, and scores to settle against Matt Gaetz. They used Hannity, who they deem a powerful force (I deem him a heretical Catholic!) to text the 20 on why they're choosing not to let Congress get back to work.

ASK THE SAME DAMN QUESTION on their responses to Scalise and McCarthy! They ONLY care that business is delayed because THEIR man with THEIR policies is being considered for a high position. IT IS 100% SIN and SELFISHNESS, folks, as with hypocrisy sin and double standards!

They want endless investigations of Biden; NOT to make laws, as they're PAID to do! They slander (yet another SIN) the 20 GOP's, who are honorable people who rightly oppose a man who has passed ZERO bills, encouraged Jan. 6, is a tRUMP stooge and overlooked sex abuse allegations! TRUTH.

THEY DO NOT CARE ABOUT ANY FAR RIGHTER'S SINS OR LIES! Again, truth and morality are bogus concepts to them, even to Hannity the apostate Catholic! Power is all they worship, and the power for every rich American to never help anyone else but their own family, unless some whim hits them, individually!

Even a FoxNews article addressed how the War in Israel is inflationary! NOT was it necessary, or was any of it over-kill and evil? ONLY how the stock market and "my" portfolio is negatively affected. Folks, this is a CULT mentality! God doesn't exist in their world!

Truth doesn't exist, in their world. Alternative facts, don't you know. I read a post saying people who don't understand that the 2020 election was stolen should go to Nuremburg trials!

I heard Pence, Christie and Haley slandered as endorsing Biden by TELLING THE TRUTH that he's done a pretty decent job handling the Israeli War. These people are cult members. NOT that they cannot think, or are brainwashed, but their loyalty and commitment to the conservative (as THEY define it) cause is satanically blinders-on radicalism/extremism! ZERO working with any Dems or you are a RINO who, like deSATAN said, shouldn't be in the GOP.

THAT MEANS gridlock! That means my-way-or-the-highway. That means win-lose. That means win at all costs. As I said, Jesus and the Bible have NO place in far right "conservatism!" Know what you face, voters!: CULTISTS!

These IDIOTS don't even care about the brand! I had an unnamed billionaire write me, yesterday, who truly believes you always push party over morality! I respect him as a human, but his belief system is OPPOSITE to God!

Chump exhibited all anyone ever needs to see to say God is NOT on his side! I've seen several claiming "Christians" sucked into this far right cult! They DON'T know God well, and they know their Bibles much less!

If SATAN whispered "abortion" they'd jump on his bandwagon! I've even said far righters state that Socialism is evil. You and I might not like our money being forced for using to help others, but you can't say the intended purposes are all evil!

Europe is NOT evil because they give their citizens more vacay days that America does, or they make healthcare more affordable! I oppose unjust Socialism, but NOT because it's evil in its intentions, but unjust!

GOOD people, like Ken Buck, are being pushed out of public service for standing for MORALITY and TRUTH (until a viable third party arises!). The (moral) Romneys, and Kinzingers and Cheneys, and anyone whose conscience and brain still works is persona non-grata in the tRUMP GOP.

Ronald Reagan IS rolling over in his grave, folks! This far right CULT (volitionally; NOT intellectually) is an ENEMY of America, just as the more quiet far left cult is! They're just smart enough to hide their evils presently! LEARN WHO YOUR ENEMIES ARE!

In conclusion IT BEARS REPEATING for YOU to really read what this meme I rarely use says. Analyze it! Re-read it several times. Pray over its contents. Ask yourself if there are any lies within it. And then look in the mirror and ask yourself if YOU are in a political cult! Be honest.

Update #4

(10/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

I made a vision board, on paper, yesterday, and when it was done, even if everyone on earth heard the gospel, because the Church did her job, the Bible says most go to hell. I asked myself what would bring me fulfillment? The answer surprised me:

Getting three big nations' leadership to open up to treating their people better, even if never accepting democracy or Capitalism: China, Russia and N Korea (Iran seen as less possible). I'll start with prayer.

But I kept telling myself if their leaders reject the gospel, what would ever make them change, and why do they act as they do?

First, they're raised only seeing Communism in action.

Second, their lifestyle is so good for them personally, they'd likely not want that to change. So how could you get them to care more about others, and not just their inner circle, and to see the evils of crushing totalitarianism?

We know they see democracy on TV, in the news, and in their interactions with the West. Perhaps what they see isn't impressive, as they do have more orderly and docile/subjugated societies, perhaps with less crime, hate and threats to their reign (often gun-less citizens)?

In my opinion, what I just wrote is at the heart of fixing the problem of evil dictators in our world.

So I'm 'gonna put labels to the matters, and list them:

1. No viable better alternative SEEN by them
2. Love of their lifestyles
3. Fear of losing control
4. Unserved
5. All they've experienced

IT WOULD HELP if democracy put forth a more appealing message IN ITS PRACTICE, NOT theory! Current U.S. politics would only be attractive to fools and wicked warriors! THAT can be solved!

Getting more of their leaders to learn about freedom and freedoms, and to visit abroad would improve those people's perspectives on the lifestyles they provide for their subjects.

#2 and 3 could easily be ensured, without their losing being in charge and enjoying their life of luxury lifestyles.

They'd have to believe more power to the people wouldn't end their reign or lives! That wouldn't be easy, as an educated populous would resent the way they've been forced to live!

So providing infrastructure and opportunities for those masses to thrive would be a necessity! And at least presenting the gospel to those heads of state, with prayer, might take us steps toward solving #4.

It really goes to whether any within the masses would be allowed guns, the right to vote, have free speech and religion, a free press, and a fair court/justice system, where the government couldn't arbitrarily oppress.

ALL these freedoms would be a threat to the duration of the regime! Guns, voting and fair courts would be seen as endangering their power! They'd want guarantees votes would elect them.

They wouldn't want voices opposing their decisions, and influencing "the people" against them. It all goes to ego and selfishness, if not arrogance sins!

Even if outside entities and nations promised those "leaders" a great lifestyle in retirement, they like the control, and being in charge/calling all the shots. I guess/presume there is an addiction, or euphoric high of feeling like stupider humans deem you god-like(?).

Humility would come from someone educating you that you are not so important, or great! You're just another human being facing judgment. Your inner circle will certainly never tell you that, lest they get fired or killed. It's a complex issue, but we pray it gets solved someday—hopefully soon.

Beliefs about "America First" philosophy. 100% forgetting/putting aside that CHUMP stole the concept from me (Twitter search "America #1" for dates and post quantities), their beliefs seem to have some good and some bad, yet their adherents believe it is all good, and that's bad!

Here are the tenets I see with them, often:

1. No U.S. tax dollars for any war

2. Tax dollars/government help American citizens more than other countries' people
3. No illegal aliens in America
4. Anti-"globalism"
5. Lower debt (wasted on wars, and foreign aid, etc.).

Let's analyze the good and bad:

#3. 100% agree law breakers don't belong in America! That's what laws and boundaries/borders are FOR! Differentiating one nation from another; different governments, etc. But opposing ALL immigration is idiocy, if the U.S. economy needs more human workers! #5 U.S. debt HAS to be lowered!

As Mitt rightly pointed out: Our interest on debt is equal what we spend on national defense. That's atrocious! And wars DO cost money! MANY cuts are needed, but completely eliminating programs and departments is cancel culture rash/harsh, which the far right claims to oppose, yet engages!

#2. America first types say help Americans first, then advocate for the U.S. government to never help anyone with tax dollars. That's called hypocrisy! One tweet cited homelessness. That requires money to solve, and the U.S. taxpayers and government didn't force them to be homeless.

#4. You have to define 'globalism.' America is sovereign, and always will be. We aren't interested in becoming like any other nation, or lessening our standards of living to make it equal or 'fair' for anyone else!

We also should NOT be in the business of paying for other nations' failures, or ineptness with their economies! However, an isolationist policy will see our frienemies and enemy nations cozying up to other nations, to gain power, clout and support for their evil aims!

America mainly needs to provide education and opportunity for such countries, and alliances for protection CAN help America in the global competition of world conquest that some of our enemies aspire to! That brings me to #1:

We face nations who desire to take over other nations and regions, through violence!

America as the world's sole superpower was never a negative for America! It has been abused, at times, but what other force exists for good, with the ability to ward off evil? Yes, when we enter wars, they must be in OUR national best interest, and win swiftly and conclusively!

I have zero concern for the profits of the 'military industrial complex!' Only Americas safety, and that involves our allies' safety, as well as any nation who could be taken over to expand the reach and capabilities of 'axis of evil' nations willing to rejoice at America's demise, usually for Communism. And some nations want Israel not to exist! Weaker and lesser democracies is NOT in Americas best interest.

Finally, the 10th Amendment requires far right conservatism, so the only patriots are far righters myth. That amendment says what's not expressly in the document is left to the states, "and to the people." The people vote in national elections, as well as state ones!

IF it had omitted the phrase, and to the people, far righters would have a case. But they DON'T! And we don't live in a pure democracy, but representative 1, so elected officials can cure bad inclinations of mob rule (if they can keep their jobs in a cancel culture society)! HOPE you enjoy thinking better.

One more thing: IF America was 100% militarily isolationist "America First," things like Hitler's aspired-to world conquest WOULD occur, again, and those so-called patriots couldn't stop them when it came to our shores, enlarges all that time! DUMB thinking! Enemy nations ally for power!

Update #5: America ONLY IS America FIRST?

(10/24/23; @JamesMeroney)

America First has NO sacrifice or selflessness or global concerns in their being! Imagine if that corrupt movement existed during World War 1 and 2! We would have LOST! Just keep my paycheck with minimal tax deductions, so I can enjoy life until America gets taken over, having no friends/allies.

THIS IS "America First," folks! Remember what I just taught you about prophecy, and what I wrote about this philosophy's beliefs regarding world affairs, a day or so ago!

31. PROPHECY & ISRAEL

(10/24/23; @JamesMeroney)

It's about time for a prophecy lesson, since MOST of you are going to go through the 7-year Tribulation (unless you die before, or the Lord tarries).

There are signs preceding the Rapture (sudden disappearing/departure of all Christians from the earth). BUT, when it occurs, the Antichrist/Beast will be revealed, as he secretly takes down three major heads of states' power, thereby giving him authority to negotiate/broker a 7-year peace deal between Israel and her enemies.

The next 3.5 years he gains world domination through military might and land bribes. In the middle, he is temporarily assassinated with a head shot, but miraculously resurrects, as he is satan-empowered.

Toward the end of this period of three sets of seven judgments of God on the world/all mankind, all nations converge on Israel, where the Battle of Armageddon will occur, in the Valley of Megiddo.

Then Jesus defeats those vile nations, opposed to God's King (Jesus), at His physical second return to the Mount of Olives, where He will soon thereafter reign with an iron fist for 1000 years. I left out many details, but you get the gist! You watch Israel to determine when signs are pointing to its approaching!

At present, we see China and Russia racing their war machines and humanitarian aid, as a checks and balance to NATO and the U.S.'s presence, protecting Israel. HOW COULD ANYONE DOUBT PROPHECY WILL OCCUR, READING THE HEADLINES?

I failed to mention just before the mid-point, the Battle of Gog occurs, where this coming 1-world dictator competes with Russia's head of state in a race to get to Israel for her riches. We see a similar race even this day! Precursors! You NEED to learn the signs of the Rapture!

Automate as much as is needed (NOT replacing all) rather than let in stupid, evil or Socialism advocates! ONLY let in skilled workers wanting no handouts! Population rate decline in the U.S. triggers economic alarms from experts: 'Calamitous effect' <https://foxnews.com/media/population-rate-decline-us-triggers-economic-alarms-experts-calamitous-effect...>

I see 100% analogous problem with the world nations and the two extremes in the America! EXACT same solutions needed!: Centrism! China, North Korea, Russia and Iran, with many Islamic nations vs. NATO, America and Israel. Polar opposites in many ways, needing common ground! Apply our books' principles!

HERE is the ONE sign of the times, pre-Rapture, that ALL people need to know, as sin is increased in the last days: Be ready to meet your Maker! John 3:16, the Bible

Let's make a fictional story about how today's news headlines could exactly turn into Bible prophecy: We know that the 7-year peace deal won't happen unless Israel is in serious trouble from enemy attacks. We also can surmise the Beast sympathizes with Islamists, as his deal is FAKE.

It was never going to last seven years, yet @Netanyahu (or whoever is in charge, then) Israel will believe it's for real. What type attack on the Jews would prompt God to miraculously intervene, and take all saved people from the earth?

In my opinion, serious warfare. But we have Iran proxies, in collusion with Russia, and to some degree, China's turn a blind eye approval, and many upset pro-Palestinian freedom Arab or Islamic countries, presently.

Gog/Magog (Putin, for now) is allied with these aggressors, ALL claiming to want peace, or a two-state solution, but with stated aspirations of wiping Israel off the earth. I believe Russia has to be getting financial help from China, to keep funding two wars (proxies, in Israel), to deplete America's power, military strength and economy (higher debt).

In my opinion, this situation can go one of three ways: Prophecy, centrism, or Israel gets enough revenge on Hamas, while all other nations basically stay aloof from the fighting; things don't escalate, and we retreat to a new normal for Israel and the Palestinians, post-war.

Israel still in danger, Iran still backing Hamas, and the BIG powers still in a cold war.

IF you're dumb enough to want to observe prophecy take place (Christians want their Rapture, but can't want the Tribulation that's coming upon all others!), you'd be hoping for major escalation against Israel, where only God could help them, so the Antichrist arises. REAL news issues!

Oh, and I forgot to mention, the Antichrist comes from a European-related nation! Could even be from America, or any nations historically tied to the Roman Empire, including any of Britain's satellites (Australia, Canada, Ireland. Scotland, etc.). E.U. nations are also possible. Anti-Russian.

The BIG trick would be implementing Centrism on a global scale, while avoiding one-world governing pressures! Knowing prophecy, I don't see any way it would occur, anyway, given Gog opposing the Beast, until mid-Tribulation! Good aspiration; NOT 'gonna happen! That leaves two alternatives!

I believe we will return to a new normal status quo, BUT if Iran and Russia push their proxies to severely escalate attacks on Israel, or Israel over-plays her hand, and engenders such a response, all bets are off about prophecy starting, In my opinion.

Update

(10/26/23; @JamesMeroney)

WITH Elon wanting volunteers to be implanted, and with all that's going on in Israel, and Robert Card being on the loose, our world already has the technology for an ID chip in one's forehead or wrist, and AI with robotics! DON'T TELL ME BIBLE PROPHECY IS FAR-FETCHED! Precursors in the news

32. WIN-WIN METHODOLOGY

(10/24/23; @JamesMeroney)

SUCH a NEEDED topic: The mechanics of reaching win-win and justice:

1. Lay out every side's desired ends
2. Evaluate which are moral and credible

3. Identify if any are insincere or lying, or exaggerating/bluffing
4. Find solutions none fully love, that takes the good and rejects bad
5. Negotiate any wins for one side being as equally as possible balanced by an equally important and desired win for the other side, and require that for justice's sake, they be voted upon together!
6. Ignore the extremists, but do take into account any good ideas and desires of theirs!
7. Make permanent policies and problem solutions, not subject to whims of which party (of a coming three) is in charge, at any given time. And,
8. IF the extremists oppose this way of doing business, shun both evil sides, and moderate D's and R's make these policies without those bums! #CommonSense

That exact formula would work on world stage, but I don't believe the sincerity/not lying, or openness to justice is readily available on the enemy and frienemy states to the West! A moral transformation would first be needed, and America role modeling Centrism--vs. what people observe today!

33. JAN. 6: 2020 ELECTION STOLEN?

(10/25/23; @JamesMeroney)

Dems over-play Jan. 6, and Republicans minimize it (Ex.: booing a reporter who asked Mike Johnson if he regretted his actions enabling it). People who love God, love the truth, and care about America would do NEITHER of these extreme responses to Jan. 6! It was bad, but not the world's end!

THERE WERE NEVER SO MANY IRREGULARITIES IN THE 2020 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION THAT THE CONCLUSION HAD ANY CHANCE OF CREDIBLY BEING DOUBTED, and THAT IS THAT JOE BIDEN WON! As in every election, I'm SURE there was some 'cheating' (on BOTH sides?), but never in a result-changing quantity!

I understand Mike Johnson's TRYING to appease BOTH sides of the GOP, and prioritized staying strong behind Israel #1, but to address election integrity, NOT the debt or our borders? Unbelievably disappointing first day on the job! @RepMikeJohnson Christians REJECT appeasing extremes.

In EVERY national election, there are anomalies, and some errors. The results of the 2020 election are EXACTLY as the voters decided, through the electoral college. ANYONE who denies this, WHILE ACKNOWLEDGING an imperfect process, every election cycle, is a cult member and a fool.

tRUMPism HAS TO BE utterly DEFEATED IN 2024!

Israel is at war with Hamas, and what he initially brings up to @POTUS is distrust in our election system? REMEMBER: "CHRISTIAN" IS A MEANINGLESS TERM, IF USED BY PEOPLE WHO BEHAVE OPPOSITE TO THE BIBLE!

He is ALREADY showing his true colors! He is an election denier! The 2020 election was not perfect, but now I see that he was likely a Jan. 6 riot leader, who doubts Biden is the true President. I HAVE SAID, CHRISTIANS DO NOT ALWAYS FOLLOW THEIR RELIGION! VERY disappointed, so far.

Good is as good does. It's not good that House Speaker allegedly aided Jan. 6's riot, or if he ever seeks to end Medicare or Social Security, but you can't find a perfect candidate, so with a unanimity voting for him, you pray in optimism that he follows his faith and does what's right!

Update

(10/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF there was EVER a chance for REAL Christians to stand for morality/IF there was EVER a chance for the U.S. Church to tell the world, by OUR behavior, that God is FOR morality, and against sin, it will be NOT voting for Trump in 2024. I'm NOT saying vote for Biden. A protest vote takes a stand.

34. MAINE'S MASS SHOOTER

(10/25/23; @JamesMeroney)

Day 1

One of the ONLY ways you will deter mass shooters is to publicly torture, then kill any that are caught. But since some describe that as cruel and unusual punishment (unconstitutional), they ONLY risk an electric chair/lethal injection, or life in prison!

I'VE SAID, months ago, that mass shootings are the fourth judgment of God. Demons are literally taking over people, like Hamas, and the ONLY solution for such people as those is killing them ALL!

#FourthJudgment #4thJudgment

1. West Coast BLM (Black Lives Matter) riots
2. Jan. 6/division
3. Ukraine invaded

Day 2

(10/26/23; @JamesMeroney)

My idea of just punishment for a CONVICTED mass murderer would be a day of torture, ONLY meaning Tasing a few times, or a government person legally allowed to punch them in the chest several times, before hauled off to jail. NOT eye gouging, waterboarding, nail plucking. Not cruel-to me!

In my opinion, the insanity defense, IF Robert Card isn't executed in a gun fight, should NOT fly past jurors or judges, as he planned this evil! Mental illness? Yes. But he knew right from wrong, and may have planned the escape we're enduring, presently.

The military are often trained on making/roughing it on small rations and MREs. As a weapons training person, MAYBE Robert Card has a stash of MRE's, and survivalist training. He'd be a FOOL to break into any home, though MOST businesses are empty of personnel, with the late night lockdown.

So 2-3 towns are on lockdown. IF no one breaks the law, Robert Card is the ONLY human outside, except cops. He's either further away, driving in a car authorities aren't aware of, or he has a hiding place, or two, in my opinion. I DOUBT he stashed food supplies before starting his rampage!

The new normal is NOT mass shootings, but every public gathering place to have security and /or weapons detectors. WHY do I have to keep repeating this post every year?

Tanks and F-16s are big and sophisticated enough that crooks can't make them at home, especially unnoticed (except in a barn). AR's can be adapted from original weapons, and homemade kits can create hand guns. Confiscating all guns will NEVER keep all guns out of some Americans' hands!

IF Robert Card planned 2-3 venues to attack, he likely had SOME plan for how to escape the inevitable manhunt (just not the exact details). He steals another's car. Where could he hide, and not get turned in by people sheltering in place? Cave? Bunker? Abandoned house or basement?

I don't know any criminals, but have a vivid imagination. I'm surprised Robert Card has held off authorities this long! Him being mentally ill, I'd doubt he planned this part of his scheme. He seems to be very creative-thinking on his feet—or very lucky. Why can't infra-red find him?

Is that the same multi-color highlighter that had yellow strand expanding the impact of a Florida hurricane???

OBVIOUSLY, Robert Card did planning! He had a route, venue targets, ammo, and a date. IS HE MARRIED? What are his parents, close friends and neighbors saying, and if nothing, make them speak to authorities! Unless he was a loner, someone missed something, like his psychological experts.

Day 3

(10/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

Yet another reason to believe he is dead. ONLY if he was brilliant, would this note distract authorities, and he escaped, alive, to live somewhere, and not in that house!

IF Robert Card had a canoe, helicopters would have caught that, the night of. It's unsafe to pre-park a boat, if it couldn't be secured. Would have raised alarm bells to park authorities (if there are some). I'd bet on dead more than alive. He knew there's no good left in his future!

On our way to Oklahoma, I deduced the following manhunt scenarios:

1. Robert Card planned to "disappear" by pre-planned place to commit suicide, where ravens and wolves wouldn't pick up the stench (cave, abandoned well, or concrete shoes near his abandoned car.
2. Took a boat from a boat slip where his car was abandoned, pre-positioned. Problem is, people could steal it, or maybe permission is required to park boat.
3. IF he had stolen a car, or abducted someone at gunpoint, relatives, friends or employees would have reported their missing, or that of their car
4. In my opinion. #MassShooter is either dead within two miles of the boat ramp where his car was ditched, in the bottom of that waterway, or on the lam, within walking distance of his Subaru. I've heard zero reports of a stolen car or abduction. Pre-planned concrete shoes, and jump in water?

I don't know the park area near his Subaru, but I would think his body is within three miles of it, alive or dead. Vultures would be overhead, if dead, after smells occurred. It seems he really planned "WELL," as he spread terror states-wide, with multiple crime scenes and disappearing!

Most important evidence is footprints near Subaru. IF he took boat night cruise, he could be with in tank full of gas distance from the slip. It seems he planned his escape to seem to disappear, to cause wider spread fear! Town lockdowns aren't needed indefinitely! Open and be vigilant.

Anyone who knows the park near the boat slip would know a good place to kill oneself. He could have pre-planned a venue, or a place to hide out for days to weeks, with MRE's. No one would have seen him set up his escape venue, days before the attack! Likely dead-but no knowledge.

I would think police dogs should be loosed in the park near the Subaru, to track his scent! Vultures would circle, unless he wore concrete shoes and jumped off the boat ramp, in my opinion. All depends on how many days it takes them to get his corpse's scent. In my opinion, he wanted fear to last weeks.

IF there are ZERO reports of a stolen car or missing person in the area, Robert Card likely did NOT escape in a vehicle after abandoning his Subaru, UNLESS he had assistance. A getaway car partner his parents, friends or coworkers would know isn't showing up and is missing! Unlikely.

In my opinion, "disappearing" is the greatest way to spread fear and keep towns in lockdown for the longest time and furthest distance. I would GUESS Robert Card is dead, where vultures can't smell his rot, or drowned in the river near his Subaru. He disrupts life for thousands for many days!

Robert Card had about two weeks to plan his escape, from the day he lost his job to the date he did his dirty deeds. He likely knows the area near where lockdowns are and boat slip. He could have pre-planned food and safe haven, as it wouldn't have looked suspicious before his violence!

Vultures and police cadaver dogs should patrol the park near the boat slip, in my opinion. How many days until his smell attracts birds? Is he drowned in the river bottom?

Robert Card's parents would know if he owned or bought a boat! It needn't have been costly! Check his house to see if he made concrete shoes out of heavy weights or clothes or other materials, to drown in the river near his Subaru. Check IT for reside of the same!

@lewistonmainepd

Grilled friends and family and coworkers on lie detectors? Accomplices?

IF there are caves, or abandoned wells, within five miles of his Subaru, he could have shot himself there.

@lewistonmainepd

Any boat Robert Card could've used could only go a tank full distance, UNLESS he refueled, without being identified—in my opinion. DO YOU SEE ANY SHOE PRINTS FROM HIS SUBARU TO A STREET OR THE WATER OR BOAT RAMP? @lewistonmainepd

IF Robert Card is alive, I would bet and all but guarantee you the insanity defense would FAIL! He planned this ordeal in the last two weeks, or before, for him to avoid authorities this long. Remember, Brian Laundrie was thought to 'be anywhere', but he had suicided much earlier!

Day 4

(10/28/23; @JamesMeroney)

NO WONDER no vultures of wild animals surrounding! Less smell released with metal surrounds. Maine mass shooting suspect's family 'very cooperative' in manhunt that discovered his body: police <https://foxnews.com/us/maine-mass-shooting-suspects-family-very-cooperative-manhunt-discovered-body-police...>

Day 5

(10/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

Look: As far as I know, NO criminal lives in my neighborhood. But if I saw bombs in my city, aimed at Hamas, and they MIGHT be in my 'hood, I'd run to the country where few buildings exist, any way it took to get there! Gaza civilians: NO excuse not doing this for awhile! SURVIVAL!

Some so-called "pastor" [ANYONE CAN LABEL THEMSELVES THAT, LEGALLY!] said pray for CHUMP because he listens to God and does what He says. That tare imposter is a blaspheming liar, and I'm certain there's some payoff for him throwing all credibility out the window! WHAT WAS THE PAYOFF?

I don't 'wanna hear anyone saying Israel needs to lighten up, because of civilians killed! MOVE YOUR BODY WELL AWAY FROM ANY HAMAS MEMBER (excepting those held by force) and go anywhere but near them! YOU CAN EXPECT TO BE KILLED LIVING IN BOMBS DISTANCE OF ANY OF THEM! YOUR fault!!!

JUST LIKE Vivek speaks of Hamas leaders' heads impaled on posts (Barbaric), tRUMP speaks of Jesus as America's Savior, not making sense or understanding what his words means! They both are appealing to the crowd whose votes they want, so they throw out words, hoping they might stick!

tRUMP said Jesus is the Savior of America, and 'God calls us and we show up, take one step at a time not knowing what we're doing. When you hear him say "God," you know he has no idea, personally, who he is speaking about, from experience. It's like me talking about a stranger in France.

IF Robert Card was or wasn't insulted at his two venues, lost a girlfriend or was cheated on, and lost his job, NOTHING, even combined together, justifies killing anyone! At best, off yourself! WHY any American FEELS mass murder is how you deal with negative circumstances is beyond me.

Robert Card's sister-in-law says with new-to-him hearing aids, he has heard others speaking ill of him—including at the bowling alley and restaurant. People insult people on Twitter, ALL THE TIME! We have to grow up more emotionally mature Americans, than you hurt my feewings so I'm 'gonna kill.

WHO KNEW Robert Card had an assault weapon, and was in acute mental collapse? MAKE A LIST! Any legal culpability for them if they didn't report this, or nothing actionable done with such reports??? @LewistonMainePD

Ron deSATANist says institutionalize many red flag mental patients (i.e., long-term confinement in government buildings). WE involuntarily committed my suicidal mom, for HER protection. That option was ALWAYS legally open to Robert Card's family! They may have alerted police—but WHY wasn't he?

Robert Card's sister-in-law KNEW his mental health had gone downhill! His family told the police! THEY failed us, if that claim is confirmed! Red flag on their radar! #Failure!

Robert Card had ZERO plans to escape death, and hide away! His note to family on finance codes shows he didn't expect to return. He was on a maniacal and suicide rage with an assault weapon. WHY did he choose those two venues? I'd like to know! His psychiatry team FAILED us, in my opinion!

To think like a criminal, mass shooters would target:

1. Crowds
2. Easily accessible structures or open spaces
3. Times when crowds happen
4. Few to no armed police or guards nearby. Soft targets! ALL such places need hardening! I've said this for YEARS!

I'm watching Charles Manson documentary. He just said, "I'm very mad, and I don't know if I can control myself." Anger management skills and emotions processing NEED to be taught in elementary schools! Learn coping skills! Society's safety depends on it, and teaching morals being valued!

The First 48 has people KILL people, ALL THE TIME! It occurs over drugs, being short changed, debts, two-timing and adultery, fake sexual identity, robbery, for money, hatred of their religion or race. These are all motives. It's the de-valuing of life, and split second decisions we have to change!

Life circumstances turn negative. Maybe a serial pattern of bad events/breaks. WHAT makes a human decide I'll go kill 18 innocents, as their reaction? As @speakerjohnson said, it's the evil in a person's heart! Even Job had horrible circumstances. BUT he was a righteous man. HEART!

So do you think he killed 18 people out of anger for being fired, girlfriend loss or two-timing, something else, or a combination of it all? We may never know the full answer!

The issue is finding who has possessions of assault rifles, legal or not, and which within that bunch has a current mental issue, or recent past criminal past. Knowing who just uses them for hunting or shooting practice or self-defense would help, UNLESS any of them "switch sides."

AWESOME, sleuth!

<https://twitter.com/katwrappah/status/1718698163014443493>

Even with weapons detectors, if a mass shooter had an assault rifle, and RAN through the detector, alarms would sound, but their speed could get to many people, if the entry is anywhere near where crowds are gathered, or working. Detection BEFORE entering a building or crowd is needed!

I'm guessing mass shooters target places where more than 50 people are, likely an enclosed or at least closely situated people, where there aren't armed guards or cops patrolling their entry ways. Usually weeknights or weekends, unless at a business. Entry ways need gun detectors!

IF a human intends a mass shooting, and can get their hands on an assault rifle, LITTLE the public can do to prevent them, if they're crafty and secretive! The plans occur in their heads/minds. They MIGHT scope out their target venues, but that wouldn't necessarily look suspicious!

Can guns be made assault rifles or semi-automatic, at home? I think I've read that they CAN. Can these be homemade, without adaptations of manufactured guns? I think I've read that they CAN. You'd SEE someone carrying those in public, but ONLY for a few seconds, before able to be used!

It's RARELY a knife, a rock, or even a bomb that causes mass murders. Not even pistols or rifles. It's mainly assault rifles, AK's or machine gun-like weapons! The liberals are correct in this observation! They are crafted to kill many, quickly! Weapons of choice for mass shooters.

NO human can know whats in another's mind. IF they honestly speak whats on it, or behavior indicates it, others can discern it. It's the quick-triggered person who goes on shooting sprees that are hardest to stop. Planners leave clues, to people close to their decisions, in my opinion.

[Private account:] They use standard box trailers to haul with. The location is a remote parking area behind, down and across the road, not right adjacent, but actually closer via the woods and a public walking trail to his abandoned car at the boat ramp.

HOW can the general public be SAFE from mass shooters, absent technology that identifies assault weapons from a distance (NEEDED)?

1. Harder in open carry states

2. Report ANYONE carrying one outside their home. Cops can decide if they're legal!
3. Be on the alert at every public place
4. Cops knowing who owns assault rifles gets the database MUCH smaller, for possible red flag suspects-though mainly innocents. Privacy issues!

And criminals can steal them, and never be on such lists! Serial number tracking helps cops trace down weapons. If GPS trackers were imbedded in them, it could help, BUT homemade adaptations can be made, without authorities ever knowing!

That's why confiscation could never work! And it is NOT just the mentally ill who become mass shooters. I suspect some just get quickly angry, and circumstances drive them, with no prior history of mental illness.

And psychological treatment teams are legally disallowed to disclose confidences (doctor-client privilege), with one possible exception (expressed danger to others?), and HIPPA laws exist! I'm more concerned about non mental patients who do mass shootings! NO signs!

Robert Card bought an assault weapon days before a mental collapse. WHO could have prevented his not being legally allowed to own it in that condition? Did the psychiatrists ask about weapons in his possession? I DOUBT IT! Not an emotions-based topic of conversation in their purview!

Mass murderer most possibly culpable preventers:

1. Spouse
2. Children
3. Close family and friends
4. Online community they interact with
5. Coworkers
6. Neighbors Lone wolves are the greatest risk, in my opinion! NO one sees their signs/red flags.

It is up to people closest to the mentally ill and angry people who own assault weapons to keep the rest of innocent society safe from unneeded premature death by mass shooters! There might need to be laws requiring reporting questionable persons of interest! Red flags! Robert Card

I'm GLAD that mass murderers NEVER seem capable of making plans of escape that succeed! My imagination is 10 times more creative than theirs, for which I'm extremely grateful, or wed have a lot more dangers facing we innocent civilians! I won't list all the scenarios I can envision.

I haven't the interest in researching, but wonder how many days it would take for vultures to have found Robert Card by his decomposing smell, and if police cadaver dogs could be distracted by the corpse being inside a metal 18 wheeler trailer? Not interested enough to find answers!

Save me researching: Was the 18 wheeler right behind the recycling plant he was fired from? There can't be that many in the area! And was it an 18 wheeler owned by that company? I 100% agree with you, if yes to both these questions!!! I haven't read enough, so PLEASE inform me.

Going to church, my wife and I agreed, and couldn't conclude: Did Robert Card enter the 18 wheeler to prolong fear in Maine (by not being easily findable), or too self-absorbed/proud to let animals munch on his corpse? After two venues, I lean to the former conclusion. Could be both!

Choosing to NOT vote for tRUMP is a more moral decision than voting for him, BY FAR! The GOP will go 100% his direction, for years or decades, if reasonable and moral GOP's don't decide to take a stand and put their collective feet down! Third party will dominate them, thereafter, easily!

35. NOAH'S ARK?

(10/28/23; @JamesMeroney)

@RonFilipkowski: So, the Speaker of the House of Representatives thinks the Earth is 6,000 years old and all the plants and animals on the planet only exist because of Noah's Ark. That's where we are at.

Earth created in fully mature form, instantly, would look millions or billions of years old, had they "evolved" naturally, from a mysteriously absent (in YOUR worldview) original cause! And animals have evolved since then, to include more variety, as with plants. READ MORE BIBLE!

Every plant and tree type existent at the flood was not needed nor commanded of Noah. Two of every animal species was. Given their food need and space, plant seeds, and possibly some plants for food would have accompanied that divine family boat ride. God can make greenery survive His flood!

We see, CONSTANTLY, in wild fires, trees re-spring up after forests are devastated. SAME with a flood, as in Noah's case. And I don't believe the animals birthed babies in the ark. There were miraculous provisions of safety and adapting to the circumstances, in my opinion!

There was also, likely, a miraculous sustaining like water for a camel, where the ark animals' hunger lessened, for survival mode. They did NOT eat each other, but whatever plants and seeds were brought met their need, with repressed sex and hunger and thirst, by God, for 371 days, in my opinion.

I do NOT believe Noah was commanded to or had to bring every plant style into the ark, but every animal/living creature. Only plants suitable for eating. Briar bushes, cactus, trees, thorned greenery, etc., served no edible purposes. Seeds alone wouldn't have fed, the first months!

It is as miraculous entire earth was covered with water for 371 days as it is for vegetation to come back to life thereafter. When God brings judgment, He also brings redemption. Both are equally miraculous. Evolution posits earth originating for no reason or cause's origination!

To argue Noah had to bring actual sequoia and redwood trees onto the ark would be ridiculous, in my opinion! If their seeds were needed, that's another matter. Greenery resurrects after weather calamities. Just watch Maui in a decade! Or lakes with trees beneath when a drought occurs! Living!

Gen. 7:23 Every living thing on the face of the earth was wiped out; people and animals and the creatures that move along the ground and the birds were wiped from the earth. Only Noah was left, and those with him in the ark. NO mention of plants. God's concern was saving his family and the animals!

I have never heard any media criticize a House Speaker for believing the earth's existence, order and beauty came from an explosion or evolving primordial soup made of materials that just eternally were, weren't ever started/never began, or which come to an end/die! @SpeakerJohnson

I have never heard anyone in media criticize a House Speaker for not comprehending that a fully mature earth instantly spoken into existence would resemble a millions or billions of year evolved structure, if nature alone caused its evolving maturity!

I have never heard anyone in media criticize a House Speaker for believing people are just mature apes (though may act like it), and some never matured to peoplehood, or how humans got all the things monkeys will never have, like IQ, intuition, creativity, language.

I've never heard anyone in media criticize a House Speaker for their personal religious beliefs, AS IF they will set the House agenda, or speak of the accused or perceived negatives of any religion any have held in that position, as atheists, or any other religion!

I THOUGHT the first Amendment allowed freedom of religion, which includes the freedom to have no religion. I didn't know having one caused your job to be viewed as under suspicion!

Is being an Evolutionist now a litmus test for holding the House Speaker position?

I thought obeying the First Amendment was being law-abiding, Constitutional and patriotic!

Is Joe Biden's holding the Oval Office under derision because devout and real Roman Catholics accept the Noah flood story?

There is ZERO problem with anyone taking 'every living thing' to involve plants. We also don't know what trees and plants existed pre- vs. Post-flood. I take it as animals, as the flood destroyed all people and animals NOT on Noah's ark. One family can't carry Sequoias and redwoods, uprooted.

IF one takes 'every living thing' to include non-food source plants or trees, Sequoias and redwoods in infancy COULD have been moved onto Noah's ark, especially with assistance from large animals.

Dinosaurs, were, evidently, wiped out by the foods, but as they are animals, one baby each sex would have made the ark. The flood wouldn't have wiped out their offspring, any more than any other type of animals. Other explanations exist. See Creation Research Institute and experts!

If/since God provided manna, when needed, we don't know how the residents on Noah's ark were fed. Could have been plants, suppressed hunger, or manna or its equivalent (hibernation?). Excrement taken off ark also isn't detailed. Do animal poop and pee in hibernation? More study needed

Gen. 6:7-8 God's plan was to destroy humanity and animals, save Noah's bunch!: So the Lord said, "I will wipe from the face of the earth the human race I have created—and with them the animals, the birds and the creatures that move along the ground—for I regret that I have made them." v. 7

Gen. 7:23 Every living thing on the face of the earth was wiped out; people and animals and the creatures that move along the ground and the birds were wiped from the earth. Only Noah was left, and those with him in the ark. (NO mention of plants, trees, foliage, greenery).

Gen. 8:1 But God remembered Noah and all the wild animals and the livestock that were with him in the ark, and he sent a wind over the earth, and the waters receded. (NO mention of plants, trees, foliage, greenery in the boat, as commanded to save their earth growth, afterwards!)

I believe the end of dinosaurs would be provably caused by examining their bones, and death circumstances. Species can die out, like endangered species (Ex.: Hunters on tigers, nearly extinct). That would have occurred after the flood, or the Bibles silent on it occurring before. (10/29/23)

36. BIBLICAL POLITICS IS PERSONAL PREFERENCE?

(10/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

A motivational speaker, in church today, argued that politics is like liking Dr. Pepper, Coke or Pepsi, where we all gather in church with different likes. That's partly true about parties, but NOT politicians and policies! For Christians, that's it's not up to our likes, but God's word.

Unfortunately, he NEVER extolled the type of politician Christians are to vote for, or policies the Bible supports. Just emotional Kumbaya unity to every man does what is right in his own eyes/likes! I HOPE @Libin_A does a more biblical addressing of God and the Bible, or I will not stay!

Who a Christians to vote for has NOTHING to do with likes, preferences or traditions, nor policies we're to support, if morals vs. sins are involved! Christians who vote to empower/support all these sins are apostate! Did that offend NE1? Jesus offended, for truth and morals!

IF Christians vote for tRUMP, prophecy's The Apostasy is being evidenced, and PROOF morals of politicians matter NOTHING to God's people! I've said vote ALL GOP's but him, so even a loss would teach him and save the party. James Dobson's words have meaning—not do what you want!

Dr. James Dobson's Presidential Standard (1998)
What has alarmed me throughout this episode has been the willingness of my fellow citizens to rationalize the President's behavior even after they suspected, and later knew, that he was lying. Because the economy is strong... it's nobody's business what he does with his personal life. That disregard for morality is profoundly disturbing to me. But the majority of the American people replied, "I support the President." Let me ask, in what other context such behavior would have been acceptable? Yes, the rules have changed for the President. Obviously, they are motivated... by raw political power. How did our beloved nation find itself in this sorry mess? There were other indications that [the President] was untruthful and immoral. Why, then, did the American people ignore so many red flags? Because, and I want to give the greatest emphasis to this point, the mainstream media became enamored with [the President]...and sought to convince the American people that "character doesn't matter." --Dr. James Dobson

There is NOT ONE unbiblical tenet in this old meme. MAGA Christians who disregard what's in it choose sin over righteousness, fearing Biden would be worse. I am NOT advocating for Joe, but a protest non-vote, to NOT EMBRACE and EMPOWER SIN!
Tell your guest what I said, PLEASE.

WHY I WAS #NEVERTRUMP

1. Win at all costs is a lesson NO good parent teaches their kids.
2. Neither is being a bad sport (which summarizes ALL of Trump's whiney campaign).
3. The end justifies the means is not a lesson any moral person adheres to.
4. You NEVER reward bad behavior as a lesson even Kindergartners know.
5. You have what you tolerate, and you must be willing to tolerate Champ antics in future politicians.
6. The GOP is NO LONGER the party of thinking more than feelings, with UN-thinking Trump!
7. The GOP is NO LONGER the party of voters' votes! Hillary Clinton ran a MUCH more moral campaign, despite her several faults.
8. The GOP is no longer the religious right party, as even non-religious voters see the hypocrisy and power idolatry of Christians voting for Trump! It also gives Jesus a bad name.
9. If you put all the sins and gaffes of the past five GOP nominees together (including their time in office), it DOESN'T compare to Trump's campaign—much less four years in office!
10. Trump ONLY divided the GOP and the nation further. He is NO uniter, at all!
11. The GOP's chances at expanding their tent to minorities is harmed for a LONG time with Trump!
12. What Trump did and said for 7/8ths of his campaign was the real deal! Faking presidential and knowledgeable is OTHER people controlling him, to be acceptable.
13. Trump's behavior in the primary IS his credentials for why he became the GOP nominee against sixteen BETTER-qualified people. He CAN'T live down all he FREELY chose to do and say. No one put a gun to his head and said act like a fool and a buffoon. HE ALONE caused his OWN presidential backlash!
14. If policy alone matters (i.e., not personal temperament), Kasich, Cruz, Rubio and Bush had policy down pat when Trump had FEW ideas (i.e., up until his last three months of the campaign)!
15. If policy is all that matters, you could have voted for a trained chimp, robot or even Hitler, because he was wise enough to HIDE his pills until he got in power.
16. Voting for ALL down-ballot Republicans was the ONLY wise Republican choice, as Donald's campaign HURTS the GOP's reputation with minorities (and others) for quite a while.
17. I expect president Trump to change into what more people always wanted, but if you believe a political charlatan and charlatan with the core he's demonstrated, you will believe anything, and you did drink the Kool-Aid!

IF the American Church is unwilling to stand for morality and against sin, HOW can we hypocritically pray for revival? One of the four requirements/prerequisites is that 'God's people' turn from their wicked ways! Being FOR all these sins is apostasy! Debate me in public, anytime!

Lesser of two evils doesn't mean you support THIS (See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at AmericanAnswers.org's Campaign updates p. 40).

YOU CAN'T debate this FACT: Satan himself, or Hitler, could mouth good policies! IF we're only electing a mouthpiece, hire an eloquent AI robot! GOD does NOT say that's what we are to do. Maybe preach a sermon on Exodus 18:21!

Anytime, anywhere, I'd HAPPILY debate you if you or your guest speaker thinks ANY Christian should overlook all of this, because of any good policies! Rom. 6:1 and 3:8 are applicable, and VERY CLEAR! WHEN will ANY U.S. PASTOR tell their members, 22000 LIES IN OFFICE IS EVIL? SAY IT!

Any U.S. pastor who teaches their congregants that all politicians are equal, which means tRUMP is like all other U.S. Presidents since Reagan, is a LIAR! His sins total much more than all living Presidents. HOW can the Church stand for morals and vote for sin? The flesh CAN!

If I watch online, or go in person, or both, the minute I hear any insinuation that CHUMP is as equally moral a choice as not voting for him, but all other GOP's, and I will likely cough, and exit, waiting on my wife to come to the car! I PRAY you stay biblical. Be a prophet!

I've MUCH more to say, but I'm not saying anything more! you can't open people's eyes to the obvious. ONLY God can break down strongholds of Christians and carnals! If this meme moves no claimer of Christ, they're Bible ignorant or tares! I didn't invent these allegations; public knowledge!

AMERICAN NON-CHRISTIANS: If any Christian speaks to you about heaven, morals, or politics, and they tell you they're voting for tRUMP in 2024, vs. abstaining, except for all other GOP's, you have EVERY moral basis to rebuke them, and NOT listen to one more word they try to offer! Discredited.

AGAIN, MAGA Christians would vote for Hitler or satan, as Hitler hid his evils. CHUMP openly flaunted them! Even satan is shrewd enough to come as an angel of light. TRUMP made his sinfulness a marketed asset! The 2024 U.S. Church is either apostate, or they care about God's values!

Quite honestly, if I don't hear any clarification about politicians and policies NOT being amoral issues, like Pepsi, Coke or Dr. Pepper, I'm only watching online, for the series remainder. My wife can go it alone! I'll have her drop me at my 16-year home church, or stay home!

I'm NOT telling you what t preach on! Just some helpful advice! PREACH THE WORD; not feewings!

Lk. 12:51 VS. Tit. 3:10 You would do well to preach on power idolatry! ANYTIME ANY so-called Christian values a political win (power) over standing for God's morals, they have committed idolatry!

Dems vote for government to steal taxpayers' money for handouts. GOP's vote to keep their earned wages for their family and free choices. That is the core of the division in America, and that type of division (over sin vs. righteousness) is NOT what Christ came for!

In any local church, you will have Dems, GOP's And Independents—even non-political types.

But we CAN collectively unify/agree on morals-based policies, and politicians who fit God's standard for leaders, and stand against evil. IF WE CAN'T, why do we gather? That's a fake facade!

NO pastor should tell their members who to vote for. But to NOT speak out against these sins is the OPPOSITE of what John the Baptist and even Jesus did! They rebuked sinful politicians, and never encouraged people following them or their ways! You should preach on this!

WHAT does the outside/non-Christian world think of Jesus, when pastors refuse to state that these things are evil, and power idolatry is a SIN? Exactly the stereotype of hypocrites we already face! We're making our own beds to lie in! Repentance is needed! II Chron. 7:14

What do you do with the two imperfect choices? Support the biblical policies, and the more moral candidate, party as irrelevant. Trumps sins total more than all living Presidents', combined! UN-debatable! ARE CHRISTIANS FOR SIN IN AMERICA? And I am NOT saying Biden is the answer!

The answer is biblical policies, standing VS. sin and flauntingly sinful "leaders," and supporting all politicians (even lost ones) who live as good people! Party is irrelevant! The future and reputation of Reagan party is on the line in 2024. A non-vote is holy! Protestant protest!

JUSTICE and righteousness are undebatably God's standard for politics. The two parties don't seek justice, except for their causes. Jesus is NOT a GOP or a Dem! Try teaching that in the next four Sundays! And He wasn't white! Preach the word and tell the truth. Be a prophet! Be bold!

It is a 'convenient truth' that Christians want to be known as being moral, when they can vote in private for sinful politicians! GOD SEES ALL. You might consider preaching a sermon on that fact about His omniscience, and all our deeds facing bema judgment!

II Cor. 5:10

WHY would ANY U.S. pastor NOT preach on Rom. 3:8 and 6:1 during the 2024 election season? HAS GOD'S WORD CHANGED? Preach justice, righteousness, Ex. 18:21, Levit. 19:15 and Mic. 6:8. Jesus offended. He NEVER sinned! Be a prophet! Be bold! I pray for you the next Sundays! Speak TRUTH.

John the Baptist told a politician: IT IS NOT RIGHT that you (deed named). Jesus rebuked evil in Pharisee power brokers. Paul did not submit to evil edicts of politicians, and appealed an unfair decision. AMERICAN PASTORS NEED TO STAND UP FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS IN POLITICS! WHO else?

Dems have some morally good policies. GOP's have several. Independents probably do. Principles matter; not parties! Personalities come and go. Christians are to support principles, and not idolize one issue, when MANY exist! That's idolatry and cherry picking the Bible! Ac. 20:27

Ear ticklers and entertainers tell Christian in church what they want to hear. Loving prophets who value God over all tell the truth! NOT intending to offend, but edifying the body can step on some toes. IT does that; not you! PREACH THE WORD! Don't add to or take from it!

NO political candidate has been advocated for in my message to you, tonight! I let believers follow God. But if they aren't educated on his word, sin is inevitable! YOUR job is to teach them His Bible! They have free will to ignore it (flesh) or obey it! Out of your hands

And I'll be listening to ensure you don't violate the Johnson Amendment! I would NEVER make a scene, but I can make a dash to the rest room, if you get off track, and never look back, quietly and with dignity. I trust you will do well! You have in the past! I pray for you.

Jesus had an INTERESTING take on secular political involvement: Jn. 18:36; Mt. 17:26 hat is NOT teaching not to vote or get involved. It's a priorities matter. Morals and EDDBS spiritual priorities are to be MUCH more prominent in believers' lives! Often aren't! Carnality problem!

God's people, the Jews, had a safety net! The first two churches and many others (II Cor. 8-9) also did. YES, it was voluntary, but they were NOT opposed to the poor getting needed help. Try preaching THAT at a predominantly GOP church, and I Tim. 6:17-19! BE A PROPHET!

Bible teaches both self-sufficiency and helping others. Gal. 6:2, 5. It also opposes laziness, and people wanting help when they're not willing to work! II Th. 3:10-13 Try preaching THAT at any predominantly Democrat church in America! We don't love or 'wanna hear the truth that much!

Mt. 14:20 teaches waste as not God's will. PREACH ON THAT, regarding government waste! Gen. 3:19 taught working, and I Tim. 6:17 teaches enjoying the fruits of one's labors! Cf.: Col. 3:23-24. Yet I Cor. 7:31 also exists, as a boundary. Teach THAT to far righters, @Libin_A! Preach the word!

Robinhood theft by government is a sophisticated theft sin, too cowardly to beg, or moral to steal at gun point! PREACH THAT at a Democrat-leaning church, @Libin_A, and ANY pastor who would change their message to the audience is a convictionless panderer (sinning)! Be a prophet!

Please preach on hypocrisy sin, lying, greed and idolatry: The four major sins of D.C.! I have zero idea why every U.S. pastor wouldn't use tonight's message as a blueprint for some sermons before Nov 2024! Cowardice sin is the only reason, or idolizing tithes-fearful people may leave.

Hatred of the other side is a sermon you should denounce! Demonizing them, only finding their faults, lying and slandering. Deludedly believing your party is perfect. That all started to this extent with whats below! (See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at AmericanAnswers.org's Campaign updates p. 40). It wasn't like this from Reagan until Obama! History lesson.

Greed is NOT good, or selfishness, dependence and laziness. Be a prophet! Good policy with a bad man, or bad policy with a good man? Solomonian decision?

WWJD? That would make for an interesting sermon! And teaching that protesting is in the Protestant tradition, like a non-vote. Let GOP lose, so they avoid THIS reputation forever! It would be earned!

Homosexuality is a sin. Abortion is evil. A good man has concern for his beast. Help the poor and you lend to the Lord. ALL OF THESE ARE BIBLE VERSES! I dare you to preach the word the next four Sundays!

THESE acts and words are NOT descriptive of a leader, or role model. I DARE YOU TO PREACH THAT TRUTH! I know that you won't! Be a prophet! If speaking the truth in love is a sin, the Bible is fiction! Speak truth to power, John the Baptist/Elijah! Be bold. Cowardice is a sin

Freely polluting the world God made is NOT being a good steward, especially for profits. PREACH THAT IN THE NEXT FOUR SUNDAYS! Also, God is NOT against money-making and businesses. Shrewd managers are extolled. Teach balance. Preach the word!
Be a prophet! Be for JUSTICE!

Oppressing poor's a sin! Pv. 14:31 Teaching or believing that money is the purpose of life is a sin! Lk. 12:15; Pv. 23:4-5 People can be poor from laziness sin. Pv. 10:4 PREACH THESE PRINCIPLES on politics! Phil. 2:3-8 applies to Christians, too! As with Rom. 13 and paying taxes.

Self-defense is biblical! Mt. 12:29 So is the death penalty! Rom. 13:4 The rich are in a LOW position! Jas. 1:10. The poor are rich in faith. Jas. 2:5. MANY BIBLE PRINCIPLES LEAD TO BIBLICAL PUBLIC POLICY! Preach morals based on the Bible; NOT parties! Good luck! Ecc. 9:11

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord! God blesses those who bless Israel. TRY THOSE TWO BIBLE VERSES ON FOR SIZE, IN THE NEXT FOUR SUNDAYS! Violence is evil, like last week's mass murderer, and Hamas' attack. PREACH THAT! Be a prophet—not a cowardly lion/pansy! II Tim. 1:7

37. IF YOU COULD CHANGE THE WORLD

(11/2/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF you could change the world:

1. Every human would hear the gospel
2. Every Christian would tell the gospel
3. Every Christian would be disciplined up to daily maturity THAT would change the world, forever! II Chron. 7:14
4. No one would hunger or be poor
5. No one would die of avoidable premature death
6. Diseases would be eradicated
7. Weather events wouldn't harm people or do much damage
8. Wars would be ended
9. Crimes would be minimal
10. Pollution wouldn't be severe
11. There would be NO terrorists
12. There would be NO dictators
13. No one would want to choose abortion
14. There would be NO racial discrimination

THESE are the top 14 priorities to put before all who say they want their lives to make an impact!

38. SIN, SIN, EVERYWHERE

(11/3/23; @JamesMeroney)

I have a premise I plan to prove, and that is our world is FULL of sin, as is American politics. Some mock at the notion of sin. That's ONLY because they don't know what it is, and find the word "religious," so they reject its reality!

Sin is ANYthing violating God's standards—word, deed, thought, intention, desire or choice. Russia invading Ukraine. Killing their neighboring countrymen, unprovoked. Hamas doing the same in Israel. Mass shooters like Robert Card. Yes, EVIL exists! SIN! Sin is doing evil. We see sin ALL THE TIME.

Carjacking, First 48 homicides, armed robberies, rape, incest, cussing, hating, fighting/assaults, battery, adultery, divorce (two exceptions), promiscuity, fornication (sex before marriage), abortions, homosexuality, uncontrolled anger (not righteous indignation), hypocrisy, lying, Drunkenness, illegal breaking and entering America, no concern about pollution, greed, love of money, idolatry (as of secular power), envy, jealousy, deceiving, manipulating dumb people, spouse and child abuse, animal abuse, swinging, sexual "players," unjust wars, discrimination, theft, violence, slavery, human trafficking, non-concern for the poor, laziness, arrogance, boasting, tax cheats, favoritism/bias, partiality, anxiety/worry, rudeness, brashness, and a host of other things.

God calls SIN. It doesn't even matter if you don't believe in Him! It's sin/evil, everywhere!

39. POLITICS & RELIGION SERMON SERIES

(11/12/23; @JamesMeroney)

EXCELLENT sermon by Bent tree's @Libin_A! 97% of it was 100% biblical.

@btbible https://youtube.com/watch?v=sh_JifWSNqg...

The ONLY clarifications/disclaimers that should be added (we'll post it when it posts) are the following three Bible-based distinctions

1. Poor. It is excellent, & commanded to privately help the poor, & even Israel had a safety net, but unsustainable & disincentivizing handouts/freebies, except temporarily, at the most, are unbiblical! Helping the poor learn to maximize their God-given abilities, & live within their means is biblical politics!
2. Immigrants. All humans are made in God's image, & to be treated with respect, but HOW they got to USA matters! The Bible does NOT approve of illegality/law-breaking, or there being no punishment for such behaviors!
3. Women. Exalting women to leadership is excellent, even in church, but not if ever violating "I do not allow a woman to teach or exercise authority over an [adult] man." (based on Creation & man's Fall; NOT cultures) I Tim. 2:12

Update

(11/13/23; @JamesMeroney)

BIG but important chapter, stemming from yesterday's sermon. I OFTEN teach start with the end in mind and work backwards. Let's assess today's global situation in light of history yet to occur: Prophecy. Armageddon happens at the END of a 7-year hell on earth. God's judgment thereon!

JUST before that event of all nations gathering in Israel to fight God, directly (where they are all basically destroyed), things are good, globally! Peace, peace is the mantra, where Rev. 17-18 describe an economically flourishing economy, and people are controlled by Antichrist.

There are still poor and rich, so as controlling as the Beast will be, it will not be full-blown Communism! And people's hopes seven dreams are personally wrapped up in the success of this system, where government controls all bank accounts, and who can do business and buy things. Rev. 13

That control is seized in the midpoint of that 7-year Tribulation period by a man who spends the first 3.5 years gaining global control by bribes of land and military conquest.

He is killed, but resurrected, and has miraculous powers. Rev. 13

How he arrives on the scene is stealthily, uprooting three kings, then promising Israel a 7-year peace deal he breaks midstream. Dan. 9:27

He is identified, or "appears" just after the Rapture of all Christians. There are MANY signs we are seeing precursors to this period, with wars, divisions, and II Tim. 3 traits, etc. BUT, we live in the here and now!

We NEVER know the day or hour when prophecy will transpire. So we have choices for how our here and now looks. Imagine if this vision was implemented, world-wide, until that timeframe: We'll start with America, and work outward. America first, but not only, for Americans!

During THIS sermon, a vocal/emotional/louder small group in the church clapped and said loud amens, quite obviously Democrats. That was disruptive and divisive, as they were likely clinging to the social gospel aspects of it! <https://benttree.org/media/sermons/>

BUT JUSTICE was implied in the benttree.org umpire/referee illustration! Christian politics requires liberty and justice for all! Any and all government help MUST be repaid to taxpayers, when people get back on their economic feet!

Taxpayers can't be made/forced to bear all the burdens of our society, financially! Taxes HAVE to be FAIR to all, and none not having any skin in the game, even as government does as much as is possible with as little as possible.

So IF America got its act together, where justice prevailed, and Americans' needs were met, first and foremost, HOW would we want the world to look, if Christian politics prevailed?

America would NOT fund everything, but justice would require all to buy and pay in. And NOT by Antichrist force, but voluntarily America would lead the world in making all people "flourish" (as @Libin_A spoke of) by helping them all meet a minimum standard of survival!

The America First crowd will argue the 10th Amendment makes states decide all issues the feds deal with that aren't blatantly stated in the Constitution, and they will argue they're the only patriots who love America, because they want NO federal actions besides military, border control, and a few other expressly explicit issues in that great document. YET, they will also argue they're for God and country! BULLHONKEY!

God's vision for America and His world are NOT such isolationism! Instead, it would be to have every human survive, with at least food, clothes and some shelter. I Tim. 6:18

Governments would have some safety net, as Israel did, and the rich would generously give back to society, I Tim. 6:17-19 Far right conservatives want NONE of these things, but Laodicean worldliness, love of money, and valuing of hoarding and selfishness sins as virtuous!

Political liberals want the opposite: An idealized world where there's NO pollution, NO poor, NO wars, NO borders, NO rich (if their excess can be taxed to do better things with for society and the world), and ALL unfairly at the taxpayers' expense, as freebies/ handouts! That's EVIL too.

I have many times proposed just/fair policies for America! Neither extreme will like them, because they are FAIR! NO handouts. NO unfair taxes. NO excess spending. Balanced budget. Volunteerism, and even minimal civic service required.

U.S. economy and military #1 in the world, as with our morals. Debt downed to a reasonable level. Taxes as low as humanly possible, and government streamlined to be as efficient yet effective as humanly possible. Many other matters previously discussed. Mercy is on a voluntary/ private level, but let justice prevail! That is common sense!

I've written on how dictators should, ultimately, be entirely defeated, and how to deal with them in the interim. 60 Minutes spoke of Iran hiring people in America to kill their critics. EVIL must be eradicated, to a significant extent, the world over! Goodness and justice have to prevail.

The masses, the people made in God's image have to be more valued than the elites, and the evil tyrants who want everything for themselves, and give crumbs the rest!

@Libin_A spoke of how Christianity has already impacted our world. These visions I've proposed take those Judeo-Christian and even COMMON SENSE and just/balanced values to a global scale, as one way our future COULD look.

However, as we return to prophecy, we know wars and rumors of wars WILL occur, nation rise against nation, and many nations will be fighting against Israel, so Dan. 9:27 has to occur to solve it.

And the Antichrist of that time will NOT be proposing a vision for all to voluntarily accept/ buy into! he will use force, military and bribes. I am NOT advocating for 1-world government (that occurs mid-Tribulation), but a morally better world, before the Rapture occurs. Pray it happens!

Every American Christian ought to listen to this sermon about applying our faith to politics!

<https://bentree.org/media/sermons/> (11/23/23)

40. POLITICS & RELIGION

(11/3/23; @JamesMeroney)

There are 31,102 Bible verses. IF one lives to age 70, and attended church every Sunday since birth, every sermon (3,360 sermons) would need 9.26 verses, per sermon, for them to hear the Bible one time. DOES ANYONE SEE THE PROBLEM IN AMERICAN CHURCHIANITY? Walking with Jesus is DAILY.

EVERY claiming "Christian" who would vote for tRUMP in 2024 NEEDS to repent of their moral backsliding carnality! Judgment comes to people who don't, sometimes in undetected ways! I Pet. 4:17 (11/5/23)

Update #1

(11/14/23; @JamesMeroney)

SERIOUS question: Is there ANY pastor who doesn't see how vitriolic even Congress has become, since CHUMP entered our political landscape? It was NOT like this since Reagan to Obama. If you think it was this bad, you didn't live it, or you're deceived by satan!

NOT legalistically, but objectively, if ANYTHING is a higher value to you, you are an idolater (a sin). You cannot be Christ's disciple if ANYTHING is a higher priority than Him, but you are carnal, if saved! Supporting these sins is apostasy! Don't like the message? Talk to God!

U.S. Christians will be held accountable by God for allowing Jesus' Name to be dragged through the mud, aligning with all these sins for power idolatry sin! We DON'T biblically fear God!

Update #2

(11/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

Dr. David Jeremiah just RIGHTLY said, if Christians aren't Raptured, but go through God's Tribulation judgment, the cross did not take care of all God's wrath against our sins! YET, STUPID sheep Christian carnals listen to and believe Alex Jones saying there is no Rapture. BE DISCERNING!

41. ECONOMY

(11/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

I realize, as I awaken, there's a context to this message from when I slept. We excessively, intensely worked, this week, and achieved the week's goal last eve. I gave my son the remainder off, but workaholic planned to get ahead, working today and tomorrow.

I am SO sick of extremism in America! I'm from Houston—the oil capital of the world! I did consulting on an Exxon project. I'm ALL for big oil. BUT I am NOT for EVIL!

Exon-Mobil made their historic greatest profits recently, and the Democrats wanted a price gauging bill passed. GOP's shut it down. I AM NOT TOLERATING ANY MORE EXTREMISM! IT HAS TO BE POLITICALLY VANQUISHED!

That craving of perfection and 100% greed I experienced, last eve, to reach every possible customer, well beyond a great goal, is EXACTLY how EVIL (vs. good) executives decide to give a financial middle finger to the people/public, for profits, "because they can."

I'd say boycott Exxon, for a quarter (and I am FOR big oil!). I HATE injustice.

I HATE that politicians get bribed to go against common sense and justice, to let companies screw the masses, even as Biden's inflation has even our haircut company now charging $3 more, every time.

I HATE EVIL, and I WILL FIGHT IT TOOTH and NAIL until MY LAST DYING BREATH! So, the topic is actually economics!

SINCE I despise and loath extremes, what are the two extremes of economic theory/policy, and where should the centrists stand?

EVERY DAMN election cycle the GOP's say give tax breaks to the rich and lower taxes!

EVERY DAMN election cycle the Democrats spend much more money, and propose things that cost more money, and try to argue government should "help" the little guy (meaning handouts, or wage increases, more health benefits, or free college, school loan repayments, house down payments, daycare, and the like.

It is always government (tax dollars) bless the rich, or the poor. Tax the rich more (Biden's billionaire tax proposed) or increase the lower and middle class taxes (Trump's plan through ~2025).

Taxes aren't fair, the sacrifice isn't equal, spending's out of control, the far right wants the U.S. bankrupted by under-funding our expenses, as Dems want it bankrupted over breaking our credit limits, and piling on more (even as CHUMP added $7 TRILLION, contrary to the far right cult's claims of small government aspirations).

Economically, we ALL want the BEST U.S. economy, and lower inflation, and growth.

Let me BORE you with economic policy 101, to educate upon how centrist economic theory avoids the back and forth ping pong politics and policies of tax and spend on the poor, or/V.S. cut taxes and bless the rich! You first have to define a good economy!

IF your definition is 401Ks and IRAs are growing, your definition is conservative, and ONLY cares about the upper 50%! If your definition is the poor and working class have better lives, from government policies, your definition of a good economy is liberal.

It is ALL about taxes, regulations, government spending, and WHICH of the two sides of our ONE America government will favor for four years! Period! GOD SAYS we are NOT to favor EITHER side! Levit. 19:15

I DON'T GIVE ONE RAT'S TAIL if YOU believe in His existence! IF you're an American, you believe, or at least give feigned lip service adherence to our Constitutions "and justice for ALL" phrase! Justice is NOT favoring the elites or the down and outs!

Favoritism is ALL the two big political parties do, and get BRIBED to support! The poor, struggling rich just can't seem to get a break, and need government to help them, or the poor, struggling poor just can't seem to improve their job skills, work intensity, or number of hours worked (and smart buying and budgeting skills), to get a break, so they need Uncle Sam to "help" them from cradle to grave/womb to tomb.

BALDERDASH with BOTH of these economic theories, Keynesian and Monetarist! To hell with BOTH of them! They ONLY cause boom then bust! They ONLY cause rejoicing for four years by the rich, then some other four years of rejoicing by America's poor.

INSTABILITY! NO WONDER no adversary nation politicians like doing business with America on any consistent basis! WE ARE INCONSISTENT!

And because I've written on this, many times, and I don't like being bored, just know Centrist economic policy avoids all negatives of all theories, INTENTIONALLY, and in a balanced and just way, as with EVERY issue!

WHAT would make the BEST U.S. economy, and is centrist economic policy?

1. Streamline and prioritize government spending (a plan to lower debt)
2. FAIR for ALL taxes, as low as possible
3. Greatest innovation engine in the world!
4. ONLY immigrants our economy NEEDS
5. World-class education

Update #1

(11/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

WHAT ELSE makes for a booming economy? Increased economic allies, and things that don't drain the bank, like wars. IT MAKES SENSE to work to keep the peace, though crazed dictators don't care one iota about morals. Only power, as they don't believe they're accountable to God, and going to hell.

Booming economies also come from ZERO unneeded, overbearing or irrational regulations. Also from low interest rates (so businesses can borrow capital, cheaply). SO many Centrist economic solutions! NO excuse for not having a just economy in 2024! Sin and political bias opposes this.

I guarantee you after 3-6 months of professional auditing by consultants, the federal budget can be pared down to a reasonable level, and put on a path to debt reduction and eventual balanced budget, without drastic measures like ending five federal agencies the far right craves! Easy.

And energy policy can be rationalized to maximize U.S. self-sufficiency, without endangering our environment, or beautiful places. We have the technology and know-how. Just needs to be incentivized, or required, for win-win to business and environmental concerns. Balance of the two sides!

Growing 401Ks are ONLY half of one measure of a great economy. Those without investments have to also be doing well! Empowerment of the poor to be capable of living within their means, and earning enough to do so is equally important, as if the rich get richer! Balance #CommonSense Win-win

Update #2: Inflation (I)

(11/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

INFLATION. The pandemic caused severe productivity shutdown, so supply chain crawled. Once it lifted, it takes awhile to ramp back up. Then we have infrastructure spending, two wars, and our debt exploding, so business have to raise prices, as the dollar's value is decreasing.

In such cases, theft rises, so we all pay even more, to make up for them (forced Socialism, of a sort). So many have taken to striking, to try to get their wages to keep up. Cost of living adjustments for fixed incomes further strain government programs like Social Security. It's a BAD deal!

Consumers adjust, or do without, during inflation. Necessities get the dollar, and items not necessary (and charities) suffer loss, as dollars can only be squeezed so far. Illegals further strain the economy, with more workers and not more jobs (supply and demand). Inflation is ICKY! Duh.

Update #3: Inflation (II)

(11/26/23; @JamesMeroney)

We ALL know inflation is horrible in America, the past three years! It's easy to identify the causes, but the cures are time, higher bank loan rates, less government spending, higher taxes, or a consumer psychological bounce from a new administration (or new party)!

<https://investopedia.com/ask/answers/111314/what-methods-can-government-use-control-inflation.asp#:~:text=Monetary%20policy%20primarily%20involves%20changing,way%20to%20help%20reduce%20inflation...>

Update #4

(11/26/23; @JamesMeroney)

We all observed how inflation hit: Pandemic, low production (workers shut-in), lower consumer purchases (offset by online purchases), supply chain bottlenecks, Inflation Reduction Act (government spending, including Covid relief funds wasted and vaccine costs), two wars and CEOs not wanting Biden.

Update #5: A Great Economy

(12/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let's talk about having the best economy. What does that mean? Economists speak of GDP (gross domestic product, or overall national goods and services produced). We must add to our definition, sales and profits. Some speak of 401Ks increasing in value.

Businesses doing well, vs. more bankruptcies. Many would say low interest rates, so borrowing is easier, to buy homes, or capital expenditures, business expansion and equipment, etc., while lenders would say they profit less over low interest rates.

Many view a good economy when THEY are doing well, financially–NOT everyone in America. That's NOT a national definition. Still others teach a rising tide floats all boats. In other words, if the rich do well, everyone else will do better. That's NOT true if the rich only benefit themselves with their increases!

As to taxes, business will always argue low taxes makes best economy, as they have more to use for business growth, rather than sending it to government. Ideally, zero taxes. On the other hand, poor people who get things from government would say their personal economy does better when government spends money on programs for them.

If we taxed to reduce our debt, every citizen would owe over $200K, so that isn't the answer. Some say just cover interest on our debt, then keep increasing the debt ceiling. But debt is a boat anchor on the economy!

Still others argue if taxes on the rich are lowered, they'll hire and spend more investing in business growth/expansion. Possibly true, but those actions aren't guaranteed for them to take. They can just as soon make sure they get larger salaries and bonuses, and engage deeds to manipulate stock prices, to only or mainly benefit them.

So as to taxes, they have to be fair, incentivize business growth (so more tax revenue over increased profits), and it's always better to keep status quo than stress people out, as to budgeting, by increasing their tax bill. A few companies doing very well only helps their shareholders and employees.

And monopolies help the few businesses, including adding to overall national sales stats, but, again, only helps that business' vested partners. And surely, freebies benefit the poor, financially. BUT THEY ARE NOT JUST.

Neither is showing tax favoritism to the rich, who need government's help the least. An economy with the least NEEDED regulations frees business up to profit the most, as well as taxes low enough by got not wasting tax dollars on matters that detract from economic growth.

And taxes are NOT just for helping businesses thrive! So what taxes are spent on invariably involves expenses not designed to help businesses, but other entities in our nation.

Laws allowing global sales, not glutting the U.S. market with immigrant labor, making sure every citizen has a fair/equal opportunity to maximize their skills, and innovation are all government acts that affect a great, growing economy.

If ALL U.S. businesses did well, that doesn't mean every citizen would do better, as there are unemployed, homeless, and employees businesses won't pay more as they profit more.

Some theorize if government reduces the rich's taxes a lot, they'll invest more, and the economic growth that investment spurs more than makes up for the amount given to them as a tax break. This is a speculative hypothesis that can be true and false, depending on what they do with the rebate!

Low taxes, in themselves, can be VERY irresponsible, IF they don't gain for the overall economy MORE Treasury increase amount than the amount lost to government by the lowered taxes! Government spending cuts are a WONDERFUL way to improve our economy! Less boat anchor on growth! #JustDoIt!

And ANYTIME government lowers taxes, MORE borrowing, at interest, has to take place, to make up that gap, as the U.S. government can't even pay all its current bills, which is why our debt is $33 trillion, and climbing! Or they print fake bills, backed by nothing; so all dollars are worth less.

You cannot forever ignore paying off your credit card, and just paying minimal (or in government's case, interest on the debt). You can't grow an economy great enough to reduce U.S. debt to zero, purely by stimulating a growing economy! Our debt is too great for that trick!

And government spending, funny money, borrowed funds and dollar devaluation by such measures INCREASES inflation, as business increase prices, to keep the profits equal or greater in value (vs amount) as what they were used to, before! Finally, business owners can jack up prices to punish Dem Presidents!

IF the consumers will still buy their products, they increase prices, or make the economy bad and inflation continue, because they can (charge more), so Dem presidents get lower approval ratings for their handling of the economy! Consumers decide if they'll pay the higher prices!

Update #6

(12/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

Wife showed me three videos from inside the Vegas sphere. EVERY good business idea needs to be expanded everywhere it can be profitable! That's how some cities can get on the map, with a lure/attraction. Calatrava Bridges and huge Ferris Wheels have also been used. Expand our economy!

IF America is to have the BEST economy in the world, we ONLY need the best workers, best-educated, automation rather than outsourced jobs to China, first to market innovation, and other nations to sell to, who can't reverse engineer our intellectual property! Growth comes from sales!

With the internet, U.S. companies can sell the world over! We need to use technology and human personnel to make products in America as cheaply as in China, or find another nation to manufacture in, with cheap labor! Diversify such supplier nations, vs. build up a competitor, like China.

U.S.'s economy can be the greatest if there are zero people sucking on uncle Sam's teet (except 100% disabled), maximizing their skills, and skilled for future-needed job functions. We don't need stupid or lazy people, especially in who we let in! And make them learn English, to flourish here!

Another EXCELLENT way for the U.S. economy to grow, is a tried and true method of U.S. businesses owning or partnering with nativist companies (shell ownership), in countries where consumers might not buy if it was blatantly American. It helps local native successful business's! Win-win!

Sustainable competitive advantage is how America gets the greatest economy in the world. Has to be innovation, but also financing, employee skills and education, productivity/motivation, automation, supplier deals, access to markets and ease of worldwide distribution. America #1! (12/1/23)

42. CHINA

(11/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

If Xi doesn't 'wanna be labeled a dictator, he shouldn't do dictatorial things, and then try to act Western, as his private orders are carried out by others! Just 'sayin, if the shoe fits, wear it! @JoeBiden @POTUS

Like Obama said, you have to deal with the cards dealt to you. I DO believe Xi is the least unreasonable of all dictators, and America can work with him easier than most tyrants! BUT, "trust, but verify!" – Ronald Reagan DEEDS show if people lie, or not! And polygraphs. @POTUS @JoeBiden

Update

(11/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

Dictator APPLIES, as a term, if a politician only considers his or his insider team's opinions–NOT the people–or forcefully oppresses people, unjustly, or with severe/unjust punishment, especially with NO law-breaking. Or, if they use fear to control the masses! @Potus @JoeBiden

Xi says China, U.S. 'should and must' achieve peaceful co-existence

43. CULTURES

(11/17/23; @JamesMeroney)

NATIONAL REPENTANCE. I went to bed, last night, being told by all my immediate family members that I am not real affectionate or emotional (after my kids watched the Golden Bachelor). My wife said I never have been, but she accepts that as not much my nature, and my dad wasn't, a lot. BUT, as I laid down, I prayed over it.

Allow others to honestly and accurately critique and even criticize you! You DONT stand up in a Congressional hearing and invite a fight, because someone spoke ill of you! Assess how your behavior stacks up to moral standards, and CHANGE!

America has little room to have their criticism of other nations accepted when we often suffer our own glaring warts, like greed, selfishness, arrogant U.S. Exceptionalism attitude, hatred, violence, love of money, and considering learning anything from any other nations' culture as inferiors to the American lifestyle!

That's NOT showing a mutual openness to change! and our adversary nations, who don't believe in God, see zero reason to accept our criticisms of their dictatorships, when were just fellow humans ourselves. They have no concern that nations will be judged by God!

They don't believe He exists! So take an honest look in the mirror, and accept outside counsel, as even Karen Carpenter looked in the mirror, when a 70-pound anorexic, and saw no problem!

The heart can be deceitfully wicked! I realized, two days ago, how greedy, hoarding, controlling and perfectionistic I can be, when that's NOT a good trait; nor is my workaholism, and I'll try to work on those.

THIS is what individuals and nations have to learn to do! Just as I'm learning new eating habits, to be healthier (whether more weight loss occurs, or not), old dogs must learn new tricks! Kaizen—always learn.

At a tribute concert, las eve, we saw some friends, whose husband says his wife's culture disallows divorce, and if any man beats his wife, she will have friends kill him. EVERY culture has flaws and beauty! That's NOT how you settle spousal abuse, and forcing people to stay married isn't smart, nor ignoring God's two or so exceptions.

You stay married because you want to and you vowed to, and you do the work to make it work. But why would the Philippines (IF that report was accurate) listen to an American's criticism of their cultural traditions? ONLY if such people speak God's thoughts and values!

Dictators likely believe their strict control of the masses results in a more peaceful society than American culture, where murders make many TV shows, and mass shootings make the headlines nearly every month! So WHY would they listen to us about letting the people decide who rules over them?

IT IS ALL about our choices matching up w/the Bible, or not doing so! It's 100% irrelevant what's been historic tradition, habit, upbringing, national practice, preferred behavior, opinion, feeling, desires, or anything else, because we ALL are going to be held to account before God—Communists and democracies!

I can tell you MANY sins of many nations' traditions and cultural morays, that they NEED to repent of!

Ex: Treating women as inferior, killing gays for being homosexuals, forcing women to cover head to toe (are the men that sexually lacking self-control?), not letting women and kids get an education, allowing systemic segregation in economic castes, making wives walk 10 feet behind males, accepting rapists denials, vs fair trials, few to no human rights, and abuses everywhere, crime stats (America), homelessness and poverty (America), invading other countries (Russia), prisoner camps for innocents (China, North Korea), seeking world domination, provocative ship and jet moves (China), hacking and stealing intellectual property (China), cutting up a reporter (Saudi Arabia) because your ego is too frail and immature to endure criticism, hiring people in America to kill critics of your EVIL regime (NOT peoples–Iran), blowing up an underground oil pipeline, holding Israelis hostage, using human shields, shooting Palestinians fleeing for safety, over-expanding your territory with apartment developments (Israel), funding terrorists, chopping peoples' heads and limbs off, torturing souls, unnecessarily shooting civilians, stepping or peeing on people killed in war, taking photos bragging that you control captured terrorists like a dog (America), burning people alive (ISIS and/or al Qaeda), safe harbor cities for illegals (blue states), having ZERO concern for pollution (far right big oil advocates in America), unsupervised children running the streets (Cambodia, when I was there in 1996), gangs and drugs and crime (America), poisoning your political rivals (Russia), the elites having pampered lives as the masses barely make it (North Korea), oppressing workers, trying to use space for military dominance to attack any other nation, a FOOLISH money-making scheme to milk the rich by delusions of man living on Mars (the minute your space suit rips, you're dead! Elon), as rich people LOVE to isolate from any association with people they deem less human (worthy of conversations with), political bribery and corruption (America and elsewhere), etc.

I am NOT speaking of amoral actions which differ, like what you wear, eat, or entertain with! I'm speaking of sins every nation MUST learn to quit engaging! Bible gives little to no hope or light shedding on this happening, as we approach prophecy, but ONLY because we never know its exact timeframe, there's always a possibility people can reform, before it hits. LOOK at the man in the mirror!

44. GAVIN 'NEW'-SOME(E): MAINLY SAME 'OLD' LIBERALISM!

(11/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

Someone tweeted Newsom has to deal with backlash from the far left. HE IS the far left! Mr. Reparations and Mr. Homelessness (unless Xi enters the state). People can be so foolish. He's also Mr. high taxes! Ever seen the stats of people and businesses fleeing his state? Texans sure have!

Government's JOB, among other things, is as referee, to ensure a level playing field, so the free market results in as much justice as possible! It should NEVER favor the rich or the poor, or even the middle class! Parties care about wins. Good people care about America's success.

High taxes Massive regulations Anti-business Pro homelessness Pro reparations Environmental whacko laws Traffic jams House prices through the roof Rural counties want secession THAT'S GOOD FOR America??? Balderdash!!! FOOLS know better!

I forgot to mention mandated electric cars in California by the 2030's. THIS is where the Democrat party wants to take America, with Newsom as their standard bearer (as with things I listed in my last post)? If that's not far left, what is? I'm sure he's for any abortions, and trans!

45. 'PASTORS' FOR TRUMP

(11/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

CHUMP gets no name never heard of so-called pastors who obviously melt in the limelight, vs. stand for morality and God/the Bible! This idiot prays God help us stand against evil. IF he meant it, he would call out tRUMP! #Heretic secular power idolater! Not a big fish in Christendom.

Update

(11/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF you're a Christian, and you think God wants you to vote for CHUMP, test that theory by telling a lost person you're going to in 2024, and then immediately try to evangelize them! God will use THEM to teach you, in many cases! Some of them are wiser than believers! Not surprising with apostasy

ANY American Christian and /or Christian pastor: EXPLAIN with clear, rational detail, how voting for what's below matches with Exodus 18:21! DO A SERMON ON THAT MATCH, if you're sure you are NOT a power idolater, rather than voting ALL GOP's but him! Live your truth/walk the walk!

U.S. Pastors: I DARE YOU to recite THIS quote from Dr. James Dobson, and then say you believe Christians should vote for tRUMP, rather than all GOP's BUT him!

Dr. James Dobson's Presidential Standard (1998)

What has alarmed me throughout this episode has been the willingness of my fellow citizens to rationalize the President's behavior even after they suspected, and later knew, that he was lying. Because the economy is strong... it's nobody's business what he does with his personal life. That disregard for morality is profoundly disturbing to me. But the majority of the American people replied, "I support the President." Let me ask, in what other context such behavior would have been acceptable? Yes, the rules have changed for the President. Obviously, they are motivated... by raw political power. How did our beloved nation find itself in this sorry mess? There were other indications that [the President] was untruthful and immoral. Why, then, did the American people ignore so many red flags? Because, and I want to give the greatest emphasis to this point, the mainstream media became enamored with [the President]...and sought to convince the American people that "character doesn't matter." --Dr. James Dobson

THE reason almost every GOP refuses to speak truth to and call out CHUMP, rather than cowering to him and claiming to support him is they FEAR his pull on his cult voters, and NO ONE wants to be the one who draws a line! Easier to go with the EVIL flow. Goliath has no clothes, deceived ones.

I will HAPPILY address my calling two "pastors" praying at tRUMP's rally. "Heretics!" One called him "godly." God WARNS about calling evil good! And they both were praying for God to bless him. That means prosper. I would NEVER wish anything than what he NEEDS! Public rebuke!

ANYONE who claims Jesus' Name, and doesn't rebuke him in public IS a heretic, NOT like John the Baptist, and is a coward, who doesn't love CHUMP, because for all the 22k lies, laws broken, Jan. 6, and all below, NO ONE has ever backed down the bully! I'm SHOCKED God hasn't yet taken him! Ac. 12:23

HE ALONE caused the division, hate and stressful current political environment that has engulfed our great nation! CAN YOU READ, because if you can, take the time to READ whats below. This SEVERELY HARMED the cause of Christ, as he claims Jesus. He NEEDS salvation and repenting, badly.

JUST LIKE DFW has a problem with fast drivers, as it lacks police enforcement, NO ONE EVER stand up to CHUMP, and his wicked, arrogant ways! That is EMPOWERING them to continue! In fact, he said he would not change, because it wasn't an act, but it was him.

I actually believe he's the closest candidate on earth to being the Antichrist, so maybe my shock at his not having yet been physically judged by God will yet occur. Rev. 13. Again, ANY CHRISTIAN who does not publicly rebuke him severely is a heretical idolater, valuing power over morality! I WON'T recant!

And any and all GOOD policies CHUMP might have stumbled onto from other people can STILL be had by voting for ALL GOP's but him! I GUARANTEE you I would NEVER have prayed to ask God to bless Hitler, if I were a German Christian! It is WHAT you pray for that matters, and what he NEEDS!

And IF a Christian prayed for Hamas' leaders, Iran Ayatollahs, Putin or Kim Jung Un, they'd NOT pray for God to bless OR prosper them, but for justice and His will to be done to them! They CERTAINLY would NOT call them "godly," in public. HERESY, just as I RIGHTLY called THEM heretics.

And, on a MUCH lower priority matter, the DAMAGE and HARM done to party of Lincoln and Reagan, spurred by CHUMP, and magnified by MAGA cult and far right talk radio should NEVER be praised or prayed to succeed, IF you know God. I'm not even addressing Biden, here, but URGENT and important needs.

And the SIN-empowering EXCUSES for the bully, of 'everyone sins, that's old news, he without sin cast the first stone, and Christians forgive' do NOT and NEVER will work with ME, for they are an ABUSE of truth and Scripture, further empowering NON-repentance and supporting evil/sin. REPENT!

IT IS THE SIN of cowardice, complicity with sin, idolatry, fear and timidity that keeps so many GOP's and even claiming Christians supporting all these sins, below. PLEASE TAKE FIVE MINUTES TO READ EVERY WOR, and remember what he brought America! Christians are supposed to stand for morality!

APPLY this old quote in regards to CHUMP, American Christians [James Dobson's 1988 standard]! GOOD policies of the right can STILL be implemented by Speaker Johnson and voting ALL GOP's but tRUMP.

A super majority of other GOP's winning can negate any bad policies of Biden term two. Trumpism will last indefinitely, if not.

THE APOSTASY happens before the rapture! Falling away of believers. People will have a form of godliness, but deny its power (God). Carnality; backslidenness; Bible ignorance and illiteracy. NON-commitment. Lip service devotion of Laodicea. THAT IS WHAT EMPOWERS AND PRAISES ALL THIS: See: The Case Against Donald Trump, at AmericanAnswers.org's Campaign updates p. 40.

46. tRUMPian POLITICS

(11/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

"Godly" is trending. A SO-CALLED "pastor" prayed at a tRUMP rally, last week, and called him Godly. I KNOW non-religious people understand what's below is the opposite. I'm NOT as sure claiming Christian carnals understand one's characters as important as their policies!?! The Apostasy.

Some political advisor has gotten into CHUMPs. ear and told him: To allay all the rightful flack about what's below, hand out food, when you can, and serve it. It will lighten your "image," and deceive FOOLS!

Russia, Iran and North Korea must be LOVING the fervent division in America that CHUMP instituted! Why have to attack us on the ground or in the air? Make us turn on ourselves, as a house divided can't stand, and weakens us to be easier target of our enemies! Strategically #Brilliant use of tRUMP!

I am fervently praying, today, that a civil war doesn't break out, either if CHUMP got elected and did what he says he'll do, or another wins (Biden or a third party, or both, in mutual cooperation) and Trumpsters take up their guns, believing the Big Lie a second time! #PrayForAmerica @POTUS @joe Biden: I wouldn't be too concerned about the 2% gap! We're two weeks from ONE YEAR out, and once court appearances lessen, and he's given enough rope to hang himself, his ego usually does! Interpreting CULT code, he's calling for everyone but MAGA in U.S. government! That will rile opposition!

Update

(11/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

General John Kelly, Trump's former chief of staff, rips his former boss: "What's going on in the country that a single person thinks this guy would still be a good president when he's said the things he's said and done the things he's done? It's beyond my comprehension he has the support he has."

It's called the satanic spirit of delusion of Bible prophecy, sir, and NO PASTORS are calling it out! There are NO prophets, apparently, even though some fools label themselves such! Can't walk the walk, don't claim the title!

I UNDERSTAND @speakerjohnson and @GovAbbott have pressure to endorse CHUMP, and never take any stand against him, to support party worship, not lose a job by his supporters rebelling, and him verbally demonizing you for living your faith, so doing, BUT IT'S THE SINS OF IDOLATRY, COWARDICE and FEAR.

AWESOME meme I got from a Democrat Twitter account. We get TRUTH from almost of not absolutely ANY source!

I Cor. 15:33 and "A man is known by the company he keeps." Giuliani, My Pillow cracked nut, Release the Kraken lawyer, Gaetz, MTG, BOOBert, and others in the orange clown's clown show. "Elect a clown, expect a circus." Don't cry to me, Argentina version two!

CHUMP has graduated from throwing paper towels, to handing out pizzas and turkey meals, to try to lighten his image, from the deeds he vowed were him and he WOULDN'T change, below. I guess throwing rolls at hurricane victims wasn't as smart as serving footballers Big Macs, or KFC with a fork.

47. HELPING BIDEN

(11/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF CHUMP has enemy lists for revenge, and given THIS post (below), you have every reason to run an ad that interprets cult code, in wanting to end many federal agencies, and replace many wonderful public servants and judges with Trump cult members! @joebiden @POTUS GET MORE EDGY!!!

UNDERSTAND cult code! Communist includes Socialists, which means any Americans who aren't far right. Fascists is CHUMP, but he makes a straw man argument has after such types. Political class is the Swamp of any pol, RINO, donor or government worker/public servant other than Chumpsters! (11/21/23)

@POTUS @JoeBiden You NEED a polished Super Bowl ad of the main issues in THIS meme! People get busy, time elapses, and people forget how evil he is, and how stressful and embarrassing his four years were! NO rights reserved for its use!

Mocking a disabled, celebs can grab a woman by the P, most illegals are rapists and criminals. THOSE WOULD BE A GREAT STARTER for a Super Bowl ad! @POTUS @JoeBiden

I would run an ad with THIS quote, then recite his 22K lies in office, Jan. 6, and my meme just sent to you! #SuperBowl ad @POTUS @JoeBiden

Dr. James Dobson's Presidential Standard (1998)

What has alarmed me throughout this episode has been the willingness of my fellow citizens to rationalize the President's behavior even after they suspected, and later knew, that he was lying. Because the economy is strong... it's nobody's business what he does with his personal life. That disregard for morality is profoundly disturbing to me. But the majority of the American people replied, "I support the President." Let me ask, in what other context such behavior would have been acceptable? Yes, the rules have changed for the President. Obviously, they are motivated... by raw political power. How did our beloved nation find itself in this sorry mess? There were other indications that [the President] was untruthful and immoral. Why, then, did the American people ignore so many red flags? Because, and I want to give the greatest emphasis to this point, the mainstream media became enamored with [the President] ...and sought to convince the American people that "character doesn't matter." --Dr. James Dobson

I would air/run an ad with Billy Graham's quote about fearing the far right warping Christianity, at the Super Bowl! @POTUS @joebiden

I would run a Super Bowl ad, or series of national ads, asking: "What does God want in a politician?" Then show Ex. 18:21, and voice over II Tim. 2:19 and I Th. 5:22. Maybe even Rom. 3:8, @POTUS @joebiden

SHOW this, recite 'Putin is my green room buddy,' and Rocket Man, then him befriending Kim Jong Un that name insulted, his saluting North Korean military, 45% tariff on China, and HIS VOICE on Mexico will pay for a 50' wall. @POTUS @JoeBiden "He lies so much, what WON'T he lie about?" DOTARD!

WHY am I advising Biden, when I am opposed to Christians voting for many of his policies? DJT is worse, and voting all other GOP's would keep Joe in check—straight jacketed! Plus, I believe a third party is coming that will shock the uninitiated! NOT concerned, but to defeat Goliath!

48. THEOLOGICAL VS. POLITICAL CONSERVATISM

(11/26/23; @JamesMeroney)

CHRIST VS. CULTURE. THIS is America's BIGgest problem—We ARE Laodicea and economic Babylon! Deceived all is well, when many things are wrong.

WORLDLINESS is the very definition of being rich, and/or into sex, and arrogant about it. His rudeness is based in arrogance, likely due to his car, given you not expecting him to be driving one, by all appearances. Rudeness, arrogance, self-centeredness, with 5-6 cars WAITING on him.

Worldliness says I'm blessed, because I'm rich, and votes for government to do NOTHING to ever help any poor citizens or countries! Conservatism is the moralization of worldliness and selfishness! That is EVIL, and any Christian who embraces it is carnal and/or apostate!

U.S. laymen Christians have OFTEN followed culture, and NOT Jesus, on Laodicean worldliness! Where the Bible says life is not all about money, they live like it is. Where the Bible says don't chase money, they chase money!

Where the Bible says NO soldier in active duty entangles himself in the affairs of everyday life, they are entangled like Charlotte's web! Every little detail absorbed with gossip, assets, entertainment, whats hip, etc.

Worldliness. and where the Bible says those who have are not to take full advantage of the world, they take full advantage of this world. Where the Bible says God's given us all things to enjoy, they think that means God gives us everything you could possibly have, and life's purpose is the pursuit of happiness, because of their political beliefs—NOT their Bibles, or God!

Lordship Salvationists teach sin is serving self, vs God, #1. Though I believe lost people don't all serve self #1 (some are even selfless), I do see a major part of carnality is self is on the throne! Pampering self for an ever better lifestyle, then vote to NEVER be forced to help anyone else.

The evil mixture of political conservatism with spiritual conservatism is the most heinous abuse of God's word I have ever seen! IF I were lost, I would want NOTHING to do with a God who condoned these lifestyles described, but they hate the god of this world many Christians are following!

IF the Bibles true, and Mt. 6:33 means anything, a claiming Christian who is NOT primarily concerned with God's kingdom and morals is CARNAL, apostate, backslidden, rebellions, disobedient, and subject to judgment and few to no eternal rewards!

WHAT DOES IT MEAN to seek God's kingdom and righteousness? His will. His ways. His values/morals. His activities.

There's a war much greater than Ukraine and Israel MOST laymen are NOT soldiering for, or engaged in! As they chase things, the majority fall off an eternal cliff. We pacify ourselves believing if we "tithe" and attend church, we've done our duty. BALDERDASH!

God is concerned with evangelism, discipling, body life and social ministry, which includes politics done His way. I would venture MOST laymen in America haven't those concerns, here in Laodicea! REPENT! II Chron. 7:14 Judgment's coming.

IT HAS BEEN SAID, that which you are most into you speak about, and your money, time and deeds prove. It has also been said great minds discuss ideas; average minds discuss events; small minds discuss people.

The American Church NEEDS to analyze what these idioms are saying! Finally, Ecc. 1-3 SHOWS you the futility of pampering yourself with luxuries, and living for Self as god of your life.

Many Christians need to meditate on Solomon's lesson(s). He with the most toys LOSES! The rich have a LOW position before God! And I Tim. 6:17-19 says they must give back much!

The gospel of health and wealth is an EVIL false doctrine, for three reasons:

1. NOT all Christians are to be rich
2. The rich aren't told I Tim. 6:17-19
3. They don't pray if being rich is God's will.

49. PURE CONSERVATISM IS WORLDLINESS

(Which is Why Sinners Love It)

(11/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF you read the Bible, you won't tend toward worldliness. If you walk by sight, you will. Mt. 6, Col. 3, I Jn. 2, the book of Acts. NONE of these support that. Just going to church is not a substitute for keeping oneself unstained from the world! Jas. 1. You often become like those you hang with.

Christian/theological conservatism is NOT political conservatism! Latter says make as much as you can, government restrict that in as few ways possible, keep it all for you and your heirs, government tax as little as possible, help no one and no other nations' poor. IT IS Laodicean worldliness!

The U.S. Constitution does NOT explicitly/expressly say FBI, DOJ, DOE, EPA, IRS, DOD, DOT, FTC, CIA, Department of Homeland Security, or many of these departments: <https://www.usa.gov/agency-index>

Conservatives worship the 10th A instead of God, and don't even read it's 'and to the people' phrase!

50. BIBLICAL POLITICS

(11/26/23; @JamesMeroney)

ANY Christian who doesn't do their job well, then concern themselves with their part of the Great Commission, is, by very description, carnal, backslidden or apostate! If we don't take God's EDBS priorities seriously, WHY would He bless America with revival? II Chron. 7:14 Disciples needed.

Worldliness is NOT caring about God's priorities #1, but living for self, things, money, sex, and fun/entertainment—the pursuit of happiness. ANY Christian caught up in a non-disciple lifestyle is carnal, and Jas. 4 says they're ENEMIES of God, even as they confess His Name—hypocritically!

The Christian right made a deal with the devil, to overturn Roe in exchange for conservatives getting zero opposition from The Church/Christians, as was testified to before Congress. As Dr. Phil. would ask, "how'd that work out for you?" You NEVER compromise morals for idolatry!

The Bible NEVER contradicts! Therefore, ALL these verses apply to the practice of political discourse, according to need, as led by the Spirit! NONE is counter to love, unless done in an unloving manner. Jesus meek and mild is only part of the story!

Py. 8:13, 25:22; Mt. 5:16, 38-39, 44, 10:34-39, 11:29, 12:34, 36, 13:28-29, 22:34; Mk. 6:18; Lk. 7:34, 17:3-4; Jn. 8:11, 18:11; Ac. 5:29; Rom. 13:1-6; I Cor. 3:15, 5:1-13, 13:4-8, 15:33; II Cor. 2:6, 13:10; Eph. 5:4, 11; I Th. 5:22; II Tim. 2:26, 3:16-17; Tit. 1:13, 3:10; Heb. 5:14; I Jn. 2:9, 4:1, 5:21; Rev. 1:12-16, 2:27.

51. HOMELESSNESS

(11/30/23; @JamesMeroney)

JUST for my own happiness, I need a chapter that proves that event is history, and brought forth some good ideas. HOMELESSNESS. I turned in a homeless guy, twice, as it's illegal in Frisco. Cops came out, but his tent remains. There NOT serious about the problem, as with panhandlers!

I've turned in beggars before to them too. IF you allow people to earn their living through begging, you empower that to continue! They often make more than the McDonalds job my sons and I have yelled that they get, before. Government actions make these two things continue!

IF you bust them, like rats they just return, or move to the next town/safe haven! Citizens must not feed them cash, but only information on where to get the help they really need, which is a job, mental healthcare, a shelter and food. NOT beer or drugs.

Government has to have a program that gets them on their feet, then they pay back taxpayers after they are financially able! A TV report said they need $1K to transition to normal life. I know many of them are mentally ill (I spoke with one at the library), and some choose the free lifestyle.

Many are drug addicts, and some are prostitutes. Dallas has MANY; my neck of the woods has few, because laws disallow it, and cops sometimes do their job. The answer is helping those willing to go straight and repay, and those who choose the lifestyle NOT to be helped by anyone!

McD's has to be their better option, or live off the land, survivalist mode. It's NOT taxpayers' problem! I know zero taxpayers who are homeless, and their family has more obligation toward them than taxpayers. Justice requires the outlays be repaid, but they do need help that costs money.

52. POLITICS ASSORTMENT

(11/29/23; @JamesMeroney)

CAN WE QUIT nit-picking on every little deed, word, or clothing item people in politics choose, and focus on IMPORTANT matters, America?

I find it funny those who use God, politically, often have more faith in owning a gun, than those who don't speak of God, in politics, but don't own guns! What is your faith ultimately in? Self-defense is fine, but people use "God" in very ungodly ways (for self as god ambitions)! (11/30/23)

There is NEVER a solution, or any end to the extremes' fighting! THEY don't WANT ANY ISSUES SETTLED FOR GOOD! That's why I say they might do better with a two-state solution (secession/divorce) to America, or Civil War! (11/30/23)

Update #1: Cross-Dresser Georgina Santos

(12/2/23; @JamesMeroney)

NO other current national figure politician won an election based in fraud. There is NO comparing of sins, possible! Voters MAY vote for criminals, and that has to be addressed, but fraud means they didn't vote for what they thought they were voting for!

I look forward to George Santos' filed complaints, as WE THE PEOPLE deserve to know what type of people are claiming to be qualified to lead us! NONE will be perfect, but egregious behaviors are our right to know!

Especially public life you have to define which laws are rock solid, which have exceptions, and which can be ignored, by those inclined to be rebels. Enforcement affects that! Rules were NOT made to be broken, or someone wasted the time making them! They have degrees of importance!

People have said the voters decide if George Santos needs to be removed. IF that's our future standard, SPECIAL ELECTIONS must occur upon egregious violations, as election cycles circle around too infrequently for the punishment to match the crimes.

SOME voting groups and states WANT criminals representing them, or at least tolerate it. D.C. needs to make a nationwide standard for what behaviors unacceptable for voters to allow into the hallowed chambers to serve public's interests! Intelligence on the issues would be great, also!

House and Senate ethics committees NEED to make a list of unacceptable behaviors, and list just their punishments! I don't want a fraudster winning an election, or felons. IF I discovered someone was having a serial affair, I would NOT vote for them! WE THE PEOPLE deserve to know!

IF a politician was benefitting by engaging insider trading, I would NOT vote for them! IF a D.C. politician was on the take from donors, I would NOT vote for them. WE THE PEOPLE deserve to know the behaviors of those who claim to be leaders! Leadership requires character, though imperfectly!

IF integrity and politicians isn't an oxy-moron, we have to have a range of punishments for named offenses! Rare should be Congressional expulsion. But something has to teach wayward ones to change their listed (unacceptable) behaviors! Very sinful people are NOT "leaders!," except astray!

MANY people judge a President mainly by the state of the economy, and whether there is peace in major parts of our world! No matter what control, if any, they have on those outcomes, this is the "thinking" of many U.S. voters! What happened on your watch? The Serenity Prayer is in order! (12/8/23)

Update #2: Biden Blunders

(12/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

With years of inflation, Afghanistan pullout blunder, flooded borders, escalating debt, spending out of control, shootings, world erupting in wars, and a frail commander in chief—physically and partly mentally—it's EASY to see why Uncle Joes poll numbers are slipping! @POTUS @joebiden

The people WANT safety (law and order), controlled borders (NO illegal break-ins), peace (no wars/American military strength), jobs that pay, a good economy, pride in country, a President in control, taxes not rising, debt under control, government waste ended and things in America to be good and positive.

Biden has been giving lip service to border control far too long! Inflation has stuck with us far too long. Russia was not afraid to invade with him at the helm. Shootings have escalated, and mass retail thefts and homelessness. I've NEVER said I was FOR his policies, or would vote for him.

Voting is OFTEN a cry for change to the way things are. In my opinion, if the things I've just described don't change in the next six months, Biden won't stand a decent chance! It's time he forgets party agendas/ideology and solves problems America faces! @potus @joebiden Even I could fix these problems!

Update #3: Slander is the Name of the Game!

(12/22/23; @JamesMeroney)

MANY Americans, now days, in politics, don't CARE TO BE FACTUAL OR ACCURATE/TRUTHFUL! They simply allege made up things that are negative about people or parties they don't like, and get reinforcement from idiots they hang around with!

FOR EXAMPLE, a celeb said Dems get in their electric vehicles, have a latte or cappuccino, then drive off to have an abortion. THERE ARE MORE CLAIMING CHRISTIANS who have abortions as Dems who have them! Were UN-FACTUALLY making up straw men in politics!

<https://research.lifeway.com/2021/12/03/7-in-10-women-who-have-had-an-abortion-identify-as-a-christian/>

FOR EXAMPLE, Ted #CancunCruz alleges liberal women aren't happy, sexually, due to weak men. He has NO facts, and is an overweight nerdy-looking fool who claims Jesus. What woman desires a beer belly and a dork? Straw men vain imaginations are being used to vilify, UN-factually!

FOR EXAMPLE, there's a Congressman demanding Dems respond to subpoenas, when he himself did not do so, and Bozo Boebert preaching morality, when she's a 30 something grandmother, groping around kids, in public, with a kno*cked up son's girlfriend. NO MORAL AUTHORITY IN D.C., TO SPEAK OF!

FOR EXAMPLE, some pundit mocked Biden saying 2024 is about decency, then showed gay sex, topless women at the WH, and cocaine use, when he was speaking of decency of the Oval Office holder. Everyone thinks they have moral high ground, but FEW DO. Blind to their sins, and arrogant!

FOR EXAMPLE, one tweet said Dems start every day by reference to Jan. 6. Maybe true for some; I don't know one Democrat. Far righters poo poo what happened, and it occurred one specific day, to try to undermine the election results! NO OTHER REASON for it occurring that one day! Repent!

53. CENTRISTS AREN'T PERFECT

(Or Unanimous)

(11/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

EVERY qualified American (i.e., of age, not in jail, or dead) has ONE vote! They're FREE to use it, but only ONE time! They can even burn/waste it on a sure-to-lose candidate! I OPPOSE rank choice voting! May the best man/woman win, AS IT HAS ALWAYS BEEN, IN America! Winner takes all.

The electoral college is OK. There could be better ways, but now days people ONLY want changes to our voting system TO BENEFIT THEIR SIDE, and desired outcomes, ESPECIALLY gerrymandering. "Justice" means just us, not them. Our system has worked fine for centuries! The problem is BAD candidates.

Ranked choice voting is the government telling voters the government disapproves of their one vote! Third parties do NOT need help from government, to compete with the two BIG parties! They need stronger candidates who can win, and to be on all ballots. Gov't helping them is NOT fair.

OF COURSE politicians who can't compete against the D or R candidates want HELP from government to get more votes, by resorting lowest ranked contender votes to all others, with ranked choice voting. People choose one time; they don't need a re-do! get to them BEFORE that first choice!

I wonder if a third party will ever have confidence their agenda and candidates stack up to the BIG two parties? Forward Party is premised upon "ranked choice voting." True Independents are NOT beholden to any belief they do not sincerely hold! Parties need flexibility for variety of beliefs!

There's not one human on earth that you believe the exact same as on every matter in life-period! Not even conjoined twins! And one politicians' positions are IRRELEVANT (even Presidents!), when it takes Congress to go along with passing their visions for America! I'm GLAD no one dictates every law!

To pass laws in America, you must have enough votes. The far right's hated term "compromise" is often required, as Mika's dad espoused! Unless one party gets a landslide vote, then super majority, BOTH parties interests must be taken into account, to some extent, for laws to pass! DUH

I supposes a Presidential candidate could issue executive orders, and fight them in court all their term (I have 100 I've listed). BUT, that's NOT the best way! You convince and influence people to vote for your policies, but the far right has ZERO room to go along with anyone but their own!

IF we can get to two or three or more parties who aren't the far right/MAGA/America First ilk, compromise and win-win can occur, as early as 2024! MAGA politicians will ALWAYS fight and oppose/vote against ANY law that's not in their talking point agenda!

Update #1: Ranked Choice Voting?

(11/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

Though I 100% LOVE what Andrew Yang's doing with Forward Party for 2028 and beyond, I'll NEVER support ranked choice voting (or unpaid back UBI), as it is manipulation, government helping weaker candidates (showing unfair favoritism), and impacts voters' FREE CHOICES! It's NOT moral/fair/just/right!

I'd LOVE to be attacked for being too idealistic or perfectionistic! It is the compromisers, who have no standards, who have gotten us where we presently are! You stand by your convictions, and let the bricks fall where they must. If you have the best ideas, you attract the most votes!

UBI is Socialism! Paid back UBI is NOT. BETTER is empowering all America's poor to maximize their earning abilities, spending and budgeting skills. That is what OUR revised Welfare plan DOES! NO dependence on taxpayers or government for freebies! Empowered self-sufficiency; none left behind!

In my opinion, pure conservatism policies would NEVER garner enough votes, absent manipulating voting results, as more people want things from government than don't. Thank God we have a representative government. (11/27/23)

EVERY political position we espouse is ALREADY common sense, and a compromise from BOTH extremes' desired positions! Yet, they are ALL win-win, where neither extreme gets it all, or loses it all. They are ALL based in common decency for the common good! At <http://AmericanAnswers.org>. (11/29/23)

Update #2: Trump Derangement Syndrome (I)

(12/3/23; @JamesMeroney)

I don't believe a Trump second term would end democracy, or ruin all down ticket GOP's AS YOU KNOW, I never accept what people claim, without analyzing it by my beliefs. Fearmongering!?! That DOESNT mean America should ever find out! God forbid! Most evil politician in America!

RE: The great Liz Cheney, IF CHUMP actually sought and tried to end democracy, we the people would take up arms and prevent it! Never underestimate the resolve of true patriots! Civil war would be preferable to losing our land!

CHUMP can't harm all down-ticket GOP candidates, cause so many GOP's are still cult-like loyal to their warped dear leader. THAT is why I disagree with your assessment about his negative, complete drain on the GOP chances! I ALWAYS have REASONS for my beliefs, great Christ Christie.

Update #3: Unity Over Israel

(12/5/23; @JamesMeroney)

Between Hillary and John Fetterman, Israel vs. Hamas has SURELY begun to open a wedge that was always there, but purposely hidden, between the far left and more Centrists left! That's a GOOD thing! Let WE THE PEOPLE/VOTERS people know where you REALLY stand!

Between Hillary and John Fetterman, Israel vs. Hamas has SURELY begun to open a wedge that was always there, but purposely hidden, between the far left and more Centrists left! That's a GOOD thing! Let WE THE PEOPLE/VOTERS people know where you REALLY stand!

Israel attacked by Hamas has united right and left to one cause, to a large extent, and that is an AMAZING silver lining!

Update #4: Centrist Strategy

(12/6/23; @JamesMeroney)

Chris Christie says parents should be legally allowed to castrate/sexually mutilate their kids, though some won't agree with their decision. He used the 'slippery slope' B.S.. There are ice shoes with cleats! That's fearmongering! PARENTS can't ABUSE THEIR CHILDREN, as deSatan said tonight!

It would be awesome to have Centrists have such a wide tent that our only enemies are extremist Dems and GOP's! Landslide victories are probable, as MOST who are politically disaffected will warm up to these NON-extreme solutions that help all, and let no one dominate—right or left!

There's NO WAY Reagan-Bushes-Romney-McCain tradition dies, by "RINOs" retiring! Come be Centrists! Centrists can even wrest control away from tRumpism, and be GOP's all along! Christians, rational folk and GOP establishment are a SUPER majority. Far right has limited growth potential!

Dems and centrists CAN find ways to work together to compromise and get things done. NOT uniparty. NOT compromising core principles. NOT bowing to either extreme. NOT changing parties. Just voting for common sense solutions, justly! 2024, 2028, 2032. We don't even hate extremists!

Churches and media interviews that change any itinerary events could be substituted by team members! Partner can do whatever he pleases. I'd LOVE working with him, but that's his call. I'm going solo, if funded, no matter what plans he has for the year! HOPE he accompanies us, a lot!

Dems and GOP's have ZERO need to think Centrists in power will lessen their power, even the power they have if D's or R's won, because we ONLY implement justice. D's and R's always counter-balance most policies, but we can bring both MORE! Oppose us to your peril! We WILL make justice win.

Dems and GOP's will have MORE power with centrists in charge, as we are for justice! Current state politics gives neither side many permanent victories, or BIG wins! Centrists honor God in implementing justice. Mic. 6:8. Obey Ex. 18:21, Washington D.C.! Fear God, and turn from all evil!

Peace is not just the absence of war. True peace depends upon creating the opportunity that makes life worth living. And to do that, we must confront the common enemies of human beings: Nuclear weapons and poverty; ignorance and disease. —Barack Obama

Obama wrote of shared power. It can't be equally shared, but consultative government is the ONLY hope for America! Win-lose, dominate, then be dominated, polarized politics WILL be the end and death knell to our great country, brought on by satan himself, through EVIL human tools!

Anti-Trump people in America HAVE to have something to be FOR; not just negative and oppositional! Common Sense Centrism! (12/9/23)

Update #5: Centrism To the Rescue!

(12/6/23; @JamesMeroney)

EVERY GOP who left D.C. from Trumpism would be 100% considered for this team! Every establishment GOP. Every Christian who obeys God and is actually saved SHOULD be for us, as with all NON-extreme voters! Super majority 2024, on paper.

You can forget ALL other third parties! They're free to do what they do. We're talking about an actual competitor to the BIG two that can beat them BOTH, by attracting their sensible members away from their extremists. JUSTICE is nothing to fear, or loss of power if you're just! NO LOSS.

Centrists aren't into party wins and worship. We're into wins for good policies only, and justice! BOTH parties will get MORE from our rule than their own, as the polar party stops your progress! We have analyzed the middle ground, and both extremes get more under our solutions than gridlock!

Centrism overcomes:

1. Gridlock
2. Temporary victories, vs. permanent good policies
3. Dominating opponents
4. Bad compromises
5. Conceding to your enemy in Kumbaya false unity
6. Devil's in the details bills (where you stab your opponent)
7. Personality worship cults

Other nations have little to no trust in U.S. policies, as they can change every two to four years! Centrism solves that! with many nations uniting against the dollar, America has to be set for the future in ways that work best for us, but don't ostracize other nations, or things like that happen!

Update #6: Trump Derangement Syndrome (II)

(12/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

I HATE fearmongering and alarmism, in politics, from BOTH sides! It's actually sin. Cautioning, warning, speculating about potential outcomes is fine. Trying to gen up fear, hate or extreme scenarios is NOT! Pundits do this ALL THE TIME, and we the people have to wise up to the tactics.

End of democracy. Dictatorship. You may never vote again in America. The greatest threat to America. THESE are alarmist rhetoric, in my opinion! There are millions of reasons to never vote for tRUMPism, but those are not in that million! A road too far, morally, at least to me! And incentivizes FEW!

Update #7: Things Non-Democrats Oppose

(12/12/23; @JamesMeroney)

Things NON-Dems rightly oppose:

1. BIG government
 2. High taxes
 3. Weak military
 4. Handouts
 5. Favoring poor or minorities
 6. Weak economy and high inflation
 7. Large debt
 8. Sex perversions
 9. Wanting big oils end
 10. Open borders for Dem votes
 11. Environment extremism
 12. Any pro-Hamas
 13. Punishing the rich
 14. Loose on crime
- Etc.

Update #8: Retiring RINOs Have a Future!

(12/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

All these RINOs dropping out need to muster courage and decide to come back, true to form, as Common Sense Centrists in 2026 and 2028! #DontRetire! We will kick the far right HIPPO's (hypocrites') tails!

EVERY illegal alien who's illegally trespassed and entered America for the past four years MUST be kicked out to reapply, legally! If their skills are needed, get sponsored, and we'll work a fast track green card for 'ya. NO STAY, NO WAY, COMING ILLEGALLY. WE determine our borders! @GovAbbott

CAN YOU IMAGINE how having team members use their campaigning skills to get our movement known, for 2024, as a full-out blitz vs. CHUMP-ism? It'd make that choice even more credible, and the majority is in the middle! We only pick qualified pros! Most-skilled Cabinet-ever (goal).

Itinerary lists SEVERAL mass crowd events across America where logistics simply would make it near impossible for me to get to them the same day. PERFECT opportunity for team members! Just funnel people to our website, and sum its concepts, if you feel comfy doing so. Helps YOUR future!

The establishment GOP and real Christians would make an absolutely indomitable political force, moving forward, and no one would have to change parties, if they have emotional ties. It's NOT about a party but common sense solutions, where D.C. can have win-win. 2024 start date; 2028, 2032!

Moderate Dems are FULLY welcome to Common Sense Centristism, so they shake off their fanatical wing, just like GOP's fanatical wing can be shaken off by Reagan Common Sense Centristism. Hillary and Fetterman on Israel show that party has two sides. One middle ground rational and moral 'party'!

OR Dems can stay in a two-sided party! WE Centrists can beat them, as our solutions are better and more just. We'll even be JUST to the far right, though they often don't deserve it! It's what Jesus would do! Fake and carnal Christians would stay in their sect, as little spiritual growth!

The far right will purposely try to thwart EVERYTHING Centrists will propose, so Dems and centrists have to unite in practice, to get things done, on time, within a budget, and NOT let cult extremes ever win again, ON EITHER SIDE! Common ground D and R is Centristism! Extremes hurt America!

Extremes demand their way be shoved down everyone's throat! They've shown they'll fight anything but their agenda. They'll politicize every judge, government public servant, federal agency, etc. They MUST be defeated by everyone NOT in the far right. Then do good to them, anyway.

Love your enemies means NON-far right parties will take anything good they are for, but throw out everything bad they're also for! They don't deserve any attention, but Jesus is NOT for revenge, but justice! Bless them with heaping coals on their heads. ONLY good policies allowed!

I FULLY understand that negotiations can ruin ideals. OUR common sense solutions already do those compromises, justly! You either bless both parties on one agenda item, each, or one at a time, each winning on good policies, or negotiate against extremes! We have edicts as blue print!

IF anyone was 100% fervent in implementing every "edict" our website lists, that ONLY means they are 100% for blessing all, taking the good in all sides, and rejecting the bad. It is NOT insisting on our way or the highway, but on the right way! Smart and just/righteous. Selfless!

The bad in the two extremes can NEVER be made public policy. Were prepared to run three cycles! Praying 2024 goes well! there are SEVERAL centrist candidates who are WELCOME to use our solutions, after our term, and I'd even help them if they desired! This movement could win for decades!

Political extremes:

1. Taxes that aren't just, and favor the rich or poor
2. IGNORING 'and to the people' in the 10th Amendment
3. Worshipping ANY politician
4. Valuing ignorance and sin Our website lists as many as you'd like to read! Not reinventing the wheel, here. Common Sense middle.

In 2028, there can be Centrists in EVERY U.S. political position, including judges, and all public servants! In my opinion, the positions that are common sense (at our website) can and should last way after I am dead. My will will keep that website up, via my kids! The Encyclopedia and Bible of Common Sense.

54. RICH RIGHTS VS. WRONGS

(11/28/23; @JamesMeroney)

WHATS IT ALL FOR? We visited McDs (day tripping to Oklahoma), and the manager hurriedly took us through his electronic kiosk—no more humans to speak to, unless you request it. He was impatiently annoyed, as we NEVER eat there, and there's no menu anymore, so we didn't know the offers or specials.

Then, watching TV, some arrogant dude on a plane was 'making it rain' dollars on a passenger, by actions bragging he had money. The lowest totem pole is homeless, fighting for survival, then youth, doing the same, often from their parents' house/basement. If you live by sight, Ecc. 10:19 is true to you—everything is money.

To survive, you usually have to have money for everything. Even the homeless need a tent, clothes and food from some source. SO, money being necessary, people conclude more is better, and much is grand, lifestyle/quality of life increases.

So we run the rat race to accumulate and acquire, and once our stash is big enough, we try to enjoy life in an aged body state called retirement. It is ALL about what can we do for ourselves, to make our own lives have a higher quality of experience. And when you arrive at the end of the tunnel, what happens?

ALL you gained gets given to others, and you take NOTHING with you! But where would you be going, if you could take it with you? MOST people are going to an eternal fiery hell! DOES GOD REWARD people for enjoying their life to the fullest? NO! I Cor. 7:31

Are there eternal heavenly rewards handed out for pursuing happiness, and the high life? NO! In fact, the fleshly mind has capabilities to justify and 'moralize' worldliness sin! We can deceive ourselves that life's purpose is happiness, or money, denying and defying God in what HE says.

BUT if everyone does what is right in their own mind, the heart is deceitfully wicked, and the foolishness of competition (Ecc. 4:4) makes sight-walkers judge themselves by comparison to others' acts and achievements! II Cor. 10:12 THE answer to our original question—what's it for—is Ecc. 12:13!

God has told us what His will for life is for us:

Work/make money. Gen. 3:19, I Th. 4:11, Col. 3:23-24

Behave morally. Ecc. 12:13

Do His ministries: Evangelism. Mt. 28:18-20, Discipling, Body life and Social ministry (including politics and charities) and enjoy/have fun along the way. I Tim. 6:17

I don't know when you cross the line into workaholicism, but I have ~30 days to set my son(s) up, and make whatever part of 2024 I sell EXCELLENT, so I've been working like a madman. I think the HUGE knot in my stomach, plus it being 7pm, tells me I've crossed that point!

The most wicked politician in D.C., now play-acting nice, to CON you, and hide his prior-fully exposed true self!

Cancel culture is extreme, and evil (hurts ALL Americans by hurting our economy). BUT, if one chooses to engage it, it should go BOTH ways, politically!

SINCE some on X are equating billionaires to brilliance, let's review a few FACTS about being rich:

1. They are in a LOW status. Jas. 1:9, 2:5
2. Their faith can't be in God and money, equally. Mt. 6:24
3. Faith in money's uncertainty is foolish, NOT brilliant! I Tim. 6:17
4. God evens up the score of this life! Lk. 6:24, 16:25
5. Money is NOT life's purpose. Lk. 12:15
6. The rich can't control when God takes them. Lk. 12:20
7. MOST rich people go to hell. Mt. 7:14; Lk. 18:25
8. You can't take it with you. I Tim. 6:7
9. The love of money is sin, and causes many evils. I Tim. 6:10
10. How get and use money MATTERS! Satan can make one rich, as can God! I Tim. 6:17-19; Mt. 4:8; Deut. 8:18; Lk. 12:48; Jas. 5:1-6
11. You're not to chase money, or seek it fast. Pv. 23:4-5, 13:11
12. Riches can deceive you that all is well. Rev. 3:17; Pv. 10:15 13. Longing after money hurts. I Tim. 6:9 14 It's not a sin to be rich, if not an idol, in God's will, and gained and used morally.

It's the HEIGHT of lacking self-awareness, and lacking knowing God, to say or pray thanks for God's "blessing" you, when you do nothing significant for the poor, and vote against government doing anything, and claim a church tithe is your contribution! I Tim. 6:17-19 CARE ABOUT OTHERS!

Though providing jobs is a service to society, the rich PROFIT off every employee but those who are business required (IT, lawyer, accountant). They are NOT free, before God, to claim jobs are their give back, in obedience to I Tim. 6:17-19. Selfish gain isn't selfless, at all!

Update #1: What Is Life?

(12/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

The other day I told you what God says life is. THESE verses happen to exactly agree with my assessment, and are likely where I subconsciously got them from!

WORK. Ecc. 2:24-25, 5:19-20, 9:10

BE GOOD and ENJOY LIFE. Ecc. 3:12-13, 22, 5:18, 6:7, 8:15, 9:9, 11:8-10, 12:13-14 and do EDBS priorities.

Ecc. 5:18 MAKES CLEAR that politicians' role, among other things, is to stop oppression of the poor and to bring about justice! The author says don't fret when you see those evils, as authorities God has put in place to handle the problem!

The rich young ruler PROVES what we already know: Parting with money, especially to give to the poor in significant amounts, is near impossible! Even donations to churches usually do LITTLE for the poor! We've outsourced this to government, and the far right DOESN'T want any safety net even the Jews had. (12/2/23)

Update #2: The Rich Have a Duty to the Poor?

(12/2/23; @JamesMeroney)

WITH OURSELVES having so much, and caring so little?

1. Geographic DISTANCE
2. Out of sight, out of mind, and
3. Selfishness.

They're not our concern cause they're not our problem, as they're not from our country! EVIL attitudes! God has allowed you to have excess not just to pamper self!

I TRULY believe EVERY U.S. millionaire should be FORCED to visit a poor nation for one week, or at least to visit a U.S. hood or barrio! The poor need not come to your digs, to feel jealous or bad about their achievements! YOU need to go to them! Part of required civic service! SEE IT!

People are OFTEN subjective! They think their lives are how all others are, or can be, because it is for them. That ego-centrism is EXACTLY why I believe EVERY U.S. millionaire owes America a week's time in a poor country or neighborhood. Safely, but surely, to OBSERVE their reality!

An actress said poverty is caused by the rich. Let's analyze that claim. In America, you earn what your skills can land. If minimal, your pay will be minimal. If your lifestyles too high for your income, too much goes to outgo. YOU wouldn't pay a lawn boy $150 to mow your lawn! (12/16/23)

Mt. 19:23-26 Just like MANY people in America, the Jews believed wealth was a sign someone was blessed by God, even though the god of this world leads people astray into worldliness and the love of money sins. They couldn't believe the rich were't easily saved, but the hardest to reach! (9/15/23)

55. BUSINESS & INNOVATION

(12/3/23; @JamesMeroney)

DESPERATELY-needed invention: One app where all the BEST deals in America are found, so ALL consumers who don't waste money buy there, to teach their competitors to stop hiking prices, or go out of business! Inflation-fighting tool! #Innovation Power to 'We The People.'

Update

(12/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

I needed tires balanced for a road trip. Walmart didn't have enough employees! They schedule appointments. Governments job is to ensure America has enough workers for business; not so many their wages lower or so few they raise! NO immigrants wanting handouts, or not speaking English!

ANY company wanting enough employees NEED a career path for some, and job opportunities for those who won't stay long-term. NO business needs all employees moved into management, or over-paid. It would help to have mundane jobs made more interesting, if they can't be automated.

Ex.: Walmart garage techs NEED music or TV in the bays, and cushy rollable low-to-the-ground seats, so they oil change or do tire repairs NOT on their back or knees. Temperatures can't be too cold/winter or hot/summer). Colorful, or attractive work places make for happier, more motivated workers. FOR EVERY JOB I believe I could imagine products to make peoples jobs more enjoyable and/or fulfilling.

Ex.: Dental assistants: You OBSERVE them working, to find negatives new products could solve, like standing all day, having to touch saliva, not seeing the teeth well, or able to access back of teeth easily. A light inside the mouth, mirror, or computer projecting mouths' inside, magnifying goggles, a stool, elastic hand gloves, music or TV in background, colorful or computer-changing wallpaper to unsterilize the boring scene, etc.

I am on two topics at once. I'll list products jobs need, but also ways the rich can NOT just gain money for themselves, for ever greater lifestyles, but can benefit from giving back in smart, helpful ways that retain their memory forever, in positive ways. First; charity options for rich:

INSTEAD of JUST spoiling your heirs in perpetuity (they ALL need to work!), consider these projects you could be responsible for fixing, for rewards from God in the life (if you're unsaved) and society's rightful respect and/or praise:

1. Disease eradication research
2. Pollution amelioration technology
3. Educating and motivating the poor not to be so
4. Technology to reduce crime (more details later)
5. Car wreck avoidance technologies
6. Technology to END scammers, hackers and identity thieves
7. Natural resource expansion chemicals/technology, for oil and clean water, jewels, etc. Make trees able to be full form in one year vs. 10-20!
8. SAFE ways to drill out all valuables from every place, with zero negative impact on the environment (including the ocean's floor).
9. Food expansion techniques, for more with less in less space
10. Water purification technology for ocean water and all other water resources
11. Sanitation systems for poor countries
12. Clean water and self-grown food for poor countries. America's rich could use some excess to help America's standing with them, vs. Communists' efforts! #JustDoIt!

Products that would make named jobs more appealing for workers to be retained longer:

1. Welders: Air-conditioned/cooled helmets and clothes where sparks can NEVER burn their limbs
2. Plumbers: Pants where NO cracks are exposed, and they lay on their back or knees with cushioned padding!
3. Cashier: Standing on your feet's hard on your back, and customers can be intolerable. Cushioned stool, and a self-service checkout for any who behave rudely, required by rule

4. 18-Wheeler driver: MORE cameras and mirrors, to have a feel for the entire rig, and nearby objects. Safe night sleeping, with no chance of being robbed at gunpoint. Sensors to detect sleepy eye lids, and warning sounds when the tires drift out of one's lane
5. Stockers: Handhelds that identify exactly which shelf and column/row scanned items go on, or can be gotten from, for item pickers
6. Construction workers: Air conditioned and heated uniforms, and hats to prevent sunburn. Music, while not so loud they can't be aware of their surroundings (dangers, etc.)
7. Janitor: Back-breaking labor. Mopping, scraping, sweeping and cleaning/rubbing/ scrubbing made less strenuous on the back, like automated mops and scrubbing rags that do the movement—not one's hands
8. Waiters: Speak-to handhelds record the orders. So they don't have to remember or write down orders. Also identifies which table and exact seating per order, so no screw-ups. Carrying heavy trays of food is back-breaking and risky for food falls! Why not something automated-like a robot, or on rollers?
9. Bartenders: No need to ever over- or under-pour, or memorize all recipes for all drink possibilities! Computer dispensed ingredients and recipes. Make them have consistent drinks
10. Cops: Light weight, tungsten steel or other substances for heart, lung and brain protection from front and back, and bullet proof face and temple shields. They should NEVER risk life or limb!

And being run over requires sensors that detect oncoming dangers. Pulling people over, they should NOT sick being shot, so X-ray or other type scanning tech is needed in a handheld, to observe cockpit interior assets, before they approach the driver's window!

11. Mechanics: They need uniforms that are made to look decent with oil and grease all over them—black and absorbent
Often, they need lights and magnifying technology to see smaller parts lower down the engine compartment, in tight quarters

12. Nurses: They should NEVER be able to be spat upon or hit, by unruly or mental patients, or vomited upon! Observe those behaviors, then design products to prevent them! There are hundreds of other jobs in the America. Part of growing an amazing economy would be designing products to retain employees longer, make them more productive, and fill all open positions with skilled workers! These needs can be met, as I just showed

I would LOVE to come up with such products for farmers, astronauts, miners, pro baseball players, and almost any profession. Businesses, as well, need advising on how to maximize their revenues. THIS is how U.S.'s economy retains #1 global status, indefinitely!

Disruptive change makes the future, in business, Ebay, Amazon, Uber, door dash, online banking and shopping, free shipping, returns available nearby. Every industry needs a disrupter, to keep America #1. I believe I can advise them on such, but NOT for free!

Government-wise, America needs the safest, fastest, most efficient and least polluting roadways the world over. Same with our skies, in transporting goods, as well as our railroads. ZERO wrecks with track crossing vehicles! Zero near miss airline mishaps. Innovative technology to the rescue! There ARE solutions!

Traffic jams. There are solutions. Long lines in retail. There are solutions. An app to show consumers the best deal for every product, nation-wide is NEEDED! Teach business to offer value—and they get rich. Scrooge the little guy—they fail! U.S. economy #1 is doable! Start it in 2024!

56. WHY SOME PEOPLE REJECT JESUS

(12/3/23; @JamesMeroney)

1. Some haven't heard. SAFELY, the church is responsible to take the Gospel message to ALL!
2. Some have heard, and were unmoved. Re-evangelize them, pray, and they need to consider the condition of their heart!
3. Some are not concerned about hell. That's pure self-destructive stupidity
4. Some don't believe the message is true/credible. READ or hear it again and again. Meditate on it. Pray to God to signal to you if it's true.
5. Some believe the Gospel isn't the only way to heaven. The Bible disagrees. IT has credibility; you have emotions and opinions, ONLY!
6. Some people decide to think about this 'later.' You have NO certainty you will get a later! And IF there are benefits to being saved, you are missing out on them, sinfully delaying!
7. Some say Christian sins and hypocrisy scare them away. Those behaviors are regrettable, but DON'T cut off your nose to spite your face, by burning in hell, because no one is perfect, including Christians!
8. Not enough prayer for and evangelism to them occurs. ONLY Christians can change this, and they MUST!
9. Some see no relevance in the Gospel to their everyday lives. To such, consider: You don't know when you will die! It's VERY hard (impossible) to build a house on a sandy foundation, and making plans for this life, when your future thereafter isn't settled/secure, is the epitome of NOT building a house on a solid rock foundation. It's the ultimate foolishness.
10. Some believe Jesus was only a good man. He did NOT teach or live that! He proved He was God in the flesh, and mere mortals cannot get anyone to heaven.
11. Some believe Jesus was a myth, and not a historic figure. This YEAR is minimal rebuttal: 2023 AD. Non-Christian historians acknowledged He lived. The eye-witnesses, even willing to die as martyrs, for Him, rebut such claims, as does His influence over our world. In short, the claim is an excuse, easily proven to be wrong.
12. Some believe they're already going to heaven, as they aren't sinners, God will save all, or they're deceived that some other way is securing heaven for them. God and the Bible utterly refute all three of these errors of thinking/lies.
13. Some believe 'religion' is a farce, and the opiate of the masses. Being sure of heaven isn't a religion, per se, but a relationship.
14. Some people just aren't interested. They often have preconceptions about what they're not interested in, and don't know the facts/truth. Others are arrogant, and need to repent of that sin.
15. Some have heard a wrong Gospel presentation. That happens, a lot, and is unfortunate!
16. Some are extreme risk-takers, or hate themselves, or are too proud to subject themselves to the truth God says. Those need to repent and humble themselves to listen to the only message that saves—forever. NO matter their reasons, ALL, ultimately, are tricked by satan! II Cor. 4:4

57. BIG OIL

(12/3/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let's talk about the future of BIG oil.

1. They'd be WISE to diversify more into greener sources
2. They NEED technology that can't cause blowouts!
3. I'm open to them drilling anywhere, IF they can't have spillage. More than one and their fines are so high, they won't repeat it!
4. Even in scenic venues, IF they can experiment in ugly places, and develop technology to NEVER have spillage, I'd be open to them drilling even in national parks, but one mistake, cleaned up completely, and any more and the entire industry is forbidden, forever, thereafter. Near perfection standard!
5. I believe big oil can create new processes and technologies to NEVER have a blowout or oil spill. IF and when they do, more power to them drilling anywhere! Just keep the intrusion, noise and street damage low, if near residences. Do no harm, or opportunities get curbed! Duh 101
6. I have NO problem with laws disallowing drilling in certain places, especially scenic and landmark national places and parks (and many residential areas), BUT if they develop new techniques and technologies to END all the negatives, they should get that chance! Experiment in ugly areas!

Oil reserves in the United States - Wikipedia

IT'D BE WISE for U.S. oil companies to create chemicals that could multiply existing pockets of oil, like molecule splitting, or adding elements that expand usefulness of present reserves, to double their size, without reducing their efficacy! That's a science and chemistry challenge.

IF U.S. oil companies were forced by law to completely clean up every ounce of damage if they ever spilled or had a blowout, along with hefty fines, they would find the wherewithal to develop technologies that ensured safe extraction of every drop of oil underneath U.S. soils and waters!

I'm INTRIGUED about how oil companies can have an indefinite existence. Oil takes centuries to exist, off fossils breaking down. Lab-created oil substitutes would one day be needed, when we've drained the reserves dry. We NEED vehicles that can use less gasoline, and drive more miles!

U.S. oil companies need even more contracts to be allowed to drill and profit outside America! Their core competency is drilling; NOT developing green energy! They can diversify, but you don't abandon your forte skills, unless you produce typewriters or horse and buggies! I'm all for BIG oil.

I'm also all for environmental protection. The only way to merge these two goals is new technologies and smart processes. IF preserving scenic places isn't possible, even with perfect cleanup if ever a problem, they should be absolutely banned, there! It's up to innovation and science!

Update #2: What About Climate Change?

(12/3/23; @JamesMeroney)

Let's address climate change! I don't believe man causes it all, or it's some heinous problem! But to the extent it's bad, HERE are the solutions:

1. Plant MANY trees
2. Require SAFE oil drilling
3. Incentivize, or wait until all have electric vehicles
4. Make converter kits for gas guzzlers
5. Make the most-polluting businesses convert to cleaner results, but give them incentives to do so
6. Carbon conversion technology!
7. Increased use of green energy sources
8. Never end oil drilling, as derivatives are good!
9. Electricity charging stations as prevalent as gasoline ones
10. Vehicles able to charge as quickly as a gas tank fill-up
11. Cars able to go as far on an electric charge as with a full tank of gas
12. Electric vehicles costing the same or less as brown energy ones
13. More energy efficient lighting, like LED, as America is ONLY building MORE drains
14. Require the worst polluting nations to clean up their act, or the cleaner ones need do LITTLE to nothing, as that's UN-fair!
15. Create new technologies and innovations to allay the negative impact of climate change, like rising seas, less polar regions, hotter oceans MANY MORE EXIST!

WHEN, NOT if, America gets to the finite end of remaining oil sources, or finding and accessing them becomes too costly, U.S. policy WILL change to more required green sourcing. Many are stubborn, and will wait until that becomes a crisis! Wind, geothermal, solar, nuclear atom splitting, etc.

Update #3: Creative & Responsible Oil Drilling

(12/4/23; @JamesMeroney)

I would NEVER support ANY beautiful scenery/landscape in America to be tarnished by oil drilling! BUT, if it can be done safely, or the cleanup make it look exactly the way it did before, that shouldn't offend anyone. I'm not sure the technology and procedures exist, yet, to ensure that.

WHAT will big oil companies do when all U.S. oil is depleted? What will America do to have its derivative products, then? We NEED to consider these contingencies NOW! You can't run blindly into a fire, where angels fear to tread. It's NOT smart!

Carbon capturing SHOULD be a MAJOR technology to be developed in America! Super-fast growing trees chemistry is needed, too, for planting all over the place. Geothermal is always avail, and very under-utilized, as with homes built six feet underground. Constant 60-degree temperature!

Can scientist chemists duplicate oil in the laboratory? We have products designed at the molecular level. WHY can't oil molecules be spliced, or designer oil, like diamonds, be invented, so America never runs out of oil for derivatives?

Synthetic crude:

Fracking ABSOLUTELY should be REQUIRED to fill in any large spaces, so the ground's structure remains solid, and earthquakes or sink holes cannot occur. It's destabilizing, when pressure and liquids used to fill these pores. Drill clean, drill forever! Drill dirty, face consequences.

In my opinion, if there are diamonds or is gold in ANY place in America, IF it can be extracted with NO negative consequences to the environment, I am ALL for it! Jesus wasted NOTHING, and I'm not for us wasting gifts God has set before us, if done cleanly! John 6:13

Wind energy is fickle; solar dissipates, some, on cloudy days. Ocean waves, and tapping into the steam of earth's lava NEVER lets up! I can't BELIEVE America isn't harvesting these two power sources like they're going out of style, as they never could! #CommonSense Gravity is a power source America under-depends on! It could be harnessed for yet another green energy source. I'm not a scientist, nor do I play one, but I'm sure someone could invent ways to utilize that constant source of power!

Nuclear fusion and atom splitting: <https://orano.group/en/unpacking-nuclear/nuclear-fission-and-nuclear-fusion-what-you-should-know#:~:text=The%20phenomena%20of%20nuclear%20fusion,to%20form%20a%20larger%20atom...>

IF trees indeed absorb carbon, if we want a cleaner environment, there are many western states with eons of unused land that people merely speed by on their way to more scenic vistas! NM, AZ, MT, WY, NV, UT, ID, WY, ND, SD. GREAT places for wind and solar farms, galore! #CommonSense

YOU will notice I NEVER recommend liberal environment solutions, like carpooling, flushing toilets less often, four plys of toilet paper, riding your bike to work, not taking airplanes, restricting appliances Americans can buy, mandating electric cars, etc.! BETTER solutions exist!

58. UKRAINE

(9/20/23; @JamesMeroney)

I do NOT believe Zelenskyy's fearmongering about Putin invading many other nations, especially NATO allies! IF it happened, NATO would unitedly respond, with overwhelming force. Zelenskyy is NOT to blame for not ending this war, militarily! Biden HAD the weapons and money we wasted!

"IF" negotiations can't succeed, one final surge is all I'm for, financially, as Biden has WASTED $ billions, and restrained giving @ZelenskyyUa up-front (dragged this war out for many unneeded months). Unite all allies-even China-to say unprovoked invasions can't stand or be rewarded!

Our Twitter says God bless Ukraine. It's Jas. 2:16 if U.S. abandons Ukraine with ONLY attitude. I SAID the answers over a year ago. Now, how do you fix a BOTCHED policy?

1. Give up land
2. Pay Putin
3. Near all-out war
4. Negotiate peace, by win-win. Russia can't for their handling of the economy! Consumers decide if they'll pay the higher prices!

Update #1

(8/23/23; @JamesMeroney)

You desperately NEED Jesus! Hell will reserve its finest fires for you, if you don't experience a serious spiritual change, "sir!" @KremlinRussia_E Your MANY evils are NOT hidden to God, Who's much more powerful than you could ever dream of being! May Prigozhin's ghost haunt you!

@ZelenskyyUa:

1. Find areas for relatively moral victory for troops
2. Find areas for relatively quick demoralizing of Russian troops
3. Temporarily forfeit some areas, to gain more strategic areas!
4. Decimate large numbers of Russian troops, where they're gathered! Cut off supplies. for their handling of the economy! Consumers decide if they'll pay the higher prices! (9/23/23)

I suggested Israel's type response in Ukraine, in the first ~month of Russia's invasion! THAT is why I say it has been severely mishandled, and America can keep fully funding a stalemate, vs. certain win, as in Israel. Biden was tepid. I have date-stamped tweets as proof! Way poor too long. (10/29/23)

HOW is Russia able to drain America for their Ukraine War, like we did them in the USSR Cold War? They're not nearly as wealthy, and debt doesn't seem to bother Putin. Is China funding them? (11/1/23)

I've said this before twice, and once almost a year ago! It's #CommonSense Otherwise, pull-out! Surge or leave. (11/30/23)

I would NOT have refused Ukraine funding. I would have said unless a HUGE surge happens, on this last payment, it gets cut off thereafter! (12/8/23)

Maybe U.S. Generals need to be in charge of Ukraine's self-defense!?! The ones in charge, presently, don't know how to WIN! (12/13/23)

Update #2: What to Do About Ukraine

(12/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

Cutting Ukraine funding means Russia wins, and continually funding Ukraine drains U.S., and increases debt, with only a prolonged war or stalemate. The obvious answer is such severe threat to Russia, it stops. You can't negotiate giving up land! And the rebuilding is Russia's expense! How?

There's NO good or just solution in Ukraine! The best you can hope for is the West backs Putin away, and adopt Ukraine into NATO, knowing some land might be lost as the cost of ending the war and joining NATO. Unless full victory is possible, soon, that's all you have, in my opinion. NATO is gain.

Ukraine joining NATO is NOT a bargaining chip. You can't negotiate with a dictator bent on stealing your land. You can only fight him. Allow them in, no matter what happens with the war! Then all of NATO is behind keeping her safe, thereafter, whats left when the war ends!

Joe Biden's DELAY and underwhelming military supply, the first month of the Ukraine War, is WHY we have the stalemate we now observe! A 50-mile military convoy was headed to Ukraine, and some people wondered what it was all about! #IDIOTS (12/13/23)

Source: Bill Kristol

Russia SHOULD have been defeated within three months of its initiated war, and politicians WATCHED as a 40-mile convoy descended on Ukraine. MORONS! DID THEY THINK HUMANITARIAN AID WAS WITHIN THOSE VEHICLES? #RussiaIsLosing (2/24/23)

Update #3

(4/24/23)

IF you give Putin ANY territory, he's rewarded for evil! IF you quit funding Ukraine, they lose. SO, a 100% neutral party could try to broker peace. I prefer whatever U.S. experts say would back Putin down, militarily! A one-time surge, as GWB asked for. Tell China we aren't escalating.

ALL my opinions on how to end the Ukraine war are NOT mine, because I said stop the 40-mile convoy, and use as much force as necessary, once Putin invaded, so it's been ~eight months past where my advice applied! BUT, here we find ourselves. Solutions?

QUIT the humor, and make this LITERAL!!! He kills Ukrainians. WHY isn't he a target? (12/25/23)

59. TITHING

1879

(12/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

Does the Bible say Christians need to tithe?

<https://biblequestions.com/answers/does-the-bible-say-christians-need-to-tithe/>

Update #1: Do I Tithe?

(12/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

During church, Lord had me do math. Ten years of college, ten part-time years of work so I could write, and 14 years of full-time writing. Except with a huge income change, I've "tithed" for a lifetime, even though that's NOT required for believers. I didn't legalistically calculate the percent we've given.

Statistics on Christian giving: <https://cdfcapital.org/tithing-generosity/#:~:text=Only%20about%205%25%20of%20churchgoers%20tithe.andtext=The%20truth%20is%20that%20the.are%20not%20practicing%20generous%20giving...>

Just by way of example, IF 10% tithing was required for Christians (which it is not), a preacher could say, "it is a sin to not tithe." He could NEVER say "you are sinning, not tithing." That difference is teaching truth and relying on conviction, vs. guiltily playing the Holy Spirit! (12/1/23)

Lost income for 25 years and part time lost income for 10. THAT is my tithe, for a LONG time, writing (or gaining the educational background to be able to) all that time! Multiply all those by a salary a JD would have earned since 1993. (12/1/23)

Update #2: Non-Tithing Christians are Robbing God?

(12/13/23; @JamesMeroney)

ISN'T IT ASTOUNDING that God left the clearest teaching about tithing to the very last book in the Old Testaments very last chapter? How forgetful! And He didn't even put any teaching of it in the next Testament! Having a memory problem? Mal. 3:12 clearly SHOWS it's written to Jews!

Mal. 3:7 TELLS any honest interpreter the passage is written to Jews, whose fathers didn't keep God's statutes! YET, mindless, Bible vapid Christians believe every word the pulper utters! NO one questions it, debates or rejects it. NO discernment; No testing the spirits-NOTHING!

READ MALACHI 1:1! "The oracle of the word of the Lord to Israel through Malachi." It's EMBARRASSING that pastors get away with lies, and there are NO wise men able to rebut their errors, so an entire church crowd falls under law and guilt, over a satanic lie. That's SAD. That's America!

The Bereans were more noble than most, because they took the time and effort to search the Scriptures to see if these things be true! We, on the other hand, just accept what anyone tells us behind a pulpit. That's called the sin of gullibility! REPENT! Pv. 1:22, 8:5, 14:13; Ps. 119:130

A tithe was a Jewish theocratic tax. There's ZERO New Testament evidence of ANY Christian tithing! New Testament giving is by grace, as the Holy Spirit leads! EASY to say not guilt people, then say most don't tithe and they're robbing God. That's guilt, and double-speak! Repent! (3/31/2015)

60. IS IT A SIN TO BE RICH?

(12/10/23; @JamesMeroney)

Being rich is NOT a sin, though it CAN BE, if not as an outgrowth of putting God first in your life (Mt. 6:33) The DEVIL can make you rich! Saying NOT a sin to be rich is only telling HALF the story! How you gain, prioritize and use it (especially your excess) is often unaddressed. (4/30/2013)

The DEVIL can make you rich. NOT a sin to be rich IF that's God's will for you. Few ever check or care as flesh loves money! EVERY debate challenge rebuffed. (3/17/2015)

Update #1: Putting People Under the Law

(12/1/23; @JamesMeroney)

PERFECT time to, again, educate on faith walking vs. legalism! A Christian walks by convictions God gives them, personally, in their 24/7 walk with Him in RELATIONSHIP! They are NOT in a religion of following rules, but a Person! That interaction brings holiness, as He is holy!

I can, and often do, teach what sin is, accurately. BUT, for the individual Christian, I never convict anyone, or expect them to change for me, but only if God uses the truth I state to convict them! Some call it rhema and logoi. The Bible alivened by God's Spirit vs. what it says alone.

It STARTS with accurate Bible interpretation! The Bible warns against divisive people (like people trying to dis-unite believers, for personal gain), but also teaches to divide over important moral and spiritual things; even excommunicate. Rom. 16:17-18; Mt. 10:34-36 Two types of division.

JUST LIKE there's two types of offending—moral vs. emotional! II Cor. 6:3; Mt. 15:12. Cherished Christian unity (Eph. 4:13-15) is NOT uniformity, but is agreement on the important and the basics. Lesser matters people can disagree upon, but never in un-Christ-like manners. I Cor. 16:12

Paul's disagreement with John Mark (bad behavior on Mark's part) even caused temporary separation from a ministry mission, where Barnabas (Paul's close companion) got drawn in-between, to help a weaker brother and keep Paul's work going elsewhere! Ac. 15:36-41.

We do NOT all agree on every issue! I'd venture no human agrees with any human on every matter in life! We CAN agree Christians are supposed to give money at church. Where we differ is on whether it's as led by the spirit, or 10%. One could be led to give more than 10%, but leading is how grace decided!

It's INDIVIDUAL! One preacher might preach on anger, and some angry listeners be convicted and others not, and the rest just learn! That's how it goes in church! WHY would God not convict a person who has anger issues by an anger sermon?

Walking with Jesus is 1:1 (one-on-one). God may be working on another sin in their life, right now, and will get to anger later! The preacher doesn't decide, and can't take the Holy Spirit's place of convicting! that is only human guilt, and we are NOT under condemnation, or guilt.

We may be guilty as charged, but God decided to tell us that, when he does, through conviction, not guilt. As an example, I could preach 1,000 Bible commandments that are all applicable to Christians (not tithing, but giving), and if I expected everyone listening to apply them all, in that service, I'd be a legalist who doesn't understand grace or relationship!

Part of conviction is it brings forth repentance! Rom. 2:4, II Cor. 7:10. It is NOT even lost people deciding to give up named sins, or committing to stop doing certain sins, in order to get saved, for they are guilty of ALL sins, and no one can live perfect!

Godly sorrow, and the kindness of God brings repentance, without regret. That describes conviction! NOT guilt. No regrets. Light vs. heavy load. Relationship vs. rule book religion.

I'm CERTAIN I've become more like my wife's good traits in 33 years, not by her nagging me to change, but by being around her (and hopefully the same in reverse). NEVER have we made a rule list of 10 or 1,000 or 100,000 commands we set forth to consciously obey/apply! That's not a marriage, any more than that's a walk with Jesus, under grace vs. under law. LEARN the difference, experientially!

BY THE WAY, if any lost soul promised to give up all sins, or even one named sin they know they struggle with, that decision would never get them to heaven, because works don't save anyone! Even living perfectly until death, and never sinning again only leads them to hell! It's ALL by grace!

Choosing to stop individual sins is a GREAT decision! Even lost people should, and can be told to do so. It doesn't save. Christians can be told to do the same, as Paul did at I Cor. 15:34.

Unless the Spirit tells you not to, and it's biblical, you should prayerfully take in advisement accurate sermons! But your walk is 24/7-NOT one hour a week. NO ONE comes between you and Jesus, not even a pastor acting as a dating chaperone.

You don't NEED a once a week morality lesson, to be a committed believer, but you benefit from it. I Jn. 2:27 Learn to walk 24/7 in the Spirit. Rom. 6:14; Gal. 3:10-14, 25; Verses on Christians NOT under the Law, but the law of Christ, Himself. Jas. 1:25 https://openbible.info/topics/no_longer_under_the_law...

Rules without relationship/faith ONLY lead to Rom. 7 experiences (wretched man). Rhema vs. logos concepts are accurate; labels not so much by the Greek.

I could put even a preacher under law, by quoting 10 Bible verse commands I know they aren't currently doing, this moment. I wouldn't, as that's not right, but it illustrates that we aren't under every command, or were actively sinning; just imperfect. WALK BY FAITH; NOT willpower!

I've read studies that VARY on what % of Christians "tithe." I've heard 20%, I read both 5% and 25%, yesterday. ARE THE 75%+ sinning? You first have to assess is tithing for Christians? My Bible research concludes NO.

If they're giving nothing, objectively (not knowing their specifics). Yes. BUT, I don't know their specifics, and I wouldn't ask, just like a rich person who got wealth by being worldly I'd never confront about how they got rich, because that's between them and God! I'd tell them God says gain wealth morally, but it's not my job to play God/Holy Spirit.

People like Bernie Madoff I WOULD tell, like John the Baptist did, "it is not right what you did to your victims." I could even tell him, you sinned when you did that. But whether he changes his heart on the matter requires God's intervention! Guilt never substitutes for conviction!

I JUST remembered YET ANOTHER Bible verse the political far right's preachers NEVER sermonize on or even mention. It DOESNT comport with the mantra, "it's not a sin to be rich," implying go get rich! I Cor. 7:31 INSTEAD, they only speak I Tim. 6:17. NATURAL health and wealth gospel! (12/13/23)

Update #2: The Bible on Money

(12/13/23; @JamesMeroney)

Continuing: The Bible says you can't serve God and money, equally. Mt. 6:24-26. Do you know ANY rich people who don't serve God? You can't say it's not a sin that they're rich, in such circumstance! And do you know any rich Christians who do little to no serving of God, only "tithing?" I do.

You can't say it's not a sin that they're rich, in such circumstances. When a noble person (who penned Pv. 30:8) prayed to God, he did not pray for riches, as Americans would, nor poverty, as NO American would! He prayed to be middle class, for REASONS! So he wouldn't forget God, and so he wouldn't dishonor God by stealing.

CULTURE and "the pursuit of happiness" from U.S. documents is why we have Charismatic theology that teaches give money at church, and God will give back to you even more (give to get). Their false doctrine even says wealth is "in the atonement!"

That claim would mean every saved person should be wealthy, or they're backslidden. Peter was destitute broke, as with Jesus. Paul was, at times! FALSE DOCTRINE! And a Bible verse NO preacher likes to preach before a conservative (i.e., be white and rich) audience is I Tim. 6:9!

Those who want to be rich:

1. Fall into temptation and
2. Become ensnared by many foolish and harmful desires that
3. Plunge them into ruin and destruction. THESE ARE NOT WORDS ENCOURAGING THAT ASPIRATION, folks! Duh 101.

So where does all this BIBLE teaching lead us? It is not sinful to be rich—BUT it can be, and it depends on how much money has you; not how much money you have, and on how you GET and give and use your money, and most importantly, if you serve God as #1, greater than you serve money (which we all do), or if you're an idolater, who loves money more than God!

Teach the responsibility; not just the privilege of being rich! Political conservatism poo poos the Bill gates and Warren Buffets of our world, BECAUSE THEYRE NOT GREEDY, SELFISH HOARDERS with the excess God has allowed them to have.

The far right calls such concerns for HOW one uses money to bless society, and not just their natural family, "bleeding heart liberalism," "goody-two shoes do-gooders," BECAUSE many far righters (rich, or not) have NO desire or intention on helping anyone else with their money, and believe the U.S. Constitution (idolized over the Bible) gives them permission to be white and rich, or chase money (contrary to Pv. 23:4-5) and get as much as you can, as that is what makes one a winner.

This is Laodicea and Commercial Babylon attitudes and values, that Christians cannot partake of, and be following Christ, YET they do, all the FULL fear and timidity of Pharaoh/Goliath! I'm happy that message is over, and happier I got it!

You NEVER hear those truths, especially about CHUMP and conservatism, and Laodicean continues, unnoticed by self-deception!

Update #3: Is Wealth Sin?

(12/13/23; @JamesMeroney)

It has been said, by Christians, and even pastors, "it's not a sin to be rich." Let's examine the Bible to see of such a curt statement comports with the WHOLE counsel of God, as that's His standard!

Could anyone say tax collectors in the Bible were godly rich? They took advantage of citizens, abusing their Roman surrogate authority, and were rightly hated for their profession!

Could anyone say James 5 depicts all rich people as in God's will, being rich, when they under-paid workers like Trump did illegal laborers?

What about God's disdain in James 2 of the type of rich who drag good people into court, because they can? Were they merely godly for being rich, or with their wealth? Hell to the no. Sort of reminds me of the sue-happy CHUMP, who tried to win against NBC, Telemundo, a Mexican judge can't be fair with me, and his sex victims!

What about Lordship Salvationists top three favorite personalities of the Bible? The rich young ruler. When Jesus told him to sell all he had, give it to the poor and come follow Him, WERE HIS RICHES, THEREAFTER, MERE MORALLY ACCEPTABLE POSSESSIONS, OR HOARDED, SELFISH SIN? The LATTER!

What about the rich fool? YES, Bible scholars actually label Luke 12:16-21 story that exact title! What went on, there? The man patted himself on the back as some important achiever who, like Ecc. 5:10, never knew when he had enough, as he always wanted more.

He would have razed one mansion, to make room for a bigger one, because he could. Instead, because it's the first century, a barn or grain silo is the asset mentioned. WHAT HAPPENS THE MOMENT HE DECIDES HE SHOULD PAMPER HIMSELF MORE?

He gets killed! What about the rich man and Lazarus? Lk. 16:19-31 God Himself teaches ANY and all who read, Lazarus had his share of bad things in this life, destitute poor, but the rich guy had all he would ever get. God's justice would see to that!

And what was the moral of that story? LIFE DOES NOT CONSIST OF WHAT A MAN HAS! Is that the sermons you hear in America, or are they mainly: It's not a sin to be rich; many people were rich in the Bible.

And is that claim true? MOST of the rich people in the Bible didn't nearly have what many today possess, by comparison! King Solomon is one of the FEW, one of the richest of his day, and even he concluded it was ALL futility, and man must conclude life is all about obeying God's commands. Ecc. 12:13-14

He had chased everything under the sun! Ecc. 1-3. And IF being rich is never a sin, HOW is it that satan offered Jesus all the world's kingdoms if he would bow down to him? Can't we conclude satan has the power to make people rich, in this world he is the little "g" god of, just as God can do that, also? Pv. 10:22

IF being rich can't be a sin, what is worldliness? James 4 decries a church bent on pampering themselves. Pampers cost money, just as luxuries do! I John 2 TELLS us what worldliness IS: The lust of the flesh (sex), eyes (possessions), and the often associated pride of life that comes with those worldly "achievements." Trophy wife, he with the most toys wins, and all the other BS Capitalism preaches to carnal Christians!

Look at I Tim. 6. The love (NOT like) of money is the root of all sorts of evil. Look at our newspapers. How often do people murder over drug deals gone bad, or Bernie Madoff, or scams and hackers and group thievery rings, or defrauding car dealerships the U.S. government just forced NOT to tack on charges for BOGUS services, @grubbsautogroup.

MANY crimes occur from greedy people, who suffer the love of money. I have YET to meet a rich person who believed they were greedy. Their tax records would prove otherwise!

Average Joes donate 3%, and the American rich, who ALONE have excess, average 2%! LOOK at the heroes of yesteryear, who once they climbed the finance mountain, gave back billions, in obedience to I Tim. 6:17-17's command ONLY given to rich people—NOT the poor or middle class, though ALL are to give generously to God. Vanderbilt, Rockefeller, Carnegie:

Warren Buffett and Bill Gates are my two greatest economic heroes of this century. Vanderbilt, Rockefeller, Carnegie of the last (and Howard Hughes). (3/24/2015)

Carnegie, Edison, Vanderbilt, Rockefeller, Ford, JP Morgan, Howard Hughes, Tesla, Charles Schwab; American heroes that made our nation GREAT! America #1! (5/31/2015)

Carnegie, $7.2 billion; J. Rockefeller, $7.1 billion; J. Rockefeller, Jr., $5.5 billion. This aspect of wealth is NOT being emulated nearly as much as N days gone by, and will lead to people hating the rich even more–NOT from jealousy but necessity for sustainable income–revolts and riots. (12/27/2019)

Look at Rev. 3. A church believed they were God-blessed, rich and in need of nothing, BECAUSE they had donations beyond their budgetary needs. WHAT DID JESUS SAY TO THEM?

You say, 'I am rich; I have acquired wealth and do not need a thing.' But you do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked.' The Bible calls that the deceitfulness of riches!

Mk. 4:19 WHAT ELSE DOES THE BIBLE, OR GOD WHO WROTE IT, say about riches not ever being a sin? Ever read of the Jewish leaders, who were lovers of money? That's NOT listed as a compliment, but a criticism!

Lk. 16:14-15 WHAT political faction ALWAYS caters to, praises, sucks up to and seeks government policies to unbiblically favor the rich? The far right, which is often anti-Christ! Levit. 19:15 WHO did Jesus issues woes to? Hypocrites and rich people!

Lk. 6:24

What group poo poos the Giving Pledge the MOST, even though tax collector turned straight promised to give back up to half of all he possessed? Lk. 19:8-10. The political far right, which NO Christian can be 100% involved with, as bad company corrupts good morals! I Cor. 15:33

WHAT ABOUT Pv. 23:4-5? DO we obey these two verses, in America and U.S.Christianity? WHAT group of U.S. citizens has the LEAST chance of going to heaven, according to Mt. 19:24? The rich. Yet WE, unbiblically, label them winners and heroes! The more the merrier!

Josh. 1:8 DEFINES success, and anyone and everyone who does NOT do what it prescribes is NOT experiencing God's definition of success! In fact, my names sake book, James, SAYS the poor of this world were made to be rich in faith.

It agrees with Mt. 19:24 that the rich are NOT prone to faith, as their faith is in their fortress of wealth, and pride in such accomplishments often disallows a person to humbly trust Jesus for salvation! Pv. 10:15 Child-like, humble faith as a mustard seed. Mt. 18:3-5.

And finally, that SAME book SAYS the poor have a HIGH status with God, while the rich are to intentionally glory in their LOW position, because no one can take wealth with them, and you come into this world with nothing, just as you leave it! Jas. 1:10; I Tim. 6:7

And ALL verses condemning greed have ZERO merit, if being rich is always morally OK, so it's impossible for any rich to have gotten so greedily, or with God as a lower priority, or used their wealth in selfish, hoarding or greedy ways!

The conclusion any honest reader of the Bible MUST come to is that to preach 'it's OK to be rich' is NOT a statement that fully teaches God's whole counsel, which is His standard!

61. CIVICS (NOT THE HONDA TYPE)

(12/4/23; @JamesMeroney)

THIS is valuable to me... America doesn't want a police state, and taxpayers don't want to pay more for more cops to enforce, but we all want less crimes like murder, rape, incest, spouse abuse, theft and armed robbery, scams and hackers, abductions, arsonists, terrorists, mass and school shooters.

HOW can you pull off that hat trick? More moral citizens! Anger management, civics ethics curricula in schools, self-control exercises, church attending, bible reading, getting saved, more citizens reporting suspicious activity, prayer for revival, politicians behaving as leaders, laws!

The tax-paying, law-abiding citizen has EVERY reason to complain that government spends OUR dollars sent to the D.C. Treasury, to combat crimes and problems we don't have, and/or can pay to fix ourselves! THIS is an injustice! Make them pay "society" back, besides just jail time! Money!

Update #1

(12/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

Laws are what governments want citizens to do, or not do, but absent enforcement, they never all fully do, and technology can cause them to do more. Government can't change the human heart. Ex: Murder is illegal, yet it occurs, every day!

Especially in our less churches society and with fatherless homes, I believe anger management, stress relief technique and ethics classes in schools could positively impact how Americans behave. Never so much as to fix the human heart, but a Band-Aid. Even Christians sin! Everything helps.

Update #2: Civics Curriculum

(12/19/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF I were tasked with coming up with a grade K-12 ethics curriculum, I would give examples, role play, and show videos, like a Defensive Driving course, but THESE would be the main lessons. I believe THIS is needed privately and publicly, in American education, as with motivation(s)!

Don't be a bully, and never be violent. Be nice. There's no good reason to be mean. Don't be arrogant or boastful. Try to be humble. Don't steal. You wouldn't want to be stolen from. Think of others, not just yourself; they have value, too. Be honest, but also wise; don't share confidences with others. Be accurate, and know what's true. Don't lie, or fall for lies. Work hard. Don't expect life to be easy. Make life good for you. Do these things, whether anyone or everyone does or doesn't join you!

62. BUSINESS

(12/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

IF CEOs, executives and management monitored, controlled and supervised excellent execution of the matrixes, along with financial ratios we know from business school, businesses could hardly fail!

Prioritize, then produce excellent results! #CommonSense Business 101 Harder to do than say

Advertising; Automation; Cash flow & payroll; Competitor analysis & industry trends; Cost savings; Customer experience; Diversification & Plan B; Employee motivation; Equipment & plants/buildings; Financing or going public; Fun & fulfilling work environment; Globalization & outsourcing; Growth potential & new markets; HR & recruiting; Image, motto, corporate culture & creed; Industry disruption; Innovation; Inventory management; Investments & war chests; Location, location, location; Management skills; New products & uses; Perks & bonus/incentive programs; Productivity increases; Stock price improvement; Strategy; Supply change value; Website & social media/online presence; Work at home vs office/telecommuting; Etc.

Update #1

(12/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

You get the MOST productivity from workers when pay increases with increased productivity, they get breathers/breaks, the environment is fun to work at, the peers are decent people, they get recognized for positive achievements, and they're safe and cared for by management! In Americas interest!

Incentivize the hardest and most productive and accurate workers. Pay should NOT be the same, as efforts are rarely exactly the same! IF windfall payoffs are available (bonuses) for exceptional work, or short-term heavy exertion, that helps employees and retention and profits. Incentivize.

NO business I know of has EVER taken my advice for investing in psychological motivation analysis. In my opinion, that's STUPID! At least for your best employees, managers need to know what motivates people, individually! Money is mine. Some like recognition. We're all unique! NOT cookie cutter!

In my opinion, if one employee works best from home, and another works best at the office, ALLOW BOTH for both types! Businesses are OFTEN guilty of pigeon-holing everyone into one mold! That's DUMB business! Learn to maximize productivity in ways that don't turn away but energize individuals! DUH

Managers have to balance 'when the cats away the mice will play' with BIG Brother concerns. The 'if you want something done right, do it yourself' phenomena would have employers never hire anyone. Businesses NEED qualified candidates needing NO hand holding! America must have training.

CEOs and executives NEED the same accountability and competition as any other type of worker! I would do any CEO's job for 1/2 to 1/4th the pay, only for one year, until I knew all they did, then might demand even higher than they get, as results determine qualification for pay!

I have a chart for executives to checklist off matrix's they must have tight control of, for any business to retain its success (above).

Update #2

(12/21/23; @JamesMeroney)

For many businesses, increasing profits come from taking market share, as market expansion is saturated. They can experiment in lower or higher prices, do something different from competitors, imitate their success, or increase productivity and cut costs. Hard work/job of CEOs!

Increasing profits can come by customer loyalty programs, new promotions/incentives, offering a better deal than your competitors, finding new markets (growing communities), new products or new product uses. Fighting fires/problem-solving can take time away from such pursuits.

63. WHY BE GOOD?

(12/16/23; @JamesMeroney)

Why so much evil in our world, and D.C.? Man's hearts are corrupt. Born that way, but flaunting it since 2016. Sin will be increased. Salvation is the answer, but NOT it alone. Followed by discipleship. Civics courses on ethics, and laws, as government doesn't engage those two activities! Rom. 13

The Bible TEACHES don't be overly-righteous, but also be perfect, as your Father in heaven is. Is that a contradiction? NO. 'Perfect' means mature, morally, from the Greek. NOT moral perfection. It's the aim, but never achieved in this life! Many aren't even trying, calling that 'freedom.'

Why would a non-Christian make moral choices, if they never earn them heaven?

1. Less culpability on Judgment Day
2. Less trials in this life
3. Reputation among men
4. Obeying God; Ecc. 12:13-14
5. Not targeted by people who hate them
6. Clear conscience/peace
7. Broken laws have consequences

Update

(12/22/23; @JamesMeroney)

WHY SHOULD NON-CHRISTIANS BEHAVE MORALLY, according to the Bible?

1. Sin is a passing vs. lasting pleasure. Heb. 11:25
2. There will be troubles on everyone who does evil! Rom. 2:9
3. For a long, peaceful life. I Pet. 3:10
4. Basing your life on the Bible keeps you from devastation, when disasters and trials come. Mt. 7:24-29
5. It's your duty, before God. Ecc. 12:12-13
6. There's value (and peace) in a clear conscience. I Tim. 1:19
7. Rewards in this life. Mt. 5:1-12
8. To have NO fear of government. Rom. 13:3
9. A good reputation is more valuable than being rich. Pv. 22:1
10. Others would be more inclined to treat you right, when you treat them right, vs. wrongly. Common sense.

WHY people choose to do wrong:

1. Lie, cheat and steal, to get ahead/make more money, the LAZY, sin-full way
2. Belief that if I don't, my competitors will, and morality will put me at a disadvantage
3. Belief it's OK if you don't get caught; no one (like God) is looking
4. Pure wanting to/desire
5. Consequences don't hurt you soon enough. Ecc. 8:11
6. Raised wrong. Pv. 22:6

7. Hanging with wrong crowd/peer pressure. I Cor. 15:33
8. No fear of God, or Judgment Day. Judg. 17:6
9. Self-centered. OPPOSITE denying self, or obeying Phil. 2:1-8. Sin nature's default decision.
10. Ultimately, an evil heart! Lk. 6:45 This is NOT goody-two-shoes, no fun moralism! Ecc. 7:16

64. WAGES FOR YOUTH

(12/24/23; @JamesMeroney)

INTERESTING value perspective, BUT we don't tax people on their net worth's (until they die, or invest it), but their INCOMES!!!

If you're a living human, you HAVE to like some of the sentiment of this meme! But, you also have to analyze its practicality! DO you, when you pay a babysitter, dog walker or lawn boy, consider if he can pay all his bills by what you're paying? NO! Neither should business have such concern!

The poor, and young folk just starting out, RIGHTLY wonder how they'll make it in the real world, especially with inflation! HERE is the battle of the ages that MUST be actively engaged by labor, and WILL always be engaged by business.

You KNOW business will ALWAYS fight minimum wage increases, and fight to use the least labor for the least cost, be FOR illegal immigrants (as they're used to lower wages), be FOR too many people in America (so demand for jobs INcrease, lessening wages), be FOR automating as many jobs as technologically possible, and do everything in their control to profit MORE. That's their stated purpose!

So HOW do workers fight back, with government as referee, because you KNOW business is ALWAYS a fight for YOUR money—spent or earned?

1. Oppose all immigration but what our economy NEEDS!
2. Vote FOR minimum wage increases, as that changes the base upon which all wages start. BUT, that will also LESSEN as many jobs as business can drop, because they have to compensate for the lost profit going to increased wages. More unemployment!
3. Unionize! Management holds ALL the leverage/cards, when workers do not know EVERYONE'S wage, people negotiate individually, or business has zero pressure to increase wages. If they fear their production will stop or slow down, without skilled replacements easily found, they'll listen (like Airlines and Hollywood recently did).

Inflation is REAL. Businesses OFTEN just KEEP raised prices; not lowering them when inflation is put in check! YOUR income has to rise, or you are LOSING!

4. Get better job skills
5. Learn how to live on what you make

6. Move to states where wages for YOUR skills are higher (IF costs of living aren't higher).
7. Work a second job, or overtime
8. Start a business I am ALL FOR employees getting as much pay as humanly possible, but I am also for business making as much profit as is morally achievable. It's a battle; a give and take. BOTH sides HAVE to be engaged. One side always will be!: Business!

P.S.: DO NOT look to business or government as your daddy! Look to yourself! How can YOU make it, well, in this world? What gifts has God uniquely provided you, to make your living off of? Mine is NOT sales, but I sell, for awhile. I believe in Pv. 18:16-17 Find your skills!

Max Lucado said you find God's will for your career at the intersection of what you're passionate about, and what others tell you they want to see you do more of. A "living wage" has to be defined! Everyone has standards that vary.

Businesses doesn't owe you more than the market says your talents are worth! If I pay a lawn man $150 for a $30 job, that's my (dumb) choice! If NO lawn man will do my yard for $15, I can't PAY $15 TO GET MY YARD MOWED! If there aren't enough lawn mowers, I'll have to pay more, or do it myself. Biz hires people they have to have; they're NOT a charity.

If YOU owned a business, you would NOT pay employees more than any competitor was willing to pay them, excepting bonuses or higher wages for exceptional talent, in quality or speed, or both! QUIT acting like business owners are any different from you, though richer!

Do what makes them profitable, and you'll always have a job! Do an exceptional job, and you'll always have higher wages! This isn't old people oppressing the youth! ALL old people had to go through exactly what you're going through! I'm teaching you how to go through it more smoothly! Spend as little as required!

And IF you're inclined to vote FOR illegal immigration, and rant about racism for all who oppose open borders, because you want enough votes to instill Socialism (freebies for you, from government), REALIZE opponents will move their businesses, layoff, automate, outsource, and other counter moves!

IF U.S. employees 'wanna be paid wages they can live on, they HAVE to oppose illegal immigration! It doesn't take two brain cells to know, the more bodies clamor for fewer jobs, wages for ALL drop! You'd pay babysitters pennies, if thousands of people wanted to care for your child! DUH.

Businesses do NOT voluntarily over-pay, EXCEPT the FEW owned by liberals! It's ILLEGAL to collude, but employers know going rate! Many ways to learn what competitors are paying. Workers HAVE to disrupt that flow of information, to force better conditions and pay! don't just work your jobs!

A hamburger flipper will NEVER make great wages, unless he becomes manager or works overtime. A physician will usually make good pay. LEARN TO AIM AT GOOD-PAYING JOBS! When youth insist on high wages for entry level skills, Five Guys meals cost consumers $45+! It's common sense!

YOUTH (and poor Americans): READ THIS LIST, so you can get skills for good paying jobs! don't just do what your friends or parents did. THINK. Know. Be well-informed! careeronestop.org

If everyone doesn't already know, the book, "Rich Dad, Poor Dad" posits four levels of income states:

1. Employee
2. Manager

3. Owner
4. Investor

Youth have to move up the ladder by EARNING it, like everyone else had to. Move as fast as possible! That's on YOU!; NOT your managers!

If you are stupid enough to vote for $25/hour minimum wage, even if illegals could vote with you, you couldn't afford anything you buy! And most youth would be unemployed, as business won't hire as many laborers. Inflation would go through the roof. Same with voting for government freebies!

WHAT would Socialism opponents do if illegals could vote, and Dems instituted Socialism?

1. Secede
2. Move away
3. Civil War
4. Not hire; fire and layoff
5. Invest outside America
6. Hide assets from taxation
7. Only hire like-minded anti-Socialist Americans! You get what you pay for!
8. Hyper nepotism! ONLY hire friends and family
9. Jack up prices for everything, as non-Socialists can afford it!
10. Immigrate in smart and affluent people, to counter Dem votes illegally breaking in.

If you're a young person, you ESPECIALLY should care that inflation gets lowered, because your hard-earned dollars buy less/are worth less! You don't need an economics course to understand that excessive government spending causes much inflation, so you should oppose that! Many don't.

65. OPEN BORDERS ARE OPEN-MINDED BRAINS FALLING OUT!

(12/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

For the life of me I CAN'T understand how ANY person thinks our border crisis can be GOOD for America! They are NOT highly educated, DON'T speak English, are mainly poor, we DON'T have an excess of housing, they DON'T have jobs and are breaking our laws! Deport ALL in the past 4-5 years!

They are ALL certain Democrat/Socialist voters, if they became citizens. NO ONE gives away the farm in any arena of life! It's intentional that they're usually NOT white, or from Europe, and Democrats have PLANNED to use the scare tactic of profiling to make it work!

To deport, profiling WILL occur, as we can see they aren't Asian, Indian or white, and rarely even black! Sorry; REAL American Latinos will be briefly interrupted, but illegality is a crime that has to be enforced! ALL of them can apply, LEGALLY!

And fake birth certificate markets will arise! It's a criminal enterprise, and this one issue will likely win the election, for whoever wins! ZERO tolerance. Deport everyone in the last 4-5 years, until they can come legally, have a job that needs their skills, and expedite that process, and make it cheaper for those our economy needs. NO MORE anchor baby ABUSE of our laws!

People who are refugees, we're sorry YOUR country is so bad off, but we have processes, and you WILL follow them! NO OTHER NATION allows people to flood and flaunt their borders and laws! 4-5 years back deportation of ALL! Zero slip through the cracks. Come back when you can come LEGALLY!

NO ONE is considering the damage to our environment (pollution), traffic, housing and job shortages/strains, and how Socialism will be instituted to ROB AND STEAL real Americans' assets. And the costs to have them here, jobless and homeless--taxpayers foot those bills. ZERO TOLERANCE. There is no room in the inn, for now.

It's asinine, backwards, the R word, insane, ridiculous, foolish, dumb, bass ackwards, maniacal, irrational, not thought out, unwise, terrible, as assault and an invasion, and I DON'T CARE if every one of them are law-abiding NON- criminals having NO Fentanyl! They are law-breakers!

IF any are curious HOW zero tolerance admittance of ANY illegal trespasser would be enforced, I've written many ways, many times. Deportation has to be first! They MAY get re-entry within a week, IF they were qualified, but broke in anyway! The delay doesn't have to take years!

BUT, they owe fees, identification papers, have a job secured, and lodging, the financial ability to fund the move 100% themselves, and they CAN'T access OUR safety net for five years, minimum. Path to citizenship for all who AREN'T illegal (and pay back taxes).

If ANYONE is concerned you can't 100% control the U.S. borders, let me PROVE to you that you are wrong, and I'm not speaking of killing law breakers, or inhumane stopping, though rubber bullets to legs are NOT out of the question! WE control OUR country. Every other nation does the same! This WILL change, instantly!

I have ZERO problem with Latinos/Hispanics! Period. Any other group or race, as well. But this border crisis is purposely "unequal," yet liberals LOVE it. Equality ONLY is important to them when Socialist voters might beef up their voting numbers!

Come from a poor country, you're USED to a standard of living you can only DREAM of living in America, and liberals are giving it away, for free? NO nice neighborhood allows homeless tent camps. NO country club allows beggars on their premises. NO ONE coming here, illegally, to speak of is, USED to our standard of living, which is WHY THEY'RE COMING!

It's like a fire sale for a gated community, except there's NO cost—not even a mark-down! It's absolutely asinine, and I will NOT allow the damage to go un-done. We HAVE to go BACK to when Biden won the election date, and EVERYONE who entered thereafter, who wasn't legal, re-apply, and leave, for now!

And U.S. immigration HAS to be, thereafter, more proportional as to poor vs rich, "brown" vs. all other colors, educated vs. less so, Dem- vs. GOP-leaning, and they MUST have jobs and housing secured, or NO ENTRY! WE WANT people businesses NEED for open positions! Come legally, or NO ENTRY!

DEMOCRATS WANT VOTERS. Illegal immigration is how they plan to make America Socialist. Liberals HATE a white majority, and La Raza is now open borders strategy! TRUTH! Taxpayers: Guard your wallets with your guns! It's THAT bad!

WE have already seen Joe Biden promote "free" daycare, healthcare, student loan forgiveness, college, home down payment. Democrats WANT illegals to vote and get drivers licenses, and become citizens IF they do some time in our military. It's ALL for freebies paid for only by taxpayers!

And MANY globalist-minded people, the world over, envy and hate America's greatness and economic prowess, and open borders and sanctuary cities of poor and less educated NON-English speakers is exactly how they can harm our greatness, to make us more like every other moderately-successful nation!

EVERY LAST ONE of these law-breakers MIGHT qualify to be here, and become citizens! We simply DO NOT KNOW, so they're illegally forcing the issue, ever so peacefully breaking OUR laws. I have NO right to enter my neighbor's house, absent an invitation! They don't, either, to OUR home!

Whoever is President in 2024 ought to consider taxpayer-funded sending of all criminals and any willing poor or uneducated Americans to the countries where these law-breaking "illegals" are coming from! Let their government pay the price we are having to pay for their own citizens!

Law and order; it's THAT simple! America has laws, and any and all that are well thought out MUST be enforced! NO country allows anyone and everyone to illegally break in! We are going back to status quo Nov. 3, 2020, as to who can't remain here, until they come legally! Profiling is unavoidable.

Update

(12/30/23; @JamesMeroney)

MANY races and nationalities built America! BUT, by percent, the overwhelming majority of her greatest achievements happened to have been done by white Americans. This is controversial to say, but nevertheless TRUE! It's even called racist or supremacist. It's NOT. It's a historical fact.

MANY races and nationalities built America! BUT, by percent, the overwhelming majority of her greatest achievements happened to have been done by white Americans. This is controversial to say, but nevertheless TRUE! It's even called racist or supremacist. It's NOT. It's a historical fact.

How the racial diversity of America has changed since her inception (percentage-wise):

en.wikipedia.org

Historical racial and ethnic demographics of the United States - Wikipedia

A local NBC report mentioned three other ethnic groups that have illegally violated OUR borders in the past five years. I wouldn't care if whites (or albinos) from Europe illegally broke in--they ALL must be deported, until they can come LEGALLY! It's NOT about race, but laws, rights and national sovereignty!

66. UNIFYING EVENTS

(12/31/23; @JamesMeroney)

For more unity in the body of Christ, WHY COULDN'T WE have a U.S.-wide holy Woodstock that livestreams (and for sale highlight videos, after the event), of all the major great Christian artists singing one best and famous hit of theirs? Franklin Graham and Greg Laurie would speak (evangelism), open air and on TV!

For more unity in America, WHY COULDN'T WE have a U.S.-wide clean, secular Woodstock that livestreams (and for sale highlight videos, after the event), of all the major great rock artists singing 1 best and famous hit of theirs?

For advancing U.S. innovation, WHY COULDN'T WE have an Innovation Consortium, in America, of all the latest and greatest products, that livestreams (and for sale highlight videos, after the event), to inspire new Edisons, and spring boarding future products, showcasing U.S. businesses, for boosting our economy?

For advancing global goodwill, WHY COULDN'T America showcase all world products that advance all peoples' health, livelihood, jobs, safety, and protection from weather and disease disasters? North Korea likes to show off their military. Let's show off man's greatest assets for mankind's BENEFIT!

The world USED to have World's Fairs, and homes of the future. We're more mature than to need Six Flags on steroids fun rides, but an adult World's Fair of our greatest products, for profit and for advancing mankind's betterment! Homes of the future, and their products, could be part of it!

We should have a U.S.-based one-time World's fair could center innovation here. I have 4500+ products, seeking investors. Email if interested, @WarrenBuffett. (1/23/15)

I've said before, need to resurrect the World's Fair, showcasing the home of the future with world-class gadgets EVERYWHERE! I asked Trump to host it (by tweet).

Live-streaming webinars could showcase Shark Tank products at one-time U.S.-based World's Fair. Interested in investing in my 4,500+ products? @MCuban (1/23/15)

Why should I pay electricity when lights are left on? Sensors and computers should know when anyone left them on, and shut them off! Houses of the future used to be a public event. Not so much, now days. Edison showcased at the World's Fair, if I recall. We need more such displays of our inventions! #Dream (1/17/18)

I have been posting the BEST rock songs per group (sometimes multiples per group). JUST LIKE another World's Fair inspired innovation and unity, if a live three-hour TV show hosted the classics, I GUARANTEE you an audience you can hardly believe! (5/3/20)

67. IF I WERE PRESIDENT (FOR A DAY?)

(12/27/23; @JamesMeroney)

THIS is going to be the MOST random list, ever found!

IF I WERE PRESIDENT:

1. American education would become world-class, for every student
2. Kids tending to do poorly or drop out would get special help to ensure success
3. EVERYONE would pay their fair share of taxes including businesses and the rich. The destitute poor would do civic service, vs. spend money they can't cough up, IF THEY PREFER
4. NO ONE would enter America illegally
5. Oil drilling would occur safely, and massively
6. NO male would be allowed in any female bathroom or locker room
7. Ukraine would win
8. Israel would rout Hamas, and institute a two-state solution that kept them 100% safe
9. NO politician would be allowed to insider trade!
10. Bribes of politicians would be exposed, outlawed, and forced to be publicly revealed
11. ALL people our economy needs could come here
12. We would aspire to have the best economy in the world, including being the innovation center of the world
13. Our military would be #1, but best bang for the buck, and least harm or death to soldiers!

14. NATO would be expanded, but every member would pay their fair share
15. America would economically ally with MANY nations, but NOT unilaterally aid countries, with less benefit to us than them!
16. English would be taught to every immigrant, as well as a civics and U.S. history overview, so they're enculturated to our values, while free to bring their best from the old country
17. Taxes would be as low as possible
18. The federal government would be professionally streamlined
19. Climate change would be addressed privately, with technology that U.S. public policy would encourage
20. Crime would be handled in a no-nonsense way. No murders, rapes or armed robberies as goal one
21. NO child could play sports in a gender league they weren't birthed into
22. NO child could medically disfigure their genitalia, before age 18. Psychological counseling and psychotropic drugs would have to get them comfortably to that age of consent/majority
23. Drug cartels would be minimized, and rendered ineffective
24. Reparations would never be federal policy, not any handouts. ANY temporary help from government would be justly repaid
25. Wages would always be fair, by law!
26. Tax law would NOT favor the rich or the poor
27. American children would be skilled for employment, when they graduated!
28. The Supreme Court would have three liberals, three conservatives and three moderates, or four liberals, four conservatives, and one moderate--ONLY. NO other configurations would be tolerated!
29. China would be fairly, honestly and win-win worked with, economically
30. Sex trafficking would be FULLY attacked within our borders (and beyond)
31. NO murderer would be allowed to escape to any country lacking an extradition treaty with America
32. Tax cheats would all get caught and would be appropriately punished
33. Identity thief, hackers and scammers would be caught, and severely punished. Zero tolerance!
34. America would have a population size that didn't unfairly benefit business or labor, through legal immigration
35. ALL terrorists attacking Americans, anywhere, would be dealt with (meaning vaporized or otherwise vanquished)
36. Mass shooters would face technology that disables their weapons, and any caught would get publicly hanged, or LEGALLY tortured (i.e., water-boarded)
37. Public schools would be made 100% safe from gunmen

I have several "edicts" chapters that expand this wish list. You have to have the means to get these laws passed and implemented. We have written the answers! #2024

68. BILLY GRAHAM-ISMS

Bible

The main 'food' God has given to strengthen us is the Bible, the Word of God.

Discipleship

If [Christian leaders] do not teach Christian principles to all followers of Christ, we are not equipping them with God's truth that will overcome worldly influence.

Lordship

God does not want an apartment in our house. He claims our entire home from attic to cellar.

Money

I would not change places with the wealthiest and most influential person in the world. I would rather be a child of the King, a joint-heir with Christ, a member of the Royal Family of Heaven!

Part of our problem with debt is that we have confused needs with wants. Yesterday's luxuries are today's necessities.

Men and women who give [Christ] first place find that there is no need for anxiety about this world's goods.

Sanctification

If you belong to Jesus Christ, you are called to live a life of purity and holiness. God wants your mind to be shaped by Him so that your thoughts and goals reflect Christ.

Learn to keep close to [Jesus], to listen to His voice, and follow Him.

'Being' is far more important than 'doing.' When we are what we should be inside, we will bring forth fruit.

Your yearning for God must supersede all other desires. It must be like a gnawing hunger and a burning thirst.

Make it your goal to become more like Christ by refusing to let sin have its way, and pursuing instead that which is pure and good in the sight of God.

Sin

The cross shows the seriousness of our sin—but it also shows the immeasurable love of God.

Repent when you fail, and immediately seek God's forgiveness and restoration. Sin breaks our fellowship with God.

Social Action

The church should be setting the pace. The church should be taking its proper place of leadership in the nation ... God help the church to wake up!

Victory

We must learn to live triumphantly amid the traumas and pressures we face daily.

PERSONAL

(7/7/23; @JamesMeroney)

What 50 pounds lost in four months looks like. I see it in my face, if not yet as much in my gut.

It's OFFICIAL: I'm sixth generation Texan (via the Texas Old 300 "Cattle King," Samuel Allen, on my dad's side, and via James Butler Bonham, on my mom's side)! Rebecca Jane Thomas' dad (Ezekiel) was one of the Old 300 who founded Stephen F. Austin's colony. She married Samuel W. Allen in 1846, my dad's great great grandfather. THANKS to my dad for this clarification! (6/30/23)

And my mom's grandmother (Carolyn Elizabeth McConnico) was the great granddaughter of the James Bonham, of Texas lore and history! (or, more likely, one of his siblings, especially a brother).

Singing the Beatles at a Baylor Chapel at Homecoming. (11/4/18)

[My son's post:] Still has it in him! @jamesmeroney2 (7/8/22)

Testimony

(11/18/23; @JamesMeroney)

In my early 20's, I was suicidally/clinically depressed, and sometimes manic. In that condition I said two UN-true statements on both polar extremes. I'm SURE enemies will bring them up, and I have dirt on them, too, but my words were under SEVERE mental anguish, and UNtrue. Theirs WEREN'T!

I prefer no campaign TV ad mentioning my one science-defying experience, Fall of 1981, as I had nothing to do with it, so it's not a feather in my cap. I WILL take 3-10 independent, professional polygraphs! Instant teleportation from Hillsboro to Austin, TX, in a Cutlass Calais car.

The AMAZING thing about those two experiences is that the insta-travel God has shown me was to say to me, 'politics, not pastoring,' and the statements kept people close to me NOT interfering with my time writing (though many opposed), as it lasted ~23 years! They didn't interfere! The job got DONE!

MORE Predictions (fulfilled)

(6/8/23; @JamesMeroney)

It's WAY too late for me to jump on the Vegas Hockey bandwagon HERE, but my family knows how long I've said they are great, and should win it all. I only make claims I can prove, on Twitter, but anyone could ask them! It started in the Stars series. I KNEW they'd win, early on! #NHL champs!

Vegas: NHL champs!!! (6/13/23)

Denver for the championship!!! (6/13/23)

GO Celtics! I LOVE underdog comeback stories. I'm for Denver for the championship! Dallas Stars can win or lose and I'll be content, as they BLEW the start (first three games), so there's no overcoming that, even if they could win tonight. They brought their own demise, this season, IMO. (5/29/23)

#SBC23 I have EVERY confidence my lifelong denomination will do the right thing, and prohibit females preaching as pastors over adult males, yet reaffirm the value and usefulness of women in ministry, in all the other many ways God utilizes them!!! (6/14/23)

THIS is
(NO 'formerly known as' bird poop!)
[At least until November 5, 2024]

Riddle me this: Christians are to deem others more important than themselves, and support righteousness. How is forcing their desire for the Bible in public schools caring for anyone else, who rightly don't want one religion exalted, contrary to the Constitution? (1/25/24)
